Thanks were also expressed to all who serve on the committee. The report was before the conference and it was approved.

Commission on Church Growth and Development - Rankin Koch, chair of Church Extension Committee, came to report on the new facilities that have come about in the past year. 80 percent of the conference growth came from Church Growth developments. We need to affirm Church Growth in all that they do. There have been at least 450 new Hispanic members through Church Growth. There is also the need to revitalize already existing churches. The report is found on p. 81. Ken Diehm spoke about St. Andrew's UMC in Arlington. Marc Lowrance spoke about Eagle Mountain UMC. Jeannie Treviño-Teddlie spoke about El Calvario. Ben Disney spoke about Alliance UMC. James Jones and Amelia Finau came to speak about Minter's Chapel and Tongan First. Jerry Chism shared the 8-year story of St. John the Apostle church in south Arlington. These presentations were made in connection with a slide presentation. Chris Rhoads, one of the musicians who sings at St. Andrew's in Arlington, performed for the conference.

Tim Russell, director of Church Growth and Development, came to address the conference. He noted the goal of increasing the number of Shares by 10% and to date there is a 4.4% increase. The plan is to officially organize a new Hispanic ministry in Arlington, home of 24,000 Hispanics. He also shared denominational preference figures of persons populating our conference area.

He invited us to the official opening of Africa University on April 23, 1994. He hopes to see us all there.

Committee on Personnel - Glen Whitley referred to their report on p. 110. Glen spoke to all of the hard work of the committee. He especially expressed appreciation for Mary O'Brien who will be missed very much due to her death. This is a committee which will work for the conference as a SPR committee works with the church. It is a committee who will listen to the needs of the personnel. He referred first to page 110, line 56 insert "and" between "demanding" and "which" and on line 59 add "a" between "of" and "sexual." On p. 111, line 25, add "the" between "by" and "employee" and delete "of" and replace with "or." It was moved for adoption. There was discussion and the deletion of "to the employee" on page 112, line 29. He thanked John Kober who helped to put this together legally. There was more discussion. It was adopted.

Diane Griffin offered these suggestions as follows: that the Personnel committee consider editorial changes in CTC Employment Policies for the next annual conference which include 1) the addition of "religion" as one of the items which will not result in discrimination against a person for employment, 2) the addition of "to be treated with respect" following the word "individual" in bullet #1, 3) the addition of the phrase in bullet #3, "solicit their feedback and suggestions for improvement opportunities", and 4) add bullet #5, "Maintain fair and equitable compensation."

These were accepted for consideration.

ELEVENTH SESSION - WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, JUNE 9, 1993

Business Session - At 2:00 p.m. Bishop Joe Wilson called the conference to order. The afternoon devotional began with the singing of the hymn "And Are We Yet Alive." Cheryl Phillips then sang "In the Garden Medley." The prayer was led by Bob Caffey.

Council on Finance and Administration - Leonard Radde, C.F.A. chair, called attention to the printed report. He noted two changes in this year's report: 1) formula for figuring district superintendent's salary to include the top 25 churches rather than only the top 20, 2) Wesley Foundation fund to be figured at $1.26 per member rather than $1.16 per member.

Mike Pinson moved to divide the question related to Report 1. It passed. He moved that the conference freeze the salary level for all cabinet-level positions for 1993-1994. It was seconded. After discussion the motion was defeated.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

Report No. 1

1. We begin this report with special commendations to all the local churches that in 1992 paid all their apportionments for the support of the ministries of the United Methodist Church beyond the local church. Of our 341 churches, 317 paid in full. This leaves 24 local churches who fell short in an aggregate amount of $220,298. However, using the $38,171 balance of the Contingency Fund, $5,868 from interest received on reserve funds, and $23,000 in special gifts, we were able to pay remaining balances on the following:

General Funds:
World Service	$ 22,488
Black Colleges	10,879
Africa University	655
Ministerial Education	27,616
Jurisdictional Funds:
Lydia Patterson	1,425
Mount Sequoyah	523

Additionally we paid $3,452 on Methodist Colleges, leaving an unpaid balance of $12,881.

2. The salary for the district superintendent shall be an amount equal to 105% of the average of the salary and allowances paid to senior pastors of the top 25 churches of the conference. It shall be computed on the basis of salaries approved by the Charge Conferences which appear on the Episcopal work sheets as of February 1. The figures will be compiled by the conference director of Finance and Administration within five days. The 1994 salary for a district superintendent will be $67,413. The Ministerial Pension Plan current service amount of 12% of the Denominational Average Compensation, billed directly to the conference, will be an apportionment to the districts. It is understood that travel to conference meetings is included in Cabinet members' salary.

3. The conference offices of director of Finance and Administration, director of the Council on Ministries, and director of Church Growth and Development will receive a salary equal to that of the district superintendents. For 1994 that salary will be $67,413 . This amount includes an allowance for utilities and maintenance of $4,000 for each of the above named three offices. Travel allowances may be part of the respective council's or commission's budget.

4. The district committees on finance are authorized to prepare budgets for presentation to the district stewards. An amount equal to 10% of the salary for the district superintendent may be included in the district budget to defray the utility costs of the district parsonage. In addition, an amount equal to 10% of the salary may be included in the district budget for travel expenses of the district superintendent. District budgets shall not include a discretionary fund, but may include a District Operations Expense item. The district budget shall be submitted to the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration for approval each year. The district stewards are authorized to apportion a Connectional Contingency Fund to be used for paying in full apportioned items which may fall short within the respective district. The Connectional Contingency Fund will be administered at the district level in the same manner as the District Work Fund. It is understood that if a portion of the Connectional Contingency Fund is not used in any given year, it will remain in the fund and future apportionment funds will be reduced. Any adjustments for unusual local church situations will be made in the apportionment of the Connectional Contingency Fund only. All other apportionments will be distributed to every local church on the basis of the decimal.

5. The council recommends the request from the conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry that the amount for the Texas Methodist College Association be $1.50 multiplied by the total conference local church membership. The council also recommends the request from the conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry that the amount for the Wesley Foundation Fund be $1.26 multiplied by the total conference local church membership. Both funds shall be apportioned to the districts and to the local churches on the decimal authorized by the Annual Conference.
6. We recommend the appointment of Sidney Roberts as director of Finance and Administration and as the secretary of the Central Texas Conference.

This fund, along with Connectional Ministry, Conference Claimant's Fund, Ministers' Insurance, Texas Methodist College Association, Wesley Foundation, Ministerial Education Fund, Black Methodist College Fund, Africa University, Mount Sequoyah, Lydia Patterson, Equitable Compensation Fund, Mission Initiatives, and SMU Campus Ministry will be apportioned to the districts on the decimal figure, established annually, as authorized in the Standing Rules of the Conference.

   c. The conference treasurer, after the close of the fiscal year, shall transfer from the accounts of all boards, commissions and other agencies of the conference into the operating reserve all unexpended balances of the annual appropriations for the year just closed (excepting only items specifically exempted by CF&A) making allowances for all outstanding checks. This procedure is recommended with the understanding that the director of Finance and Administration will honor the requisitions for all necessary expenses of the new fiscal year within the limits of the appropriations.
   d. To invest the funds of the conference in government securities and federally insured depositories up to and not exceeding insurability, and/or with the Texas Methodist Foundation and to borrow on and dispose of investments at, or prior to, maturity, and to deposit the proceeds from these investments in accounts of the conference under the guidance of the Council on Finance and Administration.
   e. To deposit funds for specifically designated purposes in federally insured depositories up to and not exceeding insurability and/or with the Texas Methodist Foundation under the joint control of the Central Treasury and the agency concerned, with the approval of the Executive Committee of the conference Council on Finance and Administration.

Report No. 3
Reserve Funds

1. In order to establish a better system of accountability, the Council on Finance and Administration following action of the 1991 Annual Conference implemented the following management procedures for reserve funds beginning 1/1/92:
   a. The operating reserve is no longer treated as a contingency fund but as a cash flow fund.
   b. A separate contingency fund has been set up to cover unbudgeted expenses with accounting of these expenditures to be made to the Annual Conference.
   c. A contingency fund of $50,000 has been established from the operating reserve.
   d. The contingency fund will be replenished at the beginning of each year by the interest earnings on both the contingency fund and the operating reserve. Any interest earnings over and above that necessary to replenish the contingency fund to a balance of $50,000 will go into the operating reserve.

e. The goal is a permanent operating reserve fund of 10% of the current budget to be used strictly for cash flow.

f. The operating reserve will be replenished by funds unused by the conference at the end of the year.

g. The authority for the administration of these funds rests with the Council on Finance and Administration pursuant to the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church and the Standing Rules of the Central Texas Conference.

Contingency Fund Policy

1. Expenditures will be made from the Contingency Fund under one of two circumstances:
   A. Unforseen circumstances, unpredicted, unplanned for, emergency situations which could not have been foreseen by reasonable people and reasonable committees
   B. Failure of expected income to support a budgeted expenditure
2. The conference treasurer may authorize up to $250; the CFA executive committee may authorize up to $5,000 either in meeting or by phone; those over $5,000 must be authorized by the full board either in meeting or by phone
3. No disbursement will be made without the authorization signature of either the conference treasurer or the chair of CFA.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

The Central Texas Annual Conference Council on Ministries has begun the new quadrennium with an emphasis on spirituality, evangelism, justice, and rebuilding the connection. These areas of concern were set forth at the retreat sponsored by the Committee on Planning and Research. The appropriate boards and committees of the council are setting goals and developing programs to strengthen our ministry in these areas in addition to building on work of previous years. We are looking forward to working closely with local churches to bring an increased awareness of the service the council has to offer.

Dale Smith, Chairperson

The conference Council on Ministries office shall maintain the calendar for the annual conference events, and proposed dates shall be cleared with that office thirty days in advance whenever possible.

The concept of Fall University is reaffirmed as the time and place for program boards to do conference-wide training.

The mileage allowance shall be twenty-two cents for conference staff traveling separately, twenty-five cents when two or more are in the same car. All others shall be reimbursed at eighteen cents per mile for one person, twenty-one cents per mile when two members ride in the same car, twenty-three when three to six members ride in the same car, and thirty-five cents for seven or more members in one vehicle for necessary travel on conference business.

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The Board of Church and Society has met on two occasions during the conference year, October 17 and January 9. With the start of a new quadrennium, the board's major tasks have been to get acquainted and to become familiar with the work the board is called to do.

To this point, the various committees of the board have been making plans for programs/events to take place later in the year. The Inclusiveness Resource Committee intends to establish a second team to increase availability to districts and local churches. The UN/DC Committee has established dates for youth of the conference to travel to New York to see the work of the United Methodist Church on a different level.

The Fall University Committee is developing courses for the annual conference-wide training event. The Resolutions and Resource/Communications Committees are looking at ways to better resource and communicate with local churches in relations to the work of the board of Church and Society at every level.

Additionally, the Peace With Justice Committee is preparing "Peace With Justice Questionnaire" to heighten awareness of and help identify justice issues among the churches of the Central Texas Conference.

The Church's social witness is critical to its credibility. The board seeks to aid in this by helping to keep issues of social justice constantly before us and by providing resources that enable local congregations to bring their gifts to the point of personal human need.

Clifton Howard, Chairperson

Proposed Programs:

Goal: To accompany CTC high school youth to NY/DC where they will visit the UN and/or the Capitol and experience the church at work in that context

3. Fall University
   Goal: To enable local churches to identify and address issues in their communities
4. Emerging Social Issues - Peace With Justice

PROJECT LOST (Lights on Sightless Trains)

WHEREAS, Stephanie McCue (a member of the Kansas West Conference Council on Youth Ministry) and Marlee Bretz, both members of the Tenth Avenue United Methodist Church and their friend Lisa Steinert, all of Hutchinson, were killed when their automobile was involved in an accident with a train on Valentine's Day, February 14, 1992, and

WHEREAS, each year hundreds of persons all across our country die or injured in similar accidents, and

WHEREAS, law requires extensive lighting on almost all forms of transportation which use or cross the highways, and fly through the air space of our nation, and

WHEREAS, at present only the front and rear of trains are lighted, leaving up to a mile of their cars darkened, and

WHEREAS, a first step was taken in 1992 through a law that requires additional lighting for locomotives in the United States, and

WHEREAS, the public continues to have a right to be warned of the presence of the largest and most deadly mode of transportation allowed to interact with automobiles on our streets and highways,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the Central Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church calls upon the legislative bodies and President of the United States of America to enact laws requiring the sides of each car of trains traveling the tracks within the United States to be equipped with reflective strips of a number, type and size sufficient to warn motorists of the presence and thereby avoid senseless loss of human life.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that copies be sent to the two Texas Senators and Congressional Representatives whose constituents are within the boundaries of the Central Texas Conference.

Resolution No. 2
OKINAWAN VOICES FOR PEACE

WHEREAS, the Soviet threat no longer exists that requires a U. S. military presence in Okinawa, and

WHEREAS the Okinawan people perceive the U. S. military presence there to be a threat to peace in Asia, and

WHEREAS, eighty-five percent of the citizens of Okinawa call for the reduction or total removal of all U. S. military bases in Okinawa, and

WHEREAS, the U. S. military training is destructive to both the environment and to the lives of the Okinawan people, and

WHEREAS, the basic human right to self-determination that belongs to all persons has been denied the citizens of Okinawa by the continued U. S. military presence, and

WHEREAS, during World War II, U. S. military bases in Okinawa were built without any consideration of the property rights of Okinawan citizens, resulting in the destruction of traditional Okinawan society, and

WHEREAS, twenty percent of the total land area of Okinawa, one-third of which is owned by Okinawan citizens, continues to be occupied by U.S. military bases, property to which the Okinawan land owners have no access, and

WHEREAS, the sacred Mt. Onna is being destroyed by live-ammunition shelling and many Okinawan citizens' sacred ancestral burial grounds are within military bases to which Okinawans must ask permission to visit, and

WHEREAS, the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church affirm the right of all nations to determine their own destiny and call for the militarization of society to be challenged and stopped,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Central Texas Annual Conference call on the U.S. government to hear and respond to the challenge from the citizens of Okinawa to reduce or remove its military bases from Okinawa.

RESOLVED, that the Central Texas Conference support the right of the citizens of Okinawa in their quest for self-determination.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Central Texas Conference commend and continue its support of John Ed and Carolyn Francis for their work with the Okinawan people in their struggle to regain their land and pursue peace.

Okinawa Voices for Peace, a fourteen member group, recently toured five American cities, one of which was Fort Worth.

As a result of meeting with these Okinawan people, the Central Texas Conference Board of Church and Society proposes the resolution to the Central Texas Annual Conference, June 6-9, 1993.

Let There Be Peace on Earth

Let there be peace on earth, And let it begin with me;
Let there be peace on earth, The peace that was meant to be.

With God our creator, Children all are we.
Let us walk with each other, In perfect harmony.

Let peace begin with me; Let this be the moment now.
With every step I take, Let this be my solemn vow.

To take each moment and live each moment, In peace eternally.
Let there be peace on earth, And let it begin with me.

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

1992 Board of Discipleship programs and activities were chosen, planned, executed, and evaluated on the basis of how well they helped local congregations to accomplish what we consider to be the church's two top priorities:

1. being disciples of Jesus Christ, individually and corporately; and
2. making disciples.

We address the first of these mainly through the work of the board's Devotional Life, Education and Leadership Development, Worship, and Stewardship Committees and the annual Harry Hosier Event that the board sponsors. We address the second mainly through the work of the board's Evangelism Committee.

This board aims at providing leadership, training and inspiration that will help clergy and laity to lead local congregations to:

1. reach out to unchurched people and incorporate them into the church;
2. help church members to grow in faith and to develop mature and meaningful relationships with God and with other people; and
3. live in the world in a Christlike way and minister to the world's needs.

The 1992 reports of our board committees, and their proposals for 1994, describe specific ways in which we are trying to meet these responsibilities.

September 11, 1994 has been designated as Christian Education Sunday.

Barbara Wendland, Chairperson

The conference year 1992 has been exciting for the Council on Youth Ministry as we planned and produced many interesting programs and events that lift up the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Some highlights of the year were:

- Scott Heaslet of Fort Worth East District was selected as a vice-president of the National Youth Ministries Organization Steering Committee.
- Erin Blythe-Bogart and Chia Felder also of Fort Worth East District served for their second year on the Jurisdictional Youth Team. They have helped in the planning of Spiritual Life Rally '93 to be held in Fayetteville, Arkansas.
- Twenty-two CCYM members attended the Jurisdictional Youth Ministry Organization Convocation at Mount Sequoyah in July.
- CCYM members served as pages at the Jurisdictional Conference in Fort Worth in July.

The CCYM sponsored several events again this year. We had a Youth Lock-In following Annual Conference in June; we sponsored thirteen different classes at Fall University in Hillsboro in September; we sponsored a total of four Mid-Winter's at Glen Lake Camp every weekend of February; we sponsored a Spiritual Life Retreat in April at Glen Lake and we sponsored a Wet-N-Wild day in August. For the seventh year, we made discount tickets to Wet-N-Wild and Six Flags available to local churches.

In the midst of everything we did not forget the importance of Youth Service Fund, the United Methodist mission fund which is raised and administered by youth for projects to serve youth needs at home and around the world. Anna Odom from Brownwood District served as the YSF chair and along with her committee developed several new fund raisers. Also, local churches through their own events and giving helped us raise money for YSF.

As each year closes and events of the year become memories we each take time to reminiscence on all the events that have taken place. The 1992-93 CCYM members leave to our successors a list of proposed programs with our blessings as they labor to lead the youth of the Central Texas Conference into a new year of new beginnings. We pray that they will feel the patience, love, guidance, and understanding of our Lord that we felt and experienced this year.

8. The Five-Day Academy for Spiritual Formation
   Goal: To host a Five-Day Academy; it is an intensive and holistic journey in Christian Spirituality
9. Meeting Expenses
   Goal: Pay expenses as necessary for committee members to attend meetings

With the new quadrennium, and the excitement of our new Episcopal leadership, the Committee on Devotional Life (Spiritual Formation) wishes to initiate some new beginnings. First, the committee has changed from a one person committee to a committee of ten persons. The committee seeks to give greater attention to their own spiritual life and the spiritual life of the local church, district and conference.

Second, the stated purpose of the Committee on Devotional Life (Spiritual Formation) is to develop programs to nurture growth in prayer and spirituality, encourage other groups and organizations in the church, district and conference to nurture spiritual growth, and provide spiritual resources.

Third, the committee does not see itself as responsible to care for all matters of spiritual formation in the conference, but to encourage attention to the spiritual life in all arenas of the conference. Other agencies are encouraged to include spiritual formation in their committee life as well and to do whatever falls within their areas to encourage spiritual development.

Fourth, we are presently doing an inventory of those activities and programs which already foster an openness to God as well as those which have the potential to do so with help, and seeking other areas needing fresh attention. Where spiritual formation experiences are happening in the conference, we will name them, bless them and help them continue.

Education and Leadership Development

Proposed Programs:

1. Fall University
   Goal: Train local church teachers and other leaders to increase their skills in teaching and in other areas such as parenting, recognizing persons in distress, and helping persons to be disciples and disciple to others by helping persons develop mature faith
2. Laboratory Training School
   Goal: a. Shared information about teaching and learning and what will happen in the lab school
   b. Planning/teaching/observing/feedback cycles
   c. Reflection on learning
3. Sexuality Education
   Goal: Provide qualified help for local churches to help them provide human sexuality education at the local level as needed
4. Age Level/Specialized Interest Activities
   Goal: To provide fellowship for our members, with others who have similar interests and needs, and provide personal growth opportunities related to each group's needs
5. Leadership Training Events (outside the annual conference)
   Goal: Take advantage of opportunities offered outside our area at which our leaders can gain new skills and ideas that can be put to use within our conference

The Committee on Education and Leadership Development emphasized in all areas of planning and work this past year the importance of making the target of our work the local churches. Members serving on this committee have dedicated themselves to working hard to bring more opportunities for training and leadership to as many persons as possible in the local churches.

Fall University continues to increase in overall attendance. Each year this committee offers courses to train local church teachers and other leaders to increase their skills and confidence in teaching.

Laboratory Training School for teachers is taking a new direction. At the present time it is in the process of planning with dates, time and place to be announced. As a committee we are excited about the new opportunities for teachers of all age levels in the lab schools.

Persons from our conference were enabled to attend training events including Single Adult Retreat, Older Adult Retreat, and Mission Education With Children.

A Task Force on Human Sexuality Education continued its work developing leadership, promoting a training process that can be available to local churches within our conference.

Funds received on Christian Education Sunday, in addition to Annual Conference budgeted funds and fees paid by participants and their local churches, support these programs.

Kay Birkholz, Chairperson

Committee on Evangelism

Proposed Programs:

1. Travel and Meeting Expenses
   Goal: Pay expenses as necessary for committee members to attend meetings
2. Fall University Evangelism Workshop
   Goal: To provide training and education to the local churches and to provide them with the training and the resources to be effective in their evangelism efforts
3. "In Search of Excellence"
   Goal: To profile a number of churches that have effective evangelism programs; to intentionally select a wide variety of churches i.e., small rural congregations, medium size churches in areas of stagnant population, and large, urban congregations, so that all church settings can be represented and it can be shown that evangelistic efforts can be effective in every conceivable setting. The quickest way to success is to find something that works and begin to emulate the underlying principles
4. "Seven Churches, A Revelation of Effective Evangelism"
   Goal: Work cooperatively with the seven district superintendents to designate one church within each district that would agree to work in conjunction with the district and the conference in a controlled evangelism effort. The churches selected would work cooperatively with the leaders of the district and conference in evaluating, planning and carrying out a number of efforts to revitalize their congregation.

We in the evangelism work area strongly feel that the revitalization of the local church should be the primary goal of both the Board of Discipleship and the work of the conference. We have established a number of priorities within the work area, including assisting the local churches in evangelism, offering models that work effectively and that can be emulated, empowering the laity to be intentional in the evangelistic work of the church, and seeking ways in which churches can discover and rediscover their mission and ministry to the community and the world. Dr. Joe Harding recently led a workshop on Evangelism as part of our Fall University.

Our long term hope is to establish a full time position for an individual to serve as Evangelism Director of the Central Texas Conference. The position would be similar to the establishment of a full time Director of Church Growth and Development. Our feeling is that in the area of evangelism in particular, there is a direct correlation between the amount of time and resources utilized and the overall success of those efforts. If indeed evangelism is a priority within the Central Texas Conference, then our allocation of time, money, and resources should reflect that commitment. Simply put, we feel that the area of evangelism is so critical that we cannot realistically fulfill our expectations with part time efforts and the smallest budget within the Board of Discipleship.

We have a number of talented and capable people within our committee. We are excited about the possibilities that lie ahead and we look forward to working towards our stated goals.

Ben Disney, Chairperson

Committee on Stewardship

Proposed Programs:

1. Travel and Meetings
   Goal: To support the local churches in their stewardship work
2. Planning For Retirement; Planning for Children's Education; Estate Planning and Endowment Gifts to the Church; Payroll Problems at the Local Church Level

3. Journal of Stewardship
   Goal: To distribute all 400 copies to the people in charge of the stewardship program in their local churches
4. Stewardship Seminar for 1994
   Goal: To educate committee members so they will be more effective in their work

The highlight of 1992 was the seminar presented at Fall University at Hill College in Hillsboro, Texas.

Patricia Sprayberry, Executive Director of the Central Texas Conference Foundation, presented a seminar titled "How to Promote and Administer Bequests and Legacies in the Local Church". Special methods of giving, along with suggestions for promoting awareness of those choices and how they fit into the overall stewardship plan was discussed. Also covered were ministering to the financial and estate planning needs of the church family and administering special gifts to advance the church's ministries.

5. Youth Choir Rally
   Goal: To provide an annual two day event when youth from the congregations of the Central Texas Conference can come together to:
   1. rehearse new and popular musical selections for youth with a gifted clinician;
   2. fellowship with other youth and adults committed to the music ministry of youth; and
   3. present the rehearsed selections in a worship setting.
6. Meeting expense
   Goal: To meet as a whole committee once during 1994 with task groups as needed to plan and evaluate events

The Committee on Worship had the following experiences during 1992:

We offered our third conference Choir Clinic on two separate weekends in April and May. Dr. Lloyd Pfautsch was the Choral Clinician. Jane McGuyer and Richard Palmquist served as the coordinators of the event. Approximately 200 persons sang eight selections as a mass choir at the opening worship service of the 1992 Central Texas Annual Conference held at First United Methodist Church, Arlington.

We intended to offer four courses at the 1992 Fall University. Rev. Rosemary Brown was to be the speaker. Unfortunately, Mrs. Brown had a congregational crisis and was unable to travel to Texas.

The second annual conference Youth Choir Rally was held on the second weekend in April. Jane McGuyer was the coordinator of the event. A concert was held at First United Methodist Church, Stephenville. Over 100 youth participated in the event.

Six people traveled to Nashville, Tennessee to attend the United Methodist National Workshop on the Book of Worship. The participants were: Jon Taylor, Jane McGuyer, Richard Palmquist, Chuck Gee, Georgia Adamson, and Brian Young. The event has helped train these persons to lead proposed 1993 district workshops on the Book of Worship.

Jon M. Taylor, Chairperson

Harry Hosier Event

Proposed Program:

1. Annual Harry Hosier Event
   Goal: Present a top-quality yearly event that will effectively meet this need

Harry Hosier, popularly known as "Black Harry", was Bishop Francis Asbury's traveling servant during America's early colonial period. He was much more than a servant, however. Because he was not bound to any slave owner or congregation, he could travel freely. He rode the circuit, preaching to both Anglo-Americans and African-Americans. Although he was not formally educated and could not read or write, his sermons had unusual depth and insight. He contributed greatly to the spread of Methodism among persons of all races in early America.

The Central Texas Conference highlights and celebrates this important part of our heritage with an annual event. In 1992 it was held on November 21 from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at Glen Lake Camp. Featuring worship, classes, music, a meal, and fellowship, the 1992 event was a time of joyful spiritual renewal for the many persons who attended. Guest preacher and music leader was Michele Sue Shumake-Keller from St. Louis. Choirs from Brack's United Methodist Church were also featured.

Alfred Sanford, Sr., Chairperson

BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

The Board of Global Ministries begins the new quadrennium with an all-new membership who are eager to continue and expand the good work of the previous board. Our committees continue to evaluate our goals and the stewardship of our allotted funds, while being ever-mindful of emerging ministries that occur. The needs for mission and ministry are endless. Each of our committees has a summary of its work accompanying that committee's report.

Judith Sands, Chairperson

Proposed Program:

1. Meeting expense
   Goal: Pay expenses as necessary for board members to attend meetings
2. Fall University

Committee On Aging

Proposed Programs:

1. To attend yearly conference of "Religion and Aging" portion of the "American Society on Aging"
   Goal: To identify the voiced concerns for the older adults within America. To gather information on potential resource persons for educating and informing seniors within the Central Texas Conference

2. Committee on Aging Spring Retreat
   Goal: To add to the quality of life for senior adults by equipping them to address the issues of aging in a constructive way
3. Speaker for Fall University
   Goal: To successfully address the fact that our local churches have a growing number of senior citizens

The sole event sponsored by the Committee on Aging during 1992 was a spring retreat held at Glen Lake. The event featured Bob Briles, speaker and Nancy Schusler, music leader.

It has been the recent pattern for the Older Adult Co-coordinator from the Board of Discipleship to join with our committee in sponsoring two retreats - one in the Spring and the other in the Fall. We have assumed the lead role for the Spring retreat while the Older Adult Co-coordinator takes the lead for the Fall retreat. In the Spring we sought to include the participants in more of the program. Virtually everyone who attended took part in both the music and recreation.

It is obvious that this group represents a whole new set of opportunities for the church. Hopefully we will continue to try new formats that will enable us to reach more of this growing age group.

Robert E. Messer, Chairperson

Committee On City, Town and Country

Proposed Programs:

1. Encourage small membership churches in similar size and close proximity to cluster together for special ministries
   Goal: To have at least one group of churches clustering together in local/area ministry

   Goals: To develop a leadership team which will be available for district training events to teach a course to train leadership of small membership churches
   To be in conversation with the Bishop and Cabinet to begin the development of lay pastors in Central Texas Conference
   To encourage churches from as many districts as possible to create worship experiences using their unique setting
   To continue newsletter to small membership congregations as an exchange of ideas
4. To provide training opportunities for pastors and leaders of small membership churches
   Goal: To continue sponsoring Fall University courses in sharing of ideas for ministry

The Committee on City, Town and Country work has begun this quadrennium by being in conversation as to the nature of our task as a committee and how we might affirm and strengthen ministry among churches with 250 and less members.

We are disappointed that the communication network that was planned for 1992 between this committee and the local churches did not get established. However, we were pleased with the course offerings at Fall University.

To help us in our work, we have been in conversation with The National United Methodist Rural Fellowship, the Town and Country Ministries Office of the General Board of Global Ministries and Texas A & M Department of Rural Sociology.

We gathered resources on effective ministry for small membership churches and distributed them to the conference Resource Center, the extended Cabinet and each small membership church in our conference.

Plans were set into motion to enable clergy and lay members of small membership churches of our Annual Conference to meet together during conference for a sharing time.

As we realize the scope of the work of this committee, we are becoming more convinced that this committee needs to be enlarged with representation from each district to be effective in ministry to small membership churches in our conference.

We are pleased to serve you in this ministry and seek your prayers and encouragement.

   b. Provide interpreters for hearing impaired and deaf at Annual Conference worship services and other conference-wide worship services
   c. Sponsor a pilot program/seminar/course on developing ministries with persons having disabling conditions

6. Financial contribution for a stipend to support a chaplain in HIV/AIDS ministries
   Goal: To provide a chaplain for HIV/AIDS ministries to reside within the boundaries of the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church

The conference Committee on Health and Welfare, comprised of clergy and lay representatives from over the conference (Joan Gaspard, Judy Ehrke, Carl Stenger, Babe Goad, Ben Marney, Soap Osborne, Lois Clark, and Amber Worley), has completed a year of promoting the conference's Health and Welfare Institutions, training district leadership on accessibility for persons with disabling conditions, and participating in establishing ministries in the local church that educate and support families of persons with disabling conditions. Each of these programs offer restoration of wholeness and renewed communion with God and neighbor.

The committee selected and purchased audio-video and print materials for placement in the conference Resource Center. The topics of this material cover emotional and mental illness, developmentally disabled, HIV/AIDS. The committee purchased and placed in the Resource Center a television closed caption machine for use by the hearing impaired and deaf.

The Health and Welfare Committee sponsored an extended session of Annual Conference in June, during the noon hour, for the purpose of conference members receiving continued awareness of the Health and Welfare Ministries/Institutions and their ministries. These institutions provided for the luncheon and had representatives present reports on their respective ministries and needs.

The activities of the conference committee have been to help identify health and welfare needs and to advocate and educate on behalf of the health and welfare rights and needs of all persons. Membership in the United Methodist Association of Health and Welfare Ministries has provided the committee with resource materials and leadership development.

The Health and Welfare Committee was represented by serving on the boards of the Harris Methodist Health System Board, the Harris Methodist Hospital Chaplain's Committee, the Methodist Mission Home, the Wesleyan Homes, the Aldersgate Enrichment Center, and the Methodist Home. This participation aids in assisting United Methodists to become involved globally in health and welfare ministries, especially in the areas of child care, aging, health care, and persons with handicapping conditions.

The conference Health and Welfare Committee has welcomed this year with the challenge of being together - in worship, in prayer, in service to others - and we rejoice in the fact that we can call ourselves United Methodists.

Joan Gaspard, Chairperson

ALDERSGATE ENRICHMENT CENTER

God has smiled on Aldersgate Enrichment Center this past year as the ministry has continued to grow and serve. This ministry began two years ago with four Associates and four staff and has grown to seventeen Associates and eight staff currently.

The Vocational Center work contracts currently include building wooden shipping pallets for Kohler Company, packaging sandpaper for Norton Company, packaging blue powder for 3M Company, assembling feather dusters for Texas Feathers, assembling reflective arm bands, and manufacturing wooden shipping wedges for Phillips Driscopipe. Aldersgate Enrichment Center also acts as a broker for 3M Company in recycling some of their waste materials. With all of these contracts, a small profit was realized for 1992.

One can clearly see that the Center is very busy, but the most important job is providing a way of life for the people served that lets them know that God loves them and lifts them up to feel proud.

Everyday at Aldersgate begins with Bible study and quiet time to thank God for all of His blessings. The day then continues with productive work in a Christian environment, allowing for Associates of all skill levels to feel they are accomplishing something productive which they can be proud of.

Work has begun on the Aldersgate property that will lead to moving the entire operation there soon. The entry way is complete, a tremendous amount of dirt work has been done, roads have been cut all through the property, the pad for the Vocational Center is nearly finished, the architect has completed the plans for the Center, and bids will soon be requested to begin construction of the first building.

Most important, Aldersgate Enrichment Center is out of debt, has money in the bank, and is underway with construction that will allow the ministry to expand beyond what it is currently capable of.

Since last year, the Ogle property has been sold. That money is on deposit with the Texas Methodist Foundation until construction of the Ogle Administration Building begins.

Many groups have visited the Vocation Center and many of them have undertaken projects to raise money and donate time. One church sponsored a Boy Scout troop that came over and painted the new fence which the men's group and church donated. Other groups have plans in process to be involved and all are welcomed to do so.

Grants are being actively pursued that will allow for the construction of roads and other infrastructure. The City of Brownwood and Brown County are working with Aldersgate to get this accomplished.

Aldersgate Enrichment Center is proud of what has been accomplished and gives thanks everyday for all that God is bringing. It proves the old saying that "God does not ask for our abilities, but He wants our availability." He does the rest.

HARRIS METHODIST HEALTH SYSTEM
Report No. 1

Harris Methodist Health System was born from humble beginnings more than 60 years ago. A rich tradition of giving, serving and caring began when Dr. Charles Harris, a physician and surgeon who operated a small clinic and hospital from his Fort Worth home, recognized the need for a larger facility to serve the community.

In 1919, he asked the Central Texas Conference of the Methodist Church to help build a new hospital in the city. Within a year, his request was approved, and financial support was pledged by both church conference members and Fort Worth citizens.

In 1930, six years after construction began, the new Methodist Hospital opened with 100 patient beds. Times were hard, with the Great Depression of the 1930s and then World War II, but the hospital managed to survive and care for those in need.

Today, Harris Methodist's vision carries the same basic principles set forth by Dr. Harris so long ago. Over the years, Harris Methodist has grown into one of the largest health care organizations in Texas -- but our dedication to quality patient care, community service, education and continued improvement remains unchanged.

Modern medical technology alone isn't enough. It takes a strong partnership to serve our community, to care for its people, and to provide services for thousands of families and individuals each year. Harris Methodist Health System is committed to just that.

Over the past year, Harris Methodist has shown its commitment in a variety of ways -- through emergency and trauma services, inpatient and outpatient care, community outreach, and both funds and volunteer hours for health-related causes and those which improve the quality of life for our families and friends. In addition, Harris Methodist's management and employees have continued to find ways to provide more efficient, cost-effective care without sacrificing quality or service.

Each year brings new challenges and the opportunity to build a healthier future for our community. As we move ahead into this new year, we would like to share with you some of the achievements of 1992 and ways in which Harris Methodist Health System is strengthening its partnership with those we serve. On behalf of the trustees, staff and employees, we're pleased to present this report to our community.

Report No. 2
HELPING MANY IN MANY WAYS

When you think of hospital volunteers, you probably picture men and women in uniforms, assisting patients, visitors and staff. But did you know that Harris Methodist's employees are also volunteers? Last year alone, health system employees provided more than 6,750 hours of volunteer service to Tarrant County's charitable organizations. In addition, Harris Methodist participated in 60 area health fairs, screenings or company and community information programs during 1992, at an estimated cost exceeding $83,000. Harris Methodist's hospitals are longtime participants in their local Adopt-a-School programs, with many employees giving time and talent to help our youth both during the school year and through summer programs, such as Fort Worth's Vital Link program, which places students in actual work situations in various areas of the health care system.

And, during the past year, Harris Methodist's employees not only contributed more than $576,000 to the Tarrant County United Way, they also gave countless hours of time and assistance to the annual fund-raising efforts. More than 1,000 hours were worked by six Harris Methodist employees alone serving as loaned executives to the campaign.

Community benefit takes many shapes and forms. In addition to the services Harris Methodist provides each day for patients and their families, the system's hospitals are committed to finding new ways to meet the needs of diverse and growing communities. That means participation and sponsorship in important community events, such as health fairs, medical screenings and first aid stations. It means cooperation and partnership with national and local health organizations, such as the American Heart Association, the American Cancer Society, the March of Dimes and others. It's working with area churches, to help them continue and strengthen their missions. It also involves distributing free health care information to area business and community groups through the Harris Methodist Speakers' Bureau. During 1992, Harris health professionals spoke to more than 7,400 residents of Tarrant County and surrounding communities on diverse topics such as stress management, breast cancer and AIDS.

With education goes research, and Harris Methodist is actively involved in both. Recently, Harris Methodist joined the Texas Community Oncology Network, working with several other Tarrant County hospitals to participate in cancer research with Houston's M.D. Anderson Medical Center. The system has commissioned studies on medical education needs and related issues, initiated the Tarrant County Medical Education Consortium with several other Fort Worth facilities, and is active in a county advisory group on emergency services as well as the state and local LifeGift organ donation program.

Report No. 3
QUALITY CARE REMAINS CENTER OF COMMITMENT

Harris Methodist Fort Worth's emergency room is one of only two designated 24-hour trauma centers in Tarrant County and the only one certified by the American College of Surgeons. Nationally recognized in 1989 as a Trauma Receiving Center, this certification marked an achievement reached by only one other hospital in Texas.

Helping to bring patients to emergency services is the Careflite air ambulance. In 1979, Dallas Methodist and Harris Methodist brought the Metroplex its first helicopter ambulance. Today, Careflite is the eighth busiest helicopter ambulance in the nation. Whether there is a need for quick assistance at the scene of a disaster or accident, or a need for life-saving transportation from a rural area where vital services are not available, Careflite is on duty, ready for immediate take off.

Because Careflite is committed to offering transportation to those in need of emergency care, a significant portion of its services is included in Harris Methodist Fort Worth's charity care contributions. Throughout its history, Careflite has transported high numbers of charity cases during emergency situations.

Other Harris Methodist services benefit the community in a number of ways as well, from the system's Level III neonatal intensive care unit for high-risk babies at Harris Methodist Fort Worth to the Edwards Cancer Center at Harris Methodist H·E·B, where advanced treatments are used in the fight against cancer. The specialized Doris Kupferle Breast Centers at Harris Methodist Fort Worth, Harris Methodist H·E·B and Harris Methodist Southwest feature the latest technology for mammography and focus on early detection and public awareness of breast cancer.

To keep pace with the changing needs of a growing community, Harris Methodist continually puts the funds it generates back into the health care facilities and services it provides. The community's health care dollars are reinvested in improvements, programs and technology for future patients and future generations.

Report No. 4
KEEPING HEALTH CARE CLOSE TO HOME

Harris Methodist's dedication to community service extends to supporting local community hospitals.

In 1973, Harris Methodist affiliated with the Hurst-Euless-Bedford hospital, which has grown into one of the premier health care facilities in the Metroplex. In addition to a range of other services, Harris Methodist H·E·B today includes a radiation/oncology center, a fitness center, and a psychiatric and addiction treatment hospital all on its own campus.

In 1977, the community hospital in Azle affiliated with Harris Methodist and was able to continue serving patients, as well as expand and remodel in 1981. Harris Methodist Northwest began another phase of major renovation in 1992 to expand its emergency room care, outpatient services and surgical area.

Since Harris Methodist officially became a health care system in 1982, the rural communities of Stephenville, Cleburne and Glen Rose have all been helped to expand and improve the health care they provide. During this past year, construction on a physicians' office building began at the Walls Regional Hospital in Cleburne, and a nursing home expansion began in Glen Rose. Also in Glen Rose, a new hospital building opened under the leadership of Somervell County officials.

Report No. 5
TAKING CARE WHERE IT'S NEEDED MOST

Neighborhood clinics provide much-needed access to health care for many in our community. Harris Methodist remains committed to addressing the needs of the underserved through clinics, where care is taken into neighborhoods, where it's needed most.

A few years ago, Harris Methodist received a grant from the Sid W. Richardson Foundation and the City of Fort Worth to renovate a building in the Polytechnic area and helped open a prenatal care clinic staffed by John Peter Smith Hospital. The building also housed the city health department's Women with Infant Children program and a family planning clinic. In 1991, at a cost of nearly $200,000, Harris Methodist donated the building to the United Community Centers to continue operating the clinic.

Also in 1991, Harris Methodist began working with the Diamond Hill community to plan a clinic in their area. This year, construction will begin on the 20,000-square-foot facility, which also will be operated by the Tarrant County Hospital District.

Harris Methodist's support in taking health care to the public has helped many Tarrant County residents receive medical care and assistance right in their own neighborhoods.

The coo and sweet smile of a healthy baby. That's the dream of every expectant mother. But often, with little or no prenatal care and regular visits with a doctor throughout pregnancy, both mother and baby could face an uncertain future.

A healthy pregnancy begins early, although according to March of Dimes statistics, 1 out of 3 women today still do not get adequate prenatal care. What's more alarming is that 1 out of 4 receive no prenatal care.

In response to this community need, and in an effort to help pregnant women gain early and continuous access to prenatal care, last year, Harris Methodist Health System joined with the March of Dimes, Mrs. Elizabeth Armstrong and the Tarrant County Hospital District to create a new program called "MomMobile."

The MomMobile offers free transportation to clinic or doctor visits, the resources of a community outreach nurse, and a variety of counseling, education and social services assistance. Transportation is provided in a special 15-passenger van, available on weekdays to take women to and from prenatal visits with their personal physician or at one of the neighborhood hospital district clinics around Tarrant County. New moms can continue to schedule a ride when it's time for their babies' infant check-ups and immunizations.

Designed to serve areas of our community with the highest infant mortality rate and prenatal health care needs, the program currently focuses on women in southeast Fort Worth and north/rural Tarrant County.

During its first month of operation last April, the MomMobile took 86 trips to and from doctor visits. There's currently no other program like the MomMobile in the country. It is hoped that Tarrant County's MomMobile will be used as a model for Dallas and other cities and encourage more programs that combine several resources from one community.

Harris Methodist has made a commitment to invest in prenatal care because the cost we all pay for seriously ill infants is much higher later. We all benefit from a community of healthier babies.

Report No. 6
BUILDING THE HEALTHIEST COMMUNITY IN AMERICA

There are many needs in our community. Three areas of top concern today are cancer care, immunizations and infant mortality. In 1992, Harris Methodist Health Foundation began taking steps to address these problem areas.

The foundation's principle purpose is to assess and address community health status and needs. To assist with this mission, Harris Methodist Health System's Board of Trustees authorized donating 10 percent of all excess revenues over expenditures to the health foundation for the next three years.

In November, the foundation introduced the new Harris Associates program, giving employees an opportunity to participate in this mission as well. Since then, more than 850 Harris Methodist employees have responded by pledging more than $91,000 and more than 8,400 volunteer hours. Many employees accepted the challenge to extend their care beyond the hospital walls and donated both time and money. Each donation will be directed toward the three targeted areas of need -- infant mortality, cancer or immunization.

With everyone's help, Harris Methodist Health System is taking important steps to make a difference in our community's health care. One step at a time, Harris Methodist is helping to build a solid foundation and create a better tomorrow for its neighbors.

Report No. 7
THE COST OF A STRONG PARTNERSHIP

As a not-for-profit health care system, Harris Methodist has a responsibility in how it uses revenues which exceed expenses at the end of each fiscal year. To qualify for tax-exemption, Harris Methodist must also meet the requirements of a 501(c)(3) charitable organization.

Fulfilling these requirements qualifies Harris Methodist for exemption and state income tax, franchise tax, hospital property taxes, sales, and excise taxes. Harris Methodist is also qualified to receive tax-deductible contributions and issue tax-exempt bond financing. Harris Methodist is still required, however, to pay income tax on unrelated businesses, ad valorem tax on certain real estate and some sales tax.

If Harris Methodist had been required to pay full taxes in 1992, the total bill would have been about $25 million. However, through reinvestment into the community, education, research, outreach, hospital services and equipment, improvements for better patient care, bad debt (charges the hospital is unable to collect), and charity care (service at no compensation for low-income patients meeting eligibility requirements), Harris Methodist's contribution to its community instead totalled $44 million.

Of the 1992 total, Harris Methodist provided $19.5 million in charity care and wrote off another $19 million in bad debt. A great majority of bad debt was for patients who were financially unable to pay their bills. Neither of these two totals reflects the amount of financial burden the system bears providing care through Medicaid.

In addition to contributing to the overall quality of life in our community, Harris Methodist uses significant resources each year to increase health care access to the needy -- a responsibility Harris Methodist takes seriously in its role as community partner.

OFFICE OF CHURCH RELATIONS

Harris Methodist Health System continues the services offered by its Department of Church Relations. This entire ministry is an outreach of love and service to all the districts and churches in our Conference. This office offers many services, chief of which is assisting in fund raising and development projects.

Since the start of this program some thirty-five budget campaigns have raised nearly twenty-two million dollars for those churches. It is hoped that, in the years ahead, these efforts can help strengthen the financial position of our Conference and deepen our total sense of "Partnership with God".

METHODIST HOME
Report No. 1

Against immense difficulties, most children in America arrive at adulthood full of hope and promise. Most parents are managing--often with scarce resources and many sacrifices--to make sure our children have the guidance and opportunities they need to prepare for the future.

And yet, we are seeing the results of neglect in our school dropout rate, our rising tide of child abuse, our record-high crime. Juvenile arrests during the last ten years increased by 34% in Texas, as juvenile arrests decreased by 12% nationwide. Since 1981 arrests of Texas juveniles for violent crimes has risen by 98%, compared to an 8% increase nationwide.

Methodist Home, accredited by the Council on Administration and carrying the EAGLE recognition by the United Methodist Association of Health and Welfare Ministries is committed to protect, support and enhance the lives of children, youth and their families.

The Home provided 3,661 additional days of care over the prior year. Through our affiliation with the conference we are dedicated to be a part of the helping ministry of your church with troubled children and hurting families.

How You Can Help

1. Promote Methodist Home December Christmas Offering in each local church.
2. Reaffirm the defense and protection of rights and privileges of children needing care by someone other than their parents, and uphold the principle of licensing agencies, for purposes of caring for and placing children, to protect minimum standards of care for every child in the care of other persons.
3. Pastors are encouraged to contact Methodist Home regarding child placement needs. Call the Methodist Home Services Office located at 1111 Herring Avenue, Waco, Texas 76708, 817-756-0181.
4. Contact Mr. Ty Herring, Vice President for Development of Methodist Home when individuals indicate consideration of Methodist Home in making their long-range giving and charitable estate planning.
5. Please do not hesitate to call upon Rev. Tom Strother, Vice President for Church and Community Relations, or Dr. Jack Kyle Daniels, President, for any needs you might have related to Methodist Home.

"A new commandment I give unto you, that you love one another" John 13:34

Everyday, at the Methodist Mission Home, I see evidence that United Methodists have taken seriously the commandment of our Lord to love one another. This love is evident in what our staff gives and receives from our clients, and it is evident in the support which United Methodists give to the ministry of care. The following is a brief report on the ministries you support at the Methodist Mission Home.

SOUTHWEST MATERNITY CENTER

Southwest Maternity Center is placing more children in adoption than has been the case for several years. In 1992, 76 infants were placed with adoptive parents. We continue to serve birth mothers, infants in need of adoption, and couples seeking to adopt a child. We continue to hold orientation meetings across various cities. We are holding approximately 35 orientation sessions per year for potential adoptive parents. We have been pleased to hold these in United Methodist Churches in each of the seven relating annual conferences and at the Mission Home.

SOUTHWEST CENTER FOR THE HEARING IMPAIRED

The number of persons served by SCHI has dramatically increased over the last year with the addition of an off-campus Transitional Services Program. SCHI has gained national attention as a model for serving-low functioning persons who are deaf. Numerous groups from throughout the United States have come to visit our campus in order to learn more about serving the special needs of this population.

SOUTHWEST CENTER FOR COMMUNITY RE-ENTRY

This is a ministry for persons who have survived a traumatic head injury. This special service has proven to be a great addition to the ministries of the Methodist Mission Home and is serving an entirely new group of persons in need.

Worship and Bible study for all clients is provided weekly, and an all campus worship service (staff and clients) is held monthly.

Tour groups are welcome to visit the campus ... please contact Pam Perkins at: 1-800-284-0418 to arrange a time.

The New Visions for the Next Century Campaign is over the goal! The initial goal for the New Visions for the Next Century Campaign was 1.8 million dollars, and at the end of December 1992 total gifts and pledges were in excess of 1.9 million dollars. This enabled us to begin the capital improvement projects on the campus.

The deaf students dormitory has been completely remodeled. This work has been going on for some time in stages, as it was done with the students still living in the dormitory. Student rooms were the first project to be completed and work is nearing completion on the common areas, rooms and offices.

We are hopeful of raising additional funds so that we will be able to break ground for a new Student Activity/Physical Therapy Center in the Fall 1993. This new student facility, at a cost of $550,000.00, will enable us to expand our services to include physical therapy, and it will also become a social center for the campus for recreational and physical conditioning needs. It will also provide us, for the first time, a facility to house youth work groups who wish to come to the campus, and will be a meeting room for adoption orientations and other program related meetings.

We now anticipate reaching our secondary goal of 2.6 million dollars, and, of course, need new special gifts to reach it. If you would like more information on how you can participate in the New Visions for the Next Century campaign, please contact Larry Watson at: 1-800-284-0410.

How the Central Texas Conference can help the Methodist Mission Home:

1. Refer persons who are in need of our services.
2. Take an annual special uffering, using our materials, place the Methodist Mission Home on your budget, and distribute the materials in some special way.
3. Bring groups to tour the campus in San Antonio.
4. Urge classes and groups to take on special projects to provide for ongoing special needs, such as the Share and Caring Fund for residents who lack personal funds for clothing, etc.

Thanks to Bishop Joe Wilson who is a member of our board of trustees and to all of the other Central Texas Conference members who are current trustees of the Methodist Mission Home. These include:

Mr. Gerald Alley — Ms. Joan Gaspard — Mr. Tom Hoskins
Dr. Minnie Lee Lancaster — Dr. Don Pike

WESLEYAN HOMES, INC.
Report No. 1

Over 30 years ago, Wesleyan Homes was created by the Central Texas Annual Conference to "provide sheltered care for aged persons." However, the ministry of Wesleyan Homes goes far beyond just providing shelter and care.

Caring for older adults is not a popular cause. We all like to respond to the needs of children, and when we do we believe we are building for the future. However, their future and our future, God willing, is old age. For our children's sake and for our society's sake, the church must find ways to put meaning and value back into being old.

There is a great difference between warehousing older adults for a profit and providing Christian retirement services. It is ministry to keep the church connected with its elders in the faith. It is ministry to combat loneliness, depression, insecurity, and fear. Older adults are prey to feelings of uselessness, and poor self-image once age and disabilities force them to disconnect from their traditional support systems. Rebuilding a life style when society at large does not have any use for older adults is a legitimate work of the church. This work is to rebuild community, reconnecting older adults to the body of Christ.

Church ownership provides commitment, stability, and purpose. Many for profit retirement communities have been sold and resold. Older adults need and deserve a stable future. Caring for people, meeting human needs is not best organized as a business venture. Caring for people is the business of the church.

1992 was an eventful year as Wesleyan Homes completed its 30th. year of providing ministry to older adults on behalf of the Central Texas Conference. Both homes are operating at capacity with 90 residents in the Retirement Home and 180 residents in the Nursing Home. Complete renovation of the heating and air conditioning systems at the Retirement Home were completed. The basement of the Retirement Home has been completely remodeled and now provides a wonderful activity area including billards, shuffleboard, exercise area, and craft room. A new 24 passenger van was purchased making it possible to have a van available at both facilities.

Two other projects are in process. The original fourth floor infirmary area of the Retirement Home is being renovated into four large apartment with full kitchens. There has been great demand for this type of accommodation. This project should be completed by June 1, 1993. Plans are being drawn to build new day rooms on the two original wings of the Nursing Homes. These day rooms are made possible by a gift from the Ava Nell Ogle Estate. The day rooms will provide a wonderful area for residents to enjoy while still being near the nurse's stations. These day rooms will also allow all of our residents access to secure outside courtyards. We are currently seeking gifts to furnish the dayrooms and landscape the outside courtyards.

1992 also brought a significant increase in the number of persons receiving charitable care. The ever rising cost of medical care coupled with residents earning lower interest on their savings has created a greatly increased demand for assistance. Over 40% of Wesleyan Homes residents now receive some type of charitable assistance.

We are thankful that the resources have been available to provide for these needs. However, the amount of charitable care we can provide is dependent upon the gifts we receive. We encourage every church in the Central Texas Conference to participate in the Mother's Day offering for Wesleyan Homes, and join with us in providing this important ministry to older adults.

Report No. 2
SUMMARY OF THE DEVELOPMENT PLAN

Wesleyan Homes, Inc. is required by its Articles of Incorporation to get conference approval to incur additional debt for establishing new facilities for older adults.

Demographic studies of the Tarrant County area show a market need for a retirement community in West Arlington. Direct mail market surveys confirm the interest of area seniors.

The Long Range Planning Committee of Wesleyan Homes was expanded to include interested Tarrant County United Methodists and a potential site was selected.

The Wesleyan will secure an option on the property that will give the Board of Trustees of Wesleyan Homes one and one half years to raise the money to buy the land.

A fund raising consultant will help the Wesleyan Board's Public Relations and Development Committee evaluate the likelihood of success of a capital campaign for this project.

A fund raising campaign will be conducted to raise 25% of the project cost. The project will not proceed until or unless this is accomplished.

The project will be marketed until a minimum of 60% of the units are reserved with deposits. The project will not proceed until or unless this is accomplished.

When the fund raising goal and the marketing goal has been met, the final approval for financing will be sought from tax-exempt bond underwriters. The underwriters will not authorize the issuance of bonds until they are convinced of the soundness of the project and that there are sufficient reserves. The project will not proceed until or unless this is accomplished.

Over its' 30 year history, Wesleyan Homes has grown to include a 96 unit retirement home and a 180 bed licensed nursing facility. Wesleyan Homes employees over 175 persons and has an annual operating budget in excess of $5 million. The Board of Trustees of Wesleyan Homes is elected by the Central Texas Annual Conference. Financially, Wesleyan Homes is in sound condition.

PRELIMINARY STUDY

It has long been an expressed desire of the Central Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church for Wesleyan Homes to pursue building facilities in Tarrant County. In response to this request, Wesleyan Homes commissioned Greystone Communities to do a demographic study of the need for older adult housing in the Tarrant County area. This study was completed in April of 1992. Pertinent facts from this study were:

Over the next five years the older adult population of Tarrant County will grow at a rate almost twice the national average.

Within Tarrant County, the area located between I20 and I30 in Arlington will grow at a rate of three times the national average, making this the primary market area.

Within the primary market area, there are 6,869 persons over age 70.

Within the primary market area, the three existing retirement communities are full with waiting lists.

There are no communities in the primary market area that offer a full range of services from independent living to full nursing care.

After reviewing these findings, the Board of Trustees of Wesleyan Homes authorized Greystone to take the next step in the study process. Greystone mailed 3,879 surveys to senior households age 70 and over in the primary market area. Pertinent facts from this study were:

9.1% of households responded.

60.1% of the respondents preferred a location in Arlington between I20 and I30.

69.3% felt sponsorship by the United Methodist Church would be a deciding factor in moving to the community.

64% said they would consider a move to a retirement community within five years.

87.7% wanted more information on the project.

This market survey confirmed the need for additional facilities in the Tarrant County area. To this end, the Board to Trustees of Wesleyan Homes presents the following Development Plan.

THE DEVELOPMENT PLAN - BUILDING LOCAL SUPPORT

The Long Range Planning Committee of Wesleyan Homes was expanded to include local persons who are involved in the local church and are interested in senior issues. This was the first step in assuring that Wesleyan Homes would be responding to local needs and designing facilities and services that met the needs of the seniors of Tarrant County. Wesleyan Homes can provide experience, expertise, and stability to the project but the success of the project will be predicated upon a strong local group of supporters being committed to the development of a retirement facility in their community.

Currently, Wesleyan Homes is negotiating an option to buy land on which to build in West Arlington. The site was chosen by the committee after careful analysis of available land, market interest and price. The terms of the option would give the Board one and a half years to raise the money necessary to buy the land and provide the down payment for the project. This strategy was adopted because it allows us to share concrete and detailed plans, including where and what would be built, with potential donors and residents, better equipping them to help us revise those plans to meet the communities needs.

After the site is confirmed the architect can develop a site plan, floor plans, artist renderings, and cost estimates. Next, Greystone will complete their contract by conducting focus groups, intensive small group interviews, to gain input from future residents on design, pricing and services, and to test marketing assumptions. A Financial feasibility consultant will be engaged to confirm the validity of the financial projections and the financing assumptions. The project will not proceed until or unless this is accomplished.

The Board will select a fund raising consultant firm to evaluate the potential of a capital campaign and then to help design and implement that campaign. When the successful completion of the fund raising campaign is in sight, work can begin on building model units and a sales office on the property. The project will not proceed until or unless this is accomplished.

A marketing program will be developed to pre-lease 60 to 70 percent of the proposed units before financing can be consummated and construction begun. This program will ensure that the project is not over built and that what is built is what people want. This pre-marketing will provide input on such issues as the right mix of one bedroom vs. two bedroom units. The project will not proceed until or unless this is accomplished.

Financing for this project will be by means of a tax exempt bond issue. Bond underwriters have been and will be consulted throughout the development process. Tax exempt bonds provide low interest fixed rate financing for terms up to thirty years. Underwriters will require an independent feasibility study, pre-marketing, reserve requirements, debt coverage ratio requirements, and other tests to check the soundness of the project. Their supervision helps to ensure the success of the project. The project will not proceed until or unless this is accomplished.

We believe the time is right to pursue this project in earnest. With a vote of confidence from the Central Texas Annual Conference, and the full support of the Tarrant County community, the older adults of Tarrant and surrounding counties will be provided with a caring, Christian community to meet their physical, spiritual, and emotional needs.

Committee On Shared Facilities

Proposed Programs:

1. Develop seminars
   Goal: Promotion of video and information on sharing facilities; create a brochure to be mailed out to every church in the conference; create handouts to be passed out during video showing (by request) at each church by presenters
2. Develop and train resource teams
   Goal: To enable churches that may be interested in sharing facilities to be able to do so more effectively and efficiently; to give them several options of sharing facilities that they may choose from
3. Fall University
   Goal: To obtain a speaker/trainer who is very knowledgeable not only in expertise but through experience on the value and rewards of sharing facilities with other groups in the community

The goals of the Committee on Shared Facilities are to identify churches that are presently sharing facilities in our conference; create a video of their ministries, and share this information with other churches that may be interested in sharing facilities; and educate those churches as to the different ways a church may share facilities.

For Fall University, 1994, we will provide a training session for the development of a resource team that will be available to the churches of our conference that are considering sharing facilities with a group(s) in their community. Those churches would view the video presentation followed by a lecture by a trained resource team. There are several modes of sharing facilities as outlined in the Manual On Shared Facilities.

A brochure will be created and mailed out to every church in the conference as soon as the video production is completed and resource teams have been trained. Target date is October, 1994.

The committee will continue to support, assist and be a source of guidance to all those churches presently involved in sharing facilities.

We have begun placing committee members in the board meetings and other activities of these ministries so we will be more involved and better informed about their work.

We are truly excited about the work of the agencies with which we work and we fully expect 1994 to be an extremely fruitful year.

As chairperson of the Urban Ministries Committee, I am a member of the Jurisdictional Urban Ministries Network. The Network has an annual meeting to share our common work and to network our services and resources. In November of 1992, the Network met in San Antonio, Texas. Our training event centered on the emerging Hispanic ministries and informed us concerning Hispanic culture and methodologies for Hispanic ministry. The seminar and meeting were very informational and motivational.

Finally, we are hoping to use Fall University as a means for equipping persons and churches for the task of urban ministry. There are splendid resources available to help with models for doing urban ministry. Over the next few years, we will be attempting to strengthen our efforts at ministry to the needs of our urban centers.

We solicit your prayers as we seek to give leadership in the church of our Lord Jesus Christ.

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry during 1992 continued the ministry and mission of the church with students on college campuses.

All campus units have increased the number of students being served in the past year. The Hill College project in Hillsboro, that was started by the United Christian Fellowship at Navarro College in Corsicana, has also grown. They have formed their own Board of Directors, started a building fund and are looking for property near the college.

The board concluded its report on the new distribution of apportionments for the five college campus ministry units. The campus ministry brochure has been put together and waiting for production.

Recipient of the 1992 Conference Merit Award was Chad Byas from Wortham United Methodist Church, attending Texas Wesleyan University.

A new board will work for the next four years on an internship program for campus ministry, helping units to upgrade or additions to present unit and expand campus ministry to other college campuses in our conference. All of this being part of a five year master plan.

I would like to thank the officers and members of the board of the last quadrennium for their hard work in looking to the future of Higher Education and Campus Ministry. Without this kind of support there would not be a Methodist presence on college and university campuses.

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Every year is a year of change, but this one is memorable in that regard. In May five members of the Perkins faculty will retire -- Fred Carney, Professor of Ethics, William K. McElvaney, LeVan Professor of Preaching and Worship, Richard Murray, Seneker Professor of Christian Education, Schubert M. Ogden, University Distinguished Professor Theology, and David Switzer, Professor of Pastoral Care. Their combined service in our community totals 139 years. We will miss them all.

A search is being conducted for Professor Murray's replacement; Professors William J. May and Charles Curran will combine to provide courses in Christian Ethics formerly taught by Mr. Carney. At current levels of enrollment in the M.Div program, we will not be required immediately to replace Bill McElvaney. Dr. Ellen Charry and Dr. Patricia Howery Davis are already in the positions formerly filled by Schubert Ogden and David Switzer. We are grateful to these persons for their years of dedicated service which have positively influenced so many of our lives, and for their contributions to Perkins.

Two current members of the faculty have been recognized by professional organizations. Victor Furnish is serving this year as President of the Society of Biblical Literature, and Joe Allen is just completing his term as President of the Society of Christian Ethics. William J. Abraham has been awarded a $100,000 grant from the Pew Trust. Professors Clifton Black and Danna Nolan Fewell are being reviewed for promotion to the rank of Associate Professor with tenure at Southern Methodist University. Dr. Michael Hawn joined the faculty in September as Associate Professor of Church Music. He is an outstanding church musician who has just completed a term as President of the Choristers Guild of America. Some of you were privileged to hear him during Minister's Week. He was formerly on the faculty at Southeastern Baptist Seminary in Wake Forest, North Carolina.

Major revisions have been made in the curriculum of the Master of Religious Education and Master of Sacred Music Degrees. These changes will strengthen both programs, and enable us better to make use of the strengths of the Meadows School of the Arts in our sacred music program.

Enrollment continues steady at 340. We currently have 252 M.Div students, 83% of whom are United Methodist; 22% of our students are persons of color; 40% are women. The options available to students for completing the intern requirement and the new schedule of evening classes have been well received.

We are currently seeking to raise endowments for the new Center for the Advanced Study of Evangelism, the Zan Holmes Diversity Scholarship for persons of color, and to construct the link between Selecman and Kirby Halls. When completed, this addition will enable us to make all our facilities fully accessible for physically challenged persons and will also provide thirteen thousand additional feet of much needed floor space. It is a three and a quarter million dollar project. Church wide giving to the Ministerial Education Fund was down in 1992. It performed at 78.97% of its apportioned amount. I urge your continued attention to this item in your budgets.

We are grateful to all of you for your continuing interest and support as Perkins seeks to carry out its mission on behalf of the Church.

James E. Kirby, Dean

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

I am pleased to comply with the 1988 Resolution from the Jurisdictional Conference requesting an annual report to each Annual Conference in the South Central Jurisdiction.

Several new academic initiatives for 1992-93 have strengthened our educational mission. Among them are:

* A new major and minor in international studies.

* A summer institute in Mexico as part of SMU's study abroad programs.
* A School of Engineering and Applied Science graduate program in hazardous and waste materials management, a response to the need for more expertise in environmental engineering.
* A new Bachelor's degree in Dedman College in environmental geology in response to industry demand for earth scientists who understand the environment.
* A new dual-degree undergraduate program in music and computer science offered by SEAS and Meadows School of the Arts.
* Opening of the Greer Garson Theatre, including facilities for the Southwest Film/Video Archives.
* Introduction of a new urban studies course in Dedman College with a major volunteer component: tutoring children in East Dallas; some students live in a Habitat for Humanity house in the neighborhood to provide round-the-clock mentoring to the children.

Our fiscal stability continues to be precarious, but we again anticipate a balanced budget for 1992-93. As our enrollment stabilizes, we will be able to make clear projections for balanced budgets for the next several years. We hope you will continue to send us your outstanding United Methodist Scholars!

The United Methodist Campus Ministry at SMU, under the able leadership of Rev. Greg Ligon, continues to be significant in United Methodist students' lives at SMU. The new apportionment passed by the Jurisdictional Conference in July 1992 is vital to our mission in serving United Methodist students.

SMU continues to make significant progress in a variety of areas. The 1992-93 year has been eventful and productive. During the Fall semester a task force I appointed focused on the issue of whether or not SMU should remain in Division I-A athletics. The task force, chaired by Dr. Leighton Farrell, Pastor of the Highland Park United Methodist Church, recommended that SMU remain in Division I-A athletics of the NCAA and the Southwest Conference. The Board of Trustees approved this recommendation at its meeting in December 1992. As part of the affirmation of staying in the Southwest Conference and Division I-A, the Mustang Club has agreed to raise 1.6 million dollars to ensure that athletics expenses do not drain academic resources. This will be a significant task, but the Mustang Club leadership has confidence it can be achieved.

On February 8, 1993, Ray L. and Nancy Ann Hunt (members of our Lovers Lane United Methodist Church in Dallas) announced a $25 million commitment to SMU to be used for scholarships. These scholars are to be students who have demonstrated both achievement in the classroom and high ideals through outstanding leadership in their schools and communities. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt have made it possible for a broader range of students to learn from and contribute to our University. We are extremely grateful for the Hunts' generosity.

We deeply appreciate your interest, gifts, prayers, and leadership, all of which strengthen our vision for SMU.

United Methodist Campus Ministry

What do "Friday Forum," "Takin'it to the Streets," "Club F.R.E.D.," "Exploration '92," "Crosstraining," "Stepping Out of the Comfort Zone," and "Hardcore B.S." have in common? They are all programs of the United Methodist Campus Ministry at Southern Methodist University designed to "prepare students to make a difference." As a newly funded ministry of the South Central Jurisdiction, UMCM at SMU is doing just that: preparing students to make a difference as Christ-centered disciples...on their campus, in their community and throughout their world.

SMU's United Methodist Campus Ministry is dedicated to starting where students are: accepting and understanding their needs during the transitional university years. Starting where students are finds staff and student leadership helping new students move into the residence halls, playing intramural volleyball, building a homecoming float, and helping students one-on-one or in small groups sort out questions concerning vocation, relationships and faith.

The UMCM Board of Directors, in its establishment of the ministry's mission and purpose, also recognized the importance of drawing students into a community where growth could occur. This commitment finds its fulfillment in a weekly Bible study promoted on campus as Hardcore B.S.* (*Bible Study). Each week 40-50 students gather for fellowship, prayer, singing and study of the scriptures. A junior student from Arkansas said, "Hardcore B.S. on Thursday nights acts as a release from the pressures of school. Greg teaches us how to apply what the Bible says to our own lives. He makes think without MAKING us think."

"Crosstraining" is a ministry developed by the UMCM staff as a result of their dedication to calling students to life-changing faith in Jesus Christ. Each spring a group of 12-15 students meet weekly to study the basics of the Christian faith and what it means to be a member of the Church in general and the United Methodist Church in particular. The multiplication of the ministry on campus is also seated here as students are equipped to share their faith and lead small groups. This fall four students are leading freshmen Bible studies in the residence halls and others are leading studies in fraternity and sorority houses.

UMCM also seeks to empower students to be spiritually equipped and hope-filled in their faith. This goal is met in a variety of ways in the weekly program and is also encouraged through participation in special programs on campus and through jurisdictional and general church programming. An active senior said, "The program and opportunities offered through UMCM has given me direction in finding my place in the world as I face the challenges of each new day." Students have participated in Exploration 1992, the church's program for those considering the call to ministry and others shared in Vision '93, a South Central Jurisdiction endorsed leadership conference, held on the SMU campus in January of this year.

The United Methodist Campus Ministry's mission of preparing students to make a difference would not be complete without a dedication to commissioning them to answer the call to discipleship, evangelism and service. Each week students are involved in urban ministry in West Dallas. They tutor, love and serve as mentors to hundreds of kids. Others serve in the Wesley Rankin Community Service's ministry through involvement in the exciting "brickmaking" project which will transform the residential community of SW Dallas. Still others are committed to serving beyond the local community as Mayterm 1993 will find a group of students ministering in the country of Panama through a Volunteers in Mission project.

The United Campus Ministry at SMU is a ministry of the South Central Jurisdiction and is staffed by Director, Rev. Greg Ligon and Interns, Kathryn Bennett and Jeff Jacob. Reestablished three years ago after 25 years with no full-time director, the ministry is an intentional effort to strengthen the ties between the university and the churches in the jurisdiction. In addition to campus programming, UMCM hosts over 1600 UM Youth in an annual Jurisdictional UMYF Day - Go for the Goal. Students are also involved in local church outreach where they lead youth events, participate in worship and teach Sunday school in area churches.

Preparing people to make a difference as Christ-centered disciples on their campus, in their community and throughout their world--the mission and ministry of the United Methodist Campus Ministry at Southern Methodist University! The staff, the board of directors and students would like to thank you for your commitment and support of this vital ministry.

SOUTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY
The "Hunkering Down" Syndrome

In a recent issue of Policy Perspectives, published by the Pew Higher Education Research Program, the editors said that "the instinctive response" of educational institutions to the call for reform in times of economic stress has been "to hunker down and weather the storm." "Hasn't history," they continue, "shown that economic decline and flagging public support are simply one turn in the tidal wash of events? Why not hold our breath and wait out the next turn? Our answer is simple: This time, those who hold their breath are likely to turn blue before higher education again feels secure in its claim to public support and trust."

This quotation says several things, namely that the country is currently undergoing a strong economic downturn, that this downturn correlates to a decline in general public confidence in higher education, that the tendency of higher education traditionally has been to "hunker down" rather than to reform itself in such situation, but that such a policy is not adequate for the present situation. I agree with all these observations.

On the High Road to Continuing Progress

At the same time that I agree with them, I feel that we at Southwestern began a process in the early 80s which has placed us in a unique situation in American higher education. We are one of the relatively small number of institutions which has improved itself significantly during the last decade. General economic decline has, in our case, been counteracted by developing an increased base of public support. We will not have to "hunker down" and reform our program and procedures. We have developed them realistically according to a master planning process, begun a decade ago, which we continue to refine. We do not find ourselves stuck in a ditch out of which we shall have to extricate ourselves but on the high road to continuing progress. The following achievements have been accomplished in the last decade:

* the number of degrees has been reduced from 9 to 4;
* an international studies program office has been established with a full-time director;
* the number of applications for admission has more than doubled;
* student enrollment has increased from just over 900 to just over 1200;
* SAT scores of freshmen classes have increased from the upper 900's to over 1100 (1116 this year);
* percentage retention of freshmen to graduation has increased from the low 50's to the low 70's;
* minority enrollment in the freshman class has almost tripled to 21.5% this year;
* the number of full-time equivalent faculty members has increased by a third, with the student to faculty teaching ratio just under 12 to 1 this year;
* approximately 95% of the permanent, full-time faculty have had their teaching load reduced from four courses each semester to three;
* faculty salaries have been raised from the mid-50 percentile range to the low 90's in the AAUP scale for institutions of our type;
* a new library addition has been constructed, and library holdings have increased 50%;
* we have instituted a non-scholarship athletic program appropriate for our type of institution;
* our endowment has increased over 300% to $150.7 million last June, and annual per student educational expenditures have increased over 100% to $17,658 last year;
* an academic mall and new theater addition have been completed;
* a computer science major has been established, computer labs constructed, every full-time faculty member supplied with an office computer, and administrative operations computerized.

These accomplishments are not those of an institution in decline or one in a holding pattern--but one which is alive and dynamic, and one which anticipates the future. The mission of the university is to provide an education which is value-centered, broad-based, and focused on the full development of the whole person to prepare each student for leadership within a global community.

Such an education provides benefits, which accrue both to the person, to society, and to the Church. A university education provides not only personal benefits by means of which an individual may develop a rich and satisfying inner life and prepare for a useful and rewarding career, but it also provides societal benefits accruing to the public interest as each rising generation assumes the responsibility for leadership.

TEXAS UNITED METHODIST COLLEGE ASSOCIATION

The Texas United Methodist College Association, consisting of the seven United Methodist colleges and universities in Texas, was founded in 1948 to serve as a bridge between the colleges and the church. The Association seeks to communicate the role, mission and value of the institutions as a vital part of the ministry of the church.

The United Methodist churches of Texas support the colleges by supporting the students! Huston-Tillotson College and Wiley College receive support through the Black College Fund apportionment, most of which is used for financial aid for students. All of the funds received by the other five institutions through the Texas Methodist College Fund are used for financial aid for students. This partnership of church and college enables each to fulfill its mission more fully.

Administrative costs are kept at a minimum. In September, 1992, Bishop Ben Oliphint became the executive officer, and Mrs. Mimms (Jean) Cleveland became secretary. Both work on a part-time basis.

"The biggest issue facing church-related colleges and universities in America right now is affordability. Period," says James A. Belvin, Jr., of Duke University. "Nothing else matters if parents can't find a way to enroll their young people here."

Annual conference apportionments play a critical role in this venture. Because of your caring spirit and generosity the following amounts of money were given to our colleges in 1992 for financial aid.

Lon Morris College	$138,040
McMurry University	165,920
Southern Methodist University	223,890
Southwestern University	163,965
Texas Wesleyan University	160,185

Our colleges are proudly related to the United Methodist Church. As institutions of Christian higher education, they explicitly support the life and faith of the church. They are an irreplaceable source of future leadership for the church and for society.

Bishop Ben Oliphint, Executive Director

TEXAS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

Highlights of the Past Year - A highlight of the past year was the long-awaited reinstitution of Chapel services. Three Bishops participated in the dedication of the Chapel on October 27. Funded by private donation, this program provides weekly services for students, faculty and staff, in addition to social and spiritual gatherings and outreach to neighboring communities. A house near campus has been renovated by religious life groups for meetings and social gatherings, and a spring break work trip to the Good Neighbor Settlement House in Brownsville, led by Chaplain Jeff Miller, provided another opportunity for students to realize the satisfaction of team effort for the benefit of others.

Other highlights included hosting our Willson Lecture Series presenter, Bishop Bevel Jones, III and Dr. John Wesley Cook, President of the Luce Foundation; the beginning of a campus Christmas tradition with the first annual Festival of Lessons and Carols and Lights, held in conjunction with the Polytechnic United Methodist Church; and the organization of Kaleidoscope, bringing together all campus groups to give them the common focus of community service and the education of our community on the ramifications of drug and alcohol abuse.

The inauguration of our seventeenth president, Jake B. Schrum, was planned and implemented as a community effort to focus on the responsibilities of each individual to give of their time and challenged the audience of almost 3,000 to recognize the problems around them and to take part in finding and implementing solutions.

Plans for the Future - All campus constituencies participated in the setting of goals and objectives to lead Texas Wesleyan into the 21st century. The acquisition of the Texas Wesleyan School of Law, providing the only legal education within a 200 mile radius, fits well with our mission while other goals identified are implementation of a weekend degree program and an MBA program. In addition, a campus facilities committee is reviewing future needs, among them a law school building and a science and humanities complex, and how those needs may be met.

Our admission staff brought the largest Fall class in 26 years, with 300 new students, and we continue to seek funds and resources to meet the growing needs of our growing campus community. We will continue to provide the opportunity for all our students to graduate with both a degree and a commitment to civic responsibility.

Recommendations Needing Conference Approval - Board of Trustees nominations are being formulated for approval by our Board at the April 16 meeting, and will be forwarded to the conference immediately thereafter.

Dr. Jake B. Schrum, President

COMMITTEE ON CAMPS AND ASSEMBLIES

The Camps and Assemblies Committee of the Central Texas Conference has witnessed another successful and effective year of ministry at Glen Lake Camp. Over 10,000 children, youth and adults used the facilities of the camp during 1992. This includes 2,500 children and youth during the summer. Glen Lake Camp continues to host numerous Central Texas Conference events such as the Harry Hosier Celebration and Single Adult retreats as well as youth and adult groups from local churches.

The accomplishments during 1992 include:

- the completion of the new cabin given by Cullen Turner, Sr.;
- the gift of the Avinelle McWhirter Ogle Chapel which is to be completed in the summer of 1993;
- the addition of a full-time food service director;
- new lighting on Silent Trail and at Vesper Point;
- and the payment in full of the loan from the Texas Methodist Foundation.

There is widespread interest in the construction of facilities that will enable the Camp to provide space for many groups in the coming years. Certainly, we are learning that adults as well as children and youth desire opportunities for growth in a retreat setting. The Camps and Assemblies Committee is committed to providing the experiences and the facilities to make that happen.

Michael McKee, Chairperson

Proposed Programs:

1. Summer Camp for children and youth
   Goal: To provide a minimum of eight weeks of residence camps and four weeks of off-site camps in 1994
2. Encourage the usage of Glen Lake Camp by Central Texas Conference groups and by the local churches of the Central Texas Conference
   Goal: To cooperate with various Central Texas Conference committees, boards and agencies and with the local church in providing retreats and facilities that will address the faith and missional needs of particular groups and individuals
3. Capital Improvement of Glen Lake Camp
   Goal: To continue securing funding to develop the master plan of Glen Lake Camp and to replace the existing utilities and sewer system and roads so as to make the construction of buildings possible.

Proposal for Glen Lake Camp Improvements

The Camps and Assemblies Committee of the Central Texas Conference and the Board of Trustees of Glen Lake United Methodist Camp, Inc. are requesting the Central Texas Annual Conference to authorize the Glen Lake United Methodist Camp, Inc. Trustees to borrow an amount not to exceed $850,000 for Glen Lake Improvements.

The following is a summary of costs:

I.	UTILITIES
	A. Water Lines	$148,859.00
	B. Sewer Lines	$109,668.00
	C. Gas Piping	$ 62,620.00
	D. Electrical		$151,700.00
	SUBTOTAL			$472,847.00
II.	ROADS		$ 51,971.00
III.	PARKING LOTS		$ 58,452.00
IV.	SITE DEVELOPMENT			$ 61,833.00
V.	FINAL PLANS		$ 37,800.00
VI.	CONSTRUCTION MANAGEMENT SERVICES (Approximately 10% of construction cost)		$ 50,000.00
	PROJECT ESTIMATE			$732,903.00
	CONTINGENCY (For cost increases and other expenses)		$117,097.00
	TOTAL			$850,000.00

The Texas Methodist Foundation proposes a loan amortized over a given period with the terms adjusted every five years. The interest rate will float 1/2% above the prime rate of Texas Commerce Bank, Austin. Currently, the interest rate is 7% with the floor for the interest rate on the loan being 4% and the ceiling 10%. During the initial five-year period, the payment would be fixed with the interest rate floating with the prime. The loan amount is $850,000.00.

The Camps and Assemblies Committee and the Board of Trustees of Glen Lake United Methodist Camp, Inc. are recommending a seven year amortization of the loan. Assuming that the interest rate were to remain at 7%, the total interest paid on $850,000 for seven years would be $227,615. Funds for payment of the loan will be apportioned to the churches on the decimal each year until the loan is paid in full.

Proposed Central Texas Conference Resolution

BE IT RESOLVED by the Central Texas Conference of United Methodist Church (the "Conference") that the Conference does empower the Trustees of Glen Lake United Methodist Camp, Inc. Trustees of Glen Lake Camp

The Board of Trustees at Glen Lake are responsible for legal matters and physical care and maintenance of buildings and grounds. With this responsibility in mind, the physical appearance of Glen Lake is dramatically changing. The master plan, which was accepted some two years ago, is now being implemented.

In December of 1992, it was announced by Dale and Hiram Smith, executors of the estate of Avinelle McWhirter Ogle, that funds for a new chapel were being contributed. The Avinelle McWhirter Ogle Chapel, with a seating of 300, is presently under construction. This structure will serve a long time need for Glen Lake.

The first of fifteen new cabins, donated by Mr. Cullen Turner, was finished in June of 1992 and occupied during the summer of 1992. This structure is proving to be a wise choice in materials and size.

The Memorial Fund for Rev. W. C. Taylor, Jr. has been used to create and define the Silent Trail and Vesper Point. A new lighting system has been installed. Landscaping and a new surface of the "Trail" is currently being installed.

The major assembly buildings (dining hall, recreation building, education building, and Siceloff building) have a fresh coat of paint. The heating and air conditioning system in Siceloff has been upgraded. New carpet has been installed in the Education Building. Some new grounds equipment has been purchased, including a new tractor.

The Trustees have reviewed the insurance program at Glen Lake. The Trustees will make an annual review of the insurance policies and will make periodic physical inspections of buildings and grounds to ascertain if values and coverage are consistent.

Since 1991, approximately 250 new trees have been planted to replace the live oaks lost to disease. This is an ongoing project with many individuals and congregations contributing. Your contribution to this program is encouraged, especially in clearing of underbrush and debris.

The infrastructure (sewer, water, electrical, and gas) of Glen Lake remains a critical problem. The infrastructure is fast approaching the end of it's physical and economic life expectancy.

COMMITTEE ON COMMUNICATION AND INTERPRETATION

In conference year 1992-1993, the Committee on Communication and Interpretation helped our conference tell its story in a variety of ways:

1. Funded a media collage and radio and billboard advertising promoting local church attendance. We placed billboard messages on I-30 in East and West Fort Worth, and commissioned a series of Hispanic radio spots composed by John and Anita Valles.

2. Sponsored Faith Focus, an interfaith TV program, aired by NBC-affiliated Channel 5, that reaches most of the conference area on Sundays at 6:30 a.m. Viewed by over 40,000 households weekly, this show was effectively hosted for three months by Dr. Luther Felder, pastor of Grace United Methodist Church, Arlington and Dr. John Fiedler, pastor of First United Methodist Church, Mansfield. Conference Communications Director Carolyn Stephens represented our conference periodically at sponsor meetings for this show which highlights Metroplex ministries.

3. Encouraged more local church editions of the United Methodist Reporter. In recognition that the UMR is our primary vehicle for communicating news of United Methodist Church ministries, UMR sales manager, Bruce Bailey joined committee chair, Dr. Fiedler in leading two district training events designed to make local churches aware of the ever increasing cost effectiveness of using the Reporter/Review for local church newsletter editions. As a result of this advocacy, five new churches have either adopted the Reporter or are in negotiation. Our UMR conference page, edited by Carolyn Stephens, enjoys a new, crisp layout as well as the periodic presence of Bishop Joe Wilson's column, Heart Thoughts. In addition, our committee funded eight free UMR subscriptions for each local church, mailed to designated leaders. This vital service alone accounted for $36,050 or 53% of our allotted budget.

4. Finally, in taking seriously our Book of Discipline mandate to "interpret the programs" of the church, we designed a consultation service to assist and advise conference committees on the production of specialized presentations. Featuring the video expertise of Richard LaBoon and Jeff Smith, as well as the print acumen of Carolyn Stephens, this consultation team already provided a Church Growth and Development video and a UMR insert on apportioned giving.

Using new technologies and time tested techniques, our committee will continue to listen to our conference constituents and tell our great story.

John F. Fiedler, Chairperson

Proposed Programs:

1. Meeting Expenses
   Goal: To conduct at least four cost effective committee meetings per year in order to communicate the message of the United Methodist presence in the Central Texas Conference and to interpret the benevolent programs of the United Methodist Church

3. Programs
   Goal: To provide the latest communication concepts and techniques to the conference communication network at Fall University and at district programs

6. United Methodist Reporter - CTC Edition
   Goal: To promote subscriptions to the United Methodist Reporter/Review and increase knowledge of connectional ministries by providing free annual UMR subscriptions for local church leaders in the conference, and to provide periodic free bulk mailings of conference edition to non-subscriber congregations
7. Media Coverage
   Goal: To present the presence of the United Methodist Church throughout the Central Texas Conference using radio, newspaper, highway billboards and other forms of media exposure in order to reach church members, unchurched population and others within the scope of our media concentration
8. United Methodist Communication Council
   Goal: To ensure access to the array of media services offered by Doug Cannon
9. Consulting Service
   Goal: To provide a consulting service to conference program agencies and committees for their specialized presentation needs in such areas as video, brochures and/or UMR edition inserts with all production costs to be borne by the requesting agency or committee
10. Miscellaneous Disbursement
    Goal: To cover contingency items

COMMITTEE ON ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS
Report No. 1

The Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns met several times in 1992 in an effort to assist local churches with funding for their ministries with the ethnic minority community. Our committee worked hard to make wise and sensitive decisions that effected the ministries of the churches that were seeking funds for their ministries. We were able to assist eight churches with their projects.

As the need for ministry among the ethnic minority community continues to expand in our conference the Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns (ELCC) has attempted to be sensitive to churches, agencies, and other ministries who are in ministry in the ethnic minority community. Every year ministries are in need of funds to continue their work and every year

ELCC does its best to assist these ministries with much needed funds. Every ministry requesting funds is evaluated by the committee on an individual basis before funds are granted or denied. Some of the elements that the committee looks at are past history of the ministry, its potential to help the ethnic minority community, and how the gospel is being proclaimed through the ministry. The committee faces the same frustration every year with more requests for funds than it can grant. Therefore, the committee evaluates the requests very carefully before granting or denying funds.

In 1993 ELCC will be working on setting guidelines and criteria for future funding which will allow applicants to review the funding guidelines and criteria before applying for funds. The committee will also be reviewing the present Comprehensive Plan and will make the necessary changes to bring the plan in line with the present vision and goals of our conference.

John Valles, Chairperson

Proposed Program:

Meeting Expenses

Goal: To financially assist and enable churches to minister to and with the Ethnic Minority Community and to monitor how the ministries are developing.

COMMITTEE ON EVALUATION AND BUDGET COORDINATION

With the change of name for this committee, there has been some change in the function and purpose. Evaluation and Budget will meet twice each year to review budget and evaluate programs of the various boards and committees of ACCOM. Meetings will be in February and November. To be more informed and to affect a better advocacy, each member of this committee will be specifically associated with one board or committee.

Plans for 1993 include development of a guideline to be used in the review of the work of ACCOM ministries. This will be done cooperatively with chairs of boards and committees, ACCOM staff and members of this committee. The purpose of such a guideline would be the establishment of standard criteria for review.

Dorothy Dahl, Chairperson

Proposed Program:

Review the programs and budgets of the various boards and committees of ACCOM

Goal: To accomplish our work with objectivity and to serve as advocates of the ministry of ACCOM

COMMITTEE ON PLANNING AND RESEARCH

The Planning and Research Committee sponsored a retreat last November to develop goals for this quadrennium. Dr. Lovett Weems of St. Paul School of Theology was our resource leader. The retreat was highly successful and from it came four basic areas that we would like to concentrate on: Spirituality, Evangelization, Rebuilding the Connection, and Justice. While each area will be worked on by various conference committees, Planning and Research intends to highlight one particular area per year. We are currently working on a brochure that will delineate these programs. The brochure will be available to everyone in the conference.

Gary Whitbeck, Chairperson

COMMITTEE ON THE AGENDA

The Annual Conference Committee on the Agenda welcomes Bishop Joe A. Wilson as he comes to his first session of the Central Texas Conference as presiding Bishop. He has been most helpful and a joy to work with during our planning sessions. We have great excitement and anticipation as we enter into a new era for our conference.

The Committee on the Agenda also commends all of the boards and agencies of the annual conference for their cooperation in the planning and scheduling of the reports.

As we look both to the past and the future, it is appropriate that our theme for these sessions and the coming year is "Rekindling Hope Through A New Vision".

The Annual Conference Committee on the Agenda recommends:

1. That the 1993 Per Diem Allowance be granted for each day in actual attendance at the conference for retired clergy, retired diaconal ministers, retired deaconesses, ministers' surviving spouses, pastors receiving a total salary of, or less than the minimum salary of the conference, students appointed to attend school and ministers on disability leave. The rate shall be $30 for those who reside within McLennan County and $60 for those who reside outside of McLennan County.

2. That the budget line item for the expenses of annual conference for 1994 be set at $26,000.

Future places for the meeting of the annual conference will be 1994 - Fort Worth, 1995 - Arlington and 1996 - Waco.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

I. The Central Texas Conference Archives

A. The Archives Depository collection consists of historical records and related items and information from local churches, organizations, institutions, and individuals related to the Central Texas Conference. The inventoried and registered data is housed in archival containers in a room provided through the generosity of Texas Wesleyan University and Doug Ferrier, Director of West Library. The Central Texas Conference Archival Records Collection is used by researchers within, as well as beyond, church-related settings.

B. Pre-1935 Circuit Church Records Project: Pat Allen
The names of hundreds of circuit churches have been lost because their individual names were not listed in the Journals of the conferences prior to 1935. Pat Allen is regularly adding the names of "lost" circuit churches to the archives records through her continuing research in source books of early Texas information and records data of the various Texas conferences. Pat also adds notes relating to the geographical location of the church and/or community and relevant facts about the development or demise of the area.

C. Parish Partners Project: Pat Allen
A compilation of abstractions of obituary information relating to Conference members and spouses, 1866-1992. References for the compilation are the typed Minutes of the Northwest Texas Conference, Journals of the Central Texas Conferences, and the General Minutes of the United Methodist Church and its predecessor organizations, the Methodist Episcopal South, the Methodist, and the Evangelical United Brethren Churches.

D. Fall University: September 11, 1992 (Saturday) Morning Session: Local Church Records: A Charge to Keep Afternoon Session: Local Church Records: Beyond Beginning

E. Local Church Annual Historical Up-Dates:
Annual up-date forms are sent each November to the District Superintendents for distribution to local church pastors. The forms are completed by the historian, pastor, or secretary. The forms are returned by the District Superintendent to Archives in January and provide valuable documentation to researchers of records.
1992 Historical Up-Dates received from the following:
Brownwood: Charles McClure
Waxahachie: Tim Russell
Weatherford: Louis Shambeck

F. Indexing of Local-Church History books: Estill Allen
Very few of the local-church history books received in Archives have an index of any kind, making research in them a long and tedious process. Estill Allen, a retired pastor of the Conference, has taken on the task to remedy this problem. To date, he has indexed over sixty of the history books, making the information in each book much more accessible.

G. A Sampler of Accessions of particular or unusual interest received since last Annual Conference:
1. Miscellaneous publications and literature of the church, 1860's-1940's

2. German-language records of the Southern German Conference, district conferences, and local churches
3. Records and inquiries about early Texas Methodist-related preachers
   A few names: Elisha Copeland, Smith County, 1850's; Edward A. Stocking, 1860's; Benjamin Dorman Brooks, died age 23, Parker County, 1860's; John Plowman Locker, Joseph Lafayette Price, George Wesley Lantrip, Jonathan Albert Bittick, and Pleasant Tackitt, Central Texas area, 1870's; John c. King and Erasmus G. Brewer, 1880's and 1890's
4. Twentieth-century pastoral records received have included:
   Personal Records/Papers: Rev. H.M. Hopkins, whose career spanned over 50 years, two Methodist denominations, and numerous districts and local churches, 1912 to 1960's.
   Personal Records/Papers: Rev. J.A. Walkup, pastoral career from the 1920's to the 1960's. Particularly notable for references to the Church and World War II.
   Printed Sermons: Rev. Gaston Foote, 1956-1974

The archival records of the Central Texas Conference reach far beyond the confines of container and depository, beyond Conference and state, beyond restrictions of time and space to give to all who ask the wisdom and the guidance of persons whose records have ben left to us. Full-circle, without end nor beginning, voices from the past to amplify the shaping of our todays and our tomorrows. Save those records!

II. The Central Texas Conference Commission on Archives and History

The Commission on Archives and History held its annual meeting on November 14, 1992 at the Central Texas Conference Archives which is located in the Eunice and James L. West Library at Texas Wesleyan University. The members were acquainted with the activities, programs, and responsibilities of the Commission. Mrs. Jean H. Traster, conference archivist, provided information on the history and work of the archives. The Commission desires to serve the church through the following programs

A. Training for Local Church Historians

Two classes/workshops which cover the basic responsibilities of the local church historian will be offered at Fall University on September 11, 1993. Both classes will be taught by Mrs. Jean Traster.

B. Oral History Project for Retiring Clergy and Spouses

This continuing project involves the tape recording of biographical information of retiring clergy and spouses and recollections of their ministry. A sermon of the retiring members of the clergy is also on the tape. The Rev. John C. Johnson is responsible for this project.

C. Local Church Annual Historical Up-Dates Project

Forms of the annual historical up-date are sent every November/December to each district superintendent for distribution to the local church pastors. The forms are to be completed by the local church historian, or in the absence of such a person, by the pastor and/or church secretary. The forms are to be returned to the district superintendent in January for forwarding to the conference archives. The up-dates provide details of records, projects, activities, and building construction, renovation, and improvement that are not recorded elsewhere. The forms have proven to be very valuable to researchers of local churches. The Rev. John C. Johnson is responsible for this project.

D. Heritage Sunday Celebration

"Heritage Sunday shall be observed on April 23, the day in 1968 when The United Methodist Church was created by the union on The Evangelical United Brethren Church and The Methodist Church, or the Sunday following that date. It falls during Eastertide, the season in which we remember the Resurrection and triumph of our Lord. Heritage Sunday calls the Church to remember the past by committing itself to the continuing call of God." (from ¶ 275.1, The Book of Discipline, 1992)

The General Commission on Archives and History develops themes and resource booklets for the observance of Heritage Sunday. Information concerning these resource materials will be provided to pastors through the conference coordinated mailing. Dr. T. Bradford Willis is responsible for this project.

E. Locating Historical Conference Journals

This project involves locating journals/minutes for conferences of The Methodist Church and The Evangelical United Brethren Church and their predecessors which relate to the congregations in the geographical area of the Central Texas Conference. The Rev. Tom Ridlehuber and Mrs. Jean H. Traster are responsible for this project.

F. State Historical Markers for Historic Congregations and/or Historic Church Buildings

Information on the application process for an Official Texas State Historical Marker awarded by the Texas Historical Commission can be obtained from Dr. T. Bradford Willis.

G. Collecting Books and Pamphlets on the History of Congregations within the Central Texas Conference

III. The Central Texas Conference Commission on Archives and History Relationship Beyond the Annual Conference

A. The Texas United Methodist Historical Society

With representative membership from the six Annual Conferences of Texas and the New Mexico Annual Conference, this organization welcomes all who are interested in the history of United Methodism and its predecessors.

The Texas United Methodist Historical Society, the Historical Society of The United Methodist Church, and the South Central Jurisdiction Committee on Archives and History are sponsoring an observance of the 25th anniversary of the 1968 Uniting Conference held in Dallas, which brought into existence The United Methodist Church. The observance will be held on April 23-25, 1993 in Dallas.

B. The Historical Society of The United Methodist Church

IV. Continuing Commitment of the commission on Archives and History to The Central Texas Conference

A. Stem the Loss of Records from Merged and Discontinued Congregations and Encourage Local Church Assertive Involvement in the Preservation of Records
B. Preserve the Records of the Organizations and Offices of the Annual Conference and the Districts
C. Preserve the Records of Clergy and Laity as They Relate to the Conference
D. Store Older Records of Local Churches if Their Own Facilities are Not Sufficiently Secure

"No generation that forgets its indebtedness to the past is likely to transmit to the future any worthy heritage. It is for this reason that the preservation of church records and the writing of church history are recognized as an obligation of primary importance. How else can the people of a later generation become acquainted with the adversities and toils and achievements of those who went before them."

Bishop William C. Martin
Resident Bishop, Central Texas Conference
1948-1964

CABINET COMPOSITE REPORT

Grace and peace to you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Bishop Wilson, members of the Central Texas Annual Conference and guests, I greet you on behalf of the Cabinet on the occasion of the 127th annual conference since the first organization of our conference in Waxahachie, Texas, the 25th annual conference since we became the United Methodist Church in 1968 and the 24th since the union of the Central Texas Conference and the former West Texas Conference of the Central Jurisdiction. In just that sentence you can see the transitions we have been through as we have traced our history of Methodist excitement across this portion of our great state of Texas. The only thing that is constant in this world it seems is change itself. That is certainly the case in the society in which we live today.
In the midst of any change it is our relationships with one another in our Lord Jesus Christ that lead us through the transitions. We are in a new day, let us give thanks and be glad in it.

One of the elements of a new day in our conference this year is a new relationship with a new bishop and a new first lady of the Conference. In these nine short months Bishop Joe A. Wilson has truly become our chief pastor and shepherd as he has traversed our conference and spent quality time with many churches in every district. To date he has been in 174 of our churches, visiting for at least an hour with many lay persons and listening intently to their concerns and visions. And he will continue this pilgrimage until he has visited in every local church in the Conference.

Through this process we have already seen his grace and poise, his warmth and attitude of listening to everyone. We have seen his heart and mind work as he has come to know us by name and know our situations as well. We have experienced how quickly he can get to the core issues and how he can challenge us in love and with grace. We have seen how his decisiveness can be a model for us and help us reach resolution in difficult circumstances. The office of Bishop suits him well as he helps us unite to move forward in the work of God's kingdom. He has shown us where his heart is as he has shared with us in print and in person, as he has brought the first woman district superintendent onto our cabinet and has now brought a second African American into the appointive cabinet, as he has made the director of Church Growth and Development a part of the appointive cabinet, as he has challenged us as leaders to walk the streets of our cities and share life, resources and presence with the poor and homeless. We thank God for our new bishop.

And we give special thanks for his wife, Zoe, who has befriended us and affirmed us and has also come to be a leader among us in her own right. Her warmth, commitment, spiritual depth, graciousness and willingness to share herself with us has created a place for her in our lives.

Bishop, we are a unique conference and it is our covenant relationships that exist on so many levels in our conference that have kept us moving forward and is the mark of our uniqueness. We are a conference that emphasizes relationships over issues and structure. Our conference is people-centered, Gospel-oriented and the work of the Conference is relational in nature. That is what was reflected in the study produced by your cabinet on the nature and function of the superintendency in the Central Texas Conference, which is printed in your preliminary reports on page 69. That document outlines a number of the relationships that constitute the unique work of the superintendency in the Central Texas Conference. Let me take this opportunity to share some of the relationships that make us unique as a conference and that help us move forward in the work of God's kingdom.

The first is the relationship with the laity. This is the first and primary level of ministry for all Christians as we become a part of the work of the Body of Christ, the Church. The work of the laity is carried forward in a number of relationships within the structures of the Conference through the Board of Laity, the United Methodist Women, the United Methodist Men, and in every level of the organization of our conference. Laity are the key to the work of the local congregations of our conference as well as all levels of our work together as a conference.

One of the hallmarks of our conference is our continued growth. In the decade of the 80's overall membership grew by 11.2%; worship attendance grew by 15.5%; Church School attendance grew by 9%, and financial stewardship grew by 88.5%, as we increased per capita expenditures from $157.78 to $297.46. And that growth continues into the decade of the 90's. Lyle Schaller's hunch about our conference is on target when he suggests that this is a conference whose environment encourages the development of large churches. In the decade of the 80's our conference went from 24 churches of 1000+ members to 38 churches of 1000+ members.

One of the most promising statistics in terms of our relation to the people in the pew is the number of professions of faith. Throughout the decade of the 80's, professions of faith grew from 1860 per year in 1980 to 2136 per year in 1990, an 11.2% increase which has continued in 1991 to 2310, an 8% increase and 2370 in 1992, a 2.6% increase. Through April of this year, we have already received 674 persons on profession of faith as we move toward a further increase in this crucial aspect of our labor in the vineyard. Please join me in celebrating this growth in God's kingdom as we stand to sing the Doxology.

Let us pray. We thank you, God, for all your children and for the privilege of joining you in their lives. We thank you for those who have professed faith in you over the centuries and have gone before us in the faith. Keep us faithful, O God, in reaching out to those who are seeking to know you. Help us find your presence in their lives and invite them into the family that is already their own and who loves them. We seek to be faithful in this ministry so the kingdom may be a reality here and now in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

We do not give thanks for numbers. We give thanks for people; people who have brought so much of themselves into this part of God's family we call the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church. We know that these have come in large part because a lay person, a friend, a relative invited them to come. We give thanks for the laity and the relationship of love and openness they reflect to the Conference.

Another level of relationship is in programming. This particular level is most ably served by our Annual Conference Council on Ministries. The myriad of resources and personnel offered by this body is too large to enumerate here. Let me just make reference to one area that has surfaced this past year that your cabinet believes will be a springboard for great things in the future development of the Conference. This is in the area of visioning which has been undertaken by the Committee on Planning and Research under the ACCOM.

In November this committee called together a number of persons from across the Conference under the leadership of Lovett Weems, the president of St. Paul Seminary in Kansas City. Out of that retreat has come one of the finest vision statements we have encountered. It is before you at this Annual Conference.

There are four areas under the general vision in that document including spirituality, evangelization, rebuilding the connection, and justice. It is interesting how these four areas work together.

In a recent Newscope the editors nominated Glide Memorial U.M.C. in San Francisco for the distinction of being the fastest growing church in Methodism. Glide Memorial grew by 844 members last year. This church and its pastor, Cecil Williams, are well known for the social justice ministries they perform. In the Newscope article Rev. Williams is quoted as saying, "About four years ago, Glide began to deal with recovery in the area of substance abuse. We discovered that what was needed was spirituality, and I said, 'My God, that's what the church is about.' So we emphasize spirituality in every act we engage in."

In another issue of Newscope Martin Marty, the church historian, is quoted as saying, "The genius of the founder of Methodism could be found in three aspects of his life and ministry: 1) the experience of a warm heart; 2) an ability to use structure to form support groups; and 3) an understanding of the need to spread Scriptural holiness in an effort to fight for justice." Marty said that United Methodists can get two of three, but not all three.

Your Cabinet believes the Central Texas Conference is unique in that it seeks to get all three through our emphasis on relationship. And we believe this vision document is an excellent step in that direction because we feel that the four- fold vision emphasizes all three aspects of Wesley's genius that Marty outlined as well as our own unique contribution as a conference.

Your Cabinet has already begun implementation of the vision document in our work as we have begun to model justice through direct, personal ministries with the poor; as we have begun to develop alternative models for evangelization; as we have begun to develop plans for two new Central Texas Conference Hispanic churches and expansion of other Hispanic ministries working with the Commission on Church Growth and Development and the Inter-conference Committee on Hispanic Ministries; as we have emphasized and celebrated professions of faith in this report and through other means; as we have sought to give a face and a celebrative attitude to apportionments through the apportionment fair in each district; as the appointive cabinet and extended cabinet have developed plans for itineration into all the districts and as we develop plans for each area of our responsibility in this vision and as we offer ourselves in cooperation with all groups, committees, boards, commissions and agencies in the implementation of this vision. We affirm our relationship to this vision and to each of you as we seek to fulfill this vision together.

We feel an additional word is called for concerning apportionments. Part of our uniqueness as a conference is our commitment to meet our apportionments every year of our existence. We are one of only three conferences across the United Methodist Church that did this last year. We meet our goal to pay our portion of the general church's ministry not simply because it is our duty, but because of the special covenant relationship we have with the whole Body of Christ, with the poor in all nations, with all God's children everywhere. We do it because we are brothers and sisters of United Methodists everywhere and we believe fervently that as we join hands together we can do all things in the name of the One who strengthens us for service.

Another level of relationship is in the area of the various qualifying processes for ordained and diaconal ministry in our conference. We are a unique conference in that over the years we have sought to develop the finest procedures and processes to enable persons not just to jump through hoops on the way to personal goals, but to discover clues, resources and helps to enable their ministry throughout their lives as a part of the representative ministry. Our laity have played a key role in this relationship as they have joined us in these processes.

This year the Board of Ordained Ministry, Cabinet and other key bodies have worked together to produce a report on clergy morale issues which, as did the Cabinet report on the nature and function of superintendency, grew out of last year's Structure Study Committee report. We give thanks for a board that has struggled with integrity with a complex issue, and we affirm their recommendations and will seek to address the issues raised there.

We encourage all clergy, as you consider this report and as you review the section of the vision statement that calls for a clarification of the appointive process and a communication of rationale involved in the appointive process, to remember that there cannot be any simple, one, two, three enumeration of criteria that if followed will make you successful in ministry. Rather, your Cabinet will seek to outline the process in such a way that we will emphasize what makes our conference unique. That is, we seek to be person-centered, Gospel-oriented and to do our work in covenant relation to one another. Remember the symbol of the Body of Christ is not a ladder but a cross. And, remember what was expressed in the paper on itineration prepared by the Cabinet last year: Itineration is not simply moving from place to place in order to move up the ladder. Rather, itineration is being sent to meet particular missional needs in specific mission settings, living out of the covenant relationship you have with the whole annual conference. Your Cabinet covets your prayers for us in this important task of outlining the appointive process in a clear and rational manner in the months to come.

Your Cabinet has also worked this year with the Board of Ordained Ministry to implement the Sexual Harassment Policy developed by the Board of Church and Society and adopted by the 1992 Annual Conference. Just last month we completed the final step in the implementation of this policy and feel that its various components are now in place.

There are many other relationships in our great conference, including bodies responsible for property, our various boards of trustees, and finance, our Council on Finance and Administration, Board of Pensions and others. Your Cabinet wishes to affirm the work of these bodies also because they too reflect what makes our conference unique. Time and again we have seen them respond to the needs of people and program as they have cared for facilities to make ministry possible; as they have brought fiscal responsibility and increased the level of trust in our conference and enabled increases in our stewardship of what God has given us.

This year we have seen our own Glen Lake Camp continue to grow by paying off indebtedness and by initiating new building projects and daring to challenge us to help them build an infrastructure that will be the foundation of greater ministries in the future at our camp.

We have witnessed our Council on Finance and Administration, our Board of Pensions, and other agencies take seriously their mandates to provide the highest standards for enabling ministries for our people. The persons on these boards and agencies struggle to meet ministry needs and maintain fiscal responsibility, while at the same time to keep financial requests within reasonable parameters. We affirm their work. We give thanks for all those who lead us in facility and financial stewardship as we build our covenant relationship to one another and to God in these central aspects of our life together.

We have watched this year as other conferences have begun debating what our conference did many years ago: base our apportionment formula solely on the financial strength of our local churches. Surely, it is not a perfect process, but our CFA and other bodies have led us, and the United Methodist Church as a whole, in a unique and effective manner to help us reach our goals.

At the Conference Office we have seen a new Personnel Committee take its place to help us do our work together in a more efficient and effective manner while maintaining crucial and beneficial relationships within the staff. We have seen the development of a team approach among our directors, meeting quarterly with the Bishop. And we have seen continued progress in the computerization of our operations through the replacement of the Basic 4 mainframe with updated hardware and networking of our computer systems. With the development of a steering committee for this process, we will continue to utilize new technology to help our conference and districts do a better job to reach our people, to proclaim the Gospel, and to affirm our relationship with one another.

The Annual Conference is the basic unit of the United Methodist Church for this is where we celebrate our relatedness and marshal our resources to do ministry in the various mission fields of our conference and around the world. But it is in the local church and other local mission settings that the crucial work of the Church takes place. It is for the sake of the work there in the field that the Conference exists. Therefore, we celebrate with the local churches these symbols of their ministry and the relationships they have built with their communities with one another and with those who serve them, clergy and diaconal ministers:

Through the Grace of God that is our strength. May God continue to richly bless our work together.

CABINET STUDY OF THE NATURE AND FUNCTION OF SUPERINTENDENCY

Introduction

This study is in response to the question presented to the 1992 session of the Central Texas Annual Conference by the Structure Study Committee and the Cabinet, "What is the nature and function of the superintendency in the Central Texas Conference?" This response is not intended to be exhaustive. Neither is it intended to be definitive in any way. It is simply an initial response to this question which we hope will stimulate dialogue around this issue. We will begin this response with a general outline of a possible understanding of the nature of superintendency with references to scripture as well as the Discipline (paragraph references are to the 1988 Discipline). We will then move into a more specific response to the functions and tasks of the superintendency as outlined in the Discipline and our Standing Rules. The Discipline is of course the definitive resource here. This is simply an attempt to pull as many of the references in the Discipline together in one place for our review. The methodology will be to divide the functions and tasks of the superintendency into a number of key relationships with individuals and groups the superintendent has throughout the life of the Church. We will then take a look at some general considerations concerning style of ministry of individual superintendents as well as some specific characteristics of the seven districts which affect the nature and function of superintendency in the Central Texas Conference. (Specific superintendents can flesh out this section with their own reflections.) We will then make some recommendations for the committee's work.

The Nature of the Superintendency

Very early in the life of the Church (as witnessed by the later epistles in the New Testament), there arose a need to maintain unity in the body of Christ and maintain theological, ethical and Biblical depth and direction. There were so many different types of roles and various ministries that there arose an office in the early church that was the symbol and power of unity and purpose in the church. That office was the office of bishop. The bishop was to lead the people, speak with a prophetic voice, shape the life of the church in conformity with the Gospel, supervise and oversee the work of the various churches, ministries and works in particular areas. In this role the people looked to the bishop for leadership, direction, grounding in basic Gospel truths, guidance, assistance, coordination and especially unity among all the parts of the church. As symbol of unity, the people looked to this office to be the focus of their efforts. As source of unity, the office came to carry a great deal of authority in being a prophetic voice, mediating differences, interpreting doctrine, marshalling the church's resources to address needs and issues and to accomplish the work of God's kingdom.

The district superintendency as stated by the Discipline is an extension of the office of bishop (the general superintendency ¶ 501, 517, 526). As such the office offers tremendous opportunity and challenge. If the church is both universal and particular; if the people of the church in their diverse offices and positions (including the clergy) are the arms, muscles, hands, and feet of the church, doing the work of the church; if the bishop's office is the focal point of our work, the unity of our body, then the superintendency as an extension of the bishop's office is the connecting tissue, the tendon and nerve fiber. The superintendency is that office which stands before local congregations reminding them that they are more than they think they are. The superintendent is one who through the annual Charge Conference and other settings continually points the local congregation, the local unit of the church universal, beyond itself (¶ 247.2,.3). The superintendent continually asks the local congregation and pastor what its vision, goals and directions are. The superintendent also stands before local congregations and pastors and reminds them all that they are not alone. They have the whole body behind them. They are connected to a tremendous network of people, programs, and resources that can and will help them reach their goals and bring their dreams and visions to reality. In this way the superintendent exercises the leadership role of calling the local church and its people beyond themselves.

On the other hand, the superintendent is one who continually reminds the bishop and church in general of the needs of the local congregations. These needs may range from the type of pastoral leadership the local congregation needs to the types of curriculum materials that might enable this local congregation to better teach its youth the Christian life. As a connecting link in the life of the church, the superintendency works in both directions. He/she speaks with prophetic voice to the local church and the laity on behalf of the Church of Jesus Christ and he/she speaks with a prophetic voice to the general church on behalf of the local churches and the laity.

The challenge of this office is that, whereas the bishop's office and the office of a clergy person in a local church are by and large executive offices, the office of the superintendent is middle management. A superintendent does have oversight of local churches, but not executive oversight. That is the role of the pastor in charge. A superintendent also has oversight of conference responsibilities, but not executive oversight. That is the role of the bishop. The superintendent helps these executive officers to more effectively carry out their work.

Paragraph 502 of the 1988 Discipline gives some guidelines for superintending in this age that are important. It lists under mode of superintending such things as: reading consensus, integrating into living tradition, being open to the prophetic word, team-building, negotiation, spiritual disciplines and patterns of holiness. Under the pace of superintending it lists: accountability, support groups, reflection, study, developing friendship and self renewal. Under skills of superintending it lists: spiritual discipline, theological reflection, building inclusive community, reading, analyzing strategizing around signs of the times, assessing needs, resource management and evaluation. The prophetic office of the bishop to constantly remind the church of its calling extends through the superintendent to the local churches and laity through executive oversight which always flows from the theology and faith of the church. Innovative leadership, independent work and creative style are always possible whenever it is done on behalf of the faith of the Church and the bishop and superintendent are in dialogue and not working at cross purposes. In this way they are both called to be open to and shaped by the depth and meaning of the faith of the church. The management style of the superintendent finds its expression in the fulfillment of the purposes of the Church.

A superintendent exercises the offices of Word and Sacrament, but is uniquely related to the office of Order (¶ 501, ¶ 503, ¶ 504). It is important in this work to maintain clarity and balance. He/she is to constantly call churches and clergy beyond themselves to find and do the right thing, to give them vision. This is the first task of the office. And the second flows from it. He/she is also to equip and empower laity, local churches and clergy to do things right, in proper order. It is the proper task of the superintendent to struggle with making these two works of his/her office congruent with one another. He/she understands the wisdom behind, the purpose of, and the meaning of the structures and procedures and processes of the church, and constantly empowers clergy and laity to meet the standards of the Discipline and fulfill the purposes of the Church. The superintendent connects the local congregation to the rest of the church, and the primary means of this connection is the order of the church which he/she utilizes and which he/she is careful to keep congruent with the theology of the Church. This may indicate that the superintendent is not so much an innovator as a process person who helps congregations examine the options before them and empowers their decisions and gives them direction. The process is always seen as one that connects the concrete expressions of the church with the universal vision of the Church of Jesus Christ. Done well, this task requires tremendous creativity on the part of the superintendent. He/she must be conversant in the theology of the church, skilled in innovative leadership styles and sensitive to a large number of varying kinds of individual persons, as well as a number of varying kinds of systems and structures.

Since we do not live in an abstract world, but a concrete one, the manner by which a superintendent impacts the church as a whole is generally through the structures of the church, through the order of the church. The superintendent, it seems, is limited somewhat from independent means and direct means of affecting the life of the church as a whole, except when he/she exercises the right of all ministers of God to speak a prophetic word. In the exercise of his/her office the superintendent, being the lynch pin in the connection, always works with and through the structures of the church, especially through the bishop and cabinet in order to effect any change in the life and work of the church as a whole.

In the Central Texas Conference the office of district superintendent has traditionally been perceived as a position of leadership in the conference. This can be seen in the desire of program agencies and other agencies and institutions to have access to the Cabinet through their cabinet representative. It can also bee seen in the patterns reflected in elections to General and Jurisdictional conferences and in many other aspects of the life of the Conference.

The Discipline lists five specific tasks of superintendency: Supervision (¶ 520); Personnel (¶ 521); Pastoral (¶ 522); Administration (¶ 523); and Program (¶ 524). We would like to try to talk about these tasks in terms of relationships. Therefore we have broken out the various tasks in terms of how they involve the various relationships a superintendent has. These relationships include: annual conference, bishop, cabinet, district committee on superintendency, local churches, clergy, diaconal ministers, district staff, district organizations, communities in the district. The first four of these relationships carry lines of accountability for the work of the superintendent. Therefore, they are dealt with first.

The first and primary line of accountability for the superintendent is to the Annual Conference. As with all elders in the Conference this line of accountability is lived out through the process outlined for the executive session where each elder's character is examined each year. It is also lived out through the process outlined by the Board of Ordained Ministry in the evaluation process with the District Committee on Superintendency. Later in our recommendations we will recommend that this line of accountability be lived out through the processes outlined in the Discipline as opposed to a prioritization of the paragraphs of the Discipline.

The second and another primary line of accountability is to the Bishop. The office of district superintendent is an extension of the bishop's office and he/she has in a unique way chosen each district superintendent. Therefore, the entire work of the superintendent will be available for his/her input and reflection and subject to his/her wishes.

The third line of accountability is to the Cabinet since a superintendent is first appointed to the Cabinet before a superintendent is appointed to a particular district (¶ 529). This is the body in which the individual district superintendents are held accountable for their work , both for conference and district responsibilities (¶ 529.3).

The fourth line of accountability is to the district committee on superintendency. This committee is to meet annually and be responsible for giving evaluation and oversight for the superintendent's work in the specific district (¶ 754).

Relationship to Annual Conference

The superintendent is an elder in the conference. The vows of ordination and the covenant relationship outlined in the Discipline are primary in understanding the nature and function of this office. The superintendent as other elders is an itinerant clergy person whose primary task is to work in concert with all other clergy and laity to fulfill the mission of the Church in our particular place and around the world. Below are some specific functions of the office as outlined in the Discipline and other sources:

With the cabinet consult with the bishop concerning all appointments for the furtherance of the mission of the Church in the Central Texas Conference. (¶ 57) Processes used are outlined in paragraphs 530-534 and in policies developed from time to time by the bishop and cabinet (cf. papers on supervision and consultation, 1991)

The cabinet plans and carries out a Start-Up seminar each year for those persons who are involved in a move.

Work with Commission on Church Growth and Development, Cabinet and Bishop establish new churches (¶ 270.1) (All superintendents are members of the Commission on Church Growth and Development [Standing Rule II. 25.1])

With the Cabinet recommend any reinstatement of local pastor status (¶ 410.4)

Recommend to the Board of Ordained Ministry counseling elders for local pastors (¶ 411)

Consult with the Board of Ordained Ministry in the appointment and training of supervising pastors (¶ 733.2e)

With the Cabinet recommend persons for probationary membership under special conditions (¶ 416.2)

With Cabinet and bishop specify specific amount of time for less than full time appointment (¶ 437.2). (The 1992 Discipline will outline this process a little differently giving the superintendent the authority to specify the amount of time in consultation with the local church pastor parish relations committee.)

With bishop and Cabinet approve annually all less than full time reappointments (¶ 412.2c).

With Cabinet and Executive Committee of Board of Ordained Ministry recommend to the bishop ad interim appointments at less that full time (¶ 412.2e).

With Cabinet and Board of Ordained Ministry hold persons in affiliate relationships to the conference accountable (¶ 443.5)

With Board of Ordained Ministry, the bishop and Cabinet recommend persons for reinstatement (¶ 451.7, 454, 455.4, 456, 457)

Process grievances and complaints seeking reconciliation in the joint review process (¶ 453d) including the possibility of serving on the Joint Review Committee and Committee on Investigation.

Follow the procedures for due process outlined in chapter eight of the Discipline including the appointment of persons to the pool for trial courts (¶ 2624.3c).

Follow the procedures established by the sexual harassment policy of the Conference - (Journal 1992 p. 159f)

Oversee the total ministry of pastors and local churches by working in cooperation with district and conference agencies for long range planning (¶ 509[6]) and by assisting the bishop in the administration of the annual conference (¶ 509[8]) and by participating in district and annual conference councils on ministry. (¶ 509[9])

Promote current and deferred financial support in local churches for district, conference, and denominational causes (¶ 523.7)

Report to the Annual Conference any realignments of pastoral charge lines. (¶ 523.9)

Secure an audit of all district funds and send a copy to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration. (¶ 523.12) (Journal 1992, p. 144)

Oversee the programs of the Church within the bounds of the district (¶ 524.1)

Consult and plan with the Board of Ordained Ministry concerning clergy needs in the district and develop plans to meet needs (¶ 529.5; ¶ 733.2a) [supply-demand] with special emphasis on the recruitment of ethnic persons and women.

With the cabinet meet with the executive director of the conference council on ministries for coordination, implementation and administration of conference program (¶ 529.6)

Respond to the inquiry into the moral and official conduct of ordained clergy to the executive session of annual conference (¶ 705.6) following the process outlined by the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Chair the district Board of Stewards and through them make distribution of the apportionments (¶ 711.3)

With the bishop cooperate with the Conference Council on Ministries in the nomination of the director of the Conference Council to the annual conference (¶ 726.7a). (The process for this will be different in the 1992 Discipline.)

Review with the Board of Diaconal Ministry all persons consecrated to the office of diaconal minister and their places of service (¶ 534.3p)

Consult with the Conference Commission on Religion and Race concerning the recruitment and itinerary of racial and ethnic ordained ministers (¶ 740.3e)

When a clergy person is seeking disability the superintendent of the district where the clergy person currently is appointed serves on the Joint Committee on Disability (¶ 744).

Each superintendent receives training offered by the General Council on Ministries and the Division of Ordained Ministry when appointed a superintendent (¶ 1006.12)

One superintendent serves on the Conference Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns (¶ 726.5a).

One superintendent serves (ex officio) as a cabinet representative on the Commission on Finance and Administration (¶ 707.2b).

One superintendent serves on the executive committee of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries (¶ 726.4).

All superintendents serve on the Annual Conference Council on Ministries (Standing Rule II. 1.2) (¶ 524.2).

One superintendent serves as a Cabinet representative on the Board of Pensions (Standing Rule II. 5.0)

All superintendents serve on the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations (Standing Rule II. 22.1).

One superintendent serves on the Conference Board of Trustees as an observer (Standing Rule II. 15.1).

One superintendent serves on the Conference Committee on Rules, Policies and Guidelines without vote (Standing Rule II. 17.1).

One superintendent serves as a cabinet representative on the Conference Youth Council (Standing Rule II. 10.0 & 1986 Journal P. 159). (This was discussed in 1989 as a possible deletion, but the Standing Rules have not been changed and we could not find an update of the 1986 Journal.)

One superintendent serves as a member of the Inter-conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry (Standing Rule II. 29.1).

One superintendent serves as a cabinet representative on the Central Texas Conference Foundation (Journal 1991, p. 213)

One superintendent serves as a cabinet representative to the Commission on Equitable Compensation (¶ 722.1)

One superintendent serves as a cabinet representative to the Conference Board of Laity (¶ 730.3).

One superintendent serves as a cabinet representative to the Board of Diaconal Ministsry

One superintendent serves as a cabinet representative to the conference Board of Ordained Ministry (¶ 733.1b)

All superintendents serve on the Commission on Church Growth and Development (¶ 270.1; Journal 1980 p. 147; Standing Rule Ii. 25.l)

All superintendents serve on the Board of Commissioners of the Methodist Home in Waco.

As cabinet representative to certain conference boards and agencies, a superintendent will have several roles. There will be times when he/she will represent a position or make a suggestion which comes from the cabinet to that particular board or agency. There will also be times when he/she will convey to the cabinet a position or suggestion which comes from a particular board or agency.Another role will be as a full participant in the board or agency independent of his/her responsibility in the cabinet. At other times he/she will be there strictly as an observer or advisor without vote.

In 1988 there were cabinet representatives on the following conference boards and agencies in addition to the ones listed above as mandated by the Discipline or our Standing Rules: Board of Church and Society; Board of Discipleship; Camps and Assemblies Committee; Board of Global Ministries; Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries; Commission on Religion and Race; Committee on Archives and History; Committee on Research and Planning; Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns; and the Commission on the Status and Role of Women. In addition to these Cabinet members also served on other boards and institutions connected with the Conference. These included: all superintendents were on the Board of Wesleyan Homes; the Brownwood superintendent was on the board of Aldersgate Center; the Waco superintendent was on the board of The Methodist Home in Waco; and the Fort Worth West and East superintendents were on the board of the Harris Methodist Health System. In 1989 the Cabinet initiated action to remove ourselves from the boards and agencies of the Conference in the first list and remain on those mandated by the Discipline and the Standing Rules listed under our relation to the Annual Conference above which dealt with administration and personnel. In 1992 the Wesleyan Board agreed to remove all but the Temple superintendent from the Wesleyan Home board. The Harris Health System removed the Fort Worth East and West superintendents from the System Board and placed them on the respective boards of hospitals in their districts. Your Cabinet continues to work the boards, agencies and institutions to provide meaningful leadership in crucial areas of ministry.

Relationship to the Bishop

Although the statement under the section on the nature of superintendency stating that since the superintendent's office is an extension of the bishop's office, the district superintendent is primarily involved in middle management as opposed to executive management is true to an extent, there is room for innovation, executive style of leadership and creativity in the office. This is especially true as the superintendent seeks to bring congruence between the vision of the church and the administration of the church. Elements of visionary leadership surface as the leadership style of the bishop and the leadership styles of particular superintendents become evident and we discover ways for them to compliment one another. The context of the bishop's office carries particular and unique responsibilities. (¶ 503, ¶ 526) The context of the superintendent's office does grow out of the bishop's office, but does not carry all the particular and unique responsibilities of the bishop's office. On the other hand, there are also contexts of the superintendent's office that are particular and unique to the superintendent's office that do not impact the bishop except in indirect ways through the superintendent. Where these two unique contexts meet there is a need to develop mutual understanding of leadership styles, clarity of expectations and common vision. There needs to be an openness in expression and a willingness to listen to the other. A rapport needs to develop so mutual trust can flourish. This requires feedback.

Innovation would be appropriate, especially in the exercise of the administration of the district to which a superintendent is assigned. A superintendent would seek to always keep the bishop informed as to the hopes, dreams and visions he/she has for the district as well as the procedures and processes he/she is utilizing in the district to accomplish our goals.
A superintendent would seek to cooperate with the bishop and the cabinet in whatever way he/she could to help our cabinet work as a team.

A primary line of accountability is to the office of the bishop. A superintendent would seek to keep the bishop informed about all matters that would impact the life of the district or conference in any way. A superintendent would be mindful of the bishop's time demands in order not to impinge on other duties with matters which could be handled without direct supervision of the bishop. Any matter which the superintendent feels would impact the district or conference in any way he/she would share with the bishop. Matters impacting only local churches in his/her district or strictly district administrative matters he/she would generally handle without consultation with the bishop. In much of this administrative work he/she would seek the counsel of his/her colleagues in the cabinet and lay and clergy persons in the district for counsel. (¶ 529.3) (¶ 754)

A major responsibility to the office of the bishop is assisting in the making of appointments.(¶ 57, ¶ 530-534) The role of the superintendent is advisory to the bishop who makes and fixes the appointments. In this role the superintendent seeks to make the bishop aware of all pertinent information at his/her disposal about particular appointments and the impact of that appointment upon the life of that particular church and of the conference as a whole. The process outlined in paragraphs 530-534 applies here as well as processes outlined from time to time by the bishop and the cabinet in addition to those in these paragraphs.

The process and procedures a superintendent seeks to follow in advising the bishop in the making of appointments are ones that have been developed with the bishop in the cabinet and carried out consistently across the conference. Some details (especially meetings with PPRC's for consultation during the process) would differ from district to district due to geography and differing expectations.

A superintendent seeks to consider not only the best interests of the churches in his/her district and the best interests of his/her district as a whole, but more importantly the best interests of the conference as a whole. Appointments are to be made in light of the standards of the Discipline (especially in light of the call to open itinerary and inclusiveness) as well as to fulfill the vision of the Church of Jesus Christ in God's world. A superintendent seeks to follow the process and procedures outlined by the bishop in consultation with the cabinet so that the greatest degree of collegiality and team work may be developed.

The office of superintendent is also called to assist the bishop in the leadership and administration of the annual conference. This particular ministry is not separate from nor in contradiction of the mission of the local churches and other mission settings of an annual conference but in fulfillment of their mission. As an example of how these things must work together, the superintendent recommends to the bishop any realignment of pastoral charge lines which is reported to the Annual Conference. (¶ 523.9)

Relationship to the Cabinet

The third line of accountability is with the cabinet. Since a superintendent is first appointed to the cabinet and then to a specific district (¶ 529.1), this is the third most important area where a superintendent will seek guidance and feedback in the work of the superintendency. A collegial relationship within the cabinet where the vision of Christ's church, the goals of the conference, personal growth and mutual respect can be attained is crucial. Below is listed some of the specific functions in relation to the cabinet:

Keep accurate and complete records for one's successor (for list see ¶ 523.6)

With the Cabinet submit a report to the Annual Conference reflecting the state of the conference (¶ 524.4)

Under the leadership of the bishop the cabinet is to speak to and for the conference in spiritual and temporal issues (¶ 529.2).

The Cabinet holds individual superintendents accountable for their work, both for conference and district work (¶ 529.3).

The Cabinet is charged with the spiritual and temporal oversight of the conference in consultation with other councils and service agencies of the conference (¶ 529.4)

Relationship to the District Committee on Superintendency

The fourth line of accountability is with the district committee on the superintendency. The district superintendent is the executive officer of the district. He/she will see that all district property is cared for properly and all deeds and titles are in order. He/she at the same time will challenge clergy to maintain the proper records in light of the Discipline. He/she is responsible for the management of the district finance in conjunction with the District Stewards and the District Committee on Finance. He/she is also one who seeks to resolve misunderstandings and conflicts that may arise in the district.

The District Committee on Superintendency is to meet at least once a year and upon call of the superintendent. It is charged with the support of the superintendent in terms of oversight, counsel, budget support, advice, evaluation, feedback and consultation and serves in an advisory role to the bishop. (¶ 754)

Relationship to Local Churches

The superintendent serves as the link between the local congregation and the Church as a whole. He/she continually reminds the local churches of the total mission of the Church and their unique mission in the particular place where God has planted them. In carrying out this function a number of specific tasks are listed below:

Work with Church Growth and Development (1980, p147), Cabinet and Bishop to establish new churches (¶ 270.1)

Oversee the total ministry of the local churches in the district (¶ 519,[4],5],[7])

Work with pastors, diaconal ministers and Charge Conference to formulate statements of purpose to fulfill mission (¶ 520) utilizing the evaluation process for local churches developed by the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Recommend the discontinuance of local churches (¶ 2548).

Transfer of membership of discontinued churches (¶ 231; ¶ 523.8)

Meet with PPRC when Pastor not present (¶ 269.2e)

Work with PPRC to update local church profiles (¶ 520.3)

Encourage local churches to provide time and financial support for clergy continuing education (¶ 520.5)

Authorize, schedule and preside or authorize another elder to preside at Charge and Church conferences (¶ 246.4,.5;¶ 523.1)

To cooperate with local church Boards of Trustees through the Charge or Church Conference and the District Board of Church Building and Location and other entities in the acquisition, sale, transfer and mortgage of property ensuring that all legal documents conform to the Discipline and keep copies of all records (¶ 523.4; ¶ 2524-2552).

Develop a plan of action to meet future missional needs prior to consenting to any sale or transfer of property (¶ 523.5)

Promote current and deferred financial support of district, conference, and denominational causes (¶ 523.7)

Recommend to the bishop any realignment of pastoral charge lines (¶ 523.9)

Serve within the district as acting administrator when there is a pastoral vacancy and no appointment has been made. (¶ 523.10)

See that the provisions of the Discipline are carried out and serve as first line of interpretation of church law for churches in the district. (¶ 523.11)

Consult with the PPRC in the making of appointments (¶ 531, ¶ 532, ¶ 533) utilizing the criteria outlined in paragraph 532.

In consultation with UMCOR, conference disaster response coordinators and the bishop identify specific locations where local church property has been damaged (¶ 1464.1)

Work with the clergy and local churches to develop time and financial support for continuing education for the clergy and diaconal ministers.

In addition to these each superintendent seeks to maintain a regular schedule of worship in the churches of the district. In some instances this is to hear a particular clergy person preach. But it also needs to be recognized that the superintendent is present in worship for the same reason any other person is there--to hear the gospel--to be fed spiritually--to be challenged--to commit again to the mission of Christ on this earth.

The superintendent will also seek to participate in other functions of local churches including fall festivals, lord's acres, revivals, etc. These are not just attempts by the superintendent to evaluate the work of clergy and local churches. It is also an attempt on the part of the superintendent to get to know and identify with the people of the churches of the district in order that he/she may be perceived as part of the total ministry of the local churches.

Relationship to Clergy

The superintendent has a peculiar relationship to the clergy of the district. On the one hand he/she is to be the pastor of the pastors. On the other hand he/she is to be the supervisor of their work. It is extremely difficult if not impossible to fulfill these two roles at the same time. It takes unusual talent and the willingness of the clergy to do both.

The superintendent is also responsible for representing the work of the clergy persons in consultation with the bishop and cabinet in the making of appointments. This relationship is crucial and requires a great deal of attention from the superintendent. In light of these issues there are a number of particular functions or tasks listed below:

With the bishop, Cabinet and Committee on Chaplains and Related Ministries of the Board of Ordained Ministry provide an opportunity for an annual meeting with ordained ministers appointed beyond the local church. (¶ 443.2b)

Consult with ministers appointed beyond the local church concerning the location of their charge conference relationship (¶ 443.3)

Using criteria and materials developed by the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Cabinet evaluate annually the effectiveness for ministry of each pastor (¶ 444.1)

Receive reports of evaluation process from clergy serving in appointments beyond the local church (¶ 444.2)

Follow the Conference guidelines when divorce happens in a clergy family (1982 p. 198)

Oversee the total ministry of clergy (¶ 519,[1],[2],[3],[4],

Work with pastors, Charge Conferences and PPRC to formulate statements of purpose to clarify ministers' priorities for ministry (¶ 520)

Establish clearly understood process of supervision (¶ 520.2)

Work with PPRC to update pastor's profile (¶ 520.3)

Supervision of probationary members (¶ 520.4) including meeting with residency committee, meeting monthly with probationer, participating in evaluation sessions, mentor program and supervision of local pastors generally following the policies established by the Board of Ordained Ministry (updated 1990)

Receive annually a report of continuing education plans and give counsel (¶ 520.5). This is worked out in Charge Conference reporting and also in the evaluation process outlined by the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Help recruit and lead persons through the steps of the process to qualify for ordained ministry (¶ 521.1,.2) following the guidelines outlined by the Board of Ordained Ministry (updated 1990)

Work with bishop and cabinet in the appointment and assignments for ordained ministers (¶ 57, ¶ 521.3)

Working with Board of Ordained Ministry, provide support for persons at times of changes in conference relationships or termination (¶ 521.4)

Provide pastoral support of clergy (¶ 522.1)

Counsel clergy concerning their pastoral responsibilities, matters affecting their ministry and personal life (¶ 522.2)

Encourage building of peer groups for support of clergy (¶ 522.3)

Develop adequate salary support for clergy (¶ 523.3)

Consult with clergy in the making of appointments (¶ 532, 533).

Relationship to Diaconal Ministers

The relationship with diaconal ministers parallels the relationship to clergy in that we are both in representative ministry together in the Church. However, the relationship is not as direct since the qualifying process for diaconal ministry is handled mainly in the Board of Diaconal Ministry which requests information from the superintendent and provides materials for his/her oversight of the work of diaconal ministers in the district and diaconal ministers are not itinerant. A superintendent seeks to help diaconal ministers clarify priorities in ministry and supervises their work. He/she gives pastoral support and offers counsel under the guidelines of the Board of Diaconal Ministry. He/she counsels concerning their ministerial duties and works with them to develop peer groups and support groups for growth, discipline and spiritual formation. He/she also works with them to recruit persons into diaconal ministry and assists in the interpretation of the office of diaconal ministry to local churches. He/she also seeks to help churches identify areas in the work of particular congregations where diaconal ministers may be appointed to serve. Below is a list of particular functions a superintendent has with diaconal ministers:

With bishop and Cabinet provide opportunity for annual meeting with diaconal ministers (¶ 309.2).

Review with the Cabinet service appointments of diaconal ministers (¶ 310.5d; ¶ 734.3p).

With the Cabinet consult with Board of Diaconal Ministry concerning any change in conference relations of diaconal ministers (¶ 313)

Working with pastors, Charge Conferences and PPRC to develop statements of purpose in order to clarify diaconal ministers' priorities for ministry (¶ 520)

Work with bishop and Board of Diaconal Ministry on matters of concern for support of diaconal ministers (¶ 521.5)

Provide pastoral support for diaconal ministers (¶ 522.1)

Counsel diaconal ministers concerning their ministerial duties, matters affecting their ministry and personal life (¶ 523.2)

To encourage peer groups for support of diaconal ministers (¶ 523.3)

Help recruit and lead persons through the steps of the process to qualify for diaconal ministry (¶ 521.1,.2) following the guidelines outlined by the Board of Diaconal Ministry.

Relationship to District Staff

A district superintendent is to administer the district office and supervise support staff (¶ 523.2). In our Conference the only district staff consists of our secretaries. Working with them, we seek to maintain the district office and conduct district business. They are extremely important partners since superintendents are out of the office so much. Our relationship to them needs to be positive and at the same time one that assures that the business of the district is handled in a proper fashion. We need to seek to be open and enabling of this person's work. We need to keep him/her informed of our work and work of the district and Conference. We need to seek feedback from him/her concerning his/her working conditions. We need to consult with him/her concerning salary support and other means of support and be his/her advocate in committees of the district that impact his/her office. On the other hand we need to expect him/her to be open with us and keep us informed. Clarity of mutual expectations is necessary.

Relationship with District Organizations

There are a number of district organizations to which a superintendent relates. Below is a list of specific organizations and an outline of the relationship to each:

Cooperate with district Board of Church Location and Building in arranging acquisitions, sales, transfers, mortgages, and ensure all legal documents conform to the Discipline and keep copies of all records (¶ 523.4)

Oversee the programs of the Church working with the District Council on Ministries for which he/she has executive oversight responsibility (¶ 524.1; ¶ 749.3)

Consult and plan with District Committee on Ordained Ministry to analyze the needs of the district for clergy, planning to meet these needs (¶ 529.5) [supply-demand] and working with this committee in the qualifying process outlined in the Discipline and the policies of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry (¶ 521.2).

Chair the District Board of Stewards and through them make distribution of the apportionments (¶ 711.3)

Meet at least once a year with and call meetings when necessary of the Committee on District Superintendency which offers support, oversight, counsel, budget support, advice, evaluation, feedback and consultation and which serves in an advisory relationship with the bishop (¶ 754).

Nominate and work with the District Board of Trustees in the oversight of district property including the district parsonage (¶ 2517; ¶ 2518). (being sure the dictates of the Discipline are followed [¶ 2523])

Each superintendent is a member of the District United Methodist Women and of its executive committee (¶ 755 Article 4).

Works with the District Committee on Finance to develop a budget submitted to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration for approval (Journal, 1992 p. 144)

Work with the District Nominating Committee to submit nominations to the District Conference for all District offices and to the Annual Conference Nominating Committee for Conference offices (Standing Rule II. 22.1.1c)

Call (¶ 747.1) and chair (Standing rule V. 1.0) the District Conference.

Relationship to Communities in the District

In addition to the local churches in the district the superintendent also has a relationship to the communities where the local churches are as well as communities where there are no local churches. In this relationship the Discipline calls upon the superintendent to establish long range planning for ecumenical and racially inclusive ministry in these communities and to initiate new and vital forms of ministry. (¶ 524.3)

Some Characteristics of the Seven Districts of the Central Texas Conference

Characteristics of each district will in many ways affect the nature and work of the superintendent who might be serving that district. Here are some areas for us to consider in terms of how these characteristics might affect our work.

The first consideration is geography. The Brownwood district serves five counties and parts of four others. It is 150 miles long and 80 miles wide and Brownwood is almost three hours driving time from the Conference Office. It has I-20 passing through only its northern sector. Most towns are on separate telephone networks and the churches are scattered.

The Fort Worth East district serves only one half of one county is and is 15 miles across and 25 miles from north to south. Almost all of its churches can call one another and the churches are closely compacted. It has I-20, I-30 and parts of I-35W for travel. The district office is only a few miles from the Conference Office.

The Fort Worth West district serves one half of Tarrant county and a part of Parker and Johnson counties. It is approximately 20x40 miles in size. Most of its churches can call one another and it has I-20, I-30 and I35W for travel. The district office is in the Conference Office building.

The Temple district serves three counties and parts of two other counties. It is approximately 100x50 miles in size. It has I-35 running north and south and a major four lane highway running east and west. It is over two hours driving distance from the Conference Office. Most of the towns in the district are on separate telephone service.

The Waco district serves two counties and parts of four other counties. It is approximately 100x50 miles in size. It also has I-35 running north and south through the district. Most of its communities are on separate telephone interchanges. The district office is an hour and a half from the Conference Office.

The Waxahachie district serves three counties and parts of two other counties. It is approximately 70x70 miles in size. It is bisected by I-35E, I35W and I-45. Most of the communities are on separate telephone interchanges. The district office is one hour's drive from the Conference Office.

The Weatherford district serves five counties and parts of three other counties. It is 120 miles at its longest and 40 miles across on the average. It is bisected by I-30. Most of its communities are on separate telephone systems. The district office is thirty to forty five minutes from the Conference Office.

Another characteristic that affects our work is the membership and types of churches in each district. In this section we will discuss not only the current figures, but also the figures when the districts took their current configuration in 1974. We will take a look at the total membership and the number of churches over 1000 members and the number of churches under 100 members.

In 1974 the Brownwood district had 10,706 members. In 1991 it had 9,641 members. It had no churches over 1000 members in 1974. In 1991 it had 2. In 1974 it had 49 churches under 100 members. In 1991 it had 24.

In 1974 the Fort Worth East district had 28,159 members with 9 churches over 1000 members. In 1991 it had 38,237 members with 13 over 1000. In 1974 it had no churches under 100 members. In 1991 it had 2.

In 1974 the Fort Worth West district had 27,218 members with 7 over 1000 members. In 1991 it had 31,013 with 8 over 1000. In 1974 it had 5 under 100 member churches. In 1991 it had 2.

In 1974 the Temple district had 11,697 members with 2 over 1000. In 1991 it had 16,391 members with 6 over 1000. In 1974 it had 33 churches under 100 members. In 1991 it had 23.

In 1974 the Waco district had 19,014 members with 3 over 1000. In 1991 it had 17,300 members with 3 over 1000. In 1974 it had 23 churches under 100 members. In 1991 it had 21.

In 1974 the Waxahachie district had 11,728 members with 2 over 1000. In 1991 it had 11,627 members with 2 over 1000. In 1974 it had 31 churches under 100 members. In 1991 it had 30.

In 1974 the Weatherford district had 11,014 members with 1 over 1000. In 1991 it had 13,059 with 3 over 1000. In 1974 it had 24 under 100 members. In 1991 it had 21.

Another variable that affects the nature and function of superintendents in different districts is the make-up of the personnel of the district. In this category we will list the number of full members, probationary members, associate members, approved supply pastors, retired supply, supply and the number of churches served by these persons for 1974. With this we will list the number of full members, probationary members, associate members, student local pastors, full time local pastors, part time local pastors, retired supply, TBS, ¶ 426, etc., and diaconal ministers as well as the number of churches.

Given these considerations a superintendent will divide his/her time according to the needs of the district. We have not been given access to the study which the structure study did last year, so we do not know what that study indicated. However, based on a previous study a typical superintendent might divide his time in the following manner: 10.6% is spent in Cabinet meetings; 21% is spent in meetings with pastors in the district office, in local churches, in district meetings with clergy and diaconal ministers and in pastoral settings including hospital visits, funerals and visits in the parsonages; 20.1 % was spent in local church settings including laity at meetings with pastor parish relations committees, in local church settings and community settings, in district meetings with laity and in the district office; 14.6% was spent in administration including time spent in the district office; 15% was spent in conference settings including boards, agencies, Conference activities including Fall University, etc., and training events where the superintendent had responsibilities; 1% was spent in personal support groups; 7.2% of our time was spent on the road; 1% was spent in counseling persons other than pastors and/or families and 8.5% was spent in study.

Considerations of Style of Leadership of Particular Superintendents

The particular styles of each superintendent will also affect the nature and work of the superintendency in particular districts. In any working relationship each party brings to the table a certain style as well as certain gifts and graces. In order for this system to work both the bishop and superintendent must be aware of their own abilities and lesser strengths and be comfortable with who they are. They must also be able to be sensitive to the other person in the formula and be able to adjust and shift when needed and be able to make decisions and move in needed directions when required.

As an extension of the office of bishop, a high level of trust is required and constant, open, honest and even confrontational communication is required. This sets up a polarity with a creative tension between the nature of the superintendency as middle management and the need of a particular bishop for his/her superintendents to be leaders. This was part of what was discovered in the seminar in 1989 when the cabinet and bishop completed the Myers-Briggs styles inventory and discovered that all seven categories of leadership styles was represented on that particular cabinet. This can translate into a strong team. It can also create tremendous pain and conflict.

We hope this survey serves the conference in helping to understand the nature of the office of the superintendent. We will be utilizing this document as well as other resources to provide orientation and training for our new superintendents to supplement the training provided by the Council of Bishops and the General Council on Ministries each year. Thank you for this opportunity to serve you.

CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE FOUNDATION

The Central Texas Conference Foundation serves the persons, churches and agencies of the Central Texas Annual Conference by providing:

1. Wills and Estate Planning Workshops and individual assistance for various estate planning concerns. Through these services, awareness of planning choices led many to create Legacies of the Cross and Flame through bequests, trusts, annuities and other forms of giving. These Legacies ensure future ministry through vital churches with approximately $9 million committed through 1992.
2. Loans to churches for building and renovation projects. The Foundation's 1992 loans to churches ranged from $2000 to $75,000 with a total of 24 loans with outstanding principal of $767,428 at year's end.
3. Management of Funds for churches, individual trusts and annuities, and conference-related agencies. Endowments, building funds, savings, memorials, life income trusts and other special funds managed by the Foundation are invested to maximize resources for ministry. The Foundation's Growth Fund posted a 1992 total return of 8% and the Income Fund yielded an average 6.35% for our account holders.

The Foundation is administered by a twenty-member Board of Directors who serve three-year terms. Members of the board are recognized throughout the conference for their commitment to Christ through the United Methodist Church, outstanding business capabilities, and their vision for future United Methodist ministry resources. Presented for re-election to the Class of 1996 are : Joan Leung Mason, J. Arch Coleman, Michael Heiskell, Don M. Pike and Harlan Raley.

The Foundation staff is always available to respond to any request for assistance from the persons and churches of our conference, and we welcome the opportunity to be of service.

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

The conference Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns is a program advocacy commission of the Annual Conference. Unity is biblically grounded, is a part of our tradition and should be viewed as mission. It was intended by Jesus Christ. Working for unity is an authentic witness to Christ's mission.

Local congregations in our conference participate in many ecumenical and interfaith expressions: cooperative Vacation Bible Schools and day camps; Good Samaritan/Helping Hands outreach; ministerial fellowships; cooperative worship services and special-day celebrations; observances of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, Holy Week and Advent; CROP Hunger Walks; shared witness in public issues and events; youth gatherings and service projects; innovative ways to serve special people (such as prisoners, residents of nursing homes, migrants, military personnel, students and young adult ministries, AIDS, ect.) in the spirit of Christ. Especially significant in our annual conference has been the gift of the Roman Catholics in sharing their Cursillo with us in the form of "Walk to Emmaus." Our campus ministers, hospital and military chaplains and pastoral therapists work in ecumenical settings. All this activity greatly enlarges our capacity to receive Christ in the context of the ecumenical vision.

Our commission seeks to interpret the work of the General Commission and regional, national and international ecumenical agencies to the annual conference and local congregations through the coordinated mailings, and informational presentations at both Annual Conference and Fall University. Bishop Wilson, Luther Henry, Sr. and Mary Weathers serve on the Board of Directors of the Texas Conference of Churches. Luther Henry is secretary of that body. Mary Weathers serves on the Texas Jewish/Christian Forum. Members of the commission participate in the Texas Conference of Churches Assembly and Faith and Order Conference in order to prepare themselves for leadership in the work of Christian unity.

In 1994, we will continue our efforts on behalf of the annual conference and local congregation. We are in mission for you and with you.

Mary Weathers, Chairperson

COMMISSION ON CHURCH GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT

Since last Annual Conference your Commission on Church Growth and Development and your twenty-eight projects that have begun under this ministry since 1980 have seen continued expansion of ministry that has translated into new horizons of service to the conference and God's world. Alliance U.M.C. constituted as a United Methodist Church in October with over 200 charter members. St. Andrew's in Arlington had their first worship service in their new first unit on November 15 and has experienced phenomenal growth. Our first Tongan congregation was constituted as well and had its first Tongan pastor appointed as senior minister. Christ U.M.C. in southwest Ft. Worth moved into its new building in the Spring of 1993.

In 1992 over 80% of the net growth in membership in our conference came from our 28 Church Growth projects. In a recent article Lyle Schaller pointed out that the largest increase in United Methodist membership in the decade of the 80's in the 25 fastest growing counties in the United States was in our own Tarrant County. You continue to write unparalleled records in the United Methodist Church and your Commission on Church Growth and Development is a crucial part of those records.

January also saw a change in leadership as Ed Otwell retired, and Tim Russell became the Director of Church Growth and Development. One of the greatest tributes to Ed was the tremendous response to the gift of Shares in his honor. Over $15,000 was added to the 1992 ministry and outreach through your response.

Our new Bishop gave the office of Director of Church Growth and Development a new dimension as he made the director a member of the appointive cabinet in order that church growth and revitalization become an organic and integral part of the entire appointive process. This new dimension has proven to be fruitful to the Cabinet as well as to the conference as the appointive process has unfolded this year, and we anticipate continued benefit from this strategic and bold step by our Bishop.

Through this step and others to come we hope to emphasize that all our Central Texas Conference curches are growth opportunities. This is especially brought to our attention in a recent study commissioned by the General Council on Ministries that shows 36% to 52% of persons in the bounds of our conference have no faith involvement. Again, our Bishop leads us to consider this area as he places an emphasis on professions of faith as an important aspect of the life of any and all congregations.

Another area of expansion of our ministry is outreach to the Hispanic population. The 1992 General Conference adopted an ambitious National Hispanic Plan that identified Hispanic Ministry as every church's and every conference's ministry and not the ministry of just one segment of our Church. We in Central Texas affirm that as we celebrate our current Hispanic membership of over 400 persons.

Responding to the National Plan for Hispanic Ministry and our Cabinet and the Rio Grande Conference Cabinet meeting last October, the Commission on Church Growth and Development has adopted the goal of establishing two new Hispanic congregations in our conference in the next two years. There are many elements that will have to go into making this goal a reality including extensive demographic research, intensive study of communities where Hispanic ministry might be a possibility, the training of lay missioners, establishing small study, prayer and worship groups, and building trust and community with our Hispanic brothers and sisters.

Current work is also being done to analyze demographic and other data to locate those places where new churches should be located. In addition to this historic and irreplaceable aspect of our ministry is the tremendous work ahead of us in the area of vitalization of our existing congregations. There are plans, methods and strategies at hand and on the horizon that we believe will offer us new ways for our church to grow in many dimensions, including reaching more diverse peoples in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Our goal is for these strategies and goals to take shape at our Fall 1993 commission meeting and to be presented to you next June.

None of this is possible without you. The Shareholders and others in this conference who support our ministry make what we do possible. Thank you. Pray for our ministry.

Tim Russell, Director

COMMITTEE ON COUNSELING
Report No. 1

This year the counseling committee continued its effort to make an excellent program even better. We have added two additional counselors, Dr. James Chesnutt and Dr. William Helton, to the approved list. We feel that our counseling program offers a wide range of experience and resources to the clergy and diaconal ministers and families of the conference. We commend all our counselors for the valuable service which they are providing to our conference members. In addition to the confidential counseling available, they are also available for seminars and workshops.

Report No. 2

1. This service is available to ordained conference members, diaconal, and retired ministers, and persons serving full-time conference appointments, plus their spouses and dependent family members. In addition, ordained members and families of the Rio Grande Conference serving within the geographical boundaries of this episcopal area are eligible.
2. Complete confidentiality and respect for privacy will be maintained. As a client, your name will be known only to your counselor, and no information about you will go to any other person without your written consent. Trust will be vested in the integrity of the counselors, both to keep confidences with clients and to keep faith with the program by submitting accurate bills of service for payment. Such bills will list hours of service but no names.
3. The Counseling Service will be limited to six visits to a counselor in any one year.
   a. The first two visits will be paid in full by the program.
   b. Thereafter, participants will be asked to pay a portion of the cost, scaled to income, as follows:

Family Income	Program Will Pay	Client Will Pay
1. Under $20,000	90%	10%
2. $20,000 - 27,500	75%	25%
3. Over $27,500	50%	50%

   Family income includes combined incomes of spouses, excluding housing or parsonage allowance.
4. Thereafter, if counseling is still needed, an application may be made to the Insurance Program for possible payment. At this time, the symptoms must clearly indicate the need for therapy.
5. During the first six visits to the counselor, payments from the Counseling Program and the Insurance Program simultaneously will not be allowed.
6. Payments for this program will be made only to those counselors who have been approved as participants in the program. There will be no exceptions.

COMMITTEE ON COURTESIES AND RESOLUTIONS

Gathering to celebrate God's grace, hope is rekindled and renewed as this 127th session of the Central Texas Conference draws to a close. Our work is not finished, but we are renewed for the task that will for us forever remain unfinished.

God's grace has been wrapped around us like a warm blanket on a cold night as we shared in this special time together, remembering who we are and whose we are as children of a redeeming God. This special experience came to us through the prevenient grace that met us here through the thoughtful planning by our host district superintendent, the Rev. Henry Radde, and our host pastor of Austin Avenue UMC, Dr. Bill Boyd, along with the un-named host who acted out love for Christ's church as willingly as a parent makes ready for a son or daughter longing for home.

The grace was there in the labor of those who prepared for our worship experiences. We give thanks to God whose love is expressed through Rev. Jon Mac Taylor and the worship committee assisting him. Music, the delight of the human heart, greeted us each evening and made ready our hearts to look away from our labor for a while to be caught and held in the sense of the one who declared,

> O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is thy name > throughout the earth...

We experienced that grace through the talents of Dr. John Holbert, professor of preaching, Perkins School of Theology, who prepared us for each day with the subtle humor of the ancient Hebrew who provoked laughter at their enemy as they marched out to meet them. The scripture came alive with the freshness of his touch.

In gratitude we remember and give thanks to God for the Rev. Kirbyjon H. Caldwell for his inspiring message at Sunday night's worship service. Rev. Caldwell touched our lives as he has done for the churches he has pastored, enabling us to focus on the church being the church. Through Rev. Caldwell's witness of the love of Christ this Central Texas Annual Conference came alive to the living word of God.

Furthermore, we give thanks to God for the gift of Bishop Monk Bryan as he recalled his roots that began in this conference, and helped us recall our ties to this conference and to the individuals so dear to us. Through him we recall "All the Saints" who have before us laid the groundwork for this great conference to minister in the name of Jesus Christ.

And we continue our thanksgiving for Ms. Barbara Means, who as a lay person in the midst of clerical consecrations and ordinations, has reminded us that all Christians have a single vocation: to remember and live out the meaning of our baptism. She has asked us to be worthy of our common call in Christ Jesus. We give thanks to God for those who this year are consecrated and ordained and whose consecration and ordination reminds us all again that the same God who has been our help in ages past is still our hope for years to come.

As an Annual Conference we are again indebted to those who give account of the work of the various boards, committees and agencies of this Annual Conference. We have heard of the many ministries of the men, women and youth of our great conference, and we have proudly noted those whose lives have been exemplary in making the Word become flesh in our world. Thank God for those people, both clergy and lay, whose ministries of love, service and justice have been lifted up and have demonstrated to us that God is indeed very much at work in our world through the people of the Central Texas Annual Conference.

Finally, we thank God for Bishop Joe A. Wilson and his leadership during this, his first Annual Conference as a bishop. His diligence and his leadership have been warmly received. Above the diligent leadership, however... and above his ability to preach or teach or interpret the Discipline of the church or even his ability to humble members of his cabinet with appropriate head gear... yes, above all Bishop Wilson is learning our names. What other bishop can claim to know as many of our names as does our bishop after only seven months? John was right when he wrote of the shepherd, "He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. He goes ahead of them and the sheep follow him because the know the sound of his voice." So we give thanks for our shepherd. We give thanks for you, Bishop Wilson.

And in the spirit of thanksgiving as we set our eyes on new visions and rekindled hope let us join our hearts and voices in the Doxology.

BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY
Report No. 1

The Board of Diaconal Ministry has accomplished the following:

1. Met jointly with the Board of Ordained Ministry on November 17, 1992, at Westcliff United Methodist Church in Fort Worth. The focus of the meeting was discussion related to the General Conference, and its work related to the Report of the Committee to Study Ministry. Tim Russell led the boards in reflection on the future of the ordering of ministry, and challenged groups with pertinent, provocative questions.

2. Provided an opportunity for the Board of Diaconal Ministry, and all active and retired diaconal ministers in the Central Texas Conference to meet with our new episcopal leader, Bishop Joe A. Wilson, and the Cabinet. The dinner meeting held at Meadowbrook United Methodist Church, Fort Worth, on January 19, 1993, offered a forum for heightened understanding of the nature of the ministry we share in Christ's name and spirit. The agenda was built around the question: "In light of the realities of a changing world, how can the church best respond to ministry needs?" Bishop Wilson shared his reflections on the work of the Committee to Study Ministry, the Legislative Committee on Ordained and Diaconal Ministry at General Conference, and his vision for the future of diaconal ministry. Table discussion groups addressed the role of the District Superintendents in recruitment, support and accountability issues concerning diaconal ministers.

3. Sent four persons to the 16th International Assembly of Delegates for DIAKONIA at Wolfville, Nova Scotia, Canada, June 19-26, 1992. The theme, "Christ With Us in the Storms of Life," was reflected in worship, Bible study, discussion groups, and at business and Regional meetings. The purpose of the Assembly is to heighten understanding of what is happening in diaconal forms of ministry beyond our own country and denomination. United Methodist Diaconal Ministers are members of DOTAC (Diakonia of the Americas and the Caribbean) and were officially voted into full membership in DIAKONIA world wide organization at the June gathering. All diaconal ministers of the Central Texas Conference have membership dues provided by the Conference Board annually.

4. Provided the opportunity for five persons from the Executive Committee to attend a Jurisdictional Training Event for newly-elected boards of Diaconal Ministry in Dallas on November 12-13, 1992. Sessions were led by the staff of the Division of Diaconal Ministry of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry: Rosalie Bentzinger, Associate General Secretary, and Directors Joaquin Garcia and Paul Van Buren.

5. Held the annual interviews April 2-3, 1993, at First United Methodist Church, Burleson. A total of twenty-six persons were interviewed, with six given the certificate of candidacy, two recommended for consecration, and one transfer from the North Texas Conference.

6. Continued to explore ways to develop a model for Cooperative Parish Ministry by making specific contacts with the Divisions of Town and Country Ministries and Urban Ministries.

7. Reaffirmed January 1 as the deadline for receiving materials concerning education, continuance as diaconal minister and request for appointment, including leave of absence. Failure to meet this deadline may result in initiation of the termination process.

8. Continued to support diaconal ministers and certified persons in the Central Texas Conference by reviewing their work, recommending their recertification where appropriate, and recommending to Bishop Wilson and the cabinet their renewal in the office and appointment to service.

Report No. 2

The Board recommends the following goals for 1993-1994:

1. Continually seek ways to interpret and promote diaconal ministry in all areas of the Central Texas Conference.
2. Make available an education videotape which explores the nature of consecrated ministry as its future. This tape will be used as a recruitment tool.
3. Provide a "Day Apart" for the Board members and all diaconal ministers of the Conference on September 27, 1993, at Glen Lake Camp, for the purpose of identifying support systems for those consecrated to diaconal service, and strengthening lines of connection and accountability between the Board and diaconal ministers.
4. Develop specific guidelines for those persons considering appointments beyond the local church which will keep them in touch with lines of accountability and support.
5. Make available a Charge Conference Recommendation Model through the District Superintendents' offices to assist pastors and local churches in utilizing the meeting at which a person is recommended for diaconal candidacy as an opportunity to educate congregations about the diaconate.
6. Create a task force for the purpose of developing ways to encourage and support physically challenged persons seeking consecration.
7. Continue to work to implement a working model for ministry in the Central Texas Conference.

Report No. 3
Procedures for Transfer of Diaconal Ministers

The request by a diaconal minister for "transfer in" shall be approved/disapproved by the receiving bishop in consultation with the board of Diaconal Ministry of the receiving conference. The bishop prepares the official forms for the "transfer in" or "transfer out" of credentials and records when a diaconal minister's relationship is moved from one annual conference to another. The diaconal minister initiates the action and the receiving conference board oversees the process as follows (The Book of Discipline, ¶¶312 and 734.3o):

1. The diaconal minister consults with the bishop and appropriate district superintendent in both conferences before accepting a new position.
2. The diaconal minister then writes to the receiving bishop requesting transfers and sends copies of the request to the two conference boards and the sending bishop.
3. At this time, the cabinet, bishop, or conference board may request an interview with the diaconal minister for additional information.
4. The receiving board will send a recommendation of transfer to the receiving bishop.
5. If transfer and the service appointment are approved by the receiving bishop, he/she sends the "Official Notice of Transfer In" (Form 2149) to the sending bishop who responds with the "Official Notice of Transfer Out" (Form 2148). The receiving conference board shall initiate the request for transfer of the diaconal ministers's files.
8. All procedures of transfer shall be completed within six months following the effective date of employment. Failure to follow this procedure may result in termination.

Report No. 5

COMMITTEE ON THE EPISCOPACY

The Committee on the Episcopacy met October 20 for dinner, giving us a chance to be together for a while and to meet with Bishop Wilson.

Bishop Wilson outlined his goals for the conference and discussed the need to continue paying full apportionments, church growth and development and new churches. He said that he and Mrs. Wilson plan to visit every church in the conference and have personal contact with as many people as possible.

On Sunday, October 25 a Celebration of Welcome was held at the Tarrant County Convention Center honoring Bishop and Mrs. Wilson. Mayor Kay Granger declared the date Joe Wilson Day in the City of Fort Worth. A conference choir sang and conference and ecumenical leaders participated in the service.

The committee expresses its deep appreciation to Bishop and Mrs. Wilson and recognizes how fortunate we are to have Bishop Wilson as our episcopal leader. We look forward to a marvelous period of growth in the Central Texas Conference.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION AND CLERGY BENEFITS
Report No. 1

The Commission has met as needed and has carried out its responsibilities of overseeing the Minimum Compensation program for the Annual Conference. 1993 is the first year to receive revenues from the apportionment item voted at last year's Annual Conference session. Because of the changes in appointments from time to time which often changes the number of persons and the amount needed for supplements, it is extremely difficult to project financial needs as far in advance as is required. The Commission seeks to be responsible to the Churches of the Annual Conference in not requesting more than is needed in apportionments, and at the same time provide adequately for the program.

We are recommending increases of 5% in each of the categories of persons receiving supplements to be effective January 1st, 1994 (See schedule below). This is the first increase in two years and only the second in four years.

We have reviewed the parsonage standards adopted by the 1973 Annual Conference and are recommending revisions (see report #4). We are currently working on revisions of vacation and days off policies and if this work is completed will also present these to the Annual Conference this year.

Report No. 2

Equitable Compensation Fund:

There shall be a program of equitable compensation support in the Central Texas Conference under the management of the Commission on Equitable Compensation and Clergy Benefits. This program shall be patterned after ¶ 722 of the 1992 Discipline. Based on these guidelines, the following paragraphs shall compose the operating procedure for the Equitable Compensation Program.

1. A prerequisite for consideration of salary supplements from the Equitable Compensation Fund shall be the filing with the commission of a written application by the district superintendent. The district superintendent shall certify classification of the pastor and the salary (salary, travel, utilities and benefits) set by the charge. The application form will be supplied by the commission.
2. Salary grants shall be made for a calendar year with payments made monthly. In cases of appointment changes at or between the Annual Conference session, the district superintendent shall file a written request with the commission. Approved supplements shall then be paid on a pro rata basis for the part of the year actually served.
3. The following conditions must be met by the pastoral charge before it can become eligible for consideration to receive salary supplements from the Equitable Compensation Fund.
   a. The pastoral charge shall have conducted a stewardship campaign for the local church budget of each of its churches during the previous conference year.
   b. All apportioned items shall have been paid in full by the local church for the previous conference year.
   c. The charge must have at least 100 members.

   In unusual situations the Commission on Equitable Compensation and Clergy Benefits may waive any or all of these conditions.
4. The Commission on Equitable Compensation and Clergy Benefits will pay any amount up to 1/3 of the minimum salary as set by the Annual Conference for each applicant according to his/her ministerial classification. If any exception under paragraphs 4 or 5 is sought, the request must be endorsed by a 2/3 vote of the Cabinet before it can be considered by the commission.
5. Persons of the following ministerial relationships are eligible for consideration for salary supplements at the level indicated for 1993. Rates for adjustment will be considered annually by the commission, rather than establishing automatic adjustments.

	Current	Eff. 1-1-94
a. Full Conference Member	$19,685	20,670
b. Probationary member
1) Non-student living on charge	17,090	17,945
2) Student living on charge	15,435	16,210
3) Student not living on charge	11,580	12,160
c. Associate member	17,090	17,945
d. Local pastor
1) Full-time local pastor	14,470	15,195
2) Student local pastor living on charge	12,970	13,620
3) Student local pastor not living on charge	9,955	10,455

6. Pastors who are appointed to less than full-time service as addressed in the 1992 Discipline, (¶ 441.2) shall be eligible to receive salary supplements from the Equitable Salary Fund. The amount of salary supplement for which the pastor is eligible will be determined by the Cabinet's interpretation of time actually spent in pastoring the charge. For example, if the pastor is deemed as serving 1/4 of full time, his/her minimum salary eligibility would be 1/4 of the minimum of his/her conference relationship classification.

The categories of 1/4, 1/2, and 3/4 will be followed in determining less than full-time eligibility for salary supplements from the Equitable Salary Fund.

7. Ministers who are not eligible for salary supplements are:
   a. Those whose appointment is other than pastor of a charge.
   b. Those classified as part-time local pastor.
   c. Retired ministers.
   d. No pastor shall be eligible to receive salary supplements from this fund who has been offered appointments with higher salary, but who persistently prefers for personal reasons to remain in a present appointment.

Report No. 3

Moving Expenses

1. We recommend that the conference pay the greater of $200 or $3.00 per mile for the first 100 miles and $1.00 per mile additional after the first 100 miles with no maximum within the bounds of the Annual Conference. The receiving charge is expected to pay any remaining balance of the actual moving expenses.
2. We further recommend that the procedure of filing correct forms with the conference secretary/treasurer be continued.
3. We do, however, expect every receiving charge in the Annual Conference to pay the moving expense of the new minister in excess of the allowances and it must be the responsibility of the district superintendent at the time of consultation to inform the church of its share of this obligation.
4. We recommend that the conference pay the moving expenses of a retiring clergyperson within the boundaries of the conference, or one being placed on Disability Leave, or the surviving spouse and family of a clergyperson who dies while under appointment, within the boundaries of the conference. This reimbursement will not exceed $500 over the amount paid in Article #1.
5. Moving pastors should consult with receiving church before entering into contract that would bind the church.

Report No. 4
Housing

As per the instructions of the last Annual Conference the Commission on Equitable Compensation and Clergy Benefits has reviewed the Conference policy on parsonage standards, originally adopted in 1973 and not updated since that time. We present below the text of the 1973 statement with recommended deletions shown by strike out and additions or changes by double underlining. Some editorial changes to use appropriate terminology are not noted.

Parsonage Standards

The church today demands the clergy to be not only a preacher, as was the early circuit rider, but a resident pastor and responsible citizen in the community. In order to meet these felt needs, and to call men and women to a dedicated ministry, the church must provide living conditions which will establish an adequate base from which to operate. It is the privilege and responsibility of the members of the congregation to make every effort to provide the physical setting which will give the parsonage family the maximum comfort and convenience that the energies of the pastor may be more concentrated on his/her task and willing service in the Church of God. Because the parsonage, like the church building, reflects upon the congregation and the pastor, it should be in such condition that all concerned can be justifiably proud of it. In view of this we make the following recommendations regarding Parsonage Standards for this Annual Conference:

1. Location -- The location of the parsonage is a matter of extreme importance. It should provide for the safety, convenience and privacy of the parsonage family (preferably not next to the church).
2. Size of building and living areas -- The parsonage should be large enough to accommodate the pastor's family. It should provide adequate space for the entertainment of guests. It should be remembered in selecting a parsonage that the present parsonage family is not the only one who will live in that parsonage and that the house should be adaptable for a variety of family sizes and situations. Also care should be given that in as much as possible facilities should be fully accessible for those with handicapping conditions. We recommend the following:
   a. At least 3 bedrooms, preferably 4
   b. At least 2 baths, preferably 2 1/2 with adequate linen closet
   c. Living and dining areas adequate for entertaining
   d. A well-equipped kitchen (see #4)
   e. A family room
   f. Adequate closet and storage space. Closet space in each bedroom and other storage space well distributed throughout the house.
   g. Laundry areas (See #4, B3)
   h. Adequate garage or carport space (preferably 2 car garage)
   i. Adequate outside living area with fenced yard
3. Ownership of Parsonage --
   a. May be owned by a local church
   b. May be owned by the pastoral charge
   c. Must include a trust clause for the United Methodist Church
4. Required Equipment
   a. Health
      1. Adequate supply of hot and cold water in bathrooms, kitchen and laundry.
      2. Proper sewage disposal according to the standards of local and/or State Department of Health.
   b. Safety
      1. Fire extinguishers in kitchen with yearly inspection
      2. Automatic central heating and air-conditioning
      3. Laundry area with automatic equipment, including washer and dryer

      Any bathroom heating should be protected and if not electric should be vented.
   c. Kitchen with well-planned work area
      1. Cooking area complete with range or built-in cooking units, counter space, hood and exhaust fan
      2. Sink area complete with modern sink, drain space (double bowl sink)
      3. Large automatic refrigerator with freezer unit
      4. Freezer space (provided in garage if not in kitchen)
      5. Adequate electrical outlets for every work area
      6. Storage for dishes and utensils
      7. Dishwasher
   d. Adequate floor coverings for all rooms

      e. Furnishings
      1. House adequately furnished with main items in living room, family room, dining room, bedroom (including mattresses) and kitchen.
      2. Window coverings, drapes, curtains
      3. TV antenna or cable service
      4. Lawn tools, mower (self-propelled or riding as appropriate for size of yard) hoses, ladder, garbage receptacles
      5. Discarded (worn out) furnishings should not be used to furnish the parsonage.

5. Maintenance
   a. Decoration--both the interior and exterior of the parsonage should be kept in such a state of decoration as to preserve not only its physical condition but its aesthetic value as well. Decorating should be done in consultation with the parsonage family.
   b. Repair and replacement --
      1. An annual budget item will enable the Trustees and Parsonage Committee to have a consistent, rather than haphazard program of maintenance and improvement which will be less costly in the long run.
      2. An annual budget item for repair and replacement of furniture and equipment.
   c. Discovering needs -- The Chairperson of the Pastor-Parish Committee, the Pastor, and the Chairperson of trustees should inspect the parsonage at least once a year as provided for in Paragraph 270.2f(4) of the 1992 Discipline. to discover needed repairs, improvements, and decorations. The initiative should be assumed by the committee or trustees since it is their responsibility to maintain the parsonage in good condition, and since prompt repair lessens total cost of maintenance. Special attention should be given to health and safety factors. The parsonage, however, IS THE PASTOR'S HOME and inspection should be scheduled in plenty of time to meet with the convenience of the family. Needs reported by the pastor between inspections should be taken care of promptly in order to reduce costs.
   d. Parsonage Book -- It is recommended that the parsonage committee prepare and keep up-to-date a record in which are placed all guarantees, repair parts lists, and the instructions for use of equipment belonging in the parsonage. The record should also indicate when and from whom purchased, and whom to call for service. Also this book may well contain a list of whom to call for various reasons, where to find various items, when and by whom various improvements were made, and other information helpful to an incoming minister.
   e. Insurance -- The trustees should be certain that the church-owned house and contents are insured for at least 80% of replacement cost against fire, wind, and other hazards. Public liability insurance should be carried on parsonage property. Tenant Homeowners insurance is available for all ministers who desire to cover personal possessions and liability. IT IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE PASTOR TO INSURE PERSONAL PROPERTY BELONGING TO THE PASTOR AND FAMILY.
6. All utility deposits should be made in the name of the church.
7. When a gift of furniture or furnishings is presented it should be designated specifically if it is to remain in the parsonage or is to be a personal gift for the pastor's family. In the event it is to remain in the parsonage it should first be approved by the Parsonage Committee.
8. The parsonage is the home of the pastor and family, and their rights and privacy should always be observed by members of the congregation. However, the congregation likes to see the parsonage; therefore, it is suggested that an "open house" be observed from time to time, initiated by the parsonage family.
9. The pastor's office should be located in the church building. If there is a study in the parsonage it should be adequately furnished and equipped.
10. When a pastoral change takes place, the parsonage committee should work with the outgoing pastor to insure that the parsonage is as clean and livable as possible for the new minister. The committee should meet and assist the new arrivals.
11. When a pastoral change takes place, the parsonage committee should review the condition of the parsonage property. Any abusive damage is the responsibility of the pastor. Failure to make financial adjustments for damage will be referred to the cabinet by the Committee on Pastor-Parish Relations. It is expected that parsonage families will use discretion in the keeping of pets. Pets should be kept in their proper places so that no damage is done to the property. Any damage is the responsibility of the pastor.

12. Adequate parsonage facilities insure that pastoral appointments can be made on the basis of the needs of the charge rather than the ability of the parsonage to receive the family assigned.

We recommend that as soon as possible following their adoption a copy of these standards be distributed by the District Superintendent to each local church with a request that the PPR Committee and Trustees jointly conduct a review of the parsonage and how it relates to these standards, and submit a report of their findings to the next charge conference.

Report No. 5
Vacation Policy

United Methodist ministers are in a unique position in their role as pastors of a local church. Their membership and relationship is primarily to the Annual Conference as they serve under the appointment of the Bishop. At the same time their salary paying unit is the local church. They are called to accountability for effective ministry both by the Bishop through the appointive system and by the local church through the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee. In vacation policy and similar matters it should be remembered by all that a pastor is not the employee of the local church. On the other hand the Discipline ¶ 270.2f4 gives to the PPR Committee a consultative role in such matters.

This would seem to indicate that a pastor should share his/her vacation plans and other needs for time off with the committee, taking into consideration adopted conference guidelines. At the same time if the PPR Committee feels that the manner in which the time to be taken may impair effective ministry in that congregation at that time they should share this with the pastor and work together toward a goal of both effective ministry and adequate time away from the work place for the pastor.

It should also be remembered that participation in camping programs and similar conference activities, as well as continuing education events are not to be considered as vacation time. Again it is the joint responsibility of the pastor and the PPR Committee to see that such participation does not become abusive and a hinderance to effective ministry in the local church.

To this end we propose the following guidelines for vacation policy for pastors under appointment to local churches in the Central Texas Conference.

Conference Relationship	Time of Service	Vacation Time
Student Local Pastors, Probationary Members serving student appointments, Full Time Local Pastors in process of Four-week Course of Study	Minimum six months (after consultation with district superintendent and PPR Committee	2 Weeks Paid
Full Time Local Pastors who have completed Course of Study, Associate Members, Probationary Members serving full time appointments, and Full Conference Members	Less than 5 yrs	2 weeks paid
	5-9 years	3 weeks paid
	10 or more yrs	4 weeks paid

Note - years of service refer to years under appointment in an Annual Conference, not to years of service in the local church to which a pastor is appointed.

Note - In addition to the above guidelines the PPR Committee should be sensitive to a pastor's need for time off from the pastor's duties, and should encourage the pastor to take regular days off each week.

HOMES FOR RETIRED MINISTERS
Report No. 1

The 1992 offering was $13,266.57. This puts the operation of your 20 Retired Ministers' Homes in jeopardy. It represents the smallest annual offering receipts for the present era. We deeply appreciate the solid support from about 2 churches out of three in the conference. We ask all of the ministers and all of the lay members to go back to your church and present this cause. Twenty retired ministers and/or spouses who served this conference well are depending on your increased support.

The Board of Trustees has had to turn down some requests for homes this year because we could not afford to buy additional homes. The maintenance of additional homes would be impossible on our present income also.

Many of our existing homes were given to our Board of Trustees. If you would like to leave your home to become the property of this board please contact the superintendent.

INTER-CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON HISPANIC MINISTRY
Report No. 1

A year ago last May the General Conference passed overwhelmingly a National Plan for Hispanic Ministry. This plan calls the entire United Methodist Church to respond to the challenging opportunity to be in ministry with one of the fastest growing populations. In Texas one out of every four Texans is Hispanic. It is estimated that by the year 2015 the Hispanic population will be 39%, almost equalling the Anglo population of 43%. Within the geographical boundaries of the Central Texas Conference the Hispanic population has increased over 90% since the 1980 census and it is predicted that this population will continue to grow.

The Central Texas Conference and the Rio Grande Conference can celebrate that they have been on the cutting edge of responding to this challenge through the work of the Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry. Our response has been unique because of our inter-conference approach to Hispanic ministry development. The committee's purpose is to respond faithfully to a great missionary challenge of being in mission and ministry with Hispanics. Through this committee two conferences work cooperatively to initiate, coordinate, and enable inter-conference Hispanic ministries within the bounds of the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences.

The "Revised Strategic Plan for Inter-Conference Cooperative Ministries" (see pages 208-210 of the 1989 Journal of the Central Texas Annual Conference or pages 126-129 of the 1989 Actas Oficiales Conferencia del Rio Grande) was adopted in 1989 and sets our direction. It serves as a model for other conferences.

Accomplishments

1. Report of Hispanic Population in the Central Texas Conference. The committee's consultant, Jeannie Treviño-Teddlie has continued to gather available 1990 census data by counties, cities, and neighborhoods in an effort to determine where the Hispanic population growth is and where the opportunities for Hispanic ministry are. Areas identified where Hispanic ministry must begin to be developed immediately are: Arlington (23,312 Hispanics), the Mid-cities area of Northeast Tarrant County (14,092 Hispanics), Killeen (8,898 Hispanics), Round Rock (5,795 Hispanics), and the Riverside area of Fort Worth (3,766 Hispanics).

2. Implementation of the National Hispanic Plan. Jeannie Treviño-Teddlie is a part of the National Hispanic Committee which will have responsibility for the national implementation of the National Hispanic Plan. She attended the organizational meeting last February. At the conference level she has worked with the Inter-Conference Committee in the implementation of the following recommendations from the Plan: (1) have in place an intentional conference wide comprehensive plan for Hispanic ministries (See Revised Strategic Plan for Inter-Conference Cooperative Ministries referred to above.); (2) develop and share programs and models that will assist Hispanic and non-Hispanic congregations to develop their own outreach into the Hispanic community (Several programs and models have been developed and can be shared by contacting the consultant.); develop training to assist congregations to develop Hispanic ministries (Training is being developed and should be ready for church use by Fall, 1993. It is hoped that the training being developed will be used not only in our two conferences but serve as a model for the General Church.).

3. Sponsored Fall University courses. Six courses were sponsored at Fall University of the Central Texas Conference (September 11-12, 1992). Leadership included the Revs. David Maldonado (Cross-Cultural Ministry in the Midst of Changing Communities and World View) and Arturo Mariscal (Organizing Prayer Groups), both from Rio Grande Conference, and Jack Warren (Survival Spanish) from Central Texas Conference. Additionally our consultant taught two courses (Experiencing the Body of Christ and Gifts Discovery Workshop). Each was well attended (average of 20) and received good evaluations.

4. Promote and assist Rio Grande Conference participation in Fall University. Approximately 10 persons (lay and clergy) from the Rio Grande Conference attended Fall University classes September 11-12, 1992.

5. Facilitated inter-cabinet retreat. Last October the extended cabinets of the Central Texas Conference and Rio Grande Conference met in Waco for an overnight retreat. The committee's chairperson and consultant facilitated the retreat. With two new bishops and several new district superintendents an orientation regarding our inter-conference cooperation was provided. Issues related to the implementation of the National Plan for Hispanic Ministry passed by General Conference were discussed. The Central Texas cabinet agreed to a goal of establishing two new congregations in the next two years and to recruit and train 20 lay missioners. The Rio Grande Conference agreed to a goal of recruiting and training for three preaching points.

6. Partners in Hispanic Ministry. POLYTECHNIC (CTC) OF FORT WORTH began its ministry with Hispanics by providing community ministries such as English as a Second Language and Amnesty classes through Fort Worth I.S.D. By March enrollment reached 260. Morning classes (average attendance of 31) and evening classes (average attendance of 45) are offered twice a week. nursery, pre-school, and enrichment classes are provided for the children.

Last year Polytechnic also began to focus on congregational development. They began providing a Spanish language worship service (15-20 average attendance), a Spanish language Confirmation Class for adults (5 adults joined Polytechnic and 14 children were added to the Preparatory Role), and a Spanish language Sunday School class for adults. As of the end of March, 1993, Polytechnic had received 24 Hispanic members and approximately 20 Hispanic preparatory members.

FIRST (CTC) OF GRAPEVINE continues a sister church relationship with El Calvario Mission (our cooperative Hispanic mission) of Fort Worth. They provide Advance Special support.

LA TRINIDAD (RGC) OF FORT WORTH invited El Calvario Mission to join them in various activities and helped with their Vacation Bible School.

RICHLAND HILLS (CTC) children participated with El Cavario Mission children in a joint Summer Spectacular event with an average of 18 children. Additionally Richland Hills provided Advance Special support for San Pablo of Fort Worth, Casa Ricardo Chacon (a refugee shelter for Central Americans) and for the Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry.

FIRST (CTC) OF DUBLIN continues to have participation of Hispanic children in Sunday School, in Children's Choir, as acolytes, in Methodist Youth Fellowship, in Vacation Bible School, and in their Latch Key Program (after school). Two Hispanic families with their 7 children are active participants in addition to 12 Hispanic children.

CHURCH OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD (CTC) OF ARLINGTON had its fourth work team experience last summer working with Govalle (RGC) in Austin. In preparation for their trip the consultant taught the 20 participants survival Spanish.

Good Shepherd is exploring possibilities for developing Hispanic ministries locally and the consultant has enabled conversation with the Rio Grande Conference District Superintendent and other resource persons.

DIAMOND HILL (CTC) OF FORT WORTH has English as a Second Language classes, tutoing, and day care.

GENESIS (CTC) OF FORT WORTH had a work project at the El Calvario Mission in Fort Worth the weekend before Annual Conference.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS (CTC) OF FORT WORTH worked in the Shalom Zone the weekend before Annual Conference.

The consultant has provided ongoing consultation with each of these partners. Additionally the consultant has met with district superintendents, pastors, and local churches helping them explore possibilities for Hispanic ministry. In January she taught a session for the Waco District Leadership Training. After facilitating conversations between the Brownwood District Superintendent (CTC) and the Northern District Superintendent (RGC) Spanish language worship services were started in February in Ballinger using facilities owned by the Brownwood District Board of Missions.

7. Partners in Hispanic Ministry through Advance Specials. Consultant promoted Advance Special goals set by the Central Texas Conference for San Pablo (Fort Worth), El Calvario Mission (Fort Worth), salary support for the Rio Grande Conference, Casa Ricardo Chacon (Fort Worth), and the Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry. In 1992 San Pablo received $2480 ($1980 from First of Fort Worth and $500 from Richland Hills), El Calvario received $3278 (from First of Grapevine), salary support for the Rio Grande Conference received $1456.65 ($1,000 from First of Grapevine, $150 from First of Fort Worth, and $306.65 from St. John of Georgetown), and Casa Ricardo Chacon received $920 (from Richland Hills).

1. Consultant will continue to gather and analyze 1990 Census data in order to identify communities with significant increases in Hispanic population so that areas can be targeted for developing Hispanic ministry. Data will be shared with the bishops, the cabinets, the directors of Church Growth and Development (CTC) and Congregational Development (RGC), pastors and lay persons.

2. Assist the two cabinets to achieve their goals of developing two new Hispanic congregations (CTC) and training of 20 lay missioners (CTC) and the recruiting and training for three preaching points (RGC) by providing expertise, experience and assistance of the committee and consultant.

3. Interpret and promote the work and resources of the Inter-Conference Committee through articles in conference newspapers, coordinated mailings and direct mailings to churches in order to encourage local churches to explore ministry possibilities with Hispanics.

4. Provide training for 7 local churches in the Central Texas Conference (one per district) which are located in communities with Hispanic population that will assist them to develop ministry with Hispanics.

5. Meet with each of the District Superintendents and the District Council on Ministries of both conferences for the purpose of developing a cooperative comprehensive mission design and strategy for Hispanic ministry in each district.

6. Continue implementing the National Plan for Hispanic Ministry by identifying 20 lay persons willing to serve as Lay Missioners for Hispanic Ministry, developing appropriate training and training them.

7. Sponsor courses during Fall University of the Central Texas Conference which will resource local churches in the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences in their ministry with Hispanics. Additionally promote and assist Rio Grande Conference participation.

8. Encourage each district to identify persons in their districts who would be willing to teach Spanish as a second language (for English speakers) or English as a second language (for Spanish speakers). Encourage each district to offer these classes for lay and clergy.

9. Provide consultation to and support for El Calvario, the new cooperative Hispanic mission. Additionally, provide consultation to churches who are involved in ministry with Hispanics.

10. Encourage and initiate new cooperative ministries, as well as encourage and coordinate work team projects with Hispanic ministries.

11. Promote the Advance Special goals for San Pablo (Fort Worth), El Calvario (Fort Worth), salary support for the Rio Grande Conference, the Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry, and other Hispanic projects that become approved.

12. Facilitate the extended cabinets of both conferences in their annual meeting to promote dialogue and to develop goals and strategies regarding inter-conference cooperative ministry. Provide an orientation regarding our inter-conference cooperation for any new district superintendents.

Report No. 3
Progress and Work of El Calvario Mission, Fort Worth
(A cooperative project of the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences)

We praise God for your prayers and assistance through a year marked by many changes. We have had a very active year despite the effect of several personnel changes.

We began in June with Helen Bowen, an elder in the Rio Grande Conference, being appointed to the responsibilities that had been those of The Rev. John Valles and Juan Sanchez Brown. In November Anita Valles left and in March Wesley Montes (RGC) was hired as a part-time local pastor. The net result represents a significant reduction in financial commitment to pastoral support and also an overall reduction in person hours employed in the mission. Kathy Tidd (CTC) was hired to help with bookkeeping.

The ESL (English as a Second Language) program continues to impact the most constituents. There are 10 instruction hours a week for an average of 35-40 persons. The fluid nature of adult education means that a constituency of 80 is required for an average of 40. It is easily the program of the church which touches the most people from the widest geographical area. We continue to offer free child care during morning and evening classes and offer rides in the church van to morning classes.

El Calvario offers other outreach ministries. A new Boy Scout Troop #2238, under the leadership of Jesse Ortiz began this winter. We have an agreement that Maternal Child Health Care (through the Tarrant County Hospital District) will rent an office from us to provide casework service to young pregnant women. Jan Gomez barters computer printout services for using our location for his amnesty assistance business. A tutoring program is offered and is staffed by students from the TCU Wesley Foundation who provide one on one help on Tuesday afternoons and evenings.

The worshipping community has almost completely changed from the group which had followed Juan Sanchez Brown. We average 18-20 in worship with 10 in Sunday School. Our Sunday School teachers are Juanita Montemayor, a new member, two students from the TCU Wesley Foundation, and the pastor.

The highlights of our summer activities for children were sharing with the Richland Hills (CTC) Summer Spectacular program and a Vacation Bible School, which served an average of 42 children and involved 12 adults. In the fall we had a boys' volleyball team which won a trophy. We had a girls' choir which presented a Christmas Carol program. Since the beginning of Lent we have had five children in a confirmation class.

Wesley Montes has special responsibility to develop the youth and we are planning to attend a district youth camp in April. He lives in our neighborhood and has a full time job. We are very lucky to have him working with us.

We pray that the excitement and hope of our members, constituents and pastors may take root and flourish.

Helen Bowen, Pastor of El Calvario Mission

Report No. 4

The inter-conference cooperation between the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences is not matched by any other annual conference in Texas and New Mexico. The sending of fraternal delegates to each other's annual conferences celebrates the close relationship which has developed between our conferences. Therefore, the Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry recommends that Frank Leach be designated as the fraternal delegate to the Rio Grande Conference which will meet June 11-14, 1992, in Georgetown, Texas. The committee further recommends that Loida Boatman be designated alternate fraternal delegates.

BOARD OF LAITY

The board of Laity met once in the fall and once in the spring during the past year. At our fall meeting we set several goals to be achieved during the year. The board would like to see improved involvement of the laity at annual conference. We would like to improve the nominating process for lay participation on various boards and the board would like to see better participation in Methodist men.

At the spring meeting, we discussed various ways in which we could accomplish these goals and the following new goals were offered:

1. Gather hopes and concerns from each district
2. Communicate these to the annual conference
3. Train lay people to be more effective in the mission of the church

We continue to mail quarterly calendars of activities in which the laity may participate in the district and conference to every church's lay leader. It is the responsibility of the local lay leader to distribute the activity calendar to the local church. The board sent a talent survey form to each local church for the lay leader to complete. These surveys are to be used by local, district and conference nominating committees in matching people with ministries. Several training classes were conducted for lay leaders and their pastors concerning the role of the lay leader. The board offered a class at Fall University entitled "A Innovation for Model Lay Programs in the Local Church." The board published a report form for lay members of annual conference. The form was used to assist the lay members in making the best possible report to their local church and to give them an instrument to use in evaluating the conference for those that will be planning next year's conference. We continue to sponsor the Morris Walker Scholarship Award to be made annually for one outstanding lay person and one outstanding clergy person.

The Board is excited about the commitment of Bishop Wilson to the laity. We are very excited about the future of the laity in the Central Texas Conference.

Lay Speakers

A Lay Speaker is: An active, supportive member of a United Methodist Church; Eager to serve through the church; Well informed on the Scripture, and the doctrine, heritage, organization, and life of The United Methodist Church; Committed to witnessing through church and community, leadership, care giving ministries, and spoken communication; and Willing to improve his/her skills for service.

[Reprinted from Lay Speaking Basic Course, (c) 1992 Discipleship Resources. Used by Permission]

The Lay Speaking program is both growing and dying. Each year, courses are offered, taken and certification/re-certification is applied for and received; each year, Lay Speakers fail to reapply, and their identification as a Lay Speaker is lost. We will strive to maintain our status through communications on the local, district, and conference levels.

A revitalization of lay speaking and an understanding of the lay Speaking Program is our goal. Through verbal and written communication, leading courses, and caring for others. Lay Speakers will use their talents to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

The theme for the 1993 celebration of the ministry of the laity is "Rejoice! God's People Sing with Joy." We invite and encourage each local church to use as leadership, and honor, their Lay Speakers on Laity Sunday.

New publications for the 1993-1996 quadrennium include:

Lay Speaking Ministry: Guide for Conference and District Committees
(a basic resource for the District Committee on Lay Speaking)

Lay Speaking Ministry: Basic Course
(to prepare local church Lay Speakers)

Lay Speakers Preach: Advanced Course; and

Lay Speakers Practice Christian Communication: Advanced Course

We invite you to become a part of the Lay Speaking ministry. Our conference boasts a great number of Lay Speakers (over 600), and wish to increase the number and activity in the program. The District Directors are:

Bob Caffey	Brownwood
Eddie Tate	Fort Worth East
Diana Schultz	Fort Worth West
Don Allison	Temple
Thommye Mitchell	Waco
Grant Jacobs	Waxahachie
Nell Ramsey	Weatherford

We ask for your support and encouragement.

United Methodist Men

No group or organization can function without a program. Attendance at the National Association of Conference Presidents held in Nashville, Tennessee, March 1992, gave guidance for organizing and setting up a program for the United Methodist Men of the Central Texas Conference. Our officers spent most of 1992 planning a program from the guidelines recommended by the Board of Discipleship, United Methodist Men's Division, as well as from the help received at the Nashville meeting.

Through the cooperation of Bishop Joe Wilson, the conference district superintendents, pastors, boards and Committees with the Officers of Central Texas Conference United Methodist Men much enthusiasm has been generated for the organizing of men's groups in local churches.

There continues to be a great need for men to take leadership positions in United Methodist Men both at the conference and district levels. Another great need is for our Methodist men to increase their spiritual lives through daily Bible reading and prayer.

RENEWAL WITH GRACE was the theme for our fall UMM Rally at Hill College, Hillsboro, Texas on October 17, 1992, with Dr. Vaughan Baker, Dr. Ray Buchanan, Rev. George Sutton and Bishop Joe Wilson inspiring us with their messages on evangelism, mission, spiritual life with grace, and our responsibility as laity.

A short business session as well as election of officers took place with Bishop Wilson installing the newly elected conference officers.

It was recommended at the business meeting that we have a conference UMM retreat at Glen Lake on May 21-22, 1993. Plans for that retreat are now being completed.

Our goal for 1993-94 is to have a UMM chartered group in all pastorates of the Central Texas Conference.

A.J. Cooper, President

United Methodist Women

The United Methodist Women of the Central Texas Conference continue to be an organization of women who seek to fulfill their purpose.

In 1992, our membership was 9,330 members with 207 units. We are also pleased to report seven new units. We sent a total of $216,401.68 to the Women's Division for mission programs of the church.

We began the year participating in a Legislative Event in Austin. In March, we were fortunate to have Dr. Carolyn Johnson, a former director of the Women's Division and the current president of the Women's Division to speak to us on our theme, "Our World: God's Gift/Our Responsibility".

We continued to cooperate with the conference Board of Global Ministries in presenting the School of Christian Mission at Southwestern University in Georgetown and Texas Wesleyan University in Fort Worth.

As United Methodist Women, we celebrated our twentieth birthday in October. We celebrated with a traditional birthday party and a night filled with remembrance of our previous works, with special recognition to units for outstanding work in the districts.

Our annual meeting was held at the First United Methodist Church in Brownwood. Our guest speaker was Minerva Garza Carcano, an ordained elder of the Rio Grande Conference and a former Women's Division director. Juanita Dahnke, the first president of the United Methodist Women, installed the newly elected conference officers.

The women of our organization continue to participate in programs that focus on our purpose such as a Call to Prayer and Self Denial, the World Thank Offering, Peace with Justice and a variety of ecumenical worship services.

Many units reported programs that focused on such issues as AIDS, homeless children, women's issues, spiritual nurturing and growth, the environment, racism, literacy and world mission projects such as poverty/hunger.

In every district, women locally reported taking action on: providing clothes to those in need, working in nursing homes, providing meals for the sick and shut-ins and in other districts, making Christmas stockings for the Salvation Army to distribute to children.

We do thank you for your prayers and support as we fulfill our purpose.

Cheryl White Phillips, President

LYDIA PATTERSON INSTITUTE

In 1992, Lydia Patterson experienced many blessings as well as the unfortunate loss of our President, Dr. Alfredo T. Grout.

Lydia Patterson continues to provide a bilingual education in a Christian environment to students of predominantly Hispanic background. The purpose of this United Methodist Institution located in El Paso, Texas, a border that unites two countries, three states and two cities, is to create leaders with a solid education and Christian values to serve the church and humanity.

Lydia Patterson presently holds an enrollment of 315 students in grades 9-12 in the English-as-a-Second-Language Program. The LPI student generally comes to us unable to speak English, enrolls in the ESL program, learns the language and is later integrated into our fully accredited High School Program. Ninety-percent of our graduating seniors in 1992 continued their education in a college or university.

In 1993, Lydia Patterson celebrates 80 years of ministry with Hispanics. Numerous events have been planned throughout the year including a $6 million campaign for Endowment Funds with a goal of $2 million within the churches of the South Central Jurisdiction and $4 million outside the boundaries of the church during a period of three years. The Jurisdictional campaign is being planned in coordination with the Council on Finance and Administration of each annual conference.

As a part of this cross-cultural ministry, Lydia Patterson offers a Summer Spanish Conversational Course as a means to teach Spanish as well as provide an overview of the Hispanic culture to those persons interested in doing ministry with Hispanics.

There is a new vision for Lydia Patterson Institute as we prepare to enter into a new century and as we respond to the needs of the fastest growing ethnic minority in this country, the Hispanic community. As we prepare our long-range planning, we think of the need to continue this crucial ministry by providing the best quality education and developing more programs that will make this institution a center of resource for Hispanic ministries throughout the South Central Jurisdiction.

We are happy to report that in 1992 we experienced a 5% increase in the participation of apportionments from the conferences of the South Central Jurisdiction. We ask for your continued support as we join hands to embrace this ministry, and we respond in unison to the calling of God.

Rev. Charles Crutchfield, Chairperson, L.P.I. Board of Trustees

LYDIA PATTERSON INSTITUTE CAMPAIGN

Lydia Patterson Institute is the only United Methodist-related, predominantly Hispanic educational institution remaining in the United States. As a church-related and church-supported institution, it serves a special human need in an environment where faith and knowledge interact to enrich lives and develop Christian leadership for church and society.

Lydia Patterson Institute's basic understanding of ministry continues to be one that challenges students to live up to their God-given natural abilities, and to consider the claims that Christ makes upon their lives.

About 80% of the student body come from working class families where both parents not only have to work, but where they often have to seek help from their extended family and an academic scholarship for LPI in order to be able to properly educate their children.

At the last Jurisdictional Conference, the Board of Trustees of Lydia Patterson Institute was granted permission to conduct a $2 million campaign for endowment funds throughout the seventeen conferences in the South Central Jurisdiction, in coordination with the Council on Finance and Administration of each respective annual conference.

Endowment proceeds will be allocated toward the following priorities:

1/3 Provide the resources to raise teachers' salaries to public school levels, enabling LPI to attract and retain the best teaching talent available.

1/3 Provide general operating funds for enrichment of library and teaching resources, administrative services, and to ensure that in the future LPI is able to operate within a balanced budget.

1/3 Provide operating funds and accumulated reserves to preserve and enrich the physical plant.

CF&A has approved the Central Texas Conference portion of the campaign as a Fair Share giving opportunity. The goal is to raise a total $140,250, with one third to be raised in each of the years, 1994, 1995, and 1996. This amount will be distributed to the local churches as a Fair Share Goal on the basis of the decimal used for the apportionments.

We ask the Central Texas Conference 1993 session for approval, having already received the approval of the Council on Finance and Administration.

Timothy C. Walker, Trustee

MOUNT SEQUOYAH

The mission of Mount Sequoyah as the South Central Jurisdictional Conference and Retreat Center is to enable persons to find fullness in Jesus Christ and to provide opportunities for these persons to experience training in leadership development, Christian discipleship, inspiration and worship, to the end that they may better serve God in the church and in the world. The theme for 1993 is "Mount Sequoyah -- The Future." We have celebrated seventy years of life commitments and calls to higher service and now we look to the future. The future holds for us the fulfillment of "Team Sequoyah" so that we can truly meet the challenge of the future.

Since going public last June with our two million dollar capital campaign, we rejoice at the nearly $500,000 committed in 1992. This means that we need to raise $1,000,000 in 1993, and conclude the campaign in 1994 with the final $500,000. The commitments to date include gifts from clergy and lay, corporations, foundations and many other persons that love Mount Sequoyah.

Our pilot gift to date is from an anonymous foundation grant for $243,857.50 for our outdoor recreation and family wellness center which includes swimming pool, tennis courts, basketball, volleyball, Wesley Hall renovation and the addition of a programming staff person. Architectural plans have been approved by our Building and Grounds Committee and construction of the first phase is well underway. Some phases will be complete by Annual Conference time.

Applications for the programming position have come from the entire nation and that person will be on duty when these lines are read. This action will make Mount Sequoyah more of a programming center as well as a Hosting Center. The long-range aim of this action is that sharp cutting-edge programs will be offered on the Mountain that are relevant to our jurisdiction and United Methodist churches that are not available elsewhere.

1992 was a "record attendance" year. Mount Sequoyah had more than 26,500 people days in 1992. This reflects an increase of more than 20% above the past record attendance year of 22,000. We feel very good about this and think that it reflects many of the positive things going on at Mount Sequoyah. Our "Team Sequoyah" fund campaign seems to be increasing the awareness of the good things that the Mountain has to offer, plus offering the funding to do capital improvements. Our experience shows that, if we can get a person or group to come to the Mountain once, most of them will return for future times and events.

Our Mount Sequoyah Programming Committee is getting off to a good start. They have begun with the addition of the Stewardship Event "How To Put SIZZLE Into Your Stewardship Strategies" in 1993. This is the start of many event offerings we expect to offer in the future. The addition of a full time event programming person also should increase the effective United Methodist usage of the Mountain.

The first construction of our expansion planned items will be those items mentioned above. These became priority due to primary reasons. 1.) The need to expand our ministry to the whole family is being recognized. This includes youth, who historically continued to come back after a "good experience" on the Mountain as youth. Many of our current "regulars" coming to Mount Sequoyah were here as youth and remembered the influence their experience had on their lives. 2.) The funding was available first, due to foundation matching fund gift for these projects. 3.) The need to begin "real progress" with the planned construction items. A review of the past minutes of Mount Sequoyah historically reflects the possibilities of new construction items being discussed, planned and no actual construction/improvements being accomplished. We want to show that the contributions and gifts are making a "real difference". We still have a long way to go to meet our $2,000,000 goal, but we have a very positive attitude towards our early response and feel that the actual progress, being shown in construction of new facilities, will continue to make a difference.

The normal operations of the Mountain are continuing with new roofing, new ramp and handicap access to buildings, new improvements to cottages and grounds, and "reaching out" to new guests coming to the Mountain.

Many sociologists and others in human dynamics have us looking for the future. The year 2000 will soon be upon us. However, we at Mount Sequoyah believe the future is now. It is our prayer that you will join us in the future.

Make a commitment to Team Sequoyah. Come to the mountain. Allow those of us at the mountain to come to you. Encourage your church to be a model-lead church with a mini-campaign to spotlight our progress. The future is now!

Report No. 1
Work of the Board

LICENSING SCHOOL: The Central Texas Conference Licensing School was held at the Catholic Retreat Center in Fort Worth last year. The 1993 Licensing School will also be held at the retreat center from August 8 through 14.

JOINT MEETING WITH THE BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY: This year's joint meeting with the Board of Diaconal Ministry focused on the on-going ministry study in the United Methodist Church. The discussion was led by Tim Russell. The meeting was held at Westcliff United Methodist Church in Fort Worth.

APPOINTMENTS BEYOND THE LOCAL CHURCH: The annual meeting for persons serving in ABLC appointments was held at Westcliff United Methodist Church on February 22, 1993. This meeting provided an opportunity for ABLC clergy to get acquainted with Bishop Joe Wilson and his goals for the church. Over fifty persons attended the gathering.

SPRING INTERVIEWS: Interviews for deacon, elder, and continuing probationary candidates were held at New World United Methodist Church in Arlington, Texas on March 30 through April 1, 1993. Fifty-eight persons were interviewed. A debt of gratitude is owed to the membership and staff of New World UMC for their hosting of this important event.

REPORTS FROM RETIRED MINISTERS: Responding to a new provision in the Discipline, the Conference Relations Committee, under the leadership of Dr. John Schaub, requested reports from the retired ministers of the conference. Much helpful information was found in these reports and they have been forwarded to Bishop Wilson for further review.

PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSESSMENT: The Board has voted to move psychological assessment of candidates for ministry to the beginning of the candidacy process. Currently, psychological assessment takes place at the time a person submits materials for ordination as a deacon and probationary membership in ;the conference. This change in policy will take place following Annual Conference.

Report No. 2

The Board of Ordained Ministry would remind members of the Annual Conference that in 1990 a program of Growth and Effectiveness Review was adopted for use by clergy members and congregations in our conference. As ¶ 444 of The Book of Discipline requires yearly evaluation for all clergy members, we would urge the full participation of each congregation and clergy members in an annual program of effectiveness review and growth.

Report No. 3

Exploration '92 was held from November 13-15, 1992 at the Galt House East, Louisville, Kentucky. The Convocation was sponsored by the Division of Ordained Ministry of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. The convocation was created for persons age sixteen to twenty-five years who wished to explore ordained ministry as God's call in their life. Six participants from Central Texas joined Brian Young, designated leader for the event.

Report No. 4
Clergy Morale Task Force
Report and Recommendations
June 7, 1993

Clergy morale issues include not only the individual, but also the family and the congregation or appointment which a pastor is serving. Ordained ministers have many of the same problems anybody else has. The issues surrounding marriage relationships and parenting are held in common by many persons. However, because of the nature of the ordained ministry, there are also problems and concerns that are unique to the vocation. Being in ministry is very difficult at times and many individuals face "burn-out". Dr. Charles Kemp, pastoral care consultant, points out that "before you can get burn-out, you have to build a fire. I do see quite a few pastors who do wonder whether or not this should be their calling." Kemp also notes that several suffer from "Spouse Syndrome". Too often the dedicated minister puts a spouse and children second or third on the priorities list.

Clergy have chosen a vocation for which no one is really adequate. Charles Kemp points to the neurotic elements embedded in the ordained ministry: There is always more that could be done, more that should be done and so these universal feelings of inadequacy are reinforced...guilt over issues that people in other professions would just brush off. I have found that clergy frequently do not incorporate into their lives the tension reducing techniques that would help them deal with this pressure."

How long has it been since we made improving our recreational, intellectual growth and devotional life a real priority? Bishop Kenneth Hicks notes that "a person's morale is at about the same level as is their spiritual formation."

We deeply believe that as a conference family we will be able to address in a positive way the following key issues affecting morale.

I. Related to moving
   - A. Lack of roots
   - B. Never having a permanent home
   - C. Moving on short notice
   - D. Never owning your own home and furniture
   - E. Rapid change and leaving old friends (grief resolution issues)
   - F. Adjusting effectively to new settings

II. Related to personal and family life
   - A. Kids/undue pressure/school
   - B. Uprooting children's issues
   - C. Trying to be perfect minister's spouse (the real me?)
   - D. Time alone - double duty as parent (pastor/parent conflict)
   - E. Adjusting to new parsonage (someone else's house)
   - F. Family time, support network
   - G. Phone calls, fish-bowl living, interruptions, no weekends
   - H. Concerns of pastors who are single
   - I. Clergy couples

III. Related to relationships beyond family in church/community
   - A. Pressure to say yes/being on call
   - B. Kids/undue pressure/school
   - C. Finding a new job (spouse) and income issues/career
   - D. Trying to be perfect minister's spouse
   - E. Making new friends and adjustments
   - F. P. P. R.
   - G. Clergy couple roles

As members of the Clergy Morale Task Force we are assuming that the vast majority of clergy here in the Central Texas Conference want to stay healthy in their personal and family relationships. We also assume that the vast majority want to be the most effective clergy persons possible. With this in mind we recommend the following:

1. An annual retreat for the clergy of the CTC to address spiritual, intellectual, recreational development and vocational clarification. This could be a joint effort of the Bishop and Cabinet and the Board of Ordained Ministry and Devotional Life Committee.
2. An annual district retreat to address ministerial relationship, family (married and single) support, and effectiveness in ministry. The Bishop, Cabinet and Board of Ordained Ministry could design the model.
3. A statement as to what constitutes effective ministry in the various situations we find ourselves serving in would be most helpful. The Bishop, Cabinet, Executive Committees from both the Board of Laity and Ordained Ministry could produce such a statement, as well as design a process to improve effectiveness and to develop a model for exiting.
4. Encourage district professionals meetings to be times for professional and spiritual growth. A task force within each district could work with the district superintendent to structure this time together.
5. At least annually, a district or sub-district meeting for families (married and single) in an informal, social setting for encouraging friendship building. Again, the district superintendent could work with a district task force.

6. Recommend that district superintendents meet informally (over coffee, at lunch) with laity (chairpersons of key committees or boards) and clergy to help them review goals for ministry and vision for the church. Here the district superintendent and clergy person could work together to set this up.
7. The Bishop's visits to local ministry settings and districts are most helpful. The place and way these are carried out could alternate between various creative models and groupings.
8. We encourage the establishment of any creative setting that will promote dialogue of the issues for the strengthening of Christ's Church in general. Some models already in place are the Fall University, Apportionment Fairs, District Conferences, Charge Conferences, and Growth and Effectiveness Review Process.

The previous eight recommendations are the result of the Clergy Morale Task Force listening to the felt needs as we perceive them in the Central Texas Annual Conference both from lay and clergy and their families. Information has been gathered from various district retreat settings, from several of the conference-approved counselors and input from the full Board of Ordained Ministry and the Bishop and Cabinet. It should be noted that this report and the accompanying recommendations is the beginning of an ongoing process. It is our intent to promote and encourage healthy morale among any and all who seek to serve God through the ordained ministry.

[1]The Missouri Corporation (General Endowment Fund for Conference Claimants and formerly known as the General Endowment Fund for Superannuates of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South) is distributed on account of service of conference claiments. Distribution is restricted to Annual Conferences that participated in the raising of the fund in proportion to the number of approved years of annuity responsiblity.

[2]The Chartered Fund was established at the Christmas Conference in 1784. Once each year the earnings of the fund are divided among all the conferences.

[3]At Unification there was a General Superannuate Fund. One half of it was distributed to the conferences of the South Central and Southeastern Jurisdictional Conferences. The other half was placed in the General Superannuate Fund. This represents our conference's share of annual interest earnings on the General Superannuate Fund.

[4]The Temporary General Aid Fund, a part of the World Service Apportionment of the General Church, helps provide pensions and minimum compensation in conferences which resulted from mergers of geographic and Central Jurisdiction annual conferences. It is reduced each year by an amount equal to 5%.

Superannuate Fund

This fund originated as a result of the merger of the Methodist Episcopal and Methodist Episcopal South Conferences. The principal amount of this fund ($63,986) must remain intact; however, the past and future earnings may be used based upon the conference's wishes.

Additions: 1992 Earnings	125,674
Balance @ 12-31-92	$ 1,673,163

Recommendations:

1. In keeping with the requirements set forth in the Discipline of 9/10 of 1% of Conference Average Compensation, we are requesting a past service rate of $344 for 1994.
2. Based on the past service rate of $344 for 1994 and considering the earnings from the superannuate fund and the capital funds campaign, we request $1,421,753 from the conference for pensions and CPP requirements.

Pension Cash Flow Requirement	$1,257,102
CPP	328,758
	1,585,860
Earnings used to lower request	(300,000)
1994 Request	$1,285,860

In Summary	1993	1994 Request
Pension & CPP	$1,152,964	$ 1,285,860
Insurance	1,155,787	1,071,787
Total	$2,308,751	$ 2,357,647

3. The Executive Committee of the Board of Pensions has reviewed the following pension records and requests confirmation of the following records:

Individual	Number of Years Recomm. for Approval	Number of Years Already Credited
Edwin L. Chappell	2	1
Leighton Farrell	4
H. Dan Hitt	8	8
Hiram Johnson, Jr.	2	2
Jimmie H. Mobley, Jr.	3
Harold D. Orr	5	2
Donald Osada	2	2
Wendell Robert Stine	3

Of these 29 years, 15 of them had already been counted in the funding process.

4. The Board recommends that each member of the Annual Conference who has arrearages on past years' pension contributions be sent a certified letter requesting full information on each year's payment shortage. To be considered for possible makeup, the arrearage information form must be returned to the conference office by December 1, 1993. Enclosed with the letter will be a form with spaces for all pertinent information needed in the study and consideration.
5. The Board recommends the following procedure for dealing with current and future pension contributions:
   (1) Each January the General Board of Pensions will be requested to send a list of accounts showing arrearages for the previous year.
   (2) Letters will be sent to the following lay leaders of the churches involved: Administrative Board/Council Chair, Pastor/Staff Relations Committee Chair, Finance Committee Chair, and Treasurer. The pastor and the district superintendent will also receive the letter. The letter will emphasize the importance of this issue and urge them to bring their contributions current by the September 1 deadline, or apply by June 1 for a grant if the church is unable to meet the obligation.
   (3) Each church which does not meet its obligation will report this fact to its Charge Conference and give an explanation. The district superintendent will keep a record of this action.
   (4) A Pensions Support Fund will be established for assisting local churches which cannot meet their obligation. This will be an apportioned fund except for 1994 (1993 arrearages) when necessary funds will be taken from reserves.
6. In the case of Family Leave, the Board recommends that the conference make CPP contributions of 3.4% of the Denominational Average Compensation for Full Members, Associate Members, and Probationary Members.

After four full years of experience with our Utilization Review Provider, Transport Life reported that this has resulted in a savings of $318,714.

ProAmerica, our Preferred Provider Organization, is requiring those groups participating in their network to use one of the incentives they offer as a display of good faith in obtaining a high percentage of usage of its facilities. Failure to use them will result in an additional $250 out of pocket per confinement for the participant, which could result in a larger maximum out of pocket expense. Participants who live more than 35 miles from such a facility would be exempt from the $250 penalty as would participants in unusual and specific cases where ProAmerica facilities do not provide the care required. Our participation in ProAmerica continues to be a means of savings and cost containment to our plan.

Benefits added to the health plan in 1992 were the United Health Care Transplant Program, designed to provide access to quality transplant services at premier medical facilities through a cost-effective, coordinated approach, and the convenience of mail-order drug program whereby maintenance prescription drugs can be ordered in 90-day supplies or 100 unit doses from National Rx Service in Dallas.

CURRENT DEDUCTIBLES

1993 Deductible - $500 per person, $1,000 per family; $250 per hospital confinement

	1 person	2 persons	3 persons
Calendar Year Deductible	$ 500	$ 1,000	$ 1,000
Out-of-Pocket Maximum	2,000	3,000	3,000
Total cash out-of-pocket (excluding hospital confinement deductibles and certain other unpaid costs described in Plan booklet)	$ 2,500	$ 4,000	$ 4,000

The Insurance Committee requests the following to fund the conference Group Life and Health Insurance Plan:

1. Conference Apportionment for 1994 - $1,071,787
2. Premiums paid by plan participants to be effective January 1, 1994 will remain level for all categories:
   a. Lay employees, diaconals and clergy with special appointment
      Family $540
      Single 202
   b. Active clergy, retired clergy and covered surviving spouses receiving pension
      Family $270
      Single 101
   c. Clergy receiving equitable salary
      Family $235
      Single 85

The local church and any other Conference entity which employs individuals who work at least 20 hours a week must make the employee(s) aware of the availability of the Conference's group health insurance. Every employer (whether contributing or not to the cost of the employee's insurance) also has the responsibility to notify the Insurance Plan when participating employee is no longer eligible.

As a reminder and as explained in the Insurance Plan booklet, each participant has the responsibility of submitting a change card within 31 days of his or her acquiring a new dependent if the dependent is to be added to the health insurance plan. Change cards are available from the Conference office.

Because the General Board of Pensions has determined that the $5,000 life insurance coverage presently carried by the Central Texas Conference on the lives of our retired clergy will no longer be available after December 31, 1993, the Insurance Committee will introduce a motion at Annual Conference which will permit us to take advantage of an alternative coverage through the General Board's Basic Protection Plan. Under this program, 70 per cent participation of all active clergy must be guaranteed; therefore, our proposal will be that the conference pay for $10,000 life insurance on the life of each active clergy person enrolled in Comprehensive Protection Plan and $5,000 for each retiree. The cost will run approximately $50,000 annually compared to the $42,014 we paid in 1992 for retirees only.

Your Insurance Committee has aggressively pursued opportunities to contain the cost of your plan and will continue to do so. If we are successful in obtaining a competitive proposal which can improve 1994 costs and/or benefits of your health insurance coverage, the committee will share full details with you at Annual Conference.

We recommend:

1) that for the calendar year 1994, the single premium rate be reduced from $214 to $202 per month and that the dependent unit premium be reduced from $376 to $338 per month making the total family premium $540 per month.
2) that beginning July 1, 1993, the premium rates paid by insured persons or local churches reflect the proposed 1994 reductions.
3) that all retired clergy and/or spouses who have Medicare A and B be offered the Harris Medicare Supplement Plan I (outside the conference Group Health Insurance Plan) and that the conference through Minister's Insurance Apportionments, pay one-half of the retiree's premium.

Report No. 3
Resolution relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired or Disabled Ministers of this Conference

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service, and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the Central Texas Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference; and

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister, and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

NOW THERE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefits payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 1994 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the Central Texas Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability;
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of:

1. The amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body,
2. The amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or
3. The legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided.

As specified as Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C.B.92, " the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 109(2) of the Code as a 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

Report No. 4

The Board of Pensions is concerned about several areas for which we are responsible and are attempting to find better answers than we now have. Those areas are as follows:

A. Churches which are not currently paying the pension item for their pastor: We are aware of instances when local church pastors have told their congregation to give them the funds as a part of their salary rather than pay the funds into the retirement fund. It is our understanding that other congregations have simply chosen to not pay the item. We urge the district superintendents to continue to monitor this deficiency in order that pastors not come to the age of retirement with incomplete benefits. A special task force, chaired by Bill Boyd, has been established within the board to make recommendations as to how this issue can best be handled.

B. The continued rise in health premiums: We are exploring every avenue of which we are aware for ways we can limit the cost which is passed on to each plan member. We are also investigating ways we may be able to make health care available to our retired ministers and their families at a lesser premium. At this time we are unable to offer recommendations in this regard.

C. The level of pension payments in our conference: For some time now we have been at the disciplinary level of compensation but are slipping behind other annual conferences who have moved beyond that level. Unfortunately budgetary restrictions for 1994 make it possible for us to only fund at the same level as last year and make it impossible to consider moving up to a full 1% rather than the .9% at which we are presently funded. We will continue to be mindful of this deficiency and shall try to move aggressively ahead in the future, as funding levels permit.

We appreciate the opportunity to serve you this year and while our report may not be satisfactory in every way to every segment of our constituency, we feel that given the fiduciary limitations with which we are confronted, we have done all that is/was prudent for us to do.

Don M. Pike, Chairperson

PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

At the organizational meeting of the Personnel Committee we spent a good deal ot time attempting to define the boundaries of our responsibilities. We eventually agreed by consensus to divide the committee into four sub-committees. The four sub-committees are: Review and Evaluation, Benefits, Policies, and Job Descriptions.

As we began to discuss the current status with the conference directors, we found that they had been in close communication with one another and that they were consistent with their methods of handling personnel issues.

While work is proceeding in each sub-committee, we felt that the top priority this year was to get certain policies written and hopefully approved by the Annual Conference.

We recommend the following policies for adoption by the Annual Conference.

Glen Whitley, Chairperson

Employment Policies

The Central Texas Conference is an equal opportunity employer and shall consider employment of qualified persons without regard to race, sex, age, national origin or handicapping condition.

Further, it is the policy of the conference to:

- Recognize each employee as an individual.
- Establish appropriate objectives or standards for each position within the organization.
- Review periodically the performance of all employees to inform them of their status, provide them with continuous guidance, help them gain knowledge, and assist their progress in their jobs.
- Offer a comprehensive benefits program in acknowledgement that financial security and personal welfare are of great value to members of the staff, their dependents, and the conference.

Harassment of Employees

The conference will also ensure the right of each employee to work under conditions free from unlawful discrimination and sexual harassment. The conference is committed to a positive and productive working environment. Conference policy prohibits sexual harassment or intimidation of staff. Sexual harassment is any comment, gesture, or physical conduct of sexual nature that is unwanted and perceived by the recipient as discomforting, intimidating, coercive or demanding and which continues after the person who is the target expresses objection.

For purposes of clarity, sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, sexual flirtations, activities, verbal or otherwise, of a sexual nature by employees that may be offensive to any other employee; suggestive literature and pictures; verbal abuse of a sexual nature directed to an employee or to a group of employees; degrading words to describe the sex of a person; sexually degrading jokes or objects; and any activity that insinuates a sexual attitude about another person. Also, it is to be clearly understood that a member of either sex may be found guilty of sexual harassment and will be held equally accountable. Further, the conference prohibits retaliation against any employee because that employee has made a report of alleged sexual harassment, or against any employee who has testified, assisted, or participated in the investigation of a report. Retaliation includes, but is not limited to, any form of intimidation, reprisal, or adverse pressure. The conference will adopt guidelines for grievance procedure, including:

1. If one is sexually harassed;
2. If one is charged with sexual harassment;
3. If one receives a report of sexual harassment; and,
4. If one observes sexual harassment.

Sexual harassment constitutes "special consideration" in disciplinary procedures.

Personnel Records

A personnel file will be maintained for each employee. The files will be confidential. Employees have the right to access their own files.

It is the responsibility of each individual employee to keep his or her personnel record up-to-date by notifying the Personnel Manager of any changes in name, home address, telephone number, marital status, number of dependents, or other relevant personal data.

Confidentiality

To the best of the conference's ability, it will make every reasonable effort to maintain confidentiality of all employee medical information. Any medical information will be released only with written authorization by the employee or their authorized representative.

Outside Employment

The conference does not object to employees accepting a second job so long as it does not conflict with normal working hours or have a negative effect on their ability to satisfy the requirements of their position or involve the use of confidential information, learned directly or indirectly through employment at the conference. Employees are required, prior to the beginning of a second job, to obtain written approval from immediate supervisor to help assure that no possible conflict of interest or breach of confidentiality exists.

Disciplinary Procedures

Rules and Regulations

All segments of society must have certain rules and regulations, which are not meant to restrict anyone's rights but are designed to protect the rights and happiness of all. Whether or not the disciplinary procedures are followed, all employees are subject to dismissal with notice at any time, when, in the sole opinion of management, the employee's job performance and/or conduct is found unsatisfactory for any reason.

All employees of the conference are expected to abide by these rules. Some infractions that may subject an employee to disciplinary action including termination, but not be limited to the following:

1. Fraud in securing employment
2. Inefficiency
3. Incompetency
4. Inexcusable neglect of duty
5. Insubordination
6. Dishonesty
7. Inexcusable absences
8. Conviction of a felony or conviction of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude
9. Discourteous treatment of the public or other employee
10. Misuse of conference property
11. Unprofessional conduct
12. Bringing intoxicants or drugs (other than drugs prescribed by a physician for a specific employee) on conference premises, or being under the influence of alcohol or controlled substances

Other infractions or misconduct may occur that have not been specifically covered in the preceding list. Any violation is dealt with in accordance with the conference's policy of fair and just administration of all rules and regulations.

The conference reserves the right to use disciplinary action and/or termination. This action may include a written reprimand, probation, suspension or termination. The employee may, at any time, initiate grievance procedures.

Grievance Procedure

When a group of people work together, personal conflict and complaints occasionally arise. Whatever the concern, the person involved must be given a fair and thorough opportunity to discuss the complaint and seek a just response.

When an employee has a complaint or a concern, the first step toward its solution is a frank and sincere talk with his/her immediate supervisor. If the supervisor is not able to resolve the complaint, the conference's procedures ensure every employee an adequate hearing. These are the steps for processing a complaint or grievance.

1. An employee should discuss a complaint with his/her immediate supervisor, who will give the employee a response within five (5) working days of the discussion.
2. If the immediate supervisor's response is not satisfactory to the employee, the employee can, within five working days of receiving the answer, request an opportunity to discuss the matter with the appropriate director. If the employee's immediate supervisor is the director this step will be eliminated and the employee may appeal the matter in writing to the Personnel Committee.
3. If the director's response is not satisfactory to the employee, he or she may appeal the matter in writing to the Personnel Committee. The Personnel Committee will review the case, interview all parties concerned, and submit a decision to the employee within fifteen (15) working days after receiving the written appeal.

Termination/Resignation

Notice of termination or resignation must be given in writing. A final exit interview will be conducted by the Executive Committee of the Personnel Committee prior to the date the final paycheck is due, unless the interview is declined by the employee.

* * * * *

Should conference policy ever be found to conflict with The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church then The Book of Discipline takes precedent over conference policy.

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

The Annual Conference Commission on Religion and Race is a body that is represented by someone from every district in the Central Texas Conference; and has adequate representation of women, youth, young adults, older adults, and persons with handicapping conditions. The commission functions within the Annual Conference for the purpose of monitoring and advocating opportunities to deal with the elimination of discrimination and racism within local churches, districts, boards, agencies, and the conference. Racism is not easy to deal with because our prejudices have been built in through society for a long time. There are times when it is hard for us to be honest to our true feelings, and to recognize that we are a part of the problem and then to work toward being open in how we overcome the fear of racism and to see everyone for who he or she truly is at heart.

Some strides have been made in dealing with racism within our Annual Conference. We express thanks to the Bishop and the Cabinet in their work of cross-cultural appointments and we pray that much will be accomplished within the coming years.

We would like to continue to have goals set for the upcoming year. These are:

1. We encourage each district to sponsor an annual district-wide event that promotes racial inclusiveness. The district coordinator is responsible for the coordination of this event. This should be done by the end of 1994.
2. We recommend that all local church offices as well as the District and Annual Conference Offices be closed annually in honor of Martin Luther King's Birthday.
3. We encourage all conference and district boards and agencies to be more inclusive of different ethnicities. This should be ongoing.
4. We recommend that during 1994, the conference Board of Ordained Ministry sponsor a mandatory event for all Clergy and Diaconals with the conference Inclusiveness Resource Team.

5. We encourage each District Council on Ministries to provide a training and conditioning experience for Local Church Work Area on Religion and Race, Pastor Parish Relations Committees, and key lay officers, with the conference Inclusiveness Resource Team by the end of the quadrennium.
6. We want to encourage all local churches in our annual conference to have cross-racial pulpit exchanges, cross-racial choir exchanges, or fellowship groups throughout the year.
7. We encourage ongoing frequent fellowship of racial/ethnic congregations leading to an understanding and knowledge of racial differences.
8. We encourage the Bishop and Cabinet to seek out clergy and laity who will give themselves to cross-cultural and cross-racial appointments, to begin new Sunday schools and congregations. Also, we recommend that local congregations solicit such appointments.
9. We affirm the priority of increasing the number of appointments which involve people of different ethnic groups from the majority membership of an individual congregation. As a goal we believe the conference should be moving toward a minimum of 3% of all pastoral appointments by the year 2000.
10. We recommend the study through small groups, seminars, and workshops to eliminate the inequities in clergy salaries.
11. We applaud those churches who have notified us that they have had cross-racial pulpit exchanges, choir exchanges, or fellowship groups.

Alfred G. Sanford, Sr., Chairperson

COMMITTEE ON RULES, POLICIES AND GUIDELINES

As the Committee on Rules, Policies and Guidelines begins a new quadrennium of service, we are aware of the expanded scope of responsibility assigned to the committee by the 1992 Annual Conference.

The committee is in the process of compiling policies and guidelines of the Annual Conference and its commissions, committees, councils and boards into a policy manual to be kept in the conference center and each district office.

We believe that the work of the Committee on Rules, Policies and Guidelines has assisted the Annual Conference to function more effectively and efficiently. We believe that the work of the committee in preparation for the 1993 Annual Conference will enhance those accomplishments.

Report No. 1

The following recommended revisions to the Standing Rules contain: the paragraph number followed by the recommended change (the material to be deleted is underlined and the material to be added is in bold face type), the rationale for the recommendation and the originator of the proposed revision.

I. ANNUAL CONFERENCE

1.3.1 After the phrase "...(ACCOM) who is a lay person not otherwise a member...," add "...the conference archivist/historian who is not otherwise a member."

Rationale: The position of the conference archivist/historian -- by virtue of the office held -- should be added as a member of the Annual Conference. This recommendation adds the conference archivist/historian as a member of the Annual Conference if the individual is not already a member and permits the archivist/historian to address the conference without having to suspend the conference rules. (Conference staff)

II. CONFERENCE ORGANIZATION

Conference Council on Ministries (ACCOM) Committees:

2.0 After the phrase "...shall be chosen from within the council...", add the following wording parenthetically "...(where feasible and in accordance with the Discipline)..."

Rationale: The requirement that members of ACCOM committees (with the exception of Camps and Assemblies) be members of ACCOM is contrary to the Discipline, at least as it relates to the Committee on Planning and Research. The proposed revision removes the discrepancy from the committees, except the Camps and Assemblies Committee which is not subject to Disciplinary mandate. (Rules Committee)

After the last sentence ending "...serve no more than four consecutive years (1992 ¶ 726.5)", add the sentence "The Chairperson of the council (ACCOM) shall be an ex officio member, without vote, of all committees of ACCOM."

Rationale: By tradition, the chairperson of ACCOM has been a member without vote of ACCOM committees. This addition formalizes the tradition. (ACCOM)

2.6.5 After the words "...Development shall be...", delete "...elected by the body or executive committee, or..."

Rationale: The Camps and Assemblies Committee has historically used only one of the three means by which its work committees can be selected, i.e., appointment by the Camps and Assemblies chair. The committee has found this method to be workable and efficient, and finds no need to retain the other two methods. (Committee on Camps and Assemblies)

Conference Agencies: Program Boards

2.0 After the words "...eight consecutive years.", add the following sentence: "The chairperson of the council (ACCOM) shall be an ex officio member, without vote, of all program boards of the council."

Rationale: By tradition, the chairperson of ACCOM has been a member without vote of ACCOM program boards. This addition formalizes the tradition. (ACCOM)

Commission on Status and Role of Women in the Church

14.1 After the words "...three laywomen;" delete "two representatives from the conference United Methodist Women", and replace it with "the Mission Coordinator of Supportive Community of the conference United Methodist Women and one additional representative from the conference United Methodist Women."

Rationale: The conference United Methodist Women have made a change in their constitution and by-laws for 1993-1996. The proposed revision reflects that change and identifies by office one of the two UMW representative to COSROW. (conference UMW)

Committee on Minutes

after "...the...", delete "...daily...";

after ".Annual Conference", delete "...except...";

after "...final session...", delete "...when it shall read and approve the final proceedings."

Rationale: The proposed revision would permit the Committee on Minutes to read and approve the daily proceedings of the Annual Conference after the close of the conference (as is the practice of many annual conferences) and no longer require the minutes to be prepared each night and reported back to the Annual Conference each morning. (Committee on the Agenda)

Commission on Church Growth and Development

25.0 After the words "...1980 Journal of the Central Texas Conference...", add the phrase "...as amended."

25.1 After the words "...membership of the commission shall...", delete "...be the Bishop; the district superintendents...", and add "...consist of elected members:";

after the words "...one lay person from each district...", delete "...with no two members from the same church...", and add "...nominated by the district Committee on Nominations and elected by the District Conference..." after the words "...two at large clergy...", add "...nominated by the conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference; ex officio members: the Bishop, the district superintendents;"; after "...Central Texas Conference Foundation...", add "...without vote:; and delete "...the following ex officio members of the Annual Conference:";

after "...the executive director of the commission, without vote;..." add "...the chairperson of the conference Board of Trustees...";

after "...Texas Methodist Foundation, ex officio...", add "...without vote."; and, after "...Texas Methodist Foundation, ex officio, without vote.", add "...Additional lay members: if needed, additional lay members shall be nominated by the conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference to ensure inclusion of persons with expertise in the areas of finance, architecture, real estate, building construction and law."

The paragraph would read:

25.1 The membership of the commission shall consist of elected members: one clergy from each district and one lay person from each district nominated by the district Committee on Nominations and elected by the District Conference; two persons of ethnic background, two women if not already represented, two at large lay persons and two at large clergy nominated by the conference committee on nominations and elected by the annual conference; ex officio members: the Bishop; the district superintendents; the chairperson of the Central Texas Conference Foundation, without vote; the director of the conference Council on Finance and Administration; the director of the conference Council on Ministries; the conference lay leader; the president of the conference United Methodist Men; the president of the conference United Methodist Women; the chairperson of the conference Board of Global Ministries; the chairperson of the conference Board of Trustees; the executive director of the commission, without vote; and the director of the Texas Methodist Foundation, without vote. Additional lay members: if needed, additional lay members shall be nominated by the conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference to ensure inclusion of persons with expertise in the areas of finance, architecture, real estate, building construction, and law.

25.2 Delete this paragraph and renumber the following paragraphs accordingly.

25.3 (new) After the words "...shall be...", add "...at least..."; and after "...Committee on Finance", add "...,with other committees named by the chairperson as needed."

Rationale: Church Growth and Development is an incorporated entity that operates under its own bylaws. Since 1980 certain changes have been made in the standing rules of the conference that affected the bylaws, but those changes were never made in the bylaws. This new standing rule will harmonize the standing rules and the bylaws of the corporation. The commission will meet in the fall to reconcile our bylaws with this standing rule.

(Commission on Church Growth and Development)

Committee on Lay Employee Benefits

Delete from the Standing Rules paragraphs 27.0 through 27.4 relating to the Committee on Lay Employee Benefits.

Rationale: The Personnel Committee feels that there is a duplication of responsibilities with the creation of the conference Personnel Committee by the 1992 Annual Conference and that the need for a Committee on Lay Employee Benefits has been negated by the 1992 Annual Conference. This action will terminate the Committee on Lay Employee Benefits.

(Personnel Committee)

Episcopal Residence Committee

27.0 There shall be a conference Episcopal Residence Committee that shall be elected, organized and function according to the Book of Discipline (1992 ¶ 736).

Rationale: This recommendation brings the conference Standing Rules into conformity with the Book of Discipline. (Conference staff)

Committee on Counseling

30.0 There shall be a Committee on Counseling elected by the Annual Conference.

30.1 The committee shall be composed of five members. Two shall be nominated by the Board of Ordained Ministry and three shall be nominated by the Bishop.

30.2 The purpose of the Committee on Counseling will be to monitor the counseling program on a regular basis and make an annual evaluation of the performance of the counselors, and secure counselors as needed.

30.3 The chairperson of the committee will be charged with the responsibility of carrying out the administrative responsibilities of the committee.

Rationale: Creation of the Committee on Counseling was approved by the 1989 Annual Conference but was never added to the Standing Rules as a committee of the conference. This recommendation corrects that oversight. (Conference staff)

IV. FINANCIAL

4.0 After the phrase "...(72) Other current operating expenses.", add the following sentences: Add the above thirteen (13) expenditures for each district to get the "district total expenditure". Divide each "district total expenditure" by the "conference total expenditure" to get the district decimal. (Each decimal is rounded off to four places.) Multiply the district decimal by each Conference Apportionment to get the District Apportionment. Add the above thirteen (13) expenditures for each local church to get their "local total expenditure". Divide each "local total expenditure" by the "district total expenditure" to arrive at the local church decimal. (Each decimal is rounded off to four places.) Multiply the local church decimal by each District Apportionment allocation to get the Local Church Apportionment. (Each apportionment is rounded off to the nearest dollar.)

Rationale: Paragraph 4.0 does not complete the process of explaining the determination of the decimal. The recommended addition to ¶ 4.0 will correct the deficiency.

Report No. 2

The Committee on Rules, Policies and Guidelines seeks authorization of the Annual Conference to make those changes in the Standing Rules required to bring the Annual Conference Standing Rules into conformity with changes made in the Book of Discipline by the 1992 General Conference, including but not limited to the renumbering of Discipline paragraphs cited in the Standing Rules.

The committee also asks authorization to make other routine editorial changes (those not related to structure, responsibility or function) in the conference Standing Rules.

SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION
Report of the Executive Director of Mission and Administration

The South Central Jurisdictional Conference of 1992 restructured the Jurisdictional office. It kept the executive director's post and responsibilities while eliminating two full time staff positions (Korean Ministries and Volunteers in Mission). It gave those responsibilities to the executive director.

The Jurisdiction's Korean Caucus elected Rev. Won Kie Kim of Dallas as its chair. He works with the executive director as volunteer Korean Ministries Director. He has led a celebration of the anniversary of Korean Ministries, a meeting with new Korean pastors and a meeting with young adult United Methodist of Korean origin. He has cooperated in plans for a new Korean Church in Topeka and consulted, upon request, with several district superintendents about Korean appointments.

Hundreds of Volunteers in Mission went to south Louisiana and many more are scheduled to go. Many other projects in the Jurisdiction need VIM teams. The office informs persons about them through periodic mailings and through responding to all requests for information and other help. Superserve, the VIM weekend at Mount Sequoyah, September 4-6, will have a new look this year. The Jurisdiction is working with leaders in the Northwest Texas and New Mexico Conferences to plan a VIM rally similar to Superserve for the western part of the Jurisdiction.

The Jurisdictional Lab School - at Mount Sequoyah, July 11-17, has a new name and a new vitality. Its's called "Journey to Excellence." It includes numerous short courses in addition to lab classes.

The Youth Team has been hard at work planning SpiLiRa (Spiritual Life Rally) for 800 to 1000 youth at University of Arkansas in Fayetteville, July 6-10. This could be a life-changing experience for many.

At the Jurisdiction's heart are numerous networks of church leaders who meet to foster excellence through sharing insights, supporting and teaching one another. These include: Black pastors, Church Growth Network, conference United Methodist Men's officers, conference VIM coordinators, council directors, Fellowship of Communicators, large membership church pastors, outdoor ministries staff, Singles Ministry Task Force and urban ministries workers. The Jurisdiction office works with and supports each of these. Persons with ideas for new networks that may be needed are encouraged to contact the executive director.

The Jurisdiction office moved this year due to the relocation of the Cokesbury store where it was housed. Our new address and phone number is: South Central Jurisdiction, 5646 Milton St., Suite 240, Dallas, TX 75206, 214-692-9081. We invite the United Methodists of the Jurisdiction to visit our offices, located in the Meadows office building, on North Central Expressway one block south of Lovers Lane.

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

The commission's general purpose is to foster awareness of the concerns and issues facing women in the church, and to encourage continuing commitment to the full participation of women in the total life of the church. To that end, the commission has been working on the following projects in 1993:

1) Compilation of a resource list of persons and programs concerning women's issues to be distributed to district UMW, UMM, and youth organizations, church school classes, Administrative Board/Council on Ministries, SPR/PPR committees, etc. This list will include suggested video tapes and/or film strips, books, pamphlets and other resources available through the conference office. This list would also include suggestions for equitable honorariums for speakers.
2) Sponsoring of workshops related to women's issues for the 1993 Fall University. These workshops will include:
   a) "Sexual Harassment in the Workplace" with B. C. Cornish, attorney-at-law

TEXAS METHODIST FOUNDATION

The directors and management of The Texas Methodist Foundation are proud to report that 1992 was a year of exceptional growth for The Foundation both in increased assets and the level of services provided. The Central Texas Conference was instrumental in this growth, and we are grateful for our relationships in this conference.

1992 In Review

1) Assets under management increased to $96,450,000
2) Earnings on deposits totalled $5,287,778
3) 67 loans were originated in excess of $16,500,000

During 1992, ninety-one United Methodist churches and related agencies in the Central Texas Conference had over nine million dollars on deposit with The Texas Methodist Foundation. Loans from The Texas Methodist Foundation to fifty churches and agencies in the Central Texas Conference totalled over fourteen and one-half million dollars.

The primary goal of The Texas Methodist Foundation continues to be that every United Methodist church or related agency in the state of Texas have a planned giving program in effect. Our development staff offers planned giving counsel and services to these United Methodist institutions and individuals upon request.

It is our hope that these services offered through The Texas Methodist Foundation will promote more effective stewardship to all United Methodists in Texas.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

As of April 1, 1993, the conference Board of Trustees was custodian of three pieces of property:

1. Conference building
2. Allen Chapel Church
3. Norton Church

The Allen Chapel Church building was sold for $500 and the building removed from the property. The Allen Chapel Church property and the Norton Church property have been made available for sale and continue to be for sale. However, there are no offers pending on either church at this time.

The Board of Trustees has sold the Prairie Hill Church and certain furnishings for a net total after commissions of $11,230. The Board of Trustees was unable to find a buyer for the Carbon Church property and agreed to transfer the property to the Carbon Community Center.

As of April 1, 1993, the balance of the conference's note to the Texas Methodist Foundation secured by the conference building was $180,513. In addition to the properties noted above, the trustees hold title to the Episcopal residence. On April 1, 1993 the balance of the conference's note on the Episcopal residence was $167,912.

Tim Russell, Church Growth and Development Director, has become the property agent for the Board of Trustees and is responsible for marketing all properties being sold. Our conference Director of Finance and Administration, Sidney Roberts, has kept all property adequately insured. We appreciate their assistance in these matters.

We encourage all conference churches to be incorporated and to carry adequate liability insurance to protect the churches and their members. All churches which buy real estate or accept gifts of real estate are encouraged to first determine if the real estate has any environmental problems which might subject the church to liability for all necessary clean-up.

UNITED METHODIST COMMUNICATIONS COUNCIL
1992-93 Report to the Annual Conferences of Texas and New Mexico

The United Methodist Communications Council of Texas and New Mexico put information about our Christian witness into more than 2.7 million households across Texas and New Mexico during 1992-93.

* Through The United Methodist Reporter, the Council delivered weekly news of the church's mission and ministry to 160,000 United Methodist families in Texas and New Mexico. In addition, the Reporter, United Methodist Review, United Methodist Record and National Christian Reporter took information about the church into more than 300,000 households in other states.

* Through United Methodist Media Services, the Council increased press coverage in Texas and New Mexico on the 1992 General Conference and 1992 annual conference sessions by one-fourth. News stories and photographs from Media Services doubled the coverage in Texas and New Mexico of episcopal elections during the South Central Jurisdictional Conference. Information released by Media Services presented news of how United Methodists carry out their Christian witness to some 2.45 million households across Texas and New Mexico that wouldn't have received it otherwise. Media Services releases increased the chances of newspaper readers in Texas and New Mexico seeing stories about The United Methodist Church by some 3.3 million.

These activities illustrate just some of the ways the Communications Council helps the annual conferences of Texas and New Mexico proclaim the Gospel message through mass media. The Council was formed in 1968 to coordinate and carry out cooperative communications programs for those seven conferences. The Council accomplishes that mission through a number of operating units: the Reporter, Media Services, Mission Communications,UMR Institute for Church Communications and UMR Foundation.

To clarify and strengthen the role of the seven owner conferences in the governance of these communications ministries, the Council amended its constitution and corporate charter in February. Each of the seven conferences will be asked to ratify these constitutional changes during their 1993 sessions.

The Council adopted its first corporate bylaws in February as well. Those bylaws outline missions that the Council will carry out specifically for the seven conferences of Texas and New Mexico. The conference-service missions include:

* Fostering more effective use of communications media by annual conferences, local congregations and church agencies.

* Developing and coordinating ongoing strategies to enhance United Methodism's public image through relations with secular mass communications media.

* Presenting the United Methodist witness on legislative and social issues to state and local governmental officials as well as the public at large. This task is carried out in consultation with the bishops of Texas and New Mexico and the Bishop's Legislative Advisory Committee.

The goal of these missions is to make The United Methodist Church a more influential force in Texas and New Mexico.

The seven conferences of Texas and New Mexico supported the Council's efforts during 1992 by pledging to help raise $1.1 million for a new communications center in Dallas. Those pledges were made in response to a $500,000 challenge grant from the Mabee Foundation of Tulsa, Okla. The Mabee Foundation rejected those pledges in July and withdrew the challenge offer. That action released the conferences from their promises to guarantee specific levels of support. Nevertheless, the UMR Foundation continues to work with leaders in each conference on various fund-raising efforts.

The Council elected the Rev. Ronald P. Patterson, a member of the West Ohio Conference, Reporter publisher in April 1992. He began work in July, succeeding the late Spurgeon M. Dunnam III. Mr. Patterson's dream is to build a vital center for Christian communications in Dallas. That center will serve the needs of its constituencies with quality print and non-print resources in a ever-expanding array of news and information services.

SUMMARY OF AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION
United Methodist Communication Council of Texas and New Mexico

The United Methodist Communication Council recommends the following amended constitution to the annual conferences of Texas and New Mexico for ratification during their 1993 sessions.

The Communication Council amended its constitution and corporate charter February 3, 1993. The purposes of the constitutional changes were to:

* Streamline the Council's basic governance document.

* Clarify and strengthen the Council's role in governance of The United Methodist Reporter by spelling out organizational details in separate bylaws.

* Allow the Council to adapt its organization and structure quickly to meet communications ministry needs in the annual conferences of Texas and New Mexico.

The resulting document is much shorter than the one the annual conferences of Texas and New Mexico last ratified in 1987. Major changes include:

* Elimination of sections spelling out specific organizational details concerning duties of Council officers, committees, steps for calling meetings, structures for subsidiary operating units and election of staff members. Those details are now covered in separate corporate bylaws.

* Elimination of subsections about travel expenses and meeting space from Section VI (Finances). These topics are now covered in the corporate bylaws.

* Addition of a third task to subsection B of Section II (Purpose): "Presenting the United Methodist witness on legislative and social issues to state and local government officials in Texas and New Mexico as well as the public at large. This task will be carried out in consultation with the bishops assigned annual conferences in Texas and New Mexico."

* Addition of Section IV (Organization and Structure) allowing the Council to spell out its organization and structure in corporate bylaws.

To complete the Council's governance modifications, the amended constitution needs to be ratified by majority vote in two-thirds of the annual conferences that own the Council.

This constitution was first adopted in 1969. It was amended in 1972, 1978, 1982 and 1987.

His educational background was rich and significant which included graduation from Abilene High School, a Bachelor of Science Degree in 1937 from McMurry College, Abilene, a Masters of Divinity Degree from Perkins School of Theology, S.M.U., Dallas. In 1954 his alma mater, McMurray College, honored him with a degree, Doctor of Divinity honoris causa.

His appointments were: Conference Secretary of Youth; Associate Pastor, Austin Avenue Methodist Church, Waco, Texas; Senior Minister, Knox Memorial Methodist Church, Manilla, Philippines; Associate Professor of Missions and Associate Dean in charge of Admissions, Perkins School of Theology, S.M.U., Dallas, TX. On February 14, 1940, J.B. was married to Margaret Ann Buster of Stanford, Texas who survives him in addition to the following: sons and daughters-in-law Mike and Ann Holt of Dallas, Stephen and Karen Holt of Plano, and son Paul Holt of Dallas; sister, Mary Ballew of Brady, Texas; grandchildren: Steve, Chris, Allison, Kelsey, and Katherine Holt and Melissa Parrish.

In his own words, J.B. voiced the following affirmation which guided his faithful life: "I never cease to marvel at the physical, spiritual, and emotional possibilities offered in human life. To work and serve and love and play in a spirit of gratitude to the Infinite Power behind it all adds zest and meaning."

J.B.'s commitment to Christ and the United Methodist Church manifest itself in his being a loving husband, a devoted father and grandfather, an efficient Secretary of the General Conference of the Methodist Church, and an understanding and helpful counselor to hundreds of young men and women who were wrestling with their call to the ministry as there were completing their undergraduate work and preparing for seminary.

J.B., you have lived well and we love you. Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.

JOHN DILLARD HUTCHESON
April 16, 1934 - March 18, 1993

John Dillard Hutcheson was born April 16, 1934 in Springtown, Texas to Alfred Stanley Hutcheson, Sr. and Mary Ruth Dillard Hutcheson. He was an army veteran and served in Germany during the Korean War.

On October 11, 1957, he married Jatha Dawn Mosley. Thirty-six years and four children later, they were as happy as that first day. In age order, his children are: James Dillard Hutcheson, Rebecca Dawn Hutcheson Perryman, Clifford Stanley Hutcheson, and Kathi Lynn Hutcheson Bales. He had five grandchildren that he was very proud of.

He received his A.A. from Weatherford Junior College, his B.A. from Texas Christian University in 1962, and his M. Div. from Brite Divinity School in 1965. He was ordained deacon in 1963 after serving the Bethesda Circuit for one year as a student local pastor. In 1965 he was ordained elder in full connection. John served many other churches in the Central Texas Conference. Among his appointments were: Acton-Temple Hall, Red Oak, Waco Lakeview, Glen Rose-Morgan, Whitney-Coon Creek, Bluffdale-Hill, and Godley.

John was effective at every charge that was ever given to him. While at Tarleton State University, no less than five students became United Methodist ministers and are serving churches today. A couple of others married ministers.

John was a "card", to say the least. But he was also a wonderful teacher and a great friend! He had his own way of inspiring people to go beyond the limits they had set for themselves. He accomplished this with a great deal of humor and even more love and compassion. He fought long and hard for his beloved Methodist Church, even when the church wasn't sure of its own stand.

Much has been shared about "John the Methodist", but all have agreed on one thing: John was always upright and fair! While he spent many years as a teacher, he was always a student as well. He took each church and every challenge as another opportunity to learn. Never one to turn down a call to serve, John is now serving in the greatest appointment of all. And with the legacy that he has left behind, it is certain he will not soon be forgotten.

ROBERT VANCE "BOB" LINDSEY
January 28, 1931 - May 5, 1993

Robert Vance Lindsey was born near Caps, Taylor County, Texas, on January 28, 1931, son of Oren D. Lindsey and Irene A. Sherwood Lindsey.

He attended Texas Wesleyan University and graduated from McMurry University, Abilene, Texas.

Bob was licensed to preach by the Abilene District, Northwest Texas Conference in 1950. He served all his ministry in the Central Texas Conference beginning with appointment as a student supply pastor in 1950. He was admitted into the Central Texas Conference in 1953, ordained deacon and admitted into full connection in 1955, and ordained elder in 1956.

Bob married Nancy Ann Ogle in Winters, Texas on August 5, 1975. Survivors include his wife, Nancy; his daughters, Mary Ann Wood of Alvarado, Donna Donica of Winters and Dedra French of Hurst; his sons: Bobby Lindsey of Houston and Doyle Barker of Roswell, N.M.; one brother, Billy Lindsey of Arlington; one sister, Mary Russell of Arlington; and eight grandchildren. One son, Billy died in 1979.

Bob served the following appointments: Olden, Burkett Circuit, Barry-Emhouse, organizing pastor at St. Andrews in Killeen, Little River-Holland, Dawson, Wesley in Corsicana, Wesley in Cleburne, Granbury-Acton, 1st in Breckenridge, Trinity in Waco, Winters Parish, Hamilton-Lamkin, 1st in Mexia, 1st in Belton, and St. Marks in Cleburne. Due to illness, Bob took disability leave in June 1989 and moved to Fort Worth where he was active in Westcliff UMC, as long as health permitted.

Many committees, boards, and organizations within the conference were blessed by Bob's leadership. Especially noteworthy was Bob's work with the Committee on Communication and the launching of "Catch The Spirit" across the conference. Service at Glen Lake Camp was always high in Bob's priorities. He felt a special sense of mission as he worked with those in the Licensing Schools.

Literally thousands of others shared in Bob's life in the special and unique relationship of pastor and people. Bob was a builder of churches, both people and buildings. He called for the highest of commitment from himself and the people entrusted to his care. Under his leadership, churches dared to dream of and plan for future ministry. Bold steps were often taken to do such planning and preparation. Sometimes it was a new building, a remodeled building, a new parking lot, office area, or land for expansion. People were inspired and called to a larger vision of ministry and service. The result always, a people who were excitedly taking visionary steps as they served in the cause of Christ.

Bob lived, preached and proclaimed the faith. He modeled faithfulness in his own life, even to the very end. Though trapped in a body crippled by Parkinson's Disease in his last years, his spirit was captive only to the Christ he served. He continued to share hope and joy with all around him to the very end.

On May 5, 1993, the Lord said, "Well done, good and faithful servant. It's time to go home."

Services celebrating Bob's life and faith were held on May 8, 1993 at St. Mark UMC, Cleburne, his last pastorate. Bob himself has planned these services that were conducted by Dr. Barbara Johnson-Arthur, Rev. Hiram Johnson, Dr. Leonard Radde, Dr. Gary Whitbeck and Dr. Mike Young. His body was laid to rest at the Rose Hill Cemetery in Cleburne, but his spirit lives on, both with God who gave it and in the lives of so many who were touched positively by his life.

WILLIAM LLOYD SHAW

William Lloyd Shaw was born June 11, 1907 in Hammon, Texas to William Charles and India Annie Shaw.

Rev. Shaw confessed, "Providence allowed me to meet and marry a young, beautiful and industrious woman named Odie Love." This loving union began December 27, 1927 and lasted over 50 years until her death in 1979.

After graduating from Waco Technical School and Prairie View State College, where William received his diploma in 1924, he went on to Central Texas College-Seminary in 1925 and received his B.Th. Degree in 1926. In 1939 and 1952 respectively, Rev. Shaw received his B.S. and M.S. degrees from Prairie A & M College. His Vocational-Ministerial degree and S.T.D. degree was received in 1959 at Union Baptist Seminary. Further post graduate work was done at Denver University and Texas Southern University respectively.

Rev. Shaw was licensed to preach in 1923 in Navosota District. He became a probationary member with Deacon's orders in 1929 and was ordained an Elder in Full Connection in 1932 in the West Texas Conference. It was in this conference that Rev. Shaw worked until its merger with the Central Texas Conference.

Rev. Shaw served the following churches from October 20, 1929 to June 7, 1978 when he retired in the Central Texas Conference: Millican, Hearne Circuit; Bryan Circuit, Campground Dodge; Waco, Brack's; Rosebud-Lott; Aquilla; Waco, Mt. Zion; Groesbeck; Mexia-Jones Chapel; Hubbard-Hillsboro; Valley Mills-Crawford; Groesbeck Circuit; Hubbard-Lawson Chapel; Mexia-Hubbard; Mexia-Union Memorial.

In the West Texas Conference, Rev. Shaw served on various boards and agencies. His community service to humanity included public school principal and teacher in and around McLennan County. He was an active member of McLennan Masonic Lodge 676 and also Masonic Lodge 95 for forty or more years.

Rev. Shaw's last four years of life were spent in the comfort and care of Quality Care Nursing Home in Waco.

On Thursday, April 8, 1993, the funeral service of Reverend Shaw was held at Wesley United Methodist Church in Waco. Helping Rev. Louis Augustine III officiate was Dr. Alfred Sanford, Dr. Eric Purnell, Rev. S.W. Curtis, Sr. and Dr. R. McClain.

Rev. William L. Shaw was a warm, soft spoken sagacious old sire who could laugh and enjoy funny yarns about his experience and the "good ole days of yesteryears." Admitting to mistakes and failures, he never forgot the ERASER that blots our all failures and the REPLENISHER that refuels the WILL with an energetic desire to try again and finally SUCCEED! Now he must REST and WAIT for the invitational ceremony for the great and final REWARD, "Come!"

MYRTLE MAE BRIGGS
March 14, 1893 - June 18, 1992

Myrtle Mae McHorse Briggs was born March 14, 1893 in Bell County to Calvin and Eura Lee Wright McHorse. Always aware of her family's deep Texas roots, she spoke with pride of her Grandfather McHorse's name on the roster of participants in the Battle of San Jacinto. She grew up in Round Rock and Santa Anna.

On December 19, 1912 she was married to Roy Earl Briggs in Coleman County. Nine years later her husband remarked that he dreaded to go to church because there he faced the call of God to preach and he didn't see how he could do it. To this Myrtle replied, "If God wanted me to preach I would do it and trust God for the rest." So, in 1921 Roy Briggs responded to God's call and in November he left his photography business behind in Waco and they, along with two children, Marvin and Della Mae, moved to the Kerens Circuit. Rose Earlene, Martha and Roy Earl, Jr. came along later.

Across 35½ years in churches of the Central Texas Conference Roy and Myrtle Briggs shared in ministry to God's people. Mrs. Briggs gave herself without reservation in the life of every congregation. There were some very difficult times but she was faithful all the way. Following retirement in 1957, Reverend and Mrs. Briggs made their home in Corsicana as long as he lived. She died June 18, 1992 in her 100th year at the Golden Age Home in Lockhart where she had lived for several years. A graveside service was held in the Corsicana cemetery with the Reverend Solan Bailey officiating. She is survived by two daughters: Della Mae Buchanan of Devine, Texas; Martha Barger Sitz of Poplar Bluff, Missouri; and a son, Roy Earl Briggs, Jr. of Capitan, New Mexico.

Myrtle's daughter said of her, "I could write a book - a long book. She was 99 and I am 65. That's a lot of living. But what comes to mind over and over is, 'Her children will rise up and call her blessed,' and 'Well done, good and faithful servant.' She loved the Lord and tried to serve him always." Those of us who knew and loved her in the Central Texas Conference across the years join in this noble tribute. As a minister's spouse she epitomized all the good qualities. Thanks be to God.

MARY LOUISE COKER
September 26, 1911 - May 17, 1993

Mary Louise Coker was born September 26, 1911 in Dublin, Texas. She and Lloyd Thomas Coker were married in Comanche, Texas on September 29, 1933. After a number of years of sharing life and raising a family on a farm in Comanche County, Lloyd responded to the call to preach, and returned to school to receive his degree while pastoring small churches. Mary faithfully graced the parsonages of numerous pastorates Lloyd held throughout the Central Texas Conference including churches in Blanket, Cleburne (St. Paul), Blooming Grove, Cross Plains, Palo Pinto, Rising Star, and Glen Rose. Following retirement in 1976 the Cokers lived in DeLeon and later in Cleburne before moving to Corsicana. Mary was a loving wife and mother who was devoted to her family and to the Church where her husband was serving. She was always involved fully in the life of the Church, singing in the choir, working in United Methodist Women, and working in a supportive role in whatever way was needed.

Temporal life came to an end for Mary on May 17, 1993 following a brief serious illness. A service of thanksgiving and remembrance was held May 19th in the First United Methodist Church in Comanche, let by Rev. J.W. Hodges, Rev. Howard Johnson, and Rev. Charles McClure. She was buried in the Indian Creek cemetery near Comanche.

Mary Coker will be remembered with affection by all those who knew her across the Conference, and especially by her family, Rev. Lloyd Coker of Corsicana, her three daughters, Venetia Nell Scott and Reva Louise Richardson of Corsicana, and Melba Irene Manley of Blooming Grove; one brother, Woodrow Cappell of Carlsbad, N.M.; 10 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

MARION LIGGETT SMITH
July 28, 1903 - July 18, 1992

Marion Liggett Smith, daughter of William G. Liggett and Elizabeth Susan Borum, was born July 28, 1903, in Columbia, Texas. After graduating from Oak Cliff High School in Dallas and Southern Methodist University, Mrs. Smith studied piano at the Julliard School of Music in New York City, and also studied in Paris, France.

On May 12, 1932, Marion married Ross Smith. At the time Ross was the Director of Music and Marion was the organist at Tyler Street Methodist Church in Dallas. Marion was also well-known as a soloist and music teacher in Dallas, and she was a member of the Dallas Piano Ensemble.

Following their marriage the Smiths served of the staff of First Methodist Church of Wichita Falls where Ross felt God called him into the ordained ministry of the church. During their twenty-five years as a Methodist parsonage family the Smiths served the Euless Circuit, Smithfield, Rogers, Dawson, Alvarado, Castleberry in Fort Worth, Clay Avenue in Waco, and Grapevine.

Mrs. Smith was active in the "Ministers Wives" organization of the Central Texas Conference. She was also active in the Daughters of the American Revolution; the Texas Society Daughters of Colonial Wars; the Major James McGregor Chapter of the Colonial Dames XVII Century; and many other church, arts and music organizations.

Marion and Ross Smith were parents of two daughters, Mrs. Jo Ellen Bogart of Dallas and Mrs. Diane Pair of Grapevine. At the time of her death Marion was a member of the Highland Park United Methodist Church of Dallas. A private memorial service was held on August 2, 1992, at the University Park United Methodist Church of Dallas, with members of her family conducting the service that included many of her favorite musical selections.
Marion Smith is remembered as one who spoke with lovingkindness. A gentle gracious person, Marion gave herself to Christ's church and His people without reservation.

Upon learning of Mrs. Smith's death, a member of Grapevine UMC wrote: "Through the years I've seen several ministers wives. I believe they have to be a certain type person to be one. They are much more than a 'partner'. They give a great deal. Marion gave much to her family and to her partner. To us she was a very special lady - a 'do it right' lady."
Thanks be to God for the life, love, and labor of Marion Liggett Smith. She was a faithful servant of the Savior, and a friend and inspiration to many.

1.1 A clergy may not be appointed to serve as an executive staff member of the Annual Conference for more than eight years in any consecutive 12 years. No clergy shall serve as an executive staff member more than 12 years.

1.2 Any proposal to increase or change the structure of the conference executive staff of the Annual Conference shall be presented during a regular or called session of the Annual Conference, and shall not be voted on until the next session of the Annual Conference. No appointment predicated on the creation of such new or changed staff position shall be made, tentatively or finally, until the same is approved by the Annual Conference.

The conference director of Finance and Administration shall serve as the conference treasurer and the conference secretary.

of the conference Council on Finance and Administration. The director shall serve as the treasurer for the Board of Pensions, for the Commission on Equitable Compensation and shall be coordinator for the conference pension program.

2.2 The tenure of office for a clergy member of the conference serving as the director of Finance and Administration shall be for a quadrennium. A newly elected director of Finance and Administration shall ordinarily assume official duties at the session of the Annual Conference following the General Conference.

2.3 All bonds required by the law of The United Methodist Church or the Central Texas Conference shall be filed with the secretary of the conference. The bond for the conference director of Finance and Administration shall be approved by the bishop and the Cabinet and filed in the bishop's office.

2.5 The job description of the director of Finance and Administration may be modified upon recommendation of the conference Council on Finance and Administration and approval of the Annual Conference in regular or called session.

IV. FINANCIAL

1.0 The fiscal year of the Annual Conference shall be from January 1st to December 31st, and salaries of clergy members, appointed as pastors or district superintendents, shall be paid accordingly.

2.0 Remittances from a pastoral charge to the conference treasurer shall be accompanied by the remittance forms supplied by the Council on Finance and Administration. These forms shall be in triplicate and indicate clearly the amounts to be credited to each cause for which the remittance is made. The conference treasurer shall return one receipted form to the pastor and one to the district superintendent for each remittance. The pastor shall enclose the annual statement of receipts as issued by the conference treasurer, corrected if necessary, with the church's Annual Conference Report as verification of items reported in Table II.

3.0 After careful consideration of all financial responsibilities of the Annual Conference, the Council on Finance and Administration, with three liaison representatives selected by the Annual Conference Council on Ministries, meeting with the Council on Finance and Administration in all budget discussions, shall recommend all allocations for the major categories in the total conference financial program: clergy and diaconal support, conference claimants fund, administration, World Service, conference benevolences, and capital funding. The Annual Conference Council on Ministries, being charged by the Discipline to study and coordinate the budget request of the several conference agencies as they relate to the conference program, shall formulate and present an itemized conference benevolence budget providing for the support of these agencies to the Council on Finance and Administration. If, for any reason, the Council on Finance and Administration decides that the total of the requests for the conference benevolence budget needs to be changed, it shall adjust the allocation and refer it back to the Annual Conference Council on Ministries for adjustments of the itemized appropriations in the conference benevolence budget.

3.1 If any conference agency feels its cause has been neglected, jeopardized, or excluded, it shall have the opportunity to represent its cause before the Council on Finance and Administration as provided in the Book of Discipline (1992 ¶ 710).

3.2 The Council on Finance and Administration shall present the proposed budget, for the purpose of clarification and correction only, at the first business session of the Annual Conference each year. Changes in the proposed budget shall be reported by the committee, board, and/or council making the request at the time they report to the Annual Conference. Approval or disapproval of the financial request shall be voted as an amendment to the proposed budget at the final presentation of the budget by CFA at the last session of the Annual Conference.

3.3 Once a budget line-item has been approved by a regular or called session of the Annual Conference, the line-item amounts cannot be changed, re-allocated, or exceeded without approval from the Council on Finance and Administration.

3.4 Any proposal to create a new apportionment, or to change the purpose for an existing apportionment shall be presented during a regular or called session of the Annual Conference, and shall not be voted on until the next session of the Annual Conference.

4.0 All budget items allocated to the districts and local churches of the conference shall be based on the decimal arrived at by the following formula: Determine the base amount for each district or church by taking the total of the following items: (63) pension & benefit funds (MPP) paid directly to the General Board of Pensions, (64) Pastor's base compensation, (65) Associate(s) base compensation, (66a) Utilities and housing paid to/for pastor, (66b) Utilities and housing paid to/for associate(s), (67a) Travel paid to/for pastor, (67b) Travel paid to/for associate(s), (68a) Other allowances paid to/for pastor, (68b) Other allowances paid to/for associate(s), (69) Diaconal minister(s) compensation, (70) Other staff compensation, (71) Current expenses for program, (72) Other current operating expenses. Add the above thirteen (13) expenditures for each district to get the "district total expenditure". Divide each "district total expenditure" by the "conference total expenditure" to get the district decimal. (Each decimal is rounded off to four places.) Multiply the district decimal by each Conference Apportionment to get the District Apportionment. Add the above thirteen (13) expenditures for each local church to get their "local total expenditure". Divide each "local total expenditure" by the "district total expenditure" to arrive at the local church decimal. (Each decimal is rounded off to four places.) Multiply the local church decimal by each District Apportionment allocation to get the Local Church Apportionment. (Each apportionment is rounded off to the nearest dollar.)

5.0 It shall be the duty of the conference Council on Finance and Administration to compute the decimal annually, using the latest statistics (corrected, if necessary) and furnish the table of apportionments to the districts. The district superintendent and the district stewards shall distribute the askings to the local church on the same basis.

6.0 Items to be distributed under the formula are the Connectional Ministry Fund, Conference Claimants Fund, World Service and Conference Benevolences Fund, Conference Projects Fund, Ministerial Education Fund, Black Methodist College Fund, and the Ministers Insurance Program Fund. Others may be added by the action of the Annual Conference.

7.0 The auditing firm appointed by the conference Council on Finance and Administration shall audit all books of treasurers of boards whose auditing is not provided for in the Book of Discipline, and report the results to the conference Council on Finance and Administration, which council will send a statement of these audits to the conference secretary for inclusion in the minutes.

8.0 Annually each board, commission, agency, or special interest, shall make requests to the Council on Finance and Administration through the Annual Conference Council on Ministries for any special day offering, except where set by the Book of Discipline. No such day shall be recommended to the Annual Conference for any agency, cause,or institution, nor shall such a day be listed on the printed conference calendar, unless such agency, cause or institution has presented a full financial statement and audit, including current annual income and expense, together with its report to the appropriate board.

9.0 All boards, commissions, committees, and councils of the conference shall allow eighteen cents per mile, twenty-one cents per mile when two members ride in the same car, twenty-three cents per mile when three to six members ride in the same car, and thirty-five cents per mile for seven or more members in one vehicle for necessary travel to conference meetings.

10. The conference treasurer, after the close of the fiscal year, shall transfer from the accounts of all boards, commissions and other agencies of the conference into the Operating Reserve all unexpended balances of the annual appropriations for the year just closed (excepting only items specifically exempt by CFA) making allowances for all outstanding checks. This procedure is recommended with the understanding that the conference treasurer will honor the requisitions for all necessary expenses of the new fiscal year within the limits of the appropriations.

V. DISTRICTS

District Conference

1.0 There shall be a District Conference in each district of the Annual Conference which shall meet at least two weeks prior to the Annual Conference after notice is given to all local churches by the district superintendent, who shall be the chairperson, and on call by the district superintendent, during the Annual conference session.

1.1 The purpose of the District Conference shall be: (a) to review without debate or vote the Preliminary Report and other items of business coming before the Annual Conference; (b) to elect district representatives to the Annual Conference Council on Ministries; (c) to elect district representatives to the conference agencies; (d) to elect members of the district Council on Ministries; (e) to elect two young adults under age twenty-five to serve as members of the Annual Conference; and (f) such other district business as may be determined permissible under the Book of Discipline.

clergy representative to each conference board, one district representative of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women, and such other persons as the district council may determine. Interim vacancies may be filled by the district Council on Ministries in lieu of the District Conference.

3.2 The officers shall be a chairperson and such other officers as the council shall determine who shall be elected by the council upon nomination of the district Committee on Nominations.

VI. LOCAL CHURCHES

1.0 Each congregation shall annually give attention to the vacation policy, using as the guideline for its discussion the statement contained in the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee Manual as issued by the General Church in 1968.

1.1 In the event of death of a clergy or diaconal minister residing in a church owned residence, the family of the deceased clergy or diaconal minister will be allowed ninety days to find other housing and vacate the church owned residence, or such other time as deemed appropriate by the Cabinet and by the local church pastor-parish relations committee.

VII. DISCONTINUED OR ABANDONED CHURCHES

1.0 When a local church has been discontinued or abandoned and the property disposed of as directed by the Book of Discipline in accordance with 1992 ¶ 2549, the proceeds derived therefrom, if any, shall be first applied to the retirement of pension deficits, and the satisfaction of any claims against ministerial pension annuities which may have arisen out of failure of that church to make proportionate payment for support. The trustees of the conference shall recommend to the next session of the Annual Conference the disposition of any remaining proceeds.

ADDENDUM TO THE REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON RULES

In addition, nothing came to my attention which would indicate any amounts received were not properly reflected in the District's records.

THE CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE FOUNDATION

In 1992, the Foundation was able to expend some funds in excess of earnings because several magnificent fits have been made for the Foundation's future use. These irrevocable gift commitments enable the Foundation to invest some of its assets in service today with assurance of fund replenishment tomorrow. The continued prudent use of the Foundation's separate assets is pledged to serve churches and individuals in maximizing benefits for themselves, their loved ones and the ministries of Christ's Church.

The audited financial statement of the Foundation follows.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Directors
Fort Worth, Texas

I have audited the accompanying balance sheet of The Central Texas Conference Foundation (the "Foundation") as of December 31, 1992 and the related statement of activity and changes in net assets and statement of changes in cash flow for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Foundation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit.

I conducted my audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assura&nce about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Foundation as of December 31, 1992 and the results of its operation and its changes in financial for the year ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

THE CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE FOUNDATION

ORGANIZATION

The Central Texas Conference Foundation (the"Foundation") was organized to make loans to local churches and agencies of the Central Texas Annual Conference for the acquisition and improvement of properties and facilities, to accept and administer funds for local churches, other institutions, agencies and boards of the Central Texas Conference, and to be donee and manager for gifts and endowments.

The Foundation, as an agency of the Central Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church receives unrestricted gifts from donors to help cover the cost of providing services and to enable the Foundation to fulfill their program objectives. Unrestricted gifts, grants, and bequests are reported as income in the operating fund. Additionally, the Foundation may be designated as a charitable beneficiary of wills, trusts, annuities and other unrestricted gifts which will be reflected as revenue and support in the statement of activity in the year realized.

The Foundations's financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting through the application of the policies described below.

FUND ACCOUNTING

To ensure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of resources available to the Foundation, the accounts of the Foundation are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified into funds established according to their nature and purposes. Separate accounts are maintained for each fund; however, funds that have similiar characteristics have been combined into fund groups.

A brief description of the various fund groups maintained by the Foundation and their nature and purpose follows:

Funds Owned

Operating Fund - Represents the portion of expendable funds that is available for support of Foundation operations.

Funds Owned

Revolving Loan Fund - Represents outstanding loans to local churches and conference agencies. The interest earnings is available for support of Foundation operations.

Funds Managed

Agency Accounts - Represent funds invested for a temporary or indefinite period for the benefit of the depositors. The Foundation makes all investment decisions related to these deposits and pays interest at rates established on a monthly basis.

INVESTMENTS

The Foundation maintains investments in various funds in pooled accounts to obtain investment flexibility. The assets and earnings of the pooled resources are allocated based on the percentage participation of each fund. Investments, consisting of bank trust funds in stock and short term government securities, United States Treasury Notes and fixed income marketable securities, are carried at cost. Adjustments to reflect changes in market value are made only upon permanent impairment of value. Market values and unrealized gains and losses are summarized in Note 2.

FIXED ASSETS

Fixed assets are stated at cost. Expenditures for maintenance and minor repairs are charged to expense as incurred. Major repairs and betterments are capitalized.

Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method. The annual depreciation rates for furniture and equipment are based on 7 year useful life.

INTERFUND REVENUE AND EXPENSES

The Foundation generally receives an fund management fee of .5% to 1.0% of invested assets from each managed account. The management fee is recorded as an expense in each fund and as revenue in the operating fund. In addition, the committed interest earnings to the depositors is recorded as interest income in each fund with the residual investment income recorded as directed expense. Also included in directed expense are the distributions of the revolving loan fund earnings to the operating fund.

FEDERAL INCOME TAXES

The foundation is exempt from federal income taxes, under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

NOTE 2 - INVESTMENTS

The Board of Trustees retained Overton Bank Trust Department as the investment agent for the Foundation on July 20, 1992. Investment management fees paid during the year totaled $ 1,090. Funds invested are summarized as follows:

Central Texas Conference Of The United Methodist Church

Members of the Council on Finance and Administration Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Fort Worth, Texas.

I have examined the Summary of Cash Receipts and Disbursements with Cash and Savings Account Balances, of Dr. Sidney Roberts, Secretary/Treasurer Central Texas Conference United Methodist Church, for the year ended December 31, 1992. My examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly, included such test of the accounting records and such other procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in Note 1, the Central Texas Conference policy is to prepare this summary on the basis on cash receipts and disbursements; consequently, certain revenue is recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statement is not intended to present results of operation in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, since accounting principles require the accural of income and expense.

As described in Note 2, Summary of Notes Payable - Texas Methodist Foundation, is presented for information only because these items are of interest to the readers of this report in conjunction with the various funds to which they are related. However, the scope of my examination was limited to confirming the outstanding balance as of December 31, 1991 and 1992.

In my opinion, the accompanying Summary of Cash Receipts and Disbursements with Cash and Savings Account Balances referred to above, present fairly the recorded receipts and disbursements of the Conference Treasurer for the year then ended, on the basis described in Note 1, which basis has been applied consistent with that of the preceding year.

CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
DR. SIDNEY ROBERTS, SECRETARY - TREASURER
NOTES TO SUMMARY OF CASH RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS
For The Year Ended December 31, 1992

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accounts of the Central Texas Conference are maintained entirely on the basis of reported cash receipts and cash disbursements. Therefore, accrued revenue or accrued expenses are not reflected in the summary. Accordingly, the statement does not purport to present the results of operation in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, since such accounting principles require the accrual of income and expenses.

NOTE 2 - NOTES PAYABLE - TEXAS METHODIST FOUNDATION

The Central Texas Conference-United Methodist Church has the following notes payable owed to Texas Methodist Foundation. These loans have been issued to the Conference based on saving account balances which are used as collateral for payment. Favorable interest rates were obtained because of this arrangement.
