I. CONFERENCE HISTORY

United Methodism in North Texas began in 1816-17 as part of Arkansas Methodism in the Missouri Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. When the denomination divided in 1844-45, Methodists of this area became a part of the East Texas Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. In 1867, the approximate area of what is now this conference, was set apart as the Trinity Conference, and later (1874) renamed the North Texas Conference.

The Methodist Episcopal Church had little organized work in Texas after 1845, until 1867 when a Texas Mission was formed. Out of that Mission came the West Texas Conference (primarily Black). In 1939 the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and The Methodist Protestant Church united to form The Methodist Church. The West Texas Conference, while a part of The Methodist Church, was in the Central Jurisdiction (all Black). The North Texas Conference was a part of the South Central Jurisdiction, which was one of the geographical jurisdictions.

At the Uniting Conference to form the United Methodist Church held in Dallas, Texas, April 1968, a new Annual Conference was formed in North Texas including members, congregations, and ministers of the North Texas Conference of The Methodist Church of the South Central Jurisdiction(1939-1968), and members, one congregation, and one minister of the Oklahoma-Texas Conference of the Evangelical and United Brethren Church (1886-1968).

At a merger conference held in Dallas, Texas, in May, 1970, members, congregations, and ministers of the North Texas Conference; and members, congregations, and ministers of the West Texas Conference located within the geographical boundaries of the North Texas Conference became the North Texas Conference of The United Methdist Church.

The sessions of the current North Texas Conference are numbered first from 1867, the organizational date for the North Texas Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Texas Mission of the Methodist Episcopal Church and secondly from 1970, the date of merger of the former North Texas and West Texas Conferences.

A list of the Conference Sessions of these separate conferences is printed in:

(1) the 1939 Journal of the North Texas Conference, South Central Juris diction, (P.28-29) and the 1967 Journal of the North Texas Conference, South Central Jurisdiction (P.140);
(2) the 1967 Journal of the West Texas Conference of the Central Jurisdiction (P. 88);
(3) the 1967 Official Record of the Oklahoma-Texas Conference of the Evangelical and United Brethren Church (P.17); and
(4) other histories of Methodism in North Texas.

IX. DAILY PROCEEDINGS

CLERGY EXECUTIVE SESSION I

The Executive Session for the clergy members of the North Texas Conference was opened at 4:00 p.m. on Sunday, June 7, 1992, in the sanctuary of Custer Road United Methodist Church, Plano, with John Thornburg leading the singing of "And Are We Yet Alive." Bishop Bruce P. Blake offered the opening prayer.
Ronald Henderson, Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, expressed appreciation to all members of the Board for their work during the 1988-1992 quadrennium. Henderson called upon the division chairpersons to present their reports.

William Stephenson, Chair of the Division of Chaplains and Related Ministries, referred members of the conference to the Division's report as contained in the composite 1992 Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry which had been distributed. There being no matters requiring legislative action nor any questions concerning the report, Stephenson moved its adoption. It was received.

David Rucker, Chair of the Division of Local Pastors, also referred to the full report, noting the Division's dates for Licensing School and interviews with local pastors. Rucker moved adoption of the Division's report; it was received.

Donald Renshaw, Chair of the Division of Preparation and Qualifications, asked members of the Division to stand in recognition of the magnitude and faithfulness of their work. Noting the development of the Pastoral Residency Program as one of the significant accomplishments of the Division, Renshaw invited Gary Mueller to outline the content and process of the program.

Don Renshaw reports on the work of the Division of Preparations and Qualifications.

John Rosenburg discusses the new Center for Pastoral Effectives.

Renshaw presented the legislative proposal "Upgrading Educational Requirements for Deacon and/or Probationary Membership from Paragraph 415.2 to 415.3." The proposal would designate a Master of Divinity or equivalent first professional degree from a school of theology listed by the University Senate as the minimum educational requirement for Deacon and/or Probationary Membership in the North Texas Conference. Renshaw moved adoption; it was approved. LA1

John Rosenburg, Chair of the Committee on Continuing Education, highlighted the rationale and moved adoption of the proposal on "Formulation of the North Texas Conference Center for Pastoral Effectiveness." Questions were raised regarding reallocation of the Ministerial Education Fund and the source of additional funding for the center. Vote was taken; it was approved. LA2

Howard Hedges, Jr., Chair of the Division of Conference Relations, noted for information the "Policies and Procedures for Dealing with Clergy Sexual Misconduct" which were printed in the composite Board of Ordained Ministry Report. Bishop Blake announced dates for district seminars on "Sexuality in the Workplace": Dallas-Denton, October 26; Dallas Central, October 28; Dallas Northeast, November 23; Dallas South, December 9; Sherman-McKinney, January 25; Paris-Sulphur Springs, February 8; Wichita Falls, March 15.

Bishop Blake called for the Disciplinary Questions.

Question 17: Ronald Henderson reported that the Board of Ordained Ministry found all clergy members of the conference to be blameless in their life and official administration. Barbara Marcum expressed continuing concern over the Board's disposition of charges brought against Dr. William Farmer regarding his entering into full communion with another church. When asked what options for further consideration were available to the Executive Session, Bishop Blake listed four: (1) to accept the report of the Board that no action be taken in this particular matter; (2) not to accept the report of the Board and ask that the question be divided in order to vote this person separate from all other members; (3) to seek a declaratory decision from the Judicial Council; (4) to ask Bishop Blake to rule as a question of law.

Kenneth McIntosh moved that a summary of the information surrounding this matter be prepared and presented to the Executive Session. Bishop Blake ruled that Ronald Henderson could make a summary statement, following which Question 17 would be considered. The motion carried.

Henderson reported on the interviews with Dr. Farmer and the deliberations of the Board during the three years since Dr. Farmer united with the Roman Catholic Church. Scott Jones moved "to table Question 17 until the rationale of both the majority and dissenting members of the Board could be prepared and presented to the Executive Session." The motion carried.

Question 19: Barbara Marcum, Candidacy Registrar, read from the composite Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry the names of persons who have received the certificate of candidacy for ordained ministry and noted the following corrections: Dallas Central, add Jean Davis and Raphael Villareal; Dallas-Denton, remove Gloria Walters; Dallas Northeast, remove Jeffrey Merck; Wichita Falls, add Thomas Crowder.

Question 20: David Rucker named persons who have completed studies for license as a local pastor and are approved but are not now appointed: Jesse Coulson, Lenard Jordan, James Merck.
Questions 21: Rucker read the names of those approved and appointed as local pastors: FULL TIME--Larry Bell, Marilyn Bozell, Nancy Butts, Elwin Campbell, Judith Cooper, Larry Davis, James McKenzie, Mike Pulliam, Juan Ramos, Roberto Ramirez, John White; PART TIME--Edgar Bell, Billy Brown, J. L. Capers, A. Frank Cook III, Raymond Grube, George Harris, Willie Johnson, Jeffery Miller, Sylvesta Shed, Bob Ware, Bob Warford, Billy Wilder; STUDENT--Keffe Cropper, James Edwards, Michael Green, Don Griffin, Ken Hamric, Ernest Jackson, Kenneth Johnson, Terry Jones, John Kay, William LaBarr, Greg McCrimmon, Monty McKnight, Michael Miller, Sarah Howe Miller, Martha Myre, Jeffrey Pruitt, Ellis Reed, Fred Rister, Patricia Sherman, Allen Snider, Terry Tomlinson; CONTINGENT UPON LICENSING SCHOOL--(Full Time) Thomas Crowder, (Student) Kathryn Fuhr Fretwell, Nancy Tomlinson, Raphael Villareal, John Wallace.

Questions 22 and 23: David Rucker reported that five persons have been discontinued as local pastors--Robert Cutlipp, Michael Efird, Michael Griggs, Clementene Gulley, Stephen Hearrell--and two have been reinstated--Richard Lucier and William Rogers.

Questions 24, 25, 26, and 27: Charles Cox, Registrar, reported two ordained ministers from other annual conferences or Methodist denominations approved for appointment in the North Texas Conference--Daniel Dalton and Levy Laguardia. Cox reported no clergy in other Christian denominations currently approved to serve appointments within the North Texas Conference. Lawrence Althouse and Kelli Walker-Jones were named as affiliate members without vote; there were none to received as associate members.

Questions 28 and 37: Cox called for persons to be elected as Probationary Members and to Deacons Orders to stand before the Executive Session: Melton Caraway, Jr.; Sue Ann Hill; Leta Gorham; Lisa Greenwood; Elizabeth Skinner Johnson. Upon individual vote, all were unanimously approved.

Question 29: Charles Cox named persons continuing as Probationary Members--Diana Brown Holbert as a student in an approved school of theology, and the following as having completed their educational requirements: Janice Virtue, Marsha Engle, Jeffrey Garrett, Mark Haines, Vonceil Jones Hill, Philip Hirsch, Virgie Cooper Holbrook, Daniel Humbert, In Hwang, Cheryl Jordan, Sung Kang, Young Kim, Sarah Heaner Lancaster, Donald Lee, Sung Lee, Thomas McGee, Gregory Neal, Pa Pan, James Pierce, Kristie Rosset, Kathryn Taylor Strempke, Thomas Waitschies, Harry Wright, Jr.

Candidates for Deacon's Orders are presented to the Executive Session.

Mike Nichols, Conference Secretary, and Bishop Bruce Blake follow the business of the Executive Session.

Questions 31 and 38: Charles Cox asked that those to be elected as Members in Full Connection and to Elders Orders stand before the Executive Session: Glen Blackmon; James Bowden; Elaine Eppes; Eric Folkerth; James Goodwin, Jr.; Charlise Hill-Larson; David Howeth; Susan Hollis Jacobson; Kathleen McLean-Davis; Brian McPherson; Tommy Medley; J. Burton Palmer, Jr.; Beth Rakestraw. Bishop Blake presented the historic disciplinary questions to the candidates. Vote was taken individually; all were unanimously approved.

Questions 35, 39, and 40: Cox read the names of In Sang Hwang as having been received by transfer from the Central Texas Conference and Ernest Jackson as coming from another Christian denomination upon recognition of orders. Cox reported the following persons as having been transferred out to other annual conferences: Roger Baker, Vincenta Cisneros, Robert Fletcher, Barbara Harmon Hill, Chul Lee, Michael McGregor, William Wyman, Jr. R. Mitchell Skidmore was discontinued as a Probationary Member.

Question 43: Howard Hedges reported those who have been granted honorable location this year: Jordan Gary and Jacqueline Ponder.

Questions 44: Hedges read the names of those who have had their conference membership terminated: By withdrawal to unite with another denomination--Philip McLarty and Jerome Morgan; by surrender of the ministerial office, William Allen, Jr.

Question 45: Hedges reported the following Members in Full Connection who have died during the year: Jerry Delleney; Spurgeon Dunnam III; W. V. Cade; Charles Espie; Raymond Flaherty; Joseph Quinlan, Jr.; J. B. Sharp; Walter Towner.

Question 46: Persons receiving appointments in other annual conferences while retaining membership in the North Texas Conference were listed by Howard Hedges: Edward Cherryholmes, Harry Houseman, Kwame Lartey, Kathryn Taylor Strempke.

Question 47: Hedges named those ordained ministers on leave of absence: Edmund Deane, Katherine DeGrow, Guy Garrett, Phillip Hudson, Wayne Merrill, Glenn Noblin, Sally Ruggia, Linda Smith, Rodney Wallace. Those placed on leave of absence since the last session of the Annual Conference were reported as Edmund Deane and Mark Haines. The leave of absence of Mark Haines was reported to have been terminated since the last session of the Annual Conference.

Questions 49 and 50: Howard Hedges reported sabbatical leave granted to Martha Gilmore and disability leave to Randal James, Robert Turnipseed, Clay Yeager.

Question 51: Hedges reported the following Members in Full Connection being retired: Ralph Burke; Jack Busby; Donald Coke; Robert Cooper; Jack Gray, Jr.; Arthur Renfro; William Slack, Jr.; Montie Stewart; Bobby Wilkie.

Question 54: David Rucker recognized Louise Banner Welch as a local pastor retiring this year.

William Crouch offered an amendment to the report, stating that "honorable location be granted to Glenn Noblin if an appointment beyond the local church is not secured by September 1, 1992." It was approved.

By voice vote, the Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry was adopted; the Executive Session was adjourned.

LAITY SESSION

The session for lay members of the North Texas Conference was called to order at Custer Road United Methodist Church at 4:00 p.m. on Sunday, June 7, 1992, by Richard Stanford, Conference Lay Leader. Bryan Clark offered the invocation.

Stanford announced three items as the agenda for the laity session: (1) to hear the report of the six lay delegates to General Conference; (2) to explain procedures for electing persons to the Conference Nominating Committee; (3) to explain the nominations for the jurisdictional pool for election to general agencies.

(1) Thalia Matherson, Chair of the General Conference delegation, reported on the logistics of the work of the General Conference. Each of the other members of the delegation--Mary Brooke Casad, Ron Koo, Tom Christian, Raymond Williams, and Pat Deal--made brief statements and evaluative comments on what they believed to be overarching issues of the General Conference.

(2) Richard Stanford explained that the new process for electing the Conference Nominating Committee called for four lay persons to be elected from the floor of annual conference. Those elected would be divided into classes with the first elected serving four years; the second, three; etc. Stanford also invited suggestions of names of persons who might be considered for election.

(3) Stanford then explained the process for nominating persons for the jurisdictional pool for election to general agencies of The United Methodist Church.

Peggy Schafer, Lay Leader of the Sherman-McKinney District, offered the benediction, and the session was adjourned.

SUNDAY EVENING FESTIVAL OF PENTECOST

At 7:30 p.m. on Sunday, June 7, Custer Road United Methodist Church, Plano, was host to a Festival of Pentecost. Greetings were offered by Mark Craig and Bishop Blake; a songfest was led by Pat Messick, Celia Whitler, and Ron Whitler. Worship leaders were Walt Marcum and Lynn Santillan. The Call to Worship was read from Acts 2:1-21 and interpreted by the Sounds of Joy Ringers from First United Methodist Church, Plano, and the Sacred Dance Choir from First United Methodist Church, Richardson.
Arthur Kulah, Bishop of Liberia, was the preacher for the evening. His sermon, "Miracles Then and Now," was based on Mark 6:30-44, 15:32-39. Bishop Kulah recounted his personal experiences during the turbulent times of a military coup in Liberia as affirmation of God's continuing miracles in life.

Pat Messick; Ron Whitler, and Celia Whitler lead the songfest at the opening worship service on Sunday evening.

The Sacred Dance Choir interprets Acts 2:1-21 during the Sunday evening service.

The evening's offering was designated for scholarships for the conference camping program, and the offertory anthem was sung by the District Youth Choir of the Dallas Northeast District. Youth and youth workers from across the annual conference served as communion assistants.

MONDAY MORNING BUSINESS SESSION

At 8:00 a.m. on Monday, June 8, 1992, the business session of the annual conference was opened at the Plano Centre with the singing of "I'm Goin' a Sing When the Spirit Says Sing." Bishop Blake introduced Plano civic leaders who brought greetings to the members of the annual conference--James Munz, Mayor; Sue Whitehurst, Chamber of Commerce.

Bishop Blake expressed appreciation for the work of Michael Nichols, Conference Secretary, and Walter Zimmerman, Conference Statistician, who are retiring from those positions, and for the faithful attendance of Fleta Williams whose husband was killed in an automobile accident in route to the 1991 session of the conference.

Organization of the Conference

Michael Nichols nominated persons to serve as Assistant Secretaries: Larry George, Ben Shinn, William Upchurch, Walter Zimmerman, Millard Fairchild. They were elected. Nichols further nominated tellers to serve the conference: Tim McLemore, Head Teller; Irma Florez, Tracy Wallace, Harold Dangerfield, and Levy Laguardia--Dallas Central; Pam Holcomb, Jim Heath, John Kay, and Don Lee--Dallas-Denton; Ernest Deadwyler, Linda Smith, Don Yeager, and Marjorie McNeir--Dallas Northeast; Emma Ward, Lucille Dalton, Joe Pool, and Tommy Waitschies--Dallas South; Carol Moreland, Dana Austin, Glen Blackmon, and Dan Boyd--Paris-Sulphur Springs; Evelyn Hopkins, Paula Aldridge, Virgie Holbrook, and Allen Snider--Sherman-McKinney; Ted Brewer, J. A. Loftis, Tommy Brumett, and Karl Klaus--Wichita Falls. They were elected.

Registration for members of the annual conference was accomplished by use of computer print-outs of district personnel rosters for ordained and diaconal ministers and by use of registration cards for lay members.
Bishop Blake directed attention to page 31 of the Pre-conference Workbook for the nomination of the Journal Committee, Memoirs Committee, and Committee on Courtesy and Resolutions. They were elected. Michael Nichols moved adoption of the Lay/Clergy Equalization Table for 1992; it was approved. (LA3) William Crouch, Chair of the Agenda Committee, offered corrections to the printed agenda and moved its adoption; it was approved. Crouch further moved that the bar of the conference be established as the seats located at tables; it was approved.

Bishop Blake related the joy that had been his in making his episcopal visit to Africa and in being able to take the love gifts from the North Texas Conference as a way of affirming the life and ministry of the conferences and congregations there.

Richard Stanford encouraged members of the conference to visit the Ministries Mart, a "supermarket of ministry ideas," also located in the Plano Centre. Fred Kandeler, Chair of the Committee on Courtesy and Resolutions, presented Robert Young who brought greetings as the Administrator of Mount Sequoyah Jurisdictional Conference and Retreat Center in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Board of Diaconal Ministry

Richard Wilson, Chair of the Board of Diaconal Ministry, reported that the entire Board had participated in the General Conference Study on Ordained Ministry. Wilson reminded the conference of legislation adopted in 1991 regarding employment practices for diaconal ministers, establishing the expectation that churches and agencies employing diaconal ministers would develop and submit to the Conference Board of Diaconal Ministry and the appropriate District Superintendents job descriptions, contracts, evaluational and terminations procedures for diaconal ministers.

Wilson reported the transfer in of Beth Freeman from the New Mexico Annual Conference and presented Certificates of Certification as Church Professionals to Sharon Adair, Debbie Chapman, Judy Coke, Laura Roth, and Jack Fields. Leave of absence was requested for Jo Ann Blount (4), Royce Hardaway (4), Dorothy Holloman (4), Leslie Stevens (4), Jan Wiksten (3), Susan McConnall (2), and Espie del Rosario (2); it was approved.

In accordance with Paragraph 313.3a of the 1998 BOOK OF DISCIPLINE, Wilson requested termination of the relationship of Diaconal Minister for Glynda Groth and Cindy Shirley; it was approved. Retirement status was requested for Ray Davidson and Esther Zimmerman; it was approved. And four persons were presented for consecration: Marianna Acton, Sharon Wilson Adair, Judith Houston Coke, Ann Love.

Wilson thanked members of the conference for their support and encouragement of diaconal ministers and moved adoption of the full report; it was adopted.

United Methodist Publishing House

Sam Albright brought greetings from the United Methodist Publishing House and presented Bishop Blake with a set of books from the new "Dimensions" series. Albright reminded the conference of several new books authored by members of the conference and presented a check in the amount of $8,704.88 for the clergy pension fund from proceeds of the United Methodist Publishing House.

Statistician's Report

Walter Zimmerman, Conference Statistician, expressed appreciation to those who have served as district auditors and statisticians. Zimmerman encouraged accuracy in the preparation of local church statistical reports.

Zimmerman presented the Statistician's Report, noting that in 1991 the North Texas Conference showed an increase in 3 of the 4 person areas: church membership, morning worship attendance, and church school membership. The grand total spent by churches of the conference in 1991 also reflected an increase of 4.4 percent over 1990, and the per capita giving increased by $17.

Bishop's Presentation
"Reaching the Unchurched: In Flesh and Blood"

A procession by the Handbell Choir of First United Methodist Church, Richardson, led to members of the conference singing, "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing." Bishop Blake offered prayer.

Bishop Blake reminded the conference that reaching the unchurched is the heritage of Methodism but should be continued as a priority only because it is still appropriate and relevant for our day. The Bishop asked whether the conference has lost "the will and desire to reach" as he affirmed his belief that to leave the priority of reaching the unchurched "on the shelf" is to work against the will of God. More time is often spent on defining the "unchurched" than on what it means to reach. Reaching the unchurched is not a theory; it is a way of life, a way of behavior for Christians.

Seven laypersons from across North Texas share with the conference members how they were reached by the church.

Seven lay persons from across the annual conference engaged in an interview with Bishop Blake as he listed seven marks of reaching the unchurched: (1) confidence, (2) presence, (3) flexibility, (4) invitation, (5) anticipation, (6) intentionality, and (7) grace.

Board of Ordained Ministry
Elders' Sharing

Darrell Glen Blackmon affirmed his confidence that God's grace is real in the journey of faith and is made tangible in the people of the North Texas Conference. Blackmon expressed thanksgiving to God for many blessings, including family, lay and clergy friends, and the possibilities of service in the annual conference.

Glen Blackmon

Jim Bowden

James Bradley Bowden spoke of his call to ministry as the recognition of a lack of focus in his life, a searching and confusion, a lack of perspective and dimension. Bowden's hope for his ministry is "to be a faithful instrument of the God who seeks to sculpt human lives into the image of Jesus Christ in whom there dwells the fullness of life."

Tera Elaine Eppes described the unique celebration of June 7, 1992, as the day her 12-year-old daughter was confirmed in the Christian faith in the morning and she, voted into full conference membership in the afternoon. "Every here and there in our world and every now and then in our lives, we get a glimpse of the new creation," Eppes quoted, "and my ordination is that glimpse for me."

Elaine Eppes

Eric Folkerth

Eric Stewart Folkerth spoke of his call to ministry as a call to service and to community. "When we hear the call," Folkerth reflected, "where can we go but to our God by going to our church and to each other? Pray for us, as we will pray for you."

Charlise Hill-Larson

Bill Matthews seeks mercy in his photograph for the Conference Journal.

Charlise Hill-Larson offered a testimony of thanksgiving for the great cloud of witnesses who have nurtured her call to ministry from her early life and in her experience of women clergy in significant service. Hill-Larson thanked members of the conference for being witnesses to her of dedication to God and of care for one another.

Courtesy and Resolutions

Sammy Hargrove presented Dwight Ramsey who spoke of his personal involvement in the establishment of, first, Methodist Societies and then United Methodist churches in Russia. Ramsey, pastor of Broadmoore United Methodist Church in Shreveport, Louisiana, introduced Lydia Istominia, first United Methodist pastor of the first United Methodist church in Russia. Istominia expressed great appreciation for the conference's help and support, specifically in providing boxes of food and medical supplies, which represented a sharing of faith and love.

Bishop Blake greets Lydia Istominbia.

Dwight Ramsey introduces Lydia Istominia to the conference.

Adjournment

Following announcements by the Conference Secretary, David Blackmon offered the closing prayer, and the morning session was adjourned at noon.

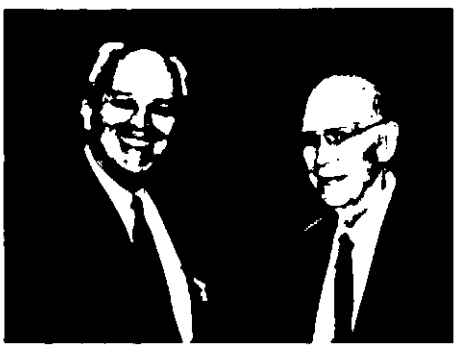
MONDAY AFTERNOON BUSINESS SESSION

The afternoon session convened at 1:30 p.m. with John Thornburg leading the conference in singing "Spirit Song," accompanied by Tim Morrison.

Council on Finance and Administration

David Shawver, Chair of the Council on Finance and Administration, expressed appreciation to members of the Council and to James Hares, Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services.

David Shawver listens to a question from the floor during the CFA report.



Fred Kandeler and Bishop Lance Webb, current and former pastor of University Park UMC.

In presenting the Council's report, page 40 of the Pre-conference Workbook, Shawver thanked the conference for its support of connectional missions and ministries and explained the process by which the Council had paid close attention to the most recent local church statistical reports in determining the percent of increase or decrease in recommended apportionments for 1993. In order for the "fair share" principle of apportionments to work, Shawver reminded conference members of the need for every local church to pay 100 percent of its apportioned responsibility. As he reminded the conference of the BOOK OF DISCIPLINE mandate that Conference Claimants, District Superintendents' Salaries, Episcopal Salary, and Equitable Salary apportionments be paid on the same schedule as the pastor's salary is paid. Shawver went on to offer a special word of thanks to those churches that participate in the District Second Mile Apportionment Fund Advance Special.

The Wichita Falls District was congratulated for paying 100 percent of connectional causes in 9 of the last 13 years, and the Sherman-McKinney District was recognized for 100 percent pay-out in 1991. The purchase of a fidelity bond policy to cover all persons authorized to handle local church funds in every church in the annual conference, the investment of monies through the Texas Methodist Foundation, and the premium supplement scales for the 1993 health insurance premiums were highlighted in the Council's report.

Shawver moved "that Edward Wheeler be nominated for election by the Jurisdictional Conference to serve as the North Texas Conference representative on the South Central Jurisdictional Council on Finance and Administration for the next quadrennium." Vote was taken, and Wheeler was nominated.

Shawver also moved "that James Hares be elected to serve as the Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services for the North Texas Conference during the next quadrennium." Vote was taken, and Hares was elected.

Shawver moved approval of Section II, Recommended Goals to Local Churches, in the Report of the Council on Finance and Administration. They were approved. Shawver further moved the approval of Section III concerning Salary, Benefits, and Expenses for Superintendents and Directors and calling for a 4.0 percent salary increase. Section III was approved.

Shawver directed attention of the conference to the Addendum to the Pre-conference Workbook, specifically to Section IV--Recommended Apportionments--where decreases were shown in apportionments from both General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

UMR Communications Center

David Shawver presented the "Proposed Resolution for Consideration by the North Texas Annual Conference" concerning the commitment to "join with other Ownership Conferences to underwrite a portion of the funding of the construction and occupation of the new UMR Communications Center in an amount of $300,000 to be raised within the geographical area of the North Texas Conference."

James Palmer, Chair of the Board of Global Ministries, reported that that Board had agreed to add this project of the United Methodist Reporter to the list of Conference Advance Specials if the resolution were to be adopted by the conference. Questions were raised as to the unmet needs that the proposal would address, and Sanford Kuhn of the UMR was voted permission to speak to the conference and address such concerns. Vote was taken, and the resolution was adopted. LA4

Ministries Mart

As a part of the conference agenda, the session was moved from the seated area of the Centre to the Ministries Mart.

Board of Diaconal Ministry
Diaconals' Sharing

Mariana Acton related her journey of searching for peace by seeking to love God in response to God's love for her. "God's invitation is always present," Acton shared. "It is up to us to decide when to respond."

Mariana Acton

Sharon Adiar

Sharon Adair recounted her experiences in leading a youth work team to an Appalachian Service Project in West Virginia. Following an unusually challenging series of events, Adair found herself discouraged, only to be buoyed up by the faith and prayer offered and shared by the youth. "That was a holy moment," Adair remembered, "and that is what ministry is all about."

Judy Coke expressed her deep thanksgiving for God's gifts, particularly two gifts: the gift of music and the gift of God's people with whom to employ that gift. Her affirmation of faith was expressed in Isaac Watts' hymn, "O God, Our Help in Ages Past."

Judy Coke

Ann Love

Ann Love described her call to diaconal ministry as something which kept "bubbling up" inside her. She looked in a variety of places in an attempt to ease her spiritual confusion. She still feels the "burning inside" but now as motivation for ministry.

Jurisdictional Seminaries

James Kirby, Dean of Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, expressed appreciation to the conference for gifts to St. Paul and Perkins Schools of Theology, including the Perkins Fair Share Program of the last two quadrennia. As representative of the life and work of the 13 United Methodist schools of theology, Kirby up dated the conference on developments at St. Paul and Perkins and thanked members of the conference for the support and encouragement which enable the seminaries to be responsive to the changing needs of ministry.

Standing Rules

Wynn Stanton, Chairperson of the Committee on Standing Rules, moved the adoption of the legislative proposal calling for "Establishment of a Conference Committee on Clergy Housing" in accordance with the recommendation adopted by the 1991 Session of the Annual Conference. It was adopted. LA5

Wynn Stanton discusses with the conference the change in Standing Rules.

Conference clergy share fellowship in the Ministries Mart.

Stanton moved adoption of the resolution to eliminate the requirement for "District Representation on Conference Agencies" while affirming inclusive representation. It was adopted. LA5

The legislative proposal calling for "Change in the Size of Conference Agencies" was moved by Stanton with a correction so that lines 16 and 17 would read, "shall have no more than three at-large positions." Rufus McKnight moved to amend the proposal to include in line 16, "no agency other than the Board of Church Extension." The amendment carried; the amended proposal was adopted. LA5

Stanton moved adoption of the resolution concerning "Nomination of Membership for the Board of Diaconal Ministry," noting that the proposal would bring the procedure into compliance with the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE. It was approved. LA5

A legislative proposal to allow the "Membership of the Nominating Committee" to be eligible to service on other conference agencies was presented by Stanton. It was approved. LA5

A change to Standing Rule 13 concerning the "Annual Deadline for Apportionments Payment" was moved by Stanton and approved by the conference, establishing 12:00 noon instead of 3:00 p.m. as the schedule for closing the Conference Treasurer's books. LA5

A "Recommendation to Amend Standing Rule 3, Board of Ordained Ministry," to provide for a Division on Continuing Education was presented by Stanton; it was approved. LA5

Nominating Committee

Donald Barnes, Chair of the Nominating Committee, invited members of the annual conference to note corrections to the Report of the Nominating Committee as printed in the Pre-conference Workbook:

Donald Barnes moved acceptance of the corrected report; it was approved. Barnes further explained the new process for the Nominating Committee through which information is gathered from local pastors, agency chairs, district superintendents, members of the Nominating Committee, and a clip sheet in the UNITED METHODIST REPORTER.

Board of Ordained Ministry
Elders' Sharing

David Thomas Howeth related how as a youth his being allowed to bring his secular music into the church made a lasting impression on him and said to him that in The United Methodist Church he could bring all of who he was, nothing had to be left at home. He expressed gratitude for The United Methodist Church as an accepting, affirming fellowship in which people are free to be whole in the task of ministry for the glory of God.

David Howeth

Susie Jacobson

Susan Hollis Jacobson affirmed that "God is good and miracles do happen." A vocation in computer marketing and sales allowed her to put together the needs of the customer and the products she represented in order to offer a solution. Her faith in Jesus Christ and her call to ministry now invite her to share that faith with people who are seeking life solutions for empty souls and hurting bodies.

Kathleen McLean-Davis described the affirmation of her call to ministry through the experience of seeing other clergy women participate in the Service of Ordination.

Wellness Task Force

Eugene Browder moved adoption of the resolution concerning "Initial Phases of a Preventive Medicine/Health Promotion Program for Employees of the North Texas Conference" and invited Brian Gray to speak in regard to the program. Questions were raised as to eligibility (all clergy, diaconal, and lay employees), and length of the program (year-to-year).

Adjournment

Following announcements by the Conference Secretary, Rusty Talbot offering the closing prayer, and the afternoon session was adjourned.

MONDAY EVENING WORSHIP

The 7:15 p.m. Service of Worship was held in the sanctuary of Custer Road United Methodist Church, Plano. Pre-service music was offered by organist Mark Lucke, a brass ensemble, and choirs from the United Methodist churches of Plano.

David Collett introduced Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pfautsch, and the congregation stood in recognition and celebration of Pfautsch's manifold gifts and distinguished career. Terry Price read a greeting to Dr. and Mrs. Pfautsch from President and Mrs. George Bush. Pfautsch directed the evening's anthem, his arrangement of "I'll Praise My Maker."

The Lessons from Holy Scripture were Mark 9:2-8 and Matthew 26:30-34. Preacher for the evening was Bishop Arthur Kulah whose sermon title was "On the Mount with Jesus." Bishop Kulah recounted the importance of mountaintop experiences for Abraham, for Moses, and for Peter, James, and John. He shared his conviction that annual conference is intended to be a mountaintop experience--not only to make reports and conduct business, but also to be renewed for the work of the Church by placing our hands in the hands of Jesus and saying, "Here I am, Lord; send me." "Do not leave this place until you have been touched by God," Bishop Kulah encouraged the congregation as he concluded: "Are you on the mount with Jesus?"

Bishop Kulah preaches during the Monday evening service.

The evening's offering was designated for scholarships for the summer camping program of the annual conference. Pastors of the Paris-Sulphur Springs District served as worship leaders, and the service culminated in a Congregational Reaffirmation of the Baptismal Covenant.

EXECUTIVE SESSION II

Clergy members of the North Texas Conference reconvened in Executive Session at 9:00 p.m. in the sanctuary of Custer Road United Methodist Church. Bishop Blake outlined the process for dealing with Disciplinary Question 17: A motion would be in order to divide the question to deal with all members of the conference except Dr. William Farmer. Rationale would be presented explaining both the decision of the Board of Ordained Ministry and the continuing concerns of individual members. Bishop Blake then led in prayer.

Ronald Henderson moved to lift Disciplinary Question 17 from the table. The motion was seconded and passed. Henderson then moved to divide the question. The motion was seconded, and it carried. In response to the question, "Are all clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration, excepting Dr. Farmer?" the Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry answered, "Yes." Vote was taken; it was accepted.

Following statements explaining the position of a majority of the Board of Ordained not to recommend termination of Dr. Farmer's membership in the annual conference and the position of individual clergy members of the annual conference who believe Dr. Farmer's actions to be in violation of the order and covenant of The United Methodist Church (ref. 1991 Conference JOURNAL, p. 86), Bishop Blake restated his concern to protect the rights of Dr. Farmer in the process of the Executive Session.

After lengthy discussion, Charles Cox moved to terminate the membership of Dr. William Farmer in the North Texas Conference. The motion was seconded and passed.

Bishop Blake expressed his hope that members of the Executive Session would discipline themselves in prayer for Dr. Farmer, for one another, and for the Church. As a beginning to that season of prayer, Bishop Blake offered the closing prayer.

TUESDAY MORNING BUSINESS SESSION

As the conference reconvened at 8 a.m. on Tuesday, June 9, John Thornburg led members in singing "Help Us Accept Each Other" and "It Is Well with My Soul."

John Thornburg leads the conference in song.

Council on Ministries

Zan Holmes, Chair of the Council on Ministries, reported that the Council understands its mission to be to help develop leadership in local congregations so that those churches can continue their mission of making disciples in Jesus Christ. The Council has adopted a new budgeting procedure aimed toward both enabling the agencies for their work and ensuring that the Council lives within its means.

Holmes listed accomplishments of the Council on Ministries: continuation of the Ministries Mart, development of plans for Conference Academy for Faith Education (C.A.F.E.) to be held September 11-12 at the Collin County Community College, development of a new conference resource insert in the UNITED METHODIST REPORTER, development of training programs around the theme of "Every United Methodist an Evangelist," training of the Conference Council staff to be leaders in mission and ministry, a record number of summer campers, and partnership with RSI to provide every congregation with a basic stewardship education and budget program.

John Mollet, Chair of the Division of Stewardship, expressed the Division's desire to help local congregations with stewardship issues. Resource Services, Inc., has developed a new stewardship campaign for local churches--"Discover the Joy." There will be no cost to churches for the basic plan, and in October there will be opportunities to attend district training events.

James Palmer, Chair of the Board of Global Ministries, reminded the conference of the celebration two years ago of the 50th anniversary of UMCOR. Since that time the North Texas Conference has contributed leadership to UMCOR in the person of Bruce Weaver who served in an interim position while a new chief executive was being sought. Weaver spearheaded the collection of food for Russia, and the latest totals indicate that more than 2,000 tons of food was collected and delivered. Palmer invited the conference to express appreciation for the work of Bruce Weaver.

Palmer moved adoption of the 1993 Special Days Calendar as printed on page 11 of the Pre-conference Workbook; it was adopted. (LA6) Palmer also moved approval of the 1992-1993 Conference Advance Specials as listed on pages 12-13 of the Workbook and page 6 of the Addendum with the addition of the UNITED METHODIST REPORTER Communications Center. The list was approved. LA7

Amy Cajiuat, Chair of the Commission on Religion and Race, presented the legislative proposal concerning the "Gospel Call to a New Beginning in Relating to Native Americans." Zan Holmes moved its adoption; it was approved. LA8

Cajiuat also presented the proposal regarding "Societal, Political, and Individual Racism." Zan Holmes moved its approval. Thomas Brumett moved a friendly amendment to Item 2 of the Desired Implementation to include "the Governor of the State of Texas, the Attorney General of the State of Texas, and all members of the North Texas Conference regional delegation of the Texas State House of Representatives and Senate." The amendment was accepted, and the motion passed. LA9

Cajiuat, on behalf of the Commission on Religion and Race and the Ethnic Local Concerns Committee, presented the "Joint Statement on the Rodney King Verdict." Rene Lawson moved to amend the third line of the first paragraph to delete "shock and dismay" and substitute "strong concern" and to insert "apparent" between "the" and "miscarriage." Lawson further moved to amend the third line of numbered Item 2 to include "to continue to work towards." Vote was taken; the amendment carried. DeForrest Wiksten moved to amend the title of the statement by deleting "Rodney King" and adding "Involving the Los Angeles Police Officers" so that the title would read, "Joint Statement on the Verdict Involving the Los Angeles Police Officers." The amendment was approved, and the amended joint statement was adopted.

Pat Deal, Chair of the Council on Ministries Budget Committee, presented the proposed 1993 Apportionment Allocation Request, pages 69-71 of the Pre-conference Workbook. Deal explained the Committee's work in cooperation with the Council on Finance and Administration and the agencies of the Council on Ministries and highlighted areas of increase being requested in the 1993 request.

Hal Brady moved to amend the 1993 Apportionment Allocation Request "that $25,000 be added to the request for the Texas United Methodist Colleges to restore one-half of the proposed decrease of $50,000 and that the remaining $25,000 be intentionally raised by Advance Special contributions or other voluntary means." Fred Kandeler moved an amendment to the amendment "to restore the entire $50,000"; the amendment carried. Vote was taken on the amended Brady amendment; the amendment was adopted.

Pat Deal presents the proposed 1993 Apportionment Allocation Request.

Douglas Miller requested that future presentations of Apportionment Allocation requests reflect current budgets in parallel columns with new requests as a basis for comparison.

Vote was taken on the Council on Ministries 1993 Apportionment Allocation Request, subject to final action as part of the whole Report of the Council on Finance and Administration. It was approved. LA10

Courtesy and Resolutions

Fred Kandeler recognized visitors to the conference: Bishop and Mrs. Lance Webb, Charles Laing and James Tarr of the Texas Methodist Foundation. Kandeler introduced Tom Locke of TMF who spoke of the Foundation's growth not only in terms of deposits but also in the level of service to churches of the Texas annual conferences.

Board of Ordained Ministry
Elders' Sharing

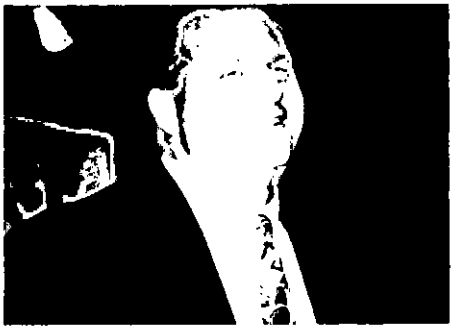
Brian Glenn McPherson used the image of the artist to describe his call to ministry, believing that the most significant art always expresses the best intention of the artist. "Today I stand before you feeling like the artists' work, an expression of the best intention of this annual conference, for you have shaped my life and my ministry by your love and support."

Brian McPherson

Tommy Medley

Tommy Ray Medley discovered in his faith journey that "home" is another word for "community." "In community there is faithfulness, love, and grace. Thank you for adoption into a place I can call 'home.'"

James Burton Palmer, Jr., expressed his feelings as being "humbly fearful of what this ordination represents--humbled by affirmation and acceptance into the covenant community, fearful in the recognition that that is an awesome responsibility." Palmer thanked members of the conference for surrounding him with steadfast love.



Burt Palmer

Beth Rakestraw

Ava Beth Rakestraw gave voice to her thankfulness for God's good gifts--the gift of a call to ministry, the gift of the communion of saints which is the North Texas Conference. Clutching a swatch of fabric from her new robe being fashioned by a friend, Rakestraw described her feeling of "being clothed with joy and hope."

Walter James Goodwin, Jr., described his feelings much like grace notes in a musical composition--the covenant as boundaries of the musical scale, but the presence of grace notes as opportunities for individual expression. Goodwin thanked the conference for a place to continue to grow, "a place to spread my wings."

Jim Goodwin

Committee on Nominations, Ballot #1

The first ballot was taken for election to the Committee on Nominations. Bishop Blake reminded the conference that all lay members are eligible for election, except Pat Deal who will serve ex officio as Conference Lay Leader, and all clergy are eligible for election, except Gary Mueller who will serve ex officio as Conference Council on Ministries Director. A simple majority is needed for election, and those elected will be placed in classes according to the number of votes received.

Fred Kandeler invited the conference's remembrance of Alice Weed, retired missionary to China and Costa Rica, a clergy member of the Southern California Annual Conference who lived in the North Texas Conference and who died Monday, June 8.

Kandeler introduced Socorro DeAnda, Vice President for Development and Finance at Lydia Patterson Institute in El Paso. DeAnda outlined the continuing ministry of LPI, including the program in Conversational Spanish, and thanked the conference for its support.

Boards of Ordained Ministry and Diaconal Ministry Retiring Elders and Diaconals

LOCAL PASTOR:
Louise Banner Welch thanked the conference for 13 years as a local pastor and even more--65 years as a United Methodist. It was early, in MYF, that she learned about the joining of knowledge and vital piety. Trained as an economist, Welch understands about "the bottom line." But for her, the bottom line is always the union of character and courage and faith.

Louise Welch

Esther Zimmerman

DIACONAL MINISTER:
Esther Zimmerman reflected that even though the word "retire" may mean "to conclude," she has no desire to conclude her active involvement in the church, just the finding of a new role in ministry. This is a time of transition rather than retirement. "Whatever the future, I pray my horizon will be stretched by the presence of God's Spirit."
ELDERS:
Ralph E. Burke "came to say 'thank you,' for we have loved and been loved by the people of this conference." Understanding the rules of the church and loving the church, Burke expressed his readiness to "recycle Ralph" by asking that the church recycle itself, too. "Let's grow together!"

Ralph Burke

Don Coke

Donald Coke and his wife, Judy, expressed "a strange mixture of feelings," a great deal of ambivalence about retirement. Coke thanked those who had encouraged him in ministry across the years and across the conference--family, clergy colleagues, and laity friends.

Robert O. Cooper began his remarks with an expression of thanks to and for his wife, Shirley, as he attempted to summarize 42 years of ministry. Believing that the Church is of God and will prevail, Cooper expressed his pleasure in the quadrennial themes of campus ministry and peace with justice and his belief that the task of the Christian is to comfort the afflicted and afflict the comfortable in faithfulness to the scriptural witness. Cooper shared his dream "that some day soon we will agree that evangelism is the whole work of the church: to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, house the homeless, bring peace and reconciliation and wholeness to all God's people."

Jack Gray

Bob Cooper

Jack A. Gray, Jr., stated his affirmation that God has the right to interrupt our lives...with good news for the needs of the world...and great joy to return celebration to our churches...and to all people. For Gray, there is "no retiring in the Bible, just re-firing!"

Arthur F. Renfro and his wife, Virginia, spoke of being humbled and grateful for every opportunity for service in this great United Methodist Church. From the cradle to youth to young adults to laity and finally to ministry, they have always been products of The United Methodist Church.

Arthur & Virginia Renfro

Bill Slack, Jr.

William B. Slack and his wife, Gloria, acknowledged that as one comes to retirement, the question often pressing to be asked is "Was it worth it all?" Slack recounted how he had tried hard to run away from the expectation of his becoming a minister but found that like a cartoon character that gets hit on the head and shatters, he was falling apart until he found his way back home to Texas and to the Church. The decision to enter ministry was the right decision and the second most important decision in his life, the first being his decision to marry Gloria. "It may not always look like it or it may not always feel like it, but your life can amount to something in this strange business of ministry."

Montie W. Stewart and his wife, Judy, offered a clue to knowing when it is time to retire: "when the re-runs out-number the live performances." Expressing thanks to churches he had served and friends he had made in the annual conference, Stewart concluded with the hope "that I have helped in a small way to spread the spirit of Jesus Christ."

Two other retirees--Jack P. Busby and Bobby D. Wilkie--were not able to be present.

A Service of Thanksgiving for the Saints

The Memorial Service celebrating the life and faith of clergy and clergy spouses who have died in the year since the last session of the annual conference was held in the Plano Centre at 11:00 a.m. Worship leaders were Tim McLemore, Joe Twellman, and Sheron Patterson. Music was provided a string ensemble from Plano, Opus Four.

The Psalm for the Day was Psalm 104, and the New Testament Lesson was Acts 2:1-21. The preacher was Kathleen Baskin whose sermon developed the theme, "We will make the road as we walk it," as she proclaimed boldly that "God is good" and celebrated that goodness in the faithful journeys of those whose lives and ministry were being remembered.

Michael Nichols led the Prayer of Praise for All the Saints, and as each name was read, persons newly elected to Full Membership and Elders Orders placed roses of remembrance on the altar: Clergy--Walter L. Towner; Spurgeon M. Dunnam, III; Raymond Flaherty; W. V. Cade; J. B. Sharp; Joseph D. Quillian; Jerry R. Delleney; Charles O. Espie; Spouses--Margaret Low Ridley, Alma Hibbert, Opal Garrett. The service concluded with the singing of "For All the Saints," and the morning session was adjourned.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON BUSINESS SESSION

The Tuesday afternoon session was convened at 1:30 p.m. with the singing of "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms." Bishop Blake outlined the afternoon's agenda.

Committee on Episcopacy

Leighton Farrell, Chair of the Committee on Episcopacy, reported on the work of the Committee in seeking to give support to Bishop Blake in the oversight of the affairs of the North Texas Conference. The Committee has informed the conference delegations to General and Jurisdictional Conference of its desire that that Bishop Blake be reappointed as Bishop of the North Texas Conference for the 1992-1996 quadrennium.

Episcopal Residence Committee

Leighton Farrell referred members of the conference to the report which was distributed at District Sections and included in the Pre-conference Workbook Addendum. Farrell noted that the current residence was purchased in 1988, rather than in 1992 as had been planned, due to the dividing of the Dallas-Fort Worth Area and the appointment of Bishop Blake to the new Dallas area.

Since the current episcopal residence was purchased with only one quarter of anticipated funds (due to the Central Texas Conference no longer participating on a equal basis and the necessity for purhcasing the residence in half the expected time), Farrell reminded members of the conference that at the 1989 session the Episcopal Residence Committee reported that it would be studying the matter of episcopal residence during the quadrennium. An Episcopal Residence Study Committee was appointed which worked for two years, gathered data, and turned that information over to the Episcopal Residence Committee for action.

Noting that while in many was the current residence is adequate, Farrell went on to state ways in which the residence is also inadequate. Farrell moved adoption of the recommendations of the Episcopal Residence Committee with the following changes: #1--change "working drawings" to "plans for an adequate Episcopal residence for the Conference" and delete the remainder of the paragraph; #2--delete entirely; #3--change number to #2; #4--change number to #3, after the words "construction of a new episcopal residence," add "or for the purchase of an existing home;" after "the construction of the home" add "or the purchase of a home. The mortgage obligation of the North Texas Conference shall not exceed a new amount of $5,000 per year."

Farrell reported that $40,000 in cash and pledges have already been received from persons interested in this project. Many concerns were raised by members of the conference: moving the residence away from the population center and into suburbia, provision for furnishings, relation of new residence to the conference priority of reaching the unchurched.

Bishop Kulah's Story

An Order of the Day was called for "An Afternoon of Story, Dance and Song." Cynthia Wilson Felder led the music, together with a vocal ensemble from Hamilton Park United Methodist Church. Roffi Turner led the Kesheth Dancers in freedom songs.

Bishop Arthur Kulah began his story with reference to the concept of extended family in Africa where no word exists for relationships we call "aunt or uncle." In Africa that person is "younger mother or older father." In presiding over General Conference, Bishop Kulah felt confirmation of his belief that "God is really good" because "a poor boy from one of the remotest villages in Africa was presiding over the highest legislative body of The United Methodist Church."

Although Bishop Kulah had been trained to succeed his father as chief of his village, the decision by the elders in selecting him to attend school was confirmed by his father, and he attended the Gbarnga mission school. Dr. and Mrs. Timothy Echols of Dallas provided funds for Bishop Kulah's entire education, and he became a pastor before his parents became Christians.

"I am a product of your mission giving," Bishop Kulah told members of the conference, "a witness to what mission support can do." Bishop Kulah concluded his presentation by singing "God Is So Good."

Ministries Mart

As part of the afternoon's agenda, the conference session moved to the area of the Ministries Mart.

University and College Representatives

Hal Brady, Chair of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, presented representatives from several Texas Methodist colleges and universities who brought greetings from their various institutions, told of developments on those campuses, and thanked the conference for its support of the Texas Methodist College Fund.

Four representatives addressed the conference:
Kenneth Pye, President, Southern Methodist University, Dallas;
Chappell Temple, President, Lon Morris College, Jacksonville;
Richard Eason, Vice President for Development, Southwestern University, Georgetown;
Mark Wasicsko, Provost, Texas Wesleyan University, Ft. Worth.

Report of Nominating Committee Ballot #1

Bishop Blake reported the results of the first ballot for election to the Nominating Committee; there were no elections. Bishop Blake read the names of the lay and clergy members who received at least ten votes; a second ballot was taken.

Don Barnes, Chair of the Nominating Committee, brought additional changes to the Committee's published report:
Commission on Religion and Race--delete Jordan Gary; replace with Bill Murray;
Division of Local Pastors--add Charles Stovall;
Texas Wesleyan University Board of Trustees--Richard Arnett (96), Don Renshaw (96);
Lydia Patterson Institute--Don Renshaw, Karen Blake;
Addendum to the Addendum--new sheet was distributed in place of the one distributed on Monday with the addition of Student Members to the Board of Denton Wesley Foundation--Eric Lipscomb, Sheryl Orsak, Dylan Verinder, Stephanie Wright.

Don Barnes moved that "in light of the legislative actions no longer to require district representation on conference agencies and to downsize the membership of conference agencies except where required by the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE and requested by the agencies, that the Committee on Standing Rules be authorized to make the necessary changes in the Standing Rules in consultation with the divisions of the Board of Ordained Ministry and report the changes to the 1993 session of the North Texas Conference." The motion carried.

Courtesy and Resolutions

Kenneth McIntosh introduced Alex and Brenda Awad, assigned by the United Methodist Board of Global Ministries to work in Israel but denied a return entry visa by the government of Israel. The Awads are currently Mission Interpreters in Residence for the South Central Jurisdiction and are available to speak in congregations throughout the conference.

Raymond Williams presented George Palmer, clergy member of the Western Pennsylvania Conference, father of James Palmer and grandfather of Burton Palmer of the North Texas Conference.

Adjournment

Bishop Arthur Kulah offered the benediction to adjourn the afternoon session of the conference.

Service of Consecration and Ordination

The Service of Consecration and Ordination which was held at Custer Road United Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m. on June 8, began with "Festival Toccata" by Percy E. Fletcher, an organ prelude, and the procession of ordinands and those to be consecrated as diaconal ministers. Following the opening hymn, "O Church of God United," Ronald Henderson offered the invocation.

The anthem presented by the Chancel Choir of Hamilton Park United Methodist Church, under the direction of Cynthia Felder, was "Great Is Thy Faithfulness." Carol Woods shared the scripture for the service, II Corinthians 3:1-6.

In his sermon entitled, "A Billiard game or a Dart Board on a Pendulum Swing," Bishop Bruce P. Blake likened ministry to trying to hit a target on a dart board that was swinging on a pendulum. This being the nature of ministry, effectiveness requires the minister to be willing to be interrupted and to be willing to trust in God.

William Crouch shared various opportunities in the life of the conference, and the Hamilton Park Choir presented a spiritual medley as the offertory music.

At this time, Bishop Blake, Bishop Arthur Kulah, and Retired Bishop Lance Webb ordained those who had been elected to Deacon's Orders. They were:

Melton H. Caraway, Jr.	Sue Ann Hill
Leta Belle Gorham	Ann Johnson
Lisa Gale Greenwood

Following this ordination, the congregation sand, "Whom Shall I Send."

The candidates for the office of Diaconal Minister who were consecrated were:

Mariana Acton	Judith Houston Coke
Sharon Wilson Adair	Ann Love

The conference then stood and sang, "Lord, You Give the Great Commission (stanzas 1 & 2).

Bishop Blake then invited the candidates for Elder's orders to come to the chancel area. The examination of the candidates ensued following which a prayer and blessing were offered. The congregation then sang stanzas 3-5 of "Lord, You Give the Great Commission." At the instruction of the Bishop each ordinand came to the altar and was ordained with the laying on of hands and with the giving of the authority of an Elder to preach the Word of God and to administer the Holy Sacraments in the congregation. Those ordained Elder were:

Darrel Glen Blackmon, Sr.	Susan Hollis Jacobson
James Bradley Bowden	Kathleen McLean-Davis
Tera Elaine Eppes	Brian Glenn McPherson
Eric Stewart Folkerth	Tommy Ray Medley
Lynn Charlise Hill-Larson	J. Burt Palmer
David Thomas Howeth	A. Beth Rakestraw

The Recognition of Orders and Conference Membership then followed. Those who received such recognition were:

Walter James (Jim) Goodwin	Elder in Full Connection
Earnest Jackson	Elder's Orders

The entire congregation entered into a Litany of Dedication following which Bishop Blake pronounced the benediction. The Hymn of Going Forth was "Forward Through the Ages." The service concluded with a stirring performance of the "Toccata" from Symphony No. 5 for organ by Charles-Marie Widor.

Other worship leaders not previously mentioned were Donald F. Renshaw; Charles W. Cox; J. Richard Wilson; Mark Unkenholz; and Kay Sendrey, organist of Custer Road United Methodist Church.

WEDNESDAY MORNING BUSINESS SESSION

At 8:00 a.m. on Wednesday, June 10th, the conference session began in Plano Centre with music led by Celia Whitler. Preacher for the opening worship was Bishop Arthur Kulah who read as his text Luke 10:25-37. "We are in a funny world," Bishop Kulah said, "perhaps best described as a 'global village.' Whether we like it or not, we are neighbors and can no longer live in isolation." Describing the devastation of civil war in his country, Bishop Kulah referred to Liberians as our neighbors "because they are United Methodists, because they are children of God, and because they are in need."

Bishop Kulah offered prayer; Ron and Celia Whitler led in singing "Here I Am, Lord" to conclude the morning worship.

Bishop Blake responded to Bishop Kulah and his messages by sharing the dream that every annual conference would have the understanding that mission is "to be with," a partnership.

Nominations for Jurisdictional Pool

As the list of nominations was distributed to members of the conference, Bishop Blake explained the procedure for nominating persons to the Jurisdictional Pool for election to general agencies of The United Methodist Church. Bishop Blake noted that the maximum number of nominations for the North Texas Conference is 52 and that substitutions from the floor would necessarily replace names on the distributed list in specific categories.

Report of Nominating Committee Ballot #2

Bishop Blake reported the results of the second ballot to elect the Conference Nominating Committee:

LAITY: Needed to elect--145
Elected--Anne Todd (244)
Jim Richards (223)
Karan Marshall (188)
Ron Koo (176)

CLERGY: Needed to elect--115
Elected--Barbara Marcum (129)
Don Barnes (119)

Gary Regan spoke to remove his name from consideration in the balloting. A third ballot was taken.

Courtesy and Resolutions

Mark Craig, pastor of Custer Road United Methodist Church, Plano, spoke to remind the conference that all five United Methodist congregations in Plano had worked together to provide funds, resources, and volunteers in order that they might greet and host this session of the North Texas Conference.

Report of the District Superintendents

Michael Haynes, Chair of the Cabinet, related the work of the Cabinet in the process of understanding and responding to the spiritual and missional needs of the conference, including the need for a common purpose, communication of that common purpose, and training to effect that common purpose.

Haynes summarized the work of district superintendents into three areas: consultation, training, and behaving the faith. Using an illustration from Anthony Campolo, Haynes reminded the conference that although our system for mission and ministry is not perfect, "we know that Sunday's coming'!" Therefore, "thanks be to God!"

Bishop Blake invited all who have served as District Superintendents in the North Texas Conference to stand in recognition of their being key persons in the Methodist connection.

Report of Nominating Committee Ballot #3 (Clergy)

Bishop Blake reported the third clergy ballot for election to the Conference Nominating Committee: Votes needed to elect--111; there were no elections. A fourth ballot was taken.

Commission on Insurance

Beverly Brooks, Chair of the Commission on Insurance, expressed gratitude and thanksgiving for the relative calm which has prevailed in the work of the Commission over the past year and for the new level of trust and confidence which has been formed.

Brooks reported that for the moment the Conference Insurance Plan is fixed and working quite well, but the administrative challenge remains to be alert and prudent in the issue of providing a desired level of health care benefits for clergy and lay employees of the conference. Brooks also reported the need to build an adequate reserve to fund the runout claims of the current plan, estimated to be $500,000, when the denominational plan, UMCare, becomes effective January 1, 1994.

Concerning matters of legislation, Brooks referred conference members to the Pre-Conference Workbook, page 28. Brooks noted the following technical changes in the wording of the "Change in Plan Design of the Conference Insurance Program": "divorced clergy spouses and their dependents" to read "divorced clergy spouses and their dependent children (if applicable);" "The procurement of other coverage" to read "The eligibility for or procurement of other coverage;" "a time limit should be placed" to read "a time limit is appropriate and should be placed." Brooks moved adoption of the corrected legislation; it was adopted. LA11

Brooks noted three corrections to the second "Change in Plan Design of the Conference Insurance Program": addition of the word "annual" in the statement "out-of-pocket annual maximum of $6,000," addition of the word "of" in the statement "who incur out-of-pocket expenses of $6,000,' and addition of "thereafter" in the statement "should be reimbursed thereafter at a 100 percent rate." Brooks moved approval of the corrected proposal; it was adopted. LA11

Brooks concluded the Report of the Commission on Insurance with an expression of great appreciation to Stanley Seat, James Hares, David Shawver, and Bishop Blake.

Stanley Seat, Conference Director of Pensions and Insurance, reported on the action of the 1988 General Conference to adopt a new denominational healthcare plan, noting that the plan design and premiums have not yet been finalized. The plan will be a "cafeteria-style" plan offering many choices, and Seat will serve on the design team. Seat noted that since the UMCare plan will go into effect January 1, 1994, the North Texas Conference self-funded plan will be terminated on December 31, 1993, and pay no further claims except those accrued in 1993 but not submitted for payment until 1994.

Report of Nominating Committee Ballot #4 (Clergy)

Bishop Blake reported the results of the fourth clergy ballot:
Needed to elect--120
Elected--Henry Wilkins (137)
James Dorff (131).

With balloting complete, Bishop Blake announced the terms of those elected to the Conference Nominating Committee:

TERM	LAITY	CLERGY
1996	Anne Todd	Barbara Marcum
1995	Jim Richards	Donald Barnes
1994	Karan Marshall	Henry Wilkins
1993	Ron Koo	James Dorff

Board of Church Extension

Donald Benton, Chair of the Board of Church Extension, gave thanks for the good news of new fellowships started and churches chartered: Aldersgate, Lakeway, Vista Ridge, New Horizon, Scotland Hispanic, Crossroad (which has merged with Brooklyn Avenue United Methodist Church). Benton reported property acquisition on Old Denton Road in north Carrollton as a future home for newly chartered Aldersgate United Methodist Church and on Cockrell Hill Road in DeSoto for future development. Benton also reported the Board's participation in the relocation of Trinity United Methodist Church in Wichita Falls.

Benton moved adoption of the Church Extension Budget as it was presented on page 67 of the Pre-conference Workbook, explaining that the budget reflected a 4 percent salary increase and 2/3 of the start-up costs for one new church. Vote was taken and the budget was adopted, subject to final approval in the entire Report of the Council on Finance and Administration. LA12

Benton reminded the conference of the Report of the Bishop's Capital Campaign Study Committee which was included in the Pre-Conference Workbook. Benton noted a change in the third paragraph under the heading "Staff Integration." The words "shall become an Associate Director of the Council on Ministries" were to be deleted.

Benton introduced Quentin Miller, lay member from Cooper United Methodist Church, who presented Visionaries shares to Bishop Blake in honor of Michael and Bettye Haynes.

Benton moved adoption of the entire report of the Board of Church Extension; it was adopted.

Wellness Task Force

Consideration was continued with regard to the report from the Wellness Task Force. Concerns were raised regarding the financial burden of such a mandated plan and the 1994 introduction of a wellness plan as part of UMCare. A motion to refer to the Commission on Insurance was defeated. Vote was taken on the proposal, "Initial Phases of a Preventive Medicine/Health Promotion Program for Employees of the North Texas Conference," as presented in the Pre-conference Workbook, pages 29-30. The proposal failed.

Designation of World Marriage Day

Martha Garber, lay member from First United Methodist Church, Coppell, presented a legislative proposal requesting "Designation of World Marriage Day on Official Methodist Program Calendar" and moved its adoption. It was approved. LA13

General Conference Report

Thalia Matherson, Chair of the North Texas Conference Delegation to General Conference, described the work of the delegation and noted the service of many in the delegation as chairs, vice-chairs, or secretaries of legislative subcommittees.

Mary Brooke Casad, lay member of the delegation, introduced a resolution similar to one that was adopted by General Conference:

"Whereas the Reverend Spurgeon M. Dunnam III led the UNITED METHODIST REPORTER as editor and chief executive from 1969 until his death in November, 1991;

"Whereas the UNITED METHODIST REPORTER grew under his leadership from a regional publication, which reached 80,000 subscribers in Texas, to a national newsweekly with a circulation of more than 500,000;

"Whereas Mr. Dunnam's strong editorial voice on the pages of the REPORTER helped set The United Methodist Church's social agenda during the 1970s and 1980s;

"Whereas at the 1992 General Conference the United Methodist Association of Communicators inducted Mr. Dunnam posthumously into its Communicators Hall of Fame for his communications ministry;

"Whereas Mr. Dunnam was also a leader in the North Texas Conference as Chair of the Conference Research and Planning Committee from 1976-1980, Chair of the Conference Board of Church Development from 1981-1984, member of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry from 1984 until his death, and Chair of the Conference Commission on Camping and Retreat Centers from 1988 until his death;

"Whereas Mr. Dunnam represented the North Texas Conference as a delegate to four Jurisdictional Conferences and one General Conference;

"Whereas Mr. Dunnam served as a member from the North Texas Conference on the General Commission on Communications from 1976-1984 and the General Board of Global Ministries from 1988 until his death;

"Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the North Texas Annual Conference, meeting in Plano, Texas, honor the life and ministry of Spurgeon M. Dunnam III and express appreciation to his family."

Casad moved adoption of the resolution; it was approved.

William Crouch reminded members of the conference of the significance of the General Conference as that event when "we meet quadrennially to tend our life together--to decide what to teach, how to teach, and what to do." Crouch illustrated with reports of General Conference action with regard to the Ministry Study Commission and recent events in Los Angeles.

Matherson highlighted other actions of the General Conference, including the vote to move the General Board of Global Ministries out of New York City, concern for the size of general church agencies, concerns over abortion and homosexuality, adoption of a new worship book, and maintaining the "Celebrate and Witness" theme for the 1992-1996 quadrennium.

Matherson reminded the conference of the high honor given to Zan W. Holmes, Jr., of the North Texas Conference in his election to the Judicial Council.

Anne Todd presented Thalia Matherson with a Special Gift to Mission for the North Texas Conference United Methodist Women in recognition of her service as chair of the conference delegation and as a Director of the Women's Division of the General Board of Global Ministries.

C.A.F.E.

Robert Robertson, Chair of the C.A.F.E. Steering Committee, presented plans for the Conference Academy for Faith Education to be held at the Collin County Community College, Plano, September 11-12, noting that the courses offered will focus on issues of concern to United Methodist Christians, not just elected church leaders. Robertson emphasized that C.A.F.E. is not intended as local church officer job training.

New Beginnings in Relating to Native Americans

Amy Cajiuat, Chair of the Commission on Religion and Race, introduced members of the Dallas Indian United Methodist Church and their pastor, Charles Batiste. Batiste spoke to the importance of our unity in Christ, and the group sang four songs in Native American languages.

Courtesy and Resolutions

Jean Wood recognized the presence in conference of Ben Feemster and celebrated the accomplishment of Wallace Chappell in raising $36,000 for Restart through his cross-country bicycle ride.

Kenneth McIntosh invited members of the conference to participate in the Global Gathering to be held March 25-28, 1993, in Indianapolis.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON BUSINESS SESSION

Health and Welfare Luncheon

James Ozier, Chairperson of the Division of Health and Welfare, thanked members for attending the luncheon provided by the health care institutions related to the North Texas Conference. Ellen Palmer offer the blessing for the noon meal.

METHODIST HOME:
Tom Strother of Methodist Home introduced other staff who were in attendance at the luncheon and illustrated the importance of the Home's ministry by relating the story of four sisters who became residents of the home upon the tragic death of their parents. One of those sisters, Adriana, addressed the conference and expressed deep gratitude to the conference for supporting Methodist Home and thereby making such a tremendous difference in her life. Jack Kyle Daniels concluded the presentation by stating that last year the Home served 1,156 children and their families with an average of 391 in daily residence of whom 57 percent were Anglo and 43 percent other ethnic groups. Daniels, too, thanked the conference and reminded members of the C.A.F.E. seminars to be taught in September by staff from Methodist Home.

RETIREMENT HOMES OF NORTH TEXAS:
Julian Thomas brought greetings from over 600 residents at C. C. Young Memorial Home, Dallas, and Wesley Village, Denison. He thanked the conference for its support through contributions, volunteers, and prayers.

Joan Womack, Administrator, and June Scott, resident, told of the 18 percent increase in occupancy at Wesley Village and the confident, comfortable life-style afforded to residents. Ken Durand, C. C. Young Administrator, thanked the conference for its support of this ministry to our aging population and appealed for continued help in changing the prevailing negative societal perspective on aging. Durand highlighted the TLC (Teaching-Learning Connection) at C. C. Young and the "Grandmother's Cookies" project created by Carol Ann Ravert.

GOLDEN CROSS:
Sybil Taylor, Golden Cross Chair, celebrated the 70th anniversary of Golden Cross by reading headlines from the DALLAS MORNING NEWS from 1922 and noting that of many world-changing events mentioned, only Golden Cross continues to benefit the lives of people. Taylor presented certificates to churches which had attained the goal of $1 per member in contributions to Golden Cross.

Carole Somers-Clark, Director of Chaplaincy Services at Methodist Medical Center, Dallas, introduced two North Texas Conference pastors whose congregations had directly benefited from Golden Cross. Kristie Rosset presented Greg and Terri and related the story of Golden Cross's assistance to them in the premature birth of their daughter. Charlise Hill-Larson presented Toss who told of his experience of a major bone fracture at a time when family finances were already stretched to the limit by the recent unemployment period faced by his father.

METHODIST MISSION HOME:
Harold Burkhardt, President, Methodist Mission Home in San Antonio, thanked the conference for supporting the ministry of the Mission Home to more than 1,000 persons every year. Burkhardt reminded the conference of the Mission Home's newest program for persons with traumatic brain injuries.

Donna Whitehead related the role of local pastors in assisting persons on both sides of adoption by presenting Jennifer, who told of the Mission Home's help to her as a birth mother, and Kirk and Cathy Bingman who told of their joy in adopting a cross-racial child through the Mission Home. Adella Jones, Mission Home staff who offices at Chapel Hill United Methodist Church, Dallas, noted the dates of orientation to the adoption services of the Mission Home: June 27 at First United Methodist Church in Fort Worth, and August 1 at Lake Highlands United Methodist Church in Dallas.

Ben Feemster, former clergy member of the North Texas Conference, briefly described his new position with the Mission Home as Director of Capital Funds Campaign and offered to make for presentations to local churches throughout the conference.

James Ozier concluded the luncheon meeting with a reminder to the conference of the goal of $1 per member for each of the health care institutions related to the conference.

Youth Annual Conference

Camille Gaston, Conference Youth Coordinator, introduced Clayton Karrer, Paris-Sulphur Springs Representative to the Conference Council on Youth Ministries, who reported on the Youth Annual Conference which was held at the Bridgeport Conference Center, March 6-8. Karrer highlighted the discussions and actions of the youth conference, noting particularly the legislation urging recycling in all local churches of the North Texas Conference.

Episcopal Residence Committee

Consideration was continued on the Report of the Episcopal Residence Committee. B. C. Robertson moved that the conference have the privilege of voting on this matter by written ballot. The motion was seconded and approved. Information was requested regarding the disposition of gifts toward a new episcopal residence if it were decided not to secure a different residence at this time. Bishop Blake responded that contributions would be returned to the donors. Following further discussion, vote was taken on the recommendations of the Episcopal Residence Committee.

While votes were being counted, Bishop Blake reviewed the history of both the 1980 General Conference decision that housing allowance for bishops was not fair across the country and the history of actions and deliberations in the North Texas Conference in 1988 in purchasing an episcopal residence. Bishop Blake stated his intention to request of the Committee on Episcopacy that, if the vote were to secure a different episcopal residence, the action not be implemented until the conference receives a new bishop. Carl McGee moved "that if the vote is to purchase or build a new episcopal residence that the conference insist that the current episcopal family participate in that move." The motion was seconded and adopted.

Ron Koo requested a point of personal privilege to read a statement from the General Conference delegation to the Committee on Episcopacy requesting the reassignment of Bishop Bruce Blake to the North Texas Conference for the next quadrennium. Karl Klaus presented a resolution that "Whereas this has been an emotion-filled annual conference; and whereas difficult issues have been discussed and resolved one way or another; and whereas Bishop Bruce Blake has presided over this annual conference session with integrity, fairness, and commitment to our covenant; be it therefore resolved that the North Texas Conference of The United Methodist Church reaffirm Bishop Blake's servant leadership and look forward to his continuing ministry with us." The motion was seconded and adopted by a standing vote.

Jan Wiksten spoke in support of the positive value of a written ballot in allowing persons truly to vote their minds and hearts, and Matthew Gaston encouraged the Episcopal Committee to solicit volunteer labor and materials if a new residence is built.

Bishop Blake reported the vote regarding the proposal from the Episcopal Residence Committee: yes--399, no--177, abstain--8. LA14

Consent Calendar

William Crouch, Chair of the Agenda Committee, proposed that since the remaining items in the agenda had been properly before the conference for some time, a consent calendar be adopted whereby the items would be considered as a whole unless there is objection. Such items could then be considered individually.

Task Force on Drug and Alcohol Abuse

DeForrest Wiksten, Chair of the Task Force on Drug and Alcohol Abuse, referred the conference to page 20 in the Pre-conference Workbook and the legislative proposal concerning the "Availability of 12 Step Programs and Ministries in the Local Church." There being no objections, the proposal was included in the consent calendar.

Wiksten also encouraged members of the conference to post in their local churches the posters which had been distributed to them listing telephone numbers of helping agencies and encouraging them to add additional numbers for their local areas.

Board of Trustees

Jean Wood, Chair of the Board of Trustees, offered a correction to the proposal to abandon the Shady Grove United Methodist Church, page 22 in the Pre-conference Workbook, with the directive that it "be conveyed to the Montague County Shady Grove Cemetery Association." The legislation from the Board of Trustees as contained in the Pre-conference Workbook and the Addendum was added to the consent calendar.

William Crouch, Superintendent of the Dallas Northeast District, spoke to include in the consent calendar the proposal concerning the "Discontinuance of Harmony United Methodist Church" as contained in the Addendum to the Pre-conference Workbook.

Commission on Equitable Salaries

Scott Smith, Chair of the Commission on Equitable Salaries, called the attention of the conference to the "Equitable Salary Guidelines" as printed in the Pre-conference Workbook, page 26. Smith noted that in Paragraph I-B the recommendation was being made that minimum equitable compensation be indexed to the North Texas Conference average salary as defined by the General Board of Pensions.

David Rucker voiced objection to the report's being included in the consent calendar; it was exempted.

Board of Pensions

John Rentfro, Chair of the Board of Pensions, referred the conference to the three legislative proposals coming from the Board and printed on pages 24-25 of the Pre-conference Workbook. Rentfro noted that the pre-1982 Service Year rate was being recommended at $337. The proposal concerning rental/housing allowance was corrected to include "retired or disabled minister during the year 1992-93." Rentfro also highlighted the goal of $100,000 to be received in a special offering on November 1, 1992. There being no objections, the proposals were added to the consent calendar.

Consent Calendar Adoption

William Crouch moved adoption of the consent calendar, including the Nominations for Jurisdictional Pool for Election to General Agencies of The United Methodist Church which had been distributed earlier. It was adopted. LA15, 16, 17

Equitable Salaries

David Rucker moved a substitute paragraph for Section II.F.4 of the Report of the Commission on Equitable Salary as printed on page 27 of the Pre-conference Workbook:

> "No mileage allowance will be provided during a seminary internship in which the student serves full time at the location of the internship. Mileage allowance will be paid during a seminary internship in which the student continues to attend on-campus classes which serving a student appointment. (Perkins and Brite currently call such internships "concurrent internships.") In applying this guideline to the variety of different circumstances, the guiding principle shall be that of equality."

The substitute paragraph was accepted by the Chair of the Commission.

Pension Payment Study

Charles Stovall moved "that the Conference Board of Pensions and Commission on Insurance make a study and document those churches that are not paying pensions and insurance in full and (a) report to the Bishop and Cabinet who can appeal to fellow clergy to underwrite the pension and insurance shortfall, and (b) present to the 1993 Session of the Annual Conference legislation to assure that pensions and insurance are preserved for all ministers to whom they are due." The motion was seconded and passed.

Retirees' Housing Allowance

John Rentfro moved approval of the proposal "that an amount equal to 100 percent of the pension including gifts and grants from the Perkins Fund received by a retired or disabled minister during the year of 1992-93 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance." The motion was approved. LA16

Report of Commission on Equitable Salaries

Scott Smith, Chair, moved adoption of the amended Report of the Commission on Equitable Salaries; it was adopted. LA18

Report of Council on Finance and Administration

Referring to the Addendum to the Pre-conference Workbook, David Shawver noted changes to the Recommended Apportionments made by vote of the annual conference session: (1) increase Item C.3--Texas Methodist College Fund--from $117,000 to $167,000; (2) increase Annual Conference Funds Total from $4,455,517 to $4,505,517 (an increase of 5.3 percent over 1992); (3) increase Total All Funds on Decimal from $6,518,070 to $6,568,070 (an increase of 3.6 percent from 1992). Shawver moved adoption of the entire Report of the Council on Finance and Administration; it was adopted. LA19

Shawver announced new officers for the Council on Finance and Administration for the 1992-96 quadrennium:

Chairperson	Edward Wheeler
Vice-Chair	Henry Wilkins
Secretary	Marvin Guier

Courtesy and Resolutions

Bishop Blake invited prayerful concern for Dorcas Winn, lay member from Terrell, who was involved in an automobile accident returning home from the conference session on Tuesday; and for Edward Wheeler, who was scheduled for surgery on Thursday.

Additional Nominations

Bishop Blake announced corrections to the Report of the Nominating Committee concerning the Board of Diaconal Ministries and printed on page 37 of the Pre-conference Workbook:

Column 1, line 51 -- remove Bob Bush, leaving vacancy;

Column 2, line 19 -- change Chair of Division of Interpretation and Recruitment from Mark Unkenholz to Phyllis Wilson; Column 2, line 22 -- remove Phyllis Wilson, leaving vacancy.

Bishop Blake further announced appointments to the Division of Continuing Education of the Board of Ordained Ministry with the notation that some of those being named had previously been elected to other positions but had chosen to serve on this new Division thereby creating vacancies in other agencies:
John Rosenburg, Chair; Victor Casad, Larry Nicholson, Marjorie McNeir, Kathleen McLean-Davis, John Tatum.

Vote was taken and all were elected.

Journal Committee

George Topper, Chair of the Journal Committee, reported that the minutes of the Sunday afternoon and evening sessions, together with the sessions Monday morning, afternoon, and evening, and the Tuesday morning session had been reviewed by the committee and found to be an accurate record of the actions of the annual conference. Topper moved "that the Conference Secretary and Assistant Secretaries be empowered to complete the official record of the 1992 Session of the North Texas Conference." The motion was approved.

Courtesy and Resolutions

Judy Gilreath, on behalf of the Committee on Courtesy and Resolutions, presented Karen Blake to the conference and offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS the North Texas Annual Conference has met June 7-10, 1992, for the first time in Plano, Texas, at the Plano Centre and Custer Road United Methodist Church and celebrated the theme, "Every United Methodist CAN BE an Evangelist;"
WHEREAS Bishop Bruce Blake in completing his first quadrennium of episcopal leadership as our Resident Bishop of the Dallas Area has provided this annual conference session with energetic, visionary teaching and preaching and caring guidance of our business sessions; and has graced our conference session through his invitation of Bishop Arthur Kulah of Liberia as our conference preacher;
THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that members of the North Texas Annual Conference join together in giving thanks for God's Spirit that has empowered this conference session and in offering heart-felt appreciation to Bishop Bruce Blake; Bishop Arthur Kulah; the Cabinet; Michael Nichols as Conference Secretary for the past 12 years; Walter Zimmerman as Conference Statistician for the past 28 years; the officers, directors, and staff of conference agencies; the secretaries and tellers of the conference; those responsible for reports and legislation presented to the conference; the staff of the Plano Centre; the Agenda Committee as chaired by Dallas Northeast District Superintendent William C. Crouch; those planners, leaders, and choirs who have provided celebrative worship services; and most importantly our host United Methodist churches in Plano, particularly the members, pastors, and staff of Custer Road United Methodist Church;
AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we go forth as a united people of faith, witness, and love, to be the evangelists every United Methodist can be."

The resolution was adopted.

Conference Session 1993

Tom Graves expressed the pleasure and honor of the United Methodist churches of Plano in hosting the 1992 session of the North Texas Conference and invited the conference to return to Plano in 1993.

Pat Deal moved that "due to the outstanding manner in which the churches of Plano and the staff of the Plano Centre have arranged for the services of worship, the business sessions, the Ministries Mart display, the meeting rooms, and the meals--not to mention more than adequate space for hallway conversation--this body return to Plano for Annual Conference 1993." Members of the conference applauded in concurrence.

Reading of the Appointments

Music for the closing service was offered by the Jazz Ensemble of Lovers Lane United Methodist Church. The hymns, "Ye Servants of God" and "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing," were led by Elwood Poore.
As Bishop Blake read the appointments for each district, the District Superintendent delivered a letter to each appointed person. The appointments for each district were followed by a commissioning statement quoted from the works of John Wesley.

Bishop Bruce P. Blake pronounced the benediction and adjourned the 1992 Session of the North Texas Conference.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: UPGRADING EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR DEACON AND/OR PROBATIONARY MEMBERSHIP FROM PARAGRAPH 415.2 TO 415.3 (FROM ONE HALF OF THE WORK REQUIRED FOR A MASTER OF DIVINITY OR EQUIVALENT FIRST PROFESSIONAL DEGREE TO A MASTER OF DIVINITY DEGREE OR EQUIVALENT FIRST PROFESSIONAL DEGREE).

FROM: BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY
DIVISION OF PREPARATION AND QUALIFICATIONS

PROPOSAL: That the North Texas Conference designate a Master of Divinity or equivalent first professional degree from a school of theology listed by the University Senate as the minimum educational requirement for (Deacon and/or) probationary membership.

The Board of Ordained Ministry Report under the heading of "Deacon and/or Probationary Membership", where the specific educational requirements related to Paragraph 414.2 (1988 DISCIPLINE) are listed, will now read:

414.2/ A Master of Divinity or equivalent first professional degree in a school of theology listed by the University Senate MUST BE COMPLETED PRIOR TO ORDINATION. (1988 DISCIPLINE, 415.3) Application for Deacon and/or Probationary Membership MAY NOT BE MADE TO THE REGISTRAR UNTIL THE FINAL ACADEMIC YEAR OF THE CANDIDATE'S DEGREE PROGRAM. (This does not apply to those whose applications were approved prior to June 1, 1992.)

RATIONALE: The 1988 DISCIPLINE provides for this alternative educational requirement in paragraph 415.3. This educational requirement provides the Division of Preparation and Qualifications with candidates who are better able to be evaluated as to readiness for ministry. Candidates will have had both Biblical/theological studies and practical experience in ministry pre-requisite to answering the disciplinary questions required of candidates. This educational requirement allows the Division of Preparation and Qualifications to interview only candidates available to the Cabinet for full-time appointment if they are elected to Probationary Membership and Deacons Orders.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: FORMULATION OF THE NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE CENTER FOR PASTORAL EFFECTIVENESS

FROM: BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

PROPOSAL: The Board of Ordained Ministry proposes that a North Texas Conference Center for Pastoral Effectiveness be formulated which would be an umbrella organization for general pastoral effectiveness. The Center would be sponsored and underwritten by the North Texas Conference and the Conference Boards of Ordained and Diaconal Ministries.

The idea of this program comes from the Louisiana Conference, Bishop William Oden, and John Winn, the Director of the Center for Pastoral Effectiveness in Louisiana. The Louisiana Conference program is an existing and proven center for pastoral effectiveness.

A Director of Pastoral Effectiveness would be appointed by the Cabinet. This person would have an Advisory Board made up of five (5) persons elected by the Board of Ordained Ministry, two (2) by the Board of Diaconal Ministry, and two (2) lay persons nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee. Supervision of the Director will be done by the Bishop and Cabinet. The job description for the Director will be written by the Bishop and Cabinet in consultation with the Board of Directors. The Director will be responsible for the formulation and implementation of Track One of the program.

Track One will be open to every member of the North Texas Conference, especially those who are in their 10th, 20th, and 30th years of conference relationship, but not limited to them. The District Superintendent may nominate persons to be in Track One at no cost to them; however, any pastor may opt for Track One at the beginning of any session. No distinction is made between those nominated and those who volunteer to attend, and confidentiality will be given the highest priority.

Track One will be an intensive sixteen week program, spread over two semesters, one beginning in September and finishing before Thanksgiving week and the other beginning in February and concluding before Holy Week. The two semesters are bridged by a Retreat. These sessions are to be lead by the Director of Pastoral Effectiveness. Track One will deal with the whole range of ministry issues in the context of personal growth and support, mind-stretching input and discussion, practical application and the sharpening of technical skills. Special attention is given to faith development, spiritual formation, biblical exegesis, worship and preaching, congregational dynamics and issues that are surfaced by the colleagues in Track One.

It is the intention of the Board of Ministry that everyone will, at some time, participate in this program or some program of similar intensity at least every ten years. Also, it is the intention of the Board of Ministry that additional Tracks be formulated for different stages of ministry.

The cost of the Center For Pastoral Effectiveness will be funded fifty percent (50%) by reallocation of Minister Educational Funds (MEF) by the Board of Ordained Ministry and fifty percent (50%) from other Conference sources. Cost to the Board of Ordained Ministry for the first year of operation would be approximately $25,000. Approval of this program would be approval to reallocate funds currently available to the Board of Ordained Ministry.

RATIONALE: The Board of Ordained Ministry has begun to take seriously implementing a pastoral effectiveness program to develop a model for such that will meet the need of the North Texas Conference Clergy/Diaconal Members.

Proposed Resolution For Consideration
By The North Texas Annual Conference

WHEREAS the North Texas Annual Conference shares full ownership of The United Methodist Reporter with the six other Annual Conferences of Texas and New Mexico; and

WHEREAS The United Methodist Reporter provides a needed ministry of communications for all of the Ownership Conferences as well as The United Methodist Church and the larger Christian community; and

WHEREAS The United Methodist Reporter is serving the growing needs of the Ownership Conferences by expanding publishing and communication services; and

WHEREAS the facility to house the operations of The United Methodist Reporter is planned to be a new Communications Center located in Dallas; and

WHEREAS the J. E. and L. E. Mabee Foundation of Tulsa, Oklahoma, has issued The United Methodist Reporter a Challenge Grant in the amount of $500,000 to be received when the balance of $3.7 million is raised in cash gifts and pledges by July 9, 1992;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the North Texas Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church in session on June 10, 1992, commits itself to join with other Ownership Conferences in working with similar goals to underwrite a portion of the funding for the construction and occupation of the new UMR Communications Center in an amount of $300,000 which is to be raised within the geographical area of the North Texas Conference in the following fashion:

1. The Trustees of the United Methodist Reporter foundation and the staff of the United Methodist Reporter and the United Methodist Reporter Foundation will work with the leaders, pastors, and lay persons throughout the Conference in the identification, cultivation, and solicitation of individuals, groups, and foundations for cash gifts and pledges; and

2. When cash gifts raised and pledges made within the geographical area of the North Texas Conference during the three year period beginning on June 10, 1992, total $300,000, this commitment will be fulfilled; and

3. If corresponding efforts in the other Ownership Conference and simultaneous efforts beyond the Ownership Conferences raise cash gifts and pledges totaling $3.7 million prior to the fulfillment of the North Texas Conference's commitment of $300,000, then the commitment of the North Texas Conference will be considered fulfilled; and

4. If there is shortfall in the payment of the North Texas Conference pledges received by The United Methodist Reporter during the payment period, it will be the responsibility of The United Methodist Reporter and not the North Texas Conference to meet the necessary requirements for additional funding; and

5. Should the Mabee Foundation grant be denied, the underwriting commitment of this agreement with the North Texas Conference will be canceled; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, because of the important and specialized ministry of The United Methodist Reporter, this project is designated as an Advance Special of the North Texas Annual Conference for the duration of the effort to facilitate the completion of the $300,000 commitment contained in this resolution; and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that should the earnest efforts of the United Methodist Reporter Foundation working with the leaders, pastors, and lay persons of the North Texas Conference not succeed in securing cash gifts and pledges totaling $300,000 in the geographical area of the North Texas Conference during the three year period following June 10, 1992, and needed funds are not raised through other sources, The United Methodist Reporter and the Council on Finance and Administration of the North Texas Conference shall prepare an alternate plan for securing the balance of the North Texas Conference commitment, less the Conference's pro rata share of gifts and pledges raised beyond the goals of other Ownership Conferences as well as from other sources, which plan will be recommended to the North Texas Conference for consideration during its 1995 Conference session.

PROPOSED LEGISLATION

SUBJECT: DISTRICT REPRESENTATION ON THE BOARD OF MINISTRY

FROM: DON BARNES

PROPOSAL: Whereas the Annual Conference passed legislative actions to no longer require district representation on conference agencies and to downsize the membership of conference agencies except where required by the current Book of Discipline or requested by agencies.

Therefore be it resolved that the Committee on Standing Rules be authorized to make the necessary changes in the Standing Rules in consultation with the divisions of the Board of Ordained Ministry and report the changes to the 1993 session of the Annual Conference.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: ESTABLISHMENT OF A CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON CLERGY HOUSING

FROM: THE NOMINATING COMMITTEE

PROPOSAL: There will be a Conference Committee on Clergy Housing. It will recommend "standards" for clergy housing, present them to Annual Conference for adoption and assist District Superintendents in implementing them.

The committee will be composed of no fewer than sixteen nor more than nineteen persons: a chairperson, a clergy and lay representative from each district, one of whom shall be the Chairperson of the District Committee on Church Location and Building, and a representative from the cabinet. Special attention will be given to representation from small membership churches, rural churches, ethnic churches, and associate pastors.

The committee's chairperson and membership will be nominated by the Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference, with opportunity for additional nominations from the floor. The committee may elect up to three members at-large.

The committee will be amenable to the Annual Conference.

RATIONALE: This legislation establishes a committee created by the 1991 session of Annual Conference.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: DISTRICT REPRESENTATION ON CONFERENCE AGENCIES

FROM: THE CABINET

PROPOSAL: Delete the entire third paragraph of Standing Rule 3 on page 262 of the 1991 Journal.

Add the following to the fourth paragraph immediately after, 'Special attention shall be given to the inclusion of clergywomen.': Strong consideration shall also be given to inclusive representation from the districts, small membership churches, town and country churches and ethnic churches.

RATIONALE: This change will improve the effectiveness of the North Texas Conference's ministry by enabling the Nominating Committee to recommend those persons best qualified to serve without being limited by district representation. It also emphasizes a commitment to inclusiveness on conference agencies.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: CHANGE IN THE SIZE OF CONFERENCE AGENCIES

FROM: THE CABINET

PROPOSAL: Insert the following after the second paragraph on page 262 of Standing Rule 3: Membership of all conference agencies (council, board, Commission, committee) shall be reduced in membership by one-third unless stipulated otherwise by the BOOK OF DISCIPLINE or requested by an agency. Additionally, no agency, other than the Board of Church Extension, which requests at-large members shall have more than three at-large positions.

The reduction in membership of conference agencies provided for by this standing rule shall not apply to current members of such agencies elected in 1992 or prior years whose terms have not expired. For purposes of this exception, the maximum membership of an agency shall be the number of members provided for by this standing rule, or the number of current members previously elected to such agency whose terms of office have not expired, whichever is greater.

Enabling Legislation: Each council, board, commission, and committee will report to the Standing Rules Committee by January 1, 1993 how many members will be nominated for said council, board, commission, or committee.

The Standing Rules Committee will present the proposed agency membership, along with appropriate Standing Rules changes, to the 1993 Annual Conference for its approval.

RATIONALE: Reduced membership will allow conference agencies to operate more efficiently and to do a more effective job of carrying out their rsponsibilities.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: NOMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP FOR THE BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

FROM: THE BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

PROPOSAL: In the Standing Rules concerning the Board of Diaconal Ministry, page 265 of the 1991 Journal, replace the words "The chairpersons of the board and its divisions and all members of the board and divisions shall be nominated by the presiding bishop after consultation with the current chairperson or immediate past chairperson of the board, or with a committee of the board, and with the cabinet. The board shall elect from its membership a registrar, a vice-chairperson and a secretary. It shall designate its executive committee." with "Nominations will be made according to the procedure outlined in the current Book of Discipline."

The second paragraph would then read: The Board shall consist of new fewer than 28 members. Nominations will be made according to the procedure outlined in the current Book of Discipline.

RATIONALE: This makes the Standing Rules current with the Book of Discipline

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: MEMBERSHIP OF THE NOMINATING COMMITTEE

FROM: THE NOMINATING COMMITTEE

PROPOSAL: Delete "The elected members shall not be eligible to serve on any other conference agency while serving on the Committee on Nominations."

RATIONALE: This change eliminates some of the logistical problems inherent in the original legislation and enables the Nominating Committee to do a more effective job of providing leadership for Annual Conference agencies.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: ANNUAL DEADLINE FOR APPORTIONMENTS PAYMENT

FROM: FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION COUNCIL

PROPOSAL: That Standing Rule 13 - Section C be changed to read: "The Conference Treasurer's books shall be closed annually at 12:00 noon ...." instead of 3:00 p.m.

RATIONALE: The required mailings of reports as well as the payments of funds on an exacting schedule after the time of closing can be more sanely achieved with the change to 12:00 noon.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: RECOMMENDATION TO AMEND STANDING RULE 3, BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

FROM: THE BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

PROPOSAL: Amend the third sentence of Paragraph one to read: It shall encourage and oversee the work of its five divisions in dealing with the issues under their purview.

Amend Paragraph three to read: The members of the board shall be nominated and elected according to the current disciplinary provisions, with at least one member from each district on each division at the beginning of the quadrennium. Persons shall not be added to the board or divisions during the quadrennium except to fill vacancies or new divisions. When, because of any reason, a district no longer has someone on a division, the division shall appoint one of its members to be a liaison with that district. The board may assign additional duties to each division.

Amend paragraph four to add: 5. The Division of Continuing Education shall provide a program of continuing education and administer continuing education funds for ordained and diaconal ministers of the North Texas Conference.

RATIONALE: The conference has been operating with a Chairperson of Continuing Education and no Division. Continuing Education Funds are administered by this individual who must make decisions on the distribution of these funds. This individual must plan and implement continuing education events and set up accountability for ordained and diaconal continuing education requirements. A Division of Continuing Education would give better representation on decisions concerning continuing education.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: GOSPEL CALL TO A NEW BEGINNING IN RELATING TO NATIVE AMERICANS

FROM: THE COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

RESOLUTION: The Gospel calls us to value the dignity and worth of all people and to work for justice for all. Under the mandate of this call, we resolve to Approach the upcoming Columbus Anniversary in 1992 as faithful respondents to that Gospel. We, as Christians, call for A New Beginning that invites each of us to walk the circle of life together in our journey toward the wholeness and fullness of God's creation.

WHEREAS the indigenous people have shared many valuable gifts from their way of life contributing to the development and successful settlement by others on the land they had long inhabited; and

WHEREAS the indigenous peoples had a religion, culture and value system long before October 12, 1492, but had no opportunity to share these benefits with newcomers; and

WHEREAS contemporary Native Americans retain many customs of their ancestors only to find the practice of these customs being violated by structures of the dominant society; and

WHEREAS the church is called to identify moments when Christians resisted the genocide of indigenous peoples and paid for such resistance with their lives; and

WHEREAS we are called to do likewise today by raising our voices whenever similar abuses are attempted in our midst; and

WHEREAS a great danger is present for the nation and the church to be swept into euphoria of uncritical romanticizing of cruel and bloody history which ignores the violation of the native peoples; and

WHEREAS an urgent need exists for a more-inclusive and less-biased historical account of the European's dealings with the indigenous peoples, including the rewriting of American history and removing stereotypical images which demean native people;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED THAT THE NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH:

A. Join the whole Christian community in A New Beginning by public acknowledgement and appropriate acts of corporate confession for the historic silence and consenting participation of the church in the destruction and continued oppression of the native peoples;

B. Acknowledge and respond to the suppression and distortion of historical accounts which ignore the contributions, cultures, and worth of the indigenous peoples in American history and lead to continued suffering and oppression of Native Americans in our time;

C. Pledge A New Beginning through support and assistance in upholding the American Indian Religious Freedom Act (P.L. 95-134, 1978) and within that legal precedent affirm the right of the native peoples to practice traditional ceremonies, to have access to and protection of sacred sites and public lands for ceremonial purposes, and to have the use of religious symbols for use in traditional rituals.

D. Encourage local congregations:

1. To seek our local Native American leadership and with them develop and utilize studies for children, youth and adult classes.

2. To become informed about and supportive of concerns and needs (i.e., health and welfare) of native peoples for the mutual benefit of all.

3. To observe A New Beginning on October 11, 1992. This observance will create Native American awareness in worship settings, through sermons, litanies, prayers and confessions.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: SOCIETAL, POLITICAL, AND INDIVIDUAL RACISM

FROM: THE COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

RESOLUTION: 1. Whereas we recognize the existence and increase of racial victimization and "bashing" in recent political and social rhetoric, the increase of racial hate crimes, and the increase of white supremacist group activities in our nation, state, and communities.

2. Whereas the current economic and social crisis our nation has been used as a backdrop by individuals, social organizations, political candidates and representatives, businesses and corporations, and various media interests to foster racism through demeaning and divisive advertisements, slogans, and rhetoric aimed at "blaming" ethnic minorities and nations.

3. Whereas we live in a nation founded and committed to the principle that our nation is "indivisible with liberty and justice for all."

4. Whereas, we recognize the love of Jesus Christ for all persons without regard for race or nationality.

5. Whereas, we are called to be persons in community who are "to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with our God."

BE IT RESOLVED that the North Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church meeting in session on June 7-10, 1992, Plano, Texas:

1. Deplores the current manifestations of racism in our nation.
2. Sends out a call for repentance of racism in thought and action to the members of the North Texas Annual Conference churches.

3. Calls all political representatives of the North Texas Annual Conference area to be honorable and just leaders by setting a strong and affirmative stance on the worth and equality of one and all citizens, cultures, ethnic groups, and nations through their personal and political leadership.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: 1. We encourage all local churches and individuals of the North Texas Annual Conference to allow the Holy Spirit to lead both prayer and action with regards to the end of racism in all of life -- personal, economic, social, and political.

2. We instruct the Conference Secretary to send a copy of this resolution to the President of the United States, the Attorney General of the United States, and all members of the North Texas Annual Conference regional delegation of the United States House of Representatives and Senate; and a copy of all correspondence to the Chairperson of the Commission on Religion and Race.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: CHANGE IN PLAN DESIGN OF THE CONFERENCE INSURANCE PROGRAM

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE COMMISSION ON INSURANCE

PROPOSAL: The Commission on Insurance proposes that divorced clergy spouses and their dependent children (if applicable) who are now eligible for coverage may have thirty-six months of optional coverage from the date of this legislation, and that any future divorced clergy spouses and their dependents may have thirty-six months of optional coverage from the date of their divorce. The eligibility for or procurement of other coverage, whether group coverage or remarriage, will negate this time limit and will cancel such coverage.

RATIONALE: The Commission on Insurance believes that a time limit should be placed on eligibility in the Plan, and this time proposed gives the divorced clergy spouse and their dependents time enough for transition into other coverage.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: CHANGE IN PLAN DESIGN OF THE CONFERENCE INSURANCE PROGRAM

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE COMMISSION ON INSURANCE

PROPOSAL: The Commission on Insurance proposes that a family out-of-pocket annual maximum of $6,000 be set beginning January 1, 1993.

RATIONALE: The Commission on Insurance believes that families who incur out-of-pocket expenses of more than $6,000 should be reimbursed at a 100% rate up to the individual maximum of $1,000,000.

PROPOSED LEGISLATION

SUBJECT: DESIGNATION OF WORLD MARRIAGE DAY ON OFFICIAL METHODIST PROGRAM CALENDAR

FROM: ADMINISTRATIVE BOARD
FIRST UNITED METHODIST COPPELL

NATIONAL EXECUTIVE LAY TEAM
MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER - UNITED METHODIST

RESOLUTION Whereas, our social principles "affirm the sanctity of the marriage covenant which is expressed in love, mutual support, personal commitment, shared fidelity between a man and a woman. We believe that God's blessings rest upon such marriage, whether or not there are children of the union, and;

Whereas, Worldwide Marriage Encounter, affiliated with the General Board of Discipleship of the United Methodist Church has adopted the second Sunday of each February as World Marriage Day, and;

Whereas, forty three governors have officially proclaimed the day and celebrations have spread to U.S. military bases in several foreign countries, and;

Whereas, the celebrations have continued to grow to emphasize the interfaith participation by all Marriage Encounter expressions, and;

Whereas, the 1992 year celebrations were observed in 80 countries throughout the Christian world with millions of couples affirming their marriage on the same day, and;

Whereas, 1992 celebrations were utilized to bring joy through the covenant of marriage to affirm and strengthen one another, our families, friends, and others;

Let it be resolved, that the second Sunday of each February be posted on the official United Methodist calendar as World Marriage Day.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: The Annual Conference adopt the second Sunday of each February to be posted on the official United Methodist calendar as World Marriage Day.

Report of the Episcopal Residence Committee

In 1984 General Conference passed legislation that each Episcopal Area would provide housing for its Bishop either through purchase or rental. Prior to that legislation a Bishop could own his or her own home. Our Annual Conference recognized that we would need to provide housing when a new Bishop was assigned to the then existing Dallas-Fort Worth Area, which we assumed would be in 1992 when Bishop Russell retired. However, at the Jurisdictional Conference in 1988 the Dallas-Fort Worth Area was divided into the Fort Worth Area and the Dallas Area. Bruce Blake was elected a Bishop at that conference and was appointed to the new Dallas Area. That meant that immediately our new Dallas Area must provide a place of residence for Bishop and Mrs. Blake.

Jurisdictional Conference was over July 15. The new Bishops assumed responsibility for their Areas September 1. Bishop and Mrs. Blake were consulted about housing and they felt that since the Dallas Area has no provision for housing, they would prefer not to move into an apartment and later move again. The Episcopal Residence Committee sought to fulfill this request. In less than six weeks time potential houses had to be screened, Bishop and Mrs. Blake came to Dallas to look at houses, a selection had to be made, a called session of the Annual Conference had to be held, finances had to be arranged and the house had to be purchased. Thais was an almost impossible task, but it was accomplished.

In looking back over this residence purchase there seems to be one major problem - due to the time restraint, proper planning was not possible. We were forced to react rather than to act intentionally. The North Texas Annual Conference needs to decide what it wants to do about an Episcopal residence in an intentional manner, rather than in a reactionary manner.

When the proposal to purchase the current residence came before the called session of the Annual Conference in August, 1988, we did not have time to intentionally decide many factors relating to an Episcopal residence. For example, where should it be located? How much should it cost? What kind of statement does it make to and for our Episcopal Area? Is it adequate for the needs of present and future Bishops? Does it meet the needs of an Episcopal family for entertainment, study, family living? What is its access to the entire Annual Conference?

At the Annual Conference of 1989 the Episcopal Residence Committee reported that it would be studying this matter during the quadrennium. There has been an Episcopal Residence Study Committee which has worked for two years to gather facts about Episcopal residence in other Episcopal Areas. That Committee has completed its work and has performed in an outstanding way. The report has been made to the Committee on Episcopacy and was received with much appreciation.

The data gathered suggested to the Committee on Episcopacy that in many ways our current residence is adequate; in other ways it is not. The ways in which the Committee on Epicopacy feels it is adequate are square footage, security system, number of bedrooms, central heat and air conditioning, and lawn watering system. Ways in which the Committee on Epicopacy feels it is inadequate are location central to the geographical center of the Annual Conference, lack of study space for the Bishop, lack of a central entertainment area apart from the family living space, and future access to the airport and all cities and towns of the Annual Conference.

A sub-committee was appointed by the Committee on Episcopacy to look at the possibilities of alternative Episcopal residence for the North Texas Conference. This sub-committee was also confirmed by the Episcopal Residence Committee to act on its behalf.

That sub-committee has done its work and reported to the Episcopal Residence Committee which makes the following recommendations:

1) That the North Texas Annual Conference direct the Episcopal Residence Committee to move forward with plans for an adequate Episcopal residence for the Conference.
2) That the North Texas Annual Conference authorize the sale of the current Episcopal residence, with the Episcopal Residence Committee making the final decision as to the selling price, working in conjunction with the Committee on Episcopacy, the Council on Finance and Administration, and the Board of Trustees, and that the Board of Trustees finalize all legal documents related to this sale.
3) That the North Texas Annual Conference authorize the Episcopal Residence Committee, after the current residence has been sold, to enter into a contract for the purchase of a lot and the construction of a new Episcopal residence, or for the purchase of an an existing home, not to exceed a total cost of $275,000, and that the Board of Trustees be authorized to finalize all documents related to the purchase of the lot and the construction of the home or the purchase of the home. The mortgage obligation of the North Texas Annual Conference shall not exceed a net amount of $5,000 per year.

The current mortgage on the Episcopal residence is approximately $157,000 with the annual payments being approximately $14,400. If the above proposal is passed, and assuming the current interest rate on our existing loan of 8 1/2%, the new mortgage would be approximately $23,800, or an increase of approximately $9,400 per year. The General Council on Finance and Administration pays each Area approximately $18,500 per year to provide an Episcopal residence. When this is applied to the $23,800 mortgage the North Texas Conference is left with a balance of $5,300 per year to apply to the mortgage.

In conclusion, the Episcopal Residence Committee respectfully submits this recommendation to the North Texas Annual Conference in the belief that, given the present economic conditions within our areas, there could hardly be a more favorable time to accomplish this project. And, we ask your concurrence.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: AVAILABILITY OF 12 STEP PROGRAMS AND MINISTRIES IN THE LOCAL CHURCH

FROM: BISHOP'S TASK FORCE ON DRUG AND ALCOHOL ABUSE

RESOLUTION: Whereas, alcohol and other dependencies are evident sources of brokenness in our world and in our community; and

Whereas, the Church had been called to be an agent of healing and brokenness wherever it manifests itself.

Be it therefore resolved that the churches of the North Texas Annual Conference make available the following:

A. Making space for 12 Step Recovery Fellowships

B. Promotion and encouragement of distribution of information relating to such fellowships

C. Appropriate referral for treatment of addiction and

D. The option of developing 12 Step Spiritual Growth groups as a specific ministry within the local congregation

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: ABANDONMENT OF MYRA UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

PROPOSAL: The congregation of Myra, meeting in a properly constituted Charge Conference according to the Discipline of the United Methodist Church unanimously agreed to disband as an active congregation. Responsibility and title to the property shall be consigned to the Conference Board of Trustees.

RATIONALE: The Myra congregation has declined, along with the population in the surrounding area, and is no longer viable as a church.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: The Conference Board of Trustees recommends the abandonment of Myra United Methodist Church in the Sherman-McKinney District, and that the property be sold. The disposition of the proceeds will be determined at a later date.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: ABANDONMENT OF NEW ALDERSGATE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

PROPOSAL: The congregation of New Aldersgate, meeting in a properly constituted Church Conference according to the Discipline of the United Methodist Church unanimously agreed to disband as an active congregation. Responsibility and title to the property shall be consigned to the Conference Board of Trustees, who shall be authorized to sell the property to satisfy all claims against it.

RATIONALE: The New Aldersgate congregation, plagued with debt and a declining number of members, is no longer able to maintain itself as a church.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: The Conference Board of Trustees recommends the abandonment of New Aldersgate United Methodist Church in the Dallas-South District, and that the property be sold to satisfy the creditors. Disposition of additional proceeds, (should there be any) will be determined at a later date.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: ABANDONMENT OF SHADY GROVE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

PROPOSAL: The congregation of Shady Grove, meeting in a properly constituted Church Conference according to the Discipline of the United Methodist Church unanimously agreed to disband as an active congregation. The property, which contains a reversionary clause in its deed and therefore cannot be sold, shall be conveyed to the Montague County Shady Grove Cemetery Association.

RATIONALE: The Shady Grove congregation has declined, along with the population in the surrounding area, and is no longer viable as a church. The small facility has limited usefulness, but could serve very well as a community association building in this sparsely populated area.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: The Conference Board of Trustees recommends the abandonment of Shady Grove United Methodist Church in the Wichita Falls District, and the disposition of the property as specified.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: ABANDONMENT OF JERMYN UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

PROPOSAL: The congregation of Jermyn, meeting in a properly constituted Church Conference according to the Discipline of the United Methodist Church unanimously agreed to disband as an active congregation. Responsibility and title to the property shall be consigned to the Conference Board of Trustees.

RATIONALE: The Jermyn congregation, located in an area of declining population, has declined in numbers and is no longer able to maintain itself as a church.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: The Conference Board of Trustees recommends the abandonment of Jermyn United Methodist Church in the Wichita Falls District, and that the disposition of the property be determined at a later date.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: THE MERGER OF CLARKSVILLE, BREWSTER UNITED METHODIST CHURCH WITH CLARKSVILLE, McKENZIE MEMORIAL UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

PROPOSAL: The congregations of Brewster United Methodist Church and McKenzie Memorial United Methodist Church, meeting in properly constituted Charge Conferences according to the Discipline of the United methodist Church, unanimously agreed to merge. McKenzie Memorial United Methodist Church agreed to assume all assets and liabilities of the former Brewster congregation.

RATIONALE: The Brewster congregation has declined so much that it is unable to sustain itself as a separate congregation. Located in the same small town as McKenzie, merger is both feasible and advisable.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: The Conference Board of Trustees recommends the merger of Brewster United Methodist Church in the Paris-Sulphur Springs District with McKenzie Memorial United Methodist Church and that the assets and liabilities of Brewster be transferred to McKenzie Memorial.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS FROM SALE OF THE FORMER WESTERFELD UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

PROPOSAL: To transfer $22,990.00 in proceeds from the sale of the former Westerfeld Church property to the Board of Church Extension for the purchase of a parsonage in West Dallas for the Nueva Esperanza Fellowship.

RATIONALE: The Westerfeld Church was originally established to serve the west Dallas community. Located on Singleton Blvd. less than two miles from the present Nueva Esperanza, Westerfeld's parish area was virtually synonymous with that now served by Nueva Esperanza. Such a grant would be a direct and natural extension of the work of the former Westerfeld congregation.

Nueva Esperanza has no permanent housing for its pastor, nor the ability to afford such in the foreseeable future apart from such a grant. It is possible to purchase a house in this area of west Dallas for the amount requested.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: SALE OF ABANDONED CHURCH PROPERTY AT POTTSBORO

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

PROPOSAL: To sell the interest of the North Texas Conference in the former Pottsboro United Methodist Church property and hold all proceeds, after expenses, in the Board of Church Extension for future construction costs of Lakeway United Methodist Fellowship of Pottsboro.

RATIONALE: The former Pottsboro Church property is jointly owned by the North Texas Conference and the Grace Presbytery, Inc. The building has undergone significant repairs, but still suffers from its age.

The Lakeway Fellowship, first organized for worship in December, 1991, is growing rapidly and will shortly need to construct its own first phase building. Organized to serve the same community as the former Pottsboro Church, it is appropriate to reinvest the proceeds in the United Methodist work in Pottsboro.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: ABANDONMENT OF STEVENS PARK UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

PROPOSAL: The congregation of Stevens Park, meeting in a properly constituted Charge Conference according to the Discipline of the United Methodist Church unanimously agreed to disband as an active congregation. Responsibility and title to all assets and real properties shall be consigned to the Dallas Central District Board of Trustees, to be held for the benefit of a soon to be established Hispanic-oriented congregation to serve the Stevens Park neighborhood.

RATIONALE: The Stevens Park congregation has declined and is no longer viable as a church. The neighborhood, which has become a majority Hispanic neighborhood, is underserved by the United Methodist Church. The Stevens Park congregation wishes that their legacy of faithful ministry continue among the persons who now live in the area; thus, they request that their assets be employed in establishing a new Hispanic congregation in the area, utilizing their buildings and other assets in the endeavor.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: The North Texas Conference Board of Trustees recommends the abandonment of Stevens Park United Methodist Church in the Dallas Central District, and that the assets be utilized for developing a new Hispanic-oriented congregation in the Stevens Park area.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL

SUBJECT: Discontinuance of Harmony United Methodist Church

FROM: William C. Crouch, District Superintendent

PROPOSAL: Pursuant to paragraph 2548.1a of the Book of Discipline the discontinuance of Harmony United Methodist Church is recommended to the Annual Conference. The membership will be transferred to the Dallas Northeast District, title to the property and all other assets will be transferred to the Board of Church Extension.

RATIONALE: Since the Harmony Church has experienced so many negative happenings, and since the Church has not been able to leave the history behind, and since the church has not been able to be the sort of Church described in paragraphs 201 through 204 of the Book of Discipline, it is recommended that the Church be discontinued so that a new Fellowship may be started at this location.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: That the Annual Conference declare Harmony United Methodist Church discontinued and transfer the membership, property and other assets as above.

Pensions Service Year Rate

SUBJECT: PRE-1982 SERVICE YEAR OF 1993

FROM: BOARD OF PENSIONS

PROPOSAL: That the pre-1982 Service Year Rate of 1993 be $337 for both Full Members and Local Pastors.

RATIONALE: Pursuant to Paragraph 1606.21 of the 1988 Discipline, the Service Year Rate must be .009% of the Conference Average Compensation if the Ministerial Pension Plan Contribution Rate under Section 4.1 of the Plan Document is 12%. The 1992 Conference Average Compensation, as computed by the General Board of Pensions, is $37,444 which computes to $337.

Apportionment for CPP

SUBJECT: THE COMPREHENSIVE PROTECTION PLAN

FROM: BOARD OF PENSIONS

PROPOSAL: The Board of Pensions requests an apportionment of $348,853 for the Comprehensive Protection Plan for 1993.

RATIONALE: It is the recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions that since the contribution rate is 4.4% of the lesser of the base compensation or the Denominational Average Compensation the above funding will be necessary.

Retirement Sunday Offering

SUBJECT: RETIREMENT SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1992, OFFERING

FROM: BOARD OF PENSIONS

PROPOSAL: That a 1992 $100,000 collective offering goal be set for Retirement Sunday, November 1, 1992.

RATIONALE: In the past, Retirement Sunday has collected less than $10,000 collectively from the local churches in the Conference. This goal would help with future apportionment dollars; therefore, a better collective offering will be needed to help reduce massive increases in the future.

Retirees' Housing Allowance

SUBJECT: INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE RULING #63-156

FROM: BOARD OF PENSIONS

PROPOSAL: That an amount equal to 100% of the pension including gifts and grants from the Perkins Fund received by a retired or disabled minister during the year of 1992, be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSIONS

1993 BUDGET RECOMMENDATION

Salaries and Related Expenses	$45,199
Office Operations	5,990
Liability/Workman's Compensation	1,400
Retirement House/Retirees	1,300
	$53,889

Equitable Salaries

I. Minimum and Equitable Salary Guidelines for Conference Members and Full-Time Local Pastors.

A. The Commission on Equitable Salaries requests that minimum equitable salary support, pension, years of service and administrative expenses be apportioned at $50,000 for 1993.

B. The Commission on Equitable Salaries requests that $23,860 be set for the minimum equitable compensation (as defined in Paragraph 1 below) for 1993. This is four percent greater than the 1992 minimum equitable salary. This minimum equitable salary was computed by adding $5,600 to 60% of the North Texas Conference average salary as defined by the General Board of Pensions. The $5,600 represents the average of travel and utilities currently expended by equitable salary churches. Travel and utilities should be reimbursed by the local church. The North Texas Conference average compensation less parsonage allowance was computed by the General Board of Pensions to be $30,433 which indexes base salary to $18,260.

The years of service allowance shall be $100 per service year after five years and up to ten years. It is assumed that housing would be provided by the local church. The Commission on Equitable Salaries will pay a maximum of 25% of the established base.

1. Minimum Equitable Salary (including base, utilities, amount for auto allowance or vouchered reimbursement, dependent premium payments made on behalf of local church, dependent premium supplemental payments made at the discretion of the District Superintendent, and any other subsidies received) for active members of the North Texas Conference serving full time is $23,860.

2. Adjustments for service:

Years of Service	Equitable Salary Amount
0-5	$23,860
6	24,360
7	24,460
8	24,560
9	24,660
10	24,760

3. Local pastors serving full time:

Five years or less (75% of base)	17,895
Six years or more (85% of base)	20,281

C. The following policies are proposed to the North Texas Annual Conference for the distribution of equitable salary assistance in 1993.

1. A local church exists to serve, not to be served. All churches should be motivated to a larger sense of ministry. Churches whose pastors receive salary subsidy should be open to linkage with other churches in order to provide full-time ministerial conference members with a minimum work load goal of 250 members, the number believed by the Commission to be necessary to support a pastor. Smaller churches should be encouraged to accept couplings with each other or with larger churches to reduce the need for subsidy.

2. Equitable salary levels can best be met when appointments are open to all ministerial members without regard to race or sex. We continue to urge every conference member to make the subject of a fully open Conference and adequately supported ministry at the local church level a matter of daily personal prayer. Only as the love of Christ dwells in us can an Annual Conference be a fellowship of caring persons.

3. Growth in stewardship should be achieved by all below-minimum remuneration churches. In making application for salary supplement, District Superintendents are to provide evidence of stewardship education and growth on forms provided by the Commission on Equitable Salaries.

4. Tenure payments are designed to honor the years of service of pastors who continue for more than five years in ministry to below-minimum salary charges because of the needs of the Conference. The Bishop and the Cabinet are urged to make every effort to move pastors to above-minimum charges within five years after they begin full-time service.

5. All applications for salary subsidy to the Commission on Equitable Salaries are to be made by the District Superintendent on forms provided by the Commission, and completed applications must be approved by the Commission in session or by no less than two of the three members of the executive committee on the Commission.

6. The Charge Conference of any charge unable to pay the minimum set by the Conference shall be informed by the District Superintendent of the guidelines for receiving equitable salary assistance. The charge shall be informed of the amount required to bring the salary level up to minimum and shall be challenged to move toward the goal of full self-support at the earliest possible time. On a form which shall accompany the applications for salary assistance, the District Superintendent shall certify to the Commission that the charge has been duly notified.

7. The Commission on Equitable Salaries shall notify annually the Pastor-Parish Committee chairperson of each local charge of the goal of the Conference for every full-time pastor to have a work load of 250 members in order to get all pastors' salaries to the minimum level. The amount of subsidy granted to a pastor shall be acknowledged annually at the Charge Conference.

8. Equitable salary assistance is not available to pastors serving as associate pastors or in staff positions other than pastor-in-charge. In order that such persons receive an equitable wage, however, the Commission recommends that local churches use Conference minimum salary standards as minimum guidelines in setting associates' and staff salaries.

9. The Commission on Equitable Salaries will not consider requests for salary supplement where housing allowances exceed $7,200.

10. Pastors who decline an appointment which would reduce or eliminate the need for equitable salary support are ineligible for equitable salary supplement given for years of service.

11. Equitable salary assistance is not available for a North Texas Conference member appointed to serve in another Annual Conference, nor is it available to members of other Annual Conferences serving under appointment in the North Texas Conference.

12. There shall be no lump sum payments to persons receiving equitable salary assistance unless such sums are too small for monthly payments to be made.

13. It shall be the responsibility of the pastor receiving equitable salary subsidy to inform the Commission of any increase in remuneration or any changes in eligibility which occur after an application for equitable salary subsidy has been approved.

II. Guidelines for Financial Assistance for Student Appointees.

A. The Commission on Equitable Salaries requests that equitable salary support, pension and mileage be apportioned at $20,000 for 1993.

B. The Commission on Equitable Salaries requests that only those student pastors who are candidates for ministry in the North Texas Conference be approved for equitable salary.

C. The Commission will offer a maximum of 25% of the established base for any one position.

D. Student Appointees.

Resident full time on charge (65% of base)	$15,509
Lives on charge 3 nights or more (50%)	11,930
Lives on charge 2 nights or less (40%)	9,554

E. When students do not serve the charge full time during the summer, there may be a $1,000 reduction in the minimum amount, making the scale as follows:

Resident full time on charge	14,509
Lives on charge 3 nights or more	10,930
Lives on charge 2 nights or less	8,554

F. Students serving local churches may receive:

1. Student shall be licensed or ordained and under appointment.

2. Student shall be enrolled in an accredited college or seminary.

3. When taking less than nine hours, $20 mileage rate will be reduced proportionate to number of hours taken (6 hours -- $14, 3 hours -- $7).

4. No mileage allowance will be provided during a seminary internship.

5. When the student is receiving above equitable salary minimum, the travel will be reduced by the overage.

Chairperson

PREFACE

In 1991 apportionments were paid in full by 284 churches. The Council is especially grateful for the helpful support of our connectional missions and ministries by these churches and appreciative of all contributions to connectional causes.

Total dollars received for apportionments decreased $220,803 in 1991 over 1990, a 3.4% decrease. The final percentage of apportionments paid in 1991 was 92.9%, a decrease of two percentage points over 1990.

Our giving to all connectional causes was $7,327,016, a decrease of $374,306 (4.9%) over 1990. Receipts for non-apportioned causes totaled $1,081,859, a decrease of $153,502 (12.3%) over 1990.

The 1991 year-end statistical reports from local churches show that local church total expenditures were $56,847,993, an increase of $2,414,027 (4.4%) over 1990. Total capital expenditures (payments for indebtedness, construction, new equipment) increased 9.2%, while expenditures for apportioned and non-apportioned missional causes decreased 2.9%. The operating expenditure items which are included in the decimal financial factor increased from $30,480,433 to $32,146,542 (5.5%).

For many years the Finance and Administration Council has paid close attention to the most recent local church statistical reports in determining the percent of increase or decrease in the recommended apportionments that the Annual Conference sets for the upcoming fiscal year. Last June Finance and Administration recommended a decrease of 0.8% because of the decrease in the local church statistical report. For 1993 the total recommended increase of all apportionments set by the Annual Conference is 4.2%. Although the amount of the decimal financial factor increased by 5.5%, a reduction of 1.3 percentage points to 4.2% was computed to account for the transfer of clergy health insurance premium payments to local churches in 1991.

The agencies of the Annual Conference have cooperated with Finance and Administration again this year to maintain frugal budgets so that the rate of apportionments increases set by the Annual Conference could be kept low. The Council wishes again to recognize and express appreciation for this continuing cooperation, especially that of the Council on Ministries and Church Extension in achieving significant reductions in their original apportionments requests.

The Board of Pensions is to be commended for its decision to request no increase in the Conference Claimants Apportionment in 1993. The $300,000 increase for Unfunded Liability in 1992 has been projected as sufficient for 1993 as well.

Guidelines for the administration of the health insurance premium supplements are undergoing close scrutiny by the Insurance Office and the related agencies responsible for the premium supplement apportionments. For 1993 no increase in the apportioned amounts are recommended. Finance and Administration is grateful for this continuing cooperation.

The Council urgently recommends that again in 1992 every church take seriously its connectional responsibility to pay 100% of all apportionments, with 10% of the annual amount remitted monthly. Monthly payments of at least 10% of each church's annual apportionments has been a recommended goal for many years. As more and more churches attain this goal, the budgets of Conference agencies can be managed more efficiently with less loss of investment income.

A long-standing concern must be lifted up for emphasis. The Discipline mandates that Conference Claimants, District Superintendents', Episcopal, and Equitable Salary are apportioned funds which are to be paid on the same schedule as the pastor's salary is paid. The Cabinet joins Finance and Administration in calling attention to the necessity that every church adhere to this mandate monthly.

Another continuing task persists. The assistance of all churches is needed in making contributions to the District Second Mile Apportionment Fund Advance Special, thereby assuring 100% payment of the District's total apportionments. Check with your district superintendent to learn more about how your church can help.

SECTION I. INFORMATION AND RECOMMENDATIONS

A. Information

1. Fidelity Bond for Local Churches

Again in 1992 (annually since 1985) the Council on Finance and Administration has purchased a fidelity bond policy to cover all persons authorized to handle local church funds in every church in the Annual Conference. In the unlikely event that a responsible person makes off with the church's money, the policy covers up to a $25,000 loss.

2. United Methodist Building

Now in its fifth year of housing the offices of conference agencies, the United Methodist Building continues to provide increased benefits for the whole Annual Conference as the facility proves to be more and more useful. Across the five years of use the annual budget of $28,798 for the building's operation has remained constant. The budget is underwritten by rent from the budgets of the four clusters of conference agencies housed in the United Methodist Building.

3. Investment Earnings

In 1992 the investment earnings of the Central Treasury Portfolio totaled $159,366.15. From these investment earnings designated trust funds within the Portfolio were paid $58,246.85. The Finance and Administration Office received $101,119.30 for operating expenses, including the computer system and administrative services such as establishing and maintaining statistical records, preparing local church statistical research reports and profiles, providing lay/clergy equalization data for Conference membership, establishing and maintaining the Ministerial Profile System, coordinating the preparation, publication and distribution of the Annual Conference Journal, providing Cabinet support services including the District and Conference Appointment worksheets, managing the United Methodist Building facilities, and other services. Total expenditures for the office amounted to $118,569.22, as designated in the detailed financial report.

4. Report on Investment Portfolio

For many years the invested funds for which the Finance and Administration Council has responsibility have been managed through one integrated portfolio for hundreds of discreet funds. Prior to 1981 almost the entire portfolio was invested through the First National Bank of Dallas, which also provided computer services.

After the TI Model One computer was purchased for the Finance and Administration office in 1980, many different possibilities for investing became a reality because we were no longer tied to the First National Bank computer. During the 1980's our investment earnings soared rapidly. We became the managers of our own portfolio to our definite advantage.

Investment opportunities in the early 1990's, however, have become limited within the Council's guidelines requiring no risk to invested capital. Increasingly in recent months we have been moving our monies to the Texas Methodist Foundation where we receive a higher return on our investments under superior fiscal management by an institution of the several United Methodist annual conferences in the State of Texas.

As a result of our careful recent examination of the Foundation's outside audits, its investment policies, its capital, its assets, its management, its earnings, its liquidity, and its mission as a financial institution of our church, we have concluded that the Council's fiduciary funds can best be invested primarily in the Texas Methodist Foundation.

5. Supplement Scales for the 1993 Health Insurance Premiums

The premium supplement scales have been indexed to the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC), which has been computed for 1993 by the General Board of Pensions at $31,520. Each local church is expected to pay the designated premium amount for appointed pastors and diaconals by the 10th of each month. The premiums will be reviewed in late summer by the Commission on Insurance and are subject to change.

MONTHLY DEPENDENT PREMIUM SCALE

In order to convert to the DAC index for dependents of pastor and diaconal a three year adjustment schedule was begun in 1992 at 120% of the DAC, to be reduced to 110% of the DAC in 1993. The following scale begins at $34,672, which is 110% of the DAC. Pastors and diaconals are expected to pay their designated premiums by the 10th of each month.

B. Recommendations for Legislative Action

1. That Edward Wheeler be nominated for election by the Jurisdictional Conference to serve as the North Texas Conference representative on the South Central Jurisdictional Council on Finance and Administration for the next quadrennium.

2. That James Hares be elected to serve as the Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services for the North Texas Conference during the next quadrennium.

SECTION II. RECOMMENDED GOALS TO LOCAL CHURCHES

A. That local churches accept the challenge to grow in spiritual strength by designating no less than 25% of their total annual budgets for causes beyond their local churches.

B. That local churches plan to remit at least 10% of their annual apportionments before the 15th of each month beginning in February.

C. That apportionments be given first claim by local churches in their beyond-the-local-church payments with advance specials and other benevolences viewed as second-mile giving.

D. That local churches assist in achieving 100% payment of all apportionments for connectional ministries and missions in every district through voluntary contributions to the District Second-Mile Apportionment Fund.

E. That all charges either reimburse their local church appointees by voucher for travel as professional expenses based on mileage logs at the IRS approved mileage rate, or if travel allowances are paid, that appointees maintain a mileage log as information for the pastor-parish relations committees.

SECTION III. SALARY, BENEFITS AND EXPENSES FOR SUPERINTENDENTS AND DIRECTORS

In light of the fact that the formula for the salary increase or decrease of superintendents and directors as adopted by the Annual Conference in 1987 has proven unworkable in 1991 and 1992 because of the guideline changes in the cabinet worksheets, Finance and Administration recommends that the salary be increased in 1993 to $57,693 from $55,474 in 1992, an increase of 4.0%.

The annual housing allowance of $15,000 is recommended again in 1993 (for the fourth consecutive year) for superintendents and directors without parsonages. Parsonages are provided in six of the seven districts. Utilities, travel, and expenses are to be reimbursed by voucher.

1. Conference Benevolences

   The Council on Ministries agreed to a significant reduction in the recommended amounts for the 1992 budgets of agencies related to the Council (through this apportionment and the next five) to accommodate the financial crunch resulting from required increases in other 1992 apportionments. The recommended increase for 1993 totaling 3.9% (compared with a total decrease for 1992 of 6.2%) is intended to compensate for some of the 1992 reductions.

2. Missional Assistance Fund

   The items in this apportionment are shared by the Board of Global Ministries and the Board of Church Extension. The recommended increase of almost $60,000 will be designated mainly for partial costs of a new church start up.

3. Texas Methodist Colleges Fund

   The $50,000 reduction (29.9%) was recommended by the Council on Ministries to make possible the adjusted increases needed for other Council apportioments. Local churches and individuals are encouraged to make advance special contributions to our Texas Methodist Colleges.

4. Campus Ministries Fund

   Because the Annual Conference is committed to the support of the campus ministers on the several campuses, a 4% increase is recommended for these professionals. The program budgets are being increased $15,759 to offset the 1992 decrease of $11,095. Advance special contributions are recommended to assist with campus ministries program budgets.

5. Camping and Retreat Fund

The $5,450 increase in maintenance and capital funds for our Conference camping and retreat centers is only a partial make-up of the 1992 decrease of $12,950. Additional funds need to be contributed through advance specials.

6. Community Ministries Fund

The $1,150 increase in support of community ministries was recommended by the Council on Ministries in light of the $11,536 reduction in 1992. Advance special support for these ministries is also expected.

7. Area and Conference Administration Fund

Whereas the total amount of this apportionment was reduced $46,211 for 1992 because of sufficient year-end balances, $33,390 is the minimum amount that must be returned for ongoing budget requirments.

8. Conference Claimants Fund

The Board of Pension's requests no increase in this apportionment for 1993.

9. District Superintendents' Fund

Although the salary increase recommended is only 4%, the total apportionment needs to be increased 6.9% for two reasons: (1) the receipt shortfall for this apportionment was $11,080 in 1991 and $8,498 in 1990, contributing to the 19,262 year-end deficit; (2) the amount allocated for reimbursement of expenses going back to 1990 has been insufficient.

10. Equitable Salary Fund

The amount designated for dependent health insurance premiums can be maintained at the same level for another year. Implementation of guidelines changes and the year-end credit balance make possible the reduction of $6,000 in the pastor's salary supplement (along with a 4% increase recommended for the minimum salary).

E. Explanations of Proposed Changes

General Conference Funds

Apportionments set by the General Conference will be established in May, 1992 for each year of the upcoming quadrennium. Our Annual Conference cannot change these amounts.

Jurisdictional Conference Funds

Apportionments set by the Jurisdictional Conference will be established in July, 1992 for each year of the upcoming quadrennium and cannot be changed by our Annual Conference. These amounts listed in this report might be changed in July.

Annual Conference Funds

Under some apportionment are the dollar amounts allocated for designated purposes. The figures on the left are for 1992 - on the right for 1993. Because of internal adjustments in the designation of categories within certain apportionments, the 1992 sub-designations have been changed in some cases. In all cases, however, the apportionment totals remain the same.

SECTION VI. GUIDELINES FOR COMPUTATION OF 1993 APPORTIONMENTS FOR LOCAL CHURCHES

A. Formula for Two-Part Decimal:

1/3 membership and 2/3 finance

B. Procedure for Computation of Decimal for Each Church:

The membership part is computed by dividing the total 1991 church membership of the Annual Conference (less discontinued churches and fellowships = 148,858) into the 1991 membership of each church. This becomes the church's membership decimal.

The finance part is computed by adding the amounts of the operating expenses reported paid by each church in columns 64, 65, 66a, 66c, and 67-72 of the 1991 Statistician's Report. (No funds reported in other statistical columns are included in this computation.) This total is then divided by the Conference total of these same columns (less discontinued churches and fellowships = $32,016,334). This becomes the local church's finance decimal.

The finance decimal is doubled. The membership decimal is added to the doubled finance decimal. This total is divided by three to become the apportionment decimal.

C. Procedure for Computation of Apportionments for Each Church:

The apportionment decimal for each church is multiplied by the Conference total of each apportionment to determine the amount that church is asked to pay toward the apportionment. The only exception is the District Administration Fund Apportionment which is computed uniquely in each district office.

D. Margin for Correction:

To assure that 100% of the amount of each apportionment will be distributed to the churches, no more than one quarter of one percent may be added to each apportionment when needed.

XI. DISCIPLINARY QUESTIONS

Bishop Blake, clergy and lay members of the Conference, welcomed guests: Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ! It is Disciplinary and good tradition that the superintendents of the Annual Conference report on the activities of the Cabinet during the previous year. As Chair of the Cabinet it is my responsibility and privilege to make such a report. The Discipline states:

"The Cabinet, under the leadership of the Bishop, is the expression of superintending leadership in and through the Annual Conference. It is expected to speak to the Conference and for the Conference to the spiritual and temporal issues that exist within the region encompassed by the Conference."

I will not try to enumerate all the issues that exist within the region but, rather, will take you on a brief journey into the life and work of the Cabinet. My desire is to provide a window through which you can see the groundwork and preparation that goes into the final expression of superintending leadership that comes out of the Cabinet. The following glimpses into 1991 and 1992 are only examples of an intentional and on-going process to understand and respond to the spiritual and missional needs of the Conference.

In order to better understand the mission and the needs of the Conference, and of the Cabinet, we invited Lovett Weems, President of the St. Paul School of Theology, to come and lead us in a three day retreat last July on visioning. During these three days we talked about vision, about leadership, about mission, and about our role as a bishop and district superintendents to provide leadership for a common vision to accomplish Christ's mission for His Church today.

After spending about twenty-four hours discussing visioning and leadership the Cabinet entered into a long dialogue on the mission and need of the Conference and, eventually, on the mission of the District Superintendent. Even though it would be fruitful teaching, I will not go into our deliberations on visioning. I will outline the conclusions we reached on the mission and needs of the Conference. We determined that as an annual conference we must have a common purpose. We must set standards for effectiveness and we must communicate the common purpose in order to change congregations and leaders from a maintenance mode via new standards of effectiveness (Every United Methodist An Evangelist).

The need is to save souls (evangelism). We must develop a common vision to crystallize this need for all members of the Conference. Next, we must organize and train laity to enact the vision. We must convince and deploy professional personnel to enact the vision, and we must insure that the vision is enacted inclusively.

Put in the expression of a missional statement for the Conference our desire would be to see the Church turned outward toward the people around the common purpose of evangelism, moving out of a maintenance mode, with new standards for effectiveness, and deployment based on common purpose.

Based upon this common purpose and need of the Conference the mission of the District Superintendents is to: a.) Understand the Conference holistically.

1.) Give visionary leadership.
   b.) Think and act creatively.

2.) Move toward the vision.

3.) Deploy clergy leadership for the sake of vision.

4.) Provide supervision and accountability.

5.) Be a connector, be consistent.

6.) Make corrections as needed.

The Cabinet set specific objectives for accomplishing the tasks centering around our common purpose. These included, but were not confined to the behaviors outlined in Bishop Blake's "A Call To Community, Conviction, and Commitment." As a result of this retreat we feel that our common purpose as a Conference is clear and that our mandate for superintending leadership is ever more clearly defined. Our accountability is not only to God and to our presiding Bishop but clearly to you, members of the Conference, as well.

How does this accountability for superintending leadership get translated into works of mission and ministry in the District and in the Conference? I think I would answer that question by referring to three roles that occupy a great majority of a District Superintendent's time and energy:

A.) Consultation, B.) Training, C.) Behaving the faith.

A.) Consultation with clergy and with the local church is a process that never ends. In formal and informal settings, scheduled and unscheduled dialogues the District Superintendent is always trying to access the missional needs of the local church. Through the summer months informal contact and visits are being made across the District. In the fall scheduled consultations take place with the clergy. Charge Conferences are held where the local congregation gives an account of its ministry for the previous year and adopts goals for the coming year. Following Charge Conferences the Cabinet meets for a two day working retreat where all the personnel of the Annual Conference are discussed. This process prepares the District Superintendent for additional consultation with every pastor in January or early February. Evaluation of effectiveness and the need to remain in an appointment or to consider the possibility of a change in appointment will be a part of this consultation. When this round of consultations has been completed the Cabinet will meet for another two day retreat to discuss all the churches of the Conference. Superintendents will identify their missional churches for the coming year (churches which, if the right leadership is not provided, will not achieve their capacity for effectiveness). Following this time of evaluation the appointive process for the session of Annual Conference will begin. Pastors and Pastor-Parish Relations Committees are conferred with and appointments are set. All of this, of course, is for the effective ministry of the local church. Appointments in the itinerant system are made for three reasons:

1. For the mission of the church in this geographical area. The responsibility of the Bishop and Cabinet is to see that the mission of the church is strengthened in this Conference. We must view the whole Conference and see the whole picture. We are the only ones who can have the total view. Appointments must be made with this in mind. Some appointments will not make any sense until the whole process is understood, the total picture is seen. The mission of the church is the context for ministry rather than ministry being the context for the mission. The mission is our reason for being.

2. Appointments are for the purpose of enabling a local congregation to realize its potential. The Cabinet must always look at a church's potential - for what it might be. This always means that the church must be in servanthood ministry. A minister must be able and willing to adapt her/his gifts and graces to meet the needs of the church rather than a church having to meet the gifts and graces of the minister.

3. The appointment of a minister is for the purpose of calling forth that persons potential; to call forth the potential of one's training for their particular work. The purpose of appointment making is not for career advancement nor to provide an increase in salary, but to provide servant leaders who encourage churches to give servant ministry.

What I'm trying to convey here is that the Cabinet is very thorough, very prayerful, very intentional about providing leadership for meeting the mandate of our common purpose and strengthening the local church. To this end the Bishop will announce less than forty appointment changes on Wednesday (two years ago there were nearly double that many). The Cabinet has set a goal of trying not to move a pastor who is providing effective leadership in less than four years on that charge and looking at all appointments that have a tenure of ten years or more. This doesn't mean that you won't make a move in less than four years if the chemistry just doesn't work or that one's leadership becomes ineffective after ten years. It is simply to say that the Cabinet will stay in close touch with pastor and parish to access the missional needs of every local congregation. This on-going consultative and evaluative process resulted in the appointment of three ministers to start new congregations a year ago. Each of those pastors have an exciting success story to tell at this session of the Annual Conference. Additional appointments are being made to open up continuing opportunities with our Spanish speaking brothers and sisters. Vital ministries continue to be developed in the urban centers of our Conference and small churches in the open country are experiencing new vitality and growth.

Consultation and the appointive process is not fully understood, or appreciated, by everyone but they are a part of our system that enables us to strengthen the local church and reach the unchurched.

B.) Training is a key word for local church effectiveness. It is the responsibility of the District Superintendent, as well as the staff of the Conference Council on Ministries to provide opportunities in all phases of congregational life for learning how to be more effective as church leaders. Whether it is through District Local Church Leaders Training Events or special district-wide emphasis on the Sunday School such as "Climbing Jacobs' Ladder" in the Sherman-McKinney District or a district-wide emphasis on evangelism and reaching the unchurched with "How To Share Your Faith" workshops in the Paris-Sulphur Springs District, or conference-wide workshops on "Reaching The Unchurched Through Worship," or the exciting new Conference experience, "C.A.F.E.", or the outstanding leadership Bishop Blake has given in his seminars for laity and clergy, the local church must always hold the Cabinet and the ACCOM accountable for practical and adequate training to do the ministry the local church is mandated to provide.

C.) Every member of the Cabinet has a special responsibility to "behave his/her faith." Even though the Bishop or District Superintendent has no greater mandate than any other Christian I feel our responsibility is a bit greater because of the visibility of our position. Because we relate to so many congregations in so many communities in so many different settings we have a unique opportunity to witness by example. I pray that we relate to you and all others in a genuine spirit of understanding, compassion, patience, caring and love. Just to be sure we do, you have the responsibility to hold us accountable just as the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee in the local church has the responsibility to hold the pastor and staff accountable. I believe it is the desire of each of us to be role models but we need, and ask for, your help in behaving in ways consistent with the vision.

We have many challenges before, many obstacles yet to overcome. I'm not here to do a white-wash job and pretend that we don't have an uphill journey in meeting the demands of our modern day world or even practicing what we preach. And yet, we do have so much for which to be thankful, we do have definite victories to celebrate.

The Apostle Paul spoke to a world such as ours. And to that world of brokenness he offered a remedy--he preached Christ crucified. He proclaimed a gospel of grace and forgiveness; of the possibility of a new life for even the most depraved and lonely of creatures. His message, and ours, is that no one is without hope, in this life or the next, "Thanks be to God...."

Let me illustrate with one story, and with it I'll close:

Dr. Anthony Campolo, who is a social scientist, a Baptist Pastor, T.V. show host and renowned speaker, is a member of Mt. Carmel Baptist Church in Philadelphia, which happens to be a Black Church. Dr. Campolo preaches to a lot of congregations, but he says that no other group of people leave him with excitement like the congregation of his own church. The people in his congregation let him know how he is doing. Whether he is good or bad, they let him know what they are feeling about his message. They talk to him; they respond with their feelings.

He tells about one Good Friday when seven ministers were preaching back to back. When it was his turn to preach, he said he rolled into high gear, and he was good. The more he preached, the more the people in that congregation turned on. And he got better and better. "I got so good that I wanted to take notes on me," he said. At the end of the message the congregation broke loose.

He sat down next to his pastor and his pastor looked at him with a smile. He reached down and squeezed Campolo's knee. "You did alright" he said.

Dr. Campolo asked him: "Are you going to be able to top that? The old man smiled and said, "Son, you just sit back, `cause this old man is going to do you in."

Dr. Campolo didn't figure that anybody could have done him in that day...but the old man got up, an he did him in.

The amazing thing was that he did it with the use of just one line. For an hour and a half he preached one line over and over again. For an hour and a half he stood that crowd on its ear with just one line. That line was, "It's Friday, but Sunday's comin'." He started his sermon real softly by saying, "It's Friday; it was Friday and my Jesus was dead on the tree. But that was Friday, and Sunday's comin'."

The preacher kept going. He picked up the volume still more and shouted, "It was Friday. The cynics were looking at the world and saying, `As things have been so shall they be. You can't change anything in this world.' But those cynics don't know that it was only Friday, Sunday's comin'."

"It was Friday! And on Friday, those forces that oppress the poor and make the poor to suffer were in control. But that was Friday! Sunday's comin'."

"It was Friday, and on Friday Pilate thought he had washed his hands of a lot of trouble. The Pharisees were strutting around, laughing and poking each other in the ribs.

They thought they were back in charge of things, but they didn't know that it was only Friday. Sunday's comin'!"

He kept on working that one phrase for half an hour, then an hour, then an hour and a half. "Over and over he came at us, said Dr. Campolo." "It was Friday, but Sunday's comin'!"

By the time he had come to the end of his message he had everyone so worked up that no one could have stood it much longer. At the end of his message he just yelled, "It's Friday!" and all five-hundred people in that church yelled back with one accord, "Sunday's Comin'!"

Thanks be to God, that's the Good News! That's the news that holds us accountable, and the news that makes possible the victories we celebrate here this week.

Oh, our system is not perfect. As God's people, we experience the Friday's too. The difference is that we know Sunday's Comin'!" During this quadriennium we have experienced many changes, sometimes some of us have struggled. But we have learned and we have grown. Our conference is the stronger because of the challenge offered us. Now, with General Conference behind us, one quadriennium moving toward a close and a new one waiting to begin, let us put our hand to the plow and proclaim to all the world "Sunday's Comin'".....

CHURCH EXTENSION/TRUSTEES

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

The year 1991-92 has seen the establishment of several new works, the purchase of two tracts of land, the merger of one of our newest fellowships with an existing congregation, the ground-breaking for a relocation, and much overall growth in our new churches.

New Fellowships

At the 1991 annual conference session, Bishop Blake appointed founding pastors to three new fellowships, each of which began worship services in the fall of last year.

Aldersgate Fellowship.--Aldersgate Fellowship in north Carrollton began worship on October 20. By the end of 1991, Aldersgate touted a membership of 91 and an average worship attendance of 116. On May 24, Aldersgate Sunday, the church was officially chartered with 204 full and 64 preparatory members. The average attendance for 1992 is 178 and growing. This church now provides active music, youth, and Sunday School programs, as well as many other exciting ministries. In addition, Aldersgate paid its 1992 apportionments in full on its charter day. The members have 105 Visionaries shares, approximately one share per household.

Lakeway Fellowship.--Lakeway Fellowship in Pottsboro began worship on December 1, 1991 and ended the year with 52 full members and an average worship attendance of 93. As of the end of May, 1992, they have 118 full and 37 preparatory members. Fully 80% of Lakeway's 118 full members were unchurched prior to joining this new fellowship. The average worship attendance for 1992 stands at 125. Of the 155 total members, 45 have been baptized at Lakeway since its opening late last year. Lakeway is the first new congregation to be established in a Town & Country setting in many years.

Vista Ridge Fellowship.--The Vista Ridge Fellowship began worship on December 8, 1991 and ended the year with 48 full members and an average worship attendance of 104. On Heritage Sunday, April 26 Vista Ridge became an officially chartered church with 111 full members, 35 preparatory and 6 affiliate members. Since chartering, Vista Ridge has grown to a full membership of 115, 6 associate and 39 preparatory members (160 total persons) with a 1992 average worship attendance of 126. The average Sunday School attendance stands at 65. As a chartered church, Vista Ridge is completely self-supporting, including the monthly payment of apportionments. Twenty-five percent of Vista Ridge's undesignated offerings support ministries beyond the local church.

Scotland Hispanic.--On May 1, 1992 a new Hispanic pastor was assigned to the Scotland Church in Wichita Falls. The membership of this congregation has declined to just 27 elderly persons - all Anglos - in an area of the city which is fastly becoming Hispanic. Underwritten by Church Extension, the goal is to establish a new Hispanic congregation at Scotland, while continuing to meet the needs of the existing membership.

The growth of our newest fellowships indicates that planting new congregations is a highly effective means of reaching unchurched persons for Christ. Most of those who join new fellowships are unchurched when they begin attending. But in the context of other "seekers," many discover a new relationship with God through a new relationship with the church.

Cross Road - Brooklyn Merger

The Cross Road Fellowship, which was begun in January 1991, grew to a membership of 65, primarily Hispanic persons, by the fall. Thanks to the generosity of Methodist Central Hospital, Cross Road met in Weiss Auditorium for worship services, but they had no long-term, permanent home. Brooklyn Avenue United Methodist Church, which is composed of all Anglo members, is located in an Oak Cliff neighborhood which is fast becoming a predominantly Hispanic area. This congregation wants to perpetuate its ministry in that portion of the city, and thus requested that the District Superintendent consider the appointment of an Hispanic minister to become Brooklyn Avenue's next pastor. A merger was consummated in October between the Brooklyn Ave. Church and Cross Road Fellowship. Mario Hernandez, formerly pastor of the Cross Road Fellowship, became the pastor of the newly merged congregation. The result is a much stronger church which is equipped to minister to the citizens of Oak Cliff into the next century.

Property Acquisition

Old Denton Road, Carrollton.--During the past year, the Board of Church Extension has completed the purchase of two pieces of property. In December 1991 a 9.27-acre tract of land on Old Denton Road in north Carrollton was purchased for the future location of Aldersgate Fellowship. This is the largest tract of land ever purchased as a new church site. Located on a major north-south artery a half block from a major east-west artery, this land is prime real estate, which will enable the development of a major ministry complex for the North Texas Conference.

Cockrell Hill Road, DeSoto.--The Board of Church Extension purchased three acres of land adjacent to a five acre tract acquired by the Board in 1987. This now 8-acre tract is for the future development of a new congregation in the west DeSoto - east Cedar Hill area.

Wichita Falls, Trinity Relocation

The Board of Church Extension has been active in the relocation of Trinity Church in Wichita Falls, providing a loan to purchase the new site and making a grant to support the effort. Ground-breaking ceremonies were held this spring, and building is underway. Once completed, this dynamic, growing congregation will be better able to serve its constituency (including many unchurched persons) in west Wichita Falls.

Conclusion

Your Board of Church Extension is aggressively planting new congregations in the North Texas Conference. We believe that our job is critical to the life and future of the conference. Without new church development, we cannot fulfil our calling as the people of God to reach those who are uncommitted to our God.

REPORT OF THE BISHOP'S CAPITAL CAMPAIGN STUDY COMMITTEE

[ENDORSED BY: BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION
CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

THE CHARGE

At the 1991 session of the North Texas Annual Conference a resolution was adopted stating the need to establish a Capital Campaign Study Committee. This action was taken because of the unprecedented opportunity that confronts the church in North Texas. The population of our 20-county area is now more than two and one-half times what it was in 1950, yet United Methodist membership has risen by only twenty-five percent. Said another way, in 1950 Methodism comprised approximately 11 percent of the population in north Texas, whereas now it is less than 5 percent. Additionally, there are now 28 percent fewer United Methodist churches than in 1950.

Of the three million persons in the North Texas area, approximately one-half -- some 1.5 million -- are unchurched. If all our existing congregations (and those of other denominations) were filled to capacity, a tremendous need would still exist to develop many new churches.

The function of the Study Committee, as identified by the 1991 session of the annual conference was six-fold:

(1) Determine the feasibility and investigate the prospects for a capital funds campaign in the near future.

(2) Identify potential donors and leadership for such a campaign.

(3) Design a plan for a capital funds campaign.

(4) Develop the specifics of what the resources generated by such a campaign will be used for.

(5) Determine the staffing configuration and costs associated with such a campaign.

(6) Report their findings and recommendations to the 1992 session of the North Texas Conference for its action.

THE CURRENT SITUATION

Over the last twelve months three issues have emerged in relationship to any potential capital funds campaign. Each of these issues must be addressed prior to the implementation of any such campaign.

I. Grant Making in the North Texas Conference

Currently, there are some thirteen different grant-making entities (Boards, Commissions, etc.) within the structure of the North Texas Conference. Each agency has final authority over grants in its area. Each operates via its own guidelines, some of which are published and some of which are not.

A question frequently raised in reference to a possible Capital Funds Campaign centers around the present grant-making process, summarized in the query: "What do we get now, as an annual conference, for the many thousands of dollars we expend in grant monies every year." How money is currently spent is of considerable importance to potential donors, for it signals how their gifts are likely to be utilized. The relevant issue can be stated in question form: "Do we have a specific mission we are attempting to fulfil and a consistent set of policies employed in the effort?"

Any capital campaign must be able to give clear, cogent answers to these questions.

II. The Place of Visionaries

The Visionaries program has, for years, been the mainstay of the church development efforts in North Texas. Potential contributors to a major gifts capital campaign want to know that broad-based support exists for the program requesting those large gifts. The Visionaries program is thus our best proof of such support.

III. Perception of Our Economic Situation

The wide-spread belief that the Texas economy is spiraling uncontrollably downward affects negatively any potential for a capital funds campaign. Opinion polls suggest that Texans (including, of course, those who are members of United Methodist Churches in North Texas) fear for their jobs and their economic well-being.

The best economic evidence suggests that the perception, at least for persons in the Metroplex, is inaccurate. For example, the "Gross Area Product" for Dallas-Ft. Worth has never dipped into recession. Dr. Harold Gross, associate director of the Center for Economic Development at the University of North Texas, points out that what is really occurring is a fundamental shift away from defense and energy to other types of manufacturing and services. Certainly, many persons have lost their jobs, but many new jobs (and new kinds of jobs) are being created here.

The reality is that the economic situation of our area was never as bad as was generally perceived and is now beginning to blossom once again. The popular perception is simply inaccurate. Nevertheless, perception is the most important reality.

Given the current wide-spread belief that our economy is in shambles, some churches have experienced difficulties in meeting their operating budgets. People who have lost their jobs, and others who are afraid the same may happen to them, tend not to give as generously as they might otherwise. Some congregations have indeed suffered. Nevertheless, overall, the churches in the North Texas Conference actually spent 4.4 percent more money in 1991 than they did in 1990.

However, as long as people generally believe that times are difficult, the wisdom of launching a major gifts campaign will be questioned. This fact must be reckoned with.

Economic recovery has begun, at least in north Texas if not in the nation as a whole. Once the popular perception changes, once our members generally believe that the economy is again healthy, local churches are likely to fare somewhat better financially than they are now. Yet apart from this change in perception, the notion of a capital funds campaign for the annual conference will doubtless seem a great "test of faith" at best, and at worst, just plain foolish.

Conclusion for Capital Funds Campaign

It is our judgement that a Capital Funds Endowment program is absolutely essential to the future health of our church. The North Texas Conference cannot be faithful to the mandate of the gospel apart from doing its best to reach unchurched persons for Christ, including the establishment of many new congregations. However, in light of the above mentioned facts, it is our view that the launching of a capital campaign is at least a year away. We respectfully request that the North Texas Conference delay the vote on a Capital Funds Endowment Campaign until June 1993. Nevertheless, this is not a time for idleness. On several fronts work must begin even now.

WHAT MUST BE DONE BEFORE JUNE 1993?

Four major thrusts must be made over the next twelve months in order to prepare the way for a possible future capital funds effort.

I. Interpret the Evangelistic Mandate Throughout the Annual Conference

The North Texas Conference has officially adopted "Reaching Unchurched Persons for Christ" as our primary focus. The evangelistic mission must become more than a mere slogan; it must function as a mandate for all of our churches. Throughout the next year, in every forum and in every way imaginable, an effort must be made to reorient local congregations, to the end that a common agenda of reaching the unchurched is implemented.

New church start-ups are one prominent place in which "leading by example" can be practiced. Because reaching the unchurched through the establishment of new churches is to be the central focus of a future capital funds campaign, the effectiveness of our newest congregations must be showcased to the memberships of all our churches. The raison d'être of establishing new churches is reaching unchurched persons for Christ. This must be publicized, highlighted and celebrated throughout the annual conference.

II. Staff Integration

All conference staff must begin to see their function in light of the priority of reaching the unchurched. The conference is not a mass of agencies, each with competing agendas and interests. Instead, an ever-greater sense of cohesiveness, focused on the common mission, must be developed. A sense of teamwork must emerge to a greater degree than at any time in our recent past.

One component of staffing the various agencies of the annual conference in order to maximize their effectiveness in reaching the unchurched revolves around the natural relationship existing between the three recipients of the Visionaries program. Although programmatically both Urban Ministries and Town & Country Ministries belong in the Council on Ministries, practically speaking these two share common ground with the Board of Church Extension because of Visionaries.

Because the employed staff of the annual conference are truly a common team, the Church Extension Officer will now become the staff person who works with the Divisions of Urban Ministries and Town & Country Ministries. These divisions, however, will remain a part of the Board of Global Ministries of the Council on Ministries. This will facilitate coordination of a common mission for Visionaries, while at the same time complying with the Discipline, which locates the two Divisions in the Council on Ministries.

III. Funding

There are three components revolving around the issue of funding.

(1) The grant-making function of the annual conference, referred to earlier, is in need of review.--To that end, over the next twelve months the policies and procedures, and more importantly, the mission of each of our grant-making entities will be reviewed. The North Texas Conference must be able clearly to answer all questions relative to what we are getting for our monies and how our grants help to fulfil our primary mission of reaching the unchurched.

(2) The Visionaries program must be strengthened.--The new approach adopted this year of taking the message directly to Sunday School classes will be built upon. "Visionaries" must become a term of general recognition and joy across the conference. Both the number of shareholders and the total receipts for Visionaries must increase over the next twelve months.

(3) An initial step toward the establishment of a capital endowment will be taken now as a part of the regular Visionaries effort.--That is, the share program will make available "Endowed Visionaries Shares," whereby shareholders may elect to endow Visionaries shares in perpetuity through the lump sum payment of a certain amount (e.g. $1,000). These funds will be treated as capital endowment, the interest from which will be used to pay the cost of a share annually. Although not a comprehensive capital funds effort designed to raise major gifts, this new program will both generate addition revenue and serve as another vehicle to convince contributors to a future large gifts campaign of the broad-based support of the annual conference.

IV. Interpretation

Over the next twelve months, an extensive program of interpretation will be undertaken of the need for, and goals of, a future Capital Funds Endowment Campaign. The Church Extension Officer will be assigned to meet with key organizational entities and/or individuals in at least seven congregations per month throughout the next year, interpreting to them what the Capital Funds Endowment Campaign is about.

WHAT MUST BE DONE AFTER JUNE 1993?

Plan and Organize a Capital Funds Endowment Program

A specific and detailed plan must be developed. Every member of the annual conference is entitled to know the plan and to have input in its formulation.

Launch a Capital Funds Endowment Program

At some specific time the North Texas Conference must take a leap of faith and implement a campaign to secure capital endowment for the work that calls us. It is not enough merely to dream great dreams and envision great visions. We must be willing to risk failure if we are to live up to God's highest calling; we must "launch out into the deep" and actually say, "Now is the time."

Staff a Capital Funds Endowment Program

As part of the planning process, a decision will be made concerning what staffing is needed to implement a Capital Funds Endowment program. Some of the persons involved in this effort may be employed staff; many will be volunteers. A carefully selected staff will make a great difference to the outcome of the campaign.

Reach the Unchurched in New and Exciting Ways

The end product of the Capital Funds Endowment program is not money; it is reaching unchurched persons for Christ. This is both our privilege and our responsibility. It is a privilege to participate in eternity's work; all disciples must do that work as creatively and joyfully as possible. Capital endowment funds will enable the North Texas Conference to fulfil its calling more thoroughly. But reaching the unchurched is also a responsibility. As John Wesley told his preachers some 200 years ago: "You have no business but to save souls." May that be our priority even now.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

1992 Annual Report

The Board met three times this past Conference year, and was able to handle other business by correspondence or telephone. Most of our work was concerned with property matters.

We continue to hold in trust for the Annual Conference properties at Valley View, Bagwell, Savannah Springs (jointly owned with the Baptist Church), Drop, McKenzie Chapel, Bethlehem, Mt. Pleasant, Minter, Gober, Pottsboro, and Wilmer.

We conducted training sessions for local church trustees in several districts. Once again, we encourage all local churches to make sure that their deeds and charters of incorporation are on file at the conference office.

We assisted Methodist Hospital in the resolution of an incident of trade name infringement.

The financial report of May 1, 1992 indicates a balance of $57,982.31 in the general account. The Hughey Estate account has a balance of $84,078.05; the St. Matthews Church account, $61,530 (after a disbursement of $12,500 for the New Horizon building). Our net total assets stand at $203,590.36.

The Board recommends for Annual Conference action the following items, detailed in legislative proposals included in the pre-conference workbook:

1. The abandonment of Myra United Methodist Church in the Sherman-McKinney District, and the selling of its property;

2. The abandonment of the New Aldersgate United Methodist Church in the Dallas South District, and the selling of its property to satisfy claims against it;

3. The abandonment of Shady Grove United Methodist Church in the Wichita Falls District, and the conveyance of the deed to its property to the Montague County Shady Grove Cemetery Association;

4. The abandonment of Jermyn United Methodist Church in the Wichita Falls District, with the disposition of its property to be determined at a later date;

5. The merger of Brewster and McKenzie Memorial United Methodist Churches in the Paris-Sulphur Springs District, and the transfer of the assets and liabilities of the Brewster church to McKenzie Memorial;

6. The transfer of the proceeds from the sale of the former Westerfield United Methodist Church (ca. $22,990) to the Board of Church Extension for the purchase of a parsonage for Nueva Esperanza Fellowship; and

7. The transfer of proceeds to be realized from the sale of the former Pottsboro United Methodist Church property to the Board of Church Extension to be used for future construction costs of Lakeway Fellowship of Pottsboro.

One additional item of legislation to be brought to the floor concerns the abandonment of Stevens Park UMC, Dallas Central District. Trustees are recommending that responsibility and title to all assets and real properties be consigned to the Dallas Central District Board of Trustees. These will be held for the benefit of a soon to be established hispanic oriented congregation in the Stevens Park area.

R. David Shawver, Chairman
Council of Finance and Administration
North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church Dallas, Texas.

Dear Sir:

We have audited the statements of cash receipts and disbursements of Dr. James Hares, Treasurer of the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church, for the years 1991 and 1990. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Treasurer. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by the Treasurer, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note 1, the statements of cash receipts and disbursements are summaries of the cash activity of the Conference and do not present transactions that would be included in financial statements presented on the accrual basis of accounting. Accordingly, the accompanying statements are not intended to present financial position or the results of operations in conformity with accounting on an accrual basis.

In our opinion, the accompanying statements present fairly, in all material respects, the cash receipts and disbursements of the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church for the years 1991 and 1990, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1.

J.Raymond Nelson

J.Raymond Nelson, C.P.A.
June 1, 1992.

Notes:

1. Principles of Accounting.
The Conference prepares its financial statements on the cash basis. To include the items in transit at the end of the year, the statements are dated the end of January.

2. Property and Equipment.
Major equipment, property improvement, and similar acquisitions are recorded as disbursements as cash is paid. These items are not capitalized.

3. Procedures used.
Under the plan of bookkeeping procedures employed by the Conference Treasurer's office, all receipts are automatically confirmed to the source and all disbursements are approved by the Treasurer for payment.

COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

During the past year the Conference Council on Ministries has welcomed a new director, Gary E. Mueller, several new chairs, Eric Folkerth with the Division of Single Adults, Ruben Esquivel with the Division of National and World Outreach, and Colleen Hager with the Commission on Asian Ministries, and a number of new agency members.

The agencies and staff of the Conference Council have worked diligently and been involved in numerous projects and programs which have significantly impacted the mission and ministry of the North Texas Conference. Highlights include:

- The adoption of a vision statement:

> The North Texas Conference Council on Ministries' mission is to help develop leadership in local congregations so those churches can continuously improve their mission of making disciples for Jesus Christ.

- The creation of a new budgeting process designed to provide maximum flexibility for agencies to carry out their tasks and ensure that the Council lives within its financial means.

- The continuation of the Ministries Mart begun at the 1991 Annual Conference.

- The development of plans for C.A.F.E. (Conference Academy for Faith Education) which will be offered Friday, September 11, and Saturday, September 12. A "C.A.F.E. for Youth will be offered concurrently at Custer Road United Methodist Church.

- The adoption of three focus areas for 1993 in an attempt to carry out three important themes contained in "A Call to Community, Conviction, and Commitment":

1. Double the number of new members received in the North Texas Conference in 1993 over the number of new members received in 1990.
2. Develop training programs around the theme "Every United Methodist an Evangelist".
3. Train Unpaid Staff to be leaders in mission and ministry.

- The development of a variety of training programs in the areas of Youth Ministry, Sunday School, and Evangelism.

- The initiation of a study of grant making procedures.

- The attendance at summer camp of a record number of campers.

- The creation of a partnership with R.S.I. (Resource Services, Inc.) to provide every local congregation in the North Texas Conference with a basic stewardship education and budget promotion program.

- The preparation of statistical profiles for every local congregation in the annual conference.

- The development of a new 'conference resource insert' in the United Methodist Reporter which reaches significantly more persons than the previously used bi-monthly packet.

Appreciation is given to those whose terms in leadership positions in the Conference Council are now ending. Their hard work and dedication deserve great thanks.

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

Concluding our first quadrennium as the new Board of Discipleship with eleven (11) functioning Divisions and two Committees, has illustrated many strengths of this SUPER BOARD approach to organization and only one weakness, that I am aware of. That one weakness evident to me during this first four year period of operation has to do with the bunching together of thirteen different agencies that often tend to move in their own independent directions, even evidencing some resistance to cooperative issue programming. It is my conviction that more cooperative issue planning and programming among these several agencies could: 1) Reduce overall program cost through pooled resources, shared leadership and a variety of approaches in addressing specific issues, 2) Bring greater visibility and a higher potential for success to specific jointly sponsored programs, and 3) Multiply the value added quotient of wholistic programming to annual conference events.

The Conference Academy for Faith Education (CAFE), scheduled for September 11-12, 1992, at the Plano Campus of the Collin County Community College, is providing this board opportunity for cooperative training at one place and at one time. The purpose of CAFE is to be that one, high quality, combined leader event that will offer educational experiences which are designed to help build and/or enhance local church training. And, as the name implies, the emphasis is on faith development... not local church office job training. Each and every United Methodist in the North Texas Annual Conference is encouraged to consider CAFE as their one time during the year where they can continue their formation of faith by way of high quality educational presentations. Every agency of the annual conference has been invited to make presentations at CAFE.

Following are the Division and Committee reports:

DIVISION OF EDUCATION

The goal of the Educational Division for this past year has been two fold. One is in response to the request to provide workshops for the Conference Academy for Faith Education (CAFE) to be held on September 11 and 12, 1992. The other is to equip the members of the division that they might serve as a resource and respond to requests for training from local churches and from the district. This last goal has not been fully achieved, and will be taken as part of the work of the division for the coming year.

The courses and leaders that are being offered from this division for C.A.F.E. are the following: Mrs. Dorlis Glass - "How Curriculum Interacts with Faith Development", Dr. Leroy Howe - "Does Faith Development Affect Attitudes and Values?", Rev. Ben Marshall - "Faith Development in Adults", and Mrs. Jo Biggerstaff - "The Weaving of Faith and Program".

Lane Tunnell, Chairperson

DIVISION OF EVANGELISM

The Division of Evangelism is dedicated to lifting up the evangelical mission of the North Texas Conference.

In response to our Bishop's call for "Every United Methodist an Evangelist" we were instrumental in supporting a major program of Evangelism in the Sherman-McKinney District. Moreover, one of our division members, Leighton Beardon, offered leadership to the district in making the program a great success.

We are presently preparing a major evangelism emphasis in our participation in the Conference Academy of Faith Education in September.

Mark Craig, Chairperson

DIVISION OF STEWARDSHIP

The Division, in its goal to provide stewardship resources for local churches, has found an excellent programming vehicle in Conference Academy for Faith Education (CAFE). Three programs will be presented by the division: Make Your Time and Talent Count for God, Raising God's Money in a Season of Recession, and Building the Financial Support of the Local Church. Leadership for these courses will be provided by Rev. Tim Walker and Rev. Corky McGee.

In our transition into a new quadrennium, the Division on Stewardship will continue to strive to aid the local church in its work of being good stewards of God's gifts.

John Mollet, Chairperson

DIVISION OF WORSHIP

The Division sponsored two successful workshops entitled "Reaching the Unchurched Through Worship and Music," one in the Paris-Sulphur Springs District and one in the Wichita Falls District. Each workshop started with a worship service which was then critiqued to show how its elements attempted to make worship more visitor-friendly. Then there was a workshop focused on following people from their car door into the sanctuary and all the way through the worship service to see if the service was understandable for first time visitors.

John Thornburg, Chairperson

DIVISION OF SPIRITUAL FORMATION

The Division has offered, during this conference year, a total of nine "Day Apart" - retreat days for laity and clergy led by pastors and lay persons. Members of the Division have given leadership for retreats, United Methodist Women, church school classes, and other gatherings in the local church.

The goal of the Division to have a "Key Person" in each local church is coming closer to reality. The Key Person's responsibility is to inform the members of the local church of the conference programs offered, and give to them a list of persons, programs and resources provided by the Division.

The Quadrennial Event "Encouraging the Spiritual Life" led by Marjorie Thompson was held in February. The Division is sponsoring four leaders at the Conference Academy for Faith Education in September.

The Division continues to believe, as secular magazines are affirming, that more and more Americans hunger for a personal experience of God that prayer and meditation seek to satisfy.

Jane Robertson, Chairperson

DIVISION OF YOUTH MINISTRIES

The Youth Division, in cooperation with the Conference Council on Youth Ministries, sponsored a variety of events for youth and those who work with youth. Our successful events included: Perkins School of Youth Ministry, a twenty person delegation to New Mexico to the "National Forum on Youth Ministry," Youth Annual Conference where legislation was passed on such items as A.I.D.S education, recycling, homosexuality and the church, and mission giving. Another ministry education opportunity included "The United Nations, Washington, D.C. Seminar on the Homeless," where churches across our Annual Conference gathered together to study our nations problems and become challenged by their faith to change our world.

I am happy to share with you that this year the Conference Council on Youth Ministries has achieved a racial and gender balance by their own vote. I have been privileged to serve an inclusive body, (people of different colors, minds, theologies) who work together to minister for Christ and who so joyously call themselves "United Methodist."

Camille Gaston, Chairperson

DIVISION OF ADULT MINISTRIES

The Division provided three #300.00 scholarships for the Disciples Bible Study Leaders Training. Scholarships were presented to Eduardo Cajiuat, Pastor of Faith United Methodist Church, Plano; Michael House, Pastor of McKenzie Memorial/Brewster United Methodist Church, Clarksville; and Pat Beghtel-Mahle, Pastor of Electra United Methodist Church.

The Division participated in the initial planning for the Conference Academy of Faith Education (CAFE) and finalized arrangements for three courses "Curriculum Choices for Adults" - presenter, Joyce Brown; "Reaching Baby Boomers With New Adult Classes" - presenter, Jo Biggerstaff; and "Leadership For Anxious Times" - presenters, Pat Beghtel-Mahle and Jo Ann Holy.

Ernie Martin, Chairperson

DIVISION OF SINGLE ADULT MINISTRIES

The Division of Single Adult Ministry has had an interesting year, as we seek to be in ministry with Single Adults throughout the conference. As a new division, much of our task and purpose is still evolving. Defining our work and setting our goals has taken much of our energy this year.

The Division has compiled a phone list of Single Adult leadership throughout the conference. Publicity by the division resulted in record numbers of Single Adults attending the Jurisdictional Leadership Event at Mount Sequoyah in October. The North Texas Conference had more single adults in attendance than any other conference in the Jurisdiction.

Members of the division have made themselves available for consultation with churches in the conference about starting and maintaining Single Adult Ministries, specifically FUMC DeSoto, Warren UMC in Dallas and Hamilton Park UMC in Dallas. Members of the division have conducted training events for single adults at the Dallas South District leadership training event. The division has also recently published a list of suggested resources available through the conference resource center.

District Single Adult groups are forming in several areas, most notably in the Paris-Sulphur Springs area. The Sherman-McKinney District has also done some work toward forming a district-wide strategy for Single Adults.

The Single Adult Division is still growing and finding its purpose. It is clear to the division that one of its main tasks will be to provide resources and training for local churches and districts. We look forward to continuing to serve the conference and Single Adults in the North Texas area in this and other way.

Eric Folkerth, Chairperson

DIVISION OF OLDER ADULT MINISTRIES

The first annual Older Adult Luncheon was held last year at Annual Conference. The Herman Cook Award was established to honor an outstanding program for or by older adults. Dr. Cook was present to present a plaque to Dr. Wally Chappell who rode a bicycle from Dallas to Gunnison, Colorado to raise funds for "RESTART."

The division published their first annual supplement to the Methodist Reporter, publicizing a variety of ministries. An RV Rally was held in October and in April at Tyler State Park. The number of participants has increased each year. The division also promoted the retiree events at Mt. Sequoyah.

Dr. Rosalie Lawson, noted Gerontologist from Florida has been secured as one of the presenters at the fall CAFE training event.

Patsy Brundige, Chairperson

DIVISION OF FAMILY MINISTRIES

The Division continues to provide training, resources and information concerning family ministries for all local churches.

In 1992 and 1993 we have set goals in four areas to be in ministry to help families become stronger families.

1) To develop and implement the Active Parenting program. This program is designed to help parents develop the necessary skills for the hardest job in the world: being a parent. Using these skills parents can instill qualities to last a lifetime: self-esteem, courage, responsibility and cooperation. We have had Leadership Certification Workshops to train facilitators who then lead Active Parenting Workshops. At present we have about 80 persons who are certified in this field. (Many, many churches in the North Texas Conference are using this program.)

2) The second area has been in the Celebration of Marriage. One retreat was held early this year at Bridgeport Conference Center and another is planned later in the year. This program has been designed for married couples to strengthen the marriage in the context of the Christian faith. At these events couples can celebrate their faith as ell as their marriage. The the theme for the retreats is "Growing in Love." Matthew and Camille Gaston, certified instructors, are leading retreats and also training others to be facilitators. We want to continue to provide leadership and to have retreats in Celebration of Marriage.

3) The third area has been in Family: The Forming Center. In February 1992 we had Marjorie J. Thompson as the guest speaker for an "Enriching the Spiritual Life" seminar. This was a very successful event and plans are being made to have a similar seminar in 1993.

4) The division is making plans to be involved in CAFE to be held September 11-12. We will have five workshops at this event and we feel this will present good possibilities for ministry.

It is our hope and belief that these programs will reach out to families in our churches and also into the communities to follow the mandate of the conference to "reach the unchurched."

Johnny Irish, Chairperson

HUMAN SEXUALITY COMMITTEE

The Human Sexuality Committee certifies persons as leaders of Human Sexuality events and serves as a resource for human sexuality issues for the North Texas Annual Conference. The committee continued to refine its requirements for certification. We also offered two beginning courses for those seeking certification at the Perkins School of Youth Ministry and at a retreat at Texoma. Three persons were certified this year and several others are in process.

Persons seeking information about certification or having a seminar in their church should contact Sharon Adair in the Conference office.

Sharon Adair, Chairperson

SUMMER EVENTS COMMITTEE

Summer Events continued to increase in number and quality. Training and evaluation were done on site this year to facilitate the connection between camping and its centers. This year over 1900 children, youth, and leaders went to camp in our largest group ever. The Committee is looking into the future because of year round scheduling of schools. In fact this summer we are already programming to meet that need. We look forward to another successful year.

Fred Winslow, Chairperson

THANKS

My personal thanks to the members of the Board, the Division Chairpersons and the secretary of the Board, Clayton Oliphint, for their work this year and during the quadrennium.

Robert L. Robertson, Chairperson

BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

We love to tell the old, old story, but the new story is exciting, challenging and filled with accomplishment. Within the six divisions the extended arms of the church have been employed in all kinds of effort which we understand to be in the spirit of the sensitive and loving care of Jesus Christ.

Telling the story has been one of our chief goals. When United Methodists know what their agencies of love and care are doing, they are extremely generous. This generosity was demonstrated this year in our response to the call for emergency food shipments to Russia. Many churches responded early and even more have continued the effort until the May 15, 1992 deadline for completion of the second phase of Operation Soviet Emergency Food lift through UMCOR. Dr. Bruce Weaver, a member of North Texas Conference acting as interim chief executive officer of UMCOR gave superb leadership to the effort. For this we are most grateful and proud.

Volunteerism is rising to the top of the mainstream of missions in this decade. Volunteers in Missions as a Division of Our Board is growing both in effectiveness and in the ability to challenge local churches to participate in projects local, national and international. We have a vision of that continuing growth which permits individuals and groups alike to share in the wide variety of opportunities available for bringing the Gospel to life in loving service. Volunteers become most effective interpreters of the mission efforts in which they participate as well as becoming strong supporters of other mission efforts about which they hear.

Our close ties with the Board of Global Ministries has kept us in touch with all missions. We challenge our successors to keep those lines of communication open and even expand the telling of the stories of a church which cares, which serves and even knows how to sacrifice, if need claims us. I am a proud part of the North Texas Conference and appreciate the opportunity to serve the conference the past four years in this small way.

James B. Palmer,
Chair

DIVISION OF COMMUNITY MINISTRIES

Human need is focused in many places across our conference where the Division of Community Ministries works to assist local agencies meet those needs. During the past year we have worked with 41 agencies. These have been carefully investigated and then given prayerful consideration before the available funds of almost $96,000 were distributed.

Applications for each project are given close attention with an attempt to introduce new agencies to the list of those supported by the conference. We stand ready to serve and share as broadly as possible to represent the entire conference.

Bruce Moseley,Chair

DIVISION OF HEALTH AND WELFARE

The United Methodist related institutions affiliated with the Board of Global Ministries through the Division of Health and Welfare reported considerable accomplishments this past year, especially in the area of increased populations of persons served.

Residents of Asbury Place, the new independent living luxury apartments of the "Retirement Homes of North Texas" enjoyed a well-attended consecration service, conducted by Bishop Bruce Blake; Methodist Hospitals of Dallas continues its aggressive building programs to meet the needs of a rapidly growing patient base; the Methodist Mission Home in San Antonio has successfully launched a capital funds campaign to renovate facilities, build a much needed activity center, and provide ongoing ministry needs; having received the "EAGLE" designation for quality care from the National Association of Health and Welfare Ministries, the Methodist Home in Waco has continued to expand its array of services for troubled children and families.

Jim Ozier, Chair

THE METHODIST HOME

REPORT I

Methodist Home is greatful for our affiliation with the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church in our commitment to be a quality professional ministry for children, youth, and families that manifests Christian compassion, restoration, reconciliation, and healing. The Homes' commitment is as follows:

Statement of Mission: To express God's love by providing superior services that protect, support and enhance the lives of children, youth and their families. We strive to reflect the excellence that characterizes God's care for us. We respect the dignity of each person and strive to achieve a unique and productive relationship with our constituents, our employees and those who use our services.

The Home provided 124,547 days of care for children last year with an increase of 1,436 days of care over the prior year. Last year the Home averaged some 391 children in care each day with our current population averaging some 421 children in care.

Full restoration and refurbishing of the Tom Mitchell Home unit, the Bridwell homeunit, the Youngblood homeunit, and the Howard homeunit on the Waco campus was completed last year with partial reconstruction of the Dorothy Deshong homeunit. This year two more homeunits will be restored on the Waco campus totaling fourteen homeunits restored since 1988 in the reconstruction project. Five more homeunits hopefully can be included in the project as funds are contributed for this purpose.

Administrative staff of the Methodist Home have met with administrative staff of the Methodist Mission Home several times this year in a cooperative effort of providing shared services in some areas of Texas and New Mexico. This effort was encouraged and affirmed by the respective boards of the Methodist Home and the Methodist Mission Home as both organizations are affiliated and serve the same areas of Texas and New Mexico.

Since 1890, you in the North Texas Conference have helped Methodist Home care for some 23,900 hurting children. In the coming months, we will face many new challenges. Boys and girls will come in search of hope and shelter from problems that are difficult for us to imagine them having to endure. Families will come in conflict with each other and those around them. Youngsters will need something to hold on to that has some meaning for life. Because of your love, these boys and girls will find that hope and meaning for life. Because of your compassion, children will find refuge from the storms of life which swirl around them.

Please continue to pray for us this year. Our ministry is not one of human strength alone. All that we are able to do in the life of a child is done through the love of those who share the Spirit of our Living Lord.

REPORT II - HOW YOU CAN HELP

1. Promote Methodist Home December Christmas Offering in each local church.

2. Reaffirm the defense and protection of rights and privileges of children needing care by other than their parents, and uphold the principle of licensing agencies, for purposes of caring for and placing children, to protect minimum standards of care for every child in the care of other persons.

3. Pastors are encouraged to contact Methodist Home regarding child placement need at our office located at University Parks United Methodist Church, 4024 Caruth, P. O. Box 12186, Dallas, Texas 75225, 214/692-1361.

4. Contact Mr. Ty Herring, assistant administrator for Development of Methodist Home in making their long-range giving and charitable estate planning.

5. Please do not hesitate to call upon Reverend Tom Strother, assistant administrator for Church and Community Relations, or Dr. Jack Kyle Daniels, administrator, for any needs you might have related to Methodist Home.

METHODIST MISSION HOME

REPORT I

"NEW VISION FOR THE NEXT CENTURY"

The next century, 2001, is coming soon, but even sooner..in 1995 the MISSION HOME in San Antonio will mark 100 years of ministry and move into its "Next Century!"

Part of the New Vision is being realized through the goals of a $2.6 Million capital funds campaign (1992-1995) to provide for:

1.	Endowment for Scholarships	$1,125,000
2.	Student Activity/Physical Therapy Center	475,000
3.	Refurbishing Dorm for Hearing Impaired	100,000
4.	On-going Gifts from Individuals (3yrs)	900,000

Another important part of the campaign is to increase the awareness of United Methodists and other friends across Texas and New Mexico about the Ministries of the Mission Home.

THE TRUSTEES, FORMER TRUSTEES AND STAFF have already made significant pledges to show their support of the ministry and its growth. The Trustees have pledged $600,000 and the staff $35,000... with both groups exceeding their goal. In 1992 we will be completing the regional phases of the campaign, which is being done in keeping with Paragraph 710.5 of the 1988 DISCIPLINE. Individuals, United Methodists and other friends of the HOME are invited and urged to help the MISSION HOME in its "NEW VISION FOR THE NEXT CENTURY."

SOUTHWEST CENTER FOR COMMUNITY RE-ENTRY(SCCR), Our newest ministry for persons who have completed the medical portion of a head injury and need help in moving toward independent living...is in its third year and continues to meet the needs, not only of those who have had an accident, but also those having had brain surgery, a stroke, or aneurism in the brain area. Call Martha Slaughter at: 512/699-3311 for information about this program.

SOUTHWEST CENTER FOR THE HEARING IMPAIRED (SCHI), has been honored by being one of two centers in the United States to be awarded a grant from the United States Department of Education to provide extra transitional services to low functioning and/or traditionally under-served persons who are deaf. The goal of the SCHI Program is to help persons move toward independent living. If you know of a deaf person who might benefit form such a program, please call Doug Dittfurth, at 512/699-3311.

SOUTHWEST MATERNITY CENTER (SMC) continues to grow and change. We are now holding 35 Orientation Sessions a year on Saturdays across the various cities. We urge couples interested in learning more about adoption to attend one of these five-hour sessions.

Post-adoptive services, usually sought by adult adoptees or birth parents, hold a significant part of our services available now. Such matters need to be dealt with through counseling, caring and caution with the help of experienced personnel.

Maternity care is offered in our facility in San Antonio, and through our field work counselors in or near your area.

These are changing times in the ways of helping pregnant teenagers and childless couples...if you need help, please call Bryce Hatch at: 1-800-VIA LIFE (842-5433) which is answered evenings and nights also.

OUR SPECIAL RELATIONSHIP WITH THE ADOPTIVE CENTER OF EAST TEXAS IN LUFKIN is moving into its second year..this is in cooperation with the St. Cyprian's Episcopal Church of Lufkin, which has now enlarged our services there from part-time field workers to services providing maternity living quarters, offices and full time staff.. for care in that area, call Cathy Pavlic at: 1-800-535-0375.

HOW THE NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE CAN HELP THE MISSION HOME:

1. Refer persons who can be helped by our services.
2. Stand firm for the "best interest of children" by using or recommending only facilities which are licensed by the appropriate regulatory bodies.
3. Take an annual special offering, using our materials, or place the Mission Home in your budget and distribute the materials in some special way.
4. Bring groups to tour the campus in San Antonio.
5. Urge classes and groups to take on special projects to provide on-going special needs...
    a. A van, a mini-van or 15 passenger van
    b. Funds for "Shares in Caring" for residents who lack personal funds for clothing, etc..
6. Contact Larry Watson in our Development Office when there is a person or family who would like to make a charitable gift through their will or other means.

THANKS TO BISHOP BRUCE BLAKE who has been a member of our Board since he became your Episcopal leader...and to all the others from the NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE, who are current trustees on the MISSION HOME Board of Directors:

DIVISION OF NATIONAL AND WORLD OUTREACH

Once again our Division supported the Cooperative Mission Event held on September 20-22, 1991, in cooperation with United Methodist Women. Our share of the offering was designated for the "Angola and Liberia Love Gift."

We provided financial support for the many Iraqi Kurdish refugees resettling in the North Texas Conference area through Refugee Services of North Texas.

Our division also made it possible for one ethnic youth from our Conference to attend the March 14-21, 1992, Seminar on National and International affairs held in Washington, D.C. and New York City. The theme for this year's seminar was "The Homeless".

We have continued to stimulate local church involvement in missionary work. Members of our Division have participated in district and local events and programs to promote support of national and world missions. Two members are scheduled to lead courses during this Year's Conference Academy for Faith Education, (C.A.F.E.).

Ruben Esquivel,
Chair

DIVISION OF VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION

Successful mission workcamps in Nicaragua and the West Bank of the Middle East highlighted North Texas Conference participation in the Volunteers in Mission during this past year.

Organizing, preparing and debriefing the groups added to the effectiveness of the efforts. Beyond those conference-wide projects the Division has learned of at least forty five local churches which sent teams to do work nationally, locally and on to the international scene. Assistance in the form of resource persons was provided for these teams. Gathering of information and sharing with the South Central Jurisdictional Office of VIM through the Reverend Max Marble has provided a great source of networking and placing of productive teams.

The Division has worked diligently on providing guidelines for policies for Volunteers in Missions Workcamp projects. The Division stands ready to share that information and experience with any local church. Much time and effort can be saved by using that store of knowledge and using procedures that have already proven worthwhile.

We regret what appears to be a down grading of the Jurisdictional office for VIM. Our prayers are that in spite of the proposed new structure for VIM in the Jurisdiction, the effectiveness which Max Marble brought to the office can be the foundation for much future volunteer work.

Martha Stowe,
Chair

DIVISION OF TOWN AND COUNTRY MINISTRIES

The Division of Town and Country has attempted to be faithful to its duties in 1991. The Division has made an effort to make the entire conference aware of the importance of Town and Country churches. Several Town and Country churches in the conference have been recognized for their innovation and effectiveness in ministry.

The Division has attempted to make grants that ensure the continued and enhanced ministry in town and country settings.

The Division is attempting to search out churches that need assistance and render the assistance necessary to ensure the survival and growth of the local church.

The Division has made grants for Program Directors in a town and country district with hopes that the result will be such that this will become a model for other districts and conferences.

The Division has made grants totaling over $60,000. dollars and is continuing to seek to make the best use of the monies entrusted to its oversight.

Larry Kruger,
Chair

DIVISION OF URBAN MINISTRIES

Why does the North Texas Conference invest time, effort, and money in a Conference Division of Urban Ministries? What is at stake in the work of this agency? Technically, the Division is charged with acting in accordance with the current Book of Discipline "to develop and strengthen ministries in areas of over 50,000 population in the North Texas Conference." (The North Texas Conference 1991 Journal, p. 202) But we have found another description of the Division's task in the 15th chapter of II Samuel, where King David responds to the rebellion of his son, Absalom:

A messenger came to David, saying, "The hearts of the Israelites have gone after Absalom." Then David said to all his officials who were with him at Jerusalem, "Get up! Let us flee, or there will be no escape for us from Absalom. Hurry, or he will soon overtake us, and bring disaster down upon us, and attack the city with the edge of the sword." The king's officials said to the king, "Your servants are ready to do whatever our Lord the king decides."

Abiathar came up, and Zadock also, with all the Levites, carrying the ark of the covenant of God. They set down the ark of God, until the people had all passed out of the city. Then the king said to Zadok, "Carry the ark of God back into the city. If I find favor in the eyes of the Lord, he will bring me back and let me see both it and the place where it stays. But if he says, 'I take no pleasure in you,' here I am, let him do to me what seems good to him." (II Samuel 15:13-15, 24-26, NRSV)

The conventional wisdom is that King David was being shrewd when he ordered the ark carried back into the city. Commentators note that the priests Zadok and Abiathar became spies for the king while they stayed with the ark in Jerusalem (15:35), and these interpreters speculate that from the very beginning this was David's clever reason for ordering the ark's return. But there is another explanation of David's action. Some speculate that David may have sent the ark back into the city so that when his rebellious son, Absalom, cam into Jerusalem he might encounter this symbol of God's presence and repent of the evil overthrow of his father.

This latter interpretation has special appeal for members of the North Texas Conference Division of Urban Ministries, because we understand our task to involve proclamation of the presence of God in our cities, so that people and circumstances may be redeemed. Our hope and prayer is that as we support the ministry efforts of North Texas urban congregations, the ark will be symbolically present in the city,k and God's presence and power may make a redemptive difference in urban issues like gang activity, teen pregnancy, family violence, drug and alcohol abuse, poverty, prejudice, and other concerns.

Our belief is that the of efforts North Texas Conference congregations are indeed making a difference. As we proclaim the presence and power of God, and make these real for people through a variety of ministries, situations are being transformed for the better. We are excited about the work being done from one end of the conference to the other, from Wichita Falls to Dallas and beyond; and we thank God that we are a part of evangelistic enterprises across North Texas, touching the lives of children, youth, and adults, and including people of every ethnic group. We believe that through the work we all do, by the grace of God, the New Jerusalem is breaking through in the communities of North Texas.

Among the projects of the Division of Urban Ministries this year are:

* Interpretation of urban ministries practiced by North Texas congregations through VISIONARIES presentations, Urban Mission News features, and North Texas United Methodist Reporter articles

* Urban ministries skills training for members of the North Texas Conference and the South Central Jurisdiction

* Christian education for children living in urban areas, focusing on the "Things That Make For Peace," "Drug Dangers," "The Importance of Honesty," "Creating Community," and "Responding to Temptations"

* Financial assistance for ministries in the Wichita Falls, Dallas Northeast, Dallas Central, and Dallas South Districts

* Planned 1992 Conference Academy for Faith Education presentations on "Skills for Ministry in Urban Settings" by General Board of Global Ministries staff member James Craig

Chauncey S. Nealy,
Chair

CONFERENCE SECRETARY OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

We United Methodist reach across the world in mission through three major ways: World Service and Conference Benevolences; Women's Pledge to Missions and Supplementary Giving; and the General Advance for Christ and His Church. The final percentage of apportionments paid by the North Texas Conference in 1991 was 92 %. Our Advance giving in 1991 showed an increase in U.M.C.O.R. and World Division, but a small decrease in gifts to National Division ministries. However, our total Advance giving also increased.

We continue to commission and send new missionaries to serve in all the world. Thus, more local churches are needed to respond to the challenge of supporting those persons through the Advance. Those commissioned missionaries who are serving in mission through the General Board of Global Ministries, and for whom our Conference has primary responsibility for their support are:

Dr. Mark and Mrs. Diane Abbott (Mexico)
Ms. Nancy Boye (El Salvador)
Ms. Jean Jacobs (Peru)
Rev. Ronald and Rev. Linda Jean Myers (Alaska)
Rev. John and Mrs. Gladys Betts (Brazil)
Rev. Donald Waddell (Chile) (through 1992)

North Texas Conference churches also gave substantial support in 1991 to an additional twenty-three (23) commissioned missionaries. We supported the General Advance Special project of Rev. Roger and Mrs. Carla Hudson in South Africa. Roger, as a member of the North Texas Annual Conference, is appointed to the "Joseph Project" (formerly the Indaleni School for Lay Ministries) ministry in the Methodist Church of South Africa.

During 1991, one hundred thirty-four (134) pastoral charges gave to the second-mile General Advance--an increase over those in 1990. This increase should continue in 1992, for a large number of churches shared in Advance giving to the special needs in Liberia and Angola, as Bishop Bruce Blake went there to itinerate and speak.

The excellent response to U.M.C.O.R.'s outreach in Russia and Eastern Europe has involved even more churches. And, the conference itineration in 1991 of Rev. and Mrs. (Meeli) Ullas Tankler of Estonia, and Bishop Heinrich Bolleter of Southern Europe has challenged others to expand their vision of mission.

All the Conferences in the South Central Jurisdiction are now participating in the new "Global Mission Partners" program. This should help us to increase our support of the numbers of new missionaries who are going out to serve in response to the requests from other world mission areas. Plans are developing to reach every congregation in our Conference to invite such participation in "covenant relationships".

Our sincere thanks to the seven Districts Secretaries of Global Ministries. They have all worked hard to involve churches in mission through the Advance. This will be my last report as your Conference Secretary of Global Ministries. My heartfelt thanks to our Bishop, the seven District Superintendents, Conference mission leaders and all of you for what we have shared in doing in the mission of Christ in all the world.

Kenneth B. McIntosh
Conference Secretary

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

I am pleased to comply with the 1988 Resolution from the Jurisdictional Conference requesting Annual Report to each Annual Conference in the South Central Jurisdiction.

During the past year, Southern Methodist University's Accreditation Self-Study Report has been wholly endorsed by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, and SMU is fully accredited for the next 10 years. SMU has also been approved by the Senate of the United Methodist Church. As the report notes, "Southern Methodist University is to be highly commended in the philosophy, vision, conceptualization, variety, and overall quality of its educational programs and processes.

One important factor in the Association's evaluation of the University was SMU's financial stability. I am pleased to report that, for the first time in several years, SMU achieved a balanced budget in 1991. This achievement was made possible, in part, by a 9 percent reduction in staff, from about 1,362 to 1256 positions. As you know, administrative streamlining in higher education has become the norm in these days of limited resources. The reductions have not affected the quality of SMU's programs and services, and they did not include faculty positions.

At the same time, the University was able to move forward with implementation of curricular changes intended to educate students for life in a global society. These include:

*New cross-disciplinary majors in ethnic studies and international studies;
*A required course in race, ethnicity, or gender, plus one focusing on non-Western civilization;
*Strengthening of foreign language offerings, including the addition of Japanese to the curriculum.
*A new Ph.D. program in psychology
*A reinstituted Ph.D. program in physics, taking full advantage of the educational opportunities afforded by the Superconducting Super Collider being built near Dallas.
*A new undergraduate evening program leading to a Bachelor of Humanities or a Bachelor of Social Sciences degree.
*A new Master's degree program in hazardous and waste materials management.
*A two-year MBA program and a new undergraduate business minor.
*An expanded schedule of evening classes in the Perkins School of Theology, along with a three-year Master of Divinity program.

The environment for learning has been enhanced with the opening of the Jake and Nancy Hamon Arts Library. In addition, the University-wide Library Automation Project is nearing completion.

I am especially pleased to report that the United Methodist Campus Ministry Program, under the leadership of Rev. Greg Ligon, has significantly enriched the lives of our students, particularly our United Methodist students. New activities have included retreats, seminars, and evening Bible study. The Jurisdictional commitment to this Ministry is vital to our mission in serving SMU's United Methodist students.

I am also pleased to announce that the Association of Governing Boards has selected Ruth Sharp Altshuler as the Private University Trustee of the Year. Ruth Altshuler continues to be one of the finest United Methodist faces in our Board of Trustees.

Under Athletic Director Forrest Gregg, SMU's teams continue to make progress, both on the fields and courts and in the classroom. Several SMU athletes recently earned recognition for academic achievements, among them Cary Brabham, who was named first team Academic All-American by the College Football Association. The College Swimming Coaches Association honored the SMU men's and women's teams in 1991 for achieving grade point averages that ranked among the top 14 Division I schools. As SMU's president, as a member of the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics, and as new president of the Southwest Conference Presidents' Council, I remain committed to our collective efforts to improve the level of integrity in intercollegiate athletics nationwide.

We deeply appreciate your interest, gifts, prayers and leadership, all of which strengthen our progress toward fulfilling SMU's founding vision, which we reaffirm through our efforts today.

A. Kenneth Pye,
President

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY CAMPUS MINISTRY

The United Methodist Campus Ministry at Southern Methodist University is in it's infant stages, having been reestablished after more than 25 years with no full time director of United Methodist Campus Ministry. It seems hard to believe that the second year of work on the campus of Southern Methodist University is approaching its completion. The struggles have been those common to the establishment of a new church. There have been times of anxiety, wondering if anyone would be present for a program. There have been hours and hours of "laying groundwork" when it was easy to lose sight of the vision of reaching students for Christ. However, the struggles have been far overshadowed by the joy of making great strides in the ministry.Involvement in the ministry has grown to involve approximately 137 persons on a weekly basis (Hardcore Bible Study:40, Cross-Training:14, Small Group Bible Studies:35, Disciple Bible Study:10, Dorm Days:12, Leadership Team:14, Voice of Hope Outreach:6, Wesley Rankin Outreach:6.) This translates into a core group of about 45-50 students. In addition to this core group of students there are numerous students with whom the interns have regular contact but may now be plugged into the weekly program.

In addition to weekly programming, UMCM has an active involvement in various campus activities including: intramurals, homecoming, and community service day. "60 Minutes" is another program offered to address various issues that students face. Programs have focused on relationships, understanding the new age movement, eating disorders, evangelism and this spring, alcoholism.The students involved in UMCM are a diverse group representing various segments of the student body. Some are involved in student activities including the Greek System. Others are more focused on their academic work. There is a representative ethnic diversity represented as well with the involvement of several Hispanic and Asian students.

In addition to our regular programming, the director has been an active part of the Student Affairs staff. Working closely with Dr. Jim Caswell, the Vice-President of Student Affairs, there have been numerous attempts to enhance the relationship between the church and the university. Included among these efforts are annual luncheons for United Methodist Scholars and Youth Professionals and the annual UMYF Football Day. This year's event was entitled "Go for the Goal." UMCM-SMU hosted over 1800 United Methodist Youth form around the S.C. Jurisdiction for a day full of activities including campus tours, a college fair, seminars concerning the call to ministry, the football game and a closing concert.

UMCM is currently officing in the Hughes-Trigg student center and the extra bedroom of the director's home located adjacent to campus. The ministry is staffed by the director, Rev. Greg Ligon and a part-time secretary, Roxie Kitchen. In addition 2 interns have raised financial support and are working with the program.

The staff, the board of directors and the students would like to thank you for your commitment, encouragement, and support of the newly established United Methodist Campus Ministry at Southern Methodist University.

Greg Ligon,
Director Campus Ministries

SAINT PAUL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Saint Paul School of Theology serves the North Texas Annual Conference by preparing effective and respected leaders for the church.A Town and Country Chair has been established at Saint Paul. Building upon the historic commitment of Saint Paul to rural and small membership churches, the Town and Country Chair will greatly enhance current teaching and programs related to the rural church. The Reverend Edward A. Kail, former superintendent of the Ottumwa District of the Iowa Conference, has joined the faculty in the Town and Country Chair, bringing demonstrated commitment and experience in town and country ministries. As a pastor and superintendent, he received significant recognition for his creative response to the needs of the church and society in rural settings.Other new faculty appointments include James M. Brandt as Assistant Professor of Historical Theology, and the Reverend Nancy June Johnston as Director of Poppele Program in Health and Welfare Ministries. In addition to their impressive academic credentials, the three faculty at Saint Paul bring over twenty-five years of experience as local church pastors.Saint Paul's reputation as a "school of leaders" for church and society has been highlighted recently with the selection of Saint Paul graduates for several very significant posts: dean of a United Methodist seminary, head of a major denominational agency, and Mayor of Kansas City, Missouri. Also in recent months seven of our graduates have been elected as clergy leaders of their delegations to General Conference and/or been nominated for the episcopacy. In each case, he or she represented the kind of commitment and competence which we so seek in our graduates. Saint Paul maintains its unequivocal commitment to the local church. Of all the United Methodist seminaries, Saint Paul has the highest percentage of graduates serving as local church pastors. As student recently said, "I was drawn to Saint Paul's commitment to the local church ministry in Jesus Christ. Saint Paul seeks to be in continous conversation with the local church to better understand its needs. It seeks to work with the churches and its ministry, and not against it. The program is wholistic in its emphases, seeking to prepare the student academically, spiritually, and personally."Saint Paul's equally uncompromising commitment to academic excellence was highlighted this year during the regular ten-year review by the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada and the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. Saint Paul received a splendid report from the visitation team and recommendation for reaccreditation.Saint Paul School of Theology is preparing a new generation of leaders for the church in the Wesleyan tradition. There is no more worthy endeavor to which any of us could give our energies and resources. We thank you for being partners with us in this mission.

Lovett H. Weems, Jr.,
President

TEXAS METHODIST COLLEGE ASSOCIATION

Dr. Joe E. Elmore, former president of the Texas United Methodist College Association, retired from that position effective June 30, 1991. During the interim, I have served as the transition person in TUMCA, while awaiting the appointment and arrival of the successor to Dr. Elmore.

During fiscal year 1991, payments from TUMCA to member institutions have been at the following levels:

Lon Morris	154,080.00
SMU	255,195.00
Southwestern	185,377.00
Texas Wesleyan	178,155.00
McMurry	190,192.00

As has been requested by the various annual conferences, all funds go directly to students attending these United Methodist institutions, and each institution pays its pro rata share of the expenses involved in maintaining the TUMCA.

The TUMCA eagerly looks forward to the successor to Dr. Elmore, and it has been my privilege to serve in this interim in any way that I could to assist the United Methodist Church and institutions which comprise the Texas United Methodist College Association.

COMMISSIONS

COMMISSION ON ASIAN MINISTRIES

The Commission continues to offer opportunities for members of the Asian community to learn more about Methodism and the Christian spirit through a variety of programs.

In August 1991 the Commission provided $400 to cover the rental cost for a van to transport 14 Filipino youth delegates and 2 adults to the youth '91 international youth Gathering held in Missouri. This was a rare opportunity for ethnic youths to meet and study with others of their age form countries around the globe.

On October 29, 1991 Bishop Blake was the keynote speaker for the annual Common Resources dinner held at Cochran Chapel United Methodist Church. Filipino, Korean, Cambodian music and dance were incorporated into the evening of fellowship and international cuisine. Rev. Levy Laguardia, pastor of Centenary United Methodist Church presented a report on the Common Resources Workshop held earlier in the year. Other program participants included Rev. Samuel Gamadia, Dr. Philip Del Rosario and Rev. Eduardo Cajiuat. Approximately 250 persons were in attendance from throughout the North Texas area, both Asian and non-Asian, youth and adult.

Rev. Pa Pan and Colleen Townsley Hager attended the National Federation of Asian American United Methodists Convocation in San Francisco held in January 1992. In addition to attending in-depth seminars dealing with the structures within the United Methodist Church system, both representatives were involved in the sub-group meetings of the Cambodian and indian caucuses. Colleen Hager will serve as the South Asian National Caucus representative for our jurisdiction.

In March 1992 James Zerda, a Filipino youth from Cochran Chapel United Methodist, was granted a scholarship of $540 to help cover some of his expenses related to the Citizenship Seminar held in Washington D.C. and New York City. As a member of his congregation's Administrative Board and a teacher in the Sunday School program, James provides strong leadership in many areas. He reported that 28 youth and 7 adults from our conference attended. They visited various shelters in both cities and studied the plight of the homeless. He plans to serve as an advocate for the homeless by getting other youth involved in local outreach programs.

Beginning in May 1992 Sam Gamadia is placing ads in India Abroad, a national weekly newspaper for the Indian community.

His ads will be designed to seek responses form interested Indians from the unchurched, non-christian community - interested in learning more about christianity.

On May 23, 1992 from noon to 2:30 Asian United Methodist women are hosting a luncheon at Wesley United Methodist Church. All Asian women throughout the United Methodist community are invited to attend and participate in the program led by Genell Poitras and Libby Johannaber. The meal includes international cuisine and is offered at no cost to the attendees.

Rev Ron Koo will be leading a workshop at CAFE on September 11, 1992 for Korean United Methodists on the topics of evangelism and lay leadership training. Jung Min is organizing this workshop.

The Asian Youth Retreat has been scheduled for October 9 and 10, 1992 at lake Texoma Conference Center. Rev. Pa Nous Pan is co-chairing that planning committee.

During the 1993 year a new program will be offered to all congregations within the conference. Reach Every Asian for Christ (REACH) will offer the opportunity for churches to submit proposals for the funding o outreach/evangelism programs designed to minister to unchurched Asians in their community.

In addition, funding will be available for lay leadership training, youth scholarships, a youth retreat and lay women retreat, and an Asian radio ministry.

Colleen Townsley Hager,
Chairperson

COMMISSION ON THE BLACK CHURCH

The past year has been another year ofour effort to enhance African-Americian churches. African-Ameerican youth form two churches toured some the black colleges across the country. This support for our youth has resulted in eleven students enrollment in four of those institutions.

In reviewing the status of black churches of the North Texas Conference a retreat for the black laity only was held. Concerns expounded upon during this retreat included; a need for more exposure through the radio media ministry of our black Pastors, sponsorship of counseling services in our local churches for school drop-outs, and assistance to students who have frequent encounters with law enforcement agencies.

A cooperative program is intended, so that the black churches can achieve more visibility in their communities. We will continue to support these type programs within the black churches.

Raymond Williams,
Chairperson

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

The Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns continued to give special attention to the consultation on Church Union's proposed Churches in Covenant Communion. After in-depth study of the proposal, the commission petitioned the 1992 General Conference of the United Methodist Church to direct the Council of Bishops and the General Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns to prepare the church for action on the proposal at the 1996 General Conference by vigorously acting to: 1) pursue all avenues of dialogue with other consultation member churches to identify, clarify and, when possible, resolve issues related to covenant communion and 2) provide strong leadership in the education of United Methodist clergy and lay people regarding the covenanting proposal and its implications for the United Methodist Church. Copies of the petition were sent to the North Texas Conference delegates to the General Conference. The chair of the commission, Glenn Noblin, met with Bill Crouch, the strategist for the clergy delegation, to discuss the issue of the proposed churches in covenant communion and the commission's position regarding it.

The commission spent time becoming better informed regarding Church World Service/CROP and the Crossroads program of the greater Dallas Community of Churches.

-Preparations were made for annual conference including a booth to publicize CROP and a commission breakfast featuring Rev. Bill Bryan, speaking on the topic "Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns in the Context of the =Local Church."

The commission was represented at the annual meeting of the Texas Conference of Churches.

Glenn Noblin
Chair

COMMISSION ON COMMUNICATIONS AND RESOURCES

The Commission on Communications and Resources sought to fulfill its role as a member of the Conference Council on Ministries by seriously studying the focus areas for 1993 and restructuring itself accordingly. This effort included an all-day workshop of visioning for the future to better serve the Council, and in doing so, better serve the local congregations of the North Texas Conference.

Three committees within the Commission currently oversee the assigned responsibilities. The Print Media Committee, chaired by Eric Williams, were responsible for:
1. Publishing of the North Texas Conference page of The United Methodist Reporter, edited by Bill Matthews, associate director of the Conference Council on Ministries, and assisted by circulation secretary, Shirley Cooper. Special emphasis was placed on feature articles highlighting local church programs for reaching the unchurched, apportionments, and North Texas Conference persons who serve on general church boards and agencies.
2. Replaced the bi-monthly CCOM mailing with an insert to the Conference page, published nine times a year. The insert reaches three times as many readers for a lower cost.
3. Received several "Certificates of Merit" from United Methodist Association of Communicators for the 1991 Annual Conference newspaper and made plans for the 1992 Annual Conference newspaper, edited by Debbie McKnight.
4. Sponsored a tele-conference on church newsletters offered by United Methodist Communications. More than 60 persons attended the March 3 event at four locations: Dallas, Bridgeport, Paris and Denison.

The Telecommunications Committee, chaired by Tim Crouch, made the following contributions:

1.Contributed to the production of "Faith Focus," an ecumenical talk show sponsored by the Greater Dallas Community of Churches. Two Commission members sit on the steering committee for the program, which airs Sundays at 6:30 a.m. on Channel 5 KXAS TV. Neilsen ratings of "Faith Focus" quadrupled from May 1990 to February 1992.
2. Began work on videos featuring North Texas apportionments and ethnic local church concerns.
3. Continued to make contacts throughout the Conference to promote the ecumenical cable TV network, VISN.
4. Worked with United Methodist Media Services, a division of the United Methodist Communications Council of Texas and New Mexico, in providing good public relations for the church. Media Services provided materials for every UM church in Texas regarding the state lottery and the historic opposition to gambling maintained by The United Methodist Church. In addition, Media Services generated hundreds of articles in newspapers across Texas and New Mexico about General, Annual and Jurisdictional Conferences.

The Conference Resource Center Committee, chaired by Rona Vickers, worked with Librarian Shirley Cooper on these accomplishments:
1. Served almost 200 local churches in the Annual Conference who are CRC members, as well as 40 churches of other denominations.
2. Wrote reviews of new videos for the Conference Page and CCOM resource page.
3. Was represented at a national gathering of resource center librarians by Shirley Cooper.

Strengthened ties between the Commission and The United Methodist Reporter have benefited both groups. The Commission Chair, as well as the Bishop and Conference Council on Ministries Director, currently represent the North Texas Conference as members of the United Methodist Communications Council of Texas and New Mexico (owner body of the Reporter). Bishop Bruce Blake was elected chair of the Council in February, 1992. He also serves on the UMR Long-Range Planning Committee, as does Commission Chair Mary Brooke Casad. In addition, Ms. Casad serves on the Executive Committee of the UMR Governing board.

The UMR and the North Texas Conference suffered a great loss in November, 1991 with the death of the UMR Editor/CEO, Spurgeon M. Dunnam, III. Dr. Dunnam's leadership and influence was felt not only in our own Conference, but across the general church. Dr. Dunnam's commitment to the Church and vision of the vital role communications plays in proclaiming the Gospel to our 20th century world stands as an example that all church communicators can aspire to. We have been charged with the task of "telling the old, old story" in new ways. For the opportunity to serve Christ's Church in this way, we are grateful.

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

On this my last report as chair of this commission I wish to express my deep appreciation for the spiritual leadership of Bishop Bruce P. Blake. He is a role model in inclusiveness. In his recommended seventeen (17) new behaviors, he included the call for openness to cultural exchanges and for local churches to reach out to people different from the majority of the congregation. It is our hope that this call is heeded.

I also wish to thank the CCOM staff for their assistance and support for the work of the Commission. At this point I would like to commend every active member of our Commission for faithfulness and unselfish service towards the attainment of our objectives. By the grace of God we have moved forward.

Last year the Commission:
1. Sponsored an Annual Conference Luncheon with Dr. Robert Hayes Jr. as speaker. He is pastor of a successful multicultural church in Houston. He shared his struggles and his dreams.
2. Sponsored a Rainbow Celebration November 9, 1991 where several churches shared the richness of their faith and culture through songs, dances, story telling, crafts, musical instrument, and presentation of intercultural experiences. FUMC Richardson had a pancake treat for all in attendance:
3. Wrote a letter of commendation to Chief Police Rathburn for being inclusive in his choice of his associates;
4. Wrote each member of the Dallas City Council expressing our prayer for unity and reconciliation, peace and order in the city through their leadership;
5. Funded the following programs:
   a. Oak Cliff Youth Group Ministries
   b. Dallas ACORN Community Reinvestment Project
   c. Children's Intercultural workshop
   d. District Training Event on Inclusiveness
   e. Youth Citizenship Seminar in Washington D.C.
1.Bishop Bruce P. Blake, A Call to community, Conviction and Commitment, 190, p60-61 page 2, Report, Commission on Religion and Race
   f. Survey in Greenville towards an African American Fellowship organization
   g. Participation of Commission members and other leaders in special events for leadership development;

Our Appeal is for our conference to adopt the two (2) resolutions we are presenting to the body on Native American Awareness and a Call Against Racism in Society, the current "Japanese Bashing" and for the church to stand for Love and Justice.

HISPANIC MINISTRIES COMMITTEE

The Hispanic Ministries Committee has had a very active inaugural year, developing a set of primary objectives based on the goal of reaching Hispanics in ministry in the North Texas Conference. The major thrust of the group's work this year has been to begin compilation of a handbook for Hispanic ministries, a local church resource which will include practical guidance in areas such as curriculum resources, worship and home-visit formats, demographic data, and financing for Spanish-language ministries in the local church. The Committee expects completion and initial distribution of the handbook during 1992.

SUBJECT: VERDICT IN THE TRIAL OF POLICE OFFICERS CHARGED WITH ASSAULT AND BRUTALITY IN THE ARREST OF RODNEY KING

FROM: COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE AND COMMITTEE ON ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS

RESOLUTION: As the North Texas Conference Commission on Religion and Race of the United Methodist Church, and joined by the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee, we express our concern at the apparent miscarriage of justice evident in the verdict acquitting four Los Angeles police officers charged with the beating of Rodney King. Criminal behavior and racial brutality cannot be tolerated among those agencies which have pledged to uphold the laws and maintain justice. We are supportive of law enforcement agencies and the many individuals within those agencies who serve the communities with integrity and fairness, and we in no way condone violence and rioting. However, the pockets of corruption and racism must be eliminated from every law enforcement agency in this country. The reaction of our nation, particularly in urban areas, brought to light not only the problem of violence but what the United Methodist Council of Bishops refers to as "racial prejudice, economic depreciation, moral disintegration and spiritual confusion." With the Council of Bishops we confirm that "images of brutality and violence remind the church that we must now intensify our efforts on behalf of justice and reconciliation.

The General Conference of the United Methodist Church, meeting in Louisville, Kentucky May 5-15, called upon United Methodists to respond to this incident and the many other indications of racism in our country through a five point plan. That plan included two concrete actions for churches which we support: the call to receive a special offering on Pentecost Sunday, June 7, and subsequent Sundays to be used for relief in Los Angeles through the United Methodist Committee on Relief, and to set aside time for prayer and fasting Pentecost weekend, June 6-7 or subsequent weekends, to establish a Shalom Zone.

This commission acknowledges that while many persons of all races are already working hard to address issues of injustice, more of us must put our energy into resisting racist attitudes which are nothing less that sin. Sunday at 11:00 a.m., the typical worship hour, remains the most segregated hour of the week, and the church must recognize our participation in this sin and our lack of faithfulness to justice. We make these specific suggestions to all Christians, especially to all United Methodists, and with particular emphasis for those laity and clergy representatives meeting in Annual Conference June 7-9, 1992 in Plano, Texas.

LAY ORGANIZATIONS

LAY SPEAKERS

Serving has been the main emphasis of the Lay Speaking program this past year. This service has included Speaking, Caring and Leading throughout the conference and has included pulpit supply, ushering special events, painting churches, and meal serving for a Visionaries banquet, just to mention a few.

Each of the seven districts has had or has participated with another district in both basic and advanced training sessions. A variety of the advanced courses have been taught with the most emphasis on Caring, Leadership and Worship. These courses have helped Lay Speakers in their ministries in nursing homes, jails and detention centers.

Through the direction and leadership of the clergy, Lay Speakers are always ready and willing to serve wherever we are needed.

Our goals for the coming year include: more and better trained lay speakers, more and better evangelism participation, and better clergy communication and education.

We hope that each church will encourage dedicated persons to become involved in the Lay Speaking program so that we can all be a part of moving God's Kingdom forward. Only spiritual motivation and prayer will make this possible.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

One of the highlights of 1992 for the United Methodist Women of the North Texas Conference was the Quadrennial Meeting of the South Central Jurisdiction held in Dallas on April 3-5. This was the first time that this very important meeting has been held in Dallas. 796 participants were registered at the Fairmont Hotel for the event whose theme was "A Fresh Olive Leaf." The program included a welcome by Bishop Bruce Blake and "special entertainment" by him. Some other program personalities were Dr. John and Diana Holbert, Myrna Hudgens of the Rocky Mountain Conference, and Bob Burky and his mime presentation of "Foolosophies." Special music by Raquel Martinez accompanied by Jeanette Wright gave spirit to the hymns. The North Texas Conference United Methodist Women were wonderful hostesses and can be truly proud of the results.

This is but one of the events held in the Conference. The 10,591 reported members of the UMW in North Texas have been a part of many activities throughout the year. 191 local units have found ways to be in mission and to impact the lives of women and children in their communities and throughout the world. They have done this through worship, study and action.

The School of Christian Mission held at University Park United Methodist Church had a theme of "Faithful Witnesses for God's Mission" and nearly 300 women came to hear and study about spiritual growth and mission work throughout the world. The studies were: Japan; Living Values, Changing Times; and The Gospel of John. The Cooperative Mission Event sponsored by UMW and the Division of National and World Outreach was held at Lake Bridgeport Conference Center in September with the same theme and studies being presented. This event is an excellent opportunity for ministers and laity to study about mission over a weekend and to experience fellowship.

The Annual Meeting of the Conference United Methodist Women was held at Grand Prairie in October. The keynote speaker was Thalia Matherson, who in 1992 will complete 8 years as Director of the Women's Division and 4 years as Vice President of the Division. Her contributions to the Conference and to United Methodist Women have been immeasurable. The workshops included: Women in Politics, Creative Worship, Texas Impact, Volunteers in Mission, Changing Concepts in Mission, and a report on the World Council of Churches meeting in Australia.

Two young women of the conference were selected to attend the Orientation in Mission Workshop held in New York City in early October. Marilyn Walker and Melissa Cerdena were selected from the North Texas Conference as two of the 27 women invited from across the country. Their experiences included study and understanding about mission and they learned about their own potential as leaders in the United Methodist Church.

"The Greatest Show on Earth: United Methodist Women" was the theme of the 1991 District Officers Training held at Arapaho United Methodist Church in Richardson. Serious training and "clowning around" was the order of the day for the attendees.

"Each Local Woman...Claiming Our Heritage in Mission" was the theme of a weekend workshop for and partially planned by local women to emphasize the potential of the leadership within the local units. Four conferences met in Dallas in November for this special training with 35 women and three selected program planners from the North Texas Conference participating. These women were inspired to seek better understanding of Mission and to become leaders in their local units and beyond.

Women have continued to participate in the Legislative Event in 1992 as 10 women from the North Texas Conference went to Austin to confer with women from across Texas and the director of Texas Impact for three days. They met with legislators and learned more about the political issues facing the state and how they can be a voice to affect the legislative agenda.

In 1992 I will complete four years as conference president. These have been filled with rewarding and gratifying experiences and I thank the conference for the opportunity. I would leave this thought: that every local woman is a vital part of the organization, and she is encouraged by her pastor and local unit to live up to potential. Her leadership is essential to the church and to United Methodist Women. May God bless those who come into leadership roles in 1993.

PROFESSIONAL MINISTRIES

BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

The Board of Diaconal Ministry has again had an active year. Our Diaconal, Lay and Clergy members have served with dedication.

The Division of Salaries, Insurance and Pensions continued their work on a benefit booklet for Diaconal Ministers. They also held a workshop in January for members of PPR/SPR Committees on the legislation adopted at Annual Conference, 1991, regarding employment policies for Diaconal Ministers.

The Division of Professional Growth has continued to develop ways for Diaconal Ministers and certified professionals in the church to meet their continuing education requirements.

The Division of Recruitment and Interpretation continued to support its speakers bureau and has prepared a display for this Annual Conference.

The Division of Consecration, Certification and Conference Relations has been aided by the entire Board in bringing all files of persons in process up to date. We are now in an annual review and renewal cycle with candidates and certified persons. Beginning with this quadrennium the work of the registrar will be divided creating an Assistant Registrar position for the Board.

This year the Board has certified the following persons: Sharon Adair as Associate in Youth Ministry, Debbie Chapman as Associate in Church Music, Judith Coke as Director of Music, Laura Rothe as Associate in Church Music and Jack Fields as Associate in Christian Education.

We recommend the following for leave of absence: Jo Ann Blount (4), Royce Hardaway (4), Dorothy Holloman (4), Leslie S. Stevens (4), Jan Wiksten (3), Susan McConnell (2), and Espie del Rosario (2). We approve the transfer in of Beth Freeman from the New Mexico Conference. We recommend the termination of Glynda Groth and Cindy Shirley under paragraph 313.3a. We also recommend retirement for Ray Davidson and Esther Zimmerman.

We have approved four persons for Consecration: Mariana Action, Sharon Wilson Adair, Judith Houston Coke and Ann Love. With these four persons and the above recommendations there are 62 Diaconal Ministers in the North Texas Annual Conference: 41 active, 7 on leave of absence and 14 retired.

We look forward to another productive year for the Board of Diaconal Ministry as we continue to be servants of the church.

J. Richard Wilson,
Chairperson

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY REPORT

(Note: The Executive Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry is composed of the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the Board, the secretary of the Board, the Division chairpersons, and the registrar and candidacy registrar of the Division of Preparations and Qualifications.

REPORT I: DIVISION OF PREPARATION AND QUALIFICATIONS

THE PROCESS OF CANDIDACY (see Paragraph 404-405, 1988 Discipline)

Candidacy Registrar: Doug Miller, 801 Star, Bonham, TX 75418, (903) 583-3314

1. The candidate meets with the Pastor of his/her church and reads The Christian as Minister.
2. The candidate writes to the District Superintendent and asks for an application for a Candidacy Guidebook. A Supervising Pastor is assigned by the District Superintendent. This application must be signed by the District Superintendent and Supervising Pastor. The candidate must mail the application with the $50 registration fee to the Board of Higher Education and Ministry, Box 871, Nashville, TN 37202-0871. The Supervising Pastor's request for the Pastoral Assessment Packet is also sent to Nashville to request the four test instruments.

3. The Exploring Candidate and Supervising Pastor review the Candidacy Guidebook together.
4. At the end of the Exploration process with the Supervising Pastor, the candidate goes to the Pastor Parish Relations Committee for its recommendation.
5. The candidate next requests approval of the Charge Conference.
6. The candidate should make an appointment with the Southwest Career Development Center. Their telephone number is (817) 640-5181. Southwest Career Development Center will do testing as required by Nashville and submit an individual assessment report to the candidate, the Supervising Pastor, and to Nashville upon approval of this procedure. The candidate will pay the cost of such assessment.
7. Upon Charge Conference approval, the candidate submits a five-page paper to the District Committee on Ministry/District Superintendent in response to the Discipline's questions in para. 404.4. Eight copies of this paper must be sent to the District Superintendent one month before the meeting of the DCOM, along with a letter of recommendation from the Supervising Pastor and the home church pastor.
8. The candidate meets with the District Committee on Ministry after completion of the candidacy studies and requests certification. Upon certification, the candidate will be assigned a Counseling Elder.
9. The certified candidate reports annually to the District Committee on Ministry. When the candidate is eligible for ordination, the candidate seeks recommendation from DCOM. If approved, the candidate next applies to the Division of Preparation and Qualifications.

 A candidate must be a member of the recommending UMC for ONE YEAR prior to application as a candidate. The candidate must be CERTIFIED prior to January 31, 1992, in order to be eligible for Deacon's Orders and/or Probationary Membership at the 1993 session of Annual Conference.

PLEASE SEND TO THE CONFERENCE 1993 CANDIDACY REGISTRAR:

A. A copy of each certificate of candidacy granted (by the District Superintendent)
B. The Supervising Pastor named for each candidate (by the District Superintendent)
C. A yearly update from DCOM on each candidate's progress.
D. A copy of the DCOM's feedback form when recommending candidate for Deacon's Orders and/or Probationary Membership.

DEACON AND/OR PROBATIONARY MEMBERSHIP

Registrar: Pat Beghtel-Mahle, P.O. Box 846, Electra, TX 76360, (817) 369-1622

Requirements for admission to probationary membership in the North Texas Annual Conference: 1988 DISCIPLINE, paragraphs 413-418.
Comments on Paragraph 414:
414.1/ ONE YEAR: The guideline is that an individual be certified a candidate for ministry one year prior to DEACON'S INTERVIEWS. If an individual's year is completed by JANUARY 31, 1993, he/she is eligible to apply for probationary membership at the 1993 session of Annual Conference.
414.2/ A Master of Divinity or equivalent first professional degree in a school of theology listed by the University Senate MUST BE COMPLETED PRIOR TO ORDINATION (1988 DISCIPLINE, 415.3). Application for Deacon and/or Probationary Membership may not be made to the Conference Registrar until the final academic year of the Candidate's Degree Program. (This does not apply to those whose applications were approved prior to June 1, 1992.)
414.3/ A letter from the DCOM recommending the candidate (with vote count) should be sent to the Board of Ministry Registrar by September 15, 1992.
414.4/ If not done during candidacy, the candidate should make an appointment with the Southwest Career Development Center, prior to September 15, 1992, phone (817) 640-5181. SCDC, or another approved center, will submit an individual assessment report to the Registrar by January 15, 1993. The candidate will pay the cost of this assessment.

414.5/ A letter of recommendation is needed from the candidate's District Superintendent. Further, a letter of recommendation/internship summary sheet is needed from the seminary intern or field work program where applicable.
414.6/ The written sermon (double-spaced) should be "preachable" in 15-20 minutes (excluding the reading of the text): Any one of the texts for the first four Sundays of Epiphany, Year A, may be used. Two tapes of this sermon must be submitted in addition to the written sermon.
414.8/ Written answers to these questions should range 20-30 double-spaced pages.

In addition to the Disciplinary requirements, candidates must submit names of persons who will provide reference letters to the Division. These names must be received by the Registrar before November 1, 1992. The reference persons will include:
1. The Supervising Pastor of the candidate's Candidacy Studies
2. The Senior Minister of the church being served by the candidate if applicable, or the candidate's Intern Field Instructor, if applicable, or the candidate's present PPR chairperson, if applicable, or the pastor where the candidate presently attends church
3. A reference of the candidate's choice

THE INTERVIEW PROCESS

A. INTERVIEW WITH DCOM:

Each candidate must be interviewed by their District Committee on Ministry and receive a 3/4 vote to recommend the candidate to the Division. These interviews should be completed before September 15, 1992.

B. INTERVIEW WITH THE DIVISION FOR DEACON'S ORDERS AND/OR PROBATIONARY MEMBERS

The candidate will be assigned two persons who will carefully read the written work and listen to the sermon tape. The PRESENTER reviews psychological reports, letters of recommendation, personal information sheet, sermon, teaching plan, and theological answers. The READER reads all written work and listens to the sermon tape. The candidate will then be interviewed by the entire Division. The candidate should be prepared to discuss the following in the interview:
1. The sermon (paragraph 414.6) and teaching plan 414.7
2. The answers to the questions in paragraph 414.8
3. Personal understanding of paragraph 403, 429-431, 437

January 19 & 20, 1993	Interviews for Elder and/or Full Connection

CONTINUATION OF PROBATIONARY MEMBERSHIP

It is the responsibility of the Board of Ordained Ministry under the direction of paragraph 417 to nurture those persons who are probationary members of the North Texas Annual Conference.

To be continued as a probationary member, candidates shall make regular progress in their ministerial studies. In order to help the progress of the probationary members and eliminate as many problems as possible, the Division has chosen to interview these persons annually in a brief personal consultation by members of the Division. Each probationary member is required to fill out a progress form provided by the Registrar and submit it to a member of the Division during this consultation. Failure to meet for this consultation with the Division could result in termination of Probationary Membership.

The date for the probationary member consultation will be Wednesday, March 10, at University Park United Methodist Church, 4024 Caruth Drive, Dallas, Texas.

CONTINUING PROBATIONER INTERVIEWS

March 10 — Consultation with continuing Probationary member (9:30 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.) University Park, by appointment

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR STUDENTS

The Board of Ordained Ministry has available scholarships for qualified persons who are planning for full-time ministry in The United Methodist Church, ORDAINED OR DIACONAL. These funds are primarily for students in seminary, but there are funds which can be used by undergraduates.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR CANDIDATES IN SEMINARY

Seminary Scholarship Chairperson: David Shawver, P.O. Box 830877, Richardson, TX 75083, (214) 235-8385

The application procedure for scholarships has the following three requirements:

1. Certified Candidates in seminary must submit a personal letter requesting their scholarship each semester (fall, January, spring, or summer) a scholarship is desired, indicating current student classification, their seminary, their District Superintendent, and their current mailing address.

2. Certified Candidates in seminary must request their District Superintendent's confirmation of their status as a certified candidate for ministry (see paragraphs 404-405 or 304-305) be reported immediately after their initial certification as a candidate during the conference year and annually, thereafter, in the fall for the current conference year. Ordained Deacons should have their District Superintendent verify their status annually in the fall. Note that scholarships may be granted for the semester during which a candidate becomes certified, when the application procedure is completed.

3. Certified Candidates in seminary must request their accredited seminary's registrar office to certify and report the number of hours for which they are registered each semester (fall, January, spring, or summer) after the add/drop date. Make certain this report indicates the number of registered hours, for the basis of determining the amount of the scholarship is $45 per semester hour.

These three items should be sent to the Seminary Scholarship Chairperson. When all three items have been received by the chairperson, a request for funding will be processed immediately and a check issued to the certified candidate by the Office of Finance and Administration.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR CANDIDATES IN UNDERGRADUATE SCHOOL

Undergraduate Scholarship Chairperson: Joe Ed Goolsby, 1215 Turner, Dallas, TX 75208, (214) 942-0098

The procedure for applications for funds for students attending college is as follows:

1. A letter each year from your District Superintendent stating that you have been certified as a candidate for ministry. (See paragraphs 404-405 or 304-305.)
2. A letter each semester from the college you are attending stating the number of hours you are taking that semester
3. A personal statement from you each semester about your progress and plans as they develop

All these letters should be sent to the Undergraduate Scholarship Chairperson. Requests may be made to the Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry when unusual circumstances arise that require special financial assistance other than the regular scholarship aid.

REPORT II: THE PASTORAL RESIDENCY PROGRAM

Pastoral Residency Chair: Ernest Walt, P.O. Box 850093, Mesquite, TX 75185, (214) 285-5456

The Need For The Pastoral Residency Program
Pastors in their first years of full-time ministry following graduation from seminary inevitably deal with a number of personal, spiritual, and professional issues and develop patterns for ministry which, in all likelihood, will remain in place for the entirety of their ministry. These issues include, but are not limited to:

1. understanding how pastors are appointed to churches
2. what it means to become a part of the District and Annual Conference
3. strength and weakness
4. expectations about full-time ministry
5. ability to reflect about ministry
6. personal, spiritual, and study life

9. adjusting to changes in personal life

The time period between graduation from seminary and admission into full membership in the Annual Conference provides an excellent opportunity to promote an increase of knowledge, maturity, healthy peer relationships, and competency. Indeed, there probably is no better time to impact those in ministry than in these highly formative years.

The Pastoral Residency Program
All probationers following their graduation from seminary and prior to their admission into full membership in the Annual Conference and all Elders transferring into probationary membership from other denominations will participate in the Pastoral Residency Program.

The program will last approximately two years. The first year of residency will begin in August following graduation and be completed at the end of May. The second year will begin in June and end in May with the final Peer Group meeting.

The residency program will be coordinated by a Pastoral Residency Committee of the Division of Preparation and Qualifications.

The major participants in the program will include the Resident, a Peer Group, Peer Group facilitators, a Counseling Elder, the Residency Committee, the District Superintendent, and the Pastoral Residency Committee.

Residents will be reimbursed for travel expense at the level set by the Annual Conference.

The three major goals of the Pastoral Residency Program are:

1. support for probationary members as they make the transition from seminary or another denomination into full-time ministry in the North Texas Conference
2. spiritual, personal, and professional growth
3. evaluation of candidates seeking Elder's Orders and full conference membership

Many pastors already will have participated in an internship or field education program while in seminary. The Division of Preparation and Qualifications continues to recommend that all seminary students do this in a local church setting if such an opportunity is available. The Pastoral Residency Program offers a complementary experience since the educational process has different goals and experiences from full-time ministry.

While some clergy pursue understanding of ministry beyond the local church, the Pastoral Residency Program has been designed with the understanding that most ministers will spend the majority of their ministry in the local church. Accordingly, persons serving in beyond-the-local-church appointments will be addressed on an individual basis to insure that they have adequate involvement in a local church.

In the second year, specific areas of concern which emerged during the first year can be addressed and assist Residents in preparing themselves for their written work and interviews for Elder's Orders and full conference membership.

A benefit of the Pastoral Residency Program is that its format will enable the North Texas Conference to exercise greater responsibility for, and more significant influence in, the training and selection of ministers who will service in North Texas.

First Year of Residency (August - May)

A. An orientation session for participants will take place on August 18, 1992 from 10:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at First United Methodist Church, Lewisville. Those attending will be the Residents, their Counseling Elders, Peer Group Facilitators, District Superintendents, and members of the Pastoral Residency Committee.

   The session will include: (1) an introduction to the Pastoral Residency Program; (2) instruction from Counseling Elders and Peer Group Facilitators.

B. An orientation session for chairpersons of the Laity Residency Committee will occur on September 20, 1992 from 3:00 to 4:30 p.m. at First United Methodist Church in Lewisville. Residents need to send the names of their Laity Residency Committee Chairperson to the Chairperson of the Pastoral Residency Committee by August 31, 1992.

C. Requirement for each Resident:

   1. Four one-hour sessions with the District Superintendent.

   2. Monthly two-hour Peer Group sessions. The purpose of the Peer Group is to help the Resident address the issues set forth in the first paragraph of this document. Residents are expected to provide support, encouragement, and mutual accountability as active participants in this process. Facilitators, appointed by the Pastoral Residency Committee, will direct the Peer Group in accomplishing this.

   3. Monthly one-hour sessions with Counseling Elder. The Resident will present a minimum of four reflection papers dealing with personal, spiritual, and/or professional issues mutually agreed upon by the Resident and the Counseling Elder.

   4. One sermon tape each in the fall and spring of sermons actually preached. These will be critiqued by the District Superintendent, Laity Residency Committee, and the Counseling Elder.

   5. At least one joint meeting with the Counseling Elder and Laity Residency Committee will focus on the committee's input and evaluation.

   6. Four one-and-one-half hour sessions with Laity Residency Committee which will provide support to the Resident.

D. The Chairpersons of the Laity Residency Committee will have a meeting January 10, 1993 from 3:00 to 4:30 p.m. at First United Methodist Church, Mesquite.

E. The Counseling Elders will have a mid-year meeting January 28, 1993 from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at First United Methodist Church, Lewisville.

F. The Resident, District Superintendent, Counseling Elder, and Peer Group Facilitators will send letters by February 28, 1993 to the Chairperson of the Pastoral Residency Committee. These letters will evaluate the Resident's growth relative to personal, spiritual, and professional issues and note areas of concern which need to be addressed during the second year of Residency.

G. On March 10, 1993, at University Park United Methodist Church, the Resident will meet with the Division of Preparation and Qualifications to review the evaluative material provided by the Resident, District Superintendent, Counseling Elder, and Peer Group Facilitators.

H. Information will be forwarded to the Resident, District Superintendent and Counseling Elder by early June concerning the specific areas which need to be addressed by the Resident during the second year.

Second Year of Residency (June - May)

A. The Resident will meet twice with the District Superintendent.

B. The Resident will meet monthly with the counseling Elder through January and, if necessary, will prepare additional reflection papers.

C. The resident will continue to meet monthly with the Peer Group through May.

D. The Resident will develop a five-year continuing education plan for discussion with and approval by the Counseling Elder and District Superintendent by November 1, 1992.

DIVISION OF LOCAL PASTORS

In the United Methodist Church, "Local Pastor" is a technical term which describes a lay person who is a candidate for ministry that is licensed to serve as pastor of a local church. Some Local Pastors are students (taking seven or more hours) in preparation for ordination. Some Local Pastors never intend to be ordained, but serve the Church as they are needed. Some Local Pastors hold down full-time secular jobs and are part-time pastors. Of these three categories, only those appointed as full-time Local Pastors are defined as clergy by the Discipline. All of the rest fall into a special category of service: they serve the Annual Conference, they are accountable to the Annual Conference, but they are not members of the Annual Conference. Only in the local church to which they are appointed are they considered clergy. They are not considered clergy during Annual Conference sessions. Our Discipline also forbids them being elected as lay members to Annual Conference. As faithful servants they provide ministry for the Conference, but cannot be members of it.

The Division of Local Pastors, in compliance of the 1988 Discipline of the United Methodist Church and with the North Texas Conference standing rules, has several basic functions: The examination of candidates seeking Local Pastor status; to evaluate their suitability; to oversee them in qualifying for their License to Preach; and to assist them to advance in their studies and in some cases, into Conference Membership. We uphold the integrity of the Local Pastor category of Local Pastors in ministry and the necessary role they carry out in the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church. It is the purpose of the Division to be a part of the process that provides fully qualified Local Pastors for appointment within the Conference structure, and to see that the rights of these persons are fully protected and that they are afforded all the benefits entitled them under the Discipline of the United Methodist Church and the North Texas Annual Conference.

The 1989 Journal, pp. 244-254, contains "Guidelines for 1989-1992". This document defines the division's purpose and expectations. This guideline remains the basic reference for this quadrennium and should be referred to for answers to specific questions. Dates and updates to these guidelines have been published annually in this report.

A Licensing School for Local Pastors is held each year with parts one and three in residence at a designated location. Part two consists of specific assignments to be done under the supervision of one's Counseling Elder. The curriculum guidelines are set by the Division of Ordained Ministry in Nashville. Persons planning to attend must become certified candidates by January 31 of the year attending. Applications are available from our Licensing School Director, Millard Fairchild. The following dates have been set, although the location may change:

Part One:
June 22-25, 1992	Southern Methodist University
June 21-24, 1993	Southern Methodist University
Part Three:
August 10-14, 1992	Texoma Conference Center
August 9-13, 1993	Texoma Conference Center

All district Committees on the Ordained Ministry should submit the following information (including the address and phone numbers of individuals involved) to the Division Chairperson prior to February 5, 1993:

Names and action reports of all persons recommended for Licensing School
Names and action reports of all Local Pastors recommended
Names and circumstances of all Local Pastors to be discontinued

All persons recommended will receive a letter indicating how to schedule an appointment with the Division. The Division will interview all Local Pastors and candidates for Licensing School in 1993 on the following dates and places:

Wednesday, February 17, 1993	First UMC, Allen
Thursday, February 25, 1993	First UMC, Decatur
Wednesday, March 3, 1993	Wesley UMC, Greenville

The Division would like to thank the North Texas Annual Conference for support and consideration. Because the work of the Local Pastor is so crucial to the Annual Conference, we would again request that at some appropriate moment during each Annual Conference, all Local Pastors be asked to stand and be recognized. These fifty-six Local Pastors represent a significant percentage of our clergy.

David Rucker, Chairperson

DIVISION OF CHAPLAINS AND RELATED MINISTRIES

The Division brings the following report for 1991-1992:

1. The Division sought to serve as advocate for those in appointments beyond the local church. We have worked with Bishop Blake's office and the Division on Conference Relations toward updating and determining proper designations for persons having such appointments. This has been done in concurrence with The Book of Discipline, paragraph 443.1 (A, B, C, & D).

2. The Board of Ordained Ministry, through the Division of Chaplains and Related Ministries, hosted the Bishop's annual meeting for those in appointment beyond the local church. All such members of the North Texas Conference and those from other conferences serving within our bounds were invited. Attendance for this event on January 27, in the Great Hall of Highland Park United Methodist Church, Dallas, was excellent. The Division recommends continuance of hosting this event for the next quadrennium.

3. The annual fellowship luncheon for Chaplains and Related Ministries, during conference, was held on Tuesday, June 9, 1992.

4. Meetings for this Division next year will be set when reorganization takes place following nominations being confirmed and new chair being elected at Annual Conference.

It has been a privilege to serve the Board through this Division for the 1988-1992 Quadrennium.

Policies and Procedures for Dealing with Clergy Sexual Misconduct

Executive Session

Annual Conference, June 1992

INTENTION

It is the intent of these policies and procedures to enhance due process as defined by the 1992 Book of Discipline, protect the sacred trust between clergy and parishioner/client, ensure the authenticity of the ordained ministry, protect the rights of the victim, protect the rights of the accused clergy, and provide for the well-being of the parishioner. Further, this document is to provide clear guidelines for clergy behavior and steps to take when sexual misconduct is alleged. This policy and procedure statement will serve to strengthen the covenant and ministry we share together.

DEFINITION OF CLERGY TERMS USED

For the purpose of this policy paper, the terms "clergy" and "pastor" refer to all ordained persons, all persons appointed to local churches and related agencies, clergy persons who are either probationary or full members who are members of the Conference but not appointed to local churches or related agencies, full/part time local pastors, student local pastors, diaconal ministers, and lay supply pastors.

COVENANT-PARAGRAPH #422 OF 1992 BOOK OF DISCIPLINE

"Members in full connection with an Annual Conference (and for the sake of this policy and procedure statement, all clergy as defined above) by virtue of their election and ordination are bound in special convenant with all the ordained ministers of the Annual Conference. In the keeping of this covenant, they perform the ministerial duties and maintain the ministerial standards established by those in the convenant. They live with all other ordained ministers in mutual trust and concern and seek with them the sanctification of the fellowship. Only those shall be elected to full membership (and for the sake of this policy and procedure statement, all clergy as defined above) who are of unquestionable moral character and genuine piety, sound in the fundamental doctrines of Christianity and faithful in the discharge of their duties."

INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

As noted in the above covenant, the pastoral office is a position of great trust, power and responsibility. This provides the opportunity for unique relationships of grace and caring. We would like to believe that no clergy person would violate the office for personal gratification. Unfortunately, this occurs. Sexual misconduct is one of the violations of this trust.

Pastoral relationships have the potential of a parishioner finding in the pastor an object of transference, placing the parishioner in a vulnerable position as he or she is working on conscious or unconscious issues from the past that are in need of healing. Persons in pastoral roles are in a position to exploit this vulnerability.

Sexual misconduct violates the integrity of persons and degrades persons by distorting their feelings of worth, dignity, and equity. It poses a threat to the quality of community life and compromises the church's ministry. Sexual misconduct:

-damages the victim psychologically, spiritually, and emotionally.
-betrays Christ and the pastoral office through the abuse of power, by using the authority of ministry for exploitation and personal gratification instead of healing and redemption.
-wounds the local parish and the whole of body of Christ in ways not easily overcome nor healed.

Pastoral self-discipline requires self-awareness and takes the Christian standards and ordination vows seriously. Personal integrity and mature professional and responsible conduct must be brought to all relationships by every clergy. The highest ethic of the clergy prohibits exploitation with a parishioner entrusted in his or her care.

Definitions of Sexual Misconduct

Pastoral sexual misconduct is an abuse of power through sexual harassment (including creation of a hostile sexual environment), sexual contact (not limited to sexual intercourse), dating, or other romantic activity in which the pastor violates the free choice, or abuses the vulnerability of a parishioner (including children), client, church staff person, or colleague; or causes, or allows the parishioner, client, church staff person, or colleague to engage in inappropriate sexual behavior with the pastor. This understanding is equally applicable in the context of ministries in which there are no "parishioners" but there is a community which acknowledges the authority of the pastor as a spiritual leader (appointments beyond the local church, voluntary location, sabbatical leave, leave of absence, or retired) or other ministries in which the pastor serves a community wider than the membership of the appointed congregation.

At the core of this definition of clergy sexual misconduct is the abuse of power when a person initiates or allows sexual behavior with or from someone who is in a position of trust and dependence in the relationship. This definition raises the issue of whether any sexual behavior between a pastor and parishioner, client, lay or clergy staff or colleague is warranted. Any sexual misconduct is a violation by the pastor who then bears the responsibility of his or her behavior.

STANDARDS OF PASTORAL CONDUCT

1. Pastors are accountable for their behavior with respect to the emotional, spiritual, and physical well-being of persons who come to them for help or over whom they have any kind of authority. Breach of this pastoral relationship is unethical and abusive.

2. Because pastors often deal with individuals who are emotionally fragile or personally vulnerable, it is imperative that pastors:

   A. be healthy psychologically, emotionally, and spiritually themselves;
   B. have adequate preparation and education for helping individuals under their care; and
   C. have continued supervision in dealing with the inherent risks caused by dependency and/or transference.

3. Pastoral self-discipline requires self-awareness and takes the Christian standards and ordination vows seriously. Personal integrity and mature professional conduct must be brought to all relationships by every pastor in the Conference. The highest ethic of the pastor similarly prohibits any sexual misconduct with a parishioner entrusted of his/her sacred care.

4. All clergy, single or married, have the responsibility of developing healthy personal relationships. Married clergy have covenanted to nurture and maintain their marriage relationship. When relational and sexual difficulties are present in a pastor's personal and/or professional life, appropriate therapy is required.

5. Pastors who are appointed to parishes where there has been alleged sexual misconduct of their precedessor find themselves burdened with the inevitable consequences arising from the misconduct of a colleague. There is a tension between caring for a colleague and caring for the covenant of the pastoral ministry. By "protecting" a colleague, we risk perpetuating a relationship or pattern of abuse and victimization. This compromises the credibility and practice of Christian faith and ministry. At the point of risking such, the present pastor should refer such to the counsel of his or her District Superintendent.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Pastoral ministry involves confidential relationships. But when pastoral sexual misconduct occurs, the protection of the victims, both past, present, and potential, includes reporting known sexual misconduct. Such allegation of sexual misconduct should be kept in the strictest of confidence.

The spread of such allegations or accusations between colleagues in ministry or within the congregation is harmful to the victim, the accused, and to the process outlined in this Policies and Procedures Statement. Confidence will be maintained until all facts have been carefully considered and due process has been duly performed.

REPORTING CLERGY SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Because of the covenant with the church which is an integral part of the pastoral office, it is a pastor's responsibility to call the offending pastor into account by reporting such information about sexual misconduct to his/her District Superintendent, the District Superintendent of the accused, or the Bishop.

Pastors are to do their utmost to encourage and support aggrieved persons, and to assist in the initiation of an alleged sexual misconduct complaint. If for whatever reason the aggrieved person chooses not to do so, a pastor must himself or herself inform his/her District Superintendent, the District Superintendent of the accused, or the Bishop.

Every alleged sexual misconduct complaint must be taken seriously because secrecy and the withholding of information is damaging to the covenant. However, in no case is a pastor to judge the validity of the reported complaint.

When dealing with reports of alleged clergy sexual misconduct, the greatest possible care should be taken to assure that the least possible additional harm is done to the victim(s). Truthtelling is risky and painful and may stir up strong feelings of fear and anger for both those who tell and those who hear. But, truthtelling also has the power to release persons from secrecy, denial, and guilt that result from sexual misconduct.

PROCEDURES

When sexual misconduct is alleged against a pastor, persons bringing allegations of such will be received in a respectful and caring manner. Care will be taken to deal fairly and promptly with all those involved. This includes the aggrieved and his/her family, the accused and his/her family, the congregation, or the institution.

Paragraph #453 of 1992 Book of Discipline states that "Ordination and membership in the Annual Conference is a sacred trust. The qualifications and duties of local pastors, associate members, probationary members, and full members (for the sake of this policy and procedure statement, also, will include diaconal ministers and lay supply pastors) are set forth in the 1992 Book of Discipline, and we believe they flow from the gospel as taught by Jesus the Christ and the Apostles. Whenever a person in the above categories, including those on leaves of all types, honorable or administrative location, or retirement is accused of violating this trust, the membership of his or her ministerial office shall be subject to review."

Therefore, as prescribed in Paragraph #453 of 1992 Book of Discipline, if there is a violation of the trust of ordination, consecration, membership, or appointment by the act of sexual misconduct, the following procedures will be in effect:

1. The report shall be brought to a District Superintendent or to the Bishop by the offended party, or by anyone who has verifiable information or reasonable indication of sexual misconduct.

2. The District Superintendent or the Bishop shall engage in the appropriate supervisory response by promptly:

   A. sharing the report with the Bishop and Cabinet;
   B. explaining to the aggrieved person the process to be followed in response to the report;
   C. verifying and clarifying the grievance and the procedure with the aggrieved person, with another District Superintendent, or the Bishop;
   D. if the aggrieved person is a female, at least one female must be present (preferably a District Superintendent) during the time of interview;
   E. offering the services of a support person from the Conference for the aggrieved person;
   F. requesting the aggrieved person to put in writing the nature of the grievance;
   G. requesting permission from the aggrieved person to use the written grievance and his/her name in the discussion with the accused. If the aggrieved person is unwilling, the District Superintendent may share the grievance with the accused while protecting the anonymity of the aggrieved;
   H. forwarding the grievance in person to the accused and sharing the allegations with such person. The accused must have a copy of the formal written grievance. The District Superintendent (or Bishop in the case of the accused being a District Superintendent) must explain the process to be duly followed as outlined in this "Policies and Procedures Statement" and the 1992 Book of Discipline;
   I. the accused must respond formally in writing to the allegations within ten (10) days of date of the delivery of the grievance.

DETERMINATION OF SUFFICIENT CAUSE

Only the District Superintendent and the Bishop in the case of appointed clergy and the Bishop in the case of a District Superintendent may determine if there is sufficient cause for a grievance of sexual misconduct. All determination of sufficient cause and evidence presented will be reviewed by the Conference Chancellor, and a written response to such determination of sufficient cause and evidence presented will be given by the Conference Chancellor.

In the event that the District Superintendent and Bishop feel that the evidence presented is not reasonable enough for either substantiation or charge under Paragraph #453 of the 1992 Book of Discipline, then all information (including the report from the Conference Chancellor) will be filed in a confidential file and so noted that the "evidence was not substantial for charges under Paragraph #453 of the 1992 Book of Discipline." The documents of accusation from the accuser, the statement from the aggrieved person, the formal written charge from the District Superintendent or Bishop, and the written response from the accused will not be integrated into the permanent personnel files of the accused.

If the District Superintendent, Bishop, and Conference Chancellor in the case of an appointed clergy and the Bishop and Conference Chancellor in the case of a District Superintendent determine there is sufficient cause for charges under Paragraph #453 of the 1992 Book of Discipline, then the following actions shall be taken:

1. The District Superintendent or the Bishop shall inquire of the aggrieved person whether he/she will participate in charges under Papargraph #453 of the 1992 Book of Discipline and such charges to be shared with the Joint Review Committee. In the event that it is concluded that a complaint is to be filed, the charges shall be filed by the District Superintendent or Bishop and forwarded to the Board of Ordained Ministry and the accused.

2. If the aggrieved person desires not to participate in the grievance process, the District Superintendent or Bishop may file such charges on behalf of the accuser and the aggrieved person. A copy of such charge shall be forwarded to the accused.

FORMAL FILING OF COMPLAINT

When a complaint under Paragraph #453 of the 1992 Book of Discipline is formally forwarded to the Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, the following procedures will be followed:

1. The Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry will call the Joint Review Committee to review such charges.

2. The Staff Parish Relations Committee or appropriate personnel supervisory committee shall be informed of the nature of the charges and the process being followed.

3. In order to protect the rights of the accused clergy and the aggrieved person, it may be necessary for the accused clergy to be placed on "Involuntary Leave of Absence" as defined in Paragraph #448 of the 1992 Book of Discipline.

JUDICIAL PROCESS OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

The Joint Review Committee is charged with the responsibility of seeking resolution of complaints and charges brought against clergy which is outlined in Paragraph #453 and subsequent sub-paragraphs of the 1992 Book of Discipline. For Diaconals, that process is outlined in Paragraph #313.3(b) of the 1992 Book of Discipline.

If the Joint Review process does not bring resolution of the charges, then the complaint is forwarded to the Board of Ordained Ministry or Board of Diaconal Ministry. The Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry or Diaconal Ministry will receive such charges and will duly perform the necessary judiciary procedures outlined in Paragraph #453 and subsequent paragraphs of the 1992 Book of Discipline.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

I. Overview

The Board of Pensions has continued to work with the increasing unfunded liability. The Annual Conference is facing in the future that more funds are going to be needed to fund such liability. The Board of Pensions has been exploring new ideas concerning such liability.

It is apparent that the Board of Pensions will need to address the increased need in the future for more funds to cover the unfunded liability. However, we are pleased that due to a sizeable special distribution from the General Board of Pensions and due to the $300,000 increase in apportionment, our balances with the General Board have remained steady.

II. Perkins Fund

The Perkins Fund has continued to help those retirees who have expressed need. It has been the policy of the Board of Pensions to examine needs very carefully so that distributions are made on an equitable basis. Attention has been given to better document grants so that distribution may be made objectively.

It gives me great pleasure to announce that a $500 Christmas gift distribution from the Perkins Fund was given to those eligible retirees, surviving spouses, and disabled of the Conference. Without the generosity of the Perkins family, the distributions made this conference year would not have been done. Their vision of the future has helped so many in a time of economic loss.

III. Disabilities

The Board of Pensions has continued to bring both administrative and pastoral support to those seeking disability and to those who are now disabled.

IV. Pension Rate

It has been recommended by the Conference Board of Pensions that a $337 pension rate be set for 1993. This compares to a $311 pension rate for 1992. A .009% service rate is necessary to fund the Ministerial Pension Plan contribution rate of 12%. The General Board of Pensions has computed the North Texas Conference 1993 average compensation to be $37,444. Since the average compensation is $37,444, a $337 pension rate is the very minimum rate based on the average compensation.

V. Unfunded Liability

One of the main concerns for us as United Methodists and for us as an Annual Conference is rising costs of providing future pension benefits.

Due to a $337 pension rate, the General Board of Pensions has requested that $1,252,086 be deposited as of December 31, 1993, to pay toward the unfunded liability. At the 1990 Annual Conference, it was legislated that an additional $250,000 be deposited over four years to cover the increased unfunded liability. In January of 1992 the second $250,000 was deposited, with a balance of $500,000.

VI. Comprehensive Protection Plan

The Board of Pensions is not asking for an increase due to account balances remaining steady. The total apportionment for 1993 is $348,853.

VII. Apportionment

When the Council of Finance and Administration makes its report, we urge the Conference to approve the following amounts for the 1993 Conference Claims Apportionment:

Unfunded Liability	$ 850,000
Health Insurance Apportionment for Retirees	300,000
Comprehensive Protection Plan	348,853
Operating Expenses	53,889

VIII. Housing

It is a requirement of the Internal Revenue Service that we give to you the following information and that this information appear in the 1992 Journal: "That an amount equal to 100% of the pension including gifts and grants from the Perkins Fund received by a retired or disabled minister during the year of 1992, be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance.".

IX. Retirement Sunday - November 1, 1993

Retirement Sunday has been set for November 1, 1993. The Board of Pensions requests that a $100,000 goal be set as an offering from the local churches in the Conference. The Board of Pensions believes that if this goal could be reached, it would give the Board greater flexibility in its financial planning.

COMMISSION ON INSURANCE

The Commission members, trustees of the Plan, and Dr. Seat join in presenting this report with a sense of gratitude and thanksgiving for the relative calm which has prevailed in our work over the past twelve months. No doubt the feelings of this Conference will be similar.

For after three years of tumultuous losses, changes and struggles, it seems as though the trust and confidence level has increased and the level of understanding of the difficult task which was at hand has been forged. The challenges have been faced and for the moment, resolved. The members of the North Texas Conference can salute themselves for making what were often tough but prudent decisions which have enabled the presentation of this report to you today.

As Bishop Blake was heard to state about his recent trip to Africa - if he had known what to expect, he might not have made the journey . . . This I would also state about this four-year journey as Insurance Commission Chair.

However, such journeys seem always to become journeys of renewed faith, strength and courage and certainly for me this has proved to be such a journey. I sense that this is also true for many of the Commission members who labored along with myself in that first year and along with Stan Seat in these last three years. Surely with Stan Seat we have been blest with wonderful ability, spirit and commitment. In addition we have been blest by the support, willing participation, and commitment of each other. To each Commission member and trustee and to Dr. Seat, I want to publicly express my special appreciation; and in a statement I wasn't sure I would ever be able to make, I want to express to the North Texas Conference my appreciation for this privilege of service.

For the moment, the Conference Insurance Plan is fixed and working quite well. However, we are all keenly aware of the painful road which we had to travel to this point today. That history must continue to be our reminder that this issue of health care and related costs is not now and doubtless will not be in the future, either constant or static. The administrative challenge is to remain alert to and be prudent with the constantly changing and challenging issue of the cost of providing a desired level of health care benefits for the clergy and lay employees of the North Texas Conference until the recently adopted UMCare Plan is in place and operative. In addition, we must now build an adequate reserve to fund the run out claims of this Plan at the end of 1993. It is projected that this reserve will need to be approximately $500,000.

The continual challenge of clergy and lay participants will be to assume a greater responsibility for their own and their family's wellness and for their pro-active participation in health care treatment choices. This involvement will be critical both to the financial soundness of this Plan as we fund all final claims liability, but also critical to the soundness of the new UMCare Plan in the future.

Statistically, this report includes 1991 calendar year-end assets of $304,879. The fund balance as of 12/31/92 was $268,498 as we still owed the Conference $35,000 from our 1990 loan of $100,000. As of this date, I am pleased to report that this debt to CF&A has also been retired.

Income from all sources for the calendar year was $2,360,285. Claims for that same period were $1,591,622. Administration fees, stop-loss and other premiums, as well as other related agency expenses totalled $373,000+, leaving net income for 1991 of $395,180.

This is the good news from the Insurance Commission, and we are pleased to share it. Cautiously, however, we must acknowledge that claims through the first two months of 1992 were already over $400,000 so any optimism is certainly guarded, at best. Although no premium increase is recommended at this time, this situation will be closely monitored through these first six months and if change is required, participants will be notified with adequate notice for annual church budgeting processes.

We continue to monitor and review the managed care features which were implemented in 1990. It is estimated that the utilization review feature saved some 69 hospital days which, in turn, represents a $50,000+ savings to the Plan. The estimated savings by the Preferred Provider Network is in the 05% range.

The major change which occurred this year has been in the selection of a new Plan Administrator, Employer Services. This decision to change was reached by both our prior administrator, Alta, and the Commission in an effort to find an administrator that could adequately and effectively service our group size and claim activity. Considerable research and review went into the selection of this new administrator.

As this changeover occurred and in an effort to fine-tune the existing Plan document, we are submitting two legislative proposals for approval at this time.

In the completion of this report, I would be remiss to not express a special word of appreciation to Dr. Jim Hares and David Shawver as well as to the Council on Finance and Administration. Together, we have been forced to learn more about insurance and insurance funding than perhaps either body cared to know. However, it is through a mutual trust and understanding that our tasks have been strengthened.

Finally, to Bishop Blake, I express my profound appreciation for your commitment to the financial integrity of this - as well as other programs of the Conference - and especially for your support and steady voice of confidence during the often very tenuous times. For what has been, I give my thanks!

Beverly Brooks,
Chairperson

UMCare

At the 1992 General Conference, UMCare, the denominational-wide health plan was passed. What was passed at the General Conference was the adoption of a new denominational plan. However, plan design, specifics, and premiums have not been finalized. What we do know about the new denominational plan is that there will be a cafeteria style of choices to be made. There will be choices of level of deductibles, choices in both medical and dental benefits, employee options for certain salary exclusions, and a comprehensive wellness program. The denominational health plan should be a close prototype to the self-funded plan that you are I are participating in on the Annual Conference level. There will be seven bands of premium which will be computed by average claim cost by Annual Conference and geographical per diem cost.

The denominational plan will go into effect on January 1, 1994. The self-funded plan that you and I are participating in will be terminated on December 31, 1993. The Annual Conference will not assume any claim liability after December 31, 1993. The only claims that will be paid in 1994 will be those accrued claims incurred in 1993 but not paid until 1994.

Over the next year and one-half, the Commission on Insurance will be very busy in planning for meeting the financial needs of accrued claims in 1993. At the present time, reserves are not adequate to meet that financial need.

The General Board of Pensions will be administering the new denominational health plan. Over the next year and one-half the General Board in conjunction with a denominational design team will be formulating the new Plan. The good news for the Annual Conference is that I have been asked to serve on that design team. It is my hope that the General Board and the design team will be bringing you a good comprehensive medical plan that will meet your needs. On behalf of Bishop Blake, Beverly Brooks, and the Commission on Insurance, it is a pleasure to tell you that the Annual Conference will not have to bear the burden of risk and future liability which will be the responsibility of the General Church.

JURISDICTION

THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

The Jurisdictional Council on Ministries has sought to fulfill its mission particularly in the area of leadership development, giving attention to program concerns identified by the Councils on Ministries of the various Annual Conferences. Early in the quadrennium the Council made the decision that its primary function is to sponsors and fund programs rather than meetings. Priority is given to those programs that can be done more efficiently and effectively on a jurisdictional level. Proposals that could be done better on an Annual Conference level are referred back to the respective Annual Conference for their action.

During 1991 there were 24 leadership training and inspirational event approved by the Council. Four of these were cancelled through lack of registrations. In the 20 events that were held there was a total attendance of 3,031.

Included in these activities were: a Jurisdictional Work Camp, six retiree retreat, Ecumenical School of Missions, Jurisdictional Youth Ministry Organization, Bishop's Week, Superserve (Volunteers in Mission), Single Adult Ministries Consultation at St. Paul Seminary, Conversational Spanish Workshop, Senior Minister's Seminar, Black Clergy Pastor's School, Summer Children's Camp (Rio Grande Conference), Training for New Church developers (Korean Pastors), Mount Sequoyah Lab Seminar, and Jurisdiction United Methodist Men's Congress.

During the year 23 ethnic minority Seminarians were granted a total of $11,500 in scholarship aid. In addition, two Seminarians - one at St. Paul and one at Perkins-were awarded $1,000 each in scholarship aid through the Lillian Thompson Memorial Fund.

We express our gratitude to Reverend Gary Mueller and Mr. Richard Stanford who have served on the Jurisdictional Council on Ministries; to Rev. David Shawver for his service on the Jurisdictional Council on Finance & Administration; and to many other persons from this Conference who have brought vision and leadership to the Jurisdiction.

MOUNT SEQUOYAH

Mount Sequoyah Conference and Retreat Center at Fayetteville, Arkansas serving South Central Jurisdictional United Methodists is celebrating our 70th year. The theme for 1992 is "Mount Sequoyah--The Story." Our story is that we have served Christ and the thousands that have journeyed to the Mountain for these seven decades, and now we prepare for an even more glorious future.

To meet the challenge of the future we have organized as a Team. Our Team is "Team Sequoyah--Meeting the Challenge of the Future." We want you and others like you in this conference to join our team so we can adequately meet that challenge. We want to (1) have cutting edge programs that fulfill our mission statement, (2) present capable and quality leadership and facility staff, (3) offer good clean first class accessible facilities, and (4) serve tasty, nutritious, healthy food.

In this way we can help all that come here FIND FULFILLMENT, PROVIDE OPPORTUNITIES, EXPERIENCE TRAINING, so that they may better SERVE GOD. We are in the second phase of a two million dollar capital funds campaign. "Resource Service, Incorporated," a professional fund raising company, is assisting us. Our Board of Trustees and the College of Bishops have affirmed us in the first phase of our campaign.

We now go to special "Lead Churches" in the jurisdiction to help us launch the campaign forward; then to our 'alumni' and Fayetteville friends; and to members of local churches. In this way, every person in the Jurisdiction will have an opportunity to join our team and help us meet the future challenge.

Some events held at Mount Sequoyah that we want to lift up include: the Jurisdictional Retiree events continue to be very popular; Volunteers for the Mountain continues to be special; the 2nd Annual Golf event attendance increased about 300%; and the Youth Respite Care from Benton County is a blessing to us all. 1992 shows a significant effort toward youth and family groups. We look forward to continuation of Jurisdiction Youth Ministry Organization (JYMO); Junior High Assembly; Senior HIgh Assembly; Arkansas Chrysalis Youth Event; National Native American Family Camp; Walk to Emmaus being planned for 1992 and/or 1993; and many others.

The "Team Sequoyah--Meeting the Challenge of the Future: campaign will allow us to build a new first class housing facility attached to a common meeting room on the Galloway Cafeteria; establish a sports complex and remodel fourth floor Wesley Hall for inexpensive youth housing so that we may better serve youth and families; build a New Mount Sequoyah House for staff and administration; and establish a permanent endowment fund.

Our Board of Trustees designated a new Committee for Programming and changed the task of the Promotion and Publicity Committee to that of Advertising and Marketing.

Trustees from the North Texas Conference are Dr. William Stephenson, Dr. Don Barnes, Scott Smith, and Mary-Jane Frazier Dr. Stephenson, Mr. Smith and Mrs. Frazier are on the Campaign Cabinet. Scott Smithos Vice-Chair of the Board and Chairman of the Personnel and Policies Committee. Dr. Stephenson is on the Development and Endowment Committee. Mrs. Frazier is on the Budget and Finance Committee. Don Barnes is on the Building and Grounds Committee and Chairmkan of the ad hoc Program Committee.

The Ambassador for the North Texas Conference is Rev. Vic Casad.

Because of the quadrennial change of Ex-Officio Trustees, some loyal trustees will rotate off our board. However, we desire that all will remain on the team...Team Sequoyah, to help us meet the challenge of the future.

This is our story. Katherine Hankey said, "I love to tell the story, for those who know it best, seem hungering and thirsting to hear it like the rest. And when, in scenes of glory, I sing the new, new song, 'twill be the old, old story, that I have loved so long."

VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION,SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION

Responding to urgent appeals for volunteers is what we do best. When there's a combination of urgency and need, there is never a shortage of volunteers. United Methodist respond.

The 91 year got off to a good start when, within a three week period, nine VIM teams responded to the Board of Global Ministries' appeal for the need to build homes in Panama for those who had lost them in the previous year's invasion. Then two teams responded to an appeal from the World Division to build homes for a housing coop in Nicaragua, and four teams checked in responding to an appeal from the Louisiana Conference for flood relief work. In addition, several teams in various part of the jurisdiction were on hand to start rebuilding after tornados ripped through parts of Nebraska, Kansas, and Missouri.

With little effort a team leader was recruited and team put together aid head out to Zimbabwe to repair buildings for the new African University there in time for their first class sessions. Later in the year an appeal came from missionaries in Chile for volunteers to complete school buildings in time for the March 1, 1992, opening of the first agricultural school located in northern Chile, in the world's driest desert. Three teams quickly prepared for departure early in the new year and other teams will continue the work after classes have begun.

During 1991 the South Central Jurisdiction VIM Office assisted hundreds of youth teams as they prepared for their Thanksgiving,Christmas, Spring break, and Summer Volunteers in mission projects. Conference coordinators from across the jurisdiction have reported over 150 international teams. SCJL Volunteers in Mission serve throughout the United States as individuals, as couples, and as team members. This is ongoing activity. It goes on all the time, a steady expression of our church's interest in and care for others. But, in addition to that steady effort, when the word of an urgent need is release, United Methodist Volunteers lay aside other activities and respond.

Sometimes their help is visible to the larger world; sometimes it isn't. But it's the experience of the South Central Jurisdiction Volunteers in Mission program that they're there. When need is felt, United Methodist respond. You can count on it.

REPORT ON KOREAN MISSION
SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION

1. NEW CHURCH DEVELOPMENT
During the 1991-91 SCJ Korean Mission developed one mission congregation in Lake Charles, LA under the ministry of Leesville Korean United Methodist Church and also surveyed three sites for future mission congregation development: 1) Dallas-South, Texas, 2) Topeka,Kansas, and 3) Waynesville, Missouri. Along with these mission projects I maintained three revitalization projects; 1) Alamagordo, NM. 2) Enid, OK, and 3) Bedford,TX. Now we have 33 Korean churches and mission congregations in the Jurisdiction.

2.STRENGTHENING OF EXISTING CHURCHES:
CONSULTATION, COORDINATION, AND FACILITATION are one of the major roles of Korean Mission Director enabling the ministries to maintain the growing Korean churches among the Korean communities in South Central Jurisdiction. During the 1991-92 one mission congregation was officially chartered as Copperas Cove Korean United Methodist Church in Central texas Conference.

3. TRAINING and PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT:
The Korean language ministers training is a continuous required field of new Korean missional congregation development to improve their effective commitment into the new situation of ministries. "Training for New Mission Developers and Spouses" is the meaningful and successful program for new missional congregation developer during April 29-May 3, 1991 at Stony Point, NY. And "U.M. Polity" course of Perkins Seminary and several other training events are very much successful year round jurisdictional training programs for Korean language ministers, youth, young adult, and laity. Many participants are requesting these programs to continue annually for their spiritual growth and the strengthening and improving of their commitment for the mission and ministries.

I hope for your continuing prayer and support for the ministries of Korean Mission in the South Central Jurisdiction. Thank you.

Bon Woong Koo
Korean Mission Director,SCJ

OTHER AGENCIES

THE TEXAS METHODIST FOUNDATION

The directors and management of The Texas Methodist Foundation are proud to report that 1991 was a year of exceptional growth for The Foundation both in increased assets and the level of services provided. The North Texas Conference was instrumental in this growth, and we are grateful for our relationships in this conference.

1991 in Review:

1) Assets under management increased to $81,000,000.

2) Earnings on deposits totalled $8,825,000.

3) 96 loans were originated in excess of $26,500,000.

During 1991, 66 United Methodist churches and related agencies in the North Texas Conference had over eleven and one-half million dollars on deposit with The Texas Methodist Foundation. Loans from the Texas Methodist Foundation to 51 churches and agencies in the North Texas Conference totalled over twelve and one-half million dollars.

The primary goal of The Texas Methodist Foundation continues to be that every United Methodist church or related agency in the state of Texas have a planned giving program in effect. Our development staff offers planned giving counsel and services to these United Methodist institutions and individuals upon request.

It is our hope that these services offered through The Texas Methodist Foundation will promote more effective stewardship to all United Methodists in Texas.

Senior Vice President

UNITED METHODIST COMMUNICATIONS COUNCIL

The United Methodist Communications Council of Texas and New Mexico continued helping the church proclaim the Gospel message through mass media during 1991-92. The council was formed in 1969 to help coordinate and carry out cooperative communications activities for the seven annual conferences that own the joint agency. The Communications Council accomplishes that mission through a number of operating units: The United Methodist Reporter, Mission Communications, UMR Institute for Church Communications, UMR Foundation and United Methodist Media Services.

United Methodist Reporter
The United Methodist Reporter (UMR) now publishes four different newspapers: the weekly United Methodist Reporter, the weekly interdenominational National Christian Reporter, the biweekly United Methodist Review and the monthly United Methodist Record.

At the close of 1991, UMR was a partner in communications ministry with United Methodist annual conferences and local congregations across the United States. UMR published 36 annual conference editions of the Reporter, Review, or Record. These editions served 37 of the 72 annual conferences in the United States. UMR produced local editions for more than 300 local congregations and districts. UMR's four newspapers took stories of faith at work in the world into some 460,000 households nationwide during 1991.

Six of the seven conferences that make up the Communications Council now publish weekly editions of the Reporter. The Southwest Texas Conference returned to this group in January 1992. Financial concerns had prompted Southwest Texas to switch to a biweekly Review edition in June 1989. Program needs for more frequent communication with conference leaders motivated the return to the Reporter.

The seventh conference in the Communications Council, the Rio Grande, began publishing a Spanish-language edition of the monthly Record in May 1991. For more than a year before that, the Rio Grande Conference couldn't afford to use the Council's newspaper publishing services. The introduction of the new monthly publication in April 1991 changed that. 1 This Rio Grande Record edition continues the tradition of Spanish language news publishing that the conference had done through a Reporter edition until 1990.

In addition UMR published newspapers in 1991 for eight other denominations, journals for 18 annual conferences, and pre-conference journals for nine.

Mission Communications
Mission Communications helps annual conferences, local congregations, church agencies and church institutions tell their stories through media other than newspapers.

During 1991 Mission Communications generated record revenue. Working with nearly 100 different clients--many from Texas--Mission Communications produced newsletters for various church agencies, promotional calendars for children's homes across the country and a variety of customized montage drawings. In additions, Mission Communications prepared a special tabloid newspaper supplement describing the ministries of the Methodist Mission Home in San Antonio. This supplement was included one week in all Reporter and Review editions delivered in Texas.

During 1992 the Central Texas Conference has become the third conference in the Communications Council to take advantage of a unique approach to benevolence interpretation campaigns developed by Mission Communications. These campaigns are built around a coloring contest using a pen-and-ink montage drawing by Mission Communications Director Tom Gibson. The drawings depict a conference's various outreach and institutional ministries. Elementary school age children learn about the church's connectional ministries by coloring scenes showing them in action. The hope is that through interest in their children's work, parents will likewise learn about the ministries.

The Texas and North Texas conferences have also used the coloring campaign.

UMR Institute for Church Communications
The United Methodist Reporter Institute for Church Communications provides communications training to annual conferences and local churches related to UMR. During 1991 more than 300 people attended seven workshop sessions led by members of the UMR staff. Six additional workshops were scheduled during the first three months of 1992.

During the January 1992 term at United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio, the UMR Institute provided an instructor for a newswriting course. The course was part of the seminary's master of arts in religious communications curriculum.

In September 1991 the UMR Institute began offering special consulting services to congregations publishing UMR local editions. UMR Institute representatives help local church leaders develop ways to use their newspapers and other communications vehicles as more effective tools of ministry.

UMR Foundation
The United Methodist Reporter Foundation is raising money to meet two goals: (1) to build a new $4 million UMR Communications Center in Dallas debt-free and (2) to create a $10 million endowment. Earnings from this endowment are to help underwrite the cost of individual newspaper subscriptions as postal rates rise.

Since July 1991 the UMR Foundation has been working to meet a $500,000 grant from the Mabee Foundation of Tulsa, Oklahoma. The Mabee Foundation will contribute the money toward construction of the new UMR Communications Center if the UMR Foundation has $3.5 million by July 1992. At the end of 1991, the UMR Foundation had collected $2.4 million.

The UMR Foundation is trying to raise the remaining $1.1 million through special campaigns in the conferences that make up the Communications Council. These campaigns are being carried outside the conference structure and follow the theme, "We've a story to tell."

United Methodist Media Services
United Methodist Media Services works directly with the seven conferences that make up the Communications Council. Its mission is to develop, coordinate and carry out joint public relations/information campaigns through internal and secular media. In addition, Media Services provides public relations counsel to leaders of the seven conferences.

During 1991 Media Services mounted two campaigns to oppose legalization of a Texas lottery.

In February 1991 Media Services helped the five bishops of Texas prepare and distribute a letter to each member of the Texas House and Senate. The letter outlined why the bishops opposed a state lottery. Pressure from religious leaders was credited with defeating the lottery proposal during the regular legislative session.

But a special legislative session in August put a lottery proposal on the November ballot. Consequently, Media Services launched an information campaign to explain to United Methodists why their bishops were asking church members to vote against the lottery measure. The campaign was done in conjunction with the bishops' Legislative Advisory Committee. The effort ws intended to make sure the bishops' message about state-run gambling was delivered to as many church members as possible.

The campaign resulted in a series of stories during October in the conference editions of the Reporter delivered in Texas and a pamphlet distributed to worshipers during the two weeks before the Nov. 5 election. The newspaper stories, which explained how and why church leaders were working against the lottery proposal, went into nearly 180,000 households across the state. The pamphlets, which explained why the bishops were asking church members to vote against the lottery, were put into the hands of more than 250,000 church members.

Personnel losses

Two personnel losses during 1991 influenced the way agencies of the Communications Council carried out their work. One loss had temporary impact. The other will have lasting effect.

The temporary loss involved Douglas Cannon, director of United Methodist Media Services and coordinator of the UMR Institute for Church Communications. A major in the U.S. Army Reserve, Mr. Cannon was called to active duty during the Persian Gulf War. His absence from November 1990 to September 1991 reduced the capabilities of Media Services and the UMR Institute.

The permanent loss involved Spurgeon M. Dunnam III, Communications Council executive and UMR editor-in-chief. Mr. Dunnam, 48, died Nov. 25, 1991, following surgery. He had been a part of United Methodist communications work in Texas since 1965. He had influenced the Communications Council's development for many years.

The UMR Governing Board, which establishes policies for the newspaper operation, began a national search for a new chief executive in January. In the interim, the board's Executive Committee named the Rev. Dan Louis, a clergy member of the Texas Conference, as chief executive. The board was to complete its national search by April 15. The 45 member board was then to nominate its selection for UMR chief executive to the Communications Council for final election. The Communications Council also elects the Governing Board chairperson, the Communications Council executive director and the director of the Media Services division.

Bishop Ben Oliphint, Chairperson
Daniel J. Louis, Interim Chief Executive, United Methodist Reporter, and Executive Director, United Methodist Communications Council

XIV. STANDING RULES

RULE 1.

The Rules of Order adopted by the General Conference of the United Methodist Church shall prevail at all business sessions of the conference.

RULE 2.

The Conference Council on Ministries is constituted to execute the functions detailed in the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE in addition to the coordinating functions in relation to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 3.

The membership of the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations shall be composed of nine persons: four lay persons and four ordained persons, plus the Conference Lay Leader (according to the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE.) The Director of the Conference Council on Ministries shall serve as consultant (according to the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE.) The elected persons shall be elected by the respective lay and ordained members of the annual conference by the same procedure as General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates are elected, without nomination and by secret ballot. One lay person and one clergy shall be elected each year for a four year term. A person may serve for only one four year term and shall be eligible to be elected again after being off the committee for two years. Prior to the first ballot, it is recommended that the Bishop lift up the need for inclusiveness in the election of the members of the Committee on Nominations.

The committee shall annually elect its chair and secretary at the site of the annual conference following the election of new members.

ENABLING ACTION: The original Committee on Nominations shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee for 1991-92. Other nominations may be made from the floor.

Persons elected in 1991 to serve in the conference year of 1991-92 shall be exempt from the limitation of not serving on any other annual conference agency for this one year.

In 1992 all eight members will be elected; the first lay and clergy elected will serve for a four year term, the second elected shall serve for a three year term, the third elected shall serve for a two year term, and the fourth elected shall serve for a one year term. The three, two, and one year terms shall count as a full term.

The Committee on Nominations is responsible for:
1) developing and implementing a plan of identification of persons who are willing, qualified and able to serve as members of the agencies of the annual conference; 2) developing and implementing a plan to train and support persons who are elected to serve as members of the agencies of the conference; 3) nominating members and chairpersons of agencies of the conference to the session of the Annual Conference for election except where otherwise provided in the BOOK OF DISCIPLINE.

Persons shall be nominated to serve for a four-year-term on a conference agency (council, board, commission, committee.) No person shall be nominated for a position without previously agreeing to serve if elected. Persons who are absent without cause for half or more of an agency's meetings during the conference year will thereby automatically remove themselves from the membership of the agency and shall be replaced by the Committee on Nominations. The Committee on Nominations is authorized to provide for filling such vacancies between sessions of the Annual Conference, unless otherwise provided for in the DISCIPLINE.

The North Texas Annual Conference shall make it a policy to rotate membership on conference agencies, limiting any person to eight successive years on any one agency. However, a person may be re-elected to that conference agency after non-membership for four (4) years. The number of years of each person's term shall be listed after that person's name in the annual conference journal where the membership of the agencies are listed. Membership, except ex-officio, shall be held on no more than one conference agency in any membership category at the same time. These rules shall not be construed to apply to trustees of institutions.

Chairpersons for the Annual Conference's Councils, Boards, Board Divisions, Commissions and Committees shall be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the annual conference (except when specific alternative elective procedures are mandated by the BOOK OF DISCIPLINE or the Standing Rules: e.g., Board of Ordained Ministry, Board of Trustees, etc.) with opportunity for additional nominations from the floor. Persons elected shall begin their term of office at the close of the Annual Conference session of their election. A person shall not be elected to serve as chairperson of the same Annual Conference Council or Board for more than four years nor as chairperson of more than one Annual Conference Council or Board for more than six consecutive years in any eight-year period. A person may serve as chairperson of a Division, Commission, or Committee (excluding those committees listed in Standing Rule 3 as Annual Conference Committees) for four years, and still be eligible to serve as chairperson of a Board or Council for an additional four years, if in compliance with the 8-year agency limitation. Persons elected as chairpersons shall be in addition to the stated number of members for each Conference Agency, unless prohibited by the BOOK OF DISCIPLINE or the Standing Rules.

Membership of all conference agencies (council, board, Commission, committee) shall be reduced in membership by one-third unless stipulated outherwise by the BOOK OF DISCIPLINE or requested by an agency. Additionally, no agency, other than the Board of Church Extension, which requests at-large members shall have more than three at-large positions.

The reduction in membership of conference agencies provided for by this standing rule shall not apply to current members of such agencies elected in 1992 or prior years whose terms have not expired. For purposes of this exception, the maximum membership of an agency shall be the number of members provided for by this standing rule, or the number of current members previously elected to such agency whose terms of office have not expired, whichever is greater.

Enabling Legislation: Each council, board, commission, and committee will report to the Standing Rules Committee by January 1, 1993 how many members will be nominated for said council, board, commission, or committee.

The Standing Rules Committee will present the proposed agency membership, along with appropiate Standing Rules changes, to the 1993 Annual Conference for its approval.

Membership on all agencies (councils, boards, divisions, commissions, committees) shall include one-third clergy, one-third laywomen, and one-third laymen, insofar as possible. Special attention shall be given to the inclusion of clergywomen. Strong consideration shall also be given to inclusive representation from the districts, small membership churches, town and country churches and ethnic churches. The following agencies should also be considered as exceptions:

a. According to the Current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE:
   +COMMITTEE ON INVESTIGATION
   +JOINT REVIEW COMMITTEE
   +BOARD OF LAITY
b. According to the nature of the group/agency:
   +UNITED METHODIST MEN
   +COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRIES
   +COMMISSION ON ASIAN MINISTRIES

All agencies with any lay persons serving as members of the agency, will schedule meetings only after 6:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, or on Saturday or Sunday, unless all lay members are amenable to meeting prior to 6:00 p.m.

Each conference agency granted the option by the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE to define appropriate categories of at-large members for said agency may request the annual conference to approve these categories.

Members of the general agencies from the North Texas Conference will be members of the corresponding conference agency.

THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Annual Conference is defined and constituted according to the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE.

Constitutionally, "the Annual Conference is the basic body of the church." As such, the Annual Conference is not understood as an end in itself but as a means to enable United Methodists to serve God effectively and faithfully. The Annual Conference's actions, programs and ministries are intended to reflect the UMC's Theological and Social Principles.

THE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

The Conference Council on Ministries shall be organized in accordance with the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE. It shall oversee and coordinate the implementation of decisions made by the Annual Conference through the Annual Conference's various boards, commissions and committees. It shall also serve as a forum where conference program needs and concerns may be discussed.

All proposals related to the conference program shall be submitted to the Council on Ministries for discussion prior to their submission to the Annual Conference. (This is not in conflict with standing rule #25.) The Council on Ministries may choose to endorse, oppose or take no position regarding such proposals. Lack of endorsement by the Council on Ministries does not prohibit a conference agency from submitting a proposal to the Annual Conference.

The Council on Ministries shall not assume for itself responsibilities which belong to the Annual Conference. In cases of urgent necessity, the Council on Ministries may approve, by 2/3 vote, changes, additions or deletions from the conference program between sessions of the Annual Conference provided that, if funding is involved, prior approval shall also be received from the Council on Finance and Administration. Such actions shall be reviewed by the next session of the Annual Conference.

The Council on Ministries shall be composed of the presiding bishop; the district superintendents; the conference lay leader; the chairperson, vice-chairperson, and secretary of the Council on Ministries; the Board and Division Chairpersons of the, Board of Church and Society, Board of Discipleship, Board of Laity, Board of Global Ministries, and Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry; the chairperson of each independent commission; the chairperson of each commission and committee of the Council on Ministries; the chairperson of the Standing Rules Committee; the conference secretary; two representatives each of the Conference youth organization, United Methodist Women, and United Methodist Men. (If not already included in the composition of the Council on Ministries, the following at-large members shall be added: two young adults and the lay leaders of each district, and the person(s) serving on the General Council on Ministries.) The following shall be members of the council with voice and no vote: Conference Council on Ministries staff, the chairperson or representative of the Council on Finance and Administration, the Director the Council on Finance and Administration, and the Conference Statistician.

8. All Diaconal Ministers who are in full-time service appointment
9. All elected chairpersons within the structure of the North Texas Conference who are not otherwise provided for.

RULE 7.

The term of office of local church officials elected by the Fall Charge Conference shall begin on January 1 and run for the length of their term. This rule shall not apply to members of local Boards of Trustees.

RULE 8.

The minister who shall be in charge of the funeral services of any minister of the North Texas Conference, or the spouse, widow, or widower of a minister of the North Texas Conference, will supply the secretary of the conference with a memoir containing: the date of birth; the date of death; the date of final rites; the place of burial; a recent photograph of the deceased; date of entrance or transfer into the conference; the conference from which transferred, if applicable; and, if possible, appointments in other conferences. In the event that the dates required are not supplied, they shall be added by the secretary of the conference, if possible. All of this information is to be sent to the secretary of the conference immediately following the funeral.

RULE 9.

In the event of the death of an active minister occupying a parsonage, the surviving spouse and family shall be granted the privilege of using the parsonage for a period of time not to exceed sixty (60) days.

RULE 10.

The Board of Ordained Ministry shall inquire of each district superintendent about the life and official administration of each member of the conference in his district and report to the conference as to whether all the ministerial members of the conference are blameless in their life and official administration.

RULE 11.

The secretary of the North Texas Conference Board of Trustees shall be furnished a legal description of each piece of property in the District, along with a statement as to where the deeds are kept, by the District Superintendent of that District, on or before December 1. This list shall be revised annually by the District Superintendent by December 1 to include each real estate transaction.

RULE 12.

The District Superintendent shall be required to report district statistics to the Conference Statistician.

RULE 13.

Section A. Each church and pastor shall submit the Annual Conference report to the District Auditor for auditing on the check-out day specified by the Cabinet.

Section B. Each District Superintendent, upon nomination of the Conference Statistician, shall appoint a District Auditor, whose responsibility it shall be to audit the Annual Conference reports. The District Auditor shall prepare these reports in correct form on the blank provided by the Conference Statistician and shall deliver them immediately following Check-Out Day to the Conference Statistician.

Section C. The Conference Treasurer's books shall be closed annually at 12:00 noon on January 8 (or the closest working day), and no funds received by the Conference Treasurer after that time shall apply on Conference Apportionments of the year just completed.

Section D. The fiscal year of the Annual Conference shall be January 1 to December 31. The apportionments to the local churches shall be made on this basis. The only exception to this shall be the salaries of the clerical members serving as pastors or district superintendents. When a pastoral change comes at Annual Conference, the salary of the previous appointment shall be paid through June 15, and the salary in the new appointment shall begin June 16.

RULE 14.

Each pastor in charge shall be required to report to his district superintendent on District Check-Out Day any money borrowed necessary to pay current church obligations for the Conference fiscal year, or any delinquent church bills which have not been paid by the close of the Conference fiscal year.

RULE 15.

Gifts to members of the conference in recognition for service rendered shall not be made on the floor of the conference.

RULE 16.

Interest earned on any funds, (excluding designated trusts) managed by the Conference Treasurer shall be declared general funds of the North Texas Annual Conference and administered by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 17.

No agency of the North Texas Conference shall incur financial obligations that exceed current appropriations for any reason except by specific approval of the Council on Ministries, the presiding Bishop and the Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 18.

Section A. No conference agency shall include requests for funds other than those required for its own operation or program; requests for funds for the same cause or concern shall be granted to only one conference agency.

Section B. Conference Agencies of the North Texas Conference shall make expenditures only in accordance with their respective budgets for the current year and shall in no case introduce new items not included in their approved budget. New items may be submitted to the Council on Finance and Administration for appraisal and consideration for the current year or may be included in the budget request submitted for the coming year.

Section C. Any agency in the Conference has the right of appeal to the Annual Conference regarding a decision affecting its work made by any other agency, except where otherwise provided in the DISCIPLINE.

RULE 19.

The Council on Ministries is responsible for presenting to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration a proposed budget incorporating program and administrative items for its agencies and related district agencies. This report is to be submitted on or before the date set annually by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 20.

When application is made to the conference for the privilege of a special conference-wide financial appeal, whether by special collection, campaigns, or otherwise, the application shall be referred to the Council on Finance and Administration before final action is taken thereon. The Council shall investigate the application and its possible relation to other obligations of the conference, and in light of the facts make recommendations to the Annual Conference.

RULE 21.

Section A. The Council on Finance and Administration shall nominate to the Annual Conference an auditing firm which shall audit the Conference Treasurer's books annually.

Section B. All agencies and institution receiving financial support from the conference, either by direct apportionment or by special offerings, shall if requested submit an annual auditor's report acceptable to the Council on Finance and Administration by September 1 of each year for the previous fiscal year.

RULE 22.

Annually the conference treasurer, with the assistance of the District Superintendents, shall compute the apportionment decimal for each church and by September 1 provide the amounts for each church's apportionments for the following year.

RULE 23.

Matters which are not a part of the Pre-conference Report of a particular agency of the Annual Conference may come before the conference only after they have been duplicated and distributed on the floor of the conference by the beginning of the day they are to be considered. This Rule shall not be so construed as to preclude proper amendments to reports or matters of privilege.

RULE 24.

The following ethical principles for the appropriation and disbursement of funds by the North Texas Annual Conference shall be observed:

A. Funds contributed for a designated purpose should be used strictly for the purpose designated, and administered efficiently, without waste or duplication, in order to obtain maximum effect from the use of available funds.

B. Net proceeds from the sale of Annual Conference property are capital funds, and should be appropriated to the use which the property was intended to serve. If this is not feasible, priority should be given to the most similar purpose for which the funds can be used effectively, or to capital improvements within reasonable geographical proximity; but district lines should not be controlling and the entire community or metropolitan area should be considered. Likewise, funds received by way of indemnity for loss or destruction of any capital assets of the Annual Conference should be treated as capital assets and should be used for similar purposes if restoration of the property is feasible.

RULE 25.

It shall require a two-thirds (2/3) vote of all lay and clerical members present and voting to suspend or to amend any of these standing rules.

WALTER V. CADE, SR.

To the late Ben and Janie Cade was born Walter V. Cade on January 28, 1911. Walter graduated from Oak Lawn High School in Waxahachie, Texas.

In addition to his career as a pastor, Walter served his country in the Army and was a veteran of World War II.

At an early age, Walter felt the claim of God upon his life and was converted to the Christian faith at Samaria Baptist Church in Waxahachie.

Walter and Imogene, his wife, were married on December 13, 1943. They shared their life with their four sons: William V., Jr., Teddy, Aron B., and Charlie and five daughters: Ellen J. Carey, Beverly M. Butler, Arnita J. Williams, Carol S. Slade, and Vivian J. Cade. Their years were enriched immeasurably by twenty-one grandchildren, five great grandchildren, and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends.

Walter studied at the Universal Bible Institute and at Perkins School of Theology. He was first admitted to the United Methodist Church as a minister in the Central Texas Conference in 1970. He was ordained Deacon in 1967, Elder in 1972, and was admitted into Full Connection in the Central Texas Conference in the same year. Walter transferred into the North Texas Conference in 1975 and was granted the retired relationship in 1978, following eight years of faithful service.

On December 22, 1991, Walter passed into the complete experience of life everlasting. The service of death and resurrection was held on Friday, December 27th at the Morningside United Methodist Church in Fort Worth, Texas with the pastor, Rick L. Hawkins, officiating. The burial was in the Waxahachie Cemetery. To God be the glory for his life.

JERRY R. DELLENEY

Jerry R. Delleney was born on July 24, 1932, in San Antonio, and died May 27, 1992, in Dallas, after being on disability leave for two years. Graveside services were conducted in Bowie, Texas, by the Reverend David Carr, on May 29. A memorial Eucharist was celebrated at First United Methodist Church, Richardson, on May 30. The Reverend David Shawver was the preacher and the Reverend Michael Nichols was celebrant. Other elders assisting in the liturgy of "high thanksgiving" for Jerry's life were Fred Kandeler, DeForrest Wiksten, Gene Welborn, Richard Fleming, and Sherrell Hendricks.

Ordained deacon and received On Trial in 1955, ordained Elder and received into Full Connection in the North Texas Annual Conference in 1957, Jerry married June Murray on June 29, 1957, and joyfully shared with her his rich ministry in this conference. A graduate of Hendrix College and Perkins School of Theology, Jerry was known for his lifelong interest and promotion of Christian liturgy as the constant rehearsal of "who God is and who we are." Nothing was more important to Jerry Delleney than to mark the significant events of our lives by well-planned and well-celebrated occasions of Worship. He provided inspired leadership in the Conference Commission on worship from 1976 to 1980. Jerry was always interested in youth, and wherever he served he acted as a minister to youth. His work with youth began during seminary years when he worked with junior highs at Highland Park United Methodist Church. In lieu of flowers at his final rites memorial gifts benefiting Bridgeport Conference Center were requested.

Jerry shared his life with his wife, June, and with their daughter, Alicia. These persons were truly the significant others in his life. Both continue to live in the area.

Jerry Delleney's entire ministry was served in the North Texas Conference in the following appointments: Saint Jo, Paris-Calvary, Jacksboro, Bowie/Sunset/Montague, Sherman-Key Memorial, DeSoto, Commerce, Gainesville/Sivells Bend, Irving-Kirkwood, Preston Hollow (associate), and Centenary. As David Shawver said in his memorial sermon, "Jerry did a lot of good!"

SPURGEON M. DUNNAM, III

The Reverend Spurgeon Dunnam, III, Editor and Chief Executive of The United Methodist Reporter, was a brilliant, dedicated and tenacious man of God. He brought strong, visionary leadership to his keen understanding of what was happening in United Methodism and in Christendom.

A third-generation Methodist minister, Spurgeon was born January 10, 1943 in Panama City, Florida. He graduated magna cum laude from Texas Wesleyan College in 1968, receiving a Master of Divinity Degree.

Spurgeon became editor of The United Methodist Reporter in 1969. Under his exceptional leadership, The Reporter grew from a regional publication to a national newsweekly, with a circulation of more than 500,000.

Since November 1983, Spurgeon was chairperson of the Board of Religious News Service in New York, the nation's only interfaith daily news service specializing in religion. He also served on the denomination's General Board of Global Ministries and several committees in the North Texas Conference.

Spurgeon and The Reporter accrued many honors and awards, including two from the Dallas Press Club for editorial advocacy and general excellence among weekly publications. Spurgeon was also honored by his peers, having been elected to four General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

Spurgeon is survived by his wife, Dottie Cox Dunnam; two daughters, Delilah Dunnam Ray and Delayna Dunnam; a son, Daniel Dunnam; his parents, The Reverend Spurgeon and Thelma Dunnam of Longview; and a sister, Jeannie Wallace of Longview.

Spurgeon died November 25, 1991 and was buried in Laurel Land, Dallas. The memorial service, in grateful remembrance to God for Spurgeon's life and ministry, was held at the First United Methodist Church of Dallas on November 27, 1991. Officiating clergypersons were: Bishop Ben Oliphint, Bishop Bruce Blake, The Reverend Dan Louis, Jr., The Reverend Stephen Swecker, The Reverend Richard Stark, The Reverend Zan Holmes, and Dr. Hal Brady.

Spurgeon Dunnam stands as a challenge of excellence to all of us to give our best to the Master.

CHARLES O. ESPIE

Charles O. Espie was born on January 17, 1909 in Marshall, Texas. He and his wife, Mary Lou, were married on January 2, 1939.

Charles studied for two years at Huston-Tillotson College, Austin, Texas. He participated for four years in the Lay Pastor's Course of Study at the Mississippi Gulfside Assembly and completed the Conference Course of Study at Waveland, Mississippi.

A lay member of the annual conference from a church where Charles served as pastor described him as "truly a man of God." He was a good leader and well-liked by the people of his church and community.

Charles was the kind of pastor who wanted to be a part of the activities of the church and of the lives of his members. This desire surfaced at the district level when he once asked his Superintendent, Jack Gibson, how churches were selected to host a district meeting of the professional personnel. When Jack told him, Charles immediately wanted to host a meeting in his church. The next meeting in the district was in the church Charles served.

At the local level, Charles was a beloved pastor. He had a practice of writing a letter when a child was born in his church family; the unusual thing was that the letter was from the new baby to his/her parents. In this way he celebrated the gift of new life.

Charles' hobbies were fishing and barbequing. He loved to fish, and he loved to barbeque. He encouraged church-wide luncheons after Sunday services, and he often furnished the barbeque. This was evidence of his love for people and his interest in the fellowship of the church family.

Charles entered the ministry of the Methodist Church when he was ordained Deacon and admitted On Trial in the former West Texas Conference in 1956. Concurrent with his ordination as Elder in 1958, he was elected to Full Connection in the West Texas conference. With the merger of the West Texas Conference and the North Texas Conference in May of 1970, Charles became a full ministerial member of the North Texas Confeence from which he retired in 1979 with twenty-three years of faithful service.

Mary Lou preceded Charles in death on June 20, 1990. Charles died on May 23, 1992 in Wichita Falls, Texas where he lived for several years after his retirement. For his loving spirit,, for the years of his ministry, for his strong faith, and for the gracious gift of his life, we give thanks to God.

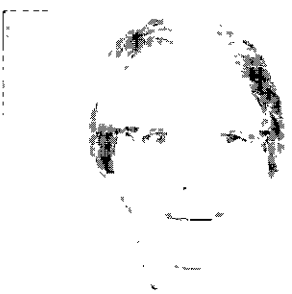
RAYMOND GLEN FLAHERTY



Raymond Glen Flaherty was born on February 5, 1910 in Carl Junction, Missouri. He was born again into eternal life on the morning of December 3, 1991 at the age of 81. Ray was the second of six children. His family was hard-working, and had to move often to find work. But when he was ten, his mother took him to church, and together they joined the Methodist Church.

After beginning work with the U.S. Treasury Department as a chemist, and serving from 1942-1946 in the Army, Ray returned to Southern Methodist University to enter Perkins School of Theology. He received his seminary degree and was ordained Deacon in 1949.

On November 24, 1949, Ray married Sarah "Bobbie" Childress, whom he had met through her brother-in-law at a Fondren Lecture at Perkins. He and Bobbie celebrated 42 years of marriage.

Ray was ordained an Elder in the United Methodist Church in 1951, and was a member first of the Texas Conference before transferring his membership to the North Texas Conference. He served a circuit in East Texas while in seminary, and during his subsequent years of ministry served congregations at Hutchins, Van Alstyne, Denton, and Denison.

After his retirement from active ministry in 1977, Ray continued to be very active in the community of Farmers Branch, serving on the City Council, as well as the library and hospital boards.

Ray is survived by his wife, Bobbie; daughter, Sarah, and son, Chris; a brother, Roland; and two sisters, Dorothy and Christine. Memorial services were held at Walnut Hill United Methodist Church on December 6, 1991, with Reverend Susan Monts and Dr. Dan Hoke officiating.

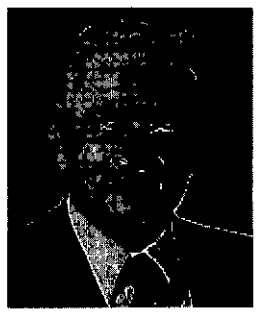
JOSEPH D. QUILLIAN, JR.



Dr. Joseph D. Quillian, Jr., former dean of Perkins School of Theology was born January 30, 1917 in Buford, Georgia, and died April 3, 1992, at the age of 75. Joe, who served as dean of Perkins from 1960 to 1982, died of a heart attack at his home in Chewelah, Washington.

Funeral services were held April 6, at the Schanbach Funeral Home in Chewelah. Victor Furnish, University Distinguished Professor of New Testament, said, "The [memorial] service was vintage Quillian, having been planned in detail by Joe himself."

At the service, Shannon Quillian sang "Amazing Grace" live and unaccompanied, and Betty, his wife, sang "Come Unto Me" via a tape recording. The entire service was well and faithfully executed by three officiating clergy: the new pastor of the Chewelah United Church of Christ, her immediate predecessor and the local Catholic priest. In addition, the eucharist was celebrated at the service. (Note: Betty had previously questioned Joe about this plan, and he had responded, as would be expected, "How can this central act of Christian worship be left out?").

Joe and Betty had been significantly involved in the civic, social, and ecclesiastical life of the area. Joe was active on the board of the local hospital, which is Catholic and coincidentally named "St. Joseph's," and he had worked diligently and effectively as a local ecumenist.

Dean Kirby, one of Joe's former students, said, "He was a wonderful character, a good teacher and a good man. Joe was a well-known figure in theological education and in the Methodist Church."

"The images evoked of Joe were of loyalty, steadfastness and of his devotion to his job," said Reverend Schubert Ogden, University Distinguished Professor of Theology, at a faculty meeting April 3rd, remembering Dean Quillian. "He was unfailingly faithful to those he served."

In addition to being described as a Southern gentleman, Joe was remembered for his doodles and his sayings.

"I used to keep a bunch of Quillianisms on my desk," said Lee Cobb, who worked as his secretary for 21 years. Joe's doodles were not just idle scribbles. They were elaborate, kaleidoscopic designs, called "mandalas," which he sold at art galleries. In fact, Stanley Marcus, founder of Neiman Marcus, once silk-screened one onto a scarf.

Dean Quillian, who was a member of the North Texas Conference, joined the Perkins' faculty in 1954 as professor of worship and preaching. For more than 22 years he served as Perkins dean, retiring as dean emeritus, professor of worship and preaching emeritus in 1982.

Prior to joining Perkins, Joe served as president of Martin College in Pulaski, Tennessee, from 1950 to 1954. His other professional experience included serving as pastor of High Ridge Circuit Church in Stanford, Connecticut, and as a chaplain in the U.S. Navy. His entry into the chaplaincy was expedited by his ordination as Deacon by the Congregational Church in April, 1924. Concurrent election to Full Membership and Elders' Orders were voted in 1944 by the Tennessee Conference. Dean Quillian was transferred into the North Texas Conference in 1955 and retired in 1982.

Joe was a member of the Council of Southwestern Theological Schools, the Association of Methodist Theological Schools and the Association of American Theological Schools. He also was a member of the General Conference Commission on Worship of the Methodist Church from 1960 to 1968.

An author of numerous publications on Methodist worship, Joe received a Ph.D. from Yale University. He received a bachelor's degree in theology from Vanderbilt Divinity School and a bachelor's degree in history from Piedmont College in Georgia.

Dean Quillian is survived by his wife, Betty, who he married December 15, 1944; his four daughters, Suzanne Quillian, Alma Quillian, Shannon Quillian, and Ellen Hanes; and son, Joseph Dillard Quillian.

J. B. SHARP

J. B. Sharp was born on March 1, 1925.

Reverend Sharp graduated from Perkins School of Theology and, while in school, he served at the First United Methodist Church in Corsicana. During his career he served at the following Methodist churches: St. Mark, Midland; First United Methodist, Slaton; First United Methodist, Levelland; Aldersgate, Abilene; St. Paul, Amarillo; First United Methodist, Big Spring; First United Methodist, Dalhart; St. John's, Santa Fe, New Mexico; Handley, Ft. Worth; Cedar Hill; Webb Chapel; and Lovers Lane United Methodist in Dallas.

Reverend Sharp died on January 27, 1992. A memorial service was conducted at Lovers Lane United Methodist Church on January 29, 1992 with Dr. Don Benton and Reverend Charles Lutrick officiating. Burial services were in Corsicana, Texas on January 30, 1992.

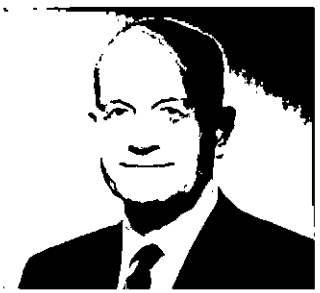
WALTER L. TOWNER



Walter L. Towner was born on May 14, 1895 in Kansas City, Kansas. On July 16, 1924, Walter and Ruth Caldwell united in marriage. They shared their lives with Barbara Jean, their daughter, who was born on October 31, 1929.

In pursuit of higher education, he entered the University of Missouri where he studied mechanical engineering from 1913-1914. However, sensing a call in a different direction, Walter enrolled as a student at Southern Methodist University where he earned the A.B. degree in 1927. Continuing his education at S.M.U., he received the Bachelor of Divinity in 1928 for his work at Perkins School of Theology and enrolled in still another degree program at the University. In 1930, he earned the Master of Arts from Southern Methodist University, and in 1961, he was awarded the Doctor of Divinity degree by Adrian College.

In 1929, following his theological education at S.M.U., Walter was ordained a Deacon and was admitted on trial as a Probationary Member of the North Texas Conference. In 1931, he was ordained Elder and received into Full Connection as a member of the Conference.

In his earlier years, Walter was active in the youth work of the Conference. He served as an associate pastor at Highland Park from 1927 to 1929, and pastor at Leonard in 1930. He was appointed to the General Board of Education in Nashville, Tennessee in 1931 where he served until his retirement in 1965. At that time he became Professor in Christian Education at Scarritt College. For thirty-eight years, he served God faithfully as a member of the North Texas Conference.

On November 4, 1991, Walter Towner died in Nashville, Tennessee. For his many years of service in the name of Christ and for his continuing commitment to the ministry of the church, we give thanks.

OPAL SHAVER GARRETT

Opal Shaver Garrett was born April 30, 1895, in Wichita Falls, Texas. She grew up in the Floral Heights Methodist Church in Wichita Falls, and on November 21, 1921, she married Reverend Charles B. Garrett who was serving his first appointment as associate minister at Floral Heights. Brother Charlie preceded her in death in 1980. Mrs. Garrett was a model minister's wife serving her Lord through all programs of the Methodist Church. In many of their appointments she would assume the role of the Youth Director. For 44 years she and Brother Charlie served churches across the North Texas Conference from Floral Heights to First Church Paris, Woodbine-Dexter, Pecan Gap, Mt. Vernon, Jacksboro, Sanger, First Church Grand Prairie, First Church Richardson, Royce City, Celina, and Lee Street Greenville. After retiring in 1957, she and Brother Charlie supplied the White Rock circuit for eight and one-half years. Opal Garrett was the mother of two sons, both ordained Methodist clergy, Reverend James Garrett, pastor of Polk Street United Methodist Church, Amarillo, and Reverend Charles Wesley Garrett, psychologist in Kansas. Mrs. Garrett was well loved across the Conference. She was a woman well-educated for her time, having taught school and even preached when Brother Garrett was ill. Her memorial service was at Restland Abbey Chapel in Dallas on August 16, 1991. The Reverend Gene Welborn officiated. Entombment was at Restland Abbey Mausoleum, Dallas.

Gene C. Welborn

ALMA R. HIBBERT

Alma R. Hibbert, widow of Reverend J. B. Hibbert, died June 6, 1991, after a short illness. The service of remembrance and celebration for Alma was held on Saturday, June 8, 1991, at graveside in Restland Memorial Park, Dallas, with Reverend Jack Gibson officiating.

She was born in Bosque County to Edwin Archer and Susie Archer on January 4, 1892. On August 8, 1909 she married John B. Hibbert in Cisco, Texas.

Alma excelled as a minister's wife and homemaker. She was very loyal to her church and took an active part in each church as long as her health allowed.

Mrs. Hibbert is survived by her daughter, Susie Hibbert of Dallas; a son, John Hibbert of Sherman; daughter-in-law, Doris Hibbert; sister, Teddie Kelley of Tahoka; and several nieces and nephews.

MARGARET LOW RIDLEY

It was in the morning of my life and in the springtime of my ministry for Christ. I had finished preaching in an evening service in a Methodist chapel at a point between Campbell, Cumby, and Commerce, Texas. Still standing in the chancel area, I glanced toward the rear of the sanctuary and was attracted to a lovely girl 15 or 16 years of age. I was several years older, and I'm not sure that I knew at the time who she was. She was not looking in my direction and would not for a long, long time to come.

The English poet, William Wordsworth, wrote of another girl of another country and of another century:

"She was a phantom of delight,
When first she gleamed upon my sight."

The person described in the poet's vision was a phantom...a lovely apparition...a kind of make-believe, but Margaret Low was for real! She was a plain country girl endowed with keen intellect, a calm consideration of others, and deep compassion for those who suffered, whether in the animal kingdom or in the human family.

Margaret Elizabeth Low was the youngest daughter of Joseph and Alma Low, born at Low Hill, the family home, on October 26, 1914, in Hunt County, Texas. She attended Maloy School, was a graduate of Commerce High School, and received her B.A. from East Texas State. For three of her four years at E.T. she was secretary to the Dean of Men, E. H. Wray, and was prominent in Sigma Tau Delta.

At perhaps the height of her scholastic career, she experienced a very real spiritual conversion during an evangelistic service at her home church. Margaret was pianist for the invitation song, "Pass Me Not, O Gentle Savior." She stopped playing, arose and went to speak with the minister. Then and there she made her public decision for Christ as her Savior. Later, alone with God in prayer, she felt He helped her to make an absolute surrender of her life to Him.

Before she had finished her second year on the faculty of Leesburg School System in Camp County, Texas, we were making our plans to be married, "Along about the time the wild roses bloom." We had begun corresponding in 1932 and continued until the day of our wedding, June 9, 1939. Reverend Cicero B. Fielder and Reverend Elmer H. Henderson officiated that evening on Low Hill.

Margaret joined me in the ministry while I was pastor at Lane and White Rock, with the parsonage at Celeste, Texas. From there we went to South Wilcox in McKinney during the War years. Then we moved to First Methodist, Carrollton, for some five and a half years. In 1950, we began a 24 year pastorate at Trinity Church, Dallas, where we were permitted to serve until that congregation completed its century of Christian service in Dallas.

At home in the quiet of the country, in the growing towns, and in the thriving metropolis, Margaret not only strengthened my ministry but also served as my secretary for over 50 years. While in Dallas, she was secretary to Bishop Charles C. Selecman and Congressman Hatton W. Sumners. She served as president of the Ministers Wives Club of the Greater Dallas District. We served the Brashear Charge for more than 15 years.

Margaret was wife and mother of value beyond words. One son was born to us, Robert Low Ridley, now a medical doctor in Colorado Springs. He and RuthAnn Rutledge of Terrell were married in 1964 and have three children: David, Robin, and Steve. Her grandchildren carry interests in journalism, art, music, and poetry that were resident in Margaret throughout her life.

At the close of a little poem she wrote to me years ago, she said,

"I'll be looking for you in the dawn-- That's the dawn of eternity!"

Her funeral service was conducted June 3, 1991, at Miller Grove United Methodist Church, where Margaret had been a member for many years. Reverend Charles Hart, who baptized her more than fifty years ago, led in prayer. Murray Pickens, her nephew, read from the Scriptures, and it was my honor to bring the message. Interment was at Brigham Cemetery, near Campbell. On the reverse side of our white marble monument are the words, "Sweethearts Forever."

When we were younger, and with so much of life out before us, we wrote these lines.

"We loved, we love, and we shall love...
We thank God o'er and o'er,
And may He grant that we shall be Sweethearts forevermore."

Our hope is in Him, Who in a world of death, affirms life, saying "I am the resurection and the life."

In addition to husband, son, and granchildren, she is survived by sisters, Mrs. Frank Morgan, Mrs. C. M. Pickens, Mrs. Leroy Miller, and by brothers, Dale Low, and Dr. Edwin Low. She was preceded in death by five sisters and two brothers.

XVII. STATISTICIAN'S REPORT

CORRECTIONS FOR 1990 REPORT IN 1991 JOURNAL:
First UMC Rockwall in the Dallas South District inadvertently listed under the ethnic origin questions the 1,275 members of the White origin under the category of Asian origin.

The Grand Total in the Conference Recap on page 342 in the 1991 JOURNAL should be:

White	140,610	with an increase of 448

In the analysis on page 286 in the 1991 JOURNAL, it should read:

-- Asian	982	a decrease of 377
-- White	140,610	an increase of 448

The 1990 Totals listed in these 1991 Statistical Tables show these corrections, and the comparisons in this current 1992 JOURNAL are correct.
