IV. DAILY PROCEEDINGS

SPECIAL SESSION
CENTRAL TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE
First United Methodist Church
Fort Worth, Texas
September 30, 1989

Bishop Russell convened the special session of the Central Texas Conference with the singing of the hymn "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing."

Bishop Russell led in prayer.

Sidney Roberts asked personal privilege to announce the funeral for the Reverend John Elliott on Monday, October 2 at 10:00 a.m. at St. Andrew's United Methodist Church, Fort Worth.

He then directed the tellers in the distribution of registration cards. Walter Black and Woody Flynt acted as registrars.

Sidney Roberts moved that the bar of the conference be the lower floor.

Bishop Russell reminded the conference that only those lay and clergy members elected to the 1989 Session of Annual Conference can vote.

He then referred to ¶702.4 of the 1988 Discipline. "A special session of the Annual Conference may be held at such time and in such place as shall have been determined by the Annual Conference after consultation with the Bishop, or by the Bishop with the concurrence of three-fourths of the district superintendents. A special session of the Annual Conference shall have only such powers as stated in the call."

The call was published in the United Methodist Reporter as follows: To consider a proposal from the Wesleyan Homes, Inc. Board of Trustees to purchase property in Arlington, Texas, that is to be used to provide retirement facilities and nursing home services for elderly citizens. The property is located at 3200 South Center, Arlington, Texas and known as "The Regency."

Bishop Russell expressed appreciation to Pat Stroman, chair of the Board of Trustees of the Wesleyan Homes and to the entire board. Mr. Stroman read the Statement of Purpose from the By-laws of the Wesleyan Homes.

Mr. Stroman introduced those on the dais: Chris Spence, who will replace Charles Bostock as director on October 9; Charles Bostock; Chris McCormick, marketing director; and Ross Greenwood, chair of the Finance Committee.

Chris McCormick expressed appreciation to Harris Hospital and to the Arlington League of Women Voters for sharing demographic information with him.

Ross Greenwood spoke on the ability of Wesleyan Homes to handle an increase in indebtedness. The project can be financed through FHA and qualifies for HUD 231 - housing for the elderly at a below-market interest rate and 35-40 year term.

After extended explanation and questions, Pat Stroman moved the acceptance of the resolution (see Addendum A).

A number of questions were asked. Bob Barton, layman from Temple, Seventh Street called for the question.

Robert Warden stated that no one had spoken either for or against the resolution.

Several members then did so. Ben Feemster moved the previous question. It was seconded.

Bishop Russell asked for a show of hands. Declining to rule on the basis of a show of hands, he then called for a count vote by the tellers. The motion passed 202 for and 60 against.

Michael Patison asked for a moment of personal privilege to introduce Alan and Norma Seaman, members of the West Ohio Conference and the Nigeria Provisional Annual Conference as missionaries.

Bishop Russell expressed his appreciation to the secretary, the tellers, the registrars, Barbara Vaughan and Arlene Haynes.

Bishop Russell announced that a special appeal for Hurricane Hugo was approved this past week by the Executive Committee of the Council of Bishops and the Executive Committee of GCFA upon recommendation of UMCOR. Eugene Robertson suggested that the group take an offering for this project before adjourning. $813.60 was collected.

Bishop Russell dismissed the conference with prayer.

ADDENDUM A

RESOLUTION OF THE CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

WHEREAS, WESLEYAN HOMES, INC., a Texas non-profit corporation ("Wesleyan Homes"), a subsidiary corporation wholly owned by the CENTRAL TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, a Texas non-profit corporation (the "Conference"), has contracted to purchase from THE REGENCY PARTNERS, LIMITED, a Texas limited partnership ("Regency"), 11.960 acres of land, more or less, out of the H. BLACKWELL SURVEY, Abstract No. 149, Tarrant County, Texas, together with all improvements situated thereon located at 3200 South Center Street, Arlington, Texas (the "Project"), pursuant to the terms of a certain "REAL ESTATE CONTRACT" (the "Contract") dated August 21, 1989, wherein Regency is seller and Wesleyan Homes is purchaser, the full terms of the Contract being incorporated herein by reference for all purposes; and

WHEREAS, it will be necessary for Wesleyan Homes to borrow a sum of money not to exceed $7,500,000.00 to complete the purchase and renovation of the Project; and

WHEREAS, the Restated Articles of Incorporation of Wesleyan Homes require the approval of the Conference for Wesleyan Homes to purchase the Project and to increase its indebtedness by an amount not to exceed $7,500,000.00, now therefore, be it,

"RESOLVED, That Wesleyan Homes be authorized to purchase the Project from Regency pursuant to the terms and provisions of the Contract."

"FURTHER RESOLVED, That Wesleyan Homes be authorized to increase its indebtedness in an amount not to exceed $7,500,000.00 for the purchase and renovation of the Project.

Bishop John Russell
President

Sidney Roberts

CENTRAL TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE
Waco Convention Center
First United Methodist Church
Waco, Texas
June 3-6, 1990

FIRST SESSION - SUNDAY AFTERNOON - JUNE 3, 1990

Executive Session - The Executive Session of the Central Texas Conference meeting at the Waco Convention Center was called to order on Sunday, June 3, 1990 by Bishop John Russell at 3:30 p.m.

Eugene Robertson led the singing of "O For A Thousand Tongues To Sing" after which the invocation was given by Bishop Russell.

Tim Thomas reminded the session about the provided child care throughout the meeting of the conference.

The purpose of the Executive Session was explained by Bishop Russell. An expression of thanks was extended to the Board of Ordained Ministry in the work and preparation of this session.

Eric McKinney, chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, presented the report after they were distributed.

The session was referred to Report 3, Part 2, on page 3 of the printed report. Question 17 was answered and approved.

The Executive Session approved the election of those listed as the Committee on Investigation and the Joint Review Committee.

Jane Lovett called attention to the names of those listed as having been certified for candidacy.

Jerry Chism introduced persons with the full-time local pastor status and listed as such in the printed report, Question 21a. They were approved.

Part-time local pastors were then introduced and approved. Student-local pastors were also approved.

Randy Wild referred to Questions 31 and 38. He introduced those to be elected as members in full connection listed in Question 31 of the report. Bishop Russell addressed the group and asked them the historical questions of the church. Elected into full connection and elders orders were: Georgia Lee Adamson, Catherine Louise Peden Hix, Robert B. Linnsteadt, Sandra Williams Lydick, Lylette Pharr, Glenda Whitehead Reed, Jeffrey Alan Smith, John M. Valles, and Jack Vereen.

Randy Wild referred then to Question 29 - those who are continued as probationary members. They were introduced as listed in the printed report. They were approved.

Those to be considered as probationary and ordained deacons were introduced as listed in Question 28 in the printed report. They were elected.

Question 42 was read and acted upon and approved - the discontinuance of two probationary members.

John Schaub called attention to Question 24 and the Executive Session approved those listed. He introduced those listed in Question 25 of the printed report. They were approved.

Question 26 was approved. Other informational questions were considered. Question 47 dealing with leave of absence was then considered. All those on the list with the exception of Albert Gregory were approved.

Albert Gregory, who was on the list as one requested to receive leave of absence status, addressed the session and asked that he come off the list for leave of absence.

The chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry addressed the session to express the feeling that the Board of Ordained Ministry feels that Albert Gregory will benefit by continuing on leave of absence. A secret ballot was taken to approve the recommendation of the Board of Ordained Ministry. The vote was 190 - yes; 23 - no; 2 - abstain. Therefore, the recommendation of the board regarding Albert Gregory was approved.

Question 50c was approved.

The Executive Session granted retired relationship (Question 51a) to: Robert A. Greaves, John Calvin Johnson, and Wilbur Thomas Reynolds.

Joe Bentley and George Morris were recognized as retired local pastors (Question 54.)

John Schaub asked that the session approve those listed in Question 69 regarding less than full-time service. It was done.

Eric McKinney continued the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry by referring to Reports No. 2 and 3 as printed.

Jim Porter presented Report No. 2. Attention was called to the newly-published "Policy Handbook of the Board of Ordained Ministry." He moved adoption of Report No. 2. It was approved.

Report No. 3 was presented by Jim Chandler. He referred to the printed document "Growth and Effectiveness Review for Clergy of the Central Texas Annual Conference." Chandler moved approval of Report No. 3. It was adopted.

Eric McKinney asked that Ben Feemster and Annette Sowell address the conference in regard to their work on national committees.

The Executive Session was adjourned at 5:45 p.m.

SECOND SESSION - SUNDAY EVENING - JUNE 3, 1990

Opening Worship Service - The opening worship service of the one hundred and twenty-fourth meeting of the Central Texas Annual Conference began at 7:30 p.m. with a pre-service concert at 7:00 p.m. given by the All-Conference Choir, at the Waco Convention Center. Bishop Russell introduced Dr. William H. Willimon as the conference preacher. His sermon was entitled "You've Got Spirit." Special music was presented by: the All-Conference Choir under the direction of Charles Gee, Judy Holloway, Sonny Walden and organist, Jeff Ford; the Bells and Beaux Bell Choir from New World UMC, Arlington, under the direction of JoAnn Miller; and the Laura Edwards Childcare Center Choir of Waco, under the direction of Abbie Booker.

There will be an investigation into what is available for the future. Charlie Bostock will be retiring in December of this year. Chris Spence will be assuming his role next January. He spoke of the need for nursing homes and how we can make those a Christian community.

Ron Smith from Harris Methodist Health Systems spoke on the Golden Cross offering. $18,000 came from our offerings. This symbolizes our commitment to helping those who cannot provide for themselves. The overall giving is $14,000,000.

Larry Watson, Vice-President of the Methodist Mission Home, brought greetings. He spoke about the changes in the Mission Home. They are now helping people with head injuries. They continue to serve hearing impaired and the maternity center. There are changes in adoption procedures. He again introduced Nancy Suggs and then the Wichenbach family who spoke about their adoption of Joanna.

Jack Kyle Daniels spoke to us on the Methodist Home. He shared a letter of thanks from someone who received help for their grandson at the Methodist Home. He expressed his thanks for all of our support.

ELEVENTH SESSION - WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON - JUNE 6, 1990

Bishop Russell called the session to order. The devotion was begun by singing "Help Us to Accept Each Other." David Evans read the scripture, and Richard Palmquist offered prayer. The Bishop greeted Bob Sanders, who is attending the conference for the first time in many years. Sanders has been serving the church in Australia.

Huston-Tillotson College - President Joseph McMillan brought greetings and talked about the highlights of 38% increase in enrollment and that they are in the second phase of accreditation. He gave a certificate of recognition for our support through the Black College Fund.

Special privilege was granted Pat Stroman, who asked Ervin Gathings to come forward. The Waco District offered words of thanks and a "cane for living the fast lane", for serving 4 months as Waco district superintendent.

Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns - Annette Sowell, chair, presented the commission's report. She referred the conference to the report printed in the preliminary report, to which she offered an one correction "Rabbi Ralph Mecklenberger" and one addition, the name of Mary Weathers as the representative to the Texas Conference of Churches.

Weldon Haynes then introduced Charles Carnahan who spoke on ministry to persons with AIDS. He is an elder in the North Texas Conference, appointed to the North Texas AIDS Interfaith Network.

Carnahan explained the extent of the AIDS problem. Texas ranks 4th of the 50 states in the number of AIDS cases...1000 in Central Texas alone. He shared the purposes of the AIDS Interfaith Network. Carnahan asked the churches to be aware of the need and to be involved in the ministry with AIDS persons.

Larry Grubb spoke to the conference members about the work of the AIDS care teams, and also presented possible ways local churches can be involved in this ministry.

Gary Lindley then shared with the conference members his story related to AIDS in his family and the strength experienced from his church family.

Haynes expressed appreciation to the three who spoke.

Sowell moved adoption of the report, and it was adopted.

UMCOR Offering - Michael Patison reported $1,738.97 was collected plus the auction of a piece of gum sold for $100. It was a great offering.

Council on Finance and Administration - Henry Radde, chair, introduced the council. Radde gave the highlights of what has taken place over the past year. He expressed thanks to the conference for the support of missions and the program. General church items were paid in full but the conference benevolence items were not paid in full. Radde then explained the increases in this year's budget. He called attention to page 15 - Report No. 3. He moved its adoption. It was adopted. In Report No. 4 on Page 15, line 58 was changed to the third Sunday in February.

It was then adopted. Report No. 5 was voted on and adopted. Report No. 2 was brought before us with the change on page 14, line 19 to February 17th. Report No. 1 was voted on and adopted. Report No. 1 was voted on and adopted. Radde then went over the proposed budget. He highlighted changes in the budget. The adoption of the budget was moved. There were no questions on the budget. It was adopted. There were no corrections to the budget during the annual conference and no questions as a whole. The report as a whole was adopted.

Bishop Russell spoke on the General CFA concerning the Episcopal Fund. Also GCFA goes through the same process that we do with the limitations that are given. He expressed thanks for approving this very fine budget.

Weldon Haynes asked that the conference send greetings to John Brelsford, who is ill. It was done.

Committee on Courtesy and Resolutions - The committee's report was presented by Robert Linnstaedt. He moved adoption and it was done.

Bill Boyd asked for a point of personal privilege to thank those who worked to bring good child care for our conference.

Bishop Russell expressed appreciation for the magnificent spirit of this conference. He gave thanks to be a part of this conference.

The sending forth was led by Brian Young, Jim Olney, Wanda Kile and Barbara Johnson Arther.

VII. REPORTS

COMPOSITE REPORT OF THE CABINET

In 1910 the first session of the Central Texas Annual Conference, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, was held in Waxahachie. 76,690 Methodists made up the 618 churches in the newly formed conference which was being divided from the Northwest Texas Conference. Of this number, 18% had joined the churches during the previous year with 6,316 joining by profession of faith. As one reads the reports to the 1910 conference one sees that their priorities and commitments were not greatly different from ours: Mission, Evangelism, Stewardship, Education and issues of the church's involvement in matters of social concerns. Although some of the social concern issues are no longer at the top of our priorities they remind us of the responsibility to speak about current issues.

Listen to this report given that year by W. E. Hawkins: "Whereas, There has come in among us a most insidious evil, not only very harmful in its immediate results, but most baneful in its future effects upon our men and women, young people, and especially the child life; and, Whereas, It is making inroads upon the spiritual life of our people, hurtful to prayer-meeting and Sunday School, weaning away from the influence of church and pastor; raising up and engendering false standards of duty to God and society, making robbers and thieves of our boys and creating a most degraded standard of purity among our girls; be it hereby Resolved, that the Central Texas Conference, assembled at Waxahachie, most heartily condemn the moving picture show and vaudeville theater and warn our people of its most serious and degrading effects upon our children and young people."

The report of the conference lay leader pledged renewal of their goal of the evangelization of the world in their generation, a motto proposed by the Student Volunteer Movement and John R. Mott.

Several reports spoke of programs designed to help meet that goal of the evangelization of the world. The Sunday School report included a plan to visit every household in Texas on February 22, 1911 and a goal of having one million persons in Sunday School on February 26!

Since that time, this conference has continued to emphasize our concern for the unchurched. Every decade has seen growth, and yet even considering those brought into the conference by the merger into the Methodist Church in 1939, the United Methodist Church in 1968 and the merger with the West Texas Conference in 1970, the decade of the 80's showed more growth than any other in the history of the conference. From 1980 until 1990 there was an 11% gain in membership in the conference. We give strong support to the celebration of ten years of the Commission on Church Growth and Development. That far-sighted move by the conference ten years ago has helped us have our greatest decade yet!

Church Growth and Development, as well as Ministers' Pensions and Glen Lake Camp benefitted from our Capital Funds Campaign. Although there was disappointment that the completion of our Campaign this year did not meet our goal, significant gifts were given and we give thanks to those churches who did meet their suggested goals and to the clergy and laity who worked faithfully in the campaign.

One of the greatest needs we face in the conference is a renewed emphasis upon financial stewardship. The problem in most of our congregations is not that the budgets are too high but that the stewardship is too meager. Our ordained and diaconal ministers met together last month to talk about our own stewardship and plans to challenge our laity to consider their financial stewardship responsibility.

Our conference has always responded to critical needs when challenged by emergencies. Many of our churches have given generously to the Bishop's Appeal for Glen Lake Camp. This camp has been important in the spiritual development of many of the clergy and lay leadership in this conference and we must do all we can that it's ministry continue for future generations.

One of the most significant changes in the life of the church in the past few years has been the increasing number of women in ministry and our emphasis upon open itineracy. More and more churches are recognizing the significant contribution that women ministers make in the life of the church. More than 3,000 women now serve as pastors of local congregations in the United Methodist Church. We are fortunate to have many outstanding women ministers in Central Texas Conference.. We applaud the steps that have been taken and the progress that has been made in having truly open itineracy where race and sex and age are not considered in making appointments. We are not there yet, but we are on the way.

A significant new movement in United Methodism is bringing renewal to many clergy and laity in the Walk to Emmaus program.We applaud those who are giving leadership in this exciting direction.

Later this year we have one of the greatest opportunities of our eighty year history when the Gathering comes to Fort Worth.Thousands of United Methodists from across the nation and around the world will gather here to worship, to study, to learn and to prepare to live more faithfully as disciples of Jesus Christ.

If this meeting were held across the country, we would be doing everything possible to raise necessary funds to send as many people as possible. We dare not fail to take advantage of this tremendous event. If we participate it will help us to have more vital congregations and faithful disciples.

One of the vital concerns of our cabinet has been the increasing amount of our time that is dedicated to meetings outside of our districts. We have asked the Conference Committee on Rules to look at the continually increasing conference responsibilities that superintendents have. All of these committees, commissions and agencies are important, but we feel strongly that our priority should be upon working with the clergy and laity in the churches of our districts. We ask your support and understanding as we attempt to re-prioritize our time and energies that we might have more time and energy for our work as district superintendents.

The report of the Board of Missions to the 1910 conference included these words "One hundred and twenty-six missionaries have operated in the territory comprising the two Conferences, eight of whom are Missionaries to the foreigners. In the midst of most trying conditions our Missionaries have remained faithfully at their post as real heroes of the Cross, and the courageous band of Missionaries to the Bohemians under fine leadership of Rev. V. Cejnar and C. W. Macune and Maurini at Thurber have rendered faithful and efficient service."

We no longer have missionaries at Thurber but in the last eighty years many persons have gone from our conference to serve as missionaries and in a few minutes we will give our blessing to Starr and Christina Bowen who will be going from our midst soon to a new assignment in Chile. Starr is a member of this conference and we have adopted Christina as a Texan, Scottish accent and all. More and more churches in our conference are becoming covenant churches by pledging their support to missionaries over and above their apportioned amount for World Service. We now have 74 congregations who have mission support in their budgets. Our smallest covenant church is Dido United Methodist Church which pledges $99 or $3 for each of their 33 members.

About 75 persons are now in our missionary pool of approved persons awaiting assignment. They cannot be assigned until salary support has been pledged. We urge all of our churches to prayerfully consider becoming covenant churches and we look forward to the day when every congregation is a part of this covenant.

For exactly half of the eighty years of this conference I have been a member of the conference. For the past fifteen years I have been involved in work with Boards of Ordained Ministry. Never have I been more optimistic about the future of the church than I am today. The quality of women and men entering the ordained and diaconal ministry has never been higher than it is today. As we face the last decade of the 20th century, the church is in good hands!

I could not finish this report without saying something about that special covenant relationship of annual conference membership. Hardly a year passes that we are not saddened when one of our sisters or brothers breaks the standards of the covenant and leaves the ministry. We need to pray for each other and for those who fall that God's blessings and mercy would be upon each of us that we might be faithful to our calling.

We are departing this year from the previous pattern of reading the names of individuals and churches who have celebrated significant events this year. This morning we celebrated the lives and ministries of clergy and clergy spouses who have died this year. Celebrations will be listed as a part of this report and will be distributed shortly to you.

I began with a quote from the 1910 Journal and want to conclude by quoting "The State of the Church Report" from the 1910 Journal, "It is with great gratitude to Almighty God and with renewed confidence in the devotion and efficiency of the ministry of our church that your Committee on the State of the Church record the fact of great prosperity and success in the work of our beloved Zion during the year now closing, despite all the difficulties encountered. We gather from the reports presented by the presiding elders and pastors that thousands have been converted under the ministry of our preachers, and there has been a healthy increase and advancement on all lines of church work. Churches have been built and parsonages built and furnished; our Sunday Schools are flourishing, in many instances the enrollment exceeding the membership of the church. The doctrines of Methodism, harmonizing as they do with the Word of God, commend themselves to the people and are accepted heartily by them, and God continues His approval of the work of our beloved church and honors her as a great factor in the evangelization of the people, Therefore,

Resolved, That we exhort our ministers to continue faithful to our obligations to God and the world and preach the Word according to Methodism and trust in the presence and power and efficiency of the Holy Spirit for results."

Respectfully submitted,

Ben H. Feemster
Dean of the Cabinet

Report No. 1

1. The Council on Finance and Administration commends the members of the Annual Conference, the churches and the membership of the churches for their financial response and responsibility in 1989. Our conference has a long tradition of such financial responsibility and the Council on Finance and Administration looks forward to continuing that tradition. All of our General Church items were paid 100%. It is noted with regret that all of the apportioned items were not paid in full. We did not reach 100% on some annual conference items. These ministries suffered. We hope that this will be corrected in 1990.

2. The salary for the district superintendent shall be an amount equal to 105% of the average of the salary and allowances paid to pastors of the top twenty (20) churches of the conference. It shall be computed on the basis of salaries approved by the Charge Conferences which appear on the Episcopal work sheets as of February 1. The figures will be compiled by the conference director of Finance and Administration within five days. The 1991 salary for a district superintendent will be $61,558. The Ministerial Pension Plan current service amount of 12% of the Denominational Average Compensation, billed directly to the conference, will be added to the above salary for apportionment to the districts. It is understood that travel to conference meetings is included in Cabinet members' salary.
3. The conference offices of director of Finance and Administration, director of the Council on Ministries, and director of Church Growth and Development will receive a salary equal to that of the district superintendents. For 1991 that salary will be $61,558. This amount includes an allowance for utilities and maintenance of $4,000 for the above named three offices. Travel allowances may be part of the respective council's or commission's budget.
4. The district committees on finance are authorized to prepare budgets for presentation to the district stewards. An amount equal to 10% of the salary for the district superintendent may be included in the district budget to defray the utility costs of the district parsonage. In addition, an amount equal to 10% of the salary may be included in the district budget for travel expenses of the district superintendent. District budgets shall not include a discretionary fund, but may include a District Operations Expense item with a parenthetical explanation of its intent. The district budget shall be submitted to the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration for approval each year. The district stewards are authorized to apportion a Connectional Contingency Fund to be used for paying in full apportioned items which may fall short within the respective district. The Connectional Contingency Fund will be administered at the district level in the same means as the District Work Fund. It is understood that if a portion of the Connectional Contingency Fund is not used in any given year, it will remain in the fund and future apportionment funds will be reduced. Any adjustments for unusual local church situations will be made in the apportionment of the Connectional Contingency Fund only. All other apportionments will be distributed to every local church on the basis of the decimal.
5. The council recommends the request from the conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry that the amount for the Texas Methodist College Association be $1.60 multiplied by the total conference local church membership. The council also recommends the request from the conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry that the amount for the Wesley Foundation Fund be $1.16 multiplied by the total conference local church membership. Both funds shall be apportioned to the districts and to the local churches on the decimal authorized by the Annual Conference.
6. The council recommends that the Equitable Salary Fund be drawn from monies deposited with the Texas Methodist Foundation.
7. We recommend the appointment of Dr. Sidney Roberts as director of Finance and Administration and as the secretary of the Central Texas Conference.

Report No. 2

1. The conference Council on Finance and Administration approves and recommends the following offerings be taken in all local churches of the Central Texas Conference on or near the dates designated:

Peace with Justice	May 26
Homes for Retired Ministers	June 16
Lydia Patterson Institute	July
Christian Education Sunday	September 8
World Wide Communion	October 6
Thanksliving Offering	November
Methodist Mission Home of Texas	November 3
United Methodist Student Day	December 1
The Methodist Home, Waco	December
Annual Conference Special Offering	ACCOM determines

2. While no special day is designated for an offering for the Texas Alcohol-Narcotics Education, Inc., we approve this special cause for either an appropriation from the budget in the local church, or a special offering taken at such time as the local church determines.
3. In keeping with the requirements of the Discipline, the apportionments for World Service and Conference Benevolences will be combined into one fund, namely, World Service and Conference Benevolences. This fund, along with Connectional Ministry, Conference Claimant's Fund, Minister's Insurance, Texas Methodist College Association, Wesley Foundation Ministerial Educational Fund, Black Methodist College Fund, Africa University, Mount Sequoyah, and Lydia Patterson, will be apportioned to the districts on the decimal figure, established annually, as authorized in the Standing Rules of the Conference.
4. The director of Finance and Administration is authorized to distribute each month the receipts from local churches for World Service and Conference Benevolences among the funds included in the annual budget of the conference in proportion to their apportionments. Any deficit in remittances from the churches will be covered by payments from the operating reserve, upon approval by CF&A or its Executive Committee.
5. All boards, commissions and agencies shall have prepared in writing by January 31, 1991 their detailed budget requests for the ensuing year. The program agencies shall present their requests to the Committee on Coordination and Budget by said date. The non-program agencies shall present their requests to the CF&A by the same date. A copy of all budgets must be sent to the CF&A President, director of Finance and Administration, and director of the Council on Ministries. Requests will not be considered if received past the due date unless time extension has been requested and approved.
6. The director of Finance and Administration is authorized to pay from the operating reserve the following items.

a. Expenses of printing the Journal, which may exceed budget appropriation.
b. Expenses of the conference session secretarial staff.
c. Expense of fidelity bonds for the director of Finance and Administration and others who handle conference funds, as determined by CF&A.
d. Expense of auditing the books of the director of Finance and Administration, the treasurers of boards, commissions and other agencies of the conference as may be ordered by CF&A. Such audits are to be made by the auditors selected by CF&A.
e. The moving expense of ministers of the conference in accordance with the formula adopted by the 1982 Annual Conference upon recommendation of the Commission on Equitable Salaries and Clergy Benefits. When the next annual budget is prepared, the CF&A is authorized to place the total amount in the budget to repay the operating reserve for past year spending.
f. Other expenditures may be authorized by CF&A. Expenditures not to exceed $2,000 may be authorized by the Executive Committee of the council.
g. The conference director of Finance and Administration shall pay from operating reserve an amount equal to 50% of the General /Jurisdictional Conference per diem or reimbursement for actual expenses above the per diem, whichever is less, to each elected lay and clerical delegate and to the first lay and clerical alternate delegates representing this conference at General/Jurisdictional Conferences. An additional amount equal to the General/Jurisdictional Conference per diem shall be paid to the first lay and clerical alternate delegates to the General/Jurisdictional Conference.

9. The director of Finance and Administration is authorized to:

a. Consolidate the various funds of the Annual Conference and of the agencies into one or more bank accounts.
b. Write all checks for the agencies of the conference upon requisition by authorized officers of the agency and in keeping with approved conference budget. He is also authorized to transmit to the authorized treasurers all other funds that are raised by the local churches in response to General Jurisdictional and Annual Conference askings that have been approved by the appropriate body.
c. The conference treasurer, after the close of the fiscal year, shall transfer from the accounts of all boards, commissions and other agencies of the conference into the operating reserve all unexpended balances of the annual appropriations for the year just closed (excepting only items specifically exempt by CF&A) making allowances for all outstanding checks. This procedure is recommended with the understanding that the director of Finance and Administration will honor the requisitions for all necessary expenses of the new fiscal year within the limits of the appropriations.
d. To invest the funds of the conference in government securities and federally insured depositories up to and not exceeding insurability, and/or with the Texas Methodist Foundation and to borrow on and dispose of investments at, or prior to, maturity, and to deposit the proceeds from these investments in accounts of the conference under the guidance of the Council on Finance and Administration.
e. To deposit funds for specifically designated purposes in federally insured depositories up to and not exceeding insurability and/or with the Texas Methodist Foundation under the joint control of the Central Treasury and the agency concerned, with the approval of the Executive Committee of the conference Council on Finance and Administration.

Report No. 3

The Council on Finance and Administration recommends to the Annual Conference that the Committee on Planning and Research be asked to assume the function assigned to it by the Book of Discipline (1988 ¶726.5.c.2) "To serve as an advisory group in planning and research for the Annual Conference and its agencies."

Report No. 4

The Council on Finance and Administration affirms the presentation of the Aldersgate Enrichment Center concerning the "Open Door Program" but recommends that the special offering be taken on the third Sunday in February.

Report No. 5

The Council on Finance and Administration recommends the Texas Wesleyan University "Centennial Scholars Program" to the Annual Conference.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

The Central Texas Annual Conference Council On Ministries is enjoying a very busy year. Building on the work of previous years all areas are developing ministries that will provide assistance and direction to our Annual Conference programs based on the input and concerns of the local church.

The work of the council encompasses overseeing and coordinating, as well as, implementing the decisions made by the Annual Conference through the various boards, commissions and committees.

Eugene Robertson, Chairperson

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

We have an active and working board committed to addressing today's issues in our society. We have a good mix of people and thank the nominating committees and district superintendents in that regard.

During the past year, a highlight was the organization of the board into committees to better facilitate our work. We have a fine group of four chairpersons.

Another highlight was the drafting of two resolutions having to do with Open Itinerancy and a Resource Team to implement this work which were both approved by the Annual Conference. We contributed to the success of Fall University both financially and by board members lecturing. We were disappointed that the UN/DC trip did not make, but are taking steps to hopefully ensure its success this year. All in all I am pleased with the work of the board and its committees. We are not just engaged in considering resolutions, which is important, but also in taking appropriate action as needed.

One of our committees is engaged in identifying persons at the local churches who are working in the Church and Society area, so as to better facilitate the flow of information down to the local churches and from the local churches up to the conference.

Proposed Programs:

1. Inclusiveness Resources Team
   Goal: To develop a workshop, leaders and materials
2. Fall University
   Goal: Information will help persons identify social issues
3. UN/DC Trip
   Goal: To develop youth leadership and help them understand global and national issues, and then become resources at local and district level
4. Peace With Justice Journey through the Conference. Provide financial and other assistance and other support to Rev. Carol Windrum and her husband, Tim Fickenscher.
   Goal: Develop discussions at several places in Central Texas Conference on Peace With Justice issue

Ed Youngblood, Chairperson

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

The Board of Discipleship is pleased to have sponsored many successful events in 1989. Many classes offered at Fall University, including the New Hymnal classes taught by Carlton Young and the Evangelism classes taught by Herb Miller, were well attended. Two new workshops, The Church and the Baby Boomers and Utilization Of the New Hymnal, were very important additions to our curriculum. The Walk to Emmaus ministry for the renewal of local church leaders expanded and has been well received.

We are looking forward in 1990-92 to many more successful programs. The Stewardship Workshop was held in May of 1990. Fall University is again being offered with many diverse education opportunities. The Emmaus Board is working on development of Chrysalis for youth along with continued expansion of Walk to Emmaus. Two major events have been scheduled in response to the Episcopal initiative on Vital Congregation - Faithful Disciples. This fall, October 31 to November 4, 1990, the International Gathering will be held in Fort Worth. Next fall in 1991, a Central Texas Conference Celebration will be held. These events will be very challenging and rewarding.

I would like to express appreciation to Bishop Russell for his leadership in securing the needed funding for Glen Lake Camp. We are faced with a need for a significant increase in funding and we need the support of the whole conference to continue to develop and expand this facility and ministry for the children, youth, adults, and families of our area.

Claus Rohlfs, Jr., Chairperson

Camps and Assemblies Committee

The Camps and Assemblies Committee of the Board of Discipleship rejoices in a very successful year of activities at Glen Lake Camp. Our eight weeks of summer residence camp and off-site camping have provided spiritual, physical and mental development for the children and youth of Central Texas Conference. Our permanent and summer staff provide excellent leadership, and continually "go the second mile" in their dedication toward making our conference camp one of the finest in the jurisdiction. The addition of Miss Terri Ford to our staff as Outdoor Activities Director has enabled us to expand and strengthen our ministry to the children, youth and older adults in the conference. A highlight in 1989 was CELEBRATE 50!, the all-day celebration in June of the 50th anniversary of Glen Lake Camp being a part of the Central Texas Conference ministry. 1989 also saw our first multi-ethnic camp, called "Leadership Development Camp" for selected junior high students. The two new small group lodges have added an important dimension to our camp, and we look forward to the construction of the new Graham Lodge in the near future.

Our greatest disappointment is the lack of capital funds to make the necessary repairs to the camp. Urgent and immediate repairs must be made to the swimming pool, existing cabins and general use buildings. Also repair is needed on sewers/plumbing and electrical wiring. Many of our grand old trees are being lost to disease, and landscaping must be a part of our future expenditures.

Glen Lake Camp offers unlimited possibilities for ministry to children, youth and adults in Central Texas. We look forward to the new decade and indeed, to the second 50 years of service to United Methodists in Central Texas.

Proposed Goals:

1. Summer Camp for Children and Youth
   Goal: To provide by December 31, 1991, at least eight weeks of summer residence camp and our weeks of summer off-site camp for the spiritual, physical and mental development of children and youth. Special consideration will be given to minority and handicapped children and youth for camping opportunities.
2. Retreat and Seminar Adult Ministries
   Goal: To cooperate with the Worship Committee and other groups within the Board of Discipleship to provide numerous "Walk to Emmaus" events. To cooperate with the Committee on Aging, Board of Global Ministries, to provide retreat ministries for older adults. To provide Time Apart events for clergy and diaconal ministers and United Methodist Women/Men events.
3. Capital Improvements of Glen Lake United Methodist Camp

Goal: Repair of swimming pool, cabins, general use buildings, and landscaping

4. National/Jurisdictional Leadership Training
Goal: To nurture Christian growth and leadership development within the context of outdoor ministry

Donna Paustian, Chairperson

Glen Lake Trustees

The camp properties of the Annual Conference have accumulated twenty-five thousand (25,000) "individual user days" in the past year. As in the past, a majority of these served have been girls and boys, young women and young men of our local churches, engaged in curricula and activities geared to their physical, mental and spiritual development

Deep gratitude is extended to all the many who supported and participated in last summer's observance of the camp's fiftieth year of operation, Celebrate 50! The response and the program were excellent. Construction of the Graham Lodge for which ground was broken at that event is scheduled to begin in the very near future. The concerted effort toward, and generous response for, the April Glen Lake Camp special offering also has helped immensely in this project and numerous other ways.

It is a thrill to report that the Rainbow Camp properties were sold once again this past February, and that one hundred, fifty-seven thousand, five hundred dollars ($157,500.00) have already been received toward a total selling price of two-hundred thousand dollars ($200,000)! This transaction goes a long way in getting the camp back on track of the original plan for funding the purchase of the 308 acre expansion property tract located adjacent to the original site. The remaining principal indebtedness on the expansion property is one hundred, eighty-five thousand dollars ($185,000.00).

The Adopt-a-Cabin Plan for the remodeling of existing cabins at a cost of six to nine thousand dollars per is going well. Several local churches have indicated their intentions in this regard, and what with the one-for-every-two match offer of First United Methodist, Brownwood, it is altogether possible that all eight cabins behind "the Cross on the lake" (the south area of property) can be remodeled by summer 1991. We congratulate, commend and express gratitude to the United Methodist Youth Fellowship of First UMC, Waxahachie, on their most recent "Adopt-a-Cabin" contribution of six thousand dollars ($6,000) - project moneys these young people "got together" in less than a year! Another vital key to the success of the cabin remodeling will be a Glen Lake Workday in the early fall of this year. The conference page of The United Methodist Reporter (that has been of such vital service to the camp, particularly in recent weeks) will provide detailed information about the Glen Lake Workday.

The trustees of your Glen Lake United Methodist Camp thank Bishop Russell, members of the Cabinet, and the children, youth, adults, pastors and staff of the local churches for the support of their interest, encouragement, cooperation, participation and monetary generosity.

Perhaps the best thing many of you can do for Glen Lake (ones who have not been on the site for some time - or never) would be to stop in for a nostalgic or get-acquainted tour of this sacred place where a vital area of Christian education is accomplished best through an experience of group living and learning in an out-of-doors, retreat setting.

W. C. Taylor, Jr., Chairperson

Committee on Devotional Life

For the year 1989 the Committee on Devotional Life felt very successful considering it was our first year of existence. There were six Walks to Emmaus, four for women and two for men. Each of these proved to be highly successful in motivating both clergy and laity for continued service within the local church. Perhaps the greatest disappointment was that we could not provide leadership for two other Walks. Also, two of the Walks were not completely full with participants. However, those who went have great things to say about the Walk to Emmaus. In conjunction with the Walk to Emmaus is the Chrysalis program for youth. It is the youth equivalent of the Walk to Emmaus. Four adults and several youth participated in Chrysalis in 1989 in preparation for establishing it in the Central Texas Conference. That we hope to do in 1990.

We are very proud to report that Grayson Luckey from Ponca City, Oklahoma came to Fall University to train and inspire interested persons for Covenant Discipleship groups. He did an outstanding job. There were about twenty-five in attendance for his seminar. We hope to pursue that as well this year.

Our greatest disappointment was that we did not conduct a marriage enrichment event, though many were held independent of the CDL. This again, is a goal we want to pursue in 1990, so many marriages will be enriched through these events.

Overall, we would say we had a very good first year. Over 275 people were reached with programming we provided through our committee. Our main goal is to improve the spiritual well being of those who choose to take the opportunities we provide. The deepening of our commitments to Christ and His church are what we seek through the Committee on Devotional Life.

Proposed Programs:

1. Walk to Emmaus
   Goal: To provide resources and setting for eight "Walks" which would inspire, motivate, train, equip, and support local church laity and clergy for their work in the church. Eight events would reach over 320 persons.
2. Chrysalis Program (youth "Walk to Emmaus")
   Goal: To provide setting and resources for two "Walks", one male and one female, during 1991. Each event is designed to inspire, motivate, train, equip, and support local church youth for their current work and future work in the church. Two events would reach over 80 youths.
3. Covenant Discipleship Groups
   Goal: To provide one training event in 1991 to be attended by one clergy and one lay person selected by each district in the Annual Conference. Each team trained would sponsor an event for training in their respective districts.
4. Marriage Enrichment Events
   Goal: To provide opportunity for couples to enrich their marriages through guided events such as "Celebrating Marriage", "Marriage Enrichment", and Marriage Encounter".
5. Devotional Life Bibliography
   Goal: To provide a written resource for pastors and other church leaders who have an interest in devotional material that are available

George M. Sutton, Chairperson

Education and Leadership Development

The work of this committee consisted mainly of planning and sponsoring these activities:

1) Courses at Fall University, providing training for teachers and other local church workers. This continues to be very successful, with overall attendance increasing steadily each year. Although some individual teacher training courses have a small attendance, even these seem to fill a need that justifies our continuing to make them available.

2) Laboratory Training School for teachers, held in Fort Worth in August 1989 and attended by about 80. This event is held in our Annual Conference biennially and continues to be well received. It features hands-on learning in a group setting.

3) Attendance at various workshops and other training events throughout the U.S., enabling people from our conference to become informed and trained in specialized areas, in order to return and serve as resource people and trainers within our conference. In 1989 we sent groups to workshops on human sexuality education, reaching Baby Boomers, using the new hymnal, working with youth, and working with children (Focus '89).

4) Activities for various age and interest groups within our membership. In 1989 this included two well-attended retreats for senior adults. Funds received on Christian Education Sunday, in addition to Annual Conference budgeted funds and fees paid by participants, support these programs.

5) Creation of a Task Force on Human Sexuality Education, to develop leaders and establish a training process that can be made available to local churches within our conference.

TASK FORCE ON HUMAN SEXUALITY EDUCATION

1. 71.F First paragraph Book of Discipline, page 95
   F) Human Sexuality - We recognize that sexuality is God's good gift to all persons. We believe persons may be fully human only when that gift is acknowledged and affirmed by themselves, the Church, and society. We call all persons to the disciplined, responsible fulfillment of themselves, others, and society in the stewardship of this gift. We also recognize our limited understanding of this complex gift and encourage the medical, theological, and social science disciplines to combine in a determined effort to understand human sexuality more completely. We call the Church to take the leadership role in bringing together these disciplines to address this most complex issue. Further, within the context of our understanding of this gift of God, we recognize that God challenges us to find responsible, committed, and loving forms of expression.
2. As a response to the need for quality human sexuality education in the local church, this task force has been formed in the Central Texas conference. The General Board of Discipleship and Church School Publication have introduced programs and curriculum materials to enable the Task Force on Human Sexuality Education to develop leaders and to establish a training process in the Central Texas Conference. The goal is for local churches to include human sexuality education as a more intentional aspect of the life of the congregation so that more persons within those congregations will be able to:
   --- Affirm their own sexuality;
   --- Reach and enjoy their full potential as daughters and sons of God;
   --- See themselves as partners in growth; and
   --- Be more faithful Christians as they make decisions related to human sexuality.
3. The Task Force shall be composed of the following:
   --- Two certified persons in human sexuality laboratory education
   --- Six adult age level representatives - children (2), youth (2), adults (2)
   --- Two at-large selected by the Committee On Education, Board of Discipleship
   --- Two at-large selected by the conference Nominating Committee
   --- Cabinet representative
   --- Ex-Officio: One CCYM representative
   Chair of Education and Leadership Development
   --- Staff representatives: ACCOM staff responsible for age level ministries

4. The Task Force shall be elected for a quadrennium. The staff person responsible to Board of Discipleship shall convene the members at the beginning of the quadrennium for the purpose of electing a chair, vice-chair, and secretary. These persons shall serve for the quadrennium and shall be elected from the membership of the Task Force. This process shall begin with the 1992 quadrennium. The Executive Committee shall serve as the nominating committee of the Task Force on Human Sexuality Education and shall be composed of: the officers, the cabinet representative, one other member selected by the Task Force, and staff representatives (without vote). They shall be responsible for nominating all new members to the Task Force excluding ex-officio members and the two at-large members nominated by the conference Nominating Committee. The Task Force shall nominate new members who will be elected by the members of the Education Committee of the Board of Discipleship.
5. There shall be two standing committees of the Task Force as follows:
   1) The Certification Committee shall be responsible for planning and evaluating a laboratory process that shall be implemented by trained leaders and used in the local church. This laboratory process shall meet the needs of all age levels in terms of human sexuality and be appropriately administered. This committee shall plan a certification process for leaders and shall be responsible for reviewing teaching plans and awarding certification. There shall also be a process established for recertification of lab leaders. Keeping of records for training events shall also be a responsibility of this committee.
   2) This committee shall be responsible for identifying and enabling local church persons to develop a comprehensive human sexuality program appropriate to all age levels. This committee shall make available to the local church resources that are in addition to the UM curriculum as well as selected persons who shall serve as consultants. These committees shall serve for the quadrennium and shall be composed of members of the Task Force.

Proposed Program:

1. Courses at Fall University
   Goal: Offer the courses that will meet local church teachers' needs
2. Human Sexuality Education Task Force
   Goal: Identification, training and certification of teachers who will be available to local churches; development of a laboratory training process for use in local churches; identification of local churches' needs and resources
3. Summer Laboratory Training School for teachers
   Goal: To present a hands-on group training experience within our conference, for interested teachers from local churches
4. Leadership Development Training Events
   Goal: Bring learning from various workshops and other informational and training events from beyond this annual conference home to the local churches in our conference
5. Specialized activities for various interest groups
   Goal: Present activities for various age and interest groups to provide fellowship with others whose age, interests, and needs are similar; to present personal growth opportunities related to meeting each group's special needs.

Legislative item: This committee recommends that the Annual Conference set September 8, 1991 as Christian Education Sunday.

Barbara Wendland, Chairperson

Committee on Evangelism

The 1989 year produced a great response to the call for evangelism in the Central Texas Conference. Our work area on evangelism hosted Dr. Herb Miller at the Fall University. Dr. Miller spoke to over 200 pastors and lay people on how to grow as a magnetic church. The responses to Dr. Miller's presentation and materials have been overwhelming. The group has also been in touch with Dr. Ed. Otwell and Bishop Russell in putting together the booklet "Vital Congregation: Faithful Disciples".

Proposed Programs:

1. Fall University - speaker for three sessions on Evangelism: "Renewal and Evangelism"
2. Develop resources for evangelism in local churches Goal: Develop a list of evangelists who are United Methodist
3. Follow up on "The Gathering" for members of Central Texas Conference Churches Goal: To promote a follow-up rally in Fort Worth in 1991

Vaughn Baker, Chairperson

Committee on Stewardship

The Committee on Stewardship presented a training series at Fall University called, "A Fresh Look At Local Church Finance Campaigns". John Lukert, Tim Walker, Sidney Roberts, Charles McClure, and William Longsworth gave superb leadership to this series. Approximately 75 pastors and lay persons attended one or more of the sessions. Many evaluated the series as the best stewardship event they had ever attended.

As a response to an expressed and continued need, the Committee on Stewardship co-sponsored with the Central Texas Conference Cabinet, an event in Fort Worth, May 9-10, 1990. Dr. Hilbert Berger, noted stewardship expert, was the featured speaker and leader of the event, "Exploring New Dimensions of Stewardship." Participants returned to their local churches with renewed commitment, new resources, and a clearer understanding of the meaning of stewardship.

Proposed Program

Fall University - Dr. Hilbert Berger will be the keynote speaker and lead two classes on September 8, 1990.

Jack Riley, Chairperson

Committee on Worship

During 1989-90, the Committee on Worship has accomplished the following:

1) We sent Mr. Chuck Gee (Minister of Music, First United Methodist Church, Hurst) to the Biennial Gathering of the Fellowship held in Clarmont, California. Because of his participation in that event, Chuck is now a team member in leading workshops on the new hymnal as well as a member of the planning team for the conference-wide Choir Workshop to be held in April, 1990.

2) We offered six courses at the 1989 Fall University focusing on the new hymnal and the work of the Worship Committee. Our leadership included Dr. Carlton Young (hymnal editor) and Diana Sanchez (Director of Music Resources, General Board of Discipleship, Section on Worship). Dr. Young was also the primary speaker at the Fall University worship events.

3) A task force began its work to plan the conference-wide Choir Workshop that will feature Jane Marshall as clinician. The workshop is open to choir directors, choir members and all other interested persons in the Central Texas Conference. It will be held on April 28, 1990, at Westcliff United Methodist Church, Fort Worth. Members of the planning team are: Jim Olney, Chuck Gee, Sonny Walden, and Judy Stafford.

4) A team of six persons (two clergy, two musicians, and two educators) received training in Nashville, November 3-5, to lead hymnal workshops in our conference. In addition to acquainting clergy, musicians, teachers and others with the new hymnal, the workshop gives some focus to the hymnal's use during the season of Lent. One workshop will occur in each district during the month of February, 1990. Members of the team are: Jim Olney, Homer Kluck, Chuck Gee, Judy Holloway, Frankie Adams, and Judy Stafford.

Proposed Programs:

1. Worship Newsletter
   Goal: To produce a quarterly communication for distribution through the coordinating mailing that would carry a list of worship events, resources and articles to assist pastors and others with worship planning in the local church.
2. Conference-wide Choir Workshop
   Goal: To provide a one-day choir workshop to involve the music leadership and choir members of congregations in the Central Texas Conference.
3. Fall University
   Goal: To provide up to eight seminars for the 1991 Fall University, with Dr. Michael Williams, Director of Preaching Ministries, The General Board of Discipleship, Section on Worship, serving as speaker and leading several seminars.
4. Conference participation in Proclamation '91
   Goal: To provide financial assistance for one person from the Committee on Worship to attend the event. The attendee would then be expected to communicate learnings through the Worship Newsletter and be available as a resource person for conference training events.
5. Conference participation in The Biennial Gathering of the Fellowship of United Methodists In Worship, Music, and Other Arts
   Goal: To provide financial assistance for two persons from the Committee on Worship to attend the 1991 Biennial Gathering of The Fellowship to be held at Lake Junaluska. These persons will be expected to communicate learnings through the Worship Newsletter and be available as resource people for district and conference events.
6. Training in the use of The United Methodist Hymnal
   Goal: To continue to provide Nashville-supported training in the use of The United Methodist Hymnal through various seasons of the Christian Year for clergy and laity of our conference.
7. Children's Choir Festival
   Goal: To provide an annual one-day event when children's choirs from the congregations of the Central Texas Conference can come together to: (1) present musical selections; (2) be recognized for their contribution to music ministry; and (3) discover new vitality and enthusiasm for music ministry.
8. Meeting expense for Committee On Worship
   Goal: To meet as a whole committee only twice during 1991, with task groups meeting as needed to plan and evaluate events.

James R. Olney, Chairperson

Conference Council on Youth Ministry

The conference Council on Youth Ministry plans and produces conference youth events and ministry to present the gospel of Jesus Christ in various ways so that youth of all ages and interests may live out the gospel message. 1989 was a busy and productive year for the CCYM. Two of our members served as national and/or jurisdictional United Methodist youth officers and played key roles in the Jurisdictional and National Youth Ministry Organization's Convocations. Youth Service Fund dollars and a difficult selection process sent four youth from Central Texas as delegates on the South Central Jurisdiction's "US/USSR Mission of Peace", and they have been sharing their experience with others. The regular series of conference youth events, from Mid-winter retreats to the Youth Division of Fall University, received overwhelmingly positive evaluation from participants. CCYM members led youth officer sessions at two district training events. Over 1,700 people took advantage of our special Six Flags Days for Youth Service Fund and we sold over 1,000 discount tickets to Wet 'n Wild. The council has been blessed with the active participation of an increased number of black members and increased opportunities for working together in the church as God's children. CCYM continues to work to increase Youth Service Fund giving and to keep participant fees for events as low as possible in the face of high costs for food, lodging, materials, resource people, and transportation.

Proposed Programs:

1. CCYM Training and Growth
   Goal: To nurture Christian growth and leadership development within the CCYM through training, spiritual development and service.
2. CCYM Availability to Local Churches
   Goal: Local churches frequently request speakers or outside resource persons to present a program or lesson. There are many areas in which the CCYM members have experience and knowledge which could be shared.
3. Total Youth Ministry Programming within the Annual Conference
   Goal: To promote cooperation and coordination among the groups and administrative levels addressing various needs of youth.
4. On-going programs (Mid-Winter Retreats, Spiritual Life Retreat, Summer Bash, Six Flags, Wet 'n Wild, Fall University, Youth News and Views)
   Goal: To continue all on-going programs, evaluating and adapting them each year and emphasizing within them the National Youth Ministry Organization priorities: "Journey In To Reach Out" and "Quieting the Storm -- Youth In Crisis."
5. Fall University Youth Division
   Goal: To sponsor Fall University classes that will address the needs and concerns of youth and adults within our local churches, enabling them to better engage in youth ministry.
6. United Methodist Youth Events Beyond the Annual Conference
   Goal: To promote attendance and participation in United Methodist youth events beyond the Annual Conference (specifically Youth '91) by channeling information to local churches and by working to coordinate or help with transportation and finances.
7. Youth Service Fund Participation
   Goal: To increase local church awareness of and giving to Youth Service Fund through publicity, programs of stewardship education, and personal contact.
8. Minority Participation
   Goal: To have at least ten minority youth and adults serving on CCYM, and to increase minority participation in district and conference events until inclusiveness becomes such a natural part of our church life that this goal is no longer needed.
9. Evangelism and Christian Wholeness
   Goal: To sponsor events which intentionally emphasize the joy and positive values of Christianity as the alternative to a cynical and hopeless approach to life.

Gerry Byrn, Chairperson

Gathering/Celebration

The Board of Discipleship is planning a conference-wide celebration in the fall of 1991. The purpose of this rally will be to celebrate and nurture vital congregations and faithful disciples. This will be a one-day event in Fort Worth with a projected attendance between 2500 and 5000 people. The major emphasis will be on preaching and music with both congregational and choir music. Several notable speakers from outside the Central Texas Conference will be invited. We believe this celebration will be an uplifting and strengthening experience for those persons and congregations who participate.

Claus H. Rohlfs, Jr., Chairperson

BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

Our training event for district secretaries of Global Ministries was held at United Community Center in Fort Worth and included a tour of some of their facilities. The full board had two meetings this year, our fall meeting at First United Methodist Church in Fort Worth in September and our winter meeting in January at Austin Avenue United Methodist Church in Waco. The board has voted to continue to support the Cooperative School of Christian Missions through 1991. We will be sponsoring two courses at Fall University in 1990. The Health and Welfare Committee will sponsor one of these and Gail Boyd, who heads the Task Force on Hunger, is working with representatives from UMCOR to present a course. David Adkins, who is the VIM Coordinator, is working with the South Central Jurisdiction to produce a centralized computer program consisting of VIM programs and opportunities. Eventually this will be available through the conference office. Each of the five standing committees of the Board of Global Ministries has a summary of their work accompanying their reports.

Dale Smith, Chairperson

Committee on Aging

Proposed Programs:

1. Senior Retreat
   Goal: To offer seniors opportunities to enlarge their vision of their rightful place in the life of the church
2. Senior Retreat
   Goal: same as above

The work of the Committee on Aging during calendar year 1989 consisted mainly of the joint sponsoring of two conference-wide retreats at Glen Lake Camp with conference and camp staffs also taking major leadership roles. The retreats which took place in the spring and fall of the year highlighted the increasing life and ministries of senior adults. The spring retreat featured the leadership of Don Renshaw and Homer Kluck, while the fall retreat featured Eric McKinney and Oris Baldwin. Overall figures reflect the fact that seniors are still largely unaware of the growing opportunities that the church affords for them. Combined total were approximately seventy five.

Bob E. Messer, Chairperson

Committee on City, Town and Country

Proposed Programs:

1. Investigate the possibility of establishing a committee on the small membership church Goal: To provide help for small churches of all types
2. Research possibilities for establishing permanent training and/or resource center for small membership churches

Goal: To increase skills and use of materials by churches with limited resources

3. Disciple Bible study training for rural congregations Goal: To get this valuable training into town and country congregations

4. Town and Country articles in the United Methodist Reporter
Goal: To affirm and support the ministries of persons in town and country situations

5. Investigate possibility for regularly scheduled meetings between cabinet and Town and Country leaders
Goal: Keep channels open between smallest congregations and cabinet

The main event of the year for the committee was the long range planning event for Town and Country Ministry, which was held October 15, 1989. Participants consisted of the following:

Representing the Extended Cabinet: Luther Henry, Charles McClure, Ed Otwell, Michael Patison, Thomas Q. Robbins, Sidney Roberts, Tim Russell, and Louis Shambeck (Bishop Russell was unable to participate because of illness).

Pastors of Town and Country churches: Ronny Barnett, Perry; John Beckling, Calvary, Annetta and Weiland; Kent Berry, Riesel and Meier Settlement; Ernest Dewald, Topsey and Pidcoke; Cleon Flanagan, Valley Mills and Cayote; Carl Freeto, Brock; James French, Blooming Grove and Dresden; James Haynes, Gorman and Dublin Laurel Street; Richard Hetzel, Lake Brownwood; Catherine Hix, Haslet and Dido; Joyce Yant, Iredell and Cranfills Gap.

Laity representing Town and Country churches: Roland Burt, Osceola; Carla Edwards, Lake Brownwood; R. F. Holland, Mt. Calm; Kathy Kelly, Zephyr; Wilma Kimble, Chatfield; James Knight, Speegleville; Calvin Stoner, Gordon; Helen Tolar, Pleasant Hill.

Committee members: Ken Shultz, Dale Smith, Edna Davis, Elizabeth Ray, Sam Smith, and Margaret Williams.

The event was very successful for the direct communication that took place among all of the participants. Out of what was learned, the committee has developed the following statement of purpose:

"The purpose of this committee is to affirm and enhance the ministry of City, Town and Country congregations; and to seek out and provide appropriate resources and training for both lay and ministerial leadership for those congregations".

Plans are now underway to implement that purpose and to develop programs for the coming years.

Ken Shultz, Chairperson

Committee on Education and the Advance

Proposed Programs:

l. Encourage subscription to the United Methodist Reporter
Goal: To increase subscription rate by 5%

2. Increase churches full connection relationships between missionaries and local churches by 25%
Goal: 25% more participation in full connection relationships with missionaries by using the formula of $3.00 per member for local churches of 333 membership or less, or $l,000 per year for churches over 333 membership

3. Endorse a conference-wide international volunteers-in-mission project
Goal: Increase mission awareness and "hands on" mission work on an international scale by organizing a work/evangelical project using lay and clergy people from this conference

4. To continue support of the Co-operative School Of Christian Mission in 1991
   Goal: Increase attendance and encourage more inclusive participation by offering CEU credits for attending the school as well as advanced lay speaker credit. The goal of the school is to increase mission awareness and understanding through education.
5. To endorse and encourage participation in the Volunteers-In-Mission projects Goal: To increase participation by members of this annual conference in field mission experiences of their choice through Volunteer In Mission sponsored projects
6. To continue promotion of Advance Specials with special emphasis on world hunger
   Goal: Increase participation by congregations and individual lay and clergy people in their support of Advance Specials and especially the world hunger offerings
7. Training event for the district secretaries of the Board of Global Ministries Goal: To have a trained person in each district who can interpret the mission programs and opportunities offered by the United Methodist Church to persons in the local church
8. Resettle five refugee families across the Central Texas Conference with the chairperson of Education and the Advance Committee acting as a liaison to the districts
   Goal: same as program
9. Hold a conference-wide mission saturation event
   Goal: same as program

We had ten goals set for this committee to accomplish in 1989. During that calendar year we accomplished the following:

1) We continued in our support of the cooperative School of Christian Mission and did have the attendance of each of the district secretaries.

2) Sponsored a Thanksliving offering for world hunger and established a conference coordinator for promotion of UMCOR. Also had great support in this by the articles written by Joyce Brown for the United Methodist Reporter. Joyce also wrote other articles of local church interest about mission activities in our conference.

3) Covenant Relationships between local churches and missionaries sponsored by our conference increased in 1989.

4) A refugee family from Poland was resettled by the Waco district thereby inspiring a single church in the Waco district to also sponsor a refugee family.

5) A conference coordinator for Volunteers-In-Missions projects was appointed this year in order to help promotion of projects available through this organization.

6) A training event was held and attended by six of the seven district secretaries in order that they may be more effective mission interpreters in their district in the coming year.

The following goals were not met to our expectations:

1) A mission awareness event was not held in each district. We hope to remedy this by holding a conference-wide mission saturation event in 1991.

2) A Mission Awareness Tour was organized for fall, 1989 but for various reasons did not occur. The committee plans to try one again in fall, 1990 and then wait until 1991 to reconsider whether this is a successful program.

3) This committee feels that a better job can be done by this conference in their support of Advance Specials as well as their support of the missionaries sponsored by the conference. The district secretaries will be keeping this in mind as they act as motivators for their districts in 1990.

Paula Whitbeck, Chairperson

Committee on Health and Welfare

Proposed Programs:

1. Membership in and attendance at the National Association of Methodist Health and Welfare Ministries Annual Conference
   Goal: To assist our Conference institutions with ideas from other places
2. Annual Conference Health and Welfare luncheon
   Goal: To provide for an extended session of Annual Conference during the noon hour so that conference institutions can inform the conference members of their ministries and their needs
3. Financial contribution for stipends to Harris Methodist Hospital Clinical Pastoral Education Program
   Goal: To provide scholarship stipends for two persons to receive Clinical Pastoral Education

4. Seminar on ministries to the persons and their families with disabling conditions
   Goal: Sponsor a seminar/course on developing ministries with persons having disabling conditions

The conference Committee on Health and Welfare, comprised of representatives from each of the Central Texas Conference districts, has completed a year of orientation as to the role and responsibility of membership on this committee. Additionally, the membership has participated as members of the conference Health and Welfare Institutions Board of Directors. Members have attended the Annual Convention of the National Association of Methodist Health and Welfare Ministries and the General Board of Global Ministries orientation for new conference Health and Welfare chairpersons. Reverend Earl Miller, consultant in the area of Ministries With Persons With Handicapping Program Department, General Board of Global Ministries, met with representatives of our Conference Health and Welfare Committee to initiate a plan for our conference to develop an awareness of the needs of persons with disabling conditions and to establish an avenue for new ministries in the local church for meeting these needs. The committee will hold a seminar/course at the September, 1990 Fall University that will address the direction of meeting the needs of the handicapped.

Health and Welfare Committee members participated as leaders for two district training sessions for local church leaders. Training involved an awareness of conference Health and Welfare institutions and their ministries. Additionally, local leaders received direction for establishing strong local church committees that will meet the health and welfare needs of their members.

The Health and Welfare Committee sponsored an extended session of Annual Conference, in June, during the noon hour, for the purpose of conference members receiving continued awareness of the Health and Welfare Institutions and their ministries. These institutions provided for the luncheon and had representatives present reports on their respective ministries and needs.

Joan Gaspard, Chairperson

HARRIS METHODIST HEALTH SYSTEM

Report No. 1
Planning and Commitment Yield Positive Results

The past year was one of progress and achievement for the Harris Methodist Health System. This was made possible by a combination of vision, business planning and execution, and employee dedication to providing excellent care and service to our patients and medical staffs.

The System's total inpatient admissions increased over the previous year, as it had for the past three years, and market share gains were also realized. Outpatient volume also grew and new or enhanced services were introduced to the community. The Harris Methodist Health Plan recorded impressive membership growth and attained financial self sufficiency. In summary, 1989 was a year when much of System's plans and strategies came together, resulting in an organization uniquely positioned to serve the wide spectrum of health care needs in North Central Texas.

Many old and new challenges face the Harris Methodist Health System. Activities specific to the System include the completion and operation of Harris Methodist Springwood, a replacement facility for the existing Harris Methodist HEB psychiatric and addiction treatment center, the renovation and expansion of women's services at several System hospitals, and the successful introduction of the recently opened Comprehensive Cancer Treatment Center at Harris Methodist HEB. Harris Methodist also faces challenges confronting the entire health care industry. Key issues include inadequate reimbursement by the government for services provided to Medicare beneficiaries, the increasing number of persons who are uninsured or underinsured, and shortages of skilled medical personnel.

We appreciate the trust and confidence demonstrated by the physicians and residents of North Central Texas who have used Harris Methodist facilities and services. Our unified commitment to providing you with the best personnel, technology, and superior facilities is a deep and abiding one. We will build upon this solid foundation to enhance the quality of life for all members of the community.

Report No. 2

The Harris Methodist Health System is an integrated network of eight hospitals, a health maintenance organization, and many other health related services. It serves a 40 county area throughout North Central Texas.

Providing quality care is the essence of the Harris Methodist philosophy and practice. To paraphrase the System's mission statement, "Harris Methodist is dedicated to improving the quality of life...through the delivery of excellent health care with Christian compassion and love."

Harris Methodist has for more than half a century been the area leader in maternity service. Harris recently opened 18 new labor, delivery and recovery (LDR) suites.

Women in the Mid-Cities area will soon have the opportunity to choose the single room maternity option. Harris Methodist HEB, the Mid-Cities birthing leader, has begun Phase I of a renovation of its maternity floor. This project includes five single-room maternity suites.

In 1989 there are 6,791 births at Harris Methodist Fort Worth and Harris Methodist HEB. In the entire System of eight hospitals there were 9,160 births last year.

Harris Methodist Fort Worth is the leading critical care center for Tarrant County. Specialized care units include coronary care, cardiovascular surgery, respiratory care, neonatal care, neurosurgical care and trauma.

The intensive care staff possesses the highest level of specialized expertise and training. Nurses are all certified in critical care specialties. Medical technologists are specially trained and licensed for the equipment and techniques that are used.

Outpatient care is the fastest growing segment of our hospital industry. Most people prefer not to check into a hospital if at all possible, and many procedures that once required overnight hospital stays are now completed on an outpatient basis.

Diagnostics are one of the main outpatient services. For example 85% of Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) is done on an outpatient basis, 40% of Computerized Tomography Scans are outpatient procedures and Ultra Sound is 37% outpatient. In the area of surgery, 40% of all surgical operations were performed on an outpatient basis last year. A two-million dollar Outpatient Care Center is now being planned.

Harris Methodist Fort Worth has achieved a distinction in trauma care that few hospitals can claim. Harris is one of only two trauma centers in Texas to receive national recognition from the American College of Surgeons.

In 1989, there were 35,410 emergency visits to Harris Methodist Fort Worth, and 1,340 were classified as "trauma".

The Harris Methodist Health Plan is now one of the best in the industry, and enrollment grew by 30% last year. We now have more than 36,000 enrolled in the plan. Participation is offered to individuals and their families through local employers.

Harris Methodist Fort Worth is the Tarrant County leader in cardiac-associated diagnostic and surgical procedures. Harris averaged 54 open heart surgeries each month during the past year. In 1989 Harris created the Heart Emergency Network to strengthen the delivery of emergency cardiac care for the entire North Central Texas region. Outlying hospitals now have immediate access to the newest cardiac drugs and treatment techniques. This network is improving the odds for many heart attack victims.

The Mabee Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation Center in Harris Methodist Fort Worth is the largest in the Southwest. More then 50 specially trained therapists work with patients suffering from sudden illness or from the lingering effects of a tragic accident. The goal is to assist patients in the return to an independent and productive life style. Last year Physical Therapy had 38,973 patients and Occupational Therapy 24,446 patient visits.

The "Continued Care Hospital" is one of the newest services at Harris Methodist Fort Worth, and began providing services to patients in September of 1989. It is located on the fourth floor of the Harris Building, and is one of the most beautiful facilities in the industry. The mission of this facility is to provide care to patients who no longer need intensive care but whose medical care requirements are greater than that provided on a typical medical floor. These medical needs may also exclude them from being accepted by a skilled nursing facility. A patient stay can exceed four weeks, during which time the hospital provides rehabilitative services until it is possible for them to qualify for a rehabilitative center, skilled nursing facility or home care.

Central Texas Conference can take pride in the medical dimension provided by the Harris Methodist Health System. Last year a nation-wide study was conducted by Coopers & Lybrand, and results ranked Harris System number eleven among the not-for-profit health care systems in the United States. Baylor of Dallas was number ten, with only two-hundred patient days ahead of Harris. Our gratitude goes to the churches and communities of the Central Texas Conference for their continued support and prayers. You have helped to create a great medical center for Central Texas that truly represents the healing ministry of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Report No. 3
Year at a Glance

The following are selected operating statistics of Harris Methodist Health System for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1989. The facts shown are a composite for all hospitals in the System.

-	Licensed bed capacity	1,392

-	Physicians on the active staff	665
-	Inpatient admissions	46,646
-	Inpatient days	253,692
-	Average length of stay	5.4 days
-	Births	9,160

Report No. 4

Relationship Statement of Harris Methodist Health System:

1. INTRODUCTION. The Harris Methodist Health System is a coordinated multi-institutional health care and related services system in the north-central area of the State of Texas. The System was originally created as an expression of the health and welfare ministry of the Central Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, and it continues to share the beliefs, goals and purposes of the conference and the Christian church. Its work is the physical expression of the Christian church's underlying human compassion for those in need. The health care facilities and services provided by the institutions within the System are available directly or by referral on an inpatient and ambulatory basis for the medical needs of persons in the area they serve. It is the belief of the System that institutions of healing are an essential aspect of the ministry of the Christian church, having its origin when a Galilean carpenter brought healing to the blind, the lame and the helpless. It is His spirit that has been behind every effort to heal the sick, and it is still His compassion and love that brings health to the whole person. There is no healing of the human body that is complete without the healing of the human spirit, and it is this spiritual dimension that sets the Christian hospital apart from others. Medical technology, which has come through Divine guidance and is administered through a Christian health care institution which makes its services available to all in need, is mankind's hope for a healthier tomorrow.

2. THE SERVICE AREA. The area served by the System is the geographic territory extending approximately 150 miles to the north, west, and south of Fort Worth, Texas. Specifically, the System's prime service area is composed of the following counties: Archer, Baylor, Bell, Bosque, Brown, Callahan, Clay, Coleman, Comanche, Cooke, Coryell, Dallas, Denton, Eastland, Ellis, Erath, Freestone, Hamilton, Hill, Hood, Jack, Johnson, Lampassas, Limestone, McLennan, Mills, Montague, Navarro, Palo Pinto, Parker, Runnels, Shackleford, Somervell, Stephens, Tarrant, Throckmorton, Wichita, Wilbarger, Williamson, Young and Wise.

3. RELATIONSHIPS WITHIN THE SYSTEM. The System consists of an affiliated group of non-profit and for-profit health care and health care support organizations all of which are controlled, directly or indirectly, by Harris Methodist Health System, a Texas nonprofit corporation, which is the parent organization. The System looks to the Central Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church as a source of spiritual guidance and as a source of interested and qualified persons who will support the missional goals and respect the high standard of care and operation of the System. The members of the Board of Directors of the System are elected by the Central Texas Annual Conference, and 25 of the 32 members are required to be active members of the United Methodist Church. However, the Board of Directors of the System is not amenable to the Central Texas Annual Conference. The Board of Directors has exclusive authority over and responsibility for any financial or legal obligation of the System. Neither shall the System have any authority or responsibility for any financial or legal obligation of the Central Texas Annual Conference.

4. THE MEMBER HEALTH CARE INSTITUTIONS. The following health care institutions are presently included with the System:

a. Harris Methodist Fort Worth, a special care and general acute care hospital in downtown Fort Worth;

b. Harris Methodist H-E-B, a special care and general acute care hospital in Bedford and Euless, Texas;

c. Harris Methodist Southwest, a general acute care hospital in Southwest Fort Worth;

d. Harris Methodist Northwest, a general acute care hospital in Azle, Texas;

e. Harris Methodist Erath County, a general acute care hospital in Stephenville, Texas;

f. Walls Regional Hospital, a general acute care hospital in Cleburne, Texas;

g. Harris Methodist Mexia, a general acute care hospital in Mexia, Texas;

h. Harris Methodist Glen Rose, a general acute care hospital in Glen Rose, Texas;

i. Harris Methodist Continued Care Hospital, located on the fourth floor of the Harris Building in Fort Worth, Texas;

j. Harris Methodist Health Plan, located on the fourth floor of Harris Center, Fort Worth, Texas;

k. M.A.S.I. Health Care Services, mobile health care (CAT scan, mammography, and ultra-sound) on regular schedule to smaller hospitals;

l. Specialized Medical Management, Inc., special billing service for physicians, located in Fort Worth, Texas.

It is recognized by the System that from time to time hospital affiliations may be changed or altered. The above list is not intended to represent a limitation. Rather, it is anticipated that new health care facilities will be added to the System as its health care ministry expands.

Each proposed affiliated institution will be within or in immediate proximity to the service area; will have the clear capacity to become financially viable on its own merits; will assure the System that there is a broad-based community consensus of the desirability for affiliation; will have the potential to provide a high quality of patient care equal to that of the other affiliated hospitals in the System; and will provide for a means to dissolve the affiliation should it be necessary. It is the System's steadfast goal to provide net revenues available for debt service equal to at least 110 percent of the System's total principal and interest requirement for each fiscal year.

5. THE HEALTH CARE MISSION. The System will provide high quality health care to its patients in as economical and efficient a manner as possible without regard to race, religion, or sexual status, and without regard to financial status subject to the indigent care budget of the System. This includes maintaining, and when appropriate, improving, modifying, or creating, medical, ancillary, and diversified support services; expanding shared services arrangements; affiliating with other institutions through management contracts, lease agreements or purchase; developing health services delivery programs; and implementing preventive and restorative programs through health education and promotion. The System will maintain high competency among medical, nursing, clergy, management, and allied health personnel. Clinical education opportunities for medical, nursing, clergy, and allied health personnel will be provided by the System through its affiliated institutions. Medical education programs at each affiliated institution will be approved by each institution's medical staff. Research projects will conform to the policies and procedures of each affiliated institution.

6. IN SUMMARY. The mission of the Harris Methodist Health System is to improve the quality of life for residents of North Central Texas. This is accomplished through the delivery of excellent health care with Christian compassion and love.

In support of this health care mission, the Central Texas Conference shall, in turn, provide moral and financial assistance to the System's charity care programs (Golden Cross) through a Golden Cross offering taken annually among all of its member churches.

The Harris Methodist Health System, in an effort to be of service to the districts and local churches of the Central Texas Conference, has established the Office of Church Relations.

METHODIST HOME

Report No. 1

The year of our Lord, 1990, is the Centennial Year for Methodist Home in Waco, Texas. The original resolution that established Methodist Home in 1890 indicates that the Methodist Home is the direct result of God blessing the early Methodists in the state of Texas. Because of their harvest, they responded in establishing a Home. This pattern has been repeated over and over again in the history of the Home. As we look back on history, we should not be surprised by these facts. The religious community has been the logical starting point in any given community that has responded to the needs of the homeless, helpless and orphaned children. Churches have both the rationale and tradition necessary to respond effectively. In both the old and new testaments, people responded to God's blessings (His harvest) with programs of care for the needy among God's people. Methodists of Texas and New Mexico took the lead in 1890 to care for orphaned children through the establishment of the Methodist Home.

During this annual conference session you have set forth an order of the day to reflect upon the saga of the Methodist Home and the significance of its ministry in our midst. Today having served over 27,000 children, the Methodist Home is a non-profit child care corporation affiliated with the seven United Methodist annual conferences of Texas and New Mexico. The Home began as an orphanage and has since developed into a multi-faceted residential child care program with cottage style living in 16 homeunits on an 120-acre campus, a Boys Ranch program on a 2,500-acre working ranch, foster family care in 60 different cities in Texas and New Mexico and an accredited psychiatric treatment center. Methodist Home serves over 390 children daily from birth through age 18. The overall racial mixture of students is 62% white and 38% children of color. As Methodist Home celebrates one century of service it is preparing to meet the challenges of the next. In the past two years a formalized long-range planning program has been instigated. Every staff level is represented in the process, from maintenance and child care workers to members of the board of directors. The long-range planning process helps assure that Methodist Home will continue to provide excellent child care programs and to be a good steward of its financial resources.

Guiding the Home into the second century is our mission statement which declares:

> MISSION STATEMENT: Our mission is to express God's love by providing superior services that protect, support and enhance the lives of children, youth and their families. We strive to reflect the excellence that characterizes God's care for us. We respect the dignity of each person and strive to achieve a unique and productive relationship with our constituents, our employees and those who use our services.

We are indeed grateful for the very fine effort that all of you have made in financial support of 1,052 children and youth through the Methodist Home December Christmas Offering.

We request your continued prayers and support.

How Central Texas Conference Can Help Methodist Home Perform Its Role:

1. Designate Methodist Home December Christmas Offering.
2. Reaffirm the defense and protection of rights and privileges of children needing care by other than their parents, and uphold the principle of licensing agencies, for purposes of caring and placing children, to protect minimum standards of care for every child in the care of other persons.
3. Pastors are encouraged to contact Methodist Home directly regarding child placement needs. Call the Methodist Home Admissions Office located at 1111 Herring Avenue, Waco, Texas 76708, 817/753/0181.
4. Contact Ty Herring, assistant administrator for Development of Methodist Home when individuals indicate consideration of Methodist Home in making their long range giving and charitable estate planning.
5. Please place Friday, October 26, 1990 on the conference calendar as the combined Methodist Home Board of Directors Meeting and the Methodist Home Commissioners Meeting as a part of the 1990 Centennial Celebration Banquet. Please do not hesitate to call upon the Reverend Tom Strother, assistant administrator for Church and Community Relations or Dr. Jack Kyle Daniels, administrator, for any needs you might have related to Methodist Home.

Jack Kyle Daniels, Administrator

METHODIST MISSION HOME

In 1990 the Methodist Mission Home celebrates its 95th year! It has been serving since 1895. We appreciate the work of all of the trustees from the Central Texas Conference for the fine service they have given to the Methodist Mission Home.

The Methodist Mission Home is owned and operated by a board of directors whose election is confirmed by the seven participating Annual Conferences. The Central Texas Conference and the Methodist Mission Home are bound in ministry together through our long-standing tradition, and our Relationship Statement has been formally adopted by the Methodist Mission Home and the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church in 1987. This Statement is on file at the agency, as well as in the conference headquarters.

How can you help? Please make a special offering for the home during the year and/or place the Mission Home in your church budget. Please remit all of your funds to the conference treasurer.

SERVICES AVAILABLE:

A. Southwest Center for Community Re-entry

This service was approved by the board of directors in May 1989, and our first clients were received in July 1989.

This service is designed for persons who have suffered a traumatic brain injury in the past, and are in need of further rehabilitative services to bring themselves into independent living and employment. It serves both residential and day clients, and as of February had six clients in the program. Our goal is 16 persons in the program, for whom we are refurbishing a building which will be used as dormitory, offices and classrooms. For information regarding these services, call the director, Martha Slaughter at 512/699-3311.

B. Southwest Maternity Center

1. The center gives option counseling for the pregnant unwed young woman, in both resident and non-resident settings; for those who choose to release their child for adoption we keep a reserve of some 40 couples approved who are ready to be chosen by our licensed agency as "the home the child needs."
2. Field offices with part-time maternity counselors are located in various cities through the conferences. Information regarding maternity services is always available through a toll-free call any time of the day or night at 1-800-284-0410. Field offices can assist in deaf services also.
3. In 1989, we had contact with 150 maternity clients, 76 came into our care; we cared for 63 infants and placed 53 of them. We served 108 adoptive parents and 280 other parents in process.
4. For information regarding adoption, call on Wednesdays between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. (C.T.) at 512/696-7021.

C. Southwest Center for the Hearing Impaired

This residential rehabilitation program, organized in 1974, served 85 new clients in 1989; 37 new clients entered the comprehensive program. The remaining 48 received services from one of the shorter-term program.
Services are for young adults, 18 years of age and older, who are handicapped by severe hearing impairment, as well as other additional vocational disabilities. The program includes evaluation of work abilities, aptitudes, personal/social adjustment, counseling (vocational and personal), structured residential living, life skills and work adjustment training. Toward the end of the 12-18 month residential period, there is work experience in a community employment setting and independent living experience in our on-campus apartments. Clients served represented 10 different states, plus Honduras.

The Supported Employment Program began in November 1987, and placed 18 clients into competitive employment the following 13 months. These clients have severe multiple disabling conditions, and previously often remained on welfare their entire life.

There were 20 placements made into competitive employment during 1989.

Late in 1988, a contract was signed with the Job Partnership Training Act through the Alamo Private Industry Council for job readiness training and job placement of physically disabled (deaf/hearing impaired) individuals. Twenty-four placements have been made since the initial contract.

Of the 335 churches in the Central Texas Conference, 199 gave the mission home $31,260. We thank you for this and urge churches to participate in some way toward this vital ministry.

Our total giving from the conferences was $288,371, down $12,159 from 1988. 14% of our income comes from church giving, 11% individual gifts and 2% from endowment. The remaining 73% must come from fees for services rendered. In 1989 expenses were $2,043,533 and income was $2,048,435.

The Methodist Mission Home has no outstanding debts, and has an endowment of about one million dollars. The campus is on a 30-acre tract of land in northwest San Antonio and is valued at seven million dollars.

An outside audit is performed each year and is available to the conference leadership as requested.

The Methodist Mission Home stands ready to be aware of the changes in the needs and desires of the public for whom our ministries are designed. We see great changes taking place in adoptive work across the nation. We are examining these changes to see how the Mission Home should, and can respond as we enter the last decade of the century, which will include the 100th anniversary of the Mission Home.

We stand ready to serve those whose needs fall within the scope of our expertise, and always urge that we be contacted to see if we can meet that need.

WESLEYAN HOMES, INC.

1989 was an eventful year in the life of Wesleyan Homes. Much of the excitement related to the attempt to acquire the Regency Retirement Home project in Arlington. The project represented an excellent opportunity to expand the ministry of Wesleyan Homes, and provide services to the northern part of the Central Texas Conference. The conference, meeting in special session on September 30, 1989, approved an increase in the debt limit of Wesleyan Homes for the purpose of purchasing the Regency Project. Although the outcome was the loss of the project to another buyer due to an inability to borrow sufficient funds, several positive aspects came out of the experience.

1. Extensive demographic study during the project shows a strong need for the services of Wesleyan Homes in the Tarrant County area. In addition, some 60 persons had made application to become residents in the new facility.
2. The support of the Central Texas Conference confirmed the desire of the conference to have facilities in the Tarrant County area.
3. The Board of Trustees of Wesleyan Homes is committed to continuing to explore ways to provide retirement and nursing home services to the northern part of the Central Texas Conference.

Retirement Home:

The first phase of a major remodeling project at the Retirement Home was completed during 1989. This is the first significant remodeling since the facility opened in 1962. All of the first floor areas including the offices, library, lobby, and dining room have been remodeled. Additional work was done in the basement activity area. New sheer drapes and lighting fixtures were installed in all resident rooms.

Plans call for additional work in resident rooms, lobbies on each floor, and the chapel to be completed during 1990.

Nursing Home:

The Wesleyan Nursing Home is currently serving more residents than at any time in its history. Much of this increase in the number of residents is directly attributed to the opening of the Assisted Living Unit. The 60-bed Assisted Living Unit is designed for residents who can no longer care for themselves in their home or apartment and require some assistance with activities of daily living, but do not require the intensive levels of care offered in a traditional nursing facility. The Assisted Living Unit is providing a much needed level of care between the Retirement Home and full nursing care.

Staff:

We are pleased to welcome Mr. Chris Spence back to Wesleyan Homes. Mr. Spence served his internship at Wesleyan Homes in 1980. For the past nine years he has served as the CEO of Sears Memorial Methodist Center in Abilene, Texas. Mr. Spence comes to Wesleyan Homes as the Administrator of the Nursing Home. He will assume the duties of CEO of Wesleyan Homes following the retirement of Mr. Charles Bostock at the end of 1990.

Funding:

The Benevolent Care offering from the Central Texas Conference totaled $14,128.55. This is a slight increase over previous years. However, the need for benevolent care continues to grow. During 1989 the percentage of Nursing Home residents receiving some type of financial assistance grew from 32% to 46%. Wesleyan Homes needs the help and support of the individuals and churches of the Central Texas Conference to help provide for this increasing need.

Charles Bostock, Executive Director

Committee on Urban Ministries

Proposed Programs:

1. Central Texas Senior Ministry, formerly Inner City Ministry (Waco)
   Goal:
   a) 20,000 contacts per year with nursing home patients, staff and family;
   b) Sixty communion services per year - one each month in five homes;
   c) Ten presentations about our nursing home chaplain services to church and civic groups;
   d) 360 hospital visits;
   e) Develop volunteer pool and training program;
   f) Six funeral services for residents affiliated with a church;
   g) Five in-service training programs for nursing home staff;
2. Meals-On-Wheels
   a) 208 meals each M-W-F = 32,448; 70 meals M-F = 17,552; 225 meals each M-W-F = 35,100 paid for by local churches;
   b) Three hundred home visits to determine eligibility;
   c) Ten new volunteers to work as cooks and as meal deliverers:

d) Five presentations about Meals-On-Wheels and volunteer opportunities to church and civic groups;
e) Three volunteer recognition programs in local churches;
f) 225 meals each M-W-F coordinated through the meals served at church sponsored meal kitchens;

3. Diamond Hill Day Care Center (North Fort Worth)
Goal:
a) Serve the community;
b) Provide affordable child care;
c) Provide quality bilingual education and cultural integration for preschool children;

4. Laura Edwards Christian Early Learning Center (Waco)
Goal:
a) Quality day care in a Christian setting;
b) Educational base leading into kindergarten and elementary school;
c) After school care for older children of working mothers;

5. Southside Area Ministries, Inc. (Fort Worth)
Goal: To provide ESL (English As a Second Language) classes for seventy students; to provide counseling and mentoring for fifty students at risk of dropping out of school; to provide child care and English language development for thirty-three children of refugees; to provide breakfast and activities for thirty-five senior citizens; to provide supplemental food to one hundred thirty five individuals; to provide English language and daily living skills development and other services to fourteen refugee women and their families.

6. United Community Centers, Inc. (Fort Worth)
Goal: United Community Centers, Inc., motivated by Christian faith and social concerns, is committed to the areas it serves through cooperative delivery of programs and direct human services aimed at meeting identified needs of the family, individual and community. This involvement, through the collaborative efforts of the Centers with other groups and organizations, is designed to bring about needed community or area wide change that enhances the quality of life within the area.

1989-1990 has been a year of growth and change for the Urban Ministry Committee of the Board of Global Ministry. There seems to be a renewed interest among committee members to be on the cutting edge of ministry in our conference. Requests for funding from a new emerging United Methodist related agency, problems in the management of another, along with the opportunity to visit several of our affiliated agencies has caused the committee to rethink its purpose, method of operation and accountability.

We have begun to see response to our new method of distributing request forms. We are, however, disappointed in our efforts at education and involvement of the church at the district level. We are very anxious to see how the conference reacts to the inclusion of new ministry opportunities in the next few years. As we look forward to 1991, we realize that our educational efforts will be a key to unlocking the barriers to increased support of urban ministries.

James Nader, Chairperson

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

Proposed Programs:

1. Relationship to United Methodist institutions of higher education Goal: Maintain effective, ongoing, supportive relationships between the conference and United Methodist institutions of higher education through relationship statements and through conference financial and promotional support

2. Direct communication with potential students regarding United Methodist colleges and universities; scholarships and loan opportunities; campus ministry units
   Goal: Develop a computerized mailing list of all tenth grade students in local churches so that they may receive information about higher education and ministry opportunities
3. On-Campus events for students and parents
   Goal: To assist Southwestern and Texas Wesleyan Universities to hold and promote campus day events to encourage high school students to visit and apply for admission
4. Financial support of students seeking higher education
   Goal: Promote giving to World Communion Sunday and to the Student Day Offering; continue to give the Conference Merit Award each year
5. Relationship to Wesley Foundations/United Christian Fellowship Goal: Newly-formed standing committee of CBHECM for campus ministry will establish procedures for:
   1) property management
   2) relationship to local ministry units' boards
   3) personnel
6. Distribution of funds to Wesley Foundations/United Christian Fellowship Goal: Administer and fairly distribute the conference Wesley Foundation apportionments through grants to the four established Wesley Foundations at Baylor, Tarleton, TCU, and UTA and the United Christian Fellowship at Navarro College in Corsicana
7. Campus Ministry Projects
   Goal: While continuing support of the present ministries at Howard Payne, TWU and Ranger College, stimulate the establishment of two new campus ministry units by offering grants of $2,000 each to DCOMs, clusters of churches, or individual congregations which present proposals to begin such ministries
8. Campus Ministry Event
   Goal: To offer a high quality retreat or similar event for college and university students within the Central Texas Conference as well as enabling them to attend regional and national student events travel
9. African University
   Goal: The CBHECM will promote the African University so that all local churches know the reason for the apportionment, and so that our conference will pay at least its fair share of the voluntary giving portion of the funding for the new school

Most of the energy of the conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry during 1989 was directed toward the expansion and restructuring of the board. New members were added, making it possible to establish three standing committees to carry out the work of the board in higher education, publicity and promotion, and campus ministry. Restructuring takes time and energy that the board would rather be putting directly into ministry, but the end result should improve the board's ability to assist and support campus ministries and United Methodist higher education. Other highlights for BHECM during 1989: At Annual Conference and at two local churches the board sponsored an itinerating student representing the Black College Fund. A new local campus ministry was begun in Brownwood in cooperation with the Presbyterians and Howard Payne University; the ministries at Texas Wesleyan University and Ranger Junior College continued. Three out of our four Wesley Foundations and our United Christian Fellowship had changes in directors in 1989, and the board helped three of the new directors attend a national training session for campus ministers. All five ministries are vital and growing. Closer ties were established with the Texas Association of United Methodist Colleges and Universities. Conference giving to the Student Day offering enabled the board to name three Conference Merit Award winners in 1989: Jennifer Embry of First United Methodist Church, Joshua; Amy Hounshell of First United Methodist Church, Cisco; Matthew Wheelis of First United Methodist Church, Brownwood.

J. D. Phillips, Chairperson

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY, SMU

New curriculum design, new faculty members, and improved library resources summarize the changes at Perkins School of Theology, SMU during the 1989-90 year.

Visions of ministry for the new century stimulated faculty and students at Perkins School of Theology to adopt new curriculum designs and new schedule plans, in order to focus the seminary experience on maximum effectiveness in preparation of persons for future ministries. More flexible course offering will better serve the diverse needs of individual students, from full-time students to student pastors who find it necessary to study part-time, to fulfill other family and church responsibilities, and at the same time to pursue seminary studies.

The Bridwell Library was reopened for the fall term, following total renovation of the building. The splendid new Elizabeth Perkins Prothro Galleries appropriately opened with an exhibit from her collection, titled "The Bible: 100 Landmarks." Carefully designed reading rooms, additional private study carrels, conservation facilities, the exhibit galleries, and archival storage make the Bridwell one of the foremost research and study facilities in this part of the world.

Extensive searches for new faculty culminated in the professorial appointments of Dr. C. Clifton Black in New Testament, Dr. Edward Poitras in World Christianity and Dr. Benjamin Habito in History of Religions. Dr. D. Lyle Dabney has been visiting Assistant Professor of Systematic Theology. Positions in systematic theology and Christian education will be filled soon.

The community was bereaved at the deaths of Dr. Albert C. Outler, Dr. L. Howard Grimes, and the Rev. Beverly Sawyer, while praising God for their profound contributions.

Student enrollments for the academic year totaled 401 in the fall, with 250 in the M. Div degree program, 70 in other master's programs, 54 in doctor of ministry studies, and the remainder in graduate religious studies. Of the total, 37% are women and 23% are ethnic minority students, including international students.

Funding was completed for the Faculty Development Fund, an endowed fund of $250,000, established with significant private and church gifts, begun with a grant from the Lilly Endowment to provide for scholarly research and reports on topics of interest to local churches such as evangelism, Old and New Testament studies, stewardship, and United Methodist history. Studies of theological and development issues are now in progress. Dr. Durwood Fleming was acknowledged for his leadership in the successful funding program.

In addition to substantial gifts received for the Albert C. Outler Memorial Fund, Mrs. Carla Outler made a gift of $160,000 to the Bob and Doris Parrott Archivist Fund, to be matched with additional gifts to provide for a Methodist archivist in the Bridwell Library.

An unusually large number of publications were released during the past year by Perkins people, including William J. Abraham, William S. Babcock, C. Clifton Black, Ruben Habito, Richard P. Heitzenrater, Susanne Johnson, William K. McElvaney, Schubert M. Ogden, Marjorie Procter-Smith, and David K. Switzer.

Continuing education opportunities offered by Perkins include the fifth year of a new pastors' mentor program, the second year of the Perkins school of youth ministry, senior pastors' conferences designed for leadership in various sizes of congregation, and continuing emphasis on theological studies for laity. Plans for a series of satellite teleconferences are being explored, to make available significant studies to a wider audience in districts and local situations.

James E. Kirby, Dean

SAINT PAUL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Saint Paul School of Theology serves the Central Texas Annual Conference by preparing effective and respected leaders for the church.

The start of the 1989-90 school year marked the beginning of a new curriculum and class schedule for the seminary's Master of Divinity program. The new curriculum maintains the distinctive, integrated, interdisciplinary approach of Saint Paul to theological education, yet is more flexible. Classes are offered in the mornings, afternoons, evenings, and occasionally on weekends.

Emilie M. Townes and Amy Oden joined the faculty of Saint Paul this year. Dr. Townes was named Assistant Professor of Christian Social Ethics. She received her Ph.D. from the joint Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary/Northwestern University Program in Religious and Theological Studies. Ms. Oden was appointed as Instructor in Church History. She is a Ph.D. candidate at Southern Methodist University.

Books published by faculty members this year include Theological Worlds: Understanding the Alternative Rhythms of Christian Belief by W. Paul Jones, How to Preach a Parable by Eugene L. Lowry, and Preaching with the Small Congregation by Laurence A. Wagley. Tex S. Sample has a book, U.S. Lifestyles and Mainline Churches: A Key to Reaching People in the Nineties, scheduled for publication in May.

We at Saint Paul thank you for your generous support of theological education at Saint Paul and the other United Methodist seminaries. The thirteen United Methodist seminaries compromise perhaps the finest family of denominational seminaries in the United States. You can be proud of all thirteen. We work very well together and want to make it possible for every United Methodist student to be able to attend a United Methodist seminary.

We realize that the test for us as a seminary will come in the impact we are able to make on the renewal and vitality of the church as God's faithful instrument in the world. We will be judged by whether or not we make a difference in the quality of the life of the church. We are not so much about a strong Saint Paul; we are about a renewed church.

Our mission is clear and simple: the preparation of leadership for the church. There is no more worthy endeavor to which any of us could give our energies and resources. As a student of United States church history has said, "As the seminaries go, so goes American Protestantism." We thank you for being partners with us in this mission.

Lovett H. Weems, Jr., President

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

I am pleased to comply with the 1988 Resolution from the Jurisdictional Conference requesting an Annual Report to each annual conference in the South Central Jurisdiction.

As I reported to you last year, I proposed academic priorities which the Board of Trustees approved in December. The recom-mendations grew from the deliberations of several task force and committee reports to me over the course of the year, including the Task Force on Church Relatedness. The plan for the future of SMU reaffirms our historic commitment to the centrality of undergraduate liberal arts education and broadens the cross-disciplinary base of that education.

A distinctive aspect of the new SMU plan calls for all students, except those majoring in the performing arts, to have either a major or a minor in the liberal arts -- an unusual requirement in American higher education. Other curricular changes reflect increased emphasis on ethics, science and technology, writing skills, global awareness, and multicultural sensitivity.

Leaders of the 21st century must have the capacity to cope with a world whose only constant will be rapid change. They must develop greater skills of analysis, problem-solving, and communication against the backdrop of a broad understanding of civilization and of issues they will face in our emerging global society. I believe that a sound liberal arts program will better equip students to succeed in both their professional and their personal lives. A key to a high-quality liberal arts education will be a renewed commitment to the primacy of good teaching by full-time faculty teaching small classes.

At its December meeting, the board reasserted the need for fiscal responsibility and a balance budget. It also placed priority on raising new funds for unrestricted endowment, unrestricted annual giving, endowment for financial aid, a new science and technology building, and relief of budget expenditures now financed by unrestricted funds.

In addition, reaffirm the importance of nurturing SMU's ties with the United Methodist Church. We are, for example, pleased that the College of Bishops has moved ahead with hiring a United Methodist Campus Minister for SMU; we anticipate that this individual will be in place by June. Also, are pleased that the Jurisdictional Youth Rally will be on our campus for one week in July. We especially hope that youth from your annual conference will be in attendance. Our United Methodist recruiting efforts are beginning to make some inroads, as is our commitment to meet basic student financial need as defined by the federal government.

We will continue to monitor and make progress in our athletic program as we work toward achieving the appropriate student-athlete model at SMU.

Our current challenges and opportunities are great, but I believe we are making good progress toward our quest for excellence. With your prayers and gifts we shall continue to move forward in making SMU an outstanding United Methodist institution of higher learning.

A. Kenneth Pye, President

The Southwestern Experience

As we celebrate this 150th anniversary of our foundation, it is important that Southwestern look ahead to the challenges of the 21st century. The frontiers of the American West which gave rise to Rutersville College have receded, but global frontiers are taking their place. Developing conscientious citizens with a strong global perspective is a challenging task in the highly competitive and complex international environment in which we live. Southwestern is in the front ranks of those colleges in this country seeking to educate a new generation of leaders. We believe that the Southwestern experience provides a common core of values which has sustained past generations of students and has the ability to sustain each new generation as it deals increasingly with change, ambiguity, and difficult choices.

The Meaning of National Maturity

It was almost a decade ago in the early part of the 1980s that I first spoke of national maturity. At that time, some may have viewed it as a public relations gimmick, and others may have looked upon the idea with skepticism and cynicism. The concept of national maturity was meant to be much more. I meant it to connote a level of performance in every area of university life and work equivalent to that generally recognized on the national scene as appropriate for the very best institutions, which are committed to:

* undergraduate education as their central mission,
* a liberal arts tradition,
* the high quality of their academic programs, and
* the superior achievements of their graduates.

National maturity for Southwestern was not intended to mean that the University is in competition with other similar institutions to become some mythical, national liberal arts college possessing characteristics drawn from a sample of those which it aspires to model. National maturity was not intended to mean that we wanted to be like, or to emulate, any other institution. We stressed that it was the character and superior achievements of our graduates, more than any other measure, by which we wanted to be judged.

True, we did not wish, then or now, for our graduates to be second to those of any institution in their ability to compete successfully for admission to graduate or professional schools or for initial career placement; but, more importantly, neither did we want them to be second to any in their service to the common good.

Our Resource Profile

From the beginning of our discussions on national maturity, we said that we would not back away from a commitment to achieve a strong resource profile; i. e.,

* a high average faculty salary,
* a large percentage of Ph.D.'s
* a high average SAT level for entering students,
* a first class library,
* a high level of endowment per student, and
* other recognized educational resources.

We wanted, as much as possible, to stand high on all these measures, but their achievement was not an end in themselves. We chose them so as to be better able to achieve the University's central mission of providing a broad-based, value-centered education, focused on the full development of each student, preparing each to the extent possible for leadership within a global community. As trite as it may sound, we really want to help each student become more than he or she ever dreamed possible.

The Moral Messages of the University

Alexander W. Astin's "Moral Messages of the University" in The Education Record (spring, 1989, pp. 22-25) defines the "moral messages" of the university as "expressions of the institution's values." [p.22] He talks about the formal or official values often embedded in the catalog or CEO statements and calls these the explicit values; but he talks of the other values, which in reality are the operable values. He calls these the implicit values. Astin says that "the problem with implicit values is that they tend to remain implicit and unstated, which makes it very difficult to identify discrepancies. Under these conditions, one of the biggest challenges facing us [institutions of higher education] today is how to confront the implicit values that drive institutional policies and how to effect a better fit between implicit and explicit values." [p.23]

Astin suggests that the way one gets a better fit between explicit and implicit values is by means of, what he calls, a "campus-wide dialogue on the question of excellence." [p.23] He states that since most of us think that excellence is a good thing, we can, "by zeroing in on the issue of excellence, . . . succeed in identifying some of . . . [our] . . . most cherished values. While we like to talk about excellence, the real question is what we do in its name." [p.23]

(1) The Reputational and Resources Approaches to Excellence:

He says that for years we have pursued excellence by means of, what he terms, "the reputational and resource approaches." He says that "the reputational view equates excellence with the institution's position in the hierarchical pecking order that is so much a part of the folklore in American higher education." [p.23]

He also states that we "can easily quantify this folklore with reputational surveys like the one done each year by U.S News & World Report . . . [and] since the reputational and resource views are mutually reinforcing, it is not surprising that both approaches yield similar 'quality ratings.'" [p. 23]

"The reputational and resource approaches to excellence are deeply flawed because they do not address directly the central mission of most colleges and universities -- the education of the student, i.e., the fullest development of the student's abilities and talents." [p. 23] Astin calls a model which emphasizes the development of these abilities and talents the "talent development" approach.

(2) The Talent Development Approach to Excellence:

This "talent development" approach stresses the impact of the educational experience on the life of every student. "Its basic premise," says Astin "is that true excellence lies in an institution's ability to affect its students favorably, to enhance their intellectual and scholarly development, and to make a positive difference in their lives." [p. 23]

Astin says that these two different approaches to excellence bring about very different situations within institutions as to how faculty are treated or as to how students are viewed. . . . "When a college or university's identity is more closely linked to its educational mission, the quality of student life and the effectiveness of the educational program assumes much greater importance. The student is viewed more as someone to be served by the institution than as a mere resource." [p. 24]

He concludes by saying that values issues have important implications for the assessment movement in higher education. "To put it succinctly: the values of an institution are reflected in the kinds of information it collects and pays attention to." [p.24]

Under the reputational or resource approaches we would be concerned merely with input data regarding entering students -- excellence is having bright students and not necessarily educating them; and, similarly, such approaches might be concerned with output data, so that how well our alumni do provides an index to our excellence.

On the contrary, if we are concerned about the development of the whole person -- as we have been for 150 years at Southwestern -- we seek these traditional data, but "what we [really] seek to fine out is how much students are actually learning and how they are developing over time." [p. 25]

Those institutions, which are concerned only with reputational or resource approaches can never transcend their institutional egos, Astin says, to serve as instruments for improving the human condition; but those deeply concerned about the development for the whole person can expect that their students will be concerned about the problems of war and peace, hunger, racism, poverty, and the other important issues on the agenda of our global community.

As we begin to talk more seriously about assessing the extent of development which occurs in the lives of our students, I hope that we will remember that is central to our mission. We must know what is happening in their lives and whether or not the Southwestern experience is producing graduates who are deeply involved in serving the common good.

A Vision for the Future

I have dealt with these issues more extensively than in most reports, because we sometimes get caught up in the reputational and resource approaches to excellence. We need to be reminded that there is more to it than that. Certainly, the numbers are there, and we can be proud of them. As we approach the 21st century, we must make certain that our vision of the future is one which focuses on the talent development approach to excellence which has long characterized the life and work of this historic university.

If our vision for the future is that of providing a value-centered, broad-based education focused on the full development of the whole person, in the finest traditions of United Methodist related higher education, we can be certain that we are doing our part to equip each new generation of students for leadership in a global society. This vision will enable us to swim against the tide in the years ahead -- even during these times when the foundations of philanthropy have been shaken in Texas by the successive shocks of such factors as the decline in oil prices, the dramatic drop in real estate values, and the collapse of our financial institutions.

Since 1981-82, the University has engaged in an ongoing planning process aimed at moving the University to a position of national maturity by our 150th anniversary in 1990. Most of the goals we set for the 1980s have been achieved, and we have indeed moved to a position of acknowledged quality. We are now involved in identifying the goals which will need to be accomplished by the year 2000 to move to a position of unquestioned excellence.

That position of unquestioned excellence can only be authentically achieved if we keep our focus on the talent development model -- and not the reputational or resource models. The latter approaches are important means to an end -- not an end in themselves. Thus, in the 1990s, our concern will be to continue to strengthen the University with the intent of helping our students become all they are capable of becoming -- the end of which is to improve the human condition within the global community.

Roy B. Shilling, Jr., President

TEXAS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

The 1989-90 academic year at Texas Wesleyan University was marked by success in many areas. Through the untiring efforts of faculty, staff and trustees, the University is able to again report a balanced operating budget of $10.3 million and an endowment of $26.5 million. Tuition cost is $2450 per semester, and 79 percent of Texas Wesleyan students receive some form of financial assistance, with the average award being $4900 a year.

Beginning Fall 1990 Texas Wesleyan will celebrate its Centennial Year with a Centennial Week scheduled September 23-30, 1990. The week will begin with a special convocation at the First United Methodist Church of Fort Worth. Special celebrations and events are scheduled through the year for each of the four schools and other special departments.

This past spring the University moved into the renovated former library facility, now named the Armstrong-Mabee Business Center. The Center will be dedicated in October 1990. During the year Texas Wesleyan was able, through a special gift, to acquire the Polytechnic Baptist Church property. The beautiful limestone sanctuary building is now being converted to a music performance hall with special classrooms and practice rooms. The building will be named the Law Sone Fine Arts Center in memory of Dr. Law Sone, President of Texas Wesleyan for 33 years.

Recent changes made in personnel at Texas Wesleyan include the naming of Dr. Mark Wasicsko as Vice President and Provost, the chief academic officer. Dr. Wasicsko has been Dean of the School of Education and Human Development at Lynchburg College and prior to that served as Dean of Texas Wesleyan's School of Education for more than six years. In addition, Dr. Ronald Ballard was named Assistant to the President for United Methodist Relations. Dr. Ballard will work closely with the President and Dr. Gilbert Ferrell, Director of Church Relations, in further strengthening the University-Church relationship.

Texas Wesleyan students continue to be successful in academics and athletics. One example is the fact that Texas Wesleyan Master of Education students scored the highest in the state on the reading examination for math teachers. The University's athletic teams went beyond conference play in three sports this year and to the national playoffs in two sports. For the third time in a decade, and each of the three times Texas Wesleyan was eligible, one of its faculty, Dr. Miriam Espinosa, was named a Piper Professor. The Piper Professorship is a statewide recognition given to only ten teachers in Texas annually.

Faculty, staff, students, alumni, trustees and friends are working together with great anticipation to plan the year-long Centennial celebration. One special program being planned is the reenactment of Texas Wesleyan's founding by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South November 13-18, 1890. We hope many of you will share in our celebration of 100 years of planning for a second century of service to the church and the community.

TEXAS UNITED METHODIST COLLEGE ASSOCIATION

In 1989 the Central Texas Conference contributed $206,975.01 to "Texas Methodist Colleges" and $129,016 to the Black College Fund. Once again you led all the annual conferences in Texas in the percentage of these apportionments paid. The basic aim of this report is to thank you for that support, on behalf of the seven United Methodist colleges and universities in Texas which received those funds.

More importantly, I thank you on behalf of the more than 7000 students in our colleges who were helped to attend college by your support. I can say with confidence that most of them could not have been in college last year without your help! ALL of the funds received by Lon Morris College, McMurry College, Southern Methodist University, Southwestern University, and Texas Wesleyan University from the Texas Methodist Colleges apportionment, and most of the money received by Huston-Tillotson College and Wiley College from the Black College Fund, were used for financial aid for students. Those funds are critical for the colleges, which never have enough financial aid, and for the students, who must have help if they are to attend college.

The following figures for the fall of 1989 reflect something of this importance.

	% of Undergraduate Students Receiving Aid	Average Amount of Aid
Huston-Tillotson College	76.1%	$3,271
Lon Morris College	89%	4,200
McMurry College	73%	2,707
Southern Methodist University	53.2%	9,275
Southwestern University	67%	3,961
Texas Wesleyan University	79%	2,900
Wiley College	96%	5,091

What these figures mean is that 65% of the undergraduates in our seven institutions receive aid and the average amount of aid per student ranges from $2,700 to over $9,000. Your support is very important in making this possible; it is only because of you and other supporters that our colleges can provide such aid to deserving students. They want to do more and they hope they can find the means to do more. Therefore we ask for your continuing support.

We also solicit your support of our United Methodist colleges and universities by encouraging persons in your congregation who are college bound to consider attending one of our colleges. Some may not know about our United Methodist colleges and universities - tell them! Some may think they cannot attend one of our colleges unless they are wealthy - inform them that financial aid is available and urge them to give one of our colleges a chance by finding out what aid would be available to them! We want to educate more United Methodist students - help us do so by sending us more of your youth!

Joe E. Elmore, President

COMMITTEE ON COMMUNICATION AND INTERPRETATION

Proposed Programs:

1. Committee Responsibility
   Goal: To meet, as necessary, to communicate the message of the United Methodist presence in the Central Texas Conference and interpret the benevolent program of the United Methodist Church
2. Central Texas Conference Edition, United Methodist Reporter
   Goal: Provide leaders of the local churches, who do not subscribe to the paper, with the story of Central Texas Conference, National and World news
3. Media Director
   Part-time position to edit Central Texas Conference page of the United Methodist Reporter, to be media representative for our conference to all conferences, districts and local churches Goal: To produce best front page possible, represent our conference to all media resources as a public relations person. To help coordinate the media coverage for our conference, districts and local churches
4. Media Coverage
   To present the presence of the United Methodist Church throughout the Central Conference - using TV, radio, newspaper, highway billboards and other forms of advertisement
   Goal: To reach church members, unchurched population and others within the scope of our media concentration

During Christmas season thirty bus signs were placed on the rear of Fort Worth Transit buses. The signs read, "Attend a United Methodist Church," the conference phone number and the scripture, "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." These signs ran the month of December.

Central Texas Conference joined Texas and New Mexico Methodist Conferences in establishing a Media Relations Division of United Methodist Reporter. The mission: to enhance United Methodist Churches' overall image in Texas and New Mexico.

A large lighted billboard was put in place on the Airport Freeway in Fort Worth. It was situated on the right hand side going toward DFW Airport. The committee's first choice was a sign on I-30 traveling east. When this became available, the sign company offered to transfer the sign to I-30 at no cost to the conference. This turned out to provide us six months exposure at each location. Reverend Otwell is securing a billboard in the Waco area.

The committee has been meeting with the sponsors of the "Faith Focus" TV program that airs at 6:30 a.m. each Sunday on Channel 5. The program was without a permanent moderator and was searching for direction. A proposal was made by committee member, John Fiedler, to ask Don Pike to take over as moderator. This is now in place.

The Lay Speakers training program is going forward.

COMMITTEE ON COORDINATION AND BUDGET

The normal path for an Annual Conference Council on Ministries budget request involves a number of stops. It is first presented to the Board or Committee with authority over the proposed request. If approved, it is then examined in detail by the Committee on Coordination and Budget. If it passes that test, it is next presented to the full ACCOM Board for their approval, change, or disapproval. The next stop is at the Committee on Finance and Administration where it is considered in relation to other requests for financing, in with regard to the amount of money expected to be available. Only then is the request presented to the Annual Conference as a part of the full budget.

As a part of the above program, Coordination and Budget carefully examined all requests which are a part of the 1991 ACCOM budget, with a view to reduction of expenses to a minimum. The cooperation received from all of the organizations comprising ACCOM is appreciated, as is the understanding and helpful assistance of CF&A. This has been a relatively difficult year, but one in which Coordination and Budget felt that it was both necessary and useful.

COMMITTEE ON ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS

Report No. 1

The ELCC is a committee of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries of the Central Texas Annual Conference that is responsible for fulfilling the disciplinary mandate plan to care for the needs of ethnic local church development during the 1988-92 Quadrennium.

1. Enable the General Conference's aim to "Institutionalize" the work, program and activity related to the ELCC, by participating in the ongoing life of the Annual Conference. This is further accomplished by our having been incorporated into the structure of the ACCOM. It shall be our duty to report regularly to this agency in order to facilitate better communications with other areas of the Conference.
2. The committee has developed a Comprehensive Plan for ministry to the ethnic local church needs within our conference. Adoption by the Annual Conference, 1990, will enable this committee to continue its work.
3. The committee understands that as part of its role ("Institutionalization") it must use its funding in a different way than that of its predecessor (EMLC). We have been informed it is our responsibility to serve as a screening committee for other agencies of the conference who may more appropriately address a need expressed by an ethnic local church. Our role would be to assist that agency by adding to their funds a portion of ours to help meet the need.

It is a very critical committee to the future of our annual conference, especially when the population changes of recent years, as well as those proposed for the future, are considered. Recent population figures for the state of Texas indicate a rapidly growing Hispanic population, coupled with a larger Black population, together representing a fifty percent portion of the total population. Herein we may observe a tremendous opportunity for the future growth of the Central Texas Annual Conference.

Report No. 2

For the 1990 fiscal year several projects were funded by the ELCC Committee as part of the committee's effort to strengthen and develop the ethnic minority local church. The projects are listed below with a brief description of their ministry and the amount of funding proposed for the year:

St. James, Waco $4,387.52

The Educational and Recreational Enrichment Program is designed to provide motivation for the community's youth and children in order to increase their academic and social skills.

Hispanic Outreach $7,500.00

Hispanic Outreach is a program sponsored by Polytechnic UMC, Fort Worth. It is aimed at addressing the tremendous increase in the Hispanic population in that community by providing an English as a Second Language (ESL) program.

Cooperative Ministry With Hispanics $6,000.00

The Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry is an agent of the Central Texas and Rio Grande Annual Conferences. It continues to address needs brought on by the growing Hispanic population through providing consultative services on shared facilities, ministries, and church revitalization in transitional communities. There is also a Resource Team to assist local churches with these program areas.

Korean UMC, Waco $4,800.00

The Korean United Methodist Church in Waco is developing and expanding the Sunday School program to meet the needs of the congregation. An educational assistant has been hired and materials purchased to fulfill this need.

Korean Christian Community Center, Killeen $4,000.00

The Korean United Methodist Church in Killeen seeks to help those in the community with needs pertaining to language, cultural experiences, and family issues.

Minter's Chapel $2,500.00

Experience as an intern at a local church is an important part of seminary studies. This stipend helps pay the expenses for a student serving this congregation.

Grace United Methodist Church $7,500.00

In cooperation with the Fort Worth Independent School District, a program that will provide ESL services (largely Spanish) to the community has been developed.

McMillan United Methodist Church $5,200.00

Providing opportunities for care for older adults and latchkey kids is an outreach program of this church.

Report No. 3

COMMITTEE ON ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS
1988-1992 Quadrennium Comprehensive Plan

Ephesians 2:11-21, (Todays English Version)

"You Gentiles by birth -- who are called the uncircumcised by the Jews, who call themselves the circumcised (which refers to what men do to their bodies) -- remember what you were in the past. At that time you were apart from Christ. You were foreigners, and did not belong to God's chosen people. You had no part in the covenants; which were based on God's promises to the people. You lived in this world without hope and without God! But now, in union with Jesus Christ, you who used to be far away have been brought to the death of Christ. For Christ himself has brought us peace, by making the Jews and the Gentiles one people. With his own body he broke down the wall that separated them and kept them enemies. He abolished the Jewish Law, with its commandments and rules and order to create out of the two races a single new people in union with himself, thus making peace. By his death on the cross he, Christ, destroyed the hatred; by means of the cross he united both races into one single body and brought them back to God. So Christ came and preached the Good News of peace to all Jews, who were near to him. It is through Christ that all of us, Jews and Gentiles, are able to come in the Spirit into the presence of God.

"So then, you Gentiles are not foreigners or strangers any longer; you are now fellow-citizens with God's people, and members of the family of God! You, too, are built upon the foundation laid by the apostles and prophets, the cornerstone being Christ Jesus himself. He is the one who holds the whole building together and makes it grow into a sacred temple in the Lord."

BIBLICAL AND THEOLOGICAL REFLECTION:

It is the role of the church to be involved in ministry. However, if the church spends its time looking inwardly then it is doomed to eventually die. Therefore, the church must be willing to reach out beyond itself. Being missional has always had, as its core, the idea of being sent. Abraham was sent to a land he was later to be shown (Gen. 12). Abraham's mission was to build a great nation with the Lord's help. The truth is that it was the Lord who was doing the building, but it was Abraham who was sent. Moses was sent to free the people of Israel from Egypt (Exodus 4). God led, but it was Moses who was sent. Jesus told his disciples to go into all the world and proclaim the Gospel making disciples of all nations; both Jews and Gentiles (Matt. 28 and Mark 16). At times Paul was misunderstood because of his desire to take the Gospel to the Gentiles. However, Paul was certain that the Lord was sending him to evangelize the Gentiles and make them a part of the Kingdom (Acts 9).

Today, the journey continues and God is calling the church to reach out and minister to the world. But to reach the world we must first be willing to reach out to our neighbor and our community. We are in the process of breaking new ground and experiencing the true church of God. The early church was fearful of allowing Gentiles into their fellowship because they were not familiar with Jewish custom, tradition and law. But they were overlooking God's grace. Like the early church, we are suffering from the fear of the unknown and the uncertainty of our calling. However, if we are the church we must be willing to risk and reach out to the stranger whether Jew or Gentile and envision things that are not, as if they already were. Some of our churches are in the midst of discovering new ministries and are becoming the inclusive church of God. As their neighborhoods change they must make the choice to reach out and minister to their neighbors or ignore their future and be satisfied with living in the past. The best times are ahead of us and it is necessary that we move towards the full realization of the Kingdom. As we look towards the future we are seeing a new church made up of Anglos, Blacks, Hispanics, Asians, and Native Americans, all worshiping together. It is no longer realistic for a church in transitional neighborhoods to be satisfied holding on to the past and remain exclusive in its ethnicity. We must look at our history and learn that the church that survives is the church that is missional and is involved in inclusive evangelism.

WHAT HAVE WE ACCOMPLISHED?

The Central Texas Conference in cooperation with the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee has made some strides toward a more inclusive church. In recent years we have had some cross racial appointments. These appointments have been well received by the congregations (St. Andrew's U.M.C. of Killeen, Grace U.M.C. of Fort Worth and Polytechnic U.M.C. of Fort Worth) and have proven to enhance the ministries of the churches. Diamond Hill U.M.C. of Fort Worth has been involved in an intern program that has brought a minority student to minister in their church. Polytechnic U.M.C. of Fort Worth has been involved in offering their community and the opportunity to learn the English language (E.S.L.) This ministry has grown and now has an average of 450 students enrolled in the program with approximately 125 children in their child care and tutoring program. Grace U.M.C. of Arlington was the bicentennial new church start of the Central Texas Conference. The church is in its final phase of establishing its independence and will no longer be supported by Church Growth and Development. Campus Drive U.M.C. has recently built a new facility. Five Korean congregations have been established and they continue to grow.

The Inter-Conference Committee has been busy establishing communication between the Rio Grande Conference (Spanish speaking conference) and the Central Texas Conference. The committee's progress has been admirable and for the first time in recent history we have a Spanish speaking conference and an English speaking conference discussing the possibility of joint ministries. Many of these programs are made possible, in part, by the work and funding of the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee.

WHAT IS THE PRESENT SITUATION?

Throughout the conference there are many ethnic minority churches in need of repair or rebuilding. However, most of these congregations are not showing any growth. This may be because they are discouraged and there appears to be a feeling that the conference is not being sensitive to their needs and concerns. The clergy of these ethnic minority churches are at the bottom of the salary scale and they seem to have little hope of every overcoming this disparity. The concern about salary disparity among minority clergy should be the concern of the entire conference as minority clergy are required to meet the same requirements as other clergy. There is a need to establish dialogue with minority clergy and laity. They must be assured that the conference is aware of their needs and concerns and that there is a remedy. Not just talk or studies, but action.

WHAT ARE OUR GOALS?

The Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee is actively working towards helping the conference and local churches identify concerns and potential ministries. The committee is committed to accomplishing the following goals:

1. Support local churches in establishing ethnic minority ministries. This help is to be both financial and organizational.
2. E.L.C.C. will seek to bond with conference agencies.
3. Establish a resource team to assist churches in ethnic inclusiveness that will sensitize the churches to available ministry opportunities.
4. Aggressively seek to make open itinerancy a reality.
5. Work with the conference in an effort to inform it of the uniqueness of the ethnic church and assist the conference to identify the ethnic church's needs.
6. Assist the rural church in recognizing their role in the conference.
7. Empower the ethnic local church to self determine their future.
8. Establish evaluation criteria for E.L.C.C. projects.
9. Work towards the time when E.L.C.C. will no longer be needed.
10. Implementation by the Council on Ministries of the Comprehensive Plan with the aid of the E.L.C.C.

This is not meant to be an exhaustive list of goals but merely a representative direction which we feel will begin to lead us to a future full of anticipation and hope. With God as our source, Jesus Christ as our model, and the Holy Spirit as our strength and comforter, we are assured a fulfilling future.

ENVISIONING

"The young see visions; the old dream dreams." (Acts 2:17)

A vision is a glimpse of the future in the present. This may be interpreted to mean that the future can be with us even in the present.

The committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns provided a questionnaire to ethnic minority persons representing their local churches in various annual conference sponsored programs. Participants were asked to respond to questions designed to communicate individual impressions regarding the needs and concerns facing the ethnic minority people of the Central Texas Conference. The aim of this questionnaire was to attempt to develop a concept for the unity of all people within the districts and annual conference and to explore how to best achieve the concept. The timetable to accomplish this task is three to five years.

The following responses are listed as they were received.

I. As a result of the responses from the questionnaire, the following are the dreams and visions for E.L.C.C. in the districts and annual conference:
   - A. Togetherness and openness is not only to be promoted but is to be accomplished within the districts and the annual conference. It is our perception that while we get together we often do not feel that we are in unity. There is a feeling of us and them. There does not appear to be an openness in our discussions or dialogues.
   - B. The ethnic churches must be strengthened in the following areas:
     1. Improved facilities must be a priority. Many ethnic minority facilities are in need of repair. However, the congregation is unable to repair the facilities because of lack of membership and/or lack of financial resources.

2. Salary support must be seriously considered and implemented. This needs to be more than bringing a minister to minimum salary.
3. Stewardship training is an area that must be addressed in the ethnic minority church. While this is not strictly a minority issue, the ethnic minority church needs to understand its role in good stewardship.
4. Evangelism is a conference priority. The ethnic minority church needs to feel a part of this priority. We must seek out churches who appear to be losing ground and attempt to assist them in their evangelism goals.

C. Inclusiveness should be experienced at every level of the Conference. It is the perception of ethnic minorities that most events are planned with the White/Anglo in mind rather then the entire conference. Therefore, ethnic minority persons feel little responsibility to participate.

D. Minority persons must be given the opportunity to participate fully. Ethnic minorities should be placed on or appointed to all work areas and boards. It is the perception that they are only asked to participate where minority issues are the primary topic.

II. What changes must take place in order to make our visions a reality within the next 3 to 5 years?

A. Ethnic minority persons must insist upon being given the opportunity to be full participants and, once given the opportunity, must take advantage of it.

B. Cross cultural appointments must be made available to more ethnic minorities. The Anglo/White community must be sensitized to the fact that ethnic minority pastors are competent and can serve White or ethic minority churches.

C. People must be educated to accept pastors for their gifts and graces rather than their ethnicity.

D. The conference must become sensitive to the needs of the ethnic minority churches. The conference must make funds available to assist these churches to renovate their facilities and restore hope for the future to a people who often are not the priority of the conference.

E. We must learn as much as possible about each other. The more we know about each other (Whites/Anglos about ethnic minorities and ethnic minorities about Whites/Anglos) the better we are able to work together.

III. What are the helping forces in our district which could contribute to our vision?

A. District mission funds, where available, could be earmarked to assist the churches in districts which have a larger concentration of ethnic minority churches.

B. Annual conference celebrations held to help highlight the accomplishments and needs of the ethnic minority churches.

C. Church school is a great opportunity to inform and educate people about the meaning of ethnicity and how we benefit from each other.

D. The annual conference and the cabinet have begun to identify churches and people who are willing to take the risk and explore new ministry possibilities.

E. We have a core of qualified, well trained ethnic minority leaders.

IV. What are the negative factors or blocking forces?

A. Racism, apathy, fear, politics, and prejudices are but a few of the key blocking forces to the visions for a higher quality of life for the ethnic minority people in the Central Texas Conference.

B. Resistance to change and closed minds are two factors that most informed people agree will hinder our progress.

C. There is a need for more ethnic minority people who will serve on boards and agencies of the annual conference.

SUMMARY

The Committee on Ethnic Local Church acknowledges the progress that has been made in the Central Texas Conference. While it is our responsibility as good stewards and committed Christians to continue to voice the concerns of the ethnic minority community, it is also our duty to assist the annual conference in addressing those needs and concerns.

Most of what we have addressed is not a deep hidden secret. It is no secret that historically minorities have always been at the bottom of the salary scale. It is no secret that historically minorities have been passed up for different positions or posts because they have been perceived as incapable of doing an effective job in those positions. It is no secret that historically, unless someone voices a concern, minorities have been under represented or totally ignored by the majority groups. The fact is that we have not addressed anything that has not been the cry of ethnic minorities throughout history. Minority groups have always had to fight and struggle to be heard and be taken seriously. We congratulate and affirm the conference for its work thus far.

It is time to take the next step and help the ethnic minority community experience United Methodist connectionalism. All boards and agencies of the Central Texas Conference are asked to contribute financially and programmatically to the life and work of the ethnic minority church using this comprehensive plan as a guideline. It is in this way that we can truly respond to God's call for an inclusive church where all will become disciples of Jesus Christ.

Luther B. Felder, Chairperson

COMMITTEE ON PLANNING AND RESEARCH

The Committee on Planning and Research affirms the conference theme for the 1989 - 1992 quadrennium. "Celebrate and Witness: Celebrate God's Grace, Witness To Jesus Christ." The "Forgiven to Forgive" emphasis is for 1990. "Called To Serve" is the emphasis for 1991. "United In Mission" is the emphasis for 1992. While the theme is prominent at the sessions of the annual conference, the committee recommends that the district and local church programs and functions carry the conference theme into their planning and publicity and activity.

Planning and Research has also accepted the responsibility for processing a mission statement for the annual conference in cooperation with ACCOM.

Demographic data (most especially data derived from the 1990 census) and how that data can be helpful to the local church is to be the subject of a course at Fall University. The course is to be led by Dr. Earl Griffin, director of the General Council on Ministry.

Homer Kluck, Chairperson

Conference Mission Statement

In order that all members of the Central Texas Annual Conference shall have an opportunity to participate in the formulation of a mission statement for the conference, the committee is asking each local church through each district Council on Ministries, to join with the committee by providing input.

All data received by the committee from each district will be used in developing a mission statement that will reflect the opinions and desires at the grass root level of our annual conference.

Our time line for receiving the data will be February 1, 1991. After compiling the data a preliminary mission statement will be prepared for presentation to the annual conference session in 1991. We anticipate a completed mission statement to be adopted by the Conference of 1992.

COMMITTEE ON THE AGENDA

The Annual Conference Committee on the Agenda recommends:

1. That the 1990 Per Diem Allowance be granted for each day in actual attendance at the conference for retired ministers, surviving spouses of ministers, retired deaconesses, pastors receiving a total salary of, or less than the minimum salary of the conference and students appointed to attend school. The rate shall be $30 for those who reside within McLennan County and $60 for those who reside outside of McLennan County.
2. That the budget line item for the expenses of annual conference for 1991 be set at $25,990.
3. That future places for the meeting of the annual conference be 1991 - Fort Worth and 1992 - Arlington.

Tim Russell, Chairperson

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

1. The United Methodist Archives Center of the Central Texas Conference is located at Texas Wesleyan University in the Eunice and James L. West Library. The records are cared for in a large fire-safe room, catalogued and identified for reference, and available to researchers by appointment. Available to local churches and to individuals are a limited number of Journals of the Central Texas Conference and Disciplines of the General Church.
2. The Jurisdictional Depository at Bridwell Library, Perkins School of Theology, S.M.U., Dallas, is once again open for research projects. The library research had been curtailed for two years, due to extensive renovation of the building. Roger Loyd is the curator of Methodist materials. Contact him before going to Bridwell.
3. John Johnson, pastor of Bethesda United Methodist Church, Weatherford, has completed his second term as president of the Texas United Methodist Historical Society. This organization of persons interested in all facets of Methodist history meets annually at Bridwell Library in Dallas on Thursday and Friday of the first full week in February. Ideas, information, and materials are shared through this group which enhance each of our conference records depositoris and Archives and History Commissions. All of the United Methodist Conferences of Texas are included in the membership of the society.
4. A sampling of work completed by the Central Texas Archives Commission during 1989-90 includes:
   a. District workshops for local church historians in the Fort Worth West District, the Fort Worth East District, and the Waxahachie District.
   b. Conference-wide seminar at Fall University, Hill Junior College, Hillsboro, a six-hour workshop/lab setting for historians who are new to their jobs, and for experienced local church archivists.
   c. Participation in the organizational assembly of the General United Methodist Historical Society, Lake Junaluska, North Carolina, in July, 1990.
   d. Inventory of local church history books in the Archives Depository at Texas Wesleyan.
   e. Records accessions and management procedures reviewed and updated for the Archives Depository Center.
   f. Training for two volunteers, June Spencer and Juanita Mott, to assist with work at the Archives Depository.
   g. Up-dating of the biographical survey of Central Texas Conference clergy/spouse memoirs, 1984-1989; Pat Allen, historian.

h. Oral history project: John Johnson Retired/Retiring Clergy/Spouses

i. Local preacher records: Pat Allen
The search for names and data relating to all local preachers of the conference, 1866-present. The project is complete from 1900 to the present.

5. Continuing projects of the Archives Commission:

a. Local church historical up-dates: John Johnson Handled through the office of the district superintendent each November-/December, and returned to the district office in January, these up-dates provide details of records, projects, activities, building renovation/improvements that are not recorded elsewhere.

b. Kate Warnick Local Church History Book Competition: sponsored by the Texas United Methodist Historical Society, this year only the contest will include all history books of local churches which have not hitherto been submitted, including those written before the Kate Warnick Competition was established.

c. Local church "Certificates of Recognition": awarded from the Archives Commission to local churches which have made an all-church search for, and collected and assembled, their church records; have arranged for safe storage of their records; and have reported to the Central Texas Archives the amount and types of records which are on hand.

d. Archival records usage: letters and long-distance telephone calls are received from across the nation in request of local church data, property matters, and geneological inquiries. Several Central Texas Conference churches were supplied with documentation to assist their research to qualify for Texas State Historical Markers. Nearby researchers come to Archives for first-hand use of the records. An overwhelming majority of the requests are for records that are 100-120 years old, but many questions arrive from data from 1850-1870.

e. Archives Center records maintenance: Juanita Mott, June Spencer, Jean Traster. Cataloguing of all records that are received. Cleaning, processing, arranging all items. Transferring of all records to acid-free archival storage folders, containers.

6. Current project of Archives: The micro-filming of the original hand-written minutes of the Northwest Texas Conference, 1866-1901.

The Central Texas and Northwest Texas Conferences were one very large conference area from 1866-1910. At the time of division, Central Texas was fortunate to become the keeper and protector of the hand-written minutes of the Annual Conference sessions, 1866-1901. After 1901 the hand-written minutes were no longer entered into the large old leather-bound volumes.

Dr. Robert Monk of the Northwest Texas Conference will carry the ledgers to Drew University in September, 1990. Mr. William Beal, General Archivist, will clear the cameras at that time in order to do the filming of these records when they arrive. He has calendared the filming to coincide with the records' arrival so that they can be returned to Central Texas as soon as possible.

Duplicate copies of the microfilm will be located at the Central Texas Archives Center and in the conference office, in the Northwest Texas Conference depository at McMurry College library, in the Texas Conference Archives (all congregations of this conference which predate 1866 were members of the Texas Conference), and in the Jurisdictional depository at Bridwell Library, S.M.U.

7. Continuing goals of archives:

a. To stem the loss of records of discontinued/abandoned churches and merged congregations.

b. To encourage local church assertive involvement in the preservation of their records.

c. To preserve the records of organizations and offices of the Annual Conference and the districts.

d. To collect records of clergy and lay people of the Annual Conference which related to the work of the church.

e. To preserve older records of local churchs if their own facility is not sufficiently secure.

f. To collect and preserve vital statistics of church membership, baptisms, marriages, deaths for persons needing information on family history/geneology.

8. Special events of 1990:

a. Fall University, Hill Junior College, Hillsboro, September 8, 1990, a six-hour seminar workshop for local church historians.

b. December 1, 1990: Rutersville Cluster Celebration, 11:00 a.m., Saturday, Rutersville, Texas. In 1988 by recommendation of the General Archives, the General Conference designated the Rutersville Cluster as a National United Methodist Site/Landmark. The Texas United Methodist Historical Society, sponsors of the original project, provided the research and documentation necessary for qualification. When the General Church accolade was received, the society turned its attention toward obtaining a Texas State Historical marker as well.

The Rutersville Cluster includes the site of the first Annual Conference meeting in Texas: December 25, 1840; the site of Rutersville College, established as the first college in Texas and chartered by the Republic of Texas on February 1, 1840; the grave of Chauncey Richardson, first president of the college; the site of the headquarters of the Rutersville District, one of the three districts of the original Texas Conference; the site of the Rutersville Methodist Episcopal Church (Northern) of the Southern German Conference; and the sites of the Rutersville Methodist Episcopal Church and Cemetery.

The Texas State Historical Marker will be unveiled and dedicated on Saturday, December 1, 1990 at 11:00 a.m. The site of the dedication ceremonies is one mile SE of Rutersville on Fayette County Road #128. Rutersville is six miles NE of LaGrange on Texas Highway #159.

Please add this event to your church calendars, and attend the dedication in Rutersville.

c. All-Texas Bell-Ringing: December 25, 1990, 12:00 - 12:10 p.m.
Join with United Methodist Churches across Texas in this Christmas Day Bell-Ringing to celebrate the 150th anniversary of the organization of the first Methodist Conference in the Republic of Texas. Following the example of Francis Asbury and Thomas Coke and the organizers of the American Methodist Church, the Texas preachers gathered on December 25, 1840 at Rutersville, under the leadership of Bishop Beverly Waugh. Texas was divided into three huge districts which covered the entire Republic; and eighteen stalwart preachers were appointed to ride the circuits and to follow wherever settlers ventured in this newly-independent territory.

The Christmas Day Bell-Ringing is a project of the Texas Methodist Historical Society. From carillons to hand bells to bells of any size and shape, let the bells ring in each local church of the conference in celebration of the establishment of Methodism's first Annual Conference meeting in Rutersville on December 25, 1840.

CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

A great deal of change has taken place during the year 1989-1990. A long-time employee resigned to take full-time work and was replaced by Mrs. Peggy Robertson who worked about six months for the credit union. This turnover in employees coupled with a move to larger quarters at 510 Ballinger and installation of a new computer system has put a great deal of stress on our manager Mrs. Edna Davis. We appreciate the good work that Edna has done during this period of change. We are also indebted to the Internal Audit Division of Harris Hospital-Methodist for help in bringing some order to the new system. We thank Rev. Robert Warden who spent hours installing the new computer system. The new system will enable the credit union to function more adequately and efficiently once it is mastered.

The soft financial climate, several bankruptcies and some repossessions caused the credit union not to pay dividends one quarter, for the first time in its history. However, interest paid on share certificates is still above the average. The Credit Committee has revised guidelines to screen out poor risks and to encourage good risks. The Collection Committee will begin an aggressive campaign to collect past-due accounts. Member life insurance is being offered as an option to those who care to carry it on their accounts.

The year ending December 31, 1989 produced loans:

New car loans	$ 582,900.41
Used car loans	159,668.82
Share-secured loans	128,700.29
Signature loans	240,297.13
Other	14,705.38
Total	$1,126,272.03

The year ending December 31, 1989 produced assets:

Member shares	$ 510,994.97
IRAs	105,846.11
Other savings	915,773.32
Total	$1,532,614.40

During the current year we made loans of $1,110,701.77. Since organization we have made loans of $10,369,633.38. Net loans charged off since organization are $106,259.97 for a 1.025%. Total members is 1560.

The credit union asks that you contact us for your next loan. Even if automobile companies offer 6.9% it may be "add on" rather than on the unpaid balance. If this is true a higher percentage rate will cost you less and will result in a lower pay-off if you decide to trade it later. You can then take the rebate in cash and lower the total amount to be borrowed. The credit union needs each of you as members to reach our maximum potential.

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

The commission met several times this year. We provided expense monies for members to attend the Texas Conference of Churches and the National Conference on Jewish-Christian Dialogue.

We were delighted to learn that the resolution on the Middle East that was passed at Annual Conference, 1988 was received by an Arab Christian who was imprisoned in the Negev Desert. It was reported to us that this brother in Christ received much comfort and strength in knowing that Christians in Central Texas knew and cared about the situation in the Middle East, calling for a just peace there.

We provided a scholarship for one youth to attend the Inter-Ethnic Camp at Glen Lake Camp in Glen Rose, Texas.

The Fall University course on Worship and Ethics was well attended. The panel was moderated by Reverend Tim Russell and included the Reverend Warner Bailey, Father Carmen Mele and Rabbi Ralph Mecklenberger.

We provided information and advocacy for use of the COCU Lenten Bible Study for 1990.

Our primary focus this year has been education on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns for commission members.

Rabbi Keith Stern brought greetings to the Annual Conference as part of our report time and was well received.

The Commission had set the following goals for 1991:

1. Provide information on and support use of the COCU Lenten Bible Study booklets for 1991
2. Provide a scholarship for one youth to attend the Inter-Ethnic Camp at Glen Lake Camp, Glen Rose, Texas
3. Participate in Fall University with a course on the AIDS Interfaith National Network
4. Highlight the AIDS Interfaith National Network at Annual Conference, providing brochures and other information
5. Provide expense monies for members of the commission to attend the following conferences: Faith and Order at Mo Ranch, Texas Conference of Churches and the National Conference on Jewish-Christian Dialogue
6. Advocacy regarding conference-wide participation in Christian Unity week

1991 Budget

Texas Conference of Churches	$10,000
Expense, Delegates to TCC	* 2,500
Committee Meetings	750
Texas Impact	500
Fall University	250
Program for Annual Conference	500
TOTAL	$14,500

*This expense is increased due to the fact that Central Texas Conference has a lay representative, Mary Weathers, to the TCC Board now and this layperson is not a member of the commission. This means that the commission is responsible for her expenses to attend the assembly and additional board meetings throughout the year. We have not had this representation in previous years.

COMMISSION ON CHURCH GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT

Report No. 1

Ten years ago (June 3, 1980) the Commission on Church Growth and Development was launched by the Central Texas Annual Conference. On that day the Conference approved a new, and yet old, endeavor in church extension. New, in the sense that we felt the need for a new emphasis and plan for starting new churches; old, in the sense that starting new churches has always been a part of who we are as Methodists.

In 1980 we had hopes and dreams of what might be accomplished. Now that ten years have come and gone, we are elated that our hopes and dreams have been exceeded. The accomplishments could not have been possible without the support of our bishop, the cabinet, the ministers and laity who responded to the "Partners in Growth" Share program. This Share program has been the financial support for our new and varied projects.

As we approached our tenth birthday, Bishop John Russell said to the cabinet, "It's time to celebrate". So, we picked up on his enthusiastic words and developed our 1990 Share promotion brochures with the words--

It's Time to Celebrate
--Our New and Relocated Congregations
--Our Unprecedented Growth, and
--Our Fantastic Future.

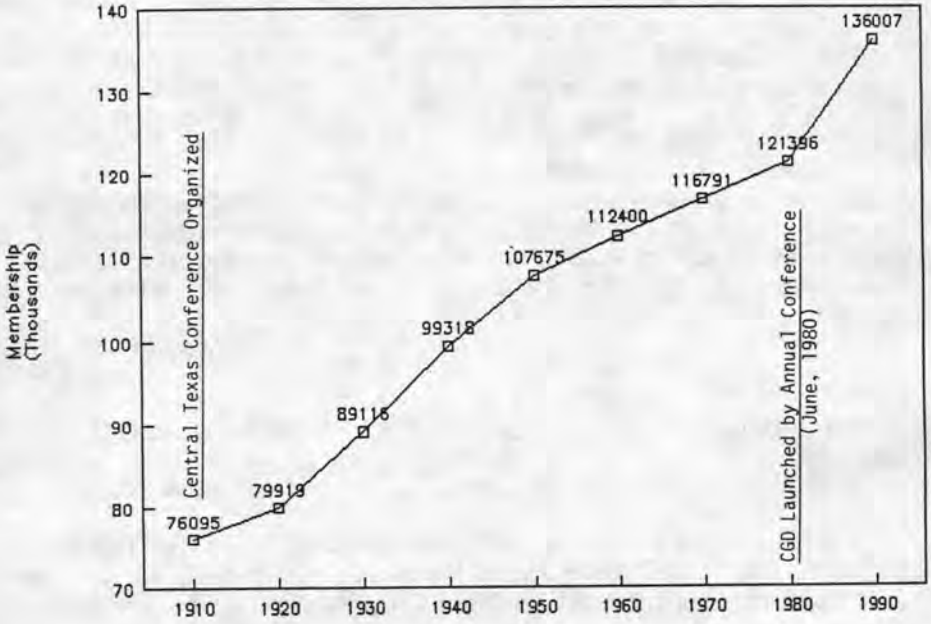
Covenant, Arlington	Minters Chapel, Grapevine
Genesis, Fort Worth	Korean, Fort Worth
Campus Drive, Fort Worth	Korean, Waco
St. Philip's, Round Rock	Korean, Copperas Cove
Korean, Killeen	First, Round Rock
St. John the Apostle, Arlington	St. James, Temple
Grace, Arlington	Oakdale, Stephenville
Watauga, Fort Worth	Early, Brownwood
Lake Brownwood, Brownwood	St. Mark (New Southwest), F.W.
St. Andrew's, Arlington	Central (merger), Waco

Our Unprecedented Growth

The following graph shows the growth (by decade) of the Central Texas Conference, since our beginning in 1910.



The amazing thing about this graph is that it is very different from any other conference in United Methodism. A membership graph of most United Methodist conferences would show decline since 1964. Our conference has never had a decade of decline--in fact, the decade of the 80's has been the greatest decade of growth in our history.

We are very proud of the part that new congregations and the revitalization of existing churches has had in this unusual growth, and we continuously give our thanks to the United Methodist members who have been and continue to be Shareholders. Without the Shares there would be no new sites or start-up funds for the new churches.

Our Fantastic Future

The year 2000 - once distant - now looms just beyond tomorrow's horizon, and the Central Texas Conference faces its greatest challenges:

1. New congregations in major development areas
2. New congregations in the ever-increasing ethnic population
3. New congregations developing out of possible mergers
4. New congregations forming from old congregations through revitalization

In June 1990, the Commission will begin:

1. A new Hispanic congregation at the Calvary UMC in the Fort Worth West District
2. A new Korean congregation at First UMC, Arlington, in the Fort Worth East District
3. A possible new congregation in the Eagle Mountain Lake area, north of Azle, in the Fort Worth West District

The decade of the 90's can be even greater than the decade of the 80's. In the beginning years of the 80's, we struggled for needed funds. Now, the Share program is in place, and we have hundreds of committed persons in every county who are proud to stand with us. We have the organization in place to get the job done. And we have the enthusiastic support of our bishop who continuously gives his words of support.

As we come to this year's Annual Conference there is one whom we will miss, but his spirit will be among us. That missing person is James E. Shuler. His death has been felt among the Commission members and, no doubt, will be felt for many years to come among all of us who make up the Central Texas Conference. To James Shuler, we dedicate this positive report.

COMMITTEE ON COUNSELING

Report No. 1

In response to the changing needs of our conference, the conference Counseling Program has undergone substantial revision this year. By approving the ten professional counselors listed in our report, we have expanded both the geographical and specialty ranges of the therapists under contract. We have also interacted more closely with the conference insurance providers to help ensure continuing coverage to those with longer-term needs.

Goals for 1990-1991:

1. While we have both male and female counselors, we continue to search for and are open to interviewing an ethnic counselor to expand the range or our services even further.
2. We continue to seek participants' confidential evaluations of the counseling services through forms given on first visits to the counselors. These are mailed anonymously by the clients to the Counseling Committee for its use only.
3. The conference Counseling Committee also seeks to dialog with the counselors on any trends observed by them and on how best the conference can be responsive to the needs they encounter among ministerial families.
4. Each conference counselor has agreed to offer seminars, workshops and programs upon request to ministers' groups. They are eager to help in a wide range of creative ways to facilitate the use of this program.

Within the financial limitations our budget provides, we hope to offer an excellent first-call-for-help service which acts as a safety net for individual and family emotional crises within our church family.

1. This service is available to ordained conference members, diaconal, and retired ministers, and persons serving full-time conference appointments, plus their spouses and dependent family members. In addition, ordained members and families of the Rio Grande Conference serving within the geographical boundaries of this episcopal area are eligible.
2. Complete confidentiality and respect for privacy will be maintained. As a client, your name will be known only to your counselor, and no information about you will go to any other person without your written consent. Trust will be vested in the integrity of the counselors, both to keep confidences with clients and to keep faith with the program by submitting accurate bills of service for payment. Such bills will list hours of service but no names.
3. The Counseling Service will be limited to six visits to a counselor in any one year.
   a. The first two visits will be paid in full by the program.
   b. Thereafter, participants will be asked to pay a portion of the cost, scaled to income, as follows:

Family Income	Program Will Pay	Client Will Pay
1. Under $20,000	90%	10%
2. $20,000 - 27,500	75%	25%
3. Over $27,500	50%	50%

   Family income includes combined incomes of spouses, excluding housing or parsonage allowance.
4. Thereafter, if counseling is still needed, an application may be made to the Insurance Program for possible payment. At this time, the symptoms must clearly indicate the need for therapy.

5. During the first six visits to the counselor, payments from the Counseling Program and the Insurance Program simultaneously will not be allowed.
6. Payments for this program will be made only to those counselors who have been approved as participants in the program. There will be no exceptions.
7. The present list of approved counselors in the Central Texas Conference is as follows:

BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

Report No. 1

The conference Board of Diaconal Ministry has continued to be actively engaged in offering support and guidance to persons who are responding to God's call in forms of ministry within the realm of the diaconate.

We have accomplished these tasks:

1. Met jointly with the Board of Ordained Ministry
2. Provided an opportunity for Central Texas diaconal ministers to meet jointly with our conference board, Bishop Russell, and the Cabinet.
3. Conducted a training session for board members.
4. Sponsored a "Diaconal Day Apart" for all diaconal ministers and candidates.
5. Send 2 diaconal ministers to a jurisdictional mentor training
6. Sub-committees appointed to carry out tasks mandated by the Discipline (¶734) have:
    a. planned and carried out yearly interviews at which time 18 persons were interviewed, 3 accepted into candidacy, and 2 recommended for consecration
    b. printed a directory listing diaconal ministers, certified persons, candidates, and conference board members
    c. prepared "Guidelines for Benefits for Diaconal Ministers"
    d. planned creative ways to present diaconal ministry as a viable ministry
    e. begun dialogue with the Board of Ordained Ministry to offer cooperative events of continuing education
7. Approved funding for all active diaconal ministers to be included for membership in DOTAC and DIAKONIA, a world-wide organization for diaconal ministers and deaconesses.
8. Reaffirmed January 1 as the deadline for receiving materials concerning certification, continuing education, continuance as a diaconal minister and request for appointment, including leave of absence. Failure to meet this deadline will result in the initiation of the termination process.

9. Has continued to support diaconal ministers and certified persons serving within the Central Texas Conference, reviewed their work, recommended their recertification where appropriate, and recommended to Bishop Russell and the cabinet their renewal in the office and appointment to service.

Report No. 2

Guidelines for Benefits for Diaconal Ministers

1. At this time all benefits are based on the Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, 1988: (¶ 315.1).
2. "The employing agency in which a full-time diaconal minister is serving shall provide: Adequate salaries, pensions benefits, with an opportunity to participate in the United Methodist pension and benefit funds, health-care insurance, and continuing education. It is expected that these will be guided by the Annual Conference standards for ordained elders."
3. A local church considering requesting the appointment of a diaconal minister to its staff should consult with the conference Board of Diaconal Ministry in the development of a job description and an employment contract. When a local church is interviewing a particular diaconal minister they should allow the diaconal minister to negotiate the details of the job description and employment contract. When a local church has decided on a particular diaconal minister, they and/or the diaconal minister should ask for a recommendation from the conference Board of Diaconal Ministry and then the appointment will be reviewed by the Cabinet and approved by the Bishop following the conditions in ¶ 311 of the Discipline. The Benefits Committee of the Board of Diaconal Ministry presents these guidelines in the hope that they will help in this process.
4. Salary: Diaconal ministers have advanced education degrees; therefore, compensation should reflect that educational achievement. For example, bachelor level teachers and nurses expect to earn in 1990 $18,000 to $25,000 for a starting salary. With a master's degree, $28,000 and above is considered a beginning salary. A minimum cash salary excluding benefits should be $18,000.
5. Social Security and FUTA: This is required by law and records must be kept of the participant's contribution, the local church contributions, and timely deposits to the U. S. Government.
6. Health-care Coverage: The local church may either place the diaconal minister on its group health insurance, pay the diaconal minister for the individual health insurance plan obtained by them, or pay for their participation in the Annual Conference Health Insurance program. This also applies to any other insurance obtained for other appointees/ministers such as disability insurance, accidental death insurance, hospital indemnity, etc. The local church may pay 50% or more of these costs of health care, but must pay the same percentage of all appointees/ministers and offer the same coverage. Such health-care must be able to be convertible to private coverage at the time of termination at the diaconal minister's expense.
7. Continuing Education: (1) Each local church is expected to provide money for continuing education. A minimum of $200 annually or 1% of the salary (whichever is greater) is recommended. (2) Each full-time diaconal minister is eligible for continuing education funding from MEF in amounts not to exceed $200 annually or $800 quadrennially. A person may receive their entire four-year amount in one year. Such a four-year period would begin with the date funds are requested. Situations that require special consideration may be reviewed by the Board of Diaconal Ministry. (3) One week of continuing education leave is recommended annually.

8. Vacation: From the time of consecration the board recommends ten days of annual vacation in the first three years of employment. This is in addition to church holidays. Employment from four to eight years entitles the diaconal minister to fifteen days of annual vacation. After nine years or more of employment the diaconal is eligible for twenty days of vacation.
9. Sick leave and business days: The board recommends six business and sick days annually. These may be earned at 1/2 day a month with a maximum of six days carried over to the next year.
10. Moving Expenses: The conference only participates in payment of moving expenses for ordained clergy. A local congregation may establish policy concerning this issue at its discretion.
11. Part-time Employment: The local church or an agency may wish to hire a diaconal minister on a part-time basis. If such a contract reflects a specified number of hours a week or an hourly salary, this contract must be adhered to. Persons working 21 hours or more a week are considered full time and are entitled to benefits as listed above. The Board of Diaconal Ministers wants you to extend to the professional person the local church hires the respect of proper salary and benefits that reflect their education and experience. The diaconal minister is a new professional role in many churches. This is also a profession frequently filled by women or retired persons. The board would want local churches and agencies to be sensitive to employing these persons in a manner that does not penalize him/her for being a spouse, a woman, a second income earner, a retiree or part-time employee.
12. Evaluation: Evaluation procedures should be established as part of the job description and should be developed by the Staff/Parish Relations Committee utilizing procedures recommended by the conference Board of Diaconal Ministry.
13. Grievances: Any grievance should be handled through the Staff/Parish Relations Committee, or agency designated by the employer, with the diaconal minister present, under provisions of ¶ 269.2b. If reconciliation cannot be accomplished through this committee, the district superintendent shall be consulted. The district superintendent will seek reconciliation between the parties involved. If reconciliation cannot be achieved in this process, the district superintendent and the Staff/Parish Relations Committee may recommend investigation under the guidelines of ¶¶ 2623.4, 315.4, and 317 of the Discipline.
14. Maternity/Paternity Leave: Maternity/Paternity leave should follow the guidelines of the Discipline, ¶ 313.2b.

EXAMPLE - BUDGET BUILDING PROCESS

Some considerations for building a budget for employment-appointment of a diaconal minister:

Cash salary	$ 20,000
FICA (7.65% in 1990)	1,530
FUTA (1% in 1990)	200
Texas Unemployment Tax	400
Health Insurance (1/2 conf. prem.)	888	(single)
Pension (12%)	2,400
Disability (estimate 4%)	800
TOTAL	$ 26,218

A diaconal minister may negotiate these items and/or waive any request for any item in the package listed above, subject to the Discipline and the laws of the state.

Report No. 3

The Board recommends the following goals for 1990-91:

1. To present to this annual conference, and implement when adopted, Guidelines for Benefits for Diaconal Ministers.
2. To implement a model for ministry program in the Central Texas Conference.
3. To continue to seek ways to interpret and promote diaconal ministry at the seminary and local level.
4. To continue to be informed about the study of ministry and offer input when possible.
5. To continue to offer an annual retreat for diaconal ministers and candidates serving in the Central Texas Conference.
6. To act as a clearing house in cooperation with the Committee on Continuing Education of the Board of Ordained Ministry, listing and publicizing continuing education opportunities available for diaconal ministers.
7. To offer at least one major continuing education event within our area during the year.

Report No. 4

A person seeking to enter diaconal ministry in the United Methodist Church upon hearing and heeding the call to serve, shall initiate the process toward the diaconal ministry by contacting the Board of Diaconal Ministry to take the first step to qualify as a candidate. The person is thus under the care and supervision of the conference Board of Diaconal Ministry.

To initiate this process, you may contact the chairperson or the registrar.

Report No. 5

CERTIFICATION

The Board of Diaconal Ministry is responsible for the certification of persons in specific ministry careers and for the care of all persons certified in professional ministry careers (see ¶ 733.4a-f). In the certifying process the Board has responsibility for both diaconal and ordained ministers and lay professionals who seek certification in the following offices: minister of Christian education, director of Christian education, associate in Christian education, minister of evangelism, director of evangelism, associate in evangelism, minister of music, director of music, associate in music. In addition the Board is responsible for recommending to the conference the renewal or discontinuation of professional certification based on an annual review and evaluation of all persons who have been certified in education, evangelism, music, or other areas that might be assigned.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES AND CLERGY BENEFITS

Report No. 1

Equitable Salary and Temporary General Aid Fund:

There shall be a program of equitable salary support in the Central Texas Conference under the management of the Commission on Equitable Salaries and Clergy Benefits. This program shall be patterned after paragraph 722 of the 1988 Discipline. Based on these guidelines, the following paragraphs shall compose the operating procedure for the Equitable Salary and Temporary General Aid Program.

1. The commission recognized the necessity of coordinating all salary subsidy; therefore, the conference treasurer shall inform the commission on any salary supplements through the Commission on Equitable Salary and Clergy Benefits for that portion not covered by any other source.
2. A prerequisite for consideration of salary supplements from the Equitable Salary Fund shall be the filing with the commission of a written application by the district superintendent. The district superintendent shall certify classification of the pastor and the salary (salary, travel, utilities and benefits) set by the charge. The application form will be supplied by the commission.
3. Salary grants shall be made for a calendar year with payments made monthly. In cases of appointment changes at or between the Annual Conference session, the district superintendent shall file a written request with the commission. Approved supplements shall then be paid on a pro rata basis for the part of the year actually served.

4. The following conditions must be met by the pastoral charge before it can become eligible for consideration to receive salary supplements from the Equitable Salary Fund.
   a. The pastoral charge shall have conducted a stewardship campaign for the local church budget of each of its churches during the previous conference year.
   b. All apportioned items shall have been paid in full by the local church for the previous conference year.
   c. The charge must have at least 100 members.

   In unusual situations the Commission on Equitable Salary and Clergy Benefits may waive any or all of these conditions.
5. The Commission on Equitable Salary and Clergy Benefits will pay any amount up to 1/3 of the minimum salary as set by the Annual Conference for each applicant according to his/her ministerial classification. If any exception under paragraphs 4 or 5 is sought, the request must be endorsed by a 2/3 vote of the Cabinet before it can be considered by the commission.
6. Persons of the following ministerial relationships are eligible for consideration for salary supplements at the level indicated for 1989. Rates for adjustment will be considered annually by the commission, rather than establishing automatic adjustments.

a.	Elder, full Connection	$18,745
b.	Probationary member
	1) Non-student living on charge	16,275
	2) Student living on charge	14,700
	3) Student not living on charge	11,025
c.	Associate member	16,275
d.	Local pastor
	1) Full-time local pastor	13,780
	2) Student local pastor living on charge	12,350
	3) Student local pastor not living on charge	9,480

7. Pastors who are appointed to less than full-time service as addressed in the 1988 Discipline, (p442.2) shall be eligible to receive salary supplements from the Equitable Salary Fund. The amount of salary supplement for which the pastor is eligible will be determined by the Cabinet's interpretation of time actually spent in pastoring the charge. For example, if the pastor is deemed as serving 1/4 of full time, his/her minimum salary eligibility would be 1/4 of the minimum of his/her conference relationship classification. The categories of 1/4, 1/2, and 3/4 will be followed in determining less than full-time eligibility for salary supplements from the Equitable Salary Fund.
8. All seminary students enrolled in the M.Div. program and approved local student pastors who are serving pastoral charges and receiving Equitable Salary Supplements may be approved by the Equitable Salary and Clergy Benefits Commission to receive $1.00 per mile, round trip each quarter, for the distance from the school to the primary church of the pastoral charge. This extra allowance shall be computed by the commission, and paid quarterly to the student pastor.
9. Ministers who are not eligible for salary supplements are:
   a. Those whose appointment is other than pastor of a charge.
   b. Those classified as part-time local pastor.
   c. Retired ministers.
   d. No pastor shall be eligible to receive salary supplements from this fund who has been offered appointments with higher salary, but who persistently prefers for personal reasons to remain in a present appointment.

Report No. 2

Moving Expenses

1. We recommend that the conference pay the greater of $200 or $3.00 per mile for the first 100 miles and $1.00 per mile additional after the first 100 miles with no maximum within the bounds of the Annual Conference. The receiving charge is expected to pay any remaining balance of the actual moving expenses.
2. We further recommend that the procedure of filing correct forms with the conference secretary/treasurer be continued.
3. We do, however, expect every receiving charge in the Annual Conference to pay the moving expense of the new minister in excess of the allowances and it must be the responsibility of the district superintendent at the time of consultation to inform the church of its share of this obligation.
4. We recommend that the conference pay the moving expenses of a retiring minister within the boundaries of the conference. This reimbursement will not exceed $500.00 over the amount paid in Article #1.

Report No. 3

The commission has advised CFA, and needs to inform the conference, of the current status of the trust fund out of which salary supplements are presently paid. This fund was established several years ago when there was an apportionment for Equitable Salaries that generated funds in excess of needs. Finally, that apportionment was dropped, and for a time the interest on the fund cared for the needs. However, for the past four or five years, supplement payments have exceeded income, and the corpus of the fund has been used upon the direction of CFA.

The balance of the fund on January 1, 1989 was $106,929. During 1989 the fund earned $13,588 in interest, but paid $31,616 in supplements, leaving a balance January 2, 1990 of $88,901. It is estimated our supplement payments for 1990 will be about $33,000, and of course the interest earned will be less because of the smaller corpus.

As these figures demonstrate, at the current rate the trust fund will carry the program approximately three years, or through the 1992 fiscal year, at which time an apportionment will need to be instituted to care for the program. The commission wants the conference to be advised of this information.

Charles McClure, Chairperson

COMMITTEE ON THE EPISCOPACY

The Committee on the Episcopacy is delighted to report how very much we appreciate the outstanding leadership Bishop John Russell is giving to the Central Texas Area. The growth in the membership of the conference, the response to the apportionments, the general concern for the congregations, along with commitment to social issues is an encouragement to all of us. Bishop Russell leads remarkably well in this direction and we are most fortunate in having him. We appreciate his pastoral care, his organizational skills and his excellent preaching. We are also fortunate in having Bishop Russell serve as president of the General Council on Finance and Administration.

We look forward this year to The Gathering, the international meeting of United Methodists which will be held in Fort Worth October 31 - November 4. This meeting is being called by the Council of Bishops and we are the host conference, due largely to Bishop Russell's invitation and the great support in evangelism given by the clerical members and congregations of this conference. This is the first such meeting in the 206-year history of the denomination. The following week we will host the Council of Bishops. Both of these meetings are significant.

How incomplete it would be to make a list of the accomplishments without being aware of some of the problems that we face as citizens of the world along with citizens of our own communities. World peace, world hunger, unemployment, loneliness, isolation, and on and on the list goes. We believe that together we will continue to be the church by trying to serve people by expressing the love of God.

Above all else, we express our deep appreciation to Bishop and Mrs. Russell for the warm, personal, healthy human beings they are. We want to be the first in everything but humility, and we would not exchange our area or leadership for any other.

Barry Bailey, Chairperson

HOMES FOR RETIRED MINISTERS

Homes for Retired Ministers is alive and well. This vital ministry has, since 1906, made it possible for ministers and spouses to have a home in which to retire after years of faithful service to Christ and His Church.

You, the Central Texas Conference, are to be commended for your continuous support of this ministry. The churches of the conference gave $16,688 in 1989 through the Special Offering. Although this is a decrease from the previous year, it is a goodly amount when you consider the economic situation in our area. The Board of Trustees and the residents of our homes thank you for your support.

The residents of our homes contributed $18,673 to assist in paying the taxes ($16,943) and insurance ($4,707). We are grateful for their help.

There are 342 churches in the conference. Of that number, 216 (63%) received the offering; 126 (37%) did not. Wouldn't it be wonderful if ALL of the churches presented the program and received the offering! The following is a simple breakdown of the offering by districts:

DISTRICT	AMOUNT
Brownwood	$1,731
Fort Worth East	4,350
Fort Worth West	3,890
Temple	1,791
Waco	1,202
Waxahachie	1,433
Weatherford	2,291

INTER-CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON HISPANIC MINISTRY OF THE CENTRAL TEXAS AND RIO GRANDE CONFERENCES

Report No. 1

Through this committee the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences have sought to respond faithfully to a great missionary challenge of being in mission and ministry with one of the fastest growing ethnic groups in the United States--Hispanics. It is projected that the rapid growth in the Hispanic population will continue for the next fifty years. Since 1980 the Hispanic population has been growing five times as fast as the rest of the nation. In ten years the U.S. Hispanic population is predicted to more than double (from 17 million to 36 million). In Texas by the year 2015 the Hispanic population is projected to be 39% and will be close to equalling the Anglo population of 43%.

Our missionary challenge is too great for any one conference alone. Thus,through this committee our two conferences work cooperatively to initiate, coordinate, and enable inter-conference Hispanic ministries within the bounds of the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences.

Last year our two conferences adopted the "Revised Strategic Plan for Inter-Conference Cooperative Ministries" (see pages 208-210 of the 1989 Journal of the Central Texas Conference or pages 126-129 of the 1989 Actas Oficiales Conferencia del Rio Grande). With its adoption both conferences reaffirmed their mutual commitment to working cooperatively in ministry with Hispanics.

No other conferences in our jurisdiction have adopted a comprehensive strategic plan related to inter-conference cooperative ministries as our two conferences have done. The Revised Strategic Plan is serving as a model for other conferences. Through the Inter-Conference Committee our two conferences have been on the cutting edge of inter-conference Hispanic Ministry development.

Accomplishments for the year include the following:

1. On going consultation was provided to La Trinidad, Diamond Hill and Polytechnic. Several leadership workshops were provided La Trinidad by the consultant.
2. Initial conversations were begun with DeLeon, Dublin and Glen Rose in regards to doing a resourcing workshop in their churches. No definite dates have been set yet.
3. Three different courses were offered by consultant at Fall University (September 8-9) with excellent response. It was especially encouraging to have interest from persons outside Fort Worth. Participants were from Dublin, Ballinger, Bryan, DeLeon, Arlington, Italy and Fort Worth. There was an average of 14 in each class.
4. On September 7, 1989, the committee facilitated a six hour joint Cabinet meeting involving the extended Cabinets of both conferences. There was excellent dialogue and several specific possibilities for cooperation were discussed.
5. Consultant has responded to several requests for consultation and/or information coming from outside our two conferences. One such request was from the National Committee to Develop a Comprehensive Plan For Hispanic Ministry which was established at the last General Conference.
6. Consultation was provided at the Waxahachie District Leadership Training in November.
7. The Inter-Conference North Fort Worth Task Force was formed to lay the groundwork for the cooperative development of a new Hispanic congregation in Far Northside, Fort Worth (see Report 2)
8. Consultation provided to Temple and Northern Districts regarding expansion of Hispanic ministry in new areas such as Round Rock.
9. Consultant provided leadership in February, 1990, at the South Central Jurisdiction Consultation on Hispanic Ministry involving participants from throughout the jurisdiction.
10. Consultant is part of a Rio Grande Conference writing team producing a manual on new church development with Hispanics. Target date for completion is January, 1991.

Goals for 1990-1991:

1. Compile updated data to identify the communities with a significant increase in Hispanic population, to identify local churches in those communities which are becoming increasingly Hispanic, and to identify Hispanic membership in Central Texas Conference churches.
2. Encourage local churches which are located in communities where there are significant increases in Hispanic population to use Inter-Conference Committee resources such as Resource Teams to enable them to explore ministry possibilities with Hispanics.
3. Continue to test and improve the inter-conference cooperative model of ministry.
4. Continue to recruit and train persons to serve on resource teams so that there is a pool of 25 persons.
5. Continue to provide courses during the Fall University of the Central Texas Conference which will resource local churches in the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences in their ministry with Hispanics.

6. Provide consultation and support for the new cooperative Hispanic mission in Fort Worth.

7. Continue providing consultation to churches who are involved with cooperative ministry with Hispanics; i.e., First (Round Rock) work team with San Pablo (Fort Worth), St. Stephen (Arlington) work team with Sion (Galveston), University (Fort Worth) sharing facilities with San Pablo; El Buen Pastor and First (both of Moody); El Divino Salvador and First (both of Temple); La Trinidad (Fort Worth) and Polytechnic (Fort Worth).

8. Encourage local churches of both conferences to provide volunteers in English as a second language classes.

9. Encourage and coordinate work team projects with Hispanic ministries.

10. Promote the Advance Special goal for San Pablo, Fort Worth and the new Hispanic Mission, Fort Worth.

11. Facilitate the two extended Cabinets of both conferences in their annual meeting to dialogue and develop strategies about inter-conference cooperative ministry.

12. Continue to work with the special committee authorized by General Conference to develop a national comprehensive plan for Hispanic ministry in order to offer the learnings, insights, and experience of the Inter-Conference Committee.

Report No. 2
Mission Design - New Congregation
Far Northside, Fort Worth

THEOLOGICAL RATIONALE

The Scriptures testify that through grace God has continued to seek to redeem all of humanity. In Jesus Christ, Savior and Lord, God was reconciling and restoring the world to the divine intention for creation (II Cor. 5:19). In Christ God calls the church, the body of Christ (I Cor. 12:12-31), into being and invites it to be a partner in God's mission in the world (I Cor. 3:9). The risen Christ sends the church into mission partnership with God (Matt. 28:18-20)and empowers it for mission through the Holy Spirit (Acts 2).

As the servants of Christ and partners in God's mission, the church seeks to reveal the love of God to all persons, men, women, and children of all ethnic, racial, cultural, and national backgrounds. God's mission is then always global in focus and local in expression. It is also connectional in representation within the United Methodist tradition.

United Methodists are a diverse people held together by a shared heritage and common desire to be partners in God's mission in the world. Being God's partner in mission requires mutual sharing and exchange of witness and resources among mission partners. Mission partnership is based in mutual love, trust, compassion, sharing, support and respect.

(Based on The Book of Discipline 1988, especially paragraphs 69, 101-107, 111, 201-203, and the Theology of Mission Statement: Partnership in God's Mission, General Board of Global Ministries, 1987.)

COOPERATIVE JOURNEY

It is our journey as a connectional people that the Rio Grande and Central Texas Conferences established the Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry. Both conferences recognized that the United Methodist Church is more able to meet the challenge of ministry with the rapid and ever increasing Hispanic population as the two conferences work cooperatively.

An opportunity for a bilingual ministry with Hispanics in Fort Worth's Far Northside has presented itself to our conferences. The Calvary UMC (a Central Texas Conference congregation) has voted to discontinue. The Fort Worth West district superintendent will recommend at the June, 1990, session of the Central Texas Conference that the church be discontinued. The Fort Worth West district superintendent has offered the use of the Calvary UMC facilities for the development of a new Hispanic congregation.

MISSION PURPOSE

Our purpose in the development of a new congregation is to develop a community of faith in Far Northside, Fort Worth, that understands itself to be both called and sent by God. As a called people they would seek to relate all people to God, to Jesus Christ and to Christ's church through:

- worship
- sacraments
- nurture in the faith
- redemptive fellowship
- mission
- witness and outreach

As a sent people they would understand that they exist in and for the world and are sent into the world to fulfill the mandate of the Gospel of creating a more just and loving society.

MISSION COMMUNITY

In accordance with the "Strategic Plan for Inter-Conference Cooperative Hispanic Ministries, Revised" (see pages 208-210 of the 1988 Journal of the Central Texas Conference or pages 126-129 of the 1989 Actas Oficiales Conferencia Rio Grande) the Rio Grande and Central Texas Conferences seek to provide a bilingual ministry for the Hispanic community in Far Northside, Fort Worth. The ministry will be housed in the former Calvary UMC facilities located at 3425 N. Elm, Fort Worth.

The Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry shall develop a support community for the new congregation. Members of the support group shall come from both the Rio Grande and Central Texas Conferences and key local leaders who are interested in the new ministry. The support group shall assist the new congregation to research needs, develop mission goals, formulate mission strategies and evaluate ministries. It shall also serve as communicators and interpreters of the new congregation's ministries as well as promoters and advocates for the new congregation.

The new congregation shall relate to the Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry, to the existing Calvary Day Care Center, to Wesley Community Center and to the North Fort Worth Cooperative Parish. It shall seek to link with other churches and agencies involved in serving that community.

MISSION STYLE

The new congregation shall continually seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit. To support and encourage its spiritual formation, spiritual support groups shall be developed from both conferences. Prayer groups, covenant churches or partnership churches provide possible models for spiritual support groups.

It is the cooperation of our two conferences which is bringing about the development of this new congregation. Therefore, the new congregation shall continue to use a cooperative model of ministry. Its cooperative approach to ministry shall be on both the interconference and ecumenical level.

The new congregation shall use resources, training, and personnel from both conferences as well as the general church. It shall also make use of its support community and its spiritual support groups. It shall network and develop links with churches and agencies which are serving the needs of the community.

The new congregation shall be a missional congregation - that is to say that it shall see itself in terms of its community. It shall minister to the needs of persons in its community. The General Boards of Discipleship and Global Ministries provide further definition: "A missional congregation is a Christian faith community which will reach and receive people, help them relate to God and grow as Christian disciples, and send them forth in mission and ministry." (Congregational Development: Developing and Redeveloping Missional Congregations for United Methodism Third Century, General Board of Global Ministries, The UMC, 1984).

It will be important for the pastor and leaders of the new congregation to be present to the people in the community, in their homes and where they gather. Therefore an active visitation program will be essential. The new congregation shall offer a ministry in the language of the people. Presently this means a ministry in Spanish and English.

COOPERATIVE COVENANT

The new congregation shall be a cooperative project of the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences.

The Central Texas Conference covenants to provide the facilities at 3425 N. Elm, Fort Worth; provide the appointment to the new congregation for a minimum of three years (unless there is agreement with the Rio Grande Conference that the appointment shall be provided by the Rio Grande Conference prior to the end of the third year); provide supervision of the pastor through the Fort Worth West district superintendent; provide salary, housing and benefits; and provide cooperation through local churches and district and conference structures.

The Rio Grande Conference covenants to make available its 100+ years of experience and expertise in new Hispanic congregational development; make available training for the pastor and emerging leadership through its office of Congregational Development; provide some financial support; and provide cooperation through local church and district and conference structures.

Both conferences will formally evaluate the covenant relationship annually. The Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry will form an Evaluation Task Force comprised of four persons from each conference plus the two district superintendents. The task force will bring its recommendation to the Inter-Conference Committee who in turn will report to each Annual Conference at its annual session.

Report No. 3

The inter-conference cooperation between the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences is not matched by any other annual conference in Texas and New Mexico. The sending of fraternal delegates to each other's annual conference celebrates the close relationship which has developed between our conferences. Therefore, the Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry recommends that Bobby Baggett be designated as the fraternal delegate to the Rio Grande Annual Conference which will meet June 14 - 17, 1990, in Georgetown, Texas.

UNITED METHODIST MEN

EVANGELISM-MISSION-SPIRITUAL LIFE

The decade of the 90's is "an exciting new era of hope" for the United Methodist Men.

When the General Conference said "each church or charge shall have an organized unit of United Methodist Men chartered and annually recertified through the General Board of Discipleship to provide another channel for involving men in the total ministry of the church", that act set fire to a great Methodist Men's Organization and was of incalculable value to the Methodist men and the church. It stimulated a tremendous growth pattern now in progress.

The men in the Central Texas Conference started the year with 39 chartered units and finished with 78 units - a 100% increase for the year.

More and more congregations are realizing the immediate advantage and added strength an organized men's unit can provide for the local church-an organized group ready to help move the church program forward.

The Philippines have 100% participation with each church having a chartered United Methodist Men's unit in place and functioning - many with positive mission outreach programs. If they can see the advantage then surely we too can see the value of a chartered unit. We look forward to the day when all of the churches in the Central Texas Conference will have an organized unit.

The United Methodist Men are represented on the full board of ACCOM as well as the Executive Committee, the Personnel Committee, and the Committee on Research and Planning. They are also represented on the Annual Conference Agenda Committee, the Board of Laity and the Executive Committee and full board of Church Growth and Development.

Thirty-one men from the Central Texas Conference joined about 5200 men at Purdue University in West Lafayette, Indiana from July 14-16, 1989 as participants in the United Methodist Men's fifth International Congress. Men attended from 73 annual conferences and 19 foreign nations. Our executive committee put in place a plan to send 150 men to the sixth International Congress on July 16-18, 1993. The national attendance goal is 6000 men.

The offering collected at the International Congress on Sunday, July 16, 1989 was $60,403.33. You will be interested to hear that the money was used as follows: repair of roofs of Jamaican churches, Church Scouting Endowment, Prayer Ministry Endowment, Prayer Ministry WATS, Men in Mission Funds, and International Methodist Men.

As we sit here today United Methodist Men have in progress or on the drawing board many millions of dollars worth of projects for God, his people and his church.

EVANGELISM: Scouting is an important function of our evangelistic effort. It is a great outreach tool to use in nurturing and providing services to youth and their families in the church and community. Scouts encourage spiritual awareness and a sense of mission and evangelism among the people of the community. We reach Boy Scouts of America, Camp Fire Inc., 4H, and Girl Scouts of the USA.

We continue to reach out to those members who move and never ask to have their membership transferred until they are finally dropped from the church roll. These cases are so numerous that they would fill twelve 200 member churches each year. We maintain a national information network on moving members. This network handles 4000 calls each week. To report a moving member call 1-800-624-4130 toll free.

MISSION: Mission is a vital link in our new triad. Each man tries to develop a fellowship of consent, concern, and cooperation through his mission work.

MISSION GOALS: Make available mission-minded men who are willing to volunteer for short term projects individually or as part of a team. These men would be utilized as interpreters of mission in each church.

Bring about spiritual renewal as men engage in mission. Lead men to new awareness of the love and grace of Christ as they serve others through a tangible "hands-on" ministry in times of high technology. We are working to strengthen men in developing countries.

Help sponsor the Living Prayer Center as a partnership of national scope that has United Methodist Men working with others to strengthen the ministry of prayer in the church. The toll free number for this center is 1-800-251-2468.

Our world peace effort is a mission designed to encourage a better understanding of the global community by creating a dialogue between people of many nations and offering special programs for fellowship and retreats.

SPIRITUAL LIFE: This involves ways in which men can develop their spirituality through their everyday lives. Our spiritual journey for men involves personal evaluation and goal setting and is designed to foster spiritual growth and greater understanding of oneself. This program has enjoyed four years of steady growth.

Spiritual retreats are offered as a time of reflection and renewal. Men who attend our conference assemblies can find comfort and support as they face real-life situations.

Finally our executive committee put in place plans for a special youth activity program on February 24, 1990. This was devised to help build self esteem in our children and youth and at the same time assist Glen Lake Camp by purchasing camperships for those that may otherwise be unable to enjoy a trip to the camp. The money for this project will be raised by promoting a Walk-A-Thon in each district. We will be counting on your support.

SPECIAL EVENTS: Spring Round-up, Saturday, May 5, 1990, Hill College, Hillsboro; Fall Rally, Saturday, September 15, 1990, Overton Park UMC, Fort Worth; South Central Jurisdiction UMM Congress, June 28-30, 1991, Centenary College, Shreveport, Louisiana

ALDERSGATE ENRICHMENT CENTER, INC.

Report No. 1

1989 has been an exciting year for Aldersgate Enrichment Center. To accomplish the mission of ministry to those with limited abilities, most of whom are mildly to moderately retarded, the Aldersgate Board of Trustees has concentrated on developing a Master Plan for new center. As plans for Aldersgate progress, the awareness of the growing need and urgency for alternative services and programs for these special persons in our society become more vivid.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

In May, the Board of Trustees selected Gary Carroll to become the first full-time Executive Director of Aldersgate Enrichment Center. He has been responsible for the increasing administrative responsibilities previously done by the board, answering inquiries for future services, educating the public as to the current status and mission of Aldersgate, and overseeing the financial development of the center.

During the summer months, the Executive Director, at the direction of the Board of Trustees, made a detailed study of specific needs of the mentally retarded and their families in this area and how we could best provide for those needs through the Aldersgate ministry. This study included visits to a number of existing facilities both in and outside of Texas. During these visits, there was opportunity to consult with professional staffs, residents, and objectively to assess various models in terms of strengths and weaknesses. Without exception, the concept of Aldersgate was met with overwhelming encouragement and cooperation from these organizations in regard to the needs Aldersgate will address. This information was vital in helping the Program Committee project the various programs and services that would be required. The research helped us to define in more detail the specific individualized programs and services Aldersgate will be able to provide both initially and in future years, to residents and their families.

MASTER PLAN

Using the direction given by the Program Committee, and additional research from other facilities, Aldersgate Enrichment Center selected DMS Architects and Planners of Fort Worth and San Angelo to develop the master plan for Aldersgate. After months of even more research, consultation, and refinement, a master plan was approved by the Board of Trustees in December of 1989. Included in this plan are the projected architectural conceptions, detailed land use, staff and resident projections, types and sizes of facilities needed to carry out our program objectives, operating budgets, and the approximate construction costs of buildings, site development, utility extension, and landscaping.

Report No. 2

At the 1988 Session of the Annual Conference, verbal commitments were made by the Board of Trustees that funds totaling $5,000,000 (cash, pledges, and property) would be secured before ground was broken for the new center. That figure included the cost of 4 group homes, a vocational center, chapel, administration center, activity center, site preparation, road and utility installation, and two years operating budget for start-up expenses.

With the completion of the master plan, the more specifically defined programs and services to be implemented and the resulting priorities and projections, the Board of Trustees of Aldersgate Enrichment Center request the approval of the Annual Conference to begin the following strategic plan of action for the years 1990, 1991, and 1992. The plan includes the projected cost of the first two years of operation and initial growth expenses.

The capital construction costs and start-up funds are still in line with those first projected. However, the board, from its more extensive recent research, propose that the center can begin and should be started with fewer buildings and residents than first projected. The Board recommends to the Annual Conference that funds and gifts totaling $2,560,000 will be adequate. Such an amount, which includes funds and gifts already secured, would make possible a responsible plan of action for the initial opening of the center. It is still the commitment of the board that the funds for the revised initial facilities, site preparation, etc. and start-up funds will be secured before ground is broken. The itemized funds needed are for:

2 group homes
Vocational building
Administration center
Site preparation (including initial roads, walks, utility installation and landscaping)
Horticulture complex
Furnishings & vehicles
Architectural fees
Estimated cost (not to exceed $1,740,000)	$ 1,600,000
Initial buildings & site preparation	1,740,000
1990, '91, '92 start-up funds	760,000
Total needed	$ 2,500,000
Projected Income:
Sale of donated property	425,000
Existing pledge 1990 projected income	60,000
Additional gifts needed to open doors	$ 2,015,000

The above funds for buildings, necessary furnishings and equipment, site preparation, some roads and utility installation, and the $760,000 in start-up funds must be secured in cash or pledges before construction begins. The board has no intent to borrow any outside funds to begin this project. Funds will be raised entirely through donations, from individuals, corporations, organizations, and foundations. Funds from projects of local United Methodist Men and other church-related groups will be solicited as will gifts from individuals and local churches through the designated Aldersgate Advance Special authorized by the 1988 Annual Conference.

A development plan is being formulated to present the mission, plans, and needs of Aldersgate Enrichment Center to the individual members of the churches of the conference and elsewhere. Numerous persons are available, awaiting invitations, to help in this educational process, not only for Methodist laity and clergy, but civic and community organizations outside the church. The board is continuing the initial intent of the United Methodist Men, that there be no "fair shares", "percentages", "apportionments", or similar "required giving."

Aldersgate will be a reality when people of all faiths feel their hearts "strangely warmed" and give to open the doors of opportunity to mildly and moderately retarded persons.

Report No. 3

At Aldersgate Enrichment Center's Board of Trustees' Annual Meeting in March of 1990, the board unanimously approved to file the proper documents to amend the Articles of Incorporation to allow for 15 elected trustees rather than the previous number of 9 elected trustees. The Board of Trustees agreed that this was an important step in enlarging the representation of the Annual Conference in participating and overseeing the development of this important ministry.

Report No. 4

Beginning in 1991 and subsequent years, the Board of Trustees of Aldersgate Enrichment Center, Inc. requests that Laity Sunday, normally the 3rd Sunday in October, be designated as "Aldersgate Enrichment Center Day ", and be set aside to celebrate and emphasize the conference's mission and ministry to mentally handicapped persons. This would permit churches of the conference to receive and distribute information about this Advance Special.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

United Methodist Women in the Central Texas Conference is an organization that is blessed in many ways.

The persons who serve with me as the conference executive committee are outstanding leaders. The commitment of these persons is matchless. They spend many hours working for the organization. Our TIME APART in March 1990 at Glen Lake attracted a record crowd. Theme for the day was "Psalms Alive!", and local leadership was the key to a successful event. Our officers will attend the West Gulf Regional School of Christian Mission in Shreveport in June. The officers provide much of the preparation and hard work for our own conference Cooperative Schools of Christian Mission in July. Our annual meeting is scheduled for October 6 at First United Methodist Church, Corsicana.

In addition to all the time and preparation for these and other meetings, each officer stays in touch with district officers and local units. We have been trained in our jobs as well as in developing leadership for the future.

The conference executive committee works together as a team in an exceptionally fine way. We pray daily for one another and for our work. Everyone has a special prayer partner. We spend time at each of our meetings studying God's word together as well as getting to know one another better and thus developing a supportive community within our group.

We are richly blessed with dedicated officers at the district and local levels; we 9970 members who are committed to Christ and His work through United Methodist Women. Ninety-two persons from Central Texas Conference registered for the ASSEMBLY in May in Kansas City. Two of our local women have been selected to participate in the November 1990 Jurisdiction event, "EACH LOCAL WOMAN: CLAIMING OUR HERITAGE IN MISSION!"

We continue to emphasize our CHARTER FOR RACIAL JUSTICE POLICIES. Our committee has expanded and is proposing a series of goals for 1991. We support PROJECT EQUALITY.

The CAMPAIGN FOR CHILDREN occupies a high spot on our list of priorities. Each local unit is encouraged to include the CAMPAIGN in its program and action plans.

In 1989 we sent a total of $215,353.85 to the Women's Division for the mission programs. Our pledge for 1990 is $222,534.

Among our blessings is the great support we receive from the pastors and congregations in this conference. Your prayers and encouragement enable us to continue as a lively, active, dedicated, and growing organization. Thank you.

Mary Weathers, Chairperson

LAY EMPLOYEE BENEFITS COMMITTEE

The Conference Lay Employee Benefits Committee was established to recommend a uniform policy of employee benefits in the best interest of both the conference and the conference lay employees. The committee is responsible for recommending policies including, but not limited to, salary schedules, insurance, and retirement programs. Committee recommendations are made to the governing bodies of ACCOM, CFA, and Church Growth and Development, and implemented as mutually agreed.

In 1989 the committee addressed the recommendations made in the Price-Waterhouse management study, as well as other applicable issues and concerns. As a result, the committee established an employment policy including employment practices, probationary periods, and employment based without regard to race, color, gender, or age.

Additionally, policies were established regarding holidays, office hours, pay periods, insurance benefits, and performance appraisal. The previous vacation, sick leave, and disability policies were revised and expanded.

All policies were compiled into a "Lay Employee Benefit" handbook and distributed to all conference lay employees.

The members of the committee are:

Conference Directors - Sidney Roberts (CFA), Michael Patison (ACCOM), and Ed Otwell (CGD);

Lay Employees - Arlene Haynes (CFA), Jan Wood (ACCOM), and Sharon Conger (CGD)

Lay Members - Ken Smith (1991), Tom Harkrider (1992), and Brenda Weir (1993)

LYDIA PATTERSON INSTITUTE

Lydia Patterson Institute's ministry has touched many lives during 1989. We have kept faith with the vision that caught the spirit of courageous Methodist women in 1913, and which has guided staff and personnel for the past 76 years.

For the third consecutive year we have experienced growth (21%) in our enrollment; we presently have 355 students. This growth reflects the confidence that is felt in our fully accredited program (TEA, Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools).

This year's student body has included a vital ethnic cross section composed of anglos, blacks, chinese and hispanics. Approximately 80% are Mexican citizens who commute from Cd. Juarez with student visas. The balance comes from the El Paso metropolitan area.

While most of our students initially come to learn English, many remain clear through high school. This enables us not only to challenge and stretch their minds through a demanding academic program but to very intentionally nurture them spiritually through a balanced spiritual approach that includes weekly chapel, required Bible study and four annual retreats. Many young lives have been clearly transformed as they have accepted the Lordship of Christ in their lives.

A review of 1989 reveals that there has been a slight downturn in our apportioned support from the churches of the 17 Annual Conferences of the South Central Jurisdiction. Even so, we have been blessed by the 83% payout that we have received. I trust that those churches who have elected not to accept their askings will prayerfully reconsider their decision, and will give us the privilege of sharing our story with them. We are trusting for a new day when the entire Jurisdiction will join those Annual Conferences who subscribe their apportionments for Lydia Patterson Institute 100%.

Finally, we invite all of our friends and supporters to visit us, to see what is being done in their name, in the name of Christ and United Methodism.

MOUNT SEQUOYAH

The future of Mount Sequoyah may be better than at any time in its history. We report this while making a number of transitions. The Board of Trustees has a search committee to find an administrator to replace Don and Constance Waddell, who have gone as missionaries to Chile. An announcement will be made soon about a director of financial development. At the present time, Dr. Earl Carter is serving as interim administrator and Mr. Carroll Rainwater is chief operating officer.

In 1989, 22,000 people enjoyed the facilities of Mount Sequoyah, as compared to 15,000 the previous year. The new Bailey Center is a marvelous addition, the Galloway Cafeteria is scheduled to be re-roofed soon and expansion is planned for the flower and rose gardens. We appreciate the many work groups who help to improve the beauty of the assembly.

Mount Sequoyah is a beautiful place to visit year-round. Approximately 20 jurisdictional events are held there each year. One of the highlights of the year is Bishops' Week, to be held this year June 18-21. The Bishops' Club raised $30,000 in 1989 for the general fund of Mount Sequoyah and we are in the process of raising additional funds this year. A plaque with the name of the minister and the congregation each year is placed in the Center, in recognition of the $1,000 gift made to Mount Sequoyah.

The Board of Trustees expresses its deep appreciation to the Central Texas Conference for your wonderful support.

PART I
Report No. 1
Work of the Board

Joint Meeting with Board of Diaconal Ministry: A joint meeting with the Board of Diaconal Ministry was held on September 12, 1989, at First UMC, Burleson. The purpose of the meeting was to examine possibilities of co-sponsoring continuing education events for diaconal and ordained ministers. Dr. Gilbert Ferrell led the joint meeting, with Reverend Homer Kluck leading the worship time.

Appointments Beyond the Local Church: The annual meeting for persons serving in ABLC appointments was held at First UMC, Fort Worth, on February 20.

Spring Interviews: Spring interviews for deacon and elder candidates, and for those continuing on probation, were held at Richland Hills UMC on April 17, 18, 19. Fifty persons were interviewed.

Grant-in-aid: Because of the special Annual Conference Offering for Ministerial Grant-in-aid the board was able to increase grant-in-aid funding by 10% effective in September 1989. The board wishes to express its appreciation to each church which received the special offering. A formal request for approval of grant-in-aid as an Advance Special of the Annual Conference was made to the conference Committee on Education and the Advance. The board urges the adoption of this cause at the 1990 session of the Annual Conference, and urges each local church to consider the cause of ministerial grant-in-aid for a special offering in 1991.

Licensing School: The Central Texas Conference Licensing School was held at Briarwood Presbyterian Retreat Center, Argyle, Texas, on August 6-11. Seventeen persons participated in the school.

Residency - Mentor Programs: Eleven persons participated in the conference Residency Program, and nine persons participated in the Mentor Program. The board expresses appreciation to each person who served as a supervisor for residency training, or as mentor for persons in the program. Training for pastors who will serve as residency supervisors was held May 16, 1990 at First UMC, Fort Worth.

Dinner for Ordinands: Dinner for the ordinands, the Bishop and the board was held May 18, 1990 at First UMC, Fort Worth. Bishop Russell was the speaker for the evening.

Training for Supervisors of Candidacy Studies: Training was conducted to certify persons as Supervisors for Candidacy Studies in the winter months of 1990. Training was conducted in each district and utilized training materials designed by the Division of Ordained Ministry in Nashville.

Lay Observers: The Board of Ordained Ministry welcomed the addition of four lay observers during the past year. The contributions of these four persons are appreciated by the entire board. Gratitude is expressed to William Auvenshine, W. O. Trogdon, Barbara Wendland, and Ruth Howell Robbins for their participation as lay observers.

Report No. 2

In an effort to improve clarity concerning its work, procedures, policies, and guidelines, and to address the continuing concerns of ministerial conduct and effectiveness, the board has labored to develop a Policy Handbook of the Board of Ordained Ministry of the Central Texas Conference of The United Methodist Church. The board requests the formal adoption of this Policy Handbook (as distributed) from this Executive Session of the Annual Conference.

PREPARATION FOR MINISTRY

Steps and Timelines
(1989; Revised 1990)

The policy statements below and lists that follow are intended to help you take a look at the steps in qualifying for ministry in the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church. Gathering them all together will allow you to look at the process as a whole. Listing them in order and outlining each step will allow you to look at each part of the process. It is urged that district committees on Ordained Ministry, district superintendents, local churches and all ministers in the conference use these lists in counseling persons seeking admission into any form of ministry in our conference. In this manner we hope to present a consistent picture to these persons and perhaps prevent confusion.

Timelines

A. Anyone seeking any relation to the Annual Conference must write to the registrar of the Board of Ordained Ministry before September 1. The registrar will then provide the applicant with the appropriate forms and the specific deadline information for work to be done.
B. Psychological testing procedures are to be completed prior to December 15 and results in the hands of the registrar on December 15.
C. All materials required for completion of a candidate's file must be in the registrar's hands prior to midnight on February 1.

(Revised - 1989)

Full Connection - Written Work

A. Written work for a person seeking ordination as an elder is to be submitted the year that the person is to be ordained.
B. At least one year under supervision must be served in the Central Texas Conference before admittance into full connection regardless of where internship was served.
C. Persons previously approved for full connection but who do not receive an appointment shall be continued as a probationary member. (Revised - 1989)

Ordination Service

Elder ordinands may have two sponsoring elders other than the Bishop and district superintendents. (Revised - 1986)

Licensing School

"Persons receiving their first appointment in the Central Texas Conference shall attend Local Pastors' Licensing School within twelve months unless, (1) they are full members of the Central Texas Conference, or (2) they have previously attended Local Pastors' Licensing School." (1986; Revised 1989)

Seminary Guidelines

We recommend that the Board of Ordained Ministry of the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church follow guidelines set forth in the Discipline by recognizing and approving those seminaries listed by the University Senate. - ¶ 1520.2

We further recommend that all persons planning to seek admission into the Central Texas Conference be counseled to give primary consideration to United Methodist seminaries for their theological education. (1978; Revised 1990)

College-University Accreditation

In cases where a college or university is in the process of approval by an Association of Colleges and Universities (University Senate - Southern Association) but is not yet approved, the action of a United Methodist school of theology in accepting a student will serve to certify the undergraduate degree for the board's purposes of qualifying this person under provisions of the Discipline.

Grant-In-Aid

A. Grant-in-aid - monies from the Board of Ordained Ministry shall be made available only to those who have completed certification for candidacy.
B. Undergraduates who are certified candidates may apply for grants.
C. An applicant must be enrolled in a seminary or college or university approved by the University Senate under the provisions of the Discipline.
D. Persons applying for grant-in-aid funds must complete a grant-in-aid application which includes a statement of intent to become a full member of the Central Texas Conference.
E. The guidelines for granting monies are reviewed at least annually and include the varying tuition scales and financial aid available at different schools, actual cost to the student, the student's income, the amount of monies available and the number of students making application.
F. Students attending schools other than United Methodist seminaries or Fm Divinity School must have approval from the board before MEF funds will be granted.
G. To be considered for additional financial aid above that established by the guidelines, a letter stating the amount and reasons for the request must be sent to the Treasurer of the board, along with information on income. Decision will be made by the executive committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry which will be the Grant-In-Aid Committee.
H. Exceptions to these points may be made by 3/4 vote of the executive committee.

(1986; 1988; Revised 1990)

Interviews

Persons who are in the process leading to full connection and elder's orders or associate membership will be interviewed each spring by the Board of Ordained Ministry.

1. Any recommendations made to a person being interviewed by the board shall be made in writing.
2. The moral issues in ¶¶ 404.4a, 404.4e, 414, (footnote, pp210ff) and 424.6 of The Book of Discipline, 1988 shall be dealt with in the interview process.

(1986; Revised 1990)

Interviews for Out of State Persons

The board will make interview teams available to seminary students who are attending school out of state to be interviewed at a time other than and prior to the spring interview times when deemed important by the registrar. This interview procedure shall be made available only to persons on continuation and not to anyone who is requesting a change in conference relationship. (1988)

Notification

All candidates seeking admittance into the conference are to be sent written requirements by certified mail. (1987)

Psychological Testing

The Board of Ordained Ministry will follow the guidelines of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry concerning the nature and selection of psychological tests administered to candidates for ministry. (1976; 1978; Revised 1990)

Recognition of Orders

A. Persons entering conference membership by recognition of orders will have their orders recognized fully and will participate in the ordination service the first year of the process and not in subsequent years in the process of qualifying for full membership.
B. Persons moving toward conference membership by recognition of orders shall be appointed under ¶ 426.2, and serve a minimum of two full conference years under that paragraph before being eligible for conference membership.
C. All persons applying for full membership in the Annual Conference through recognition of orders shall have attended the Local Pastors' Licensing School and participated in the conference Residency Program during the two years of their probation.

(1986; Revised 1990)

Residency Program

The Residency Program in the Central Texas Conference provides supervisory relationships for the probationary years after successful completion of seminary. It has two components: namely, the supervised year and the mentor year(s).

1. The Supervised Year Segment - Ordained deacons, having completed seminary, under full-time appointment to a local church in the conference will participate in the supervised year. It is an eleven month program. With the supervising pastor and local church participation, the resident will present a learning covenant; will meet bi-weekly with the supervisor to whom have been supplied written materials; will meet monthly with the district superintendent for supervision, again accompanied by written materials; will participate in a growth group; and will have two two-hour evaluation conferences, usually one in November and one in March. The only persons exempted from the supervised year are those having satisfactorily completed a two-semester Perkins internship in a local church in this conference. These persons will be in the mentor segment of the program for two years.
2. The Mentor Year Segment - Elder candidates in the residency program who have satisfactorily completed the supervised segment of the residency program, or who have satisfactorily completed an internship that qualifies as an equivalent for the supervised segment of the residency program, will participate in the mentor segment of that program. With the resident, the interview team at the completion of the spring interview will identify growth issues for the resident to pursue. The Board of Ordained Ministry will appoint a mentor to work with the resident on these identified issues. The resident will meet with the mentor to devise a program for addressing the issues and will meet a minimum of eight times in the course of a year to assess progress. The resident and mentor will each submit to the Chairperson of the board by April 1 separate written reports on the growth issues and steps taken to address them. These reports will constitute part of the agenda for the resident's final spring interview.

CONTINUING IN MINISTRY

Evaluation and Performance Analysis

In accordance with ¶ 423.2c an evaluation of all ministerial members will be conducted annually using instruments developed and approved by the Board of Ordained Ministry. Included in these instruments are evaluations for the Bishop, district superintendents, clergy, and local congregations. These instruments provide an objective basis for reviewing the growth and effectiveness of clergy and congregations. (1990)

Policies on Continuing Education

A. General Requirements

¶ 445 of The Book of Discipline, 1988, sets out the expectations for continuing education.

It is required that each full member of the Central Texas Conference will acquire at least one unit of credit each year and a total of ten units per quadrennium.

Credits are given on the basis of one unit for every ten contact hours of instruction. Two and one half credits per year is the norm.

Clergy will be expected to include in writing in the Pastor's Report at charge conference what events of continuing education they have attended.

(1981; Revised 1990)

B. Sources of Credits

1. Credit will be given for work done at University Senate approved theological schools, training centers and general church agencies.
2. Credit will be given for experiences in local colleges, hospitals, community agencies and corporations which use CEU credit system.
3. Credit will be given after evaluation by the Continuing Education Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry for peer group, correspondence and supervised study. A report of the project undertaken, its process and conclusions must be submitted.
4. No credit will be given for advocacy events.
5. Other requests will be reviewed by the board (or a committee appointed by the board) as to their appropriateness.

C. Funding and Other Support

1. An ordained minister is entitled to (a) at least one week per year and (b) at least one month during one year of each quadrennium (¶ 445.2) for study time, which shall not be considered vacation time.
2. Each local church is expected to provide money in its budget for continuing education in the amount of $200 or 1% of the salary, whichever is greater. This applies for each appointed person in that church or agency, including diaconals.
3. A sliding scale will be used in allotting available MEF monies as follows:
   a. those earning less than minimum salary will be provided 2:1
   b. those from minimum salary to the current denominational average will be provided 1:1
   c. those above that cap will be provided at 1:2
4. Each minister under appointment full time is eligible for MEF funding (when available) in amounts not to exceed $200 annually, nor $800 quadrenially (or at a pro-rated amount put in force by a vote of the Board of Ordained Ministry). (1986; Revised 1990)

D. Other Instructions

Information on Sabbatical Leave and extended study leave are found in The Book of Discipline, 1988 in ¶¶ 445 and 446. (1990)

Leave of Absence

A. The Cabinet and board usually recommend the Southwest Career Development Center for persons requesting a leave of absence. In some circumstances this may be a requirement for granting a leave of absence.
B. Any probationer on leave of absence shall come before the Board of Ordained Ministry each year for an interview.

Refer to ¶¶ 448, 449, 450 in The Book of Discipline, 1988 for a full discussion about leave of absence matters. (1987; Revised 1990)

Ministerial Conduct

The United Methodist clergy person of today considers himself/herself a professional of equal stature with the other professionals of our society. This professional image is produced by the degree of educational attainment and the competency with which the clergy person fulfills responsibilities within both the church and community. In view of this, the following "Guidelines for Ministerial Relationships" are offered in an effort to provide the clergy person with a definable boundary of conduct, with the intent and purpose being the strengthening of the bonds within the clergy community, in order that all involved might render a more meaningful service within this ministry of love.

A. It is understood that the clergy person designated as "Pastor-in- Charge" (hereinafter referred to simply as "Pastor" and referring to that individual who has primary ministerial leadership responsibility) shall be in charge of all Sacraments, Acts of Worship and Rituals carried out within the parish unless circumstances prevent him/her from fulfilling this responsibility.
    1. A clergy person shall not perform any ministerial function for a member of a congregation without the express permission and direct personal invitation of the Pastor.
        a. If a family in a crisis situation desires the ministry of a clergy other than the Pastor, that clergy person must be requested through the Pastor, who will arrange for his/her presence.
        b. In the case of funerals, weddings or other ministerial functions, if members desire the ministry of clergy other than the Pastor, that clergy person is to be requested through the Pastor, who will contact the desired clergy person.
        c. Visiting clergy will assist the Pastor in a manner mutually acceptable to the member family and Pastor. The Pastor will be in charge of the service, NOT THE VISITING CLERGY PERSON. However, the Pastor shall retain the right not to assume direct charge as a matter of personal preference, or if he/she deems such an action as pastorally unnecessary.
        d. The Pastor shall assume the responsibility for the fulfillment of all disciplinary requirements listed in ¶ 430 of The Book of Discipline, 1988 - (responsibilities and duties of a pastor), in those instances where a visiting clergy person is involved.

e. When a family which is not a member of or related to a local church in their city calls a distant clergy person to conduct some ministerial function in a facility other than the local church, the clergy person out of loving care and concern should contact the local Pastor before conducting the service.

2. If a family contacts a potential visiting clergy person prior to consulting with the Pastor, the family shall be instructed by the potential visiting clergy person to consult with the Pastor, and no commitment shall be made until such a time as the visiting clergy person is contacted by the Pastor.
3. If the Pastor is unavailable to minister to the needs of a family due to illness, vacation or other extenuating circumstances, the visiting clergy person shall conduct himself/herself on the highest level of ethical behavior so as not to impair or injure the future ministry of the Pastor.
4. The Pastor is to inform the funeral director regarding all arrangements for a service.

B. While realizing that pastors tend to build meaningful and lasting relationships with persons and families within a parish, visits in a previous pastorate should be held to a minimum especially during the first year. In turn, no pastor should make suggestions as to what should or should not be done within the program or policy of a local church of which he/she is not the Pastor.

C. Retired pastors should abide by the same rules of conduct established for visiting pastors. They should accept the responsibility for the performance of any ministerial function only upon direct invitation of the Pastor.

D. In the interest of assuring a smooth pastoral transition, the outgoing Pastor has the following obligations to his successor:
1. Introduce him/her in a positive manner, utilizing the church newsletter and other means which are at his/her disposal.
2. Arrange for responsible lay persons to meet with and acquaint the new minister with his/her new parish assignment.
3. The outgoing Pastor should make it clear that the newly assigned Pastor will have the responsibility of ministering to the congregation, and that he/she will no longer be available for such services.
4. The outgoing Pastor shall explain to the local congregation, in a tasteful manner, the circumstances which produced his/her new assignment, i.e., if he/she had actively sought a new pastorate he/she should be honest enough to say so, or is he/she had agreed to a move which he/she had not sought, this, too, should be explained.
5. In the area of finances:
   a. All church finances should be current and a fiscal data file available for the new Pastor.
   b. A Pastor moving to a new appointment following Annual Conference shall not receive salary from the local church for service after May 31.
   c. It is the Pastor's responsibility to see that all funds are expended only for the purpose for which they are contributed.
6. All records should be in order and up-to-date.
7. The parsonage shall be vacated by noon on "moving day". The incoming Pastor should no arrive prior to noon. The outgoing Pastor shall work with the Parsonage Committee to see that the parsonage is thoroughly cleaned inside and out, and that needed repairs are called to the attention of the committee prior to his/her departure.
8. All utilities shall be paid through the departure date in those instances when the Pastor is directly responsible. In those instances where this creates a problem, the outgoing Pastor shall make arrangements with the incoming Pastor to pay his/her fair share.

E. If a Pastor is to be absent from his/her parish for an extended period of time, after consulting with the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, he/she should inform the congregation as to which clergy person(s) will be performing his/her pastoral duties. If no previous arrangements are possible due to sudden calamity, the district superintendent should be consulted.

F. The Pastor shall keep in confidence any privileged information which he/she should obtain.

G. A Pastor shall have those rights and privileges of citizenship which are common to other citizens.
   1. A Pastor may hold elective or non-elective public offices of honor and trust if there is no time conflict between the holding of such office or positions and his/her relationship with his/her appointed ministry. The decision as to whether or not such a conflict does exist should be made by the minister in consultation with the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, the Administrative Board (or equivalent governing body), the district superintendent and the bishop.
   2. A responsibility of the Pastor is to give leadership on moral and social issues; and his/her leadership should not be circumscribed by the congregation to which he/she is assigned except in those instances where there is a direct conflict with The Book of Discipline. Because of this leadership role, the minister should familiarize himself/herself with character-building institutions, social and professional service institutions and governmental resources in the community.
   3. In exercising citizenship rights and privileges, the Pastor should follow these suggestions:
      a. Be careful to identify personal positions taken on public issues as personal positions.
      b. If he/she presumes to speak for his/her congregation, he/she should be certain that his/her position is supported by action of the Administrative Board.

H. Although it is recognized that a certain amount of competitiveness promotes a healthy spirit between local congregations, no Pastor should make himself/herself party to an activity or undertaking which injures or detracts from the efforts of the Pastor of a nearby local church. A Pastor's discreetness at this point should forbear his/her calling upon members of a nearby church who are actively involved, or scheduling programs or activities which tear down or hinder similar programs or activities of a nearby church. In short, local church pastors complement each other, rather than hinder or interfere with each other's programs.

[The Board of Ordained Ministry has responsibility to see that the "Guidelines for Ministerial Conduct" be published in the Annual Conference Journal once each quadrennium and that a copy of the "Guidelines for Ministerial Conduct" be given to each clergy person who transfers into this Annual Conference and each pastor who is received into probationary membership of this Annual Conference and to each Pastor-Parish Relations Committee.] (1972; Revised 1990)

Change in Ministerial Relationship

A. The requirements and deadlines for various requests to Annual Conference for change in ministerial status dictated by The Book of Discipline, 1988 or required by the Board of Ordained Ministry shall be published in The United Methodist Reporter so persons anticipating changes may know in advance of the deadlines. These are some of the deadlines currently established: retirement - ninety days prior to Annual Conference (¶ 451); less than full-time service - three months prior to Annual Conference (¶ 437.2a); leave of absence - ninety days prior to date leave to begin; end to leave of absence - six months prior to Annual Conference (¶ 448.3).

B. Persons seeking a change in relationship at Annual Conference (other than voluntary retirement) shall meet in person with the Conference Relations Committee in order to fully discuss the reasons for their relationship change being requested. The Conference Relations Committee will make its recommendation to the Board of Ordained Ministry.
C. Persons seeking a change in relations (¶ 452) between sessions of the Annual Conference shall meet with the Conference Relations Committee within two months after the request is received in order to fully discuss the reason for this relationship change being requested.
D. Any time there is a change in conference relationship, the Conference Relations Committee may request counseling, testing, continuing education, etc. in order to help resolve the reason for the relationship change.
E. Any time there is a change in conference relationship (other than voluntary retirement) the Conference Relations Committee will ask for written statements from the minister, the minister's district superintendent and the chairperson of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee of the local church (or appropriate committee). These written statements shall give in appropriate detail the circumstances relating to that person's request for the relationship change. These written statements will be placed in file for reference when and if reinstatement is requested.
F. When a member requests re-entry from leave of absence between sessions of Annual Conference, that member shall meet with the Conference Relations Committee in person.
G. Persons on leave of absence shall be contacted annually by the Conference Relations Committee.
H. Any person with an interrupted probationary period shall serve a minimum of two uninterrupted years on probation after being readmitted.

(1986; Revised 1990)

Transfers

A. In the transfer of persons into the Central Texas Conference we shall use an interview process. This process shall be at the initiation of the bishop and convened by him/her or his/he designate.
B. Members of the interview team shall be two Cabinet members including the district superintendent where this person is to be serving, the Cabinet representative to the Board of Ordained Ministry (where these two persons would be the same person, another district superintendent shall be designated by the bishop), and two persons from the board. These two persons shall be the Conference Relations registrar and the registrar of the board.
C. Associate and full members transferring in shall be interviewed in an orientation manner as to their history in their former Annual Conference including any changes in their conference relationship during that time. They shall also be interviewed in terms of the nature and spirit of the Central Texas Conference in order to help them adjust and feel at home in our conference.
D. Probationary members transferring shall be required to have their Board of Ordained Ministry files forwarded to our registrar prior to the interview. These files will be compared to our requirements for the contents of the files. If there are items we require for probationary membership that are not in the file, a time line shall be negotiated to see that those items are forthcoming. The interview shall include an overview of the Board of Ordained Ministry policies for qualifying for full membership including the attendance of Licensing School and that one full conference year of full time service in the Central Texas Conference is required by the board before the person will be considered for full membership. The interview should also include background information and history of the person including his/her steps into ministry and any delays along the way or changes in relationship. the interview shall also include discussion of the nature and spirit of our Annual Conference in order to help this person adjust and feel at home in our conference.

Local Pastor Transfers

When a person licensed as a local pastor in another conference is appointed to serve in the Central Texas Conference this person shall be listed in the appropriate category as approved and appointed in the Board's report provided:

1. The person provides the board with documentation of his/her certificate of candidacy.
2. The person provides documentation of his/her current license as a local pastor.
3. The person be enrolled in the Central Texas Conference Licensing School for orientation.

Probationary Transfers

Probationers transferring into the Central Texas Conference shall serve a minimum of two full conference years in the Central Texas Annual Conference before being eligible to be received into full membership in the Central Texas Annual Conference.

(1987)

Clergy in Appointments Beyond the Local Church

Methodism has had appointments beyond the local church since the beginning of our history as a people called Methodist. The terms have sometimes been changed, such as "special appointment" or "extension ministries". Yet, whatever the term, it is clear that conference members in these appointments remain in the itineracy and are accountable to the Annual Conference.

PARAGRAPHS RELATING TO APPOINTMENTS BEYOND THE LOCAL CHURCH FOUND IN THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE, 1988:

¶¶ 436-441 These paragraphs should be reviewed as they discuss ministry (¶ 436), itineracy (¶ 437) and responsibilities and duties of a pastor (¶ 439).

¶ 442 Appointments Beyond the Local United Methodist Church

¶ 443 Itinerant system

¶ 443.1 Categories of Appointment

¶ 443.2 Relation to the Annual Conference

a) Accountability to the Annual Conference - A person in an ABLC shall submit annually a report to the bishop, district superintendent, Board of Ordained Ministry and Charge Conference. (If working outside the home Annual Conference, the report shall also be submitted to the bishop in the area in which they work.) This report shall include salary, description of ministry involvement and any evaluations/reviews that may be a part of their current position.

b) Responsibility of the Annual Conference - The bishop, representatives of the Cabinet, and the Committee on Chaplains and Related Ministries of the Board of Ordained Ministry shall provide annually an opportunity to meet with ordained ABLC's. The bishop shall convene this meeting.

¶ 443.3 Relation to the Local Church

a) Conference members appointed beyond the local church shall establish membership in a Charge Conference in their home Annual Conference. They shall submit annually a report to this Charge Conference.

b) If serving outside the geographical bounds of their home Annual Conference, they shall notify the bishop in the area in which they reside. They shall also be affiliate members of a Charge Conference (without vote) within the area of their appointment. (An annual report shall be presented to the affiliate charge also.)

   5. Secretary
   6. Treasurer
I. The executive committee of the board shall meet with the nominees for orientation and identification of issues. Outgoing officers shall meet with nominees for orientation and to identify issues of the Annual Conference.

J. In consultation with the outgoing chairperson, the cabinet representative will convene organizational meeting of the board within two weeks following Annual Conference at which time officers of the board will be elected. The nominating committee will prepare a written slate of nominees. (1987; Revised 1990)

Policy for Record Keeping of the Board of Ordained Ministry

Essential to the work of the Board of Ordained Ministry of the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church is the keeping of complete and accurate files and records which meet the church's legitimate need for information and guarantee both an individual's right to privacy and accessibility to information kept in his/her name. The following policy statements are provided by the Board of Ordained Ministry of the Central Texas Conference to meet these demands and the requirements of ¶ 733 of The Book of Discipline, 1988.

A. Rationale
   1. Both records and files are mandated by The Book of Discipline because of the church's legitimate need for gathered information.
   2. Records and files are kept as a service to both candidates for ministry and conference members.
      a. They help a person see where he/she has been and is going.
      b. They help protect an individual against arbitrary judgment or inaccurate innuendo and help assure rights to special considerations.
      c. They assist and give direction to decisions about continuing education and facilitate the choice of growth-producing experiences.
   3. Records and files are also kept as a service to the United Methodist Church.
      a. They provide data for decision making.
      b. They give protection against legal liability resulting from undocumented decisions not based on fact.
      c. They provide longitudinal data for research and study.

B. The purpose for record keeping

The purpose for record keeping and files used by the board shall be to qualify persons for ministry in the Central Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church under provisions of chapter 3 of The Book of Discipline, 1988. Its further purpose shall be to meet the requirements of ¶¶ 705, 733, 2620-2626 and other applicable paragraphs of The Book of Discipline, 1988. Parallel chapters and paragraphs in subsequent books of Discipline shall apply in future quadrennia. The files shall contain materials expressly required by these paragraphs. They shall also contain other documents deemed necessary by the board in order to execute its role of qualifying candidates for ministry and/or maintaining records of persons in categories other than full membership or associate membership (i.e. local pastors, persons on leave, etc.). These materials shall meet the purposes and rationale above and shall be added to a file under the guidelines of this policy statement below.

C. Definition of terms
   1. Record -
      a. The official minutes of the Board of Ordained Ministry and/or the Journal and minutes of the Central Texas Conference with regard to a specific minister or ministerial candidate shall serve as the official record of ministerial standing and/or status.
      b. Any official document contained in the file of a referent received on a specific occasion from a known and verifiable source.

2. Referent - The subject of a record or file.
3. Source - One who places material in a file.
4. File -
   a. Any collection of related records which serves an identifiable purpose with an explicit referent, owner and custodian. Files are originated by a district Committee on Ordained Ministry or by the board itself.
   b. A collection of records in which the referent, sources, owner and custodian have vested interest.
   c. That set of records which may be open to third parties with the implied or written consent of those with vested interest.
5. The records and files of the Board of Ordained Ministry are kept on behalf of the Annual Conference and shall be maintained under guidelines provided by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry and the General Board of Pensions.
6. Custodian - The registrar of the board is the custodian of all files. The registrars for local pastors, candidacy and conference relations assist the registrar in maintaining the files. The board representative to the district Committees on Ordained Ministry assists the registrar in maintaining the files of the district committee.
7. Vested Interest - The owner, custodian, referent and sources have vested interest in a record or file.
8. Third Party - One who desires access to information in a record or file but has no vested interest.

D. Stewardship of Information

1. Those with vested interest in specific information (sources, referent, owner, custodian) have access to the information under the criteria established by this policy statement.
2. Any person with vested interest may inquire concerning how this information is being used by making an official inquiry in writing to the chairperson or registrar of the board.
3. Any person with vested interest may correct and/or amend an inaccurate record by writing the chairperson or registrar of the Board of Ordained Ministry, supplying the corrected and/or amended material and providing verification of its validity as determined by the executive committee of the board.
4. The contents of a file are confidential information and shall not be improperly disclosed or prematurely destroyed. Neither shall they be used for unauthorized purposes (outside these guidelines) without consent by the board unless required by law.
5. The custodian shall be responsible to see that the information contained in a file is reliable and is not misused. The custodian has the responsibility to maintain and administer the files in accordance with established policy and with the assistance of others designated by the board and/or employees of the Annual Conference operating under this policy statement.
6. Content of a file must be consistent with the stated rationale and purpose above. Records not consistent with the stated rationale and purpose are inappropriate and shall be removed from the file by the custodian.
7. The existence of a file shall be known to the referent, the board and to the sources contributing to the file. The board shall notify each referent and source of the existence of the file when it is originated and/or when material is placed in the file.

The board shall not notify any other person of the existence of the file without the written permission of the referent and the source unless required by law.

E. Content

The scope of the content of a file shall include items listed in the check lists attached to these policy statements. These check lists shall be established by the requirements of The Book of Discipline and/or by vote of the board. Any record generated outside the board and not listed on the official checklist may be placed in a referent's file at the request of the referent or a source. Records other than those in the check lists may also be placed in a referent's file by vote of the Board under the guidelines of these policy statements. The referent shall be notified of this action.

F. Accuracy

1. All information in a file should be accurate. The custodian shall check all information placed in a file for accuracy before it is placed in the file.
2. Information which is not verified (i.e. rumor or innuendo) is not acceptable as part of a file. No record shall be entered into a file without a signature.
3. Inaccurate information discovered in a file is to be corrected and the correction noted and signed by the person making the correction. The correction may be by addition or by deletion.

G. Source of Information

1. The board shall maintain with each file an index of records which identifies the material, its source and the date of entry.
2. Sources of information shall be determined by action of the board and shall be competent with respect to the nature of the information supplied.

H. Access

1. Right of Access
   a. The officers of the board shall have access to all files at all times through formal request to the custodian. The members of the board may have access to files of certain candidates for preparation for interviews and during decision making periods of time.
   b. Contents of a file must not be divulged outside the Board of Ordained Ministry by word of mouth or by any other methods and conditions outlined in these policies.
   c. Parties having access to information about the existence of a file do not necessarily have access to the content of the file. Access to the content of a file shall be at the discretion of the board acting through its own vote or through its executive committee. Any person requesting a file other than the normal and proper procedures outlined in these policies shall make the request in writing stating the purpose for the access.
   d. Those with vested interest shall be notified by the Journal of the access policies before date is included in the file.
   e. Normally, the referent shall have access to all information in the file. Any exception to this shall be determined by vote of the board upon consultation with legal counsel.
   f. The referent has the right to waive access to information in advance of its placement in the file. The waiver shall be in writing and shall be included in the file. Whenever the board is aware of the need of limited access by the referent to the file, it shall request that the referent waive his/her right to access. When a referent refuses to waive his/her right to access the board may or may not require limited access to the file by the referent. The board maintains the right to determine access to its own files unless otherwise required by law.

g. The board may request access to files owned by other parties (i.e. the bishop, district superintendent, conference office, theological seminaries or psychologist) through disciplinary provisions or contractual relationships.

2. Third-Party Access
   a. Third-party access shall occur only with the written consent of the file referent and with consent of the owner except when required by The Book of Discipline.
   b. Whenever a bishop, Board of Ordained Ministry, district superintendent or conference representative request information from a file as documentation for a transfer or other suitable cause, the board shall require the written consent of the referent.
   c. The board shall determine whether or not a request for information from a third party is proper in light of these policies and whether or not the information shall be supplied.
3. Modes of Access
   a. Open access shall be limited to the referent and owner. Access by sources and third parties shall be for specific information and requests for specific information shall be made in writing.
   b. Photocopies of specific information in a referent's file shall not be permitted unless specifically requested by a referent or unless it is necessary for the work of the board. When the specific work for which the photocopy was made is completed all photocopies shall be destroyed.
   c. Access through indexes, anonymous or disguised data or tracts shall be allowed only with the written permission of referents involved and through request and approval by the board.
   d. A record of access including names of persons receiving access and the specific information accessed and the date of the access shall be maintained with every file.

I. Retention and Disposition
   1. Files shall be actively maintained as long as, and only so long as, they fulfill the conditions of the rationale and purpose for record keeping stated in this policy. this includes files for persons in the qualifying process, persons exiting form the qualifying process before reaching associate membership or full membership, local pastors and files originated when persons receive a change in conference relationship after being received into associate or full membership.
   2. The active life of a file shall be five years after a person exits during the qualifying process (certified candidates, local pastors, probationary members) and one year after a person is received into associate or full membership. A file generated when a person receives a change in conference relationship after having been received into associate or full membership shall be permanent as required by The Book of Discipline, except, it shall be disposed of in accordance with provisions below if the person is readmitted into associate or full membership.
   3. Within one year of a person's being elected into associate or full membership the custodian shall review each referent's file and make recommendations to the executive committee of the board for disposition of each file. Each referent shall be notified that he/she amy request specific information from the file. The conference secretary shall also be notified that biographical and other data may be available for the conference records and/or archives. Any source who may desire the return of information must make the request in writing. Any other person requesting information form a file shall make the request in writing and release shall be subject to waiver by the referent and at the discretion of the executive committee. After requests have been made concerning the disposition of each file, the executive committee shall dispose of the file as it sees fit. It may release records to the referent, conference secretary and/or sources at its discretion as specifically requested. All other information in the file including notes, lists, etc. shall be destroyed. A file or any material in a file may be sealed by vote of the board at the request of the executive committee and kept for an indefinite period as determined by the board.

4. A local pastor's file is maintained as long as the local pastor receives an appointment. If a local pastor moves to preparatory membership the file continues through the process. If a local pastor is elected to associate membership, the file is disposed of under the provisions outlined above.
5. When a file is destroyed because a candidate has been granted associate or full membership in the Annual Conference, the biographical information (i.e. educational background, awards, publications, military service, prior employment, interest, etc.) mentioned above and any other data requested by the referent shall be included in a permanent file owned by the Annual Conference under the custodianship of the conference secretary or any other office or agency so designated by the Annual Conference and may be used in press releases, references and the conference Journal.
6. When an associate or full member applies for a change in conference relationship, the Board of Ordained Ministry shall create a new permanent file for the referent.

J. Security

Files shall be preserved from unauthorized access and accidental destruction. This is the responsibility of the owner and custodian.

K. Guidelines for psychological assessment record keeping

1. Psychological assessment reports prepared by a psychologist, psychiatrist or pastoral evaluation specialist with proper credentials and released to the board with the written permission of the referent shall become a part of the files owned by the board.
2. Test scores and other data from psychological assessment, interview notes and copies of reports shall be owned by and retained in the files of the psychologist, psychiatrist or pastoral evaluation specialist.
3. Access, disposition, reproduction, dissemination and other use of data from psychological assessment shall be governed by contractual arrangement between the board and/or other relevant agency, and the psychological consultant. This contractual arrangement shall be established prior to the gathering of psychological data and be consistent with the general guidelines of record keeping above.
4. With the written permission of the referent, bound copies of test scores and other relevant assessment data may be released for research, archival entry or longitudinal study.
5. Specific contractual arrangements shall conform to Pastoral Evaluation of Candidates for Clergy Careers, a Manual, by John E. Hinkle, Jr.

L. Guidelines for keeping district Committee on Ordained Ministry records

1. The board representative to the DCOM shall be the custodian. Files may be kept in the district office. The district superintendent and his/her secretary have access.
2. Policies of content, access, security, cross-referencing, etc. shall follow the outline of the guidelines stated above.
3. The district Committee on Ordained Ministry shall maintain one file on each candidate except under conditions stated below. When a certified candidate moves to another district through the moving of church membership, that file shall be sent to the district committee in whose district the certified candidate has his/her church, charge conference membership. If a certified candidate qualifies and is appointed as a student local pastor and elects to maintain his/her church, charge conference membership in his/her home church and district, but is serving a church in another district, all materials required by the board for qualifying under its guidelines shall be forwarded to the district committee where the person is serving. The local district may then create another file which shall contain only those materials necessary for annual review and renewal of candidacy. Each year the local district shall forward to the district where the person is serving, the action of the local district in the renewal process.

4. The DCOM shall continue to maintain files on all ministerial candidates until they become associate or probationary members, at which time all material shall be forwarded to the board for disposition according to guidelines and policies above.
5. Copies of file material, reports and minutes from the DCOM with action concerning referents may be sent to the board along with recommendations without written permission from the candidate.

(Additional clarification may be obtained from the General Conference Council on Finance and Administration material dated November 30, 1989.)

(1987; Revised 1990)

Notification

All candidates seeking admission into the conference are to be sent written requirements by certified mail.

Report No. 3

As its response to the provisions of the 1988 Book of Discipline (¶¶423.2 and 732.2-0) the board has developed a program of Growth and Effective Review for clergy members and congregations of the Central Texas Annual Conference. The board asks for adoption, by the Executive Session of this conference, of the clergy document (as distributed) as the official process of evaluation for ministerial members of the conference. The board seeks the adoption, by the Annual Conference, of the congregation document (as distributed) as the official process of evaluation for congregations of our conference.

GROWTH AND EFFECTIVENESS REVIEW FOR CLERGY OF THE CENTRAL TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE

A COVENANT MINISTRY

The following review process has one purpose only and that is to encourage effective ministry. In order for the review process to work, there must be a trust level and strong commitment to ministry on the part of both clergy and laity. Let us agree to covenant with one another and with God to be the church in ministry.

Please note that the role of the district superintendent is very important and helpful in this whole process. Any changes that will better assist in the growth and review process shall be negotiated with the district superintendent. This document may need to be replaced by a review process more appropriate for each local situation.

This document is in review at all times and input is welcomed. All communication should be sent to the Central Texas Conference Office, 464 Bailey, Fort Worth, TX 76107 - (817) 877-5222.

¶ 401 Ministry in the Christian church is derived from the ministry of Christ, the ministry of the Father through the Incarnate Son by the Holy Spirit. It is a ministry bestowed upon and required of the entire Church.

¶ 402.1 There are persons within the ministry of the baptized who are called of God and set apart by the Church for the specialized ministry of Word, Sacrament, and Order (¶¶ 429-436).

¶ 402.2 While such persons set apart by the Church for the ministry of Word, Sacrament, and Order are subject to all the frailties of the human condition and pressures of society, they are required to maintain the highest standards...

The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, 1988

INTRODUCTION

Everyone believes in reviewing performances - as long as it is someone else's growth and effectiveness being reviewed! Nevertheless, we are all being continuously reviewed.

This instrument is a means of providing an objective basis for reviewing the growth and effectiveness of the local church clergy in such a way that everyone involved in the procedure clearly understands what is being reviewed and why. This document or some other type of review process should be completed each year.

Certain criteria has been used to develop this instrument and should be kept in mind as it is used.

Growth and effectiveness must:

1. Help persons look constructively at who where they are.
2. Help persons be more effective and fulfilled in ministry.
3. Affirm strengths, as well as identify areas of lesser effectiveness.
4. Be task oriented, as well as person oriented, seeing each as very important.
5. Give persons support to deal with what is discovered or revealed.

6. Take into consideration varying interpretations of importance in functions which are equally valid.
7. Be a productive and enlightening experience for all concerned.
8. Be done in an atmosphere of absolute trust.

With these criteria in mind, the following procedure should be followed:

1. The clergy and each member of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee shall read the entire instrument before completing any part of it.
2. The instrument must be filled out during the meeting without any discussion. The chairperson of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee shall be responsible for its compilation.
3. When the compilation is completed, the clergy shall discuss the review results with the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee for mutual understanding.
4. The clergy shall then use the Growth and Effectiveness Review compilation and Goal Formulation instrument to formulate goals for his/her ministry.
5. The clergy shall meet with the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee for the purpose of sharing his/her goals for ministry in light of the review results.
6. The clergy shall discuss with the district superintendent the goals mutually agreed upon by the clergy and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee.
7. The clergy and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee shall keep a copy of the process in the files for frequent reference and assistance in future reviews. This process should be completed by September 1st of each year.

GOAL FORMULATIONS FOR THE CLERGY

I. (A) What do I think and how do I feel about what has happened in this process?

(B) How do I feel about our differences in my evaluation?

(C) How do I feel about our agreements?

II. (A) In what areas has my effectiveness been affirmed?

(B) What will be necessary to maintain or increase my degree of effectiveness in these areas?

III. (A) In what areas have I been evaluated as being less effective than I might be?

(B) What action will I need to take to become more effective in these areas?

IV. What assistance and resources will I need to accomplish these goals which I have established for myself (such as funds, Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, district superintendent, etc.)?

V. In response to insights learned from this process, list your goals for Growth and Effectiveness in ministry for the next twelve months. (Should be specific and measurable.)

GROWTH AND EFFECTIVENESS REVIEW FOR THE LOCAL CONGREGATION OF THE CENTRAL TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE

A COVENANT MINISTRY

The following review process has one purpose only and that is to encourage effective ministry. In order for the review process to work, there must be a trust level and strong commitment to ministry on the part of both clergy and laity. Let us agree to covenant with one another and with God to be the church in ministry.

Please note that the role of the district superintendent is very important and helpful in this whole process. Any changes that will better assist in the growth and review process shall be negotiated with the district superintendent. This document may need to be replaced by a review process more appropriate for each local situation.

This document is in review at all times and input is welcomed. All communication should be sent to the Central Texas Conference Office, 464 Bailey, Fort Worth, TX 76107 - (817) 877-5222.

¶ 202 The Church of Jesus Christ exists in and for the world. It is primarily at the level of the local church that the Church encounters the world. the local church is a strategic base from which Christians move out to the structures of society. It is the function of the local church to minister to the needs of persons in the community where the church is located, to provide appropriate training and nurture to all age groups, cultural groups, racial groups, ethnic groups, and groups with handicapping conditions, to cooperate in ministry with other local churches, and to participate in the worldwide mission of the Church, as minimal expectations of an authentic church.

The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, 1988

INTRODUCTION

Every church believes in reviewing performances - as long as it is some other church's growth and effectiveness being reviewed! Nevertheless, we are all being continuously reviewed.

This instrument is a means of providing an objective basis for reviewing the growth and effectiveness of the local church in such a way that everyone involved in the procedure clearly understands what is being reviewed and why. This document or some other type of review process should be completed each year.

Certain criteria has been used to develop this instrument and should be kept in mind as it is used.

Growth and effectiveness must:

1. Help churches look constructively at who where they are.
2. Help churches be more effective and fulfilled in ministry.
3. Affirm strengths, as well as identify areas of lesser effectiveness.
4. Be task oriented, as well as person oriented, seeing each as very important.
5. Give churches support to deal with what is discovered or revealed.
6. Take into consideration varying interpretations of importance in functions which are equally valid.
7. Be a productive and enlightening experience for all concerned.
8. Be done in an atmosphere of absolute trust.

With these criteria in mind, the following procedure should be followed:

1. The clergy and each member of the Administrative Board/Council shall read the entire instrument before completing any part of it.
2. The instrument must be filled out during the meeting without any discussion. The chairperson of the Administrative Board/Council shall be responsible for its compilation.
3. When the compilation is completed, the clergy and chairperson shall discuss the review results with the Administrative Board/Council for mutual understanding.
4. The clergy and Administrative Board/Council shall then use the Growth and Effectiveness Review compilation and Goal Formulation instrument to formulate goals for church's ministry.
5. The clergy and Administrative Board/Council chairperson shall share the congregational goals for ministry in light of the review results with the district superintendent and a Summary Report shall be presented at the Charge Conference.

6. The clergy, Administrative Board/Council and district superintendent shall keep a copy of the process in the files for frequent reference and assistance in future reviews.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

The amounts shown below are a summary of the funds sent to our accounts at the General Board and the payments made to the General Board for pension and CPP benefits:

Amounts received from apportionments	$ 1,089,410
Payments to General Board	(1,298,411)
Difference	$ 209,001

This difference was taken from the earnings of funds currently held in various accounts for our conference at the General Board. Below you will find a summary of the activity in these accounts as well as a brief discussion of each account.

Deposit Account

This account is an accumulation of the various pension programs and prior financial campaigns prior to the establishment of the defined benefit program which was continued until 1981. It also includes special gifts which have been made in the past to the pension area. It does NOT include the funds raised in the most recent capital funds campaign.

Balance @ 12-31-88	$ 2,287,583
Additions: 1989 Earnings	435,851
Apportionments sent by Conference	1,089,410
Disbursements: Pension, CPP	(1,298,411)
Balance @ 12-31-89	$ 2,514,433

Superannuate Fund

This fund originated as a result of the merger of the Methodist Episcopal South Conferences. The principal amount of this fund ($63,986) must remain intact; however, the past and future earnings may be used based upon the conference's wishes.

Balance @ 12-31-88	$ 401,142
Additions: 1989 Earnings	58,915
Balance @12-31-89	$ 460,057

Capital Funds Campaign

This fund represents the amounts collected to date from our capital funds campaign. Included in the beginning balance is interest which has been earned since funds have been placed on deposit:

Balance @ 12-31-88	$ 909,009
Additions: 1989 Earnings	145,366
1989 Collections	173,756
Balance @ 12-31-89	$ 1,228,131

Recommendations:

1. In keeping with the requirements set forth in the Discipline we are requesting a new past service rate of $318 for 1991.
2. Based on the past service rate of $318 for 1991 and considering the earnings from the superannuate fund and the capital funds campaign, we request $1,324,709 from the conference for pensions and CPP requirements.

Pension Cash Flow Requirement	$1,225,416
CPP	273,000
	$1,498,416
Interest used to lower request	(173,707)
1991 Request	$1,324,709

In Summary	1990	1991 Request
Pension & CPP	$1,373,369	$1,324,709
Insurance	811,000	859,660
Total	$2,184,369	$2,184,369

3. The Executive Committee of the Board of Pensions has reviewed the following pension records and would request confirmation of the following records:

Individual	Number of Years Recomm. for Approval	Number of Years Already Credited
Arthur H. Anderson	4
Tony G. Campbell	3
Robert E. Cavanaugh	2
Gene A. Chamness	2 1/2	2
Robert Verne Fuqua	3	3
Kenneth Weldon Haynes	4
Richard W. Jenkins	1
Robert Lindsey	2 3/4	2
John Lukert	2
George M. Matthews	1/2	1/2
Charles McClure	2 1/2
Edward Haynes Otwell	6	6
Leonard Radde	4	2
William Henry Radde	1	1
Wilbur T. Reynolds	2
Robert Lee Robertson	4	4
J. W. Sellers	6
Edis R. Sluder	4	1

Of these 54 1/4 years, 21 1/2 of them had already been counted in the funding process.

4. According the the Plan Document of the General Board of Pensions, only full-time clergy are eligible to be enrolled in the Comprehensive Protection Plan. Benefits under CPP include minimum surviving spouse benefits, disability, death benefits and education benefits for surviving dependent children. Each annual conference can however, make special arrangements with the General Board of Pensions to cover part-time clergy. The Conference Board of Pensions has voted to cover part-time clergy (1/2 and 3/4 time) and it is the recommendation of the executive committee of the Conference Board of Pensions that coverage for part-time clergy become effective June 1, 1990.

5. It is the responsibility of each local church to offer every full-time lay employee the Conference Life and Health Insurance Plan within 31 days of employment. It is also the responsibility of the local church to keep the conference office informed concerning the status of those employees so that eligibility can be determined.

   The Board of Pensions has adopted a policy requiring any local church to reimburse the conference for any claims incurred as a result of failure to inform the conference of changes in employee status or to comply with procedures outlined in the plan booklet.

Resolution relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired or Disabled Ministers of this Conference

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service, and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the Central Texas Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference; and

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister, and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

NOW THERE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefits payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 1991 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the Central Texas Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability;
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of:

1. The amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body,
2. The amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or
3. The legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided.

As specified as Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C.B.92, " the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 109(2) of the Code as a 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

Insurance Committee

The following financial information gives last year's actual activity and the projected activity for 1990 and 1991 in the insurance program. The 1989 figures are the actual revenues and disbursements through December 31, 1989. We experienced an increase in our reserves from a beginning cash balance of $55,634 to an ending balance of $143,564. Although it is an improvement over 1988, we feel this is not an adequate reserve when claims are running over $1,000,000 per year.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT

	Actual 1989	Projected 1990	Projected 1991
Beginning Cash	$ 55,635	$ 143,563	$ 195,474

TOTAL	$1,294,197	$1,729,121	$1,891,500
Ending Cash	$ 143,564	$ 195,474	$191,868

After one full year's experience with our Utilization Review Provider, Transport Life reported that this has resulted in a savings of $129,032. The compliance percentage for participants in the plan was 92.5%.

The Insurance Committee, in order to maintain adequate reserves, requests the following changes for the health plan to become effective January 1, 1991. Deductibles to be changed to $500 per person, $1,000 per family. Out-of-pocket limit to be changed to $2,000 person, $3,000 per family.

CURRENT DEDUCTIBLES

1990 Deductible - $200 per person, $400 per family

	1 person	2 persons	3 persons
Deductible	$ 200	$ 400	$ 400
Out-of-Pocket Maximum	2,000	4,000	6,000
Total cash out-of-pocket	$ 2,200	$ 4,400	$ 6,400

PROPOSED DEDUCTIBLES

1991 Deductible - $500 per person, $1,000 per family

	1 person	2 persons	3 persons
Deductible	$ 500	$ 1,000	$ 1,000
Out-of-Pocket Maximum	2,000	3,000	3,000
Total cash out-of-pocket	$ 2,500	$ 4,000	$ 4,000

With the changes above, the Insurance Committee requests the following to fund the conference Group Life and Health Insurance Plan:

1. Conference Apportionment for 1991 - $859,660
2. Increases in premiums paid by plan participants to be effective January 1, 1991 would result in the following premiums for the indicated categories:
   a. Lay employees, diaconals and ministers with special appointment
      Family $438
      Single 157
   b. Ministers (including retired and surviving spouses Family $219
      Single 79
   c. Ministers receiving equitable salary
      Family $175
      Single 63

As a reminder, it is the responsibility of each local church to keep the conference insurance plan informed of potential changes in participants.

Your Insurance Committee has aggressively pursued opportunities to contain the cost of your plan and will continue to do so.

COUNCIL ON PLANNED GIVING

The Council on Planned Giving for the Central Texas Conference was established for the purpose of developing financial resources for Conference ministries through planned giving. The Council directs its work through the Executive Director of the Office of Planned Giving.

The Director serves individuals, families, churches and other ministries of the conference through individual estate planning assistance, seminars on wills and estate planning and helps for local churches to encourage Christian stewardship in wills, trusts, annuities, and other current and deferred giving methods.

Over the past two years, $3,209,500 in gift commitments were recorded through the Office of Planned Giving. Generous individuals have arranged a life-income gift plan for themselves or loved ones, others have included Methodist ministries in their will and others have provided outright gifts of land, securities and money. Through planned giving, people have created benefits for themselves, their loved ones and the causes of Christ.

Having the Office of Planned Giving well established, the Council on Planned Giving requests approval of changes in the Council membership, terms of service and meetings schedule. The following changes are made to the guidelines published in the 1986 Journal, page 227:

I. MEMBERSHIP

A. Ex-officio: Bishop, Chairperson for the Foundation for the Central Texas Conference, Chairperson of the Council on Finance and Administration, Representative of the Cabinet (selected by the Cabinet), Chairperson of Conference Trustees, and Chairperson of the Board of Pensions.

B. Nine at-large members appointed by the Bishop in consultation with the District Superintendents, approved by the Annual Conference. At-large members to serve three-year terms, and are eligible for reappointment only once. The term shall begin at the close of Annual Conference at which they were approved.

Interim vacancies may be filled by the Bishop in consultation with the Cabinet. Those members who are filling an unexpired term are eligible for one more term.

C. There shall be a chairperson, vice-chairperson and secretary elected from the at-large members for three-year terms. If an officer's elected term exceeds the at-large membership term, the officer shall complete the elected term and the at-large position will be filled at the normal time.

III. MEETINGS

A. The Council will meet twice each year (such as November and May), or as called by the chairperson or the Executive Director.

AT-LARGE MEMBERSHIP

Class of 1991	Class of 1992
Harry M. Bettis	Sidney Roberts
Jerry Secrest	Hiram Smith, Jr.
Ken Smith	Glen Whitley

To be approved by Annual Conference for reappointment for second terms for the Class of 1993:

Michael Heiskell Bill Lucas Arch Coleman

Current Ex-officio members are: Ben Feemster, Cabinet Representative, John Hawkins, Chairperson of Conference Trustees, Forrest Markward, Chairperson of the Foundation for the Central Texas Conference, Henry Radde, Chairperson of the Council on Finance and Administration, and Bishop John Russell.

On behalf of those who have made generous giving a part of their estate and financial planning, the Council gratefully acknowledges the Foundation for the Central Texas Conference annual grant for gift planning services through the Office of Planned Giving.

Arch Coleman, Chairperson
Pat Sprayberry, Executive Director

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

Our purpose as the Commission on Religion and Race is to be a monitoring agency which looks at the different ethnic representation on all of the boards and agencies of the Central Texas Conference. We also hope to bring about awareness concerns and positive change for race relations within the annual conference in general and within the local church specifically.

We would like to continue to encourage and support the work that is being done by the Ethnic Local Church Concerns (ELCC) Committee.

We would also continue to express our appreciation to the Bishop and the Cabinet for the cross-racial appointments that have been made within our annual conference. We want to encourage more of these appointments to be made in the future. Therefore, we have set up a task force to look at what are the necessary structure changes that would need to occur to allow for more cross-racial appointments.

In October of this year, we will be sponsoring a Pastor-Pulpit Exchange for all local churches in the annual conference. In the previous survey that we did, there were approximately 45 churches that held cross pulpit exchanges at some time or another. We want to encourage more of this to take place so that local churches become more accepting of all persons regardless of race, sex, or age.

We are working with Project Equality in the Fort Worth and Waco areas to insure that equal opportunity employment practices are in effect - especially at management levels

- for the hotels and restaurants that we use for our Annual Conference meetings. This is also for the upcoming Gathering this fall.

We want to encourage the Board of Discipleship to be inclusive in its upcoming day of worship after the Gathering but we also would want them to have a separate event to celebrate the Harry Hoosier program. We do not want to see this event dropped.

We want to thank the personnel department of the annual conference office staff for the employment of an ethnic minority and we hope that as more positions become available you will continue to look for more ethnic minority persons to fill those positions.

This fall, the Annual Conference Commission will be receiving new guidelines from the General Commission on Religion and Race which will help us to establish ways to monitor the different boards and agencies within our annual conference. We will be working on this during the next annual conference year.

We will be having a course on Inclusiveness Within the Local Church at Fall University. Rev. Esdras Rodriguez-Diaz, who is our jurisdictional staff representative for Religion and Race will be leading this. We hope all local churches will be interested in this and send a representative to this course.

We give thanks to all of you who are helping the local church be more open to all persons regardless of their ethnic background. We are all one in Christ Jesus our Lord!

1991 Budget

The commission requests the amount of $3,000 for the year 1991. We have been receiving $2,700 for the last few years and this next year the General Commission is asking us to do more monitoring which will require additional funds for administrative costs.

COMMITTEE ON RULES

The standing rules have been reviewed in respect to their conformity with the Book of Discipline as to capitalization, style, phrasing and punctuation. The editorial changes necessary to bring the standing rules into conformity with the Book of Discipline have been made by the Committee on Rules, as authorized by the vote of the Annual Conference, June, 1989, Arlington, Texas, and the changes are not detailed in the following exposition. The sources of other requested changes are identified in parenthesis.

I. ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Conference Procedure

1.0 Identify Book of Discipline ¶s 35 and 36 as the applicable paragraphs to the organization of the Central Texas Conference and delete ¶67 which speaks to the doctrinal history of The United Methodist Church. (Rules Committee)

1.3.1 Delete "each district lay leader" from the wording, since they are listed elsewhere (¶35). (CFA)

Change the word following "Council on Youth Ministry" from "and" to "any" to correct a typographical error. (CFA)

Delete "the diaconal ministers of the Conference not otherwise members" from the wording since they are listed elsewhere (¶35). (CFA)

Change the word following "notify" from "the" to "each" so as to specify that the district superintendents will be notified individually. (Rules Committee)

Delete "by January" as the date by which the district superintendent is to be notified of which churches will elect additional members to the next Annual Conference and substitute the date of "by September 1" so that the election of additional members can be made at the charge conferences. (CFA) Move the date "by September 1" to eliminate ambiguity as to when the district superintendent is to be notified. (Rules Committee)

1.5 Change the phrase "Pending Report book" and "Pending book" to "preliminary report," as the publication is now called. (CFA)

II. CONFERENCE ORGANIZATION

Annual Conference Council on Ministries

1.2 Delete "district" prior to the word "representatives" to eliminate duplication. (Rules Committee)

Add the phrase "It is recommended that they be" prior to "one clergy, one laywoman and one layman..." to bring the standing rules into compliance with Judicial Council Decision No. 601, memorandum No. 623 and the interpretation, as we understand it, of both from Tom Matheny, president of the Judicial Council. In each instance in the standing rules in which percentage of membership is mandated to be "one-third clergy, on-third laymen, and one-third laywomen," the phrase "It is recommended..." or similar wording has been added. The changes are recommended under:

2.4 ACCOM Committee for Ethnic Local Church Concerns
2.0 Conference Agencies, Program Boards (Discipleship, Church and Society, Global Ministries, and Higher Education and Campus Ministry)
14.1 Commission on Status and Role of Women (Cabinet)

Conference Council on Ministries (ACCOM) Committees

2.0 Change the name of the second committee from "Research and Planning" to "Planning and Research," in accordance with the Book of Discipline. (Rules Committee)

2.1 (Same)

2.1.1 Delete "a district superintendent chosen by the Cabinet" from membership on the ACCOM Committee on Planning and Research. Similar changes in the standing rules are recommended for the four program boards of the conference under Conference Agencies, Program Boards, 2.0, and for the Commission on Religion and Race, 13.1. Such changes were requested by the district superintendents who note that ACCOM staff already serve on these bodies. The change also would permit the district superintendents to spend more time in their districts rather than at conference agency meetings. (Cabinet)

5.0 Board of Pensions. Delete the sentence concerning the relationship and amenability of the Board of Pensions. This is an incorrect relationship. (CFA)

7.0 Council on Finance and Administration. Delete "..nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference." The nomination and election procedure is addressed under 7.1. (Rules Committee)

15.1 Board of Trustees. Delete "..who must be at least 30 years of age." and add "..of legal age." to bring the standing rules into compliance with the Book of Discipline (1988 ¶2512.1). (Rules Committee)

After "..bounds of the Central Texas conference", add "and a district superintendent chosen by the Cabinet as an observer." A Cabinet representative should be a member of the conference Board of Trustees since district property can be utilized for conference purposes, i.e., Church Growth and Development. (Cabinet)

15.2 Board of Trustees. after "..elected by the conference", delete "for a term of three years..." through "..until such charter is amended." and add "..in accordance with the Book of Discipline (1988 ¶2512.1) "to bring the terms of office for the conference Board of Trustees into compliance with the Book of Discipline (1988 ¶2512.1) (Rules Committee)

17.1 Committee on Rules. After "..one four-year term." add "Additional members, without vote, shall be a district superintendent chosen by the Cabinet and the secretary of the conference." The changes would add to the Committee on Rules a representative of the Bishop who presides over the Annual Conference and the conference secretary as the person charged with carrying out any changes in the standing rules. (Cabinet)

18.0 Committees on Investigation. After "Committee on Investigation..." delete "..to make inquiry into accusations..." through "..further action according to..." and add "..for Ordained Clergy in accordance with..." This change and the following change would create separate committees on investigation for ordained clergy and for diaconal ministers, in compliance with 1988 General Conference. (Cabinet)

18.1 Delete in its entirety. Substitute "There shall be a Committee on Investigation for Diaconal Ministers in accordance with the Book of Discipline (1988 ¶2623.4). (Rules Committee)

20.0 Committee on Minutes. Delete the word "approve" and substitute "..recommend for approval..." In the same sentence, after the words "..Annual Conference...", add "..except after the final session when it shall read and approve the final proceedings." It is felt the Annual Conference should be the appropriate body to approve the minutes of its meetings except after adjournment of the final session of the Annual Conference. (Rules Committee)

22.3 Committee on Nominations. Delete the word "and" before the first reference to the word "secretary" and add after the word "secretary" the following phrase "..and additional members..." Before the second reference to the word "secretary", add the word "and" and following the word secretary delete the following phrase "..and additional members...". Before the phrase "..the Commission on Equitable Salaries...", delete the word "and". After the phrase "..and Clergy Benefits...", add the following: "..additional members of the Board of Laity; the Committee on Rules; clergy members of the Committee on Nominations; and the Council on Finance and Administration." If the present list is compared to the nominations required in the body of the rules, the listed instances were not mentioned. This corrects that oversight. (CFA)

25.0-25.4 Commission on Church Growth and Development. Although created by action of the Annual Conference in 1980, the Commission on Church Growth and Development has not been included in the conference standing rules. This addition would rectify that oversight. (Commission on Church Growth and Development)

25.0 There shall be a Commission on Church Growth and Development to carry out the functions set forth on pages 147-150 of the 1980 Journal of the Central Texas Conference.

25.1 The membership of the commission shall be the Bishop; the district superintendents; one clergy from each district and one lay person from each district with no two members from the same church; two persons of ethnic background and two women if not already represented; two at large lay persons and two at large clergy; the chairperson of the Central Texas Conference Foundation; the following ex officio members of the Annual Conference: the director of conference Finance and Administration, the director of the conference Council on Ministries, the conference lay leader, the president of the conference United Methodist Men, the president of the conference United Methodist Women, and the chairperson of the conference Board of Global Ministries; the executive director of the commission, without vote; and the director of the Texas Methodist Foundation, ex officio.

25.2 Lay representatives from the respective districts shall be named by the district Committee on Nominations while all other members shall be named by the conference Committee on Nominations.

25.3 The commission shall elect from its members the following officers: chairperson, vice-chairperson, and secretary.

25.4 There shall be two standing committees: the Committee on Church Extension; the Committee on Finance.

26.0-26.4 Committee on Lay Employee Benefits. Although created by the action of the Annual Conference in 1985, the Committee on Lay Employee Benefits has not been included in the conference standing rules. This addition would rectify that oversight. (Committee on Lay Employee Benefits)

26.0 There shall be a conference Committee on Lay Employee Benefits to recommend a uniform policy of employee benefits including, but not limited to, salary schedules, insurance and retirement programs that are in the best interest of both the employees and the conference.

26.1 The membership of the committee shall be the directors of Church Growth and Development, conference Council on Ministries, and Finance and Administration; three conference lay employees, one from each of the three offices, to be selected by the governing board of each office; and three lay persons nominated by the conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference.

26.2 The three lay persons shall be elected in three classes and shall serve a three-year term. No lay person can serve more than two consecutive terms.

26.3 The chairperson of the committee and other officers as required shall be elected by and from members of the committee.

26.4 Any policies recommended by the committee shall be brought to the governing bodies of the conference Council on Ministries, Church Growth and Development, and Finance and Administration for approval and implementation as mutually agreed. Request for funding and implementation shall be presented to the Council on Finance and Administration.

27.0 Committee on the Episcopacy. Although mandated by the Book of Discipline (1988 ¶735), the Committee on the Episcopacy has not been included in the conference standing rules. This addition would rectify that oversight. (Rules Committee)

27.0 There shall be a conference Committee on the Episcopacy that shall be elected, organized and function according to the Book of Discipline (1988 ¶735).

28.0-28.4 Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry. Although created by the action of the Annual Conference in 1982 and revised the Annual Conference in 1985, the Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry (originally "Inter-Conference Committee for Mexican-American Work") has not been included in the conference standing rules. This addition would rectify that oversight. (Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry)

28.0 There shall be an Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry to initiate, coordinate and enable inter-conference ministries within the bounds of the Central Texas and Rio Grande conferences, following the objectives listed on page 23 of the 1982 Journal of the Central Texas Conference.

28.1 The membership shall consist of no less than two (2) and no more than six (6) members at large from the Central Texas Conference together with no less than two (2) and no ore than six (6) members at large from the Rio Grande conference churches within the geographical bounds of the Central Texas Conference. The at large membership elected from each conference shall have equal representation between laity and clergy. In addition, the membership shall include the Bishop of the Central Texas conference or his/her representative; the Bishop of the Rio Grande Conference or his/her representative; the conference council directors of the Central Texas Conference and the Rio gRande Conference, or, from each conference, a member of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries designated by the Annual Conference Council on Ministries; and one district superintendent from the Central Texas conference and one district superintendent from the Rio Grande Conference.

28.2 The Central Texas Conference members at large shall be nominated by the conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference. They shall be elected for a term of four years. They shall not be permitted to serve more than two consecutive terms.

28.3 There shall be a chairperson, vice-chairperson, secretary, and treasurer, who shall be nominated and elected by the membership of the Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry. The officers shall be elected to a term of four years and shall not succeed themselves. The officers shall include members of the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences.

28.4 The committee shall report directly to the Annual Conference of the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences.

III CONFERENCE ADMINISTRATION

1.0 Administrative Personnel of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries. Add as the new 1.0 "There shall be three conference executive staff positions: director of the Conference Council on Ministries, director of Finance and Administration; and director of Church Growth and Development." The executive staff of ACCOM has also been serving as the executive staff of the conference. This change would establish a conference executive staff of three Cabinet-level persons. (Cabinet)

1.1 The current 1.0 would be renumbered as 1.1. Between the words "conference" and "shall", add the phrase "executive staff" to reflect the change created by the addition of the new 1.0 above. (Cabinet)

1.2 The current 1.1 would be renumbered as 1.2. Between the phrase "..the structure of the..." and the word "..executive staff", add the word "conference" to reflect the change created by the addition of the new 1.0 above. (Cabinet)

IV. FINANCIAL

4.0 All budget items allocated to the district and local churches of the conference shall be based on the decimal arrived at by the following formula: Determine the base amount for each district or local church by taking the total of the following items: (58) pension and benefit funds (MPP) paid directly to the General Board of Pensions, (64) pastor's base compensation, (65) associate(s) base compensation. (66a) utilities and housing paid to/for pastor, (66b) utilities and housing paid to/for associate(s), (67a) travel paid to/for pastor, (67b) travel paid to/for associate(s), (68a) other allowances paid to/for pastor, (68b) other allowances paid to/for associate(s), (69) diaconal minister's compensation, (70) other staff compensation, (71) current expenses for program, (72) other current operating expenses.

THE SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION

1989 was good year for the Jurisdiction with 3,387 persons participating in 23 events sponsored by the Jurisdictional Council on Ministries. These included laboratory schools for teachers, student conference, youth ministry, single adult ministry, retiree events, "Celebrating Marriage," Town and Country ministries, Ethnic United Methodist Men, Superserve (VIM), Bishop's Week and Protestant Radio Hour.

The Council has approved 28 program events for 1990. Most of the promotion and publicity for these events are handled through your Conference office and Mount Sequoyah. The calendar of Jurisdiction programs for the remainder of 1990 is as follows:

June 18-21	Bishop's Week, Mount Sequoyah, Fayetteville, AR
July 9-13	Spiritual Life Rally (youth), Dallas, TX
July 14-20	Lab/Seminar, Mount Sequoyah
July 16-27	Intensive Conversational Spanish, Lydia Patterson Institute, El Paso
August 3-11	Intensive Conversational Spanish, Mt. Sequoyah
August 6-9	"Celebrating Marriage," Mount Sequoyah
August 13-16	"Festival of Roses," (retirees) Mount Sequoyah
August 31-Sept. 2	Superserve (VIM) Mount Sequoyah
Sept. 17-20	Camp Leaders Workshop, Ceta Canyon, Happy, TX
Sept. 17-21	"Journey Into Wholeness," Mount Sequoyah
Sept. 24-27	"Sequoyah Fest," (retirees) Mount Sequoyah
Sept. 28-Oct. 1	"Celebrating Marriage," Mount Sequoyah
Oct. 1-4	"Mountain Top," (retirees) Mount Sequoyah
Oct. 8-11	"The Best Is Yet To Be," (retirees) Mount Sequoyah
Oct. 9-10	Church Development Network, Kansas City, MO
Oct. 15-18	"Autumn Time," (retirees) Mount Sequoyah
Oct. 22-25	"Leaves of Gold," (retirees) Mount Sequoyah

In addition, two national training and enrichment programs will be held in our Jurisdiction: The National Single Adult Teachers' Workshop, July 25-29, in Houston, TX is expecting over 1200 participants, and, The "Vital Congregation--Faithful Disciples Gathering," October 31-November 4, in Fort Worth, TX, is expecting over 5,000 in attendance.

The Jurisdiction is grateful for the support of the Annual Conferences and the local churches. The 1989 receipts were nearly 88% of the Jurisdictional Fund apportionment. This fund supports the work of the Jurisdictional office, Volunteers in Mission, Korean Mission work, various programs in the Jurisdiction, and expenses for the 1992 Jurisdictional Conference.

Earl B. Carter, Executive Director

Volunteers in Mission, South Central Jurisdiction

The ministry of South Central Jurisdiction United Methodist Volunteers in Mission falls under four broad areas. They are:

1. NETWORK DEVELOPMENT involves providing training, information, resources and support for South Central Jurisdiction Annual Conference Volunteers in Mission leadership. It also involves networking with the other five jurisdictional VIM offices, as well as the Personnel and Resources Program Department of the General Board of Global Ministries in New York.

2. PROJECT DEVELOPMENT involves processing applications from South Central Jurisdiction mission agencies and programs that need volunteers and circulating their needs through the United Methodist Church.

3. VOLUNTEER PLACEMENT involves processing applications from groups and individuals wanting to serve as volunteers in mission. Volunteers are placed throughout the jurisdiction, the United States, and the world.

4. PROMOTION involves providing resources and speakers to interpret Volunteers in Mission in local, district and conference settings throughout the South Central Jurisdiction.

SUPERSERVE is the annual SCJ VIM Rally held at Mount Sequoyah, in Fayetteville, Arkansas, on Labor Day weekend. The ADVANCE SPECIAL number for the SCJ VIM program is #982871-2. The SCJ VIM Committee, chaired by Dr. James Palmer, thanks you for your support.

Max Marble, Coordinator

Korean Mission, South Central Jurisdiction

The primary purpose of KOREAN MISSION is the CONSULTATION, COORDINATION and FACILITATION for enabling NEW CHURCH DEVELOPMENT and the ministries for existing CHURCH GROWTH among the growing Korean immigrant communities in the South Central Jurisdiction in cooperation with the conferences and the districts.

In the South Central Jurisdiction there are now 33 Korean churches and congregations. During 1989, four new churches were implemented: Lake Charles (Louisiana), Waynsville (Missouri-E), Houston Dongsan (Texas), Clover (New Mexico). In 1990, we plan to start three new churches: Irving (N. Texas), Arlington (C. Texas), Topeka (Kansas E.). In 1991, we are preparing to start three new churches: Houston S.W. (Texas), Omaha/Lincoln (Nebraska), Garden City (Kansas W.).

Many United Methodist churches support the Korean churches by sharing facilities with them in order to have their mature growing and strengthening. It is a very important portion of new church development and its growth in Korean mission.

I am planning to develop the programs of Korean minister and laity training to support their understanding of the United Methodist Church Polity and Discipline in order to adjust and harmonize with other United Methodists.

Your continuing support and understanding is appreciated.

Bon Woong Koo, Korean Mission Director

THE TEXAS METHODIST FOUNDATION

The Texas Methodist Foundation experienced another year of growth during 1989, and our services extend to reach more United Methodists with each passing year.

The Texas Methodist Foundation continues to help many churches establish permanent funds and planned giving programs. The Foundation's development staff is also available to work closely with those who want to know more about making gifts to their church or other institutions by will, through life income arrangement, or by giving non-cash assets. During 1989, development staff presented seminars in 59 churches and six United Methodist institutions throughout our constituent annual conferences.

During 1989 The Texas Methodist Foundation also served United Methodist churches, institutions and persons in the following ways:

1. Originated sixty-one loans in the total amount of $9,830,000 for new buildings, parsonages and equipment
2. Distributed earnings on investments of $3,063,000
3. Added 114 new investment accounts, totaling almost $6,000,000

An affiliated organization, The Texas Methodist Development Fund, serves churches who seek to finance construction projects through the sale of church bonds. It is expected that in 1990 The Texas Methodist Development Fund will help churches in Texas subscribe building programs in excess of $7,000,000.

We want to serve the financial needs of your church or institution to help those that call themselves United Methodists understand Christian stewardship as a way of life.

Charles E. Laing, President

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

As of April 1, 1990, the conference Board of Trustees was custodian of four pieces of property:

1. Conference building
2. Boulevard church
3. Rockwood parsonage
4. Prairie Hill church

All properties except the conference building and the Boulevard church have been made available for sale and continue to be for sale. However, there are no offers pending on these properties at this time.

During the past year, the Board of Trustees has sold the St. John church, the Forreston church and parsonage, the Aquilla church, the Rockwood church, and the Loving church and parsonage. The St. John church property was sold for a total price of $355,000 with net proceeds to the conference (after asbestos removal and other expenses) of approximately $300,000. These net proceeds have been used to decrease the note held by the Texas Methodist Foundation on the conference building. As of April 1, the balance of that note was $238,607.60. The net proceeds of all other sales, after deductions for payment of any pension deficits, were forwarded to the Commission on Church Growth and Development for the purchase of new church sites.

The Board of Trustees has asked Ed Otwell, Church Growth and Development director, to be the property agent for the Board of Trustees and to be responsible for marketing all properties being sold.

Our conference director of Finance and Administration, Sidney Roberts, has kept all property adequately insured. We appreciate his assistance in keeping the work of the Trustees current.

We encourage all conference churches to be incorporated and to carry adequate liability insurance to protect the churches and their members.

RESOLUTION NO. 1

WHEREAS, the Trustees request that the conference confirm that all church properties abandoned this year and in all previous years have been transferred to and title is held by the Central Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, a Texas nonprofit corporation, for sale, distribution or other disposition as the conference Board of Trustees may deem in the best interests of the conference; and

WHEREAS, the Commission on Church Growth and Development desires to have greater flexibility in the use of funds obtained from the sale of abandoned churches (such funds having been previously designated for the purchase of new church sites);

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that:

1. Title to all properties previously transferred to the conference Board of Trustees or to the conference shall be deemed held in the name of the Central Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and the conference Board of Trustees are authorized to sell, distribute or otherwise dispose of all such property as the Board of Trustees may determine is in the best interests of the conference;

2. All funds presently held by the Commission on Church Growth and Development obtained from the sale of abandoned church properties shall be used by the Commission on Church Growth and Development for congregational development; and

3. All funds obtained from the sale of any abandoned church properties in the future shall be used as follows:

   a. first to the retirement of pension deficits and the satisfaction of claims against ministerial pension annuities which may have arisen out of the failure of that church to make proportionate payment for support; and

b. any remainder to the Commission on Church Growth and Development for congregational development.

The Board of Trustees also request the conference adopt the following resolution as a guideline for resolutions discontinuing churches and abandoning property to the conference.

RESOLUTION NO. 2

WHEREAS, (INSERT REFERENCE TO LOCAL CONGREGATION ACTIONS REGARDING ITS DETERMINATION TO CLOSE)

_____

WHEREAS, the discontinuation of the church and the abandonment of its property has been recommended by the district superintendent and approved by the Bishop, a majority of the district superintendents and the district Board of Church Location and Building; and

WHEREAS, all steps required by the Discipline except for the approval of the conference have been taken;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the _____ United Methodist Church be discontinued and all of its property declared abandoned and transferred to the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church for sale, distribution, or other disposition as the conference Board of Trustees may deem in the best interest of the conference; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Central Texas Conference Board of Trustees be authorized, in its discretion, to distribute the items of property which may best be used by other churches to such churches or to the Commission on Church Growth and Development and to sell all other property with the net proceeds first applied to the retirement of any pension deficits of that church and the remainder given to the Commission on Church Growth and Development for congregational development.

RESOLUTION NO. 3

WHEREAS, CALVARY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH OF FORT WORTH HAS VOTED TO CLOSE AS OF JUNE 1, 1990; AND

WHEREAS, the discontinuation of the church and the abandonment of its property has been recommended by the district superintendent and approved by the Bishop, a majority of the district superintendents and the district Board of Church Location and Building; and

WHEREAS, all steps required by the Discipline except for the approval of the conference have been taken; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Calvary Church have requested that the property and assets be used to minister to the Hispanic community surrounding the church; and

WHEREAS, the Commission on Church Growth and Development has agreed to sponsor a new Hispanic congregation at the Calvary site;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Calvary United Methodist Church be discontinued and all of its property declared abandoned and transferred to the Commission on Growth and Development of the Central Texas Annual Conference.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the remaining membership of the Calvary United Methodist Church be transferred to the Diamond Hill United Methodist Church.

RESOLUTION NO. 4

WHEREAS, the Emhouse United Methodist Church took over the responsibility for the maintenance of that property in 1962, and

WHEREAS, that relationship is no longer possible, and

WHEREAS, the Black Hills Cemetery Association desires to maintain the property and have annual reunion and worship services at that site, and

WHEREAS, the discontinuation of the church and the abandonment of its property has been recommended by the district superintendent and approved by the Bishop, a majority of the district superintendents and the district Board of Church Location and Building; and

WHEREAS, all steps required by the Discipline except for the approval of the conference have been taken;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Black Hills United Methodist Church be discontinued and all of its property declared abandoned and transferred to the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church for sale, distribution, or other disposition as the conference Board of Trustees may deem in the best interest of the conference, and

RESOLUTION NO. 5

WHEREAS, a charge conference was held on Friday, April 20, 1990 at the Caddo United Methodist Church, Caddo, Texas. The membership voted unanimously to discontinue worship services and transfer their membership to St. Paul United Methodist Church, Breckenridge, Texas.

WHEREAS, the discontinuation of the church and the abandonment of its property has been recommended by the district superintendent and approved by the Bishop, a majority of district superintendents and the district Board of Church Location and Building; and

WHEREAS, all steps required by the Discipline except for the approval of the conference have been taken;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Caddo United Methodist Church be discontinued and all of its property declared abandoned and transferred to the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church for sale, distribution, or other disposition as the conference Board of Trustees may deem in the best interest of the conference; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Central Texas Conference Board of Trustees be authorized, in its discretion, to distribute the items of property which may best be used by other churches to such churches or to the Commission on Church Growth and Development and to sell all other property with the proceeds first applied to the retirement of any pension deficits of that church and the remainder given to the Commission on Church Growth and Development for congregational development.

BISHOP W. KENNETH POPE
November 21, 1901 - June 26, 1989

"I've always been a Pope and now I'm a Bishop" quipped W. Kenneth Pope when he was consecrated a Bishop on June 26, 1960 in Travis Park Methodist Church, San Antonio, Texas.

Kenneth Pope was born in Hale, Missouri, November 21, 1901. His father, a Methodist preacher, moved to Texas in Kenneth's early years. Bristol, near Ferris, was his father's first appointment in the Lone Star State. Bristol was followed by his appointment to the Line Street Methodist Church in Hillsboro. From Hillsboro he moved to the Texas Panhandle where he served a number of small town churches. Kenneth describes his father's appointment to Dalhart as the place "where the world began" for him. Here he developed friendships that lasted all his life.

Clarendon College was the place where he received his first two years of college training. It was in Clarendon, in association with ministerial students, that he made the decision for the ministry. Here, too, he preached his first sermon. He was licensed to preach in 1918.

From Clarendon he came to Southern Methodist University from which institution he received the B.A. degree in 1923 and the B.D. degree in 1924. He joined the Central Texas Conference in 1924 and was appointed pastor of the Methodist Church in Milford, Texas which church he served for two years. Kenneth Pope continued his theological studies in Yale University's Graduate School of Religion in 1927-1929.

Upon his return from Yale he was appointed pastor of the First Methodist Church in Breckenridge, Texas. This was a most fortunate appointment. Here he met the lovely Kate Sayle. Kenneth and Kate were married in 1930.

Early on, it was evident that Kenneth Pope was destined to play an important part in the life of the church. From Breckenridge he was appointed to the First Methodist Church in Georgetown, Texas which church he served in the years 1933-1936. In 1936, he was transferred to Missouri and appointed pastor of St. Paul Methodist Church in Springfield, Missouri. In 1940 it was back to Texas with appointment to First Methodist Church in Austin. Here he was preacher and counselor to governors and legislators in the capital city as well as administrator, professors and students in the university. In 1949 he was appointed pastor of the First Methodist Church in Houston where he remained until his election to the episcopacy in June 1960. His episcopal assignments were the Arkansas Area in 1960-64, and the Dallas-Fort Worth Area in 1964-1972. Following mandatory retirement in 1972 Bishop Pope accepted Dean Joseph D. Quillian's invitation to come to Perkins School of Theology as Bishop-in-Residence. This position he occupied with distinction until retirement in 1976, at which time he was named Bishop-in-Residence Emeritus.

In each of his pastorates and in his episcopal leadership Bishop Pope's ministry was creative and effective. He continued his reading and study. He was interested in the social, political, cultural and religious developments of the times. He was bold and courageous in speaking out on the issues of the day. His open opposition to the Ku Klux Klan, and later his stand against our participation in the Vietnam War, are two examples of his readiness to support what he believed to be right and speak out against what he believed to be wrong. He declared that he wanted to keep the Kingdom of Heaven and Kingdom of God on earth as closely related as possible.

Bishop Pope's membership on the boards of trustees of a number of colleges and universities, including Southern Methodist University, testifies to his interest in higher education. He served as chairman of SMU's Board of Trustees, 1971-1972. He was the first president of the Texas Conference of Churches. His leadership established a pattern for that ecumenical body. He was active in the move to abolish the former Central Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church, prepare the way for the merger of black and white conferences, and the creation of an inclusive church. He led out in his area in the support of the Ministerial Education fund that provided additional financial aid for our schools of theology.

Among the many agencies of the church on which Bishop Pope held membership are the General Board of Education, the Board of Evangelism, and the Board of Christian Social Concerns.

Kenneth Pope has left us a record of his life and work in his published autobiography, "A Pope at Roam." His story will inspire and inform all who read it.

After a long illness his release into the larger life came in the early morning of June 26, 1989. His dear wife, Kate, had died November 17, 1985. He is survived by his children, Katherine Victoria Pope and Kenneth Sayle Pope.

A service of remembrance and celebration was held in the sanctuary of Highland Park United Methodist Church, Dallas, on July 6, 1989. Participants in the service were Dr. Sidney Roberts, Bishops Bruce Blake and Eugene Slater, and SMU President Emeritus Willis M. Tate.

On one visit to our friend and colleague, I reminded him of the forthcoming semi-annual meeting of the Council of Bishops. I asked him if he had a word that I might take to our sisters and brothers. After a moment's reflection he said, "Tell them to go on to perfection."

That may well be Kenneth Pope's word to you and me.

RESTER ARLEIGH BROOKS, JR.
November 23, 1925 - December 31, 1989

A service of celebration for the life and ministry of the Reverend R. A. Brooks was held at Thompson's Harveson and Cole Funeral Home in Fort Worth, Texas on January 3, 1990. The chapel was filled with friends and loved ones who have shared in Rev. Brooks' life over the years. Rev. Joe W. Heaton participated in the celebration along with Rev. Michael Hair, each sharing his own memories of Rev. Brooks' influence on his life.

Rev. Brooks died on December 31, 1989. He graduated from TWC in 1949 with a BS degree and from Perkins School of Theology, SMU with a BD in 1953.

In June 1970 he took the retired relationship in regard to his ministry in the United Methodist Church, in order to devote full time his energy as director of the Christian Center Ministries of Fort Worth, Texas.

Rev. Brooks pastored churches in the Central Texas Conference for over twenty years. He served churches in Johnson County, Coleman, Rising Star, Santa Anna, Everman, Mansfield, and Grapevine. He also served Fort Worth, Morningside, Forest Hill and Carter Park.

Rev. Brooks is survived by his wife Betty Ann and his four children.

Rev. Brooks was a person of unquestioned integrity, unwavering loyalty, irrefutable moral values and indisputable ethical standards. He was a person of strength and gentleness, of firmness and kindness, of self-assurance and humility, and of self-sufficiency and divine grace. He brought to his ministry the attributes Christ taught us all. He not only preached those characteristics, he lived them! As a pastor and friend he set an example for all, one of purity of heart and humility of spirit.

Rev. R. A. Brooks will be remembered with love by all those who knew him.

HUBERT WILLIAM CRAIN
October 31, 1906 - October 15, 1989

Hubert William Crain was born October 31, 1906 in Waco, Texas, the son of Joel Newton Crain and Nettie Alexander Crain. He attended public schools in Port Lavaca and Waco, and graduated from Waco High School in 1925. He attended Baylor University where he graduated in 1929. Having heard the call to enter the ordained ministry of the church, Reverend Crain attended seminary at Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, and received his seminary degree in 1931. Having been licensed to preach in 1925, Brother Crain was admitted "on trial" in 1931 by the Central Texas Conference. He became a full conference member in 1933. Reverend Crain did post-graduate work at Columbia Teachers College, Union Theological Seminary, and Arizona State University.

Beginning in 1931 Reverend Crain held numerous appointments in the Methodist Church: 1931 - Moody Circuit; 1933 - Weatherford Circuit North; 1934 - Gustine and Lamkin; 1935 - Student at Union Seminary; 1936 - North and Mazeland; 1939 - Fort Worth Glenwood; 1941 - Ash Crescent; 1945 - Gatesville; 1947 - Temple 7th Street; 1948 - Handley; 1951 - Ferris; 1954 - Superintendent, Homes for Retired Ministers; 1957 - Superintendent, Homes for Retired Ministers and Laurel Street.

Brother Crain retired, officially, in 1972 but continued to serve wherever he could be helpful. In 1982 he was appointed to serve the Bethel Church, near Hamilton, and he continued as pastor of that congregation until his death.

Reverend Crain married Alice Evelyn Hays on October 31, 1937. She preceded him in death on May 17, 1970. He then married Erma Gaither, who preceded him in death. He then married Alice Coston on September 23, 1984.

He is survived by his wife, Alice Coston Crain, of Hamilton; by a son, Hubert Standlee Crain, of Waco; by two daughters, Mrs. Evelyn Fae Bosworth of De Moines, Iowa and Mrs. Alice Elaine Abel of Fort Worth; and by six grandchildren.

He is also survived by three step-children, Roger B. Coston of El Paso, Raymond E. Coston of Temple, and Frances W. Coston of Hamilton; by five step-grandchildren; and by nine step-great-grandchildren.

Memorial services were held at the First United Methodist Church of Stephenville, with Dr. Morgan Garrett and Dr. Eric McKinney presiding. Interment was in the West End Cemetery in Stephenville.

Hubert Crain was a builder. He built quality relationships as pastor and friend of many through the years. He also was a builder of churches, having built the Ash Crescent church with his own hands. He was a builder, instrumental in improving the quality of the Retired Minister's Homes for our conference. He built for others in a variety of ways, contributing much to the up-building of God's Kingdom.

We praise God for the witness of faith and service seen in Hubert Crain's life. We celebrate the fact that though the earthly tent he lived in is no more, he inhabits a building from God, a house not made with hands.....

JOHN WESTON ELLIOTT
June 8, 1925 - September 28, 1989

The sanctuary was full on the day when ministers, loved ones, friends and neighbors came together to celebrate the life of Reverend John W. Elliott, Sr. Reverend Elliott was truly loved and respected by many an individual from every walk of life.

People who knew him, both clergy and laity alike, when attesting to his life, suggest that he in many ways lived in concert with the lyrics of one of his favorite hymns:

If I can help somebody as I pass along,
If I can cheer somebody with a word or song,
If I can show somebody he is traveling wrong;
Then my living shall not be in vain.

Surely, no finer testimony could be offered to describe the witness of this great man of God. Every person regardless of their race, or class could find in John Elliott both wise counsel and bountiful support for whatever their endeavor. This was especially true when people he knew were facing some catastrophic condition, and for some reason were left alone to shoulder the pain. He believed that God cared for humankind through the work of His servants: "..for He has no hands but our hands, and He has no feet but our feet."

Reverend Elliott's enthusiasm for the Gospel and the church was evident throughout his life and ministry. It may have been demonstrated in the service of worship, or the care offered a bereaved family, perhaps the counsel given to inquiring youths; he always appreciated the glorious opportunity given him to serve in the Christian ministry. His tenets extended beyond the obvious caring functions of a pastor to the needs of a beggar on the street, or a homeless foreign student whom he would take home, or perchance another pastor whose experience in ministry is unconscionably painful. He always found a way to minister to people in need.

He served the United Methodist Church in many areas both within the local church and beyond. These included the following: Warren Methodist Church and Hamilton Park, both in the North Texas Conference; Mt. Calvary, Hollowell, St. Paul, Columbus, and Executive Secretary of Education, and St. James Temple, all in the West Texas Conference; St. James, Association Program Director, Eastwood, and Thompson Chapel, all in the Central Texas Conference.

John's family has also been a critical focal point in his life. In 1946 he married Inez C. Sills, who passed away in 1953. To this union were born three sons: Squire, Sherman and John, Jr. In 1956 he married Barbara Ann Moffitt, a companion to him for the last thirty-three years. Throughout their life and ministry together, their love remained so secure that there was always room to include other people they encountered along life's highway, addressing needs as they travelled along.

In the final months of his life, John Elliott wrote a song as a tribute to Almighty God who had sustained him throughout his months of sickness. In the song John submits: "Every day He is blessing me", his own personal testimony of faith and trust in our Lord.

GEORGE MABRY GREEBON
September 8, 1909 - April 9, 1990

George Mabry Greebon was born September 8, 1909, but his place of birth was unknown and the names of his parents were unknown. He knew that his parents had died while he and a brother were small children. They were placed in an orphanage and were adopted a short time later, but he never knew where he was born or who his parents were. He graduated from Central High School in Ballinger, Texas, and also from Weatherford College, and attended Trinity University.

He married the former Pansy ("Peggy") M. McCreary of Dennis, Texas, on January 31, 1931, in Weatherford, Texas. They were blessed with two children, Marjorie N. Carr of Fort Worth, Texas, and Bobby Greebon of Sachse, Texas. They have four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren from this marriage. Peggy preceded George in death on June 4, 1986. On October 18, 1988, George was married to the former Mrs. Iona Doss of Fort Worth, Texas.

George felt he was called to ministry at a very early age, preaching his first sermon at the age of fourteen. He received his license to preach on February 1, 1932, in the Weatherford District, received into probationary membership in 1932, and was also received into full connection in 1934. He was ordained Deacon on November 8, 1934, and ordained Elder on November 8, 1936. He retired from the active ministry in 1973 after serving forty-two years. Among his appointments were Santo, Bardwell, Indian Creek, Gustine, Iredell-Walnut Springs, Mineral Wells Central, Diamond Hill, Crawford, Waco Wesley, Hillsboro Line Street, Glen Rose, Azle, Taylor First, Ferris Trumbull and Fort Worth Asbury. After his retirement in June 1973, he served as Associate Pastor at the Polytechnic United Methodist Church and the Overton Park United Methodist Church. After serving as an Associate Pastor, he and his wife related to the Arlington Heights United Methodist Church.

George was known and loved as a kind, compassionate pastor who cared about his people. He had a good sense of humor and was a great story teller, and a very good preacher. He was a hardworking minister for God who felt blessed to be appointed wherever he was appointed, and he served very well and very faithfully in these appointments. He was very secure in who he was, knowing that he was called to serve and he served where he was sent. He had a great love for children and youth, spending many, many years as a counselor and helping with the Glen Lake camping program of our conference. George Greebon was the kind of person who is an inspiration to children and youth as they are growing up in a community needing to know that a minister is a person who loves them, and he served as an excellent role model for the ministry in the churches that he served.

George also had interesting hobbies in that he collected things. At his death, he had over 45,000 matchbook covers that were catalogued in books. He also had over 8,000 pens and pencils, and a tremendous number of stamps.

The memorial service for George Mabry Greebon was held at the Arlington Heights United Methodist Church on April 11, 1990, with the Reverend Homer Kluck and the Reverend Henry Radde officiating. Burial was in the Mt. Olivet Cemetery in Fort Worth, Texas.

BERNARD LOSS MCCORD

December 1, 1906 - August 15, 1989

B. L. McCord was born on December 1, 1906 in Frost, Texas. He was the child of L. A. McCord and Daisy Brumley McCord. A graduate of Richland High School, he attended Southwestern University in Georgetown from which he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1929. He was admitted on trial to the Central Texas Conference in 1930 and to full connection in 1933. He was ordained deacon in 1932 and elder in 1935.

For more than fifty years B. L. would serve faithfully as pastor of many churches in our conference. He began his ministry in Bazette, Texas in 1929. During his active ministry he served churches in Pioneer, Caddo, Granbury, Meridian, Ranger, Comanche and Benbrook. He was also pastor of Waco Sparks Memorial, Fort Worth St. Paul, Fort Worth Englewood, Weatherford Couts Memorial, and Temple Seventh Street. After his retirement in 1971 he served on the staff of Arlington Heights United Methodist Church in Fort Worth, Texas.

On September 12, 1931 B. L. and Theo Lelia Crowley were united in marriage in Kerens, Texas. Theo served faithfully with her husband until her death in 1982. Born to their union was one daughter, Carol McCord Garland who lives in Fort Worth. In his twilight years he was united in marriage to Quinetta Smith.

B. L. McCord was a man who was genuinely in love with life and with people. Throughout his ministry his concern was expressed in the seriousness with which he took his role of pastor. He knew what was going on in the lives of his people and took special care to share with them the triumph and tragedy of their lives. He was always there comforting, sustaining, and sharing the good news of Jesus Christ by his very presence. He expressed his interest in and love for people through his association with the West Side Lion's Club. Shortly before his death he was honored for his years and years of perfect attendance with a special commemorative plaque.

B. L.'s life was celebrated in a service of death and resurrection on August 17, 1989 at Arlington Heights United Methodist Church. Participating in the service were Homer Kluck, Frank Leach, Raymond Burton and Mike Young. Interment took place in Greenwood Memorial Park in Fort Worth.

B. L. was survived by his wife, Quinetta Smith of Fort Worth, his daughter Carol Garland of Fort Worth, three grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, and a host of friends who will remember him fondly.

JAMES EDWARD SHULER
February 19, 1931 - January 2, 1990

James Edward Shuler was born February 19, 1931, at Mt. Calm, Texas, to Reverend and Mrs. P.L. Shuler. In September of 1949 he married Betty June Turner and they became the parents of two sons and one daughter: Les Shuler of Arlington, Texas; Jay Shuler of Mesa, Arizona; and Gina Shuler of Arlington, Texas.

James graduated from Valley Mills High School where he was on outstanding athlete. He subsequently graduated from Texas Wesleyan University in 1952 and Perkins School of Theology, SMU, in 1955. Texas Wesleyan University honored him posthumously with a doctorate in May, 1990. He became a student pastor in the Central Texas Conference in 1948 subsequently being ordained a Deacon in 1952 and Elder in 1955. He provided outstanding pastoral leadership at Milford, Saginaw, Meridian, Ferris Heights, St. Mark in Cleburne, Aldersgate in Arlington, and First United Methodist in Corsicana. In addition he also served as superintendent of the Waxahachie and Waco districts. At the time of his death he was Executive Director of the Commission of Church Growth and Development.

James' leadership made its presence known in several conference boards and agencies and was acknowledged by his peers in his election to General and Jurisdictional Conference in 1984. The quality of his leadership in every way has been acknowledged at the time of his death by the resident Bishop of the Fort Worth Area in this manner: "The Reverend Shuler was a very committed minister who had an outstanding ministry wherever he was, wherever he served...a remarkable family person, a very fine husband, a very fine father." (Fort Worth Star Telegram, January 4, 1990.)

Death came to James on January 2, 1990, and his memorial service was held in the sanctuary of the First United Methodist Church of Fort Worth, Texas, at 10:00 a.m. on January the 5th. Liturgists for the memorial service were Bishop John Russell, Dr. Barry Bailey, Dr. Eugene Robertson and Dr. Don M. Pike.

In closing, let it be known that James Shuler had several loves: he loved Christ; he loved his wife and family; he loved athletics; he loved to fish. There was never any question but that his love for Christ was paramount in his life; with the others it was sometimes a tie.

CLARENCE A. SUTTON
July 5, 1902 - December 2, 1989

Clarence Arthur Sutton was born in Lawrenceburg, Tennessee on July 5, 1902 to George Washington and LaVada Sutton. Several years later the family moved to Hugo, Oklahoma.

On December 17, 1922 he married Ruby Reed at Choctaw, Oklahoma. C. A. and Ruby had to overcome many hardships in their earlier years as he worked to complete his education, having left public school after five years, and his preparation for entering the ministry. He accomplished these tasks without fear or complaining for he truly put his trust in the Lord and with His help successfully completed his mission. He first attended Westminster College in Tehuacana, graduating in 1929 when he received both high school and junior college diplomas. He next attended East Texas State College in Commerce. They lived in nearby Cooper where he received his second pastorate.

Following his graduation from East Texas in 1931, he went to Westminster Seminary in Maryland where he completed the regular three years work in two years, graduating in 1933. His first appointment after graduating was at the First Methodist Protestant Church in Wilmington, Delaware. After only one year he was asked to return to Tehuacana as president of Weatherford College. After three years he was appointed pastor at Mart in 1944. He accepted greater responsibility when Bishop Frank A. Smith appointed him pastor of First Methodist Church, Arlington in 1946. On March 10, 1949 tradgedy struck the family when Ruby died in a gas explosion at the parsonage. The bishop then asked him to move to Arlington Heights United Methodist Church, which he did in June 1949. In May 1952 he married Mildred White, widow of the Reverend Vernon White. He retired in June 1970 after serving at Arlington Heights United Methodist Church for 21 years. Mildred died in May 1972. On May 15, 1973, he married Katheleen Mudgett.

Sutton was honored with a doctorate from Adrian College in Michigan. He was named to "Who's Who in the South and Southwest" in 1947 and to "Who's Who in Methodism" in 1952. He served as president of the General Ministers Association. He was a delegate to Jurisdictional Conference.

This beloved retired pastor was honored on July 21, 1985 at Arlington Heights United Methodist Church on "Dr. Sutton Day", which included the unveiling of a beautiful portrait that was hung in the Hall of Ministers.

Dr. Sutton died December 2, 1989 at the age of 87. He is survived by his wife, Katheleen, who is still active in Arlington Heights United Methodist Church and lives at the Retirement Inn in Fort Worth; four sons, Williard Sutton of Arlington, Frank, Terry and James Sutton and one daughter, Dora Faye McKenna, all of Fort Worth; two sisters, Bessie Koonce and Estella Loftin of Hugo, Oklahoma; five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

A memorial service in celebration of and thanksgiving to God for the life and ministry of Clarence Sutton was held on December 6, 1989 at Arlington Heights United Methodist Church with interment at Greenwood Memorial Park. Officiating clergy and laymen were: The Reverend Homer Kluck, Dr. John C. Robertson, Jr., Bill Copeland, Tom Vandergriff, Dr. Mike Young, Don Newbury, Dr. Lamar Cooper, Dr. John Ogden, and the Reverend Grady Brittian.

In the eulogy Dr. Ogden remembered a very close friend, a mentor, and one who was a highly gifted pastor, evangelist, and teacher of many young ministers. Those who worked with him learned "to be urgent in season and not of reason and to preach the Word!"

WALTER M. WALMSLEY
January 3, 1918 - November 23, 1989

Walter M. Walmsley, the son of the late Reverend Robert Anderson Walmsley and Christina Wheaton Walmsley, was born January 3, 1918 at Mansfield, Louisiana in DeSoto Parish. He grew up in Mansfield and attended the public schools there. Later he studied at Sam Huston College in Austin, Texas, where he received his Bachelor of Science degree. His post-graduate study was done at Gammon Theological Seminary in Atlanta, Georgia where he also sang in the college choir and was an avid tennis player.

Rev. Walmsley also served in the U. S. Army from 1943 - 1946 receiving the Asiatic-Pacific Campaign Medal, Good Conduct Medal, World War II Medal for Meritorious Unit Award. He also served as Chaplain's Assistant during his tour of duty.

He met Miss Ardalia Floyd while a student in Austin. They were united in holy matrimony August 14, 1949. They remained a loving and devoted pair until his demise.

Rev. Walmsley was ordained deacon in the West Texas Conference October 12, 1947 and elder May 6, 1951. He served churches in Brownwood, Crawford, Valley Mills, Satin Galender, Calvert, Harlingen and Sherman. Failing health forced his early retirement; however, he remained a faithful servant and a source of inspiration to all who knew him. He lived a long life of faith, battling many health problems and prolonged illnesses.

Rev. Walmsley will always be remembered by friends and loved ones for a warm, friendly smile and pleasant, helpful manner that came through even in the midst of his many years of suffering. A lover of poetry and good church music, Rev. Walmsley, born in a Methodist clergy family, leaves a legacy for all who come after him.

He leaves to mourn his passing his devoted wife Mrs. Ardalia Floyd Walmsley; two sisters, Mmes. Gladys Stewart of New Orleans, Louisiana and Mary W. Coleman of Washington, D. C.; several nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

CLEO DEE WOOTEN
November 15, 1899 - April 24, 1990

Cleo Dee Wooten was born November 15, 1899, in Hillsboro, Texas, the son of Silas Marshall Wooten and Cordelia (England) Wooten. He was educated at Hillsboro High School, Meridian College, and Southern Methodist University. He taught school four years at Morgan, Texas, prior to entering the ministry.

On June 20, 1928, he was married to Nettie Laura (Howell) Wooten in Iredell, Texas. To this union were born two children, Dorothy Marie (Wooten) Hasty and Virginia Lee (Wooten) Boggess.

He was admitted to the Central Texas Conference on November, 1928, and served faithfully 39 years in active relationship and then as Associate Minister of First United Methodist Church, Cleburne, as additional 20 years. In 1938 he was named Pastor Emeritus of this congregation. During his active years, he pastored Azle, Eddy, China Spring, Speegleville, Granger, Cross Plains, Missouri Avenue, DeLeon, Groesbeck, Ballinger, Waxahachie First, Cleburne Main Street, Brownwood, Killeen, Mexia, and Meadowbrook.

The Memorial Service was held at First United Methodist Church, Cleburne, on April 26, 1990. Officiating ministers were Dr. Edward H. Otwell and Reverend Jimmy Finley.

With the passing of Cleo D. Wooten, the Central Texas Conference has lost one of its effective and devoted members. All across this Conference he is remembered for his ministry to children and youth. He felt it important to build up the children and youth programs for he believed they held the answers to the proclamation that Jesus Christ is the hope of the world. Also, his influence on the lives of lay and clergy alike will persist for years to come.

Edward H. Otwell

IDELLA W. APPLE
December 3, 1898 - August 11, 1989

Idella W. Apple was born December 3, 1898 in Camel, Texas. She died on August 11, 1989. A memorial service was held in First United Methodist Church of Wolfforth, Texas with the Reverend Roger Nixon officiating.

She had attended Wesley College and was a member of the First United Methodist Church of Wolfforth.

Mrs. Apple married the Reverend Ollie Apple July 7, 1918. He and one daughter, Kathryn Powers, preceeded her in death. Survivors include a daughter, Martha Turnbow of Lubbock, six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

The Reverend and Mrs. Apple began their ministry in the Methodist Church in White Rock, Texas in 1918. They were members of the North Texas Conference for 12 years before transferring to the Northwest Texas Conference for 12 years, serving churches in Petersburg, Lakeview, Aiken, Jayton and Ropes. The Apples retired in 1961 from the ministry after serving 14 years in the Central Texas Conference in Walnut Springs, Blanket, Perry and Coolidge.

Idella Apple loved the Methodist Church and served it happily. She also loved flowers and made each parsonage yard a lovelier place for her having been there.

CAROLENA "KITTEN" EMMA BENKLEY
December 2, 1900 - March 30, 1990

The Benkley family and a group of friends gathered at St. Mark United Methodist Church in Cleburne on April 3, 1990, to celebrate the life of Carolena "Kitten" Emma Benkley. Officiating ministers were Dr. Gary A. Whitbeck and Rev. Cynthia Lee.

Kitten was born Carolena Emma Hovermann on December 2, 1900 in Penelope, Texas and died on March 30, 1990.

She was a graduate of Penelope High School. On August 12, 1920 she married Fred George Benkley who preceded her in death on March 5, 1989. It was a long and happy marriage. From their union they had two sons; Fred George Benkley of Lexington, Massachusetts and Carl Robert Benkley of Duncan, Oklahoma. She is survived by her two sons, nine grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Fred and Kitten served twenty-six years in the Central Texas Conference in eleven churches and charges. These were Granbury Circuit, Forreston, Evant, China Spring/Speegleville, Riesel, Alvarado, Ferris, Handley, Bartlett, Clifton and Wortham.

Kitten's most attractive attribute was her love for other people to whom she always reached out. She felt as much a call to the ministry as did her husband. She was very supportive as pastor's spouse and she and Fred developed a great teamwork together in the local church. For Kitten, this was evidenced in her activity in the UMW, teaching Sunday School, helping the youth, and her personal love of sacred music. People were attracted to Kitten because they could feel her sincere love for them.

She and Fred built the Handley UMC in Fort Worth and together they built the membership by going out as an evangelistic team together. She loved children and always took time for them as modeled by Jesus.

Kitten leaves us a legacy of love for people. That spirit never dies but is the hope of the world.

JENNIE ERA ROAN BOYD
February 4, 1896 - January 4, 1990

Jennie Era Roan was born in Eastland County, Texas on February 4, 1896. Her parents were Zannie and Emmit D. Roan.

After graduation from high school, she attended a girls finishing school.

She married Robert Herman Boyd on September 7, 1912. They had three children, LaRue Boyd Summers of Round Rock, Dr. Newell D. Boyd of Kingsville, and Robert H. Boyd, Jr., who preceded her in death on February 23, 1982.

Mrs. Boyd was with Herman the entire time he was in the ministry - over 45 years. They spent most of the time in the Central Texas Conference but also were in Northwest and North Texas for a short time. She was active in all phases of church work in local appointments as well as the conference. She served in offices of the Minister's Wives Association, including president.

After retirement, she served as president of the Waco Porcelain Art Guild, president of her Sunday School Class at Waco Austin Avenue and also a choir member.

They lived in Waco until moving to Round Rock in 1977. Rev. Boyd died in 1978. Mrs. Boyd was a resident of the Wesleyan Retirement Home in Georgetown at the time of her death.

Era was a very gifted artist in china painting and many family members and friends cherish one or more of these beautiful china plates in their homes. Era loved her husband, children and 11 grandchildren, 19 great-grandchildren and 4 great-great-grandchildren.

On January 6, 1990, Jennie Era Boyd was laid to rest after a service of resurrection in Waco, Texas. Officiating ministers were Ervin M. Gathings and Jim D. Chandler. Claude Davison was the soloist.

Jim D. Chandler

EDWINA HURT HANKLA
May 23, 1904 - May 12, 1990

Edwina Hurt Hankla was born May 23, 1904 at Fincastle, Texas. Her father was Joe Hurt and her mother's maiden name was Eva Freeman.

Edwina graduated from Athens High School on May 25, 1921 and attended Southwestern University at Georgetown, Texas and the University of Texas at Austin.

She was married to the Reverend William Lee Hankla on January 22, 1923 in Lockhart, Texas by S. B. Beall, Methodist pastor. The Hanklas had one son, Walter Vernon Hankla, who died June 4, 1971. Walter Vernon's wife, Ann Hollis Hankla, survives and lives in Tyler, Texas. Edwina is survived by four grandchildren, Will, Jim, Laura and Nancy, and six great-grandchildren.

Edwina and her husband, W. L. Hankla, were tithers and set up an endowment fund at Southwestern University in memory of Walter Vernon Hankla to assist needy ministerial students with their education.

The Hanklas gave the Schulmerich Carillon that was dedicated to First United Methodist Church in Fort Worth, Texas on June 24, 1973. They, likewise, gave the Cathedral Chimes which were dedicated to First United Methodist Church in Palestine, Texas in memory of their son, Air Force Major Walter V. Hankla.

The Hanklas served with dedication many churches throughout the Central Texas Conference.

The memorial service was held in the First United Methodist Church in Fort Worth, Texas May 15, 1990 with Dr. Barry Bailey officiating. Internment was in Greenwood Memorial Park, Fort Worth.

ALBENIA HENRY HARDEMAN
October 11, 1901 - April 15, 1990

DOROTHY ELIZABETH CLARK JOHNSON
July 14, 1909 - December 30, 1989

Dorothy Clark Johnson was born in Dallas, Texas, the daughter of Gilbert Haven Clark and Georgia Lake Clark. She graduated from Forest High School in Dallas in 1926. From there Dorothy went on to Blinn Jr. College in Brenham, Texas, and to Southern Methodist University, where she graduated in 1932 with a degree in Religious Education.

During this period in her life, Dorothy felt the Lord calling her into full-time Christian service. It was while she was preparing to become a Methodist missionary that she met Roy Johnson, and out of love for him she decided to become not a missionary, but a pastor's wife. She considered this to be a genuine Christian calling, and worked tirelessly to edify for Jesus Christ all of the churches which Roy served.

The Johnsons were blessed with two children: Helen Marie Ramsey, now of Crockett, Texas, and Martha Ruth Taylor, of Flagstaff, Arizona.

During their years in ministry together, the Johnsons served a number of charges: the Olney Circuit, Bardwell Circuit, Purdon Circuit, Richland Circuit, Coolidge Circuit, Glen Rose, Kerens, Gorman, Waco Asbury, Groesbeck, Azle, DeLeon, Hubbard, Hewitt, and Fort Worth Englewood. For several years Roy also served as a chaplain at Harris Hospital in Fort Worth.

Dorothy and Roy "officially" retired from the ministry in 1970, but of course they remained very active in church life even at this time. In 1978 they moved from Fort Worth to Crockett, Texas, where they continued to serve the Lord in the First United Methodist Church of that city. Roy passed away on December 17, 1981.

Dorothy Johnson was completely devoted to Jesus Christ, and she was a devoted worker in the Methodist Church. Her solid Christian values and sense of discipleship served as a model for her family, and as an inspiration to others. In every way she was a servant of the Lord.

She passed away on December 30, 1989, and a memorial service was held the following day in the First United Methodist Church of Crockett, the Reverend Joe Fort, Jr. officiating. Dorothy is buried at Evergreen Cemetery in Crockett.

ELIZABETH ULMER POTEET
December 10, 1896 - December 9, 1989

Elizabeth Poteet was the fourth of eight children of Marion and Lula Belle Ulmer. She was born near Sanco, Coke County, Texas. At about the age of ten she and her family moved to San Angelo so that the children might receive a better education. She lived there until she married the Reverend Horace Poteet on December 22, 1918, in San Angelo.

Elizabeth's life has been dedicated to the church, as she and Horace were in the active ministry for 44 1/2 years before his retirement in 1957. At that time they moved to Coleman, where they both continued in retired ministry until Horace's death in 1979. Ministry for Elizabeth did not stop at that time, as she continued to work in the church until she could not longer do so due to ill health.

She and Horace raised three children: William Burr Poteet of San Angelo, Texas; Horace Monroe Poteet of Albuquerque, New Mexico; and Elizabeth Ann Poteet Radde of Burleson, Texas. Surviving her also are eight grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, and one sister, Annabell Brock of Aransas Pass, Texas.

Elizabeth's most note-worthy accomplishment is probably in the area of the way she influenced other person's lives, for anyone who has known this lady knows they have been influenced by her faith and her love.

A service celebrating the life of Elizabeth Poteet was held on December 18, 1989, at the First United Methodist Church in Coleman, Texas with the Reverend Charles McClure and the Reverend Lloyd Hagemeier officiating. Interment was at Lawnhaven Memorial Gardens in San Angelo, Texas.

CONNIE SU ROBBINS
August 21, 1939 - August 15, 1989

A large congregation of friends gathered with the Robbins family at Arlington Heights United Methodist Church, Fort Worth, on Thursday morning, August 17, 1989 to share in a service of praise to God for and in celebration of the life of Connie Su Robbins. In anticipation of her death, Connie carefully planned this worship service. According to her desire, The Reverend Homer Kluck, the Reverend Grady Brittain, and Bishop John Russell shared in the reading of scriptures, the Reverend Ben Feemster spoke on "Belief in Christ", the Reverend Don Pike proclaimed the "Strength of the Church", Joan Gaspard and Bliss Dodd shared thoughts on "Teaching as a Calling", Jo Shannon Baldwin sang "In This Very Room", and the Reverend Harvey Ozmer offered the eulogy.

The worship service was a very personal witness to that which gave her life meaning and purpose. For, from her birth in Houston, Texas on August 21, 1939, to her death on August 15, 1989 hers was a life committed to Christ through His Church, her family, her friends, and her vocation as a public school teacher. Connie's life was a witness to the love of Christ as she faithfully shared that love with others throughout her life.

In 1961, Connie and Thomas Q. were married in Houston, Texas on March 31. Their home was blessed with four children: Tom Robbins of Mansfield, John Robbins of Fort Worth, Joel Robbins of Camp Le June, North Carolina, and Rebecca Robbins of Mansfield. Other immediate family members include three daughters-in-law, one granddaughter, one brother, and her parents, John and Alvretta De Villier.

Also in 1961, Connie graduated from Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas with a Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education. She then taught elementary students in several school district and had been employed most recently in the HEB school system.

Connie and Thomas Q. served several appointments in the Central Texas Conference: Red Oak, Bedford William C. Martin, Fort Worth Arlington Heights, and as parsonage family of the Temple District. In each place of service her calm, quiet, deep faith made itself a source of strength for others.

"I am no longer my own, but thine, put me to what thou wilt, rank me with whom thou wilt; put me to doing, put me to suffering; let me be employed for thee or laid aside for thee, exalted for thee or brought low for thee; let me be full, let me be empty; let me have all things, let me have nothing; I freely and heartily yield all things to thy pleasure and disposal. And now, O glorious and blessed God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, thou art mine, and I am thine. So be it. And the covenant which I have made on earth, let it be ratified in heaven. Amen."

LUCILE PENNINGTON WILKERSON
November 20, 1906 - September 10, 1989

Lucile Pennington Wilkerson, widow of the Reverend Chester Wilkerson, died on September 10, 1989 in a San Antonio hospital. Until June of 1989 she had been living in Jacksboro, Texas. The service for Mrs. Wilkerson was September 13, 1989 at 3:00 p.m. in the Winters Funeral Chapel in Winters, Texas. Internment was at the Lakeview Cemetery in Winters. Rev. Travis Franklin conducted the service. Mrs. Wilkerson was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Winters.

She was born in Cheatham County, Tennessee on November 20, 1906. She was a graduate of Trevecca College in Nashville, Tennessee where she met and married the Reverend Chester Wilkerson on October 19, 1926. They had been married 55 years at the time of Reverend Wilkerson's death in October of 1981.

Mrs. Wilkerson came to Texas with her husband in 1928 when he joined the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church. They served pastorates in Novice, Winchell, Blanket, Strawn, and Italy, Texas. They were in Strawn some 15 years. In 1959 they retired to Winters. The best way to describe Mrs. Wilkerson is the way her family did with these words: "Mrs. Wilkerson was a dedicated wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. Her family will greatly miss her love and guidance. We feel blessed to have had two Christian parents and to know the sincere concern of the United Methodist Church through our lives."

Mrs. Wilkerson is survived by a son, Chester A. Wilkerson, Jr., of San Antonio and a daughter, Ellenda Wilkerson Boykin of Jacksboro.

XI. CONFERENCE STANDING RULES

As Amended June 5, 1990

I. ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Conference Procedure

1.0 The Central Texas Conference shall be organized according to the Book of Discipline (1988 ¶¶ 35, 36) and shall meet annually at the time appointed by the Bishop (1988 ¶ 702.2) and the place chosen by the conference (1988 ¶ 702.3).

1.1 Adjourned or special sessions shall be called in the manner set forth in the Book of Discipline (1988 ¶ 702.4).

1.2 The business of the Annual Conference shall be conducted according to Roberts Rules of Order.

1.3 Lay members and alternate lay members of the Annual Conference shall be elected at the Charge Conference for a one-year term to begin on January 1, following their election, subject however, to the Book of Discipline (1988 ¶ 701.4).

1.3.1 To equalize the number of lay and clergy members of the Annual Conference, the following will be members by virtue of the offices held: each district United Methodist Women's president, each district United Methodist Men's president, each district Council on Youth Ministry president or designate and one additional youth officer appointed by the district Council on Youth Ministry, any conference board, commission, or committee chairperson who is a lay person not otherwise a member, and Jurisdictional Council on Ministries, General Council on Ministries and General Church board and agency representatives not otherwise members of Annual Conference; and one additional lay member from the charges of the conference whose membership is above the number, set annually by the conference secretary required to equalize the ratio between clergy and lay members. This figure will be revised annually. The conference secretary will notify each district superintendent by September 1 as to the churches that will elect additional members preceding the next Annual Conference.

1.3.2 Each charge of the Annual Conference is responsible for defraying expenses of its lay and clergy members while in attendance at the conference.

1.4 All matters to be presented to the Annual Conference which pertain to the work of one of the conference boards, commissions, committees, or councils before action can be taken by the Annual Conference, shall be reported back to the conference for action prior to the close of the conference session, unless otherwise directed by the Annual Conference.

1.5 All papers, resolutions, obituaries and reports coming to the conference, not included in the preliminary report, must be typewritten in triplicate and two copies of said report must be in the hands of the secretary before they are presented to the conference. Any reports requiring approval of the Annual Conference, not in the preliminary report, shall be reproduced for members of the conference so that they may follow the report as it is being presented.

1.6 Per diem allowance for each day in actual attendance at Annual Conference will be granted retired clergy, retired diaconal ministers, retired deaconnesses, and pastors, any of whom are receiving a total salary of, or less than the minimum salary of the conference. It shall also be granted to the aforementioned ministers' spouses and students appointed to attend school.

1.7 There shall be a Committee on Memoirs composed of the secretary of the conference and the secretary of the Board of Pensions to insure suitable memoirs of the deceased clergy, widows or widowers of clergy. The clergy in charge of the funeral of such persons shall be responsible for preparing the memoir and filing it with the committee immediately after the funeral.

1.8 Any of the standing rules may be amended or suspended by a two-thirds majority of those present and voting at a session of Annual Conference, provided that any motion to amend the conference standing rules must lie on table at least one day before the conference can vote to amend.

1.9 Vacancies on all conference boards, councils, commissions, and committees shall be filled by nominations by and selected by the appropriate body. Those persons elected to fill vacancies shall serve the remainder of the tenure of the original member. However, when the chairperson of the committee has been transferred to another district and, in the opinion of the appropriate body, unusual circumstances require the continued services of such chairperson, the body shall have the right to retain that person in its membership for the remainder of that person's tenure. Such persons shall not be counted as district representatives.

1.9.1 Any member of the conference boards, councils, commissions, and committees who is absent without excuse from any two consecutive meetings of the board, council, commission, or committee shall thereby forfeit membership on the agency and their vacancy shall be filled in accordance with 1.9 above.

1.10 Members of General and Jurisdictional boards, councils, commissions, or committees within the Annual Conference shall be ex-officio members of corresponding conference agencies.

II. CONFERENCE ORGANIZATION

Annual Conference Council on Ministries:

1.0 There shall be an Annual Conference Council on Ministries as recommended and detailed in the Book of Discipline (1988 ¶ 726).

1.1 The purpose of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries as part of the total mission of the Church, is to facilitate the Church's program life in the Annual Conference. The council's task is to be responsible for the development, administration, and evaluation of the program of the Annual Conference and to encourage, coordinate, and support the conference agencies, districts, and local churches in their ministry and various programs in accordance with the mission of the United Methodist Church (1988 ¶ 726).

1.2 The conference Council on Ministries shall be composed of the presiding bishop; the officers of the council; district superintendents; conference lay leader; president of the United Methodist Women and one additional representative from the United Methodist Women; president of the United Methodist Men and one additional representative from the United Methodist Men; the president of the conference Council on Youth Ministry and one additional representative from the conference Council on Youth Ministry; two young adults; co-ordinators of age-level and family departments; chairperson of the Commission on Church Growth and Development; the chairpersons of the Board of Discipleship, Board of Church and Society, Board of Global Ministries, Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, Commission on Religion and Race, Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns, and Commission on Status and Role of Women in the Church; the chairpersons of the committees of the ACCOM; the chairpersons of the district councils on ministries; three representatives from each district: it is recommended that they be one clergy, one laywoman and one layman, none of whom are otherwise members of ACCOM; members of the General Council on Ministry and Jurisdictional Council on Ministry; General Church board and agency representatives not otherwise members of the council; and additional members at-large as needed to assure minority representation and equal lay and clergy membership. District representatives and at-large members shall serve for all or part of one quadrennium and may succeed themselves one time.

1.2.1 The conference council staff, the director of Finance and Administration, the director of Church Growth and Development, the conference statistician, and the chairperson or another representative from the Council on Finance and Administration shall be members of the council without vote.

1.3 The officers of the council shall be a chairperson, a vice-chairperson and a secretary nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the council for a four-year term to coincide with the quadrennium beginning in 1992. If the chairperson is a lay person, the vice-chairperson shall be clergy and vice versa. No person is eligible for re-election to the same office.

1.4 There shall be an Executive Committee of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries, consisting of the bishop, a district superintendent chosen by the Cabinet, the council officers, the conference lay leader, the conference president of the United Methodist Women, the conference president of the United Methodist Men, the president of the conference Council on Youth Ministry, and the conference representative on the General Council on Ministries. The conference council director shall serve without vote. The chairpersons of the four program boards and the committees on Coordination and Budget, Communication and Interpretation, Ethnic Local Church Concerns, and Research and Planning shall also be members of the Executive Committee in consideration of all agenda matters except matters of personnel. The council shall nominate and elect such additional members from the council as may be required so that the Executive Committee is composed of one-half lay persons and one-half clergy. The officers of the conference Council on Ministries shall fill the same offices on the Executive Committee.

1.5 The Executive Committee of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries shall: (a) receive reports and recommendations from the conference boards and agencies to the conference Council on Ministries; (b) serve as the Personnel and Budget Committee for the Council on Ministries and its staff; and (c) propose the agenda for the meetings of the council.

Conference Council on Ministries (ACCOM) Committees:

2.0 There shall be the following council (ACCOM) committees: a Committee on Nominations, to nominate ACCOM committee members and their officers; a Committee on Planning and Research; a Committee on Coordination and Budget; a Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns; and a Committee on Communications and Interpretation. The members of these committees shall be chosen from within the council with due consideration given to others who may have special expertise in the area of the committee's work and to issues of inclusiveness. The council (ACCOM) shall appoint such other committees, task forces, and consultants as it deems necessary in the performance of its duties, provided that the appointed members shall serve no more than four consecutive years (1988 ¶ 726.5).

2.1 The (ACCOM) Committee on Planning and Research shall (1) engage in planning and research on behalf of the council in the continuing ministry of the United Methodist Church within the conference; (2) serve as an advisory group in planning and research for the Annual Conference and its agencies; (3) serve as the clearinghouse for all planning and research projects under the sponsorship of the Annual Conference and its agencies; (4) relate to and cooperate with the planning and research projects of the General Council on Ministries (1988 ¶ 726.5.c).

2.1.1 The members of the committee shall be: the chairpersons of the four boards, the conference lay leader, or a representative chosen by the lay leader from among the members of the conference Board of Laity (same person through the year), the conference president of the United Methodist Women or her representative from the United Methodist Women (same person through the year), the conference president of the United Methodist Men or his representative from the United Methodist Men (same person through the year), the president of the conference Council on Youth Ministry or another representative from the conference Council on Youth Ministry (same person through the year), the chairperson of the Commission on Religion and Race or chairperson's representative (same person through the year), chairperson of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women in the Church; chairperson of the Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns. Members without vote: chairperson or chairperson's representative from the conference Council on Finance and Administration (same person through the year), director of Church Growth and Development or a representative from the Commission on Church Growth and Development (same person through the year) and the conference council director.

2.1.2 The officers shall be: a chairperson, a vice-chairperson, a secretary, and such additional persons as needed.

2.2 The (ACCOM) Committee on Coordination and Budget shall (a) review program criteria and goals for every conference program board and agency; (b) evaluate recommendations for the continued funding of these programs; (c) coordinate the budget requests of the conference agencies as they relate to the conference program and make recommendations regarding the same to the conference Council on Ministries (1988 ¶¶ 726.5, 726.10e).

2.2.1 Members of the committee shall be the chairperson, vice-chairperson, secretary and nine additional members, three of whom shall be clergy, three layman and three laywomen.

2.3 The (ACCOM) Committee on Communications and Interpretation shall (a) recommend policies that will enable the conference, the district, and the local churches, and their agencies to make use of all communications help; (b) make available to the conference specialized communications resources, especially in the fields of broadcasting and audiovisuals; (c) promote principles of good communication within the conference to provide two-way channels of communications between Annual Conference agencies, district Council on Ministries and local churches, and to lead the conference in making creative use of communications and opportunities offered by modern media, including conference and General Church periodicals and resources; (d) provide communications training opportunities for leaders in the Annual Conference and local churches; (e) interpret the programs of the General Church and the Annual Conference to the local churches and promote all general and conference benevolent causes in cooperation with United Methodist Communications.

28.1 The membership shall consist of no less than two (2) and no more than six (6) members at large from the Central Texas Conference together with no less than two (2) and no ore than six (6) members at large from the Rio Grande conference churches within the geographical bounds of the Central Texas Conference. The at large membership elected from each conference shall have equal representation between laity and clergy. In addition, the membership shall include the Bishop of the Central Texas conference or his/her representative; the Bishop of the Rio Grande Conference or his/her representative; the conference council directors of the Central Texas Conference and the Rio gRande Conference, or, from each conference, a member of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries designated by the Annual Conference Council on Ministries; and one district superintendent from the Central Texas conference and one district superintendent from the Rio Grande Conference.

28.2 The Central Texas Conference members at large shall be nominated by the conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference. They shall be elected for a term of four years. They shall not be permitted to serve more than two consecutive terms.

28.3 There shall be a chairperson, vice-chairperson, secretary, and treasurer, who shall be nominated and elected by the membership of the Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry. The officers shall be elected to a term of four years and shall not succeed themselves. The officers shall include members of the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences.

28.4 The committee shall report directly to the Annual Conference of the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences.

III. CONFERENCE ADMINISTRATION

Administrative Personnel of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries

1.0 There shall be three conference executive staff positions: director of the conference Council on Ministries; director of the conference Council on Finance and Administration; and director of the Commission on Church Growth and Development.

1.1 The tenure of office for a clergy member of the conference executive staff shall be limited to eight consecutive years.

1.2 Any proposal to increase or change the structure of the conference executive staff of the Annual Conference shall be presented during a regular or called session of the Annual Conference, and shall not be voted on until the next session of the Annual Conference. No appointment predicated on the creation of such new or changed staff position shall be made, tentatively or finally, until the same is approved by the Annual Conference.

Conference Director of Finance and Administration

2.0 The conference director of Finance and Administration shall be nominated by the Council on Finance and Administration, after consulting with the bishop and the Cabinet, and elected by the Annual Conference. The conference director of Finance and Administration shall serve as the conference treasurer and the conference secretary.

2.1 The conference director of Finance and Administration shall be under the supervision of the conference Council on Finance and Administration. The director shall serve as the treasurer for the Board of Pensions, for the Commission on Equitable Salaries, and shall be coordinator for the conference pension program.

2.2 The tenure of office for a clergy member of the conference serving as the director of Finance and Administration shall be for a quadrennium and shall be limited to eight consecutive years. (1988 ¶ 715). A newly elected director of Finance and Administration shall ordinarily assume official duties at the session of the Annual Conference following the General Conference.

2.3 All bonds required by the law of The United Methodist Church or the Central Texas Conference shall be filed with the secretary of the conference. The bond for the conference director of Finance and Administration shall be approved by the bishop and the Cabinet and filed in the bishop's office.

2.4 The director of Finance and Administration shall nominate to the Annual Conference such staff as needed to conduct the daily proceedings of the Annual Conference.

2.5 The job description of the director of Finance and Administration may be modified upon recommendation of the conference Council on Finance and Administration and approval of the Annual Conference in regular or called session.

IV. FINANCIAL

1.0 The fiscal year of the Annual Conference shall be from January 1st to December 31st, and salaries of clergy members, appointed as pastors or district superintendents, shall be paid accordingly.

2.0 Remittances from a pastoral charge to the conference treasurer shall be accompanied by the remittance forms supplied by the Council on Finance and Administration. These forms shall be in triplicate and indicate clearly the amounts to be credited to each cause for which the remittance is made. The conference treasurer shall return one receipted form to the pastor and one to the district superintendent for each remittance. The pastor shall enclose the annual statement of receipts as issued by the conference treasurer, corrected if necessary, with the church's Annual Conference Report as verification of items reported in Table II.

3.0 After careful consideration of all financial responsibilities of the Annual Conference, the Council on Finance and Administration, with three liaison representatives selected by the Annual Conference Council on Ministries, meeting with the Council on Finance and Administration in all budget discussions, shall recommend all allocations for the major categories in the total conference financial program: clergy and diaconal support, conference claimants fund, administration, World Service, conference benevolences, and capital funding. The Annual Conference Council on Ministries, being charged by the Discipline to study and coordinate the budget request of the several conference agencies as they relate to the conference program, shall formulate and present an itemized conference benevolence budget providing for the support of these agencies to the Council on Finance and Administration. If, for any reason, the Council on Finance and Administration decides that the total of the requests for the conference benevolence budget needs to be changed, it shall adjust the allocation and refer it back to the Annual Conference Council on Ministries for adjustments of the itemized appropriations in the conference benevolence budget.

3.1 If any conference agency feels its cause has been neglected, jeopardized, or excluded, it shall have the opportunity to represent its cause before the Council on Finance and Administration as provided in the Book of Discipline (1988 ¶ 710).

3.2 The Council on Finance and Administration shall present the proposed budget, for the purpose of clarification and correction only, at the first business session of the Annual Conference each year. Changes in the proposed budget shall be reported by the committee, board, and/or council making the request at the time they report to the Annual Conference. Approval or disapproval of the financial request shall be voted as an amendment to the proposed budget at the final presentation of the budget by CFA at the last session of the Annual Conference.

3.3 Once a budget line-item has been approved by a regular or called session of the Annual Conference, the line-item amounts cannot be changed, re-allocated, or exceeded without approval from the Council on Finance and Administration.

3.4 Any proposal to create a new apportionment, or to change the purpose for an existing apportionment shall be presented during a regular or called session of the Annual Conference, and shall not be voted on until the next session of the Annual Conference.

4.0 All budget items allocated to the districts and local churches of the conference shall be based on the decimal arrived at by the following formula: Determine the base amount for each district or church by taking the total of the following items: (58) pension & benefit funds (MPP) paid directly to the General Board of Pensions, (64) Pastor's base compensation, (65) Associate(s) base compensation, (66a) Utilities and housing paid to/for pastor, (66b) Utilities and housing paid to/for associate(s), (67a) Travel paid to/for pastor, (67b) Travel paid to/for associate(s), (68a) Other allowances paid to/for pastor, (68b) Other allowances paid to/for associate(s), (69) Diaconal minister(s) compensation, (70) Other staff compensation, (71) Current expenses for program, (72) Other current operating expenses.

5.0 It shall be the duty of the conference Council on Finance and Administration to compute the decimal annually, using the latest statistics (corrected, if necessary) and furnish the table of apportionments to the districts. The district superintendent and the district stewards shall distribute the askings to the local church on the same basis.

6.0 Items to be distributed under the formula are the Connectional Ministry Fund, Conference Claimants Fund, World Service and Conference Benevolences Fund, Conference Projects Fund, Ministerial Education Fund, Black Methodist College Fund, and the Ministers Insurance Program Fund. Others may be added by the action of the Annual Conference.

7.0 The auditing firm appointed by the conference Council on Finance and Administration shall audit all books of treasurers of boards whose auditing is not provided for in the Book of Discipline, and report the results to the conference Council on Finance and Administration, which council will send a statement of these audits to the conference secretary for inclusion in the minutes.

8.0 Annually each board, commission, agency, or special interest, shall make requests to the Council on Finance and Administration through the Annual Conference Council on Ministries for any special day offering, except where set by the Book of Discipline. No such day shall be recommended to the Annual Conference for any agency, cause,or institution, nor shall such a day be listed on the printed conference calendar, unless such agency, cause or institution has presented a full financial statement and audit, including current annual income and expense, together with its report to the appropriate board.

9.0 All boards, commissions, committees, and councils of the conference shall allow eighteen cents per mile, twenty-one cents per mile when two members ride in the same car, twenty-three cents per mile when three to six members ride in the same car, and thirty-five cents per mile for seven or more members in one vehicle for necessary travel to conference meetings.

10. The conference treasurer, after the close of the fiscal year, shall transfer from the accounts of all boards, commissions and other agencies of the conference into the Operating Reserve all unexpended balances of the annual appropriations for the year just closed (excepting only items specifically exempt by CFA) making allowances for all outstanding checks. This procedure is recommended with the understanding that the conference treasurer will honor the requisitions for all necessary expenses of the new fiscal year within the limits of the appropriations.

V. DISTRICTS

District Conference

1.0 There shall be a District Conference in each district of the Annual Conference which shall meet at least two weeks prior to the Annual Conference after notice is given to all local churches by the district superintendent, who shall be the chairperson, and on call by the district superintendent, during the Annual conference session.

2.1 The membership shall be the district superintendent, who shall be the chairperson, the district lay leader, the district president of United Methodist Women, the district president of United Methodist Men, the president of the district Council on Youth Ministry, and such other persons as determined by the district Council on Ministries.

District Council on Ministries

3.0 There shall be a district Council on Ministries in each district of the Annual Conference. It shall be a liaison to the local church and the Annual Conference in all matters of program. The chairperson of the district Council on Ministries shall be an ex-officio member of the conference Council on Ministries.

3.1 The district Council on Ministries shall be composed of the district superintendent, the district president of the United Methodist Women, the district president of the United Methodist Men, the president of the district Council on Youth Ministry, the district lay leader, another youth not over 18 years of age, the members of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries residing in the district, one laywoman, one layman, and one clergy representative to each conference board, one district representative of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women, and such other persons as the district council may determine. Interim vacancies may be filled by the district Council on Ministries in lieu of the District Conference.

3.2 The officers shall be a chairperson and such other officers as the council shall determine who shall be elected by the council upon nomination of the district Committee on Nominations.

VI. LOCAL CHURCHES

1.0 Each congregation shall annually give attention to the vacation policy, using as the guideline for its discussion the statement contained in the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee Manual as issued by the General Church.

1.1 In the event of death of a clergy or diaconal minister residing in a church owned residence, the family of the deceased clergy or diaconal minister will be allowed ninety days to find other housing and vacate the church owned residence, or such other time as deemed appropriate by the Cabinet and by the local church pastor-parish relations committee.

VII. DISCONTINUED OR ABANDONED CHURCHES

1.0 When a local church has been discontinued or abandoned and the property disposed of as directed by the Book of Discipline in accordance with 1988 ¶ 2548, the proceeds derived therefrom, if any, shall be first applied to the retirement of pension deficits, and the satisfaction of any claims against ministerial pension annuities which may have arisen out of failure of that church to make proportionate payment for support. The trustees of the conference shall recommend to the next session of the Annual Conference the disposition of any remaining proceeds.

ADDENDUM TO THE REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON RULES

All officers and members currently serving, or elected in 1989 shall serve to the end of the current quadrennium. Additional persons will be added to meet the requirements of the revised rules insofar as possible.

XII. PASTORAL RECORDS

Central Texas Conference Of The United Methodist Church

Members of the Council on Finance and Administration Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Fort Worth, Texas.

I have examined the Summary of Cash Receipts and Disbursements with Cash and Savings Account Balances, of Dr. Sidney Roberts, Secretary/Treasurer Central Texas Conference United Methodist Church, for the year ended December 31, 1989. My examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly, included such test of the accounting records and such other procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in Note 1, the Central Texas Conference policy is to prepare this summary on the basis of cash receipts and disbursement; consequently, certain revenue is recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statement is not intended to present results of operation in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, since accounting principles require the accural of income and expense.

The Summary of Notes Payable - Texas Methodist Foundation included in this report is presented for information only, since the status of these items are of interest to the readers of this report in conjunction with the various funds to which they are related. However, the scope of my examination was limited to a review on auditing procedures with regard to this summary, except to confirm the balances shown.

In my opinion, the accompanying Summary of Cash Receipts and Disbursements with Cash and Savings Account Balances referred to above, present fairly the recorded such receipts and disbursements of the Conference Treasurer for the year then ended, on the basis described in Note 1, which basis has been applied consistent with that of the preceding year.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS AND COURTESY

In our Celebration and Witness, the Holy Spirit has been and continues to be at work in the Central Texas Conference. I Corinthians 3:16 describes the Church as the temple of God's indwelling Spirit. This dwelling place of the Holy Spirit for work and growth celebrates what God has done in us and with us, and we witness in our living to the gracious God who gives this conference its ministry as a gift.

Like a master builder, the Spirit of God has been at work in us. On the foundation of Christ the Spirit has taken the lumber of Christian persons, the glue of love and the nails of shared service to erect a framework for a building to God. The holy scriptures provided the plumb-line, the Discipline a blueprint, the high standards of the Annual Conference a carpenter's level.

On-site support is critical to success and we gratefully acknowledge the graciousness of the Waco District, Ervin Gathings and Ed Otwell, Dick Freeman, the ministers and staff of First United Methodist Church, the beautiful church building, the Convention Center and the people of the city of Waco, who all contributed to our comfort. We are blessed by their hosting.

The words of William Willimon, in preaching and lecturing, were a saw which cuts and shapes so the pieces may fit more precisely. Stimulating worship services, like an air compressor, injected the wind to power the conference's gifts--pneumatic tools for building the Church. The outpouring of uplifting music from choirs, musicians and a vigorously singing congregation were like windows looking onto new visions. The glass was cut and skillfully fitted by our worship committee whose imagination, inspiration, and propelling execution are hallmarks of skilled crafters. The leadership of our pastoral family, Bishop John and Mary Jean Russell, was like concrete to strengthen and support the structure with their diligence, dedication, love and humor. In the Central Texas Conference we enjoy one of the most gifted bishops in the Jurisdiction. Most of these gifts are T-shirts.

The business sessions were like unto a hammer which through its pounding did not destroy but did create a strong ministry for our future. The master-carpenters of retiring ministers and wives, through their wisdom and encouragement, inspired the work of all the laborers, both clergy and lay. Years ago the master-builder directed laborers to lay the beam, the backbone of the roof, and we celebrate these enduring ministries: Southwestern University, 150 years; Texas Wesleyan University and the Methodist Home, 100 years; UMCOR, 50 years; Church Growth and Development, 10 years. On this roof are the countless shingles of the dedicated devotion of individuals.

Doors were in the form of displays by agencies and organizations to enlighten and challenge us. These doors open onto new opportunities of ministry. Apprentices were inducted into the Carpenter's Guild as diaconal ministers, deacons, and elders through consecration and ordination. No great task can be accomplished without breaks from labor to sharpen tools and renew vigor. The hosts and hostesses of receptions, luncheons and dinners graciously provided the gift of refreshing the laborers.

As the work of the Annual Conference comes to a close, we see that our work is not finished. The Spirit of the Lord in not through with us yet. The planting of seeds for a landscape remains to be done by spreading among the local churches the news of the conference's ministry and opportunities for support and participation in it. The close of the final session of the Central Texas Conference sees a sunset of mingled red and burnt orange illuminating the temple of God, causing the dwelling place of the Holy Spirit to appear as though set aflame with that same spirit. Indeed, it is so.
