CONFERENCE GENEALOGY

United Methodism in North Texas began in 1816-17 as part of Arkansas Methodism in the Missouri Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. When the denomination divided in 1844-45, Methodists of this area became a part of the East Texas Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. In 1867, the approximate area of what is now this conference, was set apart as the Trinity Conference, and later (1874) renamed the North Texas Conference.

The Methodist Episcopal Church had little organized work in Texas after 1845, until 1867 when a Texas Mission was formed. Out of that Mission came the West Texas Conference (primarily Black). In 1939 the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Methodist Protestant Church united to form The Methodist Church. The West Texas Conference, while a part of The Methodist Church, was in the Central Jurisdiction (all Black). The North Texas Conference was part of the South Central Jurisdiction, which was one of the geographical jurisdictions.

The merger of The Methodist Church and The Evangelical United Brethren Church was effected in 1968. That same year the process of dissolution of the Central Jurisdiction began, with the West Texas and North Texas conferences merging in 1970.

VIII. DAILY PROCEEDINGS

EVENING WORSHIP SERVICE

The one hundred and eighteenth session of the North Texas Conference began with the worship of God and a Bicentennial Celebration in the sanctuary of the First United Methodist Church of Dallas. Walker Railey, pastor of First United Methodist Church of Dallas, welcomed the Conference to Dallas and made opening announcements. Bishop John W. Russell pronounced the episcopal greeting. The call to worship was presented by the Methodist Festival Choir and Orchestra, under the direction of Terry Price, Director of Music, Plymouth Park United Methodist Church, Irving. The Choir offered a "Jubilee Medley" for our worship.

Bishop Russell led the Call to Confession from Wesley's Order for Evening Worship. Following the General Confession, Prayer for Pardon, and Lord's Prayer, the congregation entered into A Celebration of our Musical Heritage using "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing." Ann Barton, Diaconal Minister of Music, White Rock United Methodist Church, Dallas, led the worshipers through Praise, Mission, The Name of Jesus, Redemption, Call and Response, and Hope using as a guide the Wesley Hymn, "O For a Thousand Tongues."

After an introduction by Bishop Russell, Bishop Robert E. Goodrich, Jr., presented the opening sermon of the Conference, using as the text the scripture from Luke 12, "...unto whom much is given, much shall be required."

During the offertory anthem, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," the evening offering was received and dedicated to the work of the Huston-Tillotson Scholarship Fund.

Bishop Robert E. Goodrich, Jr., Conference Preacher, proclaims the gospel to the congregation.

Bishop Russell presided over the Sending Forth, which closed with the response from the congregation, "Here am I! Send me." As a benediction the choir sang a "Spirit of Faith" medley.

MONDAY, MAY 28, 1984
MORNING WORSHIP SESSION
SERVICE OF HOLY COMMUNION

Following an introduction to the service by Fred Kandeler, the opening voluntary of this morning service was presented by Philip Baker. The Collect was led by Kandeler and the opening hymn, "Come, Let Us, Who in Christ Believe," was sung. Jack Busby read from the Book of John including the text for the service, "If any man come after me, let him take up his cross daily and follow me." The St. Stephen United Methodist Church Choir, under the direction of Tom Council, presented the anthem, "Christ From whom All Blessings Flow." Bishop Russell presented the sermon, using selections from John Wesley's sermon on self-denial.

The Invitation to Holy Communion was given by Fred Kandeler, and the elements were presented by Bishop John Russell, who presided over their distribution. Charles Harper led the Prayer of Thanksgiving. The congregation closed the service by singing "For the Bread, Which Thou Hast Broken." The benediction was pronounced by Bishop Russell.

These persons were elected as nominated.

Michael Nichols called for the distribution of registration cards to clergy members (yellow cards), diaconal members (pink cards), and lay members (blue cards). These were then collected by the tellers. Nichols made announcements regarding meetings and banquets for the day.

Agenda Committee Report

Don Renshaw, Chairperson of the Agenda Committee, was introduced. Renshaw expressed appreciation to the members of the Committee and asked for recognition of their work by members of the Conference. Renshaw also recognized the members of the Design Team. Renshaw moved the adoption of a motion to send a message of concern to H. Noel Bryant, Superintendent of the Sherman-McKinney District, who is recuperating from by-pass surgery, along with a message of concern to his wife, Frances Marie. Renshaw also included in the motion an affirmation that messages of concern be sent to any others who may come to the attention of the Committee during the Conference. The motion carried.

Courtesy and Resolutions

Ken Dickson, Chairperson of the Committee on Courtesy and Resolutions, welcomed the members of the Conference to Highland Park United Methodist Church on behalf of the Pastor, Leighton Farrell. Dickson nominated the following to serve as members of the Committee on Courtesy and Resolutions: Georgia Allen, Rex Coppege, Lillian Sills, and Robert Young. The motion was approved.

Mary Jean Russell, wife of Bishop Russell, was presented to the Conference by Rex Coppege and was given red roses by Georgia Allen on behalf of all the members of the Conference. Mrs. Russell expressed her appreciation at being a continuing part of the life of the North Texas Conference.

Michael Nichols announced that forms for presentation of motions, resolutions, amendments, and substitute motions were available at the desk. These forms must be used for any of the actions herein indicated.

Bishop Russell brought to the attention of the Conference the gavel he will be using while conducting of the business of the Conference. It is a replica of Asbury's gavel carried in his saddlebags and used in his ministry. Such a gavel was made by a man from Tennessee for each of the Bishops and presented at the General Conference.

Wm. Joseph Washington presented for approval the Lay\Clergy Equalization Chart in the Pre-Conference Packet. Approval was granted by vote of the Conference. LAl

Board of Ordained Ministry

Ben Feemster presented this portion of the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Feemster called attention to the fact that members of the Conference having Honorable\Voluntary Location are to be listed in the Conference JOURNAL. Those members who have sought and been granted Honorable/Voluntary Location beginning with the year 1950 need to have their present addresses up dated. Feemster asked that these be supplied to his office as soon as possible.

Sanders called for approval of William H. Wilson as an affiliate member of the Conference. The motion for approval carried.

Committee on the Episcopacy

Margaret Tarr was presented for the report on the Committee on the Episcopacy. Tarr quoted an article from the ALL CHURCH PRESS, dated July 10, 1964, entitled, "What Can a Bishop Do?" Tarr expressed pride in our Bishop Russell and called for his reappointment to lead this Conference for the next four years. Bishop Russell expressed his appreciation to the Committee on the Episcopacy for their support. Bishop Russell called for members of this Committee to stand and be recognized.

Area Committee on Professional Ministries

William T. Stephenson presented the report of the Area Committee on Professional Ministries. Stephenson reported that the number of counselors participating in the program has been expanded to 10, serving in geographical locations across the Central Texas and North Texas Conferences. The report also included a financial report and continued support for Ervin Gathings, Area Assistant to the Bishop and Chief Executive Officer of the Counseling Program. Stephenson announced that the report was presented by Don M. Pike, Chairperson, and by himself as Secretary. Stephenson moved that the report be accepted as presented. The motion carried.

Ervin Gathings was presented before the Conference. Gathings expressed appreciation to Bishop Russell and called for responsible use of the counselors within the program of the Area Committee on Professional Ministries. Gathings told of the proposed use of a computer system, whereby complete records of both the Central Texas and the North Texas Conferences will be kept in good order within the Bishop's office. Gathings also announced that there are presently some 125 clergy members of these two Conferences who are appointed Beyond the Local Church. Meetings with these personnel are proposed during the coming year. Gathings expressed satisfaction with the four-year program of start-up seminars for re-appointed clergy. Gathings also expressed great appreciation for Joan Newman, secretary in his office.

AFTERNOON BUSINESS SESSION

The afternoon session was called to order by Bishop Russell.

Jack McGee announced that the book on the history of Texas Methodism was available for sale in the Cokesbury display area, and that books previously ordered could be picked up there. The two authors of the book are available today for autographing copies.

The Conference Secretary made announcements regarding evening dinner arrangements.

Standing Rules Committee

Ira Thompson presented the report from the Standing Rules Committee. Thompson discussed the recommended changes and the rationale for those changes as reflected on pages 10a through 10k of the Pre-Conference Packet. After Bishop Russell reminded the Conference members that amendments to the standing rules required a 2\3 vote to pass, Thompson moved that the amendments be approved. Bishop Russell called the question on each amendment individually. The motion to approve each amendment carried. Ira Thompson moved to approve the report as a whole. The motion carried. LA4

Board of Church and Society

Martha Boyd Watson, Chairperson of the Board of Church and Society, presented proposed legislation from that Board.

The Duty and Privilege of Voting

Watson referred to page 4 of the Pre-Conference Packet regarding the privilege and the duty of conscientious voting and participation in the workings of our government and politics. Watson moved the adoption of this proposal. It was adopted. LA5

Continuing the Work That Makes For Peace

Watson referred to page 5 of the Pre-Conference Packet regarding continuation of the work the Conference has done toward peace. Richard Rubottom, Lay Member from Highland Park United Methodist Church, amended the proposal as follows:

Add to last sentence at bottom of page 5, Resolution a. ", irrespective of national or geographic boundaries."

Bishop Russell asked if the Chairperson would accept this amendment as a part of the proposal. It was accepted. Rubottom called for an additional amendment as follows:

Add to last sentence of Resolution, item c. after "about national..." "international."

Bishop Russell asked if the Chairperson would accept this amendment as a part of the proposal. It was accepted. Rubottom suggested a third amendment, and when this was not approved by the chairperson, it was withdrawn by Rubottom.

Al Jackson of Asbury United Methodist Church in Denton presented a substitute for the resolution. After discussion this was defeated by vote of the Conference members.

Richard Rubottom proposes an amendment to the peace proposal.

Martha Boyd Watson presents the report of Church Society.

Vivian Dennis, a member of the Board of Church and Society, offered a substitute to the resolution. This was discussed and then defeated by vote of the Conference members.

Doug Miller presented an amendment to the desired implementation of the resolution. The amendment was discussed and defeated by vote of the Conference members.

David Rucker questioned budgeting for this resolution regarding the continuing work for peace. Watson responded by explaining that the Board had requested two line items in the budget, one to read "$3,500 for peace program" and one for the balance of the Board's budget in the amount of $7,500. Rucker asked if the peace program's intent was to be synonymous with disarmament. Watson's answer to this question was "no."

Dean Funston moved to drop paragraph E of the implementation. This motion was defeated.

Martha Boyd Watson moved for adoption of the resolution as amended. The resolution was approved. LA6

The Christian's Role in Providing for Responsible Media

After discussion both for and against the amendment, it was approved.

Joe Florence, clergy member, presented the following amendment:
Desired Implementation: a. That letters of commendation be sent to the Jack Eckerd Corp., the Cullum Companies, and the Gulf Oil Company for their sensitivity to morality in America and their decision to discontinue the sale of pornographic magazines in their retail outlets.

Bob Walker moved for referral of this action to the Board of Church and Society, but this was defeated.

The amendment as presented was discussed and approved.

Joe Florence then presented a second amendment regarding support of the National Federation of Decency, but this was defeated.

Baxton Bryant moved that the remainder of the action on the floor be postponed to Tuesday morning's Business Session in order that the "order of the day" could be presented. The motion carried.

Baxton Bryant asked for permission to address the Conference. Permission was granted, and Bryant expressed his appreciation to the Conference and said "goodbye" as he leaves for North Carolina to fill an appointment there.

Committee on Courtesy and Resolutions

Georgia Allen presented: Leora Shanks, a retired missionary and minister, a member of the Costa Rica Conference, and Chief and Betty Warden, today celebrating their 40th wedding anniversary here at the Conference.

Bishop Russell recognized two visiting bishops who had arrived on the Conference floor. Bishop Kenneth Pope and Bishop W. McFerrin Stowe were greeted by the members of the Annual Conference.

Commission on Equitable Salaries

Tom Brown, Chairperson of the Commission on Equitable Salaries, presented the Commission's report contained in the Supplement to the Pre-Conference Resource Packet. Brown asked the Commission members to stand that they might be recognized by the Conference. Brown expressed particular appreciation to the Commission's executive committee and to Steve Matthew, Jerry Robinson, and Ron Adams for their particular contributions to the details of the Commission's work.

In order to participate in the theme of celebrating our past, Brown called on Commission member Barbara Marcum for a presentation. Marcum expressed appreciation on behalf of the Conference for the use of the beautiful facilities of Highland Park United Methodist but noted that this does not represent the "typical" United Methodist congregation. Small churches in rural areas with members of modest incomes, which is our heritage, have required resources to pay for effective pastoral leadership.

Marcum explained that the Commission on Equitable Salaries is concerned about justice for every man and woman in the ministry in terms of salaries and standards and justice for every church in terms of effective pastoral leadership.

Tom Brown noted that as we consider equitable salaries, we also should recognize those churches and pastors who have moved from subsidy to enablement during the 1983-84 Conference year. They are:

Glenn Blackmon--Roxton; Jerry Putnam--Blossom; Lynn Vowell--Sadler-Mission; Robert Johnson--Princeton-Pleasant Grove; John Davis--Anna-Cottage Hill; Darrell Coats--Valley View.

In explaining the Commission's report, Brown called attention to Section IVD, "Insurance", and stated that the word "eligible" has been inserted for clarification and directs questions to the Commission on Insurance. The Commission is also recommending that minimum equitable salary for 1985 be increased from the 1983 figure by 7 percent to $17,662. Brown further called attention to the Commission's recommendation of years of service increments for members of the Conference serving full time. Brown then moved approval of the entire report.

A question was raised for clarification as to whether the provision of Annual Conference provided medical and life insurance for all elibible ministers and eligible diaconal ministers extended to families also. Brown stated that families were included.

B. C. Robertson asked whether the schedule for years-of-service increments were correct figures as printed or whether $100 needed to be added to each line. Ron Adams responded for the Commission that such addition did need to be made, and the report would be so corrected. Jan Wiksten requested further clarification of the statement that "the Annual Conference provides medical and life insurance for all...eligible Diaconal Ministers" or whether that was the responsibility of the local church. Randy James responded that the local church does provide long-term disability and life insurance for diaconal ministers; the Annual Conference provides medical insurance.

Boyd Sawyer questioned the use of 1983 figures as those on which to base the 7 percent increase in the recommended equitable salary figure. Ron Adams explained that the Commission utilizes available statistics which are always one year behind.

Jerry Ott noted that Section C, Item 5, of the report should be corrected with the insertion of the words "'full time' during the summer."

Regarding Secions IIA and IIC of the report, Presley Hutchens asked how strictly this would be enforced. Tom Brown explained that while Item A was first established as a guideline and then became a directive, the directive has been removed. Likewise, the recommendation for continuing education [Item C] is a guideline applicable to all ministers.

There being no further discussion, the report was adopted as corrected. LA2

Jerry Ott corrects a report.

Special Presentation

Bishop Russell called on Don Barnes for a special presentation. Barnes called Walter Vernon to the microphone and inquired as to when the decision was made to write a new history of Methodism in Texas. Vernon indicated that the decision was made five years ago with 1984 as the publication date. Barnes then asked the names of the authors. According to Vernon the authors are Norman Spellman, Robert Monk, Robert Sledge, and Walter Vernon. Barnes then noted that Vernon was Chairperson of the Texas United Methodist Historical Society when this decision was made.

Barnes presented two special copies of the book, METHODIST EXCITEMENT IN TEXAS, to Bishop Kenneth Pope in recognition of his selling more copies of the book than any other person, and to Bishop Russell in appreciation for his leadership in our Conference.

Commission on Insurance

William Dean noted that since the Report of the Commission on Insurance contained no legislative proposals it had not been mimeographed for distribution. In presenting the oral report, Dean explained that the formal name of the self-insured health insurance program of the conference is the "North Texas Conference Employee Benefit Trust." Although the Conference will receive from the Commission through the Report of the Council on Finance and Administration a recommendation for a 15 percent apportionment increase beginning January 1, 1985, the Commission believes the increase to be minimal and reasonable since our premiums continue to be 30-50 percent less than those charged in the commercial world and about 50 percent less than those charged by church programs underwritten by private insurance companies.

Expressing his appreciation for the hard work of the Commission, Dean moved adoption of the report; and it was so voted by the Conference.

Council on Finance and Administration I

Don Benton prefaced his report with a word of personal privilege expressing appreciation to Don Renshaw and the Agenda Committee for allowing the Conference to be invited to the production of "Papa Was a Preacher" at Lovers Lane United Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon.

Benton reported that during the past quadrennium, the two main thrusts of the Council's work have been in "Finance" and "Administration." Benton was pleased to report that toward the goal of 100 percent payment of apportionments, the Conference moved from 92.7 percent in 1979 to 95.1 percent in 1983.

Benton further reported that the Council has been striving to get sufficient money into Conference Program Reserve to underwrite fully the Annual Conference program for the year following so that all programs can happen in the year intended rather than waiting for apportionments. This goal has now been accomplished. Development of computer use in local churches and resource persons to explain the apportionments to local churches have been activities of the Council this year.

Benton expressed appreciation to all who have served on the Council during the quadrennium and asked them to stand for recognition. James Hares was recognized for his deep commitment to ministry and his attention to detail which enables smooth financial operations. Benton recommended Hares' re-election as Treasurer for the up-coming quadrennium. Hares' new title will be "Director of Finance and Administration", and his position will include the function of Conference Treasurer. Benton moved the election; the Conference voted election and joined in expressing appreciation to Hares.

Benton noted that the Council is recommending two changes to the Standing Rules, Rule 14C and Rule 16. The Standing Rules Committee will report on these changes.

Regarding the officers of the Council, Benton explained that the Council makes those elections from among its members. Benton therefore requested that the Conference Nominating Committee's Report of the slate of persons to be elected to the Council for the next quadrennium be presented. This would allow for the meeting and organization of the new Council before the Annual Conference adjourns. William Joseph Washington moved the proposed slate, and Bishop Russell called for further nominations from the floor. There being none, these persons were elected:

Those just elected and those having served for the quadrennium ending were asked to meet in Room 145 at 5 p.m. on Monday for organizational matters and elections.

Benton moved adoption of the report; the report was adopted.

Bishop's Call to Evangelism Report

Jim Dorff, Chairperson for the Division of Evangelism of the Board of Discipleship, reported that early in the quadrennium the bishops of the United Methodist Church in Texas felt the need for a distinctive emphasis on evangelism. They called together a task force to develop strategies and goals for evangelism throughout Texas and New Mexico. Bishop Russell appointed a special task force within the North Texas Annual Conference, and at the 1983 session of the Annual Conference the task force presented it recommendations in booklet form to the Conference.

That booklet, Dorff reported, has been widely used. Its focus was on the district level; and its suggestions have been implemented through workshops, retreats, emphasis on spiritual formation directed, however, primarily to clergy.

Involving the laity in thinking about what evangelism means in local churches needs now to be the emphasis. There will be an area evangelism event to be held at First UMC, Ft. Worth, on November 2-3 with Zan Holmes, Jr., and Bishop Russell preaching. The thrust will be toward the laity.

Dorff, speaking for the Division, expressed the hope that evangelism will come to be viewed not as an emphasis but as our calling.

Conference Statistician

Walter Zimmerman expressed his appreciation to the district auditors and to James Hares for the work of his office.

Zimmerman reported that the North Texas Annual Conference continued to show gains in all four "person" categories of reporting for the 1983 year: membership, morning worship attendance, church school membership, average attendance at church school. In addition, every apportionment showed an increase in the percentage paid on the apportionment.

With our General Conference having set a denominational membership goal of 20 million members by 1992, Zimmerman pointed out that this goal is attainable if each minister and each congregation takes seriously their responsibility to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Larry George, Lois Cooper, and Michael Nichols record the business of the Conference.

The Conference voted acceptance of the report, and Bishop Russell expressed his appreciation for the work of Walter Zimmerman and reminded the Conference that this was really their report. Noting that the population of the North Texas area is projected to double between now and the year 2000, Bishop Russell reminded the Conference that we must begin to plan for the task that is ours that we may reach out to those people.

Credit Union Report

Lillian Sills reported that the North Texas Conference Credit Union is doing its best to help us stay in good financial standing. The Credit Union has more than 900 members in this Conference. Information regarding membership and its benefits is available in the display area near the Cokesbury exhibit.

Board of Trustees

Claire Cunningham presented the report of the Conference Board of Trustees as contained in the Supplement to the Pre-Conference Resource Packet. As Trustees, the Board's job is to watch over those things done in the past. The report gives an accounting to the Annual Conference of funds and properties being handled by the Board of Trustees.

Cunningham reported that the Bluegrove property which was approved as abandoned by the last Annual Conference has now been leased. The Trustees have been informed that the Mustang UMC has voted to merge with the Pilot Point UMC. Request has also been received for abandonment of the Oak Grove UMC of the Dallas-Denton District.

Upon Cunningham's motion to grant abandonment status to the Oak Grove UMC, Phil McClarty asked whether the Board had any recommendation regarding disposition of the property. Gordon Casad, Superintendent of the Dallas-Denton District, responded that deed restrictions were being investigated and disposition will be made as soon as possible. The Conference then voted to declare the property abandoned.

Cunningham moved adoption of the entire report; the report was adopted. LA3

B. C. Robertson asked for a word of personal privilege and related to the Annual Conference the greetings of Rev. H. Noel and Frances Marie Bryant. In a telephone conversation Sunday evening the Bryants had asked that the Conference know of their appreciation for the many expressions of love and concern that they have received.

Courtesy and Resolutions

Robert Young of the Committee on Courtesy and Resolutions invited Dr. Leighton Farrell to present a special resolution:

> "From 1936 to 1957 Dr. Marshall Steele served as the distinguished pastor of Highland Park United Methodist Church and as a leader in the North Texas Annual Conference. Dr. Steele has been retired a number of years and now resides in Pine Bluff, Arkansas. Dr. Steele's wife, Ouida, died Saturday and her funeral will be held Tuesday morning, May 29, in Pine Bluff. I move that this Conference ask our Secretary to send a telegram expressing our love and sympathy to Dr. Steele in this time of sorrow."

The motion carried by vote of the Conference.

Robert Young called on Philip del Rosario to introduce a guest: Eduardo Cajiuat, a former district superintendent and pastor of Central Methodist Church in Manilla, Philippines. The Conference welcomed Cajiuat, and he brought greetings from the bishop and Annual Conference of the Philippines. Del Rosario also invited the Conference to a presentation of "MABUHAY!", a bicentennial gift to the Conference of Filipino folk dances, string band music, and songs. The performance will be offered at 6:15 p.m. this evening at First United Methodist Church of Dallas.

Guests Jack Kyle Daniels and Tom Strother of the Methodist Home, Waco, were recognized. Robert Young announced that the cost for the Perkins Alumni Luncheon will be $5; those without tickets may pay at the luncheon in Selecman Hall.

Bishop Russell recognized that Bishop W. McFerrin Stowe was present in the Conference.

Michael Nichols, Conference Secretary, moved the nomination of Brian Hopkins to serve as a lay teller from the Sherman-McKinney District. Hopkins was elected. Nichols then brought to the Conference several announcements for informational purposes.

John Thornburg spoke on behalf of interested individuals in inviting lay and clergy members of the Annual Conference to Cox Chapel immediately following adjournment of the morning session for a time of prayer, singing, and testimony relating to the Christian's role as peacemaker.

Bishop Russell invited Bishop Eugene Slater to pronounce the benediction, and the session was adjourned.

Retired Ministers Of The Conference

James Sanders of the Board of Ordained Ministry presented to the Conference those clergy persons and their spouses who had been granted retirement in the morning session.

Ken McIntosh introduced Rev. & Mrs. Philip E. Grimmett, Jr. (Ed and Frances). Although he has been physically absent from the bounds of this Annual Conference during most of his thirty years of service in the United States Air Force chaplaincy, Ed expressed the feeling that he had never been away in spirit. His retirement from the USAF is accompanied by his retirement from the church, but he will never retire from the ministry. Although Ed's decision to enter the military chaplaincy was not popular with many of his colleagues, he did receive encouragement from several clergy friends. Yet his greatest human support has always come from his wife, Frances, who has moved twenty three times in the last thirty oneyears, who has survived terrorist threats, hurricanes, and riots, and who shares Ed's conviction that it all pales in comparison with the joy they have known in serving God's people wherever they are and under whatever denominational banner they assemble. The Grimmetts will be residing in Lubbock, TX.

Lou Roy and John Hawkins reminisce about their ministry.

Jack Gibson was invited to present Rev. & Mrs. John Hawkins (John and Lou Roy). Although most clergy hold the view that "it'll never happen to me," John reminded the clergy that they, too, will one day stand at this time of retirement. It has been a great experience and privilege "to be in the trenches fighting the battles of God within the North Texas Annual Conference." Music, particularly the establishment of choirs, has been a vital aspect of the ministry of John and Lou Roy; and they both expressed their appreciation for the many good years and many wonderful friends in this Annual Conference.

Bill Slack presented Dr. Douglas E. Jackson. Mrs. Jackson (Thella) was unable to be present. Mergers, attacks by the READER'S DIGEST, the KKK--the Methodist Church has survived them all, and it continues to find issues about which to be concerned: Jackson urged the denomination not to squander its strength on internal fighting. He is not proud to be retiring, but Doug is proud of the church from which he is retiring, proud of the breadth of its membership, its diversity of worship styles. "These are days when we must seek the power of the Holy Spirit to redeem and sanctify us and empower us for evangelism," he concluded.

Randy James introduced to the Conference Rev. & Mrs. John W. McGee (Jack and Harriett). To Randy's summary of their ministerial service, Jack and Harriett added notes of personal nostalgia with Jack saying to the Conference that "whatever my ministry has been for the good, Harriett has been a vital part of it." With their attitude toward the church that "the best is yet to come," the McGees will find plenty to do whether their status be active or retired. They look forward to retirement days that will be full of joy with time to renew old friendships.

Ken McIntosh presented Rev. & Mrs. James M. Simpson (James and Annette). The poet's lines "Grow old (or older) along with me; the best is yet to be" set the tone for James' remarks. He acknowledged a strange combination of emotions--arrival and departure, joy and sorrow, closing and engagement. He particularized his expressions of gratitude to include his uncommonly good parents, the urgency of the call God laid upon his heart and soul, Annette's life and loyalty and love across the forty seven and one half years of their life together, and the encouragement and fellowship and strong faith of the brethren in the ministry. To all that James said, Annette added "Amen!"

Charles Cook was asked to introduce to the Conference Rev. & Mrs. Robert A. Simpson (Bob and Jane). Having completed 30 years of service in the Veterans' Hospital chaplaincy last October, Bob and Jane will now be spending time in Malakoff, Texas. They are not worried about their future in retirement because they are confident that the God who has brought them this far will not let them go now. And Jane expressed her hope that when they see the Lord face to face they will hear, "Jane and Robert, you held up well."

Bishop Russell expressed on behalf of the Conference that hearing from these retiring persons is always a highlight of the session. He heard no complaining, no hostility, but a great excitement about the church.

Following a series of informational announcements by Conference Secretary Michael Nichols, Bishop Russell reminded the members of the Annual Conference that Tuesday's session begins with worship in the sanctuary of Highland Park United Methodist Church at 8:30 a.m. Bishop Russell then called on Baxton Bryant to pronounce the benediction, and the session was adjourned.

EVENING SERVICE OF WORSHIP

"'Gimme That Old Time Religion': The Camp Meeting Experience" was the theme for the 7:30 p.m. service of worship held in the sanctuary of First UMC, Dallas. John Yarrington, director; Elizabeth Soderstrom, organist; Florence Simons, pianist; and the First United Methodist Church (Dallas) Choir provided musical leadership for the evening. A trumpet signaled the beginning of the "cowboy camp meeting."

Following John Yarrington's leading of the congregation in singing a series of "catchy refrains and choruses," the choir sang an anthem from the Shaker tradition; and the Keshith Dancers offered interpretation through dance. John Holbert read the evening's scripture lesson from the seventeenth chapter of Acts and led the congregation in prayer. Special music was offered by Roy Beck and Sue Smith.

After his introduction by Walker Railey, Conference Preacher Bishop Robert E. Goodrich challenged the congregation to "bless the Lord" by accepting Jesus Christ, doing their job well whatever it is, having a Christian home, letting their light shine.

As the trumpet called the camp meeting together, so it also sent the worshippers forth, and the service was concluded.

MORNING WORSHIP SERVICE

The morning worship service began with the singing of "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms." John Tatum read the scripture from James 2:14 and other selected verses following. Tatum proclaimed our responsibility to live our faith and exemplify that faith by our works. Calling Christians to live in love, to witness through our works and to be participants in working for change and reconciliation, Tatum implored, "Do not color my God." The service was closed as the congregation sang, "I Want Jesus to Walk With Me."

TUESDAY, MAY 29, 1984
MORNING BUSINESS SESSION

Bishop John Russell called this morning business session to order. Ann Barton announced that handmade banners depicting the time-line of the church were on display in the hallway of Highland Park United Methodist Church and urged the members of the Conference to make it a point to see them. Barton also announced that the musical scores and recordings used for the Sunday evening worship service were available at Cokesbury.

District Superintendents

J. D. Mooring presented the Composite Report of the District Superintendents. Mooring shared the work of the extended cabinet as the members of that cabinet sought to fulfill the theme of the Conference, "Proclaiming Grace and Freedom for 200 Years, 1784-1984." Mooring directed attention to some specific areas: The Bishop's Call to Evangelism, the strengthening and improving of the missional priority of the Ethnic Minority Local Church, the work of the Council on Ministries, Church Development, Cooperative Parishes, Transitional Communities, Church Assistance and Financial Support Beyond the Local Church. Mooring called for a new spirit of unity, assuring that as United Methodists we dare not give up the fight for oneness in the Spirit and in the Lord.

J. D. Mooring, Sr., presents the District Superintendents' report.

United Methodist Women

Bobbie J. Mankey, Conference President of the United Methodist Women, reported on the work of that agency. Mankey shared the spirit of celebration as "women in mission" recognize 100 years with roots in several traditions, helping make them what they are today and setting them on the way to tomorrow. As an agency of the United Methodist Church they continue to work through prayer, study and action; to search out what their mission is in today's world; to make gifts to mission and to grow. Mankey called for approval of the report of the United Methodist Women. Approval was given by vote of the Conference members.

Board of Laity

Charles Harper reported on the work of the Board of Laity during the past year and the development of what he likes to call "the Lay Cabinet". Harper indicated a desire to create enthusiasm in the local church through lay leaders. Harper called for approval of the report of the Board. Approval was given by vote of the Conference members.

Board of Ordained Ministry, II

Ben Feemster called for recognition of the members of the Board of Ordained Ministry by asking them to stand. Feemster expressed appreciation to the Council on Finance and Administration for making possible more scholarship funding, thereby providing $45 per semester hour per North Texas Conference seminary student in the coming year. Feemster moved the election of members of the Board of Ordained Ministry as listed in the report of the Committee on Nominations, pages 6 and 7. Election of these members at this point would make it possible for them to begin organization and work now. The nominationed persons were elected to their positions on this Board by vote of the Conference clergy members.

Ministers Beyond the Local Church

Bob Davis recognized those Conference members who are appointed to serve Beyond the Local Church by calling for them to stand. Davis asked that members from other Conferences serving in this capacity come forward and introduce themselves. Two did so: Joe Hale, General Secretary to the World Methodist Council and Roger Wallace, Chaplain, Orlando, Florida.

Division of Professional Development

Herman Cook called for acceptance of the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry, expressing gratitude to Wally Chappell for his work with ministerial evaluation materials and to Leonard Tomlinson for his direction in the area of Continuing Education. Cook urged participation in the use of the Southwest Career Center. Chairperson Tomlinson has recommended that the status of the Division change, making it a sub-group of the Board of Ordained Ministry. The report of the Division was accepted by vote of the Conference.

Division of Local Pastors

Ben Feemster moved that the following appointments as local pastor be approved:

Division on Preparation and Qualifications

Timothy Walker reported for the Committee on Preparation and Qualifications. Walker announced that rehearsal for the evening ordination service would be held at First United Methodist Church, Dallas, immediately following the close of the afternoon business session, and that all participants should attend. Walker urged the reading of the requirements for ordination and the ordination process included in the submitted report of the Board. Walker expressed his gratitude and thanks for the love and support he had received within the Conference and his regret at leaving for a new appointment in the Central Texas Conference. Walker introduced Ben Shinn and commended his four years' service to the Conference as Registrar of the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Bishop Russell addresses the ordinands.

Bishop Russell addressed a word to those seeking election as Deacons and Elders. Citing this as a high moment in the lives of those before him, Bishop Russell called it also a sacred hour and issued a charge to understand what entry into membership in the Conference means. Bishop Russell lifted up the aspect of covenant in terms of response to God's call, of being in ministry to others, and of being sent to serve. Bishop Russell also called for a responsible attitude toward serving "where we are sent" in the best way possible, without placing restrictions on any potential appointment. "The significant issues are what is best for the church and for the Annual Conference and where can your gifts for ministry best be used?" Bishop Russell assured the ordinands that God would bless them and grant them a rewarding ministry if they will but be true to that covenant.

Ben Shinn called for approval of the election of the following as Deacons and Probationary Members:

Charles Robert Carnahan, Ki Yul Chung, Harold Glenn Dangerfield, Paul Charles Lynd Escamilla, Craig Baxter Gallaway, Rickey Lee Hawkins, Deborah Jill Johnson, Robert Grey Morton Johnson Jr., Thomas Rufus McKnight, Mark Thomas Moore, Stephen Andrew Robertson, Janice Colleen Fry Segroves, David Joe Turner, Wally Alfred Williams.

These persons were presented before the Conference and approved for Deacons Orders and Probationary Membership by vote of the Conference clergy members. They were greeted by Bishop Russell as Probationary Members and reminded of ordination at this evening's service in First United Methodist Church, Dallas.

Ben Shinn, Registrar of the Board of Ordained Ministry, recommended the continuation as Probationary Members these persons attending approved schools of theology: Kathleen Baskin, Cathy Ann Bingham, Lois Geiger Cooper, William Allison Flint, Jo Ann Holy, Karl Sherman Klaus, George N. Malek, Dorothy Jane Dickson Rishel, John Clarence Rosenburg, Donald Alan Smith, J. Lynn Vowell, Robert Thomas Williams. They were approved.

Shinn recommended continuance as Probationary Members these persons who are graduates of approved schools of theology serving under full-time appointment: William James Allen, Jr.; Leighton Hicks Bearden; Georjean Hall Blanton; Keith Payne Boone; Helen Ruth Brock Bowen; Dana Glenn Bruce; Judith Alzina Cooper; Robert R. Fletcher; John Dennis Gondol; Albert Ray Gregory; Leroy Haynes, Jr.; Michael Alan House; Larry Holland Krueger; Marjorie Gail McNeir; David Bryant Metz; William Douglas Miller; and Susan Bingham Monts. Their continuance was approved.

Shinn further recommended continuance as Probationary Members these persons in advanced studies who have graduated from approved schools of theology: Paul Alvin Ledbetter, Jr.--University of Texas Law School; Joel Bennett Green--University of Aberdeen, Scotland. They were approved.

Upon Shinn's recommendation, Martha Gilmore was presented for admission as a Probationary Member in recognition of orders in another Christian denomination. She was approved.

As Shinn called their names, the candidates to be elected as ministerial members in Full Connection were invited to stand before the Conference: John Franklin Allen, Jr.; Robert Ashley Bayles; Joe Henry Carmichael; Linda Margaret Watkins Smith; Don Henry Yeager. Vote was taken upon each candidate individually, and each was approved. The Conference members rose to their feet in appreciation, and the special presentation of a copy of his book, METHODISM MOVES ACROSS NORTH TEXAS, was made to each candidate by Walter Vernon.

Incoming clergy in full connection receive words from Bishop Russell.

Shinn recommended discontinuance as Probationary Members William Alan Byas, Steven D. Coffman, and Randy Alan Hunt. Discontinuance was granted.

Ben Feemster, Chairperson, moved adoption of the entire report of the Board of Ordained Ministry. The motion carried, and Bishop Russell expressed his appreciation to the members of the Board.

A word of personal privilege was requested by David Shawver. Shawver noted that Bob Davis, who is going to Ohio to be chaplain of a United Methodist hospital, has had an outstanding ministry to people at Parkland Hospital, Dallas, and in the training of others for that ministry. Davis has also been significantly involved in the Plymouth Park UMC as church school teacher and counselor. Shawver invited the Conference to express to Davis its gratitude and loving farewell.

Board Of Diaconal Ministry

Lillian Sills called upon the Board's division chairpersons to offer reports.

Royce Hardaway, Chairperson of the Division on Insurance, Salaries, and Pensions, summarized the benefits available to diaconal ministers in this Annual Conference. On behalf of the Division and for the forty three diaconal ministers in the North Texas Annual Conference Hardaway thanked the Conference for providing benefits that exceed those provided in the majority of annual conferences.

Esther Zimmerman, Chairperson of the Division of Professional Growth, reported the Division's support of diaconal ministers particularly in the area of continuing education opportunities and in the administration and record-keeping of their educational progress.

Paul Sackett, Chairperson of the Division of Consecration, Certification, and Conference Relations and Registrar of the Board of Diaconal Ministry, made the following recommendations to the Conference:

1. Consecration as a Diaconal Minister: Patricia Ann Smith Wheaton; approved;

2. Certification as Director of Music, Peggy O'Neal Coke; as Director of Music, Phyllis Wilson; as Associate in Music, Rita M. Pike; approved.

Sackett further reported the following transfers to the North Texas Annual Conference: Tommie D. Daniels, Jr.; Dale Robinson; and Margaret Robinson. Persons having asked for leave of absence were Lila Coffee, Sue Crutchfield, Dorothy Holloman, Opal Peyron. Forster Lord Day and Howard M. Fryman have taken voluntary termination.

Patricia Wheaton receives approval as a Diaconal Minister.

Lillian Sills thanked four ex-officio members of the Board--Wm. T. Stephenson, Bruce Weaver, Ervin Gathings, Lane Tunnell--and then invited all diaconal ministers to stand that they might be recognized. Bishop Russell called for adoption of the entire report, and it was adopted.

Jack Gibson requested a word of personal privilege to note that although Noel and Frances Marie Bryant were not able to be on the floor of the Conference due to Noel's recent surgery, the Conference recognizes their contributions to ministry throughout the North Texas Annual Conference since 1954. Gibson invited Conference members to offer their expressions of gratitude to the Bryants.

Ann Cardwell asked for a word of personal privilege that she might introduce two visitors to the Conference: Roy Shilling, president of Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas; and Joe Elmore, President of the Texas United Methodist College Association (Suite 209, 950 Westlake High Drive, Austin, TX 78746). Both greeted the Conference and expressed appreciation for the Conference's support of the United Methodist-related institutions of higher education and ministry in Texas.

Memorial Service

At 11:00 a.m. the Memorial Service was held in the sanctuary of Highland Park United Methodist Church with the congregation being led in music by organist Philip E. Baker. Following the singing of the hymn "Servant of God, Well Done," Russell Regan led the opening prayer and read the First Lesson (Romans 8:28-30). After the congregation had sung "On Jordan's Stormy Banks I Stand," Jack Meyers read the Gospel Lesson (John 14:12-24).

The sermon was delivered by William T. Stephenson who called the Conference in this hour of remembering to celebrate the eternal. From the 14th chapter of Luke's gospel Stephenson told the story of Mary's extravagance of love and suggested that a parallel of that extravagance of love was to be found in the love and service of those remembered today.

At the reading of the names of ministers and spouses who have died during the past conference year, the ordinands for this year placed a rose on the altar in memory of those whose lives we celebrate:

MINISTERS: Grover Cleveland House, Albert F. Click, Carl Decker Reynolds;

SPOUSES: Katie Jordan Brown [Rev. Henry W. Jordan], William S. Franklin [Rev. Velma Franklin], Ida B. Stout [Rev. M. A. Stout].

Stephenson pronounced the benediction, and the congregation sang "For All the Saints" to conclude the service.

Courtesy And Resolutions

Bob Young of the Committee on Courtesy and Resolutions recognized the clergy wives who had come to the Conference floor. Luncheons for groups of seminary alumni were announced after which Young also recognized the presence of Mildred [Mrs. Paul] Martin, whom the Conference greeted with standing appreciation, and Twila [Mrs. McFerrin] Stowe.

The session was adjourned.

AFTERNOON BUSINESS SESSION

The afternoon session was opened with the singing of "Blow Ye the Trumpet, Blow". Bishop Russell then called for the continuation of the Report of the Board of Church and Society which had been deferred for Order of the Day on Monday afternoon.

Board of Church and Society

Martha Boyd Watson, Chairperson of the Board of Church and Society directed the attention of the Conference to page 6A of the Pre-Conference Resource Packet for further consideration of the legislative proposal dealing with "The Christian's Role in Providing for Responsible Media."

Joe Florence proposed and received a second for an amendment to the Desired Implementation of the proposal which called for a letter to be written to the Southland Corporation expressing gratitude for their humanitarian and philanthropic activities but calling attention to their insensitivity to the problem of the sale of pornographic magazines in their 7-Eleven Stores. The amendment was defeated.

David Rucker offered and received a second for the following amendment to the Desired Implementation of the proposal:

> "That the North Texas Annual Conference direct the Board of Church and Society to carry our concern about the sale/distribution of explicitly pornographic materials in 7-Eleven stores and to report back to the Conference next year concerning progress in this area."

Wil Bailey addresses the issue of pornography.

The amendment carried.

Fred Kandeler moved that the format of the resolution be restructured to correspond with other legislative proposals, i.e., the deletion of the statement "In order to positively address the gravity of the issues before us, the Board of Church and Society resolves:" and the addition of the heading "Desired Implementation."

The Chairperson accepted the change.

George Ordway (Trinity UMC, Duncanville) requested an editorial change in Item "d" of Desired Implementation so that the opening line would read "That individuals and congregations..." and would be consistent with other statements of implementation.

The Chairperson accepted the editorial addition.

Charles Harper, Chairperson of the Board of the Laity, expressed that Board's endorsement of this legislative proposal.

A Conference member called for the question, and the proposal carried. LA7

Martha Boyd Watson then directed the Conference's attention to page 7 of the Pre-Conference Resource Packet and the legislative proposal dealing with "Environmental Concern." Since the implementation of this proposal rested heavily on a major event which has been cancelled, the Board withdrew the proposal.

Watson further called to the Conference's attention pages I & IB of the yellow sheets in the Pre-Conference Resource Packet. The "Report in Response to a Resolution Passed in 1983" [i.e., The Illegal Alien Resolution of 1983] was offered for the Conference's information.

Board of Pensions

Bruce Weaver, Chairperson of the Board of Pensions, directed the Conference to the second page of the Board's report as contained in the Supplement to the Pre-Conference Resource Packet. Under Item 2 Weaver corrected the amount for Unfunded Liability from $525,000 as printed to a new figure of $500,000. This item has not been increased during the last few years; but the Board, in anticipation of increased disbursements, originally recommended an amount of $550,000 for next year. In consultation with the Council on Finance and Administration the Board later proposed a compromise figure of $525,000 and then agreed to return to the former amount of $500,000 with the understanding that next year $550,000 will need to be requested.

Bruce Weaver discusses the Conference Pension Program.

Weaver then presented the report and at its conclusion invited retired ministers and their spouses to stand. Particular recognition was given to Paul and Grace Cardwell as Paul has answered "present" to the roll call of the North Texas Annual Conference every year for the past 60 years.

After explaining that the service year annuity rate for 1985 would be set at $200 for Full Members of the Annual Conference (compared to $183 in 1984) and $150 for Local Pastors (compared to $137 in 1984), Weaver moved adoption of the entire report. It was adopted. LA8

Turning to the first page of the Board's report, Weaver moved adoption of the recommendation contained therein; a second to the motion was given, and Weaver offered the Board's rationale for the recommendation. On January 1, 1982, the North Texas Annual Conference entered into the new pension program of the General Board of Pensions and the new self-insured health insurance plan with the administration of those two programs being the responsibility of what was then the office of the Area Director of Professional Ministries. Experience soon showed that these added responsibilities were more than could be expected of the office of the Area Director of Professional Ministries so that on July 1 of that year the Board of Pensions and the Commission on Insurance contracted with the Agency Service Division of the United Methodist Communications Council to administer the pensions and insurance programs. Changes in that Division led to consideration by the Board and Commission as to how the two programs might best be administered in the future.

The Board of Pensions and Commission on Insurance are now recommending the establishment of a North Texas Conference Pensions and Insurance Office with the Officer appointed by and amenable to the Bishop with cost of operation and responsibility for job descriptions being the equally shared responsibility of the Board and Commission.

Leighton Farrell spoke in favor of the recommendation, and Bruce Weaver then presented the proposed remuneration package for the new Pensions and Insurance Officer:

Salary	$30,000
Auto Allowance	3,046
Housing & Utilities	4,800
Total	$37,846

Jack Gibson asked whether creation of this position and appointment of this person was moving the Conference toward having another Director. Weaver responded that the Board and Commission have no such intentions for the position. Gibson further inquired as to whether the proposal was a result of the task force appointed by the Bishop to study staff needs for the Conference. Weaver responded that the proposal had been presented to that task force which had affirmed the idea as one way to deal with the problem. Gibson voiced his additional concern that an increase of 10 percent was being recommended in salary categories for this office whereas only a 7 percent increase was being recommended for District Superintendents and those on equitable salaries.

Edgar Huffstutler asked whether the cost of this new position would consume financial savings accummulated through the self-insured insurance program. William Dean responded for the Commission on Insurance that creation of this position would not raise the cost of insurance from the standpoint of administration.

B. C. Robertson asked for clarification as to whether the salary paying units (Board of Pensions and Commission on Insurance) would pick up the costs for insurance and pension as well as salary and related items. Weaver stated that they would do so.

Boyd Sawyer inquired as to whether the job description for this position was written or still in process. Weaver responded that if the recommendation is approved by the Conference, the person will continue to provide the services now currently being offered; but changes may necessarily be made as the office evolves.

Don Renshaw spoke in favor of the recommendation if the Conference is to continue to get the same sort of service that Randy James and the Agency Service Division have been providing.

Secretarial Staff traces Conference actions.

Otis Perry (Plymouth Park UMC, Irving) asked whether consideration had been given to combining the Board of Pensions and Commission on Insurance into a single "Ministry of Benefits" board such as corporations have. Weaver and Dean responded that such a combination does not seem workable at the present time, and Bishop Russell reminded the Conference that the BOOK OF DISCIPLINE mandates a Board of Pensions.

Bishop Russell called for a vote to adopt the recommendation; it was adopted. LA9

Board of Ordained Ministry

Ben Feemster, Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, moved an addition to the Report of the Division of Local Pastors:

> "that the name of George Randall Nix be added to the list of those approved as Local Pastors pending the completion of licensing school."

The Conference voted approval.

Board of Church Development

Bill Crouch, Chairperson of the Board of Church Development, expressed appreciation to Spurgeon Dunham III and Phil Mercer for having brought the Board of Church Development into being as a body which holds together on behalf of the whole Conference the multiple concerns of church extension, transitional communities, town and country churches, and church assistance. Crouch noted particularly the phenomenal growth of the Visionary program, with the Sherman-McKinney District being the first to achieve its goal of 5 percent of the members enrolled in the shares program, and the work of the Division of Transitional Communities whose efforts in cooperative parishes in the central city have caught the imagination of the whole Conference. The work of the Board of Church Development is the work of Jesus Christ and a signal that the Methodists are once more spreading scriptural holiness across the land.

Joyce Merz, Chairperson of the Division of Transitional Communities, and George Holcomb presented the Conference with an opportunity to hear and see through song and slides the work of the Division. Through its share of the Visionaries funding, the Division is collaborating with local congregations in changing neighborhoods so that they will not only survive but also serve those neighborhoods and grow in the process.

Paul Goodrich, Chairperson, presented the report of the Division of Town and Country Churches noting that the Division exists to facilitate and support the ministry of town and country congregations throughout our Conference. There are currently two very successful larger parishes, North Lamar and Hopkins County; and the total number of town and country shares has grown to over 1,000 during this past year.

Clergy and lay members of Hopkins County Parish present program for Town and Country luncheon.

Conference members sing about Church Development work.

Don McIver reported for the Division of Church Extension and its Chairperson, H. Clayton Sanders, Jr. The Division has been blessed with the gift of a new church site by John and Janet Bryan and by the decision of the Custer Road United Methodist Church to pledge $70,000 to be raised during the next two years as "Project Genesis" to help provide start-up funds for a new congregation in the Plano/North Dallas area.

Duk Lee, pastor of Wesley Korean United Methodist Church, expressed his congregation's gratitude to the Division and Conference for their support which has resulted in the construction of their new building. Construction of the relocated First United Methodist Church, Coppell, and at New Covenant United Methodist Church, Sunnyvale, as well as anticipated construction of Trietsch Memorial United Methodist Church, Flower Mound, were further examples of the Division's efforts.

Paul Goodrich notes the growth of Town and Country Church Development shares.

Bill Crouch discusses Church Development.

Reporting for the Division of Church Assistance, Millard Fairchild, Chairperson, noted that the Division provides funds to help churches with capital funds needs for such items as mortgage payments, repairs, land acquisition.

Bill Crouch directed the attention of the Conference to the Church Development tabloid which had been distributed to Conference members. He also announced the dates for the 1985 Church Development banquets:

Dallas Central/Dallas South	February 7
Paris-Sulphur Springs	February 11
Dallas-Denton/Dallas NE	February 12
Wichita Falls	February 18 & 19
Sherman-McKinney	February 21

Crouch further reported that part of the work of the Board of Church Development will be the sponsoring of a seminar for effective pastors to be led by Ken Callahan on September 25, 26, & 27 with a maximum of 40 participants.

Raymond Williams expressed concern regarding churches such as Glen Oaks United Methodist Church, Dallas, which find themselves with declining membership in an area of racial transition. Williams asked whether the Division of Transitional Communities had considered the appointment of an ethnic minority associate pastor to such churches. Crouch responded that in the case of Glen Oaks church such was being studied; and Milton Guttierrez II, pastor of the church, reported that the congregation is no longer experiencing decline in membership and has appointed a "futures" committee.

Crouch moved acceptance of the report. It was adopted, and Bishop Russell admonished the Conference to remember the task that is before us in the area of church development.

Cokesbury Stores

Mary Turner was introduced and announced the opening of the new Dallas Cokesbury store. Turner presented Charles Neal, member of the Publishing Board of the United Methodist Church.

Charles Neal introduced Ron Patterson, book editor of the United Methodist Publishing House. Patterson announced the publication of the WORKS OF JOHN WESLEY, edited by Albert Outler. Patterson presented the first copy off the press of this long-awaited work to Bishop John Russell. Copies are now available for purchase in the Cokesbury display at Conference, and Albert Outler will be present to autograph copies during adjournment. Patterson presented a check in the amount of $9,248.48 for the Pension Fund of the North Texas Conference.

Bishop Russell expressed appreciation for this special gift and recognized Albert Outler, who came before the Conference to share briefly the importance of the work of John Wesley in the future of the United Methodist Church as it reflects on its doctrinal heritage. Outler autographed Bishop Russell's copy of the Wesley volume.

Conference-Wide Missional Project

Don Waddell, Chairperson of the Board of Global Ministries, presented the report on the Conference-wide mission project, high-lighting the report as found in the Pre-Conference Packet. Waddell called for acceptance of the proposal:

> That North Texas United Methodists join in a common effort to purchase at least fifty multi-purpose TRAG vehicles, work with the manufacturer to place them in mission fields where they are most needed, and then maintain close contact with the persons who receive the vehicles. The cost for the 8 h.p. TRAG is $1,500 plus an average of $400 for shipping, for a total cost of $1,900.

Waddell reported that the manufacture of these vehicles is done by handicapped persons. The vehicle is on display in the parking lot outside the Conference area. Waddell called for the Conference to "enter into this missional project with enthusiasm." Sybil W. Taylor, lay member from Highland Park United Methodist Church, presented an amendment:

> Add to the proposal after the word "vehicles", ...and that the Conference Board of Global Ministries prepare and present a formal, written report to the 1985 North Texas Annual Conference regarding the placement and use of these vehicles.

Waddell accepted this amendment as presented.

DeForest Wiksten questioned whether production of these would put the Church in a retail business since they could be purchased by individuals for yard-use, and whether the TRAG is patented. Waddell answered that the production of the machines is very limited in order to keep the cost down and that there is no anticipation to produce more than are planned for missional use. Waddell also reported that the TRAG is under patent.

Bishop Russell called for vote of approval of the project from the Conference, and approval was given. LA10

Conference members vote to receive a report.

Council on Ministries

John Beall, chairperson of the Council on Ministries, introduced the various chairpersons of the agencies of the Council.

Commission on Archives and History

Lillian Tate called this Commission the least of the bodies in terms of budget and controversy, but called on Conference members to think of how much has been heard about the Bi-Centennial Year and about the newly published book METHODIST EXCITEMENT IN TEXAS. The Commission is being heard in terms of accomplishment. Tate urged that churches across the Conference start--or continue-- work on their history, and use the resources of the Conference such as the repository on the campus of Southern Methodist University.

Commission on Higher Education and Campus Ministry

Ann Cardwell reminded the Conference of Luke's story of Jesus in the temple and called it a Biblical witness of the importance of learning. Cardwell urged members of the Conference to support campus ministries, thereby impacting wisdom with God's values. Cardwell then issued a plea to members to keep Huston-Tillotson College in mind for second-mile giving during the year. Cardwell presented the resolution in the supplement to the Pre-Conference Packet in regard to Texas Wesleyan University that encourages the Trustees and Officers of that college to bring the institution into conformity with the guidelines of the University Senate. It was approved. LA11 Cardwell then yielded the podium to Gary Regan. Regan presented a $500 scholarship to Johnny Maberry of First United Methodist Church of Allen. Maberry issued thanks to the Conference, to the Board who made the scholarship possible, and to his pastor, Fred Winslow, and his Youth Director, Joey Holy.

Commission on Status and Role of Women

Jean Wood, Chairperson of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women, reported that this agency is finishing ten years as an active commission. In its work the commission has presented materials to support and highlight women's work in the church and community, as well as supporting women in ministry, facilitating gatherings and seminars on women-related issues and on concerns such as justice. The Commission encouraged dialogue between women in the professional ministry and lay women. Workshops have been presented to discuss issues that arise from General Conference, from Annual Conference, and from local churches. Wood called for a common ministry of carrying concern and love to all God's people.

Conference members take time for refreshments and fellowship.

Board of Church and Society

Martha Boyd Watson, Chairperson of the Board of Church and Society, asked for members of the Conference to fill out a questionnaire:

"In your opinion, what is the single most important social issue in the world today?"

Using the front pages of the DALLAS TIMES HERALD, Watson pointed to the fact that the world is fraught with issues already addressed by the Board, such as peace and justice, hunger related issues and the duty and privilege of voting.

Board of Discipleship

Jim Kimmel Brown reported on the work of the Board of Discipleship, citing the need for the pastor to get out of the pulpit and challenge the congregation to get out of the pew. Brown issued a challenge to be ready to meet the future before it runs over us and indicated that the task in the local churches is in the area of evangelism -- making the Word alive. Brown highlighted the work of the Divisions of the Board. The Division of Education is attempting to decrease duplication of work and to become aware of studies that are needed. The Division of Worship, under the direction of Ann Barton, has done an outstanding job of preparation for worship for this Conference. The Division of Evangelism is seeking to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The Board seeks to continue to serve the members of the Conference, enabling all to be faithful witnesses.

Michael Nichols, Conference Secretary, made various announcements regarding meetings for the evening.

Charles Neal pronounced the benediction, and the Tuesday afternoon session was dismissed by Bishop John Russell.

EVENING SERVICE OF WORSHIP

The Service of Consecration and Ordination was conducted on Tuesday, May 29, 1984, at 7:30 p.m. in the sanctuary of the First United Methodist Church of Dallas, Bishop John Russell, presiding.

The service opened with the singing of "Christ the Lord is Risen Today"; and following the invocation which was offered by Lillian Sills, Ben Feemster read the Scripture Lesson for the evening, II Timothy 1:1-14. Anthems were sung by the Tyler Street UMC, Dallas, Choir; and the sermon was preached by Bishop Robert E. Goodrich. Bishop Goodrich, reading Ephesians 4:11-16, noted that Paul's description of a Christian could very well be the description of a minister. This ordination ceremony, the Bishop reminded the ordinands, provided another check-point and opportunity to turn back if they did not feel the call of God and the work of the Holy Spirit with their spirits to make of them ministers of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through service in the United Methodist denomination. The dramatic, liturgical act of the laying on of hands in this service of ordination would provide an opportunity for the ordinands to feel their standing in the endless line of splendor and to confirm their sense of identity.

Those presented for consecration and ordination were as follows:

FOR CONSECRATION AS DIACONAL MINISTER:

FOR ORDINATION AS DEACON:

FOR ORDINATION AS ELDER:

John Franklin Allen, Jr.; Robert Ashley Bayles; Joe Henry Carmichael; Linda Margaret Watkins Smith; Don Henry Yeager.

Following the congregational Litany of Dedication, Ervin Gathings pronounced the benediction; and the service concluded with the singing of "All Praise to Our Redeeming Lord."

WEDNESDAY, MAY 30, 1984
MORNING SERVICE OF WORSHIP

To begin the morning service of worship at 8:30 a.m., Bill Crouch offered an opening prayer and invited the congregation to join in singing the first and last stanzas of "Jesus the Name High Over All."

Crouch then read II Samuel 18:19ff as the scripture lesson and text for his devotional, "Sent in Christ's Name." Asking what was the difference between Ahimaaz and the Cushite in the biblical narrative, Crouch suggested that the fundamental distinction was that the Cushite was sent. And that is our uniqueness as United Methodists, both laity and clergy.

Following the singing of "O God Who Gathers Into One," a hymn written by Philip E. Baker for the Bicentennial of Methodism in America, the service concluded with a responsive benediction.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 30, 1984
MORNING BUSINESS SESSION

Bishop Russell called to order the morning business session and recognized Marion Greve who reminded the Conference of the Health and Welfare Luncheon to be held today in the SMU Student Center. Bishop Russell noted that this luncheon is part of the Annual Conference Session.

Annual Conference Council On Ministries

Bishop Russell called on John Beall, Chairperson of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries, for the continuation of the Council's report. Beall, in turn, introduced Commission chairpersons.

COMMISSION ON CAMPING AND RETREAT CENTERS: Ruth Thomasson, Chairperson, thanked the Commission members and invited them to stand for recognition. Thomasson also directed the Conference's attention to the centerfold of the Camping and Retreat Ministries Brochure which illustrated the Five Year Development Plan for the Bridgeport and Texoma Centers. Special appreciation was expressed to Tom Christian who was presented with a check for $2,000, a gift given in Tom's name and in appreciation for his service. This gift will make possible the development of a worship area at the Texoma Center, the subject of the dreams of Tom and the Commission.

COMMISSION ON COMMUNICATIONS AND RESOURCES: Reporting on behalf of Bill Matthews, John Thornburg noted that the Commission would like to call Conference's attention to the work of the Commission in overseeing the Conference Resource Center and in setting the editorial policy and subscription rates for the North Texas Conference Edition of THE UNITED METHODIST REPORTER. Thornburg further shared the future possibility of developing telecommunications ministries.

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE: Zan Holmes, Chairperson, reported that the Commission has been involved in several significant areas, particularly in the formation and funding of two ethnic caucuses within the North Texas Annual Conference: the Black Caucus, chaired by Paul Hill, and the Asian/American Caucus, chaired by Philip del Rosario. Paul Hill reported on the activities of the Black Caucus at the General, Jurisdictional, and Annual Conference levels.

BOARD OF AGE LEVEL MINISTRIES: Ramon Womack, Chairperson, outlined the Board's work to serve and resource districts and local churches in training and planning events. Inviting Board members and those who had participated in age-level sponsored events to stand, Womack illustrated the growth of the Board's responsibilities with the figures of Summer Camp attendance, an increase from 875 campers in 1975 to a projected registration of 1,600 by 1985. Information regarding up-coming training events was introduced to the Conference:

September 8- 9	Forum on Youth Ministry and Workers with Youth
November 9-10	Youth Certified Laboratory Training
September 9	Sunday School Growth & Renewal Workshop

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS: DeForrest Wiksten, Chairperson, called to the Conference's attention the document "BAPTISM, EUCHARIST, AND MINISTRY," suggesting that the study of this document may very well be the Church's most urgent agenda. The congreations of Grace UMC (Dallas), University Park UMC (Dallas), and First UMC (Wichita Falls) have been selected to study the document and make a written report, although all local churches are encouraged to undertake a clear study of this important document.

COMMISSION ON ASIAN MINISTRIES: Philip del Rosario, Chairperson, noted that this is the newest Commission of our Conference and, its existence is occasion for celebration of the work of the Holy Spirit in the North Texas Annual Conference since this is the only such commission in Methodism. The Conference was also called to celebrate the existence of three Asian churches within the United Methodist family in North Texas: First Korean, Wesley Korean, First Filipino/American. The Commission is developing a master plan for continuing to meet the unique needs of peoples of Asian backgrounds.

An addition to the Commission's report was offered by Won Kie Kim and accepted by del Rosario:

> "Because the Asian/American people in this region are increasing so rapidly and since the existing Asian/American United Methodist congregations are growing, we urge the North Texas Annual Conference to set up the goal of developing at least one new Asian/American United Methodist church each year during this quadrennium."

As Bishop Russell was called from the platform for an emergency telephone message, he invited Bishop W. McFerrin Stowe to preside over the Conference Session.

DIVISION OF YOUTH MINISTRY: Gordon Taylor, President of the Conference Council on Youth Ministries, reported that the decline in contributions to the Youth Service Fund was halted in 1983 with giving of $7,272 (as compared to 1982 receipts of $857). The Conference Council on Youth Ministries has set a goal of $10,000 for 1984.

Fred Winslow, Chairperson of the Division, highlighted events sponsored for the training of youth and youth workers. Winslow expressed particular gratitude for the General Conference's having voted to continue the National Youth Ministry Organization as a forum for the concerns of youth to be heard and strategies to be developed. Our Conference youth this year began the meeting of their own Youth Annual Conference, and some 600 young people participated in this year's Annual Conference Youth Rally.

Bishop W. McFerrin Stowe presides over the conference business session.

COMMISSION ON THE BLACK CHURCH: Due to the illness of Chairperson Marshall Hodge, Raymond Williams offered to report for the Commission. Williams stated that the evening services which have been held at St. Paul United Methodist Church, Dallas, during the Annual Conference have been scheduled not to conflict with the Conference agenda but have been intended to give Annual Conference members an opportunity to experience worship in the Black tradition. The Commission is also developing a master plan to promote the growth and development of Black churches with a goal of 250 members per church, the education of those new members, and the outreach of those congregations to all persons in need.

John Beall moved adoption of the report, and Bishop Stowe called for the vote. The report was adopted.

A word of personal privilege was requested by Stanley Mays (St. Luke "Community" UMC, Dallas) who offered the following motion which was seconded:

> "that Blacks and other ethnic minorities must be included in all worship services and other Conference events, that when a church in a transitional area reaches 40 percent that minority pastoral leadership be appointed by the Bishop, that the Conference Nominating Committee must consult with the ethnic minority caucuses and the ethnic minority local churches before appointing Conference leadership, and that the Conference Board of Trustees be timely in deeding church property to ethnic populations, using transition in communities as an indicator of action."

Don Renshaw addressed the Conference from the floor, stating that these concerns need to be considered, but questioned the possibility of this, in regard to time. Renshaw moved the referral of each of these issues to the Council on Ministries to be considered for further action. The motion was seconded and carried by vote of the Conference.

Raymond Williams received the floor and expressed anxiety over this motion being referred since it seems that this happens again and again. The concerns of the Black Church are not included in the considerations of the Nominating Committee nor in the Planning Committee of the Annual Conference.

David Shawver expressed appreciation for the services at St. Paul United Methodist Church each evening following the Conference services. Shawver indicated the need for the Conference to hear the cry of the Black membership -- we are in error when we feel the White Church is "taking in" the Black Church; we are two churches "merging" one with the other. The White Church needs to be reminded of the cry to include the Black Church becoming conscious of that in all our meetings, worship services, and all workings of the Conference.

BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES
UNITED METHODIST COMMITTEE ON RELIEF

Don Benton of the Board of Global Ministries, introduced the new Associate General Secretary of the General Board of Global Ministries, the United Methodist Committee on Relief, Norma Kehrberg. Kehrberg recognized both Don Benton and Bruce Weaver for their representation of the General Board in this Conference. Kehrberg then expressed appreciation for gifts of United Methodists to UMCOR, providing food for millions, shelter and clothing for thousands and renewal of hope for those fleeing from war or the results of disaster. Members of the North Texas Conference have been participants, through their gifts, in the miracle of multiplying our resources. Kehrberg spoke as well of the need to continue enabling miracles by providing food aid for African people in crisis as well as enabling people to multiply their own resources...water management, reforestation, seeds, etc. Kehrberg encouraged members of the Conference to continue to support programs which can multiply resources and to pray for the work of UMCOR that it can continue to fulfill the mandate given it by the DISCIPLINE of our church to provide ministries of compassion to people in need on behalf of Jesus Christ.

Older Adult Ministries

Bob Young addressed the need to support Older Adult Ministries and called for churches to be aware of programming for this age group, including The Mountain Top Retreat, The Best Is Yet To Be, and Autumntime Retreat...all to be held at Mt. Sequoyah.

Don Renshaw moved that the time for dismissal of the morning session be moved 15 minutes beyond the scheduled time to allow full coverage to the report from the Bi-Centennial Committee. The motion was seconded and carried.

Don Barnes moved:

> In celebration of the heartwarming discovery that an Oklahoman in our midst, of her own free will now acknowledges that she is a Texan, move that the North Texas Conference "grace-fully" vote honorary Conference membership with voice, without vote and the privilege of sharing pension with the current presiding Bishop to Mary Jean Russell.

The motion was seconded and carried by vote of the Conference.

Bi-Centennial Committee

Don Barnes called for the members of the Bi-Centennial Committee to stand and be recognized by the Conference membership. Barnes then introduced Zan Holmes. Holmes announced a pageant of persons who would share their concerns -- "contestants for need". To the accompaniement of "Jesus Loves the Little Children" persons emblematic of needs of the community came forward and spoke. These included: suicide, environment, fixed income, nuclear war, commitment, prejudice, refugee, health care, racism, violence, substance abuse, propaganda, hunger, family violence, evangelism, peace, single parent, employment. Holmes introduced three persons who addressed the Conference on needs the Church needs to meet during its third century. Yvonne Ewell, Special Assistant to the Superintendent and Planner for Townview Center in Oak Cliff, lifted up these issues as those which need to be addressed in the community:

1. Lack of concensus on what the issues are;
2. Environment and population;
3. Inadequacy of institutions;
4. Diversity of power;
5. Theological ambiguity.

Ewell emphasized the need to properly educate the minorities in order that they may be a part of the power structure and capable of closing the chasm between the Whites and the Minorities. "The Church must come from behind its stained glass windows and be where the issues exist."

Douglas Jackson, Professor from Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, spoke of needs of the future in terms of more "disposable" time...time that will be spent in liesure pursuits...as well as the issue of more "aged". Jackson said that we have a charge to make local churches more effective than they have been in the past. Whites need to make Blacks aware of their concern. The Church is more important in the Black community than in the White and the United Methodist Church is not showing any increase in Black membership. As a Church we are not trying to reach the aging. The Aged get more satisfaction from religion than any other age group. Do we offer them hope or solace? "How well and how eagerly do we listen and how open are we to trying unique techniques?"

John Bryant, Congressman from the Fifth District and member of White Rock United Methodist Church, addressed the problems that the Church faces in the future of the world. Bryant indicated that we need to look at the other human-beings that are riding on this planet with us. Problems of the future will include hunger, production of food, and security. "It is not going to simply be man against man, but man against war." Education needs to be increased in that a sophisticated understanding is needed in order to effectively deal with the problems of the future.

Zan Holmes raised the question: "How has Methodism responded to these quesions in the past and in the present? A slide and audio presentation attempted to answer that question by illustrating several ways in which rural and urban churches have dealt with issues in their communities. Such programs as shared parish work, pre-schools and nurseries, and aid to families struck by natural disasters were highlighted. An overview of how the Church has met special needs in the past in developing this country and the development of hospitals and other care centers was illustrated.

Bishop John Russell encouraged members of the Conference to do the work called for on a "Reflection Sheet" that had been distributed to the floor of the Conference. Bishop Russell asked members to be aware of the problems of their community and their world and to attempt to answer how the Church can be involved in the solution of those problems. It was suggested by Bishop Russell that the sheet be used by the pastors and lay persons present and that it be shared with their Council on Ministries. "May we be able next year to SEE where we are involved with the world as a local church."

Zan Holmes introduced DeForest Wiksten. Wiksten gave assurance that as we move into the third millenium of the Church we can be consoled by the fact that the future belongs to God. Our hope lies in that assurance. Wiksten raised the question, "Would we rather sit on the burr and howl, or will we choose to move?" The one human resource at our disposal that is in a major short supply is humility. The need for humility is the call of God for God's people. Wiksten then raised the signs of God's presence...God's work in the world. "God is at work healing and reconciling. God's people can work toward the renewal of the world."

Zan Holmes pronounced the "sending forth," and Michael Nichols made an announcement reminding the members of the Health and Welfare Luncheon and the buses available for transport to the luncheon.

Health and Welfare Luncheon

The Health and Welfare Luncheon was held in the Ballroom of the Student Center. Gaither Day led those present in the Wesleyan Grace. Marion Greve, Chairperson of the Division of Health and Welfare opened the program section of the luncheon and welcomed those present. Greve read selections from Wesley's writings on healing. Greve reported that the members of the Division see their concern as being (1) the balancing of health and religion, (2) the delivering of good health care, (3) the promotion of good health habits. Health and Welfare certificates were presented to:

Dr. Bobbie Stark for the Agape Clinic sponsored by the East Dallas Cooperative Parish, and Douglas Meyer for the Domestic Violence Series sponsored by First United Methodist Church of Dallas.

David Hitt, the new Director of Methodist Hospitals of Dallas, presented an award to their volunteer of the year, Mildred Howard, who had given 600 hours in volunteer service. Hitt then introduced Linda Cox, Chaplain at the hospital who serves patients with cancer-related illnesses. Cox spoke of the strength and power of hope in dealing with these patients.

Harold Burkhardt of the Methodist Mission Home presented their volunteer of the year, Lynette Jorgenson, who has been in the Maple Auxiliary as a volunteer for seven years. Burkhardt then introduced the new audiovisual presentation of the Home and its work. This presentation highlighted the work being done there in regard to unwed mothers, adoption, and ministry to the deaf.

Julian Thomas, Administrator of the United Methodist Nursing Homes of Dallas, honored their volunteer of the year, Floyd Taylor, who works in many areas of aid for the C. C. Young/Blanton Gardens Home, including managing the library. Thomas told of the past, present and future of the Conference ministry to the aging. The C.C.Young/Blanton Gardens home was highlighted and news of two new homes was brought forth. The nursing home in the Sherman-McKinney District is under way in that the land is purchased and building will begin within the next year. Land has been donated for a home in Paris and plans are beginning for that.

Jack Daniels, Administrator of the Methodist Home in Waco, introduced their volunteer of the year, Pat Greenhaw, and presented her with a plaque as she leaves the office of Chairperson of the Home's Commissioners, having served her full term. Daniels introduced his staff members: Tom Strother, Cindy Nietze, and Ty Herring. Daniels requested that members read and heed the written report in the Conference Packet, that they listen to the radio program from the Home early on Sunday mornings, and that they read SUNSHINE, the Home's magazine. Daniels also expressed appreciation for the Conference support of the Home.

Catherine Reaves, new Chairperson for the Division of Health and Welfare, presented Marion Greve with a pin of recognition for his service as Chairperson of the Division. Reaves offered the closing prayer.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 30, 1984
AFTERNOON BUSINESS SESSION

Bishop Russell convened the 2 p.m. afternoon session by calling on members of the Conference to join in singing the hymn, "The Voice of God Is Calling."

Robert Young, for the Committee on Courtesy and Resolutions, invited the Conference members to sing "Happy Birthday" to Mary Jean Russell.

Report of Delegates to General Conference

Charles Harper, Chairperson of the North Texas Annual Conference delegation to the 1984 General Conference, presented other members of the delegation:

LAY DELEGATES: Thalia Matherson, Robert Dillard, Ruth Thomasson, Johnnie Marie Grimes, Scott Smith; RESERVE LAY DELEGATES: Margaret Tarr, Lane Tunnell, Bobbie Mankey, Bill Ball; CLERGY DELEGATES: Walker Railey, Zan Holmes, Jr., Leighton Farrell, William Stephenson, John Ogden, Don Renshaw; RESERVE CLERGY DELEGATES: Ben Feemster, Spurgeon Dunnam III, Wallace Chappell, Wilfred Bailey, William Crouch, Kenneth McIntosh, W. Joseph Washington, Ann Cardwell.

Harper expressed his perception of the mood of General Conference as that of unity with the local churches saying that they are present and ready to go to work. Walker Railey added that during the course of the next four years, the message from the 1984 General Conference will be seen in three emphases:

1. We must be more theologically grounded than we have ever been before as evidenced by the call for three theological studies--ordained ministry, mission of the church, doctrinal standards of the denomination.

2. There must be a closer relationship between grassroots Methodism and the general agencies of the denomination.

3. The Bishops of the United Methodist Church are being called upon to exercise the power of that office, i.e., to watch and enable and speak and act.

Railey also noted that unless we as Local Churches and Annual Conferences enter into the dialogue of these emphases, we are not going anywhere. Also coming out of General Conference was what Railey perceived as a new word: "General Conference took the word 'pluralism,' a noun, and turned it into a verb, 'pluralize.' At the Local and Annual Conference levels we must create new forums where differences can be shared for growth rather than argued for division.

Harper invited questions from the floor; there being none, Railey asked for a word of personal privilege to express on behalf of the entire delegation his appreciation to Charles Harper for his leadership of the delegation and to the Annual Conference for the opportunity for this delegation to attend the General Conference. Johnnie Marie Grimes offered appreciation to both Harper and Railey. Bishop Russell also expressed his gratitude for the hard work and commitment of the entire delegation.

Ethnic Minority Local Church Committee

Henry Masters, Chairperson of the Ethnic Minority Local Church Committee, reported that the 1976 General Conference adopted the first EMLC Missional Priority to address a "crisis" in the life of United Methodist ethnic minority local churches. This priority was affirmed and continued by both the 1980 and 1984 General Conferences. Our Annual Conference EMLC Committee is pleased that many ethnic churches are being assisted and ministries strengthened. The Committee is concerned, however, that funding needs to be strengthened to achieve the goals of evangelism, recognition of the richness of ethnic heritages, and celebration of our unity in Christ.

Masters called on Zan Holmes, Jr., to offer a resolution on behalf of the Committee:

"BE IT RESOLVED BY THE 1984 SESSION OF THE NORTH TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE: [1] That the Annual Conference Council on Ministries be instructed to strengthen the EMLC Committee by broadening ethnic participation in that Committee in keeping with new legislation; [2] That agency chairpersons named to the EMLC Committee serve themselves rather than appointing someone to attend in their place; [3] That there be held a Conference-wide consultation to evaluate the work of the EMLC Missional Priority over the 1981-84 quadrennium, and to receive, interpret and plan implementation of the Missional Priority for the 1985-88 quadrennium; [4] That the Cabinet of the North Texas Annual Conference be respectfully urged to place on the Cabinet Retreat Agenda implementation of the EMLC Missional Priority."

Won Kie Kim offered an amendment to the resolution:

"That more than two appointed cabinet members be members of the EMLC Committee during the 1985-88 quadrennium."

The amendment carried. Vote was then taken on the amended motion; the motion carried.

Masters concluded the Committee's report by recognizing the work of Chauncey Nealy, Conference staff person relating to this Committee. Masters moved adoption of the report; it was adopted.

Ann Cardwell, recognized for a word of personal privilege, presented the following motion:

> "RESOLVED: That the 1984 Annual Conference instruct the Conference Council on Ministries to reproduce and distribute as soon as possible the 4 Bicentennial messages on the Third Century with the mandate that all local church Council on Ministries study them and answer the questions, and that the Bicentennial Committee fund this project."

The motion carried.

Conference Advance Specials

Don Benton, Chairperson of the Council on Finance and Administration, directed the Conference's attention to the list of CONFERENCE ADVANCE SPECIALS on Pages 11, 11A, & 11B of the Pre-Conference Resource Packet and, noting that these ministries had received the approval of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries, moved their adoption. LA12

Following the seconding of Benton's motion, Gary Kincaid moved the following addition which was accepted by Benton:

> "BE IT RESOLVED: That the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church look at its resources in the field of alcohol and offer assistance to the Dallas Indian United Methodist Church by [1] assisting monetarily where possible, [2] providing technical assistance in the development of a drop-in center for the Dallas Native American Community, [3] assist in locating materials for education and prevention of substance abuse problems, [4] assist in training teachers for children's ministry, and [5] providing walk-along experience with neighboring Methodist churches as we strive to learn more; and that this be implemented by [a] asking the Division of Health & Welfare to study seriously ways and means that the North Texas Annual Conference can support this particular ministry of the Dallas Indian UMC, and [b] asking that the Dallas Indian UMC and this particular ministry be the focus of a major article in the North Texas Annual Conference Edition of the UNITED METHODIST REPORTER."

Bishop Russell called for questions; and there being none, vote was taken and the proposal was adopted.

Special Days

Benton further referred the Conference's attention to Page 2 of the Pre-Conference Resource Packet and the list of SPECIAL DAYS. Benton moved adoption of these dated observances; they were adopted. LA13

Council On Finance And Administration

After recognizing the members of the Council, Don Benton called the attention of Conference members to the white pages of the Supplement to the Pre-Conference Resource Packet. On Page 2 of that report he pointed out the proposed remuneration for superintendents and directors then called attention to these items of information and/or change:

1. Conference Claimants Unfunded Liability has been reduced to $500,000 from the $525,000 as printed, resulting in a total asking for that item for 1985 of $776,678 and making the new 1985 Total Annual Conference asking $3,823,840 and the Total Funds on Decimal $5,222,568 with the Total for All Causes being set at $5,526,187. LA14

2. Percentages of Change would therefore be as follows: [1] Apportionments from General Conference, 15.4%; [2] Apportionments from Jurisdictional Conference, 13.0%; [3] Apportionments from Annual Conference, 6.4%; [4] Apportionments from District Sections, 13.8%; and Total All Causes, 8.9%.

There being no questions of the report, the vote was taken; and the report was adopted. Following the vote, Bishop Russell expressed his appreciation to Benton and the Council for their stewardship and very hard work.

Clergy Women

Bishop Russell recognized Barbara Marcum who addressed the Conference on behalf of the clergywomen of the North Texas Annual Conference and expressed appreciation for the opportunity that has been theirs to represent clergywomen throughout the area and their gratitude for Ann Cardwell's having been elected as a Reserve Delegate to the 1984 General Conference.

St. Paul School of Theology--Change in Articles of Incorporation

B. C. Robertson read Article XIII of the Saint Paul School of Theology original Articles of Incorporation:

> "These Articles may be amended at any meeting of the Board of Trustees upon affirmative vote of the majority of the Trustees in office, provided, however, that no amendment shall be made to these Articles of Incorporation until the proposed amendment shall have first been approved in writing by the Board of Education of The Methodist Church and a majority of the Annual Conferences electing Trustees of the corporation as provided for in the By-Laws."

Robertson then read for the Conference's acceptance the following motion:

> "The Board of Trustees of the corporation shall have power to make, alter, amend and repeal the Articles of Incorporation, or any portion thereof, by resolution adopted at any annual, regular, or special meeting of the Board of Trustees, by a majority of a quorum present, provided that the intent to amend, with the text of the proposed amendment, be published and circulated with the written notice of the Trustee meeting."

Robertson explained that the rationale for this change is to allow for flexibility for the school's Board of Trustees to act. The vote was called for, and the motion carried. Robertson then requested that the Secretary of the Annual Conference send an appropriate message to St. Paul School of Theology stating that the North Texas Annual Conference has approved the action, and Bishop Russell so instructed the Secretary.

Report of the Journal Committee

George Topper offered the following motion:

> "The Journal Committee has examined and approved the minutes of sessions Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday. We move their acceptance and that the Conference authorize the Secretary and his staff to examine and approve the minutes of the sessions on Wednesday."

The motion carried.

Conference Nominations Committee Report

William J. Washington directed attention of the Conference to the pink pages of the Supplement to the Pre-Conference Resource Packet, the Conference Nominating Committee Report. Washington then moved the election of those listed in Section A--AGENCY CHAIRPERSONS; they were elected. LA15

Washington then moved the election of those listed in Section B--persons serving as CONFERENCE REPRESENTATIVES to boards, councils, divisions, and commissions. Referring to Page 6 (Section B-IV-C1), Tom Brown noted for the Conference's information that two additional laypersons will need to be elected during the year to fill vacancies in order to keep equal clergy/laity representation. Rusty Hedges noted that Page 5 (Section B-III-B2) contained the name of Albert Pitts who is being transferred out of the Conference. Jan Wiksten referred to Page 6 (Section B-IV-B) and inquired as to whether Board of Pensions terms come under the Annual Conference's Standing Rule of nomination for 4-year terms. Bishop Russell explained that the BOOK OF DISCIPLINE supercedes the Standing Rule and mandates an 8-year term. The vote was called for, and these were elected.

Washington further moved the election of those listed in Section C--CONFERENCE COMMITTEES. Margaret Tarr nominated Don L. Noble for addition as layman on the Committee on Episcopacy; Scott Smith was also nominated from the floor. Don Noble was elected. Bishop Russell explained the creation of a Committee on Episcopal Residence (Section C-3) in response to the action taken by General Conference to move toward the provision of an episcopal residence in each area. Espie del Rosario voiced concern that there is no Asian representative on the proposed Nominating Committee (Section C-7). The vote was called for, and these were elected.

Washington directed the Conference's attention to those names listed in SectionD--DISTRICT REPRESENTATIVES--and explained that these nominations are made by the respective districts. Bill Jacobs moved that these persons be elected with District Superintendents being authorized to make corrrections as necessitated by moves. The Conference so voted, and Washington stated that corrections will be entered into the report in the Conference JOURNAL.

Washington moved the election of those listed in Section E--INSTITUTIONAL TRUSTEES/DIRECTORS. Marion Greve noted that on Page 17 of the report, the name of Yale B. Griffis should be removed from the At-Large nominations; and Bishop Russell explained that the New Mexico and Northwest Texas nominees should also be deleted as we do not elect representatives from other Annual Conferences. Greve also noted that the names of Don Strickland and Charles Porter (Section E-2, At-Large) should be placed under the heading: "METHODIST HOME (WACO)". Ann Cardwell offered an addition to the report, which was accepted by Washington, that Item 9 be added as follows:

<E> 9. UNIVERSITY CHRISTIAN CENTER, ETSU, BOARD OF DIRECTORS
Earnest Walt
John Lamb
Vance Underhill
D. Arlington Talbot
J. D. Mooring, Sr.
Don Renshaw
Ray Starnes

Raymond Williams inquired whether representation on the United Methodist Retirement Homes Trustees could be increased. Bishop Russell explained that it could not since representation is specified in the by-laws. Washington noted that the name of R. Bruce Weaver could be deleted from Section E-4 since he has previously been elected. Bishop Russell read the names of the North Texas Annual Conference representatives who are Trustees at Texas Wesleyan College:

Donald R. Benton
John Ogden
Mark Prothro
Charles Terrell

Vote was taken; those listed in Section E were elected.

Washington moved adoption of the full report; it was adopted.

Charles Harper moved the following names for use by the Jurisdictional Nominating Committee:

Bishop Russell recognized Leighton Farrell for a word of personal privilege. Farrell explained that there is only one board elected at General Conference: The General Committee on Council on Finance and Administration. Bishop Russell was elected as one of only three bishops elected for the next quadrennium.

Committee on Courtesy and Resolutions

Ken Dickson, Chairperson, expressed appreciation to the members of the Committee on Courtesy and Resolutions and offered the following motion:

"BE IT RESOLVED that the North Texas Annual Conference express gratitude to God for Bishop John W. Russell completing his first quadrenium of leadership as our chief pastor. Along with the Episcopal Committee we look forward with joyful anticipation to his continued leadership moving this Conference into the third century of United Methodism. That prospect takes an even brignter significance knowing that his leadership is accompanied by his [and our] beloved Mary Jean, who in her own right, continues to furnish us with a truly gracious and dynamic witness of Christian ministry and concern. In addition to the Area Director of Professional Ministries, the Cabinet, the Conference Staff, and Secretaries, we are grateful to the Host congregations for evening worship and business sessions--First Church and Highland Park Church--and to the Host Pastors in Charge for these meetings--Leighton K. Farrell and Walker L. Railey and their staffs. We also thank: Ann Barton and all other professional and lay leaders of the Ministries of Word, Sacrament, Music, and the Arts who brought our Conference magnificent and moving experiences of worship; Bishop Robert E. Goodrich, our Conference preacher; also, Reverend John Tatum, Dr. Bill Stephenson and Dr. Bill Crouch for their preaching ministry; the Conference Lay Leader, Charles Harper; the Agenda Committee and its Chair, Don Renshaw; those congregations, pastors, and Conference groups who hosted and sponsored meetings and events important to the life of the Conference; and most importantly, to each and every Conference member who is finally responsible not only for helping us claim the past and celebrate the present through the meeting of this 1984 session, but who will challenge the future in leading us into the third century of Methodist Mandate to "give Christ" to the American people and to the world."

The resolution was adopted.

Election of Conference Secretary and Statistician

Wm. Stephenson moved that Michael Nichols and Walter Zimmerman be elected to the positions of Conference Secretary and Conference Statistician, respectively, for the next quadrennium. The Conference so voted.

Site for 1985 Session of the Annual Conference

Wm. Stephenson moved that invitations for the next meeting of the Annual Conference be referred to the new Agenda Committee for their consideration.

Wm. Crouch spoke to the motion by inviting the Conference to meet in Denton on the campus of Texas Woman's University. Walker Railey invited the Conference to return to First UMC, Dallas, for its services of worship; and Leighton Farrell invited the Conference business sessions to return to Highland Park UMC.

The motion to refer all invitations to the Agenda Committee was approved.

Charles Harper, as a word of personal privilege and on behalf of the Board of the Laity, requested that the Agenda Committee consider moving the session of the Annual Conference to a date following the Central Texas Session in order that teachers among the laity may participate.

Gary Regan, as a word of personal privilege and on behalf of the members of the Annual Conference, expressed appreciation for the work of the Conference Secretary, Michael Nichols, and the Assistant Secretaries.

Sending Forth Service

The closing service of the North Texas Conference was opened by Donna Whitehead with a scripture sentence and introduction to the Hymn, "Come, Let Us Use the Grace Divine." Whitehead led the congregation in Silent Prayer, followed by the Opening Prayer. Dyuk Kun Lee read the Scripture, John 15:1-18. The congregation sang "A Charge to Keep I Have." Bishop John Russell addressed the Conference, expressing his appreciation for a magnificent Conference and the spirit of a new day "as we move into the third century of Methodism." Bishop Russell lauded the Conference for their faithful and cooperative attitude, and expressed how privileged he feels to be the Bishop of this Conference.

Bishop Russell led the reading of the appointments with the assistance of the District Superintendents. The Bishop then led the Conference in the Covenant and the service was closed with the singing of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

The financial report for April 30, 1984 shows a balance in the general account of $23,859.04. This comes from the reserve balance, payment for Westerfeld Church and year-end distribution. The Hughey Estate of obligated funds is $77,876.78. Disbursements from the Trinity Church funds have been made to the Camp Wisdom United Methodist Church of $20,000.00 and the Trinity United Methodist Church for $1,684.35. LA 4 — AMENDMENTS TO STANDING RULES

FROM: Standing Rules Committee

4A: AMENDMENT TO STANDING RULE 3

ACTION: Add, by attachment to the second paragraph, the following:

"The Conference Nominating Committee is authorized to provide for filling of such vacancies in the personnel of conference agencies between sessions of Annual Conference, unless otherwise provided for in THE DISCIPLINE."

RATIONALE: A motion made and approved at the 1983 Annual Conference should be incorporated into the Standing Rules at this point.

4B: AMENDMENT TO STANDING RULE 3

ACTION: Amend Standing Rule 3 by adding at the end of Paragraph 4 the following:

A Temporary Attachment -- 1983-1988: New chairpersons elected at the 1983 Annual Conference will serve for a period of five (5) years instead of four (4), provided there is no violation of other Standing Rules. Therefore, those persons would serve through the Annual Conference of 1988. At that time they will not be eligible for election as a chairperson for a period of two years.

RATIONALE: A motion made and approved at the 1983 Annual Conference should be temporarily incorporated into the Standing Rules at this point.

4C: AMENDMENTS TO STANDING RULE 3, "THE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES"

ACTION #1: AMEND Paragraph 2, by changing "27" to "24".

ACTION #2: Delete:
"...the chairpersons of each board and each division, the chairperson of each conference commission and committee..."

and add:
"...the conference lay-leader, the chairperson, vice-chairperson, and secretary of the Council on Ministries; the Board and Division Chairpersons of the Board of Age Level Ministries, Board of Church and Society, Board of Discipleship, Board of Global Ministries, and Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry; the chairperson of each independent commission; the chairperson of each commission and committee of the Council on Ministries; chairperson of the Standing Rules Committee;..."

Paragraph 4, "The Council on Ministries," would then read:
"The Council on Ministries shall be composed of the presiding bishop; the district superintendents; the chairperson, vice-chairperson, and secretary of the Council on Ministries; the Board and Division Chairpersons of the Board of Age Level Ministries, Board of Church and Society, Board of Discipleship, Board of Global Ministries, and Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry; the chairperson of each independent commission; the chairperson of each commission and committee of the Council on Ministries; the chairperson of the Standing Rules Committee; the conference secretary; two representatives each of the Conference youth organization, United Methodist Women, and United Methodist Men." (The rest of the paragraph will remain as it is written.)

RATIONALE: This amendment will bring the wording of the Standing Rule into compliance with the organizational structure of the Council on Ministries.

4D: AMENDMENT TO STANDING RULE 3, "BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY"

ACTION: AMEND this section by making the following changes: (Parenthesis ( ) indicates the current reading; ALL CAPS indicates the recommended change.)

The Board of Ordained Ministry shall fulfill the functions described in the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE. WHEN, BECAUSE OF ANY REASON, A DISTRICT NO LONGER HAS SOMEONE ON A DIVISION, THE DIVISION SHALL APPOINT ONE OF ITS MEMBERS TO BE THE LIAISON WITH THAT DISTRICT. The board may assign additional duties to each division. THE BOARD SHALL HAVE THE FOLLOWING DIVISIONS:

1. The Division of Preparation and Qualifications shall concern itself with preparing and qualifying persons for the ORDAINED ministry and guiding those persons in the process of education, training, and ordination.

RATIONALE: This request comes from the Board of Ordained Ministry.

4E: AMENDMENT TO STANDING RULE 3, "BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRIES"

RATIONALE: This amendment would bring the standing rule into compliance with a Revised Description for the Board approved at the 1983 Annual Conference, and printed on p. 240 of the 1983 Journal.

4F: AMENDMENT TO STANDING RULE 3, "BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY"

ACTION: DELETE all of that section, "The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry";

ADD:

THE BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

Through this Board the Annual Conference relates to educational institutions and maintains campus ministry. This Board shall be constituted and function in accordance with the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE and the by-laws of the Board. The Chairperson of the Board is to be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference, with opportunity for additional nominations from the floor. There shall be two divisions:

1. THE DIVISION OF HIGHER EDUCATION
   This Division relates to schools, colleges, and universities that are affiliated with the United Methodist Church through the University Senate. The Division shall consist of two (2) members from each district in the Annual Conference nominated by the District Nominating Committee; and an ex-officio representative from each of the United Methodist related schools in the state. The Division chairperson shall be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference with opportunity for additional nominations from the floor.

2. THE DIVISION OF CAMPUS MINISTRY
This Division relates to all campus ministry units receiving money through the Annual Conference with a Board of Directors accountable to the North Texas Annual Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry. This Division shall consist of two (2) members from each district in the Annual Conference nominated by the District Nominating Committee; and an ex-officio representative from the local board of each campus ministry unit. All campus ministers are ex-officio members of this Division withvoice but no vote. The Division chairperson shall be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference with opportunity for additional nominations from the floor.

RATIONALE: This legislation re-names the divisions, both for simplification and to reorganize them according to their task rather than according to their relationship to colleges and universities. It increases the number of district representatives to enable the board to perform more effectively the large volume of work that comes before it.

4G: AMENDMENT TO STANDING RULE 5

ACTION: Amend Standing Rule 5 by making the following changes: (Parenthesis ( ) indicates the current reading; ALL CAPS indicates the recommended change.)

Section A. No one shall be a member of a conference agency (if he) WHO is in the salaried employment of an institution that receives support from that agency.

Section B. No member of this conference who is a salaried employee of any institution to which this conference contributes shall be a member of the Board of Trustees of the institution by which (he) THAT PERSON is employed.

RATIONALE: These changes will make the language of the Rule more inclusive.

4H: AMENDMENT TO STANDING RULE 10

ACTION: Amend, by adding the following:

"...any minister of the North Texas Conference..."

this amendment:

"...or the spouse, widow, or widower of a minister of the North Texas Conference..."

RATIONALE: In prior rules, "spouses" were included. In the recent Journals, this has been omitted.

4I: AMENDMENT TO STANDING RULE 14, SECTION C

ACTION: AMEND Standing Rule 14, Section C, in the following manner: Parenthesis ( ) indicates current reading; ALL CAPS indicates amendment.

Section C. The Conference Treasurer's books shall be closed annually on (the first Thursday after the first Sunday in January) JANUARY 8 (OR CLOSEST WORKING DAY), and no funds received by the Conference Treasurer after that date shall apply on that year's Conference Apportionments.

RATIONALE: This request comes from the Council on Finance and Administration, and is needed to keep our Conference in line with the General Board of Finance and Administration.

4J: AMENDMENT TO STANDING RULE 16

ACTION: AMEND Standing Rule 16 by adding, following "...capital funds..."

"or budgeted funds received in prior years for current operations,

So the new reading would be (the amendment is ALL CAPS):

Interest earned by any funds, not including capital funds OR BUDGETED FUNDS RECEIVED IN PRIOR YEARS FOR CURRENT YEAR OPERATIONS, managed by the Conference Treasurer shall be declared general funds of the North Texas Annual Conference and administered by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

4K: AMENDMENT TO STANDING RULE 24

ACTION: Amend Standing Rule 24 in the following manner: Current reading is in parenthesis ( ); amendment is ALL CAPS.

"Matters which are not a part of the Pre-conference Report of a particular agency of the Annual Conference may come before the conference only after they have been (mimeographed or printed and laid on the desk of the members at) DUPLICATED AND DISTRIBUTED ON THE FLOOR OF THE CONFERENCE BY the beginning of the day they are to be considered. This Rule shall not be so construed as to preclude proper amendments to reports or matters of privilege."

RATIONALE: The Conference does not always use desks. Also, the material could be in the hands of the conference members before the day the material is to be considered, and not necessarily just "at the beginning of the day" it is to be considered.

LA 5 — THE DUTY AND PRIVILEGE OF VOTING

ACTION: Because exercising the right to vote is such an important part of claiming the freedom that we have as Americans to participate in government, we urge local churches to be involved in the voter registration process prior to this year's general election. We also urge United Methodists to run for political office at all levels.

FROM: Board of Church and Society
Martha Boyd Watson, Chairperson

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:

a. That the month of September be set aside to distribute voter registration forms in all churches.

b. That one Sunday be set aside for a worship emphasis on participation in the political process.

LA 6 — CONTINUING THE WORK THAT MAKES FOR PEACE

ACTION: Because of the theology expressed in the rationale:

a. We oppose the testing, production and deployment of nuclear weapons since they so immediately threaten the creation itself and all future generations.

Though we recognize the obvious need for the security and integrity of all nations in a world as complex and fraught with evil as ours, we must never allow the rhetoric of fear and hatred to keep us from the hope that new and enduring relationships can be created among the super-powers. The church as Christ's ministers of reconciliation, can and must be a "forum of hope" for the creation of these relationships.

We, therefore, affirm the process of arms limitation talks and the role of the church in advocating them. As difficult as it may be to find the incentives that will keep the superpowers from stockpiling weapons of mass destruction, we must never stop advocating the creation of those incentives.

We urge United Methodist Christians to witness to their faith in a God of hope and reconciliation.

b. We oppose the testing, production, deployment and use of chemical and biological weapons. The flagrant hatred for God's creation and fellow human beings represented by the use of these weapons is utterly sinful. Any future use chemical or biological weapons must be opposed.

We urge United Methodist Christians to support arms limitation agreements aimed at the elimination of all such weapons. The United States unilaterally destroyed its biological weapons stockpile in 1969, and we hope and pray for a similar courageous action as it regards chemical weapons.

c. We urge local churches to create and maintain a vital theology of peacemaking and reconciliation by creating program ministries which help people discover what Christian faith has to say about national and international security issues, militarism, and relational conflict of all kinds.

FROM: Board of Church and Society
Martha Boyd Watson, Chairperson

FACTS: As people of faith, we believe that God was incarnate, lives among us to reconcile us to Himself, and wills us to be reconciled to one another.

In our troubled world, we learn very little about our faith until we take risks of loving even those it seems most natural to hate.

The Bible testifies that we are given the awesome task of maintaining and preserving the wonder of creation.

We also learn that life, as the most basic of human rights is a gift which God gives to all, in present and future generations.

Therefore, we, the United Methodist Christians of North Texas, pray for God's guidance to more diligently pursue the things that make for peace and world order.

We seek to put the ministry of reconciliation into the center of our life and work, seeking to heal the hurts of conflict in our marriages and our friendships, our families, our workplaces, our churches, our nation and our world.

We further seek God's guidance in prayer, private and corporate study, and conversation so that as Christians we may speak with a clearer and more unified voice.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:

a. That Sunday, August 5, 1984, be declared Peace With Justice Sunday in the North Texas Annual Conference and that churches be urged to:
   i) read this resolution from the pulpit as part of the worship service
   ii) receive an offering for the Peace With Justice Program of the United Methodist Church.

b. That copies of this resolution be sent to the President of the United States, the U. S. senators from Texas, the U. S. representatives serving the North Texas area, and the chairpersons of the platform committee of the Republican and Democratic National Committees.

c. That issues of Christian peacemaking, reconciliation, and justice be made prominent in Annual Conference and local church programming for children and youth, specifically church school, confirmation training, and retreats, and that one of the Conference mid-winter retreats be devoted to the theme of peacemaking and justice.

d. That the Conference Board of Church and Society sponsor worship services in various churches around the Annual Conference to proclaim the message of peace through song, drama, mime, dance, and the spoken word.

e. That the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church support by prayer, counseling and other means, as the Holy Spirit gives direction, all those who because of Christian conscience may come to question their present or future employment in an industry which aids or abets the continuing existence or proliferation of nuclear arms.

LA 7 — THE CHRISTIAN'S ROLE IN PROVIDING FOR RESPONSIBLE MEDIA

ACTION:

The board recognizes the grave nature of the problems created by irresponsible, harmful or exploitive media (excessive sex, violence, profanity on television; pornographic materials of all kinds), and wishes to go strongly on record as advocating reform in the media.

In order to positively address the gravity of the issues before us, the Board of Church and Society resolves:

a. That local congregations become actively involved in some effort to become more aware of the effects of television, whether through the church school or through membership in one of the many media values advocacy groups (including the NFD).

b. That all North Texas United Methodist Christians be more attentive to the way in which they allow television viewing to rob them and their families and friends of time together, to share more deeply in the lives of others.

c. That individuals and congregations express to the publishers of pornographic and other exploitive magazines their disdain of that exploitation and that they express to these publishers and retailers their vision of human wholeness and dignity.

d. That individuals and congregations express to the publishers and retailers of non-pornographic magazines their opposition to the growing exploitation of young children as models. Such statements should also express positive suggestions about advertising policy and words of commendation when advertisements are done tastefully and sensitively.

e. That letters of commendation be sent to the Jack Eckerd Corp., the Cullum companies, and the Gulf Oil Company for their sensitivity to morality in America and their decision to discontinue the sale of pornographic magazines in their retail outlets.

f. That the North Texas Annual Conference direct the Board of Church and Society to carry our concern about the sale/distribution of explicitly pornographic materials in 7-Eleven stores and to report back to the Conference next year concerning progress in this area.

FROM: Board of Church and Society
Martha Boyd Watson, Chairperson

BACKGROUND: At the 1983 session of the Annual Conference the Board of the Laity introduced legislation calling for the Conference to go on record as supporting the National Federation for Decency (NFD), a "citizens' organization promoting the Biblical ethic of decency in the American society with primary emphasis on television" (from the NFD Journal, the federation's monthly publication). After some discussion, a motion was made to refer the matter to the Conference Board of Church and Society on the grounds that many members of the Conference were not conversant with the work of the NFD.

FACTS: The NFD was formed in 1979 by the Rev. Don Wildmon, a United Methodist clergyman from Tupelo, Miss. who became greatly concerned with the quality of programming he saw on television. From an initial "Turn the TV Off Week" in his local congregation, NFD has grown to include an office staff and between 800 and 1,000 volunteers. Promotional literature from the NFD says that the organization has a single goal, "to fight to get three types of programs off the air.

1. Those with an anti-Christian bias.
2. Those filled with sex, violence and profanity.
3. Those that teach secular humanist values."

Recently, the NFD has opened offices in Dallas and Ft. Worth, the first offices of the federation outside of Tupelo. A church in our Annual Conference, Casa Linda United Methodist Church, Dallas, has become the first local church affiliate chapter in the nation. That church held a "Rally for Decency" in February of this year in which it was announced that newspaper advertisements would appear in the Dallas newspapers identifying retailers who sold pornographic magazines.

At a "Metroplex Rally for Decency" in Dallas in October of 1983, Rev. Wildmon called on those in attendance to boycott 7-11 stores, the retail arm of Southland Corporation. Thus, more recent efforts of the NFD have expanded beyond national television monitoring to local retailing of magazines that are found objectionable according to one or more of the criteria listed above. Both efforts, however, deal with the effect of media on public values.

LA 8 — BOARD OF PENSIONS

ACTION:

1983 marked the second full year of the Ministerial Pension Plan and Comprehensive Protection Plan of the General Board of Pensions. We are pleased to report that many of the problems we faced in 1982 have been resolved. Fewer of our churches are in arrears and we have diligently tried, in cooperation with the General Board, to be sure all participants are properly enrolled and their accounts kept accurate. We continue on our schedule to reduce our unfunded liability and be able to meet the goals established by the General Conference in order for us to continue our 12% contribution rate of the Ministerial Pension Plan while guaranteeing the greatest possible retirement benefits.

In keeping with the above, we recommend:

1. That the service year annuity rate for 1985 be set at $200 for Full Members of the Annual Conference and $150 for Local Pastors;

2. That the 1985 apportionment be:
   $525,000 for Unfunded Liability
   $244,500 for the Comprehensive Protection Plan
   $ 32,178 for Board of Pensions Operating Expenses;

3. That the following Special Grants be renewed:
   $167.75 per month for David Milam
   $172.06 per month for H. P. Williamson
   $ 3.58 per month for Shirley Johnson

4. That an amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by disabled ministers, during the year 1985, be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance. (The full text of this resolution will be printed in the 1985 NTC JOURNAL as required by federal law.)

We want to report to you that over 100 retired ministers, spouses, and widows attended the Retired Ministers Luncheon yesterday. At that time, we presented to each retired minister and widow, as a Bicentennial gift from the Conference, a copy of the new book, THE METHODIST EXCITEMENT IN TEXAS.

Finally, we rejoice with all of you in this Methodist Bicentennial year. As we "celebrate our present," the theme for today, we cannot help but remember the time when the only "pension" a Methodist minister received was the offering taken at Annual Conferences for "worn out" ministers. Today, our General Board manages pension funds in excess of $1.5 billion for the 73 Annual Conferences and various lay groups in the church.

We wish to express our sincere gratitude to the ministers, laypersons, and local churches for your continued support of the pension program. It is only through your efforts that we are able to move forward in providing retirement benefits to those ministers, spouses, and widows who dedicated their lives in loving service to this Conference and the Church.

LA 9 — CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSIONS CONFERENCE COMMISSION ON INSURANCE

ACTION: On January 1, 1982, the North Texas Conference entered into the new pension program of the General Board of Pensions and the new self-insured health insurance plan with the administration of those two programs being the responsibility of what was then the office of the Area Director of Professional Ministries. After a few months of experience it became apparent that one person could not manage the pension and insurance programs and at the same time fulfill all of the tasks required of the Area Director of Professional Ministries (1983 NTC JOURNAL, p. 239). Therefore, on July 1, 1982, the Board of Pensions and the Commission on Insurance contracted with the Agency Service Division of the United Methodist Communications Council to administer the pensions and insurance programs. At the 1983 Annual Conference Session, the Council on Finance and Administration reported that they had requested the Bishop to appoint a task force to study staff needs for the Conference (1983 NTC JOURNAL, p. 137). This the Bishop did.

As a result of that year-long study, in concurrence with the report to the Bishop from the staff needs task force, the Board of Pensions and the Commission on Insurance now recommend:

1. That the 1984 Annual Conference Session establish a North Texas Conference Pensions and Insurance Office;

2. That the operation of the Pensions and Insurance Office, including, but not limited to, its location, its administrative costs, its staffing, staff remuneration and staff job descriptions be the responsibility of the Conference Board of Pensions and the Conference Commission on Insurance, with the budget for the office being subject to the approval of the Annual Conference upon the recommendation of the Council on Finance and Administration;

3. That Bishop John Russell appoint a North Texas Conference Pensions and Insurance Officer amenable to the Episcopal Office, the Conference Board of Pensions, and the Conference Commission on Insurance;

4. That in the interim between June 1, 1984, and the date that the new Pensions and Insurance Office begins operations, the Agency Service Division of the United Methodist Communications Council, as approved by the 1983 Annual Conference Session, continue to provide the facilities for the Pensions and Insurance Office.

NOTE: The establishment of a new Pensions and Insurance Office will require no new funding for 1984. The costs for 1985 operations are included in the 1985 budget requests from the Conference Board of Pensions and the Conference Commission on Insurance with each providing approximately one-half of the funding for the office.

LA 10 — CONFERENCE-WIDE MISSION PROJECT — TRAG

ACTION: That North Texas United Methodists join in a common effort to purchase at least fifty (50) multi-purchase TRAG vehicles, work with the manfacturer to place them in mission fields where they are most needed, and then maintain close contact with the persons who receive the vehicles. The cost for the 8h.p. TRAG is $1,500 plus an average of $400 for shipping (total, $1,900).

FROM: Board of Global Ministries

FACTS: The United Methodists of North Texas already join hands together in common efforts for local mission service (Community Ministries, Visionaries, Health and Welfare Ministries). It is also essential that we continue to join hands in an overseas mission effort. Conference wide gifts to help alleviate the root causes of hunger in northern Kenya provided a very significant boost to UMCOR'S work in Kenya.

TRAG, short for "transportation for agriculture," is a mission agency headed by Mr. Earl Miner, a Methodist layperson from Marshfield, Missouri. Though the manufacture of simple multi-purpose vehicles is the product of the Ministry to link people in the United States with people in developing nations, assisting them to perform day to day tasks with greater ease.

Some of the most common uses for the TRAG vehicles include carrying water, hauling food and transporting people in need of emergency medical care.

The vehicles are simply constructed, using a five or eight horsepower motor mounted high enough that the vehicle can ford streams up to two feet deep. The engine is also used to pump water and can even be converted for use as a rototiller. Despite its simple design, the engine is efficient, getting up to 80 miles per gallon of fuel.

Since the project began in 1978, Miner has also been instrumental in training people in the African nation of Zimbabwe.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:
That district goals be established to enable the purchase and placement of these vehicles by Dec. 31, 1984.

Council on Finance and Administration

LA 14 — COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

SECTION I. PREFACE

During the past quadrennium the two main thrusts of the Council's work have been in "Finance" and "Administration," as the Council's name designates. Under the heading of "Finance" the primary emphasis has been on reaching 100% payment of apportionments. Although that goal has not been reached, we did move as a Conference from 92.7% in 1979 to 95.1% in 1983. We are glad to report our progress and commend the many local church leaders as well as the district superintendents who made that progress possible.

Funds management has also been a significant emphasis, enabling us to report in greater detail our portfolio of funds for which we have responsibility. The progress of the past four years will enable the Council in the new quadrennium to make funds development a primary task.

Under the heading of "Administration" long strides have been taken to provide more adequate services for the various agencies of the Annual Conference as well as for local churches. Progress has been possible in administrative services particularly because of the flexibility of our in-house computer purchased in 1980. We intend to continue to develop related administrative services as needs emerge. The cooperation of Conference agencies' leaders has made possible more efficient and effective administration for the Annual Conference.

The work of the Council has been greatly enhanced because of the participatory relationship of Council members who have served on committees and task groups studying the Council's relationship to local churches, Conference agencies, the general church and other responsibilities. The continuing participation of the whole Council in decision making has been a source of strength.

We recommend the election of James Hares as treasurer for the upcoming quadrennium. In accordance with paragraphs 715 and 716 of the 1980 BOOK OF DISCIPLINE the Council's executive functions as both treasurer and director of administrative services. Hence, the title "Director of Finance and Administration" has been used to cover both functions.

We have recommended to the Standing Rules Committee the following change in Standing Rule 14C: that "January 8 (or the closest working day)" be substituted for "the first Thursday after the first Sunday in January," causing the amended rule to read "The Conference Treasurer's books shall be closed annually on January 8 (or the closest working day) and no funds..." The setting of our Close Out date is restricted by the General Council on Finance and Administration's rule that all monies for general funds be remited no later than January 15. To meet this deadline our Conference Close Out must be a week earlier so that time will be allowed for local church personnel to check the final print-out reports of their remittances.

We have also recommended to the Standing Rules Committee that Rule 16 be amended to add the words "or budgeted funds received in prior years for current year operations" so that Rule 16 will read "Interest earned on any funds, not including capital funds or budgeted funds received in prior years for current year operations, managed by the Conference Treasurer..." This change is recommended to accommodate the request from the Board of Ordained Ministry to receive investment earnings on their prior year's accumulation of Ministerial Education Funds in keeping with their guidelines to use prior years funds for current year budgeting.

SECTION II. RECOMMENDED GOALS TO LOCAL CHURCHES

A. That a minimum of 25% of the total annual budgets of the local churches be designated for causes beyond the local church.

B. That local churches consider the challenge to advance in spiritual strength toward the long-term goal of "one dollar for us and one dollar for others" in establishing the operating and the beyond-the-local-church portions of their annual budgets.

C. That local churches plan to remit at least 10% of their annual apportionments before the 15th of each month beginning in February.

D. That apportionments be given first claim by local churches in their beyond-the-local-church payments with advance specials and other benevolences viewed as second-mile giving.

E. That local churches assist in achieving 100% payment of all apportionments in every district through voluntary contributions to the District Second-Mile Apportionment Fund.

E. Percentages of Change

2.	Apportionments from Jurisdictional Conference	13.0%
3.	Apportionments from Annual Conference	6.4%
4.	Apportionments from District Sections	13.8%
	Total All Causes	8.9%

F. Explanations of Proposed Changes

1. General Conference
In keeping with the self-imposed limit by General Conference of a 26% increase for general funds during the entire 1985-88 quadrennium the North Texas Conference portion of those eight apportionments has been reduced from the 22.0% increase previously reported to 15.4% for 1985 over 1984.

2. Jurisdictional Conference
Because the South Central Jurisdictional Conference will not meet until mid-July, our recommended apportionments for jurisdictional causes are currently limited to the three approved for 1984. A supplemental report may be in order after the conference meets.

3. Annual Conference
   a. Conference Claimants
   The Unfunded Liability portion remains the same. The increase in the Comprehensive Protection portion is indexed to the denominational average compensation. Operating expenses increase is requested at 10%.
   b. District Superintendents
   The recommended increase for district superintendents in 1985 is 7%, 5% for inflation and 2% for the 1984 FICA tax increase.
   c. Equitable Salaries
   An increase of $50,000 is needed because of the increased number of pastors requiring minimum salary support.

d. Conference Insurance
The 15% increase is needed to meet rising health costs.

e. Conference and Area Staff
Only a small increase is suggested for 1985. The 7% remuneration increases will be possible from balances available.

f. Conference Programs
Because the contingency amount of $40,000 for 1984 has been reduced to a $5,000 agency reserve item for 1985, the increase for this apportionment is held at 2.3%. In order to fund the agencies budgeted from this apportionment, it will be imperative that each church pay this apportionment 100%.

g. Camping and Retreat
No increase has been requested for 1985.

h. Texas Methodist Colleges
A 6% increase has been requested for 1985.

i. Campus Ministries
Although a 9.4% increase has been requested for 1985, the apportionment remains the same by reducing the contingency.

j. Church Development
The 10% increase will help meet needs identified in the district studies.

k. Community Ministries
A small increase follows up last year's large increase.

4. District Sections
Each of the seven District sections is authorized to set the amount as needed for each District Fund apportionment.

SECTION VI. GUIDELINES FOR COMPUTATION OF 1985 APPORTIONMENTS FOR LOCAL CHURCHES

A. Formula for Two-Part Decimal:

1/3 membership and 2/3 financial

B. Procedure for Computation of Decimal for Each Church:

The membership part is computed by dividing the total 1983 church membership of the Annual Conference (less the discontinued churches = 151,543) into the 1983 membership of each church. This becomes the church's membership decimal.

The financial part is computed by adding the amounts of the operating expenses reported by each church in columns 35, 36a, 38b, 39b, 40a and b, 41a and b of the 1983 Statistician's Report. This total is then divided by the Conference total of these same columns (less the discontinued churches = 21,254,778). This becomes the local church's financial decimal. (Funds reported on building and indebtedness in columns 33 and 34 are not included in the computation of the decimal.

The finance decimal is doubled. The membership decimal is added to the doubled finance decimal. This total is divided by three to become the apportionment decimal.

C. Procedure for Computation of Apportionments for Each Church:

The apportionment decimal for each church is multiplied by the Conference total of each apportionment to determine the amount that church is asked to pay toward the apportionment.

D. Margin for Correction:

To assure that 100% of the amount of each apportionment will be distributed to the churches, no more than one quarter of one percent may be added to each apportionment when needed.

XIII. AGENCY REPORTS

BOARD OF CHURCH DEVELOPMENT

First of all, let me begin by giving proper credit to my predecessor in this responsibility, Spurgeon Dunham III. You know, many of us who are Methodist preachers often think that the two dumbest people that we know are our predecessor and our successor. Well, let me give credit to Spurgeon. The Board of Church Development is what it is as an idea because of the work that he put into it for four years as its chairman.

At the same time, let me give credit to Phil Mercer who serves as its director. Phil's tireless efforts have made so many things happen that I am sure that the Conference owes a special debt of gratitude and perhaps an apology to his family for even allowing him to put in so much time doing what he has done.

These two have brought this Board into being, from a single concern about church extension, with scattered and tepid interest in transitional communities and town and country work to a Board that manages to hold together on behalf of the whole conference the multiple concerns that constitute our interest in church development. The great strength of our work in Church Development is that it is not confined to the suburbs anymore, it is now being carried on across a broad front, in new and growing communities and in central city. Hope is appearing once again in rural communities that thought that we United Methodists had abandoned them. Churches in trouble who have a genuine missional concern for their community can count on the Division of Church Assistance to help them, for each church is where it is on behalf of all of us, sent to be there by all of us for the sake of mission and ministry.

Let me highlight two things for you from the work of the Board for this past year and then give opportunity for the Division chairpersons to be more specific for the work of the Board takes place primarily in its divisions. In this last year we have witnessed the phenomenal growth of the Visionaries program. The Sherman-McKinney District was the first to achieve its goal of five percent of the members enrolled in the shares program. There is reason to believe that other districts will follow this year and that before long each district will have achieved that goal. It is a sign on the one hand of our recognition of the validity of the program and on the other the need. Visionaries has caught our imagination and strengthened our resolve. In the next sixteen years we need to acquire twenty-one additional sites for new churches, and church sites are expensive. I live in the fourth fastest growing county in the country, Denton County. It is estimated that by the end of the century the population of the metropolitan area will have doubled. Our resolve will be tested in the next several years.

At the same time, let me highlight the work of the Division of Transitional Communities. The work of cooperative parishes in the central city seems to have caught the imagination of the whole Conference. Things are happening, things that only five years ago seemed if not impossible, at least unlikely. Under the leadership of some of the best people in the Conference and with the advice of George Holcombe, Methodist excitement in Texas now seems to be located in the central cities. Some of our best pastors are asking to be assigned there. John Naisbitt has spoken about the trend of people moving from north and east to south and southwest. In the central City, they are moving from the west, far west, places like Cambodia and Vietnam.

I am here to tell you about the work of the Board of Church Development, your Board of Church Development, but I am here to tell you about the work of Jesus Christ which is being carried on in these many places. I am here to give you a sense of pride in what we are all doing there. I don't know how you feel about it but to me it is a signal that the Methodists are at it again, once more spreading scriptural holiness across the land.

VISIONARIES Sunday is February 24, 1985. Banquet dates are as follows:

Dallas-Central/Dallas-South Church Development Banquet will be February 7, 1985.

Dallas-Denton/Dallas-Northeast Church Development Banquet will be February 12, 1985.

Wichita Falls Church Development Banquet will be February 18 and 19, 1985.
Paris-Sulphur Springs Church Development Banquet will be February 11, 1985.
Sherman-McKinney Church Development Banquet will be February 21, 1985.

Effective Pastor Seminar, September 25, 26, and 27, 1984.

William C. Crouch

DIVISION OF CHURCH ASSISTANCE

The Division of Church Assistance serves a unique function amoung the Divisions of the Board. Financing for the Division is entirely out of the funds apportioned for the Board. There are no Church Assistance shares. The division grants money to churches who need help with the repair of building of churches, parsonages, the purchase of land, or the paying of mortgages. Grants are made to churches who, while helping themselves, need the helping hand of brotherhood to cope with difficult financial situations. Grants are normally made during October and November, and only in emergencies during the rest of the year.

During 1983, grants were made to 19 churches in six districts, totaling $50,000. So far in 1984, 22 grants have been made to churches in six districts totaling $42,950. Grants were made for such diverse purposes as helping one church whose parsonage had burned, and another whose parsonage had dangerous wiring. Roofs have been repaired and air conditioning units replaced. One rural church was helped to buy carpet so the elderly members can worship with warm feet in the winter. In all of these cases, the churches had already done all they could to help themselves. When that was not enough, they turned to their fellow Methodists for help.

Church Assistance is the helping hand of the connectional church. It is not a handout, it is a hand up, enabling churches to move forward in the work of the Lord.

Millard Fairchild
Chairman, Church Assistance

DIVISION OF CHURCH EXTENSION REPORT

This is my last report as Chairperson of this important division in the North Texas Conference. I am confident that my successor, Dr. Don Wiggans, will continue to lead effectively. This gives me a particularly good opportunity to thank all of you for your fine support during the past four years. The transition from a separate Board of the Conference to a Division within the Board of Church Development has been made smooth largely through your willingness to take the larger view of our mission.

Special words of appreciation are in order to Mr. and Mrs. John and Janet Bryan for their gift of an excellent 5-acre site located at the corner of Northstar and Blackburn Roads between Garland and Plano; also to the Reverends Mark Craig and Donna Whitehead, who are leading the Custer Road United Methodist Church in an excellent way. Their congregation has gotten the VISIONARY spirit! This new congregation, through Project Genesis, has voted to give $70,000, the start-up package for new churches, for the next new congregation to be started in the Northwest section of Plano.

So now we find ourselves as VISIONARIES with a mission to be accomplished by the year 2,000 A.D. This mission is not just to establish new churches and buy sites for ones to be established even later, but to utilize existing plants and facilities all over the Conference to serve established congregations and surrounding neighborhoods.

We also find that suburban growth is catching up with some of our small town and rural churches. These will need our help to "catch the vision" of the changing times and to step out as "new" churches to serve the families moving in around them.

The challenges of the future are upon us. There is an urgent need to double the number of Church Extension shares. This Division alone must raise $300,000 per year. This will enable the Conference to purchase a new site each year. It has been determined that 31 sites will be needed by the year 2,000!

We have such a golden opportunity in a golden area of America! God has blessed us with this opportunity and given us the rich heritage of Methodism to pass on to the unchurched within the North Texas Conference.

H. Clayton Sanders, Chairperson

THE DIVISION OF TOWN AND COUNTRY REPORT FOR THE 1984 CONFERENCE JOURNAL

The Division of Town and Country exists to facilitate and support the ministry of town and country congregations throughout the North Texas Conference. In the past Conference year, the division has given financial support to local churches which has enabled various new ministries to occur. The Division has also been using the data gathered by the District Study Teams to plan for the establishment of new cooperative projects over the next four years.

Our Conference currently has two very successful larger parishes. They are the North Lamar Parish, which involves four local congregations, and the Hopkins County Parish, which involves five local congregations. It is anticipated that in the coming Conference year, three new cooperative projects will be established. The financial support for these and other future cooperative projects will come from the Visionary share funds. The division is very greatful, as well as excited, that the total number of Town and Country Shares has grown to over 1,000 during this past year.

The division will continue to work very closely with local congregations and the extended cabinet this coming year in an effort to give support and to meet the needs of town and country churches in our Conference. It has been determined that the Division will give special recognition to an outstanding town and country congregation/parish at the next session of Annual Conference, and that this will become a yearly event.

Division of Town and Country

3. Applications for funding will be considered on an annual basis, and all requests for the ensuing year must be received by October 1 for inclusion in the Division's budget.
4. Applications will be considered and prioritized in relation to available funds, and after consultation with the pastor of the local church and the District Superintendent.

5. Approved Town and Country funds will not be released to a local church until a documented statement of immediate need is received for those funds in the office of the Director of Church Growth and Development, 1928 Ross Avenue, Dallas, Texas 75201.
6. Town and Country funds may not be used for any purpose other than the specific project for which they were allocated.
7. The Division determined that all of the Town and Country VISIONARIES Share money will be used for cooperative ministry projects.

GUIDELINES DIVISION OF TRANSITIONAL COMMUNITIES NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE

The Division of Transitional Communities expects to be involved in researching, strategizing, and encouraging ministries in areas of transition in the North Texas Conference. In some instances, financial undergirding will also be possible under the following guidelines:

1. Requests should come only from church(es) located in communities either currently experiencing or having been through transition (1980 DISCIPLINE, Paragraph 207, 1980 North Texas Conference Journal, Page 255).
2. Specific, written, plans for ministry must be submitted and should include:
   --goals
   --geographical area
   --time period
   --steps for implementation
   --budget
   Particular emphasis on ethnic inclusiveness is essential.
3. Approval of the request by responsible laypersons in the congregation and by the District Superintendent and the District Representative is required.
4. Requests for financial support will be prioritized and such support made available as funds permit.
5. Renewal of funds beyond the initially approved time period will be considered, but not automatically ensured.
6. The Director of Church Growth and Development will provide staff assistance for facilitating the process and will document all expenditure of funds.
7. The application and administration of these guidelines will be by the Division of Transitional Communities working under the guidance and direction of the Director of Church Growth and Development.
8. Transitional Communities VISIONARIES share money will be used to develop and implement pilot projects to revitalize United Methodist presence and ministries in inner city areas.

COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

The Committee on Episcopacy has sought during the past year to give support, encouragement and advise to the Bishop. Because of the past three year's work done, such as the brochure, "Know Our Bishop", and the evaluation process formed, this committee's work was done in a rather routine way this year.

We met November 8, 1983, for dinner with Bishop Russell to hear his report and to evaluate, comment and share concerns of the Conference regarding his responsibilities and leadership. He used the format for his report as had been formed the previous year.

As has been our custom the two previous years, the members and spouses of this Committee and those of Central Texas Conference met for dinner and an evening of fellowship. This year this Committee hosted the event on March 19, 1984, at Highland Park United Methodist Church. There seems to be a good feeling that our two Conferences by sharing and coming together in fellowship with the Bishop can better understand each other and in some way aid the Bishop to administer the Dallas-Fort Worth Area.

This Committee has agreed that we wish to ask for Bishop Russell to continue for another four years and have made this known to the proper persons.

It has been one of the most pleasant experiences I have ever had to have chaired this Committee for four years and to have shared the responsibilities with those members who have served on this Committee and to have worked with this outstanding, conscientious, caring man, Bishop John Russell.

Bishop Russell and members of the Conference - these are but a few of the terms used when any of the work of The Board of Age Level Ministry is being discussed, planned, or carried out.

The B.A.L.M. is alive and well. It's work is visible in many ways and at all levels of the Conference. We continue to serve and resource individuals, churches, districts by providing opportunity for programming and leadership training. The person hours put in by those who make themselves available in leadership are untold. The hours put in by those who participate in the many opportunities offered are even more in amount.

Let me take just a minute and ask: Those of you who have served in any capacity on the Board during these past 4 years, will you stand. Now, those of you, if you are here, who have participated in a workshop or other training opportunity provided by Age Level Ministry, will you stand. We are alive and well and have reached out in whatever way to be of service across the Conference.

Let me highlight two or three things we can be proud of: Youth across the Conference raised and paid more than $3,000 to Youth Service Fund. To strengthen Adult and Family Ministry we formed an intrastructure of those divisions. They maintain the separate identity as divisions, but meet together and work together in every way possible. Summer camp continues to boom: In 1975, we had a total of 875 campers in our summer events program. By 1985, if we continue our present trend, we will exceed 1,600 and may even reach 1,750. If we don't, two things will be the primary negative factors: Lack of facility and lack of leadership. In the past five years, we have gone from 1,012 campers and 192 leaders in 1979 to 1,354 campers and 257 leaders in 1983...Where do we go from here?

Some important dates: September 8 and 9 - A Forum on Youth Ministry, Lake Texoma, for workers with Youth in the evening setting.

Laboratory Training for Church School Teachers, November 9-10, Lovers Lane United Methodist Church. This will be the first Youth certified lab training in a long time. An excellent opportunity for professional and volunteer workers with Youth.

Then, September 9: A Sunday School Growth and Renewal Workshop, First United Methodist Church Richardson. This event is sponsored by Age Levels, Discipleship, and Cokesbury. Age Level groups and interest workshops designed to involve entire congregations will be offered. Resources on starting new classes, publicity, and recruitment will be available.

Yes, Age Level Ministries are alive and well. The past has taught us well. The present keeps us busy. The future looms large before us. But we know who and whose we are and look forward to all the challenge the future may have for us. Someone said recently America is looking for two things: Good, strong leadership from the grass roots to the President and back - and a solid spiritual foundation on which and from which to build. We will do our part to meet those needs as a part of the Church, and invite you to join us.

YOUTH DIVISION REPORT FOR ANNUAL CONFERENCE 1984

The Youth Division has attempted to define itself more clearly. The Division and the Conference Council on Youth Ministry (CCYM) had shared a common budget, but in 1984 they have operated under separate budgets. The Youth Division requests its budget through the Board of Age-Level Ministries, but the CCYM requests its budget directly from the ACCOM.

In clarification of its role the Division determined that their work would focus upon (1) leadership training for adult workers with youth, (2) leadership training for district youth coordinators, (3) more standardization of District Youth Council structures, (4) assistance with training adult leadership in youth ministry for District Training Events, and (5) leadership training for the Youth Service Fund (YSF).

In realization of this role the Division has scheduled and/or planned (1) a Conference Forum on Youth Ministry for September 8-9 at Texoma Conference Center, (2) a National Forum on Youth Ministry for September 17-21 at the YMCA of the Rockies in Estes Park, Colorado, and (3) a Youth Division meeting June 14 to plan District Youth Council structures, District Training Events, and YSF leadership training.

In differentiation of the Division and the CCYM's roles the Division has taken responsibility for adult workers with youth and district coordinators training. The CCYM has taken responsibility for youth events that meet a wide range of local church, district, and Conference needs.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRY (CCYM)
Report for Annual Conference 1984

The CCYM has completed another successful year of programming, but in addition it has reached and surpassed its goal for the Youth Service Fund (YSF). The CCYM had established a goal of $3,000 for 1983, but more than doubled it by receiving $7,272. The money represents the efforts of 44 local churches, six districts, and six Conference events. We ranked 19th nationally in money given to YSF. Last year we were 59th.

The CCYM is attempting to better that record this year. Our goal is to Reach for $10,004 in '84. At Annual Conference time we had received $3,500 toward our goal. Local churches seem more aware of YSF than ever before.

The CCYM has planned and executed its quality array of events - Fall Round-Ups for training, Mid-Winters for spiritual development, a Rally for ministry empowerment, and a Youth Annual Conference (first time ever event) for issue discussion. Gordon Taylor the CCYM president has given excellent leadership and the CCYM itself has been responsible and creative in its duties.

REPORT IN RESPONSE TO A RESOLUTION PASSED IN 1983
(See Report IV A 2-3 in 1983 NTC JOURNAL)

FROM: The Board of Church and Society
Division of Social Alienation

REGARDING: THE ILLEGAL ALIEN RESOLUTION OF 1983

BACKGROUND:

During the 1980-84 Quadrennium, this Division studied the various issues relating to the ILLEGAL ALIEN, beginning with the right of children, regardless of their citizenship status, to receive an education in Texas. At every meeting of the North Texas Annual Conference, the Board brought resolutions which the Conference passed. In 1983, in an attempt to move the issue from "a resolution" asking someone else to do something, the Board requested the Annual Conference to invite local churches to address the issue of illegal aliens in their local communities. This page is a report back to the Annual Conference regarding that action in 1983.

REPORTS:

1) The reports came in primarily from churches in the metropolitan areas of the North Texas Annual Conference.
2) The reports indicated thoughtful discussions acknowledging (with a few notable exceptions):
   (a) very limited awareness of the realities surrounding the illegal alien population;
   (b) inability thus to suggest or support actions relating to the illegal alien situation in their local communities in the State of Texas.
3) The reports also indicated evidence of some local churches establishing a program structure such as the local Board of Church and Society or a Task Force operating under the Administrative Board or Council on Ministries to continue working not only on the illegal alien situation but other ethnic groups emerging in and around the local communities.

4) We offer an excerpt from one report to suggest strategy in dealing with this "Social Alienation opportunity" in a local church: (*)

"The Work Area on Church and Society of Walnut Hill UMC held a seminar October 6, 1983, at which time we were privileged to have Dr. Richard Rubottom and Dr. Estevan Flores (Director of U.S./Mexican Studies, SMU) as leaders. Phone calls and letters were sent to eight other United Methodist Churches in this area inviting them to participate with us in this unique opportunity of hearing these two distinguished men on the subject: "U.S.-Mexico: Challenge of Migrant Labor." Following statements by the speakers and questions, each local church was assigned a room to have its own the challenge given them by the North Texas Annual Conference. We re-assembled for sharing.

Our local church responses were tabulated and returned to the District Superintendent. Since that time, several persons attending the Seminar have shown continuing interest and a better understanding and sense of responsibility. As an individual, I have become much more aware that it is not only the immigrant problem regarding Mexico, but a much broader one that includes those who have come to this country legally and are striving to be good citizens of the USA. We need a whole new look at our immigration laws and how they affect other persons as well as our U.S.-Mexico labor. Perhaps that is why legislation is so hard to pass; this doesn't answer the problem...it will take time, and continued effort."

REPORT TO THE BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

Chairperson: Jim K. Brown

The Board of Discipleship, during this past Conference year, has sought to develop and provide leadership to our local churches that would enable them to strengthen their own ministries in the areas of evangelism, worship, stewardship and education.

The following reports "highlight" the work of the divisions, and also some of their plans for the remainder of 1984.

DIVISION OF STEWARDSHIP

Chairperson: Carl M. McGee

In the summer of 1984 a workshop on funding was held for mid-sized churches. Thirty pastors and laypeople participated in the workshop.

The chairman of the Division led four "My Job" District Training Events.

Quarterly "Stewardship Notes" have been included in the Mid-monthly Mailing to Conference leaders.

Emphasis on local church Wills Workshops has begun with the District "My Job" Training Events and the Spring Mid-monthly Mailing. A. V. materials were reviewed at the CRC and a new motivational film was recommended and purchased by CRC ("Elevator #8"). The training filmstrip for local committees was missing and the CRC ordered a replacement.

COST: -0-

PLANS FOR 1984:

Funding Workshop in the Summer ('84)
"My Job" District Training Events
Wills Workshop Training Events
Leadership Training (NASLA)

Primary task of Stewardship Division is to Train Local Church Leaders through Conference District events in Stewardship and Funding with a special charge in the area of Wills. Stewardship is a part of Discipleship.

DIVISION OF EVANGELISM

Chairperson: Jim Dorff

The Division on Evangelism focused its work this year in three specific areas:

I. BISHOP'S CALL TO EVANGELISM.
The Division sought to exchange ideas, initiate and monitor District programming, and motivate local pastors in responding to the Bishop's call. The focus of the response was to be at the District, rather than Annual Conference level. Most Districts either formed special task forces or used existing planning groups to offer a variety of settings for new growth in our commitment to the evangelistic task. These responses included clergy cluster groups committed to study in the area of spiritual formation and evangelism, clergy and lay retreats for spiritual formation, district training events for local church leaders in evangelism, and promotion of "Preparing Disciples for the Third Century."

II. ONGOING CONCERNS.
Reviewing and refining our work as a Conference Division was a continuing theme. How can we best fulfill our responsibilities to the Conference? Dr. Alan Walker's visit to our area was publicized through our Division and an opportunity for dialogue with Conference clergy was arranged. We met with those applying for recomendations as Conference Approved Evangelists. We looked at and explored new ways of promoting the task of evangelism in the Conference.

III. PLANNING:
The division has been engaged in planning and promoting two new endeavors for next year. On November 2-3, 1984, there will be an Evangelism event in Fort Worth, held jointly with the Central Texas Conference. The purpose will be to motivate and equip lay persons for the task of Evangelism as we enter our third century. Also, our Division will be presenting, for the first time, the Denman Award in Evangelism to a lay and clergy person. In addition, we are evaluating ways to offer ongoing resources in evangelism to local churches.

DIVISION OF WORSHIP

This past year, a local chapter of the Fellowship of United Methodists in Music, Worship, and other Arts was formed in October. The meetings are held the third Wednesday of the month inconjunction with the Christian Education Fellowship. The fellowship is open to lay and clergy alike.

Also, two preaching seminars focusing on Advent and Lent were sponsored by our division. These seminars were led by Dr. John Holbert and Dr. Virgil Howard.

Since Christmas, our division has been involved in the planning of the worship services for Annual Conference. This has been a most time consuming effort. "A Bicentennial Celebration of Music" will open our Annual Conference worship.

We attempted to have workshops in each of our districts this year where we could introduce available resources from the national, state, and district levels.

Our major goal has been to try and "tie it all together" preaching, music and arts, to make worship in the local church worthy and alive.

DIVISION OF EDUCATION

This year our major goal has been to try and coordinate on a Conference level the work and activities of the Board of Age Level Ministries and the Division on Education.

We have also sought to encourage our District Superintendents to secure interested and responsible persons for their district representative to Education.

Working with Age Level Ministries, the Division on Education is seeking to provide meaningful training opportunities for Leadership Development in local churches and districts.

Currently, we are working on a Sunday School Growth and Renewal Workshop to be held on September 29.

The reactivating of our division with regular support and informational meetings will also continue to be a major goal of Education.

BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

The discussion of missions in the recent General Conference is the latest evidence of a renewel of interest across the church in the subject of missions. Laity and clergy are being caught up in the debate as to priorities for the missional thrust of the church. Ethnic groups within the denomination have received confirmation by the general church that this concern includes a continued endeavor in their behalf.

Our North Texas Annual Conference has always considered itself to be oriented toward missions. Men and women have gone out from churches in this area to serve with distinction as missionaries. Even now large numbers of ministers in the Conference are returned missionaries. In recent years the laity of the churches of this Conference have been active, serving in specialized short-term ministries in mission to people at home and abroad. Young persons from our churches have come from Work Camps to tell of their awakened interest in the mission of the church.

There is a growing need to create a strong and ambitious new program of missions in this Annual Conference. We observe that large numbers of immigrant persons are settling in our midst and the challenge is to serve them in Word and deed. New congregations can be formed to serve these ethnic groups if we have the understanding that this is opportunity and not problem. The population of the world is likely to double within the next 20 to 40 years. These new human beings represent populations equivalent to whole nations of persons who will need the ministry of the church as it reaches out in God's savings power and love.

Our record in missions, as an Annual Conference, is not uniformly good. During the decades of the 60's and 70's we raised and spent hundreds of thousands of dollars as an Annual Conference seeking to minister to the inner city. Much of that effort was quickly dissipated and lost. The EMLC missional priority has, for the past 8 years, been treated primarily as an apportionment rather than as an opportunity for missions. Two years ago we accepted as a Conference responsibility an obligation to raise $120,000 to combat hunger in Kenya. One one-third of the churches of the conference participated and we failed to reach our two-year goal by about 35%.

The North Texas Annual Conference has produced much of the leadership on both sides of the debate over the theology of missions. I would offer the challenge to this Conference that we put our efforts to doing the mission of the church on at least the same level that we debate the way that the mission is to be accomplished.

Twenty missionaries are presently being supported by fifty-one churches (only 14% of the churches of the Conference are involved). Seventy-two churches supported 45 World Division mission projects during 1983. The projects in our area which receive support from the National Division have not in recent years been able to generate local support to replace a decreased support from the general church.

With an earnest desire to enhance the understanding of missions and commitment to the task, the Conference Board of Global Ministries submits its proposal that we supply fifty vehicles, called "TRAG", to mission projects where they are needed. These truck-like vehicles are capable of replacing burros, horses, or oxen in pulling carts in many areas of the third world. At a cost of $1,500 for the vehicle and $400 for transportation, they can be delivered to mission projects around the world. In addition, the vehicle is manufactured by handicapped persons in Kansas in an agreement with Rev. Melvin West of the Missouri Area, Office of Creative Ministries.

I recommend the approval of this Advance Special Project and that it become a Conference-wide project for the remaining seven months of 1984. If this is approved, I would invite each minister and lay person to get to know the TRAG on the parking lot of Highland Park Church during this Conference. Take the information about the TRAG home to Church School classes and other persons who might support this project. Give your church the opportunity to share in this practical experience of partnership in missions.

It is my prayer that as an Annual Conference we are entering into a new era of missional commitment with enthusiasm and intentionality.

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY
SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY
DALLAS, TEXAS 75275

As I complete my third year as Dean of Perkins, it seems appropriate to review important changes that have occurred in curriculum, in community life, in our student body, and in support.

1. By the time I arrived in 1981, the Perkins Senate had begun an extensive review of the curriculum which resulted in recommendations and revisions that have now been implemented. An emphasis on the integrated study of the Bible, taught jointly by Old and New Testament faculty, is in place. A comprehensive course on Introduction to Ministry engages incoming students in a better understanding of both person and nature of ministry. The Intern Program was affirmed and strengthened in the context of overall curriculum. Each year 80 or more of our students are assigned to situations of practical ministry for experience and evaluation.

   Even with the changes in curriculum design, a full-time student can still graduate with three full-time years of study plus one semester of intership. Restrictions on student pastors have been lifted to enable capable students to graduate more swiftly.

2. Essential to any effective educational program is an outstanding faculty and administrative staff. In the past four years, nine of our leaders have retired or departed, including C. Wayne Banks, L. Howard Grimes, H. Grady Hardin, J. B. Holt, Douglas E. Jackson, Claus H. Rohlfs, David Lowes Watson, James F. White, our long-time Dean, Joseph D. Quillian, Jr.

   Coming to Perkins in various capacities have been Assistant Professors Susanne Johnson and Marjorie Proctor-Smith; Bert Affleck, Director of the Intern Program; Guy D. Garrett, Director of Academic Procedures; John C. Holbert, Director of D. Min. and Continuing Education; James E. Kirby, Dean and Professor of Church History; Roger L. Loyd, Associate Director of Bridwell Library; Lynn Mims, Associate Director of the Intern Program; Laura Randall, Catalog Librarian, Bridwell Library; Linn Richardson, Director of Recruitment and Admissions; Patty Evans, Assistant in Community Life. Bishop W. McFerrin Stowe continues a second term as Bishop-in-Residence, carrying also professorial duties in Church Administration.

   Four faculty members were honored by the SMU Board of Trustees by being appointed University Distinguished Professors. They are John Deschner, theology; Victor P. Furnish, New Testament; Schubert M. Ogden, theology; and Robert Anderson, organ and sacred music.

3. The level of support from our Ministerial Education Fund has continued to be a significant part of Perkins' finances for which we are deeply grateful. Response by our graduates participating in the Perkins Alumni/ae Loyalty Fund has grown from $29,000 in 1981 to over $70,000 this year. Though the dollar income is significant, the level of participation is our most important achievement, having grown from 22% participation to better than 50% of alumni/ae making gifts on an annual basis.

   Seeing the establishment of a professorial chair is a rare thrill for a school. Yet in the space of a little over a year, Perkins has seen the creation of three chairs, fully endowed and funded. First, the Lehman Chair in Christian Doctrine was announced in the spring of 1983; then the family of Lois Craddock Perkins announced their intention to establish a memorial chair in homiletics early in this Challenge of several years ago by establishing the Albert Cook Outler Chair in Wesley Studies in February.

   Plans are still underway to appeal to individuals to help build an adequate endowment for the operation of our Intern Program. Delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference will be given the opportunity to respond to a joint appeal by St. Paul and Perkins to further the cause of theological education in the South Central Jurisdiction.

4. Coordinated within the area of community life and the new curriculum, patterns of worship in the Perkins community have been enhanced with the establishment of four daily opportunities for worship, beginning with Morning Eucharist, a service at noon and at 5:00 p.m., and a Compline service at 10:00 p.m. in the chapel. Students and faculty work together in leadership for each service. Another added dimensionis the Interethnic Experience, designed to give each student the opportunity to be involved in a congregation of a different cultural background than his/her own. Each junior student has also been assigned to a formation group that provides for spiritual guidance and support by peers and faculty facilitators. High levels of participation attest to the importance ofthis format for personal and professional growth.

5. Bridwell Library continues its growth towards the foremost resource center in theological research, adding 21,000 volumes to the collection in the past year alone. Unusual support from alumni/ae and friends provided for the acceleration of additions.

6. This past year's total enrollment of 492 is the largest in three decades, reflecting the renewed efforts in the area of recruitment and admissions, and reversing a trend that had been established in the past decade. Enrollment is up in almost every degree category, but especially in the D. Min. and M.T.S. programs. In this year's class are 372 men and 120 women; 34 are Black, 15 are Hispanic, one is Native American, and 23 are International. Students represent 18 denominations, with 349 United Methodist students from 46 conferences. Significant is the decline in the total number of women enrolling in each of the past three years, in contrast with the average of the United Methodist seminaries.

   Perkins continues to make a significant commitment to the financial aid budget, comparable to the highest among 13 United Methodist seminaries.

7. Perkins Continuing Education opportunities featured both residential and group guided study enterprises involving over a thousand clergy persons each year, as the church increased awareness of lifelong education for its pastoral leadership.

We are aware of the many ways in which former students and the lay constituency of the church have made significant contributions to the life of our community. The process by which we find new and better ways to educate persons for ministry continues to be challenging. Results come only through long and consistent work. Your support in all forms gives me a renewed sense of optimism about our ability to successfully complete the task.

REPORT FOR 1984 JOURNAL
BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

We began this year with a retreat to acquaint new board members and leaders with the work that lay before us. We organized an executive committee to facilitate that work.

We launched a study of policies and guidelines with the aid of a consultant from the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry.

We provided a consultant to review campus ministry at Texas Women's University, and we made funds available to assist the Denton Wesley Foundation Board in the remodeling of the TWU facility, which is now complete.

Our 1985 program requests increased funding to Texas United Methodist College Association by 6%, to campus ministry by 9%, and increased campus ministers' salaries by 6%. In cooperation with the Paris-Sulphur Springs District Superintendent, a part-time campus minister at Paris Junior College was firmly established, and funding was increased 500%.

A merit scholarship of $500 was awarded to Johnny Maberry, First United Methodist Church, Allen, Texas.

The Board endorsed Covenant Community '84, a cooperative summer student work project sponsored by Highland Park U.M.C., the Chaplain's office at SMU, and the University Ministry Center at ETSU. This offers an opportunity to undergraduate college students throughout the South Central Jurisdiction to be involved in a summer of Christian service.

Training for higher education chairpersons in the local church was offered at district training events.

The board sent 9 people to a jurisdictional training event for board personnel and campus ministers in Kansas City in November.

Dr. Donald Shields, President of SMU, and Dr. John Q. Taylor King, President of Huston-Tillotson College, were guests of the board in February and April to open the lines of communication between our board and those institutions of higher learning.

The board promoted the 1984 Annual Conference offering designated for Huston-Tillotson College.

REPORT ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

1984 is a significant year for the Commission on Archives and History as we have taken the lead in encouraging the Bicentennial Celebrations which are now occurring in every Church in every district in the North Texas Conference. At present, we are seeking to gather and preserve a record of these events. Our heritage is a proud one and our goal is to search out and keep the story in every Church as well as in our District Archives which are housed at Southern Methodist University.

Last October, this Commission went as a group to Clarksville, Texas to dedicate a Methodist Historical Marker at the site of Mackenzie College. We will also be glad to investigate other sites that may be worth memorializing.

Our major attention has been directed toward the sale of THE METHODIST EXCITEMENT IN TEXAS, and we have worked hard on the pre-publication sale of this great book.

We hope that this 200 year celebration will make all Methodists more conscious of their roots and more aware of our responsibilities as we make the history of tomorrow.

COMMISSION ON ASIAN MINISTRIES

A Report to North Texas Annual Conference, 1984
Philip B. del Rosario, Chairperson

Today with this initial report of the Commission on Asian Ministries given by an Asian, we celebrate the work of the Holy Spirit in the present. This Commission, the newest Commission of our Conference, took years to be born. At the beginning there was a void, then a felt need, then consideration of the need, the creation of a task force which evolved into the Committee on Asian Ministries which last year graciously gave way to this Commission. Asian American United Methodists have considered the creation of this Commission, the only one such in all Methodism, as indication of the forward-looking stance of our Conference. It is an official recognition and acceptance of the intrinsic value and uniqueness of work among peoples of Asian backgrounds.

"Asians" are, in truth, peoples of at least 15 different nationalities, languages and cultures. This fact needs to be highlighted. It fact poses a challenging problem of communication among us Asians as well as with the rest of you. Our recognizable groups speak at least six major languages: Korean, Japanese, Chinese, Filipino, Vietnamese, Cambodian. Having decided to live in this country Asian Americans have endeavored to learn the majority language and have enriched American English with their varied accents. The fact of the diversity of Asians also brings into the life of our church the work of God among peoples of different races and cultures and gives the church the richer hues of the rainbow and the fuller scale of notes for its symphony of faith.

The Commission was created to function as the agency to help our church address in the present the unique and urgent developmental needs of Asians and in particular of Asian churches, congregations, and fellowships. I also see the task of the Commission as that of helping to bring into the present life of our Conference the work of God manifested in and through Asian peoples, thus making the other rich hues of the Methodist rainbow shine through and for the other instruments of its symphony.

This past year was a time of organization and getting acquainted among Commission members. We are grateful to the Council staff: Dr. Joe W. Washington, Earnest Walt, and Chauncey Nealy for their assistance; to Phil Mercer of the Board of Church Development; to Cabinet representative, Dr. William Stephenson; and to Dr. Kenneth McIntosh, former chairperson of the Committee. We thank our Bishop, district superintendents, and the many pastors and laypersons who have encouraged us along the way as we strived for recognition and acceptance.

We celebrate in the present the existence of three duly constituted churches related to the United Methodist family: the First Korean, the Wesley Korean, the First Filipino/American. The Wesley Korean recently inaugurated their new building which shares the lot of Buckingham United Methodsit Church. The First Korean is exploring possible sites for their own facility, and the First Filipino/American has started the process of long-range planning with the desire to build a facility to meet present and future program needs. The Clearview Korean Fellowship in Oak Cliff is in the process of becoming a full-fledged United Methodist Church. Last night a Korean, Ki Yul Chang, was ordained deacon and accepted as probationary member of the Conference. A fellowship of Filipinos continue to be a vital part of Cochran Chapel UMC. The East Dallas Cooperative Parish is working with Vietnamese and Cambodians, and recently our Conference paper reported that 13 Cambodians had been baptized in the Christian faith and received as members of Grace UMC. Pa Pan, a former Buddhist monk, is the Asian worker among his people in East Dallas.

The objective of the Commission for its first year of existence is to develop a master plan for meeting organizational needs, growth and development needs and the unique programming needs of Asians, and to help other churches in the Conference to get to know Asian Americans better as persons, not only as objects of Mission study. The Koreans will hold a lay leadership training this coming weekend in the Korean language. The Bicentennial Cultural Dinner Entertainment presented by the First Filipino/American last Monday night at First UMC, Dallas, was an attempt to help you get to know us. We are sorry many of you were not there. But the Commission is planning a bigger event in the Fall. It will be an Asian Festival in which all the congregations will participate. We hope you will all be present, along with other persons from your churches.

Paraphrasing the script of a slide program on Asian ministries in Dallas, prepared by Espie del Rosario, I would like to say:

"Asians are here. They bring their memories and legacy, their bamboo and rice, their taro and palm, their earth and ocean, their struggles and hopes, their shovels and picks, irons and ditches to this land of opportunity. They bring their broken hands and weeping hearts to this land of milk and honey. They bring their skills and culture. They have come to share and care, to study and teach. They have come to stay. Asians are growing in visibility in our communities. They are asking for nothing more than recognition as persons with unique contributions to nation-building and with the same human needs as any other, struggling intensely with the issues of self-identity and cultural integrity, desiring to find their rightful places under the American flag as American citizens and under the Christian banner as followers of Jesus Christ. They simply ask to be allowed to serve side-by-side with their Christian brethren, their Asianness accepted with grace."

REPORT ON THE ETHNIC MINORITY LOCAL CHURCH

In 1976, the General Conference adopted the first Ethnic Minority Local Church (EMLC) Missional Priority to address a "crisis" in the life of United Methodist ethnic minority churches. The crisis included inadequate facilities, sufficient trained leadership, poor salaries, and weakness in organization and outreach which threatened the viability of these congregations. EMLC was adopted as one of three Missional Priorities for the 1977-1980 quadrennium. By the close of the quadrennium, the church's response to EMLC had fallen far short of the established budget goal of $5 million, 70% of which was to be raised through Advance Special giving. It was clear that the task of strengthening ethnic minority local churches would take considerably longer than four years.

The 1980 General Conference sought to continue the unfinished task by establishing EMLC as the sole Missional Priority for 1981-84, with funding through an apportioned benevolence. This time there developed a broad program of objectives and strategies aimed at addressing problems in ethnic minority local churches. The General Board of Global Ministries (GBGM) reports that "Congregations have experienced the renewal that having adequate facilities for the first time can bring. Ministers, because of adequate salary support, no longer struggle with poverty as they strive to serve their people. Churches have turned their attention to nurturing their communities through ministries of compassion."

Following the action of the 1980 General Conference, the North Texas Annual Conference established the EMLC Committee to direct the work of strengthening and developing ethnic minority churches. The Committee outlined for the Conference four reasons to support the EMLC Priority. They reported:

1. Ethnic churches need financial assistance to aid in their development.
2. Ethnic churches represent a fertile field of evangelism today.
3. Ethnic churches bring a quality of life and hope through the gospel that United Methodism needs to have.
4. Ethnic minorities are a part of the body of Christ, and when one part of the body is weak, all parts are weakened. We must keep the body of Christ whole and strong. For we who are many are made one in Christ. We are members of one body. We belong to Christ and therefore we belong together.

In 1983, the Ethnic Minority Local Church Committee has evaluated its work and the achievements of the Missional Priority. We are pleased that many ethnic churches are being assisted and ministries strengthened. But we are concerned that the funding aspect of EMLC has been highlighted far above the other important objectives. While recognizing the fundamental importance of funding for the success of the EMLC Priority, and supporting the continuation of financial assistance for ethnic churches, we proposed to begin giving equal emphasis to the other vital features of the Priority. These include evangelism, recognition of the richness of ethnic heritages, and celebration of our unity in Christ, corresponding to items 2, 3, and 4, above.

EVANGELISM

Ethnic churches indeed represent a fertile field of evangelism. Statistics from the 1983 conference journal show a membership increase of 243 persons (6.1%) in black churches, and increase of 20 persons (15.8%) in Korean churches, and establishment of a 50-member Filipino-American congregation. And there are other ministries among ethnic minority persons which are not identified in Conference statistics. There is a great opportunity for us to impact the lives of people through ethnic churches. Ethnic minorities "are the fastest growing segment of the population by migration and natural increase", reports GBGM. These persons need to be reached with the gospel, ministered to, and called to discipleship.

ETHNIC HERITAGES

The EMLC Priority also calls us to recognize the rich heritages of ethnic minority congregations. Black, Korean, and Filipino churches (as well as other fellowships) in our Cconference have gifts and graces which, when shared, can enrich the whole church. As we share in ministry and fellowship with ethnic congregations, we are reminded of the diversity of Christ's Church, and of the greatness of God. The Kingdom of God is a pluralistic kingdom, and one inclusive of all God's people.

UNITY

Finally, the EMLC Missional Priority calls us to celebrate our oneness in the Lord. The theme of this celebration was sounded in our 1982 report to the Annual Conference:

> We are God's symphony orchestra. . .some violins, cymbals, drums, cello, tuba, trumpet, piano, etc. . . .each one with a distinct sound, look. The violin should not say to the cymbals, you are too loud, drums to cello, you are odd, trumpet to tuba, you sound funny. The purpose of God's symphony is to make good music for our Lord. Praise Him with trumpet sound, praise Him with lute and harp. Praise Him with tambourine and dance, praise Him with strings and horns, praise Him with cymbals, loud clashing cymbals! Let everything that breathes praise the Lord. Hallelujah! Amen!

We are one in the Spirit and we are one in the Lord. Though there are many gifts, cultures, and colors, we are one. Let us act in this Spirit as we seek to perform all the functions of the Ethnic Minority Local Church Priority. Let us take care to: (1) commit resources necessary for ethnic church development; (2) focus on proclamation of the gospel; (3) recognize rich ethnic heritages; and (4) celebrate our oneness in Christ.

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

This year we have claimed our past as we finished ten years of work with a very active Commission on the Status and Role of Women. We have continued to have good attendance, representing all districts and balanced among laywomen, laymen and clergy. We have participated in the Bicentennial celebration by attempting to network programs and celebrations by various groups and supplying information and material where requested. Our Commission has sought to provide resources for local churches by adding to the Conference Resource Center various books, a video tape of the women's history program broadcast on NBC on March 18 of this year, and a film entitled "Out of the Shadows: Towards the Recovery of Women's History in the United Methodist Church" purchased from Drew University. We have also sought to fulfill our mandate from the General Commissionon the Status and Role of Women to serve as "catalyst, monitor, and advocate" for women at all levels of participation in the church.

This year we have celebrated our present by focusing on three main areas of concern: economic justice for women, women in ministry, and leadership development. We purchased copies of a booklet, "Economic Justice for Women" (a reprint from ENGAGE/SOCIAL ACTION, January 1984), for study and discussion as a Commission. We again sponsored a gathering for women in ministry in our Annual Conference, this year including local CSRW representatives. The evening's program included slides of women, lay and ordained, engaged in ministry. The slide presentation, with a taped commentary, is now available through the Resource Center for use by local churches. Our district representatives provided training for local church CSRW coordinators in five of the seven districts this year.

Three general goals have been set by our Commission as we seek to help the church meet the challenges of the future: To continue to provide additional resources on pertinent issues through the Conference Resource Center; to provide study suggestions and materials for local churches; and to work with other divisions and agencies in the Conference to deal with specific needs and opportunities. We also plan to determine early in the fall what issues our Commission needs to confront on behalf of the Annual Conference in the next few years, as well as deal with issues arising from General Conference, Annual Conference and local churches.

As we begin our second decade as a Commission and our third century as the people called Methodist in America, we look forward to sharing a common ministry of caring, concerned love to all of God's people.

Respectfully submitted,
Jean Ann Wood, Chairperson
Commission on the Status and Role of Women

BOARD OF THE LAITY

The Board of the Laity has met on a regular basis with good attendance and a full agenda. The Board's highest priorities were the goals for the year which were outlined in the last Conference Report. The work accomplished on these goals is as follows:

1. A meeting was scheduled with the Bishop to discuss the program of the Conference and the Board's role and authority in Conference activities. Unfortunately, the Bishop was unable to attend because of illness, and his schedule did not permit another meeting during the Conference year.
2. A meeting was held with Central Texas Conference Board of Laity at First United Methodist Church in Arlington. The Bishop was present. The agenda allowed each board to spend some time with the Bishop so that he could present his programs. The two boards were able to meet with each other and hopefully this will result in a closer working relationship in the future.
3. Most of the Board members have actively participated in their districts in the Bishop's Call to Evangelism. The emphasis is on the laity working on a local church basis.
4. The Board encouraged the delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences to hold conferences in the districts prior to General Conference. Copies of information on issues which were before General Conference were made available to the Local Church Lay Leaders.
5. Most of the districts have had a meeting of the District Board of Laity. The Conference Lay Leader has attended some of these meetings and can report that most were very productive meetings. The members of the Board have seen the enthusiasm of the laity increase, but they realize that this is only a start. There is much work to be done.

Goals for the Board for next year include:

1. To meet with the Bishop.
2. To have a laity event in the fall or spring, hopefully with one or more other conferences.
3. To assure that the items discussed at General and Jurisdictional Conferences are adequately presented to the laity in meetings across the Conference.
4. To continue to meet with the District Boards of Laity to instill enthusiasm for lay activity.

REPORT OF UNITED METHODIST WOMEN AT ANNUAL CONFERENCE 1984

Bobbie J. Mankey, President

As North Texas Conference United Methodist Women celebrate 200 years of Methodism, we also celebrate over 100 years as "women in mission" with roots in several traditions and histories that helped make us what we are today and set us on the way to tomorrow.

In a way, nothing has changed:

1. We prayed in the past; we pray today.
2. We organized for mission on behalf of women and children and today our organization, with continuing awareness of the concerns and responsibilities of the Church in today's world, are advocates for the oppressed and dispossessed with special attention to the needs of women and children. We work to build a supportive community among women; and engage in activities which foster growth in the Christian faith, mission education, and Christian social involvement.
3. We made gifts to mission in the past; we do the same today.
4. We worked and studied in the past and we're still working and studying today.
5. And, we are a growing community of women.

We continue to "press for the mark" through prayer, study and action. For renewal of our Christian faith, retreats and days-apart are planned.

We continue to search out what our mission is in today's world. Last April a Making A Difference Political Skills Workshop was sponsored by North Texas Conference United Methodist Women and resourced by The National Women's Education Fund. Over 50 workshops of this type will be held nationwide in 1984 and 1985 to assess abilities, build political skills, and strengthen networks to run for office, work in campaigns supporting women candidates and reach out and identify active women in our communities, churches and organizations who may not currently think of themselves as potential public leaders. Women are 53% of the U. S. population, yet hold only 10% of all elected offices. We have commitments - to the poor, who are mostly women, the elderly and children. We have commitments - to peace and to equal rights for ALL.

Nurturing of the individual member in the Christian faith, education of women and children, social justice issues, leadership development and community action are our priorities. We have historically, and still are today, on the cutting edge of major issues facing the church and society. The records of our Church reflect that the women have often led the way in calling the whole Church to bring its influence to bear on much needed social reform.

We continue to make gifts to mission. In the last three years, United Methodist Women in the North Texas Conference have increased giving over 8.5%.

We continue to work and study. The School of Christian Mission had a record attendance last July. When in Baltimore a couple of weeks ago, attending General Conference for the first time, I found that over the years as a member of United Methodist Women, the organization had prepared me in understanding and knowledge of issues, structure, the connectional system and the Discipline of the United Methodist Church.

And finally, we continue to grow. A new unit of United Methodist Women was formed in the Wichita Falls District this month. And I know those seven District Mission Teams have others in mind.

Happy Birthday Methodists! We have had a wonderful 200 years! Let's get on with our work! We are called to take the Good News to ALL people and to speak to a needy world!

BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY
DIVISION OF SALARIES, INSURANCE AND PENSION

The last three sessions of this Annual Conference have seen our Division submitting legislation which would improve the benefits for diaconal ministers in this Annual Conference. This year we have no legislative matters, but I would like to summarize the benefits provided diaconal ministers due to action taken by the Annual Conference.

1. Beginning in 1976, hospitalization insurance premiums have been paid from Annual Conference funds.
2. Since 1982, each employer of a diaconal minister shall provide a pension through the Cumulative Pension and Benefit fund of the United Methodist Church administered by the General Board of Pensions. The pension plan equates that of the clergy pension plan.
3. Since 1982, the employing church or agency also provides life and disability insurance also equating that of the clergy members.
4. Last year, you approved hospitalization insurance coverage for retired diaconal ministers.

For the Division and for the 43 diaconal ministers in the North Texas Conference we want to take the opportunity to say thank you for providing diaconal ministers benefits that exceed the benefits provided in the majority of Annual Conferences.

DIVISION OF PROFESSIONAL GROWTH

This Division continues to be supportive of diaconal ministers particularly in the area of continuing education opportunities and in the administration and record-keeping of their education progress.

In January of 1984 this Division sponsored a day's conference to which were invited all diaconal ministers and all clergy and lay delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences. This meeting was for the express purpose of hearing the proposal to be presented to General Conference concerning the creation of another order of ministry: Permanent Deacon, which would affect the present diaconal ministers.

A consultant from the Division of Diaconal Ministry came from Nashville to explain the proposal and to answer our questions. As a result of our time together, it was felt that we all had a better understanding not only of the proposed legislation, but even more importantly, of personal concerns voiced by the clergy, the non-professional lay delegates and the diaconal ministers.

The area of specialized ministry presents much to be explored and developed. The more we learn, we realize how vast are the challenges dictated to us by the needs of the world. And the more we dialogue, we discover the many ways we can complement each other's skills and talents - elders, diaconals, and the laity. As diaconal ministers, we are indeed grateful for the support that has always been extended by this North Texas Conference and we look to the future with optimism as together we find creative responses in co-ministry to the challenges before us.

DIACONAL DIVISION OF CONSECRATION, CERTIFICATION, AND CONFERENCE RELATIONS

The Division of Consecration, Certification, and Conference Relations of the North Texas Conference has met regularly to try to meet all the expectations of the Diaconals, certified personnel, and those in process of certification and consecration.

As we follow the history of the lay employee through the years, we are happy with where we as lay employees are now in the United Methodist Church, and look to the future with anticipation as the total ministry of the church is studied.

The North Texas Conference Board of Diaconal Ministries is responsible for all persons who are in the process of certification and/or consecration. To date, we have 25 in process. We have 5 persons certified in music, and 7 certified in education; 3 ministers of music and 9 ministers of education. 1 person is a minister of music and education; 5 Diaconal ministers who are church business administrators, 8 Diaconal ministers who are in music, and 26 Diaconal ministers who are in education. This gives us a total of 89 persons the board is responsible for.

The Board of Diaconal Ministry makes the following recommendations to the Conference:

1. Having met all of the qualifications for Diaconal ministry, and been interviewed by the Division of Consecration, Certification, and Conference Relations, and the entire Board of Diaconal Ministry, we recommend Patricia Ann Smith Wheaton, a certified Associate in Christian Education, be consecrated as a Diaconal Minister.
2. The Division and Board have also interviewed the following persons that we would recommend for certification:
   Peggy O'Neal Coke - Director of Music
   Phyllis Wilson - Director of Music
   Rita M. Pike - Associate in Music
3. Diaconal Ministers who have transferred to the North Texas Conference during this year are:
   Tommie D. Daniels, Jr., effective 2/1/84 - from the New Mexico Conference.
   Church Business Administrator at University Park UMC, Dallas
   Dale Robinson, effective July 1, 1983 - from the New Mexico Conference.
   Home Missionary on leave of absence.
   Margaret Robinson, effective 7/1/83 - from the New Mexico Conference.
   Home Missionary, First UMC in Lancaster.
4. The following persons have asked for leave of absence:
   Lila Coffey
   Sue Crutchfield
   Dorothy Holloman
   Opal Peyron
5. Forster Lord Day and Howard M. Fryman have taken voluntary termination.

We thank God for the churches of the North Texas Conference and the opportunities we have to be in ministry through them. We hope you, the Conference, will encourage any lay employees not now a part of this ministry to give serious consideration to the Diaconal Ministry.

This concludes the report of the Division of Consecration, Certification, and Conference Relations of the Board of Diaconal Ministry. Thank you!

DIVISION OF LOCAL PASTORS

The Local Pastor's Division has several basic functions: the examination of the candidates seeking Local Pastor status to evaluate their suitability, to oversee and assist them in qualifying for their License, and to assist Local Pastors to advance in their studies and, for some, into Conference Membership. We uphold the integrity of the Local Pastor category of ministry and the role they fill in the ministry of the United Methodist Church. It is the purpose of this division to provide fully qualified candidates for appointment within our Conference structure, and to see that the rights of these persons are fully protected, and that they are accorded all the benefits entitled them under the DISCIPLINE and rules of the North Texas Conference.

Attached is a list of Approved Local Pastors. The Local Pastor's Division recommends that only those names appearing on this list be appointed under Episcopal appointment for second or subsequent year in accordance with paragraphs 406-409 of THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE 1980. Those who will be selected to serve their first year as Local Pastors during the Conference year 1984-85 will be interviewed during the spring of 1985 and may serve the first year without appearing before the Local Pastor's Division. All persons presently serving as Local Pastors were duly notified as to the need to meet with the Local Pastor's Division and their respective district superintendents have been notified as to whether these have appeared for examination before the Local Pastor's Division.

For those who will be appointed but have not qualified for their license as a local pastor, there will be a Licensing School at the Methodist Camp at Lake Texoma the week of August 12-17, 1984, in conjunction with the Central Texas Conference. Additional required seminars may be held during the year. Our educational program for licensing is in agreement with the guidelines published by the Division of Ordained Ministry in Nashville.

For list of Approved Local Pastors, see Disciplinary Questions, Question 22.

As Chairperson, Leonard recommends the following regarding the future status of the CE Committee:

1. That it become a sub-group of the BOM, with the chairperson responsible directly to the chairperson of the board.
2. That allowance be made for General Conference action relative to diaconal issues.
3. That attention be given to various theological positions in choosing members of the Committee.
4. That the CE Chairperson be well organized and systematic, with status equal to other significant sub-groups of the board.
5. That Continuing Education continue to involve both individual grants and group events. The annual Fall event for the whole Conference should be continued or replaced with multiple events throughout the year.

Herman G. Cook, Chairperson

DIVISION OF CAREER PLANNING AND COUNSELING

We welcome the inclusion of our work under the other Divisions. Historically our Division work has been twofold: provision of undergraduate scholarship aid to students planning on entering the ministry and planning and implementing the Bishop's Conference on Ministry.

Concerning scholarship aid, district representatives have been responsible for identifying and evaluating college students eligible for help. The Division has given a $300 dollar grant to qualified college students. Normally a semi-annual announcement is made in the Conference edition of the United Methodist Reporter to alert persons of our aid. Students can receive scholarship help throughout the four years of their college career. The process for evaluation is found in the 1979 and 1980 journals of the North Texas Conference.

RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the NORTH TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE is the appropriate organization to designate housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference; and

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 1985 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the NORTH TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE at the time of his or her retirement or disability;

2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited TO THE LESSER OF: (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C. B. 92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as a 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

VI C1 — COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES

I. PURPOSE

The stated purpose of the Commission on Equitable Salaries, according to the 1980 United Methodist Discipline, paragraph 935, is:

A. Recommending conference standards for ministerial compensation;
B. Administering funds to be used in salary supplementation;
C. Providing counsel and advisory material on ministerial compensation to district superintendents and staff-parish relations committees.

II. POLICIES RELATING TO THE COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES

A. A local church exists to serve, not to be served. All churches should be motivated to a larger sense of ministry. Churches on salary subsidy should be linked with other churches in order to provide full-time ministers with a work load of a minimum of 250 members, the number believed by the commission to be necessary to support a pastor. Larger churches should be encouraged to accept couplings with each other and with larger churches to reduce the need for subsidy.

B. Growth in stewardship should be achieved by all below minimum remuneration churches. In making application for salary supplement, District Superintendents are to provide evidence of stewardship, education and growth on forms provided by the Commission on Equitable Salary.

C. Tenure payments are designed to honor the years of service of pastors who continue for more than five years in ministry in below-salary churches because of the needs of the conference. The Bishop and the cabinet are urged to make every effort to move pastors to above minimum churches within five years after they begin full-time service. All ministers should engage in continuous training and education. Requests for subsidy for ministers serving more than five years in below minimum remuneration churches must be accompanied by evidences of additional training on the forms provided by the Commission on Equitable Salaries.

D. All applications to the Commission on Equitable Salary are to be made on forms provided by the commission, and must be approved by the commission in session or by no less than two of the three members of the executive committee of the Commission on Equitable Salaries.

E. Minimum salary levels can best be met when appointments are open to all persons without regard to race and sex. We continue to urge every delegate to make the subject of a full open conference and adequately supported ministry at the local church level a matter of daily personal prayer. Only as the love of Christ dwells in us can an Annual Conference be a fellowship of caring persons.

F. Applications for subsidy are to be signed by the District Superintendent and the Recording Secretary of the Charge Conference.

G. Pastors who decline an appointment by the Bishop are ineligible for equitable salary support.

H. The Director of Finance and Administration should inform the Commission of any grants for salaries by any other conference or general church agency so that it may coordinate salary with other agencies.

I. The Commission on Equitable Salaries shall notify annually the Administrative Board Chairperson, the Council on Ministries Chairperson, the Treasurer, and the Staff-Parish Relations Committee Chairperson of each local church of the goal of the Conference for every full-time pastor to have a work load of 250 members in order to get all pastors above minimum. The amount of subsidy granted to a local church shall be acknowledged annually at the Charge Conference wherein Commission on Equitable Salary subsidy was received in the year prior. As well, key local church leaders will be informed by the printed report of the Commission on Equitable Salaries, of other Commission on Equitable Salaries' policies and recommendations.

J. All charges unable to pay the minimum set by the conference shall make formal request for salary supplement at a Charge Conference at which the District Superintendent shall call attention to the fact that the conference expects each church to aim toward the goals of full self-support at the earliest time possible. This action shall be reflected in the minutes of the Charge Conference, a copy of which should accompany the request for subsidy.

K. All requests are to be made by the District Superintendent to the Chairperson of the Commission on Equitable Salaries on forms which will be provided by the Commission on Equitable Salaries.

L. The Commission on Equitable Salaries will not consider requests for salary supplement where housing allowances exceed $7200.

M. Aid to families will be made at the end of the year if funds are available. An amount of up to $100 per dependent (as defined by the IRS) will be made at the end of the year, the exact amount depending on the availability of funds.

N. With the exception of aid to families, there shall be no lump sum payments to persons receiving equitable salary assistance.

III. EQUITABLE SALARY COMPENSATION FOR 1985

A. The Commission on Equitable Salary studied extensively the various ways of computing minimum Equitable Salary. The conclusion was that we are better off by remaining with the percent increase based on inflation. This year's raise of 7% is based on an increase of inflation for 1983 of 4%; 1% expectation for 1984; and an additional increase of 2% due to increase in Social Security taxes. Thus, the 7% would indicate a minimum Equitable Salary for 1985 of $17,662.

MINIMUM EQUITABLE SALARY GROWTH

1983	+6.5%	1984	+7%	1985
15,500	1007	16,507	1155	17,662

B. The years of service allowance shall be $100.00 per service year after 5 years up to 20 years.

C. 1984 Equitable Salary scale includes base salary, utilities, travel allowance and years of service.

Non-Resident-2 nights or less	6,065

6. All students serving student appointments receive the annual $20.00 one way auto allowance.

IV. CURRENT POLICIES OF INTEREST TO STAFF-PARISH RELATIONS COMMITTEES

The Conference has voted several policies covering ministerial compensation. Staff-Parish Relations Committees will want to review all of these policies when determining the equitable salary for its minister.

A. SALARY PACKAGE. The minimum equitable salary will be figured by using the base salary, utilities, and car and travel expense.

1. BASE SALARY. In arriving at base salary, the Staff-Parish Relations Committee will want to take into consideration:
   a. The median income of a community
   b. Cost of living increases
   c. Size of congregation/number of churches
   d. All-round pastoral effectiveness - merit
   e. Experience
   f. Complexity of job situation
2. UTILITIES. Each charge shall pay the actual utility bills of the pastor, excluding personal long distance calls, based on bills submitted to the church treasurer. (1974 Journal, p. 108, and 1980 Journal, p. 209.)

3. CAR AND TRAVEL ALLOWANCE. The Conference voted in 1983 to recommend to all churches that they pay all car expenses of their pastors and associate pastors who carry major pastoral visitation responsibilities and that no church pay less than $4,000.00 per year car expense.

B. MOVING EXPENSE. For many years, it has been the custom in the North Texas Conference for the receiving church to pay moving expenses.

C. PENSION. The salary paying unit makes the payments on the Ministerial Pension Plan. (1981 North Texas Conference Journal)

D. INSURANCE. The Annual Conference provides medical, disability and life insurance for all eligible Ministers. The Annual Conference provides medical insurance for eligible Diaconal Ministers. Disability and life insurance are provided for Diaconal Ministers by the local church.

E. HOUSING. Each local church shall provide housing for its minister with a church-owned parsonage or a monetary housing allowance. The following parsonage goals are found in the 1974 Conference Journal, p. 107:

1. SIZE.
   The parsonage should have three bedrooms and a guest room. There should be at least two bathrooms. There should be one large living area.
2. INSIDE.
   The parsonage should be completely furnished. This will include all furniture, kitchen equipment, floor coverings, lamps, tables, window curtains, etc.
   a. Kitchen should include all standard modern appliances, such as dishwasher and garbage disposal.
   b. Washer and dryer for laundry.
   c. Adequate heating and cooling facilities (preferably central).
3. OUTSIDE.
   The outside of the parsonage should complement the inside, therefore the following things need to be considered:
   a. Landscaping where it is necessary.
   b. Safe play area for children.
   c. Garage in good condition and convenient to parsonage.
4. MAINTENANCE.
   a. Utilities.
      1. The local church should pay for the cost of all utilities (except personal long distance telephone calls).
   b. Upkeep and repair is a church responsibility.
      1. An amount of from 2% to 2-1/2% of the parsonage value should be provided in the church budget for repair and refurbishing. (This should be adequate once the building and furnishings are in excellent condition.)
      2. Painting of inside and outside of parsonage should be done as often as necessary.
   c. Parsonage families' responsibilities.
      1. Minor upkeep and repairs (e.g., leaky faucets).
      2. Repairs needed for damages done by member of parsonage family.
      3. "White-glove" clean-up prior to leaving appointment. (Parsonage family may want to have tenant insurance.)
5. IF HOUSING ALLOWANCE is provided instead of church-owned parsonage, the amount should be adequate for the minister to live in the area near the church.

F. VACATION. The 1974 North Texas Conference voted the following recommendations for minimum vacation standards:

1. YEARS OF SERVICE (See F.2)
   1-4 years -- two weeks (two Sundays)
   5-9 years -- three weeks (three Sundays)
   10 years plus -- four weeks (four Sundays)
2. THE FOLLOWING POINTS ARE MADE IN EXPLANATION OF THE ABOVE:
   a. "Years of service" shall be determined by years served as a full-time, ordained United Methodist minister, or as a full-time diaconal minister.
   b. The length of vacation is set by the Annual Conference, but the most suitable time for both the local church and the ministerial family will need to be determined by the Staff-Parish Relations Committee.

G. SOCIAL SECURITY. By law, ministers pay their own social security. Base salary, housing, car and utility items should be considered by the minister and the church as income for Social Security purposes. An amount for housing, even if the church owns the parsonage, must be included in reporting income to Social Security. Other expenses are not included in computation of minimum equitable salary.

H. OTHER SERVICES AND GUIDELINES.

1. COUNSELING SERVICE. A program of pastoral care and counseling for ordained conference members (including diaconal and retired members) and persons serving full-time conference appointments, plus their spouses and dependent family members is available. For details, see the 1979 North Texas Conference Journal, p. 187, or contact the office of the Director of Professional Ministries.
2. GUIDELINES CONCERNING CLERGY DIVORCE are found in the North Texas Conference Journal for 1974, p. 105ff.
3. CONTINUING EDUCATION. The Continuing Education Program of the North Texas Conference is a comprehensive program designed to provide stimulation and opportunities for increasing the skills and competency of ministry in the local church.

V. A SUGGESTED PROCESS FOR ESTABLISHING A LOCAL CHURCH PASTOR'S SALARY.

If the objective of salary setting by the local church were to be -- to provide a salary level for the pastor that will permit the pastor and the pastor's family to live as well as the average family in the church and community -- a starting point would be:

1. Start with the family median income of the community in which the charge is located. The family median is that point where half earn more than the median and half earn less than the median. This figure is readily available in the July issue each year of "Sales and Marketing Management" magazine. (Most libraries would have it, or a chamber of commerce.)
2. This magazine contains the estimated median household Effective Buying Income for the previous year for every couty and for cities over 40,000. Median household EBI refers to disposable income after Federal, State, and local taxes, etc.
3. In order to find the median family income, you multiply the median household EBI figure by an adjustment factor of 1.15 to convert it into an estimate of current year median family income. (For more complete details on this process, write to Harold Sedral, 3401-36th Street, Rock Island, Illinois 61201.)
4. The resultant figure would be the "base point" in setting a cash salary range for a full-time experienced pastor, (one with three or more years of experience since ordination) serving congregation or congregations up to 400 members. A pastor right out of seminary or with limited experience might start at the base salary set by the Conference.
5. With the "base point" established, set a cash salary range by multiplying the base point by 1-1/4 (1.25) and use that figure as the NORMAL maximum for cash salary; i.e., a $19,000 average (based on the Denominational Average Compensation) would establish a salary range of $19,000 to $23,750.
6. Variations to basic approach:
   a. Size of congregation:
      400-650 members - an additional $500
      650-1,000 members - an additional $1,000
      1,000-1,500 members - an additional $1,500
      Over 1,500 - an additional $2,000
   b. Complexity of situation - it might be appropriate to raise the range of cash salary in situations such as:
      Multi-church rural parishes
      Complex inner-city churches
      New Church Organization

   NOTE: The setting of the base point and salary ranges relate strictly to the job and in no way to the pastor. Another way of stating this would be - if the job were vacant, in relationship to the community and the complexity of the job, this would be a "fair" salary offering a standard of living equal to the majority of families in the community.

7. Two other criteria will also want to be considered before the specific salary is set from the base salary range:
   a. The effective skill of the pastor.
   b. Experience - length of service.
   These are merit factors that give encouragement to pastors.

   On the question of what to pay for experience, this suggestion from Lyle B. Schaller is a rule of thumb: "That each year's experience for the highly competent pastor is worth approximately $500. In other words, the very able and highly competent pastor with 20 years of experience will receive a cash salary of approximately $10,000 higher than the very competent but inexperienced seminary graduate. For the pastor of average competence, experience is turning out to be worth; in fact, about $200 per year, and in some cases only $100 or less a year." (1977 Parish Paper by Lyle Schaller.)
8. Total Compensation
   Thus far we have been dealing with cash salary of the pastor. In order to determine total compensation, you will add the benefits - housing, utilities, health insurance, etc. In addition to the above, you will need to consider reimbursable expenses, such as travel and other "out of pocket" expenses incurred in carrying out the ministry.

SUMMARY: The net result of this process is that you will arrive at a salary figure around 30% higher than the median family income of the community (when value of housing is taken into consideration). This is a reasonable place to be if you understand that the average professional (ages 25-64 working in areas needed five or more years of college) earns more than twice the median family income.

FORMULA FOR THE EQUALIZATION OF LAY AND CLERGY MEMBERS

That the following formula be adopted as the procedure used to determine the number of lay and clergy members of the Annual Conference.

FORMULA:

1. Subtract the total number of lay members prior to equalization from the total number of clergy members. The remainder is the Lay Equalization Factor (LEF).
2. Compute the District Membership Percentage (DMP).
   If a district has more lay members than clergy members prior to equalization, subtract the number of local church members in this district from the total of local church members for the Annual Conference. Such a district will not enter into the computation of the District Membership Fraction.
   Next, for districts that have fewer lay than clergy members, divide the total number of local church members in each district by the adjusted total number of local church members in the Annual Conference (as determined above). This quotient is the District Membership Percentage.
3. Subtract the number of lay members of the Annual Conference required by THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE (1980 edition, paragraph 36) from the Lay Equalization Factor.* The remainder is the Adjusted Lay Equalization Factor (ALEF).
   *Lay members required by the DISCIPLINE:
   + Conference President of United Methodist Men
   + Conference President of United Methodist Women
   + President of Conference Youth Organization
   + Two young persons under twenty-five years of age from each district
   + Conference Lay Leader
   + District Lay Leaders

   These persons shall be elected to the lay membership of the Annual Conference by the District Section.
4. Multiply the Adjusted Lay Equalization Factor by the District Membership Percentage. The product is the District Adjusted Lay Equalization Factor (DALEF), (i.e., the number of additional lay members to be elected by the District Sections to effect lay/clergy equalization.) If a district already had more lay members than clergy members, it will not be included in calculating the District Adjusted Lay Equalization Factor.
5. The date for computing the Lay/Clergy Equalization shall be January 1. The number of additional lay members to be elected for equalization will be promptly forwarded to the Board of the Laity to allow it to prepare a list of possible additional lay members to be presented to the first District Section meetings.
6. If the actual number of clergy in the Conference increases after January 1, the Lay Leader of a district in which the imbalance occurs shall select a lay member(s) from within the district to equalize the increase of clergy members.
7. If this formula fails to compute the exact number of additional lay persons per district to offset the clergy of the Conference due to calculations made using fractions of a per cent, the Board of the Laity shall be authorized to correct the imbalance through negotiation.
8. So that a district that has more lay members than clergy prior to equalization may elect additional lay members in its District Section, a courtesy rearrangement of the number of lay members to be elected may be made by the Board of the Laity after the District Adjusted Lay Equalization Factor has been determined.

COMPOSITE REPORT OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

Bishop Russell, colleagues of the Extended Cabinet, members and visitors to this eighteenth session of the North Texas Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church. Grace and peace be yours, in the name of the Lord, Jesus Christ.

As we continue celebrating two hundred years of Methodism in America, and as we prepare to begin a new journey into the third century, my feelings can best be expressed in the words of John Wesley's hymn of unity and fellowship:

All praise to our redeeming Lord,
Who joins us by his grace,
And bids us, each to each restored,
Together seek His face.

The gift which he on one bestows,
We all delight to prove,
The grace through every vessel flows
In purest streams of love.

He bids us build each other up;
And, gathered into one,
To our high calling's glorious hope,
We hand in hand go on.

We all partake the joy of one;
The common peace we feel:
A peace to sensual minds unknown,
A joy unspeakable.

And if our fellowship below
In Jesus be so sweet,
What height of rapture shall we know
When round his throne we meet!

This report is an attempt to reflect on the Annual Conference theme, "Proclaiming Grace and Freedom for 200 years, 1784-1984"; "Claiming the Past, Celebrating the Present, Challenging the Future," and on some possibilities that may be considered by you for the composite report for the appointed and extended cabinet to the Annual Conference:

The Bishop's Call to Evangelism was approved at this past Annual Conference Session as a major programmatic thrust for this year. Each of the districts provided a special design team for the implementation of this emphasis in their respective districts. I am pleased to inform you that some very significant accomplishments have taken place in each of the districts with an aggregate increase in both church and church school memberships during this past year. The emphasis still continues, and we live in the realization that evangelism is the very core of our mission and ministry. Bishop Russell's disciple/evangelism challenge to accept the mandate of the whole gospel, as he visited with both clergy and laypersons in each district, caused us to re-examine our faith convictions, stewardship understanding, and where we are on our spiritual journey.

The Strengthening and Improving Missional Priority of the Ethnic Minority Local Church:

We have continued to address the missional priority for the United Methodist Church within the North Texas Conference. The appointment of the Reverend Chauncy Nealy as the staff member in the Council on Ministries devoted exclusively to the implementation of this priority symbolizes the commitment of the cabinet to the importance of this work. We have increased our financial responses to the apportionment for this priority and in keeping with the action of the General Conference for continuing the missional priority as a focus on strengthening the racial diversity within our denomination. We anticipate that the North Texas Conference will be in the forefront of continuing this work.

The Work of the Conference Council on Ministries:

We continue to rejoice with the creative and effective leadership that comes through our Council on Ministries with Mr. John Beall as Chairperson. The staff of the Council, under the leadership of the Director, Dr. William J. Washington, provides for us the kind of capable and devoted leadership that enables us in our tasks. The number of persons in our enterprises in the summer camping program, the responses that come through the variety of leadership development enterprises throughout the year, and the quality of the weekly coverage in the North Texas Conference page keeps us well informed of the events both within the Conference and beyond this Annual Conference. We are absolutely convinced that the quality of our work in our local churches is much better because of their efforts.

Church Development:

The words of wisdom found in Proverbs 29:18 (KJV): "Where there is no vision, the people perish." The Board of Church Development's Visionaries Program is an attempt to fulfill Jesus' commission to take the Gospel to all the world, realizing that he taught and gave clear examples of what mission and ministry require of the church. Based on that understanding, with the assistance of the district superintendents, district study teams, and direct supervision from the Board of Global Ministries: Particularly, Dr. Sarla Lall and Mr. Russell Harris, a five-year projection on missions in the North Texas Conference was established along with a renewing of former commitments. As a result, new sites have been bought and anticipated, new churches built, and renovation and mergers of congregations have been accomplished. The Conference Board of Church Extension has started thirty-nine churches in the past thirty years and has accepted the goal of thirty-one new churches by the year 2000.

Congregational development is as old as Methodism. On May 12, 1739, John Wesley laid the cornerstone for the "New Room" in Bristol, England. The building was opened for worship in 1742 and it carried a debt. The Christmas Conference decreed during its 1784 session that a yearly subscription would be taken on the circuits for building new facilities and for relief of debts on existing meetinghouses. Thus, we continue the biblical Christmas Conference mandate of 1784, by the investment of Visionaries shares. In fact, the Visionaries shares has increased 139% in the last two years, totaling 5,249 in April 1984.

The Cooperative Parishes:

The cooperative parishes in town and country are showing an increase in budgets, in church school, worship, and in membership. I am proud to report that there are two active cooperative parishes with the anticipation of several new cooperative parishes being established in the Wichita Falls, Paris-Sulphur Springs, and Dallas-South Districts.

Transitional Communities:

The Division of Transitional Communities has invested many hours as well as finances in the establishment and continuation of the East Dallas Cooperative Parish. Special gratitude to the Highland Park United Methodist Church for the five-year investment of $100,000 and to George Holcombe who is the consultant for the East Dallas Cooperative Parish, who along with the seven pastors and several laypersons, raised in excess of $124,000 to be in mission with the respective strategic missional model which linked church and community in a variety of vital ministries. (A special appreciation to superintendent, pastors and laypersons of the Sherman-McKinney District which was the first to meet and surpass the goal set by the Annual Conference in 1982 of having 5% of each congregation to participate in Visionaries.)

There were five church development banquets in 1983 with a total attendance of over 1,400 persons. The objective of the church development banquets are to say thanks to share participants, and to encourage other members of local congregations also to assume ownership in visionaries.

Church Assistance:

The Division of Church Assistance continues to play a vital role in granting financial assistance to churches in need of capital improvements in order to continue their ministry. Congregational development is alive and well in the North Texas Conference. We have witnessed a renewed interest in this vital ministry. And with God's "Amazing Grace," and the power of His Holy Spirit working in our hearts, we shall continue with our resources honoring Him and blessing humanity.

Financial Support Beyond the Local Church:

Dr. James Hares, Conference Treasurer, reports that the apportionment pay-out for 1983 was 95.1%. This was the highest amount payed in 20 years. Advance specials and other gifts came to a glorious total of $1,122,192.00, which indicates that we North Texas Conference Christians claim "the world as our parish", and those therein our brothers and sisters in Christ...even "the least of these." Thanks for your generosity. When all congregations accept the ten months apportionment pay-out request, we will accomplish our 100% goal. 1984 is the charm year!

Human Freedom and Justice:

We affirm that Christian communities throughout the world, through their struggle to be faithful to the gospel in all of life, remind us that true proclamation, true calling, is not only in word, but by the act of faithfulness on the part of the church in the face of all the hurts and hungers of life.

More and more, attention to the challenge of hunger, human freedom, and justice is emerging as we continue feeling the need to support global and community ministries. We also recognize the urgency to empower people through community organizations and consciousness-raising to promote change where injustice is found.

Jesus' first sermon preached in his home church, to home people, was a social gospel. When he stood up to read, he was given the book of the prophet Isaiah, and he began to read: "The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He has chosen me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives, and recovery of the sight of the blind. To set free the oppressed, and announce that the time has come when the Lord will save His people." (Luke 4:18-19)

Third Century Proclamation of Unity:

Throughout the New Testament the church is regarded as an expanding community led by Jesus Christ. Paul's two metaphors of the temple and the body reinforces this idea. Christians are limbs linked together in the body while Jesus Christ is the cornerstone of the temple and the head of the body. There would be no body without limbs. We are to be more than a pile of bricks or "scattered dry bones in an open valley." Under the guidance and wind of the Holy Spirit we are to be an army of believers, marching in step with one another, "as lights shining in darkness", and as "salt" poured on an unsavory world.

The word is out! That the General Conference delegates and visitors returned from Baltimore, Maryland, with a new spirit of unity and absolute trust in the power of God's sustaining grace to lead United Methodists "on to perfection".

I have always believed and lived in hope of God's amazing grace. As a black United Methodist, I have no thought of giving up the fight for an inclusive United Methodist Church void of racism in any form. You see, our ancestors loyalty to the Methodist Church can be traced back beyond 1784. There is a song that is sung in the black congregations, which expresses my personal feelings. It says:

"I've started on this journey,
A long, long time ago;
In a world of temptations,
Has made my journey hard and slow.
I'm going on just the same trusting,
In my God's name;
I'm on the road to see Jesus,
And I'll never turn back no more."

We United Methodists dare not give up the fight for oneness in the spirit and in the Lord.

In conclusion, I want to express my gratitude to Bishop and Mrs. Russell, for expertly and compassionately leading us into the Third Century.

RULE 1.

The Rules of Order adopted by the General Conference of the United Methodist Church shall prevail at all business sessions of the conference.

RULE 2.

The Conference Council on Ministries is constituted to execute the functions detailed in the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE in addition to the coordinating functions in relation to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 3.

The bishop, the district superintendents, the conference lay leader, the district lay leaders and six additional persons - taking into account the need for age, sex and ethnic representation - shall constitute the annual Conference Nominating Committee.

Nominations for persons to serve for a four-year term on the conference's various councils, boards, commissions and committees shall be made by the Conference Nominating Committee. The nominating committee shall seek to nominate persons who are qualified for and interested in the work to be addressed. No person shall be nominated for a position without previously agreeing to serve if elected. Persons who are absent without cause from half or more of an agency's meetings during the conference year have thereby automatically removed themselves from the membership roll of that agency and shall be replaced by the Conference Nominating Committee. The Conference Nominating Committee is authorized to provide for filling of such vacancies in the personnel of conference agencies between sessions of Annual Conference, unless otherwise provided for in the DISCIPLINE.

The chairpersons of the annual conference's councils, boards, board divisions, commissions and committees shall be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the annual conference, with opportunity for additional nominations from the floor, except in cases where specific alternative provisions are made by the DISCIPLINE. Such persons shall be elected for a four-year term with this term beginning at the annual conference session of their election. A person shall not be elected to serve as a chairperson in the annual conference for more than four years in any consecutive six years of any agency whose membership is elected or confirmed by the annual conference, excluding those committees listed in Standing Rule 3 as Annual Conference Committees. Persons nominated and elected to be chairpersons shall be in addition to the stated number of members for each conference agency, unless prohibited by the DISCIPLINE. A Temporary Attachment -- 1983-1988: New chairpersons elected at the 1983 Annual Conference will serve for a period of five (5) years instead of four (4), provided there is no violation of other Standing Rules. Therefore, those persons would serve through the Annual Conference of 1988. At that time they will not be eligible for election as a chairperson for a period of two years.

Each district shall be represented by at least one person on each council, board, board division, commission and committee unless the DISCIPLINE specifically precludes this possibility. Should a district cease to be represented on a given structural unit by virtue of a person moving, that person shall remain on the said structural unit and an additional member shall be added to that unit to represent that district. District representatives on each structural unit shall be responsible for conveying information from the district to the agency on which they serve and from the agency to any equivalent structural units at the district level.

Membership on all agencies (councils, boards, divisions, commissions, committees) shall include one-third clergy, one-third laywomen, and one-third laymen, except for the Board of Ordained Ministry. Special attention shall be given to the inclusion of clergywomen. The following agencies should also be considered as exceptions:

This Rule shall not be so construed as to preclude proper amendments to reports or matters of privilege.

A. Funds contributed for a designated purpose should be used strictly for the purpose designated, and administered efficiently, without waste or duplication, in order to obtain maximum effect from the use of available funds.

B. Net proceeds from the sale of Annual Conference property are capital funds, and should be appropriated to the use which the property was intended to serve. If this is not feasible, priority should be given to the most similar purpose for which the funds can be used effectively, or to capital improvements within reasonable geographical proximity; but district lines should not be controlling and the entire community or metropolitan area should be considered. Likewise, funds received by way of indemnity for loss or destruction of any capital assets of the Annual Conference should be treated as capital assets and should be used for similar purposes if restoration of the property is feasible.

MAJOR ALBERT FLETCHER CLICK

The Rev. Albert F. Click at the age of 8 told his schoolteacher he wanted to be a Methodist Episcopal minister, but that he didn't know how to spell it.

During his 86 years, he was to serve 65 years as a minister and chaplain through several name changes of the church. He was licensed to preach at Wesley College in Greenville, Texas, at the age of 16. He served in West Texas until entering the service during World War I. His Army career as a chaplain included three tours of duty at Letterman Army Hospital. He retired with the rank of major to what he called "second-mile preaching" at Howe, Sanger, Celeste and Shady Grove (the one near Greenville).

His first wife, Margaret Click, and only son, Bill Click, preceded him in death. He retired again in 1979. The Rev. Albert Click, well known for his many charities, loved and served God, man and country. His widow, Rose Jean Click, will continue to live in their home in Greenville.

WILLIAM SCOTT FRANKLIN

William Scott Franklin was born October 1, 1888, near Atlanta, Mississippi, to Winfield Scott Franklin and Nancy Griffin Franklin. He was their third son, and the sixth of nine children. He was raised in a devoted Christian home, and was the second of the three sons to grow up to be ministers. A sister married a minister. He was known as a gospel preacher, and a totally committed servant of Christ.

After retiring from the Oklahoma Conference in 1954, and was living at Forestburg, Texas, he married the Rev. Miss Velma Pearl Hart, at Loyal, Oklahoma, January 8, 1956. They made their home at Forestburg and finished the year together as a team at Loyal. They later served as a team of ministers in eight appointments in the North Texas Conference, Denton District, with Dr. T. Herbert Mings as their first D. S., who started them out. Mrs. Franklin joined the North Texas Conference in 1960. During more than 51 years in the ministry, he served mostly in Oklahoma, but also in New Jersey while he was in Seminary at Duke Seminary; also, in Kansas, Texas, and Louisiana. His only son, William B. Franklin, deceased 1970, was a leader in the YMCA, Fort Worth and Houston.

Rev. Franklin was a devoted servant of the Lord. A winner of souls. He wanted to live to be 100, but passed away twelve days before his 95th birthday. His most recent personal visitation came at the request and invitation of a Roman Catholic neighbor lady for him to visit her protestant husband, drunk and sick in bed. He had prayer with the robust man, persuaded him on account of job, family (two lovely daughters nearly grown), driving car, health, etc., to give up liquor. The whole family, including the man's aged mother near Rev. Franklin's age, became Rev. Franklin's steadfast friends the last few years.

All his days he claimed God's promise, "Thou will keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on thee." And went peacefully to be with his Lord after congestive heart failure, September 19, 1983, in El Reno, Oklahoma, where he had lived since 1969. Rev. Jerry Darter, pastor Wesley Methodist Church, and Dr. A. W. Coleman, retired minister United Methodist Church, assisted. He was laid to rest in Greenwood Memorial Park in Fort Worth where he had preached years ago. He is survived by his wife, the Rev. Velma Hart Franklin of El Reno, Oklahoma, four daughters, two sisters, fourteen grand children, thirteen great grandchildren. In the "sweet bye and bye" we shall meet on that beautiful shore. His life reminds me of the words of Jesus: "Wist ye not I must be about my Father's business."

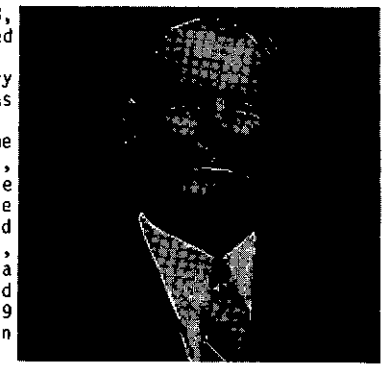
GROVER CLEVELAND HOUSE



Reverend Grover Cleveland House was born October 13, 1889, at Evans Chapel, Leon County, Texas. He died August 3, 1983, at the age of 93.

Brother House was received into the Methodist Ministry on trial in the Texas Conference in 1916. He was ordained Deacon in 1918 and ordained Elder in 1920.

In the Texas Conference, he served as pastor of the following churches: Franklin Circuit, Lyons, Waller, Wheelock and Gause, Anahuac, Buna and Gause. He transferred to the North Texas Conference in 1930 where he served the following churches: Bryson, Kemp and Becker, Crandall and Seagoville, Petrolia, Pilot Point, Bridgeport. He was pastor of Valley View near Wichita Falls from 1946 until his retirement in 1955. He served in the pastoral ministry of The Methodist Church for 39 years. After retiring in 1955, he made his home in Decatur, Texas.

He is survived by two daughters: Delois Duncan of Lake Worth, Texas, and Fay Marsh of Boring, Oregon; one son, G. C. House, Jr. of Graham, Texas; 6 Grandchildren, 14 Great-Grandchildren, and 6 Great-great Grandchildren.

Memorial services were conducted on August 5 at First United Methodist Church in Decatur by Reverend Edward L. Miller and Reverend G. C. Randolph. Burial was in the Cottonwood Cemetery in Bryson.

In the words of Acts 11:23: "When he came and saw the grace of God, he was glad; and he exhorted them all to remain faithful to the Lord with steadfast purpose; for he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and full of faith."

Edward L. Miller

CARL D. REYNOLDS

Carl D. Reynolds was pastor, preacher, husband, father during his almost eighty-three years of life. Born in Fairlee, Texas, in 1901, he served for forty-one years in the North Texas Annual Conference. He was received on trial in 1928 and retired in 1969. During his service in the conference, Carl served Commerce Circuit, Enlo, Pickton, Mt. Vernon, Brandon Avenue, Cooper, Lancaster Avenue, St. Luke's (Dallas), Pleasant Mount, and Wesley (Dallas).

Carl and his first wife, Cledie Mae, had two children, Harold H. Reynolds and Mrs. Myra Denson, both of Dallas. Cledie Mae died in 1959.

In 1960, Carl was married to Libbie Skinner, who survives him. Following his retirement, Carl and Libbie lived in Mesquite, and worshiped regularly at First U.M.C., Mesquite.

Carl had a strong sense of the church. He was a friend to children and made lasting friendships each place that he served. He regularly carried a pocket full of peppermint candies which he shared with anyone with whom he came in contact. At his funeral service, a large green wreath decorated with peppermint candies had a prominent place. The candy was shared with all who attended. It served to remind all who knew him that he had shared himself as a man of God and a minister of the Gospel.

IDA PEARL BYRUM STOUT

Ida Pearl Byrum Stout was born in Madison County, Tennessee, November 14, 1889. She was one of thirteen children born to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Byrum. In 1901, they moved to Texas and settled near Lancaster. Ida Pearl attended public school there and was very talented in drawing and penmanship, but was unable to continue her education because of the death of her father and older brother. Her mother became a tenant farmer and all the family had to help work the farm. Her single adult life was spent with her mother and three brothers on the farm in the Houston School community near Lancaster. Rev. M. Allen Stout was pastor of the Wheatland-Duncanville Circuit and during his pastorate his first wife passed away. Rev. Stout and Ida Pearl were married on October 2, 1930. After their marriage, he held various pastorates at Allen Cumby, Perrin and Avery.

Ida Pearl was a devoted wife and lived a quiet life, but always enjoyed the work at the churches Bro. Stout pastored. After his retirement from the ministry, they lived on a farm near Gainesville, but in a short time moved to Gainesville and lived in a house furnished by the Annual Conference. They greatly enjoyed their retirement years. Bro. Stout passed away in 1961, and Ida Pearl continued to live in Gainesville until 1964. Later she moved to Dallas and lived with her sister. She spent her remaining years in a frame house across the road from Wheatland United Methodist Church. She was severely incapacitated by arthritis, but until her death was very cheerful and alert. She loved to recount the extraordinary memories of the experiences she had. She was a fine lady. After suffering a stroke, Ida Pearl passed away on December 23, 1983, and her funeral was conducted by her pastor, Rev. Richard Flach at the Byrum Funeral Home in Lancaster, with burial in the Edgewood Cemetery in Lancaster.

XVII. REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE STATISTICIAN 1983 REPORTING YEAR

The North Texas Annual Conference continued to show gains in nearly every area of work in 1983. All four person categories of reporting showed an increase.

-- Membership as of December 31, 1983, was 151,574, an increase of 932.
-- Morning Worship Attendance was 49,025, an increase of 731.
-- Church School Membership was 77,314, an increase of 1,630.
-- Average Attendance at Church School was 35,551, an increase of 543.

United Methodist Men showed an 8% increase in membership to 2,049. They spent a total of $42,464 on work projects.

United Methodist Women showed a 2% increase in membership to 12,313. They spent $231,158 on local projects and sent $220,349 to missions.

The value of Church Land, Buildings, and Equipment increased by 17% to $229,522,659.

Indebtedness also increased by 3.5 million dollars to $21,021,324.

The congregations in our Conference showed continued financial strength. The Grand Total spent was $39,475,546, an increase of 11.6%, or a dollar increase of $4,099,215. Per Capita giving in 1983 was $260, an increase of $25 Per Capita.

Other amounts reported included:

-- Paid on Indebtedness	$ 3,749,178
-- Paid on Building	4,972,686
-- Paid on Program and Church School	5,275,810
-- Paid on Other Operating Expense	9,403,512
-- Paid on World Service	899,445
-- Paid on Church Development	205,241
-- Paid on Ministerial Pension Plan	608,847
-- Paid on Pension & Benefit Fund	707,041

-- Salaries and other support for clergy increased.

One of the financial goals in our Annual Conference is to pay 100% of every apportionment. We moved closer to that goal this year. EVERY APPORTIONMENT SHOWED AN INCREASE IN PERCENTAGE PAID ON THE APPORTIONMENT.

A word about the future as we enter the Third Century of Methodism in America. Our General Conference just concluded in Baltimore set some challenging goals. One of the most challenging, yet attainable goals is for The United Methodist Church to have 20 million members by 1992, just 8 years from now. At the present time, the United Methodist Church has 9.6 million members. This goal can be reached if every congregation in every Annual Conference will increase its net membership by just 10% per year over the previous year's total membership for the next 8 years. A congregation of 100 members would need to show a net increase of 10 members the first year. The membership would then be 110. Then the next year a 10% net increase would be 11 members, and so on for 8 years. If the United Methodist Church will do this for 8 years, our membership will be 20.6 million members.

This goal is attainable, but this can and will happen only if each minister and each congregation takes seriously their responsibility to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the persons living in the area of responsibility of their congregation. No one else will do this for you. General Conference is not sending some packaged plan or secret formula. It is a matter of faith and commitment. The old saying is true in that 'You must plan your work, and work your plan'. Things will happen in your congregation. Church School Classes will grow. Additional classes and teachers will be needed. You may need more space for the additional persons. More ministers will be needed. It means a personal commitment and responsibility to the calling of being a follower of our Lord.

I look forward to making this report each year. It reflects our commitment and growth in our Christian faith. I especially look forward to these next 8 years as we move toward the goal of sharing Jesus Christ with our neighbors.
