I. CONFERENCE HISTORY

United Methodism in North Texas began in 1816-17 as part of Arkansas Methodism in the Missouri Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. When the denomination divided in 1844-45, Methodists of this area became a part of the East Texas Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. In 1867, the approximate area of what is now this conference was set apart as the Trinity Conference, and later (1874) renamed the North Texas Conference.

The Methodist Episcopal Church had little organized work in Texas after 1845, until 1867 when a Texas Mission was formed. Out of that Mission came the West Texas Conference (primarily Black). In 1939, the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and The Methodist Protestant Church united to form The Methodist Church. The West Texas Conference, while a part of The Methodist Church, was in the Central Jurisdiction (all Black). The North Texas Conference was a part of the South Central Jurisdiction, which was one of the geographical jurisdictions.

At the Uniting Conference to form the United Methodist Church held in Dallas, Texas, April 1968, a new Annual Conference was formed in North Texas including members, congregations, and ministers of the North Texas Conference of The Methodist Church of the South Central Jurisdiction (1939-1968), and members, one congregation, and one minister of the Oklahoma-Texas Conference of the Evangelical and United Brethren Church (1886-1968).

At a merger conference held in Dallas, Texas, in May, 1970, members, congregations, and ministers of the North Texas Conference; and members, congregations, and ministers of the West Texas Conference located within the geographical boundaries of the North Texas Conference became the North Texas Conference of The United Methodist Church.

In 1988, the South Central Jurisdictional Conference, meeting in New Orleans, created two episcopacies from what had been the single Dallas-Fort Worth Episcopal Area. This action resulted in the geographical region encompassed by the North Texas Conference being designated the Dallas Episcopal Area, while the Central Texas Conference became the Ft. Worth Area. Since that time, the North Texas Conference has been served by its own bishop.

The sessions of the current North Texas Conference are numbered first from 1867, the organizational date for the North Texas Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Texas Mission of the Methodist Episcopal Church and secondly from 1970, the date of merger of the former North Texas and West Texas Conferences.

A list of the Conference Sessions of these separate conferences is printed in:

(1) the 1939 Journal of the North Texas Conference, South Central Jurisdiction, (P.28-29) and the 1967 Journal of the North Texas Conference, South Central Jurisdiction (P.140);
(2) the 1967 Journal of the West Texas Conference of the Central Jurisdiction (P.88);
(3) the 1967 Official Record of the Oklahoma-Texas Conference of the Evangelical and United Brethren Church (P.17); and
(4) other histories of Methodism in North Texas.

Conference Sessions since 1968 are listed inside the back cover of this Journal.

VIII. DAILY PROCEEDINGS

SUNDAY AFTERNOON AND EVENING
June 3, 2012

Laity Session
Custer Road United Methodist Church, Plano, Texas, 3:30 p.m.

The laity session of The North Texas Conference was held at Custer Road United Methodist Church of Plano. Conference Lay Leader, Richard Hearne, welcomed the lay members of annual conference, and Youth Representative Ricky Harrison opened the session with prayer.

Hearne was recognized as the outgoing lay leader and Linda Parks was recognized as the Conference Lay Leader elect. The Memorial Service recognized those lay members who had died within the past year. Parks led a discussion on living, leading and developing laity fruitfulness. Lay delegates to General Conference reported and answered questions.

The closing prayer was offered by Ricky Harrison.

Clergy Session
First United Methodist Church, Plano, Texas, 3:30 p.m.

The North Texas Conference clergy gathered at First United Methodist Church, Plano, and Bishop Bledsoe called the meeting to order at 3:32 p.m. Bishop Bledsoe opened with words of appreciation. He recommended Bishop Schnase's book Remember the Future and Bishop Job's Three Simple Questions. Bishop Bledsoe asked that the focus of Annual Conference not be on him, that he had repeatedly experienced the pastor's heart in the Annual Conference. He invited the clergy to Holy Conferencing. He received a standing ovation. Bishop Bledsoe introduced host pastor Gary Mueller. Mueller welcomed all and introduced David Gonzalez to offer the opening prayer. Debbie Chapman, Director of Music and Worship, and Mark Lucke, Organist, led the clergy in the opening hymn, And Are We Yet Alive.

Bishop Bledsoe then called on Gary Mueller, chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, for the Board's report. (Note: The details of the complete report can be found in Section X. BUSINESS OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE.) Mueller expressed his gratitude for all four years as Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry. He reported on General Conference legislation regarding guaranteed appointments (Par. 337 in the BOD where the word "shall" was changed to "may.") Mueller explained that there would be three options—less than full-time appointment, placement on administrative process, or transitional leave granted or requested by the cabinet. The key amendments were that there would be a hearing before the committee on conference relations, there must be approval by the BOM, and it must be voted on by clergy session. Bill Lawrence reported that the Judicial Council will review the constitutionality of these changes in October. They will take effect January 1 if voted constitutional. Jerry Putnam asked if criteria would be set for transitioning to half-time and if there is funding for this. Keith Payne Boone said that in 2013, there is very little—$5,000.

Mueller presented the BOM Chair nominees for two clergy from the BOM to serve as members of the Advisory Team on Missional appointments. Jan Davis and Stan Copeland were elected.

Mueller and the committee heads of the Board of Ordained Ministry, walked the session through the reporting structure having to do with all matters of the clergy, as prescribed by the General Conference.

Jill Jackson-Sears, candidacy registrar of the Board of Ordained Ministry, noted that the names of those who were certified candidates for ministry, question 19, were printed in the handout document and asked that any corrections to the list be submitted in writing. She explained that the BOM has created mentor training and referred clergy to a brochure on the BOM website.

James Minor, chair of the Committee on Certification, presented those in specialized ministry.

Pete Adrian, Local Pastors Chair, asked local pastors to come forward as their names were read. Adrian called attention to the names of the local pastors in answer to questions 20–23 and read the new names. The names, part-time and full-time, were approved unanimously.

Larry George, Assistant to the Bishop, presented the names of those appointed from other conferences and other Christian denominations as well as associate members and elders serving less than ¾ time. The names were approved unanimously.

Dennis Wilkinson, Committee on Conference Relations Chair, reported on all changes in clergy persons' relationships to the conference. The names of the clergy members who had died since the last conference session were read.

Bishop Bledsoe asked John Rosenburg to lead a memorial prayer. (See also Memorial Service in Section VIII. DAILY PROCEEDINGS for Tuesday, June 5, and Section XIV. MEMORIALS.)

Wilkinson read the names of the elders retiring this year, and each came forward. They were honored with applause and Bishop Bledsoe shook the hand of each retiree.

Pete Adrian read the names of all local pastors retiring this year, and invited each to come forward. Lucia French and Pablo Guardiola were added to the names of the newly licensed. The local pastors were honored with applause and Bishop Bledsoe shook the hand of each.

Todd Harris, chair of the Committee on Preparations and Qualifications, presented to the clergy session the candidates for provisional membership and commissioning. Harris reported on the progress of the Making Disciples project. The candidates came and stood before the Bishop and each received a favorable vote by the membership.

Gary Stephens and JamesPaul Qazilbash were presented for provisional membership and commissioning for the ministry of deacon in preparation for ordination.

The following were presented for preparatory membership and commissioning in preparation for ordination on the elder track: Carolyn Allbritton, Scot Bontrager, Brian Dierolf, Jason McConnell, and Mona Millard.

The following persons were presented for election into full membership and ordination: As deacons: Kay DeBlance, Beth Lutz, and Ugonna Onuoha and as elders: Jimmy Greene, Melissa Hatch, Arthur Jones, Elizabeth LaBella-Foster, Julie Macpherson, Cheryl Murphy, and Nancy Sherman. Bishop Bledsoe asked these persons the historical questions originating with John Wesley and then the votes were taken on each person individually. All were approved and greeted with an extended standing ovation by the pastors.

Mueller invited the chairs of the three orders to come forward. He asked the question, "Are all clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration?" Mueller called on the chairs to lead the prayer of confession. Mueller then answered question #17, "Yes, with one exception."

Jan Davis introduced the restructuring of the BOM. She submitted the names of nominees from the BOM to chair each order for the next quadrennium: Larry Davis, Order of Local Pastors; Doug Meyer, order of deacons, Rusty Hedges, order of elders. They were approved.

Lisa Greenwood, Order of Elders, announced the 2012 Clergy Retreat as October 15–17 with keynote speaker Brian McLaren. She encouraged all to attend.

Gary Mueller moved passage of the entire report of the Board of Ordained Ministry and it was approved.

To conclude the meeting Bishop Bledsoe offered a word of thanks to the clergy and the North Texas Conference. He closed with a prayer from Bishop Reuben Job's Three Simple Questions.

The full reports of the divisions of the Board of Ordained Ministry are printed in this journal in Section XIII. AGENCY REPORTS under the heading, Board of Ordained Ministry.

Worship Service
Custer Road United Methodist Church, Plano, Texas, 7:00 p.m.

At opening worship, Ron Henderson welcomed everyone to Custer Road UMC. The theme of the 2012 Annual Conference, "I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh," was reflected in the spirituals of the Music Ministries of Custer Road as well as the liturgy of the service. As the service opened, Bishop Bledsoe commissioned the North Texas interns from Lydia Patterson Institute, Project Transformation, C2K and Bridgeport.

Bishop Bledsoe introduced the speaker whom he had invited for opening worship. Mike Baughman, 33, of Union Coffee House in Dallas delivered a message that started the 2012 Annual Conference with a bang. His sermon "Who Can Stop the Water?" was based on Acts 2. A member of the New Jersey Annual Conference, Baughman is a fourth generation United Methodist pastor. He wore his great-grandfather's robe and a collar like the one his grandfather had worn. Baughman provided a look at the future of the denomination, serving up theology, hope, challenge and humor with an edge. He proclaimed that the United Methodist Church was not dying; it was dehydrated. Having looked up the symptoms, he declared they included lethargy, confusion, rapid heart rate associated with stressful situations, skin that lacks elasticity, aches and pains, especially in the head, and serious cases resulting in delirium and shutting down.

Baughman included a comical video of himself at the beach, sitting in a tiny, inflatable kiddie pool, while two of his children played in the ocean behind him. He declared that he would be damned (a word he defined by showing a picture of the Hoover Dam onscreen) if he is going to sit in the kiddie pools of faith while the waters of God roll behind him or swim in bottled water when God is calling us to get our hands, feet, souls, hearts, and selves dirty. Baughman's sermon was quickly posted on websites and brought people to their feet with extended applause.

The worship service ended with the Renewal of Baptism vows. Large containers of water were stationed around the sanctuary. Worshipers streamed toward them, cupped the water into their hands and placed it on their heads. They remembered their baptisms, and they remembered the message that gave them great hope.

MONDAY MORNING SESSION

June 4, 2012

The Plano Centre, Plano, Texas

Organization of the Conference

Bishop Earl Bledsoe called the business session of the conference together and opened with a prayer from Ruben Job's Three Simple Questions. Karen Chraska led the conference in Leaning on the Everlasting Arms.

Bishop Bledsoe then called upon Conference Secretary Judith Reedy for the organizational motions. Reedy moved that the bar of the conference be the stage and all seats in front of the platform and that the visitors' section be the second row of seats in front of both sections. The motion was approved. Reedy moved the election of persons to serve the 2012 business sessions as assistant secretaries: Kenny Dickson, Marsha Middleton, and Katherine Lyle; head teller, Abril Goforth; and the teller group as appointed by each of the district superintendents. They were elected.

Reedy moved the approval of Legislative Item number one in the conference workbook, [LA 1], for the equalization of clergy and lay members. The motion was approved.

Bishop Bledsoe introduced John Croft, newly retired chancellor of the North Texas Conference. Croft spoke to the Conference, expressing gratitude and hopes for the future.

Jan Davis introduced Pam Liston, FUMC Rowlett, graduate of Texas Tech, municipal judge in Rowlett, law firm partner, and M. Div. candidate at Perkins, as chancellor nominee for the next quadrennium. Liston was elected by a show of hands. She responded with thanks.

Standing Rules

Anne Todd presented the changes to the Standing Rules, based on a Judicial Council Ruling. She introduced five Legislative Items:

Legislative Item #2 [LA 2] stated that persons can be nominated from the floor but when such nominations are made they must replace by category of inclusivity and must call the name of the person to be replaced. Motion was approved.

Legislative Item #3 [LA 3] allows shorter terms in new agencies in order to set up rotation. Motion was approved.

Legislative Item #4 [LA 4] calls for committees to be reinstated under Missional Outreach—the Board of Church and Society (staggered terms), Board of Global Ministries, Ethnic Local Church Concerns, and Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns. Todd moved that line 31 calling for a Conference Secretary of Global Ministries to be nominated by GBHEM be deleted from Legislative Item #4 [LA 4]. The deletion was approved. Legislative Item #4 [LA 4] was approved.

Legislative Item #5 [LA 5] reinstates the standing rules committee. It was approved.

Legislative Item #6 [LA 6] adds members to the Standing Rules Committee as outlined in the conference workbook. It was approved.

Episcopacy Committee

Scott Smith, chair of the committee, was accompanied on the platform by the committee members. Mrs. Bledsoe was escorted to the podium and received a standing ovation. Smith announced that a donation to the Center for Vision Loss had been made in her name. Mrs. Bledsoe addressed the conference, saying that she had lost sight but not vision. She added that the handicapped and disabled of the world are those who are without moral strength and commitment to God. She invited the Conference to come to the Center for Vision Loss to see technology that is available for those with weaker vision. She challenged everyone to keep touching people in the community. Smith spoke of the Bishop's unexpected retirement and the blessings of his leadership over the last four years. He then presented a gift certificate to Bishop and Mrs. Bledsoe so that they might travel and attend theatrical events. Bishop Bledsoe briefly offered his word of appreciation, and was greeted by the conference with a standing ovation.

General Conference Report

Don Underwood gave the report from the General Conference Delegation, inviting the lay and clergy delegation to join him on the platform. Underwood expressed his appreciation for the powerful manner in which the delegation worked together. Underwood then reported that the effort to restructure the general agencies had failed. Underwood began with history regarding the Call to Action campaign, highlighting reports commissioned by that campaign.

The General Boards and Agencies do great work individually; however, due to the autonomous structure, they are not collaborative. Agencies dictate rather than serve, have their own agenda, compete with Annual Conferences, and the issues of autonomy and lack of accountability get in the way of alignment and connection. This was not an attempt to restructure the church but to restructure the agencies with a leader who could pull the agencies out of silos and require them to collaborate on everything, including apportionments.

Underwood reported that a handful of general agency secretaries, unwilling to give up autonomy, worked against the plan. They won. Plan UMC, declared unconstitutional by the Judicial Council, was a well-crafted compromise. Underwood does not believe that the plan was unconstitutional. Those portions deemed unconstitutional could easily have been remedied. Underwood expressed high regard for individual members of the Judicial Council but stated that Ruling #1210 was very damaging to the Church.

Richard Hearne reported on the debate on homosexuality. Hearne stated that he had begun the process three General Conferences ago as a staunch conservative on the issue but has changed his mind considerably. He reported that he had worked diligently to remove the phrase from the Book of Discipline that the practice of homosexuality is "incompatible with Christian teaching." Hearne reported that even the Hamilton-Slaughter amendment to Par. 161.F, stating that not all agree with this phrase, had also failed. Members of General Conference from the Central Conferences, particularly Africa, voted together, making the amendment impossible to pass. Hearne urged the next General Conference to make the change.

Underwood thanked the Conference for the support of many who attended and supported General Conference and the delegation in person and through prayer. Underwood stated that the General Conference had been rendered "impotent" by the rulings of the Judicial Council but that the church was not dead. Underwood emphasized that what the church needs is a change of culture in which social justice comes together with the powerful proclamation of the need for a relationship with Jesus Christ.

Underwood moved the endorsement of Gary Mueller as Bishop. The motion carried with a standing ovation. Mueller responded that the North Texas Conference is his home and that he is ready to go as bishop or come back home.

Jan Davis expressed a word of appreciation for the leadership of Don Underwood and Ricky Harrison. She then announced that the Annual Conference could nominate persons to General Boards through a jurisdictional pool and that Clayton Oliphint would take these names to Jurisdictional Conference. By Discipline, all of the delegation were nominated, filling each of the required categories: Javier Escalera, Dee Weaver—Hispanic; Peggy Larney—Native American; Chiv In, Ron Koo, Asian-American; Sarah Coissant, Cassidy Wohlfarth, Jennifer Balcirak, Maggie White, Robert Rohlfs, Meaghan Rohlfs, Olivia Dunlap, Rachel Magruder, James Lawrence, Adam Spore, Mary Schaffer, Jennifer Moltira, and Brittany Burrows—Young Adult; Matthew Paul, Mallory Magruder, Macy Crone, Jamal Pinson, Carson Ward, and Imani Harris—Youth; Tom Hudspeth, Charles Lee—Disabilities; Pres Pimentel, Espie del Rosario—Pacific Islander; Maria Dixon Hall—African-American. Davis moved that the names nominated from the floor be approved as nominees for the jurisdictional pool. Motion carried. Davis stated that nominees must provide contact information to the conference secretary. Larry Larney, Native American, was added by amendment.

Center for Connectional Resources

Conference Treasurer Jodi Smith presented the report for the Center for Connectional Resources. Smith congratulated the conference on their 95.8% payout of apportionments this year. She presented a banner from Africa University, sent to the conference in appreciation for the support of the North Texas Conference to Africa University.

Board of Pension and Health Benefits

Larry Womack presented the Board of Pensions report. Womack thanked his committee for a job well done. He expressed his joy at a one million dollar refund received due to HealthFlex participants becoming healthier. Legislative Items #8-11 [LA 8-11] were presented and approved.

Council on Finance and Administration

Bill Baxley introduced Legislative Item #7 [LA 7]. He first thanked the committee members who had served for the past four years on the Council on Finance and Administration. In addition, he thanked the center's Core Leadership chairs, Larry George, Jim Ozier, Keith Payne Boone, Jodi Smith and previous conference treasurer Marvin Guier for reducing the apportionment budget by 11% over the past five years. Baxley pointed out that all these persons were responsible for putting that money back in the local church. He praised the 95.8% apportionment payout in the midst of challenging economic times and reported that 269 of 300 churches had a 100% payout. He affirmed the Northwest and East districts for paying 100%.

Legislative Item #7 [LA 7] was presented in three sections for vote. Jodi Smith was elected as conference treasurer for the upcoming quadrennium. Thomas Stephen and Co., LLP was elected as the conference auditing firm. Baxley then moved that the conference apportionment budget be accepted for 2013, noting that the apportionment figure would be going down by 6/10 of 1% and that the jurisdictional piece would be finalized after July. Bill Gavitt moved that the legislation be tabled until Tuesday afternoon. Motion failed. The proposed budget was adopted.

Insurance Advisory Committee

Scott Smith presented the Insurance Advisory report. Smith gave a history of using United Methodist Property and Casualty Trust satisfactorily until internal changes with UMPACT coincided with two bad years of losses within the conference, noting that most of the losses were weather related. As premiums increased substantially in October of 2011, the Bishop and others called together an Insurance Advisory Task Force, members of which were called to the platform—all with extensive experience in insurance, and all having signed a non-conflict-of-interest statement. The result was a completed detailed analysis and a subsequent search in the market, saving the conference $800,000 and entering into an agreement with local broker MHBT, who has a long-term record of working with churches. Within a week of the new agreement, there were between 9 and 13 tornadoes in the conference area, impacting 9 churches. They were able to receive a very favorable deductible. Each church will receive a visit within a year aimed at loss-prevention to help lower the deductibles.

Board of Trustees

Paul Goodrich directed the conference members to their workbooks for the presentation of two resolutions.

Legislative Item 15 [LA 15] allowed for the merger of El Buen Samaritano UMC and Elmwood UMC. This must be approved by both the Rio Grande Conference and the North Texas Conference. Motion carried.

Legislative Item 16 [LA 16] allowed for the closure of St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Arthur City, to merge with Mt. Zion UMC, Paris, Texas, with assets transferring to conference Trustees. Motion carried.

Nehemiah Project

Paul Rasmussen introduced the report from the Nehemiah Task Force. Kory Knott led the conference in an exercise with green stress balls, which were thrown into nets. A brief video followed. Kate Miner and the Revelation choir from Custer Road UMC sang, "Don't Stop Believin.'" Rasmussen said that Annual Conference can be something people want to attend by building a clearly defined mission. He said that the Annual Conference can either be married to the model or to the mission and that Jesus, in the Markan story of healing on Sabbath, changed the model but stayed married to the mission.

Statistician's Report

Jodi Smith resented the statistician's report, indicating that in the past year, almost 800 more people gathered on Sundays to worship than last year. In addition, there were 3,000 professions of faith last year. James Lawrence, Project Transformation intern from Custer Road, told his story, and Stephanie Hayes, new Perkins student and candidate for ordained ministry, told hers. Smith celebrated the 150,000 members across the conference.

Rasmussen read from the book of Nehemiah and recommended the implementation of the Nehemiah Project over a period of time. He thanked the task force for their faithfulness and dedication to making Annual Conference very special. The proposal includes transitioning to a third party task force, inviting world class speakers, including integrated worship, increasing funding through vendor fees and advance marketing.

Discussion ensued with questions from the floor. One concern was that the program not be a prepackaged business with little opportunity for input or debate, but a place where members of the annual conference get to be participants. Another concern related to providing a space for the Holy Spirit to work. Questions arose about who would pay the participant fees, and whether there are resources already allocated for a new venue. Affirmations included the witness of the Holy Spirit at work, a need for change without over-studying and debating, a request for specifying Holy Conferencing. Chris Yost called for a close to the debate. The motion was seconded. Bishop Bledsoe announced that Rasmussen would speak to concerns after lunch and that a written ballot would be taken on the Nehemiah Project.

Zan Holmes, Jr. closed the morning session with prayer.

MONDAY AFTERNOON BUSINESS SESSION

Bishop Bledsoe called the conference to order. Linda Parks offered the opening prayer, and Bishop Scott Jones was introduced to the conference. Bishop Jones addressed the conference briefly, expressing his joy to be present for the ordination of his son Arthur tonight.

Paul Rasmussen addressed questions that had been previously asked. The third party would be talent within the conference, working collaboratively with the cabinet. North Texas is one of the only conferences that does not charge a registration fee currently. Participation of Annual Conference members is a top-tier value. Rasmussen said that the Holy Spirit has been present all along in the process. Voting for the Nehemiah Project would enable the Nehemiah Group to carry on their work.

Bishop Bledsoe called for the tellers to distribute ballots for a written vote. He then recognized Bruce Weaver for being in attendance at his 71st Annual Conference. Bishop Bledsoe led the conference in a midday prayer by Bishop Rueben Job.

Texas Methodist Foundation

On behalf of TMF Board and staff, Tom Locke thanked the conference, reporting approximately 400 million dollars in asset management and 90 million in loans to churches in the North Texas Conference. TMF is the largest foundation in Methodism, their endowment having grown to over 25 million dollars. Locke reported that the main change took place in the 1990's, when TMF stopped thinking of itself as a financial organization and started thinking of itself as a ministry. They took time to figure out principles, values, and a sense of purpose. Significant ministry has been in the area of clergy leadership training and support for the sake of the church. Locke stated that no institution has a better chance of filling the gap between potential and present reality than the United Methodist Church. He noted that TMF and the conference had partnered in providing Bishop Schnase's book to each member of Annual Conference in 2012 and that they regarded it as an investment. Locke expressed gratitude to Bishop Bledsoe for his work on the board. The report was received by acclamation.

Bishop Bledsoe announced the vote on the Nehemiah Project. 746 voted "For." 65 voted against with 1 abstention and 3 blank ballots. Motion carried.

Core Leadership Team

Alfred White invited other CLT members to come forward, thanked the Conference, and presented a video entitled Methodists in Black. Four areas of focus were highlighted on the video and humor underscored the areas of focus. Black thanked Wes Magruder and FUMC Rowlett media team for the video. He referenced the written report in the conference workbook and encouraged members to be present for Center reports. The report was received with applause.

Center for New Church Development and Congregational Transformation

Jim Ozier introduced a video and then called on Liliana Pena Rangel to pray for all the churches in the Annual Conference. Ozier emphasized that all can do the church's work better when connected, like pieces of a puzzle, all trying to figure it out together. Ozier said that is what the Center does. Mission Insight gives great data on a church's mission field and is paid for with apportionment dollars. This is one of four centers, and they are still working out how to be connected. Ozier lifted up many examples of good teamwork—Diane Presley building bridges for Edgar Bazan to replace her, James Minor preparing the way for David Rangel, Albert Fisher for William DelValle-Gonzalez. Ozier asked church planters to stand. The video told of new church starts in a strip mall in Paris, a coffeehouse format in Dallas with generationally specific ministry, "The Village" out of St. Luke's "Community" UMC, and Corinth. Gloria Fowler is at the center to help in this area of transformation.

Ozier explained the center would use the Healthy Church Initiative and Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century, as well as continuing to offer seminars and summits as vehicles of transformation, replacing the Don Nations DNA program. Nak Hoon Cho closed the report, singing The Lord's Prayer in Korean. The report was approved by acclamation.

Board of Ordained Ministry

Bishop Bledsoe called the conference to order and introduced Todd Harris as Chair of Preparation and Qualifications. Each ordinand had three minutes for their live presentation. Debbie Chapman introduced the candidates for deacon.

> Beth Lutz, a sports minister at Trietsch, said that she had chalked up 69,888 hours on her journey to date, had worn out six mentors, been guided by two senior pastors, and enlisted one unauthorized bull dozer to dig up athletic fields. She gave credit to many people who have shown her how to build bridges and said that she wants to touch others as she has been touched.
> Kay DeBlance, minister of outreach, youth and missions at Lovers Lane United Methodist Church, told of the Holy Spirit's sweeping her off her feet in Tegucigalpa.

She gave thanks to her mentors, charging all, in the words of Shane Claiborne, to "continue to dream big, live small, love loudly, interrupt injustice, and surprise the world with grace."

Ugonna Onuoha, staff chaplain at Children's Medical Center, expressed her gratitude to the North Texas Conference and asked for prayers for families of the people who had died the day before in Nigeria. Onuoha said she finds healing at Children's Medical and claims it for her church. She said that agents called to righteousness and healing are called to fast, to pray, and to give so that the kingdom of God will be realized in the world.

Todd Harris introduced the candidates for elder and said it is the first time that the conference has ordained two people from Africa in the same year—Onuoha as deacon and Jimmy Greene as elder.

Beth LaBella-Foster thanked many people, including Ben Marshall, for over twenty years of spiritual friendship, collaboration, and holy conversations; her husband Greg, and her daughter Elise who endured more take-out food than any child should have to and was always there to give her a hug; and the many people who have walked with her on the journey. She said she had never felt alone, that she was rooted and grounded in love, freeing her to be hopeful for the future and released from the bonds of fear and angst.

Jimmy Greene said that ordination was both a personal and professional achievement, not a goal but a reminder of our mission to reach out in the world. He explained that his accent comes from someone who fled Liberia, his country of birth, and immigrated as a refugee to become a U.S. citizen. He thanked many pastors who helped him along the way, and he thanked God for God's grace and prayed for peace in the world.

Melissa Hatch said that she wanted to talk about three things—the past, the present, and the future. She expressed gratitude for a past that included her family, including her father who died in 2007 and who would have been so happy that she was standing there. Her present included gratitude to those who shaped her along the way, including FUMC Plano. She said the future only God knows but she hopes she is able to fulfill Micah 6:8, working together with others to make more disciples of Jesus Christ.

Julie Macpherson, graduate of Austin College, quoted Clarissa Pinkola Estes, "One of the most calming and powerful actions you can do to intervene in a stormy world is to stand up and show your soul." She expressed gratitude to all who had shared the light of their souls with her – Arapaho and Suncreek where she learned that when we help each other to focus on God's light, we will find our way, and Perkins, her family, and many pastors and mentors. She expressed her indebtedness to all and said that she never felt alone.

Cheryl Murphy's call first came to her when she was 15. She has had many encouragers along the way. One of the greatest gifts of being a United Methodist, she said, is the connection. It came to her powerfully at Lake Bridgeport camp this past summer, witnessing about Jesus' love and serving as the body of Christ. The world needs us to be churches filled with the Holy Spirit.

Arthur Jones, a fourth generation graduate of the University of Kansas, thanked his dad, for growing up he got to see what it meant to love God's children through his dad and his family. Many have taught him, helped raise him, and some even helped change his diaper. He recalled being in Kenya with the Savutos and hearing Jerry's prayer for those within a stone's throw who were starving. Jones remarked that there are many within a stone's throw starving for the love and light of Jesus Christ. There is much to be done. "Let's get to work!"

Nancy Sherman thanked all those who have been on this ten year journey with her through both the raging rapids as well as the calm tranquil waters. She thanked God for the river rocks that slowed her down over the ten years to learn the powerful presence of God—a week in Taize, a mission trip to Cameroon, CPE, many spiritual retreats. She thanked God for the rapids and storms that have shaped and continue to mold her.

Bishop Bledsoe called for a standing ovation for the ordinands and encouraged all to be present for their ordination.

The Conference Secretary made announcements and invited everyone to take home one of the green balls on their table, pray for the person whose name is on the ball, and "don't stop believing.'"

Courtesies and Resolutions

Jackie Waiters-Lee offered the Courtesies and Resolutions. Waiters-Lee announced that John and Rona Fleming were celebrating their 18th wedding anniversary. She then called on Lucretia Facen, Jeremiah Booker, and Ouida Lee to read a resolution from the Black Methodists for Church Renewal, African American Clergy Fellowship, and North Texas Black Clergywomen.

MONDAY EVENING

Service of Ordination
St. Andrew United Methodist Church, Plano, Texas

Reverend Robert Hasley welcomed the conference to St. Andrew United Methodist Church, Plano for the service of ordination. Music was provided by the chancel choirs of FUMC Plano, FUMC McKinney, and FUMC Coppell. Following the processional hymn, Bishop W. Earl Bledsoe led the congregation in a remembrance of our baptism and a reaffirmation of the ministry entrusted to all God's people.

Bishop Bledsoe introduced the preacher for the service, Bishop James Swanson, episcopal leader of the Holston Annual Conference in Tennessee. Bishop Swanson offered a challenging message that urged Holy Spirit-inspired patience and action in a sermon entitled "Ministry Requires That You Live Mas." He joked, "I borrowed some of the title from the Taco Bell commercial." Bishop Swanson based his sermon on Acts 2:1–21 and spoke to those being commissioned and ordained by painting a word picture of the emotions that the disciples were experiencing in the Book of Acts. He said that the disciples were anxious to do what Jesus wanted them to do but needed to wait on the power of the Holy Spirit. He cautioned them to be patient, that there would be some circumstances for which they were not prepared in school. "Ministry requires more than what you think it does. The bishop sends, but it is God who calls and will be with you always."

Present for the commissioning and ordination were two additional bishops present to assist in the ordination of family members. Bishop Scott Jones, episcopal leader of the Kansas East and Kansas West Annual Conferences, was present for the ordination of his son Arthur Jones. Bishop Sunday N. Onuoha of The Methodist church in Nigeria assisted in the ordination of his wife Ugonna Onuoha.

Bishop Bledsoe presided in the commissioning and ordination rituals. Two deacons and seven elders were commissioned. Those commissioned as deacon were JamesPaul Aidan Qazilbash and Gary Boyd Stephens. Those commissioned for the work of an elder were Carolyn Jackson Allbritton, Scot Christian Bontrager, Brian Paul Dierolf, Jason Robert McConnell, Penny Lynn Mitchell, Mona Lisa Millard, and Michael Dennis Moore.

Three deacons and seven elders were received into membership in full connection. Elizabeth Dorothy Lutz, Ugonna Ndukwo Onuoha, and Kay Lynn DeBlance were ordained deacons. Jimmy Decee Greene, Jr., Melissa Allen Hatch, Arthur Dyatt Jones, Elizabeth LaBella-Foster, Julie Mielke Macpherson, Cheryl Bromwich Murphy, and Nancy Sherman were ordained as elders.

As part of the service's sending forth, Bishop Bledsoe invited anyone in the congregation who believed they may be receiving the call to come to the altar. A reception for the newly commissioned and ordained followed immediately after the service at Custer Road UMC.

TUESDAY MORNING BUSINESS SESSION
June 5, 2012

Opening Song

Bishop Bledsoe called the Conference to order at 8:30 a.m. and asked Karen Chraska to lead the conference in singing the opening hymn, Standing on the Promises. Bishop Bledsoe offered a prayer from Ruben Job's Three Simple Questions, asking God to transform all into God's likeness.

Southern Methodist University

Bishop Bledsoe introduced Gerald Turner, President of SMU. Turner addressed the conference and presented slides describing the groundbreaking of a new residential commons. He described the building projects in process, and those in the planning session. The capital campaign's goal is 750 million dollars, with 613 million raised. Total assets are 4 billion. Turner described the impact of SMU on Dallas, the graduate schools and their programs, satellite campuses, and funds for Perkins students matched by the Perkins Foundation.

Nominations Committee

Richard Hearne and Linda Parks presented the report of the Nominations Committee, explaining that the process was new and that people had been invited to express interest in the various committees with a profile sheet turned in to the Conference and compiled by the Missional Center office. In addition, the Nominations Committee, the four district superintendents, and four additional representatives met twice to slot people for the positions. Hearne announced that all positions on all committees required by the Book of Discipline had been filled. Bishop Bledsoe asked if everyone who had asked for a job had received one. Hearne answered that almost all laity had and all but 6–7 clergy in that those had applied for positions already filled.

There were two corrections to the Board of Trustees for Southwestern University. April Bristow moved that Margie Steele replace April Johnson Bristow on the Committee on Finance and Administration. Ben Shinn stated that Pat Beghtel-Mahle would replace Gloria Fowler on Conference Relations. Ray Karrer asked where campus ministry now falls in the nominations and Keith Payne Boone replied that campus ministry now lies with the Advisory Committee under the Center for Leadership.

The report was approved in its entirety as Legislative Item #12 [LA 12]. Bishop Bledsoe congratulated Hearne and Parks on a fine report. The Bishop, Hearne, and Parks led an installation liturgy for the newly elected officers. Gifford Long requested that the Core Leadership Team present a schematic showing where all sub-units are now housed. Bishop Bledsoe agreed that this was a helpful idea and asked Keith Payne Boone to help with implementation.

Laity Address

Outgoing Conference Lay Leader Richard Hearne had asked permission of Bishop Bledsoe to dedicate half his time to incoming Lay Leader Linda Parks. Hearne reminded the conference of John Rosenberg's adage that if one is giving a farewell address and is crying but no one else is, then it is time to sit down. Hearne thanked all who had helped him along the way. He gave special thanks to his wife Candy and to Bishop Bledsoe. He then spoke to the laity, challenging them to accept responsibility to support the United Methodist Church with membership vows. He said the movement must start with the laity. Hearne talked about his high school football team who simply made up their minds to be winners, and over a period of years, moved from being a losing team to a winning team. Hearne challenged the laity to decide to be vital churches, connecting with each other and with people around them. "Stand for something! We don't spend enough time on areas of agreement. If it's going to be, it's up to me." Hearne concluded with John Denver's words, "Friends, I will remember you, think of you, pray for you. And when another day is through, I'll still remember you." Hearne received a standing ovation. He introduced Linda Parks, giving her the Lay Leader pin.

Parks shared ways that Hearne had mentored her, challenging her to encourage laity to stand up and be counted, speaking from the heart even when people did not want to hear his challenges, modeling an active prayer life. Parks lifted up a pair of Hearne's shoes, proclaiming that the laity could work together to fill his big shoes continuing strong advocacy, growing in partnership with the clergy, praying for one another, making sure there is a well-prepared Conference Lay Leader elect, increasing lay leadership through the Board of Laity, and growing the youth lay leadership. Parks credited Bishop Bledsoe with strengthening the laity by starting Laity Day with the Bishop four years ago. She thanked the Bishop for being a good listener.

Bishop Bledsoe complimented the Lay Leadership in the North Texas Conference, and the Conference applauded them.

Center for Leadership Development

Aleze Fulbright joined Keith Payne Boone for the Center presentation. Leadership development opportunities include the Confirmation Celebration with the Bishop on February 17, 2013. Camping programs included over 2000 campers. The Marks of Fruitfulness program was implemented for all persons under appointment, providing an ongoing dialogue between pastors and staff-parish relations committees. Campus ministry was highlighted as an important means through which principled Christian leaders are developed.

Boone introduced Legislative Item #13 [LA 13] regarding equitable compensation for 2012–2013, reflecting a 1.85% increase, and a budget request of $65,000. The motion was approved by a show of hands. Fulbright brought amended Legislative Item #14 [LA 14] regarding MinistrySafe to become the Conference standard implemented effective January 1, 2013. Training will be provided between Annual Conference and the end of the year. Bishop Bledsoe opened the floor for questions.

An amendment to the amendment was accepted as friendly, including other entities in addition to the church as Mother's Day Out and pre-schools. An amendment to the amendment was accepted in relation to strike the words "for all persons" and insert "for all volunteers." Other clarifications were requested, including whether or not parents of new students at a day school would be allowed to volunteer and non-Christian parents be allowed to volunteer and if the requirements would apply to volunteers for Project Transformation. Charles Harrison moved to table the motion. He was declared out of order. Harrison then recommended that the issue be deferred. The Bishop asked that Boone and Fulbright meet with everyone who has questions and return to address those questions at 3 p.m. today.

Board of Ordained Ministry

Gary Mueller presented the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry. James Minor, chair of the Committee on Certification, presented specialized ministry certification certificates to Evelyn Glass in the area of Christian Education and Kristi Hassell in music ministry.

Todd Harris, chair of the Committee on Preparation and Qualifications, spoke of the success of the Making Disciples Project for those applying for ordination and full membership. This project is now a requirement for all candidates in the connection. Harris presented the newly ordained to the conference for greeting and applause. He told the current candidates to "trust the process, embrace the process, make it your friend."

Mueller honored the local pastors, who were greeted by the Conference. He then asked the newly and previously retired to stand and be greeted, followed by certified lay ministers. Mueller thanked the Bishop for his support of the Board of Ordained Ministry; he thanked the executive committee and the extended board.

The Conference Secretary asked that the first two rows be cleared for family members of those being memorialized. Larry George gave the closing prayer before the Memorial Service.

Memorial Service

The 2012 Annual Conference Memorial Service honored the memories of six clergy and ten clergy spouses. Conference Secretary Judith Reedy called the conference to order to the Memorial Service. Ugonna Ohuoha carried the Christ candle to the table and family members of those being honored processed to the hymn, "For All the Saints." Bishop Bledsoe led the Call to Worship and a Taize refrain was led by Keum Hwang, Brian Hehn, and Rafael Fontalvo. Debbie Lyons called the congregation into prayer and Allen Zugelter read scripture.

Reverend Jan Davis' memorial sermon, "Living Letters," reflected on 2 Timothy 4:1–8 and Paul's letter encouraging Timothy to do good work. Davis brought words of comfort to the bereaved family members. She, too, had lost a loved one in the past year. Her mother, a church secretary at Epworth UMC in Western Pennsylvania, died on Christmas Eve. "My mother left each daughter a letter. In frail writing, she wrote in my letter, 'I love you. I believe in you. I will be watching over you. Persevere in the work God called you to.'" Davis drew an analogy between the tents used on camping trips and our mortal bodies, known also as tents. "We are connected to these that we celebrate and remember today. We share so much in common. We have had the opportunity to know Jesus Christ. This is not the time to be timid. It is a time to be bold until it is time to take down our tents and go home to Jesus."

The congregation responded with It is Well with My Soul, and conference secretary Judith Reedy read the names of each of the saints. With the reading of each name, persons in the congregation whose lives were touched by that minister or spouse stood in tribute. The persons being remembered were:

Clergy—Douglas Ewing Jackson, James B. Palmer, Sr., Elwood Spencer Poore, C. W. Anderson, Kathryn L. Mackenzie, Edgar James Bell

Clergy Spouses—Harriet McGee, Annette Palmer, Elizabeth Lucille Leffel, Hazel Johnson, Allie Aikin, Margaret "Peggy" Railey, Ida Louise Noblin, Lucille Greenhaw, Effie Vaughan, Dorris Youngblood

Julie Macpherson led the congregation in an affirmation of faith, and Bishop Bledsoe sent the congregation forth as children of the Light.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON BUSINESS SESSION

Young Persons' Address

Kelly Carpenter, Youth Ministry Coordinator, introduced Sarah Perkins, Wesley UMC Greenville. She asked the conference to stand and repeat "I'm alive, awake, alert, enthusiastic." Perkins taught a song with hand motions, celebrated the life of youth of the North Texas Conference, of mid-winter retreats, and local church events. She then asked persons to raise and lower hands by age groups. Not many were left under the age of 30. Perkins encouraged the Conference to believe in the youth and provide guidance and direction, both to see and hear children.

Incoming CCYM chair Sarah Finney, FUMC Denton, then greeted the Conference, lifting up the value of the voices of youth. Finney challenged the young people to step up to their opportunities and responsibilities because there is work to be done. The youth plan to increase their fundraising for Project Transformation and Zoe Ministry. She asked if the adults would create space for the youth to walk beside them in the work of the Conference. The Conference stood twice to honor the youth.

C. C. Young Memorial Home

Stephen Cutshaw, Licensing Administrator, reported on C. C. Young, chartered in 1922 and founded by Christopher Conley, at its current site since 1961. Cutshaw noted that the continuing care retirement center has an emphasis on providing more options for long-term care. The economy is presenting a number of financial challenges, with cuts from both Medicare and Medicaid and further cuts expected. Cutshaw showed slides highlighting the campus and building programs currently underway. They serve over 400, have 239 independent living apartments, 113 apartments providing medication and food assistance, and health services cares for 134 patients. Hospice provides professional care in the final stages of life; home health offers companion services, therapy, and transitional care; and Wellness Center has a rehab gym, exercise area, and a nationally ranked Wii bowling team. C. C. Young is seeking a benevolence fund of seven million dollars to provide care for needy residents.

Retiring Clergy

Dennis Wilkinson, chairperson of the Conference Relations Committee, introduced the retiring clergy.

Leighton Bearden recalled that he grew up in a church when it was not a good day unless you went home feeling bad. It was a church of "thou shalt nots." It was against everything, including dancing. After football games, they had to settle for hayrides, on dark country roads, and cold nights, wrapped up in blankets. His call, contrary to some, was not so much a surrender to preach but more like walking through a welcome door, good news without being wrapped in guilt.

Bearden thanked Perkins, the Conference and his colleagues. He noted that there had been some sacrifices. Looking out at some of his colleagues, he concluded that ministry, when done right, results in significant hair loss. Professing his oath to the itinerancy, he said that Bishop Donna had said that she was moving to Colorado, had invited him to go with her, and he was going.

Glen Blackmon, Sr. was not present, but Wilkinson thanked him for his twenty-four years of service.

Georgjean Blanton, retiring after 30 years of ministry, said she had thought a long time about what she would say to the Annual Conference when she could do so without worrying about repercussion yet now she found herself simply wanting to say "thank you." She thanked God for weaving together her call of many colors in a multitude of settings. She thanked the Annual Conference, especially the clergywomen colleagues, and her home church Holy Covenant who sent her forth as a young widow with a child to live out its theology. She thanked Perkins where she watched herself on video as the first woman she had ever seen preach and her teacher Zan Holmes who said "Amen."

Blanton thanked her churches—Kessler Park, Irwindell, Casa View, New World, and Preston Hollow; her Pathways board for keeping her grounded, those who understood her call to be a spiritual director; St. John's, Austin where she will continue to work with her friend and partner in ministry Paul Escamilla; and her family who made sacrifices, especially daughter Sonnet who followed her to seminary and every church after that. Blanton concluded by thanking the man who stood beside her, her husband Mike, her greatest cheerleader and most sensitive critic, who talked her off a ledge more than once, and when it was time climbed up and jumped with her. She thanked God that the wild ride was not done.

Betty Crowell, appointed to extension ministry in Buenos Aires for 15 years, spoke of the many individuals and churches who have helped her throughout her ministry. She said that that Jim Brown had sent her off to Perkins and told her to tell the story. She credited Bishop Blake with sending her off to extension ministry and thanked Jo Biggerstaff for always having a smile for her and a word of "welcome home." She thanked her family—her two daughters, her son, and her husband for encouraging her.

She is looking forward to the coming year, because last year was a tough year. Her daughter had colon cancer, her granddaughter by the age of 10 months had had 4 surgeries and there were other close family members who were ill. She is confident in God's healing power and she says, "Send me, that I may be salt where it is needed and light so that illumination may come through me in Christ Jesus my Lord and Savior."

Albert Fisher grew up in the Salvation Army, then joined the U. S. Navy, then entered Salvation Army officer school to serve for over 20 years. Fisher became a United Methodist pastor and has served as a local pastor. He traced his move to Vietnam, Christmas, 1966, at the Christmas Eve service. The chaplain was an Episcopal priest and offered him Communion. Fisher did not practice Holy Communion and was not intending to share, but the Spirit led him to the rail. He was offered bread and the cup. He drank deeply, and the chaplain said, "Save some for others." Who could not love that vision.

A Catholic friend gave Fisher a chalice, which he brought with him. He told of being invited by Tom Graves to a supply position. He encouraged the clergy to hold the cup high and share it with all.

John Gowling was not present but his ministry was affirmed by voice.

Michael House has a new job and was not able to be present, but his ministry was affirmed by applause.

Kathy Johnson was ordained a deacon with the first class of deacons in 1997 after having served 18 years as a diaconal. Johnson said that her claim to fame is that she was born early in the first year of the baby boom. She said that boomers have made a lot of noise about every experience they have ever had in their lives. She does not even like the word retirement, but there have been contests to uncover a new word.

Johnson thanked her husband for his sacrifices, his infinite patience, and his sense of humor. She said that her daughters and grandchildren were the light of her life and that the three-year-old had a direct line to God. She was grateful for Casa View, Cochran Chapel, University Park, Northaven, Christ the Servant Lutheran in Allen, and now as minister of art and worship at St. Stephen UMC in Mesquite. She walked down memory lane with Will Bailey, Wally Chappell, De Wiksten, John Thornburg, Leighton Bearden, Bourdon Smith, and Thomas Q. Robbins, thanking each for shaping her ministry. Johnson concluded by proclaiming that she is not retired but renewed.

Steve Matthews was not present, but his ministry was affirmed by applause.

Calvin Page's ministry was affirmed by voice.

Ben Shinn said that he was recommended for a license to preach by the quarterly conference of Highland Park UMC 50 years ago. He expressed his appreciation to his golf group—Ken Shamblin, John Shuler, and Henry Suche, because that is how he took care of himself. Over the years, others have been added, including his brother George. Shinn gave thanks for the variety of positions to which he had been appointed—from associate to founding pastor to Assistant to the Bishop. He has put roofs on three sanctuaries and celebrated 100 year anniversaries twice and a sixtieth once. He said he was concluding his ministry in the best church he had ever served, Walnut Hill.

He acknowledged his daughters, Ruth Anne and Laura, watching the video stream, as casualties of the itinerate system, going many years without a Sunday School class or youth group as they moved around. Shinn spoke of how very successful they have both been in the work place and of the fun times he hopes to spend with them and his three granddaughters. He then thanked his best friend and wife Mary, for her support and said that she would continue her profession as flute teacher and as a member of the symphony. When she recently asked if he would do it all over again, he replied, "Of course I would." He concluded with Robert Frost's poem "And that has made all the difference."

William Boyd Smith, Highland Park UMC, was not present, but his ministry was affirmed by voice.

Carl Sterling, retired Coast Guard and local pastor with 7 years of service in the North Texas Conference, greeted the Conference with "Howdy!" Sterling told two stories, one about Jesus' turning water into wine, and another about two friends who made a pact that whoever died first would let the other know if there is baseball in heaven. The friend comes back with the good news that there is and the bad news that his friend is pitching the next night.

In closing, Sterling advised everyone never to give up. He recalled a personal time when he had been called to the bedside of a dying man in the hospital. The man was obviously touched by Sterling's offer to connect with him. When he made it home, he invited Sterling to come to his home, and there Sterling was able to tell him about Jesus.

Wilkinson asked all retirees to stand for a round of appreciation from the Conference.

The Bishop granted a moment of personal privilege to Paul Escamilla who said farewell to the North Texas Conference and expressed his gratitude as he was transferring to the Central Texas Conference.

Center for Missional Outreach

Larry George presented the report from the Center for Missional Outreach and thanked Marji Bishir for her work in keeping the Conference informed about the Center's many programs. George acknowledged that facts and figures are not enough and that what matters are stories of people. He focused on Bachman Lake and Christ's Foundry United Methodist Mission with a video highlighting the major steps in its establishment. Owen Ross, pastor of Christ's Foundry, thanked the Conference for sticking with the project, launched in 2000. Ross and Christ's Foundry were greeted with a standing ovation, having celebrated twelve years of work.

George reminded the conference of Margaret Mead's assertion that a small group of people can change the world, and that is all that has ever changed it. He then called on everyone to stop normalizing the existence of disease and poverty. He said that Jesus was asked, "Are you the one?" and that outsiders here and in other places are asking, "Are you the one?" George then introduced Elaine Heath as one who says that we are the ones.

Heath introduced New Day, a program that integrates disciple formation, justice, and evangelism. She presented a video describing New Day, a missional, monastic, and Methodist faith community. She described New Day communities as life boats, attached to the anchor of a local church. Heath described the relationship between FUMC, Mabank and Cherokee Shores, where a lay couple were called to buy an old house in a very poor area, rehab it, and start Kids Clubhouse, an afterschool program. Refugee ministries occur in two New Day communities, including Indigo Apartments in Garland, where a large population of refugees meet weekly for worship and help getting into the new culture.

George introduced Jay Cole, who spoke about Crossroads Community Services, associated with FUMC Dallas. CCS opened its doors in May of 2001 and provides nutritious food, nutrition and life-skills training, as well as clothing. Ministry happens one-by-one, but it is also necessary to be strategic. CCS is the first agency in the U.S. to provide food based on the 2010 Dietary guidelines. In addition, CCS has decided to give each family more food per visit to help them eliminate the charity circuit, giving the clients time for job search, education, and caring for their families.

George challenged the conference again with Eric Folkerth, who spoke about the global health initiative. The Connections Band joined Eric onstage. Their shows raise money for UMCOR or Imagine No Malaria. Since March, 2006, they have had 21 shows, raising $205,000. INM received $104,000 of the total. Joe Stobaugh sang "If You're Out There." One by one, people began to stand, signifying those who were out there would sing aloud and stand with the missions of the North Texas Conference.

Center for Leadership Development

Keith Payne Boone and Aleze Fulbright revisited Legislative Item #14 [LA 14] regarding MinistrySafe. Jay Cousino described the capable people and the process used to answer the questions from the morning session and to make the resulting changes. Membership fees of $5 per person were waived, replaced by an assessment of no more than $300 per congregation. Kim Meyers walked the conference through the revised document, page by page. Keith Payne Boone stated that representation from all sizes of churches had been present to assist with the complexities of the amended legislation. Boone presented the amended legislation for consideration. The changes were in bold on the printed copies, including using consistent language of children, youth and vulnerable persons. The Bishop called for questions. John McLarty asked if persons would be barred if they had not attended training. Boone said that would be affirmative for conference events and that churches would have until January 2013 to comply. The report was approved by a voice vote.

Courtesies and Resolutions

Rusty Hedges presented courtesies and resolutions and thanked his committee who had helped over the last eight years. He announced that Bishop and Mrs. Swanson were safely home and celebrating their anniversary and that recognition would be sent. Hedges reported that clergy spouses had raised $432 for INM at their luncheon. He lifted up Lon Morris College as it has suspended operation.

Mary Beth Hardesty-Crouch introduced her new daughter.

Hedges read the closing resolution which was adopted by voice vote.

We as an Annual Conference have benefited from the tireless efforts of all those who have labored to make this year's conference a success; and

WHEREAS, Bishop James E. Swanson, Sr., Rev. Mike Baughman and Rev. Jan Davis, have inspired us with their faithfulness in proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ along with the challenges placed before us by our Conference Lay Leader Richard Hearne. As an Annual Conference we especially want to extend our thanks to Richard Hearne for his faithful service and tireless efforts as our Conference Lay leader over the four years.

WHEREAS, we have been inspired by the worship services as planned by the Conference Worship Committee. We extend our heartfelt thanks to all who led us in worship; and

WHEREAS, we have received the reports of the boards and agencies which reported that the mission and ministry of the conference is moving forward. We listened with a profound sense of thanksgiving to the presentations of those to be ordained and those entering into a retired relationship; and

WHEREAS, we recognize the faithfulness of Dr. Larry George, Rev. Jodi Smith, Dr. Sheron Patterson and other members of the conference staff in supporting the work of our conference.

WHEREAS, the North Texas Conference extends its thanks to all the volunteers who have given so freely of the time and talents to this conference session and to the churches and staffs who have opened their doors to us; and

WHEREAS, the North Texas Conference wishes to recognize and extend our appreciation to Mrs. Leslie Bledsoe who has served with great dignity, faith and grace as the first lady of our Annual Conference for the last four years. We have been inspired by her continuing efforts to advocate for the blind and for those whose vision is impaired.

WHEREAS, we, assembled here as members of the North Texas Conference, wish to extend our gratitude and appreciation to Bishop W. Earl Bledsoe, for his faithful efforts as he has lead us through a very challenging time in the history of our conference. Over the last four years he has given of himself selflessly as we have worked to shape the future of our ministry to the people of North Texas. We wish Bishop and Mrs. Bledsoe God's richest blessings and many years of continued service to the United Methodist Church as he enters into retired status as a bishop of our church; therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, that we, as a covenant community shall proclaim to the world that God is indeed pouring out the Holy Spirit on all of the creation. By the grace given to us we will share the Gospel of Christ to an often dark and hurting world and recommit ourselves to the task of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world through our prayer, presence, gifts, service and witness.

Respectfully submitted, The Committee on Courtesies and Resolutions

Rusty Hedges, Chair	Kathy McLean Davis
Shante Buckley	Jim Pledger
Sharon Coleman	Jackye Waiters-Lee

The resolution was adopted by voice vote. Bishop Bledsoe asked new appointees to move to their new church area for a service of covenant and the reading of appointments.

Service of Covenant and Sending Forth With Reading of Appointments

Larry George explained that since there would be so many center reports, what they needed was not a state of the church address but rather a service of covenant and sending forth to do mission, where the appointments were interwoven with the liturgy lifted with love from Wesley's Covenant Service. Bishop Bledsoe preached on Mark 5:19, the story of the man who had been healed and told to go back home and preach the gospel. Bishop Bledsoe described the little town of Marlin, Texas where he was born and Davis Chapel where he worshipped.

He said he believes that Christ is calling everyone to go back home, not to live in the past, not to the same thing, doing things the same way, but to live out the gospel back home where the people live. Bishop Bledsoe observed that Jesus, according to the scripture, was a boundary crosser. Legion, the man possessed by many demons, confronted Jesus and asked if he were going to make his life any worse. It is then that we learn that Jesus has the power over the demons over our lives as well. In appreciation for Jesus' breaking his shackles, Legion wanted to go with Jesus and work with him, but Jesus said, "Go back home. Go back home and preach the gospel." The good news is not at Annual Conference or at district conference but back home. Go back home and preach the gospel, and, if necessary, use words. Preach the good news of forgiveness and wholeness. Welcome and love all people. Trust God in your journey.

Paul Gould, District Superintendent of the East District, read the appointments for that district. Responsive liturgy followed and the first verse of Forth in Thy Name, O Lord. Clara Reed read the appointments for the Metro District, followed by liturgy and the second verse of Forth in Thy Name. Frank Alegria read the appointments for the North Central District, followed by a responsive liturgy and the third verse of Forth in Thy Name, and Marvin Guier read the appointments for the Northwest district, followed by the fourth verse of Forth in Thy Name.

After the reading of appointments, Bishop Bledsoe asked that his wife Leslie be escorted to the front. He then addressed the resolution that had asked that he rescind his retirement. He explained that he had been called before the jurisdictional episcopacy committee two weeks before and told that North Texas did not want him to come back. He had then been told that the evaluation that North Texas had given him was so low that he would not be wanted in any other Conference. His options were voluntary or involuntary retirement. He had decided to voluntarily retire. Bishop Bledsoe said that he had given all his effort to serving North Texas in Christ and that he had been effective everywhere he had served. When he heard the statistician's report about the Conference's increased attendance and higher percentage of apportionment payout under his leadership, he decided that he would change his mind and stay and fight. He said he did not know who had poisoned the well, but he and Leslie had prayed about it and he would stay and fight. He said that with everyone's help, he believed that the next four years they would be able to accomplish great things in the North Texas Conference. He then called the Conference to respond with the closing liturgy and Doxology.

FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

FROM: Council on Finance and Administration

INTRODUCTION

Even with all the financial challenges we have faced as a nation and in our local conference and congregations, the churches of the North Texas Conference had a total 2011 apportionment payout of 95.8%. We are very aware that several pastors and churches truly went the extra mile to make it happen. Congratulations and thank you for your dedication and commitment!

We celebrate that 269 out of 300 churches with apportionments paid 100%, and 45 churches made Second Mile contributions to help others. Both of these statistics are increases over last year. Your faithfulness in your stewardship as well as your generosity in helping one another in meeting this financial obligation is a powerful testimony. We especially recognize the NORTHWEST District for achieving 100% payment for the 20th year in a row as well as the EAST District for their 100% payout for the 17th year in a row! These pastors, lay leaders and District Superintendents Marvin Guier and Paul Gould are to be commended!

The total paid for apportionments was $11,389,157 and the total paid for all benevolent causes was $12,470,219.

While the Council recommends that local churches strive to designate at least 25% of their total annual budgets for causes beyond their churches, it is expected that apportionments will be given first claim by churches in their beyond-the-local church payments, with advance specials and other benevolences viewed as second-mile giving.

The Council continues to expect 100% payout of our apportionments and urges every church to take seriously the recommended ten-month payment plan in which 10% of the annual apportionment amount is remitted monthly. Without doubt, making monthly payments beginning in January or February is an important step in paying apportionments in full.

Paragraph 622 of the 2008 Discipline states that the Board of Pension and Health Benefits apportionment, the Episcopal Fund, the District Superintendents Fund, and Equitable Compensation are apportioned funds which are to be paid on the same schedule as the pastor's salary is paid. The Cabinet joins the Council in urging each church to adhere to this mandate monthly.

All churches are also encouraged to make contributions to their District Second Mile Fund. This is an important way to assist districts and the conference as a whole to achieve 100% payment of our total apportionments.

The Council and the Conference Treasurer continue to update reports in order to provide the information conference leaders and members expect in a more open and transparent way. The Council takes seriously its fiduciary responsibility and is working with conference leaders to ensure faithful and effective stewardship of conference funds.

END-OF-YEAR 2011 FINANCIAL OVERVIEW

1. 2011 was the third of three years in a row of apportionment budget decreases. While the apportionment budget for 2012 showed a slight increase of 0.3%, we are on track to see another small decrease for 2013.
2. The 2011 apportionment payout was 95.8%.
3. As planned, we spent down an additional $491,344 of reserves to reduce apportionments and direct bill benefits premiums to the churches. This is in addition to the $413,584 of planned spending of reserves in 2010. The target goal of the health insurance reserves is between $1,000,000 and $1,500,000. As of the end of 2011, we still had $1,772,568 in our insurance reserve account.
4. In 2010, in accordance with the strategic plan adopted by the 2010 Annual Conference, $1 million of apportionment beginning balances and reserves were transferred as "jumpstart" funds. The expenditures for each of these two agencies and their remaining balances are as follows:

	New Church Starts	Leadership Development
Beginning Balances	$750,000	$250,000
2011 Expensed	(213,319)	(49,390)
Ending Balances	$536,681	$200,610

5. The total funds held by the Conference Treasurer decreased by $802,266 to $8,829,500 (excluding approximately $14 million held in trust for retiree pensions and our retiree medical liability at the General Board of Pension & Health Benefits). This is in part due to the planned spending down of reserves noted above as well as some timing nuances related to the modified cash basis method of reporting as referenced in the 2010 Financial Overview notes.
6. Detailed 2011 financial reports may be found in the Agency Reports section XIII of this Journal.

FURTHER INFORMATION

A. Fidelity Bond for Local Churches

Beginning in 2007, with the establishment of our Conference-Wide Property & Liability Insurance Program through PACT, a $100,000 Employee Dishonesty (Crime) Bond was established to cover those persons authorized to handle funds in every church in the Annual Conference. Effective April 1, 2012, we placed our insurance coverage with McQueary, Henry, Bowles, and Troy. We continue to provide the $100,000 Employee Dishonesty (Crime) Bond in our current insurance program.

B. Electric Aggregation Program

Electric utilities in the state of Texas were deregulated effective January 1, 2002. Deregulation offered the opportunity for the churches of the North Texas Conference to join together to purchase electricity. With the encouragement of CF&A, a group of large churches in the conference initiated an effort to secure a group contract for the purchase of electricity. All of the churches of the conference have been invited to participate in this effort. The program is now in its fifth aggregate contract and continues to be beneficial to the approximately 125 participating churches with the benefits of achieving scale, the ability to anticipate costs in budgeting, and protection against the volatility of natural gas prices and future cost increases.

An additional feature of the present contract is the inclusion of 10% renewable or "green" energy for every church, which was secured at no additional cost to the group contract. Churches may choose to increase the percentage of renewable energy for an additional cost. As reported in a December 22, 2007 feature article in the Dallas Morning News: "In an apparently unprecedented move for a large religious group, United Methodist churches of North Texas have joined forces to buy 'green' electricity generated by windmills in the western part of the state." Staff writer Sam Hodges went on to say, "Environmentalists say they're unaware of another conference, diocese, synod or any other body of churches that has used its economic clout to spur nonpolluting electricity production." This is a significant step as we try to live out our concern for the environment.

Effective January 1, 2012, we have entered into a new two year electrical aggregate contract for a negotiated rate of 5.55 cents per KWH for the majority of our churches.

C. Conference-Wide Property & Liability Insurance Program

In response to requests for help from several local churches and after a great deal of study and discussion over many years, the 2006 Annual Conference session voted to establish a conference-wide property and liability insurance program through the group captive established by GCFA known as UM PACT. State regulations governing group captives required each annual conference to provide a capital contribution to the captive.

In April of 2011, GCFA created United Methodist Insurance (UMI) as a single parent captive with the intent of providing greater insurance coverage opportunities and savings. By the end of the second quarter of 2012, UMI will assume all of the assets and liabilities of the UM PACT program and retain its risks and coverage.

Unfortunately, due to unusually high loss experience over the past few years, we experienced a premium increase of 23% over the previous year along with an increase in deductibles from a flat $1,000 across the board to a wind and hail damage deductible of 2% per building with a cap of $50,000 per building per occurrence on our October 1, 2011 insurance renewal with UMI. An Insurance Advisory Team (IAT) was created to negotiate this program on behalf of the churches of the North Texas conference. The IAT was a six member task force composed of experienced property and liability insurance professionals who were not current broker/agents, directors, or otherwise beneficiaries of any sort of insurance carrier so that they might act on behalf of the churches of the North Texas Conference without any conflict of interest. Over the course of the next several months, the IAT entered into negotiations with UMI over our existing insurance programs. In addition, they secured the services of a local commercial broker, MHBT, in order to obtain a competitive bid on our lines of coverage.

The IAT presented to CFA their recommendation that we move all lines of property and liability insurance coverage to MHBT. CFA voted unanimously to accept the recommendation of the IAT and to ask that this short term task force be an ongoing concern tasked with the work of review and continued negotiation of our insurance needs, reporting directly to CFA.

Because of continuing concern over the vulnerability of our churches in today's litigious society and realizing that all of the other churches are at risk when some are without adequate coverage or limits, the Council is convinced that a mandatory conference wide program is the best way to protect all North Texas Conference churches in case of property losses or issues leading to liability claims. The Council desires to do everything possible to keep our churches out of harm's way and to enhance our protection of ministry and mission.

D. Pre-1982 Pension Liability

The 2008 Discipline requires the submission of an annual formal funding plan for our pre-1982 pension liability. (See Board of Pension and Health Benefits legislative items.)

E. Retiree Medical Liability

A plan to address the conference's Retiree Medical Liability was adopted by the 2002 Annual Conference session and updated by the 2006 and 2008 Annual Conference sessions. CF&A will continue to work with the conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits to prepare regular updates to this plan.

F. Salary, Benefits and Expenses for District Superintendents

As stated in the conference's Standing Rules, "the salary of a district superintendent shall be adjusted annually by the average percentage change in the base compensation of all full-time pastors appointed to serve local churches or appointments for which the conference is responsible." The amount of change called for in accordance with the policy for 2013 is a 1.85% increase, which brings the salary to $108,221. Parsonages are provided by the districts. Utilities, travel and expenses are reimbursed by voucher.

G. 2011 Profile of Apportionments vs. Local Church Expenditures

Total apportionments accounted for 8.2% of total local church expenditures in the North Texas Conference in 2011, compared to 8.1% in 2010 and 8.1% in 2009. Total apportionments increased 0.3% in 2011, while local church operating expenses on the decimal decreased 1.2%. Total local church expenditures in 2011 decreased 3.6%.

H. Ten-Year Profile of Apportionments vs. Local Church Expenditures

An analysis of apportionments in the North Texas Conference between 2002–2011 indicates that total apportionments increased 28.2%, while local church operating expenses on the decimal increased 32.%. Total local church expenditures increased 18.0% during the decade.

I. Future Profile of Apportionments vs. Local Church Income

It has been suggested that a more important comparison than apportionments vs. local church expenditures would be apportionments vs. local church income. The amount of borrowing by local churches is a concern. The Council and Conference Treasurer understand the concern and are certainly willing to begin considering this information in the future. However, it must be asked again of the churches that more care be given to the reporting of income in Table III of the statistical reports. Although we have completed seven years of using Table III, the data received to date is only beginning to appear to be reliable.

J. Accounting System Transition to Generally Accepted Accounting Principles

The Council recommended the transition of the conference books from a modified cash basis to Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) basis take place over a two year period. Generally Accepted Auditing Standards require that financial statements be presented in accordance with GAAP in order to receive an unqualified audit opinion. GCFA has requested all annual conference reporting be done on a GAAP basis. Like many other conferences making this transition, it was determined that it would be very expensive and time consuming to restate the previous two years of accounting on a GAAP basis, which is required for an unqualified audit opinion. The Council recommends that we begin the GAAP accounting with the January 1, 2012 balance sheet, and proceed using this format with the knowledge that we will receive qualified audit opinions for the years ending 2011 and 2012.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR LEGISLATIVE ACTION

I. CONFERENCE TREASURER

The Council on Finance and Administration recommends Jodi S. Smith for election as the Conference Treasurer for the quadrennium.

II. AUDITOR FOR THE CONFERENCE TREASURY

The Council recommends Thomas Stephen & Company, LLP as the auditing firm for the Conference Treasury in 2012.

III. 2013 APPORTIONMENT BUDGET RECOMMENDATION

BACKGROUND:

Since 2009, CFA has worked diligently to reduce the total apportionment budget, accomplishing a total reduction of 11% over the last five years. We had decreases each year, with an essentially "flat" increase in apportionments of 0.3% for 2012. The recommended budget for 2013 includes an additional reduction of 0.6% from 2012, bringing the total apportionment budget recommendation to $11,845,828. This reduction in apportionment dollars over the last five years translates to an additional $1.4 million in ministry dollars available for the work of our local churches.

Once again, as promised, the Strategic Plan adopted at the 2010 Annual Conference session has not caused the apportionments to increase. We continue to realign our resources according to the priorities of our mission, as delineated in the Strategic Plan. Thus, aside from General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference apportionments, the Episcopal Area fund and the District Superintendents Fund, the 2012 recommended apportionment budget is built around the four centers: (1) the Center for Leadership Development, (2) the Center for New Church Development and Congregational Transformation, (3) the Center for Missional Outreach, and (4) the Center for Connectional Resources. As called for in the Strategic Plan, the District Administration Fund budgets come from the District Conferences. Although they are included in the total apportionment budget recommendation, they are not considered by CF&A.

The staff budgets are aligned with their respective centers and in the case of Communications with the Episcopal Area. According to NTC Standing Rule II.A.10, the District Superintendent level salaries are calculated with a 1.85% increase. Other staff salaries are calculated with an aggregate increase of 2.0% plus a benefits cost increase of 3.5%.

We began spending down the health insurance reserves two years ago to ease a one year sizable increase in health insurance premiums. We budgeted and spent approximately $513,000 of reserves in 2011 and have budgeted an additional $452,000 to be spent in 2012. For 2013, we are recommending further spending of the health insurance reserves of $285,800 for CRSP and supplemental insurance payments in an effort to reach our targeted goal of $1 to $1.5 million in health insurance reserves by the end of 2013. As of the beginning of 2012, we still had $1,772,568 remaining in the health insurance reserve fund.

The following other non-apportioned income related to the apportioned items is also anticipated: $50,500 from another conference to partially fund the Justice For Our Neighbors attorney position, $13,000 from youth events to fund CCYM staff, $50,000 from health insurance premiums for staff, $21,000 from a gift to the Area Office, $10,000 from GCFA for the Episcopal Residence, $1,500 from booths at the Ministry Mart for Annual Conference, and $3,000 for printed copies of the Journal. Additional other non-apportioned but related income may be received during the year.

GUIDELINES FOR APPORTIONMENTS FOR LOCAL CHURCHES

A. Formula for Two-Part Decimal:

1/3 membership and 2/3 finance

B. Procedure for Computation of Decimal for Each Church:

The membership part is computed by dividing the total 2011 church membership of the Annual Conference (less discontinued churches and fellowships = 150,362) into the 2011 membership of each church. This becomes the church's membership decimal.

The finance part is computed by adding the amounts of the operating expenses reported paid by each church in columns 53, 54, 56–58, and 60–62 of the 2011 Statistician's Report. (No funds reported in other statistical columns are included in this computation.) This total is then divided by the Conference total of these same columns (less discontinued churches and fellowships = $80,486,934). This becomes the local church's finance decimal.

The finance decimal is doubled. The membership decimal is added to the doubled finance decimal. This total is divided by three to become the apportionment decimal.

C. Procedure for Computation of Apportionments for Each Church:

The apportionment decimal for each church is multiplied by the Conference total of each apportionment to determine the amount that each church is asked to pay toward the apportionment.

D. Margin for Correction:

To assure that 100% of the amount of each apportionment will be distributed to the churches, no more than one quarter of one percent may be added to each apportionment when needed.

RESOLUTION TO DESIGNATE RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED CLERGYPERSONS OF THE NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE

FROM: Board of Pension and Health Benefits

BACKGROUND: To be in compliance with Internal Revenue Service Revenue Ruling 75-22, 1975-1,49, as it relates to clergy housing, the North Texas Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

LEGISLATION: WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the "Church"), of which the North Texas Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through Ministers of the Gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned or licensed ministers of the Church ("Clergypersons"); and

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation; and

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), which includes all such payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits ("GBOPHB"), during the year 2013 by each active, retired, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

THAT the pension or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance applies will be any pension or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from the GBOPHB and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such active, retired or disabled Clergyperson's pension or disability as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson's gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107 (2) and regulations there under to the least of: (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year.

PRE-1982 SERVICE YEAR RATE FOR 2013

FROM: Board of Pension and Health Benefits

BACKGROUND: Paragraph 1506.7 of the 2008 Discipline recommends that the past service annuity rate for ministerial service rendered before 1982 be not less than 1% of the Conference Average Compensation (CAC) as calculated by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. In 1999 the North Texas Conference adopted 1% of the Conference Average Compensation as its policy for setting the annual pre-1982 service year rate. For 2013 the CAC is $73,184. Thus, the Board of Pension and Health Benefits recommends that 1% of that or $732 be the past service rate for 2013.

LEGISLATION: That the pre-1982 Service Year Rate for 2013 be established at $732 for approved service of clergy members in full connection, probationary members, associate members and local pastors of the conference.

2012 FORMAL PRE-82 PENSION LIABILITY FUNDING PLAN

FROM: Board of Pension and Health Benefits

BACKGROUND: Paragraph 1506.8 of the 2008 Discipline requires the updating of a formal annual funding plan which has been approved by the Annual Conference and the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (GBOPHB) for the conference's pre-82 pension liability.

The funding plan below is an update of the funding plan which has been in place since 1995 and was incorporated into the legislation adopted by the 2002, 2006 and 2008 Annual Conference sessions as part of our Retiree Medical Liability Funding Plan. It has been approved by GBOPHB. The valuation of this funding plan will fluctuate each year. In addition to increases or decreases in assets due to stock market fluctuation, GBOPHB actuarial changes also increase or decrease the present value of benefits due.

Believing in the spring of 2008 that the Pre-1982 Pension Liability was funded to a sufficient level to protect against the necessity of unexpected future contributions, which could be required because of market and/or demographic fluctuations, it was decided to transfer $4.3 million from the conference's Pre-82 Pensions Deposit Account at GBOPHB to the conference's Retiree Medical Deposit Account at GBOPHB on December 31, 2008 and the Past Service Funding apportionment was switched from Pre-82 Pensions to Retiree Medical Liability in 2009 and reduced from $1,717,649 to $784,000. As a safeguard in the event of the need for additional funding of pre-82 pensions or for MPP annuities or for the required CRSP Defined Benefit contributions, the two previous apportionments to fund the NTC BOPHB (Board of Pensions and Insurance Subsidies) were combined beginning in 2009 to recognize that they are closely related and allow for transferring funds between the pension liability and the retiree medical liability if needed. As of 1/1/2010 there is in the North Texas Retiree Medical account an amount of $3,784,700 designated for the Pre-82 Pension unfunded liability.

NOTE: While no contributions were required in 2009 and 2010, an additional contribution of $1,133,912 for the Pre-82 Plan (in addition to $355,934 for MPP Annuities and $129,013 for CRSP – DB) was required in 2011 because of the decrease of the assets in the plan due to the market decline which began in the fall of 2008. For 2012, the additional contribution is $500,618 for the Pre-82 Plan. For 2013, the contribution will be $303,429. The GBOPHB granted a "CPP Holiday" with a total value of approximately $1.8 million over three years in 2011-2013. During this "CPP Holiday" the North Texas Conference determined to shift the CPP apportionment to Past Service Funding to fund the required contributions to the Pre-82 Plan for 2011, 2012, and 2013. It is expected that there will be no additional funding required for the Pre-82 Plan beginning in 2014 assuming there are no major market declines. Beginning in 2014, the $624,000 currently apportioned to the Pre-82 Plan will be redirected back to the funding of the CPP premium, alleviating any need for an increase in apportionments.

LEGISLATION: North Texas Annual Conference Funding Plan for Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program as of January 1, 2012.

The 2012 Past Service Rate (PSR) is $721, or 1.0% of Conference Average Compensation (CAC). The present assumption is that the Conference intends to maintain the PSR at 1.0% of CAC. In spite of smaller increases in the CAC for the 2010 and 2011, the CAC has increased by an average of 4.5% per year over the past 40 years, and it is conservatively assumed in this plan that future PSRs will increase by an average of about 4.5% per year.

The conference will fund the benefits through annual contributions as needed from the Conference Deposit Accounts at the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits and apportionments to be designated for Supplement One (Annual Past Service Deposit) through 2021. A contribution of $500,618 will be required for 2012.

The funding plan as of January 1, 2010 for January 1, 2012 is summarized below:

Current Plan Funding	$21,298,287
--Supplement One Liability Assuming a PSR $721.00	($29,144,517)
Funded Status	($ 7,846,517)
Funded Ratio	73%

2013 BOPHB APPORTIONMENT BUDGET

FROM: Board of Pension and Health Benefits

BACKGROUND: The two previous apportionments to fund the work of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits (Insurance Subsidies and Board of Pensions) were combined beginning in 2009 to recognize that they are closely related and allow for transferring funds between the two areas as needed. The proposed 2013 apportionment budget request reflects the plans included in previous legislation regarding Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP) funding, Pre-1982 Service Year Rate for 2013 and the 2012 Pre-82 Pension Liability and Retiree Medical Liability Funding Plans. The notes following each section of the apportionment offer further explanation.

As planned, $36,344 from reserves was spent for pensions and $476,618 from reserves was spent for health insurance subsidies in 2011. For 2012, it is budgeted that approximately $252,200 from reserves will be spent for apportioned pension supplements; $200,000 from reserves will be spent for apportioned health insurance subsidies.

At the beginning of 2012, approximately $1.77 million remained in health insurance reserves. It is anticipated that the balance of the health insurance reserves will be about $1.32 million at the end of 2012. The target for this fund has been between $1–$1.5 million (approximately $1 million was the ending balance from the conference self-funded health insurance program upon entering the denominational program HealthFlex in 1995) so as to be able to preserve the options of the conference health insurance program. In order not to increase the apportionment budget for 2013 as CF&A desires, the budget requests below assume the further spending of approximately $50,000 from reserves for apportioned pension supplements and $235,800 from reserves for apportioned health insurance supplements. There are no more planned health insurance subsidies planned beginning in 2013. The projected balance of the health insurance reserves at the end of 2013 is $1,055,000.

LEGISLATION:

PENSIONS

	Anticipated Expenses	Budget Request
Pre-1982 Years Service (Unfunded Liability)	624,000	624,000 (1)
Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)	0	0 (1)
CRSP Supplement	50,000	0 (2)
Operating Expenses	12,000	13,100
Sub-Total	686,000	637,100 (3)

(1) An additional minimum contribution of approximately $500,618 will be required in 2012 for our unfunded liability due to the decline of the assets in the plan in 2008. To offset the increase in minimum contributions for this liability caused by the market decline in 2008, GBOPHB granted a "CPP Holiday" which we are taking in 2011-2013. The amount which would have been budgeted in those years for CPP is now allocated to fund the additional minimum contribution required for the unfunded liability. This request is a slight decrease from 2011 given that the minimum contribution has decreased for 2012 and 2013.

(2) The CRSP Supplement provides supplements for churches under the Denominational Average Compensation and covers pastors on incapacity leave and provides a small amount for uncollectable premiums. Nothing was budgeted for this in 2010, 2011 or 2012 due to a large beginning balance to spend down. The expenditure in 2009 was $39,392, $43,575 in 2010, and $36,344.78 in 2011. The anticipated expense for 2013 is approximately $50,000. Approximately the same amount is anticipated in 2014 and nothing additional is requested as it is proposed to use approximately $50,000 from reserves for this item.

(3) The Sub-Total is a decrease of $18,000 or approximately 2.8% from the 2012 amount budgeted of $654,000.

EQUITABLE COMPENSATION ANNUAL DETERMINATION

FROM: Center for Leadership Development (CLD)

BACKGROUND: Historically, the North Texas Conference embraces the primary purpose that Equitable Compensation Pastors Funds be allocated to assist local churches in moving from part-time pastoral positions to full-time pastoral positions. These funds are meant to be transitional funds and not long-term subsidies. Some congregations have the potential to reach a sustained average worship attendance of adults to move from a part-time to a full-time pastoral position with short-term conference assistance. The time frame and benchmarks for moving from part-time to full-time should be reflected in yearly increases in worship attendance, Sunday School and small group attendance, professions of faith, those enrolled in annual confirmation classes, and annual increases in the number of individuals and families supporting the church's mission and ministry budget (operations) of the church. In essence, growing churches can move from a part-time to full-time pastoral position in three to five years. To continue receiving Equitable Compensation Funds a transitional setting congregation shall pay 100% of the annual apportionments.

The North Texas Conference also has a history of supporting missional settings where full-time pastors have been appointed to congregations not able to pay a full-time salary. Continued conversations with the pastor, congregation, District Superintendent, and Center Directors of the NTC are essential to ensure these congregations continue to be effective in reaching others, transforming lives, and sharing the gospel of Jesus Christ in word and deed. Annually, congregations in missional settings must also manifest the fruitful increases in worship attendance, small groups, professions of faith, confirmation classes, along with annual stewardship training and education. To continue receiving Equitable Compensation Funds a missional setting congregation shall pay 100% of the annual apportionments.

The Center for Leadership Development in consultation with the Bishop and the NTC Cabinet takes into consideration not only the appropriate minimum level compensation for full-time clergy of the conference but also the needs of the churches in determining whether they can afford a full-time pastor or not.

LEGISLATION: The CLD requests that Pastors Subsidies Equitable Compensation support and administrative expenses be apportioned at $65,000 for 2013.

A. Guidelines for Conference Members and Full-Time Local Pastors

1. The Commission on Equitable Compensation requests that $44,235 be set for the minimum equitable compensation (including base salary, utilities, amount for vouchered travel reimbursement, dependent premium payments made by the local church, dependent premium supplemental payments paid by the conference at the discretion of the District Superintendent, and other conference subsidies received, but excluding any reimbursement for Annual Conference expenses or grants to assist with the expenses to attend expected spiritual formation or continuing education events for all of the clergy members of the conference (e.g., the Clergy Retreat)) for conference members in full connection, associate members and provisional members of the North Texas Conference serving full time for 2013.

For the sixth year the same formula is being applied per the 2006 Annual Conference adopted rate at the recommendation of CF&A for changes to the District Superintendent level compensation. The percent change to the travel & utilities amount is included in the total. The amount of change for 2013 is an increase of 1.85% from $43,432 in 2012.

2. Adjustments for years of service:

Years of Service	Equitable Compensation Amounts
0–5	$44,235
7	44,435
8	44,535
10	44,735

3. Compensation for additional churches on a charge: Each charge with more than one church shall receive $200 additional for the second church and $100 each for the third through the fifth additional churches.

4. Recommendation for housing, utilities and travel expenses:

a. Housing shall be provided in a church-owned parsonage or provided for with a monthly allowance.
b. Utilities shall be provided with payments made by the local church or reimbursed when paid by the pastor.
c. Travel shall be reimbursed at the IRS rate with appropriate records and documentation provided to the church.

5. Local Pastors serving full time:

Five years or less	$39,062
Six years or more	$39,162

Expense recommendations same as above.

6. Deacons serving under salaried appointments in a local church:

a. Are not eligible to receive Equitable Compensation support from the Annual Conference.
b. Shall be granted the same minimum salary as an elder in full connection when their primary appointment is within a local church. * **
*(Judicial Council decision #807)
(2008 Book of Discipline, Paragraphs 331.14, 625.4)

B. The following policies are proposed to the North Texas Annual Conference for the distribution of equitable compensation assistance in 2013:

1. A local church exists to serve, not to be served. All churches should be motivated to a larger sense of ministry. Churches whose pastors receive salary subsidy should be open to linkage with other churches in order to utilize efficiently the service of full-time conference members to reduce the need for subsidy.

2. Equitable Compensation levels can best be met when appointments are open to all ministerial members without regard to race or gender. We continue to urge every conference member to make the subject of a fully open Conference and adequately supported ministry at the local church level a matter of daily personal prayer. Only as the love of Christ dwells in us can an Annual Conference be a communion of caring persons.

3. Growth in stewardship should be achieved by all below-minimum remuneration churches. In making application for salary subsidy, District Superintendents are to provide evidence of stewardship education and growth of the church.

4. Tenure payments are designed to honor the years of service of pastors who continue for more than five years in ministry to below minimum compensation charges because of the needs of the Conference. The Bishop and the Cabinet are urged to make every effort to move pastors to above-minimum compensation charges within five years after they begin full-time service.

5. Applications for salary subsidy from Equitable Compensation are to be made by the District Superintendent on the prescribed forms.

6. The Charge Conference of any charge unable to pay the minimum salary set by the Conference shall be informed by the District Superintendent of the guidelines for receiving equitable compensation assistance. The Charge shall be informed of the amount required to bring the compensation level up to the minimum and shall be challenged to move toward the goal of full self-support at the earliest possible time. On the application for salary assistance, the District Superintendent shall certify that the charge has been duly notified. The amount of subsidy granted to a pastor shall be acknowledged annually at the Charge Conference.

7. Equitable Compensation assistance is not available to pastors serving as associate pastors or in staff positions other than pastor-in-charge. In order that such persons receive an equitable wage, however, it is recommended that local churches use Conference minimum standards as minimum guidelines to setting associate and staff salaries.

8. It is expected that the minimum housing allowance that will be paid by those churches or charges that do not provide a parsonage for their pastor will be $12,000 per year, and requests for salary supplements where housing allowances exceed $12,000 will not be considered.

9. Pastors who decline an appointment which would reduce or eliminate compensation support are ineligible for the Equitable Compensation tenure payment given for years of service.

10. Equitable Compensation assistance is not available for a North Texas Conference member appointed to serve in another Annual Conference, nor is it available to members of other Annual Conferences serving under appointment in the North Texas Conference.

11. There shall be no lump sum payments to persons receiving Equitable Compensation assistance unless such sums are too small for monthly payments to be made.

12. It shall be the responsibility of the pastor receiving Equitable Compensation subsidy to inform the District Superintendent of any increase in remuneration or any changes in eligibility which occur after an application for Equitable Compensation has been approved.

EXCEPTIONAL REQUESTS BY THE CABINET:

All requests for exceptional support (assistance requested by the Cabinet in excess of the 25% maximum standard) shall be submitted in writing to the Center Director for Leadership Development and to the Center Director for Connectional Resources. The requests shall include the amount of assistance requested, length of time for assistance and reason(s) for exceptional request.

MINISTRYSAFE SAFETY SYSTEM

FROM: Center for Leadership Development

BACKGROUND: The General Conference of The United Methodist Church, in April 1996, adopted a resolution aimed at reducing the risk of child sexual abuse in the church. The General Conference of 2008 readopted the resolution. The resolution includes the following statement: Jesus, said, "Whoever welcomes [a] child …welcomes me" (Matthew 18:5). Children are our present and our future, our hope, our teachers, our inspiration. They are full participants in the life of the church and in the realm of God.

Jesus also said, "If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones…it would be better for you if a great millstone were fastened around your neck and you were drowned in the depths of the sea" (Matthew 18:6). Our Christian faith calls us to offer hospitality and protection to the children, youth and vulnerable persons. The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church state, "children must be protected from economic, physical, emotional and sexual exploitation and abuse" (¶ 162C).

Tragically, churches have not always been safe places for children, youth and vulnerable persons[1]. Child sexual abuse, exploitation, and ritual abuse occur in churches, large and small, urban and rural. The problem cuts across all economic, cultural and racial lines. It is real, and it appears to be increasing. Most annual conferences can cite specific incidents of child sexual abuse and exploitation within churches. Virtually every congregation has among its members adult survivors of early sexual trauma. Such incidents are devastating to all involved: the child, the family, the local church and its leaders. Increasingly, churches are torn apart by the legal, emotional and monetary consequences of litigation following allegations of abuse.

God calls us to make our churches safe places, protecting children, youth and other vulnerable persons from sexual and ritual abuse. God calls us to create communities of faith where children, youth and adults grow safe and strong. [From The Book of Resolutions of The United Methodist Church-2008, p. 245, ¶ 3084. LEGISLATION: Be it resolved that the North Texas Annual Conference establish

[1] One definition of "vulnerable persons" is one who because of physical or mental infirmity or emotional disability or other physical, mental or emotional dysfunction may be vulnerable to maltreatment. Vulnerable persons are those who serve and can be in a position where accusations of abuse could mistakenly arise; or who have been abused either as a child or an adult.

MinistrySafe Safety System as the official resource equipping churches to develop a foundational safety system for children, youth and vulnerable persons.

Be it further resolved that the MinistrySafe abuse prevention policy will be implemented for all Conference and District Events, effective July 1, 2012 and enacted in all congregations within the geographical bounds of the North Texas Conference, effective January 1, 2013.

Be it further resolved that a MinistrySafe Task Force be created for the purpose of overseeing the implementation and establishment of procedures for MinistrySafe Awareness and Training for all staff and volunteer adult leaders of children, youth and vulnerable persons.

Be it further resolved that legislation be brought to the 2012 session of the North Texas Annual Conference requiring every local church school, daycare, Mother's Day Out and all extension ministries working with children, youth and vulnerable persons to develop, review, implement and train staff and volunteers for MinistrySafe Safety System.

And, finally, be it further resolved that this policy is adopted in the North Texas Annual Conference Standing Rules.

MINISTRYSAFE SAFETY SYSTEM FOR ALL CONFERENCE AND DISTRICT EVENTS NORTH TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Introduction to Annual Conference Policy
OUR CALLING AND OUR MANDATE IS TO ENSURE A SAFE HAVEN FOR ALL OF GOD'S PEOPLE.

Throughout the gospels, Jesus provides teachings on providing a peaceable kingdom for all of God's people, including our most precious gifts, our children and youth (Matthew 5:9, Luke 18:15–17). The peaceable kingdom begins with sanctuary. Scriptures provide examples of how sanctuary is to be a community of protective nurture and harmony (Psalms 20:1–2, 27:4–5).

As Christians, we are called to create a protective environment in our churches. They must be holy, safe and protective communities for all of God's children, regardless of age or ability. The purpose of this policy is to address the communal responsibility of our children, youth, and vulnerable persons at all local churches, and at all District or Annual Conference sponsored events. The North Texas Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church recognizes the need to have a formal, written policy with procedures in place (1) to help prevent the opportunity for the occurrence and/or the appearance of abuse of children, youth, and vulnerable persons, (2) to help provide safeguards for workers from false accusations and/or suspicions and (3) to hold accountable all those who minister in the name of Jesus Christ.

The following policy and procedures are not based on a lack of trust in workers, but are intended to protect our preschoolers, children, youth, vulnerable persons, workers, employees, volunteers and the entire church body. Careful and confidential documentation is essential to show compliance with policies, to verify information as needed, and to have an accurate record in the case of an incident.

Scope of Annual Conference Policy
This policy and its provisions shall apply to all persons including all paid and unpaid persons, whether lay or clergy who have any direct or indirect contact with children and youth who participate in any activities or events sponsored by the North Texas Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and/or its Districts.

This Annual Conference policy is effective as of July 1, 2012 for all Conference and District Events. The North Texas Annual Conference policy shall be applicable at all Conference and District activities. The local congregation's policy may expand the Conference policy, but may not/should not alter the minimum standards established by the Conference or those standards mandated by the State of Texas' licensures.

Supervision
An adult is defined as anyone 18 years of age or older.

A youth assistant is anyone under the age of 18 who may work with children and youth only when supervised by at least two adults over the age of 18 years. Youth assistants cannot be in charge of, nor left alone with children and youth. Background checks on youth under the age of 18 are inaccessible, so choose youth with great care. If using youth assistants, ensure the following is completed: 1) Application, 2) six-month volunteer history and 3) verify references. Also note, with using youth assistants, MinistrySafe training will need to be adapted for age-appropriateness.

To achieve compliance with the MinistrySafe policy it may be necessary to combine groups; recruit, train, and reference additional volunteers; or cancel an event. It is also strongly encouraged that there be present at least one adult who is trained and certified in First Aid and CPR.

Observation of activities in rooms is essential, whether it is done by windows, open doors, glass doors, electronic technology, etc.

All volunteers seeking to work with children, youth and vulnerable persons, shall have at least 6 months involvement in a local church or provide a written recommendation by a senior pastor or appropriate designee.

For the sake of outreach, evangelism, and family involvement in our ministries, Parents, Grandparents, and Legal Guardians who have not met these criteria may volunteer as guest, so long as 2 or more properly MinistrySafe trained staff or volunteers are on site and in charge. Any such individuals who intend to be a guest on an ongoing basis shall be subject to all MinistrySafe guidelines and screenings.

Supervision for Nursery/childcare at Conference and District events:
- There shall be a minimum of two (2) adults per room or within line of sight.
- The State of Texas Childcare Minimum Standards (http://www.dfps.state.tx.us/Child_Care) must be followed, particularly in relation to the number of adults to child ratio.

Supervision of children and youth at Conference and District events:
- Conference and District events shall observe the —"2 Adult Rule" (2 adults per classroom, 2 adults within line of sight). -OR-
- Any one-to-one mentoring or consulting shall be conducted in sight of another adult. -OR-
- Understanding that there is safety in numbers, one adult can be in contact with multiple youth (6th–12th grades) so long as they are in line of sight of other adults.

Overnight Accommodations
At events that require overnight accommodations:
- At least (2) adults are present in every room/cabin. - OR -
- When staying in a hotel, adults shall sleep in an adjoining room with the same gender of the children/youth; or if necessary for children/youth to share a room with an adult, adults shall sleep in separate beds from children/youth so long as any one adult shall not be alone with any one child/youth.

Definitions of Abuse

Verbal Abuse—Any verbal act that humiliates degrades or threatens any child or youth.

Physical Abuse—Any act of omission or an act that endangers a person‘s physical or mental health. In the case of child or youth physical abuse, this definition includes any intentional physical injury caused by the individual‘s caretaker. Physical abuse may result from punishment that is overly punitive or inappropriate to the individual‘s age or condition. In addition, physical abuse may result from purposeful acts that pose serious danger to physical health of a child or youth.

Sexual Abuse—Child or youth sexual abuse is the sexual exploitation or use of same for satisfaction of sexual drives. This includes, but is not limited to: 1) incest, 2) rape, 3) prostitution, 4) romantic involvement with any participant, 5) any sexual intercourse, or sexual conduct with, or fondling of an individual enrolled as a child or youth in sponsored activities of this church, 6) sexualized behavior that communicates sexual interest and/or content.

Examples are not limited to: displaying sexually suggestive visual materials, making sexual comments or innuendo about one’s own or another person’s body, touching another person’s body, hair or clothing, touching or rubbing oneself in the presence of another person, kissing, and sexual intercourse.

Emotional Abuse—Exposing a youth or younger child to spoken and/or unspoken violence or emotional cruelty. Emotional abuse sends a message to the youth or child that she or he is worthless, bad, unloved, and undeserving of love and care. Emotional abuse may include being locked in closets or other confining spaces, being incessantly told they are bad, or being forced to abuse alcohol or illegal drugs.

Neglect—Endangering a child or teen’s health, welfare, and/or safety through negligence. It may include withholding food, medical care, affection to destroy the child or teen’s sense of self-esteem and self-worth.

Ritual Abuse- Abuse in which physical, sexual, or psychological violence is inflicted on a child or youth, intentionally and in a stylized way, by someone (or multiple people) with responsibility for the victim’s welfare. Typically the perpetrator appeals to some higher authority or power to justify his or her abuse. Examples of ritual abuse may include cruel treatment of animals or repetitious threats of sexual or physical violence to the youth or child victim or to people related to the victim.

Screening for Adults

Careful screening is one way to prevent the abuse of children and youth and vulnerable persons. Screening calls for a careful gathering and review of information in search of those who can provide safe and caring supervision in a safe environment. All screening shall be done in accordance with guidelines to be established by the Conference MinistrySafe Awareness and Training Task Force.

Persons having a criminal history of any of the following types of offenses shall not be allowed to serve in any ministry with children and youth:

- Child abuse, whether physical, emotional, sexual, or neglectful

- Violent offenses, including murder, rape, assault, domestic violence, etc.
- Drug related conviction within the five (5) years immediately prior to application.
- Persons having a criminal history of DUI or DWI conviction within the five (5) years immediately prior to application shall not be allowed to act as a driver.

If there are questions regarding an individual's background check or screening, due to special circumstances (acquittals, discharges, exonerations, pardons, etc.), please notify the District Superintendent or appropriate Conference Staff before making those decisions.

Training

The North Texas Annual Conference shall develop and implement training for all persons in leadership who work with children, youth and vulnerable populations at the District and Conference level. None of these persons shall, after July 1, 2012, have any direct or indirect contact with children and/or youth until they have completed the MinistrySafe Safety System. We recommend that at the beginning of each Conference/District event a review of this policy be conducted. As of January 1, 2013, all congregations shall implement this same training standard.

The MinistrySafe Safety System must be reviewed and renewed annually.

Reporting of Incidents

1. When an adult leader of an event or activity suspects that abuse or any suspected violation of the Texas Penal Code is taking or has taken place, he or she shall call 911 when needed and report the abuse to the appropriate local law enforcement agency and/or the Department of Protective and Regulatory Services (800-252-5400). The adult leader shall contact the administrator or event leader immediately, and cooperate fully with the investigation conducted by law enforcement officials or child protective services.

2. Address any needs the child or youth may have, medical or otherwise. Report to the parent(s) and/or legal guardians(s).

3. The person suspected of abuse (respondent) shall, for the safety and well-being of the children or youth, be removed with dignity from further contact with the children and youth until an appropriate investigation has taken place. The matter shall remain confidential. If the adult event leader is the respondent, then the report should be made to that person's supervisor.

4. Following the report of an incident, the adult event leader, or supervisor in charge shall speak with the alleged victim, and document the report, according to Section 5.

5. All such conversations shall be documented. Careful and confidential documentation is essential. The documentation should include the following:
    a. The name of the adult leader observing or receiving the disclosure of abuse, including the date, time and place and any action taken by this person.
    b. The alleged victim's name, age, and date of birth.
    c. Any statement made by the alleged victim.
    d. Name of the respondent, the date, time and place of any conversation or any statement made by the respondent.
    e. Any action taken, i.e. suspension of the respondent.
    f. Date and time of call to the appropriate agency, name of worker spoken to, content of that conversation and case number assigned.
    g. Date and time of call to law enforcement agency, name of officer spoken to and content of that conversation.

h. Date and time of any other contacts made regarding this incident.

6. Notify the Conference/District authorities immediately.

7. It shall be the goal to provide supportive care to both the victim and the respondent and to restore such persons to wholeness. Supportive care can include the procedures of the criminal justice system, provisions of the current Book of Discipline, appropriate counseling referrals and continued pastoral visitation.

8. Confirmed reports of proven incidents of abuse shall be retained in a confidential file for future screening purposes.

Media Response
The Bishop shall be informed of all investigations or allegations of abuse. If investigations or allegations of abuse should come to the attention of the media, a response shall come from the Office of the Bishop.

Do not give out any information, simply state that all inquiries will be answered through the Office of the Bishop.

OTHER INFORMATION
Appropriate Discipline
Children and youth should be made aware that appropriate behavior is expected at all events. Gentle reminders are always necessary when dealing with children and youth. When these reminders don't work, then discipline needs to move to the next step. In cases where behavior has to be addressed, designated event adults should handle it. In no case is physical discipline an appropriate measure to deal with problems. A reasonable response might include a period of "time out" for the child or youth. This should be done with necessary supervision keeping MinistrySafe guidelines in mind.

Keeping parents involved is important. They need to be kept up-to-date on their child's behavior. For serious offenses, the appropriate response will be to send the child or youth home immediately. Parents and the leaders will help make proper arrangements.

Appropriate Physical and Emotional Boundaries
Physical boundaries are most important in dealing with children and youth. Persons working with children and youth have to understand and respect those boundaries. Obviously these boundaries change as children grow older. A young child sitting in the lap of a caregiver is most appropriate, whereas an older child or youth sitting in an adult's lap would not be acceptable. Hugs and kisses from a toddler to an adult are entirely different than the same from a youth.

Emotional boundaries are also important. As a child grows older it is important for the adult to maintain appropriate boundaries in relationships. It is important for those working with children and youth to not step outside of those lines and allow the younger person to become too attached to them. It is important for the older person to be careful where conversations might lead and to steer clear of inappropriate talk. When an adult recognizes that there might be an issue with these boundaries, great space should be allowed to come between them and the child or youth in question. If that does not solve the problem, then the event leadership should address the issue.

Leader Misconduct
It is a privilege to work with youth. Great responsibility is required. Those who violate this policy shall immediately be removed from contact with children and youth and appropriate authorities shall be notified immediately.

Spiritual Boundaries for MinistrySafe
As we seek to lead young people in the development of their faith story, it is essential that we guide them and do not manipulate their emotions. This is especially true at longer youth/children's events. The attendees may be exhausted by longer and more active days than they are accustomed to and thereby more susceptible to emotional manipulation. It is therefore necessary that, as we present the message of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the opportunity to follow Jesus in a life-long journey, we present the invitation with "no strings-attached." We must allow each person involved to make their own decisions without stigma, coercion, or pressure in any form. As we do this faithfully, we will see more fruitful commitments in the lives of all our participants.

MERGER OF ELMWOOD UMC AND EL BUEN SAMARITANO UMC

FROM: North Texas Conference Board of Trustees

BACKGROUND: The El Buen Samaritano UMC, a member church in the Rio Grande Conference, and the Elmwood UMC (Metro District) of the North Texas Conference are merging to become one congregation. The new congregation, Elmwood–El Buen Samaritano UMC will be housed at the current Elmwood UMC location in Dallas, Texas. Due to the transitioning neighborhood in Oak Cliff this merger is especially relevant for these two congregations. The merged congregation will be a member church of the North Texas Conference.

LEGISLATION: The North Texas Conference Board of Trustees recommends the merger of these two congregations. The El Buen Samaritano parsonage will become property of the new church and the pastor will continue to live in the home. The El Buen Samaritano church has sold their former church building. The stream of income from that sale will come to the new congregation. All assets of both congregations will be combined in the merged church.

MERGER OF ARTHUR CITY: ST. MARK'S AND MT. ZION

FROM: North Texas Conference Board of Trustees
BACKGROUND: Because only a small number of members remained and they could not continue to support the church and provide vital ministry to the parish area, members of the Arthur City: St. Mark's UMC, East District, concluded that it is the time to merge with the Mt. Zion UMC in Paris, TX.

LEGISLATION: The North Texas Conference Board of Trustees recommends the merger of these two congregations. The Mt. Zion UMC will sell the assets of the Arthur City: St. Mark's UMC and incorporate the proceeds of the sale with their funds and property.

STANDING RULES OF THE NORTH TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE

These standing rules are composed of three parts: 1) structure of the North Texas Annual Conference ("Annual Conference"); 2) policies of the Annual Conference; and 3) rules of procedure for the conduct of Annual Conference sessions.

I. STRUCTURE OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Primacy of Book of Discipline and Standing Rules. These General Provisions apply to all Agencies except where the current version of The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church ("Book of Discipline") or specific Standing Rules otherwise provide.

2. "Agency" In these Standing Rules, the word "Agency" means a conference-level group that performs the work of the North Texas Annual Conference, whether that group is called a Council, Board, Division, Commission, Committee, Team, Group or Task Force. It does not include boards of trustees or boards of directors of Annual Conference related institutions.

3. "Conference Year; Conference Fiscal Year." "Conference year" means the period from the close of one regularly scheduled session of the Annual Conference through the close of the following year's regularly scheduled session of the Annual Conference. "Conference Fiscal Year" means January 1 through December 31.

4. Election of Members. Members and Chairs of the Agencies shall be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference. There shall be an opportunity for additional nominations from the floor. When persons are nominated from the floor of the Annual Conference, the nominator will indicate which person from the Conference Nominating Committee's report is to be replaced by the nominee. Substitute nominations should be in the same category of inclusivity as the person in the Conference nominating Committee's report.Votes on substitute nominees will be made individually prior to the vote on the full report.

5. Membership Diversity. Except where the Book of Discipline or these Standing Rules otherwise provide, membership on all Agencies shall include one third clergy, one third laywomen, and one third laymen insofar as possible. In addition, special attention shall be given to inclusive representation from the ethnic churches, districts, small membership churches, and town and country churches.

6. Terms. Persons shall be nominated to serve a four year term on an Agency. No person shall be nominated for a position without previously agreeing to serve if elected. Persons elected shall begin their terms of office at the close of the Annual Conference session at which they are elected. In the event of new agencies being formed, shorter terms may be permitted to allow for rotation of members to maintain agency continuity.

7. Failure to Attend Meetings. Persons who are absent without cause for half or more of an Agency's meetings during the Conference Year will thereby automatically remove themselves from the membership of the Agency and shall be replaced by the Conference Nominating Committee.

8. Vacancies. The Conference Nominating Committee is authorized to fill any Agency vacancies between sessions of the Annual Conference, unless the Book of Discipline otherwise provides. Persons appointed to fill vacancies shall serve only the remainder of the Conference year in which they are appointed. They may be elected to that position at the first regularly scheduled Annual Conference session following their appointment, in which case they will serve the remainder of the term of the person they replace. If the term of the person they replace would normally expire at the Annual Conference, then they may be elected to a full term either as member or chair without the partial year they served filling the vacancy counting toward the term limit as covered in Provision 9 and Provision 10 below.

9. Term Limits for Members. No elected person may serve more than eight successive years on any one Agency. A person may, however, be re-elected to an Agency on which that person has previously served his or her term limit after non-membership for four years.

10. Term Limits for Agency Chairs and Team Representatives. No person may serve as Chair or Team Representative of any Agency for more than four consecutive years, nor may any person chair or be a team representative on any combination of Agencies for a total of more than six years in any eight year period.

11. Limits on Multiple Agency Membership. No person shall serve on more than two Agencies at the same time, except as an ex officio member. In computing these limits, membership which occurs by virtue of holding some other Agency position shall not be counted. In applying these limits, the nominators shall be guided by the policies of diffusing power throughout the Annual Conference and limiting the agency workload required of any particular individual. Therefore, both the responsibilities and the workload of the various Agencies shall be taken into consideration in making Nominations.

12. Coordination of Nominations. All nominations of persons to Agencies shall be reported to the Assistant to the Bishop/Director of Missional Outreach and the Core Leadership Team in order to promote inclusivity and compliance with the Standing Rules on Limits on Multiple Agency Membership.

13. Record Keeping. In order to assist the Annual Conference in enforcing these General Provisions, each Annual Conference Journal shall indicate after the name of each Agency member the year in which the person's current term expires and whether it is the person's first or second consecutive term with that Agency. Each Annual Conference Journal shall also indicate member ethnicity after the name of each Agency member. The report of the Annual Conference Nominating Committee shall indicate member ethnicity after the name of each person in its report.

14. General Agencies. Members of the general agencies of the United Methodist Church from the Annual Conference will be ex officio members of the corresponding Agency.

15. Appeals. Any Agency has the right to appeal to the Annual Conference regarding a decision affecting its work made by any other Agency, except where otherwise provided in the Book of Discipline.

16. Clergy. In these Standing Rules, the word "clergy" refers to the following members of the North Texas Annual Conference unless some specific Standing Rule otherwise provides: (1) elders in full connection; (2) deacons in full connection; (3) probationary members; (4) commissioned ministers; (5) associate members; and (6) local pastors under full-time and part-time appointment to a pastoral charge.

The Conference Nominating Committee nominates members and Chairs of Agencies for election by the Annual Conference except where otherwise provided in the Book of Discipline or these Standing Rules. The Conference Nominating Committee will also maintain a list of persons willing to serve on Agencies, thus acting as a resource for the Core Leadership Team and the Bishop.

The Conference Lay Leader will chair the Conference Nominating Committee, which will also include the four District Superintendents and four at-large lay members nominated by the districts and elected by the Annual Conference.

Prior to the nomination of the at-large lay members by the districts, the District Superintendent will remind the district meeting of the need for inclusiveness in the election of the members of the Conference Nominating Committee. The District Superintendent will also remind the district meeting of the limits on multiple agency membership contained in these Standing Rules. At-large lay members of the Conference Nominating Committee will be elected for a four-year term. A person so elected may serve only one four-year term, and will be eligible to be elected again only after being off the Conference Nominating Committee for at least two years.

For the conference year 2010–11, the Conference Nominating Committee will be empowered to "populate" any additional work groups requested by the Core Leadership Team. Thereafter, in 2011–12 and following, the Conference Nominating Committee will make nominations to the Annual Conference, which will elect members of the work groups.

II. POLICIES OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

A. FINANCIAL PRACTICES

1. Conference Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Annual Conference is January 1 through December 31.

2. Apportionments to be made based on Conference Fiscal Year. The apportionments to the local churches shall be made on the basis of the Conference Fiscal Year.

3. Conference Books. The Conference Treasurer's books shall be closed annually at 12:00 noon on January 11 (or the next working day, if January 11 falls on a weekend or holiday), and no funds received by the Conference Treasurer after that time shall apply toward Conference Apportionments of the year just completed.

4. Disposition of Interest. Interest earned on any funds (excluding designated trusts) managed by the Conference Treasurer shall be declared general funds of the North Texas Annual Conference and administered by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

5. Agency Spending. No Agency shall incur financial obligations that exceed current appropriations, and beginning balances where applicable, for any reason except by specific approval of the Core Leadership Team and the Council on Finance and Administration. New items must be submitted first to the Core Leadership Team and, if approved, must also be submitted to the Council on Finance and Administration for appraisal and consideration for the current year. No Agency shall include requests for funds other than those required for its own operation or program, except that Teams and Groups may request funds for the benefit of their own Task Forces. Requests for funds for the same cause or concern shall be granted to only one Agency.

6. Conference-Wide Appeals. When application is made to the Annual Conference for the privilege of special conference-wide financial appeal, whether by special collection, campaigns, or otherwise, the application shall be referred to the Council on Finance and Administration before final action is taken thereon. The Council on Finance and Administration shall investigate the application and its possible relation to other obligations of the conference, and in light of the facts make recommendations to the Annual Conference.

7. Auditing. The Council on Finance and Administration shall nominate to the Annual Conference an auditing firm which shall audit the Conference Treasurer's books annually. All institutions receiving financial support from the Annual Conference, either by direct apportionment or by special offerings, shall, if requested, submit an annual auditor's report acceptable to the Council on Finance and Administration reflecting the receipt and disbursement of the financial support received from the Annual Conference. Such reports shall be provided to the Council on Finance and Administration by October 1 of each year for the previous fiscal year. Each District shall retain an auditing firm to audit the District books annually, and shall submit such annual auditor's report to the Council on Finance and Administration by October 1 of each year for the previous fiscal year.

8. Apportionments. The Conference Treasurer, with the assistance of the District Superintendents, shall annually compute the apportionment decimal for each church. By September 1, the Conference Treasurer shall provide the amounts for each church's apportionments for the following year.

9. Ethical Fiscal Principles. The following ethical principles apply to the appropriation and disbursement of funds by the Annual Conference:

a. Funds contributed for a designated purpose should be used strictly for the purpose designated, and administered efficiently, without waste or duplication, in order to obtain maximum effect from the use of available funds.

b. Net proceeds from the sale of Annual Conference property are capital funds and should be appropriated to the use which the property was intended to serve. If this is not feasible, priority should be given to the most similar purpose for which the funds can be used effectively or to capital improvements within reasonable geographical proximity; but district lines should not be controlling and the entire community or metropolitan area should be considered. Likewise, funds received by way of indemnity for loss or destruction of any capital assets of the Annual Conference should be treated as capital assets and should be used for similar purposes if restoration of the property is feasible.

10. The salary of a district superintendent shall be adjusted annually by the average percentage change in the base compensation of all full-time pastors appointed to serve local churches or appointments for which the conference is responsible as calculated by the conference treasurer. This adjustment shall begin in 2008, using the 2007 base compensation level as the initial base. In addition, the compensation level is to be evaluated by the Council on Finance and Administration every five years in relationship to North Texas Conference pastoral salaries and other annual conferences.

11. The effective date for Annual Conference moves and clergy retirements is July 1. Thus when a pastoral change comes at Annual Conference, the salary of the previous appointment shall be paid through June 30, and the salary in the new appointment shall begin July 1.

B. REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

1. Death Records. The minister who is in charge of the funeral services of any clergy member of the Annual Conference, or the spouse, widow, or widower of a clergy member of the Annual Conference, will supply the Conference Secretary with a memoir containing the date of birth, date of death, date of final rites, and place of burial of the deceased. To the extent possible, the minister will also supply a recent photograph of the deceased and date of entrance into the Annual Conference. For clergy members who transferred into the Annual Conference, the minister will, if possible, inform the Conference Secretary the deceased's date of transfer into the Annual Conference, the conference from which transferred, and appointments in other conferences. If the minister in charge of the funeral cannot supply this information, the Conference Secretary will use his or her best efforts to supply the missing information. All of this information should be sent to the Conference Secretary immediately following the funeral.

2. Biographical Information. Each member of the clergy and each diaconal minister shall file with the Conference Secretary a historical sketch of his or her life on a form to be furnished by the Conference Secretary. This document will become that person's record.

3. Legal Descriptions of Conference Property. Each District Superintendent shall furnish to the Secretary of the Board of Trustees a legal description of each piece of property in his or her District on or before December 1 of each year. The District Superintendents shall also provide a statement as to where the deeds evidencing ownership of these properties are kept. The information provided annually shall be accurate as of December 1.

4. Statistics. Each District Superintendent shall furnish the required district statistics to the Conference Statistician. In order to facilitate these reports, the following procedures will be followed:

a. Each church and pastor shall submit the Annual Conference report for auditing on the Check-Out Day specified by the Cabinet. Check-Out Day is the date when local churches turn in statistical information for the preceding year on forms provided by the Conference Statistician. The Annual Conference report shall be submitted to the District Statistician (see below).

b. Each District Superintendent shall appoint a District Statistician. The District Statistician shall check each Annual Conference report for accuracy, consistency, and completeness. The District Statistician then forwards the Annual Conference reports to the District Secretary, who in turn forwards them to the Conference Statistician.

c. Each pastor in charge shall also report to his or her District Superintendent on Check-Out Day any money borrowed necessary to pay current church obligations for the Conference Fiscal Year, or any delinquent church bills which have not been paid by the close of the Conference Fiscal Year.

C. VACATION STANDARDS

The following are minimum vacation standards for clergy and diaconal ministers of the North Texas Annual Conference.

1. Method of Calculation

The vacation is calculated according to the number of years of service, using the following formula:

1–4 years of service—two weeks (two Sundays)
5–9 years of service—three weeks (three Sundays)
10+ years of service—four weeks (four Sundays)

2. Further Guidelines

In applying the standards:

a. "years of service" shall be determined by years served as a full-time United Methodist commissioned minister, probationary member, diaconal minister, local pastor, associate member, deacon in full connection, or elder in full connection. In computing a person's "years of service," time spent in all categories shall be cumulated and all shall count toward the person's total "years of service."

b. The length of vacation is set by the Annual Conference, but the most suitable time for both the employing entity and the clergy or diaconal ministers and their families must be determined by consultation between the clergy or diaconal minister and the employing entity.

D. CLERGY DIVORCE

"Where marriage partners, even after thoughtful consideration and counsel, are estranged beyond reconciliation, we recognize divorce as regrettable, but recognize the right of divorced persons to remarry. We express our deep concern for the care and nurture of the children of divorced and/or remarried persons. We encourage that either or both of the divorced parents be considered for custody of minor children of the marriage. We encourage an active, accepting, and enabling commitment of the church and our society to minister to the members of divorced families," (The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, 1984)

The Discipline rightly makes no distinction between divorce occurring among the laity or clergy. We recognize the possibility of congregations being nurturing communities, and, thus for Christian love to grow in the midst of the painful circumstances surrounding a clergy or layperson's divorce.

The North Texas Conference also can be a caring and nurturing community for the clergy at divorce. The conference recognizes its responsibility to respond to divorcing clergy in as pastoral a manner as possible. To this end, the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church suggests the following for our clergy as well as their spouses in the event of divorce.

1. The clergy member will have taken every action possible toward reconciliation within the marriage. This shall include extensive counseling with a reputable marriage counselor, preferably with both partners to the marriage participating but, where impossible, with at least the clergy member's participation.

2. In consultation with the District Superintendent, the divorcing clergy and/or spouse may request a meeting of the following persons:
   a. The Chairperson of the Division of Conference Relations, presider.
   b. The District Superintendent of the clergy member's district.
   c. The district member of the Division of Conference Relations.
   d. Two peers chosen by the clergy member involved.

3. This meeting will:
   a. Pastorally respond to the divorce
   b. Offer help/guidance, if requested, to:
      1) The clergy member
      2) The divorcing spouse
      3) The clergy member's peers, and/or
      4) The respective Pastor-Parish Committee
   c. Refer divorcing persons to special seminars and workshops on divorce which are available periodically in the community.

E. CLERGY HOUSING

1. In the event of the death of a member of the clergy occupying a parsonage, the surviving spouse and family shall be granted the privilege of using the parsonage for a period of time not to exceed sixty (60) days.

2. Housing Standards for Elders in Full Connection.

In this section on Housing Standards for Elders in Full Connection, including Housing Allowances and Parsonage standards, the word "clergy" means "elders in full connection." The standards on Housing Allowances and parsonages apply to those churches that have elders in full connection and that are not receiving an equitable salary support.

The size and make-up of clergy families, and the size, location, and type of housing provided for clergy families by local churches is a major factor in the well-being of clergy families. As such, it has an impact on the effectiveness of clergy.

Although it is clear that no one single provision for housing will completely satisfy all the needs of every clergy family and every local church, the goal is to best satisfy the needs of all.

Housing Allowances

While parsonages have been the traditional means of providing housing for clergy families, there are those local church settings and situations where a housing allowance can be an effective and efficient means of providing housing for clergy families.

However, it must be understood that if a house is purchased by a clergy family, there is the potential for financial hardship and difficulties related to the sale of a house when an appointment change is made.

It must also be understood that a housing allowance will have no effect on the tenure of a pastor, neither increasing nor decreasing the potential length of a pastorate.

1. If a housing allowance is provided by a local church, the amount shall be sufficient to allow for the rental\lease\purchase of housing that meets the parsonage standards of the annual conference.

2. A utility allowance shall be paid in addition to the housing allowance.

3. The amount of the housing allowance and of the utility allowance shall be reviewed on an annual basis to ensure that the amount is adequate.

4. The District Superintendent, in consultation with the pastor and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, shall be responsible for ensuring that these standards are met.

Parsonages

1. Size

   a. In order to accommodate all family sizes as reasonably as possible, and to allow for the greatest flexibility in meeting the needs of clergy families, the parsonage shall contain at least three bedrooms, with four recommended.

   b. There shall be at least two full baths.

   c. There shall be at least one large living area, with two living areas recommended.

   d. There shall be at least one dining area.

   e. There shall be a garage or covered carport adjacent to the house.

   f. The total area of living space shall be approximately 2,000 sq. ft. or more.

2. Location

   a. The parsonage shall be located in a residential neighborhood. (It should not be on a major thoroughfare, nor adjacent to commercial businesses.)

   b. The parsonage shall be located where it will allow for adequate privacy for the clergy family.

3. Interior

   a. The kitchen shall include all standard modern appliances (oven, cooktop, dishwasher, disposal, and refrigerator).

   b. There shall be a washer and dryer for laundry.

   c. There shall be adequate heating and cooling, with central air and heat whenever possible.

   d. The parsonage shall have window treatments in every room (e.g., blinds, drapes, or shutters).

e. The clergy family shall be responsible for all other furnishings.

f. All interiors of newly built parsonages shall be accessible for persons with disabilities, including a minimum of (1) one bathroom that has an accessible shower, commode, and lavatory, (2) passageways, garage, rooms, and entrances that are accessible, and (3) consideration is given to the landscaping of the yard.

g. When an appointment is made in which a member of the parsonage family has a disability, the District Superintendent shall see that the existing parsonage be fitted with aids that will enable it to be suitable for persons with disabilities to the extent that the structure of the existing parsonage can be renovated. Consideration for grant moneys from conference agencies shall be given to these churches.

4. Exterior

a. The outside of the parsonage shall be landscaped to complement the house, with adequate shrubs, bushes, and trees.

b. A safe, fenced area shall be provided in the backyard for children and/or pets.

c. The mowing and the upkeep of the yard are to be negotiated between the pastor and the Board of Trustees.

5. Utilities

a. The local church shall pay for the cost of all utilities, including basic television access, except for personal long distance phone calls.

b. In order to minimize fees and deposits, the utilities, including the telephone, shall be in the name of the local church, unless this results in a higher rate schedule.

6. Maintenance

a. The local church Board of Trustees is responsible for the upkeep and repair of the parsonage, including the appliances, and there shall be an annual inspection of the parsonage and property by the Trustees, with a written report made at the local church's annual Charge Conference. It is suggested that all parsonages have an inspection by an engineering or contracting inspector every five years, starting ten years after they have been purchased or built.

b. The clergy family is responsible for minor upkeep and repairs, and for any damage done to the parsonage by a member or pet of the clergy family, including that caused by smoking.

7. Change of Pastors

a. When there is an impending change of pastors, the pastor shall notify the local church Board of Trustees, and the clergy family and Trustees shall ensure that the parsonage is as clean as possible. Major repairs should be made before the new clergy family arrives.

b. The Trustees shall contact the new clergy family before any painting or refurbishing is done, in order to have their preferences, needs, and suggestions incorporated into any work done on the parsonage.

8. Disposition of Church Owned Furniture

a. Following the 1994 Annual Conference, churches will begin the process of providing unfurnished parsonages, except for the items listed above in C.

9. Compliance

a. The Board of Trustees of each local church shall make a written report on or before its Charge Conference in 1996, demonstrating either compliance with these standards or specific plans to come into compliance with these standards.

b. The District Superintendent, in consultation with the pastor, the Board of Trustees, and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee shall be responsible for ensuring that these standards are met.

c. Lay member(s) of Annual Conference is(are) responsible for taking these standards back to every local church Board of Trustees.

Annual Conference Moving Fund

1. Funding
   a. The North Texas Conference shall establish a "Moving Fund" to be assessed through a Conference apportionment. This fund shall be of sufficient amount to pay for the number of qualifying moves in any given year. In this section on Annual Conference Moving Fund, "clergy" refers to those entitled to funding from the moving fund, as described more specifically in section 2 below.

   b. For eligible full-time moves, payment will be made as follows:
      (1) for the actual cost up to 45% of the Texas Max 3 Tariff as stated in the "Moving Allowance Chart" (which shall automatically reflect any changes in the Texas Max 3 Tariff);
      (2) Replacement Cost Insurance for an estimated value of the shipment up to $50,000 will be provided for all full-time moves. (The additional cost of a shipment value of $50,001-100,000 may be taken out of the stipend);
      (3) A $300 stipend is also available which may be used for other documented moving expenses the clergy family incurs.

   c. For eligible part-time moves, payment up to a total of $500 will be made for a moving company and personal expenses.

2. Eligibility for Funding

a. Those elders in full connection, probationary members, commissioned ministers preparing for ordination as elders in full connection, associate members, or full-time local pastors, who are appointed to a local church in the North Texas Annual Conference, and other elders in full connection, probationary members, commissioned ministers preparing for ordination as elders in full connection, associate members, or full-time local pastors for whom the North Texas Annual Conference is the salary paying unit (such as District Superintendents, Conference Council Directors, Wesley Foundation Directors, etc.) shall be eligible to receive funds.

Retired elders in full connection, probationary members, commissioned ministers preparing for ordination as elders in full connection, associate members, and local pastors who are appointed by the Bishop to serve active, full-time appointments shall be eligible for moves up to the maximum amount allowed. In circumstances in which a clergy member planning to retire moves prior to the retirement date, reimbursement for a move made within one year prior to the retirement date shall be made upon retirement, contingent upon the presentation of documentation of costs incurred.

c. Less than full-time appointments to local churches with parsonages will be allocated up to the $500 per move.

d. If an elder in full connection, probationary member, commissioned minister preparing for ordination as elder in full connection, associate member, or full-time local pastor from another Conference is to be appointed to a local church in the North Texas Annual Conference, the North Texas Annual Conference will pay the cost of the move from the border of the North Texas Conference, up to the maximum amount allowed.

e. If an elder in full connection, probationary member, commissioned minister preparing for ordination as elder in full connection, associate member, or full-time local pastor of the North Texas Annual Conference transfers to another Conference, and the receiving Conference does not pay the full cost of the move, the North Texas Conference will pay the cost of the move up to the border of the North Texas Conference, up to the maximum amount allowed.

f. Those elders in full connection, probationary members, commissioned ministers preparing for ordination as elders in full connection, and associate members, or full-time local pastors who go on Leave of Absence, or who surrender their credentials, either voluntarily or involuntarily, will not be eligible to receive any North Texas Annual Conference moving funds, except in the case of those going on disability leave or the family of an elder in full connection, a probationary member, a commissioned minister preparing for ordination as an elder in full connection, an associate member, or a full-time local pastor who dies while under appointment who shall be eligible to receive funds for the initial move into housing not already owned or supported by a local church, up to the maximum amount allowable.

If two houses are involved, at either the beginning point or ending point, they will be eligible to receive funds for both moves, each up to the maximum amount allowable.

j. In no case shall the Conference pay more than the actual documented expense of any eligible move.

3. Method of Payment

a. A list of movers that will bill the Annual Conference directly will be provided by the receiving District Superintendent. All expenses that are within the Annual Conference Allowance will be billed directly to the Annual Conference by those moving companies. The receiving church and moving clergy/family will not be responsible for any part of the expense that is within the Annual Conference Allowance. If a moving company is used that will not bill the Annual Conference directly, then the moving clergy/family is responsible for the bill and will be reimbursed by the Annual Conference for all documented expenses that are within the Annual Conference Allowance. Any documented expenses paid by the moving clergy/family are to be submitted to the receiving District Superintendent. The receiving District Superintendent shall then submit these documented expenses to the Annual Conference Treasurer. The Annual Conference Treasurer will be the final arbitrator concerning any question about moving costs, documentation, or payments. The Conference Treasurer shall issue payment to the moving company or the entity that incurred the expense.

b. A written estimate must be submitted to the receiving District Superintendent by June 15 for moves in July, and within one week of the announcement of a midyear move. The District Superintendent will then give approval to the moving company or the entity incurring the expense for the move. Arrangements for payment of any expenses in excess of the Annual Conference Allowance must be made prior to the move.

4. Moving Procedures

a. Receiving DS gives to the clergy the Moving Packet which includes Moving Procedures, moving companies that will bill the Annual Conference, and the current Moving Allowance sheet

b. Clergy gets estimates from at least two moving companies of his/her choice and chooses the one he/she wishes to use. He/she can work out payment with the Annual Conference, if the company is not on the list, by having the mover call the Conference Treasurer at 972-526-5000.

c. Clergy submits the estimates (including his/her choice) to the receiving DS for approval with an estimate of any other expenses that may be incurred.

d. Receiving DS approves the move and calls the moving company with that approval by June 15 or as soon as the clergy gets the estimate with a mid-year move.

e. Receiving DS mails copies of chosen estimate, DS Check Sheet and Moving Insurance Information Sheet to Conference Treasurer.

f. Receiving DS mails Conference Treasurer copies of any expenses incurred by clergy or receiving charge.

g. Conference Treasurer reimburses those expenses and pays moving companies.

F. SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

1. POLICY STATEMENT FOR DEFINING SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

The North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church affirms the 2000 Book of Resolutions, Sexual Abuse Within the Ministerial Relationship and Sexual Harassment Within the Church, which states that sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship and sexual harassment within the Church are incompatible with biblical teachings of hospitality, justice and healing. In accordance with the current Book of Discipline, ¶161(F), we affirm that all human beings, both male and female, are created in the image of God, and thus have been made equal in Christ. As the promise of Galatians 3:26 states all are one in Christ, we support equity among all persons without regard to ethnicity, situation or gender.

Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship occurs when a person within a ministerial role of leadership (pastor, educator, counselor, youth leader or other position of leadership) engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, co-worker or volunteer.

Sexual harassment is any unwelcome sexual advance or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating or coercive. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender (2008 Book of Discipline ¶161(I)).

Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship involves a betrayal of sacred trust, a violation of the ministerial role and exploitation of those who are vulnerable. Similarly, sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than as an exclusively sexual issue.

Misconduct of a sexual nature within the life of the Church interferes with its moral mission. The North Texas Conference stands in opposition to the sin of misconduct of a sexual nature in the Church and society at large and commits itself to fair and expedient investigation of any charge of sexual misconduct within the Church and to take action deemed appropriate and in compliance with the Book of Discipline. Further, the Conference bears affirmative responsibility to create an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, which is free of misconduct of a sexual nature and encourages respect, equality and kinship in Christ.

Because experiencing sexual abuse or harassment, and reporting such misconduct, can be difficult and frightening, we believe that the availability of trained advocates or support teams to assist victims of sexual misconduct is important, and we are committed to continuing support for the training and availability of such advocates or support teams.

We recognize that in any incident of sexual misconduct there may be many victims, including the family, friends, and congregation of the direct victim and of the person who has engaged in the misconduct. We therefore affirm as continuing goals for the Conference not only the resolution of complaints and the reconciliation of persons directly involved, but also the healing of all such indirect victims of the misconduct.

Sexual misconduct involving a clergy person should be reported to the clergy person's district superintendent or the presiding bishop. Misconduct involving paid staff, volunteers or other non-clergy persons should be reported to the pastor-in-charge, if any, or to other appropriate persons in accordance with guidelines and procedures that may be adopted by the Conference, by local churches or by other appropriate bodies within the Church.

The North Texas Conference is committed to the continuing, broad dissemination of this Policy Statement and of any guidelines and procedures adopted by the Conference, and to the continuing education of clergy and lay persons within the Conference for the purpose of preventing sexual misconduct and increasing awareness and understanding of the Conference's relevant policies and procedures.

2. PROCEDURES FOR REPORTING CLERGY SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

INTRODUCTION

The North Texas Conference will not tolerate and is committed to the eradication of sexual misconduct by its clergy. The ministerial office is a position of great trust, power and responsibility, offering the opportunity for unique relationships of grace and caring. Sexual misconduct is one of the gravest violations of this trust.

These Procedures provide a process for reporting incidents of clergy sexual misconduct within the North Texas Conference. They seek to create a safe, non-threatening environment in which aggrieved persons will feel comfortable revealing allegations of sexual misconduct. It is a continuing goal of these Procedures to provide an opportunity for a reconciliation and resolution that respects and protects the rights of all parties and that acknowledges the sacred trust between clergy and the persons they serve. They are not intended to supplant or substitute for the formal complaint process set forth in the 2008 Book of Discipline. The use of these Procedures is voluntary, and the failure to utilize or follow them is not a chargeable offense nor can it be used as grounds for an appeal of the result of any formal complaint, review, investigation, or trial process.

The implementation of these Procedures shall be under the supervision and control of the Bishop and District Superintendents, who shall have the authority to interpret and apply the Procedures.

STANDARDS OF PASTORAL CONDUCT

Pastors are accountable for their behavior with respect to the emotional, spiritual and physical well-being of persons who come to them for help or over whom they have any kind of authority. Breach of this pastoral relationship through sexual misconduct is unethical and abusive, even when sexual activity is initiated by the person to whom the pastor is ministering. Because of the trust and imbalance of power in such relationships, the person being ministered to must be presumed to be unable to give meaningful consent to any sexual activity with the pastor.

Because pastors often deal with individuals who are emotionally fragile and vulnerable, it is imperative that pastors:

1. be healthy psychologically, emotionally, and spiritually themselves;
2. have adequate preparation and education for helping individuals under their care;
3. have continued supervision in dealing with the inherent risks caused by dependency and/or transference; and
4. have the information necessary to make appropriate referrals.

Pastoral self-discipline requires self-awareness and takes the Christian standards and ordination vows seriously. Personal integrity and mature professional conduct must be brought to all relationships by every pastor in the North Texas Conference. The highest ethic of the pastor similarly prohibits any sexual behavior with a parishioner entrusted to his or her sacred care.

All clergy, single or married, have the responsibility of developing healthy personal relationships. Married clergy have covenanted to nurture and maintain their marriage relationship. When relational or sexual difficulties are present in a pastor's life, appropriate measures to address the difficulties should be taken.

Pastors who are appointed to parishes where there has been alleged sexual misconduct of their predecessor find themselves burdened with the inevitable consequences arising from the misconduct of a colleague. There is a tension between caring for a colleague and caring for the covenant of the pastoral ministry. By "protecting" a colleague, we risk perpetuating a relationship or pattern of abuse and victimization. This compromises the credibility and practice of Christian faith and ministry. Thus the present pastor should take immediate steps, consistent with these Procedures, to address the alleged misconduct.

The procedures for dealing with clergy sexual misconduct place an unfair and unavoidable burden on the victim of such misconduct. It is in the best interest of the church to empower the laity through education and open discussion about what standards of conduct they may expect from their pastors.

DEFINITIONS

For purposes of these Procedures, the following definitions shall apply:

"Sexual misconduct" includes sexual abuse and sexual harassment, as such terms are defined in the Policy Statement. Sexual misconduct may include inappropriate physical contact or verbal behavior, including, for example, behavior that creates a hostile or intimidating environment and the explicit or implicit use of power or authority to coerce someone into sexual contact. Because of the imbalance of power inherent in ministerial relationships, sexual contact between a pastor and someone with whom he or she has a ministerial relationship constitutes sexual abuse even if the other person consents to or initiates the contact. More subtle behavior not involving physical contact may also constitute sexual misconduct. Further discussion and examples of sexual misconduct are included in the brochure entitled "Maintaining Healthy Relationships: What You Should Know About Clergy Sexual Misconduct," prepared and distributed by the Division of Conference Relations of the Board of Ordained Ministry of the North Texas Conference.

An 'allegation" is an initial report, either verbal or written, of an alleged incident of clergy sexual misconduct.

A "complaint' is a written and signed statement claiming misconduct, as set forth in ¶361.1(a) of the 2008 Book of Discipline.

An "aggrieved person" is a person who has experienced sexual misconduct by a pastor.

The terms "clergy" and "pastor" shall refer to all persons described in ¶361.1(a) of the 2008 Book of Discipline, which includes "local pastors, associate members, probationary members, and full members" of the North Texas Conference, "including those on leaves of all types, honorable or administrative location, or retirement."

A "Resource Person" is a trained lay volunteer person made available by the North Texas Conference to assist and support aggrieved persons in bringing an allegation or complaint of sexual misconduct, as more fully described in the North Texas Conference Procedure for Reporting Incidents of Clergy Sexual Misconduct.

The Core Leadership Team is the group given responsibility by the bishop to maintain the Resource Person program and lend guidance and accountability to the North Texas Conference in regards to abiding by the Sexual Misconduct Policies and Procedures.

CONFIDENTIALITY AND REPORTING

Allegations of sexual misconduct should be kept in the strictest of confidence and disclosed only at the times and under the circumstances specifically provided in these Procedures. The spread of such allegations or accusations between colleagues in ministry or within congregations is harmful to the aggrieved person, the accused and to the integrity of the processes outlined in these Procedures and in the current Book of Discipline.

However, when clergy sexual misconduct occurs, the protection of victims, both past, present, and potential, requires that the misconduct be reported. Because of the covenant with the church which is an integral part of the pastoral office, it is a pastor's responsibility to call an offending pastor into account by immediately reporting information about sexual misconduct to his or her District Superintendent, the District Superintendent of the accused or the Bishop.

Pastors who become aware of an alleged incident of sexual misconduct by another pastor are to do their utmost to encourage and support aggrieved persons and to assist in the initiation of an allegation as provided in these Procedures. Every allegation of sexual misconduct must be taken seriously, and in no case should a pastor judge the validity of the allegation.

The requirement of confidentiality shall not prevent the Bishop or the District Superintendents from discussing allegations and related information with affected congregations, Staff Pastor-Parish Relations committees or others to whom it is necessary to make such disclosure, in accordance with the Book of Discipline, in order to protect actual or potential victims, to promote healing or for other appropriate purposes.

Although truth-telling is essential, respect must also be given to the role of pastors in receiving confessions and the sanctity of confidential relations. Nothing in these Procedures shall be deemed to require or permit a pastor to report or reveal information received in confidence as contemplated by ¶341.5 of the 2008 Book of Discipline and relevant decisions of the Judicial Council.

PROCEDURES

When sexual misconduct is alleged against a pastor, persons bringing allegations will be received in a respectful and caring manner. All allegations will be considered worthy of full investigation, with due respect for the presumption of innocence. Care will be taken to deal fairly and promptly with all those involved. This includes the aggrieved and his/her family, the accused and his/her family and the congregation or other institution.

The following procedures are established to facilitate the reporting of allegations of clergy sexual misconduct:

1. Aggrieved persons are encouraged to contact a District Superintendent, the Bishop or the designated representative of the Core Leadership Team. Any of these contacts may refer the aggrieved to a Resource Person. An allegation may be brought by the aggrieved person or by anyone who has verifiable knowledge or reasonable indication of sexual misconduct and is willing to pursue a resolution. This may include, for example, a pastor or lay person in whom the aggrieved person has confided or who has reliable information from other sources about the misconduct.

2. The District Superintendent, the Bishop to whom the allegation is brought or the Resource Person to whom the aggrieved has been referred shall explain these Procedures to the aggrieved person or other person bringing the allegation and advise them that use of the Procedures is not a prerequisite to an aggrieved person's ability to bring a formal complaint.

3. If an allegation is brought initially to a District Superintendent, the District Superintendent shall advise the Bishop that the allegation has been received. If the aggrieved person has not requested a Resource Person and desires one, the Bishop may assign one to assist and support the aggrieved person.

4. The Resource Person assigned shall provide full assistance to the aggrieved person throughout the process, including the following:

    a. confirming that the aggrieved person understands these Procedures and the procedures contained in the Book of Discipline;

b. verifying and clarifying the allegation with the aggrieved person; and

c. requesting the aggrieved person to prepare, with the assistance of the Resource Person as needed, a written statement of the allegation, which shall include a description, in reasonable detail, of the alleged sexual misconduct and related events, circumstances, and dates.

5. If a complaint is forwarded to the Bishop or a District Superintendent, ¶361 of the 2008 Book of Discipline shall determine the process to be followed. These Procedures are not intended to limit in any way the actions the Bishop or District Superintendents may take in connection with their supervisory response to a complaint of sexual misconduct or to impose any duties on them inconsistent with the 2008 Book of Discipline or relevant decisions of the Judicial Council. The Resource Person may continue to assist and support the aggrieved person throughout the complaint process and may attend all meetings held in connection with the process.

6. Strict confidentiality shall be maintained before, during and after the conduct of the process outlined in these Procedures, and information regarding allegations shall be disclosed only in such manner and to such persons as specifically provided herein.

7. Because of the pain and disruption that necessarily accompany sexual misconduct, it may be necessary for certain actions to be taken following the conclusion of the processes outlined in these Procedures and in the 2008 Book of Discipline. The Bishop and District Superintendents are encouraged to take or require such actions as they deem necessary and appropriate in their best judgment, which actions may include, for example, processes for healing within the affected congregation or institution, further resolution of unresolved conflicts and support or counseling for aggrieved persons or accused pastors.

These Procedures establish a process for reporting incidents of sexual misconduct by any pastor (as defined above). They are not designed to address allegations or complaints of sexual misconduct by the Bishop or a District Superintendent. Persons who believe they have been affected by sexual misconduct by the Bishop or a District Superintendent may contact one of the Resource Persons for information and assistance in bringing a complaint in accordance with procedures contained in the current Book of Discipline.

RESOURCE PERSONS ON THE ISSUE OF SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Resource Persons are volunteer laypersons who have been trained to provide assistance to persons who believe they have been victims of clergy sexual misconduct. Resource Persons represent the interest of aggrieved persons at all times and shall support the aggrieved persons throughout the process. Resource Persons are expected to work cooperatively with the Bishop, the district superintendents and the Core Leadership Team.

Resource Persons shall be the initial point of contact with those procedures for any persons who desire to use them. A Person who believes that she/he may have been the victim of clergy sexual misconduct need not register an allegation or complaint and does not have to identify her/himself when requesting a Resource Person and making an initial contact.

Functions performed by Resource Persons shall include:

1. Explaining the church's processes and procedures
2. Providing resources and referrals
3. Helping the aggrieved person prepare a written summary of the allegation and if necessary, a formal complaint when requested by the aggrieved person.

4. Accompany the aggrieved person to meetings held in connection with the Procedures or in connection with the complaint process as allowed in the current Book of Discipline.
5. Calling to attention of the Bishop and the Core Leadership Team any hostile, vindictive, or insensitive situations that arise during the process or any failure to properly follow the Procedures or the complaint process outlined in the current Book of Discipline.
6. Giving feedback to the Core Leadership Team regarding the process.

CORE LEADERSHIP TEAM

Under the direction of the Bishop or persons acting at the Bishop's direction, the Core Leadership Team shall have the authority and responsibility for administering the Resource Person Program, to recruit volunteers to serve as Resource Persons, to provide training and continuing education for Resource Persons, to provide annual training for the chairpersons of Staff Parish Relations Committees of the North Texas Annual Conference, and to broadly disseminate and make readily available information about the Resource Person Program.

RECRUITING AND TRAINING OF RESOURCE PERSONS

The Core Leadership Team recruits individuals to become Resource Persons who are known to have the qualities needed for this sensitive volunteer role. The Core Leadership Team delegates one of its members to speak with the district Superintendent of the applicant's home church prior to discussing the invitation with the individual. Then the Core Leadership Team invites the individual to complete an application form, which includes education, work history and an authorization for a criminal background check. All applicants are interviewed by a subcommittee of the Core Leadership Team prior to being recommended to the Bishop, who writes a letter appointing the Resource Person.

The North Texas Conference is committed to the continuing education and proper training of Resource Persons. Initially, Resource Persons shall attend training recommended and planned by the Core Leadership Team, which will include the following areas:

1. roles and expectations of the Resource Person(s);
2. local organization of the United Methodist Church;
3. leaders and their leadership positions in the North Texas Conference;
4. church and community resources;
5. the North Texas Conference Policy Statement on Sexual Misconduct and Procedures for Reporting Incidents of Clergy Sexual Misconduct; and
6. The Book of Discipline and relevant Judicial Council rulings.

The Core Leadership Team will maintain contact with the Resource Persons and offer periodic education and training.

3. EDUCATION WITHIN THE CONFERENCE RELATING TO SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

DISSEMINATION OF POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

The Bishop, District Superintendents, and Resource Person(s) shall each have a copy of and thoroughly know the Policy Statement on Sexual Misconduct, Procedures for Reporting Clergy Sexual Misconduct in the North Texas Conference and be responsible for distributing such Policy and Procedures to clergy and local church chairs of Staff Parish Relations Committees, Administrative Councils, United Methodist Men, and United Methodist Women annually as these persons are elected. The clergy and the chair of the Staff Parish Relations Committee of every local church in the North Texas Conference shall have a copy of and be familiar with the Policy Statement on Sexual Misconduct, Procedures for Reporting Clergy Sexual Misconduct in the North Texas Conference and the complaint process outlined in the current Book of Discipline.

The Policy and Procedures of the North Texas Conference will be available to anyone who requests a copy.

Local churches will make available to their congregations copies of the brochure entitled "Maintaining Healthy Relationships: What You Should Know About Clergy Sexual Misconduct" and publish the name and telephone numbers of the District Superintendents and Core Leadership Team contact (s). Throughout the year, copies of the brochure will be placed in accessible locations within local churches. (An electronic copy of the brochure can be found on the North Texas Conference website at http://www.ntcumc.org under Clergy Ethics.)

TRAINING AND EDUCATION

The North Texas Conference shall provide annual training to educate the clergy and laity about the complaint process in the event of allegations of sexual misconduct and to heighten awareness of the clergy and laity about the seriousness of the problem of sexual misconduct, thereby aiding in the prevention of this problem in our local churches.
The goals of the training include the following:

1. to explain the abuse of power and dynamics of trust in abusive relationships;
2. to provide behavioral definitions of sexual abuse and sexual harassment;
3. to describe the impact on the victim, the perpetrator, the families, and the church;
4. to explain the Policy and Procedures of the North Texas Conference and the United Methodist Church regarding sexual misconduct;
5. to explain legal responsibilities regarding minors;
6. to introduce the Resource Person(s) and clarify their role;
7. to define the risk to church vitality, attendance and giving, liability to individuals, congregations, and the annual conference;
8. to discuss the importance of healing and how the church is an agent in the healing process;
9. to explain the need for preventative measures;
10. to discuss the importance of local church policies and procedures addressing issues of sexual misconduct;
11. to distribute copies of the brochure entitled "Maintaining Healthy Relationships: What You Should Know About Clergy Sexual Misconduct," and to explain its purpose and educational use; and
12. to provide resources for local churches

Training will be provided separately for clergy and laity. Professionals from the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women and/or others trained and knowledgeable about the issues of sexual misconduct will conduct the training.

The Board of Ordained Ministry, specifically the Committee on Conference Relations and the Residency Committee (who may choose to seek help from the chairs of the Order of Deacons, Order of Elders, Fellowship of Local Pastors, Fellowship of Diaconal Ministers, the Core Leadership Team and/or the Cabinet), will be responsible for planning and organizing the training for clergy and diaconal ministers. Pastors and diaconal ministers from every local church or charge in the North Texas Conference and those in extension ministries and the District Superintendents will receive an announcement regarding the clergy training. Clergy and diaconal ministers will be expected to attend training a minimum of once every four years. Particular attention will be given to insuring the training of new pastors in the conference (through the residency program and district training events).

With the help of the Board of Laity, and the District Superintendents, the Core Leadership Team will offer training to the laity through the District Training events in January.

4. RESPONSIBILITY OF THE LOCAL CHURCH

Each local church shall establish its own policy statement on sexual misconduct, consistent with the Book of Discipline and the policy statement of the North Texas Annual Conference, and shall establish guidelines and procedures for resolving incidents of sexual misconduct by persons other than clergy, including paid staff, counselors, lay volunteers and others.

5. PRIORITY OF THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE

If any provision of these Procedures is in conflict with the 2008 Book of Discipline, the current Book of Discipline shall prevail.

G. MINISTRYSAFE SAFETY SYSTEM

MINISTRYSAFE SAFETY SYSTEM FOR ALL CONFERENCE AND DISTRICT EVENTS NORTH TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Introduction to Annual Conference Policy
OUR CALLING AND OUR MANDATE IS TO ENSURE A SAFE HAVEN FOR ALL OF GOD'S PEOPLE.

Throughout the gospels, Jesus provides teachings on providing a peaceable kingdom for all of God's people, including our most precious gifts, our children and youth (Matthew 5:9, Luke 18:15-17). The peaceable kingdom begins with sanctuary. Scriptures provide examples of how sanctuary is to be a community of protective nurture and harmony (Psalms 20:1-2, 27:4-5).

As Christians, we are called to create a protective environment in our churches. They must be holy, safe and protective communities for all of God's children, regardless of age or ability. The purpose of this policy is to address the communal responsibility of our children, youth, and vulnerable persons at all local churches, and at all District or Annual Conference sponsored events. The North Texas Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church recognizes the need to have a formal, written policy with procedures in place (1) to help prevent the opportunity for the occurrence and/or the appearance of abuse of children, youth, and vulnerable persons, (2) to help provide safeguards for workers from false accusations and/or suspicions and (3) to hold accountable all those who minister in the name of Jesus Christ.

The following policy and procedures are not based on a lack of trust in workers, but are intended to protect our preschoolers, children, youth, vulnerable persons, workers, employees, volunteers and the entire church body. Careful and confidential documentation is essential to show compliance with policies, to verify information as needed, and to have an accurate record in the case of an incident.

Scope of Annual Conference Policy
This policy and its provisions shall apply to all persons including all paid and unpaid persons, whether lay or clergy who have any direct or indirect contact with children and youth who participate in any activities or events sponsored by the North Texas Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and/or its Districts.

This Annual Conference policy is effective as of July 1, 2012 for all Conference and District Events. The North Texas Annual Conference policy shall be applicable at all Conference and District activities. The local congregation's policy may expand the Conference policy, but may not/should not alter the minimum standards established by the Conference or those standards mandated by the State of Texas' licensures.

Supervision
An adult is defined as anyone 18 years of age or older.

A youth assistant is anyone under the age of 18 who may work with children and youth only when supervised by at least two adults over the age of 18 years. Youth assistants cannot be in charge of, nor left alone with children and youth. Background checks on youth under the age of 18 are inaccessible, so choose youth with great care. If using youth assistants, ensure the following is completed: 1) Application, 2) six-month volunteer history and 3) verify references. Also note, with using youth assistants, MinistrySafe training will need to be adapted for age-appropriateness.

To achieve compliance with the MinistrySafe policy it may be necessary to combine groups; recruit, train, and reference additional volunteers; or cancel an event. It is also strongly encouraged that there be present at least one adult who is trained and certified in First Aid and CPR.

Observation of activities in rooms is essential, whether it is done by windows, open doors, glass doors, electronic technology, etc.

All volunteers seeking to work with children, youth and vulnerable persons, shall have at least 6 months involvement in a local church or provide a written recommendation by a senior pastor or appropriate designee.

For the sake of outreach, evangelism, and family involvement in our ministries, Parents, Grandparents, and Legal Guardians who have not met these criteria may volunteer as guest, so long as 2 or more properly MinistrySafe trained staff or volunteers are on site and in charge. Any such individuals who intend to be a guest on an ongoing basis shall be subject to all MinistrySafe guidelines and screenings.

Supervision for Nursery/childcare at Conference and District events:
- There shall be a minimum of two (2) adults per room or within line of sight.
- The State of Texas Childcare Minimum Standards (http://www.dfps.state.tx.us/Child_Care) must be followed, particularly in relation to the number of adults to child ratio.

Supervision of children and youth at Conference and District events:
- Conference and District events shall observe the—"2 Adult Rule" (2 adults per classroom, 2 adults within line of sight). -OR-
- Any one-to-one mentoring or consulting shall be conducted in sight of another adult. -OR-
- Understanding that there is safety in numbers, one adult can be in contact with multiple youth (6th–12th grades) so long as they are in line of sight of other adults.

Overnight Accommodations

At events that require overnight accommodations:

- At least (2) adults are present in every room/cabin. -OR-
- When staying in a hotel, adults shall sleep in an adjoining room with the same gender of the children/youth; or if necessary for children/youth to share a room with an adult, adults shall sleep in separate beds from children/youth so long as any one adult shall not be alone with any one child/youth.

Definitions of Abuse

Verbal Abuse—Any verbal act that humiliates degrades or threatens any child or youth.

Physical Abuse—Any act of omission or an act that endangers a person's physical or mental health. In the case of child or youth physical abuse, this definition includes any intentional physical injury caused by the individual's caretaker. Physical abuse may result from punishment that is overly punitive or inappropriate to the individual's age or condition. In addition, physical abuse may result from purposeful acts that pose serious danger to physical health of a child or youth.

Sexual Abuse—Child or youth sexual abuse is the sexual exploitation or use of same for satisfaction of sexual drives. This includes, but is not limited to: 1) incest, 2) rape, 3) prostitution, 4) romantic involvement with any participant, 5) any sexual intercourse, or sexual conduct with, or fondling of an individual enrolled as a child or youth in sponsored activities of this church, 6) sexualized behavior that communicates sexual interest and/or content.

Examples are not limited to: displaying sexually suggestive visual materials, making sexual comments or innuendo about one's own or another person's body, touching another person's body, hair or clothing, touching or rubbing oneself in the presence of another person, kissing, and sexual intercourse.

Emotional Abuse—Exposing a youth or younger child to spoken and/or unspoken violence or emotional cruelty. Emotional abuse sends a message to the youth or child that she or he is worthless, bad, unloved, and undeserving of love and care. Emotional abuse may include being locked in closets or other confining spaces, being incessantly told they are bad, or being forced to abuse alcohol or illegal drugs.

Neglect—Endangering a child or teen's health, welfare, and/or safety through negligence. It may include withholding food, medical care, affection to destroy the child or teen's sense of self-esteem and self-worth.

Ritual Abuse—Abuse in which physical, sexual, or psychological violence is inflicted on a child or youth, intentionally and in a stylized way, by someone (or multiple people) with responsibility for the victim's welfare. Typically the perpetrator appeals to some higher authority or power to justify his or her abuse. Examples of ritual abuse may include cruel treatment of animals or repetitious threats of sexual or physical violence to the youth or child victim or to people related to the victim.

Screening for Adults

Careful screening is one way to prevent the abuse of children and youth and vulnerable persons. Screening calls for a careful gathering and review of information in search of those who can provide safe and caring supervision in a safe environment. All screening shall be done in accordance with guidelines to be established by the Conference MinistrySafe Awareness and Training Task Force.

Persons having a criminal history of any of the following types of offenses shall not be allowed to serve in any ministry with children and youth:

- Child abuse, whether physical, emotional, sexual, or neglectful
- Violent offenses, including murder, rape, assault, domestic violence, etc.
- Drug related conviction within the five (5) years immediately prior to application.
- Persons having a criminal history of DUI or DWI conviction within the five (5) years immediately prior to application shall not be allowed to act as a driver.

If there are questions regarding an individual's background check or screening, due to special circumstances (acquittals, discharges, exonerations, pardons, etc.), please notify the District Superintendent or appropriate Conference Staff before making those decisions.

Training

The North Texas Annual Conference shall develop and implement training for all persons in leadership who work with children, youth and vulnerable populations at the District and Conference level. None of these persons shall, after July 1, 2012, have any direct or indirect contact with children and/or youth until they have completed the MinistrySafe Safety System. We recommend that at the beginning of each Conference/District event a review of this policy be conducted. As of January 1, 2013, all congregations shall implement this same training standard.

The MinistrySafe Safety System must be reviewed and renewed annually.

Reporting of Incidents

1. When an adult leader of an event or activity suspects that abuse or any suspected violation of the Texas Penal Code is taking or has taken place, he or she shall call 911 when needed and report the abuse to the appropriate local law enforcement agency and/or the Department of Protective and Regulatory Services (800-252-5400). The adult leader shall contact the administrator or event leader immediately, and cooperate fully with the investigation conducted by law enforcement officials or child protective services.

2. Address any needs the child or youth may have, medical or otherwise. Report to the parent(s) and/or legal guardians(s).

3. The person suspected of abuse (respondent) shall, for the safety and well-being of the children or youth, be removed with dignity from further contact with the children and youth until an appropriate investigation has taken place. The matter shall remain confidential. If the adult event leader is the respondent, then the report should be made to that person's supervisor.

4. Following the report of an incident, the adult event leader, or supervisor in charge shall speak with the alleged victim, and document the report, according to Section 5.

5. All such conversations shall be documented. Careful and confidential documentation is essential. The documentation should include the following:
    a. The name of the adult leader observing or receiving the disclosure of abuse, including the date, time and place and any action taken by this person.
    b. The alleged victim's name, age, and date of birth.
    c. Any statement made by the alleged victim.
    d. Name of the respondent, the date, time and place of any conversation or any statement made by the respondent.
    e. Any action taken, i.e. suspension of the respondent.

f. Date and time of call to the appropriate agency, name of worker spoken to, content of that conversation and case number assigned.
g. Date and time of call to law enforcement agency, name of officer spoken to and content of that conversation.
h. Date and time of any other contacts made regarding this incident.

6. Notify the Conference/District authorities immediately.

7. It shall be the goal to provide supportive care to both the victim and the respondent and to restore such persons to wholeness. Supportive care can include the procedures of the criminal justice system, provisions of the current Book of Discipline, appropriate counseling referrals and continued pastoral visitation.

8. Confirmed reports of proven incidents of abuse shall be retained in a confidential file for future screening purposes.

Media Response
The Bishop shall be informed of all investigations or allegations of abuse. If investigations or allegations of abuse should come to the attention of the media, a response shall come from the Office of the Bishop.

Do not give out any information, simply state that all inquiries will be answered through the Office of the Bishop.

Appropriate Discipline
Children and youth should be made aware that appropriate behavior is expected at all events. Gentle reminders are always necessary when dealing with children and youth. When these reminders don‘t work, then discipline needs to move to the next step. In cases where behavior has to be addressed, designated event adults should handle it. In no case is physical discipline an appropriate measure to deal with problems. A reasonable response might include a period of “time out” for the child or youth. This should be done with necessary supervision keeping MinistrySafe guidelines in mind.

Keeping parents involved is important. They need to be kept up-to-date on their child‘s behavior. For serious offenses, the appropriate response will be to send the child or youth home immediately. Parents and the leaders will help make proper arrangements.

Appropriate Physical and Emotional Boundaries
Physical boundaries are most important in dealing with children and youth. Persons working with children and youth have to understand and respect those boundaries. Obviously these boundaries change as children grow older. A young child sitting in the lap of a caregiver is most appropriate, whereas an older child or youth sitting in an adult‘s lap would not be acceptable. Hugs and kisses from a toddler to an adult are entirely different than the same from a youth.

Emotional boundaries are also important. As a child grows older it is important for the adult to maintain appropriate boundaries in relationships. It is important for those working with children and youth to not step outside of those lines and allow the younger person to become too attached to them. It is important for the older person to be careful where conversations might lead and to steer clear of inappropriate talk. When an adult recognizes that there might be an issue with these boundaries, great space should be allowed to come between them and the child or youth in question. If that does not solve the problem, then the event leadership should address the issue.

Leader Misconduct
It is a privilege to work with youth. Great responsibility is required. Those who violate this policy shall immediately be removed from contact with children and youth and appropriate authorities shall be notified immediately.

Spiritual Boundaries for MinistrySafe
As we seek to lead young people in the development of their faith story, it is essential that we guide them and do not manipulate their emotions. This is especially true at longer youth/children's events. The attendees may be exhausted by longer and more active days than they are accustomed to and thereby more susceptible to emotional manipulation. It is therefore necessary that, as we present the message of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the opportunity to follow Jesus in a life-long journey, we present the invitation with "no strings-attached." We must allow each person involved to make their own decisions without stigma, coercion, or pressure in any form. As we do this faithfully, we will see more fruitful commitments in the lives of all our participants.

H. MISCELLANEOUS

1. Conflict of Interests. In order to avoid conflicts of interest, the following rules shall apply:
   a. No one shall be a voting member of an Agency who is in the salaried employment of an institution that receives support from that Agency.

   b. No member of an Agency shall participate in that Agency's deliberation of or vote on a proposed grant to his or her local church.

   c. Each member of an Agency shall disclose to all other members of that Agency all potential conflicts of interest in which they find themselves placed because of church, business, or personal relationships with persons affected by the decisions of the Agency.

   d. No clergy member or diaconal minister member of this Annual Conference who is a salaried employee of any institution to which this conference contributes shall be a member of the board of trustees of the institution by which that person is employed.

2. Local Church Officers. The term of office of local church officials elected by the Fall Charge Conference shall begin on January 1 and run for the length of their term.

3. Amending or Suspending Standing Rules. It shall require a two-thirds vote of all lay and clergy members present and voting to suspend or to amend any of these Standing Rules.

III. PROCEDURES FOR MEETINGS OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

A. PRE-CONFERENCE PROCEDURES

1. Lay-Clergy Equalization. The following formula is the procedure used to determine the number of lay and clergy members of the Annual Conference.

   a. Subtract the total number of lay members prior to equalization from the total number of clergy members. In making this calculation, the lay members required by section III(A)(1)(c) below shall be included. These people are described in section (c) below. The remainder is the Lay Equalization Factor (LEF).

b. Compute the District Membership Percentage (DMP) for each district as follows. If a district has more lay members than clergy members prior to equalization, subtract the number of local church members in this district from the total of local church members for the Annual Conference. Such districts will not compute a DMP. The resulting number is the Adjusted Lay Membership (ALM). Next, for each district that has fewer lay than clergy members, divide the total number of local church members in each district by the ALM. The resulting quotient is the DMP for that district.

c. The Book of Discipline provides that certain persons shall be lay members to Annual Conference. According to ¶32 of the 2008 Book of Discipline, these are: Conference President of United Methodist Women; Conference President of United Methodist Men; Conference Lay Leader; District Lay Leaders; President of the Conference Council on Youth Ministries; and one youth between the ages of twelve and eighteen and one young adult between the ages of eighteen and thirty from each district. In addition, Deaconesses, Home Missioners, all Diaconal Ministers, all members of the Core Leadership Team not otherwise provided for, and all elected Chairs of Agencies of the Annual Conference not otherwise provided for are lay members of the Annual Conference with voice and vote. These persons shall be elected to the lay membership of the Annual Conference by the District Section.

d. For each district with fewer lay than clergy members, multiply the LEF by the DMP. The product is the District Adjusted Lay Equalization Factor (DALEF). The DALEF is the number of additional lay members to be elected by the District Section to achieve lay/clergy equalization. Districts with more lay than clergy members do not calculate a DALEF.

e. The DALEF shall be computed as of January 1. The equalization lay members shall be elected by the lay members present at the District Conference from nominations made by the District Lay Leader, the District Superintendent, and the Lay members of the District Nominating Committee. Nominations may also be made from the floor of the District Section.

f. If the actual number of clergy in the Annual Conference increases after January 1, the District Lay Leader of a district in which the imbalance occurs shall select lay member(s) from within the district to equalize the increase of clergy members.

g. If the formula fails to compute the exact number of additional lay persons per district to equalize lay and clergy numbers (due to the use of fractions in calculations), the Board of Laity shall be authorized to correct the imbalance through negotiation.

h. After the DALEF has been determined, the Board of Laity as a courtesy may rearrange among districts the number of lay members to be elected, in order that a district that has more lay members than clergy prior to equalization may elect additional lay members in its District Section.

i. Lay members elected under an equalization process by the District Section shall take office immediately and shall serve until the District Section elects lay members for the succeeding year.

2. Election of Local Church Lay Members to Annual Conference. The lay members to the Annual Conference may be elected annually or quadrennially at the Charge Conference preceding the regular quadrennial meeting of the General Conference. The term of office of lay members to Annual Conference shall begin on January 1 after their election at the Fall Charge Conference.If, for any reason, the Charge Conference is delayed until after January 1, their term of office shall begin immediately upon election.

3. Notice of Legislative Items. Agencies shall submit reports and legislation to the conference office in the form requested no later than April 1 for inclusion in the Conference Workbook. Any Annual Conference member or Agency may initiate legislative items at Annual Conference concerning matters which are not part of the Conference Workbook only if they are duplicated and distributed to Annual Conference members by the beginning of the day they are to be considered. This rule shall not be construed so as to preclude proper subsidiary motions or privileged motions.

4. Proposed Amendments to Standing Rules. In order that the Standing Rules Committee have time to consider proposals and forward them to the conference office by the April 1 deadline, proposed new standing rules and proposed changes in existing standing rules shall be submitted to the Standing Rules Committee no later than March 1.

5. Notice of Procedural Rules. Each year, the charts entitled "Common Motions: Ranking and Requirements (by function)" and "Motions: Ranking and Requirements (by rank)" shall be included in the Pre-Conference Workbook.

B. RULES OF ORDER FOR ANNUAL CONFERENCE SESSIONS

1. Purpose of Rules of Order. These rules of order are intended to allow the orderly consideration of the business of the Annual Conference, extend courtesy and fairness to all, ensure the right of the majority, protect the rights of the minority, and defend the rights of individual members.

2. Definitions. As used in these Standing Rules, the following definitions shall apply.

a. Adjourn. End a meeting officially. Adjournment is accomplished either by direct majority vote or by unanimous consent.

b. Agenda. List of items of business that the members of Annual Conference will consider. An agenda has a specific arrangement and content.

c. Amend. Change a resolution or motion by adding, striking out, or substituting a word or phrase.

d. Appeal. A question that occurs when a member of Annual Conference questions (appeals) a decision by the presiding bishop because the member believes that an error in procedure has occurred. An appeal must have a second. The decision of the presiding bishop is sustained by a majority vote or a tie vote.

e. Call for orders of the day. A motion that brings to the presiding bishop's attention the fact that a specific item of business was due to come up in the meeting at a specified time.

f. Dividing the question. Separation of the parts of a motion to be considered and voted on as if they were separate motions.

g. Floor. The right of a person to address the Annual Conference and have the members' undivided attention.

h. Main motion. Method of introducing new business to the Annual Conference session. Only one main motion can be under consideration at a time.

i. Majority. More than half of the members present and voting on an issue. Those who do not vote are not counted in the final tally.

j. Motion. Proposal for action by the Annual Conference. A motion is introduced with the words, "I move that _____," (with the wording intended to become the Annual Conference's official statement of action taken if the motion is passed).

k. Parliamentary inquiry. A request for an immediate answer to a question concerning the rules of procedure. It is directed to the presiding bishop.

l. Point of information. A request directed to the presiding bishop for an immediate answer to a question concerning the background or content of a motion or resolution. The information requested does not pertain to procedure.

m. Point of order. A point raised against any proceeding or motion that the member believes is a violation of the rules. It must be raised at the time of the alleged infraction. The presiding bishop rules on the validity of the point of order. This ruling can be appealed.

n. Precedence of motion. Claim of a motion to the 'right of way" over another motion. The attached charts summarize the precedence of various motions.

o. Presiding bishop. The Bishop of the North Texas Annual Conference, or another bishop designated by that Bishop, shall preside over sessions of the Annual Conference.

p. Previous question. Motion to close debate and vote immediately on a motion. Moving the previous question requires a second, is not debatable or amendable, and needs a two-thirds vote for adoption.

q. Question of privilege. If there is something wrong with the physical surroundings or a situation arises that affects the rights of the entire assembly, any individual member can interrupt the motion under consideration to bring the matter to the attention of the presiding bishop. If the situation cannot be resolved informally, then the presiding bishop rules on whether the matter is a question of privilege and should be considered before business is resumed.

r. Reconsider. Motion to review a previous decision and vote on it again. It must be made by a person who voted on the prevailing (winning) side, and it requires a majority vote. Reconsideration may not be moved more than once on the same motion.

s. Second. Indication that a member wants a motion discussed by the members. The member says, "I second the motion" or "Second."

t. Table. Motion to place a main motion and all pending amendments aside temporarily, with the intention of bringing them back at a later time for action. Tabling a motion requires a second, is not debatable, cannot be amended, and requires a majority vote.

u. Take from the table. Motion to bring a previously tabled motion back before the Annual Conference. It requires a second, is not debatable, cannot be amended, and requires a majority vote.

v. Two-thirds vote. This occurs when there are twice as many people voting "Yes' as those who are voting "No."

w. Withdraw a motion. Take back a motion one has made. A person may withdraw a motion by merely requesting to do so up until the time it is stated by the presiding bishop. After the presiding bishop has stated the motion, the person who made it can withdraw it only by the consent of the members.

3. Order of Business. The order of business of the meeting of Annual Conference shall be determined by the Annual Conference Planning Committee, which shall set an Agenda. The session shall open with a period of devotion, followed by a call of the roll, including the roll of the local pastors.

4. Authority of the Presiding Bishop.
Calling the Conference to order. When the presiding bishop stands in his or her place and calls the Annual Conference session to order, no member shall speak, address the chair, or stand while the presiding bishop stands.

Raising points of order. Any member of Annual Conference may raise a point of order. In order to do so, the member must cite specifically the rule he or she judges to have been violated.

Ruling on points of order. The presiding bishop shall decide points of order, whether raised by a member or by the presiding bishop, as necessary to conform to these Standing Rules.

Appealing a ruling on a point of order. Any member may appeal a decision on a point of order to the Annual Conference. In the event of such an appeal, there shall be no debate. However, the presiding bishop shall have five minutes to make a statement in support of his or her position, and then the person appealing shall have five minutes to make a statement in support of his or her position. Following the statements, the Annual Conference shall vote on the appeal; a tie vote shall sustain the presiding bishop.

Recessing the session. The presiding bishop shall have the right to recess a session of the Annual Conference at any time at his or her discretion and to reconvene at such times as he or she shall announce.

5. Opening a Question for Debate. Before any subject is open to debate, three things must happen. First, a member must actually make a motion that the Annual Conference consider a particular issue. Second, in most instances, the motion must also be seconded. (Calls for orders of the day, calling a member to order, Agency recommendations, nominations, parliamentary inquiries, points of information, and withdrawal of motions do not require a second.) Third, the presiding bishop must restate the motion. For example, the presiding bishop may say, "A motion has been made and seconded that _____. The motion is open to debate."

6. Obtaining the Floor. When a member desires the floor, he or she shall proceed to a microphone and wait to be recognized by the presiding bishop. Each speaker should begin by stating his or her name and the church, charge, or other entity he or she represents. A member with the floor may be interrupted only to call for orders of the day, a point of order, a point of information, a parliamentary inquiry, or an appeal of the decision of the chair. A person who cuts off another speaker must state the reasons for the interruption. It is the sense of the Annual Conference that a speaker with the floor should not be interrupted, even for these listed reasons, unless the issue cannot wait until the speaker yields the floor.

7. Limits on Speakers. A member may speak for up to five minutes at one time on any question under discussion and only twice on the same question. No member shall speak for the second time until all members seeking recognition have had the opportunity to speak. The Annual Conference, by two-thirds vote, may change the rules about how often and how long members can speak during a debate.

8. Types and Precedence of Motions. There are four main types of motions: (1) main motions; (2) subsidiary motions; (3) incidental motions; and (4) privileged motions. Each type of motion accomplishes a different purpose and is treated differently.

a. Main motions. A main motion introduces a new item of business. Only one main motion can be considered at a time. Generally, main motions are secondable, debatable, amendable, require a majority vote, and can be reconsidered.

b. Subsidiary Motions. Subsidiary motions are motions applied to other motions to help the members dispose of the main motion. Here are the five subsidiary motions: table; previous question; postpone to a certain time; refer to Agency or committee; amend. These subsidiary motions fit into an order of precedence. This means that some subsidiary motions take precedence over others, and all subsidiary motions must be decided before the members can act on the main motion. This is the order of precedence for the subsidiary motions: 1) to table; 2) to move the previous question; 3) to postpone to a certain time; 4) to refer to committee; and 5) to amend. You can make any of these subsidiary motions when a lower order motion is on the floor, but you cannot make a subsidiary motion if a higher order one is being considered.

c. Incidental Motions and Inquiries. Incidental motions must relate directly to the business on the floor. Incidental motions take precedence over all other motions except privileged ones. They are: appeals; divisions of the question; and suspending the rules. In addition, incidental inquiries are proper and have precedence over main and subsidiary motions. Parliamentary inquiries, points of order, and points of information fall into this category. All three are answered by the presiding bishop.

d. Privileged Motions. Privileged motions are different from subsidiary and incidental motions, because they do not deal with business on the floor. Rather, they deal with special matters of pressing importance. The three privileged motions (in order of precedence) are: adjourning, questions of privilege, and orders of the day.

The attached charts set out the precedence of motions and specify which motions need a second, which can be debated, which can be amended, and what vote is necessary for passage.

9. Tabling Related Motions. No motion which adheres to another motion, or has another motion adhering to it, can be laid on the table by itself. Such motions, if laid on the table, carry with them the motions to which they respectively adhere, or which adhere to them.

10. Referring Matters to Agency. It shall be proper for the Annual Conference to refer to an Agency or specially created committee a motion, resolution, report, or a part of a motion, resolution, or report which is before the Annual Conference for consideration, or any amendment offered thereto.

11. Substitutes. When a motion, resolution or Agency report is properly before the Annual Conference for consideration and action, even if amendments have been proposed, a substitute motion, resolution, or report may be offered by any member moving that the same be substituted for the report or resolution under consideration. The Annual Conference shall then proceed first to perfect the original motion, resolution or report, including consideration and action upon any amendments which may be offered to it. The same perfecting process shall then be followed with respect to the substitute. The question shall then be put first on the motion to substitute, followed by the motion to adopt the motion, resolution, or report. However, a motion for the previous question shall not be in order on the adoption of the report or recommendation or on making the proposed substitution until opportunity has been given for at least two members to speak on each side of the question of substitution or adoption.

12. Moving for a Vote on the Previous Question. No member may call for a vote on the previous question until at least three members have been given the opportunity to speak on each side of a question. When any member moves the previous question (that is, that the vote be now taken on the motion or motions pending), that member shall indicate the question to which they intend it to apply. If the movant does not so indicate, the motion shall apply only to the immediately pending question. A motion for a vote on the previous question is not debatable. It requires a vote of two-thirds of those present and voting for its adoption. If the motion for a vote on the previous question passes, the vote shall be taken on the previous question without further debate.

13. No Motion After Speech. It shall not be in order for a member immediately after discussing a pending question, and before relinquishing the floor, to make a motion whose adoption would limit or stop debate.

14. Reconsideration. A motion to reconsider an action of the Annual Conference shall be in order at any time, but only if offered by a member who voted with the prevailing side. If the motion proposed for reconsideration is non-debatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated.

15. Voting Generally. Voting rights shall be governed by the Book of Discipline. Voting procedures shall be determined by the Annual Conference Planning Committee, depending on the technology available at the site of the Annual Conference session. If the method generally used is not already secret, a vote by secret ballot may be ordered on call of any member, supported by one-third of the members present and voting. No other business shall be in order when a vote is being taken or when the previous question has been called until the voting process is completed, except such as relates to the vote itself, or business that can be appropriately fitted into the time while waiting for the report on the vote.

16. Dividing the Question. Before a vote is taken, any member shall have the right to call for a division of any question, if it is subject to such division as they indicate. If no member objects, the division shall be made. If any member objects and is seconded, the presiding bishop shall put the question of division to vote.

17. Robert's Rules of Order. Questions of procedure not answered by these Standing Rules shall be determined in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised (2000), except when they are inconsistent with these Standing Rules or the Book of Discipline.

CORE LEADERSHIP TEAM

The Core Leadership Team (CLT) continues to oversee the implementation of the decisions of the Annual Conference, working through the four Centers in accordance with the mission and strategic priorities of the conference and denomination. Responsibilities of the CLT include visioning and planning, setting goals, and coordinating actions to address the priorities set forth in the strategic plan. The CLT holds the Center Directors and conference groups accountable for fruitfulness in these priorities.

The Core Leadership Team is convened by Bishop Bledsoe and includes:

Conference Lay Leader—Richard Hearne
Lay member elected by each district—Alfred White-North Central, Thalia Matherson-Metro, Clay Johnson-East, and Linda Parks-Northwest
Three at-large members appointed by the Bishop—Levy Laguardia, Ruth Robinson, Jan Davis
One District Superintendent—Frank Alegria
Center Directors—Jodi Smith, Keith Boone, Jim Ozier, Larry George
Ex officio: Sheron Patterson, Director of Conference Communications and John Croft Conference Chancellor, (Pamela Liston as of 4-1-2012)

The Core Leadership Team continues to build on a strong beginning in making progress toward reaching strategic goals and acknowledges there is still much to be done. Vision, goals and actions from the four Centers were heard and approved by the members of the CLT at each meeting.

The Core Leadership Team was convened four times in the past year at different locations around the Annual Conference—the Ministry Center in Plano, Floral Heights UMC in Wichita Falls, First UMC in Coppell, and Warren UMC in Dallas. All meetings are open, and members of the annual conference sometimes attend to observe the proceedings and are given opportunity to address the CLT.

The ministry of the Core Leadership Team continues to be guided by the core values of Faithful Integrity, Joyful Commitment, and Loving Service.

CENTER FOR LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

The Center for Leadership Development (CLD) exists to help clergy and laity recognize God's call of Living Discipleship Fruitfulness, Leading Congregational Fruitfulness and Developing Missional Fruitfulness to live out our mission "to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world."

"Leading from the Center" is the CLD's moniker because it essentially conveys whatever or whomever you have placed at the center of your heart, mind, soul and body which informs the way you lead. We all lead from our center. We affirm that Christ Jesus is the center for developing principled Christian leaders. From its inception the CLD has been forming teams comprised of laity and clergy to dialogue, vision and implement disciple making ministries to transform individuals, local churches and communities. These collaborative teams (platforms); Faith Formation, CART (Congregational Assessment, Response and Transformation), Intentional Interim Ministry, Mentoring/Coaching/Lifelong Learning, and Covenant Partnerships advance the cause of Christ through leadership development.

CLD Advisory Committee guides the work of the CLD Staff giving direct feedback, visioning, planning, and working on procedures and protocols. Members of the CLD Advisory Committee include: Rev. Billy Echols-Richter, Navolia Bryant, Rev. David Lessner, Rev. Edgar Bazan, Dale Cherry, Rev. Lisa Greenwood, and the CLD Staff.

The highlights below do not encompass the fullness of the Center's work, but only provide a glimpse of this year's past achievements. For more information about the Center for Leadership Development, visit the website and join the mailing list (www.ntcleadingfromthecenter.org) or join the Facebook page (NTC Center for Leadership Development).

Faith Formation supports all age-level ministries, which includes Children, Youth and CCYM, Camping and Retreat, along with Campus Ministries.

Youth/CCYM: CCYM conceived, planned and led two Midwinter Retreats at Bridgeport Camp with over 355 participants combined. CCYM chose the theme of "Too Blessed to Be Stressed" which connected very well with our participants. Family groups went longer than anticipated, new friendships were created, games were played and plans for finding play and Sabbath in every day were made.

Youth Annual Conference hosted 110 youth and adults from around the Conference to elect new CCYM delegates, deliberate legislation and participate in leadership development. This year we extended our time in workshops based around our concentration on Leadership. The body also passed legislation to work with summer camp directors to allow CCYM to host Snack Shacks throughout the summer at Bridgeport to increase fundraising for the Youth Service Fund (Midwinter and YAC raised a total of $700 for YSF this year.). YAC also passed legislation requiring YSF Snack Shacks to only purchase fair trade when buying chocolate. CCYM hosted a Youth Mission Day in Denton on May 5th and youth rallied on Sunday prior to Annual Conference for fellowship and dinner followed by opening worship.

CCYM members are attending Annual Conference both as delegates and observers. We are piloting a Shepherding program to pair youth with adults who will mentor them through the Annual Conference process. Members of our 2012–2013 class will attend Ignite (Jurisdictional Youth event) this July in Oklahoma City to kick off the new year.

The vision for the future of CCYM is to foster young and diverse leaders for the future of our church. Members will intentionally engage in leadership development as a group, converse with youth from other conferences to expand their vision of possibilities for conference level youth ministry and engage in evaluation and envisioning of their purpose, function and potential. CCYM will begin to ask how and initiate change so that each of its members, meetings and events are Living, Leading and Developing Fruitfulness.

Future Dates and Events for Youth
Midwinters 2013: January 25–27, 2013 and February 8–10, 2013
Annual Youth Leadership Conference 2013: April 5–7, 2013

Youth and Youth Leaders are encouraged to connect with others in the Conference. If you or your church would like more information about Youth and CCYM programs or events, please contact the Conference Youth Coordinator, Kelly Carpenter at youth@ntcumc.org and visit www.ntcyouth.org.

Campus Ministry: The work of Campus Ministry is celebrated within the conference as they strive to develop younger, more diverse, principled Christian leaders and disciples of Jesus Christ who transform the world.

UNT/TWU—A house of new life and vision was rising for a mother and her six children in Honduras who worked side-by-side with the Denton Wesley Foundation. Just as importantly, 11 young adults began to realize a new life and new vision was rising for them. The work done for the family ended with a departure on a dirt airstrip on an early Saturday morning, but the work God began in the lives of 11 amazing young adults over five days is still reverberating. In addition, the Denton Wesley Foundation has decided to adopt "House of Hope" as a destination for a portion of their Tuesday night worship offerings. Still other students are contemplating a teaching internship in Honduras. www.dentonwesley.org

Texas A&M Commerce—GROWING DEEPER... REACHING FARTHER... CONNECTING TOGETHER... Walk into the Wesleyan at TAMU Commerce on any given day, and you're likely to find someone wearing a shirt with these three short phrases on the back. They outline the ministry and discipleship of the students who are caught up in God's grace through the Wesleyan. www.commercewesley.org

Midwestern State University—MSU Wesley Foundation is developing principled Christian leaders through bible study with un-churched and churched students. There are two covenant bible study classes. The first bible study class brings together Christian students on Fridays. The second, which is held on Thursdays, attracts un-churched students from Asia, mainly China. They are responding to Christ's clarion call reechoed by the denomination to reach out and make disciples of Jesus Christ...Matthew 28:19–20 is alive. www.uumcwf.org

Paris Junior College—Wesley Campus Ministry is demonstrating the service of Christ through the act of providing hot lunches to the students on the campus of Paris Junior College.

Southern Methodist University—Taking John Wesley's words to heart that "God does nothing apart from prayer," SMU Wesley has started a much more robust effort in regards to intercessory prayer. The SMU Wesley house has a prayer room where students pray for the ministry, the campus, and the needs of the world. This April, we participated in 72 Hours of Unceasing Prayer that we hosted at the Wesley house for all the campus ministries at SMU. Hundreds of students prayed during these 72 hours. One of our students has initiated this effort and we are expecting God to do great things in response to the prayers of SMU Wesley students and other campus ministries. www.smuwesley.com

Throughout the year, the CLD took an active review of the current campus ministry settings to assess their current success, while also looking at how to faithfully serve the young adults on the various college campuses by developing a Comprehensive Plan for Campus Ministry (see page 275 of Journal).

Children, Youth and SEEK Camping at Bridgeport: Children, Youth and SEEK Camps experienced another great year in 2011. All Children's, Junior High and Senior High Camps had a unified theme and curriculum for the third year, which creates a better camping experience and more efficient planning on the parts of the Camp Directors.

Below are the overall 2011 highlights from Children, Youth and SEEK Camps:

- Total Campers and Volunteers participating: 2,170
- Children's Camp Sessions grew by 77 campers and still had waiting lists.
- Senior High Camps participation was up by 135 campers.

- Junior High Camps participation was down by 81 campers.
- SEEK Camps stayed steady with enrollment and long waiting lists.
- Project Transformation camp also stayed steady with a full camp.

For more information about the great opportunities at Bridgeport Camping and Retreat Center, please contact Executive Director Beau Taft at info@bridgeportcamp.com or visit www.bridgeportcamp.com.

Congregational Assessment, Resource and Transformation (CART) Teams are a resource for District Superintendents, clergy and congregations of the NTC in the midst of crisis or conflict. Congregational Assessment, Response and Transformation (CART) Teams are equipped to assist District Superintendents, clergy and congregations move through the difficult work of grief, anger, mistrust, loss and change.

Throughout the year, the CART Teams provided training to the skilled teams of clergy and laity. These teams also were deployed to engage congregations that were in crisis or in conflict to assist in healing, reconciliation and transformation.

Intentional Interim Ministry (IIM) calls for a pioneering spirit to care for the special needs of congregations. Interim ministers are experienced clergypersons, committed to the Wesleyan Way and the UMC, and have proven effective and fruitful in their service to Christ and the church. Intentional Interim Ministers adapt well to a congregation's context and particular needs, are highly relational, and provide pastoral leadership and management for a season of ministry.

This past year nine Intentional Interim Ministry placements were appointed by the Bishop and Cabinet in among the corps of fifteen IIMs either trained or progressing toward endorsement. IIMs are vetted by the Bishop and NTC Cabinet, trained and certified through an accreditation process, and may be deployed across conference boundaries.

Some of the contexts for IIM serving include: Sabbatical, Renewal or Study Leave; District Superintendent Transitions; Conflict Management; Disability, Terminal Illness or Death of a Pastor; Clergy Misconduct; Transformation and/or Cultural Context.

For more information on IIM training or considering time away for a sabbatical, renewal or study leave but don't know where to turn, contact your District Superintendent or the Center for Leadership Development of the NTC.

Mentoring, Coaching, Consulting and Life-Long Learning is needed to provide both laity and clergy to engage in continuing education for ministry, professional development, and spiritual formation and growth in order to lead the church in fulfilling the mission of making disciples for Jesus Christ.

Clergy Fruitfulness Initiative (CFI): The Clergy Fruitfulness Initiative undergirds the life-long journey of developing clergy leadership and their spiritual growth. Starting with those in their 5th year following ordination (full connection membership) and every 5 years proceeding, clergypersons will join with their classmates in a time of reflection and renewal, resourcing and realignment, and recognition and celebration. 2011 launched in August with 24 clergypersons in the 5–30 years of service range through the CFI process of reflection, resourcing and recognizing.

Marks of Fruitfulness: is an online assessment system to increase awareness and performance through feedback, provide resources for online training, and enhance a life-long growth. Marks of Fruitfulness is an integrated online self-evaluation and performance program that allows clergy, the SPRC/PPRC and the District Superintendent an assessment to offer formative feedback to nurture, support and help assist the leadership development of clergy from ordination to retirement (and beyond). The Marks of Fruitfulness evaluation is now one of four mandatory end-of-year reports that clergy and S/PPRC will complete by December 15.

Birkman Personality and Leadership Style Assessment Coaches: The Birkman Personality and Leadership Style Assessment provides clergy and lay leadership a unique opportunity to better understand themselves and the people with whom they work. The Birkman is available to clergy, church staff and ministry teams as an opportunity to maximize their effectiveness, to build focus in goal setting and team dynamics, and to be good stewards of time, talent, and gifts.

There are eight Certified Birkman Coaches within the North Texas Conference ready to implement and roll out Birkman services to clergy and laypersons in the annual conference. For more information, contact the CLD info@ntcleadingfromthecenter.org.

COMPREHENSIVE PLAN FOR CAMPUS MINISTRY

Center for Leadership Development

As we enter a critically important time in our history as the United Methodist Church, college students are being exposed to a wider variety of viewpoints and societal norms than ever before. United Methodist Campus Ministry plays an increasingly important role in helping students hear the voice of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, over and against the noise of the world around them. Throughout the North Texas Conference, our five campus ministries (Midwestern State Wesley Foundation, Paris Junior College Wesley Campus Ministry, Texas A&M University-Commerce Wesleyan Campus Ministry, Denton Wesley Foundation, and Southern Methodist University Wesley Foundation) engage students in some degree, as a means of developing them as principled Christian leaders for Christ, their respective campuses and the world.

The North Texas Conference Comprehensive Plan for Campus Ministry envisions over the next quadrennium the conference, Campus Ministries, and congregations will work in partnership to emphasize the shared investment in the lives of students on university campuses, and the impact that can affect the future of the United Methodist Church. This plan will outline: faithful accountability and stewardship, tangible development goals, and strategic growth plans as we strive to Live, Lead and Develop fruitfulness on campuses and in the lives of young adults throughout the North Texas Conference.

North Texas Conference

The North Texas Annual Conference has an investment in developing principled Christian leaders through Campus Ministry. Currently, the yearly investment of over $450,000 in apportionment funds is allocated to support the ongoing work of these ministries. These funds support the Campus Minister's compensation package, programming and additional staffing expenses, facilities maintenance, and upkeep for these five Wesley Foundations throughout the conference.

Direct oversight and care for these campus ministries resides with the Center for Leadership Development (CLD) and the CLD Advisory Committee. This Comprehensive Plan tasks the North Texas Conference/Center for Leadership Development to align resources to reach more students on more campuses and develop them as principled Christian leaders for the campus and the world:

- Resource: The CLD will provide bi-annual gatherings/forums for the current campus pastors to share best practices, network, and promote other campus ministry opportunities for bonding, visioning and development. Other opportunities include, but are not limited to: Refresh Event (national gathering), All Wesley Event (jurisdictional gathering), etc.

- Support/Educate: The CLD will strive to identify, recruit and nurture both clergy and laity called to campus ministry settings. The intent of the CLD is to provide more opportunities for clergy and laity to consider outreach ministries to "join students on their journey on their campus" with bible studies, sharing groups, mission projects, and hospitality.

- Accountability: The CLD will develop a Marks of Fruitfulness process for Campus Ministry. This tool will provide an opportunity for celebrating fruitfulness in campus ministry, while also providing for areas of growth by evaluating nineteen competencies. The online evaluation tool will provide a way for the campus minister to complete a self-evaluation, the board to provide a team evaluation and the CLD to provide feedback. This process will mirror that which is expected of all appointed clergy throughout the Conference.

- Funding: The CLD will establish a funding structure consisting of up to 85% of the proposed local campus ministry's operating/programming budget as a NTC grant and 15% from fundraising efforts by the local campus ministry. This funding structure will provide a consistent funding strategy for all campus ministries. The percentage amount given as a grant will be based on a combination of fruitfulness in the ministry of developing principled Christian leaders and available apportioned resources.

- Partnerships/Futuring: The CLD seek partnerships with local seminaries to develop a campus ministry incubator program where those persons with a passion for campus ministry (lay and clergy) from around the country could gather to explore the call, develop specialized skills and avail themselves to the service of campus ministry throughout the Methodist Connection.

  The CLD will also seek co-ministry opportunities with at least three congregations that have college campuses in their immediate community to explore, create and implement campus ministries on those respective campuses to provide a United Methodist presence and a vital ministry with young adults of the local congregation.

Campus Ministries

Campus Ministry continues to be one of the primary arenas of reaching and developing principled Christian leaders. In addition to spiritual guidance and leadership development to students, these ministries continue to be fertile ground for young men and women who want to enter into clergy roles in the church as well as a significant training arena for young adults in future positions of lay leadership in the church.

This Comprehensive Plan tasks local Campus Ministries to begin fostering Living Discipleship Fruitfulness, Leading Campus Ministry Fruitfulness and Developing Missional Fruitfulness:

- Living Discipleship Fruitfulness: The Campus Ministries will intentionally invite students into a relationship where their faith can be lived into, and their calling to be servants of Christ can be actively and passionately pursued. The ministries will develop a strategy for moving students from relationship to deeper discipleship.

Realizing that every campus ministry does not look the same, each ministry will be expected to develop its own unique process. However, there should be a consistent amount of structure put in place at every campus ministry. This structure will include, but is not limited to; invitation to Christian belief, learning about and experiencing spiritual disciplines, the relationship between the church and world (including a unit on social justice and the role of missions), an exploration of gifts and calling, and discussion of the fundamentals of Christian and/or United Methodist theology.

- Leading Campus Ministry Fruitfulness: The Campus Ministries will provide opportunities to invest in and deepen the students' relationship as a disciple of Jesus Christ as a leader in the ministry. The role of the campus ministries should be to place students in leadership areas where they can have the deepest natural impact. The expectation there will be a strong student leadership board that oversees and implements at least 70% of the ministry activities in the campus ministry. This will empower students and provide guidance and encouragement as students discover and enact their unique contributions to God's ministry.

- Developing Missional Fruitfulness: The Campus Ministries are accountable to reach, serve and transform the campus ministry and community. This will be achieved by knowing the data and demographics of the campus community in addition to establishing an inclusive Body of Christ that reflects the make of the campus and is fully accepting and supporting to all persons. Students will be empowered to live out the call in Matthew 28:19, while embodying a global call, which provides students the sense that the world starts just outside their front door.

- Board Development and Leadership: The role of a campus ministry board is to be the main framework of support and encouragement for the ministry. Board members should be active and visible parts of the ministry on the respective college campuses.

  Campus Ministries will create and maintain a board covenant so that members agree to support the campus ministry with their prayers, presence (not only at board meetings but on other occasions), gifts, service and witness. Board members enter into a covenant as an opportunity to fully invest in the lives of college students and as an opportunity to actively engage in the fruitfulness of the ministry.

- Fundraising: The Campus Ministries will develop, implement and sustain year-round fundraising goals and strategies in order to support the ongoing work of the ministry. Campus ministries will be required to raise at least 15% or more per year in outside funding.

Congregations

Campus Ministries in the North Texas Conference are supported by the generous support of local congregations through their faithful payment of apportionments. These funds support the ongoing work of the ministry. However, local congregations are also encouraged to covenant with campus ministries in their communities/districts to further support these ministries with their presence and witness.

- Support: Congregations are asked to provide contact information of students who attend the local college campuses that are supported by the North Texas Conference's campus ministries. This vital information strengthens the Connection by ensuring these students are cared for by and connected with the ministry while attending college. The contact information for each of the five campus ministries can be found on the Center for Leadership Development's website under Faith Formation (www.ntcleadingfromthecenter.org).

- Collaboration: Congregations that have a heart and passion for campus ministry are encouraged to prayerfully consider becoming a Connector Congregation. These congregations will provide support for existing and new campus ministry partnerships with the CLD. These partnerships will include opportunities to explore, create and implement campus ministries on campuses that do not have a United Methodist presence.

Summary

The impact of the Campus Ministry should continue to be a formational influence throughout a young adult's collegiate experience. The formative experiences students have with the campus ministry during their college years have significant impact in shaping both the spiritual and leadership gifts and graces.

The benchmarks and outcomes in this Comprehensive Plan will stretch and move the North Texas Conference to fruitfulness in Campus Ministry. The covenant relationships of the Conference/Center for Leadership Development, Campus Ministries and local Congregations will serve to develop young adults as principled Christian leaders for the Church and the World.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY REPORT

The Board of Ordained Ministry exists to help the congregations in the North Texas Conference carry out their mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. We do this through recruiting, credentialing and supporting those serving as pastors and clergy in the North Texas Conference from the time they sense God's call to their retirement and beyond.

The board is charged by The Book of Discipline with carrying out many critical tasks and, through its various teams and committees, our members fulfill their responsibilities in an outstanding manner. These include the Executive Committee, the Committee on Preparation and Qualifications for Elders and Deacons, the Director of Local Pastor Education, the Committee on Local Pastors, the Committee on Certification, the Committee on Clergy Effectiveness, the Committee on Recruitment, the Committee on Transfer Review, the Committee on Conference Relations, the Committee on Chaplains and Related Ministries, and the Committee on Provisional Membership.

We continue to collaborate with the Center for Leadership Development and its director, Keith Payne Boone. This relationship already is bearing fruit through the Clergy Fruitfulness Initiative, as the board provides funds for those going through the program each year from the North Texas Conference portion of the Ministerial Education Fund.

The board has taken steps to implement the document, "Living, Leading and Developing Clergy Fruitfulness", which was produced through a dialogue with the Board of Laity in a number of helpful and productive ways.

Our intentional partnership with the chairs of the four District Committees on Ministry to develop a common process that all district committees will use in carrying out their work has been implemented. This result is that the often cumbersome process for entering ministry is becoming increasingly clearer, simpler and easier to navigate.

The North Texas Conference Board of Ministry website (www.ntcumcbom.org) has added considerably more information in the past year and provides clear and consistent information in an easily accessible manner. Additionally, the "Pathways to Ministry" software is now being fully utilized so that candidates, district committees and the board are all able to track progress through the process online.

On March 28, 2012, the Board of Ordained Ministry Executive Committee initiated and led a Service of Healing and Wholeness at First United Methodist Church of Richardson to address the painful difficulties our clergy covenant recently has experienced. Bishop Bledsoe preached, clergy broke into small groups for conversation, communion was served and prayers were offered for each other and our world.

We have continued to address the important issue of indebtedness for candidates for ministry in two important ways. First, the board adopted "Indebtedness Guidelines" for candidates for certification, commissioning and ordination. Additionally, the board has implemented new criteria that enable younger clergy candidates to receive more money for seminary scholarships as part of our strategic initiative to move from dispersing scholarships to investing in the future. One of the primary goals of this new approach will be to ensure that younger persons entering ministry will not be saddled with burdensome student loans.

The board crafted and submitted legislation on behalf of the North Texas Conference to General Conference concerning several strategic issues related to preparing faithful and effective pastors capable of providing leadership to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

A comprehensive study was undertaken to determine the optimal size and organization for the board so we can best organize to carry out our responsibilities. The most significant aspects of the plan are that the new Board of Ordained Ministry will be about one-half the current size and carry out its responsibilities in new ways in the 2012-2016 quadrennium.

The North Texas Conference Board of Ordained Ministry is grateful for the leadership, support and help that Duane VanGiesen and Janet Thompson provide. Their expertise and hard work greatly enhance our work and effectiveness.

Respectfully submitted,
Gary E. Mueller, Chair

CENTER FOR NEW CHURCH DEVELOPMENT AND CONGREGATIONAL TRANSFORMATION

A year into our new Strategic Plan, The Center for New Church Development and Congregational Transformation is creatively working to increase the number of Vital Congregations within the North Texas Conference. Our priorities remain the same: 1) starting new faith communities, and 2) transforming existing congregations. Our goal is to reach those people that have been turned off by church as they know it, and spread the gospel of Jesus Christ in a new and compelling way.

For the second consecutive year, the Conference will report an increase in Average Worship Attendance! It has been many years since the Conference has reported consecutive years of growth. Through analyzing our statistics, it is clear that this is the result of (a) starting new churches, and (b) local congregations intentionally learning—and implementing—strategic steps to engage their mission fields through invitational worship.

In 2008, when the Conference brought on Jim Ozier as a full time Director of Church Development, he said that the best measurement of effectiveness of this position would be to see increases in worship attendance:

> "Our goal is to report an increase in Average Worship Attendance for the Conference by 2010… that would be good news! To see 2 years would be a pattern; to see 3 years would be a trend…to see 4 years would be culture change."

We still have a long way to go to bring about the culture change we need… and to keep us moving in that direction our Center is taking dramatic steps:

1. We are making staff changes designed to make us more effective at reaching more people, younger people, and more diverse people (see new staffing list at end of this report). When Jim Ozier started 4 years ago, we had only 1 part time administrative assistant. Since then we've planted 19 new churches and faith communities…so the need for additional program staff has become essential. Even more importantly, we are putting more emphasis on Congregational Transformation, especially among diverse populations.

2. We are changing Congregational Transformation; designing it to involve more laity, and to use their talents and experience as well as that of our own clergy within the Conference. We are ending our 3 year contract with DNA Coaching because it did not produce the results we needed to see.

NEW CHURCH DEVELOPMENT

In an effort to "create new places for new people," we have continued to plant new churches and faith communities. Our new churches are now averaging just over 1900 in worship each week. However, our objective is not to just get more people into our churches; it is to get our churches into our mission field. To that end, we are excited that 4 new churches were planted by our existing churches in 2011, and 2 more Mother churches are planning to plant a daughter church in 2012.

Each of the new church pastors are trained through the New Church Leadership Institute, and assessed by our Conference Assessment Team before they are appointed by the Bishop. They also attend New Church "Boot Camp" and each one is assigned a personal trained coach to give the new start and the pastor the best possible advantage to succeed.

Our new churches are (listed by year they were planted):

2008—The Woods–Grand Prairie (Vital Merger)–Pastor: Jill Jackson-Sears
Oak Cliff UMC–Oak Cliff (formerly "Connexion")–Pastor: Edgar Bazan-Garza
The Village–DeSoto (Daughter church of St Luke "Community")–Pastor: Derek Jacobs

2009—Falls Chapel–Wichita Falls (Restart with new name)–Pastor: Louis Pearce
FUMC Krum–Krum (Restart and relocation)–Pastor: Christy Thomas

2010—Crossway–Aubrey (Daughter church of Grace Avenue)–Pastor: Chris Yost
St Andrew Frisco–Frisco (Extension campus of St. Andrew)–Pastor: Edlen Cowley
Munger Place–Dallas (Extension campus of Highland Park)–Pastor Andrew Forrest
Nuevo Dia–Dallas (A New Day Community) Leader: Shellie Ross

2011—Living Life Church–Allen (Daughter church of FUMC Allen) Pastor: Abe Smith
Korean North Central–The Colony (Daughter church of Korean Central) Pastor: Nakhoon Cho

Melissa UMC–Melissa (Daughter church of FUMC McKinney) Pastor: Alan Hitts
Sachse/Wylie New Church Start- Rowlett (Daughter church of FUMC Rowlett)
Pastor: Chris Everson

2012 planned new church starts—Connections–Paris (Extension Campus)

We are sad to report that one of our newer church starts—Faithbridge in Rockwall—was closed this past year. While this fledgling young congregation was not able to grow to self-sufficient viability, we thank God for its mission and ministry: lives were touched, people were changed, new people came to Christ and became involved in a faith community. Please keep the planter and the people of this church in your prayers.

CONGREGATIONAL TRANSFORMATION

Our contract with DNA expires in September of 2012, and we will immediately shift into a totally new approach to helping our churches become as effective as they can be.

We will be making available to churches what is known as the "Healthy Church Initiative" model, now used by 29 Annual Conferences (and all the Texas Conferences), which is based on training our own clergy and laity to mutually coach and mentor congregations. This approach involves laity in all levels of leadership and participation, and it has a component designed especially for small membership churches.

THE WORK OF THE CENTER

In 2012, the Center has been working diligently to help our churches, both new and transforming, to connect with their communities in more fruitful ways. In our first year, we tackled three major areas to make us more effective:

1. Changed our demographic provider to MissionInsite.... Training is still available if your church is not taking advantage of this outstanding tool. Thanks to your apportionments at work, there is no charge to the local church for this service.
2. Created clear Policies and Procedures….all of which can be found on our Conference Website.
3. Set up an interactive and informational website: www.ntcnewchurchdevelopment.org.

Understanding that our Conference demographics are changing, the Center last year sponsored 4 one day events to plan strategies for planting new ethnic/language churches. These events were held on Saturdays to encourage both laity and clergy to participate. Specialists from Path1 (the General Board of Discipleship agency in charge of starting new churches) facilitated these consultations. These "Summits" were:

1. Hispanic—Consultant–Sam Rodriquez
2. African American—Consultant–Candace Lewis
3. Korean—Consultant–Hyo Kim
4. Asian*—Consultant–Bener Agtarap

*Due to the funeral for the Bishop's granddaughter, this summit has had to be rescheduled into later this year.

In addition, the Center sponsored a one day "Small Membership Summit" in the East District.

We are continuing to work with our 4 Function Areas- Property and Location, Recruitment, Ethnic/Language, and Finance; and have added another to better serve churches of all membership levels-Church by Size.

2011 has proven to be a year of big and exciting changes for the Center for New Church Development and Congregational Transformation, and with God's help we are working to meet the challenges of Christ's commandment to spread his gospel.

In 2012 and 2013 we are actively pursuing starting both a totally new model of reaching young adults through a self-sustaining Coffee Shop Ministry….AND…planting a United Methodist Version of a "Cowboy Church."

We know that much work is left to be done. We must reach those young adults and others out there looking for meaning and purpose in life; we must make new places for new people, and we must transform our new and existing churches into churches of true transformation for more fruitful and faithful ministry.

NEW STAFFING CHANGES TO STRENGTHEN OUR MISSION FIELD IMPACT

1) Bishop Bledsoe has appointed the Rev. Gloria Young-Eun Kim Fowler as Associate Director of the Center for New Church Development and Congregational Transformation! She is an outstanding bicultural and bilingual pastor with broad experience in a wide variety of ministry settings. Effective July 1, she will be working with Jim Ozier to start new churches and strengthen existing congregations.

   Born in Jeollado, Korea, where her father was a pastor, she later attended high school in India. While in college, she met and married her husband, Abraham, the son of missionaries.

   Gloria graduated from Perkins and in 2010 she was ordained as an elder in the North Texas Conference. With a delightful servant's heart, she has served in a variety of capacities and leadership roles. Gloria spent last year at the Beeson Institute doing D.Min. work in multi-cultural ministry and congregational transformation.

   She has previously been on staff at Korean Central and Good Seed UMCs. In her most recent appointment as an associate at 1st UMC Grand Prairie, Gloria worked in congregational transformation and was the lead team member in the contemporary worship service.

   Gloria brings extensive experience in teaching, hands-on local church ministry, and reaching emerging mission fields. She and Abraham are the proud parents of two children: Ernest, age 9, and Elizabeth, age 6.

2) As our Center expands its work and places more emphasis on congregational transformation, we are excited to bring Carolyn Bryels into our team. Carolyn brings 12 years of church work experience to the Center: seven years' experience as administrative assistant at Hamilton Park UMC to the context of her new assignment, along with five years at the North Texas Conference Office.

   Before that she distinguished herself in the business world as a person who gets things done! As both a project manager and systems consultant for Lucent Technologies and AT&T, she provided training, team-work support, and system design and demonstrated a proven ability to implement work groups to meet agreed-upon goals.

   Carolyn has proven to be a beloved team member in the administrative offices of the Conference. She will continue to work part-time in the Center for Connectional Resources and will work part-time in our Center.

3) Liliana Peña Rangel is staying on as the part-time administrative assistant for Hispanic Ministries. Liliana has had an eventful year, as she married Rev. David Rangel (Casa Linda UMC) in December! Liliana continues to attend the University of North Texas, where she is pursuing a degree in education.

4) Deniece Mason has been with the Center for three years, and will sorely miss working with all of our new church start pastors. However, she has answered her call to ministry and will be going to Flower Mound UMC in June to become the Director of Educational Ministries. This is an exciting move for Deniece, and she asks for prayers as she continues to follow God's call!

BRIDGEPORT CAMP AND CONFERENCE CENTER

We have had an exciting year this offseason with many changes. This fall we said goodbye to our Executive Director of the past three years, Trueman Hoffmeister. He will be missed and we thank him for all of the wonderful things that he did in his tenure here.

For the past several months we have been working very hard to make advancements in several practical areas of the camp. For starters, we have updated all of our sound systems to better fit the needs of our summer camp programs, and even updated some of our lighting in Martin Hall. Along with these, we have been revisiting our mission and vision statements to make sure that we remain purposefully in God's plan, and the plans of the North Texas Conference.

2011 showed another spike in groups that have chosen our facility here over 2010. Groups from within our conference made up a majority of the people we served, but we had great attendance from groups outside our conference as well. Some of these groups included, F.O.C.U.S. (Fellowship of Christian University Students), UNT LeaderShape, and ACTS Catholic retreat. For our summer camps, we had 5 camps that were full and had waiting lists, and 3 more that were just short of capacity. This gave us another great summer attendance of over 2,150 people.

As we look to the future, and how to improve on what we are doing, we need to do several things. With our camps being so close to full almost every week, we need to be diligent about creating more spaces for our children, youth, and adults to stay. This is our best path for continuing to better serve both our conference and non-conference events and camps.

THE PROTHRO CENTER AT LAKE TEXOMA

The year 2011 was another great year for The Prothro Center!! As the word still continues to spread to new faces, we are thrilled that our number of repeat bookings has risen to its greatest peak.

The Prothro Center continues to host numerous North Texas Conference programs such as the annual S.E.EK. Camps, Rural Ministry, Clergy Spouse Retreat, NTC Licensing School, Clergy Women Retreat, NTC District Committee, The Extended Cabinet, NTC UMW, NTC Anti-Racism, and The Board of Ordained Ministry. We also accommodate the annual Julian C. Hyer International Lions Camp, in which youth from around the world are given an opportunity to share their individual backgrounds with each other while experiencing some of our own "American" ways of life. New relationships are forming as more groups such as Emmaus and Royal Family Kid Camp are discovering how wonderful The Prothro Center is. We have really worked at being able to provide more private locations for individual families to be able to stay. The remodeling of our Oasis and Renewal Cabins are now perfect getaway spots for pastors or anyone else looking to grow spiritually or as a family. Every cabin has a great view of Lake Texoma, and we have worked our beach into the nicest sand and swimming area on the lake.

The feedback from each group in attendance during 2011 has been overwhelmingly positive, as it has become one of the nation's most desired Conference and Retreat Centers. Our great staff is extremely proud of everything that this beautiful place has become, and we look forward to hosting your next event or personal retreat.

BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS

HEALTH BENEFITS POLICIES
June 2012

INTRODUCTION

The North Texas Conference provides a conference health insurance program designed to provide its eligible employees (defined herein) with a comprehensive plan for major medical insurance. The program is administered through a group plan overseen by the conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The North Texas Annual Conference participates in HealthFlex, the health benefits program of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of The United Methodist Church.

All full-time clergy appointed to local churches within the conference or as District Superintendents or to the conference staff (ordained elders, deacons in full connection, deacons on track to become elders, commissioned persons on track to become elders or deacons, full-time local pastors, members of other conferences or denominations appointed according to Paragraphs 346.1 or 346.2) are required to be enrolled in the conference health insurance plan and their respective church or salarypaying unit is responsible for the premium for the appointee. Coverage for spouses and dependents is optional, and the premium for an appointee's spouse and dependents is the responsibility of the appointee.

ELIGIBILITY

The following are eligible for coverage under the program and in accordance with the adoption agreement between the North Texas Conference and The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits:

1. Ordained elders and deacons and commissioned persons on track to become elders or deacons (including those with full conference membership, probationary membership and associate membership), and full-time local pastors appointed full-time to local churches within the conference and their eligible dependents.

2. Clergy serving as district superintendents and conference staff.

3. Clergy from other United Methodist annual conferences and ordained ministers from other denominations employed full-time and under episcopal appointment to a local church or charge of the North Texas Annual Conference under the provisions of Paragraphs 346.1 or 346.2 of the 2008 Book of Discipline.

4. Clergy appointed beyond the local church within the connectional structure to a General Agency, to other than a unit of a conference or other than a General Agency, an ecumenical agency and extension ministry endorsed by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry under the provisions of Paragraph 344.1a(2), 344.1a(3), 344.1a(4) and 344.1b, only if they are listed specifically in the annual GBOPHB adoption agreement.

5. Clergy appointed to Leave of Absence or Sabbatical (eligible for one year only).

6. Diaconal ministers appointed full-time to local churches within the conference.

7. Lay persons who are full-time (at least 30 hours per week) employees of the annual conference and their eligible dependents.

8. Full-time (at least 30 hours per week) lay employees and their eligible dependents of local churches or connectional agencies in the North Texas Annual Conference which offer the conference group insurance program to all of their fulltime lay employees, if the church has a sub-adoption agreement with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits and meets the 75% participation rule.

9. Retired clergy members of the conference immediately eligible to receive pension from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits at the beginning of the month following the month in which the retired relation takes place, and who had a minimum of five (5) continuous and consecutive years of active participation in the North Texas Annual Conference group health program at the time of retirement, and their respective dependents. Retired Clergy can retain future rights to HealthFlex coverage if at the time of retirement coverage was declined because the clergy had other employer sponsored group health insurance.

10. Disabled clergy members of the conference (who were enrolled in HealthFlex at the time of their disability) immediately eligible to receive disability benefits from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits at the beginning of the month following the month in which the disability leave with disability benefits takes place, as granted by the Division of Conference Relations, and their respective dependents.

11. Retired lay employees of the conference or a local church within the conference at the beginning of the month following the month in which the retired relation takes place, and who had a minimum of five (5) continuous and consecutive years of active participation in the North Texas Annual Conference group health plan at the time of retirement, and their respective dependents, if the church selects that category in the sub-adoption agreement with GBOPHB.

12. Disabled lay employees of the conference or a local church within the conference (who were enrolled in HealthFlex at the time of their disability) at the beginning of the month following the month in which the disability leave takes place as granted by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, and their respective dependents.

13. Surviving dependents of a deceased active participant as long as the participant and dependent were covered participants at the time of death.

14. Surviving dependents of a deceased retired participant as long as the participant and dependent were covered participants at the time of death. If the surviving dependents declined coverage at the time of the participant's retirement due to having other employer sponsored group health insurance, that dependent retains future rights to coverage as long as the other employer sponsored group health remains in effect.

15. Eligible children include any child under the age of 26, including all natural, legally adopted and step-children for whom the participant has court ordered legal guardianship.

16. A divorced spouse of an active participant is eligible provided the participant is responsible by legal decree for the majority of financial support of the former spouse or specifically responsible for the medical or other health care expenses of the former spouse.

17. Continuation health benefits are available for a period of one year for any participant who becomes ineligible providing they have been on the plan for at least three months. The plan and premium is the same and is billed directly to the participant. Notification of ineligibility must occur within 30 days and application for continuation benefits must occur within 60 days of becoming ineligible and the continuation benefits begin the day after the participant became ineligible.

Eligible persons must complete a HealthFlex enrollment form and return it to the conference Office of Administration within 30 days of their date of hire, date of newly acquired eligibility or family status change. Family status changes which allow late enrollment are: birth, death, marriage, divorce, or loss of other coverage. There is also an open enrollment period every year in November for coverage to begin in January of the following year.

MEDICAL BENEFITS PROGRAM FOR ACTIVE PARTICIPANTS

A Preferred Provider Organization (PPO) plan is the base plan for active participants and their dependents. This plan is currently administered by Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Illinois. Prescription drugs are covered for active participants through Medco and the prescription plan has an annual deductible and co-pay amounts for three tiers of drugs. A mail order program is also available to obtain 90-day supplies of maintenance drugs at a lesser cost and is required for all maintenance prescriptions.

Mental health and chemical dependency benefits are provided through United Behavioral Health (UBH). A participant must call UBH at 1-800-788-5614 before receiving inpatient or outpatient treatment either innetwork or outofnetwork. There is also a Pastoral Consultation Hotline for clergy available for both active and retired clergy at no charge. The number is 800-842-2869.

Vision benefits are available through VSP. A basic vision examination is provided and discounts for eyeglasses and contact lenses are available.

Term life insurance is provided through Hartford Life and Accident Insurance Company as a part of the health benefit. The amount of insurance is as follows: $5,000 for lay employees; $10,000 for all other clergy to age 65; $5,000 for clergy age 65 to 70; $1,000 for clergy over age 70. This benefit is for both life insurance and accidental death, dismemberment and loss of sight. Dependent insurance is provided in the following amounts for covered dependents: $2,000 for spouses; $1,000 for children ages 6 months to 25; $100 for children ages 14 days to 6 months.

Medical Reimbursement Accounts (MRA) and Dependent Care Accounts (DCA) are also available to active participants through Ceridian. A participant may select annual MRA/DCA amounts between $300 and $5000 (maximum to be reduced to $2500 effective 1-1-2013) to be deducted by the salary paying unit on a monthly basis as a salary reduction. This money may be used for medical expenses which are not covered by the plan such as deductibles, co-pays, dental, vision and other qualified costs. The DCA may be used to pay for qualified child or parent daycare expenses. Forms to be used to submit claims are available at www.gbophb.org or in the conference Office of Administration.

CONFERENCE FUNDING POLICIES FOR ACTIVE HEALTH BENEFITS

1. The entire premium for full-time clergy appointed to local churches within the conference or as district superintendents or to the conference staff (ordained elders, deacons in full connection, deacons on track to become elders, commissioned persons on track to become elders or deacons, full-time local pastors, members of other conferences or denominations appointed according to Paragraphs 346.1 or 346.2) is to be paid by the local church or salary paying unit.

2. The premium for the appointee's spouse and dependents is the responsibility of the appointee. An optional agreement may be made between the church or salary paying unit and the appointee for the church or salary paying unit to pay the family premium.

3. The Conference will pay the premium for lay employees of the annual conference. The premium for dependents is the responsibility of the employee.

4. Responsibility for the premium for eligible lay employees of local churches or institutions within the connectional structure will be determined by the employer and the employee.

5. The Conference pays the active premium for disabled clergy members of the conference who were appointed to a local church or as district superintendent or to the conference staff and were enrolled in HealthFlex at the time of disability. Approval by the Division of Conference Relations and eligibility to receive disability benefits from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits is also required. Payment begins the month following the month in which the disability leave with disability benefits takes place. The premium for dependents is the responsibility of the clergyperson.

6. Subsidies are available on a sliding scale for those churches whose pastor's Total Compensation is below the Denominational Average Compensation for the appointee's premium and those pastors whose compensation is below the DAC for their dependents. A written application must be submitted to and approved by the appropriate District Superintendent. Only those appointed full-time as "pastor-in-charge" are eligible for this supplement. The guidelines for application are as follows:

2. Pastors must submit to their district superintendent a written application for dependent supplements.

3. The pastor's Total Compensation for Insurance Supplement Eligibility (line IX from the 2012 Ministerial Compensation Report turned in at Charge Conference) must be below $62,781 (the 2012 Denominational Average Compensation).

4. If the need exists in the judgment of the district superintendent and funds are available, appointee supplements may be awarded to churches on the following scale (annual amount shown—paid monthly):

6. If the pastor's Total Compensation for Health Insurance Supplement Eligibility is above $62,781 but extraordinary circumstances exist in the judgment of the district superintendent, an appointee supplement may be awarded to the church and/or a dependent supplement may be awarded to the pastor at the lowest level on the scales above if funds are available. Likewise, superintendents are not obligated to award any supplements even though an applicant may be eligible, if they determine that no need exists.

7. District superintendents are asked to distribute these Guidelines and the supplement application forms to churches and pastors who may be eligible as soon as possible. Additional application forms will be available in the District and Conference Offices.

8. District Superintendents are asked to fax or mail the approved Health Insurance Supplement Application Forms to the Office of Administration by December 1 of each year. No supplements will be processed until the approved Application Forms are received in the Office of Administration. Forms received after the deadline will be processed for the following month's billing and they will not be done retroactively.

9. All supplements cease when a pastoral change occurs. New applications are to be submitted to the Office of Administration by the 1st day of the month following the move. A supplement may be

MEDICAL BENEFITS PROGRAM FOR RETIRED PARTICIPANTS

The conference medical benefits program for retired participants, dependents and surviving spouses assumes participation in Medicare Parts A and B. The program is designed to extend certain benefits beyond what Medicare pays and, in addition, provide a pharmacy benefit and other additional benefits not covered under Medicare. It is assumed that all retired participants shall enroll in Medicare Parts A and B at their own expense. The amount of conference funding available to clergy that opted out of Social Security and consequently are not eligible for Medicare, and their dependents and surviving spouses, will not exceed that of those who have Medicare benefits.

Clergy in the retired relationship with the annual conference who continue to work full time continue in the active plan. Retired clergy who opted out of Social Security and their dependents and surviving spouses continue in the active plan if they continue working.

A dependent spouse may be eligible for HealthFlex retiree benefits even if not a covered dependent at the time of the participant's retirement. If the spouse is covered by another employer sponsored group health insurance plan, he/she may decline HealthFlex coverage while still maintaining future rights to coverage. The retiring participant may also decline HealthFlex coverage at the time of his/her retirement while maintaining future rights to coverage if he/she can be covered under a spouse's employer sponsored group health insurance plan. Future coverage rights can be exercised at any open enrollment opportunity or within thirty days of losing the other employer sponsored group health coverage as long as the other coverage was maintained up to the day the HealthFlex coverage is to begin.

The divorced spouse of a retiree may retain coverage or future rights to coverage as described above if it is declared in the divorce decree that the participant is responsible for health coverage or is responsible for a majority of the financial support of the divorced spouse. Future rights to coverage will end when the specified period in the legal decree has expired or upon the death of the participant (providing the decree provides for termination of the participant's responsibility at that time).

A new spouse or dependent acquired by a retiree after retirement is not an eligible dependent with the exception of a dependent child gained through court ordered legal guardianship.

After retirement, if a retiree, dependent or surviving spouse terminates HealthFlex coverage, they will no longer retain any future rights to coverage.

CONFERENCE FUNDING POLICIES FOR RETIREE HEALTH BENEFITS

The North Texas Annual Conference through its Insurance Subsidies apportionment shares the funding of the health benefit for eligible retired clergy participants, dependents and surviving spouses with the retirees and spouses.

1. For those eligible clergypersons enrolled in the conference health insurance plan who retire after January 1, 2003, and their eligible spouses, the conference will pay from 15–50 % of the HealthFlex Medicare Supplement Plan 2 premium for those retiring at age 65 (or full retirement age) based on their years of ministerial service (which qualify for retirement credit) in The United Methodist Church in which they were appointed to a local church or within the connectional structure as defined in the 2008 Discipline Paragraphs 344.1(a)(1) and (2), or partial years of like service for less than full-time appointments, as follows.

For those eligible clergypersons enrolled in the conference health insurance plan who retired before January 1, 2003, and their eligible spouses, the North Texas Conference will continue to pay 50 % of the HealthFlex Medicare Supplement Plan 2 premium.

2. For those clergy who retire who are at least 62 years of age (but not 65) or have 30 years of service, and their eligible spouses, the conference will pay the same benefit as for those in the Regular Retirement category above (15–50% of the Medicare Supplement Plan 2 premium). These participants will pay the remainder of the Medicare Supplement Plan 2 premium (50–85%) plus the difference between the active plan (which they must be on until they are eligible for Medicare) and the Medicare Supplement plan. Those retiring under "the twenty year rule" (i.e., are not 62 and have at least 20 years but not 30 years of service) are eligible to remain on the conference insurance plan. These participants must pay the entire active premium until they reach 65 (or full retirement age). At that time the conference will pay the same level of benefits as for those in the Regular Retirement category above.

3. For retirees who continue to serve local churches in the North Texas Conference the conference will pay the same benefit as for those in the Regular Retirement category above (15–50% of the Medicare Supplement Plan 2 premium for both retiree and spouse) and the retiree will be responsible for the balance of the premium (50–85% of the Medicare Supplement Plan 2 premium) for retiree and spouse. The retiree will be required to pay any additional cost due to the employment (i.e., the difference between the active plan which the working retiree might have to be on according to the anti-discrimination laws and the retiree plan) for the spouse. (A local church or other salary paying unit can opt to pay the participant and spouse's cost.) The local church employing a retired participant will be required to pay any additional cost due to the employment (i.e., the difference between the active plan which the working retiree might have to be on according to the anti-discrimination laws and the retiree plan) for the retiree.

4. Surviving spouses of deceased retired clergy are eligible for coverage as long as the participant was a covered participant at the time of death. The health plans available to surviving spouses are the same as those available to retiree participants and conference funding is the same as for the retiree.

5. The health plans available to retired Diaconal Ministers are the same as for retired clergy and the conference funding is the same as for retired clergy.

6. The health plans available for retired lay employees of the annual conference are the same as for retired clergy. Conference funding for the retired lay employee of the annual conference with 10 or more years of service (not including spouse or dependents) is based on the same scale of service as that for retired clergy beginning at the 10 years of service level.

7. Retired lay employees of a local church or qualified agency within the conference are eligible to participate in any of the health insurance plans available to retired clergy, if the church or agency has a sub-adoption agreement with the GBOPHB. The premiums are the same as for the retired clergy, but the responsibility for payment remains entirely with the retired lay participant.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES

Enrollment material can be obtained from the conference Office of Administration. Enrollment forms must be completed, signed and returned to that office within 30 days of the employee's date of hire or family status change. If the 30 day time period is not met, an election of "No Coverage" is assigned (although the salary paying unit is still responsible for payment of the appointee's premium in the case of mandatory categories of participants) and the employee would be eligible for coverage at the next open enrollment opportunity. Upon receipt of enrollment forms, the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits will inform the insurance provider and the participant should receive election material and appropriate insurance cards within a reasonable period of time.

The monthly health insurance billing is mailed to the appropriate local church, agency, or individual on the 1st of each month and the payment is due in the conference office by the 20th of that month. Premiums not received by the next billing period are considered "past due"and so marked on the next month's bill. Termination procedures begin for any accounts more than 60 days in arrears. District Superintendents are informed each month of those churches with past due balances.

Participants will receive annual election materials each fall prior to the Open Enrollment period from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits with instructions for changing or maintaining health coverage for the next calendar year. GBOPHB will also provide claim forms, MRA and DCA forms at the beginning of each calendar year. Additional forms may be obtained at www.gbophb.org or from the conference Office of Administration.

Denial of benefits policies and appeals procedures are those of the HealthFlex insurance carrier and GBOPHB.

HEALTH BENEFITS POLICY STATEMENT FOR INDIVIDUALS COVERED THROUGH 20-YEAR RULE RETIREMENT, EXTENSION MINISTRY APPOINTMENTS, CONTINUATION INSURANCE, AND RETIREES AND SURVIVING SPOUSES PAYING PREMIUMS DIRECTLY TO THE NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE

The North Texas Conference makes health insurance available to clergy who have retired under the 20-year rule and to some clergy who are appointed to extension ministry positions. (Special arrangements for health coverage can be made in some cases for those appointed under ¶344.1b, and ¶344.1d.) The premiums must be paid by the individual one month in advance and are due on the 20th of every month. Accounts are past due if not received by the 20th and if two payments are due on the 20th of any month, a letter will be sent to the individual with notification of insurance cancellation. In addition, an attempt will be made to schedule a meeting with the participant and a member of the conference staff to explain the termination of coverage. Any account that is two payments past due will be terminated if payment has not been received in the conference office by the end of the month. The termination date will be retroactive to the first of the month of unpaid premium. (For example: The premium for February is billed on January 1 and is due by January 20. The premium for March is billed on February 1 and is due by February 20. If neither February nor March premium is paid by February 20, the insurance will be terminated retroactive to February 1.)

The North Texas Conference offers continuation health insurance to participants who have been terminated or have lost eligibility if they have been covered for at least three consecutive months prior to loss of eligibility. The continuation coverage can extend up to one year following the loss of coverage date. The first month's premium is due with the application for coverage and future premiums are due one month in advance on the 20th of every month. Accounts are past due if not received by the 20th and if two payments are due on the 20th of any month, a letter will be sent to the individual with notification of insurance cancellation. In addition, an attempt will be made to schedule a meeting with the participant and a member of the conference staff to explain the termination of coverage. Any account that is two payments past due will be terminated if payment has not been received in the conference office by the end of the month. The termination date will be retroactive to the first of the month of unpaid premium.

The North Texas Conference offers a Medicare supplement health insurance plan to retirees (who have been enrolled in the active health plan the five years immediately preceding retirement), their spouses and surviving spouses of eligible clergy. The conference pays a portion of the premium based on years of service and the scale which appears in the report section of the North Texas Conference Journal each year. The remainder of the premium is the responsibility of the retiree or spouse and is usually paid by pension deduction. Those retirees or spouses who pay their portion of the premium by check directly to the conference must remit the payment one month in advance by the 20th of every month. Accounts are past due if not received by the 20th and if two payments are due on the 20th of any month, a letter will be sent to the individual with notification of insurance cancellation. In addition, an attempt will be made to schedule a meeting with the participant and a member of the conference staff to explain the termination of coverage. Any account that is two payments past due will be terminated if payment has not been received in the conference office by the end of the month. The termination date will be retroactive to the first of the month of unpaid premium.

If anyone in the above categories has extenuating circumstances which prevent them from making timely payments, a hearing may be scheduled with the conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits to appeal the scheduled termination and request a payment plan.

This policy will be effective July 1, 2009.

RETIREE MEDICAL LIABILITY

In 2002 the North Texas Conference took initial steps to establish a plan to fund our liability for promised retiree health insurance benefits. An update to the Retiree Medical Liability Funding Plan may be found in Section IX., LA 16 (2008 Journal). We continue to be confident that we will be able to provide the benefits promised to our retirees and spouses as well as our active participants.

Independent Auditor's Report

Council on Finance and Administration
North Texas Conference of The United Methodist Church

We have audited the accompanying combined statements of assets, liabilities, and net assets-modified cash basis of the North Texas Conference of The United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2011 and 2010 and the related combined statements of receipts, disbursements, and other changes in net assets-modified cash basis for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Conference treasurer. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note 1, the Conference prepares its financial statements on the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities, and net assets of the North Texas Conference of The United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2011 and 2010, and its receipts, disbursements, and other changes in net assets for the years then ended, on the modified cash basis of accounting.

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the combined financial statements taken as a whole. The supplemental information is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. In our opinion, is fairly presented in all material respects in relation to the combined financial statements taken as a whole.

INSURANCE ADVISORY TASKFORCE REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Presented to the NTC Council on Finance and Administration on March 8, 2012

Since January 1, 2005, property and liability insurance for all churches in the North Texas United Methodist Conference has been provided by the United Methodist Church owned captive insurance company, UMPACT (United Methodist Property and Casualty Trust). As of October 1, 2011, ownership of UMPACT changed from a group owned captive to a single parent owner and is now known as UMI (United Methodist Insurance).

Since its inception this program has provided the churches within the North Texas Conference with broad coverage, low deductibles, and competitive rates. Effective October 1, 2011, however, due to severely adverse loss experience, the renewal program changed dramatically. The deductibles under the property insurance went from $1,000 on all losses to 2% of building value (subject to a $50,000 maximum) per building on wind, tornado, and hail losses; and a tiered deductible based on building value from $1,000 to $10,000 for all other losses. Additionally, the conference premium increased by approximately 20%.

After learning just how potentially damaging the new program could be, a number of churches expressed concerns and inquired if something could not be done. In response to these concerns the Insurance Advisory Team (IAT) was formed to analyze the situation and make recommendations. When negotiating changes in the UMI program came to no avail, the IAT solicited an alternative program proposal from McQueary, Henry, Boles, Troy of Dallas (MHBT), a highly respected agency with extensive experience insuring church groups.

MHBT brought in a very competitive program which reduces the total annual cost by a little more than $800,000. The coverage under this program is at least equal to or broader than UMI's in every line of insurance. Due to the conference's adverse loss experience though, MHBT's deductibles are just as high as or higher than UMI's. Therefore, it has become obvious if the individual churches are to retain a deductible that is manageable in the event of a loss, the conference would have to subsidize the difference. To accomplish this, a deductible loss fund must be established, funded, maintained and managed by the conference.

MHBT has projected the retained losses within the deductibles to be $746,000 under the UMI program, and $882,000 under MHBT program. These projections are based on the conference's actual average losses excluding the best and worst years since 2005. The actual losses could be well in excess of these or better than these projections, there is simply no way to know. This then presents a large liability to the conference which must be funded. This is where the premium savings of $800,000+ accomplished through the MHBT program became absolutely compelling.

By continuing to bill and collect from the churches the present UMI program premium and then paying the lower MHBT premium, this difference in premium could then be used to finance, at least in part, the loss fund. Due to the approaching storm season and no sustainable source of funding to help our churches recover from losses under the high deductibles, the Insurance Advisory Team recommended the conference make every effort to make the change to MHBT by April 1, 2012 when the next premium payment would be due and the then negotiated premiums would expire.

It is important to note that had the UMI program been retained, the losses within the deductibles would have to be paid in addition to the program premium. The conference would have had to add an additional $800,000 to the UMI premium, or raise it through increased apportionments to provide a safety net for our churches experiencing wind and hail losses, so that they may continue to carry on with their ministry.

In future years, we hope to be able to provide premium relief to our churches through efforts in risk avoidance. The combination of higher deductibles and risk avoidance education should result in lower premiums. In recent years our claims history has been high; we need to reduce it, and a significant portion of the proposed program is directed toward this effort.

While doing our work, we uncovered some additional needs. One of these is to increase our liability coverage and this is included in our recommendation. Another discovery was that unlisted vehicles were not covered; we are also including this coverage in our recommendation. Finally, we also discovered that we will need to establish an equitable and sustainable formula for billing churches. This will take a while to develop and much longer to fully implement.

The recommendations made to and approved by CFA are as follows:

1. That MHBT be selected as the broker to provide all of the conference insurance beginning April 1, 2012.
2. That the premium of $4,997,370 remain in effect as the annual premium through April 1, 2013 with the premium savings of $800,000 applied to the conference administered loss fund.
3. That the IAT work with CFA to develop guidelines and to properly fund the deductible subsidy program.
4. That MHBT be employed to administer the deductible subsidy plan at cost but not to exceed $75,000 for the next 12 months or until other action is taken
5. That the Insurance Advisory Team be reinstated as a standing Insurance Advisory Committee with oversight of the negotiation of the premiums and administration of the program, reporting directly to CFA.
6. That the Insurance Advisory Team be made up of persons with extensive property and liability insurance experience who also have no conflict of interest serving on this team.
7. That an aggressive loss control program be initiated in which every church and ministry in the annual conference receives an onsite visit and report from a licensed, accredited loss control specialist.
8. That the UMI partnered Safe Sanctuary program be replaced by the MHBT partnered MinistrySafe program, to provide protection from sexual misconduct on the part of our pastors, staff and volunteers.

CONFERENCE COMMUNICATIONS REPORT

The Communications Ministry of the North Texas Annual Conference was very productive this annual conference year. Our media outreach extended across the annual conference and beyond to the mission field. Our overall goal was empowerment of the United Methodists of North Texas with compelling media that impacted the mission field to make more disciples for Jesus Christ.

We empowered the United Methodists of North Texas by conducting “Media Transformation” workshops in three districts. A total of 300 lay persons were trained in social media, internet marketing, advertising and print media.

We created compelling media products in the form of “New Vision New Voices”—the North Texas edition of the “United Methodist Reporter” newspaper. Twice per month this publication presented activities and events from our annual conference. This newspaper entered a national media competition sponsored by United Methodist Communications, and won two awards for "best journalism" and "best design."

We also created compelling media in the form of our video newscast, "NTC News", which went on the road this year and taped editions in Little Elm, Texas and Tampa, Florida. "NTC News" was formatted for viewing on the web and on smart phones, giving North Texas United Methodists the ability to share the good news of our conference with others in two formats. A total of five editions were produced this year, and are stored on the annual conference website.

We reached out to North Texas United Methodists and beyond to the mission field with our Advent and Easter advertising campaigns. Both campaigns partnered with several established communication entities such as Radio Disney, "The Dallas Morning News", Google and Facebook. The campaigns brought the secular audience to our website and provided information about Advent and Easter events in our churches. There was an enthusiastic response by our churches. There were 150 churches involved with the Advent campaign, and 180 churches involved with the Easter campaign.

Our most deliberate outreach to the mission field was our re-designed website which features a section for those persons who are not United Methodists, and may not be Christians. We offer invitational, non-judgmental information to persons who are searching and seeking God and assistance with critical issues of life. The re-designed website also features enhanced displays of the four ministry centers and offers easier access to information about our annual conference.

The Communications team made two international visits this year to South Africa and Liberia. Bishop Bledsoe's visit to the World Methodist Conference in Durban, South Africa was transmitted back to North Texas via video and articles on our website. Bishop Bledsoe's visit to the Liberian annual conference was also recorded, photographed and shared with North Texas. Additionally, we conducted training sessions with the Communications Team of Liberia.

The Communications Team includes Wil Murphy-media consultant, Linda Johnson-UMR associate editor, Patrick Steil-webmaster, Rosalinda Luna- administrative assistant.

RECOMMENDATIONS FROM THE NEHEMIAH GROUP TO RE-VISION ANNUAL CONFERENCE FOR NORTH TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Our Charge from the Bishop: To evaluate, assess and re-vision the experience of Annual Conference for the North Texas Annual Conference.

The Nehemiah Group evaluated Annual Conference in three operational categories: 1) structure,

2) execution, and 3) process. We defined "success," evaluated the present status of Annual Conference, and created a template for a renewed Annual Conference experience. We assessed the 2011 Annual Conference for effectiveness and clergy and laity involvement.

We also explored the history of Annual Conference as a United Methodist experience in an effort to reveal its original mission and purpose.

Philosophical Statement: We believe an institution's success depends on both clarity of mission and a model that affirms and advances that clearly stated mission. The mission must describe the fundamental purpose of the institution, while the model is the strategy used by the institution to achieve that purpose.

Models commonly lose relevance and effectiveness over time. When that happens, organizations, often unintentionally, attach their allegiance to their model rather than their mission. When the effectiveness of their model is challenged, institutions often protect their model at the expense of their mission. We believe that this dynamic has and is impacting the Annual Conference experience in the NTC.

At its inception, the Annual Conference experience served and supported a clearly defined mission and purpose. Over time, as the model has become dated, it no longer effectively supports its original purpose. Rather than evaluating and reworking the model, the NTC has protected it. We believe that our mission must be non-negotiable; but our model must be perpetually negotiable in order to insure its effectiveness.

In our initial assessment of our present Annual Conference experience, we believe that:

I. Presently, we have either forgotten or ignored a clearly defined mission statement for Annual Conference
II. Presently, we have no real evaluation tool with which to measure the effectiveness of our experience.

Our assessment of Annual Conference 2011 includes the following strengths and weaknesses:

Weaknesses

1. Audio/visual production quality was substandard. Overall production quality felt substandard.
2. The event was consistently behind schedule.
3. Legislative portions and program presentations were poorly integrated.
4. The quality of the content in the presentations and the quality of the presenters/communicators of those presentations were not congruent.
5. The environment did not honor and facilitate fellowship.
6. We found no stated purpose, and identified no clear objective or tool with which to measure success of the event.
7. The event lacked an intentional strategy for hospitality.
8. There was no logical, strategic, or emotional flow for the event (for example, the ending was a downer.)
9. There were few opportunities to be inspired to strategically fulfill our mission.
10. The agenda was overrun by insignificant minutiae.

Strengths

1. The episcopal address was strategic, compelling, and needed.
2. The retirement speeches, in general, reflected nostalgia and tradition.

3. The clergy session worship experience at Munger Place reflected the type of intentional integration of inspirational worship that can partner with mundane legislative protocol.
4. The Ordination Worship experience was meaningful.
5. The Memorial Service was meaningful.
6. The event promoted sharing of stories of transformation from around the NTC.
7. The hospitality planned and delivered at Christ Church was exemplary.
8. The Core Leadership Team video was positive.

History: As our denomination flourished in its early form across England and America, Annual Conference has served a number of different roles with the primary goal of uniting people for the larger mission of the church. The first conferences were comprised of those invited by John Wesley and served to clarify the mission, theology, and structure of the early Methodist movement. In America, the early conferences were comprised solely of itinerant clergy working to keep the infant denomination together and on track for the larger mission. As Conference developed, it had three primary aims: polity, fraternity, and revival. Annual Conference was the norm around which Methodist clergy (and eventually laity) organized their lives and friendships, and were inspired towards the future of the church as they lived out their common mission.

Each of these aspects remains in the life of Annual Conference, but many happen outside of the current structure of the annual gathering. No longer, for instance, do clergy or laity attend Conference to discover where clergy will be appointed for the following year. Polity and the business of Conference fill much of the agenda, but Conference is increasingly preoccupied with previously-decided business. Friendships develop at Conference, but primarily on the fringes, in the hallways of Conference. And while Conference is filled with times of worship, many participants do not attend. Few of these worship opportunities are intended for "revival." Remnants of the earlier rationale remain, but in a rote and ritualized configuration.

The Nehemiah Group looked at ways that other Annual Conferences "do Conference" differently as well. There are 62 United Methodist Annual Conferences in the United States. These Annual Conferences provided a frame of reference for how Annual Conference is managed in other areas around the country. These "case studies" provided the Nehemiah Group with numerous ideas for how Annual Conference in the North Texas Conference can be re-invented to be exemplary.

The process, structure, and execution of the Indiana Annual Conference was particularly compelling to our team. Bishop Bledsoe's colleague on the Council of Bishops, Bishop Mike Coyner, confirmed that the Indiana Annual Conference format was one that they were particularly proud of and was constructed with great intentionality. In addition to compelling programming and coordinated productions, the Indiana Annual Conference featured an "Implementation Team" that included coordinators in the following categories: prayer, worship, hospitality, Conference briefings, staging and technology among others.

The Nehemiah Group did additional research by participating in Catalyst, a nationally renowned and powerful gathering of Christian leaders, influencers and world changers who love Jesus Christ. At Catalyst, the team observed a high-energy event where participants gathered to learn, worship, and create together with a momentous passion. The team witnessed Kingdom ambassadors, change agents, influencers, and cultural architects seeking to change churches, communities, and cultures for God. This event inspired us to suggest programming for our Annual Conference that reflects our original purpose and stimulates making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

As a conclusion to our evaluations, we propose the following list of priorities/values as staples for a renewed Annual Conference gathering. In this list, we have included those priorities that we must have in order to reenergize the event:

Mission Statement: To celebrate time-honored Conference purposes and traditions in meaningful ways, honor legislative procedures with efficiency, and offer content that will advance our mission by inspiring and educating all Conference attendees, enabling them to enhance leadership and ministry in our local churches.

1. Quality Production: As stewards of the resources it takes to fund the event, and as stewards of the time sacrificed by its participants, we believe that the production value of Annual Conference should be world-class. The best and brightest laity within our churches can and do expect quality production.

2. Pace and flow: A well-organized and executed conference should demand attention to detail of the pace and flow of the event. Agenda items and events should be paired together in a more deliberate and intentional fashion to insure logical flow and inspirational moments throughout.

3. Inspiring Presenters: Great public communication is essential for a meaningful event. We believe that the NTC ought to give platform priority to world-class, inspiring communicators.

4. Great Music: We believe that great music (of multiple genres) strategically placed throughout the program (of multiple genres) is essential to the establishment of a compelling Conference environment.

5. Fun: We believe that the participants of Annual Conference will learn more, contribute more, and be more inspired for the future in an environment that acknowledges a spirit of fun.

6. Valuable Content: We believe that we can be more intentional about the content included in the myriad presentations and take-home material of Annual Conference. We believe that our content should not be limited to routine and required presentation, but should also include: best practices for the local churches and ministries; compelling presentations of the Gospel; information about institutional and mission promotion.

7. Creativity: We believe that planning for Annual Conference should demand a comprehensive consideration of creativity in its organization, production, and execution.

8. Inspiring Worship: We believe that strategic moments of profound and inspiring worship are non-negotiable components of a meaningful Annual Conference experience.

9. Participation: We believe that Annual Conference should be an environment that invites and facilitates active participation from its attendees.

Having identified the priority elements of a meaningful Annual Conference experience, the Nehemiah Group makes the following recommendations in order to insure integration of our stated values and mission statement.

We hereby recommend that:

1. The conference office transition the planning, production, and execution of Annual Conference to a third-party task force—including a professional event planner, with the sole objective of planning a meaningful experience anchored by the above priorities.

2. The task force integrates the above priorities as it celebrates the NTC's time-honored traditions in meaningful and inspiring ways.
3. The task force pursues nationally- and globally-recognized keynote speakers.
4. The task force pursues a single location that can accommodate the entire event and better facilitate an environment of fellowship.
5. The task force integrates worship into the fabric of our legislative and presentation sessions rather than as stand-alone, off-site experiences.
6. The task force explores greater participation of vendors and vendor fees and participant registration fees in order to increase revenue and insure quality production.
7. The task force collaborates with NTC officials to reduce the volume of mid-Conference presentations by off-loading applicable reports to district conferences and electronic distribution and increase the volume of teaching and inspirational sessions throughout.
8. The task force creates a specific evaluation process and team to thoroughly evaluate every session.
9. The task force thoughtfully brands, markets and promotes the event in advance, with particular attention to keynote speakers and music guests.
10. The task force crafts and uses language that suggests the leadership and learning benefits of Annual Conference over and above its reporting and business protocol.

C.C. YOUNG MEMORIAL HOME

C. C. Young was chartered in 1922 in South Dallas where Methodist Hospital now stands. In the fall of 1919, Reverend Christopher Conley Young finished his sermon at the Tyler Street Methodist church in Dallas, stepped down to greet new members and met his fate. An elderly woman of 85, who had no money, no relatives, and no place to go, asked for his help in finding her a place to live. Reverend Young was so moved by her plight that he resigned his pastorate in 1920, with the blessing of the North Texas Conference, and for the next five years undertook the task of establishing a home for aged women by securing funds and developing an interest in building a retirement home. The Conference was so moved by his unwavering dedication to this cause that they carried out his plans and changed the name to the C. C. Young Memorial Home, the first Methodist facility for the elderly in Texas.

Since then, C. C. Young has developed into a premier retirement community offering a constellation of services to older adults in the Dallas community and is located on a 20-acre wooded campus across from the beautiful White Rock Lake. C. C. Young continues to live by their mission to work with others to transform our complementary service responses to the aged and through collaboration to intensify and broaden their programs and services so that each individual may flourish in body, mind and spirit.

C. C. Young has made a lot of changes and if you drive down Mockingbird Lane across from White Rock Lake you are sure to see them. The newest residential living building, The Overlook, has changed the landscape of the C. C. Young campus. This beautiful new building can be seen from several vantage points in the area including White Rock Lake. There are ten different floor plans in The Overlook and many of them include views of the downtown Dallas skyline, the North Park skyline, or of White Rock Lake.

The construction of The Overlook also led to the transformation of the center of campus where the "B" building, the last remaining building where Blanton Gardens once stood, into a lovely community park adjacent to The Overlook. Built with generous donations from the Charles C. Blaylock Memorial Fund, C. C. Young's new Central Park and meditation labyrinth has become a soothing place on campus where residents can sit in peace and listen to the birds chirp. In addition to the beautiful plants and trees C. C. Young's new park will soon be home to a one of a kind memorial walk where residents and family members will be able to purchase engraved bricks in memory of their loved ones.

For 90 years C. C. Young has brought its Vision and Mission to not only those who live, thrive and grow at C. C. Young, but to their surrounding Dallas neighbors. C. C. Young kicked off their 90th Birthday and Anniversary Year Celebrations on March 16, 2012, with over 100 residents all aged 90 or better. The birthday event included a slide show presentation of C. C. Young's history, hymn sing along, and a delicious birthday cake. One particular resident, Mary Schumacher, age 103 and the oldest resident at C. C. Young took pleasure in cutting the cake and shared her memories of C. C. Young. The events' honorary guest, Dr. Don R. Benton, led the devotional and hymn sing along.

Dr. Don R. Benton has been a remarkable inspiration to the growth of C. C. Young. Dr. Benton currently holds the position of C. C. Young's Director of Pastoral Care and he is the Chairman of the Body, Mind and Spirit Foundation Board at C. C. Young. Dr. Benton along with the Pastoral Care staff, Reverend Jan Sullivan, Assistant Coordinator of Pastoral Care, and Reverend Kathy Betz, Hospice Chaplin, offer valuable support to residents and their families during difficult times and present help and caring to the entire community.

These individuals along with dedicated staff, volunteers, residents and supporters enable C. C. Young to achieve their mission. In 2011 C. C. Young triumphed over the following significant accomplishments. C. C. Young's 11th Annual Art Event showcased 156 works of art created by Dallas artists aged 55 or better, C. C. Young had over 200 Veterans and their spouses in attendance at their annual Veterans' Day Luncheon, C. C. Young's first National Wii Bowling Team, the "Young Strikers" made it to the Senior League National Playoff tournament, C. C. Young's Residential Living Facilities hosted 17 social hours and 20 day trips, and C. C. Young's Blanton Assisted Living Facility received zero deficiencies for their Annual Life Safety Code and Nursing Survey.

C. C. Young would like to thank every individual, foundation, community group, church and collaborative organization for devoting their time and talents to the residents at C. C. Young. Over 2,300 people volunteered giving more than 16,000 volunteer service hours to C. C. Young in 2011. C. C. Young's accomplishments and progress in 2011 would not have happened without their support.

GOLDEN CROSS

Mission Statement: "Golden Cross is a faith-based program of Methodist Health System and the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church. Its purpose is to provide health care to persons who cannot afford it." (Revised, November 2005) The mission of Golden Cross is to revolutionize the delivery of health care for the neediest members of the North Texas community.

Background: For over 86 years, Golden Cross has been a powerful ministry at Methodist Dallas Medical Center, serving the entire North Texas Conference. Founders of the Golden Cross ministry united the North Texas Conference and Methodist Dallas Medical Center in a partnership dedicated to the vision of providing free medical care. Golden Cross brings together Methodist congregations, dedicated physicians, and caring individuals to provide medical care for those in need. As the needs of the community have changed in recent years, so, too, has the Golden Cross ministry. Through resourceful initiatives such as the Golden Cross Academic Clinic of Methodist Dallas Medical Center, the program has expanded to serve thousands of North Texas residents.

Guided by the original vision of mission and health care ministry, the Board of the Golden Cross Division of Methodist Health System Foundation is charged with governing and directing the Golden Cross ministry. The Golden Cross Board is comprised of dedicated clergy and lay members of congregations throughout the North Texas Conference.

Expansion of Benefits for North Texas Conference: In 2005, the Golden Cross Board voted to modify how the changing needs of communities served by Golden Cross are addressed, while broadening the reach of its ministry within the North Texas Conference. Recognizing that changes in government funding of healthcare for the poor and elderly would require changes in Golden Cross policy, the Board implemented several new programs in order to more efficiently address the increasing crisis of the uninsured and underinsured.

MedAssist: To expand the reach of Golden Cross and better leverage available funds, the Board considered two major health challenges for uninsured residents in the North Texas Conference: high prescription drug prices and chronic disease management. As its first new program, in 2006 the Board unanimously recommended that all available Golden Cross funds be allocated to the development of a prescription medication program. The MedAssist program serves patients of the Golden Cross Academic Clinic of Methodist Dallas Medical Center. Through this revolutionary prescription delivery program, qualified patients receive medications at no cost.

Golden Cross also provides social services, nutrition services, and education programs to help patients remain well and active in the workplace and the community. Short-term counseling services are provided as needed to help patients learn better ways to cope with chronic illness.

Over 3,900 patients have received free services and medication through MedAssist and other Golden Cross programs since their inception. Golden Cross is making a difference in the quality of life of each patient.

Congregational Nurses: The Golden Cross Board also voted to provide funding to the Golden Cross Academic Clinic for its Congregational Health Ministry. In partnership with North Texas Conference churches and other area churches, the Congregational Health Ministry works to improve the physical and spiritual health of the community of faith by providing guidance, sharing resources, and assisting church leaders with congregational wellness needs.

Prenatal Program: In October 2009, the Life Shines Bright Pregnancy Program was initiated. This exciting, innovative program provides comprehensive care and support to patients at risk for pre-term delivery. Patients are recruited for the Life Shines Bright Pregnancy Program through community outreach seminars held monthly at area churches. Those who are assessed as at risk for pre-term delivery are then referred to physicians through the Golden Cross Academic Clinic. High-risk patients from the Los Barrios Clinic are also eligible for the program. A bilingual nurse practitioner and prenatal health care educator administer the program. To date, the statistical improvement in outcomes has been dramatic.

West Side Clinic—Collin County Adult Clinic: In August 2011, the Golden Cross Board approved funding for the Golden Cross Academic Clinic clinical and health education staff to provide short-term diabetes education to patients at the West Side Clinic in Plano, TX, a ministry of St. Andrew United Methodist Church. Two series of four-week diabetes education classes were held from August-November, 2011, at no cost to patients. In addition, the Golden Cross Academic Clinic staff provided diabetes education training to clinical staff at the West Side Clinic, to ensure long-term delivery of this health education service. A new class series began in January 2012 with trained volunteers at the West Side Clinic.

Oversight: The Golden Cross Board reviews each program annually in order to determine highest priority and best use of available funds. The Board takes seriously its responsibility to successfully manage the sacred trust of donors. Golden Cross needs the support of the entire North Texas Conference to realize its mission. Each church is encouraged to maintain or commit to a pledge of one dollar ($1.00) per member per year.

The Future: The goal and mission of Golden Cross is to grow and strengthen its ministries in the visionary spirit of its founders. Exciting cooperative opportunities to expand the capabilities of the Golden Cross ministry into underserved geographic areas of the North Texas Conference are in development.

Call for More Information: To access these services, please call the Golden Cross Academic Clinic at 214-947-6700.

The mission of Golden Cross answers the call of Christ, "Heal the sick…Freely you have received; freely give" (Matthew 10:8). Through the prayers and generous support of the North Texas Conference, Golden Cross will continue its ministry to those in need of quality health care.

METHODIST CHILDREN'S HOME

Greetings from Methodist Children's Home (MCH) and the more than 1,400 children we serve. As MCH continues to discover innovative and effective ways to offer hope to children, youth and families through our nurturing, Christian community, we are grateful for the support of our benefactors and friends from the North Texas Annual Conference.

The historic connection between MCH and the United Methodist churches from Texas and New Mexico has helped care for thousands of children from tough places in life. As we do every three years, we ask that the North Texas Annual Conference join MCH in reaffirming our Statement of Covenant Relationship as part of this report. A copy of the statement follows this report.

Our friends and benefactors can be confident that MCH is working to find the highest and best use of the resources entrusted to us. Evidence of this commitment can be seen in our recent completion of two comprehensive accreditation assessments by the Council on Accreditation (COA) and Coalition for Residential Education (CORE). I am proud of the hard work by our staff, Board of Directors and volunteers who took on these duties in addition to their daily responsibilities serving our children. I am honored to report that MCH was found to be in compliance with, and in many cases to have exceeded, best practice standards established by these two national accrediting organizations.

In addition to ensuring the highest and best use of the resources entrusted to us, MCH has been hard at work accomplishing goals produced by our five-year strategic plan. I invite each member of the annual conference to visit our website at www.methodistchildrenshome.org to view our strategic plan or call MCH at (800) 853-1272 to have a copy mailed for your review. The priorities and goals of our strategic plan will enable our ministry to increase its impact on children and families across Texas and New Mexico. One of our goals is to develop new opportunities for MCH to work with churches to help meet needs in their communities and congregations. During this process, we received valuable input from our Commissioners, a group of clergy and laypersons who serve as advocates for MCH in their local churches.

Guided by our core values of Christian Principles, Relationships, Responsibility, Growth, Service and Hope, MCH is committed to providing the services, programs and talented individuals needed to positively impact the young people in our care. This is happening every day through residential campuses in Waco and Waxahachie and at our Boys Ranch, as well as through our Dallas Outreach Office and the Wesley Rankin Community Center that serve the North Texas Annual Conference.

In addition to the accomplishments listed above, your support also empowered MCH to:

- Graduate 53 high school seniors in 2011. Thanks to our many friends, we were able to allocate more than $500,000 for MCH alumni to pursue a college or advanced degree, a certificate at a trade school, or job-related training that will help them improve their families and our communities.
- Cultivate a relationship with Dr. Karyn Purvis and Dr. David Cross of Texas Christian University's Institute of Child Development to provide insight into exciting new methods and techniques to interact with children through Trust-Based Relational Intervention (TBRI).
- Celebrate academic success for a number of our children and youth. Fifty-four students from the Waco campus and Boys Ranch were named to academic honor rolls and 29 earned a "commended" score on the TAKS test.

- Expand our competitive athletics and Ag Science/FFA programs. This included the addition of a football field on our Waco campus and increased participation of young ladies from the Waco campus in FFA projects at the Boys Ranch.
- Recognize the great work of 79 staff with employee service awards. All honorees had at least three years of service, and nine employees celebrated 20 or more years with our ministry.
- Participate in mission trips and community service projects that enabled MCH youth to show Christ's love by meeting needs across Texas.

Our achievements in the past, and those yet to come, are directly related to the men and women who give their time, talents and resources to bless our children. We are grateful to Dr. J. Clayton Oliphint of First UMC in Richardson and Mrs. Betty Vilven of First UMC in Plano who recently completed their service on the MCH Board of Directors, and current Board members Dr. Ouida Lee of Church of the Disciple in DeSoto and Mr. Scott Wallace of Highland Park UMC in Dallas.

These individuals, along with the MCH Commissioners and benefactors, enable our ministry to achieve our mission. On behalf of Methodist Children's Home, thank you for sharing our story in your churches and communities. If you would like to schedule a speaker, arrange a tour or need resources to help MCH promote an offering, contact Trey Oakley, vice president for development, at 1111 Herring Avenue, Waco, Texas 76708 or by phone at (254) 750-1213 or (800) 853-1272. I also encourage you to visit our website to download stories and resources to help educate your congregation about our ministry.

Thank you for your continued trust and support of our ministry. May God bless you and Methodist Children's Home.

Tim Brown, President/CEO
Methodist Children's Home

STATEMENT OF COVENANT RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN METHODIST CHILDREN'S HOME AND THE NORTH TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

This is a statement of the relationship between Methodist Children's Home (MCH) and the North Texas Annual Conference, hereinafter referred to as "The Conference".

I. PURPOSE, MISSION, AND GOALS OF METHODIST CHILDREN'S HOME

The purpose of Methodist Children's Home is the charitable care and ministration for children residing within the bounds of the patronizing Annual Conferences of the United Methodist Church. To carry out this purpose the Board of Directors shall have the authority and responsibility to develop and direct a program of child care which shall effectively meet the needs of the children served. This program may include institutional care, foster home care, group home services, residential treatment for emotionally disturbed children and youth, social services for children in their homes, and any other services which the Board of Directors shall deem appropriate in meeting the needs of children and youth.

METHODIST CHILDREN'S HOME MISSION STATEMENT

METHODIST CHILDREN'S HOME GOALS

In order to accomplish the above stated mission, Methodist Children's Home has an obligation to recognize and share the spiritual values that make Christian child care unique. Therefore, MCH shall strive to create a nurturing, Christian community for our young people, staff and benefactors that:

1. Applies the principles of the Christian faith which serve as the foundation for this ministry;
2. Builds healthy relationships through communication, respect, trust and love;
3. Fosters accountability for self and others;
4. Provides opportunities for spiritual, emotional, physical and intellectual development;
5. Shows compassion through generosity and care; and
6. Believes in the possibilities of the future.

II. BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND MANAGEMENT

Methodist Children's Home shall be governed and managed by a Board of Directors selected from members of the United Methodist Church in the following patronizing Conferences of the United Methodist Church, to wit: Texas Conference, North Texas Conference, Northwest Texas Conference, Central Texas Conference, Southwest Texas Conference, Rio Grande Conference, and New Mexico Conference. All references herein to "patronizing Annual Conferences" shall be to those seven Conferences, and such Annual Conferences as may hereafter become patronizing Annual Conferences. The Board of Directors shall govern and manage the MCH on the basis of the MCH's best interests.

Should any of the patronizing Conferences at any time desire to withdraw as such, then such patronizing Conferences shall cease to elect representatives as members of the Board of Directors and shall no longer be included in the definition of "patronizing annual conference" for purpose of the Statement of Covenant Relationship. Should any additional Conferences desire to become patronizing Conferences, they may become such by making application, in the manner prescribed by the Board of Directors, providing a majority of the Board of Directors shall vote to accept such Conferences.

The Board of Directors of the corporation shall be constituted or elected as prescribed in the Bylaws. The Bylaws presently provide as follows:

Tenure and Qualifications. The Board of Directors of the corporation (each member of which shall be entitled to vote) shall consist of twenty members (unless changed by reason of a change in the number of patronizing Annual Conferences) and shall be appointed, elected or determined as follows:

A. One representative, either a minister or a layperson, from each patronizing Annual Conference, shall be nominated by the Bishop of such patronizing Annual Conference and approved by such patronizing Annual Conference. Any vacancy occurring on the Board of Directors with respect to such a member shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term by nomination by the Bishop of such patronizing Annual Conference and approval by such patronizing Annual Conference.

B One active Bishop from among the patronizing Annual Conferences shall be elected by a majority vote of the Bishops of the patronizing Annual Conferences. Any vacancy occurring on the Board of Directors with respect to such position shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term by a majority vote of the Bishops of the patronizing Annual Conferences.

C. The serving chairperson of the MCH Commissioners, or any successor to such body, shall automatically serve. Any vacancy occurring on the Board of Directors by virtue of a vacancy in such position shall not be filled, but shall remain vacant until the successor to such vacant position is duly qualified, at which time such successor shall become a member of the Board of Directors.

D. Eleven Directors at Large from the territory of the patronizing Annual Conferences, either ministers or lay members of the United Methodist Church, shall be elected by the Board of Directors of Methodist Children's Home after considering the nominations proposed by the Nominating Committee hereinafter described; provided, that the election of each Director at Large shall be effective only after approval or confirmation by the patronizing Annual Conference of the location in which such Director at Large resides. Such nominations and Board election with respect to expiring terms shall take place at the regular meeting of the Board of Directors of MCH held in February of the calendar year in which the terms of the Directors at Large which are to be filled expire, or if there is no such meeting in February of such year, then in the regular meeting in such year held nearest to February. Any vacancy occurring on the Board of Directors with respect to one or more of the members elected at large whose term has not yet expired shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by the Board of Directors at any regular meeting after considering nominations proposed by the Nominating Committee.

E. Each Director shall be appointed or elected for a term of three years and shall hold office until his or her successor has been elected and qualified, or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal from office by the Board of Directors.

F. No Director shall be eligible to serve more than three consecutive three-year terms as a Director. Following a period of maximum service under this provision, the duration of that former Director's ineligibility shall last for three years. Former Directors may retain or be elected to membership on any one (but not more than one) committee of the Board without tenure limitations.

G. Should any patronizing Annual Conference cease to be such, then the representative from such patronizing Annual Conference appointed in accordance with paragraph A above shall immediately cease to be a Director. The total number of Directors shall decrease accordingly and the affairs of MCH shall be governed and managed by the remaining members of the Board.

III. RELATIONSHIP

Methodist Children's Home is related through a common religious heritage and a common commitment to Christian service to The Conference. The Conference, recognizing this shared commitment, annually authorizes and promotes a special offering in each local church for the support of MCH. The Conference assumes no other financial responsibility for MCH. In return for the encouragement of financial support for MCH by the Conferences, MCH submits an annual audit to The Conference. Any time a gift is given directly to MCH and the gift is designated for credit to a local church, MCH shall forward notice to the Conference treasurer's office to ensure proper recording of the gift.

The Conference supports the mission of Methodist Children's Home by approving directors to serve on the MCH Board of Directors. The Board governs and manages on the basis of MCH's best interests. The Conference does not exercise any ownership or control over MCH and does not accept any legal or financial responsibility, other than the above-mentioned special offering, for MCH.

To keep the Conference informed about activities at Methodist Children's Home, MCH presents an annual report at the Annual Conference to be published in the Conference Journal, provides updates and presentations at conference and district meetings, prepares appropriate news releases, publishes the Sunshine magazine, and encourages tours of MCH facilities by local church groups and appearances in local churches by MCH staff members and residents.

MCH seeks accreditation of its program by outside accrediting bodies in order to assure the Conference of the quality of its program. Currently MCH is accredited by the Council on Accreditation of Services for Families and Children, Inc., and Coalition for Residential Education and is licensed by the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services.

Should Methodist Children's Home be dissolved, the assets would be distributed as set forth in the Distribution of Assets on Dissolution in ARTICLE XII of the Bylaws of MCH, revised, April, 2006, as follows:

> In conformity with the provisions of ARTICLE NINE of the Second Restated Articles of Incorporation of Methodist Children's Home, all assets of the corporation are pledged for use in performing the corporation's charitable functions, and upon discontinuance of the corporation by dissolution or otherwise, the assets that remain after the satisfaction of all liabilities and obligations shall be divided proportionately among the Annual Conferences of the United Methodist Church that are patronizing Annual Conferences of Methodist Children's Home at the time such distribution is made, and are also recognized as charitable organizations under Section 501(c)(3), Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, such distribution to be based upon the membership of each conference at the last annual report preceding the dissolution. Any assets so distributed shall be dedicated for use by each patronizing Annual Conference for the charitable care and ministration for children. Provided, however, that if any patronizing Annual Conference is not, at the time of such distribution, an organization that is qualified as a charitable organization under Section 501(c)(3), Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, then its share of such assets shall be distributed to one or more charitable organizations, recognized under Section 501(c)(3), Internal Revenue Code of 1986, engaged in child care or ministration and affiliated with the United Methodist Church.

IV. PERIODIC REVIEW

The provisions of this Covenant Relationship shall be reviewed and revised if needed every four years or more frequently if needed. The above Statement of Relationship has been approved by the respective bodies and its approval is attested.

METHODIST HEALTH SYSTEM

Through our covenant relationship between the North Texas Conference and Methodist Health System (Methodist), we proudly reaffirm that the care of the sick and injured, as well as the education of people to care for them, are important ministries for our community.

The Church and Methodist influence one another in many varied areas. Essential to the values and mission of Methodist Health System is our commitment to provide direct services on behalf of the Conference, such as pastoral care and educational opportunities, and to render charity services including those provided through the Golden Cross Program. We know these activities are designed to reflect our mutual continuing commitment to Christian life and learning. Central to that, the bishop, Methodist ministers, and laypersons carry out leadership roles on Methodist's governing and advisory committees. Another central philosophy to our mission is that Methodist Health System treats people from all walks of life with respect and dignity. At each facility, we strive to conduct our ministry of caring and healing in a compassionate way that brings recognition and credit to the United Methodist Church.

Methodist Dallas Medical Center is a 515-bed hospital located just southwest of downtown Dallas, which serves as the teaching and referral hospital of Methodist Health System. Among Methodist Dallas Medical Center's many areas of expertise are cancer treatment, cardiology, day surgery, emergency/trauma care, gastroenterology, intensive care, maternity, neonatal intensive care, neurosciences, orthopedics, outpatient services, radiology, transplantation, and urology. The Methodist Dallas Transplant Institute performed 109 transplants in 2011 and has done 2,909 procedures since its founding in 1981, including adult kidney, pancreas, and liver transplants. Methodist Dallas Medical Center made medical history in 1992 when it performed the world's first successful simultaneous heart-kidney-pancreas transplant.

Methodist Charlton Medical Center, with 309 beds, serves the residents of the suburban communities in southwest Dallas County. Methodist Charlton provides a variety of exceptional programs, including cancer treatment, cardiology, day surgery, emergency care, general medicine and surgical care, radiology, and women's services. In September 2009, Methodist Charlton completed an extensive $116 million renovation and expansion, adding a new patient bed tower, additional surgical services, and physician offices.

The 168-bed Methodist Mansfield Medical Center which opened in December 2006, offers high-quality care to the growing areas of Mansfield and the surrounding communities. Expansion in 2010 included a 36-bed medical-surgical unit, additional operating suites, and an expanded emergency department. Services include cancer treatment, cardiology, emergency care, gastroenterology, general surgery, intensive care, maternity, neurology, nephrology, obstetrics and gynecology, orthopedics, pulmonology, and radiology.

The 209-bed Methodist Richardson Medical Center was added in June 2009 and fully integrated into our ownership on October 1, 2011, as the newest in our family of facilities. This full-service general acute care community hospital includes a cancer center, accredited cycle III chest pain center, sleep disorder center, and center for women's health with digital mammography, fellowship-trained breast surgeon, and patient navigator. Specialty services at this facility include orthopedics, neurosurgery, and cardiology.

Methodist Family Health Centers now extend family health care and general medical services through 17 neighborhood locations in the Methodist service area. Methodist Midlothian Health Center offers diagnostic imaging to serve the needs of the growing Ellis County community. The 40-bed Methodist Rehabilitation Hospital, in affiliation with Centerre Healthcare, provides inpatient and outpatient physical rehabilitations services for patients recovering from traumatic brain injury, trauma, stroke, orthopedic surgery, and other conditions.

A partnership between Methodist and area physicians, the 16-bed Methodist McKinney Hospital opened in February 2010 to serve Collin County and surrounding areas. Methodist Hospital for Surgery in Addison is a joint venture in partnership with a physicians group opened in December 2010 and is a center of excellence for spine and orthopedic surgery and the only facility of its kind in North Texas.

In fiscal year 2011, Methodist Health System:

- Treated 43,292 adult and pediatric inpatients
- Delivered 7,125 babies
- Performed 9,148 inpatient and 7,006 day surgeries
- Treated 211,656 trauma and emergency room patients
- Recorded 27,086 visits in the teaching clinics
- Saw 80 physicians affiliated with Methodist recognized by D Magazine as "Top Docs in Dallas"
- Provided 3,250 mammograms via our mobile mammography program
- Trained more than 75 physician residents and hundreds of nursing and allied health training candidates
- Provided more than 6,300 prostate cancer screenings through community outreach
- Provided more than 130,000 pastoral visits via our chaplains of all faiths
- Offered nursing outreach to 60 churches in our service area in partnership with congregational nursing
- Received the highest number of gifts in 2011 ever contributed to our Foundation—19,260—for a 59 percent increase over 2010 gifts.

We present our commitment to the people in our community in part through the number of activities and services we provide. The beautifully renovated Methodist Dallas Medical Center Golden Cross Academic Clinic trains medical residents in obstetrics and gynecology, internal medicine, and general surgery, while providing quality care for disadvantaged families. Other important programs include: Senior Access, which provides health-related services and information to more than 37,000 area seniors; Methodist's Mobile Mammography program, which provides early detection and treatment for breast cancer to underserved women and has screened more than 35,000 women since 2000; the Methodist Prostate Cancer Screening and Awareness Program, which provides education and early detection for prostate cancer for minority men, and since 2000, has screened more than 66,000 men—more than any other hospital-based program in the U.S.; and Methodist's Congregational Health Ministry, which provides health resources to churches throughout our community. Methodist is also one of the founding members 34 years ago of CareFlite air and ground ambulance. Methodist annually exceeds the 5 percent charity care ratio required by the state for non-profit organizations. Our hospitals provided more than $82 million in uncompensated charity care in 2011.

Once again, Methodist Health System was honored this past year with an array of local, state and national acknowledgments, some of which include:

An ever-present and central part of the architecture of our hospitals is the cross at each one that symbolizes the Christian compassion and concern that are the daily standard of service for Methodist Health System. Methodist laypersons are encouraged to become active participants in the programs and services provided by the hospitals through auxiliary activities, participation in the volunteer services programs, or through service as a Golden Cross Advocate. Every United Methodist congregation is also urged to become an active participant in the Golden Cross Program by contributing one dollar per member annually. Together, with the North Texas Conference, Methodist Health System maintains a nearly century-long commitment to quality, compassionate health care and will continue to serve as a beacon of Christian caring throughout the region as we work daily to save and improve lives.

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Perkins marked centennial celebrations of the University's 1911 founding and 1915 opening with the publication in 2011 of Perkins School of Theology: A Centennial History by Joseph L. Allen, professor emeritus of Ethics.

In addition to celebrating a distinguished past, Perkins is moving toward a bright future. Effective student recruitment coupled with the lowest attrition rate in more than a decade led to double-digit annual growth in enrollment. United Methodists comprise 77% of our M.Div. cohort. Ten annual conferences in the South Central Jurisdiction provided funds which were matched by the Perkins Prothro Foundation to create endowments for students from their annual conferences. Resulting Perkins Annual Conference Endowment (PACE) grants from earnings on those endowments continue to provide financial aid annually. Twenty-seven United Methodist Annual Conferences are represented in our student body, plus five UMC-related conferences: Indonesia, Kenya, Korea, Malaysia and Singapore.

Dr. Brad Braxton was appointed Lois Craddock Perkins Professor of Homiletics and is the first African American to hold an endowed chair at SMU, effective June 2012. Dr. Heidi Anne Miller, assistant professor of Christian Worship, and Dr. Linn Marie Tonstad, assistant professor of Christian Theology, joined Perkins in 2011. Dr. Pablo Andiñach, professor of Old Testament at ISEDET in Buenos Aires and a distinguished Methodist leader in Argentina, is a visiting professor.

Alyce M. McKenzie was promoted to the George W. and Nell Ayers LeVan Endowed Chair of Preaching and Worship, named a recipient of SMU's 2011 Altshuler Distinguished Teaching Professor Award, and elected 2012 President of the Academy of Homiletics.

Bruce D. Marshall was appointed to the Edward and Emma Lehman Chair in Christian Doctrine. Marshall also became director of the Graduate Program in Religious Studies, combining the resources of Perkins and the department of religious studies in SMU's Dedman College for students who pursue the Ph.D.

Dr. Hugo Magallanes was appointed director of Center for the Study of Latino/a Christianity and Religion at Perkins.

Perkins recognized retirements of David Maldonado, Jr., Marjorie Procter-Smith, and Charles M. Wood. Wood, who serves on the UMC Committee on Faith and Order, was elected 2012–2013 president of the American Theological Society.

Perkins established the Center for Religious Leadership to provide training in the theology of leadership and practical skills for leadership.

Perkins sponsored "Listening For Our Common Mission: The Church and Theological Education at Perkins," a significant event attended by bishops, Board of Ministry chairpersons, and other conference leaders relating to leadership development and clergy recruitment from across the South Central Jurisdiction.

Saint Paul School of Theology is a seminary of the United Methodist Church that educates leaders to make disciples for Jesus Christ, renew the Church, and transform the world. We are one institution with two campuses, a free-standing seminary campus in Kansas City and a university partnership seminary on the campus of Oklahoma City University.

During the 2011–2012 academic year, 184 students from 14 annual conferences and 7 countries were enrolled in degree programs at Saint Paul School of Theology in Kansas City. Thirty-six students were enrolled in the Master of Divinity program at Saint Paul at Oklahoma City University. The Course of Study School at Saint Paul served 297 students at the Kansas City, Missouri, Springfield, Missouri, and Oklahoma City, Oklahoma locations.

The Resurrection Scholars program was founded on a partnership between Saint Paul School of Theology in Kansas City and the United Methodist Church of the Resurrection in Leawood, Kansas. A class was taught by Saint Paul faculty and COR pastors with special presentations from church staff on topics such as church leadership, stewardship, evangelism, governance, pastoral care, and discipleship. In addition, a small group of students were chosen as scholars who completed a 10 hour minimum weekly internship at COR, working in multiple areas of congregational life. The students were also assigned a pastoral mentor, had classes with Pastor Adam Hamilton, and met as a group to process the experience each week.

Saint Paul at OCU held its third LEAD seminar on the Oklahoma City University campus. The seminar focused on a variety of leadership topics including time management, spiritual formation, continuing education, and self-care and balance. The LEAD seminars are a collaborative educational project of the Oklahoma Area of the United Methodist Church, Oklahoma City University, and Saint Paul.

A Doctor of Ministry cohort track focusing on Revitalizing Congregations began January 2012. The track relates directly to the United Methodist Council of Bishops initiatives (the "Four Foci") for the Church. The Wesleyan Strategies for the Missional Church DMin track will begin January 2013. Lead faculty include Dr. Henry H. Knight III, Dr. Robert Martin, and Dr. F. Douglas Powe, Jr. In addition to the lead faculty, students will learn from pastors from some of today's most dynamic Wesleyan congregations.

The seminary will honor the Class of 1962 as its first 50 year class during its 51st Commencement Convocation in May. Bishop Teresa Snorton, the first female bishop elected by the CME Church, will speak.

The Saint Paul youTheology program, funded primarily by Lilly Endowment, Inc., is a program for high school youth to explore their faith and calling through worship, service, study, travel, and a mentoring relationship. Several youTheology graduates have become Saint Paul Master of Divinity students. In 2012, an MDiv student who was a part of the seminary's first group of youTheologians as a senior in high school will graduate from Saint Paul School of Theology.

The trustees, faculty, staff, and students of Saint Paul thank you for your interest, prayers and support.

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

As SMU celebrates the centennial of its founding in 1911 by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and its opening in 1915, the University continues to rise in national prominence. Highlights of the past year follow:

- SMU's total fall 2011 enrollment was 10,982, including 6,221 undergraduates and 4,761 graduate students. The ethnic minority enrollment made up 22.9 percent of the student body. The fall enrollment included a record number of 1,119 international students from 89 countries. Perkins School of Theology experienced an 11 percent enrollment increase, including students from 14 Annual Conferences.

- SMU's external awards for research and sponsored projects have increased significantly. During 2010-11, SMU received $21.6 million for research and sponsored projects, up from $16.5 million in 2008-09. In 2011 the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching raised SMU's classification to a research university with "high research activity."

- SMU Unbridled: The Second Century Campaign, launched in 2008, is the largest fund-raising effort in the University's history, with a goal of $750 million. At campaign midpoint in 2012, gifts totaling $574 million are providing funds for 231 scholarships; 22 endowed academic positions; 15 academic program endowments, including support for two schools and one academic department; and 16 new or renovated facilities.

- SMU will break ground in April 2012 for a new Residential Commons complex of five buildings to house an additional 1,250 students on campus. This will enable SMU to implement a sophomore residency requirement.

- A new Ph.D. program in art history, established in 2011, brings to 26 the fields offering doctorates at SMU. Among new academic programs, the Embrey Human Rights Program offers one of only five human rights majors in the nation.

- A new general education curriculum for undergraduates, to be implemented in fall 2012, is designed to prepare students for the demands of an increasingly interconnected global society, with renewed emphasis on ethics and courses with service-earning components.

- The George W. Bush Presidential Center, scheduled for completion in 2013, consists of a library, museum and independent institute. The Bush Institute has already begun programming with symposia on subjects including education, energy, literacy and economic opportunity for Afghan women. In 2011 the Institute was instrumental in bringing to the campus His Holiness the Dalai Lama to receive an honorary degree, present a public lecture and interact with SMU and high school students.

- SMU's centennial events in 2011 included a symposium on "The University and the City: Higher Education and the Common Good," at which Perkins Dean William B. Lawrence presented a concluding summary. Centennial publications include The Perkins School of Theology: A Centennial History by Professor Emeritus Joseph L. Allen.

SMU treasures its Methodist heritage, and we ask for your continued prayers and support.

TEXAS METHODIST FOUNDATION

The Texas Methodist Foundation experienced significant growth during 2011, increasing our assets and further clarifying how to gain the most leverage from those assets to help our United Methodist community discern and live out God's purposes for them. Given the continued decline of the Church, in both affiliation and influence, and the critical need for vital communities of faith in our increasingly polarized world, our financial strength is more important than ever: the more financially stable we are, the more effectively we will be able to achieve our mission "to empower the Church in the achievement of her God-appointed missions."

We ended 2011 with $384 million in assets under management, an $11 million increase from 2010. The significance of our growth, however, lies, ultimately, in the lives changed in local congregations across the state where our services helped enable ministry. The measure of success for our services—investments, loans, stewardship ministry, leadership ministry, and charitable services, including gift planning, church endowments, and grants—is in how effective they are at helping individuals and congregations fulfill God's purpose, as together we work to make Christ's love visible in the world.

The Texas Methodist Foundation, located in Austin, serves United Methodist individuals, churches and agencies within the five geographic annual conferences in Texas and the Rio Grande Conference of Texas and New Mexico. We appreciate the opportunity to report some of the ways we served United Methodists last year.

We are pleased to report the assistance we provided in 2011:

Within the North Texas Annual Conference:

- Loans from the Foundation to churches in the North Texas Annual Conference totaled $88.2 million.
- Churches and related agencies within the North Texas Annual Conference had $47.2 million invested with the Foundation's Methodist Loan Fund.

Throughout the state:

- As of December 31, 2011, total assets under management by the Foundation were approximately $384 million.
- Methodist Loan Fund investments grew overall, including new Individual Fund accounts of $2.8 million. Methodist Loan Fund investments support the Foundation's loan program which currently funds 442 loans to United Methodist churches and agencies. Our loan balance ended 2011 at $309,296,787.
- The TMF Leadership Ministry supported 49 pastors from the Texas annual conferences participating in 6 Clergy Development Groups. The Leadership Ministry also welcomed 7 District Superintendents from around the state and across the South Central Jurisdiction, and the 11 active Bishops serving in the South Central Jurisdiction who were involved in group processes. The Leadership Ministry continues to support an ongoing group of 39 District Superintendents. Senior pastors and laity from seven congregations participated in a Holy Conversations Communities of Learning, focusing on spiritually-based strategic planning. And more than 48 judicatory leaders, pastors and laity attended special gatherings of entrepreneurial leaders hosted by the Leadership Ministry, including a Gathering of those Dedicated to the Development of Church Leaders and a President's Advisory Council. The Leadership Ministry also hosted two think tanks—one for newly ordained pastors (14 participants) and one for clergy of Vital Congregations (14 participants.) We also began a new group of 15 Church Musicians focused around the Adaptive Question, "What is the role of music in making disciples for Jesus Christ?"
- Grants made by the Foundation during 2011 totaled $1,021,287.43. Of that amount $249,315 came from donor-advised funds. These grants benefited a variety of programs managed by local churches, community outreach centers, and conference ministries. The Foundation's Grants Ministry continues to give priority to programs that address the root causes of poverty as it affects children.
- The Foundation distributed approximately $600,000 from permanent endowments, predominantly to United Methodist causes in Texas.
- Our Stewardship staff consulted on 10 capital campaigns and Miracle Sundays, resulting in pledges totaling more than $9 million to support the missions of United Methodist congregations across the state. They made more than 460 consultation visits to churches offering counsel and guidance in areas of specific need related to funding ministry. Stewardship staff also conducted 16 annual and year-round stewardship workshops in local churches and 13 district and conference level workshops.

- In addition to assisting many churches across Texas in establishing or growing permanent endowment funds, endowment services also helped create and support endowment leadership groups in various regions of the state. These groups provide a community of learning for endowment committee members from various local churches to share ideas and best practices for helping their churches fulfill their mission.

A listing of Texas Methodist Foundation Board of Directors from the North Texas Conference area will be presented during the Annual Conference meeting June 3–5, 2012 in Plano.

TEXAS UNITED METHODIST COLLEGE ASSOCIATION "INVESTING; INFORMING; INFLUENCING"

"WHAT A WAY TO SPEND OUR MONEY!" Young adults in our churches are worth every nickel of our support to educate them and prepare them to lead our church and our land to experience the beloved community of grace and healing.

Would any parent suggest that children could or will mature in healthy ways and embrace Christian values without the investment of time, resources, and encouragement by elders who care and share? Of course not!

TUMCA provides our churches a proven means for helping our young adults become educated and equipped "to serve the present age, their calling to fulfill." By providing scholarship assistance to worthy young adults our churches are affirming the importance of "informed minds and faith formed hearts." Such a vision was articulated in a hymn written by Charles Wesley for Methodism's first school, "let us unite the pair so oft disjoined, knowledge and vital piety."

TUMCA scholarships have been opening the doors and windows of knowledge, opportunity, vocation, and fulfillment in our United Methodist schools in Texas for over 50 years. Our TUMCA students are school superintendents, pastors, teachers, chemists, chaplains, owners of businesses, bankers, civil servants, persons of high rank in the military, and leaders across the world.

TUMCA scholarships have helped equip persons to be strong leaders for Christ and the mission of serving hurting people through their local churches and the community boards on which they serve such as the Food Bank, Salvation Army, Boy and Girl Scouts, Red Cross, United Way, and many more. The far reaching effect of TUMCA dollars is simply astonishing!

Through TUMCA United Methodists are investing in our young adults! These members of our church family are experiencing expanding horizons of learning, growth in their relationship to God, and clarity about their servant leadership in a hurting and defensive world.

INVESTING! INFORMING! INFLUENCING! Our young adults are worth every nickel! "Thank you" from our TUMCA scholarship recipients. You are blessing them that they may become a blessing to the church and the world. Listed below are the students, their home church and the United Methodist school in Texas where they are enrolled.

TEXAS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

- Frederick G. Slabach began serving as the 20th President of Texas Wesleyan University on January 1, 2011. Almost immediately, Slabach conducted listening sessions with faculty, staff and students. To gain even greater insight into the student experience, he resided on campus for over a month. Guided by this input, Slabach next redefined the University's strategic vision: Texas Wesleyan aspires to be a values- and student-centered university where motivated students prepare for graduate school and leadership in professional careers.

- The 2020 Strategic Plan leverages Wesleyan's liberal arts setting, where undergraduates receive individualized instruction in intentionally small classes led by gifted faculty who are committed to student success. Wesleyan students develop proficiency in critical thinking and analytic reasoning, which are the same skills sought by both employers and graduate programs. The goals of the strategic plan address academic distinction, the student experience, campus enhancement, financial vitality, and marketing and branding.

- Texas Wesleyan is a driving force in East Fort Worth and throughout the city. To strengthen both Wesleyan and the surrounding community, President Slabach has met with city and civic leaders and Poly organizations to discuss potential partnerships. In addition, the University has developed a master plan that will serve to reinforce the campus identity and enhance the student experience and campus aesthetics. The engineering and architectural firm of Freese & Nichols is overseeing planning for the project.

Wesleyan continues to help lead efforts from both the private and public sectors in furthering the Rosedale Redevelopment Initiative. The synergy between Wesleyan's master plan and the redevelopment initiative is great, and is expected to transition the neighborhood into a more vibrant Polytechnic/Wesleyan Urban Village.

UMR COMMUNICATIONS

UMR Communications (UMRC) is related by covenant to seven United Methodist Annual Conferences: Central Texas, New Mexico, North Texas, Texas, Northwest Texas, Rio Grande and Southwest Texas. This covenantal relationship, similar to that of church-founded hospitals and homes, acknowledges the previous ownership of the organization by these annual conferences and its United Methodist heritage.

UMRC is a not-for-profit ministry, financially independent, deriving income from fees paid by clients for services, along with grants and bequests from donors. While we have strong connections to the United Methodist Church, we receive no financial support from the Church.

The Board of Directors of UMRC consists of 19 members who have gifts, graces and talents in fields from administration, to finance, to sales, to technology, to church scholars, to business including clergy and laypersons. All are committed to seeing UMRC continue to serve the Church. The day-to-day operations are led by our President and CEO who is assisted by a management team representing production, sales, news, finance and fulfillment operations.

UMRC has continued to be flexible and adaptable as we work to meet the continuing challenges facing many faith-based organizations. We've met financial challenges related to the difficult economic times the churches, conferences, boards and agencies that are our customers have experienced. Serving these groups and the larger Church by providing the communication services and telling the stories of mission and ministry of the United Methodist Church has been and will continue to be our mission.

The United Methodist Reporter, our flagship publication, continues to win awards for the coverage of the UMC, for the design of the newspaper, and for individual stories and issues produced by our staff. The Reporter carries on its historic purpose to provide a combination of local church, conference and national news in one publication. We help enable the connection so important to the Church.

Besides the Reporter, UMR has capabilities to produce materials such as brochures, posters, postcards, booklets, supplements and other printed materials. Our staff offers a yearly training event for church and conference-level communicators and is available to assist as churches seek to communicate with their congregations and the greater community. We are partners with United Methodist Women, providing printing and fulfillment services advancing their mission work for the Church.

This past year brought new changes in leadership as we welcomed Alan Heath, CEO; Sam Hodges, managing editor; and Terry Breedlove, controller.

We anticipate new opportunities for growth in service to the Church. We ask you to keep us in your prayers, to give us feedback, to let us serve you through the ministry of communications as we work together to spread the word of God and the mission of the church.

C.W. Anderson

C.W. Anderson began his ministry as a student local pastor at McMillan in the Texas Conference. He became a member of the North Texas Conference in 1983 and was appointed to Warren United Methodist Church for three years. He then was appointed to Clarksville/St. Paul until his retirement in 2011. Rev. Anderson passed away on December 17, 2011 and services were held December 21, 2011 at McMillan UMC, Fort Worth, TX.

Douglas Ewing Jackson

Rev. Dr. Douglas Ewing Jackson born July 4, 1919 was the first of his Kentucky family to attend high school. Encouraged by his parents always to learn as much as he could, he read every book in the public library and graduated high school. An avid, brilliant student affected by the Great Depression, nevertheless he was able through benevolence of the Methodist Church to attend college. He earned four degrees: magna cum laude BA from Asbury College, B. Div. with distinction from Garrett Theological Seminary, MA and PhD from Northwestern University. As a child Dr. Jackson constantly studied the Bible with his deeply religious parents, early leaders in recognizing racial equality: all God's children are to be respected and valued. So they went to every church in town, walking everywhere without reprisal because of the respect afforded them. Dr. Jackson committed his life to Christ at 11 and preached his first sermon at 13, wearing a white linen suit made by his mother. Dr. Jackson and his new bride, Thella, held a number of pastorates in the Methodist Church in Indiana and Chicago while pursuing his graduate studies, and continued his ministerial career through the North Texas Conference and through Sunday school teaching at Highland Park UMC.

Dr. Jackson's academic teaching was ministry as well, using his gifts, knowledge and wisdom to pass on to his students the tenets of faithful living, social justice, and care for all God's children. He had never forgotten the horror of a lynching he had witnessed by the Ku Klux Klan early in his life. He taught at Emory University, 1948–1954, then at Perkins School of Theology at SMU, 1954–1985. He centered on how the Church at large and individuals as faithful disciples must relate to the world in its constantly changing environment. He taught eager black students informally and the first black seminarians at Perkins. He instructed cadets at the Dallas Police Academy, debated racial questions with John Birchers, and was at the forefront of recognizing the addictiveness rather than sinfulness of alcoholism. Dr. Jackson was legendary for conducting classes humbly, simply sharing the vast knowledge he had without any sign of ego and not using notes at all to prompt his memory. Those qualities brought him the Distinguished Faculty Award from the SMU Alumni Association and the M award from the student body. An avid basketball fan who held SMU season tickets, his greatest joy was sharing the games with family, especially his great-grandchildren.

Kathryn Mackenzie

Kathryn and Ken Mackenzie were married in 1942 in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Within three months, Ken became First Lieutenant Mackenzie in World War II. Upon his return, Kathryn and Ken had four children. They were relocated to Paris, Texas in 1968 when "Katy" enrolled in the Course of Study School at Perkins School of Theology at SMU. Katy became part of the North Texas Conference in 1981 and served at Dike until its closure in 1983. In 1986 she was ordained as a deacon and served at Enloe from 1983 until her retirement in 1987.

James B. Palmer, Sr.

Jim earned degrees from Grove City College, Garrett Theological Seminary, and Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University. In his over 63 years of ministry he pastored 18 different congregations, including 4 years as Pastor of the English Speaking Church in La Paz Bolivia at the Institute Americana de La Paz. He authored three books: Red Poncho and Big Boots, Prayer for the Day, July Gospel Jubilee, and co-authored Journey to Dignity with Bishop Eugenio Poma. The Pomas have been considered a part of the Palmer family since the beginning of Jim's ministry in Bolivia.

Jim was a Chaplain with the McKinney Medical Center, Presbyterian Hospital of Allen, The Allen Police Department, McKinney Animal Hospital, and an Associate Chaplain with the McKinney Police and Fire Department. When not serving people in ministry, Jim could be found on the golf course, usually searching for lost golf balls that he would later offer for sale on an "honorary basis". Proceeds from the golf ball sales supported the children at Grace Children's Hospital. He enjoyed classical music, playing the organ, and hunting. He was a very good shot and was very proud of his concealed carry permit.

Jim will also be remembered by many for his tenacious faithfulness to God by arriving at the church or ministry event well in advance of the starting time. The absence of his early morning schedule leaves many with the question, "Who will let God into church in the morning now?"

Elwood Spencer Poore

Woody was born in Haverhill, MA on February 12, 1922 to Edwin and Lucy Brown Poore. He graduated from Cornell College and then from Bangor Theological Seminary. He married Ruth Grace Webster on September 3, 1948. He served churches in Maine, Iowa, and Texas. He graduated with advanced degrees in Music History and Sacred Music from SMU.

Woody was Pastor Emeritus at First United Methodist Church, Gainesville, Texas. In his retirement he also served as chaplain at Lake Kiowa. His service in ministry spanned over 60 years, touching the lives of hundreds of families.

Woody enjoyed people, collecting stamps, and postcards and music. He was a 32nd Degree Mason, Lion's Club member, veteran (Army Signal Corps), teacher, community volunteer and life-long student.

Edgar James Bell

Edgar James Bell was born in Akron, Ohio on September 28, 1939 to Edgar and Alberta Welch Bell. Jim graduated from high school in 1957 in Akron and joined the Air Force in 1958. He served for 20 years active duty, including a tour in Germany 1962-1965, and service in Vietnam, 1968–1969. In 1971, he earned the rating of master instructor on aircraft electrical systems. He retired from the Air Force in 1978 and worked for Northup World Wide Aircraft Services and Dyna Corps in Wichita Falls for 12 years.

In 1987 Jim entered the ministry and was appointed as a local Methodist pastor in Wichita Falls. He served as pastor of Friberg-Cooper UMC for 16 years and at Bryson-Perrin UMC for a total of four years. With a strong desire to help others, Jim was compelled to serve his country and community as a volunteer in many activities. A few include the CONCERN Helpline, and volunteer driver (logging over 800 hours) taking veterans to the VA Hospital in Oklahoma City.

Allie Aikin

Allie Aikin was born August 26, 1919 in Annona, Texas to Charles Robert and Clara Cherry Holloway. Allie, a resident of Clarksville, was a homemaker, a great cook, loved her family, gardening and taking care of others. She was preceded in death by her husband, Rev. L. J. Aikin.

Lucille Greenhaw

Lucille Greenhaw, a preacher's wife for 70 years, was born October 28, 1917 in Denison, TX and passed away on January 14, 2012. She was preceded in death by her husband Rev. William Greenhaw. She is survived by 2 daughters and sons-in-law, 8 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren. Services were held on January 19, 2012 at St. Philip's UMC in Garland, TX.

Hazel Johnson

Hazel was born in Hopkins County on December 15, 1923 to William M. Weir and Addie Mae Herman Weir and passed away on September 8, 2011. She married Marion F. "Johnny" Johnson on September 24, 1960, who preceded her in death in 1997. Hazel was the oldest of four siblings and the ring leader of all the escapades and fun. Hazel and Johnny especially ministered to young families. It was not unusual for a young adult, with small children of their own, to come up to her when visiting churches she had previously served with Johnny. It was easy to see she had a very special influence on young people and the result was a good Christian adult raising his or her own children to love the Lord. She was also very involved in all the craft making and organization for Lord's Acres and other fundraising events. You could always count on Hazel to sew and make whatever was popular at the time to feature and sell at fundraisers. "Red" as she was referred to by family members often hosted family gatherings of up to 45 family members at their home. Her love for God showed through everything she did.

Lucille Leffel

Lucille was born on September 6, 1916 to Henry Cirgus Minter and Anna Harned Minter of Louisville, Kentucky and passed away August 29, 2011 at the age of 94. Lucille and Robert Leffel, Jr. were married June 4, 1938. Her husband served in the U.S. Air Force and Army during World War II. Lucille was a pastor's wife in east Texas in the 1950's. When her husband returned to the military as an Air Force Chaplain, Lucille supported him by taking care of their family when he was away for extended periods of times and went with him when he was stationed in Japan. Lucille and Robert served churches in the Wichita Falls area of the North Texas Conference after his retirement from the Air Force. She devoted her life to her husband, children and the Methodist church, where she taught classes and played the piano when needed. The Leffels have two sons.

Together, they served for over thirty years in the North Texas Conference of The United Methodist Church. Over the years, Harriet served the congregations' music programs as organist, choir director, and frequent soloist on Sunday mornings. For the last seventeen years, Harriet has resided in Atlanta.

She is survived by Tom E. Palmer, her loving husband of almost 29 years who is an associate pastor at FUMC Mesquite.

Margaret "Peggy" Railey

Margaret "Peggy" Railey, a beloved and respected member of the North Texas Conference clergy family, died Dec. 26, 2011 at Mother Frances Hospital in Tyler. She was born on Oct 7, 1948 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to William H. and Billie Jo Renfro Nicolai, both of whom preceded her in death.

Peggy held a master's degree in education from Southern Methodist University and taught at Ursuline Academy in Dallas. She was a talented musician whose specialty was the organ. Peggy generously shared her musical gifts with NTC congregations, especially Christ UMC, Farmers Branch, and First UMC, Dallas.

Peggy was a caring and devoted mother to her two children and steadfast friend to many. Clergy and laity of the conference grieved and prayed for Peggy and her family during the almost 25 years family members devotedly cared for her in a Tyler nursing home.

Peggy is survived by her two adult children, Ryan and Megan; her brother, Ted Nicolai and wife, Linda; sister, Katherine Aronin; and by numerous nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

Services for Peggy were held at Tyler Memorial Park Cemetery in Tyler.

After teaching and preaching for several years they settled in Dallas. Effie immediately took a position teaching first grade at Nancy Mosley Elementary School, DISD. She retired in 1974 after 30 years at Nancy Mosley. Effie always wished that she had kept up with the number of children she had taught to read. Effie was very active in the United Methodist Church; she taught Sunday School, was a member of the choir and a member of the woman's society. She loved to quilt, crochet, and tat, but her true love was teaching.

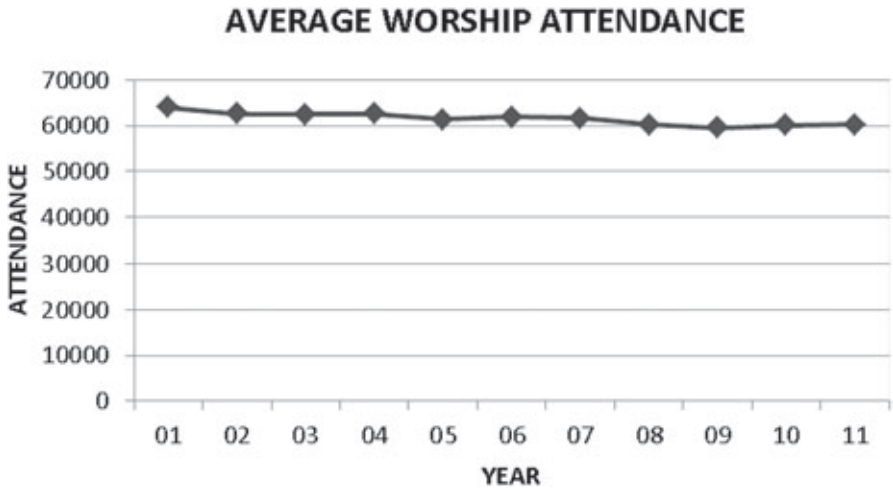
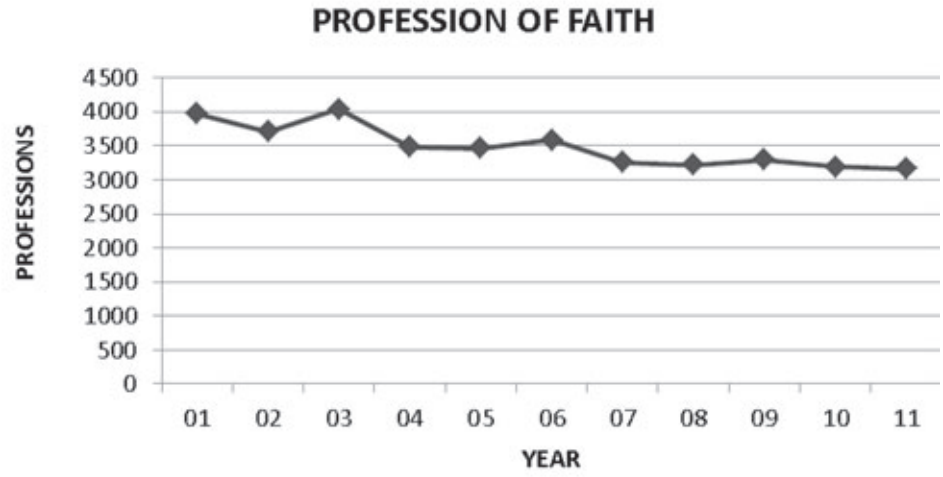
XVI. REPORT OF CONFERENCE STATISTICIAN

While numbers do not tell the whole story, they do provide instructive information and feedback on our task of making disciples of Jesus Christ. This year, we celebrate that we have a few statistics that indicate positive trends.

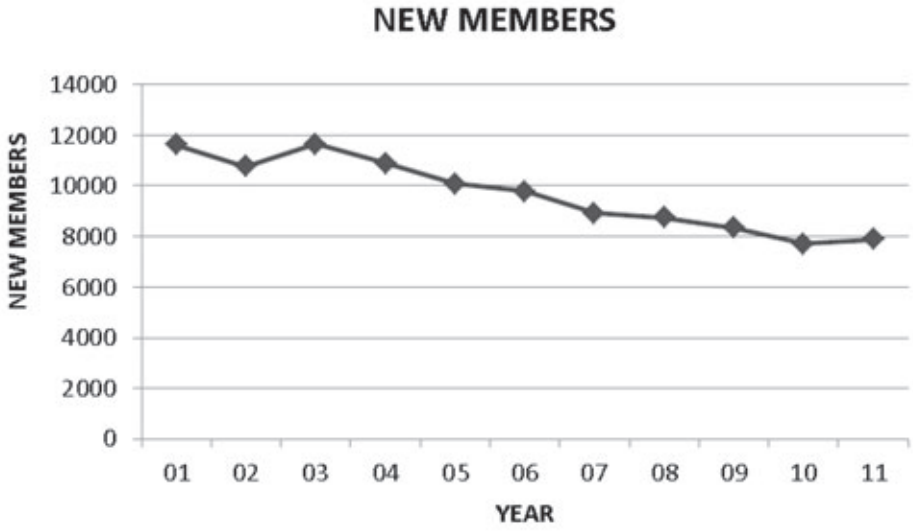
First, we celebrate increases in our Average Worship Attendance for the second year in a row! We are averaging an additional 769 people in worship in our local churches over worship attendance in 2009. Our local churches are truly living into the mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.



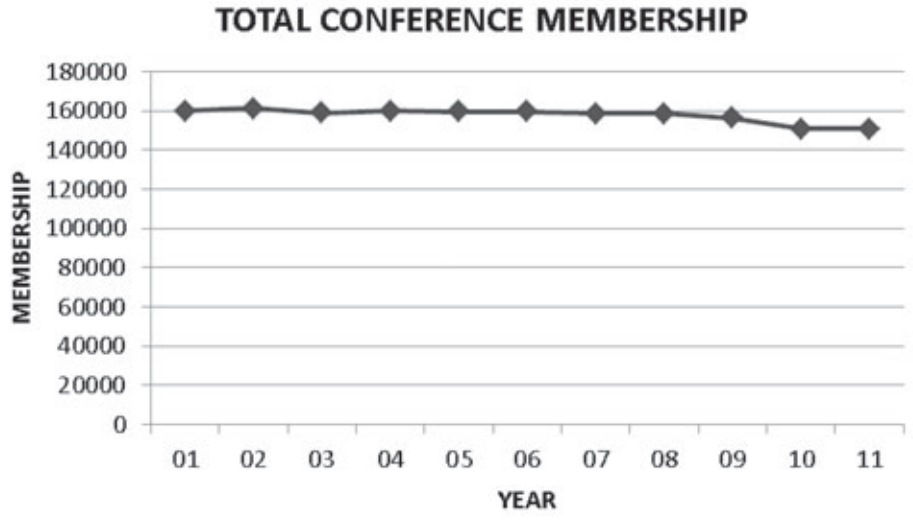
We also rejoice and give thanks for the 3,162 persons who came to know Christ and joined our churches by profession of faith last year. This is a 0.9% decrease from the total professions of faith in 2010 when we received 3,192 professions of faith.



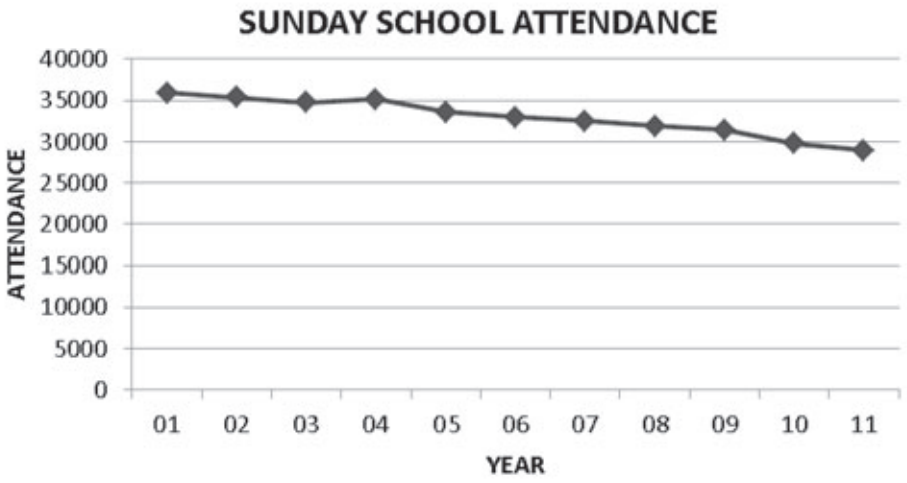
With the increase in worship attendance, we welcome 7,870 new members into the local churches of our conference. This 2% uptick in the number of new members joining our churches, the first increase in a decade, gives witness to the faithfulness of our membership in their witness to the resurrection power of the Lord Jesus Christ.



In spite of the increased worship attendance and an increase in the number of new members reported by our churches, our total membership at the end of 2011 was nearly even with 2010, at 150,755. This represents a .07% decrease in membership.



The average Sunday School attendance decreased to 28,946, a decrease of 861 persons or 2.9%. We are aware that a number of churches have shifted their in-depth bible study and opportunities for fellowship to other venues such as weekday small group studies. We have not been tracking this particular trend in the past, but will begin to do so now.



Finally, we report that our local churches have been excellent stewards of the resources available to them as the grand total paid to all causes, in a year of continued economic challenge and uncertainty, decreased by 3.6% to $145,109,342. We know laity and clergy alike are exercising great care in the administration of the funds entrusted to the work of the Lord.

The North Texas Conference has cause to celebrate in the witness and ministries we share as God works through us bringing others into the life-giving relationship found only in Christ Jesus. In closing, we share that our Conference is currently recognized throughout our denomination as having the highest percentage of vital congregations as defined by GCFA in the United States. We give all the honor and glory to God.
