VII. REPORTS

COMPOSITE REPORT OF THE CABINET

Bishop Russell, members of the Annual Conference, and guests: It is my privilege and responsibility as Dean of the cabinet this past year to give this composite report on behalf of all the district superintendents. In preparing to do this, I became interested in seeking to discover something of the history and the purpose of this report, which has been a standard fixture at every annual conference session I have attended. A quick search of the records indicated that the first Composite Report of the Cabinet was given in 1948 by Dr. Chet Henson, superintendent of the Waco District. The form of the report has remained essentially the same with only the style differing, depending upon the writer. It might also be noted that 1948 brought a new Episcopal leader to our conference, Bishop William C. Martin, who perhaps initiated the format of giving a composite report.

Prior to 1948, it was the practice of having each district superintendent take the time to report on the conference floor for their respective district. The same type of information was included, except that no doubt it was much more lengthy, remembering also that the conference had ten districts at the time. There was more emphasis upon the reporting of statistics, such as the number of additions, baptisms, etc. for each district, and whether all the Churches had paid their conference askings. Much of this we now leave to the report of the statistician, and to printed records. We should remember, however, that in those days, the fiscal year coincided with the conference year, so that pastors were actually making their year-end reports when they came to the site of the Annual Conference, and in many instances bringing with them their monies to pay out. Thus when the district superintendent stood on the conference floor, he was giving new and recent information that had just barely been collected, and was of great interest to the listeners of each report. Only when each district superintendent (or presiding elder if you go back a little farther) had reported would the conference know what kind of a year it had really been.

An additional incursion into the history of reporting to the conference reveals that the matter of the passing of the character of each minister was a part of the report of the presiding elder for his district. In the twenties, for example, when it came time for the report of a particular district, the name of each pastor in the district was called, and it was the responsibility of the presiding elder to disclose if there were any complaints against the character of that person. If the answer was "none" the next name was called. Each minister thus would have his name called and his character passed individually. I am told that there was also a time in history, prior to this, and perhaps depending upon the style of the Bishop, when each pastor's name not only was called, and his character passed by the conference, but he also had to stand on the floor of the conference and respond to certain questions such as "How many souls have been saved in your charge this year, and have all the conference claims been paid?"

As you can readily tell, time, the compressing of agendas, computers, and expediency have radically changed what we do at Annual Conference, and how we do it. However, it seems to me that there are two very important strands that run through this whole process and which remain as a very vital part of who we are as United Methodists: these strands are summarized with two words: connectional and accountable. The format has changed, but the nature of what it is that we are about as the children of John Wesley hold Annual Conference continues to focus around these two principles which become some of the glue that holds us together and distinguishes us from others: we are connectional in the nature of our very being--no congregation, no clergy, no lay person stands isolated from the body; and we are all held accountable for the ministry that has been entrusted to us where we serve. It is in the spirit of this tradition this report is offered to you.

This has been another outstanding year in the life of our Annual Conference. We continue to progress under the outstanding leadership of our Bishop, John Russell. His caring, pastoral style along with his clarity of purpose in ministry sets the example and leads the way for all of us. We continue to show the whole of the United Methodist Church that membership decline is not inevitable as our statistician will report to us yet another in a long string of membership gains. While we can be proud once again of our record, we cannot gloat for the truth is we are not even keeping up with population growth in our area. This should continue to be a top priority that permeates all that we plan and do as pastors and churches.

I believe our continued membership gains can be attributed to two primary factors: our denomination pace-setting model of Church Growth and Development and the presence in our midst of several very alive vital congregations that continue to show remarkable growth. We have witnessed recently the reopening of one church which had been dormant for several years (Bosqueville) and the chartering of another new congregation (Copperas Cove Korean). In addition at this Annual Conference pastors will be appointed to begin new churches in the Park Glen and Briar communities.

Perhaps the most significant event of the year came in the Fall when our Conference was the location of "The Gathering", which brought together United Methodists from all over the world focusing on the theme "Vital Congregations--Faithful Disciples". We believe one of the primary reasons Fort Worth was selected for this event is the sustained growth and vitality of United Methodism in our area. We look forward to the challenge of the followup programs which are being developed by our conference Task Force, and believe that those congregations that truly wish to be revitalized will find help and guidance.

Following "The Gathering" it was also the privilege of our Bishop and our conference to serve as hosts for the meeting of the Council of Bishops. From all comments and reports of our guests, they felt splendidly hosted. We are indeed grateful to all of the individuals and churches who worked so hard and did so much to make both of these events a success and to show to our visitors the hospitality of the best conference in Methodism.

In addition to the growth in membership, we believe another encouraging sign of health in our conference is seen in the growing number of "Covenant Churches": congregations who have pledged themselves to direct support of a missionary in the field under the Advance Special program. Revitalization comes when we focus on needs beyond those that are self-serving in our local churches, and this is surely a good sign. The statistician will also report another overall good year in the finances of the conference, keeping intact our string of many years of paying all of our General Church askings in full. We know that these have been tough times economically for many of our families, and thus many of our churches. However, those who came before us in the history of our conference have taught us how to deal with tough times by leading the way in Stewardship. The church has shown some of its most remarkable growth and expansion during difficult economic times, and it has always been because of a deep faith and conviction that the importance of God's work and our commitment as stewards should not diminish as a priority for us even in the face of adversity. Your Bishop and Cabinet have spent some time this year developing some goals for ourselves in some important areas. These includes helping pastors to be better leaders in the area of stewardship, and doing a better job of telling the story of what our church is doing so that Methodists can be proud of how they are involved in ministry and mission both locally and beyond the local church. We have also spent time seeking to define and refine the whole process of consultation around appointment making, and improving our own understanding of the meaning of supervision.

In closing, all of the record that is written is really written not by the cabinet, or by conference leadership, but by the dedicated clergy and lay persons throughout this conference who continue to seek to be faithful to the call of our Lord Jesus Christ and express that commitment through their lives, and the life of the church. We are indeed committed to being connectional and accountable.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

Report No. 1

1. The Council on Finance and Administration commends the members of the Annual Conference, the churches and the membership of the churches for their financial response and responsibility in 1990. Our conference has a long tradition of such financial responsibility and the Council on Finance and Administration looks forward to continuing that tradition. All of our General Church items were paid 100%. It is noted with regret that all of the apportioned items were not paid in full. We did not reach 100% on some annual conference items. These ministries suffered. We hope that this will be corrected in 1991.
2. The salary for the district superintendent shall be an amount equal to 105% of the average of the salary and allowances paid to pastors of the top twenty (20) churches of the conference. It shall be computed on the basis of salaries approved by the Charge Conferences which appear on the Episcopal work sheets as of February 1. The figures will be compiled by the conference director of Finance and Administration within five days. The 1992 salary for a district superintendent will be $64,978. The Ministerial Pension Plan current service amount of 12% of the Denominational Average Compensation, billed directly to the conference, will be added to the above salary for apportionment to the districts. It is understood that travel to conference meetings is included in Cabinet members' salary.
3. The conference offices of director of Finance and Administration, director of the Council on Ministries, and director of Church Growth and Development will receive a salary equal to that of the district superintendents. For 1992 that salary will be $64,978. This amount includes an allowance for utilities and maintenance of $4,000 for the above named three offices. Travel allowances may be part of the respective council's or commission's budget.
4. The district committees on finance are authorized to prepare budgets for presentation to the district stewards. An amount equal to 10% of the salary for the district superintendent may be included in the district budget to defray the utility costs of the district parsonage. In addition, an amount equal to 10% of the salary may be included in the district budget for travel expenses of the district superintendent. District budgets shall not include a discretionary fund, but may include a District Operations Expense item with a parenthetical explanation of its intent. The district budget shall be submitted to the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration for approval each year. The district stewards are authorized to apportion a Connectional Contingency Fund to be used for paying in full apportioned items which may fall short within the respective district. The Connectional Contingency Fund will be administered at the district level in the same means as the District Work Fund. It is understood that if a portion of the Connectional Contingency Fund is not used in any given year, it will remain in the fund and future apportionment funds will be reduced. Any adjustments for unusual local church situations will be made in the apportionment of the Connectional Contingency Fund only. All other apportionments will be distributed to every local church on the basis of the decimal.

5. The council recommends the request from the conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry that the amount for the Texas Methodist College Association be $1.60 multiplied by the total conference local church membership. The council also recommends the request from the conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry that the amount for the Wesley Foundation Fund be $1.16 multiplied by the total conference local church membership. Both funds shall be apportioned to the districts and to the local churches on the decimal authorized by the Annual Conference.
6. The council recommends that the Equitable Salary Fund be drawn from monies deposited with the Texas Methodist Foundation.
7. We recommend the appointment of Dr. Sidney Roberts as director of Finance and Administration and as the secretary of the Central Texas Conference.

2. While no special day is designated for an offering for the Texas Alcohol-Narcotics Education, Inc., we approve this special cause for either an appropriation from the budget in the local church, or a special offering taken at such time as the local church determines.
3. In keeping with the requirements of the Discipline, the apportionments for World Service and Conference Benevolences will be combined into one fund, namely, World Service and Conference Benevolences. This fund, along with Connectional Ministry, Conference Claimant's Fund, Minister's Insurance, Texas Methodist College Association, Wesley Foundation, Ministerial Educational Fund, Black Methodist College Fund, Africa University, Mount Sequoyah, and Lydia Patterson, will be apportioned to the districts on the decimal figure, established annually, as authorized in the Standing Rules of the Conference.
4. The director of Finance and Administration is authorized to distribute each month the receipts from local churches for World Service and Conference Benevolences among the funds included in the annual budget of the conference in proportion to their apportionments. Any deficit in remittances from the churches will be covered by payments from the operating reserve, upon approval by CF&A or its Executive Committee.

5. All boards, commissions and agencies shall have prepared in writing by January 31, 1992 their detailed budget requests for the ensuing year. The program agencies shall present their requests to the Committee on Coordination and Budget by said date. The non-program agencies shall present their requests to the CF&A by the same date. A copy of all budgets must be sent to the CF&A President, director of Finance and Administration, and director of the Council on Ministries. Requests will not be considered if received past the due date unless time extension has been requested and approved.
6. The director of Finance and Administration is authorized to pay from the operating reserve the following items.
   a. The moving expense of ministers of the conference in accordance with the formula adopted by the 1982 Annual Conference upon recommendation of the Commission on Equitable Salaries and Clergy Benefits. When the next annual budget is prepared, the CF&A is authorized to place the total amount in the budget to repay the operating reserve for past year spending.
   b. Other expenditures may be authorized by CF&A. Expenditures not to exceed $2,000 may be authorized by the Executive Committee of the council.
7. In order to establish a better system of accountability, the Council on Finance and Administration proposes the following management procedures for reserve funds beginning 1/1/92:
   a. The operating reserve will no longer be treated as a contingency fund but as a cash flow fund.
   b. A separate contingency fund will be set up to cover unbudgeted expenses with accounting of these expenditures to be made to the Annual Conference.
   c. A contingency fund of $50,000 will be established from the operating reserve as of 1/1/92.
   d. The contingency fund will be replenished by the interest earning on both the contingency fund and the operating reserve. Any interest earnings over and above that necessary to replenish the contingency fund to a balance of $50,000 will go into the operating reserve.
   e. The goal is a permanent operating fund of 10% of the current budget to be used strictly for cash flow.
   f. The operating reserve would be replenished by surplus funds unused by the conference at the end of the year.
   g. The authority for the administration of these funds rests with the Council on Finance and Administration pursuant to the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church and the Standing Rules of the Central Texas Conference.
8. An amount equal to 50% of the General/Jurisdictional Conference per diem or reimbursement for actual expenses above the per diem, whichever is less, shall be paid to each elected lay and clerical delegate and to the first lay and clerical alternate delegates representing this conference at General/Jurisdictional Conferences. An additional amount equal to the General/Jurisdictional Conference per diem shall be paid to the first lay and clerical alternate delegates to the General/Jurisdictional Conference.
9. The director of Finance and Administration is authorized to:
   a. Consolidate the various funds of the Annual Conference and of the agencies into one or more bank accounts.
   b. Write all checks for the agencies of the conference upon requisition by authorized officers of the agency and in keeping with approved conference budget. He is also authorized to transmit to the authorized treasurers all other funds that are raised by the local churches in response to General Jurisdictional and Annual Conference askings that have been approved by the appropriate body.

c. The conference treasurer, after the close of the fiscal year, shall transfer from the accounts of all boards, commissions and other agencies of the conference into the operating reserve all unexpended balances of the annual appropriations for the year just closed (excepting only items specifically exempt by CF&A) making allowances for all outstanding checks. This procedure is recommended with the understanding that the director of Finance and Administration will honor the requisitions for all necessary expenses of the new fiscal year within the limits of the appropriations.

d. To invest the funds of the conference in government securities and federally insured depositories up to and not exceeding insurability, and/or with the Texas Methodist Foundation and to borrow on and dispose of investments at, or prior to, maturity, and to deposit the proceeds from these investments in accounts of the conference under the guidance of the Council on Finance and Administration.

e. To deposit funds for specifically designated purposes in federally insured depositories up to and not exceeding insurability and/or with the Texas Methodist Foundation under the joint control of the Central Treasury and the agency concerned, with the approval of the Executive Committee of the conference Council on Finance and Administration.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

Our council is comprised of some very active and involved individuals whose interests are in the programming needs of our Annual Conference. There is a deep concern that all the resources possible be made available to our local churches and that the needs of those local churches be heard and addressed.

We also believe that in order to accomplish anything worthwhile, there must be purpose and intention involved. That is our reason for pursuing the formulation and adoption of a "MISSION STATEMENT," for the Central Texas Annual Conference.

We continue to oversee and coordinate, as well as implement, the decisions of our Annual Conference in the areas of our responsibility.

We applaud our dedicated and hard-working staff and commend them on the work that they do.

We encourage you to utilize all aspects of your council and we are always ready to help you any way we can.

Eugene B. Robertson, Chairperson

We recommend that the conference staff members be reimbursed for travel at the rate of $.22 per mile. This amount reflects the extensive use of their personal automobiles and the resulting depreciation of their cars. We further recommend that travel by all others be reimbursed at $.18 per mile, twenty-one cents when two members ride in the same car, twenty-three cents when three to six members ride in one car, and thirty-five cents for seven or more members in one vehicle for necessary travel to conference meetings.

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The Board of Church and Society met three times in 1990 to plan and implement the mission of the Board. The Inclusiveness Resource Team met on February 26, 1990 with about 16 people in attendance who are interested in inclusiveness and developed specific goals in that regard for 1992, 1995 and 2000. The meeting was facilitated by Rev. Wes Yamaka, General Board of Church and Society representative. The Inclusiveness Resource Team developed a working model for three workshops to be held in local churches to facilitate inclusiveness in 1992. These goals were later amended.

The Committee on Resolutions chaired by Rev. George Procter-Smith, continues their important work this year.

Workshops were held at Fall University in September 1990 by June McLaughlin on Environmental matters, by Rev. Wes Yamaka on the work of Church and Society as well as Servant Leadership, and by Susan Spruce on Reconciling Congregations.

The Board is planning two workshops at Fall University for 1992, again on environmental issues and also on inclusiveness in the local church. June McLaughlin chairs the committee handling this work.

The Peace With Justice Committee, chaired by Jeter Pruett, coordinated the Peace With Justice Journey through the conference, February 16-19, 1991. Rev. Carol Windrum and her husband, Tim Fickenscher, are traveling nationwide leading workshops and discussions on Peace With Justice issues. These were held in Waco at Austin Avenue United Methodist Church, in Fort Worth at Genesis United Methodist Church, with the United Methodist Women at First United Methodist Church, Cleburne, at the Wesley Foundation at Tarleton State University in Stephenville, and at Rising Star United Methodist Church.

The UNDC Trip for senior high youth went forward in 1990 and 11 students and three adult leaders participated. The 1991 trip, March 17-24, was led by Rev. Catherine Hix. Thirteen youth and two adult sponsors experienced Washington D.C. and New York City first hand. The topic for this year's seminar was the Arab-Israeli conflict. The youth heard speakers, met with legislative aides on Capitol Hill, and toured sights in both cities. These youth are now available to speak to churches and to groups about their experiences.

The Board has approved a program to be called Born Free/Stay Free, which is a drug abuse prevention program for children, youth and their parents. The Committee On Health and Welfare, chaired by Rev. Catherine Hix, will be in charge of implementing this program across the conference.

The Liaison Committee, chaired by Dottie Linn Cook, has done fine work in developing and maintaining lines of communication with local churches in the conference with the goal of educating local congregations on Church and Society issues.

A highlight of the year was the attendance of 10 representatives of the conference at a convocation of General Board of Church and Society in Albuquerque, New Mexico in February. Interesting and informative lectures, seminars and field trips were conducted on various social issues.

W. Edwin Youngblood, Chairperson

Proposed Programs:

1. Inclusiveness Resource Team
   Goal: To implement Inclusiveness Workshops at local churches, using a workshop model previously developed.
2. Fall University
   Goal: Information will help persons identify and address social issues
3. UN/DC Trip
   Goal: To develop youth leadership and help them understand global and national issues, and then become resources at local and district level
4. A program to be called Born Free/Stay Free to provide information and resources so that informed decisions may be made
   Goal: To have sessions providing opportunities for the exploration and experience of self-esteem, drug information, peer and medical pressures, values, decision making, parenting skills, and communication within the family

The Board approved the following resolution on Environmental Stewardship and recommends that it be presented for approval by the Annual Conference.

Whereas the United Methodist Church recognizes "the responsibility of the church toward life-style and systemic changes in society that will promote a more ecologically just world and a better quality of life for all creation," (The Book of Discipline 1988, paragraph 70); and

Whereas all environmental problems result from actions of people, and we, as Christians committed to the stewardship of God's creation, must take an active part in the protection and preservation of this planet; therefore, be it resolved:

1. That the Central Texas Conference support and encourage the efforts of governments, corporations and communities in recycling waste products and in reducing pollution of air, water and land;
2. That the Central Texas Conference promote practices that are ecologically sound and environmentally responsible, in all church-affiliated offices and at all church-related meetings and functions;
3. That the Central Texas Conference urge all local churches, through their pastors and Councils On Ministries (or Administrative Councils), to develop a year-round program to nurture the ecological awareness of their members and to foster life-styles of loving care of our natural resources;
4. That this resolution be read at each local church during the next conference year at a place and a time to be selected by the local church.

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

The Board of Discipleship has worked to provide many diverse opportunities to help vitalize congregations and develop faithful disciples. This has been done through Fall University, Stewardship Workshop and teacher training. An emphasis has been placed on age-level ministries such as the older adults, singles and youth. The Walk To Emmaus has continued to expand and now includes Chrysalis weekends for high school youth.

The Bishops' emphasis, Vital Congregations/Faithful Disciples, continues to be a guide for our work. Consequently, we rejoiced with the success of the International Gathering in Fort Worth, October 31-November 4, 1990. We deeply appreciate the work of our conference staff, Dr. Barry Bailey and the staff at First United Methodist Church, Fort Worth, and the hundreds of volunteers who enabled this event to take place. Dr. Tim Walker is chairperson of the Follow-up Committee and they have the support of the Board of Discipleship in their work.

Bishop Russell has, again, given tremendous support to the work of Glen Lake Camp. The camp, and the whole conference, is deeply indebted to him and the many others who have shown their love of camping and the camping ministry for children, youth and adults.

This fall we look forward to sharing again in the Harry Hosier Event. Dr. Luther Henry has accepted leadership for this, November 16, 1991 at Glen Lake Camp.

Claus H. Rohlfs, Jr., Chairperson

   B. To encourage individual as well as corporate Time Apart activities
   C. To encourage people with physically and mentally challenging conditions to make use of Glen Lake Camp

D. To encourage use of Glen Lake Camp facilities by non-United Methodist non-profit and school groups

The Camps and Assemblies Committee is happy to report a very successful year in the programming and operation of Glen Lake Camp. An outstanding summer program of resident and off-site camping provided spiritual, physical and mental development for the children and youth of the Central Texas Conference. We are blessed with excellent leadership in our permanent and summer staff as well as dedicated volunteers who serve as deans, assistant deans and counselors.

Glen Lake Camp has had marvelous cooperation from individuals and local churches. Because of the generous financial contributions from many people, our financial outlook has greatly improved. Money raised by the Bishop's Blue Ribbon Task Force and the Special April Offering allowed much needed repair to the sewers, swimming pool, cabins, and general use building. The loving support of individuals and local congregations has contributed electrical repair, cabin renovation and landscaping. The $55,000 matching challenge grant offered by First United Methodist Church, Fort Worth, was met, allowing the $110,000 operating deficit to be eliminated.

The master plan for development of Glen Lake Camp has been reviewed and plans are being made to ensure a bright future for the camp. The outdoor ministry of the camp offers unlimited possibilities for the children, youth and adults of Central Texas Conference.

Donna Paustian, Chairperson

GLEN LAKE UNITED METHODIST CAMP TRUSTEES

Your Glen Lake Camp has provided over 25,000 "individual user days" during the past year for persons participating in the summer camping program and for fall, winter and spring retreats, conferences, rallies and rustic camping settings and activities. Though used by persons of all ages and stages, the property's primary use continues to be dedicated to the physical, mental and spiritual development of girls and boys, young women and young men of our local churches and communities within our Central Texas Conference.

Many items of improvements and maintenance have been addressed as a result of the Conference's generous $46,000 response to the special Bishop's Appeal for Glen Lake in 1990, including: re-roofing and re-carpeting of central buildings, installation of air-conditioning/heating units in selected cabins, purchase of electrical supply and plumbing materials, a swimming pool pump, and much other needed equipment and supplies.

Two existing cabins were re-done though the "Adopt-A-Cabin Program", which is now "on hold" due to developing long range plans.

The Troy United Methodist Church is to be commended for a donation of labor and provision of equipment valued in excess of $25,000 for the "professional" installation of a complete new underground electrical utility supply system on the south side of the central camp properties.

Another sizeable contribution was given by Mrs. Cleon Gorbett of the Overton Park Church, Fort Worth, in providing extensive bulldozer clearance and excavation for roads and activity areas on the expansion properties.

The new Graham Lodge, provided through the generosity of the FUMC of Graham, has just recently been completed at a contract cost of $178,250, and is to be furnished with funds from this year's special offering for Glen Lake Camp.

An exciting Eagle's Wing program that fosters and encourages communication, trust, decision making and problem solving in effective interpersonal relationship for the moment and the future has been acquired and implemented and is ready for multi-age level use.

The remaining indebtedness on the Camp Expansion Properties presently stands at $48,113, and there are adequate plans for the near future retirement of this obligation.

A Glen Lake Camp Planning and Development Committee, chaired by Richard Millsap and receiving the generous assistance of Nick Kupferle and the Harris Hospital Health System, has been working diligently and has exciting and challenging dreams and plans for the days and years ahead.

W.C. Taylor, Jr., Chairperson/President

Committee On Devotional Life

Proposed Programs:

1. Walk To Emmaus
   Goal: To provide resources and setting for eight "Walks" which would inspire, motivate, train, equip, and support local church laity and clergy for their work in the church. Eight events would reach approximately 320 persons.
2. Chrysalis Weekends (youth version of "Walk To Emmaus")
   Goal: To provide setting and resources for two "Weekends", one male and one female, during 1992. Each event is designed to inspire, motivate, train, equip, and support local church youth for their current and future work in the church. Two events would reach approximately 50 youth.
3. Covenant Discipleship Groups
   Goal: To provide training for such groups within each of the districts of the Annual Conference. Particularly, as pastors and local church leaders become aware of CD groups they will be inspired to start one in their local church.
4. Marriage Enrichment Events
   Goal: To provide couples the opportunity to enrich their marriages through guided events such as "Celebrating Marriage," "Marriage Enrichment," and "Marriage Encounter."

The year 1990 had both its highs and lows for the Committee On Devotional Life. Again, the Walk To Emmaus proves to be a highly successful and motivating event for participants. Each event in 1990 had full registrations, though there were a few vacancies due to cancellations by participants at the last minute. Also, the Chrysalis Weekends proved to be highly successful for the youth. Both a men's and a women's Chrysalis Weekend had full participation.

Though we have reports that various Covenant Discipleship groups have sprung up within the conference, none have been as a direct result of the Committee On Devotional Life. A number of people have watched the videos available, and this had proven to be fairly successful in motivating persons to join a CD group. Perhaps the lack of not having a slot at Fall University hurt this in 1990. We plan to change that in 1991 and 1992.

Again, Marriage Enrichment event took place in 1990, but not as a result of the Committee On Devotional Life. These are somewhat difficult to organize and gain full participation. We are looking at a variety of options, but still with the goal of doing ME events within the Annual Conference.

The idea of spiritual discipline is not very appealing to many; therefore, the Committee On Devotional Life recognizes the difficulty of engaging people in a part of our work. However, we continue to remain committed to the cause of promotion of devotional and spiritual discipline within the bounds of the Central Texas Conference. Deepening our commitment to Christ and His Church is what we seek to do through our work.

George M. Sutton, Chairperson

Education and Leadership Development

Proposed Programs:

1. Courses at Fall University
   Goal: Provide training and information to help local church teachers and leaders do their jobs more effectively, willingly, and confidently
2. Task Force on Human Sexuality Education
   Goal: Help local churches provide their membership with quality education in human sexuality, by identifying, training, and certifying teachers who can be available to local churches; develop a laboratory training process for use in local churches; identify local churches' needs and resources.
3. Summer Laboratory Training School for Teachers
   Goal: Present a hands-on group training experience for teachers from local churches
4. Leadership Development Training Events Outside the Central Texas Annual Conference
   Goal: Make these opportunities available to our members
5. Specialized Activities For Various Interest Groups Within Our Conference
   Goal: Present activities for specific age and interest groups within our membership, including fellowship and personal-growth opportunities related to each group's unique needs

Legislative item: This committee recommends that the Annual Conference set September 6, 1992 as Christian Education Sunday.

The 1990 activities of this committee consisted mainly of the following:

1) Courses were presented at Fall University, providing training for church-school teachers and other local church workers. Overall attendance at these education-oriented courses continued to increase, as it has for the past several years. Each year this committee offers basic education courses but also offers help in specific aspects of teaching and leading, which vary from year to year.

2) Adults, youth and children from Brack's United Methodist Church, Waco and from First United Methodist Church, Killeen, were enabled to attend a Laboratory Training School for teachers, at Mount Sequoyah in July, 1990. The Laboratory Training School features hands-on learning in a group setting. In alternate years this committee sponsors a similar event within our own conference. The 1991 school will be held in Arlington.

3) Persons from our conference were enabled to attend training events outside our conference, including a meeting of the Christian Educators' Fellowship, in Milwaukee, and a nationwide singles event in Houston.

4) Activities for various age and interest groups were held within our conference. These included a Family Day at Glen Lake, an Older Adult Retreat at Glen Lake, and a Singles Event in Fort Worth. The Singles Event was led by Karen Greenwaldt of the General Board of Discipleship staff, a member of our conference.

5) A Task Force On Human Sexuality Education continued its work developing leaders and promoting a training process that can be made available to local churches within our conference.

Funds received on Christian Education Sunday, in addition to Annual Conference budgeted funds and fees paid by participants and their local churches, support these programs.

Barbara Wendland, Chairperson

Committee on Evangelism

Proposed Programs:

1. Congress on Evangelism

Goal: That our Annual Conference be represented at National Evangelism Gathering

2. Fall University Speaker
   Goal: To help train others in sharing their faith

The year of 1990 was a signature year for our Central Texas Conference in the area of evangelism. The Gathering was an international event of immense significance, not only for our own Annual Conference, but indeed for United Methodists everywhere. Our own Annual Conference Council On Ministries is to be commended for its work in making our sponsorship of this event a big success.

On account of The Gathering our conference work area on evangelism did not want to propose or host any event which would in any way detract from the November event. We did, however, accomplish some of the goals set forth by the committee for the year. First of all, we sponsored Dr. William J. Abraham, McCreless Professor of Evangelism at Perkins School of Theology, SMU, at the Fall University. Second, we continue to work at developing resources for the Annual Conference in the area of evangelistic preaching and of music. The work is still underway. The Harry Denman Evangelism Award designed to honor pastors and lay persons who have done outstanding work in evangelism will be instituted in our conference for 1992. Such an award will be made annually at Annual Conference, and in conjunction with the Foundation for Evangelism.

Vaughn W. Baker, Chairperson

Committee On Stewardship

Proposed Program:

1. Fall University Family Financial Planning
   Goal: Enable Christian people to structure their lives based on stewardship and tithing

The highlight of the year was Dr. Hilbert Berger's Stewardship lectures at the Bishop/Cabinet Pastor's Retreat in Fort Worth in May 1990 and later at Fall University at Hillsboro in September 1990.

Evaluations of both events indicated that these were most helpful. Many pastors stated that the Fort Worth event was the "best" continuing education activity they had attended.

Jack Riley, Chairperson

Committee On Worship

Proposed Programs:

1. Conference-wide Choir Workshop
   Goal: To provide a one day choir workshop to involve the music leadership and choir members of congregations in the Central Texas Conference
2. Fall University
   Goal: To provide up to six seminars for the 1992 Fall University, with Rev. Rosemary Brown as seminar leader and preacher. Rev. Brown is a pastor in the Nashville area and a frequent speaker/preacher at annual conference events throughout the nation. Three other seminars will also be offered.
3. Conference Participation in the Jurisdictional Gathering of "The Fellowship Of United Methodists In Worship, Music and Other Arts"
   Goal: To provide financial assistance for two persons from the Committee On Worship to attend the event. Those who attend are expected to communicate learning and to be available as resource persons for local church, district and conference training events
4. Training In the Use Of The United Methodist Book Of Worship
   Goal: To provide Nashville supported training in the use of The United Methodist Book Of Worship for clergy and laity of our conference
5. Youth Choir Rally

Goal: To provide an annual two day event when youth from the congregations of the Central Texas Conference can come together to:

1. Rehearse new and popular musical selections for youth with a gifted clinician
2. Fellowship with other youth and adults committed to the music ministry of youth
3. Present the rehearsed selections in a worship setting

6. Financial Assistance For the Children's Choir Festival
Goal: To provide limited financial assistance to enable The Central Texas Chapter of Chorister's Guild to continue an annual Children's Choir Festival within the central Texas area
7. Meeting Expense For Committee On Worship
Goal: To meet as a whole committee once during 1992, with task groups meeting as needed to plan and evaluate events conference travel) $250

During 1990-91, the Committee on Worship has accomplished the following:

1. We offered our first Conference Choir Workshop on April 28, with Jane Marshall as clinician. Sonny Walden served as the main coordinator of the event. The more than 200 persons who registered for the workshop also sang eight selections as a mass choir at the opening worship service of the 1990 Central Texas Annual Conference in Waco. Those who served as directors included Sonny Walden, Chuck Gee and Judy Holloway.
2. We offered eight courses focusing on worship at the 1990 Fall University. There were courses on the baptism and marriage services, singing the Psalms, service music, storytelling, educators and the hymnal, and two courses on worship visuals.
3. During February, 1990, a team of leaders trained in the use of The United Methodist Hymnal, lead a series of workshops throughout our conference. Clergy, educators, and musicians who served on the leadership teams included Jim Olney, Homer Kluck, Frankie Adams, Judy Stafford, Chuck Gee, and Judy Holloway.
4. Planning for an April 26-27 Youth Choir Rally was set in motion. The rally will be held in Stephenville, utilizing the facilities of Tarleton State University and First United Methodist Church, Stephenville. Jane McGuyer is serving as coordinator.
5. We will send Jim Olney, chair of the Committee On Worship, to participate in Proclamation '91. The national event will be held April 15-19, 1991, in Nashville.

James R. Olney, Chairperson

Conference Council On Youth Ministry

Proposed Programs:

1. CCYM Training and Growth
Goal: To nurture Christian growth and leadership development within the CCYM through training, spiritual development and service
2. CCYM Availability to Local Churches
Goal: CCYM members will be prepared and available to present programs for local churches
3. Total Youth Ministry Programming Within the Annual Conference
Goal: To promote cooperation and coordination among the groups and administrative levels addressing various needs of youth
4. On-going programs such as Mid-Winter Retreats, Spiritual Life Retreat, Summer Event, Six Flags, Wet n' Wild, Fall University, Youth News and Views Goal: To continue all on-going programs, evaluating and adapting them each year and emphasizing within them the goals of the Jurisdictional Youth Ministry Organization as well as the National Youth Ministry Organizations' actions and the current priority, "Quieting the Storm - Youth In Crisis"

5. Fall University Youth Division
   Goal: To sponsor Fall University classes that will address the needs and concerns of youth and adults within our local churches, enabling them to better engage in youth ministry
6. United Methodist Youth Events Beyond the Annual Conference
   Goal: To promote attendance and participation in United Methodist youth events beyond the Annual Conference by channeling information to local churches and by working to coordinate or help with transportation and finances
7. Youth Service Fund Participation
   Goal: To increase local church awareness of and giving to Youth Service Fund through publicity, programs of stewardship education, personal contact and by setting fair share giving goals for the youth of each church
8. Minority Participation
   Goal: To have at least ten minority youth and adults serving on CCYM, and to increase minority participation in district and conference events until inclusiveness becomes such a natural part of our church life that this goal is no longer needed
9. Evangelism and Christian Wholeness
   Goal: To sponsor events which intentionally emphasize the joy and positive values of Christianity as the alternative to a cynical and hopeless approach to life
10. Junior High Event
    Goal: To sponsor a major junior high event in 1992 with junior high involvement in the planning process in order to promote leadership and to address junior high needs
11. Conference Youth Music Group/Choir
    Goal: To sponsor a Central Texas Conference traveling youth choir/musical group to promote music, evangelism and stewardship (especially Youth Service Fund) among youth
12. Youth Annual Conference
    Goal: To design and complete work toward establishing a Youth Annual Conference

The Conference Council On Youth Ministry plans and produces conference youth events and ministry to present the gospel of Jesus Christ in various ways so that youth of all ages and interests may live out the gospel message. 1990 was a busy and productive year for the CCYM. Two of our members served as representatives on the Jurisdictional Youth Team. The Central Texas Conference sent several youth and young adult representatives to Exploration '90. Those representatives included two current CCYM members. Members of the CCYM also participated in Chrysalis, International Christian Youth Conference and the UN/DC trip. The CCYM sent a Central Texas Conference group to the Jurisdiction's Spiritual Life Rally.

Youth Service Fund and part of the youth budget money paid for the production of Godspell, which was an exciting experience for the Central Texas Conference youth who participated in the musical as well as for those who enjoyed the production at the Spiritual Life Rally. Youth giving through YSF also provided camperships for senior high, junior high and junior high leadership camps and extra funding for projects selected by the National Youth Ministry Organization.

CCYM members gave of themselves at Glen Lake by erecting a cross at Vesper Point and serving as the work mission crew during one week of summer camp. Several CCYM members also served as Counselor In Training at elementary camps.

This year, in order to establish strong ties between the youth of our conference and the youth of the Rio Grande Conference, I attended and became a representative from the Central Texas Conference to the Rio Grande Conference. The Rio Grande Conference now has two youth representatives on our CCYM.

The regular series of conference youth events, from Mid-winter retreats to the Youth Division of Fall University, received overwhelmingly positive evaluations from participants. CCYM members led youth officer sessions at three district training events in 1990 and three in 1991. The CCYM continues to publish a newspaper entitled Youth News and Views which is now mailed directly to the homes of youth as well as to local churches and youth leaders. Over 1,000 people took advantage of our special discount tickets to Wet 'n Wild.

The Council has moved toward better racial balance within its active membership and looks forward to increased opportunities for work together in the church as God's children. CCYM continues to work to increase Youth Service Fund giving and to keep participant fees for events as low as possible in the face of high costs for food, lodging, materials, resource people, and transportation.

   Goal: Remember and celebrate the ministry of African-American United Methodists in Texas

BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

The training event for the District Secretaries of Global Ministries was held at Harris Hospital this year and included a tour of some of the departments. The full Board had two meetings, one in September at St. Mark United Methodist Church in Cleburne and the January meeting at Westcliff United Methodist Church in Fort Worth. The Board has continued to participate in the Cooperative School of Christian Missions. Courses at Fall University were sponsored by the Health and Welfare Committee and the City, Town and Country Committee. We have a new standing committee that was added to our Board by the action of ACCOM. It is the Committee On Shared Facilities. Each committee is working to expand it's ministry within the conference and globally where appropriate. These new programs are in the reports of the separate committees.

Dale Smith, Chairperson

Committee On Aging

Proposed Programs:

1. Committee On Aging Fall Retreat
   Goal: To establish a means for the sharing of insight, spiritual journey and organization needs for senior adults
2. Fall University Pre-Retirement Seminar
   Goal: To provide valuable insight and guidance to people who need to develop a plan for their advancing years
3. Committee On Aging Spring Retreat
   Goal: To establish a means for the sharing of insight, spiritual journey and organization needs for senior adults

The Conference Committee On Aging has spent its energy in separate arenas during 1990. (1) Spring retreat of senior adults during April 1990; (2) Developing methods of coordination with the older adult coordinator with the Board of Discipleship; (3) Identifying opportunities for training workers in older adult ministries.

Bob E. Messer, Chairperson

Committee On City, Town and Country

Proposed Programs:

1. Have conversations with the Annual Conference Board of Discipleship about the coordination of efforts in small membership churches
   Goal: The establishment of a committee to coordinate the efforts of both boards on behalf of small membership churches
2. Continue meetings between extended Cabinet and leaders of Town and Country churches Goal: Hold another meeting with leaders of our smallest congregations
3. Continue offering Disciple Bible study for Town and Country churches
   Goal: See to it that every district is enrolled to form the needed cluster to bring this study to even the smallest of our churches who would like to have it
4. Establish personal contact between this committee and the ministers and lay leadership of Town and Country churches to discover local needs and to strengthen and encourage their ministries
   Goal: To develop two-way communication between ourselves and these churches so that our programs may be responsive to real needs
5. Expand offerings of Rural Ministry courses at Fall University Goal: To offer additional training geared specifically to the needs of Town and Country churches
6. Continue to research possibilities for establishing permanent training and/or a resource center for small membership churches in order to support the Board of Diaconal Ministry's Models For Ministry Project.
   Goal: To see whether it might be practical to establish such training and/or a resource center - perhaps mobile - specifically for such congregations

During 1990 our committee had two particular goals:

First, we had hoped to develop a method of communication, preferably a newsletter, specifically for Town and Country congregations, in order to facilitate a fruitful exchange of ideas and encouragement. This was to be our biggest disappointment of the year. Being limited to the United Methodist Reporter, we soon discovered that the editor seldom had space which could be devoted to our interests and that, even had space been available, very few persons in our target audience receive the paper at all.

The report on our other goal is a great deal more encouraging. Our committee began the year by looking for a way to present some new and exciting training opportunities for Town and Country leaders. This was brought to fruition and our enthusiasm multiplied with the success of courses which we sponsored at Fall University.

These courses, which were offered by the Department of Rural Sociology at Texas A & M University, were uniformly lauded by all who participated in them. Each one was an abbreviated course from University's Rural Social Science by Extension course. Response has been so overwhelmingly positive, it is now our intention to expand those offerings in 1991.

Ken Shultz, Chairperson

Committee On Education and the Advance

Proposed Programs:

1. Encourage subscription to the United Methodist Reporter as a mission education tool by putting an issue of the paper in the hands of each person worshiping in the local churches of our conference on one Sunday. This paper will have a subscription blank with it so that those interested might sign up at that time. This program will be done in cooperation with the Committee on Communication and Interpretation.
   Goal: Increase subscriber rate of the United Methodist Reporter by 5%
2. Increase local churches' covenant connection relationships with missionaries.
   Goal: Increase covenant connection relationships with conference-sponsored missionaries by 25% using the formula of $3 per member for local churches of 333 membership or less, or $1000 per year for churches over 333 membership

3. Endorse a conference wide volunteers-in-mission project (preferably within the South Central Jurisdiction or Northern Mexico - involving youth and adults).
   Goal: Increase mission awareness and participation by organizing a work/evangelical project using lay and clergy people from this conference.
4. Continue support of the Cooperative School Of Christian Mission
   Goal: Increase attendance and encourage more inclusive participation by offering CEU credits for clergy attending the school, advanced lay speaker credit, and to target participation by men as part of the publicity. The goal of the school is to increase mission awareness and understanding through education.
5. To continue promotion of Advance Specials and seek an increase in financial support Goal: 100% participation by local churches in advance special giving
6. Increased giving to World Hunger Advance Special and One Great Hour of Sharing Offering Goal: Give one cent per member of the annual conference to UMCOR's world hunger advance special and have 100% participation by local churches in One Great Hour Of Sharing offering
7. Training for district leaders of missions in the various programs and committees of the Board Of Global Ministries Goal: To hold a training event for the district secretaries and district mission coordinators so that each district has one or more trained persons who can interpret the mission programs and opportunities offered by the United Methodist Church and our conference.
8. Refugee resettlement
   Goal: Resettle one refugee family per district with the chairperson of this committee acting as a liaison to the districts
9. Each district hold a mission saturation event
   Goal: Same as program
10. Sponsor three courses related to the goals of this committee at Fall University
    Goal: Same as program

We had 8 goals set by this committee to accomplish during 1990. The following was done in support of these goals:

1. Of the goal to resettle five refugee families within our conference, we did have two families resettled - one in the Waco district and one in the Fort Worth West district. Two of the other districts are looking into the possibility of resettling a family.

2. Support was continued of the School Of Christian Mission and while the overall attendance remained about the same, there was an increase in participation by men and clergy.

3. Advance Special giving (minus World Hunger, UMCOR and One Great Hour of Sharing) was up 7% over 1989. Giving to the World Hunger Advance was up 35% over 1980; UMCOR giving was down 113%; and giving to One Great Hour Of Sharing was up 15.5% over 1989.

4. Full connection relationships to missionaries increased to 84 covenants in 1990.

5. A training event for district secretaries was attended by 6 of the 7 secretaries in 1990.

The following goals fell short of our expectations:

1. Participation in volunteer-in-mission projects was not as high as this committee would like to see. There was only one request for funding of projects by the local churches in our conference. This committee would like to see more publicity in this area. We hope that a trip to the Philippines at the end of 1991 will also spur more participation in hands-on mission projects.

2. A Spring Mission Awareness Tour was not held in 1990, however, a fall tour was successfully completed. Because of the lack of participation by a sufficient amount of people on these tours, they will not be held in 1991 or 1992.

3. Only one of the seven districts held a district-wide mission event in 1990. We are hoping that the conference-wide mission saturation event in the fall of 1991 will result in district-wide events held yearly.

We are greatly looking forward to "Mission Alive!", the conference-wide mission saturation event in 1991 and feel that this will greatly enhance our ability to increase mission understanding and participation in the Central Texas Conference.

Committee On Health and Welfare

Proposed Programs:

1. Membership in and attendance at the National Association of Methodist Health and Welfare Ministries Annual Conference
   Goal: To assist our conference institutions with ideas from other places
2. Annual Conference Health and Welfare luncheon
   Goal: To provide for an extended session of Annual Conference during the noon hour so that conference institutions can inform the conference members of their ministries and their needs
3. Financial contribution for stipends for two persons to receive Clinical Pastoral Education
   Goal: To provide scholarship stipends for two persons to receive Clinical Pastoral Education
4. Promote ministries to the persons and their families with disabling conditions (which includes health impaired, physically disabled, mentally and emotionally disabled, deaf, and blind) to promote that the United Methodist Church seeks to be inclusive of these persons, enabling them to use their talents and abilities as full participants in the Body of Christ.
   Goal: 1) Establish a subcommittee on ministries to persons and their families with disabling conditions of which the membership will include persons representing the conference's seven districts; 2) Provide interpreters for hearing impaired and deaf at Annual Conference worship services; 3) Sponsor a seminar/course on developing ministries with persons having disabling conditions; 4) Provide information on available accessibility (to include accessibility for physically and hearing disabled) at district and conference events through all conference publicity; 5) Establish a linking relationship with AIDS Interfaith Network, Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns, and Inclusive Leadership Committees with regard to overlapping interests and ministries.

The Conference Committee On Health and Welfare, comprised of representatives from each of the Central Texas Conference districts, has completed a year of orientation as to the role and responsibility of membership on this committee. Additionally, the membership has participated as members of the conference Health and Welfare Institutions' Board of Directors. Chairperson, Joan Gaspard, served as a member of the Chaplaincy Committee of Harris Methodist Hospital, Fort Worth. Members attended the Annual Convention of the National Association Of Health and Welfare Ministries in Miami, Florida. The Health and Welfare Committee sponsored a course at Fall University entitled "Developing Ministries With Persons With Disabling Conditions" with presenters from the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church. Bishop John and Mary Jean Russell, Reverend Larry and Patty Grubb, Mr. Henry and Janice Kasten, Ms. Bliss Dodd, and Miss Joan Gaspard represented Central Texas Conference. Dr. LaVerle and Wendy Carrington, Central Illinois Conference and Reverend Earl Miller, Rocky Mountain Conference were additional presenters. At the conclusion of the two Fall University courses, the presenters and the attendees determined, as suggested in the 1988 Discipline, that "There . . . be a committee on Ministry to Persons With Handicapping Conditions in each Annual Conference with such members and responsibilities as the Annual Conference may determine."

Health and Welfare Committee members participated as leaders for district training sessions in the spring. Training involved an awareness of conference Health and Welfare institutions and their ministries. Additionally, training was given on developing ministries with disabled persons. The committee began emphasis on stressing being a part of the conference's inclusiveness movement.

The Health and Welfare Committee sponsored an extended session of Annual Conference, in June during the noon hour, for the purpose of conference members receiving continued awareness of the Health and Welfare Ministries/Institutions and their ministries. These institutions provided for the luncheon and had representatives present reports on their respective ministries and needs.

HARRIS METHODIST HEALTH SYSTEM

Report No. 1
Message of The Chairman and President

The Harris Methodist Health System has completed another year of significant growth and service to the community. For the first time, System-wide inpatient admissions exceeded 50,000 and outpatient and emergency room visits totalled nearly 200,000. Membership in the Harris Methodist Health Plan grew to an impressive 38 percent.

The System continues to enhance or add services. Some of the changes during 1990 include enhancements to cancer treatment capabilities, extension of psychiatric and addiction treatment services, upgrading obstetrics, and addition of new offices for physicians. Also, the System entered into a partnership arrangement with Somervell County. The County purchased the facilities at Harris Methodist Glen Rose and is considering developing a replacement facility. Harris Methodist is managing the facility under an operating agreement.

Future management efforts will focus on continuous quality improvement, providing measurable value to our patients, and enhancing communication with local leaders and the community concerning health issues. The pieces of these evolving efforts are in place in the forms of the B. E. S. T. of Harris Methodist program, the Stakeholder Relations and Outreach programs, and in the Office of Church Relations. We believe these efforts will transform the way Harris Methodist operates and how the System and its affiliates relate to the community.

The System's performance over the past several years has placed it in the leadership position for the decade of the 1990's. As in the past, this will demand a combination of vision and business planning. Thorough implementation of plans will require a staff dedicated to providing excellent care and service to our patients, medical staffs and the business community. We are confident the Harris Methodist Health System's dedication and responsiveness will continue to be an asset to the community in the years to come.

Report No. 2
A Growing System

In 1982, the Central Texas Annual Conference adopted the proposed incorporation plan and an organizational structure was established. This was the creation of the Harris Methodist Health System.

During the past eight years, the System has continued to grow and develop based on community health care needs.

The Harris Methodist Health System has evolved into the largest fully integrated health care organization in the North Central Texas region with an extended service area spanning 41 counties. The Harris Methodist Health System includes eight acute care hospitals, two mental health facilities, Harris Continued Care Hospital, the Harris Methodist Health Plan (HMO), two modern fitness centers and a wide range of services. These services include diagnostics, emergency and trauma care, hospital inpatient care, outpatient services, long-term care, rehabilitation, home health care, cardiac care, cancer treatment, organ transplants, women's services, and air ambulance service.

While many of the aspirations of the original planners of the System have been realized, Harris Methodist continues to evolve as health care needs change and knowledge in the health care field advances. Along with these changes come new areas of emphasis including a focus on customer service, continuous quality improvement, and delivery of measurable value.

Hospitals in The Harris Methodist Health System interact closely with the communities they serve and contribute to the overall quality of life.

Member units of The Harris Methodist Health System are:

Harris Continued Care Hospital
Harris Methodist Erath County, Stephenville
Harris Methodist Fort Worth
Harris Methodist Glen Rose
Harris Manor, Glen Rose
Harris Methodist Health Plan
Harris Methodist HEB
Harris Methodist Mexia
Harris Methodist Northwest
Harris Methodist Southwest
Harris Methodist Springwood (HEB)
Harris Methodist Westview, Weatherford

Specialized Medical Management, Inc.
Walls Regional Hospital, Cleburne

Report No. 3
New Facilities and Services

Four new facilities and services were created in 1990.

The Edwards Cancer Center: This new facility at Harris Methodist HEB, began treating cancer patients in the spring of 1990. It brings radiation therapy services into northeast Tarrant County for the first time and enables Harris Methodist HEB to offer a full range of cancer services on its campus. Radiation is provided by a dual-energy radiotherapy accelerator. Brachytherapy, a process which involves placing a catheter into the body and sending radiation directly to a localized area, is also offered. In addition to providing radiation therapy, the Center will offer educational and resource areas for support groups to provide information about cancer, its causes, its treatment and ways to minimize risks in acquiring the disease.

Doris Kupferle Breast Cancer Center: Harris Methodist Fort worth opened the Doris Kupferle Breast Cancer Center in the fall of 1990. This state-of-the-art center was dedicated in memory of Doris Kupferle, a lifetime resident of Fort Worth and a dedicated member of the Harris Methodist Fort Worth Auxiliary, and wife of Dr. N. H. Kupferle of our Central Texas Conference. This unique center has everything needed for diagnosis, treatment and rehabilitation of breast diseases. It features the latest technology, a full-time radiologist who specializes in mammography, a nursing staff trained and experienced in helping patients with the medical, emotional and psychological aspects of breast diseases. Rehabilitation services, exercise programs and support groups are provided The Center also has a strong commitment to focus on education awareness and early detection of breast diseases.

Breast Centers will be opened in all the System hospitals, beginning with Harris Methodist HEB and each will be named "The Doris Kupferle Breast Center." With one out of nine women developing this disease, these facilities will become ever more important in saving human lives.

Harris Methodist Springwood: Construction began on the campus of Harris Methodist HEB during the summer of 1990 for the new Harris Methodist Springwood. This is a replacement facility for an established and well recognized psychiatric and addiction treatment center. Harris Methodist Springwood emphasizes individualized care and offers a full spectrum of programs for adults and adolescents. Its new building was designed to accommodate established and emerging forms of care including inpatient, partial hospitalization and outpatient care.

Harris Methodist Westview: Psychiatric and addition treatment services have been extended into Parker County with the opening of Harris Methodist Westview. This new 24 bed facility, located in Weatherford, began receiving patients in December, 1990. A staff of professionals develops individually designed programs to ensure that each patient receives the care needed to foster positive change and return as quickly as possible to family, school or workplace.

Report No. 4
Church Relations

System Reinforces Ties with United Methodist Church: Providing excellent health care to others with Christian compassion and love has been a mutual concern of the Harris Methodist operation and the United Methodist Church since the founding of the original Harris Hospital-Methodist in Fort Worth 60 years ago. The formation of the Harris Methodist Health System in 1982 broadened this mission. Hospital facilities, capabilities and number of patients have all increased dramatically since 1982. This increasing activity added to the desire to establish a closer relationship between the United Methodist Church and a growing Harris Methodist Health System, resulting in the creation of the Office of Church Relations in 1990.

The Office of Church Relations serves as an outreach of love and service to all the districts and churches in the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church. The purpose of the office is to strengthen the bonds of mutual service and spiritual commitment between the church and the health care System. Major interactions of the Office of Church Relations with the church include preaching from the pulpit, relating the System's health care mission to Christian principles, and working closely with individual churches to assist them in fund raising and development projects.

Charity Care

Joint Effort of Health System and United Methodist Church: An ongoing cooperative effort between Harris Methodist Health System and the United Methodist Church is the Golden Cross charity care program. Golden Cross is celebrated once a year when United Methodist churches observe Golden Cross Sunday. Contributions from the congregations on that day help provide health care to needy people throughout the north central Texas region.

Charity and Indigent Care is Significant: Although the Golden Cross program has reached out to provide medical assistance to many people of all ages, the Harris Methodist Health System extends its healing arm to many others in need. In some situations, health care is provided to those who are uninsured. Services also are provided to the elderly under the Medicare/Medicaid program. Typically, Medicare/Medicaid does not pay for the total cost of hospital care because of government restrictions. This is the driving force behind cost shifting, which is the shifting of some unreimbursed costs to patients who can pay in order to reduce unrecovered costs from those unwilling or unable to pay in full for care. Even with cost shifting, Harris Methodist Health System has provided over $39 million in charity care during the past three years.

Report No. 5
The Chaplaincy Program

The chaplains of Harris Methodist Health System represent the mission statement of the Health System by providing pastoral care to patients, their families, and the hospital staffs. During the past year, they have embodied the Church in the many thousands of visits made to people in crisis. Their ministry is of the same high quality that is present in the many other professional services of the hospitals.

The Clinical Pastoral Education Residency Program is a key ingredient of the service provided by the chaplains. Men and women preparing for the ministry are closely supervised in the actual activities of their ministry. Through this intensive process of performance, reflection, and evaluation, they are enabled to mature both professionally and personally.

This program of professional education for ministry has continued to be blessed by the strong support of the Boards of Trustees, the hospital administrations, the medical/nursing staffs, the members of the Central Texas Conference, and the community at large. It is an essential part of all our chaplaincy services to the citizens of North Central Texas.

We also wish to thank all of those clergy who serve our Methodist affiliated hospitals by participating in their volunteer chaplaincy programs. They have provided their time and energy to minister in emergency situations referred by the hospital staffs. By their self-giving efforts, they contribute greatly to the quality of care we desire to offer.

METHODIST HOME

Report No. 1

> "The Methodist Home is truly a special place steeped in its abiding love for children. My prayer is, as you move into your second century, you will go on seeking the best possible way to express that love by helping the children in your care find the best in themselves so that more and more children can open up their hearts and let the 'Sun Shine In'". Barbara Bush

From the moment in April, when over 500 former students returned to the campus for the Centennial Homecoming weekend, bringing with them a special gift for the permanent fund in the amount of $170,008; to the months of May and June during the annual conference sessions when each of the seven annual conferences the United Methodist Church in Texas and New Mexico accorded Methodist Home special recognition through the premiering of the centennial video 'Sunshine Family'; and to the gathering of over 1500 students, staff and Methodist Home friends, including First Lady Barbara Bush, for the Methodist Home Centennial Banquet in Waco--this has been an awesome time for all of us at Methodist Home.

The saga of the ministry of Methodist Home has been one of providing sacramental shelter for children, youth and families for over 100 years--with some 400 children currently in care. From Dr. W. H. Vaughan, who was the first employee of the Methodist Home, to Tim McGonile who is the most recently hired person at the Methodist Home, there have been countless care providers who have shared love and care in this safe haven for children. From David Harrison, who knocked on Dr. Vaughan's door in April, 1894, to Amy Cornelison who is the most recent resident of the Methodist Home, there have been over 10,000 children and youth who have been recipients of this love and care.

The early caretakers provided food, clothing and shelter, and that was enough to make them efficient care-givers. In today's work at the Methodist Home the care providers need much greater skills in many areas and it takes all the staff working together to provide a quality ministry. From the maintenance crew that works to keep our grounds beautiful in order to provide a therapeutic physical plant, to the skills of the home-parents who are on the firing line 24 hours a day, to the skills of psychologists and social workers who help a youngster understand what has happened to him does not have to be a stumbling block in his development, but a stepping stone; to the administrators who manage staff and a budget. Everyone has a valuable contribution to this ministry. Our staff today represents persons with over 843 years of higher education. Our care providers are well-trained and equipped for their profession.

However, Methodist Home would not have survived for 100 years had it been only for the care providers. Many of you and your forbearers, and the annual conference, have seen children and families in trouble and have called on the Methodist Home. Without your referrals, our ministry would be impossible. Your contributions, and the contributions of a host of people, have made the ministry of the Methodist Home possible for over 100 years. Just remember that our needs continue to grow faster than the income from the many sources of revenue. Only serious attention to current endowment giving will help us to continue this sacramental ministry. It is a blessed and successful combination of persons who find those in need of ministry, and provide funds for this ministry, that enables Methodist Home to be the care providers in the day-to-day care, love, and healing for God's children, youth and families. We must gain a renewed sense of blessing and purpose and respond, as did the early Methodists, to God's call and blessing. We need to realize anew their feelings when they wrote, "whereas we believe it meet and right that we show our gratitude to God by suitable material offering, and whereas practical religion cares for the helpless, the poor and the orphan."

Our long-range planning process helps us assure Methodist Home will continue to provide excellent child care programs and have suitable financial resources. Methodist Home has a documented history of excellence that has placed it in the highest echelon of services to children. We come from a great heritage. Of greater importance is the heritage that we're developing today. We continue to uphold our traditional services by constantly reshaping and enhancing what we do and how we do it. We act today and prepare for tomorrow. We are in partnership with many systems and persons, yet at the same time, we strive at being independent enough from external pressures to be creative and responsive. We're committed to examining innovative services in response to emerging needs, societal changes, in trends and services to children, youth and families. The long range plan emphasizes the growth of our programs in accordance with our financial resources and potential. This is a very ambitious undertaking, but Methodist Home is committed to making it a reality. With our heritage, we can do nothing less. Let us continue with the sacramental ministry of the United Methodist Church that has come to be known as the Methodist Home. Let us march into the second century helping hurting children and troubled families.

METHODIST MISSION HOME

As the Mission Home enters its 96th year of service to those with special needs, I want to thank the Central Texas Conference for your continued support in this vital ministry through your offerings, as well as by providing quality board members and referring clients...

Two important events have happened this past year:

1. The completion of the refurbishing of a building for our Traumatic Brain Injury Program, called Southwest Center for Community Re-Entry. The building provides classrooms, offices and living quarters for 16 clients, our desired maximum residential load for this ministry. For information, call the director, Martha Slaughter at 512/699-3311.
2. An ecumenical ministry for maternity and adoption services in Lufkin, Texas, called the Adoption Center of East Texas in cooperation with St. Cypriates Episcopal Church. The Mission Home's part-time field worker, Cathy Pavlic, has become the full-time director of this expanded ministry.

Maternity and adoption services continue through the Southwest Maternity Center, with 76 young women, 62 babies, and 380 adoptive parents being served in 1990. Adoptive parents now have the opportunity for a more active role in the adoptive process, as do birthparents, through our optional fully disclosed procedure. For adoptive or maternity information call 1-800-VIA-LIFE (1-800-842-5433).

The Southwest Center for the Hearing Impaired, now in its 17th year, has served persons from 43 states and 2 foreign countries. In 1990, they served 153 persons, and placed 45 of them in competitive employment during that time. If you know a deaf young adult who needs help toward independent living, call the director, Doug Dittfurth at 512/699-3311.

I thank the Central Texas Conference for the trustees that serve on the Board of Directors, and special thanks to Dr. Norman Ellis, who will be rotating off of the board this year...Board members listed below:

Dr. Norman D. Ellis
Dr. Ben Feemster
Joan Gaspard
Dr. Don Pike
Bishop John W. Russell

Thanks for the generous support that was given in 1990. Of the $300,701 given by our seven related annual conferences, the Central Texas Conference gave $34,763 in 1990, an increase over the $31,260 given in 1989. THANKS SO MUCH! Please send church funds through your Conference Treasurer for proper church credit!

The Board of Directors, Dr. Jack Hooper, Chairman, is currently conducting a study to determine the scope of a possible capital funds campaign among individuals during 1992, which would provide badly needed endowment as well as physical facilities. For more information about this, contact Larry Watson, Vice President for Development.

The 80 employees of the Mission Home strive to use our $2.7 million in annual budget revenue in an effective and caring way to help meet the special needs of nearly 1000 persons who come our way each year.

WESLEYAN HOMES, INC.

Report No. 1

"The graying of America will pit the young against the old in a fierce intergenerational competition for limited economic resources." This statement is being made in many books , articles, and political forums. The rapid growth of the elderly population is provoking serious thought as to how the medical, housing, and income needs of the rapidly growing elderly population will be met in the coming years and decades. A popular doctrine echoed from the pulpit and political lectern is that our hope for the future is in our children. This is accepted and is true to a point. Our nation's, our society's, and our church's hope for the future, indeed our only hope is in Jesus Christ and how His message of salvation can be taught to our children and future generations. The elderly, those whose walk with the Lord has been the longest, are our best hope to be authentic believable witnesses of God's faithfulness to our children. The future for our children cannot seem very bright when that future, their own old age, is not valued and respected and upheld as the great opportunity of continued growth in faith, love and dependence on the Lord. Instead of competition and conflict, we need to recognize the essential mutual interdependence between generations on which our church's health and our society's moral values must be built.

While the issues and answers are complex, the problem can be simply stated. More people are living longer and are surviving into extreme old age. At the same time, the birth rate has declined so that the older population is not only growing, but is growing by leaps and bounds in relation to the younger population. Hence the knotty problem, more older people will be receiving medicare, social security, and benefits/entitlements while relatively fewer persons will be in the work force. Fewer will pay into the "system" for the greater amount that the elderly and the children will need from the "system."

Many pastors have noted the greater number of older persons in their congregations than in years past. Yet, the greatest growth in the elderly population will be in the years to come. Those Americans, age 65 and over, currently comprise 12 percent of the country's population. By the year 2030, the 65 plus age group will have increased two and a half times and will make up over 21 percent of the U.S. population. In the light of this geometric growth in numbers, it is especially chilling to note that the U.S. Bureau of the Census estimates that 21.2 percent of all Texans, 65 and over, are living below the poverty level. Many more would be considered impoverished by most people's consideration of what a comfortable retirement income would be.

What does this say about the future of Wesleyan Homes and the ministry to the elderly of the Central Texas Conference? Three things are apparent:

1. The need for Benevolent Assistance to the elderly will continue to increase. Wesleyan Homes is dedicated to providing Benevolent assistance to elderly persons in need. However, this high ideal can only be pursued to the extent that funds are available. At present the available funds are small and only produce enough income to help a few persons each year. Monies received from the Mother's Day Offering and gifts so designated are applied to this fund.

2. As the elderly population grows the need for additional facilities to serve elderly persons will also increase. Wesleyan Homes continues to lay the ground work toward building facilities in the Tarrant County area. The key to the success of this expansion lies in raising sufficient funds to keep indebtedness at a reasonable level. The success of our fund raising efforts will have a direct effect on the affordability of these new facilities.

3. Wesleyan Homes ministry in providing charitable care for persons of limited resources and enabling our elderly to enjoy the fullness of life and Christian Experience in their later years depends upon local involvement and support. The best facilities and clinical care are only one foundation of a ministry to the elderly. Church involvement and local Volunteers provide the love, the activities, and the opportunities for Christian growth that transform an institution into a home and services into a ministry.

Wesleyan Homes can only expand into an area where the local church members are willing to give their time, talents, prayers, and gifts. We need to hear from those who share this vision.

The Board of Trustees of Wesleyan Homes, Inc. thank the Central Texas Conference for their support and pledge their own commitment to this vital ministry of our Conference.

1990 has been a year of commitment to purpose by the Urban Ministries Committee. In addition to carrying out our annual funding and evaluation responsibilities, the committee has made two major commitments to service to the Annual Conference. The development of a strategic plan for urban work in the conference has been initiated to be presented for adoption at the 1992 Annual Conference. Secondly, the development of a course to be presented at the 1992 Fall University dealing with urban work is underway.

All of the agencies supported by the Annual Conference are in good shape leadership-wise, and improving financially. Emerging ministry seems to be the future of the work of our committee. Increased funding and volunteer support are essential to the vitality of the ministry agencies we support now, and any new ones that may be developed. Increased tensions in our society will certainly test our response as an Annual Conference to the needs of our urban communities.

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

During 1990 the restructuring of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry was completed, enabling the Board to move forward into new areas. The standing Committee On Publicity and Promotion has put up displays at Annual Conference, put articles in the conference paper and provided promotional materials about United Methodist colleges and universities, scholarships and loans, World Communion Sunday, Student Day, Africa University and the Black College Fund. The Campus Ministry Committee has developed guidelines and uniform application and reporting forms for all campus ministry units and projects. It has also formulated guidelines for campus ministry personnel, based on changes in the 1988 Discipline. The Higher Education Committee has implemented the gathering of names through charge conferences and the creation of a list of tenth graders within the conference. That list has been forwarded to the Texas Association of Colleges and Universities. The Board appreciates the assistance of district superintendents and local churches in making this possible. At Fall University 1990, the Board sponsored a Texas Methodist College Fair. We plan to continue to present a college fair as well as classes at Fall University. In 1990 the Board sent fourteen young people to Exploration '90, the General Board's vocational event, in St. Louis, Missouri. The Board also helped send a delegation of college students from this conference to the national ecumenical student conference in Louisville, Kentucky and to the United Methodist National Student Forum at Southern Methodist University. Students at Southwestern University in Georgetown applied for a Board grant to begin a United Methodist campus ministry project. The Board was pleased to approve their request and offer continuing support.

We remain highly satisfied with the leadership and programming at each of the five permanent campus ministry units within the conference. We look to the next year and years with excitement about all of the good things happening in higher education and campus ministry.

Perkins School of Theology

This year has seen a number of substantive changes at the Perkins School of Theology. A modified curriculum has been introduced, and combined with new options available in the Intern Program, students can now plan to graduate in three years. A new schedule also makes it more convenient for persons who commute to the campus. The seminary recognizes the changing nature of its student body and is constantly seeking ways to facilitate their successful completion of their preparation for ministry. A new D.Min. program focused on church growth will begin in the summer. Information about it is available from the Office of Continuing Education.

Professors John Deschner and William R. Farmer both retired this year. Their long years of service have made a significant contribution to all who have been a part of the Perkins community. During the year we have mourned the death of Herndon Wagers. And we celebrated the establishment of an endowed chair in Biblical Hebrew and Old Testament Interpretation. This endowed chair was created by friends of Professor W.J.A. Power, and thus it bears his name.

Student enrollments for the academic year totaled 365 in the fall, with 239 in the M.Div. degree program, 59 in other master's programs, 43 in doctor of ministry studies, and the remainder in graduate religious studies. Of the total, 38% are women and 21% are ethnic minority students, including international students.

Both Perkins School of Theology and Southern Methodist University have received their ten year review prior to reaccreditation by the Association of Theological Schools and the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. A comprehensive self-study was undertaken prior to the campus visits of their representatives.

During the year representatives of the school have enjoyed lengthy visits with the Cabinets, Boards of Ordained Ministry, and conference councils of the Little Rock and North Arkansas Conferences, the Texas Conference, the Oklahoma Conference, and the Southwest Texas Conference. This continues the practice begun last year. These conversations have ben of great help to us as we seek better to assist the church in the completion of its mission. We are grateful to them for their support and interest.

By the end of this year, we expect to have made new appointments in Christian Education, Pastoral Care and Systematic Theology. We covet your prayers as we seek to fulfill our mission on behalf of God's church.

James E. Kirby, Dean

Saint Paul School of Theology

The 1990-91 school year began with one of the largest entering classes in our history. Both the number and quality of our students are encouraging for us and, more importantly, for the future of the church.

Warren C. Carter joined the faculty of Saint Paul this year as Instructor in New Testament. A native of New Zealand, Mr. Carter is a Ph.D. candidate at Princeton University.

We at Saint Paul are clear that the futures of local churches and seminaries are one. Local churches can only be strong if the seminaries preparing their future leadership are strong. Likewise, we in the seminaries cannot do our work well without staying in close and ongoing communication with those in the churches who brought us into being, who have supported us through the years, and for whom we are preparing a new generation of leaders.

Listening to churches is a way of life at Saint Paul. The most recent example of this listening is an extensive survey conducted with United Methodist laity and clergy in six Annual Conferences. Surveyed were 1,000 pastor-parish chairpersons, every fifth pastor, and the conference ministerial leadership.

Important learnings were gained as persons responded to a number of questions. When asked what things they most associate with effective leadership in the church from ordained and diaconal ministers, those surveyed responded that the most important were preaching and leadership skills. People were also asked what areas of study seminaries should be addressing in a special way today. Again there was consensus as evangelism was named the top need by all groups.

When asked to reflect on how well Saint Paul prepares persons for various dimensions of ministry, the respondents gave highest marks to preaching, ministry with the elderly, and church and society. On an open-ended question regarding strengths, faculty were most often named. More emphasis on evangelism and renewal of physical facilities were most often mentioned as suggested areas of improvement for Saint Paul.

Especially encouraging for us at Saint Paul was the respondents' attitude about recommending Saint Paul to a prospective seminary student. The response of conference leaders was forty-six percent for "strongly recommended," forty-three percent for "recommend," and eleven percent for "offering Saint Paul as an option." No conference leaders indicated that they either would not recommend Saint Paul, or that they would strongly discourage someone from attending Saint Paul. We appreciate this strong vote of confidence. Faculty, staff, and trustees have already begun studying the survey results. As plans are made for the future, the survey findings will provide insight and guidance in many areas of the seminary's life.

Lovett H. Weems, Jr., President

Southern Methodist University

The academic priorities, which the Board of Trustees approved in December of 1989, have now begun to be implemented. We will begin requiring all entering students in Fall 1991 to have a major and a minor, which will broaden the cross-disciplinary base of our commitment to a central liberal arts undergraduate education. We will continue to refine our curriculum with an eye to the global and multi-cultural nature of our world and the need for strong ethical and technological expertise. To that end we have clearly identified fund raising priorities for science and technology needs at SMU. Additionally, we have appointed Father Charles Curran, a Catholic theologian and ethicist, to fill the Scurlock Chair in Human Values, a University-wide appointment. We have opened the new Hamon Arts Library this Fall and have broken ground for a new Greer Garson Theater, both of which continue our strong commitment to the arts.

Southern Methodist University continues to make progress on achieving a balanced budget by 1992-93, through a series of expenditure reductions and a variety of fund raising initiatives. Our strong need is in the area of unrestricted endowment, and particularly student financial aid. We were pleased to receive a five million dollar gift from Roy Huffington of Houston for the unrestricted endowment, but much more is needed.

It is with a great sense of satisfaction that I report to you that the new United Methodist Campus Minister, Reverend Greg Ligon, has been making outstanding inroads into developing a new United Methodist Ministry at SMU. The Jurisdictional commitment to this ministry is vital to our commitment to United Methodist SMU students. We are hopeful that you will continue to encourage United Methodist prospective students to consider SMU.

We are pleased to have Forrest Gregg as the new Athletic Director and I am confident that under his leadership our program of achieving the appropriate student-athlete model at SMU will continue.

We continue to appreciate your interest and support for SMU. With your prayers and gifts, we shall continue to move forward in making SMU an outstanding United Methodist institution of higher learning.

Concern for Strength of the Private Sector

We "have serious concerns for the strength of the private sector (in higher education) should current trends and policies continue." So wrote the Task Force on State Policy and Independent Higher Education in its recent report entitled The Preservation of Excellence in American Higher Education: The Essential Role of Private Colleges and Universities (1990).

The Task Force described the American system of higher education as the finest in the world, recognized as such not only by Americans but, also, by leading international educators.

It provides greater opportunity for a larger number of students, has a higher level of quality, and is more diverse than any other system in the world.

Trendline of Enrollment in Private Higher Education

The sense of concern manifested by the Task Force regarding current trends in private higher education stems from the fact that "the trend line in distribution of enrollments shows a substantial reduction in the historic role of the private sector within all of higher education (p. 16)." From a level of 50% in 1950, private higher education enrolled only 22% of all college and university students in 1990. One of the areas of greatest decline has been in the category of colleges, Liberal Arts Colleges II, to which Southwestern is assigned by the most recent Carnegie Classification. These colleges numbered 550 in 1970 and 400 in 1987.

Although those institutions which have changed their mission continue to "perform important educational and public services," nevertheless "many have lost their distinctive characteristics" in becoming more like other colleges in their range of offerings. . . . "Some have undertaken programs which are not well integrated with their historic missions, and some have overextended themselves to the point where the quality of some programs suffers." "Yet," said the Task Force, "it is the Liberal Arts II institutions that provide the greatest diversity within American higher education and the most service to specialized segments of the American population (pp. 16-17)."

The Task Force concluded that private colleges and universities "stimulate independence, autonomy and diversity in all of higher education. And by serving important public purposes, largely with private resources, they provide a valuable and financially prudent service to the state and nation (p 8)." It is for this reason that the Task Force looked on current trends with such concern.

An Outlook on the 1990s

Even though Southwestern has become stronger -- not weaker -- during the past decade and is not among those institutions which have disappeared or become like other colleges in their range of offerings, or undertaken programs not well integrated with their historic mission, it does participate in the increasingly negative environment for all of higher education. We live in a difficult period for higher education. The rising cost of operating a university, and a shrinking pool of eighteen year-olds, has made the ability to achieve and maintain quality very difficult for many small colleges and universities

We at Southwestern are very fortunate to have a wonderful reputation, a fine position in the marketplace, generous support from our constituencies, and a faculty, staff, and student body that are among the very best. Though we still have difficult goals to achieve in the expansion and development of faculty, plant, growth and renovation, acquisition of equipment, and support resources to foster excellence in the academic program, all of these goals are within our reach. I remain confident that the end of the 1990s will see Southwestern as successful in achieving its Master Plan goals as it was in the 1980s.

Conclusion

Just as I began this report by quoting from the report of the Task Force on State Policy and Independent Higher Education, I would like to conclude with its vision of the system best suited to serve our country. It says that that system should have these characteristics (p. 36):

- "Access for every qualified high school graduate who wishes to attend an institution of higher education within reasonable distance from home, with adequate financial resources available to make attendance possible.
- Highly diverse institutions among which students may choose, with their choices made reasonably possible among both private and public institutions.

- Wise use of taxpayers' money, utilizing available private resources and private institutions where that will increase total system efficiency and effectiveness.
- Institutions which, while varied in many other respects, are financially able to serve students from all income levels and are available to students from all racial, ethnic, and religious backgrounds.
- Academic programs of great variety and high quality throughout.
- Institutions, both public and private, which are largely autonomous within their missions, competitive with each other, dynamic in their adjustments to social needs and free to innovate."

I am pleased to work as a part of the United Methodist system of higher education in constructing this kind of educational system through our joint venture at Southwestern University. Roy B. Shilling, Jr., President

Texas Wesleyan University

The 1990-91 academic year of Texas Wesleyan was significant for many reasons, not the least of which was the fact that this was our centennial year, celebrating 100 years of dedication to excellence in higher education.

The year began with the Centennial Convocation, highlighted by a speech by one of the country's most distinguished educators, Ernest Boyer, president of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. Also in September, the Armstrong-Mabee Business Center was dedicated, for the first time affording all business students and faculty their own state-of-the-art learning center.

Each school of the University celebrated the Centennial with its own Emphasis Week. The School of Business welcomed this year's Business Hall of Fame awardee William L. Adams, chairman and chief executive officer of Union Pacific Resources Company, both by a banquet and by special lectures to our business majors. The banquet's keynote address was delivered by U. S. Secretary of Commerce Robert Mosbacher.

The semi-annual Willson Lectures in 1990-91 were delivered by Dr. Gil Ferrell, long-time associate of Texas Wesleyan, and Dr. Hal Brady, pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Dallas.

During February 1991, the School of Science and Humanities brought the internationally-known author Ray Bradbury to campus, as well as Texas Wesleyan alumnus Jim Olney, who performed a one-man Mark Twain show. This school also held a reception for the University's outstanding women graduates.

In March, the School of Find Arts reprised its production of "The Fantasticks," off-Broadway's longest-running musical, which the school had performed to much acclaim in the fall of 1990. Internationally known mezzo-soprano, Texas Wesleyan alumna Glenda Maurice, performed in concert as well.

The School of Education, during its Emphasis Week, brought the distinguished education author Jonathan Kozol to the University, a street dance was also held for all faculty, staff and students; and a banquet was held in honor of outstanding educators.

The Alumni Association continued its efforts to involve more ex-students, having record-breaking attendances at both the fall and spring reunions. More than 800 alumni attended the Fall Centennial Alumni Celebration.

Throughout the year, Texas Wesleyan's outstanding athletic teams, theater and music students brought much distinction to the University. Additional recognition was obtained by the placement of 200 banners on Main Street in downtown Fort Worth; by a statewide distribution of the University's history in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram; and by the publication of an album chronicling our first 100 years.

Our faculty and students continue to accrue many honors. Accounting major Mina Hara passed all four parts of the Certified Public Accountants' examination upon taking the test for the first time--an achievement equalled by less than 10 percent in the nation. Vice President/Dean of Students Loralee Pohl was recently named Businesswoman of the Year by a local professional organization. For the third consecutive year, graduates of our Graduate Program of Nurse Anesthesia attained a 100 percent pass rate on the national certification examination, 25 percent higher than the national pass rate.

Many efforts are being made University-wide to increase both enrollment and the diversity of our campus population. We have been fortunate to receive endowed scholarships for deserving minority students from such entities as the Anne Burnett and Charles H. Tandy Foundation, Southwestern Bell, Freese & Nichols, Capital Cities/ABC/Fort Worth Star-Telegram and others. We are strenuously planning to broaden our offerings to assist older students and students already employed full time.

Capital improvements likewise continue: the Armstrong-Mabee Business Center opened; the Law Sone Fine Arts Center became operational in the spring of 1991; landscaping of the Eunice and James L. West Library has begun. We regret to report that Ann Waggoner Hall, built in 1891 and the campus's oldest building, was severely damaged by fire in the fall. Engineering studies revealed that the building could not effectively restored; therefore, efforts to build another center for the humanities will begin the near future.

In fund-raising, another excellent year's efforts can be reported. $1.7 million in restricted and unrestricted gifts were received. We expect this figure to exceed $2 million by the end of the University's fiscal year.

President Jerry G. Bawcom, who had been with Texas Wesleyan for 21 years, left in early 1991 to assume the presidency of the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor. Serving as Interim President is W. L. Hailey, former provost and professor of Education. A new president is expected to begin serving in the fall of 1991.

W. L. Hailey, Interim President

Texas United Methodist College Association

On behalf of the seven United Methodist colleges and universities in Texas, I thank you for your support. In 1990 the Central Texas Conference contributed $187,301.53 to "Texas Methodist Colleges" and $136,214.00 to the Black College Fund.

These funds are important to the colleges, and even more important to the more than 7000 students whom you and the other four annual conferences in Texas helped to support in 1990. All of the funds received from the Texas Methodist College apportionment, and most of those received from the Black College Fund, go to scholarships and financial aid for needy students. The colleges apportionment is a scholarship apportionment.

The importance of these funds is reflected in the following figures for the fall of 1990:

	Percentage of Undergraduate Students Receiving Aid		Average Amount of Aid per Recipient
Huston-Tillotson College	87.7%		$ 4,797
Lon Morris College	91%		$ 2,513
McMurry University	74%		$ 5,310
Southern Methodist University	53%	Grants	$ 7,562
		Loans	$ 5,405
		Work	$ 1,161
Southwestern University	71.2%		$ 7,945
Texas Wesleyan University	83%		$ 3,502
Wiley College	90%		$ 5,347

These figures show that over 65% of the undergraduates in our seven colleges and universities receive aid, and the average amount each of them receives ranges from over $2,500 to over $13,000! Providing these funds is a major challenge for our institutions -an annual challenge! Your support is very important in making this possible; it is only because of you and other supporters that our colleges can give such aid to deserving students. And it is because of this aid that our colleges can continue their mission.

We appreciate your support in the past; we ask for your continuing support in the present and in the future. Remember: ALL of your apportioned dollars to "Texas Methodist Colleges" go to scholarships, and most of the dollars given to the Black College Fund go to scholarships.

COMMITTEE ON COORDINATION AND BUDGET

The normal path for an Annual Conference Council on Ministries budget request involves a number of stops. It is first presented to the Board or Committee with authority over the proposed request. If approved, it is then examined in detail by the Committee on Coordination and Budget. If it passes that test, it is next presented to the full ACCOM for their approval, change, or disapproval. The next stop is at the Council on Finance and Administration where it is considered in relation to other requests for financing, with regard to the amount of money expected to be available. Only then is the request presented to the Annual Conference as a part of the full budget.

As a part of the above program, Coordination and Budget carefully examined all requests which are a part of the 1992 ACCOM budget, with a view to reduction of expenses to a minimum. The cooperation received from all of the organizations comprising ACCOM is appreciated, as is the understanding and helpful assistance of CF&A. This has been a relatively difficult year, but one in which Coordination and Budget felt that it was both necessary and useful.

COMMITTEE ON ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS

Report No. 1

The committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns in the last year has studied programs of local churches that were proposed to strengthen those churches, and provided funding where possible for those programs. Further, we have also worked with other agencies to enhance the relationship of several programs that impact the ethnic community that the committee felt should be permanent programs in our Annual Conference. These programs include Hispanic Outreach and the ESL Program at Polytechnic United Methodist Church.

Finally, our committee has sought to further develop and implement the Comprehensive Plan for ministry to the ethnic local church as proposed and approved by Conference last year.

Luther B. Felder, Chairperson

Proposed Program:

1. Committee On Ethnic Local Church Concerns
   Goal: To meet regularly in order to develop a strategy for ministry through ethnic local churches

Report No. 2

For the 1991 fiscal year several projects were funded by the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee as part of the committee's effort to strengthen and develop the ethnic minority local church. The projects are listed below with a brief description of their ministry and the amount of funding proposed for the year:

Union Memorial United Methodist Church, Coolidge $1,800
Painting and repair was done to give this building a new look, increase safety, and to decrease use of utilities. The improved appearance is showing up in increased attendance.

El Calvario United Methodist Church, Fort Worth $7,500
Reaching out to the Hispanic neighborhood through the establishment of an ESL program is the focus of this grant. An outreach worker will be hired to administer the program.

Saint Luke United Methodist Church, Mexia $3,000
The development of a program for children and youth during after school hours will aid in reaching those who are at risk. The funds will be used to help purchase recreational and educational materials.

First Korean United Methodist Church, Bedford $4,000
The development of a tape ministry will enable the congregation to provide copies of the worship services and songs to the scattered Korean population. Increased attendance at the church and spreading the gospel are the goals of this ministry.

Lacy Chapel United Methodist Church, Italy $1,800
The grant will enable this congregation to provide much needed music leadership for worship services, as well as a children's, youth, and adult choir.

Pilgrim Rest Parish United Methodist Church, Milford $ 650
Repairs to the van enabled these churches to continue to provide transportation to the members to get to meetings as well as to district and conference events.

Grace United Methodist Church, Arlington $5,000
A part-time tutoring and counseling program has been developed to aid students in math and English and will be facilitated by a director.

St. James United Methodist Church, Waco $2,000

The Educational and Recreational Enrichment Program is designed to provide motivation for the community's youth and children in order to increase their academic and social skills.

Cooperative Ministry With Hispanics $6,000

The Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry is an agent of the Central Texas and Rio Grande Annual Conferences. It continues to address needs brought on by the growing Hispanic population through providing consultative services on shared facilities ministries, and church revitalization in transitional communities. There is also a Resource Team to assist local churches with these program areas.

Korean United Methodist Church, Waco $4,800

The Korean United Methodist Church in Waco is developing and expanding the Sunday School program to meet the needs of the congregation. An educational assistant has been hired and materials purchased to fulfill this need.

Korean Christian Community Center, Killeen $2,200

The Korean United Methodist Church in Killeen seeks to help those in the community with needs pertaining to language, cultural experiences, and family issues.

Hispanic Outreach $7,500

Hispanic Outreach is a program sponsored by Polytechnic United Methodist Church, Fort Worth. It is aimed at addressing the tremendous increase in the Hispanic population in that community by providing an English as a Second Language (ESL) program.

census data and how that data may become helpful in programming in the local church. Dr. Mearle L. Griffith, Associate General Secretary of the Planning and Research Division for the general church will offer such a seminar first for members of the conference committee and then for pastors and laity at Fall University 1991.

Homer Kluck, Chairperson

Mission Statement

The Central Texas Conference is a covenant people who hold to God's unchanging truths in the presence of constantly changing human circumstances; and we accept the commission of Jesus Christ to, "Go make disciples."

We are the connection through which our local churches combine individual missions and strengths enabling us to accomplish together what we cannot do alone. In our covenant relationship, we focus on scripture, tradition, experience, and reason to fulfill our mission.

COMMITTEE ON THE AGENDA

The Annual Conference Committee on the Agenda recommends:

1. That the 1991 Per Diem Allowance be granted for each day in actual attendance at the conference for retired clergy, retired diaconal ministers, retired deaconnesses, ministers' surviving spouses, pastors receiving a total salary of, or less than the minimum salary of the conference and students appointed to attend school. The rate shall be $30 for those who reside within Tarrant County and $60 for those who reside outside of Tarrant County.
2. That the budget line item for the expenses of annual conference for 1992 be set at $30,000.
3. That future places for the meeting of the annual conference be 1993 - Waco and 1994 - Fort Worth.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

I. United Methodist Archives Center, Central Texas Conference
Eunice and James L. West Library, Texas Wesleyan University
Fort Worth, TX 76105
Records Room open for research on Thursdays
Please call for an appointment in advance
Archives Center, 1990-1991:

A. Records registration, maintenance, and preservation is the first priority of the Center. Archivists Pat Allen, Diana Schultz, and Jean Traster register all records; clean, process, and arrange the records by type, office, and size; transfer all records to acid-free archival storage containers for safe-keeping.

B. Letters and telephone calls requesting information from the depository records arrive routinely. Research is a major priority on the Thursday schedule at the Center. Nearly every week one or more persons from local churches, or persons from outside the United Methodist network, are Thursday visitors who have come to use the records.

C. A Northwest 2020 Microfilm Reader has been added to the Archives Center equipment, as of January, 1991. The reader has given access to the microfilm collection of the Center, enabling research into very early Texas Methodist data, 1850-1890.

D. The Pat Allen Project on Local Preacher Records: The search for names and data relating to local preachers of the conference, 1866-present, has been completed. From June, 1990 to March, 1991 Pat Allen added 1112 entries to this valuable resource of information. The founding date of this conference is 1866 with the name of Northwest Texas Conference. Most of the records at the Archives Center date from 1866.

II. The Archives and History Commission, Central Texas Conference
1990-1991 Projects and Continuing Projects

A. Training for Local Church Historians, District Level
January, 1991 Fort Worth West District
February, 1991 Fort Worth East District

B. Fall University: a six-hour workshop/laboratory for historians who are new to their jobs, and for experienced local church archivists. The 1990 seminar was held at Hill Junior College on September 8, 1990. The 1991 seminar is scheduled for September 7 (Saturday), 1991, time and place to be announced.

C. Oral History Project: John Johnson
The tape-recording of biographical information of retired and retiring clergy and spouses.

D. Local Church Annual Historical Up-Dates: John Johnson
Forms are sent each November/December to district superintendents to be distributed to pastors for completion by local church historians. These up-dates provide details of records, projects, activities, and building construction/renovation/improvement that are not recorded elsewhere.

E. Microfilming of the original hand-written Minutes of the Northwest Texas Annual Conference, 1866-1901:
The seven large leather-bound volumes of hand-written minutes have been microfilmed at Drew University in Madison, New Jersey, the location of General Archives of the United Methodist Church. The hand-written minutes will remain in safe-keeping at Drew until the negatives of the microfilm have been received from the processors and checked by Mr. Beal to be certain that he has a complete and readable master film from which duplicate films may be produced. At that time the original minutes and microfilm of the minutes will be returned to Central Texas Archives. At present the estimated time of return is by September, 1991.

III. Archives Commission relationship beyond the Annual Conference

A. Texas United Methodist Historical Society: With representative membership from the six Annual Conferences of Texas and the New Mexico Annual Conference, this organization welcomes all who are interested in the history of Methodism. The Society meets annually on Thursday and Friday of the first full week in February. The meeting place is Bridwell Library, SMU, Dallas. An important project of the Society during 1990-1991 was the designation of the Rutersville Cluster to the prestigious General United Methodist Sites and Landmarks roster, one of only two such designations in all of Texas. Rutersville is 1. the site of the organization of the first Annual Conference in Texas, December 25, 1840, 2. the site of the first Protestant and first Methodist college in Texas, Rutersville College, chartered February, 1840, 3. the home of the Rutersville District, one of the three original districts of the conference, 4. the site of the organization of the Southern German Conference work in Texas and the Methodist Episcopal (Northern) Church Conference, 5. the location of the Rutersville Cemetery with graves of early Texas Methodists related to each of these events. John Johnson represented the Archives Commission at the Rutersville Marker Dedication and Celebration on December 1, 1990.

B. The Kate Warnick Local Church History Book Competition: sponsored by the Texas United Methodist Historical Society, the competition featured a one-time-only contest in 1990 for all history books which had not hitherto been submitted, including those written before the Kate Warnick competition was established. As is the usual procedure, the competition was divided into two categories: small church (400 and under members) and large church (over 400 members). Central Texas Conference churches won both awards in the pre-1990 competition:
Meier Settlement United Methodist Church - Marilyn Doughty, author
First United Methodist Church, Georgetown - Clara Scarbrough, author

IV. New officers of the Archives Commission:
Vice Chairperson: Dr. T. Brad Willis
Secretary: Juanita Mott
Temple District Representative: Rickie Stone

V. Continuing Commitment of Archives to the Central Texas Conference
1. Stem the loss of records or merged congregations and discontinued/abandoned churches
2. Encourage local church assertive involvement in the preservation of records
3. Preserve records of organizations and offices of the Annual Conference and districts
4. Preserve records of clergy and lay persons which relate to the work of the Annual Conference
5. Store older records of local churches if their own facility is not sufficiently secure
6. Collect vital statistical date of church membership, baptisms, marriages, deaths of persons in the churches of the Central Texas Conference for persons needing information on family history and genealogy.

CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

This is now the third time I have appeared before you as president of the CTC FCU. Each of them is indicative of changes in the credit union which were taking place at that time. The first time the credit union had reached assets of $500,000 and had about 250 members, nearly all clergy families. The credit union, as it had been from its inception, was a one-person show, made up of a close-knit group of people who knew each other well. It was like the "mom and pop" institutions we know about.

The second time I reported as president the credit union had reached $1,000,000 in assets and had about 450 members. It was a larger independent operation, beginning to lose its family feeling as the membership was being drawn from several Methodist institutions. We didn't know each other as well.

Today the credit union is a $1.6 million institution with nearly 1500 members. Membership is drawn from the clergy of the CTC, laity of United Methodist churches, Southwestern University at Georgetown, United Centers and the many institutions of the Harris Methodist Health System. We usually have no personal knowledge or relationship with a loan applicant. This impersonal makeup of the credit union has resulted in several bad debts and bankruptcies in the past two years. This year the board has been fortunate to have the guidance of Beverly Mosier of the Harris Methodist HEB in these matters. Beverly is in charge of collections for the Harris System. Under her guidance a new loan policy and collection system has been instituted. Loans are made on the basis of a rating system involving debt ratio, credit worthiness and other factors. After poor results from several outside collection agencies Mrs.

"G" Minnerly was hired to handle collections. She has reclaimed $32,000 in bad debts in a six-month period. She is now the assistant to the manager and is the voice you hear when you call the credit union.

The change in the nature of the credit union brought a change in management. The board hired a new manager. Mr. Lanny Crump comes to us with 25 years credit union background. The board has also changed and is now made up of persons from the various institutions who have been chosen because of skills and expertise. The board has always taken seriously its responsibility for the credit union but I think in the past two years we have taken on a new understanding of that responsibility. The Harris employees who have been added to the board have been invaluable in reshaping the credit union.

Harris Methodist Health Systems for several years has underwritten the cost of the office space of the credit union. For them it is an invaluable benefit for their employees. Last year they made a further financial commitment to the credit union to which they remain firmly committed. We owe much to the Harris System for the health of your credit union this year.

If you approve the nominations committee report for 1991 officers, which I expect you will do, this will be the first time in the credit union's history that we will have a non-clergy president. He has a background in accounting and budget with the Harris System and for several years has made an invaluable contribution to our board of directors.

I am happy to report that our credit union is in the best condition it has been in for 3 or 4 years. The in-house computer system is functioning properly and our last federal examiners rating was a strong "2", with "1" being the best. We are proud of this rating which represents a nearly two point growth. We are proud also of the progress that the credit union has made in these very difficult financial times.

Remember that the credit union belongs to you. When you are saving money or contemplating a loan for a new car or seeking a Master Card remember to talk to the credit union first. We probably can save you money and you will be building a stronger credit union.

E. Frank Leach, President

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

The Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns has met several times and continues its work in the area of ecumenical interests. The commission members attend faithfully and participate with great interest.

We continue to advocate for public policy change through our support of Texas Impact. Eight members of the commission attended the Texas Conference of Churches in February, 1991, in Austin. The focus of the meeting was on the Gulf Crisis and the state lottery.

As a part of the commission's report at the 1990 Annual Conference, Charles Carnahan of the AIDS Interfaith Network in Dallas spoke about that agency's work. Larry Grubb and Weldon Haynes informed the Annual Conference about local effects to confront AIDS. Gary Lindley shared with the members in a poignant and challenging way about the death of his brother from AIDS. The commission supports Robert Huie with Texas Regional Aids Interfaith Network that will reach mid sized cities.

AIDS was the focus at Fall University in Hillsboro. The issue of the homeless and Habitat for Humanity will be the subject of the commission sponsored classes at Fall University, 1991. Classes about the AIDS Interfaith Network will also be offered.

We will send a representative to the Jewish-Christian Dialogue in April, 1991.

The attempts to offer an ecumenical Bible study booklet for Lent continues to run into problems due to their late publication.

We are grateful for the presence of Mary Weathers from our conference who is now a board member of the Texas Conference of Churches.

The commission has set the following goals for 1992:

1. Provide a scholarship for one youth to attend the Junior High Leadership Camp, Glen Lake.

2. Participate in Fall University with a course on Aids Interfaith Network as well as courses on the issue of the homeless and participation by Habitat for Humanity.
3. Highlight homelessness as a part of the commission's report to the Central Texas Annual Conference.
4. Provide expense monies for members of the commission to attend the following conferences: Faith and Order at Mo Ranch, Texas Conference of Churches and the National Conference on Jewish-Christian Dialogue.
5. Advocacy regarding conference-wide participation in Christian Unity week.
6. We will continue to support and encourage Jewish-Christian Dialogue by sending a representative to the April 1992 meeting.

COMMISSION ON CHURCH GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT

Report No. 1

Gerald Kennedy has been quoted as saying, "People are fond of saying that 'the past is dead', but it is actually the future that is dead - and we make it come alive only by applying what we have learned from the living past to the present."

The United Methodist Church recently celebrated 200 years in America. With these celebrations came a backward look and in most cases we felt good about our history. No doubt, our greatest need now, as we face the year 2000 and beyond, is to begin a forward look to our church's future. We, in the Commission on Church Growth and Development, want to do our part in making our future as "alive" as we possibly can. If we are to take Kennedy's suggestion seriously, we will work most effectively if we learn from our past and apply the insights we find there.

The United Methodist Church in the Central Texas Conference has at least two distinct challenges facing it as we approach the year 2000 and beyond:

TWO DISTINCT CHALLENGES

The first is the continued population growth of the Central Texas Conference area. The 1990 Census is revealing the unprecedented growth we experienced in the eighties...and in the process created demands for new schools, roads, houses, and churches. Now, the National Planning Association is revealing that this growth will not stop in the nineties. In fact they report: "Texas is clearly the heart of the Sun Belt in terms of overall business climate and quality of life. The long-range forecast for Texas is quite bright between now and the year 2000. Greater Fort Worth will grow by more than 45% and jobs will rise by 44%."

So, the challenge is for us to strategically place new United Methodist Churches in the midst of expanding communities and new housing developments.

The second distinct challenge is to meet the needs of all our people spiritually. The great regret of United Methodism is that, while the Central Texas Conference has experienced unprecedented membership growth in the eighties, the rest of United Methodism has had serious decline. Even in the midst of membership growth in our conference, we have to admit that not all of our churches are functioning up to their capacities, or being the effective and fruitful churches they could be. Some of them are seemingly content with their present condition. Ultimately every church decides for itself just what kind of church it is to be. It is the hope and dream of the Commission on Church Growth and Development that we can be a part of the overall Conference program that will help our local churches take a look at themselves and then assist them in determining what kind of church they will be in the nineties and the distant future.

With these two challenges in mind, the Commission on Church Growth and Development offers two distinct responses:

TWO DISTINCT RESPONSES

1. The Miracle of Church Growth Shares. The "Partners in Growth Share Program" was so successful in the decade of the eighties that we see no need to make any changes in this broad-based plan to finance new churches in the midst of population growth. This simple plan asks all United Methodists to take one Share at $45 each annually in order to make it possible for us to buy the sites and provide salary support while the church is forming. We ask the support of all United Methodists to support this plan for the nineties, believing that the conference will take pride in future accomplishments.

This Share plan is making it possible to start two more new churches in 1991 - one at Park Glen near the Alliance Airport and the other at Eagle Mountain north of Azle, on land with a building donated by J. R. Emanuel.

2. Vital Congregation - Faithful Disciples. The Council of Bishops launched a new emphasis with this title. Following a national event held in Fort Worth, Texas, called "The Gathering", in November, 1990, our conference is now launching its efforts in this great endeavor. The Commission on Church Growth and Development supports this special emphasis made by our Bishops, and is pledged to help through various seminars and workshops conducted by the Director.

The Commission on Church Growth and Development has a dream. It is that our United Methodist Church in the Central Texas Conference shall catch a vision of our possibilities, make the fullest use of our capacities and resources, carry on our work effectively, and play our part in establishing the Kingdom of God in our area and to the ends of the earth.

6.04 Investment Committee. Membership of the investment committee shall be composed of not less than three (3) or more than seven (7) members. A majority of the members of the committee shall be members of the board of directors of the Foundation. The investment committee shall supervise and direct the investment of Foundation funds and regularly report to the board of directors on such investments, investment policy, and earnings; provided, that funds substantially equal in amount to the fund on hand at the adoption of these bylaws and used as a revolving loan fund, or funds in such other amount as the board of directors from time to time may set, shall remain available on reasonable notice for loans to local churches and annual conference agencies as provided in these bylaws.

SECTION SEVEN ADMINISTRATION

7.01 Authority. Notwithstanding that at all times control and management of the affairs of the Foundation shall remain vested in its board of directors, it may carry on its work within the limits of its corporate purposes by and through duly constituted officers, committees, and agents. It may use the facilities and services of any other institution or agency, and through its duly authorized officers and agents enter into working agreements and contracts for the administration of any of the business of the Foundation and the handling of its funds; subject, however, to its Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws.

7.02 Revolving Loan Fund. From funds on hand and in the existing revolving loan fund, or from available funds as determined by the board of directors, loans may be granted by the loan committee to local churches and agencies of the Central Texas Annual Conference for the acquisition and improvement of properties and facilities within such limitations as to amount and terms as the board of directors from time to time may set. Except in special circumstances, such loans should be secured, although not necessarily by first lien. Benefits that may accrue from loans to local churches lacking in resources and access to other funds, but having a sound prospect of success, should be considered by the board of directors and the loan committee in the authorization and granting of loans, as well as that assurance of repayment is needed to preserve the fund.

7.03 Acceptance of Gifts, Devises, and Transfers in Trust. Subject to acceptance by the board of directors, the Foundation may receive, collect, and hold in trust, gifts, devises, and transfers in trust, of any kind or character, whether of real or personal property, that may be given, devised, or transferred to the Foundation for any of its purposes, and it shall use the same and any income therefrom in accordance with the directions of the donor, testator, or trustor.

7.04 Grants. Any income from Foundation funds remaining after all proper expenses of operation have been paid, unless otherwise restricted or directed, may be used as the board of directors may determine, for grants in aid of missions, church extension, education, and charitable causes of the Central Texas Annual Conference or any of its local churches, districts, commissions, agencies, or institutions, if the grant to be made is consistent with such statement of mission in effect at the date of grant as the annual conference may have adopted and is within the Foundation's stated purposes. No part of the net earnings of the Foundation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, or other private persons, except as reasonable compensation for services rendered.

7.05 Reports. The board of directors shall cause an annual report in writing to be made to the Central Texas Annual Conference showing the activities, plans, and financial condition of the Foundation.

7.06 Depository. The depository or depositories of funds of the Foundation shall be determined from time to time by resolution of the board of directors. Funds on deposit may be withdrawn as the board of directors may order by resolution.

7.07 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the shall begin on the first day of January and end on the last day of December in each year, so long as the Central Texas Annual Conference fiscal year remains the same. If the Conference should change its fiscal year, the Foundation's fiscal year shall be changed accordingly.

7.08 Audit. At the close of each fiscal year there shall be an audit of the Foundation's accounts by the auditor of the Central Texas Annual Conference, and copies of the report of audit shall be distributed by the secretary of the Conference as in the case of other funds of the Central Texas Annual Conference.

7.09 Indemnification and Insurance. The Foundation shall through insurance or otherwise seek to limit the financial exposure of its directors and officers. The Foundation shall, to the fullest extent allowed by applicable law, including Article 2.22A of the Texas Nonprofit Corporation Act, as it may be amended from time to time, have the power and authority to indemnify directors, officers, employees and agents of the Foundation for liability incurred in connection with service to the Foundation. Indemnification will be provided by the Foundation in all cases required by law and in such additional cases as the board of directors may determine.

7.10 Amendment. The bylaws may be altered, changed, or amended by two-thirds (2/3) vote at any meeting of the board of directors held after ten days prior notice stating the purpose of the meeting.

Report No. 3

The Board of Directors of The Foundation of the Central Texas Annual Conference met January 23, 1991, to consider a proposal from the Council on Planned Giving for merger. The proposal was approved. A joint committee met January 30, 1991, and February 27, 1991, to consider proposed articles of incorporation and bylaws in reorganization. Each group has approved the drafts presented, with changes.

The Conference Foundation was created by the 1958 Annual Conference as an agency to be devoted to church extension through the Board of Missions, which then held a permanent fund in the amount of $25,000, being the initial corpus of the Foundation. With the creation by the 1980 Annual Conference of Commission on Church Growth and Development and assignment to it of church extension functions there was assigned the use of the Foundation, which had become a source of loans for smaller churches and agencies in acquisition and improvement of properties and facilities.

Additions to the fund resulted from contributions through the Builders' Club program, from Board of Missions funds, from mortgage grant repayments by local churches, and from interest on loans. From time to time the Board of Directors has contributed earnings to charitable causes of the Annual Conference and its agencies.

In 1985, at the request of the Conference Steering Committee, the Board of Directors agreed for a limited time to substantially fund from income an office for planned giving, to be a conference agency. Based on that commitment and the recommendation of the Committee, the 1986 Annual Conference created the office. Since November 1987, the Office of Planned Giving has received funding from the Foundation, initially at $75,000 per year and currently at $100,000. The Annual Conference has provided office space and services for the Office.

Although initially it had been anticipated the Office of Planned Giving might be self-supporting in four years and that funding by the Conference Foundation would not then be needed, in fact the office has not received funds from its operations but has become a ministry of the Annual Conference to local churches and their members, to help people see how to do with their money and estates what they may want to do. Experience has shown that the purpose of the planned giving office should not be to raise money immediately for current needs. But results may be far-reaching, in that people have been enabled to know how they may in good stewardship, and consistent with their own needs and purposes, benefit local churches and annual conference causes and agencies, such as the work of church extension through Commission on Church Growth and Development.

If the ministry of planned giving is to continue, it must be funded, not from year to year as at present, but on a secure, continuing basis. The Annual Conference budget is not the answer, for it is dependent on local churches, and at this time it is not practicable for them to do more. Unless Planned Giving is made a part of the Foundation, as it will become by merger, the conference will lose an important ministry, one that is wholly its own and completely devoted to its needs.

In the reorganization it is specifically provided in the bylaws that funds will remain available for "second-mile" loans to local churches and agencies. The chairman of the Commission on Church Growth and Development remains a director, ex officio, and is made a member of the foundation loan committee. Also directors ex officio are the Bishop, Chairman of the Council on Finance and Administration, Chairman of the conference Board of Trustees, and a representative of the Cabinet. There are fifteen directors elected annually by class for three-year terms upon nomination by the conference Nominating Committee after recommendation by the Bishop. The Foundation will be an independent agency of the Annual Conference and will report directly to it. It will continue to work with Commission on Church Growth and Development, Texas Methodist Foundation, and in addition through its executive director perform the planned giving services.

By such reorganization the conference foundation will be brought into full compliance with the purposes for annual conference foundations stated in Paragraph 2513, The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (1988).

The Board of Directors of the Central Texas Conference Foundation requests that its reorganization to include the purposes and functions of the Office of Planned Giving under the terms of the proposed Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws (Report No. 2), be approved.

COMMITTEE ON COUNSELING

Report No. 1

Central Texas has one of the most progressive and time-tested counseling programs in the United Methodist Church. This year, by increasing the number of therapists and geographical coverage, we believe the program is more useful and cost effective.

To summarize, this confidential counseling program is intended to be a first-call-for-help service. All ministers and their family members are encouraged to participate when a personal or family issue begins to interfere with one's ministry. The committee seeks to make an excellent program even better; therefore, we seek your questions and suggestions.

In addition, to get to know our conference counselors and appreciate their skills, groups of ministers and their families are encouraged to invite them to present seminars, workshops, and programs promoting healthy living.

1. This service is available to ordained conference members, diaconal, and retired ministers, and persons serving full-time conference appointments, plus their spouses and dependent family members. In addition, ordained members and families of the Rio Grande Conference serving within the geographical boundaries of this episcopal area are eligible.
2. Complete confidentiality and respect for privacy will be maintained. As a client, your name will be known only to your counselor, and no information about you will go to any other person without your written consent. Trust will be vested in the integrity of the counselors, both to keep confidences with clients and to keep faith with the program by submitting accurate bills of service for payment. Such bills will list hours of service but no names.
3. The Counseling Service will be limited to six visits to a counselor in any one year.
   a. The first two visits will be paid in full by the program.
   b. Thereafter, participants will be asked to pay a portion of the cost, scaled to income, as follows:

Family Income	Program Will Pay	Client Will Pay
1. Under $20,000	90%	10%
2. $20,000 - 27,500	75%	25%
3. Over $27,500	50%	50%

   Family income includes combined incomes of spouses, excluding housing or parsonage allowance.
4. Thereafter, if counseling is still needed, an application may be made to the Insurance Program for possible payment. At this time, the symptoms must clearly indicate the need for therapy.
5. During the first six visits to the counselor, payments from the Counseling Program and the Insurance Program simultaneously will not be allowed.
6. Payments for this program will be made only to those counselors who have been approved as participants in the program. There will be no exceptions.

BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

Report No. 1

The Board of Diaconal Ministry has accomplished the following tasks:

1. Met jointly with the Board of Ordained Ministry on September 17, 1990, at Trinity UMC, Arlington. The purpose of the meeting was to explore the concept of "Team Ministry." Speaker Craig Emerick developed a "Model for Ministry" and Deforrest & Janet Wiksten shared their experiences as a diaconal and ordained minister working together in team ministry.

2. Provided an opportunity for the Board of Diaconal Ministry and all diaconal ministers in the Central Texas Conference to meet with Bishop John Russell and the cabinet. The dinner meeting was held at Meadowbrook UMC on October 16, 1990. Bishop Russell gave the opening address. The Board then shared its dream to create a "Model for Ministry", a need that was expressed in the 1989 joint meeting.

3. Sent 4 persons to a Jurisdictional Training Event in Dallas, on December 3-4, 1990. Two lay members from the Commission for the Study of Ministry were present to help answer questions and lead discussions about the preliminary report.

4. Provided a "Mentor Training Event," January 14, 1991, at First UMC, Arlington. Leadership for the event was provided by Dorothy Dahl. This brings to 25 the number of trained mentors in Central Texas.

5. Held the annual interviews April 5-6, 1991, at First UMC, Burleson. A total of 21 persons were interviewed, with 5 being accepted into candidacy and 5 recommended for consecration.

6. Hosted a "Diaconal Day Apart" at Glen Lake. The event, planned by Sarah Leach, provided diaconal ministers and candidates an opportunity for fellowship and renewal.

7. Began the groundwork for a "Model for Ministry" in the Central Texas Conference. Meetings have been held with churches that are interested in participating in this creative model. When all funding sources have been identified, the search will begin for a person to staff the position.

8. Responded to the Study of Ministry by offering input to the Commission. Several of our members were part of a task force that met with Ben Feemster and after much study and discussion, drafted a response to the Commission for the Study of Ministry.

9. Reaffirmed January 1 as the deadline for receiving materials concerning certification, continuing education, continuance as a diaconal minister and request for appointment, including leave of absence. Failure to meet this deadline may result in the initiation of the termination process.

10. Continued to support diaconal ministers and certified persons serving in the Central Texas Conference by reviewing their work, recommending their recertification where appropriate and recommending to Bishop Russell and the cabinet their renewal in the office and appointment to service.

Report No. 2

The Board recommends the following goals for 1991-1992:

1. To provide help to Staff Parish Relations Committees who are responsible for diaconal ministers and/or candidates who are employed beyond the local church, yet accountable to the local church where their membership is held.

2. To continue to seek ways to interpret and promote diaconal ministry in the Central Texas Conference.

3. To provide at least 1 continuing education event during the year.

4. To offer a "Diaconal Day Apart" for diaconal ministers and candidates.

5. To provide guidance and help for diaconal ministers who are considering an appointment beyond the local church.

6. To implement the "Guidelines for Benefits for Diaconal Ministers" and offer assistance to diaconal ministers when needed.

7. To implement a model for ministry in the Central Texas Conference.

Report No. 3
PROCEDURES FOR TRANSFER OF DIACONAL MINISTERS

The request by a diaconal minister for "transfer in" shall be approved/disapproved by the receiving bishop in consultation with the Board of Diaconal Ministry of the receiving conference. The bishop prepares the official forms for the "transfer in" or "transfer out" of credentials and records when a diaconal minister's relationship is moved from one annual conference to another. The diaconal minister initiates the action and the receiving conference board oversees the process as follows: (Pars. 312 and 734.3o)

1. When a change in service appointment is taking place, a written request for approval of the service appointment and transfer must come from the diaconal minister to the receiving bishop. Copies must be sent to the receiving board and the sending bishop and board.

2. The receiving conference board shall interview the diaconal minister and may contact the sending board and employment agency for clarification of status, if needed.

Recommendation for approval of the service appointment and transfer must come to the receiving bishop from the receiving conference board. The request for transfer in should take place immediately and all procedures completed within six months following beginning of employment. Failure to comply may result in termination.

3. At this time, the cabinet and bishop may request an interview with the diaconal minister for additional information.

4. The receiving bishop will send form 2149 -"Transfer In" to the sending bishop with copies as indicated. The sending bishop will send Form 2148 -"Transfer Out" to the receiving bishop with copies as indicated.

5. Upon receiving a copy of the "Transfer In" form from the receiving bishop, the receiving registrar will request the diaconal minister's files from the sending registrar.

6. After the bishop's approval of the "Transfer In," the activity is reported at the next regular session of the Annual Conference.

Report No. 4

A person seeking to enter diaconal ministry in the United Methodist Church upon hearing and heeding the call to serve, shall initiate the process toward the diaconal ministry by contacting the Board of Diaconal Ministry to take the first step to qualify as a candidate. The person is thus under the care and supervision of the Conference Board of Diaconal Ministry.

To initiate this process, you may contact the Chairperson or the Registrar.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES AND CLERGY BENEFITS

Report No. 1

Equitable Salary and Temporary General Aid Fund:

There shall be a program of equitable salary support in the Central Texas Conference under the management of the Commission on Equitable Salaries and Clergy Benefits. This program shall be patterned after paragraph 722 of the 1988 Discipline. Based on these guidelines, the following paragraphs shall compose the operating procedure for the Equitable Salary and Temporary General Aid Program.

1. The commission recognized the necessity of coordinating all salary subsidy; therefore, the conference treasurer shall inform the commission on any salary supplements through the Commission on Equitable Salary and Clergy Benefits for that portion not covered by any other source.

2. A prerequisite for consideration of salary supplements from the Equitable Salary Fund shall be the filing with the commission of a written application by the district superintendent. The district superintendent shall certify classification of the pastor and the salary (salary, travel, utilities and benefits) set by the charge. The application form will be supplied by the commission.
3. Salary grants shall be made for a calendar year with payments made monthly. In cases of appointment changes at or between the Annual Conference session, the district superintendent shall file a written request with the commission. Approved supplements shall then be paid on a pro rata basis for the part of the year actually served.
4. The following conditions must be met by the pastoral charge before it can become eligible for consideration to receive salary supplements from the Equitable Salary Fund.
   a. The pastoral charge shall have conducted a stewardship campaign for the local church budget of each of its churches during the previous conference year.
   b. All apportioned items shall have been paid in full by the local church for the previous conference year.
   c. The charge must have at least 100 members.

   In unusual situations the Commission on Equitable Salary and Clergy Benefits may waive any or all of these conditions.
5. The Commission on Equitable Salary and Clergy Benefits will pay any amount up to 1/3 of the minimum salary as set by the Annual Conference for each applicant according to his/her ministerial classification. If any exception under paragraphs 4 or 5 is sought, the request must be endorsed by a 2/3 vote of the Cabinet before it can be considered by the commission.
6. Persons of the following ministerial relationships are eligible for consideration for salary supplements at the level indicated for 1992. Rates for adjustment will be considered annually by the commission, rather than establishing automatic adjustments.

a.	Elder, full Connection	$19,685
b.	Probationary member
	1) Non-student living on charge	17,090
	2) Student living on charge	15,435
	3) Student not living on charge	11,580
c.	Associate member	17,090
d.	Local pastor
	1) Full-time local pastor	14,470
	2) Student local pastor living on charge	12,970
	3) Student local pastor not living on charge	9,955

7. Pastors who are appointed to less than full-time service as addressed in the 1988 Discipline, (p442.2) shall be eligible to receive salary supplements from the Equitable Salary Fund. The amount of salary supplement for which the pastor is eligible will be determined by the Cabinet's interpretation of time actually spent in pastoring the charge. For example, if the pastor is deemed as serving 1/4 of full time, his/her minimum salary eligibility would be 1/4 of the minimum of his/her conference relationship classification. The categories of 1/4, 1/2, and 3/4 will be followed in determining less than full-time eligibility for salary supplements from the Equitable Salary Fund.
8. All seminary students enrolled in the M.Div. program and approved local student pastors who are serving pastoral charges and receiving Equitable Salary Supplements may be approved by the Equitable Salary and Clergy Benefits Commission to receive $1.00 per mile, round trip each quarter, for the distance from the school to the primary church of the pastoral charge. This extra allowance shall be computed by the commission, and paid quarterly to the student pastor.

9. Ministers who are not eligible for salary supplements are:
   a. Those whose appointment is other than pastor of a charge.
   b. Those classified as part-time local pastor.
   c. Retired ministers.
   d. No pastor shall be eligible to receive salary supplements from this fund who has been offered appointments with higher salary, but who persistently prefers for personal reasons to remain in a present appointment.

Report No. 2

Moving Expenses

1. We recommend that the conference pay the greater of $200 or $3.00 per mile for the first 100 miles and $1.00 per mile additional after the first 100 miles with no maximum within the bounds of the Annual Conference. The receiving charge is expected to pay any remaining balance of the actual moving expenses.
2. We further recommend that the procedure of filing correct forms with the conference secretary/treasurer be continued.
3. We do, however, expect every receiving charge in the Annual Conference to pay the moving expense of the new minister in excess of the allowances and it must be the responsibility of the district superintendent at the time of consultation to inform the church of its share of this obligation.
4. We recommend that the conference pay the moving expenses of a retiring minister within the boundaries of the conference. This reimbursement will not exceed $500.00 over the amount paid in Article #1.

Report No. 3

The commission has advised CFA, and needs to inform the conference, of the current status of the trust fund out of which salary supplements are presently paid. This fund was established several years ago when there was an apportionment for Equitable Salaries that generated funds in excess of needs. Finally, that apportionment was dropped, and for a time the interest on the fund cared for the needs. However, for the past four or five years, supplement payments have exceeded income, and the corpus of the fund has been used upon the direction of CFA.

The balance of the fund on January 1, 1990 was $86,767. During 1990 the fund earned $9,710 in interest, but paid $34,538 in supplements, leaving a balance January 1, 1991 of $61,939. It is estimated our supplement payments for 1991 will be about $34,000, and of course the interest earned will be less because of the smaller corpus.

As these figures demonstrate, at the current rate the trust fund will carry the program through the 1992 fiscal year, at which time an apportionment will need to be instituted to care for the program. The commission wants the conference to be advised of this information.

COMMITTEE ON THE EPISCOPACY

The Committee on the Episcopacy met November 15 and our meeting was most worthwhile. Bishop Russell spoke to us very candidly about his concerns for our area; he addressed where we have been, where we are now, and he also looked at some directions in which he would like to see us go. Our committee expressed its great appreciation to Bishop Russell for his outstanding leadership and also stated how much we appreciate the fact that he is the first Bishop to the Fort Worth Area. We feel this put us on a solid foundation.

We are aware of Bishop Russell's retirement at Jurisdictional Conference in 1992 and, as a committee, we are vitally concerned about his successor. We believe this is something which should be of top priority to the leadership of our annual conference. This was discussed very openly and plans will be made to work as a committee, along with the Jurisdictional and General Conference delegates, to serve the best needs of the Central Texas Conference, as we understand them.

There is much evidence of good leadership in the conference, such as the marvelous way the conference accepts and supports all apportionments, and the development of new congregations, along with the strength of existing congregations. Bishop Russell and the committee discussed how significant it is to see evidence in hew areas and recognizes this as vital responsibility of our conference.

We look forward to being the host conference for the meeting of the South Central Jurisdiction in 1992. We appreciate Bishop Russell issuing the invitation and we give our support to him in whatever way we can as the host Bishop.

We also express our appreciation to Bishop Russell for his pastoral concerns for the ministers, his involvement with the laity, and his excellent leadership for our entire conference. The committee has evaluated his growth and effectiveness according to conference guidelines and find his leadership to be outstanding. He leads in our area while also serving as president of the General Council on Finance and Administration.

We express our love and deep appreciation to Bishop and Mrs. Russell for what they mean to us personally and professionally. We believe Bishop Russell has given and is giving superb leadership, and that our best years are ahead of us.

HOMES FOR RETIRED MINISTERS

Report No. 1

In 1906, eighty-five years ago, the Central Texas Conference received its first home for retired ministers. Since that gift, others have been received with the understanding that they would be kept in liveable repair. To provide funds for maintenance and repair the Annual Conference relies on a special offering one Sunday each year from its churches.

The offering for 1990 was $17,758.00. This amount was contributed by 198 churches which is 58% of the churches in the conference. We deeply appreciate your financial support. Your continued support through the years has kept us afloat. Sometimes our heads have been just above the water, but we have managed to provide care for those who are in our keeping.

The residents of the homes afforded buoyancy to this ministry by contributing $14,624.00 in 1990. Without this buoy, we would not be able to operate effectively.

Homes for Retired Ministers used to enjoy exemption from Ad Valorem taxes, but no longer receive exemption in most cases. The taxes for 1990 were $16,257.00. Maintenance was somewhat higher than the previous year...$13,352.00. Replacement of and repair to air-conditioners was the main expense. Insurance was $4,512.00

The Board of Trustees reminds the conference of the need for other gifts of homes. Some of our homes have been sold because of age and condition. When an older home becomes vacant and the expense to update is too much, it is sold. Please remember to place your home in your will for this purpose.

INTER-CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON HISPANIC MINISTRY

Report No. 1

Through this committee the Central Texas Conference and the Rio Grande Conferences are working cooperatively. Its purpose is to respond faithfully to a great missionary challenge of being in mission and ministry with Hispanics. We have only to look around to see that there is a great need for Hispanic ministry. Recent census data show that one out of every four Texans claims Hispanic origin. In Texas by the year 2015 the Hispanic population is projected to be 39% and will be close to equalling the Anglo population of 43%.

Our missionary challenge is too great for any one conference alone. Thus, through this committee our two conferences work cooperatively to initiate, coordinate, and enable inter-conference Hispanic ministries within the bounds of the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences.

The "Revised Strategic Plan for Inter-Conference Cooperative Ministries" (see pages 208-210 of the 1989 Journal of The Central Texas Annual Conference or pages 126-129 of the 1989 Actas Oficiales Conferencia del Rio Grande) is serving as a model for other conferences. Through the Inter-Conference Committee our two conferences have been on the cutting edge of inter-conference Hispanic ministry development.

Accomplishments for the year include the following:

1. Last June our two conferences celebrated the cooperative development of a new Hispanic congregation in Far Northside, Fort Worth. The Revs. John and Anita Valles were appointed pastors of El Calvario. See Report 2 for a progress report. The Committee, through its consultant Jeannie Trevino-Teddlie, provides ongoing consultation to the pastors and advisory committee of El Calvario.

2. Facilitated a consultation between Northern District (Rio Grande Conference) and the Temple District (Central Texas Conference). Participants included the two district superintendents, the Rio Grande Conference Director of Congregational Development and the Committee's consultant.

3. Last June representatives of the Committee met with and provided data for the National Committee to Develop a National Plan for Hispanic Ministries. This National Committee is charged with the responsibility for presenting a plan to the 1992 General Conference (see Report 3). Last March the Committee's consultant participated in a maxi-consultation at the invitation of the National Committee.

4. Three different courses were offered by the Committee's consultant at Fall University of the Central Texas Conference (September 7-8, 1990). The Committee sponsored two additional courses taught by Francisco Estrada and Roberto Gomez, both district superintendents in the Rio Grande Conference. The response was excellent.

5. On September 21, 1990 the Committee facilitated a six hour joint cabinet meeting involving the extended cabinets of both conferences. The Northern District hosted the meeting in San Antonio. Visioning for Hispanic ministry in the South Central Jurisdiction was done.

6. The Committee provided scholarships to send several persons in Hispanic ministry to "The Gathering" last October.

7. Consultation has begun with the Fort Worth East District and the Central District to begin a cooperative comprehensive mission design and strategy for Hispanic ministry in Southeast Fort Worth.

8. Consultant and a Resource Team member conducted a Shared Facility Workshop with Polytechnic UMC, Fort Worth, last February.

Goals for 1990-1991:

1. Using available 1990 census data, identify the communities with a significant increase in Hispanic population, and identify local churches in those communities which are becoming increasingly Hispanic. In addition, identify Hispanic membership in Central Texas Conference churches.

2. Encourage local churches which are located in communities where there are significant increases in Hispanic population to use Inter-Conference Committee resources such as Resource Teams to enable them to explore ministry possibilities with Hispanics.

3. Work with both conferences to develop a cooperative comprehensive mission design and strategy for Hispanic ministry in Southeast Fort Worth.

4. Continue to recruit and train persons to serve on resource teams.

5. Continue to provide courses during Fall University of the Central Texas Conference which will resource local churches in the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences in their ministry with Hispanics.

6. Continue to provide consultation and support for El Calvario, the new cooperative Hispanic mission in North Fort Worth.

7. Continue providing consultation to churches who are involved with cooperative ministry with Hispanics, i.e. Church of the Good Shepherd (Arlington) work team with Jerusalèn (Corpus Christi) and First (Arlington) work team with Primera (near Harlingen), First (Grapevine) advance Special Support for the Rio Grande Conference Salary supplement, Gordon for providing tuition scholarship for Bethel pastor (Abilene) to attend McMurry, Temple District and First (Temple) support of El Divino Salvador (Temple), El Divino Salvador and First (both of Temple), El Buen Pastor and First (both of Moody), University (Fort Worth) sharing facilities with San Pablo, Western Hills (Fort Worth) and First (Hillsboro) in donating choir robes and equipment for El Calvario, Grace (Fort Worth), Polytechnic (Fort Worth), and La Trinidad (Fort Worth).

8. Encourage and initiate new cooperative ministries, as well as encourage and coordinate work team projects with Hispanic ministries.

9. Promote the Advance Special goal for San Pablo (Fort Worth), El Calvario (Fort Worth), salary support for the Rio Grande Conference, and Casa Ricardo Chacon (Fort Worth).

10. Facilitate the two extended cabinets of both conferences in their annual meeting to dialogue and develop strategies about inter-conference cooperative ministry.

11. Continue to work with the National Committee to Develop a National Plan for Hispanic Ministries in order to offer the learnings, insights and experience of the Inter-Conference Committee. Encourage support for adoption of a national plan at the 1992 General Conference (see Report 3).

Report No. 2
Progress and Work of El Calvario

(The new Hispanic Mission which is a cooperative project of the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences)

John and Anita Valles are the pastors who were appointed last June to begin a new Hispanic church in North Fort Worth. The church represents a cooperative ministry between the Central Texas Conference and the Rio Grande Conference. It is housed in the former Calvary United Methodist Church. Because the former congregation was so gracious and helpful in the transition to the new church, the decision was made to retain the same name; however, it was translated into Spanish: Iglesia Metodista Unida El Calvario.

Work was interrupted for a time while Anita had surgery in July. Full operation was delayed until mid-October.

With the help of an outreach worker, Ismael Rodriguez, who is a TCU student, a neighborhood survey was done in order to assess the needs in the community. An English-as-a-Second Language school was needed to alleviate the over crowded conditions of the ESL program at Wesley Community Center. Also a church within walking distance was greatly needed due to lack of transportation for many residents.

An ESL program began the first week in November, 1990. Average attendance has been around 40 for the two-night-a-week program. Additionally a special class for non-literates has begun. About seven students have enrolled.

About three and a half weeks ago we began rehearsing our mariachi choir on Sunday mornings from 10:00 to 11:00 a.m. Bible classes for children, youth and adults are offered from 11:00 to 12:00 noon.

A Women, Infants and Children (WIC) program was begun by Judith Rodriguez, wife of Ismael and a seminary student at Brite. It begins from 9:00-10:00 a.m. on Sunday. The people who come are then invited to stay and join the choir and the Bible classes. The WIC program was badly needed because the other Northside location was overcrowded. People were having to wait for weeks for their infant formula and other WIC services.

Pre-natal classes have begun in cooperation with the John Peter Smith Tarrant County Hospital District. The Hospital District sends an LVN to teach the class. Additionally a nurse's aide training has been taught in February and March. Ten women and one man have been trained. Other possibilities have continued to be explored in cooperation with the Educational Services Department of the Hospital District.

Other needs have arisen which we are attempting to meet. Anita received a couple of letters from Tarrant County jail prisoners who requested ESL instruction by correspondence. She has been working to get ESL classes taught inside the jail by the Fort Worth ISD Adult Education. Fort Worth ISD is willing to cooperate. Some advocacy with the Commissioner's Court may be needed to gain their approval.

A counseling center is being developed at El Calvario in cooperation with TCU's Psychology Department. Free counseling services are needed and can be provided by bi-lingual psychology students from TCU. Two licensed psychologists (one male, one female) are needed to supervise the students' work. Fall, 1991, is the target date to begin.

The church has been cleaned and repainted inside. The bell has been repaired. It rings once again on Sunday mornings. Neighbors have remarked that they are enjoying the sound of a church bell on Sunday mornings.

Recently Bible studies were begun in the homes of ESL students and Sunday morning participants. At present we have rotated studies in at least five homes. Our group has grown to about 20 regular attendees. These will form the core for the first worship service which will be in the near future.

Please pray for our mission. We have highs and lows, making starting difficult. We need cribs, tables and chairs. Most of all we need your prayers and continued support. We are thankful for all ministries by our two conferences and for all the people who make this support possible.

John and Anita Valles, Pastors, El Calvario

Report No. 3
Resolution on the National Plan on Hispanic Ministries

Whereas demographic projections indicate nearly 45 million Hispanics in the United States by 2010 making Hispanics the fastest growing segment of the United States population; and

Whereas this population growth represents a unique opportunity for evangelization and church growth; and

Whereas the 1988 General Conference affirmed that "the ministry with Hispanics must be a concern of the whole church" and mandated that a national committee be appointed to develop and present to the 1992 General Conference a "national comprehensive plan for the Hispanic ministries"; and

Whereas we are all called by our God to respond in faithfulness to the challenge of ministry to and with Hispanics as a way of acting out our commitment to Jesus Christ:

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that we as an Annual Conference do support and encourage the adoption of a plan to respond to the challenge and opportunity for ministry with Hispanics by the 1992 General Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Report No. 4

The inter-conference cooperation between the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences is not matched by any other annual conference in Texas and New Mexico. The sending of fraternal delegates to each other's annual conferences celebrates the close relationship which has developed between our conferences. Therefore, the Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry recommends that John Decker be designated as the fraternal delegate to the Rio Grande Annual Conference which will meet June 6-9, 1991, in Georgetown, Texas. The Committee further recommends that John and Anita Valles be designated alternate fraternal delegates.

UNITED METHODIST MEN

We believe in our work: We are proud of the role the United Methodist Men are performing as they continue to accept their responsibility in the church and community as they do their services and live out our goals of "Evangelism - Mission - Spiritual Life".

The men of Central Texas Conference continue to lead all conferences in America with their contributions to underwrite the success of our goals.

Seven to eight hundred dollars goes forward to the national office each and every month to help finance the international project. United Methodist Men's contributions made it possible to give 200 Bibles for use in the sleeping rooms of the newly-renovated Gibson Hall at Scarritt-Bennett Center.

During 1990 7,923 men volunteered to support the EMS Emphasis. They gave $15.00 each and are now involved in prayer groups, Bible study, visitation, evangelism and as volunteers in mission projects.

Central Texas United Methodist Men support our prayer tower located at the Upper Room. Last year 100,000 prayer requests were received. These requests came from people who are hurting and have no other place to turn at this time.

Chartered Units: We continue to marvel at the tremendous number of UMM units being chartered or rechartered. Units that had been inactive for many years have gained new spirits and have rechartered and are active.

Moving United Methodists: Our Moving United Methodists (MUM) Program is an evangelistic outreach program designed to relate United Methodist members who move from one community to another to a new United Methodist Church in their community. 25,145 were processed in 1990.

The United Methodist Men of Central Texas Conference is the leading contributor of monies that go to the United Methodist Men's Foundation with present assets totaling $506,689.84. Of this amount $380,568.49 is in the United Methodist Scouting Ministry Endowment.

6,000 God and Country emblems were presented in 1990. More and more Methodist men and clergy are becoming aware of the potential of scouting as an outreach ministry.

Last Fall 89 United Methodist Men and one lady spent three week-ends roofing, painting the interior and exterior of three cabins at Glen Lake Camp. We also replaced the east and west walls of the recreation hall and Siceloff Hall and painted the new walls and assisted youth groups with their roofing projects and several church groups that needed roofing assistance. This was three week-ends of great fellowship and working together.

Caring Opportunities: Many caring efforts were conducted by our UMM for many families with loved ones in the Persian Gulf effort. Many more opportunities for service is in our conference-wide effort to be of more service to men in rest homes, physically impaired and cannot attend our men's monthly meetings. We are making an extra effort to arrange transportation for them or have a unit meeting at their rest home occasionally. It's the responsibility of the local unit to see this opportunity for service.

Future Events: Spring Round-Up, Saturday May 4, 1991, Glen Lake Camp; Fall Rally, Saturday September 28, 1991, Hill College, Hillsboro; South Central Jurisdiction United Methodist Men's Congress, June 28-30, 1991, Centenary College, Shreveport, Louisiana.

We are doing great things. Come join us. Join us and enjoy opportunities to make a meaningful contribution to the mission of the church! Join us and share the benefits and blessings of like-minded Christian men. Join us and find your place of service and fellowship. "Serve the Lord with gladness." - Psalm 100:2

ALDERSGATE ENRICHMENT CENTER

It was with great excitement and pride that Aldersgate Enrichment Center opened the first of many doors to the ministry we have long awaited to provide. This Spring Aldersgate began its Vocational Training Program and Center.

Last fall, the Board of Trustees began to explore the possibilities of beginning some basic programs through the use of some existing facilities and resources in the Brownwood area. After a careful study by the Program Committee, the Board of Trustees approved the implementation of the Vocational Program.

During 1990 the Board of Trustees approved both the Master Plan and a Financial Development Plan for the construction of the Aldersgate campus. While fund-raising efforts are continuing toward the first construction phase, the need for more alternative programs and services to adults with limited abilities continues to grow. The Aldersgate Trustees and staff felt that it was critical for Aldersgate to begin some of its primary programs as soon as possible, while continuing to raise the additional capital funds needed for the construction of the proposed campus.

In late January, the Board of Trustees selected Mike Millican as its first Director of Vocational Services. Mike came to Aldersgate Enrichment Center with over twenty years of experience in the field of training and employing disadvantaged youth and adults.

The Aldersgate Vocational Center, known as Aldersgate Industries, opened its first door for services on April 1, 1991. A 10,000 square foot building was leased in Brownwood which will serve as the first home of the Aldersgate Vocational Program. Aldersgate Industries' first vocational contract was for nearly $500,000 annually. Other vocational contracts are continually being developed, which will include manufacturing, packaging and assembly operations.

Aldersgate's Vocational Program provides more than just a place for adults with limited abilities to work. Included in the Vocational Program are specialized training and adjustment classes, individualized skill and habilitation plans and a variety of other special interest seminars. The objective of the Vocational Program will be to provide an opportunity for those in our society who lack the skills and training that others find readily available by allowing each person to realize their full potential. Special emphasis will be given to preparing persons for job placement in a community setting as well as helping them procure such jobs in the community. Aldersgate's Vocational Program is primarily designed for adults with limited abilities, who are mildly to moderately retarded, have learning disabilities or other handicapping conditions. The primary goals of Aldersgate's Vocational Program are "to develop people" and to produce quality products. There is no tuition charged for Aldersgate's Vocational Program and participants earn wages in accordance with the standards set forth by the regulatory governmental agencies.

Those adults with limited abilities participating in Aldersgate's Vocational Program are referred to as associates. Aldersgate opened its doors with five associates and a waiting list of six more. It is our expectation that Aldersgate may easily have fifteen associates by the end of this calendar year, depending on the procurement of other vocational contracts. It is the intent of Aldersgate's Vocational Program to have a variety of different types of work to meet the needs and interest of those whom it will serve. Aldersgate also prides itself in the fact that the services it renders and the products it produces will strengthen the local and regional economy, as well as providing jobs for persons that have often not found employment elsewhere in the competitive labor market. The support of the local Brownwood and Early communities as well as the regional business community and those around the Annual Conference has been overwhelming.

While the current Vocational Program is seeking to meet the needs of individuals in the Brownwood area, there continues to be a growing need for those outside the area for both vocational and residential training and services. It is Aldersgate's intention to begin a Residential Program in leased facilities later this year. There already exists a waiting list for this type of service.

Among our many blessings is the support we have received from the members of this conference. Last year, the Annual Conference approved the third Sunday in February to be designated, "Aldersgate Enrichment Center Day." On Sunday, February 17 of this year, local churches observed this special day by distributing information about Aldersgate's special ministry and by taking an advance special offering. The support that we have been able to determine at the present has been overwhelming. We are deeply appreciative of the numerous ways the individuals and local churches of the Central Texas Conference have given of their time, talents, and resources to bring this ministry to reality. Your continued support has enabled Aldersgate to open some very special doors for some very special people.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

United Methodist Women in the Central Texas Conference is a community of women whose purpose is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

There are 9684 members in 209 local units as well as some district members. Three new units were organized during 1990. We sent a total of $218,670.71 to Women's Division for the mission program of the church.

We were pleased to have been asked to participate in hosting the Bishops of the church during their council meeting last November. We provided staff for the hospitality room. We had participation from each of the seven districts, and reflected the diversity of our membership. We had women of various ages, from farms, small towns and cities, employed outside the home as well as full-time homemakers, and varied ethnic backgrounds. And it was fun!

We participated in a LEGISLATIVE EVENT in Austin during the last week in January 1991. We worked hard to help defeat the bill that would have established a lottery in Texas.

We had a Financial Promotion Workshop for selected district and conference officers. It was held at Glen Lake.

We are offering a course at FALL UNIVERSITY in September. This is our first time to participate in this way. The course, entitled "Creating a New Community: Overcoming Racism" will be open to everyone.

We will cooperate with the conference Board of Global Ministries in presenting the School of Christian Mission in July.

Our annual meeting is scheduled for October 4 and 5 in Temple.

We ask your continued prayers and support for us as we seek to do God's work in God's world.

Mary Weathers, President

COMMITTEE ON LAY EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

Charged with the responsibility of ensuring policies relating to the lay employees of the conference are equitable and consistent among the three conference agencies (ACCOM, CFA, and CG&D), the Committee on Lay Employee Benefits is comprised of three conference lay employees, the three conference agency directors, and three lay members.

Last year it was reported to the Annual Conference that the committee had recommended implementation of formal policies, specified in an employee handbook. The committee continued to review, evaluate, and clarify those policies this year. Policies include holidays, insurance, pension, sick leave, disability, and vacation. Recommendations are directed to the three councils to be implemented as mutually agreed.

LYDIA PATTERSON INSTITUTE

Report No. 1

The administration and staff of Lydia Patterson Institute rejoice in the many blessings that this academic, evangelistic ministry has experienced this past year!

Our enrollment has held steady at 343. We feel that this affirms the confidence that is felt for our academic program which is fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. We continue to have an enviable academic record. As a result of our constant emphasis of "reaching for each one's potential" 34 out of last year's graduating class of 38 were admitted and went to the college or university of their choice, i.e., 89%.

Our student body make-up continues to be 80% Mexican citizens who study with student visas and 20% who are U. S. citizens. Our make-up includes anglos, blacks, chinese, and hispanics. Our students are constantly challenged by a concept that emphasizes not only a thorough command of English as a Second Language, but the further challenge of completing a standard high school curriculum. While fostering love for their own culture, we promote a positive knowledge of and appreciation for our own U. S. culture and mores. We constantly emphasize the concept that knowledge of two languages and two cultures makes one worth two people.

Our student body is nurtured by a spiritual emphasis that challenges our students to consider the claims of Christ in their personal lives. We have weekly chapel with required attendance, and daily devotions for the whole student body. We offered our student body four (4) spiritual retreats this year that have impacted many in an enduring fashion. To graduate, a student must take four semesters of biblically related subjects. We gratefully recognize that many young lives are forever uplifted when they accept the Lordship of Christ in their lives.

We urge everyone to consider including us in their travel agenda. Women's groups, mission study groups, youth groups, work camp groups are all cordially invited to visit us...with or without notice. We consider you to be a vital part of the ministry of Lydia Patterson Institute.

A look back over the twelve months of 1990 will reveal that the apportioned support from the churches in the 17 annual conferences of the South Central Jurisdiction reached the level of 79%. I trust that those churches who have elected not to support us will prayerfully reconsider their decision, and will give us the privilege of providing them with our latest materials that tell our story. We are trusting for the day when the entire jurisdiction will join those annual conferences who subscribe their apportioned askings for Lydia Patterson Institute 100%.

Report No. 2

The 1990-1991 school year has been a time of severe trial and of genuine progress and blessing in the ministry of Lydia patterson Institute. The severe trial has come as a result of our chapel being arsoned in the month of August. The blessing has been seen in the fact that our insurance company has been able to cover the renovation and that we will again have the use of our chapel on March 14, 1991.

The perennial financial crisis in Mexico's economy continues. This never ceases to be a serious concern for L.P.I.'s administration since 95% of our students come from Mexico and are directly affected by the prevailing economic conditions. Even so, our enrollment has held steady, and we have had the second highest enrollment in the past eight years (just 12 less than our all-time high). Expanded publicity and enlistment efforts are being projected with the goal of reaching 400 for the 1991-1992 school year.

Our students continue to respond to our academic challenge. This year's senior class has already achieved admission to the college or technical school of their choice for 86% of our graduating seniors.

Our financial picture has been very encouraging. We finished out our immediate passed fiscal year in the black with a surplus of $35,000. This surplus has been applied against our accrued indebtedness, which has built up over the past fifteen years to $135,000, and has reduced it to $100,000. We propose to fully liquidate this indebtedness over the next year. This very encouraging accomplishment is due largely to the work of Mrs. Socorro de Anda and the newly-established office of Finance and Development.

The administration and staff wish to thank the many churches, church school classes, men's and women's groups, and individuals all across the jurisdiction who have made this past year's financial success possible. This year's experience has proven, once again, the incomparable effectiveness of Methodism's connectional relationship. It has enabled L.P.I. to continue a ministry that is as urgently relevant today as when the doors originally opened in 1913. Alfredo T. Grout Q., President

MOUNT SEQUOYAH CONFERENCE AND RETREAT CENTER

Our 1991 theme is "Mount Sequoyah -- The Place!" This place (Mount Sequoyah Conference and Retreat Center) became a reality in the Southern Methodist Church in 1922 when Fayetteville, Arkansas was accepted as the site of the new 'Western Methodist Assembly' grounds. The city of Fayetteville offered church representatives the top of East Mountain together with the land totaling 400 acres, and a pledge of $35,000 in cash to assure the establishing of our assembly in their city. It was Mrs. A. C. Millar, wife of the first administrator, that suggested the name of "Mount Sequoyah."

Since 1922 United Methodists and other Christians have come to this place for conferences, retreats, training events, camps, spiritual journeys, and outreach ministries of all kinds. This place is where the Cross of Christ has been lifted up over the city of Fayetteville and thousands are drawn to this site. The mountain top experiences at this place have enriched the entire world and the church.

Dr. Earl Carter served as Interim Administrator the first part of 1990. The staff was re-structured in late 1989, and Carrol Rainwater serves as Chief Operating Officer. During the transition, the quality and quantity of events and persons sharing the Mount Sequoyah Spirit has continued at high level. The coming of the new Administrator (Rev. Robert E. Young) June 1, 1990 was facilitated in an excellent way because of the wonderful previous administration of both Earl and Carrol. This enabled us to relate to the whole Jurisdiction; also, to visit and share the Sequoyah Spirit with nine annual conferences. Plans are to visit the remaining annual conferences in 1991. Besides hosting events on the mountain and communicating with the Jurisdiction, we have preached in churches in Arkansas, Oklahoma, and Texas telling the Sequoyah Story.

At the Fall meeting of the Board of Trustees two significant steps were taken. First, an adoption of a family ministry policy statement affirming the excellent usage by adult and older adult groups. They also saw the need for the whole family ministry, especially for children and youth. They authorized the administration to work with family, children, and youth groups and to allocate available facilities and resources in a prudent and effective manner. Secondly, in order to fulfill this policy, they authorized the selection and hiring or an independent professional organization to help us. Resource Systems, Inc. (RSI) of Dallas, Texas, has been secured to do a study and make recommendations for needs to fulfill Mount Sequoyah's ability to meet the challenges that are ahead. They will help us define the building needs, program needs and the possible capital funds needs. Some of you will be asked for inputs to this study. This will be planning for the future of Mount Sequoyah. Probably improvements include: A new sports complex, swimming pool, outside play areas, tennis courts, basketball courts, etc.; additional new self-contained first class housing facility; and any needed residence housing. The very successful Bishop's Club will be continued and phased into our planning.

Some of the more memorable occurrences or events during 1990 were:

- The loss of our dear friend Bishop Paul Galloway, August 4, 1990. There was a mutual love between him and the staff of Mount Sequoyah.
- Galloway Cafeteria building was re-done with a new sloped roof in Spring of 1990.
- Bishop's Week continues to be an outstanding event, with record attendances.
- The seven retiree events are always outstanding. The Mountain Staff enjoy them and they seem to be enriched with the Mountain Top Experience.
- VIM Work Camp event is always of great interest. We get a lot of things done, and it is such a pleasant experience.

- The capacity of Mount Sequoyah was tested with about 386 people attending a new "Adults Over 50" event. It rained the first two days of the event and our Galloway Cafeteria became "Camp Galloway" for those 2 days. We also had a record of coffee consumption (about 1200 gallons). We and they had an enjoyable experience.
- The Marriage Encounter World Reunion was held here in 1990 with about 300 attenders, plus they had 50 to 60 youth that were not here. The youth had their own retreat off the Mountain (as a separate group).

The 1991 events will be exciting with full attendance at Bishop's Week, Retiree Events, and VIM Work Camp, and Volunteers in Missions helpers, and every person of the 17 annual conferences is invited to share our mission and ministry. When you are called upon to assure our future, please respond affirmatively. Come to the Mountain as often as you can. Serving as Trustees from Central Texas Conference are Bishop John Russell, Jurisdictional Executive Committee Chairperson and member of our Personnel and Policies Committee; and Barry Bailey, member of Executive Committee and chairperson of Promotion and Publicity Committee. Your Ambassadors to Mount Sequoyah are Rev. and Mrs. Wilson Canafax of Fort Worth, Texas.

Mount Sequoyah has a great future. Every person in the seventeen annual conferences in our great South Central Jurisdiction is invited to make "our place" their place. The same Sequoyah Spirit of the 1920's is still alive and we invite you to come to this place!

Report No. 2

The Board of Ordained Ministry would remind the members of the Annual Conference that last year's Annual Conference adopted the program of Growth and Effectiveness Review. Each clergy person and each congregation is required to participate in an evaluative program, on an annual basis, with a report being included at each church's charge conference beginning in the fall of 1991.

The Board of Ordained Ministry urges the full participation of each congregation and each clergy person in an annual program of Growth and Effectiveness Review.

Resolution relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired or Disabled Ministers of this Conference

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service, and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the Central Texas Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference; and

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister, and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

NOW THERE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefits payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 1992 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the Central Texas Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability;
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of:

1. The amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body,
2. The amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or
3. The legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided.

As specified as Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C.B.92, " the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 109(2) of the Code as a 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

Insurance Committee

The following financial information gives last year's actual activity and the projected activity for 1991 and 1992 in the insurance program. The 1990 figures are the actual revenues and disbursements through December 31, 1990. We experienced an increase in our reserves from a beginning cash balance of $143,564 to an ending balance of $353,000. Although it is an improvement over 1989, we feel this is not an adequate reserve when claims are running over $1,000,000 per year.

Ending Cash	$ 353,001	$ 339,690	$ 107,954

After two full years of experience with our Utilization Review Provider, Transport Life reported that this has resulted in a savings of $216,705. The compliance percentage for participants in the plan was 92.5%.

ProAmerica, our Preferred Provider Organization, is requiring those groups participating in their network to use one of the incentives they offer as a display of good faith in obtaining a high percentage of usage of its facilities. Failure to use them will result in an additional $250 out of pocket per confinement for the participant, which could result in a larger maximum out of pocket expense. Participants who live more than 25 miles from such a facility would be excluded. Unusual and specific cases where ProAmerica facilities do not provide the care required would also be excluded. Our participation in ProAmerica continues to be a means of savings to our plan.

COUNCIL ON PLANNED GIVING

Report No. 1

At the beginning of the conference year 1990-91, Pat Sprayberry, our Executive Director, resigned to assume another responsibility. We secured the services of Dr. Ervin Gathings to be the interim director. During this year we have continued to keep the ministry and services of the Office of Planned Giving before the churches and people of the annual conference. Our director has made a presentation to six of the seven district ministers meetings. He has presented the program in twenty-nine churches. Over the past three years, approximately $5,000,000 in gift commitments have been recorded through the Office of Planned Giving. We are sure there are many others who, because of the influence of this office, have gone about changing their wills or setting up trusts with the aid and direction of their legal council and/or tax accountant.

Report No. 2

During the year 1990-91, through the efforts of a study committee, the Council on Planned Giving has evaluated and reworded our purpose and sought to give direction to the future of our program. We have come to the understanding that our primary mission is to be a ministry in assisting people to do with their estates what they desire to do. Also, we have come to the conclusion that this ministry can best be fulfilled as a part of the Foundation of the Central Texas Conference. The Foundation has been providing the expense for the Office of Planned Giving for the past three years and for this we are grateful. We initiated conversation with the Board of Directors of the Foundation of the Central Texas Conference. They are in agreement that the mission of the Council on Planned Giving can be incorporated into the mission of the Foundation. The recommendations concerning this will be presented to the Conference in another report.

We believe that the great benefit of this ministry to the Annual Conference and the local churches will be felt in the years to come.

Arch Coleman, Chairperson
Ervin M. Gathings, Executive Director

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

During the past year, the commission has made a little progress. The General Commission on Religion and Race has set new guidelines for monitoring annual conferences. This gives us a more direct way to approach monitoring within our own annual conference. There are many areas that are being racially inclusive i.e., our youth ministries, U.M.W., some local churches, some committees, and a few of the districts and yet there are many places where racism is either more visible or racism occurs in very subtle ways. We also give thanks that there is an Inclusiveness Team that is working directly with racism along with other issues. One of the highlights of this past year was at Fall University when we had Rev. Esdras Rodriguez-Diaz with us from the National office for Religion and Race. He felt that we were doing a good job and was encouraged by the commission because we know what our task is about. Our feeling is that it is one thing to know what we are about and another to do what we are called to be doing. Therefore we have set new goals for 1991-1992. These are:

1. Pulpit Exchanges:
   a. We are inviting all local churches in our annual conference to invite a person of another ethnicity than it's own to preach during the months of January and February. We also want to encourage cross choir or fellowship groups to participate with one another.

b. That churches be encouraged to meet in ecumenical clusters in cases where there are not many local U.M. minority churches.

c. That each district sponsor an annual district-wide event sponsored by the district Commission on Religion and Race to promote racial inclusiveness.

2. District Hearings:
District hearings need to be conducted in each district to allow local congregations to express their feelings and concerns about inclusiveness in the local churches. These hearings need to be held within the next three to six months and then on an annual to bi-annual basis. A committee has been appointed to develop guidelines for these hearings.

3. We would like to encourage larger Anglo congregations to hire African American, Hispanic, Asian, or Native American pastors whose role is to help revitalize smaller minority congregations as well as to help the larger church in its own ministry of inclusiveness.

4. We would like to recommend that all local church offices in the Central Texas Conference be closed in honor of Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Birthday as done by our conference office.

5. We would also continue to express our appreciation to the Bishop and the Cabinet for the cross-racial appointments that have been made within our annual conference. We want to encourage the continuance of these appointments and suggest that more of these appointments should be made.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS AND COURTESY

We have come together as servant leaders in celebration of God's grace and the good things that are taking place in our local congregations across the Conference. The Central Texas Conference continues to be at the forefront with many areas of ministry and church growth. We have celebrated these successes and blessings, and we have been reminded of the challenges that still remain before us as God's servants of compassion, peace and justice.

There are many persons to whom we are grateful for the efficiency of this year's Annual Conference. The Conference body greatly appreciates the work of the Conference staff and support staff, the Annual Conference tellers and so many people who worked behind the scenes to keep the Conference moving smoothly. We are grateful to the Harris Methodist System for providing our printed agenda, reports and various materials. Special recognition goes to the Agenda Committee and chairperson, Tim Russell. Our comfort, inspiration and entertainment could not have been better cared for than by our host church, First United Methodist, its staff, and senior pastor, Dr. Barry Bailey. Along with the Arrangements Committee, their attention to every detail has provided us with excellent meeting facilities and lodging accommodations.

At the heart of our celebration and witness has been our worship together. Highest accolades to Reverend James Olney, and the Annual Conference Worship Committee, for their efforts in bringing together inspirational and empowering experiences of word and ritual. The rich original music of Sonny Walden, the special music of the Waco United Methodist Fellowship, the Central Texas Conference, Everman United Methodist and First United Methodist Church choirs, as well as all of the instrumentalists, lifted our spirits in harmony. We were once again reminded that at the heart of life is a God of song.

Our Conference preacher. Dr. James Moore, affirmed and challenged us in our witness as servants of God, calling us to celebrate our diversity and to seek God in both the unexpected and routine moments of our lives. Our devotional times throughout each day helped to remind us of the love and presence of God which permeates all that we are about in our deliberation.

Leading us in our effectiveness as an Annual Conference is our resident bishop, John Russell, and the graciousness of his wife, Mary Jean. Under Bishop Russell's leadership, once again, our Conference rejoices in continued growth, expanded ministries, the initiation of two new congregations, and the heightened awareness of the diversity and value we all bring to this ministry in terms of our age, gender, ethnicity, and talent. We have truly enjoyed his sense of humor and the ease with which he has guided us through these three days of work.

As we approach the conclusion of this Annual Conference, let us reflect with Dr. James Moore on those Kairos moments we have experienced here, those moments where we have experienced the presence of God, where we have even seen the face of Christ in others. We will long remember the spontaneity of spirit with Leann McClatchey as she played her accordion and led us in a final rousing rendition of the "Beer Barrell Polka". We are reminded of the genuineness in Bishop Russell's face as it turned various shades of red throughout the week. We will remember many such moments, corporately and individually, sharing joys and trials and vulnerability with one another, renewing old friendships and embracing those new clergy, diaconal and lay persons who have, this week, entered the ministry of servanthood with us.

May these bright memories and deep thoughts of our time together continue to sustain us in our time apart.

I AM ONE VOICE (by Don Eaton)
I am one voice and I am singing...
We are one thousand voices singing...
I am one voice and I'll keep singing...
We are not alone.

COMMITTEE ON RULES

The Committee on Rules continues its work to review the standing rules to ensure the most effective and efficient functioning of the Annual Conference. We are honored at the opportunity to serve this Annual Conference and offer this report for consideration.

The following recommended revisions to the standing rules contain: the paragraph number followed by the recommended change (with material to be deleted underlined and material to be added in bold face), the rationale for the recommendation and the organization that proposed the revision.

I. ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Conference Procedure

1.3.1 After "...any conference board, commission,..." delete the word "or". After the phrase "...committee chairperson..." add ", or the Director and Associate Directors of the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA), Commission on Church Growth and Development (CG&D), and the Annual Conference Council on Ministries (ACCOM)..." Continue with "...who is a lay person not otherwise a member...."

Rationale: This change would bring into membership in the Annual Conference those individuals whose responsibilities directly affect the functioning of the Annual Conference but who might be lay persons and not otherwise eligible for Annual Conference membership.

(Council on Finance and Administration)

1.4 After "...commissions, committees, or councils..." delete ",before action can be taken by the Annual Conference, shall be reported back to the conference..." add the phrase "shall be referred to a Legislative Committee of the appropriate board, commission, committee or council consisting of the members of the board, commission, committee or council present at the conference chaired by the chairperson of the appropriate body or designee and shall be reported back to the conference with recommendation.... Continue with "...for action prior to the close of the conference...."

1.4.1 All other papers, resolutions or reports presented to Annual Conference which may not pertain directly to the work of one of the conference boards, commissions, committees or councils, must also be referred to an appropriate Legislative Committee or a study committee named by the conference and shall be reported back to the conference with recommendation for action prior to the close of the conference session, unless otherwise directed by the Annual Conference.

Rationale: Frequently, when an issue or a paper, resolution or report submitted to Annual Conference is referred to the appropriate board, commission, committee or council, not all members of those groups are in attendance at the Annual Conference in sufficient numbers to form a quorum. This revision would create a "Legislative Committee" with a quorum comprised of those members of the appropriate group who are in attendance. Since they would constitute a quorum of the Legislative Committee, they would be able to report back to the conference with a recommendation for action on the matter submitted to them. This procedure is similar to the one adopted by General Conference.

(Agenda Committee)

II. CONFERENCE ORGANIZATION

Conference Council on Ministries (ACCOM) Committees:

2.0 After the phrase "... a Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns;", delete the word "...and..." After the phrase "... Committee on Communications and Interpretation...", delete the "." (period). Add the following "...; and a Committee on Camps and Assemblies." In the next sentence, after the phrase "The members of these committees...", insert a "," (comma) and add "...except the Committee on Camps and Assemblies,..."

Rationale: Currently, the Committee on Camps and Assemblies related to and reports in areas of program and budget through the Board of Discipleship which also appoints the committee chair and members. However, in areas of personnel and money management, the committee reports to and is amenable to the ACCOM through the ACCOM director. This proposal would make the Committee on Camps and Assemblies a standing committee of the ACCOM, be nominated by the conference nominating committee, elected by the Annual Conference and be amenable to the Annual Conference through ACCOM. Each district would have at least one member on the committee. The conference treasurer would be treasurer for all accounts of the committee.

The following paragraphs are proposed to be added to the section "Conference Council on Ministries (ACCOM) Committees":

2.6 There shall be a Committee on Camps and Assemblies.

2.6.1 The members shall include its officers; the six trustees of Glen Lake-Rainbow UM Camps, Inc.; seven at-large members; seven district representatives, one from each district; one youth representative named by the conference Council on Youth Ministry; and one representative of the Board of Discipleship named by the Board of Discipleship. Additional members without vote shall be the director and associate directors of ACCOM and the camp administrator.

2.6.2 The trustees of Glen Lake-Rainbow UM Camps, Inc., shall be nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference. The officers and at-large members shall be nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference. The district representatives shall be nominated by the district Nominations Committee and elected by the District Conference.

2.6.3 Trustees shall continue to serve three-year terms and to be eligible for nomination for a second term with three classes. At-large members shall be elected for a quadrennium and be eligible for one additional quadrennium of service. The initial elected body shall be divided into two classes, with one class serving a quadrennium and the other class eligible for election to another quadrennium. Thereafter, each quadrennium, new members shall be elected for a four-year term and be eligible for one additional quadrennium.

2.6.4 The Committee on Camps and Assemblies shall have a chair, a vice-chair and a secretary, all of whom shall be nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference at the beginning of each quadrennium. The trustees shall elect annually a chair, a vice-chair and a secretary. The Annual Conference Treasurer shall be the treasurer for all accounts of the committee.

2.6.5 The work committees on Finance, Program and Development shall be elected by the body or executive committee, or appointed by the Camps and Assemblies chair. The executive committee shall consist of the chair, the vice-chair, the secretary, the chair of finance, trustees, program and development, the camp administrator and the ACCOM director.

(Committee on Camps and Assemblies)

Conference Agencies:

Council on Finance and Administration

7.0 In the first sentence, following the phrase "...which shall be composed of...", delete "...five clergy and six lay persons. Add "...seven clergy and eight lay persons, with at least one lay person from each district."

7.1 After the first sentence, following the phrase "...re-election for one additional four-year term.", add this sentence "The Committee on Nominations is encouraged to assure that, insofar as possible, the membership will have a balance of men/women and racial/ethnic makeup."

Rationale: Several months ago, the cabinet requested CFA to consider recommendations for restructuring the council. This recommendation proposes to add four members to the Council on Finance and Administration to increase representation from all districts and all size churches. Although the percentage of representation cannot be mandated, the Committee on Nominations is urged to be sensitive, insomuch as possible, to gender and racial/ethnic representation on the Council on Finance and Administration.

(Council on Finance and Administration)

Committee on Rules

17.1 In the first sentence, following the phrase "...nominated by the conference Committee on Nominations...", insert a "." (period) and delete "and elected quadrennially by the Annual Conference with a limit of one four-year term." Add "The present elected body shall be divided into two classes. One class shall serve for the remainder of the quadrennium and the other class shall be eligible to serve for the remainder of the quadrennium and for an additional quadrennium. Thereafter, each quadrennium, new members shall be elected for an eight-year term." Continue with "Additional members, without vote...."

Rationale: The Committee on Rules is one of the few and perhaps the only conference committee with members whose service is limited to one four-year term. Thus, each quadrennium, an entirely new committee is elected and must begin work immediately on changes in the standing rules in conformity with the Discipline with no continuity of expertise, knowledge and leadership among its members. This change would provide that continuity, resulting in a more effective and efficient committee.

(Committee on Rules)

The Committee on Rules has become aware of the need for several policies of the Annual Conference to be reviewed for possible revision, updating or clarification. The Committee on Rules thus recommends that the Annual Conference authorize the Bishop to appoint an ad hoc committee to review all policies of the Annual Conference established since 1969 and to submit any recommended revisions to the next session of the Annual Conference.

SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION

"The mission of the South Central Jurisdiction is to: (1) select leadership for the church and administer the affairs of the Jurisdiction as directed by the Book of Discipline; (2) coordinate the networking of strategic persons and groups from the various annual conferences at the expense of the conferences; (3) respond to program needs and implement and evaluate programming which can be done more efficiently and effectively on a jurisdictional level; (4) respond to mandates of the General Conference; and, (5) provide supervision and accountability of the jurisdictional institutions and the policies of the jurisdiction." (Mission Statement)

The program unit of the jurisdiction is its council on ministries. During the past year (1990) there were twenty-six leadership training and inspirational events approved and implemented with a total of 3,725 participants, an increase of almost 400 over the previous year.

Included in these activities were the following:

Conference on Hispanic Ministries
"Beyond Survival" (Black Clergy)
Victoria Lab School (Victoria District & Rio Grande Conference)
Celebrating Marriage
Bishop's Week
Spiritual Life Rally (youth)
Camp Leaders Workshop
Conversational Spanish (Mount Sequoyah & Lydia Patterson Institute)
Journey into Wholeness
Consultation on Cross Racial Ministries
Summer Children's Camp (Rio Grande Conference)
Jurisdictional Work Camp
Six (6) Retiree Retreats
Lab/Seminar at Mount Sequoyah
Superserve (Volunteers in Mission)
Town & Country Ministries Consultation
Archives & History Workshops (Saint Paul's and Perkins)
Senior Ministers Seminar

The Jurisdiction also administered the scholarship program for ethnic minority seminarians, the Lillian Thompson scholarship fund for seminarians, and is a major participant and supporter of the Protestant Radio Hour.

We express our appreciation for your support of the Jurisdictional Administration Fund, the Advance Specials of the Jurisdiction, Volunteer in Mission office, and the coordinator of Korean Missions. Dr. Michael Patison and Ms. Bliss Dodd have represented the Central Texas Conference on the Jurisdictional Council on Ministries and Mr. Hiram Smith has served on the Jurisdictional Council on Finance and Administration. Several other persons from across the eight-state area have served on the standing committees and task forces of the Jurisdiction. Without their prayers and service not as much would have been accomplished. Most of all we are grateful for the dedication and commitment of our people in the local churches whose loyalty and gifts are a source of inspiration and hope.

Earl B. Carter, Executive Director

Korean Mission, South Central Jurisdiction

The ministry of South Central Jurisdiction Korean Mission has been implemented as below:

1. NEW CHURCH DEVELOPMENT: The comprehensive plan has been planned to develop new Korean churches and mission congregations in cooperation with the conferences and the districts. During 1990-91 I implemented the Kansas City Central Korean United Methodist Church under the ministry of Asbury United Methodist Church in Kansas City, Kansas and the Korean Ministry of First United Methodist Church, Arlington, Texas. Now we have 34 Korean churches and mission congregations in the jurisdiction. I also plan to implement three more churches and mission congregations in 1991-92.

2. GROWTH OF EXISTING CHURCHES: One of the primary purposes of Korean mission work is the CONSULTATION, COORDINATION, and FACILITATION enabling the ministries for growing Korean churches among the growing Korean communities in the jurisdiction in cooperation with the conferences and the districts to support the Korean congregations to adjust to the United Methodists. During 1990-91 four mission congregations had been officially chartered as Clovis Korean United Methodist Church, Wichita Korean United Methodist Church, Dong-San United Methodist Church and Copperas Cove Korean United Methodist Church.

3. RECRUITMENT AND TRAINING OF MINISTERIAL RESOURCES: We continuously need to recruit ministerial resources for seminary education, and to train the Korean language pastors to increase their ministerial abilities and skills for effective ministries. I plan to open a special intensive course of "United Methodist Polity" in Korean for new Korean church pastors in cooperation with the Division of Ordained Ministry, Perkins School of Theology and the Jurisdictional Council on Ministry. I also plan to have a training session of laity leadership.

I greatly appreciate for your prayer and help enabling the Korean mission work in the South Central Jurisdiction.

Bon Woong Koo, Director

Volunteers in Mission

The ministry of South Central Jurisdiction United Methodist Volunteers in Mission falls under four broad areas. They are:

1. NETWORK DEVELOPMENT involves providing training, information, resources and support for South Central Jurisdiction Annual Conference Volunteers in Mission leadership. It also involves networking with the other five jurisdictional VIM offices, as well as the Personnel and Resources Program Department of the General Board of Global Ministries in New York.

2. PROJECT DEVELOPMENT involves processing applications from South Central Jurisdiction mission agencies and programs that need volunteers and circulating their needs throughout the United Methodist Church.

3. VOLUNTEER PLACEMENT involves processing applications from groups and individuals wanting to serve as volunteers in mission. Volunteers are placed throughout the jurisdiction, the United States, and the world.

4. PROMOTION involves providing resources and speakers to interpret Volunteers in Mission in local, district and conference settings throughout the South Central Jurisdiction.

SUPERSERVE is the annual SCJ VIM Rally held at Mount Sequoyah, in Fayetteville, Arkansas, on Labor Day Weekend. The ADVANCE SPECIAL number for the SCJ VIM program is #982871-2. The SCJ VIM Committee, chaired by Dr. James Palmer, thanks you for your support.

Wanda Kile, Chairperson

THE TEXAS METHODIST FOUNDATION

The directors and management of The Texas Methodist Foundation are proud to report that 1990 was a year of exceptional growth for the Foundation both in increased assets and the level of services provided. The Central Texas Conference was instrumental in this growth, and we are grateful for our relationships in this conference.

1990 in Review:

1. Assets under management increased to $73,200,000.
2. Earnings on deposits totaled $6,402,900.
3. 76 loans were originated in excess of $12,000,000.

Currently, ninety-one United Methodist churches and related agencies in the Central Texas Conference have over eight and one-half million dollars on deposit with The Texas Methodist Foundation. Loans from The Texas Methodist Foundation to sixty-one churches and agencies in the Central Texas Conference total over twelve million dollars.

The primary goal of The Texas Methodist Foundation continues to be that every United Methodist church or related agency in the state of Texas have a planned giving program in effect. Our development staff offers planned giving counsel and services to these United Methodist institutions and individuals upon request.

It is our hope that these services offered through The Texas Methodist Foundation will promote more effective stewardship to all United Methodists in Texas.

Charles E. Laing, President

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

As of April 1, 1991, the conference Board of Trustees was custodian of three pieces of property:

1. Conference building
2. Boulevard church
3. Prairie Hill church

The Prairie Hill church has been made available for sale and continues to be for sale. However, there are no offers pending on the church at this time.

The Board of Trustees has sold the Rockwood Church parsonage. The Board of Trustees has transferred (by quit claim deeds) the former Black Hills United Methodist Church property to the Black Hills Cemetery Association and the former Caddo United Methodist Church property to the Caddo Community Club.

The Conference building has been improved by the replacement of the roof (most of the cost of this new roof was paid by insurance because of hail damage), the removal of a wall between two small offices to provide a new large conference room, the installation of additional air conditioning and necessary landscaping work. The total cost to the conference of all these changes was approximately $15,000.00. As of March 1, 1991, the balance of the conference's note to the Texas Methodist Foundation secured by the conference building was $222,896.03.

Ed Otwell, Church Growth and Development director, has continued to be the property agent for the Board of Trustees and to be responsible for marketing all properties being sold. Our conference director of Finance and Administration, Sidney Roberts, supervised the work on the conference building and kept all property adequately insured. We appreciate their assistance in these matters.

We encourage all conference churches to be incorporated and to carry adequate liability insurance to protect the churches and their members. All churches which buy real estate or accept gifts of real estate are encouraged to first determine if the real estate has any environmental problems which might subject the church to liability for all necessary cleanup.

BISHOP'S TASK FORCE ON VITAL CONGREGATIONS/FAITHFUL DISCIPLES

On December 5, 1990, the Bishop's Task Force was organized with a view to the revitalization and enhancement of local churches throughout the conference. During January and February, the respective districts were surveyed and the following areas were given priority in the VC/FD program:

1. Dynamic Worship
2. Lay and Clergy Who Model Hope
3. Christian Love Within the Church
4. Pastoral Leadership
5. Sunday School/Bible Study

The Task Force will be using a consulting approach to the project with some 25 consultants from within our conference. After training, they will be available for one- to two-day consultations in local churches.

A presentation and materials will announce the program in a more formal way during Annual Conference.

December 27, 1908 - April 29, 1991

Hubert Harrold Barnett, Sr. was born December 27, 1908, in Port, Oklahoma, the son of Warren Waiter and Verona Tennessee (Rhoads) Barnett. The family later moved to Fort Worth, Texas where Hubert graduated from Central High School. He then continued his education in Brownwood, Texas at Daniel Baker College where he received his Bachelor of Arts Degree.

On November 8, 1928, he was married to Minnie Pauline Utley in Fort Worth, Texas. To this union was born two sons, Hubert Harrold Barnett, Jr. of Houston, Texas and Paul Wayne Barnett who preceded his father in death in 1973.

Hubert as a young man felt the call to the pastoral ministry and received his first appointment in 1935. He was ordained a Deacon in 1939 and an Elder in 1946. He retired in 1974 after 39 years of service to the church. During that time he served many churches in the Central Texas Conference. After his "retirement" he continued to serve small churches, the last being Prairie Hill until its closing in 1989. Even in his last months, he served as unofficial pastor of the nursing home to which he was confined. He was a pastor first, last, and always.

Memorial Services were held for Hubert at the Wade Funeral Chapel in Hubbard, Texas on May 1, 1991, with the Reverend Billy Strayhorn, the Reverend Elmer Glazener, and the Reverend Ronny Barnett officiating. Interment was at Fairview Cemetery in Hubbard.

Hubert Harrold Barnett, Sr. was a man who gave of himself for others, but he never saw it that way. He felt blessed to be allowed to give 54 of his 82 years to the service of God within the church he loved. Through those years, lay and clergy alike were touched by his life, and he will be missed by those who knew him. Of all that could be said about Hubert it is enough to say, he loved his God and he loved his church.

WILLIAM SOLOMON FISHER
July 26, 1910 - October 17, 1990

Bill Fisher was intimately acquainted with parsonages for 65 years. He simply moved from the ones in which he grew up to the ones in which he lived as a pastor. He was born July 26, 1910 to William Edgar and Annie May Fisher in Hamlin, Texas. They had been in the Church of the Nazarene, and Mrs. Fisher was one of the pioneers in the ordained ministry of that denomination. However, they had become Methodists, and William E. became a Methodist minister. The evidence of the Christian home was evident in Bill's life, and he made his commitment to the ordained ministry while young.

He graduated from Southern Methodist University in 1931 and from Perkins School of Theology in 1933. In 1933 he joined the Central Texas Conference On Trial, came into Full Connection and was ordained Deacon in November, 1935, and was granted Elder's Orders in 1937. His forty-three-year ministry until his retirement in 1975 was one of total commitment to Christ and His Church.

He served twenty-five churches during his active ministry: Sipe Springs, Okra and Macedonia; Burkett, Dressy, Cross Cut, and Pleasant Valley; Cross Plains and Echo; Winchell, Tolar and Rock Church; Corsicana North; Blooming Grove; Wortham; Waxahachie, Ferris Heights; Oakhurst; Ridglea; Eastland; Breckenridge; Cogdell Memorial; River Oaks; Mexia; Belton and Nolanville. Because of his skill in leading congregations in the building of new facilities, he was involved in church construction projects in many of his appointments, particularly at Ferris Heights, Oakhurst, River Oaks, and Breckenridge.

He married Bliss Sylvia Means in 1933, and their happy life was made even happier because of their two children, Bliss and Stanley. They enjoyed nineteen years of life together. Tragedy struck while he was pastor at Ferris Heights, and Bliss died an untimely death. Bill was a faithful pastor and father, continuing to fill both roles well. While serving as pastor at Oakhurst, Bill married Mary Ann Miles, a member of his former church in Waxahachie. She became a supportive wife and a loving parent to the two Fisher children. She served with Bill during his next eight appointments, and died July 4, 1974 while serving in Belton.

Bill retired in 1975. On December 24, 1978 he married Nell Ivey of Belton, and they lived a satisfying life together until his death October 17, 1990 in Bridgeport, Texas. Memorial services were conducted October 20, 1990 at Oakhurst United Methodist Church with the Reverend Michael Patison and the Reverend Archie McCleskey officiating. He was buried in the Mount Olivet Cemetery in Fort Worth, Texas.

He is survived by his wife Nell; his daughter Bliss Dodd of Hurst; his son Stanley of California; step-daughters Becky Culpepper of Decatur, Patricia Moore of Bridgeport, and Susan Peters of League City; a step-son Ernest Ivey of California; six grandchildren; eight step-grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and four step great-grandchildren.

Bill was a 32nd Degree Mason, a Rotarian, an Odd Fellow, and a Lion. His eighty years of life, all of it in some form of relationship to the Church, is one whose influence will never cease.

JACKSON C. OGLESBY
March 24, 1900 - May 19, 1991

Jackson C. Oglesby was born in the west Texas town of Sherwood on March 24, 1900. It was range country, and its vastness and openness were to affect his entire life as he constantly pushed beyond the parameters of the ordinary and the accepted.

He graduated from Mertzon High School in 1918, and desiring to see the Christian faith "in an open setting" he enrolled and graduated from the University of Texas at Austin in 1922. Still desiring to experience life in its broadest potential, he turned aside from SMU School of Theology, and enrolled in Yale Divinity School in New Haven, Connecticut. While enrolled there, he married Florence May on a Thursday noon, August 21, 1924, in the First Methodist Church, Norwalk, Connecticut. Of her he wrote on December, 1983, "Florence had it all, and she was an abiding inspiration to me until her death November 1, 1977, and continuing to the present".

Jack served sixteen different charges in the Central Texas Conference, including among them Georgetown, First; Ridglea, Fort Worth; Euless, First; Oakhurst, Fort Worth. In addition, he served as pastor of the Waples Memorial Church in Dennison, and the New Haven Church, New Haven, Connecticut. He was associate minister of First United Methodist Church in Arlington for more than 15 years.

Jack's philosophy about life and faith is best expressed in a document which he prepared as a Christmas gift for one of his grandsons in 1983. There is one paragraph in that document which summarizes his life and its focus: "...I read a brief monologue 'When a Man Comes to Himself' by Woodrow Wilson...His words...were clarifying and confirming to me at a very decisive time of my life. In substance, he said that when a man lifts up one hand to God and joins hands with Him, and extends his other hand out and joins hands with the people of the world--to trust and love God and to love and serve people--he has come to himself". This love for God and love for neighbors was the driving force in his life which kept him as fresh and alive at ninety as most people are at thirty.

This dual love as also the great motivating force which aroused in him a great love for the Church, and given that fact, it seems appropriate that he died on Pentecost Sunday, 1991. Funeral services were held on May 21st in the sanctuary of the First United Methodist Church of Arlington. The celebration of his life was led by Don Smith, pastor, Grace United Methodist Church, Sherman; Paul Wiseman, retired, Central Texas Conference; Carl Mehaffy, Associate, FUMC, Arlington; and Don M. Pike, Sr. Pastor, FUMC, Arlington.

Survivors: Daughter, Dorothy Perkins of Sherman; brother, Blanks Oglesby of Del Rio; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

FRANK L. TURNER, JR.
December 6, 1920 - October 25, 1990

The son of a Methodist preacher, Frank L. Turner, Jr. was born December 6, 1920, to Frank and Ruth Turner in Brownwood, Texas. Upon graduation from Abilene High School in 1939, he entered McMurry College in Abilene where his father was president. It was there that he met Mary Blanche Hooks of Colorado City, Texas, in 1941; and on September 20, 1942, they married. Upon graduation in 1943, they moved to Fort Worth, where he worked as a sales clerk for W.E. Stripling. During this time he felt a certain dissatisfaction with his life. In consultation with Thomas Sterk, pastor of Matthews Memorial Methodist Church, and his father, he determined that he was being called to preach. He decided to enter the ministry, and in November of 1944, he was admitted On Trial to the Central Texas Conference. His decision to enter the ministry was made in the same location as his retirement speech.

His first appointment was to the Wingate Church in which his son would serve 40 years later. His entire ministry was spent in the Central Texas Conference serving Mt. Calm, Waco Hillcrest, Gordon, Tarleton Foundation, Lorena, Wortham, Santa Anna, Sparks Memorial Waco, Gatesville-Purmela, Mexia, Waco: Cogdell Memorial, Comanche-Gustine, McGregor, Fort Worth: Western Hills, Hillsboro, and Clifton. Upon his retirement he and Blanche became active and well beloved members of the First Church, Cleburne.

Survivors include his wife, Blanche, of Cleburne, two sons, Ralph James Turner, a physician in Dallas; and Gary Frank Turner, pastor of Ridglea United Methodist Church in Fort Worth; six grandchildren, James Gregory, Jennifer Ann and Sara Lynn Turner of Dallas and Tamara Ruth, Allen Frank, and Mary Louise Turner of Fort Worth.

A celebration of Frank's life, love and ministry was held at First Church in Cleburne, on October 27, 1990, with the Rev. Jimmy Finley, Dr. Eugene Robertson, Dr. Ervin Gathings, Rev. Michael Patison, and Dr. Louis Shambeck officiating.

Frank enjoyed his service on the Retired Ministers' Homes, Board of Trustees and Board of Pensions of the Conference, as well as other boards and agencies. He likewise enjoyed involvement in civic life as a member of the Kiwanis, Lions and Rotary Clubs, serving as Lions Deputy District Governor for District 2E-1.

His love for people and affable sense of humor endeared him to church people and community members alike. Frank loved youth and enjoyed working with them. He always said he wanted to be of service to others. He wanted his boys to be able to say he was a good man. He always said you can't outgive God. He left a legacy of ministry not only in his own son, but in five other men who entered full-time Christian ministry under his guidance.

Frank was preceded in death this past year by his brother-in-law, Rev. James E. Shuler. A glorious reunion was held on October 25, 1990, as Frank's conference membership was transferred from the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church to the Church Triumphant, whose builder and maker is God.

MARY ALMA THRASH
December 4, 1905 - September 15, 1990

Mary was born on December 4, 1905 near Jefferson in East Texas. She was the daughter of Reverend and Mrs. T. E. Bowman. She spent her early years in a Methodist parsonage as her father served churches throughout the conference. She graduated from Graham High School and afterward continued her studies at Texas Woman's College. It was there that she pursued her life-long interest in music, taking her studies in violin.

On October 29, 1929 she was united in marriage to her beloved husband, Floyd. They would share the next sixty-one years of life together, serving churches throughout the Central Texas Conference. For the last twenty-eight years Mary and Floyd were a vital part of the ministry of Westcliff United Methodist Church in Fort Worth. After a long fruitful life, she was called home Saturday, September 15, 1990 in Fort Worth, Texas.

Mary loved music and she understood the power of music to express emotions that are beyond words and speech. She spent most of her life in a parsonage, first as a pastor's child and then as a pastor's wife. Mary handled those very difficult roles with a quiet dignity, working in the background, loving people and loving the church.

Her life was celebrated in a memorial service at Westcliff United Methodist Church on September 18, 1990. In honor of Mary's love for the violin, violinist Arther Busby provided special music. The service was led by Dr. Mike Young and Dr. Art Buhl. Interment followed at Mount Olivet in Fort Worth.

Later she served in Hood County, Limestone County, Navarro County, Coryell County, and finally in Her surviving family includes one sister, Mrs. Nora Shannon of San Angelo; 3 sisters-in-law, Mrs. Bryan Harris of Bangs, Mrs. Harvey Harris of Brownwood and Mrs. Burt Wright of Zephyr; 7 nephews; and 3 nieces.

Nan will best be remembered by those she served in such a magnificent way in the small town and rural churches. Truly a servant, she offered to the church some of the best years of her life. Her talents and services in the rural area of the conference helped many churches and pastors perform a better ministry. The conference could use several just like her now.

XI. CONFERENCE STANDING RULES

As Amended June 3, 1991

I. ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Conference Procedure

1.0 The Central Texas Conference shall be organized according to the Book of Discipline (1988 ¶¶ 35, 36) and shall meet annually at the time appointed by the Bishop (1988 ¶ 702.2) and the place chosen by the conference (1988 ¶ 702.3).

1.1 Adjourned or special sessions shall be called in the manner set forth in the Book of Discipline (1988 ¶ 702.4).

1.2 The business of the Annual Conference shall be conducted according to Roberts Rules of Order.

1.3 Lay members and alternate lay members of the Annual Conference shall be elected at the Charge Conference for a one-year term to begin on January 1, following their election, subject however, to the Book of Discipline (1988 ¶ 701.4).

1.3.1 To equalize the number of lay and clergy members of the Annual Conference, the following will be members by virtue of the offices held: each district United Methodist Women's president, each district United Methodist Men's president, each district Council on Youth Ministry president or designate and one additional youth officer appointed by the district Council on Youth Ministry, any conference board, commission, committee chairperson or the Director and Associate Directors of the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA), Commission on Church Growth and Development (CG&D), and the Annual Conference Council on Ministries (ACCOM) who is a lay person not otherwise a member, and Jurisdictional Council on Ministries, General Council on Ministries and General Church board and agency representatives not otherwise members of Annual Conference; and one additional lay member from the charges of the conference whose membership is above the number, set annually by the conference secretary required to equalize the ratio between clergy and lay members. This figure will be revised annually. The conference secretary will notify each district superintendent by September 1 as to the churches that will elect additional members preceding the next Annual Conference.

1.3.2 Each charge of the Annual Conference is responsible for defraying expenses of its lay and clergy members while in attendance at the conference.

1.4 All matters to be presented to the Annual Conference which pertain to the work of one of the conference boards, commissions, committees, or councils shall be referred to a Legislative Committee of the appropriate board, commission, committee or council consisting of the members of the board, commission, committee or council present at the conference chaired by the chairperson of the appropriate body or designee and shall be reported back to the conference with recommendation for action prior to the close of the conference session, unless otherwise directed by the Annual Conference.

1.4.1 All other papers, resolutions or reports presented to Annual Conference which may not pertain directly to the work of one of the conference boards, commissions, committees or councils, must also be referred to an appropriate Legislative Committee of a study committee named by the conference and shall be reported back to the conference with recommendation for action prior to the close of the conference session, unless otherwise directed by the Annual Conference.

1.5 All papers, resolutions, obituaries and reports coming to the conference, not included in the preliminary report, must be typewritten in triplicate and two copies of said report must be in the hands of the secretary before they are presented to the conference. Any reports requiring approval of the Annual Conference, not in the preliminary report, shall be reproduced for members of the conference so that they may follow the report as it is being presented.

1.6 Per diem allowance for each day in actual attendance at Annual Conference will be granted retired clergy, retired diaconal ministers, retired deaconesses, and pastors, any of whom are receiving a total salary of, or less than the minimum salary of the conference. It shall also be granted to the aforementioned ministers' surviving spouses and students appointed to attend school.

1.7 There shall be a Committee on Memoirs composed of the secretary of the conference and the secretary of the Board of Pensions to insure suitable memoirs of the deceased clergy, widows or widowers of clergy. The clergy in charge of the funeral of such persons shall be responsible for preparing the memoir and filing it with the committee immediately after the funeral.

1.8 Any of the standing rules may be amended or suspended by a two-thirds majority of those present and voting at a session of Annual Conference, provided that any motion to amend the conference standing rules must lie on table at least one day before the conference can vote to amend.

1.9 Vacancies on all conference boards, councils, commissions, and committees shall be filled by nominations by and selected by the appropriate body. Those persons elected to fill vacancies shall serve the remainder of the tenure of the original member. However, when the chairperson of the committee has been transferred to another district and, in the opinion of the appropriate body, unusual circumstances require the continued services of such chairperson, the body shall have the right to retain that person in its membership for the remainder of that person's tenure. Such persons shall not be counted as district representatives.

1.9.1 Any member of the conference boards, councils, commissions, and committees who is absent without excuse from any two consecutive meetings of the board, council, commission, or committee shall thereby forfeit membership on the agency and their vacancy shall be filled in accordance with 1.9 above.

TEMPLE DISTRICT

The Temple District Administrative Budget for 1990 amounted to $61,727. However, the scope of my examination included only the expenditures and receipts from June 1 to December 31. I have no information concerning amounts expended or received from January 1, 1990 to May 31, 1990.

During my examination nothing came to my attention which would indicate that any amounts were expended which were not proper budgetary items. In addition, nothing came to my attention which would indicate any amounts received were not properly relfected in the district's records.

Dr. Sidney Roberts
Secretary/Treasurer
Central Texas Conference Of The United Methodist Church
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Dr. Roberts:

In the course of auditing the financial statements of Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church for the year ended December 31, 1990 I reviewed the present accounting procedures and internal controls. This review was to determine what auditing procedures were necessary for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the financial statements.

During my audit, I became aware of several matters that would strengthen internal control and improve operating efficiency. This letter summarizes my comments and suggestions regarding those matters.

Transferring Receipts to Designated Entities.

The accounting department is not disbursing all receipts received from churches to the designated recipient in a timely manner. Some church receipts require the accounting department to research the name and location before disbursing the funds. The difficulty in obtaining this information when the funds are received has resulted in substantial unresolved account balances. The following funds need to be analyzed and disbursed.

Fund Name	Fund No.	Fund Balance 12/89	Fund Balance 12/90
General Adv. Special	204	$166,204	$157,514
Funds for Designation	496	31,468	33,713

The remittance clerk should be informed of all General Advance Special programs prior to receipt from churches. If a new category is added on the church remittance form then the clerk should obtain name and address information prior to coding the receipt into the computer. The computer printout at month end will detail total receipts for all Advance Special accounts which should be disbursed to the respective recipient the following month.

Cash Disbursement Requisitions & Support.

The accounting system still doesn't require properly prepared and approved requisitions before issuing cash disbursement checks. The accounting department continually issues checks based on phone conversations approving a disbursement with proper support to follow. The accounting department will fill out the requisition to issue the check with no approval or support. The assistant treasurer must stop this lax accounting system. No requisitions should be prepared by the assistant treasurer based on phone conversations from the individual approving payment. If proper support is not attached to the requisition, then reference should be made to the location of the support file.

Glen Lake Camp - Bank Accounts.

Glen Lake Camp has opened a bank account in Glen Rose for the convenience of paying invoices for building improvements at the camp. Transfers are directly deposited from Texas Methodist Foundation savings account to the Glen Rose checking account. The conference office is not aware of the transfer amount and is not reviewing the invoices being paid. I noted in my review that various paid invoices were operating expenses of the camp and not construction invoices.

I suggest that all transfers from Texas Methodist Foundation and payment of invoices be controlled by the conference office. The additional bank accounts should be closed so that proper internal controls are maintained.

Walk to Emmaus - Accounting & Auditing Procedures.

Walk to Emmaus presently has 7 events scheduled in the Central Texas Conference. The growth of Emmaus is very likely because the SW Conference has over 100 events yearly.

Mike Ford has been the treasurer for the last 3 years, collecting the funds and paying the bills for the CTC events. A bank account was opened in the name of CTC Emmaus Registrar-c/o Mike Ford. Many of the events were conducted at Glen Rose Camp and funds were transferred from the Emmaus bank account to Glen Rose Camp bank account. There is no internal control or review of the receipts or disbursements in the Emmaus bank accounts. The account balance has accumulated to over $7,500.00 as of March 31, 1991.

I recommend that no Glen Lake Camp or conference official accept the responsibility of accounting for receipts and disbursements on the Walk to Emmaus funds unless those funds are in the control and review of the Secretary/Treasurer accounting department. The possibility of loss of funds could happen the same as the Temple District incident.

Prior Year Management Letter

Reference is also made to my management letter comments on June 26, 1989. The following suggestions still haven't been implemented and warrant your consideration.

Accounts Receivable - Accounts

The Council of Finance and Administration will periodically approve a loan for an operating fund or district office that doesn't have the necessary cash to pay for necessary expenses. The loan will be charged to the general ledger operating reserve with the loan to be repaid at a later date. This was the case when the Temple District needed $39,000.00 to cover the deficit in the bank account and unpaid bills.

To effectively control what loans are outstanding, I suggest that a detail receivable account be recorded in the general ledger when the check is written. A schedule of outstanding receivables should be prepared which identifies dates, amounts, and interest collected for each receivable. The outstanding balance should be reviewed by CF & A periodically.

Operating Reserve - Authorized Supplemental Expenses

The general operating reserve fund has continually been charged for expenses that are considered non-budgeted items or pass through activity for miscellaneous receipts. I recommend that posting of receipts and disbursement activity to the general operating reserve be limited to only those items approved at the 1990 Annual Conference. CF & A will approve additional expenses over $2,000.00 with the Executive Committee of the council being authorized to approve expenses less than $2,000.00. All non budgeted items must be posted to the contingency fund and pass through activities must be posted to Fund 496 - Funds Held for Designated Transmittal.

I have already discussed many of these comments and suggestions with various personnel. I would be pleased to discuss them in further detail at your convenience, to perform any additional study of these matters, or to assist you in implementing the recommendations.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Hansen
Certified Public Accountant
