I. CONFERENCE HISTORY

United Methodism in North Texas began in 1816-17 as part of Arkansas Methodism in the Missouri Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. When the denomination divided in 1844-45, Methodists of this area became a part of the East Texas Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. In 1867, the approximate area of what is now this conference, was set apart as the Trinity Conference, and later (1874) renamed the North Texas Conference.

The Methodist Episcopal Church had little organized work in Texas after 1845, until 1867 when a Texas Mission was formed. Out of that Mission came the West Texas Conference (primarily Black). In 1939 the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and The Methodist Protestant Church united to form The Methodist Church. The West Texas Conference, while a part of The Methodist Church, was in the Central Jurisdiction (all Black). The North Texas Conference was a part of the South Central Jurisdiction, which was one of the geographical jurisdictions.

At the Uniting Conference to form the United Methodist Church held in Dallas, Texas, April 1968, a new Annual Conference was formed in North Texas including members, congregations, and ministers of the North Texas Conference of The Methodist Church of the South Central Jurisdiction(1939-1968), and members, one congregation, and one minister of the Oklahoma-Texas Conference of the Evangelical and United Brethren Church (1886-1968).

At a merger conference held in Dallas, Texas, in May, 1970, members, congregations, and ministers of the North Texas Conference; and members, congregations, and ministers of the West Texas Conference located within the geographical boundaries of the North Texas Conference became the North Texas Conference of The United Methdist Church.

The sessions of the current North Texas Conference are numbered first from 1867, the organizational date for the North Texas Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Texas Mission of the Methodist Episcopal Church and secondly from 1970, the date of merger of the former North Texas and West Texas Conferences.

A list of the Conference Sessions of these separate conferences is printed in:

(1) the 1939 Journal of the North Texas Conference, South Central Juris diction, (P.28-29) and the 1967 Journal of the North Texas Conference, South Central Jurisdiction (P.140);
(2) the 1967 Journal of the West Texas Conference of the Central Jurisdiction (P. 88);
(3) the 1967 Official Record of the Oklahoma-Texas Conference of the Evangelical and United Brethren Church (P.17); and
(4) other histories of Methodism in North Texas.

IX. DAILY PROCEEDINGS

CLERGY EXECUTIVE SESSION

The Executive Session for the clergy of the North Texas Annual Conference was called to order in the sanctuary of Floral Heights United Methodist Church, Wichita Falls, Texas, at 4:30 p.m. by the President of the Conference, Bishop Bruce P. Blake. John Thornburg led in singing "And Are We Yet Alive." Bishop Blake invited Paul Cardwell to offer the opening prayer, noting Cardwell's attendance at this his 67th session of the annual conference.

Bishop Blake expressed gratitude for the work of the Board of Ordained Ministry, recognized its members, and invited Ronald Henderson to present the report of the Board. Henderson introduced William T. Stephenson, Chairperson of the Division of Chaplains and Related Ministries, who referred clergy members of the conference to the printed report which had been distributed and asked that the report be received without action since it contained no legislative proposals.

David Rucker, Chairperson of the Division of Local Pastors, reminded clergy members of the annual conference that the guidelines for the work of the Division which were printed in the 1989 JOURNAL continue to be operational as policy for the Division. Rucker noted the following changes to the guidelines: (1) that local pastors pay for their own books for the Course of Study and then be reimbursed by the Division in order to take advantage of the Cokesbury Bookstore discount; (2) that Licensing School will now be open, upon recommendation of the District Committee on Ordained Ministry, for persons other than those seeking licensing, and (3) that beginning this year, the Division will assume the responsibility of assigning counseling elders to certified candidates and local pastors. Noting that the 48 local pastors serving in the North Texas Annual Conference represent a significant percentage of the conference clergy, Rucker moved adoption of the three guideline changes. The changes were approved.

Donald Renshaw, Chairperson of the Division of Preparation and Qualifications, called the clergy members' attention to the report of the Pastoral Residency Program and expressed particular appreciation for the work of Gary Mueller. Renshaw also urged all candidates for ministry to observe carefully the deadlines for interviews and submission of materials as set forth in the Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Renshaw expressed gratitude for the work of the Board's Registrar, Charles Cox.

Charles Cox noted that the substance of the Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry was correct but certain dates had been changed: February 20-21 is the corrected date for interviews for Deacon's Orders and/or Probationary Membership; January 23-24, for Elder's Orders and/or Full Connection.

Cox called for those persons to be elected to Full Connection to stand before the members of the Clergy Executive Session:

Paulette Dalke Albright
Dan Boyd
Thomas Lynn Flick
Matthew Blaine Gaston
Jung Kee Lee
Valerie Knox-Mireb
Sheron Covington Patterson
Joseph Benjamin Stabile
Patricia Piron Thresher
Mark Alan Thurman

Charles Cox spoke to the Executive Session regarding Ordained Ministry issues.

Bishop Blake presented the disciplinary questions to the candidates. Having responded to all questions, the candidates were voted upon individually. Each was unanimously elected to Full Connection.

Charles Cox called the names of those persons being recommended for Elder's Orders:

Paulette Dalke Albright
Dan Boyd
Thomas Lynn Flick
Matthew Blaine Gaston
Valerie Knox-Mireb
Sheron Covington Patterson
Patricia Piron Thresher
Mark Alan Thurman

There being no opposition to any candidate, each was individually and unanimously elected. Bishop Blake offered prayer.

Elder's Orders candidates answer the historic questions during the Executive Session.

Charles Cox called for those persons to be elected as Probationary Members to stand before the Executive Session:

Vicenta Delfinia Cisneros
Jeffrey Dale Garrett
Vonciel Jones Hill
Diana Brown Holbert
Cheryl A. Jordan
Donald Warren Lee
Thomas R. McGee
Gregory Scott Neal
R. Mitchell Skidmore
Janice A. Virtue
Thomas W. Waitschies
Harry Wright, Jr.

There being no opposition to any candidate, each was individually and unanimously elected.

For election to Deacon's Orders, the following persons were named by Charles Cox:

Vincenta Delfinia Cisneros
Jeffrey Dale Garrett
Vonceil Jones Hill
Diana Brown Holbert
Cheryl A. Jordan
Donald Warren Lee
Thomas R. McGee
Gregory Scott Neal
R. Mitchell Skidmore
Janice A. Virtue
Thomas W. Waitschies

Each was elected individually and unanimously. Bishop Blake led in prayer.

The remaining disciplinary questions were then addressed, omitting those to which the answer was "none." Ronald Henderson reported that all clergy members of the conference were blameless in their life and official administration. Henderson explained that a charge had been filed with the Board of Ordained Ministry regarding William Farmer's acceptance into full communion in the Roman Catholic Church. Farmer maintains United Methodist clergy credentials. The matter had been referred to the Joint Committee on Review for due process and is now being reported back to the Board of Ordained Ministry for further review.

Henderson placed in nomination those persons to be elected to the Committee on Investigation and the Joint Review Committee. Bishop Blake invited further nominations from the floor; there being none, the committees were elected as nominated.

Clergy members elect candidates to Probationary Membership.

Bishop Blake greets Sheron Patterson while Don Renshaw welcomes Joseph Stabile following their election to Full Connection.

Explanation was made regarding those persons listed in the Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry as having received the certificate of candidacy for ordained ministry. The names of persons just elected to ministerial orders were to be removed as an editorial correction to the listing by districts.

David Rucker read the names of those persons approved as local pastors:

Approved but not presently appointed:

Previously discontinued, Mario Ruggia was readmitted as a member in Full Connection.

Four persons were received by transfer from other annual conferences: Sung Chul Lee and Richard W. Jenkins, Jr., from Central Texas; Virgil Howard from Iowa; and James D. Keith from Little Rock.

Harry Wright, Jr., was recognized as transferring from another denomination by recognition of orders.

Transferring out to other annual conferences were Inn Kyoung Chung (Southern New England), Charles Washington (California Pacific), Namiqa A. Shipman (Southwest Texas), Bertrand F. Jarvis (Northwest Texas), Edward C. Blythe, Jr. (Little Rock), Mario Ruggia (Central Texas), Ron Adams (Southern Illinois).

Three persons were discontinued as Probationary Members: Judith Alzina Cooper, Craig Baxter Gallaway, David L. Michel. Norma Meyer was granted honorable location.

Names were read of persons having their conference membership terminated:
By surrender of the ministerial office:
David L. Noblin and Patrick L. Williams;

By withdrawal under complaints or charges:
Robert G. M. Johnson.

Three members in Full Connection were reported as having died during the year: Gerald L. Clore, James E. Connatser, Omer B. Rogers.

Harry E. Houseman was reported to be appointed in the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference while retaining his membership in North Texas.

With regard to ordained ministers on leave of absence, the following were named: Sharon Andrews, Katherine DeGrow, Jordan C. Gary, Johnnie W. Haney, Phillip G. Hudson, Wayne P. Merrill, Linda M. Smith, Monty Stewart, Rodney C. Wallace. Those placed on leave of absence since the last session of the annual conference (with consent) were David Ray Blackmon and David L. Michel. The leave of David Dunson was reported to have been terminated.

Two actions were taken with regard to disabled ordained ministers:

Disability leave terminated: Buist B. Wilson;
Disability leave granted: Jerry R. Delleney, C. Randal James, Robert S. Turnipseed, Clay Yeager.

Ministers in Full Connection voted the retired status were the following: Raymond F. Butts, Johnnie W. Haney, William H. Jacobs, John T. Lancaster, Wayne C. Odom, Paul A. Stauffer, C. Bourdon Smith, David K. Switzer, Julian D. Thomas, George G. Topper, Donald W. Waddell, R. Bruce Weaver, Buist B. Wilson. The retired status was also voted for Probationary Member Betty D. Richardson.

Ronald Henderson, Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, moved adoption of the full report of the Board; it was approved.

Howard Hedges moved that personal notations be made with regard to the service records of three clergy members: William Crouch, Johnnie Haney, and Paul Stauffer. The notations were approved.

Information sheets regarding eligibility to vote and to be elected for delegates to General Conference were distributed by Conference Statistician Walter Zimmerman. Michael Nichols, Conference Secretary, made announcements regarding changes in the agenda for the evening session; and Valerie Knox-Mireb closed the clergy executive session with prayer.

LAITY EXECUTIVE SESSION

The Executive Session for the lay members of the North Texas Annual Conference was called to order in the sanctuary of University United Methodist Church, Wichita Falls, Texas, at 4:30 p.m. by Richard Stanford, Conference Lay Leader. Citing the importance of the election of lay delegates to the 1992 General and Jurisdictional Conferences, Stanford invited each of the 23 candidates present to discuss briefly their qualifications and vision. Charles Harper outlined the work and influence of the General and Jurisdictional Conferences, and the candidates touched on a number of issues, including representation of town and country churches, reflection of traditional values, urban ministries, singles' ministries, and the need for greater efforts in evangelism and missions. Stanford urged lay members of the conference to keep in mind representation for the conference as a whole when they cast their ballots. Stanford noted that the Jurisdictional Conference has several important duties, including the election and assignment of bishops. Stanford explained that the General Conference is able to make decisions and to speak for The United Methodist Church.

Evening Welcome and Worship Celebration

The Wichita Falls Activities Center was the site of the 6:30 p.m. barbecue dinner and celebration. Musical entertainment was provided by the Mad Medics and the North Texas Men's Chorus. Pat Deal, Lay Leader of the Wichita Falls District, brought greetings; and Darrell Dick led "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing" and "Amazing Grace."
Bishop Bruce Blake introduced the guest speaker for the evening, David Dolson, an active United Methodist layman from Pueblo, Colorado. Mr. Dolson used the classic children's book, THE LITTLE ENGINE THAT COULD, both to draw an analogy of the North Texas Conference with programs and ideas to share, individuals and groups to reach but mountains yet to be crossed, and to challenge the United Methodists of North Texas truly to understand the conference theme of "Every United Methodist an Evangelist" as a steady, faithful way to break down barriers and reach out in the name of Christ for the sake of the world.

An offering was received for the Conference Summer Events Program, and the evening's celebration concluded with the singing of "O How I Love Jesus."

Monday, June 3, 1991
MORNING BUSINESS SESSION

At 8:00 a.m. in the Wichita Falls Activities Center, John Thornburg led members of the conference in singing "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing" and "Ask Ye What Great Thing I Know." John Tarver served as organist. Bishop Bruce Blake welcomed members to the convening of the 125th Session of the North Texas Annual Conference. Charles Harper presented Paul Hughes who brought greetings from the mayor, city council, and citizens of Wichita Falls.

Michael Nichols, Conference Secretary, moved the election of Assistant Secretaries, Secretarial Tellers, and Counting Tellers; all were elected, as were members of the Committee on Courtesy and Resolutions: Fred Kandeler, Chair; Pat Deal, Jean Wood, Raymond Williams. Nichols moved approval of the 1991 Lay/Clergy Equalization Table; it was approved. LA1

Bruce Weaver, Chair of the Agenda Committee, expressed appreciation to Don Barnes and staff of the Conference Council on Ministries for their work in preparing the Pre-Conference Packets. Weaver reminded conference members of Standing Rule 23 which requires that any matter not in the Pre-Conference Packet that is to be considered by the Annual Conference must be distributed the day before it is to be considered.

James Palmer moved an amendment to the conference agenda:

> "That the Special Offering proposed by the Agenda Committee to be taken to defray expenses of the session of the Annual Conference be changed to become an offering for support of United Methodist Committee on Relief; and that additional opportunities be made for United Methodists at Annual Conference to resond to the increasing demands being made on UMCOR world-wide efforts for disaster relief."

Palmer explained that approval of the amendment would designate Tuesday evening's offering for use by UMCOR in Liberia. Motion carried. LA2

Bishop Blake explained the balloting procedures which would be used for the election of delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences, offered prayer, and instructed that the first ballots be taken.

Bishop's Message to 1991 Conference Session

In preparation for the Bishop's message, John Thornburg led in singing "I Love to Tell the Story," and Henry Wilkins offered prayer.

Bishop Blake's major presentation to the conference was the development of the vision, "Every United Methodist an Evangelist." The presentation followed a clear outline:
(1) Hurdles which must be overcome for the vision to be experienced;
(2) A conceptual framework for the vision;

Bishop Blake delivers the episcopal message to the Monday morning session.

Bishop Bruce Blake, Chris Chaffee, and a conference member share conversation during the Ministries Mart.

(3) Biblical understanding of the vision;
(4) Bishop's contention that what is at stake is faithfulness.

Copies of the presentation were distributed to the conference, and Bishop Blake concluded his message with the challenge to "hear the call of Christ to 'Come' and to answer and 'Go'" as we enlarge our expectations, reach for more room to run the good race of faith, and refuse to let simple hurdles become major barriers.

Bishop Blake announced the offering of further dialogue opportunities with him through his "In the Bishop's Study" seminars and invited conference members to register for the seminars. John Thornburg led in singing "You Are the Seed."

Courtesy and Resolutions

Fred Kandeler, Chair, recognized Leighton Farrell, Chair of the Committee on Episcopacy, who presented Karen Blake to the conference. The "First Lady of the North Texas Conference" expressed her pleasure at being in the conference session and having opportunity to greet members. At Karen Blake's request and in lieu of the traditional presentation of flowers, a gift will be made in her name to the Lydia Patterson Institute in El Paso, Texas.

Karen Blake addresses the conference on Monday morning.

Michael Haynes moved that the conference send its congratulations to Robert Ridley on his long years of service in the annual conference and its sympathy in the death of his wife Margaret. It was done by common consent.

Bishop Blake recognized the presence in the conference session of Bishop Lance Webb and welcomed him to the session. Bishop Blake also introduced James and Jean Keith who are transferring from the Little Rock Conference to the North Texas Conference.

Committee on Standing Rules

Wynn Stanton, Chair, moved approval of the following legislative proposals as printed in the Pre-Conference Packet: LA3

(1) That the Annual Conference establish a Division of Single Adult Ministries as part of the Board of Discipleship. It was approved.

(2) That in the section of Standing Rule 3 dealing with the Board of Global Ministries' Division of Urban Ministries, paragraphs be updated to incorporate changes in the title of the Division. It was approved.

(3) That in the section of Standing Rule 3 dealing with the Board of Laity, change be made to allow for the election of a Conference Lay Leader-elect. Boyd Sawyer moved to amend the proposal to read that "the Annual Conference Lay Leader-elect shall help with the duties of the Annual Conference Lay Leader as set forth in guidelines created by the Board of Laity." The amendment was adopted; the amended motion carried.

(4) That various Standing Rules relating to funding in the annual conference be changed as recommended by the Council on Finance and Administration. They were approved with the correction to the change in Standing Rule 21, Section B, that requested audits be due by September 1.

Clergy Ballot #1

Report of the first clergy ballot: 285 ballots cast
5 invalid ballots
280 valid ballots
141 needed to elect
Zan Holmes, Jr., was elected with 222 ballots.

Committee on Standing Rules

Wynn Stanton moved adoption of further legislation presented by the Committee on Standing Rules:

(5) That the Annual Conference abolish the Church Development Share Grant Committee with the subsequent amendment of Standing Rule 3; it was approved.

(6) That a new Annual Conference Committee on Nominations be composed of nine persons: four lay, four clergy, plus the Conference Lay Leader. Ron Koo, Don Barnes, and Bourdon Smith spoke in support of the legislation; Joseph Washington and Jean Wood, against. Motion carried.

Board of Diaconal Ministry

Richard Wilson, Chair, thanked members of the Board for their diligent work. Wilson highlighted such accomplishments as the development of a benefits booklet, promotion of continuing education events, a speaker's bureau, and a mentors program.

After reading the names of diaconal ministers to be transferred out and those to be transferred in to the North Texas Conference, Wilson presented certification certificates to Linda Marie Smith, Ann Wilson, Sarah Squires, and Walt Marcum. The names of those diaconal ministers seeking the retired status were presented; and, upon vote of the annual conference, retirement was granted.

Candidates for election to the office of Diaconal Minister were invited to address the conference:

SARAH SQUIRES spoke of growing up in the North Texas Conference and offered a word of gratitude for that nurture and for the new possibilities of working together for the kingdom.

ANN WILSON borrowed her theme from the Praxis program--I Am Lovable And Capable--as she thanked the conference for help and encouragement as she entered this third career.

JAYNE WOLFE offered thanks to God for allowing her to be a servant seeking to teach and help and heal those with mental retardation.

RITA YOES spoke of God's grace opening windows of love and service where doors had seemed to be closed; Yoes led the conference in a unison reading from The United Methodist HYMNAL, "On Eagle's Wings."

Richard Wilson moved approval of the legislative proposal requiring all Staff-Parish Relations Committees of local churches and governing boards of agencies employing diaconal ministers to submit to the Conference Board of Diaconal Ministry and the appropriate District Superintendents a copy of the job descriptions, contracts, evaluation and termination procedures. It was approved. LA4

Noting that there are now 59 Diaconal Ministers in the North Texas Conference (36 active, 11 on leave of absence, 12 retired), Wilson moved adoption of the entire report of the Board of Diaconal Ministry. It was adopted.

Lay Ballot #1

The result of the first lay ballot for delegates to General Conference was reported: 327 ballots cast
9 invalid ballots
318 valid ballots
160 needed to elect.
As no person was elected, lay members were instructed to take a second ballot.

As Chair of the Conference Nominating Committee, Bishop Blake announced for information the names of those who would later be nominated as the new Conference Nominating Committee as a result of recently passed legislation:

LAITY: Joanne Greening, Ron Koo, Thalia Matherson, Jim Richards
CLERGY: Ray Hennigh, Jim Dorff, Roger Woods, Barbara Marcum.

Bishop Blake welcomed Bishop Ole Borgen, former President of the Council of Bishops, who was present in the morning session.

Fred Kandeler introduced Gifford Long who in turn presented Kelli Walker-Jones, an affiliate member of the North Texas Conference.

Following announcements by the Conference Secretary, Bishop Blake expressed gratitude to Jackie Ponder for her leadership in the merger of Centenary and First Filipino United Methodist Churches and invited Ponder to offer the dismissal prayer.

AFTERNOON BUSINESS SESSION

At 1:30 p.m. Bishop Blake called the session to order, and Victor Casad led in singing "The Lord of the Dance."

Clergy Ballot #2

Report of the second clergy ballot was read: 285 ballots cast
1 invalid
284 valid
143 needed to elect.
William Crouch was elected with 154 votes. Dudley Dancer moved and it was seconded that names of persons receiving fewer than 20 votes on clergy ballots not be read; motion carried.

Lay Ballot #2

Results of voting on the second lay ballot were announced:
308 ballots cast
7 invalid
301 valid
151 needed to elect.
Three were elected: Thalia Matherson (175), Ron Koo (166), Mary Brooke Casad (158). It was moved and seconded that the names of persons receiving fewer than 20 votes on lay ballots not be read; motion carried.

Georjean Blanton and Milton Gutierrez tally a clergy delegate ballot.

Walter Zimmerman supervises the work of Clergy Counting Tellers.

Council on Finance and Administration #1

David Shawver, Chair, reported on the difficult financial year for the Council on Finance and Administration as it struggled in its responsibility both to the annual conference and to the agencies of the conference. Shawver recognized members of the Council while offering an expression of particular gratitude to James Hares.

In presenting the report of the Council on Finance and Administration, Shawver noted that in 1990 apportionments were paid in full by 19 fewer churches than in the previous year. And while total dollars received increased in 1990, the percentage paid decreased by 0.4 of a percentage point. Local church total expenditures also decreased during 1990 (0.8 percent). Shawver noted that across the past decade, the percent of increase of local church total expenditures has been greater than the percent of increase of the total apportionments based on the decimal; Shawver expressed appreciation for the diligence of the Conference Council on Ministries in working to achieve significant reductions in apportionment requests.

Shawver offered an addition to Section II of the Report of the Council on Finance and Administration. The addition of Paragraph E to the Recommended Goals to Local Churches was read: "That all charges either reimburse their local church appointees by voucher for travel as professional expenses based on mileage logs at the IRS approved mileage rate, or if travel allowances are paid, that appointees maintain a mileage log as information for the Pastor-Parish Relations Committees." Vote was taken; Section II was approved with the addition.

Shawver moved concurrence with a petition to be sent to the 1992 General Conference recommending no increase in the total amount for all general funds to be apportioned to local churches during the 1993-96 quadrennium. It was approved.

Shawver moved adoption of the Adjusted Supplement Scale for 1992 Dependent Insurance Premiums, its explanatory paragraphs and its scale. The motion carried.

United Methodist Publishing House

Sam Albright, manager of the Dallas Cokesbury Bookstore, announced the purchase and anticipated move to new property on Preston Road in north Dallas near the end of 1991. Albright presented to Bishop Blake a check in the amount of $8,425.25 for the clergy pension fund from proceeds of the United Methodist Publishing House.

Jurisdictional Seminaries

James Kirby, Dean of Perkins School of Theology, reported on the cooperative endeavors of the 13 United Methodist-related seminaries to develop new means of recruitment of persons for ministry. Kirby challenged members of the conference to encourage persons in local churches to consider life in ministry and noted the availability of trial-year scholarships offered at both St. Paul and Perkins Schools of Theology.

Clergy Ballot #3

Results of the third clergy ballot were reported: 267 cast
2 invalid
265 valid
133 needed.
There were no elections, and a fourth ballot was taken.

Lay Ballot #3

Report of the third lay ballot was read: 304 ballots cast
7 invalid
297 valid
149 needed to elect.
There were no elections, and a fourth ballot was taken.

Lay Ballot #4

Before adjourning to experience the Ministries Mart, members received the report of the fourth lay ballot: 330 cast
11 invalid
319 valid
160 needed
Tom Christian (167) and Raymond Williams (166) were elected.

Clergy Ballot #4

Results of the fourth clergy ballot were read: 274 cast
2 invalid
272 valid
137 needed
Joan Gray LaBarr was elected with 145 votes.

Committee on Nominations

Pat Deal, Secretary, presented the Report of the Committee on Nominations, including the newly created nine-person Nominating Committee.

In addition to the Addendum to the Nominating Committee report which was distributed to members of the conference, several corrections/nominations were made from the floor:

Committee on Courtesy and Resolutions:
Addition of Raymond Williams
Board of Church and Society:
PS clergy--Joe Twellman replaces Mark Thurman
Division of Evangelism:
WF--vacancy replaces Dan Boyd
Division of Older Adult Ministries:
DC--vacancy replaces Angie Hammond
Division of Health and Welfare:
DS--vacancy replaces George Fisk
Division of Urban Ministries:
DC--Bill Murray replaces Joyce Merz

Division of Higher Education:
DD--Dorlis Glass replaces Jerry Mahle
Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns:
PS--Mark Thurman replaces Joe Twellman
Division of Consecration, Certification and Conference Relations of the Board of Diaconal Ministry:
DC--Donna Walls replaces Marilyn Turnigan
Division of Single Adult Ministries:
Chair--Eric Folkerth
DC--Harry Wright, Jr.
DN--Jeff Hamner
DS--Gary Roll
PS--Chuck Marsters
Conference Lay Leader-Elect:
Pat Deal

John Tatum requested that the Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns be exempted from election in order to allow opportunity to make certain that its members are in compliance with the standing rule. Bishop Blake ruled that the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee would be exempted from the vote on the Nominating Committee Report as would the nominees for the new Committee on Nominations.

Don Barnes asked whether the persons nominated from the floor for the Division of Single Adult Ministries were representative of all age groups. Mike McGregor responded that those nominated were chosen out of a concern for continuity from the previous task force to the newly-formed Division. Jean Wood moved that the Division of Single Adult Ministries be exempted from consideration and be referred to the Conference Nominating Committee in consultation with the Single Adult Ministries Task Force. Motion carried. Vote was taken on the entire report, noting the three exemptions; the report was approved.

Lay Ballot #5

The results of the fifth lay ballot were reported: 314 cast
0 invalid
158 needed
There were no elections, and a sixth ballot was taken.

Courtesy and Resolutions

Fred Kandeler presented Bob Young, Administrator of Mount Sequoyah Assembly, who brought greetings to the conference. William T. Stephenson introduced Stan Bryant, new manager of the North Texas Federal Credit Union.

The afternoon session was closed with prayer by Levy Laguardia.

MONDAY EVENING BUSINESS SESSION AND WORSHIP

The 7:00 p.m. business session began with the singing of "O Mary, Don't You Weep." Bishop Blake called the session to order.

Lay Ballot #6

The results of the sixth lay ballot were reported, but there was no election: 317 ballots cast
0 invalid
159 needed to elect.

Clergy Ballot #5

The vote on the fifth clergy ballot was reported:
267 cast
4 invalid
263 valid
132 needed to elect.
Gary Regan (145) and Michael Walker (132) were elected.

Legislative Proposals

Marie Libby presented the resolution "Abortion Alternatives" on behalf of the Wheatland United Methodist Women. Paulette Albright moved to amend the motion:

> "That the Conference ask the Cabinet to appoint a task force to study the need for abortion alternatives and report the status of specific United Methodist programs engaged in providing abortion alternatives or the feasibility of starting new ministries which would provide and promote abortion alternatives."

Vote was taken; the amendment carried. DeForest Wiksten moved to eliminate references to funding from the motion with the addition of "the task group to function without funding" to the amended motion. Vote was taken; the amendment carried. Bishop Blake called for a vote on the entire proposal as amended; it was approved. LA5

Report of the seventh lay ballot: 254 cast
0 invalid
128 needed to elect.
Pat Deal was elected with 134 votes. Lay members of the conference then began balloting for eight delegates to Jurisdictional Conference.

Clergy Ballot #6

Report of the sixth clergy ballot: 225 cast
1 invalid
113 needed to elect.

There were no elections.

Boyd Sawyer moved that the conference send an expression of concern, love, prayer, and condolences to Fleta Williams in her injuries and in the death of her husband Narbon. By common consent, it was approved.

Legislative Proposals

Marie Libby moved the resolution "Adoption Center Affirmation and Support" on behalf of the Wheatland United Methodist Women. William Crouch offered a substitute motion:

> "That the Methodist Mission Home of San Antonio be affirmed by the North Texas Annual Conference as an adoptive agency and that the conference encourage increased support of this agency as it offers an alternative to abortion."

Jack Soper moved to amend the substitute motion by deleting from the original proposal the "Desired Implementation." The amendment carried. Vote was taken on the substitute motion as amended; motion carried. LA6

Clergy Ballot #7

Report of the seventh clergy ballot: 240 cast
0 invalid
121 needed to elect.

There were no elections; an eighth ballot was taken. It was moved and seconded that the ballot be sealed and counted at 7:30 a.m. Tuesday morning and that the Monday evening session be closed with worship. The motion carried.

Worship

Eduardo Cajiuat offered the opening prayer and announced the hymn "Sing Praise to God Who Reigns Above" before leading in an Affirmation of Faith from The United Church of Canada and a unison Prayer to the Holy Spirit. Dona Whitehead read the scripture for the service--Jeremiah 1:4-10.

Charles Cox presented five of the ten persons elected to Elder's Orders and Full Connection in the Clergy Executive Session that each might speak to his/her call to ministry.

Paulette Dalke Albright referred to the song "We've Only Just Begun" as a framework for her thoughts. She spoke of approaching ordination much as she approached high school graduation--with a sense of accomplishment mingled with excitement and anxiety about the future. The years since that graduation have brought the tempering of experience and the gifts of wisdom and humility. But the really significant difference between that event 20 years ago and ordination at this annual conference session is the sense of empowerment Albright receives from the community of faith in affirming her call to ministry.

Thomas Lynn Flick was initially guided in vocational choice by the conventional wisdom of the day that one did not "waste oneself serving in an institution which was only an option to society and not a necessity." Flick related his pilgrimage from young adulthood through a career in medicine to a local church in the North Texas Conference where being in ministry for God and to God's people was not a waste of time but rather a life of relevance in a needy world.

Valerie Knox-Mireb recalled a journey of questioning the justice of God and the mercy of Christ through a series of life experiences which led her finally to feel a deep call to be a force for reconciliation. Knox-Mireb understands the call of Christian faith as more than a call to commit oneself to a way of life; rather, it is a call to commit oneself to someone--the person of Jesus Christ. Belonging to Jesus is both the gift of grace and the acceptance of responsibility.

Patricia Piron Thresher spoke of the rhythms of life and faith and God's recreative love. Thresher images the call of God's nurturing, reconciling, sustaining, recreative love as a call to live the rhythms of God in life.

Joseph Benjamin Stabile entered a Roman Catholic seminary at age 14 to begin a spiritual journey which, after 13 years in the seminary and 13 years as a priest, would lead him in a new direction. Stabile was called from all of the security and stability and control that largely defined who he was to a place of abandonment where all he could do was trust God. In that trust, Stabile continues his spiritual journey, daily seeking to discern God's will, and opening himself to be the servant of others.

After the singing of "Here I Am, Lord," Donna Whitehead led in the reading of the hymn "Go Forth for God" as a responsive benediction.

Tuesday, June 4, 1991
MORNING WORSHIP AND BUSINESS SESSION

After an opening prayer "For a New Day" and the singing of the hymn "Rise, Shine, You People," Bishop Blake called to order the Tuesday morning session of the annual conference.

Lay Ballot #8

Report of the eighth lay ballot: 293 cast
9 invalid
284 valid
143 needed to elect.

Four persons were elected: Judy Gilreath (214), Scott Smith (207), Richard Stanford (185), and Sharon Adair (150).

Clergy Ballot #8

Report of the eighth clergy ballot: 229 cast
0 invalid
115 needed to elect.

There were no elections.

Worship

As worship continued, John Gondol led a responsive reading of Psalm 100; Derrick Wright offered prayer, and Carol Woods read the scripture lesson--2 Timothy 1:1ff. Charles Cox presented the remaining five persons elected to Full Connection and Elder's Orders.

Dan Boyd expressed his call to ministry as a call to be transformed. That transformation began for Boyd as he experienced the incongruity between the experience of a distant God and the proclamation of a loving and gracious God by persons who loved and cared for him. Boyd invited the prayers of the conference for his continued transformation in God's servant ministry.

Matthew Gaston described his journey toward faithfulness as it led through Harvard University to an internship with Shell Oil Company and on to youth work in a church in Alaska before entering theological studies. From his experience as a young boy in the sixth grade concerned about the feelings of others to his experience of family members growing in discipleship Gaston has come to give thanks both that a prophet can be heard in his own country and that there is no greater excitement than God's ministry through the church.

Sheron Patterson related her call from a career in cinematography to ministry. As she resisted the call, God surrounded Patterson with a circle of positive people who affirmed and encouraged her and helped her overcome her uncertainty, insecurity, and fear. Patterson proclaimed that even though "the road is rough and the going gets tough," in Jesus Christ we are made strong.

Mark Thurman told of his slowness to accept the call to ministry due in large measure to his finding the priestly role of ministry to be a wonderfully terrifying one. Thurman expressed his grate-fullness that there is room in the church for the kind of divine discomfort that prompted him toward ministry.

Chung Kee Lee described the desk of his son piled high with parts of toy cars. When asked by his father why he cluttered his desk like that, the son replied, "Because I like it." That is the same simple, clear reason why Lee joined The United Methodist Church and became a minister. And although fear and trembling will always accompany Lee's response to God's call, he will continue to answer that call "because I love Jesus Christ and I know he loves me."

The service of worship concluded with the singing of "Lord, You Give the Great Commission" and the benediction by Carol Woods.

Clergy Ballot #9

Report of the ninth clergy ballot: 244 cast
1 invalid
243 valid
122 needed to elect.
James Pledger was elected with 122 votes.

Council on Ministries #1

Zan Holmes, Jr., Chair, presented the 1990 Budget Report of the Council on Ministries; it was approved.

Holmes moved approval of the 1992 budget for the Council on Ministries. A question was raised regarding the apparent large increase in the Staff Support section of the budget. Pat Deal explained that (1) only a 3 percent increase was recommended over 1991 figures but that the increase appeared larger because it was being compared to 1990 figures, (2) an additional professional staff person has been hired, and (3) the grouping of staff salaries has changed from the 1990 report. Concern was also voiced regarding the adequacy of the budget for the Division of Evangelism. Deal responded that all agencies had agreed to budget decreases and that no request for reconsideration has been received from that division. Mike McGregor noted for the information of the conference that new legislation creating the Division of Single Adult Ministries did not carry any funding but that the Division of Adult Ministries had agreed to divide its funds with the new Division of Single Ministries. Vote was taken; the budget was approved. LA7

Lay Ballot #9

Report of the ninth lay ballot: 288 cast

276 valid
139 needed to elect.
Ray Stephens was elected with 142 votes.

Zan Holmes, Jr., delivered the Budget Report of the Council on Ministries.

Marvin Guier examines materials at a Ministries Mart booth.

Zan Holmes continued the report of the Council on Ministries by moving approval of the legislative proposal regarding "Texas State Tax Reform." Larry George, Chair of the Board of Church and Society, spoke to correct the proposal as distributed by (1) changing the reference of the rationale (Paragraph b) from 73.G to 72.B,C,D and (2) by the addition of a paragraph:

> "(c) those Principles further address our denominational stance in opposition to gambling as destructive to both good government and the best interests of the public (1988 BOOK OF DISCIPLINE, Paragraph 73.G)"

Bishop Blake recognized the presence in the conference of Sue Thornton, Executive Director of Texas IMPACT, and invited her to address the conference on this issue. Thornton explained that the State of Texas not only is facing a fiscal crisis but that the state no longer has any easy, painless ways to solve the crisis. Summarizing the state revenue picture and outlining the devastating consequences of House Bill 10 now under consideration, Thornton encouraged members of the conference to consider the revenue proposals that have been put forth and to make their concerns and opinions known to their state legislators. An information sheet was distributed to facilitate understanding and response.

Vote was taken on the proposal; the motion carried. LA8 Bishop Blake spoke briefly to encourage members of the conference to follow through with individual contacts to state legislators regarding these issues.

Zan Holmes continued to move adoption of legislative proposals from the agencies of the Council on Ministries:

"Central American Ministry" from the Board of Church and Society; it was approved.

"Peace with Justice in El Salvador" from the Board of Church and Society; it was approved.

"Use of Recycled Paper in Local Churches and North Texas Conference Offices" from the Board of Society; it was approved.

"Age-Level and Family Ministries" from the Board of Discipleship, Division of Older Adult Ministries; it was approved. LA9

Holmes moved adoption on behalf of the Board of Global Ministries of the "Conference Advance Specials for 1991-92." Joe Florence moved an amendment to add Cross Road Fellowship (a new Hispanic ministry in Oak Cliff, Dallas) to the section on Church Extension. The amendment carried, and editorial changes were noted: TANE changed to Drug Awareness and Prevention, Inc.; La Puerta Abierta Preschool changed to Open Door Preschool. Vote was taken on the main motion; it was approved. LA10

Holmes moved adoption on behalf of the Board of Global Ministries of the proposal on "Clergy Participation in Volunteers in Mission." Sharon Adair offered an amendment to include other professional staff:

"The Division of Volunteers in Mission proposes that all clergy and other professional staff be allowed to participate in a VIM-sponsored event yearly which may be applied toward the fulfillment of one's continuing education requirement without effecting vacation time."

The amendment was accepted by the maker of the motion and the body of the conference. Vote was taken on the main motion; it was approved.

Holmes moved approved of the legislation arising from the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry concerning "A Campus Ministry Special Program for 1991-1996." Hal Brady moved to delete from the resolution the funding proposal, "funded at $1,000,000," and to substitute the wording, "funded by established funds appropriated to the General Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry." Vote was taken; both the amendment and the main motion carried.

Hal Brady, Chair of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, announced the selection of Christine Travers of Plymouth Park United Methodist Church, Irving, as the recipient of this year's Award of Merit scholarship.

Gail Pettigrew, Chair of the Division of Children's Ministries, presented Laurie Farnsworth of University United Methodist Church, Wichita Falls, as the winner of the montage coloring contest.

Pat Deal addresses the conference session.

Lay Ballot #10

Report of the tenth lay ballot: 324 cast

316 valid
159 needed to elect.
Jan Wiksten was elected with 178 votes.

ORDER OF THE DAY
Retired Clergy and Diaconals Address Conference

Howard Hedges, Chair of the Division of Conference Relations of the Board of Ordained Ministry, presented the diaconal and ordained ministers who had been granted the retired status at this session of the annual conference.

RAY AND CARROLL STARNES recalled 39 years of wonderful memories as Ray remembered three churches in particular -- Florence, TX, where he learned that relationships with people are the most important part of ministry; First United Methodist Church, Paris, where he learned that the church ministers to the minister as well as vice versa; and Waples United Methodist Church, Denison, where the immediate friendship, love, and support offered by the congregation made it difficult to leave after only one year. The second stanza of the hymn "What Gift Can We Bring" was used by Starnes to summarize his thoughts and feelings. Carroll recalled her reluctance in moving until she realized how many wonderful people she would not have gotten to know if they had not moved.

Hedges announced the names of OPAL PERON and JANE BACH, two additional diaconal ministers granted retired status but who were unable to attend the session of annual conference.

Raymond and Nancy Butts

Ray and Carroll Starnes

RAYMOND AND NANCY BUTTS began the remarks of the newly-retired ordained ministers by offering appreciation for every appointment Raymond had received across the North Texas Annual Conference during the past 31 years and by voicing their excitement in looking forward to many more years of service. Their feelings were summed up in a word, "gratitude."

JOHNNIE HANEY also expressed gratitude for the privilege of serving the church in the North Texas Conference for the past 27 years. Haney thanked his wife BETTY who was unable to be present in the conference session, and several district superintendents who knew how to listen and how to praise. Having begun his ministry at Grant Street United Methodist Church in Wichita Falls, Haney remarked about the appropriateness of delivering his retirement address in the same city.

Johnnie Haney

Bill Jacobs

WILLIAM AND PAT JACOBS received early, correct advice about ministry; and that advice was "to go out and love the people and they will teach you what to do and how to do it." Jacobs noted that he came into the North Texas Conference in his appointment to Floral Heights United Methodist Church, Wichita Falls; he received his appointment as the organizing pastor of Trietsch Memorial United Methodist Church in a session of the annual conference meeting in Wichita Falls; and now he was retiring, also as the annual conference was in session in Wichita Falls.

JOHN LANCASTER reflected on retirement as a rite of passage and compared the time to retire with the time to get a "retread" for the new life and new opportunities ahead. Lancaster reminded members of the annual conference that he was retiring from the appointive system but not from life because, by the grace of God, there are still so many things ahead. Lancaster thanked clergy colleagues and congregational members who led and served him more than he could ever return to them.

John Lancaster

Wayne and Carolyn Odom

WAYNE AND CAROLYN ODOM shared some of their many experiences in the Texas and North Texas Conferences which have made life rich and full. They expressed confidence that the call to ministry is a call for a lifetime, and they look forward to new areas of service. Odom reminded the conference that although they are not always fulfilled in the way one thinks they should be, the promises of God are always kept.

BETTY RICHARDSON told members of the annual conference that even though her call to ministry came early in life, her respond-ability came later. Her time in ministry was short but filled with gratitude as she thanked many persons for enabling her to become part of the clergywomen of the North Texas Annual Conference. Richardson expressed particular appreciation for the congregations of Casa View, Lakewood, and Urban Park United Methodist Churches for nurturing her and giving her places to serve.

Betty Richardson

Bourdon Smith and Harrietta Flachmeyer

BOURDON SMITH AND HARRIETTA FLACHMEYER offered the reflection that "a theology of coming is always followed by a theology of going." The decision to seek the retired status was a painful one, a dark night of the soul for Smith who did not know what to do after 41 years of ministry until he realized that the same Spirit that had called "Come!" was now bidding "Go!" to new places and new forms of service. For that is the nature of how God operates--in cycles of coming and going. Smith spoke of the frightful feelings of facing retirement and not knowing "where the watering holes are." But the good news of the Gospel is that God is already out there finding the watering holes for God's people.

PAUL STAUFFER offered appreciation to the North Texas Conference for years of ministry among the fellowship here, a profound word of gratitude to God, and a continuing word of gratitude to his wife of 43 years WANDA, even though his 70th birthday had left him an unrepentant rebel at retiring. Stauffer thanked God not only for the past but also for the future, noting from the arena of the theater that "you are only as good as your latest act."

Howard Hedges explained that retiring clergy DAVID SWITZER could not be present in the session of the annual conference.

JULIAN THOMAS gave thanks to God for the late but always beloved Doris Rollins who became his wife in 1938, for the North Texas Conference and the opportunities it offered him to serve God in many ways, and his family. Thomas stated that he will continue to serve at the C. C. Young Home as he thanked members of the conference "for being my friends."

Julian Thomas

Paul and Wanda Stauffer

Don and Constance Waddell

George and Clara Topper

GEORGE AND CLARA TOPPER recalled that when they decided to enter full-time ministry as a second career that people loved them, that God took care of them, and that the United Methodist Church gave them a place to serve. For 31 years, all of those things have been true. Entering the retired status is not the end but rather the beginning of a new relationship with the God whom they are confident will be with them always.

DONALD AND CONSTANCE WADDELL offered expressions of gratitude for the church, the North Texas Conference, their spouses who preceded them in death, and their children. From North Texas to Mount Sequoyah to Chile, the Waddells are looking still for God's next great adventure as they enter the retired status. They con-cluded their remarks by singing "Lord, You Have Come to the Lakeshore."

BRUCE AND DORIS WEAVER spoke of their gratitude in being part of the life of the church since Bruce's first appointment in 1942. Weaver selected one word that has most accurately characterized his ministry, and that word was "opportunity"--more opportunity than ability or time to fulfill. Weaver expressed his hope that the new ordinands will share the bubbling up of excitement that has been a part of his life in ministry. Borrowing a description of Willie Mays, Weaver expressed his hope that those coming into ministry as he was retiring would serve in ministry with "a champion's flair and a little boy's glee."

Bruce and Doris Weaver

BUIST AND VIOLET WILSON told of Buist's coming to Perkins as a young Tennessee farm boy bringing his bride to Texas for three years and staying for 40. Wilson expressed appreciation for every appointment he had received in the North Texas Conference. Violet added the comment that everywhere they had lived had been the best place to live at that time because of the congregations' love.

Advisory Committee on Capital Funds

Richard Dunagin moved adoption of the resolution presented by the Capital Funds Advisory Committee calling for a study committee to be appointed and chaired by the bishop with a six-fold function to (1) determine feasibility of a capital funds campaign, (2) identify potential donors and leaders, (3) design a plan, (4) develop specifics as to use of such capital resources,

(5) determine staffing and costs associated with such a campaign, (6) report findings/recommendations to the 1992 session of the North Texas Conference for action.

Joyce Merz expressed concern about the strategy portion of the report dealing with help for existing churches since its focus was on relocations or facilities expansion and did not seem to take into consideration the needs of churches where help is needed with facilities maintenance or where self-sufficiency of new congregations may not be achieved within the five-year timeline anticipated in the report.

Marshall Hodge voiced concern for ethnic representation on the committee to be formed if the legislation were adopted. Bishop Blake expressed sensitivity to that concern, as well as to the need to include in a capital funds campaign persons with particular experience and/or expertise.

Vote was taken; the motion carried.

Texas Methodist Foundation

Bishop Blake recognized Tom Locke of the Texas Methodist Foundation staff and invited him to address the conference. Locke noted that this has been a year of growth in terms of the assets of the Foundation with $80,000,000 under management and $45,000,000 in loans to United Methodist churches around the state. As a means of increasing service, the Foundation will be developing satellite offices around the state, and the first will be in the North Texas Conference around September 1, 1991. Bishop Blake announced that the first staff to represent the Foundation in that satellite office will be Jim Tarr.

Higher Education and Campus Ministry

Hal Brady presented representatives from Texas Methodist Colleges to speak to the conference:

Joseph E. Elmore, President, Texas Methodist College Association;
David Beckley, President, Wiley College, Marshall, Texas;
Ronnie Ballard, Assistant to the President, Texas Wesleyan University, Fort Worth, Texas;
Faulk Landrum, President, Lon Morris College, Jacksonville, Texas;
Joseph McMillan, Jr., President, Huston-Tillotson College, Austin, Texas;
Kenneth Pye, President, Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas;
Roy B. Schilling, Jr., President, Southwestern University, Georgetown, Texas.

Brady noted that Thomas K. Kim, President of McMurray College in Abilene, was unable to be present due to a prior commitment.

227 valid
114 needed to elect.

There were no elections. Leighton Farrell requested that his name be removed from future balloting.

Memorial Service

Vergie Holbrook, Elwood Poore, and Charles Stovall served as liturgists for the service. Hymns were "How Firm a Foundation" and "For All the Saints;" the scripture lesson was 2 Timothy 4:1-8. Ira Thompson delivered the sermon. Thompson described those whose lives and faith were being remembered as special stewards of God's grace, trustees of the glorious new life in Christ. They not only shared and proclaimed the gospel, but in a very real way they became the gospel, the visible, living presence of God dwelling with humanity. With their deaths, the lamp is gone; but the light remains and continues to shine through the lives of those they touched.

Michael Nichols read the names of those being remembered, and candidates for Elder's Orders carried a red rose in loving memory of each one:

Clergy: Gerald Lewis Clore
James E. Connatser, Jr.
Omer B. Rogers, Sr.

Spouses: Dorothy Elizabeth Adams (Fred)
Rosa L. Anderson (Roy)
Gaylord Bliss Culbertson (Donley)
Mary Lou Espie (Charles)
Willie Mae Farler (Samuel)
Madele Terry Hares (James)
Winnie F. Montgomery (Roy)
Edith Smith (Thomas J.)
Nellie Melinda Smith (Blantie)

Board of Church Extension

Ben Black, Chair, reported 1990-91 as a year of development and reorganization of the Board of Church Extension. New church start-ups in the past twelve months were listed: Cross Road Fellowship in Dallas, Vista Ridge Fellowship in Flower Mound, Aldersgate Fellowship in Carrollton, Lakeway Fellowship in Pottsboro. Black also reported that St. Andrew United Methodist Church in Plano is moving into the first phase of their new facility, and New Horizon Fellowship in DeSoto is moving a building onto their property. A support group has been begun for pastors involved in new-church start-up.

Black moved adoption of the budget for the Office of Church Extension, printed in the pre-conference packet, as a component of the Report of the Council on Finance and Administration. It was approved.

Ministerial Education Fund

Bishop Blake recognized Deborah Hules-Bowles who spoke in support of the Ministerial Education Fund and on behalf of Perkins and St. Paul Schools of Theology and who thanked members of the conference for the funds received by the two schools.

Clergy Ballot #15

Report of the fifteenth clergy ballot: 214 cast
0 invalid
108 needed to elect.

Hal Brady was elected with 120 votes.

Council on Ministries #2

Zan Holmes, Jr., Chair, moved approval of the resolution from the Commission on Communications and Resources concerning Vision Interfaith Satellite Network (VISN). It was approved. LA12

Holmes moved approval of the legislative proposal from the Commission on Religion and Race to be sent as a petition to General Conference affirming the continuation of the General Commission on Religion and Race. It was approved. LA13

Holmes also presented for approval the calendar of Special Days for 1992 as printed in the pre-conference packet. John Soper noted that previously adopted legislation would add the week of March 22-28 as Central America Week (without offering). It was approved. LA14

Holmes expressed appreciation to Don Barnes, Director of the Conference Council on Ministries, to Tom Christian, Sharon Adair, Roger Woods, and Bill Matthews as Associate Directors, and to the support staff.

Bishop Blake listens to a statement from the floor while Mike Nichols marks a change in a proposal.

Bill Upchurch prepares conference correspondence as Ben Shinn checks clergy registration.

Espie del Rosario moved to reconsider the listing of Advance Specials for 1991-92. Motion carried. Del Rosario further moved the addition of Philippine Daranday Development as an addition to the category of General Advance Special with Conference Support. Ken McIntosh noted that such approval would necessarily be contingent upon the project's approval by the General Advance Committee. Don Barnes moved a substitute amendment to table del Rosario's amendment with the understanding that the Council on Ministries has the authority to act on behalf of the annual conference to expand such listings. The substitute amendment carried.

Vote was taken on the list of Conference Advance Specials as printed in the pre-conference packet; it was adopted.

John Thornburg up-dated information concerning Fleta Williams who was hospitalized as the result of an automobile injury while in route to the annual conference session on Sunday. Thornburg also announced that services for Narbon Williams who was killed in the same accident were set for Friday at 10:00 a.m.

Ed Blythe offered the closing prayer.

Service of Ordination and Consecration

The Service of Ordination and Consecration was held in the sanctuary of First United Methodist Church, Wichita Falls, at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday evening, June 4. Music for gathering was offered by the Wichita Falls District Handbell Choir; the evening's choir was the Chancel Choir of the host church. Ray Davidson served as choir director; John Tarver, as organist.

Hymns for the service were "The Church's One Foundation," "Whom Shall I Send," "O Church of God, United," "O Spirit of the Living God," and "Forward Through the Ages." The anthem was "Who Shall Separate Us from the Love of Christ" by Gilbert Martin; the offertory, "At the Cross," arranged by Ray Davidson. The evening's offering was designated for the work of the United Methodist Committee on Relief in response to the emergency in Liberia.

Scripture readings for the service were Jeremiah 17:5-8 and 2 Thessalonians 2:13-17. Bishop Bruce P. Blake brought the evening's sermon, "Dig Your Well in the Winter Time." Noting that winter time in the ministry is oftentimes longer than summer time, the Bishop encouraged candidates for consecration and ordination to dig deep wells in the winter time when the water table is low so that they might be nourished and renewed in all seasons of life and ministry. Deep, sustaining wells include prayer (thanksgiving and confession), family, and vision.

Persons ordained as Deacons:

MORNING BUSINESS SESSION

Using "An Order for Morning Praise and Prayer" from THE UNITED METHODIST HYMNAL, Patti Evans served as worship leader for morning devotions and introduced the hymn "Morning Has Broken." The meditation was offered by Jim Dorff with 2 Corinthians 4 as the scriptural text. Recognizing that members were now nearing the end of the annual conference session, Dorff urged an understanding of "beginning again" to be sent into the world to proclaim Christ. Dorff reminded conference members that not only was this the last day of the annual conference session, it was also the third day, and he shared his hope that members might be empowered by the Holy Spirit who pushes us onward. Following the use of Psalm 100 as a song of praise, Sally Chapin led the prayers of the people and offered the benediction.

Clergy Ballot #16

Bishop Blake called the session to order and announced the result of the sixteenth clergy ballot: 212 cast
12 invalid
200 valid
101 needed to elect.
Ken McIntosh (149) and John Ogden (146) were elected.

Bishop Blake reminded members of the conference that the clergy side of the new Conference Nominating Committee had been exempted from the vote on the full report of the current Nominating Committee since there were seven nominations for four positions. The Bishop reminded the conference that all members, both lay and clergy, were eligible to vote in this election. Bishop Blake read the nominations from the floor--Fred Durham, Don Barnes, Jim Brown--and the nominations from the Nominating Committee--Ray Hennigh, Jim Dorff, Roger Woods, Barbara Marcum. Vote was taken by secret ballot.

Board of Trustees

Jean Wood, Chair, reported that funds which had been held in the St. Matthew's Church account have now been released for use of the New Horizon Fellowship in DeSoto in purchasing and moving a building to the church property. Wood reminded the conference that Board members are available for local church training of boards of trustees and urged all churches to be sure that copies of deeds and articles of incorporation are on file in the conference office.

Wood moved individual approval of the legislative items from the Board of Trustees as printed in the pre-conference packets: LA15

(1) Abandonment of Gober United Methodist Church; approved.

(2) Merger of Pottsboro United Methodist Church with Price United Methodist Church; approved.

Wood also moved approval of the legislative proposal to discontinue the Wilmer United Methodist Church; it was approved. Wood moved adoption of the entire report of the Board of Trustees; it was adopted.

Robert Cooper requested that the Agenda Committee for the 1992 Session of the North Texas Annual Conference make a site visit to any proposed location in order to assess the adequacy of the sound system so that all of the proceedings can be clearly heard whatever the seating arrangement for the conference. Bishop Blake responded that the site has been determined--the Plano Convention Center--and that Cooper's concern will be addressed.

Committee on Episcopacy

Leighton Farrell, Chair, outlined for the conference the list of responsibilities given to the Committee on Episcopacy by THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE. Farrell further stated that in accordance with Paragraph 735.3.g, the Committee will report through the duly elected delegates to Jurisdictional Conference the needs and desires for episcopal leadership in the North Texas Conference.

Farrell reported on the regular monthly meetings of the Committee with Bishop Blake and on the frank and open discussions at those meetings regarding matters of concern to the United Methodists of the North Texas Conference. Farrell commended Bishop Blake's initiative and vision as episcopal leader and reported that a committee has been appointed to study the need for an episcopal residence.

Farrell moved adoption of the report. There being no questions, it was approved.

Lay Ballot #15

Report of the fifteenth lay ballot: 283 cast
18 invalid
265 valid
133 needed to elect.
Claire Cunningham (195) and Paul Gonzalez (150) were elected.

Bishop Blake reminded the conference that in addition to the clergy members of the Conference Nominating Committee, the members of the Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns were also exempted to allow for time to verify that the persons nominated were in compliance with the composition of the Committee as outlined in the Standing Rules. As the nominated committee did meet those membership requirement, vote was taken, and all were elected.

The third section exempted from the Nominating Committee Report was the Division of Single Adults. The Nominating Committee in consultation with the Chair of the Single Adult Ministry Task Force then nominated the following committee as representative of all single-adult age groups in the conference:

Chair -- Eric Folkerth
DD -- Jerry Hutchens
DN -- J. Mac McPherson
DC -- Harry Wright, Jr.
DS -- Gary Roll
PS -- Chuck Marsters
SM -- Marsha Engle
WF -- Becky Opfer.

All were elected.

Task Force on Alcohol and Drug Abuse

De Forrest Wiksten, Chair, called attention of the conference to the pamphlet which had been distributed, "Pan-Methodist Coalition--Working Together to Break the Cycle," as an invitation to become participants in creating a curriculum to be used in local churches.

Wiksten then referred to the information sheet which had also been distributed and encouraged members of the conference to read the article reprinted from THE CHRISTIAN CENTURY, to promote and to participate in the alcohol and drug education program being offered in Dallas by the Texas Conference of Churches during the summer of 1991, and to utilize the list of suggested actions and resource material which have been developed for responding to this crisis.

Raymond Williams spoke to encourage the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry to consider developing a relationship with Paul Quinn College in Dallas, a CME-related college and therefore part of the Pan-Methodist Coalition.

Conference members receive program ideas from the Ministries Mart and purchase books at the Cokesbury display.

Charles Harper moved approval of a legislative proposal to establish a Commission on Alcohol and Drugs in the General Board of Church and Society. Jim Ozier moved to have the term "Other Drugs" included in the title; Harper accepted the motion. Don Barnes offered a clarifying amendment to add "and its budget" to that portion of the proposal relating to the establishment of the Commission within the General Board; Harper accepted the amendment.

Vote was taken on the amended motion:

> "That the North Texas Annual Conference, meeting in regular session in June, 1991, in Wichita Falls, Texas, present a petition to the 1992 General Conference to create a COMMISSION ON ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUG ABUSE as part of the General Board of Church and Society and its budget. The petition should further ask that the Commission be funded by an amount equal to three cents ($0.03) per member of the General Church per quadrennium (approximately $280,000 per quadrennium).

The motion carried with permission being granted for editorial changes as may be necessary if the term "Commission" is an inappropriate designation. LA16

Conference Statistician

Walter Zimmerman called attention to the distributed report of statistics for the 1990 reporting year and noted that in three of the four "person" categories, the North Texas Conference had shown increases: Church Membership, Morning Worship Attendance, Church School Attendance.

Task Force on Clergy Housing

Walter Zimmerman, Chair, referred members of the conference to the summary report of the task force which was included in the pre-conference packet. Of that report, only one item required conference action: the proposal to establish a Conference Commission/Committee on Clergy Housing. Zimmerman recommended its approval.

Joe Florence questioned where the recommended committee would be located within the structure of the annual conference. Charles Stovall offered a statement of advice to the Nominating Committee that if the motion were adopted intentional consideration would need to be given to ethnic representation on the commission/committee. Don Barnes moved to amend the motion to place the commission/committee within the Board of Ordained Ministry; Zimmerman accepted the amendment.

Vote was taken on the amended motion:

> "That a Conference Commission/Committee on Clergy Housing be established as part of the Board of Ordained Ministry to deal with and establish standards and to assist the District Superintendents in implementing the same, membership to be determined by the Conference Nominating Committee."

The motion carried.

Bishop Blake reported the result of the secret ballot taken to determine the clergy membership of the Conference Nominating Committee. Those elected were Barbara Marcum, Don Barnes, Jim Dorff, and Roger Woods.

Clergy Ballot #17

Report of the seventeenth clergy ballot: 191 cast
5 invalid
186 valid
94 needed to elect.

Fred Kandeler was elected with 105 votes.

Lay Ballot #16

Report of the sixteenth lay ballot: 285 cast
2 invalid
283 valid
94 needed to elect.

Rufus McKnight (178) and Alys Richards (171) were elected.

Commission on Insurance

Beverly Brooks, Chair, reported that health care is a crisis not only in the North Texas Conference but also across the entire country. It is the mission and challenge of the Commission on Insurance to provide adequate funding for the Conference Insurance Program according to the plan design for the claims of each person covered. Brooks reported that cost containment and cost management features were implemented at the Special Called Session of the North Texas Conference in December, 1989.

Brooks reported the decision of the Commission on Insurance not to request a rate increase at this time. After further consultation and with a nine-month record of actual expenses in 1991, the Commission will announce in October, 1991, the necessary funding premium levels for 1992.

Brooks moved approval of the legislative proposal of change in the plan design of the Conference Insurance Program. Jerry Ott moved to amend by striking the requirement that clergy dependents be required to meet all pre-existing requirements as outlined in the Plan if loss of other coverage necessitates their coming into the conference program. Karan Marshall asked whether the references in the proposal to clergy also applied to diaconal ministers. Stan Seat responded that diaconals are considered as clergy unless they have earlier chosen to exit the plan. Vote was taken on the amendment; the amendment carried by a margin of 294 to 196.

Clergy Ballot #18

Report of the eighteenth clergy ballot: 212 cast
5 invalid
207 valid
104 needed to elect.

Ann Cardwell was elected with 108 votes.

Lay Ballot #17

Report of the seventh lay ballot: 282 cast
0 invalid
142 needed to elect.

Margaret Tarr was elected with 142 votes. The voting for lay delegates was concluded with this ballot.

Bishop Blake called for the vote on the amended proposal to change the Plan Design of the Conference Insurance Program:

> "That the open enrollment benefit of the Conference Insurance Plan be eliminated, except for clergy dependents who lose their coverage due to appointment changes. In the past, the annual open enrollment period has been in January."

The motion carried. LA17

Beverly Brooks moved the adoption of the second legislative proposal from the Commission on Insurance to change the deductibles of the Conference Insurance Plan, effective January 1, 1992. Don Smith moved an amendment to delete from Paragraph 3 of the proposal the words "being supplemented by equitable salary" and to insert the words "at the equitable salary level." The amendment carried, and Brooks noted that its adoption would necessitate the same change in wording of Paragraph 4. Vote was taken; the proposal was adopted.

Brooks moved adoption of the entire report of the Commission on Insurance. Joe Twellman moved to amend the report to require "that the Commission on Insurance be instructed to establish 1992 insurance premium rates by September 1, 1991." The amendment carried. Vote was taken on the entire report as amended; it was approved.

Clergy Ballot #19

Report of the nineteenth clergy ballot: 219 cast
2 invalid
217 valid
109 needed to elect.

David Shawver was elected with 109 votes, and the voting for clergy delegates was concluded.

Following a break for members of the conference to experience the Ministries Mart, the entire delegation for General and Jurisdictional Conferences was invited to stand before the conference as Bishop Blake offered a prayer for them in this new responsibility.

Report of the Cabinet

Gary Regan set the tone for the Report of the Cabinet by describing it as "not a report but a song and sermon." Regan thanked God for those who seek ministry within the context of a calling, whether clergy or congregation. Regan noted the manner in which Bishop Blake continually calls the Cabinet to be obedient to the faith.

Using the hymn "We Are the Church," Regan reminded the conference that we are called to see the church not as brick and mortar but as people. Regan recalled problems of agism, sexism, and racism and expressed gratitude to persons and churches whose profile is based on faithfulness rather than such "isms."

Regan reported that a self-understanding of the members of the Cabinet is as superintendents of the entire annual conference is prior to their assignment to particular districts. Their self-understanding of being called by God is primary to all they do as a Cabinet seeking to be faithful to that call.

Regan challenged members of the annual conference with the question "What if we and our churches modeled Luke 4 and Matthew 25 in ministry next year?"

Health and Welfare Luncheon

Jim Ozier, Chairperson of the Division of Health and Welfare, introduced representatives of four institutions: Methodist Home, Waco; Retirement Homes of North Texas; Golden Cross; Methodist Mission Home, San Antonio.

Tom Strother of the Methodist Home, Waco, thanked the conference for the significant increase in the Christmas Offering for the Home. He reported the high school graduation of 23 residents of the Home this year and introduced one of last year's graduates who is now on scholarship to the University of North Texas. She shared with the conference the many ways in which the Methodist Home had enriched her life.

Julian Thomas of the Retirement Homes of North Texas introduced Joan Womack, Administrator of Wesley Village, Denison, who reported that the Village is now meeting all of its financial obligations with the exception of taxes but is beginning to develop a surplus which should be sufficient to pay the taxes in January. N. C. Thomas, Assistant Administrator and Chaplain of C. C. Young Memorial Home and Blanton Gardens in Dallas, spoke of the strong sense of community on the campus, the variety of programs and levels of care, and the opening of a new unit.

Sybil Taylor, Golden Cross Chairperson, reported on the continuing significance of the 69-year-old ministry to persons in need of medical care but who do not have the financial resources to obtain the care. Taylor showed a video summary of the ministry of Golden Cross and noted that the video as well as speakers from the committee are available for local churches.

Larry Watson of the Methodist Mission Home in San Antonio reported that more persons are being served by the Mission Home now than at any other time in its history. The newest ministry provided by the Mission Home is to survivors of severe head injuries. Watson introduced the Signs of the Times Choir from the Mission Home's Southwest Center for the Hearing Impaired, and the choir signed two songs for the conference.

Jim Ozier issued a challenge to members of the conference to meet the long-standing annual goal of $1 per member for each of the four institutions.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON BUSINESS SESSION

Douglas Miller moved "that the Commission on Insurance be given the charge and authority to reconstruct the PPO Program of the Conference Insurance Plan in a way that insures equity and access throughout the Annual Conference." Beverly Brooks, Chair of the Commission on Insurance, responded that the Commission recognizes that there is an inequity but is under contract with the North Texas Healthcare Network and was turned down by many providers in the outlying areas when contacts were made regarding those healthcare providers coming into the plan. Vote was taken; the motion carried.

Commission on Equitable Salaries

Dennis Wilkinson, Chair, brought the Commission's report on Minimum and Equitable Salary Guidelines. Wilkinson noted that the Commission will pay a maximum of 25 percent of the established base for active members of the North Texas Conference. Wilkinson thanked the Cabinet and local churches for their diligence in establishing linkages which strengthen ministry while reducing the need equitable salary. Wilkinson also referred the attention of the conference to the summary report of the Commission's rationale as it appeared in the pre-conference packet and noted the deletion of Paragraph 2. Wilkinson moved approval of the report.

John Peel moved to amend the report, Section II.D, to delete "shall" and insert "may." Wilkinson accepted the amendment as no objections were voiced by any members of the Commission.
Thomas McGee moved to amend Section II.E.5 by deleting the entire paragraph and Section II.E.4 by adding "other than internship" to the first line of the printed proposal and "non-internship" to the second. The amendment carried.

C. Michael Haynes moved to amend Section II.E by deleting the entire introductory paragraph with the exception of the last sentence into which would be inserted "may" and by deleting Paragraph 1. The amendment carried so that the amended Section II.E reads as follows:

> "Students serving student appointments may receive the annual $20 one-way mileage allowance subject to the following criteria:
> 1. Student shall be licensed or ordained and under appointment.
> 2. Student shall be enrolled in an accredited college or seminary.
> 3. When taking less than nine hours other than internship, $20 mileage rate will be reduced proportionate to number of non-internship hours taken (6 hours--$14, 3 hours--$7).
> 4. When the student is receiving above equitable salary minimum, the travel will be reduced by the overage."

Claire Cunningham requested figures on the number of persons currently receiving equitable salary assistance. Wilkinson reported that there were 18 such situations (7 person in full connection, 4 full-time local pastors, 7 student local pastors) for a total supplement of approximately $63,000.

Wilkinson noted for members of the conference that the amendments approved to the report of the Commission would have a financial impact of raising increasing the Commission's budget by $6,000.

Vote was taken on the amended report; it was adopted.

Board of Pensions

John Rentfro, Chair, reported the busy year of the Board of Pensions in doing the work it was commissioned to do on behalf of both active and retired members of the North Texas Conference. Rentfro expressed appreciation for the Perkins Fund which has continued to help those retires who have expressed need and which provided a $500 Christmas gift distribution to all retirees and surviving spouses of the conference.

Rentfro moved "that the pre-1982 Service Year Rate for 1992 be $311 for both Full Members and Local Pastors." The motion carried. LA18

Rentfro also moved the request of the Board of Pensions for "a 5.5 percent increase for the Comprehensive Protection Plan for 1992 which requires an apportionment of $348,853." It was approved.

Rentfro further moved "that an amount equal to 100 percent of the pension including gifts and grants from the Perkins Fund received by a retired minister, or 100 percent of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister during the year of 1991, be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance." It was approved.

Other Business of the Conference

Richard Stanford moved the legislative proposal on "Reaching the Unchurched Through Sunday School Growth and Development." It was adopted. LA19

Walter Stephen moved adoption of a resolution stating that:

> "Convinced that the United Methodist Church has at several levels clearly indicated a desire to minister to God's > love and grace to all people who seek the Savior, we respectfully request the General Conference to maintain the current language of Para. 71.F5 in its specific reference to homosexuality."

Ron Koo spoke against the resolution, citing the divisive nature of this issue and encouraging waiting upon the final report of the General Conference committee that has been charged to study and report on this issue.

David Ricker, Fred Durham, and John Besse spoke in support of the resolution; Jack Soper, Mark Thurman, and William McElvaney, in opposition. Vote was taken, and the motion carried by a margin of 243 to 159

Eric Folkerth moved the adoption of a legislative proposal petitioning the 1992 General Conference to make a one-word change in Par. 71 of the Social Principles:

> "We affirm the integrity of single persons, and we reject all social practices that discriminate or social attitudes that are prejudicial against persons because they are single."

In the current Social Principles, the last word of Par. 71 is "unmarried" rather than "single." The motion was approved. LA20

James Palmer reported and expressed gratitude for the $2,683.95 offering Tuesday evening given for the work of UMCOR in responding to the crisis in Liberia.

Charles Cox moved to reconsider the Report of the Bishop's Task Force on Clergy Housing. Vote was taken; the motion for reconsideration carried. Cox moved:

> "That the Conference Commission/Committee on Clergy Housing be established as an independent commission/committee under the Division of Professional Ministries and accountable to the Annual Conference but not under the Board of Ordained Ministry."

The motion carried.

Bruce Weaver moved that "the matter of the location for holding the 1992 Session of the Annual Conference be referred to the Planning Committee for that annual conference session." It was approved. Bishop Blake reported that the Planning Committee has already begun making plans to hold the annual conference at the Plano Convention Center, hosted by the United Methodist churches of Plano. Citing the bishop's authority to establish the dates for annual conference sessions, Bishop Blake noted that although General Conference meets late in 1992, the North Texas Annual Conference Session will remain on the first Sunday in June (June 7-10, 1992).

Bob Robertson reported the decision of the Conference Council on Ministries to hold a fall university which would permit all agencies of the annual conference to come together at a time in the fall for leadership training. The date of September 11-12, 1992, has been established for the Conference Academy for Faith Education (CAFE) to be held at a college campus site to be determined (probably the University of North Texas or Collin County Community College).

Philip and Espie del Rosario who went to the Philippines in 1985 as persons-in-mission and were supported by the North Texas Conference in a variety of ways and by various local churches, offered summaries of their work and words of appreciation to the conference.

Courtesy and Resolutions

Pat Deal, on behalf of the Committee on Courtesy and Resolutions, moved that:

WHEREAS this body of United Methodists has gathered together in the spirit of openness to new experiences in the conference setting, (1) braving the elements to attend an opening session in which we dressed casually and shared food, fellowship, music, and a layperson's perspective on discipleship, (2) attending an evening business session and worshipping throughout the day, (3) visiting a Ministries Mart to learn of current programs and events in the conference in lieu of oral reports on the conference floor;

WHEREAS through the combination of tradition and innovation, we have celebrated the theme "Every United Methodist an Evangelist" and Bishop Blake has called us to be challenged to a spirit of commitment in our faith through word and deed;

WHEREAS this conference, under the guidance of Bishop Blake continues, to move toward recognition of the responsibility of significant lay participation and leadership in the church as evidenced by Dave Dolson's address at the opening celebration and by the Conference Lay Leader Richard Stanford's participation in the Service of Ordination and Consecration, reminding each of us that indeed "we ARE the Church together;"

WHEREAS the overriding business of the conference has resulted in the democratic process of choosing persons who will provide representation for each United Methodist, with the intent of becoming the voice and the body in the connectional system for all to experience the results of that representation;

WHEREAS our hearts were touched by stories of lives affected by United Methodist ministries which we support: (1) a beautiful young college student whose life was turned around by the opportunity provided her through the Methodist Home, (2) stories of ministries by Golden Cross to the "suffering and afflicted," of comfortable housing provided by Wesley Village for retired persons, and (4) the faces of the students in the choir from the Southwest Center for the Hearing Impaired as they signed a message of praise, joy, and faith;

WHEREAS we have reflected on the past with retiring clergy and diaconals and looked forward with hope and high expectations of the future with the new ordinands;

WHEREAS members of the annual conference have been intentional in its expression of care and concern for its clergypersons as evidenced in the intense debate on conference insurance, clergy housing, salaries and pensions;

WHEREAS this meeting of the North Texas Conference has been organized, prepared, arranged, and presented in an exemplary fashion due to the efforts of a support system made up of the following: Bishop Blake, the Cabinet, the Agenda Committee, the Wichita Falls District office, the District Rally Committee, the members of First United Methodist Church, University United Methodist Church, Floral Heights United Methodist Church, and Beverly Drive United Methodist Church, the appropriate musical, clerical, and custodial staff, Conference Secretary Mike Nichols and the tellers, and a special thank you to Don Barnes who has worked so hard to assure that this and many other conferences functioned smoothly and now leaves the Council on Ministries office for a new position (Don will be missed in that role.);

WHEREAS this 1991 meeting of the North Texas Conference has continued, under the leadership of Bishop Blake, to conduct its business with energy and intense attention to the business of the annual conference and with care and concern for each member's priority;

WHEREAS Karen Blake continues to provide solid support for the Bishop and a gracious presence in the conference in her role as wife of our bishop;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that members of the North Texas Conference join together in giving thanks for the Spirit of God which has led us through this conference toward a better understanding of who we are as Christians, as United Methodists, and as evangelists.

The motion was adopted by the conference.

Don Renshaw offered a statement of appreciation on behalf of the conference to Don Barnes for the work he has done and the leadership he has given as he now prepares to leave the office of Director of the Conference Council on Ministries.

Jan Wiksten offered an additional statement of appreciation "that whereas Pat Deal has so beautifully summarized our conference, whereas the Wichita Falls District has so beautifully celebrated our annual conference, we from out of Wichita Falls thank you."

Council on Finance and Administration #2

David Shawver, Chair, noted changes to the Report of the Council on Finance and Administration which had been necessitated by actions of the conference:

Section C.2
Church Extension Board increased from $200,656 to $206,230;
Church Extension Staff increased from $80,685 to $81,495;
Missional Assistance Fund total from $433,077 to $439,461;

Section C.8
Conference Claimants Operating Expense from $52,012 to $51,812;
Conference Claimants Fund total from $1,550,865 to $1,550,665;

Section C.10
Equitable Salary Pastors' Salary Supplement from $70,000 to $76,000;
Equitable Salary Fund total from $245,000 to $251,000.

Shawver moved adoption of the revised Report of the Council on Finance and Administration. It was adopted. LA21

Service of Holy Communion and Sending Forth

Using the Service of Word and Table II from THE UNITED METHODIST HYMNAL, the 125th Session of the North Texas Annual Conference, 22nd since merger, closed with holy communion.

After the singing of "I Come with Joy," Bishop Blake offered the Prayer of Great Thanksgiving, and the elements of holy communion were shared by members of the conference as additional hymns were sung.

As the list of appointments was being distributed, George Topper reported for the Journal Committee that the minutes had been reviewed and were a faithful and accurate record of the daily proceedings. Bishop Blake reminded members of the conference that although compensation from new appointments begins June 16, the current appointment pays salary and benefits through June 15 even though moving day is June 12.

After the reading of the appointments, Bishop Blake invited a moment of silence as each person selected one other person in the room to lift up in prayer. Members of the conference joined to sing "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow," and Bishop Bruce Blake pronounced the benediction to adjourn the conference.

LA 2 - Tuesday Night Special Offering

SUBJECT: SPECIAL OFFERINGS TO BE RECEIVED AT ANNUAL CONFERENCE

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

PROPOSAL: That the special offering proposed by the Agenca Committee to be taken to defray expenses of the session of the Annual Conference be changed to become an offering for support of United Methodist Committee on Relief; and that aditional opportunities be made for United Methodists at Annual Conference to respond to the increasing demands being made on UMCOR world wide in relief efforts for disaster.

RATIONALE: At most recent count there were eleven major disasters working throughout the world in which UMCOR has been enlisted for assistance. While UMCOR has responded, there are not sufficient funds to meet the national and international disaster needs. Seven of these were listed in the May 10 Edition of the United Methodist Reporter; Flood Relief in Louisiana, Bangladesh Cyclone; Costa Rica/Panama Earthquake; Gulf Crisis; Soviet Georgia Earthquake; and Liberia Emergency. Since that list was compiled and the disasters detailed, there have been additions to the list.

Local churches have responded, but there is always a lack of money to meet the needs arising from natural disasters. By taking the special offering and keeping the causes before the members of the Annual Conference, the consciousness level of need can be raised for delegates to take back to their local churches. Among the most pressing is the Liberian need. The Board of Global Ministries of the North Texas Conference suggests this be our designated project.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: Amendment of the Agenda Committee Report to change the Tuesday special offering to UMCOR, designated for use in Liberia, in place of an offering to meet annual conference session expenses; that receptacles be made available for additional gifts during the conference.

LA 3 – STANDING RULE: Division of Single Adult Ministry

SUBJECT: ESTABLISHING A DIVISION OF SINGLE ADULT MINISTRIES AS PART OF THE BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

FROM: PARIS-SULPHUR SPRINGS DISTRICT COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

PROPOSAL: That the Annual Conference establish a Division of Single Adult Ministries as part of the Board of Discipleship. To do so, the following changes will need to be made in description of the Board of Discipleship in Standing Rule 3.

In paragraph 2 to change the number of members in the first line to read, "The board shall consist of no fewer than 77 members".

In paragraph 3 after the listing of "8. The Division of Adult Ministries" to insert "9. THE DIVISION OF SINGLES MINISTRIES" and then make the number changes necessary for the next two divisions.

RATIONALE: Singles in the North Texas Conference are persons who (a) attend churches with a ministry for single adults, or (b) attend churches in which there is no ministry for single adults, or (c) confessed Christians but do not attend church, or (d) the unchurched. The area of ministries to the unchurched has received more and greater emphasis in this Conference in the past year, and this proposal not only supports this increased emphasis but also expands the concept to encompass both disenfranchised Single Adults and those for whom no Single Adult ministries exist in their local churches.

The percentage of Single Adults in local congregations is increasing without development of programming tailored to their needs. Establishment of this Division will provide a center at the Conference level for development of new Single Adult ministries and support of existing Single Adult ministries. This Division would also serve as a clearing-house for ideas and concepts on establishing successful Single Adult ministries as well as being a source of referrals for assistance and scheduling of activities.

STANDING RULE: Division of Urban Ministries

SUBJECT: RECOMMENDATION TO AMEND STANDING RULE 3: BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

FROM: DIVISION OF URBAN MINISTRIES

PROPOSAL: In Standing Rule 3, Section on Board of Global Ministries, Division of Urban Communities, to substitute the following paragraph for the current two paragraphs:

The Division of Urban Ministries shall function in accordance with the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE to develop and strengthen North Texas Conference ministries in areas of over 50,000 population, and shall be responsible for: encouraging the development of cooperative parish ministries; developing a comprehensive missional strategy; initiating and/or assisting with programs of ministry with specialized constituencies and sectors of community life; developing general guidelines and alternatives for ministry for churches which find themselves in transitional situations; providing specific guidance and counsel for professional and lay leadership of congregations; developing strategies for ongoing and/or new ministries to persons living in urban communities; assisting districts in identifying and dealing with the declining membership; providing financial assistance to congregations in urban communities; developing and administering guidelines for the awarding of grants; developing and administering an annual budget; administering Urban Ministries Visionaries share funds; and referring local churches in urban communities to appropriate agencies if additional financial assistance is needed. The Division shall be responsible for recommending to the Board of Global Ministries and the Council on Ministries the allocation of Visionaries share funds designated for Urban Ministries.

RATIONALE: To incorporate changes that need to be made in line with the change of title of the division.

STANDING RULE: Election of Lay Leader-Elect

SUBJECT: RECOMMENDATION TO AMEND STANDING RULE 3: BOARD OF LAITY

FROM: BOARD OF LAITY

PROPOSAL: In Standing Rule 3, Section on the Board of Laity, to make the following changes:

1. In the second sentence of the second paragraph place a period after "conference lay leader" so the sentence reads.. "The chairperson of the board shall be the conference lay leader.... and delete the remainder of the sentence...who is nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference, with the opportunity for additional nominations from the floor."

2. Add the following as a new paragraph three:

"One year prior to the expiration of the term of the incumbent Annual Conference lay leader the Conference Nominating Committee shall nominate, and the Annual Conference shall elect, an Annual Conference lay leader elect with the opportunity for additional nominations from the floor. The lay leader elect shall serve as associate lay leader until the expiration of the term of the incumbent Annual Conference lay leader when the lay leader elect shall become the Annual Conference lay leader. The Annual Conference lay leader elect shall help with the duties of the Annual Conference lay leader as set forth by guidelines created by the Board of Laity. If at the expiration of the term of the Annual Conference lay leader, or upon the resignation of an Annual Conference lay leader, there is no incumbent lay leader elect then an Annual Conference lay leader shall be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference with the opportunity for additional nominations from the floor."

RATIONALE: The election of the conference lay leader will now be cared for as prescribed in a new paragraph three.

STANDING RULE: Finance and Administration

SUBJECT : Recommended Changes in Standing Rules

FROM: Finance and Administration Council

PROPOSAL : That the words underlined in the present reading of Standing Rules 16, 21, and 22 be deleted and that the words underlined in the proposed reading of these same Rules be added:

Rule 16 - Present : Interest earned on any funds, not including capital funds or budgeted funds received in prior years for current operations, managed by the Conference Treasurer shall be declared general funds of the North Texas Annual Conference and administered by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

Rule 16 - Proposed: Interest earned on any funds (excluding designated trusts) managed by the Conference Treasurer shall be declared general funds of the North Texas Annual Conference and administered by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

Rule 21 - Present : Section A. The Council on Finance and Administration shall nominate to the Annual Conference an auditing firm which shall audit the Conference Treasurer's books, and the books of all Annual Conference agencies which receive their support from the Council.

Rule 21 - Proposed: Section A. The Council on Finance and Administration shall nominate to the Annual Conference an auditing firm which shall audit the Conference Treasurer's books annually.

Rule 21 - Present : Section B. Each institution receiving financial support from the conference, either by direct apportionment or by special offerings, shall submit an annual auditor's report made by a certified accountant to the Council on Finance and Administration.

Rule 21 - Proposed: Section B. All agencies and institutions receiving financial support from the conference, either by direct apportionment or by special offerings, shall if requested submit an annual auditor's report acceptable to the Council on Finance and Administration by September 1 of each year for the previous fiscal year.

Rule 22 - Present : Annually the conference treasurer, with the assistance of the District Superintendents, shall compute the apportionment decimal for each church and by September 1 provide the amounts for each church's apportionments and askings for the following year.

RATIONALE: Because of changes in terminology and procedures which have gradually occurred in recent years, these deletions and additions are recommended to update the Rules in keeping with present circumstances.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: Approval by the Annual Conference

STANDING RULE: Church Development Grant Committee

SUBJECT: DISSOLUTION OF THE CHURCH DEVELOPMENT SHARE GRANT COMMITTEE

FROM: THE CHURCH DEVELOPMENT SHARE GRANT COMMITTEE

PROPOSAL: That the Annual Conference abolish the Church Development Share Grant Committee. To do so, Standing Rule 3 will need to be amended, deleting the entire section number 2 under the Board of Church Extension.

RATIONALE: The Conference year 1990-91 has served as a trial of the new structure. During this time, Church Development Visionary Shares have been administered by the Church Development Share Grant Committee. This Committee has taken requests from the three former divisions of the former Board of Church Development (Church Extension, Urban Ministries, and Town & Country Ministries) and processed them.

Such a procedure seems to remove the cases referred to the Grant Committee from any coordinated strategy that the three agencies charged with church extension, urban, or town and county ministry might develop. Without the ability to expend the resources according to some coordinated strategy, the Church Development Share Grant Committee believes that it is not in position to make the wisest decisions regarding these funds. It is the belief of the Committee that the agencies directly charged with the responsibility for accomplishing the work should be enabled to plan and coordinate their work and allocate all the available resources.

We recommend that Church Development Visionary Share funds be allocated to the three agencies on a pro rata basis according to the current number of shares each presently has:

Church Extension -- 52.41%
Town & Country Ministries -- 30.86%
Urban Ministries -- 16.83%

We also recommend that no new Church Development Visionary Shares be promoted, but that all new shares be designated for either Church Extension, Urban Ministries, or Town & Country Ministries. Church Development Visionary Shares already subscribed should be continued for as long as shareholders wish, and these should be divvied up according to the pro rata formula.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: Adoption by the North Texas Annual Conference.

STANDING RULE: New Nominating Committee

SUBJECT: COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS

FROM: NOMINATIONS COMMITTEE

PROPOSAL: To substitute the following for the first three paragraphs in Standing Rule Three:

The membership of the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations shall be composed of nine persons: four lay persons and four ordained persons, plus the Conference Lay Leader (according to the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE. The Director of the Conference Council on Ministries shall serve as consultant (according to the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE). The elected persons shall be elected by the respective lay and ordained members of the annual conference by the same procedure as General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates are elected, without nomination and by secret ballot. One lay person and one clergy shall be elected each year for a four year term. A person may serve for only one four year term and shall be eligible to be elected again after being off the committee for two years. The elected members shall not be eligible to serve on any other conference agency while serving on the Committee on Nominations. Prior to the first ballot, it is recommended that the Bishop lift up the need for inclusiveness in the election of the members of the Committee on Nominations.

The committee shall annually elect its chair and secretary at the site of the annual conference following the election of new members.

ENABLING ACTION: The original Committee on Nominations shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee for 1991-92. Other nominations may be made from the floor.

Persons elected in 1991 to serve in the conference year of 1991-92 shall be exempt from the limitation of not serving on any other annual conference agency for this one year.

In 1992 all eight members will be elected; the first lay and clergy elected will serve for a four year term, the second elected shall serve for a three year term, the third elected shall serve for a two year term, and the fourth elected shall serve for a one year term. The three, two, and one year terms shall count as a full term.

The Committee on Nominations is responsible for:
1) developing and implementing a plan of identification of persons who are willing, qualified and able to serve as members of the agencies of the annual conference; 2) developing and implementing a plan to train and support persons who are elected to serve as members of the agencies of the conference; 3). nominating members and chairpersons of agencies of the conference to the session of the Annual Conference for election except where otherwise provided in the BOOK OF DISCIPLINE.

Persons shall be nominated to serve for a four-year-term on a conference agency (council, board, commission, committee). No person shall be nominated for a position without previously agreeing to serve if elected. Persons who are absent without cause for half or more of an agency's meetings during the conference year will thereby automatically remove themselves from the membership of the agency and shall be replaced by the Committee on Nominations. The Committee on Nominations is authorized to provide for filling such vacancies between sessions of the Annual Conference, unless otherwise provided for in the DISCIPLINE.

The North Texas Annual Conference shall make it a policy to rotate membership on conference agencies, limiting any person to eight successive years on any one agency. However, a person may be re-elected to that conference agency after non-membership for four (4) years. The number of years of each person's term shall be listed after that person's name in the annual conference journal where the membership of the agencies are listed. Membership, except ex-officio, shall be held on no more than one conference agency in any membership category at the same time. These rules shall not be construed to apply to trustees of institutions.

RATIONALE: To bring into being a Conference Committee on Nominations that will be free of all other conference agency responsibilities, develop and implement a plan to identify willing, qualified and able persons to serve on conference agencies, and develop and implement a training and support plan for persons nominated to serve on conference agencies.

Also, to limit persons to serve on only one conference agency in order that more persons have an opportunity to serve as well as focus each persons time, skills and energies for faithful effectiveness.

LA 4 - Job Descriptions for Diaconal Ministers

SUBJECT: EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES FOR DIACONAL MINISTERS

FROM: THE BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY, NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE

PROPOSAL: That the Cabinet and the Board of Diaconal Ministry of the North Texas Conference require all Staff-Parish Committees of churches and governing boards of agencies currently employing Diaconal Ministers to submit to the Conference Board of Diaconal Ministry and the appropriate District Superintendents a copy of the job descriptions, contracts (which clearly state employment practices, including procedures for dismissal, vacation and leave), evaluation and termination procedures for Diaconal Ministers as required in paragraph 315.4 of the 1988 Book of Discipline by annual conference of 1992.

That churches and agencies employing Diaconal Ministers for the first time be required to file copies of their employment practices within 90 days of employment for Diaconal Ministers to receive a service appointment to that church or agency.

RATIONALE: While many churches and most agencies have employment policies, many churches employing Diaconal Ministers do not have written employment policies. While it is in the best interest of the church or agency and Diaconal Minister to have these documents in place before he or she accepts a position, it is difficult for the Diaconal Minister to insist that this work be done before he or she is employed. The Board of Diaconal Ministry and the Cabinet would require that these policies be in place as stated in the Book of Discipline in order for a Service Appointment to be made. With these policies on file, the Board and the Cabinet members would be better equipped to mediate any disputes that might arise between the Diaconal Minister and the employing church or agency.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: Approval by the Annual Conference and action by the Conference Board of Diaconal Ministry and the Cabinet.

SUBJECT: ABORTION ALTERNATIVES

FROM: WHEATLAND UNITED METHODIST WOMEN
DALLAS SOUTH DISTRICT

PROPOSAL: That the Conference ask the cabinet to appoint a task force to study the need for abortion alternatives and report the status of specific United Methodist programs engaged in providing alternatives to abortion or the feasibility of starting new ministries to provide and promote abortion alternatives. The task force to function without funding.

RATIONALE: Persons with crisis pregnancies who seek help from United Methodist laity, clergy, and programs for help may choose an abortion for birth control or gender selection reasons because of a lack of church-based information about alternatives, lack of emotional and spiritual support that encourages a life-saving choice, lack of shelter, and lack of adoption services. A ministry providing alternatives to abortion would be a valid expression of Christian compassion and in harmony with the official United Methodist position on abortion (Par. 71.G 1988 Book of Discipline) which gives reluctant approval to abortion only in "tragic conflicts of life with life" and emphasizing that abortion should never be used as a means of birth control or gender selection.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: (1) That a Task Force for Abortion Alternatives be appointed, comprised of 12 members, half of whom shall be individuals involved in programs of abortion prevention, to study the need for support ministries in this Conference for persons seeking an alternative to abortion. Programs to be studied should include adoption services, promotion of abortion alternatives within the church, as well as adequacy of pastoral awareness and training on encouraging abortion alternatives. (2) That the task force report its findings to the 1992 session of this Annual Conference.

LA 6 - Adoption Center Affirmation

SUBJECT: ADOPTION CENTER AFFIRMATION AND SUPPORT

DALLAS SOUTH DISTRICT

PROPOSAL: That the Methodist Mission Home of San Antonio be affirmed by the North Texas Annual Conference as an adoptive agency and that the Conference encourage increased support of this agency as it offers an alternative to abortion.

RATIONALE: As the church of Jesus Christ, we deplore violent solutions to social problems. Our 1988 Book of Discipline (Par. 71.G) states, "we cannot affirm abortion as an acceptable means of birth control, and we unconditionally reject it as a means of gender selection"; therefore, we must provide positive, Christian, and humane alternatives for women who find themselves dealing with an unwanted pregnancy because of the timing of the pregnancy, family size, lifestyle conflicts, etc., the same reasons people give for using birth control. By affirming adoption we advocate a solution to the social problem of unwanted pregnancy that is non-violent towards both mother and child.

LA 8 — State Tax Reform

SUBJECT: TEXAS STATE TAX REFORM

FROM: BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

PROPOSAL: That the lay and ministerial members of the North Texas Annual Conference

(1) support the work of Texas IMPACT and the United Methodist Bishops of Texas Legislative Advisory Committee to inform and encourage state tax reform;
(2) make known to their elected state legislators their opinions and concerns regarding just and equitable state tax reform;
(3) affirm the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church by opposing the introduction of a state lottery in Texas as a means of state fiscal policy.

RATIONALE: The State of Texas is at a fiscal crossroads; and the current revenue system, based primarily on sales tax, has now proven to be inadequate in meeting the needs of a growing and changing population.

Various plans of state funding have been proposed, and other plans will likely be proposed during the Special Session of the Texas State Legislature called to convene July 8, 1991.

Because: (a) the United Methodist Church has a long history of concern for social justice, as set forth in the Social Principles; and,

(b) those Principles speak directly to our common concern for the wholeness and fullness of life for children, youth, and aging adults (1988 BOOK OF DISCIPLINE, Paragraph 72.B.C.D,) groups significantly impacted by current funding proposals; and,

(c) those Principles further address our denominational stance in opposition to gambling as destructive to both good government and the best interests of the public (1988 BOOK OF DISCIPLINE, Paragraph 73.G,)

It is therefore, a responsible exercise of our Christian faith, our denominational heritage, and our stewardship of the state's resources to support the work of Texas IMPACT and the Bishops' Legislative Advisory Committee and to make our concerns known to those charged with the power to effect change.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: Adoption by the gathered annual conference and follow-through by its individual members.

Central America Ministry

SUBJECT: CENTRAL AMERICAN MINISTRY

FROM: BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

PROPOSAL: Be it resolved that the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church in session on June 2-5, 1991, in Wichita Falls, Texas:

1. Continue the work of the North Texas Conference Central American Ministry Task Group. This Task Group is to be appointed by the Conference Board of Church and Society and the Conference Board of Global Ministries. The Annual Conference instructs those two boards to seek task group representatives from every district in the North Texas Conference.

2. Continue to recognize Proyecto Adelante as a North Texas Conference Advance Special, with the approval of the Conference Board of Global Ministries.

3. Affirm the mission of Ms. Nancy Boye, a commissioned missionary of the General Board of Global Ministries assigned to El Salvador, and continue to develop financial support for her mission through local churches in the North Texas Conference, in cooperation with the Conference Board of Global Ministries.

4. Establish the week of March 22-28, 1992, as Central American Week in the North Texas Conference, noting that March 24, 1992, will be the twelfth anniversary of Archbishop Oscar Romero's assassination.

5. Charge the Task Group to continue the process of broadening concern for the people in all Central American countries, with particular concern for the erosion of justice in Guatemala and for the people of El Salvador.

RATIONALE: The Central American Ministries Task Group has fostered the development of Central American ministries in local church settings. The United Methodist Women are to be affirmed for emphasizing Central America in their annual mission study. It is evident that United Methodists have an increasing awareness of Central America and of the suffering faced by the majority of people living there. With the predictable shift from Central America to another global consideration by the United Methodist Women, it will be essential for the Central American Ministries Task Group to maintain the growing awareness in our Conference. The people of Central America are one in Christ as they bear crosses that are weighted with injustice and oppression. As the body of Christ we are called to accompany the people of Central America in the ministry of liberation to "set the oppressed free" (Luke 4:18).

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:

The Central American Ministry Task Group is authorized to:

1. Provide worship and educational resources for use during Central America Week, March 22-28, 1992.

2. Encourage and guide the continued development of covenant relationships between local churches of the North Texas Conference and local churches in Central America.

3. Communicate through regular conference mailings the needs of Central American people, opportunities for involvement in Central American ministry, and updated information on the work of Proyecto Adelante and Ms. Nancy Boye.

4. Continue to emphasize the importance of prayer and action by every United Methodist in the North Texas Conference relative to the people of Central America.

Peace with Justice in El Salvador

SUBJECT: PEACE WITH JUSTICE IN EL SALVADOR

FROM: BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

PROPOSAL: Be it resolved that the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church meeting in session on June 2-5, 1991, in Wichita Falls, Texas:

1. Deplores the continuation of human rights violations in El Salvador.

2. Calls for a halt to all U.S. war related aid to the Salvadoran armed forces. And by our action of withdrawing military support, we encourage other countries to halt all war-related aid to all parties in El Salvador.

3. Supports efforts in negotiated peacemaking and the current non-violent process of reconciliation supported by the United Nations.

4. Requests that Congress require that priority be given to the distribution of U.S. economic aid through church and humanitarian channels.

5. Supports the repatriation of Salvadoran refugees returning to places of their choice in their homeland, El Salvador.

RATIONALE: We deplore atrocities committed by all parties to the conflict in El Salvador. Although the United States Government has voted objections, the Salvadoran military continues to oppress and violate the integrity of people in El Salvador. After pouring over four and one-half billion dollars into the government of El Salvador over the past eleven years, 80,000 lives have been lost in this conflict and human rights abuses continue as commonplace. The non-governmental Human Rights Commission of El Salvador, an organization three times nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize, documented over 1,500 human rights violations by the military in 1990.

While the Church in El Salvador continues to be the object of persecution, it offers people the greatest potential for home. Archbishop Oscar Romero said, "The Church contributes only one value: a sure hope" (February 14, 1979). Therefore, the North Texas Conference joins with the Church in El Salvador to effect an end to war-related aid.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:

1. Instruct the Conference Secretary to inform the President of the United States, the United States Secretary of State, and all members of the North Texas Conference regional delegation of the United States House of Representatives and Senate of this resolution and its concern for the people of El Salvador; and to copy all correspondence to the Chairperson of the North Texas Conference Board of Church and Society.

2. Recommend that this resolution be considered as a petition for submission to the General Conference of The United Methodist Church.

3. Encourage all people who are related to the North Texas Conference to include the concern for peace with justice in El Salvador in both prayer and action.

Recycled Paper

SUBJECT: USE OF RECYCLED PAPER IN LOCAL CHURCHES AND NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE OFFICES

FROM: BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

PROPOSAL: Be it resolved that the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church in session on June 2-5, 1991, in Wichita Falls, Texas:

Encourage local conference churches and Annual Conference offices to use recycled paper products. This proposal is in accordance with the 1972 resolution SP 70.A "Use of Reclaimed Paper" from The Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church 1988. Recycled paper products include stationery, computer paper, other office paper, and other paper supplies.

RATIONALE: The United Methodist Church has historically encouraged the use of recycled paper. Churches and offices of the North Texas Conference may be leaders as witnesses in environmental stewardship by this practice. Although the price of some recycled paper products is currently higher than non-recycled paper, the use of the recycled paper may result in lower cost.

LA 9 - Age-Level & Family Ministries

SUBJECT: AGE-LEVEL AND FAMILY MINISTRIES

FROM: BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP
DIVISION OF OLDER ADULT MINISTRIES

PROPOSAL: At the recommendation of the National Advisory/Coordinating Committee on Older Adults of the United Methodist Church, we petition the 1992 General Conference of The United Methodist Church (Age-Level and Family Councils, Annual Conference Council on Ministries) as follows:

Par. 726

6. - Age-Level and Family Councils. -- MINISTRIES. -- The council AGE-LEVEL AND FAMILY MINISTRIES may establish COUNCILS FOR AND/OR COORDINATORS OF children'S, young adult, adult, older adult, single adults and family ministry councils MINISTRIES as it deems necessary for the performance of its duties. (See Par. 743 concerning the establishment of a Council on Youth Ministry).

* Note: Delete underlined words, add words that are all CAPITALS.

Thus, the amended paragraph would read:

6. -- Age Level and Family Ministries. -- The Age-Level and Family Ministries may establish councils for and/or coordinators of children's, young adult, older adult, single adults and family ministries as it deems necessary for the performance of its duties. (See Par. 743 concerning the establishment of a Council on Youth Ministry).

RATIONALE: This petition provides for the option of including Councils of Age-Level and Family Ministries, even though many annual conferences include these positions in their structure.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: Approval by the Annual Conference and forwarded to the General Secretary of the 1992 General Conference.

Volunteers in Missions

SUBJECT: CLERGY PARTICIPATION IN VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION EVENTS

FROM: BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES
DIVISION OF VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION

PROPOSAL: The Division of Volunteers in Mission proposes that all clergy be allowed to participate in a VIM sponsored event yearly which may be applied toward the fulfillment of one's continuing education requirement without affecting vacation time.

RATIONALE: In the recent years several clergy have been denied the opportunity to participate in the VIM events due to the perception of clergy and congregations that the time and experience "does not contribute to the local church." The Division of VIM believes that it is time to restate the inherent question, "What does this do for our congregation/conference?" TO "What can our congregation/conference do in ministry for the world around us?"

Further, education does not occur in academic settings but in the praxis of living out our faith and theology. A significant amount of spiritual understanding and growth can result from participation in VIM events. Thus, in actuality the clergy returns to the congregation/conference with new visions and faith directions which could significantly impact his or her leadership in the church.

This proposal is in no way attempting to add to the requirements made upon clergy but to allow those who desire mission experience to participate in sponsored events.

LA 11 - Campus Ministries Special Program

CAMPUS MINISTRY: MISSION AT THE CENTER

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

PROPOSAL: That the United Methodist Church recognizes the critical importance of the campus and of its mission in the arena where lives are changed and world and church leaders are formed.

RATIONALE:
WHEREAS, the Church of Jesus Christ seeks always to fulfill its mission of loving God with all of its heart, soul, mind, and strength, and its neighbor as itself, and

WHEREAS, since its founding in 1784, American Methodism has carried out a vital ministry in higher education both to train its own leaders and to shape the leadership of society, and

WHEREAS, the commitment continues today through the work of campus ministries at non United Methodist colleges, and through chaplaincies on the campuses of United Methodist related colleges, and

WHEREAS, in 1991 more than 13.2 million students and nearly 900,000 full and part time faculty will be on the campuses in the United States, and

WHEREAS, the campus has been the historic place at which both church and society have exercised leadership, educated future leaders, and provided access to leadership for racial ethnic persons, and

WHEREAS, those leaders will be asked to make far-reaching and often irreversible decisions affecting humankind: its churches and societies, its nations and regions, its earth and air, and

WHEREAS, the college years for traditional students are times of significant and moral formation, and for non traditional and older students often occur in the midst of critical personal and career change, and

WHEREAS, The United Methodist Church, for the sake of its mission and its own institutional vitality, seeks to strengthen its ties with young adults and with the faculty and staff who will help shape society's future, and

WHEREAS, the Church seeks to make known God's call to Christian vocation for the whole body of God's Church and for the recruitment of ordained and diaconal ministers, and

WHEREAS, through campus ministry, the Church places itself at the center where values are tested and new identities are formed, where inquiry is encouraged and research is carried out, where, in fact, the issues of the world exist in microcosm,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that The United Methodist Church recognizes the critical importance of the campus and of its mission in that arena where lives are changed and world and church leaders are formed, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the 1992 General Conference of The United Methodist Church adopt "Campus Ministry: Mission at the Center" as a Special Program for the 1993-1996 quadrennium, funded by established funds appropriated to the General Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, and that the Special Program be assigned to the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry for implementation.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:
Adopt this resolution from the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry, that the 1992 General Conference of the United Methodist Church adopt "Campus Ministry: Mission at the Center" as a special program for the 1993-1996 quadrennium, funded at $1,000,000, and that this special program be assigned to the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry for implementation.

LA 12 - Communications "VISN"

SUBJECT: VISION INTERFAITH SATELLITE NETWORK

FROM: COMMISSION ON COMMUNICATIONS AND RESOURCES

PROPOSAL: Be it resolved that the North Texas Conference of The United Methodist Church in session June 2-5, 1991 in Wichita Falls, Texas:

1. Endorses VISN cable network and urges our pastors and laypersons to take the initiative in their communities to work with other religious leaders in securing VISN for our communities.

2. Urges our pastors and laypersons to support the production and airing of local programs for VISN.

3. Urges our pastors and laypersons to actively support and invite people to view VISN once it is available in the community and to utilize it creatively as a resource of mission and witness within our own congregations and within the community.

RATIONALE: The United Methodist Church through its General Commission on Communication was a founder and continues in full participation in VISN. Since its founding in 1988, VISN has grown to provide a direct ministry and witness to viewers in nearly every state across the nation through 24 hours of daily programming. The United Methodist Church is one of 27 members representing 54 Protestant, Roman Catholic, Jewish and Eastern Orthodox faith groups in support of VISN. The VISN national cable network promotes positive religious and social values and illustrates that religion is a vital and integral part of American life, and includes more than 12 hours (24 half-hour and numerous public service spots) of United Methodist related programming, including the weekly "Catch the Spirit" magazine format shows. VISN allows no on-air fund raising, no attacks on other faith groups, and no proselytizing by one group to members of another faith group, and offers 14 hours of local pre-emption time per week for United Methodists and other local faith groups to present their own ministries and witness at a community level. VISN can inspire and motivate persons to become active again or in new ways in their own congregations as well as help to create a spirit of tolerance, acceptance, understanding, and trust among faith groups within the community. VISN is now supported by faith groups and the cable industry but must reach 15 million households to become self-supporting.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:

1. Instruct the Conference Secretary to send a copy of this resolution to the General Secretary of United Methodist Communications.

2. Recommend that pastors and laypersons send copies of this resolution to local cable television stations in their communities.

FROM: COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

PROPOSAL: Be it resolved that the North Texas Conference in session on June 2 - 5, 1991, in Wichita Falls, Texas:

1. Affirm the necessity for continuing the General Commission on Religion and Race in every Annual Conference.

2. Support a mandate that there be a Commission on Religion and Race in every Annual Conference.

3. Encourage each Annual Conference to urge its local churches to develop programs and activities which promote inclusiveness within the local congregation and the community.

RATIONALE: The 1968 Conference of the new United Methodist Church authorized the formation of the General Commission on Religion and Race. A nine-point plan was outlined for this Commission, the purpose of which was achieving racial inclusiveness at all levels of the Church. This goal has not yet been accomplished. Annual Conferences are, in fact, only now beginning to work with and through their Commissions on Religion and Race. Twenty-three years after the birth of this commission, inclusiveness remains a dream rather than a reality. Some local congregations are beginning to initiate programs that cross cultural and racial lines. The Religion and Race Commission is the agency with the best hopes of bringing the dreams of 1968 to fruition. Much is left to be done. Eliminating this commission, or restructuring it to diffuse its power will set the United Methodist Church twenty years behind in our efforts to achieve peace with justice. The work of the Commission on Religion and Race must continue.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: Approval by Annual Conference and sent as a petition to the General Conference of the United Methodist Church.

LA 15 - Abandonment of Gober UMC

SUBJECT: ABANDONMENT OF GOBER UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

PROPOSAL: The Congregation of Gober UMC, meeting in a properly constituted Church Conference according to the Discipline of

The United methodist Church, unanimously agreed to disband as an active congregation. Responsibility and title to the property shall be consigned to the Conference Board of Trustees.

RATIONALE: The Congregation of Gober UMC has grown small in numbers and resources to such a level that it can no longer maintain or sustain itself as a church.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: The Conference Board of Trustees recommends the abandonment of Gober UMC in the Paris-Sulphur Springs District, and that the property be received by the Conference Board of Trustees. The disposition of the property is to be determined at a later date.

Merger of Pottsboro and Price

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

PROPOSAL: The congregation of the Pottsboro UMC meeting in a properly constituted Church Conference according to the Discipline of The United Methodist Church, unanimously agrees to merge with the Price UMC. Responsibility and title to the Pottsboro property shall be consigned to the Conference Board of Trustees on June 2, 1991.

RATIONALE: The Congregation of Pottsboro UMC has diminished and can no longer support itself as a church.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: The North Texas Conference Board of Trustees recommends the merger of Pottsboro UMC with Price UMC in the Sherman-McKinney District, and that the property of the Pottsboro UMC be received by the Conference Board of Trustees to be sold or leased in a timely manner.

Discontinuance of Wilmer UMC

SUBJECT: DISCONTINUANCE OF THE WILMER UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

PROPOSAL: The Congregation of the Wilmer UMC meeting in a properly constituted Church Conference, unanimously agrees to discontinue as a church, according to the Discipline, Paragraph 2548.1, of The United Methodist Church.

RATIONALE: The Congregation of Wilmer UMC has diminished and can no longer support itself as a church.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: The North Texas Conference Board of Trustees recommends the discontinuance of Wilmer UMC, located in the Dallas South District. The property and assets of the church will be held by the Conference Board of Trustees until such time as a new church as been formed or disposition of the property has been decided upon.

LA 16 - Petition on Alcohol & Other Drugs

SUBJECT: COMMISSION ON ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUGS

FROM: Charles Harper, Member, General Board of Church & Society, and the North Texas Annual Conference.

PROPOSAL: THE NORTH TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE, meeting in regular session in June 1991 in Wichita Falls, Texas, presents a petition to the 1992 General Conference to create a COMMISSION ON ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUG ABUSE as a part of the General Board of Church and Society and its budget. The petition should further ask the Commission be funded by an amount equal to three ($0.03) per member of the General Church per quadrennium (approximately $280,000.00/quad.).

RATIONALE: The problems associated with beverage alcohol and drugs have become enormous in the past decade. Very little has been done by the General Church to help local congregations cope with these problems. The Council of Bishops has created its own initiative on Alcohol and Drugs and is working on the problems in a very special way. The local Churches need leadership through the General Church to help the Council of Bishops' initiative and to work in stride with those works now in progress. This Commission would not take the place of the Bishops' works but help to push them further in our own Conference and in our own local Churches. I do not believe that this effort can be effective in my local church without the help of the General Church. We must take every action required to stop alcohol and drug abuses in our world. This is a small first step. Having served for 8 years on the General Board of Church and Society, I have not seen a very strong push to help solve the alcohol and drug problem. We have placed too small a priority on that push. I believe that the General Church must get involved NOW!

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: Adoption of this proposal by the North Texas Anual Conference and forward it to the General Conference at the proper time.

LA 17 - Health Insurance Open Enrollment

SUBJECT: CHANGE IN PLAN DESIGN OF THE CONFERENCE INSURANCE PROGRAM

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE COMMISSION ON INSURANCE

PROPOSAL: The Commission on Insurance proposes that the open enrollment benefit of the Conference Insurance Plan be eliminated, except for clergy dependents who lose their coverage due to appointment changes. In the past, the annual open enrollment period has been in January.

RATIONALE: The Commission on Insurance has experienced significant claim loss due to open enrollment. It is the opinion of Commission on Insurance that the risk for such enrollment is too great.

Changes in Deductibles for Health Insurance

SUBJECT: CHANGE IN PLAN DESIGN OF THE CONFERENCE INSURANCE PROGRAM

PROPOSAL:

1. The Commission on Insurance Program proposes that the individual deductibles for active clergy/diaconals and lay employees be increased from $250 to $500.

2. The Commission on Insurance proposes that the family deductibles for active clergy/diaconals and lay employees be increased from $750 to $1,500.

3. The Commission on Insurance proposes that the individual deductibles for active clergy who are at the equitable salary level be increased from $100 to $200.

4. The Commission on Insurance proposes that the family deductibles for active clergy who are at the equitable salary level be increased from $300 to $600.

5. The Commission on Insurance proposes that the individual deductibles for retired clergy/diaconals/surviving spouses be increased from $100 to $200.

RATIONALE: The Commission on Insurance has been advised by their consultants that an increase in the above deductibles would result in an approximate decrease in aggregate claims of approximately 8%. Because aggregate claims have continued to remain at a high level, an increase in the individual deductibles would help make the Plan fiscally sound and integral with other large plans.

PPO Health Insurance Changes

SUBJECT: CHANGE IN PLAN DESIGN OF THE CONFERENCE INSURANCE PROGRAM

FROM: DOUGLAS MILLER

PROPOSAL: I move that the Commission on Insurance be given the charge and authority to reconstruct the PPO Program of the Conference Insurance Plan in a way that insures equity and access throughout the Annual Conference.

RATIONALE: The PPO portion of our Plan is vital to the health of our Plan as a whole. Unfortunately, a number of our participants live and serve in areas where the PPO participants live and serve in areas where the PPO Program has not been able to be established. Their full deductible has to be met before they can receive any benefit from the Plan. Those who live and serve in the counties where we have a PPO Program, can receive medical care for only the co-pay amount. In the interest of fairness and justice, the above changes would both protect the Plan and support our shared ministries, regardless of where we serve.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: Approval of the North Texas Annual Conference and the proper implementation by our Conference Insurance Officer, Dr. Stan Seat. Effective date, January 1, 1992.

LA 18 - Pensions Service Year Rate

FROM: BOARD OF PENSIONS

PROPOSAL: That the pre-1982 Service Year Rate for 1992 be $311 for both Full Members and Local Pastors.

RATIONALE: Pursuant to Paragraph 1606.21 of the 1988 Discipline, the Service Year Rate must be .009% of the Conference Average Compensation if the Ministerial Pension Plan Contribution Rate under Section 4.1 of the Plan Document is 12%. The 1991 Conference Average Compensation, as computed by the General Board of Pensions, is $34,543 which computes to $311.

Apportionment for CPP

SUBJECT: THE COMPREHENSIVE PROTECTION PLAN

FROM: BOARD OF PENSIONS

PROPOSAL: The Board of Pensions requests a 5.5% increase for the Comprehensive Protection Plan for 1992 which require an apportionment of $348,853.

RATIONALE: The General Board of Pensions has increased the Denominational Average Compensation by 5.5% in 1991 over 1990. Therefore, it is the recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions that since the contribution rate is 4.4% of the lesser of the base compensation or the Denominational Average Compensation the above funding will be necessary.

Retirees' Housing Allowance

SUBJECT: INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE RULING #63-156

FROM: BOARD OF PENSIONS

PROPOSAL: That an amount equal to 100% of the pension including gifts and grants from the Perkins Fund received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister during the year of 1991, be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance.

LA 19 - Sunday School Growth & Development

SUBJECT: REACHING THE UNCHURCHED THROUGH SUNDAY SCHOOL GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT

FROM: JIM PLEDGER, PAT DEAL, DICK WILSON, BOB ROBERTSON, JO BIGGERSTAFF, SCOTT JONES, RUSTY HEDGES, RICHARD STANFORD, LANE TUNNELL

PROPOSAL:

1. A task force be established in each district of the North Texas Conference to develop and implement a plan for reaching the unchurched through the Sunday School.

2. That 342 new Sunday School classes be formed in the North Texas Annual Conference during Conference year 1991-92.

3. That the North Texas Annual Conference each succeeding year establish new goals for Sunday School growth and development.

RATIONALE: The Sunday School class has been the most effective vehicle for church growth and discipleship development. The most effective way to reach the unchurched, to implement "Every Methodist an Evangelist" and to increase the number of children and youth in our churches is through the Sunday School. Statistics show that the growth or decline of church membership closely parallels the growth or decline of its Sunday School program.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:
1. Approval of this proposal.

2. Each district superintendent shall appoint district task force members by July 15, 1991.

3. The district superintendents shall, by August 1, 1991, allocate between the districts responsibility for creation of the new Sunday School classes called for by this proposal.

4. Each district task force will adopt and begin implementation of a district plan for reaching the unchurched through the Sunday School by October 15, 1991.

5. Each district superintendent shall supervise the implementation of this proposal in the local churches of his or her district. At the 1992 North Texas Annual Conference the superintendent's report shall address by districts the number of new Sunday School classes formed during Conference year 1991-92.

LA 20 - Social Principles Change Unmarried to Single

SUBJECT: SINGLE PERSONS, AS DEFINED IN THE SOCIAL PRINCIPLES

FROM: THE SINGLE ADULT MINISTRY COUNCIL
HIGHLAND PARK UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

PROPOSAL: We petition the 1992 General Conference of The United Methodist Church to make the following word change:

The current paragraph reads:

Par. 71, "E) Single Persons. -- We affirm the integrity of single persons, and we reject all social practices that discriminate or social attitudes that are prejudicial against persons because they are unmarried."

The amended paragraph should read:

Par. 71, "E) Single Persons. -- We affirm the integrity of single persons, and we reject all social practices that discriminate or social attitudes that are prejudicial against persons because they are single."

(the underlined words reflect the change)

RATIONALE: We believe that this one word change more adequately reflects the intention of the statement in the Social Principles.

It's estimated that 41% of all adult Americans are single. This total is only expected to rise in the future. Social attitudes and prejudice against single persons may come from a variety of sources, of which the category "unmarried" is only one member. The no doubt unintentional effect of the current reading is to negatively define the status of single persons in terms of the set of married persons, instead of positively defining them on their own terms.

We believe that this one word change more completely fulfills the intent of this otherwise helpful affirmation of singlehood in the Social Principles.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: Approval by the Annual Conference and forwarded to the General Secretary of the 1992 General Conference for consideration.

LA 21 - Finance and Administration Report

PREFACE

In 1990 apportionments were paid in full by 293 churches, 19 less than the previous year. The Council is especially grateful for the helpful support of our connectional missions and ministries by these churches and appreciative of all contributions to connectional causes.

Total dollars received for apportionments increased $190,672 in 1990 over 1989, a 3.0% increase. The final percentage of apportionments paid in 1990 was 94.9%, a decrease of 0.4 of a percentage point over 1989.

Our giving to all connectional causes was $7,701,322, an increase of $28,657 (0.4%) over 1989. Receipts for non-apportioned causes totaled $1,233,830, a decrease of $162,014 (11.6%) over 1989.

The 1990 year-end statistical reports from local churches show that local church total expenditures decreased $430,149, decreasing by 0.8%. Local church operating expenses increased $1,183,495 (3.8%). Local church ministerial support increased $387,627 (3.5%).

Across the past decade the percent of increase of local church total expenditures has been greater than the percent of increase of the total apportionments based on the decimal. The agencies of the Annual Conference have consistently cooperated with Finance and Administration to maintain frugal budgets so that the rate of apportionments increases set by the Annual Conference could be kept low. The Council wishes again to recognize and express appreciation for this continuing cooperation, especially that of the Council on Ministries in achieving significant reductions in their apportionments requests.

During the past several years the Council has worked closely with the Commission on Insurance in establishing an effective premium structure for funding our Conference Health Insurance Plan. The Council affirms the Commission's efforts to monitor trends in claims payments in light of rising health costs and to set premium rates accordingly. Because our Conference plan is self-funded, the Commission has acted responsibility as our "insurance company" in setting premium rates.

Apportionment funds designated for health insurance costs are now allocated to budgets of other Conference agencies as supplemental assistance for premium payments based on approved guidelines. The restructuring of health-care funding has enabled the Council to turn attention to the Board of Pensions' long-recognized need for a major increase in the Conference Claimants Apportionment for 1992.

The Council urgently recommends that again in 1991 every church take seriously its connectional responsiblility to pay 100% of all apportionments, with 10% of the annual amount remitted monthly. Monthly payments of at least 10% of each church's annual apportionments has been a recommended goal for many years. As more and more churches attain this goal, the budgets of Conference agencies can be managed more efficiently with less loss of investment income.

Another continuing task persists. The assistance of all churches is needed in making contributions to the District Second Mile Apportionment Fund Advance Special, thereby assuring 100% payment of the District's total apportionments. Check with your district superintendent to learn more about how your church can help.

SECTION I. INFORMATION AND RECOMMENDATIONS

A. Information

1. Fidelity Bond for Local Churches

Again in 1991 (annually since 1985) the Council on Finance and Administration has purchased a fidelity bond policy to cover all persons authorized to handle local church funds in every church in the Annual Conference. In the unlikely event that a responsible person makes off with the church's money, the policy covers up to a $25,000 loss.

2. United Methodist Building

After four years of housing the offices of conference agencies the United Methodist Building continues to provide increased benefits for the whole Annual Conference as the facility is used more and more. Across the four years of use the annual budget of $28,798 for the building's operation has remained constant. The budget is underwritten by rent from the budgets of the four clusters of conference agencies housed in the United Methodist Building.

3. Investment Earnings

In 1990 the investment earnings of the Central Treasury Portfolio totaled $172,242.80. From these investment earnings designated trust funds within the Portfolio were paid $68,249.77. The Finance and Administration Office received $103,993.03 for operating expenses, including the computer system and administrative services such as establishing and maintaining statistical records, preparing local church statistical research reports and profiles, providing lay/clergy equalization data for Conference membership, establishing and maintaining the Ministerial Profile System, coordinating the preparation, publication and distribution of the Annual Conference Journal, providing Cabinet support services including the District and Conference Appointment worksheets, managing the United Methodist Building facilities, and other services.

B. Recommendations for Legislative Action

1. General Funds for the 1993-96 Quadrennium

That a petition be sent to the 1992 General Conference recommending NO increase in the total amount for all general funds to be apportioned to local churches during the 1993-96 Quadrennium:

Because the general funds apportionments for the North Texas Annual Conference increased 19.1% during the current quadrennium while the apportionments set by North Texas Conference decreased 0.5%; and

Because many churches of the North Texas Conference are experiencing difficulties meeting their budgets during the economic downturn,

The North Texas Annual Conference petitions the General Conference to maintain the 1992 total amount for all general funds apportionments as the maximum amount to be apportioned to local churches during the 1993-96 quadrennium and to expect increases for the budgets of general agencies by working toward 100% payment of general funds apportionments by every annual conference in the connection.

2. Adjusted Supplement Scale for 1992 Dependent Insurance Premiums

That the 1992 supplement scale for dependent insurance premiums be adjusted as the first change in three annual stages to achieve conformity with the supplement scale for local church appointees insurance premiums.

In December, 1989, the Annual Conference determined that significant changes had to be made in the Conference Health Insurance Plan as well as in the method for funding that plan. Beginning in 1990 premium payments for dependent's insurance became the primary responsibility of the appointee with supplemental assistance from selected conference apportionments.

Because of the urgency in making immediate changes in January, 1990, the supplement scale for dependents was made as liberal as possible for local church appointees. That scale will have been in effect for two years by January, 1992.

To bring the supplement scale for dependents into conformity with the scale for local church appointees (adopted by the Annual Conference in June, 1990) an adjusted scale is recommended based on computations beginning in 1992 at 120% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC), to be followed by an adjustment to 110% for 1993 and 100% in 1994.

The DAC common scale for both appointees and dependents is recommended because the DAC was established in 1980 by the General Conference to be the denomination-wide base for computation of supplemental assistance in paying for appointees' benefits. Through the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP), also established in 1980, supplemental assistance has been provided for life insurance coverage, disability insurance coverage, and upgrading of pensions support.

Because precise guidelines for each appointee's Pension Plan Compensation were also established in 1980 for computation of the DAC, the Pension Plan Compensation has become the accepted norm related to appointees' benefits rather than the total remuneration on the appointment worksheet.

In case of need for additional assistance beyond the supplement of the scale, funds will be available through the apportionment for allocation at the request of the appointee's district superintendent on a quarterly schedule.

In the event that assistance should be needed by an appointee to pay the increased deductible as recommended by the Commission on Insurance, a fund has been established for this purpose from the amounts paid beyond the premium by appointees during 1990 and 1991. Requests for grants from this fund may be made through the appointee's district superintendent on a quarterly schedule.

HEALTH INSURANCE MONTHLY PREMIUM SUPPLEMENTS FOR DEPENDENTS-1992

SECTION II. RECOMMENDED GOALS TO LOCAL CHURCHES

A. That local churches accept the challenge to grow in spiritual strength by designating no less than 25% of their total annual budgets for causes beyond their local churches.

B. That local churches' plan to remit at least 10% of their annual apportionments before the 15th of each month beginning in February.

C. That apportionments be given first claim by local churches in their beyond-the-local-church payments with advance specials and other benevolences viewed as second-mile giving.

D. That local churches assist in achieving 100% payment of all apportionments for connectional ministries and missions in every district through voluntary contributions to the District Second-Mile Apportionment Fund.

E. That all charges either reimburse their local church appointees by voucher for travel as professional expenses based on mileage logs at the IRS approved mileage rate, or if travel allowances are paid, that appointees maintain a mileage log as information for the pastor-parish relations committees.

SECTION III. REMUNERATION FOR SUPERINTENDENTS AND DIRECTORS - 1992

In keeping with the action of the Annual Conference in 1987, the 1992 base compensation for district superintendents and conference directors will be increased or decreased in January, 1992, from $53,858 (the 1991 amount) according to the average percent of change in the 1992 Cabinet worksheet.

The annual housing allowance of $15,000 is recommended again in 1992 (for the third consecutive year) for superintendents and directors without parsonages. Parsonages are provided in six of the seven districts. Utilities and travel expenses are to be reimbursed by voucher.

E. Explanations of Proposed Changes

General Conference Funds

Apportionments set by the General Conference were established in 1988 for each year of the current quadrennium. Our Annual Conference cannot change these amounts.

Jurisdictional Conference Funds

Apportionments set by the Jurisdictional Conference were also established in 1988 for each year of the current quadrennium and cannot be changed by our Annual Conference.

Annual Conference Funds

Because of organizational structure changes approved at the 1990 Annual Conference Session, post-conference authority was given to the Finance and Administration Council to make adjustments of funds between apportionments in cooperation with the affected Conference agency. Hence the column heading for 1991 is designated "Adjusted." All adjustments were completed without changing the bottom line of total apportionments set by the Annual Conference. Because of schedule deadlines for computing apportioned amounts for local churches, the figures approved at the 1990 Conference Session had to be used for distribution to the churches.

Under each apportionment are the dollar amounts allocated for designated purposes. The figures on the left are for 1991 - on the right for 1992.

1. Conference Benevolences

The Council on Ministries has achieved a significant reduction ($59,240 - 15.9%) in the recommended amounts for the 1992 budgets of agencies related to the Council (through this apportionment and the next five) to accommodate the financial crunch resulting from required increases in other apportionments as well as for a potential increase of not more than 3% for staff personnel related to the Council's work.

2. Missional Assistance Fund

In prior years this apportionment was called "Church Development." Because of the organizational structure changes, these funds are now designated for agencies within the Council on Ministries in addition to the newly created Board of Church Extension. The $85,000 allocated for Health Insurance Supplement is designated for missional assistance to churches when their appointees'pension plan compensations are less than the DAC. For 1991 this $85,000 was apportioned on the decimal to the churches as the Conference Insurance Apportionment.

3. Texas Methodist Colleges Fund

The $36,000 reduction (17.7%) was recommended by the Council on Ministries in accord with the requirement that the total amount of all apportionments set by the Annual Conference be decreased by 0.8%. Local churches and individuals are encouraged to make advance special contributions to our Texas Methodist Colleges.

4. Campus Ministries Fund

Because the Annual Conference is committed to the support of the campus ministers on the several campuses, a 3% increase is recommended for these professionals. The ministries budgets are being decreased $11,095 (7.5%) with the expectation that needed funds must be obtained from sources other than the apportionment.

5. Camping and Retreat Fund

The $12,950 decrease (19.9%) in maintenance and capital funds for our Conference camping and retreat centers was a necessary reduction, expecting that additional funds will be contributed through advance specials.

6. Community Ministries Fund

The $11,536 reduction (12%) in support of community ministries was recommended by the Council on Ministries, expecting advance special support for these ministries.

7. Area and Conference Administration Fund

After careful scrutiny of current operating balances and anticipated 1992 budget needs for the several administrative agencies, the $46,211 reduction (17.9%) was recommended so that the overall reduced apportionment goal could be reached.

8. Conference Claimants Fund

The Board of Pension's request for the $208,687 increase (15.6%) in their 1992 apportionment is a catch-up requirement because our Conference Past Service Years' Deposit Fund for pensions claimants is in arrears. Allocations of increases and decreases within the apportionment have been adjusted to keep the fund increase as low as possible.

9. District Superintendents' Fund

The $25,701 increase (5.7%) is required because the 1991 total for this fund was intentionally set below the expected budget needs in anticipation of a sizable ending balance in 1990 which did not occur. The reduced percentage of receipts for this apportionment in 1990 plus the expected 1991 shortfall must be made up in 1992. Only a 3% maximum increase in the base compensation budget is factored into this recommendation.

10. Equitable Salary Fund

An increase in the expected 1991 ending balance in the Pastors' Salary Supplement section of this apportionment, coupled with guideline changes, makes it possible to project a $24,000 decrease (24%) for 1992 as recommended by the Commission on Equitable Salaries along with a 5% increase in the minimum salary base. The Dependent Premium Supplement section can be reduced $84,840 (32.7) because of the year-end balances of 1990 and 1991, plus the expected slight reductions in the proposed scale change for dependent premium supplements.

SECTION V. GUIDELINES FOR COMPUTATION OF 1992 APPORTIONMENTS FOR LOCAL CHURCHES

A. Formula for Two-Part Decimal:

1/3 membership and 2/3 finance

B. Procedure for Computation of Decimal for Each Church:

The membership part is computed by dividing the total 1990 church membership of the Annual Conference (149,290) into the 1990 membership of each church. This becomes the church's membership decimal.

The finance part is computed by adding the amounts of the operating expenses reported paid by each church in columns 64, 65, 66a, 66c, and 67-72 of the 1990 Statistician's Report. (No funds reported in other statistical columns are included in this computation.) This total is then divided by the Conference total of these same columns ($30,480,433). This becomes the local church's finance decimal.

The finance decimal is doubled. The membership decimal is added to the doubled finance decimal. This total is divided by three to become the apportionment decimal.

C. Procedure for Computation of Apportionments for Each Church:

The apportionment decimal for each church is multiplied by the Conference total of each apportionment to determine the amount that church is asked to pay toward the apportionment.

D. Margin for Correction:

To assure that 100% of the amount of each apportionment will be distributed to the churches, no more than one quarter of one percent may be added to each apportionment when needed.

LA 22 - Equitable Salaries

I. Minimum and Equitable Salary Guidelines for Conference Members and Full-Time Local Pastors.

A. The Commission on Equitable Salaries requests minimum equitable salary support, pension, years of service and administrative expenses be apportioned at $50,000 for 1992.

B. The Commission on Equitable Salaries requests that $22,952 be set for the minimum equitable compensation for 1992. The years of service allowance shall be $100 per service year after five years and up to 10 years. It is assumed that housing would be provided by the local church. The Commission on Equitable Salaries will pay a maximum of 25% of the established base.

1. Minimum Equitable Salary (including base, utilities, amount for auto allowance or vouchered reimbursement, dependent premium payments, supplemental payments, and other subsidies received) for active members of North Texas Conference serving full time is $22,952.

2. Adjustments for service:

Years of Service	Equitable Salary Amount
6	23,452
7	23,552
8	23,652
9	23,752
10	23,852

3. Local pastors serving full time:

Five years or less (75% of base)	17,214
Six years or more (85% of base)	19,509

C. The following policies are proposed to the North Texas Annual Conference for the distribution of equitable salary assistance in 1992.

1. A local church exists to serve, not to be served. All churches should be motivated to a larger sense of ministry. Churches whose pastors receive salary subsidy should be open to linkage with other churches in order to provide full-time ministerial conference members with a minimum work load goal of 250 members, the number believed by the Commission to be necessary to support a pastor. Smaller churches should be encouraged to accept couplings with each other or with larger churches to reduce the need for subsidy.

2. Equitable salary levels can best be met when appointments are open to all ministerial members without regard to race or sex. We continue to urge every conference member to make the subject of a fully open Conference and adequately supported ministry at the local church level a matter of daily personal prayer. Only as the love of Christ dwells in us can an Annual Conference be a fellowship of caring persons.

3. Growth in stewardship should be achieved by all below-minimum remuneration churches. In making application for salary supplement, District Superintendents are to provide evidence of stewardship education and growth on forms provided by the Commission on Equitable Salaries.

4. Tenure payments are designed to honor the years of service of pastors who continue for more than five years in ministry to below-minimum salary charges because of the needs of the Conference. The Bishop and the Cabinet are urged to make every effort to move pastors to above-minimum charges within five years after they begin full-time service.

5. All applications for salary subsidy to the Commission on Equitable Salaries are to be made by the District Superintendent on forms provided by the Commission, and completed applications must be approved by the Commission in session or by no less than two of the three members of the executive committee on the Commission.

6. The Charge Conference of any charge unable to pay the minimum set by the Conference shall be informed by the District Superintendent of the guidelines for receiving equitable salary assistance. The charge shall be informed of the amount required to bring the salary level up to minimum and shall be challenged to move toward the goal of full self-support at the earliest possible time. On a form which shall accompany the applications for salary assistance, the District Superintendent shall certify to the Commission that the charge has been duly notified.

7. The Commission on Equitable Salaries shall notify annually the Pastor-Parish Committee chairperson of each local charge of the goal of the Conference for every full-time pastor to have a work load of 250 members in order to get all pastors' salaries to the minimum level. The amount of subsidy granted to a pastor shall be acknowledged annually at the Charge Conference.

8. Equitable salary assistance is not available to pastors serving as associate pastors or in staff positions other than pastor-in-charge. In order that such persons receive an equitable wage, however, the Commission recommends that local churches use Conference minimum salary standards as minimum guidelines in setting associates' and staff salaries.

9. The Commission on Equitable Salaries will not consider requests for salary supplement where housing allowances exceed $7,200.

10. Pastors who decline an appointment which would reduce or eliminate the need for equitable salary support are ineligible for equitable salary supplement given for years of service.

11. Equitable salary assistance is not available for a North Texas Conference member appointed to serve in another Annual Conference, nor is it available to members of other Annual Conferences serving under appointment in the North Texas Conference.

12. There shall be no lump sum payments to persons receiving equitable salary assistance unless such sums are too small for monthly payments to be made.

13. It shall be the responsibility of the pastor receiving equitable salary subsidy to inform the Commission of any increase in remuneration or any changes in eligibility which occur after an application for equitable salary subsidy has been approved.

II. Guidelines for Financial Assistance for Student Appointees.

A. The Commission on Equitable Salaries requests that equitable salary support, pension and mileage be apportioned at $20,000 for 1992.

B. The Commission will offer a maximum of 25% of the established base for any one position.

C. Student Appointees.

Resident full time on charge (65% of base)	14,919
Lives on charge 3 nights or more (50%)	11,476
Lives on charge 2 nights or less (40%)	9,181

D. When students do not serve the charge full time during the summer, there shall be a $1,000 reduction in the minimum amount, making the scale as follows:

Resident full time on charge	13,919
Lives on charge 3 nights or more	10,476
Lives on charge 2 nights or less	8,181

E. The purpose of the mileage allowance is to provide ministry to local churches. The intention is to provide an extra mileage supplement to students who live at or near the seminary so that they can go to the charge to provide pastoral care and service.

Travel on the charge will be vouchered by the charge. Students serving student appointments receive the annual $20 one-way mileage allowance subject to the following criteria:

1. Mileage allowance will be calculated on travel from place of residence to the charge.
2. Student shall be licensed or ordained and under appointment.
3. Student shall be enrolled in an accredited college or seminary.
4. When taking less than nine hours, $20 mileage rate will be reduced proportionate to number of hours taken (6 hours -- $14, 3 hours -- $7).
5. No mileage allowance will be provided during a seminary internship.
6. When the student is receiving above equitable salary minimum, the travel will be reduced by the overage.

A LOOK AT LIFE IN THE CABINET: 1990-91

This is not a report. It's a look at life in the cabinet. Finally sitting down to write this collage, after numerous false starts, I find myself with a legion of things running through my mind hoping for a place in this paper. Things like: churches with profiles of young anglo males as the epitome of their pastor and clergy seeking a certain type of congregation that fits their career image. Things like: churches seeking to minister within their community, being frustrated, but continuing to find ways of being God's church where they are located. Things like: clergy honestly saying a word about their CALL to ministry and remembering that it did not include larger churches or bigger salaries, then, nor does it now. I find myself thanking God for those who seek ministry within the context of their calling, whether congregation or clergy. We do indeed have many servant people in this conference. I think of those battling the ageism of our day. I think of racial prejudice of "this is not the right time" - friends, there is never going to be a right time. I think of those serving in obscure anonymity but finding meaning in the phrase "ministry is where you are instead of where you want to be". I think of those who faithfully shock the cabinet with "I'll go where a prayerful cabinet thinks I can best serve God and the Church" or "I'm a United Methodist clergy and that is not where I perceived myself to be but I'll go." Honestly, I also think of those with other perceived images of church and self.

Those of us in the cabinet seek to understand ourselves as servants with a desire to work and serve out of our faith, knowing that this faith is at times shallow and at other times very deep. Bruce Blake continually reminds us of our faith and our need to stay in touch with it. We appreciate that quality in him because he continually calls us to obedience to the Faith.

The hymn We Are The Church best expresses our work; take your hymnal and turn to page 558. We will sing the chorus and the first verse, but do not close your hymnal because we will sing it all before we're finished.

(Verse 1.) We are a people. A people of God. As we serve within the variety of congregations, we attempt to relate as persons. From the ten (10) member rural congregation that understands their connection to millions of other United Methodists through their missional giving of apportionments, to the large complex mega-churches who, because of their size, understand that in addition to apportionments they enhance mission with intentionality through other giving. We are a united people seeking to reach the unchurched by sharing the message of grace and reconciliation. The Church, God's Church, our congregations are PEOPLE. Please, God, let us never forget that. We are not a brick and mortar institution. We are not a resting place.

On one occasion, two congregations of varying ethnic makeup, joined for worship. A young girl, who had participated in the children's sermon which was built around this hymn, grew weary during the remainder of the service. A youth that was sitting close by moved closer and said, "you can put your head in my lap"; "no", the little girl replied, "the church is not a resting place".

As we strive to respond to the Bishop's initiative of THE CALL TO COMMUNITY, CONVICTION AND COMMITMENT, I wish it were possible to share all the ways that the local congregations are seeing people as people, and not just ways to increase budgets and worship averages by receiving new members. People are precious to God and to us. Remember the story of the person who could not see well and as Jesus sought to help, the person exclaimed, "I see people as trees walking", but on further attention to the person, the words were clear "I see clearly." Let us see clearly that ALL people are God's and therefore to be treated fairly and with dignity. Folks, at times our oral traditions and judgmental attitudes keep persons from experiencing the dignity of fairness in appointment making. We circulate stories that congregations hear and decide that some persons are not worthy. Lord, let us see people as persons.

(Verse 2.) The movie "The Long Walk Home" is a parable for the cabinet of the North Texas Conference as we try to understand God's will for our individual lives and the corporate life of the conference. Sissy Spacek, the woman whose maid had to walk to work is gradually convicted of the racism she so vehemently denies at the outset of the movie. Before the end of the movie she is chauffeuring other women to work and confronting our racism. We continue to talk of open itinerancy but when we move in that direction our own fear and prejudice of institutional racism blocks our understanding of God's will. You need to know that we have this year nominated for several churches persons of color only to be shackled by our lack of courage and others fear of change.

Along with racism, we also continue to experience the sins of ageism, sexism, and cultural materialism. The stanza remind us that we are all the Church of Jesus Christ - all who follow Jesus. But so often a congregation equates leadership with youthful vitality and those over 58 are considered less than youthful. Suffice it to say, however, those congregations who never consider age or sex as barriers to leadership have found themselves greatly blessed. Not all our vital leaders are young or male or anglo. We are grateful to those churches whose profile includes persons of faith and a commitment to the call of God. Like Sissy Spacek, we are moving, not having arrived but on the road, like the lepers who were cleansed "on the way" to see the priest after Jesus pointed them in that direction. We, too, pray that "along the way" or "in the process", we will be healed and become the church "of many faces, many peoples, all colors and all ages."

(Verse 3.) Is it possible to have fun and still get the job done? Yes, because without fun we take ourselves far too seriously. Fun is one of the ways of acknowledging our humanity. We do not always get it right. One of the joys of serving with this particular cabinet is our ability to confess our humanity and understand and own up to our mistakes. Though not altogether fun, recognizing that those eight persons around the table have been given an awesome responsibility, at times, is a liberating feeling. The time and care given to the work of the cabinet concerning both appointees and congregations, as well as the North Texas Conference, and to The United Methodist Church, is something many of us never consider unless it directly concerns us. Without ever being in the cabinet, no one can imagine the task. We have the responsibility of supervision, of cheerleading, and of pastoring some 511 appointees, retirees and their families. We have the audacity to think we can serve 325 plus local churches in this conference. And we accept leadership within the agencies of the North Texas Conference.

Now for the fun part!! No, mingled within these tasks, roles and duties, is the sense of purpose that is fulfilling. Our purpose is to be extensions of the episcopal leader and to carry out the duties in paragraph 519 through 524 in the 1988 Discipline. We are conference superintendents assigned to a particular area or district within the bounds of the conference. Paragraph 529 (isn't this fun?) states: "As all ordained ministers are first elected into membership of an Annual Conference and subsequently appointed to pastoral charges, so district superintendents become through their selection members first of a cabinet before they are subsequently appointed to serve in districts."

We have fun and we are serious. It is a joy to serve with those who understand humanness. Because our humanness leads us to the underlying purpose of our life together: 1) To serve God and God's Kingdom; 2) to be disciples and servants of One whom God gave, Jesus, the Christ, our Lord and Savior; 3) and to be in covenant with each other in doing and being the first two. The first thing we acknowledge when we are together is our need of God and our interdependence on one another. Yes, we can disagree (and we do). Sometimes Jim Pledger or Joan LaBarr or Bruce Blake really tell us how they feel and what they think (the names were changed to protect the guilty). Honestly, disagreements occur; strong feelings are expressed; anger is an emotion that is encouraged, but because of the Covenant, we do not lose our relationships with one another. Spiritual vitality is a key to our personal, as well as our corporate development. Without Bishop Blake's leadership here, I fear we would not give it the attention it needs and is getting. We begin our work as those called by God for a specific task. Our understanding of calling is paramount to EVERYTHING we do. We are called by God first and then we seek to be faithful to that Calling.

(Verse 4). In our gathering as the Church, we need to remember our Call. As clergy, how many of us remember that hour or year that we responded to God and the Church to commit ourselves to service? As laity, do you recall that time in your life or times in your life that God or the church became the most important thing in your life? Do we remember the idealism, the genuine desire to share faith in the hope someone else would experience the feelings of joy, hope, and love? Probably it can be recalled, but it is not as intense as it once was. Why not? Have we moved to a more sophisticated mode, to a more institutional setting, to more professionalism that cools the fire, or to a career as opposed to a Call.

Recently, I was with one of our pastors within the conference whose last few appointments have been to do a specific job, only one of which was perceived as glamorous or career-enhancing. I became aware of something that was within that person that was beautiful. We talked of hurt, pain, frustration, ego, need, until I said, "what keeps you going?" The response was, "I learned from my family years ago that the kind of appointment will not satisfy my inner being unless I learn to keep my eye on the basic commitment."

Gathering as the church, our basic commitment is to God. Our calling as Christian disciples is something we need to get in touch with again.

Last September, I remembered my calling again and I am grateful. The occasion was following John Ogden's accident. I volunteered to preside at the initial district meeting of the Northeast District only to find out that the presider was the main item of agenda....a sermon on Moses: "From the Burning Bush to the River's Edge." Panic, fear, why did I volunteer? You've been there, I can tell. I simply shared my story and thank God, I was reminded again of what I set out to do with God's help. I started ministry as an ego trip. My pastor asked another person in our congregation, had he ever considered the ministry? - in my presence. The very idea! I set out to show him. Folks, that will not get it in the long run or over the long haul. God bless Schubert Ogden, who was the only person to ever confront my reasons and insulted my intelligence by writing on my Credo "this shows nothing but abysmal ignorance of the theological task...and I hope you have the honor to tell the world or quit the show altogether." He said several other things too, but friends, that made me aware of motivation. My call was confirmed in my doing ministry and now, I think, burns deeper than it ever has because I'm excited about being a part of God's Church, The United Methodist Church and The North Texas Conference Cabinet.

(Verse 5). We are witnesses. Have we realized that what we do and say are extremely important? As the cabinet, we have witnessed that one can reach people through Sunday School evangelism and be excited about that. We have witnessed that many of the people of this conference go to bed at night on a regular basis to the sound of gunshots nearby. Others seek to strengthen a local church in a rural area by staying longer than a year or two, and others that do not look toward their next appointment. We have seen that in the rural areas there are appointments that are becoming some of our stronger churches. We have seen that our urban churches can link together to be a stronger mission for God's work. Yes, we have churches that preserve the status quo and continue to struggle and die, but with the deepened sense of commitment that just maybe our witness will be heard and seen. I am the Church. You are the Church. We are the Church together.

All who follow Jesus all around the world! Yes, we're the Church together.

All who follow Jesus is the key. What your cabinet is attempting to do is follow Jesus always remembering the words of Luke 4 and Matt:25, God has anointed me (us) to "bring good news to the poor, proclaim release to the captives, proclaim recovery of sight, to let the oppressed free, and to proclaim the year of the Lord." (Luke 4:18-19)

Come, you that are blessed by God, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for "I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty, and you gave me drink, I was a stranger, and you welcomed me, I was naked, and you clothed me, I was sick, and you took care of me, I was in prison, and you visited me." (Matt 25:34-40)

The righteous are always surprised because they are so accustomed to doing God's will naturally that Jesus reminded them and us, "Just as you did these things to one of the least of these who are members of my family you did it to me."

What if your Council on Ministries, Administrative Board, or Administrative Council modeled these texts for ministry in your local church next year? What if in our churches or charge conferences, the question was, "what is the church doing to embody these scriptures?" All who follow Jesus - we're the Church TOGETHER!

I heard a sermon on Pentecost with this closing story of a mother noticing her son being drawn to pianos. Fascinated by them, she wanted him to have one, but she could not afford one. She heard of a church that was trying to get rid of all those uprights that they did not use any longer in their children's classes. Securing one and getting help to get it home, her son was overjoyed and began plunking on it. The great Paderewski was coming to town and she bought two tickets, after saving for several weeks. Getting to the concert hall was a chore, but she and her son got to the seats high in the balcony. She got into conversation with a neighbor and the lights began to dim. She missed her son.

The lights went out, the spotlight on the stage revealed her son, plunking away on the grand piano on the stage. Paderewski came out. He approached the boy and the piano and said, "continue to play your song", which was "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star." With one arm the great pianist reached around the boy and added more notes and then the other arm reached around to add more notes and together they mesmerized the audience.

Somehow, people of God, with the Master's arms around us, we too, can do ministry that is exciting and reminds us of our Calling.

CHURCH EXTENSION/TRUSTEES

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

The year 1990-91 has been a time for reorganization and development for your Board of Church Extension. We're proud of the successes enjoyed during this period, both within the internal framework of the Board and its' participation in expanding the North Texas Conference.

The following represent new "start-ups" during the past twelve months:

Hispanic Fellowship, Dallas, began meeting at St. John UMC facility in June 1990.
Cross Road Fellowship, (an Hispanic Congregation in Dallas) began meeting January 1991, in the Methodist Hospital and already has approximately 65 official members.
Vista Ridge Fellowship in Flower Mound will begin June 15. The sponsoring congregations of Lewisville First Church and Trietsch Memorial will be providing volunteer seed families to assist in guiding this fellowship.
Aldersgate Fellowship of Carrollton will also begin June 15. Custer Road UMC in Plano will underwrite the entire start-up expenses of this fellowship.
Lakeway Fellowship in Pottsboro will also begin June 15, under a new part-time pastoral appointment model.

In addition, St. Andrew UMC of Plano will be moving into their new 32,000 square foot first phase facility, and New Horizon Fellowship in DeSoto will be moving a building onto their property as well.

Due to the unique process of beginning a new church, a fellowship has been instituted for those pastor founding new congregations. This will help guide church expansions by providing mutual support, resources, and continuing education to those special appointments by those who have had similar experiences.

Internal Developments within the Board have transpired as well in the following areas:

- financial reporting
- budget processes
- policy guidelines
- committee functions
- loan request restructuring
- demographic studies

Your Board has continued to work closely with The Texas Methodist Foundation and the Visionaries Program, headed by Rev. Bill Matthews.

I would be remiss if I didn't mention the hard work done by each of the members of the Board of Church Extension, by the direction of the Church Extension Officer, Rev. Richard Dunagin, by Marci Macaluso, and by Annette Wilkes, the best Recording Secretary a Board could have. As a personal aside, my past eight years on your Board of Church Extension have been most rewarding, due primarily to the dedication of the above people and their predecessors.

The Board welcomes its' new Chairman, Rev. Don Benton, and looks forward to what will be the most exciting period in its' long history of "Reaching the Unchurched."

Ben E. Black
Chairperson,.
Board of Church Extension

GENERAL PHILOSOPHY AND GUIDELINES GOVERNING THE WORK OF CHURCH EXTENSION NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE

New Congregations

The following updated guidelines -- understood as policies rather than as optional suggestions -- provide the basic framework of responsibilities and relationships in the establishment of new congregations.

1. Church Extension, working with the District Superintendent and the District Board of Church Location and Building, will locate and either purchase or secure donation of appropriate sites for new congregations yet to be established, (see supplemental guidelines describing "appropriate sites").

2. Church Extension, in consultation with superintendents whose districts are affected, will monitor demographic data around the conference and arrange for community or neighborhood surveys of areas which are deemed ready for the establishment of new churches.

3. A decision to begin a new congregation on a site made available by Church Extension will be made by the Bishop, District Superintendent, District Committee on Church Location and Building following consultation with the Officer of Church Extension. Nearby congregations also should be encouraged to become involved in the process of bringing a new United Methodist congregation into being.

4. A new church should not be launched until there is an adequate place to meet, and a suitable office arrangement with phone and secretarial assistance available. Adequate advance provisions likewise should be made for the pastor's salary and housing.

5. The Bishop and Cabinet will appoint a pastor to the new site following consultation with the Officer of Church Extension and consideration of potential pastoral needs unique to this situation as well as the following general characteristics:

a. Demonstrated leadership abilities and skills sufficient to suggest high probability of success in forming a new congregation. Normally this would be a person who has had at least one or two successfuly appointments.

b. Only full-time persons should be considered as "first pastor" of a new congregation.

c. A person accepting appointment to a new congregation should recognize that such a responsibility is seldom successfully achieved in less than a five-year pastorate, and those which are most successful usually involve longer tenures.

6. Following appointment of a pastor, to start a new church, Church Extension will provide the following:

a. An adequate site for the church to use.

b. A schematic site plan.

c. A missional start-up grant of approximately $75,000 to supplement the new congregation's budget during its first five years. Disposition of the grant shall be determined by the Board of Church Extension following consultation with congregational leadership and the district superintendent.

d. Community survey data and profile.

e. Manual of procedures for starting a new church.

f. Counsel and other assistance appropriate to organizing a new congregation, including an understanding that congregations established by Church Extension are expected to be self-sustaining on or before the end of their fifth year, and that repayment to Church Extension for land and start-up assistance is to begin by the congregation's sixth year -- preferably in the form of Visionaries Shares.

7. Chartering of the new congregation shall take place when pre-agreed conditions have been met such as an appropriate minimum number of members, adequate financial support from the congregation for the general budget and building program, acceptance of connectional obligations, development of a statement reflecting in both theological and practical terms the congregation's understanding of its mission and fully functioning Council on Ministries and Administrative Board (or Administrative Council).

8. The new local church shall plan for the construction of its first unit in consultation with the District Board of Church Location and Building, the District Superintendent and the Board of Church Extension.

a. Interim financing for the first unit may be provided by Church Extension following approval of plans, contractor, etc.

b. Construction shall not commence prior to the successful completion of a Capital Funds Drive by the local congregation.

9. Church Extension will assist the local church in arranging permanent financing for its new facility. Upon completion of construction of the first unit, Church Extension will convey to the new congregation title to the facility and that portion of the site necessary and appropriate for the first unit.

a. Church Extension shall be reimbursed for all its costs relating to construction including architects and engineers fees, interest on interim loan for construction payment to the contractors, etc. These expenses shall be repaid to Church Extension through proceeds from permanent financing.

b. At this juncture, a plan shall be negotiated so that the congregation begins reimbursing Church Extension for all land costs and cash grants. The preferred method of repayment is through Visionaries Shares -- thereby enabling members of the congregation to assist in the formation of other new congregations. Other alternatives may include systematic repayment over a period of years, perhaps including graduated rates of payment as the congregation grows.

10. Construction of facilities beyond the first unit will be planned and arranged by the local church in consultation with the District Superintendent, the District Board of Church Location and Building, and the Board of Church Extension. Title to additional portions of the site shall be conveyed by Church Extension to the local church as necessary and appropriate, and as may be negotiated.

11. Church Extension shall hold a subordinated lien on all property and improvements until such time as all expenses incurred by Church Extension for the site and construction have been repaid. This will enable Church Extension to perform both an evaluative role and a supportive role until the new congregation reaches self-sufficiency, and give additional assurance to Visionaries contributors that their investment is being used wisely and effectively.

12. The appropriate District Superintendent and the Officer of Church Extension shall periodically evaluate the progress of each new congregation receiving Church Extension funds based, at least in part, on necessary church growth data supplied by the pastor.

13. These guidelines shall be evaluated periodically and updated/revised as needed by the Board of Church Extension.

Relocations

1. "Conditional Grants" of $15,000 may be made available by Church Extension upon request of a congregation planning to relocate its facilities. Requests should be accompanied by a rationale statement and an affirmative recommendation from the District Superintendent.

2. The Board of Trustees of any local church receiving a "conditional grant" will sign a promissory note to Church Extension before the funds are made available. The "conditional grant" is to be paid back by the local church over a period of 15 years, without interest, through participation in the Visionaries program, with all share funds from the congregation being applied against the balance of the note.

Other grants and loans

Requests for other grants and loans will be accepted and considered on an individual basis by Church Extension, bearing in mind the purposes for which Church Extension exists as well as other commitments and the availability of funds.

Applications

Applications for grants, loans and conditional grants must be made one month in advance of a regular meeting of the Board of Church Extension. These must be in writing, giving the purpose of the project, total cost, amount requested and rationale. All applications should be submitted to the Officer of Church Extension, P.O. Box 516069, Dallas, Texas 75251.

General Guidelines

1. Variances from the foregoing policies may be approved by the Board of Church Extension to meet special needs or situations. No such variance will be considered a precedent for similar variances in other situations. Each request will be considered on its own merits and acted upon in the best judgment of the Board of Church Extension. In each case, Church Extension will determine the amount of assistance and whether assistance will be in the form of an outright grant or a loan to be repaid.

2. It is the intention that all Church Extension Visionaries Share funds will be expended toward the purhase of new church sites Approximately 20% of these funds will be used to purchase land based on the probable long-term rather than short-term development around it.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The North Texas Conference Board of Trustees met four times this past conference year, with excellent attendance.

Under our major responsibility of property management we dealt with currently held properties, questions concerning lease, sale, legal matters and insurance, and requests for action on new proposals. The latter will be coming as legislative items to this Annual Conference Session.

We currently hold in trust for the Annual Conference properties at Valley View, Bagwell, Savannah Springs (jointly owned with the Baptist Church), Drop, McKenzie Chapel, Bethlehem, Mt. Pleasant and Minter.

We transferred $20,000 from the St. Matthews Church account, through Church Extension, to the New Horizon Fellowship in April. The balance of the St. Matthews Church account will be given to the New Horizon Fellowship for purchase and transfer of a building to their property in DeSoto. The Financial Report as of April 30, 1991, shows a balance of $37,055.05 in the general account. Our Trust accounts contained the following: Hughey Estate - $84,319.96 and the St. Matthews Church account - $93,703.84. Our total assets as of April 30, 1991 are $228,725.33.

We have continued to provide training for local trustees in several districts and would urge all churches to make sure their deeds and charters of incorporation are on file with our office. Contact: Marci Macaluso at The United Methodist Bldg., 13959 Peyton Dr., Dallas, Tx 75240. (214)490-1717. We also continue to monitor the Health Benefit Trust set up for Peggy Railey and the Catastrophic Umbrella Trust for clergy and diaconal health needs.

The Conference Board of Trustees recommends for Annual Conference action the following items:

The North Texas Conference Board of Trustees recommends the abandonment of Gober United Methodist Church in the Paris-Sulphur Springs District.

The North Texas Conference Board of Trustees recommends the merger of the Pottsboro United Methodist Church with the Price United Methodist Church in the Sherman-McKinney District.

The North Texas Conference Board of Trustees recommends the discontinuance of the Wilmer United Methodist Church in the Dallas South District.

Jean Wood
Chairperson,
Conference Board of Trustees

COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

CCOM began the year welcoming seven new chairpersons: Ethnic Local Church Concerns Chair-Sheron Patterson, Lay Speakers-Horace Trietsch, Youth Ministries-Walt Marcum, Volunteers In Mission-Martha Stowe, Town and Country-Larry Kruger, and Urban Ministries-Chauncey Nealy. New staff members are Roger Woods as Agency Resources and Bill Matthews with Visionaries and Communications.

New members-at-large of the Executive Committee are Hal Brady, Chauncey Nealy and Bob Robertson.

New CCOM Committee chairs added during the year: Prison Ministries-Gus Taylor and Hispanic Ministries-Paul Escamilla.

Contingency Funds were approved for use in 1990: Resource Bank--$400, Data Bank--$2,500, Visionaries $2,400. For 1991: VIM--$3,500, Visionaries--$2,000, and Communications (UMR postage)--$4,000.

Special program highlights for the year included the new Ministries Mart exhibit area at the 1991 Annual Conference; approving the Fall Academy plan to group most of the conference training events into one annual fall event; a new focus on Visionaries and the Apportionment Montage project for elementary children.

Cooperating with the Council on Finance and Administration to go to Annual Conference with a decreased apportionment request, the CCOM decreased its 1992 budget request by $92,991 less than its 1991 budget.

Appreciation goes to outgoing Asian Ministries chair-Merlyn Salapong, National and World Outreach chair--Wayne Odom, and Council on Ministries Director-- Don Barnes.

Chair

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The Conference Board of Church and Society understands its mandate to be that of both advocacy and programming. In fulfilling its advocacy responsibility, the Board has continued financial support of Projecto Adelante, the Dallas Peace Center, the Youth Citizenship Seminars, and Peace with Justice activities. The Board has promoted the issues and activities of the Central America Ministries Task Group, Texas Impact, and the United Methodist Bishops of Texas Legislative Advisory Committee.

The programming responsibility of the Board has been carried out this year in a variety of ways, the highlight of which was the holding of a conference-wide convocation on the theme "Models of Hope: Living as God's Creation." At that convocation, workshops were offered on personal faith/public concern, family crises, and environmental stewardship. Additional programs have been facilitated through the involvement of Board members in such areas as prison ministry, Hispanic ministry, and multi-cultural events.

A second area of primary programming responsibility recently assumed by the Board is that of homelessness. The Joint Task Force on Homelessness of the Conference Boards of Global Ministries and Church and Society has become a standing committee of the Board of Church and Society with its convenor being a member of the Board.

Chair

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

In November 1990, following Bishop Bruce P. Blake's presentation of A CALL TO COMMUNITY, CONVICTION AND COMMITMENT your Board of Discipleship responded to Behavior #2, "Every United Methodist an Evangelist," with each of our 10 Divisions developing a statement of support. Each Division Chairperson "fleshed out" what this behavior might look like within their own division and began to initiate plans to implement those programs.

In addition, the Chairperson of the Board undertook the task of developing a five member committee to design, produce and manage the MINISTRIES MART at the Wichita Falls Annual Conference. Working under the theme, "Every United Methodist an Evangelist," the purpose of the 46 different exhibits was to enable laity to go back to their local church with at least two new ideas that will help them be effective "evangelists" in reaching the unchurched.

Following are the Division and Committee reports:

DIVISION OF EDUCATION

The Division conducted events during the fall of 1990 to celebrate the Sunday School in three districts, the Paris-Sulphur Springs, Dallas-Denton, and Dallas-Central. Due to the change in the chair of the division during the year, the curriculum workshops were not undertaken during the Spring as previously planned.

Direction for the Division anticipated to be taken this coming year is with emphasis on responding to the needs of the local church as well as encouraging offerings of specific information concerning the work coming from the National study of Protestant Congregations from the Search Institute on Effective Christian Education in which the potential power of Christian education is documented. Lane Tunnell, Chairperson

The Division had a very productive year of ministry. After programming successful events in "friendship evangelism," our division embarked upon the challenge of "Every United Methodist an Evangelist."

Though our planning process is not yet complete, we are looking at the Lay Academy as a vehicle for offering several programs of Evangelism. It is our hope to utilize the membership of our division in a leadership capacity and to respond effectively to the needs of our conference. Mark Craig, Chairperson.

DIVISION OF STEWARDSHIP

The Division has continued its focus of providing resources for local churches on financial campaigns, tithing, apportionments and other areas of concern. The division joined with the Commission on Communications on the montage project of apportionment interpretation. This year plans are being made to have Marlene Wilson for the keynote speaker at a program on volunteerism in September.

Also, the division has explored the prospects of enabling those in our conference that would be interested in becoming certified through Nashville as stewardship associates. We are planning to provide workshops for the fall university that is being planned by the CCOM. John Mollet, Chairperson.

DIVISION OF SPIRITUAL FORMATION

The Division has offered, during this conference year, a total of eighteen "Days Apart" - retreat days for laity and clergy led by pastors and lay persons. There were six in the outlying districts and one a month in the Dallas Districts. In addition there was a day-long workshop on prayer in March, 1991.

The division is working on having a 'key person' in each local church who will be responsible for helping disseminate information about division events and other opportunities for spiritual formation.

The division will share a booth at the Ministries Mart during annual conference, 1991, with the Emmaus Community and the Disciplined Order of Christ, other groups dealing with spiritual formation.

A major event is planned for spring, 1991 to be led by nationally known author, Marjorie Thompson. Monthly Days Apart will continue. Jane Robertson, Chairperson

DIVISION OF CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES

The Division continues to focus on the provision of leaders, consultants, and events to strengthen Children's Ministries in the local church. Events such as "Teachers of all Children," "You Ask for it," and "Training for Vacation Bible School Teachers and Directors," are scheduled annually. Other training opportunities for weekday ministries teachers, and directors are provided once or twice a year. "Invitational Teaching" has been a major emphasis over the past year, as has been developing a coordination of minority church training events. Gail Pettigrew, Chairperson

DIVISION OF YOUTH MINISTRY

The Division is dedicated to supporting and nurturing adults who work with youth in our annual conference. We continue to be concerned about the high turn over rate among youth workers and seek to find new and creative ways to support the work these individuals do within our local churches.

Three years ago the Youth Division entered into a partnership with Perkins School of Theology and created Perkins School of Youth Ministry. This event is now nationally known for its excellence and we have adults from across the country attend. This provides a top quality continuing education event for our adults in our own area. Teachers are recruited from within our annual conference.

This past year we changed our youth professional meetings from bimonthly to monthly. Many districts do not have youth workers meetings, and this allows youth workers from across the conference to gather on a regular basis for fellowship and continuing education.

This past year members of the Division worked with the Perkins Continuing Education office and Board of Diaconal Ministry in Nashville to offer courses for national certification in youth ministry through Perkins. Four courses will be offered on a rotating basis, with members of the Division as teachers. The first course, Ministry to Youth, was offered last summer. At the 1991 session of the North Texas Annual Conference in Wichita Falls, the first person from our conference received certification.

The Division also explored the possibility of creating a program to help local churches that cannot afford to hire a staff person in youth ministry be able to start or revitalize their youth ministries. The Division will work in tandem with the Conference Council on Youth Ministries in this task during the coming year. Walt Marcum, Coordinator

DIVISION OF ADULT MINISTRIES

The Division provided two $300.00 scholarships for the Disciple Bible Study Leaders Training. Scholarships were presented to Don H. Yeager, pastor of Wylie United Methodist Church, and Paul L. Escamilla, pastor of First United Methodist Church, Heath.

The Division participated in the final planning and implementation of the Sunday School Celebration held in the Districts during September 1990.

1990 was the year for the National Singles event in Houston. The Task Force on Single Adult Ministries sponsored the conference single adult participation in this July event. It was a great experience for them and they brought back many new ideas.

The Task Force on College and Career Ministries contacted each charge in the conference to establish communications and to determine a single adult contact person. On this foundation, the College and Career Ministries will be built. Ernie M. Martin, Jr., Chairperson

The Division has continued to hold training events and consultations to help churches begin or strengthen their ministries for and with older adults. A new workshop was designed for adult children who were seeking support and guidance in relating to their aging parents.

The spring and fall RV Rallies continue to grow. The first luncheon to celebrate older adult work was held during Annual Conference.

Nine members of this Division attended the first National Convocation on Older Adult Ministries, which was held in Ft. Worth last January. Patsy Brundige, Chairperson

DIVISION OF FAMILY MINISTRIES

The Division has been and is providing resources, information, and training for family ministries in our local churches.

For 1991 and 1992 our goals have been in three areas of ministries. We have selected these to help families to become better families.

1) To develop and implement the Active Parenting program. This program has been developed to teach skills needed for the toughest job in the world: being a parent. This person is designed to help parents to instill these qualities in their children: self-esteem, courage, responsibility, and cooperation. Qualities that will be with them their entire life.

This past year we trained an individual to be "a trainer of trainers," who then had a Leader Certification Workshop with about 35 persons attending and receiving their Leadership Certification. At the present time we have about 70 people certified.

2) The second area has been the Celebration of Marriage. We have had two retreats, both at Bridgeport Center. This program has been for married couples to help to enrich their marriage relationship in the context of Christian faith and action. It provides an opportunity to celebrate one's faith and marriage together. The theme for our retreats has been "Growing in Love."

Matthew and Camille Gaston have been certified to become instructors and are leading retreats as well as helping others get their certification. We want to continue to provide leadership and to have retreats in Celebration of Marriage.

3) The third area has been in Family: The Forming Center. We are making plans for 1992 to have Marjorie J. Thompson to come to our conference to share her vision of "The Role of Family in Spiritual Formation."

In keeping with our conference emphases for reaching the unchurched, we feel that all of these programs are designed to reach out into our communities and draw people into our fellowship. These are programs that people are in need of and we are providing this for them. Johnny Irish, Chairperson

HUMAN SEXUALITY COMMITTEE

The Human Sexuality Committee certifies persons as leaders of Human Sexuality events in the North Texas Conference. During the past year the committee reviewed and updated the requirements for certification. Two persons were certified during the year and three are in process. Training events for those desiring certification are scheduled in September, 1991, and January, 1992. Persons seeking information about setting up a seminar at their church or certification should contact Sharon Adair in the Conference office. Sharon Adair, Chairperson

"Responded Affirmatively"

The Boards ten Divisions and two Committees continue to function well within the structure established in 1988. We have responded to the Bishop's CALL TO COMMUNITY, CONVICTION AND COMMITMENT. Also, the chairperson of the Board has "responded affirmatively" to the invitation to chair the design team for the new CONFERENCE ACADEMY scheduled to be held at a college campus site in the fall of 1992. The Council on Ministries sponsored event purpose is to consolidate the efforts of numerous conference events; serve and strengthen each local church through a variety of leader training courses; and enhance personal growth and development. The once each year academy is expected to reduce the number of events scattered throughout the year; simplify the task of the local church to calendar planning, promotion and travel for conference-level events; improve attendance because of car pooling and other shared costs; and possibilities for local church and annual conference community building.

My personal thanks to the members of the Board, the Division Chairpersons and secretary of the Board, Clayton Oliphint, for their work this year.

Robt. L. Robertson,
Chairperson

THE BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

Missions for the United Methodist of North Texas means the living out of Christlike compassion for the lost, the hurting and those with needs they cannot meet on their own. A practical demonstration of the Good News of the Gospel is found in many forms and through many ministries supported by the North Texas Annual Conference.

The six Divisions of the Board of Global Ministries represent many approaches to bringing the good news to persons locally, nationally and internationally. During the Conference year 1990-91 the Board has spent time designing ways of keeping local churches and their members better informed about how the church represents them in work in the many fields of missions.

Many powerful testimonies about the effectiveness of the mission effort of the United Methodist Church have been made known and circulated. These stories are available in print and in the personalities who were a part of that mission effort.

United Methodist are generous people, when they know of need they answer quickly. We are especially proud to have Dr. Bruce Weaver heading up the work of United Methodist Committee on Relief in the New York office. His work over the years eminently qualifies him for the task and further demonstrates the close involvement of the North Texas Conference in the world wide program to meet the pressing human need.

All local churches are urged to provide a local church Mission Conference. At those conferences, the Board of Global Ministries can provide interpreters to make the message of missions come alive. Contact may be made with a member of the North Texas Conference Board of Global Ministries.

A number of itinerating missionaries currently on leave are available for those conferences and special appearance to tell the exciting story of missions for a local church.

Local churches are also urged to consider a Volunteers in Mission work project using the experience and knowledge of the Division of Volunteers in Mission to find that project, fund it and prepare the volunteers to find a satisfactory investment of time and service.

James B. Palmer, Sr.
Chair

DIVISION OF COMMUNITY MINISTRIES

A wide variety of human service organizations are represented among the 39 agencies receiving funds from the Division of Community Ministries. Members of the division took special care to ensure fair geographical representation across the conference.

The focus for funding is weighted on new ministries started by agencies. This is an effort, by the division, to move away from providing operational funds for agencies and move more toward helping agencies launch innovative programming that in some instances has not been provided in the past.

Thirty-nine agencies received over $95,000 in funding for the conference year 1990-91. A reserve fund of about $5,000 is available for emergency grants during the conference year.

Bruce Moseley,
Chair

DIVISION OF HEALTH AND WELFARE

The United Methodist related institutions affiliated with the Division of Health and Welfare celebrated significant milestones this past conference year. The Methodist Children's Home in Waco celebrated 100 years of service, and was this year selected by the Association of Health and Welfare ministries as the "Childcare Institution of the Year." Also, Dr. Jack Daniels, administrator of the home, was selected as Administrator of the Year.

In one of the most significant, recent accomplishments in the Oak Cliff sector of Dallas, Methodist Hospital opened its new Methodist Medical Center, a premiere hospital complex that is already gaining national reputation. The tubular flourescent lighting outlining the building shines for miles around as a beacon of Methodist presence in hospital ministry in south Dallas, serving the entire metroplex. Member hospitals, Southeastern Medical Center and Charlton Methodist, both reported increases and good progress this past year.

The Methodist Mission Home in San Antonio showed an improvement in financial resources as well as in increased ministries. The year was highlighted by the opening of the newest ministry at the Mission Home: The Southwest Center for Community Re-entry, a ministry of rehabilitation for victims of closed-head injuries. The Mission Home this year is entering into a three-year capital funds campaign for additional buildings and for a permanent endowment fund.

Our "Retirement Homes of North Dallas" celebrated similar milestones, highlighted by the opening of the new independent living Asbury Place, luxury apartments in a retirement community setting. Wesley Village in Denison reports steady progress and has now included personal-care units in the facility which have helped occupancy.

In addition to its liaison work with our institutions, the Division of Health and Welfare in the coming year is sponsoring a local church seminar on ministry to persons with special needs.

REPORT I

> "The Methodist Home is truly a special place steeped in its abiding love for children. My prayer is, as you move into your second century, you will go on seeking the best possible way to express that love by helping the children in your care find the best in themselves so that more and more children can open up their hearts and let the Sun Shine In."
> Barbara Bush

From the moment in April, when over 500 former students returned to the campus for the Centennial Homecoming weekend, bringing with them a special gift for the permanent fund in the amount of $170,008; to the months of May and June during the annual conference sessions when each of the seven annual conferences the United Methodist Church in Texas and New Mexico accorded Methodist Home special recognition through the premiering of the centennial video 'Sunshine Family'; and to the gathering of over 1500 students, staff and Methodist Home friends, including First Lady Barbara Bush for the Methodist Home Centennial Banquet in Waco--this has been an awesome time for all of us at the Methodist Home.

The saga of the ministry of Methodist Home has been one of providing sacramental shelter for children, youth and families for over 100 years--with some 400 children currently in care. From Dr. W. H. Vaughan, who was the first employee of the Methodist Home, to Tim McGonile who is the most recently hired person at the Methodist Home, there have been countless care providers who have shared love and care in this safe haven for children. From David Harrison, who knocked on Dr. Vaughan's door in April, 1894, to Amy Cornelison who is the most recent resident of the Methodist Home, there have been over 10,000 children and youth who have been recipients of this love and care. The early caretakers provided food, clothing and shelter, and that was enough to make them efficient caregivers. In today's work at the Methodist Home the care providers need much greater skills in many areas and it takes all the staff working together to provide a quality ministry. From the maintenance crew that works to keep our grounds beautiful in order to provide a therapeutic physical plant, to the skills of the homeparents who are on the firing line 24 hours a day, to the skills of psychologists and social workers who help a youngster understand what has happened to him does not have to be a stumbling block in his development, but a stepping stone; to the administrators who manage staff and a budget. Everyone has a valuable contribution to this ministry. Our staff today represents persons with over 843 years of higher education. Our care providers are well-trained and equipped for their profession. However, Methodist Home would not have survived for 100 years had it been only for the care providers. Many of you and your forbearers, and the annual conference, have seen children and families in trouble and have called on the Methodist Home. Without your referrals, our ministry would be impossible. Your contributions, and the contributions of a host of people have made the ministry of the Methodist Home possible for over 100 years. Just remember that our needs continue to grow faster than the income from the many sources of revenue. Only serious attention to current endowment giving will help us to continue this sacramental ministry. It is a blessed and successful combination of persons who find those in need of ministry, and provide funds for this ministry, that enables Methodist Home to be the care providers in the day-to-day care, love, and healing for God's children, youth and families. We must gain a renewed sense of blessing and purpose and respond, as did the early Methodists, to God's call and blessing. We need to realize anew their feelings when they wrote, "whereas we believe it meet and right that we show our gratitude to God by suitable material offering; and whereas practical religion cares for the helpless, the poor and the orphan." Our long-range planning process helps us assure Methodist Home will continue to provide excellent child care programs and have suitable financial resources. Methodist home has a documented history of excellence that has placed it in the highest echelon of services to children. We come from a great heritage. Of greater importance is the heritage that we're developing today. We continue to uphold our traditional services by constantly reshaping and enhancing what we do and how we do it. We act today and prepare for tomorrow., We are in partnership with many systems and persons, yet at the same time, we strive to be independent enough from external pressures to be creative and responsive. We're committed to examining innovative services in response to emerging needs, societal changes, in trends and services to children, youth and families. The long range plan emphasizes the growth of our programs in accordance with our financial resources and potential. This is a very ambitious undertaking, but Methodist Home is committed to making it a reality. With our heritage, we can do nothing less. Let us continue with the sacramental ministry of the United Methodist Church that has come to be known as the Methodist Home. Let us march into the second century helping hurting children and troubled families.

HOW NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE CAN HELP METHODIST HOME PERFORM ITS ROLE

1. Promote Methodist Home December Christmas Offering

2. Reaffirm the defense and protection of rights and privileges of children needing care by other than their parents, and uphold the principle of licensing agencies, for purposes of caring for and placing children, to protect minimum standards of care for every child in the care of other persons.

3. Pastors are encouraged to contact Methodist Home directly regarding child placement needs. Call the Methodist Home Services Office located at University Park United Methodist Church, P. O. Box 12186, Dallas, Texas 75225, 214/692-1361.

4. Contact Ty Herring, assistant administrator for development of Methodist Home when individuals indicate consideration of Methodist Home in making their long-range giving and charitable estate planning.

5. Please do not hesitate to call upon Reverend Tom Strother, assistant administrator for Church and Community Relations, or Dr. Jack Kyle Daniels, administrator, for any needs you might have related to Methodist Home.

Dr. Jack Kyle Daniels, Administrator

METHODIST MISSION HOME

As the Mission Home enters its 96th year of Service to those with special needs, I want to thank North Texas Conference for your continued support in this vital ministry through your Offerings, as well as by providing quality Board Members and referring clients ...

TWO important events have happened this past year:

1. The completion of the refurbishing of a building for our Traumatic Brain Injury Program, called Southwest Center for Community Re-Entry. The building provides classrooms, offices and living quarters for 16 clients, our desired maximum residential load for this ministry. For information, call the director, Martha Slaughter, at: 512/699-3311.

2. An Ecumenical ministry for maternity and adoption services in Lufkin, Texas, called the Adoption Center of East Texas in cooperation with St. Cypriates Episcopal Church. The Mission Home's part-time field worker, Cathy Pavlic, has become full-time director of this expanded ministry.

Maternity and Adoption Services continue through the Southwest Maternity Center, with 72 young women, 62 babies, and 380 adoptive parents being served in 1990. Adoptive parents now have the opportunity for a more active role in the adoptive process, as do birthparents, through our optional fully disclosed procedure. For adoptive or maternity information, call: 1-800-VIA Life (1-800-842-5433)

THE SOUTHWEST CENTER FOR THE HEARING IMPAIRED, now in its 17th year, has served persons from 43 states and 2 foreign countries. In 1990, they served 153 persons, and placed 45 of them in competitive employment during that time. If you know a deaf young adult who needs help toward independent living, call the director, Doug Dittfurth, at: 512/699-3311.

I thank the North Texas Conference for the trustees that serve on the Board of Directors, and special thanks to Dr. DeForrest Wiksten, who will be rotating off the Board this year...Board members listed below:

Dr. Jim Addison	Mr. Holman King
Bishop Bruce Blake	Rev. James Ozier
Mr. Jerry Chapman	Mr. Ralph Shannon
Mrs. Elizabeth Criswell	Dr. DeForrest Wiksten
Mr. Jack Dillard

Thanks for the generous support that was given in 1990. Of the $300,701. given by our Seven related Annual Conferences, the North Texas Conference gave $46,311. in 1990, an increase over $41,603., in 1989. THANKS SO MUCH! Please send church funds through your Conference Treasurer for proper church credit!

The Board of Directors, Dr. Jack Hooper, chairman, is currently conducting a study to determine the scope of a possible Capital Funds Campaign among individuals during 1992, which would provide badly needed endowment, as well as physical facilities. For more information about this, contact Larry Watson, vice president for development.

The 80 employees of the Mission Home strive to use our $2.7 million dollars in annual budget revenue in an effective and caring way to help meet the special needs of nearly 1000 persons who come our way each year.

Harold Burkhardt,
President

DIVISION OF NATIONAL AND WORLD OUTREACH

Our chief hope for our work this year was to raise $50,000 for our Conference Advance Special (50% to Andean Rural Health Project in Bolivia and 50% to Bolivian Methodist Church). Although a number of churches followed our suggestion of raising funds outside the budget through a visit to local churches of persons who have taken part in a work project of Andean Rural Health, we can not report the full $50,000 raised. However, we can report the sum of $35,366.68, raised in the following way: $11,842.93--direct support of Andean Rural Health Project from North Texas Churches; $19,686.11--Work team expenditures by members of North Texas Churches; $3,837.64--funds raised by North Texas churches for the Conference Advance Special. We appreciate the fact that this amount of money was given by members in the North Texas Conference.

Our Division, supported by the Board of Global Ministries, has again approved the Bolivian Methodist Church/Andean Rural Health Advance Special for the 1991-1992 conference year.

In cooperation with United Methodist Women, we supported the Cooperative Mission Event on September 14-16, 1990.

Another Conference on the Homeless was held at First United Methodist Church, Richardson, on Saturday, October 6, 1990. We have developed a helpful list of United Methodist members who wish to work on projects for the homeless, and this list of potential leaders has been given to a new Task Force now being formed through the Board of Church and Society.

Our division has sought in a number of ways to strengthen local church involvement in missionary support. Members of our Division have taken part in district training events and have written letters and distributed literature helping local church leaders carry out their task.

DIVISION OF VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION

This was the first year that Volunteers in Mission was designated as a Division. We are the first conference in this jurisdiction to give VIM the status of Division.

We concentrated our planning on providing hands-on work experiences. A work trip to Nicaragua is planned for July. A work trip to Bolivia is planned in September. A work trip to Israel is planned for September. In addition, a compilation of conference work needs was presented at Annual Conference.

We started developing policies which will govern the work of VIM. We submitted a piece of legislation to Annual Conference asking that the clergy be able to go on work trips as part of their continuing education.

We are concerned about educating about hands-on service. One district meeting was successful so we hope to do one in each district. A number of newspaper articles have been in the conference and district newspapers. Various members of the division have given speeches and worked with churches to set up work trip experiences.

DIVISION OF TOWN AND COUNTRY MINISTRIES

The Division of Town and Country began the conference year attempting to sort out its duties and responsibilities in a new alignment that was put in place in the 1990 conference.

The Division has sought to meet the needs of Town and Country churches by making the attempt to stop thinking of itself as solely a grant making body. This Division is making a deliberate attempt to finance the implementation of programming that would benefit Town and Country churches and staffs. The Division is attempting to recognize and honor more successful Town and Country Churches. There are many good things happening in town and country settings and we want the conference to know and appreciate them.

The Division has made grants totaling $75,246.30, and is looking for ways to initiate and finance effective programming for Town and Country churches in the North Texas Conference.

The Division has made grants on buildings, land salaries, and programming as it has sought to fulfill its mission in the North Texas Conference.

The Division solicits your prayers as we attempt to be just stewards of the monies and talents with which we have been entrusted.

Chair

THE DIVISION OF URBAN MINISTRIES

The two articles below by the Reverend Kristie Rosset and the Reverend Kathleen Baskin highlight some of the challenging urban issues which the Division of Urban Ministries and North Texas United Methodist congregations are seeking to address: gang activity, teen-age pregnancy, family violence, drug abuse, and alcoholism, poverty, prejudice, and more. Our prayer and hope is that through the work we all do, by the grace of God, the New Jerusalem will shine through in the communities of North Texas.

The first article, URBAN YOUTH MINISTRY TAKES MANY FORMS by the Reverend Kristie Rossett is as follows: What does youth ministry in the urban setting really mean? In the western shadows of Love Field in Dallas, wedged between Harry Hines Boulevard and Denton Drive, youth ministry takes many shapes. Working in mission with the youth of St. Luke's "Love Field" is, in some ways, no different from working with youth in suburbia or the country. The youth long for a sense of belonging, a sense of God's presence in their lives, and yearn for a spiritual quality of life! However, the particular set of life's struggles in the inner city may be different. The following are glimpses of the past year:

-Being present with 13-year-old Josey as she cradles and touches her newborn son for the very first time. In the midst of this tragic situation, a child into poverty, we witnessed the miracle of God's good creation.

-Talking with 14-year-old Jaime, who joined a gang and dropped out of school.

-Listening to the fears of 14-year-old Esaul as he describes an attack at gunpoint. Another teen-ager mugged him, with a shotgun held to his neck. Listening to this same young man proclaim God's Word in a sermon to the St. Luke's congregation. Esaul adapted Martin Luther King Jr.'s famous sermon,

"I Have A Dream," to proclaim his own vision of a new Dallas, a dream focused on God's peace and justice, with the absence of racism and violence.

-Caring for a 12-year-old girl whose mother recently died, and whose father takes out his anger on this child through threats, beatings, and neglect. Being new to a church community, this girl asked the most important question: "Just who is this Jesus guy?"

-Traveling in mission to a Rio Grande Conference church in the South Texas Valley, with 15 youth and four adults, watching these youth teach Vacation Bible School in both Spanish and English. Celebrating gifts the youth bring from their Hispanic culture,-food, customs, and the great gift of speaking Spanish. Through the church, these youth are encouraged to celebrate their culture as a gift of God, which is not the message many received as Hispanic children in an Anglo society.

-On the mission trip, a 15-year-old girl transformed from a state of sitting in a corner for three days, unable to eat, and barely able to speak, to a smiling, laughing youth, who not only started talking, but also joined in teaching others about the love of Christ.

With the assistance of the Division of Urban Ministries, St. Luke's "Love Field" reaches out to neighborhood youth and children, providing a safe gathering place where they belong and are nourished. Youth come to UMYF with the combined youth groups of Cochran Chapel, Oak Lawn, and Faith United Methodist churches, and attend Sunday School, study hall, drama club, and District and Conference youth events.

In nurturing the youth, the congregation has been blessed. Youth leadership in worship, summer mission trips, drama, and Vacation Bible School, has breathed God's life-giving spirit and enthusiasm into the people of faith we call St. Luke's "Love Field".

Kristie Rosset, an ordained deacon is Minister with Youth and Children at St. Luke's "Love Field" UMC.

The second article, NUEVA ESPERANZA IS FILLED WITH HOPE, by Reverend Kathleen Baskin is as follows: Unidos, unidos, en tu nombre, unidos. Pues en este mundo, paz y amor tendremos.

The new congregation of Nueva Esperanza UMC sings with enthusiasm these words that speak to them of unity, peace, and love in Christ. They sing with open familiarity to a tune that closes every Sunday morning worship service.

On one particular Sunday morning in November, voices have joined once again, complimented only by hands that seek each other out as the last notes are sung. The pastor raises her arms to give the benediction. Suddenly there is a commotion in the back of the room. A group of teen-age boys have circled two others. Fists are flying. Young voices are shouting. Members of the congregation move back to stop the fight. No one really knows why it started. It just did, as it does every day on the streets of West Dallas where this new congregation has begun its ministry.

A few weeks later, near the church, young children get off a school bus. Waiting nearby in a car, four teen-age boys sit, shoulders hunched, eyes carefully perusing the scene before them. They jump out of the vehicle and confront two young boys. With intimidating gestures and verbal threats they issue an "invitation" to join their gang. When the boys shake their heads in a defiant "No" the older boys close in on them. The children, ages nine and ten, refuse the invitation and they are told they will pay. The children are beaten and told there will be more.

And there is more. Every day the children and youth of West Dallas are subjected to the violent oppression of gang activity, drug abuse, alcoholism, poverty, prejudice, and drive-by shooting.

It is no wonder that more and more of these youth find their way through the open doors of Nueva Esperanza, or are found by the open arms of church members.

The mission of the church in West Dallas is clear. Working in concert with Wesley-Rankin Community Center, Nueva Esperanza United Methodist Church is committed to providing an alternative community for God's children - a community where fighting is not tolerated and anger is shared constructively, where alcohol is not permitted and violence is abhorred, where poverty is unjust and racism is viewed as a corruption of the soul, where each person is accepted and embraced as God's sacred child, and where within each individual, the promise of love is honored.

The people at New Hope Church, -Hispanic, African-American, Anglo- continue to sing most vociferously of unity, peace, and love. By the grace of God they will learn to live it. For,
Unidos, siempre unidos, tomandonos los manos.
Iremos por el mundo cantando al amor.
La gloria de Jesus al fin resplandecera'
Y el mundo ilenara' de amor y de paz.

Together we're united; we hold hands as we struggle.
We'll go into the world singing God's song of love.
For the glory of Jesus, resplendent ever will shine,
And the world will be filled with love and peace.

Kathleen Baskin is pastor of New Hope UMC.

GRANT APPLICATION GUIDELINES
THE DIVISION OF URBAN MINISTRIES
NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE

The Division of Urban Ministries shall function in accordance with the current Book of Discipline and will help to develop and strengthen ministries in areas of over 50,000 population in the North Texas Conference. In some instances, financial assistance will be available under the following guidelines:

1. Requests should come from churches seeking to address the challenges of urban living by presenting the gospel for God's people in need. The evangelistic task should be a congregational priority.

2. Specific, written plans for ministry must be submitted and should include goals, geographical area, time period, steps for implementation, and budget. Emphasis on ethnic inclusiveness is essential.

3. Requests must be approved by a responsible layperson in the congregation/parish, the District Superintendent, and the District Urban Ministries Representative.

4. Requests for financial assistance will be prioritized and support granted as funds permit. Application deadlines are September 1 and March 1.

5. Grant renewal beyond the initially approved time period will be considered, but is not ensured.

6. The Conference Council on Ministries will provide staff assistance to facilitate the grant process and will document all expenditures.

7. The application and administration of these guidelines will be by the Division of Urban Ministries, Conference Board of Global Ministries.

8. Urban Ministries Visionaries share funds will be used to develop and implement projects to revitalize United Methodist presence and ministries in urban areas.

9. Approved Urban Ministries grants will be released to a congregation when a statement is received from the District Superintendent documenting the immediate need for the release of funds.

10. Urban Ministries funds may not be used for any purpose other than the specific project for which they were allocated.

Chair

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry represents a unique area of church life in the North Texas Annual Conference. It includes seven Texas Methodist Colleges and five and one-half Campus Ministry Units. In addition, SMU has begun a new United Methodist Campus Ministry, and we have cooperated with the South Central Jurisdiction in that exciting effort. All churches are encouraged to give their full support.

The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry continues to be fully involved with local Campus Ministry Boards and Campus Ministers in seeking ways to enhance the effectiveness of our Campus Ministry Units. Current efforts of the Board and the Divisions include the following:

1. Evaluation procedures for Campus Ministries;
2. Training of local Campus Ministry Boards;
3. The nurture of Campus Ministers;
4. Adequate funding for Campus Ministries;
5. "Reaching The Unchurched," on our college campuses;
6. College Fairs for potential Methodist students;
7. Special African University North Texas Apportionment.

Initial exploratory talks have also begun for a possible new Campus Ministry Unit at Collin County Community College.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The North Texas Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry recommends:

1. That each church accept and pay its Higher Education apportionment in full.
2. That each church re-double efforts to pay its share of support for the new African University - apportionment and special gifts.
3. That each local church designate a person to represent the concerns of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, which would include carrying out these recommendations.
4. That each church nominate, each year, a worthy student to be the recipient of the Conference Merit award. As you know, this money is the provided rebate on our Conference Student Day Offering.
5. That each church support the annual Higher Education offerings (Black College Fund; Hispanic, Asian and Native American - HANA; United Methodist Student Day and World Communion offering).
6. That each church encourage its high school Juniors and Seniors to consider a Methodist institution when choosing a college to attend.
7. That each church encourage high school students and their parents to attend one of the two College Fairs to be offered in the Fall of 1991 or the Spring of 1992. The idea is to learn more about United Methodist Higher Education in Texas. These Fairs will feature highlights of each United Methodist college, distinguished alumni, guests, and scholarship and financial aid information. Watch for details!
8. That each church fill out the equivalent of a Student Information Card, on students going to state colleges or institutions, and send the card to the United Methodist Campus Minister by August 20.

9. That each church consider providing one or more second-mile scholarships to deserving students attending a Texas Methodist College.
10. That each Campus Ministry will participate fully in support of the Conference Missional Priority (Reaching the Unchurched) on the campus as a part of the Methodist connection.
11. Each church invite a Campus Minister to address the church, or some group in the church, concerning the nature and program of one of our Campus Ministries in the North Texas Annual Conference.

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

This year has seen a number of substantive changes at the perkins School of Theology. A modified curriculum has been introduced, and combined with new options available in the Intern Program, students can now plan to graduate in three years. A new schedule also makes it more convenient for persons who commute to the campus. The seminary recognizes the changing nature of its student body and is constantly seeking ways to facilitate their successful completion of their preparation for ministry. A new D. Ministry program focused on church growth will begin in the summer Information about it is available from the Office of Continuing Education.

Professors John Deschner and William R. Farmer both retired this year. Their long years of service have made a significant contribution to all who have been a part of the Perkins community. During the year we have mourned the death of Herndon Wagers. And we celebrated the establishment of an endowed chair in Biblical Hebrew and Old Testament Interpretation. This endowed chair was created by friends of Professor W.J.A. Power, and thus it bears his name.

Student enrollments for the academic year totaled 365 in the fall, with 239 in the M. Division degree program, 59 in other master's programs, 43 in doctor of ministry studies, and the remainder in graduate religious studies. Of the total, 38% are women and 21% are ethnic minority students, including international students.

Both Perkins School of Theology and Southern Methodist University have received their ten year review prior to reaccreditation by the Association of Theological Schools and the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. A comprehensive self-study was undertaken prior to the campus visits of their representatives.

During the year representatives of the school have enjoyed lengthy visits with the Cabinets, Boards of Ordained Ministry, and Conference councils of the Little Rock and North Arkansas Conferences, the Texas Conference, the Oklahoma Conference, and the Southwest Texas Conferences. This continues the practice begun last year. These conversations have been of great help to us as we seek better to assist the church in the completion of its mission. We are grateful to them for their support and interest.

By the end of this year, we expect to have made new appointments in Christian Education, Pastoral Care and Systematic Theology. We covet your prayers as we seek to fulfill our mission on behalf of God's church.

James E. Kirby,
Dean

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

I am pleased to comply with the 1988 Resolution from the Jurisdictional Conference requesting an Annual Report to each Annual Conference in the South Central Jurisdiction.

The academic priorities, which the Board of Trustees approved in December of 1989, have now begun to be implemented. We will begin requiring all entering students in Fall 1991 to have a major and a minor, which will broaden the cross-disciplinary base of our commitment to a central liberal arts undergraduate education. We will continue to refine our curriculum with an eye to the global and multi-cultural nature of our world and the need for strong ethical and technological expertise. To that end we have clearly identified fund raising priorities for science and technology needs at SMU. Additionally, we have appointed Father Charles Curran, a Catholic theologian and ethicist, to fill the Scurlock Chair in Human Values, a University-wide appointment. We have opened the new Hamon Arts Library this Fall and have broken ground for a new Greer Garson Theater, both of which continue our strong commitment to the arts.

Southern Methodist University continues to make progress on achieving a balanced budget by 1991-93, through a series of expenditure reductions and a variety of fund raising initiatives. Our strong need is in the area of unrestricted endowment, and particularly student financial aid. We were pleased to receive a five million dollar gift from Roy Huffington of Houston for the unrestricted endowment, but much more is needed.

It is with a great sense of satisfaction that I report to you that the new United Methodist Campus Minister, Reverend Greg Ligon, has been making outstanding inroads into developing a new United Methodist Ministry at SMU. The Jurisdictional commitment to this Ministry is vital to our commitment to United Methodist SMU students. We are hopeful that you will continue to encourage United Methodist prospective students to consider SMU.

We are pleased to have Forrest Gregg as the new Athletic Director and I am confident that under his leadership our program of achieving the appropriate student-athlete model at SMU will continue.

We continue to appreciate your interest and support for SMU. With your prayers and gifts, we shall continue to move forward in making SMU outstanding United Methodist institution of higher learning.

SOUTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

We "have serious concerns for the strength of the private sector [in higher education] should current trends and policies continue." So wrote the Task Force on State Policy and Independent Higher Education in its recent report entitled THE PRESERVATION OF EXCELLENCE IN AMERICAN HIGHER EDUCATION; THE ESSENTIAL ROLE OF PRIVATE COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES(1990).*

The Task Force described the American system of higher education as the finest in the world, recognized as such not only by Americans but, by leading international educators. It provides greater opportunity for a larger number of students, has a higher level of quality, and is more diverse than any other system in the world.

The sense of concern manifested by the Task Force regarding current trends in private higher education stems from the fact that "the trend line in distribution of enrollment shows a substantial reduction in the historic role of the private sector within all of higher education [p. 16.]" From a level of 50% in 1950, private higher education enrolled only 22% of all college and university students in 1990. One of the areas of greatest decline has been in the category of colleges, Liberal Arts Colleges II, to which Southwestern is assigned by the most recent Carnegie Classification. These colleges numbered 550 in 1970 and 400 in 1987.

Although those institutions which have changed their mission continue to "perform important educational and public services," nevertheless "many have lost their distinctive characteristics" in becoming more like other colleges in their range of offerings.... "Some have undertaken programs which are not well integrated with their historic missions and some have overextended themselves to the point where the quality of some programs suffers." "Yet," said Task Force, "it is the Liberal Arts II institutions that provide the greatest diversity within American higher education and the most service to specialized segments of the American population [pp. 16-17]."

The Task Force concluded that private colleges and universities "stimulate independence, autonomy and diversity in all of higher education. And by serving important public purposes, largely with private resources, they provide a valuable and financially prudent service to the state and nation [p. 8]." It is for this reason that the Task Force looked on current trends with such concern.

Even though Southwestern has become stronger -- not weaker -- during the past decade and is not among those institutions which have disappeared or become like other colleges in their range of offerings, or undertaken programs not well integrated with their historic mission, it does participate in the increasingly negative environment for all of higher education. We live in a difficult period for higher education. The rising cost of operating a university and a shrinking pool of eighteen year-olds has made the ability to achieve and maintain quality very difficult for many small colleges and universities.

We at Southwestern are very fortunate to have a wonderful reputation, a fine position in the marketplace, generous support from our constituencies, and a faculty, staff, and student body that are among the very best. Though we still have difficult goals to achieve in the expansion and development of faculty, plant, growth and renovation, acquisition of equipment, and support resources to foster excellence in the academic program, all of these goals are within our reach. I remain confident that the end of the 1990s will see Southwestern as successful in achieving its Master Plan goals as it was in the 1980s.

Just as I began this report by quoting from the report of the Task Force on State Policy and Independent Higher Education, I would like to conclude with its vision of the system best suited to serve our country. It says that that system should have these characteristics [p. 36]:

-"Access for every qualified high school graduate who wishes to attend an institution of higher education within reasonable distance from home, with adequate financial resources available to make attendance possible.

-Highly diverse institutions among which students may choose, with their choices made reasonably possible among both private and public institutions.

-Wise use of taxpayers' money, utilizing available private resources and private institutions where that will increase total system efficiency and effectiveness.

-Institutions which, while varied in many other respects, are financially able to serve students from all income levels and are available to students from all racial, ethnic, and religious backgrounds.

-Academic programs of great variety and high quality throughout.

-Institutions, both public and private, which are largely autonomous within their missions, competitive with each other, dynamic in their adjustments to social needs and free to innovate."

I am pleased to work as a part of the United Methodist system of higher education in constructing this kind of educational system through our joint venture at Southwestern University.

Roy B. Shilling, Jr.
President

*p2. The Task Force was commissioned by the Education Commission of the States. The primary purpose of the commission is to help governors, state legislators, state education officials, and others develop policies to improve the quality of education at all levels. Forty-nine states, the District of Columbia, American Samoa, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands are members. Pagination references and statistics through this section of my report refer to the Commission's printed report.

TEXAS UNITED METHODIST COLLEGE ASSOCIATION

On behalf of the seven United Methodist Colleges and Universities in Texas, I thank you for your support. In 1990, the North Texas Conference contributed $180,592.38 to "Texas Methodist Colleges" and $157,334.46 to the Black College Fund.

These funds are important to the colleges, and even more important to the more than 7000 students whom you and the other four annual conferences in Texas helped to support in 1990. All of the funds received from the Texas Methodist Colleges apportionment, and most of those received from the Black College fund, go to scholarships and financial aid for needy students. The colleges apportionment is a scholarship apportionment.

The importance of these funds is reflected in the following figures for the fall of 1990:

	Percentage of Undergraduate Students receiving Aid	Average Amount of Aid per Recipient
Huston-Tillotson College	87.7%	$4,797
Lon Morris College	91%	$2,513
McMurry University	74%	$5,310
Southern Methodist University	53%	$7,562 Grants $5,405 Loans $1,162 Work
Southwestern University	71.2%	$7,945
Texas Wesleyan University	83%	$3,502
Wiley College	90%	$5,347

These figures show that over 65% of the undergraduates in our seven colleges and universities receive aid, and the average amount of aid each of them receives ranges from over $2,500 to over $13,000! Providing these funds is a major challenge for our institutions - an annual challenge! Your support is very important in making this possible; it is only because of you and other supporters that our colleges can give such aid to deserving students. And it is because of this aid that our colleges can continue their mission.

We appreciate your support in the past; we ask for your continuing support in the present and in the future. Remember: ALL of your apportioned dollars to "Texas Methodist Colleges" go to scholarships, and most of the dollars given to the Black College Fund go to scholarships.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

The membership of the Commission is 15; two representatives from each district and the chairperson elected by the Conference Nominating Committee. Carol O'Cain, from Van Alstyne, was elected chair in 1988.

The Commission sponsored 2 workshops for local church historians in the spring of 1991 with over 35 in attendance. Leadership was provided by Carol O'Cain, Jessamine Younger from Highland Park, Shirley Faile from Chinns Chapel, Fred Tarpley from Commerce, Elwood Poore from Gainesville and Walter Zimmerman, pastor of First Mesquite. These events provided basic training for local church historians. They were scheduled at First UMC in Richardson on March 16, 1991 and First UMC in Gainesville on April 27, 1991.

Highland Park UMC published their local church history "Branches of The Living Vine." This was a 75 year history for the church and serves as a beautiful example of 'capturing the past for future generations.' The Commission celebrates with HPUMC in accomplishing this publication.

Carol O'Cain,
Chair

COMMISSION ON THE BLACK CHURCH

We have continued our efforts, to develop leaders and increase lay participation in training events across the conference and beyond. In conformance with the Standing Rule #3, co-sponsorship of a Proposal Writing Seminar for all ethnic groups was held in February 1991. We have already witnessed submission of a Proposal, resulting from the training at this event.

During September 1990, eleven black clergy were provided assistance to attend a Jurisdictional training event at the Gulf-side Assembly. We have seen growth in one of the black churches following the Minister's participation in that event.

In August 1989, the Commission sponsored a tour of United Methodist related Black Colleges for youth entering their senior year of high school. Eight youth from the North Texas Conference were included. We are happy to report, that three of the eight enrolled in one of the colleges toured on that trip. We will sponsor the same trip again in 1991, and hope we are as successful in recruiting students for our black colleges.

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

This year the Commission of Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns (C.U.I.C.) has given special attention to the consultation on church union's proposed churches in covenant communion. This proposal for the organized communion of the United Methodist Church with eight other denominations will be voted on at the upcoming 1992 General Conference of the United Methodist Church. C.U.I.C. has sought to raise awareness of the Churches in Covenant Communion Proposal in the North Texas Conference by doing the following:

1) Obtaining materials providing information about the proposal and making them available to the conference; these materials include copies of the C.O.C.U. Consensus, In Quest of a Church of Christ Uniting, Church in Covenant Communion, The Church of Christ Uniting, study guides, and video tapes explaining the proposal.
2) Developing and testing a model for in-depth study of the proposal in the local church and making this model available to the conference.
3) Arranging for Bishop Blake to address issues raised by the proposal at the C.U.I.C. breakfast at the 1991 annual conference.

Glenn Noblin, chairperson of C.U.I.C. represented the commission on an annual conference task force, which developed resources for congregations to implement Bishop Blake's call to implement cultural exchange (behavior #4).

The commission was represented in the past year at both Texas Impact and the Texas Conference of Churches. It also allocated $500 for Pa Nous Pan, a commission member, to attend the upcoming World Methodist Conference.

COMMISSION ON COMMUNICATIONS AND RESOURCES

The Commission on Communications and Resources continued its emphasis on "Communicating with the Unchurched" by enabling local churches in their call to spread the "Good News" throughout the communities of the North Texas Conference.

Commission members have been committed to sharing their various skills and knowledge of modern media as a way of telling the "old, old story" in new and fresh ways. Our work is two-fold: 1) We communicate with The United Methodist Church to persons in north Texas as a way of inviting them into relationship with Christ and His Church. Three committees within the Commission oversee this work.

Highlights of the work of the Print Media Committee, chaired by Eric Williams, include:

1. Publishing of the North Texas Conference page of The United Methodist Reporter, edited by J. William Matthews, associate director of the Conference Council on Ministries, and assisted by circulation secretary, Shirley Cooper. The Commission adopted a new policy statement for the publication of this weekly paper, which is received by 75% of the membership of the North Texas Conference.
2. Continued campaign to increase conference page subscriptions.
3. Publishing of the Conference Calendar and bi-monthly resource packet.
4. Initiated a series of articles on persons in our Annual Conference who serve on general church boards and agencies.
5. Planned for the publication of a second Annual Conference daily newspaper, edited by Don Small.

The Telecommunications Committee, chaired by Tim Crouch, made the following contributions:

1. Contributed to the production of "Faith Focus," an ecumenical talk show sponsored by the Greater Dallas Community of Churches. The Commission members belong to the steering committee for the program, which airs on Sunday at 6:30 a.m. on Channel 5 KXAS TV.
2. Selected ten churches to receive grants totaling $16,000 on the basis of "Communicating with the Unchurched" programs.
3. Worked with United Methodist Media Services, a division of the United Methodist Communications Council of Texas and New Mexico, in providing good public relations for the church. Media Services also helped several local churches obtain signs to welcome and direct visitors to church buildings.
4. Continued to make contacts throughout the Conference to promote the ecumenical cable TV network, VISN.

The Conference Resource Center Committee, chaired by Rona Vickers, worked with Librarian Shirley Cooper on the following accomplishments:

1. Served almost 200 local churches in the Annual Conference who are CRC members, as well as 40 churches of other denominations.
2. Acquired new video tapes and audio-visual equipment.
3. Rona Vickers, Chair, represented the Commission at the "Celebration of Culture" event on April 12 and 13 at the Bridgeport Conference Center and displayed materials available through the Conference Resource Center.

The Commission on Communications and Resources combined efforts with the Division on Stewardship, the Division of Children's Ministries and the Council on Finance and Administration in sponsoring a Mission Education Montage coloring project for children across the Annual Conference. The original art work was created by Tom Gibson, Missions Communications artist. Posters, study guides and lesson plans focusing on stewardship and ministries made possible through apportioned funds were sent to every local church. District winners were selected, and a conference winner was recognized at the 1991 session. The Commission appointed an Apportionment Task Force to design more ways of interpreting and promoting apportionment giving.

Strengthened ties between the Commission and The United Methodist Reporter have benefited both groups. The Commission Chair, as well as the Bishop and Conference Council on Ministries Director, currently represent the North Texas Conferences as members of the United Methodist Communications Council of Texas and New Mexico (owner body of the Reporter). The Chair also serves on the Executive Committee of the UMR governing board.

challenged members to stay tuned to "God's channel." In a day of ever-increasing technology which is constantly creating better forms of communication, our Commission strives to help God's world stay tuned to "God's channel." For this privilege and opportunity, we are grateful.

Mary Brooke Casad,
Chair

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

Believing that the ministry of the Commission on Religion and Race is an expression of the gospel, and that "all this is from God who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation" (2 Corinthians 5:18), we humbly make this report, with the wish that we could have done more. This Commission:

1. Related with the Dallas Indian United Methodist Church through their pastor Rev. Charles Battiest who was co-opted as honorary member of the Commission. Fifty percent of the conference Native American Awareness Sunday offerings amounting to $563.02 was used to help his church reach out to the American Indians in the Metroplex through newsletters, and to buy Sunday School and other curriculum materials;

2. Sponsored an Annual Conference luncheon on June 5, 1990 with Dr. Lavelle Lowe Jr., pastor of Chapel Hill UMC in San Antonio, Dr. John Soper and Rev. Victor McCullough as speakers. Recipients of the Inclusiveness Awards were Rev. William J. Bryan III, Rev. Victoria Davidson, Rev. Richard Flach, Rev. Bourdon Smith, Rev. Roger Woods and Judge Carolyn Wright. A special offering to the ;amount of $5623 was given to Spring Valley UMC of its Vietnamese program. Rev. Jordan Gary coordinated the program.

3. Sponsored a Convocation with Hamilton Park and Highland Park Bridge-Building Dialogue Committee as Co-sponsors. Bishop Bruce P. Blake was the speaker and a group of panelists dealt with the question "Can We Dwell in Unity?" Dr. Dick Rubottom coordinated the program.

4. Sponsored the Religion and Race Sunday for observance in local churches one Sunday in February, or any Sunday in the year decided upon by the local church.

5. Published the brochure "Unique and United" through the help of the Rev. Chauncey Nealy of the Commission on Communications;

6. Advocated for the "Crossroads" program of the Greater Dallas Community of Churches.

7. Assigned members of the Commission to the different agencies of the conference for monitoring and consultative relationships.

8. Funded the following efforts to reach out and strengthen leadership:
   a. Korean Leadership Training
   b. Ten Asian women to attend the National Assembly of the United Methodist Women.
   c. Radio Ministry of Pleasant Mound Indian Mission
   d. Ethnic youth to attend the National and International Affairs Seminar
   e. Twelve ethnic laypersons to attend the Bishop's Laity Conference in Wichita Falls
   f. Three Commission members to attend "The Gathering" in Ft. Worth

The amount of $8,944.60 was spent for all the programs within the year 1990.

Facing the future we make the following appeals:

1. Actualize the #4 Behavior on Cultural Exchange presented by Bishop Blake in his document, A Call to Community, Conviction and Commitment: that every local church "develop at least one educational exchange with persons of a cultural expression of faith different from that of the majority of the congregation...to be completed by September 1991 and reported to the annual church/charge conference in the fall of 1991.

2. Elect delegates to the general and jurisdictional conferences the rich and diverse cultures of our annual conference:

3. Advocate for the continuation of the Commission on Religion and Race in the structure of the United Methodist Church since we have just begun to open up to the rich possibilities of inclusiveness in our churches;

4. Include Religion and Race Sunday in our churches' calendar to focus on inclusiveness through studies, programs or projects;

5. Continue to work towards open itinerancy in our conference;

6. Watch for the General Council on Ministries recommendation on "A New Beginning" for 1992 focusing on the place of American Indians in the country's history;

7. Pray for the love of God in Jesus Christ to fill us all as we participate in the ministry of reconciliation.

ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS COMMITTEE

The concerns of ethnic local churches of this annual conference are as diverse as the people themselves. Their common ground is faith in Jesus Christ as Lord, and a relentless desire to bring people to him via the church.

The ELCCC has the challenging yet exciting responsibility of maintaining a knowledge and sensitivity of each cultural group, as well as guiding and advising that group in its quest toward greater development. The ELCCC continued to forge ahead this year toward that goal with great deliberateness.

As the ethnic population of the north Texas area continues to rapidly increase, the ELCCC realizes the growing importance of our UMC ethnic local churches in reaching the unchurched. In light of this, when an ethnic local church comes to us and says, "I have a dream for my church," we try and make it happen. Their dream may take the form of a new roof, staff salaries or hymnals. The more creative the better. We understand that ministry is exciting and varied in the 1990s.

The ELCCC co-sponsored a grant proposal writing seminar along with the Commission on the Black Church. The one and a half day event was lead by grant grant proposal writing expert Betty Henderson, an annual conference council staffer from Philadelphia. At the seminar's conclusion the participants were not only equipped to apply for grants, but they were also enthusiastic about their newly created abilities.

The intentional nurturing of ethnic youth is also a priority of the ELCCC. We understand that tomorrow's leaders must be groomed today. This year we set aside funding to ensure that ethnic youth would be able to attend the annual United Methodist youth seminar in Washington, D.C.

Also the ELCCC played a major role in launching the annual conference-wide cultural exchange program among local churches of different racial backgrounds. Our Bishop has requested that we move away from perfunctory inclusiveness and toward meaningful, lasting relationships. The ELCCC is working to ensure that any local church interested in pairing with a church of another race is assisted in that matching process.

Overall this has been a busy and productive year. We have accomplished much, yet we have so much more to do.

LAY ORGANIZATIONS

COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRIES

Our conference continues to provide a wide variety of quality programming for youth. The CCYM provides leadership for 19 of these events each year. And each year the number of participants continues to grow.

This past year was transitional. Many of the members were new to the council. Due to the Spiritual Life Rally held in Dallas last summer, the CCYM was unable to hold it's annual group building time. This was corrected at the end of the year at our annual planning and group building retreat at Bridgeport. The CCYM that emerged from that retreat in April is the strongest one we have had in years. This puts us in an excellent position for the coming year.

Directors and design teams have now been recruited for all events in the coming year and the CCYM looks forward to the coming year.

Walt Marcum, Coordinator

LAY SPEAKERS

Caring and leading have been the main emphasis of Lay Speaking this past year. This has been possible through education and communication of the laity and clergy. The REPORTER has had information about lay speaking and has been very cooperative as a news media.

Each of the seven districts has had or participated with another district in both basic and advanced training sessions. Some of the ten approved advance have been taught with the most emphasis on Caring, Leadership and Worship. These courses have helped Lay Speakers in their ministries in nursing homes, jails and detention centers to name a few.

Lay Speakers are under the direction of the clergy and are looking forward to helping implement the "New Behaviors" as recommended by Bishop Blake for the North Texas Conference. We are here to serve wherever and whenever needed.

Our goal of more and better trained Lay Speakers is ever present. We hope that each church will encourage dedicated persons to become involved in the Lay Speaking program so that we can all be a part of moving God's Kingdom forward. Spiritual motivation and prayer can make this happen.

UNITED METHODIST MEN

The National UMM continues to be the fastest growing organization in the Church. They now sponsor more Boy Scout troops than any other National body (over 500,000 boys). David Worley, Scout Executive for Methodism, has now moved to Las Colinas for better staff support. It is anticipated that the UMM Foundation will pass the $500,000 mark in two years. (Just for the Scouting program)

The MOVING UNITED METHODIST program grew another 25% last year to 25,135. This vital Evangelistic tool is used by our Conference. (Call 1-800-624-4130 to report those moving.) The PRAYER ADVOCATE MINISTRY grew to over 100,000 requests. The EVANGELISM, MISSION and SPIRITUAL LIFE enlistment is now over 10,000 men. UMM gave the Africa Mission an Airplane this year.

THE GENERAL CONFERENCE now requires a UMM in each church. All units need to re-charter annually (Just send $35. to Box 840, Nashville, 37202.) Because most of our units do not re-charter we are listed as one of the lowest in the nation. UMM has so much to offer our Men and our Churches.

The National organization has been concerned about helping our local units become more effective in its ministry to Men and the Church. As national Chairman, I have conducted the largest Sociological survey of UMM in history. The National Conference Presidents heard the report March 8th and promptly set up a NATIONAL TRAINING PROGRAM for Dallas, August 3rd, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. While the training is to assist Conference presidents, I am offering ANY layman in our Conference an opportunity to attend. They need to register by July 15th with $25. for full participation and materials. Send registration to TRAINING, 14014 Peyton Drive, Dallas 75240, and I will personally give them to the Registrar. It will be held at DFW hotel. I have assisted over 100 churches this year as well as 1000 hours for the survey. Call me if I can help, 214/661-3337.

President

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

"The organized unit of United Methodist Women shall be a community of women whose purpose is to know God, and experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ..." Thus reads the first priority of the purpose of United Methodist Women. With spiritual guidance, these women seek to do God's will in their churches and communities reaching out to those around them. They are active in study and in their local community centers, in tutoring children and in many other church related activities. These women should be applauded for their efforts.

The Conference organization has been busy in many areas as well. The 1990 School of Christian Mission, held July 16-19, had the theme "Christian Faith and Cultural Realities." The School, held at Lovers Lane United Methodist Church for the sixth consecutive year, was most enthusiastically received by 300 participants studying in eight separate classes on: People of the Prophetic Church: Central America; Gospel, Culture and Media; and Galatians. 59 children attended with 39 taking special study classes.

The Annual Meeting of United Methodist Women was a highlight of the year. First United Methodist Church in Sherman was the site that welcomed 366 persons for the event. Mrs. Mai Gray, a past President of the Women's Division, was the keynote speaker and spoke on the theme "Witnesses With Power For a New World." Six workshops were held with subjects of: "Prayer Power," "Ministries to Central America," Moppets & Mommies," "Renewing Volunteer Ministries," Racism: "I Thought I Took Care Of That" and "Mission Is Possible."

Training of District Officers is always an important time of growth and fellowship. The 1990 event took place at Whaley United Methodist Church in Gainesville. The Theme was "Continuing Mission in Word and Deed" with special emphasis on membership and finance. Martha King, of Rome, Georgia, was the guest speaker.

Goals were set for 1991 in November looking to the Purpose of United Methodist Women and to God for guidance.

The Financial Promotion Workshop was held in March 1991 as a training for understanding how the mission money is used and the financial relationship between the separate Divisions that make up the General Board of Global Ministries. Sandy Wilder, staff person from New York, along with Dr. Thalia Matherson and Agnes Howton, Directors, led the workshop.

CELEBRATING OUR DIVERSITY, A CROSS CULTURAL EXPERIENCE, was the title of the weekend event held at Lake Bridgeport in April. The purpose of the event was to bring together persons of all ethnic backgrounds represented within the Conference for dialogue and fellowship of sharing ideas. This event, a first in the conference, was sponsored by the Conference United Methodist Women along with the Conference Board of Church and Society and the Conference Commission on Religion and Race. Mrs. Mai Gray was the keynote speaker. Four workshops were held: Institutional Racism In The Church; They Don't Wear Sheets; Racism In The Workplace; and Parenting For Inclusiveness.

The Conference will continue to strive to uphold the local unit of United Methodist Women at the upcoming event, Each Local Woman, Claiming Our Heritage In Mission, to take place in November in Dallas. 35 women from across the conference will be participating along with women from three other conferences in this Jurisdiction. The event will be a special opportunity to understand the organization of United Methodist Women and its importance in mission.

Dallas will be the site of the 1992 Quadrennial Meeting of the South Central Jurisdiction of the United Methodist Women to be held April 3-5. This will be an exciting time as the North Texas Conference United Methodist Women will be in charge of the local arrangements. The event welcomes any UMW member.

As we look to be in mission to each other and those around the world, we look to God for our strength and guidance.

President

PROFESSIONAL MINISTRIES

BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

Again this year has been an active year for the Board of Diaconal Ministry. Our Diaconal, Lay and Clergy members have served with dedication during this year.

The Division of Salaries, Insurance and Pensions continued their work on a benefit booklet for Diaconal Ministers. They also brought a legislative proposal to the Annual Conference regarding employment policies for Diaconal Ministers and have developed material for churches and agencies in order to assist them in the implementation of this proposal.

The Division of Professional Growth has continued to develop ways for Diaconal Ministers and certified professionals in the church to meet their continuing education requirements. A reading list is nearing completion as one part of this support.

The Division of Recruitment and Interpretation continued to support its speakers bureau and has prepared a display for this Annual Conference. A training session for Mentors was held this spring.

The Division of Consecration, Certification and Conference Relations has been aided by the entire Board in bringing all files of persons in process up to date with all such persons being interviewed during this year. A new procedure/time line for candidacy in Diaconal Ministry has been finished and a new reporting cycle established.

This year the Board has certified the following persons: Ann Wilson as Director of Christian Education, Sarah Squires as Director of Christian Education, Linda Marie Smith as Associate in Christian Education and Walt Marcum as Minister of Youth.

We recommend the following for leave of absence: Glynda Groth (5), Jo Ann Blount (3), Royce Hardaway (3), Dorothy Holloman (3), Leslie S. Stevens (3), Jan Wiksten (2), Karan Marshall (2), Cindy Palmer Shirley (2), Susan McConnell (1), Espie del Rosario (1), and Lydia Shook McMahan (1). We approve the transfer out of Michael Wright-Chapman to the Central Texas Conference and the transfer in of Lydia Shook McMahan from the Southwest Texas Conference. We also recommend retirement for Jane Bach, Opal Peyron and Ray Starnes.

We have approved four persons for Consecration: Sarah Johnson Squires, Ann Short Wilson, Jayne C. Wolfe and Rita M. Yoes. With these four persons there are 59 Diaconal Ministers in the North Texas Annual Conference: 36 active, 11 on leave of absence and 12 retired.

We look forward to another productive year for the Board of Diaconal Ministry as we continue to be servants of the church.

January 23 & 24, 1992	Interviews for Elder and/or Full Connection

CONTINUATION OF PROBATIONARY MEMBERSHIP

It is the responsibility of the Board of Ordained Ministry under the direction of paragraph 417 to nurture those persons who are probationary members of the North Texas Annual Conference.

To be continued as a probationary member, candidates shall make regular progress in their ministerial studies. In order to help the progress of the probationary members and eliminate as many problems as possible, the Division has chosen to interview these persons annually in a brief personal consultation by members of the Division. Each probationary member is required to fill out a progress form provided by the Registrar Charles Cox and submit it to a member of the Division during this consultation. Failure to meet for this consultation with the Division could result in termination of Probationary Membership.

The date for the probationary member consultation will be Thursday, March 12, at University Park United Methodist Church, 4024 Caruth Drive, Dallas, Texas.

CONTINUING PROBATIONER INTERVIEWS

March 12	Consultation with continuing Probationary member (9:30 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.) University Park, by appointment

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR STUDENTS

The Board of Ordained Ministry has available scholarships for qualified persons who are planning for full-time ministry in The United Methodist Church, ORDAINED OR DIACONAL. These funds are primarily for students in seminary, but there are funds which can be used by undergraduates.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR CANDIDATES IN SEMINARY

The application procedure for scholarships has the following three requirements:

1. Certified Candidates in seminary must submit a personal letter requesting their scholarship each semester (fall, January, spring, or summer) a scholarship is desired, indicating current student classification, their seminary, their district Superintendent, and their current mailing address.

2. Certified Candidates in seminary must request their District Superintendent's confirmation of their status as a certified candidate for ministry (See paragraphs 404-405 or 304-305) be reported immediately after their initial certification as a candidate during the conference year and annually, thereafter, in the fall for the current conference year. Ordained Deacons should have their District Superintendent verify their status annually in the fall. Note that scholarships may be granted for the semester during which a candidate becomes certified, when the application procedure is completed.

3. Certified Candidates in seminary must request their accredited seminary's registrar office to certify and report the number of hours for which they are registered each semester (fall, January, spring, or summer) after the add/drop date. Make certain this report indicates the number of registered hours, for the basis of determining the amount of the scholarship is $45 per semester hour.

These three items should be sent to the Seminary Scholarship Chairperson, Fred Kandeler, P.O. Box 12038, Dallas, Texas 75225. When all three items have been received by the chairperson, a request for funding will be processed immediately and a check issued to the certified candidate by the Office of Finance and Administration.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR CANDIDATES IN UNDERGRADUATE SCHOOL

The procedure for applications for funds for students attending college is as follows:

1. A letter each year from your District Superintendent stating that you have been certified as a candidate for ministry. (See paragraphs 404-405 or 304-305)
2. A letter each semester from the college you are attending stating the number of hours you are taking that semester
3. A personal statement from you each semester about your progress and plans as they develop

All these letters should be sent to the Undergraduate Scholarship Chairperson, Joe Ed Goolsby, P. O. Box 738, Denton Texas 76202. Requests may be made to the Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry when unusual circumstances arise that require special financial assistance other than the regular scholarship aid.

REPORT II: THE PASTORAL RESIDENCY PROGRAM

The Need For The Pastoral Residency Program

Pastors in their first years of full-time ministry following graduation from seminary inevitably deal with a number of personal, spiritual, and professional issues and develop patterns for ministry which, in all likelihood, will remain in place for the entirety of their ministry. These issues include, but are not limited to:

1. relationship to itinerancy
2. integration into the connectional structure
3. addressing areas of weakness and strength
4. reality testing of expectations related to full-time ministry
5. developing ability to reflect critically on ministry
6. shaping ongoing spiritual and study disciplines

7. initiating collegial identity
8. clarifying professional identity
9. adjusting to changes in family life

Since these issues seem to be present for all persons entering their first full-time appointment, the time period between graduation from seminary and admittance into full membership in the Annual Conference provides an excellent opportunity to help promote in pastors increased levels of knowledge, maturity, healthy peer relationships, and competency. Indeed, there probably is no better time to impact those in ministry than in these highly formative years.

The Pastoral Residency Program
All probationers following their graduation from seminary and prior to their admittance into full membership in the Annual Conference and all Elders transferring into probationary membership from other denominations will participate in the Pastoral Residency Program.

The program will last approximately two years. The first year of residency will begin in August following graduation and be completed at the end of May. The second year will begin in June and end in May with the final Peer Group meeting.

The residency program will be supervised by a Pastoral Residency Committee which will be nominated by the Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, Registrar, Candidacy Registrar, and the Residency Committee Chairperson of the Division of Preparation and Qualifications, and be approved by the Division of Preparation and Qualifications.

The major participants in the program will include the Resident, a Peer Group, Peer Group facilitators selected by the Pastoral Residency Committee, a Counseling Elder, the Laity Residency Committee, the District Superintendent, and the Pastoral Residency Committee.

Residents will not be expected to pay for their participation in the program. They will be reimbursed for travel expense at the level set by the Annual Conference.

The three major goals of the Pastoral Residency Program are:

1. support for probationary members as they make the transition from seminary or another denomination into full-time ministry in the United Methodist Church
2. spiritual, personal, and professional growth
3. evaluation of candidates seeking Elder's Orders and full conference membership

Design For The Pastoral Residency Program
Many pastors already will have participated in an excellent internship program while in seminary. Indeed, the Division of Preparation and Qualifications continues to recommend highly that all seminary students participate in a local church internship while in seminary if such an opportunity is available. The Pastoral Residency Program offers a unique complementary opportunity since the context of supervision in the educational process necessarily has different goals, experiences, and implications from that which occurs in the midst of full-time ministry.

Although a limited number of clergy choose to pursue valuable and much-needed expressions of ministry beyond the local church, the Pastoral Residency Program has been designed with the assumption that most ministers will spend the majority of their ministry in the local church. Accordingly, persons serving in beyond the local church appointments will be addressed on an individual basis to insure that they have adequate involvement in a local church.

The fact that the program lasts for approximately two years enables the second year to be a time when specific areas of concern which emerged during the first year can be addressed. It also will assist Residents in preparing themselves for their written work and interviews for Elder's Orders and full conference membership.

A benefit of the Pastoral Residency Program is that its format will enable the North Texas Conference to exercise greater responsibility for, and more significant influence in, the training and selection of ministers who will serve in North Texas.

First Year of Residency (August - May)

A. An orientation session for participants will take place on August 20, 1991 from 10:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at First United Methodist Church, Lewisville. Those attending will be the Residents, their Counseling Elders, Peer Group Facilitators, District Superintendents, and members of the Pastoral Residency Committee.

The program will include such issues as: (1) an introduction to the Pastoral Residency Program; (2) introduction to Counseling Elders and Peer Group Facilitators; and (3) community building.

B. An orientation session for chairpersons of the Laity Residency Committee will occur on September 22, 1991 from 3:00 to 4:30 p.m. at First United Methodist Church in Lewisville. Residents need to send the names of their Laity Residency Committee Chairperson to the Chairperson of the Pastoral Residency Committee by August 31, 1991.

C. Requirement for each Resident:

1. Four one-hour sessions with the District Superintendent.

2. Monthly two-hour Peer Group sessions. The purpose of the Peer Group is to help the Resident address the issues set forth in the first paragraph of this document. Residents are expected to provide support, encouragement, and mutual accountability as active participants in this process. Facilitators, appointed by the Pastoral Residency Committee, will direct the Peer Group in accomplishing this.

3. Monthly one-hour sessions with Counseling Elder. The Resident will present a minimum of four reflection papers dealing with personal, spiritual, and/or professional issues mutually agreed upon by the Resident and the Counseling Elder.

4. One sermon tape each in the fall and spring of sermons actually preached. These will be critiqued by the District Superintendent, Laity Residency Committee, and the Counseling Elder.

5. At least one joint meeting with the Counseling Elder and Laity Residency Committee will focus on the committee's input and evaluation.

6. Four one-and-one-half hour sessions with Laity Residency Committee which will provide support to the Resident.

D. The Chairpersons of the Laity Residency Committee will have a meeting January 12, 1992 from 3:00 to 4:30 p.m. at First United Methodist Church, Lewisville.

E. The Counseling Elders will have a mid-year meeting January 29, 1992 from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at First United Methodist Church, Lewisville.

F. The Resident, District Superintendent, Counseling Elder, and Peer Group Facilitators will send letters by February 28, 1992 to the Chairperson of the Pastoral Residency Committee. These letters will evaluate the Resident's growth relative to personal, spiritual, and professional issues and note areas of concern which need to be addressed during the second year of Residency.

G. On March 12, 1992, at University Park United Methodist Church, the Resident will meet with the Division of Preparation and Qualifications to review the evaluative material provided by the Resident, District Superintendent, Counseling Elder, and Peer Group Facilitators.

H. Information will be forwarded to the Resident, District Superintendent and Counseling Elder by early June concerning the specific areas which need to be addressed by the Resident during the second year.

Second Year of Residency (June - January)

A. The Resident will meet twice with the District Superintendent.

B. The Resident will meet monthly with the Counseling Elder through January and, if necessary, will prepare additional reflection papers.

C. The Resident will continue to meet monthly with the Peer Group through May.

D. The Resident will develop a five-year continuing education plan for discussion with and approval by the Counseling Elder and District Superintendent by November 1, 1991.

Division of Preparation and

DIVISION OF LOCAL PASTORS

In the United Methodist Church, "Local Pastor" is a technical term which describes a lay person who is a candidate for ministry that is licensed to serve as pastor of a local church. Some Local Pastors are students (taking seven or more hours) in preparation for ordination. Some Local Pastors never intend to be ordained, but serve the Church as they are needed. Some Local Pastors hold down full-time secular jobs are are part-time pastors. Of these three categories, only those appointed as full-time Local Pastors are defined as clergy by the Discipline. All of the rest fall into a special category of service: they serve the Annual Conference, they are accountable to the Annual Conference, but they are not members of the Annual Conference. Only in the local church to which they are appointed are they considered clergy. They are not considered clergy during Annual Conference sessions. Our Discipline also forbids them being elected as lay members to Annual Conference. As faithful servants they provide ministry for the Conference, but cannot be members of it.

The Division of Local Pastors, in compliance of the 1988 Discipline of the United Methodist Church and with the North Texas Conference standing rules, has several basic functions: The examination of candidates seeking Local Pastor status; to evaluate their suitability; to oversee them in qualifying for their License to Preach; and to assist them to advance in their studies and in some cases, into Conference Membership. We uphold the integrity of the Local Pastor category of Local Pastors in ministry and the necessary role they carry out in the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church. It is the purpose of the Division to be a part of the process that provides fully qualified Local Pastors for appointment within the Conference structure, and to see that the rights of these persons are fully protected and that they are afforded all the benefits entitled them under the Discipline of the United Methodist Church and the North Texas Annual Conference.

The 1989 Journal, pp 244-254, contains "Guidelines for 1989-1992". This document defines the Division's purpose and expectations. This guideline will remain the basic reference for this quadrennium and should be referred to for answers to specific questions. Dates and changes to the guidelines will be published annually.

Policy changes to the "Guidelines" recommended to begin this year are as follows:

1) Course of Study School -- Local Pastors will now pay for their own books and be reimbursed by the Division upon request and with proof of purchase of books required for the Course of Study School. (Previously we have allowed students to charge books at the Perkins Book Store. This change will allow for the 20% discount allowed for pastors, which is not provided when the books are charged on the Division's account.)

2) Licensing School - Licensing School can be beneficial to persons not seeking a license but who are serving on a church staff. Depending on the place the school is held, we have to pay for a minimum number of people. Therefore, persons who would like to have this learning experience and who have their district Committee on Ministry's recommendation may attend Licensing School, when space exists or at their own expense. Persons who are seeking Local Pastor status must still have the recommendation of their district Committee on Ministry and their District Superintendent, and have the approval of the Division of Local Pastors.

3) Beginning this year, the Division of Local Pastors will assume the responsibility of assigning Counseling Elders to certified Candidates and Local Pastors. This responsibility has previously been delegated to the district Committees on Ministry. Now the district Committees will need to notify the Division of Local Pastors whenever a person is certified as a candidate or whenever there is a need for a change in Counseling Elders. Roy Spore is our Counseling Elder Coordinator.

A Licensing School for Local Pastors is held each year with Parts One and Three in residence at a designated location. Part Two consists of specific assignments to be done under the supervision of one's Counseling Elder. The curriculum guidelines are set by the Division of Ordained Ministry in Nashville. Persons planning to attend must become certified candidates by January 31 of the year attending. Applications are available from our Licensing School Director, Millard Fairchild. The following dates have been set, although the location may change:

Part One:
June 24-28, 1991	Perkins School of Theology, SMU
June 22-26, 1992	Perkins School of Theology, SMU
Part Three:
August 12-16, 1991	Texoma Conference Center
August 10-14, 1992	Texoma Conference Center

All district Committees on the Ordained Ministry should submit the following information to the Division Chairperson prior to February 7, 1991:

1. names and action reports of all persons recommended for Licensing School
2. names and action reports of all Local Pastors recommended
3. names and circumstances of all Local Pastors to be discontinued

All persons recommended will receive a letter indicating how to schedule an appointment with the Division. The Division will interview all Local Pastors and candidates for Licensing School in 1992 on the following dates and places:

Wednesday, February 19, 1992	First UMC, Allen
Thursday, February 27, 1992	First UMC, Decatur
Tuesday, March 3, 1992	Wesley UMC, Greenville

The Division would like to thank the North Texas Annual Conference for support and consideration. Because the work of the Local Pastor is so crucial to the Annual Conference, we would again request that at some appropriate moment during each Annual Conference, all Local Pastors be asked to stand and be recognized. These forty-four Local Pastors represent a significant percentage of our clergy.

David Rucker, Chairperson

DIVISION OF CHAPLAINS AND RELATED MINISTRIES

The Division brings the following report regarding its work:

1. Again in 1991 the Division hosted the Bishop's Annual meeting for those in appointment beyond the local church. This included those members of the North Texas Conference as well as those from other conferences serving within our bounds. Once more the attendance was excellent, and all appreciated the opportunity of hearing from Bishop Blake and then having him respond to questions. The date for this event next year will be January 27, 1992, and the location again will be the Great Hall of Highland Park United Methodist Church.

2. The Division seeks to cooperate with Bishop Blake's office in updating and determining proper designations for all persons in appointment beyond the local church, as indicated in the Book of Discipline, paragraph 443.1 (a, b, c & d).

3. The working papers from the General Conference Study Commission on Ministry were available for study during the year; and the Division, with input from other Board of Ordained Ministry Executive Committee Members, made its response on the survey form provided by the Office of Research, General Council on Ministries. A number of questions and concerns were conveyed by means of this survey instrument.

4. Arrangements were made for the Chaplains and Related Ministries fellowship luncheon, on Tuesday, during Annual Conference. The date for this luncheon at the 1992 Annual Conference will be June 9.

5. Tentative dates for Division meetings during the 1991-1992 Conference year are: October 15, 1991; January 27, 1992; and May 7, 1992. Members will be properly notified of the place and time of these meetings.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

I. Overview

During the past conference year, the Board of Pensions has been very busy doing the work it was commissioned to do on behalf of our active and retired members. Our task has been to be prudent in our decisions for the future of our clergy and our Annual Conference.

However, our decisions have not been easy ones. Our Annual Conference is facing critical decisions in the future concerning unfunded liability and pension rate. Projections have been made to insure that the future decisions will be both in the best interest of our clergy and of our Annual Conference.

Because of the future that lies ahead of us, the Board of Pensions believes that our work will be very critical in terms of financial demands placed upon our Annual Conference. This means that the Board of Pensions must be both economical but, also, pastoral. Our future task will be to insure that the financial integrity and pastoral leadership will be our ultimate objectives.

II. Perkins Fund

The Perkins Fund has continued to help those retirees who have expressed need. It has been the policy of the Board of Pensions to examine needs very carefully so that distributions are made on an equitable basis. Attention has been given to better document grants so that distribution may be made objectively.

It gives me great pleasure to announce that a $500 Christmas gift distribution from the Perkins Fund was given to all of the retirees and surviving spouses of the Conference. Without the generosity of the Perkins family, the distributions made this conference year would have not been done. Their vision of the future has helped so many in a time of economic loss.

III. Disabilities

The Board of Pensions has continued to bring both administrative and pastoral support to those seeking disability and to those who are now disabled.

IV. Pension Rate

It has been recommended by the Conference Board of Pensions that a $311 pension rate be set for 1992. This compares to a $301 pension rate for 1991. A .009% service rate is necessary to fund the Ministerial Pension Plan contribution rate of 12%. The General Board of Pensions has computed the North Texas Conference 1992 average compensation to be $34,556. Since the average compensation is $34,556, a $311 pension rate is the very minimum rate based on the average compensation.

V. Unfunded Liability

One of the main concerns for us as United Methodists and for us as an Annual Conference is rising costs of providing future pension benefits.

Due to a $311 pension rate, the General Board of Pensions has requested that $1,186,931 be deposited as of December 31, 1992, to pay toward the unfunded liability. At the 1990 Annual Conference, it was legislated that an additional $250,000 be deposited over four years to cover the increased unfunded liability. In January of 1991 the first $250,000 was deposited, with a balance of $750,000.

VI. Comprehensive Protection Plan

The Board of Pensions is asking for an increase over last year for 1991. This is mainly due to the increase in the Denominational Average Compensation. The total apportionment for 1992 is $348,853 which represents an increase over 1991 in the amount of $4,000.

VII. Apportionment

When the Council of Finance and Administration makes its report, we urge the Conference to approve the following amounts for the 1992 Conference Claims Apportionment:

Unfunded Liability	$ 850,000
Health Insurance Apportionment for Retirees	300,000
Comprehensive Protection Plan	348,853
Operating Expenses	52,012

VIII. Housing

It is a requirement of the Internal Revenue Service that we give to you the following information and that this information appear in the 1991 Journal: "That an amount equal to 100% of the pension payments, including gifts and grants from the Perkins Fund received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister during the year of 1991, be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance.".

COMMISSION ON INSURANCE

The mission and challenge of the Insurance Commission continues to be to provide adequate funding to meet, according to Plan design, each covered person's claim liability due to illness or accident.

Though the mission and the commitment to that mission does not change, the issues which must be addressed to meet that commitment are often staggering.

It is, however, with a sense of appreciation that I begin this report today for I believe that in the past three years there has developed among us a sense of new understanding and awareness of the issues of cost for medical care and the cost to meet claim requirements of a Plan the size of ours. Unfortunately, we do not seem yet to have developed that same sense of awareness and understanding as it relates to the necessity of funding the Plan. Hopefully, as we continue our journey together through this next year, we will develop a new sense of the funding issue that continually faces us.

The whole premise upon which insurance was created was a pooling of funds...from rich and poor, from healthy and ill...to assure funds to meet the needs of those covered in the "pool" whenever needs occurred.

Our North Texas Conference insurance pool has been dry for the past two years. Almost immediately after the Annual Conference in 1989, we experienced claims requirements that continued to escalate through the remainder of the year, for a total claims of $1,846,082. This not only depleted all the accumulated reserve of the Plan but in addition, left the Plan with a $200,000 deficit at the end of 1989.

As you are aware, drastic steps were necessitated to stop this "hemorrhaging" and major adjustments were adopted at the Called Session in December, 1989. The majority of the Plan design changes have now been in effect for a year and a half, and it is the results of these implemented cost-containment features which I would like to report to you now.

The utilization review procedure requiring pre-certification for hospital admission represented an approximate savings to the Plan of $52,500 in 1990. Although this may not seem to be a significant dollar amount, placed in the perspective that the Plan still incurred a $61,735 deficit for 1990, you can perceive how much worse our financial position would have been without the addition of this cost-containment feature. This $52,000+ savings occurred as it lowered the length of hospital stays for the Plan by some 38 days.

The implementation of the North Texas Healthcare Network (known as the preferred provider option) reduced costs to the Plan approximately 9% in 1990. Total claim dollars paid to the PPO network were $1,059,063 versus $787,019 paid to non-network providers. Again, what may, at first glance, appear to be a relatively small savings, 9%, taken in the overall context of $1,846,082 claim dollars for 1990, reflects a significant savings to the Plan.

Of all premium funding received in 1990, 81% was expended for claims; 6% for stop-loss and other insurance premiums; 12% for administration of the Plan including the charges of the third party administrator, Alta. One percent has gone toward the debt repayment.

The Commission contracted for outside actuarial consulting services to examine both our Plan design and our premium funding level. Most potential cost-saving Plan design features supported by the actuarial consultant had been implemented in this Plan in January, 1990. A premium increase of 11% was recommended by the consultant to be effective January, 1991. The Commission voted not to accept that recommendation at that time with the hope that the premium increase effective July, 1990 would, given time, reduce the need for another increase. Instead, first quarter, 1991 claims were significantly higher than projected and at that time the consultant advised that instead of the previous 11% that an 18% increase should be considered appropriate. The Commission has struggled with these facts and figures, along with our responsibility to be prudent to the Plan, at the same time attempting to be sensitive to budgets...of churches and individuals.

Therefore, the decision of the Commission is to forego any rate increase at this time. Instead, after further actuarial evaluation by the consultant based on nine months actual experience in 1991 and combined with prior history and experience of the Plan, the Commission will announce in October, 1991 necessary premium funding levels required for 1992 to protect the financial soundness of the Plan. This will enable church budgeting processes to accommodate the required increase effective January, 1992.

Therefore, the Commission brings today just two legislative proposals for your action:

1. To increase the individual calendar year deductible to $500, as outlined in the proposal published in your conference materials.

2. To eliminate the "open enrollment" period previously allowed when the major changes were made to the Plan in 1990.

Rationale for both items are included within the proposals.

Both of these items, when adopted, provide additional protection to the Plan, which is required for the financial soundness of the Plan and in turn, to the premium funding requirements.

Finally in closing this report, it must be with the expression of my personal and deep appreciation to the Trustees of the Plan, Leighton Farrell, Mark Schooler and Robert Dillard, as well as to each and every member of the Commission who has labored in such a committed way on this difficult task...and who, even in dissension, have never waivered from the mission which is ours; to Stan Seat who has truly been the anchor, the glue and the calm strength required to administer this $2,000,000 insurance business; to David Shawver, Jim Hares and Charlie Alexander as well as other members of CF&A who have recognized and affirmed the necessity of responsible funding of this self-insured health plan; and certainly, to Bishop Blake for his understanding, his vision and his unfailing support for the difficult task which has been and continues to be ours to maintain financial soundness for your medical insurance protection. Thank you to each and everyone.

Beverly Brooks,
Chairperson

JURISDICTION

SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION

"The Mission of the South Central Jurisdiction is to (1) select leadership for the church and administer the affairs of the Jurisdiction as directed by the BOOK OF DISCIPLINE; (2) coordinate the networking of strategic persons and groups from the various annual conferences at the expense of the conferences; (3) respond to program needs and implement and evaluate programming which can be done more efficiently and effectively on a jurisdictional level; (4) respond to mandates of the General Conference; and, (5) provide supervision and accountability of the jurisdictional institutions and the policies of the Jurisdiction" (From the Mission Statement).

The program unit of the jurisdiction is its council on ministries. During the past year (1990) there were twenty-six leadership training and inspirational events approved and implemented with a total of 3,725 participants, an increase of almost 400 over the previous year.

Included in these activities were the following:

Conference on Hispanic Ministries "Beyond Survival" (Black Clergy)	Consultation on Cross Racial Ministries Summer Children's Camp (Rio Grande Conference)
Victoria Lab School (Victoria District & Rio Grande Conference)	Jurisdictional Work Camp
Celebrating Marriage	Six (6) Retiree Retreats
Bishop's Week	Lab/Seminar at Mount Sequoyah
Spiritual Life Rally (youth)	Superserve (Volunteers in Mission)
Camp Leaders Workshop	Town & Country Ministries Consultation
Conversational Spanish(Mount Sequoyah & Lydia Patterson Institute)	Archives & History Workshops (St. Paul & Perkins Schools of Theology)
Journey into Wholeness	Senior Ministers Seminar

The Jurisdiction also administered the scholarship program for ethnic minority seminarians, the Lillian Thompson scholarship fund for seminarians, and is a major participant and supporter of the Protestant Radio Hour.

We express our appreciation for your support of the Jurisdictional Administration Fund, the Advance Specials of the Jurisdiction, Volunteers in Mission office, and the coordinator of Korean Missions. Dr. Don Barnes and Mr. Richard Stanford have represented the North Texas Conference on the Jurisdictional Council on Ministries and The Reverend David Shawver has served on the Jurisdictional Council on Finance and Administration. Several other persons from across the eight-state area have served on the standing committees and task forces of the Jurisdiction. Without their prayers and service not as much would have been accomplished. The College of Bishops has served in many ways in its support of the Jurisdiction. Most of all we are grateful for the dedication and commitment of our people in the local churches whose loyalty and gifts are a source of inspiration and hope.

Earl B. Carter,
Executive Director

MOUNT SEQUOYAH CONFERENCE AND RETREAT CENTER

Our 1991 theme is "Mount Sequoyah - The Place!" This place (Mount Sequoyah Conference & Retreat Center) became a reality in the Southern Methodist Church in 1922 when Fayetteville, Arkansas was accepted as the site of the new 'Western Methodist Assembly' grounds. The city of Fayetteville offered church representatives the top of East Mountain together with land totaling 400 acres, and a pledge of $35,000 in cash to assure the establishing of our Assembly in their city. It was Mrs. A. C. Millar, wife of the first administrator, who suggested the name of "Mount Sequoyah".

Since 1922 United Methodists and other Christians have come to this place for conferences, retreats, training events, camps, spiritual journeys, and outreach ministries of all kinds. This place is where the Cross of Christ has been lifted up over the city of Fayetteville and thousands are drawn to this site. The mountain top experiences at this place have enriched the entire world and the church.

Dr. Earl Carter served as Interim Administrator the first part of 1990. The staff was re-structured in late 1989, and Carrol Rainwater serves as Chief Operating Officer. During the transition, the quality and quantity of events and persons sharing the Mount Sequoyah Spirit has continued at a high level. The coming of the new Administrator (Rev. Robert E. Young) June 1, 1990 was facilitated in an excellent way because of the wonderful previous administration of both Earl and Carrol. This enabled us to relate to the whole Jurisdiction; also, to visit and share the Sequoyah Spirit with nine annual conferences. Plans are to visit the remaining annual conferences in 1991. Besides hosting events on the mountain and communicating with the Jurisdiction, we have preached in churches in Arkansas, Oklahoma, and Texas telling the Sequoyah Story.

At the Fall meeting of the Board of Trustees two significant steps were taken. First, an adoption of a Family Ministry policy statement affirming the excellent usage by Adult and Older Adult groups. They also saw the need for the whole family ministry, especially for children and youth. They authorized the administration to work with family, children, and youth groups and to allocate available facilities and resources in a prudent and effective manner. Secondly, in order to fulfill this policy, they authorized the selection and hiring of an independent professional organization to help us. Resource Systems, Inc. (RSI) of Dallas, Texas, has been secured to do a study and make recommendations for needs to fulfill Mount Sequoyah's ability to meet the possible capital funds needs. Some of you will be asked for inputs to this study. This will be planning for the future of Mount Sequoyah. (probable improvements include: A new sports complex, swimming pool, outside play areas, tennis courts, basketball courts, etc.; additional new self-contained first class housing facility; and any needed residence housing. The very successful Bishop's Club will be continued and phased into our planning.

Some of the more memorable occurrences or events during 1990 were:
- The loss of our dear friend Bishop Paul Galloway, August 4, 1990. There was a mutual love between him and the staff of Mount Sequoyah.
- Galloway Cafeteria building was re-done with a new sloped roof in Spring of 1990.
- Bishop's Week continues to be an outstanding event, with record attendances.
- The seven Retiree events are always outstanding. The Mountain Staff enjoy them and they seem to be enriched with the Mountain Top Experience.
- VIM Work Camp event is always of great interest. We get a lot of things done, and it is such a pleasant experience.
- The capacity of Mount Sequoyah was tested with about 386 people attending a new "Adults Over 50" event. It rained the first two days of the event and our Galloway Cafeteria became "Camp Galloway" for those 2 days. We also had a record of coffee consumption (about 1200 gallons). We and they had an enjoyable experience.
- The Marriage Encounter World Reunion was held here in 1990 with about 300 attenders, Plus they had 50 to 60 youth that were not here. The youth had their own retreat off the Mountain (as a separate group).

The 1991 Events will be exciting with full attendance at Bishop's Week, Retiree Events, and VIM Work Camp, and Volunteers in Mission helpers, and every person of the 17 Annual Conferences is invited to share our mission and ministry. When you are called upon to assure our future, please respond affirmatively. Come to the Mountain as often as you can. Serving as Trustees from North Texas Conference are Scott Smith, Vice President of the Trustees, Member of the Executive Committee and Chairman of the Personnel & Policies Committee; William T. Stephenson, Member of Development and Endowment Committee; Don Barnes, Member of Buildings and Grounds Committee; and Mary-Jane Frazier, Member of Budget and Finance Committee. Your Ambassadors to Mount Sequoyah are Rev. & Mrs. Milton (Kathy) Guttierrez of Dallas, TX.

Mount Sequoyah has a great future. Every person in the seventeen annual conferences in our great South Central Jurisdiction is invited to make "our place" their place. The same Sequoyah Spirit of the 1920's is still alive and we invite you to come to this place!

SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION

The ministry of South Central Jurisdiction United Methodist Volunteers in Mission falls under four broad areas. They are:

1. NETWORK DEVELOPMENT involves providing training, information, resources and support for South Central Jurisdiction Annual Conference

Volunteers in Mission leadership. It also involves networking with the other five jurisdictional VIM offices, as well as the Personnel and Resources Program Department of the General Board of Global Ministries in New York.

2. PROJECT DEVELOPMENT involves processing applications from South Central Jurisdiction mission agencies and programs that need volunteers and circulating their needs throughout the United Methodist Church.

3. VOLUNTEER PLACEMENT involves processing applications from groups and individuals wanting to serve as volunteers in mission. Volunteers are placed throughout the jurisdiction, the United States, and the world.

4. PROMOTION involves providing resources and speakers to interpret Volunteers in Mission in local, district and conference settings throughout the South Central Jurisdiction.

SUPERSERVE is the annual SCJ VIM Rally held at Mount Sequoyah, in Fayetteville, Arkansas, on Labor Day Weekend. The ADVANCE SPECIAL number for the SCJ VIM program is #982871-2. The SCJ VIM Committee, chaired by Dr. James Palmer, thanks you for your support.

KOREAN MISSION

The ministry of South Central Jurisdiction Korean Mission has been implemented as below:

1. NEW CHURCH DEVELOPMENT: The comprehensive plan has been planned to develop new Korean churches and mission congregations in cooperation with the Conferences and the Districts. During the 1990-91 I implemented the Kansas City Central Korean United Methodist Church under the ministry of Asbury United Methodist Church in Kansas City, Kansas and the Korean Ministry of First United Methodist Church, Arlington, Texas. Now we have 34 Korean churches and mission congregations in the Jurisdiction. I also plan to implement three more churches and mission congregations in 1991-92.

2. GROWTH OF EXISTING CHURCHES; One of the primary purposes of Korean mission work is the CONSULTATION, COORDINATION, and FACILITATION enabling the ministries for growing Korean churches among the growing Korean communities in the Jurisdiction in cooperation with the Conferences and the Districts to support the Korean congregations to adjust to the United Methodists. During 1990-91 four mission congregations had been officially chartered as Clovis Korean United Methodist Churches. Wichita Korean United Methodist Church, Dong-San United Methodist Church and Copperas Cove Korean United Methodist Church.

3. RECRUITMENT AND TRAINING OF MINISTERIAL RESOURCES; We continuously need to recruit ministerial resources for seminary education, and to train the Korean language pastors to increase their ministerial abilities and skills for effective ministries. I plan to open a special intensive course of "United Methodist Polity" in Korean for new Korean church pastors in cooperation with the Division of Ordained Ministry, Perkins School of Theology and the Jurisdiction Council on Ministry. I also plan to have a training session of laity leadership.

I greatly appreciate your prayers and help in enabling the Korean mission work in the South Central Jurisdiction.

OTHER AGENCIES

UNITED METHODIST COMMUNICATIONS COUNCIL 1990-91

United Methodist Communications Council of Texas and New Mexico helps the church tell the Gospel story in that two-state region through mass media.

The Communications Council was formed in 1967 by the six annual conferences of Texas. The new Mexico Conference. which covers much of West Texas, joined in 1970. The council's purpose is to provide coordinated services in order to enhance the communications ministries of the seven owner-conferences.

Our best known identity: the Reporter

The Communications Council's best known means for accomplishing this purpose is The United Methodist Reporter. The Reporter has expanded not only to publish special editions for its parent conferences but also for many other annual conferences across the country.

The Reporter also has developed a number of auxiliary communications services each of which stands on its own.

The newest of these extension ministries, United Methodist Media Relations, was developed especially for the Reporter's seven owner-conferences. It provides each of those conferences with assistance in relating to public news media organizations and coordinates cooperative communications activities involving the seven owner-conferences.

The Reporter is now published in four different versions: the weekly United Methodist Reporter, the bi-weekly United Methodist Review, the weekly interdenominational National Christian Reporter and the monthly United Methodist Record, which was launched in March of this year.

UMR serves as the internal communication vehicle for more than half of the United Methodism's annual conferences in the United States. Additionally, special editions are published for more than 60 districts and 325 local congregations. UMR's four newspapers take the stories of faith at work in the world into nearly 500,000 households across the country.

Services to other denominations

UMR now produces national newspapers patterned after the Reporter for the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and the United Methodist Church of Christ. It also produces newspapers for more than a dozen regional bodies of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), Episcopal Church, Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, Lutheran Church (Missouri Synod), Roman Catholic Church and an independent Baptist Convention.

Since 1983 UMR has owned and operated Religious News Service, the nation's only daily wire service devoted exclusively to religious news. RNS, with a 60-year heritage of promoting the public's interest in religion and religious tolerance, provides stories and photographs to some 200 secular and religious news organizations--both print and broadcast.

A service to enhance visual appeal

Mission Communications, another arm of UMR, helps annual conferences, local congregations and church agencies and institutions tell their stories through advertising, graphic arts communications campaigns, videotapes, newsletters and special publications.

During 1990, Mission Communications produced a book and special artwork to mark the centennial of the Methodist Home in Waco, a book on drug rehabilitation for the Texas Conference, newsletters for numerous church agencies, promotional calendars for children's homes across the country, and a variety of customized montage drawings.

Mission Communications has developed unique benevolence/interpretation campaigns for the Texas and North Texas conferences. They are built around a coloring contest using a pen-and-ink montage drawing by Mission Communications director Tom Gibson that depicts the conference's various outreach and institutional ministries. Elementary school-age children learn about our connectional ministries while coloring them. The hope is that their parents likewise will learn through interest in their children's work.

An educational extension

In 1987 the United Methodist Reporter Institution for Church Communications was launched with financial support from a retired newspaperman in Arkansas to provide communications training workshops for annual conferences and local churches related to the Reporter. Nearly 500 people attended 19 workshop sessions during 1990 and a like number are scheduled during 1991. They are led by members of the UMR staff.

Workshop content is designed in consultation with the co-sponsoring conferences to fit local needs. However, two elements always are included: (1) ways to improve internal communications via church newsletters or UMR local editions; and (2) ways to tell the church's story more effectively via the public media.

More than 2,500 persons across the church have received media training through the UMR Institute since its founding three years ago. We continue to receive support annually from Mr. James Verhoeff and are assured of generous provision for the UMR Institute in the eventual division of his estate.

Ongoing supplemental support

The United Methodist Reporter Foundation was created in 1987 with two goals: (1) to raise $4 million to build a new UMR Communications Center Debt-free and (2) to create an endowment of at least $10 million, earnings from which will be used to underwrite a part of the cost of each newspaper subscription to offset postal rate increases.

A Board of Trustees composed of outstanding United Methodist lay persons from across the United States has been recruited to lead the accomplishment of this effort.

Major gifts totaling $800,000 during 1990--from Mrs. Arthur Wilson of Houston and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bruce of Dallas--have boosted commitments for the UMR Communications Center past the #2.2 million mark.

A Joint Building Committee of the UMR Governing Board and the UMR Foundation Board was appointed during the year. It is chaired by Mr. David L. Rooke of Kerrville, Texas, former chief executive of Dow Chemical U.S.A.. The committee hopes to be able to begin construction of the new facilities during 1991.

Governance structure and assets

The Reporter's various ministries are carried out under policies established and supervised by a 45-member Governing Board that includes two members each from the Texas and new Mexico conferences and one representative from each additional conference that publishes a UMR edition.

UMR's combined operations during 1990 totaled more than $8 million generated by fees for services performed. Additionally, the UMR Foundation's assets increased during the year by more than $1 million to $2.5 million.

The Communications Council monitors the work of the Governing Board and sets the tone for the organization's work by electing the Governing Board's Chairperson as well as the Editor and Chief Executive of the Reporter.

A special service for owner conferences

United Methodist Media Services is funded through the communications committees of the seven conferences of Texas and New Mexico according to a long-established formula. These funds cover a half-time position, assistance from UMR support staff, travel, and office expenses.

After several years of functioning without coordinated media services and two years of experimentation, the seven conferences through the Communications Council committed $43,695 during 1990 for Media Services, $37,704 of which was actually received.

During 1990. Media Services provided services in 11 of the 13 areas of need identified by the Communications Council. More than 1,500 news releases were transmitted to news organizations in Texas and New Mexico. Our clipping service indicates that more than 1,000 articles about United Methodism were published in the public news media during the year, many of which otherwise would not have been published. Those clippings were results of the more than 40 separate print and broadcast stories about significant United Methodist happenings and/or personalities that Media Services developed and distributed.

Those items included information about efforts of the five bishops of Texas and New Mexico to oppose legalized gambling in Texas, new pastoral appointments and the number of United Methodists representing Texas in Congress. In addition, Media Services regularly assists conference communicators in releasing localized stories.

The clipping service to which we subscribe enables the Media Services staff to monitor how news of The United Methodist Church is being reported in Texas and New Mexico and keeps conference leaders informed about trends. Clippings of public press stories about United Methodists are regularly shared with conference staff contacts.

In addition to maintaining a computerized mailing list containing addresses for all radio, TV and newspaper outlets in Texas and New Mexico, we recently compiled a list of FAX numbers for all Texas daily newspapers, many of the weeklies, and selected broadcast outlets. We've found that in some situations, FAXing releases to news organizations is more efficient and not much more expensive than using the mail. FAXing assures timely delivery--critical factor in media relations. Furthermore, FAXed releases--for the moment at least--seem to command more attention in news rooms than mailed ones.

UMR Executive Douglas Cannon coordinates the work of Media Services and serves as an adjunct member of each conference staff. He attends conference communications committee meetings, and helps to develop and coordinate plans for cooperative communications activities among the seven conferences who make up the Communications Council. He also advises conference officials on ways to make United Methodism's public witness more viable and is available to provide direct media intervention in times of crisis.

With assistance from the UMR support staff, Media Services is able to serve the seven annual conferences in a way that would be impossible using an isolated staff arrangement.

Despite lower than expected income from member-conferences, Media Services managed through frugality and continuous monitoring to avoid either a reduction of services or the creation of a deficit.

Summary

The United Methodist Communications Council of Texas and New Mexico is unique in its structure scope and role. While serving the communications needs of its parent-conferences it also has become a respected resource for all of United Methodism and a number of other denominations.

BISHOP'S ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON CAPITAL FUNDS

MISSION STATEMENT

The goal of a capital fund campaign is to empower the Church to reach people for Jesus Christ by making vital congregations available to everyone in the North Texas area. To accomplish our task, expanded assets are necessary, both now and for years to come.

North Texas is a rapidly expanding, fertile mission field: (1) The population in our area has grown by more than 600,000 persons over the last decade. (2) Over half of all North Texans have no relationship with God through the Church. (3) Increasingly, we are an ethnically and racially diverse population.

Faithfulness to our calling demands that we develop effective strategies to reach all segments of our community for Jesus Christ and provide the resources necessary to accomplish our mission.

To be wise stewards over God's resources, we will seek to establish a capital fund of several million dollars. Such a fund will enable the Church to develop ministries for present and future generations, bringing the good news of Christ to one and all.

A RESOLUTION PRESENTED BY:
CAPITAL FUNDS ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Whereas the United Methodist Church in North Texas is confronted with the very large mission of reaching one and one-half million unchurched persons for Christ, and

Whereas the unchurched population of the North Texas region continues to increase, and

Whereas the North Texas Conference has declined from almost 11 percent of the population of our area 40 years ago to just 5 percent today, and

Whereas the Visionaries program is operating well in raising funds from numerous individual contributors thereby demonstrating broad-based support of church extension projects, and

Whereas the level of funding to support the needed expansion of our efforts to reach unchurched persons is inadequate presently and the projections for future income are equally deficient,

Be it therefore resolved that a Capital Campaign Study Committee be appointed and chaired by the presiding bishop. The function of the committee will be six-fold:

(1) To determine the feasibility and investigate the prospects for a capital funds campaign in the near future.

(2) Identify potential donors and leadership for such a campaign.

(3) Design a plan for a capital funds campaign.

(4) Develop the specifics of what the resources generated by such a campaign will be used for.

(5) Determine the staffing configuration and costs associated with such a campaign.

(6) Report their findings and recommendations to the 1992 session of the North Texas Conference for its action.

This resolution is submitted by a Bishop's Advisory Committee which has been meeting since December, 1990 to explore the possibility of a Capital Funds Campaign for the North Texas Conference. It is the opinion of this committee of lay persons that:

(1) There is a need for a capital funds campaign for church extension.

(2) That a single-cause campaign is more effective that a multiple-cause campaign.

(3) The momentum experienced as a result of A Call to Community, Conviction, and Commitment is an important context for the campaign.

(4) The campaign must be people-oriented; e.g., reaching the unchurched, not institutionally-oriented; e.g., building new churches.

(5) Staff will be needed to implement the campaign. (The Texas Methodist Foundation has decided to employ their first deployed staff in the North Texas Conference and has made this person available for initial consultations and assistance.)

(6) The Visionaries Program is a significant asset: This plan of small contributors answers the question of significant contributors, "Is there widespread support for this cause?" The Visionary Program has given credibility to the cause.

(7) The theology of the campaign must be the meaning of giving in the broadest and deepest sense.

(8) The campaign goal must be high enough to challenge, but low enough to be attainable.

(9) The campaign is intended to be a major gift campaign (continuing and enhancing the Visionary Program for smaller gifts). There is no intention of local congregations being asked to respond to a fair-share or apportionment asking.

These opinions will be forwarded to the Study Committee as the context for their work.

SUMMARY PART I: STRENGTH

1) The population in the 20-county area of the North Texas Conference has grown from 1,161,545 in 1950 to 2,965,118 today, a 155% increase.

2) Approximately one and one-half million unchurched persons live within the bounds of the North Texas Conference.

3) The percentage of ethnic persons within our area has increased rapidly.

4) The percentage of the population in North Texas which holds United Methodist membership has dropped precipitously, from almost 11% in 1950 to only 5.0% today.

5) We have closed so many congregations since 1950 that we have 30% fewer congregations now than 40 years ago.

6) If we had replaced the congregations we have closed over the last 40 years with average-sized churches, we would have approximately 63,000 more United Methodists today than we actually do, which would bring us to 7.2% of the population (versus the 5.0% actual percentage).

7) The average congregation today is 71% larger than in 1950. Over 58% of all members of North Texas Conference churches are in congregations which have more than 1,000 membership.

8) Some small congregations experience dramatic growth spurts after years without any numerical increase.

9) The average age of United Methodist members is 48.0 years, the second highest of all denominations, and our average family size is the second smallest (2.7 persons per household). We are an aging population with little prospects of replacing ourselves with our own children.

10) In some cities United Methodism is especially strong; notable among these are Greenville and Plano, where strategic planning and aggressive church planting have gone forward.

11) We must develop a strategy to deal with our unique situation.

THE STRENGTH OF METHODISM IN THE NORTH TEXAS AREA

INTRODUCTION

Methodism has a long and venerable history in the twenty-county North Texas region. As of this year we are celebrating our 125th conference session. At the close of 1990 we stood 149,290 members strong, representing 338 churches and three fellowships. We are a large body of believers, who carry forward the name of Christ in multiple ministries, both locally and throughout the world. The work of the North Texas Conference is truly impressive.

POPULATION GROWTH IN NORTH TEXAS

We, in the North Texas Conference, live on a fertile mission field. Table I reveals the population growth in our area. What it does not specify is that approximately one-half of all persons in this part of the United States are unchurched; that is, they have no relationship with Christ through any church. Thus, there are approximately one and one-half million unchurched persons in "our own back yard," a fertile mission field indeed!

TABLE I:
POPULATION WITHIN TWENTY-COUNTY AREA

	1950 Pop.	1960 Pop.	1970 Pop.	1980 Pop.	1990 Pop.
TOTAL POP.	1,161,545	1,491,680	1,944,448	2,379,179	2,965,118

THE CHANGING POPULATION

Of the twenty counties which comprise the parish area of the North Texas Conference, all but three showed growth between 1980 and 1990. Thus, the challenge before us is not limited to Dallas and its suburbs. Virtually the whole region is growing.

The racial and ethnic composition of the North Texas area has changed dramatically, especially over the last decade. Taking the city of Dallas as an example, in 1980 the Anglo/Non-Hispanic population comprised 57% of the total. In 1990, this group declined in number, and now comprises only 48% of the total. The African-American totals were stable, standing in at 29% in both 1980 and 1990. Strong growth in numbers, on the other hand, was found among Hispanics, who moved from 12% of the Dallas total in 1980 to 21% in 1990. Likewise, the Asian community edged up from less than 1% in 1980 to more than 2% in 1990. Native Americans still comprise less than one-half of one percent. Obviously, we not only have grown in population, but the mix of persons within our region has changed as well. Since Dallas grew rapidly throughout the decade, all groups have increased in actual numbers. But the proportions of the various ethnic groups changed remarkably. Graphically, the changes are as follows:

Racial/Ethnic Group	1980 %	1990 %
Anglo/Non-Hispanic	57%	48%
African-American	29%	29%
Hispanic	12%	21%
Asian-American	0.8%	2%
Native Americans	0.4%	0.4%

Similar trends are evident throughout the conference. Large Hispanic populations can be found in places as varied as Wichita Falls, Denton, Bridgeport, McKinney, Frisco and Celina -- all places where we have no Hispanic work. Likewise, African-Americans and Asian-Americans are concentrated in numerous cities and towns across the conference where we are not reaching them for Christ.

THE DECLINE OF METHODISM IN NORTH TEXAS

Despite the increased population, nevertheless, United Methodism has not fared well in North Texas. This is most evident when one takes a long-range view of the stature and standing of United Methodism in the community. The trends can be seen most readily on the following two tables.

TABLE II:
CONFERENCE MEMBERSHIP & CHURCH STATISTICS

YEAR	1950	1960	1970	1980	1990
MEMBERSHIP % CHANGE	121,621*	140,680* + 15.7%	151,631* + 7.8%	148,233 - 2.2%	149,290 + 0.7%
U.M. % OF POPULATION	10.5%	9.4%	7.8%	6.2%	5.0%
CHURCHES % CHANGE	469*	448* + 4.5%	356* - 20.5%	363 + 2.0%	338 + 0.7%

* Prior to 1970, African-American congregations were not part of the North Texas Conference, thus the figures included here are somewhat misleading. The 1960 Methodist membership in the same twenty county area that is now the North Texas Conference was some 3,000-4,000 larger than this count, plus there were an additional dozen churches.

TABLE III:
AVERAGE MEMBERSHIP

YEAR	1950	1960	1970	1980	1990
AVE. MEMBERS PER CHURCH	259*	314* + 15.7%	426* + 7.8%	408 - 2.2%	442 + 0.7%

What we discover is that, although we have grown as a denomination over the last forty years, our percentage of the total population has declined steadily and precipitously. We have gone from a denomination which captured 10.5% of the total population in 1950, to reaching barely 5% of the total today. Again, our actual membership has grown somewhat since 1950 (we are almost back to the high-water mark of 1970), but our percentage of the total population continues to plummet.

WHY DECLINE IS IMPORTANT

The reason a decline in Methodism in North Texas is important is at least two-fold:

(1) Most urgent is that we are failing to reach many unchurched persons for Christ, which is the main mission of the church. Perhaps the single most rapidly growing portion of the American populace is the unchurched. Methodism has, since the days of John Wesley, taken seriously the challenge to reach unchurched persons for Christ.

(2) The unique witness of United Methodism is diminished, leaving us with a reduced workforce (of lay Christians), and a corresponding reduction in our influence for God in the world.

NUMBER OF CONGREGATIONS

At the same time that our membership has plateaued, the total number of United Methodist churches has declined. We have gone from a total of 469 churches (actually 480 if the West Texas Conference churches are included) in 1950 to a total of only 338 at the end of 1990. This is a reduction of almost thirty percent! And it came during the same period of time when the population of the area was growing by almost two hundred percent!

WHERE WE COULD BE

To look at this figure another way, if we had simply replaced the congregations we have closed since 1950, and if each of these had generated an average number of members apiece, the total United Methodist membership in 1990 would not stand at 149,270 (5.0% of the population) as it does, but at 212,160 (7.2% of the total population), 62,890 more persons! (This estimate is based upon 469 congregations from the North Texas Conference plus 11 others from the West Texas Conference in 1950 multiplied times the average congregational size of 442 members in 1990.)

AVERAGE CONGREGATIONAL SIZE

The average size of a United Methodist Church in North Texas is significantly larger now than it was forty years ago -- 442 today versus 259 in 1950. It is only because of this fact that our total membership has not declined along with the number of congregations. But the "average" is somewhat misleading. The arithmetic average size is 442; however, only 86 churches (25%) are actually that large, whereas 252 churches and 3 fellowships are smaller. In fact, the median church size in North Texas is only 144 members. What this means is that most of our membership can be found in only a few churches. To show how concentrated our numbers actually are, consider Table IV.

TABLE IV:

NUMBER OF CONGREGATIONS	SIZE
1	11,000+
2	6,000 - 7,000
1	4,000 - 6,000

MEMBERSHIP CONCENTRATION IN LARGE CHURCHES

The total membership in the largest five churches is 32,628, which represents almost 22% of the total United Methodists in North Texas. The fourteen largest congregations (those with 2,000+ members) have a combined membership of 54,633 -- about 37% of the North Texas total. Fully 58% (86,783) of all our members hold their membership in congregations of 1,000 or more. Thus, we may in fact continue to lose congregations for several years to come without greatly depleting our total numbers. (After all, 147 of our churches have less than 100 members.) Yet each time we abandon a church, we lose another "outpost" for the gospel, and our prospects for affecting the population within our parish diminish.

The death of one small congregation in a semi-rural area may not seem very significant, but who can predict the future growth of a community. Two examples: First, the fastest growing town in the state of Texas in the 1980s is Coppell, which increased over 330% in the decade. The North Texas Conference would surely be poorer had we not considered that congregation (only 86-members strong at the dawning of the 1980s) an important resource. Today, the Coppell congregation boasts a membership of 640 and received 153 new members in 1990 alone!

Second, Windom United Methodist Church (in the Sherman-McKinney District) was a congregation of just 43 members at the beginning of 1990, yet by April of 1991, it had already received twelve new members -- without any huge influx of new people into the community!

DEMOGRAPHICS OF UNITED METHODIST MEMBERSHIP

In the most massive religious survey ever undertaken in the United States, two important features of Methodism were discovered: (1) Although 8.0 percent of the American population (9.2% in Texas) identify with one of the Methodist bodies, the Methodist-oriented group had the second highest average age of all religious bodies, 48.0 years (compared to the oldest average of 48.2 for Presbyterians). By contrast, the average member of a Pentecostal congregation is under 40. (2) The survey revealed that Methodists have the second smallest household size, 2.7 persons per household. (Again the Presbyterians were the most extreme at 2.6 persons per household.) Taken together, these statistics do not bode well for the future. We are an aging population with little prospects of replacing ourselves with our own children.

EXAMPLES OF HOPE

The record of Methodism is not even across the entire conference. In the face of a declining share of the population in North Texas, there are enclaves of hope wherein we have captured a larger proportion of the populous than is our average. In some of these cities, we are reaping the benefits of wise strategy and hard work in decades gone by, whereas in other situations our efforts have been more recent.

Greenville

Among the former is Greenville, Texas. United Methodists in that city numbered 2,257 at the close of 1990, out of a total population of 23,071. This represents 9.8% of the overall populous. Although the four United Methodist congregations in this city have each been in existence for many years, significantly, two of them (Westview and Wesley) have experienced relocations in fairly recent years, moves which turned around stagnant or declining situations. A third congregation (Salem-Kinser) is the product of mergers. Thus, to maintain their strength, the long-established congregations of Greenville have made the adjustments necessary to insure their health.

Plano

Among the cities which have more recently experienced strategic growth is Plano, which doubled its size in the 1980s. At the beginning of the decade, Methodism had 3,644 members in three churches. A new fellowship (Custer Road) was inaugurated that year, and another (St. Andrews) followed later in the decade. Briarwood closed, but the property was eventually deeded to the new Faith UMC. Thus, following a decade of aggressive church planting, Methodism in Plano has soared to a total of 9,440 members in five congregations. This represents 7.3% of the total populous, a figure considerably above the 5.0% we experience within the whole of the conference.

A Higher Potential

The lesson we should learn both from Greenville and Plano is that the United Methodist Church can do better in North Texas than we are presently doing. Methodism in each of these cities demonstrates a higher potential. Significantly, however, neither town is fully saturated with the Methodist presence. More specifically, although the African-American population is high in Greenville, this segment is virtually untapped by our denomination. And in Plano, it is conceivable that yet another new congregation could be brought on-line within the near future.

CONCLUSION

Four significant facts impinge upon us: (1) The opportunity we face is enormous; the population of unchurched persons within our bounds has mushroomed over the last several years. (2) The percentage of persons within our area reached by the United Methodist Church has sharply declined. (3) God's call to us abides; we must reach unchurched persons for Christ. (4) We can do a better job.

Given these facts, a credible and strategic plan must be formulated in order to accomplish the mission entrusted to us. The strategy for reaching those for whom Christ died must be carefully developed in order to achieve maximum benefit both from our labors and from our gifts. The suggestions found in the following section are predicated on a careful analysis of how persons are reached.

SUMMARY PART II: STRATEGY

1) All agencies of the annual conference must strategize to reach the unchurched for Christ.

2) A capital funds campaign in the near future is necessary because of the overwhelming need we face, the fact that with our aging Methodist population we are running out of time to replenish the church, and because we currently have the key leaders who most likely have the necessary resources.

3) New churches out-perform longer established churches in reaching new people for Christ.

4) United Methodists are primarily middle and upper middle class persons.

5) We have no mechanism for assisting existing congregations that have extraordinary mission potential.

6) A reasonable goal is to start five new churches each year.

7) At least two start-ups annually should be designed to become large churches.

8) At least one new ethnic congregation should be started annually.

9) At least one start-up annually should be designed to reach persons other than middle or upper middle class.

10) New models which maximize our resources must be developed.

11) At least one major project annually should be designed to enable an established church to break free to fulfil its exceptional mission potential.

12) The United Methodist Church has a unique role to play in building God's Kingdom. A capital funds effort will enable us to better fulfil our calling to reach unchurched persons for Christ.

A STRATEGY FOR GROWTH IN THE NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE

INTRODUCTION

The North Texas Annual Conference needs to strategize broadly for growth -- in our policies, programming, personnel, and structures. However, much of that work lies in the province of already existing entities with their in-tact sources of funding; i.e., the Cabinet, the Conference Council on Ministries and all its agencies, etc., funded through apportionments, special offerings, etc. The focus of this document concerns the strategic utilization of additional resources: a capital and endowment fund. It is predicated on four key presuppositions enumerated below. However, apart from strategic planning for growth by the agencies already in place, no amount of capital or endowment funds will significantly extend the ministry of United Methodism in North Texas. We must, by all means possible, implement our missional priority to reach the unchurched for Christ.

PRESUPPOSITIONS

1. Now Is the Time for a Capital Funds Campaign.

Although there is never a "good" time to launch a capital funds campaign, it is essential that we do so in the near future. This is true for at least three reasons:

(1) The need is great, as documented above.

(2) Given the fact that the United Methodist Church has an older average age than the population in general, we are running out of time to replenish the church. We must make a concerted effort while we still have sufficient strength to do so.

(3) Some of those who are most likely to have the resources to support a capital funds campaign are the key members of our churches today, but in a few years their numbers will be lessened as this group ages further.

2. New Churches Reach Unchurched Persons More Effectively Than Existing Churches.

Established churches and new churches do not perform at the same level. ("Established" is here defined as those churches which were constituted before 1980, whereas "New" refers to congregations chartered thereafter.) The differences are exemplified in Table V below.

TYPE	(NUMBER)	PF	CT	OD	TOTAL	'90 GROWTH
New	(12)	263 [22]	784 [65]	587 [49]	1,634 [136]	10 [83]
Established	(326)	2,970 [9]	3,450 [11]	2,281 [7]	8,701 [27]	107 [33]

PF = Profession of Faith
CT = Certificate of Transfer (from another United Methodist Church)
OD = Other Denomination (transferring into a United Methodist Church)
The numbers in brackets [ ] are averages within a category.

In 1990, there were 326 "established" churches and 12 "new" congregations in the North Texas Conference. Only 107 of the 326 "established" congregations showed a net membership increase. This represents less than 33%. By way of contrast, ten (83%) of the churches chartered since 1980 showed a net increase in 1990. (See Appendix for a list). Although not all of our newest churches have done well, the percentage of those which have is markedly higher than average for the conference as a whole. Most of our churches have plateaued or are declining, whereas most new congregations are growing.

The 12 new congregations received a total of 1,634 new members in 1990, or an average of 136 each. In contrast, the other 326 established churches of the conference received 8,701 members, an average of just 27 each. New congregations out-performed existing churches by a large margin in every category by which new members are received into the church: Profession of Faith (PF), Certificate of Transfer (CT) and from Other Denominations (OD).

The reason why new churches tend to reach new people more effectively than established congregations is not mysterious. The same phenomenon occurs with Sunday School classes, U.M.W. circles, and civic clubs, as well as churches. People join new groups quicker than established ones because established groups have a shared history together, a history which cannot be participated in by newcomers precisely because it is past.

Thus, the most successful way to reach new persons for Christ is through new groups. It is for this reason that much of our focus will be on establishing "new mission outposts," new churches, through which we can effectively reach the unchurched for Christ.

3. We Must Reach Out to a Broader Constituency Than We Presently Touch.

United Methodism has become a predominantly middle and upper-middle class, white collar denomination. In a recent scientific poll of African-American and Anglo members of United Methodist congregations in North Texas, over 68% indicated family incomes in excess of $35,000 in the year 1988. There was no statistical difference between the family incomes of Anglo and African-American United Methodists.

By contrast, the average family in Texas differs from the average United Methodist Church family in both areas: (1) Fewer than 39% of Texas families earned as much as $35,000 in 1990 -- compared to 68% of United Methodists two years earlier! (2) Across the state there is a large gap in family income between the races -- African-Americans earning substantially less than Anglos on average -- a very different state of affairs than among United Methodists.

From these findings it is obvious that United Methodists represent only a small portion of the general population -- primarily the middle and upper-middle classes. Our strategy must include new ways to reach persons who are not affluent, many of whom are ethnic minority persons. Some studies indicate that as many as 80% of working class persons in Texas are unchurched. The field is indeed "ripe for the harvest."

4. Our Plan Must Include Substantial Assistance to Existing Congregations in Strategic Locations.

Some of our congregations are situated in locales which have tremendous potential. Of these, some are truly eager to reach unchurched persons for Christ, yet are limited by existing facilities. These are congregations which have too small, or otherwise inadequate, facilities to minister effectively to their parish area. In short, they need to build additional facilities, or even relocate altogether. At present, such congregations are faced with only two options: (1) Strain with all their might and maybe, after a long, difficult ordeal with little assistance from outside, they can begin to make a difference, or (2) Decline the challenge.

The Divisions of Town & Country Ministries and Urban Ministries provide some limited assistance, primarily for programming or staff, but these churches need far more than the resources these agencies can provide. The Board of Church Extension in recent years has assisted with land purchase for relocations (to be repaid after the existing property is sold), but again this help is inadequate.

A couple of examples highlight the point: Trinity Church in Wichita Falls is delayed in its relocation due to lack of funds, even though the potential there is enormous. First United Methodist Church in The Colony (a town with 22,000 population and no other United Methodist congregation) is desperate for more space, having grown enormously over the last two years. But the odds are strongly against them. This is because many of their families are young and personally strapped for funds, plus the church owes a heavy building debt, with past due interest from previous years. Expansion will be difficult. Similar stories abound -- from Quinlan to Roanoke to Denton. Our strategy must incorporate mechanisms for breaking free congregations which have exceptional mission potential.

A MISSION STRATEGY FOR THE 1990s AND BEYOND

New Congregational Start-ups

1. Five Starts Per Year

Our goal is to start five new churches per year. Given the fact that we have closed 3.55 congregations annually for the last 40 years, the goal of starting five new churches each year will give us a net gain of only 1.5 annually, a modest goal at best.

To accomplish this goal we will need to secure land for many of these start-ups (though not all will require land), and underwrite the costs of establishing the new congregations. At present rates, land for an adequate site may run from $60,000 to $500,000, depending on the size of the parcel and its location. We will need to combine significantly more dollars to our present annual project income of approximately $180,000 from apportionments and Visionaries support.

2. Design At Least Two of Our New Start-ups Annually to Become Large Churches.

The strategy of land acquisition, staffing, and all associated procedures for developing a new congregation, in at least two of the five new works each year, should be designed to enable those new congregations to become large (1,000+ member) churches. This strategy is an efficient use of available resources and acknowledges the current trend toward larger congregations, as detailed in the previous section of this document.

3. At Least One Ethnic Start-up Annually.

Ethnic groups should be identified and viable new congregations developed. At least one new start annually should be among ethnic persons. Methods appropriate to the individual ethnic group should be employed; in other words, we must not assume that whatever works in middle class Anglo suburbs is transportable into an ethnic setting.

4. At Least One New Start-up Annually Should Be for Working Class Or Poor Persons.

This may be the most difficult part of the plan due to two factors: (1) Suitable founding pastors who have a heart for this work may be difficult to obtain. The societal pressure for upward mobility may make poorer areas unattractive to our seminary-trained clergy, and (2) Although growing in our awareness of how to do "blue collar ministry" (as exemplified by the recent consultation with Dr. Tex Sample), nevertheless, we are not very proficient in this crucial arena of service. It is essential that we seek to become the church of the masses once again. To do so, we must be intentional, as well as bold.

5. We Will Develop New Models for Starting Congregations Which Maximize our Current Resources.

New situations call for new thinking, even concerning our definition of a congregation. Among the new models is one which could be called a "Church-Within-a-Church-Model" which seeks to start a new congregation within the facilities of an existing church. The new church has its own identity and integrity, and may be of a different racial-ethnic group or social class than the host congregation. Eventually the new church may move to its own facility, but may not.

A second new model is the "Satellite Congregation Model" in which a specific audience is targeted -- perhaps a mobile home park, an apartment complex, some ethnic or cultural group or perhaps a blue collar neighborhood. Again, an existing church seeks to reach this new group of persons, but this time on "their turf" rather than ours.

Much of our new thinking centers around existing local congregations taking major responsibility in new church start-ups. In some cases Church Extension will seek matching funds from sponsoring congregations to offset initial start-up costs. In others, sponsoring churches will be asked to provide "people-power" for a new congregation, volunteers who can help get the new work underway. Examples of both are found in our latest start-ups: (1) Custer Road Church in Plano is providing the entire start-up package for the new congregation to be established in north Carrollton.

They will fund the founding pastor's salary and housing, office space, program monies and all the rest of the initial start-up expenses. (2) In Flower Mound, First Church Lewisville and Trietsch Memorial Church of Flower Mound are supplying volunteers to get the new church off the ground. New models are already developing, and others must follow.

Help for Existing Churches

One Major Project Annually.

Our goal will be annually to assist at least one existing congregation which has extraordinary mission potential. The aid would be for relocations (property purchase, building costs, etc.) or for facilities expansion. Only congregations who are committed to growth, but are stymied by their facilities, will be considered.

WHY A CAPITAL FUNDS CAMPAIGN?
THE CALL OF GOD

United Methodism has a unique role to play in building God's Kingdom. We have a rich tradition that features a unique blend of careful theological reflection coupled with vital piety. Not too many decades ago, Methodism was the single largest Protestant denomination in the United States, reaching into virtually every corner of America. But this is no longer the case. The membership of local churches in the North Texas Conference has plateaued, and the percentage of the population we reach has plummeted. We have closed far more churches than we have started, leaving us with a net loss of almost 30% of our congregations in four decades. Nationally, we are no longer the largest Protestant denomination. We no longer reach the masses as once we did.

Yet despite the gloomy statistics, we are still a people under orders from our God. The calling of God was never that we strive to be "Number One," but rather that we seek to reach unchurched persons for Christ. The field is fertile, more wide open than at any time in recent decades. We are confronted with one and one-half million precious persons whom God loves. It is thus imperative that we strategize to meet the challenge.

Why do we need a capital funds campaign? The answer is simple: to enable us to reach unchurched persons for Christ. More unchurched persons than ever before live on our part of the planet. And the message we have been entrusted to deliver has an unprecedented urgency about it -- to bring a balanced, spiritual answer to a weary world. We simply must do a better job for two reasons: (1) because human beings desperately need to hear of the love and grace of our Christ, and (2) because our God is worthy of our best efforts. We are the link between hurting humanity and the God Who loves them. We are, as St. Paul phrased it, "Ambassadors for Christ!"

To accomplish our task will be difficult and expensive, not only financially, but in terms of time and effort. Discipleship is always costly. Of course our work cannot be accomplished by money alone, but neither can it be accomplished apart from sacrificial giving. A capital funds campaign, if implemented, will be one important tool for fulfilling our calling to faithfulness, enabling us to reach unreached persons for Christ.

SUMMARY REPORT TO THE NORTH TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE 1991 FROM THE BISHOP'S TASK FORCE ON CLERGY HOUSING

Bishop Blake appointed a 17 member Task Force on Clergy Housing in late 1989 which was composed of 7 laypersons, 3 clergy, 5 clergy spouses, 1 district superintendent, and 1 district superintendent's spouse. There were at least 2 representatives from each District.

The Task Force worked for approximately a year on the broad subject of clergy housing needs and standards in our Annual Conference, particularly in relation to itinerant system.

The other Annual Conferences in our Jurisdiction were surveyed to see what their standards were and how they handled this important matter. We also surveyed the Chairpersons of every Pastor-Parish Committee in our Conference, and we surveyed every minister/spouse under appointment in our Conference.

The response rate to the two surveys was phenomenal. There was a 47% response rate on the PPR Survey, and a 48% response rate on the Minister/spouse Survey. This unusually high rate of response underlines the concern about this matter both on the part of the clergy and the part of the congregations.

In 1974 the North Texas Annual Conference established a set of "Goals" or Guidelines concerning Housing Standards and Maintenance Standards. This is found on page 107 of the 1974 JOURNAL OF THE NORTH TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE. This same set of Guidelines or Goals is published again on page 219 of the 1984 JOURNAL as a part of the Equitable Salaries Commission Report, and has subsequently been distributed by them across the years. Please note that this is only a suggested GUIDELINE. We found that many congregations were not even aware of the existence of these "Guidelines".

The Surveys in our Annual Conference found a strong need for clarification of policies and standards, and a need for a district committee to enforce these standards.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE TASK FORCE FOR CONFERENCE ACTION:

We recommend that a Conference Commission or Conference Committee on Clergy Housing be established under the Division of Professional Ministries to deal with and establish these "Standards" and to assist the District Superintendents in implementing the same.

We also recommend that District Committees be established to implement these standards.

Our recommendation concerning the Conference Commission/Committee is that it be composed of a clergy and lay person from each district. One of the representatives from each district shall be the Chairperson of the District Committee on Church Location and Building. Special attention should be given to representation from small churches, rural churches, and ethnic churches, perhaps through some members at large.

RATIONALE: Our reason for having the Chairperson of the District Committee on Church Location and Building as a member of this Commission is that when remodeling of a parsonage, major additions to a parsonage, or the construction/purchase of a new parsonage comes before the District Committee, that District Committee MUST be aware of the Conference Standards and function as the key group to help guide local churches in bringing their parsonages up to the Conference Standard.

There is also concern from the Task Force that information be made available through the District Committee on Location, the District Superintendent, and others in the Conference concerning possible financial help, grants, matching funds, or loans which might be available to smaller churches that are trying to upgrade their parsonage or build a new parsonage. Many such churches do not know there are possible funds available.

There should be Conference wide input concerning the establishment of these Standards, and then Conference wide communication concerning the Standards established.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE TASK FORCE ON CLERGY HOUSING TO THE CONFERENCE COMMISSION/COMMITTEE TO BE ESTABLISHED:

1. We recommend that "STANDARDS FOR CLERGY HOUSING" be set rather than the "GUIDELINES" which are currently in effect.

2. We recommend that every Charge shall provide a parsonage for the Senior Pastor, instead of a housing allowance, in order that the itinerant system can work at its optimum level.

Our Task Force carefully studied congregations where housing allowances are provided, and just how this affects the itinerant system and pastors. It is the consensus of the Task Force that housing allowances provided for Senior Ministers appear to be a strong detriment to the itinerant system. When a house is being purchased by a minister (for a residence on a charge):

---there is much greater reticence by a pastor to move when the Bishop says move
---there is now included in the situation a major financial investment, which has the possibility of BOOM or BUST, or maybe just break even
---neither pastor nor congregation wants to take responsibility if the situation goes BUST and a major financial loss is involved
---if a pastor moves to a charge where there is a housing allowance and a house must be purchased, for most pastors this means "going into debt" in a major way just to provide the down payment for the house.
---any pastor electing to purchase a house assumes all associated risks. All Methodist pastors holding membership in the North Texas Conference understand the Methodist system of itineracy.

3. We recommend that parsonages be provided for District Superintendents and for Conference Officers under appointment, rather than housing allowances.

4. We recommend that since the number on staff for local churches varies, that the local church have the option of providing for associates either housing allowances or parsonages which will meet the same standards.

5. We recommend that every clergy family be responsible for their own personal Home Owners Insurance on whatever the pastor and family owns. The local church should carry insurance on Church-owned property.

6. We recommend the use of a Covenant Form between pastor and congregation concerning the parsonage. This Covenant should also include a Yearly Inspection with Check-list form. Appropriate persons on the Yearly Inspection might include the Pastor, Chrm.of PPR Committee, Chrm.of Trustees, and Chrm.of Parsonage Committee. In this Covenant, it is clearly stated that the congregation has the right to expect certain things of the pastor with respect to maintenance and appearance of the parsonage.

7. The parsonage should be furnished, or at least partially furnished. The new "STANDARDS" should address the issue of furnishings, including how much will be furnished by the church and how much will be furnished by the clergy family. When a church meets the standard for furnishings and the clergy family has duplicate furnishings, we recommend that the storage of those furnishings be the pastor's responsibility.

8. We recommend that the cleaning of the parsonage at moving time is the responsibility of the pastor. The Parsonage Committee, in cooperation with the pastor, should give the final inspection and OK after the cleaning has been completed.

9. We recommend that a Parsonage Maintenance Fund be set up in each local church budget each year.

10. We recommend that a specific parsonage report be given at each Charge Conference which would include questions similar to the following:

(1) Has an inspection been made of the parsonage this Conference year? Attach copy of inspection.
(2) What amount is set in Budget or escrow for parsonage maintenance and repairs this year?
(3) What amount has been spent on parsonage maintenance and repairs this year?

CONCERNS:

In addition to the above Recommendations, we share some important CONCERNS which deal with Clergy Housing and associated matters.

1. If a Commission or a Committee on Clergy Housing is established, and if that Committee is given the responsibility of drafting "STANDARDS", we would strongly urge that all major appliances, as well as all living room, dining room, and den furniture be furnished by the church. Furnishing of the master bedroom should be by the pastor. There were mixed feelings on the Task Force whether the Church or Pastor should furnish the other bedrooms, but a decision should be made on the Conference level and set in the Standards so all parsonages are the same.

2. We would also urge the Committee drafting "STANDARDS" to consider a pet policy. We feel there should be pet Standards set, as this appears to be a serious problem and a sore spot with many pastors/congregations. Our Task Force concurs with the results of the survey that pets should be allowed, but the pastor must be responsible for parsonage cleanup and any damage resulting from any pets in the parsonage.

3. Concern was expressed that moving expenses of pastors of rural churches or those exceptionally small churches that experience frequent moves be given serious study with a recommendation brought back regarding the Standard on this. Some nearby Conferences have in their guidelines for moving expenses that the church is responsible for moving costs ONLY WITHIN THE BOUNDARY OF THE CONFERENCE.
Our Task Force discussed numerous possibilities of approaching the problem of moving costs, but we came to no conclusions or recommendations. We noted that if the pastor furnishes more of the furniture in the parsonage, then moving will be more expensive.
Some of the possibilities discussed were:
---a Conference Moving Fund
---a cap on the amount a local church should provide ---assistance to smaller churches where moves are more frequent
---limiting area of responsibility covered by move, i.e., paying the moving expenses only within the Conference boundary.

4. Associate Pastor's moving expenses should be paid on the same basis as the Senior Pastor.

5. Moving time was discussed. Of the 200 respondents to the Survey, 78% wanted a day or two in between the moving out of the departing pastor and the arrival of the incoming pastor. Some Conferences have systems to accomplish this, but again, because of time and of our specific task, we did not delve into this issue deeply.

Our Task Force appreciates the opportunity we have had to study this matter. Each of us has gained knowledge and wisdom as we have gathered material and as we have shared insights. There has been much study, prayer, and soul searching concerning this important matter.
Our prayer is that this work may guide you in your work.

SUBJECT: THE NATIONAL PAN-METHODIST COALITION
A PROGRAM ON ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUG ABUSE

FROM: BISHOP'S TASK FORCE ON ALCOHOL AND DRUG ABUSE

PROPOSAL: The North Texas Conference approve our affirmation of and participation in the national program which will unite the UMC, AME, AMEZ, and CME in a joint effort to effectively prevent and alleviate substance abuse in our nation.

RATIONALE: Already the General Board of Discipleship, The General Board of Church and Society, The General Board of Global Ministries and the Publishing House have combined to unite with these other Methodist bodies to launch a five year project.

An executive office has been established in Nashville and the five year plan has been published. Copies of the plan which includes pilot projects in three cities are available from this conference task force.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION:
Approval of this work to establish this task force as a conference committee to work in cooperation with Conference Church and Society, Global Ministries and Discipleship as they may respond to national directives.

Publish the "Suggested Actions and Resource Materials for responding to THE BISHOP'S INITIATIVE ON THE DRUG CRISIS" as listed below:

1. Pray for the continued effective work of persons and congregations on the front lines of the United Methodist Initiative on the Drug Crisis.

2. Ask every member of the congregation to make a contribution toward the support of the Bishops' Initiative on Drugs. ADVANCE #982598-1

3. Designate a month as Substance Abuse Awareness Month. Invite local authorities to discuss the problems affecting your community.

4. Designate at least one Sunday as Substance Abuse Awareness Sunday. Order copies of the Substance Abuse Awareness Sunday Resource for Worship bulletin (#1401, $7.50 per 100) from the Service Center in Cincinnati.

5. Celebrate a special day for those in the process of recovery and help the congregation to become a "support" community.

6. Encourage the congregation to study the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church.

7. Contact the Health and Welfare Program Department of the General Board of Global Ministries, and the General Board of Church and Society for resources.

8. Order form Ecu-Film (800-251-4091) the video, "The Community in Crisis: A Covenant Response," to use with study groups.

9. Order copies of "Intricate Web--Drugs and the Economic Crisis" (#1404) @ $3.50 plus postage and handling from the Service Center in Cincinnati, for use with study groups.

Report from the Committee on Episcopacy to the North Texas Annual Conference

The Committee on Episcopacy is charged with fulfilling the responsibilities set forth in Paragraph 735 of The Book of Discipline. In keeping with our responsibility set forth in Paragraph 735.3.g, we will report in the spring of 1992 the needs for episcopal leadership in our Area to the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy through our duly elected Conference members of that committee.

The Committee on Episcopacy meets monthly to discuss the ways in which we might be helpful to Bishop Blake. Each month Bishop Blake sends out a letter to the members of the Committee and we discuss the letter and other matters when we meet.

The Committee hears what Bishop Blake is doing in his work. We listen as he shares his insight into the North Texas Conference, his personal feelings, his goals and dreams for the Conference. Then the Committee gives the Bishop feedback concerning these and other related matters.

The Committee has grown increasingly sensitive to the dynamics of a bishop moving into a new city with new responsibilities and has tried to understand and help in whatever ways are possible. We commend Bishop Blake's vision and leadership initiative as represented by "A Call to Community, Conviction and Commitment."

The Committee on Episcopacy continues to study the needs of the Area for an Episcopal Residence. A study committee is working on our behalf. It is our understanding that if there seems to be a need for a change in the Episcopal Residence, such a decision would require the approval of the Committee on Episcopacy, the Board of Trustees and the Council on Finance and Administration.

The Committee continues to ask for your prayers as we affirm and support our Bishop in the oversight of the spiritual and temporal affairs of the Church in the North Texas Annual Conference.

XIII. STANDING RULES

RULE 1.
The Rules of Order adopted by the General Conference of the United Methodist Church shall prevail at all business sessions of the conference.

RULE 2.
The Conference Council on Ministries is constituted to execute the functions detailed in the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE in addition to the coordinating functions in relation to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 3.
The membership of the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations shall be composed of nine persons: four lay persons and four ordained persons, plus the Conference Lay Leader (according to the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE.) The Director of the Conference Council on Ministries shall serve as consultant (according to the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE.) The elected persons shall be elected by the respective lay and ordained members of the annual conference by the same procedure as General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates are elected, without nomination and by secret ballot. One lay person and one clergy shall be elected each year for a four year term. A person may serve for only one four year term and shall be eligible to be elected again after being off the committee for two years. The elected members shall not be eligible to serve on any other conference agency while serving on the Committee on Nominations. Prior to the first ballot, it is recommended that the Bishop lift up the need for inclusiveness in the election of the members of the Committee on Nominations.

The committee shall annually elect its chair and secretary at the site of the annual conference following the election of new members.

ENABLING ACTION: The original Committee on Nominations shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee for 1991-92. Other nominations may be made from the floor.

Persons elected in 1991 to serve in the conference year of 1991-92 shall be exempt from the limitation of not serving on any other annual conference agency for this one year.

In 1992 all eight members will be elected; the first lay and clergy elected will serve for a four year term, the second elected shall serve for a three year term, the third elected shall serve for a two year term, and the fourth elected shall serve for a one year term. The three, two, and one year terms shall count as a full term.

The Committee on Nominations is responsible for:
1) developing and implementing a plan of identification of persons who are willing, qualified and able to serve as members of the agencies of the annual conference; 2) developing and implementing a plan to train and support persons who are elected to serve as members of the agencies of the conference; 3) nominating members and chairpersons of agencies of the conference to the session of the Annual Conference for election except where otherwise provided in the BOOK OF DISCIPLINE.

Persons shall be nominated to serve for a four-year-term on a conference agency (council, board, commission, committee.) No person shall be nominated for a position without previously agreeing to serve if elected. Persons who are absent without cause for half or more of an agency's meetings during the conference year will thereby automatically remove themselves from the membership of the agency and shall be replaced by the Committee on Nominations. The Committee on Nominations is authorized to provide for filling such vacancies between sessions of the Annual Conference, unless otherwise provided for in the DISCIPLINE.

The North Texas Annual Conference shall make it a policy to rotate membership on conference agencies, limiting any person to eight successive years on any one agency. However, a person may be re-elected to that conference agency after non-membership for four (4) years. The number of years of each person's term shall be listed after that person's name in the annual conference journal where the membership of the agencies are listed. Membership, except ex-officio, shall be held on no more than one conference agency in any membership category at the same time. These rules shall not be construed to apply to trustees of institutions.

Chairpersons for the Annual Conference's Councils, Boards, Board Divisions, Commissions and Committees shall be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the annual conference (except when specific alternative elective procedures are mandated by the BOOK OF DISCIPLINE or the Standing Rules: e.g., Board of Ordained Ministry, Board of Trustees, etc.) with opportunity for additional nominations from the floor. Persons elected shall begin their term of office at the close of the Annual Conference session of their election. A person shall not be elected to serve as chairperson of the same Annual Conference Council or Board for more than four years nor as chairperson of more than one Annual Conference Council or Board for more than six consecutive years in any eight-year period. A person may serve as chairperson of a Division, Commission, or Committee (excluding those committees listed in Standing Rule 3 as Annual Conference Committees) for four years, and still be eligible to serve as chairperson of a Board or Council for an additional four years, if in compliance with the 8-year agency limitation. Persons elected as chairpersons shall be in addition to the stated number of members for each Conference Agency, unless prohibited by the BOOK OF DISCIPLINE or the Standing Rules.

Each district shall be represented by at least one person on each council, board, board division, commission and committee unless the DISCIPLINE specifically precludes this possibility. The District Superintendents shall make necessary nominations following changes resulting from changes of appointments. Should a district cease to be represented on a given structural unit by virtue of a person moving, except for the Board of Ordained Ministry, that person shall remain on the said structural unit as an at-large member and another person shall be elected to that unit to represent that district. District representatives on each structural unit shall be responsible for conveying information from the district to the agency to any equivalent structural units at the district level.

Membership on all agencies (councils, boards, divisions, commissions, committees) shall include one-third clergy, one-third laywomen, and one-third laymen, insofar as possible. Special attention shall be given to the inclusion of clergywomen. The following agencies should also be considered as exceptions:

a. According to the Current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE:
   +COMMITTEE ON INVESTIGATION
   +JOINT REVIEW COMMITTEE
   +BOARD OF LAITY
b. According to the nature of the group/agency:
   +UNITED METHODIST MEN
   +COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRIES
   +COMMISSION ON ASIAN MINISTRIES

All agencies with any lay persons serving as members of the agency, will schedule meetings only after 6:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, or on Saturday or Sunday, unless all lay members are amenable to meeting prior to 6:00 p.m.

Each conference agency granted the option by the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE to define appropriate categories of at-large members for said agency may request the annual conference to approve these categories.

Members of the general agencies from the North Texas Conference will be members of the corresponding conference agency.

THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Annual Conference is defined and constituted according to the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE.

Constitutionally, "the Annual Conference is the basic body of the church." As such, the Annual Conference is not understood as an end in itself but as a means to enable United Methodists to serve God effectively and faithfully. The Annual Conference's actions, programs and ministries are intended to reflect the UMC's Theological and Social Principles.

THE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

The Conference Council on Ministries shall be organized in accordance with the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE. It shall oversee and coordinate the implementation of decisions made by the Annual Conference through the Annual Conference's various boards, commissions and committees. It shall also serve as a forum where conference program needs and concerns may be discussed.

All proposals related to the conference program shall be submitted to the Council on Ministries for discussion prior to their submission to the Annual Conference. (This is not in conflict with standing rule #25.) The Council on Ministries may choose to endorse, oppose or take no position regarding such proposals. Lack of endorsement by the Council on Ministries does not prohibit a conference agency from submitting a proposal to the Annual Conference.

The Council on Ministries shall not assume for itself responsibilities which belong to the Annual Conference. In cases of urgent necessity, the Council on Ministries may approve, by 2/3 vote, changes, additions or deletions from the conference program between sessions of the Annual Conference provided that, if funding is involved, prior approval shall also be received from the Council on Finance and Administration. Such actions shall be reviewed by the next session of the Annual Conference.

The Council on Ministries shall be composed of the presiding bishop; the district superintendents; the conference lay leader; the chairperson, vice-chairperson, and secretary of the Council on Ministries; the Board and Division Chairpersons of the, Board of Church and Society, Board of Discipleship, Board of Laity, Board of Global Ministries, and Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry; the chairperson of each independent commission; the chairperson of each commission and committee of the Council on Ministries; the chairperson of the Standing Rules Committee; the conference secretary; two representatives each of the Conference youth organization, United Methodist Women, and United Methodist Men. (If not already included in the composition of the Council on Ministries, the following at-large members shall be added: two young adults and the lay leaders of each district, and the person(s) serving on the General Council on Ministries.) The following shall be members of the council with voice and no vote: Conference Council on Ministries staff, the chairperson or representative of the Council on Finance and Administration, the Director the Council on Finance and Administration, and the Conference Statistician.

The chairperson, vice-chairperson and secretary of the Council on Ministries shall be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Council on Ministries. Other officers shall be be elected as needed by the council.

There shall be an executive committee created consistent with the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE.

THE COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

The Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration shall be constituted and shall function in accordance with the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE. The Conference Director of Finance and Administration/Treasurer shall be accountable to the Annual Conference through the Council on Finance and Administration and shall have responsibilities and rights accorded by the DISCIPLINE to the conference treasurer.

THE BOARD OF LAITY

The Board of Laity shall fulfill the functions as described in the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE. It shall foster an awareness of the role of the laity in the ministry and mission of the church by participation in the planning and decision-making processes of the Annual Conference. In order to provide input for such participation, and to provide the laity with a sense of ownership and accountability, the board shall interface between the grass-roots laity and the leadership of the Annual Conference. The Board shall serve as a forum for sharing the varied concerns of the laity of the Annual Conference, shall support and coordinate the work of the agencies represented, and shall become informed concerning the issues, concerns, frustrations, dreams and hopes of lay people in the local churches of each district. It shall interpret these concerns to the Bishop, the cabinet, and the director of the Council on Ministries by meeting with them at least twice annually. It shall also, through its district lay leaders, interpret United Methodist Youth Council, the Commission on Religion and Race and the Conference Lay Speakers Committee.

One year prior to the expiration of the term of the incumbent Annual Conference lay leader the Conference Nominating Committee shall nominate, and the Annual Conference shall elect, an Annual Conference lay leader elect with the opportunity for additional nominations from the floor. The lay leader elect shall serve as associate lay leader until the expiration of the term of the incumbent Annual Conference lay leader. The Annual Conference lay leader elect shall help with the duties of the Annual Conference lay leader as set forth by guidelines created by the Board of Laity. If at the expiration of the term of the Annual Conference lay leader, or upon the resignation of an Annual Conference lay leader, there is no incumbent lay leader elect, then an Annual Conference lay leader shall be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference with the opportunity for additional nominations from the floor.

THE BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

The Board of Ordained Ministry shall fulfill the functions described in the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE. It shall study and interpret the ministerial resources and needs of the North Texas Annual Conference with due regard to the inclusive church, in consultation with the Bishop and the cabinet. Duties shall be those assigned to it in the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE. It shall encourage and oversee the work of its four divisions in dealing with the issues under their purview. The board shall discuss and take action as it deems appropriate regarding proposals from its divisions.

The board shall consist of no fewer than 42 members. The chairperson of the board and its divisions shall be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the board, with the opportunity for additional nominations from the floor. The board shall elect from its membership registrars, a vice-chairperson, and a secretary. It shall designate its executive committee.

The members of the board shall be nominated and elected according to the current disciplinary provisions, with at least one member from each district on each division at the beginning of the quadrennium. Persons shall not be added to the board or divisions during the quadrennium, except to fill vacancies. When, because of any reason, a district no longer has someone on a division, the division shall appoint one of its members to be the liaison with that district. The board may assign additional duties to each division.

The board shall have the following divisions:

1. The Division of Preparation and Qualifications shall concern itself with preparing and qualifying persons for the ordained ministry and guiding those persons in the process of education, training, and ordination.
2. The Division of Conference Relations shall concern itself with making recommendations regarding the changes in conference relationships to all ordained ministers.

3. The Division of Local Pastors shall concern itself with all matters related to the designation and duties of local pastors as indicated in the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE.
4. The Division of Chaplains and Related Ministries shall concern itself with the care and guidance of persons who serve as ordained clergy persons in appointments beyond the local church.

THE BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

The Board of Diaconal Ministry shall fulfill the functions described in the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE. It shall study and interpret professional lay ministry resources and needs of the North Texas Annual Conference, with due regard to the inclusive church, in consultation with the Bishop and the cabinet. Its duties shall be those assigned to it in the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE. It shall encourage and oversee the work of its four divisions in dealing with the issues under the purview. The board shall take such action as it deems appropriate regarding proposals from its divisions.

The Board shall consist of no fewer than 28 members. The chairpersons of the board and its divisions and all members of the board and divisions shall be nominated by the presiding bishop after consultation with the current chairperson or immediate past chairperson of the board, or with a committee of the board, and with the cabinet. The board shall elect from its membership a registrar, a vice-chairperson, and a secretary. It shall designate its executive committee.

The Board shall have the following divisions with a minimum of seven members each representing the seven districts. The board may assign additional duties to each division.

1. The Division of Consecration, Certification and Conference Relations shall concern itself with preparing and qualifying persons for diaconal ministry and guiding those persons in the process of education, training, certification and consecration; it shall also concern itself with making recommendations regarding all changes in conference relations of all diaconal ministers.
2. The Division of Professional Growth shall concern itself with continuing education and all matters pertaining to diaconal ministerial morale.
3. The Division of Salaries, Insurance and Pensions shall concern itself with all matters pertaining to financial support systems for diaconal ministers.
4. The Division of Interpretation and Recruitment shall concern itself with the interpretation of the roles of Diaconal Ministry to the Annual Conference, its local churches, and its Boards and Agencies and the development of recruitment programs to interest persons to enter Diaconal Ministry.

THE BOARD OF PENSIONS

The Conference Board of Pensions shall fulfill the functions described in the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE. It shall have charge of the interests and work of providing for and contributing to the support, relief, assistance and pensioning of ministers and their families, other church workers and lay employees, except as otherwise provided. The board shall discuss and take action as it deems appropriate regarding proposals under its jurisdiction.

THE COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES

The Commission on Equitable Salaries shall fulfill the functions described in the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE. It shall carefully study the needs for additional ministerial support, the sources of income, and recommend a schedule of minimum salaries for the ministers. It shall operate as a committee of the whole with such divisions as it may determine.

The commission shall be composed of not less than 12 members, equally divided between lay and clergy, including at least one representative from each district. The chairperson shall be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference, with the opportunity for additional nominations from the floor. The commission shall elect from its membership a vice-chairperson and a secretary.

THE COMMISSION ON INSURANCE

The Commission on Insurance shall provide to all professional personnel the best insurance coverage possible with the funds available for that purpose. The commission shall negotiate with insurance companies to provide life, hospital, accident and disability insurance to the North Texas Annual Conference professionals as a group.

The commission shall be composed of not less than 12 members. The chairperson shall be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference, with the opportunity for additional nominations from the floor. The board shall elect from its membership a vice-chairperson and a secretary.

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees shall function and be constituted in accordance with the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE.

THE BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The Board of Church and Society shall fulfill the functions described in the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE. It shall be aware of and help to familiarize church members in the North Texas Annual Conference with the United Methodist Church's Social Principles; it shall (1) reflect upon issues under its purview from the standpoint of Christian ethics and (2) frame advocacy positions and/or propose taking other steps as may be deemed appropriate.

In order to do so, the Board shall organize its members into appropriate committees and task forces as it seeks to fulfill its responsibilities.

The board shall consist of no fewer than 21 persons, including three persons from each district--a lay woman, a lay man and a clergy person. The chairperson of the board shall be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference with opportunity for additional nominations from the floor. The board shall elect from its membership a vice-chairperson and a secretary. The board may elect up to ten members-at-large.

The Mission Coordinator for Christian Social Involvement of the Conference United Methodist Women shall be an ex-officio member of the Board.

THE BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

The Board of Discipleship and each of its divisions shall fulfill the responsibilities described in the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE. The Division of Youth Ministries, not described in the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE, shall continually assess the state of youth ministry in the local churches of the Conference to adequately support those ministries by providing leadership training for adult workers with youth, local church coordinators, church school workers and teachers, and district youth coordinators; by maintaining effective and standard District Council on Youth Ministries (DCYM); and by promoting the Youth Service Fund (YSF) through leadership training and goal setting in the local churches and districts.

The board shall consist of no fewer than 77 members. The chairpersons of the board and its divisions shall be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference with the opportunity for additional nominations from the floor. The Board shall elect from its membership a vice-chairperson and a secretary.

The Board shall have the following Divisions:

1. The Division of Education
2. The Division of Evangelism
3. The Division of Spiritual Formation
4. The Division of Stewardship
5. The Division of Worship
6. The Division of Children's Ministries

The committee shall be composed of three members, plus a chairperson nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference, with the opportunity for additional nominations from the floor.

RULE 4.

Section A. No one shall be a member of a conference agency who is in the salaried employment of an institution that receives support from that agency.

Section B. No member of this conference who is a salaried employee of any institution to which this conference contributes shall be a member of the Board of Trustees of the institution by which that person is employed.

Section C. No member of the Council on Finance and Administration shall be a member of any conference agency, or a trustee of a conference institution that is supported either partially or totally by the Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 5.

All reports of conference agencies shall be submitted in duplicate to the Conference Council on Ministries for their work in preparation for the meeting of the Annual Conference Councils, on or before the day designated by the Conference Council on Ministries. The reports shall be typewritten, double-spaced, and on one side of the page only.

RULE 6.

The lay members to the Annual Conference may be elected annually or quadrennially at the Charge Conference preceding the regular quadrennial meeting of the General Conference. The term of office of Annual Conference members shall begin on January 1 after their election at the Fall Charge Conference. If, for any reason, the Charge Conference is delayed until after January 1, their term of office shall begin immediately upon election. Lay members elected under the equalization process by the District Conference shall take office immediately and shall serve until the District Conference elects lay members for the succeeding year. The equalization lay members shall be elected by the lay members present at the District Conference from nominations made by the District Lay Leader, the District Superintendent and the Lay Members of the District Nominating Committee. Nominations may also be made from the floor of the District Conference.

The following are Lay Members of the Annual Conference with voice and vote and before the equalization process is applied to the difference between lay and clergy members the following names shall be deducted from such difference:

1. Conference Lay Leader
2. Conference President of the United Methodist Men
3. President or equivalent officer of Young Adults
4. Conference President of the United Methodist Women
5. President of the Conference Youth Organization
6. The District Lay Leaders
7. Two young persons under twenty-five years of age
8. All Diaconal Ministers who are in full-time service appointment
9. All elected chairpersons within the structure of the North Texas Conference who are not otherwise provided for.

RULE 7.

The term of office of local church officials elected by the Fall Charge Conference shall begin on January 1 and run for the length of their term. This rule shall not apply to members of local Boards of Trustees.

RULE 8.

The minister who shall be in charge of the funeral services of any minister of the North Texas Conference, or the spouse, widow, or widower of a minister of the North Texas Conference, will supply the secretary of the conference with a memoir containing: the date of birth; the date of death; the date of final rites; the place of burial; a recent photograph of the deceased; date of entrance or transfer into the conference; the conference from which transferred, if applicable; and, if possible, appointments in other conferences. In the event that the dates required are not supplied, they shall be added by the secretary of the conference, if possible. All of this information is to be sent to the secretary of the conference immediately following the funeral.

RULE 9.

In the event of the death of an active minister occupying a parsonage, the surviving spouse and family shall be granted the privilege of using the parsonage for a period of time not to exceed sixty (60) days.

RULE 10.

The Board of Ordained Ministry shall inquire of each district superintendent about the life and official administration of each member of the conference in his district and report to the conference as to whether all the ministerial members of the conference are blameless in their life and official administration.

RULE 11.

The secretary of the North Texas Conference Board of Trustees shall be furnished a legal description of each piece of property in the District, along with a statement as to where the deeds are kept, by the District Superintendent of that District, on or before December 1. This list shall be revised annually by the District Superintendent by December 1 to include each real estate transaction.

RULE 12.
The District Superintendent shall be required to report district statistics to the Conference Statistician.

RULE 13.
Section A. Each church and pastor shall submit the Annual Conference report to the District Auditor for auditing on the check-out day specified by the Cabinet.

Section B. Each District Superintendent, upon nomination of the Conference Statistician, shall appoint a District Auditor, whose responsibility it shall be to audit the Annual Conference reports. The District Auditor shall prepare these reports in correct form on the blank provided by the Conference Statistician and shall deliver them immediately following Check-Out Day to the Conference Statistician.

Section C. The Conference Treasurer's books shall be closed annually AT 3:00 P.M. on January 8 (or the closest working day), and no funds received by the Conference Treasurer after that time shall apply on Conference Apportionments of the year just completed.

Section D. The fiscal year of the Annual Conference shall be January 1 to December 31. The apportionments to the local churches shall be made on this basis. The only exception to this shall be the salaries of the clerical members serving as pastors or district superintendents. When a pastoral change comes at Annual Conference, the salary of the previous appointment shall be paid through June 15, and the salary in the new appointment shall begin June 16.

RULE 14.
Each pastor in charge shall be required to report to his district superintendent on District Check-Out Day any money borrowed necessary to pay current church obligations for the Conference fiscal year, or any delinquent church bills which have not been paid by the close of the Conference fiscal year.

RULE 15.
Gifts to members of the conference in recognition for service rendered shall not be made on the floor of the conference.

RULE 16.
Interest earned on any funds, (excluding designated trusts) managed by the Conference Treasurer shall be declared general funds of the North Texas Annual Conference and administered by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 17.
No agency of the North Texas Conference shall incur financial obligations that exceed current appropriations for any reason except by specific approval of the Council on Ministries, the presiding Bishop and the Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 18.
Section A. No conference agency shall include requests for funds other than those required for its own operation or program; requests for funds for the same cause or concern shall be granted to only one conference agency.

Section B. Conference Agencies of the North Texas Conference shall make expenditures only in accordance with their respective budgets for the current year and shall in no case introduce new items not included in their approved budget. New items may be submitted to the Council on Finance and Administration for appraisal and consideration for the current year or may be included in the budget request submitted for the coming year.

Section C. Any agency in the Conference has the right of appeal to the Annual Conference regarding a decision affecting its work made by any other agency, except where otherwise provided in the DISCIPLINE.

RULE 19.

The Council on Ministries is responsible for presenting to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration a proposed budget incorporating program and administrative items for its agencies and related district agencies. This report is to be submitted on or before the date set annually by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 20.

When application is made to the conference for the privilege of a special conference-wide financial appeal, whether by special collection, campaigns, or otherwise, the application shall be referred to the Council on Finance and Administration before final action is taken thereon. The Council shall investigate the application and its possible relation to other obligations of the conference, and in light of the facts make recommendations to the Annual Conference.

RULE 21.

Section A. The Council on Finance and Administration shall nominate to the Annual Conference an auditing firm which shall audit the Conference Treasurer's books annually.

Section B. All agencies and institution receiving financial support from the conference, either by direct apportionment or by special offerings, shall if requested submit an annual auditor's report acceptable to the Council on Finance and Administration by September 1 of each year for the previous fiscal year.

RULE 22.

Annually the conference treasurer, with the assistance of the District Superintendents, shall compute the apportionment decimal for each church and by September 1 provide the amounts for each church's apportionments for the following year.

RULE 23.

Matters which are not a part of the Pre-conference Report of a particular agency of the Annual Conference may come before the conference only after they have been duplicated and distributed on the floor of the conference by the beginning of the day they are to be considered. This Rule shall not be so construed as to preclude proper amendments to reports or matters of privilege.

RULE 24.

The following ethical principles for the appropriation and disbursement of funds by the North Texas Annual Conference shall be observed:

A. Funds contributed for a designated purpose should be used strictly for the purpose designated, and administered efficiently, without waste or duplication, in order to obtain maximum effect from the use of available funds.

B. Net proceeds from the sale of Annual Conference property are capital funds, and should be appropriated to the use which the property was intended to serve. If this is not feasible, priority should be given to the most similar purpose for which the funds can be used effectively, or to capital improvements within reasonable geographical proximity; but district lines should not be controlling and the entire community or metropolitan area should be considered. Likewise, funds received by way of indemnity for loss or destruction of any capital assets of the Annual Conference should be treated as capital assets and should be used for similar purposes if restoration of the property is feasible.

RULE 25.

It shall require a two-thirds (2/3) vote of all lay and clerical members present and voting to suspend or to amend any of these standing rules.

GERALD LEWIS CLORE

When Gerald Clore was a young Methodist minister just graduated from the Garrett Seminary at Northwestern University, he was assigned to Centenary Church in Hammond, Indiana. The assignment turned out to be fortuitous, for it was here that Gerald first heard of Goodwill Industries through its founder, Edgar Helms. In 1931, he launched a new Goodwill in Hammond.

Gerald and Anna, his wife, had their hands full serving a community that was hard hit by the Depression. People were desperate for work, for food to feed their families, and fuel to heat their homes. Gerald organized a work team to cut wood and Anna asked women in the community to can vegetables for distribution to those in need. In a bold move, he persuaded officials of the 1934 Chicago World's Fair to give Goodwill the remaining exhibits. These he towed through Chicago with a dilapidated Ford truck--he had to stop on the way to saw off the parts that wouldn't fit under the L tracks.

From 1938 to 1942, Gerald served as Executive Director of Goodwill in St. Paul, Minnesota, and then in Dallas from 1942 to 1969. He arrived just two weeks after the Goodwill had burned to the ground. But over the years, he and his dedicated staff developed what was one of the most progressive and effective rehabilitation agencies anywhere.

In his travels, he spread the idea of Goodwill across the U.S., Latin America, and the world. He became the father of many Goodwills and worked tirelessly, even after his retirement in 1969, to raise funds for international outreach.

Today, several thousand disabled people are working and hundreds of others devote time and energy to the Goodwill cause because Gerald inspired people to believe in themselves and what they could do together.

Born on May 16, 1904 in Jamestown, Indiana, Gerald received his undergraduate education from De Pauw University with a bachelor's degree in urban social work. He died on September 14, 1990 in Dallas. A memorial celebration was held on September 22 at Preston Hollow United Methodist Church in Dallas. He is survived by: daughters, Marianna Blase of San Antonio and Burneta Clayton of Nashville, Tennessee; a son, Gerald L. Clore, Jr. of Urbana, Illinois; seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

JAMES ELDER CONNATSER, JR.

James Elder Connatser, Jr., was born in Merit, Texas, in 1924 and grew up in a family of nine children on a farm in tiny Celeste, Texas. One of Jim's classmates there was Audie Murphy, who as a boy lived, when necessary, in the Connatsers' barn and became the most decorated soldier in World War II. Jim, on the other hand, went on to become a man of peace and my hero.

With his wife Betty May, the youngest of sixteen children from Josephine, Texas, he moved to Greenville, Texas and became the much loved postman known for the dozens of loyal dogs that would accompany him on his route. Then social attitudes typified by the infamous sign leading into the town square, "The Blackest Land, The Whitest People," helped shape his message of equality and ministry to all.

But his was a message ahead of its time, even in the halls of Methodism. For calmly confronting the bigotry of the White Citizen's Council in 1957 at a Dallas School Board meeting when blacks were first attempting to get representation, he was spat upon and mobbed, and the incident was splashed on the front page of the newspapers. He was abruptly relieved of his church by the District Superintendent before the following Sunday--leaving him and his family without a home--blackballed from appointments for a time and abandoned by the hierarchy of the church as well as many ministerial friends afraid, perhaps, to show support. Thereafter he was relegated to small and often troubled pulpits; branded, for better or worse.

Yet, Jim Connatser remained true to his calling and true to his beliefs and true to Methodism. He unflinchingly continued to champion the rights of the downtrodden in the tradition of John Wesley; he sang with an endearing and beautiful voice of God's grace and love from the verses of Charles Wesley at so very many weddings, graduations, and funerals; he served and preached wherever he was sent, as did Asbury, finding blessing and promise among wonderful congregations at those small pulpits. He ministered to everyone who would heed and everyone in need, regardless of race, creed, color, or social status. He counseled with a special gift of innermost kindness to the troubled, the alcoholic, the convicted, the suicidal, the broken in spirit, the lost, the bereaved, and the individual.

Against great odds, Jim Connatser precipitated change and challenged traditional mores from within the system. At his retirement, with Betty at his side as always, and in front of a session of the annual conference, he revealed for the first time the truth of his saga with the forthrightness of a Nathan. A young minister behind me who couldn't possibly relate to the deep-seated bigotry and hyprocrisy that faced the civil rights pioneers, muttered, sarcastically, "What is this?", and my sister and I turned to say, "This is our father".

Almost immediately after his retirement his health began to fail and five months later he died unexpectedly but well prepared, having fought the truly good fight.

Members of every congregation he ever served attended his funeral. Liberty, Addison, Minter, Milton, Shady Grove, Cunningham, Oak Cliff (First Methodist), Allen, Cedar Hill, Dallas (Grace United Methodist and Southwood United Methodist), Iowa Park, Denison, Winnsboro, Trenton/Blue Ridge, Plano (Briarwood and First), and Little Elm/Elm Ridge.

The skies poured as "Amazing Grace" was sung at his graveside service, then immediately the only sunshine in days broke through and a rainbow proclaimed that his well of hope, his legacy of unshakeable faith, and his message of love to all our brothers had been welcomed by God, along with the good and faithful servant himself.

His name may not last as long as those of the Audie Murphys, the Wesleys, the District Superintendents and the Bishops, unless you count the ten thousand years, bright shining as the sun, as the place to begin. He was, simply, Brother Jim, my father, my hero.

Steve Connatser

OMER B. ROGERS

Omer B. Rogers was born March 30, 1900, at Altus, Oklahoma. He entered his eternal reward on Christmas Day, 1990.

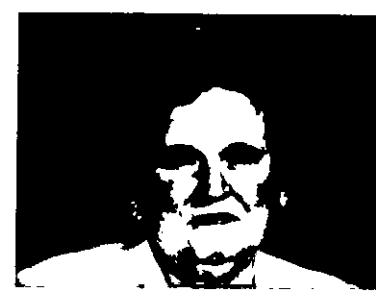
Brother Rogers was married to Mable Edna Canfield on October 6, 1928. His wife survives him, along with eight children, all of whom are active in their own United Methodist Churches, twenty-seven grandchildren and twenty-nine great-grandchildren.

O. B. was educated at the old Wesley College. He joined the North Texas Conference in 1937, was ordained Deacon in 1939 and Elder in 1941. He served the following charges, all in the North Texas Conference: Merit, Lake Creek, Weston, Dodd City, Pickton, Winnsboro, Avery, Harmony, and the Lamar County Larger Parish. For three years he served as part-time Executive Secretary of the North Texas Town & Country Commission. He was active in the conference leadership of the Town and Country work, in fact, he was really "Mr. Town & Country" of The North Texas Conference for a score of years.

Funeral services were held at Turrentine-Jackson Funeral Home, McKinney, Texas, on December 29, 1990, with Reverend John J. Peel, Reverend Boyd M. Sawyer, and Reverend Fred Adams in charge.

Fred F. Adams

DOROTHY ADAMS



Dorothy Adams was born into a home near Cleburne, Texas. She had a good family with deep loyalty to the Methodist Church.

Dorothy attended the public schools and later prepared herself to teach.

Following the death of Fred Adam's first wife, Dorothy was introduced to Fred, who was then serving a church in the Wichita Falls District. Their courtship became serious and they were married. They lived together for forty-five years. Dorothy was thiry-two years of age when the marriage began.

Dorothy moved into a Methodist parsonage and became the mother of two teenage children. That was not an easy task, but she succeeded in this duty. Dan and Rebecca loved her dearly and turned to her for advice and inspiration.

Dorothy moved from appointment to appointment, and she was always a great comfort to Fred. Dorothy was a homemaker; but she was also a person of wide ranging interests. The family says, "Dorothy always maintained her independence and integrity."

Dorothy and Fred lived together in a number of places including Grapevine, Cooper, Cockrell Hill, and Preston Hollow in Dallas. Dorothy maintained friends in all of these congregations. She enjoyed her life, and others enjoyed her.

Dorothy was a musician and used her talent to make a contribution to the church that Fred was assigned to serve. Dorothy was seventy-six years of age when she died February 23, 1991.

ROSA LOU ANDERSON

Rosa Lou Anderson, nee Rosa Lou McCracken, was born December 12, 1900 in Sulphur Springs, Texas. It was in Sulphur Springs that she met Roy Anderson, who likewise was born there on September 10, 1896. Roy and Rosa Lou were married in December 1919.

Roy was received in the North Texas Annual Conference in 1926. Rosa Lou took on the duties of a pastor's wife. Their home was blessed with the birth of five children. Rosa and Roy served together in the North Texas Conference for 36 years. During that time there were several moving dates which required changes in schools for the children and made opportunity for making many new and lasting friendships.

Rosa Lou was an accomplished pianist and organist. Her leadership was appreciated and gladly accepted by many of the churches. Mrs. Anderson was an artist in painting. Her children's homes have cherished many beautiful paintings through the years. She also had a good sense of humor and made many friends over the North Texas Conference. She loved people and helped many through difficult times. She was very loyal to her church and took an active part in each church as long as her health allowed.

Her husband, Roy, preceded her in death, and his funeral service was held at First United Methodist Church, Garland, January 27, 1971.

Rosa Lou moved to C.C. Young Home where she resided for some years. Later she spent her last days in the hospital. Her death came on January 4, 1991. Her burial was at Shooks Chapel near Sulphur Springs, Texas.

She was preceded in death by her daughter, Willie Louise Cook, in 1984.

Her survivors are: sons, Phil, Joree, Herschel, and James Anderson; sister, Elma Nicholson; eleven grandchildren; and fifteen great-grandchildren.

GAYLORD BLISS CAMPBELL CULBERTSON

Gaylord Bliss Campbell Culbertson, wife of Reverend Donley E. Culbertson (retired), died on June 9, 1990, after a long illness. The service of remembrance and celebration for Gay was held on Monday, June 11, 1990, at graveside in Restland Memorial Park, Dallas, with William T. Stephenson, William J. Washington, and John Ogden officiating.

She was born on January 19, 1911, to Ruby Armstrong Campbell and Joe Campbell in Sulphur Springs, Texas. She was an honor graduate of Texas Wesleyan College of Fort Worth and did graduate work at Southern Methodist University in Dallas. Gay excelled as a minister's wife and a teacher for many years. Since their retirement she had been a member of Highland Park United Methodist Church and active in the AYA Class and the Mr. & Mrs. Class. She was a life member of the SMU Alumni Association.

Mrs. Culbertson is survived by her husband of 56 years, Reverend Donley Earl Clubertson, Sr.; two sons and their wives, Donley Earl Culbertson, Jr. and Judy of Dallas, Dr. Joe Campbell Culbertson and Susan of Salt Lake City, Utah; 4 grandchildren, Kimberly Elen and Judith Dawn Culbertson of Dallas, Joe Campbell Culbertson, Jr. and Courtney Lee Culbertson of Salt Lake City, Utah; and a sister, Mrs. W. L. Greer of Sulphur Springs.

This true servant lived her faith through all her years and it was most evident in the last years of illness. She found her strength as expressed in the hymn:

Because He lives I can face tomorrow;
Because He lives all fear is gone;
Because I know He holds the future;
And life is worth the living
Just because He lives.

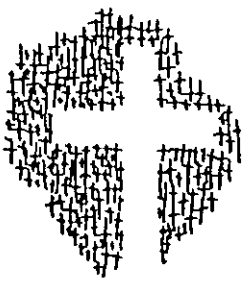
MARY LOU ESPIE



Mary Lou Espie, born May 23, 1915, wife of retired United Methodist pastor, Reverend Charles O. Espie, passed away on Wednesday, June 20, 1990.

Mary Lou was known for her Christian character, loving smile, loyalty, and loving devotion to her family and her church. She had known no long suffering nor lasting illness; she was quickly called away in the midst of a conversation with her husband, Charles. The Espie's had experienced a marriage which had spanned more than a half century with as many years spent in the ministry of United Methodist Churches in both the former West Texas Conference and of late in the North Texas Conference. Along with her husband, Mary loved the Lord's Church and worked tirelessly by his side.

The Espie's had placed their membership at the Mount Calvary United Methodist Church in Wichita Falls, Texas. Pastor James Pierce prefaced the funeral services for Mrs. Espie with a brief prayer for Charles, who was rushed to the Wichita Falls General Hospital, suffering a suspected heart attack. The funeral services were video taped for Charles and relatives in attendance upon him.

The funeral services were conducted by Reverend James Pierce and Walter Zimmerman, pastor of First United Methodist Church, Mesquite, Texas. Dr. Marshall E. Hodge, Lambuth United Methodist Church, Dallas, Texas, delivered the eulogy. Mary Lou was buried in the Eastland Memorial Park, Wichita Falls, Texas.

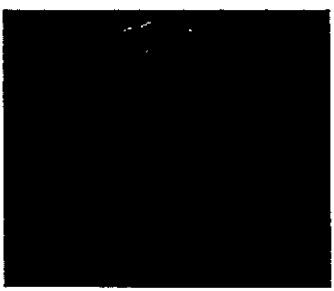
WILLIE MAE DAVIS FARLER



Willie Mae Davis Farler was born July 23, 1893, in the Oakland Community, Hopkins County, Texas. She was the daughter of William J. Davis, an outstanding Methodist layperson and community leader. She was the granddaughter of Reverend William P. Davis, an early circuit rider in the Methodist Church.

Christmas Eve, December 24, 1909, she was united in marriage to Samuel Petway Farler. On November 15, 1912, Brother Farler was licensed to preach in Sulphur Springs, Texas, and thus began her journey as "the Preacher's wife" as Brother Farler went on to complete his education and to preach from place to place. To this devoted couple were born two children, W. Sam Farler and Norma Mae Rogers. Reverend Farler passed on in 1954.

Willie Mae attended East Texas Normal College in Commerce, Texas.

Sister Farler is not usually remembered as an outgoing person. In the parsonage, however, she gave outstanding support to her husband in his ministry. She played the piano for services, taught in Sunday School, and was an active member of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. She was a loyal member of the Methodist Church.

Willie Mae Farler is survived by: her son, W. Sam Farler of Dallas, Texas; her daughter Norma Mae Rogers of Frisco, Texas; a brother, William J. Davis of Grass Valley, California; and four great-grandchildren.

When we reported for duty at the Frisco Methodist Church in June of 1957, we soon became acquainted with "Bill" Farler and her sister Emma Farler. Our friendship blossomed into a "tie that binds our hearts in Christian love." This then young preacher, his wife, and young son, became part of a Methodist family whose love for our Lord is "a beacon to God, to love and loyalty." We experienced with them "a foretaste of glory divine." This experience continues with the passing of every day! Mrs. Farler, in her own unique way, exerted an influence over our son in his very young years, like good seed, planted in good ground, bringing forth a harvest in due season. Every little boy needs a "Mrs. Farler" to love him and watch him grow to manhood! Mrs. Farler was an adopted grandmother to both Courtney and Wilda, our son and daughter.

"Bill Farler" lived a long and glorious life. Like her Saviour, she experienced sorrows and grief. But in all of this she is "more than conqueror, through Him who loved her." As we watched her grow older in body, we witnessed a believer sustained moment by moment to the time of her transition. Tuesday, November 20, 1990, Sister Farler quietly returned to her Maker. The service of Christian burial was held for Willie Mae Farler Friday, November 23, at the Frisco United Methodist Church. Reverend A. Bailey Duncan and Reverend Robert Hasley conducted the service. She is buried beside her husband at Restland Memorial Park, Dallas, Texas.

When we asunder part,
It gives us inward pain;
But we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again."

MADELE TERRY HARES

Madele Terry Hares was a person of warm wit, gentle humor, and strong faith. With her husband Jim, she served the church universal and the United Methodist Church as pastor's spouse, faithful layperson, and children's educator. For more than sixteen years, she directed the children's ministry at Spring Valley United Methodist Church in Dallas. Prior to that, together with Jim, she served at Highland Park United Methodist Church, Dallas; Northaven United Methodist Church, Dallas; and the chaplaincy at Southwestern University. She was nationally recognized for her work with children, and had been president of the Methodist Association of Kindergarten Directors. Madele began her career as a public school teacher in Kingsville, Georgetown, and Sequin, Texas.

Madele's creativity and her appreciation of arts and artifacts were exceeded only by her love of travel. Together, Jim and Madele visited more than seventy countries, many of which were commemorated by her collections and her famous Christmas trees, which were decorated with the mementos of their travels.

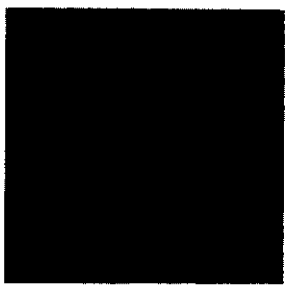
Born in West Columbia, Texas, Madele graduated from Texas Lutheran College, and from Texas A&I University. She did graduate studies at Garrett Theological Seminary. Madele and James Hares shared the blessing of marriage for forty-four years.

She is survived by her husband, James C. Hares; her son, Terry; three daughters, Lanetta Addor, Edith Hares, and Holly Hares; and four grandchildren, Heather Hares, Jim Hares, Martha Addor, and Alden Addor. She is survived as well by a great host of friends and loved ones, whose lives have been touched and influenced beyond compare by this caring, loving woman of faith.

The memorial service in gratitude to God for her life and ministry, was held at Spring Valley United Methodist Church on February 5, 1991, with Reverend Jack Gibson, Reverend J. William Morgan, Dr. Don R. Benton, and Dr. Don F. Renshaw officiating. She is lovingly remembered and will be greatly missed.

Don F. Renshaw

WINNIE MONTGOMERY



Winnie Montgomery, widow of Roy Montgomery, died July 10, 1990 after a short illness. Her services were held July 12, 1990 in the Coker Funeral Chapel in Decatur, Texas, with Fred Kandeler of Dallas and Bob Ware of Paradise, officiating. Interment was in Hibbit Cemetery at Walnut Bend, Texas.

Winnie was born in Marietta, Oklahoma on March 26, 1909. She married Roy Montgomery April 21, 1928 in Gainesville, Texas.

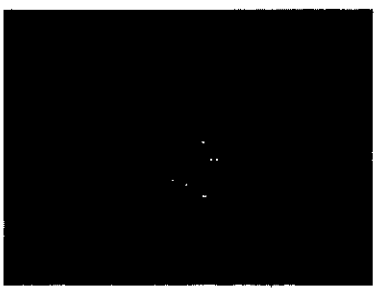
Winnie served with Roy as a minister's wife from 1932 to 1985 in Southern Oklahoma and the North Texas area. Winnie had lived in Rhome, Texas most of the time since 1947. She was a member of the Rhome United Methodist Church. Some of the churches served were: Paradise, Garvin, Springtown, Roanoke, Alvord, Sunset, Era, and many years at Rhome.

Winnie had many friends in all of the towns where they had served. She was an inspiration to all the people who knew her, especially to her own children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

She is survived by: her son, Ron Montgomery; her daughters, Peggy Harrison and Betty Franks; seven grandchildren; and fourteen great-grandchildren.

Fred Kandeler

EDITH SMITH



Edith Smith's life was a testimony to the joy of God's saving grace in Jesus Christ and the enduring power of God's ever-present Holy Spirit. Her beautiful personality exuded love and peace for all who were blessed to be in her presence. Her indomitable character demonstrated courage and endurance in the face of unspeakable tragedy and debilitating illness. It was with deep gratitude and genuine awe that so many of us were privileged to receive her love and to love her in return.

With her gracious and faithful husband, Jack, she gave us two wonderful and abiding love stories--her love of God as revealed in Jesus Christ and her love of Jack "for better or for worse, for richer or for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish" till death has parted them for a time.

Edith was born on January 30, 1916 in Wellington, Texas and died on May 19, 1991 in Seagoville, Texas. She and Jack were married on April 8, 1933; they shared their lives together for fifty-eight years.

NELL SMITH

Funeral services for Nell Smith, 99, of Dallas, formerly of Hopkins County, were conducted at 10 a.m. Thursday, December 20, 1990, in Murray-Orwosky Funeral Chapel with the Reverend Gaither Day officiating and Reverend Gene Gordon assisting.

Burial was in Mount Sterling Cemetery with Don Reed, Wayland Smith, Carl Mack Randolph, Clovis Harbor, Jr. and Joe Shell serving as pallbearers.

Mrs. Smith died Tuesday in C.C. Young Memorial Home in Dallas.

She was born October 29, 1891, in Maltabend, Missouri, to William A. and Mary Jane Johnston Garnett. She married the Reverend Blantie L. Smith on August 15, 1915, in Hopkins County. He retired from the ministry while serving the Coppell Methodist Church in 1964. Reverend Smith preceded her in death in 1970.

Mrs. Smith was a homemaker and a member of First United Methodist Church Sulphur Springs.

Survivors include four daughters: Audrey Rozelle and Mildred Schaerdel, both of Dallas, Helen Green of Arlington, Hazel Keelin of Hillsboro; five grandchildren: Willard Keeling of Fort Worth, Peggy Rozell and Linda Pabin, both of Dallas, Christy Ghoshi of Garland, and Nancy Foster of Grand Prairie; eleven great-grandchildren; and one great-great grandchild.

She was also preceded in death by two grandsons, one great-grandson, three brothers and three sisters.
