I. CONFERENCE HISTORY

United Methodism in North Texas began in 1816-17 as part of Arkansas Methodism in the Missouri Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. When the denomination divided in 1844-45, Methodists of this area became a part of the East Texas Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. In 1867, the approximate area of what is now this conference, was set apart as the Trinity Conference, and later (1874) renamed the North Texas Conference.

The Methodist Episcopal Church had little organized work in Texas after 1845, until 1867 when a Texas Mission was formed. Out of that Mission came the West Texas Conference (primarily Black). In 1939, the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and The Methodist Protestant Church united to form The Methodist Church. The West Texas Conference, while a part of The Methodist Church, was in the Central Jurisdiction (all Black). The North Texas Conference was a part of the South Central Jurisdiction, which was one of the geographical jurisdictions.

At the Uniting Conference to form the United Methodist Church held in Dallas, Texas, April 1968, a new Annual Conference was formed in North Texas including members, congregations, and ministers of the North Texas Conference of The Methodist Church of the South Central Jurisdiction (1939-1968), and members, one congregation, and one minister of the Oklahoma-Texas Conference of the Evangelical and United Brethren Church (1886-1968).

At a merger conference held in Dallas, Texas, in May, 1970, members, congregations, and ministers of the North Texas Conference; and members, congregations, and ministers of the West Texas Conference located within the geographical boundaries of the North Texas Conference became the North Texas Conference of The United Methodist Church.

In 1988, the South Central Jurisdictional Conference, meeting in New Orleans, created two episcopacies from what had been the single Dallas-Fort Worth Episcopal Area. This action resulted in the geographical region encompassed by the North Texas Conference being designated the Dallas Episcopal Area, while the Central Texas Conference became the Ft. Worth Area. Since that time, the North Texas Conference has been served by its own bishop.

The sessions of the current North Texas Conference are numbered first from 1867, the organizational date for the North Texas Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Texas Mission of the Methodist Episcopal Church and secondly from 1970, the date of merger of the former North Texas and West Texas Conferences.

A list of the Conference Sessions of these separate conferences is printed in:

(1) the 1939 Journal of the North Texas Conference, South Central Jurisdiction, (P.28-29) and the 1967 Journal of the North Texas Conference, South Central Jurisdiction (P.140);
(2) the 1967 Journal of the West Texas Conference of the Central Jurisdiction(P.88);
(3) the 1967 Official Record of the Oklahoma-Texas Conference of the Evangelical and United Brethren Church (P.17); and
(4) other histories of Methodism in North Texas.

Conference Sessions since 1968 are listed inside the back cover of this Journal.

Gifts of expression and interpretation came from the Kesheth Dancers of the host church. MONDAY MORNING BUSINESS SESSION
June 4, 2001

Clergy Session

Bishop William B. Oden opened the session at 8:30 a.m. with prayer and then thanked Phil Mercer, pastor of First United Methodist Church of Plano, for hosting the meeting.

Clayton Oliphint, Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, called attention to eight reports from the Divisions of the Board in Section One of the printed document that was distributed. The Divisional reports contain the policies and procedures for candidacy, ordination, licensing, probation, student scholarships, and continuing formation as well as time-lines for required actions.

Oliphint began review Part II of the report which pertains to ordained ministers and local pastors. He dealt with questions 17, 18, and 63. Following editorial changes, they were approved. (Note: The detail of all Part II questions are contained in the Annual Conference Journal in the section entitled Business Of The Annual Conference.)

In place of Candidacy Registrar, Clara Reed, absent due to a death in her family, Oliphint continued with Question 19 and it was approved with editorial changes.

Marsha Engle-Middleton, Chair of the Committee on Local Pastors, pointed out that in the future, students in course of study school will not be subsidized by the conference for the costs of courses in which they score below the grade of "C". She said that those who choose to use the extension course of study program must take at least 2 or the 20 courses in a campus setting. Bishop Oden suggested that a letter go to all local pastors informing them of this change. She presented questions 20-23 which were approved following corrections submitted from the floor.

Larry George, Chair of the Committee on Conference Relations, presented the pertinent sections of questions, 24, 25, 32, 41, 45, 46, 47, 50, 53, 54, 57, and 58, having to do with transfers, and changes of ministerial status of members. Some additions and corrections were made including adding the name of C. Michael Haynes which had been omitted from the list of those retiring. (See Daily Proceedings Section, Tuesday Afternoon, for more on retirees.)

The names were read of those ordained and licensed pastors of the conference who had died during the year. (see Daily Proceedings Section, Tuesday Morning, Memorial Service.) Bishop Oden asked Bill Stephenson to lead the session in a prayer of thanksgiving for the ministry of these persons.

Karen Craft-Chraska, Chair of Committee on Preparations and Qualifications for Deacons, presented those listed in Question 28a to be commissioned as Probationary members and licensed for the ministry of a Deacon. Paula Chambers, Christina Hildebrand, and Tamara Talton was each presented and individually voted into probationary membership. Craft-Chraska also read the names of those in candidacy for diaconal ministry and those diaconals continuing on extended leave.

Paul Goodrich, Chair of the Committee on Preparations and Qualifications for Elders, presented the names of those to be commissioned as Probationary Members and licensed for pastoral ministry (Question 28b): Lloyd Chester, M. Jan Davis, Valarie Englert, John Fleming, Susan Greene, and Dorothy Smith. Each was voted upon individually and elected for probationary membership and commissioning.

Under Question 29a, Goodrich presented: Charles A. Cox, Calvin Page, and Jennifer Griffith Karrer for probationary membership. These same three were listed under Question 36b for election as Deacons under the 1992 Discipline. Each of these was presented and received affirmative votes for probationary membership and ordination.

Goodrich then presented Questions 30b, and 31. From Questions 33 and 37, Goodrich listed those to be received into Full Connection and to be ordained Elder. Joyce Cravens, Mary Beth Crouch, Ed Lantz, Wes Magruder, Martin McLee, Terri Hale Perkins, Marty Soper, and David Weber stood facing Bishop Oden as he asked them the Historic Questions from the Book of Discipline. They were then individually presented and voted into Full Connection and elected for Ordination.

Four names were read as persons seeking approval for appointment to less than full-time service. These requests were approved.

Becky Frank gave the Committee on Recruitment report stressing the fact that scholarship assistance from the conference to certified candidates attending seminary is greater this year than last. The rates are $150 per semester hour in United Methodist seminaries and $75 per semester hour in other seminaries.

Gary Mueller who chairs the Committee on Probationary Membership gave that report, and Pat Beghtel-Mahle reported on the Center for Ministry Foundation and it's purposes of providing on-going development of ministry and pastoral effectiveness.

Kathleen Baskin briefed the clergy on the Constitutional Amendments to be voted on later in the day and reported that the Annual Clergy Retreat would be held at Tanglewood Resort in October. She said that funds would be available to help reduce the cost for anyone who might be prohibited from attending for financial reasons.

Each committee report was approved individually following additions, deletions and corrections, and the perfected report of the Board of Ordained Ministry was approved as a whole.

Laity Session

Laity Session - Monday 8:30 a.m. Plano Centre

The Laity Session was opened with prayer by Conference Lay Leader, Dr. Tom Talbert, and singing led by Paris Sulphur Springs District Lay Leader, Gary McCain. The six district lay leaders were recognized and the special guest, Dick Arnold, consultant to the General Board of Global Ministries was recognized and spoke to the session regarding our Czech Republic partnership. Dallas South Lay Leader, Richard Stanford, led the legislative orientation with Council on Finance and Administration chair Jerry Pinkerton explaining the apportionment budget. Arthur Jones, youth member of conference, previewed legislation to be sponsored by the Conference Youth Council. Dr. Talbert summarized the issues facing the conference in the next few months as pension and health care costs, church liability, urban ministry strategies, and the challenge of town and country churches.

Organization of the Conference

At 10:15 a.m., Bishop Oden called the business session to order and received the organizational motions by Leighton Bearden, Conference Secretary. Bearden moved that the following persons be elected to serve the conference during the 2001 session:

> Assistant Secretaries – Mary Cantrell, Kenny Dickson, and Kara Stalcup;
> Head Teller – Van Lazaroff
> The Committee on Courtesies and Resolutions – John Rosenburg, chair, Claire Cunningham, Claude Williams, Barbara Marcum, and Ernestine Rhynes.

All were elected. The second organizational motion was to establish the bar of the conference as the entire seating area with the exception of the visitor sections on either side of the stage. This was approved.

Bearden then moved approval of the Clergy and Lay Equalization legislation for 2001 [LA1]. It was approved.

Episcopal Address

Bishop Oden began his address by recalling how Jesus used simple stories to speak of sacred matters, and how those words always pointed to a hopeful future – sowing in order to reap, building foundations to support a whole house, pruning in order to harvest. Bishop Oden asked what these images have to do today with this 135th session of the North Texas Annual Conference where 1136 laity and clergy are gathered from 306 congregations?

Planting trees, said Oden, was an apt image for a hopeful future and urged this conference to think in terms of the long-term effects of what we will be doing, to think not in terms of a quadrennium, not even two decades as in our Vision 2020, but in terms of at least 50 years.

Fifty years ago in the post-war boom, this conference began the greatest period of church planting in its history, said the Bishop, and now it's tree-planting time again. He said that with renewed intentionality we are beginning to plant new churches that are multi-cultural, multi-racial, rural, urban, traditional and non-traditional, including Foundry churches, a Wesleyan model dressed up in contemporary clothes.

Bishop Oden also spoke of the long-term effects of our taking seriously the sin of racism and our goal of dismantling it; of our new emphasis on urban missionaries, of our church camps as significant starting points for young people, and of our dedication to revive and recreate Sunday Schools.

With this startling statistic, that only seven percent of United Methodist clergy are under the age of 35 and that over one-third are over the age of 55, he underscored the role of the local church as the incubator for clergy. He urged laity and clergy alike to provide guidance, and encouragement to the youth of our conference with emerging gifts for ministry – to see that they are given meaningful work in the church, that they attend camps and confirmation events, and participate in mission projects.

In closing, the Bishop urged us to put on our work clothes, grab our shovels, and get to work planting a hopeful future.

Laity Address

Dr. Tom Talbert, from Wichita Falls, gave the first speech of his four-year term as Conference Lay Leader. Because the understanding of God's prevenient grace is so much a part of who we are as Methodists, Talbert chose as his starting point II Corinthians 1:9 where the Apostle Paul is assured that God's grace is sufficient, and that God's power is made perfect in weakness.

Talbert told the Conference that an upcoming media campaign to be used around the country would have the theme, "Open hearts. Open minds. Open doors. The people of the United Methodist Church." He said that it is essential that we be who we say we are in this slogan of openness.

Openness, diversity, inclusiveness, Talbert said, come from awareness. While the United Methodists have a tradition of meeting the needs of a hurting, broken world through servant leadership, he reminded the conference that the more aware we are at this important time in our history the more effective we will be in doing what Jesus would do.

Service of Commissioning

Nine newly elected Probationary Members were commissioned for ministry in a service that involved the Bishop laying hands on each candidate and praying the guidance of the Holy Spirit upon each one. Having been commissioned, they took chalice and loaf and, in pairs, served communion to the members of conference.

Those commissioned were: F. Lloyd Chester, M. Jan Davis, Valarie Englert, John Fleming, Susan M. Green, Dorothy Smith, Paula Chambers, Christina Hildebrand and Tamara Talton.

Prior to the lunch break, Socorro de Anda, President of Lydia Patterson Institute, in El Paso, introduced six students she had brought with her. She reported briefly on the work of Lydia Patterson and thanked the conference for its support.

MONDAY AFTERNOON BUSINESS SESSION

Following the noon break, Michael Hawn, Professor of Sacred Music, at Perkins School of Theology, led a hymn to bring the members together. Following the hymn, Bishop Oden introduced Hawn to the conference and indicated that he would be leading music throughout conference. Hawn, in turn, introduced the pianist, Jackson Henry, Director of Music at the United Methodist Church of the Disciple, DeSoto.

Two persons gave words of greeting as the afternoon session began. Bishop David Lawson, Bishop in Residence at Perkins School of Theology told of a new program at Perkins in World-wide Discipleship. He then led the opening prayer. Jeran Akers, Mayor of the City of Plano and member at First United Methodist Church, Plano, gave an official welcome to the city.

Committee on Episcopacy

Alys Richards, Chair of the committee and backed by members thereof, remarked that the function of the committee at the conference level is similar to that of the Staff-Parish Relations Committee of the local church. Richards spoke of the high level of responsibility that Bishop Oden has. She pointed out that he had just completed in May a term as President of the Council of Bishops, and is President of the General Commission on Communications and in the past year, led a delegation of religious leaders from the United States to help work for peace in the Middle East. Richards told the conference that on Thursday, June 7, Bishop Oden would be meeting with Secretary Colin Powell at the White House to participate in a briefing on the increased level of Middle East violence

Richards introduced Marilyn Oden and announced that Mrs. Oden had agreed to sign her novel, Crested Butte, at the break and at the close of the afternoon session. The committee, then presented to Bishop and Marilyn Oden, a Bose CD player and a collection of Taize worship CDs.

Igniting Ministry

Before introducing Larry Hollon, General Secretary of United Methodist Communications, Scott Jones repeatedly emphasized the date of August 18, 2001, as the scheduled training date for the Igniting Ministry program in North Texas to be held at Hamilton Park church.

In introducing the nation-wide media program Larry Hollon related an encounter with God that came through the words of a country song playing on the radio as he drove down a New Jersey highway. Using this as an example of how electronic media can be a tool for God, Hollon said that in a culture based on images, sounds, movement, experience and emotion, the church needs to become skilled in the tools of this culture or face the prospect of losing our voice.

Throughout his presentation he previewed for the conference the Igniting Ministry television spot ads which emphasize inclusiveness and caring. Hollon said, "What word do we as the Christian community have to speak in a world that is likely to be exclusionary, and not affirming, and not inclusive? ...Well, we dare to say as a church..., we have a different word." The closing line of each of the television ads, was "Open hearts, open minds, open doors – The people of the United Methodist Church." Igniting Ministry will try to articulate the faith in a language and in ways that will be understood by people who don't know the faith, said Hollon in conclusion.

Bishop Oden, in response to the presentation which he praised highly, said that when a similar presentation was made to the Council of Bishops, one of the Bishops stood up and said to his colleagues, "Let's be sure we're not accused of false advertising. When we say the churches of United Methodism have open hearts, open minds and open doors, we must mean it!" Bishop Oden proclaimed September as United Methodist Open House month in North Texas.

Methodist Family and Rehabilitation Services

Three representatives of the San Antonio agency were involved in this report, Gary Matthews, Bill Brotton, the new President and CEO, and Jeff, a client of the agency who mimed out the message on a T-shirt presented to Bishop Oden, which read, "Let the little children come unto me." Brotton received a round of applause when he announced that in a matter of days, the agency, which seemed to drop off of folks' radar screens when they adopted the current name a few years ago, will be going back to the long-standing name of Methodist Mission Home.

Council on Finance and Administration Report Number 1

Jerry Pinkerton, Chair of the Council on Finance and Administration, spoke of 2000 being an exceptional year for church finances. Total church expenditures in the conference rose by over 15 percent to $107.7 million. This follows, 10 percent increases the last two years and a 12 percent increase the year before that. Apportionments as a percentage of total church expenditures has been going down – 7.93 percent in 2000, compared to ten years earlier when apportionments were 12.51 percent.

In 2000 the apportionment payout was the second highest in the history of the conference – 98.5 percent. Total receipts for apportionments totaled $8.4 million and Vision 2020 receipts were $2.1 million for the year and $3.1 million since the beginning of the capital campaign.

Pinkerton moved that McGee, Haza and Co. be approved as the auditing firm for the Conference Treasury in 2001. Also moved was the recommendation that District Superintendent salaries be set at $80,000 for 2002, an increase of 6.97% over the current salary of $74,788.

Bill Gavitt of Casa View United Methodist Church, moved to amend the salary figure to $76,359. The amendment was seconded, but defeated when the Bishop called for a show of hands. The naming of the auditor and setting of the District Superintendents' salaries along with the informational reports were then approved by a vote of the conference. [LA4]

Conference Leadership Team

Bishop Oden chairs the Leadership Team composed of about 30 chairs of boards and committees. He said that this team came from the restructuring of the conference agencies and this year has been exciting. Five task forces were established and he called on the head of each one to present a report.

Policy, Procedure and Structure. Gary Mueller talked about how Vision 2020 is a keystone to the ministry mission of the conference and that it was well integrated into the structure of the conference.

Retiree Medical Liability. Mike Nichols said that unlike some corporations, the conference will not eliminate medical coverage for retirees because a covenant promise exists between the conference and those individuals. The task force is looking at funding alternatives to the "pay as you go" method being used now. A report will be presented to the District Informational meetings in the spring of 2002 and proposed legislation will be ready for the 2002 Annual Conference session.

Conference-wide Property and Liability Insurance. Rusty Hedges reported that questionnaires collected from conference churches were to be used to seek proposals for insurance coverage but no company was willing to make a bid at this time due to the wind and hail damage record for this geographic region.

Dismantling Racism. Sally Vonner said that it is hoped there will be 40 members on the Anti-racism team to analyze the definition of racism, find ways to help in confessing the sin of racism, and develop strategies for its elimination among us. The task force had prepared a packet of information for each church.

Sunday School. Jim Pledger spoke of the influence that Sunday School teachers have had on most of us and said that the task force will be looking at ways to reclaim the power of the Sunday School as a way of nourishing the trees of hope that have already been planted within this conference.

Creating Congregations

Reporting the progress made in one of the three emphases of Vision 2020, Bill Hunter, said that 14 new congregations have been started or will be in 2001. The stated goal is to develop 100 new churches within 20 years.

Certificates were presented to representatives of the following new United Methodist churches, fellowships or ministries: All-Asian Fellowship, Plano; New Jerusalem Fellowship, Carrollton; Grace Avenue Church, Frisco; South Wise County Fellowship, Rhome; Bridge of Faith Fellowship, Mesquite; Elmwood Hispanic Fellowship, Dallas; Chinese Fellowship, Richardson; Art Spirit Ministry to the Arts Community, Dallas; Good Seed Fellowship, Allen; New Filipino Fellowship, Irving; New Vietnamese Fellowship, Coppell; East Allen start up, Allen; New Hispanic Fellowship, Decatur; and Central Fellowship, Irving.

Urban Strategies

Frank Jackson, lay member of Lovers Lane United Methodist Church, and chair of the Urban Strategies Task Force said that two and half years of planning was coming to fruition with the establishment of two Foundry churches in Dallas. Jackson introduced Sarah Wilke to describe the new churches.

Wilke said the name Foundry church derives from the time in the 1700s that John Wesley took an abandoned cannon foundry in the inner city of London and turned it into a multi-purpose ministry center. She used projected maps and photographs to show the locations for the new Foundry churches. Each of the chosen neighborhoods is characterized by low-performing schools, high crime rates, low-income households, a lack of mentoring programs, and a minimal faith-based presence. One Foundry church will be north of Northwest Highway and Bachman Lake. The other will be in what was formerly the East Grand Baptist Church in southeast Dallas and it will serve that neighborhood as well as the Frazier neighborhood. This 94,000 sq. ft. building was purchased by St Luke "Community" United Methodist Church in partnership with the conference. Pastors at the East Grand site will be Javier Escalera and Edlen Cowley. The pastor of the Bachman Lake site will be Owen Ross.

Mount Sequoyah

The report on the Jurisdictionally-owned retreat and conference center was presented by Mt. Sequoyah's President, Charles Wallace. He emphasized the programming for older adults and outlined other events within the South Central Jurisdiction.

Constitutional Amendments

Kathleen Baskin, a clergy member of the 2000 General Conference delegation, presented a brief overview of the eleven amendments to the Constitution arising from that Conference session. Bishop Oden in introducing Baskin pointed out that the amendments and their rationale are printed in the Conference Workbook and that they have been discussed at each District Conference in May, as well as at the Laity and Clergy sessions earlier in the day. Bishop Oden pointed out that the tally from the vote in this conference will be forwarded to the Secretary of the Council of Bishops. To be ratified, an amendment must receive a two-thirds majority of the combined vote of all members of the annual conferences. Bishop Oden noted that the vote of this conference will not be reported back to this session. No questions were raised and the vote was taken. [LA2]

Monday Evening Worship
Christ United Methodist Church, Plano

Dr. C. Michael Hawn led this musical-based worship. Participants enjoyed traditional, contemporary, fast, slow, Spanish and Black Spiritual arrangements. Michael led the conference in singing, hearing, and moving to the beat and motions of the wide variety of music from the new, In The Faith We Sing, supplement to the United Methodist Hymnal. The first 500 people to arrive received a copy of the new hymnal supplement.

After sampling many styles of worship music. Hawn pulled out his accordion to lead the conference in one more tune. All were held in suspense, suspecting, up to the very end, that the tune, "Lady of Spain", would find its way into the song as is often the case when Hawn plays that instrument. Hawn had used that song extensively at conference two years ago in a comic routine about Accordion Evangelism.

Following the service, the United Methodist Men served ice cream sandwiches on the covered patio. It was a sweet time of fellowship following an uplifting service of music and praise.

TUESDAY MORNING BUSINESS SESSION
June 5, 2001

Worship

The second morning of the 135th session of the North Texas Conference began with worship led my Michael Hawn and Jackson Henry, musicians, Kathleen Baskin and Leo Tipay reading scripture and leading in prayer.

Board of Ordained Ministry

Clayton Oliphint, Chair of the board, introduced Susan Bryan who presented to Renee Giles of St. Andrews United Methodist Church, Plano, her certification in the area of Children's Ministry. This was followed by Gary Mueller's report on the three-year mandatory probationary period for all persons seeking ordination as either Deacon or Elder. The goals of the program are to foster the sense of the covenant connection, to help probationers grow in ministry, and to allow the Committee on Preparations and Qualifications to get to know them better.

Clayton Oliphint saluted the significant contribution that local pastors make in our conference, and asked them all to stand and be recognized. Pat Beghtel-Mahle beginning her second year as the Director of Ministry Formation, spoke of the care, support and nurture that ministers can receive from the Pastors' Groups. She announced that her services are also available for conflict resolution in local churches and for staff development consultations.

Jim Bowden, who chairs the committee on Continuing Formation, said, that to accomplish both ongoing education and spiritual growth, pastors need to be intentional. Money, he said, should not be an obstacle as scholarship assistance is available through the Ministerial Education Fund. The guidelines for receiving that aid are printed in the Board's Journal report.

Paul Goodrich, Chairman of the Committee for Preparations and Qualifications for Elders, alternately introduced the persons who would be ordained Elder and each ordinand gave a brief testimony to his or her call and hopes for ministry.

The following are the candidates for ordination and a highlight from their speeches:

- Terri Perkins, who served in Costa Rica with the Peace Corps said that she identified with Moses in that she was minding her own business when she felt the call to ministry, and like Moses, tried to say that surely someone else would be better. She said that so much credit goes to all those throughout the years who had taught her, believed in her, encouraged her and helped her to understand her call to ministry.
- Joyce Cravens, who came into ministry from being a lay member at The Colony United Methodist Church, said all her life she has collected church bulletins. It began in Corsicana, Texas, where as a child she would come home from church set up her dolls, pass out the bulletins and preach to them. In those days, when women were not ordained it seemed like a dream to her, but she said, "Here I am !" She paid a moving tribute to the love and support from her late husband, Tom.

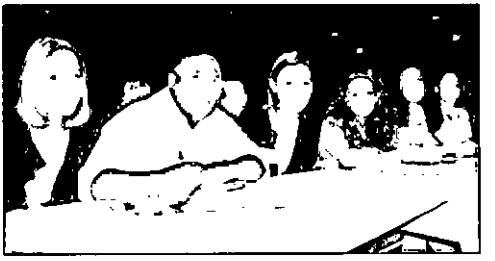
- Mary Beth Crouch would not have guessed that saying "yes" to become the summer, substitute, seventh-grade Sunday School teacher at First United Methodist Church, Denton, fifteen years ago would lead to ordained ministry. But, she said, it was the enthusiasm of those just-confirmed twelve year olds that got her turned on to serving and to the possibility of ministry. She noted that in serving her seminary internship in Artesia, NM, that it was a pioneering experience because no woman had stood as a pastor in that pulpit.
- Edward Lantz called his time before the conference a "nervous honor". Saying that he had the greatest wife in the world and the greatest job in the world, he related a story of being called to comfort and guide a wife who had lost her husband and son in a plane crash. When he got that call, he felt so unprepared he would have quite if he could. Yet, looking back he sees that it is such a great privilege to serve God on behalf of others even in the midst of the confusion, the pain and the fear.
- Wes Magruder turned the tables on the conference and said after all those committees asking him questions for all these years, he now had a list of questions for the Bishop and conference members. Some of the questions are these: Are you hungering and thirsting for justice and holiness? Do you take this diversity thing seriously? Do you plan to present an alternative to the ways of this world? Will you help me take care of my family? And, will you hold me accountable?
- Martin McLee who serves a church in Boston, said that experiencing the reconciling love of that diverse congregation toward persons living with AIDS, helped him to understand that we need "to get caught up in the one who was hung up on Calvary"! And he said that "it is time out from the talk without the walk". Martin told of a time when he once told his pastor at St. Luke's "Community" Church that he didn't feel called just yet, but he thought that God was going to call him.
- Marti Soper was brought to faith and to the church for the first time fifteen years ago because she heard from a friend that her church was collecting fans for those in need that grueling hot summer. Not long after starting to church, she was asked to teach Sunday School for 3 year olds. Having no previous Bible knowledge, she hoped to stay one step ahead of them. Marti sees that, in her life, God was pursuing her with relentless love and she is now committed to inviting others to experience that love of God.
- David Weber came to ministry from the occupation of being a process server carrying bad news to folks who did not want to be found. What put David on the path of serving the Good News was meeting Yogi Johnson, a prisoner serving two consecutive life terms. They met at a Kairos prison ministry weekend. For Kairos, the food is home cooked and brought into the prison. Yogi savored the fresh green beans with bacon and said they "must be what God tastes like"! Yogi was a prisoner helper at the next retreat and he served the green beans. With each serving his face shown with joy, and he went round giving seconds and thirds until there were none of the precious beans left for him. Even though he might never taste that wonderful taste again in his life, he found greater joy in serving them to others.

Following the speeches by the soon-to-be Elders, Paul Goodrich introduced to the members the three persons who were to be ordained Deacon – Charles A. Cox, Jennifer Karrer, and Calvin Page.



Youth members fill the front row.

Equipping Disciples

The Chair, Tommy Palmer, directed the members of conference to the Equipping Disciples report in the workbook (see reports section of the Journal), for a listing of the wide range of ministry areas in which the team works. He used a video clip from the movie, Pay It Forward, to make the point that as recipients of grace we can't pay it back but we can pay it forward one life at a time.

Annually, scholarships are provided to young men or women about to attend college. This year there are two scholarships presented by Rebecca Frank, Conference Youth Ministries Coordinator, to Regan Britney Garrett and Blake Alan Billingslea John Mollett said the scholarship money comes from the offering local churches take the Sunday after Thanksgiving.

Testimony was given by Walt Lunde about how Disciple Bible Study and the Christian Believer Study at Custer Road United Methodist Church led him to understand his calling. Beverly Olson from the Paris-Sulphur Springs District told how Disciple Bible Study created in her a hunger to know more about God and that ultimately led to her calling into Children's Ministry. These were examples of how some of the resources available do, indeed, equip disciples.

The legislation coming from this team was the Marriage Covenant Resolution [LA11]. There was no discussion from the floor and the resolution was passed. The entire Equipping Disciples Report was then approved.

Wesley Village

Brenda Price Kozikowski, the new Executive Director of Wesley Village Retirement Center in Denison, brought greetings and an update on plans and activities at the center.

Memorial Service

Processing to "For All The Saints" the family members of the clergy and spouses whose memories were being honored, placed candles in a wrought iron candle holder in the shape of the United Methodist cross and flame. Ben Marshall, a retired member of the conference, made the candleholder for the occasion.

As Leighton Bearden, Conference Secretary, read the name of each of the deceased clergy or spouse, a member of the incoming Elder class would place a flower in a vase on the altar. Each family got to choose the type of flower to honor their loved one. This resulted in a multi-colored bouquet which seemed to symbolize the conference theme, "Many Gifts, One Spirit". Tom Graves preached a touching memorial sermon entitled, "They Have Preached". The twelve clergy being remembered were: Fred Adams, Lamar Cooper, Addison Cutter, William R. Farmer, Jr. (former member of the conference), William R. (Bud) Harmon, Paul Morrell, Billy Wayne Murray, M.L. Nelson, Floyd M. Patterson, Kenneth Patterson, Claude Bourdon Smith and Alton Vaughn.

Clergy spouses being remembered were: Rose Jean Click, Gelema Collins, Tom Cravens, Harriet Crutchfield, Marjorie Hensley, Margaret Morphis, Albert P. Peyron, Mable Pauline Sparkman, and Elinor Sullens Steph. During a hymn, a photographic tribute for each person was projected on the large screen. Participants in the service not previously mentioned were: Jack Soper, April Bristow, Dale Morehouse, Jodi Crawford, and Joyce Boelsche.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON BUSINESS SESSION

In calling the conference back to order, Bishop Oden asked Bruce Weaver, who retired from this conference ten years ago, to speak about the work of the church through the Russian Initiative which he heads, and then to lead in a prayer for the afternoon session. Weaver said that there is hope for the work in Russia although the political climate is still not supportive. Two weeks ago, 95 pastors were appointed at the Russian Annual Conference.

Retiring Clergy

In the absence of Larry George, Chair of the Committee on Conference Relations, Clayton Oliphint introduced the retiring clergy, each of whom gave brief farewell remarks.

- Martha Gilmore one of the first women to be ordained in a Southern Baptist church (1977) was received into Probationary Membership in 1984 and Full Membership in 1987. Most of her ministerial years were spent supervising interns at Perkins School of Theology. She said she learned so much from the lay teaching committees in the congregations. She thanked many, but especially her clergy sisters, saying that "we did it all without benefit of guides before us". Martha's husband is Jerry.
  Tom Graves standing with his wife, Linda, expressed an emotional goodbye from both of them. He thanked God for having the rare privilege of ministry, and he was thankful to the many lay men and women who were their friends and mentors along the way, and to colleagues in ministry, to the Sherman-McKinney District for being their home base for these last eight years, and to his assistant Patty Ard for 14 years of dedicated assistance. He thanked his children and grandchildren, and especially his wife, Linda, a woman of commitment, love and forgiveness, and fortitude in the face of daunting odds. He then had the words of the song, I Hope You Dance, projected as the recording by Lee Ann Womack was played. The words he said spoke his wishes for us all.

- Mike Haynes, who began his ministry in the Memphis Conference in 1959, was accompanied by his wife Betty. Mike thanked God humbly for the honor of the calling, but he thought that it was pretty courageous of God to plant the seed of ministry in a teenage nobody from West Tennessee. Haynes started out at a 3-point charge while he was still a teenager. He expressed his love to all who had helped nurture him, the various churches he had served and especially the Paris-Sulphur Springs District where he had the opportunity as Superintendent to share in so many lives.
- Carl (Corky) McGee was introduced by his son-in-law, Clayton Oliphint, who bragged on the beauty of Corky's daughters. Corky told stories of his first appointment to a charge in East Texas. He said he has learned that lay folk love God, love the church and will usually put aside personal differences to make it work. When given the opportunity they will do God's will rather than their own. McGee said that he got into the ministry because his wife Barbara over prayed when they were first married for them to have something special to do. He also gave Barbara credit for teaching him about tithing and how that discipline had changed his life. Barbara also expressed her thanks to the conference.
- Royce Riley retires from First United Methodist Church, Mabank were he has served 11 of his 36 years of ministry. Linda stood beside her husband who said he's always thought of himself as a storyteller and thought he'd end with one from Fred Craddock about how a preacher gave a new identity to a boy who was illegitimate by telling him he recognized in him a family resemblance and told him that he was a child of God. He told him he had a great inheritance so go and claim it. Royce said that God said the same to him. Royce said he feels like he's going out on top!
- Dick Schaefer's only reason for going to church in the Missouri Ozarks of his youth was to see a pretty girl. He never dreamed of ministry, he dreamed of being a crop dusting pilot. He did become a pilot, but later decided to go to Drury College. A theology course turned him on, but he denied any call to ministry. After teaching school for a while he was steered to Perkins School of Theology at the age of 29. There he found the first inner peace that he had known since he was 16 years old. Dick said "even in retirement, his passion is to grow and to move on to perfection".
- Joe Shafer with his wife, Polly, recalled his call to ministry began as a freshman in college. His entire ministry in the North Texas Conference was served in the Dallas Denton District – 18 years as youth minister at Lovers Lane church. He said that gladly outlasted any discouragements that came along and that he is excited about the challenge of finding new ways for the church to do ministry. He will continue to serve post-retirement at Trietsch Memorial United Methodist Church, Flower Mound.
- Earnest Walt and wife, Pam, stood before the conference to describe his Methodist ancestry dating back to one who planted a church in North Carolina in 1792. When Earnest was born his mother dedicated him to God for ministry in the memory of a relative who had surrendered to preach and then was killed by lighting at the age of 22. From his long line of God's servants he reminded us that we all have eaten of peaches from trees others have planted, so we must plant for others as well. He thanked everyone who had been like family to him during his ministry here in the conference.

Not present to speak but also retiring, were Leighton Farrell, and Joe Hale. Farrell retires after 54 years of service, many of which were at Highland Park church, and most recently as Superintendent of the Dallas South District. Hale retires as General Secretary of the World Methodist Council, he had the opportunity to bid farewell to the Conference on Monday and gave the prayer before the noon break.

United Methodist Publishing House

Thalia Matherson and the new manager of the Dallas Cokesbury store made the report for the publishing house. Whit Whittington told of significant changes at the store, especially in that there is much more curriculum available. He pointed out that Cokesbury Action Team members in each district are available to consult with local churches on Christian education matters. Matherson who is on the publishing house board, presented the traditional rebate check to the conference. In response to General Conference action, starting this year, a larger portion of the rebates will go to central conferences because of the greater need there. The check to the North Texas Conference was for $8,009.78 all of which goes to clergy pensions.

Standing Rules

A series of amendments to the Standing Rules [LA3] was presented by Chair, Clair Cunningham. All were approved as read with the exception of Number 3, which was amended from the floor to add the following, "The total of this committee comes to 21 plus the chair". After an intervening report from the Statistician, an amendment was offered to Number 6 in order to add one person from the Town and Country Task Force to the Conference Leadership Team. In order to deal with this proposed amendment, Number 6 had to be reconsidered. There was a motion to reconsider and it passed. Then there was a motion to refer this to the Standing Rules Committee in consultation with the conference staff and report back before the end of conference. Subsequently, the Chair reported to the conference and moved that this matter be referred to the Conference Leadership Team to consider Town and Country representation on the Leadership Team and bring a report to the next Annual Conference. This was seconded and approved and then the whole report of the Standing Rules Committee was approved.

Statistics

Marvin Guier reported that both membership (157,763) and average worship attendance (62,060) increased for the fifth straight year and set records in both categories. Sunday School attendance of 36,297 represents a decline for the second straight year from a high of over 37,000 in 1998.

Camping and Retreats

Plans for the expansion and renovation of the Bridgeport and Texoma Camping Centers were projected for the conference members to see, and David Frank who is overseeing these Vision 2020 projects was introduced by the presenters, Dennis Wilkinson and Ray Henigh.

Rebecca Frank and Susan Bryan asked that all those members of conference whose churches are sending campers this year or who may themselves be camp counselors to stand. A large number responded. Frank emphasized the value of maturity in camp counselors and said that we need grandparents, moms, dads, teachers and coaches to serve as counselors. After testimonies from Arthur Jones and Ben Read, a camper and counselor respectively, Mark Vowell challenged all churches to clear obstacles that might keep our church kids from camp. Cammy Gaston and Larry Davis showed a video of a recently completed elementary camp.

Accountability Group

Chair of the Accountability Group, Pat Thresher, told of a group of laywomen that was formed to call attention to the efforts to dismantle racism. The efforts of these women were recognized at a luncheon on Monday. Thresher challenged us to be committed to being an open church. The report was approved.

Nominations

Mike House directed our attention to the report in the workbook and to the addendum that had been distributed. He stated that the committee had striven for inclusiveness in terms of geographical representation, as well as, gender and racial diversity. House listed several editorial corrections to the report and others were added from the floor. Walter Zimmerman noted that it is hard for the Nominations Committee to fulfill its mandate to give special consideration to small membership churches, town and country churches and ethnic churches when members from these churches have not filled out questionnaires about possible service to the conference. He urged all pastors and churches to get their people to fill out the forms. Arthur Jones noted that on the Nominations form there is not a place to list Youth representatives and he hoped that would be corrected. The final report of the Nominations Committee was approved with the editorial changes noted.

Insurance

Mike Nichols reported that the greatest issues for the next few years will continue to be constant change in the industry and escalating costs. He said we are fortunate to be a part of the HealthFlex plan offered through the General Board. With that we receive better rates and the advantage of high quality staff expertise in a complex industry. Nichols said that the newly created Board of Pension and Health Benefits will allow for a comprehensive approach to dealing with the issue of clergy benefits.

Trustees

The only item coming to the Conference from the Trustees is the discontinuance of Hutchins United Methodist Church. [LA5] This action was approved.

Pensions

John Beall presented three routine legislative items: The Rental/Housing Allowance for Retired or Disabled Clergy; the Pre-1982 Service Year Rate for 2002; and the Budget for the Conference Board of Pensions. [LA7] [LA8] AND [LA9] These were approved.

Equitable Compensation

When Jimmy Mobley presented the report as printed in the workbook, [LA6] it was amended by floor vote to raise the minimum equitable compensation from the proposed, $30,054 to $30, 626. Then the entire report was voted on and approved.

Resolution for Handicapped Accessible Camping and Retreat Centers

Arthur Jones, president of the Conference Council on Youth Ministries presented a resolution aimed at making the facilities at Bridgeport and Texoma accessible to persons with disabilities. After considerable discussion it was referred back to the maker for consultation with certain people and then report back before the end of conference.

TUESDAY EVENING WORSHIP
CUSTER ROAD UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Service of Ordination

The 2001 Annual Conference gathered to praise God in worship and celebrate eleven persons called into ordained ministry. Children from the 2001 Conference Music and Arts Camp Choir welcomed the congregation and invited everyone to join together in a spirit of worship through their gifts of song and music. Additional special music was offered by the Men's Chorus from Christ United Methodist Church, Farmers Branch.

Bishop Oden welcomed all to the service of worship and introduced and welcomed Bishop James King as the Conference preacher and Bishop McKinley Young of the AME Church as the ecumenical representative. Bishop King delivered a spirit-filled sermon challenging the new ordinands, and everyone in attendance, to "Build a Christ-like world," by living Christ-centered lives and take seriously the call to discipleship. Following Bishop King's sermon, the service proceeded with the service of ordination. Charles Attis Cox, Jennie Griffith Karrer, and Calvin Lasalle Page were ordained deacon in probationary membership, and given authority to "proclaim the word of God and lead God's people to serve the world." Following, Joyce Elaine Cravens, Mary Elizabeth Crouch, Edward Francis Lantz, Wesley Walter Magruder, Martin David McLee, Terri Leigh Hale Perkins, Martha Anne Soper, and David Barry Weber were ordained elder and given the authority to "preach the word of God and to administer the Holy Sacraments." New elders and family members were greeted following the worship service.

WEDNESDAY MORNING BUSINESS SESSION
June 6, 2001

Worship

The last day of conference began with worship. John Thornburg read the psalm and assisted Michael Hawn and Jackson Henry with the music. Lucretia Cooksey led in prayer, Jean Wood read the gospel in English and Margaret Qi did so in Chinese.

Agenda Amendment

Scott Smith, Chair of the Conference Planning Committee, moved that the reading of the appointments be made an Order Of The Day at 11:00 a.m. The motion was approved.

Resolution For Handicapped Accessible Camping and Retreat Centers

This resolution coming from the Youth Annual Conference was brought to the floor of conference in Tuesday's session by Arthur Jones, President of the Conference Council on Youth Ministries. After consultation at the end of Tuesday's session with those who sought changes in the document, the following resolution was presented and approved.

WHEREAS: The Bridgeport Conference and Camp facilities are inadequate to allow for full use by certain disabled people;

WHEREAS: These inadequacies have, in the past, made people feel out of place and unwelcome;

WHEREAS: Camp experiences are important to the individuals' personal spiritual growth;

WHEREAS: It is vital to the body of Christ that all members feel welcome and needed because when one part suffers or is excluded, we all suffer;

WHEREAS: The youth of this Conference believe that it is necessary to make our camp facilities disabled friendly, in the interim between now and when the new disabled friendly cabins are ready;

THEREFORE: We require the following steps be taken:

1. A group of youth appointed by the Conference Council on Youth Ministries review the facilities of Bridgeport and write a report describing the ease of use by disabled people.
2. A committee be appointed by the chair of the Conference Committee on Camp and Retreat Ministries, including a member of the Conference Council on Youth Ministries, a member of the Committee on Camp and Retreat Ministries, and Mike Grigsby, review the Conference Council on Youth Ministries recommendations and devise a specific plan for construction needs at Bridgeport. It is anticipated that a group of volunteers will be gathered to do most of the work.
3. The goal is to work on a minimum of two cabins to make them handicapped friendly by the end of September in order to be ready for use by the Fall Special retreat and the Mid-Winter retreats put on by the Conference Council on Youth Ministries.
4. The plan will be submitted for approval to the Conference Committee on Camp and Retreat Ministries.
5. Donations of materials and money will be solicited outside of the Conference budget.

Sending Servants

A comprehensive written report of the activities of the Sending Servants team was printed in the Conference Workbook and Team Chair, Ouida Lee, directed the attention of the conference to that report as highlighted by a power point presentation. The areas of ministry found under the umbrella of this team are: Volunteers in Mission, Communities of Shalom, Urban and Ethnic Ministries Task Force, Town and Country Task Force, Global Ministries Task Force, Church and Society, Ecumenical Ministries, Health and Welfare, Conference Committee on Mission Personnel, and United Methodist Committee on Relief.

Valerie Mireb, Conference Secretary to the General Board of Global Ministries, presented the Advance Special Program for this year. [LA14] She urged each church to become a sponsoring partner of a missionary. Full shares of sponsorship as listed in the workbook, page 33, were corrected to read, "$3, $4, or $5 dollars per member, or a minimum of $2,500 per year for a congregation in full covenant relationship with a missionary". Mireb urged churches to consider sponsoring one or more of the ten missionaries to our Conference whose salaries will be covered by General Board of Global Ministries grants only for another two years.

Our partnership with the church in the Czech Republic for drug intervention, ($15,000 each for 4 years), was reported on by Dick Arnold, consultant from the General Board of Global Ministries.

The proposal calling for support of the Global Democracy Promotion Act 2001, [LA10] was outlined for the conference by Thalia Matherson. In the list of persons to whom a letter would be sent if this legislation passes, she added the President of the United States. Bishop Oden entertained three speeches for and against the proposal. An amendment was accepted by the sponsor, stating that in any letter sent to public officials, the results of the vote would be included in this manner, "This action was taken by the North Texas Conference by a vote determined by the presiding officer as blank in favor and blank opposed".

A motion to table was defeated, and a motion to refer back to committee was defeated. The vote on the resolution was by count and it was approved 368 in favor and 203 opposed.

The other legislation coming from the Sending Servants Team, [LA12] Conference Special Days With Offering, [LA13] Conference Special Emphases Without Offering, and [LA14] the Advance Special Program, were moved for approval by Team Chair Ouida Lee and they were approved.

Perkins School of Theology

Professor Scott Jones reported for Perkins and the twelve other seminaries supported by the Ministerial Education Fund. He pointed out that the cost of a seminary education has been growing faster than the rate of support to the Ministerial Education Fund from the local churches. The level of debt having to be incurred by ministerial students, he said, should be a considerable concern for the church.

Council on Finance and Administration Report Number 2

Jerry Pinkerton noted changes to the proposed apportionments based on conference action in Tuesday's session which increased the line for Pastoral Subsidies under item 9, Equitable Compensation, by $10,000. The total of Apportionments equals $9,238,416. Pinkerton moved and received approval of the apportionments. [LA4]

Personal Privilege

Bishop Oden said that he sought the understanding, prayers and support of the Conference with regard to the meeting on Thursday in Washington D.C. with denominational leaders from the Lutheran, Orthodox, Catholic, and Episcopal churches together with Secretary of State Colin Powell. The main purpose is to talk about the plight of Palestinian Christians in Jerusalem and to see how these denominations can be more supportive of congregations in the Middle East.

Annual Conference Site 2002

Scott Smith, Annual Conference Planning Committee Chair, moved that the Plano Centre be the site for the Annual Conference in 2002. The motion was approved.

Courtesy and Resolutions

John Rosenburg, Chair of the Committee on Courtesy and Resolutions, expressed thanks to the many people who offered skills and talents to the conference session including those who produced the displays, the conference logo and workbook art, worship bulletins, and Power Point presentations, as well as to those providing the video images for the conference and the taping of the worship services, the sound and lighting, photography and publicity, including the in-house publications and the releases to news sources and web sites. Rosenburg then offered the closing resolution:

WHEREAS: The North Texas Annual Conference held its annual session June 3-6, 2001, at the Plano Centre; First United Methodist Church, Dallas; First United Methodist Church, Allen; Christ United Methodist Church, Plano; and Custer Road United Methodist Church, Plano; with the theme, "Many Gifts, One Spirit," and

WHEREAS: In Sunday evening's opening Service of Celebration, Bishop James R. King of Kentucky, enumerated eight holy habits to connect to the power of God at the center of our lives and concluding with the admonishment to "keep moving". On Monday evening, Dr. C. Michael Hawn, Professor of Sacred Music at Perkins School of Theology, led us in a celebration of The Faith We Sing by introducing many new singable songs to us, or as the Bishop described it, "a worship session of rousement". Tuesday morning, Rev. J. Thomas Graves was the preacher for the Memorial Service, which was one of the most beautiful in memory. Bishop King was the concluding preacher for the Ordination and Consecration service, sending the new church servants to make a "Christ-like world. That's the church's message and it must speak up. That's our tune and it takes all 88 keys to play it"; and

WHEREAS: The ministries of the North Texas Conference were shared with many outstanding presentations led by the Igniting Ministry report by Rev. Larry Hollon, General Secretary of United Methodist Communications. The use of video and other methods created an excitement for the future. The metaphor, used by Bishop Oden, of "planting good trees, even if they are slow growing like the olive", was expanded by many presenters from the Conference Leadership Team. The inspirational testimonies of the ordinands of their privilege to serve God, was, as always, a highlight of the conference; therefore

BE IT RESOLVED: That expressions of appreciation be extended to Bishop Oden for his leadership as chair of the Council of Bishops this past year while guiding the North Texas Conference through an exciting period of change; the Cabinet, the Conference Lay Leader, Dr. Tom Talbert, who delivered the Laity Address; Scott Smith and the Annual Conference Planning Committee; Conference Secretary, Leighton Bearden who was serving for the first time, Assistant Secretaries, and the Journal Committee; the Committee on Worship, led by Mary Beth Crouch; all conference agencies and their elected leadership; the conference staff; Bob Robertson and the Commission on Communications for big-screen video and power point reporting systems; and northtexas.com, and it's staff of professionals and volunteers who added so much to the quality of presentations and our knowledge; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That gratitude be extended to all participants in worship services and the choirs, ensembles, and soloists that provided music; the staff of the Plano Centre; the churches of Dallas and Plano who hosted events beyond the Centre and child care facilities for the four days; and

BE IT ALSO FURTHER RESOLVED: That the North Texas Conference rejoice in the conference statistics that show 98 percent payout of apportionments, the starting of fourteen new churches, the plans for establishing "Foundry Churches" in the Wesley model, and plans for continued action by the conference to bring us together with "Many Gifts, One Spirit".

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT -- 1

On May 9, 2000, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Cleveland, Ohio, the following Constitutional Amendment was made by a recorded vote of 864 Yes, 57 No. It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

Amend the Preamble to the Constitution, beginning with the third paragraph, as follows:

Insert "The United Methodist Church and its predecessors," after "The prayers and intentions of" in the first sentence of the third paragraph and "The United Methodist Church has adopted and amended the following Constitution" following "Therefore," in the fifth paragraph.

Delete "In harmony with these prayers and intentions, these churches do now propose to unite, in the confident assurance that this act is an expression of the oneness of Christ's people" from the end of the third paragraph, the entire fourth paragraph and all, except the first word, of the fifth paragraph.

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, the Preamble to the Constitution would read:
The church is a community of all true believers under the Lordship of Christ. It is the redeemed and redeeming fellowship in which the Word of God is preached by persons divinely called, and the sacraments are duly administered according to Christ's own appointment. Under the discipline of the Holy Spirit the church seeks to provide for the maintenance of worship, the edification of believers, and the redemption of the world.

The church of Jesus Christ exists in and for the world, and its very dividedness is a hindrance to its mission in that world.

The prayers and intentions of The United Methodist Church and its predecessors, The Methodist Church and The Evangelical Brethren Church, have been and are for obedience to the will of our Lord that his people be one, in humility for the present brokenness of the Church and in gratitude that opportunities for reunion have been given.

Therefore, The United Methodist Church has adopted and amended the following Constitution.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT -- II

On May 9, 2000, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Cleveland, Ohio, the following Constitutional Amendment was made by a recorded vote of 908 Yes, 17 No. It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In Division One, Paragraph 1, Article I, substitute the words "have been" for "shall be" and "into" for "in" in the first sentence and "United Methodist Church" for "united" in the second sentence.

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, Paragraph 1 would read:

Declaration of Union – The Evangelical United Brethren Church and The Methodist Church have been united into one Church. The United Methodist Church, as thus constituted, is, and shall be, the successor of the two united churches.

In its place, add, "The United Methodist Church acknowledges that all persons are of sacred worth. All persons without regard to race, color, national origin, status, or economic condition, shall be eligible to attend its worship services, participate in its programs, receive the sacraments, upon baptism be admitted as baptized members, and upon taking vows declaring the Christian faith, become professing members in any local church in the connection."

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, Paragraph 4 would read:

Inclusiveness of the Church--The United Methodist Church is a part of the church universal, which is one Body in Christ. The United Methodist Church acknowledges that all persons are of sacred worth. All persons without regard to race, color, national origin, status, or economic condition, shall be eligible to attend its worship services, participate in its programs, receive the sacraments, upon baptism be admitted as baptized members, and upon taking vows declaring the Christian faith, become professing members in any local church in the connection. On May 12, 2000, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Cleveland, Ohio, the following Constitutional Amendment was made by a recorded vote of 831 Yes, 45 No. It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In Division One, insert a new paragraph immediately following Paragraph 4, which would read as follows:

Racial Justice—The United Methodist Church proclaims the value of each person as a unique child of God and commits itself to the healing and wholeness of all persons. The United Methodist Church recognizes that the sin of racism has been destructive to its unity throughout its history. Racism continues to cause painful division and marginalization. The United Methodist Church shall confront and seek to eliminate racism, whether in organizations or in individuals, in every facet of its life and in society at large. The United Methodist Church shall work collaboratively with others to address concerns that threaten the cause of racial justice at all times and in all places.

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, this amendment would become Paragraph 5. Other articles would be renumbered accordingly.

In Division One, Paragraph 6, Article VI, amend by deletion and addition as follows:

Delete "in" following "Titles to properties" and "upon consummation of the union" in the first sentence.

Add "formerly held by" after "Titles to properties" in the first sentence.

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, Paragraph 6 would read:

Title to Properties—Titles to properties formerly held by The Evangelical United Brethren Church and The Methodist Church shall be held and administered in accordance with the Book of Discipline. Nothing in the Plan of Union at any time after the union is to be construed so as to require any local church or any other property owner of the former The Evangelical United Brethren Church or the former The Methodist Church to alienate or in any way change the title to property contained in its deed or deeds at the time of union and lapse of time.

In place of the deletions, add "one young person between the ages of twelve (12) and seventeen (17) and one young person between the ages of eighteen (18) and thirty (30)" in the first sentence and "thirty (30)" in the second sentence.

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, Paragraph 30, Article I would read:

AMENDMENTS TO THE STANDING RULES

FROM: STANDING RULES COMMITTEE

BACKGROUND: Because of the need to change structure and terminology to fit the functions of the Committees and Task Forces the Standing Rules need to be changed per the legislation listed below.

EFFECTIVE DATE: These new Standing Rules would become effective immediately on approval of the Annual Conference LEGISLATION: The Standing Rules Committee proposes the following amendments to the Standing Rules of the North Texas Annual Conference.

1. Amend section I (A)(5) [STRUCTURE OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE], P177, 2000 Journal, move "Members of conference staff will serve as ex-officio members of these Standing Task Forces, without vote" starting in line 12 to line 3 following words "Standing Rules."

It would read as follows: 5. Task Forces. The Creating Congregations Team, Equipping Disciples Team, and Sending Servants Team may establish Standing Task Forces when required by the Book of Discipline or these Standing Rules. Members of the conference staff will serve as ex-officio members of these Standing Task Forces, without vote.

RATIONALE: The new arrangement of these sentences clarifies the relationship of staff to the task forces named.

2. Amend section 3. b, p184, 2000 Journal, [Conference Lay Speaking Committee], Add word Ministries to Director of Lay Speaking

b. Conference Lay Speaking Ministries Committee
The Conference Committee on Lay Speaking Ministries will develop and administer the Certified Lay Speakers Program, including recruiting, training, certifying, and re-certifying lay speakers. The Conference Lay Speaking Ministries Committee will also work to promote the use of lay speakers to fulfill the purposes and functions described in the Book of Discipline.

The Committee consists of a Chair plus 21 members. The Chair will be the Conference Director of Lay Speaking Ministries. The members will be the Director of Lay Speaking Ministries from each district plus three clergy persons. The Conference Director of Lay Speaking Ministries and the District Directors Lay Speaking Ministries must be currently certified Lay Speakers.

RATIONALE: Conforms to the 2000 Book of Discipline

3. Amend 3. Special Concerns of the Laity, b, p184, 2000 Journal: Add in second paragraph, line 3 after "clergy persons," "and two at large members elected by each district."

Would read as follows

b. Conference Lay Speaking Ministries Committee

The Committee consists of a Chair plus nine members. The Chair will be the Conference Director of Lay Speaking Ministries. The members will be the Director of Lay Speaking Ministries from each district plus three clergy persons, and two at large members elected by each district.

RATIONALE: This comes at the request of the Lay Speaking Ministries Committee in order to have more representation to encourage at least two to come together to each meeting.

4. Amend section B, Rules of Order for Annual Conference Sessions, (17), p214, 2000 Journal. Strike 1990, and insert 2000

Would read as follows

17. Robert's Rules of Order. Questions of procedures not answered by these Standing Rules shall be determined in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised (2000), except when they are inconsistent with these Standing Rules or the Book of Discipline.

RATIONALE: Conforms to the most recently revised edition of Robert's Rules of Order

5. Amend section (B), (1), a: p179 2000 Journal, Add: "Standing Task Force: The Urban Strategies Standing Task Force assists congregations, districts, and the Annual Conference in establishing and promoting Vision 2020 and other ministries associated with the urban priorities of the Annual Conference. The Task Force shall include among its members a representative member of the Sending Servants Team and a representative of the Equipping Disciples Team."

Would read as follows

Following the third paragraph under a. Conference Leadership Team

Standing Task Force: The Urban Strategies Standing Task Force assists congregations, districts, and the Annual Conference in establishing and promoting Vision 2020 and other ministries associated with the urban priorities of the Annual Conference. The Task Force shall include among its members a representative member of the Sending Servants Team and a representative of the Equipping Disciples Team."

RATIONALE: The Conference Leadership Team appointed a Task Force to study Vision 2020 policies, procedure and structure. The amendment proposed was a recommendation from this task force adopted by the Conference Leadership Team. This action moves toward full integration of the Vision 2020 Urban Ministries Plan (adopted at the1998 North Texas Annual Conference) with the current conference structure.

6. Amend (B) (1) a: line 14, pp179, 2000 Conference Journal: delete "and"
Line 15 – add "Chair of Urban Strategies Task Force, the Director of Urban Strategies and the Chair of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits." following Camp and Retreat Ministries.

Would read as follows

At the end of pp3: the chair of the Sending Servants Team; the chair of the Accountability Group; the Chair of the Commission on Communications; the Chair of the Conference Personnel Committee; the Chair of the Committee on Camp and Retreat Ministries, the Chair of Urban Strategies Task Force, the Director of Urban Strategies and the Chair of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits. Those members of the Conference Leadership Team who do not serve by virtue of holding another position shall be nominated by the Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference.

RATIONALE: Since urban ministries is an annual conference priority, representation of the Urban Strategies Chair and Director is needed on the Conference Leadership Team. Pension and health benefits comprise a significant investment of the Annual Conference. Thus it is helpful for the Conference Leadership Team to be kept apprised of developments in this area, as well as enabling the work of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits to be done in the context of the mission of the conference.

7. Amend (B) Specific Agencies (d) Sending Servants Team, p181, 2000 Journal: Standing Task Forces section: add following "Urban and Ethnic churches," "The Global Ministries Task Force will include the Conference President of United Methodist Women and the Chair of the Conference Committee on Personnel,"

Would read as follows
Standing Task Forces:
The Sending Servants Team will have four standing task forces: Volunteers in Mission; Global Ministries (the chair of which will serve as Global Ministries Secretary, elected annually, pursuant to 2000 Book of Discipline ¶ 630.3); Town and Country Churches; and Urban and Ethnic Churches. The Global Ministries Task Force will include Conference President of the United Methodist Women and the Chair of the Conference Committee on Mission Personnel.

The Town and Country Churches Task Force and the Urban Ethnic Churches Task Force shall each have a representative from each district who shall assist the task forces in collecting grant applications, visiting applicant sites, and representing these applications before Task Force. (see below)

RATIONALE: The new language clarifies the responsibilities of the various task forces and provides linkage with the General Board of Global Ministries and the Women's Division.

8. Amend (B) Specific Agencies (1) d, p 181, 2000 Journal, last paragraph; Change word "eleven" to "ten" and add #10 Chair of the Conference Committee on Mission Personnel, then strike the original #6 and #11 and renumber the Sending Servants Team.

Would read as follows
The Sending Servants Team consists of a Chair and ten members, who will be nominated by the Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference. The Chair will serve as a member of the Conference Leadership Team. Each member of the team will serve as a Representative of an area of ministry, as follows: 1) a representative for Health and Welfare ministries; 2) the Chair of the Volunteers in Mission Task Force; 3) the Chair of the Global Ministries Task Force; 4) a Representative of Church and Society area; 5) a Representative for the Ecumenical Ministry area, who will fulfill the functions specified in ¶ 639 of the 2000 Book of Discipline; 6) a Representative for the United Methodist Committee on Relief, who will serve as Hunger Representative, Disaster Coordinator, and Refugee Representative; 7) the Chair of Urban and Ethnic Churches Task Force; 8) the Chair of Town and Country Task Force; 9) a representative for Shalom Zone; and 10) the Chair of the Conference Committee on Mission Personnel.

RATIONALE: Since the Conference Presidents of United Methodist Men and United Methodist Women serve on both the Board of Laity and the Conference Leadership Team, membership is not needed on another agency. Placing the Chair of the Conference Committee on Mission Personnel on the Sending Servants Team provides a needed liaison with the General Board of Global Ministries.

9. Amend section I (B) (6) [STRUCTURE OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE, SPECIFIC AGENCIES, Personnel Matters], pp. 186f., 2000 Journal, by deleting sections (a) [Board of Pensions] and (c) [Commission on Insurance] and adding the following:

It would read as follows:

a. Board of Pension and Health Benefits

The Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall be constituted and function in accordance with the Book of Discipline. It will provide for and contribute to the support, relief, assistance and pensioning of clergy and their families, other church workers and lay employees, except as otherwise provided by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. It will also provide to all clergy who qualify and other persons who qualify the best life, hospital, accident, and disability insurance coverage possible as a group with the funds available for that purpose. The Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall discuss and take action as it deems appropriate regarding proposals under its jurisdiction.

The Board of Pension and Health Benefits should consist of twenty-one members: one-third laywomen, one-third laymen, and one-third clergy. They will be elected for terms of eight years and arranged in classes. A vacancy in the membership of the board may be filled by the board for the remainder of the conference year in which the vacancy occurs. At its next session the Annual Conference shall fill the vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term. The Director of Administration/Treasurer/Benefits Officer, a representative of the Cabinet, and a representative of the Council on Finance on Finance and Administration also serve as ex officio members. The Chair of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits will serve as a member of the Conference Leadership Team.

RATIONALE: This proposal originated in a Conference-Wide Task Force to Address the Retiree Medical Liability, which was appointed by the Conference Leadership Team. The first learning of the task force was that the conference's pre-1982 pension liability and our retiree medical liability need to be considered together rather than separately. This proposal will facilitate accomplishing that on an ongoing basis. The proposal also addresses the different situation which resulted from changing from a self-funded health insurance program to HealthFlex, the denominational health insurance program managed by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, on January 1, 1995. The Cabinet, the Conference Leadership Team, the Board of Pensions and the Commission on Insurance support this change.

FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

FROM: COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

BACKGROUND: 2000 was an extraordinary year financially for the local churches of the North Texas Conference! Total local church expenditures increased from $93,548,555 to $107,693,160, an increase of 15.12% over 1999. This was especially striking since it followed a 10.08% increase in local church spending from 1998 to 1999, a 10.06% increase from 1997 to 1998 and a 12.14% increase from 1996 to 1997.

The percentage of total expenditures by local churches for apportionments has been going down significantly in keeping with the expressed desire of the local churches of the conference and the Council on Finance and Administration. In 2000 total apportionments accounted for 7.93% of local church expenditures in the North Texas Conference, compared to 12.51% in 1990.

2000 was also another banner year for apportionment payout because of the above as well as the continuing commitment of congregations and members to connectional causes. The total conference payout was 98.5% - second only to 1999's 100% payout in the known history of our conference! 296 out of 315 churches with apportionments paid 100% and 30 churches made contributions to their district's Second Mile Fund to help others. The Wichita Falls District (9 years in a row), the Sherman-McKinney District (6 years in a row), and the Paris-Sulphur Springs District (6 years in a row) are especially to be commended for 100% payouts! These districts were also most generous in sharing their Second Mile gifts with the other districts, and a total of $42,681 in Second Mile gifts was included in the conference payout.

Total dollars received for apportionments in 2000 was $8,411,966, which was an increase of $197,555 and 2.4% over 1999. Receipts for VISION 2020 were $2,187,025 in 2000 ($3,151,104 campaign-to-date). Other non-apportioned causes received $1,076,928 in 2000. Thus, the total received for all connectional causes in 2000 was $11,675,918, an increase of $1,290,902 and 12.4% over 1999.

The Council and the Conference Treasurer continue to work hard to maintain an open and straightforward operating style. Great efforts have been made to provide clear and understandable financial reports. Monthly disbursements reports have been provided to other agencies of the conference. The Council takes seriously its fiduciary responsibility and is working with the agencies to insure faithful and effective stewardship of conference funds.

Again in 2001, the Council urges every church to take seriously its connectional responsibility to pay 100% of all apportionments, with 10% of the annual amount remitted monthly. Without doubt, monthly payment beginning in January or February is an important step in paying apportionments in full.

The Discipline states that the Board of Pensions, the Episcopal Fund, the District Superintendents Fund, and Equitable Compensation are apportioned funds which are to be paid on the same schedule as the pastor's salary is paid. The Cabinet joins the Council in urging each church to adhere to this mandate monthly.

All churches are also encouraged to make contributions to their District Second Mile Fund. This is a way to assist districts and the conference as a whole to achieve 100% payment of our total apportionments.

INFORMATION

A. Fidelity Bond for Local Churches

Since 1985 the Council on Finance and Administration has purchased a fidelity bond policy to cover all persons authorized to handle local church funds in every church in the Annual Conference. In the unlikely event that a bonded person takes the church's money, the policy covers up to a $25,000 loss.

B. Ten-Year Profile of Apportionments vs. Local Church Expenditures

An analysis of apportionments in the North Texas Conference between 1991-2000 reveals that apportionments increased at a much slower pace than local church expenditures. During that time total apportionments increased 23.12% (General Conference = 20.34%, Jurisdictional Conference = 5.98%, Annual Conference = 24.80%, District Funds = 25.29%), while local church operating expenses on the decimal increased 60.71%. Total local church expenditures increased 71.44% during the decade.

C. 2000 Profile of Apportionments vs. Local Church Expenditures

In 2000 the pattern of the previous decade continued dramatically. Total apportionments increased 3.44%, while local church operating expenses on the decimal increased 10.52%. Total local church expenditures increased 15.12%.

D. 2002 Budget Recommendation

For many years the Council on Finance and Administration has considered the most recent statistics for local church operating expenses in determining the percentage of increase or decrease in the recommended apportionments that the Annual Conference sets for the upcoming fiscal year. In 2000 the local church operating expenses used in calculating each congregation's apportionments increased 10.52%.

The 2002 apportionment budget presented CF&A with an especially challenging situation. The following previously "fixed costs" increased 12.5% from the prior year and lead to an overall increase of 4.9% (or about 2/3 of the 7.73% total recommended increase) before the agencies of the conference and the council even started to work: (1) General Church Apportionments following the action of the 2000 General Conference = +$178,313; (2) Change in CPP disability benefit enacted at the 2000 General Conference = +$120,177; (3) Health Insurance Subsidies rate increases = +$76,310; and (4) Previous agreement to budget the full year's cost of the Director of Ministry Formation position in 2002 (½ of the cost was budgeted in 2001 due to a grant for the 2000-2001 conference year) = +$45,000.

In a continuing effort to hold down apportionments and maximize the funds available for use in the local churches, while at the same time not allowing the increases from the General Church to "squeeze out" the missional needs of the Annual Conference, the Council's recommendation for the 2002 apportionment budget is a 7.73% increase over the 2001 budget.

This budget does not include approximately $540,000 which will be apportioned for district budgets.

The exact amount of these budgets will be voted on in District Conferences in May, 2001. 2000 District financial statements and 2002 District budgets will be included in the 2001 Conference Journal.

E. Fund Balances

In its ongoing effort to be responsible in budgeting, the Council has considered balances in the various apportioned funds at the end of 2000. In addition to a designated "Conference Reserve Fund" of $486,055, apportioned funds carried forward from 2000 to 2001 totaled $783,631. At the request of CF&A some conference agencies are intentionally "spending down" their fund balances. $4,545,330 of other funds was carried forward from 2000 to 2001, including $1,760,286 of VISION 2020 funds.

F. Unfunded Pension Liability

A plan is in place to complete the funding of our unfunded pension liability for pre-1982 service by 2011. This plan is not expected to require any further increases beyond the current $1.7 million annual payment level. The 2000 Discipline requires the submission of a formal plan to fund our pre-1982 pension liability, as well as a Retiree Medical Valuation, to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits by July 15, 2002. The funding to retire the pension liability must be completed by December 31, 2021. The information from these documents will be submitted to the 2004 General Conference. The pension funding plan will be reviewed along with the retiree medical liability by the conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits, the Conference-Wide Task Force to Address the Retiree Medical Liability and CF&A during the next year.

G. Retiree Medical Liability

CF&A is aware of the significant retiree medical liability of the conference. This liability is not new; however, it has only recently begun to be recognized by the church in general. The Council will be working with the Conference-Wide Task Force to Address the Retiree Medical Liability and the Board of Pension and Health Benefits to address this issue during the coming year. (See F. above. See also the report of the Conference-Wide Task Force to Address the Retiree Medical Liability.)

H. Electric Aggregation Possibility

Electric utilities in the state of Texas are being deregulated effective January 1, 2002. Deregulation offers the opportunity for the churches of the North Texas Conference to join together to purchase electricity. With the encouragement of CF&A, a group of large churches in the conference initiated an effort to secure a contract from TXU Energy Services which would allow their purchase of electricity as a part of a group for a specified period of time. All of the churches of the conference have now been invited to participate in this effort. Advantages would include the benefits of achieving scale, the ability to anticipate costs in budgeting, and having a common strategy with a central decision maker. Failure to participate in this kind of large group will leave a church subject to the volatility of natural gas prices and unprotected against future cost increases. CF&A encourages all of the churches of the conference to consider this possibility. Contact the conference Office of Administration for more information.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR LEGISLATIVE ACTION

I. AUDITOR FOR THE CONFERENCE TREASURY

The council recommends McGee, Haza & Co. as the auditing firm for the Conference Treasury in 2001.

II. SALARY, BENEFITS AND EXPENSES FOR SUPERINTENDENTS AND DIRECTORS

Following lengthy consideration of local church pastoral salaries and comparable positions in other conferences, CF&A recommends that the salaries for district superintendents be increased in 2002 to $80,000 from $74,788, an increase of 6.97%. Parsonages are provided by the districts. Utilities, travel and expenses are to be reimbursed by voucher.

CF&A determines the compensation for the Director of Administration/Treasurer/Benefits Officer and the Conference Personnel Committee sets the compensation levels for other conference Directors.

NOTES TO RECOMMENDED APPORTIONMENTS

(1) The 2001 budget adopted by the Annual Conference Session has been adjusted to reflect the Jurisdictional Conference apportionments set in July 2000.

(2) The increase will allow $5,000 for a new Dismantling Racism emphasis.

(3) This reflects the amount requested plus the increased cost of benefits.

(4) This amount will allow the proposed increase in the Director's DS level compensation plus the increased cost of benefits, as well as the requested increase for support staff.

(5) This is based on a 23% increase in active health insurance premium rates over anticipated 2001 expenses.

(6) This is based on a 13% increase in Medicare Supplement rates over anticipated 2001 expenses and no Medicare HMO.

(7) This increase includes absorbing the room and board costs for summer camp counselors for 3 new camps (Youth SEEK, Jr. High IMPACT, and Sr. High IMPACT), as well as increased costs for room and board at the camps.

(8) GCFA will contribute up to an additional $20,000 out of the Episcopal Fund.

(9) This reflects a full-year for this position, whereas the 2001 budget included only

1/2 year due to an initial grant. It also includes the increased cost of benefits.

(10) This increase includes a new budget for the Episcopal Committee and the accrual of first alternate delegate costs to the 2004 General Conference.

(11) This includes the anticipated increase in the cost of utilities.

(12) This reflects an increase needed for some support staff restructuring and the proposed increase for DS level Directors, plus the increased cost of benefits.

(13) This level of funding for the past service costs of the pre-1982 pension liability is expected to fully fund the obligation on or before 2011.

(14) This is based on an increase of 2.7% in the NT Conference Average Compensation for 2002 and a projected increase of 24% in the cost of CPP to the NTC due to the improved disability insurance provisions of CPP approved at the 2000 General Conference to begin in 2002. Both percentage increases were determined by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits in 2000.

(15) This amount would have been increased previously to make possible a 10.1% increase in the minimum compensation in 2001 except for the presence of a large beginning balance which is being spent down.

GUIDELINES FOR COMPUTATION OF 2002 APPORTIONMENTS FOR LOCAL CHURCHES

A. Formula for Two-Part Decimal:

1/3 membership and 2/3 finance

B. Procedure for Computation of Decimal for Each Church:

The membership part is computed by dividing the total 2000 church membership of the Annual Conference (less discontinued churches and fellowships = 157,336) into the 2000 membership of each church. This becomes the church's membership decimal.

The finance part is computed by adding the amounts of the operating expenses reported paid by each church in columns 61b, 62b, 63a, 63c, 64a-d, 65a-b and 66-69 of the 2000 Statistician's Report. (No funds reported in other statistical columns are included in this computation.) This total is then divided by the Conference total of these same columns (less discontinued churches and fellowships = $54,490,120). This becomes the local church's finance decimal.

The finance decimal is doubled. The membership decimal is added to the doubled finance decimal. This total is divided by three to become the apportionment decimal.

C. Procedure for Computation of Apportionments for Each Church:

The apportionment decimal for each church is multiplied by the Conference total of each apportionment to determine the amount that each church is asked to pay toward the apportionment. The only exception is the District Administration Fund Apportionment which is at the present time computed on the basis of the district decimal.

D. Margin for Correction:

To assure that 100% of the amount of each apportionment will be distributed to the churches, no more than one quarter of one percent may be added to each apportionment when needed.

RECOMMENDED GOALS TO LOCAL CHURCHES

A. That local churches accept the challenge to grow in spiritual strength by designating no less than 25% of their total annual budgets for causes beyond their local churches.

B. That local churches plan to remit at least 10% of their annual apportionments before the 15th of each month beginning in January or February.

C. That apportionments be given first claim by local churches in their beyond-the-local-church payments with advance specials and other benevolences viewed as second-mile giving.

D. That local churches assist in achieving 100% payment of all apportionments for connectional ministries and missions in every district through voluntary contributions to the District Second-Mile Apportionment Fund.

DISCONTINUANCE OF HUTCHINS UMC

FROM: NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

BACKGROUND: Because only a small number of members remained and they could not continue to support the church financially and physically, members of the Hutchins UMC concluded that it was time to disband as a church and sell the property.

LEGISLATION: The North Texas Conference Board of Trustees recommends the discontinuance of the Hutchins UMC. The Conference Board of Trustees will sell the property and place the proceeds with the Conference Treasurer. Such proceeds shall be used for maintenance, upkeep and remodeling of other existing local church facilities in the Dallas South District upon recommendation of the district superintendent and the district Board of Trustees and concurrence of the Conference Board of Trustees.

EQUITABLE COMPENSATION ANNUAL DETERMINATION

FROM: COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

BACKGROUND: Annual determination of Equitable Compensation Fund

LEGISLATION: The budget for the Commission on Equitable Compensation For Equitable Compensation requested that minimum equitable compensation support and administrative expenses be apportioned at $54,000 for 2002. (The Annual Conference amended the report to apportion $64,000 for pastors' subsidies. The figures which follow will reflect that change.)

A. Guidelines for Conference Members and Full-Time Local Pastors

1. The Annual Conference set $30,626 as the minimum equitable compensation(including base salary, utilities, amount for vouchered travel reimbursement, dependent premium payments made by the local church, dependent premium supplemental payments paid by the conference at the discretion of the District Superintendent, and other conference subsidies received) for conference members in full connection, associate members and probationary members of the North Texas Conference serving full time for 2002. The amount of increase for 2002 is $1,200 or 4.1% , with a two year increase of $4,026 or 15.1%. The North Texas Conference ranked 10th among the 66 annual conferences in 2000 in minimum equitable compensation. It is anticipated that our ranking will be 5th in 2001 due to the increase adopted last year.

2. 2002 Adjustments for years of service:

Years of Service	Equitable Compensation Amounts
0-5	$30,626
6	30,726
7	30,826
8	30,926
9	31,026
10	31,126

3. Compensation for additional churches on a charge:

   Each charge with more than one church shall receive $200 additional for the second church and $100 each for third through fifth additional churches.

4. Recommendation for housing, utilities and travel expenses:

(1) Housing shall be provided in a church-owned parsonage or provided for with a monthly allowance.
(2) Utilities shall be provided with payments made by the local church or reimbursed when paid by the pastor.
(3) Travel shall be reimbursed at the IRS rate with appropriate records and documentation provided to the church. The local church may opt to provide a monthly travel expense allowance.

5. Local Pastors serving full time:

Five years or less $25,626
Six years or more $25,726

Expense recommendations same as above.

This year the Commission studied the difference in the minimum compensation amount between conference members (full connection - FC, associate members - AM and probationary members - PM) and full-time local pastors (FLP) in other annual conferences. The difference in the North Texas Conference is $6,000. Of 66 annual conferences in 2000, 55 had a different minimum compensation amount for FC, AM & PM and FLP. All but two of the eleven conferences which did not have a difference have a lower minimum equitable compensation than North Texas. The difference in the minimum compensation amount between FC, AM &PM and FLP tends to be more in the Southeastern Jurisdiction ($3,978 avg.) and the South Central Jurisdiction ($3,834 avg.). Those conferences with which the North Texas Conference identifies most tend to have larger differences.

Although the Commission believes it is appropriate to have a difference in the minimum compensation amount between FC, AM & PM and FLP because of the difference in the requirements to gain the credentials, the study of other conferences indicates that our difference is too great. Local pastors are an important group of our clergy and we do not want to discourage or deter them from serving in this conference. However, because of the impact on equitable compensation churches and those close to that level, the Commission proposes to take at least two years to phase in a change. The Commission proposes to reduce the difference from $6,000 to $5,000 for the year 2002, making the minimum equitable compensation for full-time local pastors $25,626 (an increase of $2,200 or 9.4% over 2001 and a two-year difference of $5,026 or 24.4%). We recommend that next year's Commission be asked to consider a further reduction in the difference for 2003 and thereafter.

B. The following policies are proposed to the North Texas Annual Conference for the distribution of equitable compensation assistance in 2002:

1. A local church exists to serve, not to be served. All churches should be motivated to a larger sense of ministry. Churches whose pastors receive salary subsidy should be open to linkage with other churches in order to efficiently utilize the service of full time conference members to reduce the need for subsidy.

2. Equitable Compensation levels can best be met when appointments are open to all ministerial members without regard to race or gender. We continue to urge every conference member to make the subject of a fully open Conference and adequately supported ministry at the local church level a matter of daily personal prayer. Only as the love of Christ dwells in us can an annual conference be a communion of caring persons.

3. Growth in stewardship should be achieved by all below-minimum renumeration churches. In making application for salary supplement, District Superintendents are to provide evidence of stewardship education and growth to the Commission on Equitable Compensation.

4. Tenure payments are designed to honor the years of service of pastors who continue for more than five years in ministry to below minimum compensation charges because of the needs of the Conference. The Bishop and the Cabinet are urged to make every effort to move pastors to above-minimum compensation charges within five years after they begin full-time service.

5. Applications for salary subsidy to the Commission on Equitable Compensation are to be made by the District Superintendent on forms provided by the Commission, and completed applications must be approved by the Commission in session or by no less than two of the three members of the Executive Committee of the Commission.

6. The Charge conference of any charge unable to pay the minimum salary set by the conference shall be informed by the District Superintendent of the guidelines for receiving equitable compensation assistance. The Charge shall be informed of the amount required to bring the compensation level up to minimum and shall be challenged to move toward the goal of full self-support at the earliest possible time. On a form which shall accompany the applications for salary assistance, the District Superintendent shall certify to the Commission that the charge has been duly notified. The amount of subsidy granted to a pastor shall be acknowledged annually at the Charge Conference.

7. Equitable compensation assistance is not available to pastors serving as associate pastors or in staff positions other than pastor-in-charge. In order that such persons receive an equitable wage, however, the Commission recommends that local churches use Conference minimum standards as minimum guidelines to setting associate and staff salaries.

8. The Commission on Equitable Compensation will not consider requests for salary supplements where housing allowances exceed $7,200.

9. Pastors who decline an appointment which would reduce or eliminate compensation support are ineligible for equitable compensation supplement given for years of service.

10. Equitable compensation assistance is not available for a North Texas Conference member appointed to serve in another Annual Conference, nor is it available to members of other Annual Conferences serving under appointment in the North Texas Conference.

11. There shall be no lump sum payments to persons receiving equitable compensation assistance unless such sums are too small for monthly payments to be made.

12. It shall be the responsibility of the pastor receiving equitable compensation subsidy to inform the Commission of any increase in remuneration or any changes in eligibility which occur after an application for equitable compensation has been approved.

EXCEPTIONAL REQUESTS BY CABINET:

All requests for exceptional support (assistance requested by the Cabinet in excess of the 25% maximum) shall be submitted in writing. The requests shall include the amount of assistance requested, length of time for assistance and reason(s) for exceptional request. Such a request shall be submitted to the Commission on a form prescribed by the Commission and signed by the Chair of Cabinet.

PRE-1982 SERVICE YEAR RATE FOR 2002

FROM: CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSIONS

BACKGROUND: Paragraph 1506.7 of the 2000 Discipline recommends that the past service annuity rate for ministerial service rendered before 1982 be not less than 1% of the Conference Average Compensation (CAC) as calculated by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. In 1999 the North Texas Conference adopted 1% of the Conference Average Compensation as its policy for setting the annual pre-1982 service year rate. For 2002 the CAC is $50,113. Thus, the Board of Pensions recommends that 1% of that or $501 be the past service rate for 2002.

LEGISLATION: That the pre- 1982 Service Year Rate for 2002 be established at $501 for approved service of clergy members in full connection, probationary members, associate members and local pastors of the conference.

NORTH TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE RESOLUTION

FROM: BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY
SENDING SERVANTS TEAM

BACKGROUND: The Global Democracy Promotion Act of 2001 (HR. 755,S.367) declares that foreign nongovernmental organizations (NGOs) shall not, as a condition of their eligibility for U.S. development assistance funds, be forced to sacrifice their right to use their own funds to engage in free speech and assembly activities any more than U.S.-based groups are asked to do The bill also states that foreign NGOs cannot be disqualified from U.S. development assistance simply because they may provide medical services with their own funds that are legal both in their own country and in the U.S.

LEGISLATION: Endorsement of the Global Democracy Promotion Act 2001

"No more shall there be in it [the world] an infant that lives but a few days, or an old person who does not live out a lifetime...They shall build houses and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit. They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat; for like the days of the tree shall the days of my people be, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not labor in vain or bear children in calamity; for they shall be offspring blessed by the LORD--and their descendants as well." (Isaiah 65:20-23 NRSV)

The day has not yet come when the world is as Isaiah described it. Thirty two thousand children die every day of preventable causes and nearly 600,000 women die annually from pregnancy and childbirth. Millions of people do not have adequate housing and even more cannot afford to buy the food or products they labor to produce. Approximately 1.2 billion people subsist on less than one dollar a day and more than 350 million couples do not have access to effective contraception methods, resulting in countless children born into abject poverty. Each of these persons is a child of God, and as brothers and sisters it is our responsibility to address their pain and suffering.

One of the roots of this problem is the lack of access to education, health care, and family planning methods for those who desperately need and desire them. The 2000 Social Principles of The United Methodist Church affirm that "people have the duty to consider the impact on the total world community of their decisions regarding childbearing and should have access to information and appropriate means to limit their fertility, including voluntary sterilization...Programs to achieve a stabilized population should be placed in a context of total economic and social development, including an equitable use and control of resources [and] improvement in the status of women in all cultures."

On January 22, 2001, President George W. Bush reinstated the 1984 "Mexico City" policy prohibiting non-governmental organizations (NGOs) from receiving U.S. family planning funds if, with their own separate non-U.S. funds, they discuss abortion or make referrals to physicians who provide them. (Under existing law since 1973, no U.S. funds can be used or have been used to promote or pay for abortions)

This restriction infringes on the basic right of free speech by giving the U.S. government control over what non-governmental recipients of U.S. international planning assistance do and say with their own funds, interferes with patient-doctor relationships by halting information that women in the U.S. are guaranteed, and jeopardizes access to family planning programs that are known to save lives and improve standards of living by improving the health of women and children and by delaying childbirth.

On February 15, 2001, Sen. Barbara Boxer (D-CA) and Rep. Nita Lowey (D-NY) joined together with other bipartisan co-sponsors to introduce the Global Democracy Promotion Act of 2001. This bill, which is endorsed by The United Methodist Church's General Board of Church and Society, would remove the "gag" rule on foreign NGOs, allowing them to again receive U.S. foreign aid assistance for family planning issues.

We, the Sending Servants Team of the North Texas Conference, therefore call on the North Texas Annual Conference to:

1. endorse the Global Democracy Promotion Act of 2001 (HR 755, S.367) ;
2. encourage our districts, local churches, and members to work towards education and advocacy on this issue; and
3. encourage our members to call and write their Senators and representatives to express support for the bill, and
4. that a letter from the North Texas Annual Conference go to the President of the United States, to Senators and Representatives from the North Texas geographic area expressing support of this bill. Any letter to a public official in reference to this action shall contain the statement "This action was taken by the North Texas Annual Conference upon a majority vote of the members voting as determined by the presiding officer without numerical count." Or, if a numerical count is taken upon this resolution, the statement "This action was taken by the North Texas Annual Conference by a vote determined by the presiding officer as _____in favor and _____opposed" with the appropriate figures filled in by the conference secretary.

We emphasize that our support for the Global Democracy Promotion Act of 2001 is not about abortion. Our support is due to the devastating real-world effects of removing funding from the very organizations that tackle the root causes of childhood, infant, and maternal deaths and unwanted pregnancies through services such as women's health education programs, pre-natal care, and access to birth control.

MARRIAGE COVENANT RESOLUTION
NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE

FROM: EQUIPPING DISCIPLES TEAM

BACKGROUND: Our concern as clergy is to promote lasting marriages under God and to establish spiritually healthy families. Since almost 75 percent of marriages are performed by clergy, we are in a unique position to dramatically affect the marriages and families in our community. We are deeply troubled by our country's epidemic of marital instability and divorce and feel it must be directly addressed by the faith community. While we affirm our Social Principles (¶ 161 D), "we encourage an intentional commitment of the Church and society to minister compassionately to those in the process of divorce, as well as members of divorced and remarried families," we also believe it is crucial to do all we can to decrease the incidence of divorce in the first place. Therefore, our purpose is to enrich marriages and to significantly reduce the divorce rate in the congregations of the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church.

We accept, as clergy, the responsibility to raise the level of commitment in those we marry and those married couples who look to us for spiritual instruction. We believe that couples who seriously participate in premarital testing and counseling will have a better understanding of what marriage involves. We also believe that an increased commitment to marriage preparation will result in the reduction of failed and failing marriages.

The Book of Discipline paragraph 331.1i states that pastors shall give attention to the duty: "To perform the marriage ceremony after due counsel with the parties involved.."

It has been left up to individual pastors over the years to decide what "due counsel" means, and this has no uniformity over the denomination or in our Annual Conference. It is hoped that we can have a Marriage Covenant among pastors that will get us on the same page. We also hope that this same covenant will be adopted by our local churches in order to make it a church Covenant as well as a covenant among the Order of Elders and Fellowship of Local Pastors.

Most local churches have no policy dealing with premarital preparation, and leave the business of marriage to the pastor. A church's involvement in the covenant will hopefully get the church involved in this ministry. It will also give pastors the backing of the local church when a couple wants to have a quick wedding with no preparation.

Finally many of our new pastors have no training or resources in marriage preparation. This covenant will need to be available to them along with training each year to continue its effectiveness.

LEGISLATION: Therefore be it resolved:

1. That the North Texas Conference use meetings in each district with pastors to study this covenant in the 2001-2002 Conference Year, and discuss its implementation.

2. That at Annual Conference 2002 the Covenant which is the fruit of the District meetings be signed by those willing to participate.

3. That pastors and lay members to Annual Conference be asked to present this Covenant to their local churches and give them the opportunity to participate in the Covenant.

4. That the Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry - Continuing Education find ways to make these resources available to new pastors.

NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH MARRIAGE POLICY

Our concern as area clergy is to promote lasting marriages under God and to establish spiritually healthy families. Since almost 75 percent of marriages are performed by clergy, we are in a unique position to dramatically affect the marriages and families in our community. We are deeply troubled by our country's epidemic of marital instability and divorce and feel it must be directly addressed by the faith community. Our purpose is to enrich marriages and to significantly reduce the divorce rate in the congregations of the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church.

We accept, as clergy, the responsibility to raise the level of commitment in those we marry and those married couples who look to us for spiritual instruction. We believe that couples who seriously participate in premarital testing and counseling will have a better understanding of what marriage involves. We also believe that an increased commitment to marriage preparation will result in the reduction of failed and failing marriages.

Therefore, as agents of God, acting on His behalf, we believe it is our responsibility to encourage couples to set aside time for marriage preparation. We acknowledge that a wedding is but a day, while marriage is for a lifetime.

What God has joined together, let the Pastors and churches of the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church seek to hold together.

Therefore:

1. We will normally require a minimum of four months marriage preparation.
2. We will require a minimum of four counseling sessions, utilizing both the Scripture and a premarital inventory.
3. We will seek to train mature, married couples to serve as mentors to work with engaged couples, newlyweds, or those experiencing marital difficulties.
4. We will offer two post-marital counseling sessions with clergy or a mentor couple within the first year of marriage.
5. We will seek to create a support system of couples whose marriages have successfully weathered life's challenges to assist with troubled marriages.
6. We will seek to establish support systems for blended families.
7. We will cooperate with other congregations and organizations to share resources and create a positive climate in which marriages are helped to succeed.

Covenant

I commit to seek the endorsement of these minimum standards by my congregation and to encourage others to do so, for the Glory of God and the good of our whole community.

STANDING RULES OF THE NORTH TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE

These standing rules are composed of three parts: 1) structure of the North Texas Annual Conference ("Annual Conference"); 2) policies of the Annual Conference; and 3) rules of procedure for the conduct of Annual Conference sessions.

I. STRUCTURE OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Primacy of Book of Discipline and Standing Rules. These General Provisions apply to all Agencies except where the current version of The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church ("Book of Discipline") or specific Standing Rules otherwise provide.

2. "Agency." In these Standing Rules, the word "Agency" means a conference-level group that performs the work of the North Texas Annual Conference, whether that group is called a Council, Board, Division, Commission, Committee, Team, Group or Task Force. It does not include boards of trustees or boards of directors of Annual Conference related institutions.

3. "Conference Year; Conference Fiscal Year." "Conference year" means the period from the close of one regularly scheduled session of the Annual Conference through the close of the following year's regularly scheduled session of the Annual Conference. "Conference Fiscal Year" means January 1 through December 31.

4. Election of Members. Members and Chairs of the Agencies shall be nominated by the Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference. There shall be an opportunity for additional nominations from the floor.

5. Task Forces. The Creating Congregations Team, Equipping Disciples Team, and Sending Servants Team may establish Standing Task Forces when required by the Book of Discipline or these Standing Rules. Members of the conference staff will serve as ex officio members of these Standing Task Forces, without vote. Unless otherwise required, membership on a Standing Task Force shall be limited to a number necessary to carry out the ministry. These Teams and the Accountability Group may establish short-term Task Forces when the need or opportunity arises. Such task forces will require approval of the Conference Leadership Team to exist for more than twelve months. The membership of the Task Forces shall be representative of the diversity of the conference. Task force members will be selected by the Teams and Group through the Nominations Committee pool and/or upon recommendation of the District Superintendents, with attention being given to inclusiveness issues. When a Team or Group has established a short-term Task Force, the Chair of the Task force may be designated to serve as a member of the Team or Group for the duration of the short-term Task Force, with or without vote.

Budget recommendations to the Conference Leadership Team and oversight of approved budget expenditures for the various Task Forces are the responsibility of each Team. Task Forces are accountable to their assigned Team for expenditures and may make budget recommendations when appropriate.

6. Membership Diversity. Except where the Book of Discipline or these Standing Rules otherwise provide, membership on all Agencies shall include one third clergy, one third laywomen, and one third laymen insofar as possible. In addition, special attention shall be given to inclusive representation from the districts, small membership churches, town and country churches, and ethnic churches.

7. Terms. Persons shall be nominated to serve a four year term on an Agency. No person shall be nominated for a position without previously agreeing to serve if elected. Persons elected shall begin their terms of office at the close of the Annual Conference session at which they are elected.

8. Failure to Attend Meetings. Persons who are absent without cause for half or more of an Agency's meetings during the Conference Year will thereby automatically remove themselves from the membership of the Agency and shall be replaced by the Committee on Nominations.

9. Vacancies. The Committee on Nominations is authorized to fill any Agency vacancies between sessions of the Annual Conference, unless the Book of Discipline otherwise provides. Persons appointed to fill vacancies shall serve only the remainder of the Conference year in which they are appointed. They may be elected to that position at the first regularly scheduled Annual Conference session following their appointment, in which case they will serve the remainder of the term of the person they replace. If the term of the person they replace would normally expire at the Annual Conference, then they may be elected to a full term either as member or chair without the partial year they served filling the vacancy counting toward the term limit as covered in Provision 10 and Provision 11 below.

10. Term Limits for Members. No person may serve more than eight successive years on any one Agency. A person may, however, be re-elected to an Agency on which that person has previously served his or her term limit after non-membership for four years.

11. Term Limits for Agency Chairs. No person may serve as Chair of any Agency for more than four consecutive years, nor may any person chair any combination of Agencies for a total of more than six years in any eight year period.

12. Limits on Multiple Agency Membership. No person shall serve on more than two Agencies at the same time, except as an ex officio member. In computing these limits, membership which occurs by virtue of holding some other Agency position shall not be counted. In applying these limits, the nominators shall be guided by the policies of diffusing power throughout the Annual Conference and limiting the agency workload required of any particular individual. Therefore, both the responsibilities and the workload of the various Agencies shall be taken into consideration in making Nominations.

13. Coordination of Nominations. All nominations of persons to Agencies shall be reported to the Chair of the Committee on Nominations, the Conference Director of Mission, the Chair of the Accountability Group, the Chair of the Review Team (so long as it exists), and the District Superintendents in order to promote inclusivity and compliance with the Standing Rules on Limits on Multiple Agency Membership.

14. Record Keeping. In order to assist the Annual Conference in enforcing these General Provisions, each Annual Conference Journal shall indicate after the name of each Agency member the year in which the person's current term expires and whether it is the person's first or second consecutive term with that Agency.

15. General Agencies. Members of the general agencies of the United Methodist Church from the Annual Conference will be ex officio members of the corresponding Agency.

16. Appeals. Any Agency has the right to appeal to the Annual Conference regarding a decision affecting its work made by any other Agency, except where otherwise provided in the Book of Discipline.

17. Clergy. In these Standing Rules, the word "clergy" refers to the following members of the North Texas Annual Conference unless some specific Standing Rule otherwise provides: (1) elders in full connection; (2) deacons in full connection; (3) probationary members; (4) commissioned ministers; (5) associate members; and (6) local pastors under full-time and part-time appointment to a pastoral charge.

2. Apportionments to be made based on Conference Fiscal Year. The apportionments to the local churches shall be made on the basis of the Conference Fiscal Year. The only exception to this shall be the salaries of the clergy serving as pastors or District Superintendents. When a pastoral change comes at Annual Conference, the salary of the previous appointment shall be paid through June 15, and the salary in the new appointment shall begin June 16.

3. Conference Books. The Conference Treasurer's books shall be closed annually at 12:00 noon on January 11 (or the next working day, if January 11 falls on a weekend or holiday), and no funds received by the Conference Treasurer after that time shall apply toward Conference Apportionments of the year just completed.

4. Disposition of Interest. Interest earned on any funds (excluding designated trusts) managed by the Conference Treasurer shall be declared general funds of the North Texas Annual Conference and administered by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

5. Agency Spending. No Agency shall incur financial obligations that exceed current appropriations, and beginning balances where applicable, for any reason except by specific approval of the Conference Leadership Team and the Council on Finance and Administration. New items must be submitted first to the Conference Leadership Team and, if approved, must also be submitted to the Council on Finance and Administration for appraisal and consideration for the current year. No Agency shall include requests for funds other than those required for its own operation or program, except that Teams and Groups may request funds for the benefit of their own Task Forces. Requests for funds for the same cause or concern shall be granted to only one Agency.

6. Conference-Wide Appeals. When application is made to the Annual Conference for the privilege of special conference-wide financial appeal, whether by special collection, campaigns, or otherwise, the application shall be referred to the Council on Finance and Administration before final action is taken thereon. The Council on Finance and Administration shall investigate the application and its possible relation to other obligations of the conference, and in light of the facts make recommendations to the Annual Conference.

7. Auditing. The Council on Finance and Administration shall nominate to the Annual Conference an auditing firm which shall audit the Conference Treasurer's books annually. All institutions receiving financial support from the Annual Conference, either by direct apportionment or by special offerings, shall, if requested, submit an annual auditor's report acceptable to the Council on Finance and Administration reflecting the receipt and disbursement of the financial support received from the Annual Conference. Such reports shall be provided to the Council on Finance and Administration by October 1 of each year for the previous fiscal year. Each District shall retain an auditing firm to audit the District books annually, and shall submit such annual auditor's report to the Council on Finance and Administration by October 1 of each year for the previous fiscal year.

8. Apportionments. The Conference Treasurer, with the assistance of the District Superintendents, shall annually compute the apportionment decimal for each church. By September 1, the Conference Treasurer shall provide the amounts for each church's apportionments for the following year.

9. Ethical Fiscal Principles. The following ethical principles apply to the appropriation and disbursement of funds by the Annual Conference:

a. Funds contributed for a designated purpose should be used strictly for the purpose designated, and administered efficiently, without waste or duplication, in order to obtain maximum effect from the use of available funds.

b. Net proceeds from the sale of Annual Conference property are capital funds and should be appropriated to the use which the property was intended to serve. If this is not feasible, priority should be given to the most similar purpose for which the funds can be used effectively, or to capital improvements within reasonable geographical proximity; but district lines should not be controlling and the entire community or metropolitan area should be considered. Likewise, funds received by way of indemnity for loss or destruction of any capital assets of the Annual Conference should be treated as capital assets and should be used for similar purposes if restoration of the property is feasible.

B. REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

1. Death Records. The minister who is in charge of the funeral services of any clergy member of the Annual Conference, or the spouse, widow, or widower of a clergy member of the Annual Conference, will supply the Conference Secretary with a memoir containing the date of birth, date of death, date of final rites, and place of burial of the deceased. To the extent possible, the minister will also supply a recent photograph of the deceased and date of entrance into the Annual Conference. For clergy members who transferred into the Annual Conference, the minister will, if possible, inform the Conference Secretary the deceased's date of transfer into the Annual Conference, the conference from which transferred, and appointments in other conferences. If the minister in charge of the funeral cannot supply this information, the Conference Secretary will use his or her best efforts to supply the missing information. All of this information should be sent to the Conference Secretary immediately following the funeral.

2. Biographical Information. Each member of the clergy and each diaconal minister shall file with the Conference Secretary a historical sketch of his or her life on a form to be furnished by the Conference Secretary. This document will become that person's record.

3. Legal Descriptions of Conference Property. Each District Superintendent shall furnish to the Secretary of the Board of Trustees a legal description of each piece of property in his or her District on or before December 1 of each year. The District Superintendents shall also provide a statement as to where the deeds evidencing ownership of these properties are kept. The information provided annually shall be accurate as of December 1.

4. Statistics. Each District Superintendent shall furnish the required district statistics to the Conference Statistician. In order to facilitate these reports, the following procedures will be followed:

a. Each church and pastor shall submit the Annual Conference report for auditing on the Check-Out Day specified by the Cabinet. Check-Out Day is the date when local churches turn in statistical information for the preceding year on forms provided by the Conference Statistician. The Annual Conference report shall be submitted to the District Statistician (see below).

b. Each District Superintendent shall appoint a District Statistician. The District Statistician shall check each Annual Conference report for accuracy, consistency, and completeness. The District Statistician then forwards the Annual Conference reports to the District Secretary, who in turn forwards them to the Conference Statistician.

c. Each pastor in charge shall also report to his or her District Superintendent on Check-Out Day any money borrowed necessary to pay current church obligations for the Conference Fiscal Year, or any delinquent church bills which have not been paid by the close of the Conference Fiscal Year.

C. VACATION STANDARDS

The following are minimum vacation standards for clergy and diaconal ministers of the North Texas Annual Conference.

1. Method of Calculation

The vacation is calculated according to the number of years of service, using the following formula:

1 - 4 years of service --- two weeks (two Sundays)
5 - 9 years of service --- three weeks (three Sundays)
10+ years of service --- four weeks (four Sundays)

2. Further Guidelines

In applying the standards:

a. "years of service" shall be determined by years served as a full-time United Methodist commissioned minister, probationary member, diaconal minister, local pastor, associate member, deacon in full connection, or elder in full connection. In computing a person's "years of service," time spent in all categories shall be cumulated and all shall count toward the person's total "years of service."

b. The length of vacation is set by the Annual Conference, but the most suitable time for both the employing entity and the clergy or diaconal ministers and their families must be determined by consultation between the clergy or diaconal minister and the employing entity.

D. CLERGY DIVORCE

"Where marriage partners, even after thoughtful consideration and counsel, are estranged beyond reconciliation, we recognize divorce as regrettable, but recognize the right of divorced persons to remarry. We express our deep concern for the care and nurture of the children of divorced and/or remarried persons. We encourage that either or both of the divorced parents be considered for custody of minor children of the marriage. We encourage an active, accepting, and enabling commitment of the church and our society to minister to the members of divorced families," (The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, 1984)

The Discipline rightly makes no distinction between divorce occurring among the laity or clergy. We recognize the possibility of congregations being nurturing communities, and, thus for Christian love to grow in the midst of the painful circumstances surrounding a clergy or layperson's divorce.

The North Texas Conference also can be a caring and nurturing community for the clergy at divorce. The conference recognizes its responsibility to respond to divorcing clergy in as pastoral a manner as possible. To this end, the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church suggests the following for our clergy as well as their spouses in the event of divorce.

1. The clergy member will have taken every action possible toward reconciliation within the marriage. This shall include extensive counseling with a reputable marriage counselor, preferably with both partners to the marriage participating but, where impossible, with at least the clergy member's participation.

2. In consultation with the District Superintendent, the divorcing clergy and/or spouse may request a meeting of the following persons:
   a. The Chairperson of the Division of Conference Relations, presider.
   b. The District Superintendent of the clergy member's district.
   c. The district member of the Division of Conference Relations.
   d. Two peers chosen by the clergy member involved.

3. This meeting will:
   a. Pastorally respond to the divorce
   b. Offer help/guidance, if requested, to:
      1) The clergy member
      2) The divorcing spouse
      3) The clergy member's peers, and/or
      4) The respective Pastor-Parish Committee
   c. Refer divorcing persons to special seminars and workshops on divorce which are available periodically in the community.

E. CLERGY HOUSING

1. In the event of the death of a member of the clergy occupying a parsonage, the surviving spouse and family shall be granted the privilege of using the parsonage for a period of time not to exceed sixty (60) days.

2. Housing Standards for Elders in Full Connection.

In this section on Housing Standards for Elders in Full Connection, including Housing Allowances and Parsonage standards, the word "clergy" means "elders in full connection." The standards on Housing Allowances and parsonages apply to those churches that have elders in full connection and that are not receiving an equitable salary support.

The size and make-up of clergy families, and the size, location, and type of housing provided for clergy families by local churches is a major factor in the well-being of clergy families. As such, it has an impact on the effectiveness of clergy.

Although it is clear that no one single provision for housing will completely satisfy all the needs of every clergy family and every local church, the goal is to best satisfy the needs of all.

Housing Allowances

While parsonages have been the traditional means of providing housing for clergy families, there are those local church settings and situations where a housing allowance can be an effective and efficient means of providing housing for clergy families.

However, it must be understood that if a house is purchased by a clergy family, there is the potential for financial hardship and difficulties related to the sale of a house when an appointment change is made.

It must also be understood that a housing allowance will have no effect on the tenure of a pastor, neither increasing nor decreasing the potential length of a pastorate.

1. If a housing allowance is provided by a local church, the amount shall be sufficient to allow for the rental\lease\purchase of housing that meets the parsonage standards of the annual conference.

2. A utility allowance shall be paid in addition to the housing allowance.

3. The amount of the housing allowance and of the utility allowance shall be reviewed on an annual basis to ensure that the amount is adequate.

4. The District Superintendent, in consultation with the pastor and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, shall be responsible for ensuring that these standards are met.

Parsonages

1. Size

   a. In order to accommodate all family sizes as reasonably as possible, and to allow for the greatest flexibility in meeting the needs of clergy families, the parsonage shall contain at least three bedrooms, with four recommended.

   b. There shall be at least two full baths.

   c. There shall be at least one large living area, with two living areas recommended.

   d. There shall be at least one dining area.

   e. There shall be a garage or covered carport adjacent to the house.

   f. The total area of living space shall be approximately 2,000 sq. ft. or more.

2. Location

   a. The parsonage shall be located in a residential neighborhood. (It should not be on a major thoroughfare, nor adjacent to commercial businesses.)

   b. The parsonage shall be located where it will allow for adequate privacy for the clergy family.

3. Interior

a. The kitchen shall include all standard modern appliances (oven, cooktop, dishwasher, disposal, and refrigerator).

b. There shall be a washer and dryer for laundry.

c. There shall be adequate heating and cooling, with central air and heat whenever possible.

d. The parsonage shall have window treatments in every room (e.g., blinds, drapes, or shutters).

e. The clergy family shall be responsible for all other furnishings.

f. All interiors of newly built parsonages shall be accessible for persons with disabilities, including a minimum of (1) one bathroom that has an accessible shower, commode, and lavatory, (2) passageways, garage, rooms, and entrances that are accessible, and (3) consideration is given to the landscaping of the yard.

g. When an appointment is made in which a member of the parsonage family has a disability, the District Superintendent shall see that the existing parsonage be fitted with aids that will enable it to be suitable for persons with disabilities to the extent that the structure of the existing parsonage can be renovated. Consideration for grant moneys from conference agencies shall be given to these churches.

4. Exterior

a. The outside of the parsonage shall be landscaped to complement the house, with adequate shrubs, bushes, and trees.

b. A safe, fenced area shall be provided in the backyard for children and/or pets.

c. The mowing and the upkeep of the yard are to be negotiated between the pastor and the Board of Trustees.

5. Utilities

a. The local church shall pay for the cost of all utilities, including basic television access, except for personal long distance phone calls.

b. In order to minimize fees and deposits, the utilities, including the telephone, shall be in the name of the local church, unless this results in a higher rate schedule.

6. Maintenance

a. The local church Board of Trustees is responsible for the upkeep and repair of the parsonage, including the appliances, and there shall be an annual inspection of the parsonage and property by the Trustees, with a written report made at the local church's annual Charge Conference. It is suggested that all parsonages have an inspection by an engineering or contracting inspector every five years, starting ten years afer they have been purchased or built.

b. The clergy family is responsible for minor upkeep and repairs, and for any damage done to the parsonage by a member or pet of the clergy family, including that caused by smoking.

7. Change of Pastors

a. When there is an impending change of pastors, the pastor shall notify the local church Board of Trustees, and the clergy family and Trustees shall ensure that the parsonage is as clean as possible. Major repairs should be made before the new clergy family arrives.

b. The Trustees shall contact the new clergy family before any painting or refurbishing is done, in order to have their preferences, needs, and suggestions incorporated into any work done on the parsonage.

8. Disposition of Church Owned Furniture

a. Following the 1994 Annual Conference, churches will begin the process of providing unfurnished parsonages, except for the items listed above in C.

9. Compliance

a. The Board of Trustees of each local church shall make a written report on or before its Charge Conference in 1996, demonstrating either compliance with these standards or specific plans to come into compliance with these standards.

The receiving church and moving clergy/family will not be responsible for any part of the expense that is within the Annual Conference Allowance. If a moving company is used that will not bill the Annual Conference directly, then the moving clergy/family is responsible for the bill and will be reimbursed by the Annual Conference for all documented expenses that are within the Annual Conference Allowance. Any documented expenses paid by the moving clergy/family are to be submitted to the receiving District Superintendent. The receiving District Superintendent shall then submit these documented expenses to the Annual Conference Treasurer. The Conference Treasurer shall issue payment to the moving company or the entity that incurred the expense.

c. A written estimate must be submitted to the receiving District Superintendent by May 15 for moves in June, and within one week of the announcement of a midyear move. F. SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

The North Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church affirms the 1996 Book of Resolutions, Sexual Abuse Within the Ministerial Relationship and Sexual Harassment Within the Church, which states that sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship and sexual harassment within the Church are incompatible with biblical teachings of hospitality, justice and healing. In accordance with the 2000 Book of Discipline, ¶ 161(F), we affirm that all human beings, both male and female, are created in the image of God, and thus have been made equal in Christ. As the promise of Galatians 3:26-26 states all are one in Christ, we support equity among all persons without regard to ethnicity, situation or gender.

Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship occurs when a person within a ministerial role of leadership (pastor, educator, counselor, youth leader or other position of leadership) engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, co-worker or volunteer.

Sexual harassment is any unwelcome sexual advance or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating or coercive. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender (2000 Book of Discipline ¶161(I)).

Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship involves a betrayal of sacred trust, a violation of the ministerial role and exploitation of those who are vulnerable. Similarly, sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than as an exclusively sexual issue.

Misconduct of a sexual nature within the life of the Church interferes with its moral mission. The North Texas Annual Conference stands in opposition to the sin of misconduct of a sexual nature in the Church and society at large and commits itself to fair and expedient investigation of any charge of sexual misconduct within the Church and to take action deemed appropriate and in compliance with the Book of Discipline. Further, the Conference bears affirmative responsibility to create an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, which is free of misconduct of a sexual nature and encourages respect, equality and kinship in Christ.

Because experiencing sexual abuse or harassment, and reporting such misconduct, can be difficult and frightening, we believe that the availability of trained advocates or support teams to assist victims of sexual misconduct is important, and we are committed to continuing support for the training and availability of such advocates or support teams.

We recognize that in any incident of sexual misconduct there may be many victims, including the family, friends, and congregation of the direct victim and of the person who has engaged in the misconduct. We therefore affirm as continuing goals for the Conference not only the resolution of complaints and the reconciliation of persons directly involved, but also the healing of all such indirect victims of the misconduct.

Sexual misconduct involving a clergy person should be reported to the clergy person's district superintendent or the presiding bishop. Misconduct involving paid staff, volunteers or other nonclergy persons should be reported to the pastor-in-charge, if any, or to other appropriate persons in accordance with guidelines and procedures that may be adopted by the Conference, by local churches or by other appropriate bodies within the Church.

The North Texas Annual Conference is committed to the continuing, broad dissemination of this Policy Statement and of any guidelines and procedures adopted by the Conference, and to the continuing education of clergy and lay persons within the Conference for the purpose of preventing sexual misconduct and increasing awareness and understanding of the Conference's relevant policies and procedures.

1. PROCEDURES FOR REPORTING CLERGY SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

INTRODUCTION

The North Texas Annual Conference will not tolerate and is committed to the eradication of sexual misconduct by its clergy. The ministerial office is a position of great trust, power and responsibility, offering the opportunity for unique relationships of grace and caring. Sexual misconduct is one of the gravest violations of this trust.

These Procedures are intended to provide a process for reporting incidents of clergy sexual misconduct within the North Texas Annual Conference. They seek to create a safe, non-threatening environment in which aggrieved persons will feel comfortable revealing allegations of sexual misconduct. It is a continuing goal of these Procedures to provide an opportunity for a reconciliation and resolution that respects and protects the rights of all parties and that acknowledges the sacred trust between clergy and the persons they serve. They are not intended to supplant or substitute for the formal complaint process set forth in the 2000 Book of Discipline. The use of these Procedures is voluntary, and the failure to utilize or follow them is not a chargeable offense nor can it be used as grounds for an appeal of the result of any formal complaint, review, investigation, or trial process.

The implementation of these Procedures shall be under the supervision and control of the Bishop and District Superintendents, who shall have the authority to interpret and apply the Procedures.

POLICY

The North Texas Annual Conference's position regarding sexual misconduct is expressed in the Policy Statement on Sexual Misconduct approved and adopted at the 1997 general session of the Annual Conference. These Procedures should be read in conjunction with that Policy Statement and are intended to serve as an aid to the full implementation of the principles underlying the Policy Statement, as they relate to sexual misconduct by clergy within the Annual Conference.

STANDARDS OF PASTORAL CONDUCT

Pastors are accountable for their behavior with respect to the emotional, spiritual and physical well-being of persons who come to them for help or over whom they have any kind of authority. Breach of this pastoral relationship through sexual misconduct is unethical and abusive, even when sexual activity is initiated by the person to whom the pastor is ministering. Because of the trust and imbalance of power in such relationships, the person being ministered to must be presumed to be unable to give meaningful consent to any sexual activity with the pastor.

Because pastors often deal with individuals who are emotionally fragile and vulnerable, it is imperative that pastors:

a. be healthy psychologically, emotionally, and spiritually themselves;

b. have adequate preparation and education for helping individuals under their care;

c. have continued supervision in dealing with the inherent risks caused by dependency and/or transference; and

d. have the information necessary to make appropriate referrals.

Pastoral self-discipline requires self-awareness and takes the Christian standards and ordination vows seriously. Personal integrity and mature professional conduct must be brought to all relationships by every pastor in the Annual Conference. The highest ethic of the pastor similarly prohibits any sexual behavior with a parishioner entrusted to his or her sacred care.

All clergy, single or married, have the responsibility of developing healthy personal relationships. Married clergy have covenanted to nurture and maintain their marriage relationship. When relational or sexual difficulties are present in a pastor's life, appropriate measures to address the difficulties should be taken.

Pastors who are appointed to parishes where there has been alleged sexual misconduct of their predecessor find themselves burdened with the inevitable consequences arising from the misconduct of a colleague. There is a tension between caring for a colleague and caring for the covenant of the pastoral ministry. By "protecting" a colleague, we risk perpetuating a relationship or pattern of abuse and victimization. This compromises the credibility and practice of Christian faith and ministry. Thus the present pastor should take immediate steps, consistent with these Procedures, to address the alleged misconduct.

The procedures for dealing with clergy sexual misconduct place an unfair and unavoidable burden on the victim of such misconduct. It is in the best interest of the church to empower the laity through education and open discussion about what standards of conduct they may expect from their pastors.

DEFINITIONS

For purposes of these Procedures, the following definitions shall apply:

"Sexual misconduct" includes sexual abuse and sexual harassment, as such terms are defined in the Policy Statement. Sexual misconduct may include inappropriate physical contact or verbal behavior, including, for example, behavior that creates a hostile or intimidating environment and the explicit or implicit use of power or authority to coerce someone into sexual contact. Because of the imbalance of power inherent in ministerial relationships, sexual contact between a pastor and someone with whom he or she has a ministerial relationship constitutes sexual abuse even if the other person consents to or initiates the contact. More subtle behavior not involving physical contact may also constitute sexual misconduct. Further discussion and examples of sexual misconduct are included in the brochure entitled "Maintaining healthy relationships: What you should know about clergy sexual misconduct," prepared and distributed by the Division of Conference Relations of the Board of Ordained Ministry of the North Texas Annual Conference.

An "allegation" is an initial report, either verbal or written, of an alleged incident of clergy sexual misconduct.

A "complaint" is a written and signed statement claiming misconduct, as set forth in Paragraph 359.1(a) of the 2000 Book of Discipline.

An "aggrieved person" is a person who has experienced sexual misconduct by a pastor.

The terms "clergy" and "pastor" shall refer to all persons described in Paragraph 359.1(a) of the 2000 Book of Discipline, which includes "local pastors, associate members, probationary members, and full members" of the Annual Conference, "including those on leaves of all types, honorable or administrative location, or retirement."

A "Resource Person" is a trained person made available by the Annual Conference to assist and support aggrieved persons in bringing an allegation or complaint of sexual misconduct, as more fully described below.

CONFIDENTIALITY AND REPORTING

Allegations of sexual misconduct should be kept in the strictest of confidence and disclosed only at the times and under the circumstances specifically provided in these Procedures. The spread of such allegations or accusations between colleagues in ministry or within congregations is harmful to the victim, the accused and to the integrity of the processes outlined in these Procedures and in the 2000 Book of Discipline.

However, when clergy sexual misconduct occurs, the protection of victims, both past, present, and potential, requires that the misconduct be reported. Because of the covenant with the church which is an integral part of the pastoral office, it is a pastor's responsibility to call an offending pastor into account by immediately reporting information about sexual misconduct to his or her District Superintendent, the District Superintendent of the accused or the Bishop.

Pastors who become aware of an alleged incident of sexual misconduct by another pastor are to do their utmost to encourage and support aggrieved persons and to assist in the initiation of an allegation as provided in these Procedures. Every allegation of sexual misconduct must be taken seriously, and in no case should a pastor judge the validity of the allegation.

The requirement of confidentiality shall not prevent the Bishop or the District Superintendents from discussing allegations and related information with affected congregations, staff/pastor-parish relations committees or others to whom it is necessary to make such disclosure, in accordance with the Book of Discipline, in order to protect actual or potential victims, to promote healing or for other appropriate purposes.

Although truth-telling is essential, respect must also be given to the role of pastors in receiving confessions and the sanctity of confidential relations. Nothing in these Procedures shall be deemed to require or permit a pastor to report or reveal information received in confidence as contemplated by Paragraph 332.5 of the 2000 Book of Discipline and relevant decisions of the Judicial Council.

PROCEDURES

When sexual misconduct is alleged against a pastor, persons bringing allegations will be received in a respectful and caring manner. All allegations will be considered worthy of full investigation, with due respect for the presumption of innocence. Care will be taken to deal fairly and promptly with all those involved. This includes the aggrieved and his/her family, the accused and his/her family and the congregation or other institution.

The following procedures are established to facilitate the reporting of allegations of clergy sexual misconduct:

1. Aggrieved persons are encouraged to contact one of the Resource Persons, a District Superintendent, or the Bishop. An allegation may be brought by the aggrieved person or by anyone who has verifiable knowledge or reasonable indication of sexual misconduct and is willing to pursue a resolution. This may include, for example, a pastor or lay person in whom the aggrieved person has confided or who has reliable information from other sources about the misconduct.

2. The Resource Person, District Superintendent, or the Bishop to whom the allegation is brought shall explain these Procedures to the aggrieved person or other person bringing the allegation and advise them that use of the Procedures is not a prerequisite to an aggrieved person's ability to bring a formal complaint.

3. If an allegation is brought initially to a District Superintendent, the District Superintendent shall advise the Bishop that the allegation has been received. If the aggrieved person has not selected a Resource Person, the Bishop may assign one to assist and support the aggrieved person.

4. The Resource Person selected or assigned shall provide full assistance to the aggrieved person throughout the process, including the following:

   a. confirming that the aggrieved person understands these Procedures and the procedures contained in the Book of Discipline;

   b. verifying and clarifying the allegation with the aggrieved person; and

   c. requesting the aggrieved person to prepare, with the assistance of the Resource Person as needed, a written statement of the allegation, which shall include a description, in reasonable detail, of the alleged sexual misconduct and related events, circumstances, and dates.

5. If a complaint is forwarded to the Bishop or a District Superintendent, Paragraph 359 of the 2000 Book of Discipline shall determine the process to be followed. These Procedures are not intended to limit in any way the actions the Bishop or District Superintendents may take in connection with their supervisory response to a complaint of sexual misconduct or to impose any duties on them inconsistent with the 2000 Book of Discipline or relevant decisions of the Judicial Council. The Resource Person may continue to assist and support the aggrieved person throughout the complaint process and may attend all meetings held in connection with the process.

6. Strict confidentiality shall be maintained before, during and after the conduct of the process outlined in these Procedures, and information regarding allegations shall be disclosed only in such manner and to such persons as specifically provided herein.

7. Because of the pain and disruption that necessarily accompany sexual misconduct, it may be necessary for certain actions to be taken following the conclusion of the processes outlined in these Procedures and in the 2000 Book of Discipline. The Bishop and District Superintendents are encouraged to take or require such actions as they deem necessary and appropriate in their best judgment, which actions may include, for example, processes for healing within the affected congregation or institution, further resolution of unresolved conflicts and support or counseling for aggrieved persons or accused pastors.

These Procedures establish a process for reporting incidents of sexual misconduct by any pastor (as defined above). They are not designed to address allegations or complaints of sexual misconduct by the Bishop or a District Superintendent. Persons who believe they have been affected by sexual misconduct by the Bishop or a District Superintendent may contact one of the Resource Persons for information and assistance in bringing a complaint in accordance with procedures contained in the 2000 Book of Discipline.

RESOURCE PERSONS ON THE ISSUE OF SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Resource Persons are volunteers available to assist persons who believe they may have been the victims of clergy sexual misconduct. Resource Persons are lay persons who have been trained to provide such assistance. The Bishop, or persons acting at the Bishop's direction, shall have the authority and responsibility for administering the sexual misconduct Resource Person program, recruiting volunteers to serve as Resource Persons and ensuring that necessary resources are available and properly utilized. However, Resource Persons shall be independent and shall not be employed by the Annual Conference or any related church body.

The Annual Conference is committed to the continuing education and proper training of Resource Persons. Resource Persons shall attend training recommended or approved by the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women or another body of the General Church provided for the purpose of training volunteers to assist victims of sexual misconduct.

Resource Persons are expected to work cooperatively with the Bishop, the District Superintendents and others involved in the process, but shall at all times represent the interests of the aggrieved person. A Resource Person shall actively assist and support the aggrieved person throughout the process, to the end that the aggrieved person is empowered to reclaim his or her voice and that the churches within the Annual Conference may once again be a place of sanctuary.

It is intended that the Resource Persons shall be the initial point of contact with these Procedures for any person who desires to use them for that purpose. A person who believes that he or she may have been the victim of clergy sexual misconduct need not register an allegation or complaint, formally or informally, before calling a Resource Person, nor does any person need permission from any level of the United Methodist Church to contact a Resource Person. An aggrieved person does not have to identify himself or herself to make an initial contact with a Resource Person.

Functions performed by the Resource Persons shall include:

1. explaining the church's processes and procedures;

2. providing resources and referrals;

3. helping the aggrieved person prepare a written summary of the allegation and, if necessary, a formal complaint when requested to do so;

4. accompanying the aggrieved person to meetings held in connection with these Procedures, or in connection with the complaint process as allowed by the 2000 Book of Discipline; and

5. calling to the attention of the Bishop and those administering the Resource Person Program any hostile, vindictive or insensitive situations that arise during the process outlined in these Procedures or the complaint process, or any failure properly to follow these Procedures or the complaint process outlined in the 2000 Book of Discipline.

6. giving feedback to those administering the Resource Person program regarding observations of helpful and hurtful situations arising during the process.

The Bishop and the District Superintendents or the persons administering the Resource Person program are encouraged to ensure that information about the Resource Persons, including telephone numbers at which they may be contacted, is broadly disseminated and readily available to interested persons throughout the Annual Conference.

PRIORITY OF THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE

If any provision of these Procedures is in conflict with the 2000 Book of Discipline, or any subsequent Book of Discipline, the Book of Discipline shall prevail and the conflicting provision shall be deemed automatically deleted from these Procedures. Such conflict shall not be grounds for invalidating these Procedures as a whole or any nonconflicting provisions.

2. PROCEDURES FOR REPORTING AND ADDRESSING SEXUAL MISCONDUCT BY PERSONS OTHER THAN CLERGY

Each local church shall establish its own policy statement on sexual misconduct, consistent with the Book of Discipline and the policy statement of the North Texas Annual Conference, and shall establish guidelines and procedures for reporting and resolving incidents of sexual misconduct by persons other than clergy, including paid staff, counselors, lay volunteers or others. In furtherance of this objective, the District Superintendents shall distribute to all local churches a copy of the Memorandum dated December 9, 1996, and its enclosures, on this topic prepared by the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women and the General Council on Finance and Administration.

3. EDUCATION WITHIN THE CONFERENCE RELATING TO SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

DISSEMINATION OF POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

The Bishop, District Superintendents, and Resource Person(s) shall each have a copy of and thoroughly know the Policy Statement on Sexual Misconduct, Procedures for Reporting Clergy Sexual Misconduct in the North Texas Conference and be responsible for distributing such Policy and Procedures to clergy and local church chairs of Staff Parish Relations Committees, Administrative Councils, United Methodist Men, and United Methodist Women annually as these persons are elected. The clergy and the chair of the Staff Parish Relations Committee of every local church in the North Texas Conference shall have a copy of and be familiar with the Policy Statement on Sexual Misconduct, Procedures for Reporting Clergy Sexual Misconduct in the North Texas Conference and the complaint process outlined in the 2000 Book of Discipline.

The Policy and Procedures of the North Texas Conference will be available to anyone who requests a copy.

Local churches will make available to their congregations copies of the brochure entitled "Maintaining healthy relationships: What you should know about clergy sexual misconduct" and publish the name and telephone numbers of the Resource Person (s). Throughout the year, copies of the brochure will be placed in accessible locations within local churches.

TRAINING AND EDUCATION

The North Texas Conference shall provide annual training to educate the clergy and laity about the complaint process in the event of allegations of sexual misconduct and to heighten awareness of the clergy and laity about the seriousness of the problem of sexual misconduct, thereby aiding in the prevention of this problem in our local churches.

The goals of the training include the following:

- to explain the abuse of power and dynamics of trust in abusive relationships;
- to provide behavioral definitions of sexual abuse and sexual harassment;
- to describe the impact on the victim, the perpetrator, the families, and the church;
- to explain the Policy and Procedures of the North Texas Conference and the United Methodist Church regarding sexual misconduct;
- to explain legal responsibilities regarding minors;
- to introduce the Resource Person(s) and clarify their role;
- to define the risk to church vitality, attendance and giving, liability to individuals, congregations, and the annual conference;
- to discuss the importance of healing and how the church is an agent in the healing process;
- to explain the need for preventative measures;
- to discuss the importance of local church policies and procedures addressing issues of sexual misconduct;
- to distribute copies of the brochure entitled "Maintaining healthy relationships: What you should know about clergy sexual misconduct," and to explain its purpose and educational use; and
- to provide resources for local churches

Training will be provided separately for clergy and laity. Professionals from the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women and/or others trained and knowledgeable about the issues of sexual misconduct will conduct the training. There will be a nominal cost to participants to help defray the training expense.

The chairs of the Order of Deacons, Order of Elders, Fellowship of Local Pastors, and Fellowship of Diaconal Ministers, in conjunction with the Cabinet and Board of Ordained Ministry, will be responsible for planning and organizing the training for clergy and diaconal ministers. Pastors and diaconal ministers from every local church or charge in the North Texas Conference and those in extension ministries and the District Superintendents will receive an announcement regarding the clergy training. Clergy and diaconal ministers will be expected to attend training a minimum of once every three years.

The Board of Laity, United Methodist Women and the United Methodist Men jointly will plan and coordinate training for the laity. The laity training will be held during the first quarter of each year in at least four different locations around the conference. Persons in the following leadership positions, or their equivalent, in local churches in the North Texas Conference will be notified about the laity training: Lay Leader, Administrative Board/Council Chair, Council on Ministries Chair, Staff Parish Relations Committee Chair, United Methodist Women President, United Methodist Men President, Trustees Chair, Commission on the Status and Role of Women Chair, and the pastor(s) who will distribute the information to any other lay staff or leaders in the church who might need to attend the training. The lay leaders and lay staff will be strongly encouraged to attend training the first year of their leadership.

Upon return to their local churches clergy and laity will be urged to share the information they learned, place brochures entitled "Maintaining healthy relationships: What you should know about clergy sexual misconduct"with the name and phone number of the Resource Person(s) in a visible place in the church, and adopt local church policies and procedures on reporting and addressing sexual misconduct. In addition, clergy and laity will be encouraged to seek ways to educate, inform, and sensitize their congregation about the issues surrounding sexual misconduct, the violation of trust and Christian covenant involved, and the resources available for healing.

4. TRAINING OF THE RESOURCE PERSON(S)

A "Resource Person" is a trained person made available by the Annual Conference to assist and support aggrieved persons in bringing an allegation or complaint of sexual misconduct, as more fully described in the North Texas Conference Procedures for Reporting Incidents of Clergy Sexual Misconduct.

The Annual Conference is committed to the continuing education and proper training of Resource Persons. Resource Persons shall attend training recommended or approved by the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women or another body of the General Church provided for the purpose of training volunteers to assist victims of sexual misconduct.

As it is the Bishop's, or persons acting at the Bishop's direction, responsibility for administering the sexual misconduct resource person(s) program, it is, along with the Conference Commission on the Status and Role of Women, the Bishop's, or persons acting at the Bishop's direction, responsibility to insure the Resource Person(s) is trained in the following areas:

- roles and expectations of the Resource Person(s);
- local organization of the United Methodist Church;
- leaders and their leadership positions in the North Texas Conference;
- church resources such as the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women;
- the North Texas Conference Policy Statement on Sexual Misconduct and Procedures for Reporting Incidents of Clergy Sexual Misconduct; and
- the Book of Discipline and relevant Judicial Council rulings.

To obtain the latest information available and to upgrade skills, once a year the Resource Person(s) will attend continuing education training.

5. PROCEDURES FOR THE SCREENING OF APPLICANTS

The North Texas Conference currently utilizes screening procedures for volunteers at the conference level and offers the service to local churches. We encourage all local churches to employ these procedures or comparable ones to screen volunteers and staff, particularly those volunteers and staff who work with children and youth.

G. MISCELLANEOUS

1. Conflict of Interests. In order to avoid conflicts of interest, the following rules shall apply:

   a. No one shall be a voting member of an Agency who is in the salaried employment of an institution that receives support from that Agency.

   b. No member of an Agency shall participate in that Agency's deliberation of or vote on a proposed grant to his or her local church.

   c. Each member of an Agency shall disclose to all other members of that Agency all potential conflicts of interest in which they find themselves placed because of church, business, or personal relationships with persons affected by the decisions of the Agency.

   d. No clergy member or diaconal minister member of this Annual Conference who is a salaried employee of any institution to which this conference contributes shall be a member of the board of trustees of the institution by which that person is employed.

2. Local Church Officers. The term of office of local church officials elected by the Fall Charge Conference shall begin on January 1 and run for the length of their term.

3. Amending or Suspending Standing Rules. It shall require a two-thirds vote of all lay and clergy members present and voting to suspend or to amend any of these Standing Rules.

III. PROCEDURES FOR MEETINGS OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

A. PRE-CONFERENCE PROCEDURES

1. Lay-Clergy Equalization. The following formula is the procedure used to determine the number of lay and clergy members of the Annual Conference.

   a. Subtract the total number of lay members prior to equalization from the total number of clergy members. In making this calculation, the lay members required by section III(A)(1)(c) below shall be included. These people are described in section (c) below. The remainder is the Lay Equalization Factor (LEF).

   b. Compute the District Membership Percentage (DMP) for each district as follows. If a district has more lay members than clergy members prior to equalization, subtract the number of local church members in this district from the total of local church members for the Annual Conference. Such districts will not compute a DMP. The resulting number is the Adjusted Lay Membership (ALM). Next, for each district that has fewer lay than clergy members, divide the total number of local church members in each district by the ALM. The resulting quotient is the DMP for that district.

c. The Book of Discipline provides that certain persons shall be lay members to Annual Conference. According to ¶ 30 of the 2000 Book of Discipline, these are: President of United Methodist Women; President of United Methodist Men; Lay Leader; District Lay Leaders; President of the Council on Youth Ministries; and two young persons under twenty-five years of age from each district. In addition, all Diaconal Ministers who are in full-time service appointment, all members of the Conference Leadership Team not otherwise provided for, and all elected Chairs of Agencies of the Annual Conference not otherwise provided for are lay members of the Annual Conference with voice and vote. These persons shall be elected to the lay membership of the Annual Conference by the District Section.

d. For each district with fewer lay than clergy members, multiply the LEF by the DMP. The product is the District Adjusted Lay Equalization Factor (DALEF). The DALEF is the number of additional lay members to be elected by the District Section to achieve lay/clergy equalization. Districts with more lay than clergy members do not calculate a DALEF.

e. The DALEF shall be computed as of January 1. The equalization lay members shall be elected by the lay members present at the District Conference from nominations made by the District Lay Leader, the District Superintendent, and the Lay members of the District Nominating Committee. Nominations may also be made from the floor of the District Section.

f. If the actual number of clergy in the Annual Conference increases after January 1, the District Lay Leader of a district in which the imbalance occurs shall select lay member(s) from within the district to equalize the increase of clergy members.

g. If the formula fails to compute the exact number of additional lay persons per district to equalize lay and clergy numbers (due to the use of fractions in calculations), the Board of Laity shall be authorized to correct the imbalance through negotiation.

h. After the DALEF has been determined, the Board of Laity as a courtesy may rearrange among districts the number of lay members to be elected, in order that a district that has more lay members than clergy prior to equalization may elect additional lay members in its District Section.

i. Lay members elected under an equalization process by the District Section shall take office immediately and shall serve until the District Section elects lay members for the succeeding year.

2. Election of Local Church Lay Members to Annual Conference. The lay members to the Annual Conference may be elected annually or quadrennially at the Charge Conference preceding the regular quadrennial meeting of the General Conference. The term of office of lay members to Annual Conference shall begin on January 1 after their election at the Fall Charge Conference.

If, for any reason, the Charge Conference is delayed until after January 1, their term of office shall begin immediately upon election.

3. Notice of Legislative Items. Agencies shall submit reports and legislation to the conference office in the form requested no later than April 1 for inclusion in the Conference Workbook. Any Annual Conference member or Agency may initiate legislative items at Annual Conference concerning matters which are not part of the Conference Workbook only if they are duplicated and distributed to Annual Conference members by the beginning of the day they are to be considered. This rule shall not be construed so as to preclude proper subsidiary motions or privileged motions.

4. Proposed Amendments to Standing Rules. In order that the Standing Rules Committee have time to consider proposals and forward them to the conference office by the April 1 deadline, proposed new standing rules and proposed changes in existing standing rules shall be submitted to the Standing Rules Committee no later than March 1.

5. Notice of Procedural Rules. Each year, the charts entitled "Common Motions: Ranking and Requirements (by function)" and "Motions: Ranking and Requirements (by rank)" shall be included in the Pre-Conference Workbook.

B. RULES OF ORDER FOR ANNUAL CONFERENCE SESSIONS

1. Purpose of Rules of Order. These rules of order are intended to allow the orderly consideration of the business of the Annual Conference, extend courtesy and fairness to all, ensure the right of the majority, protect the rights of the minority, and defend the rights of individual members.

2. Definitions. As used in these Standing Rules, the following definitions shall apply.

a. Adjourn. End a meeting officially. Adjournment is accomplished either by direct majority vote or by unanimous consent.

b. Agenda. List of items of business that the members of Annual Conference will consider. An agenda has a specific arrangement and content.

c. Amend. Change a resolution or motion by adding, striking out, or substituting a word or phrase.

d. Appeal. A question that occurs when a member of Annual Conference questions (appeals) a decision by the presiding bishop because the member believes that an error in procedure has occurred. An appeal must have a second. The decision of the presiding bishop is sustained by a majority vote or a tie vote.

e. Call for orders of the day. A motion that brings to the presiding bishop's attention the fact that a specific item of business was due to come up in the meeting at a specified time.

f. Dividing the question. Separation of the parts of a motion to be considered and voted on as if they were separate motions.

g. Floor. The right of a person to address the Annual Conference and have the members' undivided attention.

h. Main motion. Method of introducing new business to the Annual Conference session. Only one main motion can be under consideration at a time.

i. Majority. More than half of the members present and voting on an issue. Those who do not vote are not counted in the final tally.

j. Motion. Proposal for action by the Annual Conference. A motion is introduced with the words, "I move that _____," (with the wording intended to become the Annual Conference's official statement of action taken if the motion is passed).

k. Parliamentary inquiry. A request for an immediate answer to a question concerning the rules of procedure. It is directed to the presiding bishop.

l. Point of information. A request directed to the presiding bishop for an immediate answer to a question concerning the background or content of a motion or resolution. The information requested does not pertain to procedure.

m. Point of order. A point raised against any proceeding or motion that the member believes is a violation of the rules. It must be raised at the time of the alleged infraction. The presiding bishop rules on the validity of the point of order. This ruling can be appealed.

n. Precedence of motion. Claim of a motion to the "right of way" over another motion. The attached charts summarize the precedence of various motions.

o. Presiding bishop. The Bishop of the North Texas Annual Conference, or a another bishop designated by that Bishop, shall preside over sessions of the Annual Conference.

p. Previous question. Motion to close debate and vote immediately on a motion. Moving the previous question requires a second, is not debatable or amendable, and needs a two-thirds vote for adoption.

q. Question of privilege. If there is something wrong with the physical surroundings or a situation arises that affects the rights of the entire assembly, any individual member can interrupt the motion under consideration to bring the matter to the attention of the presiding bishop. If the situation cannot be resolved informally, then the presiding bishop rules on whether the matter is a question of privilege and should be considered before business is resumed.

r. Reconsider. Motion to review a previous decision and vote on it again. It must be made by a person who voted on the prevailing (winning) side, and it requires a majority vote. Reconsideration may not be moved more than once on the same motion.

s. Second. Indication that a member wants a motion discussed by the members. The member says, "I second the motion" or "Second."

t. Table. Motion to place a main motion and all pending amendments aside temporarily, with the intention of bringing them back at a later time for action. Tabling a motion requires a second, is not debatable, cannot be amended, and requires a majority vote.

u. Take from the table. Motion to bring a previously tabled motion back before the Annual Conference. It requires a second, is not debatable, cannot be amended, and requires a majority vote.

v. Two-thirds vote. This occurs when there are twice as many people voting "Yes" as those who are voting "No."

w. Withdraw a motion. Take back a motion one has made. A person may withdraw a motion by merely requesting to do so up until the time it is stated by the presiding bishop. After the presiding bishop has stated the motion, the person who made it can withdraw it only by the consent of the members.

3. Order of Business. The order of business of the meeting of Annual Conference shall be determined by the Annual Conference Planning Committee, which shall set an Agenda. The session shall open with a period of devotion, followed by a call of the roll, including the roll of the local pastors.

4. Authority of the Presiding Bishop.
Calling the Conference to order. When the presiding bishop stands in his or her place and calls the Annual Conference session to order, no member shall speak, address the chair, or stand while the presiding bishop stands.

Raising points of order. Any member of Annual Conference may raise a point of order. In order to do so, the member must cite specifically the rule he or she judges to have been violated.

Ruling on points of order. The presiding bishop shall decide points of order, whether raised by a member or by the presiding bishop, as necessary to conform to these Standing Rules.

Appealing a ruling on a point of order. Any member may appeal a decision on a point of order to the Annual Conference. In the event of such an appeal, there shall be no debate. However, the presiding bishop shall have five minutes to make a statement in support of his or her position, and then the person appealing shall have five minutes to make a statement in support of his or her position. Following the statements, the Annual Conference shall vote on the appeal; a tie vote shall sustain the presiding bishop.

Recessing the session. The presiding bishop shall have the right to recess a session of the Annual Conference at any time at his or her discretion and to reconvene at such times as he or she shall announce.

5. Opening a Question for Debate. Before any subject is open to debate, three things must happen. First, a member must actually make a motion that the Annual Conference consider a particular issue. Second, in most instances, the motion must also be seconded. (Calls for orders of the day, calling a member to order, Agency recommendations, nominations, parliamentary inquiries, points of information, and withdrawal of motions do not require a second.) Third, the presiding bishop must restate the motion. For example, the presiding bishop may say, "A motion has been made and seconded that _____. The motion is open to debate."

6. Obtaining the Floor. When a member desires the floor, he or she shall proceed to a microphone and wait to be recognized by the presiding bishop. Each speaker should begin by stating his or her name and the church, charge, or other entity he or she represents. A member with the floor may be interrupted only to call for orders of the day, a point of order, a point of information, a parliamentary inquiry, or an appeal of the decision of the chair. A person who cuts off another speaker must state the reasons for the interruption. It is the sense of the Annual Conference that a speaker with the floor should not be interrupted, even for these listed reasons, unless the issue cannot wait until the speaker yields the floor.

7. Limits on Speakers. A member may speak for up to five minutes at one time on any question under discussion and only twice on the same question. No member shall speak for the second time until all members seeking recognition have had the opportunity to speak. The Annual Conference, by two-thirds vote, may change the rules about how often and how long members can speak during a debate.

8. Types and Precedence of Motions. There are four main types of motions: (1) main motions; (2) subsidiary motions; (3) incidental motions; and (4) privileged motions. Each type of motion

a. Main motions. A main motion introduces a new item of business. Only one main motion can be considered at a time. Generally, main motions are secondable, debatable, amendable, require a majority vote, and can be reconsidered.

b. Subsidiary Motions. Subsidiary motions are motions applied to other motions to help the members dispose of the main motion. Here are the five subsidiary motions: table; previous question; postpone to a certain time; refer to Agency or committee; amend. These subsidiary motions fit into an order of precedence. This means that some subsidiary motions take precedence over others, and all subsidiary motions must be decided before the members can act on the main motion. This is the order of precedence for the subsidiary motions: 1) to table; 2) to move the previous question; 3) to postpone to a certain time; 4) to refer to committee; and 5) to amend. You can make any of these subsidiary motions when a lower order motion is on the floor, but you cannot make a subsidiary motion if a higher order one is being considered.

c. Incidental Motions and Inquiries. Incidental motions must relate directly to the business on the floor. Incidental motions take precedence over all other motions except privileged ones. They are: appeals; divisions of the question; and suspending the rules. In addition, incidental inquiries are proper and have precedence over main and subsidiary motions. Parliamentary inquiries, points of order, and points of information fall into this category. All three are answered by the presiding bishop.

d. Privileged Motions. Privileged motions are different from subsidiary and incidental motions, because they do not deal with business on the floor. Rather, they deal with special matters of pressing importance. The three privileged motions (in order of precedence) are: adjourning; questions of privilege, and orders of the day.

The attached charts set out the precedence of motions and specify which motions need a second, which can be debated, which can be amended, and what vote is necessary for passage.

9. Tabling Related Motions. No motion which adheres to another motion, or has another motion adhering to it, can be laid on the table by itself. Such motions, if laid on the table, carry with them the motions to which they respectively adhere, or which adhere to them.

10. Referring Matters to Agency. It shall be proper for the Annual Conference to refer to an Agency or specially created committee a motion, resolution, report, or a part of a motion, resolution, or report which is before the Annual Conference for consideration, or any amendment offered thereto.

11. Substitutes. When a motion, resolution or Agency report is properly before the Annual Conference for consideration and action, even if amendments have been proposed, a substitute motion, resolution, or report may be offered by any member moving that the same be substituted for the report or resolution under consideration. The Annual Conference shall then proceed first to perfect the original motion, resolution or report, including consideration and action upon any amendments which may be offered to it. The same perfecting process shall then be followed with respect to the substitute. The question shall then be put first on the motion to substitute, followed by the motion to adopt the motion, resolution, or report. However, a motion for the previous question shall not be in order on the adoption of the report or recommendation or on making the proposed substitution until opportunity has been given for at least two members to speak on each side of the question of substitution or adoption.

12. Moving for a Vote on the Previous Question. No member may call for a vote on the previous question until at least three members have been given the opportunity to speak on each side of a question. When any member moves the previous question (that is, that the vote be now taken on the motion or motions pending), that member shall indicate the question to which they intend it to apply. If the movant does not so indicate, the motion shall apply only to the immediately pending question. A motion for a vote on the previous question is not debatable. It requires a vote of two-thirds of those present and voting for its adoption. If the motion for a vote on the previous question passes, the vote shall be taken on the previous question without further debate.

13. No Motion After Speech. It shall not be in order for a member immediately after discussing a pending question, and before relinquishing the floor, to make a motion whose adoption would limit or stop debate.

14. Reconsideration. A motion to reconsider an action of the Annual Conference shall be in order at any time, but only if offered by a member who voted with the prevailing side. If the motion proposed for reconsideration is non-debatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated.

15. Voting Generally. Voting rights shall be governed by the Book of Discipline. Voting procedures shall be determined by the Annual Conference Planning Committee, depending on the technology available at the site of the Annual Conference session. If the method generally used is not already secret, a vote by secret ballot may be ordered on call of any member, supported by one-third of the members present and voting. No other business shall be in order when a vote is being taken or when the previous question has been called until the voting process is completed, except such as relates to the vote itself, or business that can be appropriately fitted into the time while waiting for the report on the vote.

16. Dividing the Question. Before a vote is taken, any member shall have the right to call for a division of any question, if it is subject to such division as they indicate. If no member objects, the division shall be made. If any member objects and is seconded, the presiding bishop shall put the question of division to vote.

17. Robert's Rules of Order. Questions of procedure not answered by these Standing Rules shall be determined in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised (2000), except when they are inconsistent with these Standing Rules or the Book of Discipline.

CONFERENCE LEADERSHIP TEAM

The work of the Conference Leadership Team focused on several areas this year, resulting in the appointment of five task forces. One task force completed its work; four are still in process. These include:

Vision 2020 Policy, Procedures and Structure Task Force, Gary Mueller, Chair
This task force was charged with studying how Vision 2020 policies and procedures could be better integrated into the existing conference structure. Recommendations were made and adopted at the fall meeting. Several of the task force's recommendations impacted Standing Rules and can be found in the legislative proposals of the Standing Rules Committee.

Task Force to Address Retiree Medical Liability, Mike Nichols, Chair

Task Force to Consider Conference-wide Property and Liability Insurance Program
Rusty Hedges, Chair (written report follows)

Planning and Design Task Force for Dismantling Racism, Sally Vonner, Chair
With the help of Crossroads Ministry of Chicago, an organization dedicated to dismantling racism, this task force created a proposal adopted at the spring meeting that calls for the establishment of a 40-member Anti-Racism Team for the purpose of analyzing, educating, organizing and helping build a multicultural, anti-racist institution. Recruitment of the 40-member team began at Annual Conference.

Task Force on the Sunday School, Jim Pledger, Chair
With statistics showing that Sunday School attendance is the conference's only area of decline, a lengthy discussion at the Conference Leadership Team retreat in February resulted in the naming of this task force. The task force held its initial meeting May 17.

The following pages will report on the various activities of conference agencies, all of whom have representatives who sit on the Conference Leadership Team. We look forward to celebrating the mission and ministry of the United Methodist Church in the north Texas area.

TASK FORCE TO CONSIDER CONFERENCE-WIDE PROPERTY AND LIABILITY INSURANCE PROGRAM

The Conference Leadership Team appointed a Task Force to consider the feasibility of a conference -wide property and liability insurance program at its meeting on September 12, 2000. The Leadership Team sees this as a stewardship issue as local churches and the annual conference seek to do the best we can to safeguard the resources that are entrusted to us.

Twenty-two annual conferences now have such a program. Local churches in those conferences are getting broader insurance coverage at higher limits and for lower premiums than they could on their own. In addition, churches that did not have certain kinds of coverage like workers comp or sexual misconduct liability insurance are now able to have them as a part of a conference-wide plan.

The Task Force is composed of representatives from the Conference Board of Trustees, the Board of Ministry, the Council on Finance and Administration, the Cabinet and the Conference Staff, as well as additional persons named for their expertise. Assistance is also being received from the Risk Management Department of GCFA.

After completing appropriate preliminary orientation, the Task Force asked every church in the conference to complete and return a Property and Liability Insurance Survey. Responses to the survey were received from approximately 65% of the conference churches. A review of the information provided revealed a lack of coverage at some local churches in the following areas:

Replacement Cost Coverage with the Coinsurance Clause waived on Church Property
Boiler and Machinery Breakdown Coverage
Business Income Coverage
General Liability Coverage to protect Employees and Volunteers
Employee Benefits Liability
Pastoral Professional Liability
Directors and Officers Liability
Employment Practices Liability
Sexual Misconduct/Sexual Abuse Coverage
Hired and Non-Owned Automobile Liability including Employees and Volunteers Umbrella Liability
Workers' Compensation Insurance
Foreign Liability Coverage

In addition, inadequate limits of coverage were found on some local churches' policies that were included with the survey.

Seeing a clear need for the more adequate coverage made possible through a conference-wide program, the Task Force prepared the specifications for a Request For Proposal, which was sent to those insurance companies identified as specializing in the coverage of churches. Unfortunately, only one proposal was returned and it was not satisfactory. The other companies contacted declined to submit a proposal citing concern over the amount of claims for wind and hail damage in recent years in this area and a lack of time.

The Task Force requested and received authorization from the Conference Leadership Team to continue its work and plans to provide information and educational materials to help the churches of the conference further consider their insurance needs. The Task Force anticipates working with the District Superintendents during next fall's Charge Conferences to consider the adequacy of each church's insurance coverage and to receive the remainder of the surveys. A checklist of minimum coverages will be provided.

With the encouragement of the Conference Leadership Team, the Cabinet, the Conference Board of Trustees and the Council on Finance and Administration, the Task Force will also do further research and seek proposals from insurance companies for a conference-wide property and liability program again next year.

CONFERENCE-WIDE TASK FORCE TO ADDRESS THE RETIREE MEDICAL LIABILITY

The cost of providing retiree health benefits will be the most significant financial issue we face in the coming years. This liability is not new; however, it has only recently begun to be recognized by the church in general. Retiree medical benefit liabilities are financial obligations that arise from expected future medical benefits. These benefits are provided to clergy (and potentially lay employees) for previous service.

During the past two decades the business community has become aware of the magnitude and importance of retiree health liabilities. The federal government implemented the new rule that defined how retiree health obligations and costs were to be recorded in corporate financial statements in December 1990. It is known as "Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement Number 106" or FAS 106. As a result, many businesses had substantial reductions in reported earnings and responded by introducing programs to manage these benefit costs. Some companies dropped retiree health benefits altogether.

The United Methodist Church has been insulated from this issue since our benefits are provided through a multi-employer plan. Multi-employer plans have been exempt from FAS 106 reporting, so annual conferences have not been required to measure the obligations or report the long term costs on their financial statements. Each year's health benefit costs have simply been paid and accounted for as a current year operating cost for that year ("Pay-As-You-Go"). With this method of financing, the cost of retiree medical benefits is borne by the conference after active clergy retire. (The alternative method of financing is "Funding," which involves timely contributions being made on behalf of the active workforce to an interest-bearing fund to be used to purchase medical coverage at retirement. The conversion to "Funding" also includes addressing the liability incurred to date.)

A number of other factors have caused denominational leaders to think that these costs must be reported and addressed. As a denomination, the average age of our active clergy is 52 and the average age of those entering seminary is 41. In the foreseeable future there will be more retired participants covered by our health insurance plans than participants in active ministry. Other factors include scientific advances which are enabling ministers and their spouses to live longer, and the fact that the technology which is enabling us to live longer is dramatically increasing medical costs, particularly for the elderly. These factors, coupled with the Balanced Budget Act of 1997, which was intended to reduce Medicare spending by $115 billion over five years, make "Funding" for retiree medical benefits vs. "Pay-As-You-Go" more critical than ever. With retiree medical cash flow ("Pay-As-You-Go") expenses for annual conferences expected to triple in the next 15 years, it is important to address the funding of these benefits as soon as possible.
The current Retiree Medical Valuation for the North Texas Conference prepared by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits' Actuarial staff reports our total retiree medical liability to be $39 million. The assumptions of this valuation do not include the current level of cost sharing by our participants. Neither do they include any additions to our current active workforce or any future plan design changes.

The Conference Leadership Team appointed a Conference-Wide Task Force to Address the Retiree Medical Liability at its meeting on September 12, 2000. The Task Force is comprised of representatives of the Commission on Insurance, the Board of Pensions, the Council on Finance and Administration, the Cabinet and the Conference staff, as well as persons named for their expertise. Assistance is also being provided by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The Task Force has met three times and completed preliminary orientation work.

The 2000 Discipline requires the submission of a Retiree Medical Valuation, as well as a formal funding plan for the conference's pre-1982 pension liability, to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits by July 15, 2002. The information from these documents will then be submitted to the 2004 General Conference. Plans to fund these benefits will be developed by the Task Force, the new conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits, and the Council on Finance and Administration during the coming year before being presented to the Annual Conference session for approval in 2002. We are confident that we will be able to develop plans to meet these obligations and continue to provide the benefits promised to our retirees and spouses as well as our active participants.

MISSION OFFICE

"Collaboration" has been the key word as the various agencies related to the Mission Office worked together to resource our local churches and connect them together in common ministry. New partnerships made possible through strengthened relationships with our general boards and agencies, as well as our Vision 2020 plans and pledges, have sparked new enthusiasm and commitment to mission and ministry across the conference.

The reports below reflect a collaborative effort among staff and volunteers as together we seek to be faithful to the mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ. As our north Texas area continues to grow in both numbers and diversity, may God bless our efforts to reach others with the good news of the Gospel, both at home and throughout the world!

Mary Brooke Casad, Director of Mission

Accountability Group

It is the purpose of the Accountability Group to hold the conference accountable to being "the church which Christ has opened to people of all ages, nations and races" and to ensure inclusive participation in the mission and ministry of the North Texas Conference. At our last Annual Conference the Accountability Group provided data regarding race, age and gender of those serving on conference agencies. This gave important baseline information to the Conference Nominating Committee in carrying out its task in a more inclusive manner.

This year the Accountability Group has sought to continue in this same vein of monitoring, education and advocacy to move our conference toward greater inclusivity. In the advocacy role, we fully supported the Voices for Justice ministry in its leadership of a conference-wide initiative toward dismantling racism. And in the monitoring role, a Task Force on the Status of Clergywomen in the North Texas Conference has been formed.

As we move further into the 21st century, our prayer is that we will always seek to include all people through the power and love of Jesus the Christ!

Pat Thresher, Chair

Urban Strategies

Following the successful launch of the Vision 2020 campaign, the Bishop appointed a task force to develop a model for an urban ministry. This task force, comprised of clergy, conference staff and lay persons, completed its work in year 2000. The model plan, which is referred to as the Foundry Church Plan, was submitted to the Conference Leadership Team and approved shortly before Annual Conference last year.

A new task force was created to implement the urban ministry program using the Foundry Church Concept as a model. This task force, called the Vision 2020 Urban Strategy Task Force, is again comprised of clergy, conference staff, and laypersons, but has as a major participant and contributor a new full time urban ministry staff person. This person is Sarah Wilke, formerly Director of the Wesley Rankin Community Center, and now Director of Urban Strategies for the Conference.

With Sarah's inspired leadership and direction, the work of the task force has intensified and progressed to the point that we are now prepared to recommend the first two urban ministry sites at Conference this year. These recommendations, which involve sites in the Bachman Lake area of northwest Dallas and the Frazier and East Grand areas of southeast Dallas, have already been reviewed and approved by the Cabinet and the pastors of the several large churches that will participate and provide support to the new initiatives. All that remains before Conference is to review the plans with Creating Congregations (two new churches are being recommended) and with the Conference Leadership Team. These reviews are scheduled and approval is expected to be forthcoming.

In the year ahead, we will concentrate on the implementation of the two new sites and begin exploratory work on other locations. We will also address "Urban Ministry" issues as they arise and continue the work of developing and gaining acceptance of a comprehensive urban ministry organizational and management plan for the Conference.

Frank Jackson, Chair

Creating Congregations Team

The Creating Congregations Team is pleased to report substantial progress in our endeavors this year. We believe these new church starts are realizing wonderful gains and really beginning to spread the word of God to increasing numbers of United Methodists or prospective United Methodists.

The following briefly summarizes our progress:

A new church start in East Allen will begin the first of the year in partnership with Custer Road United Methodist Church, Plano. Rev. Andy James will be appointed as the founding pastor.

The South Wise County Fellowship in Rhome, under Jim Spencer's leadership, has developed architectural plans for their first phase building, which will feature a great room that seats 115 for worship, a full kitchen, an enclosed courtyard area, and four classrooms. Completion of the building is scheduled for the end of 2001.

All Nations Fellowship in Plano, under the leadership of Rev. Clara Reed, recently purchased a Baptist church building as a permanent home. It will share the building with the Baptist congregation for one year while that church builds a new home.

Bridge of Faith Fellowship in Mesquite, led by Tom Palmer, is now conducting Bible Study and devotional services in a day care facility donated to them free of rent.

The New Jerusalem Fellowship in Carrollton, led by Revs. Janet and Elzie Odom is conducting worship services at First United Methodist Church, Carrollton and has a Ministry Center (offices and meeting space) in a Carrollton shopping center.

ARTSPIRIT, a ministry to the arts community, offers a spiritual community to those seeking alternatives to traditional church structures, worship styles and times for gathering. Diana Holbert is appointed to this ministry as a missionary.

The Good Seed Fellowship has recently begun meeting at First United Methodist Church, Allen. This Korean-American fellowship offering bilingual worship is led by Rev. Daniel Chang.

We can also report excellent progress in beginning language churches in the area. With assistance from the General Board of Global Ministries missionary Ken McIntosh, Coordinator of Project Pentecost, and Javier Escalera, Hispanic Ministries Coordinator, plans are being developed for:

Continued support of a Chinese fellowship, led by Margaret Qi, in partnership with Highland Park UMC and host church First UMC, Richardson.

A new Filipino fellowship located at First UMC, Irving, under the leadership of General Board of Global Ministries missionaries Ephram and Omega Ramos;

A new Vietnamese ministry, to be developed in partnership with the Asian-American Plan adopted by the 2000 General Conference;

New Hispanic ministries in Wise County and in the Dallas area.

Strategic planning has enabled us to identify eight areas for future new church starts. These will be announced only as implementation plans proceed. However, they are in high growth areas of the conference. We certainly are hopeful and prayerful that several of them can begin prior to Annual Conference 2002, but we must understand that realization of these new church projects is dependent upon available leadership and receipt of Vision 2020 funds.

Sending Servants Team

The Sending Servants Team is the arm of the Annual Conference, which allows us to serve God by serving each other. Conference year 2000-2001 has been an exceptional year for outreach through the various committees and Task Forces, which make up the Team. Those Committees and Task Forces include: Volunteers in Missions (VIM), Communities of Shalom, Urban and Ethnic Ministries Task Force, Town and Country Task Force, General Board of Global Ministries Task Force, Church and Society, Ecumenical Ministries, Health and Welfare, Conference on Mission Personnel, and United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR).

Volunteers in Mission – Completed transfer of the 2000 Annual Conference Mission Project (personal hygiene kits and toothbrushes) to the UMCOR Sager-Brown Depot in Louisiana. Our GBGM, VIM Volunteer, Larry Cox, spends 90% of his time in Matamoras, Mexico, hosting NTC VIM construction teams. VIM is working with medical workers of other mission organizations on medical projects in the colonias (Settlements) along the Texas-Mexico border, and NTC Volunteer Work Teams have constructed and repaired buildings in the present and new Casa Bethel Orphanage sites. The VIM Task Force continues to plan, organize and facilitate projects in our Conference and in collaboration with other missions groups. The 2001 Annual Conference Mission Project, in collaboration with the Children & Poverty Task Force, collected sweatshirts (infant, children and adult sizes) for distribution along the Texas-Mexico border areas.

Communities of Shalom – Completed the 5 month Shalom site training, graduating participants from one new site, Camp Wisdom UMC and existing sites. We anticipate adding at least three new sites from the Paris-Sulphur Springs District in 2001. Launched Economic C.U.R.E. project, a collective economic development tool focusing on youth in NTC Shalom communities. Shalom site representatives and the Conference Coordinator attended Shalom Summit V, in Chicago and a GBGM Evangelization and Church Growth workshop on Being with God's People in the Midst of Poverty, in Nashville. Shalom site highlights include expansion of services by the Peace and Justice Immigration Center of the SE Dallas Cooperative Parish, participation in Amigos Days (Urban Park and Warren UMC) and Project Transformation (Urban Park Mission). Continued initiating community partnerships through feeding, clothing, spiritual, child care and crime prevention ministries to "the least of these."

Voices for Justice continued its work offering a workshop for Conference leadership and staff on analysis of systemic racism. The workshop resulted in the Conference Leadership Team appointing a Planning and Design Task Force to develop an action plan for the NTC to eliminate racism. The Planning and Design Task Force received training in March by Crossroads Ministry and submitted an action plan, which was approved by the Conference Leadership Team in April.

Urban & Ethnic Ministries Task Force – Provided Scholarship Support for laity and clergy to attend various leadership development workshops. Continued supporting ministry in urban and ethnic churches, in 2000, by granting $7,442 to urban related ministries and $30,704 to ethnic church related ministries.

Town & Country Task Force - Assisted 14 churches and 2 District Missionaries in building and program development, granting $53,685 through Town and Country Visionaries shares.

Global Ministries Task Force - Itineration of missionaries on leave from the field. Continued involvement with the Czech and Slovak Republic Annual Conference by attending their Annual Conference, hosting Milo Czech, pastor from Czech Republic in coordination with Greenland Hills UMC, and promoting Teen Challenge, $15,000 per year for 4 years was committed by the NTC. NORTH TEXAS CONFERENCE BOARD OF LAITY

The Board of Laity of the North Texas Conference is organized and functions in accordance with the Book of Discipline. The Board of Laity comprises the lay leaders from each district along with the President of UMW, UMM, CCYM, Conference Director of Lay Speaking Ministries, Conference Scouting Coordinator, and a representative from Religion and Race.

The 2000-2001 Board of Laity is the official organization for lay persons in the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church that provides inspiration, leader training and programming in order to increase the awareness of the role of laity within the local congregation, district and Annual Conference. The Board of Laity works to achieve the mission of the United Methodist Church, which is to "make disciples of Jesus Christ."

The Board met throughout the church year on a regular basis to plan, encourage and to share information from each individual area of responsibility. Lay leaders from each district participated in training sessions for their district. The Board planned events at Annual Conference, including the lay session that promoted the training of lay members to the Annual Conference along with reviewing legislative issues and constitutional amendments to be brought before Annual Conference. The Board of Laity hosted the annual lay dinner at Annual Conference at First United Methodist Church, Dallas, with over two hundred participants. The speaker for this event was Sarah Wilke, Director of Urban Strategies within the North Texas Conference.

Tom Talbert, Conference Lay Leader, attended the National Association of Annual Conference Lay Leaders at Scarret-Bennett Center in Nashville, Tennessee. At this meeting, this organization voted to become a worldwide entity and change the name to the Association of Annual Conference Lay Leaders. Future meetings will include lay leaders from the central conferences with funding assistance provided by this worldwide organization to allow their participation. This annual meeting included review of constitutional amendments related to membership with an overview of the United Methodist doctrine involved with this initiative. In addition, the Annual Conference lay leaders were introduced to the general church initiative of Igniting Ministry and voted to incorporate the program within the recommended themes for annual laity Sundays across the general church. To accomplish this, international literature will be distributed represented by the slogan, "Open hearts, open minds, open doors – the people of the United Methodist Church."

Within this Annual Conference, the Board of Laity emphasized the work of lay speakers. Under the leadership of Robbie Lartey, the Annual Conference increased support for training and information sharing by the Board of Lay Speakers. The summer of 2001 will include a major conference-led lay speaking event with anticipated increased emphasis over the next four years.

The Board of Laity plans to remain active in its role of highlighting ministry of the laity. "The world is my parish" will remain an active guiding force for its work.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

"Jubilee: A Celebration of New Beginnings" was the theme for the North Texas Conference United Methodist Women in 2000. We celebrated by completing Phase I of the "Mission Today" program which has energized many units. During Phase II of the program, the goal is for 75% of the units to be involved in "Mission Today".

"Sowing Seeds of Bounty" was the theme for the School of Christian Mission held July 17-20, 2000 at University Park United Methodist Church. The school was directed by Maggi Focke as Dean, Tricia Loe, Assistant Dean, and Beverly Sharpe, Associate Dean. Total attendance was 187. There were 54 first time attendees. Studies and Instructors were as follows:

"Paul's Letters to the Corinthians"	Rev. Nan Davis, Edith Tallent Sunday and Rev. Greg Neal
"Children of Africa"	Denise Johnson-Stovall and Ruth Ann Powers
"God's People in an Urban Culture"	Rev. Tom Waitschies and Rev. David Weber
Children and Youth	Karen Marshall, Betsy Hickman, Betty Hyde, Micah and Kim Nicolaus

The Week End Event was held July 21-23 again at Austin College in Sherman, Texas with Rev. Lois Cooper as Dean and Sue Watson O'Neill as Assistant Dean.

The theme for the 27th Annual UMW Conference Meeting was "Jubilee: Celebration of New Beginnings". Wesley UMC in Greenville hosted the event. Focus groups were offered in lieu of a keynote speaker. Themes for focus groups included: What Does the Lord Require?; Charter for Racial Justice; Mission Today; Interpreting General Conference Issues; Celebrate membership: It's an attitude; Wesley-Rankin Community Center and Dallas Bethlehem Center.

As a Mission Project, monetary gifts were brought to the meeting for school supplies and fees to aid the children of the East Africa Conference. These children are very poor, and because their parents are refugees, they cannot be employed. Word was received from Dr. Clyde A. Anderson with the GBGM that the offering of $5,479.89 was given to the St. Joseph School in Nairobi, Kenya. The UMW unit at White Rock UMC in Dallas sewed over 300 kenta bags to hold the individual offerings.

A highlight of the worship service was a video message from United Methodist Bishop Alfred Ndoricimpa of the East Africa Central Conference which was obtained through the efforts of Denise Johnson Stovall of UMR Communications.

Ten teens and college/university women attended The National Gathering in St. Charles, Illinois December 28-31, 2000. The purpose of this one-time National Gathering, was to generate and sustain support and interest for the emerging programs with teens and college/university women in the organization of United Methodist Women, which will establish a base of young women to carry the programs of UMW to all levels of the organization. Attending were Kristi Coale and Cassie Newton of Gainesville, Julie Horne of Sulphur Springs, Alicia Smith of Paris, Jerricka and Cynthia Hinton of Camp Wisdom in Dallas, Wendy and Emily Campbell of Lovers Lane in Dallas, and LaMetra D. Martin of Crest-More King in Dallas.

The year 2000 closed with a total of 168 local units and 8,835 members. And, once again, we met and exceeded our pledge to mission for a total amount of $202,371.

There were many celebrations during the year 2000 and with God's help there will be even more to celebrate in 2001.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CAMP AND RETREAT MINISTRIES

During the Conference year 2000-2001, the restructuring committee moved the responsibility for the summer camping program to the Equipping Disciples Team. This will allow the director of Camp and Retreat Ministries to focus entirely on facilities and Vision 2020 building projects.

During 2000-2001, work at the Texoma facility completed the Boyd Cabin and the erosion project to save the point and the cross. The Julien C. Hyer Lions Youth Camp donated a new sand volleyball court. Preliminary drawing for the adult lodge and a dining hall are in hand. Construction on these projects will begin September, 2001 and expected completion date will be December, 2002.

During 2000-2001, a new water system for Bridgeport has been completed and the new pool is expected to be completed by July 1, 2001. Construction on new North Village at Bridgeport will begin in January, 2002 and be completed in early 2003.

A new Seek Camp for young adults has been added at Texoma. The Impact camps are being moved under the umbrella of the Conference Camping program.

The Committee on Camp and Retreat Ministries consists of a Chair and seventeen members. One of the members shall be the member of the Equipping Disciples Team who represents the Camp and Retreat Ministries area. The Chair will serve as a member of the Conference Leadership Team.

THE COMMISSION ON COMMUNICATIONS

The Commission on Communications continues to:

1) operate the Dallas Area Communications News Office
2) edit and publish the North Texas United Methodist Reporter each week
3) edit and publish the North Texas Conference CONNECTION each month
4) edit and publish My Church every-other month
5) administer and publish the conference website, North Texas Conference Interactive
6) produce a dozen media services and the BIG SCREEN for annual conference sessions
7) provide media training and consultation to local churches and conference agencies
8) produce electronic and print resources for local churches and conference agencies
9) jointly coordinate Making Disciples with the Equipping Disciples and Sending Servants Teams

Working out of an Area Communications model, several innovative media techniques have been applied to our mission of "making disciples of Jesus Christ." The following we highlight:

- Produce a new every-other-month publication for retired clergy in the North Texas Conference, Retirees Fellowship News

- Trained 50 participants from 26 local churches in the Effective Use of Technology in Worship Coaching Conference at Cedar Hill, UMC.

- Produced a 10-part feature series in the North Texas United Methodist Reporter on the ten Board of Global Ministries missionaries serving in the North Texas Conference.

- Effectively used the conference website, North Texas Conference Interactive, to: 1) produce the daily annual conference report for conference members, northtexas.com 2) list the location and times for 344 Candlelight Christmas Eve Services for 243 local church, and 3) add three new pages: Leadership 2001, Conference Missionaries and Igniting Ministry.

- Working in partnership with the Equipping Disciples Team, designed, produced and delivered resources, and trained laity and pastors in these Making Disciples ministries:

Bring A Friend Sunday, now in its eighth year, has been acculturated into the conference with various local church campaigns conducted beginning in February thru May, supported by the conference with newspaper ads (a new Igniting Ministry ad used this year) placed in a dozen daily papers across the conference prior to Bring A Friend Sunday, and several churches conducting month long campaigns.

The third year of Home for Christmas saw a total or 243 local churches listing 344 Christmas Eve Candlelight Worship Services on the conference website, 350 local church leaders participating in seven coaching conferences, and appropriation of an updated 42-page workbook, plus: 1) display ads listing churches, address and time of services placed in 73 newspapers; 2) 10-second "Drive Time" spots placed on four Dallas radio stations; 3) 30-second cable television spots placed on Cedar Hill, DeSoto, Denton, Flower Mound, Lancaster, Paris, Plano, Richardson, Rockwall, Wichita Falls systems; 4) four-color ads displayed on eleven outdoor billboards across three northern districts; and 5) arranged for the production of 100 lawn banners and 130,000 four-color Christmas cards.

Supported the recruitment of 3,176 participants in 249 local church DISCIPLE Bible Study groups, an increase of 470 over 1999, with another 893 persons enrolled in 69 Christian Believer study groups.

Conducted three Great Days of Service consultations to assist local churches seeking to impact their communities with volunteer outreach ministries.

Secured Herb Miller to lead the coaching conference for Discovery Sunday, a six-week local church emphasis designed to help people discover the power of prayer and what Jesus taught about spiritual growth, on January 22, 2002.

• The North Texas Conference has been affirmed in the success of our eight-year congregational media ministry of Bring A Friend Sunday and Home for Christmas by: 1) United Methodist Communications' announcement that the Igniting Ministry campaign is "not only a television campaign, but also a bold new communication plan supporting local United Methodist congregations in seeking, welcoming and gathering persons into the body of Christ," 2) Igniting Ministry staff acknowledging the significant contribution that Bring A Friend Sunday and Home for Christmas have made on the design and development of Igniting Ministry, 3) the listing of Bring A Friend Sunday and Home for Christmas campaigns as a part of ten "Contacts and References" in the new Igniting Ministry Handbook, and 4) seven of the 77 Regional Trainers trained by Igniting Ministry to conduct 33 day-long training events across the nation as coming from the North Texas Conference.

COMMISSION ON INSURANCE

Change continues to be a constant in the healthcare industry. Challenges abound. The costs of healthcare are increasing faster than other costs in our present economy and double digit increases have returned as the trend. It is simply not an option for our conference health insurance program to remain unchanged. The best we can hope for is to manage the change in ways that continue to make it possible to provide the best possible health coverage for our clergy and lay participants at the best possible price. We are fortunate to be part of the HealthFlex program of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of The United Methodist Church.

All ordained elders, deacons in full connection, deacons on track to become elders, commissioned persons on track to become elders or deacons, and full-time local pastors appointed to local churches or as District Superintendents or to the conference staff are required to be enrolled in the conference health insurance plan and their respective church or salary-paying unit is responsible for the premium for the appointee. Coverage for spouses and dependents is optional, and the premium for an appointee's spouse and dependents is the responsibility of the appointee.

A Preferred Provider Organization (PPO) plan is the base plan for active participants and their dependents who live in the network service area. An indemnity plan is the base plan for active participants and their dependents who live outside of the network service area. Both of these plans are administered by CIGNA HealthCare. Prescription drugs are covered for active participants through CIGNA's RXPrime Pharmacy Program and the mail order program Tel Drug. Mental health and chemical dependency benefits are provided through United Behavioral Health. Term life insurance is provided through Hartford Life and Accident Insurance Company as a part of the health benefit. Medical Reimbursement Accounts and Dependent Care Accounts are also available to active participants through HealthFlex.

The conference health insurance program for retired participants, dependents and surviving spouses assumes participation in Medicare Parts A and B. The program is designed to extend certain benefits beyond what Medicare pays and, in addition, provide for some additional benefits not covered under Medicare (most notably, an unlimited pharmacy benefit). A Medicare Health Maintenance Organization (HMO) or Medicare+Choice plan, Secure Horizons by Pacificare, is the base plan for retired participants and their spouses who are 65 years of age or over and live in the Secure Horizons network service area. A Medicare Supplement plan administered by CIGNA HealthCare is the base plan for retired participants and their spouses who are 65 years of age or over and live outside of the HealthFlex Medicare network service areas. The Medicare Supplement plan is also a "buy up" choice for retirees and spouses 65 years of age or over and living in network.

The conference subsidizes the cost of health insurance for active pastors whose compensation is below the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) where need can be demonstrated. Subsidies are available on a sliding scale for those churches whose pastor's Total Compensation is below the DAC for the appointee's premium and those pastors whose compensation is below the DAC for their dependents. Local churches and pastors must submit annual written applications to their District Superintendent for these supplements. The conference also shares the cost of health insurance for retired participants and eligible dependents.

For a complete statement of the policies under which the conference health insurance plan is currently being administered see the North Texas Conference 2000 Journal, pages 268 - 276. The Commission anticipates that these current policies will be reviewed and updated during the coming year in the context of developing a plan to address the retiree medical liability. The Commission affirms the work of the Conference-Wide Task Force to Address the Retiree Medical Liability and supports the proposal to combine the Commission on Insurance with the Board of Pensions to create a new conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits.

REPORT VI

2001-2002 Probationary Residency Program

Purpose
The purpose of the North Texas Conference Probationary Residency Program is:

1. to help probationary members make a successful transition from seminary or ministry in another denomination into full-time ministry, membership in an order and life in the connection of the United Methodist Church.

2. to enable probationary members to grow as disciples of Jesus Christ and in ministry effectiveness.

3. to provide the Divisions of Preparation and Qualification for Deacons and Elders as complete a picture as possible over the course of three years of those moving toward ordination as deacons or elders and to provide feedback from these divisions to those participating in the Probationary Residency Program.

4. to model for the entire North Texas Conference what it means to live in covenant together.

Participation
All commissioned ministers who are probationary members of the North Texas Conference shall participate in the Probationary Residency Program while under full-time appointment for a minimum of three consecutive years.

When deemed appropriate and initiated by the cabinet for missional reasons, persons may participate in the Probationary Residency Program under less than full-time appointment. For purposes of Residency, less than full-time appointments will be a minimum of thirty hours a week. These individuals will fulfill all requirements of the program during the first three years of the program and, then, participate in a minimum of one additional year of Residency.

Completion
The Committee on Probationary Residency, in consultation with the Board of Ministry, will determine whether Residents have successfully completed the Probationary Residency Program or need additional time in the program.

Successful completion of the program is a requirement for ordination and full membership in the North Texas Conference.

Program Design
The design of the Probationary Residency Program assumes that those participating will be serving local congregations. Those individuals appointed to extension ministries will work with the Committee on Probationary Residency to design appropriate modifications to the program.

If, for some reason, the Resident believes the uniqueness of his or her situation necessitates a change in the program design, he or she can ask the Committee on Probationary Residency to make those appropriate modifications.

Program Highlights
1. The Covenant Group This component is designed to provide dialogue and support under the guidance of effective facilitators. The covenant group models Christian community while also focusing on important issues of ministry. The covenant group offers a place for further biblical and theological reflection and for its integration into the practice of ministry. It also provides the possibility of forming positive relationships that may offer support throughout the years of ministry.

2. Mentor Relationship The mentor/probationer relationship is an essential part of the Residency program. It is not simply a peer relationship since the mentor has supervisory responsibilities and the advantage of many years of experience in ministry. However, the relationship is to be marked by mutual respect. Both the mentor and the probationer should expect to learn from each other. While the focus is primarily on the ministry of the probationer, the mentor should be equally willing to share his or her own struggles and weaknesses. The mentor relationship is to explore together the nuts and bolts of ministry while engaging in a dialogue in matters of theology and the role of the Church. The relationship must be based on mutual trust, openness and respect. It is hoped that the mentor/probationer relationship may be on-going following the completion of the program and that its helpfulness will encourage the formation of many other supportive relationships, so essential for ministerial health and effectiveness.

In consultation with the Resident, the Committee on Probationary Residency will assign mentors to Residents.

3. Meetings with the Ministry Committee This component offers opportunities for learning for both the probationer and members of the probationer's ministry setting. Regular sessions are essential in order to give consistency in feedback and support while allowing time for the exploration of the many required areas of discussion. It is important that the laity understand the complexities and demands of ministry and that probationers understand and accept the ways in which laity can teach them.

4. Ministry Forum Residents will participate in a Ministry Forum September 24-25, 2001 offered by the Probationary Residency Committee. This event is designed to help Residents explore issues related to ministry and to grow in their ministry effectiveness.

Costs
The North Texas Conference Board of Ordained Ministry will pay for required travel, books, meals, and lodging incurred as a result of participating in the Probationary Residency Program.

Time Line
The Probationary Residency Program begins with a mandatory orientation meeting on Friday, June 1, 2001 and continues until the next orientation meeting.

Orientation for the 2002-2003 Probationary Residency Program
The required orientation meeting for the 2002-2003 Probationary Residency Program will be the Friday prior to the 2002 North Texas Annual Conference.

The Committee on Local Pastors of the Division of Elders gives thanks to God for those who are called to ministry and committed to serve the Church of Jesus Christ as Local Pastors within the North Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church.

A. 2001 Local Pastor Licensing School: For the eighth consecutive year, a springtime Saturday Licensing School was held at FUMC of Richardson. The dates were March 31, April 7, April 21, April 28, May 5, and May 12. Twenty-one students from the North Texas Conference and three other annual conferences participated. An exceptional team of teachers, facilitators and instructors provided leadership. The Committee offers a special thanks to Tom Christian, Roy Spore, Earnest Walt, John Thornburg, Diana Holbert, Paul Gould, Bill Crouch, Carol Woods, Stan Seat and Gloria Thomas, as well as to First United Methodist Church, Richardson.

B. 2002 Local Pastor Licensing School: The 2002 school is scheduled for the Saturdays of April 6, April 13, April 20, April 27, May 4 and May 11. Students MUST be certified candidates for ministry, and MUST be recommended to attend Licensing School by their respective District Committees on Ordained Ministry. Students available to serve under appointment within the North Texas Conference may attend the school at no cost to them. District Superintendents and District Committees on Ordained Ministry need to identify, recommend and submit the names, addresses and telephone numbers of persons to attend the 2002 NTC Licensing School to Marsha Engle Middleton on or before March 4, 2001. Upon receipt of the names, each student will receive specific information as to the time and location of classes.

Persons needing to attend a Summer Licensing School may attend the Central Texas Conference Licensing School. No North Texas Conference funding is available to cover this cost. District Superintendents and District Committees on Ministry should contact Marsha Engle Middleton, and the Central Texas Conference Office, as soon as the need arises.

C. 2002 Local Pastors Information: All Local Pastors serving under appointment are to complete an information sheet and return it to the Chair of the Committee for inclusion in their permanent file. The information sheet will be mailed to all Local Pastors under appointment by September 1, 2001, and should be received back by October 1, 2001. If for some reason a Local Pastor does not receive a form, it is his/her responsibility to request one from the Chair of the Committee.

D. 2002 Local Pastors Interviews: At the discretion of the Committee on Local Pastors, or on request from District Committees on Ministry or District Superintendents, continuance interviews may be held for student, part-time and full-time local pastors.

E. District Committees on Ministry: Are required by Discipline to hold continuing interviews for all local pastors each year. Each District Committee on Ministry Chairperson and/or Registrar must submit the names, addresses, phone numbers and action/decision summaries of all new or continuing local pastors to Tom Christian at the Conference Office on or before March 1, 2002. This list should include the recommended status of each local pastor (i.e., as student, part-time, or full-time local pastor) as well as their location of appointment as of March 1, 2002. A list of all local pastors being discontinued must be included as well. Please note that, at any time during the year, a District Committee on Ministry must notify the Chair of Local Pastors immediately upon discontinuance of a Local Pastor.

F. Basic Course of Study School at a United Methodist Seminary or School of Theology: It is the policy of the North Texas Conference Committee on Local Pastors to cover tuition, room, and board expenses for Local Pastors to attend Basic Course of Study, as long as those Local Pastors are under appointment within the boundaries of the North Texas Conference. These expenses will be paid directly to the Course of Study School. Reimbursement for books required for Course of Study courses will be available by providing receipts and itemized book lists to the Chair of the Committee on Local Pastors within three months of the completion of the course. Students making a "D" or lower on their grade report will be billed by the North Texas Conference for the cost of the course in question, including any book reimbursement and room/board expenses related to that course. Failure to pay the North Texas Conference for the cost of these failed courses will result in the student forfeiting conference support for future Course of Study or seminary work, until such date as the outstanding balance is paid. The Committee on Local Pastors will determine exceptions on a case-by-case basis.

G. NTC Weekend Extension Course of Study School (COSS): The North Texas Extension Course of Study School continues to be a convenient way in which Part-time Local Pastors can fulfill a portion of their required Course of Study work. The school experienced considerable growth during 2000-2001, and the Committee wishes to thank all instructors for their participation. A special thanks goes to Tom Christian, registrar for the school.

For the 2001-2002 year, the NTC Extension Course of Study School intends to offer courses which will enable the Part-time Local Pastor to fulfill a portion of his/her basic Course of Study requirements in a manner that maximizes opportunity for secular employment during summer months. Focus will be placed on first, second, and third year courses, with a full Saturday class once per month for three consecutive months.

1. Students interested in participating in the NTC Extension Course of Study School are to contact Tom Christian, Associate Director of Administration, at PO Box 516069, Dallas, TX 75251, 972.490-3438. A non-refundable fee of $50.00 is required for each course from students serving as Part-time Local Pastors within the North Texas Conference. Upon receipt of the registration form and fee, course assignments and other materials will be mailed to the student.

2. Students are welcome from outside the North Texas Conference. Such students must pursue payment methods from within their own conference to attend the NTC Extension Course of Study School. North Texas Conference funding is not available.

3. Reimbursement for books required for Course of Study courses will be available by providing receipts and itemized booklists to the Chair of the Committee on Local Pastors within three months of the completion of the course.

4. The instructors set locations for the classes, with consideration being given to both student and instructor travel distances.

5. Each course meets on the third Saturday of each month for three consecutive months. Sessions begin by 8:00 AM and conclude by 6:00 PM. Attendance is required.

6. The General Board of Higher Education and Ministry authorizes the North Texas Extension Course of Study School to provide instruction for courses included in the basic Course of Study of the United Methodist Church. Curricula and assignments must meet the General Board's criteria in order for those completing the course to receive credit. Grades will be issued and recorded.

7. Students making a "D" or lower on their grade report will be billed by the Conference for the cost of the course in question, including any book reimbursement related to that course. Failure to pay the Conference for the cost of the failed course will result in the student forfeiting conference support for future Course of Study or seminary work, until such date as the outstanding balance is paid. The Committee on Local Pastors will determine exceptions on a case-by-case basis.

8. Prior to the conclusion of the course, each student must provide the instructor with the name and mailing address of both their District Committee on Ministry Registrar, and their Conference Committee on Local Pastor Registrar or Chair.

9. Additional courses may be added at the discretion of the Committee on Local Pastors.

10. The NTC Weekend Extension Course of Study School is intended for Part-time Local Pastors who hold secular employment, and are therefore better served by a weekend format rather than the standard on-campus seminary format. Part-time Local Pastors enrolled in the Basic Course of Study are required to complete a minimum of two out of the twenty courses as part of an on-campus Course of Study program such as the Perkins Course of Study. Full-time Local Pastors are required to complete all of the Basic Course of Study on campus. The Committee on Local Pastors will determine exceptions on a case-by-case basis.

REPORT VIII: DIVISION CONTINUING FORMATION

Chairperson: Jim Bowden, 3405 Taft Blvd., Wichita Falls, TX 76308, 940-767-8511

The Division has funds available for clergy wanting to attend continuing education/formation seminars. The funds for Continuing Formation come from the Ministerial Education Fund apportionment. Twenty-five percent of that money is returned to the annual conference for use by the Board of Ordained Ministry.

GUIDELINES FOR GRANTS

The following persons are eligible for continuing formation funds:
1. Clergy members in full connection and under appointment by the NTC.
2. Diaconal ministers employed full time in a local church or agency of the NTC.
3. Full time local pastors under appointment in the NTC.
4. Commissioned ministers under appointment in the NTC.

All continuing formation grants shall first be approved by the applicant's Committee on Pastor Parish Relations or agency's supervisory committee and by the applicant's District Superintendent. These consultations are to insure that the continuing formation event fits into the applicant's overall goals for continuing formation as stated in the report to the Charge Conference.

Continuing formation grants may be approved for up to one-third of the total cost of the event. It is recommended that the applicant pay one-third of the cost and the local church or agency pay one-third. Any exceptions to this guideline will be based on need and available funds. Priority consideration will be given to applicants who have not previously received grants. Individual grants will not exceed $1,000 in a three year period.

Continuing formation grants are not available for tuition aid in any degree programs. Continuing formation grants are not available for overseas travel. Applications will be accepted for study of the Spanish language in Mexico, but only for tuition expense. Continuing formation funds for group events are usually limited to $20 per qualified participant.

Application forms are available from the district offices and the chair of the Division. All requests for continuing formation funds should be sent to the Division, Jim Bowden, chair.

C.C. YOUNG RETIREMENT COMMUNITY

In its Vision and Mission, C. C. Young has defined itself as a pacesetter in the field of long term care. A community was created 79 years ago by a man with a vision, a calling to provide for those who, because of their age and frailty, could not care for themselves. Societal trends and views on aging have changed as the numbers of older people increase and debunk old myths.

C. C. Young has a vision and a plan to build a community that doesn't focus exclusively on ratios, margins and government funding. Rather the focus is healthy, vibrant minds, bodies and spirits. We believe it's not about luxury so much as secure, healthy comfortable surroundings – HOME. A place that cares about the individual and their family. Knows who they were, are and what they want to still become. We are honored to be a partner in this phase of their journey. People choose to live at C. C. Young because they want to be a part of the community of caring. All have needs, wants, dreams and capabilities.

C. C. Young has worked diligently to understand and prepare for the multiple needs of the aging population in a distinguishable manner. Clearly, there is much more that needs to be done. The leadership of C. C. Young, in recognition of the value older people can bring to society, has reconfirmed the need to achieve programming and facility enhancements. We will address the growing needs of our older population with unique and innovative approaches.

The Learning and Cultural Arts Center (LCAC) will be a collaborative partnership within the arts, fitness and education communities. More than bricks and mortar, the LCAC is a spring- board for ideas, programs and collaborative opportunities. Changing attitudes and prejudices about the elderly and aging and developing new delivery care systems while increasing the network of support services will make real our vision of valuing the lives of older people.

In the fall of 2000, we expanded existing programs within our current building's limitations. A dedicated fitness area is open to residents and older people in the community and we are working with Cooper Research Institute to develop an integrated fitness program. Credit based college courses are held on campus in partnership with Eastfield College. We continue to develop new partnerships and programs so that we will be well positioned to generate maximum use of the new center when it is a reality.

While we have sought innovation and uniqueness in our community service initiatives of the LCAC, we continue to strive to bring the best care possible to the more traditional settings. Our nursing home, independent living (self-care), assisted living, adult day services and related programming is a plus for the continuum. One part of our strategy is the expansion of our dementia care continuum from in-home and community services, adult day services, assisted living and end-stage nursing care for dementia residents. The expansion includes reconfiguring (reconstructing) existing health center space into an intermediate level of care between assisted living and end-stage nursing care, which will complete the continuum. This strategy raises the bar for long-term care providers and will be a model for retirement communities across the nation. As we implement this strategy, we challenge ourselves and others to stretch and adapt to not only meet the needs of future generations but to surpass them.

C. C. Young recognizes that stretching to improve our societal response to changing needs is risky; yet C. C. Young has positioned herself in the gap between older people and their multiple unmet needs. This positioning has been achieved through planning and courageous leadership.

Change cannot be achieved without risk. Neither can it be realized without support. C. C. Young's vision pushes the organization to be discontent with the same static approaches; rather we must push for a changing delivery of services to address the changing needs of our population. Our opportunity and challenge is to motivate our community to support this well respected organization to the greater fulfillment of her Mission and purpose of providing standard-setting care for older people.

DALLAS BETHLEHEM CENTER, INC.

Dallas Bethlehem Center is a 55-year-old agency serving the children and families of the South Dallas Community. We are located at 4410 Leland Avenue in the heart of South Dallas. Our mission statement is as follows:

> "Dallas Bethlehem Center is dedicated to improving the quality of life for the children of the South Dallas Community. We work to strengthen the entire family structure by providing the holistic services for each child's educational, physical, emotional, social moral and spiritual needs."

How do we go about implementing our mission statement? Our programs for the children in South Dallas include the following:

- A licensed Day Care Program serving children from ages 1 to 5 years. This program includes a national accredited curriculum
- A Pre-K Program serving children from ages 4 ½ to 5 years. This program is operated in conjunction with DISD
- An After School Tutorial Program serving children from ages 6-12 years. This program offers tutoring, computer science learning skills in our computer lab, life skills training, moral development, ethical growth, and educational & recreational field trips
- A Summer Enrichment Program for ages 6-12 years. This program includes exciting learning and recreational experiences, and
- A Children's Community Choir composed of approximately 40 children from local elementary schools. To participate the children must maintain a B average and have some musical aptitude.

Our Day Care and Pre-K programs are licensed for a capacity of 50 children, with an additional 34 licensed capacity for the school age programs. These programs alone impact the lives of over 130 Children, ages 12 months – 12 years of age, in the South Dallas community on an annual basis.

In addition to this programming, we also provide the following services which also impact the Children and the members of the South Dallas community;

- A Food Voucher Program through which Dallas Bethlehem center distributes food vouchers, redeemable at a local supermarket, to women with children and the elderly, who are in acute and emergency need of food
- An Annual Health Fair, which is co-sponsored by the Dallas County Medical Society Alliance and promotes healthy life styles and preventive medicine for over 600 people in the community
- An Annual Thanksgiving Dinner that serves over 430 complimentary dinners to families in the community, and
- A Christmas Outreach Program that matches low-income families with those of adequate means. This program assures that over 450 families have food, clothing and toys during the Christmas season.

These outreach programs, in addition to those previously mentioned touch the lives of over 1,900 residents of which we conservatively estimated to positively impact the lives of over 300 children in the South Dallas Community.

This year 2000 was an outstanding year for Dallas Bethlehem center. The following is a listing of some highlights:

- Through the generosity of the Meadows Foundation and the Hoblitzelle Foundation we were able to renovate our classroom facilities and install a wrought iron security fence surrounding our property-this represented Phase I of our facilities expansion and improvement program
- Chi Omega Christmas Market generously permitted us to purchase new classroom furniture through a grant award of $43,000
- The Real Estate Council provided for additional playground equipment through a grant award of $20,000
- Neiman Marcus is funding the purchase of over 2000 books for our planned Phase III Library through a generous grant award of $5,000
- Our Annual Star of Hope Benefit, held for the first time at Eddie Dean's Ranch and featuring child entertainer Eddie Coker, generated over $35,000 and provided an exciting and memorable event not only for our supporters but also for the children
- Through institutional and individual gifts, we were able to fund a sliding scale tuition program to make our services more affordable
- Through our affiliation with Educational First Steps 3 of 4 teachings staff have received through CDA certification, and
- AvreaFoster, a Dallas-based marketing and design firm, selected Dallas Bethlehem Center as their corporate philanthropy, providing financial support, marketing assistance and good old "roll-up your sleeves" manpower support.

But that was 2000. Now we have entered 2001 and a new millennium. Dallas Bethlehem Center is now embarking on Phase II of our facilities expansion and improvement program.

Though Dallas Bethlehem Center has had a high impact on pre-elementary and elementary aged children in the South Dallas community, we do not currently have a facility and resulting programming to emit the needs of these children once they are beyond their elementary years. We know the middle school and high school years are challenging for children even in the most positive environments. There are physical challenges, self esteem challenges, moral challenges, etc. This is not the time to turn them back to an environment that often times can be quite hostile.

Thus Phase II, building of a gymnasium and adjoining kitchen and restrooms will add 6,800 square feet to our existing 8,500 square foot facility and provide the necessary space to expand programming for teenagers. Additionally, the gymnasium will provide an indoor area for play time for our pre-school children during inclement weather and permit us to expand our Summer Enrichment Program. Our Annual Thanksgiving Dinner and Health Fair could be held on site and expanded.

Dallas Bethlehem Center successfully competed in a grant cycle for funds through Crystal Charity Ball. Dallas Bethlehem Center will be awarded $593,000 for construction of the gym in Phase II.

Other projects currently underway are as follows: construction of a web site, "branded" logo to be used in all printed publication, landscaping improvements, NAEYC re-accreditation.

LYDIA PATTERSON INSTITUTE

It is with deep appreciation and gratitude that I bring this report to you, the heart and core of this ministry on the U.S. – Mexico border. Over a century ago, Lydia Patterson received a calling for service with the poor Mexican families in south El Paso; a calling later assumed by the greater church upon the death of this kind woman of God. Lydia Patterson Institute is living testimony of the mission of the United Methodist Church and its connectionalism. The ministry of Lydia Patterson Institute owes its existence to the kindness and commitment of every United Methodist within the South Central Jurisdiction and beyond. It is with this thought in mind and heart that I wish to thank the Bishops, conference leaders, ministers and, especially, the local church members, for their apportionments, contributions to the endowment, their leadership, and their prayers.

We began the 2000-01 school year with 23% increase in enrollment. This was the result of a more vigorous recruiting process and increased promotion and visibility. The increased number of supporters participating in our scholarship program enabled us to serve more students from the "barrios" and orphanages in Juarez.

Our academic standards continue to improve with the addition of honors classes to our curriculum. SAT scores are higher and 90% of our graduating seniors are going to college. Fifty-percent of the college students are attending United Methodist institutions. At present, LPI graduates are attending McMurry University, Texas Wesleyan University, Southern Methodist University, Wiley College, Lon Morris College, Southwestern College, Kansas Wesleyan University, Simpson College, Philander Smith, and Oklahoma City University. This year we hope to place students at Hendrix College and Albion College as well.

The first two students of the student lay ministry program will graduate this year. While they attend college, these students will serve in an internship in a local church or college campus doing Hispanic ministry. The religious life on our campus is a fundamental part of our program. Students participate in weekly chapel services, bible classes and community services. As a Thanksgiving project the students delivered food baskets to twenty-five needy families in our neighborhood. For Christmas, they collected over 500 toys that were handed out at Christmas parties prepared for the children of one orphanage and one highly impoverished colonia in Juarez.

Lydia Patterson goes beyond its ministry with the students and into the life of the church. We serve as a link between the New Mexico, Rio Grande and the North Central Conference in Mexico by bringing the three together and providing workshops in English and Spanish. We have hosted meetings for jurisdictional and national United Methodist agencies and organizations and will welcome here the United Methodist Women of the New Mexico Conference for their annual meeting in October.

Lydia Patterson has moved from a life of uncertainly to one of vision and promise. We have completed a strategic plan that will guide us through the first part of this century. We now look forward to working towards enhanced programs, a continuing growth of our enrollment, a healthier endowment, renovation of our buildings, and academic excellence. We have established a development office to continue to bring Lydia Patterson to a level unprecedented in its history. Mr. Carlos Guevara has filled the position of Development Officer. He is a graduate of Lydia Patterson and recently earned a degree in International Marketing from Oklahoma City University.

On behalf of the faculty and staff who work hard to make good things happen, I thank you for being our partners in this ministry which serves as an inspiring instrument of God's love.

METHODISM'S BREADBASKET

Mission Statement: "SHARING OUR BLESSINGS WITH THOSE IN NEED IS THE KEY WHICH OPENS THE DOOR TO HOPE"

In 1970 a vision became a reality. In the new millennium we are still providing emergency service to those in need. Breadbasket has been blessed to receive contributions from different resources. We are grateful to those who continue to support our mission. Over the past years, we have experienced a growth in volunteerism and funding support from the various churches within the conference.

Last year, we provided service for over 3,700 people. This total includes our Holiday Food Drive, and Care 4 Kids, which we did in conjunction with the other United Methodist Agencies.

We continue to work with other community agencies to provide assistance in other areas, such as, the literacy program, legal aid, and health screenings. Having access to this resource is beneficial to our clients and their need to improve their quality of life.

As always, we are in need of your support and prayers.

Ivolure Armstrong, director

METHODIST CHILDREN'S HOME

Mission Statement: "To express God's love by providing superior services that protect, support and enhance the lives of children, youth and their families."

Report I.

We are grateful for the support of the Methodist Children's Home by the churches of the North Texas Annual Conference. Through your investment in our ministry, every day you are involved in the care of many children, youth and their families. During our years of caring for children, the support of the local United Methodist congregations has been the foundation for our program of care and compassion.

Through the years, we have changed our programs to meet the changing needs of society. Our ministry today consists of residential group care, structured group care, Boys Ranch, foster families, partnership in parenting and college and vocational education. We feel these programs are most needed today to serve the children and families being referred to us. Our structured program has been very successful in helping us to serve the more disturbed young person who is coming to us for care. We have remodeled facilities to care for the educational program connected with the structured program.

Special programs and skills are needed to care for our residents today. It takes a competent and caring professional staff to provide these programs and skills. At the same time, we have increased our services to the family while their children are in care. We provide these services in a caring atmosphere based on our Christian convictions and our United Methodist heritage.

Our services are more expensive today and we are mindful of our stewardship responsibilities as we represent you in this ministry. We urge you to continue to make your congregations aware of their ministry at the Methodist Children's Home. We are confident that we can render superior services and maintain our reputation as the premier child-care agency of the United Methodist Church.

Mission Statement: Our mission is excellence in placing children into loving, adoptive homes, and assisting people who are deaf/hard of hearing -- or have other disabilities -- to achieve independence.

What makes the MFRS ministry so unique? From our unusual beginning (founded in 1895 by a brothel owner turned Christian!) until today, MFRS has been unique.

Family Services works with birth parents and adoptive families to assist in the adoption process. We offer infant, older child, and international adoption options. MFRS was a leader in the adoption field in promoting open adoptions. Today, we are one of the few adoption agencies in Texas that offers residential housing for maternity clients in need.

Rehabilitation Services train adults with disabilities to learn to live on their own. By providing job readiness, work training, and life skill training, we help adults lead independent, self-sufficient lives.

We believe MFRS is the only program IN THE NATION to offer adults with disabilities a complete array of job training, and life skill training in a residential setting. And we are one of the few to serve all disability groups, while specializing in serving the deaf/hard of hearing community.

The United Methodist Church may be the only denomination in the country that has an agency, which offers the array of services offered by MFRS.

2000 IN REVIEW

Like many of the 106 years in our history, 2000 proved to be a year of great change, as well as challenges. Last March, an earlier than usual budget crisis left the staff and Board of Trustees looking for ways to continue our mission. In early April, Rev. Gina Symons, MFRS Chaplain, led the staff in prayer, asking God for guidance and wisdom, and thanking God for steering the agency through its century-old history.

We are happy to report that during the last eight months of the year, our programs saw significant turnarounds! Highlights include:

- In December, Rehab. Services recorded its biggest monthly total client service hours ever;
- Rehab. Services is currently serving 50 residential clients, an increase of 70% since last year;
- Family Services placed 45 infants into loving, adopting homes this year, a 30% increase from 1999;
- Family Services had 35 new applications from families wanting to adopt, a 40%+ increase from 1999;
- We counseled and helped more than 225 birth parents in 2000;
- The Campus Ministry Program continues to present the Good News to all that we serve. In 2000, we held the fourth annual "Walk With Jesus," a spiritual retreat for deaf clients.
- More than 20 youth groups from Texas and the Southwest contributed thousands of volunteer hours through mission projects on campus.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQs) ABOUT MFRS:

Does MFRS receive apportionment funds from Annual Conferences? No.

How are you funded? MFRS does receive a percentage of funding from fees for services. Families wanting to adopt an infant, pay an agency fee, based on a sliding scale. Rehab. Services clients are usually referred and funded by a state rehabilitation commission. However, program fees do not cover all the expenses of the programs. About 40% of our budget relies on gifts, donations, and grants, from individuals, churches, corporations, and foundations.

Do you have endowment fund income to help significantly with the operating budget? No. One of our goals is to greatly increase our endowment fund to provide us greater financial security.

How many clients live on your campus? During the course of a year, MFRS provides residential services to 20-30 birth mothers and 70-80 adults with disabilities.

How can MFRS help my church/community? MFRS can provide the following:

- Adoption Services - Domestic, International, Older Child Programs; Post Adoption Services
- Emergency Counseling, Maternity Services for Teen Pregnancy Situations
- Residential Maternity Services When Needed
- Job Training/Independent Living for Adults with Disabilities
- Post Adoption Services - Search/Reunion, Medical Information

METHODIST HOSPITALS OF DALLAS

The covenant relationship which exists between the North Texas Conference and Methodist Hospitals of Dallas (MHD) proudly reaffirms that the care of the sick and injured as well as the education of persons to care for them is an important ministry for our community.

Beyond that, the Church and MHD influence each other in many areas. Central to the values and mission of MHD is the commitment to provide direct services on behalf of the Conference such as pastoral care, and educational opportunities, and to render charity services including those provided through the Golden Cross program. These activities are designed to reflect a continuing commitment to Christian life and learning. The Bishop, Methodist ministers and laypersons carry out leadership roles on MHD's governing boards and advisory committees. Methodist Hospitals of Dallas treat all persons with respect and dignity. It strives to conduct its ministry of caring and healing in a compassionate way that brings recognition and credit to The United Methodist Church.

Methodist Medical Center is a 478-bed hospital located just southwest of downtown Dallas. It is ranked as one of America's Best Hospitals by U.S. News & World Report and serves as the teaching and referral hospital for the Methodist Hospitals of Dallas system. Among the Medical Center's many areas of expertise are cardiology, maternity, neuroscience, cancer, and transplant services. The Transplant Center has performed more than 1,800 transplants since its founding in 1981, including single kidney, pancreas and heart transplants. The Medical Center made medical history in 1992 when it performed the world's first successful simultaneous heart-kidney-pancreas transplant. Charlton Methodist Hospital, with its 191 beds, serves the residents of some of the fastest growing suburban communities in southwest Dallas County. Charlton provides a variety of exceptional programs, including general medical and surgical care, maternity, physical medicine, family practice, sports medicine, and outpatient services. Four Family Health Centers extend essential medical services into the surrounding communities.

Together in fiscal year 2000, Methodist Hospitals of Dallas:

- Treated 25,094 adult and pediatric inpatients
- Delivered 4,372 babies
- Performed 6,698 inpatient and 8,278 day surgeries
- Completed 624,128 outpatient tests, treatments and procedures
- Treated 91,981 trauma and emergency room patients
- Recorded 24,841 visits in the teaching clinics.

The Cross on top of Methodist Medical Center as well as that on Charlton Methodist Hospital symbolize the caring and concern that are the daily standard of service for Methodist Hospitals of Dallas. Methodist laypersons are encouraged to become active participants in the programs and services provided by the hospitals through Auxiliary activities, participation in the Volunteer Services programs or through service as a Golden Cross Advocate. Every United Methodist congregation is also urged to become an active participant in the Golden Cross Program by contributing one dollar per member annually and referring those in need for medical care through the program. Together, with the North Texas Conference, Methodist Hospitals of Dallas will continue to serve as a beacon of Christian caring throughout the region.

GOLDEN CROSS

The year was 1922, Dallas, Texas. Seven men in a Sunday School Class at First Methodist Church in Dallas, worried about medical care services for the poor people of North Texas. Their compassion and concern shaped the vision and mission of the Golden Cross Society. Membership in the Golden Cross Society was initiated at that time by asking for $1.00 per member from Methodist churches throughout the Annual Conference. Today, the Golden Cross Program at Methodist Hospitals of Dallas is a living testament to the compassion of those seven men.

The North Texas Golden Cross program grew through the original $1 per person concept with the addition of bequests into an endowed program for the sick and medically indigent who are referred by United Methodist ministers. Rev. Carole Somers-Clark and Kathy Gray in the Chaplain's Office at Methodist Hospitals of Dallas, 214/947-2470, accept referrals for those in need.

The Golden Cross Division Board of Dallas Methodist Hospitals Foundation helps continue the vision of that 1922 Sunday School Class. During the year 2000, 80 persons received services through Golden Cross. These patients represented referrals from 37 churches in the North Texas Conference and reflected an expenditure of $319,634 from the Golden Cross Fund. Physicians at Methodist Hospitals of Dallas contribute their services without charge.

Fulfillment of the vision of the seven men in a Sunday School Class in 1922 would not be possible without the gifts from estates, bequests and memorials in addition to annual offerings of the North Texas Conference churches. We are particularly thankful for those churches, which met the original goal of $1 per member in 2000. Those churches were:

Oak Lawn

College Mound

Highland Park
Oak Cliff
Umphress Road
UrbanParkMission

Avery
Williams Chapel
Birthright
Lone Star/Button Memorial
Old Saltillo

First – Garland Faith	Church of the Disciple InglewoodForestburg	Sunset

Special appreciation is extended to Highland Park United Methodist Church. Highland Park not only meets the $1 per member goal, but also contributes additional monies to the program on behalf of patients referred from the Dallas South District.

The Golden Cross Division Board continues to encourage individuals to remember Golden Cross in their wills and to provide gifts to the Golden Cross Endowment Fund through their estates. In this manner, the Golden Cross program can continue to provide care and services in future years. Recently, we were blessed to be named a legatee in the will of Rev. Addison W. Cutter. The use of these avenues to further the mission of Golden Cross is greatly appreciated.

Again, we thank those churches and individuals who have made contributions to the Golden Cross Fund this past year, as well as the Golden Cross Advocates who represent the Golden Cross ministry in their church. We also thank the physicians and staff of Methodist Medical Center and Charlton Methodist Hospital who continue to provide their services in such a capable and compassionate manner.

The call of our Lord to bring healing to the poor is profoundly answered through the Golden Cross ministry. Please join in helping to extend the Golden Cross ministry through your prayers and your support.

MOUNT SEQUOYAH

"The Learning Place"

Mount Sequoyah is a unique learning center where all persons are welcomed and encouraged to learn, to discover meaning and hope and to develop tools for effective Christian living and witness.

For seventy-eight years of ministry as an institution of The United Methodist Church, Mount Sequoyah has been a gathering and learning place. Persons from The South Central Jurisdiction, and literally from all over the world, come to The Mountain to participate in programs that enable them to grow intellectually and spiritually.

The special ministry of "The Mountain" as the Older Adult Program Center for our Jurisdiction is programs for persons of fifty and more years and training for persons who work with older adults. This service to the largest population group of our church is built around an understanding of positive aging and an affirmation of God's gift of long life.

Along with the older adult ministry, Mount Sequoyah is host to a number of other jurisdictional programs including Weekend 2001, The Jurisdictional Singles annual event, Jurisdictional Youth Ministry Organization (JYMO) and organizational gatherings of Volunteers in Mission (VIM). National events include United Methodist Congress of the Deaf and Native American Awareness Week.

"The Mountain" is also a place of hosting and hospitality offering a quality-learning environment for the resident programs of groups within and beyond the United Methodist denomination. All together, during the past year, some 5,938 persons involved in 236 programs contributed to the rich life of Mount Sequoyah. Thirty-eight percent of the participants in events during the year 2000 were United Methodists. The remainder was persons from other denominations, schools and community organizations.

In order to continue and expand the work of "The Mountain", considerable progress is being made toward renovating the facilities. All facilities used for programs have received some repair and upgrade. VIM teams in the Oklahoma, Edwards, Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri and Bishops Cottages have created new interiors. In progress are the Nebraska, Kansas and Barnett Cottages along with a major renovation and addition to the Texas Cottage.

Mount Sequoyah, "the learning place," is serving with enthusiasm, optimism and strong faith in the work God has given to us.

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

On February 8, 2001, Perkins School of Theology celebrated the 50th Anniversary of the opening of Bridwell Library. Like our other anniversary celebrations in recent years, this one reminds us of the great resources that have been gathered on the SMU campus to prepare women and men for leadership in ministry. Bridwell has become one of America's great theological libraries, with collections that draw visitors and scholars from around the world. Under the leadership of Valerie Hotchkiss, the current director, the library is also serving the needs of a new generation of students and preparing its resources for a new era of digital information technology.

Preparation for the future has been the theme of other activities at Perkins during this year. Faculty, administrators, the Perkins Executive Board, and the Perkins Alumni/ae Council worked together to develop a new five-year strategic plan. Among the goals which this plan sets are:

1) Development of programs and courses that help our students to understand the social context of their ministry, including new emphasis on urban ministry, and strengthening our commitment to Hispanic ministries and the Mexican American Program.
2) Development of new resources that link spiritual formation, preaching, and worship in the curriculum.
3) Additional resources in church administration, church leadership, and personal financial management for future pastors.

We will also be developing a new Master of Church Ministries degree to provide specialized training for those who seek the ministry of a Deacon in The United Methodist Church.

Like other universities and theological schools, Perkins is marking transitions in its faculty. Bishop John Wesley Hardt has become Bishop-in-Residence emeritus, but continues as an active participant in the Center for Methodist Studies at Bridwell Library. Professor Victor Paul Furnish and Professor James Ward have retired after spending their whole careers teaching the Bible to students at Perkins. The new faces among us reflect some of our new emphases in the Perkins curriculum. Dr. Frederick W. Schmidt, Jr., joins us as Director of Spiritual Life and Formation after service as a canon educator at the National Cathedral in Washington, D.C. Dr. Mark Stamm has become Assistant Professor of Christian Worship, following several years of service as a pastor in the Central Pennsylvania Conference. Dr. Jaime Clark-Soles comes as Assistant Professor of New Testament after completing her Ph.D. at Yale and serving as an American Baptist pastor in Connecticut. Bishop David Lawson joins us as Bishop-in-Residence, with a mandate to develop a new emphasis on the global mission of the church.

Bridwell Library, the renovated Perkins Chapel, our new faculty members, and the ongoing strengths of our professors and intern faculty members are indications of the resources we have gathered at Perkins over more than 50 years to provide quality United Methodist theological education. We continue to work to make this education available to more students in more places. We are especially grateful for the cooperation of the North Texas Annual Conference, with its $1,000,000 pledge for the Prothro Matching Gift Scholarship Program. Every annual conference in the South Central Jurisdiction is participating in this effort, and when it is complete, the generosity of the churches, matched by the generosity of the Prothro family, will provide more than $13 million in new endowments for United Methodist theological students at Perkins.

SAINT PAUL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Enrollment of degree students continues to be strong, with students from forty states and four countries. Course of Study School enrollment continues to grow.

Newly established scholarships this year aided our effort to assist students with the cost of seminary education.

Inaugural events took place last spring for the Cleaver Program in Religion and Public Life. Named for the former mayor of Kansas City, Missouri, and Saint Paul graduate the Reverend Emanuel Cleaver II, the program seeks to further the positive influence of religious values shared by many traditions that encourage the well being of all citizens.

Saint Paul graduates elected to the episcopacy in 2000 were Rhymes H. Moncure, Jr., (assigned to Nebraska) and John Innis (assigned to Liberia).

Saint Paul received a grant from the Lilly Endowment to participate in a national program for using technology in effective theological teaching. The program is helping us gain access to important technological resources, train faculty and staff in their use, as well as rethink teaching practices in light of new technological possibilities.

Faculty transitions included: Judith L. Orr, associate professor of pastoral care and counseling, died March 14, 2000, following a long struggle with a congenital lung disease. Last fall, C. Jarrett Gray, Jr., joined our faculty from Duke Divinity School, teaching in church and society. Robert K. Martin came from the faculty of Yale Divinity School to assume our new faculty position in congregational leadership.

New faculty books in 2000 include: Matthew and the Margins: A Sociopolitical and Religious Reading by Warren Carter, Lindsey P. Pherigo professor of New Testament; Making Disciples: Faith Formation in the Wesleyan Tradition by Sondra H. Matthaei, professor of Christian religious education; A Feminist Cosmology: Ecology, Solidarity, and Metaphysics by Nancy R. Howell, academic dean and associate professor of theology and philosophy of religion.

In August, Saint Paul, along with the United Methodist Church of the Resurrection, hosted the national School of Congregational Development sponsored by the general boards of discipleship and global ministries. Attendance was the highest in the history of the program.

Please know how much your interest, prayers, and support mean to our students and to our mission of preparing spiritual leaders for a new century. May our common efforts lead to renewal and revitalization in all of our churches.

Lovett H. Weems, Jr., president

SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION

This is a great opportunity each year at Annual Conference time to, again, communicate with you and provide information about the Jurisdictional office. Since this is the first year within the quadrennium, let me share with you a little about the Mission Council of the South Central Jurisdiction/UMC. It is the policy-making body for the Jurisdiction, and makes decisions for the Jurisdiction during the time that the Jurisdictional Conference is not in session. Each conference has at least one representative on the council, and each member of the Council is assigned to at least one of the teams. The Council is composed of a total of six standing teams (committees): three administrative teams, three ministry teams, and an executive committee. If you do not know your representative, get acquainted and begin to be in dialogue about your visions for the Jurisdiction. By action of the 2000 Jurisdictional Conference, the South Central Jurisdiction has selected a full time Korean Ministries Director who is projected to be on board full time July 2001. We look forward to the additional ministries that will take place within the life of our Korean churches and those yet to be formed.

Conference (unaudited) financial support of the jurisdiction through the total giving for institutions, missionary conferences and the administration fund for 2000, totaled 89.50% pay out (2.51% less than 1999): Mission and Administration 90.19% (four conferences paying 100% or above, four conferences in the 93.02%-97.27% range). Lydia Patterson Institute 92.80% (two conferences paying 100% or above, nine conferences paying in the 90.27%-97.58% range). Mt. Sequoyah Assembly 93.34% (seven conferences paying 100% or more, four conferences paying in the 91.49%-97.03%). Wesley Foundation at SMU 82.01% (two conferences paying 100%, eight conferences paying in the 91.93%-97.80% range).

The most exciting occurrence in the jurisdictional office has taken place with the arrival of two new employees, the Volunteers-in-Mission Assistant Coordinator who began October 2000, and the Executive Assistant/Office Manager who began November 2000. Each brings a level of expertise, dedication and love for the church and its people that is most gratifying.

The 2000 Jurisdictional Conference Journal has been delivered to the specified offices, and a limited number of copies are available to others upon request. We continue to coordinate with the jurisdictional networks and other efforts of the jurisdiction, as requested.

So, whether you need assistance with a mission team trip, or other information regarding the jurisdiction, contact us and we are ready to serve you. Thanks are extended to you for your continued support and commitment of the jurisdiction.

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

The year 2000 was marked by significant progress at Southern Methodist University, and new developments hold the promise of unprecedented advancement in the future. Listed below are some of the past year's highlights:

The Campaign for SMU

•Launched in April 1997, the Campaign for SMU is the most successful fundraising effort in the University's history. Although commitments to the campaign will continue to its conclusion in May 2001 to address remaining University priorities. To date, campaign commitments have resulted in 52 new endowments for academic programs, 114 new student scholarships and awards, 20 new campus life initiatives, 11 new academic positions and 12 new and/or renovated facilities.

•Completed construction and renovation projects funded through campaign gifts include Perkins Chapel renovation; the new Fondren Library Center; and the Gerald J. Ford Stadium and adjoining Paul B. Loyd Jr. All-Sports Center, including the Altshuler Learning Enhancement Center and Blanton Academic Development Complex. The new Meadows Museum, with its renowned Spanish art collection, opened in March 2001. Construction begins in spring 2001 on the Jerry R. Junkins Electrical Engineering Building. The Dedman Life Sciences Building, including the Bob Smith, M.D. Foundation Pre-Medical Studies Center, will be ready for use in spring 2002. Plans are under development for the Laura Lee Blanton Student Services Building.

•Perkins School of Theology is the first of SMU's six degree-granting schools to surpass its goal in the Campaign for SMU. The Theology School has exceeded its goal of $36.4 million with commitments totaling $43.7 million through December 31, 2000. Co-chairs of the highly successful Perkins campaign are Dr. Mouzon Biggs, Jr., pastor of Boston Avenue United Methodist Church in Tulsa, Oklahoma; Dr. Charles R. Millikan, pastor of Moody Memorial First United Methodist Church in Galveston, Texas' and the late Vin Prothro of Dallas, who died in November 2000.

•Included in the campaign is a collective total of $13.9 million for Perkins scholarships pledged to date by 15 annual conferences in the South Central Jurisdiction and several individuals, including the late Charles Prothro and Elizabeth Perkins Prothro of Wichita Falls, Texas, who provided a $4.7 million grant to match conference and individual pledges. The Texas Annual Conference set a high standard for other conferences with its pledge of $1 million, matched by Moody Memorial First United Methodist Church in Galveston.

Other developments

•The Theology School's Bridwell Library celebrated its 50th anniversary in February as part of Minister's Week 2001. A year ago, the J.S. Bridwell Foundation of Wichita Falls made a challenge grant of $1 million to match two to one each dollar raised for the library during the year preceding the anniversary.

•SMU continues to advance its goal of increased partnerships with the city and region. Programs of Perkins School of Theology serving Houston/Galveston and Oklahoma enable students to begin preparation for careers in ministry in their local settings. The new Linda and Mitch Hart E-Center will focus on Internet technology research and applications across a wide range of academic disciplines, including business, law, engineering and ethics.

•SMU Board of Trustees Chair, Ruth Altshuler is providing $250,000 to establish a new distinguished teaching award program for tenured faculty. The gift will fund four annual awards of $10,000 each for the next five years. This Distinguished Teaching Faculty will serve as mentors and take part in symposia promoting teaching excellence.

•SMU's Wesley Foundation continues to provide a vibrant and inclusive United Methodist campus ministry program. We greatly appreciate the affirmation of this program at the July 2000 Jurisdictional Conference by approval of the quadrennial budget request for SMU's Wesley Foundation.

We were saddened this year by the loss of both Vin Prothro, and Charles Prothro, who by their dedicated service had a great impact on Perkins School of Theology and the entire university. SMU treasures its Methodist heritage, and we ask your ongoing prayers and support as we move forward in the 21st century.

TEXAS METHODIST FOUNDATION

At the Texas Methodist Foundation we are always looking for ways to provide the churches, individuals and institutions we serve with resources that help them carry out their mission and meet the needs of their communities. To better serve our constituents' educational needs, we formed a partnership in 2000 with the Alban Institute, a national resource for congregations. This newly formed venture has the potential to bring a wealth of educational seminars to Texas. Our first event was a congregational leadership focus group facilitated by Alban staff. Clergy and laity from thriving churches with clearly defined identities and purposes discussed ways to help United Methodist churches strengthen their sense of purpose.

In 2001, we have two sessions of the seminar Senior Pastors: Leading Multiple Staff Teams scheduled. We will continue to offer these and other educational seminars to our constituents as innovative and effective ways to help United Methodists advance Christian ministry. The Foundation, located in Austin, provides assistance through loans, investments, grants, stewardship services and guidance on endowments. We serve United Methodists churches, individuals and institutions within the six Texas Annual Conferences.

We are pleased to report to you the assistance we provided in 2000:

Within the North Texas Annual Conference:

- The Grants Committee awarded more than $1.15 million in grants to North Texas Annual Conference institutions.
- Loans from the Foundation to churches in the North Texas Annual Conference totaled $44.8 million, an increase of $8 million over 1999.
- Churches and related agencies within the North Texas Annual Conference had $39 million invested with the Texas Methodist Foundation.

Throughout the state:

- As of December 2000, total assets under management by the Foundation stood at $206 million, up from $185 million at the beginning of that year. This represents a growth rate of 12 percent for the year. The Texas Methodist Foundation continues as the largest United Methodist Foundation in the United States.
- In 2000, the Foundation funded grants totaling $1.8 million. $1.3 million of these funds came from donor advised funds and $565,000 came from endowment funds designated for grants. These grants benefited various human services projects, such as community outreach centers, campus ministries and inner-city childcare programs.
- The Foundation's Grants Committee, in support of the Bishops' Initiative, gave priority to funding programs that address the needs of children in crisis and poverty. Approximately $660,000 of the $1.8 million in grants went to children's programs in 2000.
- Foundation Stewardship staff made more than 100 consultative visits to churches, providing stewardship training or assistance. We were chosen as consultants for 28 annual stewardship campaigns and 24 capital campaigns, in which more than $32 million was pledged.
- The Foundation serves nearly 400 United Methodist churches and institutions through loans. During the year, loans increased by 16 percent to nearly $153 million.
- Foundation staff assisted churches and individuals by providing guidance on establishing permanent endowment funds and other planned giving services and made close to 500 consultative visits to churches, pastors, donors and potential donors.

The following people residing in the North Texas Annual Conference serve as board members to the Texas Methodist Foundation in either an elected or advisory capacity:

TEXAS UNITED METHODIST COLLEGE ASSOCIATION

Part of our story as Methodists is found in the familiar Charles Wesley's phrase from the Kingwood school hymn, "Unite the pair so long disjoined, knowledge and vital piety." Writing an article on "Wesley and Education" in Presidential Papers, Richard Heitzenrader says of John Wesley: "Knowledge for him, is not so much a purely intellectual attribute but rather a channel of self-understanding, which is crucial for salvation. And vital piety entails not only a devotional stance based on love of God but also a social outreach exemplified by love of neighbor."

Based on this kind of education, writes Heitzenrader, we learn to distinguish between the many claims of "truth and virtue." He quotes V.A. Smith who in 1914 told a group of new students at Oxford University, "When you finish, if you have worked hard and intelligently, you should be able to detect when someone is talking rot." "If we are truly educated," Heitzenrader reminds us, "we will no longer mistake cleverness for profundity, or dispassion for conscience. We will be able to tell the difference between sophistication and virtue, courtesy and honor. We will no longer confuse getting a degree with learning, or mistake religiosity for vital piety. In a word, we will remember, in Wesley's words, that 'all learning without love is but splendid ignorance.'"

Looking back at my own education at schools of the church, I feel they were true to this heritage. My life was opened to new knowledge, new relationships, and new spiritual and ethical growth. It was a journey of learning and value orientation that still continues to this day!

Did I mention that I also was helped by scholarships and financial aid? That is our purpose in this organization – sharing gifts from local churches for United Methodist students to discover that kind of experience in our colleges and universities!!!

Huston-Tillotson and Wiley Colleges receive support through the Black College Fund. In 2000, through the support of local churches, we gave the other colleges a total of $826,985 distributed as follows:

Lon Morris College	$131,550
McMurry College	153,890
Southern Methodist University	210,150
Southwestern University	148,925
Texas Wesleyan University	182,470

WESLEY-RANKIN COMMUNITY CENTER

In 1902 the Greater Dallas Board of City Missions was founded to address the needs of immigrants in Dallas. As time passed, the mission grew, new areas for ministry were made ready and in 1935, "On FAITH alone the work was launched...Finally on the first Sunday in June, 1935, a little three room house on Crossman street was rented for $10 and the first services held that afternoon." (History of Rankin Chapel)

Ninety-nine years later, Wesley-Rankin Community Center continues to meet the needs of the citizens of Dallas, and continues its mission and journey of faith. Today, our permanent address is in West Dallas, and our services are concentrated in the Los Altos neighborhood, but all are welcome to partake of the programs providing support, education, and hope for the community.

We are blessed to serve the children, youth, adults, and senior adults who come each day to Wesley-Rankin with programs such as: after-school tutoring and mentoring; computer education parenting skills; GED preparation; college scholarships; community leadership development senior adult nutrition and activities; Kids Café; and supplementary food assistance programs. Through partnerships formed with programs and other non-profit organizations such as Project Transformation, Head Start of Greater Dallas, Dallas Healthy Start North Texas Food Bank, among others, Wesley-Rankin continues to be a beacon of light in the lives the hundreds who come through our doors each day.

We extend an open invitation to come visit our center. You may also learn more about us through our website www.wesleyrankin.org.

Mark your calendar for the 2001 annual benefit dinner, live and silent auction, to be held on Friday, November 16, 2001.

WESLEY VILLAGE

Wesley Village, a Senior Living Community, located in Denison, Texas, is very proud to announce the addition of The Meadows, an affordable housing project. Human eyes are truly seeing the vision of Wesley Village, to meet the needs of all seniors. Ground was broken last January, and with prayer and good weather should be completed by January 2002. The Meadows will consist of 40 units, with a common community center, on site laundry facilities, and a resident manager. This is an addition to our Wesley Village community as well as the Denison-Sherman community at large, which is in desperate need of low cost senior housing.

The Courtyard of Wesley Village, our existing Independent and Assisted Living community, has undergone quite a transformation this past summer and fall. All the common areas have been repainted a happy peach color and carpeted in the dark green of nature. We have added a mural of the countryside in the dining room and a complementing stained glass window. New furniture, new pictures, and flowers abound. Our Residents as well as the Board of Directors and Staff are very proud of the results. We have a lovely home, although I must say we all had questions as we were going through the process of renovation. We have enclosed an outside foyer, which has added to the lives of the residents and our structural problems have been repaired.

This year has seen change in our office staff. Residency Consultant, John Lancaster, has retired and will be moving back to the Dallas area in the near future. Kathy Busbey is trying to fill his shoes, and doing quite a wonderful job of it.

Our Director of Life Enrichment, Sherry Thompson is a veteran to the field of geriatric activities and she is truly enriching the lives of the seniors at Wesley Village, with planned activities throughout each day, as well as numerous excursions from the facility.

Our former Executive Director, Joan Womack, announced her retirement effective May 31. We all will miss Joan. Her leadership, business skills, and determination, have taught us all what a mission truly is. Joan has plans to move back to the Dallas area to be closer to her grandchildren and daughters. She will be traveling quite a bit, just where we don't know, but we do know she truly deserves to "get away for a while!"

I, Brenda Price Kozikowski, have replaced Joan. I have been part of the Wesley Village team for almost two years, being Director of Life Enrichment, as well as, Residency Consultant. I have worked previously in long-term care for approximately 16 years. Joan has been a terrific teacher, and will remain as a consultant should the need arise. It is very difficult to download her brain with more than thirteen years of experience into mine, but with enough zip disks, I know I can meet the challenge with the Lord's help. I solicit your prayers and support.

On your next trip north, stop by! We'd love to show you our ministry as it continues to grow.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

Southern Methodist University

As you know, the Wesley Foundation at Southern Methodist University is an important outreach of our whole jurisdiction. We are a United Methodist presence making disciples among undergraduate students at a University in which we all have an interest.

Our ministry is growing and that means our need for financial resources is growing as well. Because our apportionment support will be less during the next four years than it was before, we need to find additional local churches and individuals who care about SMU and about campus ministry and can support our work. You are one of the leaders of our connection, and your support is vital to our future.

We hope that you are already convinced that SMU is important. Our church supports a number of institutions of higher learning, but SMU is the only one where the Jurisdictional Conference elects the trustees.

We also hope you are convinced campus ministry is important. Discipling young people is a crucial ministry of our church. At the same time, there is another benefit, as we are enabling college students to hear God's call to ordained ministry. In the last ten years 27 persons have graduated from the SMU Wesley Foundation and gone on to prepare for full-time ministry. When we are facing shortages of ordained ministers, we should be strengthening campus ministry everywhere we can. Because of its unique relationship to the whole South Central Jurisdiction, the Wesley Foundation at SMU needs stronger support from all of us.

If you are willing, there are three things you can do to help us:

- Encourage your annual conference to pay its Jurisdictional apportionments in full.
- Become an individual supporter of the SMU Wesley Foundation by sending a contribution.
- Encourage your congregation to include us in its mission's budget.

Apportionments pay less than one-half of our budget, and we depend on friends for the future growth and effectiveness of our ministry. If you would like more information, send us a note saying so. If you would like to be on our friends mailing list, we would love to hear from you.

You can contact our campus minister, Creighton Alexander at calex@smu.edu. Please let us hear from you.

Fred F. Adams

Fred F. Adams, longtime pastor in the United Methodist Church in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, died December 4, 2000, at the age of 92. He had many friends and loved ones from churches he served. Those churches include Preston Hollow, Carrollton, Greenland Hills, Owenwood, Aldersgate, Cockrell Hill, Grapevine, and Granbury. He also served many rural communities in the North Texas Conference.

Fred Adams was active in service clubs, including Lions, Rotary, and Kiwanis. Throughout his career he received thousands of people into God's kingdom through the church. He will be missed by all who learned to love him and admire his special character.

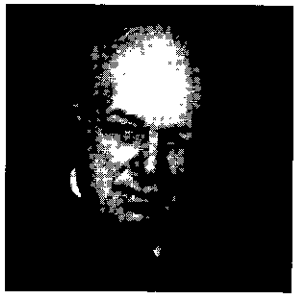
He was the son of a United Methodist minister, and his son and grandson also are United Methodist ministers. Together, their service to the church spans more than 135 years.

Fred Adams is survived by his sister, Mary, his son Dan, his grandchildren Mark, Paul, Janne, Kay, and Fred, and great-grandchildren John Mark, Abigail, Zachary, Lauren, David, Lacey, Rebecca, and Rachel. His daughter, Rebecca, preceded him in death.

He is buried at Restland beside his loving wife Dorothy. He was and is an inspiration to all who knew him.

Rev. Dan Adams, son

Allen Lamar Cooper



Devoted and beloved husband, father, grandfather, and father-in-law, guide, counselor, and friend, Allen Lamar Cooper died May 17, 2001, in Dallas. He was born March 4, 1911, in Meridian, Mississippi.

Giving up his dream of a career as a concert pianist, Dr. Cooper answered God's call into the ministry. He received his associate of arts degree from Westminster College, bachelor of arts from Western Maryland College, master of arts from Southern Methodist University, bachelor of divinity from Union Theological Seminary, New York City, and doctor of philosophy from Columbia University, New York City. Dr. Cooper was a retired member of the North Texas Conference. He had served pastorates in Texas in Coolidge and Temple, and in Paterson, New Jersey. He was Head Chaplain for the 20th Air Force in the South Pacific during World War II. After the war, he was director of the Wesley Foundation of Oklahoma State University. While he was at Union Theological Seminary, he was a graduate assistant to Reinhold Niebuhr. From 1952 to 1976 at SMU's Perkins School of Theology, he was a counselor to students and professor of Christian Social Ethics and Methodist Studies. He was editor of two volumes of the New Oxford Press/Cokesbury edition of the Works of John Wesley. From 1976 to 1980, Dr. Cooper was associate minister at Walnut Hill United Methodist Church, and from 1980 to 1991, he was associate minister at University Park UMC. After that, he was Theologian in Residence at University Park UMC. The church established the Lamar Cooper School of Discipleship and the A. Lamar Cooper Lectureship Series in his honor.

Dr. Cooper received many honors, including Chaplain of the Year of the U.S Air Force in 1944, and the Hitchcock Award in Church History from United Theological Seminary in 1952.

He is survived by his loving wife of 54 years, Ruth Smith Cooper; his daughter Sharon C. Huffman and her husband, Joe; and his son Charles Allen Cooper and his wife, Jo; four grandchildren: Natalie Huffman Slaton and her husband, Benjamin Slaton; and Alyson, Melissa and Amy Cooper. Interment was at Sparkman Hillcrest Cemetery. A memorial service was at University Park United Methodist Church.

Addison W. Cutter

Addison W. Cutter died in Denton on February 2, 2001, at Lake Forest Good Samaritan Health Care Center at the age of 93. He was preceded in death by his wife of 66 years, Louise Garrett Cutter, in 1994. Addison Cutter was the first student to graduate from SMU's newly endowed Perkins School of Theology in 1945, having received his bachelor of arts degree from SMU in 1943. He enlisted in the U.S. Navy as a chaplain during the latter part of World War II. Following his discharge, he was pastor of churches in Wilson, Waurika, and Stigler, Oklahoma. Addison and Louise returned to the North Texas Conference where he organized Northhaven United Methodist Church, and then served at Lake Highlands UMC in Dallas, and Iowa Park UMC in Iowa Park. During the latter part of his ministry, Addison Cutter was chaplain for Goodwill Industries. Blessed with a beautiful baritone voice, he was a member of the Highland Park UMC choir, and often was soloist in other churches.

He was a loyal supporter of Southern Methodist University and an active member of the Mustang Club until poor health sidelined him in 1997. Addison and Louise endowed athletic scholarships in 1979.

He is survived by his daughter, Madolyn J. Cutter of Lake Dallas; a cousin, Dr. Richard Cutter of Waco; and two nieces, Evonne Moore of Canadian, Texas, and Barbara Walls of Grand Junction, Colorado. His funeral service was at Boxwell Brothers Funeral Home in Perryton, Texas, with interment at Ochiltree County Cemetery outside of Perryton.

in, what was by then, the U.S. Air Force. He conducted a worship service nearly every Sunday for almost 30 years. He also was active in Perkins School of Theology's Intern Program. He continued to be active at Highland Park UMC until entering the hospital on December 7, 2000, in his last illness. His last visits to shut-in and hospitalized church members were on December 5.

Floyd Patterson was known for being thorough and quiet, and for epitomizing pastoral ministry.

Claude Bourdon Smith

Claude Bourdon Smith was born January 13, 1924, in his grandmother's house in Stamford, Texas. His heritage was predominately American Indian. He attended elementary and secondary schools in Stamford. He then attended Texas Tech University in Lubbock where he was dismissed. From that point, Bourdon's story became the story of the prodigal son. Feeling miserable about his dismissal from Texas Tech, he hitchhiked home to Stamford, not knowing what kind of homecoming he would receive. As he reached his house late in the afternoon, he saw his mother and dad coming out to meet him His mother simply said, "Son, welcome home. That isn't the only university in the world."

Bourdon graduated from McMurry College in Abilene, Texas, with a bachelor of arts degree in history. His call to preach came later when he lived in Fort Worth with his wife and two children. He had gone through a series of jobs as a bookkeeper, cotton picker, clothes salesman, and soda jerk. As a soda jerk, he filled prescriptions for bootlegged liquor in the back room of a pharmacy. One day while driving his car alone, he heard his call to preach when he heard an evangelist on the radio say that you can change your present life and direction by giving yourself to Jesus the Christ, God's only Son, Our Lord, in whom all things are possible. Following that experience, Bourdon inquired about going to seminary at Perkins School of Theology. He moved to Dallas with his family and was appointed associate minister of Oak Lawn Methodist Church while he was a student. After he graduated from Perkins, he was ordained elder in the United Methodist Church.

During more than 40 years of active appointive ministry, Bourdon served as pastor at Sagerton and Goree and then the Channing/Hartley Circuit. He was pastor of Pleasant Valley UMC in Amarillo, founding pastor of Christ UMC, Farmers Branch; pastor of Whaley UMC, Gainesville; West Shore UMC, Richardson, First UMC, Lancaster, and First UMC, Kaufman. His last parish was Northaven UMC, Dallas, where he served five years until his retirement in 1990.

God touched many lives through Bourdon. In Farmers Branch, he became a member of the school board when its major issue was integration of the schools. He became a veteran of the civil rights movement and continued his work on social issues until his death. He actively participated in support of the rights of gays and lesbians. He was on the Dismantling Racism Team and the Family Violence Interfaith Committee sponsored by the Greater Dallas Community of Churches. He participated at the Dallas Peace Center, and rarely missed a Tuesday luncheon at St. Luke's Community Church, where he became friends with County Commissioner John Wiley Price, who chaired the luncheons. Bourdon was involved in the Southern Dallas Development Corporation. He was a North Texas Conference delegate to the Texas Council of Churches.

In retirement, Bourdon was a marriage and family therapist for the Pastoral Counseling and Education Center, and set up a satellite office at Northaven UMC.

During his 15 years as a single parent, Bourdon raised a daughter, was pastor of churches, and played tennis every chance he had. As he got older, health problems developed that stemmed from a car accident when he was a child. During the last five years of his life, he depended on an oxygen machine that he named R2D2 and lugged with him everywhere he went. But his infirmities didn't stop him. His deep and abiding faith in God strengthened and stretched him toward an almost superhuman resolve. He drew strength and wisdom from people in all walks of life.

Bourdon led spiritual formation groups at Perkins School of Theology. Summers, he taught "The Pastor as the Interpreter of the Bible" at Perkins. He would say, "I am a teacher and a student, and are they not the same?" He quoted John Wesley and Meister Eckhart with equal ease.

Bourdon loved sports. As his three sons and daughter played on teams, he never missed one of their games. He wanted to play baseball in high school but could not because of lung injuries from his childhood car accident. Instead, he was made bat boy. He played trombone in high school even though he often had trouble breathing. His vocation - preaching, and avocation - tennis and trombone, exercised his one lung.

Bourdon Smith and Harriette Flachmeier married December 29, 1990, at First Lutheran Church in San Francisco. During their ten years of marriage, Bourdon continued to counsel, perform weddings, and teach at Perkins. On November 15, 2000, his good lung stopped working and the angels called him to his final resting place.

Bourdon was preceded in death by his parents and his daughter Melanie Henry. He is survived by his wife, Harriette Flachmeier; three sons: Michael Smith, New Braunfels; Jack T. Smith, Plano; and Ricky Smith, Atlanta, Georgia; daughter Kimberly Walker, Sachse; stepdaughters: Lin Cerles, San Francisco; Lee Davis, Dallas; Laurie Corbelli, College Station; and Leslie Love, Plano; twenty grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Bourdon's memorial service was at Perkins Chapel at SMU. Memorial donations have been sent to many organizations and causes. The family especially asked that gifts be sent to St. Joseph's Indian School in Chamberlin, South Dakota. They thank the many who remembered Bourdon.

Thank you, God, for Bourdon.

Gelema Collins served faithfully with her husband in the Oklahoma Conference when he was appointed to Fleetwood, Crom, Armes, Rocky, Poscat, Frisco Avenue, Sulfur, St. Paul, and Stradford Methodist churches. They transferred to the North Texas Conference and served Mission Church in Gainesville, Bells, Pilot Point, and Aubrey, where Bill Collins retired.

They built a new brick home in Aubrey to retire in, and truly enjoyed living in it.

One of Gelema's great loves was the United Methodist Church. She served in many of the church organizations and always saw that their gifts and tithes went to the church treasurer every month. Because they were so instrumental with their gifts and their spirit in the building of the Aubrey Education Building, the congregation named the building "Collins Hall" in their honor.

We are extremely thankful for Gelema's life, and the fact that she loved and served Jesus Christ by serving others. We will miss her very much.

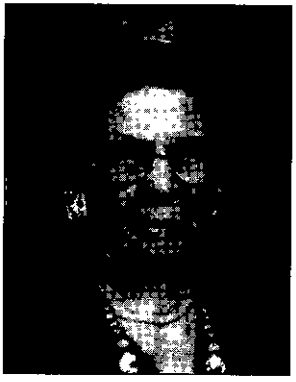
Mable Pauline Sparkman



Mable Pauline Sparkman died January 24, 2001. She was born on March 12, 1908, in Coleman County, Texas, to John Willie Dodgen and Birdie Mae Dodgen, dedicated Christians who attended church regularly. She had two brothers, Jesse Lee and Fred, and one sister, Ruby Mae. Most of her childhood was spent helping her parents farm land owned by others. She attended school through the eighth grade.

At age 18, she married Eugene Laroy Hatcher, and they had two children, a son, Ted Laroy Hatcher, and a daughter, Patsy Jean Hatcher. When Mable was in her early 30s, she and her husband were separated and then divorced. She took a job as cashier at Camp Bowie, a U.S. Army camp in Brownwood, Texas, and moved there with her daughter. Her son stayed in Coleman to finish high school. While working at Camp Bowie, Mable met Master Sergeant Edwin K. Sparkman. They were married in October 1946, and lived in several other places as he was transferred. When Ed Sparkman retired from the Army, he dedicated his life to ministry in the church. Mable worked to help support the family while Ed attended seminary at Elizabethtown University in Steelton, Pennsylvania. His first church appointment was there in Steelton.

When Ed was appointed to a church, Mable also gave her service. Some of the churches they served were in Steelton, Pennsylvania; Marietta, Oklahoma; and in Texas, Talco, Rylie, Alvord, Lewisville, and Dallas. While Ed was appointed to Owenwood Methodist Church in Dallas, the congregation moved from R.L. Thornton Expressway to a new location in northeast Dallas. Shortly after the new church was dedicate, Ed retired from the ministry. To supplement their income, he started a bookkeeping and tax service in Dallas, and Mable helped operate the business.

Even after retirement, Ed never turned down an opportunity to preach, and Mable worked with him in all his activities. Ed Sparkman died in 1987.

To be closer to her children, Mable moved from Dallas to Kingsland, Texas, in 1993, where she loved to visit with friends and watch religious programs on TV. Her daughter, Patsy, died on December 26, 1998. Even though Mable's memory began to fail, she was able to live alone, with daily help preparing meals and taking medicine, and help with her house and yard. She lived in a nursing home for only two months before her death, and the nurses said she was just like a mother to all the other Alzheimer patients. She died of pneumonia and other complications on January 24, 2001. I'm sure she was welcomed into heaven by all her family and friends who were touched by her life.

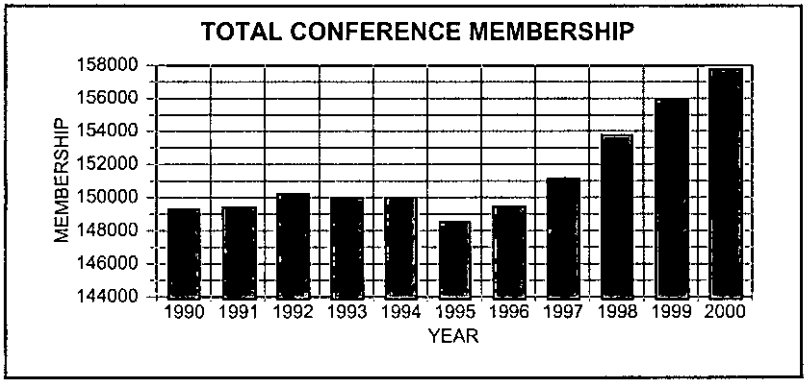
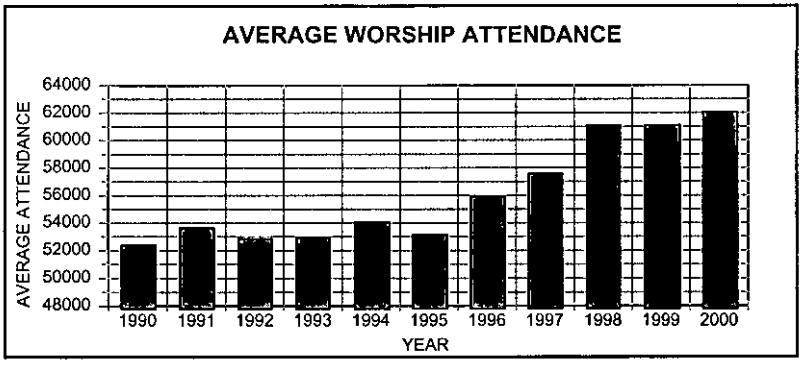
XVII. STATISTICIAN'S REPORT

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE STATISTICIAN

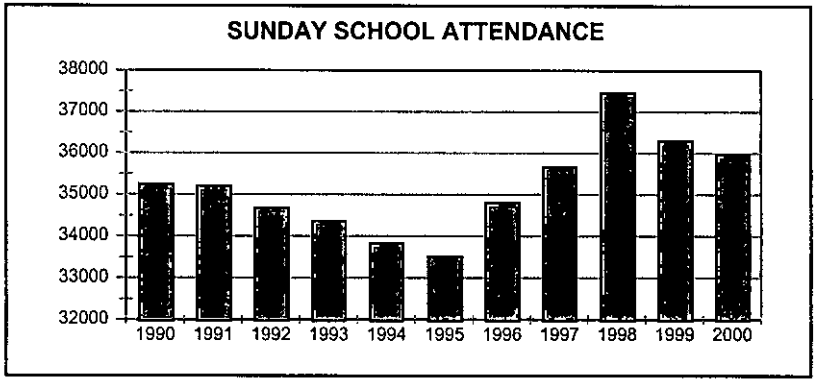
For the fifth straight year, the membership of the churches of the North Texas Conference increased. The total conference membership at the close of 2000 was 157,763, representing a net growth of 1,818 members or 1.2 % over 1999 and the highest membership total in the history of the conference.



Average worship attendance also increased in 2000 by 967 persons or 1.6%. At 62,060 this average attendance was also the largest ever recorded for the conference. The ratio between worship attendance and membership increased slightly from 39.2% in 1999 to 39.4% in 2000.



Unfortunately, the average Sunday School attendance declined for the second consecutive year, from 36,297 in 1999 to 35,966 in 2000. This was a decrease of 331 persons or 0.9%.



Another noteworthy statistic from 2000 was the large increase in total expenditures by the churches of the conference. The grand total paid to all causes increased from $93,548,555 in 1999 to $107,693,160 in 2000, an increase of $14,144,605 or 15.1%.

Clearly, the churches of the North Texas Conference are alive and well and moving forward with strength and vitality!
