

- How a Wesley supports a local church
 - Positive relationships with young adults
 - Opportunities for young adults to help serve on summer mission trips or church camps
 - Alumni connections to local churches in the communities they relocate to or reside in
 - Raising of Christian leaders (both clergy and lay) to serve churches
- How a local church supports a Wesley
 - Financial donations or a meal sponsorship
 - Prayer partners
 - Support for Wesley mission trips (financially or going on trips together)
 - Connection to your future college students
 - Internships for college students

Our collegiate ministries provide spiritual formation and discipleship, safe spaces for community and mental health resources, hot meals, free food and pastoral mentorship for young adults exploring a calling into ordained and lay ministry. Your apportionment dollars are one of many funding sources for these ministries, including grants, individual and church financial gifts, and meals or other in-kind offerings. Contact your local collegiate ministry to see how you can become involved in this important work!
