I. CONFERENCE HISTORY

United Methodism in North Texas began in 1816-17 as part of Arkansas Methodism in the Missouri Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. When the denomination divided in 1844-45, Methodists of this area became a part of the East Texas Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. In 1867, the approximate area of what is now this conference, was set apart as the Trinity Conference, and later (1874) renamed the North Texas Conference.

The Methodist Episcopal Church had little organized work in Texas after 1845, until 1867 when a Texas Mission was formed. Out of that Mission came the West Texas Conference (primarily Black). In 1939 the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and The Methodist Protestant Church united to form The Methodist Church. The West Texas Conference, while a part of The Methodist Church, was in the Central Jurisdiction (all Black). The North Texas Conference was a part of the South Central Jurisdiction, which was one of the geographical jurisdictions.

At the Uniting Conference to form the United Methodist Church held in Dallas, Texas, April 1968, a new Annual Conference was formed in North Texas including members, congregations, and ministers of the North Texas Conference of The Methodist Church of the South Central Jurisdiction(1939-1968), and members, one congregation, and one minister of the Oklahoma-Texas Conference of the Evangelical and United Brethren Church (1886-1968).

At a merger conference held in Dallas, Texas, in May, 1970, members, congregations, and ministers of the North Texas Conference; and members, congregations, and ministers of the West Texas Conference located within the geographical boundaries of the North Texas Conference became the North Texas Conference of The United Methdist Church.

The sessions of the current North Texas Conference are numbered first from 1867, the organizational date for the North Texas Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Texas Mission of the Methodist Episcopal Church and secondly from 1970, the date of merger of the former North Texas and West Texas Conferences.

A list of the Conference Sessions of these separate conferences is printed in:

(1) the 1939 Journal of the North Texas Conference, South Central Juris diction, (P.28-29) and the 1967 Journal of the North Texas Conference, South Central Jurisdiction (P.140);
(2) the 1967 Journal of the West Texas Conference of the Central Jurisdiction (P. 88);
(3) the 1967 Official Record of the Oklahoma-Texas Conference of the Evangelical and United Brethren Church (P.17); and
(4) other histories of Methodism in North Texas.

IX. DAILY PROCEEDINGS

DAILY PROCEEDINGS
SUNDAY, JUNE 4, 1989

EXECUTIVE CLERGY SESSION

The Executive Session for the clergy of the North Texas Annual Conference was called to order by Bishop Bruce P. Blake in the sanctuary of Highland Park United Methodist Church, Dallas, Texas at 4:30 p.m. on Sunday, June 4, 1989. Bishop Blake reminded the clergy members of the conference of the opportunity and responsibility that is theirs to make decisions regarding ministerial matters which no one else is privileged to make. Reading from II Corinthians Bishop Blake reminded all clergy that we are ministers of a new covenant and by the grace of God "we do not lose heart." Bishop Blake then led in prayer.

Ronald Henderson, Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry offered an opening statement for the report of the board noting that this has been a year of reorganization for the board. Henderson expressed gratitude to members of the previous Board of Ordained Ministry who worked to enable a smooth transition for the current board. Noting many of the joys and sorrows of the year which have impacted the Board of Ordained Ministry, Henderson invited members of the board to stand that they might be recognized. Henderson expressed appreciation to John Rentfro, Cabinet representative; Bishop Blake; and conference staff for their work with and support of the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Donald Renshaw, Chairperson of the Division of Preparation and Qualifications, thanked members of the Division for the inordinate amount of work done this year. Charles Cox, Registrar of the Board, then called the names of those persons nominated for election as probationary members: Darrel Glen Blackmon, Sr.; Dan Boyd; Marsha Gail Engle-Rowbottom; Eric Stewart Folkerth; Matthew Blaine Gaston; David Thomas Howeth; Daniel Drew Humbert; Susan Jacobson; Sung Do Kang; Young Bong Kim; Valarie Nellie Maria Knox; Sarah Heaner Lancaster; Tommy Ray Medley; James Burton Palmer, Jr.; Sheron Covington Patterson; Kristie Jan Noerrlinger Rosset; Sung Jin Song; Patricia Piron Thresher; Mark Alan Thurman; and Mary Kay Totty.

Don Renshaw and Bishop Blake greet the incoming probationary members of the Conference.

Conference members vote Elders orders to those ministers who were received into full connection.

Bishop Blake gave opportunity for anyone to voice concern regarding these nominees and then called for the vote of each person individually. Each was elected unanimously. Bishop Blake then called for their election as a class to be ordained deacon; the vote was unanimous.

Charles Cox called for those persons to be elected to full connection to stand before the Conference: Christopher L. Allen, Thomas Owen Brumett, Mary Elizabeth Brundige, George David Dunson, Craig Victor Heenan, Johnny Hughes Hicks, Roger Duncan Hudson, Rene Preston Lawson, Paul Nixon, Thomas Owen Palmer, Jane Ellen Youtz Riecke, Namiqa Ardhuerumly Shipman, Terry Ann Sparks, David J. Turner, William Garth Wilcoxson, and Carol Woods. Bishop Blake noted that the historic questions to be addressed to these candidates are not out of date but are eternally relevant. Bishop Blake again gave opportunity for anyone present to voice concerns regarding any of the nominees for election to full connection, then called for the vote on each candidate individually. Each was elected unanimously.

Bishop Blake congratulates Craig Heenan on election to full connection and Elders orders.

Bishop Blake greets Jane Riecke after her election to full connection and Elders orders.

Bishop Blake then called for the vote to ordain all of these persons as elders with the exception of Paul Nixon who previously was ordained in a different denomination. Vote was taken; all were elected.

William Stephenson, Chairperson of the Division of Chaplains and Related Ministry, highlighted the work of that division noting that the division was privileged this year as the new Dallas area to have its Bishop's meeting on January 30th, with those in appointments beyond the local church. Sixty persons were present and all were grateful for the splendid presentation and the candor of Bishop Blake. This past year the division undertook a review of the places of appointment beyond the local church and that report was submitted to Bishop Blake.

Donald Renshaw called attention of the clergy members of the conference to changes in the Board of Ordained Ministries report:

1. Availability of scholarships has now been limited to those who are current candidates for ministry only.

2. After long consultation with the Southwest Career Development Center this report calls for the candidates for ministry to be responsible for the expense of that required testing program.

3. The date printed as a comment to paragraph 414.3 should be changed from August 1, 1989 to September 15, 1989. Renshaw moved approval of the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Questions were raised regarding the fee for the Southwest Career Development Center and whether the rationale of the candidates being more personally and financially committed to the process by being responsible for its cost was sufficient justification for requiring the candidates to assume this expense. William Crouch moved referral to the Board of Ordained Ministry for report back during a session of this annual conference, not necessarily an executive session. The motion was seconded; vote was taken, and the motion carried.

Bishop Blake called for the vote on the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry; it was approved.

David Rucker, Chairperson of the Division of Local Pastors, expressed appreciation for the hard work of the division's members this year, particularly its new members. Rucker noted that guidelines for the division of Local Pastors for the 1989-92 quadrennium have been written and directed the attention of the clergy to those guidelines as attached to the Board of Ordained Ministry report. Rucker called particular attention to changes regarding the role of the counseling elder, the process of licensing school, and the correspondence course of study. Bishop Blake called for vote on this section of the report; the report was approved.

Gary Reagan reported on the Continuing Education Event, held for the clergy of the conference and announced plans for a fall retreat to be held September 12-14, at the Bridgeport Conference Center.

Bishop Blake invited consideration on the remaining disciplinary questions, and Howard Hedges reported that all clergy members of the conference are blameless in their life and official administration. Ronald Henderson withdrew his name from the Joint Review Committee, the vacancy to be filled according to annual conference guidelines. David Rucker offered the names of those persons who have completed the studies for license as a local pastor, who are approved but not now appointed: Donald Bolding, Nancy Butts, Virgie Holbrook. Rucker also listed those persons approved and appointed as full-time, part time, and student local pastors: Full time - Elwin (Sam) Campbell, Larry D. Davis, Carl H. Flippin, Obie Groom, Josiah N. Opata, Terry Price, Bob Harold Warford, Louise Welch, John W. White; Part-time local pastors - Edgar James Bell; Larry A. Bell; Billy E. Brown; A. Frank Cook, III; Jesse E. Coulson; Michael Allen Efird; Geroge W. Harris; Willie Johnson; William Rogers; Sylvesta Shed; Billy Wilder; Student local pastors - Donald Bolding, Michael D. Burkett, Nancy Butts, Vicenta Cisneros, Martin Corie, Robert Cutlipp, Gary Don Dena, Stephen L. Hearrell, Barbara Hill, Virgie Holbook, Cary Jensen, Tim Jordan, William E. LaBarr, Kai Manimoi, Thomas R. McGee, James Michael Miller, Juan E. Ramos, Mary Sue Reames, Travis W. Reames, Morris Fred Rister, Thomas Waitschies, Ernest Jackson, Ellen Alston, Mary Jeannette Fordyce, Don Griffin, Ray Grube, Morgan Hay, Eleazar Olmos, Carl Robertson, Wally Underwood, Bob Ware.

Rucker listed those persons who have been discontinued as local pastors: Darrel Glen Blackmon, Sr.; J. C. Bryant; Marsha Engle-Rowbottom; Eleanor Flippin; Darwood Galaway; Doug Hinchcliff; John Heatherly; Billy Hoff; David Thomas Howeth; William Ingraham; Susan Jacobson; Valerie Knox; Tommy Ray Medley; Richard O. Teeter; Mary Kay Totty; John N. Vogeley; and John Zehr.

Rucker also named those persons reinstated as local pastors: Don Griffin, Carl Robertson, Obie Groom, and Ernest Jackson.

Charles Cox read the names of those persons who are to be continued as Probationary Members: James Bradley Bowden, Brian Glen McPherson, Ava Beth Rakestraw, Larry Davis, William James Allen, Jr., Sharon Andrews, Roger Baker, Keith Leo Boone, Charles Carnahan, Jams Carter, Judith Cooper, Angel Paulette Dalke, Tara Elain Eppes, Thomas Flick, Craig Gallaway, Camille Gaston, Richard W. Jones, Larry Charles Krohn, Paul Ledbetter, Victor Telano McCullough, Arville McLain, Tim McLemore, David Lowell Michel, Clayton Oliphint, Pa Nous Pan, Betty D. Richardson, Dorothy Dickson Rishel, Brian Sharp, David Joseph Twellman.

Howard Hedges noted a correction to the report for members in full connection who have been readmitted; the name should be removed and the correct response be listed as "none". Hedges also noted the names of persons being returned to effective relationship after voluntary retirement, Jackson William Fielder and Charles Allen.

Don Renshaw read the names of those clergy who have come from other Christian denominations who have had their orders recognized: Inn Kyoung Chung, Jung Kee Lee, and Joseph J. Stabile.

Bishop Bake paused to give opportunity for members of the Conference to voice question or concern regarding these persons. No statements were made. Vote was taken individually, and each was approved.

Those clergy coming from other Christian denominations have their orders recognized.

Charles Cox read the names of those persons discontinued as Probationary Members: Dale Boland, Ronald Burgess, and Brent Hundley.

Cox also read the names of those persons who have been granted honorable location this year: Christian Amundesen, Gary W. Kincaid, J. Colleen Segroves.

Howard Hedges reported that D. Presley Hutchins has had his conference member-ship terminated to united with another denomination.

Ronald Henderson read the names of those members who have died during the year: Leonard W. Tomlinson, James H. Walker, Arthur O. Achenbom, Fred P. Broyles, John L. Hyde, Fitzhugh M. Talbot, Carl E. Keightley, James H. Westbrook, Lilbon J. Aikin, and Paul R. Calvary. Bishop Blake invited clergy members of the conference to stand as Bruce Weaver led in prayer.

Howard Hedges read the names of those ordained ministers on leave of absence: Craig B. Gallaway; Jordan C. Gary; Paul A. Ledbetter, Jr.; Alexander M. Mason, Jr.; Jerome H. Morgan; David L. Noblin, Sr.; Henry F. Stevenson; T. Shaun Wicker; Norma Meyer Withrow; and Wallace E. Chappell.

Incoming members in full connection stand before the Executive Session.

New ordinands await the conference vote for Elders orders.

Hedges noted that Susan B. Monts has been granted sabbatical leave. To the list of ordained ministers and full time local pastors granted disability leave since the last annual conference session the name Clay Yeager was added to that of James H. Walker. Ordained clergy being granted disability leave at this session was C. Randal James.

Bishop Blake called for vote on the entire report of the Board of Ordained Ministry; it was approved.

Spurgeon Dunnam directed the attention of the session to the pre -conference packet and the proposal for a pastoral residency program for the North Texas Annual Conference. Dunnam noted that persons not receiving their seminary education at Perkins or other seminaries offering internship programs have been required to participate in the North Texas Conference Intern Program. The Board of Ordained Ministry, while seeking to affirm the academic internship program offered by the seminaries, is proposing the development of an additional residency program for all persons entering their first full-time appointments following graduation and prior to admittance into full connection in the annual conference. Dunnam moved adoption of the proposal.

Fred Winslow moved to amend the proposal to change under the heading "Design for the Pastor Residency Program," Section B, Requirements for Each Resident, Item No. 4: "Two sermon tapes in the fall and spring of sermons actually preached." These would be critiqued by the district superintendent, the local church residency committee, and the counseling elder. The amendment included the addition of Item 6 in the same subsection which would then read: "6. Four 1 1/2 hour sessions with a local church or laity residency committee which would provide evaluation and support to the resident." Dunnam noted that these were friendly amendments to the original proposal. Bishop Blake called for voice vote; the amendment carried. LAI

Executive Session members vote to amend legislation on the Pastoral Residency Program.

Questions were raised regarding the effect this proposal would have on internship programs at Perkins School of Theology and other institutions with similar programs. Georjean Blanton and Carol Somers-Clark raised questions regarding the implication of this proposal for persons seeking to be in ministry in settings beyond the local church. William Crouch moved the previous question on all that was before the Executive Session; the motion carried. Bishop Blake called for concluding statement from Spurgeon Dunnam. Vote was taken, and the proposal was approved as amended.

Bishop Blake adjourned the Executive Session at 6:45 p.m.

LAITY SESSION

Richard Stanford opened the laity session at 4:30 p.m. in the Great Hall of Highland Park United Methodist Church and welcomed the lay members of the annual conference by providing an overview of the proposed program of the Board of the Laity for 1989-90. That program includes a Lay Leader Convocation in April, 1990, an emphasis on Perkins Laity Week for lay education, and identification of a variety of lay ministries during the year. It is hoped that those ministries may be highlighted in both the United Methodist Reporter and at next year's session of the annual conference. The laity were then invited to comment on these programs, and there was discussion regarding all of them. Lay members were also briefed on the Board of Laity's proposed resolution regarding Laity Sunday and there was discussion both in favor and in opposition to the proposal regarding separate district clergy worship services.

Stanford then led a discussion of other issues to come before the annual conference. Many questions about Wesley Village were asked of the district lay leaders who serve on the Council on Finance and Administration and the Wesley Village Board of Directors. There was also a discussion of the clergy Exit Plan resolution, parts of the Council on Finance and Administration report, and the proposed July 16, 1989 special offering for United Methodist agencies in Southwest Texas Conference which are providing legal aid to Central American refugees. Stanford then led an orientation for new lay members of the annual conference. The meeting ended with prayer at 5:45 p.m.

OPENING SERVICE OF WORSHIP

The first service of worship of the 1989 session of the North Texas Annual Conference was held in the sanctuary of First United Methodist Church, Dallas, Texas. Music for gathering was a hymn medley accompanied by Elizabeth Soderstrom, organist and Florence Simons, pianist. At 7:30 p.m. Hal Brady offered greetings from First Church, and Bishop Bruce Blake brought episcopal greetings. The call to worship and opening hymn medley were led by John Thornburg. Joan Douglas led the litany of praise, and Derrick Wright offered the call to confession and led worshipers in the prayer of general confession and words of assurance. The anthem "Credo" was sung by a mass choir from different churches in the annual conference directed by Terry Price. The anthem featured soprano soloist Cynthia Wilson-Felder and the Kesheth Dancers.

Bishop James S. Thomas speaks of "bright faith in strange places."

The preacher for the evening service was Bishop James Thomas who read for his text Luke 7:1-10. The title of Bishop Thomas' sermon was "Bright Faith in Strange Places." Bishop Thomas cited several examples of strange places where one finds faith and where one does not find faith and noted that this is due in part to the nature of faith itself. For faith is a relationship, an understanding of the reality of God and what God is doing and a willingness to risk one's life to join God there. Faith is three things at once - believing, confessing, and acting. Faith is a journey of the heart and is to be found in places where God is taken with ultimate seriousness, places of authority, places of apparent unfaith, and places of human need. Ernie Martin called for the evening's offering, noting that funds received would be used to benefit the scholarship fund for all youth events of the North Texas Conference. Kathleen Baskin offered the sending forth and announced the closing hymn, "Forth in Thy Name." Following the service of worship, a reception was hosted in the Fellowship Hall hosted by Bishop and Mrs. Blake, honoring the retired Bishops, spouses and widows who reside in the Dallas area.

MONDAY, JUNE 5, 1989
MORNING BUSINESS SESSION

Organization of the Conference

Following the singing of "And Are We Yet Alive, led by John Thornburg, Bishop Blake called on Conference Secretary Michael Nichols for the organization of the conference. Nichols placed in nomination the names of Monica Cone, Millard Fairchild Larry George, Clyde Johnson, Cynthia Keheley, George Topper, William Upchurch, and Walter Zimmerman to serve as Assistant Conference Secretaries. There being no objections they were elected. Nichols also placed in nomination the names of persons to serve as tellers during the conference:

Dallas Central District: Lay - Connie Bloxon, Roy Adams; Clergy - Mario Hernandez, Ben Shinn.

Dallas-Denton District: Lay - Harvey Andy, Margaret Tarr; Clergy - Victor McCullough, David Michel.

Dallas Northeast District: Lay - Rex Coppedge, Jo Crom; Clergy - James Carter, Mark Moore.

Dallas South District: Lay - Willia Hawkins, Kirk Tennant; Clergy - Craig Heeman, Derrick Wright.

Paris-Sulphur Springs District: Lay - Jack Dodd, Carol Morehead; Clergy- Bob Bush, Bob Turnipseed.

Sherman-McKinney District: Lay - Graham Tallant, T. J. Wasden; Clergy - Susie Jacobson, Paul Nixon.

Wichita Falls District: Lay - Jeanine Hodge, Wendall LaMance; Clergy - Chris Allen, David Turner. There being no objections, they were elected.

Nichols recommended that the bar of the conference be designated as the downstairs area of the sanctuary. There was no objection. Vote was taken; it was approved.

Nichols also recognized members of the Committee on Courtesy and Resolutions: James Dorf, Pat Deal, Alfred Roberts, and Jean Wood.

Nichols conducted the registration of members of the annual conference requesting all professional personnel, (ordained, local pastor and diaconal) to register on the blue cards and the lay members (lay member, alternate seated for voting, and district at-large) to register on the yellow cards. Nichols called attention of the clergy members to the district rosters located in the hallways adjacent to the sanctuary and invited clergy persons to check the accuracy of information listed on those rosters. Nichols also reminded clergy that photographs for the Journal were being taken during the Monday sessions of the conference. Photographs of spouses and of lay members may also be made at a cost of $5.00 per person.

William J. Washington, Chairperson of the Agenda Committee, moved adoption of the agenda as printed and included in the pre-conference packet. It was adopted. Washington also called for members of the Agenda Committee so that they might be recognized by the conference.

Michael Nichols referred attention of the conference to page 1 of the pre-conference packet and the Table for "1989 Equalization of Lay and Clergy Membership." Nichols moved adoption of the equalization table; the motion was seconded. There being no questions or objections to the equalization process, vote was taken, and it was adopted. LA2

Leighton Farrell brought greetings and words of welcome from the membership and support staff of Highland Park United Methodist Church.

Order of the Day

B. C. Robertson indroduces the small group process on reaching the unchurched.

B. C. Robertson introduced the process to be followed in addressing the theme, "Reaching the Unchurched." Robertson noted that in 1987 the North Texas Annual Conference adopted as its quadrennial emphasis, "Reaching the Unchurched." In the fall of 1988 local churches were asked to project specific membership and attendance figures with goals of 2%, 3% 4% and 5% being recommended. Among the materials received by members as they arrived for the conference session, was a card to be used during Bishop Blakes's presentation in order that members of the conference might submit to the Bishop questions or concerns arising directly from his presentation. Bishop Bruce Blake, speaking to the subject "Reaching the Unchurched," reminded members of the purpose of the annual conference is to ask the question of the collective body, "How is your soul?" "How is our collective soul in the North Texas Conference," Bishop Blake asked, noting that the annual conference did not begin just to do business but rather to struggle with the soul of the church.

Bishop Blake outlined four parts of his presentation: Heritage, Situation, Bishop's Analysis, and Bishop's Challenge.

Our Heritage: John Wesley broke from the Moravians because he was a person who could not sit quietly and wait - "should live the faith until they have it and then live it because they have it." It was important for Wesley that a weak faith still be understood as faith so that one does not wait until one reaches a certain stage of faith to live or to preach that faith. While the only condition of salvation is faith, Wesley also emphasized the only condition of faith, is good works. Our Methodist heritage has a parallel understanding of the development of ministry and mission. Ministry is for the purpose of mission. Good works are not to earn salvation, but good works are necessary to keep salvation. Wesley declared that God grants grace to the church and in God's good time the church will be empowered. We are a people of grace and for Wesley, God's granting of grace always demands justice. After his Aldersgate experience, Wesley referred to that experience only once or twice. He much more frequently grappled with the question "What shall I do with this experience of grace?" Wesley then began preaching out-of-doors to the unchurched. Thus, Methodism as a movement did not begin with Wesley's heart strangely warmed but rather, it began when Wesley went where the unchurched were, a year later in 1739. At the time of the American Revolution the Church of England, "went home" and the Methodist Societies stayed. Methodism thus became a frontier church for the purpose of reaching the unchurched. The Sunday School movement started in the city not primarily as an educational movement but as an evangelist task motivated by children who did not have a faith perspective in the home.

Situation: Our cultural situation is that annually the percentage of persons with no church preference increases. More and more persons are struggling with the connection between religious traditions and their life situations; the connection is not being made. On the one hand, there are those persons who have formed a shell around head and heart. On the other hand, there are persons who have no shell but are perforated, fragmented, defeated, disoriented. Persons with a shell live with a sense of irrelevance of religion; perforated persons live lives of threat and fear. The church is now the new minority in the midst of the majority (i.e. Perforated persons and persons with shells). The church has continued to act like a majority, and has failed to develop strategies to reach the unchurched. Our church situation is that most of the ordained persons have been trained in theological education according to a model which has not had the evangelistic task at the core of its life or thought. Our Sunday School program is in most cases an end in itself (i.e. nurture); seldom does it operate with the goal of relating to the unchurched.

Bishop's analysis: We have lost our sense of being a frontier church, and our organization will be irrelevant to the unchurched until we regain the understanding of the mentality of being on the frontier. It is Bishop Blake's understanding that drop outs are a more severe problem in our churches than even in public education. We must examine both the message and the way we communicate that message. For earth-shaking changes have occurred, and we have not developed, thoughtful, prayerful strategies to penetrate the new world which is emerging in our new day. The sin of our time is our refusal to relate to one another, and the only answer to the human quandary of our refusal to relate is the good news of Jesus Christ that calls us into community. We must remember that the genius of education in the United Methodist tradition is not for the purpose of nurture but for the purpose of discipleship. Competition which exists in the church is symptomatic of the problem of the Christ of Culture dilemma which we face today. The Biblical witness calls us not to competition but rather to base our lives on the value of cooperation.

Bishop's Challenge: We are in a maze. We cannot decide how to go forward, nor how to go back, so we sit down midway, confused. The Genesis account of the Tower of Babel is a testimony to confusion. It is the story of our intention to make a name for ourselves, and God's response is, "Let's confuse them." The Genesis story is paralleled in the Book of Acts by the story of Pentecost. In the Genesis account the people were trying to get to God; at Pentecost, God was coming to human beings. Instead of the story being one of God's response to human actions as in the Genesis account, the story of Pentecost the story is one of human response to God's action. In the North Texas Conference we are confused in our understanding of the church, particularly in relation to reaching the unchurched. We sit down halfway in the maze, having built our own tower in the form of doctrines of the church which exclude consideration of the evangelist task. The purpose of that evangelistic task is not to save the church, but rather to liberate persons from self-centeredness that they might be saved to serve. Could it be that persons trained in the theology of church as the people of God have become so dependent upon God to do the work of evangelism that we have forgotten that the meaning of incarnation is that God has cast God's lot with humankind and depends upon us? Could it be that those who have a theology of the body of Christ have so delegated task and function that we have forgotten that the evangelistic task is a responsibility of all? Could it be that those with a theology of the church which emphasizes the community of believers have become so concerned with ministry that we have forgotten mission? A stress engineer knows that the way to deal with stress is through the principle of flex. The choice is therefore clear: we can be so committed to our doctrine of the church that it is unchanging and certain to be irrelevant, or we can be open to Pentecost - God's coming to us and inviting us to respond to God. We can do our best to save our United Methodist life and in a hundred years lose it, or we can risk with our flex and perhaps lose our life only to find it in new and different forms.

"It is a new day," Bishop Blake challenged the conference. "By God's grace may we accept the challenge to be new leaders for this new day."

Michael Nichols called for tellers to move among the conference and collect the cards of questions or concerns to be addressed by Bishop Blake. Cards which were not read during the conference session but which contained name and address of the conference member submitting it will receive written response from the committee planning the order of the day. James Dorf, Chairperson of the Committee on Courtesy and Resolutions called on Leighton Farrell and Pat Deal to make a presentation welcoming Karen Blake, as the new "First Lady" of the Dallas Area. Mrs. Blake thanked the conference for its warm and loving welcome. Deal presented Nocona boots to Mrs. Blake and a Nocona belt with a Wichita Falls buckle to Bishop Blake.

Following a twenty minute recess the small group process began under the leadership of a facilitator and a recorder in each group. The focus of the first of two 90 minutes small group sessions was to be on the meaning of "Unchurched" and what is currently being done to reach unchurched persons. Bishop Blake noted that the second small group session would be directed toward plans for the future.

MONDAY, JUNE 5, 1989
AFTERNOON BUSINESS SESSION

At 1:30 p.m. Bishop Bruce Blake called on Jimmy Mobley to offer prayer and Michael Nichols to make organizational announcements.

James Dorf of the Committee on Courtesies and Resolutions introduced Joe Hale, member of the North Texas Conference who serves as General Secretary of the World Methodist Council. Hale spoke of the importance of his North Texas Conference membership as he works with Methodist leaders from around the world.

Board of Ordained Ministry

Charles Cox, Registrar of the Board of Ordained Ministry, introduced four persons elected to Elders Orders.

Christopher Allen spoke of images of his spiritual journey from the cool earth of West Texas to memories of his grandfather who often did that which was right, although perhaps not expedient. Allen expressed gratitude for the memories of Methodist people who have shaped and formed him. His prayer as a minister in the United Methodist Church is that he will seek to do not that which is expedient, but that which is right.

Thomas Owen Brummett, born in the North Texas Conference and reared in the North Texas Conference, spoke of his approach to ordination as both an end and a beginning. Relating the story of an experience he had while serving a student internship in hospital chaplaincy, Brummett told of his being touched in the midst of his "expertise" by the grace of God mediated through a lay woman - grace which made him different and called him to share with the world the word of life.

Mary Elizabeth Brundidge voiced her understanding that God's plan for life is not a blueprint but an invitation to journey in the wilderness, sustained by grace. While seeking to understand her growing call to ordained ministry, Brummett read the words: "Not in my strength can I complete this allegiance. Yet it is so pure and lovely a task that I must try, and into thy hands I commend my soul."

Her call has since been validated again and again by colleagues, professors and parishioners. Her journey has had many mountaintop experiences as well as desert places and dark valleys but she has always been sustained by God's love and grace.

George David Dunson spoke of his faith journey as a journey of being in relationship with God and with persons. Dunson was reared in the Presbyterian Church and had many important mentors of faith who helped provide an understanding of what it means to be in relationship. One such mentor said to him, "Whatever it is you do with your life, be the very best you can be." To Dunson, being the best you can be requires not only mind and heart but soul as well.

Board of Diaconal Ministry

Dick Wilson, Chairperson of the Board of Diaconal Ministry, reported that the board has developed new guidelines for how the Board will function. The board has trained 25 persons as mentors for diaconal candidates with each assigned. There are more than 30 persons in the candidacy program of diaconal ministry. The Board has requested its expansion to a fourth division for capital recruitment and capital interpretation. A part of this program is the board's participation in the comprehensive plan of the conference with a goal toward recruitment of more ethnic persons into diaconal ministry. The board has also begun psychological assessment for diaconal candidates through the Southwest Career Development Center.

Wilson recommended certification of the following persons: Cathy Guiterrez as Associate in Christian Music, Casey Cantwell as Associate in Church Music, Paul Sackett as Associate in Church Music, Mary Ruth Caldwell as Associate in Church Music, Carol Cook as Associate in Christian Education, and Mark Unkenholz as Minister of Music. Wilson reported that Jo Ann Blount has requested reinstatement from leave of absence as a diaconal minister. Bishop Blake called for questions; there being none, voice vote was taken, and Blount was reinstated.

Wilson reported the board's recommendation of granting of leave of absence to Jane Bach (4), Glenda Groth (3), Dorothy Holloman (1), Leslie Stevens (1), and John Yarrington (1).

Wilson recommended for consecration as diaconal ministers three persons: Kathryn Ellsworth Johnson, Christopher Stevens, and Mark Unkenholz.

Bishop Blake noted that diaconal ministry represents on behalf of all Christians our calling to servanthood by nature of our baptism. Bishop called for the vote on each candidate for consecration, allowing for any statements of concern. There being none, Kathy Johnson and Mark Unkenholz were elected individually to the office of diaconal ministry. Vote on Christopher Stevens was held until he could be present in the conference.

Kathyrn Johnson spoke of the "ordinariance "of her call as she related a variety of life experiences. The question she faced was "Do these things add up to a call to ministry?" Her answer was, "Yes!" Johnson spoke of her conviction that God calls ordinary people in numerous ways and at different levels of life experiences. Johnson understands God's call to her life as a call involving service, justice, and love.

Mark Ukenholz related how he had tried not to be like others in his family - preachers or missionaries. The witness of a young handicapped student confirmed to him God's call to ministry. As a means of sharing the witness of his calling, Ukenholz led the conference in singing "This is My Song."

Wilson introduced to the conference Florence Tooley and requested a change in her relationship to that of retired status. Retirement was approved. Tooley spoke of there being a time for everything under the sun, a time to be ordained, to be consecrated, and a time to be retired. Tooley's entire twenty-eight years of ministry have been spent at First United Methodist Church, Richardson, where she has enjoyed a variety of wonderful experiences. Tooley thanked the North Texas Conference for its kindness to her throughout the years as she was elected to serve on many boards and agencies and as a delegate to the 1980 General Conference.

Wilson moved adoption of the entire report of the Board of Diaconal Ministry; it was received.

Council on Finance and Administration I

David Shawver, Chairperson of the Council on Finance and Administration, recognized members of the Council, ex officio members, and the Council's Director, James Hanes. Shawver moved approval of the calendar of special days for 1990 both with and without offerings as that list had been printed in the pre-conference packet. It was approved. LAJ

David Shawver listens to a comment on the report of the Council on Finance and Administration.

Shawver directed the attention of the Conference to the preface of the report of the Coouncil on Finance and Administration noting that in 1988, apportionments were paid in full by 311 churches. Shawver further noted that during the past decade local church total expenditures have increased 110.0% whereas total apportionments based on the decimal have increased only 74.1% during a comparable decade. In view of these statistics, Shawver spoke on behalf of the Council on Finance and Administration recommending that in 1990 every church of the North Texas Conference take seriously its connectional responsibility to pay 100% of apportionments with 10% of the annual amount being remitted monthly.
Shawver moved approval of the recommendations contained in Section 1 of the Council's report dealing with: (1) loan from conference reserves for Wesley Village and (2) request for called session of the annual conference. Shawver explained that with the best of intentions, a United Methodist Retirement Home was built in Denison, Texas. Several unforeseen difficulties have precluded the home's ability to be financially viable. As a result a payment of $103,695 interest only is due on the loan June 9, 1989. The loan being requested from annual conference reserves would buy time for the developing of a long-term solution to the home's financial difficulties. Shawver explained that the Council's request for a Called Session of the Annual Conference is a means of providing a deadline for the working out of such a long-term solution. On December 9, 1989 another interest payment will be due in the amount of $103,695 and then in January permanent financing must be arranged at a cost of approximately $200,000. The home is doing everything it can to market its services and hopes to be able to increase the number of its residents to help offset its expenses.

Bishop Blake called for questions of clarification and explained that if the motion were to be approved, the special session of annual conference would be called December 2, 1989. Vote was taken and the motion carried with opposition being noted.

Shawver presented the Council's recommended goals to local churches, Section 2 of the report. There being no questions raised, vote was taken, and Section 2 was approved. LAd

Michael Haynes offers information in the report on salaries for district superintendents.

Shawver moved acceptance of Section 3 of the Council's report regarding compensation for superintendents and directors in 1990. Shawver explained that it is with an eye toward compensating our cabinet level officers on an equal basis that this motion is being presented to the annual conference. Robert Cooper raised a question from the standpoint of the rationale for the proposal, whether current levels of remuneration were fair and adequate. Donald Renshaw spoke in favor of the proposal from the point of view of the amount of work and level of responsibility of the superintendents and directors offices. Jesse James and William McElvaney spoke against the proposal with McElvaney inquiring whether comparisons had been made with other conferences not only of superintendents and directors salaries but also of equitable salaries. Dennis Wilkinson responded for the Commission on Equitable Salaries stating that such comparisons had not been made.

Bourdon Smith spoke against the motion since salaries for persons at the low end of conference remuneration scale were not receiving a salary increase for the second consecutive year. Michael Nichols, conference secretary made announcements for the afternoon. Bishop Blake called for a twenty minute recess.

Wilfred Bailey spoke against the motion, asking whether comparison of superintendent salaries had been made with the Rio Grande Conference and asked whether such a proposal was a reflection of buying into culture rather than seeking to transform culture.

Bishop Blake called for speeches in favor of the proposal in order to balance the debate. R. L. Dillard, Jr. spoke in favor of the recommendation due to the amount of work required of the office of district superintendents. Two amendments to the proposal were made and subsequently defeated. Bishop Blake called for vote by a show of hands; the recommendation carried.

In moving the adoption of Section 6 of the Council's report, Shawver reported that no change was being made in the guidelines for computation of 1990 apportionments for local churches. Bishop Blake called for the vote. The guidelines were adopted.

Bruce Weaver, Chair of the Cabinet, expressed appreciation to the members of the Council on Finance and Administration for their work in setting salaries and to the members of the annual conference for their consideration of the recommendations.

Board of Ordained Ministry

Barbara Marcum introduced four persons who had been granted election to Elders Orders.

Craig Heenan spoke of his faith journey as one of slow evolution. Heeman reflected that his mother taught him what it was like to be a Christian servant and his father taught him what it was like to live a life being true to one's principles. Heenan expressed appreciation to John Ogden for his guidance in the candidacy process and to Walter Zimmerman for his instruction about the small as well as large details of ministry. To his wife for her love and support as his best critic and best friend, and to his daughter and to God for showing him what it was like to be loved unconditionally. Johnny Hughes Hicks related how a significant point in his faith journey was reached when he read William Law's A Serious Call to a Devout and Holy Life. That book initiated in Hicks a dialogue in devotion with Jesus Christ. Through his devotional life Hicks began to understand the claims Jesus Christ was making upon his life. As his wife pressed him for practical application of his devotional life, Hicks realized that he could no longer separate his devotional life from the response of the remainder of his life, and thus he felt confirmed in a call to ordained ministry. He understands his ordination is placing him in a position of authority in which to keep before both himself and his parishioners the serious call to a devout and holy life.

Roger Hudson spoke of his ordination as representing both an end and a beginning. Hudson offered heartfelt thanksgiving for the opportunities for preparation for ordained ministry offered to him by the North Texas Conference. Hudson reflected that the process has had frustrating times and times of joy as he thanked the laity of the Krum-Proctor charge for their discipling of him. Hudson reported his plans to leave for his native Republic of South Africa December, 1989. As he approaches that return, Hudson reflected on the words of Allen Bosek: "One day all of us are going to die, we are going up to heaven, and our maker will ask one question - 'Where are your wounds?' and if we say we have no wounds, he will say, 'Did you have nothing worth fighting for?'" The church is challenged in South Africa; apartheid is a formidable frontier. Jesus Christ is the hope for South Africa.

Rene Lawson thanked all who have been instrumental in his growth and preparation for ordained ministry. His journey has not been easy as he struggled with education and struggled with the process of ordination. It has been a painful experience over the years, and at times he has felt overwhelmed by the stress. But God has reaffirmed his call and given him the strength and inspiration to go on to fulfill what God has called him to do and not to limit God and God's claim on his life.

Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns

Henry Masters, Chairperson of the Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns, invited subcommittee chairs B. C. Robertson, Don Barnes, and John Tatum to assist in responding to questions about the committee's report. Masters asked for members of the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee to stand so that they may receive the appreciation of the conference. Masters reported that the work of Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee during the conference year focused on new directions, long range planning, and the developing of a comprehensive plan. The work of the committee is non-related to the Board of Church Growth and Development. All of the major goals of the committee for the year were achieved, and a strong sense of cooperation was experienced with most of the conference and agencies.

Henry Masters presents the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee report.

Masters briefly explained the comprehensive plan in order to give special emphasis to the issues which it addressed in the life of the annual conference. Masters expressed thanksgiving to God and to all who shared in the development of the comprehensive plan and offered the prayerful concern that all churches of the conference join in unity and love.

Derrick Wright of New Horizon United Methodist Fellowship in Desoto related ways the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee has helped that newly forming congregation: (1) to employ a part-time administrative secretary, (2) to get a used church van, and (3) to assist with lay training events for local church leadership.

Eduardo Ehjiuat, First Filipino United Methodist Church, reported on events of that congregation's receiving a grant for the third year from the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee for Christian education and youth work. The grant has enabled development of Sunday School classes, the holding of Vacation Bible School, and the strengthening of the youth program.

Eleazar Olmos of St. John United Methodist Church of Dallas reflected on the way that funding from the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee has enabled that congregation to reach out to the community with computer tutorial program for children and youth, as well as the development of a bi-lingual Sunday school class.

Standing Rules

Wynn Stanton, Chairperson of the Standing Rules Committee referred the attention of the conference to the Legislative Proposal 6A, referring to Standing Rules 7, 14, and 15, so (1) that Rule 7 be deleted in its entirety because of its duplication with paragraph 715.1 and 712 in the 1988 Book of Discipline. (2) In keeping with current terminology Rule 14 be amended to read (deletion in CAPITALS, additions underlined) and that the terminology "Statistical Secretary be changed to Conference Statistician; (3) That in keeping with current terminology and practice Rule 15A be changed to read "Each church and pastor shall submit the Annual Conference report to the District Auditor for auditing on the checkout day specified by the Cabinet;" Section B - "The District Auditor shall prepare these reports in correct form blank provided by the Conference Statistician and shall deliver them immediately following District Check Out Day to the Conference Statistician; Section C. "The Conference Treasurer's books shall be closed annually at 3:00 p.m. on January 8 (or the closest working day), and no funds received by the Conference Treasurer after that time shall apply on Conference Apportionments of the year just completed. Stanton moved approval of these recommendations; they were approved. LA5

Stanton presented legislation from the Board of Church Development to amend the Standing Rule 3 section on the Board of Church Development (pp. 219-220) of the 1988 Journal to include the Committee of Ethnic Local Church Concerns (ELCCC) and to bring the remainder of the standing rule in conformity with this change; Stanton moved its adoption; it was approved.

Revision of Standing Rule 3 as recommended by the Conference Board of Trustees was explained by Stanton as necessary to bring the Trustees into conformity with the current Discipline. Stanton moved approval; it was approved.

George Holcombe operates Church Development computer.

Clergy members are photographed for the Pictorial Directory.

Stanton explained the amendment of Standing Rule 3 as requested by the Commission on Asian Ministries to amend paragraph 2, first sentence to read: The Commission shall be composed of 12 persons: 1/3 clergy, 1/3 lay men, 1/3 women, and at least 2/3 of the members shall be Asian. This would change the membership from 13 to 12 and would delete the phrase "including the chairperson". Stanton moved approval; it was approved.

A request from the Commission on Communication and Resources to amend the Standing Rules relating to that Commission was reported by Stanton. The rationale for the request was to expand the membership of the Commission in order to enable it to fulfill the varied responsibilities assigned to the Commission. Stanton moved approval, it was approved.

Stanton reported on the request from the Committee on Religion and Race to amend Standing Rule 3. In order to make that standing rule consistent with the current Book of Discipline in calling for the 1/3 ruling and placing on the Commission the district director of Religion and Race, a position which is now mandated by the Book of Discipline. Stanton called for approval, it was approved. Stanton explained the request of the Committee on Nominations to amend Standing Rule 3 relevant to the Agenda Committee in order to bring the standing rules into conformity with current Discipline and to enable the Bishop as President of the Conference to supervise the work of the Agenda Committee. Stanton moved approval; it was approved.

As chair of the Standing Rules Committee, Stanton moved the amendment of Standing Rule 3, Paragraph 6, that pertains to agency membership exceptions in order to make necessary corrections from the references to the 1984 Book of Discipline and to provide the wording to eliminate the necessity of making these changes each quadrennium. Stanton moved approval, it was approved.

A legislative proposal from the Board of Diaconal Ministry to effect a change in Standing Rule 3 in order to create a fourth division of the Conference Board of Diaconal Ministry was moved by Stanton. The motion was seconded, and when vote was taken, it was adopted.

Michael Nichols, Conference Secretary made announcements relative to afternoon and evening events, and Bishop Blake called on Raymond Butts to offer the closing prayer. The afternoon session was adjourned at 5:10 p.m.

SERVICE OF THANKSGIVING AND REMEMBRANCE

At 7:30 p.m. in the sanctuary of the First United Methodist Church, Dallas the Handbell Choir of First United Methodist Church of Carollton provided music for gathering for the evening service. Sally Chafin brought words of welcome and instructions regarding the service. Vicenta Cisneros led in the responsive greeting with the singing of the opening hymn, "For All the Saints," and the opening prayer.

Bishop James Thomas read as his scripture for the evening, Hebrews 11:27-40 and delivered the sermon, "The Overcomers." Bishop Thomas spoke on the roll call of those persons who are all around us whenever we gather as the church - the visible congregation, those just around the sides, and the overcomers in the gallery. Bishop Thomas reflected how those in the gallery faced persecution and overcame, faced doubt and overcame, faced self and overcame, faced the quicksand of modern sophistication and overcame. Bishop Thomas gave thanks to God for persons who face tomorrow and tomorrow and tomorrow without any assurance - that things will be better, yet knowing they will - the conviction that even if they do not live through the current trouble, they will still overcome. As we take seriously the evangelistic task, Bishop Thomas cautioned against inviting persons into a faith that is so easy that anyone can live it and challenged the conference instead to invite people into a faith where the grace of the living God is so strong it will take one through whatever comes. Who are these in the gallery of overcomers and where have they come from? "They are they," reflected Bishop Thomas in the Book of Revelation, "who have come through great temptations and trouble and have washed their robes white in the blood of the lamb. Thanks be to God!"

A choral response to the word was led by participants in the music ministry of St. Luke "Community" United Methodist Church of Dallas.

Michael Nichols read the names of these ministers and spouses of the conference who have died in the year past. As each name was read the ordinands to the office of Elder for this year placed a rose on the altar in memory of these loved ones:

Ministers: Arthur O. Ackenbaum, Lilbon J. Aikin, Fred P. Broyles, Paul R. Calvary, John L. Hyde, Carl E. Keightley, Fitzhugh M. Talbot, Leonard W. Tomlinson, James H. Walker, Jr. and James H. Westbrook.

Episcopal Family: W. McFerrin Stowe.

Nichols then led the congregational prayer of thanksgiving.

The offertory anthem was sung by the choir of the First Korean United Methodist Church Dallas, Do Soo Kim, Director and Wha Chung Lee, accompanist.

Bishop Bruce Blake began the Service of Holy Communion by offering the Prayer of Great Thanksgiving as the bread was broken and the cup shared at various stations throughout the sanctuary. The worshipers joined in singing hymns. Following the singing of the hymn of commitment, "For All the Saints," Bishop Blake called on Patsy Brundige for the benediction. The closing voluntary was offered by the organist for the service, Elizabeth Soderstrom.

TUESDAY, JUNE 6, 1989
MORNING BUSINESS SESSION

At 8:00 a.m. in the Sanctuary of Highland Park United Methodist Church, Dallas, John Thornburg, Chairperson of the Division on Worship, introduced Amy Cajiuat and Victoria Davidson who led in the singing of "We are One in the Spirit" and "Many Gifts, One Spirit." Bishop Blake called on Jerry DeLaney to offer the morning prayer.

In response to questions raised by members of the conference, Bishop Blake stated that a three-person committee which he had appointed to study the options with regard to Wesley Village and to make its report to him would be Pat Mackey, Don Learned, and Glynn Vickers.

Bishop Blake also brought greetings to the Conference from Albert Outler who was unable to attend the conference.

Racial Ethnic Task Force

Don Benton reminded the conference that in accordance with its action last year the Bishop appointed a committee to study racial and ethnic issues in the North Texas Conference . He recognized those who have participated on the committee and called the attention of the conference to the report as contained in the pre-conference packet. The purpose of the study was tolook at the issues and to see how muchmore remains tobe done and remind us that we must be more diligent inour commitment to racial inclusiveness. Benton moved adoption of the report and invited any questions arising from it. William Crouch highlighted the work of the committee by encouraging the conference to take note of this new intentionality in regard to racial inclusiveness. Mary Ryan moved an amendment to the proposal that "at the next regular session of the annual conference there be an update from the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee regarding the implementation of these recommendations. The amendment was seconded. Ronald Koo moved to amend the amendment so that the Commission on Religion and Race would become the reporting body rather than the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee in accordance with the 1988 Discipline. Raymond Williams spoke against both amendments stating that the comprehensive plan adopted in the conference session Monday calls for all agencies to be responsible in moving toward racial inclusiveness and thus, an additional level of monitoring and reporting is not necessary. LA6

Bishop Blake called for a standing vote on the amendment to the amendment. The vote was 232 for and 170 against, with 36 abstentions.

Bishop Blake called for a vote on the amended amendment; it carried. Vote was then taken on the main motion as amended; it was approved.

Robert Dillard, Jr. reminded members of the conference of the health screening being provided by Methodist Hospitals of Dallas.

Order of the Day: Bishop Blake commended members of the conference for the work done in small groups during the Monday morning session and adjourned the general session to reconvene in small work groups to continue the process of reflecting on the quadrennium theme, "Reaching the Unchurched."

Alys Richards writes responses of her small group.

Jo Biggerstaff and Phyllis Wilkins lead a small group on reaching the unchurched.

At 10:20 a.m. the conference reconvened in general session, and Bishop Bruce Blake called on Thalia Matherson to lead in prayer.

Board of Ordained Ministry

Charles Cox, registrar for the Board of Ordained Ministry introduced four candidates for Elders Orders.

Thomas Owen Palmer shared the story of his wrestling with the call to ordained ministry. Several in his local church had affirmed his intention to enter ordained ministry. However, having grown up in a working class home in which loving parents also experienced financial and health problems, Palmer grew up with an attitude that he had to attain significance for his life. Eventually his wrestling led him to understand that a person cannot be happy when having to struggle for love and acceptance. As Palmer experienced the unconditional love of God through a series of life events including the tragic death of his father, Palmer learned that when God teaches about love, God usually does it through other people. Palmer thanked the people of the North Texas Conference for offering him that kind of acceptance and love.

Jane Riecke speaks of her decision for the ordained ministry.

Jane Ellen Yontz Riecke recounted the night years ago when Christ invited her to take a special walk with him. In her confusion about her response to that invitation she talked with the Lay Leader of her congregation who advised her to follow her heart. She took a leap of faith when in 1983 she decided to attend Perkins School of Theology. Riecke related other leaps of faith of her spiritual pilgrimage which she had experienced in preaching, pastoral care, and in the decision to go with her husband to Colorado that he might complete his theological studies there. Riecke views ordination as another leap of faith - an experience both of the continuity of ministers who have gone before and of the future to which Christ calls.

Namiqa Ardhuerumly Shipman recalled standing before the conference eight years ago as she was elected to Probationary membership and Deacons Orders. In those eight years Shipman has come to understand that she cannot change this world, but the good news is that God can. Shipman thanked the conference for affording her the opportunity to share the good news of the transforming grace of God as a minister of the gospel. For eight years the conference has loved her, affirmed her, supported her with patience and understanding. It has also offered her many opportunities to learn and the strength to grow to the place where she can stand and say with great humility, "Here am I Lord, Send me."

Terry Sparks offers a humorous comment about "backing into ministry."

Terry Ann Sparks spoke of having "backed into ministry." Sparks prior career was that of a practicing attorney who had the goal of serving God by working for justice through the legal system. Sparks entered Bright Divinity School in an attempt to find a less continually confrontational form of ministry. She began to serve the Alvord charge during a particularly difficult time in her life and found herself affirmed both by her district superintendent and that congregation. For those who "back into ministry" Sparks offered a word of hope - "God does equip us with rear-view mirrors!"

Higher Education and Campus Ministry

Hal Brady, Chairperson of Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, introduced A. Kenneth Pye, President of Southern Methodist University. Pye reported that SMU is now stronger than when he last reported to the Conference but is still facing problems. Much of the problem of SMU in years gone by has been the confusion of glitz with reality. Today, SMU's financial position is strong, administrative processes are being improved; its image is better; and a new academic strategy is being developed. Pye noted a 25% increase in applications for enrollment at SMU this year. Increases in tuition at SMU have been brought about in part due to the increase in the amount of need-based financial assistance offered to students. Pye highlighted the renovation of the Birdwell Library at Perkins School of Theology as a symbol of the significance of Perkins at the center of the SMU campus and the development of one of the best theological libraries in the country. Pye called on the church to interpret the cause of the university and the need of higher education to a broader community that does not understand the unique contribution of church-related institutions and to help identify and encourage potential students who would benefit from what United Methodist-related institutions have to offer. Pye also encouraged the church to serve as conscience to the institution.

President A. Kenneth Pye tells conference of a stronger S.M.U.

Courtesy and Resolution

Robert Hasley introduced Bon Woong Koo, Korean mission director of the South Central Jurisdiction who brought greetings from all congregations of the thirty United Methodist churches throughout the jurisdiction. Hasley also recognized Myong Gul Son, Assistant General Secretary of the Board of Global Ministries, and Stanley Bonaker, retired member of the Texas Conference.

Council on Ministries

Judy Gilreath, Secretary of the Conference Council on Ministries, offered an expression of gratitude to persons completing four years of chairing conference agencies and divisions as well as to the approximately 380 persons who served on the Council on Ministries and its thirty agencies. Particular appreciation was expressed to the Conference Council on Ministries staff. Gilreath used the example of sour dough starter as an image for understanding the work of the Conference Council on Ministries - ideas, resources, consultants, services, training. Gilreath called attention to the summary calendar of conference events which was included in the materials distributed to the conference members. Gilreath further encouraged members of the annual conference to call upon the staff and agencies of the Conference Council on Ministries for resources and support.

B. C. Robertson moved suspension of the Standing Rules to allow for amendment to the agenda and establishment of an Order of the Day at 4:45 p.m. The motion was seconded and approved.

Order of the Day
Retiring Clergy and Spouses

Cletus B. Beights. Howard Hedges, Chairperson of the Division of Conference Relations introduced Cletus B. Beights who offered expressions of gratitude for the life that God has provided him. Beights related how whenever he began to hear God speaking his name, he felt surely God was calling someone else. Beights was "dragged" into the ministry by God's strong hand. He spoke of God's affirmation of his ministry as he recounted serving as the organizing pastor of St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Midland and serving on various church staffs as minister of evangelism. Beights expressed gratitude also to the United Methodist Church for giving him a place to fulfill God's calling his life. He thanked Bishop, clergy, and laity of the conference, and particularly his family and wife Barbara for their love an support. Beights declared, "It has been a wonderful journey. Thanks be to God and thanks be to you!"

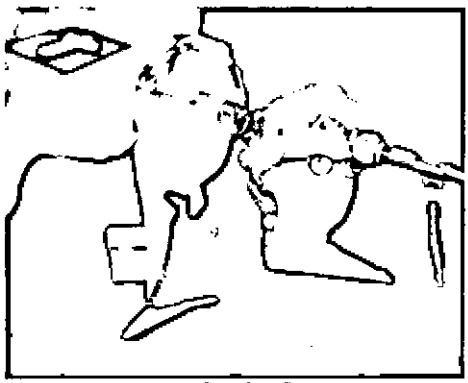
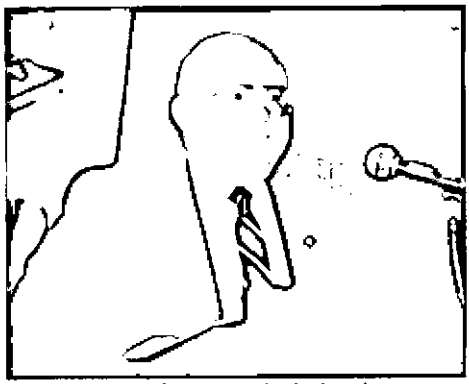
Stell and Wally Chappell share a positive spirit with the conference.

Wallace and Estelle Chappell. Hedges introduced Wallace and Estelle Chappell. Chappell began his address to the conference by saying, "There must be some mistake; a couple of decades must have gotten misplaced." Chappell acknowledged that reaching this point in his life and career brings with it the realization that certain things are not going to happen, certain goals not to be realized, thus Chappell encouraged members of the annual conference to live to the glory of God as if each day were the only day of one's life since life passes so quickly. Chappell recounted how different his life had been from his expectations - infinitely richer than he had expected. He exhorted the clergy of the conference not to waste time complaining about the conference because it is God that gives the call to this ministry. Reaching retirement has caused Chappell to rethink success and to discover that being successful means to have been stretched and to have tried. The measure of meaning and richness is not what anyone else brings to you but rather the deep knowledge within one's self that one has given life and ministry one's best shot. Estelle Chappell gave thanks for the wisdom of God which has allowed her life to be enriched and stretched. She expressed gratitude to the North Texas Conference which adopted her and cared for her and for the local churches which have offered her love which no one could have described. She invited the conference to "hold us in your prayers, and we shall not forget you."

Allie and Oma Lee Davenport. "A funny thing happened to me on the way to this day, actually three things," Davenport said to the conference. He expected to reach this day, the day of retirement, as an aircraft engine mechanic, but God had other plans. Opportunities of the annual conference offered Davenport the opportunity to serve in many places from east to west, north to south and in the center of the annual conference. Davenport also related the part his family had played in his hearing and fulfillling the call to ministry. "These have been forty years of being the best I could be for Christ, loving people, and being loved by them." Oma Lee Davenport gave "thanks for the memories" as she spoke of having been uplifted spiritually and having enjoyed rich and warm friendships during their years of service.



Allie and Oma Lee Davenport share memories of ministry.



John Fraser says the latch string is always on the outside of the home in Georgia.

Jackson Fielder. Fielder expressed gratitude for the United Methodist Church, for what the church stands for, and his hope that in some way he can continue to serve. Fielder's deepest prayer is that the church take hold of some of the critical issues of our world today such as drugs and alcohol concerns. He thanked the conference for all the privileges that have been his.

Bishop Blake and retirees enjoy smiles and greetings during the Order of the Day.

John R. Fraser. Fraser offered three sincere expressions of appreciation: to the annual conference, to the U.S. Army, and to his wife, Donna. He expressed gratitude to the annual conference which has been a great friend to him across the years even when he could not be in attendance because of his responsibilities as a U. S. Army chaplain. He thanked the U.S. Army for having permitted him to serve in the ministry in some unusual, interesting, and exciting places. And he thanked his wife of 31 years who was unable to be present because of teaching responsibilities. "The latch string is always on the outside of our home in Marietta, Georgia, and we expect you to come see us!" Fraser said to the conference.

Bishop Blake presented retirement pins to the retiring clergy on behalf of the annual conference.

Michael Nichols, conference secretary made announcements regarding noon activities, and the closing prayer for the morning session was offered by Bishop Lance Webb.

TUESDAY, JUNE 6, 1989
TUESDAY AFTERNOON BUSINESS SESSION

At 1:40 p.m. in the sanctuary of Highland Park United Methodist Church, Bishop Blake invited Ann Todd, Conference President of the United Methodist Women, to offer an opening prayer for the afternoon session.

Board of Diaconal Ministry

Dick Wilson, Chairperson of the Board of Diaconal Ministry, offered an addition to the earlier report of the board by stating that Lane Tunnell has requested a move from the status of Leave of Absence to active status. Wilson also recommended for consecration as a Diaconal Minister, Christopher Stevens. Bishop Blake called for questions or concerns regarding Steven' consecration. There being none, Stevens was approved. Stevens thanked the conference for its confirmation of his calling to be a servant in the ministry of the church of Jesus Christ.

Board or Ordained Ministry

Barbara Marcum introduced the remaining candidates for Elders Orders.

David Joe Turner expressed a deep sense of gratitude for the many people who have contributed to his becoming an ordained minister. Turner resisted the call to ministry but finally entered Perkins with the encouragement of his wife and pastor. Today Turner feels not only called but also approaches ministry as "something I really want to do." Turner thanked the conference for the privilege of being an ordained minister.

William Garth Wilcoxon thanked the conference for the level of trust it has placed in him by electing him to Full Connection in Elders Orders. Wilcoxon then related that it is easy for people to get caught up in things which do not ultimately matter - image, salary, next appointment. But Wilcoxon intends that his ministry focus on the deeper things of life - death and resurrection, baptism and communion, grace and peace, helping people develop a relationship with God. He asked the conference to do two things for him: to remember him in prayer and to hold him accountable.

Carol Woods related the story of her faith and spiritual journey by telling of receiving her first baby doll at Christmas time and the way in which Marshall Steele used that doll to remind her of the gift she had also received in the person of the baby Jesus. Woods related examples of how many persons in the Conference had given her the gift again and again, the gift of Jesus Christ. Woods reminded the conference of Bishop Stowe's always saying that ministry is giving the gift and that is what Woods intends to do -to give the gift of faith in Jesus Christ over and over again.

Paul Nixon spoke of his transfer into the United Methodist Church as being the result of a long pilgrimage. Nixon voiced his feeling of being home again in this new place called the United Methodist Church. As Nixon grew through education and as his former denomination changed, he became aware that although they loved each other, they could no longer be church together in the same way they had been in the past. Nixon has discovered the North Texas Conference to be true friends, true family, and true church.

Board of the Laity

Richard Stanford, Conference Lay Leader, stated the purpose of the Board of the Laity as that of fostering an awareness of the sense of the ministry of the laity. Stanford gave an overview of the plans of the Board of the Laity to fulfill that purpose. The Board is planning an April convocation for laity leadership to try to understand what the ministry of the laity is and how that ministry is interrelated with ordained ministry. The Board is also looking for ways to recognize forms of lay ministry which would probably not be noticed unless they were intentionally being sought. The board also plans to take seriously the education among the laity by emphasizing Laity Week at Perkins School of Theology.

Stanford called attention of the conference to the legislative proposal from the Board of the Laity regarding Laity Sunday. Clayton Oliphant moved to amend the proposal so that "the desired implementation would include the words "his or her" in both Items 1 and 2. The amendment was seconded, and it carried. Jo Biggerstaff moved a second amendment to restate the proposal "that on October 8, 1989 laity shall conduct Sunday services in all churches of the Conference" and to eliminate the first item of desired implementation. The amendment was seconded and Biggerstaff voiced her desire that this be viewed as a means toward the unity and mutual support of laity and clergy. Vote was taken and the amendment carried. Dick Fleming amended the motion to remove the specific date and thus to specific only the month of October. The motion was seconded; it carried. Vote was taken on the main motion as amended, it was adopted. LA7

Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry

Hal Brady, Chairperson of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, introduced the following presidents of United Methodist-related institutions of higher education in Texas and invited each briefly to address the conference: Floyd B. Shilling, Jr., president of Southwestern University; Jerry G. Baucom, president of Texas Wesleyan University; David L. Beckley, president of Wylie College; W. Faulk Landrum, president of Lon Morris College; Joe Elmore, president of the Texas United Methodist College Association; and James E. Kirby, Dean of the Perkins School of Theology.

Brady also recognized six campus ministers of the North Texas Conference: Georjean Blanton, Dallas Community Colleges; Millard Fairchild, Midwestern University; Jack Busby, University of North Texas; Joe Florence, Paris Junior College; Jackie Ponder, Texas Woman's University; Randy Newkirk, East Texas State University.

Brady presented the North Texas Conference merit scholarship award to Conrad Bouffard, a scholarship in the amount of $500. Due to a special gift, Brady reported that the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry has this year been able to give two additional scholarships in the amount of $300 each. Those scholarships were presented to Ruth Shinn and Jason Overton.

Brady reported that there will be a special campus ministry task force studying the goal of campus ministry in the North Texas Conference with a report due to be submitted to Bishop Blake no later than January, 1990. That special task force is being chaired by William Crouch.

John Beall announced that on the five Sundays in October there will be a fair in five different areas of the North Texas Conference celebrating Texas colleges and universities. These events will be designed for high school juniors and seniors and their parents. Hal Brady gave an update on the African university by noting that the United Methodist Church is growing dramatically on the African continent and that the need there for leadership is crucial. The General Conference of the United Methodist Church has committed $20 million over the next four years for the building of the African University: - $10 million in apportioned funds; $10 million to be received as World Service special gifts. Brady noted that the North Texas Conference's share of the $10 million in apportioned funds is $45,000. Brady further noted that all funding for the university could be met if each local church would pay its apportionment twice each year.

Board of the Laity

Ann Todd, Conference President of the United Methodist Women, invited the members of that organization to stand that they might be recognized by the conference. Todd noted that the statement that "United Methodist women organized for mission" is as true now as it was over 100 years ago when the women in North Texas organized themselves and collected funds for mission work. Todd gave examples of ways in which the 9,290 women in 201 units in the North Texas Conference have been alive in mission as they seek ways to fulfill the purpose of United Methodist Women: Schools of Christian Mission, legislative training events, spiritual enrichment events, national training seminars, cooperation on the comprehensive plan for the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee, participation in the five-year emphasis, "the Campaign for children". Membership growth of 10% will continue to be a priority for the organization. UMW goes forward as women for a new day, concerned with the needs of women and children everywhere.

Laura Lee Utz, President of the Conference Council on Youth Ministries, told of that group's work in developing the North Texas Conference comprehensive plan for racial inclusiveness. Utz spoke about many of the activities of the youth of the conference: camping programs, youth service fund days at Six Flags and Wet and Wild, participation in jurisdictional training events, Fall Roundup events, volleyball tournaments, mid-winter retreats, United Nations Citizenship Seminar, dreams retreat, and Youth Annual Conference. Utz emphasized that the youth play a very important role in the North Texas Conference, and she thanked the conference for being an important part of the lives of the youth of the North Texas area.

Courtesy and Resolutions

Jean Wood called upon Mary Ryan to make an introduction to the conference. Ryan presented Sandra Ruby as the staff member of the Women's Division of the Board of Global Ministries assigned to the Dallas regional office.

Jo Biggerstaff noted that this is the Year of the Rose at Mt. Sequoyah and presented Bishop Blake with roses and a pottery vase bearing the Cherokee inscription for the words Mount Sequoyah. Biggerstaff introduced Don Waddell, administrator of Mount Sequoyah, who brought greetings to the conference and thanked the conference in advance for its participation in the jurisdictional capital investment in Mount Sequoyah.

Jean Wood also recognized the presence of retired missionary Alice Weed, and Hal Brady introduced campus ministers at Southern Methodist University - Will Finnin and Robert Cooper.

Paul Morales of Cokesbury Bookstore reminded members of the conference that this is the bi-centennial year of Methodist publishing. Morales presented to Bishop Blake a check in the amount of $8,770.18 representing the North Texas Conference's portion of the proceeds from the United Methodist Publishing House to be used for the Ministers Pension Fund.

Bishop Blake recognized Walter Vernon as a valued member of the North Texas Conference and as "a contributor to the ages" through his writing on behalf of the total church. Bishop Blake also expressed appreciation to Mary Brooke Casad for her work on the Hymnal Revision Committee.

Bishop Blake read a letter of greeting from Bishop John Russell, President; Sydney Roberts, Secretary; and the members of the Central Texas Conference meeting in session in Arlington, Texas. James Garrett moved that the North Texas Conference send greetings and best wishes to the Central Texas Conference. Motion was seconded; it carried.

Board of Church Development

Royce Riley, Chairperson of the Division of Town and Country Ministries, presented the legislative proposal calling for 1990 to be designated as "The Year of the Rural Church." Riley noted that the North Texas Conference had experienced continuing shifts in population from rural to metropolitan areas. That population movement has created much stress and anxiety for rural churches. These churches are to be recognized and commended for their steadfast ministry and mission in the face of rapid changes. Riley moved adoption of the proposal; motion carried. Riley also announced that the Chico Morris Memorial United Methodist Church had been awarded the Marvin T. Judy Award for Excellence In Town and Country Ministry. LAIO

Henry Wilkins, Chairperson of the Division of Transitional Communities, expressed appreciation for the work of the division and offered a challenge to congregations in transitional areas to do more than "ministry as usual" and to respond in new and creative ways to the changing human needs around them.

Richard Dunagin, Chairperson of the Board of Church development called the attention of the conference to the board's new plan "Mission 2000". Dunagin noted that the conference plan parallels that of the general church and is a bold and courageous plan.

Dunagin explained to the conference that the program of "Mission 2000" has three components: the establishment of new churches, the targeting of new peoples, the development of congregations. Ben Black, Chairperson of the Division of Church Extension, summarized the plans, strategies, needs, and dreams of the division relating to the establishment of new congregations. Black noted the rapid escalating costs for the purchase of new church sites and to the plan to the division to purchase new sites throughout the conference each year.

Dunagin reported on the rapidly growing numbers of ethnic persons within the bounds of the North Texas Conference. By combining its efforts with the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee, the Division of Church Extension and the Cabinet, the Board of Church Development seeks to fulfill its mandate to "to preach the gospel to everything that breathes in our area of geographical responsibility." Dunagin reported that the plan for developing congregations would involve three congregations in each of the seven districts each year of the quadrennium. "Mission 2000" is a bold venture of faith and will be costly in terms of both time and money. Dunagin stated that "Mission 2000" also provides a carefully crafted vision for the response of the North Texas Conference to the gracious invitation of God to new and exciting forms of ministry. Dunagin moved endorsement of the Mission 2000 program.

Bourdon Smith questioned why the Dallas Central District shows no plans for site purchases. Dunagin responded that while the chart does reflect projected site purchases it is only a reflection of land purchase and does not give indication of other strategies for developing the church which are planned for that central core area of the conference. Vote was taken, and the program adopted.

Committee on Episcopacy

Leighton Farrell, Chairperson of the Committee of Episcopacy, reported that the committee warmly endorses the decision made by the North Texas Conference delegates to the South Central Jurisdictional Conference in seeking to have Bishop and Mrs. Bruce Blake come to the Dallas area. Bishop Blake has put a great deal of time and energy into his job. He has met with clergy and lay persons throughout the conference. He has held teaching retreats for clergy and laity. He has met both with individual clergy and the Cabinet in making strategic pastoral appointments for the coming conference year. He has been active in the Council on Bishops as well as general church committees and state and conference activities. Farrell led the conference in applauding Bishop Blake for his positive and creative leadership as well as for his sound advice and sage counsel.

Episcopal Residence Committee

Leighton Farrell reminded the conference that the 1984 General Conference adopted legislation requiring that each Episcopacy Area provide housing for its Bishop either through purchase or rental. With the division of the Dallas-Fort Worth area into two separate Episcopal Areas by action of the Jurisdictional Conference in 1988 and the subsequent election and assignment of Bishop Blake to the new Dallas Area, there was an immediate need for our Dallas Area to provide a place of residence for Bishop and Mrs. Blake. Due to the urgency of the situation, in less than six weeks potential houses were screened. Bishop and Mrs. Blake came to Dallas to look at houses, a selection was made, a called session of the annual conference was held, finances arranged, and a house purchased.

In order to allow for intentional planning rather than urgent reacting when there is another Episcopal change in the Dallas Area, Ferrell advised the annual conference that the Episcopacy Residence Committee will study during the coming year the matter of a residence for the Bishop of the Dallas Area, will add advisory members to help in that study, and will make a report to the annual conference before the end of the current quadrennium.

Bishop Blake invited John Thornburg to lead the conference in singing "Be Thou My Vision."

Order of the Day

Resolution of Commendation and Concern

Spurgeon Dunnam offered a resolution of commendation and concern with the intention of capturing some sense of the annual conference - where we have been, where we are, and where we intend to go - with respect to one of our own, Peggy Railey. The resolution called for executives of the North Texas Annual Conference to be steadfast in seeking to assure continued high quality health care for Peggy Railey, to assist her family in applying for the maximum social service benefits for which she is eligible, to continue to solicit donations for a trust fund that will provide a "safety net" for the health care needs of Peggy Railey, and that Bishop Blake keep members of the annual conference informed regarding Peggy Railey's continuing health care needs and the adequacy of her social services benefits combined with the trust fund raised for meeting those needs. LA12

Dunnam acknowledged a lack of specificity about the resolution but stated that there were several factors in this equation of health care concern about which we do not have greater detail. Therefore, to be more specific in the resolution was deemed to be counter productive. Dunnam noted that United Methodist people are people who respond to needs, and it is his confidence that the passage of this resolution would be a declaration to ourselves and to the world of our continuing concern to Peggy Railey and her health care needs. Bishop Blake reported that he had spent time earlier in the month with Peggy Railey's mother who wished, through Bishop Blake, to express appreciation to the conference and to those individuals who have offered such beautifully caring deeds for Peggy. Bishop Blake informed members of the conference that Peggy is being very well cared for due in large measure to the love and concern of the conference for her. The Bishop noted that the North Texas Conference program of health insurance has provided coverage for Peggy eight times the industry norm. Bishop Blake expressed his appreciation that we live in a society that collectively provides for persons who are victimized in this way. Catastrophic health care by governmental entities recognizes that any organization could be forced to deny health care for all its other members if required fully to underwrite the catastrophic care for any one individual. The resolution offered by Dunnam provides for our assessing the gap between the level of care Peggy needs and what her social services benefits will provide and then to make up that difference. Bishop Blake has undertaken to raise the $20,000 for the Transitional Health Care Fund established for Peggy by Bishop John Russell; the Bishop reported that this fund is now in place to care for Peggy in the event that there is a time lag between her care under conference insurance and the beginning of other coverage. Bishop Blake assured members of the annual conference that whenever needs arise with regard to Peggy's care he will be knowledgeable about those needs and will inform the annual conference. The Bishop requested that every local church consider its response to Peggy's health care needs by September 1, 1989 so that the extent of that response will be known by the time that the conference insurance coverage for her is terminated.

Bishop Blake called for standing vote of those in support of the resolution; the motion was adopted. Bishop Blake led the conference in prayer and then adjourned the afternoon session at 5:10 p.m.

TUESDAY, JUNE 6, 1989
SERVICE OF ORDINATION AND CONSECRATION

On Tuesday evening, June 6, 1989, the conference members gathered at First United Methodist Church Dallas at 7:30 p.m. to worship and to celebrate in a service or ordination and consecration. The ordinands, those presented for consecration, their spouses and sponsors, and Bishop Bruce Blake, and the worship leaders processed into the sanctuary to "Echo Fanfare: Make the Sounds of Praise." The congregation joined in the hymn of praise, "God of Love and God of Power." Ronald Henderson offered the invocation, and the choir of Highland Hills United Methodist Church, directed by Zachary Wilder led in praise through the anthem, "Call Him Up." John Rentfro read the scripture lesson for the service John 13: 1-17.

Bishop Bruce Blake in his first ordination service after election to the episcopal office called the ordinands and those to be consecrated to mission in an ever changing world. This call to the ministry is a call that sees the world through the servant role. Barbara Marcum called upon the worshipers to share their gifts for the support of the conference through the evening offering.

Bishop Blake addresses the ordinands during the Service of Ordination and Consecration.

The ordination of deacons followed a congregational prayer. Each ordinand was escorted to the altar by a member of the Division of Preparation and Qualifications of the Board of Ordained Ministry, and spouses stood in support. Charles Cox read the names of those to be ordained deacon: Darrel Glen Blackmon, Sr.; Dan Boyd; Marsha Gail Engle-Rowbottom; Eric Stewart Folkerth; Matthew Blaine Gaston; David Thomas Howeth; Daniel Drew Humbert; Susan Jacobson; Sung Do Kang; Young Bong Kim; Valerie Nellie Maria Knox; Sarah Heaner Lancaster; Tommy Ray Medley; James Burton Palmerster, Jr.; Sheron Covington Patterson; Kristie Jan Nerrlinger Rosset; Sung Yin Song; Patrica Piron Thresher; Mark Alan Thurman; Mary Kay Totty. The ordination of deacons concluded with two stances of "Holy Spirit, Truth Divine."

Richard Wilson, Chairperson of the Board of Diaconal Ministry, read the names of those presented for consecration: Kathryn Ellsworth Johnson, Christopher Lee Stevens, and Mark Weston Unkenholz. The consecration of Diaconals concluded with the singing of two additional stances of "Holy Spirit, Truth Divine."

The candidates presented for ordination as elder were: Christopher L. Allen, Thomas Owen Brumett, Mary Elizabeth Brundige, George David Dunson, Craig Victor Heenan, Johnny Hughes Hicks, Roger Duncan Hudson, Rene Preston Lawson, Thomas Owen Palmer, Jane Ellen Youtz Riecke, Namiqua Ardhuerumnly Shipman, Terry Ann Sparks, David J. Turner, William Garth Wilcoxon, and Carol Woods.

The ordination of Elders concluded with one verse of "Come Holy Ghost, Our Souls Inspire." The Elders then were presented with communion chalices by those clergy members of the conference who had been granted the retired status this year.

Bishop Blake led the congregation in a litany of dedication and offered the benediction. The closing hymn was "Be Thou My Vision."

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 7, 1989
MORNING BUSINESS SESSION

At 8:00 a.m. in the sanctuary of Highland Park United Methodist Church John Thornburg led in singing of an African folk song, "Jesu, Jesu." An interpretive liturgical dance was led by Diana Holbert to a reading by Jo Ann Holy.

Board of Trustees

Boyd Sawyer, Chairperson of the Conference Board of Trustees, reported that the board has been good stewards of the property of the annual conference. Sawyer encouraged local church trustees to attend training sessions designed not only for chairpersons but for all members of Board of Trustees. Sawyer also encouraged local churches to look at the process of incorporation and the United Methodist insurance program.

Sawyer directed the attention of the conference to the legislative proposals from the Conference Board of Trustees. Noting that these proposals had been before members of the conference in the pre-conference packets, Sawyer moved abandonment of Gunter United Methodist Church in the Sherman-McKinney District; abandonment of Minter United Methodist Church in the Paris-Sulphur Springs District; abandonment of the Revina United Methodist Church in the Sherman-McKinney District; discontinuance of First United Methodist Church, - Ringgold, in the Wichita Falls District; and abandonment of Weston United Methodist Church in the Sherman-McKinney District.

Bishop Blake and Mike Nichols track the discussion of the conference.

Vote was taken on each recommendation individually; all were approved. Sawyer also moved the sale of the Dye Mound property in the Wichita Falls District as that property had been entrusted to the Conference Board of Trustees since its abandonment in 1975. The motion was approved. LAB

Board of Ordained Ministry

Bishop Blake reminded members of the annual conference that the matter of payment of fees for the services of the Southwest Career Development Center as required for all candidates for ordained ministry in the North Texas Conference had been referred from the Executive Session on Sunday afternoon to the Board of Ordained ministry with a report to be made to a full session of the annual conference. Jerry Overton explained that the North Texas Conference is the only one of the 25 agencies using the services of the center which pays for these services in full. Overton moved that candidates for ministry in the North Texas Conference pay $200 of the total $900 fee for the services of the center.

William Crouch moved to amend the proposal to a stated total cost of $100; the motion failed on a vote of 142 For, 148 Against, and 2 Abstentions.

Tim McLemore spoke against the original motion, and Jerry Putnam questioned whether there were any funds available to assist candidates who have difficulty paying the fee. Overton responded that such assistance was available. Robert Cooper raised a question of clarification as to whether if the motion were defeated the current process of requiring the candidates to pay $25 of the fee would be reinstated. Bishop Blake indicated that would be the effect of such a decision of the conference. The Bishop then called for the vote, and the tally was 156 For, 1435 Against with six Abstentions. The motion carried.

Carole Somers-Clarke moved to have the Board of Ordained Ministry request the Division of Preparation and Qualification to provide a written evaluation form for all candidates using the services of the Southeast Career Development Center so that feedback could be obtained not only from the center's staff but also from the candidates going through the process. The motion was defeated.

Commission on Asian Ministries

Ronald Koo reported that the commission has begun a process of evaluation of the appropriateness of continuing a formal structure such as the Commission on Asian Ministries as a means of responding to the concerns of that particular constituency of the conference. Koo noted congregational development as one of the accomplishments with regard to Asian ministries since 1983 with 5 churches and 7 fellowships now being established. Koo reported that the present Asian population within the bounds of the North Texas Conference is conservatively estimated to be 120,000 persons with a projected annual growth rate of 3 to 7%. Koo raised the possibility of multicultural, interracial, and perhaps interdenominational service of worship as a possible alternative to the establishment of ethnic churches. A priority among Asian congregations is that of leadership training. Koo thanked the conference for its appointment of qualified Asians to serve on "non-ethnic boards and agencies.

Board of Discipleship

Bob Robertson, Chairperson of the Board of Discipleship, recognized the chairpersons of the ten divisions and two committees of that board and highlighted many of the programs and projects which have been undertaken during the past year.

James Pledger, Chairperson of the Division of Evangelism, presented the quadrennial emphasis plan for that division. During 1989-90 the focus will be on the commitment of local churches on their time and resources to reach the unchurched. In 1990-91 the focus will be on "Reaching the Unchurched through the Sunday School," the 1991-92 on "Reaching the Unchurched through Worship and Music." LA13

John Mollett, Chairperson of the Division of Stewardship, offered the quadrennial program for that division: Fall 1989 "Come, Share, Rejoice;" Spring 1990, "Putting God First, The Tithe;" Fall 1991, "Volunteerism in the Church;" Spring 1992, workshops with Lyle Shaller.

Jane Robertson, chairperson of the Division of Spiritual Formation, reported that a year ago that the Division of Spiritual Formation became a reality and set as a goal the providing of local churches with a list of leaders for events and retreats for spiritual growth. The division will sponsor "a day apart" each month beginning in October and will continue to recommend participation in such groups as the Emmaus Walk and the Disciplined Order of Christ as well as the use of such resources as Weavings for adults and Pockets for children. Robertson stated that a successful Christian walk can be summed up in the sentence, "Live ever aware of God's presence."

John Thornburg, Chairperson of the Division of Worship, reported that three members of the North Texas Conference will attend a training event in November and then return to hold workshops in each of the districts on "Using the New Hymnal in Advent and Christmas." The purpose of these workshops will to be help congregations feel that this new book is an old friend.

Commission on Insurance

Beverly Brooks, Chairperson on the Commission on Insurance, recounted on how the stroke suffered by Randy James on December 2 had been a tremendous blow to the annual conference and the work of the commission with the loss of the valuable services of Randy James. Brooks reported that the daily functioning of the office has continued without interruption, however, and with minimal problems. Brooks expressed profound appreciation to those many persons who made that continued functioning possible, particularly Bishop Bruce Blake, James Hares, the administrative staff of the Insurance Office, and members of the Commission on Insurance.

Brooks reported that the self-funded health insurance plan of the North Texas conference is financially sound at the present but that rapid changes are always occurring in the area of health care. A major responsibility of the Commission on Insurance is to insure the prudent funding level of the North Texas Conference insurance plan, and therefore, the Commission has sought the assistance of an outside professional analysis of the program. This report was received and studied by a special task force, adopted by the Commission on Insurance and presented to the Council of Finance and Administration. The recommendation of this report is for the adoption of a minimum funding increase of 16% for the calendar year 1990. The Commission on Insurance is looking at the plan design and funding of the current insurance plan of the conference as well as alternative programs, and requests that this become an agenda item for the called session of the annual conference on December 2, 1989. Brooks then tabled until that special session the legislative proposals coming from the Commission on Insurance. Brooks expressed her hope that out of the tragedy of Randy James stroke and the resulting changes necessitated in the Office of Insurance for the conference there will come a new sense of direction. Brooks moved acceptance of the report; it was adopted.

Boyd Sawyer moved that a telegram be sent to Randy James thanking him for his service to the conference, reminding him of the continued prayers of the conference for his recovery, and letting him know that he is missed by the conference. Bishop Blake ruled that the sending of such a greeting was the will of the conference.

Bishop Blake expressed appreciation to Beverly Brooks on behalf of himself and the annual conference for a job so very well done in the face of a tremendous crisis.

Conference Nominating Committee

Pat Deal, Secretary of the Conference Nominating Committee, listed changes in both the report and the addendum to the report of the Nominating Committee. Deal, noting that the Standing Rules of the conference empower the Nominating Committee to fill vacancies in the interim between sessions of the conference, moved adoption of the full report. LA17

Bishop Blake called for additional nominations from the floor. Raymond Williams, nominated Charles Washington as chair of the Division of Transitional Communities of the Board of Church Growth and Development. B. C. Robertson moved to declare the office of chair of the Division of Transitional Communities vacant and to refer the matter to the Conference Nominating Committee for action. Bourdon Smith, Bruce Weaver and Wilfred Bailey spoke against the motion, DeForrest Wiksten spoke in favor of the motion. The motion was defeated. Raymond Williams offered a statement in support in the nomination of Charles Washington and Bruce Weaver spoke in support of Chauncey Nealy. Vote was called, and Chancey Nealy was elected. Vote was taken on the entire report as submitted; it was adopted.

Board of Church and Society

Larry George, Chairperson of the Board of Church and Society, offered as a context for the work of that board the belief in Jesus Christ as redeemer/transformer of the world in our call as Christians to be participants in that redemption/restoration. George called attention of the conference to the legislative proposals in the pre-conference packet coming from the Board of Church and Society and moved adoption of the proposal requesting the General Board of Church and Society make funds from the endowment of the former Board of Temperance available as needed by the Standing Committee on Alcohol and Other Drugs of the General Board of Church and Society. The motion carried, and Raymond Williams requested that Patrick Williams be utilized by the Conference Board of Church and Society as a resource person on work on this issue. LA11

George presented for adoption the legislation urging continued negotiations for the reduction of arms by the United States and the Soviet Union. Espie del Rosario moved to amend the resolution to include a fourth "therefore" and state "invite United Methodists of the North Texas Conference to join with other concerned peacemakers in the United States, the USSR, and other countries in linking George Bush and Mikhail Gorbachev in daily prayer preferably at noon, (or any other time when one is best able) using the prayer suggested by United Methodist minister, Richard Deats, of the Fellowship of Reconciliation as contained the brochure, "linking Bush and Gorbachev to the Love of God'. The prayer is 'O Divine Spirit who's light fills the universe and all living things, we lift up to your presence Mikhail Gorbachev and George Bush. Illumine them with light; inspire their decisions. Guide their actions that the nations they lead may turn from the insanity of the arms race to the healing of the earth and meeting of human needs. Amen.' " Vote was taken; the amendment carried. Bishop Blake called for a vote on the amended resolution; it was adopted.

Calling for a re-allocation of national resources away from the development and deployment of space-based weapons and toward conditions of basic human need, George presented the third legislative proposal of the Board of Church and Society and moved its adoption. Max Odle spoke against the resolution and Jack Soper spoke in support of the resolution. Ann Cardwell moved to close debate; vote was taken and debate closed. Bishop Russell called for vote on the legislative proposal; it was adopted.

Courtesy and Resolutions

Jean Wood recognized Walter Vernon selected by the United Methodist Publishing House to write the story of its history. Wood also recognized Norman Hudson, newly elected Bishop of the Methodist church of South Africa. Don and Barbara Wiggans presented to Bishop Blake a gift from Bishop Panggebean of Indonesia. The gift was a ulos which means blanket, a blessing, a prayer to warm the spirit. DeForrest Wixston moved that the conference send a communication of greeting and affection to Albert and Karla Outler. Bishop Blake ruled that such a communication was the will of the conference.

Following a brief recess in the morning session, Paul Cardwell led in prayer.

Board of Global Ministries

James Palmer, Chairperson of the Board of Global Ministries, introduced Kenneth McIntosh, conference secretary of the Board of Global Ministries. McIntosh reminded the conference that mission is the mandate of the church. He recognized the seven district secretaries of global ministries who form the mission resource team for the conference. McIntosh celebrated the mission saturation events which were held throughout the annual conference during the past year and noted that the North Texas Conference shares in major support for thirty-four mission personnel throughout the world.

Palmer expressed appreciation to Ken McIntosh and then introduced a spokesperson for Lydia Patterson Institute who described the important ministries of that institution. Economic conditions in Mexico have caused great difficulties for Lydia Patterson Institute; however, enrollment is now up, and there is more community involvement. On behalf of the administration, staff, and student body of Lydia Patterson, an invitation was extended to members of the conference to come to Lydia Patterson Institute and witness the exciting work that is being done there.

Palmer introduced Martha Stowe who described Volunteers in Mission as a way of shaking us out of our comfortable pews and allowing us to find a renewed faith even as we touch pain. Stowe announced that Bishop and Karen Blake will be going on the work project to Bolivia in July. Stowe called attention to the list of Volunteers in Mission opportunities within the North Texas Conference which had been distributed as conference members entered the session. Stowe also encouraged participation in "Super Serve," a Volunteers in Mission event to be held at Mount Sequoyah. VIM is also working on implementing the "potato project" and the "harvest of hope" in the North Texas Conference.

Palmer referred attention to the legislative proposal regarding the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the United Methodist Committee on Relief. Donald Benton recognized Bob Fletcher and Bill Wyman, members of the North Texas Conference who are staff persons with UMCOR. Vote was taken; the proposal was approved. LA9

Palmer directed the attention of the conference to the list of Conference Advance Specials for 1989-1990 as printed in the pre-conference packet noting that advance special is a very special terminology that has been frequently misapplied. Bishop Russell has ruled that the Conference Board of Global Ministries has responsibility to bring before the conference the list of advance specials, according to the disciplinary authority. Vote was taken; the list was approved.

Wayne Odom, Chairperson of the Division of National and World Outreach, announced the selection of a national and a world project as goals for support by the annual conference noting however that there was in this recommendation no intention to take away support from other projects. The goals recommended were $25,000 for the Rio Grande Conference and $50,000 for Bolivia, with $25,000 for the Bolivia Methodist Church to be used in training local church pastors for evangelism and $25,000 for Andean Rural Health Care. Odom encouraged each local church to identify at least one group in the church to undertake responsibility for promoting these advance specials projects. Vote was taken on the recommended mission goals; they were adopted. Bishop Blake called for a vote in the entire report of the Board of Global Ministries; it was accepted.

Commission on Communications and Resources

Mary Brooke Casad, Chairperson of the Commission on Communications and Resources, offered an overview of the work of the three committees of that commission. The Conference Resource Center Committee chaired by Rusty Hedges; the Telecommunications Committee chaired by Tim Crouch; and the Print Media Committee chaired by Kay Fielder. Casad reported a membership in the Conference Resource Center of 225 churches with increased usage of the center by small member churches and lay persons. Casad announced that cable television subscribers in Mesquite and Farmers Branch now have access to a new eccumentical cable TV network VISION. Casad also announced that subscription forms for the United Methodist Reporter will be sent to local churches through the mid-monthly mailing. A vital part of the work of the Commission on Communications and Resources is that of assisting the Conference Council on Ministries in interpreting and promoting all general and annual conference benevolence. Chauncey Nealy, Vice Chairperson of the Commission on Communications and Resources, and John Mollett, Chairperson of the Division on Stewardship, made a dramatic presentation on this aspect of the commission's work.

Religion and Race

Amy Cajiuat, Chairperson of the Commission on Religion and Race, expressed appreciation for the presence and leadership of Bishop Blake, to Don Benton and his Committee on Racial Inclusiveness, and Henry Masters and the Committee on the Ethnic Local Church Concerns. Cajiuat also expressed gratitude for the work of all the agencies of the annual conference for participating in the development of the comprehensive plan and for the leadership of John Thornburg in planning the services of worship during the annual conference. Cajiuat introduced the district directors of Religion and Race and then presented to Bishop Blake and the annual conference a banner depicting the theme, "Weave Us Together in Love, Oh Lord."

Commission on Equitable Salaries

Dennis Wilkinson called the attention of the conference to the commission's report as submitted in the pre-conference packet and noted a correction in Paragraph 1 where the amount of $82,800 should be $69,000. LA14

Wilkinson noted that as a result of the work of the commission in recent years the North Texas Conference's equitable salary is among the highest in the jurisdiction, representing the concern and care of the conference for ministers who serve at that salary level.

Wilkinson explained that in considering equitable salary issues the commission dealt with a variety of concerns: pastors serving at that salary level, churches which must receive assistance to pay even the minimum salary to their pastors, churches which through the connectional system pay their apportionments and thus assist with equitable salaries, the Cabinet as it seeks to assign and align churches to avoid placing additional burdens on the conference with regard to salaries, and those areas of the annual conference suffering from the currently depressed economy.

Wilkinson stated that in view of all of these concerns, the commission was recommending that the equitable salary schedule remain unchanged for 1990.

Paula Maroney moved "the deletion of Section G from the report of the Commission on Equitable Salaries in order to allow for the flexibility of the Cabinet in considering each case on its individual merits." The motion was seconded; the motion carried.

Paula Maroney moved, "That the salary schedules of the Report of the Commission on Equitable Salaries be revised to include an increase of 3%.

Wilkinson responded with a concern that an increase in this area would necessarily increase apportionments and perhaps impede the attainment by some churches of the ability to meet minimum salary levels through their own support. Vote was taken; the motion carried.

Order of the Day

HEALTH AND WELFARE LUNCHEON

Bishop Blake expressed appreciation for the work of David Hitt, Chief Executive Officer of Methodist Hospitals of Dallas, particularly for his sensitivity and leadership with regard to that institution's relationship to the United Methodist Church. The Bishop then invited members of the annual conference to attend the Health and Welfare luncheon in the Grand Hall and the Reynolds Hall of the Highland Park United Methodist Church.

Conveners of the Health and Welfare Luncheon, Jim Ozier, Chairperson of the Division of Health and Welfare, and Ellen Palmer, called upon Karen Blake to offer the invocation. Greetings were brought by Bishop Bruce Blake and institutional presentations were made on behalf of the Methodist Mission Home, Methodist Hospital, Methodist Retired Homes, and the Methodist Home in Waco. It was noted that in 1988, second-mile giving through local churches of the North Texas Conference to these four institutions amounted to $244,223. The Division of Health and Welfare is asking that every local church in the North Texas Conference establish an annual goal of $1 per member for each of these four institutions.

Ron Henderson, Karen Blake, and David Rucker listen as Bishop Blake greets the Health and Welfare Luncheon in the Great Hall.

AFTERNOON BUSINESS SESSION

At 2:00 p.m. in the sanctuary of Highland Park United Methodist Church, Espie del Rosario offered her witness that it was not as much "people power" as it was "God power" that brought about the peaceful revolution in the Phillipines and which continues in that country today. Del Rosario led the conference in prayer.

Commission on Equitable Salaries

Dennis Wilkinson reminded members of the annual conference that by action taken during the morning session an amendment to the report of the Commission on Equitable Salaries was necessary in Item No. 1 where the funding request would be raised from $69,000 to $87,000. A typographical error was in Item No. 2D: Student Appointments for those who live in the charge two nights or less where the appropriate amount should be $8,178.

Courtesy and Resolutions

John Thornburg introduced Trisha Sy, a twelve-year-old member of First Filipino-American United Methodist Church, Dallas, who drew the cover design for the worship bulletins used at the services during annual conference. Bishop Blake related that when Sy was asked to draw a picture of Jesus she added to the picture, "Because Jesus is always with people and Jesus is looking over people."

Board of Church and Society

Larry George called on Jack Soper, Chairperson of the Central American Ministry Task Group to present the two legislative proposals from the Board of Church and Society Central American Concerns. Soper directed attention of the conference to both the legislative proposals as contained in the pre-conference packet authorizing the continuation of the work of the Central American ministry task group and to the booklet "PAZ, Vol. 2," Piecing the Covenant Together," which had been distributed during the conference session. Kenneth McIntosh corrected Item 3 of the Action Statement in the resolution to read "recognize Nancy Voye, missionary to El Salvador, as a commissioned missionary of the General Board of Global Ministries. Vote was taken; the motion carried.

Soper directed attention concerning the plight of Central America refugees and the people of the lower Rio Grande Valley. Vote was taken, and the resolution was adopted. LA20

Larry George expressed appreciation to Robert Cooper for his work in drafting the list of U.S. Senators and Representatives for the North Texas Conference area as well as information regarding correspondence and telephone calls to these leaders and heads of state. George reminded members of the conference that the implementation of the Board of Church and Society resolutions adopted during the morning session was dependent upon action of individual members of the annual conference. George also encouraged clergy members of the conference to select Special Fund #4 for the investment of their personal contributions with the General Board of Global Ministries as a means of taking a stand against apartheid in South Africa since the investment of this particular fund is in corporations which have no dealings with South Africa.

Quadrennial Emphasis

Donald Renshaw, Chairperson of the Quadrennial Emphasis Committee, explained that the emphasis on "Reaching the Unchurched" was being carried out on two parallel tracks - through conference agencies and through local churches. Renshaw explained that goals set by local churches and charge conferences have been taken seriously as statements of goals for ministry and mission. Reports submitted for the first quarter of 1989 reflect that 12% of the goal of persons to be received by profession of faith has been reached as have 84% of the goal for worship attendance. In addition, 86 new classes have been formed, 215 new Bible studies have been started; 201 new outreach ministries have begun. Renshaw thanked Henry Wilkins, Joyce Merz, and Scott Jones for their leadership on the committee and highlighted the efforts of two "frontier churches" Key Memorial in Sherman and Wesley in Sulphur Springs.

Board of Ordained Ministry

Ronald Henderson presented the legislative proposal from the Board of Ordained Ministry regarding the Exit Program for ordained ministers. The Exit Program will be a bridge between serving an appointment to a local church and the move to employment in another field. It would include health benefits and counseling services, and would be administered by the Executive Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry in consultation with the Cabinet. William Stevenson moved a substitution to the wording of Section B under the subheading "Qualifications" in the proposal: "Any ordained minsters appointed by the Bishop of the North Texas Conference that are already covered by severance pay from their appointment." Vote was taken; the amendment carried. LA16

Fred Durham moved to delete from the first paragraph of the proposal the statement "a. and members of the North Texas Conference..." to read "and members who are in full connection of the North Texas Conference and..." The amendment was approved.

Vote was taken on the amended legislation. It was approved.

Commission on Archives and History

Roger Lloyd introduced Henry Mood who offered memories of the conference held in Kansas City in 1939 when the three branches of the Methodist church came together as "The Methodist Church." Lloyd thanked Eloise Hatchett for her years of faithful service as the Chairperson of the commission and announced that Hatchett's dream of a display case has now been realized with the purchase and installation of that Cabinet in the United Methodist Building. Lloyd also announced recipients of the Kate Warnick Award in Church History as the Lone Oak United Methodist Church in the small church category and the Farmersville United Methodist Church in the large church category.

Conference Council on Ministries

Donald Barnes, Director of the Conference Council on Ministries, presented the legislation calling for a special offering for refugee legal assistance to be taken in each local church of the North Texas Conference on July 16, 1989. The goal for the offering would be $32,000 and funds would be administered by the McAllen District Refugee committee to provide legal assistance for Central American refugees. Vote was taken; the proposal was adopted.

Barnes, acting on behalf of Chairperson Bobbie Mankey, who could not be present in the conference, moved adoption of the entire report of the Conference Council on Ministries. The report was received with an expression of appreciation for the program leadership in the annual conference.

Board of Pensions

John Ogden, Chairperson of the Board of Pensions, offered new definitions of "crisis," "connectional system," and "pensions," explaining that pensions are fundamentally pastoral care for those who have given their lives in pastoral care. Ogden called the attention of the conference to the proposal from the Board of Pensions regarding the pre-1982 service year rate to be established for 1990 and corrected the percentage stated in the final line of the rationale to be .09% rather than .92%. With that correction, Ogden moved approval of that proposal; it was adopted. LA15

Ogden then moved the request of the Board of Pensions for a 5% increase in the Comprehensive Protection Plan for 1990. The proposal was approved.

In compliance with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service, Ogden presented the resolution relating to rental/housing allowances for retired or disabled ministers of the conference; it was approved.

Ogden reported to the conference that the Perkins Fund has been responsible for helping retired clergy over the years and has provided them with Christmas bonuses each year. He thanked the Perkins family for their vision in creating this fund over 40 years ago. Bishop Blake expressed appreciation to John Ogden and his leadership on the Board of Pensions.

Council on Finance and Administration No. 2

Shawver called the attention of the conference to Section Four "Recommended Apportionments" of the Report of the Council on Finance and Administration. Fred Durham moved to amend the report and to have Items C 6-11 reinstated to their 1989 levels; the amendment failed. Carol Woods moved that in the fall of 1989 a report be made to the churches regarding the attainment of 100% apportionments and the establishment of specific second-mile apportionment goals for each church. The amendment was approved. Vote was taken on Section 4 of the report; it was approved. Bishop Blake noted that the conference is only 39 churches away from paying apportionments in full. It is the Bishop's understanding that apportionments are a minimal base for the church to be in mission. "Our ministry is for the purpose of being in mission," stated Bishop Blake.

Shawver directed the attention of the conference to Section 5B "realignment of apportionments" and explained that this action was necessary to maintain conformity with the general church listing of apportionments. Shawver corrected Item No. 7 to show an amount of $250,258 for Area and Conference Administration, $135,721 for agencies budgets; $87,000 for Equitable Salary with a resulting total of $4,505,529. Shawver moved approval of Section 5; it was approved.

Shawver moved adoption of the entire report of the Council on Finance and Administration; it was adopted.

Hispanic Interconference Commission

James Garrett, Chairperson of the Hispanic Interconference Commission, noted that one out of five persons in Texas is Hispanic and one out of ten persons in Dallas is Hispanic, thus opportunities for Hispanic ministries in the North Texas Conference are unlimited. Garrett announced that Isabel Gomez has been appointed as the first Hispanic chaplain at Parkland Hospital and that Kathleen Baskin is being appointed to form a new church in the West Dallas area. "The door of opportunity is open; we must accept the challenge and move forward," Garrett said. The Rio Grande Conference and the North Texas Conference are not in competition with each other but are in ministry together in our joint concern for all persons.

Bylaws and Constitutional Amendment

Michael Nichols, Secretary of the North Texas Annual Conference, moved adoption of the Bylaws of the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc. Nichols noted that the adoption of the bylaws would implement the articles of incorporation and permit the agencies of the annual conference to operate under the corporate umbrella authorized by the action of the 1981 Annual Conference. The resolution was approved. LA18

Nichols also presented the Proposed Constitutional Amendment arising from the 1988 session of the General Conference of the United Methodist Church held in St. Louis Missouri. Bishop Blake explained that the process is for such an amendment to be proposed to the General Conference, then distributed for action at each annual conference with the tallying of votes requiring a 2/3 majority for the amendment to be approved. Vote was taken, and the amendment was approved by the North Texas Annual Conference. LA19

Wearing a clerical stole with the two Chinese characters for peace and love, embroidered on a red background, Kenneth McIntosh presented a resolution in support of personal freedom in the People's Republic of China. McIntosh explained that this resolution would be an affirmation of those being persecuted as they seek personal freedom in China and would be offered in memory of those persons who died in that effort and whose names we shall never know. Vote was taken; the resolution approved. LA21

Conference Statistician

Walter Zimmerman expressed appreciation to the auditors and superintendents of the districts of the North Texas Conference. Zimmerman reflected that the statistical report is a means of answering the call to give account of our stewardship in the place where we are called to serve. When the tasks of ministry are tended to, statistics take care of themselves. Vote was taken; and the statistical report was accepted.

John Taylor, on behalf of the Board of Ordained Ministry presented to the conference those persons whose orders were recognized and who therefore were not ordained in the Tuesday evening Service of Ordination and Consecration: Inn Kyoung Chung, Jung Kee Lee, Joseph J. Stabile, and Paul Allen Nixon. Taylor also moved to extend the agenda by one hour. The motion was approved.

Small Group Process

B. C. Robertson offered a summary report of the work of the small groups concerning the issue "Reaching the Unchurched." Robertson cautioned against focusing on negative descriptions of the unchurched and called attention to the more than 500 positive responses being made in the form of various ministries and programs being undertaken by the North Texas Conference in reaching the unchurched. The results of the work of the small groups indicated a variety of options for continuing the concern for reaching the unchurched. Robertson, as Director of Church Growth and Development, invited and encouraged the continued input of individuals and congregations with regard to this quadrennial emphasis. Bob Robertson, Chairperson of the Board of Discipleship, requested that six video tapes of Bishop Blake's address be placed in the Conference Resource Center and that the script be printed and included in the mid -monthly mailing at the expense of the Board of Discipleship.

Bruce Weaver moved that "the matter of the meeting place of the 1990 Annual Conference be referred to the Agenda Committee for resolution." The motion was approved.

Report from the Cabinet

Bruce Weaver, Chair of the Cabinet, reflected on the bond of fellowship that had developed among the seven district superintendents, a bond which was readily established with the arrival of our new bishop. Weaver thanked the three directors of the annual conference for their work and support.

Weaver listed concerns of the Cabinet as: (1) Continued effort to be globally conscious, (2) A sense of covenant relationship in ministry, (3) High stress level among clergy families across the conference, (4) Open itineracy, and the (5) Appointment making process. Weaver expressed deep appreciation to Bishop Blake and to the members of the annual conference for their contribution to the personal and professional lives of the district superintendents of the North Texas Conference.

Courtesy and Resolutions

Richard Stanford, Conference Lay Leader, moved that "whereas Bishop Blake has led us through three very full days and nights, not only with a sure hand but also with a warmth sense of humor and appreciation for people's feelings, that is his special gift, we thank him for his hard work; we thank him for leading us, and we thank God who brought Bishop and Karen Blake to us."

Pat Deal, on behalf of the Committee on Courtesy and Resolutions, moved that:

Whereas the members of the North Texas Conference have come together in a meeting of utmost importance to our United Methodist Church and its ministry and mission int he local church, the conference, and the world;

Whereas the time spent with fellow United Methodists has served to strengthen the connectional ties which are shared between churches of large and small membership, rural and urban locations, of varying ethnic backgrounds, brand new churches and more established congregations, and believers at opposite poles of the theological spectrum (the "you say either and I say either" discussion);

Whereas the business of the Conference has been carried out through the joint efforts of lay and clergy leadership, and we have felt the presence of "new breezes" as we have witnessed to others and to each other about the work of the United Methodist Church, in our ministry within and without the North Texas Conference. We have shed tears of joy, sadness, laughter, and overwhelming gratitude as we've watched the cycle of professional ministry come full circle, from the flush of excitement exhibited by newly challenged ordinands to the gentle glow of wit, wisdom, and experience of the retirees as they pass the silver communion chalice to the next generation;

Whereas the experiences of worship have lifted our hearts and our spirits by means of the inspired preaching of Bishop James Thomas and Bishop Bruce Blake; and also by means of liturgical dance, song, prayer and scripture;

Whereas this meeting of the North Texas Conference has been organized, arranged, prepared, and presented in an exemplary fashion due to the efforts of the support system made up of the following:

Bishop Blake, the Cabinet and Directors, the Agenda Committee, all participants in the worship services, Dr. Leighton Farrell, Dr. Hal Brady, the members and staffs of Highland Park UMC and First UMC, Dallas, their pastoral, music, clerical, and custodial staffs, Conference Secretary Mike Nichols, the tellers, the facilitators, recorders and computer operators;

Whereas this 1989 meeting of the North Texas Conference signifies a new beginning of episcopal leadership as evidenced by strict accountability of time and action, energetic and intense attention to the business of the conference, innovative methods of exchanging information via the small-group process, and the goal of more intensified participation from the laity, Bishop Blake has brought to us new perspectives, new priorities and new possibilities along with a warm handshake and a personal word of greeting as he bound down the steps of the platform. His wife, Karen, exemplifies a beautiful balance between the grace and dignity befitting the wife and helpmate of the Bishop and the warmth and compassion of a good fried to each of us;

Therefore be it resolved that the members of the North Texas Conference join together in giving thanks for the spirit of God which has led us through this conference toward a better understanding of ourselves, each other, and our brothers and sisters in Christ.

Be it further resolved that members of the conference will return to our home churches equipped with a renewed sense of mission which results in greater efforts to reach the unchurched in our communities, not only becoming "new leaders for a new day" but being transformed into true disciples of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. The resolution was adopted.

RITUAL OF COMMISSIONING AND CALL TO RENEWAL OF OUR COVENANT IN MINISTRY

William J. Washington led in the greeting for the service and members of the conference sang the hymn, "Lord You Give the Great Commission." Bishop Blake led in unison prayer and in the reading of the appointments including transfers, special appointments, and local church appointments beginning with the Wichita Falls District. Following the reading of the appointments, a litany for the renewal for our covenant in ministry was read by members of the conference. The closing hymn was "A Charge to Keep I have," and Richard Stanford offered the benediction. The closing voluntary was played by Mark Unkenholz and the conference was adjourned at 5:30 p.m.

X. LEGISLATIVE ACTIONS

LA1 - PASTORAL RESIDENCY PROGRAM

SUBJECT: PROPOSED PASTORAL RESIDENCY PROGRAM
For the North Texas Annual Conference

FROM: The Board of Ordained Ministry

RATIONALE:

Pastors in their first years of full-time ministry following graduation from seminary inevitably deal with a number of personal, spiritual, and professional issues and develop patterns for ministry which, in all likelihood, will remain in place for the entirety of their ministry. These issues include, but are not limited to:

(1) relationship to itinerancy.
(2) integration into the connectional structure.
(3) addressing areas of weakness and strength.
(4) reality testing of expectations related to full-time ministry.
(5) developing ability to reflect critically on ministry.
(6) shaping ongoing spiritual and study disciplines.
(7) initiating collegial identity.
(8) clarifying professional identity.
(9) adjusting to changes in family life.

Since these issues seem to be present for all persons entering their first full-time appointment, the time period between graduation from seminary and admittance into full membership in the Annual Conference provides an excellent opportunity to help promote in pastors increased levels of knowledge, maturity, healthy peer relationships, and competency. Indeed, there probably is no better time to impact those in ministry than in these highly formative years.

The Pastoral Residency Program

The Division of Preparation and Qualifications of the Board of Ordained Ministry recommends dropping the existing requirement that all candidates for Elder's Orders and full conference membership successfully complete a nine-month local church internship.

In its place P & Q recommends establishing a Pastoral Residency program for all persons following their graduation from seminary and prior to their admittance into full membership in the Annual Conference. Elders transferring into probationary membership from other denominations also would participate in the Pastoral Residency program.

The Pastoral Residency program would last approximately a year-and-a-half and would begin following graduation from seminary. The first year of residency would begin in August following graduation and be completed at the end of May. The second year would begin in June and end in January with the final interviews for Elder's Orders and full conference membership.

The residency program would be supervised by a Pastoral Residency Committee which would be nominated by the Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, Registrar, Candidacy Registrar, and Residency Committee Chairperson of the Division of Preparation and Qualification, and be approved by the Division of Preparation and Qualifications.

The major participants in the program would include the Resident, a Peer Group, a Peer Group Facilitator selected by the Pastoral Residency Committee, a Counseling Elder, the Staff-Parish Relations Committee if applicable, the District Superintendent, and the Pastoral Residency Committee.

The Residents would not be expected to pay for their participation in the program. They would be reimbursed for travel expense at an appropriate level set by the Annual Conference.

The three major goals of the Pastoral Residency program are:

(1) support for probationary members as they make the transition from seminary into full-time ministry.
(2) spiritual, personal, and professional growth.
(3) in-depth and ongoing evaluation of candidates seeking Elder's Orders and full conference membership.

The Need For Such A Program

Many pastors already will have participated in an excellent internship program while in seminary. The Pastoral Residency program offers a unique complementary opportunity since the context of supervision in the educational process necessarily has different goals, experiences, and implications from that which would occur in the midst of full-time ministry. Indeed, the Division of Preparation and Qualifications continues to recommend highly that all seminary students participate in a nine-month local church internship while in seminary if such an opportunity is available.

Although a limited number of clergy choose to pursue valuable and much-needed expressions of ministry beyond the local church, the Pastoral Residency program has been designed with the assumption that the norm for ministry in the United Methodist Church is the local church. Accordingly, persons serving in beyond the local church appointments would be addressed on an individual basis to insure that they have adequate involvement in a local church.

The fact that the program lasts for approximately a year-and-a-half enables the second year to be a time when specific areas of concern which emerged during the first year can be addressed. It also would assist Residents in preparing themselves for their written work and interviews for Elder's Orders and full conference membership.

A benefit of the Pastoral Residency program is that its format would enable the North Texas Conference to exercise greater responsibility for, and more significant influence in, the training and selection of ministers who will serve in North Texas.

Design For The Pastoral Residency Program

First Year of Residency (August - May)

A. An orientation session for participants would occur in late August. Those attending would be the residents, their Counseling Elders, Peer Group Facilitators, District Superintendents, and members of the Pastoral Residency Committee. The agenda would include such issues as: (1) an introduction to the Pastoral Residency Program; (2) introduction to Counseling Elders and Peer Group Facilitators; and (3) community building.

B. Requirements for Each Resident:

1. Four one-hour sessions with the District Superintendent.

2. Monthly two-hour Peer Group sessions. The purpose of the Peer Group would be to help the Resident address the issues set forth in the first paragraph of this document. Residents would be expected to provide support, encouragement, and mutual accountability as active participants in this process. A facilitator, appointed by the Pastoral Residency Committee, would direct the Peer Group in accomplishing this.

3. Monthly one-hour sessions with the Counseling Elder. The Resident would present a minimum of four reflection papers which would deal with personal, spiritual, and/or professional issues mutually agreed upon by the Resident and the Counseling Elder.

4. Two sermon tapes each in the fall and spring of sermons actually preached. These would be critiqued by the District Superintendent, the local church Residency Committee, and the Counseling Elder.

5. At least one joint meeting with the Counseling Elder and Staff-Parish Relations Committee. These meetings would focus on the committee's input and evaluation.

6. Four one-and-one-half-hour sessions with a local church or Laity Residency Committee which would provide evaluation and support to the resident.

C. The Resident, District Superintendent, Counseling Elder, and Peer Group Facilitator would send letters by March 1 to the Registrar of the Division of Preparation and Qualifications. These letters would evaluate the Resident's growth relative to personal, spiritual, and professional issues and note areas of concern which need to be addressed during the second year of Residency.

D. The Resident would meet with the Division of Preparation and Qualifications during March. The division would vote on continuing probation into the second year of Residency. At this time, Residents would be informed of the specific areas of concern which they would need to address during the second year.

E. Information would be forwarded to the District Superintendent and Counseling Elder by the end of April concerning the specific areas which need to be addressed by the Resident during the second year.

Second Year of Residency (June - January)

A. The Resident would meet twice with the District Superintendent to address the stated areas of concern.

B. The Resident would meet monthly with the Counseling Elder to address the areas of concern and, if necessary, to prepare additional reflection papers.

C. The Resident would participate in at least one event during the second year with the first year Peer Group in order to emphasize the continuing importance of such peer relationships.

D. The Resident would develop a five-year continuing education plan for discussion with and approval by the Counseling Elder and District Superintendent.

E. The Resident would submit his or her required written work for Elder's Orders and full conference membership in December.

F. The Resident would meet for a formal interview with the Division of Preparation and Qualifications in January. If the Resident has not completed an internship or residency in a local church, the burden of demonstrating experience and competence in local church ministry would rest with the Resident.

G. If continued, the Resident would receive remedial recommendations following the interview.

Proposal developed by the Internship Task Force (Spurgeon M. Dunnam II, Chair, Chuck Cox, Barbara Marcum and Gary Mueller), and approved by the Division of Preparation and Qualifications and by the full Board of Ordained Ministry, May 4, 1989.

Desired Implementation:

Adoption by the Ministerial Executive Session of the North Texas Annual Conference.

If this program is adopted, it will take effect immediately. Candidates-in-process for whom this transition poses special difficulties may explain their situation to the Residency Committee which shall recommend to the Division of Preparation and Qualifications whether an exception should be made.

LA4 - FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

PREFACE

In 1988 apportionments were paid in full by 311 churches. The Council is most grateful for the helpful support of our connectional missions and ministries by all the churches of the Annual Conference.

Total dollars received for apportionments increased $255,588 in 1988 over 1987, a 4.5% increase. The final percentage of apportionments paid in 1988 was 93.0%, an increase of 2.2 percentage points over 1987.

Our giving to all connectional causes was $7,141,144, an increase of $100,624 over 1987 but $36,302 less than the total dollars received for all causes in 1986. Receipts for non-apportioned causes totaled $1,216,030, a decrease of $154,964 over 1987.

The 1988 year-end statistical reports from local churches show that local church total expenditures increased $1,153,639 from $51,187,362 in 1987 to $52,341,001 in 1988, increasing by 2.3%. Local church operating expenses accounted for $789,973 of the total increase (2.7%). Local church ministerial support increased $446,237, (4.3%).

Across the past decade ('78-'88) local church total expenditures have increased 110.0%, whereas total apportionments based on the decimal have increased only 74.1% across a comparable decade ('80-'90). The agencies of the Annual Conference have consistently cooperated with Finance and Administration to maintain frugal budgets so that the apportionments set by the Annual Conference have increased only 66.5%. The Council wishes to recognize and express appreciation for this cooperation.

The total percent of increase of the 1990 apportionments set by the Annual Conference is recommended at 2.3%, the same percent of increase as local church total expenditures in 1988. To attain this rate of increase, several apportionments have had to be reduced. In the past the actual budgets dependent upon these apportionments have been significantly less than the amount of the apportionments because the apportionments have not been paid 100%. Funds not received could not be expended. Concurrent with the decision to reduce selected 1990 apportionments must come the commitment to pay all apportionments 100%.

In light of this action the Council urgently recommends that especially in 1990 every church take seriously its connectional responsibility to pay 100% of all apportionments, with 10% of the annual amount remitted monthly.

Monthly payments of at least 10% of each church's annual apportionments has been a recommended goal for many years. As more and more churches attain this goal, the budgets of Conference agencies can be managed more efficiently with less loss of investment income. Annually by year-end almost a million dollars must be withdrawn from the Conference Central Treasury Investment Portfolio to meet the approved budget needs of the Conference agencies because the apportioned funds are not received on the 10% payment pattern.

Another continuing task persists. Because some churches might not be able to pay apportionments in full by year end, every church is asked to make a voluntary pledge of funds to be contributed to the District Second Mile Apportionment Fund Advance Special. Check with your district superintendent to learn more about how your church can help.

SECTION I. INFORMATION AND RECOMMENDATIONS

A. Information

1. Fidelity Bond for Local Churches

Again in 1989 (annually since 1985) the Council on Finance and Administration has purchased a fidelity bond policy to cover all persons authorized to handle local church funds in every church in the Annual Conference. In the unlikely event that a responsible person makes off with the church's money, the policy covers up to a $25,000 loss.

2. 1989 Statistical Report

After many years of careful study, the General Council on Finance and Administration has decided to make major changes beginning in 1989 in the statistical reports from local churches for publication in the Conference Journal. Although the information requested will be substantially the same, the alignment of the data will be significantly changed. The changed sequence of the 1989 apportionment reports from the Finance and Administration office already reflect the realignment of the statistical report.

3. Funds for Area Administration

In close cooperation with other responsible agencies Finance and Administration has effected appropiate budget adjustments to assist in establishing the new Dallas Episcopal Area with the coming of Bishop Bruce P. Blake as our own episcopal leader.

After the called Conference Session last August the Episcopal Residence was purchased by the Board of Trustees. Remodeling has proceeded under the direction of the Episcopal Residence Committee. In addition to the $20,000 mortgage downpayment $22,581.73 were expended in 1988 for closing costs, furnishings, repairs, maintenance, utilities, insurance, and monthly mortgage payments.

Many of the functions previously performed through the Area Assistant's Office are now handled by an administrative secretary in the Area Office. Funding for these services has come from the adjusted budgets for Area and Conference Administration without requiring apportionment increases. Also included in these adjusted budgets (without apportionment increases) are the funding responsibilities our Conference assumed when we became a separate Area. The total expended in 1988 was $21,652.10, including $15,204.00 for the Counseling Ministries' deficit.

4. United Methodist Building

The benefits of the United Methodist Building for the whole Annual Conference continue to increase as the facility is used and diversified more and more. The total expenditures in 1988, the first full fiscal year of occupancy, were $29,253.09 on a balanced budget.

Tax exemption for the facility was granted through legal channels because of the initiative by the Conference Board of Trustees, saving the Annual Conference thousands of dollars.

5. Investment Earnings

In 1988 the investment earnings of the Central Treasury Portfolio totaled $145,875.76. From these investment earnings designated trust funds within the Portfolio were paid $48,425.55. The Finance and Administration Office received $96,940.56 (plus $11,316.26 from apportioned funds and other revenues) for operating expenses, including the computer system and administrative services. The balance of the investment earnings $509.65 went into the Councils' holding account.

6. Personnel Policies Study

With the cooperation of all Conference agencies which employ staff personnel and the encouragement of Bishop Blake, Finance and Administration has created a Personnel Policies Study Committee to work together toward establishing "uniform and equitable policies and practices in the employment and compensation of personnel". The initial focus of the Committee has been on support staff personnel before attempting to enlarge the study to include all agencies staff personnel.

B. Recommendations

1. Loan from Conference Reserves for Wesley Village

That authorization be granted for the release of $103,695 from Conference Reserves prior to June 9, 1989, for a loan to be negotiated by the Council on Finance and Administration with the United Methodist Retirement Homes of North Texas, Inc. on recommendation of the Council on Ministries to provide interim financial assistance to Wesley Village, a United Methodist Retirement Home in Denison, Texas.

2. Request for a Called Session of the Annual Conference

That a called session of the North Texas Annual Conference be authorized prior to December 9, 1989, to receive appropiate background information, current financial and operating data, and detailed delineations of possible future developments of the Wesley Village facilities with specific budget projections.

SECTION II. RECOMMENDED GOALS TO LOCAL CHURCHES

A. That a minimum of 25% of the total annual budgets of the local churches be designated for causes beyond the local church.

B. That local churches consider the challenge to advance in spiritual strength toward the long-term goal of "one dollar for us and one dollar for others" in establishing the operating and the beyond-the-local-church portions of their annual budgets.

C. That local churches plan to remit at least 10% of their annual apportionments before the 15th of each month beginning in February.

D. That apportionments be given first claim by local churches in their beyond-the-local-church payments with advance specials and other benevolences viewed as second-mile giving.

E. That local churches assist in achieving 100% payment of all apportionments for connectional ministries and missions in every district through voluntary contributions to the District Second-Mile Apportionment Fund.

SECTION III. COMPENSATION FOR SUPERINTENDENTS AND DIRECTORS - 1990

A. 1987 Conference Action

After many years of study and discussion, the Annual Conference voted in 1987 to establish a formula to determine the annual percent of change in the compensation of the District Superintendents and Conference Directors, "indexed to the average percent of compensation increase or decrease for that fiscal year of all clergy appointed to local churches as recorded on the cabinet's current appointment worksheet."

The formula established in 1987 was to take effect in 1989 without a compensation increase in 1988 for District Superintendents and Conference Directors as an example for local churches to hold the line on salaries during the economic downturn.

B. Bishop Blake's Concern

At the Finance and Administration Council meeting on December 2, 1988, Bishop Blake expressed his concern that the compensation of the District Superintendents and Conference Directors was lower than he had expected in positioning on the appointment worksheet as well as in comparison with compensation in other annual conferences. Bishop Blake encouraged the Council to begin an immediate study.

The compensation study of base salaries of District Superintendents in the other four annual conferences in Texas showed that the average for 1989 is $50,572 compared with $44,447 in North Texas.

Central Texas	$59,290
Texas	55,900
Northwest Texas	45,100
Southwest Texas	41,999

Although fringe benefits varied from conference to conference, it was determined that the benefits differences were minor with one exception: all except North Texas reimbursed travel expenses by voucher. Only North Texas provided a set travel allowance.

C. Further Study of Statistical Data

In an attempt to compare salary levels of the District Superintendents with those of local church pastors, statistical data were studied for the decade 1978 - 1988. The Conference Average Salary as maintained by the General Board of Pensions for the North Texas Conference increased from $13,305 in 1978 to $29,391 in 1988: 120.9%. The total dollars reported in the 1978 statistics paid to local church pastors for salary and travel was $2,791,973; in 1988 $6,063,963, an increase of 117.2%. The total paid District Superintendents for salary and travel in 1978 was $22,800; in 1988 $48,036, an increase of 110.9%.

D. Local Church Increases on Appointment Worksheets

Because the study showed that the compensation of the District Superintendents had lagged across the decade almost 10 percentage points behind the averages for the Annual Conference as well as more than $6,000 behind the 1989 average of the other annual conferences in Texas, the 1989 appointment worksheet totals were compared with those of 1987 as well as with 1988. Whereas the two-year worksheet increase was 10.5%, only a 4.6% increase for District Superintendents was granted in 1989 because of the 1987 Conference decision not to grant a 1988 increase.

Consideration of a 5.9% catch-up increase for 1988 now appears appropriate in 1990 to offset the decade long shortfall of almost 10 percentage points.

E. Catch-Up Increase for 1988

If a 5.9% increase had been granted ($42,492 X 5.9 = $2,507), the 1988 salary would have been $44,999 and the 1989 salary ($44,999 X 4.6 = $2,070) $47,069 instead of $44,447. Likewise the 1988 travel allowance ($5,544 X 5.9 = $327) would have been $5,871 and the 1989 ($5,871 X 4.6 = $270) would have been $6,141 instead of $5,799.

F. Travel Reimbursement Rather Than Allowance

In keeping with the IRS regulation for claiming professional travel expense deduction as well as the practices of all other annual conferences in Texas, the Council recommends that beginning in 1990 all professional travel expenses of District Superintendents and Conference Directors be vouchered for reimbursement at 24 cents per mile for the first 15,000 miles and 11 cents per mile thereafter according to IRS guidelines.

G. Salary Adjustment Related to Travel Reimbursement

For many years all District Superintendents and Conference Directors have received a prescribed travel allowance without direct reference to the number of miles traveled. Because the superintendents of four districts (DS, PS, SM, WF) have had to travel greater distances than the other three, those four districts had been authorized to pay additional travel costs from their district funds. A review of the 1988 travel logs of all superintendents showed that 15,000 miles constituted a fair base average.

Figuring 15,000 miles X 24 cents, $3,600 would have been the standard amount for the 1989 travel allowance rather than $6,141 (including the 1988 catch-up increase). Subtracting $3,600 from $6,141, $2,541 would be appropriately added to $47,069 (the 1989 salary including the 1988 catch-up increase) so that the adjusted 1989 salary would become $49,610.

H. Salary Recommendation for 1990

The Council recommends that the adjusted (but not paid) 1989 salary of $49,610 be set as the base compensation in computing the 1990 increase or decrease indexed to the 1990 appointment worksheet total increase or decrease.

I. Responsibility for Funding Travel Expenses

The Council recommends that beginning in 1990 Annual Conference funds rather than District funds be used to reimburse all travel expenses for District Superintendents and Conference Directors related to Conference and District events according to Conference administrative guidelines established in consultation between the Council and the Cabinet. It is expected that district budgets will be accordingly decreased where in the past District monies have been used to reimburse travel expenses.

J. Responsibility for Funding Conference Events Expenses

The Council recommends that beginning in 1990 Annual Conference funds rather than District funds be used to reimburse District Superintendents for their expenses incurred in attendance at Conference events, such as meetings of the Cabinet, Conference agencies, leadership and program events, etc. according to Conference administrative guidelines with corresponding decreases in District budgets.

K. Funding Responsibilities

The Council recommends that district budgets continue to provide for parsonage, housing and utilities expenses, as well as for expenses related to district events, continuing education, etc., for District Superintendents and that Conference budgets continue to provide for similar expenses for Conference Directors.

L. Utilities Expenses

The Council recommends that beginning in 1990 utilities expenses related to housing for District Superintendents and Conference Directors be reimbursed by voucher rather than by monthly set allowance.

M. Housing Allowance

Careful consideration has been given to the question of the fair amount for an annual housing allowance for the two District Superintendents and three Conference Directors who do not have parsonages. Based on a detailed study of housing costs and the range of housing allowances paid by local churches, $15,000 is recommended as the housing allowance for these superintendents and directors in 1990.

N. Cabinet-Level Status

Because Conference Directors positions were established with cabinet-level status many years ago, it is to be understood that all principles stated above related to District Superintendents apply to Conference Directors.

O. 1990 District Superintendents' Fund Apportionment

For the purpose of computing the 1990 apportionment an estimated base salary of $51,100 (a possible 3% increase indexed to the 1990 appointment worksheet) has been used to determine that $357,700 will be needed for the compensation base. The amount for pensions (indexed to the DAC) is $22,700; for travel reimbursement $30,150; and for professional expenses $7,000. The total apportionment recommended is $417,550, an increase of 8.65% over 1989 with expected appropriate decreases in district funds amounts to offset the increases picked up by the Annual Conference for travel and professional expenses reimbursement.

D. Percentages of Increase

1. Apportionments from General Conference	4.7%
2. Apportionments from Jurisdictional Conference	13.9%
3. Apportionments from Annual Conference	2.6%
Total All Causes	3.3%

E. Explanations of Proposed Changes

1. General Conference Funds

Apportionments set by the General Conference were established in 1988 for the quadrennium . Our Annual Conference cannot change these amounts. The total percentage increase for the whole church was 4.13% in 1990. Because of the growth factors in our Annual Conference decimal, our increase is 4.7%.

2. Jurisdictional Conference Funds

Apportionments set by the Jurisdictional Conference were also established in 1988 for the quadrennium. The large percentage increase in 1990 stems from the addition of $6,591 to the Mt. Sequoyah Apportionment for the construction of a new Conference Center on the campus in Fayettville, Arkansas.

3. Annual Conference Funds

a. Conference Claimants Fund

The 5% increase for the Comprehensive Protection Plan indexed to the Denominational Average Compensation is the only segment of this apportionment that the Board of Pensions has requested be changed.

b. District Superintendents' Fund

The detailed recommendations for 1990 including the 1988 catch-up increase and other adjustments are found in Section III above.

c. Equitable Salary Fund

In 1988 this apportionment was radically decreased because of the accumulated ending balance, knowing that increases would have to be made in 1989 and 1990.

d. Conference Insurance

A 5% increase ($54,140) is recommended for 1990, the first increase since 1986. Although the Commission on Insurance requested a 16% increase ($173,226), the smaller increase is recommended because of lack of sufficient information related to the application of the increased premium to the apportionment as well as the commitment of Finance and Administration to keep increases within the guidelines of a 2.3% total increase of all apportionments set by the Annual Conference. In the event that additional funds must be made available for 1990, a called session of the Annual Conference in the fall might become the occasion to reconsider this recommendation.

e. Conference and Area Staff

The 4.8% increase is in part the anticipation of a possible 3% increase in the 1990 local churches clergy compensation on the appointment worksheets as well as for the 1988 catch-up increases and other adjustments found in Section III above. The proposed redistribution of the amounts listed under this apportionment is explained in Section V below.

f. Conference Program

No increase is recommended in the total or in the component parts of this apportionment. On the contrary significant decreases are recommended for this and the next five apportionments.

For more than two decades these six apportionments and their related predecessors have consistently not been paid in full by the close of each fiscal year. Consequently, budgeting for the agencies dependent upon these apportionments has had to be adjusted, sometimes radically, in order to bring expenditures in line with available funds. Funds not received could not be spent.

Based on the expectation that all apportionments will be paid 100% in 1990, these six apportionments have been reduced by $98,637 which is approximately 50% of the 1988 total unpaid amounts of these six. The recommended commitment to the agencies dependent upon receipts from these apportionments is that by reducing their 1990 apportionments by 50% of the dollars they should have but did not receive in 1988, their 1990 budgets will actually be increased by approximately that amount. Vigorous support of the District Second Mile Apportionment Funds is recommended as a safety net in the event that some churches may not have financial means to pay their apportionments 100%. A concern that churches which have consistently paid their apportionments in full have been required to pay a little more than their share to make up for those not paying 100% has often been expressed in the past. These reductions with 100% payment by all in the future will be the fair way for every church.

The recommended decrease is $27,118 for this apportioment.

The proposed redistribution of the sub-amounts listed under this apportionment is explained in Section V below.

g. Camping and Retreat

The recommended decrease is $4,306 for this apportionment.

h. Texas Methodist Colleges

The recommended decrease is $20,709 for this apportionment.

i. Campus Ministries

The recommended decrease is $11,188 for this apportionment.

j. Church Development

The recommended decrease is $22,773 for the long-established apportionment for Church Development. The Ethnic Local Church Concerns segment is recommended as an additional $50,000 in keeping with the commitment to carry forward the mission and ministries of the Missional Priority of previous quadrenniums.

k. Community Ministries

The recommended decrease is $7,543 for this apportionment.

SECTION V. REALIGNMENT OF APPORTIONMENTS

A. Redistribution of Amounts from Selected Apportionments·

1. Background

Many years ago the Annual Conference established two apportionments (Conference Program and Conference and Area Staff) which in subsequent years have not been adjusted to stay in compliance with Book of Discipline guidelines and General Conference statistical requirements.

2. Conference Benevolences Apportionment

After considerable study and consultations with leaders of affected agencies, the Council recommends that the Conference Program Apportionment (Discipline 710.3c) hereafter be replaced by the Conference Benevolences Apportionment which will include budgeted funds for programs and mission concerns of the agencies of the Council on Ministries as well as for administration and staff related expenses of these agencies. Funds ($390,988 less $12,095 for Campus Ministers benefits = $378,893) designated for the Council on Ministries in the former Conference Program Apportionment and funds ($194,265) from the Conference and Area Staff Apportionment for Council on Ministries staff will be combined into the Conference Benevolences Apportionment of $573,158.

3. Area and Conference Administration Apportionment

The next steps in redistributing the amount of selected apportionments is to eliminate the Conference and Area Staff Apportionment and establish the required Area and Conference Administration Apportionment (Discipline 710.2). This apportionment will total $250,258 with $114,537 from the former Conference and Area Staff and $135,721 from the former Conference Program.

4. Church Development Apportionment

In addition to the already established amount of $292,750 for Church Development projects and administration, $109,826 is to be transferred from the former Conference and Area Staff apportionment for Church Development staff and $50,000 will be added for Ethnic Local Church Concerns to create a new combined total of $452,576.

5. Campus Ministries

The campus ministers' compensation ($186,372) from the former Conference and Area Staff Apportionment plus $12,095 from the former Conference Program Apportionment for campus ministers' benefits are to be added to the Campus Ministries program unit support funds ($124,892) resulting in $323,359 as the Campus Ministries Apportionment for 1990.

B. Realigned Listing of 1990 Apportionments Set by the Annual Conference

For future references to this redistribution of amounts from selected apportionments and for convenience in continuing record keeping, the following realigned list of 1990 apportionments is presented in conformity with the current changes in the local church statistical reports mandated by the General Council on Finance and Administration.

1. Conference Benevolences (Council On Ministries)	$ 573,158
$378,893 - Agencies Budgets
194,265 - Professional Staff
2. Church Development	452,576
$292,750 - Agencies Budgets
109,826 - Professional Staff
50,000 - Ethnic Local Church
3. Texas Methodist Colleges	198,922
4. Campus Ministries	323,359
$124,892 - Ministries Budgets
198,467 - Professional Staff
5. Camping and Retreat	55,694
6. Community Ministries	96,386
7. Area and Conference Administration	250,258
$135,721 - Agencies Budgets
114,537 - Professional Staff
8. Conference Claimants	913,826
$550,000 - Unfunded Liability
327,185 - Comprehensive Protection
36,641 - Operating Expenses

9. District Superintendents	417,550
$357,700 - Base Compensation
22,700 - Pension
30,150 - Travel Reimbursement
7,000 - Professional Expense
10. Equitable Salary	87,000
11. Conference Insurance	1,136,800
TOTAL	$4,505,529

SECTION VI. GUIDELINES FOR COMPUTATION OF 1990 APPORTIONMENTS FOR LOCAL CHURCHES

A. Formula for Two-Part Decimal:

1/3 membership and 2/3 finance

B. Procedure for Computation of Decimal for Each Church:

The membership part is computed by dividing the total 1988 church membership of the Annual Conference (less the discontinued churches = 150,095) into the 1988 membership of each church. This becomes the church's membership decimal.

The finance part is computed by adding the amounts of the operating expenses reported by each church in columns 35, 36a, 38b, 39b, 40a and b, 41a and b of the 1988 Statistician's Report. (No funds reported in other statistical columns are included in this computation.) This total is then divided by the Conference total of these same columns (less the discontinued churches = $28,244,563). This becomes the local church's finance decimal.

The finance decimal is doubled. The membership decimal is added to the doubled finance decimal. This total is divided by three to become the apportionment decimal.

C. Procedure for Computation of Apportionments for Each Church:

The apportionment decimal for each church is multiplied by the Conference total of each apportionment to determine the amount that church is asked to pay toward the apportionment.

D. Margin for Correction:

To assure that 100% of the amount of each apportionment will be distributed to the churches, no more than one quarter of one percent may be added to each apportionment when needed.

LA5 - STANDING RULES

SUBJECT: RECOMMENDATIONS TO AMEND STANDING RULES 7, 14, AND 15

FROM: COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

PROPOSAL: That Rule 7 be deleted in its entirety because of duplication with paragraphs 715.1 and 712 in the 1988 BOOK OF DISCIPLINE.

PROPOSAL: That in keeping with current terminology Rule 14 be amended to read (deletions underlined, additions in CAPITALS):

The District Superintendent shall be required to report district statistics to the Statistical Secretary CONFERENCE STATISTICIAN.

PROPOSAL: That in keeping with current terminology and practice Rule 15 A., B., and C. be amended to read:

Section A. Each church and pastor shall submit the Annual Conference report to the District Auditor for auditing on the CHECK-OUT Day specified by the District Superintendent CABINET.

Section B. Each District Superintendent, upon nomination of the Conference Statistician, shall appoint a District Auditor, whose responsibility it shall be to audit the Annual Conference reports. The District Auditor shall prepare these reports in correct form on the blank provided by the Conference Statistician and shall deliver them to the Statistical Secretary no later than 30 days IMMEDIATELY following the District Check-Out Day TO THE CONFERENCE STATISTICIAN.

Section C. The Conference Treasurer's books shall be closed annually AT 3:00 P.M. on January 8 (or the closest working day), and no funds received by the Conference Treasurer after that date TIME shall apply on that year's Conference Apportionments OF THE YEAR JUST COMPLETED.

PROPOSAL: That because of the change in the annual Moving Day for pastors, the fourth sentence of rule 15 D. be amended to read:

When a pastoral change comes at Annual Conference, the salary of the previous appointment shall be paid through May 31 JUNE 15, and the salary in the new appointment shall begin June 1 JUNE 16.

SUBJECT: AMEND STANDING RULE 3, SECTION ON THE BOARD OF CHURCH DEVELOPMENT (pgs. 219-220, 1988 Journal) TO INCLUDE THE COMMITTEE ON ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS (ELCC) AND TO BRING THE REMAINDER OF THE STANDING RULE IN CONFORMITY WITH THIS CHANGE.

FROM: BOARD OF CHURCH DEVELOPMENT

AMENDMENT:

1. Delete from para. 1, the phrase, "refer to the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE."

2. In para. 2, after the words, "its three divisions", add and the committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns."

3. Para. 3 - The Board shall consist of the combined memberships of its three divisions and the Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns. The chairperson of the board and its divisions and committee....."

4. Add new paragraph at end of Church Development section. In addition to the three divisions the Board of Church Development shall include a Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns. The Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns shall be constituted and shall function in accordance with the current Book of DISCIPLINE.
The Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns shall be composed of 12 persons, including one (1) representative from each district and a Cabinet representative, and including four at-large members nominated by the Committee and elected by the Board.
The following persons shall serve as ex-officio members, with voice but no vote: representatives from the Council on Finance and Administration and the Council on Ministries; chairpersons of Religion and Race, Asian Commission, and Commission on the Black Church.

RATIONALE: The DISCIPLINE prescribes that "The Committee shall be comprised of one-third laywomen, one-third laymen, and one-third clergy. At least one-half of this Committee shall be racial/ethnic persons, where feasible." The suggested membership including the four additional members will enable the committee to be faithful to the Disciplinary requirements. The ex-officio membership will enable the Committee to relate appropriately to other ethnic agencies in the development of a comprehensive plan.

SUBJECT: REVISION OF STANDING RULE 3
THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

FROM: CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

PROPOSAL: Eliminate second paragraph in current standing rule (Page 217, 1988 Annual Conference Journal)

RATIONALE: The elimination of this paragraph brings the Trustees into conformity with the current Discipline.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:
To vote approval of this deletion.

SUBJECT: AMENDMENT OF THE STANDING RULE 3

FROM: COMMISSION ON ASIAN MINISTRIES

PROPOSAL: To amend paragraph 2, first sentence to read: The Commission shall be composed of 12 persons: one third clergy, one-third laymen, one-third lay-women, and at least two-thirds of the members shall be Asian.

This will change the membership from 13 to 12 and will delete the phrase "Including The Chairperson."

RATIONALE: The membership does not need to include the membership of the chairperson as this action is cared for in Standing Rule 3, the last sentence of paragraph 4.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:
To vote this amendment.

SUBJECT: AMENDMENT OF STANDING RULES RELATING TO THE COMMISSION ON COMMUNICATIONS AND RESOURCES (see page 221 in 1988 Journal)

FROM: COMMISSION ON COMMUNICATIONS AND RESOURCES

PROPOSAL: That the first paragraph under the heading. "The Commission on Communications and Resources," be amended to read as follows:

The Commission on Communications and Resources shall be composed of 21 persons, including at least 3 persons from each district (one lay woman, one lay man, and one clergy). In addition, the Commission may elect up to five members at-large who are professional communicators. It shall fulfill responsibilities stated in the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE and such other responsibilities as may be assigned by the Council on Ministries.

RATIONALE: In order to fulfill the varied responsibilities assigned to the Commission (Print Media, Telecommunications, Conference Resource Center), additional members are needed.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: Approval of the 1989 Session of The North Texas Annual Conference.

THE COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

FROM: COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

PROPOSAL: To amend second sentence to read:

It shall be composed of 21 persons, including three persons from each district, a lay woman, a lay man, and a clergy, one of whom shall be designated by the District Superintendant to be the District Director of Religion and Race.

RATIONALE: To make the Standing Rule consistent with the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE in calling for the one-third ruling and placing on the Commission the District Director of Religion and Race, a position that is now mandated by the DISCIPLINE.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:

To vote approval of this statement.

SUBJECT: AMENDMENT OF STANDING RULE 3
THE AGENDA COMMITTEE

FROM: THE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS

PROPOSAL: To amend the second paragraph to read:

It shall be composed of the Bishop, the District Superintendents, the conference lay leader, and sufficient additional members to provide equal representation of the lay and clergy with attention to gender, race, and age distribution. The Chairperson and additional members shall be named by the Bishop.

RATIONALE: To make the Standing Rule consistent with the current book of DISCIPLINE, (par. 704.2) and current practice.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:
To vote approval of this amendment.

SUBJECT: AMENDMENT OF STANDING RULE 3 RELEVANT TO THE AGENDA COMMITTEE

FROM: THE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS

PROPOSAL: That the Standing Rules be amended to be identical to the 1988 DISCIPLINE, PARAGRAPH 704.2, with the following words added:

"The Annual Conference, to expedite the transaction of its business, may adopt an agenda as a basis of its procedure. Such agenda shall be prepared by the bishop, the district superintendents, the conference lay leader and such others as the conference may name, and shall be submitted to the conference for adoption."

Sufficient additional members will provide equal representation of lay and clergy with attention to gender, race, and age distribution. The Chairperson and additional members shall be named by the Bishop.

RATIONALE: To bring the Standing Rules into conformity with the current DISCIPLINE, and to enable the Bishop, as President of the Conference, to supervise the work of the Agenda Committee.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:
The approval of this amendment by the North Texas Annual Conference.

SUBJECT: AMEND STANDING RULE 3, PARAGRAPH 6, (page 214, 1988 Journal) THAT PERTAINS TO AGENCY MEMBERSHIP EXCEPTIONS.

FROM: STANDING RULES COMMITTEE

PROPOSAL: Following the last sentence, "The following agencies should also be considered as exceptions:" delete all descriptive wording following the eight agency names. The new section would then read as follows:

a. According to the Current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE:
+COMMITTEE ON INVESTIGATION
+COMMITTEE ON EQUITABLE SALARIES
+JOINT REVIEW COMMITTEE
+BOARD OF LAITY
b. According to the nature of the group/agency:
+UNITED METHODIST MEN
+UNITED METHODIST WOMEN
+COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRIES
+COMMISSION ON ASIAN MINISTRIES

RATIONALE: To make the corrections from the references to the 1984 BOOK OF DISCIPLINE and provide the wording to eliminate the necessity to make these changes each quadrennium, as well as group the agencies under wording that removes repetitious phrases.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:
Adoption by the Annual Conference.

SUBJECT: CHANGE IN STANDING RULE #3, THE BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY, page 216-217, 1988 Journal

FROM: BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

PROPOSAL: A. To change the following:

1. In line 6 p.1, it will then read: It shall encourage and oversee the work of its THREE four divisions....

2. In line 1 of p.2, it will then read: The Board shall consists of no fewer than TWENTY FIVE (25) twenty eight (28) members.

B. To add the following:

4. The Division of Interpretation and Recruitment shall concern itself with the interpretation of the roles of Diaconal Ministry to the Annual Conference, its local churches, and its Boards and Agencies and the development of recruitment programs to interest persons to enter Diaconal Ministry.

RATIONALE: The Conference Board of Diaconal Ministry has the need for a fourth division to carry out the responsibilities of the Board as listed in p.734.3a, b, and c of the 1988 Discipline.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:
Adoption by the North Texas Annual Conference.

LA6 - RACIAL AND ETHNIC CONCERNS

SUBJECT: THIS TASK FORCE WAS CHARGED WITH THE RESPONSIBILITY OF EXAMINING THE PRESENT RACIAL/ETHNIC ISSUES OF THIS CONFERENCE AND OF MAKING RECOMMENDATIONS INTENDED TO IMPROVE INCLUSIVENESS.

FROM: THE TASK FORCE ON RACIAL/ETHNIC CONCERNS OF THE NORTH TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE

PROPOSALS:

1. Finding: There are only two African-American clergy (one an associate and one serving in a transitional community), one Hispanic clergy (serving as an associate), and no Asian clergy appointed to predominantly Anglo churches; and no Anglos appointed to predominantly ethnic churches.

   Recommendation: That the Bishop and Cabinet give a written statement to the Conference concerning their underlying philosophy for pursuing a more open itineracy for all clergy.

2. Finding: Out of all members on the various Conference boards and agencies there are 50 African-American, 1 Korean, 6 Philippine, 2 Cambodian, 2 Hispanic and 2 Cuban members. Most of the ethnic persons serve primarily on ethnic-related agencies.

   Recommendation: That the composition of our Conference boards and agencies be more racially inclusive and that our Nominating Committee be instructed to seek out more ethnic persons willing to serve.

3. Finding: Among Conference support staff (not including custodial staff) Bishop Blake's secretary is Anglo; the secretaries of the seven district superintendents are Anglo; Finance and Administration has two Anglo employees, one African-American employee; Council on Ministries has seven Anglo employees; Pensions and Insurance has one full-time and one part-time Anglo employee; the United Methodist Building has one African-American employee.

   Recommendation: That employment practices within the North Texas Conference demonstrate racial inclusiveness.

4. Finding: The EMLC, the Commissions on Asian Ministries and the Commission on the Black Church are made up predominantly of ethnic persons.

   Recommendation: That membership on these agencies be racially inclusive.

5. Finding: Racism is often more systemic than intentional.

   Recommendation: That all meetings within the Annual Conference be evaluated with a form for indicators of racism in an effort to raise consciousness.

6. Finding: The North Texas Annual Conference, in its various offices and agencies, invests and does business with many people.

   Recommendation: That the North Texas Annual Conference offices and agencies seek out ethnic financial institutions and businesses with the intent of investing and doing business with them.

7. Finding: Church-related institutions sometimes practice racism inadvertently.

Recommendation: That all church-related institutions supported by the North Texas Conference be asked to document inclusive practices.

8. Finding: There is an obvious recycling of leadership within the Conference agencies.

Recommendation: That methods be stated and implemented for recruiting new leaders who have a contemporary and inclusive approach for doing the work of the Conference.

9. Finding: There is a need for additional ethnic clergy.

Recommendation: That a method be developed for recruitment, encouragement and retention of ethnic persons for the ordained ministry.

10. Finding: Members of the various churches have little opportunity of getting to know each other and of working together.

Recommendations:

a. That partnership churches within the Conference be established after the model of Northaven and Warren.

b. That an inter-racial retreat and other events be planned for the purposes of developing strategies for working together.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:

a. That this report be adopted by the Annual Conference and assigned for implementation.

b, That the worship design team plan a service of worship which would emphasize the implementation of these imperatives.

c. That a study of racial/ethnic issues be undertaken by the Administrative Boards of all local churches within the North Texas Conference in at least one of their meetings during this conference year.

d. That at the next regular session of the annual conference there be an update by the Commission on Religion and Race regarding the implementation of these recommendations.

LA7 - LAITY SUNDAY

SUBJECT: LAITY SUNDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1989

FROM: BOARD OF LAITY

PROPOSAL: During the month of October, 1989, laity shall conduct Sunday services in all churches of the Conference.

RATIONALE: "Laity Sunday calls the church to celebrate the ministry of all lay Christians, as their lives are empowered for ministry by the Holy Spirit." Para. 275.2 Discipline.

The Board of Laity believes a lay led and preached service helps its lay leaders to experience and share their gifts while providing a more effective worship setting for celebrating the ministry of laity.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:

That each district superintendent and his clergy plan their own special clergy worship service for October 8, 1989.

That each local church lay leader and each local church pastor insure that his/her church holds a laity conducted service during the month of October, 1989.

LA8 - BOARD OF TRUSTEES

SUBJECT: Abandonment of Gunter United Methodist Church, Sherman-McKinney District

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

PROPOSAL: The congregation of the Gunter United Methodist Church, meeting in a properly constituted Church Conference according to the DISCIPLINE of the United Methodist Church, agrees to disband as an active congregation. Responsibility and title to the property shall be consigned to the Conference Board of Trustees on June 5, 1988.

RATIONALE: The congregation of Gunter UMC has diminished and can no longer continue as an active congregation.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:
The North Texas Conference Board of Trustees recommends the abandonment of Gunter UMC of the Sherman-McKinney District, and that the property be received by the Conference Board of Trustees. The disposition of the property is to be determined at a later date.

SUBJECT: Abandonment of Minter United Methodist Church, Paris-Sulphur Springs District

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

PROPOSAL: The congregation of the Minter United Methodist Church, meeting in a properly constituted Church Conference according to the DISCIPLINE of the United Methodist Church, agrees to disband as an active congregation. Be it resolved that the real property revert to the estate of the donor as the deed requires. In the event that all legal efforts, meeting all requirements of the laws of the State of Texas, fail to discover legal heirs, that steps be taken to deed all real property to the North Texas Conference Board of Trustees to retain or dispose of in the best interests of the mission and ministry of the North Texas Conference.

RATIONALE: The congregation of the Minter UMC has grown small in numbers and resources, and the small number of faithful makes it impossible to continue as an active congregation.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:
The North Texas Conference Board of Trustees recommends the abandonment of Minter UMC of the Paris-Sulphur Springs District, and that all legal efforts be made to contact the legal heirs. If in the event legal heirs cannot be located, the Conference Board of Trustees will receive the property and make provisions for disposition at a later date.

SUBJECT: Abandonment of Ravenna United Methodist Church, Sherman-McKinney District

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

PROPOSAL: The congregation of Ravenna United Methodist Church, meeting in a properly constituted Church Conference, according to the DISCIPLINE of the United Methodist Church, agrees to disband as an active congregation. All title and claim to the real property and buildings will be transferred to and for the use of the Conference Board of Trustees. Responsibility and title to the property shall be consigned to the Conference Board of Trustees on January 23, 1989.

RATIONALE: The congregation of Ravenna UMC has grown small in resources and number which makes it difficult to continue as an active congregation.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: The North Texas Conference Board of Trustees recommends the abandonment of Ravenna UMC of the Sherman-McKinney District, and that the property be received by the Conference Board of Trustees. The disposition of the property is to be determined at a later date.

SUBJECT: Discontinuance of First United Methodist Church, Ringgold, Wichita Falls District

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

PROPOSAL: The First UMC of Ringgold be discontinued in accordance with Paragraph 2548.1 of the 1988 Book of DISCIPLINE.

RATIONALE: This action is in accordance with the DISCIPLINE. There has been no service of worship or organization for more than a year. The 1988 apportionments were left unpaid.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: The North Texas Conference Board of Trustees recommends the discontinuance of First UMC, Ringgold, of the Wichita Falls District. The property is to be received by the North Texas Conference Board of Trustees and when that property is sold, the 1989 apportionments ($519) shall be paid from the sale proceeds.

SUBJECT: Abandonment of Weston United Methodist Church, Sherman-McKinney District

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

PROPOSAL: The congregation of the Weston United Methodist Church, meeting in a properly constituted Church Conference according to the DISCIPLINE of the United Methodist Church, agrees to disband as an active congregation. Responsibility and title to the property shall be consigned to the Conference Board of Trustees on January 8, 1989.

RATIONALE: The congregation of Weston UMC has diminished and can no longer continue as an active congregation.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:

The North Texas Conference Board of Trustees recommends the abandonment of Weston UMC of the Sherman-McKinney District, and that the property be received by the Conference Board of Trustees. The disposition of the property is to be determined at a later date.

SUBJECT: Sale of the Dye Mound property, Wichita Falls District.

FROM: North Texas Conference Board of Trustees.

PROPOSAL: The property at Dye Mound, entrusted to the Conference Board of Trustees, be sold for $1,500 to a newly established community center in Dye Mound. The Special Warranty Deed given to the community center will include a provision for reversion to the Conference Trustees in the event the property is no longer used as a Community Center.

RATIONALE: The Dye Mound UMC was abandoned in 1975. The intention expressed at that time was that the property should be used as a community center, with title to be placed in the hands of three trustees from the Dye Mound community and the pastor of the First UMC of Nocona, Texas; and, in the event the property ceased to be used as a community center, it would revert to the Trustees of the North Texas Conference. No action was taken to carry out this intention, and the property still rests in the hands of the Conference Trustees, subject to the direction of the Annual Conference, under the provisions of Par. 2548 of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (1988).

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:

The North Texas Conference Board of Trustees recommends the sale of the Dye Mound property to the newly established community center for $1,500. The Special Warranty Deed shall contain a reversionary clause in the event the property ceases to be a community center.

LA9 - GLOBAL MINISTRIES

SUBJECT: UNITED METHODIST COMMITTEE ON RELIEF

FROM: DIVISION ON NATIONAL AND WORLD OUTREACH

PROPOSAL: WHEREAS, 1990 will mark the 50th anniversary of the United Methodist Committee on Relief , and

WHEREAS, the United Methodist Committee on Relief has enabled members of The United Methodist Church to respond to the suffering of the world in Jesus' name, providing life-saving actions to people in crisis and despair, and

WHEREAS, the United Methodist Committee on Relief has involved United Methodist Church members in ministry with refugees and initiated and supported programs which work to alleviate the root causes of hunger,

THEREFORE, be it resolved that the North Texas Annual Conference affirms the history and work of the United Methodist Committee on Relief and commends the members of its United Methodist churches for their support of the United Methodist

Committee on Relief and encourages each local church to have 100% participation in giving to the One Great Hour of Sharing each year, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the North Texas Annual Conference reaffirms the mandate of the United Methodist Committee on Relief in relief, rehabilitation, root causes of hunger and refugee ministries and pledges its cooperation to enable each church to celebrate the 50 years of service of UMCOR and to dedicate support to the future work of this Committee.

RATIONALE: That the North Texas Annual Conference participate in the celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the United Methodist Committee on Relief.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:
Adoption of this proposal by the North Texas Annual Conference with the following action. "The UMCOR 50th Anniversary has set three goals for members of our church. They are (1) Each local church will recognize, celebrate and further commit itself to providing for the needs of the world through UMCOR. (2) Each local church will participate in and take the One Great Hour of Sharing offering. (3) Each local church will become involved in UMCOR's Advance Program through the 1-2-3 Challenge: (a) One cent a day per member to the UMCOR World Hunger Poverty Advance (b) two members of each local church join Bread for the World (or other education group); and (c) three hunger programs will be identified, studied and supported."

LA10 - RURAL CHURCH

SUBJECT: That 1990 be designated as "The Year of the Rural Church".

FROM: The Division of Town and Country Ministries, Board of Church Development, of the North Texas Conference.

PROPOSAL: At the beginning of 1989, 153 (43.4%) of the churches in the North Texas Conference had a membership of less than 100; 225 (63.9%) of the churches had a membership of less than 250. Of the total number of churches, 354, 205 (58.2%) were located outside the Metropolitan Statistical Area. With the exception of ten of these churches outside the Metropolitan Statistical Area, all are considered to be Town and Country Churches.

The North Texas Conference had its roots in rural north and east Texas. Recent shifts in population, and the continuing migration of rural folks to the metropolitan area has created much stress and anxiety for some rural churches. Some struggled to survive, others are stable, and others are showing signs of renewal and growth. All these churches are to be recognized and commended for their abiding presence, ministry, and mission in rapidly changing areas.

In 1940, the United Methodist Rural Fellowship was born. This national organization has continued to give guidance, encouragement, and support to rural churches throughout Methodism. We encourage recognition of the work of the United Methodist Rural Fellowship and continued support from the North Texas Conference to those who labor in service to rural churches and communities.

RATIONALE: With the designation of 1990 as "The Year of the Rural Church", the division of Town and Country Ministries and the Board of Church Development, would develop programs which would celebrate the 50th anniversary of the United Methodist Rural Fellowship; encourage exchange programs between rural and urban churches to help bring about better understanding between both cultures; highlight ministries in rural areas; and give special attention to strengthening and/or redeveloping rural churches to be more effective in ministry.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: Adoption by the North Texas Conference.

LA11 - CHURCH AND SOCIETY

SUBJECT: ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUG CONCERNS

FROM: BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

RATIONALE: Whereas, the 1988 General Conference directed "the General Board of Church and Society to continue its growing ministry in this area and provide a stronger program by establishing a Standing Committee on Alcohol and Other Drugs within its structure, making available staff and resources" (1988 BOOK OF RESOLUTIONS, page 152).

Whereas, this Standing Committee is charged to work in the following areas:
1. To encourage the personal policy of abstinence as the most effective method currently available for the prevention of alcohol and drug addiction and other problems related to the use of these substances.
2. To urge the further development and expanded use of available materials and resources provided through the Call to Care.
3. To work toward the banning of advertising of all alcoholic beverages on radio and television.
4. To request all United Methodist seminaries to give emphasis to abstinence as a faithful witness by preparing and sensitizing future pastors and other students to the problems of alcohol and drug use.
5. To give special attention to promoting on college campuses the alcohol--free lifestyle.
6. To report to the 1992 General Conference their efforts to implement this resolution.

ACTION: Therefore, be it resolved by the North Texas Annual Conference that:

We hereby request of the General Board of Church and Society that the funds from the endowment of the former Board of Temperance be made available as needed to accomplish the stated objectives of this Standing Committee.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:
Adoption by the Annual Conference.

SUBJECT: ARMS REDUCTION NEGOTIATIONS

FROM: BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

RATIONALE: Whereas, the United Methodist Council of Bishops in their 1986 pastoral letter and foundation document, IN DEFENSE OF CREATION, stated their support for:

+An unequivocal reaffirmation of both the purposes and provisions of the Anti-Ballistic Missile (ABM) Treaty of 1972.
+The earliest possible negotiation by the United States and the Soviet Union of phased but rapid reduction of nuclear arsenals, accompanied by agreements for parallel nuclear arms reduction by all other nuclear-weapon states.
+Negotiations to reduce conventional arms, including mutual force reductions in Europe and the arms trade in the Third World.
+Treaties outlawing the production, possession, and use of chemical and biological weapons.

Whereas, since the United Methodist Bishops spoke in 1986, (1) the United States and the Soviet Union have negotiated, ratified, and started to implement a treaty to eliminate intermediate-range nuclear forces (INF), (2) the two superpowers have continued Strategic Arms Reduction Talks (START), (3) they have joined with their allies in NATO and the Warsaw Pact to commence negotiations aimed at reducing Conventional Armed Forces in Europe (CAFE), (4) the Soviet Union has announced a uni-lateral, ten percent reduction of its armed forces, and (5) international negotiations on banning chemical weapons are underway.

ACTION: Therefore, we resolve to:

+Call upon President George Bush to continue to provide creative leadership for prompt and effective negotiations of treaties for both nuclear and conventional (to include chemical and biological) arms reduction.

+Call upon President Mikhail Gorbachev of the Soviet Union to follow through on announced force reduction and withdrawal of forces from Eastern Europe and to continue to cooperate in prompt and effective negotiations of nuclear and conventional (including chemical and biological) arms reduction treaties.

+Urge United Methodists of the North Texas Conference to write to President Bush and President Gorbachev, encouraging them to provide the leadership necessary for avoiding military confrontation and moving toward complete nuclear disarmament and substantial reduction of conventional forces.

+Invite United Methodists of the North Texas Conference to join with other concerned peacemakers in the United States, the U.S.S.R., and other countries in linking George Bush and Mikhael Gorbachev in daily prayer - preferably at noon (or any other time when one is best able), using the prayer suggested by United Methodist minister Richard Deats of the Fellowship of Reconciliation, as contained in the brochure, "Linking Bush and Gorbachev to the Love of God."

"O Divine Spirit, whose light fills the universe and all living things, we lift up to your presence Mikhael Gorbachev and George Bush. Illumine them with light; inspire their decisions. Guide their actions that the nations they lead may turn from the insanity of the arms race to the healing of the earth and the meeting of human needs. Amen."

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:
Adoption by the North Texas Annual Conference.

SUBJECT: REALLOCATION OF NATIONAL RESOURCES

FROM: BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

RATIONALE: Whereas, the United Methodist Council of Bishops in their 1986 pastoral letter and foundation document, IN DEFENSE OF CREATION, expressed their concern for development and deployment of space-based defense and explained:
+We are impressed by the doubts of many eminent scientists.
+We are concerned about the possible offensive implications.
+We are worried about the consequences for arms reduction.
+We are appalled at the probable costs.
+And we remember once again how often the Scriptures warn us against false hopes for peace and security.

Whereas, President Reagan and President Bush have both advocated a vigorous research and development program for the Strategic Defense Initiative (SDI), the U.S. Congress has continued to appropriate more than $4 billion a year for this purpose, land the Defense Department is pressing for early deployment of space-based weapons.

Whereas, the skepticism of scientists about feasibility of effective space-based defense continues, and the enormous cost of deploying such a system would adversely affect allocation of national resources for urgent human needs.

Whereas, the North Texas Annual Conference in its 1987 session adopted a resolution calling for "work toward the vision of Shalom which has been developing across the Church" (1987 JOURNAL, page 134), and the 1988 General Conference adopted Peace with Justice as a Special Program during the 1989-92 quadrennium with an objective of "provision of greater economic opportunity, affordable housing, adequate food, and proper health care for poor people, displaced industrial workers, displaced farmers, and other persons faced with economic insecurity" (1988 BOOK OF RESOLUTIONS, page 560).

ACTION: Therefore, we resolve to:

+Call upon the Congress to enact legislation which would reallocate funds now being used for the development, testing, production, and deployment of any space-based weapons, and for the testing of any antisattelite (ASAT) weapon whether based on land, sea, air or space--as long as the Soviet Union does not test ASATs or develop space-based weapons--so that these funds could be used to meet urgent human needs.

+Urge the President to negotiate with the Soviet Union to achieve a permanent, verifiable treaty banning all weapons in space and to begin discussions in the United Nations to extend this space weapons ban to all nations.

+Call upon United Methodists in the North Texas Conference to contact their U.S. senators and representatives to work for such legislation and to write to the President urging such actions.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:
Adoption of this proposal by the North Texas Annual Conference.

SUBJECT: CENTRAL AMERICAN MINISTRY

RATIONALE:

The Body of Christ continues to cry for justice in Central America while political responses promise only a continuation of pain. As we are members of one Body along with the people of Central America their pain and their cry are ours. God defines our role as advocates for the people of Central America when, through Paul the apostle we are told that God reconciled us and, "gave us the ministry of reconciliation." (II Cor. 5:18)

Since the 1988 assembly of the North Texas Conference the Central American Ministry Task Group has worked in cooperation with the Conference Board of Church and Society and the Conference Board of Global Ministries to carry out the charge of the Conference by fashioning a model for "the ministry of reconciliation" relative to accompanying report entitled, "PAZ Volume II: Piecing the Puzzle Together" defines that model in detail.

On February 8, 1989, Ms. Nancy Wilson Boye was commissioned by Bishop Bruce Blake to be a missionary of the United Methodist Church. She has been assigned to work with the ecumenical Church in El Salvador with the principle responsibility of developing covenant relationships between United Methodist Churches in North America and churches in El Salvador.

Holy Covenant United Methodist Church and Northaven United Methodist Church are presently in a covenant relationship with a Roman Catholic parish in San Salvador. Initiated by the parish in El Salvador that covenant is growing and bearing the fruit of God's reconciliation. Those congregations are to be affirmed for their engagement in mission. It is vital though that their efforts be interpreted as something more than an independent act of ministry. Commissioned by this Conference they have tested a model that is to be refined and replicated by local churches across North Texas. To that end the following resolution is proposed.

ACTION: Be it resolved that the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church assembled on June 4 - 7, 1989, in Dallas, Texas:

1. Continue the work of the Central American Ministry Task Group as appointed by the Conference Board of Church and Society and the Conference Board of Global Ministries.

2. Continue to recognize Proyecto Adelante as a North Texas Conference Advance special with the approval of the Conference Board of Global Ministries.

3. Recognize Nancy Boye as a commissioned missionary to El Salvador of the General Board of Global Ministries.

4. Continue financial assistance to local church Central American ministries through the Board of Church and Society.

5. Establish district representatives for Central American ministries through appointment by the District Superintendents to be members of the Central American Ministries Task Group and coordinate ministries of education, witness, and mission.

6. Establish March 18, 1990 as Central American Sunday for the purpose of uniting in solidarity with the suffering people of Central America and responding to our scriptural mandate to be ministers of reconciliation.

7. Affirm the Esquipulas II Peace Plan (authored by President Oscar Arias).

8. Organize "The Bishop's Trip" to El Salvador for the purpose of refining the relationship between the North Texas Conference and the ecumenical Church of El Salvador; to update information regarding the reality faced by the church there; and to identify congregations that are seeking a covenant relationship with North American congregations.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:

1. A report on the work of Proyecto Adelante to be included in the August mid-monthly mailing.

2. A report on the ministry of Ms. Nancy Boye and a request for support be included in the September mid-monthly mailing.

3. Central American Ministry Task Group to provide worship and education resources for use on the Central American Sunday, March 18, 1990.

4. Details of "The Bishop's Trip" be sent to all churches in the North Texas Conference.

5. Instruct the Secretary of the North Texas Conference to send a letter voicing our continued support for the Esquipulas II Peace Plan to the President of the United States, the US Senators from Texas, and the Representatives from congregational districts in the geographical area of the North Texas Conference.

SUBJECT: CENTRAL AMERICAN REFUGEES

FROM: BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

RATIONALE: Whereas, the Gospels call us to act with compassion and justice in the midst of continuing agony and struggle for Central American refugees and the people of the Lower Rio Grande Valley; and

Whereas, the situation concerning the plight of Central American Refugees in the Lower Rio Grande Valley has reached the point of major crisis; and

Whereas, the United Methodist Church has consistently supported those sisters and brothers fleeing danger, civil strife, and hunger caused by war; therefore, be it

ACTION: Resolved that the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church urge President Bush and Texas Members of Congress to declare an emergency in the Lower Rio Grande Valley; and furthermore be it

Resolved that the North Texas Conference urge its local churches to pray and act for relief of the crisis on the southern border; and furthermore be it

Resolved that the North Texas Conference continue to explore the ways to address the basic causes of this situation which include our government's policy in Central America and current immigration and Naturalization Service restrictions placed on these refugees; and furthermore be it

Resolved that the North Texas Conference assure the refugees in South Texas and our sisters and brothers who are United Methodists in the Valley, of our concerns, our prayers, and our commitments to join them in the ministry of reconciliation and peace.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:
Adoption of proposal by the North Texas Annual Conference.

LA12 - CONCERNS OF PEGGY RAILEY

RESOLUTION OF COMMENDATION AND CONCERN

Whereas Peggy Railey was the innocent victim of a near fatal physical assault that left her incapacitated while the spouse of an active clergy member of the North Texas Conference;

Whereas Peggy Railey was the additional innocent victim of her spouses's subsequent surrender of his ministerial credentials;

Whereas members of the North Texas Conference will continue to maintain a deep concern for Peggy Railey when, later this year, she no longer will be eligible for coverage under the conference's Health Benefits Plan;

Be it therefore resolved that the North Texas Annual Conference commends its Committee on Insurance and its executive, Randy James, our former episcopal leader, Bishop John Russell, and our current bishop, Bruce P. Blake, for their diligence and steadfastness in seeking to assure continued high quality health care for Peggy Railey;

Be it further resolved that the North Texas Annual Conference affirms the efforts of Bishop Blake to assist Peggy Railey's family in applying for the maximum social service benefits for which she is eligible under Social Security, Medicare, Medicaid, etc.;

Be it further resolved that the North Texas Annual Conference affirms the efforts of Bishop Blake to solicit donations from across the conference for a trust fund that will provide a "safety net" for health care needs Peggy Railey may have beyond the coverage of those social service benefits;

Be it further resolved that the North Texas Annual Conference requests that Bishop Blake keep members of the conference informed regarding Peggy Railey's continuing health care needs and the adequacy of her social services benefits combined with the trust funds raised for meeting those needs.

Presented by Spurgeon M. Dunnam III clergy member, North Texas Annual Conference

LA13 - EVANGELISM

FROM: BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP, DIVISION OF EVANGELISM

SUBJECT: Comprehensive Plan for reaching the unchurched

PROPOSAL: That the North Texas Annual Conference adopt the following plan for reaching the unchurched:

1989-90 - Each pastor, each church and its boards, councils and groups. tithe 10% of their time and resources to reach the unchurched.
Each church adopt a program of Friendship Evangelism by bringing one other person to the church.

Spring 1990 - Regional evangelism workshops to be held across the Annual Conference where practical skills workshops will help clergy and laity to meet the needs of the unchurched.

1990-91 - Beginning with Annual Conference 1990, the focus will be "the Year of the Sunday School." Sunday School rallies and workshops will help churches learn to start new Sunday School classes and revitalize existing classes.

1991-92 - The last of the four-year emphasis will be "Reaching the Unchurched through Music and Worship." The Division of Worship along with the Division of Evangelism will offer workshops to help revitalize worship.

RATIONALE: The Annual Conference needs to become more focused on the quadrennial emphasis, "Reaching the Unchurched." This proposal brings together the cooperative efforts of all the Board of Discipleship to address the needs of the unchurched and ways to meet those needs.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:
The North Texas Annual Conference approve this recommendation of the Board of Discipleship, Division of Evangelism.

LA14 - EQUITABLE SALARY

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES

1. The Commission on Equitable Salaries requests for minimum equitable salary support, pension, years of service and administrative expenses, the amount of $87,000 for 1990.

2. The Commission on Equitable Salaries requests that $21,059 be set for the minimum equitable salary for 1990. The years-of-service allowance shall be $100 per service year after 5 years and up to 10 years.

Salary Schedules:

A. Minimum Equitable Salary (including travel and utilities) for members of North Texas Conference serving full time: $21,059

B. Adjustments for service:

Years of Service	Equitable Salary Amount
0-5	$21,059
6	21,559
7	21,659
8	21,759
9	21,859
10	21,959

C. Local Pastors serving full time:

Five years of less (75% of base)	15,794
Six years or more (85% of base)	17,900

D. Student Appointments:

1. Resident full time on charge (65% of base)	13,688
2. Lives on charge 3 nights or more (50%)	10,530
3. Lives on charge 2 nights or less (40%)	8,424

E. When students do not serve the charge full-time during the summer, there shall be a $1,000 reduction in the minimum amount, making the scale as follows:

Resident full time on charge	12,688
Lives on charge 3 nights or more	9,530
Lives on charge 2 nights or less	7,424

F. Students serving student appointments receive the annual $20 one-way mileage allowance subject to the following criteria:

1. Student shall be licensed or ordained and under appointment.
2. Student shall be enrolled in an accredited college or seminary.
3. When taking less than nine hours, $20 mileage rate will be reduced proportionate to number of hours taken (6 hours--$14, 3 hrs--$7).
4. No mileage allowance will be provided during a seminary internship.

3. The following policies are proposed to the North Texas Annual Conference for the distribution of equitable salary assistance in 1990.

A. A local church exists to serve, not to be served. All churches should be motivated to a larger sense of ministry. Churches whose pastors receive salary subsidy should be open to linkage with other churches in order to provide full-time ministerial conference members with a minimum work load goal of 250 members, the number believed by the Commission to be necessary to support a pastor. Smaller churches should be encouraged to accept couplings with each other or with larger churches to reduce the need for subsidy.

B. Equitable salary levels can best be met when appointments are open to all ministerial members without regard to race or sex. We continue to urge every conference member to make the subject of a fully open conference and adequately supported ministry at the local church level a matter of daily personal prayer. Only as the love of Christ dwells in us can an Annual Conference be a fellowship of caring persons.

C. Growth in stewardship should be achieved by all below minimum remuneration churches. In making application for salary supplement, district superintendents are to provide evidence of stewardship education and growth on forms provided by the Commission on Equitable Salaries.

D. Tenure payments are designed to honor the years of service of pastors who continue for more than five years in ministry to below-minimum salary charges because of the needs of the conference. The Bishop and the Cabinet are urged to make every effort to move pastors to above minimum charges within five years after they begin full-time service.

E. All applications for salary subsidy to the Commission on Equitable Salaries are to be made by the district superintendent on forms provided by the commission, and completed applications must be approved by the commission in session or by no less than two of the three members of the executive committee on the commission.

F. The Charge Conference of any charge unable to pay the minimum set by the Conference shall be informed by the district superintendent of the guidelines of receiving equitable salary assistance. The charge shall be informed of the amount required to bring the salary level up to minimum and shall be challenged to move toward the goal of full self-support at the earliest possible time. On a form which shall accompany the applications for salary assistance, the district superintendent shall certify to the commission that the charge has been duly notified.

5. The Commission on Equitable Salaries shall notify annually the Pastor-Parish Committee chairperson of each local charge of the goal of the conference for every full-time pastor to have a work load of 250 members in order to get all pastor's salaries to the minimum level. The amount of subsidy granted to a pastor shall be acknowledged annually at the Charge Conference.

H. Equitable salary assistance is not available to pastors serving as associate pastors or in staff positions other than pastor in charge. In order that such persons receive an equitable wage, however, the commission recommends that local churches use conference minimum salary standards as minimum guidelines in setting associates and staff salaries.

I. The Commission on Equitable Salaries will not consider requests for salary supplement where housing allowances exceed $7,200.

J. Pastors who decline an appointment which would reduce or eliminate the need for equitable salary support are ineligible for equitable salary supplement given for years of service.

K. Equitable salary assistance is not available for a North Texas Conference member appointed to serve in another Annual Conference, nor is it available to members of other Annual Conferences serving under appointment in the North Texas Conference.

L. There shall be no lump sum payments to persons receiving equitable salary assistance unless such sums are too small for monthly payments to be made.

M. It shall be the responsibility of the pastor receiving equitable salary subsidy to inform the commission of any increase in remuneration which occurs after an application for equitable salary subsidy has been approved or any changes in eligibility.

LA15 - PENSIONS

SUBJECT: PRE-1982 SERVICE YEAR FOR 1990

FROM: BOARD OF PENSIONS

PROPOSAL: That the pre-1982 Service Year Rate for 1990 be $287 for both Full Members and Local Pastors.

RATIONALE: Pursuant to paragraph 1606.21 of The Book of Discipline 1988, the Service Year Rate must be .9% of the Conference Average Salary if the Ministerial Pension Plan Contribution Rate is 12%. The 1990 Conference Average Salary, as computed by the General Board of Pensions, is $31,930. .92% of $31,930 is $287.

SUBJECT: THE COMPREHENSIVE PROTECTION PLAN

FROM: BOARD OF PENSIONS

PROPOSALS: The Board of Pensions requests a 5% increase for the Comprehensive Protection Plan for 1990.

RATIONALE: A two year study (1987 and 1988) of our Comprehensive Protection Plan shows us that we are running a deficit. We entered 1987 with a $5,500.00 deficit. In 1987 the Apportionment was $273,000.00. We collected $269,008.00 or 98.9% of the Apportionment. The need for all of us to carry out our part in the Conference Apportionments becomes obvious when we talk about such things at a session of The North Texas Annual Conference.

The Board of Pensions is asking for a 5% increase ($15,580.00) for The Comprehensive Protection Plan or $327,185.00 for 1990. It needs to be noted that we have not asked for an increase for the past several years. We deeply appreciate what the members of The North Texas Annual Conference have been able to accomplish with this most important Plan. A small increase of 5% will enable us to continue this work and to be sure that we do not create an unusually large deficit in the future.

SUBJECT: RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THIS CONFERENCE

FROM: BOARD OF PENSIONS

RESOLUTION:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as the United Methodist Church has and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the NORTH TEXAS Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference; and

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a minister of this conference;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments, including gifts and grants from the Perkins Fund, received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 1989 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained minister or the NORTH TEXAS Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability.

2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE:

The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to THE LESSER OF (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rule. 71-280, 1971 C.B. 92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as a 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities."

LA16 - EXIT PROGRAM

SUBJECT: EXIT PROGRAM FOR ORDAINED MINISTERS

FROM: BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

(A program designed to offer financial assistance for ordained ministers who are in full connection and full members of the North Texas Conference who qualify under the terms and conditions of DISCIPLINE paragraph 452.1 and DISCIPLINE paragraph 453.3(c).

RATIONALE: The North Texas Conference needs to provide an Exit Program for ordained ministers who qualify under the terms of the 1988 DISCIPLINE paragraph 452.1 (Honorable Location) and DISCIPLINE paragraph 453.3(c) (Administrative Location). The DISCIPLINE provides that an Annual Conference may offer financial assistance to the qualified persons who are in transition. The DISCIPLINE states that the Annual Conference may offer assistance from the Equitable Salary Fund or other conference resources.

An Exit Program would be a program that could provide a bridge between serving an appointment to a local church and employment in another field. The program would serve as a "safety net" for the ordained minister.

The Exit Program would be a part of the budget of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Applications for these funds and services would require Cabinet approval and the approval of the Executive Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry.

THE PROGRAM: The program and funds may be made available to ordained ministers who qualify under the terms and conditions described in the 1988 DISCIPLINE paragraph 453.3(c).

EXIT ASSISTANCE SCHEDULES:

A. Exiting ordained members of the North Texas Conference serving full time may receive up to $6,815; however, there are adjustments for years of service.* Funds may be restricted to the Annual Conference Budget.

B. Adjustments for years of service:

Years of Service	Maximum Amount **
0-5	$6,815
6	6,982
7	7,015
8	7,049
9	7,082

* See 1988 Journal, page 133 - Equitable Salary Schedule.

 Payable in four (4) equal monthly installments; however, exit payments shall cease when/if the exiting ordained minister is gainfully employed, as determined by the Executive Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Conference members who receive benefits from the Exit Program shall be contractually bound to inform the agent or administrative officer of their employment status. To facilitate assistance and accountability, exiting ordained ministers shall report to their district superintendent monthly.

HEALTH BENEFITS:

The Exit Program may provide a grant from Equitable Salaries funds for the purpose of funding health benefits to qualified exiting ordained clergy for a period of up to 120 days, or until exiting ordained clergy secures other health insurance, whichever occurs first. These benefits will follow the guidelines in the Plan Document of the North Texas Conference Health Benefit Plan.

COUNSELING SERVICE:

The Exit Program may provide counseling services to exiting ordained ministers for a period of 120 days; the counseling service will follow the guidelines in the Plan Document of the Area Counseling Committee.

QUALIFICATIONS:

The Exit Program is designed to assist North Texas Conference ordained ministers who are leaving ministry in accordance with the disciplinary paragraphs defined above. It will not be available for:

a. Ordained Ministers on Leave of Absence

b. Any ordained ministers appointed by the bishop of the North Texas Conference who already are covered by severance pay from their appointment.

c. Ordained Ministers found guilty by the Trial Court (when the appeals process has been exhausted).

d. Ordained Ministers Appointed to Attend School.

LA18 - BY LAWS

BY-LAWS OF

NORTH TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, INC.

Preface

The Annual Conference was incorporated as a Texas non-profit corporation, with Charter No. 583251-1, under Articles of Incorporation filed with the Texas Secretary of State on October 28, 1981, pursuant to approval granted by the 1981 session of the Annual Conference.

The Articles of Incorporation provide for the corporation to bear the administrative responsibility of the United Methodist Church in North Texas as established by the General Conference of The United Methodist Church. They also provide for an initial board of directors consisting of twelve named persons (who were then serving as trustees of the Annual Conference). However, they contain no other specific provisions governing the organization and functioning of the corporation.

On April 5, 1989, the Trustees of the Annual Conference voted to recommend the adoption of the attached By-Laws, which will implement the Articles of Incorporation and permit the agencies of the Annual Conference to operate under the corporate umbrella authorized by the 1981 action of the Annual Conference.

As a matter of background information, the Trustees of the Annual Conference are separately incorporated, with Charter No. 00091233-1, under Articles of Incorporation filed with the Texas Secretary of State on June 2, 1947. The Trustees hold title to various properties under this charter. Updating and modernization of this charter is needed, and appropriate documents for this purpose are being prepared for submission to a subsequent session of the Annual Conference.

BY-LAWS OF

NORTH TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, INC.

ARTICLE I - ORGANIZATION AND PURPOSES

Section 1.01 Incorporation and Purposes.

(A) Incorporation. This organization (hereinafter sometimes referred to the "Conference", the "Annual Conference", or the "North Texas Conference") was duly incorporated by Articles of Incorporation filed with the Texas Secretary of State on October 28, 1981 (Charter No. 583521-1) as a non-profit corporation formed for the stated purpose of bearing the administrative responsibility of The United Methodist Church in North Texas as established by the General Conference of The United Metnodist Church, and generally having and exercising all rights and powers conferred on non-profit corporations under the laws of Texas.

(B) Governing Documents. This corporation is governed by the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act; the Articles of Incorporation; the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church as from time to time enacted, authorized and declared by its General Conference (said Book of Discipline being hereinafter referred to as "The Discipline"); the rules and regulations of The North Texas Conference (said rules and regulations being hereinafter referred to as "the Conference Rules"); and these By-Laws. All of these documents are hereinafter collectively referred to as "the Governing Documents".

(C) Historic Function, Organization, and Purposes. The Annual Conference is the basic and fundamental body of The United Methodist Church, endeavoring to promote the cause of Christ in the world and providing a means to enable United Methodists to serve God effectively and faithfully. The North Texas Conference is situated within the South Central Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church, and the Jurisdictional Conference has designated the name and boundaries of the Annual Conference. The composition and character of its membership, as well as its basic organization, powers, and duties, are determined by The Discipline, which also provides that the Annual Conference for its own government may adopt rules and regulations not in conflict with The Discipline. The Standing Rules adopted by the Conference pursuant to this authority are published in the Conference Journal.

Section 1.02 Offices. The corporation shall have and continuously maintain in the State of Texas a registered office (designated as 13959 Peyton Dr., Dallas, Texas 75240; with mailing address at P.O. Box 516069, Dallas, Texas 75251-6069) and a registered agent (designated as B.C. Robertson) whose office shall be identical with such registered office, but such registered office and registered agent shall be subject to change from time to time by the Board of Trustees of the corporation, upon proper filing with the Texas Secretary of State. The principal office (which need not be identical with the registered office) shall be located in Dallas, Dallas County, Texas, and such other offices may be established within the State of Texas as the Board of Trustees may determine.

ARTICLE II - CONFERENCE BOARDS AND AGENCIES

Section 2.01 Creation of Boards and Agencies. The Annual Conference shall provide in its Standing Rules for such boards, agencies, commissions, and committees (hereinafter collectively called "Conference Agencies") as may be deemed necessary or appropriate for effective mission, and shall establish such connectional relationship between the Conference Agencies and the general boards and commissions of The United Methodist Church as may be required or suggested by The Discipline. Each Conference Agency shall at all times be subject to the direction and control of the Conference and shall exercise only such power and authority as may be delegated to it, either expressly or by necessary implication. A Conference Agency may instruct the corporate officers to execute contracts, agreements, and other undertakings on behalf of the corporation, when approved by the Agency and within the scope of the general or specific authority granted to it by the Conference.

ARTICLE III - BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Section 3.01 Corporate Governance. Subject to the control and direction of the Annual Conference, and in particular to the provisions of the Standing Rules, the legal responsibility for governance of the affairs of this corporation, as provided in its Articles of Incorporation, is vested and shall remain vested in the Board of Trustees (also designated and acting as this corporation's Board of Directors), consisting of the persons elected as such Trustees by the North Texas Conference. Said Board of Trustees, having been separately incorporated under the laws of Texas, shall continue to function as a separate corporation for the purpose of carrying out the property management functions entrusted to it by the Governing Documents.

Section 3.02 Election and Term. The Board of Trustees of the corporation shall be elected for such term, and shall be organized in such manner, as may be prescribed from time to time by The Discipline and by the Conference Rules.

Section 3.03 Compensation. Trustees as such shall not receive any stated salaries for their services. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any Trustee from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 3.04 Powers and Authority. The Board of Trustees shall be vested with all legal powers and authority necessary and normally incident to its duties in managing the business and affairs of the corporation as entrusted to it by the Annual Conference and in effectuating the intents and purposes set forth in the Governing Documents. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall enure to the benefit of any Trustee or any private individual, and no part of the activities of the corporation shall be carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influcence legislation. Funds of this corporation may be expended only for the purposes set forth in the Governing Documents. In exercising the powers herein granted, the Board may expend, distribute, use, apply, invest or reinvest either principal or income, whether the same be derived from gift, devise, bequest or otherwise; and, subject to the Governing Documents, the Board shall specifically have the power to purchase, borrow, sell, lease, let, mortgage, hypothecate, or otherwise dispose of any and all forms of property, real, personal or mixed, in managing the affairs of the corporation. Contributions to the corporation shall be accepted by the Board only when any conditions attached thereto by the contributor are not inconsistent with the purposes set forth in the Governing Documents.

Section 3.05 Checks and Drafts. All checks, drafts or orders for the payment of money, or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the corporation shall be signed by the Treasurer of the North Texas Conference or by such other persons and offices authorized by the North Texas Conference.

ARTICLE IV - MEMBERSHIP AND MEETINGS.

Section 4.01 General Provisions. The members of the corporation shall be the members of the Annual Conference, duly elected in accordance with the Governing Documents, and having all of the rights and privileges conferred upon such members by the Governing Documents. Meetings of the membership shall be held in accordance with the Governing Documents, and such meetings shall be known as sessions of the Annual Conference.

ARTICLE V - OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES, AND TRANSACTION OF AFFAIRS

Section 5.01 Officers of The Conference. Officers of the Annual Conference shall be: The Presiding Bishop, duly assigned or acting in such capacity pursuant to The Discipline; the Conference Secretary, and Assistant Conference Secretaries, duly elected and acting in accordance with the Governing Documents; and the Conference Treasurer and such other officers and their assistants as may be duly elected and acting pursuant to the Governing Documents. Such officers shall have all of the power and authority conferred and granted by the Governing Documents, and such other incidental power and authority as may be customarily associated with their particular offices.

Section 5.02 Officers of The Corporation. Officers of the Corporation shall be the officers duly elected by the Board of Trustees, including the President, Vice President, Secretary (sometimes referred to as the Corporate Secretary) and Treasurer, whose duties shall be those usually pertaining to such offices. To the extent permitted by the Governing Documents, the Board of Trustees shall elect or confirm the person serving as Treasurer of the North Texas Conference as the Treasurer of the corporation.

Section 5.03 Compensation. The officers of the corporation shall serve without compensation except in a reasonable amount for services rendered and authorized by the Board of Trustees or by the Annual Conference. Officers shall be entitled to reimbursement for expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out their duties.

Section 5.04 Agents and Representatives. The Board of Trustees may appoint such agents and representatives of the corporation and with such powers and to perform such acts or duties on behalf of the corporation as the Board of Trustees may deem necessary or desirable or as may be ordered and directed by the Annual Conference, so far as the delegation of such power and authority may be consistent with these By-Laws and authorized or permitted by law.

Section 5.05 Contracts. The Board of Trustees, except as in these By-Laws otherwise provided, may authorize any officer or agent to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation, and such authority may be general or confined to a specified instance; and unless so authorized by the Board of Trustees, no officer, agent, or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the corporation by any contract or engagement, or to pledge its credit, or render it pecuniarily liable for any purpose or to any amount.

Section 5.06 Corporate Seal. The seal of the corporation shall be in such form and shall bear such inscription as may be determined from time to time by the Board of Trustees. The Corporate Secretary shall be the custodian of the corporate seal, in addition to all other corporate records, and shall affix the seal of the corporation to all documents, the execution of which on behalf of the corporation under its seal is duly authorized in accordance with these By-Laws.

ARTICLE VI - DEDICATION OF PROPERTY AND EARNINGS TO CHARITABLE PURPOSES

Section 6.01 Pledge of Properties. The properties and assets of the corporation are pledged in perpetuity to carry on the charitable purposes set out in the Governing Documents of this corporation.

Section 6.02 Vesting on Dissolution. In the event of dissolution of the corporation, the properties and assets of the corporation shall be transferred to and become vested in the Trustees of the Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church within whose bounds such properties and assets are then located, or in such other organization or organizations, organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes, as may be consistent with the Governing Documents and deemed by the Board of Trustees most suitable and appropriate with regards to continuance of the activities for which this corporation has been formed, and as may qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

Section 6.03 Prohibition Against Sharing in Corporate Earnings. No Trustee, officer, or employee of, or member of a committee of, or person connected with, the corporation, or any private individual shall receive at any time any of the net earnings or pecuniary profit from the operations of the corporation, provided, however, that this shall not prevent the payment to any such person of such reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the corporation in effecting any of its purposes as shall be fixed by the Annual Conference; and no such person or persons shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets upon the dissolution of the corporation.

Section 6.04 Investments. The corporation shall have the right to retain all or any part of any securities or property acquired by it in whatever manner and to invest and reinvest any funds held by it, according to the judgment of the Board of Trustees (unless otherwise directed by the Annual Conference) under its general powers specified in these By-Laws, without being restricted to the class of investments which a trustee is or may hereafter be permitted to make, or any similar restriction; provided, however, that no action shall be taken by or on behalf of the corporation if such action is a prohibited transaction or would result in the denial of the tax exemption under Section 503 or Section 507 of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

Section 6.05 Exempt Activities. Notwithstanding any other provision of these By-Laws, no Trustee, officer, employee, or representative of the corporation shall take any action or carry on any activity by or on behalf of the corporation not permitted to be taken or carried on by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of such Code and Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

ARTICLE VII - ADOPTION AND AMENDMENTS

Section 7.01 Procedure. These By-Laws shall become effective immediately upon their adoption by the Annual Conference and shall continue in force until altered, amended or repealed, or new By-Laws are adopted, by the members of the Annual Conference.

I certify that the foregoing By-Laws have been duly adopted by the NORTH TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, INC., a Texas non-profit corporation.

Dated this 7th day of June, A.D. 1989.

LA19 - CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

THE GENERAL CONFERENCE
United Methodist Church

Proposed Constitutional Amendment

On Friday evening, May 6, 1988, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in St. Louis, Missouri, the following Constitutional Amendment was made by a recorded vote of 783, yes; 85, no; 3, abstaining. It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In Section VII, Paragraph 35, Article I, insert the following words:

In the Annual Conferences of the Central Conferences, the four-year participation and the two-year membership requirements may be waived by the Annual Conference for young persons under twenty-five (25) years of age. Such persons must be members of the United Methodist Church and active participants at the time of election.

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, Par. 35 would then read:

The Annual Conference shall be composed of ministerial members as defined by the General Conference, together with a lay member elected by each charge, the diaconal ministers, the conference president of United Methodist Women, the conference president of United Methodist Men, the conference lay leader, district lay leaders, the president or equivalent officer of the conference young adult organization, the president of the conference youth organization, and two young persons under twenty-five (25) years of age. Such persons must be members of the United Methodist Church and active participants at the time of election. Each charge served by more than one minister shall be entitled to as many lay members as there are ministerial members.
The lay members shall have been for the two years next preceding their election members of the United Methodist Church and shall have been active participants in the United Methodist Church for at least four years next preceding their election.

If the lay membership should number less than the ministerial members of the Annual Conference, the Annual Conference shall, by its own formula, provide for the election of additional lay members to equalize lay and ministerial membership of the Annual Conference.

LA20 - REFUGEE OFFERING

SUBJECT: SPECIAL OFFERING FOR REFUGEE LEGAL ASSISTANCE

FROM: CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

PROPOSAL: That on Sunday, July 16, 1989, each local church be encouraged to receive a special offering for the Central American Refugee crisis situation in the Texas Valley, for the purpose of providing legal assistance for Central American refugees and will be administered by the McAllen District Refugee Committee, with the goal of $32,000.

RATIONALE: Bishop Ernest Dixon and the Southwest Texas Conference have sent out a call for help in providing legal counsel/assistance for the thousands of Central American refugees who are seeking asylum in the USA and being detained in the Rio Grande Valley. North Texas Conference persons have visited the Valley and have confirmed this critical need.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTAITON:

1. Approved by the Annual Conference

2. Acceptance of each local church to promote and receive the special offering.

LA21 - CHINA

Resolution of United Methodists of the North Texas Conference to Support Personal Freedom in the People's Republic of China

Whereas: We are called by our faith to affirm the dignity and worth of every human being.

Whereas: The students and their supporters in China have sought more open dialogue with their government leaders, have asked for basic rights, such as, free speech, truth in their own media, more personal selection in their job assignments, and changes in some of their government leaders.

Whereas: The government has now engaged in open warfare upon its own citizens in Beijing, killing hundreds and injuring thousands, and there is a real concern that such oppression could spread to other parts of that society.

Whereas: Chinese religious leaders have been present on the campus of S.M.U. and in our area, with one leader Bishop K.H. Ting, recognized as a speaker at our 1988 General Conference, and those leaders have spoken out in support of the students and their requests for more openness in society.

Therefore it be Resolved:

1. That we, as Christians, pray for our sisters and brothers who are suffering and struggling for freedom in the People's Republic of China.

2. That United Methodists and other Christians support these persons in their desires for basic freedom in China.

3. That the government of the United States use all diplomatic efforts to aid in the ending of such death and tragedy.

Copies to: President George Bush, United States Senators of the Foreign Policy Committee, Secretary of State Baker, other members of Congress who have constituencies within the bounds of our Conference, resident Chinese Scholars Associations in the area universities.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT
North Texas Annual Conference
June 4-7, 1989

In accordance with custom, and by mandate of the Book of Discipline, the Chairperson of the Cabinet has the opportunity of reporting to the annual conference on Cabinet activities during the previous year.

Greetings to Bishop Bruce Blake, the clergy and lay members of the conference. It is a high privilege to be a member of the greatest conference in all of United Methodism. Even though our politics may be honed to hi-tech sharpness and our rhetoric concerning some issues becomes super heated, we exhibit a deep loyalty to this body. We know how to disagree and often do. But, what a privilege it is to be called, "Members of the North Texas Annual Conference".

It is tempting to use this space boasting of accomplishments during this year. We could speak of the increase in funds raised or members received, programs developed or lives impacted by the gospel. However, other agencies have that responsibility. I am also reminded of Isaiah's lament when he wrote, "Who hath believed our report?"

In doing the work of the Cabinet your district superintendents spend much time reviewing the issues facing pastors and churches. Often these issues are tension building and cause us to rely upon prayer and meditation for all those who are in our charge. I want to call attention to some of these issues and offer a challenge to the conference in our common ministry and mission.

Our spiritual founder, John Wesley, once said, "The world is my parish". With his words and the gospel mandate we have always been a global church. One of our dangers today is that we may change Wesley's words to read, "The parish is our world". We celebrate our global nature and rejoice that we see beyond our own walls. However, the percentage of funds spent at the local church level continues to increase faster than the amount of funds given to our global mission. We encourage our pastors and churches to be a church in mission, both at home and abroad.

Among the clergy we experience a covenant relationship. We join the annual conference and form a connectedness that supports us throughout our careers. Tempting as it may be to be a solo player, none of us lives alone. We are all part of the covenant and draw strength from that body. The Cabinet often sees evidence of persons who have forgotten that kinship. What one person experiences affects us all, be it success or failure, joy or pain. The Cabinet is committed to help all ministers experience the inclusiveness of a covenant people.

At each Cabinet meeting we share joys and sorrows of our clergy families. We are aware of an increasing level of stress in our parsonage homes. Pastors and their families are affected by the same pressures and problems that are common to lay members. As a result we see ministry inhibited and persons living with severe emotional pain. The stress may be attributed to finances, marital problems, unresolved conflicts in home and church, or a sense of isolation from the system and colleagues. We want you to know that, as superintendents, we do care. It is our intent to provide support for every clergy family and be pastoral in our administration.

The Cabinet continues to address the matter of open itinerancy. We are pleased that, this year, several women have been happily received as senior pastors in local churches and that two cross-racial appointments were made. The bishop has the authority to "fix" the appointments, but it requires the Cabinet, all ordained clergy and local church leaders to make the assignment successful. We applaud Bishop Bruce Blake in leading the Cabinet in studies to determine where ministry can best occur and who the most qualified pastor may be for that church. We look for the day when the question will not be asked, "Will this church receive a woman or ethnic pastor?" But, the only question will be , "Who is the very best minister available for this appointment?" We are grateful for the many clergy and lay persons who join us in the dream that we will someday become a truly "inclusive church". As Cabinet members, we pledge our best efforts to you, Bishop Blake, and to the North Texas Conference, in developing openness in making appointments.

With the high level of professional training we receive, it is easy for us to be more function oriented than pastoral. Our people still yearn for a pastor who knows and cares for them. It is interesting to notice that the General Conference, for more than two centuries, has never dropped the question asked of persons who become members of the annual conference, "Will you visit from house to house?" Although times have changed and family life styles are different, there is still the hunger for that soul-to-soul relationsip with their pastor. In our efforts to reach the unchurched, it is imperative that we "know" our people. Promotion and programs are required, but we must maintain our pastoral style in caring for the people in our charge.

Church growth and establishing new congregations is one of our priorities. We celebrate the rapid growth of churches in the suburbs and will continue to move in that direction as we purchase new sites, provide start-up resources, recruit partner churches and nurture new members. However, there is also a pressing need to cultivate the passion in our hearts for ministry and evangelism in transitional communities. We, in the Cabinet, heard with joy the words of commitment from several pastors who asked to be assigned to inner-city and bilingual ministries. We can ill afford to write off certain segments of our conference because they are changing, rural, inner-city, poor or ethnic. That challenge faces us as a conference and we must heed God's call to that mission.

Given the rapid changes that occur almost daily, we are encouraging all of our pastors to give attention to continuing education. It is a new day and expectation levels are high. A recent study indicated that the reason many persons become disillusioned with ministry is that their skill level is seldom improved. The Cabinet joins the Board of Ordained Ministry in encouraging every pastor to become involved in a good program of skill upgrading and continuing education. The demands on ministers will not be fewer, but will increase in the next decade. Michael McBride summarizes why pastors may feel inadequate: "A model pastor labors from eight in the morning until ten in the evening in many church and community tasks. He is 26 years old and has been preaching 30 years. He has a burning desire to work with teenagers and spends all of his time with the older folk. He makes 15 calls a day on church members, spends all his time evangelizing the unchurched, and is never out of the office".

During recent days we have heard many reports of the decline of the church. However, from what I hear and from the reports of my Cabinet colleagues, the church is very much alive. I sense optimism and hope among the laity that I have not seen in many years. I applaud our many faithful pastors and lay persons in their performance of ministry and engagement in mission. Although alarming rumors may disturb us and issues confound us, our people go right on growing as Christians, nurturing the children, ministering to the sick and struggling with the social issues of our time. For all our flaws as a church, our people just keep hanging in there, and for that we "praise God from whom all blessings flow".

As superintendents, we thank all of you for being supportive and including us in your circle of love. You are our nurturing congregation and we find our strength in your support.

To the three directors and their support staff, we express our appreciation. Your leadership in program and missional direction is invaluable. As colleagues, we applaud you for the outstanding work done this year.

Fresh as a whirlwind out of Kansas, Bishop Bruce and Karen Blake arrived on September 1, 1988. It did not take long for all of us to discover his leadership skill and compassionate style. With an openness to all persons, he soon found a place among us. Just as all pastors are evaluated by the district superintendents, Bishop Blake met with each superintendent for a one and one-half hour session. He provided honest feedback and support in a way that made us realize that he cared for our souls. We thank you, Bishop Blake, and pledge our efforts to follow your leadership in this great conference.

Just as Isaiah had problems with reports, we may never be completely at home with them. However, when the story of Jesus was told and reports were given, persons were converted. We look forward to another fine year under the theme, "New Leaders For A New Day". Amen.

CHURCH GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH DEVELOPMENT

Creating a roadmap for the future is perhaps the greatest single accomplishment of the Board of Church Development through the last year. We have always known there is plenty of work for each of our three divisions to do "out there". This year, however, we set the need squarely in front of us, in all its many facets, in a plan titled, Mission 2000. The plan is comprehensive, covering the whole conference and giving direction to the work of each of our divisions. But we have done more than simply detail the needs; we have also set ourselves a strategy for meeting them. Mission 2000 is an ambitious plan, but one that is do-able if we have the courage and the determination to fulfill our mandate to reach the unchurched.

An important and very appropriate structural change occurred within Church Development again this year. The (previously named) Ethnic Minority Local Church Committee moved into the Church Development camp. The rationale for the change is two-fold: first, many of the needs of our ethnic congregations are being met already through the various divisions of the Board, and second, our congregational development specialist, John Tatum, can and does already supply much of the valuable staff support these churches need. It seems, therefore, only natural that the committee charged with the concerns of ethnic churches be related to Church Development. The (newly named) Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee will, of course, maintain productive relations with the Conference Council on Ministries. The newly developed comprehensive plan for ethnic local churches seeks to draw from the various conference agencies whatever resources -- material, programmatic, or personnel -- each may provide. The change of structure only seeks to streamline the work of the committee.

The financial resources of Church Development are stretched pretty thin, due in large part to escalating land prices. Each Division has felt the crunch, but none harder than Church Extension. Despite the difficulties, several new works have begun in 1988-89, and more new church start-ups are in the offing. The harsh reality is that unless new sources of funding are secured soon, we will be unable to proceed at any reasonable pace in reaching the larger community with new congregations or with newly redeveloped ones. Some creative means of moving forward are in the works, such as new church partnerships in which existing congregations share the burden of a new sister church, providing all the necessary start-up expenses for the first few years. Such partner churches share in a more intimate way the joy of creating a whole new people of God.

I would like to offer a personal word. I have served in various capacities on the Board of Church Development for some six years now. This has been my first as the chairperson of the Board as a whole. Throughout my tenure, but increasingly during these last twelve months, I have become more and more aware of the high quality of leadership we are blessed with in the North Texas Conference. The staff of the Church Development office is first-class from top to bottom, first-class in ability and commitment alike. The same can be said for division chairs and members also. It is quite a pleasure to sit in on lively, involved meetings with persons of keen mind and great interest, who constantly ask, as my predecessor in this office taught us all to ask, "What will this do to advance the mission and ministry of the people called United Methodist"? I have always been impressed with this kind of intentionality; I now know in greater detail just how intentional this body is, and hence my appreciation.

DIVISION OF CHURCH EXTENSION

During the first year of this quadrennium, the Division of Church Extension has been busy completing prior plans and has initiated several new projects for the years to come.

Sale of Property - The sale of the abandoned Pattonville UMC, Paris-Sulphur Springs District, has been consummated. This land, given to the division several years ago, was sold recently for $2,500. The division still has several properties that will not facilitate new congregations and would entertain any proposals to negotiate the disbursal of these properties.

Purchase of New Sites - During the fall of 1988, three five-acre sites were purchased: (1) Pottsboro, on Highway 120, (2) DeSoto, on Wintergreen Road, and (3) DeSoto, on Cockrell Hill Road.

In addition, the division is in negotiation for sites, each with an average of five acres, on Hebron Parkway and Standridge Road in far north Carrollton; in the Stonebridge Ranch development west of McKinney; and in south Mesquite.

Relocation - Work is continuing with the congregation of Quinlan UMC in the Paris-Sulphur Springs District. The New Horizon congregation is now housed in their initial worship facilities in DeSoto not far from their new site.

New Appointments - This year three additional appointments in the conference will be made to the following territories: Wesley-Rankin in west Dallas, Shrade Road in Rowlett, and to the Korean Community in Irving.

The average cost per five-acre site has dramatically increased over the last 36 years since the beginning of Church Extension: $23,248 by 1964, $30,786 by 1975, and $171,077 by 1988! The Mission 2000 plan seeks to bring 24 new sites to our conference by 1992. The cost of those sites will be approximately $6,000,000. Church Extension VISIONARIES shares will defray part of the cost but all of us need to take seriously our responsibilities for the church of the future. The division is actively seeking partnership churches to assist in the "start-up" costs of new churches.

As the demographics of the North Texas Conference continue to show growth and expansion, the churches of the once rural areas are now experiencing the influence of this growth. In the next few years, the division will not only be looking at starting regional churches, and new-neighborhood churches, but also at the impact of growth in areas of existing churches.

Special thanks to all the division members, our legal counsel, and in particular, to the Director of Church Development and his staff for their hard work. Much has been gained and still more is anticipated in the years to come.

REPORT OF THE DIVISION OF TOWN AND COUNTRY MINISTRIES

During the 1988-1989 Conference year, the Division of Town and Country Ministries has remained faithful to its responsibility for the development, nurture, support and advocacy of all town and rural churches. With the advent of this conference year, this responsibility was expanded when the Division of Church Assistance was abolished and half of the requests for assistance that had come previously to that Division now are handled by the Division of Town and Country Ministries.

The Division approved, and has provided funding and support for more than twenty projects located in five districts within the North Texas Conference. Over $70,000 was approved to fund these projects. Included were such projects as: assisting in roof repairs; providing leadership training for Day Care workers; probe phase of a new cooperative parish; partial funding for a new fellowship hall and educational facility; district training events; and support for staff where the ministry of the churches might be enhanced.

The Division members continue to monitor the projects supported and are seeking ways in which we might more efficiently support town and rural churches so that those churches might provide more effective and vital ministries in their communities.

Every project supported by the Division of Town and Country Ministries is possible because of the Visionaries Shares. In 1988, members of the North Texas Conference supported the Division through 1575 shares. Although only 68% of these shares were paid, the support was greatly appreciated, not only by the Division, but by the recipients of the grants. At the writing of this report, there are 1556 Division shares at $45, and 77 shares at $60. We affirm those who continue to support the Division, and we continue the promise that 100% of all shares are used for grants to support local churches in improving, strengthening and expanding their ministries.

Division of Town and Country

DIVISION OF TRANSITIONAL COMMUNITIES

The Division of Transitional Communities is committed to the enhancement of ministry in those areas of the North Texas Annual Conference which are of an "inner city" or rapidly changing racial or economic makeup. This refers specifically to those urban areas where the changes in the nature of the community, whether racial or economic, make ministry there a special concern. We continue to be concerned about the spreading of the gospel in these areas, and the unique United Methodist witness.

A recent compilation of information indicates that the United Methodist Church, its agencies and related ministries channel more than $2,000,000 per year into inner city ministries. These include local church mission expenditures, grant allocations from United Methodist agencies, and other ongoing mission programs such as the Bethlehem Center, the Wesley Rankin Center and Methodism's Breadbasket. Through the various ministries of the inner city, food, clothing and job assistance are provided. The need for medical assistance, housing, rent, utility and educational enhancement are addressed through our witness. We are doing great ministry in the inner city! And with God's help - we can do more!

The projects that this Division has sponsored, funded or coordinated have been designed to enhance the ministry of local churches as they seek to witness on behalf of Christ. The foregoing include: Brandon Avenue, Camp Wisdom, East Dallas Cooperative Parish, Grant Street, Highland Hills Outpost Ministry, Mt. Calvary, New Aldersgate, New Horizon, New Life Ministries, Oak Cliff Group Ministries, St. John's, St. Luke North Dallas, and Warren.

The Task Forces of the Division are busy at work training Church Development Representatives, making presentations in local churches, promoting and encouraging new urban parishes, evaluating grants made previously, studying newly proposed projects, and seeking ways to be in ministry with all ethnic groups.

I am thankful for the opportunity to have served as chairperson these last four years. Much has been accomplished! It is due in no small measure to the tireless work and concern of the members of the Division. As I leave, my prayers shall continue to be for this great work, as shall be my support when called upon.

The opportunities for ministry in the inner city are limitless. The needs in the inner city are mounting. As the central city continues to be eulogized around the nation, at least one bright spot looms apparent - the work of Transitional Communities. The North Texas Annual Conference continues to be on the cutting edge of ministry to the city. We pray that all churches will respond to the vision of hope for a new and better world that comes when persons receive the gospel of the Lord. We thank God for this ministry!

ETHNIC MINORITY LOCAL CHURCH COMMITTEE
BOARD OF CHURCH GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT

The work of the EMLCC during the 1988-89 conference year focused on new directions, long range planning and the development of a Comprehensive Plan to be presented to the 1989 Annual Conference Session. Our work as a Committee of the Annual Conference is now related to the Board of Church Growth and Development. Staff and support services are provided by the Board of Church Development. All of our major goals of the year were achieved. A strong sense of cooperation was experienced as we sought and received input from most of our Annual Conference agencies. Agency plans and programming gave special attention to the needs of Ethnic Churches in the context of their total planning.

The Ethnic Minority Local Church Committee now becomes the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee as approved by the 1988 General Conference. Our Committee for the continuing work that must be done is being established in accordance with provisions of the 1988 Discipline.

The new directions are evident in that the program and leadership concerns of the Ethnic Churches are, in most cases, incorporated into the main and regular format of the Annual Conference agencies. We, as a Committee have been careful to encourage all agencies to be sensitive to and aware of the special and unique needs of the Ethnic Churches and to respond positively in their efforts.

The funding needs of our Committee are cared for in three ways. First, Missional Priority Funds received in 1988 are being expended in 1989. Second, we are promoting our Conference Approved Advance Specials (approved by the Conference Board of Global Ministries). Apportionment funds were not sufficient to meet all of our 1989 needs. Churches are asked to contribute an amount equal to 25% of the 1988 Missional Priority Apportionment for 1989. To ensure the continuing work we must do, CF&A is joining us in a request to the Annual Conference for $50,000 for 1990. Full information on items one and two can be found in our published report of the Comprehensive Plan.

A brief explanation of the Comprehensive Plan will highlight and give special emphasis to the issues addressed in the life of our Annual Conference.

1. The Comprehensive Plan clearly states and informs us of the leadership and commitment of Bishop Blake and the Cabinet in working for open itinerancy;

2. The Comprehensive Plan is a specific, intentional and coordinated plan to ensure that we continue to be inclusive and to strengthen all of our policies, programs and practices;

3. The Comprehensive Plan recognizes Ethnic Churches as full, integrated and participating members of the Annual Conference. Ethnic Churches, however, do have special and unique needs which require a recognition of such needs and creative plans to respond to such needs;

4. The Comprehensive Plan creates a structured vehicle with guidelines to enable the Annual Conference to work with Ethnic Churches as equal partners in mission and ministry. We hope that the establishment of interagency and intra-agency communications will make it possible for our racial and cultural differences to become resources of strength in doing God's will and work among all peoples.

5. The mission and ministry of our Annual Conference Agencies affirm their intent to serve Ethnic Churches as a structured and essential part of their total work in this Comprehensive Plan is detailed.

6. The vital statistics included in the Comprehensive Plan help give a clearer picture of our Ethnic Constituencies and provide a basis for future goals and directions.

Our thanks are expressed to God and to those who have shared in the development of our Comprehensive Plan. We pray that all of our Churches will join in unity and love in responding to our theme...NOTHING MATTERS MORE...FOR AS IN ONE BODY WE HAVE MANY MEMBERS, AND ALL THE MEMBERS DO NOT HAVE THE SAME FUNCTION, SO WE, THOUGH MANY, ARE ONE BODY IN CHRIST, AND INVDIVIDUALLY MEMBERS ONE OF ANOTHER. HAVING GIFTS THAT DIFFER ACCORDING TO THE GRACE GIVEN TO US, LET US USE THEM. (Romans 12:4-6a).

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The North Texas Conference Board of Trustees is taking seriously its role to hold in trust the property and funds of this conference.

In August of 1988, with the Annual Conference's mandate to purchase an Episcopal residence, the Trustees appropriated $18,056.15 as a down payment. We have maintained the obligated funds of the Hughey Estate which now stand at $82,848.83 and the St. Matthews Church at $98,446.82. As of April 28, 1989, our total cash assets are $211,627.46.

We hold these funds in the Board of Trustees account for the following reasons: (1) the Trustees have legal responsibility and have no other funding; (2) to enable the Board to carry on its administrative work; (3) to pay taxes and legal fees; (4) to maintain adequate insurance on properties held in trust; and (5) to repair and maintain the properties when necessary.

The Board of Trustees hold the following properties in trust: Melissa, Scatterbranch, Valley View, Savannah Springs (with the Baptist Church), Bagwell, Westminster, Drop, McKenzie Chapel, and Bethlehem.

The Board has continued to provide training sessions at the annual district-wide events with emphasis on incorporation and adequate insurance coverage. We encourage each local church to seriously consider the General Church Insurance Program. For more information, write to the General Council on Finance and Administration, 1200 Davis Street, Evanston, Illinois 60201.

The North Texas Conference Board of Trustees recommends the following legislative proposals.

The North Texas Conference Board of Trustees recommends the abandonment of Weston UMC of the Sherman-McKinney District, and that the property be received by the Conference Board of Trustees.

We recommend the abandonment of Ravenna UMC of the Sherman-McKinney District, and that the property be received by the Conference Board of Trustees.

We recommend the abandonment of Minter UMC of the Paris-Sulphur Springs District, and that all legal efforts be made to contact the legal heirs. If in the event legal heirs cannot be located, the Conference Board of Trustees will receive the property.

We recommend the abandonment of Gunter UMC of the Sherman-McKinney District, and that the property be received by the Conference Board of Trustees.

The North Texas Conference Board of Trustees recommends one discontinuance.

We recommend the discontinuance of First UMC, Ringgold, of the Wichita Falls District. The property is to be received by the North Texas Conference Board of Trustees and when the property is sold, the 1989 apportionments ($519) shall be paid from the sale proceeds.

The North Texas Conference Board of Trustees also recommends the adoption of the By-laws of the North Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc. These By-laws will be presented by the Conference Secretary.

COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

Contrary to the questions some individuals expressed following last year's action to merge the former Board of Discipleship and the former Board of Age Level Ministries, this new "Super" Board of Discipleship has become a focused planning body as well as 12 semiautonomous Divisions and Committees conducting programs as authorized.

In addition to the new Division of Spiritual Formation, brought into existence as a Division of the New Board at the last session of the Annual Conference, two Committees of the Annual Conference relate to the Board: The Human Sexuality Committee and the Summer Events Committee.

The Divisions of Evangelism and Stewardship are proposing extensive quadrennial programs that will hopefully impact each local church witnin the conference, while the Board has produced a WORKING PLANBOOK for 1989-92 that lists the Quadrennial Emphasis and Ethnic Minority Comprehensive Plan detailing our year-by-year board plans and division-by-division plans for the next four years.

Following are the division and committee reports:

THE DIVISION OF EDUCATION has been evaluating its relationship to the local church and exploring ways to be of assistance in practical ways. In keeping with the '88-'89 theme of developing local church leadership, division members have participated in the winter district "know your job" workshops. In light of their findings, division members are now designing the coming years' work to focus on: 1.) Job descriptions to fit various models of church schools, 2.) Updating audio-visual aids, 3.) Assisting EMLC churches in developing networks especially helpful in meeting their education needs, and 4.) Working cooperatively with age-level division to provide leadership events for education leaders of the local churches.

THE DIVISION OF EVANGELISM's goal this past year was to develop a four-year comprehensive plan for evangelism. Under the theme, "Reaching the Unchurched", we started our effort by soliciting responses from selected clergy concerning the needs of the churches of the Conference in the area of evangelism.

The following four-year emphasis was developed:

1989-90--Each church and pastor would be encouraged to tithe 10% of their time to reaching the unchurched in the community. "Each Board and Council will also be asked to tithe 10% of their time, efforts planning and energy to 'reach the unchurched." Also, beginning with the Annual Conference 1989, every local church will be encouraged to adopt a program of "Friendship Evangelism." Friendship Evangelism stresses "each one bring one to Christ and the Church."

Spring of 1990--There will be regional workshops on evangelism. These events will present practical skills workshops targeted to helping train laity and clergy on how to meet the needs of the unchurched.
1990-91--this would be "The Year of the Sunday School." Working with and through the Division of Education, Children and Adult Ministries, these divisions will present Sunday School Rallies, training events, and encouragement to start new Sunday School classes, and revitalize existing classes.

1991-92--The focus for the last of the four-year project will be "Reaching the unchurched through music and worship." Working with the Division of Worship, workshops would be offered to revitalize music and worship in local churches.

THE DIVISION OF STEWARDSHIP has continued the work of the division in providing resource expertise to local churches as they plan annual stewardship programs and campaigns. The division is in the process of making up-to-date church and secular ideas for fund raising available to area churches. The intent of these ideas is to enable churches to stabilize their finances, pay their apportionments and to increase the mission and ministry of their church. In addition to this continuing focus from last quadrennium, the division is considering volunteerism, motivating and mobilizing people for work in the church, a priority.

The concept of proportional giving to the church, whether in time, talent or money, has degenerated over the past generation to the extent that is found its place, along with death and taxes, as the third inevitable prospect in this uncertain world of ours. The deterioration of the concept is so complete witnin the church today that the motivating force behind giving of oneself is that we might be rewarded for our efforts thirtyfold, sixtyfold, even one hundredfold. In other words, giving to the church has become good investment material. However, the biblical approach to proportional giving is contrary to these contemporary interpretations and both theological and practical in nature. Biblical giving is theological in that it acknowledges God's prior gift to us to which we respond. It is practical in nature because it provides a means by which ministry and mission may be performed. Particularly in the Old Testament, but also in the New Testament, religious giving is an affirmation of God's ownership of creation, a means of upkeep to the religious structure and support of those society has forgotten tne sojourner, the fatherless, the widow, those who could not take care of themselves in the social structure.

We in the church are in desperate need of rediscovering proportional giving in its truest biblical context. In that rediscovery, we might find hope in answering the age old, yet equally contemporary, questions concerning security, independence, self worth and relationship with our Creator.

THE DIVISION OF SPIRITUAL FORMATION has spent the first year developing a comprehensive plan. In January a consultant shared witn us from his experience, and as a result a four plan has been developed. Plans are being made to create and maintain a registry of Spiritual Formation leaders and events, and design models for events, retreats, and workshops. A logo has been chosen, and through a publicity committee plans are being made to lift up spiritual growth events during the year. An Upper Room Five Day Academy for Spiritual Formation will hopefully take place in 1991 or 1992.

THE DIVISION OF WORSHIP cites one structural change and one programmatic goal that head the list of our accomplishments. At the suggestion of the conference agenda committee, the job of planning the worship services of the annual conference was assigned to a task group of the agenda committee, thereby freeing the worship division to plan events to strengthen the worship life of local congregations. As a result, over 20 people participated in the planning of the services, including ethnic and minority representation at every level.

Tne division has planned a series of workshops for November of 1989 to teach congregations how to use the new hymn book. The division sent a team of three to a special training session in Nashville for the express purpose of being trained to lead such workshops.

THE DIVISION OF CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES continues to focus on the provision of leaders, consultants, and events to strengthen Children's Ministries in the local church. Events such as TEACHERS OF ALL CHILDREN, YOU ASKED FOR IT, and training for Vacation Bible School directors and teachers, are scheduled annually. Other training opportunities for weekday ministries teachers and directors are provided once or twice a year.

A secondary focus of the Children's Division is the discovery and development of those people in local churches who can and will provide leadership training beyond their own congregations. The Division then brokers leadership on request.

THE DIVISION OF YOUTH MINISTRIES in 1988-89 continued its commitment to providing quality leadership training and support for the Adult Youth Workers in our Conference. The Division sponsored Training for Teachers of Youth Sunday School Classes, held a weekend Conference Forum to provide training for Sunday evening workers with youth, and sent its division members to the National Forum on Youth Ministry this past January of 1989.

The highlight of the year was the newly created Perkins School of Youth Ministry, sponsored by the Youth Division. This intensive four day event was held in January of 1989 at Perkins School of theology. The event was quite successful in providing theoretical and practical help for the adult worker with youth. The event will be held again in January of 1990.

The Youth Division continues to support the Youth Workers in our Conference, maintaining frequent contact with them. Conference Youth Worker's meetings are held every other month during the school year and a Youth Workers Retreat is held twice a year. These meetings provide a setting wherein youth ministers, whether they be lay professionals, ordained, full or part-time, volunteer or paid, may benefit from a community of those like themselves who advocate youth concerns. They often turn to one another for support and affirmation. This community is significant to many as they persist midst the dynamic goings on of youth ministry.

THE DIVISION OF ADULT MINISTRIES has: 1.) Provided two scholarships for the Disciples Bible Study Leadership Training, 2.) Organized the Single Adult Ministries Task Group as a part of the Division of Adult Ministries, 3.) Sponsored the Conference single adult participation in the South Central Jurisdiction Leadership Training Event at Mt Sequoyah "Creating and Building a Single Adult Ministry", 4.) Prepared the division's four year Comprehensive plan For The Strengthening Of The Ethnic Minority Local Churches in our conference, and 5.) Sponsored the first ever conference-wide adult event "Created for Intimacy".

THE DIVISION OF FAMILY MINISTRIES selected as its areas of focus for the Quadrennium: 1.) Parenting 2.) Marriage; 3.) Families in Grief. Our goal is to provide Conference, District, and Local Church training, programs and publicity for Activity Parenting Classes, Celebrate the Marriage seminars and Families in Grief sessions. In addition to providing training for leaders in these areas, funding has been allocated for for purchase of videos and materials for "Active Parenting" and "Growing through Grief" by Howard Clinebell. These materials will be available through the Conference Resources Office. We want to affirm the various types of families in our Conference and to assist them in their quest for wholeness.

THE COMMITTEE ON HUMAN SEXUALITY has again been actively involved in the work of the Conference. This year two more persons were added to the list of Certified Educators, bringing the number of people available to teach in the local church to seven. And those seven people conducted workshops in local churches in every district. The Committee also sent several of its members to a national Workshop on Human Sexuality in Nashville at which an inter-conference network of Sex Educators was established.

THE COMMITTEE ON SUMMER EVENTS: Who will provide the mountain top experiences for the children and youth of our local churches? One of our functions is to provide the camping experiences for our youth. Through coordinating dates, and recruiting and training personnel our committee puts in place the events that enable camping in our conference. Local churches certainly provide camping and retreat events for their local situations, but the Summer Events Committee does it in a unique and special way for the conference.

Children and youth from several different local churches come together in a way that is different than their local church could provide and enriches them spiritually and culturally.

Last year 1,825 children and youth attended one of thirty district or conference camps. Those 1,825 represent a 15% increase over last year.

These children and youth return from the mountain top enriched, refreshed, and called to ministry in their local setting. We hope that we have been a part of that experience.

As these reports reflect, your "New" Board of Discipleship is functioning and functioning well as reorganized at the 1988 annual conference session.

BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

The Board of Global Ministries continued to look at what it means to be in mission in the world, beginning at home and reaching out to the world.

VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION

One of the most productive areas of missions during the last ten years has been the increase in use of volunteers to meet the needs of local, national and international mission projects. Once the need is made known, project listings make the specific projects available to volunteers throughout the church. The volunteers, individually or in groups, provide the skills, their own maintenance and travel and most often provide the resources to accomplish the mission projects they have chosen.

South Central Jurisdiction Volunteers in Mission has made valuable contributions to the effort to use time, talent and resources of volunteers to accomplish projects as outlined by the local leaders and approved by the church leadership.

With the growth of Volunteers in Mission, it is hoped that the North Texas Annual Conference will add a fourth Division to the Board of Global Ministries to further support this welcome involvement of talented and energetic persons of all ages.

Martha Stowe is currently the Chairperson of the Committee on Volunteers in Mission within the Board of Global Ministries. We are happy that Bishop and Mrs. Blake will accompany a work team headed by Martha Stowe to Bolivia in July of 1989 as a part of the North Texas Conference emphasis on Volunteers in Mission.

Jim Palmer,
Chair

CONFERENCE SECRETARY OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

Mission is a mandate of the church. Our new Bishop, Bruce Blake, has affirmed that emphasis in many ways in his leadership. We appreciate his challenges to us to move forward in ministry and mission.

Mission is the task of all of us, beginning where we are. However, there are certain persons in each District who have been asked to give special leadership, and to be resource persons in mission. These seven are the District Secretaries of Global Ministries. Our thanks to them for their work this year: Carol Dennis (Dallas Central); Michael Jackson (Dallas-Denton); Kerby Edwards (Dallas-Northeast); Ruben Esquivel (Dallas-South); Pat Johnson (Paris-Sulphur Springs); Nell Shepard (Sherman-McKinney); Jean Lindsey (Wichita Falls).

The Conference Secretary of Global Ministries and the District Secretaries, together with the Conference staff, serve as a team of mission resource persons in the Annual Conference. This mission team also cooperates with the United Methodist Women in mission education and itineration of missionaries. For eight years Larry George served in a fine manner as the Conference Secretary. We thank him for those years of work. Your new Conference Secretary will endeavor to continue such leadership and resourcing in this new quadrennium. The CSGM is the elected person who works with the Conference Board of Global Ministries and the ACCOM to provide the necessary liaison between the Annual Conference and the General Board of Global Ministries.

The North Texas Annual Conference is to be commended for responding through the years in giving to the General Advance for Christ and His Church. Our totals for the Advance from 1986 through 1988 are: $205,931.; $220,624.; $230,265. The steady giving growth each year means that all of us, lay and clergy, have been involved in sharing in mission across the world. However, there are increasingly desperate needs everywhere which continue to call us for our response.

In 1988 and 1989 the plans for a Mission Saturation Event in each District were fulfilled. Don Benton, the former Chairperson of the Conference Board, has led the preliminary planning in 1986-87 with mission leadership to develop these events. The District Superintendents, their committees, local churches, and Conference leadership have all worked in a wonderful way to enable the story and witness of mission to be brought from all over the world and shared in hundreds of our local churches. A sincere "thank you" to all of those who gave so much of their time and energy to make this possible. These mission events should help each local church to achieve more mission outreach.

A major priority of the General Board of Global Ministries World and National Divisions is that of missionary support. Today there are 818 United Methodist missionaries serving outside the USA and their home country, and 431 are serving as national missionaries, including those in the USA. Ninety-eight new persons were commissioned as missionaries in 1988. Missionary support comes through World Service, Women's Pledge to Missions, and the General Advance. Any church can become a "covenant relationship" church through the General Advance, to share in a designated manner in the support of a missionary. Small membership congregations may do so through $3.00 per member; larger churches (over 300 members) with at least an amount of $1,000. per year. There is a great need today for churches to become "covenant" churches. You may do so by contacting your Conference mission team members.

In this "covenant relationship" missionary support, the North Texas Conference relates to a number of missionaries. Those commissioned missionaries who are sent to serve through the General Board of Global Ministries with whom we have a large commitment for support include:

Dennis and Janette Fulton (Central Zaire)
Robert and Laura Fukada (Japan)
James Edwin and Nancy Tims (Brazil)
John and Gladys Betts (Brazil)
Boyd and Jitsuko Reedy (Japan)
Thomas Lung (Hong Kong)
Adil Illiya (Liberia)
Jean Jacobs (Peru)
Starr and Christina Bowen (Mexico)
Nancy Wilson Boye (El Salvador)
Tim and Pamela Baker (Zaire)
Wayne Wesley and Teresa Ann Byas (Brazil)
Stephen and Evelyn Cain (Brazil)
Terry and Muriel Henderson (Mexico)
Robert and Lilliam Hunt (Malaysia)
LeGrand and Jayne Smith (Argentina)
Ronald and Linda Myers (Alaska)
Bill and Barbara Fitzgerald (Nigeria)
Stephen and Vanessa Bradley (Central Zaire)

We have observed the 40th anniversary of the General Advance for Christ, and we move forward into the next forty years. The celebration of the 50th anniversary of UMCOR is set for 1990. May our past involvement in mission only be a prologue to our future witness, as we reach out in faith across the world.

Kenneth B. McIntosh,
Conference Secretary

DIVISION OF COMMUNITY MINISTRIES

The Division approved funding to forty community service agencies for a total of $80,068. These ministries are located in 13 different communities of the conference. Over 17 of the 40 ministries are not related directly to the United Methodist Church. However after careful evaluation by members of the Division, these ministries were deemed worthy of support.

Two workshops were sponsored by the Division again this conference year. One session was scheduled at the Floral Heights UMC and the second session was held at the Highland Park UMC. The theme of the workshops was recruiting and managing volunteers. Martha Edens was workshop leader with Martha Stowe assisting.

Empra Roberts,
Chair

DIVISION OF NATIONAL AND WORLD OUTREACH

Our Conference Division of National and World Outreach planned and carried out an orientation for District Mission Secretaries led by Ken McIntosh. Funds to local churches ($400.00 each) were awarded for special projects in missions. Funds for refugee resettlement were given, and the Cooperative Mission Event was supported.

We have made plans for a conference emphasis upon two projects in 1990: support for the Rio Grande Annual Conference ($25,000.00) and support for Andean Rural Health Project/Bolivian Methodist Church ($50,000.00). These special projects will be presented at our Annual Conference session. We are making plans for a one-day conference on sheltering the homeless in September, and a one-day conference on world hunger (led by UMCOR personnel) next Spring. District Mission Secretaries are now contacting local church mission leaders, inviting them to attend the Cooperative Mission Event next September.

Wayne Odom,
Chair

DIVISION OF HEALTH AND WELFARE

During the past year, the Division of Health and Welfare involved itself in several significant areas of ministry. In an effort to reverse the trend of declining support for our conference related institutions, the District representatives of the Methodist Mission Home in San Antonio formulated specific strategies to generate more revenue for them, and for the other institutions.

To fulfill our other obligations in the area of Health Care and Human Services, the Division solicited at large members with expertise in the fields of mental illness, aids, the elderly, and physical acceptability. The Division plans to provide seminars in each of these areas over the next year.

Most of the Division's time was directed to Wesley Village, a retirement center in the Sherman-McKinney District, and its umbrella organization, the Retirement Homes of North Texas.

In response to the severe financial crisis, the Division is providing approximately $600. a month for Wesley Village operating expenses. In addition, we have been in the process of evaluating Wesley Village's request for a $200,000. loan.

To assist with our involvement in this request we arranged for a consultant to be provided by the General Board of Global Ministries. The Consultant's report is on file in the Council on Ministries office.

THE METHODIST HOSPITALS OF DALLAS SYSTEM

Methodist Hospitals of Dallas is one of Dallas' large, leading regional health care systems with three hospitals - Methodist Medical Center, Charlton Methodist Hospital and Southeastern Methodist Hospital.

Methodist Medical Center, the largest of the three hospitals, is a 463 bed general acute-care teaching hospital and regional referral center, with a full range of medical, surgical, obstetrical and psychiatric programs, some of which are national and international in scope.

Methodist Medical Center is currently in the midst of a $75.5 million campus renewal program which began in late 1988. Methodist Pavilion II, a professional office tower and Outpatient Center, will open in the spring of 1989. The Cancer Center and a new Patient Tower are scheduled for completion by 1990.

Charlton Methodist Hospital serves Southwest Dallas and the communities of Duncanville, DeSoto, Lancaster and Cedar Hill. A licensed 147-bed hospital, it offers general medical and acute and intensive care surgical programs, a 24-hour emergency service and an outpatient diagnostic and day surgery center.

Southeastern Methodist Hospital serves a large population in Mesquite, Southeast Dallas, Balch Springs, Seagoville and beyond. It is a 102-bed general acute-care community hospital with general medical, surgical and obstetrical programs, a chemical dependency unit for inpatients, a day surgical service and an emergency unit staffed at all hours.

The mission of the Methodist Hospitals of Dallas is to serve people in defined service areas by meeting their health needs effectively and in a manner that reflects "a commitment to Christian concepts of life and learning" and, in all ways, merits continued identification with the United Methodist Church.

In fiscal year 1988, Methodist Hospitals of Dallas:
- treated 24,185 adult and pediatric inpatients.
- delivered 4,123 babies.
- performed 5,977 inpatient surgeries and 10,034 day surgeries.
- completed 88,669 outpatient tests, treatments and procedures.
- treated 60,476 emergency room patients.

United Methodist Churches in the North Texas Conference continued their support of the Golden Cross Program. In 1988, 136 of 344 churches (40%) made a contribution to the program. Thirty three churches achieved the $1 per member fund raising goal established by Golden Cross founders: Allen, Bethel/Shady Grove, Briarwood, Charleston, Cumby, Dike/Mahoney/Saltillo-/Old Saltillo, Enloe, Commerce First, Terrell First, Decatur First, Duncanville First, Forestburg, Gafford Chapel, Garvin/Oak Grove/Slidell, Greenland Hills, Inglewood, Irwindell, Leonard, Messinger Chapel, Oak Cliff, Paradise, Pecan Gap, Petty, Pleasant Valley, Plymouth Park, Ridgeway, Shooks Chapel, Sulphur Bluff, Trailwood, Trenton, Trietsch, Williams Chapel and Wolfe City.

Through Methodist Medical Center's Clinical Pastoral Education(CPE) Program seminarians and ministers offer the ministry of healing to all patients, family and staff. In April 1989 four chaplains will complete an extended unit of Basic CPE. These chaplains, were assigned to specific area of the hospital on a part-time basis. They assisted the seven full-time chaplains in ministering to the people of MMC. Five chaplain residents will complete a year of ministry in August, 1989. Rev. Carole Somers-Clark and Rev. Logan Jones supervise the on-going ministry and education of these chaplains. In November 1988, the National Association of Clinical Pastoral Educators, Inc. accredited Methodist Hospitals of Dallas for chaplain supervisory training. The Rev. Pam Roberts will join the staff in July 1989 to begin her training in educational ministry.

The Methodist Home

President, Methodist Home Board of Directors: Dr. Eugene Cragg

THE EAGLE HAS LANDED! February 10, 1989, Methodist Home was designated an EAGLE facility by the United Methodist Association of Health and Welfare Ministries. EAGLE is an acronym for Educational Assessment Guidelines Leading toward Excellence, a quality enhancement program developed by the United Methodist Association, a nationwide association of United Methodist related geriatric facilities, hospitals, and child care agencies. This achievement is in addition to the continued certification by the Council on Accreditation.

The EAGLE is a dual-thrust effort created to encourage and recognize excellence in Christian mission and ministry in keeping with the rich historical tradition of the United Methodist Church. Successful completion of the EAGLE Program signifies that Methodist Home has demonstrated it:

strives to meet and exceed legal, financial, ethical, and clinical standards.

continually monitors and evaluates its service quality, the effectiveness and quality of its staff and safety of its facilities.

has designed its programs to be sensitive to meeting community needs.

has an effective management program.

has a written statement of mission and program which reflects its purpose of Christian service and witness.

has a clear written statement of relationship with a connectional unit of The United Methodist Church.

The United Methodist Association of Health and Welfare Ministries which conducts the EAGLE Program is headquartered in Dayton, Ohio and is made up of nearly 400 members, including some 178 retirement and long-term care communities, 28 hospitals, 58 child care agencies, and 37 annual conferences.

The EAGLE will be with us as Methodist Home continues to meet the highest standards possible. We also believe that every child living outside of its own home deserves a minimum level of care. Through the years we have appreciated the support of the seven annual conferences of Texas and New Mexico of the United Methodist Church in standing with Methodist Home to uphold Methodist minimum standards of care for all children needing care by someone other than their parents, and to sustain the principles of state licensing. Therefore, again, we request the annual conference reaffirm this commitment to maintain the principle of state licensing.

We are indeed grateful for the tremendous effort that all of you have made in financial support of our children and youth through the Methodist Home December Christmas Offering.

In the face of an alarming increase in child abuse reports (up by almost 33% in Texas during the last decade), we are grateful to report to you that the combined programs of the main campus, the Boys Ranch, and Foster Care of Methodist Home have provided over 9,100 additional days of care above last year's total. We must do more. We ask every local church to join us in helping to make needy families more aware of the services of Methodist Home.

We request your continued prayers and support.

HOW NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE CAN HELP METHODIST HOME PERFORM ITS ROLE

1. Designate Methodist Home December Christmas Offering.

2. Re-affirm the defense and protection of rights and privileges of children needing care by other than their parents, and uphold the principle of licensing agencies, for purposes of caring and placing children, to protect minimum standards of care for every child in the care of other persons.

3. Pastors are encouraged to contact Methodist Home directly regarding child placement needs. Write to, or call, the Methodist Home Services Dallas Outreach Office, University Park U.M.C., PO Box 12038, Dallas, Texas 75225, 214/692-1361 or the Methodist Home Admissions Office, 1111 Herring Avenue, Waco, Texas 76708, 817/753-0181.

4. Contact Mr. Ty Herring of Methodist Home when individuals indicate consideration of Methodist Home in making their long range giving and charitable estate planning.

5. Please place the following dates on the Conference Calendar: Methodist Home Board of Directors Meeting on November 10, 1989, and the Methodist Home Commissioners' Meeting on October 10-11, 1989. Please do not hesitate to call upon Rev. Tom Strother or Dr. Jack Kyle Daniels for any needs you might have.

Dr. Jack Kyle Daniels Administrator

Methodist Mission Home

In 1989 The Methodist Mission Home celebrates its 94th year - serving since 1895!

President/Administrator: Dr. Harold D. Burkhardt, 512/696-2410
Chairman of the Board of Directors: Mr. Harold Harriger

OWNERSHIP AND/OR RELATIONSHIP TO THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

The Methodist Mission Home is owned and operated by a Board of Directors whose election is confirmed by the seven participating Annual Conferences. The North Texas Conference and the Methodist Mission Home are bound in ministry together through our long standing tradition and our Relationship Statement, formally adopted by the two bodies in 1987. This statement is on file at the agency, as well as in the Conference offices.

SERVICES AVAILABLE

The Methodist Mission Home is the umbrella for two distinct ministries:

A. SOUTHWEST MATERNITY CENTER

1. The Center gives option counseling for the pregnant unwed young woman, in both resident and non-resident settings; for those who choose to release their child for adoption, we keep a reserve of some 40 approved couples who are ready to be chosen by our licensed agency as "the home the child needs."

2. Field offices with part-time maternity counselors are located in various cities throughout the Conferences. Information regarding maternity services is always available through a toll free call any time of the day or night at 1-800-284-0410. Field offices can assist in deaf services also.

3. In 1988, we had contact with 220 maternity clients, 88 came into our care, we cared for 69 infants and placed 58 of them, and placed 5 older children for adoption. We served 124 adoptive parents and 168 other parents in process.

4. For information regarding adoption, call on Wednesdays between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. at 512/696-7021.

B. SOUTHWEST CENTER FOR THE HEARING IMPAIRED

This residential rehabilitation program, organized in 1974, served 83 new clients in 1988, averaging 52 clients per month. Services are for young adults, 16 years and older, who are handicapped by severe hearing impairment, as well as other additional vocational disabilities. The program includes evaluation of work abilities, aptitudes, personal/social adjustment, counseling (vocational and personal), structured residential living, life skills and work adjustment training. Toward the end of the 12-18 month residential period, there is work experience in a community employment setting and independent living experience in our on-campus apartments. Clients served represented 9 different states.

The Supported Employment Program began in November 1987, and placed 18 clients into competitive employment. These clients have the eight most severe disabling conditions, and previously often remained on welfare their entire life. Twenty two additional placements are targeted in 1989.

Late in 1988, a contract was signed with the Job Partnership Training Act through the Alamo Private Industry Council for Job Readiness Training and Job Placement of Physically Disabled Individuals. Five placements were made with individuals receiving this service.

THANKS TO THE NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE

Of the 354 churches in the North Texas Conference, 132 gave the Mission Home $43,267.00. We thank you for this, and urge churches to participate in some way toward this vital ministry.

Our total giving from the conferences was $300,530.00, up $25,724.00 from 1987. 14% of our income comes from church giving, 16% from individual gifts, and 3% from endowment.

The remaining 67% must come from fees for services rendered. In 1988, expenses were $2,316,082.00 and income was $2,097,028.00. The Methodist Mission Home has no outstanding debts, and has an endowment of about one million dollars. The campus is on a 30 acres tract of land in northwest San Antonio and is valued at seven million dollars.

An outside audit is performed each year, and is available to the Conference leadership as requested.

NEW AVENUES OF SERVICE

The Executive Committee, in its February 1989 meeting, reviewed proposed plans for yet a third ministry, which is to be considered by the Board of Directors after this report is written. If approved, we will be making an announcement of this new service on April 1, 1989, as well as at Annual Conference sessions.

Strategies for new services which are within the stated purpose of our Charter and Mission Statement, are periodically under review by the Board of Directors through its Program Committee. The Mission Home exists to serve persons in need. As these needs change, the Mission Home strives to become a vital part of meeting those new needs which are within the scope of our mission and expertise.

THE BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

Continuing the ministry of uniting knowledge and vital piety, the Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry is in missional outreach to provide the following:

(1) A climate for spiritual growth which encourages exploration of values.
(2) Pastoral support for students, faculty and administration.
(3) An opportunity to evangelize the unchurched.

Support sought - The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry encourages all churches to support our seven Texas Metnodist Colleges and our five and one-half Campus Ministry units. We further encourage our churcnes to make their support practical by generously contributing to the Higher Education offerings (Black College Fund; Hispanic, Asian and Native Americans - HANA - educational ministries; United Methodist Student Day and World Communion Offering).

Student Leadership Development Forum - The Board sponsored three students to the Student Leadership Development Forum which emphasized leadership training, theological education, education for social justice, ecumenical concern and personal enrichment. Those attending were Reginald Bullard and James Evans from the University of North Texas, and Rhea McNett from Texas Women's University.

Merit Award Program - The Board will again present the Annual Merit Scholarship of $500.00 to a student to be named at the Annual Conference Session. This money is the provided rebate on our Conference Student Day Offering.

Campus Ministry Study Task Force - A Campus Ministry Task Force authorized by Bishop Blake will begin meeting on Monday, June 19, 1989. The task force will be studying the direction of campus ministry and is composed of the following members: Bill Crouch(Chair), Bruce Weaver, Wally Chappell, Lane Tunnell, Ira Thompson, Ann Cardwell, Hal Brady, and Ken Hildebrand. Findings and recommendations from the task force are to be made to the Cabinet no later than January of 1990.

College Fairs - "College or Bust, Without Being Busted" - Come learn more about United Methodist Higher Education in Texas! These October college fairs are for all students and parents. The fairs will feature highlights of each Methodist college, distinguished alumni guests, scholarship information and financial aid information. The time is 2:00-4:30 p.m. on Sunday afternoons of October (October 1-Trinity UMC, Denton; October 8-First UMC, Sherman; October 15-First UMC, Wichita Falls; October 22-First UMC, Paris; October 29-SMU Student Center, Dallas).

African University- The United Methodist Church is growing dramatically in Africa. Its need for leadership is critical. A single pastor is serving ten...fifteen...even twenty-five congregations. By the turn of the century, 1/5 of the world's population will live in Africa. College and university education is available only at great cost and inconvenience to Africans, most of whom have to travel to Europe, Latin America or the United States. In Zimbabwe alone, in the next few years, 146,000 students will qualify for entrance into a university. But most will be excluded because only 2,700 places will be available.

In May 1988, the General Conference heard the need, caught the vision, and overwhelmingly accepted the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry's proposal to build a university in Africa. They committed $20,000,000 over the next four years, $10,000,000 to be raised through apportionments and the remaining $10,000,000 through World Service special gifts. No delegate spoke in opposition to the University, and the proposal passed by an 87% majority vote.

The North Texas Annual Conference has been apportioned $45,228 per year over the next four years. This amount goes toward the securement of the first $10,000,000 apportioned. Another $45,228 needs to be raised each year through the Annual Conference for the $10,000,000 World Service Special Gifts Campaign. This combined challenge for a new African university can be underwritten if each congregation in the North Texas Conference will give its "apportioned asking" twice each year. If a church is apportioned $1,000 a year and it gives $2,000 a year, the task is accomplished. In the words of Donald A. Treese, Associate General Secretary of the Division of Ordained Ministry, "For the church to be training pastors, teachers, scientists, doctors and agriculturalists for the new Africa, places United Methodism truly on the frontiers of mission."

Hal Brady,
Chair

Perkins School of Theology

Concern over the effect on seminary education of the increasing number of "second career" students was raised during the year, with the observation that this population now represents 65% of enrollments. This involves more part time students who choose courses for convenience as much as content. Previous life experiences are difficult to credit for these persons. Broader interpretations by the church of study requirements for ministerial qualification burdens seminaries with responding to these factors with integrity, while aiding the church in meeting increasing demands to train persons adequately for ministry.

Student enrollment this year maintained a balance with last year, with 271 in the Master of Divinity degree program and distribution among other degrees totaling 417 for the fall, with a small rise to 423 in the spring. Women constitute 38% of the students in all programs and the combination of Asian Americans, African Americans, and Hispanic students reaching a total of 63, with 31 internationals. The ages of students showed the largest segment in ages 25-34, though a significant number are in the 40-49 age range.

Renewal of a sort, other than theological, has been the norm this year as Perkins Chapel and Bridwell Library have undergone redecoration and major renovation. The Chapel received its regular face-lift, with general painting and cleanup accomplished during December and January.

The Bridwell Library has functioned "in exile" for almost the whole year, while total renovation of the building has been accomplished. Circulating collections were shifted to a dormitory basement, while staff dispersed to other office locations. With the reopening in March, services of the library for students and researchers will be vastly improved. Carefully designed reading rooms, private study carrels, conservation facilities, galleries, and archival storage will constitute one of the foremost research and knowledge facilities in this part of the world.

Emphasis on the Ministerial Education Fund remains crucial as the annual base of local church support for ministerial studies in the seminary. The Jurisdictional "Fair Share Goal" campaign continues for Perkins as we seek to improve the endowment that is essential to the perpetuity of support for student financial assistance, the Intern program, and other important facets of education for ministers in training. Several significant estate gifts were gratefully received, including $65,000 for the Fern Woodhull-Oden Memorial Scholarship Fund, $500,000 for a lectureship on the arts as interpreters of religious faiths and practices, and $160,000 for the Faculty Development Program funded jointly by the Lilly Endowment. A new program, Partners With Perkins, seeks special gifts with an emphasis on international students and general scholarship support from persons able and interested in this type of investment.

New faculty this year include Dr. Thomas William Spann and the Rev. Marilyn Spurrell Atkins in the Intern Program. Dr. Yap Kim Hao of Malaysia and Singapore has been Visiting Professor of World Christianity. Bishop James S. Thomas retired from the East Ohio Conference and came as Distinguished Visiting Professor of Practical Theology. Bishop John Wesley Hardt became Bishop in Residence upon retirement from the Oklahoma Area. Dr. Ruth Tiffany Barnhouse retires this year. We were saddened by the death of Bishop W. McFerrin Stowe, who had served eight years as Bishop in Residence, following retirement from the episcopacy.

Search committees for five faculty positions that are coming open due to retirements began early in 1989, driven by inspiring visions that Perkins may equip itself and its students to meet the challenges of ministry in the 21st Century.

Southern Methodist University

This has been an important year of self-study, transition, and progress in the life of the University. The academic mission of SMU is being refined and clarified through a series of internal committees and the work of a Task Force on Academic Priorities. A Task Force on Financial Feasibility and one on Diversity also will report this Spring. Based upon these deliberations, I shall make recommendations to the faculty and ultimately to the Board of Trustees this Fall. I can assure you that our mission, and my vision, will be in tandem with our fiscal ability to make our plan a reality. SMU is a strong university that must continue to do well what it can do best, namely, teach undergraduate students through a broad-based program of education in a personalized living and learning environment. At the same time, we must continue the outstanding tradition of the Perkins School of Theology and the School of Law, as well as a limited number of graduate programs.

The Board of Trustees, elected in July 1988, has functioned superbly. The Board has proved to be a hard-working, hands-on governing body. Its committee structure provides members with a broad understanding of policies and procedures, the opportunity for meaningful discussion, and with those, a real sense of responsibility for and to the institution. As chairperson of the Board, Ray Hunt continues to provide outstanding service and leadership.

Several initiatives have been set in motion this year that should, over the next few years, strengthen our important United Methodist ties. For example, we have increased our involvement with TUMCA by participating in its new brochure, as well as hosting a "Day at SMU" for chairpersons of the Boards of Higher Education and Ministry. We have produced for the first time at SMU a poster with tear-off forms requesting more information, which has been sent to all episcopal appointments in the South Central Jurisdiction. SMU will be the host institution for the 1990 Jurisdictional Youth Rally, in which some 2,000 United Methodist young people from throughout the Jurisdiction will be on the SMU campus July 13-19, 1990.

The Task Force on Church Relatedness, which I appointed in the fall of 1988, has made its report, which reinforces the importance of SMU's United Methodist connections and reaffirms the positive steps we are taking.

I would be remiss if I did not talk about athletics. I have been very pleased at the direction in which Athletics Director Doug Single is moving our overall program. In particular, I believe we are on the right track in renewing our football program with integrity and in a manner that is consistent with the mission of the University.

After almost two years as SMU's president, I am pleased to report that we continue to make progress in meeting our current challenges, and we pursue with increased vitality our quest toward excellence as an outstanding United Methodist institution of higher learning.

A. Kenneth Pye
President

Texas United Methodist College Association

In 1988 the North Texas Conference paid $178,635.04 to "Texas Methodist Colleges", which is 81.2% of the total apportioned of $219,631; and paid $136,879.80 to the Black College Fund, which was 82.3% of the apportionment of $166,350. On behalf of the seven United Methodist colleges and universities in Texas which received these monies, I thank you for your support. We thank you especially for the increased amounts paid on these apportionments: 9% more in 1988 than in 1987 for Texas Methodist Colleges, and almost 17% more to the Black College Fund! We appreciate that very much.

All of the funds received by Lon Morris, McMurry, S.M.U., Southwestern, and Texas Wesleyan from the Texas Methodist Colleges apportionment, and most of the funds received by Huston-Tillotson and Wiley from the Black College Fund, go to financial aid for students. So I most especially thank you on behalf of the students who received these funds. Your money helped over 7000 students attend our institutions last year. When I think of the thanks these students have expressed for your help, I think especially of these words of Curtis Smith, a United Methodist from Chicago: "I am very pleased that I was given a chance to become something. Most people just need a chance. Thanks to the Lord, mine finally came! I am one proud and grateful student! The United Methodist Scholarship Fund made it possible for me to be here at Huston-Tillotson College in Austin, Texas. My prayer is that I will prove to be a worthy choice." I hope you will "hear" those words more than 7000 times as thanks for your support.

These apportioned funds are important to our colleges and to the students who receive them. The following figures for the fall of 1988 provide an indication of that importance.

	Percentage of Undergraduate Students Receiving Aid	Average Amount of Aid
Huston-Tillotson College	93%	$4,158
Lon Morris College	90%	2,993
McMurry College	78.5%	2,205
Southern Methodist University	50%	4,000
Southwestern University	66%	7,500
Texas Wesleyan University	92%	5,128

In other words, almost 65% of the undergraduates attending our seven institutions receive aid, and the average aid ranges from just under $3000 to $7500 per student per year. Thanks to you and other supporters, our colleges work hard to make it possible for deserving students, regardless of their economic circumstances, to get an education at a United Methodist institution.

You can support your institutions also by encouraging persons in your church to get in touch with the Admissions office of the United Methodist college or university in which they might be interested, even if they think there is no way they could afford to attend the institution. Give the college a chance, at least; find out what aid can be provided! Our colleges want to educate more United Methodist students; help us by encouraging people in your church to consider one of our institutions!

Our colleges are different. To be sure, each one is different than the other six, but all seven are different than most public institutions. Some of the differences with public institutions are:

Size and personal attention and sense of community

Emphasis on good teaching, and beginning courses taught by full professors and other experienced faculty rather than graduate teaching assistants

Freedom to advocate values and to strive to create an environment congruent with a Christian understanding of life

Teaching of religion courses and teaching of the Christian faith and traditions and scriptures and ethics

Videotapes are available about each of our seven colleges and universities in Texas, and we also have a 15 minutes videotape which contains a brief introduction to each institution and to the association. We are glad to share these videotapes with church groups and individuals; please get in touch with the association office to make arrangements.

THE COMMISSION ON ASIAN MINISTRIES

CONCLUSION
The following is the story of your Asian sisters and brothers in Christ. It is also your story, because you have responded to God's call in this area of mutual ministries, with your sensitivity and commitment. Let us move forward together to continue the story with visions and boldness..

A CHALLENGING QUESTION ON CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

There always exists the tension in the church (the world) between the specific needs/concerns of the "ethnic" or cultural groups, on the one hand, and the common interests of the community of faith at large, on the other hand. While not negating this reality for certain ethnic groups, the COAM has begun a process of dialogue/consultation regarding the justification for the continued existence of a formal program agency structure for the Asians as currently represented by the COAM. Challenging questions which arose from the dialogue are as follows:

1. Since the formation of the COAM in 1983, has the Commission accomplished the goals set out in the charter?

2. Are there sufficient and effective Asian leadership participating in the Conference decision-making processes without a continued need of a formal structure for the Asians as currently represented by the COAM?

Significant Accomplishments since 1983:

Congregational Development:

Strong and growing existing Asian congregations and fellowship groups.

Two new Korean churches chartered with two congregations relocated to new and more spacious sites for the purposes of expanding evangelistic social witness. The Filipino congregation has expanded to two locations, with the intention of becoming two separate churches in two strategic locations for missional outreach. The recent addition of Chinese, Asian Indian and a second Cambodian fellowship to the existing groups make the North Texas Conference Asian group a total of five churches and seven fellowships. The story of ministry to the Asians is continuing. The present Asian population in the North Texas Conference boundary is estimated to be 120,000. This is considered a conservative estimate. The projection is that this population will grow at a 3-5% per annum minimum. The question is not whether the North Texas Conference will continue to minister to the needs of this group, but rather how best to serve a group with diverse backgrounds and changing needs. Should the North Texas Conference provide the ministry to the Asians by continuing to build more language/cultural churches or should the North Texas Conference begin to think of alternative models of ministries. One possibility may be a multicultural, interracial or even interdenominational worship service and programs. COAM, in the next few years, in consultation with the Cabinet and relevant Conference agencies will focus its energy on this challenging task coupled with a self-evaluation of the continued viability of the existing Asian language/cultural churches.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

While the COAM strongly believes in the notion of interdependence of all peoples and affirms the people of God are one, people are not equal in the current situation. Thus, COAM believes a necessary route to becoming interdependent is first to be independent. One way of achieving independence to interdependence is through continued leadership development. Future leadership training focus is listed in the ELCC Comprehensive Plans. COMA will focus on Asian Women, Church School Workers, Laity Church Membership, Recruitment/training of bilingual trainees, and Youth Ministry. Also, to recruit Asian persons or persons with special gifts and graces to serve the Asians, for full-time ministries.

Leadership Accomplishments:

In this connection, it is noteworthy to mention some of the 'firsts' leadership accomplished by the Asians:

1. First Asian elected as a delegate to the General Conference from the North Texas Conference.
2. First Korean Woman to be on the Commission.
3. For the first time, the Cambodian young women feel secure in participating in a COAM sponsored annual Asian Youth Retreat.
4. In response to increasing importance of Dallas to the Asians, the National Federation of Asian American United Methodists will hold its biannual General Assembly and its National Asian Women Regional event in Dallas for the first time.
5. Most importantly, for the first time, more qualified Asians are nominated to the Conference Boards and Agencies.

Biblical/Theological Statements

John 3:16 God loved the world (people) that he gave his only Son, that everyone who has faith in Him may not die but have eternal life.

Luke 4:18-19 The Spirit of the Lord is upon me because he has anointed me;
He has sent me to announce good news to the poor;
To proclaim release for prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind;
To let the broken victim go free,
To proclaim the year of the Lord's favor.

The Gospel of Jesus Christ is universal and the people of God are one and interdependent.

COMMISSION ON THE BLACK CHURCH-1988-89

During this Conference Year, the Commission on the Black Church has focused on fulfilling it's requirements identified in Standing Rule #3.

Compelled by the Holy Spirit to address those areas of specific need, our agenda has been Leadership Development. Demographics of the African-American church's current membership provides pure evidence of this specific need. Recognition is given to the fact that most of the assistance we give is financial aid. However, the Scholarships provided, in our opinion, have been beneficial to the African-American churches and rewarding to the individual recipients.

Focusing on Leadership Development in the African-American churches is demanded at this point in time. The need is not limited or confined to one category. It exist at both the clergy and lay categories. We have provided scholarships to persons in both categories during this year. Those specific training events and categories where scholarships were provided are listed below:

Training Event	Category
Evangelism and Church Revitalization	Clergy & Lay
School On Youth Ministry	Lay
National & International Issues Seminar	Lay
African-American Church School	Lay
Baby Boomer Conference	Clergy
The Black Family/Crack-Cocaine Prevention	Clergy-Lay

We express deep appreciation to other agencies of the Annual Conference for providing additional resources when requested. These actions have encouraged us to continue our efforts in strengthening the African-American churches of the North Texas Annual Conference.

Let us therefore adhere to the call of the Apostle Paul and "Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ." Galatians 6:2

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

In the past year the Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious concerns has begun to pay more attention to interreligious concerns along with its traditional emphasis upon Christian unity.

A questionnaire designed to identify United Methodists with special interests, abilities, or needs in interreligious dialogue was sent to all the pastors in the North Texas Conference through a mid-monthly mailing. Twenty-seven pastors responded to the questionnaire. Of these respondents, 18 said that there are members of their churches who belonged to another faitn tradition before becoming Christian, 11 said there are members of their churches who have family members who follow a non-Christian religion, 24 said they have within their congregations a significant population of people with backgrounds in non-Christian religions, 17 indicated that they tnink that there are people in their congregations who would benefit from a workshop focusing upon relating the Christian faith to other religious traditions, 7 indicated that there are people within their congregations who have special interest, experience, or expertise in interreligious dialogue, and 13 said that they personally have a special interest in interreligious dialogue.

At the November, 1988 South Central Jurisdictional Joint Training Event, Glenn Noblin, Chair of C.U.I.C., presented a biblical rationale for interreligious dialogue in C.U.I.C. chairpersons representing the conferences in this jurisdiction.

The commission planned a breakfast for a Jewish-Christian conversation featuring Rabbi Sheldon Zimmerman and moderated by Dr. Hal Brady. The breakfast was planned for Tuesday morning of the 1989 Annual Conference, June 6.

The Commission was represented in the past year at both Texas Impact and the Texas Conference of Churches.

Glenn Noblin,
Chair

THE COMMISSION ON COMMUNICATIONS AND RESOURCES

The Commission on Communications and Resources placed special emphasis on "Reaching the Unchurched" and increasing service to the local church through the work in three committees.

Highlights of the work of the Print Media Committee, chaired by Ms. Kay Fielder, include:

1. The purchase of a laser printer to be used for special promotional pieces, brochures, and letterheads. This laser printer aided in the design of the Mission Alive logo for the four Dallas districts' mission saturation events. Districts and local churches are invited to use these services on a time-available basis.
2. Publishing of the North Texas Conference page of The United Methodist Reporter, edited by Lillian Sills, associate director of the Conference Council On Ministries, assisted by circulation secretary, Shirley Cooper.
3. Campaign to increase conference page subscriptions in conjunction with the Texas-New Mexico Communications Council.
4. Publishing of the Conference Calendar and monthly resource packet.
5. A commitment to provide racially inclusive clip art for church newsletters and bulletins.

The Telecommunications Committee, chaired by Mr. Tim Crouch, made the following contributions:

1. Worked in cooperation with the Texas Conference to produce Television spot ads which were aired by five annual conferences.
2. Sponsored 27 "Catch the Spirit" spot ads on WFAA Channel 8 TV, Dallas, which aired weekdays between 6 a.m. and 5 p.m., March 6 through 17, during the Lenten season.
3. Contributed to the support of the ecumenical program, "Faith Focus," which airs Sundays at 6:30 a.m. on Channel 5 KXAS TV, and worked with the Greater Dallas Community of Churches to increase participation and support for the program.
4. Made contacts in the Dallas area to bring the ecumenical cable TV network, VISN, to the North Texas Area.

The Conference Resource Committee, chaired by the Rev. Howard "Rusty" Hedges, worked with the Conference Resource Center Librarian, Mrs. Leora Trice, on the following accomplishments:

1. Added 200 new video tapes and filmstrips and several pieces of audio visual equipment to the library.
2. Published a new catalogue for 1989 through 1992, which will have yearly supplemental updates.
3. Established a "drop off" point at First UMC, Dallas, to provide better service for local churches in the city, and offered several district and conference viewings of new materials.
4. Increased usage by small urban and rural churches and by lay persons of the Resource Center.
5. Continued to provide special programming and leadership training events through the Cokesbury Satellite TV network.

Lillian Sills represented our Commission at the United Methodist Association of Communicators meeting last November, and at the National Religious Public Relations Council Convention in April. Ms. Sills, Mary Brooke Casad, and Chauncey Nealy attended the Jurisdictional Training Event/Convocation on Racism in Dallas last fall.

Chauncey Nealy, vice-chair of the Commission, led a workshop for our Commission to study the "Come, Share, Rejoice" material provided by the general church. The Commission has assumed the task of apportionment interpretation for the Conference, and will be working with conference boards and agencies to provide special emphasis in this area. Rod Hargo United Methodist Communications field staff consultant for the South Central Jurisdiction, will serve our Conference as a resource person.

Chair

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

THE VISION

The Commission on Religion and Race has for its vision an inclusive church in the North Texas Conference where every person, clergy and laity, is accepted and loved regardless of race and culture, such that his/her gifts, graces and selfhood may be developed "reaching to the very height of Christ's full stature." (Ephesians 4:13b)

THE GREEN LIGHTS

We see encouraging signs toward racial inclusiveness in the conference such as the following:

1. Work done by the Task Force headed by Dr. Don Benton which should make an impact in the policies and practices of the conference. This is a positive response to the resolution prepared by Dr. Alfred Roberts, then out-going chairperson of the Commission on Religion and Race;
2. Comprehensive Plan for the quadrennium sponsored by the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee (formerly called Ethnic Minority Local Church) headed by Henry Masters, which was a collective effort of all conference agencies;
3. Disciplinary provision mandating the position of a District Director of Religion and Race which we believe would provide leadership for our work in every district;
4. Openness of the Bishop and his Cabinet and conference agency chairpersons which we deeply appreciate;
5. Enlarged membership of the Commission on Religion and Race giving us strong leadership from the seven districts.

THE YEAR BEHIND

The Commission carried on the program of the past years and accomplished the following:

1. Sponsored a Religion and Race workshop November 12, 1988 at the First United Methodist Church, Dallas, attended by around 100 leaders from the 7 districts from all church levels, with Bishop Bruce P. Blake providing an excellent theological foundation for racial inclusiveness and each district developed a plan of action;
2. Produced a video tape "United and Unique" as a resource for churches to know more abut the possibilities for religion and race programs at all levels. This audio visual project was started by Dr. Alfred Roberts and the Commission;
3. Interfaced with other conference agencies, the District Superintendents, and worked closely with the Conference Council on Ministries and the EMLC Committee; and

4. Funded leadership development efforts of the Asian and Black Methodist for Church Renewal Caucuses.

THE YEAR AHEAD

The Commission faces the future with hope and faith as it plans:
1. To get organized into committees to effectively execute its functions and roles for all members to attend the Fall Retreat of the Conference Council on Ministries for training and guidance;
2. To work closely with the 7 districts through the District Superintendents and the District Directors of Religion and Race toward having district workshops on concerns related to racial inclusiveness;
3. To work closely with the different conference agencies toward the fulfillment of the vision. The United Methodist Women had already invited the Commission to work with them on their program on inclusiveness;
4. To implement the Plan of Action submitted to the ELCC Comprehensive Plan for the quadrennium.

THE WORD OF THANKS

I wish to acknowledge the gifts and graces invested in the work of the Commission by:
1. The faithful members of the Commission who came for meetings and workshops
2. Dr. Don Barnes, CCOM Director, who was the efficient staff person for our Commission.
3. The Conference Council on Ministries, headed by Bobbie Mankey, who supported the efforts of the Commission.
4. Special thanks to St. Lukes' Community United Methodist Church for providing our meeting space.

Above all, we give thanks and praise to God, the Parent of all peoples, who created us in His image...Purihin and Panginoon!(Filipino for "Praise be to God!")

COMMISSION ON STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

In this first year of a new quadrennium, the commission has focused on developing leadership within the commission and in the local churches, especially (but not exclusively) regarding women.

Since the commission is aware that each church community has its own specific needs, a questionnaire distributed during the previous year was analyzed to see what the profile of leadership was in each church. While we were able to offer some staffing for District "My Job" workshops during early 1989, we plan to be even better equipped for 1990 training in the "Districts and in the local churches.

Meeting with Joe Pool, facilitator for the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Comprehensive Planning Committee, the commission spent a significant amount of time developing a four-year plan that will support and respond to the needs of the ELCC within the guidelines of CSRW.

Members of the Commission participated in Jurisdictional and Conference Training workshops and planning sessions through the Chair of the Commission. Members participated in reflecting on the role of the Commission and what we could provide in the way of training, workshops, retreats, etc., to meet the needs of women within the church as well as those who find themselves classed as "unchurched".

A video-tape presentation, "Images of God," has been purchased and placed in the Conference Resource Center for use in studies and reflection as we seek to arouse the awareness of other regarding how and where individuals experience God in their lives.

We continue to struggle with the role of this Commission, realizing that leadership within the local church is increasingly inclusive as regards gender, and that the focus of our work may need to change to supporting women in their changing situations.

LAY ORGANIZATIONS

UNITED METHODIST MEN

The United Methodist Men has continued to grow during this year. A number of new units have been chartered and the number of men participating in the Every Man Shares program has increased. The scouting program is very strong and has proven to be a successful way to bring families into the church.

My tenure as Conference President is ending and Dr. Gerald Bisbee will be the new Conference President. Dr. Bisbee has been very active in the men's work and is currently president of the Northeast District UMM. I thank all the members of the Conference and appreciate their help and support. It has been a pleasure and a wonderful experience working with the clergy and lay people.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

Methodist Women---Organized for Mission. This statement was certainly true over 100 years ago as women in the North Texas Conference organized themselves and collected funds for mission work, in the Conference, the nation and other countries. Today the emphasis is still there on mission, but the methods of collecting funds have changed over the years. The spiritual, and social needs as well as interest in expanding concepts of mission are spoken to in the Purpose of United Methodist Women.

The 9,290 women in 201 units in the North Texas Conference have been alive in mission as they seek ways to fulfill the Purpose in events through the year. The School of Christian Mission sponsored two field trips to local shelters where the women saw the faces of poverty in our city. The concerns of the People of South Africa affected us all as we learned about apartheid. At the Annual Meeting in September, groups heard about "Membership, UMW in the Future," "How Women are Peacemakers" and "The Campaign for Children." New officers were installed and the theme "By Faith We Journey" was addressed by Carolyn M. Marshall, immediate past President of the Women's Division. Under the able leadership of the President, Joanne Greening, the Conference United Methodist Women surpassed the 1988 pledge of $192,296.00 by $1,355.48.

Ten United Methodist Women from the Conference went to Austin in January and joined other United Methodist Women from all of the Texas Conferences in a Legislative Event where they talked with Legislators and learned about the tremendous needs in Texas for better education, more aid for families, and teenage problems.

The new Conference Mission Team that had been elected in September participated in a Leadership Development Workshop in March where the importance of their task was studied.

A Conference wide Spiritual Enrichment Event was held at the First United Methodist Church in Van Alstyne where 220 women and a few men were spiritually uplifted by Constance Waddell.

A representative from the conference attended the National Training Event on "Ministries to Incarcerated Women and Tneir Children." She was one of only forty selected over the country to attend. United Methodist Women have long been advocates of inclusiveness and this emphasis continues today. A Comprehensive Plan was submitted to the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee. Dialogue has been held with black churches on racism, and plans are being developed for more understanding between racially diverse women in conjunction with other boards of the Conference.

The Campaign for Children is an ongoing five year emphasis as local women have helped to design programs for after school care for latch key children, held a two week child abuse prevention seminar and gathered clotning for infants and children. This Campaign helps to identify the needs of children, our country's future, and encourages local women to be advocates for children.

As we look to the future, we will continue the campaign to increase membership by 10%. "Growing in Mission" is the theme of the emphasis, and from these new members new leaders can be developed.

The quadrennial Assembly for United Methodist Women will be held in Kansas City, Missouri, May 3-6, 1990. The theme will be, "Witnessing for a New World." The gathering of the expected 10,000 United Methodist Women will be a witness of faith in a new day as the Assembly offering will have as its theme, "Witnessing for Children and Youth in a New World."

We have inherited the special hopes and dreams of our predecessors in this community of United Methodist Women and we go forward as women for a new day concerning ourselves with the needs of women and children everywhere.

PROFESSIONAL MINISTRIES

BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

The 1988-89 conference year has been a time of change for the Board of Diaconal Ministry. Witn the beginning of a new quadrennium and a new Board and new officers of the Board, we would like to thank all those faithful members who have helped us accomplish the following:

The Board has developed new guidelines on how the Board will function as a Board. These guidelines deal with proper procedure for transfers in and out of our Conference, requests for leave of absence and retirement, as well as procedures to complete the Diaconal candidacy program. These guidelines become effective June 1, 1989.

We have trained 25 persons as mentors for Diaconal candidates with each assigned. There are over 30 persons in the candidacy program for Diaconal Ministry.

We have requested the expansion of our Board to a fourth Division for Recruitment and Interpretation, so that we can be about recruiting more persons to Diaconal Ministry. As part of this program we are participating in the comprehensive plan of the North Texas Annual Conference in order to recruit ethnic persons into Diaconal Ministry and to envision other ways that Diaconal Ministers can assist ethnic churches.

We have arranged for the implementation of the new psychological assessment for Diaconal candidates program through the Southwest Career Development Center. This is a new requirement for all Diaconal candidates within their first year of candidacy.

This year we are recommending three persons for Consecration: Kathryn Johnson, Christopher Stevens, and Mark Unkenholz. With these three there will be 53 Diaconal Ministers in the North Texas Conference; 41 active with 26 in Education, 10 in Music, 1 in Church Business Administration, and 4 non-certified; 5 on leave of absence, and 7 retired.

We also recommend the following persons be certified: Cathy Guiterrez as Associate in Church Music, Casey Cantwell as Associate in Church Music, Paul Sackett as Associate in Church Music, Mary Ruth Caldwell as Director of Music, Carol Cook as Associate in Christian Education and Mark Unkennolz as Minister of Music.

We look forward to another productive year for the Board of Diaconal Ministry as we continue to serve the church in a variety of forms of ministry.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR STUDENTS

The Board of Ordained Ministry has available scholarships for qualified persons who are planning for full-time ministry in The United Methodist Church, ORDAINED OR DIACONAL. These funds are primarily for students in seminary, but there are funds which can be used by undergraduates.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR CANDIDATES IN SEMINARY

The procedure for application for funds is as follows:
1. A letter each year from your District Superintendent stating that you have been certified as a candidate for ministry. (See paragraphs 404-405 or 304-305)
2. A letter each semester from the accredited seminary you are attending stating the number of hours you are taking that semester
3. A personal statement each semester from you about your progress and plans as they develop

All of these letters should be sent to the Scholarship Chairperson, Fred Kandeler, P. O. Box 12038, Dallas, TX 75225. Requests for the fall semester should arrive by September 30. Requests for the spring semester should arrive no later than January 30. Requests must be made for EACH SEMESTER that financial aid is needed.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR CANDIDATES IN UNDERGRADUATE SCHOOL

The procedure for applications for funds for students attending college is as follows:
1. A letter each year from your District Superintendent stating that you have been certified as a candidate for ministry (see paragraphs 404-405 or 304-305)
2. A letter each semester from the college you are attending stating the number of hours you are taking that semester
3. A personal statement from you each semester about your progress and plans as they develop

All these letters should be sent to the Undergraduate Scholarship Chairperson, Joan Gray, 214 S. Denton St., Gainesville, TX 76240. Request may be made to the Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry when unusual circumstances arise that require special financial assistance other than the regular scholarship aid.

GUIDELINES FOR 1989-1992
REPORT I -- The Division of Local Pastors

For several years the operating guidelines of the Division of Local Pastors could only be found by looking to several sources: the current Discipline, the current Journal, documents developed by the Division, and oral tradition. This procedure was adequate as long as there was not a major turnover in personnel on the Division of Local Pastors. However, in an effort to standardize procedure this document has been developed to bring the fundamental information from all these sources together in one place. Frequent reference has been made to appropriate paragraphs in the Discipline to which one should refer when necessary. In some cases, our conference expectations are higher than the minimum standards of the Discipline. Therefore, these guidelines represent all current policy related to the Division of Local Pastors.

The Division of Local Pastors (DLP) has the responsibility of general supervision, evaluation and recommendation to the full Board of all persons pursuing Ordained Ministry who have been certified as a candidate until they apply and are approved as either associate, probationary or full members of the North Texas Annual Conference, or until their candidacy is discontinued, whichever comes first.

The title Local Pastor means that the person has the full privileges and responsibilities of the "pastor" including sacramental privileges within the specific location of his or her appointment. The authority is granted for one year at a time under the appointment of the bishop and the cabinet and under the supervision of the District Superintendent and a Counseling Elder. All Local Pastors have been certified as candidates and have completed the Studies for the License as a Local Pastor before being eligible for appointment.

Sub-titles in the following pages will direct the reader to the specific information they seek. In each case, a contact person on the Division of Local Pastors is identified. This Person may be contacted for clarification or for more specific information. All addresses and phone numbers are at the end of this document.

References to paragraph numbers in parenthesis refer to The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church 1988. The basic requirements and procedures defined below have their origin in the Discipline, primarily in Chapter Three, "The Ordained Ministry," sections 1-3, paragraphs 401-428.

COUNSELING ELDERS — Roy Spore

When a person is certified as a candidate for ministry, he or she shall be assigned a Counseling Elder. The Counseling Elder will be a member in full connection who has been recommended by the cabinet, approved and trained by the Division of Local Pastors of the Board of Ordained Ministry, and assigned by the District Committee on Ministry. The District Committee shall notify the Division whenever assignments are initiated or changed. The Counseling Elder may or may not be the same person who worked with the Local Pastor during candidacy studies. The Counseling Elder and the District Superintendent both have a direct responsibility for supervision of Local Pastors (para. 406.4).

The training for Counseling Elders will be offered periodically as the need develops. Initial training for Counseling Elders under these guidelines was held at Bridgeport Conference Center on May 31, 1989. A list of approved and trained Counseling Elders is included within the total report of the Board of Ministry.

The Local Pastor and the Counseling Elder shall establish a mutual covenant around the development of vocational and educational goals which arise out of the ministry setting and in response to the requirements for the continuing education of the Local Pastor. This covenant will be subject to approval by the District Superintendent and/or District Committee on Ministry and will be placed in the District's file. Models of this covenant are made available at training events for Counseling Elders or by contacting the DLP. The following elements should be included in the covenant (para. 411):

1. A contract of mutual accountability for growth and decision making in support of effective ministry.

2. A review of the vocational goals and plans developed by the Local Pastor during candidacy. These goals should be updated periodically in light of new responsibilities and experiences. For example, specific goals may relate to the completion of part two of the licensing school as identified below.

3. An examination of those significant incidences of ministry growing out of the Local Pastor's ministerial responsibilities, which may lead to the development of modification of specific educational and vocational goals.

4. The monitoring of work in the Course of Study. The Counseling Elder should check on the progress of this work, be willing to discuss any issues that arise, and be available to work with the Local Pastor when required to do so by the Course of Study.

Once the covenant has been established, the Counseling Elder should monitor the Local Pastor's progress in attaining the goals set forth. An annual report shall be sent to the district Committee on Ministry and a copy of it sent to the Chairperson of the Division of Local Pastors of the Board of Ordained Ministry, which is due fifteen days prior to the date set for interviews by the district Committee on Ministry and a copy of it sent to the Chairperson of the Division of Local Pastors of the Board of Ordained Ministry, which is due fifteen days prior to the date set for interviews by the District Committee on Ministry. This report will be reviewed by the District Committee when considering continuance and will remain in the Local Pastor's file until such time as he or she is admitted into probationary membership in the Annual Conference. This report will be reviewed by the DLP when considering continuance of Local Pastor status.

Every certified candidate for ministry, of which Local Pastor is one category, is required to have a Counseling Elder. When a Local Pastor is appointed to a different district, he or she falls under the jurisdiction of the DCOM in the new district, and all reports should be forwarded to the Chairperson of that DCOM. The Division of Local Pastors recognizes the benefit of long term relationships between the Local Pastor and the Counseling Elder and encourages the continuance of these relationships whenever possible. However, the Local Pastor falls under the jurisdiction of the district where he or she holds Charge Conference membership and it is the responsibility of that district Committee on Ministry to assign a Counseling Elder. It is recommended that each District Committee on ministry seek to continue and foster long term relationships between each Local Pastor and his or her Counseling Elder, taking into consideration geographical limitations and the lines of accountability between the Counseling Elder and the District Committee on Ministry.

Should either the Local Pastor or Counseling Elder feel that it would be in the best interest of the Local Pastor to terminate the relationship, either person may request the DCOM to assign a new Counseling Elder to the Local Pastor. Such a request should be made in writing, stating the rationale for the re-assignment. Should the DCOM concur with the request, a new Counseling Elder will be assigned to the Local Pastor. In such an event, it will be necessary for the Local Pastor and the new Counseling Elder to re-negotiate the covenant of support and for the DCOM to notify the DLP of the change.

It is recommended that the training of Counseling Elders take place during the May session of licensing school. At this time, each new Local Pastor will meet with his or her Counseling Elder and, under the guidance of the Division of Local Pastors, establish the supportive covenant which becomes the basis of the relationship. For Local Pastors who have already completed Licensing School, it is recommended that the supportive covenant be reviewed at least annually, preferably during the month of May, prior to Annual Conference. The DCOM will be responsible for reviewing these covenants and approving any changes therein prior to recommending continuance of the Local Pastor.

For persons who have been certified as a candidate for ministry but not yet approved as a Local Pastor, the same guidelines as outlined herein shall apply. If mutually agreeable, the pastor who supervised the candidate through candidacy studies may continue as his or her Counseling Elder until he or she becomes a Local Pastor or a Probationary Member of the Annual Conference.

LICENSING SCHOOL — Millard Fairchild

1. Who should attend?
   a. Any unordained person who desires to serve an episcopal appointment, regardless of educational progress,
   b. who has completed candidacy in time to be certified by the DCOM by January 31, at the annual interviews,
   c. who is recommended by the District Committee of Ministry,
   d. who is preparing to serve their first appointment,
   e. and who is approved by the Division of Local Pastors of the Board of Ordained Ministry at their Spring interviews.

2. How does one apply to the school?
   Become a certified candidate by:
   a. Interviewing with the DCOM and receiving their recommendation to attend Licensing School, and
   b. Interviewing with the DLP at the Spring interviews and receiving their approval to attend.

3. What are the limits of the license?
   a. The limits of the pastoral appointment made by the bishop.
   b. Service is under the specific and direct supervision of the District Superintendent and the Counseling Elder.
   c. The Local Pastor is subject to the annual recommendation of his or her charge conference and the review and recommendation of the DCOM and the DLP for continuance as a Local Pastor. Final approval is voted on at the executive session of the Annual Conference.

4. What are the requirements and the options of the school?
   a. The school shall give 80 hours of contact between the instructors and the students.
   b. The school shall cover the 40 competencies recommended by the General Board of Ordained Ministry.
   c. The school may be two weeks at one time or two weeks separated by a time of reflection, or it may be a series of Friday nights and Saturdays or any combination of the above.
   d. It is recommended the school be done in a corporate setting but a mentor basis may be used when necessary.

5. The expense of the school rests with the BOM. Spouses are encouraged to attend whenever possible and their cost will also rest with the BOM.

6. The school is to be organized by the Division of Local Pastors in cooperation with the District Committee of the Ministry. The North Texas Conference school is in three parts:

a. Part 1: A residency school which is required of all persons preparing for their first appointment in the North Texas Conference. This stage will normally be held Tuesday morning through Friday lunch in May one or two weeks before Annual Conference. Current dates are as follows:

May 30-June 2, 1989	Bridgeport Conference Center
May 21-May 24, 1990	Bridgeport Conference Center

b. Part 2: A one-on-one supervised and directed study with the candidate's Counseling Elder. This stage is intended to give maximum help in the actual practice of ministry as persons are beginning to serve in the local church. Guidelines for this study have been developed by the Division of Local Pastors.

c. Part 3: A second week of residency school which will give candidates a chance to enhance their knowledge and sharpen their skills in specific areas of ministry. This stage will normally be held in August from Monday through Friday and will be a joint school with the Central Texas

Conference. Current dates are as follows:

August 14-18, 1989 Briarwood Presbyterian Retreat, Argyle
August 13-17, 1990 Briarwood Presbyterian Retreat, Argyle

7. Upon successful completion of all three parts of the licensing school or one half of seminary, the Division of Local Pastors will notify the Bishop that these persons are now available to be appointed as Local Pastors. A license will be issued by the Bishop's office if and when an appointment to a charge is made.

LOCAL PASTOR (para. 406)

A Local Pastor is a lay person who is (1) approved annually by the District Committee on Ministry, the DLP of the BOM, and the executive session of the Annual Conference and (2) licensed by the Bishop to perform all the duties of a pastor including the Sacraments of Baptism and Holy Communion as well as the service of marriage, burial, confirmation, and membership reception, while assigned to a particular charge (para. 406.1). Persons who have met condition one, but not condition two, are "approved and available to serve as a Local Pastor" and are not yet technically a "Local Pastor."

A Local Pastor may also be a person who was ordained as deacon or elder prior to 1976 or who enrolled in the second year of the ministerial course of study prior to January 1, 1977.

The authority granted by the license extends only within the charge to which the Local Pastor is appointed and only as long as the appointment is valid. It is renewed annually by the executive session of the Annual Conference upon recommendation of the DCOM the DLP, and the BOM.

All Local Pastors must meet the conditions of continuation of candidacy (para. 405) as well as the conditions of continuance as a Local Pastor (para. 409).

All Local Pastors are "amenable to the Annual Conference in the performance of their pastoral duties and shall attend the sessions of the Annual Conference" (para. 406.5).

The Division of Local Pastors normally sponsors a banquet at Annual Conference to which all persons approved to serve as Local Pastors and their spouses are invited. In this way we honor these persons who provide such an important service to the Church.

Full-time Local Pastor (para. 408.1) Charles Cook

Those eligible to be appointed Full-time Local Pastors are lay persons:

1. who have met the provisions for the license of a Local Pastor (para. 407),

2. who may devote their entire time to the church in the charge to which they are appointed and its outreach in ministry and mission to the community,

3. who receive in cash support per annum from all church sources a sum equivalent to not less than the minimum salary established by the Annual Conference for full-time Local Pastors (see separate report by the Commission on Equitable Salaries),

4. who, unless they have completed the ministerial course of study, shall complete one full year of work per year in a course of study school under the Division of Ordained Ministry (under special provisions may do one year by correspondence) (para. 409),

5. who, when they have completed educational requirements for associate membership, are involved in at least three CEU's per year of continuing education.

6. who shall not be enrolled in seven or more hours as a student in any school,

7. who receives annual review and approval to serve as a Local Pastor by the DCOM, the DLP, and the executive session of the Annual Conference,

8. who receives an appointment by the Bishop,

9. who provides the DLP with a satisfactory certificate of good health in order to be covered on the Comprehensive Protection Plan of the Pensions program (the prescribed forms are available from the Chairperson of the Division of Local Pastors and cost of providing this certificate are reimbursable to $100.), and who undergoes any additional testing and evaluations that the DLP may require,

10. who, when all requirements have been met, may choose to (a) apply for associate membership in the Annual Conference under the exceptional promise provision of paragraphs 416 and 424 (See "Associate Membership" below.) or to (b) remain as a Local Pastor.

Full-time Local Pastors are clergy members of the annual conference while under appointment. They may serve on any board, commission, or committee except the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Board of Trustees. They shall not be eligible for election as delegates to the General, Jurisdictional, or Central Conferences (para. 408.5). They have the right to vote in the Annual Conference on all matters except constitutional amendments, election of delegates to the General and Jurisdictional or Central Conferences, and matters of ordination, character, and conference relations of clergy (para. 701.1d).

A full-time Local Pastor shall complete the educational requirements within eight years. Extensions can be granted by vote or the executive session of the Annual Conference (para. 409.3).

Full-time Local Pastors (under appointment) are fully covered under the Conference Insurance Plan and the Pension plan (See number 9, above).

Part-time Local Pastors (para. 408.2) Jimmie Yarborough

Those eligible to be appointed as part-time Local Pastors are lay persons:

1. who have met the provisions for the license as a Local Pastor (para. 407),

2. who do not serve full time to an appointed charge, or who do not receive an amount equal to minimum salary as established for full-time Local Pastors by the Annual Conference (see separate report from the Commission on Equitable Salaries),

3. who shall complete at least one-half a year's work in the course of study for ordained ministry (para. 409),

4. who, when all requirements have been met, may choose (a) to apply for associate membership in the Annual Conference under the exceptional promise provision of paragraphs 416 and 424 (See "Associate Membership" below.) or (b) to remain as a Local Pastor

5. who receives annual review and approval to serve as a Local Pastor by the DCOM, the DLP, and the executive session of the Annual Conference.

6. who receives an appointment by the Bishop.

Part-time Local Pastors shall maintain their membership in the charge to which they are appointed (para. 406.6).

Part-time Local Pastors may for missional reasons be elected to ministerial membership in the Annual Conference while under appointment. If so elected they may vote on all matters except constitutional amendments, election of clergy delegates to General and Jurisdictional or Central Conferences and matters of ordination, character and conference relations of clergy (para. 701.1e). They may not be elected as lay members by their charge conference (251.2). They still have the privilege of voice at Annual Conference, but without vote (para. 701.2).

A Part-time Local Pastor shall complete the educational requirements within ten years. Extensions can be granted by vote of the executive session of the Annual Conference (para. 409.3).

Part-time Local Pastors (under appointment) must have the approval of the Bishop and the Cabinet to be covered on the Conference Insurance Plan and are covered by the MPP portion of the Pension Plan (paras. 1606.2a-c, .4f-g, .5a, .7).

Student Local Pastor (para. 408.3) Clay Womack

Those eligible to be appointed as student Local Pastors are lay persons:

1. who have met the provisions for the license as a Local Pastor (para.407),
2. who is enrolled in a college, university, or seminary approved by the University Senate, as preparation for ministry,
3. who shows evidence of satisfactory progress in their studies at the college, university, or seminary, by annually presenting their transcript or semester grade reports (para. 409),
4. who receives annual review and approval to serve as a Local Pastor by the DCOM, the DLP, and the executive session of the Annual Conference,
5. who receives an appointment by the Bishop,
6. who are not classified as part-time Local Pastor, full-time Local Pastor, probationary member, associate member, or fully connected member of the annual conference.

"Student Local Pastors may retain their membership in their home church and charge conference, but in the discharge of their ministerial functions they shall be amenable to the District Superintendent under whom they serve" (para. 406.7).

Student Local Pastors may for missional reasons be elected to ministerial membership in the Annual Conference while under appointment. If so elected, they may vote on all matters except constitutional amendments, election of clergy delegates to General and Jurisdictional or Central Conferences, and matters of ordination, character and conference relations of clergy (para. 701.1e). They may not be elected as lay members by their charge conference (para. 251.2). They still have the privilege of voice at Annual Conference, but without vote (para. 701.2).

Guidelines for Student Local Pastor salaries are included in a separate report by the Commission on Equitable Salaries.

Student Local Pastors (under appointment) are fully covered by the Conference insurance plan and by the MPP portion of the Pensions plan.

Student Local Pastors may be non-United Methodist provided they abide by an agreement made to support and maintain the doctrines and polity of the United Methodist Church (para. 408.4).

ANNUAL INTERVIEWS FOR DIVISION OF LOCAL PASTORS Donna Whitehead

1. Prerequisite: The DLP will interview only those persons who have met with their DCOM and (a.) who have been certified as a candidate and recommended to attend licensing school or (b.) who have been continued as a candidate and recommended to be approved as a Local Pastor in one of three categories: Full-time, Part-time, or Student.

2. Purpose: To get a realistic picture of strengths and weaknesses of each candidate.
   - to counsel, to advise, and to gain insight
   - not therapeutic
   - not resolution of issues, but identification of issues, so that recommendations and decisions can be made. Counseling Elders will be notified by the DLP of any recommendations or requirements.
   - work with district superintendents to give structure of accountability to Local Pastors

3. Timing:
   a. For first interview with the DLP:
      Recommended: 30 minutes
      Debriefing: 10 minutes after each interview
      Recommended size of interview team: entire Division
   b. For subsequent interviews with the DLP:
      Recommended: 20 minutes
      Debriefing: 10 minutes
      Recommended size of interview team: 3-4 persons

4. Process
   a. Brief moment before candidate arrives in which interview team focuses on next candidate.
   b. Initial interview phase
      - establish a positive climate between candidate and interview team
      - give purpose of interview
   c. Middle phase: Identify issues, strengths, problems, in order to make a decision.
   d. Final phase: Review important points in interview (keep brief).
   e. Tell candidate what to expect in relation to board's decision.

5. Questions: (These are suggestions. Not all of these need to be asked to every candidate.)

   a. Describe the most important experiences of your Christian life, including your call to the ministry.
   b. Describe and interpret your response to God's call to ministry.
   c. What are your future plans for ministry in the United Methodist Church?
   d. Describe your personal beliefs as a Christian.
   e. Name and evaluate your personal gifts for ministry.
   f. What do you see your growing edges to be, or potential problem areas?
   g. How will your close personal relationships affect your future ministry?
   h. Do you understand the obligations of the itinerant system?
   i. Are you completely dedicated to the moral ideals of the Christian life?
   j. What do you see as the greatest challenge of the United Methodist Church?
   k. Do you believe in the connectional system?
   l. What is your understanding of the apportionments? What do you see as their purpose?
   m. How would you explain to a 10-year old what baptism is?
   n. (If they are entering from another denomination.) Why do you want to become a United Methodist pastor?

6. Documentation Expected: (We expect 2 copies of all material - one for the committee and one for the candidate.)
   a. Certification of candidacy.
   b. Transcript of any recent education completed.
   c. Letter from Counseling Elder.
   d. Written recommendation from district committee on ministry.
   e. Medical form (for full-time Local Pastors).

7. Possible Decisions:
   a. The DLP makes its positive recommendation to the BOM. Upon approval by the BOM, the recommendation is presented to the executive session of the Annual Conference. Persons may be recommended for (1) approval as eligible to serve as a Full-time Local Pastor, Part-time

Local Pastor, or Student Local Pastor, or (2) any of the above, contingent upon successful completion of licensing school. The status changes "eligible to serve as Local Pastor" to "Local Pastor" upon appointment. A current list of those recommended in each category is attached as REPORT II of the Division of Local Pastors.

b. The DLP may decide to discontinue Local Pastor status (para. 410.1).
c. The DLP may suggest, recommend, or require any testing, evaluation, studies, etc., based on the progress of the candidate.

8. Schedule of Interviews: The Division of Local Pastors expects all District Committees on Ministry to interview Local Pastors annually, normally during December or January. This timing is especially important for those serving their first year, in order to have had the longest time possible to supervise the Local Pastor under appointment. The recommendations from the district committees are due to be turned in to the Division Chairperson by February 15. Interviews for 1990 will be as follows:

Tuesday, March 6, 1990	Highland Park UMC
Wednesday, March 14, 1990	First UMC, Decatur
Thursday, March 22, 1990	Wesley UMC, Greenville

9. Procedure for Persons Not Showing Up for Interview: The Spring interviews are mandatory. Multiple dates and places are provided for the convenience of the candidate. No exceptions, except in cases of extreme emergency, will be made to this.

COURSE OF STUDY SCHOOL — David Rucker

The Course of Study for Ordained Ministry of the United Methodist Church is provided and administered by the Division of Ordained Ministry (Nashville) for persons who are certified candidates, who have successfully completed the Studies for License as a Local Pastor, and who are unable to attend a school of theology. Through the Course of Study for Ordained Ministry, a licensed Local Pastor may qualify for associate membership in an annual conference. It consists of a five year basic course, an option of a correspondence course for special circumstances, and a two year advanced course.

Basic Course of Study

The Course of Study for Ordained Ministry is offered for one month each summer on the campuses of seven United Methodist theological seminaries. A complete list of schools and addresses is available from the Division of Local Pastors. The closest school is at Perkins School of Theology at SMU.

Application for enrollment at the Perkins Course of Study School is made by obtaining an application from Perkins (Bert Affleck's office), filling it out and sending it along with a check for $25 to the Division of Local Pastors. Application forms for enrollment at other schools can be obtained by writing the appropriate director at one of the approved schools.

Registration should be made early in the calendar year so there will be time to complete the preliminary reading and assignments prior to the opening date of the school. Whenever possible, application for the second through fifth years should be made upon completion of the previous year's study. Application for the first year should be made by February 1. Pre-class assignments for the Perkins Course of Study are due near the end of May for the first two-week courses, and about two weeks later for the second two-week courses. One full year's work consists of four courses. Specific information on dates for each school may be secured from the appropriate director.

One year of credit may be earned by attending the four week session. Some schools, such as Perkins, offer two-week modules. Enrollment may be for one or both modules. It is hoped that part-time Local Pastors will take advantage of attending the Course of Study School when it is possible.

The cost of all required textbooks, and of room and board, will be covered by the Division of Local Pastors.

Full-time Local Pastors and candidates for probationary membership through the Advance Course of Study are required to attend a Course of Study School except that, in case of emergency or unusual circumstances, upon recommendation of the Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, one year of the five year courses may be taken by correspondence (para. 408.1).

Part-time Local Pastors who do not plan to enter associate membership may be permitted by the District Committee on Ministry to take more than one year of work by correspondence.

A candidate who discontinues seminary may request that work completed at a recognized school of theology be evaluated by the Division of Ordained Ministry for transfer to the Course of Study for Ordained Ministry. The request for the evaluation must come from the Division of Local Pastors and an official transcript must be supplied. No credit is recognized in the Course of Study for work completed on the undergraduate level. Clinical pastoral education (CPE) units may be recognized for credit in the Course of Study for Ordained Ministry.

Correspondence Course of Study

Enrollment in the correspondence courses must be approved by the Division of Local Pastors which has the appropriate application forms. The student may enroll for one year of study at a time. Each year of study includes four courses. One half of the course fee, $20/course, should accompany the enrollment form. The other half, $20/course, should be paid when the course is completed. The Local Pastor must pay the first half of the fee, and the Division of Local Pastors will pay for the second half of the fee, plus all required textbooks. When an enrollment application has been received by the Division of Ordained Ministry, the student will be sent a study guide containing assignments for each unit, study suggestions, and directions for preparing the reports.

Students doing the correspondence course should include consultation about it in their covenant with their Counseling Elders.

Reports are graded by United Methodist seminary professors. The routine handling and grading of reports requires approximately three weeks. Reports for which credit is expected by annual conference time should be received by the division by April 1st.

It is the policy of the Division of Ordained Ministry that one year of the Course of Study may be completed each conference year.

Advanced Course of Study

Persons applying for the two year course of advanced studies must have (1) a Bachelor of Arts or equivalent degree from a college or university listed by the University Senate, or have demonstrated competency equivalence through a process designed in consultation with the Division of Ordained Ministry, and (2) completed the five year basic Course of Study.

Advanced Studies required for probationary membership and full connection must, without exception, be taken at a Course of Study School (para. 416.2d, para. 424.3d) or be transferred from a recognized school of theology.

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

Once a Local Pastor has met certain conditions, he or she can apply for Associate Membership and Deacon's orders or remain as a Local Pastor. When the DLP determine the following conditions have been satisfactorily met under their supervision, the candidate will be referred to the Division of Preparations and Qualifications to evaluate the remainder of the conditions (para. 420):

1. age thirty-five
2. served four years or its equivalent as full-time Local Pastor

3. completed the five-year course of study with at least four years in residency
4. completed a minimum of sixty semester hours toward the Bachelor of Arts or an equivalent degree
5. been recommended by the dCOM and the DLP of the BOM

After completing additional educational requirements, the associate member may want to consider going on to probationary and full membership with elder's orders.

Under exceptional conditions, upon recommendation of the Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, the Annual Conference may by 3/4 vote admit to probationary and full membership candidates qualifying through the Advanced Course of Study for Ordained Ministry.

DIVISION OF CHAPLAINS AND RELATED MINISTRIES

The Division of Chaplains and Related Ministries worked closely with Bishop Bruce Blake to host the annual meeting of those in appointments beyond the local church. The session with Bishop Blake was held at Highland Park United Methodist Church in Dallas on January 30, 1989. The meeting began at 10 a.m. and concluded following lunch. More than sixty (60) were present. This was an excellent attendance and the event was our first as the new Dallas Area.

We express deep gratitude to Bishop Blake for his outstanding presentation and his openness during the question-answer period. We are appreciative of his expressed interest and concern for those in such appointments.

It was a disappointment that the chair of this division was not included in the group for training, by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry, at the beginning of the quadrennium. The division held a special meeting to care for a request of Bishop Blake, made through the board, to review and evaluate the places (not persons) where beyond the local church appointments are made in the North Texas Conference. This included sixty-three places. The report was made to Bishop Blake's office.

This division urges district superintendents to include all appointments beyond the local church when requesting annual reports to be filed with the district office.

This division will have met four times during the conference year, with fine attendance every time.

The division will be seeking to utilize several means by which to help our conference better understand Beyond the Local Church Appointments and the importance of these to the connectional work of United Methodism. Materials and personal resources from the comparable division of the General Board will be used to assist in fulfilling our responsibilities to this conference.

We have assisted in the promotion for the annual luncheon of those in chaplaincy and other related ministry appointments.

THE BOARD OF PENSIONS

I. A Pastoral Word:

In the early part of December, The Reverend C. Randal James suffered a stroke. He spent four months in Presbyterian Hospital of Dallas. He is now at home spending his days at the Baylor Rehabilitation Center in Dallas. Randy continues in his recovery.

The North Texas Annual Conference wishes to express its appreciation for the work of Reverend James on The Board of Pensions. Randy had one foot in The Commission on Insurance and one foot in The Board of Pensions. Not an easy task for anyone because the demands and expectations are both heavy and constant. Insurance and Pensions are two concerns of us all and Randy worked to be sure that we were cared for in the best possible ways.

We as an Annual Conference will continue to pray for Randy. We will ask that God will bring him back to good health, so in the future he might be able to serve the Church which he loves so dearly. We will surely miss him in this most important role of Pensions and Insurance Officer for the North Texas Annual Conference.

II. The Perkins Fund:

Since our last Annual Conference Session, The North Texas Board of Pensions has continued to work with our colleagues who are retired. It is indeed my great pleasure to report to you that because of The Perkins Fund, we were able to present a $500.00 Christmas Gift to those clergy who retired in The North Texas Annual Conference. I call your attention to the Legislation that we as an Annual Conference passed last year. It is printed on page 204 of THE JOURNAL and helps to explain how this money is to be reported to the Internal Revenue Service.

It is also my pleasure to report to you that The Board of Pensions has responded to the needs that have arisen among the ranks of our retired colleagues. Because of The Perkins Fund our Board can respond to such obvious needs. The generosity of the Perkins Family has made our work so much easier and we are grateful to them for their gift to our Annual Conference a little over four decades ago. Today, we would say to Mr. Perkins that his investment is being used wisely and is helping us to help those persons during unexpected moments of need. Allow me to say a "thank you" to one who saw a need years ago and who openly responded to that need with a most generous gift. Investments in the future are helpful and still needed!

III. Disability:

Part of our work as a Board is with persons who must seek a disability status. THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE provides for us the procedure that we are to follow for placing people on disability. Later you will hear from The Board of Ordained Ministry regarding two of our colleagues who have asked for that status. The Board of Pensions plays a key role in this area and will continue to work with those people who, for one reason or another, can no longer continue their ministry.

IV. The Comprehensive Protection Plan:

A two year study (1987 and 1988) of our Comprehensive Protection Plan shows that we are running a deficit. We entered 1987 with a $5,500.00 deficit. In 1987 the Apportionment was $273,000.00. We collected $269,008.00 or 98.9% of the Apportionment. The need for all of us to carry out our part in the Conference Apportionments becomes obvious when we talk about such things at a session of The North Texas Annual Conference.

The Board of Pensions is asking for 5% increase ($15,580.00) for The Comprehensive Protection Plan or $327,185.00 for 1990. It needs to be noted that we have not asked for an increase for the past several years. We deeply appreciate what the members of The North Texas Annual Conference have been able to accomplish with this most important plan. A small increase of 5% will enable us to continue this work and to be sure that we do not create an unusually large deficit in the future.

V. The Service Rate Year:

A short history here will be of help to us. In 1982, just seven short years ago, the Service Rate Year was 143. In that same year the Conference Average Salary was $18,049.00. As an Annual Conference, we are always concerned about our colleagues who are retired and we increase their benefits as we increase our own. The cost of living does not go down for any of us.

This year the Conference Average Salary is $30,285.00 and the Service Year Rate is 273 for both Full Members and Local Pastors.

We have good reasons to rejoice for it is reported in the 1988 Journal that our 1988 service year was fifth in the connection. As an Annual Conference we have been working on a concern that has been neglected in the past for too many years. We have been commissioned to take care of our world, but we also have a responsibility to care for those individuals who have served the Church so well in the past and who have brought us to this place in history.

The Board of Pensions moves that the figure for the Service Year rate for 1990 be 287.

VI. The Unfunded Liability:

When the Council on Finance and Administration makes its report, we urge the Conference to approve the following amounts for the 1990 Conference Claimants Apportionment:

$550,000	for Unfunded Liability
$327,185	for the Comprehensive Protection Plan
$36,641	for the Conference Board of Pensions Operating Expense

VI. Housing:

It is a requirement of the Internal Revenue Service that we give to you the following information and that this information appear in the 1989 Journal: "That an amount equal to 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister during the year 1989, be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance."

COMMISSION ON INSURANCE

For what began as a year of little anticipated change, except that the Commission would have in place a new Chairperson, we, instead found ourselves in the midst of a sudden crisis with the tragedy of Randy James' stroke suffered on December 2, 1988.

We were at once faced with not only the anticipated work of the Commission, but also with major decisions relative to the day to day management of the office. We are gratified to be able to report that even with the varying levels of inexperience of those of us involved, the daily function of the office, including the fiscal management and service to plan participants, has continued with only occasional minimal delay and certainly without interruption. For this we are grateful to all who offered assistance or came to our aid when asked.

The contract renewal with Alta Health Strategies, Inc., the Administrator of our self-funded plan, was due January 1, 1989. The immediate and pressing need was to evaluate their renewal offer without the benefit of time to go to the marketplace for comparison. Outside professional assistance was obtained to make this evaluation, and after considerable questions and discussion with Alta, the renewal contract was accepted and signed. The new contract was negotiated net of any commissions for the stop-loss and life premiums. The fee for services provided was also negotiated. The other significant change in the contract was to increase the stop-loss reinsurance provision limit from $40,000 to $60,000. These changes effected substantial savings to the plan and are projected to be in excess of $20,000 fro the calendar year 1989.

Your Conference Insurance Commission viewed with considerable alarm the fact that no increase in funding of this Plan had been made in four years, when medical care costs have soared during that same time period. The Commission appointed a Task Force to determine whether this funding level could be maintained or whether an increase should be sought. Again due to the time constraint to have this completed for presentation to this Annual Conference, outside professional assistance once again was obtained. The report of this study was received by the Task Force and then recommended to the Commission for action.

The experience of the plan for 1988 reflects 5,999 claims processed with total claims paid of $1,239,851. The total cost of the plan in 1988 was $1,392,420, including premiums and administration costs. This figure is projected for 1989 to be $1,598,828, which is a 14.8% increase. Claims paid for the first quarter of 1989 are $428,812.

After thorough analysis and review of these figures and others pertinent to a decision, consensus was reached that a conservative 16% increase in funding is necessary for the 1990 plan year to maintain the proper level for claims and administration of the Plan. Although any increase may be rather dimly viewed in light of other pressing needs, the national insurance industry trends are placed at a minimum of 25%. This also is reflected by other Conferences throughout the United Methodist Church.

The recommendation from the Insurance Commission for this increase has been presented to the Council on Finance and Administration for action. Without approval for this recommended 16% increase, the Commission requests authority to draft a revised plan of benefits, designed to shift more of the cost to the Plan participants through increased deductibles, increased co-insurance, implementation of cost containment features, and/or other possible options in keeping with national standard practices. Any benefit changes would need to be implemented with the contract renewal in January, 1990.

Although the Plan may not appear to be in immediate danger, these projections have been made on past group experience along with the forecast of future increases. Any problem occurs when claims paid exceed these projections in combination with the upward spiral of medical costs, which is difficult to accurately forecast. These variables make accurate projections, difficult, at best.

An additional concern of the Commission relates to the method of funding through apportionments. For the insurance plan funding to remain actuarialy sound, it places a restriction on The Council on Finance and Administration's ability to fund other Conference programs and yet remain within their required cap.

Several means of structuring insurance funding have been considered including the possibility that each local church pay the full premium cost of Clergy coverage; however, it is believed that apportioning the cost among the churches on the decimal system is still the fairest method. In order to accomplish this without restricting CF&A's ability to fund other programs in the Conference, while keeping the benefit plan financially sound, the Insurance Commission has one item of legislation to put before this Annual Conference. We are recommending that the Insurance apportionment be removed from the present CF&A cap. The manner in which the funding is apportioned and accounted for through CF&A and the Conference Treasurer will remain the same as is currently being done.

In summary, the Insurance Commission now looks forward to moving into the new Conference year, building on the foundation of the past but exploring all possible and viable methods for providing insurance protection in the future at the lowest possible cost. We look forward to working closely with our appointed staff person, Dr. Stanley F. Seat, and to explore with him the appropriate working relationship of this office with the other Administrative Services Offices of the Conference.

Change is never easy but it can be beneficial and it almost always signifies the opportunity for growth. It is our hope that out of this change, necessitated by tragedy and loss, will come an opportunity for a new sense of direction that will be beneficial for all.

JURISDICTION

THE SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION

The Thirteenth Session of the South Central Jurisdictional Conference was held July 12-15, 1988 in New Orleans, Louisiana. Three new bishops were elected: William B. Oden, Bruce P. Blake, and Dan E. Solomon. A new Episcopal Area was created - the Fort Worth Area. The charters of Mount Sequoyah and Southern Methodist University were revised and trustees were elected to the Boards of those institutions and to the Board of Lydia Patterson Institute. Persons were also elected to membership on the General Boards and Agencies of the Church.

The Jurisdictional Council on Ministries approved twenty four programs for 1988 - including two lab schools and seminars, seven retiree events, an ethnic ministry church development consultation, youth ministry, volunteers in mission workshop, town and country ministry consultation, and several other events.

Two new positions were added to the Jurisdictional staff. Rev. Max Marble of the Missouri East Conference was designated Volunteers in Mission Coordinator. His office is at 2144 Swallow, Lewisville, Texas 75067, phone 214/317-3606. Rev. Bon Woong Koo of the Texas Conference is Korean Mission Director. His address is 6155 Samuell Blvd., Dallas, Texas 75228, phone 214/321-7077.

The Jurisdictional Convocation on Racism/Joint Training Event was held November 30-December 1&2 in Dallas with over 350 persons attending. The Consultation focused on the evils and remedy of individual and institutional racism and provided skill training and information for annual conference leaders.

The South Central Jurisdiction is very grateful to the annual conferences and local churches of the Jurisdiction for the support and leadership they provide in the ministry and mission of the church.

Report of Lydia Patterson Institute

The year 1988 has been an exciting one for the Administration, Faculty, Staff and Student Body at Lydia Patterson Institute.

This year marked our 75th Anniversary, and was highlighted by numerous activities which included a full week of Homecoming Activities, a vigorous Diamond Jubilee Financial Campaign in which many alumni and friends particiapted, and a highly successful Christmas Matching Fund Campaign. We have experienced an unprecedented level of renewed alumni interest in Lydia Patterson.

Our enrollment has grown by 21% and has climbed to 350. This has necessitated new classes and additional staff. The turnover rate in our teaching staff was only one this year. This fact bespeaks the commitment that our teachers have to the purposes for which Lydia Patterson Institute has traditionally stood.

L.P.I.'s personnel are committed to an uncompromised academic standard that is demanding, and will enable our graduates to compete at the collegiate level. We undergird these high academic standards by very intentional spiritual nurture that will challenge our student body not only to acknowledge Christ in their lives but to adopt His standards in their lives.

Our financial circumstances have varied, month by month, from stable to critical. We are, however, grateful for the commitment of many individuals and congregations from across the entire Jurisdiction whose regular support has enabled us to fulfill our ministry and to meet our obligations...at times under considerable stress. It has been nothing short of amazing to see how God has provided for our needs, and how the connectionalism of our South Central Jurisdiction has come into play with blessed consistency.

The Mission for which God brought Lydia Patterson Institute into being in 1913 continues to be our mandate today. It is:

A. To represent the Christian faith as understood by the United Methodist Church:

B. To provide quality bi-lingual, cross-cultural, academic education.

C. To provide a center where local church leaders, clergy and lay, may receive training and experience in effecting Christian witness and ministry with persons of other ethnic and racial backgrounds; and

D. To develop leadership skills in persons interested in cross-cultural and international positions in Christian Ministry.

I trust that even as our friends from across the Jurisdiction and around the world faithfully remember us with their daily prayers and financial resources, they will plan to visit us and see the fruit of their trust in the ministry that is being lived out each day at Lydia Patterson Institite.

Mount Sequoyah Assembly

The Olin C. Bailey Center has been completed and is serving the needs of the South Central Jurisdiction. Mount Sequoyah was favored by the jurisdiction in its 1988 session in New Orleans with the approval of funding for the construction of this 5,000 square foot building. It serves as a place for 250 persons to meet in a seminar setting.

Funding for this new addition will be apportioned to the churches in 1990 to raise the $300,000 cost of the building in four years. This will be in addition to the present apportionment of $60,000 per year, which is used to support the existing program of Mount Sequoyah.

New trustees were introduced to the board this year after election by the Jurisdiction. Outstanding persons from all seventeen Annual Conferences of the jurisdiction serve on this board, along with three bishops. From the North Texas Annual Conference we have the able assistance of Dr. William T. Stephenson, who serves on the Development and Endowment Committee; Mr. Scott Smith, Vice President of the Board of Trustees, and Dr. Don Barnes, member of the Board of Trustees.

A theme was selected for 1989 which features the rose. A new event will be held in August 1989, called the "Festival of Roses." New roses have been planted near the cafeteria to augment the two hundred roses already growing on the grounds.

In conjunction with the University of Arkansas, Mount Sequoyah will hold its first Elderhostel program. This fine educational program has been around for more than a decade, but in recent years has increased in importance. We are pleased to offer this addition to programming for retired persons.

A jurisdictional work camp was planned for 1989, with the intention of joining all of the annual conferences into one week of work in support of this facility which serves the entire area.

The Trustees have started a Bishop's Club to gain support for Mount Sequoyah. Persons who are able to generate $1,000 or more of new support are to be honored during Bishop's Week. Such generosity is the life's blood of the institution, helping to insure its future place of importance in serving the seventeen conferences of the South Central Jurisdiction.

Mount Sequoyah reaches out to all of the members of the churches in the North Texas Annual Conference. You are invited to seek the presence of God, to deepen your faith, and to define more clearly your ministry and mission as you join events held on the mountain top in this "Year of the Rose".

South Central Jurisdiction Volunteers in Mission

The Volunteers in Mission office of the South Central Jurisdiction offers individuals and groups with time, talent, and resources the opportunity to share those gifts with specific mission projects locally, nationally, and internationally. Groups or individuals who would like to volunteer their time and skills, or United Methodist programs and agencies that need volunteers for their ministries, may contact the Volunteers in Mission office to be linked up.

SUPERSERVE, the Annual Volunteers in Mission celebration and training event, is for everyone who has been or who is considering being a volunteer in mission. It is also for persons in local churches charged with responsibility for Volunteers in Mission who are seeking information about how to get their church involved. The dates for SUPERSERVE 89 are September 1-3, Labor Day Weekend. The event is held each year at Mount Sequoyah in Fayetteville, Arkansas. To register, contact the Volunteers in Mission office given below.

The Rev. Max Marble, member of the Missouri East Conference, is the new coordinator of the South Central Jurisdiction Volunteers in Mission program. You may contact him at his office located in the Dallas metropolitan area at 2144 Swallow Lane, Lewisville, Texas 75067. Phone: 214/317-3606.

Korean Mission in South Central Jurisdiction

1. Korean Mission work in the South Central Jurisdiction was started on February 15, 1989. Its primary purpose is to enable congregational development among the growing Korean immigrant communities. The key concept of the Mission is to enable new congregational birthing and incubation which is described in the Discipline (p.663-664). Until the new congregations have been chartered (the Organization of the Charge Conference) within the annual conference and district, the proceeding conditions call for much closer relationship between the Korean Mission and the annual conferences and districts in which the work is carried on.

2. The mission work is to facilitate and coordinate development of Korean-American ministries and new church development, especially consultation for redeveloping the designated Korean churches.

3. The mission projects at present are six congregations: Springdale-Hanmaum (N. Arkansas Conference), Wichita-Sarang (Kansas W.), Jacksonville (N. Arkansas), Copperas Cove (Central Texas), Waco (Central Texas), and Enid (Oklahoma). Ongoing projects are five: Irving (N. Texas), Kansas City (Kansas E.), Corpus Christi (S.W. Texas), Waynesville (Missouri E.), and Ft. Smith (N. Arkansas). Surveying projects are: Houston Second (Texas), Shreveport (Louisiana), College Station (Texas), Abilene (N.W. Texas), Lake Charles (Louisiana), Laredo (S.W. Texas), Topeka (Kansas E.), Omaha (Nebraska), and Denton (N. Texas).

4. The mission leadership development is very important for the new church development and nurturing with the Korean churches, especially recruitment and training of mission pastors.

Your understanding and continued support is appreciated.

THE INTERCONFERENCE COMMISSION ON HISPANIC MINISTRIES REPORT, 1989

The Interconference Commission on Hispanic Ministries is a joint effort of the Rio Grande and North Texas Conferences, co-chaired by the Superintendents of the Central Districts of both conferences, and its membership is comprised of pastors serving in the Central District of each conference. The purpose of the Commission is to promote communication, dialogue, and mutual understanding between the two conferences; to heighten sensitivity to underlying issues; and to encourage--and facilitate--joint efforts in ministries on behalf of, and by, Hispanic people in our common geographical area.

A broader and joint effort by both conferences seems necessary in view of the exploding growth of Hispanic population in our area, as well as the tremendous social needs, and mission opportunities before us.

To this end, several undertakings have proven fruitful. Among them, two church-wide consultations have been held, the latest on April 29 of this year. Dr. David Maldonado and Dr. Charles Wood, both of the faculty of Perkins School of Theology, provided probing insights into the foundations for Hispanic ministry--historical and theological--and argued for the importance of social analysis in an understanding of the problems facing the church in this area of ministry. Bishop Bruce Blake expressed support for the directions being taken and for the process the Commission has embarked upon. Lay speakers provided insights into what UM churches can do to meet the needs of the expanding Hispanic population.

The Interconference Commission has adopted the Hispanic Chaplaincy program at Parkland Hospital as a priority concern. Parkland has an increasing census of Hispanic patients. In 1989, 34% ofthe patients are Hispanic, with a large number of them speaking only Spanish. Several pastors of the Rio Grande Conference initiated discussions with the staff of the Greater Dallas Community of Churches about this need in late 1987. GDCC has been the sponsoring agency for the placement of chaplains at Parkland. After several months of discussion, a grant was submitted to the General Board of Higher Education. A grant of $18,000 was approved for the support of a chaplain for one year from Missional Priority funds.

The Rev. Isabel Gomez, a pastor in the Rio Grande Conference, was assigned as the first fulltime Hispanic chaplain in the history of the chaplaincy program at Parkland Hospital in December of 1988. The Interconference Commission, together with Parkland's Office of Development and the Great Dallas Community of Churches, is continuing to seek funding to ensure the continuance of a Hispanic chaplain.

REPORT TO THE NORTH TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE - JUNE 7, 1989

A Credit Union is a member-owned, non-profit cooperative financial institution. It's people helping people.

North Texas Conference Federal Credit Union was organized in 1962 by a small group of Methodist Ministers and employees of United Methodist Churches in the North Texas Conference with assets amounting to approximately $1,500.00 and some 45 members. Today we have 1200 members with assets well over $4,000,000.00.

To be eligible to belong to the Credit Union you must be employed by a Methodist Church or a Methodist Related Agency or be a member of a United Methodist Church in the North Texas Conference. Members of immediate families are also eligible. The Cost for joining is $26.00 - $25.00 will be deposited to your regular share account and there is a $1.00 entry fee.

The National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund is the insurance program that protects the saving in our credit union. It is administered by an independent agency of the Federal Government. The insurance fund that protects our money is the Strongest in the Nation.

North Texas Conference Federal Credit Union is striving to meet the competition by offering Share Certificates, by writing IRA's and Super Saver Accounts and the issuing of Credit Cards - MasterCard and Gold Card to members who qualify.

We make loans for many different purposes to those who are eligible. Please check with your credit union before placing your loan elsewhere. We may be able to save you some money.

We invite you to join and become a member of our credit union family.

The office for the Credit Union is in a new location. The new address is 500 West University, Suite #106, McKinney, Texas 75069. Telephone numbers: 214/548-8550, Dallas Line 470-0909.

Patsy Johnson is our manager - please contact her if you have a need. She will be happy to talk with you during this Annual Conference if you will go by our display.

Arthur Fred Renfro, President of the Board

UNITED METHODIST RETIREMENT HOMES OF NORTH TEXAS

The North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church has demonstrated its commitment to the aged in many ways. In 1984 it reemphasized this resolve by organizing and forming the United Methodist Retirement Homes of North Texas, of which C. C. Young Memorial Home in Dallas and United Methodist Retirement Home Sherman-McKinney District (Wesley Village) are systems institutions.

The following is a report on those two facilities.

C. C. YOUNG MEMORIAL HOME

C. C. YOUNG MEMORIAL HOME is a systems institution of United Methodist Retirment Homes of North Texas. These two organizations are dedicated to the development and provision of housing and related facilities and services for the needs of the elderly and their families. It is the intention of C. C. Young Memorial Home to serve older persons in the North Texas area, although admission is not limited to this.

Our philosophy at C. C. Young Memorial Home is that we see aging as a normal part of the creative process of God and a natural extension of the life-long development process. Old age is understood and accepted to be a time of continued growth and enrichment.

We strive to create a community which fosters love, freedom, security and self-growth. In this community we believe that residents and their families, as well as staff, are crucial in creating an atmosphere where each resident is able to approach his or her full potential and responsibilities through every level of change within the aging process, from independent living to full-time nursing care.

As a caring community we seek approaches which emphasize each person's wholeness. We work with the total person, giving emphasis to spiritual, mental, social, and physical needs. We place the needs of the individuals served above all else.

At C. C. Young Memorial home our commitment to care and service for the elderly goes beyond our campus and reaches into the realm of advocacy and representation of the rights and quality of life of all Americans.

Presently C. C. Young provides an array of services for an older citizen ranging from independent living to 24-hour personal care and nursing care in the following areas:

-Julian Thomas Center has 52 one and two bedroom independent living units, and we serve up to 75 persons there.

-Blanton Gardens has 124 units, and we serve 130 persons in that area.

-Herman Dearing Building is a licensed personal care unit, and we serve 60 persons there.

-The Health Center has four floors of licensed nursing care, and we have 244 beds in that area.

Five hundred persons and their families are served at our home on any given day. Under construction is The Asbury Place which will expand our Independent Living area by 78 one and two bedroom apartments which will likely serve 110 additional persons. It is projected to be complete by the Summer of 1990.

Over the past several years approximately 20 to 25 percent of the persons served at C. C. Young are unable to pay their full cost of care. For the fiscal year ending March 31, 1989, C. C. Young provided in excess of $141,459.00 of benevolent care to 27 older people. This figure does not include the 65 to 70 persons whose State and Federal support falls below the actual cost of care. We estimate that the full cost of this support would also far exceed two hundred thousand dollars.

Here is a report of the Home's finances for the year ending March 31, 1989:

REVENUES: Operating:
Nursing Care	$4,272,515
Personal Care	701,946
Resident Fees	1,578,767
Non-Operating:
Bequest	235,100
Contributions	96,831
Interest	223,037
Royalties	57,000
Other	41,607
	7,206,806
Less Benevolent Care	(141,459)
TOTAL REVENUES	$7,065,347
OPERATING EXPENSES:
Nursing Service	$2,558,162
Meal Service	1,653,237
Special Service	456,836
Plant Operation	666,219
Administration	506,629
Interest	448,405

Depreciation and Amoritization	405,515
TOTAL OPERATING EXPENSE	$6,695,003
EXCESS REVENUES OVER EXPENSES	370,344
ASSETS:
Net Worth of Facility	$6,758,940
Total Endowment Fund Balance	1,207,361

We are grateful for the support we have received. With the support of the Conference and others, we have to continue to provide good services to the aged, and to extend further the mission of the Home.

WESLEY VILLAGE

United Methodist Retirement Home, Sherman-McKinney District, Inc. (Wesley Village) is also a System Institution of United Methodist Retirement Homes of North Texas. It is located in Denison, Texas and has 49 independent living units which offer housing to the elderly with supportive services.

Wesley Village's construction was completed in Decenter, 1987, and the first resident moved in at that time. The facility has not experienced the occupancy level which was projected probably due to a number of reasons which include but are not limited to a change in the real estate market, increased competition in the market area by similar programs, and the absence of a comprehensive marketing effort to attract residents and help change perceptions of retirement living opportunities.

Recently the Board there has launched an initiative to develop and implement a marketing program to overcome the occupancy problem. Utilizing a consultant with extensive reputation in this area to help in developing this program helps insure the Board's determined efforts to achieve success.

Wesley Village is a needed facility. During the past several months, support has been generated to help this worthwhile effort along. This support has come from United Methodists and community leaders in their contributions of money, leadership and time. Support has also come from C. C. Young Memorial Home in the form of loans and time spent by their executive staff.

It is anticipated that with the support of the Conference, that Wesley Village will overcome its initial problems and grow to become a positive resource for the elderly in our area.

MISSION IN THE PHILIPPINES

Our "mission in the Philippines" has these objectives: To help energize Central Church, making it a center of outreach; To give impetus to a pastoral care and counseling training program; To initiate economic and human development in Dasmarinas Bagong Bayan, a resettlement of urban squatters.

How has the mission moved in the realization of these objectives?

To help energize Central Church, making it a center of outreach. Central Church has grown in membership and service. A recount in 1935 placed Central Church's membership at 750. Church membership today stands at 1200. Average attendance in five Sunday worship services is 1300. Attendance is larger than membership because of the student constituency and the fifth service which two years ago developed from the Central Church Community Center's ministry among families in "depressed" areas. From this constituency members are won. The Community Center is an outreach arm of Central Church and continues to expand its services which now includes a medical-dental clinic, skills training and an Every Child (Food for the Hungry Inc.) nutrition and educational program.

Student work is an area of great concern. In 1987 a young minister was appointed to devote time to students. In 1988 a Bible Study and "Gospel Hour" on Wednesday evening was started, with a student corps helping with the service and taking charge of "cells" in dormitories and schools.

We have had difficulty ministering to "street people." But God works in wondrous ways "Street people" from Rizal Park have been attracted to the "Abot Kamay" (hand reaching out) Fellowship on Thursday evening and to the Saturday Prayer Breakfast. At first they came for the food, but they have continued to come and have invited others, because they have found a warm welcome and food also for the soul. Ministering to those who come regularly, we see a growing ministry of "street people ministering to street people!"

A new outreach service will be the Early Childhood Center which opens this month. A qualified teacher has been hired, the government permit has been received, and renovation of Sunday School rooms and equipment is being done.

What is there yet to do at Central? To guide present lay leadership, to develop new leadership among young adults and students, and to strengthen outreach programs.

We will continue to enhance the leadership of the fifteen lay leaders of the worship services. We will support lay leadership in program areas. We will continue to use the Disciple Bible Study, the Workbooks on Prayer, Care and Dare seminars (to develop visiting skills) and "strategic planning methods" introduced by Rev. George Holcombe. We will continue to integrate pastoral care and counseling training with the work at Central. We will hold therapy and training sessions with graduates of Social Work and Psychology and with ministerial staff. We will continue with personal growth seminars and marriage enrichment workshops.

To give impetus to a pastoral care and counseling training program. With Central Church as a base, Philip has supervised ten seminarians and four pastors in Clinical Pastoral Education using work in their local church as training material. On invitation of the bishops, he has conducted pastoral care seminars for district superintendents; and in 1988-89, with the help of an MSW graduate whom he had trained, he consented to hold marriage enrichment for pastors and their wives in five districts. In the year ahead, Philip sees himself doing more supervisory work with pastors, seminarians, social workers and psychology majors seeking to train in pastoral care and counseling.

Since the Philippines is the church mission study this year, we offer our services. Feel free to call on us in Dallas (357-5273) or write us in the Philippines (694 T.M.Kalaw, Ermita, Manila).

We covet your continuing prayers and support. To God be the glory forever and ever. Amen

Philip and Espie del Rosario

XIV. STANDING RULES

RULE 1.

The Rules of Order adopted by the General Conference of the United Methodist Church shall prevail at all business sessions of the conference.

RULE 2.

The Conference Council on Ministries is constituted to execute the functions detailed in the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE in addition to the coordinating functions in relation to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 3.

The membership of the Annual Conference Nominating Committee shall include: the bishop; the district superintendents; the conference lay leader; the district lay leaders; the chairpersons of Religion and Race, Ethnic Minority Local Church, and Status and Role of Women; one Asian representative from the Commission on Asian Ministries; the presidents of United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, and United Methodist Youth Council. The conference directors and conference secretary shall be added as consultants (voice - no vote).

Nominations for persons to serve for a four-year term on the conference's various councils, boards, commissions and committees shall be made by the Conference Nominating Committee. The nominating committee shall seek to nominate persons who are qualified for and interested in the work to be addressed. No person shall be nominated for a position without previously agreeing to serve if elected. Persons who are absent without cause from half or more of an agency's meetings during the conference year have thereby automatically removed themselves from the membership roll of that agency and shall be replaced by the Conference Nominating Committee. The Conference Nominating Committee is authorized to provide for filling of such vacancies in the personnel of conference agencies between sessions of Annual Conference, unless otherwise provided for in the DISCIPLINE.

The North Texas Annual Conference shall make it a policy to rotate membership on conference agencies, limiting any person to eight (8) successive years on any one agency. However, a person may be re-elected to that conference agency after non-membership for four (4) years. The number of years of each person's term shall be listed after that person's name in the annual conference journal where the membership of the agencies is listed. Membership, except ex-officio, shall not be held at the same time on more than one quadrennial council, board, or division. This rule shall not be construed to apply to trustees of institutions.

Chairpersons for the Annual Conference's Councils, Boards, Board Divisions, Commissions and Committees shall be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the annual conference (except when specific alternative elective procedures are mandated by the BOOK OF DISCIPLINE or the Standing Rules: e.g., Board of Ordained Ministry, Board of Trustees, etc.) with opportunity for additional nominations from the floor. Persons elected shall begin their term of office at the close of the Annual Conference session of their election. A person shall not be elected to serve as chairperson of the same Annual Conference Council or Board for more than four years nor as chairperson of more than one Annual Conference Council or Board for more than six consecutive years in any eight-year period. A person may serve as chairperson of a Division, Commission, or Committee (excluding those committees listed in Standing Rule 3 as Annual Conference Committees) for four years, and still be eligible to serve as chairperson of a Board or Council for an additional four years, if in compliance with the 8-year agency limitation. Persons elected as chairpersons shall be in addition to the stated number of members for each Conference Agency, unless prohibited by the BOOK OF DISCIPLINE or the Standing Rules.

Each district shall be represented by at least one person on each council, board, board division, commission and committee unless the DISCIPLINE specifically precludes this possibility. The District Superintendents shall make necessary nominations following changes resulting from changes of appointments. Should a district cease to be represented on a given structural unit by virtue of a person moving, except for the Board of Ordained Ministry, that person shall remain on the said structural unit as an at-large member and another person shall be elected to that unit to represent that district. District representatives on each structural unit shall be responsible for conveying information from the district to the agency to any equivalent structural units at the district level.

Membership on all agencies (councils, boards, divisions, commissions, committees) shall include one-third clergy, one-third laywomen, and one-third laymen, insofar as possible. Special attention shall be given to the inclusion of clergywomen. The following agencies should also be considered as exceptions:

a. According to the Current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE:
   +COMMITTEE ON INVESTIGATION
   +JOINT REVIEW COMMITTEE
   +BOARD OF LAITY
b. According to the nature of the group/agency:
   +UNITED METHODIST MEN
   +COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRIES
   +COMMISSION ON ASIAN MINISTRIES

All agencies with any lay persons serving as members of the agency, will schedule meetings only after 6:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, or on Saturday or Sunday, unless all lay members are amenable to meeting prior to 6:00 p.m.

Each conference agency granted the option by the current Book of Discipline to define appropriate categories of at-large members for said agency may request the annual conference to approve these categories.

Members of the general agencies from the North Texas Conference will be members of the corresponding conference agency.

THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Annual Conference is defined and constituted according to the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE.

Constitutionally, "the Annual Conference is the basic body of the church." As such, the Annual Conference is not understood as an end in itself but as a means to enable United Methodists to serve God effectively and faithfully. The Annual Conference's actions, programs and ministries are intended to reflect the UMC's Theological and Social Principles.

THE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

The Conference Council on Ministries shall be organized in accordance with the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE. It shall oversee and coordinate the implementation of decisions made by the Annual Conference through the Annual Conference's various boards, commissions and committees. It shall also serve as a forum where conference program needs and concerns may be discussed.

All proposals related to the conference program shall be submitted to the Council on Ministries for discussion prior to their submission to the Annual Conference. (This is not in conflict with standing rule #25.) The Council on Ministries may choose to endorse, oppose or take no position regarding such proposals. Lack of endorsement by the Council on Ministries does not prohibit a conference agency from submitting a proposal to the Annual Conference.

The Council on Ministries shall not assume for itself responsibilities which belong to the Annual Conference. In cases of urgent necessity, the Council on Ministries may approve, by 2/3 vote, changes, additions or deletions from the conference program between sessions of the Annual Conference provided that, if funding is involved, prior approval shall also be received from the Council on Finance and Administration. Such actions shall be reviewed by the next session of the Annual Conference.

The Council on Ministries shall be composed of the presiding bishop; the district superintendents; the conference lay leader; the chairperson, vice-chairperson, and secretary of the Council on Ministries; the Board and Division Chairpersons of the, Board of Church and Society, Board of Discipleship, Board of Global Ministries, and Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry; the chairperson of each independent commission; the chairperson of each commission and committee of the Council on Ministries; the chairperson of the Standing Rules Committee; the conference secretary; two representatives each of the Conference youth organization, United Methodist Women, and United Methodist Men. (If not already included in the composition of the Council on Ministries, the following at-large members shall be added: two young adults and the lay leaders of each district, and the person(s) serving on the General Council on Ministries.) The following shall be members of the council with voice and not vote: Conference Council on Ministries staff, Director of Professional Ministries, the Conference Director of Finance and Administration/Treasurer, the chairperson of the Council on Finance and Administration, the Conference Director of Church Growth and Development and the Conference Statistician.

The chairperson, vice-chairperson and secretary of the Council on Ministries shall be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Council on Ministries. Other officers shall be be elected as needed by the council.

There shall be an executive committee created consistent with the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE.

THE COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

The Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration shall be constituted and shall function in accordance with the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE. The Conference Director of Finance and Administration/Treasurer shall be accountable to the Annual Conference through the Council on Finance and Administration and shall have responsibilities and rights accorded by the DISCIPLINE to the conference treasurer.

THE BOARD OF LAITY

The Board of Laity shall fulfill the functions as described in the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE. It shall foster an awareness of the role of the laity in the ministry and mission of the church by participation in the planning and decision-making processes of the Annual Conference. In order to provide input for such participation, and to provide the laity with a sense of ownership and accountability, the board shall interface between the grass-roots laity and the leadership of the Annual Conference.

The Board of the Laity shall consist of no fewer than 12 members. The chairperson of the board shall be the conference lay leader, who is nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference, with the opportunity for additional nominations from the floor.

The board shall have the following divisions:

1. The Division of Lay Leadership shall be chaired by the conference lay leader, and shall be composed of the district lay leaders, who are nominated and elected by each district. This division through its district lay leaders, shall become informed regarding the issues, concerns, frustrations, dreams and hopes of lay people in the local churches of each district. It shall interpret these concerns to the Bishop and his extended cabinet by meeting with the Bishop and extended cabinet at least twice annually. It shall also, through its district lay leaders, interpret to the local churches of each district the programmatic and missional goals of The Annual Conference
2. The Division of Lay Concerns shall be chaired by the conference lay leader. It shall be composed of the chairpersons of United Methodist Men, United Methodist Women, the Commission on Religion and Race, the Conference Lay Speakers, and the United Methodist Youth Council. This

9. All elected chairpersons within the structure of the North Texas Conference who are not otherwise provided for.

RULE 8.

The term of office of local church officials elected by the Fall Charge Conference shall begin on January 1 and run for the length of their term. This rule shall not apply to members of local Boards of Trustees.

RULE 9.

The minister who shall be in charge of the funeral services of any minister of the North Texas Conference, or the spouse, widow, or widower of a minister of the North Texas Conference, will supply the secretary of the conference with a memoir containing: the date of birth; the date of death; the date of final rites; the place of burial; a recent photograph of the deceased; date of entrance or transfer into the conference; the conference from which transferred, if applicable; and, if possible, appointments in other conferences. In the event that the dates required are not supplied, they shall be added by the secretary of the conference, if possible. All of this information is to be sent to the secretary of the conference immediately following the funeral.

RULE 10.

In the event of the death of an active minister occupying a parsonage, the surviving spouse and family shall be granted the privilege of using the parsonage for a period of time not to exceed sixty (60) days.

RULE 11.

The Board of Ordained Ministry shall inquire of each district superintendent about the life and official administration of each member of the conference in his district and report to the conference as to whether all the ministerial members of the conference are blameless in their life and official administration.

RULE 12.

The secretary of the North Texas Conference Board of Trustees shall be furnished a legal description of each piece of property in the District, along with a statement as to where the deeds are kept, by the District Superintendent of that District, on or before December 1. This list shall be revised annually by the District Superintendent by December 1 to include each real estate transaction.

RULE 13.

The District Superintendent shall be required to report district statistics to the Conference Statistician.

RULE 14.

Section A. Each church and pastor shall submit the Annual Conference report to the District Auditor for auditing on the check-out day specified by the Cabinet.

Section B. Each District Superintendent, upon nomination of the Conference Statistician, shall appoint a District Auditor, whose responsibility it shall be to audit the Annual Conference reports. The District Auditor shall prepare these reports in correct form on the blank provided by the Conference Statistician and shall deliver them immediately following Check-Out Day to the Conference Statistician.

Section C. The Conference Treasurer's books shall be closed annually AT 3:00 P.M. on January 8 (or the closest working day), and no funds received by the Conference Treasurer after that time shall apply on Conference Apportionments of the year just completed.

Section D. The fiscal year of the Annual Conference shall be January 1 to December 31. The apportionments to the local churches shall be made on this basis. The only exception to this shall be the salaries of the clerical members serving as pastors or district superintendents. When a pastoral change comes at Annual Conference, the salary of the previous appointment shall be paid through June 15, and the salary in the new appointment shall begin June 16.

RULE 15.

Each pastor in charge shall be required to report to his district superintendent on District Check-Out Day any money borrowed necessary to pay current church obligations for the Conference fiscal year, or any delinquent church bills which have not been paid by the close of the Conference fiscal year.

RULE 16.

Gifts to members of the conference in recognition for service rendered shall not be made on the floor of the conference.

RULE 17.

Interest earned on any funds, not including capital funds or budgeted funds received in prior years for current operations, managed by the Conference Treasurer shall be declared general funds of the North Texas Annual Conference and administered by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 18.

No agency of the North Texas Conference shall incur financial obligations that exceed current appropriations for any reason except by specific approval of the Council on Ministries, the presiding Bishop and the Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 19.

Section A. No conference agency shall include requests for funds other than those required for its own operation or program; requests for funds for the same cause or concern shall be granted to only one conference agency.

Section B. Conference Agencies of the North Texas Conference shall make expenditures only in accordance with their respective budgets for the current year and shall in no case introduce new items not included in their approved budget. New items may be submitted to the Council on Finance and Administration for appraisal and consideration for the current year or may be included in the budget request submitted for the coming year.

Section C. Any agency in the Conference has the right of appeal to the Annual Conference regarding a decision affecting its work made by any other agency, except where otherwise provided in the DISCIPLINE.

RULE 20.

The Council on Ministries is responsible for presenting to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration a proposed budget incorporating program and administrative items for its agencies and related district agencies. This report is to be submitted on or before the date set annually by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 21.

When application is made to the conference for the privilege of a special conference-wide financial appeal, whether by special collection, campaigns, or otherwise, the application shall be referred to the Council on Finance and Administration before final action is taken thereon. The Council shall investigate the application and its possible relation to other obligations of the conference, and in light of the facts make recommendations to the Annual Conference.

RULE 22.

Section A. The Council on Finance and Administration shall nominate to the Annual Conference an auditing firm which shall audit the Conference Treasurer's books, and the books of all Annual Conference agencies which receive their support from the Council.

Section B. Each institution receiving financial support from the conference, either by direct apportionment or by special offerings, shall submit an annual auditor's report made by a certified accountant to the Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 23.

Annually the conference treasurer, with the assistance of the District Superintendents, shall compute the apportionment decimal for each church and by September 1 provide the amounts for each church's apportionments and askings for the following year.

RULE 24.

Matters which are not a part of the Pre-conference Report of a particular agency of the Annual Conference may come before the conference only after they have been duplicated and distributed on the floor of the conference by the beginning of the day they are to be considered. This Rule shall not be so construed as to preclude proper amendments to reports or matters of privilege.

RULE 25.

The following ethical principles for the appropriation and disbursement of funds by the North Texas Annual Conference shall be observed:

A. Funds contributed for a designated purpose should be used strictly for the purpose designated, and administered efficiently, without waste or duplication, in order to obtain maximum effect from the use of available funds.

B. Net proceeds from the sale of Annual Conference property are capital funds, and should be appropriated to the use which the property was intended to serve. If this is not feasible, priority should be given to the most similar purpose for which the funds can be used effectively, or to capital improvements within reasonable geographical proximity; but district lines should not be controlling and the entire community or metropolitan area should be considered. Likewise, funds received by way of indemnity for loss or destruction of any capital assets of the Annual Conference should be treated as capital assets and should be used for similar purposes if restoration of the property is feasible.

RULE 26.

It shall require a two-thirds (2/3) vote of all lay and clerical members present and voting to suspend or to amend any of these standing rules.

BISHOP W. MCFERRIN STOWE

A service of celebration for the life and ministry of Bishop W. McFerrin Stowe was held at the Highland Park United Methodist Church, Dallas, Texas on November 28, 1988. The sanctuary was filled with friends and loved ones who shared in Bishop Stowe's faith by singing "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing" and "For All the Saints." Combined church choirs sang "Amazing Grace" and the magnificent "Hallelujah Chorus" from The Messiah. Five Bishops of the church, Blake, Goodson, Loder, Slater, and Tuell, participated in the celebration, each sharing his own memories of Bishop Stowe's influence on his life.

Bishop Stowe was born January 28, 1913 in Franklin, Tennessee. He graduated from Hendrix College (B.A.), Duke University (B.D.), and Boston University (Ph.D.). In 1964, W. McFerrin Stowe was elected a Bishop of the United Methodist Church and assigned to the Kansas Area where he served from 1964-1972. From 1972-1980, he served as Bishop of the Dallas/Fort Worth Area. During this time he served as President of the College of Bishops.

Upon retirement in 1980, he served as Bishop-in-Residence at the Perkins School of Theology, S.M.U. Prior to his election as Bishop, he served as pastor of St. Luke's United Methodist Church in Oklahoma City for thirteen years. Bishop Stowe is survived by his wife Twila; his son W. McFerrin Stowe, Jr.; and his daughters Twila Keighley and Martha Stowe.

Bishop Stowe was a person of unquestioned integrity, unwavering loyalty, irrefutable moral values, and indisputable ethical standards. He was a marvelous blend of strength and gentleness, of firmness and kindness, of self-assurance and humility, and of self-sufficiency and divine grace. He brought to his ministry the attributes Christ taught us all. He not only preached those characteristics; he lived them! As a Bishop of the church, he set an example for all his clergy by his purity of heart and humility of spirit!

Bishop Stowe will be remembered with love by all those who knew him.

ARTHUR O. ACKENBOM

On July 3, 1913, a baby boy was born to Otto G. and Etta Pearl Mason Ackenbom in La Plata, Missouri. The baby was given the name of Arthur O. Ackenbom. He married Roberta B. Oyer on September 4, 1937 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Three lovely daughters were born to this union: Mayetta Ackenbom of Miami, Florida; Arabelle Hinchliff of Seattle, Washington; and Arthyna Jodyne Ackenbom who preceeded Arthur in death.

Arthur was a graduate of Oklahoma State University from which he received both his bachelor's and master's degrees. He graduated from Perkins School of Theology in 1950. His residency for a doctoral degree was at Union Theological Seminary in New York, and his thesis for Doctor of Theology was completed at Florida State Christian College in 1971.

Arthur served churches in various conferences of the United Methodist Church for more than forty years. His first assignment was in Ladonia. He also served in Snyder, Colorado; Queens, New York; Kansas City, Altamont, Pittsburg, and Chaney, Kansas; Olympia, Washington; Friberg-Cooper, Prairie Heights, Grand Prairie, and Princeton, Texas where he retired in 1979. He had also served as the chaplain in Topeka, Kansas at a Methodist Home for the aged. He served as an education counselor for the U. S. Air Force in Vietnam, was a veteran of the U.S. Army of World War II, and was also retired from the Civil Service.

Arthur will be remembered for his concern for the people he and Roberta served so faithfully. He was always excited about being a pastor in the United Methodist Church. He was anxious to attempt new assignments. In 1967, he responded to the invitation of the Bishop to help with evangelism in the Northwest and transfered to the state of Washington from Kansas. He went from that assignment to serve in Vietnam as an education couselor for the U.S. Air Force. Perhaps his ministry is best described by one of the scriptures used at his funeral which is found in Isaiah 6:8, 9a, "And I heard the voice of the Lord saying 'Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?' Then I said, 'Here I am! Send me.'"

Arthur is survived by his wife and two daughters; a brother, Hugo G. Ackenbom of Winchester, Virginia; two sisters, Violet Calhoun of Golden City, Missouri and Ellen Rice of Borger, Texas; one grandchild; and one great-grandchild. He was preceeded in death by two brothers, two sisters, and one daughter.

On Monday morning, July 11, 1988, at the City of Faith Hospital in Tulsa, Oklahoma, Arthur O. Ackenbom entered the Church Triumphant. Funeral services were conducted by these ministers; Glen Blackmon, B. C. Robertson, C. Michael Haynes, and H. Noel Bryant in the Lone Oak United Methodist Church on Wednesday July 13, 1988, with burial services in Hooker Cemetery.

LILBON J. AIKIN

L. J. Aikin was a craftsman - a 'tentmaker' of sorts, except that his medium was wood instead of canvas. It was said of L. J. Aikin, "If it could be made out of wood, he could make it." He provided for his family by working with his hands, building houses, making cabinets, manufacturing furniture, and he also built up the souls of the faithful. For L. J. Aikin was a preacher of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and an example of humble servanthood to those of us who were privileged to know him.

His ministry reminds us of the Apostle Paul, who was careful to point out to the church at Thessalonica, "For we never used flattering words..., nor a cloke of covetousness..., nor sought we glory...when we might have been burdensome..." Here was a man who cultivated the faith of so many through the years in small communities of rural Red River County. Here was a man who served so willingly and under such difficult conditions. Here was a man who didn't enjoy the security and privilege of full conference membership, but who nevertheless labored tirelessly in the preaching ministry of the United Methodist Church.

He left his mark on the communities of Lydia, Cuthand, Coleman Hill, and Clarksville. And as a local pastor throughtout his long career, he took responsibility for shepherding those who lived far from the beaten path. He preached God's Word in places that many of us would prefer to avoid, and he did so willingly, despite unfortunate physical limitations.

Brother Aikin was born in Avery, Texas on January 14, 1903, and he died there two days after his eighty-sixth birthday on January 16, 1989. Survived by: his wife Allie; his son Charles; his daughters Gene Cooper and Martha Varner; and his brothers Erbie, Sr. and Homer. L. J. Aikin was interred at the Avery cemetery on January 19. In this day when society teaches us to strive after personal gain, his example of selfless sacrifice humbles our ambitious longings. As Charles Wesley penned upon the occasion of the death of George Whitefield:

"No prophet smooth to men of high estate,
No servile flatterer of the rich or great,
Their faults he dared with freedom to reprove,
The honest freedom of respectful love,
And sweetly forced their consciences to own
He sought not theirs, but them, for Jesus' sake alone..."

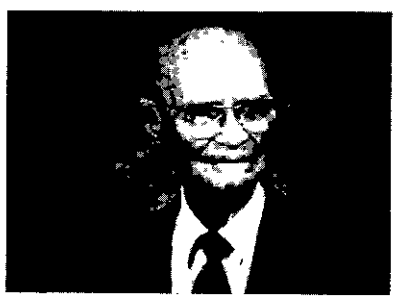
FRED PARKS BROYLES



Fred Parks Broyles was born February 9, 1892, near Lancaster, Texas and died November 9, 1988. The memorial service was conducted by his grandsons, D. Fred Doak and Bascom Parks Doak. Burial was in the Edgewood Cemetary, Lancaster. The scripture II Timothy 4: 6-8 was selected by him and was found circled in a worn Bible given to him at the beginning of his ministry.

Fred Broyles was licensed to preach May 14, 1924, and was admitted to the North Texas Conference October 28, 1928. He retired June 1, 1959. Some of the churches where he served as pastor were Lewisville, Royse City, Sanger, and Mesquite, and his Dallas churches were Lambuth Memorial, Memorial, and Ervay Street. After retirement he enjoyed the fellowship of the White Rock Church.

He was married to Hallie Beatrice Sanders in 1911 and is survived by their children Annie Mary Bryant, Cleo Doak, Willard Woodrow Broyles, Velma Mullenix, and Betty Dalena Roberts. He also leaves a brother, a sister, thirteen grandchildren, 20 great-grandchildren, and 3 great-great-grandchildren.

Although he enjoyed the honor of being the oldest retired minister in the North Texas Conference, he would not want to be remembered for just being old. He said, with humor, that anyone would get to be 96 if he lived long enough. This kind of humor was reflected in his books, "Sayings - Wise and Otherwise" and "My Own Thoughts and Other Poems." He also wrote of his joys and sorrows in the loss of his wife in 1946 and a second wife, Sarah, in 1974.

From the scripture chosen for his service these thoughts were expressed. He finished the goals he set out for himself. "He kept the faith." For the fight that was fought and the course that was finished were done within the context of faithfulness to God, his Lord, and his family, and today he has received his crown of righteousness.

PAUL R. CALVARY

Paul Calvary died on Friday, March 24, 1989, in a Wichita Falls, Texas, hospital.

He was born March 10, 1915, in Dodd City, Texas. He attended Wesley Junior College in Greenville, Texas; East Texas State University in Commerce, Texas and Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas. He had lived in Wichita Falls since 1954.

He served in the Army artillery for twenty-one years, retiring as a major. He served in the 372nd Field Artillery Battalion during World War II, fighting in the Battle of the Bulge. He also served during the Korean War. He was a charter member of the Wichita Falls Chapter of the Retired Officers Association, serving as chaplain. He taught the Edna Ross Sunday School Class for twenty years. He was a Methodist minister for seven years.

It might be said of Paul that he retired, retired, retired, and yet never retired. He faithfully and effectively pastored Scotland United Methodist Church, Wichita Falls, for the last seven years. Good Friday morning just before he died he was putting the finishing touches to his Easter message. While tilling his yard that afternoon he suffered a fatal heart attack.

Paul had been a faithful member of University United Methodist Church, Wichita Falls, Texas, since 1954. Each day the members of his home church see one more hole left by his passing from this life to the next.

Paul's family was a most important part of his life. His wife, Mary; daughter, Pamela; and grandson, Christian, are living tributes to his Christian witness.

The memorial service for Paul was at University United Methodist Church on March 27, 1989, with Ray Hennigh and Gene Gordon officiating.

The Reverend John Hyde, retired member of the North Texas Conference, died November 23 in Mabank. The funeral service was November 25 in Mabank, with burial at the Elm Grove Cemetery.

John Hyde, the son of Viola Bell Athey Hyde and Anthony Runnels Hyde, was born on July 13, 1917. On July 5, 1960, John and Marjorie Hudson were married. Into their home were born a son, John Douglas, and a daughter, Elizabeth Katherine Hudson.

Having graduated from Canton High School in 1935, John attended East Texas State Teachers College (now East Texas State University) where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in 1940. Continuing his education, he attended Perkins School of Theology from 1944-45.

The Sulphur Springs District granted John the license to preach in June of 1938. John's ordination as Deacon came in 1943, with ordination as Elder and admission to the North Texas Conference in full connection coming in 1945 under Bishop Charles C. Selecman. The conference granted John the retired relationship in June of 1965.

Throughout his years John faithfully served God and the church. Following ordination as Elder he was appointed to Clark Memorial-Bonham (Paris District, 1945-46), Union Bower (McKinney District, 1946-47), Brookston Circuit (Paris District, 1959-60), Quinlan (Greenville District, 1960-62), Wesley (McKinney District, 1962-63), and Riley (Dallas South District, 1963-65).

John is survived by his wife, Marjorie; his children, Dr. Douglas Hudson of Austin, and Mrs. Cathy Wise of Bangor, Maine; a brother, Ed Hyde; and ten grandchildren.

For his life, for his ministry, and for his faithfulness to God, we give thanks.

Marjorie Hyde and Michael Nichols

CARL E. KEIGHTLEY

The Reverend Carl E. Keightley, a retired United Methodist minister and editor, was born March 24, 1915, in St. Louis, Missouri. He died December 16, 1988, 10:45 a.m. at his home in Mabank, Texas following an extended illness.

His body was willed for medical research through the Southwestern Medical School in Dallas.

A Memorial Service was held on Monday, December 19, at Preston Hollow United Methodist Church in Dallas. It was led by United Methodist ministers who worked with Carl in his various appointments: the Reverend D. Michael Daves, pastor of the Cedar Hill United Methodist Church; the Reverend Spurgeon M. Dunnam, III, editor and chief executive of the United Methodist Reporter; the Reverend Nick Evans, pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Jonesboro, Arkansas; the Reverend R. L. Townsend of Lincoln, Nebraska; and the Reverend Merwin K. Turner, associate pastor of the Floral Heights United Methodist Church in Wichita Falls. The Reverend V. Eugene Gordon, current senior pastor, and the Reverend Jerry R. Delleney, associate pastor, of Preston Hollow United Methodist Church in Dallas, also participated in the service.

Carl served as pastor of the Preston Hollow congregation from 1970 until his retirement in 1981. He served from 1967 until 1970 as Communications Director of the United Methodist Church's national Board of Evangelism based in Nashville, Tennessee.

From 1959 to 1967 he served as editor of The Texas Methodist newspaper, now known as the United Methodist Reporter. His editorship was marked by a feisty, frequently humorous, and at times courageous style of commentary on significant issues facing the church and society.

He also began the newspaper's pattern of publishing regional and local church editions that in subsequent years has resulted in the Reporter becoming the nation's largest circulation religious news publication. In 1965 he hired a young seminary student, Spurgeon M. Dunnam, III. Dr. Dunnam subsequently became that newspaper's editor in 1969, and in the years since has extended its scope and circulation on the foundations laid by Dr. Keightley.

Prior to his years as an editor, Dr. Keightley served from 1948-51 as an associate pastor of Highland Park Methodist Church in Dallas; from 1951-58 as senior pastor of University Methodist Church in Wichita Falls; and as senior pastor of the First Methodist Church in Irving from 1958 until 1959 when he was elected to edit The Texas Methodist.

Carl received his BA degree from Hendrix College in Conway, Arkansas and his theological degree from Garrett Theological Seminary, then a part of Northwestern University. He also was honored with a Doctor of Divinity degree by Texas Wesleyan College in Fort Worth.

Carl is survived by his wife, Julia Delle Keightley; two daughters, Michal Moskow of Albany, New York and Cheryl Nekuza of Mabank, Texas; seven grandchildren; and three sisters, Irma Whitehorn, Alice Hettinger, and Hilda Nord, who live in Arkansas.

A section of the new United Methodist Reporter Communications Center will be dedicated to Carl's life and ministry. The family requests that memorial gifts be directed to the United Methodist Reporter Building Fund and designated "Keightley Memorial," P.O. Box 660275, Dallas, Texas 75266.

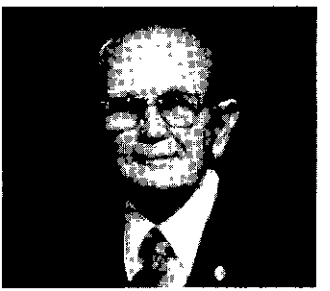
FITZHUGH MILLER TALBOT



Fitzhugh Miller Talbot was born May 13, 1901, in Collin County near McKinney, Texas. He finished high school in McKinney and started in pursuit of his calling to preach the Word of God. Fitzhugh worked for J.C. Penney while attending school. He attended Wesley College Greenville, McMurray College, Southern Methodist University, and graduated from Texas Wesleyan College. He then entered Perkins School of Theology. He began serving his first appointment in 1929.

Fitzhugh died on December 2, 1988. Funeral services were held on December 4, 1988, at Whaley United Methodist Church, Gainesville, Texas. Reverend Joe Ed Goolsby and Reverend John Vogeley conducted the services. Burial was in McKinney.

Fitzhugh was married to Elsie Marie McGraw on September 1, 1932. They were blessed with two wonderful children: Fitzhugh Erwin (Rusty) Talbot, who lives in Mesquite, and Rebekah Ann Talbot Wilson, who lives in Gainesville and is church secretary at Whaley United Methodist Church.

After taking his first appointment in 1929, Fitzhugh served the following appointments: Dallas-Vickery, Princeton, Wylie, Hutchins-Wilmer, Pilot Point, Sanger, Bowie, Dallas-St. Luke, Electra, Gainesville-Whaley, Dallas-Elmwood, Dallas-Grace, Bonham-First, and Nocona. Upon retirement at Nocona, Fitzhugh and Elsie moved to their home in Gainesville. He served the Era, Rosston, Spring Creek Charge until failing health forced him to step down from the pulpit completely. Even though he could no longer share in the active ministry, he was always a great supporter of his preachers at Whaley United Methodist Church where he attended. Indeed, his life was the embodiment of what is right and good about our United Methodist clergy tradition.

Joe Ed Goolsby

Leonard Westbrook Tomlinson

The Reverend Leonard Westbrook Tomlinson was born in Tatum, New Mexico, on June 6, 1931, son of The Reverend Robert and Geneva Tomlinson. Leonard's father is a long time member of the New Mexico Conference. Both parents are retired.

After completing high school in Ysleta, Texas, Leonard entered the Air Force in 1950 where he served both in the United States and Europe until 1961. He then entered Eastern New Mexico University and completed a Bachelor of Science in History in 1964. After serving student appointments in the New Mexico Conference, the Oklahoma Conference, and the North Texas Conference, he completed his seminary training at Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University in 1966. He was ordained Deacon in the New Mexico Conference in 1966 and ordained Elder in the North Texas Conference in 1973.

Leonard served churches throughout the North Texas Conference at Whitewright, Caddo Mills, Ladonia/Pecan Gap, Valley View, Boyd, Centenary in Dallas, and First Methodist in Richardson. He was the Minister of Pastoral Care of Richardson, where he was serving at the time of his death. Leonard passed away on August 22, 1988, at the age of fifty-seven years. He is survived by his wife, Sue; daughters, Celeste, Angina, Patti, Kathy, Robin, and Faith; four sons, Steven, Bruce, Chris, and Dan; his parents who reside in New Mexico; a sister; a brother; and four grandchildren.

Before his death, Leonard was instrumental in the production of a video tape in regard to death and dying which was filmed at First United Methodist Church of Richardson. In this tape Leonard was interviewed by Walter Evans of KDFW-TV and discussed the various stages of his inevitable death. This included discussions of faith issues and the preparation for the Christian death. Leonard also developed the Listening and Caring Ministry at First United Methodist Church of Richardson and was a resource person to the Intern Program at Perkins.

Leonard was best suited in ministry with pastoral care. Because of his warmth and love for people, being visited in the hospital by Leonard was uplifting for many parishioners. He had a special love for children and his charisma would bring them to his side to hear a funny anecdote or to hear how important they were to him.

Humor was a great love for Leonard. He cherished his time to entertain the staff or congregation with a story that would bring his boastful laughter along with his audience. He had a real gift for bringing joy when one was sorrowful. However, he always remembered his pastoral role by being an active listener and care-giver.

Leonard had a creative hand and eye when it came to geometric art. For relaxation he would draw illustrative three dimensional squares that were both impressive and picturesque.

On August 27, 1988, at 2:00 p.m., a service of high celebration was held at the First United Methodist Church of Richardson with standing room only. This service was drafted by Leonard before his death and all of his liturgical wishes were granted. The high points of the service were the remembrance of Leonard's life, the preaching of the Gospel, and the singing of the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's Messiah. His ashes were later scattered in New Mexico, which was his first love away from North Texas.

Leonard always will be remembered as one who truly was the same whether he was pastoring or being playful. He thrived on being a whole person even in the midst of his suffering and inevitable death. He maintained his humor and his ability to pastor even to the end.

At the memorial service the congregation sang:

> Joyful, joyful we adore thee,
> God of glory, Lord of love;
> Hearts unfold like flowers before thee,
> Opening to the sun above.
> Melt the clouds of sin and sadness;
> Drive the dark of doubt away;
> Giver of immortal gladness,
> Fill us with the light of day!

Leonard's life should be celebrated because he lived it to the fullest by his service to humankind and his love for life. But most importantly, Leonard loved the Gospel. His ministry pointed to Christ whom he loved and served.

JAMES HERSCHEL WALKER, JR.

James Herschel Walker, Jr. was born March 29, 1928 in Pittsburgh, PA., and died January 22, 1989 in Lawton, OK. The funeral was January 24, 1989 in Kemp, Texas, with Dr. Jack Gibson, Rev. Elmer Ward, and Rev. Walter L. Zimmerman participating. Internment was in King Cemetery, south of Kemp.

He married Esther Wells on May 15, 1954, and they have shared their lives across these thirty-four years.

James received the Bachelor of Science degree from SMU in Dallas, and his Ph.D. from Brentwood School in England. James Walker was admitted in the North Texas Annual Conference On Trial and ordained a Deacon in 1967. He was admitted in Full Connection and ordained an Elder in 1969.

He has served faithfully across the years with Esther, his helpmate, at his side. He began his ministry in 1963 as pastor at Elmo. The other churches they have served include: Woodland Ct., Shooks Chapel, Krum-Stony, Talco, Bogota, Mt. Vernon, Seagoville, Whitewright, Trinity in Wichita Falls, Bryson-Perrin, associate pastor at First Methodist in Mesquite, and pastor at Aley.

James was active in many civic and community groups across the years. He was also a 32nd Degree Mason, and he served in the Army in World War II.

God blessed Jimmy with a great intellect, and a great yearning for knowledge. Jimmy used this talent which God gave, and across the years was always searching for greater understanding and truth, and then shared that truth through teaching and preaching to those around him.

He loved people. His door and his heart were always open to those who needed him. Truly, "He went about doing good."

He is survived by: his wife, Esther Walker of Trinidad, Texas; his mother, Dorothy Walker of Balch Springs; one brother, William J. Walker of Mesquite; one son, James Herschel Walker, III of Trinidad; one daughter, Dottie Anne Johnson of Lawton, OK; and by four grandchildren.

James Walker was a faithful servant of God and of the Church.

Walter L. Zimmerman

JAMES HAMILTON WESTBROOK

James Hamilton Westbrook was born in Wolfe City, Texas, August 18, 1897. He died May 11, 1989. He was the son of James Morgan and Maud Westbrook. He belonged to the Masonic Lodge, North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church, SMU Alumni Association, and was an honorary teacher of the Barron Fellowship Class of Cooper United Methodist Church. He is survived by his wife Lola, Cooper, Texas, and a daughter, Lucy Westbrook, Dallas, Texas. He was educated in the public schools near Wolfe City. He was a graduate of East Texas Normal College, Commerce, Texas, in 1920. He graduated from SMU, BA in 1929. He then entered Perkins School of Theology. He taught school for seven years before entering the ministry.

Reverend Westbrook taught school for seven years at the following places: Gober, Texas, 1920-21; White Rock in Hunt County, Texas 1923-25; Anson, Texas, as principal of the Ward School 1925-29. The last two years that Reverend Westbrook taught school in Anson, he was also pastor of the Anson Circuit, having joined the Northwest Texas Conference at Big Spring November 9-13, 1927. At the close of the second year as pastor of this circuit, and four years as principal of the Ward School of Anson, he resigned his position as teacher and principal of the school of Anson and entered fully into the Methodist ministry. This was in November of 1929.

In the fall of 1929 he was transferred to the North Texas Conference and was stationed at Vickery, Texas, to attend the school of theology. He served as pastor of old Maple Avenue Methodist Church, Dallas; First Methodist, Roxton; Brandon Avenue, Dallas; First Methodist Church, Bowie; McKinney Avenue, Dallas; Brandon Avenue, Dallas, a second time; Grace Methodist Church, now University, Wichita Falls; First Methodist Church, Mount Vernon; Webb Chapel, Farmers Branch; and First Methodist, Archer City. He retired from Wesley Methodist Church, Sulphur Springs, having served six years.

He was known as a builder, having sponsored paying the debts of churches and parsonages. He worked with ministers and communities in the towns and churches he served. He worked and taught in youth assemblies and has been a member of various committees and boards of the North Texas Conference. He was never too busy to take time to help anyone in need. He performed 569 weddings and received 1,482 new members in various churches during his ministry.

He entertained members of his churches and various communities with his magic act and Charlie McCarthy show. He endeared himself to most everyone he met with his delightful sense of humor.

He married Lola Templeton, a teacher, of Charleston, Texas, on October 10, 1923. They taught school together six years. After his retirement he served Sulphur Bluff Circuit, Cumby and Campbell, Deport, and Lake Creek and Enloe. The funeral service was held at First United Methodist Church, Cooper, Texas with Jack McNabb, pastor; assisted by Gary Regan, White Rock, Dallas; James Horace Aldrige, Baptist Church, Midland; and Joe Ed Goolsby, Whaley Memorial, Gainesville.

AGNES MCARTHUR ALLISON BLACK

Born on July 30, 1889, in Morgan City, Louisiana, Agnes was the child of Alex and Laura McArthur. She was married in 1920 to Rupert Allison and moved to Dallas in 1918.

The Allisons became members of the Brandon Avenue Methodist Church where they were very active. Agnes served as head of the Nursery Department for a number of years. For four years she served as President of the Women's Society of Christian Service, inspiring that group to do many things for Brandon Avenue Church. For her leadership, she was presented a lifetime pin on June 30, 1945.

After the death of Mr. Allison, Agnes met Dr. Sam M. Black, a longtime leader in North Texas Methodism. They were married on November 22, 1960.

Agnes joined First United Methodist Church of Dallas on May 27, 1962, and remained a faithful member and regular attendant until her ninety-seventh year when ill health forced her to "attend" only when the service was on television. She loved her Church and appreciated every pastoral visit, particularly those when the service of Holy Communion was observed in her home.

Mrs. Black is survived by: her daughter, Laura Allison DeHaes, with whom she lived during her last years; stepson, S. M. Black, Jr.; step-daughter, Mary Jane Black Gervers; six grandchildren; ten great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

Just months short of her hundredth birthday, Agnes Black died in peace on February 9, 1989. Her funeral service was conducted in Dickerson Chapel of First United Methodist Church, Dallas, by the Reverends James E. Reaves and Larry Ravert, with burial in Laurel Land Memorial Park, Dallas.

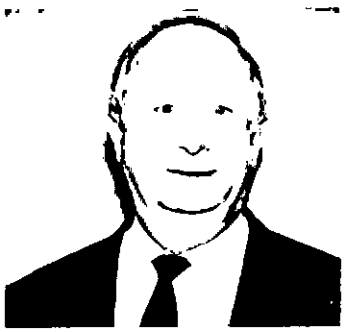
VIRGIL LEE BRUNDIGE

Virgil Lee Brundige was born in April of 1929, in Granger, Texas. He passed away on April 28, 1989. He was the great-grandson of a Texas circuit-riding Presbyterian minister. He was married to Mary Elizabeth (Patsy) Brundige who was ordained an Elder at the 1989 Annual Conference. Their sons are Michael Lee, who is in Computer Program Design, and Marc Wesley, who has just graduated from Texas A&M with a Masters Degree in Architecture.

Virgil was a graduate of the University of Texas where he earned a Bachelor's Degree in Chemical Engineering. After serving in the Army Chemical Corp. during the Korean War, he began his career with Mobil Oil. At his death he was a Senior Process Engineer with Mobil Research and Development. His work has taken him to all parts of the world. He has been recognized by his company and the gas industry for his several inventions that are on the cutting edge of new technology.



He has been praised by his colleagues for being able to view technology in new creative ways. This openness to new ways of thinking and living was evident in his family. Virgil gave enthusiastic support to his wife when, after nurturing the family for over twenty years, she responded to God's call to the ordained ministry. He was active in the Conference Spouses' Group where he expressed his concern about the stress in the lives of the women. He cut short a trip in Scotland to attend a spouses retreat "to bring them a smoked salmon and help them laugh and have a good time".

The church was always the center of Virgil's life. He was ordained an elder in the Presbyterian Church where he held a variety of lay positions. He became a Methodist two years ago. He will be remembered for his laughter, his inventions, his love of family and church, and his abiding faith in God.

MARSHA C. COX

The service for Marsha Cox at Highland Park United Methodist Church on June 3, 1988, was truly a celebration! It was indeed an "Easter" service for her because she and all who loved her had gone through "Good Friday" a few days before. It would be wonderful if all the feelings of all the folks who jammed the sanctuary could be expressed in this Journal, but all the journals ever printed couldn't do that. In the service Milton Guttierrez said, "Joy is not circumstantial, rather true joy comes from the continued presence of Christ in a person's life." So it is that Marsha's ministry is not to be described in obituaries and articles, but in the gratitude of our hearts. But what better direction for that thanksgiving in our lives than the words which Chuck wrote a few weeks following her death:

> "I will always remember Marsha most for her dedication to and love of her family. She was my best friend as well as my wife and life-companion. I never had to wonder if she really loved me. She just did! I have never known a more extraordinary mother; of all her gifts and abilities, to me, this was her greatest calling and gift. Her love for her parents and sisters was always strong.
> Marsha was a remarkable 'minister's wife,' serving with me with total commitment and loyalty for fourteen years. She loved the church and the people of the church, whether at Highland Park, Trailwood, or Pleasant Mound. When we married, she had no idea she would ever be a 'preacher's wife.' When she became one, she excelled in her new role, as she did in all other areas of her life.
> Five personal qualities stand out: Courage - Marsha always gave her best effort and did her best, especially when fighting the unknown illness that finally took her life. Fun - she loved to have a good time, anywhere, anytime, delighting in teasing, laughing, and helping others laugh with her. Integrity - honest and dependable, Marsha was (in the words of a song-writer) 'true like ice, like fire.' Faith - her personal relationship with God was deeply real, without any pretense or 'show.' She trusted God. Love - she truly cared for so many. She shared God's love, 'freely received, freely given.'"

Marsha was born March 17, 1946, and died May 31, 1988. She is survived by her husband, Charles Cox; sons, Jeff and Greg; mother, Virgie Maxwell; father, Walter Miglinas; sisters, Judy Ford and Holly Mulder.

WILMA IRENE HIGHTOWER

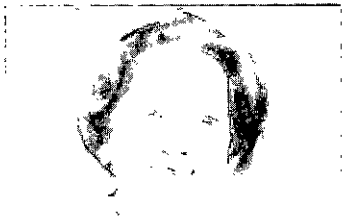
Wilma Irene Pressley Hightower, eighty-one, of Waco died December 1, 1988 in a nursing home following a long illness. She was buried in the Great House Cemetery near Temple, Texas.

Mrs. Hightower was born August 15, 1907, in the Field Creek community near Llano. She was married to Trezzie Pressley, who died in 1942. She married Reverend P. G. Hightower in 1943. He died in 1972. Reverend and Mrs. Hightower served churches throughout North Texas including Lee Street Methodist in Greenville, First Methodist churches in Burkburnett, Deport, Annona, Pickton, and Cumby.

Survivors include: two daughters, Mrs. Martha Lyles of Carrollton, and Mrs. Fay McGilroy of Waco; four sons, James Hightower of New Orleans, P. G. Hightower, Jr. of Kilgore, J. Dwight Hightower of Winnsboro, and Trezzie Pressley, Jr. of Commerce; two sisters, Mrs. Theo Enochs and Mrs. Allene Koudelka of Waco; 15 grandchildren; and 19 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Hightower will be remembered for her love of people, her flowers, and her paintings.

JOSEPHINE PARKS NELSON



Funeral services for Mrs. Josephine Parks Nelson, seventy-one, of 57 Maple Street, Badin, NC, who for the past 10 years served as community correspondent from Badin and Stony Hill for the Stanly News and Press, were conducted at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon in Stony Hill United Methodist Church, where she was a member. Reverend Ted Craddock officiated and interment was in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Nelson died at 5:40 a.m. Sunday in Stanly Memorial Hospital. She had been in declining health for several years.

Born July 26, 1916, at Springside Farms, Denton County, Texas, Mrs. Nelson was a daughter of the late William F. and Elizabeth Cole Parks and was graduated from West Ward Elementary School and Denton Senior High School in Denton, Texas. She graduated in 1937 from the College of Industrial Arts, Denton, Texas, being a member of the last graduating class under the CIA name. (The school's current name is Texas Woman's University). She received a BS degree with majors in Bible and English and a minor in Business. She did graduate study at Winona Lake Theological Seminary in 1944 and at Evangelism Leadership Training Institute in 1971.

On April 19, 1942, she married Reverend Gordon Bruce Nelson, who preceded her in death June 4, 1970. Mrs. Nelson served as pastor's wife from 1957 to 1970.

She was a civil service employee in Washington, D.C., Richmond, Virginia, Greensboro, NC, and served as houseparent at the Methodist Children's Home in 1967-1968. She was Dean of Women at John Wesley College in Greensboro, NC, from 1970 to 1976 and Dean of Students from 1972 to 1976.

Mrs. Nelson, who was listed in 1978 in Who's Who of Women, was organizer and founder of The Shepherd's Center, Badin, and the Stanly County Chapter of AARP.

She is survived by: a sister, Mrs. Maurine Parks Myers of Denton, Texas; six nieces; and one nephew.

LUCILLE POLLARD

Lucille Pollard, widow of the Reverend J. Aston Pollard, died Saturday, November 18, 1988, in Bowie, Texas. The funeral was November 20, 1988, in Bowie, with interment at Salina.

Mrs. Pollard is survived by: a nephew, James Ira McNabb of Arlington, Texas; a brother-in-law, Allie Pollard of Temple, Oklahoma; and a faithful friend and neighbor, Alene Pigg, who cared for her as she would have her own mother.

GLOVA MARIE DAVIS RANDOLPH

Glova Marie Davis Randolph was born May 4, 1911, in Clarksville, Texas. She passed away February 16, 1989, at the age of seventy-seven.

She and the Reverend G. C. Randolph were married April 26, 1927, and had celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary before his death on June 15, 1987. Together they served churches all over the North Texas Conference with great effectiveness.

Glova was a faithful member of First United Methodist Church in Decatur. She was a member of the Upper Room Sunday School Class and the Rachel Circle of the United Methodist Women. Her life of loving service touched congregations and individuals for sixty years of ministry.

She is survived by two daughters, Dorothy Bookout of Houston and Betty Matthews of Wichita Falls; three sons, George Randolph of Weaverville, California, Bobby Randolph of Decatur, and Paul Randolph of Plano, four sisters, Lucille Knox of Bagwell, Dorothy Ervin of Clarksville, Opal Collins of Gilmer, and Margie Kimmons of Fort Worth; thirteen granchildren and eleven great grand-children.

Memorial service was conducted on February 19, 1989, at First United Methodist Church in Decatur by her grandson, Reverend Randall Matthews and her pastor, Reverend Edward L. Miller. Burial was in Oaklawn Cemetery in Decatur.

Just a preacher's wife, unsung, uncrowned,
But people for miles and miles around
Grow nobler because this uncrowned queen,
Has lived among them --- poised, serene.

Her name may not grace the halls of fame,
But many a family thank God she came To grace their parsonage for awhile, and give them courage for that hard mile.

A Christian mother, wife and friend,
Now stands before God at the journey's end,
And multitudes whom she blessed in life
Now bow while God crowns this preacher's wife.

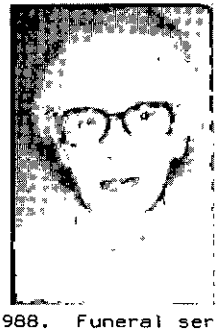
FOY SMITH



Foy Smith, nicknamed "Tudi", was born September 30, 1905. She was educated in the Sherman public schools and at Kidd Key Conservatory.

She was married to the Reverend Lawrence E. Smith October 9, 1937. Mr. Smith survives her. Foy was a lover of and talented in music. She played the organ at Harless Memorial United Methodist Church, Dennison, for twenty-three years and was organist at a local funeral home. She was a long-time member of music groups in and around Sherman.

Following a long illness, Foy died November 6, 1988. Funeral service was held at Key Memorial United Methodist Church, Sherman, on November 9, 1988, and burial was in West Hill Cemetery, Sherman.

In addition to her husband, Foy is survived by children: Hugh W. McNeese, Wayne E. Smith, and Carol Jean Gribble; six grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

CARRIE PHARR STEPHENSON

The citizens of Greenville, Texas, and especially the members of Kavanaugh United Methodist Church felt it was the end of an era when Carrie Pharr Stephenson died shortly before her ninety-fourth birthday. She had endeared herself to the entire community since moving to Greenville as a very young woman, then married to Henry Pharr, who was District Judge at the time of his death in 1960.

Carrie taught the Susanna Wesley Sunday School Class of Kavanaugh for "more years than I can remember, but I have enjoyed every minute of it," she would say to those who were amazed at her stamina. She held every office of United Methodist Women over the years and was truly one of that group's favorite teachers. Her talent was extended to the community and she was in constant demand as a book reviewer and speaker. She was also one of her church's most ardent visitors. Newcomers, shut-ins, the ill, and bereaved were always blessed with a visit from Carrie.

On December 23, 1977, she was married to Paul C. Stephenson, a former pastor of Wesley United Methodist Church, Greenville. She and Paul renewed an old friendship on a journey to the Holy Land the year before they were married. Both in their eighties, they delighted everyone when they announced their coming wedding. The chapel of the church was full for the ceremony, after which they hooked up their trailer and headed for San Francisco on their honeymoon. Paul had a tree farm in Sheridan, Arkansas, and they divided their time between the two homes. Dr. Stephenson preceded Carrie in death on September 2, 1981.

During her years with Paul she gave one of her best programs ever, "Growing Old Ain't So Bad." And we all agreed with her -- if we could do it as gracefully as Carrie did.

Born Carrie Rogers in Sulphur Springs, Texas, September 24, 1894, she was a graduate of Southwestern University, Georgetown. William B. Slack, who officiated at her wedding to Dr. Stephenson, also officiated at her funeral on September 1, 1988. Gaither Day assisted at the funeral. Burial was in Sulphur Springs, Texas. She is survived by a son, Harold Pharr of San Antonio, and a brother Murray Rogers of Greenville.
