"As a conference we have reached a difficult decision regarding the montage project of Communications and Interpretation. It was difficult as many of you attested, because all of the colorings were so good and the children and their parents were so delightful. I found this true in the local church as well as on the district level.

All of the finalists have received a personalized, autographed copy of Tom Gibson's drawing for their participation, and all were invited to a luncheon on Monday.

We have two, whom you have selected, whose montages will be framed and hung in the conference office. They are: Mary Ruth Reed, daughter of Rev. Richard and Jerri Reed of Dublin and Jamie Jones, daughter of Ed and Bev Jones of Crawford."

VII. REPORTS

CABINET COMPOSITE REPORT

Bishop Russell, Members of the Annual Conference and guests:

It is my privilege and responsibility as Dean of the Cabinet this past year to give the Composite Report of the Cabinet.

A favorite cartoon of mine is Peanuts. Lucy is at her Psychiatric Booth, and as Charlie Brown approaches, she says, "Life is like a deck chair." Charlie Brown says, "Like a what?" Lucy - "Life is like a deck chair. You know, on those cruise ships like the Love Boat. There are these chairs. Some take them, and they open them up and sit facing forward so they can see where they are going. Others take them and sit facing backward so they can see where they have been. Now, Charlie Brown, on the ship of life, which way is your deck chair turned?" Charlie Brown thinks for a few minutes and says, " You know, I've never been able to get one of those things unfolded!"

The Composite Report will follow this format. First, our past accomplishments and acknowledgements, where we have been. Then, our future goals as an Annual Conference, where we are going.

We as a Cabinet wish to take this opportunity to say thank you to Bishop John Russell for the twelve wonderful years he has given to us as a Conference. As we reflected on those years we realized that much of the growth and continued success has been under the leadership of Bishop Russell. Bishop Russell is caring and his style of leadership has enabled laity and clergy leaders to grow.

The good news of the Gospel compels us to reach out to people. We have been blessed with growth in our Conference as the statistics will indicate.

Throughout the year, many districts held Vital Congregation, Faithful Discipleship Workshops that enhanced and heightened our evangelistic awareness. It is the hope of the Bishop and Cabinet that every local community of faith will work at being a Vital Congregation. The Foundation Document as presented by our Bishop stated:

"We, the people called United Methodist, have come to a critical turning point in our history. The world in which our heritage of faith seems secure is passing away. We must choose now to follow the calling of Jesus Christ into a new era. We must seek God's mission for us in a new millennium.

"As the turn of the century approaches, we know both the pain and possibility of these times for our church. The obvious decline in membership of many of our congregations troubles us. We feel burdened by the increasing financial load our congregations are carrying.

"But these are only reflections of a wider, rapidly changing picture of Christianity in contemporary culture...Many of our comfortable assumptions about the support of surrounding cultures for Christian beliefs and values have been shaken....

"A deep spiritual hunger is awakening our congregations. a longing for communion with our creating, redeeming and sustaining God. New hymns and prayers for worship are flourishing again after years of draught.

"Small groups are springing up across the lands, meeting to study the Bible, pray and wrestle with the tangled questions of our lives. More and More of us are seeking a sense of our own calling to ministry. As baptized members of the laity, the people of God, we want our faith and our every day lives to be vitally connected." pp. 9, 10

Is your church among those who have discovered new excitement through preaching, Disciples Bible Study, increased Sunday School participation, Walks to Emmaus and music?

We, the pastors and laity must be about the business of deepening our spiritual lives. This is fundamental. If we are to impact the lives of those around us we first must be committed to our own spiritual growth.

Secondly, as we look to the future, we must be intentional about the revitalization of our church across the Annual Conference. If we are to maintain our pattern of growth we must reach out to those new persons who are moving into our communities. We must continue our support for the Church Growth Program, and we must also develop new strategies for ministries in the cities, urban areas and the rural communities of our Conference. According to the census, we live within a growing area of our country. Should not the church grow as well? Every church can experience growth, and we challenge each church to grow in average attendance and membership.

We must address the problem of what it means to be a Connectional Church. One part of our connectionalism is the apportionment. Many of our churches both large and small believe they are required to carry an unusually large amount of the apportionments. But, be assured that we have tried on the General, Conference and District levels to hold or reduce asking from local churches. Let us remember our apportionments are our gifts to the world so that ministry and missional needs might be met.

We are proud to report the following special events that occurred during the year among our family of churches and pastors.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION
Report No. 1

1. We begin this report with special commendations to all the local churches that in 1991 paid all their apportionments for the support of the ministries of the United Methodist Church beyond the local church. Of our 341 churches, 303 paid in full. This leaves 38 local churches who fell short in an aggregate amount of $257,000. However, using $75,167 from funds allocated to conference agencies but not spent in 1991, and $45,487 from interest received on reserve funds, we were able to pay remaining balances on the following:

General Apportionments	$74,023
Jurisdictional Apportionments	3,162
Colleges & Wesley Foundations	36,386
D.S. Salaries & Pensions	7,083

Major items left unpaid were:

Conference Claimants Fund	5,046
Ministers' Insurance	63,022

2. At the request of the Cabinet, it is recommended that the salaries of district superintendents remain the same for 1993. However, we recommend the formula remain in place. i.e. 105% of the average of the salary and allowances paid to pastors of the top twenty (20) churches of the conference. It shall be computed on the basis of salaries approved by the Charge Conferences which appear on the Episcopal work sheets as of February 1. The figures will be compiled by the conference director of Finance and Administration within five days. The 1993 salary for a district superintendent will be $64,978. The Ministerial Pension Plan current service amount of 12% of the Denominational Average Compensation, billed directly to the conference, will be added to the above salary for apportionment to the districts. It is understood that travel to conference meetings is included in Cabinet members' salary.
3. The conference offices of director of Finance and Administration, director of the Council on Ministries, and director of Church Growth and Development will receive a salary equal to that of the district superintendents. For 1993 that salary will be $64,978. This amount includes an allowance for utilities and maintenance of $4,000 for each of the above named three offices. Travel allowances may be part of the respective council's or commission's budget.
4. The district committees on finance are authorized to prepare budgets for presentation to the district stewards. An amount equal to 10% of the salary for the district superintendent may be included in the district budget to defray the utility costs of the district parsonage. In addition, an amount equal to 10% of the salary may be included in the district budget for travel expenses of the district superintendent. District budgets shall not include a discretionary fund, but may include a District Operations Expense item. The district budget shall be submitted to the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration for approval each year. The district stewards are authorized to apportion a Connectional Contingency Fund to be used for paying in full apportioned items which may fall short within the respective district. The Connectional Contingency Fund will be administered at the district level in the same manner as the District Work Fund. It is understood that if a portion of the Connectional Contingency Fund is not used in any given year, it will remain in the fund and future apportionment funds will be reduced. Any adjustments for unusual local church situations will be made in the apportionment of the Connectional Contingency Fund only. All other apportionments will be distributed to every local church on the basis of the decimal.

5. The council recommends the request from the conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry that the amount for the Texas Methodist College Association be $1.50 multiplied by the total conference local church membership. The council also recommends the request from the conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry that the amount for the Wesley Foundation Fund be $1.16 multiplied by the total conference local church membership. Both funds shall be apportioned to the districts and to the local churches on the decimal authorized by the Annual Conference.
6. We recommend a new apportioned fund in 1993 for Equitable Salaries. The account at the Texas Methodist Foundation which has funded Equitable Salaries for many years has been depleted.
7. We recommend the appointment of Sidney Roberts as director of Finance and Administration and as the secretary of the Central Texas Conference.

Report No. 4
Reserve Funds

1. In order to establish a better system of accountability, the Council on Finance and Administration following action of the 1991 Annual Conference has implemented the following management procedures for reserve funds beginning 1/1/92:

   a. The operating reserve is no longer treated as a contingency fund but as a cash flow fund.
   b. A separate contingency fund has been set up to cover unbudgeted expenses with accounting of these expenditures to be made to the Annual Conference.
   c. A contingency fund of $50,000 has been established from the operating reserve.
   d. The contingency fund will be replenished at the beginning of each year by the interest earnings on both the contingency fund and the operating reserve. Any interest earnings over and above that necessary to replenish the contingency fund to a balance of $50,000 will go into the operating reserve.
   e. The goal is a permanent operating reserve fund of 10% of the current budget to be used strictly for cash flow.
   f. The operating reserve will be replenished by funds unused by the conference at the end of the year.
   g. The authority for the administration of these funds rests with the Council on Finance and Administration pursuant to the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church and the Standing Rules of the Central Texas Conference.

Contingency Fund Policy

1. Expenditures will be made from the Contingency Fund under one of two circumstances:
   A. Unforseen circumstances, unpredicted, unplanned for, emergency situations which could not have been foreseen by reasonable people and reasonable committees
   B. Failure of expected income to support a budgeted expenditure
2. The conference treasurer may authorize up to $250; the CFA executive committee may authorize up to $5,000 either in meeting or by phone; those over $5,000 must be authorized by the full board either in meeting or by phone
3. No disbursement will be made without the authorization signature of either the conference treasurer or the chair of CFA.

Wilburn Newsom, Chairperson

ANNUAL CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

The Annual Conference Council on Ministries is a body that is represented by someone from every district in the Central Texas Conference. Most of those nominated to the council have given time and effort to accomplish those goals that were adopted at the last Annual Conference and in the reports one will discover that a great deal has been accomplished in programming this year.

It has been a privilege to work with our dedicated volunteers the past three years, and although we have not accomplished all that I had dreamed, nevertheless, we have completed some worthwhile and meaningful tasks that have touched the lives of individuals all around the world!

The next four years hold great promise for our Annual Conference, and those who lead us will be persons of vision and intent. Give them your personal support and hold them constantly in your prayers.

My personal thanks to the staff for their hard work. They have done a good piece of work, and I am grateful.

Continue to make use of your council and use their services.

Eugene B. Robertson, Chairperson

Report of the Council Director

The Book of Discipline says that the responsibilities of the director of the conference Council on Ministries include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Executive officer of the conference Council on Ministries,
- Communication link between the annual conference program agencies and the jurisdictional and general conference program agencies,
- Facilitator of communication among the annual conference program agencies and the local churches,
- Resource person for district programs and the Annual Conference Council on Ministries agencies in their planning, implementation, and evaluation process,
- Supervisor of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries staff members,
- Participant on other annual conference agencies as determined by the annual conference and the Council on Ministries,
- Consultant to the conference Committee on Nominations.

The ACCOM staff has emphasized ministry to and with local congregations. During the last twelve months I have participated in worship in 67 local churches, preaching in 23 of them, and in the last four years I have had the opportunity to be present in over half of the pastoral charges of the conference.

The directors relate to particular districts in order to attend district Council on Ministries meetings and district professionals meetings. In my relation to the Brownwood, Temple, and Waco districts I have been a participant in 37 events in the last year, and I have led 16 local church and district training events.

The Resource Center under the direction of Frances Nelson has provided 2,314 responses to the requests of local churches this past year, in addition to many calls simply for information. This indicates that an average of more than forty-four a week have been assisted.

Through participation in fifteen different national and jurisdictional meetings during the past year I have come to appreciate anew the unique vision, strength, and determination of the Central Texas Conference. You continually set patterns of ministry that are copied by other annual conferences. I am privileged to be part of the conference that is a leader in United Methodism.

Much of the credit for the conference's achievements can be directly traced to the leadership. For the past four years we have been blessed with officers in the conference

Council who have been diligent and progressive. We have been led by program board executives who have been able and visionary. Those who have chaired committees have done so with unique skill. And we have had board and committee members who have been committed and faithful. I sincerely thank all of you who have been such good stewards of the abilities with which God has endowed you.

Michael Patison, Director

Report of the Associate Council Director

My primary responsibility as associate director of ACCOM is to serve as director of youth ministries for the Annual Conference. As such, my ministry includes serving as adult advisor and staff representative for the conference Council on Youth Ministry, assisting the District Youth Councils and Coordinators, consulting with local churches, serving as an advocate and catalyst for youth concerns as well as for other issues related to youth, providing information and program access for youth and adult workers with youth, working to improve communication in all areas of youth work, and representing the Annual Conference in jurisdictional and general church youth ministry forums.

I am also the staff representative for the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry and for the Commission on the Status and Role of Women. College and financial aid information and advice is available through my office. I serve as the dean of Fall University each year, coordinating all of its elements and providing for its smooth operation. General staff responsibilities include work with ACCOM, ACCOM Executive Committee, Planning and Research, Camps and Assemblies, and various short-term groups and tasks.

I serve as ACCOM staff liaison with the Waxahachie and Fort Worth West Districts. Local churches may call upon me for consultation with pastors, staff members, leaders and groups in various areas of ministry including:

- Starting or re-staring youth ministry programs;
- Leadership training - for youth, for adult workers with youth and for others in the church;
- Setting goals, planning and implementing programming - for youth ministry and/or other areas of church life.

You may call upon me to do programs and workshops on topics such as: Adolescent Development, Faith Development, Learning Styles, Parenting Teenagers, Youth Ministry as Evangelism and various other topics as requested.

Mary Gean Cope, Associate Director

Report of the Associate Council Director

As an associate director of the Council on Ministries, I continue to work with the Boards of Discipleship and Church and Society as well as with the Commission on Christian Unity and the Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns. I serve on various other committees and task forces in the area of AIDS ministry, single adults, older adults, music, and stewardship.

The Born Free/Stay Free program that was just a dream one year ago is now on the way to being reality with trained leaders in every district and the purchase of resource boxes for all age levels. This program is for the local church to help families with alcohol and substance issues. Through activities and experiences in group settings, parents, children and youth will gain information as well as communication and decision making skills so that choices made will be appropriate ones. This program can be presented in a variety of settings and time periods that will conform to a local church's schedule.

A number of adult leaders from this conference responded to an opportunity presented by Karen Greenwaldt from the General Board of Discipleship to design an Adult Ministries Project. The focus is on the local church where adults can study, learn, share, and grow in this vital part of the church's ministry. Several meetings have produced some exciting models and the project continues to evolve into what will be some new ways to be in ministry with adults. What is designed will be offered to other annual conferences for their use. The Sam Taylor Fund is underwriting the project and the Central Texas Conference is pleased to be involved.

As an associate director with the responsibility for Christian education, I am available to be with you in the local church in a variety of ways. Training of Sunday School teachers (children and adults), working with education leaders, staff assessment, goal setting, long range planning, etc. are a few of the areas of assistance that I can offer. Reaching for the Baby Boomers who are now reaching midlife is an emerging issue and one in which I can help.

The Sunday School is a vital part of what goes on in the local congregation. Inviting and training teachers is a key element in having a strong, growing Sunday School. In the years ahead, an emphasis on the Sunday School will provide opportunities for persons of all ages to become disciples. Look for that emphasis in the 1990's and beyond.

Judy Stafford, Associate Director

The conference Council on Ministries office shall maintain the calendar of annual conference events and proposed dates shall be cleared with that office thirty days in advance where possible.

The concept of Fall University is reaffirmed as the time and place that program boards do conference-wide training.

The mileage allowance shall be twenty-two cents per mile for conference staff. All others shall be reimbursed at eighteen cents per mile for one, twenty-one cents where two members ride in the same car, twenty-three when three to six members ride in the same car, and thirty-five cents for seven or more members in one vehicle for necessary travel on conference business.

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The Board of Church and Society has met two times this conference year and plans one more meeting on March 13, 1992. The first meeting in September was the usual orientation meeting to acquaint new and old members with the Board and its activities. The second meeting was held on January 4, 1992 which was the meeting to develop and implement the work of the Board through its committees and the Task Force on Sexual Harassment. This task force is charged with developing a policy in this important area to apply to clergy and diaconal ministers. The task force co-chaired by Rev. George Procter-Smith and Ms. Joanne Roberts at its first meeting divided itself into three sub-groups to work on three aspects of the policy. The task force has another meeting scheduled in early March to put the finishing touches on the proposed policy and it is anticipated that the Board at its March 13, 1992 meeting will consider and adopt a policy to be presented to Annual Conference.

The Task Force finished its work and a proposed policy was presented to the Board at its March 13, 1992 meeting. This policy was adopted by the Board with minor amendments and presented to ACCOM at its Spring meeting. This policy as amended is sent forth below and I am pleased to recommend its adoption by the Annual Conference. ACCOM approved a motion expressing appreciation to the Task Force for its work and its report. Pursuant to the suggestion of Bishop Russell that the keeping of files and the content of the files be checked out with the General Counsel of the Church, a copy has been forwarded for this purpose.

The Board at its March 13, 1992 meeting also adopted several specific responses as set forth in the memorandum of November 29, 1990 from the General Secretary of The General Council on Ministries regarding Native Americans as set forth below. Related documents one captioned, "Call To a New Beginning" and appropriate resolutions pertaining thereto are also referred to below as well as a litany. All of the forgoing was approved by ACCOM at its Spring meeting and I am pleased to recommend them to the Annual Conference.

Finally the programs of the Board were approved by ACCOM as well as the budget for the Board of Church and Society as recommended by Coordination and Budget.

The Inclusiveness Resource Team is in place and working hard; two workshops were held in Hillsboro and Mineral Wells and several more workshops are planned. This team is charged with promoting gender, racial and age inclusiveness as well as open itinerancy within congregations in the Central Texas Conference.

The UN/DC trip which for several years has taken a number of youth with their adult leaders to Washington, D.C. and New York City plans a little different focus next time with the group going only to Washington, D. C. and the trip is scheduled from June 27 to July 1, 1992. Rev. Catherine Hix will lead this group on its trip as she did last year. The trip is sponsored by the Women's Division of the General Board of Global Ministry and the conference Board of Church and Society.

The conference last year approved a new program, Born Free/Stay Free which is a drug abuse prevention program for children, youth and their parents. The committee on Health and Welfare chaired by Catherine Hix is working on this program and training sessions for new recruits as well as refresher courses for those previously trained as leaders with the first scheduled to be held in February, 1992. ACCOM associate director Judy Stafford and her staff will coordinate schedules of churches requesting programs and leaders available for training.

In addition, Catherine Hix is working on a survey of all local churches in the Central Texas Conference to determine how best the conference board can serve the local churches.

June McLaughlin is chairing the program charged with developing leaders for courses at Fall University. June taught courses last year which were very well received and it is anticipated this will be repeated at its next session of Fall University.

This being the final year of my term as chairperson of the Board of Church and Society I want to thank especially George Procter-Smith and Joanne Roberts for their work in the areas of Inclusiveness and for developing a policy regarding Sexual Harassment; June M. McLaughlin for her work with Fall University; Catherine Hix for her work regarding the UN/DC program and her work in planning and conducting surveys regarding local church needs pertaining to the Board of Church and Society. I also want to thank Jeter Pruett for his work last year with the Peace With Justice Journey through the Central Texas Conference. I also want to thank Judy Stafford for all her work and help through these four years. Much of the credit for any success we may have had is due to her creativeness, sunny disposition and strong support. Finally, I want to thank all the members of the Board individually and collectively for their fine work throughout these years.

Proposed Programs:

1. Inclusiveness Resource Team
   Goal: To promote gender, racial, and age-inclusiveness, as well as open itinerancy, within every congregation in the Central Texas Conference.
2. DC Conference Youth Seminar Trip
   Goal: To assist our youth in evaluating the national and international policies of their nation through education that exposes them to experiences and persons in a forum that allows them to expand their focus and allows them the freedom to reflect upon their belief and become involved in putting their faith into action.
3. Born Free/Stay Free Drug Prevention Education Program
   Goal: To provide a resource for each local church to help children, youth and adults with communication skills, value clarification, and making decisions about drugs.
4. Fall University
   Goal: To enable local churches to identify and address issues in the community.

Report From Task Force on Sexual Harassment
Theological Reflections

PROLOGUE: Sexual Harassment is incompatible with Christian life and ministry. As such, it is rejected as a norm of human behavior for all members (lay and clergy) of our annual conference. However, the policy which follows is designed, in conjunction with the Book of Discipline, to apply only to clergy and diaconal ministers of the Central Texas Conference.

One of our ongoing tasks as Christians is to reflect upon our life together as ecclesia (Greek word in the New Testament for CHURCH as the people of God called into community by the preaching of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the forgiveness of sins, baptism, and the indwelling of the Holy Spirit). This is as true in matters of human sexuality as it is in any other area of our common life. Our sexuality is one of the most important ways in which we express our love and commitment to God and other persons. As such, our sexuality has a great potential for Christian witness as well as a great potential for abuse.

The Christian ecclesia's witness in the world is seriously impaired when we ignore the issues of our own sexuality. We live in a time and in a society in which human sexuality has become grotesquely distorted. In such circumstances, we, the Christian ecclesia, must be clear in our teaching about human sexuality, and ready to live out our teachings with courage. Only in such a fashion will our witness have integrity and credibility in a society which suffers from the negative impact of social misconduct.

Therefore we affirm that:

1. God creates persons in the Divine image: male and female (Genesis 1:27).
2. Woman (Ishshah) and man (Ish) are equal in the eyes of God (Genesis 2:23).
3. The human body is a good and a special part of the divine creation. It is the temple in which the Holy Spirit dwells (I Corinthians 3:16-17), and a place where the Word of God is made Flesh (John 1:14).
4. Our human sexuality is an integral part of our humanity. Our sexuality is profoundly personal, but also profoundly social. Therefore our sexual relationship to other persons ought always to reflect a loving commitment and accountability to God and those persons.
5. God calls persons in the world to "wholeness" or "salvation" through participation in the Christian ecclesia: The "whole people of God," or the "community of faith." This Christian ecclesia is the Body of Christ (I Corinthians 12:27) into which we are initiated by baptism (Romans 6:3-11). In the Christian ecclesia we "walk in newness of life" (Romans 6:4), and the central quality of this newness is redemptive love (I Corinthians 13:1-7).
6. The whole Church receives and accepts the call of God to embody and carry forth Christ's ministry in the world. There are persons within the Church community whose gifts, graces and promise of future usefulness are observable to the community, who respond to God's call and offer themselves in leadership as ordained and consecrated ministers. In this sacred leadership role within the Christian ecclesia, persons are entrusted with the responsibility to care for those they serve (Mark 9:33-37) and not to abuse this role to the detriment of any. At stake is the integrity of the Body of Christ and the credibility of our Christian witness in the world.
7. Therefore, any violation of the ministerial relationship through sexual harassment by clergy or diaconal ministers is a sin against God, self, the victim, and the Christian community. The violation could cause:

* potentially serious psychological, spiritual, and emotional harm to victims
* the brokenness of the perpetrator
* a change in the nature of power and authority of the office of ministry by shifting from service, healing and redemption to exploitation and gratification, and distort the image of Christ as our healer and Savior
* infection of the local congregation and the whole Body of Christ

8. The Church must take the issue seriously and must intentionally seek reconciliation for persons involved and promote healing and wholeness in the Body of Christ.

Definition of Sexual Harassment for Clergy and Diaconal Ministers of the Central Texas Conference

Sexual harassment is any unwanted behavior with a sexual connotation that occurs in an organizational environment. The present study defines sexual harassment as any sexually related behavior that is unwelcome, offensive, or which fails to respect the rights of others. This behavior includes any unwelcome sexual advance, request for sexual favor, and other verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature that creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment in an organization. (p.1).

Once a person says "No," then any continuance of the behavior constitutes "unwanted behavior."

Unwanted behaviors listed in the report, "Sexual Harassment in the United Methodist Church," are as follows:

1. Unsolicited suggestive looks or leers.
2. Unsolicited touching or closeness.
3. Unsolicited attempt to fondle or kiss.
4. Unsolicited sexual comments, teasing, or telling of jokes with sexual content.
5. Unsolicited letters, calls, or materials of a sexual nature.
6. Pressure for dates or activities with a sexual overtone.
7. Offer to use influence in return for sexual favor.
8. Attempted sexual assault or rape.
9. Actual sexual assault or rape.

Process for Reporting Sexual Harassment

A person who believes he or she has been sexually harassed has the following options:

1. To contact a designated support person in the district where he or she holds local church membership or affiliation. (Two such support persons, male and female, will be designated by the Bishop and the Cabinet in each district of the Central Texas Conference. These persons will be trained to provide emotional support and procedural clarity. These persons will be professional counselors, clergy, or diaconal ministers and will function as a task force in each district).

   With the help of a support person, the person making the accusation will decide either to handle the situation personally or contact the district superintendent. (If initial contact is with the district superintendent, the D.S. will refer the person making the accusation to a support person.) The relationship between the person making the accusation and the support person is confidential except when disclosure is required by law.
2. The person making the accusation contacts the district superintendent who listens and explains the options:

a. Person making the accusation may enter mediation process with professional mediator (from outside the United Methodist Church) and accused or
b. Person making the accusation may file written grievance (See para. 453.1a in the Discipline.)
c. If the district superintendent is the one accused, the person making the accusation contacts another district superintendent or the Bishop who will then initiate the process.

3. Mediation with professional mediator (if accused refuses to participate in mediation, person making the accusation has the option of a written complaint). Both accused and person making the accusation have the right to support persons.
4. The mediator certifies the report to the district superintendent. If resolved, the report will be sealed, filed, in the office of the Bishop, only to be opened on recurrence. The mediation process is confidential.
5. If not resolved, the person making the accusation may file a formal written grievance and the process then follows para. 453 of the 1988 Discipline. Persons who file a written grievance which is validated by the process outlined in para.453 shall be entitled to the same counseling services through the counseling committee as Central Texas Conference ministers and ministerial families.

Resources for Educating the Local Church on Sexual Harassment

1. Provide local churches with resources (printed material, videos, etc.) to be used with PPR/SPR Committees. These materials can be used for information and for developing strategies in the local congregations.
2. Develop a workshop model that can be used for PPR/SPR committees to identify and work with issues around sexual harassment.
3. Develop a workshop model utilizing videos and printed materials that can be used in the district or in clusters of churches that will show aspects of sexual harassment. This workshop can be used with clergy and diaconal ministers as well as with lay persons in the local church.
4. Offer a section at Fall University about sexual harassment.
5. Develop a group of qualified speakers who will be available to districts and local churches to provide seminars on sexual harassment.

CALL TO A NEW BEGINNING

The 1988 General Conference approved Petition No. 2456 which called for The General Commission on the General Conference and the General Council on Ministries to prepare resolutions and legislation that will declare 1992 "The Year of a New Beginning." That petition also recommends that Jurisdictional Conferences pursue this theme in 1992.

This petition seeks to "undo and correct the injustices and the misunderstandings" of the 500th year celebration of the "discovery" of America in 1492.

As the General Council on Ministries has sought to faithfully respond to Petition No. 2456, a statement, "Gospel Call to a New Beginning" has been developed. This statement was approved by the General Council on Ministries at its October 26-30 meeting. You will note on the statement below that the denomination is called to respond through local congregations, Annual Conferences, Jurisdictions, General Agencies, and Episcopal leadership.

Several specific responses are called for from the local congregations and annual conferences. We encourage you to implement "Gospel Call to a New Beginning" across your conference in the following ways:

1. Transmit "Gospel Call to a New Beginning" to each local congregation and develop resources and responses to assist local congregations as they prepare for their involvement.
2. Assist in responding to the "Call to Annual Conferences" in both the conference session and in program and communications possibilities.
3. Support the efforts of your bishop in the response to the "Call to Episcopal Leaders."
4. Encourage your jurisdiction to develop the recommendations in the "Call to Jurisdictions."

As you can see, you will play a significant role in the church's response to a 1992 observance. We appreciate your assistance in transmitting "Gospel Call to a New Beginning" and in communicating our denomination's concern on this sensitive issue.

Gospel Call To a New Beginning

The Gospel calls us to value the dignity and worth of all people and to work for justice for all. Under the mandate of this call, we resolve to approach the upcoming Columbus Anniversary in 1992 as faithful respondents to that Gospel. We, as Christians, call for A New Beginning that invites each of us to walk the circle of life together in our journey toward the wholeness and fullness of God's creation.

WHEREAS the indigenous people have shared many valuable gifts from their way of life contributing to the development and successful settlement by others on the land they had long inhabited; and

WHEREAS these ways of life continue to offer insight into solutions for contemporary and urgent problems for a troubled planet and a fragmented people; and

WHEREAS the indigenous peoples had a religion, culture and value system long before October 12, 1492 but had no opportunity to share these benefits with newcomers; and

WHEREAS contemporary Native Americans retain many customs of their ancestors only to find the practice of these customs being violated by structures of the dominant society; and

WHEREAS the church is called to identify those moments when Christians resisted the genocide of indigenous peoples and paid for such resistance with their lives; and

WHEREAS we are called to do likewise today by raising our voices whenever similar abuses are attempted in our midst; and

WHEREAS a great danger is presented for the nation and the church to be swept into euphoria of uncritical romanticizing of cruel and bloody history which ignores the violation of the native peoples; and

WHEREAS an urgent need exists for a more-inclusive and less-biased historical account of the European's dealings with the indigenous peoples, including the rewriting of American history and removing stereotypical images which demean native people; and

WHEREAS by continued silence and denial of past injustices, people often do not recognize the evil which compounds and contributes to the present situations of Native American issues; and

WHEREAS the church and its people can acknowledge both past and present injustices to Native Americans, confess both personal and corporate sin and be guided by the Holy Spirit and A New Beginning in freedom and renewal through forgiveness and the healing of the wounds of these people;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED THAT THE GENERAL COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES CALLS UPON:

A. The United Methodist Church in the United States and its people in their observance of 1992, to initiate A New Beginning as a time for study, meditation and commitment to a more just community by living out the Gospel mandate to value the dignity and worth of all peoples in our personal and corporate lives;

B. Each United Methodist congregation to join the whole Christian community in A New Beginning by public acknowledgment and appropriate acts of corporate confession for the historic silence and consenting participation of the church in the destruction and continued oppression of the native peoples;

C. The United Methodist Church in the United States to acknowledge and respond to the suppression and distortion of historical accounts which ignore the contributions, cultures, and worth of the indigenous peoples in American history and leads to continued suffering and oppression of Native Americans in our time;

D. The United Methodist Church in the United States and its people learn the legal status of the treaties of the United States with sovereign Native American Nations and promote the continued validation of these covenants as a moral obligation of the people and their government as A New Beginning to fulfill our Gospel mandate.

E. Each United Methodist congregation through Annual Conferences enter into dialogue with the Native American community to enhance an accurate understanding of the contribution of Native Americans in the history of the United States and provide for a more appropriate and inclusive education of future generations as A New Beginning to fully appreciate our native brothers and sisters.

F. The 1992 General Conference of The United Methodist Church confess on behalf of the entire denomination that we have sinned against our Native American brothers and sisters, and offer A New Beginning with a formal apology for our participation, intended and unintended, in the violent colonization of their land.

G. The General Conference to recommend that local churches develop similar statements of confession as A New Beginning to foster a deeper sense of community with Native Americans, and encourage each member of our congregations to stand in solidarity on these important religious issues, and to provide support for mediation when necessary for new or ongoing negotiations with State and Federal Agencies regarding these matters.

H. The United Methodist Church in the United States to pledge A New Beginning through support and assistance in upholding the American Indian Religious Freedom Act (P.L. 95-134, 1978) and within that legal precedent affirm the right of the native peoples;

1. To practice and participate in traditional ceremonies and rituals with the same protection offered all religions under the Constitution.
2. To have access to and protection of sacred sites and public lands for ceremonial purposes.
3. To have the use of religious symbols (feathers, tobacco, sweet grass, bones, etc.) for use in traditional ceremonies and rituals.

THEREFORE BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that The United Methodist Church in the United States create A New Beginning by deepening our appreciation for and with indigenous peoples for their reverence for the sacredness of all creation, their belief in oneness of the human family and their recognition of the wisdom of elders as well as other gifts of culture and tradition in order that we may journey toward God in the fullness of our Gospel mandate.

Call to Local Congregations

In order to more fully realize our Gospel mandate:

We call congregations to seek out local Native American leadership and with them develop and utilize studies of children, youth and adult classes.

We call congregations to become informed about and supportive of concerns and needs (i.e. health and welfare) of native peoples for the mutual benefit of all.

We call congregations to observe A New Beginning on October 11, 1992. This observance will create Native American awareness in worship settings through sermons, litanies, prayers and confessions. Pastors, in cooperation with chairpersons of education, worship and missions, or other appropriate leaders, are called to initiate this response. Another opportunity for implementation could be Native American Awareness Sunday. This call is initiated so that United Methodists may grow in recognition, acceptance, and understanding of Native American people in our midst.

Call to the Annual Conference

We call the Annual Conference to study and reflect upon this proclamation in the context of each local church and community situation as its response to A New Beginning.

We call the Annual Conference to utilize its communications network to include the history and presence of Native American ministries within the conference, written by Native American authors/persons, where possible.

We call each Annual Conference to observe A New Beginning in their 1992 Annual Conference sessions by sharing copies of the proclamation with Annual Conference members.

We call the Annual Conference to utilize Native American liturgical resources that may be in the form of litanies, prayers, music, and visuals.

We call the Annual Conference to invite and include in its midst Native American preachers and/or speakers to bring awareness and understanding to initiate A New Beginning.

We call the Annual Conference to utilize the Native American Awareness video "A Time to Heal," as a resource for interpretation.

We call the Annual Conference to provide packets that may include a listing of Native American resources (persons, print, and audio-visual), exchange opportunities for local churches with Native Americans, and Native American ministries within the conference bounds.

Call to Jurisdictions

We call each Jurisdiction to utilize as the theme or emphasis for the 1992 Jurisdictional Conference A New Beginning. This will provide an opportunity during this historical year, not for a celebration of historic misunderstanding or exposure of wrong and pain, but as an occasion for A New Beginning in the life of all God's people in response to our Gospel mandate.

We call each Jurisdiction to hold a jurisdictional consultation by 1994 to develop new Native American Ministries. We recommend appropriate Jurisdictional staff or committees responsible for ethnic ministries, including Jurisdictional Native American leadership, organize and implement this event. We further suggest the consultation include Episcopal leaders, District Superintendents, conference council directors, and chairpersons of conference committees on missions, jurisdictional and conference United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men and Youth presidents, conference lay leaders and representatives from General Agencies who have responsibility for this area of ministry.

This consultation should include resource persons with experience and expertise in the history of native peoples, their pain and suffering, as well as, image, gifts and participation in the life of the church including faith and vision of the Native American people. A consultation will also benefit from printed and visual materials to educate and inform participants.

The purpose of these consultations would be to identify, recognize, and support the presence of Native American persons and ministries within the jurisdiction bounds, so as, to develop, plan, and implement programs of education, awareness, and inclusiveness across each Jurisdiction, in Annual Conferences, Districts and local churches recognizing the rich gifts of Native American people in the life of The United Methodist Church in the United States.

Call to Episcopal Leaders

We call the Council of Bishops to issue a pastoral letter requesting that A New Beginning be read in local congregations and at each Annual Conference in 1992 and call each Bishop to provide leadership for an effective response to A New Beginning in local churches and the annual conference.

We call each College of Bishops to convene a jurisdictional consultation by 1994 to develop new Native American Ministries, in accordance with the purpose of these consultations.

Call to General Agencies

We call each General Agency to develop resources appropriate to their mandate to assist the church in understanding issues, concerns and ministries related to A New Beginning.

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

The Board of Discipleship provided a variety of opportunities for training local church leaders and strengthening the local ministries of congregations. Our work in 1991 was highlighted by the renewal of the Harry Hosier Celebration as well as Fall University and other training opportunities. The relationship between the Worship Committee and the Annual Conference worship has been enriching. The work of CCYM continues to grow. The Education Committee continuously adds new areas of ministry and training. The Evangelism Committee is working with the Committee on Devotional Life in developing Covenant Discipleship opportunities. The Walk To Emmaus and Chrysalis opportunities also continue to grow.

The projected structural realignment of the Camps and Assemblies Committee as a free-standing committee of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries is the most significant change anticipated in 1992.

The goals for 1993 reflect the ever-expanding desire of the Board of Discipleship to serve the work of the local churches; for it is, indeed, through the local churches that disciples are made and Christ is known.

Proposed Program:

Board of Discipleship administration

Claus H. Rohlfs, Jr., Chairperson

Committee on Devotional Life

Proposed Programs:

1. Walk To Emmaus
   Goal: To provide a minimum of twelve events for 1993 which would inspire and motivate participants to go back to the local church to participate in the general ministry of all Christians. Twelve events would reach approximately 500 participants.
2. Chrysalis Weekends (youth version of Walk To Emmaus)
   Goal: To provide at least four weekends, two for males and two for females during 1993. Each event is designed to inspire and motivate youth to return to their respective local churches and become involved in the ministry and life of the church. They are also given a sense of the "connectionalism" of our system through these events.
3. Covenant Discipleship Groups
   Goal: To assist in the training of CD groups through the annual conference. To heighten awareness of Covenant Discipleship and its effectiveness in strengthening the local church.
4. Marriage Enrichment Events
   Goal: To provide couples an opportunity to enrich their marriages through guided events.
5. Prayer Retreat
   Goal: To provide the opportunity and resources for the study of prayer and other spiritual disciplines.

The Committee on Devotional Life was pleased overall with the ministry of 1991. Most of our goals were accomplished for the year. The Walk To Emmaus continues to motivate and inspire participants. Many return to the local church ready to engage themselves in ministry. We are pleased with the way the concept of "the general ministry of all Christians" is communicated through the Walk To Emmaus. There were seven weekend events during 1991, one short of our goal of eight. There continues to be a waiting list for these events, particularly women's events.

There were four Chrysalis events in 1991. This is the youth version of The Walk To Emmaus. Again, the youth find these events very enriching and inspirational. We were able to hold an additional boy's and an additional girl's event, two more than we had planned for.

Concerning Covenant Discipleship, the Committee on Devotional Life was able to assist in the bringing of Dr. David Lowes Watson from the General Board of Discipleship to conduct a seminar on Covenant Discipleship. Some funds were provided, and invitations were issued through the conference for this event. There are at least three new CD groups that were formed as a direct result of his workshop.

Six couples from the Temple District attended a Marriage Encounter event in 1991. This was a direct result of encouragement from the Committee on Devotional Life. We did not expend any funds for marriage events, but rejoice that these attended as a result of our encouragement.

We did not extend our influence as far as we had dreamed for 1991. However, we rejoice in what was accomplished in relation to spiritual enrichment and discipline. We look forward to serving others through the Annual Conference and the Board of Discipleship. May Christ be lifted up as we seek to serve in His name.

Education and Leadership Development

Proposed Programs:

1. Courses at Fall University
   Goal: Train local-church teachers and other leaders, to increase their skills and confidence in teaching and in other areas such as parenting, recognizing and supporting persons in distress, helping persons develop mature faith, and dealing with diversity and conflict in the church.
2. Laboratory Training School for teachers
   Goal: Provide hands-on experience in teaching.
3. Leadership Development Training Events beyond our Annual Conference
   Goal: Take advantage of opportunities offered outside our area, at which our leaders can gain new skills and ideas that can be put into use within our conference.
4. Specialized activities for various age and interest groups
   Goal: Provide fellowship for our members, with others who have similar interests and needs, and provide personal growth opportunities related to each group's unique needs.
5. Task Force on Human Sexuality Education
   Goal: Provide qualified help for local churches, to help them provide human sexuality education at the local level as needed.
6. Expand two new task forces which are being developed in 1992, for these proposes: a) providing teacher training for local churches, through courses at Fall University and Laboratory Schools, and possibly through a conference-centered Disciple Bible Study teacher-training event; b) helping local churches develop more effective lay leadership and adult ministries and lead members to mature faith.
7. Continue working with the General Board of Discipleship on the Adult Education project begun in 1991, if it has not been completed in 1992.
8. Continue efforts to develop conference-wide councils of district and local-church age-level coordinators, in order to give them support and help them be more effective in their work.

Legislative item: This committee recommends that the Annual Conference set September 12, 1993 as Christian Education Sunday.

The 1991 activities of this committee consisted mainly of the following:

Courses were presented at Fall University, providing training for church-school teachers and other local church workers. Overall attendance at these education-oriented courses continued to increase, as it has for the past several years. Each year this committee offers basic education courses but also offers help in specific aspects of teaching and leading, which vary from year to year.

Laboratory Training School for teachers was held in Arlington in August of this year. Over 75 Sunday School teachers participated at all age levels.

Persons from our conference were enabled to attend training events outside our conference including Single Adult Retreat, Mount Sequoyah, various youth events, and training in Nashville.

Activities for various age and interest groups were held within our conference. These included an Older Adult Retreat at Glen Lake in November with over 50 persons attending. Mike Young of Westcliff United Methodist Church was the speaker and Robert Linnstaedt was the music leader. Over 75 single adults and leaders of single adults from every district met at Glen Lake in October with Doug Morphis as the leader.

A Task Force on Human Sexuality Education continued its work developing leaders and promoting a training process that can be made available to local churches within our conference.

A group of Central Texas laity and clergy met with representatives of the General Board of Discipleship to begin developing new ways of addressing adult education in our local churches. A bequest administered by the General Board will support this ongoing project.

Funds received on Christian Education Sunday, in addition to Annual Conference budgeted funds and fees paid by participants and their local churches, support these programs.

Barbara Wendland, Chairperson

Committee on Evangelism

Proposed Programs:

1. Conference-wide Evangelism event for clergy in the Central Texas Conference
   Goal: With the sponsorship and support of the Bishop and the Cabinet, to have every member of the Annual Conference present.
2. Fall University speaker in Evangelism
   Goal: To bring a speaker from the Board of Discipleship in the area of evangelism.
3. Council on Evangelism, Houston, Texas 1993
   Goal: To send a least one representative to the 1993 Council on Evangelism in Houston.

1991 was a great year in the life of our Annual Conference, and a great year for the work area on evangelism. It is evident that not only through our work area, but also through the entire program of our Annual Conference, evangelism is a top priority. Our Evangelism Committee met twice during 1991 to set goals and to make proposals. We were disappointed that the proposal for our Annual Conference to participate in the Harry Denman Award and in a Churches Of Excellence Award was turned down by ACCOM. Nevertheless, we had a very good response to our Fall University speaker, Dr. George Morris of Candler School of Theology. Dr. Morris shared quite extensively on the subject of Personal Evangelism or Faith-Sharing. There was no Council on Evangelism in January of 1991 due to the recent Gathering held in Fort Worth in 1990.

Vaughn W. Baker, Chairperson

Harry Hosier Event

Proposed Program:

Harry Hosier Celebration

Goal: Celebrate the tradition of African American United Methodists.

Harry Hosier, or "Black Harry," as he was popularly known, served as Bishop Francis Asbury's traveling servant during America's early colonial period. His gift of preaching served him well as he rode the circuit and he preached as much to whites as he did to blacks. Harry was uneducated and could not read or write, but his sermons revealed a depth and insight that few other preachers could match.

Harry probably had no permanent home and probably was not married. He was therefore not bound by a slave owner or a congregation and could travel around the countryside preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ. While riding on horseback with Asbury and other circuit riders, there was time to talk about the Bible, fundamental beliefs, the Christian life, and prayer. This added to Harry's knowledge and insight although none could preach or speak like Harry Hosier.

Methodism spread during those early colonial days among all persons, both black and white, largely due to the ministry of Harry Hosier, a faithful witness for the Lord.

The purpose of this event is to highlight and celebrate this part of our heritage.

Luther Henry, Chairperson

Committee On Stewardship

Proposed Program:

1. A Christian's Understanding of Tithing
   Goal: To give those attending a challenge to move up to tithing and equip them to teach tithing in their churches.
2. Planned Giving
   Goal: To have the church included in wills and requests.

The highlights of 1991 were two study presentations made on Christian Family Money Management made at Fall University at Hillsboro and a Temple District Rally at First United Methodist Church in Temple. Don Joiner from the General Board was the presenter. About 150 persons heard the presentations.

Jack Riley, Chairperson

Committee On Worship

Proposed Programs:

1. Conference-wide Choir Clinic
   Goal: To provide a one-day choir clinic to involve music directors and choir members of congregations in the Central Texas Conference.
2. Fall University
   Goal: To provide six to eight classes for the 1993 Fall University, with Dr. Ann B. Sherer, senior minister of Westbury United Methodist Church, Houston, and member of The United Methodist Book of Worship Committee chairing the General Services Subcommittee, leading three of the classes.
3. Conference participation in the national gathering of "The Fellowship Of United Methodists In Worship, Music and Other Arts"
   Goal: To provide financial assistance for two persons from the Committee on Worship to attend the event. Those who attended are expected to share their learnings by making themselves available as resource persons for district and conference training and worship events.
4. Training in the use of The United Methodist Book Of Worship
   Goal: To provide Nashville-supported training in the use of The United Methodist Book of Worship for clergy and Laity of our conference.
5. Youth Choir Rally
   Goal: To provide an annual two-day event when youth from the congregations of the Central Texas Conference can come together to: (1) rehearse new and popular musical selections for youth with a gifted clinician; (2) fellowship with other youth and adults committed to the music ministry of youth; and (3) present the rehearsed selections in a worship setting.
6. Financial assistance for The Children's Choir Festival
   Goal: To provide limited financial assistance to enable The Central Texas Chapter of Chorister's Guild to continue an annual Children's Choir Festival within the Central Texas area.

7. Meeting expense for Committee on Worship
   Goal: To meet as a whole committee once during January, 1993, with task groups meeting as needed to plan and evaluate events.

The Committee on Worship has had the following experiences during 1991:

We offered our second Conference Choir Clinic on April 13 and May 18 with Jane Marshall as clinician. Sonny Walden served as the main coordinator of the event. More than 200 persons registered for the clinic. Some 220 persons sang eight selections as a mass choir at the opening worship service of the 1991 Central Texas Annual Conference held at First United Methodist Church, Fort Worth.

We offered four courses focusing on worship at the 1991 Fall University. Dr. Michael Williams, formerly with the Section on Worship, General Board of Discipleship, was featured in two general assemblies and led three class sessions. A fourth session was led by Dr. William Auvenshine and Charles Gee outlining the progress of the new Book Of Worship.

Under the leadership of Jane McGuyer, the Committee on Worship offered the first annual Youth Choir Rally on April 27-28. The event was held in Stephenville, with a concert on April 28 at the First United Methodist Church of Stephenville. Some 90 youth participated.

On behalf of the committee, Jim Olney and Charles Gee attended the national gathering of The Fellowship of United Methodists in Worship, Music and Other Arts held at Lake Junaluska, July 14-19. Jim Olney represented the committee at Proclamation '91 held in Nashville, April 15-19.

While the committee has celebrated much success with its work with choir clinics, Fall University classes and the planning of worship services for Annual Conference, we regret that we have been unable to offer a quarterly "Worship Newsletter". The newsletter had been listed as one of our goals for the years of 1989-91.

James R. Olney, Chairperson

Conference Council On Youth Ministry

Proposed Programs:

1. CCYM Training and Growth
   Goal: To nurture Christian growth and leadership development within the CCYM through training, spiritual development and service.
2. CCYM availability to local churches
   Goal: CCYM members will be prepared and available to present four different programs for local churches. Programs would be about: Youth Evangelism; Stewardship/YSF; United Methodist Connection and Youth Ministry; AIDS: Spread the Word.
3. Total Youth Ministry Programming within the Annual Conference
   Goal: To promote cooperation and coordination among the groups and administrative levels addressing various needs of youth.
4. On-going programs such as Mid-Winter Retreats, Spiritual Life Retreat, summer event, Six Flags, Wet n' Wild, Fall University, Youth News and Views, sports tournaments.
   Goal: To continue all on-going programs, evaluating and adapting them each year and emphasizing within them the goals of the Jurisdictional Youth Ministry Organization as well as the National Youth Ministry Organizations' actions and the current priorities, "Quieting the Storm - Youth In Crisis" and "Empowering Youth To Discover and Respond to God's Call".
5. Fall University Youth Division
   Goal: To sponsor Fall University classes that will address the needs and concerns of youth and adults within our local churches, enabling them to better engage in youth ministry.
6. United Methodist Youth Events Beyond the Annual Conference Goal: To promote attendance and participation in United Methodist youth events beyond the Annual Conference (specifically SpiLiRa '93, NYMO '93 [CCYM only]; ICYC '94) by channeling information to local churches and by working to coordinate or help with transportation and finances.

7. Youth Service Fund Participation
   Goal: To increase local church youth awareness of and giving to Youth Service Fund through publicity, programs of stewardship education, personal contact and by setting fair share giving goals of $2 per youth member of each church.
8. Racial/Ethnic Participation
   Goal: To have at least ten youth and adults who are members of racial/ethnic groups other than that represented by the majority of members serving on CCYM, and to increase participation by all racial/ethnic groups in district and conference events until inclusiveness becomes such a natural part of our church life that this goal is no longer needed.
9. Evangelism and Christian Wholeness
   Goal: To sponsor events which intentionally emphasize the joy and positive values of Christianity as the alternative to a cynical and hopeless approach to life.
10. Junior High Event
    Goal: To sponsor a major Junior High event in 1993 if response from the 1992 event is positive. Junior Highs will be involved in the planning process in order to promote leadership and to address Junior High needs.
11. Conference Youth Musical Group/Choir
    Goal: To sponsor a Central Texas Conference traveling youth choir/musical group to promote music, evangelism and stewardship (especially Youth Service Fund) among youth.
12. Youth Annual Conference
    Goal: To design and complete work toward establishing a Youth Annual Conference.
13. Accessibility
    Goal: To increase sensitivity to those with physical or health challenges and to make youth events more inviting and accessible for them.

The conference year 1991-92 has been exciting for the conference Council on Youth Ministry as we planned and produced many interesting programs and events that lift up the Gospel message of Jesus Christ. Those contributing to the success of our programs as planners, leaders, and/or participants had rich experiences. Our greatest regret is that every youth within the bounds of our conference could not have participated in at least one of these events.

Some highlights of the year are:

Scott Heaslet of Hurst is serving on the National Youth Ministries Organization Steering Committee. Among other responsibilities this group plans NYMO.

Sixteen CCYM members attended the jurisdictional convocation at Mt. Sequoyah. Chia Felder of Arlington and Erin Bogart-Blythe of Bedford served on the Jurisdictional Youth Team. Mary Gean Cope was elected to a second term as jurisdictional youth co-coordinator. Twenty youth and adults drove to Missouri for Youth '91 in August.

The CCYM sponsored a conference Youth Lock-In following Annual Conference in June; nine classes at Fall University at Hillsboro in September; co-sponsored a basketball tournament in January at Georgetown; a Mid-Winter each weekend in February for a total of four at Glen Lake; a Spiritual Life Event in March also at Glen Lake; and a volleyball tournament in March at Grapevine.

Under the capable leadership of Scott Heaslet of Hurst who served as our editor, we published two editions of "Youth News and Views".

In the midst of all our activities we did not forget the importance of the Youth Service Fund. In addition to the support of YSF from the youth groups of the local churches in the Annual Conference, CCYM sold over one thousand tickets to Wet 'n Wild. Our UMYF day at Six Flags was canceled when the park closed because of torrential rain and flooding.

This has been a great year and in the words of my older brother as he disembarked his plane at DFW after having bicycled over Europe for several months: "I can't believe it is already a memory." As each old year becomes a memory, a new year brings new ambitions, goals and leadership. We, the 1991-92 CCYM pass to our successors a list of proposed programs with our blessings as they labor to lead the youth of the Central Texas Conference into their best year--the present.

Jorge-Wert (Jay) Sellers, Chairperson

BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

The Board of Global Ministries closes this quadrennium having expanded its programming to include sponsoring an increased number of courses at Fall University, working with the Board of Discipleship Older Adults Coordinator to hold Fall and Spring retreats for older adults, continued support of Urban Ministries with the addition of Rickard Memorial Day Care Center, increasing an awareness of and ministry to persons with disabling conditions, contributing to the training of leaders for the Disciple Bible Study in rural areas, exploring avenues of communication between small membership churches with conference leadership, continuing support of the Cooperative School of Christian Missions, organizing and expediting a successful conference-wide mission saturation event, and increasing an awareness for the need of a plan for Shared Facilities. Each year we have evaluated our goals, and our stewardship of our allotted funds. The needs for mission and ministry are endless. We thank the conference for its support and having given us the privilege of serving the Church in this particular arena.

Dale Smith, Chairperson

Committee On Aging

Proposed Programs:

1. Committee on Aging's Fall Retreat
   Goal: To link senior adults in a mutually beneficial time of study and spiritual renewal.
2. Committee on Aging's Spring Retreat
   Goal: To link senior adults in a mutually beneficial time of study and spiritual renewal.
3. "To Develop Senior Adult Ministries In the Local Church" - Fall University Goal: The "how to's" can be shared on how to be productive.

The need for and the resources of the senior adults of our church continues to grow on a yearly basis. In light of this, there is a continuing plan to familiarize the committee with evolving programs and opportunities for this growing segment of our population.

During 1991 a National Convocation For Older Adults was held in Fort Worth. Representatives of this committee attended a spring retreat and were spearheaded by this committee and once again enrollment grew from previous highs. Because of the success of that event the keynote speaker, Dr. Rosalie Lawson, agreed to be the presenter for the three class sessions sponsored by this committee at Fall University.

Both of these events were exceptional in both the manner they were presented and the spirit in which they were received. Together that presented a new high for this committee's work.

Bob E. Messer, Chairperson

Committee On City, Town and Country

Proposed Programs:

1. Affirm the ministries of small membership congregations in city, town and country settings through quarterly communication.
   Goal: To establish an exchange of ideas between congregations of similar size with similar concerns through periodic mailings with the Committee acting as a "clearing house" for ideas.
2. Continue to work on coordination of efforts in small membership churches with the Annual conference Board of Discipleship Goal: To avoid duplication of effort and/or competition over our efforts to work with churches which have few members.

3. Continue to promote Disciple Bible Study in clusters of small membership churches Goal: To assure that the opportunity to participate in this program is available to all United Methodists in our conference.
4. In cooperation with district superintendents and District Councils on Ministries, offer small membership church training in district training events Goal: We want to help in seeing that appropriate offerings are available to every congregation of whatever size.
5. Continue to improve offerings of rural ministry courses at Fall University and other training events
   Goal: To increase both the number and the quality of courses offered at Fall University and to offer some of the same courses in other training settings.
6. Promote the addition of rural and small church seminars for new appointees in the programs of the conference Licensing School and Start-Up Seminar Goal: To provide at least introductory training in small town and rural culture, especially for first-time pastors who are coming out of seminary and/or from an urban setting.
7. Establish appropriate task forces to work specifically with city and ethnic churches, as well as churches in transition Goal: To live up to the challenge implied in our name and support the ministries of small churches wherever they may be.
8. Promote the appointment of lay pastors to serve small membership churches Goal: To give smaller churches a better sense of identity as local churches in their own right.
9. Town and Country dinner or luncheon during Annual Conference
   Goal: To recognize, celebrate and encourage Town and Country ministries.

During the past conference year, the Committee on City, Town and Country work has continued to make progress in redefining its role in the ministry of the Annual Conference. The more we have tried to become directly involved in programming, the more it has become clear that our committee needs to take a stronger position as advocates for small church ministry. The reason for this is that almost every area in which we might program some particular action would seem to infringe upon the ministry of some other board or agency, particularly the Board of Discipleship.

Our greatest disappointment provides an excellent example of the problem: we had hoped to enroll the committee as participants in the Disciple Bible Study, only to learn that our plan would not be permitted under the General Board of Discipleship's rules for the program. We did transfer our budgeted funds to the Waco District to enable them to enroll, which they did. Through that channel, our goal is being accomplished, though not on the scale we had hoped.

The highlight of the year was our second planning meeting with the Cabinet and representatives of small churches from every district of the conference to discuss the future of ministry in and by these small churches. It may be that these planning sessions constitute our greatest accomplishments for the quadrennium, as they provide the basis for the future work of the committee and set the direction of Town and Country ministry in our conference.

It may well be that the future of the church lies not in the hustle and bustle of the cities where large numbers of people are located, but rather in the town and country where people are more apt to have the time and the inclination to "make disciples of all peoples". However that may be, we believe that the foundation which has been laid will contribute to a brighter future for our Annual Conference.

Ken Shultz, Chairperson

Committee on Education and the Advance

Proposed Programs:

1. Encourage subscription to the United Methodist Reporter as a mission education tool by putting an issue of the paper in the hands of each person worshipping in the local churches of our conference on one Sunday. This paper will have a subscription blank with it so that those interested might sign up at that time.
   Goal: Increase subscriber rate of the United Methodist Reporter for the Central Texas Conference by 5%.
2. Increase support of conference-supported missionaries by setting up a communication avenue between the missionaries and the local churches.
   Goal: Increase covenant connection relationships with conference-supported missionaries by 25% using the formula of $3.00 per member for local churches of 333 membership or less, or $1,000 per year for churches over 333 membership.
3. Enhance communication of Board of Global Ministries programming through the conference coordinated mail and direct mailings to local church mission/outreach chairpersons Goal: To increase participation in the programs offered through the Board of Global Ministries.
4. Sponsor a Mission Awareness tour open to the entire conference
   Goal: Same as program
5. Continue support of the Cooperative School of Christian Mission
   Goal: Increase attendance and encourage more inclusive participation by offering CEU credits for clergy attending the school, advanced lay speaker credit, and to target participation by men as part of the publicity. The goal of the school is to increase mission awareness and understanding through education.
6. To continue promotion of Advance Specials and seek an increase in financial support Goal: 100% participation by local churches in advance special giving.
7. Increased giving to World Hunger Advance Special and One Great Hour of Sharing Offering Goal: Give one cent per member of the Annual Conference to UMCOR's world hunger advance special and have 100% participation by local churches in One Great Hour of Sharing offering.
8. Refugee resettlement
   Goal: Resettle one refugee family per district with the North Texas Refugee Interagency acting as the liaison for the conference.
9. Each district hold a mission awareness emphasis
   Goal: This committee to set a month where there is to be some sort of mission awareness in each district. Extent of program to be determined by each district.
10. Sponsor three courses related to the goals of this committee at Fall University
    Goal: Same as program
11. Training for district leaders of missions in the various programs and committees of the Board of Global Ministries
    Goal: To hold a training event for the district secretaries and district mission coordinators so that each district has one or more trained persons who can interpret the mission programs and opportunities offered by the United Methodist Church and our conference.

We were greatly looking forward to "Mission Alive!" and this event did not disappoint us. All seven of the districts held mission awareness events with speakers coming from around the country. Nearly every local church was touched by this event in some way. This committee would like to thank each of the Mission Alive! district chairpersons who organized their event. It was a large job, but was handled well in each district. Our hope is that each district will continue the impetus in mission generated by this event and carry through with more mission education/awareness throughout the coming years.

We are diligently striving as a committee to provide education for the conference on the mission opportunities offered by the United Methodist Church and will hope to continue this trend through the next quadrennium.

Paula Whitbeck, Chairperson

Committee On Health and Welfare

Proposed Programs:

1. Annual Conference Health and Welfare Luncheon
   Goal: To provide for an extended session of Annual Conference during the noon hour so that conference institutions can inform the conference members of their ministries and their needs.
2. Promote ministries to the persons and their families with disabling conditions (to include health impaired, physically disabled, mentally and emotionally disabled, deaf, and blind). To promote that the United Methodist Church seeks to be inclusive of these persons, enabling them to use their talents and abilities as full participants in the body of Christ.
   Goals:
   a. Establish subcommittees on ministries to persons and their families with disabling conditions
   b. Provide interpreters for hearing impaired and deaf at Annual Conference worship services
   c. Sponsor a pilot program/seminar/course on developing ministries with persons having disabling conditions
   d. Provide information on available accessibility (to include accessibility for physically and hearing disabled) at district and conference events through all conference publicity
   e. Establish and continue a linking relationship with AIDS Interfaith Network, Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns, and Inclusive Leadership Committees with regard to overlapping interests and ministries
3. Membership in and attendance at the National Association of Methodist Health and Welfare Ministries Annual Conference
   Goal: To assist our conference institutions with ideas from other places and to assist in developing a stronger connectional system within all our churches.
4. Financial contribution for stipends for two persons to receive Clinical Pastoral Education Goal: To provide scholarship stipends for two persons to receive Clinical Pastoral Education.

The conference Committee on Health and Welfare Ministries, comprised of representatives from each of the Central Texas Conference's districts, has contributed time and talent in service to the conference's related Health and Welfare Institutions: Harris-Methodist Hospital System, Methodist Home, Methodist Mission Home, and Wesleyan Homes. This service has been in advocating and promoting these institutions' programs, services, and needs to the local church, the districts, and the community.

The conference Health and Welfare Committee, in response to its program of promoting ministries to the persons and their families with disabling conditions (which includes health impaired, physically disabled, mentally and emotionally disabled, deaf and blind) was actively involved in establishing two subcommittees that are addressing two of these areas.

The first subcommittee initiated a pilot program entitled the Mental Health Project. This Mental Health Project is being developed at the Fort Worth East District church, Trinity United Methodist Church, Arlington. The model being developed will focus on mental illness and the faith community. The subcommittee is responding to a challenge to care by involving the spiritual community to reach out to the mentally ill who are numbered among our community, laity and clergy. The goal is to offer restoration of wholeness and renewed communion with God and neighbor.

The Mental Health Project subcommittee membership includes: Joan Gaspard, Reverend Tony Campbell, Bette McCorkle, Dr. Luther Henry, Chaplain Randy Riddile, Lillie Payne, Cheryl Phillips, Dr. J. D. Phillips, Reverend Jim Porter, Reverend Peter Agnew, and Jane Tecklenberg.

The United Methodist AIDS Task Force, the second subcommittee, has been established in order to develop ministries to the persons and their families with AIDS and the HIV virus; to provide local churches with education, information, and resources about AIDS; and to establish linking relationships with existing community groups involved with AIDS/HIV persons and programs. Conference-wide laity, clergy, and youth are represented on the United Methodist AIDS Task Force: Reverend Larry Grubb, Judy Stafford, Joan Gaspard, Reverend Gil Ferrell, Pearl Carpenter, Alice Hart, Reverend Robert Briles, Reverend John Valles, Dr. Clifton Howard, and Reverend Wanda Kile.

Ministries of Health and Welfare are those activities directed toward helping people achieve and maintain a sense and state of well-being. These activities are direct services, which offer participants a chance to learn advocacy from involvement. These ministries provide for the use of human gifts and skills, and they are a channel through which God's love is made known. They are aimed toward empowering people to care for themselves and others. These then, become the HELPING AND HEALING MINISTRIES of the church.

Joan Gaspard, Chairperson

HARRIS METHODIST HEALTH SYSTEM

Report No. 1
President's Message

This year's report celebrates Harris Methodist's rich heritage and reminds us of the strong foundation built over the past six decades. Much of this year was spent considering the future, and reassessing our vision and goals with physicians and our management staff. Our vision is defined to be the regional health care system of choice in each community we serve.

Delivery of quality, cost-effective services with Christian compassion and love is vital to achieving our vision. An organizational assessment identified the relationship between market leadership, profitability and the need for reinvestment as key factors in Harris Methodist's ability to continue to deliver high quality care in a world of changing technology. Specific issues identified to help the System achieve its vision are efficiencies in operations that minimize costs; quality care that improves outcomes while restraining medical costs; improved service responsiveness to all System customers; an improved Medicare/Medicaid policy; and an integrated managed care strategy that encompasses all areas of the System.

I am happy to say that we have just concluded the most significant restructuring in the System's history and that these changes have been completed when the System is on strong footing, from both a financial and quality of care perspective. The Harris Methodist Health System is now better prepared to address future industry changes and to continue to build on the success of the past 61 years.

Report No. 2
A System of Health care

When the Eagle Mountain Area Suburban Hospital in Azle and the Hurst-Euless-Bedford Hospital affiliated with Harris Hospital in 1968 and 1973, respectively, management began to realize the possibilities of combining several hospitals into an integrated system. While proposals were being developed for a health care system, Harris Hospital's name changed to Harris Hospital-Methodist in 1978.

The Harris Methodist Health System was created in 1982 when the Central Texas Conference of the Methodist Church approved the concept. A multimillion-dollar expansion program was launched soon after to add new facilities and upgrade existing ones. Each hospital in the System has benefited from the program. In 1986, the name Harris Hospital-Methodist was changed to Harris Methodist Fort Worth, and other System facilities also added the Harris Methodist name.

Harris Methodist Health System has become one of the leading health care networks in the nation. This position of leadership has been earned through maintaining excellent physicians, well-trained staffs with modern equipment are a far cry from the house calls and small clinics of yesteryear. Changes continue to reshape our health and the quality of our lives, and the future is sure to bring more dramatic innovations to equipment and techniques than those we have already seen. The current members of the System are:

Harris Continued Care Hospital
Harris Methodist Erath County
Harris Methodist Fort Worth
Harris Methodist Glen Rose
Harris Manor
Harris Methodist Health Plan
Harris Methodist H-E-B
Harris Methodist Springwood
Harris Methodist Northwest
Harris Methodist Southwest
Harris Methodist Westview
MASI Healthcare Services
Specialized Medical Management, Inc.
Walls Regional Hospital

The selected operating data for the System (1991) is as follows:

Bed Capacity	1,395
Admissions	46,504
Births	8,676
ER Visits	103,875
Outpatient Visits	204,028
Surgeries	32,203

Bone Marrow Transplant Program

In our ongoing effort to expand the cancer program at Harris Methodist Fort Worth, we are pleased to announce the opening of the Oncology Intensity Unit (OIU). The OIU will serve Bone Marrow Transplant (BMT) patients as well as other high acuity oncology patients.

The construction of the Oncology Intensity Unit on the seventh floor of the Harris Building was completed March 9. The six-bed unit is Hepa filtered, which will provide an infection-free environment where BMT patients will be admitted. The Unit has a separate nursing station and is staffed by experienced oncology nurses. Many of these nurses have been sent to established transplant centers to acquire additional experience.

The Harris Methodist Fort Worth BMT program is closely associated with the Bone Marrow Transplant Program at Cook-Fort Worth Children's Medical Center. The physical proximity and linkage of the two hospitals will allow the adult and pediatric units to be served by the same physicians and marrow cryopreservation laboratory. This combined effort will allow us to achieve recognition by the International Bone Marrow Transplant Registry. Dr. David Friedman is the Medical Director for both BMT programs.

We expect that the majority of our patients will be from North Central Texas, but it would not be unusual to provide services to patients from other areas of the country.

Bone marrow transplantation (BMT) is increasingly the treatment of choice for patients with certain type of cancers.

Bone marrow transplantation is the ability to support a patient undergoing treatment for cancer or other hematologic disease which will destroy the patient's own bone marrow.

Current literature shows that certain patients who are at a very high risk of recurrence or relapse of their breast cancer may do better with an early stage autologous bone marrow transplantation. The National Cancer Institute and Blue Cross/Blue Shield are currently funding a program to look at the desirability and long term effects on bone marrow transplantation versus traditional chemotherapy on outcome and survival of breast cancer.

We look forward to providing this new service for the patients with hematologic and cancer diagnoses who will benefit from this program.

Psychiatric and Addiction Services

Harris Methodist Health System now has two state of the art addiction centers. The new Harris Methodist Springwood was opened last year at H-E-B hospital. Springwood has emphasizes individualized care and offers a full spectrum of programs for adults and adolescents. The new building is designed to accommodate established and emergency forms of care including inpatient, partial hospitalization and outpatient care. The new facility includes a 70 bed unit to meet the needs of those requiring inpatient and extended care.

The other facility is Harris Methodist Westview located in Weatherford of Parker County. This is a new 24 bed facility, completely equipped and staffed. These professionals develop individually designed programs to ensure that each patient receives the care needed to foster positive change and return as quickly as possible to family, school or workplace.

Harris Methodist Health Plan

Our managed care network is now the largest in Tarrant County, representing over 1,000 well established and highly respected private practice physicians, 20 community hospitals and 467 retail pharmacies conveniently located throughout Fort Worth/Dallas metroplex. We have more than doubled our provider network over the last four years, giving our members greater access to quality providers.

Our Health Plan currently covers over 80,000 people residing throughout Fort Worth and surrounding cities. Major clients include such industry leaders as General Dynamics, City of Fort Worth, Alcon Laboratories, T.U. Electric, Fort Worth Star Telegram, Bell/Textron Helicopter, Federal and State Governments and Miller Brewery.

Report No. 6
Emergency Service

Harris Hospital is now the leader in all of Tarrant County and Central Texas Conference in Emergency Medicine. We are recognized nationally by the American College of Surgeons as a Trauma Receiving Center, an achievement reached by only one other Texas hospital.

A great contributor to this distinguished service is CareFlite, our helicopter ambulance service, which was started in 1980. We now have three large twin-engine helicopters that significantly improves emergency transportation to Harris, particularly for those in outlying areas up to 150 miles away.

Report No. 7
The Doris Kupferle Breast Centers

We now have two Doris Kupferle Breast Centers open for the diagnoses and treatment of breast diseases, one at Harris Methodist Fort Worth, and the other at Harris H-E-B. The centers focus on early detection and public awareness. These highly specialized centers feature the latest technology for mammography.

The third Doris Kupferle Breast Center will open this year at Harris Methodist Southwest.

These centers have everything needed for diagnoses, treatment and rehabilitation of breast diseases. But more importantly, the centers bring a strong focus on education and early detection to help create awareness and provide the specialized care and support needed by women experiencing breast disease in Central Texas. Our centers give a comprehensive source for breast care in personalized, attractive and private settings.

Report No. 8
Office of Church Relations

The Harris Methodist Health System in appreciation for the churches of the Central Texas Conference has established the Office of Church Relations. This entire ministry is an outreach of love and service to all the districts and churches. Major interactions of the Office of Church Relations with the church include preaching, special speaking engagements, relating the System's health care mission to Christian principles, and working closely with individual churches to assist them in fund raising and development projects.

In this last Conference year thirteen budget campaigns were conducted and two building fund consultations resulting in some six-million dollars raised for these congregations.

In this current year we already have scheduled some eighteen church campaigns that should produce some ten-million dollars for those involved.

It is hoped that, in the years ahead, these efforts can help strengthen the financial position of our Conference and deepen our total sense of "partnership with God."

Report No. 9
The Chaplaincy Program

Harris Methodist Health System continues to be served well by our Clinical Pastoral Education Residents. These men and women provide much of the chaplaincy coverage for nursing units at Harris Methodist Fort Worth, in terms of both routine visitation and on-call emergencies. During past year Harris Methodist H-E-B also benefited from a Resident's routine visitation.

To see the scope of this Residency Program's contribution to the provision of pastoral care at Harris Methodist Fort Worth, the following statistics may be helpful. In 1991, the seven CPE Residents made 19, 281 visits, 713 of which were events dealing with the death of a patient. It is obvious that the CPE Residency Program is necessary in order to provide high-quality, low-cost pastoral care to our patients, visitors, and staff.

We wish to thank the Central Texas Conference for its continuing support of this program.

Ronald L. Smith, President

METHODIST HOME
Report No. 1

Methodist Home is grateful for our affiliation with the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church in our commitment to be a quality professional ministry for children, youth, and families that manifests Christian compassion, restoration, reconciliation, and healing. The Home's commitment is as follows:

Statement of Mission: To express God's love by providing superior services that protect, support and enhance the lives of children, youth and their families. We strive to reflect the excellence that characterizes God's care for us. We respect the dignity of each person and strive to achieve a unique and productive relationship with our constituents, our employees and those who use our service.

The Home provided 124,547 days of care for children last year with an increase of 1,436 days of care over the prior year. Last year the Home averaged some 391 children in care each day with our current population averaging some 421 children in care.

Full restoration and refurbishing of the Tom Mitchell Home unit, the Bridwell homeunit, the Youngblood homeunit, and the Howard homeunit on the Waco campus was completed last year with partial reconstruction of the Dorothy Deshong homeunit. This year two more homeunits will be restored on the Waco campus totaling fourteen homeunits restored since 1988 in the reconstruction project. Five more homeunits hopefully can be included in the project as funds are contributed for this purpose.

Administrative staff of the Methodist Home have met with administrative staff of the Methodist Mission Home several times this year in a cooperative effort of providing shared services in some areas of Texas and New Mexico. This effort was encouraged and affirmed by the respective boards of the Methodist Home and the Methodist Mission Home as both organizations are affiliated and serve the same areas of Texas and New Mexico.

Since 1890, you in the Central Texas Conference have helped Methodist Home care for some 23,900 hurting children. In the coming months, we will face many new challenges. Boys and girls will come in search of hope and shelter from problems that are difficult for us to imagine them having to endure. Families will come in conflict with each other and those around them. Youngsters will need something to hold on to that has some meaning for life. Because of your love, these boys and girls will find that hope and meaning for life. Because of your compassion, children will find refuge from the storms of life which swirl around them.

Please continue to pray for us this year. Our ministry is not one of human strength alone. All that we are able to do in the life of a child is done through the love of those who share the Spirit of our living Lord.

How You Can Help

1. Promote Methodist Home December Christmas Offering in each local church.

3. Pastors are encouraged to contact Methodist Home regarding child placement needs. Call the Methodist Home Services Office located at 1111 Herring Avenue, Waco, Texas 76708, 817/753-0181.
4. Contact Mr. Ty Herring, assistant administrator for Development of Methodist Home, when individuals indicate consideration of Methodist Home in making their long-range giving and charitable estate planning.
5. Please do not hesitate to call upon Reverend Tom Strother, assistant administrator for Church and Community Relations, or Dr. Jack Kyle Daniels, administrator, for any needs you might have related to Methodist Home.

METHODIST MISSION HOME
Report No. 1

"NEW VISION FOR THE NEXT CENTURY'

The next century, 2001, is coming soon. But even sooner, in 1995, the Mission Home in San Antonio will mark 100 years of ministry and move into its "Next Century!" Part of the New Vision is being realized through the goals of a $2.6 million capitol funds campaign (1992-1995) to provide for:

1. Endowment for scholarships	1,125,000
2. Student activity/physical therapy center	475,000
3. Refurbishing dorm for hearing impaired	100,000
4. On-going gifts from individuals (3 yrs)	900,000

Another important part of the campaign is to increase the awareness of United Methodists and other friends across Texas and New Mexico about the ministries of the Mission Home.

The trustees, former trustees and staff have already made significant pledges to show their support of the ministry and its growth. The trustees have pledged $600,000 and the staff $35,000 with both groups exceeding their goal. In 1992 we will be completing the regional phases of the campaign, which is being done in keeping with ¶ 710.5 of the 1988 Discipline. Individuals, United Methodist and other friends of the Home are invited and urged to help the Mission Home in its "New Vision For The Next Century!"

Southwest Center for Community Re-Entry (SCCR), our newest ministry for persons who have completed the medical portion of a head injury and need help in moving toward independent living, is in its third year and continues to meet the needs not only of those who have had a accident, but also those having had brain surgery, a stroke, or an aneurism in the brain area. Call Martha Slaughter at 512/699-3311 for information about this program.

Southwest Center for the Hearing Impaired (SCHI) has been honored by being one of two centers in the United States to be awarded a grant from the United States Department of Education to provide extra transitional services to low-functioning and/or traditionally under-served persons who are deaf. The goal of the SCHI program is to help persons move toward independent living. If you know of a deaf person who might benefit from such a program, please call Doug Dittfurth at 512/699-3311.

Southwest Maternity Center (SMC) continues to grow and change. We are now holding 35 orientation sessions a year on Saturdays across the various cities. We urge couples interested in learning more about adoption to attend one of these five-hour sessions.

Post-adoptive services, usually sought by adult adoptees or birth parents, hold a significant part of our services available now. Such matters need to be dealt with through counseling, caring and caution with the help of experienced personnel. Maternity care is offered in our facility in San Antonio and through our field work counselors in or near your area. These are changing times in the ways of helping pregnant teenagers and childless couples. If you need help, please call Bryce Hatch at 1-800-VIA LIFE (842-5433), answered evenings and nights also.

Our special relationship with the Adoptive Center of East Texas in Lufkin is moving into its second year. This is in cooperation with the St. Cyprian's Episcopal Church of Lufkin, which has now enlarged our services there from part-time field workers to services providing maternity living quarters, offices and full staff. For care in that area, call Cathy Pavlic at: 1-800-535-0375.

HOW THE CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE CAN HELP THE MISSION HOME:

1. Refer persons who can be helped by our services.
2. Stand firm for the "best interest of children" by using or recommending only facilities which are licensed by the appropriate regulatory bodies.
3. Take an annual special offering, using our materials, or place the Mission Home in your budget and distribute the materials in some special way.
4. Bring groups to tour the campus in San Antonio.
5. Urge classes and groups to take on special projects to provide on-going special needs. For example:
   A. A van, a mini-van or 15-passenger van.
   B. "Shares in Caring" funds for residents who lack personal funds for clothing, etc.
6. Contact Larry Watson in our Development Office when there is a person or a family who would like to make a charitable gift through their will or other means.

Thanks to Bishop John W. Russell who has been a member of our board during his tenure as your Episcopal leader, and to all the others from the Central Texas Conference, who are current trustees on the Mission Home Board of Directors:

WESLEYAN HOMES, INC.

1991 proved to be another successful year for Wesleyan Homes, Inc.. It has also been a year of new challenges and opportunities. Activity during the year has been focused in three primary areas.

I. The media turned our attention to the plight of many residents in Texas Nursing Homes, as we all witnessed, in graphic detail, the deplorable conditions in some of the nursing facilities in our state. These reports have finally turned attention on a serious problem and begun what we hope will be beneficial and lasting changes in the system that regulates and funds nursing facilities in Texas.

This same media attention has provided opportunities for Wesleyan Homes and other church-related facilities to provide leadership and an example of quality care and compassion for the elderly. Wesleyan Homes' Executive Director has testified before the Texas Department of Human Services. Our nursing home activity director, Mamie Ruth Richter, is serving on a state committee to encourage individuals and groups to adopt nursing homes in their communities and provide volunteer service. The Wesleyan Nursing home has hosted officials from the Governor's office who toured our facilities to see the "other side" of nursing home care in Texas. All of these efforts will continue to provide opportunities for the United Methodist Church through Wesleyan Homes to set an example of loving, compassionate care for the elderly.

II. Our Long Range Planning Committee, under the leadership of Mr. Erroll Wendland, has continued to lay the ground work toward our goal of establishing facilities to serve the northern end of our Annual Conference. This year's study process has considered many potential sites in the Tarrant County area, and has chosen Arlington as the most opportune place to locate a new facility, based on the need and competition. Market and demographic studies are underway to determine the type of services that are needed and to establish a time line toward completion of these new facilities.

The success of any project of this magnitude is dependent on the strong support of local people. We will continued to call on the lay persons and pastors of the Tarrant County/Arlington area to rally behind this project.

III. The Retirement Home and Nursing Home in Georgetown continue to provide vital services and care to over 250 individuals and families. The Nursing Home is now operating near capacity with over 170 residents being served. The Retirement Home is serving approximately 90 residents.

A systematic remodeling of the Retirement Home continued. Current plans call for additional work on the heating and air conditioning system, the basement activity area, and the residential floors to be completed over the next few months.

The campaign to purchase a new 21 passenger van for the facilities was completed with the help of many friends of the Wesleyan and a matching grant from the Lola Wright Foundation.

Lower interest rates have worked a hardship on many of our residents who are dependent on interest income. This has produced much more of a need for Benevolent Assistance. Wesleyan Homes has been able to meet this demand thanks to the gifts of individuals and the churches of the Central Texas Conference. However, it is more important than ever that we receive strong support and participation in the Wesleyan Homes Mother's Day Offering.

This year's Annual Conference session will conclude six years of service for Mr. Pat Stroman, as chairperson of our Wesleyan Homes Board of Trustees and Rev. Jim Porter as our vice-chairperson. We want to express our thanks to these individuals for the countless hours they have given to this ministry.

The Board of Trustees of Wesleyan Homes, Inc. thank the Central Texas Conference for their support and pledge their own commitment to this vital ministry of our conference.

Chris G. Spence, Executive Director

Committee On Shared Facilities

Committee on Shared Facilities

Goal: To encourage more Central Texas Conference congregations to share facilities with Ethnic minority congregations. To provide nurture, support and guidance in situations where sharing is already occurring.

The highlight of the work of the Shared Facilities Committee in 1991 was bringing Rev. Bruce McSpadden, author of the Manual on Shared Facilities, for a Fall University workshop. Rev. McSpadden also met with our committee, in addition to doing his workshop. He described, with the help of an excellent video presentation, the ways in which urban congregations are sharing facilities in other parts of our country. He described the tensions and problems which normally arise in a situation of facility-sharing between congregations, and he explained various ways in which the Committee on Shared Facilities could be supportive of congregations where sharing is already going on.

1991 was a year of turnover in administration for three of the five urban ministry agencies funded by the conference Board of Global Ministries. Appreciation is extended to all those departing administrators for jobs well done. The changes in leadership have fostered many exciting developments. Greater financial accountability along with a renewed commitment to church connections are examples.

The Urban Ministries Committee began to meet its goals of greater conference-wide involvement with its successful "Discerning the Spirit Of the City" symposium held in the spring. Looking for ideas and means to encourage greater ministry participation within the conference has always been a goal. Becoming an active participant in the Jurisdictional Urban Ministry Network has given the committee access to idea resources which will help to inspire us into the next quadrennium.

James Nader, Chairperson

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry continued to fine tune its structure and operating procedures during 1991 to strengthen the church's mission and ministry with students and on campuses. Proposal and reporting forms for new campus ministry units have been put into use. An additional campus ministry project has been started at Hill College in Hillsboro as an expansion of the United Christian Fellowship at Navarro College in Corsicana. The United Methodist Student Center at Tarleton State University in Stephenville has been expanded to provide more space for its growing program.

The directors of the Wesley Foundations and the United Christian Fellowship are doing an outstanding job of ministry through their units, and the board is pleased with the quality and variety of programming as well as the number of students being reached. The Board now has a committee in place to consult with the Bishop and Cabinet and to work with local unit Pastor/Parish Relations Committees in matters of personnel and appointments.

Representatives from Central Texas campus ministries participated in the Student Forum of the United Methodist Church in Iowa last May as well as in activities at their own sites and in cooperative ventures with other units.

Recipients of the 1991 Conference Merit Award were Ashley Duncan from First United Methodist Church, Weatherford, attending Southwestern University and Donnelle Engleking from Salado United Methodist Church, attending Southern Methodist University.

The current board will conclude its work in the spring of 1992 with the production of a campus ministry brochure and the adoption of a new distribution formula for campus ministry funds.

Proposed Programs:

1. Relationship to United Methodist institutions of higher education
   Goal: Maintain effective, ongoing, supportive relationships between the conference and United Methodist institutions of higher education through relationship statements and through conference financial and promotional support.
2. Direct communication with potential students regarding United Methodist colleges and universities; scholarships and loan opportunities; campus ministry units.
   Goal: Maintain a computerized mailing list of all eleventh and twelfth grade students in local churches so that they may receive information about higher education and ministry opportunities from The Texas United Methodist College Foundation. Encourage the seven United Methodist colleges to send admissions information to all tenth, eleventh and twelfth grade students, pastors and youth directors and encourage colleges and universities to provide displays and/or information at district and conference youth events.
3. On-campus events for students and parents
   Goal: To encourage the seven United Methodist Colleges of Texas to send any information about on-campus events to the conference office to be included on the conference calendar and conference mailings.
4. Financial support of students seeking higher education
   Goal: Promote giving to World Communion Sunday and to the Student Day Offering. Continue to give the Conference Merit Award each year. Make financial aid information available.

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

This fall we began a schedule of night classes to enable persons unable to enroll during our regular hours to complete the first two years of an M. Div degree. Although we have taught elective courses in the evening for a number of years, this is the first time we have scheduled required introductory M. Div courses in the evening. The initial response was impressive as twenty-seven persons enrolled in the evening only classes. With these courses and those offered during the interterm and through the summer, we are now teaching year around in a variety of schedules.

Dr. Patricia Howery Davis joined the faculty this fall as Assistant Professor of Pastoral Care. She has just completed her Ph. D degree at Princeton Theological Seminary. Next September Dr. Ellen Charry will join us in the theology faculty. We began our search for a replacement for Roger Deschner shortly after his death last fall and expect to make the appointment by September 1. He is greatly missed in our community. We have also begun the initial steps to fill a position in Christian Education. Dr. Victor Furnish, Professor of New Testament, is the President-elect of the prestigious Society of Biblical Literature. Dr. Joe Allen has just completed his term as President of the Society of Christian Ethics. Dr. Jouette Bassler has been named Editor of the new Harper's one volume Bible commentary. A grant from the Lilly Endowment enabled us to do some extensive planning to prepare our response to the needs of Hispanic persons in the area we serve.

Our enrollment has increased in both the fall and spring semesters and now stands at 345. The larger entering class is likely due to the decrease in our tuition, a more flexible approach to the intern program and the new schedule of night classes. The age of our students has also increased; the number of ethnic persons and women in our various programs remains about the same. It was our privilege in the spring to host the national meeting of the Association of Black Seminarians on our campus.

During the year we have benefitted greatly from the generosity of many individuals and groups within the church. We are grateful to all of you for what you have done to enable us to fulfill our mission of educating leaders to serve into the next millennium.

James E. Kirby, Dean

SAINT PAUL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Saint Paul School of Theology serves the Central Texas Annual Conference by preparing effective and respected leaders for the church.

A Town and Country Chair has been established at Saint Paul. Building upon historic commitment of Saint Paul to rural and small membership churches, the Town and Country Chair will greatly enhance current teaching and programs related to the rural church. The Reverend Edward A. Kail, former superintendent of the Ottumwa District of the Iowa Conference, has joined the faculty in the Town and Country Chair, bringing demonstrated commitment and experience in town and country ministries. As a pastor and superintendent, he received significant recognition for his creative response to the needs of the church and society in rural settings.

Other new faculty appointments include James M. Brandt as Assistant Professor of Historical Theology, and the Reverend Nancy June Johnston as Director of the Popple Program in Health and Welfare Ministries. In addition to their impressive academic credentials, the three new faculty at Saint Paul bring over twenty-five years of experience as local church pastors.

Saint Paul's reputation as a "school of leaders" for church and society has been highlighted recently with the selection of Saint Paul graduates for several very significant posts: dean of a United Methodist Seminary, head of a major denominational agency, and a Mayor of Kansas City, Missouri. Also in recent months seven of our graduates have been elected as clergy leaders of their delegations to General Conference and/or been nominated for the episcopacy. In each case, he or she represented the kind of commitment and competence which we so seek in our graduates.

Saint Paul maintains its unequivocal commitment to the local church. Of all the United Methodist seminaries, Saint Paul has the highest percentage of its graduates serving as local church pastors. A student recently said, "I was drawn to Saint Paul's commitment to the local church and ministry in Jesus Christ. Saint Paul seeks to be continuous conversation with the local church to better understand its needs. It seeks to work with the church and its ministry, and not against it. The program is holistic in its emphases, seeking to prepare the student academically, spiritually, and personally."

Saint Paul's equally uncompromising commitment to academic excellence was highlighted this year during the regular ten-year review by the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada and the North Central Association of College and Schools. Saint Paul received a splendid report from the visitation team and recommendation for reaccreditation.

Saint Paul School of Theology is preparing a new generation of leaders for the church in the Wesleyan tradition. There is no more worthy endeavor to which any of us could give our energies and resources. We thank you for being partners with us in this mission.

Lovett H. Weems, Jr., President

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

I am pleased to comply with the 1988 Resolution from the Jurisdictional Conference requesting an Annual Report to each Annual Conference in the South Central Jurisdiction.

During the past year, Southern Methodist University's Accreditation Self-Study Report has been wholly endorsed by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, and SMU is fully accredited for the next 10 years. SMU has also been approved by the Senate of the United Methodist Church. As the report notes, "Southern Methodist University is to be highly commended in the philosophy, vision, conceptualization, variety, and overall quality of its educational programs and processes."

One important factor in the Association's evaluation of the University was SMU's financial stability. I am pleased to report that, for the first time in several years, SMU achieved a balanced budget in 1991. This achievement was made possible, in part, by a 9 percent reduction in staff, from about 1,362 to 1,256 positions. As you know, administrative streamlining in higher education has become the norm in these days of limited resources. The reductions have not affected the quality of SMU's programs and services, and they did not include faculty positions.

At the same time, the University was able to move forward with implementation of curricular changes intended to educate students for life in a global society. These include:

- New cross-disciplinary majors in ethnic studies and international studies;
- A required course in race, ethnicity, or gender, plus ones focusing on non-Western civilization;
- Strengthening of foreign language offerings, including the addition of Japanese to the curriculum;

- A new Ph.D. program in psychology.
- A reinstituted Ph.D. program in physics, taking full advantage of the educational opportunities afforded by the Superconducting Super Collider being built near Dallas;
- A new undergraduate evening program leading to a Bachelor of Humanities or a Bachelor of Social Sciences degree;
- A new Master's degree program in hazardous and waste materials management;
- A two-year MBA program and a new undergraduate business minor;
- An expanded schedule of evening classes in the Perkins School of Theology, along with a three-year Master of Divinity program.

The environment for learning has been enhanced with the opening of the Jake and Nancy Hamon Arts Library. In addition, the University-wide Library Automation Project is nearing completion.

I am especially pleased to report that the United Methodist Campus Ministry Program, under the leadership of Rev. Greg Ligon, has significantly enriched the lives of our students, particularly our United Methodist students. New activities have included retreats, seminars, and evening Bible study. The Jurisdictional commitment to this Ministry is vital to our mission in serving SMU's United Methodist students.

I am also pleased to announce that the Association of Governing Boards has selected Ruth Sharp Altshuler as the Private University Trustee of the Year. Ruth Altshuler continues to be one of the finest United Methodist faces in our Board of Trustees.

Under Athletic Director Forrest Gregg, SMU's teams continue to make progress, both on the fields and courts and in the classroom. Several SMU athletes recently earned recognition for academic achievements, among them Cary Brabham, who was named first team Academic All-American by the College Football Association. The College Swimming Coaches Association honored the SMU men's and women's teams in 1991 for achieving grade point averages that ranked among the top 14 Division I schools. As SMU's president, as a member of the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics, and as new president of the Southwest Conference Presidents' Council, I remain committed to our collective efforts to improve the level of integrity in intercollegiate athletics nationwide.

We deeply appreciate your interest, gifts, prayers and leadership, all of which strengthen our progress toward fulfilling SMU's founding vision, which we reaffirm through our efforts today.

A. Kenneth Pye, President

UNITED METHODIST CAMPUS MINISTRY
SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

The United Methodist Campus Ministry at Southern Methodist University is in its infant stages, having been reestablished after more than 25 years with no full time director of United Methodist Campus Ministry. It seems hard to believe that the second year of work on the campus of Southern Methodist University is approaching its completion. The struggles have been those common to the establishment of a new church. There have been times of anxiety, wondering if anyone would be present for a program. There have been hours and hours of "laying groundwork" when it was easy to lose sight of the vision of reaching students for Christ. However, the struggles have been by far overshadowed by the joy of making great strides in the ministry.

Involvement in the ministry has grown to involve approximately 137 persons on a weekly basis (Hardcore Bible Study: 40; Cross-Training: 14; Small Group Bible Studies: 35; Disciple Bible Study: 10; Dorm Days: 12; Leadership Team: 14; Voice of Hope Outreach: 6; Wesley Rankin Outreach: 6) This translates into a core group of about 45-50 students. In addition to this core group of students there are numerous students with whom the interns have regular contact but may not be plugged into the weekly program.

In addition to weekly programming, UMCM has an active involvement in various campus activities including: intramurals, homecoming, and community service day. "60 Minutes" is another program offered to address various issues that students face. Programs have focused on relationships, understanding the new age movement, eating disorders, evangelism and this spring, alcoholism.

The students involved in UMCM are a diverse group representing various segments of the student body. Some are involved in student activities including the Greek System. Others are more focused on their academic work. There is a representative ethnic diversity represented as well with the involvement of several Hispanic and Asian students.

In addition to our regular programming, the director has been an active part of the Student Affairs staff. Working closely with Dr. Jim Caswell, the Vice President of Student Affairs, there have been numerous attempts to enhance the relationship between the church and the university. Included among these efforts are annual luncheons for United Methodist Scholars and Youth Professionals and the annual UMYF Football Day. This year's event was entitled "Go for the Goal." UMCM-SMU hosted over 1800 United Methodist youth from around the S. C. Jurisdiction for a day full of activities including campus tours, a college fair, seminars concerning the call to ministry, the football game and a closing concert.

UMCM is currently officing in the Hughes-Trigg student center and the extra bedroom of the director's home adjacent to campus. The ministry is staffed by the director, Rev. Greg Ligon and a part-time secretary, Roxie Kitchen. In addition 2 interns have raised financial support and are working with the program.

The staff, the board of directors and the students would like to thank you for your commitment, encouragement, and support of the newly established United Methodist Campus Ministry at Southern Methodist University.

Greg Ligon, Director

SOUTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY
To Improve the Human Condition

Southwestern University believes that church-related higher education is one of the most important means possessed by our society to improve the human condition. We are proud to be one of the many United Methodist-related colleges and universities which carry out this task.

Even though the decade of the 80s was hard for higher education generally, the dedication of trustees, alumni, faculty, students, staff, and friends made it a good decade for Southwestern. Let me cite some indicators of the positive changes which have occurred. In 1980.....

- the endowment of the University was around $35 million. It is now $153 million.
- the average SAT score of entering students was less than 980. It was 1118 for the fall, 1991 entering class.
- the per student educational expenditure was around $6,500. It is now more than $16,000.
- faculty compensation was at less than the 60th percentile for schools of our type. It is now above the 90th.
- the head count enrollment was just over 1000. It is now above 1200.
- the number of freshmen applicants for the entering class was less than 500. This year it was more than 1200.
- the retention of entering freshmen to graduation was less than 50%. It is now just over 70%.
- Southwestern was not mentioned prominently in any national publication as "number one" in its category, or as a "best buy," or as a "selective" institution. It now receives those accolades with regularity.

It is not my purpose here to list these achievements so that we can bask in the warm glow of the accomplishments, but to suggest that they are preliminary to what may well be a series of equally important events which will bring them to a fitting climax in the early 90s. Let me enumerate them for you:

- Adoption of the Vision 2000 master plan document to guide our planning process for the next decade.
- Completion of the Southern Association Self-Study report and visit by a team of examiners.
- Construction of a new academic mall and theater complex.
- Consideration of a major development campaign.

The Master Plan

Following the successful completion of the master plan which guided us through the 1980s, we began the preparation of a master plan for the 90s. We have called it Vision 2000. It is nearing completion and will soon be ready for formal consideration by the faculty. Once the faculty has completed its work, the document will be studied by appropriate Board committees and approved by the full Board. I look upon the adoption of this new master plan as an important step in setting our direction for the 90s. It will be carefully coordinated with the Southern Association Reaccreditation Self-Study.

Southern Association Reaccreditation Self-Study

At the same time that we have been working on the new master plan, we have also been drafting a Southern Association Self-Study document preparatory to a visit by a team of examiners in March, 1992. One of the elements of accreditation is that each college and university go through a reaccreditation process every ten years. Our faculty has been working on our Self-Study document for almost two years. The master plan and the Self-Study documents have been carefully coordinated so that they will present a consistent approach to the future. Their completion will assure the University of an orderly and ambitious blueprint for the 1990s and beyond.

Academic Mall and Theater

The new academic mall and theater project are underway with the mall slated for a spring, 1992, completion and the theater for completion in the fall of 1992. More than simply bringing that master plan to completion, however, will be the final establishment of the over-arching concept originally envisioned by our master plan architects. That concept includes a central academic zone designed to facilitate pedestrian traffic among the academic buildings, with peripheral parking areas for automobiles. We feel that the completion of this project will bring a greater degree of interaction among students and faculty and be an important factor in helping to produce a safe, and supportive, academic environment.

Feasibility Study for Vision 2000 Campaign

A key to our success in meeting the objectives of Vision 2000 in the next decade will be our ability to raise the funds necessary to build the endowment and to meet the building needs for a faculty and student body which have grown considerably over the 90s. The endowment, which currently stands at $153 million, needs to rise at least to $235 million by the end of the decade if we are to meet the needs of incoming students, provide them with the best academic programs, and position Southwestern firmly among the ranks of America's top national liberal arts colleges. In order to reach this objective, we are proceeding with planning for the possibility of conducting a major fund-raising campaign over this decade. The preliminary results of this study indicate that a well-planned campaign will help Southwestern continue the pattern of enrichment which has marked its rise to distinction among the best small universities in our nation.

Conclusion

I am proud of the role we are playing in producing the kind of citizens America needs in this rapidly changing world, and I look forward to helping guide the future of Southwestern University.

Roy B. Shilling, Jr., President

TEXAS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

In 1990-91, Texas Wesleyan University celebrated its 100th year of service in higher education.

During the year, the trustees, faculty, staff, students, alumni and friends of the university united to showcase all areas of the institution. The year began with a convocation at which the keynote speaker was Ernest M. Boyer, president of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Education. Throughout 1990-91, special weeks of events showcased all the constituencies of the Schools of Business, Education, Fine Arts, Humanities and Sciences.

While Fall 1990 enrollment experienced a decrease over Fall 1989, efforts were renewed to increase attendance, resulting in a Fall 1991 enrollment increase of three percent. The recruitment of non-traditional and minority students was intensified, because the University believes that these students can benefit greatly from the Texas Wesleyan educational experience. During this year we took the Texas Wesleyan story to 55 churches in Texas.

In 1991, Dr. Jerry G. Bawcom, 15th president, resigned, and Dr. W. L. Hailey served as interim president. Dr. Jake B. Schrum, vice president for Development at Emory University and an alumnus of Yale Divinity School and Southwestern University, was chosen 17th president of Texas Wesleyan.

Under Dr. Schrum's leadership, the University has established new goals with the contribution of trustees, faculty, staff and alumni. These goals, incorporated into an Institutional Plan, address all areas of the institution, including, for example, academic life, admissions, development, church relations.

The new goal statement of Texas Wesleyan University is a strong reaffirmation of our commitment to both knowledge and values. It reads, "By the year 2000, Texas Wesleyan University seeks to be recognized as one of a select group of small, urban, private universities which are distinguished by their commitment to providing a values-centered education that integrates career preparation with a strong liberal-arts tradition, serving a multi-generational, multi-racial and multi-cultural population and manifesting a commitment to its community.

Dr. Jake B. Schrum, President

COMMITTEE ON CAMPS AND ASSEMBLIES

The Camps and Assemblies Committee is happy to report a successful and exciting year at Glen Lake Camp. An outstanding summer program of resident and off-site camping provided spiritual, physical and mental development for the children and youth of our conference. Additional events during the year, including the Harry Hosier Celebration and the Single Adult Retreat, are examples of the continuous growth of year-round activities. The Graham Lodge was completed, and is scheduled for use by groups throughout 1992 and into 1993. The Long Range Planning Committee continues to work on repair and renovation of existing facilities as well as planning for new construction. The loving support of individuals and local congregations make our future bright. We are blessed with excellent leadership in our permanent and summer staff as well as dedicated volunteers who serve as deans, assistant deans and counselors.

GLEN LAKE UNITED METHODIST CAMP TRUSTEES

The new Graham Lodge, provided by the Graham United Methodist Church, was dedicated in February 1992. The Graham Lodge has been in full use for approximately one year, providing a valuable addition to the facilities of the camp.

The 308 acre tract, south and east of the main camp site, is now free and clear. The lien against the property has been fully paid.

A master plan for the future development of the camp has been designed and accepted. The plan provides for a new infrastructure of utilities, roads, living quarters, and educational facilities.

The first of fifteen new cabins has been donated by Mr. Cullen Turner of Fort Worth. His family has been generously involved in other improvements of the camp over the past years. The new cabin, containing approximately 1200 square feet, has recently been completed and will be available for the summer of 1992. It is a new design with more durable potential for the coming years.

In preparation for the future building plans, a long term program of the removal of dead and diseased trees and replanting of new trees, with the new building sites in mind, has been initiated and over 125 new trees have been planted. Most of the contributors of the trees have been individuals concerned with the future of Glen Lake Camp. This is an ongoing program and your participation is encouraged.

Over $6000 has been contributed to the Memorial Fund of Rev. W. C. Taylor, Jr., a strong presence and long time Chairperson of Glen Lake United Methodist Board of Trustees. His influence has set the stage for the future growth of the camp. Contributions to the Memorial Fund will be used for the immediate extension and lighting of Silent Trail and the further development of Vesper Point. This facility was damaged in the December flooding. The Vesper Point location provides for an outdoor teaching and worship facility.

Dr. Richard Millsap and Dr. Nick Kupferle, Glen Lake Camp Planning and Development Committee, continue to seek and develop funds for the exciting dreams of tomorrow for Glen Lake Camp.

COMMITTEE ON COMMUNICATION AND INTERPRETATION

The committee conducted the Montage Mission Education Project whereby missions, education and stewardship were integrated in the classroom for third through sixth grades and their teachers. The montage is the means to a end. The end is increasing the children's awareness and encouraging their participation in the Christian outreach program. As an extra the children can lead the congregation into a better understanding of apportionments. Gary Whitbeck led this project.

During the Christmas season 25 bus signs were placed on the rear of Fort Worth Transit buses. The signs read, "ATTEND A UNITED METHODIST CHURCH". The conference phone number was listed.

A large lighted billboard is in place on the Fort Worth West Freeway at Montgomery Street exit. The sign reads "United Methodist Church Welcomes You".

The May Outdoor Company allowed the conference to lease a board for two months (standard lease is for a year). This billboard ran December through February. This gave us exposure on I-30 for that length of time. Funds were not available to extend the time. The message on this billboard read, "Give Your Child Something To Believe In. Visit a United Methodist Church". The face of a small child and the flame and cross appeared on either side of the sign.

Brownwood District used their allotted funds to run several radio spots.

The "Faith Focus" TV program, which we help sponsor, airs every Sunday morning at 6:30 a.m. John Fiedler is the host for the show April through June.

We continue our efforts to bring VISN television to our area.

The committee joined the Board of Global Ministries in the United Methodist Reporter subscription program.

Proposed Programs:

1. Committee responsibility
   Goal: To meet as necessary, to communicate the message of the United Methodist presence in the Central Texas Conference and to interpret the benevolent program of the United Methodist Church.
2. Central Texas Conference Edition, United Methodist Reporter
   Goal: To provide leaders of the local churches, who do not subscribe to the paper, with the story of Central Texas Conference, national and world news.
3. Media Coverage
   Goal: To present the presence of the United Methodist Church throughout the Central Texas Conference using radio, television, newspaper, highway billboards, and other forms of media exposure in order to reach church members, unchurched population and others within the scope of our media concentration.

UNITED METHODIST COMMUNICATIONS COUNCIL

The United Methodist Communications Council of Texas and New Mexico continued helping the church proclaim the Gospel message through mass media during 1991-92. The council was formed in 1969 to help coordinate and carry out cooperative communications activities for the seven annual conferences that own the joint agency. The Communications Council accomplishes that mission through a number of operating units: The United Methodist Reporter, Mission Communications, UMR Institute for Church Communications, UMR Foundation and United Methodist Media Services.

United Methodist Reporter

The United Methodist Reporter (UMR) now publishes four different newspapers: the weekly United Methodist Reporter, the weekly interdenominational National Christian Reporter, the biweekly United Methodist Review and the monthly United Methodist Record.

At the close of 1991, UMR was a partner in communications ministry with United Methodist annual conferences and local congregations across the United States. UMR published 36 annual conference editions of the Reporter, Review or Record. These editions served 37 of the 72 annual conferences in the United States. UMR produced local editions for more than 300 local congregations and districts. UMR's four newspapers took stories of faith at work in the world into some 460,000 households nationwide during 1991.

Six of the seven conferences that make up the Communications Council now publish weekly editions of the Reporter. The Southwest Texas Conference returned to this group in January 1992. Financial concerns had prompted Southwest Texas to switch to a biweekly Review edition in June 1989. Program needs for more frequent communication with conference leaders motivated the return to the Reporter.

The seventh conference in the Communications Council, Rio Grande, began publishing a Spanish-language edition of the monthly Record in May 1991. For more than a year before that, the Rio Grande Conference couldn't afford to use the Council's newspaper-publishing services. The introduction of a new monthly publication in April 1991 changed that. This Rio Grande Record edition continues the tradition of Spanish-language news publishing that the conference had done through a Reporter edition until 1990.

In addition UMR published newspapers in 1991 for eight other denominations, journals for 18 annual conferences and pre-conference journals for nine.

Mission Communications

Mission Communications helps annual conferences, local congregations, church agencies and church institutions tell their stories through media other than newspapers.

During 1991 Mission Communications generated record revenue. Working with nearly 100 different clients--many from Texas--Mission Communications produced newsletters for various church agencies, promotional calendars for children's homes across the country and a variety of customized montage drawings. In addition, Mission Communications prepared a special tabloid newspaper supplement describing the ministries of the Methodist Mission Home in San Antonio. This supplement was included one week in all Reporter and Review editions delivered in Texas.

During 1992 the Central Texas Conference has become the third conference in the Communications Council to take advantage of a unique approach to benevolence interpretation campaigns developed by Mission Communications. These campaigns are built around a coloring contest using a pen-and-ink montage drawing by Mission Communications Director Tom Gibson. The drawings depict a conference's various outreach and institutional ministries. Elementary-school-age children learn about the church's connectional ministries by coloring scenes showing them in action. The hope is that through interest in their children's work, parents will likewise learn about the ministries.

The Texas and North Texas conferences have also used the coloring contest campaign.

UMR Institute for Church Communications

The United Methodist Reporter Institute for Church Communications provides communications training to annual conferences and local churches related to UMR. During 1991 more than 300 people attended seven workshop sessions led by members of the UMR staff. Six additional workshops were scheduled during the first three months of 1992.

During the January 1992 term at United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio, the UMR Institute provided an instructor for a news-writing course. The course was part of the seminary's master of arts in religious communications curriculum.

In September 1991 the U MR Institute began offering special consulting services to congregations publishing UMR local editions. UMR Institute representatives help local church leaders develop ways to use their newspapers and other communications vehicles as more effective tools of ministry.

UMR Foundation

The United Methodist Reporter Foundation is raising money to meet two goals: (1) to build a new $4 million UMR Communications Center in Dallas debt-free and (20 to create a $10 million endowment. Earnings from this endowment are to help underwrite the cost of individual newspaper subscriptions as postal rates rise.

Since July 1991 the UMR Foundation has been working to meet a $500,000 grant from the Mabee Foundation in Tulsa, Okla. The Mabee Foundation will contribute the money toward construction of new UMR Communications Center if the UMR Foundation has $3.5 million by July 1992. At the end of 1991, the UMR Foundation had collected $2.4 million.

The UMR Foundation is trying to raise the remaining $1.1 million through special campaigns in the conferences that make up the Communications Council. These campaigns are being carried on outside the conference structure and follow the theme, "We've a story to tell."

United Methodist Media Services

United Methodist Media Services works directly with the seven conference that make up the Communications Council. Its mission is to develop, coordinate and carry out joint public relations/information campaigns through internal and secular media. In addition, Media Services provides public relations counsel to leaders of the seven conferences.

During 1991 Media Services mounted two campaigns to oppose legalization of a Texas lottery.

In February 1991 Media Services helped the five bishops of Texas prepare and distribute a letter to each member of the Texas House and Senate. The letter outlined why the bishops opposed a state lottery. Pressure from religious leaders was credited with defeating the lottery proposal during the regular legislative session.

But a special legislative session in August put a lottery proposal on the November ballot. Consequently, Media Services launched an information campaign to explain to United Methodists why their bishops were asking church members to vote against the lottery measure. The campaign was done in conjunction with the bishops' Legislative Advisory Committee. The effort was intended to make sure the bishops' message about state-run gambling was delivered to as many church members as possible.

The campaign resulted in a series of stories during October in the conference editions of the Reporter delivered in Texas and a pamphlet distributed to worshipers during the two weeks before the Nov. 5 election. The newspaper stories, which explained how and why church leaders were working against the lottery proposal, went into nearly 180,000 households across the state. The pamphlets, which explained why the bishops were asking church members to vote against the lottery, were put into the hands of more than 250,000 church members.

Personnel losses

Two personnel losses during 1991 influenced the way agencies of the Communications Council carried out their work. One loss had temporary impact. The other will have lasting effect.

The temporary loss involved Douglas Cannon, director of United Methodist Media Services and coordinator of the UMR Institute for Church Communications. A major in the U. S. Army Reserve, Mr. Cannon was called to active duty during the Persian Gulf War. His absence from November 1990 to September 1991 reduced the capabilities of Media Services and the UMR Institute.

The permanent loss involved Spurgeon M. Dunnam III, Communications Council executive and UMR editor-chief executive. Mr. Dunnam, 48, died Nov. 25, 1991, following surgery. He had been a part of United Methodist communications work in Texas since 1965. He had influenced the Communications Council's development for many years.

The UMR Governing Board, which establishes policies for the newspaper operation, began a national search for a new chief executive in January. In the interim, the board's Executive Committee named the Rev. Dan Louis, a clergy member of the Texas Conference, as chief executive. The board was to complete its national search by April 15. The 45-member board was then to nominate its selection for UMR chief executive to the Communications Council for final election. The Communications Council also elects the Governing Board chairperson, the Communications Council executive director and the director of the Media Services division.

COMMITTEE ON ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS
Report No. 1

The Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns continues to be in ministry with local churches in the conference by making available funding for programs that enable mission to go forward. The local churches submit proposals that are considered for funding on the basis of need and opportunity to be in ministry in the community. These programs are evaluated by the committee each year if additional funding is needed. The Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns continues to seek ways to involve the ongoing agencies of the Annual Conference to the work of this group.

The Comprehensive Plan for ministry to the ethnic local church continues to guide and strengthen the committee as it moves into the 1990's and beyond.

Proposed Program:

Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns meeting expenses

Goal: To meet regularly in order to develop a strategy for ministry through ethnic local churches.

Report No. 2

For the 1992 fiscal year several projects were funded by the Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns as part of the committee's efforts to strengthen and develop the ethnic minority local church. The projects are listed below with a brief description of their ministry and the amount of funding proposed for the year:

McMillan United Methodist, Fort Worth $7000

The development of a program that will target at-risk persons and users who are needing assistance will be beneficial to the surrounding community. A part-time professional counselor will administer the program.

El Calvario United Methodist Church, Fort Worth $9000

Reaching out to the Hispanic neighborhood through the establishment of an ESL program, home Bible studies, and worship services is the focus of this grant.

Saints Delight United Methodist Church, Frost $3000

Remodeling and repairs by church members and made possible by this grant have enabled this congregation to have suitable facilities for study and worship.

Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry $6000

This committee is an agent of the Central Texas and the Rio Grande Conferences. It continues to address needs brought on by the growing Hispanic population through providing consultative services on shared facilities ministries, and church revitalization in transitional communities.

Grace United Methodist Church, Arlington $6000

The development of a program for college age students will include Saturday evening worship services and on-campus support to enhance participation and leadership. A program director will administer the project.

Mt. Zion, Waco $600

Two choirs were formed that brought children and youth into the life of the church. Hand bells were needed for these choirs to continue their ministry.

Hispanic Outreach, Fort Worth $5000

Hispanic Outreach is a program sponsored by Polytechnic United Methodist Church, Fort Worth, aimed at addressing the increase in the Hispanic population by offering ESL (English as a Second Language).

St. Andrews United Methodist Church, Fort Worth $3000

Funds for this project are used to help sustain the ongoing drug ministry and seed money for a conference addressing the needs of youth, gangs, crime, and AIDS.

Korean United Methodist Church, Waco $2400

An opportunity for Korean students at Baylor to meet together once a week to eat Korean food, study, worship, and have fellowship is possible with the aid of a teacher/leader at the church and this project money.

Rocky United Methodist Church, Mexia $1000

This grant enabled the church to make repairs on the building that continues to provide a needed ministry in the community. The church members provided labor and the majority of the funds for those repairs.

TOTAL $43,000

COMMITTEE ON PLANNING AND RESEARCH

Planning and Research brought a proposed mission statement to Annual Conference '91 to be considered by individuals and groups prior to its presentation for adoption by the conference in 1992. It was presented, read in unison by the entire body, and published in the 1991 Journal.

The committee was pleased with the reception given Dr. Mearle Griffith, Associate General Secretary for Research for the General Council on Ministries, by both committee members and other persons attending his course at Fall University '91. His "Four Functions For Comprehensive Planning" focused the committee's work, especially in two areas: "Exploring" and "Evaluating". We propose to assist local churches, especially in developing their own shared vision, and in setting priorities for the year 2000.

We also propose that the conference further develop its evaluating function by intensifying the function as set forth in our recommendation to create the Committee on Evaluation and Budget Coordination.

Homer Kluck, Chairperson

Mission Statement

The Central Texas Conference is a covenant people who hold to God's unchanging truths in the presence of constantly changing human circumstances; and we accept the commission of Jesus Christ to, "Go make disciples."

We are the connection through which our local churches combine individual missions and strengths enabling us to accomplish together what we cannot do alone. In our covenant relationship, we focus on scripture, tradition, experience, and reason to fulfil our mission.

Proposed Programs:

1. Coordinating/Adjusting Conference Structures
   Goal: To coordinate/adjust Annual Conference structures to coincide with any changes made by General Conference.
2. Conference Visioning and Goals for 2000
   Goal: To encourage and assist conference boards and agencies to develop goals and visions for the Annual Conference for the year 2000 (this will be done as stipulated in ¶726.5.c of the 1988 Discipline in conjunction with all conference agencies and boards - an all-inclusive event).
3. Local church planning for the year 2000
   Goal: To help local churches develop goals for themselves for the year 2000.

COMMITTEE ON THE AGENDA

The Annual Conference Committee on the Agenda commends all the boards and agencies of the annual conference for their creativity and cooperation in making this annual conference a special one. We salute our own Bishop Russell as he begins a new relationship to us and we have great expectations as we enter into a new era with a new bishop. As we look both to the past and to the future, it is appropriate that our theme is "United in Mission." That is our focus and your boards and agencies are orienting their reports to address this theme as it relates to enabling local churches and other mission settings to be in mission where we are and as we seek to hold one another accountable for the way we live out God's mission in our own settings. To help us focus our attention on this theme in the months ahead your Agenda Committee with the help of your boards and agencies has published a "Mission Resources" booklet. We hope it is helpful to you as you seek to plan for the months and years ahead to fulfill our common mission as disciples of Jesus Christ.

The Annual Conference Committee on the Agenda recommends:

1. That the 1992 Per Diem Allowance be granted for each day in actual attendance at the conference for retired clergy, retired diaconal ministers, retired deaconesses, ministers' surviving spouses, pastors receiving a total salary of, or less than the minimum salary of the conference, students appointed to attend school and ministers on disability leave. The rate shall be $30 for those who reside within Tarrant County and $60 for those who reside outside of Tarrant County.
2. That the budget line item for the expenses of annual conference for 1993 be set at $28,500.
3. That future places for the meeting of the annual conference be 1995 - Arlington and 1996 - Waco.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

I. Central Texas Conference United Methodist Archives Center
Texas Wesleyan University: Eunice/James L. West Library
Fort Worth, Texas 76105 Jean Traster, Archivist
The Archive Center is open for research on Wednesdays and Thursdays
Please call for an appointment in advance

A. The holdings of the Central Texas Conference United Methodist Archives Depository increased by 25% during the past year. Most of the new accessions are records of local church congregations. The incoming records are inventoried, processed, and registered. They are stored in acid-free archival containers on steel shelving. Preservation of the records for the purpose of research is the major priority of the Archives Center. The Archives Center receives mail and telephone calls daily from across the nation requesting information from the records holdings of the depository.

So wide and varied are these concerns and questions that the value of the Central Texas Conference records collection has proven to be inestimable.

B. Pre-1935 Circuit Church Records Project: Pat Allen

Prior to 1935 churches on circuits were not listed in the Journals by individuals names, but by the name of a near-by town, or by the name of the largest church of the particular circuit-grouping. These developing circuit churches were switched from circuit-grouping to circuit-grouping year after year for the purpose of equalizing the pastoral responsibilities of the preachers assigned to the circuits. Hundreds of names of pre-1935 circuit churches have been lost because the individual names were not listed in any Conference records until 1935. Pat Allen has added several hundred names of "lost" circuit churches to the archives records through her research in history books, the Handbook of Texas three-volume set, old Northwest Texas and Central Texas Conference records, and district and local churches records. She also adds data relating to the geographical location of the church and/or community and relevant facts about the development or demise of the area.

C. Local Preacher Records, Union List: Ordained Clergy, and Discontinued Conference Relationship Lists: Pat Allen

This collection of records increase as new data is added through reading and research. The contents of these collections have enabled the archivists to answer 90% of the questions that come into Archives, compared to approximately 30% before this project was begun.

D. Local Church Records Inventory, Temple District: Rickie Stone

The Inventory was a pilot program in the Temple District in 1991 to determine the extent of the records holdings of the local churches and to encourage the search for records which might be missing. Thirty-six of fifty local church historians responded to the initial survey. Two of four exemplary churches participated in the second in-depth inventory:

St. James UMC, Temple - Willie F. Green, Historian

St. Andrews UMC, Killeen - Lois E. Clark, Historian

E. ARMA Project: Beverly Cambell Stevens/Sara Swindall

A system is being devised to make the information on the microfilm holdings of the Archives Depository more accessible for research.

F. Akron-Auditorium Churches Project: Jean Traster

This project originated with a request from Dr. Ronald L. M. Ramsay, an architectural historian of the University of North Dakota. The Akron architecture has a church auditorium with a sloping floor, pews curved into a quarter or semi-circle arrangement, and walls that raise to increase auditorium seating and lower to create Sunday School classroom.

Over one-hundred twenty Akron-auditorium churches from Texas to Ohio have been named by letters and telephone calls as of April 1, 1992. The churches have been Methodist, Baptist, and Presbyterian, with Methodist being the most numerous. All the respondents remember these buildings with great affection and reverence for their religious influence, and remorse that so many of them have been destroyed.

II. The Commission on Archives and History, Central Texas Conference: 1991-1992 Projects

A. Training for Local Church Historians

1. 1992 Fall University, Hillsboro: Hill College
Saturday, September 12, 1992

A six-hour seminar/workshop will be offered for historians who are newly-elected to this local church responsibility and for experienced local church archivists.

A.M. Session: Methodical Methodists and Historical Records
Part I: A Heap of Stuff

P.M. Session: Methodical Methodists and Historical Records
Part II: Sense and Sensibility

2. District Training for Local Church Historians is available on request. The Fort Worth East and West Districts each had two-hour training sessions for historians in 1991 and 1992. Brad Willis of the Waco District, Cathy Sims of the Brownwood District, Tom Ridlehuber of the Temple District, and Jean Traster of the Fort Worth East District are available to teach.

B. Oral History Project: John Johnson

This project involves the tape-recording of biographical information of retiring clergy and spouses, and anecdotes and recollections of their ministry. A sermon of the retiring clergy person is also on the tape.

C. Local Church Annual Historical Up-Dates Project: John Johnson

Forms of the Annual Historic Up-Date are sent every November/December to each district superintendent for distribution to the local church pastors. The forms are to be completed by the local church historian, or, in the absence of such a person, by the pastor and/or the church secretary. The forms are to be returned to the district superintendent in January for forwarding to Archives. The up-dates provide details of records, projects, activities, and building construction, renovation, and improvement that are not recorded elsewhere. They have proven to be very valuable to researchers of local churches.

1991 Local Church Historical Up-Dates received:

Fort Worth East District - Luther Henry

Fort Worth West District - Ben Feemster

Weatherford District - Louis Shambeck

D. Heritage Sunday Celebrations: Art Buhl

Materials and information relating to Heritage Sunday Celebrations are available through Art Buhl of the Archives and History Commission.

E. A congregation investigating the procedure for making application for a Texas State Historical Marker may contact Tom Ridlehuber, Archives/History Commission.

F. United Methodist Markers: Tom Ridlehuber

Tom Ridlehuber is chairing a project to define and delineate the requirements for receiving official United Methodist Historical Markers in the Central Texas Conference. His presentation will be reviewed at the Texas United Methodist Historical Society meeting in September, 1992, with a proposal from the Central Texas Archives Commission that the requirements to receive this marker be standardized across the six conferences of Texas.

G. West Texas Conference Journals, Central Jurisdiction: Tom Ridlehuber

In 1992, through Josephine Forman, archivist of the Southwest Texas Conference, the Central Texas Archives has added thirty-eight xerox copies and original West Texas Conference Journals to its collection. This includes copies of Journals dating back to 1876. The Rev. John Elliott's name will always be associated with this project for his efforts to establish the collection in the Central Texas Conference Archives during 1980-1988. Tom Ridlehuber is currently chairing the project to complete the collection.

H. Microfilm Project: Minutes of the Northwest Texas Conference, 1866-1901

The microfilming of the minutes has been completed by William Beal, General Archivist, United Methodist Archives, Drew University, Madison, New Jersey. The original volumes of hand-written minutes have been returned to the Central Texas Conference Archives. The master microfilm is at General Archives and is available for duplication at a cost of $85.68 per two-reel set. The Central Texas Conference Archives Commission has purchased a copy of the film for research purposes, and has made a contribution to the microfilming projects of General Archives.

III. Archives Commission Relationship Beyond the Annual Conference:

A. The Texas United Methodist Historical Society:

With representative membership from the six Annual Conferences of Texas and the New Mexico Annual Conference this organization welcomes all who are interested in the history of Methodism and its antecedents. The Society meets annually for a two-day seminar/workshop.

The 1992 meeting took place at Trinity UMC, Houston, on February 5-6. Four members from the Central Texas Conference were in attendance. New officers of the group include Elden Traster, secretary, and Jean Traster, treasurer.

The 1993 meeting will be April 23-24 in Dallas, a combined meeting with the Texas United Methodist Historical Society and the Archives Commissions of all the Annual Conferences of the South Central Jurisdiction to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the uniting of the Evangelical United Brethren and the Methodist Churches.

B. The General United Methodist Historical Society

The quadrennial convocation met in Detroit, Michigan, June 28-July 2, 1991, at the Metropolitan UMC. Two-hundred-plus United Methodist archivists from across the United States met in workshop and lecture classes, discussion and planning sessions, and sharing opportunities from 8:30 a.m. to after 10:30 p.m. daily.

Information gained, and connections cemented for working relationships between archives collections, and encouragement received through knowledge of accomplishments by each Archives Commission/Archives Center are invaluable to the local conference.

IV. Continuing Commitment of the Archives Commission to the Central Texas Conference
   A. Stem the loss of records from merged and discontinued congregations and encourage local church assertive involvement in the preservation of records.
   B. Preserve the records of the organizations and offices of the Annual Conference and the districts.
   C. Preserve the records of clergy and lay persons as they relate to the conference.
   D. Store older records of local churches if their own facilities are not sufficiently secure.

"There is no question of whether we shall preserve the 'records' of past times or not. We have no right whatever to touch them with a destructive hand. They are not ours. They belong partly to those who 'created' them, and partly to all generations of mankind who are to follow us."

Paraphrase: John Ruskin, 1819-1900

Save those records!

CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

The Board of Directors of the Central Texas Conference Federal Credit U nion respectfully reports to the conference the results of your credit union's operations for 1991. Total revenues were $178,000 and total expenses were $78,000. The board authorized the distribution of dividends totaling $75,000 leaving $25,000 of income for the year. As of December 31, 1991 the credit union had assets totaling $1,670,000 which includes $900,000 in loans to members. The shares and CDs have grown to $1,540,000 and equity (net worth) has grown to a respectable $122,000.

Those of us within the Central Texas Conference area have watched the condition of our economy take its toll on large and small financial institutions alike. The Central Texas Conference Federal Credit Union not only has survived the last couple of years, but has grown stronger. While some of this credit can be attributed to the support of the Harris Methodist Health System, the real credit must fall to the staff (Craig White and "G" Minnerly), and the Credit and Collections Committees. Craig White came on board as the new manager last summer and those of you lucky enough to have met him know he brings a whole new dimension of energy and dedication to the success of our credit union. Over the last two years the unselfish commitment of the Credit Committee and the tireless efforts of "G" Minnerly have reduced the bad debt exposure (delinquent loans) from $115,915 to $510. The credit union is now open from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. The staff invites you to stop by and take advantage of numerous loan packages or just to say hello.

Jay S. Followell, President

CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE FOUNDATION

The 1990 Annual Conference approved the merger of the Office of Planned Giving with the Central Texas Conference Foundation to provide stewardship services to the individuals, families, churches and agencies of the Conference. Stewardship services are primarily in estate and financial planning for wills, trusts, annuities and various types of property to meet personal needs as well as stewardship objectives. These services are provided without cost as a ministry that will assure future financial resources for carrying out the mission of The United Methodist Church in Central Texas and beyond.

The Foundation serves individuals, families, churches and agencies of the Annual Conference by:

- Promoting Christian stewardship for today and tomorrow
- Providing wills and estate planning seminars, financial management workshops and planned giving presentations

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

The Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns has met several times and continues to work in the area of ecumenical interests. The commission members attend faithfully and participate with great interest.

We continue to advocate for public policy change through our support of Texas Impact. Three members of the commission attended the Texas Conference of Churches in February, 1991, in Arlington, Texas.

The commission's report to the 1991 Annual Conference focused on the work of Habitat for Humanity. This was also the theme for the workshop offered by the commission at Fall University.

The commission has set the following goals for 1993:

1. Provide a scholarship for one youth to attend the Junior High Leadership Camp, Glen Lake.
2. Participate in Fall University with a course on the Native American/Columbus Issue which will be led by Nora Boots of the World Division of the General Board of Global Ministries.
3. Provide expense monies for members of the commission to attend the following conferences: Faith and Order at Mo Ranch, Texas Conference of Churches, and the National Meeting of the Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns.
4. Advocacy regarding conference-wide participation in the Week of Christian Unity.

COMMISSION ON CHURCH GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT
Report No. 1

"SHAREHOLDERS, TAKE A BOW!"

In Broadway productions, the performers come out at the end of the play and take a bow. The audience expresses its gratitude to the performers by applauding, and many times the performers even receive a standing ovation.

There is a network of performers in the Central Texas Conference who deserve to take a bow, and those of us who make up the rest of the Conference need to express our appreciation to them by giving them a standing ovation. This group of performers are those who participate financially in the "Partners in Growth Share Program". Sometimes we refer to this magnificent group as "Super Persons" because of the super things they do for the mission of Christ and the extension of His Church.

Why do these Super Person Shareholders deserve to take a bow?

First, They Have Accomplished the Impossible

In 1976, Lyle Schaller stated in his article entitled "Why Start New Churches", "Beginning new congregations constitutes Methodism's greatest mandates and opportunities. But the cost of land and construction is becoming so intimidating that this opportunity is being forfeited and given up as something impossible. However, new congregations ought not be perceived as cost, but our wisest investment."

One of the most common questions asked by United Methodist leaders from other conferences is, "How does the Central Texas Conference do what it does in the organization of new churches? Does church extension receive a large apportionment from the churches or large gifts and grants?" Our reply always is, "We do not receive an apportionment for church extension, and we do not receive large gifts or grants. We do what we do strictly through the faithful gifts of our network of Shareholders.

Here is what our Shareholders accomplished in the last 11 years:

- Purchased 12 sites
- Purchased existing church building
- Organized 17 new congregations (Pastor's salary, housing and expenses)
- Relocated six churches
- Redeveloped four churches, and
- Rebirthed three churches

Considering the above alone causes us to believe our Shareholders deserve to take a bow because they have accomplished the impossible.

Secondly, They Have Reached New Persons for Christ

Some of the common characteristics of the new churches are the number of persons coming on professions of faith and baptism, commitments and recommitments to Christ and The United Methodist Church, and the large number of children and youth being initiated into the Church for the first time.

It's a beautiful experience to attend a first worship service and see from 50 to 225 new members come forward for the first time.

At the time of preparation for this report, we do not have a total count from all our projects, but we do have an accurate total from ten of the new churches started in the 80's and some of these are less than two years old at this time of tabulation:

- 1,300+ babies have been baptized
- 7,910 adults have walked down the aisles to become members
- 1,990 have come by profession of faith
- 3,703 have come by certificate of transfer
- 2,217 have come from other denominations

Every person that has been reached through these projects, and others, should cause each Shareholder to feel that he or she is in MISSION. Not many other mission projects reach so many new people for Christ as the money given through Church Growth Shares.

The Shareholders deserve to take a bow. Not only have they reached new persons for Christ, but they are instrumental in helping our conference have the greatest membership growth in our history.

Third, Our Shareholders Are Futurists.

Scholars who study the future are called futurists and their concern is called futurism. By using various projection techniques, simulations, mathematical models, and scenarios, the futurist is able to project alternate futures. The futurist is also interested in influencing present-day decisions in order to assure that the best of the alternative futures is actually achieved.

The primary purpose of the Commission on Church Growth and Development is to look to the future of the United Methodist Church in the Central Texas Conference through the establishment of new congregations in high population growth areas. Our Shareholders are futurists because they make it all possible financially, and they actually form the future.

Projections being made by professionals across the nation are that several counties in the Central Texas Conference are targeted to be the "hottest growth areas in the nation in the 90's and reaching into the 21st century".

If you want to see what a north Tarrant County neighborhood will look like in 20 years, take a look at Perot's Park Glen neighborhood. It is just a beginning model of dozens of projected neighborhoods for the area. Already, we have the new Alliance United Methodist Church there at the beginning of the developments.

If you want to see what corporate business parks will look like in 2010, look at the new IBM 1.5 million-square-foot office complex on Texas 114 in Westlake. It's a model for dozens of others studying their move to the area.

If you want to see a new modern highway, look at Texas 170 which is beginning to snake its way northeast from the Alliance Airport. When it is completed in 1993, the $24.6 million highway will be six lanes wide and provide a direct route from D/FW Airport to countless real estate development opportunities on previously unreachable farmland. To make it easier to get to Alliance, the state highway department is spending another $14 million for two interchanges on Interstate 35W.

At Alliance Airport, American Airlines' 207-acre maintenance facility will be opening soon and will employ 2500-3000 new people. Southwestern Bell has been laying fiber-optic telephone cable to prepare for the multitude of people projected to move into the area around Alliance.

Literally dozens of companies, industries, and retail giants are studying their move to north Tarrant County from areas across the large cities of the nation. These alone are projected to make possible 90,000 new jobs.

TU Electric is building a substation to provide electricity to the homes and businesses, and the City of Fort Worth has agreed to spend more than $100 million to extend water and sewer services to the area.

General Growth Companies of Des Moines, Iowa, has purchased 104 acres north of the Hillwood development for a shopping mall, just 2.5 miles from our new Alliance UMC.

"D" Magazine, in its March, 1992 issue, stated that "Dallas hottest suburb is in Tarrant County". The article entitled "Boom Town", states: "New homes, new jobs - a whole new mega-city is springing up 20 minutes west of Dallas. If you've wondered where the Metroplex is headed, this is it." The article points to the tremendous projected growth for Grapevine, Colleyville, Keller, Westlake, North Richland Hills, Southlake, and stretching all across to Eagle Mountain Lake and into Denton County.

Other population growth areas include the area where the eventual coming of the Super Collider will greatly increase the population of at least three of our counties. Also, the City of Austin is projected for tremendous population growth (129.2% by 2010), and this growth will be primarily north of the city, reaching into at least four of our counties.

We mention all the above facts to help us realize that as United Methodists we have a job to do and a mission to perform. This is no time for us to take it easy and be satisfied with what we have. The Great Commission of Christ is calling us to launch out, take some risks, and be there when the crowds arrive. Just as Methodists in the 1800's paid subscriptions (Shares) so that circuit riders could go out in advance of the frontier, let us pay the way through Shares (subscriptions) so that our modern-day ministers may still go out in advance of the new frontier that is upon us.

We can continue to do it through Partners in Growth Shareholders. We could do it better if we had twice or three times the number of Shareholders.

SHAREHOLDERS, TAKE A BOW! YOU DESERVE OUR GRATITUDE.

Report No. 2

Since our last Annual Conference session, we have experienced the beginning of the new Eagle Mountain United Methodist Church and the new Alliance United Methodist Church.

On October 13, 1991, the first worship service of the Eagle Mountain United Methodist Church was held in the facilities donated by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Emanuel. We were pleased with the attendance of 96 at the first service, and we are pleased at the progress the church has made in a limited population growth area. Reverend Marc Lowrance was appointed to the area at the last Annual Conference session. Marc has now moved the church through organization and official constitution.

On October 27, 1991, the first worship service of the new Alliance United Methodist Church was held in the Park Glen Intermediate School. It was a very rainy day, and yet 296 excited persons met for the first time. Reverend Ben Disney was appointed to the Park Glen area at the last Annual Conference session. Ben has carefully led the congregation through the beginning of Sunday School classes and various other ministries. This new congregation has decided to keep the charter membership open until October, 1992. At that time the church will officially become Alliance United Methodist Church.

Construction is about to begin on St. Andrew's United Methodist Church, Arlington, and Christ United Methodist Church, southwest Fort Worth.

Genesis United Methodist Church, our first project in the 1980's, has now moved into their permanent sanctuary. 1497 persons were in attendance at the opening service.

We continue to work with the Rio Grande Conference in the establishment of the new El Calvario United Methodist Church in north Fort Worth.

The Korean Church in Killeen (now named St. Luke United Methodist Church) has moved into their new facilities.

Fifteen of our Church Growth and Development projects have now become self-supporting and others are nearing self-support.

COMMITTEE ON COUNSELING
Report No. 1

Central Texas has one of the most progressive and time-tested counseling programs in the United Methodist Church. This year we believe the program is more useful and cost effective than ever.

To summarize, this confidential counseling program is intended to be a first-call-for-help service. All ministers and their family members are encouraged to participate when a personal or family issue begins to interfere with one's ministry. The committee seeks to make an excellent program even better; therefore, we seek your questions and suggestions.

In addition, to get to know our conference counselors and appreciate their skills, groups of ministers and their families are encouraged to invite them to present seminars, workshops, and programs promoting healthy living.

1. This service is available to ordained conference members, diaconal, and retired ministers, and persons serving full-time conference appointments, plus their spouses and dependent family members. In addition, ordained members and families of the Rio Grande Conference serving within the geographical boundaries of this episcopal area are eligible.
2. Complete confidentiality and respect for privacy will be maintained. As a client, your name will be known only to your counselor, and no information about you will go to any other person without your written consent. Trust will be vested in the integrity of the counselors, both to keep confidences with clients and to keep faith with the program by submitting accurate bills of service for payment. Such bills will list hours of service but no names.
3. The Counseling Service will be limited to six visits to a counselor in any one year.
   a. The first two visits will be paid in full by the program.
   b. Thereafter, participants will be asked to pay a portion of the cost, scaled to income, as follows:

Family Income	Program Will Pay	Client Will Pay
1. Under $20,000	90%	10%
2. $20,000 - 27,500	75%	25%
3. Over $27,500	50%	50%

Family income includes combined incomes of spouses, excluding housing or parsonage allowance.

4. Thereafter, if counseling is still needed, an application may be made to the Insurance Program for possible payment. At this time, the symptoms must clearly indicate the need for therapy.
5. During the first six visits to the counselor, payments from the Counseling Program and the Insurance Program simultaneously will not be allowed.
6. Payments for this program will be made only to those counselors who have been approved as participants in the program. There will be no exceptions.
7. The present list of approved counselors in the Central Texas Conference is as follows:

COMMITTEE ON COURTESIES AND RESOLUTIONS

Being surrounded by such testimonies of grace we of the Central Texas Annual Conference on the conclusion of this 126th session of our Annual Conference pause before going our several ways to give thanks to Almighty God for the outpouring of God's grace which has united us in the common mission to celebrate God's grace and witness to Jesus the Christ.

Thanks be to God through whose marvelous grace provided us the leadership of the Reverend Timothy Russell and the Agenda Committee who planned this time of gathering of the 1992 session of the Central Texas Annual Conference.

And thanks be to God for the leadership of Dr. Luther Henry and the churches of the Fort Worth East District along with Dr. Don Pike and the staff of First United Methodist Church of Arlington for hosting our Annual Conference.

And thanks be to God who through the guiding of the Reverend Jim Olney and the Conference Worship Committee for planning such rich worship experiences allowing us to glimpse the oneness that joins us together as a worshipping/celebrating Annual Conference.

And thanks be to God for sending to us Dr. Lloyd Pfautsch who shared his unique talents in the directing of the Annual Conference Choir, and for those who gave themselves through the special music at each of our worship services:

The Children's Choir of First UMC, Fort Worth
The Celebration Ringers of First UMC, Weatherford
The Combined Choirs of McMillan UMC, Fort Worth
The Blue Bonnet Brass

Thanks be to God who through Dr. Clifford Black made the scriptures come alive and confronted us daily with the relevance of the Word of God to God's people.

And thanks be to God whose love was showered upon us through the preached word of the Reverend Sharon Radar who led us to consider again and be committed to the Essence of Being a Christian.

And thanks be to God for the work of our boards, commissions, and committees who through this past year did their various tasks with such diligence and excellence and brought to us through their reports an accounting of their labors. We are also grateful for the tireless leadership of Hiram Smith who served his Annual Conference so ably as our conference Lay Leader. His life is a living picture of dedicated service.

And our gratitude is expressed again this year to the Harris Health Care System for their graciously furnishing the printing for this session of the Annual Conference at no expense to the conference.

And thanks be to God for the lives of those who came to the time of their retirement from the "traveling ministry" and shared with us their love and joy for the past years, and their hopes for the future as they continue to serve in the same spirit of compassionate love.

And most of all we give thanks to Almighty God who shared with us God's love through the past twelve years the leadership of Bishop John Russell whose humor, wisdom, and gentleness is a reflection of the one who said, "I am the good shepherd, I know my sheep, and my sheep know the sound of my voice." We also give thanks for the grace that has come to us through the life of Mary Jean Russell whose contagious warmth and loving caring spirit is a gift to all of us. The legacy of their lives shall remain with us as they enter into the retired relationship with the United Methodist Church. They have loved us with an uncommon love and warmly received ours in return. Thanks be unto God who is the giver of every good gift.

BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY
Report No. 1

The Board of Diaconal Ministry has accomplished the following tasks:

1. Met jointly with the Board of Ordained Ministry on September 23, 1991, at Trinity UMC, Arlington. The purpose of the meeting was to help us understand how the "Study on Ministry" as it is currently proposed would affect our Boards of Ministry. Our speakers for the meeting were Rosalie Bentzinger, Division of Diaconal Ministry and Richard Yeager, Division of Ordained Ministry. The meeting began with an experiential Bible study under the direction of Homer Kluck. Our guests from Nashville spoke about the proposed study and answered questions. After dinner the meeting was closed with a service of Holy Communion led by Bishop Russell, Eric McKinney, and Rosalind Shirley.

2. Provided an opportunity for the Board of Diaconal Ministry and all diaconal ministers in the Central Texas Conference to meet with Bishop John Russell and the cabinet. The dinner meeting was held at Meadowbrook UMC on January 7,1992. The program was built around diaconal ministry in the Central Texas Conference: past, present, future. Our speakers for this part of the program were Dorothy Dahl, Maureen Carr, and Greg Loving. Bishop Russell then spoke on "A Bishop's Perspective - Past, Present, and Future." Following dinner, participants wrote a closing litany.

3. Participated in the Sexual Harassment Task Force which has developed a policy for the Central Texas Conference.

4. Sent 3 participants to a continuing education event for combatting racism - "Combatting Racism in a Multi-Cultural Society."

5. Held the annual interviews April 3-4, 1992, at First UMC, Burleson. A total of 22 persons were interviewed, with 2 being accepted into candidacy and 1 recommended for consecration. 3 persons enrolled for certification. Our guest for this week-end was Joaquin Garcia, National Division of Diaconal Ministry. It was extremely helpful for our Board to have him with us.

6. Continued to explore ways to develop a model for ministry by sending a participant to "Consultation on Cooperative Parish Ministry."

7. Reaffirmed January l as the deadline for receiving materials concerning certification, continuing education, continuance as diaconal minister and request for appointment, including leave of absence. Failure to meet this deadline may result in the initiation of the termination process.

8. Continued to support diaconal ministers and certified persons serving in the Central Texas Conference by reviewing their work, recommending their recertification where appropriate and recommending to Bishop Russell and the cabinet their renewal in the office and appointment to service.

Report No. 2

The Board recommends the following goals for 1992-1993:

l. To continually evaluate and update Benefits for Diaconal Ministers.

2. To provide a continuing education event, perhaps in conjunction with the Board of Ordained Ministry.

3. To continue to seek ways to interpret and promote diaconal ministry in the Central Texas Conference.

4. To offer a "Diaconal Day Apart" for diaconal ministers and candidates.

5. To provide guidance and help for diaconal ministers who are considering an appointment beyond the local church.

6. To create a task force to develop ways to encourage and support persons who are physically challenged.

7. To continue to work to implement a working model for ministry in the Central Texas Conference.

Report No. 3
PROCEDURES FOR TRANSFER OF DIACONAL MINISTERS

The request by a diaconal minister for "transfer in" shall be approved/disapproved by the receiving bishop in consultation with the Board of Diaconal Ministry of the receiving conference. The bishop prepares the official forms for the "transfer in" or "transfer out" of credentials and records when a diaconal minister's relationship is moved from one annual conference to another. The diaconal minister initiates the action and the receiving conference board oversees the process as follows: (Pars. 312 and 734.3o)

l. When a change in service appointment is taking place, a written request for approval of the service appointment and transfer must come from the diaconal minister to the receiving bishop. Copies must be sent to the receiving board and the sending bishop and board.

2. The receiving conference board shall interview the diaconal minister and may contact the sending board and employment agency for clarification of status, if needed.

Recommendation for approval of the service appointment and transfer must come to the receiving bishop from the receiving conference board. The request for transfer in should take place immediately and all procedures completed within six months following beginning of employment. Failure to comply may result in termination.

3. At this time, the cabinet and bishop may request an interview with the diaconal minister for additional information.

4. The receiving bishop will send form 2149 -"Transfer In" to the sending bishop with copies as indicated. The sending bishop will send Form 2148 -"Transfer Out" to the receiving bishop with copies as indicated.

5. Upon receiving a copy of the "Transfer In" form from the receiving bishop, the receiving registrar will request the diaconal minister's files from the sending registrar.

6. After the bishop's approval of the "Transfer In," the activity is reported at the next regular session of the Annual Conference.

Report No. 4

A person seeking to enter diaconal ministry in the United Methodist Church upon hearing and heeding the call to serve, shall initiate the process toward the diaconal ministry by contacting the Board of Diaconal Ministry to take the first step to qualify as a candidate. The person is thus under the care and supervision of the Conference Board of Diaconal Ministry.

To initiate this process, you may contact the Chairperson or the Registrar.

Report No. 5

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES AND CLERGY BENEFITS
Report No. 1
A Brief History

The Minimum Salary Program of the Central Texas Conference was begun in 1940. At that time the basic minimum salary was set at $800 per year, and was financed with an apportionment to the churches based on a percentage of the pastor's salary, ranging from 3% to 5%. The same apportionment formula remained in place through 1958 when the percentages were dropped to a range of 2.5% to 4.5%. In 1961 the formula was changed to a straight 4% of the pastor's salary. By 1965 this figure was included in an apportionment for Connectional Ministry equal to 32% of the pastor's salary (17% for Conference Claimants, 9.5% for the District Superintendents Fund, 4% for the Minimum Salary Fund, and 2% for the Episcopal Fund.) The portion for Minimum Salary remained at 4% until 1966 when it was reduced to 1%. By 1976 a large reserve fund had accumulated, and since that time the program has been administered from reserves and interest earned.

Perhaps the highest amount ever paid in supplements came in 1959 when the figure was $49,579. By 1978 the amount of supplements had been reduced to $14,980, but has steadily risen since that time in an effort to maintain inflationary and cost of living increases in the minimum salary. In 1991 the figure was $27,000, and the anticipated need in 1992 will be approximately $38,000.

It might also be interesting to note that if the same formula for apportioning funds used from 1961-1965 were applied today (4% of the pastor's salary) it would generate nearly $219,000.

Where Do We Go From Here?

For a few years the program was carried by interest earned, but for the last several years, it has been necessary to use the corpus of the reserve fund. As this was being done, the Council on Finance and Administration was advised and counsel sought. In each instance, the council advised that rather than begin a new apportionment at that time, all of the reserve funds should be expended. Reports from the commission will reflect also that the conference has been advised of this.

That predicted time has now arrived. We do anticipate that our funds will allow us to complete the 1992 fiscal year, but all funds will then be depleted. For there to be an Equitable Salary Program as mandated by the Discipline, it is now necessary that an apportionment item be included in the conference budget.

The commission therefore respectfully requests an amount of $37,000 be included in the conference budget for 1993.

Report No. 2

Equitable Salary Fund:

There shall be a program of equitable salary support in the Central Texas Conference under the management of the Commission on Equitable Salaries and Clergy Benefits. This program shall be patterned after ¶ 722 of the 1988 Discipline. Based on these guidelines, the following paragraphs shall compose the operating procedure for the Equitable Salary Program.

1. A prerequisite for consideration of salary supplements from the Equitable Salary Fund shall be the filing with the commission of a written application by the district superintendent. The district superintendent shall certify classification of the pastor and the salary (salary, travel, utilities and benefits) set by the charge. The application form will be supplied by the commission.
2. Salary grants shall be made for a calendar year with payments made monthly. In cases of appointment changes at or between the Annual Conference session, the district superintendent shall file a written request with the commission. Approved supplements shall then be paid on a pro rata basis for the part of the year actually served.
3. The following conditions must be met by the pastoral charge before it can become eligible for consideration to receive salary supplements from the Equitable Salary Fund.
   a. The pastoral charge shall have conducted a stewardship campaign for the local church budget of each of its churches during the previous conference year.
   b. All apportioned items shall have been paid in full by the local church for the previous conference year.
   c. The charge must have at least 100 members.

   In unusual situations the Commission on Equitable Salary and Clergy Benefits may waive any or all of these conditions.
4. The Commission on Equitable Salary and Clergy Benefits will pay any amount up to 1/3 of the minimum salary as set by the Annual Conference for each applicant according to his/her ministerial classification. If any exception under paragraphs 4 or 5 is sought, the request must be endorsed by a 2/3 vote of the Cabinet before it can be considered by the commission.
5. Persons of the following ministerial relationships are eligible for consideration for salary supplements at the level indicated for 1993. Rates for adjustment will be considered annually by the commission, rather than establishing automatic adjustments.
   a. Elder, full Connection $19,685
   b. Probationary member
      1) Non-student living on charge 17,090
      2) Student living on charge 15,435
      3) Student not living on charge 11,580
   c. Associate member 17,090
   d. Local pastor
      1) Full-time local pastor 14,470
      2) Student local pastor living on charge 12,970
      3) Student local pastor not living on charge 9,955
6. Pastors who are appointed to less than full-time service as addressed in the 1988 Discipline, (¶ 442.2) shall be eligible to receive salary supplements from the Equitable

Salary Fund. The amount of salary supplement for which the pastor is eligible will be determined by the Cabinet's interpretation of time actually spent in pastoring the charge. For example, if the pastor is deemed as serving 1/4 of full time, his/her minimum salary eligibility would be 1/4 of the minimum of his/her conference relationship classification. The categories of 1/4, 1/2, and 3/4 will be followed in determining less than full-time eligibility for salary supplements from the Equitable Salary Fund.

7. All seminary students enrolled in the M.Div. program and other approved Student Local Pastors who are serving pastoral charges which are at least 50 miles distance from school, and receiving Equitable Salary Supplements may make application for a travel supplement equal to $1.00 per mile round trip per quarter, for the distance from the school to the primary church of the pastoral charge. Application shall be made to the Chair of the Commission on Equitable Salaries. The amount shall be computed by the commission and paid quarterly to the student pastor.
8. Ministers who are not eligible for salary supplements are:
   a. Those whose appointment is other than pastor of a charge.
   b. Those classified as part-time local pastor.
   c. Retired ministers.
   d. No pastor shall be eligible to receive salary supplements from this fund who has been offered appointments with higher salary, but who persistently prefers for personal reasons to remain in a present appointment.

Report No. 3

Moving Expenses

1. We recommend that the conference pay the greater of $200 or $3.00 per mile for the first 100 miles and $1.00 per mile additional after the first 100 miles with no maximum within the bounds of the Annual Conference. The receiving charge is expected to pay any remaining balance of the actual moving expenses.
2. We further recommend that the procedure of filing correct forms with the conference secretary/treasurer be continued.
3. We do, however, expect every receiving charge in the Annual Conference to pay the moving expense of the new minister in excess of the allowances and it must be the responsibility of the district superintendent at the time of consultation to inform the church of its share of this obligation.
4. We recommend that the conference pay the moving expenses of a retiring minister within the boundaries of the conference. This reimbursement will not exceed $500 over the amount paid in Article #1.

Charles McClure, Chairperson

COMMITTEE ON THE EPISCOPACY

The Committee on the Episcopacy met March 9 for dinner; it was an enjoyable session. Bishop Russell discussed several conference accomplishments, such as dividing the area and becoming the Fort Worth Area in 1988 and the fact that this conference across the years has paid the apportionments and is vitally concerned about church growth and development.

At our encouragement, he also discussed some of his plans and desires for the future. The growth of the metroplex, to a great extent, is expected to be within the bounds of the Fort Worth Area, and obviously this brings many opportunities and responsibilities.

We are planning a banquet to honor Bishop and Mrs. Russell on his retirement. This will be held Monday, June 15 at Roundup Inn in the Amon G. Carter, Jr. Exhibits Hall. The entire conference is invited to attend this event.

We also discussed Jurisdictional Conference, which will meet in our area July 13-16, and Bishop Russell will be the host bishop. It is an honor for us and a compliment to Bishop Russell for this area to be selected. Several committees are working to help entertain and serve the delegates and guests, so that this will be a rewarding and enjoyable experience.

We express to Bishop and Mrs. Russell our love and deep appreciation for the joy of having them with us as our episcopal family for the last twelve years. The growth this conference has made in so many areas is phenomenal.

Our relationship to the Russells is similar to having a church and a minister do so well together; that's when we compliment the appointive system. This certainly would be true in reference to Bishop Russell's leadership in our area. We were right for each other and this has been a great time in the history of this conference.

We wish them the best of everything always and are glad they will continue to reside in this area.

HOMES FOR RETIRED MINISTERS
Report No. 1

The 1991 offering for Homes for Retired Ministers was $16,029 which is $1,729 less than the previous year. There were 190 (55%) churches that received the offering and 150 (45%) did not. Your financial support is deeply appreciated. It is through your concern for and interest in Homes for Retired Ministers that we are able to continue this eighty-six year old ministry. Please continue your support. If you failed to present our program last year, just put a special emphasis on it this year and we will all feel good about it.

The residents of our homes contributed $15,213. You can readily see the significance of their support.

Ad valorem taxes were $17,729. Maintenance was $13,309. Insurance was $5,309.

The Board of Trustees reminds the conference of the need for other gifts of homes. When an older home becomes vacant and the expense to update is too high, it is sold. Please consider placing your home in your will for this ministry.

Amendment to By-Laws

We recommend that Section 1, which deals with "meetings" be amended to read: "The Board of Trustees shall meet annually as soon after January 1 as possible and at other times and places upon the call of the chair or a majority of the trustees." (Present reading calls for the board to "meet annually at the time and place of the annual session of the Central Texas Conference.")

INTER-CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON HISPANIC MINISTRY
Report No. 1

This May the 1992 General Conference will be voting on a recommended National Plan for Hispanic Ministry. If it is approved it will call the entire United Methodist Church to respond to the challenging opportunity to be in ministry with one of the fastest growing populations. The Central Texas Conference and the Rio Grande Conference can celebrate that they have been on the cutting edge of responding to this challenge through the work of the Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry. Our response has been unique because of our inter-conference approach to Hispanic ministry development.

The Committee's purpose is to respond faithfully to a great missionary challenge of being in mission and ministry with Hispanics. Through this committee two conferences work cooperatively to initiate, coordinate, and enable inter-conference Hispanic ministries within the bounds of the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences.

The "Revised Strategic Plan for Inter-Conference Cooperative Ministries" (see pages 208-210 of the 1989 Journal of the Central Texas Annual Conference or pages 126-129 of the 1989 Actas Oficiales Conferencia del Rio Grande) was adopted in 1989 and sets our direction. It serves as a model for other conferences.

Accomplishments

1. Report of Hispanic Population in the Central Texas Conference.
The Committee's consultant, Jeannie Treviño-Teddlie, has been gathering available 1990 census data by counties, cities, and neighborhoods. A summary of the Hispanic population within the counties of the Central Texas Conference follows. Further data is available by contacting the consultant.

Compared to 1980 Census the Hispanic population has increased over 90%. The prediction is that this population will continue to grow.

2. Consultation with Dublin and DeLeon. The Committee met in Dublin for one of its scheduled meetings and invited participation from local church members of Dublin and DeLeon (both CTC). The Committee received information about these communities and explored ways the Committee could be of help to these churches.

3. Consultation with Fort Worth East District. There is significant Hispanic population growth in Arlington (23,312), in the Mid-cities area (14,092), in Southeast Fort Worth (10,447), and in the Riverside area of Fort Worth (3,766). The consultant, along with the Central District superintendent of the Rio Grande Conference, David Chavez, met with the Fort Worth East District ministers. Census data were shared as well as a model of evangelization and mission in an Hispanic context.

4. Sponsored Fall University courses. Six courses were sponsored at Fall University of the Central Texas Conference (September 6-7, 1991). Leadership included the Revs. David Chavez, Frank Estrada, Arturo Mariscal, David Maldonado (all from Rio Grande Conference), and John Decker (from Central Texas Conference). Additionally our consultant taught two courses. Each was well attended and received good evaluations.

5. Facilitated inter-cabinet retreat. Last September the extended cabinets of the Central Texas Conference and Rio Grande Conference met in Argyle for an overnight retreat. The Committee's chairperson and consultant facilitated the retreat. The cabinets received census data and began looking at areas where Hispanic ministry is most needed. They also discussed issues coming before General Conference that will affect Hispanic ministry such as the National Plan for Hispanic Ministry.

6. Participation in "Mission Alive". The consultant preached at Grace UMC (Arlington), Wortham UMC, and Kirvin UMC during the Fort Worth East and Waxahachie Districts' "Mission Alive" programs.

7. Ongoing consultation. The consultant has provided ongoing consultation with Polytechnic UMC and El Calvario (See Report 3 for a progress report). Additionally she has met with pastors, local churches and districts.

8. Partners in Hispanic Ministry through Annual Conference Offering. One hundred twenty-one local churches became partners in Hispanic ministry through last year's Central Texas Conference offering. Contributions totaled $9,905.24 for which the Committee is grateful.

9. Other partnership in Hispanic Ministry. Church of the Good Shepherd (CTC) of Arlington had its third work team experience last summer working with Monte Sinai (RGC) of San Antonio. First (CTC) of Grapevine became a sister church to El Calvario Mission (our cooperative Hispanic mission) of Fort Worth. See Report 3 for details of this relationship. Grace (CTC) of Fort Worth provided volunteer teachers for sewing classes at El Calvario. La Trinidad (RGC) of Fort Worth invited El Calvario Mission to join them in several activities. See Report 3 for details. First, Bethel, and Overton Park of Fort Worth and Glen Rose (CTC) donated furniture, funds, and various needed items to El Calvario Mission.

First (CTC) of Dublin continues to have participation of Hispanic children in Sunday School, Vacation Bible School and as acolytes. Polytechnic (CTC) of Fort Worth continues to provide English and Amnesty classes. During Lent they are providing Spanish language worship services on Sunday mornings. Attendance has been as high as 27.

1. Continue to gather and analyze 1990 Census data in order to identify communities with significant increases in Hispanic population. Identify United Methodist churches in those communities.

2. Encourage local churches which are located in communities with Hispanic population to explore ministry possibilities with Hispanics using resources of the Inter-Conference Committee.

3. Work with both conferences to develop a cooperative comprehensive mission design and strategy for Hispanic ministry in each district.

4. Continue to sponsor courses during Fall University of the Central Texas Conference which will resource local churches in the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences in their ministry with Hispanics.

5. Develop curriculum designed to sensitize and assist non-Hispanic congregations to develop ministries with Hispanics.

6. Encourage each district to identify persons in their districts who would be willing to teach Spanish as a second language (for English speakers) or English as a second language (for Spanish speakers). Encourage each district to offer these classes for lay and clergy.

7. Continue to provide consultation to and support for El Calvario, the new cooperative Hispanic mission. Additionally, provide consultation to churches who are involved with Hispanics.

8. Encourage and initiate new cooperative ministries, as well as encourage and coordinate work team projects with Hispanic ministries.

9. Promote the Advance Special goals for San Pablo (Fort Worth), El Calvario (Fort Worth), salary support for the Rio Grande Conference, Casa Ricardo Chacon (Fort Worth), and the Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry.

10. Facilitate the extended cabinets of both conferences in their annual meeting to promote dialogue and develop strategies about inter-conference cooperative ministry. Provide an orientation regarding our inter-conference cooperation for the new bishops and district superintendents.

11. Begin to implement General Conference actions that relate to Hispanic ministry, i.e., the National Plan for Hispanic Ministry.

12. Begin to identify lay persons willing to serve as Lay Missioners for Hispanic ministry. They would, in partnership with the ordained ministers of the church, start new worshiping congregations, revitalize existing congregations, and/or work in the development and support of community ministry.

13. Develop appropriate training for the Lay Missioners.

Report No. 2
Cooperative Covenant relating to El Calvario Mission - Revised

El Calvario Mission began in June, 1990, as a cooperative project of the Central Texas Conference and the Rio Grande Conference. A Mission Design and a Cooperative Covenant were approved by both conferences (See pages 248-250 of the 1990 Journal of The Central Texas Annual Conference or pages 138-139 of the 1990 Actas Oficiales Conferencia del Rio Grande).

The first year John and Anita Valles (Central Texas Conference) served as pastors to El Calvario in addition to Grace UMC. As was reported last year numerous outreach ministries were developed and home Bible studies of about 20 participants were formed. These participants would be the foundation of the future worship services. Last fall they requested the appointment of a Rio Grande pastor to develop a worshiping congregation. Anita was beginning her seminary training, making it difficult for her to do both out-reach and worship.

In October both conferences agreed that Juan Sànchez Brown (a lay person in the Rio Grande Conference from Lubbock) would come and be responsible for the worship services, Sunday School, and neighborhood pactos (covenant groups). Anita would continue as the outreach minister.

With these changes a revision of the Cooperative Covenant is advisable. The Committee proposes the following:

COOPERATIVE COVENANT

El Calvario Mission shall be a cooperative project of the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences.

The Rio Grande Conference covenants to provide the appointment of a senior pastor whose major responsibilities will be the development of a congregation through worship services, Sunday school, and neighborhood pactos (covenant groups). Although appointments are made annually, it is hoped that the appointment will be for a minimum of three years (unless there is agreement with the Central Texas Conference that the appointment shall be provided by the Central Texas Conference prior to the end of the third year). The district superintendent of the Central District will provide supervision of the pastor. The Rio Grande Conference will provide partial salary, housing, and benefits for the pastor. It will make available training for the ministers and emerging leadership through its Office of Congregational Development and provide cooperation through local church and district and conference structures.

The Central Texas Conference covenants to provide facilities at 3425 N. Elm, Fort Worth. It will provide the appointment of an outreach minister whose major responsibilities will be to develop and coordinate outreach ministries in the community such as English as a second language classes. The appointment will be on an annual basis. Supervision of the outreach minister will be by the senior pastor and by the district superintendent of the Fort Worth West District. The Central Texas Conference will provide salary, housing, and benefits for the outreach minister and some financial support for the Rio Grande Conference pastor. It will provide cooperation through local churches and districts and conference structures.

The Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry of the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences covenants to provide consultation as needed to El Calvario Mission. The Committee will also provide the structure for formal evaluation of this covenant.

This covenant relationship shall be formally evaluated annually. The Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry will form an Evaluation Task Force comprised of four persons from each conference plus the two district superintendents. The Evaluation Task Force will bring its recommendation to the Inter-Conference Committee who in turn will report to each Annual Conference at its annual session.

Report No. 3
Progress and Work of El Calvario Mission
(A cooperative project of the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences)

The love and peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. There has been great growth for El Calvario Mission in the last twelve months.

Last summer's activities were full. English as a Second Language (ESL) classes were offered all summer and 80-125 persons participated. Youth of the ESL participants were involved in a Youth Program. Approximately 12-16 children participated regularly on Thursday evening. About 10 of these began to attend Sunday School and Worship services. Two girls from this group attended a Youth Leadership Camp at Glen Rose through scholarships awarded by the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee (ELCC) of Central Texas Conference.

Childcare for ESL students is being provided through funding from ELCC and the Metropolitan Board of Missions (Fort Worth). Two childcare workers (members of El Calvario) care for approximately 18-26 children in the morning and 12-26 in the evening. Many female students would not be able to attend classes without this service. Our van transportation system for those without trans-portation is also critical.

Grapevine United Methodist Church (CTC) adopted El Calvario Mission as a sister church. During the summer their fifth and sixth grade Vacation Bible School children visited and brought toys for the nursery and kindergarten classes. An adult Sunday School class also donated cribs and nursery items. Their Missions Committee organized a work team in July to paint the Fellowship Hall and to do needed repairs. The church has contributed monetary gifts.

Various churches have donated funds, furniture, and various other needed items. They include First, Bethel, Overton Park (all of Fort Worth) and Glen Rose (all CTC).

In October Juan Sànchez Brown and his family moved to Fort Worth to help pastor El Calvario Mission. His responsibility is to develop a worshiping congregation through leading the worship services and Sunday School, visitation, and developing neighborhood pactos (covenant groups). Worship and Sunday School attendance has grown from 8 to 48. There are officially three members. Officers have been elected which include a Pastor-Parish Relations Committee Chairperson, Treasurer, and Secretary. Wednesday youth services have averaged 10-15. Over 260 homes have been visited. About eight pactos have been organized in homes. There is a weekly food distribution program for the community.

The youth have participated in several District events. They attended the Central District (RGC) Fall Retreat at Lake Whitney in November and plan to attend the Spring Retreat at Ceta Canyon. They participated in the Central District Youth Olympics in March in Abilene.

There has been good cooperation with La Trinidad (RGC) of Fort Worth. The youth have had several fellowships and activities with the youth from La Trinidad. The women have been learning about United Methodist Women by attending UMW meetings at La Trinidad.

In addition to the ESL classes, nutrition classes are offered by the Department of Agriculture. Approximately 20 ladies have attended these classes. Eight ladies attended regularly and received their graduating certificate.

In 1992 beginner's sewing classes were started for an eight week period. Grace UMC (Fort Worth) provided volunteers to teach. Thirty-five ladies enrolled and 26 have attended regularly. Another sewing class has been scheduled for the Fall.

We pray that God will bless us so we may be a blessing to others.

Juan Sànchez Brown, Anita and John Valles, Pastors of El Calvario Mission

Report No. 4

The inter-conference cooperation between the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences is not matched by any other annual conference in Texas and New Mexico. The sending of fraternal delegates to each other's annual conferences celebrates the close relationship which has developed between our conferences. Therefore, the Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry recommends that John Decker be designated as the fraternal delegate to the Rio Grande Conference which will meet June 11-14, 1992, in Georgetown, Texas. The Committee further recommends that Ann Gibson be designated alternate fraternal delegate.

BOARD OF LAITY

In order to fulfill our disciplinary charge to "foster awareness," to "enable" and "support" lay participation in the planning and decision making process of the Annual Conference, the Board of Laity is doing seven things.

We are mailing quarterly calendars of activities, in which the laity may participate in the district and conference, to every church's lay leader. The lay leader, then, is charged with notifying the members who should be interested in participating in each of these events and encouraging them to attend.

The board is sending a talent survey form for each local lay leader to complete. These surveys are to be used by local, district and conference nominating committees in matching people and ministries.

Starting this year the Board of Laity supplies each district with framed certificates to be used in recognizing outstanding laity in each district.

We are publishing the Reporting Forms for Lay Members of Annual Conference to help them in making the best possible report to their local church, and to give them a form to use in evaluating the conference for those who will be planning next year's conference. These forms are revised annually.

In response to suggestions from the evaluations, the Board of Laity now sponsors mixers for the laity prior to opening of conference that afford lay members (and this year clergy) an opportunity to meet and discuss matters of importance in an informal social atmosphere.

Although we are not a program agency we are charged with enabling lay participation in ministry. Our response this year as in 1990 is to present a class at Fall University that demonstrates four ministries in action in our conference that can be done in almost any church in our conference.

We feel that we are making progress.

Hiram Smith, Chairperson

UNITED METHODIST MEN

The United Methodist Men and the United Methodist Church are partners. At the end of December 1991, the United Methodist Men of Central Texas Conference had 92 chartered units. This represents 37% of our Central Texas pastorates being chartered and leaves 63% to be chartered. This is a 13% increase over 1990's chartered units and represents lots of hard work done in 1991 by the men of our conference, with much work left to be done in 1992 to charter the remaining 63%.

United Methodist Men chartered units are growing rapidly and accomplishing much in cooperation with their pastors and churches.

During the year of 1991, United Methodist Men were involved in Triad which is:

Evangelism

which involves witnessing for Christ, proclaiming the Gospel, and sharing the good news not only in the church, but everyday life.

Mission

Each man strives to develop a fellowship of consent, concern, and cooperation through mission work.

Spiritual Life

which involves ways in which men can develop their spirituality through their everyday lives.

In 1991, Central Texas United Methodist Men continued their support of the Prayer Tower located at the Upper Room.

On May 4, 1991, UMM met at Glen Lake Camp for Spring Round-Up and the Fall Rally was held at Hill College, Hillsboro on September 28, 1991, where 1992 officers were elected. Two of our district presidents attended the South Central Jurisdiction training session held in Dallas in October 1991. Several of our districts participated in the EMS program in 1991.

Future Event: UMM Meeting at Hill College, Hillsboro, on October 17, 1992, and we are inviting all United Methodist Men, their pastors and district superintendents to join us for this time of fellowship.

Aldersgate Enrichment Center

During this past year Aldersgate Enrichment Center has begun its ministry. The Board of Directors, Aldersgate staff and our Annual Conference offers special thanks and recognition to the individuals, businesses and industries of the Brownwood-Early area who have been extremely cooperative and supportive in the progress Aldersgate has made this past year. Additionally, appreciation and recognition is offered to the individuals, churches and Sunday School classes who have contributed financial and in kind support. The Advance Special offering on February 23 reported as of March 31 is $4,939.77.

Since the 1991 Annual Conference, Aldersgate has experienced a reorganization and a reassignment of duties at Aldersgate with the resignation of Gary Carroll in July. Judy Ehrke was assigned the duties of administrative operations, accounting and payroll. Mike Millican supervises Vocational Operations and directs the services to Associates. Mike Pinson began serving as volunteer acting Executive Director. Additionally, Mike Pinson has negotiated contracts, and promoted some special services activities. All these persons have been doing outstanding work, considering their duties more than just a job.

A rented warehouse on the edge of downtown Brownwood has become Aldersgate's temporary Vocational Center. It is serving twelve Associates. A growing number of men and women are on the waiting list, indicating that news about Aldersgate is spreading. Many more special persons who need the ministry of Aldersgate are not able to be served in the present situation. Even though some counseling and social activities are underway, these programs need to be expanded. The rented facilities are being utilized to the maximum. It is not possible to serve more Associates. Therefore the Vocational Center cannot assume any more work contracts because of the limited space.

The Board of Directors of Aldersgate Enrichment Center ask that the Annual Conference approve the construction of a Vocational Training building on the 150 acre tract which the City of Brownwood provided in 1989. Such constructions would begin as soon as money is available. No money would be borrowed for the construction, furnishing utilities, or roads to the building. The total cost of the facility would have to be in hand. The Vocational Training building is designed to allow the staff to increase services to the Associates and provide expanded ability to obtain such contracts, which are an essential key to successful programming at Aldersgate.

As soon as the Hico area ranch property, given to Aldersgate by Mrs. Ogle, is sold, money would be available for construction of Ogle Administration Building. Following that completion, the next step will be constructing two homes, residential facilities, one for men and one for women. All these buildings fit into the master plan already developed. The home units are essential to the accomplishment of the total mission of Aldersgate. The current news of closing state facilities for the mentally retarded persons indicated that Aldersgate is becoming an important mission of our Church.

With Annual Conference approval of the request to begin construction of a vocational facility, Aldersgate can have an identifiable image, continue metered growth, and expand the ministry. Such approval will be consistent that the work be done without going into debt.

The need is great and growing. Aldersgate is providing a loving, caring, beneficial ministry, limited as it is, to a few special persons. More persons need to be served. Christ loves them all, just as he loves each of us. Our duty is to show Christ's love to these persons. It is the responsibility of the Church to love and care for all God's people.

Mike Pinson, Chairperson

United Methodist Women

1991 was a good year for United Methodist Women. Our membership remained stable and we sent a total of $229,957.29 to the mission program of the church, a 13% increase over 1990.

At our Time Apart at Glen Lake we experienced our mission program in action. The Rev. Zeni Soares, director of the street children's program in the Sao Paulo area of Brazil, shared her faith journey and ministry with us. Zeni was educated in our schools in Brazil and her former teacher, our own retired missionary Frances Burns, translated for Zeni at our event.

United Methodist Women continues to cooperate with the Conference Board of Global Ministries in presenting the Schools of Christian Mission during the summer. In 1991 we had more than 400 persons enrolled in the schools. Another mission study opportunity is available at Fall University.

We publish our newsletter CROSSTIES three times each year. It is sent free of charge to all district and local officers and sub-group leaders. We promote upcoming events as well as report on our achievements in this newsletter.

The Legislative event has become one of our annual projects. This year we had seventeen persons in attendance to hear the key note speaker, Sarah Weddington. Sarah is a United Methodist PK (preacher's kid) from the Northwest Texas Conference. The 1992 dates are January 31 through February 2. The Texas Legislature will be in session, and we will visit with our senators and representatives as part of the program. The event is open to all interested persons.

We continue our emphases on the Campaign For Children, our Charter For Racial Justice Policies, and environmental issues of all kinds. Our units report programming activities in all these areas and many, many more.

Please pray for us as we work to expand our concepts of mission through our participation in the global ministries of the church; to develop creative, supportive fellowships; and, most important, to know God and experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ.

LAY EMPLOYEE BENEFITS COMMITTEE

The policies previously formalized and adopted in the Lay Employee Policies handbook were reported to be working satisfactorily in each agency. It was brought to the attention of the committee that the existing pension plan policy was worded in such a way that the lay employee pension contributions made by the conference were limited to the Denominational Average Compensation, which is a clergy structure. The policy was amended to conform to the General Board of Pensions Plan for lay employees stating that the conference will contribute the equivalent of nine percent (9%) of each lay employee's salary into the General Board of Pensions Plan. This correction will necessitate the pension line item of the current ACCOM budget to be overspent by about $700 which will provide the total adjustment for this policy correction.

LYDIA PATTERSON INSTITUTE

The year 1991 has been a very encouraging year for the Administration, Faculty, Staff and student body at Lydia Patterson Institute.

There have been many factors that have greatly encouraged us, cf: 1.) The continued, faithful support of the South Central Jurisdiction that has come very close to paying our 80% of the apportioned askings; 2.) The faithful support of our Board of Trustees that have selflessly helped us to dream and plan both for the short term and the long haul, and have backed up their encouragement with resources that they have helped to make available; 3.) The faithful response of a committed Faculty and Support Staff that have helped to flesh out our dreams and aspiration; 4.) The enthusiasm of a student body that has effectively shown that it both appreciates and avails itself of all offers; 5.) The privilege to be positively reviewed and approved by both the Southern Association of College and Schools (Pre-Collegiate, Commission on Pre-Collegiate Schools) and the United Methodist University Senate. Both of these reviews have produced renewed accreditation on the basis of 'in-depth' studies that considered both our unquestionable strengths and our several areas where their skills and knowledge were able to point out opportunities for improvement. The reviews helped to put us in touch with our genuine skills and with our areas where up-grading was necessary. In the midst of all of the above we have been reminded of the great history of commitment to excellence in education which has consistently described Methodism's academic enterprises and more specifically the efforts that are taking place at L.P.I.

The personnel at L.P.I. has honored the many Christians who have made the resources available to provide an excellent academic opportunity to hundreds of 'working class' students who otherwise might never have this chance.

We, at L.P.I., come then to affirm that what is being done today is just as vitally important now as when it was first born in the heart of Mrs. Lydia Patterson. We thank you for your faithful support, and ask you to sustain us effectively with your daily prayer as we continue to be an effective United Methodist witness on the United States - Mexican border.

MOUNT SEQUOYAH

Mount Sequoyah Conference and Retreat Center located at Fayetteville, Arkansas serving South Central Jurisdictional United Methodists is celebrating our 70th year. The theme for 1992 is "Mount Sequoyah--The Story." Our story is that we have served Christ and the thousands that have journeyed to the Mountain for these seven decades, and now we prepare for an even more glorious future.

To meet the challenge of the future we have organized as a Team. Our Team is "Team Sequoyah--Meeting the Challenge of the Future." We want you and others like you in this conference to join our team so we can adequately meet that challenge. We desire to (1) have cutting edge programs that fulfill our mission statement, (2) present capable and quality leadership and facility staff, (3) offer good clean first class accessible facilities, and (4) serve tasty, nutritious, healthy food.

In this way we can help all that come here FIND FULFILLMENT, PROVIDE OPPORTUNITIES, EXPERIENCE TRAINING, so that they may better SERVE GOD. We are in the second phase of a two million dollar capital funds campaign. "Resource Service, Incorporated," a professional fund raising company, is assisting us. Our Board of Trustees and the College of Bishops have affirmed us in the first phase of our campaign.

We now go to special "Lead Churches" in the jurisdiction to help us launch the campaign forward; then to our 'alumni' and Fayettevile friends; and to members of local churches. In this way, every person in the Jurisdiction will have an opportunity to join our team and help us meet the future challenge.

Some events held at Mount Sequoyah which we want to lift up include: the Jurisdictional Retiree events continue to be very popular; Volunteers for the Mountain continues to be special; the 2nd Annual Golf event attendance increased by about 300%; and the Youth Respite Care from Benton County is a blessing to us all. 1992 shows a significant effort towards youth and family groups. We look forward to continuation of Jurisdiction Youth Ministry Organization (JYMO); Junior High Assembly; Senior High Assembly; Arkansas Chrysalis Youth Event; National Native American Family Camp; Walk to Emmaus being planned for 1992 and/or 1993; and many others.

The "Team Sequoyah--Meeting the Challenge of the Future" campaign will allow us to build a new first class housing facility attached to a common meeting room on the Galloway Cafeteria; establish a sports complex and remodel fourth floor Wesley Hall for inexpensive youth housing so that we may better serve youth and families; build a New Mount Sequoyah House for staff and administration; and establish a permanent endowment fund.

Our Board of Trustees designated a new Committee for Programming and changed the task of the Promotion and Publicity Committee to that of Advertising and Marketing.

Trustees from the Central Texas Conference are Bishop John W. Russell and Dr. Barry Bailey. Bishop Russell serves on the Personnel and Policies Committee. Dr. Bailey is Chairperson of the Promotions and Publicity Committee, member of the Executive committee and Co-Chairperson of the Capital Funds Campaign. Dr. Luther Henry serves on the Campaign Cabinet. Administrator Robert E. Young is from Central Texas.

Ambassadors for the Central Texas Conference are Dr. and Mrs. Wilson Canafax.

Because of the quadrennial change of Ex-Officio Trustees, some loyal trustees will rotate off our board. However, we desire that all will remain on the team...Team Sequoyah, to help us meet the challenge of the future.

This is our story. Katherine Hankey said, "I love to tell the story, for those who know it best, seem hungering and thirsting to hear it like the rest. And when, in scenes of glory, I sing the new, new song, 'twill be the old, old story, that I have loved so long."

Report No. 2

The Board of Ordained Ministry would remind the members of the Annual Conference that in 1990 a program of Growth and Effective Review was adopted for use by clergy members and congregations of our conference. As ¶ 444 of the Book of Discipline requires yearly evaluation for all clergy members, we would urge the full participation of each congregation and each clergy member in an annual program of Growth and Effective Review.

Resolution relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired or Disabled Ministers of this Conference

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service, and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the Central Texas Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference; and

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister, and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

NOW THERE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefits payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 1993 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the Central Texas Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability;
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of:

1. The amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body,
2. The amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or
3. The legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided.

As specified as Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C.B.92, " the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 109(2) of the Code as a 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

After three full years of experience with our Utilization Review Provider, Transport Life reported that this has resulted in a savings of $256,459. The compliance percentage for participants in the plan was 92.5%.

ProAmerica, our Preferred Provider Organization, is requiring those groups participating in their network to use one of the incentives they offer as a display of good faith in obtaining a high percentage of usage of its facilities. Failure to use them will result in an additional $250 out of pocket per confinement for the participant, which could result in a larger maximum out of pocket expense. Participants who live more than 25 miles from such a facility would be excluded. Unusual and specific cases where ProAmerica facilities do not provide the care required would also be excluded. Our participation in ProAmerica continues to be a means of savings to our plan.

With no changes in coverage in the Conference Plan, a 40% increase in premiums would be necessary for 1993. In order to reduce that increase, the Insurance Committee proposed with approval by the Conference Board of Pensions, the following changes in coverage to become effective July 1, 1992.

1. Prescription Drugs
   A. Add a deductible of $10 per prescription for generic drugs and a deductible of $20 per prescription for brand drugs.
   B. Add a Mail Order Drug Plan (90 day supply)
2. Make Out-patient Procedures subject to Calendar Year Deductible
3. Have Second Surgical Opinion subject to Calendar Year Deductible except when required by ProAmerica.

CURRENT DEDUCTIBLES

1992 Deductible - $500 per person, $1,000 per family

	1 person	2 persons	3 persons

Out-of-Pocket Maximum	2,000	3,000	3,000
Total cash out-of-pocket	$ 2,500	$ 4,000	$ 4,000

The Insurance Committee requests the following to fund the conference Group Life and Health Insurance Plan:

1. Conference Apportionment for 1993 - $1,155,787
2. Increases in premiums paid by plan participants to be effective January 1, 1993 would result in the following premiums for the indicated categories:

a. Lay employees, diaconals and ministers with special appointment

Family	$590
Single	214

b. Ministers (including retired and surviving spouses)

Family	$295
Single	107

c. Ministers receiving equitable salary

Family	$235
Single	85

As a reminder, it is the responsibility of each participant to keep the conference insurance plan informed of any changes within 31 days as stated in your plan booklet.

Your Insurance Committee has aggressively pursued opportunities to contain the cost of your plan and will continue to do so.

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

In Acts 10:34-35, Peter spoke to those around him and said, " I truly understand that God shows no partiality but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him." As we come to this Annual Conference of the Central Texas Conference, I will giving my last report as the chairperson of the Commission on Religion and Race. The past term has been a time of growth for our commission and myself, as well as it has hopefully been a time of growth for our annual conference in respect to racial relations. We have made some strides in dealing with racism within our annual conference. We have our first cross-racial appointment along with two others to come. We have surveyed the conference as to its receptivity to other ethnic groups and were pleased to find that the laity responded more openly than the clergy. And yet, we have a long way to go if we are truly to be about bringing the kingdom of God even here on earth. Racism is not an easy issue to deal with because our prejudices have been built in through society for a long time. It is hard for a person to be honest about his or her true feelings, enough so to recognize the problem and then to work towards being more open in how to overcome the fear and see another person for who he or she truly is at heart.

There have been many joys in that there are many groups who are specifically bringing programs to the local church and other levels that deal with our prejudices and build community instead of barriers. The Harry Hosier event this past November was excellent and we shared together in a great celebration of the African American tradition. We welcomed our first Tongan congregation to our annual conference. We also have started a new Hispanic Mission on the North Side of Fort Worth. One other accomplishment has been the shared facilities with Korean congregations.

We would like to continue to have goals set for the upcoming year. These are:

1) To continue to invite all local churches in our annual conference to invite a person of another ethnicity than its own to preach during the months of January and February. We also want to encourage cross choir or fellowship groups to participate with one another. This can also go across ecumenical lines and be open to the church universal.
2) We want to encourage each district to sponsor an annual district-wide event that promotes racial inclusiveness. The district coordinators for the Commission on Religion and Race will be responsible for coordination of this event.

3) We have asked the Bishop and the Cabinet to make four additional cross-racial appointments this year.
4) We encourage larger anglo congregations to ask to have ordained clergy appointed, or to hire diaconal ministers who are African American, Hispanic, Native American, or of other ethnic origins and whose role is to help revitalize smaller minority congregations as well as to help the larger church in its own ministry of inclusiveness.
5) We would like to again recommend that all local church offices as well as the Central Texas Conference office to be closed in honor of Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Birthday.
6) To make all conference boards and agencies more inclusive of different ethnicities.

I want to thank this Annual Conference for the opportunity to serve as the chairperson of the fine commission. Personally, I have grown as I have shared the pain of my brothers and sisters of a different race than my own and I will never be the same. I give thanks to God that we can be different and not be the same. And yet, "for in Christ Jesus, you are all children of God through faith. As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male or female, for all of you are one in Christ." (Gal.3:26-28) Thanks be to God!

COMMITTEE ON RULES

As the Committee on Rules concludes its responsibilities for the quadrennium, we are aware of the work that has been accomplished in the past four years but also recognize the challenges that lie ahead.

The continuing review of the conference Standing Rules has assisted the Annual Conference to function with more efficiency and effectiveness. The challenges of the next quadrennium include major efforts to reflect changes approved by the Annual Conference and the General Conference.

The committee and this Annual Conference are deeply appreciative of the dedication, insight and input provided by the Ad hoc Committee on Conference Policies, approved by the Annual Conference in 1991 and appointed by Bishop John Russell. We especially commend to the Annual Conference the exemplary leadership and hard work of the committee's chairperson, Dale Smith of DeLeon. Other members of the Ad hoc Committee included: Marjorie Burns, John Clifford, Bill Hix, Homer Kluck, Sandra Lydick, H. F. Meier, Jim Porter, Jean Traster and Ruby Woolridge.

The following recommended revisions to the Standing Rules contain: the paragraph number followed by the recommended change (with the material to be deleted underlined and the material to be added in bold face), the rationale for the recommendation and the originator of the proposed revision.

Bill Hix, Chair

I. ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Conference Procedure

1.3.1 After the phrase "...any conference board, commission, committee chairperson...", delete the word "or", make "Director" plural, delete the phrase"...and Associate Directors...", continue with "...of the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) and Commission on Church Growth and Development (CG&D)...", and add "...the director and associate directors of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries..."

Rationale: This corrects a typographical error that substantially changed the intent of the original language and deletes references to the nonexistent positions of associate directors of CFA and CG&D.

(Ad hoc Committee)

1.4.1 After the phrase "...of a study committee...", delete the words "...named by the conference...", and add the phrase "...nominated by the bishop and elected by the Annual Conference..."

Rationale: This language provides for a nominating process that retains the Annual Conference's responsibility for electing the study committee.

(Ad hoc Committee)

1.9 After the second sentence ending with the phrase "...tenure of the original member.", add the following sentence: "A person who has been elected to fill an unexpired term of four years or less may be nominated to serve an additional four year term, provided the total tenure does not extend beyond eight consecutive years."

Rationale: The present language provides only for filling unexpired terms but does not provide for the successor's continued service.

(Rules Committee)

II. CONFERENCE ORGANIZATION

Conference Council on Ministries (ACCOM) Committees:

2.2 Under (b), delete the word "...continued..." prior to the phrase "...funding of these programs."

Rationale: This change will permit the Committee on Coordination and Budget to also evaluate recommendations for new programs as well as those programs seeking continued funding.

(Ad hoc Committee)

2.3.1 After the phrase "The conference council director...", add "...the conference resource director and the conference media director..."

Rationale: By virtue of their responsibilities and functions, and to formalize what has been an established practice, the conference resource director and the conference media director should be members of the Committee on Communication and Interpretation.

(Ad hoc Committee)

2.5 Rephrase the language to make it read: "The Annual Conference Council on Ministries shall elect three clergy and three lay persons by ballot without nomination to serve as the ACCOM Committee on Nominations. The Committee on Nominations shall elect officers from within its membership and shall make nominations to ACCOM as the Council on Ministries determine necessary for fulfilling its program requirements."

Rationale: The recommendation maintains the intended function specified in 5.2 and puts the sequence in a more logical form to clear up what might be possible confusion.

(Ad hoc Committee)

Conference Agencies

2.2 After the sentence that ends "...and vice versa.", add the following sentence: "The chair position of the boards shall alternate quadrennially between lay and clergy."

Rationale: Presently, 2.2 does not specifically state that the chair positions of the four program boards shall alternate between laity and clergy, although those who wrote 2.2 have said that such was the intent. The additional sentence reflects the intent.

(Ad hoc Committee)

The following section is recommended to be added to the section "Board of Laity":

11.1 "The conference lay leader, serving as chair of the conference Board of Laity, shall be nominated by the conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference for a period not to exceed four years and to coincide with the quadrennium."

Rationale: The 1985 CTC Journal described the organization of the Board of Laity, including the tenure of office of the conference lay leader. The office tenure was included in the 1986 CTC Journal but has not been printed since. The recommendation will clarify the tenure of the conference lay leader and specify the process of election.

(Ad hoc Committee)

The following section is recommended to be added to the section "Commission on Archives and History":

12.2 The conference Committee on Nominations may nominate a conference archivist/historian to be elected by the Annual Conference, as permitted in the Book of Discipline (1988 ¶738.3). The annual conference archivist/historian shall serve with non-expiring term of office and shall be a voting member of the conference Commission on Archives and History."

Rationale: The standing rules contain no provision for a conference archivist/historian, although such an office exists. This formalizes the office and provides for the process of selecting the archivist/historian with term of office and privileges identified.

(Commission on Archives and History)

14.4 After the phrase "...two of whom shall be under 18.", add "...as named by the conference Council on Youth Ministry."

Rationale: It seems appropriate for the conference CYM to select its own representatives to COSROW. (Ad hoc Committee)

15.2 Delete entirely.

Rationale: Since the Annual Conference is incorporated in its own name and there is little likelihood the conference will dissolve its incorporated status, 15.2 is superfluous.

(Ad hoc Committee)

17.0 It is recommended that the name, scope and function of the conference Committee on Rules be changed to the conference Committee on Rules, Policies and Guidelines and that it be charged with the responsibility of developing, defining and interpreting the standing rules, policies and guidelines of the annual conference. The committee shall be responsible for producing a manual of the standing rules, policies and guidelines of the annual conference, to be presented to the 1993 session of the annual conference.

Rationale: The dedicated work of the Ad hoc Committee to review conference policies established since 1969 has created an awareness that there should be a compilation of all such policies with a manual of standing rules, policies and guidelines produced and made available as a reference resource to enhance the efficient function of the Annual Conference and its agencies, committees, councils, commissions and other entities. Because of the nature of the Rules Committee's responsibilities, it seems appropriate that its scope and function be broadened to encompass the additional assignment from the annual conference.

(Rules Committee)

17.2 Delete the sentence beginning "The first person named...", and add the following sentence: "The cabinet representative shall convene the committee for the purpose of electing its officers."

Rationale: The "first person named" is imprecise and cannot be determined. The recommended change gives the responsibility of convening the committee to the committee's cabinet representative.

(Ad hoc Committee)

19.0 After the phrase "...elected annually by the Annual Conference.", add "..., and a chair appointed by the bishop for the quadrennium."

Rationale: The Committee on Courtesies and Resolutions should possess a continuity of historical perspective concerning lay and clergy members of the annual conference so that appropriate courtesies and resolutions may be extended. This recommendation will add the needed continuity of historical perspective while preserving the responsibility of the Annual Conference in electing the majority of the committee.

(Rules Committee)

22.4 After the words "...of the Annual Conference shall...", add the phrase "...be representative of the conference's districts and include...".

Rationale: This recommendation ensures that all districts in the conference will be represented, insofar as possible, on all councils, boards and agencies of the Annual Conference, a provision not now specified in 22.4. (Ad hoc Committee)

23.0 It is recommended that the responsibility of the Commission on Equitable Salary and Clergy Benefits be redefined to provide for a regular review of the standards for clergy vacation, days off, housing, moving expenses, continuing education and such additional benefits as appropriate or as the Annual Conference may direct, using as its guide the 1973 Central Texas Conference Journal, ¶722 of the Discipline (1988) and the Manual for The Committee on Pastor-Parish Relations, produced by the General Board of the Laity (© October, 1968). Further, that the commission devise and implement a process for the standards to be presented to the local church at least annually through the charge conference and as many other opportunities as appropriate but not limited to district SPR training events, SPR consultations and the Start-Up Seminar.

Rationale: In 1968, the General Board of Laity produced a 12-page Manual for the Committee on Pastor-Parish Relations. Pg. 11 of the manual contained recommendations concerning vacation time, days off and other means by which the pastor can, as the manual states, "maintain the health and strength needed for ministering in the complex modern world." The CTC Journal of 1973, nearly 20 years ago, was the last journal to summarize the specifics of the recommendations, contained in the manual. For many years since, however, the Standing Rules has included, under VI. LOCAL CHURCHES (1.0), the statement "Each congregation shall annually give attention to the vacation policy, using as the guideline for its discussion the statement contained in the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee Manual as issued by the General Church", but with no exposition. Many members of United Methodist churches, its local SPR committees and, indeed, some of its ordained ministers are unaware of the recommendations concerning vacation time and days off for the clergy. The responsibility of creating this awareness would best seem to be within the purview of the Commission on Equitable Salary and Clergy Benefits.

(Ad hoc Committee)

III. CONFERENCE ADMINISTRATION

Administrative Personnel of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries:

1.1 Delete the present language and substitute the following sentences: "A clergy may not be appointed to serve as an executive staff member of the Annual Conference for more than eight years in any consecutive 12 years. No clergy shall serve as an executive staff member more than 12 years."

Rationale: The recommended change coincides with the tenure for district superintendents as specified in the Discipline (1988 ¶518) and permits the appointment of clergy with exceptional expertise to an executive staff position for a transition period created by unusual circumstances. (Rules Committee)

Conference Director of Finance and Administration

2.2 Place a period "." after the phrase "...shall be for a quadrennium..." and delete the rest of the sentence "...and shall be limited to eight consecutive years (1988 ¶715)."

Rationale: The recommended change to 1.1, if approved, will supersede this provision.

(Rules Committee)

VI. LOCAL CHURCHES

1.0 At the end of the sentence, add "...as issued in 1968."

Rationale: This recommendation identifies the specific publication referenced.

(Rules Committee)

(Added to Rules Committee Report on the floor of the conference.)

Personnel Committee

26.0 (Page 289 of 1991 Conference Journal)

There shall be a Central Texas Conference Personnel Committee whose membership will be composed of the following:

1 Chair of Council on Ministries
2. Chair of Council on Finance and Administration
3. Chair of Commission on Church Growth and Development
4. Chair of Board of Pensions
5. Conference lay leader
6. Bishop (ex officio)
7. 1 at-large member from each district to be nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations.
8. Additional members may be added to ensure gender, race and age representation.

The committee shall organize itself in a manner which it deems necessary to fulfill its mandate as the personnel committee of the Council on Ministries, the Council on Finance and Administration, the Commission on Church Growth and Development, and the Board of Pensions (avoiding conflict with ¶ 715.1 and 726.7.a of the 1988 Discipline). The committee will be considered "equivalent" under ¶ 726.7.a of the 1988 Discipline. The committee shall receive personnel recommendations from the Council on Ministries, the Council on Finance and Administration, the Commission on Church Growth and Development and the Board of Pensions. The work of the committee will in no way interfere with the perogative of Disciplinary mandates concerning the nominations of the director of the Council on Ministries or the conference treasurer nor with existing conference Standing Rules.

All subsequent paragraphs will be renumbered accordingly.

Page 280 of the 1991 Conference Journal, Section II Conference Organization, ¶ 1.5(b), delete the words "Personnel and" and "and its staff" so the paragraph will read as follows: "The Executive Committee of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries shall (a) receive reports and recommendations from the conference boards and agencies to the conference Council on Ministries; (b) serve as the Budget Committee for the Council on Ministries and (c) propose the agenda for the meetings of the council.

(Added from Conference Structure Study Committee Report)

(Structure Study Committee)

SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION

The Jurisdictional Council on Ministries has sought to fulfill its mission particularly in the area of leadership development, giving attention to program concerns identified by the Council on Ministries of the various Annual Conferences. Early in the quadrennium the Council made the decision that its primary function is to sponsor and fund programs rather than meetings. Priority is given to those programs that can be done more efficiently and effectively on a jurisdictional level. Proposals that could be done better on an Annual Conference level are referred back to the respective Annual Conference for their action.

During 1991 there were 24 leadership training and inspirational events approved by the Council. Four of these were canceled through lack of registration. In the 20 events that were held there was a total attendance of 3,031.

Included in these activities were: a Jurisdictional Work Camp, six retiree retreats, Ecumenical School of Missions, Jurisdictional Youth Ministry Organization, Bishop's Week, Superserve (Volunteers in Mission), Single Adult Ministries Consultation, Fellowship of United Methodist Communicators, Town & Country Ministries Consultation at St. Paul Seminary, Conversational Spanish Workshop, Senior Minister's Seminar, Black Clergy Pastor's School, Summer Children's Camp (Rio Grande Conference), Training for New Church Developers (Korean Pastors), Mount Sequoyah Lab Seminar, and Jurisdiction United Methodist Men's Congress.

During the year 23 ethnic minority seminarians were granted a total of $11,500 in scholarship aid. In addition, two seminarians - one at Saint Paul and one at Perkins - were awarded $1,000 each in scholarship aid through the Lillian Thompson Memorial Fund.

We express our gratitude to Rev. Michael Patison and Ms. Bliss Dodd who have served on the Jurisdictional Council on Ministries; to Mr. Hiram Smith, Jurisdictional Finance and Administration; to Bishop John Russell, chair of the Jurisdictional Executive Committee; to Ms. Judy Stafford, director of the Jurisdictional Lab/Seminar at Mt. Sequoyah, to Ms. Mary Gean Cope, Jurisisdictional Youth Coordinator; and to many other persons from this conference who have brought vision and leadership to the Jurisdiction.

Earl B. Carter, Executive Director

Korean Mission

The ministries of South Central Jurisdiction Korean Mission has been developed as below:

1. New Church Development: During 1991-92 SCJ Korean Mission developed one mission congregation in Lake Charles, LA under the ministry of Leesville Korean United Methodist Church, and also surveyed three sites for future mission congregation development; 1) Dallas-South, Texas, 2) Topeka, Kansas, and 3) Waynesville, Missouri. Along with these mission projects I maintained three revitalization projects: 1) Alamogordo, NM, 2) Enid, OK, and 3) Bedford, TX. Now we have 33 Korean churches and mission congregations in the Jurisdiction.

2. Strengthening of Existing Churches: Consultation, Coordination, and Facilitation are one of the major roles of Korean Mission Director enabling the ministries to maintain the growing Korean churches among the Korean communities in South Central Jurisdiction. During 1991-92 one mission congregation was officially chartered as Copperas Cove Korean United Methodist Church in Central Texas Conference.

3. Training and Program Development: The Korean language ministers training is a continuously required field of new Korean missional congregation development to improve their effective commitment into the new situation of ministries. "Training for New Mission Developers and Spouses" is the meaningful and successful program for new missional congregation develop during April 29-May 3, 1991 at Stony Point, NY. And "U.M. Polity" course of Perkins Seminary and several other training events are very much successful year-round jurisdictional training programs for Korean language ministers, youth, young adult and laity. Many participants are requesting these programs to continue annually for their spiritual growth and the strengthening and improving of their commitment for the mission and ministries.

I hope your continuing prayer and support for the ministries of Korean Mission in the South Central Jurisdiction. Thank you.

Bon Woong Koo, Director

Volunteers in Mission

Responding to urgent appeals for volunteers is what we do best. When there's a combination of urgency and need, there is never a shortage of volunteers. United Methodists respond.

The 91 year got off to a good start when, within a three-week period, nine VIM teams responded to the Board of Global Ministries' appeal for the need to build homes in Panama for those who had lost them in the previous year's invasion. Then two teams responded to an appeal from the World Division to build homes for a housing co-op in Nicaragua, and four teams checking in responding to an appeal from the Louisiana Conference for flood relief work. In addition, several teams in various parts of the jurisdiction were on hand to start rebuilding after tornados ripped through parts of Nebraska, Kansas, and Missouri.

With little effort a team leader was recruited and a team put together to head out to Zimbabwe to repair buildings for the new African University there in time for their first class sessions. Later in the year an appeal came from missionaries in Chile for volunteers to complete school buildings in time for the March 1, 1992, opening of the first agricultural school located in northern Chile, in the world's driest desert. Three teams quickly prepared for departure early in the new year and other teams will continue the work after classes have begun.

During 1991 the South Central Jurisdiction VIM Office assisted hundreds of youth teams as they prepared for their Thanksgiving, Christmas, Spring break, and Summer volunteers in mission projects. Conference coordinators from across the jurisdiction have reported over 160 international teams. SCJ Volunteers in Mission serve throughout the United States as individuals, as couples, and as team members. This is ongoing activity. It goes on all the time, a steady expression of our church's interest in and care for others. But, in addition to that steady effort, when the word of an urgent need is released, United Methodist Volunteers lay aside other activities and respond. Sometimes their help is visible to the larger world; sometimes it isn't. But it's the experience of the South Central Volunteers in Mission program that they're there. When need is felt, United Methodists respond. You can count on it.

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

The commission's general purpose is to foster awareness of concerns and issues of women in the church and encourage continuing commitment to the full participation of women in the total life of the church.

The commission sponsored two workshops at Fall University, one dealing with inclusive language in worship and the second with spiritual growth. The commission also sponsored sessions on "Women in the Church, Contributions and Opportunities" at district training events. The primary focus for the commission this past year has been the development of a video on "Colleagueship in Ministry" to foster awareness of the ways in which colleagueship enhances and enriches the work of the church. The commission has also continued to contribute support to the Jurisdictional Women's Leadership Team.

Goals for the coming year include:

1. Compile resource list of persons and programs concerning women's issues to be given to district U.M.W. organizations, church school classes, administrative boards/councils, SPR/PPR committees, etc. This list will include video tapes and film strips available through the conference office and suggestions for equitable honorariums for speakers.
2. Include in instructions for Fall University presenters a statement regarding the use of inclusive language.
3. Provide workshop(s) related to women's issues for Fall University, 1993.
4. Sponsor a mini-workshop on colleagueship at beginning of each quadrennium for new commission members, the first to be held in Spring, 1993.
5. Sponsor biannually a colleagueship workshop for district Committees on Ministry and district lay representatives (including diaconal ministers), the first to be held in Spring, 1994.
6. Provide information packet for spouses of clergy and diaconal ministers concerning insurance and pension, moving policies, counseling programs and other such benefits beginning Annual Conference, 1993.

STRUCTURE STUDY COMMITTEE

(Items in redline were added and those in ~~strikeout~~ were deleted on the floor of the conference by Hiram Smith, committee chair at the time of the committee report. In addition, items in italics were removed by motion. Items in bold were added by motion.)

I. Introduction

In response to expressions of concern about the expense of our present conference structure and to establish a just and competent body to provide an improved work place in the conference office, the Conference Structure Committee was appointed by the Bishop upon recommendation by the Cabinet. Working with an abbreviated time line, the committee utilized a survey of district superintendents of the conference, studied salary ranges church-wide, compiled information on district office expenses, considered possible savings from reduction of the number of districts, and held a hearing to receive conference-wide input. Then a meeting was held with the cabinet concerning the recommendations and time line.

II. Recommendations

A. There shall be a Central Texas Conference Personnel Committee whose membership will be composed of the following:

1. Chair and Vice Chairperson of ACCOM
2. Chair and Vice Chairperson of CF&A
3. Chair and Vice Chairperson of CG&D
4. Chair and Vice Chairperson of Board of Pensions
5. Conference Lay Leader
6. Bishop (Ex-officio)
7. 1 at-large member from each district to be nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations
8. Additional members may be added to ensure gender, race and age representation.

The committee shall organize itself in a manner which it deems necessary to fulfill its mandate as the personnel committee of ACCOM, CF&A, CG&D, Board of Pensions (avoiding conflict with ¶ 715.1 and 726.7.a of the 1988 Discipline). The committee will be considered "equivalent" under ¶ 726.7.a of the 1988 Discipline. The committee shall receive personnel recommendations from the ACCOM, CF&A, Board of Pensions, and CG&D in order to assure a wholistic, integrated staffing of the entire conference office. The committee shall also consult with the presiding bishop when its recommendations include the deletion or addition of ordained persons. The committee shall fill conference staff positions, at whatever level, with the best available persons without regard to whether they are lay or clergy. The work on the committee will in no way interfere with the perogative of disciplinary mandates concerning the nominations of the Director of ACCOM or the Conference Treasurer. ~~The conference staff positions shall be: Director of ACCOM, Director of CG&D, Treasurer, Secretary (unsalaried), Statistician, Secretary of Benefits.~~

Responsibilities:

1. To recommend to the annual conference the structure and personnel in the conference office which is necessary to fulfill the stated mission of the annual conference; (Refer to Standing Rules: III. 1.2 page 290 - 1991 Journal)
2. Conduct an annual review and evaluation of all annual conference staff members in whatever manner it deems necessary to assure the integrity of the staff as a whole and as individuals;
3. To recommend to the appropriate entities proposals for salary, travel, expense, health & life insurance, pension, housing (where applicable), and other practical matters affecting the work, health, and families of the conference staff; ~~(Salaries no longer formula related Refer to CF&A Report #1 Paragraph 3 page 140 - 1991 Journal).~~
4. To formulate a personnel policy handbook which will address issues such as vacation time, leave of absence, sick leave, pregnancy leave (for male and female) and other matters germane to the employment of personnel;
5. To formulate and keep current job descriptions for all members of the conference staff; (Refer to Discipline ¶ 726.7.a for ACCOM Director; ¶ 715.1 for Conference Treasurer; ¶ 702.6 for Conference Secretary; Standing Rules Page 288 of 1991 Journal - CG&D and Page 290 III 1.0 thru 1.2)
6. Conduct grievance hearings which in-house management has been unable to resolve and conduct exit interviews for staff members who are leaving for any reason.

B. We recommend the following regarding the roll of the district superintendent, the operations of the district offices and the number of districts in the Central Texas Conference:

1. We recommend that the office of District Superintendent be guided by 1988 Discipline ¶ 519 placing maximum value on functions #1 and #4; high value on functions #2, #3, #5, #6, #7, and #9; and lesser value on function #8. In reference to functions #8 and #9, the District Superintendent may serve on conference entities mandated by the Discipline. (The intent of this recommendation is to maximize the time spent by the DS to functions which relate directly to the high morale and effectiveness of the district clergy and the extension of the ministry of the churches within the district while minimizing the time spent providing administration for conference activities and programs. The assessment of need for the current day in the conference is for a truly "district" superintendency rather than several "annual conference" superintendents.
2. Relying on the funds from the sale of one district parsonage and closure of one district office, we recommend that the initial purchase of communiations resources be provided for each district office and that these be updated as technology allows. We recommend that minimum resources today be:
   (a) FAX machine
   (b) Answering machines
   (c) Retention of "1-800" Conference Office number
   (d) Addition of "1-800" numbers for the appropriate district offices
3. That each district office be staffed by secretary and/or district superintendent for a minimum of 30 hours per week with uniform hours across the conference.
4. That equalization of districts be achieved. Cabinet to make determination of method.
5. That contingent on recommendations B-1, B-2, and B-3 being affirmed, the number of districts may be reduced to six, to be voted on in a special or regular session of the Annual Conference to be put into effect in June, 1993.

~~RECOMMENDATION "A"~~ ~~ESTABLISHING A PERSONNEL COMMITTEE~~

~~COMPOSITION:~~

~~Chair & Vice-Chair of ACCOM~~
~~Chair & Vice-Chair of CF&A~~ ~~Chair & Vice-Chair of CG&D~~
~~Chair & Vice-Chair of Board of Pensions~~ ~~Conference Lay Leader~~
~~Bishop (Ex-Officio)~~

We recommend ~~to be put into effect at the end of the 1992 Annual Conference, and presenting the conference with~~ the following change in structure to be voted on in a special or regular session of the Annual Conference and put into effect at the end of the 1993 Annual Conference.

TEXAS UNITED METHODIST COLLEGE ASSOCIATION

Dr. Joe E. Elmore, former president of the Texas United Methodist College Association, retired from that position effective June 30, 1991. During the interim, I have served as the transition person in TUMCA, while awaiting the appointment and arrival of the successor to Dr. Elmore.

During fiscal year 1991, payments from TUMCA to member institutions have been at the following levels:

Lon Morris	154,080.00
SMU	255,195.00
Southwestern	185,377.00
Texas Wesleyan	178,155.00
McMurry	190,192.00

As has been requested by the various annual conferences, all funds go directly to students attending these United Methodist institutions, and each institution pays its pro rata share of the expenses involved in maintaining the TUMCA.

The TUMCA eagerly looks forward to the successor to Dr. Elmore, and it has been my privilege to serve in this interim in any that I could to assist The United Methodist Church and the institutions which comprise the Texas United Methodist College Association.

Bobbie Byram, Secretary

THE TEXAS METHODIST FOUNDATION

The directors and management of The Texas Methodist Foundation are proud to report that 1991 was a year of exceptional growth for The Foundation both in increased assets and the level of services provided. The Central Texas Conference was instrumental in this growth, and we are grateful for our relationships in this conference.

1991 in Review:

1. Assets under management increased to $81,000,000.
2. Earnings on deposits totaled $8,825,000.

3. 96 loans were originated in excess of $26,500,000.

During 1991, ninety-one United Methodist churches and related agencies in the Central Texas conference had over eight and one-half million dollars on deposit with The Texas Methodist Foundation. Loans from The Texas Methodist Foundation to sixty-one churches and agencies in the Central Texas Conference totaled over thirteen million dollars.

The primary goal of The Texas Methodist Foundation continues to be that every United Methodist church or related agency in the state of Texas have a planned giving program in effect. Our development staff offers planned giving counsel and services to these United Methodist institutions and individuals upon request.

It is our hope that these services offered through The Texas Methodist Foundation will promote more effective stewardship to all United Methodists in Texas.

Thomas R. Locke, Senior Vice President

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

As of April 2, 1992, the conference Board of Trustees was custodian of three pieces of property:

1. Conference building
2. Prairie Hill Church
3. Carbon Church

The Prairie Hill Church and Carbon Church have been made available for sale and continue to be for sale. However, there are no offers pending on either church at this time.

The Board of Trustees has sold the Talpa Church and parsonage. The Board of Trustees has transferred the Boulevard Church to the Northside Interchurch Agency.

As of February 1, 1992, the balance of the conference's note to the Texas Methodist Foundation secured by the conference building was $206,112.

Ed Otwell, Church Growth and Development director, has continued to be the property agent for the Board of Trustees and to be responsible for marketing all properties being sold. Our conference director of Finance and Administration, Sidney Roberts, has kept all property adequately insured. We appreciate their assistance in these matters.

We encourage all conference churches to be incorporated and to carry adequate liability insurance to protect the churches and their members. All churches which buy real estate or accept gifts of real estate are encouraged to first determine if the real estate has any environmental problems which might subject the church to liability for all necessary cleanup.

ORDAINED MINISTERS

W. C. Taylor, Jr.

ORDAINED MINISTERS' SPOUSES

Muriel M. Allen

Margaret L. Smith

W. C. TAYLOR, JR.
November 17, 1930 - October 9, 1991

W. C. Taylor, Jr. was born November 17, 1930 in Thrall to W. Cecil and Ruby Lee White Taylor. His father was a minister in the Central Texas Conference for 34 years. Throughout his life a Methodist parsonage was home for W. C.

He and Patricia Anne McCanne were married August 17, 1953 in Alvord, Texas and shared in ministry 38 years. They have two sons: Jon Mac, presently pastor of First United Methodist Church in Clifton; and Bob Edd of Fort Worth. They also have two grandsons: Jonathan and Christopher of Clifton.

W. C. graduated from Paschal High School, Fort Worth in 1947. He earned a B. A. from Texas Wesleyan University in 1951 and a Th. M. from Perkins School of Theology at S.M.U. in 1954.

Licensed to preach in the Fort Worth District in 1949, he became a probationary member of the Central Texas Conference in 1952 and a Full Member in 1954. He was ordained Deacon in 1953 and Elder in 1954.

His appointments were: Riverside in Fort Worth, Associate; Matthew Street in Hillsboro; Oakdale in Stephenville; Little River; North Corsicana; St. Paul's in Cleburne; Alvarado; Ferris and Trumbull; Good Shepherd in Arlington; Davis Memorial in Fort Worth; Hamilton and Lamkin; First in Ennis; Edge Park in Fort Worth; Granbury; and Copperas Cove.

W. C. served on many agencies of the Annual Conference including the Board of Missions, the Board of Higher Education, the Board of Ministry and the Board of Trustees of Glen Lake Camp. He had a great dedication and devotion to the camp, first going there at the age of 12 to a junior high camp his father directed, then going on to serve as a member of the summer staff for many years and on to director or counselor in many camps and finally to membership on the board of trustees where he was chairman for the last several years of his life. The W. C. Taylor, Jr. Administration Building will stand as a monument to his love and service for years to come.

On October 11, a service of celebration was held in First United Methodist Church in Copperas Cove, where W. C. was in his sixth year of ministry at the time of his death. Those officiating were Bishop John Russell, Bob Weathers, Mike Kerzee, Robert L. Robertson, Eugene B. Robertson and Sidney Roberts. George Sutton shared in the service at Waco Memorial Park.

Out of a deep commitment to Christ and his church and in response to God's call, W. C. gave generously of himself in pastoral ministry and covenant ministry in the United Methodist connection. He was devoted to family and friends and had a great concern for all God's people. He witnessed to his faith all the way. And now girded by that faith he has gone on to his next appointment. But his ministry continues in Copperas Cove as within a week the church faced the loss of two members in the disaster at Luby's Cafeteria in Killeen. One leader said, "W. C. taught us how to live and he taught us how to die. Now we are strong enough to mourn him but to go on with the work of the church. "....they rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."

Sidney Roberts

MURIEL M. ALLEN
September 20, 1911 - July 23, 1991

Muriel Marjorie Van Dyke was born September 20, 1911 in Evansville, Indiana, the daughter of Orrie Roscoe Van Dyke and Mary Mabel Vickery Van Dyke. AT the age of 13 her family moved to Nashville, Tennessee where as a young girl she watched the building of Scarritt College, a training ground for Methodist missionaries, near her home.

After graduating from Peabody Demonstration School, Ward-Belmont College, and Depauw University she fulfilled a dream by enrolling in Scarritt, majoring in Christian Education and Social Work, receiving her MA degree in 1937. She did volunteer work at a settlement house in Nashville awaiting assignment by the Woman's Home Mission Board of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. That assignment came in 1938 when she moved to Dallas to work at the Wesley Community Center.

While working in Dallas she met Rev. Estill Allen, then a theology student at Southern Methodist University. The courtship continued by long distance and correspondence after her assignment in 1940 to serve the St. Mark's Community Center in the French Quarter of New Orleans. She and Estill were married August 5, 1941 in Wightman Chapel on the Scarritt College campus. Following their marriage they moved to El Paso where both began serving as teachers/missionaries at the Lydia Patterson Institute.

Muriel and Estill shared thirty-five years of active ministry together, the last seven years spent in parsonages in the Central Texas Conference. Upon retirement the Allen's made their home in Early. Some six years later, illness necessitated Muriel's admittance to a nursing home in Abilene where she lived until her death July 23, 1991. Memorial services were conducted July 25th in the Lake Brownwood United Methodist Church where Muriel was a charter member, by Rev. Bervin Caswell. Burial was in Eastlawn Memorial Park in Brownwood.

Survivors include her husband, Rev. Estill Allen, Jr. of Fort Worth, her son, Estill Van Dyke Allen of Bellaire, her daughter, Gwendolyn Joy Manuel of Colleyville, and one grandson.

Muriel Allen lived life with joy, enthusiasm, and commitment. She was equally devoted to the calling of a missionary, a pastor's wife, and a mother. She was a multi-talented person who used her talents in many ways to the glory of God. She was a life-long lover and writer of poetry and conveyed much of her attitude about life in that which she wrote. Typical are the words of these verses she wrote entitled "Sunlight":

As particles of lint floating in the air
Are turned into golden sunbeams
Dancing on the stair
So ordinary tasks
In lovelight gleam bright
And common things are glorified
By love's transcendent light.

MARGARET L. SMITH
April 3, 1900 - April 20, 1992

Margaret L. Smith, widow of Reverend William Frank Smith, was born April 3, 1900 in Mt. Calm, Texas. God gave her the privilege of living on his good earth 92 years as she died April 20, 1992.

She was the daughter of George and Mary Ellison Lester and graduated from Mt. Calm High School in 1919. She attended Baylor Belton College.

Margaret married Rev. W.F. Smith in Mt. Calm on July 31, 1921 and together they served 34 years in the Central Texas Conference. Their first church was China Spring UMC and they retired while serving the King Memorial UMC in Whitney, Texas.

After retirement, they moved to Bellmead, Texas and worked in the Sparks Memorial UMC.

Mrs. Smith is survived by Mrs. Mary Wade of Waco, Texas, William F. Smith, Jr. of Quanah, Texas and James L. Owens of Colleyville, Texas.

Mrs. Margaret Smith's funeral service was held at the Mount Antioch Cemetery near Mt. Calm, Texas with Rev. Delbert H. Taylor, Jr. officiating.

Margaret was one of the few preachers' wives that I have met who felt called to be a preacher's wife by God. She took this calling very seriously and did everything in her power to support her husband and the church. She was very creative in working with her hands. I thank God that over 36 years I had the privilege of being a part of Mrs. Margaret Smith's life. She was a great lady.

I have performed an examination of the financial records of the Temple District for the period January 1, 1991 through December 31, 1991. During my examination, nothing came to my attention which would indicate that any amounts were expended which were not proper budgetary items. In addition, nothing came to my attention which would indicate any amounts received were not properly reflected in the District's records.

The examination should not be considered to have been performed in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. The procedures performed were the procedures I deemed necessary in the circumstances and do not include all available audit procedures. Therefore, I make no representations regarding the receipts and expenditures of the District other than provided to me.

It is the policy of the Waxahachie District to prepare the Financial Statements on the modified accrual basis; consequently certain expense items are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, since such accounting principles require the accrual of income and expenses. Additionally, the balance sheet requried by generally accepted accounting principles is not presented.

This review entailed procedures which were substantially less than generally accepted auditing procedures, and accordingly I express no opinion on them.

Central Texas Conference Of The United Methodist Church
Fort Worth, Texas

Members of the Council on Finance and Administration Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Fort Worth, Texas.

I have examined the Summary of Cash Receipts and Disbursements with Cash and Savings Account Balances, of Dr. Sidney Roberts, Secretary/Treasurer Central Texas Conference United Methodist Church, for the year ended December 31, 1991. My examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly, included such test of the accounting records and such other procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in Note 1, the Central Texas Conference policy is to prepare this summary on the basis on cash receipts and disbursements; consequently, certain revenue is recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statement is not intended to present results of operation in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, since accounting principles require the accural of income and expense.

The Summary of Notes Payable - Texas Methodist Foundation included in this report is presented for information only, since the status of these items are of interest to the readers of this report in conjunction with the various funds to which they are related. However, the scope of my examination was limited to a review on auditing procedures with regard to this summary, except to confirm the balances shown.

In my opinion, the accompanying Summary of Cash Receipts and Disbursements with Cash and Savings Account Balances referred to above, present fairly the recorded such receipts and disbursements of the Conference Treasurer for the year then ended, on the basis described in Note 1, which basis has been applied consistent with that of the preceding year.

Therefore, accrued revenue or accrued expenses are not reflected in the summary. Accordingly, the statement does not purport to present the results of operation in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, since such accounting principles require the accrual of income and expenses.
