Here is the 1974 edition of our Conference Photo Section. THANK YOU to everyone of you who helped make this picture section possible.

I know you will find this picture directory to be of immediate, historic, and sentimental value to you.

It is the most complete picture directory possible, at this time. Included are the photos of:

—ALL Active Ministers
—ALL Retired Ministers (including 3 retired Bishops)
—ALL Full Time Lay Pastors
—Most Student Supply Pastors
—ALL Consecrated Lay Workers
—ALL Active Deaconesses
—Most Retired Deaconesses
—Our Presiding Bishop is also pictured at the front of the JOURNAL.

Again, Thank You for all your help in this project.

DAILY PROCEEDINGS IN CONFERENCE SESSIONS
May 26-29, 1974

Sunday, May 26, 1974
FIRST DAY—FIRST SESSION

The Annual Session of the North Texas Conference was called to order by Bishop W. McFerrin Stowe at 4:00 p. m., Sunday, May 26, 1974, at First United Methodist Church, Dallas, Texas. Bishop Stowe stated that there are three basic purposes for an Annual Conference: (1) to hear a report of the year past, an account of our stewardship; (2) a responsibility concerning its ministers: receptions, ordination, appointments, retirement, memorials; (3) plan and project the future. At this conference, Bishop Stowe stated, we will review and plan our future, those things that want to do and should do. He then asked the conference members to sing "And Are We Yet Alive," then led in prayer.

Bill Morgan Smith was recognized for roll call. He expressed appreciation to the members of the Agenda Committee, under the guidance of Zan Holmes, Jr., and then moved that the conference approve the suggestions that have been made by the Committee on Agenda, and that our agenda for the conference will run in line with the report of the Committee on Agenda. Bishop Stowe stated that this needed no second, coming from a Conference body, and it was approved. The agenda committee's report would become the road map for the conference.

The following were nominated as assistants to the secretary: James Garrett, Michael Haynes, Albert S. Pitts, and Ira Thompson. They were elected.

The following tellers were nominated:
Dallas Central: Raymond Butts, S. V. McCarley
Dallas Denton: John Peel, C. Hal Jones
Dallas Northeast: John Elliott, Nathan White, Jr.
Dallas South: Jimmie H. Mobley, Jr., Elmer Washington
Paris-Sulphur Springs: Charles O. Espie, Hubert Shields
Sherman-McKinney: Charles Cryan, Keith Bearden
Wichita Falls: Homer Caldwell, Wade Bond
These were elected.

The tellers were then asked to come forward and assist in taking the roll call. The secretary took the roll call, and recommended that the cards be used rather than calling the roll.

Bishop Stowe announced that there would be about 100 new lay members of the Annual Conference at this session. The Committee on Equalization was called for a report. Noel Bryant gave the report, and moved that the statement in the packet be approved. It was done. (Report "A")

The secretary stated that the standing rules calls for each ministerial member of the conference to have in the files of the secretary of the conference a personnel sheet, with data about the minister, the ordination, etc. Those who have not done this were requested to see the secretary during the conference and supply this information.

Bishop Stowe called on Jack Gibson, chairman of the Council on Professional Ministries, for the report from the Council. Gibson reported on the progress that has been made in the Council during the past three years. Some of the programs: the Bishop's conference on the ministry; the 4R's Retreat, etc. This report was given in three sections.

The report of the Board of Professional Personnel was given by James Palmer, chairman. Copies of the Texas Methodist were distributed which had a short biographical sketch, and a photograph, of those being considered for orders, etc. He then stated that a policy was being established: that all candidates for election to orders will be interviewed in the year following their year of completing their requirements for those orders. The year of probationary membership will precede the interview, and the interview will not be conducted during this year.

Don Shaw presented the report from the Preparations and Qualifications Committee. He listed the following candidates for probationary membership, and stated that only the ministerial members, who are ordained, may vote.

Voted: to approve probationary membership in the Annual Conference to Christian D. Admundsen Voted: to approve probationary membership in the Annual Conference to Karis S. Fadely
Voted: to approve probationary membership in the Annual Conference to George Fisk
Voted: to approve probationary membership in the Annual Conference to Paul Quillian Goodrich
Voted: to approve probationary membership in the Annual Conference to Walter Ross Purkey
Voted: to approve probationary membership in the Annual Conference to Johnny Ray Irish Voted: to approve probationary membership in the Annual Conference to Billy Mack Shaddox
Voted: to approve probationary membership in the Annual Conference to Gary Allen Smith
Voted: to approve probationary membership in the Annual Conference to J. Allison Snyder, II
Voted: to approve probationary membership in the Annual Conference to Philip Sidney Spain
Voted: to approve probationary membership in the Annual Conference to Elizabeth Alden Turecky

Don Shaw presented the candidates for full connection, and candidates for associate membership. Bishop Stowe asked the historical Disciplinary questions, and received the required answers.

Voted: to elect Aaron Don Black to full connection.
Voted: to elect Richard Lee Cromwell to full connection
Voted: to elect Wilma Roberts Corse to full connection
Voted: to elect Frederick Leighton Durham, Jr., to full connection
Voted: to elect Dwight Henry Judy to full connection
Voted: to elect Walker Lee Railey to full connection
Voted: to elect Roy Clifford Ricker, II, to full connection
Voted: to elect Mario Ruggia to full connection
Voted: to elect Ronald Lee Underwood to full connection
Voted: to elect Paul William Widicus to full connection
Voted: to elect Daniel Webster Williams to full connection
Voted: to elect Fred Avon Winslow to full connection
Voted: to elect Bobby B. Bryan to associate membership in the Annual Conference Voted: to elect Eldon M. Chester to associate membership in the Annual Conference.

All other probationers, with the exception of George Bond and Carol Fellows, were recommended to be continued. (See List Following Cronological Roll)

David Shawver, chairman of the Division of Conference Relations, gave the report of that division. Those being recommended to the supernumerary connection are Thomas J. Smith and Laura P. Kapka. These were approved.

Those who are retiring this year were presented:

Clark Clavert
Donley Culbertson
John Poe Hensley
Felix Kindel
Dan Leander
T. Herbert Minga
Robert H. Ridley

These will be presented for a few words at the banquet Wednesday. The Conference voted to grant the retired relationship to each of these.

Bishop Stowe greeted those retiring in behalf of the conference.

Those asking for withdrawal:

Dan Adams

Dan Klimpel

One asking for voluntary location:

Richard Howell

These were granted.

David Shawver then presented Recommendations for Minimum Standards for the Professional Personnel, (Report B1) then spoke on the subject. The number of years under consideration should be the years serving as an ordained minister, consecrated lay worker, or full-time lay pastor. Persons serving student appointments will receive two-weeks of vacation. The length of the vacation is set by the Annual Conference, the actual time will need to be worked out with the local church. Shawver moved that this report be accepted. Leo Baker suggested an amendment: "to 4 years" instead of "1 to 4 years." Paul Morell asked if this would be required, where it was stated that the church should give this amount of time. Morell stated that he did not feel that it was a good thing to impose on a church a requirement of this nature.

Edgar Huffstutler asked if only ministers voted on this. Bishop Stowe stated that the whole conference would vote.

Raymond Butts asked how this would be enforced, and Shawver explained that the intent of the proposal is for the church to take seriously its relationship with the minister in this special matter.

Ed Styron spoke against the motion, and asked that this be a "recommendation" instead of a "requirement." The amendment lost, and the original motion was voted on and carried.

Shawver then presented a proposal regarding parsonage goals, and pointed out that these are "goals" and not "standards." Shawver moved the acceptance of the report (Report B) Raymond Williams asked how restrictive this should be, and spoke specifically about the "family privacy" section. He then moved, as an amendment, "In their homes in the community of the local church." This was accepted, and approved.

The procedure for the conference dealing with divorce among its clergy was presented as a recommendation to be used within the framework of the Board of Ministry. The paper (Report B2) is for general information, and this will be the procedure that will be used in dealing with divorce among clergy.

Ben Oliphint spoke to this, and asked if it would come before the Conference for approval. It was stated that it did not, because this was a problem with which the Board of Professional Personnel will deal. Oliphint stated that he planned to appeal this to the Judicial Council, according to the Discipline.

Mr. Shawver stated that this was not intended to lessen the support of the clergy of the conference; it was the intention to lay down some guide-lines, in case someone found the conditions of their marriage irreconcilable. This document was intended to support the clergy, not to threaten it.

Stephen Love asked about the procedure to pursue the issue to the Judicial Council. Bishop Stowe asked Ben Oliphint to check into this procedure.

James Palmer pointed out that this was part of the problem coming to the Board when a conference has eight of its ministerial families affected by divorce in a year, something has to be done. This was an attempt to make a record, not a judgment, of the circumstances of the situation.

Mr. Palmer moved the approval of the lay pastors for the coming year, after stating that James Garrett is chairman of this Division. They were approved. Palmer then reminded the conference that the ordination service would be Tuesday evening.

Bishop Stowe called for a vote on the candidates for Deacons Orders and Elders Orders, and the following action was taken:

Voted: to grant Deacons Orders to Christan D. Amundsen

Voted: to grant Deacons Orders to Karis S. Fadely

Voted: to grant Deacons Orders to George Fisk

Voted: to grant Deacons Orders to Paul Quillian Goodrich

Voted: to grant Deacons Orders to Walter Ross Purkey
Voted: to grant Deacons Orders to Billy Mack Shaddox
Voted: to grant Deacons Orders to Gary Allen Smith
Voted: to grant Deacons Orders to J. Allison Snyder, II
Voted: to grant Deacons Orders to Philip Sidney Spain
Voted: to grant Deacons Orders to Elizabeth Alden Turecky
Voted: to grant Elders Orders to Aaron Don Black
Voted: to grant Elders Orders to Richard Lee Cromwell
Voted: to grant Elders Orders to Federick Leighton Durham, Jr.
Voted: to grant Elders Orders to Dwight Henry Judy Voted: to grant Elders Orders to Walker Lee Railey
Voted: to grant Elders Orders to Roy Clifford Ricker, II
Voted: to grant Elders Orders to Mario Ruggia
Voted: to grant Elders Orders to Ronald Lee Underwood
Voted: to grant Elders Orders to Paul William Widicus
Voted: to grant Elders Orders to Daniel Webster Williams
Voted: to grant Elders Orders to Fred Avon Winslow

Jack Gibson continued the report of the Council on Professional Ministries by calling on Don Barnes, chairman of the Board of Professional Growth. Barnes presented Don Benton, chairman of the Division of Career Assessment, regarding a report on the bi-polar inventories. (Report C) Barnes then presented an instrument developed by his committee, in connection with a committee in the Central Texas Conference. This instrument would evaluate the ministry in seven areas: pastoral ministry, public worship ministry, nurturing ministry, organizational and administrative ministry, community and social ministry, personal and professional development, and personal characteristics. He explained that this would be on a voluntary basis for a minister and pastor-parish relations committee. A better document will be worked on, and the program made mandatory. He asked the conference to vote the approval of this program on a voluntary basis. (Report C1)

Ben Oliphint spoke against this procedure, because it is like other situations—the continuing encroachment of our life by the institution..

Wallace Chappell spoke in favor of this program, because of its experimental nature.

Robert Pinckney asked about the mandatory requirement for next year. Benton stated that this was a year of evaluation, and they would come back next year with some recommendation.

James Dean stated that he and the Lewisville church had been through this, and this was an affirming program, and a good tool.

Leo Baker asked (1) if this is a self-evaluation program for the clergymen and (2) if outside professional help was obtained in the design of the evaluation. Benton stated that this is presented as a working document. The Discipline has been used in this document. DeForrest Wiksten was asked to speak.

Wiksten stated that he was for this instrument, which would assess our servanthood, and a way of giving comprehensiveness to the evaluation that is always going on.

Clayton Lewis introduced an amendment: On page 2 of the document, place the period after "1975-76," with the statement that the program become mandatory be stricken. It was seconded. The amendment was approved. The document was before the conference, as amended, and was adopted.

Don Barnes, speaking for the Division of Continuing Education, moved the adoption of the third section of its report (Report C2). It was approved. Barnes stated that the first and second parts were for information only.

Julian Thomas presented the report of the Professional Support division: including insurance and pensions. The support of persons in ministry, in the insurance program, minimum salaries, and pensions. Thomas presented Mrs. Sue Bonner, from the United Methodist Publishing House, who told about the work of Cokesbury stores. She then presented a check for $4,065.95 to Bishop Stowe to the Pension Fund from the Publishing House.

James Swafford presented the report of the Division of Insurance. He presented the report (Report D) with the following changes: The document should be "Life Insurance with Metropolitan Life" instead of "Ministers Life" in the proposed increases. Regarding dependants, the "spouse" amount remains at $2,500.00, but the "child" should be $1,000.00. Dale Swain asked about the definition of "Child" and was told the age is 23 if a full-time student; 19 otherwise. Swafford moved the adoption of the report as amended. (Report D1)

Raymond Corrigan, chairman of the Minimum Salary Division, presented the report (Report D2), and stated that there would be one change: the name would be changed from "minimum salary" to "equitable salary." He reported that there was a request to raise the minimum amount for the schedule, which is an 8% increase. He moved the adoption of the report, and it was adopted.

Herbert Minga presented the report of the Division of Pensions. (Report D3). He stated that, in 1960, the per-annum was $45.00; in 1973 it had been increased to $90.00.

Julian Thomas read some specific recommendations, and moved the adoption of the report. He had distributed a list of the lay pastors who would receive annuity credit for their work. The name of James Unangst should be added to the list. In answer to a question by Bill Stephenson, Thomas stated that this could be changed for lay pastors, etc. The report was approved.

Thomas presented a resolution (Report D4) establishing a housing allowance for the retired ministers, of not more than $1,200.00, or 1/3 of the annuity, and establishing a utilities allowance of $500.00 a year. He moved the adoption, and it was done.

Glendell Jones gave a report from the Pension Foundation (Report D5). The Pension Fund has as its goal $1.00 per member, and with a goal of $100.00 per service year. There are $275,000.00 invested in this fund this year. As of January 1, 1975, the service annuity will be $95.00, and in 1976, it will be $100.00. (Report D6)

Jack Gibson stated that this concluded the report, except for the retired ministers banquet Wednesday. He moved the adoption of the whole report, as amended. It was done.

Bishop Stowe presented C. C. Sessions, secretary of the cabinet, speaking for the nominating committee. (Report E). These were elected. .

Fred Kandeler, speaking for the Division of Worship, called attention to the evening service; the three prayer breakfasts; and Monday and Tuesday night sessions, and the 3:00 p. m. Wednesday service of holy communion.

Walter Zimmerman announced that the youth division will have a special music program at 7:30 Sunday night. He also announced that the ministers will have pictures printed in the Journal again this year, that there would be a photographer at conference Monday to take the pictures.

Ben Oliphint stated that there was a meal being prepared for 400, following the sessions this afternoon, at First United Methodist.

Bishop Stowe presented Tom Bennett, who gave an orientation for the next session.

Bishop Stowe announced the transfer into the conference of Joe Washington, and called on him to give the prayer.

FIRST DAY—SECOND SESSION

Walter Zimmerman welcomed the conference to the special youth section of the conference, a service which began at 7:30 p.m. Sunday evening. He presented the members of the Black Massed Youth Choir from the Dallas Central District, under the direction of Mrs. Shirley Collier and Mrs. Martha Coleman.

Zimmerman announced that the youth ministries council was looking forward to the future for the summer of 1975 when some special events were planned: bike hikes, trail hikes, youth choir or band camp, a study camp, a booth at annual conference, and a fall round-up November 23-24.

The Shalom Players, from First United Methodist, Sulphur Springs, were presented, and sang music from "Godspell."

Zimmerman stated that these were representatives from youth around the conference. He then presented the Festival Ringers, a hand-bell choir from Spring Valley, under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Mulvey.

Bishop Stowe welcomed the people to the worship service, and presented Dr. Leonard Haynes, Jr., to the conference.

The evening service, a "Service of Celebration and Thanksgiving," was directed by William C. Crouch. David Turner read the Old Testament lesson, Mrs. Dorothy Holloman read the Epistle Lesson. The Silent Choir of DeSoto, a choir and presentation in interpretative dance, was directed by Mrs. Ann Faidley. Dr. Paul Hardin read the Gospel Lesson. Robert Wortley directed the Chancel Choir of First Church, Dallas, and Mrs. George Soderstrom was the organist.

Bishop Stowe welcomed the wife and daughters of Dr. Haynes who were presented to the conference, along with the parents of the conference preacher. Bishop Stowe then presented Dr. Leonard Haynes, Jr., who preached on the subject "Epitaph for the Twentieth Century."

Ben Oliphint spoke a word of welcome as host pastor, and shared the concerns of the conference.

Bill Morgan Smith, secretary of the conference, read the following names of those who had died the past year:

Ministers:
- Bishop W. Angie Smith
- J. Daniel Barron
- A. L. Dennis
- William B. Reaves
- William H. Vail
- William Slack, Sr.

Ministers Widows:
- Mollie E. Davis
- Maple Shinn
- Emma Lancaster
- Willie W. Slagle
- Georgia H. Wright
- Lena Mae Jenson

Ministers' Wives:
- Gwendolyn Tomlinson
- Sarah Broyles

The hymn "For All the Saints" was sung followed the litany of remembrance and gratitude.

SECOND DAY—THIRD SESSION

The first of the scheduled prayer breakfasts was conducted at 7:15 a. m. at First United Methodist Church. A continental and a regular breakfast were served. The service leader was Kenneth McIntosh; the music leader was Malcomb Drummond; and the witness to the word was given by Barry Bailey, entitled "The Tormenting Word."

SECOND DAY—FOURTH SESSION

Bishop W. McFerrin Stowe called the session of conference to order in the ballroom of the Sheraton Hotel in Dallas. Bishop Stowe asked Dr. Walter Vernon to lead in prayer. Bishop Stowe then announced the death of Mrs. James M. Simpson, Sr., mother of the Reverend James M. Simpson, Jr., and Mrs. T. Lee Miller.

The conference sang "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." Richard Howell played the piano for this and all other sessions.

An item from the Board of the Ministry was read by David Shawver. He stated that he had received letters from all the District Superintendents, who all stated that the ministers in their respective districts had been found to be blameless in their character.

To set the purpose of the Conference, Bishop Stowe stated that his philosophy was, "There is always a better way." The conference had set a mandate for itself, a spirit of excitement and joy, to expedite the goals of the conference, enable the conference members to experience the continuing spirit of God's leadership through the conference to a word of hope and redemption. The conference committees, under the leadership of Zan Holmes, Jr., has arrived at this type of conference, and the conference will have goals, and each local church will have goals.

Dr. Tom Bennett who was contacted to be a part of this conference, was introduced by Bishop Stowe. Bishop Stowe stated that the conference was starting a two-day venture, under the leadership of Dr. Bennett.

Dr. Bennett stated that he was asking the members of the conference for a willingness to work with him in gathering data. The temptation, in looking to the future, is to discover a familiar fact about human nature—the God who gave us life gave us power. We must take charge of the future of this conference. Gathered in this room are the men and women that have been elected by the Methodists of this conference who will lead them in the years ahead.

Dr. Bennett explained that there would be four sessions. There will be set before us, he stated, a picture of what this conference will be, around 1979-80 if we continue to do what we are now doing. We will deal with a fundamental difficulty: in this room there are many who are convinced that the future cannot be substantially different—it is already in motion and shaping itself out. There are some that hope it will be like yesterday. But, there is no yesterday in God.

Dr. Bennett started with the fundamental assumption that most of the members approached the future from a stance of despair, powerlessness; the assumption that we cannot make a significant difference. The future that we seek to face is not faced alone, but in partnership. "We are attempting to guide this conference in the midst of a series of major 'firsts,' and there are no priorities. The basic requirement is innovation, in which there is no way to problem-solve our way out of the difficulty. We are face to face with the fact that the structure of values on which we depend is supporting and molding. We have moved into the era of pluralism, and the value basis is gone."

Dr. Bennett stated that there are several ways that this happened. We now ask "Can you see the sky?", not "Can you see the horizon?". Television, computer: these mark the technological world in which we live. Instantaneous news, instantaneous information.

Dr. Bennett stated that this will be part of the context in which we will work. There is no way to get from here to the future, like we are, on the basis of what we have been. We are called on to do new things. We are ready to begin the quest. You are about to make your own kit for the future.

During a break Bill Morgan Smith announced that tickets for the ministers wives banquet are on sale, and should be picked up this morning by 11:30 a. m. He also announced about the Chaplain's dinner, and that the leadership center had an exhibit, sponsored by the Board of Education.

Attendance cards were called for again.

Walter Zimmerman announced again about the picture-taking of the ministers to be published in the conference journal.

Boyd Sawyer announced the Perkins Banquet, Tuesday, in the Texas Room of First Dallas.

Richard Howell announced a dinner for the Archives and History Division at 5:45 p. m. Monday in the Etc. Classroom, First United Methodist, Dallas.

John Tatum announced that the Commission on Religion and Race will meet following the morning session, and that all black clergy and lay delegates were urged to attend.

Bishop Stowe suggested that the conference send a word of sympathy to the family of Mrs. James M. Simpson, Sr. This was ordered.

The conference was adjourned until 2:00 p. m.

SECOND DAY—FIFTH SESSION

Bishop Stowe called the conference to order at 2:00 p. m. Elwood Poore led in singing "Climbing Jacob's Ladder." Dr. Paul Hardin, president of SMU, gave the opening prayer.

Bishop Stowe spoke a word of appreciation to Dr. Hardin for his leadership in the conference.

Dr. Bill McElvaney was recognized as the president of St. Paul's School of Theology, in Kansas City. McElvaney brought a word from the school, and called attention to a brochure which had been distributed. He announced that a lay-consultation council was being set up at St. Pauls. He mentioned the joint display, of Perkins and St. Pauls, in the foyer, and mentioned the co-operation the two schools are enjoying. McElvaney thanked the conference for support of the Ministerial Education Fund.

Dr. Leroy Howe, the assistant to Dean Joseph Quillian of Perkins School of Theology, was presented to the conference as a transfer into this conference from the Florida Conference. Howe brought greetings from Dean Quillian, who is serving as editor-in-chief on Dr. Outler's 4-volume work on Wesley. He presented a Perkins brochure, and stated that there are more than 380 students enrolled. He announced that Roy Barton will be coming to the faculty in January, in the Mexican-American program. He also announced that Zan Holmes, Jr., would be coming to Perkins. Howe stated that there has been a move into "lay theological education." He stated that Perkins was also grateful for the support of the Ministerial Education Fund, and for help in the intern program.

Bishop Stowe then turned the session over to Dr. Bennett, who continued the program begun during the morning session.

Dr. Bennett asked the conference members to pick up copies of the Texas Methodist, and read a statement published in it about the churches' purpose. He pointed out, also, that on the tables was a substitute statement, by Steve Love. Dr. Bennett asked the members to take a copy of each, and read these before tomorrow morning, when we will talk about change and potentiality in this conference.

Bishop Stowe asked the conference to remain in session because there was business to perform. He stated that the conference might have been doing some of the most Christian work that it had ever done in a conference session.

J. Richard Palmer, president of Scarritt, was welcomed to the conference for a report from that school.

Bishop Stowe announced a special adjourned session of the Annual Conference Monday evening, November 18, and Tuesday, November 19, to spend time on our institutions.

Bishop Stowe presented those who are transfering into this conference:

James Abel
Ray Alderman
Carroll Brown
Wilson Canafax
Ben Feemster
Leroy Howe
Philip McLarty
J. W. Matthews
James Reaves
Joe Washington

Bishop Stowe called for the announcements from the secretary.

Fred Kandeler announced about the worship service this evening, and the morning prayer breakfast.

Bishop Stowe announced that the conference was in recess until the evening service.

SECOND DAY—SIXTH SESSION

Before the evening service at First Methodist, Dallas, the conference was entertained by the Black United Methodist Massed Choir of Dallas.

The "Service celebrating the Gospel's call to new life" was directed by Albert Pitts. Miss Lorrayne Hoover and Mrs. Helen Beckett directed the Black United Methodist Massed Choirs, and Mrs. Roberta Garrison played the organ. Mrs. A. L. Hilliard and Mrs. Shirley Collier played the piano. George Brewer read the Epistle, and Gordon D. Casad read the Gospel. Dr. Leonard Haynes spoke on "Overcoming Obstacles", using as a text an interpretation from Isaiah: "The mirage shall become a pool."

THIRD DAY—SEVENTH SESSION

The second prayer breakfast was conducted at 7:15 a. m. at First United Methodist Church. The service leader was John Elliott, and the music leader was Dorothy Warden. The witness to the word was presented by DeForrest Wiksten, speaking on "The Healing Word."

THIRD DAY—EIGHTH SESSION

Bishop Stowe gaveled the conference into session at the Sheraton Hotel at 9:00 a. m., and William T. Stephenson led the conference in singing "Ask Ye What Great Thing I Know." Spurgeon Dunnam III led in prayer.

Bishop Stowe presented DePriest Whye, one of the directors of the Black College Fund. Dr. Whye reported that the fund is over the $4,000,000.00 mark for the first time this year, or 66% of the goal. He stressed the reasons for continuing the support of the black colleges, and reminded the conference that some of the funds go to two black colleges in Texas: Wylie and Houston Tillotson.

Bishop Stowe lifted up the need of continuing these colleges through the church. Young people need to have a special concern shown, that the larger schools cannot show. Houston-Tillotson and Wylie can show this concern. Bishop Stowe emphasized the payment of the apportionment for this fund.

Dr. Bennett was presented to continue with the program of "planning for the future." Bishop Stowe stated that this is a day of decision for the future, an important day in this conference.

Bennett stated the design for the day, by suggesting that the data from yesterday should have begun to stimulate our thinking about what the future will be like. The conference would be working on summarizing the changes, and the idea of potentialities. Each table was asked to read the "purpose" statements, and fit them into the purpose of the conference. He stated that he hoped, before the morning was over, there would be some goals formulated, proclamations of what we want to achieve.

The next stage was definitive, of how to use the information discovered. This was to begin establishing goals.

Dr. Bennett stated that there are three kinds of goals:

1. Ideal, or purpose goals
2. Operational goals
3. Growth goals

Bishop Stowe thanked the conference for the work done today. He stated that the day when the Bishop and a small group makes the plans is gone. The conference members are no longer told what they are to do, but are co-creators of the future.

The chaplains were then recognized, with M. Douglas Blair bringing greetings from the Division of Chaplains. Nine other chaplains were greeted.

Bishop Stowe recognized Michael Patterson, from the Central Texas Conference; Daris Thomas, from the South Carolina Conference; Lindy Waters, from the Oklahoma Indian Mission Conference.

Bill Morgan Smith again reminded the conference members to sign a registration card, and reported that the Trustees would have a short meeting after adjournment.

Don Shaw reminded all deacon and elder candidates to be in the Texas room at First Methodist at 6:30.

Perkins graduates were reminded of the banquet at 12:30 at First Methodist.

Gilbert Fleer announced that the Local Church Learning Center, prepared by the CEF, was across the hall from the lobby.

Louis Saunders was recognized for his work in the Ecumenical Movement.

Lively Brown, from the Central Texas Conference, was recognized.

THIRD DAY—NINTH SESSION

Bishop Stowe called the conference session to order at 2:00 p. m. in the Sheraton Hotel, and called on James Garrett to lead in singing "Amazing Grace." Zan Holmes, Jr., led in prayer.

R. R. Holcomb, director of TANE, was presented for a word about his work with that organization. Bishop Stowe spoke a brief word concerning his opposition to gambling, alcohol, drugs. These are destructive to humanity, he stated, and therefore are in opposition to the teachings of Jesus.

Mr. Bennett was again presented to the conference, and began his work. He stated that tentative goals will be established this afternoon. The other two kinds of goals, operational and growth goals, were dealt with. He pointed out five tests to see if the goal is worthwhile.

1. the three-sentence rule
2. achievability
3. believability
4. there must be a time-frame
5. it must be important

The information around the tables was to be gathered, and a process designed into a program for the future. This which is done this afternoon, he stated, is the real thing. He then gathered some sample "goals" and discussed them, then called for a 10-minute break. Following the break the tables began presenting the "goals" for consideration. Dr. Bennett stated that he had enjoyed doing this program for the North Texas Conference; that he had sensed a resistance, but he also had sensed a new day. "These two days could be a turning point for the North Texas Conference," he stated.

Dr. Bennett was given an ovation.

Bishop Stowe stated that he saw the goals as things the conference had laid before him to study and work with, and bring some order out of chaos. "Our hope is in that which can be and is not yet," he stated. He asked that all working papers be turned in, indicating the table. All of this material will be used. Dr. Bennett will provide proposals for the next steps, then these will be presented to the District Superintendents, the Conference council on ministries, determine what will be the next step. There will probably be a design team which will put this into a comprehensive process, on three levels.

1. The District Superintendents will take the goals, and bring them to the district council, which will bring them into being as we have done here, with the district council asking how it can fulfill its ministry.

2. This should be brought to the conference council on ministry, and the Bishop stated that he will be expecting the conference council on ministry, and the designated leaders, to determine how and why this can move into the life blood of the annual conference.

3. This must reach the local church. "I do not feel at this moment," Bishop Stowe stated, "that we have all we need to go to the local church. This will continue on these three levels."

Bishop Stowe stated that, whether or not we will continue using Dr. Bennett will depend on the outcome of our study and thinking of these goals. The immediate steps:

1. Toward the end of the planning there will be a conference, consisting of 125, meeting July 1, 2, and 3, a strategy conference, on ministry in the changing cities. How do we avoid what has happened in the past. He mentioned Wesley and Trinity churches as examples of the urgency of this.

2. A second strategy conference will come six months later.

Bishop Stowe stated that Dr. Bennett has shared a dream. We have before us a potential so great that we do not yet know the ministry we can perform. We have the Holy Spirit of God, who is calling us, who will guide us, and will empower the church that will be used of the Holy Spirit. "I want you to dream my dream with me," Bishop Stowe stated, "and I want you to dream God's dream with Him."

Bishop Stowe asked the conference to join with him in becoming one who is committed to being used of God to fulfill the purposes and dreams of God for us. He then asked the conference for a moment of quietness, for a special time of commitment from each one. He then worded the prayer: "I commit myself, O Lord, to become an instrument in thy hands, to be used of thee to shape the future. The shape that thou would have it be. It is in Jesus' name, who gave his life for the future, that I pray . . . Amen."

The secretary was asked to make the announcements.

Fred Kandeler announced about choir rehearsal and the ordination service.

Bishop Stowe expressed his appreciation to the conference for its faithfulness.

Bishop Stowe then asked to receive ideas, recommendations, etc., about where we should go, and how we can go. He then expressed his personal appreciation to Dr. Tom Bennett for his work.

THIRD DAY—TENTH SESSION

Fred Kandeler, chairman of the Division of Worship, welcomed the conference to the service of ordination. The service was held at 7:30 p.m., at First United Methodist Church, Dallas. There was a prelude of music, by the Brass Choir of First United Methodist Church, Mesquite, under the direction of Frank Greenhaw, with Mrs. Patsy Bilger accompanying.

James Palmer read the Old Testament Lesson, Don Shaw read the Epistle Lesson, and William T. Stephenson read the Gospel lesson. The Cochran Chapel UMC choir, under the direction of Mrs. Carol Tagg, with Mrs. Betty Greaves at the organ.

Zan Holmes, Jr., presented Dr. Haynes to the conference for the evening sermon. Dr. Haynes used as a text "Jesus came to his own family (people, home). He came to "Bring the children home."

Bishop Stowe led in the service of ordination for the Deacons. James Palmer and Don Shaw presented the names of those to be ordained Deacon, and Bishop Stowe ordained them, after the disciplinary examination. Each Ordinand was presented a certificate of ordination and a copy of The Book of Worship.

Bishop Stowe led in the service of ordination for the Elders. Each candidate for ordination was presented to the Bishop by a "presenting elder." Those acting in this capacity were:

Bruce Weaver, for candidate Aaron Black
Montie Stewart, for candidate Richard Cromwell
Glendell Jones, for candidate Frederick Durham, Jr.
Ray Hennigh, for candidate Dwight Judy
Jack McNabb, for candidate Walker Railey
Henry Lawson, for candidate Roy Ricker
David Shawver, for candidate Mario Ruggia
Glenn Vickers, for candidate Ronald Underwood
Henry Mood, for candidate Paul Widicus
Jack Gibson, for candidate Daniel Williams
Mike Jackson, for candidate Fred Winslow

Bishop Stowe presented a Bible and a certificate of ordination to each of the ordinands, then invited the retiring elders to present to the newly ordained elders a communion chalice.

FOURTH DAY—ELEVENTH SESSION

The third conference prayer breakfast was at First United Methodist, 7:15 a.m. Wally Chappell presided, and David Grant led the music, "Praise to the Lord, the Almighty," and "Lord, Speak to Me." David accompanied the singing with the guitar. Mrs. Lydia Furry was the speaker, with "The Liberating Word" as the theme.

FOURTH DAY—TWELFTH SESSION

Bishop Stowe called the conference into business session at First UMC, Dallas, at 9:00 a.m. Bill Stephenson led the singing of "Joyful, Joyful" with Richard Howell at the organ. Frank Greenhaw, Conference Lay Leader, led in prayer.

Bishop Stowe stated that this would be a full day. He pointed out that the past few days were both frustrating and exciting, in seeing what we can become, and today we carry on the work of the conference, thinking about how we can be a more important instrument in the hands of God.

Thomas J. Shipp, chairman of the Council on Connectional Ministries, was called upon for the report from the Council. A report was distributed (Report F[1]) which contained information from the council. He presented the budget recommendations, and recommended that section A be approved. Bishop Stowe pointed out that this would have to be a tentative approval, until after the Finance and Administration report this afternoon.

Section B, programs, were discussed. William C. Crouch offered this amendment for No. 3: "I move to amend this by adding the figure "4,000.00" instead of $10,000.00", and I move to amend the report by asking that the conference vote its support of ministry to Mexican Americans in the North Texas Conference as presently being carried out in cooperation with the Rio Grande Conference through the Inter-Conference Commission for Mexican American Ministries." The amendment was seconded. Crouch stated that this figure was arrived at because of funding was being handled through other funds now. This conference should go on record of supporting the Mexican-American ministries in our areas. This request comes from the Inter-Conference Council. A vote was taken, the amendment passed.

Item II, General Advance Specials: After Item B, Thomas Shipp stated that Bishop Stowe would be visiting Malaysia later this year, and that it would be appropriate to designate Mrs. Stowe to be the representative of the conference during this trip. This recommendation was seconded, and approved. Bishop Stowe explained that Bishops had been going into parts of the world, seeing the life of the church. He thanked the conference for making his wife the representative of the conference to go with him.

Item III, Conference advance specials, Mr. Shipp stated that these are projects which should be given consideration. There were no questions on Item IV or V. Item VI contained important dates for special observances.

G. W. French was called on for recommendations for nominations of Trustees of Texas Wesleyan College. Guy Holcomb, of the Division of Higher Education, had asked for this:

A. M. Aikin, replacing Arnold Reed, term to expire in 1975.

Earl Kifer, term to expire in 1976

Cora Maude O'Neal, term to expire in 1976.

This action became part of the report.

Thomas J. Shipp moved the adoption of the total report.

Bishop Stowe explained that this was not something that was done quickly, but had received a lot of time and thought. The report was approved.

Some other nominations, coming through the Division on Health and Welfare, were made. Elected to three-year terms as trustees were those listed in the report (F[2]). Commissioners for the Methodist Home were approved. (F[2]) Bishop Stowe called for a vote for reconsideration, since these were added. Mr. Shipp moved reconsideration of the report, to add these. It was done, and the changes were approved.

Leo Baker pointed out that the C. C. Young Trustees had not been read. They were read from the report (F[2]). It was also mentioned that the Methodist Mission Home Trustees were not read either. This was corrected also. Shipp moved that these be elected. His motion carried.

James Hares presented an item from the Methodist Hospital for changes in the by-laws. (F[3]) These changes were approved.

Shipp moved the adoption of the total report. It was done. Bill Morgan Smith asked the tellers to hand out some information that would need to be in the hands of the members of the conference before the afternoon session.

Robert Dillard, Chairman of the Council on Local Church Ministries, presented the report. (G[1]) He called attention to the printed report from this council, and asked for questions about Item I. There were no questions.

Item II concerned a name change, with structure revision. James Dean suggested an amendment to section II: for the District Superintendents, District Councils, etc., to place special emphasis on involvement of the local church chairman in each of the related areas on the Board: evangelism, family ministries, etc.

Dillard stated that he saw no difficulty in this amendment. The difficulty, he stated, is in getting them to do it. The amendment passed.

Item III: Election to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

Item IV is not an action item, but is a presentation of the report on amnesty. There is to be no action taken. (Copies of report are available in Conference office). Mr. Dillard moved the adoption of the report, as amended. It was done.

Glenn Scott, administrator at the Methodist Hospital, was recognized for a special word, and he reported on the progress on the new facilities.

Dorlis Glass, chairman of the Division of Children's Ministries, made a statement to the conference. She stated that she wanted to talk about a future that was happening this summer—when the ministers, etc., realize that they have a church school that will need to be staffed. She mentioned some training opportunities. In the past, the only place that was available was at Mt. Sequoyah, but there is a local school being planned: a 2 1/2 day lab school, at Highland Park.

Bishop Stowe asked Walter Zimmerman to present the youth members to the conference. The youth members were asked to stand, and were welcomed to the conference. Zimmerman stated that a local church might wish to elect a youth member as its member, especially if they were permitted more than one member.

Walter Vernon was recognized for the report on Archives and History, and presented a report from the Commission. He stated that the Conference is to give its approval of the Heritage Tour and the Reformation Tour. This approval was given.

Bishop Stowe recognized Bishop W. Kenneth Pope, and asked Bishop Pope to preside.

Bishop Pope, after receiving a standing welcome from the members of the conference, stated a personal word about the warmth he felt in the midst of this conference, and mentioned the bravery and fortitude which the conference was showing.

Bishop Pope called for a report from the Communications Council, and W. E. Trice gave the report. Trice called attention to the recommendation for by-laws, in a printed report which had been distributed. Trice moved the adoption of the changes. They were approved. This report is on file in the Conference Office.

The report of the Commission on Religion and Race was made by J. D. Mooring. (Report I) Mooring asked all the members of the Commission to stand, so the conference could see that not all of the members were black. He mentioned briefly No. 2, P. 1, and mentioned No. 5, P. 1, and asked for approval for this from the conference. He explained the understanding of the need for this. This 'caucus' group has met, and is proposing that the conference approve the caucus. It was seconded.

Stephen Love suggested that it would be out of order for the conference to presume that any group need have permission from the annual conference to caucus. This is a basic freedom, and this body cannot abridge this freedom.

James Dean moved that we delete this statement from the report in light of what Stephen Love had said.

Zan Holmes, Jr., spoke against the amendment, stating that he felt that this would be a responsibility on part of the conference to recognize the dilemma in which the blacks find themselves. This would be helpful, not only to the blacks, but to the conference, if we had this well-thought-out stand, and officially recognized, by the conference.

Raymond Trompler spoke in favor of the substitute motion made by Dean.

George Brewer spoke for the original motion, against the Dean motion. He stated that this was asking for the opportunity to use whatever there is, and to offer whatever there is we can offer. "We want to be recognized at every level of the conference."

Albert Outler was recognized by Bishop Pope to ask a question. Outler asked the chairman of the Commission if, in the nature of the language of this proposal, we are in a parliamentary situation that requires the conference to act for or against a black caucus. "As I have heard the language, this is a statement to the conference, a statement by the commission on religion and race, that seems to be entirely in order, This language I would want to support. If, in parliamentary terms, do we have a pro-con term before us at this time? Is this deletion for legislative action, or for information only? It would be out of order if it was given only for information."

Mooring stated that they wanted this brought to the attention of the conference, and the conference blessings on this part of their work.

Outler stated that it is not clear that this is parliamentary. This should be an announcement for information, and this would be approved and obviate the need for special support. "I am trying to support this without going through statutory requirements," Outler stated.

James Dean stated he was concerned about the ambiguity, and in light of what Dr. Outler had said, he moved the motion be taken off the floor.

Bishop Pope asked the speaker to not limit this. Outler said we should be hearing what the commission is saying. Mooring withdrew the special motion, which cleared the slate.

Marshall Hodge said that this is a serious matter. "We are not talking about supplying data for the caucus, but about legislative status for the caucus."

Bishop Pope stated that he understood that plans are being made for a black caucus. Mooring stated that it had not been done already. There had been discussion, with approval of the lay members, that this be done. It has not been formed officially. "We felt that we could not speak for the people in Paris, and Wichita Falls, without special recognition."

Bishop Pope suggested that the report be changed from "explored" to "Completed."

Bill Crouch made the amendment: "I move to amend the report by asking the conference to vote its special approval, in principle, of the plans of the Commission on Religion and Race to form a black caucus."

Bishop Pope said that a report was being made, but that this issue would be handled now. Bishop Pope asked Crouch if he would hold the motion until the report was completed. Crouch agreed.

Mooring continued with the report, No. 8, P. 2. John Tatum gave the report. He presented a resolution to emphasize the importance of this part, in dealing with scholarships for minority group students. The resolution stated:

> "Whereas the North Texas Conference at its last annual session passed a resolution recommending the development of a scholarship program which will enable minority students in the North Texas Conference who can meet the entrance requirements at Southern Methodist to attend that University; and whereas the Commission on Religion and Race and the Division of Higher Education have considered this proposal and approved it for conference action; it now appears that the next appropriate step for the North Texas Conference to take is to request Bishop Stowe to appoint a committee to work with Southern Methodist University in developing this scholarship program."

The resolution was presented to the conference; Mooring moved the adoption, and it was seconded.

Walter Zimmerman was recognized for a question. He stated that he was hearing Marshall Hodge requesting the conference to approve an official part of the structure of the conference, and not let the youth caucus, etc. Mooring stated that the "official relationship" was requested, separate and apart from the Commission on Religion and Race.

Crouch moved his motion again, to form a caucus. The motion was seconded, Crouch spoke for it.

Zan Holmes, Jr., asked if this motion would approve, in principle, this caucus, Does that mean that the caucus can only speak to the Commission on Religion and Race? Will it be privileged to speak to the conference?

Crouch said he would think it was free to do whatever it wanted to do.

DeForest Wiksten asked for a definition of "caucus."

Crouch: "A group of people getting together for a purpose."

Martha Watson stated that there is a commission on the role and status of women, and there is in this commission all kinds of things to see that women get into the leadership. There is also a UMW "caucus" operating completely free. "We pay our own way, but do influence the official body."

The vote for Crouch's motion carried.

Stephen Love offered the following amendment: "I move that, by January 1, 1975, negotiations be under way, on a voluntary basis, between congregations of differing racial constitution, to the end that racial inclusiveness might be clearly endorsed by yoked leadership, worship, and service, and that pastoral appointments to these congregations for conference year 1975-76 be made responsive to the goals set in such negotiations." It was pointed out that the two words, "negotiations" and "voluntary," were important.

James Hares asked: "Who is to negotiate?" to which Love replied: "The cabinet, with the commission on religion and race, etc."

The motion carried.

J. D. Mooring moved the approval of the total report, as amended.

Bishop Pope called for a vote, and it was approved.

Bishop Pope thanked Bishop Stowe for allowing him to preside at an annual conference, and turned the conference back to Bishop Stowe. Bishop Stowe called for a 10-minute recess.

Bishop Stowe called the conference to order, and called for the reports from the Conference Committees.

William Stephenson, chairman of the Headquarters Commission, called attention to the report of the headquarters committee distributed last year. This report was in Vol. II of the Conference Journal. Stephenson suggested that, either prior to or after the noon banquet, those who had not visited the conference complex should do so. He also stated that the sale of the Hillcrest property is being completed, and is being sold to SMU. A full report will be made later.

Noel Bryant moved that the report of the Committee on Personnel (Report J) be accepted. The report was approved.

Donald R. Benton gave the report of the Research and Planning Committee (Report K) and the statements should be handled one at a time.

Item I: Presented: for consideration, not for approval. There were two additional statements, from Clarence Guittard and Steve Love. Anyone who has a recommendation should present it to the committee.

William C. Crouch asked if there were a plan to refer this matter to the churches for study; and how can we arrive at a concensus. Benton answered that no procedure from here had been decided upon. It was published in the Texas Methodist, with a request for comment, but it has not been decided how it will be implemented.

Crouch stated that it seems that it would be in order to decide on implementation.

Jerry Delleney, chairman of the special committee studying this, said that this committee was trying to work out a special statement for the conference, coming from the 3-fold mission of the church.

Bishop Stowe said that this was a progress report, and does not require action.

Stephen Love asked if the other statements would be distributed, and Bishop Stowe stated that the committee would provide whatever information they wanted.

Love moved that the subsequent additional supplementary reports be included in the reports to the conference. Benton stated that he hoped each local church would be studying this, and if the conference wants, it will make these studies part of the report.

William C. Crouch moved that we refer this to the Research and Planning commission for study. Crouch's motion was approved, and then it was passed as the approved motion.

Paul Morell asked where the suggestions should be sent, and Don Benton said they could be sent either to him or to Jerry Delleney.

Item II: the Role of women. Benton moved the adoption of the recommendation before the conference.

Edgar Huffstutler was recognized, and made what he considered an editorial change: In sub-section D and E: he suggested that the word "chairwoman" be changed to "chairperson," and moved that this be done. It was seconded. Martha Watson pointed out that the Discipline states that the chairperson of this shall be a woman. Bishop Stowe pointed out that the Discipline is not binding on this conference in this matter if we choose otherwise. Bishop Stowe then called for a vote, reminding the conference that what was involved was a matter of terminology being changed, and that "chairperson" be used instead of "chairwoman." Huffstutler's motion was approved.

Bishop Stowe called for the establishing of the Commission on the Role and Status of Women. It was approved.

Item III. Benton moved to adopt the report. Walter Zimmerman asked about a proposed increase in "D", in 1977, and asked if these costs could be carried by those using the service. Benton stated that he did not believe so, to the extent that there would be a consultant to help in a special way. Bishop Stowe asked if the conference was committing any money at this time, and Benton answered "No, not until 1977."

Benton said the research and planning committee would receive all these suggestions, and colate them with the hope that there will be something in the hands of the conference during the fall session.

Stephen Love asked: "What is an agency of the Annual Conference?"

Benton answered: "A council, Division, Committee, etc."

Love: "Is a local church part of the Annual Conference?"

Benton: "Not as we are dealing with this. We are dealing with agencies within the Conference structure."

Bishop Stowe called for a vote on the report as a whole, and it was approved.

Bishop Stowe reported that St. Pauls School of Theology has made a request concerning membership at large. He called on Bill Morgan Smith to read the recommendations, coming from the Trustees of that school:

> "Mrs. Lafler reported for the Executive Committee the following actions: a resolution to increase the number of Members-At-Large from the present nine to a maximum of 20; and a resolution to add three new categories to membership on the Executive Committee—one faculty member, one student, and one alumnus—and to increase the number of members from the present 15 to 16, with a quorum set at 9 instead of the present 8. The motions were made, duly seconded and carried unanimously."

This was approved.

Bishop Stowe stated that he was appointing to a committee to work with SMU and the minority groups on scholarships the following:
William R. Farmer, Paul Hardin, Zan Holmes, Jr., Albert Outler, and John Tatum. Bishop Stowe would also be a member of the committee.

Bishop Stowe reminded the conference that in 1976 we will be celebrating 200 years since the Declaration of Independence, and he requested that the responsibility of working out special plans for our conference be referred to the appropriate committee, and would suggest that the coordinating committee be given this responsibility.

John Morphis was called on for a report for the Rules Committee, and said there was no report, but that there would be one at the fall conference.

Bishop Stowe announced that there would be a fall conference, Tuesday, November 19; possibly with some business being done Monday, November 18.

Dr. George Boswell, lay member from First United Methodist, Dallas, invited the conference to come to First Methodist for the conference. Bishop Stowe stated that this invitation would be considered.

Bishop Stowe asked about the place for the Spring, 1975 conference. Paul Hardin, president of SMU, stated that SMU would be privileged to host the North Texas Annual Conference at the Spring Annual Conference, if the same dates as this year are set. Dorms, parking, etc., would be available with rooms for large or small caucuses; recreation, McFarland Auditorium, Highland Park church, etc. He extended the invitation to the conference, and this invitation was warmly received by the members of the conference.

Ben Oliphint also extended an invitation for the conference to meet at First Dallas for the Spring conference, stating that First Dallas is always glad to share in this conference.

Bishop Stowe expressed his appreciation to First Church; Ben Oliphint and other members of the First Methodist staff; choir, etc., who make us feel at home.

Raymond Williams said that he noted that the Bishop determined the dates of the annual conference. He said he believes this conference has the same opportunity that the conferences in the past have had. He thinks that the conference could begin Friday evening, and continue through Sunday afternoon, with the appointments being read Sunday. He recommended that the Bishop give this consideration. Bishop Stowe assured the conference that he determined the dates of the conference with careful consultation and consideration.

C. C. Sessions was called on for a report from the Committee on Nominations. (Report E[2]) He moved the adoption of the report. It was done.

Bishop Stowe recognized others transferring into the conference: James Abel, Wilson Canafax, Ben Feemster, J. William Matthews, James Reaves.

C. J. Graves, who began his career in preaching in 1916, was presented to the conference and greeted. Graves stated that he was 57 years in this conference, and that the appointive powers had been good to him. Norman Bruner asked for a recognition for a point of personal privilege, and stated that hardly a day goes by that Rev. Graves is not in the nursing home, or hospital, visiting with those in need. Bishop Stowe asked that all those who were retired, or are retiring, to stand for a time of special recognition.

Jack Gibson, chairman of the Council on Professional Ministries, was called on for any additional reports from the Council, and Gibson said the Council had completed its report.

Bishop Stowe called for additional matters to be dealt with before recess.

It was announced that the Dallas-South District would host a Come-and-Go reception Monday, June 3, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., at Glen Oaks, honoring Rev. and Mrs. William T. Stephenson.

Bill Morgan Smith announced that he had about 30 ministers names who had not registered their attendance.

Bishop Stowe asked that the members of the Rio Grande Conference who were attending the session of the conference be recognized. Five members from this conference were welcomed.

Bishop Stowe gave special recognition to a member of the Central Texas Conference, Sidney Roberts, who, for the past several years, has been serving in this area. Bishop Stowe asked Roberts to speak, and Roberts expressed his appreciation for being permitted to work with two great leaders of the church: Bishop W. Kenneth Pope and Bishop W. McFerrin Stowe. The Bishop said that he was planning to put Sidney Roberts on the Fort Worth West District in the Central Texas Conference.

Noel Bryant asked for a matter of personal privilege, and asked C. C. Sessions to escort Mrs. Stowe to the floor of the conference. She expressed her sincere appreciation for all the flowers, cards, food, etc., which had been sent; and all the good wishes, during her recent illness. She also thanked the conference for making her "official" on the trip to Malaysia.

Bishop Stowe asked Bishop Pope to give the closing prayer.

FOURTH DAY—THIRTEENTH SESSION

Bishop Stowe called the conference to order at 2:00 p.m., at First Dallas. Dwight Judy led in singing "O God, Our Help in Ages Past." Mrs. Guy Tanner, president of the Conference United Methodist Women, led in prayer.

Bishop Stowe asked Mrs. Tanner for a word from the United Methodist Women, and Mrs. Tanner reported on the work of this group since becoming "United Methodist Women" about a year ago. She mentioned the Mission Schools, and other activities of this group. She also, in behalf of the Annual Conference, expressed thanks to Bishop Stowe for his good leadership.

Leighton Farrell, chairman of the Co-Ordinating Committee of the Council on Ministries, mentioned some General Recommendations "on the Revisions and Structure" report, stating that there were five general recommendations dealing with structure and implementation of that structure. (Report L) Farrell moved that these be accepted, and his motion carried.

Zan Holmes, Jr., chairman of the Agenda Committee, asked for a word of high personal privilege. He stated that there had been a break-down in communications; that Mrs. Stowe was scheduled to be presented at this time. "We want to present Mrs. Stowe at this time, and present her with a bouquet." He asked Kerby Edwards to escort Mrs. Stowe to the floor of the conference, and she was presented with a bouquet of red roses. Mrs. Stowe thanked the conference for their thoughtfulness.

Leighton Farrell, chairman, presented the report from the Council on Finance and Administration (Report M[1]). He gave a word of thanks to the council, especially to the lay people. He presented the budget recommendations to the conference. He pointed out some changes that should be made.

Page 2, at the bottom, the sub-total should be $68,115.00, not $64,115.00.
Page 3, top: Conference Program: TOTAL: $297,830, not 293,830.
Total: Conference Programs: $673,509; not $669,509.
General Church Apportionments: 1974 total: 240,431
P. 5: a late recommendation, salaries for associates: $8,o00.00 instead of $8,300.00
Total for 1975: next to last line: 232,870
Grand total: $2,362,986.

Farrell stated that he would be glad to answer any questions.

Steve Love: moved the amendment: P. 1, Perkins interns, delete. The amendment died for lack of a second.

Steve Love moved the amendment: 13c, Texas Conference on Churches, remain $7,000.00. It was seconded, and Love spoke to the motion. Mrs. Piercy spoke against the motion. Paul Morell spoke for the amendment. Bishop Stowe called for a vote, and the amendment lost.

Steve Love moved the following motion: 14, Secretaries: that the figure be $20,000.00, as it was this year. Farrell stated that part of this expense was due to the conference resource center's expenses. The amendment failed.

Paul Morell moved that IA4, P.2, the over-all total for 1975, be $54,000.00, which would be an increase of $7,000.00. The motion was seconded, and the amendment failed.

Stephen Love moved that P. 2, IA5, Annual Conference Expenses, remain at $1,200.00 for 1975. It was seconded. James Dean spoke against this. The amendment failed.

Stephen Love moved that P. 2 IA5, Contingency, remain $20,000.00. It was seconded. Leo Baker asked how much of the $20,000.00 was used this year. Farrell answered the question, telling the background and preparation for the budget. He suggested that we talk about paying the apportionment that is, not concerning the apportionment.

Stephen Love stated that he was concerned about the size of the budget, and the indication that it was going to continue to increase.

Bishop Stowe called for a vote, and the amendment failed.

Stephen Love moved that P. 4, VI A, District Superintendent's Fund, remain at $15,000.00. Love spoke to this, and stated there seemed to be a greater and greater drawing apart in the amounts of salaries being received, and he was concerned about this. Mrs. Joe Russell spoke in support of the motion. Leo Baker pointed out that Minimum Salaries had been raised; so why were we backing up on this? Hal Jones spoke in behalf of the work of the District Superintendents. Douglas Hoke spoke for the amendment, stating that some churches are barely able to keep ahead of minimum salary and keep up with the increasing apportionments. There had been a previous question; and the previous question was called.

The motion received the necessary 2/3 vote, so the previous motion was before the conference. Love was permitted to speak the final word supporting the amendment; he stated, after recounting the record of equitable salaries in Methodism's history, that we need to rediscover that we are brothers. "If we vote for the amendment, we vote against the power of Methodism." Leighton Farrell, chairman of the council, spoke against the motion. The amendment lost.

Spurgeon Dunnam III expressed a concern that, going through item by item we were not getting to the main issue: Does this budget have ethical integrity? He stated that the conference could deal more intelligently with the budget if the Council would deal with the guidelines given in the 1971 Journal. Farrell stated that these guidelines had been considered. Don Benton stated that he was chairman of the committee that studied the ethical use of money. There are programs which we may not be able to justify their continuance, but are not deleted. When is it decided that something will be deleted, and decreases occur?

William C. Crouch raised the issue of fiscal responsibility. We need to make sure that the money we spend is attached to something we think worthwhile, and is doing the job; and always ask, do we need the money.

I. B. Loud spoke a word in favor of the budget, so we can proceed with other Conference matters. He stated that he knew how hard it was to work out a budget like this.

Paul Morell pointed out that, if we voted this, we will have to go back to our local churches and see that the money is raised.

Spurgeon Dunnam proposed an amendment, that on P.5, "Associate" salaries be $9,-100.00. It was seconded. Farrell stated that there was no recommendations from the Personnel Committee for this. The amendment lost.

Question was called, and the call for the adoption of the report as the budget for 1975. The budget was adopted.

Farrell presented some Recommendations for the Annual Conference. (Report M^2)

Item 1: Farrell moved this adoption. This would mean that a $1,200.00 amount be included in the item, and $2,000.00 for auto allowance, so these receiving these allowances do get something in the total apportionment. Farrell stated that this was part of the original statement, and stated that it should be changed for the Journal. It was adopted.

Item 3: Every church will receive its fair share of apportionments. Zan Holmes, Jr. asked if apportionments were figured on an annual basis, counting membership, reflecting shifts, in membership, etc. Farrell said the apportionments are made on an annual basis. This item was approved. Farrell read, for general information, the way the apportionments were worked out.

Item 2: explains this process: and will be printed in the Journal.

Item 4: This request came from the Paris-Sulphur Springs District Council. Farrell recommended the Item. It was adopted. John Lancaster asked if the intent could be clarified: "The first 40 miles is deductable" was suggested as an amendment. It died because of lack of second.

Item 5: For information, because this was approved in the budget approval, and will be printed in the Journal.

Item 6: Relaying information received from the Methodist Mission Home, but no call from the conference. Farrell made this as a motion. James Dean spoke to the motion, speaking as a Trustee of the home. He stated that the Home still needs money. The motion was approved.

The entire report was before the conference, with the additions that had been mentioned. The report was approved.

Ken Carter made an observation about the conference and the area of finances. He recalled that, at a previous annual conference, DeForest Wikesten had made an urgent appeal with a proposal for tithing. Carter recommended that at the fall conference the Stewardship Work Area have a suggestion on a tithing emphasis program. He also would encourage our church work areas to do this for the fall session.

Leighton Farrell announced that Frank B. Hall representative, Whitt Payne, is handling the insurance for our conference.

John Morphis gave the report of the Board of Trustees. (N[1])

Item I: A report of our Stewardship.

Item II: The listing of the requests received from the District Superintendents about abandoned property.

The supplementary report was presented. (Report N[2]) Morphis stated that the first section belongs with Item II of the first report, and the other is for information.

Donald Waddell moved to amend the report: "I would like to amend the whole report to treat those items that identify the way the money will be distributed, and turn this money over to the Trustees to turn over to the Church Development Division for distribution. This will deal with Item II, dealing with abandoned property, etc."

Ben Oliphint spoke against the amendment, and said that this does not give us the opportunity to have each situation stand on its own. There are other causes in the conference other than church development.

Clarence Guittard spoke in favor of the amendment, referring to the "guidelines for the ethical use of money." The amendment charges the Board of Church Development with discharge of this fund, and would be in line with the guidelines.

Noel Bryant stated that Wichita Falls District had some property, where the Trustees feel the money from the sale of Mt. Calvary could be used. Bryant urged the conference to oppose this amendment because he did not think that the funds should be turned over to the conference, and we in turn have to come and ask for it, but that the District Trustees spend it like they want to.

Waddell stated that he did not think the Board of Church Development would be insensitive to the local situations, but that the conference needed one agency to be handling this.

Oliphint moved that the situation listed on P. 4, Item II, "K", pertaining to Trinity property, be deleted from the amendment. The question is, Oliphint said, "are we going to turn this over to any one agency." The amendment was voted on, the amendment passed, and the section was deleted, from Waddell's motion.

The Waddell amendment was then before the conference, and the amendment lost. Therefore, the original report was before the conference, including the property considered in Oliphint's motion.

Oliphint offered an amendment to the report, by moving that the last two paragraphs of the report on P. 4, Item II "K" be removed, and that such property be deeded to the North Texas Pension Foundation, and be used for the Pension Fund. The motion was seconded. Oliphint's resolution, in full, states: "Be it further resolved that the Trustees of the Annual Conference be instructed to take possession of the church and parsonage property with authority to deed said property to the North Texas Conference Pension Foundation. Be it further resolved that the North Texas Pension Foundation liquidate any debts or obligations owed by the Trinity United Methodist Church and that any monies realized from the properties be invested by the Foundation for the benefit of the Pension Program of the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church."

James Dean asked if there had been a real estate evaluation of the Trinity property.

William C. Crouch stated that there had not been an appraisal, but we have had an offer.

Don Benton asked for a ruling of the chair on the guidelines, when capital funds should be used as capital funds.

Bishop Stowe stated that he had not read the guidelines recently, so he did not know, but it was not mandatory for this.

Steve Love spoke against the motion, and suggested that this decision be made at the fall meeting.

Bill Crouch was against the amendment, and in favor of the original proposal. This proposal was an attempt to be faithful to the guidelines. Crouch spoke on the needs of the ministry in the central cities.

Bob Cooper asked if there were plans to sell the property.

Crouch stated that, what is at issue is the use of money in case either is sold. There have been interests shown in buying the property, and interest in continuing use of the building. We are interested in saving it, if we can find someone interested in helping save it.

Oliphint's amendment was before the conference, and he spoke a word for it. John Morphis, chairman of the Board of Trustees, spoke the final word, saying that all the Trustees could do would be at the direction of the conference.

The amendment was voted on, and lost.

Clarence Guittard asked if the report now includes the information in II A, the Gladys Church property.

Bishop Stowe said that it did.

Guittard then moved that the report be amended so that the sale of property, other than the Trinity property, and the proceeds from the sale of the church property be given to the District Trustees with instructions to appropriate the money along the guidelines of 1972. The motion was seconded, and Guittard spoke for the amendment.

Edgar Huffstutler asked if the Trinity property was included in the motion; Guittard stated that Trinity was excluded in the motion.

C. C. Sessions asked if property mentioned on P. 3, II G, concerning the Talco, was affected. Guittard said this would not be affected.

Guittard's amendment was voted on and passed.

Leo Baker moved an amendment to the supplementary report, in Item II: Strike out "sufficient", and replace it with "The only authorized signatures necessary . . ." Morphis stated that this would be accepted.

The full report and the supplement were before the conference, and the conference voted to adopt the entire report, as amended.

B. C. (Dutch) Fielder was recognized, and Bishop Stowe expressed a word of appreciation to him for his work as Treasurer of the Conference. He was presented to the conference, and expressed his appreciation for the good work being done in the churches. The Treasurer's Report was distributed. (Report 0)

Walter Zimmerman, the Conference Statistician, made a plea for accuracy in the reports when they are turned in.

Steve Love was recognized for a matter of new business, and he presented the following resolution: "Resolved: that all boards and agencies of the Annual Conference shall report a summary of their proceedings, future agenda, data, and place of next meeting to the Conference Council's office which will promptly convey that information to the membership of the conference." The motion was passed.

Spurgeon Dunnam asked about the possibility of getting the 1971 guidelines re-adopted, making these the guidelines for next year.

Leo Baker moved the suggestion, it was seconded that these guidelines be the guidelines for 1975. The motion passed.

Bishop Stowe gave special recognition to Fred Kandeler for the splendid job he and his committee had done in planning the worship services for the conference. The conference gave Kandeler a round of applause. Bishop Stowe also thanked Zan Holmes and the Agenda Committee, First Methodist, "and so many others who have made this a meaningful conference."

Bishop Stowe said: "As we go from here, we go to do the work of God. We will now make preparation for holy communion."

FOURTH DAY—FOURTEENTH SESSION

Fred Kandeler presided at the Service of Holy Communion. Austin Lovelace played the organ, and Richard Fleming directed the Annual Conference choir. Noel Bryant read the Epistle; C. C. Sessions read the Gospel; and Kerby Edwards led the Prayers for Others. The Soprano Ensemble of First Church, Richardson, sang the offertory anthem.

Bishop Stowe preached the sermon, but, because of the lateness of the hour, he stated he would not preach the full manuscript. He did announce that the manuscript would be printed in full in the Texas Methodist.

The elders who had been ordained Tuesday evening assisted in the service of holy communion.

Following the service of Holy Communion, Bishop Stowe read the appointments of Preachers for the coming year. Bishop Stowe then read a list of special appointments, and Noel Bryant moved that these special appointments be approved. It was done.

Bishop Stowe then led in the "Sending Out" service, the conference sang "A Charge to Keep," and Bishop Stowe gave the benediction.

REPORTS

RECOMMENDED GUIDELINES AND PROCEDURES FOR EQUALIZATION OF LAY-CLERGY MEMBERSHIP

(Report A)

I. Review of Annual Conference action

In November, 1972, the following action was taken by the Annual Conference "Following the designation of charge conferences by the clergy who are retired or are serving under special appointment, the total number of lay and clergy members with voting privileges in each district council will be computed. The number of at-large lay members will then be determined for each district council to equalize the number of lay and clergy members with voting privileges. District councils will elect their at-large lay members annually on nominations by their nominating committees."

II. Recommendations

A. That the procedures adopted in 1972 for the equalization of lay-clergy membership of the district councils be approved as the procedure for the equalization of lay-clergy membership of the Annual Conference as amended by the two sets of guidelines detailed below.

B. That the cut off dates for clergy membership computation be:
March 1 in 1974
January 1 in 1975 and thereafter.

III. Guidelines for selection of additional lay members of Annual Conference

A. Membership requirements in Amendment VII of the Constitution of the United Methodist Church
1. Conference president of United Methodist Women
2. Conference president of United Methodist Men
3. Conference lay leader
4. Conference youth organization president
5. Fourteen young persons under 25 years of age

B. Recommended categories for selection of lay members by district councils
1. Chairpersons of district agencies
2. Chairpersons of conference agencies
3. Consecrated professional lay workers
4. Members of district agencies

5. Persons recommended by local churches

C. Other considerations for selection of lay members by district councils
   1. Active in local church
   2. Leadership in district and/or conference agencies
   3. Ratio of men, women, youth, minorities
   4. Equal distribution among churches of district

IV. Guidelines for balancing the Paris-Sulphur Springs District membership

A. The facts
   1. Because of the large member of lay pastors serving in the Paris-Sulphur Springs District, lay members exceed clergy members by five in that district.
   2. The requirements of Amendment VII add two young persons and the chairman of the Conference United Methodist Men to bring the total imbalance to eight.
   3. In order that the District will have opportunity to select at least two lay members at large from its district agencies leadership, the imbalance must be increased to ten.

B. The formula
   1. The Paris-Sulphur Springs District Council will be authorized to retain its imbalance of five lay members as well as to elect in addition two young persons, the chairman of the Conference United Methodist Men, and two district agencies leaders.
   2. The total imbalance of ten lay members in the Paris-Sulphur Springs District will be rectified by reducing the number of additional lay members to be elected in the districts listed below:
      Dallas Central—4 (1 out of 12)
      Dallas-Denton—2 (1 out of 9)
      Dallas Northeast—3 (1 out of 13)
      Dallas South—1 (1 out of 14)

      1-4 years—two weeks (two Sundays)
      5-9 years—three weeks (three Sundays)
      10 years, plus—four weeks (four Sundays)
   B. The following points are made in explanation of the above:
      1. "Years of Service" shall be determined by years served as a full-time, ordained United Methodist minister or as a full-time, consecrated lay worker.
      2. The length of vacation is set by the Annual Conference,but the most suitable time for both the local church and the ministerial family will need be determined by consultation between the pastor and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee.

III. Recommendations for Procedure for the Annual Conference's Dealing With Divorce Among the Clergy (Report B2)

"In marriages where the partners are, even after thoughtful consideration and counsel, estranged beyond recognition, we recognize divorce and the right of divorced persons to remarry, and express our concern for the needs of the children of such unions" (The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, 1972, para. 72:B).

The Discipline rightfully makes no distinction between divorce occurring among the laity and among the clergy. However, we would be deceiving ourselves to deny that divorce within the clergy has a greater impact upon a congregation than divorce within the laity. We point out the adverse and disruptive feelings that often accompany divorce proceedings and are felt and shared by friends and family of the parties involved. And, this is amplified with divorce proceedings among the clergy because of stereotypical modeling which has become a part of the tradition of our society.

We also recognize the possibility of congregations being nurturing communities and, thus, for Christian love to grow even under the unpleasant conditions which exist when the clergy family is in the process of divorce. We, Thus, admit the uniqueness of each situation and acknowledge that in some situations the healthiest approach for all parties involved, clergy and congregation, is for there to be no change in appointment, while in other situations a change of appointment or even a change in Conference relationship may be advisable.

We further admit, and perhaps "confess" is a better word, that the general church has not dealt openly with the problem of divorce among its clergy; and, thus, lives have been hurt and the church has suffered. Therefore, in an attempt to protect the church and to promote the most therapeutic and redemptive support of its clergy in the event of impending divorce, the following is the procedure which shall be followed in the North Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.

1. Prior to contacting anyone within the Conference leadership, the Conference member will have taken every action possible toward reconciliation within the marriage. This shall include extensive counseling with a reputable marriage counselor, preferable with both partners to the marriage participating but, where impossible, with at least the clergy member's participation (of course, the Annual Conference provides the means for such counseling through the person and office of the Conference Counselor. However, any reputable counselor of the Conference member's choice will do if for any reason the Conference counselor is unacceptable or inconvenient to the parties involved). The extensiveness of the counseling shall be adequate to determine that the optimum use has been made of the counseling resource.
2. With evidence of article one's requirements being fulfilled, the Conference member will then contact one of three persons: the District Superintendent, the Bishop, or the Chairperson of the Division of Conference Relations.
3. After counsel with one of these three above mentioned and if the impending divorce seems inevitable, the chairperson of the Division of Conference Relations shall be notified, and he shall in turn call a meeting of the following persons:
   a. The Chairperson of the Division of Conference Relations, presider.
   b. The District Superintendent of the Conference member's District.
   c. The District member of the Division on Conference Relations,
   d. The Conference Counselor,
   e. Two peers chosen by the Conference member involved,
   f. And, the Conference member involved.
4. At this meeting with the Conference member, the following shall be considered:
   a. The reasons for the need for the divorce.

b. The desirability or necessity of meeting with the respective Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, the spouse, and/or other parties.
c. The alternatives for appointive status for recommendation to the Cabinet.
d. The possibility for temporary support, both temporal and spiritual, of the parties involved.

5. Failure to abide by the requirements of the procedure herein described shall result in the consequent recommendation to the Annual Conference for termination of Conference membership and surrender of credentials of ordination.
6. A record of all proceedings shall be kept and placed on file.

IV. Recommendations for Parsonage Goals for the Churches of the North Texas Annual Conference (Report B3)

Part of the covenant The United Methodist Church has with its clergy is the provision of a parsonage. By both its tradition and subsequently its Official Rule and Order, The North Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church has established the requirement that each local church within its jurisdiction provide for the furnished housing of its traveling preachers. Most churches have complied with this requirement by providing church-owned housing. However, other churches have provided instead monetary housing allowances.

The parsonage is a necessity in many if not most situations. Suitable rent property is often unavailable. Pastorate tenures in our intenerant ministry normally would make purchase of a home by the clergyman impractical. The parsonable system is convenient to the appointive system, with set "moving days." Much stress is spared the parsonage family by avoiding the need to look for a home in the new parish. The parsonage system prevents the encumbrance of real estate transactions.

The parsonage should be regarded as the home of the parsonage family. As such it is not an extension of the church. The parsonage family should have the same privacy and freedom for living as do other families in their homes in the community of the local church.

For the sake of both the churches and the parsonage families of the Conference, these goals that follow are an attempt to unify the efforts of Parsonage Committees across the Conference.

Parsonage Goals (Report B3)

A. Size:
The parsonage should have three (3) bedrooms and a guest room.
There should be at least two (2) bathrooms.
There should be one large living area.

B. Inside
The parsonage should be completely furnished. This will include all furniture, kitchen equipment, floor coverings, lamps, tables, window curtains, etc.

1. Kitchen should include all standard modern appliances such as dishwasher and garbage disposal.
2. Washer and dryer for laundry.
3. Adequate heating and cooling facilities (preferably central)

C. Outside:
The outside of the parsonage should complement the inside, therefore the following things need to be considered.
1. Landscaping where it is necessary.
2. Safe play area for children.
3. Garage in good condition and convenient to parsonage.

D. Maintenance:
1. Utilities
a. The local church should pay for the cost of all utilities (except personal long distance telephone calls)
b. All utilities should be checked and adjusted regularly.
2. Upkeep and Repair is Church Responsibility
a. An amount of from 2% to 2 1/2% of the parsonage value should be provided for in the church budget for repair and refurbishing. (This should be adequate once the building and furnishings are in excellent condition.)
b. Painting of inside and outside parsonage should be done as often as necessary.
3. Parsonage Families' Responsibilities
b. Minor upkeep and repairs (e. g., leaky faucets).
c. Repairs needed for damages done by member of parsonage family.
d. "White-glove" clean-up prior to leaving appointment. (Parsonage family may want to have tenant insurance.)

E. If housing allowance is provided instead of church-owned parsonage, the amount should be adequate for the minister to live in the area near the church.

Procedure

To attain the above goals each local church should evaluate its parsonage. It may be a matter of making minor improvements to reach the goals. For other churches it may be that they need to refurbish the parsonage. Still other churches may want to consider adding-on to the existing structure to up-date the parsonage.

Whenever a local church considers building a new parsonage the goals should be the guiding rule for construction.

Relationships

The Parsonage Committee or its equivalent (Pastor-Parish Relations Committee or Trustees) should take the responsibility of the parsonage seriously and work very closely with the parsonage family.

A. When moving, the pastor should notify the Parsonage Committee at once of the expected time of the family's departure. The Parsonage Committee should cooperate with the outgoing pastor to assure that the parsonage is as clean as possible upon the arrival of the new pastor and family.

B. The Parsonage Committee should contact the new pastor before the arrival date, and arrange a suitable time to check the parsonage with the new family. The new family should be asked for suggestions before re-painting or refurbishing the parsonage.

C. The Parsonage Committee and the parsonage family, always by a previous appointment, should inspect the parsonage at least once a year to ascertain its needs.
   1. There should be a copy of the inventory list of the parsonage furnishings for the pastor and for the church.
   2. Each time the parsonage is inspected, using the inventory, there should be an effort to coordinate repair and replace worn equipment and furnishings.
   3. The Parsonage Committee should always inspect all gifts to the parsonage before they are accepted (the gift may not be acceptable). This way the furnishings can be coordinated fully.

BOARD OF PROFESSIONAL GROWTH

(Report C)

The three divisions of the Board of Professional Growth continue to discover widening perimeters of opportunities as they seek to help persons find ministry challenging and exciting. Planned for the coming year are the following events:

Division of Career Assessment: (Report C1)

+For 1974-75, we recommend an experimental process that will provide data for the Division to use in developing enabling tools for the professional ministries personnel of the conference in an annual evaluation of their ministry and the formulation of goals for growth.

As the title of the Division indicates one of the responsibilities committed to it is to find ways of helping the professional personnel of this Conference assess and/or evaluate themselves and their ministry. Through Bi-Polar Inventories we provided opportunity for self-analysis. The next step, therefore, is to provide a tool for evaluating ministry.

Evaluation, of course, already occurs. In some cases it is systematic, objective, and specific; in others it is informal, subjective, and general. The purpose of this program will be to attempt to develop a systematized and consistent pattern which can be used throughout the Conferences as a helpful tool, not only for the ministers but also for Pastor-Parish Relations Committees and District Superintendents as well.

The proposed instrument has been developed co-operatively between the similar committees of the North Texas and Central Texas Conferences in consultation with the Bishop and the two cabinets.

It provides for evaluation in the following categories of ministry:

1. Pastoral Ministry
2. Public Worship Ministry
3. Nurturing Ministry
4. Organizational and Administrative Ministry
5. Community and Social Ministry

And forms will be available for the Bishop, District Superintendents, and ministers in local churches.

Along with the instrument will be a Goal Formulation sheet to be used by the minister to assist him in making use of what he has learned through the process.

Training will be provided for the Chairperson of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, the District Superintendents, and the ministers who will be participating in the program.

The plan is:

1. To offer the program on a voluntary basis to fifteen ordained ministers and churches in each District in the fall. After that the data concerning the effectiveness of the instrument will be evaluated by the S. M. U. Diagnostic Testing Center.
2. It will be offered to fifteen other ministers and churches in each District in January. Once again the data concerning the instrument will be evaluated at S. M. U.
3. The combined data will then be used to re-write and re-structure the instrument during the spring of 1975. The new instrument will then be presented to the Conference in 1975 to be adopted as the official evaluation form for the Conference year 1975-76.

This Division believes that this can be a very supportive, enlightening, and enabling program for all who participate and asks the Conference to approve the initiation of it on a voluntary basis for this Conference year.

Division of Continuing Education: (Report C2)

+The Division, after much consideration and discussion, does not recommend that we continue financial participation in the Texas Laypersons and Clergy Conference. We shall continue to distribute the descriptive brochures in order to make attendance possible for any persons desiring to attend.

+The Conference Four R's Retreat is scheduled for September 10-12, 1974 at Bridgeport Conference Center. Dr. Robert Thornburg, Associate General Secretary of the Board of Higher Education and Ministry will be the major resource leader. Again this year the multiple options will offer flexibility and variety to this retreat for professional ministries personnel.

+The following Financial Assistance for Continuing Education paper is presented as one of the major approaches the Division is recommending for making continuing education more accessible to the professional ministry personnel of the conference.

The Division of Continuing Education of the North Texas Annual Conference has responsibility for providing guidance and funding of continuing education programs of professional ministries personnel in the conference. It is the intent of the Division to offer each person the opportunity to increase his or her professional competence in the various functions of ministry.

To qualify for financial assistance an applicant:

1. must be a member of the North Texas Annual Conference in full connection and serving a full-time appointment at the time of application or a consecrated lay worker serving full-time in the North Texas Annual Conference.
2. must need financial assistance.
3. should obtain partial financial support for the continuing education enterprise from the charge or agency to which appointed or serving
4. must be willing to pay a portion of the cost of the continuing education enterprise or have this portion of the cost covered by the local church or agency.

5. must have the continuing education enterprise approved by the Division and with the knowledge of the applicant's district superintendent and Pastor-Parish Relations Committee or Agency Board.

The Division will grant up to one-third of the total cost of the continuing education enterprise providing the applicant and the local church or agency accept responsibility for the other two-thirds of the cost. In the case of those ministers whose salaries are less than the average salary for the North Texas Annual Conference (Board of Pensions figures) the Division will consider funding up to one-half of the total cost providing the applicant and the local church or agency accept responsibility for the other one-half of the cost.

In no case will the Division grant more than $200 in any one year or for a single enterprise nor more than $400 in any four year period to a single applicant. Grants are always subject to the availability of funds.

First considerations will be given those applicants who have not previously received grants.

Applications may be obtained from the Conference Council office. Applications should be returned to the person designated by the Division of Continuing Education. The Division will consider applications during the first fifteen days of February, April, July and October. Applications must be received by the first day of these months to be considered that month. In all cases the application must be approved prior to the beginning of the continuing education enterprise.

Those persons seeking academic degrees beyond the basic seminary degree (B.D., M.Th., M. Div., M.R.E., etc.) are invited to submit applications also. These will be considered on merit in relation to the ministry of the Church and availability of funds.

Division of Enlistment:

+The Division will meet with the first year Perkins students this fall for a fellowship and orientation session.

+March 7-8, 1975 is the date for the next Bishops Conference on Ministry to be held at Bridgeport Conference Center.

RESOLUTION ON HOUSING ALLOWANCE FOR RETIRED MINISTERS

(Report D4)

WHEREAS, The United States government has recognized in its income tax regulations monies designated as "Allowance for the rental of a parsonage or home" for a minister to be exempted from taxation, and

WHEREAS, The United States government has also recognized in its income tax regulations monies paid by a minister for the utilities of such a "parsonage or home" for a minister to be exempted from taxation; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, by the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church in session May 29, 1973, Bishop W. McFerrin Stowe presiding, that Twelve Hundred dollars ($1,200.00) of the total annuity paid to each retired minister shall constitute a rental allowance paid as a part of the retired minister's compensation for past services, except that such allowance not exceed one-third (1/3) of the total annuity received as pension funds from United Methodist agencies, and be it further

RESOLVED, That an additional allowance of five hundred ($500.00) shall constitute a utility allowance for the minister's said "parsonage or home".

(This resolution is in accord with paragraph 860; code section 107, regulation paragraph 1: 107-1 of the Internal Revenue Code, 1954, as amended.)

PENSION FOUNDATION

(Report D5)

In 1970, the North Texas Conference Pension Foundation was approved and authorized by the North Texas Conference to raise and invest funds, the income from which would be used to supplement the per service year payments to retired ministers and their dependents. The Conference approved an asking of $1.00 per member per year from each church in the Conference in support of the Foundation.

In 1970, the Foundation started with no funds. The annuity rate for 1970 was $77.00 per service year. The goal of the Foundation was to raise the annuity rate to $100.00 per service year. At this Conference, 1974, the invested funds of the Foundation total $275,000.00, and the annuity rate for 1974 is $90.00 per service year. On January 1, 1975, it is the goal of the Board of Pensions to pay $95.00 per service year, and on January 1, 1976, to reach our goal of $100.00 per service year.

During the next 18 months, under the leadership of laymen of our Conference, we will be laying the groundwork to enable our Conference to move into a Funded Pension Program by 1976. We have endeavored to help our retired ministers first. The Funded Program primarily will benefit the younger ministers of the Conference. We call for the support of both clergy and laity to help us reach this imperative goal.

Glendell A. Jones, President

BOARD OF PROFESSIONAL SUPPORTS SYSTEMS DIVISION ON PENSIONS

(Report D6)

Pursuant to paragraph 1260.1 and 1260.4 (a) of the Book of the Discipline, 1972, we recommend that the annuity rate for the calendar year of 1975 be set at $95.00 per service year and that the annual conference appropriate $340,000.00 to the Division on Pensions for its work in 1975.

Pursuant to paragraph 357 of the Book of the Discipline, 1972, and Chapter V, Section D, paragraph 129 of the Manual of Pension and Benefit Rules and Regulations of the United Methodist Church, we recommend that disability leave be granted to Raymond M. Burton and William E. Howell.

Pursuant to paragraph 363 of the Book of the Discipline, 1972, we recommend that pension payments be continued to the following ministers in 1975: Velma Franklin, R. L. Foy, Cecil Greenhaw, Fred McGee, and Lonnie Proctor.

Pursuant to paragraph 1259.4 (e) of the Book of the Discipline, 1972, we recommend that pension credit be granted the following persons as full-time lay pastors for the 1973-74 Conference year: David R. Blackmond, Bobby G. Bryan, Eldon Chester, Joe M. Funk, Presley Hutchins, Woodrow W. Kirby, Curtis Pittman, W. F. Sale, Billy R. Smith, Delton C. Smith, and Grady Wyatt.

Pursuant to Chapter VI, Section C, paragraph 172 (g) of the Manual of Pension and Benefit Rules and Regulations of the United Methodist Church, we recommend that a special grant of six hundred sixty dollars ($660.00) be made to Mrs. Jewell Ollie Durham Fisher for the calendar year of 1975.

COUNCIL ON CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

(Report F1)

I. Budget recommendations for 1975
   A. Apportionments
      1. Campus Ministries $95,000.00
         Although the need is great to increase this amount for 1975, the Board of Campus Ministries requests that all churches pay this 1975 apportionment in full instead of asking for an apportionment increase. Attention is called to the fact that a significant increase is this apportionment will be needed in 1977.

2. Church Extension $100,000.00
This request is made in place of the district askings for church extension. The amount requested is equivalent to 2/3 of the $1.00 per member district asking projected Conference-wide and figured as an apportionment on the two-decimal formula.
3. Community Ministries $50,000.00
The amount requested is equivalent to 1/3 of the $1.00 per member district asking for church extension projected Conference-wide and figured as an apportionment on the two-decimal formula.
4. Methodist Hospital of Dallas $75,000.00
5. Texas Methodist College $175,000.00
6. Black College Fund $96,466.00

B. Conference Program Items
1. Boards expenses and programs
Campus Ministries $650.00
Church Development and Community Missions 3,000.00
Interpretation and Promotion 2,815.00
2. Church Assistance $50,000.00
The request for an additional $10,000 is made in preparation for a possible new program of assistance to churches in changing neighborhoods resulting from the Strategy Conference scheduled in July, 1974.
3. Inter-Conference Commission for Mexican American Ministries $4,000.00
This request is contingent on the procurement of the $3,000 requested by the Conference Commission on Religion and Race from the Dallas Metropolitan Division of Community Ministries at their May 15th meeting to help fund the Inter-Conference Commission during the second half of 1974.
4. Community Ministries $13,700.00
This amount is for the salary and allowances for Conference director of community ministries and interpretation.
5. Texas Methodist Foundation $500.00

II. General Advance Specials
A. We commend to the churches of the Conference three projects of the National Division of the General Board of Global Ministries which are partially or totally supported by our Jurisdiction:
Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference $12,000.00
Rio Grande Conference 16,000.00
Lydia Patterson Institute 12,000.00
B. We commend to the churches of the Conference three World Division projects in Malaysia and Singapore:
Multi-purpose Hall at Shah Alam, Malaysia $10,000.00
Ministry to Chinese speaking students in the Singapore Universities 8,000.00
Theological Scholarships—Trinity Theological College, Singapore 1,675.00

III. Conference Advance Specials
We commend to the churches of the Conference three categories of projects for Conference Advance Specials.
1. Campus Ministries
2. Church Extension and Assistance
3. Community Ministries

Churches interested in accepting one or more Conference Advance Specials may contact the chairperson of the responsible Conference agency or one of the Conference Councils staff members.

IV. The Council recommends that the Conference Coordinating Committee ask the Conference Commission on Religion and Race to establish a committee to review annually the status and quality of the merger of the former West Texas and North Texas Conferences and make the necessary reports to the appropriate Conference agencies.

V. Recommendations for Revision of Structure
A. Change name to Council on Community and Global Ministries

METHODIST HOSPITAL OF DALLAS

(Report F3)

Summary of Recommended Changes to the Hospital Bylaws

The following changes to the bylaws of the Methodist Hospital of Dallas have been approved by the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Hospital of Dallas and are submitted for your ratification:

1. Article I—Section 1:
   a. Increase the membership of the board of trustees from twenty-seven (27) to thirty (30) members.
   b. The three presidential officers of the medical staff (immediate past-president, president, president-elect) serve as members of the board of trustees.
   c. The Resident Bishop, at least two (2) District Superintendents of the North Texas Conference, and the medical staff officers hold office on the board from year-to-year by virtue of their respective positions in the Church or medical staff.
   d. Change "elected" at the annual Conference to "confirmed" at the annual Conference.
      The purpose of this change is to allow critical vacancies to be filled without undue delay and to allow the appointment and/or reappointment of trustees at the annual meeting of the board.
2. Article IV—Section 4:
   a. Expand the executive committee to include the Resident Bishop and the three (3) presidential officers of the medical staff.
   b. Provide the executive committee with the authority to fill vacancies as may occur from time-to-time among committees and committee chairmen.
3. General Changes: The following changes are recommended to correct terminology and do not alter the intent of the sections:
   a. Article IV—Section 7 (c): Second sentence—delete "and regulations."
   b. Article IV—Section 11: Fourth sentence—change "chairman" to "chairmen."

c. Article VI—Section 1(a): Third sentence and Section 3: First and third sentences: change "bylaws, rules and regulations" to "bylaws and rules."

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON LOCAL CHURCH MINISTRIES

(Report G1)

I. Recommendations for 1975 budget and procedures for allocation
   A. Proposed budget $38,000.00
   B. Procedure for allocation
      1. A joint Budget Committee comprised of the chairpersons of the district boards of local church ministries and the Council on Local Church Ministries will receive requests for funds and act on the requests received. In the first meeting of the Budget Committee to be held the 2nd week of September 1974, specific amounts for 1975 shall be allocated by line item to each agency making a request for same. The total amount allocated by line item shall not exceed 75% of the programming funds.
      2. Any district board of local church ministries or any board of the Conference Council may request any needed programming funds from the joint Budget Committee. All requests should be made in writing by the chairperson of the district or conference board requesting the funds. The request should be in detail providing justification for each dollar being requested.
      3. Requests for 1975 monies may begin as soon as The Annual Conference has approved the 1975 budgets. The requested budgets should be submitted to the Council Chairperson by September 1. The Budget Committee should act on any requests in the calendar year in 1975 for as long as requests continue or all the money is allocated. Monies not requested and used by the end of 1975 will return to The Conference Contingency Fund.

II. Revision of structure and name change recommendation
   A. The Council endorses the decisions of the divisions of Mission, Social Concerns, and United Methodist Women, present agencies of this Council, to be agencies in the Council on Connectional Ministries.
   B. The Council recommends that its name be changed to Conference Council on Discipleship.

III. Board of Lay Groups
   Guidelines for the Presentation of Names for the Election of Delegates to the General and/or Jurisdictional Conference

   There are times when the lay member carries responsibility weightier than that of simply representing the charge where the persons church membership resides. The Annual Conference is an important body in the structure of Methodism. This is where delegates are elected to General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

The lay member is at a distinct disadvantage and preparation has been made to evaluate the qualification of persons nominated. Lay people at an Annual Conference may not be well acquainted with one another.

Each district, in consultation with its district council, would present 3 to 5 lay persons for consideration as possible delegates to be elected. The Conference Board of Lay Groups, in consultation with United Methodist Men, United Methodist Women, United Methodist Young Adults, and United Methodist Youth would present 3 to 5 lay persons as possible delegates to be elected. Local churches would be given the opportunity to present names to their district council and to the Conference Board of Lay Groups. All nominations are to have their pictures and a brief biographical sketch in a very simple folder which would be distributed to the lay members of Annual Conference prior to the 1975 Session.

Such lists need not be exclusive but any qualified lay person may be elected whether listed or not.

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

(Report I)

The Commission has continued to give attention to a number of items within the Conference and has worked on an inter-conference basis.

Let me share with you some of our additional concerns.

1. In cooperation with the Conference Council's Office a study of the Conference Boards and Agencies has been completed. With the adoption of the proposed restructure, a plan will be initiated to provide full and adequate black representation on Boards and Agencies of the Conference.
2. The institutions of the Conference have been written concerning minority persons in employment as it relates to number, position and opportunities for employment. A Committee of the Commission will be following this action with visitation to and with these institutions in an effort to secure a more detailed accounting of this information.
3. It should be noted that, under the leadership of Bishop Stowe and Steering Committee Chairman Zan Holmes, Jr. A consultation will be held in July, 1974 to deal with the needs and issues of churches in Changing Communities. Hopefully, conference priorities can be established after this consultation and work in this area will move forward on a conference basis.
4. The Council on Connectional Ministries (in behalf of the Conference Division of Community Ministries) is requesting an apportionment of $50,000.00 for work in developing and supporting missional projects throughout the Conference. With the approval and securing of these funds, adaquate support for ministries related specifically to minority needs can be cared for and supported.
5. We call to the Conference's attention the fact that we have established an Inter-Conference Commission for Mexican American Ministries which is now functioning. A Black Caucus has been formed with Conference approval.

6. For the money previously used to support Project Equality, four (4) projects related to employment concerns have been funded.
   A. Hard Core Employment Service Ministries of Community Ministries $500.00
   B. The Adult Comprehensive Adult Education Program (Sherman-McKinney District) 750.00
   C. Greater Dallas-Ft. Worth Coalition for the Free Flow of Information 750.00
   D. Job Development Project with Warren UM Church and The Central Congregational Church 500.00
7. In cooperation with the General Commission on Religion and Race an evaluation was done on the progress of merger. Some key parts of the total report are provided for your information. Provisions are being developed for dealing with issues raised and suggested recommendations.
8. Work is continuing on the development of the Minority Scholarship Program for SMU.
9. In regards to program concerns suggested for Religion and Race to deal with, many such efforts are initiated by local churches. A full story on such efforts will be provided via North Texas Conference edition of Texas Methodist.

DALLAS AREA

United Methodist Church

BOARD AND AGENCY REPRESENTATION

I. The Cabinet of the North Texas Conference has one Black District Superintendent, and the Central Texas Conference Cabinet is not racially inclusive.
II. Boards and Agencies
   1. The North Texas Conference boards and agencies are substantially racially inclusive.
   2. The Central Texas Conference boards and agencies are "fairly" racially inclusive with one board chairperson.
III. Institutions
   1. All institutions are open by policy, but there is no affirmative plan to increase services to and increase involvement of minorities in administration.
IV. Interracial Participation
   1. There is very little intentional effort in both Conferences to promote inclusiveness at the District and local church levels.
V. Attitudes
   1. White attitudes on merger are wholesome, although there are considerable reservations about total inclusiveness, especially open itinerancy.

VI. Reflection of Conference Newness
1. Both Conference Journals chronologically reflect creation of a new Conference by merger.
2. Both Annual Conference sessions lack significant inclusion of the Black tradition.

SUMMARY OBSERVATIONS

This report reflects our findings in both the Dallas Area conferences, Central Texas and North Texas. Both conferences were merged under the same merger plan in 1970.

The review session was composed of thirty-eight representatives from the Area, clergy and lay, but predominately clergy.

The mood of the session was open and congenial, with both Black and White participants having much to say about the state of merger. However, the most serious criticisms of merger were expressed by the Black participants. In relation to the Central Texas Conference, the most serious problems were:

1. Lack of a Black District Superintendent, as called for in the merger plan.
2. The adverse affect of merger on the Black Church.

In the North Texas Conference, the most serious problem was the adverse affect of merger on the Black Church.

In both conferences the intimation was that merger in general hac amounted to absorption and little if any inclusiveness.

As a result, it is our observation that merger in this Area, at best, is a structural merger that is yet to manifest any significant developments of inclusiveness. The White segment of the church is for Whites, and the Black segment of the church is for Blacks without any viable dynamics toward one church for all.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The following recommendations are offered as actions necessary—to enhance inclusiveness within the Annual Conferences:

1. The Conferences need to develop (specific) goals and programs which lead to greater inclusiveness.
2. Develop and maintain high level of interracial participation on District and local church levels.
3. Develop programs which increase sensitivity and awareness of the problem of racism.
4. The Cabinets need to articulate clearly a policy and practice of open intinerancy.
5. Create a racially inclusive Cabinet in the Central Texas Conference.
6. Expand and maintain the ministry of the Black United Methodist Congregations to the Black community.
7. Develop and maintain a program to increase Black ministerial leadership.
8. Develop a comprehensive program of mission, evangelism, and ministry for racially changing neighborhoods.

9. Utilize the Conference Commission on Religion and Race in the implementation of these recommendations, to cooperate with all the appropriate groups in the Annual Conference in the implementation of these recommendations, and make progress reports to the Annual Conference and the General Commission on Religion and Race.
10. Stephen Love Amendment: "That by January 1, 1975, negotiations be underway on a voluntary basis, between congregations of differing racial constitution, to the end that racial inclusiveness might be clearly endorsed by yoked leadership, worship, and service, and that pastoral appointments to these congregations for the conference year, 1975-76, be made responsive to the goals set in such negotiations."

CONFERENCE PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

(Report J)

Recommendations to the Annual Conference

A. Tenure for Conference Councils staff members
   1. That a maximum tenure limitation of six years be established for the office of the Conference Councils Director in keeping with the six-year maximum for District Superintendents.
   2. That the beginning date for this tenure limitation policy for the Conference Councils Director be June, 1974.
   3. That no maximum tenure limitations be established for other members of the Conference Councils staff.

B. Pensions for non-ordained directors of the Conference Councils staff
   1. That non-ordained directors of the Conference Councils staff receive pension benefits covering the period of their employment beginning January 1, 1975 and thereafter.
   2. That 4 1/2% of the non-ordained director's annual taxable income be paid by the Conference into the lay worker plan of the General Board of Pensions.

C. Policy statement for the Office of Administrative Assistant to the Bishop
   1. The Administrative Assistant to the Bishop is amendable to the Bishop and assists the Bishop in his administration of the work of the Area except in matters of appointments. He serves as a representative of the Episcopal office; as a consultant to the Bishop, District Superintendents, Staff and Conference Agencies; as the Area News Officer; and as resource person and/or initiator in planning strategy for the church's future ministry in both urban and rural areas.

2. The total renumeration for salary and travel for the Administrative Assistant to the Bishop shall be equal to an average of the salary and travel allowance paid the District Superintendents of the North Texas Conference and the District Superintendents of the Central Texas Conference.
3. The tenure of a person in the office of Administrative Assistant to the Bishop shall be limited to no more than six years.
4. The method used in selecting the District Superintendents shall be used in selecting the Administrative Assistant to the Bishop.

RESEARCH AND PLANNING COMMITTEE

(Report K)

I. Recommended Statement of the Church's Purpose

The Church is a called people responding to what God has done and is doing in the world as He has revealed His judgment (as Father), His redemption in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth, whom the Church proclaims as Christ the Lord (son), and His claim for mission (Holy Spirit). The Scriptures are the constitution of its life together, within which by worship, study and service it becomes an extension of the incarnation in all the areas of human life in which its members are involved, to the end that the purposes of God might be fulfilled.

The Church's life is expressed inter-personally, congregationally, connectionally, and ecumenically through (a) its absolute dependence upon the sustaining grace of God, (b) the quality of its life together as One In Christ, and (c) its mission to and for the world in His name. The aspects of its gathered life are for the intention of equipping its people for mission to—and ministries in—the world. As this happens, those who are reconciled to God become ever anew the ambassadors of His reconciling love.

The Church's sense of its own identity is nurtured by its awareness of God's presence and its experience of effectively living out its identity in the world as the visible demonstration of God's Kingdom. Its people who receive life and lay it down as evidence that all life is from and for the Father who has made His sovereign will and work known through His Son, Jesus Christ, and continues to reveal Himself through the presence and activity of the Holy Spirit.

II. Recommendations for the creation of a Conference Commission on the Status and Role of Women

A. There shall be a Commission on the Status and Role of Women for the remainder of the Quadrennium, 1974-76.

B. The Commission shall be charged with responsibility for fostering an awareness of problems and issues relating to the status and role of women, both lay and ordained, with special reference to full participation of women in the total life of the church in the North Texas Conference. Specifically, the Commission is charged:

1. to maintain cooperation with the Commission on the Status and Role of Women in the United Methodist Church as established by the 1972 General Conference;
2. to initiate and carry out needed research including study of
   a. the participation of women in the Local, District and Conference levels of the church,
   b. the Conference publications looking toward eradication of discriminatory words and policies;
3. to establish guidelines to ensure full participation of women in the life of the Conference, receiving progress reports toward this end from all responsible bodies within the Conference;
4. to work with the United Methodist Women and other bodies in implementing immediate and long range policies relating to the role of women in church and society, particularly in the North Texas Conference;
5. to increase awareness of roles and potential of women, and by working with the United Methodist Women and other groups within the Conference to help women improve their leadership and communication skills;
6. to serve in an advocacy role especially in matters related to women's role in the church's life both as lay and clergy persons.

C. The membership shall be as follows:
   1. One female and one male representative from the seven districts (representative of age and ethnic groups) nominated by the District Nominating Committees and elected by the District Councils.
   2. Two women appointed by the Executive Committee of the Conference United Methodist Women.
   3. Four persons named by the Commission to be confirmed by the Conference Nominating Committee, to serve as members at large because of their professional training in church related vocations or because of their special interest and competence needed for work of the Commission.
   4. Two ex officio representatives—one from the Cabinet, and one from the Conference Councils staff.
   5. Any member of the General Commission residing in the North Texas Conference will also be an ex officio member.

D. The chairperson of the Commission shall be nominated by the Conference Committee and elected by the Annual Conference. Such other officers as the Commission deems necessary may be elected.

E. The Commission shall meet at least twice a year and at such additional times as called by the chairperson, and that chairperson be a woman.

III. Recommendations related to Conference and District structures

Because of the request by the Annual Conference that the Research and Planning Committee make an annual review of the Conference and District structures, the following recommendations are submitted for implementation during the years ahead.

A. A Guideline for Writing a Statement of Purpose and Function

For Conference Agencies

The present agencies of the Annual Conference have been functioning for more than one year. It is now recommended that all Conference agencies prepare an agency statement of purpose and function. The statement would have as minimum content the following:

—the rationale or need for the agency in the Conference
—the purpose of the agency
—ways the agency can function to carry out its purpose
—relationships with other Conference and district agencies.

This statement would serve as:

—a way to collate and organize ideas and plans that have been considered —a way for each agency to clarify what it sees itself being about —a guideline for the present agency members and a help for new agency members —a document for one agency to understand the area of ministry and concern of another agency —an informational resource for district and local church leaders
—a means for evaluating the present structure
—a means for relating to any Annual Conference goals that have been assigned.

The intent is for every Conference division, board, council, commission and committee to write such a statement.

It is suggested that the agency give ideas to one or two persons and ask that person or persons to write a working paper for consideration at the next agency meeting.

The suggested deadline for completion of the statement of purpose and functions by every Conference Agency is the fall meeting of the Coordinating Committee.

B. During the next two years leading up to the 1976 General Conference the Research and Planning Committee purposes to study the agencies statement of purpose and function make recommendations for General Conference petitions, if appropriate, and prepare for the necessary adaptations that may result from the 1976 General Conference action related to Annual Conference and District structures.

C. In order that the Committee might have funds to carry out its proposed projects during the next two years an annual budget of $1,000.00 is requested, especially for expenses related to the services of consultants.

D. Looking ahead to the new quadrennium it is to be expected that a considerable increase in the annual budget will be needed in fiscal 1977 if the services of trained consultants are to be made available to all the Conference and district agencies in carrying to completion the Committee's research and planning related to the purpose and functions of connectional agencies.

SUMMARY OF REVISIONS OF STRUCTURE RECOMMENDATIONS

(Report L)

V. General recommendations
   A. That the revisions of structure take effect on January 1, 1975 with the exception of the new Commission on the Status and Role of Women which will be constituted June 1, 1974.
   B. That the Councils and their related agencies continue their efforts toward identifying and stating their agency's purpose and function in collaboration with the Conference Committee on Research and Planning aiming toward the fall meeting of the Conference Coordinating Committee as the deadline for the completion of these statements.

C. That if as the Councils and their related agencies have identified and stated their purposes and functions, further revisions in structure become evident, including changes in numbers of members of agencies, channels for election of members, relationship of divisions to boards and councils, such recommendations for structure revision be reported by the Councils to the Conference Coordinating Committee at the fall meeting.

D. That consideration be given by the Conference Councils in collaberation with the Conference Research and Planning Committee and the District Councils to the revision of district agencies in relation to the revised Conference agencies and that recommendation for such revision be reported to the Conference Coordinating Committee.

E. That a composite report be prepared by the responsible Conference and District agencies through the Conference Coordinating Committee, including the statements of purpose and function of Conference agencies and recommendations for revision of Conference and District structures, for presentation to the adjourned session of the Annual Conference in November.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR ANNUAL CONFERENCE

(Report M2)

1. We recommend that the Columns used for apportionments be changed to Columns 33, 34, 38c, 39c, and 40c, as found in the 1973 North Texas Conference Journal.
2. We recommend that the two-decimal system of apportionments be continued. This system involves the local churches' finances and membership. Columns 33, 34, 38c, 39c, and 40c, are added together and figured as a per cent of the total of the Conference. Each local church's membership is figured as a percentage of the Conference total. These two decimals are added together and divided by two and become the decimal for the local church. Then this decimal is multiplied by each apportionment and the local church receives the amount.

3. We recommend that apportionments be set on a straight two-decimal system to the Districts with the understanding that the District Superintendents apportion on this same basis to the churches with any exception to be negotiated with the local church involved.
4. We recommend that the official mileage plan used to reimburse travel expense of members of the Conference Councils, Board and Commissions be changed on June 1, 1974, to the following mileage plan:
   10 cents per mile for 1 person
   11 cents per mile for 2 persons
   12 cents per mile for 3 persons
   Minimum to be 40 miles round trip
5. We recommend that the Annual Conference apportionments be set as follows:

World Service and Conference Programs	673,509
Ministerial Education Fund	163,169
General Administration Fund	23,979
Interdenominational Cooperation Fund	15,986
Temporary General Aid Fund	25,617
Jurisdictional Administration Fund	11,394
Campus Ministries	95,000
Community Ministries	50,000
Church Extension	100,000
Methodist Hospital	75,000
Texas Methodist Colleges	175,000
Black College Fund	96,462
Minimum Salary	35,000
Pensions	340,000
Insurance	210,000
Conference Projects	40,000
District Superintendents Fund	136,500
Conference and Area Staff	95,470

6. We recommend that the support of the Methodist Mission Home of Texas be continued on a voluntary offering and that each church make an effort to receive an amount equivalent to 30 cents per member, but that no goal or apportionment be set by the Conference.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

(Report N1)

I. Report of our Stewardship. We report the following transactions in regard to property under the responsibility of the Board of Trustees. Notations in parenthesis refer to the former actions of the Annual Conference and directions given to the Trustees as reported in the cited Journal.
   A. The property at Renner was sold for $10,000 and the proceeds turned over to the Dallas Northeast District for Church Extension as authorized. (1973, page 106)

B. The McCraws Chapel property has been transferred to the McCraws Chapel Cemetery Association for $10 and costs. (1973, page 106)
C. Two acres out of approximately 20 acres of the White Rock property in Red River County were sold and the proceeds directed to the Trustees of the Paris-Sulphur Springs District for the Pat Mayse District Camp Site. (1973, page 106)
D. The Hemming (Valley View) property was sold for $1200 and the proceeds directed to the Valley View Church as directed. (1972, page 137)
E. On November 26, 1973, at the request of the Board of Pensions, we signed papers selling the property on 9th Street in Bonham, Texas.
F. We have received and have on file a report from P. W. Walker on the Annie Hughey property in Denton.

II. We have requests from the District Superintendent in whose District the following properties are located for the following actions to be taken. We recommend these actions:
A. That the Gladys Church property of approximately one and one half acres located in the Wichita Falls District be declared abandoned, that its sale be authorized and that the proceeds be divided, one half to the Contingency Fund and one half to the Wichita Falls District Trustees.
B. That five lots located in Jolly, Texas, which were the location for a parsonage there, be declared abandoned and the Trustees be directed to assume title and sell them, with the proceeds to be divided, one half to the Contingency Fund and one half to the Wichita Falls District Trustees.
C. That the Trustees be authorized to sell the building at Booneville (which was abandoned last year—1973 Journal, page 106) and donate the land to the Booneville Cemetery Association, with the Cemetery Association paying all costs of transfer. Proceeds from the sale of the building to be placed in the Contingency Fund of the Conference.
D. That the Thrift property in the Wichita Falls District be declared abandoned and the Trustees be directed to take title.
E. That the County Line property in the Wichita Falls District be declared abandoned and the Trustees be directed to take title.
F. That the property at 714 Bonner, Wichita Falls, be sold and the proceeds turned over to the District Trustees of the Wichita Falls District to be used: (1) to pay off a note assumed by the Wichita Falls District in the amount of $4662 on property known as the Sunnyside parsonage; (2) the remainder to be used to assist smaller congregations in repairing present property. NOTE: This proposed action is a part of a series of property transactions in which we have tried to make the best possible use of church property in Wichita Falls. To review the actions thus far taken: The Sunnyside Church was discontinued and the Sunnyside Church property was given to El Buen Pastor Church. In return we received the former El Buen Pastor Church property. The Wichita Falls District assumed the note on the Sunnyside parsonage property. Following this exchange of property, Mt. Calvary Church was given the former El Buen Pastor Church property in exchange for its property (located at 714 Bonner). This is the property which we now recommend for sale. We have a buyer for this property at a sale price of $12,000, with an 8% 30 year note. The Wichita Falls District is willing to take the note—with the expectation that it will be paid off much before its maturity.

G. With the approval and at the direction of Bishop Stowe and his cabinet your trustees assumed charge of the Talco Church property under Paragraph 1441, subsection 4. At the same time it received a request from the Paris-Sulphur Springs District Board of Church Location and Building as follows: (1) that the parsonage building be given to St. Marks United Methodist Church in Arthur City, (2) that cash assets in the amount of $567 be given to the Paris-Sulphur Springs District to be used to pay part of the cost of moving the parsonage building from Talco to Arthur City, and (3) that the remainder of the property go to the Paris-Sulphur Springs District for further extension within the district.

H. That Wilsons Chapel which is located in Collin County and which was declared abandoned at the last Annual Conference (1973 Journal, page 106), be given to the Cemetery Association with the provision that they are to pay all costs and to care for the property.

I. Under the provisions of paragraph 1441 of the Discipline be it resolved that the Wilson Chapel Church at Drop, Texas, be declared abandoned and that the Annual Conference Board of Trustees be instructed to assume responsibility for the property as listed Denton Abstract 1660, Tract 3. The property is to be held in trust for the conference until further action is voted.

J. Under the provisions of paragraph 1441 of the Discipline be it resolved that the Green Valley Church, Denton County, Texas, be declared discontinued and that the Annual Conference Board of Trustees be instructed to assume responsibility for the property listed Denton County Abstract 933, Tract B. This property is to be held in trust for the Conference until further action is voted.

K. Whereas the Charge Conference of the Trinity United Methodist Church, Dallas, Texas, at a meeting held March 10, 1974, voted to request discontinuance: Be it resolved that the North Texas Annual Conference declare Trinity United Methodist Church discontinued according to paragraph 1441 of the Discipline as of the close of the Annual Conference session:

Be it further resolved that the Trustees of the Annual Conference be instructed to take possession of the church and parsonage property with authority to sell said property.

Be it further resolved that the money received from such sales be used to liquidate any debts or obligations owed by the Trinity United Methodist Church and that the remainder after such obligations are met be invested by the Annual Conference Board of Trustees at interest and that the interest be used to aid our work in the city and that this income be administered by the Conference Division of Church Assistance or its duly designated successor.

III. Guittard Amendment—"That the report be amended so that the sale of property, other than the Trinity Church Property, and the proceeds from the sale of the church property be given to the District Trustees with instructions to appropriate the money along the guidelines of 1972."

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

(Report N2)

I. WHEREAS, the former Methodist Church in the Pilot Grove community, located seven miles from Whitesboro, has ceased to exist as an organized church, and its membership has been distributed among the neighboring churches.

THEREFORE, be it resolved that said church be declared abandoned, that the Trustees of the North Texas Conference be directed to assume control of the property, which consists of one acre and one building, that the sale of the property be authorized, and that 50% of the proceeds of the sale go to the North Texas Conference Division of Church Extension and the remaining 50% be retained by the district Trustees of the Sherman District for use on the district parsonage.

II. The following resolution was passed by the Board of Trustees in session on May 28, 1974, and is included in the report for your information and record:

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE NORTH TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, CHARTER NO.91233; that the signatures of the Chairman and of the Secretary of the Board or their elected successors in office shall be (sufficient) to transfer, sell, or hold real or personal property on behalf of the Board.

WILLIAM ANGIE SMITH

"He stood tall among us. He was a man of great energy, a man whose intellect was very keen and sharp, a man whose heart was warm, a man whose decisions we respected. His influence, his insights, his devotion, have been a source of blessing, of strength, and of enrichment to the entire church." These words spoken by Bishop Eugene Slater on behalf of the Council of Bishops of the United Methodist Church, at funeral services for Bishop W. Angie Smith in First United Methodist Church, Dallas, on March 18, 1974, aptly summarize the outstanding and unusual ministry of this man.

William Angie Smith was born in Elgin, Texas, December 21, 1894. He graduated from Southwestern University in 1917, received the M.A. degree from Columbia University in 1924, and was a student at Perkins School of Theology, Vanderbilt University School of Religion and Union Theological Seminary. He received the following honorary degrees: D.D. from Southwestern University, McMurry College, Centenary College, Central College; LL.D. Southern Methodist University; Litt.D. Oklahoma City University; Doctor Sacred Theology, Oklahoma City University.

On July 20, 1920 he was married to the lovely and vivacious Bess Owens of Fort Worth. It was a union which brought mutual strength and joy to them and whose shared love blessed countless lives. Three sons—William Angie III, Bryant Wesley, and Shelby Lee, blessed their marriage and were to become part of a larger family of daughters-in-law, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Angie Smith was ordained to the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal, South, in 1921. His pastorates include the following: Kerrville, Texas 1920-21; Midland, Texas, 1921-23; Tulip Street Church, Nashville, Tenn., 1924-26; Trinity Church, El Paso, Texas, 1926-30; First Church, Shreveport, La., 1930-34; Mt. Vernon Place Church, Washington, D.C., 1934-36; First Methodist Church, Birmingham, Ala., 1936-38; First Methodist Church, Dallas, Texas, 1938-44. Elected a bishop of the Methodist Church in 1944 he was assigned to the Oklahoma—New Mexico Area and the Indian Mission Annual Conferences, comprising more than 840 churches with a total membership of 315,000. Here he began one of the longest and most outstanding episcopal tenures in the history of the church. For 24 years he administered this area through its period of greatest growth, expansion, and activity. During this time he engaged in numerous special services on behalf of the Council of Bishops, representing it in several countries around the world. In 1957 he served as president of the Council of Bishops. In addition, he served on numerous boards and agencies of the Church. He was president of the General Board of Evangelism, 1952-60; chairman, Committee of Structure of Methodism Overseas, 1948-60; vice-president, Methodist Board of Missions, 1952-60. He served as a trustee of Southwestern University, Southern Methodist University, honorary President of McMurry College Board of Trustees, and President of Oklahoma City University Board of Trustees.

The following quotations from Bishop Fred Carson's address at Bishop Smith's funeral service form a fitting close to our cluster of memories for Bishop Smith:

"—W. Angie Smith, a bishop of the United Methodist Church, a man of God, to whom the world was literally his parish.—He was one of God's strong men and distinctive personalities. He was courageous and fair, and forceful as a leader, and whatever he touched he made better.—He was a personification of the poet's 'Happy Warrior', a man who enjoyed his work and found life's complete satisfaction in the work that God had called him to do.—He loved life and he lived it lustily even to the end. Life for him was a happy experience and he made it a happy experience for others.—His work was not only his duty but his privilege. He never strolled through life looking for the easy way. He redeemed the time.—We will remember him as a realist. He was a pragmatic man. He never moved in a world of unreality. In that world of reality where he lived with so much energy and vigor and witness to his Lord, he never dimmed the optimism which was a born part of his nature, or he never in any way dimmed the humor which God had given him.—He was one of the too few men possessed of the rugged personality which is demanded to meet and conquer the hard and impossible situations which confront a great leader. And his ruggedness was a thin cover for his great and tender heart.—Like his Master he was a superb story teller, and used his gift not simply to amuse or entertain, but always to make clear a point.—Bishop Smith was one of those unusual men who in all his tasks was always a success. He never had a failure, as unique as that may sound. Somehow there was given to him an intuition, an intuition that led him, with all the strength that he could give to God, to bring to pass the will of God among men. He seemed to have the ability to turn every moment of his life into a success, though often I know he did not think so, because his standard of success was not doing one's best, his standard of success was crowned only in what he considered to be God's purpose and achievement."

We hail his memory! We are grateful to God for his achievements!

J. DANIEL BARRON

The Reverend J. Daniel Barron was born September 13, 1903, in the Indian Territory of Oklahoma. On July 3, 1973, he stepped into the lawn of his Dallas home, 2935 Dorrington, to water a favorite tree. His heart stopped; he fell and died instantly. He is survived by his wife, Estelle, a son, John Barron, Falls Church, Virginia, a daughter, Mrs. E. C. Whipple, Jr., Dallas, five grandchildren, and four sisters. Funeral services were held at White Rock United Methodist Church, Dallas, on July 5 with Bishop Paul E. Martin and Dr. T. Herbert Minga officiating. Interment was in Van Alstyne, Texas. The Worship Services at White Rock on the following Sunday were dedicated to his memory.

Dan Barron grew up on a farm in emaciated hills near Van Alstyne, riding a horse to a one-room school. At age 17, he fell under the benign influence of the local Methodist pastor, Dr. W. Harrison Baker, who guided him into his church, to college, and eventually into the ministry. He attended Wesley College and Southern Methodist University from which he received A.B., B.D., and M.A. degrees. He began his ministry while still a student at S. M. U. and his first pastorates were the Woodbine Circuit and Tioga-Gunter. Later he became Associate Pastor at First Methodist Church, Wichita Falls, going from there to churches in Plano, Cooper, Iowa Park, before being called to found and organize University Park Methodist Church, Dallas. Under his leadership the new congregation grew to 489 members, acquired a parsonage and built its first church. He also held pastorates in Eastland, Sulphur Springs, Grace Church in Dallas, was District Superintendent of the Wichita Falls District, and from 1959 until his retirement in 1966, he was Pastor of First Methodist Church, Sherman. He was highly respected and admired by ministers and laymen alike throughout the North Texas Conference where he served for more than forty years.

Two years after his retirement, Dr. T. Herbert Minga persuaded Dan to be a part-time Associate Pastor and Minister of Visitation of White Rock Methodist Church where he served for six years, touching the lives of countless people, stating many times that these were the happiest years of his ministry. On the Staff there he became a very special person. Members admired him for his intellect, but loved him for his humility; they had deep respect for his dedication to Christian principles, and loved him because he derived so much fun out of being a Christian; they coveted his eloquence of speech, and loved him for his tremendous sense of humor; they admired his great dignity, but they loved him for his gracious ways and his compassion. They listened to his stories and jokes with rapt attention and delight; they recognized him as an authority on Methodism from John Wesley to the present day, and sought his counsel and wisdom. They grieved over his illness, but when he entered the church smiling, they smiled with him.

Thousands of people rejoiced because J. Daniel Barron passed their way, and they mourned when this great and good man died.

White Rock United Methodist Church, Dallas

AUBREY LEE DENNIS

Aubrey Lee Dennis was born October 1, 1898, at Old Saltillo, (Hopkins County) Texas. He died suddenly, at the Franklin County Hospital, December 6, 1973.

His funeral services were conducted December 8, 1973, in the Old Saltillo United Methodist Church. Dr. C. C. Sessions, Rev. James Westbrook, and Rev. Frank Yates officiated. He was buried in the Old Saltillo cemetery.

He joined the church early in life.

On December 23, 1918, he was married to Christine Orren. To this union was born a son, Aubrey Morris. She preceded him in death April 25, 1925.

On December 24, 1927, he married Addie Dell Linker. To this union was born three sons and one daughter: John Quintin, Wilda Ruth, Zebedee Louis, and Paul Gene. Zebedee Louis died July 14, 1935, at the age of two years. In addition to Mrs. Dennis and his surviving children, he is survived by six grandchildren; three great grandchildren; one brother, Martin Luther Dennis, of Saltillo; and a sister, Mrs. Carrie Moore, of Dallas.

A. L. Dennis was licensed to preach at the District Conference at Pecan Gap in 1929. He was ordained Deacon in 1951, and Elder in 1953.

His appointments included the Mt. Vernon circuit, Forestburg circuit, Vashti circuit, Sulphur Bluff circuit, Perrin-Bartons Chapel, and the Sulphur Bluff circuit for a second time. He retired in June, 1964, after having completed fifteen years on the Sulphur Bluff circuit.

After his retirement, he became Pastor of Visitation at First United Methodist Church, Sulphur Springs, for about two and one-half years. At the same time he also served as supply pastor for Mahoney, Old Saltillo, and Saltillo. He was serving Old Saltillo, Mahoney, and Pine Forest at the time of his death.

Brother Dennis was always faithful to God and His Church. He loved the people he served, and tried to bring cheer to all whom he came to know. He never lost his sense of humor. He often said if the people of the world are to be saved, they must be saved through love. He didn't stop with serving his own people. He served people of all faiths, and was loved by all who knew him.

WILLIAM B. REAVES, SR.

The Reverend William B. Reaves, Sr. was born April 8, 1891 in Hector, Arkansas, the son of C. K. and Francis Newton Reaves. He was married to Ida M. Pierce on December 24, 1916. Four children were born to the Reverend and Mrs. Reaves, one of whom, Oleta, preceded her father in death. Surviving Brother Reaves are his wife, Ida, of Dallas; Dorothy Reaves Vise of Fort Worth; W. B. Reaves of Houston; and Ann Reaves Jobe of Dallas. Other survivors are two sisters: Mary E. Woods of Whitesboro; and Jewel Walker of Paulsboro, Arkansas. There are also seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren surviving.

The Reverend Reaves received his High School education and his training as a Pharmacist in Hector, Arkansas. He was first employed as manager of a drug store owned by a group of doctors. The young Mr. Reaves had long dreamed of becoming a doctor himself; and so after three years, he left the managership of the store to continue his education.

Brother Reaves, as he was lovingly known, was not to fulfill this dream, for the Lord had other things which he desired of this young life. Under the prompting of the Lord, this dream of healing the sick of body was changed to a passion for the seeking of the spiritually ill. Thus on October 21, 1921, W. B. Reaves secured his license to preach in the Methodist Church. Such was his desire to be "about his Father's business" that he received his first appointment to the Dexter Circuit on the 25th of October, 1921. He was ordained Deacon in 1923 and Elder in 1925. After 37 1/2 years of warm, faithful, loving, and dedicated service, Brother Reaves took the Superannuate Relationship in 1958. It was his delight that he never missed a roll-call during his entire active ministry, and that he had missed but one during his Retired Relationship.

Brother Reaves never lost his desire for formal education. Thus, while serving the old Gainesville Mission, he enrolled in the Cook County Junior College; and later, he was to take work at Southern Methodist University. He continued to serve his appointments faithfully and acceptably while doing his work as a student.

Among the appointments served by Brother Reaves are: Dexter, the first of a long list;

Bells; Holliday; Lambuth; Seagoville; Mary King Memorial; Hutchins-Wilmer; and Wolfe City. Wherever this "soldier of the Cross" served, people loved him; for he gave of himself to the very utmost. He was truly an "evangelist," a seeker of the lost; and many were they who followed his guidance into the Kingdom. He loved people and people loved him. He was a warm, kind, and loving pastor to all to whom he was sent.

Services for the Reverend W. B. Reaves were conducted by the Reverend C. Michael Haynes and the Reverend William Greenhaw in the Grace United Methodist Church on November 16, 1973.

As the Apostle Paul said of himself, we would say of Brother Reaves:

"(he) has run the great race, (he) has finished the course,
(he) kept the faith. And now the prize awaits (him), the garland of righteousness which the Lord, the all-just Judge, will award (him) on that great Day; and not for (him) alone, but for all who have set their hearts on his coming appearance"
(II Timothy 4:7, 8—E. U. B.)

Thus we bid him farewell until we meet again in the "Father's house (where) there are many rooms."

W. Raymond Corrigan

WILLIAM B. SLACK, SR.

On the evening of May 8, 1974 a service of worship in remembrance of the life and ministry of William B. Slack Sr. was celebrated at the Chapel Hill UMC in Dallas, Texas.

His life had begun January 31, 1895 in Rosanky, Texas. He was the second son and third child of Charles Franklin and Sallie Renfro Slack.

His ministry in the church had begun with the license to preach given on November 11, 1915 when he was a sophomore at Southwestern University in Georgetown.

Upon graduation from college he chose to enter the armed forces during the first World War. He was awarded the gold wings of a pilot in the Naval Air Corps.

He returned to SMU as a student in the school of theology. While he was a student he served the Pleasant Mound Church. In 1921 he joined the Oklahoma conference where he discovered that he was the only man in his class "on trial" who held a B.D. degree.

His appointments in Oklahoma included: Wright City, Caddo, St. Mark's Okla. City, Tipton, El Reno, Hobart, Lawton Centenary, Okmulgee, and the Ardmore District. In 1940 he became pastor of 1st Church New Orleans, La. A year later was sent to Winfield Memorial Little Rock, Ark. He also served 1st Church Hot Springs.

His North Texas appointments were: Floral Heights Wichita Falls, The Greenville District, Denton First, and the Sherman-McKinney District.

Bill Slack Sr. was honored many times to serve as delegate to General and Jurisdictional Conferences, including the Uniting Conference of 1939 in Kansas City, Mo. He was also honored by his Alma Mater, Southwestern University, to receive the Doctor of Divinity.

He retired in 1967 but continued to serve out his life commitment. One year in Royse City and six years as an associate at Chapel Hill in Dallas.

His death occurred on the afternoon of May 4, 1974.

Among some random notes which he had left behind was found a recollection of his first sermon which he had preached on January 2, 1916. His text for that occasion was from Psalm 16:11: "Thou dost show me the path of life; in thy presence there is fullness of joy, in thy right hand are pleasures for evermore". William B. Slack Sr. was privileged to share over 58 years of his life in 'fullness of joy' with the church and the Lord whom he truly loved.

William B. Slack, Jr.

WILLIAM HENRY VAIL

The Reverend William Henry Vail, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Clitheral Vail, was born in Alabama on August 2, 1888. He graduated from Wesley College and did additional work at Southern Methodist University. Mr. Vail taught in public schools of Texas for a number of years before entering the ministry. He was licensed to preach and admitted on trial in the North Texas Conference in 1917. His ordination as an elder came in 1923, when the Conference met at Whaley Memorial Church in Gainesville. He was ordained by Bishop John M. Moore. Mr. Vail was serving the White Rock—Williams Chapel charge when he and Mrs. Vail were married on September 5, 1917.

Some of Bro. Vail's appointments were: Henrietta Mission, White Rock—Williams Chapel, Trenton, Southmayde, Vickery, Mary King, Whitesboro, and Wolfe City. For four years, he was superintendent of C. C. Young Memorial Home. His last assignment was Associate Pastor of First Methodist Church in Sulphur Springs. After his retirement, he moved into his own home in Clarksville, Texas. Two years ago, he and Mrs. Vail became residents of C. C. Young Memorial Home, where he lived until his death, July 14, 1973. Mrs. Vail survives him and continues to live at the C. C. Young Home.

Bro. Vail was loved and appreciated by every church he served. He was loyal to the Conference and proved himself a good minister of the gospel. He never forgot the commitment made when he was admitted on trial in the Conference, promising to visit from house to house. In every community where he served, he was known and appreciated by business men regardless of denomination. This servant of God gave himself unselfishly to the work of the ministry, never complaining about hardships and low salaries. Because of his unusual business ability, he ably gave himself to the management of superannuate Homes in the Conference for several years. This work was done in addition to his regular pastoral duties.

His funeral service was conducted by Reverend Allie Davenport and the writer at McKenzie Memorial Methodist Church in Clarksville, Texas on July 16, 1973. Internment was in White Rock Cemetery, north of Clarksville.

MRS. GWENDOLYN TOMLINSON

WE are here this afternoon for two solid reasons ..... to proclaim the truth of God's grace and love in Jesus Christ ..... and to celebrate and give thanks for the life of Gwen Tomlinson . .

Each of us knew her, cared about her and loved her in our own way and out of our own experience. We shared our history with her ..... we honor her by contemplating what she meant to us .... what she meant to the world in which she had her life in time and place.

I have the privilege of speaking out of what she meant to me ..... speaking of how I experienced her as another human being. Socrates said that there are only three issues about life ... reason, love and death.

I, like Socrates, would say that there are three issues as a way to view Gwen.

She had a passion for reason ... logic ... and clear thinking. Her head relentlessly pursued a matter so that it made sense to her ... and she was impatient and intolerant of sloppy thinking. If something could not be understood totally ... then she was accurate and precise in her awareness of what was missing ... and then she could live with it. Her cognitive and perceptive capabilities detected duplicity and pretense. That's the educated way of saying she could smell a phoney a mile off.

Gwen was an intense lover ... a person of great capacity to care. But she was not a sentimentalist whose loyalties were easily swayed. Her lovingness gave her integrity, honor and devotion ... and these were gifts she gave to those she loved ... gifts that will expand the lives of those who received her love.

Gwen, I suspect was more closely acquainted with death than most of us. She lived and struggled with a cardiac organ that apparently was faulty from the factory ... they can't be recalled and replaced like a new carburetor. She spent many a lonely night in the hospital getting acquainted with her humaness ... which means death and life.

She may have had a defective blood pump but she had a strong heart FOR SHE HAD FAITH AND COURAGE GALORE!

She leaves a legacy of tough mindedness . . . careful loving . . . and the courage to meet death as a friend.

Those who grieve for her owe her the task of capitalizing and reflecting on her struggle and to compound that legacy with interest.

Now is the time to begin to fill the emptiness with the blessing of memories.

The psalmist has said there is a table spread before us in the presence of our enemies. Those enemies are the relentless flow of time and the inevitability of death. The banquet feast is the feast of faith and the riches of God's eternal love.

Amen

MRS. SARAH BROYLES

Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Broyles was born in the Millwood Community on April 28, 1889. She passed away quietly at her home in Dallas May 10, 1974. Mrs. Broyles was one of nine children born to Tom J. and Emma Montgomery Squibb, a traditional and prominent Methodist family in Rockwall County. She was the mother of two children, a son, J. T. Fitzpatrick of Royse City, and a daughter, Mrs. Bertie Mae Thurman, of Sacramento, California, both of whom survive her.

On December 8, 1947, she married the Reverend Fred P. Broyles who was then Pastor of First Methodist Church, Mesquite. As a Pastor's wife, she was loved and admired by the congregations she and her husband served during the ensuing years before retirement. Their appointments were First United Methodist Church, Mesquite, First United Methodist Church, Vernon, Memorial United Methodist Church, and Ervay Street United Methodist Church, Dallas. Retirement from the United Methodist Church ministry was from the Ervay Street United Methodist Church in 1959.

The funeral service for Mrs. Broyles was held in First United Methodist Church in Royse City on Saturday, May 11, by the writer and the Reverend John Lightfoot, Pastor of the Royse City Church.

Mrs. Broyles was a gracious lady and her friendliness, her faithfulness and her good works will live long in the hearts and minds of those whom she loved and served.

MRS. MOLLIE B. DAVIS

Mrs. Mollie B. Davis, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horatio Paxton Davis, was born in the state of Texas on June 12, 1874. She departed from this life on December 12, 1973 at the age of ninety-nine years, six months. Services were conducted in the chapel of Sparkman-Hillcrest Funeral Home in Dallas on Friday, December 14, 1974 at 1:00 P.M. with Dr. Walker Railey officiating.

She was the wife of Reverend Jefferson B. Davis, with whom she shared a long and fulfilling ministry in the North Texas Conference. Reverend Davis was re-united with his Maker on June 27, 1947.

Her final years were spent as a resident of Blanton Gardens, where those around her were able to experience some of the warmth, sensitivity and personal devotion which characterized her entire life. She was a committed Christian, a loving companion and a diligent worker, and everyone who knew her at all is a better person as a result. Though she is physically gone, her spirit rests within our memories and lives within our hearts.

MRS. EMMA LANCASTER

Mrs. Emma Pearce Lancaster was born November 2, 1894. On January 1, 1914 she was united in marriage to Reverend Frank Lancaster. One daughter, Jessie Ruth, was born to this couple, but passed away in her sixth year.

Mrs. Lancaster's early love and talent was artistic painting. In fact, one of her earliest paintings was done at the age of 5 years. Many homes and churches today have her paintings. She put on canvas scenes depicting Bible stories. Because of her love for flowers, trees and streams she also painted these. She held membership in several art clubs.

Mrs. Lancaster and her husband served the Methodist church most devotedly. One can imagine some of the hardships of the parsonage life and ministry in the early days of their married life. They served churches at Weston, Josephine, Chisolm, Caddo Mills, Bogata, Wylie, Seagoville, Ector, Decatur and Sulphur Springs Circuit. In 1946 she and her husband moved to Garland to retire. Reverend Lancaster preceded her in death on January 12, 1962.

For the past several years, Mrs. Lancaster spent part of the time with her sisters in Tyler, Texas, but maintained her home in Garland. She is survived by sisters Mrs. Ed Yarbrough and Mrs. Sadie Smith.

Services were held on February 1, 1974 at First United Methodist Church, Garland with Dr. G. W. French and The Reverend Henry Mood conducting.

Mrs. Lancaster was buried at Pecan Grove Cemetery, McKinney, Texas.

MRS. MAPLE DODD SHINN

Mrs. Maple Dodd Shinn, wife of the late Rev. Robert F. Shinn, passed on to her eternal reward August 19, 1973. She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Mary Ruth Shafer of Lewisville.

Mrs. Shinn was a person who, like the apostle Paul, endured much hardship with dignity and grace. Her husband was stricken with blindness not so very many years after their marriage in 1925, and Mrs. Shinn ministered to his needs with quiet dignity and warm compassion. They enjoyed music together: her on piano, him on banjo, and numerous friends with guitars and "fiddles". Together they set about their task of evangelism.

The best description of Mrs. Shinn and her life as God's child in the world comes from her own hand—a short note found in her Bible: "I am grateful for friends and loved ones who have helped me to make my life richer, broader and deeper. I give God praise that I have had the holy privilege of helping to point men to the ways of salvation. 10-12-55" Such was the spirit of this Lady of the Lord.

MRS. WILLIE W. SLAGLE

Mrs. Willie W. Slagle was born December 12, 1882 in Fulton County, Kentucky. She died on September 16, 1973 in Gainesville, Texas where she had resided for a number of years.

She was married to Rev. J. W. Slagle on July 14, 1897. He preceded her in death in 1964, after having served in the North Texas Conference for thirty-five years.

Survivors include Mrs. Sears Anderson, Whitesboro; Mrs. Weldon Clack, Gainesville; G. M. Slagle, Ft. Worth; Ralph Slagle, Midland; and Oscar Slagle, San Francisco, California. One daughter, Mrs. Robert Aughtry of Gainesville, passed away shortly after her mother's death; and a son, Gordon, died February 9, 1959. Other survivors include eighteen grand-children, thirty-nine great grand-children.

For Mrs. Slagle, life was truly a sacrament, and she sought to give back into her River of Years her finest stewardship. She knew the meaning of the Cross; she was acquainted with the sorrows as well as the joys of life. Truly, for Bro. and Mrs. Slagle, there was a romance about the ministry which showed up all along the way. What a Godly heritage these two left to their families, to the church and to the towns and communities where they served.

Following the funeral service at Whaley United Methodist Church in Gainesville, the body was taken to Fairview Cemetery for burial.

GEORGIA HAVANAH WRIGHT

Georgia Havanah Wright was born in Ben Franklin, Texas on October 14, 1889. She grew up in Ben Franklin where she attended school, and later was a student at East Texas College.

On May 4, 1926, she married the Reverend W. H. Wright in Mineral Wells, Texas. They became a team in the ministry until his death in 1942. Brother Wright's last pastorate was at Garrett Memorial Church in Paris. Mrs. Wright remained in the home for retired ministers at 1742 W. Kaufman Street, Paris, until her death.

Mrs. Wright was a dedicated servant of the Lord and his church throughout her life. She remained active in the church's affairs at the Garrett Memorial church, and participated in the women's work as much as her health would allow. Since childhood she always gave evidence of a strong sense of maturity and responsibility.

Death came to Mrs. Wright on July 3, 1973. The service was conducted by Reverend Edwin T. Hayes of Terrell and her pastor, Reverend Ira H. Thompson of Oak Park United Methodist Church. Burial was in the Evergreen Cemetery at Paris.

Mrs. Wright is survived by one stepdaughter, Mrs. J. Ed (Lizzie) Castleberry of Paris, two stepsons, Dr. H. Lindsay Wright of Paris, and W. Bruce Wright, Dallas, five step grandchildren, twelve great step grandchildren, and four step great great grandchildren.

MRS. LENA MAE JENSON

The story of Mrs. Lena Mae Jenson's life is a recounting of those deeply rewarding experiences that bring profound joy and depth to life. The itinerary of her life was filled with love as a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, friend and servant of her Lord and His Church.

Born at Meridian, Texas on February 19, 1896, Lena Mae Draper married Tilden Marion Jenson on August 17, 1920. Four children blessed their home, beginning with Loretta, followed by twin boys Artie and Tommie and a second girl, Wanda June.

While active at Trinity Heights Methodist Church, Mr. Jenson decided to enter the Methodist ministry in 1932. After many years of faithful service in several churches in the North Texas Conference, the Jensons celebrated their Silver Wedding Anniversary while at Elmwood United Methodis' Church on August 17, 1945.

Tragedy also struck the Jenson family while at Elmwood when news of their son Tommie's death was received from the Navy Department. Tommie was a pilot during World War II.

Following many joyous years of ministry, her husband died while serving First United Methodist Church in Duncanville in 1962. At that time Mrs. Jenson returned to spend the remaining years of her life at Elmwood. These last years were joyfully spent in dedicated service to her Lord and His Church. The Elmwood Chancel Choir remained one of her greatest loves.

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Jenson in the sanctuary of Elmwood United Methodist Church on April 9, during Holy Week, 1974. The service itself, concluding with THE HALLELUJAH CHORUS, lifted up for her loved ones and friends the joy of a life lived to the glory of God, family and friends. It was indeed fitting that a Service Of Celebration mark the end of a life lived and consummated in the joy of her Lord.

A New Conference Including Conferences from the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, 1867-1938 and The Methodist Church, 1938,-1968, and specifically The North Texas Conference of the South Central Jurisdiction of the United Methodist Church and certain members, congregations, and ministers from The West Texas Conference of The Central Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church.

STANDING RULES

RULE 1. The Rules of Order adopted by the General Conference of the United Methodist Church shall prevail at all business sessions of the conference.

RULE 2. The designated functions of the disciplinary Council on Ministries in the North Texas Conference are delegated to the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries, the Conference Council on Local Church Ministries, the Conference Council on Professional Ministries, and the Conference Coordinating Committee. Annually these four agencies will meet jointly to determine that all functions of the Council on Ministries as required by the Discipline are being performed effectively through the three Councils and the Coordinating Committee.

RULE 3. The Bishop, District Superintendents, chairperson of each District Council shall constitute the Conference Nominating Committee.

The North Texas Annual Conference shall make it a policy to rotate membership on Conference agencies, limiting any person to eight (8) successive years. However, a person may be reelected to a conference agency after non-membership for four (4) years. The number of years of each person's term shall be listed after his name in the Annual Conference Journal where the membership of the agencies is listed. Membership, except ex-officio, shall not be held at the same time on more than one quadrennial council, board, or division. This rule shall not be construed to apply to Trustees of Institutions.

The following agencies will be constituted through quadrennial election by the Annual Conference of chairpersons of councils, boards, divisions, commissions, and the Coordinating Committee on nomination by the Conference Nominating Committee and annual election of members of boards, divisions, and commissions by the several district councils on nomination by the district nominating committees:

The membership of each of the three Conference Councils on Ministries will be the council chairperson, the chairpersons of the boards of the council, the cabinet representatives of the boards, the chairpersons of the divisions of the boards, and a representative from each of the Conference commissions. In addition, the Board of Campus Ministries may elect two of its members to the Council on Connectional Ministries. The Division of Youth Ministries may elect two youth to the Council on Local Church Ministries.

The membership of the Conference Coordinating Committee will be the four Conference Councils chairpersons, the district councils chairpersons, the Conference boards chairpersons, the Conference commissions chairpersons, the Research and Planning, Headquarters Center, and Standing Rules Committees chairpersons, the Conference representative on the General Council on Ministries, the president of the Conference United Methodist Women, the presiding bishop, the administrative assistant, the district superintendents, the Conference Council director, and the Conference secretary. The chairpersonship of the Coordinating Committee will be rotated annually in alphabetical sequence among the four chairpersons of the three Conference Councils on Ministries and the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

The chairpersons and members of the Conference Committee on the Headquarters Center, Research and Planning, and Standing Rules will be elected quadrennially by the Annual Conference on nomination by the Conference Nominating Committee. The membership of the Personnel Committee will be the chairpersons of the four Conference Councils, the chairperson of the Conference Commission on Assembly Facilities, and members of the Cabinet. The chairman of the Cabinet will be chairman of the Personnel Committee.

RULE 4. "The Cabinet representative and the Conference Council Director shall be ex-officio members of conference agencies with all privileges of membership except the power to vote, except where otherwise provided in the Discipline."

RULE 5. Section A: No one shall be a member of a conference board if he is in the salaried employment of an institution that receives support from the board.
Section B: No member of this conference who is a salaried employee of any institution to which this conference contributes shall be a member of the Board of Trustees of the institution by which he is employed.
Section C: No member of the Council on Finance and Administration shall be a member of any conference committee or commission, or a trustee of a conference institution that is supported either partially or totally, by the Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 6. All reports of conference agencies shall be submitted in duplicate to the Conference Coordinating Committee for their work in preparation for the meeting of the Annual Conference Councils on or before the day designated by the Conference Coordinating Committee. The reports shall be typewritten, double spaced and on one side of the page only.

RULE 7. At the first session of the Annual Conference succeeding the General Conference, a conference treasurer shall be elected by the Conference on nomination of the Council on Finance and Administration and the Annual Conference shall designate a conference depository for all conference funds.

RULE 8. The Lay delegates to the Annual Conference may be elected quadrennially at the Charge Conference preceding the regular quadrennial meeting of the General Conference. The term of office of annual conference delegates shall begin on January 1 after their election at the Fall Charge Conference. If, for any reason, the Charge Conference is delayed until after January 1, their term of office shall begin immediately upon election.

RULE 9. The term of office of local church officials elected by the Fall Charge Conference shall begin on January 1 and run for the length of their term. This rule shall not apply to members of local Boards of Trustees.

RULE 10. A quadrennial committee on memoirs composed of a chairman and the secretary of the conference shall insure suitable memorials of deceased brethren. Every clerical member of the conference shall file with the secretary of the conference an historical sketch of his life on the registration blank to be furnished by the secretary. This document shall become a part of the official record of the minister.

RULE 11. The Minister, who shall be in charge of the funeral services of any member of the North Texas Conference, will supply the secretary of this conference with an obituary and picture of the deceased member immediately after the funeral services are held. The minister conducting the funeral services of any minister's wife of the North Texas Conference will immediately after the funeral service supply the secretary of the conference with the name of the minister's wife, and dates of birth and death.

RULE 12. The Board of Professional Personnel shall inquire of each district superintendent about the life and official administration of each member of the conference in his district and report to the conference as to whether all the ministerial members of the conference are blameless in their life and official administration.

RULE 13. The secretary of the North Texas Conference Board of Trustees shall be furnished a legal description of each piece of property in the District, along with a statement as to where the deeds are kept, by the District Superintendent of that District, on or before December 1. This list shall be revised annually by the District Superintendent by December 1 to include each real estate transaction.

RULE 14. The District Superintendent shall be required to report district parsonage statistics to the statistical secretary.

RULE 15. Section A: Each church and pastor shall submit the Annual Conference report to the District Auditor for auditing on the day specified by the District Superintendent. Pastors must have receipts or vouchers to verify all amounts which have been paid to the Conference Treasurer and are not listed on the print-out sheet supplied by the Conference Treasurer.
Section B: Each District Superintendent, upon nomination of the Conference Statistician, shall appoint a District Auditor, whose responsibility it shall be to audit the Annual Conference reports. The District Auditor shall prepare these reports in correct form on the blank provided by the Conference Statistician and shall deliver them to the Statistical Secretary no later than 30 days following the District Check-out Day.
Section C: The Conference Treasurer's books shall be closed December 31 of each year and no funds received by the Conference Treasurer after that date shall apply on that year's Conference apportionments, unless an extension has been granted by the Bishop and a majority of the cabinet.
Section D: The fiscal year of the Annual Conference shall be January 1 to December 31. The apportionments to the local churches shall be made on this basis. The only exception to this shall be the salaries of the clerical members serving as pastors or district superintendents. When a pastoral change comes at Annual Conference, the salary in the previous appointment shall be paid through May 31, and the salary in the new appointment shall begin June 1.

RULE 16. Section A: A District Conference may be held annually in each district of the Annual Conference. The elective members of the District Conference shall consist of one layman for every sixty members, or major fraction thereof in the local church, provided that each pastoral charge shall have at least one elective delegate to the District Conference.
Section B: These delegates shall be elected by the Charge Conference or by a session of the Annual Church Conference if authorized by the district superintendent at the request of the Administration Board.

RULE 17. Gifts to members of the conference in recognition for service rendered shall not be made on the floor of the conference.

RULE 18. Interest earned on any funds administered by the Conference Treasurer for any Agency with the exception of the Divisions of Pensions, Board of Professional Support shall be declared general funds of the North Texas Annual Conference and shall be appropriated by the Annual Conference on recommendation of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 19. No agency of the North Texas Conference shall incur financial obligations that exceed current appropriations for any reason except by specific approval of their respective Council on Ministries, the presiding Bishop and the Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 20. Section A: No conference agency shall include requests for funds other than those required for its own operation or program; requests for funds for the same cause or concern shall be granted to only one conference agency.
Section B: Conference Agencies of the North Texas Conference shall make expenditures only in accordance with the line items of their respective budgets for the current year and shall in no case introduce new items not included in their approved budget. New items may be submitted to the Council on Finance and Administration for appraisal and consideration for the current year or may be included in the budget request submitted for the coming year.
Section C: Any Agency in the Conference has the right of appeal to the Annual Conference regarding a decision affecting their work made by any other agency, except where otherwise provided in the Discipline.

RULE 21. Section A: Each Council on Ministries is responsible for presenting to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration a proposed budget incorporating program and administrative items for its boards and related district agencies. This report is to be submitted on or before the date set annually by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.
Section B: Any unexpended sums remaining at the end of the Conference year in the appropriation to any agency of the Conference shall be returned to the Conference Treasurer for redistribution by the Conference upon the recommendation of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 22. When application is made to the conference for the privilege of a special conference-wide financial appeal, whether by special collection, campaigns, or otherwise, the application shall be referred to the Council on Finance and Administration before final action is taken thereon. The Council shall investigate the application and its possible relation to other obligations of the conference, and in light of the facts make recommendations to the Annual Conference. (917)

RULE 23. Section A: The Council on Finance and Administration shall nominate to the Annual Conference an auditing firm which shall audit the Conference Treasurer's books, and the books of all annual conference agencies which receive their support from the Council. This audit shall be performed within sixty (60) days following the close of the Annual Conference fiscal year.
Section B: Each institution receiving financial support from the conference, either by direct apportionment or by special offerings, shall submit an annual auditor's report made by a certified accountant to the Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 24. Each District Superintendent shall supply the Treasurer and Secretary of the Conference with a list for all churches (and total of churches when more than one church is on a charge) of all apportionments for the Conference fiscal year, said list to be furnished no later than one month prior to the beginning of each new fiscal year. These apportionments shall be recorded by the Secretary and Treasurer of the Conference as the official assessments against the several charges of the Annual Conference.

RULE 25. Each pastor in charge shall be required to report to his district superintendent on District Check-out Day any money borrowed necessary to pay current church obligations for the Conference fiscal year, or any delinquent church bills which have not been paid by the close of the Conference fiscal year.

RULE 26. A Standing Rules Committee shall be elected quadrennially. It shall be the responsibility of this committee to oversee structural changes in the standing rules. All standing rule changes and new standing rules shall be submitted to the Standing Rules Committee at least two weeks prior to the spring meetings of the Conference Councils on Ministries. All standing rule changes must be submitted to the rules committee before they shall be considered for Annual Conference action.

RULE 27. It shall require a two-thirds (2/3) vote of all lay and clerical delegates present and voting, to suspend or to amend any of these standing rules.

RULE 28. Matters which are not a part of the Pre-conference Report of a particular agency of the Annual Conference may come before the conference only after they have been mimeographed or printed and laid on the desk of the delegates at the beginning of the day they are to be considered. This Rule shall not be so construed as to preclude proper amendments to reports or matters of privilege.
