IN RECOGNITION AND APPRECIATION

Editor's Note: The record of the life of the annual conference is important historical documentation, but it is more. It is also the record of the faithful witness and work of the people called Methodist in North Texas. In this edition of the JOURNAL we recognize the unique contributions of two clergymen who recorded this history and proclaimed this faith. Further information about the ministry of these men can be found in Section XV, Memorials.

I. CONFERENCE HISTORY

United Methodism in North Texas began in 1816-17 as part of Arkansas Methodism in the Missouri Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. When the denomination divided in 1844-45, Methodists of this area became a part of the East Texas Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. In 1867, the approximate area of what is now this conference, was set apart as the Trinity Conference, and later (1874) renamed the North Texas Conference.

The Methodist Episcopal Church had little organized work in Texas after 1845, until 1867 when a Texas Mission was formed. Out of that Mission came the West Texas Conference (primarily Black). In 1939 the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and The Methodist Protestant Church united to form The Methodist Church. The West Texas Conference, while a part of The Methodist Church, was in the Central Jurisdiction (all Black). The North Texas Conference was a part of the South Central Jurisdiction, which was one of the geographical jurisdictions.

At the Uniting Conference to form the United Methodist Church held in Dallas, Texas, April 1968, a new Annual Conference was formed in North Texas including members, congregations, and ministers of the North Texas Conference of The Methodist Church of the South Central Jurisdiction(1939-1968), and members, one congregation, and one minister of the Oklahoma-Texas Conference of the Evangelical and United Brethren Church (1886-1968).

At a merger conference held in Dallas, Texas, in May, 1970, members, congregations, and ministers of the North Texas Conference; and members, congregations, and ministers of the West Texas Conference located within the geographical boundaries of the North Texas Conference became the North Texas Conference of The United Methdist Church.

The sessions of the current North Texas Conference are numbered first from 1867, the organizational date for the North Texas Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Texas Mission of the Methodist Episcopal Church and secondly from 1970, the date of merger of the former North Texas and West Texas Conferences.

A list of the Conference Sessions of these separate conferences is printed in:

(1) the 1939 Journal of the North Texas Conference, South Central Juris diction, (P.28-29) and the 1967 Journal of the North Texas Conference, South Central Jurisdiction (P.140);
(2) the 1967 Journal of the West Texas Conference of the Central Jurisdiction (P. 88);
(3) the 1967 Official Record of the Oklahoma-Texas Conference of the Evangelical and United Brethren Church (P.17); and
(4) other histories of Methodism in North Texas.

VIII. DAILY PROCEEDINGS

CLERGY EXECUTIVE SESSION

The Executive Session for the clergy members of the North Texas Annual Conference was opened at 4:00 p.m., Sunday, June 6, 1993, in the sanctuary of First United Methodist Church, Allen, Texas, with Bishop Bruce P. Blake presiding.

Bishop Blake called the session to order and invited John Thornburg to lead in singing "And Are We Yet Alive." Bishop Blake called on Paul Cardwell, answering his sixty-ninth annual conference roll call, to offer prayer.

Bishop Blake reported that the agenda would contain two items:
(1) action on the William Farmer issue from the 1992 Executive Session;
(2) report from the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Bishop Blake noted the increased size of the Executive Session due to action of the 1992 General Conference. Additional persons allowed to attend, including the lay observers to the Board of Ordained Ministry, have voice but not voting privileges; only the ordained clergy can vote on matters before the session.

Old Business

Bishop Blake reviewed the history of concern relating to Dr. William Farmer, beginning with the 1990 Executive Session of the Annual Conference and continuing to the present. During a reading of Question 17 at the 1992 Executive Session, the question was again raised concerning Dr. Farmer's entering into full communion with the Roman Catholic Church while continuing to hold United Methodist ministerial orders. Action was taken at a special session of the 1992 Executive Session, where a motion to terminate the conference membership of Dr. Farmer was approved.

Bishop Blake reported on subsequent events which occurred in accordance with due process. Written notice of the action of the Executive Session was delivered to Dr. Farmer who chose not to withdraw his conference membership nor to seek trial. Therefore, the recommendation from the special Executive Session of the 1992 Annual Conference was again before the Executive Session for consideration.

Howard Hedges presented a resolution as a substitute motion:

"Whereas, by his entering into full communion with our Christian sisters and brothers of Holy Cross Roman Catholic Church, William R. Farmer has initiated a discussion concerning the ministerial standards of the covenant community that is the North Texas Conference, and

"Whereas, brother and sister members of the North Texas Conference have diverse opinions concerning the appropriateness of his action, and

"Whereas, a thoughtful and considered case is made by some within the covenant of our annual conference that his action dilutes the integrity of annual conference membership through his simultaneous memberships in separate and divergent expressions of the one Christian faith, and

"Whereas, a significant number of the brother and sister members of the North Texas Annual Conference neither agree with this particular expression of his commitment to ecumenism, nor with the propriety of his having acted unilaterally to initiate this particular, high-profile witness without first soliciting the counsel and support in advance of his action from all his sisters and brothers in covenant as members of the North Texas Conference, and

"Whereas, 'Members in full connection with an Annual Conference by virtue of their election and ordination are bound in special covenant with all the ordained ministers of the Annual Conference. In the keeping of this covenant they perform the ministerial duties and maintain the ministerial standards established by those in the covenant.' (1992 BOOK OF DISCIPLINE, Para. 422, p. 222) And, the parameters of those standards, as they relate to the order and discipline of our church, in the minds of many, restrict an individual covenant member from amending those standards by initiating concurrent membership in another Christian covenant with whom United Methodists have historically had significant doctrinal differences, and

"Whereas, it being equally valuable to lift up the United Methodist Church's historic commitment to ecumenism, a thoughtful and considered case is made by others that his action represents a unique and timely opportunity for us to engage in a prophetic witness to the cause of Christian unity, and

"Whereas, God's grace within our midst empowers us to risk bold and innovative action in the cause of our theological task to act out our stated belief that 'The Lord of the Church is calling Christians everywhere to strive toward unity' (1992 BOOK OF DISCIPLINE, 'Our Theological Task,' 'Ecumenical Commitment,' p. 83), and

"Whereas, William R. Farmer, whose long-running prophetic witness for harmony across racial and ecumenical lines has been exemplary, and whose rich academic life in the church has firmly established his credentials as a New Testament scholar, has shaped his witness in the spirit of Disciplinary statements advocating Christian unity,

"Nevertheless and therefore be it resolved by this Executive Session of the North Texas Annual Conference that "We do now reaffirm our covenant unity and, in grace, embrace our brother William R. Farmer in his witness to the cause of Christian unity expressed when he entered into full communion with the Roman Catholic Church, and

"We view his initiative, within the context of our Annual Conference, as a distinct, unique and exceptional act that is neither intended to be, nor should be, interpreted as a particular example for others, and

"We invoke the blessing of God, as our brother in Christ, and covenant member of the North Texas Conference, continues on his ecumenically spirited mission. Within the context of that mission, we share and support his continued commitment to our United Methodist beliefs in the Ordination of Women and to a Celebration of the Eucharist that is open to all persons who long to receive the Sacrament, and

"We see the action of his dual witness within the one Church Universal, which is the body of Christ, and of which all followers of Christ are eternal members."

The Hedges substitute motion was seconded. Hedges then yielded the floor to Dr. Farmer for a statement. Following Dr. Farmer's statement, Bishop Blake called for discussion. Several members of the Conference spoke for or against the motion or had questions about the motion. Bishop Blake asked if the body was ready to vote. A motion to postpone the vote was defeated.

Order of the Day

John Ogden, Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, introduced the report, assisted by officers and division chairpersons: Doug Miller, Carol Woods, Jim Dorff, and Craig Emerick.

Brian Lee Hardesty and Jon Michael Eckstein were elected as Probationary Members and to Deacons Orders. They were presented to the Executive Session. Russell S. Floyd and Elzie D. Odom, Jr., were presented and had their orders recognized as Deacons. Russell S. Floyd was elected to Probationary Membership; Elzie D. Odom, Jr., as Student Local Pastor.

Those persons recommended for election as Members in Full Connection and for Elders Orders were presented to the Conference, and Bishop Blake read the historic disciplinary questions. Those elected individually were: Marsha G. Engle-McElyea, Philip Dean Hirsch, Donald Warren Lee, Pa Nous Pan, James Clifton Pierce, Kristie J. Noerrlinger Rosset, and Janice A. Virtue. John Ogden joined Bishop Blake in welcoming them into the Conference. Bishop Blake noted that Pa Nous Pan was the first Cambodian ever ordained in The United Methodist Church.

Stan Seat stated there needed to be another lay observer and two alternates appointed to the Board of Ministry. Craig Emerick moved approval of places of appointment beyond the local church: Terrell State Hospital and the Dallas Pastoral Counseling and Education Center. They were approved. Carol Woods moved approval of the legislative proposal "Establishing A Uniform Procedure for the Assigning and Training of Counseling Elders." It was approved. [LA1]

John Ogden announced the decision to increase scholarships to North Texas Conference candidates for ministry who are enrolled in United Methodist seminaries. Ogden moved approval of the Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry, excepting Question 17. It was approved.

Return to Previous Business

At 5:50 p.m. the Session returned to the previous issue. A question had been asked prior to the Order of the Day as to whether the Constitution of The United Methodist Church allows dual membership. Bishop

Blake explained the procedure necessary for him to make a ruling if this were a point of church law: A request would need to be presented in writing during the current session of the annual conference, and Bishop Blake would then have thirty days to render a decision which would, in turn, be reviewed by the Judicial Council.

Discussion continued with speeches for and against the Hedges substitute motion. After debate, Bishop Blake called for the vote. The Conference Secretary appointed tellers to assist in counting the vote. The vote on the Hedges substitute motion to become the main motion passed 117 to 113; vote was then taken on the main motion, and it carried.

The full report of the Board of Ordained Ministry was placed before the Executive Session, and, in reply to Question 17, "Are all the clergy members of the Conference blameless in their life and official administration?" the answer was "yes." The full report was approved.

Bishop Blake expressed hope that members of the North Texas Conference would now move forward in unity; he closed the session with prayer.

LAITY SESSION

Pat Deal, Conference Lay Leader, presided at the Laity Session. The 1993 Laity Session was hosted by the Board of Laity at Christ United Methodist Church in Plano at 4:00 p.m., June 6, 1993. Lay members of the annual conference were led in prayer and song before members of the Board of Laity were introduced. After a time of "structured fellowship," lay members were given orientation information about annual conference participation, including recognition and appreciation for their willingness to participate and their responsibility for reporting to the local church. They received a "Reporting Guide" to assist such reporting.

Discussion followed on legislative issues. After announcements concerning the June 9 Laity Celebration, Evangelism Workshops, and Episcopal Residence Open House, the meeting was closed with a hymn and prayer. All District Lay Leaders participated in the leadership of the meeting.

SUNDAY EVENING WORSHIP
A Service to Celebrate the Season of Advent

The service of worship was held at Custer Road United Methodist Church, Plano, Texas, at 7:30 p.m. Conference youth in the sixth through tenth grades who had been participating in the Conference Choir Camp assisted with the service through music and dramatic presentations.

Mark Craig, pastor of Custer Road UMC, welcomed the conference on behalf of the five United Methodist churches in Plano. Bishop Bruce Blake welcomed those in attendance and called attention to the theme of the worship services: "Through the Christian Year."

Bishop Blake welcomed Bishop Sharon Rader of the Wisconsin Annual Conference as the conference preacher. Bishop Rader's message challenged worshipers with the Advent question, "What are you waiting for?" as she affirmed that "the future we expect is the future we must work to make happen." The worship concluded with the celebration of Holy Communion.

MONDAY BUSINESS SESSION
June 7, 1993

The business sessions of the 1993 North Texas Annual Conference were held in the Plano Centre. The first session was called to order at 8:00 a.m. by Bishop Bruce P. Blake, President. Cynthia Wilson-Felder led the singing.

Bishop Blake asked the conference to pause for a time of prayer, remembering the ministry of Bishop Arthur Kulah, 1992 conference preacher, and the recent massacre of 300 refugees in the continuing civil war in Liberia.

Organization of the Conference

Assistant Secretaries: Ira Thompson, Millard Fairchild, Bill Upchurch, Ben Shinn.

Tellers: Head Teller, Glen Blackmon; Dallas Central: Leta Gorham, Kristie Rosset, Nancy Russell, Shirley Shed; Dallas-Denton: Jim Heath, Sue Ann Hill, Pam Holcomb, John Kay; Dallas-Northeast: Darrell Coats, Lisa Greenwood, Jacqueline Lee, Jim Malone; Dallas-South: Kory Knott, Pat Thresher, Woodrow Weilage, Dorcas Wynne; Paris-Sulphur Springs: Lucille Brooks, Brady Fisher, Ken Hamrick, Pat Sherman; Sherman-McKinney: Paula Aldridge, Jeff Garrett, Greg Neal, Oletta Williams; Wichita Falls: Earl Francis, J. A. Loftis, Larry Tinsley, Merwin Turner.

Memoirs Committee: Bill Stephenson, chair; Larry George, ex-officio; Lillian Sills.

Committee on Courtesy and Resolutions: Raymond Williams, chair; Jean Wood, Claire Cunningham, Judy Gilreath, John Taylor.

All were approved with a voice vote.

Registration

Larry George, Conference Secretary, informed the clergy and diaconal ministers that there were district personnel rosters with each District Superintendent. The rosters were to be checked for accuracy and used for registration. Lay members were asked to stand, and registration cards were delivered to them.

Agenda

Bill Crouch called attention to the agenda in the Conference Workbook. Crouch noted the addition of an Order of the Day at 4:45 p.m. on Monday when the Conference would be addressed by Bishop Norman Hudson of the Methodist Church of South Africa. Approval of the agenda was moved, seconded, and passed.

Bishop Blake made a special presentation on "Youth Ministry, the Threshold of the Evangelistic Task." Seven youth from across the annual conference were invited to share in the presentation. Bishop Blake made seven statements stressing the importance of youth ministry:

1. Youth ministry must have flexibility. Heather Cochran from Burkburnett related the variety of opportunities that led to her involvement in The United Methodist Church.

2. Youth ministry must be a relational. Keitha Sanders from Highland Hills United Methodist Church spoke of the importance of being invitational to family and friends.

3. Youth ministry allows, nourishes, and demands thinking. Emily Rooker from Blue Ridge related how youth ministry gave direction to her life.

4. Youth ministry is mission. Kyle Harpool from Krum told of participating in a variety of mission activities.

5. Youth ministry is an oasis of care in the wilderness of loneliness. Brooke Belcher from Bogata reflected on belief in God enabling belief in oneself.

6. Youth ministry is at heart a faith journey. Justin Jordan from Richardson spoke about the support of the church through youth ministry, particularly following the death of his father.

7. Youth ministry is an alternative peer group to a world filled with scary stuff. Richard Smith from Nueva Esperanza said that without the church, he would probably be in trouble, perhaps even in jail.

Bishop Blake pointed out that our task is to see youth know the church is "a place is for us."

Lay-Clergy Equalization

Larry George, Conference Secretary, moved approval of the Lay-Clergy Equalization schedule printed in the Conference Workbook; it was approved. [LA2]

South Central Jurisdiction

Ray Branton brought the report from the South Central Jurisdiction. He described the structure of the Jurisdictional Conference. The Jurisdiction is associated with three institutions: Lydia Patterson Institute, Mt. Sequoyah, and Southern Methodist University. Branton reported on work at all three institutions.

Branton also reported the special work among Korean congregations, under the leadership of Won Kie Kim who is working with Branton in this area. Also detailed were changes and activities in the Volunteers in Mission program.

Board of Ordained Ministry

John Ogden, Chair, introduced the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry. John Rosenberg reported for the Division of Continuing Education, noting the requirement for 2.5 CEUs and the availability of scholarships.

Pat Beghtel-Mahle introduced the following for Probationary Membership: Brian Lee Hardesty and Jon Michael Eckstein. Russell S. Floyd and Elzie D. Odom, Jr., were introduced as Probationary Members from other Christian denominations through the recognition of orders.

James Kirby, Dean, spoke about Perkins School of Theology and expressed appreciation for support of the Ministerial Education Fund. DeForrest Wiksten reported that scholarships for ministerial candidates enrolled in United Methodist seminaries would be increased from the current $45 per semester hour to $105 per semester hour. Students in non-United Methodist seminaries would still receive $45 per hour. Jim Pledger requested consideration of increasing the scholarship to $105 for North Texas Conference ministerial students in all seminaries. Wiksten responded that the matter had been considered, but the decision was to increase the aid only to those attending United Methodist seminaries.

Bill Crouch reminded the Conference of the continuing guidelines for the North Texas Conference on "Dealing with Clergy Sexual Misconduct."

The seven lay observers to the Board of Ordained Ministry, one from each district, were asked to stand.

Division of Diaconal Ministry

Jo Biggerstaff presented the report from the Division of Diaconal Ministries and pointed out the number and influence of diaconal ministers in the North Texas Conference. Biggerstaff recommended that Elvin Geiser be approved for the retired relationship after 40 years of service; it was approved. Biggerstaff also reported the following recommendations:

Leave of Absence: Jo Ann Blount (5); Royce Hardaway (5); Dorothy Holloman (5); Susan McConnell (3); Margaret Robinson (1); Espie del Rosario (3); Leslie Stanley Stevens (5); Janet Wiksten (4).

Certification:
As Associate in Youth Ministry - Natalie Woods
As Associate in Music - Philip Lee Seawell
As Minister of Music - Jack Treece Efird, Jr.

Jack Treece Efird, Jr.
Laura S. Rothe
Philip Lee Seawell.

Biggerstaff also recommended that Philip Lee Seawell be transferred to the Central Texas Conference, by his request. Individual votes were taken, and each was approved. The total report was received.

Episcopal Committee

In giving the report of the Episcopal Committee, Scott Smith, Chair, introduced Karen Blake and presented her with a check for Lydia Patterson Institute. Mrs. Blake expressed appreciation for the gift and for the opportunity to work with Lydia Patterson Institute.

Smith reported on the work of the committee regarding the reappointment of Bishop Blake to the North Texas Annual Conference at the Jurisdictional Conference in July, 1992.

Smith also reported on the work of the Episcopal Residence Committee. He detailed the action since the 1992 Session of the Annual Conference. Construction on a new house was begun in November, and the 3,500 sq. ft. house at 5841 Stone Meadow in Plano is now occupied by the bishop and his family.

Bishop Blake thanked the members of the committee for their work.

Elders' Sharing

Doug Miller, registrar, introduced the candidates for Elders Orders:

Donald Warren Lee, who spoke of a special relationship with a neighbor family that was influential in his coming to this milestone in his life;

Kristie Noerrlinger Rosset, who described how a trip to El Salvador influenced her call to ministry;

Philip Dean Hirsch, who recalled his youth mission work and spoke of his desire to have an inclusive, joyful ministry;

Marsha Engle-McElyea, who shared her faith journey, her love for her family and her love for her church, and the conflict she experienced when faced with decisions among them.

Elders Orders Candidate Marsha Engle-McElyea

Conference Staff

Bishop Blake called attention to the opportunity for restructuring staff of the annual conference. The Office of Pensions and Insurance is being combined with Administrative Services. This will provide a year to explore what the essential services are and whether one office can perform those services. The cabinet is involved in this study of structure and staffing; there are no predetermined models. The need for such a study was brought to light when the North Texas Conference became a single conference in 1988 and new patterns of responsibility needed to be clarified between conference staff and agencies and the episcopal office.

Following announcements, Don Benton offered a prayer of benediction for the morning session and thanksgiving for the noon meal.

Health and Welfare Luncheon

During the luncheon, Dudley Dancer presented speakers from four health and welfare institutions supported by the annual conference. The report was accompanied by "The UMW Singers Plus One," a musical group from Highland Park United Methodist Church.

Sybil Taylor, Golden Cross Chair, and Carole Somers-Clark, Chaplain at Methodist Medical Center, spoke about the work of Golden Cross.

Julian Thomas and Ken Durand spoke on the work of C. C. Young Home/Blanton Gardens, and Jerry Chapman and Joan Womack talked about the work of the Wesley Village.

Harold Burkhart brought the report of the Mission Home in San Antonio. Tom Strother and Jack Kyle Daniels spoke on the ministry of the Methodist Home, Waco, including work with twenty children from the Branch Davidian tragedy.

"UMW Singers Plus One," Highland Park UMC, Dallas

Jack Kyle Daniels, Administrator, Methodist Home, Waco

MONDAY AFTERNOON BUSINESS SESSION

Council on Ministries

Zan Holmes, Chair, introduced the report of the Council on Ministries, calling on Council members for detailed reports.

Jim Tarr, Division on Stewardship Chair, reported that United Methodists are 28th out of 30 denominations in per-capita giving. Tarr described the situation not as a money problem but as a faith problem. A three-year program is being presented to address this concern, and courses will be included in the CAFE workshops.

Tarr called attention to the report in the Conference Workbook and moved its adoption, including the amendment to the report:

> 1. Guide candidates for Diaconal Ministry in a study of Biblical concepts of stewardship, culminating in the development of a written Theology of Christian Stewardship statement. This statement shall include the candidate's understanding of Christian Stewardship as it applies to his or her discipline and area of ministry.

The motion was approved. [LA3]

John Peel, United Methodist Committee On Relief Disaster Response Coordinator, reported on the recent disaster at Wylie, Texas, when a tornado severely damaged the town. He expressed appreciation to Don Yeager, pastor of Wylie United Methodist Church, for his and the church's leadership in responding to this disaster. Yeager expressed thanks on behalf of the people of Wylie and members of his church, which sustained damage estimated at $25,000.

Scott Jones, Chair of the Division on Evangelism, spoke on a resolution regarding a "1993-1996 Process for Reaching the Unchurched." He called attention to the report in the Conference Workbook. Jo Biggerstaff presented an amendment to the resolution:

c. Offer "Invitational Teaching" workshops at strategic points throughout the districts for Sunday school teachers and pastors. Some resources for this purpose are available from Cokesbury and Discipleship Resources. CEF (Christian Education Fellowship) is one of the groups to which we will look for leadership developing additional appropriate resources for use in North Texas.

Jones accepted the friendly amendment; the program was approved. [LA4]

Victor Casad, Chair of the Commission on Camping and Retreat Centers, called attention to the new Abernathy Pool at Texoma. Casad expressed gratitude to Allan and Shirley Goldfield for their generous contribution to this pool. A special proclamation of appreciation was read and will be presented to the Goldfields. The proclamation was approved.

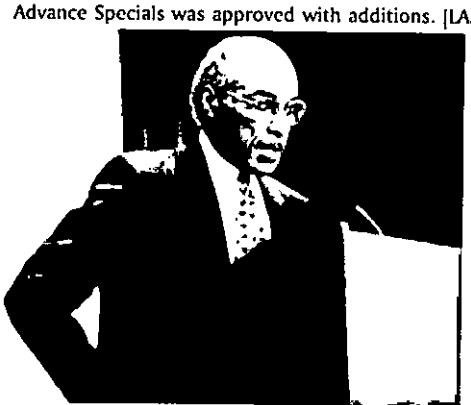
On behalf of the camping program and the emphasis on youth at this session of the annual conference, Casad presented Bishop Blake with a special poster celebrating the camping program.

Zan Holmes referred to the Conference Special Days in the workbook. He moved that the seven days with special offering be approved. They were approved. [LA4] Special Days without offerings were also approved. [LA4] Bruce Weaver, Chair of the Board of Global Ministry, recommended three additions to the list of Conference Advance Specials:

Under General Advance Special with Conference Support:
a. The Joseph Project, South Africa, Roger Hudson, Director
b. Russia Initiative-Extended Mission

Under Christian Unity and Interreligious Affairs:
Add Lake Texoma United Ministry

Bill Bryan moved that "Open Door Preschool" be added to Community Ministries. The list of Conference Advance Specials was approved with additions. [LA5]



Zan Holmes, Chair, Council on Ministries

Mary Brooke Casad, Commission on Communications and Resources

Mary Brooke Casad, for the Commission on Communication and Resources, reported on a new constitution for the United Methodist Communications Council of Texas and New Mexico, as printed in the Conference Workbook. She moved its approval; it was approved. [LA6]

Jerry Chapman, Chair of the Division of Health and Welfare, brought the report on "Wesley Village Financial Restructuring," printed in the Conference Workbook. He reviewed the financial history of Wesley Village and explained the request for forgiveness of the loan for $137,000 from the conference. It was approved. [LA7]

Joe Twellman, Chair of the Board of Church and Society, called attention to the BOOK OF RESOLUTIONS from the General Conference and a summary of the 1992 resolutions contained in a special report prepared and distributed to the members of the North Texas Annual Conference by the Conference Board of Church and Society.

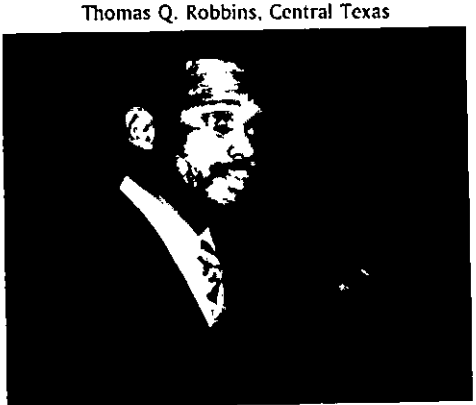
Georjean Blanton, Chair of the Commission on Religion and Race, presented the report, "Enabling Local Churches to be Agents of Reconciliation," in the Conference Workbook. She spoke to the continuing issue of racism and about the workshops and materials which will be offered. This was approved. [LA8]

Derrick Wright, Chair of the Commission on the Black Church, gave a report on the Ministerial Pension Plan Assistance printed in the Conference Workbook. Wright reported the recommended legislation as follow-up to action of the 1992 Annual Conference. Several amendments were proposed but defeated; the proposal was passed without amendment. [LA9]

Mary Brooke Casad, Chair of the Council on Ministries Budget Committee, presented the budget as printed in the Conference Workbook. She noted some editorial changes and moved its adoption; it was approved.

Casad expressed special appreciation to Zan Holmes for his leadership as Chair of the Conference Council on Ministries. Holmes asked that the Conference support the CAFE and YOUTH CAFE programs.

Bishop Blake recognized members transferring into the North Texas Conference:
Levy LaGuardia, from the Philippines
Thomas Q. Robbins, Central Texas



Derrick Wright, Chair, Commission on the Black Church

Ed Wheeler, Chair, Council on Finance and Administration

Council on Finance and Administration #1

Ed Wheeler, Chair of the Council on Finance and Administration, brought the report of the council. He noted the increase in payment of apportionments (from 92.9% in 1991 to 96.6% in 1992).

Gary Regan moved to amend B.2.b to read:
"except for those currently appointed associate pastors who may receive the supplement through 1995 if they should continue in their current appointment."

The motion was seconded and passed; "Recommended Goals" from the Conference Workbook were approved.

Diaconal Sharing

Diaconal Candidate Philip Seawell

Diaconal Candidate Laura Rothe

Jo Biggerstaff introduced the three diaconal candidates:

Philip Seawell, who recounted some "distractions" which had to be overcome on his faith walk;
Laura Rothe, who heard the call to be a "missionary through music;"
Jack Treece Efird, Jr., who looks forward to fulfilling his call to be a choir director.

Bishop Norman Hudson

Charles Stovall, Pastor, Camp Wisdom UMC, Dallas

Bishop Blake introduced Bishop Norman Hudson of The Methodist Church in South Africa. Bishop Hudson spoke about the Joseph Project, coordinated by his son Roger, and thanked the Conference for support. He explained that the project was named after the Old Testament figure Joseph who saved the people from starving.

Bishop Hudson detailed the violence in South Africa and offered examples of the depth of commitment in the Christian community there. He described work with multi-racial "geographic" circuits as one means of being on their "Journey to a New Land" of faithfulness.

Bishop Blake invited Charles Stovall to close the session with a prayer.

MONDAY EVENING WORSHIP
A Service to Celebrate the Season of Christmas

The service of worship was held at Custer Road United Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m. Worshipers gathered during the singing of Christmas carols. Choirs for the evening were from the Wichita Falls District and First United Methodist Church, Duncanville; special music was offered by the Wichita Falls District Handbell Choir.

The celebration included an interpretation of the traditional Christmas Posada. Scriptural texts were Genesis 1:26-31, 2:7 and Luke 1:26-38. Bishop Sharon Rader's sermon used the person of Mary and the Bishop's own experience of visiting a Palestinian refugee camp in Bethlehem as means for reminding worshipers of the "Joy and Judgment" of God's self giving.

The service concluded with candlelight and the singing of the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah."

TUESDAY MORNING BUSINESS SESSION
June 8, 1993

Cynthia Wilson-Felder led in singing appropriate hymns celebrating the Epiphany. Diana Holbert and Tim McLemore assisted in worship; Bishop Blake reviewed the agenda for the day.

Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry

Robert Hasley, Chair of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, asked the campus ministers to be recognized, and they were presented to the conference:

Richard Jones, University of North Texas
Terry Sparks, Texas Women's University
Randy Newkirk, East Texas State University
Bob Lee, Midwestern University
Judith Cooper, Paris Junior College
John Besse, East Texas State University
Philip del Rosario, Dallas County Community Colleges
Greg Ligon, Southern Methodist University

Hasley introduced Bishop Ben Oliphint, executive officer of the Texas United Methodist College Association. Oliphint spoke of his work among the seven universities and colleges in Texas, reporting that all are well run, doing well financially, and have outstanding goals.

Mary Preas presented the North Texas Conference Merit Scholarship to Sidney Walker, who will be going to Wylie College. Gloria Walker, mother of Sidney, accepted the scholarship on behalf of her daughter who was attending summer school at the college.

Texas Methodist Foundation

Bishop Blake introduced Tom Locke, new President of the Texas Methodist Foundation, who is replacing Charles Laing. Locke spoke to the conference about the growth of the Foundation under Laing's leadership.

Trustees

Merger of Poetry and Elmo, in the Dallas South District;
Merger of Shady Grove and Tinney Chapel, in the Paris-Sulphur Springs District; Merger of Brashear and Miller Grove,in the Paris-Sulphur Springs District.

The report was accepted.

Nominating Committee

Don Barnes, Chair of the Conference Nominating Committee, offered updates and corrections to the report of the Nominating Committee as it was printed in the Conference Workbook and recommended that further editorial changes be authorized to reflect changes in district representation.

Bishop Blake announced that vote would be taken for election to the Nominating Committee of one clergy person and one layperson by their respective bodies. Barnes reminded the conference of those clergy and laity who were not eligible for election due either to their already serving on the committee or their having just rotated off.

Gary Regan and Jan Wiksten raised questions regarding the lack of clergy spouse representation on the Clergy Housing Committee. Barnes responded that those nominations are made through the districts.

Barnes moved the adoption of the report; it was approved. Barnes reminded conference members of the importance of the Nominating Committee forms for both laity and clergy. Tellers were asked to distribute the forms and the first ballot for the Nominating Committee. Pat Deal urged the conference to be aware of the need for inclusiveness. Lay and clergy ballots were taken.

Elders' Sharing

Elders Orders Candidate Pa Nous Pan

Elders Orders Candidate Janice Virtue

Pat Beghtel-Mahle presented the following Elders who addressed the conference:

Pa Nous Pan, who spoke of his faith journey from being a Buddhist priest to becoming the first Cambodian ordained in The United Methodist Church;
Janice Virtue, who used the image of a quilt in reflecting on her call to ministry;
James Pierce, who shared through the song "To God Be the Glory."

The Laity Address

Pat Deal, Conference Lay Leader, gave the Laity Address. All people in all places and in all times are called by God to service. She said the Board of the Laity is meeting regularly to offer training to meet its goals. She called attention to the evaluation forms about this conference which would be distributed.

Pat Deal gives Laity Address.

Bishop Blake presides over conference.

Deal discussed what it means to empower the laity. "We are called to let our lives be an example, to let God work through us. We need to take ourselves seriously so the world will take us seriously. The Holy Spirit works through us, and we can accomplish our task with the help of the Holy Spirit."

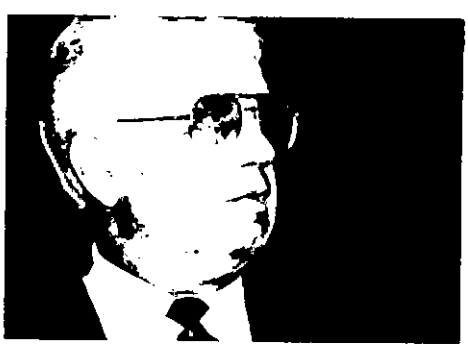
Retiring Clergy

Stan Seat presented the following retiring clergy to the conference.

Eldon Chester said he had been a Methodist all his life and is anticipating retirement as merely entering into a new relationship with joy and thanksgiving;

William Childers spoke about his experiences in the ministry, detailing his years as a chaplain in the US Navy;

Eldon & Bobbye Chester



William Childers

Lois Cooper discussed the stirring deep within her that led to her call to ministry, a call which has seen windows opened every time doors have been closed;

Doug Hoke said he while he was never appointed to where he wanted to be, he always wanted to be where he was appointed;

Lois Cooper

Douglas Hoke

William McElvaney spoke on the amazing grace that had allowed him the privilege of being in ministry as a pastor, an administrator, and a teacher;

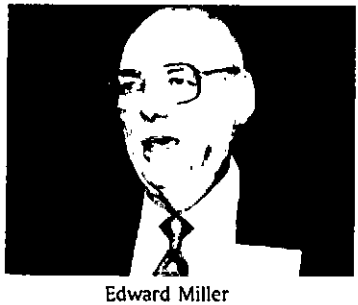
Jack McNabb expressed thanks for the thirty-eight years of service to God as a pastor in the North Texas Conference and spoke about his work as counseling elder;

William & Fran McElvaney

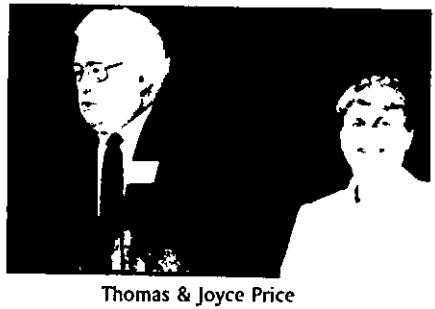
Jack McNabb

Ed Miller talked about his life-long association with the Methodist Church and expressed thanks for the privilege of baptizing babies, confirming children, performing weddings, sharing in funerals, and proclaiming the message of Christ;

Thomas Price talked about the joy of sharing the gospel, which includes events both unique and hilarious;



Edward Miller

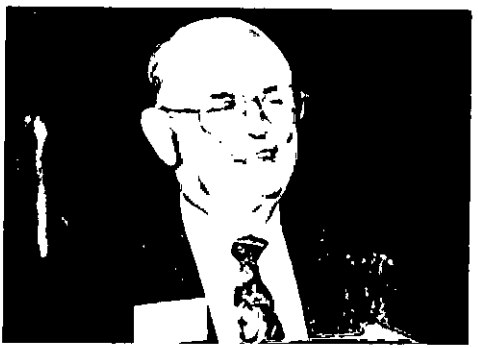


Thomas & Joyce Price

John Rentfro shared his joy in forty years of ministry, in the Texas and Central Texas Conferences and then in the North Texas Conference;

William T. Stephenson called attention to the support of his family and the members of the covenant community as he said that instead of singing "The Party's Over," we should sing "Awake, Awake."

John & Ethel Rentfro



William Stephenson

Jo Biggerstaff presented Elvin Geiser, retiring diaconal minister, who spoke about his rewarding ministry as a church administrator.

Bishop Blake read the results of the first Nominating Committee ballot and, there being no elections, called for the second ballot.

Bishops Ben Oliphint and Monk Bryan were introduced to the conference. John Taylor introduced Anita and Sam Arayah who are working at Munger Place United Methodist Church in establishing a Hispanic ministry. Taylor recommended that the North Texas Conference through the Conference Secretary send collegial greetings to Bishop Joe Wilson and the members of the Central Texas Conference, meeting concurrently in Waco; it was approved.

The Memorial Service
A Service to Celebrate the Seasons of Lent and Easter

Participants in the service were Milton Guttierez, Larry George, Betty Watson, David Collette, Kathleen Baskin, Ouidja Meyers, and several lay readers. The conference sang "Hymn of Promise," written by Natalie Sleeth.

The extinguishing of candles in the manner of a brief Tenebrae Service and lighting of candles in a Service of Light provided the liturgy for the service. As Larry George, Conference Secretary, read the names of those being remembered, a rose was placed on an altar by one of the persons being ordained elder. At the reading of each name, persons who had shared closely the life and ministry of each pastor or spouse were invited to stand in respectful and grateful remembrance.

Persons memorialized were clergypersons George Henry Mood; David B. Davis; G. William Jones, Jr.; Walter N. Vernon, Jr.; Herman Pryor Williamson; and spouses Imogene Harris Cade, Frances Lowrey Cook, Lena Mae Kirby, Mary Buford LaPrade, Sally Beene Martin, Marye Jo Milner, and Elizabeth Sampson Quillian.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON BUSINESS SESSION

Constitutional Amendments

Bishop Blake reminded members of the conference that constitutional amendments must be ratified by members of the annual conference. Each annual conference must vote and submit the results to the General Conference Secretary who will tally the denominational results.

Bill Crouch presented the nineteen proposed amendments, offering a brief statement of explanation for each one. Questions were raised regarding the meaning of the word "status" in Amendment I. A question was also raised with regard to the rationale for changing "minister(s)" to "clergy."

Crouch noted that in Amendment XV, the following needed to be added: "These reserve clergy and lay delegates to the Jurisdictional or Central Conferences act as reserve delegates to the General Conference when it is evident that not enough reserve delegates are in attendance at the General Conference."

A single ballot was taken, allowing for separate voting on each of the proposed constitutional amendments.

Results of the second Nominating Committee ballot were announced. There being no election, another ballot was taken.

John Taylor introduced Bishop Eugenio Poma from the Iglesia Metodista en Bolivia. Bishop Blake invited him to address the conference.

Bob Hasley introduced the Vice-Chancellor of Africa University, John Wesley Kurewa, and his wife, Gertrude. Kurewa addressed the conference, thanking members for their support and inviting them to the April, 1994, official opening of Africa University.

Head Teller Glen Blackmon verifies voting totals.

Larry George, Conference Secretary, and Assistant Ira Thompson record conference proceedings.

Ministries Mart

As a part of the afternoon agenda, members of the conference were encouraged to visit the Ministries Mart. The result of voting on the constitutional amendments was reported: [LA11]

Pensions

Don Underwood brought proposals and recommendations from the Conference Board of Pensions and Insurance:

1. The Board of Pensions requests an apportionment of $320,000 for the Comprehensive Protection Plan for 1994. It was approved. [LA12]

2. Recommendation: That an amount equal to 100% of the pension including gifts and grants from the Perkins Fund received by a retired minister, during the year of 1994, be and is hereby designated as a rental-housing allowance. It was approved. [LA12]

3. Recommendation: That the pre-1982 Service Year Rate for 1994 be $343 for both Full Members and Local Pastors. [LA12]

4. Recommendation:

1. Under Paragraph 1607 of the 1992 BOOK OF DISCIPLINE that the 1994 Annual Past Service Deposit of $1,260,000 be funded through the apportionment of $1,050,000. It is the plan of the Board of Pensions to fully fund the Annual Past Service Deposit through apportionments within the next five years.

2. That after 1994 Special Deposits of $250,000 be terminated which will complete legislation as approved at the 1990 Session of Annual Conference.

Questions were asked for clarification, and Don Underwood and Stan Seat responded. After discussion, the recommendations were approved. [LA12] Underwood noted that the Board of Pensions is an advocate for each member of the conference, and he emphasized the importance of paying the pensions apportionment.

Southern Methodist University

A. Kenneth Pye, President of Southern Methodist University, addressed the conference. He reported a good year at SMU, noting some changes in the curriculum and and increase in minority student enrollment to 17 percent. He discussed financial aid, pointing out that 71 percent of the students receive some kind of financial aid. Pye also reported the restructuring of the university's long-term debt and the election of a new Board of Trustees.

Nominating Committee Elections

Bishop Blake reported that both lay and clergy members had been elected to the Nominating Committee:

Lay: Raymond Williams
Clergy: Jim Ozier

Clergy Housing

Joan Gray LaBarr brought a report for Charles Harper from the Clergy Housing Committee. Although there was no legislative proposal to be considered, a draft will be completed by January, 1994, and sent to the districts. The proposals will be examined and information returned to the committee. The legislation will be revised and ready for action in 1994. It will deal with four areas: Parsonages, Furniture, Moving Costs, and Housing Allowances. Data from the 1991 survey will be used.

Mike Haynes moved "that Bishop Blake and the cabinet, consulting with additional agencies as needed, will study the feasibility of reducing the number of districts in the North Texas Annual Conference from seven to six. The study will take into consideration the special needs of transitional neighborhoods and a possible time-table for redistricting. The cabinet will report its recommendations to the 1994 Session of the Annual Conference." The motion was seconded and passed.

Standing Rules

Fred Durham, Chair of the Committee on Standing Rules, presented the report. Durham reminded conference members of 1992 action to reduce membership on the boards, commissions, and committees of the annual conference by one third. He called attention to the report in the Conference Workbook and noted the following changes:

Page 60, line 13, add: "The new Standing Rule 3 will take effect with the election of officers at the 1994 session of the Annual Conference."
Page 68, line 22, delete the words "and the chairpersons."

Durham moved that these changes be approved. They were approved. Jo Biggerstaff moved the following:

Page 64, Line 31, add, "The Board (of Diaconal Ministry) shall consist of twenty three (23) members." The amendment was approved.

United Methodist Publishing House

Thalia Matherson and Sam Albright brought a report on the work of the United Methodist Publishing House. Matherson reported on new materials available. Albright thanked the conference for supporting the new store on Preston Road. A check in the amount of $8,789.12 was presented to Bishop Blake for the clergy pension fund.

Bishop Blake asked Pat Deal to close the session with a prayer.

TUESDAY EVENING WORSHIP
A Service of Ordination and Consecration Celebrating the Season of Pentecost

The Service of Ordination and Consecration was held in the sanctuary of Custer Road United Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m., June 8, 1993. Pre-service music was led by Cynthia Wilson-Felder. The evening's choirs were from Hamilton Park United Methodist Church and Custer Road United Methodist Church.

Bishop Bruce Blake conducted the service, assisted by John Ogden, Carol Woods, Pat Beghtel-Mahle, Jo Biggerstaff, J. Richard Wilson, William C. Crouch, and Pat Deal. Bishop Blake's sermon was titled "Ministry: A Step or Rope Ladder." Recalling the biblical story of Jacob and the ladder, Bishop Blake pointed out that Jacob did not climb the ladder but saw the messengers of God ascending and descending. The Jacob story led the Bishop to make three affirmations about the nature of God and the call to ministry:

- God comes to us in unilateral power;
- God comes to us with a ministry of reconciliation;
- God comes to us offering a new identity.

Bishop Blake reflected that "ordained and consecrated ministry is not climbing a ladder but believing that God has come to us at this time in our life."

Those ordained Deacon were John Michael Eckstein and Brian Lee Hardesty. Those whose orders as a Deacon were recognized were Russell S. Floyd and Elzie Delano Odom, Jr.

Those consecrated as Diaconal Ministers were Jack Treece Efird, Jr.; Laura S. Rothe; and Philip Lee Seawell.

Diaconal Candidate Treece Efird

Elders Orders Candidate James Pierce

Those ordained Elder were Marsha Gail Engle-McElyea, Philip Hirsch, Donald Warren Lee, Pa Nous Pan, James Clifton Pierce, Kristie Jan Noerrlinger Rosset, Janice A. Virtue. Those retiring at this session of the annual conference assisted in passing the mantle of service, the cup of compassion.

Retiring clergy and diaconal ministers and those just ordained or consecrated and their spouses were honored at a reception following the service.

WEDNESDAY BUSINESS SESSION
June 9, 1993

Cynthia Wilson-Felder opened the session by leading "Spirit Song." Ouidga Meyers and Richard Stark led in worship.

The Committee on Nominations was recognized for two information items:

There is a vacancy in the Division of Older Adult Ministries.

A nomination made earlier from the floor of Angela Strickland to the Clergy Housing Committee was in error as the nominee must be a clergyperson.

Don Barnes, Chair of the Nominating Committee, moved the nomination of Mark Craig to the Texas Wesleyan University Board of Trustees. The nomination was approved.

Bishop Blake reminded conference members of the Open House at the new episcopal residence following the afternoon evangelism workshops.

Lydia Patterson Institute

Socorra DeAnda, President of Lydia Patterson Institute, reported on work at the Institute and expressed appreciation to the conference for its support of LPI. She reported on a new vision for Lydia Patterson Institute and thanked Karen Blake and Don Renshaw for their work on the Board of Trustees.

Standing Rules

Fred Durham continued the report from the Standing Rules Committee. Bishop Blake reminded the conference that any changes through amendments would require a simple majority to pass, but a two-thirds vote is required to adopt the entire report.

Jan Wiksten, referring to the report in the Conference Workbook, page 66, line 14, moved "that the words 'from one (1) to three (3)' be changed to 'up to three (3).'" The amendment was accepted.

In response to a question about the chairs of the boards and agencies, the following addition was made to the report: Page 60, line 4, add "The chairperson is in addition to those making up the agency."

Wiksten raised a question about the longer description of youth ministry when there was no similar explanation of other programs and agencies. Durham explained that every other agency is described in the BOOK OF DISCIPLINE. Youth Ministry is not described and therefore necessitated the description in the Standing Rule. Wiksten requested that such an explanation be included in the Standing Rule.

Boyd Sawyer and Don Barnes each moved amendments to page 68 of the report; both were defeated.

John Thornton proposed an amendment to the Clergy Housing Committee, "that the committee be composed of 18 members, a lay representative, and a clergy or clergy spouse from each district, one of whom shall be the chairperson of the District Committee on Church Location and Building, and a representative from the Cabinet, and three persons as at-large representatives. Special attention will be given to representation from small membership churches, rural churches, ethnic churches, associate pastors, and clergy spouses." The motion was seconded, and Thornton spoke to the motion. Jan Wiksten moved a substitute amendment; the substitute failed. Vote was taken on the Thornton amendment, and it was approved.

John Ogden, referring to page 63, line 40 of the report, noted that the recommendation would cut the size of the Board of Ordained Ministry in half which was not feasible in view of the Board's work load. Ogden moved "that the Board continue at 58 members." The Ogden amendment was seconded and approved.

David Rucker made a motion pertaining to the Board of Ordained Ministry and was asked to clarify the wording before having the motion considered by the body.

Beverly Brooks, referring to the Commission on Insurance on page 71, moved an amendment of "no less than fifteen (15) members, plus two trustees." The amendment was seconded. Jean Wood moved a substitute amendment of "seventeen (17) members, including two trustees." The substitute was seconded. Sammy Hargrove moved an amendment to the substitute: "twenty (20) members, including two trustees." The Hargrove substitute amendment passed.

A motion to table the report failed. Don Renshaw moved adoption of the full report as amended, allowing for the Standing Rules Committee to "fine tune" where necessary. The motion was interpreted to mean that debate was closed.

Scott Jones, who had been recognized earlier in the debate, moved "that the changes in membership of the Committee on Clergy Housing take effect at the close of the 1993 Annual Conference." It was approved, and the report was adopted. [LA13]

Commission on Insurance

Larry Ravert, Chair of the Commission on Insurance, called attention to the "Change in Plan Design of the Conference Insurance Program" in the Conference Workbook. He moved that the report be adopted. [LA14] In response to questions, Stan Seat, provided the following information for clarification: "On page 38, line 16, add this sentence: 'The fully integrated Medicare "Carve Out" Plan will always be secondary coverage subject to Medicare being primary coverage.' And on line 22, change 'or' to 'and.'" The report was adopted. [LA14]

Ravert presented the following resolution:

WHEREAS: the Rev. Dr. Stanley F. Seat has served effectively and faithfully for four years; and

WHEREAS: Dr. Seat has given sound leadership to the Commission on Insurance guiding it though losses, changes, struggles and to its present sound financial status; and

WHEREAS: Dr. Seat has shown remarkable knowledge and empathy with those laity and clergy seeking insurance claims; and

WHEREAS: He has guided the Insurance Commission in making prudent and wise decisions concerning the medical needs of the Plan for all United Methodists involved in the North Texas Insurance Plan;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED: that the Commission on Insurance join the North Texas Annual Conference in Session on this ninth day of June, 1993, to:

A. Express genuine appreciation to Dr. Stanley F. Seat for his diligence and genuine support; and

B. Wish him well in his new assignment.

The resolution was approved.

Commission on Equitable Salaries

John Tatum, Chair of the Commission on Equitable Salaries, presented the report on Equitable Compensation as printed in the Conference Workbook. Attention was called to page 44, line 17, regarding an amendment made at the 1992 Annual Conference pertaining to mileage allowance during a seminary internship. Tatum stated that the intent of the commission was not to make any changes; therefore, the amendment remained in effect. Bishop Blake ruled that the 1992 Rucker should be incorporated into this legislation in the JOURNAL.

Tatum moved approval of the report; it was approved. [LA15]

Council on Finance and Administration #2

Ed Wheeler, Chair of the Council on Finance and Administration, presented the final report from CF&A. He called attention to the report in the Conference Workbook, "Recommended Apportionments," and noted that the Annual Conference has no jurisdiction over Sections A & B. Wheeler moved the adoption of Section IV. It was approved. [LA16]

Wheeler moved "that during the remainder of the 1993 budget year as well as for the 1994 budget all conference agencies participating in the staffing alignments in cooperation with the Bishop be granted authority to make appropriate changes in each respective budget to accommodate the realignments; that such budget changes based on both unapportioned and apportioned fund (not to exceed the total proportioned by the Annual Conference), when appropriate, be recommenced to the Council on Finance and Administration; and that the Council assemble a composite report of these budget changes in 1994 for Annual Conference in preparation for setting the 1995 apportionments." It was approved.

Resolutions

Fred Winslow offered the following resolutions:

Subject: Long Range Planning and Capital Funds Drive for Bridgeport Conference Center

Resolution: The North Texas Conference direct the Camping and Retreats Commission (1) to develop a long range plan exploring these recommendations (which Winslow detailed), and others they deem necessary; (2) to investigate the possibility of a Capital Funds Drive to finance this project, and (3) to report their recommendations to the 1994 Annual Conference.

Action: The resolution was approved. [LA17]

Subject: Computer Software Compatibility among Local Churches, Districts, and the Annual Conference

Resolution: That the Council on Finance and Administration (1) create a task force that would study software and networking needs among local churches, districts, and the Annual Conference with an emphasis on assisting the local churches with the communication of data to the connectional church, and (2) report their recommendations to the 1994 Annual Conference.

Action: The resolution was approved. [LA18]

Subject: Creation of the Position of Conference Registrar

Resolution: That the Board of Ministry and the Board of Diaconal Ministry create a task force to study the creation of a position of registrar in the North Texas Annual Conference.

Amendment: Bill Crouch moved an amendment to "delete 'the creation of a position of Registrar in the North Texas Conference' and replace it with 'the staffing needs of professional ministry in conjunction with cabinet's ongoing study of conference staff requirements.'" Winslow accepted the amendment.

Action: The resolution was approved as amended. [LA19]

Conference Concerns

Bishop Blake asked pastors of the young people who assisted him in his presentation Monday to come to the platform to receive a United Methodist tee-shirt to be delivered with appreciation to each of the youth participants.

Bishop Blake reported Bob May, retired clergy, in CCU at Presbyterian Hospital, Winnsboro, and Dorothy Hollomon's husband, Richard, in the Veterans' Administration Hospital. Bishop Blake also reported to the conference the death of the father of Bishop William Oden of Louisiana. Bishop Blake led in prayer.

Bishop Blake reported that he had received a written request to rule on the decision made by the clergy in Executive Section concerning one of their members. The Bishop's ruling must be made within thirty days and then reviewed by the Judicial Council. Both the request and the ruling are required to be printed in the Conference JOURNAL.

Journal Committee

Bill Upchurch reported for the Journal Committee that the minutes for annual conference sessions through Tuesday were an accurate record of the proceedings. Upchurch moved that the conference secretaries be authorized to approve the additional minutes of the annual conference. It was approved.

1994 Session

Bill Crouch moved that the 1994 Annual Conference session be held in the Plano Centre and Custer Road United Methodist Church. The motion was approved. Ministers and lay members of the Plano churches were asked to stand that the conference might express appreciation to them for their hard work.

Courtesy and Resolutions

The Committee on Courtesy and Resolutions presented the following resolution which was approved:

WHEREAS: the North Texas Annual Conference has met June 6-9, 1993, in Plano, Texas, at the Plano Centre, Custer Road United Methodist Church, First United Methodist Church of Allen, and Christ United Methodist Church in Plano, and celebrated the theme "Called To Be Evangelists: Making a World of Difference;" and

WHEREAS: Bishop Blake, beginning his second quadrennium of episcopal leadership as our resident bishop of the Dallas Area, has provided this annual conference session with energetic, visionary teaching and preaching, and caring guidance of our business sessions; and has graced our conference session through his invitation of Bishop Sharon Rader of the Wisconsin Conference as our conference preacher, and of Bishop Norman Hudson of South Africa for a special presentation;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: that members of the North Texas Annual Conference join together in giving thanks for God's Spirit that has empowered this conference session, and in offering heart-felt appreciation to Bishop Blake, Bishop Rader, the Cabinet, the officers, directors and staff of conference agencies, those responsible for reports and legislation presented to the conference, the staff of Plano Centre, the Agenda Committee, the Worship Committee led by Cynthia Wilson-Felder for providing music and liturgy in creative worship services celebrating the seasons of the Christian year, John Miles and W. James Cowell for their leadership of the district training day at the conclusion of our session, and especially to our hosts, the United Methodist churches in Plano and Allen;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: that as we go forth from this place we will recognize our call to be evangelists and with God's help we will witness to our faith with such love and enthusiasm that we will make a world of difference.

Worship and Sending Forth

The 1993 Session of the North Texas Annual Conference was adjourned with "A Service of Reaffirmation of the Baptismal Covenant" prior to the reading of appointments.

Bishop Blake, assisted by the seven District Superintendents, announced the appointments and assignments of professional ministry personnel for the coming year. Bishop Blake pronounced the benediction.

Afternoon Workshops

Following district and laity luncheons, special presentations were offered for the "District Day" training event on the theme of "Reaching the Unchurched." The first presentation was by W. James Cowell, pastor of Hilltop United Methodist Church in Sandy, Utah, on "How to develop a context for evangelism for welcoming and reaching out." John Miles, pastor of St. James United Methodist Church in Little Rock, Arkansas, led the second workshop on "How to be evangelistic in every aspect of the church's life."

ADDENDUM TO THE DAILY PROCEEDINGS

Written notice delivered to Bishop Bruce P. Blake, resident Bishop of the Dallas Area, President of the North Texas Annual Conference:

"Subsequent to the decision of the 1993 Clergy Session held on June 6, 1993, and pursuant to Article VII of Division Three of 'The Constitution' of the 1992 BOOK OF DISCIPLINE, as presiding Bishop and Conference President of the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church, the following clergy members in full connection request that you make an episcopal decision on the question of law concerning the matter of William R. Farmer. Therefore, it is our request that such episcopal decision be based on the dual membership of William R. Farmer being both a clergy member of the North Texas Conference and a full-communion lay member of the Roman Catholic Church, and as that membership constitutes 'disobedience to the Order and Discipline of the United Methodist Church.'

"It is understood that this request and your subsequent episcopal decision will be recorded in the daily proceedings of the 1993 Session of the North Texas Conference and such episcopal decision be made before the end of such session. Also, it is understood that the episcopal decision shall not be authoritative, except for the pending case, until such episcopal decision has been passed upon by the Judicial Council. It is requested that you, as presiding Bishop and Conference President, petition the Judicial Council under Paragraph 2616.2 (J) on your episcopal decision. In closing, it is our prayer that such episcopal decision be made in the best interest of both William R. Farmer, the North Texas Conference, and the United Methodist Church."

EPISCOPAL RULING
MADE BY BRUCE P. BLAKE
PURSUANT TO REQUEST RECEIVED JUNE 9, 1993

The meaning of membership for all United Methodist Christians in THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE (Para. 208 - Para. 215) includes loyalty to the United Methodist Church. The meaning of loyalty is clarified in Para. 230.1 (c), 2, Para. 241, Para. 242 with explicit provisions for transfer and withdrawal without consent for persons who join another denomination.

The meaning of conference membership for ordained elders in full connection (Para. 422, Para. 425) is based on the meaning of membership for all United Methodist Christians but is more explicit in stating approval and support of church government and polity. The meaning of approval and support is clarified in Para. 426.1, 2, Para. 427.3, 4, 5, Para. 453.2 with explicit provisions for transfer and withdrawal for full members who join another denomination.

It is clear that the assumption of all paragraphs in THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE is that a person can be a member of only one denomination, whether referring to local church lay membership or annual conference ordained membership. This assumption is woven through the Constitution as a distinctive characteristic of United Methodist organization, polity and connection. United Methodist membershhip is set apart and distinct from membership in other denominations.

Therefore, 1) an elder in full connection in The United Methodist Church, who has joined the Roman Catholic Church and is in full-communion with the Roman Catholic Church, is in disobedience to the Order and Discipline of The United Methodist Church (Para. 2623.c), and 2) the action of the North Texas Conference in Clergy Session June 6, 1993 that Dr. William Farmer is blameless in his life and official administration (Para. 704.4, Para. 705.6) is illegal.

SUBJECT: ESTABLISHING A UNIFORM PROCEDURE FOR THE ASSIGNING AND TRAINING OF COUNSELING ELDERS

FROM: The Board of Ordained Ministry

BACKGROUND: In the past an uncertain and ambiguous situation has existed in terms of who assigns Counseling Elders. Both the Division of Preparations and Qualifications and the Division of Local Pastors have need of a trained and available supply of Counseling Elders. At various points in time, it has been the District Superintendents who have assigned Counseling Elders. At other points in time, it has been the Division of Local Pastors who has made Counseling Elder assignments. At still other points in time, each division has made their own assignments independent of the other. And at other points in time, the assigning role has been carried out by some or all of these entities in such a way that the right hand did not know what the left hand was doing.

This proposal provides for clear and unambiguous lines of authority and communication: the Cabinet recommends a roster of Counseling Elders to the Board of Ordained Ministry; the Board of Ordained Ministry is then responsible for the approving, training, and assigning of these Counseling Elders. The BOM's candidacy registrar will function as the Board's training and assigning officer, in consultation with the appropriate District Superintendent in each case. In such a manner the Candidacy Registrar, as the Counseling Elder training and assigning officer for the Board of Ordained Ministry, will be the sole clearinghouse for Counseling Elder supply.

LEGISLATION: That the Candidacy Registrar of the Division of Preparations and Qualifications function as the training and assignment officer of the Board of Ordained Ministry relative to all Counseling Elders.

SUBJECT: RESOLUTION ON STEWARDSHIP EMPHASIS

FROM: Division on Stewardship, Board of Discipleship,

BACKGROUND: THE CHALLENGE OF CHOICE MAKING IN OUR TIMES: We live in a time crying for stewardship. Multiple challenges face us. Choices related to stewardship need to be made in many critical areas: use of natural resources, preservation of endangered species, availability of holistic health care, adequate and safe waste disposal, clean air and water supplies, economic priorities, and personal and corporate/public spending.

Planning for a viable future is being done amidst contracting resources and requires that new choices - enhancing rather than diminishing life - be made. Corporate and public leadership is being challenged to reflect new values which move beyond self and shareholder interest and into the common good. We need to help cause a conversion in attitudes about values and money.

Yet the Church with its message of covenantal responsibility between God, creation,and human action seems slow to embrace a stewardship ethic as being a part of corporate life and the personal lives of church members. When the word "stewardship" is used, it has been reduced to mean "raising the budget" without giving adequate personal reference to covenantal decision-making. The church needs to help members understand and implement positive goals in earning, spending, saving, giving and use of time.

RESOLUTION: The North Texas Conference authorizes the Conference Council on Ministries to enter into a three year stewardship emphasis program for the years 1993-1996 that will develop and utilize all resources possible through the following areas:

1. Congregations
2. Pastors
3. Laity
4. Conference Staff and Agencies

This resolution will be under the direction of the Conference Council on Ministries and with leadership from the Division of Stewardship. Other agencies and interests will lead and participate according to their responsibilities and planned programs.

STATEMENT OF NEED: OUR CURRENT SITUATION

Ours is a complex, pluralistic, rapidly changing environment. Diversity and change often make it difficult to achieve the vision of the church.

Any comprehensive stewardship strategy needs to be part of, complement, and enhance this larger effort. It also needs to acknowledge real situations, see the challenging opportunities in these situations and offer viable responses based in the fuller meaning of stewardship.

THE LOCAL CHURCH

1. Within a congregation, members and constituents are at different points in their stewardship development. Everyone will not respond to one particular process or program of stewardship cultivation.

> The opportunity: discover and provide a variety of different approaches to help everyone in their stewardship development.

2. Many churches are perceived by members and nonmembers as "unresponsive" to changing needs, goals, and values of persons. Many, especially those in the baby-boom generation, ask first what the church is doing for its members and others. Commitment is made differently. Many local churches view their members as "resources" to keep the church alive rather than viewing the church as the major resource for the lives of its members.

> The opportunity: help churches become fully responsive to persons' needs, goals, and values while remaining faithful to the Gospel, which often challenges more than it comforts.

3. Many clergy lack the perspective, the theology, the skills and desires required to lead congregations toward generous stewardship.

> The opportunity: provide training and resources for clergy to develop the theology and the leadership skills which are required for stewardship development.

THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

1. The North Texas Conference has placed responsibility for the many components of stewardship in variety of agencies. The Conference Council on Ministries provides resources, training and leadership development for local congregations. The Board of Ordained Ministry trains pastors. The Board of Church Extension develops new congregations. While the present structure can provide needed resources, training, and leadership development, it is not designed to do so in a comprehensive fashion. This results in piecemeal and partial rather than comprehensive stewardship development.

> The opportunity: develop and implement comprehensive plan which unifies and provides an umbrella under which all components and stewardship can operate in the period 1993-1996.

2. Many congregations struggle for their very survival. When survival dominates a church's life and its leaders' thinking, creativity can be stifled, morale diminished, innovation squelched. A faithful and effective ministry and mission can be blocked.

> The opportunity: create new ministry and stewardship models which will enable a move beyond a survival mode and which will generate alternative resources for the church.

3. United Methodists in the North Texas Conference are caught in the major value conflict of our time, i.e., the conflict between Christian teachings about faithful, wise and responsible stewardship of the gifts God entrusts to us, and the current cultural emphasis on status and acceptance derived from the accumulation of possessions.

> The opportunity: find a variety of ways that provide ongoing stewardship cultivation help based on a solid theological and biblical foundation, to the churches of the conference, which can assist their members to grow in faith and help them deal with materialistic societal pressures.

4. People today have more options than ever before as they search for churches and other organizations and systems that can fill their need for commitment to something beyond themselves. In this increasingly competitive environment, the United Methodist Church (along with other mainline denominations) has moved from its former position at the center of family and community life to the margins of society. The church finds itself having to compete for persons' time and money. The North Texas Conference attempts to compete while hampered by less than adequate resources and strategies available to itself and by the insufficient use of the resources it can offer to local churches.

The opportunity: formulate a Conference Stewardship Strategy that takes this reality into account, finds effective ways to address it, and views it as an opportunity for new ministry and mission.

STRATEGY: AN EMPOWERING RESPONSE

The local churches and the North Texas Conference can gain from envisioning and strategizing. While we learn as individuals and as the church to live out a lifestyle as good stewards, we generate a vitality which brings about more effective ministry and mission in our commitments and in the world.

The implementation of the following processes will give direction to make the vision a reality.

A STEWARDSHIP STRATEGY FOR THE LOCAL CHURCH

I. CONGREGATIONS

Every congregation is encouraged to have:

A. An emphasis on developing personal and corporate lifestyles that name and practice values grounded in scripture and responsiveness to the Holy Spirit.

B. Earth and resource care through the use of environmentally sound management practices and procedures in the home, the church, and the community.

C. A time and talent emphasis which recognizes the discovery of spiritual gifts and expertise, provides a talent base for use by the Committee on Nominations and Personnel; and nurtures the development of people's gifts, talents, and service.

D. An identifiable and separate person or committee on Stewardship which is responsible to the Administrative Board/Council with a linking person to the Finance Committee. (As provided by the Discipline.) This could be the lay person responsible in a small congregation for nurture - outreach and witness.

E. Settings where people share their experiences about their relationships with God, the way these relationships are being lived in daily life and the effect these relationships are having on them.

F. A strong Stewardship program built into the education program of the local church beginning with early childhood through the many stages of adulthood with intentional training in Stewardship for teachers. An emphasis on tithing will be included.

G. A yearly financial stewardship campaign that is a part of a continuing three year design. This should be done with an emphasis on growth in personal stewardship, engagement in ministry and mission as well as operational and United Methodist connectional needs.

H. An ongoing educational emphasis on personal and family financial management, including help in making good value choices.

I. A program of stewardship emphasis and orientation for each new member and family when they join.

J. An endowment program to receive gifts of accumulated assets including an educational program dealing with deferred giving of accumulated assets through wills, bequests, trusts, etc. Develop an active endowment promotion committee.

K. An emphasis upon teaching proportionate giving and tithing as a symbol of personal relationship with God and as ways to participate in co-creation with God.

L. A church budget that reflects wise and effective use of resources that include outreach and mission concerns annually.

II. PASTORS

Clergy is challenged to increase their stewardship knowledge as:

A. Candidates for Elders present a Theology of Stewardship Statement, a local church plan for Stewardship development and a reading list that has been used in development of their statement.

B. Every Pastor within every three-year period, takes a minimum of one continuing education unit in Stewardship to be completed and reported to the Charge/Church Conference.
C. Pastors serve as a Stewardship educator and role model to children, youth, adults, new members through ministerial practices and in worship experiences.

III. LAITY

All laity is urged to participate in stewardship education and to support their congregations by encouraging:

A. A plan by which an increasing number of members enroll yearly in a basic course for training in the theology and practice of Stewardship.
B. Certified Lay Speakers to take an Advance Lay Speaker course to equip them in Stewardship.
C. Key lay persons to provide training and witness for new members in Stewardship of time, talent, prayers, and money, and include basic financing planning.
D. Plans which incorporate new and less active members into the life and ministries of the congregation.

IV. CONFERENCE STAFF AND AGENCIES

The following persons and agencies are encouraged to be involved:

The Bishop

1. Become familiar with the stewardship emphasis.
2. Endorse and promote the stewardship emphasis through influence the cabinet, annual conference and published comments.
3. (The Bishop approved and endorsed this program April 12, 1993)

The Cabinet

1. Develop a method for assessing stewardship training and skills of pastors, and match pastors possessing stewardship skills to churches needing stewardship development.
2. Keep stewardship as a high priority.
3. Be diligent in the stewardship of Missional Assistance Funds, by looking at models for helping churches to become self-supporting, by combining and/or discontinuing churches realistically to minimize use of Equitable Salary funds.

District Superintendents

1. Work with pastors and congregations to encourage development of stewardship committees and long-range stewardship program.
2. Encourage pastors to receive stewardship training - at least one unit (10-12 hours) every three years as continuing education in conference or district workshops or in seminaries.
3. Strive for some "model churches" in each district.
4. Provide programs in stewardship training in the "District Days."

Staff

1. Act as resource persons on stewardship for District Councils on Ministries and local churches.
2. Work with seminaries in the office of Continuing Education and the Board of Discipleship to create Stewardship courses and training events for pastoral candidates, ordained clergy and laity.

Texas Methodist Foundation

1. Provide educational workshops on wills, trusts and bequests.
2. Encourage and help local churches to set up endowment programs, and promotion committees.
3. Help develop planned giving, current and long-term gifts, for local churches and conference agencies.

Board of Pensions

1. Encourage and provide resources for local churches to have a health maintenance/insurance plan, e.g., stewardship of health for employees.

Board of Ordained Ministry

1. Guide candidates for Elders through the process of writing a Theology of Stewardship Statement as well as a local church plan for Stewardship development and to review the reading list use in developing such a statement.
2. Develop Continuing Education programs
3. Provide financial planning seminars for clergy and spouses.

Board of Diaconal Ministry

1. Guide candidates for Diaconal Ministry in a study of Biblical concepts of stewardship, culminating in the development of a written Theology of Christian Stewardship statement. This statement shall include the candidate's understanding of Christian Stewardship as it applies to his or her discipline and area of ministry.

Conference Council on Ministries

1. Undertake and nurture, coordinate and carry out, monitor and refine the emphasis as it is put into practice.
2. Provide stewardship workshop opportunities for training pastors and laity.
3. Coordinate the lay speaker's program throughout the conference to include components on stewardship. Recruit spokespersons who can articulate the value of good stewardship.
4. Provide resources for Nominations and Personnel Committees in local churches, i.e., leadership nurturance and time and talent databases.
5. Develop a listing of important scriptures on stewardship.
6. Publish a list of literature and visual aids that are helpful for local congregation stewardship leaders.
7. Develop series of articles for conference publications
8. Develop a suggested profile of a "model church" in the stewardship emphasis.
9. Encourage use of the stewardship emphasis through United Methodist Women, Methodist Men, work areas and committees.

Board of Church and Society

1. Provide leadership in environmental concerns through identifying concerns and problems.
2. Publicize resource materials for districts and congregations.

Board of Global Ministries

1. Provide opportunities for people to participate globally with their time, talents and monies.
2. Provide anecdotal stories of God's stewards in a variety of global cultures.
3. Continue to provide interpretive materials with opportunities for giving and sharing globally.
4. Provide interpretative materials regarding long and short term missionary opportunities.

SUGGESTIONS ON THE PROFILE OF A MODEL CHURCH ON STEWARDSHIP

1. The full meaning of stewardship and how a Christian responds is emphasized throughout the year.
2. Every new member receives an orientation on stewardship and is given an opportunity in the first 30 days to make specific commitments in service, attendance and resources.
3. The church budget reflects special concerns for others in ministry, missions and giving.
4. There is an approved endowment fund and an active volunteer team working year round to help people understand and practice stewardship of accumulated assets through bequests and planned gifts.
5. An educational program on stewardship is developed and used annually for Sunday school classes (adults, youth, children) and all operating units in the church. Information will be shared on stewardship resources through the connectional church of literature, videos, and training opportunities.

6. Stewardship emphasis is part of sermons throughout the year.
7. Stewardship success is reflected in the willingness of members to serve and to use their talents in a Christian manner. Actions in the church show that people are learning the joys of giving.
8. Funds are available to accomplish the mission and ministries of the church.
9. A model stewardship church will have educational programs that help people understand and make appropriate choices related to issues of use of natural resources, economic life style and visions of mission and ministry. There will be recognition of the fact that stewardship is a result of spiritual formation and growth. The challenge to tithe is a part of the educational program.

SUBJECT: 1993-1996 PROCESS FOR REACHING THE UNCHURCHED

FROM: Division on Evangelism, Board of Discipleship

BACKGROUND: The North Texas Annual Conference has accepted God's call to reach unchurched persons for Christ as our priority the last seven years. Even though we have worked diligently, we must confess we have fallen short.

The Division on Evangelism of the Board of Discipleship wishes to respond to the needs of local congregations with regard to the task of reaching the unchurched. It seeks the support of the North Texas Conference in initiating a three-year process which will help churches as they reach the unchurched for Jesus Christ.

While the Division has a major responsibility for this kind of project it is clear that cannot be accomplished by the Division on Evangelism alone. Critical to our Conference's plan for reaching the unchurched is the Division's cooperation with the other Divisions of the Board of Discipleship, the Conference Council on Ministries, the Bishop and Cabinet, and other agencies within the conference.

Several key principles are foundational for this undertaking. First, changing ourselves so that we are effective in reaching the unchurched is a long-term process that will take a number of years. Second, since local congregations are the primary places where unchurched persons are reached for Christ, the focus needs be on them. Third, the role of the Division is both to provide help to local congregations so they can carry out their task of reaching the unchurched and to connect together local congregations for ministries broader than those which they could carry out on their own.

RESOLUTION: The North Texas Conference authorizes the Division on Evangelism to enter into a three-year evangelism process during 1993-1996 to support local congregations as they reach the unchurched. The process will focus on the following six areas:

1. Development of Leaders to Reach the Unchurched
2. Training of Laity to Share Their Faith
3. Renewal of Worship
4. Invitational Preaching
5. Communication with the Unchurch Through Mass Media
6. Ministry of Prayer

1. Development of Leaders to Reach the Unchurched The Division on Evangelism will train laity, diaconal ministers and clergy to lead evangelism programs in their local churches.

a. Offer a variety of training workshops at the Conference, District, cluster, and local church levels in consultation with the District Superintendents and other Conference agencies.
b. Utilize Conference staff and other consultants in local congregations to evaluate systems of reaching and receiving.
c. Include articles in the Conference newspaper to highlight success stories in local churches.
d. Recognize churches that are successfully reaching the unchurched.
e. Offer workshops that teach what we know about the unchurched and new strategies to reach them.

2. Training of Laity to Share Their Faith The Division will provide training for lay persons which will enable and encourage them to share their faith experience with other persons:

a. Promote Faith Sharing (Discipleship Resources video/book) as widely as possible and train pastors to implement it.
b. Make available a variety of other resources for use in local churches.

3. Renewal of Worship The Division on Evangelism will provide – or work with appropriate persons or agencies to provide – opportunities for connecting local congregations in corporate worship to share excitement about the mission God has given us;

a. Hold evangelism rallies during 1993 and plan similar opportunities for 1994-1996.
b. Cooperate with the Division on Worship to offer suitable workshops and consultation for pastors, musicians, and worship leaders.

4. Invitational Preaching and Invitational Teaching: The Division on Evangelism will offer – or work with appropriate agencies or persons to offer – opportunities to gain expertise on preaching in an invitational manner:

a. Offer "Preaching for Response" workshops to support the training efforts of District Superintendents.
b. Develop small groups facilitated by trained leaders to bring together pastors to strengthen their preaching for invitation.
c. Offer "Invitational Teaching" workshops at strategic points throughout the districts for Sunday School teachers and pastors. Some resources for this purpose are available from Cokesbury and Discipleship resources. CEF (Christian Educators Fellowship) is one of the groups to which we will look for leadership in developing additional appropriate resources for use in North Texas.

5. Communication with the Unchurched Through Mass Media The Division will work with appropriate agencies to initiate new ways of communicating with the unchurched through the media:

a. Develop a media campaign throughout the conference during March 1994 to invite unchurched persons to attend a United Methodist Church. Simultaneously, materials will be provided to local congregations to use as a part of this campaign.
b. Utilize the 800 number in the Conference Council on Ministries office to provide the names and addresses of local United Methodist congregations to inquiring persons.
c. Provide partial funding for churches to produce a 10 minute video tape with Open Door Ministries aimed at presenting their church's story to first-time visitors and the unchurched in their communities.

6. Ministry of Prayer The Division will provide opportunities for both private and corporate prayer to undergird the work of individual churches:

a. Seek to involve all pastors during the two weeks preceding Lent to pray daily for themselves, their congregations, and other congregations in the Conference in the task of reaching the unchurched.
b. Develop and distribute resources to every local church during the first two weeks of Lent to attempt to involve family units in daily prayer concerning the task of reaching the unchurched.

SUBJECT: NEW CONSTITUTION

FROM: United Methodist Communications Council of Texas and New Mexico

BACKGROUND: The Communications Council amended its constitution and corporate charter February 3, 1993. The purposes of the constitutional changes were to:
- Streamline the Council's basic governance document.
- Clarify and strengthen the Council's role in governance of The United Methodist Reporter by spelling out organizational details in separate bylaws.
- Allow the Council to adapt its organization and structure quickly meet communications ministry needs in the annual conferences of Texas and New Mexico.

The resulting document is much shorter than the one the annual conferences of Texas and New Mexico last ratified in 1987. Major changes include:
- Elimination of sections spelling out specific organizational details concerning duties of Council officers, committees, steps for calling meetings, structures for subsidiary operating units and election of staff members. Those details are now covered in separate corporate bylaws.
- Elimination of subsections about travel expenses and meeting space from Section VI (Finances). These topics are now covered in the corporate bylaws.
- Addition of a third task to Subsection B of Section II (Purpose): "Presenting the United Methodist witness on legislative and social issues to state and local government officials in Texas and New Mexico as well as the public at large. This task will be carried out in consultation with the bishops assigned to annual conferences in Texas and New Mexico."
- Addition of Section IV (Organization and Structure) allowing the Council to spell out its organization and structure in corporate bylaws.

To complete the Council's governance modifications, the amended constitution needs to be ratified by majority vote in two-thirds of the annual conferences that own the Council.

This constitution was first adopted in 1969. It was amended in 1972, 1978, 1982 and 1987.

LEGISLATION: The United Methodist Communications Council recommends the following amended constitution to the annual conferences of Texas and New Mexico for ratification during their 1993 sessions.

I. NAME: The name of this organization shall be the United Methodist Communications Council of Texas and New Mexico Inc., hereafter referred to as the Council.

II. PURPOSE: The purpose of the Council shall be to envision, foster, coordinate and oversee cooperative programs and communications of the United Methodist Church in Texas and New Mexico. Functions within this purpose shall include:

A. Trustee oversight of the publication, editing and fiscal integrity of The United Methodist Reporter, a weekly newspaper, and its subsidiary operations.

B. Envisioning and implementing programs and communications strategies that the seven annual conferences determine may be carried out more effectively together than separately. This function may include, but is not limited to:

1. Fostering more effective use of communications media by annual conferences, local churches and church agencies in Texas and New Mexico.

2. Developing and coordinating ongoing strategies to enhance United Methodism's public image through relations with secular mass communications media in Texas and New Mexico.

3. Presenting the United Methodist witness on legislative and social issues to state and local governmental officials in Texas and New Mexico as well as the public at large. This task will be carried out in consultation with the bishops assigned to annual conferences in Texas and New Mexico.

III. MEMBERSHIP: Membership of the Council shall be drawn equally from the seven United Methodist annual conferences in Texas and New Mexico and shall include:

A. The bishops assigned to preside over those annual conferences.

B. Each conference's Communications Committee Chairperson.

C. Each conference's Council on Ministries Director.

D. The chairperson of the UMR Governing Board if that person should come from a conference outside Texas and New Mexico, without vote.

IV. ORGANIZATION AND STRUCTURE: The Council may elect such officers, establish such oversight bodies and create such operating units as it may deem necessary to serve its purpose. The Council may adopt corporate bylaws to spell out its organization and structure.

V. OWNERSHIP: The Council and each of its subsidiary parts are wholly owned by the seven annual conferences of the United Methodist Church in Texas and New Mexico and are answerable to them.

A. The Council and its subsidiary parts may not be sold, transferred or terminated except by vote of two-thirds of the annual conferences. Each unit within the Council shall have authority to buy and sell property as needed to maintain its existing functions.

B. Should any subsidiary unit or division of the Council cease to exist, all of its real and acquired assets shall be divided among the remaining units of the Council, provided, however, that the United Methodist Reporter Foundation (a separate non-profit corporation) may provide in its own articles or bylaws for an alternative distribution of its assets upon dissolution.

C. Should the entire Council or its successor(s) cease to exist, all of its real and acquired assets shall be proportionately divided among the United Methodist annual conferences of Texas and New Mexico.

VI. FINANCES: Each operating unit of the Council shall be designed to have its own budgetary integrity. Any proposed new function requiring fiscal support from the annual conferences shall first be approved by the Council and then presented by each conference's Council members to the appropriate annual conference agencies for consideration.

VII. AMENDMENTS:

A. Amendments to this Constitution, and the creation or amendment of Bylaws, may be adopted at any regular meeting of the Council, provided notice of such amendments is sent to each member of the Council at least one month prior to the meeting at which such amendments are to be voted upon. The vote required to adopt amendments to this Constitution or changes to the Council bylaws shall be two-thirds of those present and voting, provided that a quorum is present.

B. Amendments to the Council Constitution shall also be ratified by majority votes in two-thirds of the annual conferences of the United Methodist Church in Texas and New Mexico.

SUBJECT: WESLEY VILLAGE FINANCIAL RESTRUCTURING

FROM: Division on Health and Welfare, Board of Global Ministries

BACKGROUND: Wesley Village, a system institution of the United Methodist Retirement Homes of North Texas, Inc., has a long and involved history. The North Texas Conference has addressed its situation on several different occasions in recent years.

In December 1989, Sulphur Springs Loan and Building offered a three year note for 'temporary financing' in the amount of approximately $2,059,000 at an interest rate of 7% renewable every six months. This note has been extended until June 9, 1993.

Wesley Village must now seek permanent financing. Sulphur Springs Loan and Building has indicated its willingness to provide this financing if the long term indebtedness to C.C. Young Memorial Home and the North Texas Conference is addressed to bring about a positive capital position.

Appropriate agencies within the North Texas Conference have recommended the forgiveness of a June 7, 1989 loan of $103,695 now valued at $136,724. C.C. Young Retirement Home has adopted a resolution stating its willingness to forgive whatever portion of its approximately $470,000 loan is necessary to accomplish this. Wesley Village's March 31, 1993 balance sheet indicates this would be approximately $250,000.

If a positive capital position can be achieved, Sulphur Springs Loan and Building has agreed to provide permanent financing by purchasing tax-free bonds at an interest rate of 6%. This will enable a lower interest rate for Wesley Village without negatively impacting Sulphur Springs Loan and Building. The City of Denison has agreed to issue the bonds on behalf of Wesley Village.

Occupancy at Wesley Village has been between 90-95% for 6 months. The forgiveness of long term indebtedness by the North Texas Conference and C.C. Young Memorial Home should allow Wesley Village to continue to show the positive monthly cash flow it has been experiencing for the past 6 months.

LEGISLATION: The North Texas Annual Conference Division of Health and Welfare proposes and recommends to the Board of Global Ministries, The Conference Council on Ministries, and the Conference Council on Finance and Administration, that the North Texas Conference forgive the debt of Wesley Village to the United Methodist Retirement Homes of North Texas.

The original amount of said loan was $103,695.00, and the current balance of the loan is $136,724.00, as interest has accrued but has not been paid for some time.

This debt forgiveness is part of a master plan to restructure the finances of Wesley Village in order to secure permanent mortgage financing.

SUBJECT: ENABLING LOCAL CHURCHES TO BE AGENTS OF RECONCILIATION

FROM: COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

RESOLUTION: As Christians we have a Biblical mandate to a ministry of reconciliation that affirms the worth and value of all persons. Our understanding of the goodness of God's creation teaches us that our human diversity is a gift. Racism is a denial of the goodness of creation and is, therefore, a sin.

The Commission on Religion and Race, joined with the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee , the Committee on the Black Church, Asian Ministries, Hispanic Ministries and the Board of the Laity, seek to encourage local churches to be agents of reconciliation in overcoming the sin of individual, institutional and societal racism.

WHEREAS racism plagues and cripples our growth in Christ, inasmuch as it is antithetical to the Gospel itself (para. 72, BOOK OF DISCIPLINE);

WHEREAS it is our responsibility to join with God in creating a society that is free from personal and institutional racism;

WHEREAS not all areas of the North Texas Conference are racially diverse, nevertheless demographic information indicates a rapid increase in the racial and ethnic population within the geographic boundaries of the North Texas Annual Conference;

WHEREAS very volatile and violent public events both nationally and locally have brought to current awareness the severity of racial tensions that still exist in our communities and our nation;

WHEREAS the Church has a responsibility to respond to the need for peacemaking and to provide leadership in being abut racial justice;

WHEREAS the most enduring and effective means of overcoming racism are those which touch persons in local congregations;

WHEREAS every congregation, regardless of ethnicity and cross-racial experience, can benefit from addressing the issues of racism in a Christian context;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED THAT EACH CONGREGATION IN THE NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE:

Shall provide an opportunity for the laity of that church to participate in an intentional experience in overcoming racism. The Commission has designed a Workshop on Racism and compiled a bibliography of appropriate resources. Commission members are available for facilitating the workshop as well as for advising clergy and laity in the use of workshop materials.

DESIRED IMPLEMENTATION: That the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church, meeting in Plano, Texas, on June 6-9, 1993, move toward becoming a more inclusive church that resists individual and institutional racism by adopting this resolution.

SUBJECT: MINISTERIAL PENSION PLAN ASSISTANCE

FROM: Colleen Hager, Chairperson of the Commission on Asian Ministries, Georjean Blanton, Chairperson of the Commission on Religion and Race, Derrick R. Wright, Chairperson of the Commission on the Black Church, Sheron Patterson, Chairperson of the Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns, and Paul L. Escamilla, Chairperson of the Committee on Hispanic Ministries

BACKGROUND: The responsibility for the payment of pastoral pensions by congregations or employing agencies was instituted in 1982 when the conference initiated a self-funded plan Ministerial Pension Plan. However, while congregations or agencies are responsible for payment of pastoral pensions, pastors bear the consequences when those payments are not made. Such arrearages are matters of missional concern and may, therefore, become matters for Missional Assistance from the Conference Board of Global Ministries. The sponsors of this legislation raise this concern due, in part, to the fact that many of the churches involve are ethnic churches.

The following legislation is designed to address the concerns expressed in last year's legislative action:

> "that the Conference Board of Pensions and Commission on Insurance make a study and document those churches that are not paying pensions and insurance in full and (a) report to the Bishop and Cabinet who can appeal to fellow clergy to underwrite the pension and insurance shortfall, and (b) present to the 1993 Session of the Annual Conference legislation to assure that pensions and insurance are preserved for all ministers to whom they are due." (p.129, 1992 Journal)

LEGISLATION: The North Texas Conference will implement the following actions to ensure that the pastors of the North Texas Conference are provided the pension coverage they deserve:

1) The District Superintendents and Board of Pensions will initiate an educational program to encourage all congregations to provide Ministerial Pension Plan payments for their pastoral appointees. To accomplish this, the Pensions and Insurance Officer will regularly provide a list of congregations currently in arrears to the appropriate District Superintendents and the Board of Pensions so they can work with them to develop strategies to take responsibility for their Ministerial Pension Plan payments.

2) The Bishop will appoint a task force to provide leadership for a special project to provide coverage for those pastors whose Ministerial Pension Plan would otherwise remain unpaid by their congregations. The fund will be established by the Council on Finance and Administration. Requests for assistance will originate with the Cabinet and be approved by the Board of Global Ministries.

District Superintendents and pastors within the conference will make special efforts to secure money for this project prior to September 30, 1993 to provide assistance for those congregations who have pastors with 1992 arrearages. Requests for assistance will originate with the Cabinet and be approved by the Board of Global Ministries.

3) An additional Missional Assistance apportionment in the amount of $20,000 will be added to provide assistance for those congregations who have pastors with 1993 arrearages. Requests for assistance will originate with the Cabinet and be approved by the Board of Global Ministries. This is intended to be a one year apportionment and its continuation will be justified on a year-by-year basis.

SUBJECT: PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

FROM: 1992 General Conference, Carolyn M. Marshall Secretary

BACKGROUND: During the 1992 General Conference, action was taken on nineteen (19) Proposed Constitutional Amendments. They are now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote. This is in accord with ¶62, Article I, which reads:

> Amendments to the Constitution shall be made upon a two-thirds majority of the General Conference present and voting and a two-thirds affirmative vote of the aggregate number of members of the several Annual Conferences present and voting, dept in the case of the first and second Restrictive Rules, which shall require a three-fourths majority of all the members of the Annual Conferences present and voting. The vote, after being completed, shall be canvassed by the Council of Bishops, and the amendment voted upon shall become effective upon their announcement of its having received the required majority.

LEGISLATION: Proposed Constitutional Amendment - I

On May 15, 1992, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Louisville, Kentucky, the following Constitutional Amendment was made by a recorded vote of 680, yes; 189, no. It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In Division One, Paragraph 4, Article IV, insert the word "status" in two places.

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶4 would read:

Inclusiveness of the Church.–The United Methodist Church is a part of the - Church Universal, which is one Body in Christ. Therefore all persons, without regard to race, color, national origin, status, or economic condition, shall be eligible to attend worship services, to participate in its programs, and, when they take the appropriate vows, to be admitted into its membership in any local church in the connection. In The United Methodist Church no conference or other organizational unit of the Church shall be structured so as to exclude any member or any constituent body of the Church because of race, color, national origin, status, or economic condition.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment - II

On May 11, 1992, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Louisville, Kentucky, the following Constitutional Amendment was made by a recorded vote of 882, yes; 34, no. It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In Section II, Paragraph 12, Article I..I, change "ministers" to "clergy."

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶12, Article I.I would read:

The General Conference shall be composed of not less than 600 nor more than 1,000 delegates, one half of whom shall be clergy and one half lay members, to be elected by the Annual Conferences. The Missionary Conferences shall be considered as Annual Conferences for the purpose of this article.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment - III

On May 11, 1992, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Louisville, Kentucky, the following Constitutional Amendment was made by a recorded vote of 884, yes; 21, no. It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In Section II, Paragraph 14, Article III, change "ministerial" to "clergy."

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶14, Article III would read:

The General Conference shall fix the ratio of representation in the General, Jurisdictional, and Central Conferences from the Annual Conferences, Missionary Conferences, and the Provisional Annual Conferences, computed on a two-factor basis: (1) the number of clergy members of the Annual Conference and the Missionary conference, and (2) the number of church members in the Annual Conference and the Missionary Conference, or Provisional conference shall be entitled to at least one clergy and one lay delegate in the General Conference and also in the Jurisdictional or Central Conference.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment - IV

On May 15, 1992, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Louisville, Kentucky, the following Constitutional Amendment was made by a recorded vote of 802, yes; 25, no. It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In Section III, Paragraph 18, Article IV, change "ministers" to "clergy."

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶18, Article IV would read:

The General Conference shall not do away with the privileges of our clergy of right to trial by a committee and of an appeal; neither shall it do away with the privileges of our members of right to trial before the church, or by a committee, and of an appeal.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment - V

On May 12, 1992, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Louisville, Kentucky, the following Constitutional Amendment was made by a recorded vote of 727, yes; 31, no. It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In Section IV, Paragraph 23, Article III, change "ministerial" to "clergy."

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶23, Article III would read:

The General Conference shall fix the basis of representation in the Jurisdictional Conferences; provided that the Jurisdictional Conferences shall be composed of an equal number of clergy and lay delegates to be elected by the Annual Conferences, the Missionary Conferences, and the Provisional Annual Conferences.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment - VI

On May 14, 1992, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Louisville, Kentucky, the following Constitutional Amendment was made by a recorded vote of 792, yes; 123, no. It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In Section IV, Paragraph 25, Article V.4, change "ministers" to "clergy."

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶24, Article V.4 would read:

To determine the boundaries of their Annual Conferences; provided that there shall be no Annual Conference with a membership of fewer than fifty clergy in full connection, except by the consent of the General Conference; and provided further that this provision shall not apply to Annual Conferences of the former Evangelical United Brethren Church during the first three quadrenniums after union.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment - XIII

On May 14, 1992, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Louisville, Kentucky, the following Constitutional Amendment was made by a recorded vote of 843, yes; 75, no. It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In Section VII, Paragraph 35, Article I, change "ministerial" and "minister" to "clergy."

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶35, Article I would read:

The Annual Conference shall be composed of clergy members as defined by the General Conference, together with a lay member elected by each charge, the diaconal ministers, the conference president of United Methodist Women, the conference president of United Methodist Men, the conference lay leader, district lay leaders, the president or equivalent officer of the conference young adult organization, the president of the conference youth organization, and two young persons under twenty-five (25) years of age from each district to be selected in such manner as may be determined by the Annual Conference. In the Annual Conferences of the Central Conferences, the four-year participation and the two-year membership requirements may be waived by the Annual Conferences for young persons under twenty-five (25) years of age. Such persons must be members of The United Methodist Church and active participants at the time of election. Each charge served by more than one clergy shall be entitled to as many lay members as there are clergy members. The lay members shall have been for the two years next preceding their election members of The United Methodist Church and shall have been active participants in The United Methodist Church for at least four years next preceding their election.

If the lay membership should number less than the clergy members of the Annual Conference, the Annual Conference shall, by its own formula, provide for the election of additional lay members to equalize lay and clergy membership of the Annual Conference.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment - XIV

On May 14, 1992, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Louisville, Kentucky, the following Constitutional Amendment was made by a recorded vote of 841, yes; 63, no. It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In Section VII, Paragraph 36, Article II, change "Ministerial" and "ministers" to "clergy."

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶36, Article II would read:

The Annual Conference is the basic body in the Church and as such shall have reserved to it the right to vote on all constitutional amendments, on the election of clergy and lay delegates to the General and the Jurisdictional or Central Conferences, on all matters relating to the character and conference relations of its clergy members, and on the ordination of clergy and such other rights as have not been delegated to the General Conference under the Constitution, with the exception that the lay members may not vote on matters of ordination, character, and conference relations of clergy. It shall discharge such duties and exercise such powers as the General Conference under the Constitution may determine.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment - XV

On May 14, 1992, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Louisville, Kentucky, the following Constitutional Amendment was made by a recorded vote of 830, yes; 62, no. It is now presented to the Annual Conference for vote.

In Section VII, Paragraph 37, Article III, change "ministerial" to "clergy" and add the following sentence:

These reserve clergy and lay delegates to the Jurisdictional or Central Conferences act as reserve delegates to the General Conference when it is evident that not enough reserve delegates are in attendance at the General Conference.

If voted and so declared by.the Council of Bishops, ¶37, Article III would read:

The Annual Conference shall elect clergy and lay delegates to the General Conference and to its Jurisdictional or Central Conference in the manner provided in this section, Articles IV and V. The persons first elected up to the number determined by the ratio for representation in the General Conference shall be representatives in that body. Additional delegates shall be elected to complete the number determined by the ratio for representation in the Jurisdictional or Central Conference, who, together with those first elected as above, shall be delegates in the Jurisdictional or Central Conference. The additional delegates to the Jurisdictional or Central Conference shall in the order of their election be the reserve delegates to the General Conference. The Annual Conference shall also elect reserve clergy and lay delegates to the Jurisdictional or Central Conference as it may deem desirable. These reserve clergy and lay delegates to the Jurisdictional or Central Conferences may act as reserve delegates to the General Conference when it is evident that not enough reserve delegates are in attendance at the General Conference.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment- XVI

On May 14, 1992, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Louisville, Kentucky, the following Constitutional Amendment was made by a recorded vote of 872, yes; 41, no. It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In Section VIII, Paragraph 43, Article IV, amend by addition and deletion as follows:

Add "And episcopal areas shall" after Annual Conference.
Add "and" after United States of America.
Add "and pursuant to the respective structures" after respective powers.

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶43, Article IV would read:

Changes in the number, names, and boundaries of the Annual Conferences and episcopal areas may be effected by the Jurisdictional Conferences in the United States of America and by the Central Conferences outside the United States of America according to the provisions under the respective powers and pursuant to the respective structures of the Jurisdictional and Central Conferences.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment - XVII

On May 15, 1992, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Louisville, Kentucky, the following Constitutional Amendment was made by a recorded vote of 757, yes; 38, no. It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In Division Three, Paragraph 52, Article V (4), amend by deletion and addition as follows:

Delete "Conferences which are involved after consideration by the" after "of the Jurisdictional."
Add "of the jurisdictions which are involved" after "Committees on Episcopacy."

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶52, Article V would read:

The bishops shall have residential and presidential supervision in the Jurisdictional or Central Conferences in which they are elected or to which they are transferred. Bishops may be transferred from one jurisdiction to another jurisdiction for presidential and residential supervision under the following conditions: (l) The transfer of bishops may be on either of two bases: (a) a jurisdiction which receives a bishop by transfer from another jurisdiction may transfer to that jurisdiction or to a third jurisdiction one of its own bishops eligible for transfer, so that the number transferred in by each jurisdiction shall be balanced by the number transferred out, or (b) a jurisdiction may receive a bishop from another jurisdiction and not transfer out a member of its own College of Bishops. (2) No bishop shall be transferred unless that bishop shall have specifically consented. (3) No bishop shall be eligible for transfer unless the bishop shall have served one quadrennium in the jurisdiction which elected the bishop to the episcopacy. (4) All such transfers shall require the approval be a majority vote of the members, present and voting, of the Jurisdictional Committees on Episcopacy of the jurisdictions which are involved. After the above procedures have been followed, the transferring bishop shall become a member of the receiving College of Bishops and shall be subject to residential assignment by that Jurisdictional Conference.

A bishop may be assigned by the Council of Bishops for presidential service or other temporary services in another Jurisdiction than that which elected the bishop, provided request is made by a majority of the bishops' in' the jurisdiction of the proposed service.

In the case of an emergency in any jurisdiction or Central Conference through the death or disability of a bishop or other cause, the Council of Bishops may assign a bishop from another jurisdiction or Central Conference to the work of the said jurisdiction or Central Conference with the consent of a majority of the bishops of that jurisdiction or Central Conference.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment - XVIII

On May 12, 1992, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Louisville, Kentucky, the following Constitutional Amendment was made by a recorded vote of 727, yes; 31, no. It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In Division Three, Paragraph 53, Article VI, change "ministerial" to "clergy."

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶53, Article IV would read:

The bishops, both active and retired, of The Evangelical United Brethren Church and of The Methodist Church at the time union is consummated, shall be bishops of The United Methodist Church.
The bishops of The Methodist Church elected by the jurisdictions, the active bishops of The Evangelical United Brethren Church at the time of union, and bishops elected by the jurisdictions of The United Methodist Church shall have life tenure. Each bishop elected by a Central Conference of The Methodist Church shall have such tenure as the Central Conference electing him shall have determined.

The Jurisdictional Conference shall elect a standing Committee on Episcopacy, to consist of one clergy and one lay delegate from each Annual Conference, on nomination of the Annual Conference delegation. The committee shall review the work of the bishops, pass on their character and official administration, and report to the Jurisdictional Conference its findings for such action as the conference may deem appropriate within its constitutional warrant of power. The committee shall recommend the assignments of the bishops to their respective residences for final action by the Jurisdictional Conference.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment - XIX

On May 15, 1992, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Louisville, Kentucky, the following Constitutional Amendment was made by a recorded vote of 816, yes; 70, no. It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In Division Four, Paragraph 61, Article IV, change "ministers" to "clergy."

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶61, Article IV, would read:

The General Conference shall establish for the Church a judicial system which shall guarantee to our clergy a right to trial by a committee and an appeal and to our members a right to trial before the church, or by a committee, and an appeal.

SUBJECT: THE COMPREHENSIVE PROTECTION PLAN

FROM: Board of Pensions

BACKGROUND: It is the recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions that since the contribution rate is 4.4% of the lesser of the base compensation or the Denominational Average Compensation, the funding requested below will be necessary.

LEGISLATION: The Board of Pensions requests an apportionment of $320,000 for the Comprehensive Protection Plan for 1994.

SUBJECT: INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE RULING #63-156

FROM: Conference Board of Pensions

BACKGROUND: To be in compliance with the Internal Revenue Code as it relates to clergy housing and secondarily as to how that affects retired clergy, the following legislation is presented.

LEGISLATION: That an amount equal to 100% of the pension including gifts and grants from the Perkins Fund received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 1994 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance.

SUBJECT: PRE-1982 SERVICE YEAR OF 1994

FROM: Conference Board of Pensions

BACKGROUND: Pursuant to Paragraph 1606.21 of the 1992 Discipline, the Service Year Rate must be .009 of the Conference Average Compensation if the Ministerial Pension Plan Contribution Rate under Section 4.1 of the Plan Document is 12%. The 1994 Conference Average Compensation as computed by the General Board of Pensions is $38,055 which computes to $343.

LEGISLATION: That the pre-1982 Service Year Rate for 1994 be $343 for both Full Members and Local Pastors.

SUBJECT: UNFUNDED LIABILITY

FROM: Board of Pensions

BACKGROUND: Under Paragraph 1607 of the 1992 The Book of Discipline, the Board of Pensions is proposing to fully fund the Annual Past Service Deposit through apportioned dollars. The previous method was funding through leveraging investment earnings and making special deposits against deposited monies through apportioned dollars. At the present time, due to lower investment earnings, decreases in investment, increases in liability for current annuitants, and an increasing escalation in the overall unfunded liability, the Board of Pensions is seeking to fund the Annual Past Service Deposit through apportionment dollars on an escalating scale over a five year period with full funding for all subsequent years.

LEGISLATION:

1. Under Paragraph 1607 of the 1992 The Book of Discipline, that the 1994 Annual Past Service Deposit of $1,260,000 be funded through the apportionment at $1,050,000. It is the plan of the Board of Pensions to fully fund the Annual Past Service Deposit through apportionments within the next five years.

2. That after 1994 Special Deposits of $250,000 be terminated which will complete legislation as approved at the 1990 Sesssion of Annual Conference.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSIONS
1994 Budget Recommendations

Salaries and Related Expenses	$48,622
Office Operations	5,800
Liability/Workman's Compensation	1,490
Retiree Expenses	1,100

SUBJECT: CHANGE IN STANDING RULE 3

FROM: Committee on Standing Rules

BACKGROUND: The 1992 session of the North Texas Annual Conference instructed the Committee on Standing Rules to reduce the size of conference agencies by one-third (1/3). At the same time, the conference attempted to remove the requirement of a representative from each district on conference agencies, but failed since it did not remove the language mandating such representation from each paragraph where it appeared. This proposed replacement of Standing Rule 3 is an attempt to fulfill the will of the Conference on these two issues.

Because so many changes were required that they would be nearly impossible to mark and cumbersome to list, a summary of the major changes are presented below. A more detailed comparison may be made by comparing the proposal with the current rule as found in the 1993 Journal

SUMMARY OF CHANGES

1. The individual paragraphs of the rule have been rearranged to give a sense of order to the organization of the Annual Conference.

2. Wherever possible, agency size has been reduced by one-third (1/3).

3. Wherever possible requirements of district representation on agencies have been eliminated.

4. Some material not properly part of the Standing Rules has been eliminated (e.g. the enabling legislation and the rationale for decreasing agency size).

5. If a requirement governs all agencies (e.g. the mandate to be inclusive the rule that chairperson are to be counted in addition to the allowed membership of an agency) that requirement has been placed under the heading of General Requirement and eliminated from every other paragraph where it formerly appeared.

6. The Board of Global Ministries and the Board of Discipleship have been restructured. Instead of consisting of each division the boards will consist of the chairperson of each division and one additional representative of each division.

7. In accordance with the 1992 Discipline, a Committee on Native American Ministry has been added.

LEGISLATION: Standing Rule 3 as found in the 1992 North Texas Journal will be deleted and replaced by the following. The new Standing Rule 3 will take effect with the elections of officers at the 1994 session of the Annual Conference except for the membership of the Clergy Housing Committee which will take effect at the close of the 1993 Annual Conference. (Editors Note: The text of Rule 3 is printed together with all Standing Rules in Section XIV of the JOURNAL.)

SUBJECT: CHANGE IN PLAN DESIGN OF THE CONFERENCE INSURANCE PROGRAM

FROM: North Texas Conference Commission on Insurance (as adopted by the North Texas Conference Board of Pensions on March 2, 1993)

BACKGROUND: The fully integrated Medicare "Carve Out" method has become the established norm of the insurance industry. This plan will allow fully congruent benefits between the active clergy/lay participants and retirees/surviving spouses.

LEGISLATION: As of January 1, 1994, the Commission on Insurance in conjunction with the Conference Board of Pensions proposes that the Conference Insurance Program (known as the Employee Benefit Trust) move to a fully integrated Medicare "Carve Out" Plan and remove the current non-integrated Plan with Medicare "Coordination of Benefits" Plan as of December 31, 1993, with the following guidelines:

1. That the fully integrated Medicare "Carve Out" Plan will determine what the normal benefit would be under the current active plan for clergy/lay and then deduct the amounts for which the retirees/surviving spouses are responsible, i.e., plan deductibles and co-payments and then deduct the Medicare payment with the Conference Insurance Plan being responsible for the difference.

2. That the fully integrated Medicare "Carve Out" Plan will always pay benefits as if Medicare is primary and the Conference Insurance Plan is secondary.

3. That the fully integrated Medicare "Carve Out" Plan will only be available to those retirees and surviving spouses who are enrolled in both Medicare Part A and B. Those retirees who are not age 65 or not enrolled in Medicare A and B will be primary participants and will be subject to pay premiums as if they were active participants in the Conference Insurance Program.

4. That the fully integrated Medicare "Carve Out" Plan co-payment for in-office physicians services as provided by the Preferred Provider Organization will be lowered to $10 per visit instead of $20 per visit. All in-office physicians services provided by the Preferred Provider Organization will not be subject to Medicare limitations or reduction in benefits. The Conference Insurance Plan will pay the difference between the established $10 co-payment and net (after discount) charges of in-office physicians services.

5. That the fully integrated Medicare "Carve Out" Plan be subject to the current plan limitations, exclusions, and reasonable and customary charges.

6. That the fully integrated Medicare "Carve Out" Plan be subject to both retirees/surviving spouses to the stated individual "out of pocket" limitation of $2,000 not including deductible.

SUBJECT: HEALTH INSURANCE PREMIUM NOTICE FOR LOCAL CHURCHES AND AGENCIES

FROM: Commission on Insurance

BACKGROUND: In the past the Commission on Insurance has had time difficulties in projecting the premium amount for the subsequent year. This is due to the fact that the September 1 notice date does not give adequate time for the collection of data so that the proper actuarial work may be done.

LEGISLATION: The Commission on Insurance proposes that the September 1 notification date for subsequent year health insurance premium to local churches and agencies be moved to October 1.

SUBJECT: EQUITABLE SALARY COMPENSATION - ANNUAL DETERMINATION

FROM: Commission on Equitable Salary

BACKGROUND: Annual determination of equitable compensation fund under Paragraph 722 of the 1992 The Book of Discipline.

LEGISLATION:

Minimum and Equitable Salary Guidelines for Conference Members, Full-Time Local Pastors, and Student Local Pastors. The Commission on Equitable Salaries requests that minimum equitable salary support, pension, years of service and administrative expenses be apportioned at $50,000 for 1994.

I. Guidelines for Conference Members and Full-Time Local Pastors.

A. The Commission on Equitable Salaries requests that $24,563 be set for the minimum equitable compensation (as defined in Paragraph 1 below) for 1994. This is 3 1/2 percent greater than the 1993 minimum equitable salary. This minimum equitable salary was computed by adding $6,000 to 60% of the North Texas Conference average salary as defined by the General Board of Pensions. The $6,000 represents the average of travel and utilities currently expended by equitable salary churches. Travel and utilities should be reimbursed by the local church. The North Texas Conference average compensation less parsonage allowance was computed by the General Board of Pensions to be $30,939 which indexes base salary to $18,563.

The years of service allowance shall be $100 per service year after five years and up to ten years. It is assumed that housing would be provided by the local church. The Commission on Equitable Salaries will pay a maximum of 25% of the established base.

1. Minimum Equitable Salary (including base, utilities, amount for auto allowance or vouchered reimbursement, dependent premium payments made on behalf of the local church, dependent premium supplemental payments made at the discretion of the District Superintendent, and other subsidies received) for active members of the North Texas Conference serving full time is $24,563.

2. Adjustments for service:

Years of Service	Equitable Salary Amount
0 - 5	$24,563
6	25,063
7	25,163
8	25,263
9	25,363
10	25,463

3. Local pastors serving full time:
Five yrs. or less (75% of base) - $18,422
Six yrs. or more (85% of base) - 20,879

B. The following policies are proposed to the North Texas Annual Conference for the distribution of equitable salary assistance in 1994.

1. A local church exists to serve, not to be served. All churches should be motivated to a larger sense of ministry. Churches whose pastors receive salary subsidy should be open to linkage with other churches in order to provide full-time ministerial conference members with a minimum work load goal of 250 members, the number believed by the Commission to be necessary to support a pastor. Smaller churches should be encouraged to accept couplings with each other or with larger churches to reduce the need for subsidy.

2. Equitable salary levels can best be met when appointments are open to all ministerial members without regard to race or sex. We continue to urge every conference member to make the subject of a fully open Conference and adequately supported ministry at the local church level a matter of daily personal prayer. Only as the love of Christ dwells in us can an Annual Conference be a fellowship of caring persons.

3. Growth in stewardship should be achieved by all below-minimum remuneration churches. In making application for salary supplement, District Superintendents are to provide evidence of stewardship education and growth on forms provided by the Commission on Equitable Salaries.

4. Tenure payments are designed to honor the years of service of pastors who continue for more than five years in ministry to below-minimum salary charges because of the needs of the Conference. The Bishop and the Cabinet are urged to make every effort to move pastors to above-minimum charges within five years after they begin full-time service.

5. All applications for salary subsidy to the Commission on Equitable Salaries are to be made by the District Superintendent on forms provided by the Commission, and completed applications must be approved by the Commission in session or by no less than two of the three members of the Executive Committee on the Commission.

6. The Charge Conference of any charge unable to pay the minimum set by the Conference shall be informed by the District Superintendent of the guidelines for receiving equitable salary assistance. The charge shall be informed of the amount required to bring the salary level up to minimum and shall be challenged to move toward the goal of full self-support at the earliest possible time. On a form which shall accompany the applications for salary assistance, the District Superintendent shall certify to the Commission that the charge has been duly notified.

7. The Commission on Equitable Salaries shall notify annually the Pastor-Parish Committee Chairperson of each local charge of the goal of the Conference for every full-time pastor to have a work load of 250 members in order to get all pastors' salaries to the minimum level. The amount of the subsidy granted to a pastor shall be acknowledged annually at the Charge Conference.

8. Equitable salary assistance is not available to pastors serving as associate pastors or in staff positions other than pastor-in-charge. In order that such persons receive an equitable wage, however, the Commission recommends that local churches use Conference minimum salary standards as minimum guidelines in setting associate and staff salaries.

9. The Commission on Equitable Salaries will not consider requests for salary supplement where housing allowances exceed $7,200.

10. Pastors who decline an appointment which would reduce or eliminate the need for equitable salary support are ineligible for equitable salary supplement given for years of service.

11. Equitable salary assistance is not available for a North Texas Conference member appointed to serve in another Annual Conference, nor is it available to members of other Annual Conferences serving under appointment in the North Texas Conference.

12. There shall be no lump sum payments to persons receiving equitable salary assistance unless such sums are too small for monthly payments to be made.

13. It shall be the responsibility of the pastor receiving equitable salary subsidy to inform the Commission of any increase in remuneration or any changes in eligibility which occur after an application for equitable salary subsidy has been approved.

II. Guidelines for Financial Assistance for Student Appointees.

A. The Commission on Equitable Salaries requests that only those student pastors who are candidates for ministry in the North Texas Conference be approved for equitable salary.

B. The Commission will offer a maximum of 25% of the established base for any one position.

C. Student Appointees.

Resident full time on charge (65% of base)	-	$15,966
Lives on charge 3 nights or more (50%)	-	12,282
Lives on charge 2 nights or less (40%)	-	9,825

D. When students do not serve the charge full time during the summer, there may be a $1,000 reduction in the minimum amount, making the scale as follows:

Resident full time on charge	-	$14,966
Lives on charge 3 nights or more	-	11,282
Lives on charge 2 nights or less	-	8,825

E. Students serving local churches may receive:

1. Student shall be licensed or ordained and under appointment.

2. Student shall be enrolled in an accredited college or seminary.

3. When taking less than nine hours, $20 mileage rate will be reduced proportionate to number of hours taken (6 hours–$14, 3 hours–$7).

4. No mileage allowance will be provided during a seminary internship in which the student serves full time at the location of the internship. Mileage allowance will be paid during a seminary internship in which the student continues to attend on-campus classes when serving a student appointment. (Perkins and Brite currently call such internships "concurrent internships.") In applying this guideline to the variety of different circumstances, the guiding principle shall be that of equality."

5. When the student is receiving above equitable salary minimum, the travel will be reduced by the overage.

PREFACE

The 1992 receipts from local churches for connectional causes was the highest ever in dollars and the highest percentage of apportionments paid for about 30 years. Team work across the Conference was the key to our success. All but 42 of the 334 constituted churches were able to pay their apportionments in full through their own budgets. Twenty-one of those 42 were recepients of supplemental funds from other district churches so that they too were able to pay their apportionments 100%.

Our final tally shows that in 1992 apportionments were paid in full by all except 21 churches. The Council is especially grateful for the helpful support of our connectional missions and ministries by all congregations and appreciative of every contribution to connectional causes. The leadership of the district superintendents and Bishop was especially commendable.

Total dollars ($6,539,549) received for apportionments increased $ 294,393 in 1992 over 1991, a 4.7% increase. The final percentage of apportionments paid in 1992 was 96.6%, an increase of 3.7 percentage points over 1991, a giant step forward.

Our giving to all connectional causes was $7,769,877, an increase of $442,861 (6.0%) over 1991. Receipts for non-apportioned causes totaled $1,230,328, an increase of $148,469 (13.7%) over 1991.

The 1992 year-end statistical reports from local churches show that local church total expenditures were $59,715,513, an increase of $2,867,520 (5.0%) over 1991. Total capital expenditures (payments for indebtedness, construction, new equipment) increased 4.9%, while expenditures for apportioned and non-apportioned missional causes increased only 1.5%. The operating expenditure items which are included in the decimal financial factor increased from $32,016,334 to $33,670,689 (5.2%).

For many years the Finance and Administration Council has paid close attention to the most recent local church statistical reports in determining the percent of increase or decrease in the recommended apportionments that the Annual Conference sets for the upcoming fiscal year. As noted in the previous paragraph 1992 local church operating expenses used in calculating each congregation's apportionment decimal increased 5.2%. The recommended increase for all apportionments for 1994 is only 3.3%, significantly below the Conference average increase in local church operating expenses according to the most recent statistics.
The agencies of the Annual Conference have cooperated with Finance and Administration again this year to maintain frugal budgets so that the rate of apportionment increases set by the Annual Conference could be kept low. The Council wishes again to recognize and express appreciation for this continuing cooperation, especially that of the Council on Ministries in achieving helpful reductions in their original apportionments requests.

Because of the continuing concern of the Board of Pensions regarding the Conference's pension commitment to pastors for pre-1982 years of service, a $200,000 increase in the 1994 Conference Claimants Apportionment for Unfunded Liabiltity is recommended. As in 1992 when Unfunded Liability was increased $300,000, again for 1994 this $200,000 increase is being made possible, in part, because decreases in other parts of the apportionments prevents a large apportiomemt increase for local church budgets. The Council wishes to express appreciation to all who have cooperated in this achievement.

Guidelines for the administration of the health insurance premium supplements have undergone close scrutiny by the Pensions and Insurance Office and other related agencies, resulting in legislation proposals which will help reduce certain apportionments.

The Council urgently recommends that again in 1993 every church take seriously its connectional responsibility to pay 100% of all apportionments, with 10% of the annual amount remitted monthly. Monthly payments beginning in February of at least 10% of each church's annual apportionments has been a recommended goal for many years. As more and more churches attain this goal, the budgets of Conference agencies can be managed more efficiently with less loss of investment income.

A long-standing concern must be lifted up for emphasis. The Discipline mandates that Conference Claimants, District Superintendents', Episcopal, and Equitable Compensation are apportioned funds which are to be paid on the same schedule as the pastor's salary is paid. The Cabinet joins Finance and Administration in calling attention to the necessity that every church adhere to this mandate monthly.

Another continuing task persists. The assistance of all churches is needed in making contributions to the District Second Mile Apportionment Fund Advance Special, thereby assuring 100% payment of the District's total apportionments. Our excellent record of apportionment payments in 1992 was achieved in part because of these funds. Check with your district superintendent to learn more about how your church can help.

SECTION I. INFORMATION AND RECOMMENDATIONS

A. Information

1. Fidelity Bond for Local Churches

Again in 1993 (annually since 1985) the Council on Finance and Administration has purchased a fidelity bond policy to cover all persons authorized to handle local church funds in every church in the Annual Conference. In the unlikely event that a responsible person makes off with the church's money, the policy covers up to a $25,000 loss.

2. United Methodist Building

Now in its sixth year of housing the offices of conference agencies, the United Methodist Building continues to provide increased benefits for the whole Annual Conference. Across the six years of use the annual budget of $28,798 for the building's operation has remained constant. The budget is underwritten by rent from the budgets of the four clusters of conference agencies housed in the United Methodist Building. Changes for 1994 related to this budget are included in Section V of this report.

3. Investment Earnings

In 1992 the investment earnings of the Central Treasury Portfolio totaled $124,998.06, compared with $159,366.15 in 1991 when earning rates were higher. From these investment earnings designated trust funds within the Portfolio were paid $37,123.63. The Finance and Administration Office received $87,874.43 for operating expenses, including the computer system and administrative services such as establishing and maintaining statistical records, preparing local church statistical research reports and profiles, providing lay/clergy equalization data for Conference membership, establishing and maintaining the Ministerial Profile System, coordinating the preparation, publication and distribution of the Annual Conference Journal, providing Cabinet support services including the District and Conference Appointment worksheets, managing the United Methodist Building facilities, and other services. Total expenditures for the office amounted to $115,754.49, as designated in the detailed financial report.

B. Recommendations for Legislative Action

1. Wesley Village Loan

With commendations for the fine work done through the Council on Ministries (see the Council on Ministries report on Wesley Village) in assisting the Wesley Village Board to improve their financial operations, Finance and Administration supports their recommendation and requests the approval of the Annual Conference to forgive the Wesley Village loan amounting to $136,724.

2. Guideline Recommendations for Health Insurance Premium Supplements

a. That in 1994 missional assistance supplements for health insurance premiums be granted to local churches for pastor-in-charge appointees only.

b. That in 1994 equitable compensation supplements for health insurance premiums be granted for dependents of pastors-in-charge appointees only, except for those currently appointed associate pastors who may receive the supplement through 1995 if they should continue in their current appointment.

c. That in 1994 no subsidies be granted for health insurance premiums beyond the supplement scale for appointees and dependents.

d. That in 1994 health insurance premium supplements for pastors-in-charge appointees be indexed to their pension plan compensations at 60% and above of the DAC ($33,017) in accord with the guidelines adopted by the General Conference for supplements to clergy benefits.

3. Apportionments for Health Insurance Premiums Supplements

In December, 1989, the Annual Conference decided to supplement the health insurance premiums according to appropiate guidelines. Funds for these supplements have been and continue to be included in three apportionments:

	1993	1994

SECTION II. RECOMMENDED GOALS TO LOCAL CHURCHES

A. That local churches accept the challenge to grow in spiritual strength by designating no less than 25% of their total annual budgets for causes beyond their local churches.

B. That local churches plan to remit at least 10% of their annual apportionments before the 15th of each month beginning in February.

C. That apportionments be given first claim by local churches in their beyond-the-local-church payments with advance specials and other benevolences viewed as second-mile giving.

D. That local churches assist in achieving 100% payment of all apportionments for connectional ministries and missions in every district through voluntary contributions to the District Second-Mile Apportionment Fund.

E. That all charges either reimburse their local church appointees by voucher for travel as professional expenses based on mileage logs at the IRS approved mileage rate, or if travel allowances are paid, that appointees maintain a mileage log as information for the pastor-parish relations committees.

SECTION III. SALARY, BENEFITS AND EXPENSES FOR SUPERINTENDENTS AND DIRECTORS

Finance and Administration recommends that the salaries for superintendents and directors be increased in 1994 to $59,828 from $57,693, an increase of 3.7%.

The annual housing allowance of $15,000 for superintendents and directors without parsonages has remained constant for the past four years. For 1994 $15,555 is recommended, a 3.7% increase. Parsonages are provided in six of the seven districts. Utilities, travel, and expenses are to be reimbursed by voucher.

E. Explanations of Proposed Changes

General Conference Funds

Apportionments set by the General Conference were established in May, 1992, for each year of the current quadrennium. Our Annual Conference cannot change these amounts.

Jurisdictional Conference Funds

Apportionments set by the Jurisdictional Conference were established in July, 1992, for each year of the current quadrennium and cannot be changed by our Annual Conference.

Annual Conference Funds

Under some apportionments are the dollar amounts allocated for designated purposes. The figures on the left are for 1993 - on the right for 1994. Because of internal adjustments in the designation of categories within and between certain apportionments, the 1993 sub-designations have been changed in some cases. In all cases, however, the total apportionments remain the same.

Of the ten apportionments set by the Annual Conference the Council on Ministries has the responsibility for the first six with the exception of the Board of Church Extension's section under Missional Assistance. The Council's six apportionments are considered as a whole in determining the percentage of change for each. Hence, from year to year different apportionments are given priority for increases. For 1994 the percent of increase for all the Council's apportionments totals 4.2%, excluding the new item for MPP assistance.

1. Conference Benevolences

Approximately one half of the requested increase in this apportionment is for Evangelism in keeping with the Conference's continuing emphasis on Reaching the Unchurched. The total recommended increase is $44,311 (6.0%) for this apportionment.

2. Missional Assistance Fund

The items in this apportionment are shared by the Board of Global Ministries and the Board of Church Extension. Church Extension has requested only a 2.4% increase, mainly for staff related costs, in view of the $60,00 increase received a year ago. Global Ministries has requested no increase except for the new item: MPP Assistance.

3. Texas Methodist Colleges Fund

No change in the amount of this apportionment has been requested for 1994.

4. Campus Ministries Fund

Because the Annual Conference is committed to the support of campus ministers and their work on the several campuses, a 5.1% increase is recommended. Advance special contributions are recommended to supplement campus ministries program budgets.

5. Camping and Retreat Fund

The $2,174 increase in maintenance and capital funds for our Conference camping and retreat centers is only a part of what is needed. Additional funds need to be contributed through advance specials for these facilities.

6. Community Ministries Fund

No increase is recommended for the 1994 apportionment but increased support through advance specials is encouraged.

7. Area and Conference Administration Fund

The 6.9% increase for this apportionment stems from the adjustments delineated in Section V of this report.

8. Conference Claimants Fund

The unfavorable gap between our liabilities for pre-1982 past service years pensions and our assets on deposit with the General Board of Pensions necessitates a $200,000 increase in the Unfunded Liability part of Conference Claimants. Fortunately, the 1994 changes projected in the health insurance program for retirees will enable us to reduce that part of the apportionment.

9. District Superintendents' Fund

Last year's adjustments in this apportionment will bring about enough corrections so that the shortfall can be reduced by more than $15,000 and still provide for the recommended increase in salary of 3.7%.

10. Equitable Compensation Fund

Implementation of guidelines changes by the Cabinet and the year-end credit balance make possible the reduction of $20,000 in the pastor's salary supplement (along with a 3.5% increase recommended for the 1994 minimum salary). Likewise the Dependents Premium Supplement can be reduced because of recommended guidelines changes and the year-end credit balance.

RECOMMENDED CHANGE RELATED TO INVESTMENT EARNINGS

A. Background

Prior to 1981 the apportionments were the only source of funds for the budget of the Finance and Administration office. Since 1981 some of the earnings from the Finance and Administration's investment portfolio have been used to fund the budget with small amount from apportionments.

In the early 1980's the annual earnings not only paid for office expenses but also provided funds for other projects through careful management. During the 1990's the rate of return on investments has decreased so radically that more and more of the office expenses must now come from the apportionments.

The three-year financial report of office income and expenses is printed below. Please note that the projected budget for 1994 is lean indeed.

B. Adjustments for Investment Earnings Pool Budgets

For several years the possibility has been considered to create a group of budgets with benefits shared jointly by all Conference agencies. Funding for these budgets would come annually from investment earnings. The recommended budgets are as follows:

INVESTMENT EARNINGS POOL BUDGET

UMB Rent	$28,100
UMB Telephone Lines	6,888
Computer Network	5,000
Conference Journal Fund	25,000
Conference Agenda	15,000
TOTAL	$79,988

Adjustments will be necessary in selected apportionments to create this group of budgets. The rent and telephone lines items for Church Extension ($5,148) must be extracted from Missional Assistance, the Council on Ministries ($20,271) from Conference Benevolences, and the Pensions amount ($1,992) from Conference Claimants. The rent and telephone lines amounts for Finance and Administration ($7,597) have come from investment earnings in the past. The $5,000 for the Computer Network is a new item resulting from the Novell System that links all computers in the United Methodist Building. The Conference Journal and Conference Agenda (with a $5,000 increase) are adjustments within the Area and Conference Administration Apportionment.

SECTION VI. GUIDELINES FOR COMPUTATION OF 1994 APPORTIONMENTS FOR LOCAL CHURCHES

A. Formula for Two-Part Decimal:

1/3 membership and 2/3 finance

B. Procedure for Computation of Decimal for Each Church:

The membership part is computed by dividing the total 1992 church membership of the Annual Conference (less discontinued churches and fellowhships = 150,098) into the 1992 membership of each church. This becomes the church's membership decimal.

The finance part is computed by adding the amounts of the operating expenses reported paid by each church in columns 64, 65, 66a, 66c, and 67-72 of the 1992 Statistician's Report. (No funds reported in other statistical columns are included in this computation.) This total is then divided by the Conference total of these same columns (less discontinued churches and fellowships = $33,670,689). This becomes the local church's finance decimal.

The finance decimal is doubled. The membership decimal is added to the doubled finance decimal. This total is divided by three to become the apportionment decimal.

C. Procedure for Computation of Apportionments for Each Church:

The apportionment decimal for each church is multiplied by the Conference total of each apportionment to determine the amount that church is asked to pay toward the apportionment. The only exception is the District Administration Fund Apportionment which is computed uniquely in each district office.

D. Margin for Correction:

To assure that 100% of the amount of each apportionment will be distributed to the churches, no more than one quarter of one percent may be added to each apportionment when needed.

E. Decimal Factors Study

Year after year Finance and Administration examines the criteria for the decimal formula in light of questions raised and suggestions offered by local churches and districts as well as from statistical studies. During the past year an intensive examination was made at the suggestion of the Dallas Northeast District to determine the effects of a proposed change that would eliminate the membership figures from the formula. After careful exploration and discussion across several months, no change is recommended for 1994 but our study will continue during the coming year.

SUBJECT: Long Range Planning and Capital Funds Drive for Bridgeport Conference Center

FROM: Fred A. Winslow
Pastor, Lake Dallas, Dallas-Denton District

BACKGROUND: The North Texas Conference is blessed with two beautiful sites camping and retreats, however, Bridgeport Conference Center is in need of a major upgrade. North and South Villages need demolition or major renovation. Landscaping is needed throughout. An Adult Center for Spirituality and retreats is needed for local churches, spiritual formation and planning.

A chapel seating 300 (or the cabin capacity of the camp) is needed for worship in times of inclement weather. The lake side needs to be developed for picnics, worship, campfires, and waterfront activities such as canoeing and swimming. East Village needs to be developed to accommodate growth in camping. We need to anticipate the coming of year-round schooling with the creation of all weather cabins. We need a "ropes course" area, marked nature and prayer trails, and sites for "home in the woods."

We need a facility attractive enough that businesses and schools will use it for training and continuing education events. These outside groups will help cover the cost of a first class facility.

Finally, we need cabins for clergy families that they may retreat together to strengthening and maintaining a strong family life. These need to be provided at low cost so that they are affordable to the clergy.

RESOLUTION: The North Texas Conference direct the Camping and Retreats Commission 1) to develop a long range plan exploring these recommendations and others they deem necessary, 2) to investigate the possibility of a Capital Funds Drive to finance this project, and 3) to report their recommendations to the 1994 Annual Conference.

Subject: Computer Software Compatibility among Local Churches, Districts, and the Annual Conference

From: Fred A Winslow
Pastor, Lake Dallas, Dallas-Denton District

Background: Currently we do not have software compatibility among the local churches, Districts, and Annual Conference. Software packages exist that have that capability. We could do our year end reports in the official United Methodist Church format and transfer those figures electronically, by modem or floppy disks.

A computer software package should have back up and support that is universally available to the local church, the Districts, and the Annual Conference. All too often we rely on individuals who though they are highly capable are not always available. In addition there are software programs that are used throughout the United Methodist Church that would standardize our networking.

The intent of this resolution is not to argue the merits of certain software, but to begin the study of computer software needs for our annual conference that would include the interface and networking of the local church with the connectional church.

Resolution: That the Council on Finance and Administration 1) create a task force that would study software and networking needs among local churches, Districts, and the Annual Conference with an emphasis on assisting the local churches with the communication of data to the connectional church and 2) report their recommendations to the 1994 Annual Conference.

Subject: Creation of the Position of Conference Registrar

From: Fred A. Winslow
Pastor-Lake Dallas, Dallas-Denton District

Background: Currently data, progress toward candidacy, progress towards being a local pastor, progress as an ordinand, and progress toward consecration are kept in several places by several different agencies. Often chairs must track condidates from several different districts and important documents are kept in local churches with varying degrees of care.

On occasion much data is duplicated in several places or data is lost or not communicated. It is bewildering to the candidates as to whom certain reports are sent.

Valuable time is spent by clergy doing clerical work and record keeping. In addition the office of pensions and insurance has done much work in record keeping for matters other than pensions and insurance. For clarity and centralization it would be helphful to have all functions in one place.

Finally we have no record keeping of former spouses of clergy. At the time separation and divorce these people are lost to us except for an informal network. These people need our continued ministry at a painful time in their lives yet no attempt is made to track their whereabouts.

This person and office would assist the various agencies (Board of Ministries and Board of Diaconal Ministries) by acting as registrar on their behalf and provide for an interpretive liaison for the candidates.

Resolution: That the Board of Ministry and the Board of Diaconal Ministry create a task force to study the staffing need of professional ministry in conjunction with the cabinet's on-going study of conference staff requirements.

XII. CONFERENCE POLICIES

The following conference policies, instituted in previous years, are reprinted for the convenience of conference members. Dates and page numbers found in the brackets [ ] reflect the North Texas Conference Journal in which the original policies were last updated. (Certain minor editorial changes have been made to make the guidelines stylistically consistent.)

LEGISLATION

The following items were implemented by the vote of the conference members present and voting in the year when each was adopted.

1. LAY-CLERGY EQUALIZATION

[1984, p. 222]

The following formula is the procedure used to determine the number of lay and clergy members of the Annual Conference.

FORMULA

1. Subtract the total number of lay members prior to equalization from the total number of clergy members. The remainder is the Lay Equalization Factor (LEF).

2. Compute the District Membership Percentage (DMP). If a district has more lay members than clergy members prior to equalization, subtract the number of local church members in this district from the total of local church members for the Annual Conference. Such a district will not enter into the computation of the District Membership Fraction.

Next, for districts that have fewer lay than clergy members, divide the total number of local church members in each district by the adjusted total number of local church members in the Annual Conference (as determined above). This quotient is the District Membership Percentage.

3. Subtract the number of lay members of the Annual Conference required by The Book of Discipline (1980 edition, paragraph 36) from the Lay Equalization Factor.* The remainder is the Adjusted Lay Equalization Factor (ALEF).

* Lay members required by the Book of Discipline:

+ Conference President of United Methodist Men
+ Conference President of United Methodist Women
+ President of Conference Youth Organization
+ Two young persons under twenty-five years of age from each district
+ Conference Lay Leader
+ District Lay Leaders

These persons shall be elected to the lay membership of the Annual Conference by the District Section.

4. Multiply the Adjusted Lay Equalization Factor by the District Membership Percentage. The product is the District Adjusted Lay Equalization Factor (DALEF), (i.e., the number of additional lay members to be elected by the District Sections to effect lay/clergy equalization.) If a district already had more lay members than clergy members, it will not be included in calculating the District Adjusted Lay Equalization Factor.

5. The date for computing the Lay/Clergy Equalization shall be January 1. The number of additional lay members to be elected for equalization will be promptly forwarded to the Board of the Laity to allow it to prepare a list of possible additional lay members to be presented to the first District Section meetings.

6. If the actual number of clergy in the Conference increases after January 1, the Lay Leader of a district in which the imbalance occurs shall select a lay member(s) from within the district to equalize the increase of clergy members.

7. If this formula fails to compute the exact number of additional lay persons per district to offset the clergy of the Conference due to calculations made using fractions of a per cent, the Board of the Laity shall be authorized to correct the imbalance through negotiation.

8. So that a district that has more lay members than clergy prior to equalization may elect additional lay members in its District Section, a courtesy rearrangement of the number of lay members to be elected may be made by the Board of the Laity after the District Adjusted Lay Equalization Factor has been determined.

2. CLERGY VACATION STANDARDS

[1974, p. 105]

Minimum Vacation Standards for the Professional Ministries Personnel of the North Texas Annual Conference:

Method of Calculation

The vacation due is calculated according to the number of years of service using the following formula:

1 - 4 years of service --- two weeks	(two Sundays)
5 - 9 years of service --- three weeks	(three Sundays)
10+ years of service --- four weeks	(four Sundays)

Further Guidelines

The following points are made in explanation of the above:

1. "Years of Service" shall be determined by years served as a full-time, ordained United Methodist minister or as a full-time, consecrated lay worker [Editor's note: consecrated lay worker = diaconal minister].

2. The length of vacation is set by the Annual Conference, but the most suitable time for both the local church and the ministerial family must be determined by consultation between the pastor and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee.

3. POLICIES CONCERNING CLERGY DIVORCE

("In marriages where the partners are, even after thoughtful consideration and counsel, estranged beyond reconciliation, we recognize divorce and the right of divorced persons to remarry, and express our concern for the needs of the children of such unions" -- The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, 1976, ¶71:C.)

The Discipline rightly makes no distinction between divorce among the laity and among the clergy. However, we would be deceiving ourselves to deny that divorce within the clergy has a greater impact upon a congregation than divorce within the laity. We point out the adverse and disruptive feelings that often accompany divorce proceedings and are felt and shared by friends and family of the parties involved. This is amplified with divorce proceedings among the clergy because of stereotypical modeling which has become a part of the tradition of our society. We also recognize the possibility of congregations being nurturing communities and, thus, for Christian love to grow even under the unpleasant conditions which exist when the clergy family is in the process of divorce.

In an attempt to promote the most redemptive and therapeutic support of its clergy in the event of divorce, the following is the procedure which shall be followed in the North Texas Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church.

1. The Conference member will have taken every action possible toward reconciliation within the marriage. This shall include extensive counseling with a reputable marriage counselor, preferable with both partners to the marriage participating but, where impossible, with at least the clergy member's participation.

2. After counseling, the chairperson of the Division of Conference Relations shall be notified, and shall in turn call a meeting of the following persons:

a. The Chairperson of the Division of Conference Relations, presider.
b. The District Superintendent of the Conference member's District.
c. The District member of the Division of Conference Relations.
d. Two peers chosen by the Conference member involved.

3. At this meeting, the following shall be considered:

a. The reasons for the need for the divorce.
b. The desirability or necessity of meeting with the member, the respective Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, the spouse, and/or other parties.
c. The needs of other family members for emotional, financial and other support.

4. This committee shall make its report to the Cabinet.

5. Copies of this report shall be sent to the ministerial member and filed with the Bishop and Chairperson of Conference Relations.

QUESTION OF DIVORCE AND MINISTERIAL ORDERS

1. If a couple finds that their marriage has taken the course of separation and/or divorce, and the ministerial member has made every effort possible to strengthen and sustain the marriage, we will accept the spouse who is a ministerial member as acceptable for appointment, except:

a. When the ministerial member has been unfaithful to the marriage vows through adultery or other clearly immoral behavior and when divorce is secured as a result, this person will be considered unappointable by the Cabinet, or:

b. When the ministerial member and the partner in marriage have come to the place of separation and, when there is evidence that a marriage occurs closely after divorce with a person who figured even marginally in the separation, and the party remarrying is a ministerial member, then we would consider this person unappointable for a period of time.

2. When a ministerial member has been deemed unappointable, reinstatement may be possible when the individual desires to be re-established in ministry, has secured ministerial counseling and has taken psychological examination that will support their return to ministerial duties. The District and Conference Board of Ministry and the Cabinet must recommend and approve the action in accordance with the Discipline.

3. We acknowledge that each case must be considered personally and individually and no guideline can be developed or considered unquestionably.

4. PARSONAGE STANDARDS

SIZE

1. The parsonage should have three (3) bedrooms and a guest room.
2. There should be at least two (2) bathrooms.
3. There should be one large living area.

INTERIOR

The parsonage should be completely furnished. This will include all furniture, kitchen equipment, floor coverings, lamps, tables, window curtains, etc.

1. Kitchen should include all standard modern appliances such as dishwasher and garbage disposal.
2. Washer and dryer for laundry.
3. Adequate heating and cooling facilities (preferably central).

EXTERIOR

The outside of the parsonage should complement the inside, therefore the following things need to be considered.

1. Landscaping where it is necessary.
2. Safe play area for children.
3. Garage in good condition and convenient to parsonage.

MAINTENANCE

Utilities

1. The local church should pay for the cost of all utilities (except personal long distance telephone calls).
2. All utilities should be checked and adjusted regularly.

Upkeep and Repair is Church Responsibility

1. An amount of from 2% to 2 1/2% of the parsonage value should be provided for in the church budget for repair and refurbishing. (This should be adequate once the building and furnishings are in excellent condition.)

2. Painting of inside and outside parsonage should be done as often as necessary.

Parsonage Families' Responsibilities

1. Minor upkeep and repairs (e.g., leaky faucets).
2. Repairs needed for damages done by member of parsonage family.
3. "White-glove" clean-up prior to leaving appointment. (Parsonage family may want to have tenant insurance.)

HOUSING ALLOWANCES

If housing allowance is provided instead of church owned parsonage, the amount should be adequate for the minister to live in the area near the church.

PROCEDURE

To attain the above goals each local church should evaluate its parsonage. It may be a matter of making minor improvements to reach the goals. For other churches it may be that they need to refurbish the parsonage. Still other churches may want to consider adding-on to the existing structure to up-date the parsonage.

Whenever a local church considers building a new parsonage the goals should be the guiding rule for construction.

RELATIONSHIPS

The Parsonage Committee or its equivalent (Pastor-Parish Relations Committee or Trustees) should take the responsibility of the parsonage seriously and work very closely with the parsonage family.

Notification of Impending Move

When moving, the pastor should notify the Parsonage Committee at once of the expected time of the family's departure. The Parsonage Committee should cooperate with the outgoing pastor to assure that the parsonage is as clean as possible upon the arrival of the new pastor and family.

Contact with New Pastor

The Parsonage Committee should contact the new pastor before the arrival date, and arrange a suitable time to check the parsonage with the new family. The new family should be asked for suggestions before re-painting or refurbishing the parsonage.

Annual Inspection of the Parsonage

The Parsonage Committee (or its equivalent) and the parsonage family, always by a previous appointment, should inspect the parsonage at least once a year to ascertain its needs.

1. There should be a copy of the inventory list of the parsonage furnishings for the pastor and for the church.

2. Each time the parsonage is inspected, using the inventory, there should be an effort to coordinate repair and replace worn equipment and furnishings.

3. The Parsonage Committee (or its equivalent) should always inspect all gifts to the parsonage before they are accepted (the gift may not be acceptable). This way the furnishings can be coordinated fully.

GUIDELINES

The following guidelines were developed and implemented in the year noted, and are currently in use within the North Texas Annual Conference.

1. POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR DEALING WITH CLERGY SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

[1992, pp. 248-252; Revised, 1993]

DISCLAIMER

These guidelines are intended to provide an additional informal process for resolution of grievances within the North Texas Annual Conference. They are not intended to supplant or substitute the formal grievance process protections. They are intended to assist persons to reach resolution and reconciliation prior to moving into the formality of the Disciplinary grievance process. Failure to utilize or follow such guidelines is not a chargeable offense nor can it be used as grounds for an appeal of the formal grievance, complaint, review, investigation and trial process.

INTENTION

It is the intent of these policies and procedures to enhance due process as defined by the 1992 Book of Discipline, protect the sacred trust between clergy and parishioner/client, ensure the authenticity of the ordained ministry, protect the rights of the victim, protect the rights of the accused clergy, and provide for the well-being of the parishioner. Further, this document is to provide clear guidelines for clergy behavior and steps to take when sexual misconduct is alleged. This policy and procedure statement will serve to strengthen the covenant and ministry we share together.

DEFINITION OF CLERGY TERMS USED

For the purpose of this policy paper, the terms "clergy" and "pastor" refer to all ordained persons, all persons appointed to local churches and related agencies, clergy persons who are either probationary or full members who are members of the Conference but not appointed to local churches or related agencies, full/part time local pastors, student local pastors, diaconal ministers, and lay supply pastors.

COVENANT-PARAGRAPH #422 OF 1992 BOOK OF DISCIPLINE

"Members in full connection with an Annual Conference (and for the sake of this policy and procedure statement, all clergy as defined above) by virtue of their election and ordination are bound in special covenant with all the ordained ministers of the Annual Conference. In the keeping of this covenant, they perform the ministerial duties and maintain the ministerial standards established by those in the covenant. They live with all other ordained ministers in mutual trust and concern and seek with them the sanctification of the fellowship. Only those shall be elected to full membership (and for the sake of this policy and procedure statement, all clergy as defined above) who are of unquestionable moral character and genuine piety, sound in the fundamental doctrines of Christianity and faithful in the discharge of their duties."

INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

As noted in the above covenant, the pastoral office is a position of great trust, power and responsibility. This provides the opportunity for unique relationships of grace and caring. We would like to believe that no clergy person would violate the office for personal gratification. Unfortunately, this occurs. Sexual misconduct is one of the violations of this trust.

Pastoral relationships have the potential of a parishioner finding in the pastor an object of transference, placing the parishioner in a vulnerable position as he or she is working on conscious or unconscious issues from the past that are in need of healing. Persons in pastoral roles are in a position to exploit this vulnerability.

Sexual misconduct violates the integrity of persons and degrades persons by distorting their feelings of worth, dignity, and equity. It poses a threat to the quality of community life and compromises the church's ministry. Sexual misconduct:

-damages the victim psychologically, spiritually, and emotionally.
-betrays Christ and the pastoral office through the abuse of power, by using the authority of ministry for exploitation and personal gratification instead of healing and redemption.
-wounds the local parish and the whole of body of Christ in ways not easily overcome nor healed.

Pastoral self-discipline requires self-awareness and takes the Christian standards and ordination vows seriously. Personal integrity and mature professional and responsible conduct must be brought to all relationships by every clergy. The highest ethic of the clergy prohibits exploitation with a parishioner entrusted in his or her care.

DEFINITIONS OF SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Pastoral sexual misconduct is an abuse of power through sexual harassment (including creation of a hostile sexual environment), sexual contact (not limited to sexual intercourse), dating, or other romantic activity in which the pastor violates the free choice, or abuses the vulnerability of a parishioner (including children), client, church staff person, or colleague; or causes, or allows the parishioner, client, church staff person, or colleague to engage in inappropriate sexual behavior with the pastor. This understanding is equally applicable in the context of ministries in which there are no "parishioners" but there is a community which acknowledges the authority of the pastor as a spiritual leader (appointments beyond the local church, voluntary location, sabbatical leave, leave of absence, or retired) or other ministries in which the pastor serves a community wider than the membership of the appointed congregation.

At the core of this definition of clergy sexual misconduct is the abuse of power when a person initiates or allows sexual behavior with or from someone who is in a position of trust and dependence in the relationship. This definition raises the issue of whether any sexual behavior between a pastor and parishioner, client, lay or clergy staff or colleague is warranted. Any sexual misconduct is a violation by the pastor who then bears the responsibility of his or her behavior.

STANDARDS OF PASTORAL CONDUCT

1. Pastors are accountable for their behavior with respect to the emotional, spiritual, and physical well-being of persons who come to them for help or over whom they have any kind of authority. Breach of this pastoral relationship is unethical and abusive.

2. Because pastors often deal with individuals who are emotionally fragile or personally vulnerable, it is imperative that pastors:

   A. be healthy psychologically, emotionally, and spiritually themselves;
   B. have adequate preparation and education for helping individuals under their care; and
   C. have continued supervision in dealing with the inherent risks caused by dependency and/or transference.

3. Pastoral self-discipline requires self-awareness and takes the Christian standards and ordination vows seriously. Personal integrity and mature professional conduct must be brought to all relationships by every pastor in the Conference. The highest ethic of the pastor similarly prohibits any sexual misconduct with a parishioner entrusted of his/her sacred care.

4. All clergy, single or married, have the responsibility of developing healthy personal relationships. Married clergy have covenanted to nurture and maintain their marriage relationship. When relational and sexual difficulties are present in a pastor's personal and/or professional life, appropriate therapy is required.

5. Pastors who are appointed to parishes where there has been alleged sexual misconduct of their precedessor find themselves burdened with the inevitable consequences arising from the misconduct of a colleague. There is a tension between caring for a colleague and caring for the covenant of the pastoral ministry. By "protecting" a colleague, we risk perpetuating a relationship or pattern of abuse and victimization. This compromises the credibility and practice of Christian faith and ministry. At the point of risking such, the present pastor should refer such to the counsel of his or her District Superintendent.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Pastoral ministry involves confidential relationships. But when pastoral sexual misconduct occurs, the protection of the victims, both past, present, and potential, includes reporting known sexual misconduct. Such allegation of sexual misconduct should be kept in the strictest of confidence.

The spread of such allegations or accusations between colleagues in ministry or within the congregation is harmful to the victim, the accused, and to the process outlined in this Policies and Procedures Statement. Confidence will be maintained until all facts have been carefully considered and due process has been duly performed.

REPORTING CLERGY SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Because of the covenant with the church which is an integral part of the pastoral office, it is a pastor's responsibility to call the offending pastor into account by reporting such information about sexual misconduct to his/her District Superintendent, the District Superintendent of the accused, or the Bishop.

Pastors are to do their utmost to encourage and support aggrieved persons, and to assist in the initiation of an alleged sexual misconduct complaint. If for whatever reason the aggrieved person chooses not to do so, a pastor must himself or herself inform his/her District Superintendent, the District Superintendent of the accused, or the Bishop.

Every alleged sexual misconduct complaint must be taken seriously because secrecy and the withholding of information is damaging to the covenant. However, in no case is a pastor to judge the validity of the reported complaint.

When dealing with reports of alleged clergy sexual misconduct, the greatest possible care should be taken to assure that the least possible additional harm is done to the victim(s). Truth-telling is risky and painful and may stir up strong feelings of fear and anger for both those who tell and those who hear. But, truth-telling also has the power to release persons from secrecy, denial, and guilt that result from sexual misconduct.

PROCEDURES

When sexual misconduct is alleged against a pastor, persons bringing allegations of such will be received in a respectful and caring manner. Care will be taken to deal fairly and promptly with all those involved. This includes the aggrieved and his/her family, the accused and his/her family, the congregation, or the institution.

Paragraph #453 of 1992 Book of Discipline states that "Ordination and membership in the Annual Conference is a sacred trust. The qualifications and duties of local pastors, associate members, probationary members, and full members (for the sake of this policy and procedure statement, also, will include diaconal ministers and lay supply pastors) are set forth in the 1992 Book of Discipline, and we believe they flow from the gospel as taught by Jesus the Christ and the Apostles. Whenever a person in the above categories, including those on leaves of all types, honorable or administrative location, or retirement is accused of violating this trust, the membership of his or her ministerial office shall be subject to review."

Therefore, as prescribed in Paragraph #453 of 1992 Book of Discipline, if there is a violation of the trust of ordination, consecration, membership, or appointment by the act of sexual misconduct, the following procedures will be in effect:

1. The report shall be brought to a District Superintendent or to the Bishop by the offended party, or by anyone who has verifiable information or reasonable indication of sexual misconduct.

2. The District Superintendent or the Bishop shall engage in the appropriate supervisory response by promptly:

   A. sharing the report with the Bishop and Cabinet;
   B. explaining to the aggrieved person the process to be followed in response to the report;
   C. verifying and clarifying the grievance and the procedure with the aggrieved person, with another District Superintendent, or the Bishop;
   D. if the aggrieved person is a female, at least one female must be present (preferably a District Superintendent) during the time of interview;
   E. offering the services of a support person from the Conference for the aggrieved person;
   F. requesting the aggrieved person to put in writing the nature of the grievance;
   G. requesting permission from the aggrieved person to use the written grievance and his/her name in the discussion with the accused. If the aggrieved person is unwilling, the District Superintendent may share the grievance with the accused while protecting the anonymity of the aggrieved;
   H. forwarding the grievance in person to the accused and sharing the allegations with such person. The accused must have a copy of the formal written grievance. The District Superintendent (or Bishop in the case of the accused being a District Superintendent) must explain the process to be duly followed as outlined in this "Policies and Procedures Statement" and the 1992 Book of Discipline;
   I. the accused must respond formally in writing to the allegations within ten (10) days of date of the delivery of the grievance.

DETERMINATION OF SUFFICIENT CAUSE

Only the District Superintendent and the Bishop in the case of appointed clergy and the Bishop in the case of a District Superintendent may determine if there is sufficient cause for a grievance of sexual misconduct. All determination of sufficient cause and evidence presented will be reviewed by the Conference Chancellor, and a written response to such determination of sufficient cause and evidence presented will be given by the Conference Chancellor.

In the event that the District Superintendent and Bishop feel that the evidence presented is not reasonable enough for either substantiation or charge under Paragraph #453 of the 1992 Book of Discipline, then all information (including the report from the Conference Chancellor) will be filed in a confidential file and so noted that the "evidence was not substantial for charges under Paragraph #453 of the 1992 Book of Discipline."

The documents of accusation from the accuser, the statement from the aggrieved person, the formal written charge from the District Superintendent or Bishop, and the written response from the accused will not be integrated into the permanent personnel files of the accused.

If the District Superintendent, Bishop, and Conference Chancellor in the case of an appointed clergy and the Bishop and Conference Chancellor in the case of a District Superintendent determine there is sufficient cause for charges under Paragraph #453 of the 1992 Book of Discipline, then the following actions shall be taken:

1. The District Superintendent or the Bishop shall inquire of the aggrieved person whether he/she will participate in charges under Paragraph #453 of the 1992 Book of Discipline and such charges to be shared with the Joint Review Committee. In the event that it is concluded that a complaint is to be filed, the charges shall be filed by the District Superintendent or Bishop and forwarded to the Board of Ordained Ministry and the accused.

2. If the aggrieved person desires not to participate in the grievance process, the District Superintendent or Bishop may file such charges on behalf of the accuser and the aggrieved person. A copy of such charge shall be forwarded to the accused.

FORMAL FILING OF COMPLAINT

When a complaint under Paragraph #453 of the 1992 Book of Discipline is formally forwarded to the Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, the following procedures will be followed:

1. The Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry will call the Joint Review Committee to review such charges.

2. The Staff Parish Relations Committee or appropriate personnel supervisory committee shall be informed of the nature of the charges and the process being followed.

3. In order to protect the rights of the accused clergy and the aggrieved person, it may be necessary for the accused clergy to be placed on "Involuntary Leave of Absence" as defined in Paragraph #448 of the 1992 Book of Discipline.

JUDICIAL PROCESS OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

The Joint Review Committee is charged with the responsibility of seeking resolution of complaints and charges brought against clergy which is outlined in Paragraph #453 and subsequent sub-paragraphs of the 1992 Book of Discipline. For Diaconals, that process is outlined in Paragraph #313.3(b) of the 1992 Book of Discipline.

If the Joint Review process does not bring resolution of the charges, then the complaint is forwarded to the Board of Ordained Ministry or Board of Diaconal Ministry. The Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry or Diaconal Ministry will receive such charges and will duly perform the necessary judiciary procedures outlined in Paragraph #453 and subsequent paragraphs of the 1992 Book of Discipline.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION ANNUAL REPORT

The last twelve months have proven to be some of the most innovative and challenging in the history of Church Extension in the North Texas Conference. This year we have celebrated the growth of our newest congregations, building programs in three churches, the expansion of the Visionaries share program, and the development of some entirely new strategies for planting new churches.

CHURCH GROWTH

Our newest churches continue to grow at an extremely rapid pace. Lakeway in Pottsboro, for example, grew from a year-end membership in 1991 of 52 to a total of 166 at the close of 1992. Likewise, Vista Ridge jumped from 48 members in 1991 to 161 at the end of 1992. Aldersgate went from 91 to 230 in the same period. This is solid growth, and it continues today.

NEW BUILDINGS

Two very significant building programs have been accomplished and another is in the works:

(1) Vista Ridge United Methodist Church bought an abandoned bank building on Highway 121 in Lewisville, which has become their first permanent home. Moving in at the close of 1992, they have experienced such rapid growth that they already have gone to two morning worship services.

(2) New Horizon United Methodist Church moved a building onto their site (provided by Church Extension) on Wintergreen Road in DeSoto. New Horizon received a generous grant from the Conference Board of Trustees, which helped to underwrite a portion of the construction costs, enabling them to begin worship in March of this year.

(3) Lakeway United Methodist Church in Pottsboro is in the midst of a building program, constructing their own first phase, multi-purpose facility. They hope to be in the new building by August.

RELOCATION COMPLETED

The Board of Church Extension has assisted Trinity United Methodist Church in Wichita Falls to complete the transition from its old facility to a new location with a bright future. Church Extension loaned funds to the church for an advance purchase of the new site. This enabled the congregation to concentrate on selling their old location and saving their funds for the future move. The new building was completed and a buyer was found for the old facility. Unfortunately, the buyer could not pay cash for the old Trinity facilities. Again, Church Extension intervened, providing the financing for the sale and "buying out" all of Trinity's interest in the old site. This permitted Trinity to apply maximum assets to make the new Trinity Church an even faster growing congregation, unencumbered by other concerns.

LAUNCHING TWO NEW CONGREGATIONS

When Bishop Blake reads the appointments for 1993 at the close of this annual conference session, he will assign pastors to two brand new congregations. The new work in DeSoto will be our third congregation in that city. For its future, Church Extension has purchased eight acres of prime real estate on Cockrell Hill Road. The other new work will be a predominantly African-American congregation in the Mesquite-Garland area. This is only the second African-American church we have planted in a decade (New Horizon being the other). We are confident that the highly competent pastors appointed to these new works can build strong congregations.

THE KEY CHURCH STRATEGY: A NEW CONCEPT IN CHURCH PLANTING

The Board of Church Extension is developing a radical, new strategy in church planting. Known as the Key Church Strategy, the emphasis is upon large congregations who take it as their mission to help launch new congregations. Two pilot programs are currently receiving funds to help inaugurate the ministry.

(1) Our first Key Church is Lovers Lane, which has targeted such diverse areas as (a) a singles apartment complex, (b) an African-American community center, (c) a retirement center, and (d) Valley Ranch. The goal is to form a new congregation in each of these locations, using the resources (primarily people-power) of Lovers Lane Church.

(2) The second pilot Key Church is Pleasant Mound, which hopes to create new congregations in both the African-American and Hispanic communities surrounding their church, plus other people groups. Pleasant Mound's Key Church ministry begins later this month.

In addition to these two pilot programs, another new model is being launched in conjunction with Highland Park Church. There, we anticipate the appointment of Pa Nous Pan to serve as Minister of Missions for new Asian-American congregations. Please note, this is not simply the appointment of an Asian-American pastor to start a single new church, but instead his work is to assist in the creation of several new Asian congregations throughout the area. Pa Nous Pan will not be the pastor of these congregations, but will be the initiator.

Finally, in yet another location, we are developing a new African-American congregation in conjunction with Trailwood Church in Grand Prairie. In this modified Key Church setting, Trailwood will serve as the host congregation in reaching the rapidly expanding African-American population in their area. The hope is that shortly after establishing this congregation, Trailwood can participate in launching additional congregations among identified people-groups.

Other congregations within the conference are developing plans to institute a Key Church strategy. You will undoubtedly hear more about this exciting new way to launch new works in the months and years to come.

VISIONARIES SHARE PROGRAM ADVANCES

The Visionaries share program experienced growth in 1992. After a downturn in 1990 and 1991, Visionaries shares rebounded in 1992. Church Extension shares increased from a total of $80,422 received in 1991 to $88,959 in 1992. The comparable figures for the other share categories are: (1) Church Development shares rose from $71,807 in 1991 to $77,848 in 1992. (2) Town & Country received $46,998 in 1991 compared to $51,126 in 1992. (3) Urban Ministries shares totaled $22,987 in 1991 and $22,847 in 1992. Thus, total share income rose by $18,566 or 8.4% in 1992. The number of total shareholders in 1993 has also grown by approximately 6% as of this date; thus, the future of the Visionaries share program appears very bright.

PORTABLE BUILDINGS

The conference owns a fleet of portable buildings which now totals 19. They are leased to congregations in the conference at a nominal rate to provide more space for Sunday School, offices, and activities. Over the last 12 months, we have upgraded our fleet, added three new buildings. The churches that have used these buildings over the years have greatly profited from such low-cost space, enabling them to grow until they can afford to build more permanent facilities.

PROPERTY SALES COMPLETED

This year we have sold two properties.

(1) Harmony Church, which was abandoned at last year's annual conference session, was sold in January for $200,000. We retained a residential lot which is adjacent to the main site for future sale.

(2) The Bagwell Church property, which was abandoned in 1986, was sold in February for $2,000.

NEW POLICIES ADOPTED

This year, Church Extension has expended a great deal of energy in assessing its own methods of operation. Several factors have occasioned this, including the current state of economics in the area and in the conference. But we have also looked for more effective, as well as more efficient ways to reach a growing population of unchurched persons in North Texas. In order to do a better job in the last years of this century and beyond, Church Extension is adopting new policies, which are printed below. As the servants of the North Texas Conference, we seek at all times to represent both you and our God to a world that, more than ever, needs new and vital congregations so that "daily God may add to the church those who are being saved." We believe that we are in a new era of church planting, reaching overlooked people groups and newcomers with the good news. We covet your prayers and your continued support.

GENERAL MISSION AND POLICIES GOVERNING THE WORK OF CHURCH EXTENSION NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE

I. THE MISSION OF CHURCH EXTENSION

The mission of the Board of Church Extension is to develop new congregations in the geographic area of the North Texas Conference.

II. NEW CONGREGATIONS

The policies of the Board of Church Extension relating to the development of new congregations are as follows:

A. DEMOGRAPHICS

Church Extension, in consultation with superintendents whose districts are affected, will monitor demographic data around the conference and arrange for community or neighborhood surveys of areas which are deemed ready for the establishment of new churches.

B. DECISION TO COMMENCE A NEW WORK

A decision to begin a new congregation with assistance from Church Extension will be made by the Bishop, District Superintendent, and District Committee on Church Location and Building, following consultation with the Church Extension Officer. Nearby congregations also should be encouraged to become involved in the process of bringing a new United Methodist congregation into being.

C. SECURING A SITE

Church Extension, working with the District Superintendent and the District Board of Church Location and Building, will locate and either purchase or secure donation of appropriate sites for new congregations yet to be established, in locations where land is deemed necessary for the formation of a new congregation, or (to the extent deemed feasible) may provide financial assistance for the purchase price for a site selected by a new congregation recently established. The amount of land sought will vary according to the projected membership potential according to the following formula:

Potential Membership	Acres of Land Required
300 - 500	3 acres
500 - 800	3 - 4 acres
800 - 1,500	5 - 6 acres
1,500 - 2,500	7 - 8 acres
2,500 +	7 - 10 acres+

D. THE FOUNDING PASTOR

The Bishop and Cabinet will appoint a pastor to the new fellowship, following consultation with the Church Extension Officer concerning potential pastoral needs unique to this situation as well as the following general characteristics:

1. Strong personal faith and commitment to Jesus Christ and the church.

2. Demonstrated leadership abilities and skills sufficient to suggest high probability of success in forming a new congregation. Normally, this would be a person who has had at least one or two successful appointments.

3. Sensitivity, flexibility, and vision.

4. Stability in personal and family life.

5. A person accepting appointment to a new congregation should recognize that such a responsibility is seldom successfully achieved in less than a five-year pastorate, and those which are most successful usually involve longer tenures.

E. RESPONSIBILITIES OF CHURCH EXTENSION

1. Following appointment of a pastor to start a new church, Church Extension will provide the following:

   a. Community survey data and profile.

   b. A manual of procedures, custom designed for each new start-up.

   c. A missional start-up grant of up to a maximum of $75,000 to supplement the new congregation's budget during its first five years. Disposition of the grant shall be determined by Church Extension following consultation with congregational leadership and the district superintendent.

   d. Counsel and other assistance appropriate to organizing a new congregation.

2. Upon request, Church Extension will attempt to provide the following:

   a. An adequate site for the church to use.

   b. A schematic site plan consisting of a plat or sketch of the site, outlining the potential location, size, and number of buildings and other improvements which might be constructed on the site, either initially or in the future.

F. RESPONSIBILITIES OF NEW CONGREGATIONS

Congregations receiving land from Church Extension are expected to repay the full costs incurred by Church Extension in connection with the site (including, but not limited to the costs of acquisition, taxes, maintenance and financing), according to a plan mutually agreeable to the congregation and Church Extension. The new congregation will enter into a written covenant with Church Extension outlining the expectations of both parties concerning land costs. Unless some other formula is specifically adopted (e.g., the "25% Plan"), the following normal schedule, which begins repayment in the sixth year of existence, will be implemented.

Normal Repayment Schedule

First Five Years: Interest Free (No Repayment Due). Thereafter:

Year after Date of Note:

6 . . . . . 5 % of Balance Due at Beginning of 6th year
7 . . . . . 7½% of Balance Due at Beginning of 6th year
8 . . . . . 7½% of Balance Due at Beginning of 6th year
9 . . . . . 10 % of Balance Due at Beginning of 6th year
10 . . . . . 10 % of Balance Due at Beginning of 6th year
11 . . . . . 10 % of Balance Due at Beginning of 6th year
12 . . . . . 12½% of Balance Due at Beginning of 6th year
13 . . . . . 12½% of Balance Due at Beginning of 6th year
14 . . . . . 12½% of Balance Due at Beginning of 6th year
15 . . . . . 12½% of Balance Due at Beginning of 6th year
100%

G. CHARTERING THE NEW CHURCH

Chartering of the new congregation should take place when pre-agreed conditions have been met, including an appropriate minimum number of members, adequate financial support from the congregation for the general budget and building program, acceptance of connectional obligations, development of a statement reflecting in both theological and practical terms the congregation's understanding of its mission, and a fully functioning Administrative Board/Council.

H. FIRST PHASE CONSTRUCTION

The new local church should plan for the construction of its first unit in consultation with the District Board of Church Location and Building, the District Superintendent and Church Extension. Construction shall not commence prior to the successful completion of a Capital Funds Drive by the local congregation. Church Extension may assist the local church in arranging permanent financing for its new facility.

I. LAND TITLE

Prior to the commencement of construction, Church Extension will convey to the new congregation title to that portion of the site necessary and appropriate for the first unit upon application to Church Extension and approval of the Board.

1. The conveyance of title will be subject to a lien to be reserved by (or granted to) Church Extension in appropriate legal form, for the land costs, loans to the congregation, and other costs incurred by Church Extension, as described in paragraph F above, and, further, will be conditioned upon repayment to Church Extension (from the proceeds of the congregation's loan for permanent financing of construction) of all costs incurred by Church Extension in relation to construction.

2. The lien thus reserved by (or granted to) Church Extension shall remain in effect until all costs, loans and other expenses on the part of Church Extension, as described in paragraph F above, have been repaid in full. However, when deemed by Church Extension to be necessary and appropriate, Church Extension will agree to subordinate its lien (or liens) to the lien (or liens) required to be granted by the congregation for the financing of improvements to be constructed upon the site.

J. ADDITIONAL CONSTRUCTION

Construction of facilities beyond the first unit will be planned and arranged by the local church in consultation with the District Superintendent, the District Board of Church Location and Building, and the Board of Church Extension. Title to additional portions of the site will be conveyed by Church Extension to the local church as necessary and appropriate, and as may be negotiated.

K. MONITORING PROGRESS IN THE NEW CONGREGATION

The appropriate District Superintendent and the Church Extension Officer shall periodically evaluate the progress of each new congregation receiving Church Extension funds based, at least in part, on necessary church growth data supplied by the pastor.

L. FUTURE CHURCH PLANTING

It is the expectation of Church Extension that new congregations will seek to give life even as they have received it; that is, new congregations should, from their earliest days, seek to instill a vision in their members for planting new congregations. Such a vision includes encouraging all members to become participants in the Visionaries share program, as well as offering assistance to other new works -- from expert knowledge to volunteers to cash gifts.

III. KEY CHURCH MINISTRIES

Church Extension will encourage churches which have adequate resources to engage in planting new congregations through the Key Church plan. To that end, Church Extension will provide the following:

A. COUNSEL

The Church Extension Officer will arrange for counsel to be given to congregations expressing interest in becoming Key Churches. On-going consultation for Key Church ministries will also be provided.

B. GRANTS

In some instances, grant monies will be made available for the institution of a Key Church ministry within a local church. Such grants will be for salary support of a Minister/Director of Missions. Grants will be available on a declining scale, beginning at up to half of the salary support in the first year, the amount to be reduced by one-third in each of the two succeeding years. Thus, grant monies may be available for any single church for a period of up to three years.

IV. RELOCATIONS

A. ASSISTANCE AVAILABLE

Consideration will be given for assistance in relocations when the Board of Church Extension agrees that opportunity for church growth exists. The assistance may take the form of counsel on land purchase, construction and financing. Church Extension may assist with the purchase of property, including full or partial funding for the initial purchase (to be repaid according to a mutually agreeable schedule).

B. AGREEMENTS

Terms and conditions of all assistance provided will be specified in appropriate legal documents signed by the local church and Church Extension.

V. OTHER GRANTS AND LOANS

Requests for other grants and loans for new church development, church relocations, and related purposes will be accepted and considered on an individual basis by Church Extension, bearing in mind the purposes for which Church Extension exists as well as other commitments and the availability of funds.

VI. APPLICATIONS

Applications for grants and loans must be made one month in advance of a regular meeting of Church Extension. These must be submitted on the prescribed form, giving the purpose of the project, total cost, amount requested and rationale. All applications should be submitted to the Office of Church Extension, P.O. Box 516069, Dallas, Texas 75251.

VII. GENERAL

A. VARIANCES

Variances from the foregoing policies may be approved by the Board of Church Extension to meet special needs or situations. No such variance will be considered a precedent for similar variances in other situations. Each request will be considered on its own merits and acted upon in the best judgment of the Church Extension Board of Directors. In each case, Church Extension will determine the amount of assistance and whether assistance will be in the form of an outright grant or a loan to be repaid.

B. VISIONARIES SHARE FUNDS

It is the intention that Church Extension Visionaries Share funds will be expended toward the purchase of new church sites.

C. UPDATING POLICIES

These policies shall be evaluated periodically and updated as needed by Church Extension.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES ANNUAL REPORT

The Board met four times this past conference year, and was able to handle other business by correspondence or telephone. In addition to the local church property matters with which the Board is ordinarily occupied, we dealt this year with the sale of the former episcopal residence and the construction and furnishing of a new one, in accord with 1992 Annual Conference action.

As of this annual conference session, the Board holds in trust for the Annual Conference properties at Savannah Springs (jointly owned with the Baptist Church), Drop, McKenzie Chapel, Bethlehem, Mt. Pleasant, Minter, Gober, Wilmer, Myra, New Aldersgate, and Jermyn.

With the transfer of the deed of the Denton Wesley Foundation to the North Texas Annual Conference (an action which required the reinstatement of the charter of the Texas Commission of Campus Ministry), all Wesley Foundation property within the bounds of the Annual Conference is now held by the Conference.

We conducted training sessions for local church trustees in several districts. Once again, we encourage all local churches to make sure that their deeds and charters of incorporation are on file at the conference office.

The Board reports to Annual Conference the following actions which have taken place throughout the year:

1. The Elmo and Poetry congregations in the Dallas South District have merged, and their property, assets, and liabilities have been consigned to the newly merged congregation;

2. The Shady Grove and Tinney Chapel congregations in the Paris-Sulphur Springs District have merged, and their property, assets, and liabilities have been consigned to the newly merged congregation; and

3. The Brashear and Miller Grove congregations in the Paris-Sulphur Springs District, and their property, assets, and liabilities have been consigned to the newly merged congregation.

Respectfully submitted,
Jean Wood, Chair

Dallas, Texas.

Dear Sir:

I have audited the statements of cash receipts and disbursements of Dr. James Hares, Treasurer of the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church, for the years 1992 and 1991. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Treasurer. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audits.

I conducted my audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by the Treasurer, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe that my audits provide a reasonable basis for my opinion.

As described in Note 1, the statements of cash receipts and disbursements are summaries of the cash activity of the Conference and do not present transactions that would be included in financial statements presented on the accrual basis of accounting. Accordingly, the accompanying statements are not intended to present financial position or the results of operations in conformity with accounting on an accrual basis.

In my opinion, the accompanying statements present fairly, in all material respects, the cash receipts and disburse- ments of the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church for the years 1992 and 1991, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1.

J.Raymond Nelson, C.P.A.

Notes:

1. Principles of Accounting:
The Conference keeps its records and prepares its financial statements on the cash basis. In order to include the items in transit at the end of the year, the statements are dated the end of January.

2. Property and Equipment:
Major equipment, property and improvements, and similar acquisitions are recorded as disbursements as cash is paid. These items are not capitalized.

3. Procedures used:
Under the plan of bookkeeping procedures employed by the Conference Treasurer's office, all receipts are automatically confirmed to the source and all disbursements are approved by the Treasurer for payment.

COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

NATURE OF THE COUNCIL'S WORK

The nature of the Conference Council on Ministries' work is best illustrated by an event which occurred last September. Within two weeks of the devastation of Hurricane Andrew, the Council initiated a response which allowed the congregations of the North Texas Conference to reach out in a significant way. Publicity about the United Methodist Committee on Relief (U.M.C.O.R) Advance Special helped generate $138,270 to assist victims in Florida and Louisiana. North Texas United Methodists also delivered nearly 75 tons of food and water through a conference-wide coordinated relief effort aimed at supplying what was needed where it was needed.

The Council exists to assist local congregations to carry out their task of Reaching the Unchurched to Make Disciples for Jesus Christ and to connect congregations in ministry in which they could not otherwise be involved.

THE WORK OF AGENCIES

Since June 1992, the 37 agencies which comprise the Conference Council on Ministries have provided programs, training, and resources which have impacted thousands of persons. The following are just a few of many highlights:

* The Division of Evangelism instituted the first 4 of 6 District Evangelism Rallies whose purpose was to motivate and train persons to Reach the Unchurched. The division also began several networks to bring together pastors to address issues related to Reaching the Unchurched.

* The Commission on Asian Ministries started a new evangelism program entitled REACH, Reach Every Asian for Christ, whose intent is to assist local congregations reach out to Asian persons in their communities.

* The inaugural Conference Academy for Faith Education, better known as C.A.F.E., was held September 11-12 at the Spring Creek Campus of Collin County Community College. Approximately 900 persons participated in 84 workshops. At the same time, Youth C.A.F.E. held at Custer Road United Methodist Church, involved some 450 youth and adult workers from throughout the conference.

* The Commission on Religion and Race, in cooperation with several other agencies, developed a workshop on racism which will be made available to local churches.

* The Division of Stewardship entered into a partnership with Resource Services, Inc. to provide every local congregation with a complete stewardship education and budget campaign program at no cost. 240 congregations participated in 7 district training events and a number of those churches successfully employed the program.

* Summer Camps at Bridgeport and Texoma enjoyed another banner year as 1800 youth and children participated in choir, age-level, and SEEK camps. Additionally, the Summer Events Committee produced a document outlining the theological foundations and guiding principles of the Summer Events Program.

* The Board of Church and Society began several new programs designed to forge a closer link with local congregations as they struggle to deal with difficult issues in a hurt-filled world.

* The receipt of a major gift enabled the Camping and Retreat Commission to begin construction of a long-awaited swimming pool at Texoma.

* Volunteers in Mission, a division of the Board of Global Ministries, sponsored trips to Israel, Nicaragua, and Bridgeport which involved 50 people in direct mission and assisted numerous congregations to take their own V.I.M. trips. The Board also created a new Disaster Response Team and designated an annual conference hunger coordinator.

* The Commission on Communications and Resources became actively involved in 2 new endeavors. The traditional annual program calendar was redesigned to focus on apportionments and advance specials, while the "Appy the Apportionment Dollar" campaign provides monthly printed materials to every congregation highlighting the missional role of apportionments.

* The Conference Youth Council held 13 different retreats, conferences, and events ranging from Youth Annual Conference to Mid-Winter which involved 3500 participants. Not only were these youth and adults touched in important ways, they were equipped to strengthen their own local congregation's youth ministry.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL STAFF

The Council's work is also carried out by its staff in the following ways:

* consultation with churches concerning ministry with children and youth
* "My Job" district training
* training for Quality in The Local Congregation
* helping congregations discover their primary task
* assisting congregations to plan for ministry
* developing statistical analyses
* providing resources from the Conference Resource Center
* publishing a weekly edition of the North Texas News
* processing registrations for camps and retreats
* providing local congregations with a resource bank of resources and ideas
* helping congregations with computer technology
* answering hundreds of calls requesting information

Great appreciation is extended to those who have faithfully served in leadership positions and are now completing their terms of service: Gail Pettigrew (Division on Children's Ministries), Johnny Irish (Division on Family Ministries), Carol O'Cain (Commission on Archives and History), Reuben Esquivel (Division on National and World Outreach), and Bruce Mosely (Division on Community Ministries)

BOARDS

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

The goal of the Board of Discipleship this year has been to support and strengthen the work of the eleven Divisions of the Board. Following the Jurisdictional training in December, with emphasis on Quest for Quality in the local church, we have gained a greater understanding of Quality Improvement, and how the Board can help enable churches in the North Texas Conference to carry out the primary task of Making Disciples for Jesus Christ by:

Reaching and Receiving the Unchurched
Relating People to God
Nurturing People in Faith
Sending People to Serve

By sharing the vision and work of each Division, we are impressed with the unity of the Board in the midst of the diversity of eleven Divisions and two Standing Committees as we complete our first year of work together.

The Board continues to support the concept of CAFE, and several Divisions will offer opportunities for faith education in our Conference Academy in September. The Board Chairperson serves as a member of the CAFE steering committee.

Following are the Division and Committee reports:

DIVISION ON EDUCATION

The Division of Education has responded to the districts and churches who have expressed need for assistance. This has been primarily in teacher training. The assistance has come in the form of helping a single church to join with another in events.

Workshops for C.A.F.E. are planned for 1993 as in 1992.

The Division of Education and the Division of Adult Ministries are planning a weekend retreat for the spring of 1994 for those working or interested in Adult Learning and Adult Spiritual Growth.

Lane Tunnell, Chair

DIVISION OF EVANGELISM

The Division of Evangelism has developed a three-year process for helping local churches be more effective in "Reaching the Unchurched." During the last Conference year we began implementing the plan. Workshops were held for large-church pastors and staff in Dallas and Wichita Falls. Telephone contact was made with evangelism chairpersons in many small churches. We helped sponsor a special evangelism weekend for African-American churches. We assisted in a pilot project with Open Door Ministries to make a videotape for first-time visitors at one local church. We also planned evangelism rallies for each of the Districts in the Conference. Four of them were completed during the Spring of 1993. At each rally workshop, inspirational music and evangelistic preaching helped to motivate laypersons to be involved in the ministry of evangelism.

Scott Jones, Chair

DIVISION OF SPIRITUAL FORMATION

The Division has set as its major emphasis this year, Centering Prayer. We are encouraging reading "Open Mind, Open Heart" by Thomas Keating as a guide and then practicing the discipline. The Bishop has expressed his interest and cooperation in this endeavor and will offer opportunities within the Cabinet for this emphasis to be presented.

We will offer two classes at CAFE in September, one on Centering Prayer, and one on forming spiritual formation groups in the local church.

The Division continues to offer Days Apart for spiritual renewal through rest, prayer, reflection, and study. Three have been offered this spring and three will be offered in the fall. These days are led by ministers and lay persons. They are held in a variety of settings and use a variety of formats to appeal to everyone.

Our desire to have a "key person" as a contact in each local church is still an important goal of the Division. Through this person, we are able to spread the word about our days apart and other events, and to stress that the Division members are available to speak to Sunday School Classes, the United Methodist Women and other interested groups and to give leadership in other settings, such as retreats.

Jerry Overton, Chair

DIVISION OF STEWARDSHIP

The Division of Stewardship in cooperation with the Conference Council on Ministries has prepared a resolution on Stewardship Emphasis for the next three years - 1993 through 1996. It is included in the conference workbook.

One of the features is a profile of a model church in stewardship programs. The division will have available through the conference office, a summary of many resources that are available for church and stewardship leaders. There will be six sessions offered at CAFE: Christians and Money by Don Joiner of the Section in Stewardship, one session for laity and one for clergy and families; Orientation of New Members In Stewardship by Robert Spencer, Mobilization and Utilization of Volunteers by Donna Whitehead, the Stewardship Emphasis program by Jim Tarr and Developing and Promoting Endowment Funds by Jim Tarr.

Jim Tarr, Chair

DIVISION OF WORSHIP

In celebration of the new BOOK OF WORSHIP, the worship committee has enjoyed planning Annual Conference worship experiences for this 1993 year. The goal of the committee was to demonstrate the uniqueness and diversity of this exciting new resource by focusing on the Christian church calendar in each worship opportunity at Annual Conference.

In response to the Annual Conference Theme, "Reaching the Unchurched," the Division has invited local churches to share with the entire Annual Conference copies of worship services or special programs that have proven to be successful outreach experiences. These copies will be displayed in a Worship Division booth at Annual Conference. The same opportunity will be offered at CAFE when persons will share an open discussion on "It Worked For Us!"

The Division has also invited Dan Benedict, the new Worship Section staff person, to serve as clinician for Fall CAFE to provide even greater insight for local church worship chairpersons, pastors, musicians, etc.

Cynthia Wilson-Felder, Chair

DIVISION OF CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES

The Division continues to focus on the provision of leadership, consultants, and events to strengthen Children's Ministries in the local church. Events such as "Teachers of All Children," "You Asked For It,"and "Training for Vacation Bible School Teachers and Directors" are scheduled annually. Other training opportunities for weekday ministries teachers and directors are provided once or twice a year. Reaching the local teacher has been the emphasis over the past year. "Brunch with the Bishop" is the newest program of the division, bringing the Confirmation class members and the Bishop together for a morning of sharing, games and worship. This event has been met with great excitement from large and small churches in all Districts.

Gail Pettigrew, Chair

DIVISION OF YOUTH MINISTRIES

The Youth Division, in cooperation with the Conference Council on Youth Ministries, sponsored and provided leadership for 13 events during the Conference Year. It is our goal to foster faith education and development for youth and adults who work with youth. This year the youth division sponsored a new event for faith growth. CAFE for Youth, hosted by Custer Road United Methodist Church, provided nearly 100 classes for youth and adults who work with youth.

Two significant events, which responded to the needs of the youth in the North Texas Conference were as follows: A 21 member "Citizenship Seminar" team traveled to our nations capitol to study the problems of racism in our nation, and a study team of 7 persons attended a conference concerning violence and racism held in Chicago. The youth division was and is particularly concerned with these issues during the 1992-1993 year and will be providing educational events led by the above mentioned team members during 1993-1994 to work toward positive change.

The early 1990's have proven to be years in which youth have faced hate and violence in their everyday lives. With youth division leadership we have set goals to reach youth who may otherwise choose crime over faith. Our goal is to increase youth membership and provide an environment to welcome youth into our United Methodist Youth Ministry.

Cammy Gaston, Chair

DIVISION OF ADULT MINISTRIES

With the beginning of the new quadrennium, the Division on Adult Ministries is looking for a clearer definition of its task in relationship to the Division on Education and Spiritual Formation and the other adult-serving divisions. At present we see our focus to be in the arena of leadership development within the local churches and specifically aimed at the education of adults through the church school, but feel that much needs to be done to find the best niche for our efforts.

Our goals have been directed toward promoting and supporting Disciple Bible Study in churches of the conference, 2) offering leadership training classes at C.A.F.E. and 3) sponsoring conference leadership training events specifically for adult educational leadership.

At present, the Division will co-sponsor with the Education Division a conference training event for local church adult educational leadership at Bridgeport in the winter of 1994. The courses scheduled for the C.A.F.E. event in 1993 are: "Teaching the Bible to Adults in the Church" taught by Jo Biggerstaff and "An Introduction to Using Disciple Bible Study in Your Church" led by Ben Marshall.

Ben Marshall, Chair

DIVISION OF SINGLE ADULTS

The division started off the year last fall by sponsoring two successful programs through CAFE. One featured noted national Single Adult Minister, Doug Morphis. In October, the North Texas Conference again had the largest number of attenders at the annual Jurisdictional Single Adult Leadership Event at Mt. Sequoyah. This is the second consecutive year that our conference has sent the most persons to this Jurisdiction-wide event. The 1993 event will be October 15-17 at Mt. Sequoyah.

In May, the division sponsored a successful conference-wide volleyball fellowship for Singles at Highland Park UMC. Single Adults from all over the conferences attended, played volleyball, and fellowshiped together.

The division also lent financial, emotional, and spiritual support to a major project in the Dallas-Denton District. The project links 8-10 churches in the Carrollton area in a cooperative Single Adult Ministry. Members of the division have consulted extensively with the laypersons and pastors involved in this innovative ministry concept. We plan to offer any assistance we can to this venture, and pray for its success! And we look forward to a prosperous conference year.

Eric Folkerth, Chair

DIVISION OF OLDER ADULT MINISTRIES

The second Annual Older Adult Luncheon was held during Annual Conference at First United Methodist Church of Plano on June 8, 1992. Dr. Paul Cardwell was the guest speaker. The Herman Cook Award was given to Roger Anderson for his work with Older Adults in a program called "Merry Mobile Methodists." Roger helped start this program of RV Rallies at the Tyler State Park in 1988. The April 1993 meeting was attended by seventy-seven happy campers.

The Division sponsored classes at C.A.F.E. in 1992. In 1993, the C.A.F.E. class on Older Adult Ministry will be taught by Julia Catherine Reaves, BSM MSN MA, a specialist on aging. The "ABC's of Older Adult Ministry" will help local churches to strengthen or begin a ministry with Older Adults.

Members of the Division have acted as consultants to local churches by teaching in workshops, answering phone calls and letters. Catherine Reaves also appeared as a guest on a local television program called "No Time To Grow Old" talking about positive aging. The program is produced by the Older Adult Ministry of Lovers Lane United Methodist Church and is seen weekly on TCI cable, Chanel 50.

A member of our Division met with Central Texas Conference concerning the development of a South Central Jurisdictional Older Adult Network in 1994.

Doris Manning, Chair

DIVISION OF FAMILY MINISTRIES

The Division continues to provide training, resources and information concerning family ministries for all local churches.

In 1993 and 1994 we have goals in four areas to be in ministry to help families become stronger, healthier and Christian.

1) To develop and implement the Active Parenting Program. This program is designed to help parents develop the necessary skills for the hardest job in the world: being a parent. In using these skills parents can instill qualities to last a lifetime: self-esteem, courage, responsibility and cooperation. We have had Leadership Certification Workshops to train facilitators who then lead Active Parenting Workshops. At present we have over 85 persons who are certified in this program. (Many churches in the North Texas Conference are using this program.)
2) The second area has been the Celebration of Marriage. This program has been designed for married couples to strengthen their marriage in the context of the Christian faith. At these events, couples can celebrate their faith as well as their marriage. The theme for the retreats is "Growing in Loss." Matthew and Camille Gaston, Certified Instructors, are leading retreats and also training others to be facilitators. We want to continue to provide leadership and to have retreats in Celebration of Marriage.
3) To develop and implement a "healing and helping through loss" program for families. Because loss and grief is a phenomenon that affects all families, the Family Ministries of North Texas Conference has the opportunity to provide training, resources and information to help deal with this problem and to equip local churches with helping tools to be able to deal with grief and loss.
4) To provide leadership for our conference program "C.A.F.E." It is our hope and belief that these programs and events will reach out to our churches and also into the communities to follow the mandate set by our conference to "reach the unchurched."

Johnny Irish, Chair

SUMMER EVENTS COMMITTEE

There were 1,742 registrations for 1992 camping season. Registrations were down slightly from 1991 due to the reduced time available for the summer camping program. The Summer Events Committee accomplished a major project by completing the 'Summer Events Document' defining the mission and guidelines for the committee's work. This document makes clear the directions and goals of the summer events committee.

Time constraints continue to challenge the committee to look for even more creative ways of scheduling. The 1993 calendar projects back to back events for 9 weeks with the last events ending on August 1, 1993.

These very important accomplishments could not have been made without all of the committee members working in concert. Committee members are: David Howeth, chair; Andy James, Dallas Central; Sam Caldwell, Dallas-Denton, Ron Whitler, Dallas Northeast; Beth Rakestraw, Dallas South; Paul Nixon, Paris-Sulphur Springs; Mark Thurman, Sherman-McKinney; Larry Tinsley, Wichita Falls; Barbara Edwards, SEEK Committee; and Kathy Guttierrez, Choir Committee.

David Howeth, Chair

I want to express my appreciation to all members of the Board and to the Chairperson of each Division for their outstanding leadership.

Jan Wiksten, Chair
Board of Discipleship

BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

A review of the current BOOK OF DISCIPLINE specifies thirty six (36) different functions for the Conference Board of Global Ministries. In addition, the annual conference has assigned several functions to the board. It sounds overwhelming until it is discovered that every suggested and mandated function is vital to the life of the whole church.

The mission statement Jesus gave to the apostles was very clear. It is stated in Matthew 28 and summarized here: Go, Make Disciples, Baptize them, Teach them to observe all he had said, and Remember I am with you always. It was Jesus' way of saying that the "Mission" of the Apostles (to be sent) is to be in ministry. Our mission is to be in ministry to the world. Dr. Donald E. Messer, in his book, THE CONSPIRACY OF GOODNESS, states, "A church's vision of mission impacts its notion of ministry. The church and its ministry face stagnancy and sterility in a global, ecological, nuclear age unless mission re-enters our vocabulary and re-energizes our vocation."

John Wesley's mission statement was sharp and concise, "I consider the world to be my parish." The eminent danger facing the church today is that we seem to be considering the "parish to be our world." Many of our congregations have assumed the maintenance mode and resort to survival tactics as their "Mission." The early apostles responded to a call to be "sent" as their mission. Survival and maintenance were not words found in their vocabulary. They believed that their mission was to "GO" out, away from their homes and safehaven communities to be in ministry.

The future of the church in the North Texas Conference in the 21st century will depend on its recovery of an understanding of mission as Jesus prescribed it for the apostles. Therefore, every church in the conference is called to re-discover the Biblical call to Mission. That is, "to go into the world" as its mission, and do the work of ministry.

The six Divisions of the Conference Board of Global Ministries are committed to begin the journey.

R. Bruce Weaver, Chair

DIVISION OF COMMUNITY MINISTRIES

The Division of Community Ministries is engaged in helping charitable organizations meet human needs across the entire Conference. In 1992, almost $80,000 was distributed to thirty-one agencies which are feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, healing the sick, caring for children, and supporting the elderly. Thirty-nine grants totaling close to $90,000 will be made in 1993. Each request for funds was carefully investigated by a district representative and prayerfully considered by the entire division before its approval. Thanks to this helping hand from the North Texas Conference, a number of new ministries which could not have made it on their own came into being.

In addition, the Division presented one of the C.A.F.E. training sessions in September 1992. It provided opportunities for members of local congregations to meet agency directors and find out what kinds of things they can do to help the needy.

Bruce Moseley, Chair

DIVISION OF HEALTH AND WELFARE

Our division met three times this year. We had an approved budget of $13,600.00.

This first year of our quadrennium, we familiarized ourselves with our Methodist related institutions:

Methodist Home	Waco, Texas
Methodist Mission Home	San Antonio, Texas
Methodist Hospital	Dallas, Texas
C.C. Young Retirement Home	Dallas, Texas
Wesley Village	Denison, Texas

Our Division was represented at the joint training event sponsored by the General Council on Ministries at DFW Airport on December 11-13, 1992. We also attended all board meetings of the Methodist Home, the Methodist Mission Home, and the North Texas Retirement Homes.

We continued our membership in the United Methodist Association of Health and Welfare Institutions. Our Division has recommended to all our institutions to achieve Eagle status. The Methodist Home has already achieved that status and the Methodist Mission Home has begun the lengthy process.

Our Division has gathered data and desires to serve as an information source for the conference on:

A. AIDS/HIV Ministries
B. Health insurance and medical care for medical underserved
C. Physical/mental challenging conditions
D. Health awareness

Again this year, our Division sponsored a luncheon for 600 conference delegates and attendees with the purpose of education on the ministries of Methodist institutions serving all people.

Our goal for year two is to promote health and welfare awareness through specified action. I greatly appreciate the work of the Health and Welfare Division members.

Jerry L. Chapman, Chair

THE METHODIST HOME

Against immense difficulties, most children in America arrive at adulthood full of hope and promise. Most parents are managing–often with scarce resources and many sacrifices--to make sure our children have the guidance and opportunities they need to prepare for the future.

And yet, we are seeing the results of neglect in our school dropout rate, our rising tide of child abuse, our record-high crime. Juvenile arrests during the last ten years increased by 34% in Texas, as juvenile arrests decreased by 12% nationwide. Since 1981 arrests of Texas Juveniles for violent crimes has risen by 98%, compared to an 8% increase nationwide.

Methodist Home, accredited by the Council on Accreditation and carrying the EAGLE recognition by the United Methodist Association of Health and Welfare Ministries is committed to protect, support and enhance the lives of children, youth and their families.

The Home provided 3,661 additional days of care over the prior year. Through our affiliation with the conference we are dedicated to be a part of the helping ministry of your church with troubled children and hurting families.

REPORT II

1. Promote Methodist Home December Christmas Offering in each local church.

2. Reaffirm the defense and protection of rights and privileges of children needing care by someone other than their parents, and uphold the principle of licensing agencies, for purposes of caring for and placing children, to protect minimum standards of care for every child in the care of other persons.

3. Pastors are encouraged to contact Methodist Home regarding child placement needs. Call the Methodist Home Services located at 1424 Caruth, Dallas, Texas 75224, 214/692-1361.

4. Contact Mr. Ty Herring, vice-president for Development of Methodist Home when individuals indicate consideration of Methodist Home in making their long range giving and charitable estate planning.

5. Please do not hesitate to call upon Reverend Tom Strother, vice-president for Church and Community Relations, or Dr. Jack Kyle Daniels, president, for any needs you might have related to Methodist Home.

METHODIST MISSION HOME

"A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another" John 13:34.

Every day, at the Methodist Mission Home, I see evidence that United Methodists have taken seriously the commandment of our Lord to love one another. This love is evident in what our staff give and receive from our clients, and it is evident in the support which United Methodists give to the ministry of care. The following is a brief report on the ministries you support at the Methodist Mission Home.

SOUTHWEST MATERNITY CENTER:
Southwest Maternity Center is placing more children in adoption than has been the case for several years. In 1992, 76 infants were placed with adoptive parents. We continue to serve birth mothers, infants in need of adoption, and couples seeking to adopt a child. We continue to hold orientation meetings across various cities. We are holding approximately 35 orientation sessions per year for potential adoptive parents. We have been pleased to hold these in United Methodist Churches in each of the Seven Relating Annual Conferences and at the Mission Home.

SOUTHWEST CENTER FOR THE HEARING IMPAIRED:
The number of persons served by SCHI has dramatically increased over the last year with the addition of an off-campus Transitional Services Program. SCHI has gained national attention as a model for serving low functioning persons who are deaf. Numerous groups from throughout the United States have come to visit our campus in order to learn more about serving the special needs of this population.

SOUTHWEST CENTER FOR COMMUNITY RE-ENTRY:
This is the ministry for persons who have survived a traumatic head injury. This special service has proven to be a great addition to the ministries of the Methodist Mission Home and is serving an entirely new group of persons in need.

WORSHIP AND BIBLE STUDY for all clients is provided weekly, and an All Campus Worship Service (staff and clients) is held monthly.

TOUR GROUPS ARE WELCOME to visit the campus ... please contact Pam Perkins at: 1-800-284-0418 to arrange a time.

THE NEW VISIONS FOR THE NEXT CENTURY CAMPAIGN IS OVER THE GOAL! The initial goal for the New Visions for the Next Century Campaign was 1.8 million dollars, and at the end of December 1992 total gifts and pledges were in excess of 1.9 million dollars. This enabled us to begin the Capital Improvement Projects on the campus.

The deaf students dormitory has been completely remodeled. This work has been going on for some time in stages, as it was done with the students still living in the dormitory. Student rooms were the first project to be completed and work is nearing completion on the common areas, rooms and offices. We are hopeful of raising additional funds so that we will be able to break ground for a new Student Activity/Physical Therapy Center in the Fall of 1993. This new facility, at a cost of $550,000.00 will enable us to expand our services to include physical therapy, and it will also become a social center for the campus for recreational and physical conditioning needs. It will also provide us, for the first time, a facility to house youth work groups who wish to come to the campus, and will be a meeting room for adoption orientations and other program related meetings.

We now anticipate reaching our secondary goal of 2.6 million dollars, and, of course, need new special gifts to reach it. If you would like more information on how you can participate in the NEW VISIONS FOR THE NEXT CENTURY CAMPAIGN, please contact Larry Watson at: 1-800-284-0410.

HOW THE NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE CAN HELP THE METHODIST HOME:

1. Refer persons who are in need of our services.
2. Take an Annual Special Offering, using our materials, place the Methodist Mission Home on your budget, and distribute the materials in some special way.

3. Bring groups to tour the campus in San Antonio.
4. Urge classes and groups to take on special projects to provide for ongoing special needs, such as the Shares and Caring Fund for residents who lack personal funds for clothing, etc.

THANKS TO BISHOP BRUCE BLAKE WHO IS A MEMBER OF OUR BOARD OF TRUSTEES, and to all of the other NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE MEMBERS who are current trustees of the Methodist Mission Home. These include: Dr. J. P. Addison, Rev. James P. Ozier, Mr. Jerry Chapman, Mr. Ralph Shannon, Mr. Holman King.

C. C. YOUNG MEMORIAL HOME

Our Mission

Dedicated to the development and provision of housing and related facilities and services for the needs of the elderly in the area of North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church, C. C. Young Memorial Home is a non-profit corporation organized as a subsidiary of United Methodist Retirement Homes of North Texas, Inc.

We pledge ourselves to respond to the needs of the aging, ever mindful of our respect for the worth and dignity of the individual. Our services shall be offered and delivered without regard to race, religion, color, national origin, creed, sex, age marital status, handicap, or source of payment.

We have a mission to make available quality services to older adults in a secure, supportive retirement community that reflects a commitment to the Christian concepts of love and serving. We endeavor to accomplish this by:

- fostering the personal independence of our residents and creating an atmosphere where each resident is able to reach his or her full potential in each level of care, from independent living to full-time nursing care;
- preparing persons to work more effectively with older adults;
- reaching beyond our campus into the community to advocate for the rights and quality of life of all older adults;
- striving to occupy a leadership position among retirement communities;
- functioning as responsible stewards, using resources wisely.

A Tradition of Serving

Since 1921 the Home has continued a tradition begun by the Rev. and Mrs. Christopher Conley Young, one of providing compassionate care and services. They lovingly cared for several older women in their own home while he raised funds for "The Retirement Home," later to be named C. C. Young Memorial Home.

A Caring Community

Today C. C. Young Memorial Home serves 578 residents living on campus and their families. 280 full-time employees work in an effective way to provide quality, individualized services. Last year 165 groups and an additional 240 individuals recorded volunteer hours.
These dedicated people from churches, the community and the Home added another dimension of loving and caring.

- Asbury Place, completed in November 1990, with 78 one and two-bedroom units, is home to 99 people.
- Julian Thomas Center with 52 one and two-bedroom units serves 62 people.
- Blanton Gardens serves 128 people.
- Dearing Building, a licensed personal care unit, provides assisted living services for 57 residents.
- Young Building and Miller Building (Health Center) provides licensed nursing care for up to 244 residents.

Is there a waiting list? Persons needing nursing care or assisted living services are often placed within just a few days after applying. Blanton Gardens has a short waiting period of only several months. Please call (214) 827-8080 for current availability in each area.

Support Needed

Last fiscal year, we provided $104,369 in benevolent care for residents unable to pay full cost of care. Additionally, an estimated $419,587 was required to supplement State and Federal Medicaid payments. On any given day, one out of every three residents in the Health Care Center is unable to pay full cost of care.

The Endowment and Gifts Committee of the Home has launched a program to increase giving to our Endowment Fund. Income from the principal will enable us to meet more needs today and in the future. General and specific contributions are also solicited to meet a variety of needs.

We are grateful for the support we have received. With the support of the Conference and others, we will continue to provide quality services and to further extend the mission of the Home.

What YOU Can Do

We need your help, working through your local church, to promote contributions and volunteering. C. C. Young Memorial Home does not receive support through the apportionment system, but only through voluntary gifts and offerings.

For further information, please contact Julian D. Thomas - Executive Director, or Kenneth T. Durand - Administrator, at 4829 W. Lawther Drive, Dallas, TX 75214 or (214) 827-8080 for further information. Gifford K. Johnson is Chairman of the Board of Directors.

METHODIST HOSPITALS OF DALLAS

GOLDEN CROSS -

The 70th Anniversary of the Golden Cross Program was celebrated during 1992. Several special events were held to mark the occasion, one being a big birthday cake and celebration at the Annual Conference. A group called Golden Cross Advocates was organized to give special emphasis to the need for Golden Cross support. Their service made a difference in monies contributed and was greatly appreciated. The tradition of an annual fund raising Book Review-Coffee was begun this past year bringing good results.

During 1992, more that 75 persons were cared for through Golden Cross. Endowment earnings, trust income, other interest income and contributions received for Golden Cross during the past year were $196,760. In addition, $32,468 was received from churches in the North Texas Conference. A total of 124 of the 334 churches in the Conference made a contribution to the program. Every church is asked to strengthen support of this most worthy service of caring provided through Methodist Medical Center in Dallas. Funds are needed to increase the endowment level as well as support current service activities.

Thirty eight churches achieved the $1 per member goal established by Golden Cross founders in 1922. This represents a good increase over the prior year. The 100 percent churches for 1992 were; Arcadia Park, Brooklyn Avenue-Cross Road, Greenland Hills, Irwindell, Kessler Park, Oak Cliff, Oak Lawn, Button Memorial, Walnut Hill, Trietsch Memorial, Oak Grove, Copeville, Garland First, Richland, Axe Memorial, Kaufman, Mabank, Boxelder, Williams Chapel, Birthwright, Lone Star, Shady Grove, Bethel, Cunningham, Mahoney, Saltillo, Old Saltillo, Enloe, Pecan Gap, Cumby, Ben Franklin, Callisburg, Princeton, Trenton, Friberg-Cooper, Paradise, Perrin and Forestburg. Thanks are extended to each church for helping to satisfy treatment needs of seriously ill patients otherwise unable to obtain essential care.

The Golden Cross fund is used to provide medical assistance for individuals upon referral by ministers of the North Texas Conference. Other guidelines are; persons must be ill, without funds, and have a condition that can be treated at Methodist Medical Center.

Your Hospitals at Work -

Methodist Hospitals of Dallas is one of Dallas' leading healthcare systems with two hospitals; Methodist Medical Center and Charlton Methodist Hospital. It is affiliated by covenant with the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Methodist Medical Center (MMC), the largest of the hospitals, is a 463 bed general acute care teaching hospital and regional referral center, with a full range of medical, surgical, obstetrical and psychiatric programs, some of which are nationally and internationally recognized. During early 1993, two young physicians from Riga, Latvia spent three months at Methodist for training and observation. MMC is a major transplant center providing comprehensive specialty services. It serves as one of only three trauma centers in Dallas. A new multi-story service building is presently under construction on this campus and due for completion in late 1993.

Charlton Methodist Hospital serves southwest Dallas and the communities of Duncanville, DeSoto, Lancaster and Cedar Hill. A licensed 147 bed hospital, it offers general medical and acute and intensive care surgical programs, a 24-hour emergency service, a chemical dependency unit, and an outpatient diagnostic and day surgery center. A major building program is underway which will increase bed capacity and strengthen services. The new facilities are due for completion in late 1993.

Southeastern Methodist Hospital had served persons in southeast Dallas, Balch Springs, Mesquite, Seagoville and beyond for over ten years. Methodist Hospitals of Dallas had sought to strengthen this facility and its medical staff over the past five years to make it a viable provider of healthcare services for that area. When it became evident that recruiting of necessary physicians for the hospital was impossible, the Board of Directors of Methodist Hospitals made the difficult decision to close Southeastern Methodist and to make a gift of the facilities to the Dallas County Hospital District (Parkland Memorial Hospital.) The facility will reopen as a major area clinic, operated by Parkland, in the late spring of 1993.

In fiscal year 1992, Methodist Hospitals of Dallas:

- treated 23,749 adult and pediatric inpatients
- delivered 3,269 babies
- performed 7,436 inpatient surgeries and 6,066 day surgeries
- completed 431,326 outpatient tests, treatments and procedures
- treated 93,304 trauma and emergency room patients
- completed 20,140 patient appointments in the teaching clinics

The mission of the Methodist Hospitals of Dallas is to serve people in defined service areas by meeting their health needs effectively and in a manner that reflects "a commitment to Christian concepts of life and learning." Your interest, use and support are encouraged.

William T. Stephenson, Vice-President of Church Development
Methodist Hospital Foundation

DIVISION OF TOWN AND COUNTRY

The Division of Town and Country met regularly during 1992 and diligently sought to impact town and country churches in beneficial ways.

The Division has sought to meet the needs of town and country churches by making the attempt to stop thinking of itself as solely a grant making body. The Division is making a deliberate attempt to finance the implementation of programming that would benefit town and country churches and staffs. The Division is attempting to recognize and honor more successful Town and Country churches. There are many good things happening in town and country settings and we want the conference to know and appreciate them.

The Division has made grants totalling $72,108.79, and is looking for ways to initiate and finance effective programming for town and country churches in the North Texas Conference.

The Division has made grants on buildings, land, salaries, and programming as it has sought to fulfill its mission in the North Texas Conference.

The Division solicits your prayers as we attempt to be "just stewards" of the monies and talents that we have been entrusted with.

Larry Kruger, Chair

DIVISION OF URBAN MINISTRIES

The Division of Urban Ministries is involved in a comprehensive array of programs addressing urban issues and needs. The opportunities for ministry in the inner cities are numerous. Most urban ministries face the ever-present issue of needing more funding to further develop the wide range of programs that are needed.

The purpose of Urban Ministries is to express the inter-relatedness of mission, evangelism, church growth and social change. All participants in urban ministries must be inclusive: lay and clergy; female and male; young and old; volunteers and staff. And the levels of urban ministry must be micro and macro. Our task is promote renewal, revitalization and transformation.

The mission of the church is clear: we are commanded to help others and share with others. Through projects funded by this Division, we are continually strengthening and developing the urban congregational base for witness and mission. There are signs of hope, places where our vision is becoming a reality -- and we give God the glory!

In 1992, the Division of Urban Ministries awarded partial funding to the following ministries and projects:

Beverly Drive Music Ministry	$10,000
Brandon Ave. Hispanic Ministry	7,679
Munger Place Children's Evangelism	7,000

St. Paul, Dallas Laity Development Program 1,800
Wesley Korean Education Ministry 3,600
St. Marks, Mesquite Evangelism Outreach 5,000
Trinity, Wichita Falls Youth Ministry 4,000
Oak Cliff Group Ministries Youth Ministry 8,000

The Division also sponsored a seminar on urban ministries at the 1992 C.A.F.E.

Major concerns of the Division of Urban Ministries have been to (1) take on a fresh approach and develop innovative ideas to become not only reactive (receiving proposals), but also a pro-active (soliciting projects to be funded). We attempted to be prudent in (2) considering tying into local businesses/corporations for "matching funds," with the intent of "investing in the community." As we review and follow-up on our awarded proposals, we hope to (3) establish "national pilot programs" that have proven to be successful -- ones that can be used nationally.

I am grateful for the opportunity to serve as chairperson. Much has been accomplished due to the tireless efforts, prayers and concerns of the Division members. Special thanks to Richard Dunagin for his invaluable assistance, guidance and willingness to work with our group.

The task of Urban Ministries is not easy and will not be easy. But we can do the job well only if we utilize the United Methodist "connectionalism" approach to urban ministry. May the Lord hear our plea and grant us His blessing.

Lynn Santillan, Chair

DIVISION OF VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION

Through Volunteers in Mission we are able to use our time and talents in service. The role of the Volunteers in Mission Division is to enable groups and individuals the opportunity of getting their hands dirty, building relationships, and exploring faith through mission outreach projects.

Throughout the year VIM provides information on work team opportunities in the conference and throughout the world. This year a newsletter was originated called "Dirty Hands." Through the newsletter we are able to give details on upcoming events. Additionally the chair's phone number was published regularly encouraging callers for information on VIM opportunities. Almost once a week an individual or church has called for VIM information.

Our conference was asked to respond to relief efforts in Louisiana after Hurricane Andrew. Week after week groups have travelled to help rebuild lives. This afforded an opportunity to see UMCOR in action. The money and staff of UMCOR were used to organize the work teams when they arrived in Louisiana.

Conference trips are being planned to three diverse settings. A work team will travel to Prague, Czech Republic to restore to use a building for a congregation. A team will travel to McCurdy School in New Mexico to help prepare the campus for the return of the students. And finally, two teams will go to the Middle East to provide medical care and manual labor.

Most work teams originate from individual congregations. A booklet has been written and assembled to help whose who are planning work trips. The book is actually being set for its second printing!

A continuing need is for new organized work team settings, especially youth groups. This year three new sites were developed in our conference. Oak Cliff churches have organized a house renovation program called Building Lives in Oak Cliff (BLOC). Frisco has started a house renovation and multi-cultural program. The Division started a new tradition of inviting groups to help clean and repair Texoma and Bridgeport camps in preparation for summer.

Volunteers in Mission is a great way to rekindle spiritual excitement and to reach the unchurched.

Martha Stowe, Chair

DIVISION OF NATIONAL AND WORLD OUTREACH

Our Division, in cooperation with United Methodist Women, supported the Cooperative Mission Event held on September 18-20, 1992. Our share of the offering was designated for the "Crippled Children's Center, Mt. of Olives, Jerusalem."

We provided financial support to the Refugee Services of North Texas in order to help develop sponsorships. Eight churches from the North Texas Conference sponsored a total of 40 refugees.

Our division also made it possible for one ethnic youth from our Conference to attend the March 13-10, 1993, Seminar on National and International Affairs held in Washington, D.C. and New York City. The theme for this year's seminar was "Racism."

We have continued to stimulate local church involvement in missionary work. District Mission Secretaries training was held on March 16 to further encourage this effort.

Members of our Division have participated in national, district and local events and programs to promote support of national and world missions. Members led two courses during last year's Conference Academy for Faith Education (C.A.F.E.). We also helped coordinate the trip to Indianapolis in March to attend the Global Gathering.

Ruben E. Esquivel, Chair

CONFERENCE SECRETARY OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

North Texas Conference support for God's mission around the world dramatically increased in 1992. Reporting on two of the three major ways in which United Methodism reaches around the world in Mission--WORLD SERVICE AND CONFERENCE BENEVOLENCES AND THE GENERAL ADVANCE FOR CHRIST AND HIS CHURCH-- I am pleased to report:

1) North Texas Conference paid 96.6 percent of our Conference Apportionments (includes $941,999 WORLD SERVICE AND $668,457 CONFERENCE BENEVOLENCES) and that's up from 92.9 percent in 1991.

2) North Texas Conference churches paid a grand total of $310,643 for THE GENERAL ADVANCE FOR CHRIST AND HIS CHURCH and that's up from $227,463 in 1991 or a 27 percent increase in one year!

Even more dramatic is the increase in the number of churches giving to the ADVANCE...37 percent in 1991 to 71 percent in 1992 (that's a total of 242 churches....only 100 to go)!

U.M.C.O.R. accounted for the major growth with an increase of $111,508, the National Division increased $7,284, while the World Division showed a decrease of $35,612.

The per capita giving among our 149,406 members in 1992 came to $2.08 for an increase of 27 percent over the $1.52 per capita in 1991.

Hurricane Andrew Relief in the amount of $138,270 is reflected in the above U.M.C.O.R. figures, but the 75 tons of food and water collected from North Texas churches and delivered to sites in Louisiana for Hurricane Andrew Relief must be added to that money amount.

The third major way our denomination is engaged in God's Mission around the world is through the WOMEN'S PLEDGE TO MISSIONS AND SUPPLEMENTAL GIVING. Please see the United Methodist Women's report for that figure.

About sixty persons from the North Texas Conference participated in the GLOBAL GATHERING '93 at Indianapolis last March where twenty-two (22) new missionaries were commissioned for service around the world. Our conference has responsibility for the primary support of six (6) missionaries already serving through the General Board of Global Ministries. They are:

Dr. Mark and Mrs. Diane Abbott (Mexico)
Ms. Nancy Boye (El Salvador)
Ms. Chris Henna (Russia)
Ms. Jean Jacobs (Peru)
Rev. Ronald and Rev. Linda Jean Myers (Alaska)
Rev. John and Mrs. Gladys Betts (Brazil)

Another twenty two (22) commissioned missionaries received substantial support from churches in this conference last year.

A two-week RUSSIA INITIATIVE MISSION TOUR has been scheduled for June 21-July 6, 1993, for three sites in the former Soviet Union..Parnu, Estonia, and St. Petersburg and Moscow, Russia. Our purpose is to make on-site visits to United Methodist and other Christian churches, get acquainted with local pastors and laity, and come to understand the potential relationship of multiple North Texas Conference churches to our RUSSIA INITIATIVE:

Evangelism/Congregational Development
Leadership and Discipleship Training
Humanitarian Assistance
Sister Churches and Cultural Exchange Program

Several churches in the conference have this year undertaken a special effort to generate support for the construction of a new United Methodist Church in Parnu, Estonia (General Advance Special kl#01536-2AN) where the Soviet government confiscated their building in 1940. Rev. Ullas Tankler, pastor of the Estonia congregation, itinerated in the North Texas Conference this spring and is expected to host the RUSSIA INITIATIVE MISSION TOUR, that's scheduled its first stop in Estonia.

My gratitude to the seven District Secretaries of Global Ministries, the Conference Board of Global Ministries and the Rev. Dr. Kenneth B. McIntosh, Field Representatives of the General Board of Global Ministries, for their work to involve local congregations in God's Mission through the Advance. And, in particular, appreciation for Bishop Bruce Blake's teaching across the conference, "Lessons from Africa."

Robert L. Robertson, Conference Secretary

DIVISION OF HIGHER EDUCATION

The Division of Higher Education began this past conference year with profound regard for "what has gone before". The seven institutions of higher education were projected into our questioning focus:

Houston-Tillotson College, Austin
Lon Morris College, Jacksonville
McMurry University, Abilene
Southern Methodist University, Dallas
Southwestern University, Georgetown
Texas Wesleyan College, Ft. Worth
Wiley College, Marshall

Plans were made to secure lists of each FUMC of the seven districts in the North Texas Conference in order to implement the goal to inform every North Texas Conference youth of Christian educational opportunities.

The one goal: to share our invested concerns for higher education (scholarships, grants, employment) and beliefs that every Methodist youth CAN ATTEND our colleges and universities, and can be assured of a marketable degree as well as a lasting Christian life-beginning.

Rev. Doyle Henderson, pastor of Whitesboro church, secured "Mission Statements" from each of the seven colleges and universities, each, one per issue, appeared in seven consecutive issues of the UNITED METHODIST REPORTER.

One Scholarship will be presented during the North Texas Annual Conference while grievously, no funds are available for the usual Merit Scholarship.

A continuing goal of this North Texas Conference Division of Higher Education is to implement a firm working relationship with administrative staff, teaching faculties and students of the College Bound youth to explore "Methodist Opportunities". The previous recruitment technique of "College Fairs" has been reevaluated, which in turn has prompted this agency to explore the alternatives discussed with Bishop Oliphint and Editor James Noseworthy.

On behalf our Division on Higher Education, goals, aspirations and commitments have been more clearly defined through this first year's experience with the enormity of responsibilities for higher education in the "dominant cultures of today," if not more especially for Christian education. The Division feels that with the three-fourths remainder of the Quadrennium before it, surely faith and expectations may now warrant the prayers of the entire conference for educational tasks; we hope to prove worthy of the trust placed by the North Texas Conference.

Mary E. Preas, Chair

DIVISION OF CAMPUS MINISTRY

The following is a thumbnail sketch of ministry taking place on college campuses throughout the North Texas Conference. Heartfelt gratitude goes out to campus ministers, board members, faculty, staff, and students who present Christ on each college campus.

Randy Newkirk at East Texas State University reports that over 65 faculty, staff, and students attended a weekly luncheon which included a time for worship and fellowship. Mission and outreach were a priority at East Texas with the Heifer Project, Habitat for Humanity and food drives heading the list. Throughout the year Randy also taught seven Bible classes.

Bill Stephenson reports that the work of the Greater Dallas Community College Ministry is going very well under the leadership of Philip del Rosario. During the past year, the Greater Dallas Community College Ministry celebrated its fifteenth anniversary. At that time Betsy Alden was honored as the founder of the program. The Praxis Program for the community college ministry provided over 16,000 volunteer service hours to non-profit organizations. Two community college ministers co-sponsored a breakfast on the National Day of Prayer. Then in the fall of 1993 all seven campuses are sponsoring a Peace Conference. Many of these programs resulted from a visioning process for the Greater Dallas Community College Ministry begun in 1992.

Bob Lee of Midwestern State University reports that much love, paint and energy has resulted in a new look for six cabins at Bridgeport and a parsonage at Mt. Calvary Church. Over 20 lawns of shut-ins have been mowed by students. Every Sunday evening is a time for dinner, Bible study, and recreation. Thursday luncheons host over 25 students, faculty, and staff. Ushering at Texans ball games raised money that went to host the Special Olympics of Denton.

At the University of North Texas Ric Jones reports that over 100 students meet weekly at the University Ministry Center in four different groups. Three of the groups have been newly formed over the past year. Financial help is much needed for the building to make it more functional for student use. A first took place with the campus Christian organizations at North Texas combining their efforts for two different events during the year. Thanks to Ric for this part in this new beginning.

Judith Cooper at Paris Junior College reported that outstanding leadership has been recruited for the Board. An ongoing Bible study led by Michael House at Clarksville has been most successful. Other highlights include a spring retreat and by the end of the year the weekly luncheons averaged more faculty, staff, and students than at the beginning of the year.

At Texas Woman's University Terry Sparks has promoted Praxis with 131 students completing their volunteer work in the fall semester and 101 in the spring term. Terry and Ric Jones combined forces to establish two ongoing traditional student groups. A highlight of Terry's work has been the establishment of a Praxis Program for the first time at Collin County Community College. The first students will enroll this fall.

Thanks again for the calling and commitment of our campus ministers, boards, and faculty, staff, and students.

Robert Hasley, Chair Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

I am pleased to comply with the 1988 Resolution from the Jurisdictional Conference requesting an Annual Report to each Annual Conference in the South Central Jurisdiction.

Several new academic initiatives for 1992-93 have strengthened our educational mission. Among them:

- A new major and minor in international studies.
- A summer Institute in Mexico as part of SMU's study abroad programs.
- A School of Engineering and Applied Science graduate program in hazardous and waste materials management, a response to the need for more expertise in environmental engineering.
- A new Bachelor's degree in Dedman College in environmental geology in response to industry demand for earth scientists who understand the environment.
- A new dual-degree undergraduate program in music and computer science offered by SEAS and Meadows School of the Arts.
- Opening of the Greer Garson Theater, including facilities for the Southwest Film/Video Archives.
- Introduction of a new urban studies course in Dedman College with a major volunteer component: tutoring children in East Dallas; some students live in a Habitat for Humanity house in the neighborhood to provide round-the-clock mentoring to the children.

Our fiscal stability continues to be precarious, but we again anticipate a balanced budget for 1992-93. As our enrollment stabilizes, we will be able to make clear projections for balanced budgets for the next several years. We hope you will continue to send us your outstanding United Methodist Scholars.

The United Methodist Campus Ministry at SMU, under the able leadership of Reverend Greg Ligon, continues to be significant in United Methodist students' lives at SMU. The new apportionment passed by the Jurisdictional Conference in July 1992 is vital to our mission in serving United Methodist students.

SMU continues to make significant progress in a variety of areas. The 1992-93 year has been eventful and productive. During the Fall semester a task force 1 appointed focused on the issue of whether or not SMU should remain in Division I-A athletics. The task force, chaired by Dr. Leighton Farrell, Pastor of the Highland Park United Methodist Church, recommended that SMU remain in Division I-A athletics of the NCAA and the Southwest Conference. The Board of Trustees approved this recommendation at its meeting in December 1992. As part of the affirmation of staying in the Southwest Conference and Division I-A, the Mustang Club has agreed to raise 1.6 million dollars to ensure that athletics expenses do not drain academic resources. This will be a significant task, but the Mustang Club leadership has confidence it can be achieved.

On February 8, 1993, Ray L. and Nancy Ann Hunt (members of our Lovers Lane United Methodist Church in Dallas) announced a $25 million commitment to SMU to be used for scholarships. These scholars are to be students who have demonstrated both achievement in the classroom and high ideals through outstanding leadership in their schools and communities. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt have made it possible for a broader range of students to learn from and contribute to our University. We are extremely grateful for the Hunts' generosity.

We deeply appreciate your interest, gifts, prayers, and leadership, all of which strengthen our vision for SMU.

A. Kenneth Pye, President

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY CAMPUS MINISTRY

What do "Friday Forum," "Takin'it to the Streets," "Club F.R.E.D.,"Vision '93," "Crosstraining," "Stepping Out of the Comfort Zone," and "Hardcore B.S." have in common? They are all programs of the United Methodist Campus Ministry at Southern Methodist University designed to "prepare students to make a difference." As a newly funded ministry of the South Central Jurisdiction, UMCM at SMU is doing just that: preparing students to make a difference as Christ-centered disciples...on their campus, in their community and throughout their world.

SMU's United Methodist Campus Ministry is dedicated to starting where students are: accepting and understanding their needs during the transitional university years. Starting where students are finds staff and student leadership helping new students move into the residence halls, playing intramural volleyball, building a homecoming float, and helping students one-on-one or in small groups sort out questions concerning vocation, relationships and faith.

The UMCM Board of Directors, in its establishment of the ministry's mission and purpose, also recognized the importance of drawing students into a community where growth could occur. This commitment finds its fulfillment in a weekly bible study promoted on campus as Hardcore B.S.* (*Bible Study) Each week 40-50 students gather for fellowship, prayer, singing and study of the scriptures. A junior student from Arkansas said, "Hardcore B.S. on Thursday nights acts as a release from the pressures of school. Greg teaches us how to apply what the Bible says to our own lives. He makes us think without MAKING us think."

"Crosstraining" is a ministry developed by the UMCM Staff as a result of their dedication to calling students to life changing faith in Jesus Christ. Each spring a group of 12-15 students meets weekly to study the basics of the Christian faith and what it means to be a member of the Church in general and the United Methodist Church in particular. The multiplication of the ministry on campus is also seated here as students are equipped to share their faith and lead small groups. This fall four students are leading freshman bible studies in the residence halls and other are leading studies in fraternity and sorority houses.

UMCM also seeks to empower students to be spiritually equipped and hope-filled in their faith. This goal is met in a variety of ways in the weekly program and is also encouraged through participation in special programs on campus and through jurisdictional and general church programming. An active senior said, "The programs and opportunities offered through UMCM has given me direction in finding my place in the world as I face the challenges of each new day." Students have participated in Exploration 1992, the church's program for those considering the call to ministry and others shared in Vision '93, a South central Jurisdiction endorsed leadership conference, held on the SMU campus in January of this year.

The United Methodist Campus Ministry's mission of preparing students to make a difference would not be complete without a dedication to commissioning them to answer the call to discipleship, evangelism and service. Each week students are involved in urban ministry in West Dallas. They tutor, love and serve as a mentor to hundreds of kids each week. Others serve in the Wesley Rankin Community Service's ministry through involvement in the exciting "brickmaking" project which will transform the residential community of SW Dallas. Still others are committed to serving beyond the local community as May term 1993 will find a group of students ministering in the country of Panama through a Volunteers in Mission project.

The United Methodist Campus Ministry at SMU is a ministry of the South Central Jurisdiction and is staffed by Director, Rev. Greg Ligon and Interns, Kathryn Bennett and Jeff Jacob. Reestablished three years ago, after 25 years with no full time director, the ministry is an intentional effort to strengthen the ties between the university and local UM churches of the jurisdiction. In addition to campus programming, UMCM hosts over 1600 UM Youth in an annual Jurisdictional UMYF Day--Go for the Goal. Students are also involved in local church outreach where they lead youth events, participate in worship and teach Sunday school in area churches.

Preparing people to make a difference as Christ-centered disciples on their campus, in their community and throughout their world.--The mission and ministry of the United Methodist Campus Ministry at Southern Methodist University! The staff, the board of directors and the students would like to thank you for your commitment and support of this vital ministry!

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY
Perkins School of Theology

Every year is a year of change, but this one is memorable in that regard. In May five members of the Perkins faculty will retire--Fred Carney, Professor of Ethics, William K. McElvaney, LeVan Professor of Preaching and Worship, Richard Murray, Seneker Professor of Christian Education, Schubert M. Ogden, University Distinguished Professor of Theology, and David Switzer, Professor of Pastoral Care. Their combined service in our community totals 139 years. We will miss them all.

A search is being conducted for Professor Murray's replacement; Professors William F. May and Charles Curran will combine to provide courses in Christian Ethics formerly taught by Mr. Carney. At current levels of enrollment in the M. Division program, we will not be required immediately to replace Bill McElvaney. Dr. Ellen Charry and Dr. Patricia Howery Davis are already in the positions formerly filled by Schubert Ogden and David Switzer. We are grateful to these persons for their years of dedicated service which have positively influenced so many of our lives, and for their contributions to Perkins.

Two current members of the faculty have been recognized by professional organizations. Victor Furnish is serving this year as President of the Society of Biblical Literature, and Joe Allen is just completing his term as President of the Society of Christian Ethics. William J. Abraham has been awarded a $100,000 grant from the Pew Trust. Professors Clifton Black and Danna Nolan Fewell are being reviewed for promotion to the rank of Associate Professor with tenure at Southern Methodist University. Dr. Michael Hawn joined the faculty in September as Associate Professor of Church Music. He is an outstanding church musician who has just completed a term as President of the Choristers Guild of America. Some of you were privileged to hear him during Minister's Week. He was formerly on the faculty at Southeastern Baptist Seminary in Wake Forest, North Carolina.

Major revisions have been made in the curriculum of the Master of Religious Education and Master of Sacred Music Degrees. These changes will strengthen both programs, and enable us better to make use of the strengths of the Meadows School of the Arts in our sacred music program.

Enrollment continues steady at 340. We currently have 252 M. Div Students, 83% of whom are United Methodists; 22% of our students are persons of color; 40% are women. The options available to students for completing the intern requirement and the new schedule of evening classes have been well received.

We are currently seeking to raise endowments for the new Center for the Advanced Study of Evangelism, the Zan Holmes Diversity Scholarship for persons of color, and to construct the link between Selecman and Kirby Halls. When completed, this addition will enable us to make all our facilities fully accessible for physically challenged persons and will also provide thirteen thousand additional feet of much needed floor space. It is a three and a quarter million dollar project. Church wide giving to the Ministerial Education Fund was down in 1992. It performed at 78.97% of its apportioned amount. I urge your continued attention to this item in your budgets.

We are grateful to all of you for your continuing interest and support as Perkins seeks to carry out its mission on behalf of the Church.

James E. Kirby, Jr., Dean

SAINT PAUL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

The 1992-93 school year has been filled with many exciting developments as Saint Paul seeks to remain ever faithful to its mission to prepare competent and dedicated leaders for the church.

Last fall's entering class was the largest in history. The entering class was thirty percent larger than the year before. While Saint Paul has reflected steady growth since its beginning in 1959, this dramatic increase is unprecedented.

The establishment of an Evangelism teaching position is being made possible through a partnership between The Foundation for Evangelism and Missouri United Methodists. The Foundation has agreed to fund the faculty position while the funds are being raised within Missouri for a permanent endowment for this position.

The Mabee Foundation in Tulsa issued a $700,000 Challenge Grant to Saint Paul in support of the renovation of the entire seminary campus. By raising $1,400,000 in new gifts and pledges, the seminary will earn the Mabee grant. Although Saint Paul is a relatively young school, the campus goes back to the early years of the century when it was used as a Methodist college. The campus renewal project calls for renovation of buildings, complete accessibility, conversion to a pedestrian campus, and the razing of some buildings which have not been used in recent years.

A new specialization in Town and Country Ministries is now available for Saint Paul students. This specialization was developed to strengthen Saint Paul's commitment to preparation for ministry in rural, open country, and small town settings. It seeks to build on the work of the Town and Country Ministries Chair at Saint Paul occupied by the Reverend Edward A. Kail.

From the beginning, Saint Paul has focused on preparing leadership for the local church. While Saint Paul graduates continue to render distinguished service in many forms of ministry, the original mandate for Saint Paul was to meet a need for a seminary to emphasize local church ministry. That emphasis remains today, with Saint Paul continuing to have the highest percentage of its graduates serving in local churches of all the United Methodist seminaries.

Saint Paul's commitments to the church and to uncompromising academic excellence were highlighted this year during the regular ten-year review by the University Senate of the United Methodist Church. In recommending renewed approval, the Senate review team said in their report, "The quality of the educational program is high. They have maintained their focus on preparing persons for pastoral ministry. Its curriculum, outreach, and attitude are deeply appreciated by the church in the region. Some years ago there were some negative perceptions of Saint Paul. This seems to have been replaced with a high level of confidence."

Saint Paul School of Theology is preparing a new generation of leaders for the church in the Wesleyan tradition. There is no more worthy endeavor to which any of us could give our energies and resources. We thank you for being partners with us in this mission.

Lovett H. Weems, Jr., President

TEXAS UNITED METHODIST COLLEGE ASSOCIATION

The Texas United Methodist College Association, consisting of the seven United Methodist colleges and universities in Texas, was founded in 1948 to serve as a bridge between the colleges and the church. The Association seeks to communicate the role, mission and value of the institutions as a vital part of the ministry of the church.

The United Methodist churches of Texas support the colleges by supporting the students! Huston-Tillotson College and Wiley College receive support through the Black College Fund apportionment, most of which is used for financial aid for students. All of the funds received by the other five institutions through the Texas Methodist College Fund are used for financial aid for students. This partnership of church and college enables each to fulfill its mission more fully.

Administrative costs are kept at a minimum. In September, 1992, Bishop Ben Oliphint became the executive officer, and Mrs. Mimms (Jean) Cleveland became the secretary. Both work on a part-time basis.

"The biggest issue facing church-related colleges and universities in America right now is affordability. Period," says James A. Belvin, Jr., of Duke University. "Nothing else matters if parents can't find a way to enroll their young people here."

Annual conference apportionments play a critical role in this venture. Because of your caring spirit and generosity the following amounts of money were given to our colleges in 1992 for financial aid:

Lon Morris College	-	$ 138,040
McMurry University	-	165,920
Southern Methodist University	-	223,890
Southwestern University	-	163,965
Texas Wesleyan University	-	160,185

Our colleges are proudly related to the United Methodist Church. As institutions of Christian higher education, they explicitly support the life and faith of the church. They are an irreplaceable source of future leadership for the church and for society.

Ben Oliphint, President

BOARD OF LAITY

The Board of Laity of the North Texas Conference has met four times this year with the main order of business that of reorganization, goal setting, and defining our role in the conference. Conference lay leader, Pat Deal attended the National Association for Annual Conference Lay Leaders (NAACLL) meeting in Atlanta where she was elected to the executive committee as Jurisdictional representative. That meeting resulted in excellent training and networking opportunities which brought new information and new ideas to our conference. Ms Deal also presented the annual Laity address (mandated by 1992 General Conference) and represented the Laity in the Service of Ordination at Annual Conference.

The Board planned and led the training of Lay Members at the Laity Session of Annual Conference and sponsored the (hopefully) first annual Laity Celebration Luncheon. Plans have begun for a joint training and orientation for District Lay Leaders and Superintendents, to further the understanding of each role and to encourage "Mutual Ministry" among clergy and lay.

We on the board of Laity look forward to actively participating in the task of energizing the laity and empowering the church for the tasks of offering Christ to the world, and accepting with gratitude the Good News of Gods's grace.

COMMISSIONS AND COMMITTEES

COMMISSION ON ASIAN MINISTRIES

The Commission on Asian Ministries has focused its efforts this past year on reaching to the unchurched, churched, Asians and non-Asians through a variety of events and programs:

ASIAN WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP

Forty-six women attended the First Annual Asian Women's Fellowship held at Wesley UMC in Garland. The program included worship, prayers, and songs incorporating the various Asian languages and cultures. Small breakout groups enhanced the relaxed atmosphere, one intentionally designed to enable all women to feel comfortable and part of the group. Participants represented the following:

33 - Asian
12 - Korean
10 - Filipino
1 - Cambodian
6 - Indian
4 - Chinese

13 - non Asian

Three of the four Korean UMC congregations were represented. Twelve Asian women represented fifteen predominantly non-Asian congregations.

An multi-cultural Asian feast was cooperatively prepared. The goal for all Asian women - Methodist, Christian or non-Christian - to share experiences, learn about the Methodist family, and to learn from our diversity, was accomplished. This event will be offered each year.

YOUTH RETREAT

Seventy-nine Asians participated in the annual youth retreat held at Lake Texoma Conference Center, October 9-10. Worship, group singing sharing of meals and recreational activities were included. Several of the youth, not affiliated with any congregation, were welcomed to the retreat and were provided the opportunity to develop new friendships and learn about the United Methodist Church.

CAFE WORKSHOP

Approximately one hundred persons attended the annual dinner held at Cochran Chapel UMC on November 8. Rev. Ruben Habito was the keynote speaker. Asian food and entertainment were included in the program.

KOREAN EVANGELISM TRAINING

Four lay leadership training seminars were held on evangelism for Korean congregations; two were held at Wesley UMC on November 25 and December 1 with 61 persons in attendance. Two other seminars were held at Dallas Korean UMC on November 24 and December 1 with 59 in attendance. Leaders included Rev. Hong Lee, Rev. In Sang Hwang and Rev. Sung Lee.

YOUTH LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT
James Zerda, a member of Cochran Chapel UMC and Filipino, was provided a partial scholarship which enabled him to attend the Seminar on National and International Affairs in Washington, D.C. James is now very active on the Commission in youth relations.

MINISTRY TO INDIANS
Dr. Samuel Gamadia taped weekly 15 minute messages which intentionally followed a successful radio program with a large Indian audience. The messages were aired over KPYK 1570 AM once a week from 11:30-11:45 a.m.. Ads which included a Biblical message were briefly placed in the national publication, India Abroad, which generated several letters to Dr. Gamadia requesting information on Christianity and Methodism.

CAMBODIAN COLLEGE STUDENT ASSISTED
Eng Pol, a student at Onondaga Community College in New York, was provided a one-time scholarship to assist with tuition and books. His sponsor here in the United States is Rev. Pa Nous Pan.

Colleen Townsley Hager, Chair

COMMISSION ON THE BLACK CHURCH

This past year has been a very exciting year for the Commission on the Black Church. At our very first meeting, we made a commitment to our youth in the conference. We felt that with all of the violence, drugs, and gangs in our communities that it would be important for us to offer an alternative to our youth. We began to plan to take some of our youth in the conference to the 25th Anniversary of the Black Methodists for Church Renewal which was held in Cincinnati, Ohio. The Commission helped to charter two buses for the long trip. We were able to provide ten scholarships for some of the youth who could not afford to go.

The Conference was a great experience for our youth. They participated in workshops on human sexuality, AIDS, college education, vocational choices, Answering God's Call, and Bible Study. We had approximately 65 youth and 20 adults from around the North Texas Conference to attend the event. A youth choir which consisted of representatives from several churches was developed. The "Harambe" choir is still singing around the North Texas Conference and would love to receive an invitation from your church.

The Commission also sponsored a stewardship workshop and revival which emphasized Church Growth and Evangelism. We also helped to provide scholarships for youth to attend summer camps. We will continue to provide support to strengthen our African-American churches in the conference.

Derrick R. Wright, Chair

COMMISSION ON CAMPING AND RETREAT CENTERS

The commission, under the leadership of Vic Casad, spent a significant amount of time working on issues related to 'Quality in Camping'. Seven challenges were identified: 1) utilize facilities to capacity year-round; 2) meet as many conference/agency needs for facilities as possible; 3) publicity/marketing plan; 4) establish process for effective funding; 5) inclusive capital maintenance, capital improvement and development; 6) develop a mission and vision statement for programming; and 7) a conference model for stewardship of the environment.

Plans were made several years ago to construct a swimming pool at the Texoma Center. This goal was reached through a major gift from Shirley and Allen Goldfield of Denton. Construction began March 1, 1993 with completion projected for June 1, 1993 in time for the 1993 summer events. A park area is also planned adjacent to the pool.

The commission has also agreed to launch an aggressive campaign to promote increased use of both facilities. A publicity committee, under the leadership of Kathy McLean-Davis, is hard at work developing posters and brochures for distribution across the conference.

Victor Casad, Chair

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

The Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns, in regular meetings during the year, sought to educate ourselves about the Commission's purposes and work. We have many new members and all of us needed such input. Part of the basis of such training involved the 1992 General Conference Report of the General Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns. Rev. Barbara Marcum is a member of the GCUIC, and thus is an excellent resource person as an ex-officio member of our Conference Commission.

Plans are being developed to find and to recognize churches in each District which are involved in special forms of ecumenical work in their own communities. The District representatives serving on the Commission are to work with their District Superintendent to locate and recommend such churches for honoring by the Commission.

Three delegates from our Commission represented the North Texas Conference at the Texas Conference of Churches sessions in Austin, Texas, February 15-17, 1993. While there, they joined with other delegates in celebrating the recognition given to the East Dallas Cooperative Parish of the Fitzpatrick Award for Ecumenical Service. This award notes the exemplary witness of the EDCP, and the demonstration of the warm spirit of collegiality and partnership among its member parishes.

Preparations were made to have a booth at the Annual Conference Ministries Mart to publicize CUIC and its related components. The CUIC breakfast at Annual Conference will feature Bishop Norman Hudson, Synod Bishop of the Natal, South Africa Area. He will share with us the outreach of the ecumenical movement in his own nation, and across the great continent of Africa.

Plans have been made to participate in the Conference Academy for Faith Education (CAFE), September 10, 1993. Dr. John Deschner, of the World Council of Churches Faith and Order Commission, will be the speaker and Resource Leader for the CUIC-sponsored sessions.

Kenneth B. McIntosh, Chair

COMMISSION ON COMMUNICATIONS AND RESOURCES

The Commission on Communications and Resources celebrates a number of accomplishments during the past year:

1. District Seminars
Chair, Roy Eaton and CCOM staff member Bill Matthews, presented seminars on communication for local church leaders in five District events during January. They also conducted workshops on "Use of Media for Evangelism" for the Evangelism Rallies in Wichita Falls, Sherman, Sulphur Springs, and the joint Dallas Denton, Dallas Northeast Districts in March and April.

2. Evangelism Campaign
Planning jointly with the Evangelism Division, the C & R commission is providing expertise for the 1994 Evangelism Campaign.

3. Resource/Events Insert in the United Methodist Reporter
For the second year inserts were published for insertion in "key officials" Conference editions, which went to about 3,200 local church leaders each month.

4. Conference Workbook (called the "Pre-conference Workbook" for 1992)
Previously published in loose-leaf format and inserted in a pocket folder, legislative and report materials were published in magazine form and mailed directly to each member of the Annual Conference in time for District section meetings.

5. Conference Program Calendar
Just off the press, the North Texas Annual Conference "Ways for Giving" Calendars promote apportionment and non-apportionment giving, using monthly emphases and highlighting program features for our own Conference. The adaptation of the UMCom Calendar will support the missional work of our Conference all through the year.

6. Daily Reporter for Annual Conference

A new crew took over the tasks of publishing a daily report for the four days of Annual Conference, to keep all members and visitors apprised of highlights and significant actions. Our thanks to the worthy reporters and photographers who contributed much to the spirit of the Conference through sharing information.

7. Catalog for the Conference Resource Center

New technology has served us well, as Shirley Cooper completed the project of updating the Videotape Catalog and Slide Catalog for CRC, the Conference Resource Center. With the installation of the new computer network in the United Methodist Building, we were able to download and edit the format for a highly attractive and usable resource for member churches.

8. Organization and Publicity for CAFE--the Conference Academy for Faith Education

In the spring, preparations for CAFE began with production of the massive "poster" that listed the 84 courses offered for adults and 68 workshops for youth and adult leaders. This was sent to churches by direct mail and published as one edition of the North Texas NEWS. As a result 1,161 persons registered for or led the courses.

9. Relief efforts for Hurricane Andrew victims

Emergency service by the staff involved press contacts, and news releases to churches and persons directly affected by the hurricane in Louisiana and Florida. Four trucks of donated food and supplies were delivered to our neighbor state, and $139,269.74 was given in 1992 through UMCOR appeals.

Roy J. Eaton, Chair

COMMISSION ON STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

The goal of COSROW for 1992-1993 was organizational improvement and strategy for 1993-1996. Six new at-large members were added to the Commission developing a creative and productive approach to the "status and role of all women in the total life of the conference." (Discipline 1992) We strategized our work for the next three years to include issues around sexual harassment and power abuse, laywomen's role and voice in the Annual Conference, meeting with Annual Conference leadership to hear their perspective on the role and status of women in North Texas; local church role and status of women in relation to family health and women's leadership empowerment in the church and community.

The Commission developed its responsibility in advocating and monitoring related to the "Clergy Sexual Misconduct Policy" presented to the Executive Session of the North Texas Annual Conference in 1992 by Howard Hedges, Jr., Chair of the Division of Conference Relations. (1992 Journal pg. 248-252) COSROW clergy members and one lay member participated in the District workshops on "Sexuality in the Work Place." COSROW's chair participated in GCOSROW'S "Sexual Harassment and Power Abuse" training at the 1992 South Central Jurisdictional Training. Bishop Blake met with the Commission in April, 1993 to further educate us to the challenges of an "Advocacy/Monitoring" Commission.

1993-94 will include monitoring by COSROW at Annual Conference sessions and District meetings to "advise the general commission about the progress and effectiveness of efforts to achieve full participation of women in the life of the church."

We have initiated cooperative work with the UMW at the Annual Conference levels as we seek to advocate and monitor for "full participation of women in the decision-making structures" of the North Texas Annual Conference.

It has been an exciting and productive year with a committed group of talented lay and clergy leaders.

Carole Somers-Clark, Chair

ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS COMMITTEE

The Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee observed an increase in grant requests from local churches this year. We believe that this is a positive sign of church programming and initiative. Our funding went into a host of innovative programs such as a marriage enrichment program for African American churches and a youth guidance program for Hispanics.

In addition to granting funds, this committee continues to build up minority church leaders by assisting them with scholarships that they may attend educational opportunities.

Sheron C. Patterson, Chair

HISPANIC MINISTRIES COMMITTEE

The Hispanic Ministries Committee has focused its efforts this year on the completion of a Hispanic Ministries Handbook for use in the local churches wishing to become involved in work among Hispanics. The handbook contains practical guidance in areas such as curriculum resources, worship, home-visit formats, demographics, and financing. The handbook was issued to pastors in all participating districts during April and May 1993.

Following up this distribution, the Committee will target during 1993, specific congregations for visitation and encouragement in seeking Hispanic ministry options.

Paul Escamilla, Chair

PRISON MINISTRIES COMMITTEE

This has been a year of major re-organization and re-focus for the Prison Ministries Committee. A new concept of our mission has emerged, specifically, that we are to facilitate jail and Prison ministries by local churches and help them network with others who are involved in the same aspect of work, as well as provided them with new options for ministry to those affected by the Criminal Justice System.

In support of this new direction, the committee has developed a couple of brochures that outline the wide diversity of possibilities to those wishing to heed the call to minister to prisoners, their families, their victims, and those at risk.

The coming year will see the committee at work contacting local churches to see where they are involved, or may wish to involve themselves. Truly, this is the largest mission field available to us, and it's right next door. Nobody can do it all, but everyone can do something. We on the Prison Ministries Committee wish to facilitate just that.

Jim Williams

LAY SPEAKING MINISTRY

Many exciting things have happened to our agency during the past year. First, the General Conference changed our name from just Lay Speaking to Lay Speaking Ministry and changed our emphasis from Speaking, Leading and Caring to Communicating, Leading and Caring. Communicating is the key word that opens our agency to a greater task of communicating our faith on many levels rather than just speaking.

Secondly, we have a new Basic Course which emphasizes caring above all of our other ministries. Lay Speakers are persons who care and show their caring in a variety of ways through listening, hearing, speaking, being present for others, leading and through tangible deeds, both in the church and in the surrounding community.

And thirdly, we have two new advanced courses, practicing christian community and preaching.

Service and continued serving has been the main emphasis of the Lay Speaking in our conference this year. These services have included Speaking, Caring, Leading, and Communicating and have included pulpit supply, hosting special events, painting churches, providing camp scholarships and meal serving for campus ministries, just to mention a few.

Each of the seven districts has had or has participated with another district in conducting both basic and advanced training sessions. A variety of advanced courses were taught. One of the districts taught a most informative advanced course on the Heritage of the American Methodist movement and how we have become United Methodist. All of these courses have helped Lay Speakers become better prepared in their ministries in the local church, nursing homes, jail and detention centers and in lake ministries.

Through the direction and leadership of our pastors, lay speakers are always ready and willing to serve where ever we are needed.

Our goals for the coming year include: more and better training for our Lay Speakers, more evangelism participation to help spread the 'Good News' and better communication and cooperation with our pastors and other clergy.

Horace Trietsch, Chair

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

For over 100 years we have been "Women Organized for Mission," and this continues to be our emphasis as United Methodist Women! It is wonderful that 9,594 women in 192 local units show this through their meetings and Days-Apart and programs and activities and fund-raisers. This is evident in our Undesignated Pledge-to-Mission, our World Thank Offering, and our Call to Prayer and Self-Denial. Of course, this includes special concern for women, children, and youth throughout the world. Dallas Bethlehem Center and Wesley Rankin Community Center are local mission projects.

In June, Conference officers in this Region joined study leaders at the West Gulf Regional School of Christian Mission at Baker University in Baldwin, Kansas. This helped in the preparation for our own School of Christian Mission July 13-16 at Lovers Lane United Methodist Church. The theme was "Glimpses of God" and was under the direction of Marilyn Bolinger, Dean, and Bobbye Chester, Assistant Dean. Excellent leaders and studies including Christians in the Middle East, Churches in Solidarity with Women and the Book of Amos informed and inspired the 265 attending. One special highlight, thanks to Elizabeth Johannaber, was the noon message brought by Dr. Zenaida Lumba, President of Harris Memorial College in Manila.

The Cooperative Mission Event, sponsored by United Methodist Women and the Division of National and World Outreach, was held at Lake Bridgeport Conference Center in September and followed the same theme and studies. Ed Hilliard, Dean, and Patsy Morris, Assistant Dean, did an excellent job. Rev. and Mrs. Alex Awad provided special Middle East entertainment and refreshments. This, of course, is a wonderful yearly week-end mission opportunity for clergy and laity together!!

A great learning experience occurred in September when the Committee on the Charter for Racial Justice Policies plus representatives from the Board of Church and Society and the Commission on Religion and Race joined together to sponsor three sessions at the Conference Academy on Faith Education, (CAFE). These were: Ministries in the Hispanic Community, Hate Groups and Hate Crimes, and Making the Local Church More Inclusive. It was an inspiration to be a part of this North Texas Conference event!

Ten of us from the Executive Committee were happy to be invited to worship and fellowship with the Asian American Women's Committee at Wesley United Methodist Church in Garland. This event promoted better understanding and brought us closer together as a "Community of Women" as stated in our Purpose of United Methodist Women. I hope that we will very soon have an opportunity for another experience like this one. Plans are being made for early 1994!

Dr. Carolyn E. Johnson, President of the Women's Division was a very special highlight speaker at the October 10, 1992 Conference Annual Meeting at Lovers Lane United Methodist Church. The Theme, "Mirrors of the Spirit," was carried through the entire day; and there were five focus groups: Children--Mirrors of Our Strength, Meditation for a Busy Woman, Creating Inclusive Community, The Sandwich Generation, Orientation in Mission, and Visiting with Our Missionary.

Anne Todd's challenging president's message encouraged each one of us to hold up a mirror before our organization and ask what spirit is reflected. She concluded by saying, "Only with God's help can we persevere. May we walk with God each step of the way!" How important that is!

Anne and I were also glad to be invited to meet with Bishop Blake and the Cabinet. This gave us an excellent opportunity to talk through the Purpose of the United Methodist Women and the importance of local units in all churches. We appreciate the cooperation of local ministers in this, too. I would be glad to talk with anyone about this!

District meetings, district officer training--Planning for Mission in the 21st Century, local woman event--Local Place-Another Step, conference goal setting, local meetings and installations of officers saw North Texas Conference United Methodist Women through 1992.

This year there were 15 participants from this Conference in the February 1-3 Legislative Event in Austin. This gives the women and opportunity to have information on legislative issues and to hear Sue Thornton, Director of Texas Interfaith-Impact. All were able to meet with legislators and voice their concerns!! A follow-up meeting was held afterward, and all were encouraged to send letters to representatives to raise issues and express opinions especially in regard to the decrease in health care funding and in education legislation.

Fifty women from all seven districts attended a very meaningful and inspirational Christian Disciplines Workshop March 12-14 at Lake Sharon Assembly. The purpose was to understand the basic Christian practices including bible study, prayer, worship, ecumenism, and theology. This was led by two members of the Women's Division, Odell Thompson and Susan Edwards, and there was much uplifting discussion.

"Jesus Christ: Strength for Today--Hope for Tomorrow" was the message of the World Federation of Methodist Women Region IV Seminar Retreat at Bridgeport Conference Center, March 19-21. There were outstanding Seminar leaders and speakers and much good participation from women from AME and CME Churches. Amy Cajiuat wrote a meaningful skit about inclusiveness, and participants were: Thalia Matherson, Native American woman; Rona Vickers, Anglo American woman, Ertha Sharp, African-American woman; and Barbara Wiggans, Hispanic woman.

The Global Gathering of 4,000 people, March 25-28, in Indianapolis, Indiana, was another high point in the lives of 18 United Methodist Women from this Conference. The message was, "Called By the Spirit," and the excellent keynote address was given by Rev. Zan Holmes. Many others attended from this Conference and were informed and inspired by the speakers--especially Dr. Jocelyn Elders whose message voiced concern through statistics about our children and youth.

June 10th the Conference and District officers were invited by Bishop Blake to hear Dr. John Kurewa, President of Africa University. We appreciate the invitation and are pleased to be related to this university of the United Methodist Church where 65 students are enrolled in the Colleges of Theology and Agriculture.

We, as United Methodist Women, appreciate all of the support of the members of this Conference in encouraging the participation of women in United Methodist Women in every local church. This is so important in helping us fulfill our Purpose.

Barbara Wiggans, President

CONFERENCE SCOUTING

The United Methodist Church recognizes the following youth groups as part of "Scouting Program": Boy Scouts, Campfire, Girl Scouts, and 4H Clubs.

Your District Scouting Coordinators have been very active this year in supporting these programs. All members of these groups may participate in the various religious awards programs.

Our highlight last year was the annual Bishop's Dinner for scouting. The Bishop's Dinner this year will be held October 11 at a church to be announced.

Wayne Fisher, Scouting Coordinator

PROFESSIONAL MINISTRIES

BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

The Board of Diaconal Ministry exists to:

a) interpret and inform the Conference about opportunities for persons to serve God through the representative ministry route of Diaconal Ministry

b) recruit persons who feel called by God into Diaconal Ministry careers

c) nurture, support, and provide a mentoring relationship with Inquirers and Candidates for Diaconal Ministry

d) nurture, support, and provide/recommend appropriate professional growth opportunities for Diaconal Ministers

e) advocate for equitable salaries, pensions, insurance, and benefits for Diaconal Ministers

f) recommend persons for professional certification in the Diaconal Ministry careers of music and Christian Education

g) recommend persons for election to and consecration in the office of Diaconal Minister

h) annually review and recommend the appropriate conference relationship for each Diaconal Minister and each professionally certified person.

The Division of Salaries, Insurance and Pensions is developing a booklet and process by which to inform Staff Parish Relations Committees of the salary, insurance and pension issues that must be addressed by churches employing Diaconal Ministers. It will be distributed to the SPRC's in all churches employing Diaconal Ministers or candidates for Diaconal Ministry. In addition, this division continues its work in assisting every church employing Diaconal Ministers to provide written personnel policies for Diaconal Ministers.

The Division of Professional Growth has created new continuing education standards for annual renewal of professional certification. The division is also working with the Board of Ordained Ministry in creating a Center For Pastoral Effectiveness.

The Division of Recruitment and Interpretation held a training session for persons who will serve as Mentors for Diaconal Ministry Candidates. The group mentoring process developed by this division is currently being explored by the National Division of Diaconal Ministry as a model for use across the country.

Currently, 16 people are in process either as Inquirers or Candidates for Diaconal Ministry. They will be nurtured by this division as they progress through the candidacy process.

The Division of Consecration, Certification and Conference Relations, guided by Registrar Mark Unkenholz and Assistant Registrar Dick Wilson, has continued working to bring all files up to date. After careful review of renewal forms, Certification Renewal Cards were prepared and distributed to each person whose professional certification was approved for renewal.

This year the Board has certified three persons: Natalie Woods as Associate in Youth Ministry; Philip Seawell as Associate in Music; and Treece Efird as Minister of Music.

We recommend the following for leave of absence: Jo Ann Blount (5), Royce Hardaway (5), Dorothy Holloman (5), Susan McConnell (3), Margaret Robinson (1), Espie del Rosario (3), Leslie S. Stevens (5), Lane Tunnell (2), Janet Wiksten (4).

We recommend the retired status for Elvin O. Geiser.

The Board recommends three persons for Consecration as Diaconal Ministers: Jack Treece Efird, Jr.; Laura Rothe; and Philip Seawell. We also recommend Transfer Out to the Central Texas Conference for Philip Seawell following his Consecration.

The North Texas Conference now has sixty four (64) Diaconal Ministers. This is the largest number of Diaconal Ministers in any annual conference of The United Methodist Church. Of the 64 Diaconal Ministers, 40 are active, 10 are on leave of absence, and 14 are retired.

Board of Diaconal Ministries

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY REPORT

(Note: The Executive Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry is composed of the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the Board, the secretary of the Board, the Division chairpersons, and the registrar and candidacy registrar of the Division of Preparations and Qualifications.
(Action of Board, May, 1987)

REPORT I: DIVISION OF PREPARATION AND QUALIFICATIONS

THE PROCESS OF CANDIDACY (see Paragraph 404-405, 1992 Discipline)

1. The candidate meets with the Pastor of his/her church and reads The Christian as Minister.
2. The candidate writes to the District Superintendent and asks for an application for a Candidacy Guidebook. A Supervising Pastor is assigned by the District Superintendent. This application must be signed by the District Superintendent and Supervising Pastor. The candidate must mail the application with the $50 registration fee to the Board of Higher Education and Ministry, Box 871, Nashville, TN 37202-0871. The four test instruments available from Nashville are optional. Southwest Career Development Center covers this testing. (See #6.)
3. The Exploring Candidate and Supervising Pastor review the Candidacy Guidebook together.
4. At the end of the Exploration process with the Supervising Pastor, the candidate goes to the Pastor Parish Relations Committee for its recommendation.
5. The candidate next requests approval of the Charge Conference.
6. The candidate should make an appointment with the Southwest Career Development Center. Their telephone number is (817) 640-5181. Southwest Career Development Center will do testing as required by Nashville and submit an individual assessment report to the candidate, the Supervising Pastor, and to the Conference Registrar upon approval of this procedure. The candidate will pay the cost of such assessment.
7. Upon Charge Conference approval, the candidate submits a five-page paper to the District Committee on Ministry/District Superintendent in response to the Discipline's questions in para. 404.4. Eight copies of this paper must be sent to the District Superintendent one month before the meeting of the DCOM, along with a letter of recommendation from the Supervising Pastor and the home church pastor.
8. The candidate meets with the District Committee on Ministry after completion of the candidacy studies and requests certification. Upon certification, the candidate will be assigned a Counseling Elder.
9. The certified candidate reports annually to the District Committee on Ministry. When the candidate is eligible for ordination, the candidate seeks recommendation from DCOM. If approved, the candidate next applies to the Division of Preparation and Qualifications.

 A candidate must be a member of the recommending UMC for ONE YEAR prior to application as a candidate. The candidate must be CERTIFIED prior to January 31, 1993, in order to be eligible for Deacon's Orders and/or Probationary Membership at the 1994 session of Annual Conference.

PLEASE SEND TO THE CONFERENCE 1994 CANDIDACY REGISTRAR:

A. A copy of each certificate of candidacy granted (by the District Superintendent)
B. The Supervising Pastor named for each candidate (by the District Superintendent)
C. A yearly update from DCOM on each candidate's progress.
D. A copy of the DCOM's feedback form when recommending candidate for Deacon's Orders and/or Probationary Membership.

DEACON AND/OR PROBATIONARY MEMBERSHIP

Registrar: Pat Beghtel-Mahle, P.O. Box 846, Electra, TX 76360, (817) 495-3691

Requirements for admission to probationary membership in the North Texas Annual Conference: 1992 DISCIPLINE, paragraphs 413-418.

Comments on Paragraph 414:
414.1/ ONE YEAR: The guideline is that an individual be certified a candidate for ministry one year prior to DEACON'S INTERVIEWS. If an individual's year is completed by JANUARY 31, 1994, he/she is eligible to apply for probationary membership at the 1994 session of Annual Conference.
414.2/ A Master of Divinity or equivalent first professional degree in a school of theology listed by the University Senate MUST BE COMPLETED PRIOR TO ORDINATION (1992 DISCIPLINE, 415.3). Application for Deacon and/or Probationary Membership may not be made to the Conference Registrar until the final academic year of the Candidate's Degree Program. (This does not apply to those whose applications were approved prior to June 1, 1992.)
414.3/ A letter from the DCOM recommending the candidate (with vote count) should be sent to the Board of Ministry Registrar by September 15, 1993.
414.4/ If not done during candidacy, the candidate should make an appointment with the Southwest Career Development Center, prior to September 15, 1993, phone (817) 640-5181. SCDC, or another approved center, will submit an individual assessment report to the Registrar by January 15, 1994. The candidate will pay the cost of this assessment.
414.5/ A letter of recommendation is needed from the candidate's District Superintendent. Further, a letter of recommendation/internship summary sheet is needed from the seminary intern or field work program where applicable.
414.6/ The written sermon (double-spaced) should be "preachable" in 15-20 minutes (excluding the reading of the text): Any one of the texts for the first four Sundays of Epiphany, Year B, may be used. Two tapes of this sermon must be submitted in addition to the written sermon.
414.8/ Written answers to these questions should range 20-30 double-spaced pages.

In addition to the Disciplinary requirements, candidates must submit names of persons who will provide reference letters to the Division. These names must be received by the Registrar before November 1, 1993. The reference persons will include:
1. The Supervising Pastor of the candidate's Candidacy Studies
2. The Senior Minister of the church being served by the candidate if applicable, or the candidate's Intern Field Instructor, if applicable, or the candidate's present PPR chairperson, if applicable, or the pastor where the candidate presently attends church
3. A reference of the candidate's choice

THE INTERVIEW PROCESS

A. INTERVIEW WITH DCOM:

Each candidate must be interviewed by their District Committee on Ministry and receive a 3/4 vote to recommend the candidate to the Division. These interviews should be completed before September 15, 1993.

B. INTERVIEW WITH THE DIVISION FOR DEACON'S ORDERS AND/OR PROBATIONARY MEMBERS

The candidate will be assigned two persons who will carefully read the written work and listen to the sermon tape. The PRESENTER reviews psychological reports, letters of recommendation, personal information sheet, sermon, teaching plan, and theological answers. The READER reads all written work and listens to the sermon tape. The candidate will then be interviewed by the entire Division. The candidate should be prepared to discuss the following in the interview:
1. The sermon (paragraph 414.6) and teaching plan 414.7
2. The answers to the questions in paragraph 414.8
3. Personal understanding of paragraph 403, 429-431, 437
4. Personal understanding of paragraph 414.7 G
5. Call to ministry
6. Understanding of ordination as deacon and desire to seek probationary membership
7. Involvement in the local church
8. Part II of the Discipline
9. Strengths and weaknesses and how the choice of ministry as a profession affects life-style.

The following must reach the Registrar by January 15, 1994.
1. Three copies of the sermon and teaching plan
2. Three copies of the answers to 414.8

3. Two sermon tapes
4. A medical report on the form provided by the Registrar. (The Board will reimburse up to $50 of the cost of a physical examination upon receipt by the Registrar of a request with a receipt from the physician)
5. Three copies of the personal information form provided by the Registrar
6. A transcript of college or university and seminary work
7. Two personal photographs suitable for print in a newspaper with name printed on the back
8. A letter from the DISTRICT COMMITTEE ON MINISTRY OR DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT giving the date of certification of candidacy and recommendation for ordination
9. The Individual Assessment Report from Southwest Career Development Center
10. Reference letters
11. Recommendation of the Cabinet of the North Texas Conference

Upon receipt of all items listed above, the candidate will be notified of the interview time. Interviews will be held February 15 & 16, 1994.

January 18 & 19, 1994	Interviews for Elder and/or Full Connection

CONTINUATION OF PROBATIONARY MEMBERSHIP

It is the responsibility of the Board of Ordained Ministry under the direction of paragraph 417 to nurture those persons who are probationary members of the North Texas Annual Conference.

To be continued as a probationary member, candidates shall make regular progress in their ministerial studies. In order to help the progress of the probationary members and eliminate as many problems as possible, the Division has chosen to interview these persons annually in a brief personal consultation by members of the Division. Each probationary member is required to fill out a progress form provided by the Registrar and submit it to a member of the Division during this consultation. Failure to meet for this consultation with the Division could result in termination of Probationary Membership.

The date for the probationary member consultation will be Wednesday, March 15, at Spring Valley United Methodist Church, 7700 Spring Valley, Dallas, Texas.

CONTINUING PROBATIONER INTERVIEWS

March 15 — Consultation with continuing Probationary member - Spring Valley UMC, by appointment

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR STUDENTS

The Board of Ordained Ministry has available scholarships for qualified persons who are planning for full-time ministry in The United Methodist Church, ORDAINED OR DIACONAL. These funds are primarily for students in seminary, but there are funds which can be used by undergraduates.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR CANDIDATES IN SEMINARY

Seminary Scholarship Chairperson: David Blackmon, 1302 S. Clark Rd., Duncanville, TX 75137, (214) 296-2155

The application procedure for scholarships has the following three requirements:

1. Certified Candidates in seminary must submit a personal letter requesting their scholarship each semester (fall, January, spring, or summer) a scholarship is desired, indicating current student classification, their seminary, their District Superintendent, and their current mailing address.

2. Certified Candidates in seminary must request their District Superintendent's confirmation of their status as a certified candidate for ministry (see paragraphs 404-405 or 304-305) be reported immediately after their initial certification as a candidate during the conference year and annually, thereafter, in the fall for the current conference year. Ordained Deacons should have their District Superintendent verify their status annually in the fall. Note that scholarships may be granted for the semester during which a candidate becomes certified, when the application procedure is completed.

3. Certified Candidates in seminary must request their accredited seminary's registrar office to certify and report the number of hours for which they are registered each semester (fall, January, spring, or summer) after the add/drop date. Make certain this report indicates the number of registered hours, for the basis of determining the amount of the scholarship is $105 per semester hour for United Methodist Seminaries and $45 per semester hour for non-United Methodist Seminaries.

These three items should be sent to the Seminary Scholarship Chairperson. When all three items have been received by the chairperson, a request for funding will be processed immediately and a check issued to the certified candidate by the Office of Finance and Administration.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR CANDIDATES IN UNDERGRADUATE SCHOOL

Undergraduate Scholarship Chairperson: Joe Ed Goolsby, 1215 Turner, Dallas, TX 75208, (214) 942-0098

The procedure for applications for funds for students attending college is as follows:
1. A letter each year from your District Superintendent stating that you have been certified as a candidate for ministry. (See paragraphs 404-405 or 304-305.)
2. A letter each semester from the college you are attending stating the number of hours you are taking that semester
3. A personal statement from you each semester about your progress and plans as they develop

All these letters should be sent to the Undergraduate Scholarship Chairperson. Requests may be made to the Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry when unusual circumstances arise that require special financial assistance other than the regular scholarship aid.

REPORT II: THE PASTORAL RESIDENCY PROGRAM

Pastoral Residency Chair: Ernest Walt, P.O. Box 850093, Mesquite, TX 75185, (214) 285-5456

The Need For The Pastoral Residency Program

Pastors in their first years of full-time ministry following graduation from seminary inevitably deal with a number of personal, spiritual, and professional issues and develop patterns for ministry which in all likelihood, will remain in place for the entirety of their ministry. These issues include, but are not limited to:

1. understanding how pastors are appointed to churches
2. what it means to become a part of the District and Annual Conference
3. strength and weakness
4. expectations about full-time ministry
5. ability to reflect about ministry
6. personal, spiritual, and study life
7. relationships with other ministers
8. role as an ordained person
9. adjusting to changes in personal life

The time period between graduation from seminary and admission into full membership in the Annual Conference provides an excellent opportunity to promote an increase of knowledge, maturity, healthy peer relationships, and competency. Indeed, there probably is no better time to impact those in ministry than in these highly formative years.

The Pastoral Residency Program

All probationers following their graduation from seminary and prior to their admission into full membership in the Annual Conference and all Elders transferring into probationary membership from other denominations will participate in the Pastoral Residency Program.

The program will last approximately two years. The first year of residency will begin in August following graduation and be completed at the end of May. The second year will begin in June and end in May with the final Peer Group meeting.

The residency program will be coordinated by a Pastoral Residency Committee of the Division of Preparation and Qualifications.

The major participants in the program will include the Resident, a Peer Group, Peer Group facilitators, a Counseling Elder, the Residency Committee, the District Superintendent, and the Pastoral Residency Committee.

Residents will be reimbursed for travel expense at the level set by the Annual Conference.

The three major goals of the Pastoral Residency Program are:

1. support for probationary members as they make the transition from seminary or another denomination into full-time ministry in the North Texas Conference
2. spiritual, personal, and professional growth
3. evaluation of candidates seeking Elder's Orders and full conference membership

Many pastors already will have participated in an internship or field education program while in seminary. The Division of Preparation and Qualifications continues to recommend that all seminary students do this in a local church setting if such an opportunity is available. The Pastoral Residency Program offers a complementary experience since the educational process has different goals and experiences from full-time ministry.

While some clergy pursue understanding of ministry beyond the local church, the Pastoral Residency Program has been designed with the understanding that most ministers will spend the majority of their ministry in the local church. Accordingly, persons serving in beyond-the-local-church appointments will be addressed on an individual basis to insure that they have adequate involvement in a local church.

In the second year, specific areas of concern which emerged during the first year can be addressed and assist Residents in preparing themselves for their written work and interviews for Elder's Orders and full conference membership.

A benefit of the Pastoral Residency Program is that its format will enable the North Texas Conference to exercise greater responsibility for, and more significant influence in, the training and selection of ministers who will service in North Texas.

First Year of Residency (August - May)

A. An orientation session for participants will take place on August 17, 1993 from 10:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at First United Methodist Church, Lewisville. Those attending will be the Residents, their Counseling Elders, Peer Group Facilitators, District Superintendents, and members of the Pastoral Residency Committee.

The session will include: (1) an introduction to the Pastoral Residency Program; (2) instruction from Counseling Elders and Peer Group Facilitators.

B. An orientation session for chairpersons of the Laity Residency Committee will occur on September 26, 1993 from 3:00 to 4:30 p.m. at First United Methodist Church in Mesquite. Residents need to send the names of their Laity Residency Committee Chairperson to the Chairperson of the Pastoral Residency Committee by August 31, 1993.

C. Requirement for each Resident:

1. Four one-hour sessions with the District Superintendent.

2. Monthly two-hour Peer Group sessions. The purpose of the Peer Group is to help the Resident address the issues set forth in the first paragraph of this document. Residents are expected to provide support, encouragement, and mutual accountability as active participants in this process. Facilitators, appointed by the Pastoral Residency Committee, will direct the Peer Group in accomplishing this.

3. Monthly one-hour sessions with Counseling Elder. The Resident will present a minimum of four reflection papers dealing with personal, spiritual, and/or professional issues mutually agreed upon by the Resident and the Counseling Elder.

4. One sermon tape each in the fall and spring of sermons actually preached. These will be critiqued by the District Superintendent, Laity Residency Committee, and the Counseling Elder.

5. At least one joint meeting with the Counseling Elder and Laity Residency Committee will focus on the committee's input and evaluation.

6. Four one-and-one-half hour sessions with Laity Residency Committee which will provide support to the Resident.

D. The Chairpersons of the Laity Residency Committee will have a meeting January 9, 1994 from 3:00 to 4:30 p.m. at First United Methodist Church, Mesquite.

E. The Counseling Elders will have a mid-year meeting January 27, 1994 from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at First United Methodist Church, Mesquite.

F. The Resident, District Superintendent, Counseling Elder, and Peer Group Facilitators will send letters by February 28, 1994 to the Chairperson of the Pastoral Residency Committee. These letters will evaluate the Resident's growth relative to personal, spiritual, and professional issues and note areas of concern which need to be addressed during the second year of Residency.

G. On March 15, 1994, at Spring Valley United Methodist Church, the Resident will meet with the Division of Preparation and Qualifications to review the evaluative material provided by the Resident, District Superintendent, Counseling Elder, and Peer Group Facilitators.

H. Information will be forwarded to the Resident, District Superintendent and Counseling Elder by early June concerning the specific areas which need to be addressed by the Resident during the second year.

Second Year of Residency (June - May)

A. The Resident will meet twice with the District Superintendent.

B. The Resident will meet monthly with the counseling Elder through January and, if necessary, will prepare additional reflection papers.

C. The resident will continue to meet monthly with the Peer Group through May.

D. The Resident will develop a five-year continuing education plan for discussion with and approval by the Counseling Elder and District Superintendent by November 1, 1993.

Carol Woods, Chairperson
Division of Preparation and Qualifications

DIVISION OF LOCAL PASTORS

In the United Methodist Church, a "Local Pastor" is a lay person who is a candidate for ministry that is licensed to perform all the duties of a pastor while assigned to a charge. He or she is the pastor of that charge. Such authorization granted by this license may be renewed annually and extends only within the charge to which the Local Pastor is appointed. All Local Pastors are assigned a Counseling Elder. A covenant-agreement is established between them for purposes of support and counsel in matters of local church ministry and progress in the Local Pastor's educational requirements. A Local Pastor is supervised by the Counseling Elder and the District Superintendent. Some Local Pastors never intend to be ordained. They only seek to serve their Lord and Church as needed. Many Local Pastors hold full-time secular jobs and are part-time pastors. Paragraphs 406-410 of The 1992 Book of Discipline outline matters relative to persons who are or wish to be Local Pastors in The United Methodist Church.

Provision is made for three categories of Local Pastor: Full-Time, Part-Time, and Student. Of the three, it is the Full-Time Local Pastor under appointment who has membership in the Annual Conference. That person may vote on all matters except constitutional amendments, election of delegates to General, Jurisdictional, or Central Conferences, and matters of ordination, character, and conference relations of clergy. Part-Time and Student Local Pastors serve the Annual Conference, are amenable to the Annual Conference, but are not members of the Annual Conference. All Local Pastors are called upon to attend the sessions of Annual Conference.

Within the larger work of the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Division of Local Pastors has several functions: the examination of candidates seeking Local Pastor status, the Recommendation to our Board of candidates for Local Pastor status, providing for and overseeing these persons in qualifying for a License to Preach, assisting them in the advancement and completion of their educational requirements -- and in some cases the progress toward conference membership, and to both evaluate and nurture them regarding ongoing suitability for service. We uphold and advocate the integrity, role, and rights of the Local Pastor within the ministry-needs of the North Texas Conference. It is the purpose of the Division to faithfully recommend fully qualified Local Pastors for appointment within our conference structure.

A Licensing School is held each year during the summer months. The school is divided into three parts. Parts One and Three are in-residence schools held at a specified location. Part Two consists of specific assignments done under the supervision of one's Counseling Elder. Persons planning to attend Licensing School must be certified candidates for ministry. Applications to attend the school are available from our Licensing School Director, Reverend Millard Fairchild. The dates and locations are:

The 1993 Licensing School
Part One - June 21-24 at SMU
Part Three - August 9-13 at Bridgeport Conference Center

The 1994 Licensing School
Part One - June 20-23 at SMU
Part Three - August 8-12 at Bridgeport Conference Center

All District Committees on Ministry need to provide the Division with the following information by FEBRUARY 4, 1994:

1) names and action reports on all persons recommended as a Local Pastor, all three categories
2) names and action reports on all persons recommended for Licensing School
3) names and circumstances of all Local Pastors to be discontinued

The Division will seek to interview all persons recommended for Local Pastor status and Licensing School. Those persons will receive a letter indicating how to schedule an interview and directions to the interview location of their choice:

-Wednesday, February 23 at FUMC, Plano
-Thursday, March 3 at FUMC, Decatur
-Wednesday, March 9 at Wesley UMC, Greenville

Questions and inquiries may be made to Division Chairperson Clay Womack. We thank the North Texas Annual Conference for their support and cooperation. The Local Pastors serving within our midst perform so very well and are vital to the effectiveness of Methodism in North Texas. May God continue to bless them and us all as our common service is rendered, in Christ Jesus.

Clay Womack, Chairperson

DIVISION OF CHAPLAINS AND RELATED MINISTRIES

We explored this year our role and function as a division and asked questions such as these: "What is the responsibility of the Annual Conference to those 53 persons who are sent for ministry beyond the local church?" "What is appropriate accountability of these clergy to the Annual Conference?" In addition to our 53 ABLC colleagues, we also have some 40 colleagues from other annual Conferences serving within the bounds of our Conference.

The 1976 Discipline used the term "appointments beyond the local church" and "extension ministries". This category of clergy includes bishops, district superintendents, institutional chaplains, campus ministers, pastoral counselors, seminary professors, those who work in general boards and agencies, and a host of others in specialized ministry settings. The North Texas Conference traditionally has valued diversity and a multiplicity of ministries.

As part of our exploration this year, we:

A. Initiated a new procedure to those seeking appointment beyond the local church under Par. 443.1d.

This year members of the Division traveled for an on-site visit and dialogue with the person seeking appointment. In this regard we recommended Glenn A. Noblin for ministry at Terrell State Hospital.

We also recommended to Bishop Blake and the Cabinet one person who has started the endorsement process under Par. 443.1b with the Division of Chaplains and Related Ministries of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. We recommended Susan B. Monts for ministry with the Dallas Pastoral Counseling and Education Center.

B. Communicated individually with our ABLC colleagues. In an effort to build our relationship and become better informed of the ministry of our colleagues, we have started telephone contacts with those serving in other than local churches.

C. Revised the format for our annual meeting with the Bishop. This year we held our annual meeting with Bishop Blake in the ministry setting of two of our ABLC colleagues: Methodist Hospital of Dallas. The change in format allowed Bishop Blake to respond to specific issues and concerns from those present. A worship experience was also introduced this year. We were disappointed to have only 33 in attendance.

D. Decided to cancel our Annual Conference Luncheon. We made this decision in light of the abbreviated conference agenda and restricted options for luncheon meetings. In addition, we had just met together on April 16 for the annual meeting with the Bishop.

E. Started work on the request from Bishop Blake for approval of the categories and appointments of those serving beyond the local church.

Our challenge is to create a process and guidelines to assist us in this task. In so doing we hope to fully honor all those who are committed to being a true extension of the christian ministry of the Church and the mission of the North Texas Annual Conference.

Division of Chaplains and Related Ministries

CENTER FOR PASTORAL EFFECTIVENESS

The Division of Continuing Education and the Board of Directors for the Center for Pastoral Effectiveness proposes that an individual or a cadre of persons be identified as Agent(s) for Pastoral Effectiveness. These persons would work with or "broker" persons to work with persons in need of pastoral effectiveness training. These persons would be available on a contract basis and be used only when needed. Fees would be paid from the M.E.F. funds set aside for the Center for Pastoral Effectiveness.

Pastoral Effectiveness Agents would be selected by the Bishop and Cabinet.

The Board of Directors of the Center for Pastoral Effectiveness will monitor the program, receive reports from the Cabinet insuring confidentiality, and in all other ways give guidance to the pastoral effectiveness process. The Board will continue to dialogue about how the Conference can develop spiritually mature and effective pastors and other church professionals. The Board will also be an advocate for a redemptive process to save an individual's ministry.

The process: As the work of the Cabinet and Board of Ministry proceeds, individuals in danger of being processed for involuntary location, administrative leave, or punitive or remedial leave of absence, will be contacted by the District Superintendent. The District Superintendent will identify the area of concern and call for a meeting with an Agent for Pastoral Effectiveness. The District Superintendent and the person (client) would meet with an Agent. During or after this meeting, the Agent would develop a learning covenant with the client. The Learning Covenant would then be approved by the District Superintendent. The Agent would report the progress of the trainees, and documentation will be required throughout the process and is the responsibility of the Agent. Follow-up contact will take place at six months and at one year after the Learning Covenant is completed.

Individuals concerned about their effectiveness in ministry could privately seek the services of an Agent. No documentation would be required by individuals seeking this training.

John Rosenburg, Chairperson
Division of Continuing Education

BOARD OF PENSIONS

I. Overview

The Board of Pensions has continued to look for new alternatives concerning how we fund the overall liability for pre-1982 service years. In 1981, we agreed to purchase a defined contribution pension plan with an immediate past funding liability of $10.9 million based on a $140 service year rate. As stated before in prior reports, increased funding is necessary.

At the end of the calendar year of 1992, the North Texas Conference had a decline in deposits held at the General Board of Pensions due to decreases in investment income and escalating annuitant liability for current retirees. Currently, the North Texas Conference has more current annuitant liability ($6.6 million) than deposits ($5.4 million) with the General Board of Pensions. The North Texas Conference is now accruing more in discount (interest expense) than receiving interest income from the Diversified Fund at the General Board of Pensions.

II. Pension Rate

It has been recommended by the Conference Board of Pensions that a $343 pension rate be set for 1994. This compares to a $337 pension rate for 1993. A .009% service rate is necessary to fund the Ministerial Pension Plan contribution rate of 12%. The General Board of Pensions has computed the North Texas Conference 1994 average compensation to be $38,055. Since the average compensation is $38,055, a $343 pension rate is the very minimum pension rate based on the average compensation.

III. Unfunded Liability

Since 1982, the pension rate has more than doubled which produces an increase in the total unfunded liability. In 1982, the total unfunded liability was $10.9 million; and at the end of 1992, the total unfunded liability was $16.0 million. The General Board of Pensions has predicted that the total unfunded liability at the end of 1998 will be $17.2 million.

At the present time, the North Texas Conference has the fourth highest pension rate in the denomination. However, at the end of 1992, with 10 years of the funding, the North Texas Conference has funded 4.4 million. This represents an approximate 22% funding level after 10 years of the 40 year funding schedule with an escalating unfunded liability and pension rate.

This will mean that the North Texas Conference, as predicted by the General Board of Pensions, will have to fund for the next five years the following amounts:

1994	$1,262 million
1995	1,322 million
1996	1,368 million
1997	1,418 million
1998	1,469 million

Without increasing apportionments, our overall deposits will continue to be depleted. The North Texas Conference can no longer depend on investment earnings to stabilize assets. For 1994, the Board of Pensions has approved an apportionment of $1,050,000 which represents 83% of the annual past service deposit. It is the plan of the Conference Board of Pensions to fully fund through apportionment dollars the annual past service deposit within a five year period.

At the 1990 Annual Conference, it was legislated that an additional $250,000 per year for four years be deposited toward the current annuitant liability and increased unfunded liability. In January of 1993, the third $250,000 was deposited, leaving one deposit to be made in January of 1994. Because the Conference Board of Pensions is moving toward a five year strategy for fully funding the annual past service deposit, the Conference Board of Pensions does not see the need to continue to "special deposit" because of deficit funding.

IV. Perkins Fund

The Perkins Fund has continued to help those retirees who have expressed need. It has been the policy of the Board of Pensions to examine needs very carefully so that distribution may be made objectively. The Perkins family has been generous to our retirees.

Last year in 1992, a $500 Christmas gift distribution from the Perkins Fund was given to those eligible retirees, surviving spouses, and disabled pastors of the Conference. Due to decreases in overall assets, the Conference Board of Pensions has voted not to distribute a Christmas gift this year; however, it will use such funds to cover Medicare "B" premium reimbursements.

V. Medicare "B" Reimbursements

Due to decreasing assets and escalating liabilities, beginning January 1, 1994, the Conference Board of Pensions approved that Medicare "B" premiums can no longer be reimbursed to qualified and eligible retirees.

VI. Disabilities

The Board of Pensions has continued to bring both administrative and pastoral support to those seeking disability and to those who are now disabled.

VII. Comprehensive Protection Plan

The Board of Pensions is not asking for an increase but a decrease in the Comprehensive Protection Plan apportionment due to account balances remaining steady. The total apportionment for 1994 is $320,000.

IIX. Apportionment

When the Council on Finance and Administration makes its report, we urge the Conference to approve the following amounts for 1994 Conference Claimants Apportionment:

Unfunded Liability	$1,050,000
Health Insurance Apportionment for Retirees	220,000
Comprehensive Protection Plan	320,000
Operating Expenses	57,012

IX. Housing

It is a requirement of the Internal Revenue Service that we give to you the following information and that this information appear in the 1993 Journal: "That an amount equal to 100% of the pension including gifts and grants from the Perkins Fund received by a retired or disabled minister during the year of 1993, be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance."

X. Missional Assistance

At the request of the 1992 Annual Conference, the Conference Board of Pensions has reviewed those local churches where pensions have been in arrears. Monies for such assistance are available on a grant basis through the Council on Ministries.

It is the recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions that before such grants are solicited that local churches very seriously look at resourcing the Conference Board of Pensions for training in the importance of preserving pastor's pensions.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON INSURANCE

As Chairperson of the Commission on Insurance, I am delighted to report to this Annual Conference that we have had a successful year. When we met at our last Annual Conference Session, we looked forward to becoming a part of the UMCare Program that was to become effective January 1, 1994. When the Judicial Council disallowed the program, the Commission on Insurance went to work firming up and fine-tuning your insurance program. We presently have adequate reserves to fund our Insurance Program to keep us solvent during the coming year.

Before I bring two legislative proposals before you, let me bring you up to date on other decisions that have been made and are being planned to insure that we have the finest self-funding insurance program of any Conference in the United Methodist Church.

At the last session of the Annual Conference, it was moved and passed that the Commission on Insurance and Conference Board of Pensions make a study and document those churches that are not paying pensions and insurance in full and report the results to the Bishop and Cabinet who will make an appeal to other persons to underwrite the shortfall. I am happy to report that in the area of Health Insurance, special and careful consideration is given to any clergy who, for some reason, cannot pay his or her health insurance premiums. During this past year we have given assistance in several missional churches and will continue to offer assistance when the need arises.

In a few minutes I will present two legislative proposals for your consideration including implementation of a fully integrated Medicare "Carve Out" method for our Insurance program. This program, which has become the norm of most insurance programs of our nation, will further strengthen and give financial support to our existing program. The Commission on Insurance is aware of the fact that no person can qualify for Medicare until the age of 65 and yet some persons, having retired early for numerous reasons, are not yet eligible for Medicare. This necessitates the need for those individuals to pay the regular Conference premium until that age of 65 is reached. As the cost for retired clergy on Medicare is $140.00 (with the participant paying $70.00 and $70.00 coming from the apportionment), we are asking that retired clergy not yet eligible for Medicare pay the full premium of $140.00 per month.

We bring before this Session two legislative proposals that are found in your packet on pages 37, 38, and 39 of your Conference Workbook.

The first legislative proposal found on page 37 concerns a change in our Plan design to move to a fully integrated Medicare "Carve Out" program. This would make any claim on a person under Medicare to be primary and the North Texas Conference Insurance Plan to be secondary. This is a standard procedure in most insurance programs in the industry and will not only save our program much needed funds, but allow fully congruent benefits between the active clergy/lay participants and retirees and surviving spouses. I move the adoption of this Medicare "Carve Out" legislation.

The second proposal on page 38 asks that the now accepted date of September 1, when local churches are to be notified of subsequent year health insurance premiums, be changed to October 1 of each year. This is necessary for our actuarial work to be completed with more data available to set the rates for the next year. I move the adoption of this date change from September 1 to October 1 of each year.

In conclusion, the Commission on Insurance expresses profound appreciation to Dr. Stanley Seat for his energy, guidance, and wisdom in bringing calm and stability to the North Texas Insurance Program.

The Commission on Insurance also expresses appreciation to Bishop Blake for his guidance and to Dr. James Hares for his cooperation and to each member of this Conference, both laity and clergy, for working with us to insure that we have a smoothly running and securely funded program of insurance for everyone concerned. Thank you.

Larry Ravert, Chairperson

JURISDICTION

SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION

The South Central Jurisdictional Conference of 1992 restructured the Jurisdictional office. It kept the Executive Director's post and responsibilities while eliminating two full time staff positions (Korean Ministries and Volunteers in Mission). It gave those responsibilities also to the Executive Director.

The Jurisdiction's Korean Caucus elected Rev. Won Kie Kim of Dallas as it's chair. He works with the Executive Director as volunteer Korean Ministries Director. He has led a celebration of the anniversary of Korean Ministries, a meeting with new Korean pastors and a meeting with young adult United Methodists of Korean origin. He has cooperated in plans for a new Korean Church in Topeka and consulted, upon request, with several District Superintendents about Korean appointments.

Hundreds of Volunteers in Mission went to south Louisiana and many more are scheduled to go. Many other projects in the Jurisdiction need VIM teams, too, and the office informs persons about them through periodic mailings and through responding to all requests for information and other help. Superserve, the VIM weekend at Mt. Sequoyah (9/4-6), will have a new look this year. The Jurisdiction is working with leaders in the Northwest Texas and New Mexico Conferences to plan a VIM rally similar to Superserve for the western part of the Jurisdiction.

The Jurisdiction Lab School - at Mt. Sequoyah 7/11-17 - has a new name and a new vitality. It's called "Journey to Excellence." It includes numerous short courses in addition to lab classes.

The Youth Team has been hard at work planning SpiLiRa (Spiritual Life Rally) for 800 to 1000 youth at the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville, 7/6-10. This could be a life-changing experience for many.

At the Jurisdiction's heart are numerous networks of church leaders who meet to foster excellence through sharing insights, supporting and teaching one another. These include: Black Pastors, Church Growth Network, Conference Christian Education Staff, Conference Lay Leaders, Conference United Methodist Men's Officers, Conference VIM Coordinators, Council Directors, Fellowship of Communicators, Large Membership Church Pastors, Outdoor Ministries Staff, Singles Ministries Task Force, Urban Ministries Workers. The Jurisdiction office works with and supports each of these. Persons with ideas for new networks that may be needed are encouraged to contact the Executive Director.

The Jurisdiction office moved this year due to the relocation of the Cokesbury store where it was housed. Our new address and phone number: South Central Jurisdiction, 5646 Milton St., Suite 240, Dallas, TX 75206. Phone 214/692-9081. We invite the United Methodists of the Jurisdiction to visit our office building, on North Central Expressway one block south of Lovers Lane.

L. Ray Branton, Executive Director, Mission/Administration

MOUNT SEQUOYAH 1993 – THE FUTURE

The mission of Mount Sequoyah as the South Central Jurisdictional Conference and Retreat Center is to enable persons to find fullness in Jesus Christ and to provide opportunities for these persons to experience training in leadership development, Christian discipleship, inspiration and worship, to the end that they may better serve God in the church and in the world. The theme for 1993 is "Mount Sequoyah" – The Future." We have celebrated seventy years of life commitments and calls to higher service and now we look to the future. The future holds for us the fulfillment of "Team Sequoyah" so that we can truly meet the challenge of the future.

Since going public last June with our two million dollar capital funds campaign, we rejoice at the nearly $500,000 committed in 1992. This means that we need to raise $1,000,000 in 1993, and conclude the campaign in 1994 with the final $500.000. The commitments to date include gifts from clergy and lay, corporations, foundations and many other persons who love Mount Sequoyah.

Our pilot gift to date is from an anonymous foundation grant for $243,587.50 for our outdoor recreation and family wellness center which includes swimming pool, tennis courts, basketball, volleyball, Wesley Hall renovation and the addition of a programming staff person. Architect's plans have been approved by our Building and Grounds committee and construction of the first phase is well underway. Some phases will be complete by Annual Conference time.

Applications for the programming position have come from the entire nation and that person will be on duty when these lines are read. This action will make Mount Sequoyah more of a Programming Center as well as a Hosting Center. The long-range aim of this action is that sharp cutting-edge programs will be offered on the Mountain that are relevant to our jurisdiction and United Methodist churches that are not available elsewhere.

1992 was a "record attendance" year. Mount Sequoyah had more than 26,500 people days in 1992. This reflects an increase of more than 20% above the past record attendance year of 22,000. We feel very good about this and think that it reflects many positive things going on at Mount Sequoyah. Our "Team Sequoyah" fund campaign seems to be increasing the awareness of the good things that the Mountain has to offer, plus offering the funding to do capital improvements. Our experience shows that, if we can get a person or group to come to the Mountain once, most of them will return for future times and events.

Our Mount Sequoyah Programming Committee are getting off to a good start. They have begun with the addition of the Stewardship Event "How to put SIZZLE into your stewardship strategies" in 1993. This is the start of many event offerings we expect to offer in the future. The addition of a full time event programming person also should increase the effective United Methodist usage of the Mountain.

The first construction of our expansion planned items will be those items mentioned above. These became priority due to three primary reasons. 1.) The need to expand our ministry to the whole family is being recognized. This includes youth, who historically continued to come back after a "good experience" on the Mountain as a youth. Many of our current "regulars" coming to Mount Sequoyah were here as youth and remembered the influence their experience had on their lives. 2.) The funding was available first, due to the Foundation matching fund gift for these projects. 3.) The need to begin "real progress" with the planned construction items. A review of the past minutes of Mount Sequoyah historically reflects the possibilities of new construction items being discussed, planned, and no actual construction/improvements being accomplished. We want to show that the contributions and gifts are making a "real difference". We still have a long way to go to meet our $2,000,000 goal, but we have a very positive attitude toward our early response and feel that the actual progress, being shown in construction of new facilities, will continue to make a difference.

The normal operations of the Mountain are continuing with new roofing, new ramp and handicap access to buildings, new improvements to cottages and grounds, and "reaching out" to new guests coming to the Mountain.

Mary Jane Frazier was elected by Annual Conference, Scott Smith and Don Barnes were elected by the Jurisdictional Conference.

Many sociologists and others in human dynamics have us looking for the future. The year 2000 will soon be upon us. However, we at Mount Sequoyah believe the future is now. It is our prayer that you will join us in that future.

Make a commitment to Team Sequoyah. Come to the Mountain. Allow those of us at the mountain to come to you. Encourage your church to be a model-lead church with a mini-campaign to spotlight our progress. The future is now!

OTHER REPORTS

THE TEXAS METHODIST FOUNDATION

The directors and management of The Texas Methodist Foundation are proud to report that 1992 was a year of exceptional growth for the Foundation both in increased assets and the level of services provided. The North Texas Conference was instrumental in this growth, and we are grateful for our relationships in this conference.

1992 in Review:

1) Assets under management increased to $96,450,000

2) Earnings on deposits totalled $5,287,778

3) 67 loans were originated in excess of $16,600,000

During 1992, eighty-two United Methodist churches and related agencies in the North Texas Conference had over twelve and one-half million dollars on deposit with The Texas Methodist Foundation. Loans from The Texas Methodist Foundation to sixty churches and agencies in the North Texas Conference totalled over seventeen and one-half million dollars.

The primary goal of The Texas Methodist Foundation continues to be that every United Methodist church or related agency in the state of Texas have an ongoing planned giving program. Our development staff offers planned giving counsel and services to these United Methodist institutions and individuals upon request.

It is our hope that these services offered through The Texas Methodist Foundation will promote more effective stewardship to all United Methodists in Texas.

Thomas R. Locke, Senior Vice President

UNITED METHODIST COMMUNICATIONS COUNCIL

The United Methodist Communications Council of Texas and New Mexico put information about our Christian witness into more than 2.7 million households across Texas and New Mexico during 1992-93. *Through The United Methodist Reporter, the Council delivered weekly news of the church's mission and ministry to 160,000 United Methodist families in Texas and New Mexico. In addition, the Reporter, United Methodist Review, United Methodist Record and National Christian Reporter took information about the church into more than 300,000 households in other states.

*Through United Methodist Media Services, the Council increased press coverage in Texas and New Mexico of the 1992 General Conference and 1992 Annual Conference sessions by one-fourth. News stories and photographs from Media Services doubled the coverage in Texas and New Mexico of episcopal elections during the South Central Jurisdictional Conference. Information released by Media Services presented news of how United Methodists carry out their Christian witness to some 2.45 million households across Texas and New Mexico that wouldn't have received it otherwise. Media Services releases increased the chances of newspaper readers in Texas and New Mexico seeing stories about The United Methodist Church by some 3.3 million.

These activities illustrate just some of the ways the Communications Council helps the annual conferences of Texas and New Mexico proclaim the Gospel message through mass media. The Council was formed in 1968 to coordinate and carry out cooperative communications programs for those seven conferences. The Council accomplishes that mission through a number of operating units: the Reporter, Media Services, Mission Communications, UMR Institute for Church Communications and UMR Foundation.

To clarify and strengthen the role of the seven owner conferences in the governance of these communications ministries, the Council amended its constitution and corporate charter in February. Each of the seven conferences will be asked to ratify these constitutional changes during their 1993 sessions.

The Council adopted its first corporate bylaws in February as well. Those bylaws outline missions that the Council will carry out specifically for the seven conferences of Texas and New Mexico. The conference-service missions include:

*Fostering more effective use of communications media by annual conferences, local congregations and church agencies.

*Developing and coordinating ongoing strategies to enhance United Methodism's public image through relations with secular mass communications media.

*Presenting the United Methodist witness on legislative and social issues to state and local governmental officials as well as the public at large. This task is carried out in consultation with the bishops of Texas and New Mexico and the Bishop's Legislative Advisory Committee.

The goal of these missions is to make The United Methodist Church a more influential force in Texas and New Mexico.

The seven conferences of Texas and New Mexico supported the Council's efforts during 1992 by pledging to help raise $1.1 million for a new communications center in Dallas. Those pledges were made in response to a $500,000 challenge grant from the Mabee Foundation of Tulsa, Oklahoma. The Mabee Foundation rejected those pledges in July and withdrew the challenge offer. That action released the conferences from their promises to guarantee specific levels of support. Nevertheless, the UMR Foundation continues to work with leaders in each conference on various fund-raising efforts.

The Council elected the Rev. Ronald P. Patterson, a member of the West Ohio Conference, Reporter publisher in April 1992. He began to work in July, succeeding the late Spurgeon M. Dunnam III. Mr. Patterson's dream is to build a vital center for Christian communications in Dallas. That center will serve the needs of its constituencies with quality print and non-print resources in an ever-expanding array of news and information services.

Bishop Bruce P. Blake, Chair

COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY REPORT

As a result of the actions of Annual Conference last year, the Episcopal Residence Committee had a great deal of work to do, and the Committee on Episcopacy acted as the working arm of the Episcopal Residence Committee to carry out the actions of Annual Conference and the decisions of the Episcopal Residence Committee. This will be reported on in the report of the Episcopal Residence Committee, but it needs to be noted in this report that all members of the Committee on Episcopacy individually did a great deal of work on the residence. Two women not on the Committee need to be mentioned for their significant work on the residence: Margaret Tarr and Barbara Dorff.

Last year, Leighton Farrell, Chair of the Committee, reported that the Committee on Episcopacy informed the Conference delegates to Jurisdictional Conference of its desire that Bishop Blake be reappointed as Bishop of the North Texas Conference for the 1992-1996 quadrennium. The Annual Conference voted in favor of this recommendation. As you know, the work of the delegation and its representatives to the Jurisdictional Episcopacy Committee resulted in the reappointment of Bishop Blake. The Episcopacy Committee immediately scheduled a welcome back luncheon at Jurisdictional Conference in conjunction with the Jurisdictional Conference Delegation, a reception at Jurisdictional Conference and an Annual Conference Reception on July 19. These events all took place within the same week and within a month of the organization of this Committee. The Committee was also dealing with selling the old residence and purchasing a new one during this month, so the Committee's work began with a bang.

The Committee met ten times during the year and held three receptions. The Committee also organized into subcommittees which met several times during the year. We are only beginning to understand how to act as an Episcopal Area; these subcommittees as well as a reorganization of our budget line items and the creation of an Area Treasury separate from the Conference Treasury for certain Episcopal matters are steps in the direction of more effectively dealing with Area matters. In general, expenses and reimbursements related to the Episcopal Residence will continue to be handled by the Conference Office, with other funds associated with the Area being administered by the Area office. The Committee on Episcopacy has designated a Treasurer to receive regular reports of expenditures, prepare an annual budget and submit an annual report to the Committee on Episcopacy and the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

We believe that we are getting better at giving support to our Bishop and the Episcopal family and in the oversight of the affairs of the area, but we need to improve even more. It is our intent to do so in the coming year now that the residence issue is behind us.

SCOTT SMITH, Chair

EPISCOPAL RESIDENCE COMMITTEE REPORT

The actions of the Annual Conference last year were to sell the current Episcopal residence and then enter into a contract for purchase of a lot and construction of a new residence or the purchase of an existing home not to exceed a total cost of $275,000 with a mortgage obligation to the North Texas Conference not to exceed $5,000 per year.

A listing agent was selected by the Conference Trustees, and she advised the Residence Committee to do some painting and minor refurbishment prior to listing. This was accomplished in July and the house was listed on July 22 for $189,000. We negotiated a contract of sale on August 13th for $184,500. We closed and gave possession on August 28th. Needless to say, this created great disruption to the Episcopal Family, but they responded by interrupting and cutting short vacation times and renewal leave to do what was in the best interest of the Area. They were extremely gracious during a time of great personal inconvenience.

It then became critical to get the plan for the new residence executed. We put on a search for existing residences with a floor plan similar to the one developed by the Committee which is suitable for an Episcopal residence. The key design issue was the ability of the Bishop to entertain guests in the formal areas while the rest of the family carries on normal activities in the remainder of the house. We found no existing homes anywhere within the target area that fit this criteria. The closest location to Dallas where a lot could be secured within the guidelines set by the Annual Conference was, in fact, the location recommended by the Sub-Committee prior to Annual Conference last year. Consequently, we needed temporary housing and our Realtor found a nice rent house. The Episcopal family moved in on August 27th.

On September 22nd, a contract was executed for the purchase of a lot and the construction of a home at 5841 Stone Meadow in the Stone Lake Addition of Plano. This location is approximately four blocks east of the Dallas North Tollway and two blocks north of Plano Parkway; one half mile from the intersection of the new outer loop of State Highway 190 and the Tollway. It is one mile north of the Dallas City Limits and one mile east of Carrollton. The two story home contains 3500 square feet and a 2 - 1/2 car garage with all landscaping, irrigation and window treatments.

Construction began in November and we occupied this home in March. The price of the home was $252,000 and because of the low financing rate achieved by borrowing money from our deposits at the Texas Methodist Foundation, our debt service is covered entirely by the money received from the General Council on Finance and Administration for the Episcopal Residence.

The furnishings in the old residence primarily belonged to the Blakes; those owned by the Conference were deemed unusable in the new residence. With the exception of some appliances, these furnishings were sold and the new residence was furnished with new furniture. The total of these cost was approximately $60,000. These funds were pledged by certain churches and individuals. To date, over $35,000 has been received against these pledges. The remaining funds to furnish the home were borrowed from the proceeds of the sale of the old residence and donations made for the residence. We expect the remainder of these pledges to be paid by year end. Those who mentioned on the floor of the Conference last year that they would like to participate in the furnishing of the new residence may still do so and are encouraged to do so. Please contact me or any member of the Committee.

We are quite proud of our new Episcopal Residence and believe it to be centrally located in our area for its useful life. We believe you will be proud of the new residence as well and invite all of you and any other interested parties to join us at an Open House from 4:00 - 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday, June 9 at 5841 Stone Meadow here in Plano. Directions are on the message board in the corridor.

XIV. STANDING RULES

RULE 1.

The Rules of Order adopted by the General Conference of the United Methodist Church shall prevail at all business sessions of the conference.

RULE 2.

The Conference Council on Ministries is constituted to execute the functions detailed in The Book of Discipline in addition to the coordinating functions in relation to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 3.
ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTION OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE AGENCIES

General Requirements of Election to and Membership on Conference Agencies

1. Members and Chairpersons for the Annual Conference's Councils, Boards, Board Divisions, Commissions and Committees shall be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference (except when specific alternative elective procedures are mandated by The Book of Discipline or the Standing Rules: e.g., Board of Ordained Ministry, Board of Trustees, etc.) with opportunity for additional nominations from the floor. Persons elected shall begin their term of office at the close of the Annual Conference session of their election. A person shall not be elected to serve as chairperson of the same Annual Conference Council or Board for more than four years nor as chairperson of more than one Annual Conference Council or Board for more than six consecutive years in any eight year period. A person may serve as chairperson of a Division, Commission, or Committee for four years, and still be eligible to serve as chairperson of a Board or Council for an additional four years, if in compliance with the eight year agency limitation. Persons elected as chairpersons shall be in addition to the stated number of members for each Conference Agency, unless prohibited by The Book of Discipline or the Standing Rules.

2. Membership on all agencies (councils, boards, divisions, commissions, committees) shall include one-third clergy, one-third laywomen, and one-third laymen, insofar as possible. Special attention shall be given to the inclusion of clergywomen. Strong consideration shall also be given to inclusive representation from the districts, small membership churches, town and country churches and ethnic churches. The following agencies should also be considered as exceptions:

   A. According to the current Book of Discipline
      *Committee on Investigation
      *Committee on Equitable Salaries
      *Joint Review Committee
      *Board of Laity
      *Administrative Review Committee

   B. According to the nature of the group/agency:
      *United Methodist Men
      *United Methodist Women
      *Council on Youth Ministries
      *Commission on Asian Ministries

3. Persons shall be nominated to serve for a four year term on a Conference agency (council, board, commission, committee). No person shall be nominated for a position without previously agreeing to serve if elected. Persons who are absent without cause for half or more of an agency's meetings during the Conference year will thereby automatically remove themselves from the membership of the agency and shall be replaced by the Committee on Nominations. The Committee on Nominations is authorized to provide for filling such vacancies between sessions of the Annual Conference, unless otherwise provided for in The Book of Discipline. Those filling vacancies shall serve only the remainder of the Conference year in which they are appointed unless elected to that position at the first Annual Conference following their appointment.

4. The North Texas Annual Conference shall make it a policy to rotate membership on Conference agencies, limiting any person to eight successive years on any one agency. However, a person may be re-elected to that Conference agency after non-membership for four years. The number of years of each person's term shall be listed after that person's name in the Annual Conference Journal where the membership of the agencies is listed. Membership, except ex-officio, shall be held on no more than one Conference agency in any membership category at the same time. These rules shall not be constructed to apply to trustees of institutions.

5. Members of the general agencies of the United Methodist Church from the North Texas Conference will be members of the corresponding Conference agency.

THE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

The Conference Council on Ministries shall be organized in accordance with The Book of Discipline. It shall oversee and coordinate the implementation of decisions made by the Annual Conference through the Annual Conference's various boards, commissions and committees. It shall also serve as a forum where Conference program needs and concerns may be discussed.

All proposals related to the Conference program shall be submitted to the Council on Ministries for discussion prior to their submission to the Annual Conference. The Council on Ministries may choose to endorse, oppose or take no position regarding such proposals. Lack of endorsement by the Council on Ministries does not prohibit a Conference agency from submitting a proposal to the Annual Conference.

The Council on Ministries shall not assume for itself responsibilities which belong to the Annual Conference. In cases of urgent necessity, the Council on Ministries may approve, by a two-third vote, changes, additions or deletions from the Conference program between sessions of the Annual Conference provided that, if funding is involved, prior approval shall also be received from the Council on Finance and Administration. Such actions shall be reviewed by the next session of the Annual Conference.

The Council on Ministries shall be composed of: the presiding Bishop; the District Superintendents; the Conference Lay Leader; the chairperson of the Council on Ministries; the Board and Division Chairpersons of the Board of Church and Society, Board of Discipleship, Board of Laity, Board of Global Ministries, and Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry; the chairperson of each independent commission; the chairperson of each commission and committee of the Council on Ministries; the Conference Scouting Coordinator; the Conference Secretary; two representatives each of the Conference Youth Organization, United Methodist Women, and United Methodist Men (If not already included in the composition of the Council on Ministries, the following at-large members shall be added: two young adults; the lay leaders of each district; and the person(s) serving on the General Council on Ministries). The following shall be members of the Council with voice and no vote: Conference Council on Ministries staff; the chairperson or representative of the Council on Finance and Administration; and the Conference Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services.

The chairperson of the Council on Ministries shall be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Council on Ministries. Other officers shall be elected as needed by the Council from its membership. There shall be an executive committee created consistent with The Book of Discipline.

THE COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

The Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration shall be constituted and shall function in accordance with The Book of Discipline. The Conference Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services shall be accountable to the Annual Conference through the Council on Finance and Administration and shall have responsibilities and rights accorded by The Book of Discipline to the Conference Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services.

BOARDS

The Board of Trustees

The Board of Trustees shall function and be constituted in accordance with The Book of Discipline.

The Board of Laity

The Board of Laity shall fulfill the functions as described in The Book of Discipline. It shall foster an awareness of the role of the laity in the ministry and mission of the church by participation in the planning and decision-making processes of the Annual Conference. In order to provide input for such participation, and to provide the laity with a sense of ownership and accountability, the Board shall interface between the grass-roots laity and the leadership of the Annual Conference. The Board shall serve as a forum for sharing the varied concerns of the laity of the Annual Conference, shall support and coordinate the work of the agencies represented, and shall become informed concerning the issues, concerns, frustrations, dreams and hopes of lay people in the local churches of each district. It shall interpret these concerns to the Bishop, the Cabinet, and the director of the Council on Ministries by meeting with them at least twice annually. It shall also, through its district lay leaders, interpret to the local churches of each district the programmatic and missional goals of the Annual Conference.

The Board of Laity shall consist of twelve (12) members. The chairperson of the Board shall be the Conference Lay Leader. Members of the Board shall be the District Lay Leaders, the presidents of the United Methodist Women and the United Methodist Men, the chairperson of the United Methodist Youth Council, the Commission on Religion and Race and the Conference Lay Speakers Committee.

One year prior to the expiration of the term of the incumbent Annual Conference Lay Leader, the Conference Nominating Committee shall nominate, and the Annual Conference shall elect, an Annual Conference Lay Leader elect with the opportunity for additional nominations from the floor. The Lay Leader elect shall serve as Associate Lay Leader until the expiration of the term of the incumbent Annual Conference Lay Leader. The Annual Conference Lay Leader elect shall help with the duties of the Annual Conference Lay Leader as set forth by guidelines created by the Board of Laity.

The Board of Ordained Ministry

The Board of Ordained Ministry shall fulfill the functions described in The Book of Discipline. It shall study and interpret the ministerial resources and needs of the North Texas Annual Conference with due regard to the inclusive church, in consultation with the Bishop and the Cabinet. Duties shall be those assigned to it in The Book of Discipline. It shall encourage and oversee the work of its five divisions in dealing with the issues under their purview. The Board shall discuss and take action as it deems appropriate regarding proposals from its divisions.

The Board shall consist of fifty-eight (58) members. The members of the Board shall be nominated and elected according to the current disciplinary provisions with at least one member from each district on the Division of Preparations and Qualifications and the Division of Local Pastors at the beginning of the quadrennium. The Board shall appoint two of its members in each district to be the liaison with the district Committee on Ordained Ministry. Persons shall not be added to the Board or divisions during the quadrennium except to fill vacancies or new division. When, because of any reason, a district Committee on Ordained Ministry no longer has someone on the Board, the Board shall appoint two of its members to be a liaison with that district Committee on Ordained Ministry. The Board may assign additional duties to each division.

The Board shall have the following divisions:

1. The Division of Preparation and Qualifications shall concern itself with preparing and qualifying persons for the ordained ministry and guiding those persons in the process of education, training, and ordination.

2. The Division of Conference Relations shall concern itself with making recommendations regarding the changes in Conference relationships to all ordained ministers.

3. The Division of Local Pastors shall concern itself with all matters related to the designation and duties of local pastors as indicated in The Book of Discipline.

4. The Division of Chaplains and Related Ministries shall concern itself with the care and guidance of persons who serve as ordained clergy persons in appointments beyond the local church.

5. The Division of Continuing Education shall provide a program of continuing education and administer continuing education funds for ordained and diaconal ministers of the North Texas Conference.

The Board of Diaconal Ministry

The Board of Diaconal Ministry shall fulfill the functions described in The Book of Discipline. It shall study and interpret professional lay ministry resources and needs of the North Texas Annual Conference, with due regard to the inclusive church, in consultation with the Bishop and the Cabinet. Its duties shall be those assigned to it in The Book of Discipline. It shall encourage and oversee the work of its four divisions in dealing with the issues under the purview. The Board shall take such action as it deems appropriate regarding proposals from its divisions.

The Board shall consist of twenty three (23) members. Nominations will be made according to the procedure outlined in The Book of Discipline.

The Board shall have the following divisions. The Board may assign additional duties to each division.

1. The Division of Consecration, Certification and Conference Relations shall concern itself with preparing and qualifying persons for diaconal ministry and guiding those persons in the process of education, training, certification and consecration; it shall also concern itself with making recommendations regarding all changes in conference relations of all diaconal ministers.

2. The Division of Professional Growth shall concern itself with continuing education and all matters pertaining to diaconal ministerial morale.

3. The Division of Salaries, Insurance and Pensions shall concern itself with all matters pertaining to financial support systems for diaconal ministers.

4. The Division of Interpretation and Recruitment shall concern itself with the interpretation of the roles of Diaconal Ministry to the Annual Conference, its local churches, and its boards and agencies and the development of recruitment programs to interest persons to enter Diaconal Ministry.

The Board of Pensions

The Conference Board of Pensions shall consist of fifteen (15) members. It shall be constituted and function in accordance with The Book of Discipline. It shall have charge of the interests and work of providing for and contributing to the support, relief, assistance and pensioning of ministers and their families, other church workers and lay employees, except as otherwise provided. The Board shall discuss and take action as it deems appropriate regarding proposals under its jurisdiction.

The Board of Church and Society

The Board of Church and Society shall fulfill the functions described in The Book of Discipline. It shall be aware of and help to familiarize church members in the North Texas Annual Conference with the United Methodist Church's Social Principles; it shall (1) reflect upon issues under its purview from the standpoint of Christian ethics and (2) frame advocacy positions and/or propose taking other steps as may be deemed appropriate.

In order to do so, the Board shall organize its members into appropriate committees and task forces as it seeks to fulfill its responsibilities.

The Board shall consist of fourteen (14) members elected by the Annual Conference. The Board may elect up to three (3) members-at-large.

The Mission Coordinator for Christian Social Involvement of the Conference United Methodist Women shall be an ex-officio member of the Board.

The Board of Discipleship

The Board of Discipleship and each of its divisions shall fulfill the responsibilities described in The Book of Discipline. The Division of Youth Ministries shall continually assess the state of youth ministry in the local churches of the Conference to adequately support those ministries by providing leadership training for adult workers with youth, local church coordinators, church school workers and teachers, and district youth coordinators; by maintaining effective and standard District Council on Youth Ministries (DCYM); and by promoting the Youth Service Fund (YSF) through leadership training and goal setting in the local churches and districts.

The Board shall consist of the chairperson of each division and one additional representative from each division elected by that division from its membership.

The Board shall have the following Divisions:

1. The Division of Education
2. The Division of Evangelism
3. The Division of Spiritual Formation
4. The Division of Stewardship
5. The Division of Worship
6. The Division of Children's Ministries
7. The Division of Youth Ministries
8. The Division of Adult Ministries
9. The Division of Singles Ministries
10. The Division of Older Adult Ministries
11. The Division of Family Ministries

Each Division shall have a maximum of seven (7) members. Each Division may have up to three (3) at-large members nominated by the Division on the basis of special competence and expertise. These members at-large shall be elected by the Board.

The Board of Global Ministries

The Board of Global Ministries shall fulfill the functions described in The Book of Discipline. It shall have as a Board any responsibilities therein not assigned to a specific division. The Board shall discuss and take such actions as it deems appropriate regarding the proposals from its divisions.

The Board shall consist of the chairperson of each division of the Board, one additional representative of each division elected by that division from its membership, those persons mandated by The Book of Discipline, the Disaster Relief Coordinator, and the Hunger Coordinator.

The Board shall have the following divisions:

1. The Division of National and World Outreach shall be responsible for interpretation of missional concerns nationally and around the world as identified in The Book of Discipline. It shall be composed of seven (7) members.

2. The Division of Community Ministries shall concern itself with functions as stated in The Book of Discipline. It shall be composed of seven (7) members.

3. The Division of Health and Welfare Ministries shall concern itself with functions as stated in The Book of Discipline. It shall be composed of seven (7) members. The administrators of the health and welfare agencies of the North Texas Annual Conference shall be ex-officio members.

4. The Division of Volunteers in Mission shall promote, coordinate and facilitate volunteer mission projects, personnel involvement on local, national, and international levels, working with the South Central Jurisdiction Volunteers in Mission. It shall fulfill responsibilities stated in The Book of Discipline. It shall be composed of seven (7) members.

5. The Division of Town and Country Churches shall be responsible for: developing guidelines for the development of congregations in non-urban areas of the Conference; increasing awareness throughout the Conference of the importance of town and country churches; compiling and making known a list of developmental resources and models for town and country congregations; developing policies and guidelines for the development and evaluation of cooperative parishes; providing financial assistance to town and country congregations; developing and administering guidelines for the distribution of grants; administering Town and Country Visionary share funds; developing and administering an annual budget and submitting requests, as needed, for Conference funding.

   The Division shall be responsible for recommending the allocation of the visionary share income designated for Town and Country Ministries to the Board of Global Ministries and the Council on Ministries. A Division representative will serve on the Church Development Grant Share Committee to help allocate where the Church Development Visionary Share Income is to be designated for use.

   The Division of Town and Country Ministries shall be composed of one (1) district representative from each district in which town and country churches are located and up to three (3) at-large members elected by the Division.

6. The Division of Urban Communities shall function in accordance with The Book of Discipline to develop and strengthen North Texas Conference ministries in areas of over 50,000 population, and shall be responsible for: encouraging the development of cooperative parish ministries; developing a comprehensive missional strategy; initiating and/or assisting with programs of ministry with specialized constituencies and sectors of community life; developing general guidelines and alternatives for ministry for churches which find themselves in transitional situations; providing specific guidance and counsel for professional and lay leadership of congregations; developing strategies for ongoing and/or new ministries to persons living in urban communities; assisting districts in identifying and dealing with the declining membership; providing financial assistance to congregations in urban communities; developing and administering guidelines for the awarding of grants; developing and administering an annual budget; administering Urban Ministries Visionaries share funds; and referring local churches in urban communities to appropriate agencies if additional financial assistance is needed. The Division shall be responsible for recommending to the Board of Global Ministries and the Council on Ministries the allocation of Visionaries share funds designated for Urban Ministries.

   The Division of Urban Ministries shall be composed of one (1) district representative from each district in which urban communities are located and up to three (3) at-large members elected by the Division.

The Conference Committee on Clergy Housing will recommend "standards" for clergy housing, present them to Annual Conference for adoption and assist District Superintendents in implementing them.

The Committee will be composed of eighteen (18) members: a lay representative and a clergy or clergy spouse from each district, one of whom shall be the chairperson of the District Committee on Church Location and Building, a representative from the Cabinet, and three at-large representatives. Special attention will be given to representation from small membership churches, rural churches, ethnic churches, associate pastors, and clergy spouses.

Conference Personnel Committee

There shall be a Conference Personnel Committee to provide support for Conference staff members, including support staff, to guarantee that staff are cared for in their responsibilities.

The Committee will establish uniform and equitable policies and practices in the employment and compensation of personnel, in consultation and cooperation with other Conference agencies which employ staff.

The Committee shall be composed of a representative and the administrative staff member for each agency with employed staff plus seven (7) members: one from each district to be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference. One District Superintendent shall be named by the Bishop to serve as the chairperson. The Committee shall be amenable to the Bishop and Cabinet.

The Committee on Nominations

The Annual Conference Committee on Nominations shall be composed of nine (9) members: four (4) lay persons and four (4) ordained persons, plus the Conference Lay Leader (according to The Book of Discipline). The Director of the Conference Council on Ministries shall serve as consultant (according to The Book of Discipline). The elected persons shall be elected by the respective lay and ordained members of the Annual Conference by the same procedure as General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates are elected, without nomination and by secret ballot. One lay person and one clergy shall be elected each year for a four year term. A person may serve for only one four year term and shall be eligible to be elected again after being off the Committee for two years. Prior to the first ballot, it is recommended that the Bishop lift up the need for inclusiveness in the election of the members of the Committee on Nominations.

The Committee shall annually elect its chair and secretary at the site of the Annual Conference following the election of new members.

The Committee on Nominations is responsible for:

1. Developing and implementing a plan of identification of persons who are willing, qualified and able to serve as members of the agencies of the Annual Conference.

2. Developing and implementing a plan to train and support persons who are elected to serve as members of the agencies of the Conference.

3. Nominating members and chairpersons of agencies of the Conference to the session of the Annual Conference for election except where otherwise provided in the BOOK OF DISCIPLINE.

Agenda Committee

The Annual Conference, to expedite the transaction of its business, may adopt an agenda as a basis of its procedure. Such agenda shall be prepared by the Bishop, the District Superintendents, the Conference Lay leader and such others as the Conference may name, and shall be submitted to the Conference for adoption.

Sufficient additional members will provide equal representation of lay and clergy with attention to gender, race, and age distribution. The chairperson and additional members shall be named by the Bishop.

Memoirs Committee

The Memoirs Committee, composed of a chairperson, a retired member of the Conference and the secretary of the Conference, shall insure the publication in the Conference Journal of suitable memorials for deceased professional members of the Conference and their spouses. Every professional member of the Conference shall file with the secretary of the Conference an historical sketch of his/her life on the registration blank to be furnished by the secretary. The document shall become a record of the minister.

Journal Committee

The Journal Committee shall attest to the accuracy of the contents published in the Conference Journal. It shall be composed of the Conference Secretary and the Assistant Conference Secretaries.

Courtesy and Resolutions Committee

The Courtesy Resolution Committee shall be responsible for the amenities of the Annual Conference. These shall include the presentation of the spouse of the Bishop to the Annual Conference, introduction of special guests, and writing formal statements of gratitude for services rendered to the Conference.

The Committee shall be composed of three (3) members, plus a chairperson nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference, with the opportunity for additional nominations from the floor.

Disciplinary Committees

The following committees shall be constituted and function in accordance with The Book of Discipline:

*Committee on Administrative Review
*Committee on Joint Review

*Committee on Investigation (Clergy)
*Committee on Investigation (Diaconal)

OTHER AGENCIES

United Methodist Women

The Annual Conference United Methodist Women organization shall be constituted according to The Book of Discipline. United Methodist Women shall have two (2) representatives to the Council on Ministries, one of whom shall be the United Methodist Women president. Representatives from United Methodist Women shall also be designated to other agencies of the Annual Conference as recommended by The Book of Discipline, and such other agencies as may be proposed to, and approved by, the Council on Ministries.

United Methodist Men

The Annual Conference United Methodist Men organization shall be constituted according to the "Manual for Annual Conference and District Boards of Discipleship." United Methodist Men shall have two (2) representatives on the Conference council on Ministries, one of whom shall be the United Methodist Men president. Representatives from United Methodist Men to other agencies of the Annual Conference may be proposed to the Conference Council on Ministries for approval.

Council on Youth Ministries

The Council on Youth Ministries shall be constituted according to The Book of Discipline. The chairperson of the Division of Youth Ministries of the Board of Discipleship shall serve as advisor to the Council on Youth Ministries. The Council shall elect from its membership two youth representatives to the Conference Council on Ministries.

RULE 4.

Section A. No one shall be a member of a conference agency who is in the salaried employment of an institution that receives support from that agency.

Section B. No member of this conference who is a salaried employee of any institution to which this conference contributes shall be a member of the Board of Trustees of the institution by which that person is employed.

Section C. No member of the Council on Finance and Administration shall be a member of any conference agency, or a trustee of a conference institution that is supported either partially or totally by the Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 5.

All reports of conference agencies shall be submitted in duplicate to the Conference Council on Ministries for their work in preparation for the meeting of the Annual Conference Councils, on or before the day designated by the Conference Council on Ministries. The reports shall be typewritten, double-spaced, and on one side of the page only.

RULE 6.

The lay members to the Annual Conference may be elected annually or quadrennially at the Charge Conference preceding the regular quadrennial meeting of the General Conference. The term of office of Annual Conference members shall begin on January 1 after their election at the Fall Charge Conference. If, for any reason, the Charge Conference is delayed until after January 1, their term of office shall begin immediately upon election. Lay members elected under the equalization process by the District Conference shall take office immediately and shall serve until the District Conference elects lay members for the succeeding year. The equalization lay members shall be elected by the lay members present at the District Conference from nominations made by the District Lay Leader, the District Superintendent and the Lay Members of the District Nominating Committee. Nominations may also be made from the floor of the District Conference.

The following are Lay Members of the Annual Conference with voice and vote and before the equalization process is applied to the difference between lay and clergy members the following names shall be deducted from such difference:

1. Conference Lay Leader
2. Conference President of the United Methodist Men
3. President or equivalent officer of Young Adults
4. Conference President of the United Methodist Women
5. President of the Conference Youth Organization
6. The District Lay Leaders
7. Two young persons under twenty-five years of age
8. All Diaconal Ministers who are in full-time service appointment
9. All elected chairpersons within the structure of the North Texas Conference who are not otherwise provided for.

RULE 7.

The term of office of local church officials elected by the Fall Charge Conference shall begin on January 1 and run for the length of their term. This rule shall not apply to members of local Boards of Trustees.

RULE 8.

The minister who shall be in charge of the funeral services of any minister of the North Texas Conference, or the spouse, widow, or widower of a minister of the North Texas Conference, will supply the secretary of the conference with a memoir containing: the date of birth; the date of death; the date of final rites; the place of burial; a recent photograph of the deceased; date of entrance or transfer into the conference; the conference from which transferred, if applicable; and, if possible, appointments in other conferences. In the event that the dates required are not supplied, they shall be added by the secretary of the conference, if possible. All of this information is to be sent to the secretary of the conference immediately following the funeral.

RULE 9.

In the event of the death of an active minister occupying a parsonage, the surviving spouse and family shall be granted the privilege of using the parsonage for a period of time not to exceed sixty (60) days.

RULE 10.

The Board of Ordained Ministry shall inquire of each district superintendent about the life and official administration of each member of the conference in his district and report to the conference as to whether all the ministerial members of the conference are blameless in their life and official administration.

RULE 11.

The secretary of the North Texas Conference Board of Trustees shall be furnished a legal description of each piece of property in the District, along with a statement as to where the deeds are kept, by the District Superintendent of that District, on or before December 1. This list shall be revised annually by the District Superintendent by December 1 to include each real estate transaction.

RULE 12.

The District Superintendent shall be required to report district statistics to the Conference Statistician.

RULE 13.

Section A. Each church and pastor shall submit the Annual Conference report to the District Auditor for auditing on the check-out day specified by the Cabinet.

Section B. Each District Superintendent, upon nomination of the Conference Statistician, shall appoint a District Auditor, whose responsibility it shall be to audit the Annual Conference reports. The District Auditor shall prepare these reports in correct form on the blank provided by the Conference Statistician and shall deliver them immediately following Check-Out Day to the Conference Statistician.

Section C. The Conference Treasurer's books shall be closed annually at 12:00 noon on January 8 (or the closest working day), and no funds received by the Conference Treasurer after that time shall apply on Conference Apportionments of the year just completed.

Section D. The fiscal year of the Annual Conference shall be January 1 to December 31. The apportionments to the local churches shall be made on this basis. The only exception to this shall be the salaries of the clerical members serving as pastors or district superintendents. When a pastoral change comes at Annual Conference, the salary of the previous appointment shall be paid through June 15, and the salary in the new appointment shall begin June 16.

RULE 14.

Each pastor in charge shall be required to report to his district superintendent on District Check-Out Day any money borrowed necessary to pay current church obligations for the Conference fiscal year, or any delinquent church bills which have not been paid by the close of the Conference fiscal year.

RULE 15.

Gifts to members of the conference in recognition for service rendered shall not be made on the floor of the conference.

RULE 16.

Interest earned on any funds, (excluding designated trusts) managed by the Conference Treasurer shall be declared general funds of the North Texas Annual Conference and administered by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 17.

No agency of the North Texas Conference shall incur financial obligations that exceed current appropriations for any reason except by specific approval of the Council on Ministries, the presiding Bishop and the Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 18.

Section A. No conference agency shall include requests for funds other than those required for its own operation or program; requests for funds for the same cause or concern shall be granted to only one conference agency.

Section B. Conference Agencies of the North Texas Conference shall make expenditures only in accordance with their respective budgets for the current year and shall in no case introduce new items not included in their approved budget. New items may be submitted to the Council on Finance and Administration for appraisal and consideration for the current year or may be included in the budget request submitted for the coming year.

Section C. Any agency in the Conference has the right of appeal to the Annual Conference regarding a decision affecting its work made by any other agency, except where otherwise provided in The Book of Discipline.

RULE 19.

The Council on Ministries is responsible for presenting to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration a proposed budget incorporating program and administrative items for its agencies and related district agencies. This report is to be submitted on or before the date set annually by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

RULE 20.

When application is made to the conference for the privilege of a special conference-wide financial appeal, whether by special collection, campaigns, or otherwise, the application shall be referred to the Council on Finance and Administration before final action is taken thereon. The Council shall investigate the application and its possible relation to other obligations of the conference, and in light of the facts make recommendations to the Annual Conference.

RULE 21.

Section A. The Council on Finance and Administration shall nominate to the Annual Conference an auditing firm which shall audit the Conference Treasurer's books annually.

Section B. All agencies and institution receiving financial support from the conference, either by direct apportionment or by special offerings, shall if requested submit an annual auditor's report acceptable to the Council on Finance and Administration by September 1 of each year for the previous fiscal year.

RULE 22.

Annually the conference treasurer, with the assistance of the District Superintendents, shall compute the apportionment decimal for each church and by September 1 provide the amounts for each church's apportionments for the following year.

RULE 23.

Matters which are not a part of the Pre-conference Report of a particular agency of the Annual Conference may come before the conference only after they have been duplicated and distributed on the floor of the conference by the beginning of the day they are to be considered. This Rule shall not be so construed as to preclude proper amendments to reports or matters of privilege.

RULE 24.

The following ethical principles for the appropriation and disbursement of funds by the North Texas Annual Conference shall be observed:

A. Funds contributed for a designated purpose should be used strictly for the purpose designated, and administered efficiently, without waste or duplication, in order to obtain maximum effect from the use of available funds.

B. Net proceeds from the sale of Annual Conference property are capital funds, and should be appropriated to the use which the property was intended to serve. If this is not feasible, priority should be given to the most similar purpose for which the funds can be used effectively, or to capital improvements within reasonable geographical proximity; but district lines should not be controlling and the entire community or metropolitan area should be considered. Likewise, funds received by way of indemnity for loss or destruction of any capital assets of the Annual Conference should be treated as capital assets and should be used for similar purposes if restoration of the property is feasible.

RULE 25.

It shall require a two-thirds (2/3) vote of all lay and clerical members present and voting to suspend or to amend any of these standing rules.

DAVID B. DAVIS

Dr. David B. Davis, born February 25, 1935, passed away October 11, 1992, survived by his wife, Jeanne Davis, and children, Karen Kitchens and Mark Davis. For thirty-two years Dr. Davis served as a pastoral minister in Texas, Ohio, and New York. His first student charge was the Forrestburg-Roston Circuit; a subsequent student appointment was the Blue Mound United Methodist Church which he served from 1961-62.

Upon completion of seminary, Dr. Davis's first full-time appointment was in Columbus, Ohio. In 1965 he returned to his home state of New York to serve in Mohawk where he spearheaded the renovation of First United Methodist Church's historic stucture. Following a second appointment in New York, Dr. Davis returned to Texas.

As a member of the Northern New York Conference, Dr. Davis served on many boards, including the Board of Ordained Ministry, and he organized spiritual life retreats for clergy and spouses. In the North Texas Conference from 1972-77, he led the congregation of Wesley(McKinney) in the relocation and building of a new church complex. He also served as president of the McKinney Ministerial Association. In Dallas, while pastor of the Greenland Hills congregation, Dr. Davis helped form the East Dallas Cooperative Parish.

Other churches in the Dallas area served by Dr. Davis included Owenwood, Dallas; Cedar Hill; and Seagoville. In Oak Cliff, as pastor of the Brooklyn Avenue congregation, he was an active participant in the Oak Cliff Group ministries, working with inner city and inter-ethnic situations. His work led ultimately to the joining of the Brooklyn Avenue congregation with a Hispanic congregation, Crossroads United Methodist Church. As his illness progressed, Dr. Davis took a part-time position with St. John's United Methodist Church where he continued his work with the East Dallas Cooperative Parish.

A service celebrating Dr. Davis's life and ministry was held at Grace United Methodist Church, Dallas, on October 14. Burial was in Restland Memorial Park.

G. WILLIAM JONES, JR.

Dr. G. William Jones, Jr., Professor of Cinema and Video at Southern Methodist University and Founder of the Southwest Film/Video Archives of the Meadows School of the Arts, was born February 26, 1931, and died May 11, 1993.

In addition to beginning the Archives in 1970, Dr. Jones founded the USA Film Festival at SMU the same year, serving as its Executive Director for 12 years.

Dr. Jones' professional history includes 27 years teaching graduate and undergraduate courses in screenwriting, all aspects of cinema history, film criticism, ethical issues in mass media, human values in contemportary cinema and the business of motion pictures.

Dr. Jones authored 10 books, seven screenplays, and more than a hundred articles in journals and magazines. He also wrote film and television criticism for many newspapers and magazines, was an on-camera film critic for Dallas' PBS station, and was researcher, writer, host and co-producer of the Filmscape series on the Texas Cable Network.

As founder and director of the Southwest Film-Video Archives, Dr. Jones was awarded the CINE Golden Eagle Award and the Gold Medal for Best TV Documentary. As director of the USA Film Festival 1970-1982, Dr. Jones received many awards and made regular trips to Hollywood and New York to confer with studio officials, producers and national-level film critics.

Dr. Jones served his nation and his state in numerous ways during his career. One of 18 US citizens selected by President Lyndon Baines Johnson for the National Commission on Obscenity and Pornography, he also served on the national executive board of the Sex Information and Education Council of the US (SIECUS), as a film consultant to the US Navy, as an original member of the Texas Film Commission, on the Film Advisory Panel of the Texas Commission on the Arts and Humanities, and as a member of the Film Archives Advisory Committee of the American Film Institute.

He was also a consultant to many of the major Hollywood studios on copyright and censorship matters, and he held other consulting positions in the fields of video development and instructional technology with such corporations as Texas Instruments and EDS.

Dr. Jones received his Bachelor of Arts Degree from Southern Methodist University in 1951, his Master of Theology Degree from Perkins School of Theology in 1956 and his Doctor of Philosophy Degree from Syracuse University in 1971.

He is survived by his wife, Bobbie, and two sons: David Jones of Dallas, and Chris Jones of Indianapolis.

A memorial service was held at Perkins Chapel on the Southern Methodist University campus on Friday, May 14.

G. HENRY MOOD

G. Henry Mood, Pastor Emeritus of the First United Methodist Church in Garland, Texas, was born January 19, 1906, in Monesson, Pennsylvania and died July 17, 1992. Funeral services were held at the First United Methodist Church in Garland on July 30th.

Henry graduated from SMU in 1931 and Perkins School of Theology in 1934. He was first admitted On Trial in 1929 and ordained an Elder in 1933. Henry began his ministry as an associate minister of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church in downtown Dallas and then as pastor of the Haskell Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church. He was admitted as an Elder in the North Texas Conference in 1939 through the union of the churches.

Henry retired to Garland in 1976 after forty-seven years of service. He continued to serve the people of First Church, and all of Garland, until his death, compiling a record of sixty-four years of service to God and His Church. He was a Chaplain in the U.S. Navy in World War II, serving in Norfolk, Virginia and the Pacific. In addition to serving as pastor of the First United Methodist Church in Garland, 1949-1956, he served pastorates in Dallas, Sulphur Springs, Bonham, and Irving. He also served two terms as District Superintendent; the Paris District and the Sherman District. Henry was a dutiful servant of the North Texas Conference serving on many of its Boards and Agencies. He was a beloved secretary of the Annual Conference. Few ministers of the conference conducted as many weddings and funerals as did Henry. As one minister said, "He was everything that you would want a minister to be."

Henry's life of Christian faith and obedience was an inspiration to all who knew him. He was a servant of God and His Church, living a life of gracious usefulness and quiet, steadfast service. The blessed influences of his ministry stretch far beyond our realization. In his long service to this annual conference, and to his country, he truly ran with faith and patience the course that was set before him and made it his aim both to please God and to serve, encourage and strengthen his people whenever and wherever the opportunity presented itself. His was a life that was rich in the truest sense. His was a love freely given and modestly received.

We mourn the loss of our dear friend and God's humble servant. Yet, we rejoice in his heavenly reward. We thank God for the heritage he leaves. There will never come an end to the good he has done. As Henry Wadsworth Longfellow penned in "The Psalm of Life":

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time.
Footprints, that perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, shall take heart again.
Let us then be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait.

Henry Mood is survived by his wife, Lydia, whom he married December 26, 1931; his daughter, Carolyn Darby; his son, Robert; and two grandsons, Scott Musser and Robby Mood.

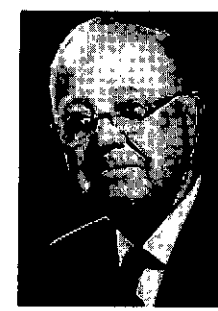
WALTER N. VERNON, JR.



Dr. Walter N. Vernon, Jr., was born on March 24, 1907, in Verden, Indian Territory (Oklahoma), where his father was preaching to pioneer settlers and Kiowa Indians, but he grew up in the Texas towns of his father's pastorates. On March 10, 1993, he died in Dallas, Texas, after many years of faithful ministry.

Dr. Vernon's first appointment was to Wesley House Methodist Church, Dallas, in 1927. He was admitted on trial in the North Texas Conference in 1929 and into full connection in 1931. On December 27, 1931, in Paris, Texas, he married Ruth Mason, who survives him along with their two children, Walter and Kathleen, five grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Ruth was Walter's constant joy and helpful mate for more than 61 years.

After serving Lakewood Church, Dallas, for seven years Dr. Vernon was invited in 1938 to begin his long career as an editor with the General Board of Education and The Publishing House in Nashville, Tennessee. Walter's interest in writing began with essays while still a school boy and continued on through editorial writing during all his college years. In January, 1953, he became Editor of General Publications after serving with distinction as he progressed up the editorial ladder.

While serving full time as an editor and especially after retirement, Dr. Vernon continued to write. He wrote lesson materials, study books for youth, hymns, articles for historical magazines, treatments for information volumes, devotional materials for service men during World War II, and several books including biographies and histories of annual conferences and his beloved Methodist Publishing House.

Dr. Vernon's wide range of interest led him to prod into existance historical societies at various levels of the church. He was active on the executive committee and secretary-treasurer of the Methodist Conference on Christian Education for more than a decade. He served on the program board of the Division of Christian Education of the National Council of Churches. His status as a Christian educator was recognized in 1958 when he served as a delegate to the World Council on Christian Education in Tokyo,Japan.

Being a journalist was one of his pleasures, particularly as a special correspondent of The Dallas Morning News and the Nashville Tennessean. Across the years he wrote for and edited the news organs for General and Jurisdictional Conferences. One of the many hymn texts penned by Dr. Vernon, "God of All, Who Art Our Father", was chosen by the Hymn Society of America for publication in 1961 for the North American Conference on Church and Family.

Athough most of Walter Vernon's years of ministry were spent outside the North Texas Conference, he and Ruth chose to return to Dallas in 1986 to reside at the C. C. Young Home along with Walter's brother and three sisters.

His brother remembers that although he was small for his age, once at an Interscholastic League most others had special running shoes; but Walter just pulled off his shoes, ran barefoot, and won the race. Walter never tired of running the race, wherever or whatever the challenge.

HERMAN PRYOR WILLIAMSON

Herman Pryor Williamson was born November 19, 1908, in Wolfe City, Texas. He married Irene E. Wilson on November 16, 1928, in Quinlan, Texas.

Herman's education was limited because he felt the responsiblity to work at an early age to assist with his large family of brothers and sisters. He felt the call to preach shortly after his marriage but could not obtain a license due to his limited education. Yet without a license he preached until 1950, serving churches at Pottsboro, Cedar, Tom Bean, and Messengers Chapel.

Herman served Messengers Chapel United Methodist Church as minister, caretaker, builder, and doorkeeper for 40 years. He once told me, "I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of wickedness." Built in 1880, Messengers Chapel was in need of many repairs when Herman became pastor. Herman raised the money and did the work to rebuild the church, including new pews and pulpit furniture. As a labor of love, he and Irene converted the grounds around the church into a real showplace.

Herman was a preacher, carpenter, and farmer, but above all he was God's servant who knew the 23rd Psalm and the Shepherd who led the flock. Herman was a great man, evidenced by the power of God in his life. He touched many lives and helped many people as he pressed forward toward the high calling of his years of service in The Methodist Church. Greatness is not always measured by power, prestige, wealth, or education, but by what a man has and leaves to his fellow man to possess and culivate in his own life. Herman left many of the qualities according to St. Paul: "Whatever things are true, honest, just, pure, lovely, and of good report, think on these things."

For a portrait of this man of God we turn to Psalm 1: "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the council of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the Law of the Lord and in His law he doth meditate day and night. He shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf shall not wither and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper."

Herman passed away January 19, 1993, at age 84. His funeral service was held at Trinity United Methodist Church, Denison, Texas, with A. D. Campbell and Keith Boone officiating. He is survived by his wife, Irene, and daughters, Helen Marie Lallathin of Sherman and Doris Ann Cowden of Denison. Burial was in Oakridge Cemetery next to the little church where he served over 40 years.

IMOGENE HARRIS CADE

Imogene Harris was the name given the daughter born June 15, 1919, to Luther and Annie Bell Delorah Harris in Kaufman, Texas. She was reared in Kaufman most of her life, and she attended the local schools there. Later she moved to Wichita Falls, Texas, where she lived for seven years before moving to Fort Worth, Texas.

Imogene was a member of Mount Calvary United Methodist Church in Wichita Falls. Her vocation was as a Domestic Worker for her private home. She was the proud wife of Reverend W. V. Cade, and the couple shared many wonderful and happy years together. They were blessed with nine wonderful children. Reverend Cade preceded his wife in death in December, 1991.

Left to meet her in the resurrection following her death on June 22, 1992, are four sons--William Cade, Jr., Teddy Cade, Charlie Cade, Aaron Cade; and five daughters--Ellen Carey, Beverly Butler, Arnita Williams, Vivian Cade, and Carol Slade. A Celebration in Praise and Thanksgiving for the Life of Imogene Cade was held at Morningside United Methodist Church, Fort Worth, Texas, on June 26, 1992; she was buried in Waxahachie, Texas.

FRANCES LOWERY COOK

Frances Louise Lowery Cook was born in Union County, Arkansas, on April 29, 1934. She died at her home in Dallas on December 7, 1992.

Frances grew up on the farm which had been in her family for more than a hundred years. Always an eager student, she started to public schools at the age of five. She was the valedictorian of her class at Parker's Chapel High School in 1951. In three years, she earned her B.S.E. degree from Southern State College (now Southern Arkansas University) in Magnolia, Arkansas. She was also valedictorian of her college class.

It was on the campus of Southern State College that she met and fell in love with Charles William Cook. They were married on June 12, 1955, at Vantrease Methodist Church in El Dorado, Arkansas. While Charles was a student at Perkins School of Theology, Frances taught school and completed her Master's Degree at Southern Methodist University.

Frances was a mathematics teacher in public schools for twenty-three years. (Her teaching career was interrupted for fifteen years while she gave two fine sons a head start in life.) In Dallas, she taught at Gaston Middle School, Cary Middle School, Lincoln High School, and Thomas Jefferson High School. She was head of the Math Department at Thomas Jefferson at the time of her death. Frances was a member of Delta Kappa Gamma and a lifetime member of the P.T.A. and United Methodist Women.

Her life was celebrated in a Memorial Service at Elmwood United Methodist Church on December 10, 1992. Dr. Edwina Brown, Reverend Joe Shafer, and Reverend Dick Schaefer were the celebrants. Her body was laid to rest at Hillcrest Memorial Park in Dallas.

She is survived by her husband, Reverend Charles W. Cook, pastor of Elmwood in Dallas, and by her two sons, Dr. Charles W. Cook, Jr. of Pearland and Robert Lee Cook of Houston.

During their life together Frances and Charles served the following churches in the North Texas Conference: Munger Place, Dallas; Lovers Lane, Dallas; Asbury, Denton; Schreiber Memorial, Dallas; and Elmwood, Dallas.

"The face of all the world is changed, I think, Since first I heard the footsteps of thy Soul."

LENA MAE KIRBY

Lena Mae (Holland) Kirby was born December 23, 1917, in Branch, Arkansas. She passed away January 12, 1993, in Sulphur Springs, Texas. Her memorial service was held January 28 in Sulphur Springs with Henry Suche conducting; burial was in Shooks Chapel Cemetery.

Lena Mae was my "partner in ministry." We agreed early that she would work and enable us to serve in small, struggling churches. She worked for Southwestern Bell Telephone for 34 years.

Lena Mae took Jesus at his word when he told Judas, "Whatever you do, do quickly." She believed that if you heard the Gospel and believed, then you should confess it now. Any good word or act for anyone--do it now. I called her "Action Girl." She told the surgeon who was talking to her before the last operation, "What are you waiting for: Let's get with it." Whatever Jesus has for her to do, she will start immediately...and with a smile.

MARY BUFORD LAPRADE

Mary Buford LaPrade (Mrs. Robert J. LaPrade, Sr.), born on May 18, 1895, near Weatherford, Texas, passed away Sunday, March 21, 1993, in Dallas, Texas. She was the widow of Methodist minister, the Reverend R. J. LaPrade, Sr. Together they began their ministry by spending a year in Stroud, Oklahoma. Their remaining appointments were in Texas: Midway, Newcastle, Granger, Comanche, Arlington Heights Fort Worth, Graham, Waxahachie, Temple, Breckenridge, the Waxahachie District, Cleburne, Brownwood, Riverside Fort Worth, Killeen, and Brooklyn Avenue

Dallas. Following Mr. LaPrade's death in 1960, Mrs. LaPrade resided in Dallas and became an active member of Highland Park United Methodist Church.

Daughter of Methodist minister Buford Andrew Snoddy and Mary Cassie Leveridge, Mary Buford's most memorable childhood years were spent in Graham, Texas, where she and her family (brother Milton and sister Ruby) formed life-long friendships that were to span five generations. After graduating from Graham High School, Mary Buford attended Polytechnic College (now Texas Wesleyan University) in Fort Worth; she transferred to Southern Methodist University in Dallas where she received her B.A. degree in 1918. There she met Bob LaPrade, who was to become a Methodist minister upon receiving his Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1919. Bob proposed on a stone bench in Arden Forest on the S.M.U. campus, and the two were married by the bride's father in Graham. Bob had found an intelligent and beautiful Christian woman from a Christian home, a pure, loving, faithful companion for life. She would become the devoted mother of their four children and a generous, untiring, and always supportive minister's wife.

Mrs. LaPrade always felt privileged and blessed to serve the church. No other life could have given her such complete fulfillment. She was to give of her talents in every facet of her life: playing piano at church and Sunday school, teaching Sunday school, attending and sometimes chartering new chapters of the former Woman's Society of Christian Service, making the elements for Holy Communion, and always preparing Sunday dinner by 12:30, a dinner often attended by Presiding Elders (later called District Superintendents) or other visiting church members and officials.

In addition to being living models of faith, morality, and generosity to their children, Mrs. LaPrade and her husband, in the best Wesleyan tradition, placed great emphasis on education. A former teacher of English, Latin, and algebra, Mrs. LaPrade was never too tired or too busy to encourage and help her children with homework in almost any discipline, including piano. This practice did not stop with her own children but extended to her grandchildren. The result is that among her children and grandchildren are a high school valedictorian, National Merit Scholars, members of Phi Beta Kappa, and several holders of advanced degrees (Master's degrees, Ph.D.'s, M.D.'s, and a J.D.). Mrs. LaPrade was naturally proud, but never boastful, of these achievements. She was humble, joyful, and grateful for any good fortune that came to her or her family. She always put the needs of others before her own and never ceased to be interested in the activities of her family, friends, and church. Perhaps this was the secret of seeming ageless as she approached her ninety-eighth birthday.

Mrs. LaPrade is survived by four children and their spouses: Margaret and Robert J. LaPrade, Jr.; Louise and Roger R. Webster; Barbara and William H. LaPrade; and Margaret Ann and John H. LaPrade; eleven grandchildren; and eleven great-grandchildren. Mary Buford LaPrade was laid to rest on March 23, 1993 at Restland Memorial Park in Dallas, Texas. Following interment, a memorial service was held in Cox Chapel of Highland Park United Methodist Church. The loving smile and Christian spirit of this remarkable woman linger in the hearts of all who knew her.

SALLY BEENE MARTIN

All who knew Sally Martin will join me in celebrating the life and ministry of this beautiful, silver-haired queen of the episcopal parsonages, the wife of Bishop William C. Martin. For the sixteen years (1948-1964) that Bishop Martin presided over the North Texas as well as the Central and Northwest Texas Conferences, Sally was a warm light that surrounded and blessed him, the members of his cabinets, and the pastors, as well as many lay people who she knew well.

When the two were surprised at his election as Bishop while he was still pastor of First Methodist Church, Dallas, she took his hand and whispered, "If we ever get stuffy, or begin to feel we are too important, let's promise each other right now to take each other down." He joined her in that promise, and they both kept that promise.

Sally Martin was truly a genuine, authentic person with strong opinions and yet a kind, loving spirit. A person of integrity and honesty, she was always cheerful and ready to share her convictions on current situations in the country and around the world. She took an active role in religious, cultural, and civic issues. In the words of Bishop Eugene Slater, "She called forth the best in everyone she met. She lived life as life was meant to be lived."

She enjoyed a long life which began in 1895 in Blevins, Arkansas. During her last illness she said laughingly, "I don't know why after 97 years I am still here!" She kept her sense of humor to the last. Her laughter and her love for her family and friends were undiminished to the end.

She and Will Martin were married on July 1, 1918, shortly after which he was stationed in France as part of the U.S. Army. When he returned, she was with him during his studies at The School of Theology at S.M.U. and as pastor of Grace Methodist Church. She served with him while he was pastor at Port Arthur, Texas; First Church, Little Rock; and First Church, Dallas, from which he was elected bishop.

Sally accompanied Bishop Martin on his assignment as bishop: California, Arizona, Hawaii, Washington, and Oregon (1939); the Kansas/Nebraska Area (1939-1948) and the Dallas/ Fort Worth Area. Following his retirement, the two lived in Dallas until 1971 when they moved to Little Rock.

Sally Martin died September 30, 1992, at her home in Little Rock; burial was in Roselawn Cemetery. Preceded in death by her husband and their eldest son, she is survived by their son John Lee Martin, their daughter Mary Catherine Makoul, nine grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren.

As we remember Sally Beene Martin, we thankfully celebrate her loving life and wondous victory over death. Her ministry of encouragement and support for her husband and family, for pastors and laity through all these years was indeed a pricelss gift which all who knew her will never forget. With the writer of 1 Peter let us say:

> Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ who in his great mercy gave us new birth into a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead...For the inheritance to which we are called is one that nothing can destroy or wither. Thus we rejoice with a joy unspeakable and full of glory!" (NIV and free translation)

MARYE JO MILNER

Marye Jo (Mrs. Leon) Milner, 81, died October 29, 1992, at her son's home in Wilmington, Delaware; burial was in the Chester Bethel Cemetery in Wilmington. It was often said of Marye that she was the ideal wife for a pastor--both a Mary and a Martha, dedicated to Christ and His Church and to her home and family. She excelled as a 'first lady of the church' and as a wife and mother, so gifted in personality and talents.

An honor graduate of Wesley College, Marye acquired extensive knowledge of the Old and New Testaments and was a dedicated and joyful worker in the church for more than six decades, teaching her last adult church school class in her 80th year. She received life memberships from WSCS and UMW in the Central Texas, North Texas, and Florida Conferences. She was active in the USAF's Protestant Women of the Chapel program and in local and world missions.

Marye was 110 pounds of personality, talent, dedication, vitality, solid faith, and goodness...she was altogether lovely! One of her grandsons said of her, "I never met a woman like grandmother; the closest I found I married." A young neighbor on learning of Marye's illness wrote, "You touched my soul, and I will never be able to tell you how grateful I am for your being the beautiful person you are and for being there when I needed someone and didn't have anyone to care about me. When times got rough, I knew you were there."

Marye is survived by her husband Leon Frank Milner; two sons, Jerry Frank and John Charles; nine grandchildren, and twelve great-grandchildren. Thanks be to God for Marye Milner.

ELIZABETH SAMPSON QUILLIAN

The story of our faith is very much the story of great gifts and the promise of still greater gifts. We offer to God our deep gratitude for gifts brought to us by Betty Quillian. During the years that Joe was Dean of Perkins School of Theology, Betty carefully wrapped a gift for each of Joe's colleagues--80 to 100 of them--using paper, lace, ribbon, and cards chosen lovingly for each one.

That was exemplary of the qualities of Betty's life--her generosity, her sweetness, her loving nature, her marvelous artistic talents. For all who knew her received, at one time or another, some of those lavish, beautiful, carefully crafted gifts of hers.

A gift she shared with many was that of her music. From the radio program she had in college, to the choir loft of Highland Park United Methodist Church in Dallas, to the SMU coliseum with 9,000 people gathered on Easter morning, to churches in Loon Lake and Chewelah, Washington, Betty offered her voice and her delight in singing to her friends and her faith communities.

Betty's artistry was not limited to music. As a young woman, she drew sketches and wrote plays. She made beautiful, decorated eggs and lavished attention on the flowers and decorations for her home. She dressed carefully but with a dramatic flair. And even living amid an energetic clan of Quillians--a strong-willed and talented husband and five equally strong-willed and talented offspring--Betty managed to be gentle, and kind, and fair, always supporting the underdog, remaining fiercely protective of those she loved.

Never one to linger over her troubles, Betty was often sought out by others when they needed to be encouraged or cheered. She tried to see the world in the way expressed by the prophet Isaiah:

> For you shall go out in joy, and be led back in peace;
> the mountains and the hills before you shall burst into song, > and all the trees of the field will clap their hands. Instead > of the thorn shall come up the cypress; instead of the brier > shall come up the myrtle; and it shall be to the Lord for a memorial, > for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off (Isaiah 55:12-13).

Elizabeth Sampson Qullian was born July 27, 1920, in Spokane, Washington. She died at her Chewelah, Washington, home on September 7, 1992, and her cremated remains were buried in the Chewelah City Cemetery. Preceded in death by her husband, the Reverend Dr. Joseph Quillian on April 3, 1992, she is survived by her five children: Suzanne Quillian, Alma Quillian, Shannon Quillian, Joseph Quillian, III, and Ellen Hanes.
