VII. REPORTS

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION
Report No. 1

1. Special commendations to 318 of our 338 churches that paid all mission outreach apportionments in full. Only 20 fell short with an aggregate of $120,626. Using the Contingency Fund balance of $23,634, funds from a "connectional payout fund" contributed by some local churches totalling $5,099 and $3,324 from a reserve payout fund collected by Bishop Wilson, we were able to pay all apportionments for World Service, General Administration, Interdenominational Cooperation, Episcopal Fund, Ministerial Education, Black Colleges, Mission Initiatives, Jurisdictional Administration, Lydia Patterson, SMU, and Texas United Methodist College Association. Thanks to the churches who went second and third miles: First, Brownwood; St. Barnabas, Arlington, First, Burleson; First, Crowley; First, Meridian; King Memorial, Whitney; Bethesda; and St. Mark, Cleburne.
2. The salary for the district superintendent shall be an amount equal to 105% of the average of the salary and allowances paid to senior pastors of the top 25 churches of the conference. It shall be computed on the basis of salaries approved by the Charge Conferences which appear on the Episcopal work sheets as of February 1. The figures will be compiled by the conference director of Stewardship, Finance and Administration within five days. The 1995 salary for a district superintendent will be $71,916. The Ministerial Pension Plan current service amount of 12% of the Denominational Average Compensation, billed directly to the conference, will be an apportionment to the districts. It is understood that travel to conference meetings is included in Cabinet members' salary.
3. The conference offices of director of Stewardship, Finance and Administration, director of the Council on Ministries, and director of Church Growth and Development will receive a salary equal to that of the district superintendents. For 1995 that salary will be $71,916 . This amount includes an allowance for utilities and maintenance of $4,000 for each of the above named three offices. Travel allowances may be part of the respective council's or commission's budget.
4. The district committees on finance are authorized to prepare budgets for presentation to the district stewards. An amount equal to 10% of the salary for the district superintendent may be included in the district budget to defray the utility costs of the district parsonage. In addition, an amount equal to 10% of the salary may be included in the district budget for travel expenses of the district superintendent. District budgets shall not include a discretionary fund, but may include a District Operations Expense item. The district budget shall be submitted to the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration for approval each year. The district stewards are authorized to apportion a Connectional Contingency Fund to be used for paying in full apportioned items which may fall short within the respective district. The Connectional Contingency Fund will be administered at the district level in the same manner as the District Work Fund. It is understood that if a portion of the Connectional Contingency Fund is not used in any given year, it will remain in the fund and future apportionment funds will be reduced. Any adjustments for unusual local church situations will be made in the apportionment of the Connectional Contingency Fund only. All other apportionments will be distributed to every local church on the basis of the decimal.
5. The council recommends the request from the conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry that the total apportionment for the Texas Methodist College Association be apportioned to the local churches on the decimal system and based on $1.50 for each church member in the Annual Conference. The council also recommends the request from the conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry that the amount for the Wesley Foundation Fund be apportioned to the local churches on the decimal system and based on $1.26 for each church member in the Annual Conference.
6. We recommend the appointment of Richard M. Freeman as director of Stewardship, Finance and Administration and as the secretary of the Central Texas Conference.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

The Annual Conference Council on Ministries has continued to work toward strengthening our ministry in the area of spirituality, evangelism, justice, and rebuilding the connection through the appropriate boards and committees of the Council. This is reflected in the reports of these agencies. We present Fall University as a vehicle for program boards to do conference wide training. This year we have concentrated our efforts to connect with local church congregations to assist them in implementing their ministries in the area of programming.

Through the Committee on Evaluation and Budget Coordination we are monitoring the work of the boards and agencies and reviewing their responsibilities in order to determine the need for eliminating or combining some of the subcommittees that may have similar responsibilities.

As you read this, the quadrennium is half over. We in ACCOM will continue to search for new and innovative ways to facilitate the Church's program life in the Annual Conference.

We thank the Annual Conference for their participation and cooperation in the programs of the Council.

Dale R. Smith, Chairperson

The conference Council on Ministries office shall maintain the calendar for the annual conference events, and proposed dates shall be cleared with that office thirty days in advance whenever possible.

The concept of Fall University is reaffirmed as the time and place for program boards to do conference-wide training.

The mileage allowance shall be twenty-two cents for conference staff traveling separately, twenty-five cents when two or more are in the same car. All others shall be reimbursed at eighteen cents per mile for one person, twenty-one cents per mile when two members ride in the same car, twenty-three when three to six members ride in the same car, and thirty-five cents for seven or more members in one vehicle for necessary travel on conference business.

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

During the past year, the Board of Church and Society has sought to fulfill previously adopted programs. Two programs - Born Free/Stay Free and UNDC - were less successful than we had hoped. It has been difficult to garner the necessary participation. Re-evaluation is underway to determine whether they should be continued.

The response to other efforts, however, has been quite encouraging. To implement the Conference's Sexual Harassment policy, training was provided for fourteen persons chosen to serve as District Support Persons. At Fall University, a course exploring the meaning of the Social Principles was well attended. The Inclusiveness Resource Team led two workshops, promoting open itineracy and racial, age and gender inclusiveness.

We are pleased to have been represented at METHODIST UNITED FOR PEACE WITH JUSTICE, (a gathering of various Methodist groups) and look forward to working with other Methodists toward peace with justice. The results of the survey of local church ministries are to be released soon. Also, the Board has endeavored to address the goals related to it as identified in the conference vision theme.

The aim of the Board of Church and Society is to provide education and opportunity for action on issues confronting the church. Our hope is to be faithful to the spirit of the Gospel of Christ and so become instruments by which the kingdom of heaven comes on earth.

CHARTER FOR RACIAL JUSTICE POLICIES

The Charter was first formed in 1952 at the beginning of the Civil Rights Movement by the then Woman's Division of Christian Service. It was adopted at their annual meeting in 1954. The Charter consisted primarily of administrative issues related to employment by the Division, it's institutions and programs.

In 1962 the issue of racism in the United States was a concern across denominational geographical and socio-economic lines. The Evangelical United Brethren and Methodist women saw the need to revise the Charter to include the need for the church and society at large in eliminating racism. The revised charter was adopted at the annual meeting of the Woman's Division in 1964, this same year it was recommended to Methodist churches at General Conference for ratification.

The United Methodist Women's Charter as it was known in 1978 was again revised and adopted by the Women's Division. In 1980 it was ratified by General Conference. And the Charter became the ownership of the entire United Methodist Church.

Today it is being recommended to this body for our affirmation as the Central Texas Annual Conference.

The Charter for Racial Justice Policies

"For [we] are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female: for [we] are all one n Christ Jesus."

Whereas the United Methodist Church is committed to a racially inclusive Church which affirms racial and ethnic diversity, seeks social and racial justice, and calls the entire denomination to reconciliation and to witness our oneness in Christ; and

Whereas racism continues to plague the world, our nation, the church, our communities; and

Whereas the Charter for Racial Justice Policies was adopted by the 1980 General Conference (Book of Resolutions 1992, pp 196-199), having been affirmed and embraced by United Methodist Women units all across the Church and by 19 Central Texas Conference UMW units; and

Whereas the United Methodist Women of this Conference continue to provide leadership in calling upon the entire Annual Conference to join them in addressing the ongoing problem of racism;

Therefore, be it resolved that appreciation be expressed to the United Methodist Women of this Conference and to United Methodist Women everywhere for their tireless labor over several decades that resulted in the creation of and efforts to implement this charter.

Be it also resolved that the Central Texas Annual Conference formally affirm and embrace The Charter for Racial Justice Policies.

Be it further resolved that The Charter for Racial Justice Policies be presented for affirmation to the Administrative Board or Council of each Central Texas congregation.

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

1993 Board of Discipleship programs and activities were chosen, planned, executed, and evaluated on the basis of how well they helped local congregations to accomplish what we consider to be the church's two top priorities:

(1) being disciples of Jesus Christ, individually and corporately; and
(2) making disciples.

We address the first of these mainly through the work of the Board's Devotional Life, Education and Leadership Development, Worship, and Stewardship Committees and the annual Harry Hosier Event that the Board sponsors. We address the second mainly through the work of the Board's Evangelism Committee. We have tried to provide leadership, training and inspiration that will help clergy and laity lead local congregations in:

(1) reaching out to unchurched people and incorporating them into the church;
(2) helping church members to grow in faith and to develop mature and meaningful relationships with God and with other people; and
(3) living in the world in a Christlike way and ministering to the world's needs.

Individual Board committees' reports describe specific ways in which we have tried to meet these responsibilities during 1993.

13. Fall University
Goal: To sponsor classes at Fall University to provide training for youth and for the adults who work with them in church

The conference year 1993 has been exciting for the Council on Youth Ministry as we participated in, planned and produced interesting programs and events that lifted up the Gospel message of Jesus Christ. Those contributing to the success of our programs as planners, leaders, and/or participants had fulfilling experiences.

Some of the highlights of the year were:

* Three CCYM members and our conference staff person were in attendance at the National Youth Ministry Organization Convocation in Rochester, New York.
* Susan Yuk of Temple District was elected secretary of the National Youth Ministry Organization Steering Committee and Scott Heaslet of Fort Worth East District concluded a term as vice-chair of the Steering Committee.
* Amber Slater and Jabari Stoglin of Fort Worth East District are serving two year terms on the Jurisdictional Youth Team and our staff person, Mary Gean Cope, concluded her second term as Jurisdictional Youth Co-Coordinator.
* Twenty-two CCYM members and eleven other conference youth attended the South Central Jurisdiction Spiritual Life Rally in Fayetteville, Arkansas at the University of Arkansas. A team from the Central Texas Conference published a daily newspaper at SpiLiRa.
* Two conference youth as well as two CCYM members and two adult leaders attended the national Youth and Violence Seminar in Chicago, Illinois, sponsored by NYMO.

The Conference Council on Youth Ministry sponsored several events again this year for the youth of our annual conference. We had a Youth Annual Conference, Convocation and Lock-In before Annual Conference in June; we sponsored 15 different classes at Fall University in Waco with CCYM members leading 5 of them; we sponsored a total of four Mid-Winter Retreats at Glen Lake Camp in February; we sponsored a Spiritual Life Retreat in April at Glen Lake; we sponsored a Wet'n Wild Day in August; and for the eighth year we made discount tickets to Wet'n Wild and Six Flags available to local churches.

In the midst of our activities we did not forget the importance of Youth Service Fund, the youth mission fund of the United Methodist Church. Central Texas Conference youth gave a total of $4,178.21 to YSF, with $889 going to national YSF and its projects, and $1,000 going out of the conference to help fund delegations from the Rio Grande Conference and the Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference attending SpiLiRa '93. The remainder was used for retreat and camp scholarships and youth leadership development within our conference. Our goal is to increase stewardship commitment and YSF giving across Central Texas and to increase our ability to fund projects and help youth.

As each year closes and events of the year become memories we take time to reminisce about everything that has taken place. The 1993 - 1994 CCYM members leave to our successors a list of proposed programs with our blessings, as they labor to lead the youth of the Central Texas Conference into a new year of beginnings. We all pray that they will feel the patience, love, guidance, and understanding of our Lord that we felt and experienced this year.

Trista Rae Allen, Chairperson

Committee on Devotional Life

Proposed Program:

Devotional Life Committee

Goal: To develop and renew the individual and corporate spiritual needs of the Central Texas United Methodist Church

The Committee on Devotional Life accomplished some of its goals for 1993:

We had Rev. Steve Bryant of the Upper Room in Nashville give training to the Emmaus Board and Community. The Walk to Emmaus and Chrysalis programs continue to grow and are financially self-sustaining. Early in 1994 a video, produced by the Upper Room, was available in our conference to be shown in your local church or small group setting. Hopefully this video will do away with much of the anxiety and miscommunication that frequently exists.

Three members of the Devotional Life Committee attended the August "Discover God's Call" session at Mt. Lebanon Assembly in Cedar Hill, Texas. The purpose was to evaluate and make recommendation for the possibility of becoming a Central Texas Conference Program. While the committee affirms the importance to the individual and the church of discovering our spiritual gifts, the committee feels it needs more time to be in dialogue with existing leadership expectations. Therefore, a second "Discover God's Call" session was scheduled for February 1994 followed by further evaluation.

Two courses were offered during Fall University 1993. Rev. Annette Sowell led three sessions on "Healing Ministry In the Local Church". Each of these sessions was well received with approximately 100 plus persons participating. Chuck Davis and David Lewis presented three sessions introducing "Discover God's Call".

The committee has been faithful in looking both to the Clergy Morale Task Force findings and the Planning and Research findings as we move forward to 1994 and beyond. We commend each district that has had some sort of retreat to address ministerial relationships, family support and effectiveness in ministry.

Every action taken, every response made, every dynamic of relationship, every thought held, every emotion allowed: these are the minuscule arenas where, bit by bit...we are shaped into some kind of being...life is, by its very nature, spiritual formation. So says New Testament scholar Robert Mulholland, Jr. That is also the approach of the Devotional Life Committee. We see our role as helping persons to understand the Christian spiritual formation requires conscious choice and a responsive awareness to the presence of the risen Lord in all life. Where spiritual formation experiences are happening we want to be encouraging and to learn from those persons and events.

As a committee we continue to seek out persons interested in journeying with us, particularly we would like to seek out more lay persons in 1994 to be a part of the group.

Georgia Adamson, Chairperson

Education and Leadership Development

Proposed Programs:

1. Models for Age-Level Ministries
   Goal: To address the needs and concerns of a changing population to meet the demands on the church by a new generation
2. Training Conference and Local Church Leaders in Education Committee

Goal: To meet the needs of the local church through locally trained and certified people

3. Fall University
   Goal: To present training and learning opportunities for members of local churches

Kay Birkholz, Chairperson

Committee on Evangelism

Proposed Programs:

1. "Vision 2000"
   Goal: To increase numerically the number of people joining the United Methodist Church; to renew and redefine the purpose of the church and to empower the local congregations; to incorporate long range planning and strategic growth through a clearer understanding of the mission and ministry of the church; to focus the efforts of the entire conference on Evangelism and making it a priority in every local congregation. There will be a launch event, school of evangelism, an attendance crusade, training events, and working models provided to the local congregations.
2. Growth Plus
   Goal: The Growth Share consultants will be trained in effective models of evangelism with the intent to share information and train others within the local church
3. Fall University
   Goal: To provide learning opportunities for people working in evangelism through the local church

We were pleased to sponsor Dr. Jim Salminen at the annual Fall University event this past year. Dr. Salminen serves as Director of Evangelism for Frazier Memorial United Methodist Church in Montgomery, Alabama. Frazier is generally regarded as the fastest growing church in Methodism. Dr. Salminen led a two-day workshop on the keys to effective evangelism in the local church. The information provided was extremely practical and applicable in the context of the local church. The response from those laity and clergy present at the seminar was overwhelmingly positive.

During the latter part of 1993, we began to lay the groundwork for the projects we will sponsor in the coming year. We began to evaluate and seek out possible churches who will be serving as test models for evangelism programs that will assist, train, and evaluate the local congregations and measure their effectiveness in reaching out to the community. Working in conjunction with the district superintendents, we will be selecting seven churches of varying sizes and locales to assist them in developing a comprehensive and effective evangelism program.

We have also begun the process of identifying and interviewing the churches within our own conference who are successful in their evangelistic efforts. Again, our goal is to show that churches of all sizes and in all locations can develop effective strategies for evangelism within their communities. Once the information is compiled we will make it available as a resource for all the churches within our conference who wish to discover a variety of methods and programs that can be used in any setting.

Ben Disney, Chairperson

Committee on Stewardship

Proposed Program:

1. Stewardship Support
   Goal: a. Inform the local churches in the conference who the Stewardship Committee is and how we can help
   b. Provide outside resources for Stewardship Seminars for Fall University

For the year of 1993 the Stewardship Committee:

- ✓ Assisted in Fall University by sponsoring two seminar leaders
- ✓ Assisted four local churches with their stewardship programs

Harry Hosier Event

Proposed Program:

Harry Hosier Celebration
Goal: To make the Harry Hosier event truly one of renewal and celebration for all members of the Central Texas Conference

The 1993 Harry Hosier celebration took place at Grace United Methodist church on October 30 from 9:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. During this event there was hymn singing from "The Songs of Zion" and youth groups from McMillan, Grace and Campus Drive provided us with drama, music and sign language renditions. After lunch the children's worship was coordinated by Barbara Howard of St. Barnabas, while the youth and adults participated in worship in the sanctuary. The Acton United Methodist Church choir provided music and Ernest Swiggett of the New York Conference provided the message. The program must most definitely be repeated.

The day was full of spiritual renewal and personal inspiration. When we left our hearts were "strangely warmed" because we knew we had been with the Lord.

Its strengths were the multi-generational participation and varied sessions and events. The weaknesses were minimal. Our financial resources were inadequate, but we feel like this can be overcome.

BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

This has been an exciting year for the Board of Global Ministries. Because of the faithful giving of church members and the dedication of the members of our board, hundreds of people have been helped. They have been educated, fed, clothed, housed, cared for and empowered. Our committees have been active in every aspect of mission on behalf of the people of the Central Texas Conference.

Our plans for 1994 include ministries to even more groups of people as we continue to be in mission together with all of you.

A PROPOSED STATEMENT OF MISSION FOR A COVENANT RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH AND THE EASTERN ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH OF MEXICO

Statement of purpose from the Central Texas Conference side:

In endeavoring to fulfill the mission of the Central Texas Conference (see mission statement below) we approve the conference Board of Global Ministries' development of a covenant relationship with the Eastern Annual Conference of the Methodist Church of Mexico so that local churches may become more missionally alive as we:

develop sensitivity to and pray for the people of Mexico, listen to the needs of others, share experience for faith development and witness, work together to meet missional needs, and be mutually blessed as we glorify God.

Mission Statement of the Central Texas Conference adopted in 1992:

"We are the connection through which our local churches combine individual missions and strengths enabling us to accomplish together what we cannot do alone. In our covenant relationship, we focus on scripture, tradition, experience and reason to fulfill our mission."

9. Provide communications among small membership churches
   Goal: To continue newsletter to small membership congregations in the coordinated mailing stressing it as an exchange of ideas for ministry
10. To plan and implement the programs of City, Town and Country Committee beyond the two meetings of the Conference Board of Global Ministries
    Goal: To meet as a committee four times a year (twice with the Conference Board of Global Ministries and two additional times with additional persons) for planning and implementation of goals

The Committee on City, Town and Country is an education and advocacy group for small membership churches. As such, we have been trying to educate clergy and laity to refer to churches with 200 and less members as small membership churches. We feel that the self esteem of churches are diminished when they are always called "small churches". They are faithful in their ministries. The only thing small about them is their membership.

Edna Davis made arrangements for a luncheon for small membership church clergy and laity during Annual Conference in Waco. More than 40 persons gathered to share the ministries that have made a difference in the lives of people in their churches and communities and to hear Dr. Mel West, Field Representative of United Methodist Rural Fellowship. Resources for small membership churches were gathered and displayed by Rev. Marvin Moore at annual Conference.

In each of the coordinated mailings, we had a newsletter, edited by Rev. Frank Williams. During the year, we celebrated the years of ministries of two churches which were recently closed and provided information for strengthening local churches. We desired more input from local churches than we received. Our desire is to share ideas of ministry with one another through our newsletter.

We provided resources and the names of leaders for licensing school who could bring training and experiences for those who are beginning ministry in small membership churches.

Two of our conference churches participated in a pilot program for small membership churches. The Kennedale and Lamkin churches tested The NOW (rm) Strategy Workbook which is written by Dr. Deborah Cronin. Dr. Cronin was our presenter at Fall University. She informed us of ministries of nurture, outreach and witness.

We have established "Rural Life Sunday" (with an offering) the first Sunday in August to celebrate the rural heritage of the United Methodist Church and to recognize ongoing crisis occurring in rural areas of the world today.

We want to thank everyone who has become an educator and advocate of small membership churches. We see a new movement of interest, nationally and locally, to affirm and strengthen small membership churches. We hope you will join with us.

    Goal: To provide part of the cost of transportation for missionaries visiting with our conference and for missionaries on home assignment

Global Mission Partners

Proposed Program:

Global Mission Partners
Goal: 10% of local churches in Central Texas Conference fully participating in Global Mission Partners program
Goal: Hold a Fall University course to train lay persons and pastors about Global Mission Partners program

The training event for this new program was held on November 20, 1993. Elizabeth Howard, the National Project Director, led the seminar held at St. Mark United Methodist Church, Cleburne. There were 52 people from around the Central Texas Conference in attendance. I am really excited about the opportunities the Global Mission Partners program offers to the local church. A number of churches in our conference have already signed up, others will follow as they learn what a comprehensive mission program this is. A large banner will be presented to each congregation that signs up to be a Global Mission Partner. The requirements are as follows:

1. Pay 100 percent of the church's apportionments;
2. Have an ongoing program of mission education;
3. Provide congregational service to the local community;
4. Be in a covenant relationship with a missionary commissioned by the General Board of Global Ministries;

5. Pledge support for an international Person-In-Mission (a person native to a country outside of the United States serving in mission in their own country or in another country); and
6. Share the church's story with specifically selected United Methodist congregations in their immediate vicinity.

Paula Whitbeck, Chairperson

Committee on Health and Welfare

Proposed Programs:

1. Membership in and attendance at the United Methodist Association of Health and Welfare Ministries annual meeting

2. Promote ministries to the persons and their families with disabling conditions (to include health impaired, physically disabled, mentally and emotionally disabled, deaf and blind); to promote that the United Methodist Church seeks to be inclusive of these persons, enabling them to use their talents and abilities as full participants in the body of Christ
   Goal:
   a) establish subcommittees within local churches to address the needs of persons and their families with disabling conditions
   b) provide interpreters for hearing impaired/deaf at all Annual Conference worship services
   c) sponsor a pilot program/seminar/course on developing ministries with persons having disabling conditions
   d) provide information and education on available accessibility (to include accessibility for physically and hearing disabled) guidelines and on the American Disabilities Act (DA) at district and conference events through all conference publicity
   e) establish and continue a linking relationship with AIDS Interfaith Network, Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns and Inclusive Leadership Committees with regard to overlapping interests and ministries

3. Annual Conference Health and Welfare Luncheon
   Goal: To provide for an extended session of Annual Conference during the noon hour so that conference institutions can inform the conference members of their ministries and their needs
4. Golden Cross Support
   Goal: To promote within the local church the observance of the Golden Cross Sunday offering and to provide information on the benefits of the Golden Cross program
5. AIDS Task Force
   Goal:

   2) To educate and train local churches to be care takers for persons living with AIDS and be knowledgeable about the spread of the disease
6. Financial contribution for stipends for two persons to receive Clinical Pastoral Education training Goal: To provide scholarship stipends for two persons to receive Clinical Pastoral Education.

The Conference Committee on Health and Welfare Ministries, comprised of clergy and lay representatives from the seven districts, completed a year of advocacy and education on behalf of the health and welfare rights and needs of all persons. Some of the activities included promoting the Conference's Health and Welfare Institutions, training district leadership on accessibility for persons with disabling conditions who are affected by disabling conditions. Golden Cross was highlighted in all educational opportunities.

This conference committee was represented on the boards of Harris Methodist Health System, the Harris Methodist Hospital Chaplain's Committee, the Methodist Mission Home, the Wesleyan Homes, the Aldersgate Enrichment Center, and the Methodist Home. Also, members served on the Conference AIDS Task Force. The participation in all of these associations encouraged awareness of the gifts and needs of persons, especially in the areas of child care, aging, health care, and persons with handicapping conditions.

The chairperson of the Conference Health and Welfare Committee was requested to be a presenter at the Global Gathering in Indianapolis. Her presentation highlighted the Health and Welfare Ministries of the Central Texas Conference with special emphasis on the AIDS Task Force's activities.

Committee member, Judy Ehrke, represented the conference with her attendance at the annual meeting of the United Methodist Association of Health and Welfare Ministries that was held in California. This participation has provided the conference with resource materials and leadership development on Health and Welfare concerns.

ALDERSGATE ENRICHMENT CENTER

Aldersgate Enrichment Center has seen a wonderful year and the future looks even brighter. Construction began on our Brownwood property in April with the building of a multi-purpose building donated by the First United Methodist Church of Graham. Bids on our vocational building were opened the end of March and construction on that building will begin soon. We are waiting on the State to approve the grant that we have been working on for the last two years for $275,000 which will build the working entrance road, install the water supply, and build a sewer-processing plant. Aldersgate finished the 1993 year in the black, and the first 3 months of 1994 were the best in our history.

We are presently serving 18 Associates and have a paid staff of 9 people. We have added Chaplain Georgia Allen to the staff and she has been a welcome addition. She works with the Associates to insure their total development. Rev. Elden Traster is the Director of Development, Church, and Community Relations and is filling a much-needed role in coordinating the relationship between Aldersgate and the conference churches, and other fund-raising activities. Elden is spreading the word about Aldersgate throughout the conference. JoAnn Roach has been assigned the position of Financial Administrator and keeping up with the money. It's a full-time job and JoAnn is doing a marvelous job. She has assumed many of the duties of Judy Ehrke who has gone into business for herself. JoAnn is the cheerful voice that you hear when you call the Brownwood office.

Our contacts have grown and with the completion of the vocational center we will be able to accomplish even more. Space has been a problem and the new buildings will solve that. The Lord is sending more and more our way and with his help we will continue to grow and serve.

AEC has been blessed by the Lord in so many ways this last year and because of his grace and the gifts sent by the loving people of our conference, our Associates have been able to feel that someone up there and out there loves them. They are truly proud, productive citizens that are making a real contribution to society. Our conference can be proud to be a part of this ministry.

HARRIS METHODIST HEALTH SYSTEM
Report No. 1
"A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT AND CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD"

Change. That's the only certainty in health care today. At a time when government is working toward cutting costs and national health care reform, Harris Methodist Health System is striving to make important changes on a local level, within our community and among those we serve right here at home. Change is more significant when it moves us toward something better. At Harris Methodist, we are working harder than ever to make changes that are cost effective yet allow us to maintain, or improve, the level of care we provide in our hospitals as well as in the community to those in need. Never has it been more important to join together with others to accomplish this vision. At Harris Methodist, we have found we can better serve our community when we work with physicians, outside agencies and organizations, businesses, and fellow hospitals in our area. No one entity can make significant changes alone. It is in developing partnerships, alliances and networks with others that we truly can make inroads to health care reform that are good for all of us.

Rather than waiting for Washington to define health care for us, we are working toward better health care today. After all, who can best change health care than the professionals who actually deliver it?

At Harris Methodist, change is already underway. We have formed employee task forces and developed more than 9,400 ideas for cutting costs, becoming more efficient and improving quality. We've formed alliances with doctors to provide high-quality, cost-effective managed care programs that address patient needs. We've joined with other health care organizations to tackle some of health care's biggest concerns: cancer, heart disease, childhood immunizations, infant mortality rates, access and preventive care. We have enhanced services within Harris Methodist's hospitals and implemented new ways to meet the continuing needs of our patients. We have listened -- and are responding -- to our community's needs.

As each day's newscast brings more information about reform, your probably hearing many new terms used to discuss health care and how it can be better. In this year's report to our community, we're sharing examples that show you how the concepts you're hearing about are already at work. We've also highlighted several terms in our stories and defined them for you to further your understanding as our nation continues to debate our health care system.

You also hear a great deal about the future of health care. At Harris Methodist, we feel our future has already arrived. We're not waiting on change to happen; we're working to shape it. With your help and support -- and the continued efforts of our staff, board leadership, physician partners, and networks -- Harris Methodist Health System can improve cost and quality while continuing to build on the vision and values set forth nearly 65 years ago, when Dr. Charles Harris opened a Fort Worth hospital based on the principles of giving and caring.

For Harris Methodist, it's just the beginning. For our patients and our community, it's an exciting move toward change...change that will help make health care better for all of us.

Don M. Pike, Chairman of the Board
Ronald L. Smith, President

Report No. 2

THERE'S A GREAT DEAL OF CONVERSATION about health care coverage these days, and much of the conversation is about managed care. The concept of managed care isn't all that new. Health Maintenance Organizations have been available for the past decade. But, with recent efforts toward reforming our nation's health care delivery system, it's clear that managed care is here to stay.

No one knows that better -- or has worked harder to make it happen in north central Texas -- than Harris Methodist Health System. The system's managed care organization, Harris Methodist Health Plan, was chartered in 1986 with only it's employees as members. It started with 14 hospitals on the provider network (most of them Harris Methodist's affiliated hospitals), 391 physicians and 22 employees.

During 1993, Harris Methodist Health Plan surpassed the 100,000 member milestone it set as its goal. More than 1,700 doctors have joined the provider list along with 35 hospitals and more than 500 pharmacies. The health plan now has four office locations in Fort Worth, Arlington, Denton and Cleburne. And, its 437-member client list includes Delta Air Lines, Eckerd Corporation, the City of Fort Worth, Lockheed, the Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport, the City of Arlington, Coca-Cola, Keebler and Texas Christian University, among other prominent Tarrant County businesses.

A 1993 Modern Healthcare article on hospital-based managed care listed Harris Methodist Health Plan eighth on its list of the nation's fastest growing HMOs by enrollment, fifth among the list of the nation's not-for-profit HMOs.

According to Harris Methodist President Ronald L. Smith, it's only the beginning. "The health plan has really just started, it's still in its infancy," he adds. "I've believed since the early '80s that managed care would be the delivery system for health care."

Report No. 3
Leading the Way in Cost Efficiency

Better care at a better cost -- that's the goal everyday at Harris Methodist Health System. While health care costs across the country continue to rise and the government studies possible solutions, Harris Methodist is taking its own stand on cost efficiency.

"Who can best change the health care industry than those of us who actually deliver the care?" asks Bill Whitman, Harris Methodist Health System Managing Director of Operations. "It is important to the Harris System that we act responsibly, address quality care and do something about rising costs, all for the good our patients."

This commitment led to a program called Operations Excellence, which has increased quality, improved productivity, streamlined operations, reduced expenses and resulted in a savings of $22 million for Harris Methodist Health System from February 1992 through September 1993. Ideas for saving an additional $6 million were approved during that time as well, and will be implemented this year.

According to Whitman, Operations Excellence uses creativity and innovation to find better, more cost-effective ways of doing tasks on all levels of the Harris Methodist System. The program is expected to save $46 million in the next three to five years. Cost savings come in a variety of ways. Employees are being cross-trained in jobs from other departments to make the best use of staff time and training, and provide maximum care to patients. Harris Methodist also has pulled together, through all its hospitals and entities, to negotiate large-volume purchase for equipment and supplies. Some operations have been automated to save time and expense. Harris Methodist has contracted with outside vendors for services when it has shown to be more cost-effective. And, negotiations to purchase jet fuel for the CareFlite air ambulance service on a wholesale, rather than retail, basis resulted in a savings of $250,000 alone.

Overall, about 1,200 ideas, both large and small, have been studied and approved to save money and improve both quality and efficiency. In the program's early stages, 26 Harris Methodist employee and management task forces were formed and asked to look at ways to save costs and change daily work patterns and processes in a positive way.

The program is a continuous process, with Harris Methodist constantly challenging and questioning itself, Whitman says. Through sharing, teamwork and ideas, Harris Methodist Health System is finding better ways to do routine tasks, becoming more efficient and developing new ways to enhance the quality of care.

Report No. 4
Leading the Way in Alliances

Houston's M.D. Anderson Cancer Center has a national reputation for advance cancer treatment research. Now, through M.D. Anderson's Texas Community Oncology Network, Harris Methodist and an alliance of local hospitals and physicians are participating in important clinical research which could seriously impact the future of cancer care.

The local group, called the Tarrant County Oncology Alliance, includes Harris Methodist, Moncrief Radiation Center, St. Joseph Hospital, All Saints Health Care, the Osteopathic Medical Center of Texas and several area physicians.

Through a research grant, the Tarrant County alliance studies new drugs, new combinations of drugs and new combinations of treatment, in the hope of finding better ways to fight cancer. "This is cutting-edge research," says Marsha Fountain, Director of Oncology for Harris Methodist Health System. "It's exciting to offer new possibilities to patients right here in Tarrant County. State-of-the-art cancer treatment options are now close to home." Depending on eligibility criteria, the alliance's studies benefit patients with all types of cancer. Fifty patients have participated in a countywide study on a lung cancer prevention drug. Additional funding was recently received for studies in breast cancer prevention. Because research drugs and treatments are new, most studies are long term, often spanning three to five years before reaching a point that can be evaluated.

The Tarrant County results will be merged with research from five other Texas networks and then statistically evaluated on a national basis. The data will be used to compare the new drugs or treatments with other methodist currently being used.

In joining the oncology alliance, Harris Methodist has now opened research groups with other organizations, such as the Southwest Oncology Group, to conduct additional local studies. This work combines with other efforts Harris Methodist has made toward cancer treatment and prevention over the years. In 1992, Harris Methodist Fort Worth opened a new Research and Bone Marrow Transplantation Program, which also reviews new drug and treatment options.

In 1993, Harris Methodist was instrument in organization a community Investigational Review Board to evaluate and monitor protecting cancer patient's rights. Harris Methodist Fort Worth and Harris Methodist H•E•B hospitals are joined in this effort by All Saints Hospital, St. Joseph Hospital, Osteopathic Medical Center of Texas and Moncrief Radiation Center. The Board regularly reviews and improves treatment procedures at the various facilities.

Also during 1993, Harris Methodist Fort Worth and Harris Methodist H•E•B hospitals were awarded accreditation for their cancer programs from the American College of Surgeons.

"This level of commitment shows Tarrant County residents that Harris is helping to lead the way in cancer care and prevent, for better treatment today and in the future."

Taking Clinics into Neighborhoods

In 1990, the Mayor's Commission on Infant Mortality issued a report that cited Fort Worth as having the highest infant mortality rate in the state. Low-birthweight babies and limited access to care for expectant moms living in identified areas were the key issues to be addressed. Working with other health care providers, Harris Methodist agreed to donate use of one of its building located on West Rosedale near the Texas Wesleyan campus. Using grant funds from the City of Fort Worth and the Sid Richardson Foundation, the building was renovated and loaned to: the Public Health Department, to operate the Women, Infants and Children's Program; John Peter Smith Hospital, to open a prenatal clinic; Planned Parenthood, to provide family planning services; and United Community Centers, to handle management and administrative operations.

Increased service to area families provide so successful that, in 1991, Harris Methodist officially gave the building to United Community Centers for continued operation. During the same year, Harris Methodist also began helping the Diamond Hill and Polytechnic communities find locations and funding for neighborhood clinics. Each clinic is approxmiately 20,000 squqre feet and will be operated by the Tarrant County Hospital District.

Mobile Unit Takes Mammography into the Community

In April 1993, the Doris Kupferle Breast Center's Advisory Board hosted a high-profile fashion show as part of National Cancer Month. Produced by Neiman Marcus and underwritten by local donors and businesses, the sellout show raised more than $130,000 toward mammography services for the underserved. With a matching dollar commitment from Harris Methodist Health System, the funds raised from the fashion show were used to purchase a van equipped for mobile mammography screenings, which began service last July. During the first six months of operation, the mobile unit conducted 877 cancer screens. Sixty-three women received further evaluation, and seven breast cancers were found early, at a more treatable stage.

The fight against breast cancer is an ongoing battle, but regular screenings and early detection can make a major difference. Thanks to this new mobile effort, and the support of the community, fashion show sponsors and attendees who helped make it all possible, many local women who couldn't afford regular screenings can now enjoy peace of mind and a healthier outlook.

With projects like these -- and many more in the works -- Harris Methodist continues to find ways to increase its community support by joining with others, through working partnerships, to do even more.

At a time when everyone attention is on health care issues, Harris Methodist Health System welcomes involvement in the communities it serves. Everyone wants to know that in the future, quality health care will be available to meet everyone's needs. At Harris Methodist, the future begins today.

METHODIST HOME
Report No. 1

Against immense difficulties, most children in America arrive at adulthood full of hope and promise. Most parents are managing--often with scarce resources and many sacrifices--to make sure our children have the guidance and opportunities they need to prepare for the future.

And yet, in 1993 the Home served 204 more children than the previous year. Also, for some three and a half months 20 Branch Davidian children from the tragedy of the siege and fatal fire at Mt. Carmel were cared for on the 130-acre, safe, secure Methodist Home campus.

Our staff provided a super-human effort along with the entire community, and together we were able to provide these children with very special care and a place to call home. It's because of the support from United Methodists and other friends that Methodist Home continues to respond to the needs of innocent children in the face of terrible crises.

We responded to the immediate crisis. All the while, the Home was caring for more than 400 other children each day for 365 days-- a ministry now in its 104th year.

On March 16, 1994, Methodist Home was given the Presidents' Citation at the United Methodist Association of Health and Welfare Ministries meeting in Williamsburg, Virginia in special recognition of our work with the children from Mt. Carmel last year.

Methodist Home was re-accredited by the Council on Accreditation this year. The Home also was one of six United Methodist institutions granted a five year EAGLE designation by the United Methodist Association of Health and Welfare Ministries in January 1994.

The Educational Assessment Guidelines Leading Toward Excellence Program is a dual-thrust, self-assessment and peer-review process. It was created to encourage and recognize excellence in Christian mission and ministry, in keeping with the rich, historical, Wesleyan traditions and practices of the United Methodist denomination.

Through our affiliation with the seven United Methodist conferences of Texas and New Mexico, we are dedicated to be a ministry helping troubled children and hurting families.

Report No. 2 - How You Can Help

1. Promote Methodist Home's December Christmas Offering in each local church.
2. Reaffirm the defense and protection of rights and privileges of children needing care by someone other than their parents, and uphold the principle of licensing agencies, for purposes of caring for and placing children, to protect minimum standards of care for every child in the care of other persons.
3. Pastors are encouraged to contact Methodist Home regarding child placement needs. Call the Methodist Home Office located at 1111 Herring Avenue, Waco, Texas 76708, 817/753-1235.
4. Contact Ty Herring, vice-president for Development of Methodist Home when individuals indicate consideration of Methodist Home in making their long-range giving and charitable estate planning.
5. Please do not hesitate to call upon Reverend Tom Strother, vice-president for Church and Community Relations, or Dr. Jack Kyle Daniels, president, for any needs you might have related to Methodist Home.

METHODIST MISSION HOME
Report No. 1

"As you have done it unto the least of these...you have done it unto me.." (Matthew 25:40)

Each day I see folks come through out gate here in San Antonio who many of us might think are "the least of these". They have physical handicaps. They are couples who are childless...they are young women who are pregnant in their teens, and unmarried. They've got troubles. And that's why the Mission Home is here, to help persons with special needs. Here is a brief report of how and who we have helped in 1993.

Southwest Maternity Center: Our maternity and adoption ministry continues in serving young women who are pregnant, their babies, and couples who wish to adopt a child. In 1993 we placed 55 infants, worked with 108 prospective adoptive couples and 172 birth parents. We scheduled approximately 35 orientation sessions for prospective adoptive parents a year.. on a Saturday, in various cities in the seven relating UMC conferences. We urge those interested in finding out more about the adoption process to call us at 1-800-284-0410. We also have maternity/adoption staff in Dallas, Lufkin, Houston and Lubbock.

For maternity services from any area, call 1-800-284-0410 (or 210/696-2410), which is answered on a 24-hour basis in San Antonio.

Southwest Center for the Hearing Impaired: We continue to help young adults with a hearing impairment get the special training they need to live independently and to obtain and continue employment. We have added transitional living services off campus, where those who are employed live in an apartment and can still receive minimal assistance as needed. The usual stay is about 18 months, and we have about 75 clients at a time, from several states, in this program.

Southwest Center for Community Re-entry: This newer ministry is for persons who have suffered a traumatic brain injury, and have finished the medical portion of their recovery, but still need help in cognitive re-training and in independent living skills. Though these clients have often suffered an accident, we also have had clients who had brain tumor surgery, an aneurysm, or a stroke.

Worship and Bible study for all residents is provided each week, as well as transportation each Sunday to a local United Methodist Church. An all-campus worship service is held each month for staff and residents together.

Tour groups are welcome to visit the campus..please contact Pam Perkins at 1-800-284-0410 to arrange a time.

Ground has been broken for a new student activity and physical therapy building and construction is scheduled to begin in the Spring of 1994. This much-needed facility, estimated to cost $450,000, is the result of our NEW VISIONS FOR THE NEXT CENTURY CAMPAIGN, with funds being on hand for the construction. The total campaign raised 2.6 million in gifts and pledges by the end of 1993. Pledges are still being accepted and needed for this important fund, especially for endowment funds. For gift procedure information, call Larry Watson at 1-800-284-0410.

Methodist Mission Home's 100 year centennial anniversary will be celebrated Saturday, April 29, 1995. All of our friends are invited....current and former board members, adoptive parents, adoptees, former residents, church officials, clergy and lay persons. Save the date and look for more specific details later. The Spring Board of Directors meeting will be held the day before on April 28, 1995.

How can you help the Mission Home?

1. Refer persons who need our help.
2. Class groups and individuals can provide funds for residents in need through "Shares in Caring."
3. Budget or take a special offering (The Mission Home receives NO APPORTIONMENT FUNDS!!)

4. Bring a tour or work group to the campus.
5. Have a speaker representing the Mission Home at your church.

Thanks to Bishop Joe Wilson, and all other members of our Board of Directors from the Central Texas Conference who are:

Mr. Gerald Alley
Mr. Robert Jenkins (Jenks) Garrett
Dr. Minnie Lee Lancaster
Mr. Tom Hoskins

WESLEYAN HOMES INC.

Tarrant County

"A Tradition of Caring... A Future of Hope..." is the theme of Wesleyan Homes capital campaign to build a retirement community in Tarrant County. The Honorable Kay Granger, Mayor of Fort Worth, and Bishop Joe Wilson will serve as honorary chairpersons of this campaign.

Following last year's approval by the Annual Conference, the Board of Wesleyan Homes extended the option on the site for one year and moved to set up a development office in Tarrant County. Trinity United Methodist Church made the generous donation of office space and Tom Stevenson was hired as a Development Officer.

Informational meetings were held with church and community leaders to promote an awareness of the proposed facilities. A study was commissioned for Cargill and Associates to confirm that there was an interest in the project from a broad based group of potential donors. Based on the results of that study, the Board authorized a campaign goal of $2,700,000 and a challenge goal of $4,000,000. To demonstrate its own commitment, the board is conducting its own campaign with a base goal of $250,000 and a challenge goal of $400,000. When this is complete, the main campaign will get underway in the late spring of this year.

The design of the new retirement community campus is well underway. Focus groups with potential residents were held to get older adult's input into unit design, as well as, services and pricing. The architects have created an attractive site plan and the floor plans for all the buildings. Respected gerontological experts, Dr. Herb Shore and Dr. Lorraine Hiatt, are working with the building committee to create unique designs for the facilities that focus on providing gracious and comfortable residences and not sterile institutions. Truly, much has been accomplished to this end for all levels of accommodations from retirement cottages to personal care and even skilled nursing care. Imagine nursing home rooms that open onto a carpeted and beautifully appointed living room instead of the long medical institution corridors that are all too familiar to us.

A series of meetings has also been held with neighboring home owners and the adjoining neighborhood to address their concerns for the property's development. Their response has been favorable and we have been able to incorporate many of their suggestions into the site plan.

The need for the facility is immediate. We receive inquires on a daily basis from persons in the Tarrant County area who need the services of Wesleyan Homes, right now! However, we can not begin construction until our fund raising goals have been reached. Our prayer is that every church member in the Central Texas Conference will make this project a personal priority in the coming year and help us meet the needs of older adults. Gifts can be mailed to: A Tradition of Caring Campaign, Wesleyan Homes, P.O. Box 170804, Arlington Tx., 76003-0804.

For more information on the project please call Tom Stevenson in our Tarrant County office at 817-543-2522.

Georgetown

1993 saw the Georgetown facilities serve a record number of older adults. New one and two bedroom apartments were added to the retirement home from remodeled space. In the nursing home two large dayrooms were added at the nurses stations looking onto landscaped courtyards. The dayrooms transformed the nurses stations from crowded busy areas into areas that invite one to sit and enjoy nature. This project was made possible by the generosity of the Avinelle McWhorter Ogle Estate.

Local community volunteers gave over 3,800 hours of service to the residents. These volunteers provide group activities and one to one friendly visitation. The church's involvement in homes for the aging makes a direct impact on resident's lives.

Wesleyan Homes gave $241,000 of charitable care to residents needing financial assistance in 1993. This benevolence is made possible by the Mother's Day offering that the Central Texas Conference takes on behalf of Wesleyan Homes, and by gifts, wills, and bequests given by individuals. Each church is encouraged to take this offering and let its members feel a part of this vital ministry of the conference. Staff and board members stand ready to come and speak to church groups on behalf of the homes.

Chris G. Spence, Executive Director

Refugee Resettlement

Proposed Programs:

1. Refugee Resettlement in districts of the Conference
   Goal: To achieve at least four district-wide resettlements in the Central Texas Annual Conference in 1995
2. Promotion of Refugee Resettlement
   Goal: To provide promotional materials to churches in the coordinated mailings of the conference and to plan a course for Fall University on refugees, their plight and how we can minister to them

In January 1993, as Refugee Resettlement Coordinator in the conference, I attended a training session and annual meeting of UMCOR. This has been a valuable experience in helping me to understand the plight of refugees seeking asylum from their native land. Since then, I have met with the Cabinet to solicit the help of districts and district superintendents to consider resettlements in their areas. At present, the Waco District is awaiting the arrival of a Bosnian family. Preparations are underway for this resettlement project. A display on Refugee Resettlement was available at Annual Conference and further contact with districts and churches will be made throughout 1994, as I share the story of what is involved in this ministry.

Goals for 1995 include:

1. Leaflet(s) made available through the conference coordinated mailing to increase the level of awareness and encourage refugee resettlements in the conference.
2. Offer a Fall University informational course on the plight of refugees and our need to assist in their resettlement in our communities.
3. Accomplish Refugee Resettlement in at least four districts in the annual conference sponsored by either an entire district, an individual church, or a cluster of churches in a district in 1995.

1993 was a very exciting year for the Urban Ministries Committee. We continued to marvel at the ministry that takes place in the various agencies whose ministries we support. This past year has been a very successful year and in all of these ministry areas. One of our accomplishments this year that we are most excited about was our seminar at Fall University. Dr. Dan Bonner, with Restart, Inc. in Kansas City, Missouri came and led seminars having to do with ministry to the homeless and developing inclusive urban congregations. We found these seminars to be most helpful to those persons who are currently ministering in the urban setting.

We thank each of you for your support that helps Urban Ministry happen in the various settings that we support. Your giving makes the difference in the lives of so many people who feel oppressed and powerless.

Volunteers in Mission

Proposed Programs:

1. V.I.M. communication to the Central Texas Annual Conference. Publicizing projects through a quarterly newsletter and the United Methodist Reporter.
   Goal: To inform and educate the people of the Central Texas Annual Conference about projects, needs and possible participation in short term mission projects
2. Organize and support work teams projects
   Goal: Our goal is involved in the churches and people of the Central Texas Annual Conference in Volunteers in Mission. There are ten areas that we hope to address in 1994 including local, jurisdictional, national, and international projects.
3. V.I.M. courses at the Annual Conference Fall University
   Goal: To increase awareness of Volunteers in Mission and encourage widespread participation. We want local churches to understand that they need not be totally dependent upon the V.I.M. Committee of the Annual Conference for projects.
4. Provide Volunteers in Mission display for Annual Conference meeting, June 1995
   Goal: Distribution of information about the work of Volunteers in Mission. Recruitment of participants for ongoing/upcoming projects.
5. Expenses for chairperson, vice-chairperson and secretary of Annual Conference V.I.M. Committee so they may attend the Jurisdictional V.I.M. event to be held in Dallas in the Fall of 1995.
   Goal: Improved education, motivation of the leaders for V.I.M. in the Central Texas Annual Conference. Opportunities for networking with V.I.M. leaders from annual conferences throughout our jurisdiction.

1993 has proven to be a pivotal year for the Annual Conference Committee on Volunteers in Mission. This year the organization became complete and we were recognized as a committee of the Annual Conference Board of Global Ministries. Committee members were selected from each of the conference's seven districts and the work began.

Two work teams were sent to Baldwin, Louisiana to help with the clean up and reconstruction following Hurricane Andrew. These two teams followed the two sent in late 1992. In July V.I.M. assisted in the gathering, packing and shipping of 23 tons of food, water and other household needs to the flood area along the Mississippi River. We had seven persons representing our annual conference at the V.I.M. Superserve event held at Mt. Sequoyah over the Labor Day holiday.

Plans for 1994 include a work team for the Shalom Zone in east Fort Worth. This team will include Bishop Wilson and his Cabinet, and will work on remodeling homes for sale to low income families. We also intend to send work teams to the midwest flood area, house builders to Juarez, Mexico, assistance to the earthquake area in California, and a construction team to Concepcion, Chile in November, 1994.

Advance planning continues on into 1996, when we hope to host a statewide V.I.M. training event at our won Glen Lake Camp.

Donald H. Kingman, Chairperson

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

The Board of Higher Education and Campus ministry has in 1993 continued to be about the mission of the church with students. This was seen with the Student Gathering in August. Students from campus units and churches in the conference came together to plan student programs and to unite as one body. This past January we had six college students attend the seminar "The Breakdown of Human Community: Religious and Cultural Diversity" at the United Nations Building in New York City.

We the Board wish to applaud the Central Texas Emmaus community for beginning a college age Emmaus/Chrysalis program.

The Board supports the movement begun in some quarters to rename the Masters of Divinity Degree to a Doctoral Degree in keeping with the Doctoral Degrees which require similar hours and academic standards. Letters expressing that support are being sent to the General Board of Higher Education, Board of Ordained Ministry, United Methodist and approved seminaries.

Some of the goals for 1993 have been realized and are moving forward as ongoing programs:

1. Our relationship to United Methodist institutions of higher education.
   Goal: Maintaining effective relationship between the conference and those institutions through statements and through conference financial and promotional support.
2. Direct communication with potential students in regard to United Methodist colleges and universities; scholarships and loans; campus ministry units.
   Goal: A computerized mailing list of all 11th and 12th grade students in local churches. Encourage the seven United Methodist Colleges to send admission information to all 10th, 11th and 12th graders, pastors, youth directors and CCYM. To display at district and conference youth events.
3. Financial support of students seeking higher education.
   Goal: Promote giving to World Communion Sunday and Student Day Offering, so as to be able to continue to give a Conference Merit Award each year. This year's recipient was Chiantia Felder, who is attending Dillard University in New Orleans.
4. National Student Forum leadership event.
   Goal: To prepare guidelines and provide financial support for maximum number to participate. This year we had 3 students attend the FORUM.
5. Distribution of funds to the Wesley Foundations/United Christian Fellowship campus ministries.
   Goal: To distribute the funds from the conference apportionments to the five established campus ministry units.
6. Local Church Campus Ministry Development.
   Goal: Offering grants to each DCOM and churches which present a proposal to begin such a ministry and continue support the present ministries.

The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry recommends to CFA that the total apportionment for the Texas Methodist College Association be apportioned to the local churches on the decimal system and based on $1.50 for each church member in the Annual Conference. The Board also recommends that the amount for the Wesley Foundation Fund be apportioned to the local churches on the decimal system and based on $1.26 for each church member in the Annual Conference.

Without the members of this Board, these programs would in most cases not have happened. I wish to thank the Board members for their support and dedication.

Harold Tate, Chairperson

Proposed Programs:

1. On-campus events for students and parents
   Goal: To encourage the seven United Methodist Colleges of Texas to send any information about on-campus events to the conference office to be included on the conference calendar and conference mailings.
2. Video about Campus Ministries in Central Texas Conference
   Goal: To increase awareness of campus ministry and growth of leadership on college campuses
3. Local Church Campus Ministry Connection
   Goal: While continuing support of the present ministries at TWU, Southwestern University and Hill College, stimulate the establishment of at least one new campus ministry unit by offering grants each to DCOMs, clusters of churches, or individual congregations which present proposals to begin such ministries by surveying all campuses, identifying churches

4. Campus Ministry Events
   Goal: To encourage cooperation and interaction among students and campus ministers and enable them to attend regional and national student events.
5. Conference Student Council
   Goal: The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry will convene a meeting of students representing campus ministry units and local church campus ministry groups for the purpose of forming an ongoing conference student council.
6. Campus Ministry Unit Development

HUSTON-TILLOTSON COLLEGE

The decade of the 1990's is an era when all educational institutions are being challenged to be more accountable, effective, and efficient. Thus, it is vital to the future of American higher education that colleges and universities reassess their role in society, clarify their mission, and enhance the delivery of services to various customers. The public deserves to know how well each institution delivers its product and serves the common good.

At Huston-Tillotson College, education is our business. We are the oldest institution of higher education in the city of Austin and the largest minority-controlled business. We affirm our heritage as a historically Black, church-related, liberal arts college. We continue our commitment to being an exciting academic community of teachers and learners who are multi-ethnic, multi-cultural and multi-faith. We proclaim our vision of becoming a world class institution for the preparation of a new generation of leaders for the global challenges of the of the 21st century. And we continue our commitment to the traditions and values established by our Methodist and Congregationalist founders.

Our major achievement during this past year was the revision of our curriculum. Huston-Tillotson's core curriculum, required of all entering students, provides a strong foundation in career preparation and lifetime learning, languages, computation and science, history and social awareness, and humanity and values. We also installed a new telephone system, allowing direct access to individual offices and the creation of a long-distance accounting system. We eliminated a cumulative financial deficit and ended the 1993 fiscal year with excess revenue of almost $200,000. Our endowment and our scholarship funds have grown during the past year.

We anticipate continuing our work of curriculum revision to reflect the needs of our students and the demands of the marketplace. Currently, we offer B.A. and B.S. degrees in 15 major fields in business, education, humanities, natural sciences, and social sciences. The Division of Business has the largest enrollment, and the fastest-growing academic program at Huston-Tillotson is teacher education, which enrolls approximately one-fifth of the student body. Other strong programs are mass communication, computer science, African-American studies, biology, chemistry, and sociology. The college will also expand its honors program, cooperative education, academic skills assistance, counseling, and career advisement, as well as its extracurricular activities in religious life, intercollegiate athletics, and student leadership development.

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

I would be remiss if I did not take notice in my last year of service as Dean of Perkins School of Theology of the encouragement and support which I and others at Perkins have received from you through the years. Many of you have provided financial support, encouraged students to attend, welcomed them as interns into your congregations, utilized our resources for continuing education, and experienced the leadership of members of our faculty in programs like the Disciple Bible Study. We are pleased and anxious to be of service, and we are grateful to you for your interest.

This year we have conducted searches for two persons in the field of theology, and for one in Christian education. All of these individuals are expected to be in place at the beginning of the 1994-1995 academic year next September. It is our expectation that a new dean will be named by that time, too. Dean James F. Jones, Jr. of Dedman College has chaired the Search Committee. Professors Clifton Black and Danna Nolan Fewell were awarded tenure and promoted to the rank of associate professors last May.

The year has seen a number of new books by faculty authors. Included among them are Danna Nolan Fewell's Narrative in the Hebrew Bible and Gender, Power, and Promise: The Subject of the Bible's First Story, both of which she co-authored with David Gunn. Jouette Bassler was associate editor for New Testament of The Harper Collins Study Bible, Ruben L.F. Habito published Healing Breath, John Holbert joined S.T. Kimbrough and Carlton R. Young in Psalms for Praise and Worship, W.J.A. Power published Once Upon a Time: A Humorous Retelling of the Genesis Stories, and a second edition of Charles Wood's The Formation of Christian Understanding: Theological Hermeneutics was published. In addition, articles by Perkins faculty appeared in a variety of journals and church publications.

We enrolled a total of 391 students last September, 247 of whom were M.Div students. 206 (83.1%) of our M.Div students are United Methodists, 97 (39.1%) are women, 24 are African Americans and 13 are Hispanics. 31.4% of our students are not Caucasians. The Perkins community is a diverse and lively environment for learning.

The second group of lay persons to be honored with the Woodrow Seals Award included Elizabeth Johannaber of Dallas and Earl R. and Martha Lee Wyles Wilson of Jackson, Mississippi. Dr. Robert C. Harder (1954), secretary of the Department of Health and Environment for the State of Kansas, was named Distinguished Alumnus.

We are grateful to all of you for your continuing interest and support as Perkins seeks to carry out its mission on behalf of the Church.

James E. Kirby, Dean

SAINT PAUL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

In the last five years applications for admission to Saint Paul have increased by 84%! This dramatic increase has permitted increased enrollment and an increase in quality to take place simultaneously. The current enrollment reflects more students from the immediate region and more from beyond the region. Thirty states and five countries are represented in our three programs this year.

Saint Paul's clear commitment to the local church was revealed in a recent survey of the faculty. The seventeen faculty members have had a total of 161 years of local church ministry. Most of that time served was as pastor of a local church. As important as these years of local church experience are, there exists an even larger and more pervasive commitment of our entire faculty to ensure vigorous integration of their disciplines with the actual practice of ministry.

Our faculty are also productive scholars. Faculty books published in 1993 include: The God We Worship by Sondra Mattaei, Hard Living People and Mainstream Christians by Tex Sample, A Troubling in My Soul edited by Emilie M. Townes, Womanist Justice, Womanist Hope by Emilie M. Townes, and Church Leadership by Lovett H. Weems, Jr.

Dr. Henry H. (Hal) Knight III has joined the faculty in the E. Stanley Jones Chair of Evangelism made possible by The Foundation for Evangelism. Funds for a permanent endowment for the position are currently being raised by Missouri United Methodist. We look forward to what Dr. Knight will contribute to our already strong and diverse faculty. The first task for John Wesley was always evangelism. It is in this spirit that we emphasize evangelism at Saint Paul and we are seeking ways to strengthen our work in evangelism.

Saint Paul and the General Council on Ministries joined together to survey what laity most seek in their pastors. The values most admired by laity in their pastors turned out to be caring, followed by cooperative and honest. The skills most sought are preaching, management/administration, and pastoral care.

Last November, eighty young persons from nine Annual Conferences participated in "Knowing God's Call" held on the Saint Paul campus. This event was designed for persons to explore their call to ordained, consecrated, or lay ministry; it was a regional follow up to the national Lilly Enlistment Project. This was a cooperative effort sponsored by the Boards of Ordained and Diaconal Ministry in the six Annual Conferences of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska.

Saint Paul received a $500,000 Challenge Grant from the Kresge Foundation. The grant goes toward renovation of the library building including an elevator to make the entire building accessible and a climate control system to preserve the book collection. Also included is the construction of a enclosed passageway which will link the library and the primary classroom building.

Saint Paul School of Theology is preparing a new generation of leaders for the church in the Wesleyan tradition. There is no more worthy endeavor to which any of us could give our energies and resources. We thank you for being partners with us in this mission.

Lovett H. Weems, Jr, President

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

I am pleased to comply with the 1988 Resolution from the Jurisdictional Conference requesting an Annual Report to each Annual Conference in the South Central Jurisdiction.

I am also pleased to report on several new initiatives for 1993-94 that have strengthened our educational mission. Among them:

* One of the newest leaders in our academic community brings to us a unique understanding of the diversity of human culture. After a nationwide search, I appointed Anya Peterson Royce as SMU's newest provost, vice president for academic affairs, and professor of anthropology and dance. Provost Royce was formerly vice chancellor for academic affairs and dean of the faculties at Indiana University in Bloomington. An anthropologist who is an expert on the cultures of Mexico, she is fluent in eight languages.

* Reflecting the diversity of our global society, SMU's first-year class in 1993-94 is the most diverse in our history -- minority students represent 22.3 percent of the first-year enrollment. Total minority enrollment has increased from 830 students or 9.4 percent in 1987 to an all-time high of 1,403 this fall, 15.7 percent of SMU's student body. In spite of the decreased numbers of college-age students, SMU also has been able to maintain the academic quality of the first-year class.

*Dedman College of Humanities and Sciences has added two new international programs of language study: in Zalapa, Mexico, and Boulouris, France. In addition, the College has initiated more intensive first-year courses in languages ranging from French to Japanese.

* The School of Engineering and Applied Science introduced two new Master of Science Programs in 1992-93. The Manufacturing Systems Management Program aims to help professionals to integrate the entire product commercialization process -- from concept to production -- with national and global issues driving the marketplace. The Software Engineering Program is designed to offer a balance of management and technical expertise necessary to succeed in this rapidly evolving field.

* Recognizing the growing role of technology in music composition and production, SEAS and Meadows School of the Arts have instituted a joint Bachelor's Program in computer science and music.

* The School of Law initiated a new curriculum with a greater emphasis on public law and statutory material and an innovative, required course on "Lawyering" to help students develop skills essential in the practice of law.

* The DeGolyer Library has established the Center for Notable Women in the Southwest and has acquired the Horton Foote Archive, a J. Frank Dobie Collection, and the Stanley Marcus Archive.

We continue to operate with a balanced budget, but we continue to be more enrollment driven than we would like to be. We need your support in sending your outstanding Untied Methodist scholars to SMU.

We are very appreciative of the support from the Jurisdiction of the SMU United Campus Ministry Program, under the able leadership of Reverend Greg Ligon. Through your support and Reverend Ligon's direction, the ministry continues to grow.

By late Spring, we hope to have appointed a new Dean for Perkins School of Theology. We have been blessed to have had the leadership of Dean James Kirby for the past 13 years.

We are deeply appreciative of your interest, prayers, gifts, and leadership -- all of which strengthens our vision for SMU.

A. Kenneth Pye, President

United Methodist Campus Ministry

"Take the Next Step" has been the United Methodist Campus Ministry's theme for the 1993-94 school year. UMCM at Southern Methodist University is committed to helping students take the next step in their relationship with Christ.

This year many steps have been taken...

* over 125 students have been involved in the ministry through Hardcore Bible Study, small groups, local church outreach, urban ministry, retreats, Vision '94, Love, Sex, and Dating weekend, Resurrection Week, Student Forum...
* 25 students make up the core leadership through involvement in either Freshman Council or Ministry Team...
* nine students have take steps toward exploring a call to ministry...
* students and staff hosted over 2200 United Methodist Youth from across the South Central Jurisdiction for the third annual, "Go for the Goal, UMYF Day at SMU"...
* numerous students have and will participate in missions trips to Appalachia (Spring Break '94) and Malaysia (Summer '94).

In the midst of BIG crowds and great programs some individual steps have been taken...

* Bob...reconciled to God and his family after stepping out of an impure dating relationship
* Jo Anna...finding hope in Christ in the midst of a battle with an eating disorder
* Michael...taking a stand for Christ through his leadership in the freshman class.

Significant steps are being taken!

The staff, board of directors, and students are also mindful of the steps you have taken. As local churches, you have sacrificed time, energy and financial resources to be a part of the continuing work God has begun through UMCM-SMU. Thanks for your past, present and future support.

SOUTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

At a time when Southwestern stands strong on indicators of institutional strength such as student enrollment, fiscal stability, and national recognition, it is, perhaps, appropriate for me to reflect on our central purpose. Strong numbers and reputation are not ends in themselves. They are a part of our continuing endeavor to provide as a fine a liberal arts education as is possible for our students. In terms of our historic mission as a church-related institution, that education will be value-centered and broad-based, focused on the full development of the whole person.

In particular, the university has a passionate commitment to teaching. Its faculty-student ratio of approximately 1:12 is designed to create a level of teacher-student interaction in which excellent teaching can take place. Our faculty members have chosen Southwestern, because they want to be part of an institution where good teaching is the primary expectation made of every faculty member.

The most recent tangible recognition of this fact has come in the selection of one of our faculty members, Dr. Vicente Villa, as Professor of the Year by the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education. Dr. Villa, Professor of Biology and Holder of the Dishman Chair in Science, was selected from over 400 nominations from all 50 states by a panel of judges from the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. His selection was recognized by the Associated Press, USA Today, and the Chronicle of Higher Education; was featured on a Spanish-speaking network with approximately 500 outlets; and was carried by television stations and newspapers all over the state. His selection is a validation of our commitment to teaching and an indication of the nature of teaching quality at Southwestern.

But quality alone is not enough. For us, it must be a quality that inculcates those central values which we believe are at the heart of the Judeo-Christian tradition, the foundation of which is our unyielding faith in and unshakable commitment to the sacred worth and dignity of every member of this community. These values constrain us to be a nurturing, caring, inclusive community. We cherish diversity, globalism, ethnicity, ecumenicity, and knowledge, and we deplore and seek to eradicate vestiges of racism, sexism, parochialism, sectarianism, and ignorance. We place the common good above personal gain, and we hold that a loving, caring concern for others is by no means outdated. As a church-related university, we understand and embrace such concepts as love, grace, mercy, justice, and forgiveness.

Beyond these basic values, we expect the outcomes of the Southwestern experience to be that students will learn how to think critically and creatively; that they will develop analytical capabilities; that they will be able to engage in decision making which is informed by the highest norms inherent in this community; that they will be able to communicate effectively and persuasively; that they will be freed from any narrow limitations or restrictions of their experience; and that they will be able to participate in the global village as persons of keen intellect and broad humanitarian commitments with the vision, the courage, and the willingness to be at risk as leaders on emerging global frontiers.

These goals may seem excessively visionary to be capable of realization, but it is my conviction that our work is more often frustrated by lack of vision than by lack of effort. A university is a very fragile institution. Beyond anything else, it is finally held together by its vision, by the trust its members have in each other, and by the strength of its commitment to shared values.

The existence of a strong university system is critical to the continuance of a free democratic society. It is the one institution within our society which is solely committed to the pursuit of knowledge -- to learning. We are trying to do our part at Southwestern toward maintaining and increasing the strength of that system.

Roy B. Shilling, Jr., President

TEXAS UNITED METHODIST COLLEGE ASSOCIATION

In Beth Adams Bowser's book, LIVING THE VISION, a hundred-year history of the University Senate of the United Methodist Church, she says that the Senate's life and agenda evolved out of responses to four questions: Who are we? What is our purpose and task? How do we fulfill our responsibilities? What is a Methodist-educational institution? (Incidentally, in that book I notice, among others, the distinguished service of Roy Shilling, presently a member of the Senate, A. Kenneth Pye, Thomas K. Kim, John Q. Taylor King, Durwood Fleming, Noe Gonzales and Umphrey Lee.)

During these past months I have experienced our own colleges' and universities' struggle with answers to these and similar questions as they seek to regenerate strong faith and solid values for our own day. Each of them affirms its relationship to a rich and vital heritage. Each seeks to help its students grow in a faith-shaped, value-oriented life-style.

On each campus I have seen, firsthand, a deep commitment to spiritual foundations, to shared community life, to development of self-discipline and the need for rules and regulations, to community and civic service and to concern for global relations and environment.

Their challenge is also our challenge in the Church. Ultimately, people will judge both of us by what they feel we should be and do.

Our aspirations, therefore, are our greatest assets. As together we focus on these strengths we will find our relationship an exciting and positive adventure as we serve the present and anticipate the future.

We are grateful for the financial support of local churches across the State of Texas. Huston-Tillotson and Wiley Colleges receive their financial support for scholarships through the Black College Fund. In 1993 the other five institutions received $847,501, which was shared according to a formula that takes into account the differing sizes of the student bodies:

Lon Morris College	$137,112
McMurry University	$164,144
Southern Methodist University	$219,905
Southwestern University	$163,382
Texas Wesleyan University	$162,958

Your generosity goes a long way toward providing scholarships and financial aid to United Methodist students, as we seek to fulfill Wesley's call to join knowledge with vital piety.

Ben Oliphint, President

TEXAS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

Highlights of the Past Year - The most momentous event of 1994 was the pledge by Evie Jo Craven Wilson to endow our chaplaincy program. The effects of Mrs. Wilson's commitment to church-related higher education and the spiritual nourishment of young people have been felt by every United Methodist College and University in Texas. Because of this, the seven presidents of the Texas United Methodist College Association recommended Mrs. Wilson for the degree of doctor of humane letters, honoris causa. Dr. Wilson received this degree during Fall commencement exercises at Texas Wesleyan.

A substantial pledge from the Moody Memorial United Methodist Church Foundation will support the chapel program and faculty enrichment. We are also gratified by the generosity of our friends at the Texas Methodist Foundation, who have continued their support of the chapel program this year.

Chapel services, now in their second year, are conducted weekly on Tuesdays from 10:55 to 11:25. Faculty, staff and students participate in the chapel choir, which began in the fall of 1993. The chapel choir sings in combination with the Texas Wesleyan Trouveres. Chapel includes different speakers both from the campus and the surrounding community, and Holy Communion is offered once a month. Our average attendance easily equals that of all weekly chapel programs nationwide.

The second annual Spring Break Work Trip will be to Miami, Florida to rebuild homes which were destroyed by Hurricane Andrew. Twelve students have volunteered their vacation in order to serve this community in need. The participants will be working with the Miami District Disaster Response (MDDR) of the United Methodist Church, which is designed to help uninsured homeowners, focusing primarily on the low income, elderly and handicapped. This worthwhile experience provides the students an opportunity to serve others, while gaining new understanding, insight and leadership skills.

Approximately 700 adults and children attended the second annual festival of Lessons and Carols, celebrating the meaning of Christmas, which was held in conjunction with the Polytechnic United Methodist Church.

Brazilian Bishop Geoval da Silva, his wife and daughter, were in residence on campus while attending our 10-week Intensive English program. Bishop da Silva is responsible for overseeing several Methodist Universities in Brazil. Frances Burns, a Wesleyan graduate and former Methodist missionary in Brazil, graciously consented to act as the da Silva's interpreter as well as their guide.

We were pleased to host Dr. Andrew Walker as our Willson Lecturer this spring. Dr. Walker is the director of the C. S. Lewis Centre for the study of religion and modernity, which is an ecumenical educational charity under the patronage of the Archbishop of Canterbury. Dr. Walker regularly lectures and preaches in the Untied States, and is particularly concerned with the interrelationship between historic Christianity and the modern world.

We experienced another record enrollment in undergraduate and graduate programs for the fall, 1993, with a total of 1,877 students, compared to 1,772 in 1992 when we recorded our largest enrollment in 26 years. Total law school enrollment for fall was 560, compared to 550 the previous year.

Over 200 students of the Texas Wesleyan University School of Law sat for the bar examination on February 18. Our law school is in the application process for accreditation by the American Bar Association, and the Texas State Supreme Court issued a decision granting our students, who have substantially completed their course work, permission to take the bar.

Plans for the Future - The C. E. Hyde Weekend University, implemented with a donation from Mrs. Francis Hyde, will begin in Fall/1994. This intensive program will allow a student to earn a business or education bachelor's degree by attending classes on alternate weekends. Plans include adding other undergraduate degree programs as well as graduate education and business programs.

We will continue to provide the opportunity for all our students to graduate with both a degree and also a commitment to civic responsibility.

COMMITTEE ON CAMPS AND ASSEMBLIES

The Committee on Camps and Assemblies has been involved in the significant changes of the physical facilities of Glen Lake Camp and Retreat Center. During 1993, these included:

- the completion of the Avinelle McWhirter Ogle Chapel
- new utilities, lighting, and parking lot which were approved at last year's annual conference
- the work on the Miller Activity Center which is scheduled to be completed in April 1994

Glen Lake Camp and Retreat Center was used by over 10,000 children, youth and adults in 1993 despite being closed for two months due to construction and utility replacement. In order to improve and expand the use of Glen Lake, an additional program staff position was created so that Glen Lake Camp and Retreat Center could more effectively serve local churches with support for retreats with children, youth and adults.

Additionally, the clergy of the annual conference have begun a fund which will be used to build a new cabin.

Certainly, 1993 was a year of growth and change that was made possible by the support and encouragement of the Central Texas Conference.

Mike Ford, the Camp Administrator, is nearing completion on Certification as a Conference Center Administrator through the International Association of Conference Center Administrators. He gives valued leadership to Glen Lake and has guided Glen Lake Camp and Retreat Center through sustained and excellent growth in program and physical facilities.

Michael McKee, Chairperson

Proposed Programs:

1. Summer Camp for Children and youth
   Goal: To provide a minimum of eight weeks of residence camps and four weeks of off-site camps in 1995
2. Retreat and Camping Facility for Central Texas Conference
   Goal: To cooperate with various Central Texas Conference committees, boards and agencies and with local churches in providing retreats and facilities that will address the faith and missional needs of particular groups and individuals
3. Leadership Training
   Goal: To train and educate Camps and Assemblies Committee members by sending several persons to jurisdictional and national camping events

Trustees of Glen Lake Camp

The Board of Trustees of Glen Lake Camp and Retreat Center are responsible for the overall care and maintenance of the camp property plus all legal matters pertaining to the camp.

The master plan, which was accepted some three years ago, continues to be implemented. The Avinelle McWhirter Ogle Chapel, with a seating capacity of 300, has been completed and currently being used by various gatherings and groups. A major renovation of the site improvements has been completed. The site improvements include new sewer and water service, new gas service and electrical service plus new roads and entry gate. A new pedestrian mall has been installed with landscaping, fountain and seating.

A new activity center is currently being constructed. It contains approximately 11,000 square feet, filling a need for an all-weather activity and athletic center.

A new 2,000 square foot dwelling is currently under construction. The donor will retain a life estate interest in the dwelling.

Considerable upgrading and renovation of the grounds and facilities have been completed during the last three years. However, in order to reach our stated goals, under the Master Plan, there is much work to be accomplished in the future years.

Bill Winter, Chairperson

COMMITTEE ON COMMUNICATION AND INTERPRETATION

The Committee on Communication and Interpretation completed the following projects in 1993:

- Provided a display table at annual conference to distribute materials regarding UMCom, VISN, and other United Methodist communication projects. In addition, we took a survey regarding the need and viability of several benevolence interpretation projects including a Central Texas apportionment calendar.

- Sponsored courses for Fall University: "Your United Methodist Reporter" and "Media Relations: Proclaiming the Word Through Secular News Media". These courses received high marks from participants.

- Funded media coverage for the conference by funding a $1,000 joint TV advertising campaign for the Temple-Waco Districts. We provided $500 for the Brownwood District to promote the Aldersgate Enrichment Center. In addition, we provided a billboard promoting United Methodism for eight months on I-30 in Fort Worth for a cost of $4,400. Finally we continued to help sponsor "Faith Focus", an ecumenical ministry forum on WBAP-TV (channel 5) for a cost of $1,500.

- Provided leadership on financial and formatting aspects of local church newsletters/reporter at two district training workshops.

- Represented the conference on The United Methodist Communications Council as one of the owner conferences of the United Methodist Reporter.

- Initiated a new quarterly communications newsletter entitled "On Target" to be sent to each local church chairperson of Communications.

- Taped annual conference in Waco and the conference AIDS Seminar with the intent of supplying video resource cassettes to the conference. These projects are still pending due to an overload of video editing. Stay tuned.

- Allocated 1993 funds for a repeat of the conference edition apportionment insert.

- Reimbursed conference communications person for use of personal computer used to compose and edit conference page of the United Methodist Reporter.

The Committee on Communication and Interpretation continues to work to help "interpret" our ministries as well as "tell our story". We will also continue to fulfill our pledge to help "personalize the apportionments" as listed in the goals of "Rekindling Hope Through a New Vision".

COMMITTEE ON ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS
Report No. 1

The Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns met numerous times during 1993 to consider funding requests from local churches and groups. Responding to requests for much needed funds requires our committee to work hard, while being sensitive to those involved in ethnic minority ministries. Our first order of business was to develop concrete criteria for receiving funds. Having successfully completed that process, we formulated an evaluation for programs already receiving funding and thus have on file their self-evaluations.

Funding requests for 1994 doubled the amount of monies available. The committee carefully looked at those ministries who met the criteria for funding, and evaluated each on an individual basis. We firmly believe that our work helps strengthen ministries with ethnic minority communities. Each year we strategize on ways to support more ministries and thus meet more needs.

Report No. 2

Projects supported with funding by the Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns:

Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministries $7,000
With the growth of the Hispanic population, this project will sensitize and assist local churches in Hispanic ministry development.

Thompson Chapel, Fort Worth $3,000
This project will be an outreach enrichment program to foster constructive activities for youth in north Fort Worth.

St. Luke United Methodist, Killeen $2,800
A vital part of the St. Luke ministry is to reach persons through radio, thereby providing a means for the gospel to be spread.

First United Methodist, Palmer $1,200
Palmer's ministry of offering ESL and child care for the Hispanic community is largely supported by the church. They just needed some supplemental support.

Brack's United Methodist, Waco $8,000
Renewing the community by planning for the next century is a new program offered by Brack's. This project will offer Saturday outreach to children in the community and age-level classes for sharing the gospel.

St. James United Methodist, Temple $5,000
This project will seek to revitalize the community through outreach and evangelism.

Korean United Methodist Church, Waco $1,800
This program continues to meet the needs of Korean students at Baylor. The fellowship and worship are invaluable to the church and students.

Morningside United Methodist, Fort Worth $2,000
This new program will move the church into the community with vital programs of tutoring and enrichment.

Grace United Methodist, Arlington $5,000
The Arlington church will provide recreational activities for students who need the structure, support and fellowship of a church.

El Calvario United Methodist Church $3,750
This continued program provides ministry in North Fort Worth to the Hispanic community. Worship services, ESL and Bible Study are a part of that project.

St. Luke United Methodist, Killeen $2,000
This program is a continued building of the existing ministries of St. Luke through its Life Center.

Wesley United Methodist Church, Pelham $2,000
The Pavilion has established itself as the structural vehicle for ministering to the needs of the community.

Committee on Evaluation and Budget Coordination

We accomplished our responsibilities in the Spring and Fall meetings. In February, we made recommendations regarding budget to ACCOM. In November, we recommended the following change to ACCOM:

That the Committee on Aging of the Board of Global Ministry be phased out with the 1994 conference year and these responsibilities be assumed by Older Adult Age Level of the Board of Discipleship.

We continue to develop our procedures for doing our business.

Committee on Planning and Research

Planning and Research held a goal setting retreat at the Bishop Mason Center, November 1992. Out of this retreat came our quadrennium thrust. The vision theme is "Celebrate and Witness: Rekindling Hope Through a New Vision." Under this banner we developed a brochure that was handed out at Annual Conference listing goals, action and the accountable group for each goal.

The remainder of the year we have been involved in developing a report form to help us assess accountability for these programs. We also have made decisions on our presentation to the 1994 Annual Conference. We are devising methods to both celebrate and keep before us the wonderful visionary plans for our conference.

COMMITTEE ON THE AGENDA

The Annual Conference Committee on the Agenda expresses their appreciation to Bishop Joe A. Wilson for his work with the committee.

The Committee on the Agenda also commends all of the boards and agencies of the annual conference for their cooperation in the planning and scheduling of the reports.

As we look both to the past and the future, it is appropriate that our quadrennial theme for these sessions is "Rekindling Hope Through A New Vision".

The Annual Conference Committee on the Agenda recommends:

1. That the 1994 Per Diem Allowance be granted for each day in actual attendance at the conference for retired clergy, retired diaconal ministers, retired deaconesses, ministers' surviving spouses, pastors receiving a total salary of, or less than the minimum salary of the conference, students appointed to attend school and ministers on disability leave. The rate shall be $30 for those who reside within Tarrant County and $60 for those who reside outside of Tarrant County.
2. That the budget line item for the expenses of annual conference for 1995 be set at $30,000.

Future places for the meeting of the annual conference will be 1995 - Waco and 1996 - Fort Worth.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY
Report No. 1

The Commission on Archives and History held its annual meeting on November 13, 1993 at the Central Texas Conference Archives which is located in the Eunice and James L. West Library at Texas Wesleyan University. The members were acquainted with the activities, programs, and responsibilities of the commission. Mrs. Jean H. Traster, conference archivist, provided information on the history and work of the archives. The commission desires to serve the church through the following programs

A. Fall University

Two classes/workshops which cover the basic responsibilities of the local church historian will be offered at Fall University on September 10, 1994. Both classes will be taught by Mrs. Jean Traster.

B. Oral History Project for Retiring Clergy and Spouses

This continuing project involves the tape recording of biographical information of retiring clergy and spouses and recollections of their ministry. A sermon of the retiring members of the clergy is also on the tape. The Rev. John C. Johnson is responsible for this project.

C. Local Church Annual Historical Up-Dates Project

Forms of the annual historical up-date are sent every November/December to each district superintendent for distribution to the local church pastors. The forms are to be completed by the local church historian, or in the absence of such a person, by the pastor and/or church secretary. The forms are to be returned to the district superintendent in January for forwarding to the conference archives. The up-dates provide details of records, projects, activities, and building construction, renovation, and improvement that are not recorded elsewhere. The forms have proven to be very valuable to researchers of local churches. The Rev. John C. Johnson is responsible for this project.

D. Heritage Sunday Celebration

"Heritage Sunday shall be observed on April 23, the day in 1968 when The United Methodist Church was created by the union on The Evangelical United Brethren Church and The Methodist Church, or the Sunday following that date. It falls during Eastertide, the season in which we remember the Resurrection and triumph of our Lord. Heritage Sunday calls the Church to remember the past by committing itself to the continuing call of God." (from ¶ 275.1, The Book of Discipline, 1992)

The General Commission on Archives and History develops themes and resource booklets for the observance of Heritage Sunday. Information concerning these resource materials will be provided to pastors through the conference coordinated mailing. Dr. T. Bradford Willis is responsible for this project.

E. Locating Historical Conference Journals

This project involves locating journals/minutes for conferences of The Methodist Church and The Evangelical United Brethren Church and their predecessors which relate to the congregations in the geographical area of the Central Texas Conference. The Rev. Tom Ridlehuber and Mrs. Jean H. Traster are responsible for this project.

F. Historical Markers for Historic Congregations and/or Historic Church Buildings

Information on the application process for an Official Texas State Historical Marker awarded by the Texas Historical Commission can be obtained from Dr. T. Bradford Willis.

G. Collecting Books and Pamphlets on the History of Congregations within the Central Texas Conference

"No generation that forgets its indebtedness to the past is likely to transmit to the future any worthy heritage. It is for this reason that the preservation of church records and the writing of church history are recognized as an obligation of primary importance. How else can the people of a later generation become acquainted with the adversities and toils and achievements of those who went before them."

Bishop William C. Martin
Resident Bishop, Central Texas Conference 1948 - 1964

Report No. 4

The historical records, 1866-present, of the Central Texas Conference, and predecessor conferences within the bounds of the present Central Texas Conference, have been housed on the campus of Texas Wesleyan University for the past fourteen years through the generosity and graciousness of the University's past librarian, Nell Ornee, and present library director Doug Ferrier. The Archives and History Commission is grateful for this support and long relationship.

The holdings of the Archives depository continue to increase daily, and their usefulness to the Annual Conference, and to researchers far beyond this Conference, increases as well. Preservation of the records for research and for documentation of legal data is a major priority of the Archives Center. A second high priority is response to local churches, organizations within the conference, and individuals in need of historical information.

Beyond the preservation of conference records and records research, the Archives Depository has the following projects in process:

1. Parish Partners book: Johnnie Patterson Allen
   A compilation of abstractions and genealogical information relating to conference members and spouses, 1866-1992. The book includes 1305 surnames and 900 place names in 8 counties and 39 states. The cost is $20.00 per book. The book is an invaluable research tool, and fascinating reading. Limited printing. Call Archives.

2. Association of Records Managers and Administrators: Beverly Campbell Stevens.
   Through the volunteer work of ARMA, Beverly Stevens is spending thousands of hours abstracting information from the microfilms of the Texas Banner and Texas Christian Advocate newspapers, 1850 ff, which relates primarily to the Central Texas Conference, its churches, and its people. Long-lost information, and data which was never a part of the conference records, is being recovered from these weekly newspapers.
3. Indexing of Local Church History Books: Estill Allen
   Most of the local church history books received in the Archives Depository are not indexed, making them difficult to use as research tools. Estill Allen donates multiple hours weekly to the indexing of these books, thereby making the information of each readily accessible.
4. Translation of German-language Conference records: Dr. Spencer Baskin, University of Houston, Houston, Texas
   During the past several years Archives has received a considerable holding of historical records of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Texas Southern German Conference. Prior to 1918 all of these records were in the German language, which made them mostly unused by researchers. Dr. Baskin translated selected records into English in 1993. Because those records proved useful for research almost immediately upon being received in Archives, Dr. Baskin continues his work on the translations. He is working on copies of Southern German Conference Journals at present.
5. Disaster Recovery Services: Kirk Lively
   The ever-present danger of records-destroying conditions in local church situations demanded instant action this past winter to rescue the historical records of a Central Texas Conference congregation. Kirk Lively of D.R.S. freeze-dried the wetness from the records; and provided private seminar time on the cleaning and disinfecting, as much as possible, of the heavily-molded and mildewed items.

The worth of diaries, letters, and personal records is beyond any monetary value. It is truly remarkable to open a diary or journal and to read in a person's own hand-writing an account of his or her daily life, the record of spiritual struggle, the observations about current events of the day. Do you know of records of this sort, of people and pastors of the Central Texas Conference? Archives is glad to receive such treasures of the past to preserve them for the present and the future.

Archives is grateful for all among you who have the heart and mind of preservationists, and to the conference for its continuing and encouraging support, for each of the records accessions, large and small, brought in during the past year, and for all the work of local church historians, secretaries, and pastors as it relates to record-keeping and preservation in the local church setting. Archives is available to you for your questions, your research, and your record items you wish to have preserved in maximum security.

Save those records!

CABINET COMPOSITE REPORT

This past conference year has been an exciting and very interesting one for most of us. A person used to say that they were going to put in their two cents worth. Today the better way to say that is to say that you are working with a new paradigms (pair of dimes). There are new paradigms, as our world has and is changing. The cabinet has tried to model ministry to others by working in the Ft. Worth Shalom Zone and planning and participating in the Missouri Mission Work Tour. This follows the modeling, twice in the last 5 years, of no salary increase. The modeling of ministry seems to be appreciated from a distance but often does not impact the individual as a valid option for them.

The past conference year has been a busy one on the local, district and conference levels. I think a word of caution is in order for all of us, and you, who work or volunteer at the Beyond the Local Church level. That caution is that every one of us does not have to justify our Board or Committee's existence by planning a clergy or laity training event each year. There must be greater co-ordination within Boards, Committees, ACCOM, District, Cabinet so that we avoid the appearances of bringing in the Kingdom through meetings in one year. I also sense that many pastors are willing to plan local church activities, participate in continuing education events, work on advanced degrees, attend several Emmaus walks, and weekly/monthly fellowship groups, attend ecumenical events, and then say they have no time to attend district or conference events or to promote evangelism or stewardship within the local church. Let us remember that we are a part of the connection. The connection is part of who, and whose, we are. Let us all work together in caring for each other, our own selves and interests, as well as participating fully in the connection in order to reach more people for Christ.

There are several things I want to lift up and celebrate from the life of our conference this past year, for we do have much to celebrate.

But first, I want to say I get very uncomfortable when I hear members of our conference say "We have the best conference of any because...". That calls to my mind Jesus' story of the Publican and the sinner. "Lord, I'm so glad we're not like those other conferences who haven't done as well" forgetting that while we have done some things well, there are far more things we could have done. I do realize we are to give an accounting of how we have used the talents the Lord has entrusted to us. Let us celebrate God's leadership by glorifying God in our reports.

Now, let's celebrate some significant things that God has done through the Central Texas Conference this past year.

Things to celebrate:

1) Church Growth and Development - Shares were increased from $45 to $60 per Share and 56% of Shareholders increased from $45 to $60. On the conference goal of 1000 new shares, we reached 34% of that goal.

2) The Rural Ministry Program is beginning under direction of Marvin Moore, Rural Chaplain. The first rural ministry project began at Eureka in the Waxahachie District. Plans call for six rural ministry projects in other districts next year.

3) Lake Brownwood began the first "satellite" congregational development. The Lake Brownwood 1st UMC has begun Fisherman's Chapel on the north side of Lake Brownwood. A building has been purchased through the cooperative efforts of the Brownwood District and Church Growth.

4) The Lay Congregational Developer Program was initiated. Edna Riley is working with Bell County to develop their evangelism program, recruit lay persons and develop "satellite" congregations.

5) Our Hispanic Ministry emphasis is going well. The first new congregation in Central Texas Conference under the new Hispanic Ministry Plan adopted by the 1992 General Conference will begin this July with the appointment of Reverend Hector Coloń to a site in Arlington. The Brownwood District has been active in developing Hispanic Ministry, working with Church Growth, an anonymous donor, Central UMC and 1st UMC in Ballinger to make possible the appointment of an Hispanic candidate for ministry to satellite congregation in Brownwood and Ballinger. There are other emerging areas in Hispanic ministry.

6) The Lay Missioner Program was also started when 1st UMC Waco jointed hands with Wesley Chapel in Gholson. In the lay missioner program a larger church works with a small membership neighboring congregation to develop hope, vision and ministry to its community. This concept could be used in many situations to strengthen smaller churches to help position them for true growth in ministry and numbers.

7) We celebrate the tremendous changes taking place at Glen Lake Retreat and Camping Center. Through the action of the 1993 Annual Conference, the new electrical, water and sewer lines are in place. Landscaping has been done to begin implementing the master plan. Dedication services were held to celebrate the readiness for use of the McWhirtor Chapel, the Miller Activities Center, and the Jones Cabin. These are magnificent facilities. The look of the camp has changed. Even I can catch a glimpse of the vision of the direction Glen Lake is going. Much more construction is needed to complete the needs for more adequate cabins, dining facilities, and the large retreat unit with private rooms. Glen Lake is on its way to being one of the finest conference camping and retreat centers anywhere.

8) Aldersgate Enrichment Center has started construction of its first building on its property while continuing its fine ministry with mild to moderately retarded citizens. Volunteer work, prayers and special gifts have brought them safe thus far, and the grace of God and continued prayers, gifts and love will continue them on their journey home.

9) We are planning to lift up an important concern that has been a part of who we are, but designating the emphasis a priority to encourage all of us to be specific in our application and not to just assume that it is being cared for. I refer to the redesigned Stewardship priority related to the Council on Finance and Administration. Each of us must model, teach, and lead in education, emphasis and participation in our stewardship of what God has placed in our hands.

I spent some time looking at some statistical records of membership of the conference over the last 60 years. I found that in the past 36 years, since 1957 the Central Texas Conference has shown a membership increase in all but six of those years (1967, 1968, 1969, 1971, 1972, 1973). We do have a record of membership increases each year for the last 20 years for a total increase of 19,705 over that time. The smallest increase was 177 in 1976, with the largest increase being 2,328 in 1982.

Another interesting point to me is that in every year since 1948, (that is as far back as this type of record is given), we have received many more members from other denominations than we transferred out to other denominations. We received a total of 65,500, while transferring out a total of 39,985 which shows a net of 25,515 received from other denominations. United Methodism in the Central Texas Conference has not been showing membership loss to other denominations!

It is interesting to note that 1976, our lowest year in professions of faith, was also our lowest year in combined totals of profession of faith and received from other denominations. Since 1948, when professions of faith began dropping, and especially since 1970 when profession of faith fell below 2,000, the number received from other denominations began to increase. There were six years (81, 82, 85, 86, 87, and 88) that we received more from other denominations than we received on profession of faith. Since 1981 to the present our total received from profession of faith and from other denominations has been as high as any other 13 year period in our history!

In the past 60 years the highest number received on profession of faith was 5,229 in 1945. This 5,229 is high, with the second highest year being 1937 with 3, 965 on profession of faith. Our lowest profession of faith year was 1976 with 1,545. There has been a general increase since 1976. In 1982 we had over 2000 received on profession of faith with an increase every year since 1984 except for 1990. This past year, 1993, we received the highest total on profession of faith in 27 years - since 1966 - a total of 2,417.

Let us stand and sing the doxology in praise to God for this great year with 2,417 persons being brought to Christ on profession of faith!!

There are signs of concern. As a conference, we are growing at a much slower rate than our population. In 1983 our increase in membership was 2,212. This was the last year we showed a net increase in membership that was over 2,000. Note that 1990 was the last year we had a net increase over 1,000. In 1991 our net increase was 311, in 1992 the net increase was 804, and in 1993 the net increase was 688. Maybe we should spend at least as much concern and energy and involve as many volunteers in seeking new members as we do in cleaning our membership rolls. There are churches in declining population areas that are showing growth!! We celebrate this and pray for every church to have professions of faith and attract others through vital, life changing ministries.

Now for a grandfather story. It is a true story for it was told by our Bishop. It seems that he developed an aversion (not fear) to heights some few years ago. Somehow his granddaughter had heard it being discussed. She asked him if he still had the problem. He answered that he did. Tiffany asked if he'd talked with his brother Jim about it. (Jim Wilson is a counselor whose specialty is helping people overcome phobias.) The Bishop responded that he had talked to Jim about it. "Did it help you any?" was Tiffany's question. "Well, not really" was the reply. "Did you pay him?" she asked. "No, I didn't" was the reply. Tiffany's response was "Well, you'd probably have gotten a lot more out of it if you had paid him something."

Out of the mouths of children... . Isn't there a truth about life and ministry for all of us in this? If we put something into it, we'll get a lot more out of it. Ministry doesn't just happen according to our response to God's call and our willingness to be involved. It's necessary to be in the study filling out the quarterly reports and preparing newsletters and sermons. It's necessary to go to annual conference and listen to reports, but if that is the only way we witness to what Christ has done in our life, we aren't putting much into it.

The statistics I referred to earlier show that the easy days are behind us. Our culture has changed while we've been worrying about our next appointment. Our culture is becoming increasingly skeptical, even hostile, toward the church. If you ever wanted to be a pioneer or a missionary and felt cheated that you couldn't, just look around you. You are a pioneer and a missionary!! We are in a Reformation and Martin Luther isn't here. That leaves you and me, and God to get our paradigms working. We find ourselves carrying an old wine skin filled with old wine, and at the same time trying to pour new wine into another old wine skin and also trying to fill an entirely new wine skin with wine from a different mix...all of this with only two hands while on the run trying to make ends meet. It isn't easy and it isn't for the weak or unimaginative, but it can be done. We have to be committed, creative, motivated and remember our calling. Our primary calling isn't to attack and redo structure or to keep it the way it was. Our calling is to be used by God, regardless of the structure, to witness that Christ and the church can have a positive impact on peoples lives in a rapidly changing world.

We have to care for the 99 in the fold whom we think want constant attention while seeking the lost ones who feel no one cares. How do we do it! Why not realize that we live in a different age and do something different. Use some of the 99 to help seek the lost. Clergy and laity must be more involved together. We have Disciple Bible Study graduates, licensed lay speakers, Emmaus Walk fellowship groups, and others as a rich resource for ministry just sitting around. I challenge you to find ways to join together in ministry to others. To paraphrase Tiffany, "We'll probably get a lot more out of ourselves and the church if we put more into it." We are part of the connection. We celebrate what God has done through us this past year. We celebrate that God has a challenge for us. There follows a listing of various accomplishments in the lives of our churches and people during the past year. We celebrate these.

CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE FOUNDATION

The Central Texas Conference Foundation serves the persons, churches and agencies of our conference by:

1. Enabling persons to meet their responsibilities with effective financial and estate plans to conserve their assets for themselves, their loved ones and the causes of Christ. Our ministry encompasses wills, living trusts, life income annuities and trusts that result in resources for living and for giving. Through these services, persons throughout our conference have secured their futures, provided generously for loved ones and have committed great resources for future ministry.

Bequests and legacies totaling $2,750,000 were committed in new wills and trusts during 1993. In the future, these commitments will provide for new and expanded programs, maintain facilities, establish new congregations, aid the poor, and many other faith nurturing activities.

2. Managing special funds for local churches and agencies, such as endowments, memorials, building funds and others that are tangible expressions of faith and vision. We also administer individually created gift funds and life income plans. During 1993 the Foundation distributed $574,920 from managed funds to benefit individuals, churches and agencies.

These special funds participate in the Foundation's investments through the Income Fund which provided an average yield of 6.21% and the Growth Fund which provided an average increase of 8.85%. Participation in the Foundation's investment pools is available to every church, agency and institution by initiating a fund management agreement.

3. Maintaining a revolving loan fund for capital improvement projects of local churches. We ended 1993 with 23 loans with a collective principal balance of $748,900.

The Central Texas Conference Foundation is led by a twenty member Board of Directors who serve on the Executive Committee, Loan Committee and the Investment Committee. The Foundation is self-supporting through our own activities. Programs and materials are furnished without cost and may be scheduled for churches, Sunday School classes and other groups by contacting the Foundation office at the Conference Center

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

The conference Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns sees itself as a creative expression of the Holy Spirit in the life of the Annual Conference. We count it a privilege to labor towards the day when we serve in the Church which Christ wills. In the meantime, we pray with Jesus "...that we may be one...so that the world may believe..."

The actions and witness of a local church are intended to be reflective of the Body of Christ. This witness is made initially in the congregation's worship, for Christian worship is the most "ecumenical" experience of all. The Bible and hymnbook are primarily ecumenical texts. The experience of many United Methodists in exploring the new hymnbook has been to bring "all in one place", as we are urged to do.

A major focus of the commission in 1994--1995 is CHURCHES IN COVENANT COMMUNION, the implementing plan to make the COCU Consensus (adopted by the 1988 General Conference) a working reality in the churches of our portion of Texas. To this end our oral report at annual conference in 1994 will introduce the covenanting proposal to the local churches. Our Fall University classes will offer ways in which congregations may study and participate in the Covenanting Plan.

It is our sincere hope that local churches will take these opportunities to explore your role in and responsibility for Christian Unity through "Covenanting." You will learn how we can celebrate our commonality and our diversity together with distinct traditions and structures but as one body in Christ.

Covenanting is ecumenism from the grass roots up. It includes mutual recognition of baptism, mutual recognition as churches, mutual recognition of ministries, celebrating Holy Community together, confessing our faith as one people, and much more. It brings an exciting re-examination of the meaning of the sacraments. It helps us take a fresh look at what, why and how we are doing things. We reach out with other Christians in communion, understand that we all serve the same Christ.

The commission thanks you for your prayers and your support as we continue our efforts in the annual conference and local congregations. We are in mission for you and with you.

COMMISSION ON CHURCH GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT
Report No. 1

Since last Annual Conference your Commission on Church Growth and Development has witnessed tremendous interest in the directions we began to develop last year. The commission has been operating under two guiding principles this year. The first is a desire to involve more and more persons directly in church growth projects across the conference. This has resulted in an added emphasis on the SHARE program as well as seeking ways to involve laity and clergy directly in our projects. The second is a continuing of our emphasis in reaching a diverse population. This has expressed itself in the past in the development of African American, Korean and Tongan congregations. Currently it is being expressed in a tremendous thrust in developing Hispanic ministry. In the near future it will probably see the development of Vietnamese and other Asian congregations.

There has also been an emphasis on making every church a church growth project. This emphasis has resulted in a number of initiatives. The first is a continuation of offering the resources of the office of our director to local churches as a consultant in Church Growth. He has been in over twenty churches this year serving in this capacity. Another service in this area is offering the utilization of the new demographic capabilities of the office to local churches. Almost thirty churches have benefited from this resource.

New emphases include the development of a packet of materials by Dr. Wayne Lucas to help local churches learn more about utilization of demographic, psychographic and other data to develop program and strategies for better serving their communities. In addition to this resource, Church Growth and Development will be offering a class at Fall University entitled, "The World Outside the Four Walls," which will be taught by Dr. Richard Dunnagin.

To enable our rural churches to grow we have enlisted Rev. Marvin Moore who is a Rural Chaplain to serve as a consultant. Marvin will be working with six of our rural churches this year to help them discover new vitality and vision for the future.

Our large churches also represent a tremendous resource for growth in our conference. In order to harness their tremendous potential to help our conference continue its growth we have begun four pilot projects utilizing laity in mission and ministry in two distinct models for growth ministry.

The first model utilizes lay missioners from a larger church who will join in ministry with a smaller, perhaps struggling congregation nearby. These lay missioners will work with the pastors involved and laity to help both churches discover new vitality and mission. Our first project utilizing this model will be with First U.M.C. in Waco and Wesley Chapel. Other churches in our conference have been involved in this model even before Church Growth saw it as a possibility. The most notable example is the marvelous ministry being performed at Diamond Hill U.M.C. with the support of laity and others at First U.M.C. in Ft. Worth.

The second model is a project with Westcliff in Ft. Worth and several churches in Bell county to develop satellite congregations. We will utilize lay congregational developers in these projects. The satellite congregations they develop will be in apartment developments, ethnic neighborhoods, developments removed from existing United Methodist churches, etc. and will consist of Bible studies, service projects, worshipping communities, etc. Our first satellite congregation was started last November out of the Lake Brownwood U.M.C. It is called Fishermen's Chapel and is in a development on the north side of Lake Brownwood. They have purchased a facility and are currently averaging 25 in worship.

One of the most exciting areas of ministry has been the rapid development of our Hispanic projects. This June we will appoint a founding pastor for the Hispanic church in Arlington. We already have an Hispanic associate pastor serving at Trinity U.M.C. on the north side of Ft. Worth, seeking to transition that church into an Hispanic church. We continue to work with the Rio Grande Conference in the cooperative ministry at El Calvario. We have also begun dialogue with Central U.M.C. in Brownwood and First U.M.C. in Ballinger to develop satellite Hispanic congregations out of those churches and an Hispanic person will be assigned to serve there this June. In addition, dialogue has begun with the Garrison Chaplain at Fort Hood to develop an Hispanic Protestant ministry utilizing the resources of local congregations, Church Growth and Fort Hood near Killeen. We are also examining the possibilities of developing Hispanic ministry out of the Palmer and Ferris churches in the old Trumbull church. We also have begun dialogue with churches in Waxahachie to develop Hispanic ministry. Tremendous ministries are also taking place in Dublin under Ann Gibson and at Poly with Frank Leach and Ismael Rodrigues as they consider the possibility of a satellite Hispanic ministry out of the Englewood U.M.C. Developments in the area of Hispanic ministry are breaking so fast it is hard to keep up with everything. In the midst of all this activity, you need to know that Church Growth, your Cabinet and the Central Texas Conference as a whole have taken the mandate of General Conference to develop Hispanic ministry very seriously. We have developed a master plan and we are moving forward with that plan with the help of our Missionary for Hispanic Ministry, Jeannie Treviño-Teddlie.

In the flurry of all the new activity we must not forget our current projects. St. Andrews in Arlington continues to flourish and have outgrown their first unit already. Eagle Mountain also continues to grow and has just completed new construction of education and office space. Alliance is currently completing plans for their first unit, have hired an architect, will have a capital funds campaign in the fall and plan to break ground early next year. First Tongan is beginning a capital funds campaign and have named a building committee to help them move toward their dream of their own home. St. Luke's, Korean, in Killeen is in a building project also. They will build a new family life center. Christ U.M.C. in south Ft. Worth have consecrated their new facilities in April and have already outgrown them and have recently completed an addition to their parking.

Areas where we are currently looking for rapid development and the need for new churches include: Georgetown, where Dell Webb, Inc., who is responsible for building Sun City developments in Arizona and Arkansas, will build 5,000 units; south-east Round Rock and Hutto where new development for 5,000 + units has begun; south Arlington; north-east Tarrant county; west and south-west Fort Worth.

Projections indicate that the rate of growth in the state of Texas during the 1990's will not match the 1980's. However, we will see almost the same net increase in the population. This means that we will still see a tremendous influx of persons into the Central Texas area in this decade. We are almost to the halfway mark. Things are developing rapidly and there is much excitement about the possibilities. Our vision is clear. Our mandate is upon us. We invite everyone to join us as we continue to help our conference and our churches grow. Thank you for your support. Continue to pray for our ministry together.

COMMITTEE ON COUNSELING
Report No. 1

This year the counseling committee continued its effort to offer a good program. We have added one counselor, Dr. Paula Dobbs-Wiggins, to the approved list. We feel that our counseling program offers a wide range of experience and resources to the clergy and diaconal ministers and families of the conference. We commend all our counselors for the valuable service which they are providing to our conference members. In addition to the confidential counseling available, they are also available for seminars and workshops.

Report No. 2

1. This service is available to ordained conference members, diaconal, and retired ministers, and persons serving full-time conference appointments, plus their spouses and dependent family members. In addition, ordained members and families of the Rio Grande Conference serving within the geographical boundaries of this episcopal area are eligible.
2. Complete confidentiality and respect for privacy will be maintained. As a client, your name will be known only to your counselor, and no information about you will go to any other person without your written consent. Trust will be vested in the integrity of the counselors, both to keep confidences with clients and to keep faith with the program by submitting accurate bills of service for payment. Such bills will list hours of service but no names.
3. The Counseling Service will be limited to six visits to a counselor in any one year.
   a. The first two visits will be paid in full by the program.
   b. Thereafter, participants will be asked to pay a portion of the cost, scaled to income, as follows:

Family Income	Program Will Pay	Client Will Pay
1. Under $20,000	90%	10%
2. $20,000 - 27,500	75%	25%
3. Over $27,500	50%	50%

   Family income includes combined incomes of spouses, excluding housing or parsonage allowance.

4. Thereafter, if counseling is still needed, an application may be made to the Insurance Program for possible payment. At this time, the symptoms must clearly indicate the need for therapy.
5. During the first six visits to the counselor, payments from the Counseling Program and the Insurance Program simultaneously will not be allowed.
6. Payments for this program will be made only to those counselors who have been approved as participants in the program. There will be no exceptions.
7. The present list of approved counselors in the Central Texas Conference is as follows:

COMMITTEE ON COURTESIES AND RESOLUTIONS

As we come to the conclusion of the 1994 session of the Central Texas Annual Conference we pause to gather up our thoughts and feelings of gratitude for another opportunity to celebrate that life held out to us through Christ's Church.

We experience the touch again of God's prevenient grace as we are touched by the careful preparations made for our gatherings. We express our gratitude to the Agenda Committee under the leadership of Reverend Henry Radde whose minds traveled the road before us in making arrangement for our journey through these days. We are also the benefactors of the experienced care of our hosts, Dr. Eugene Robertson and Dr. Barry Bailey, the staff and membership of First United Methodist Church of Fort Worth for the elaborate care lavished upon this conference during our stay here.

Worship is the beating heart of all that United Methodists are and hope to be; we are in the debt of the Worship Committee under the leadership of Reverend Jon Mac Taylor for the wonderful worship experiences planned for our days together.

Dr. Mouzon Biggs began our conference by weaving a tapestry of stories ranging from an Italian maestro through Boris Yeltsin, Lech Walensa, Martin Luther King, Jr., Rosa Parks and finally concluding with twelve elephants known by name. All this against the backdrop of the great Conference Choir that stirred our souls.

Our daily Annual Conference sessions were opened by the thoughtful meditations of Georgia Adamson, Lynn Willhite and Jackie Chambers as each spoke the prophetic word.

On Monday evening, Dr. J. D. Phillips brought the gospel message, "Forgetting to Remember; Remembering to Forget" as we celebrated the lives of those who had finished their labor.

While we are remembering to remember we must lift up the great leadership of the Boards of Diaconal and Ordained Ministries who prepared in such an excellent way for the consecration and ordination of two diaconal ministers, sixteen deacons and sixteen elders on Tuesday evening. Bishop Wilson's choice in choosing the right preacher for the right time in Dr. Wayne Day allowed all of us to be gathered up as a "cloud of witnesses" in such a high moment in our Annual Conference. Dr. Day's sermon centered us on the right things.

And the real "action" of the Central Texas Annual Conference is verified in the various reports of our boards, commissions, committees and agencies of our conference. Under the able leadership of numerous lay and clergy of the conference the program ministries of the Central Texas Conference were presented as the "action" of our church, the efforts of the conference to "equip the saints for ministry" and to "put wings to our words." With expediency we used several hours of evaluation, planning, resolving, urging, authorizing, awarding, maintaining, clarifying and celebrating expanding visions.

And finally, we are a grateful conference to an able and gentle bishop, Bishop Joe A. Wilson, who guided us through these days, keeping before us to "remember the main thing" for our gathering.

Bob Briles, Chair

BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY
Report No. 1

The Board of Diaconal Ministry has accomplished the following:

1. Met jointly with the Board of Ordained Ministry on November 18, 1993, at First United Methodist Church in Arlington. The focus of the meeting was revalidation of our shared ministry. Leaders Annette VanZant Williams and Frank Briggs guided small groups in reflection to a video presentation about ministry.

2. Provided an opportunity for the Board of Diaconal Ministry, and all active and retired diaconal ministers in the Central Texas Conference to meet with Bishop Joe A. Wilson, and the Cabinet. The dinner meeting held at First United Methodist Church, Arlington, on January 16, 1994, offered a forum for heightened understanding of the nature of the ministry we share in Christ's name. A "Diakonia Search" gave each participant a chance to test their "diakonia quotient" -- or knowledge of diaconal ministers in this conference and the varieties of ministries in which they are involved. Table groups worked on answers to six questions centered around a vision of a diaconal church -- responsibilities of the Board, diaconal ministers, Bishop Wilson and the District Superintendents.

3. Sent five persons to the 8th Assembly for Delegates to DOTAC (Diakonia of the Americas and the Caribbean) and NDDG (The National Diaconate Dialogue Group) at Scarritt-Bennett Center, Nashville, Tennessee, April 20-24, 1994. The theme, "Rejoice, Proclaim, Serve -- Envisioning a Diaconal Church," was reflected in worship, Bible study, discussion groups and business meetings of each organization. Four questions guided the participants' discussion and study: (a) What are the theological dimensions of a diaconal church? (b) What does a diaconal church look like? (c) What is the role of deacon/deaconess/diaconal minister in the diaconal church? (d) What is the role of the whole people of God in the diaconal church? United Methodist Diaconal Ministers are members of DOTAC and have membership dues provided by the Conference Board annually.

4. Provided a "Day Apart" for the Board members and all diaconal ministers of the Conference on September 27, 1993, at Glen Lake Camp, for the purpose of identifying support systems for those consecrated to diaconal service, and strengthening lines of connection and accountability between the Board and diaconal ministers.

5. Held the annual interviews April 8-9, 1994, at First United Methodist Church, Burleson. A total of twenty-three persons were interviewed, with four given the certificate of candidacy, nine continued in candidacy, two recommended for certification: Margaret Bolding and Kristine Robinson as Directors of Music, and two recommended for consecration: Mark Coursey and Kristine Robinson.

6. Continued to explore ways to develop a model for Cooperative Parish Ministry by making specific contacts with the Divisions of Town and Country Ministries and Urban Ministries.

7. Reaffirmed January 1 as the deadline for receiving materials concerning education, continuance as diaconal minister and request for appointment, including leave of absence. Failure to meet this deadline may result in initiation of the termination process.

8. Continued to support diaconal ministers and certified persons in the Central Texas Conference by reviewing their work, recommending their recertification where appropriate, and recommending to Bishop Wilson and the cabinet their renewal in the office and appointment to service.

9. Made available a Charge Conference Recommendation Model through the District Superintendents' offices to assist pastors and local churches in utilizing the meeting at which a person is recommended for candidacy for diaconal ministry as an opportunity to educate congregations about the diaconate.

Report No. 2

The Board recommends the following goals for 1994-1995:

1. Continually seek ways to interpret and promote diaconal ministry in all areas of the Central Texas Conference.

2. Make available a new education videotape which explores the nature of consecrated ministry and its future. This tape will also be utilized as a recruitment tool.

3. Develop specific guidelines for those persons considering appointments beyond the local church which will keep them in touch with lines of accountability and support.

4. Create a task force for the purpose of developing support/advocacy systems for physically challenged persons in candidacy and consecrated to diaconal service.

5. Continue to work toward implementation of a model for creating or developing new, emerging ministries (for example, cooperative parish ministries in rural or urban settings) in the Central Texas Conference.

6. Publish a quarterly newsletter for diaconal ministers related to the Central Texas Annual Conference, in order to share personal and professional news, changes in service appointments, and keep the diaconal connection alive and well.

7. Assure that Board of Diaconal Ministry representatives are available to assist districts and local churches for training of Pastor-Parish (Staff-Parish) Relations Committees in their responsibilities for diaconal ministers who serve in their churches.

Report No. 3

The term "diaconal minister" was chosen by the Study Committee of 1976-80 to "bridge the gap" for a church still making up its mind about ministry structures. Diaconal (diak'onal), an adjective, is a word used in conjunction with another word to further describe the meaning of that word, as in "diaconal ministry", "diaconal service", "diaconal studies." It tells you what kind of ministry, service, or studies to which the writer or speaker is referring. We do not call a person a "diaconal." We speak of persons as diaconal ministers, diaconal women, diaconal men, diaconal students -- not merely a "diaconal" or a group of "diaconals." The diaconate (diak'onate) is a term with which we seem to have a lot of difficulty. It is incorrect to refer to a person as a "diaconate." This term is used to describe the "office" of diaconal ministry. If one is a diaconal minister, one is part of "the diaconate." It is a noun and is usually preceded by "the." --excerpted from "Diaconal Report," Spring, 1986

Report No. 4
Relationships and Responsibilities of Employing Agencies to Diaconal Ministers

When a diaconal minister is employed by a local church, it is the responsibility of the Pastor-Parish (Staff-Parish) Relations Committee to act as the employing agent for the Administrative Board. This committee, in consultation with the pastor in charge, shall interview, employ, issue job descriptions and contracts (which clearly state employment practices, including procedures for dismissal, vacation, and leave policies), evaluate and terminate employment (The Book of Discipline, par. 270.2f[8]). The diaconal minister shall have full access to the entire committee (par. 270.2b). In United Methodist churches and other employing agencies there shall be an annual review of the diaconal minister's performance no later than ninety (90) days prior to Annual Conference (par. 316).

Since diaconal ministers are not guaranteed a place of employment by the Church, special attention shall be given to termination procedures which allow time for seeking another service appointment. Notification of dismissal shall provide a ninety (90) day period prior to final termination of employment. The date for termination shall coincide with the date of Annual Conference or the date stipulated in the contract, except for causes as listed in par. 2622. In turn, the diaconal minister shall give the employing agency ninety (90) days notice regarding resignation unless the contract states otherwise (par. 317).

The Conference Board of Diaconal Ministry works cooperatively with the employing agency to ensure the rights and best conditions of employment for the diaconal minister based upon the annual conference standards (par. 734.s,t) and upon the diaconal minister's training, ability, and experience. The Conference Board has the responsibility to see that the entrance into employment and departure from employment are open and fair to all persons involved; that the hours of work and basic salary compensation are equitable and just; that continuing education, participation in professional groups, and vacation opportunities are provided; and that pension, insurance, and social security programs are made available.

Report No. 5
Procedures for Transfer of Diaconal Ministers

The request by a diaconal minister for "transfer in" shall be approved/disapproved by the receiving bishop in consultation with the board of Diaconal Ministry of the receiving conference. The bishop prepares the official forms for the "transfer in" or "transfer out" of credentials and records when a diaconal minister's relationship is moved from one annual conference to another. The diaconal minister initiates the action and the receiving conference board oversees the process as follows (The Book of Discipline, par. 312 and 734.3o):

1. The diaconal minister consults with the bishop and appropriate district superintendent in both conferences before accepting a new position.
2. The diaconal minister then writes to the receiving bishop requesting transfers and sends copies of the request to the two conference boards and the sending bishop.
3. At this time, the cabinet, bishop, or conference board may request an interview with the diaconal minister for additional information.
4. The receiving board will send a recommendation of transfer to the receiving bishop.
5. If transfer and the service appointment are approved by the receiving bishop, he/she sends the "Official Notice of Transfer In" (Form 2149) to the sending bishop who responds with the "Official Notice of Transfer Out" (Form 2148). The receiving conference board shall initiate the request for transfer of the diaconal ministers's files.
8. All procedures of transfer shall be completed within six months following the effective date of employment. Failure to follow this procedure may result in termination.

Report No. 6
Certification

The conference Board of Diaconal Ministry, in conjunction with the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry Division of Diaconal Ministry, has responsibility for certifying persons in the professional diaconal careers of Christian education, youth ministry, evangelism, and music under standards and procedures established by The United Methodist Church (The Book of Discipline, par. 734.4a-f). In the certifying process, the board has responsibility for both diaconal and ordained ministers and lay professionals who seek certification in the following offices: minister of Christian education, director of Christian education, associate in Christian education; minister of youth, director of youth ministry, associate in youth ministry; minister of evangelism, director evangelism, associate in evangelism; minister of music, director of music, associate in music. The conference board is responsible for maintaining a record of all persons in the annual conference who have been certified in the areas of Christian education, youth ministry, evangelism and music, and for reporting annually to the annual conference the name, address, status, and area of certification of all persons certified in diaconal careers. The conference board is responsible for recommending to the annual conference the renewal or discontinuation of professional certification based on annual review and evaluation of all persons who have been certified in the areas of Christian education, youth ministry, evangelism and music.

COMMITTEE ON THE EPISCOPACY

The Committee on the Episcopacy met for dinner on March 14, 1994 at First United Methodist Church, Fort Worth. This year we invited committee members along with their husbands and wives. It was an enjoyable evening.

Bishop Wilson discusses the changes that have taken place in his and Mrs. Wilson's lives since being elected to the episcopacy. He discussed the different type of support system involved in serving an area rather than being primarily associated with one local church.

This was a very candid, meaningful experience for each of us, in being able to see the responsibility, inspiration and, at time, frustrations of the episcopacy.

We express our deep appreciation to Bishop and Mrs. Wilson for their leadership in the Central Texas Conference, Fort Worth Area, and our conference appreciates the Wilsons not only professionally but also personally.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION AND CLERGY BENEFITS

Report No. 1

The Commission has met as needed and has carried out its responsibilities of overseeing the Minimum Compensation program for the Annual Conference. 1994 is the second year to receive revenues for our Equitable Compensation program. This year will also see any reserve funds for this program totally expended. Because of the changes in appointments from time to time which often changes the number of persons and the amount needed for supplements, it is extremely difficult to project financial needs as far in advance as is required. The Commission seeks to be responsible to the churches of the Annual Conference in not requesting more than is needed in apportionments, and at the same time provide adequately for the program.

We are recommending increases of 5% in each of the categories of persons receiving supplements to be effective January 1st, 1995 (See schedule below).

At the request of last year's Annual Conference, we have undertaken further review of our Parsonage Standards policy, in regards to whose responsibility it is to store furniture if a parsonage family has some of its own furniture. If this study is completed prior to June we will report recommendations to this year's Annual Conference.

Report No. 2

Equitable Compensation Fund:

There shall be a program of equitable compensation support in the Central Texas Conference under the management of the Commission on Equitable Compensation and Clergy Benefits. This program shall be patterned after ¶ 722 of the 1992 Discipline. Based on these guidelines, the following paragraphs shall compose the operating procedure for the Equitable Compensation Program.

1. A prerequisite for consideration of salary supplements from the Equitable Compensation Fund shall be the filing with the commission of a written application by the district superintendent. The district superintendent shall certify classification of the pastor and the salary (salary, travel, utilities and benefits) set by the charge. The application form will be supplied by the commission.
2. Salary grants shall be made for a calendar year with payments made monthly. In cases of appointment changes at or between the Annual Conference session, the district superintendent shall file a written request with the commission. Approved supplements shall then be paid on a pro rata basis for the part of the year actually served.
3. The following conditions must be met by the pastoral charge before it can become eligible for consideration to receive salary supplements from the Equitable Compensation Fund.
   a. The pastoral charge shall have conducted a stewardship campaign for the local church budget of each of its churches during the previous conference year.
   b. All apportioned items shall have been paid in full by the local church for the previous conference year.
   c. The charge must have at least 100 members.

   In unusual situations the Commission on Equitable Compensation and Clergy Benefits may waive any or all of these conditions.
4. The Commission on Equitable Compensation and Clergy Benefits will pay any amount up to 1/3 of the minimum salary as set by the Annual Conference for each applicant according to his/her ministerial classification. If any exception under paragraphs 4 or 5 is sought, the request must be endorsed by a 2/3 vote of the Cabinet before it can be considered by the commission.
5. Persons of the following ministerial relationships are eligible for consideration for salary supplements at the level indicated for 1994. Rates for adjustment will be considered annually by the commission, rather than establishing automatic adjustments.

b. Probationary member
1) Non-student living on charge	17,945	18,842
2) Student living on charge	16,210	17,021

6. Pastors who are appointed to less than full-time service as addressed in the 1992 Discipline, (¶ 441.2) shall be eligible to receive salary supplements from the Equitable Salary Fund. The amount of salary supplement for which the pastor is eligible will be determined by the Cabinet's interpretation of time actually spent in pastoring the charge. For example, if the pastor is deemed as serving 1/4 of full time, his/her minimum salary eligibility would be 1/4 of the minimum of his/her conference relationship classification. The categories of 1/4, 1/2, and 3/4 will be followed in determining less than full-time eligibility for salary supplements from the Equitable Salary Fund.

7. Ministers who are not eligible for salary supplements are:
   a. Those whose appointment is other than pastor of a charge.
   b. Those classified as part-time local pastor.
   c. Retired ministers.
   d. No pastor shall be eligible to receive salary supplements from this fund who has been offered appointments with higher salary, but who persistently prefers for personal reasons to remain in a present appointment.

Report No. 3

Moving Expenses

1. We recommend that the conference pay the greater of $200 or $3.00 per mile for the first 100 miles and $1.00 per mile additional after the first 100 miles with no maximum within the bounds of the Annual Conference. The receiving charge is expected to pay any remaining balance of the actual moving expenses.
2. We further recommend that the procedure of filing correct forms with the conference secretary/treasurer be continued.
3. We do, however, expect every receiving charge in the Annual Conference to pay the moving expense of the new minister in excess of the allowances and it must be the responsibility of the district superintendent at the time of consultation to inform the church of its share of this obligation.
4. We recommend that the conference pay the moving expenses of a retiring clergy person within the boundaries of the conference, or one being placed on Disability Leave, or the surviving spouse and family of a clergy person who dies while under appointment, within the boundaries of the conference. This reimbursement will not exceed $500 over the amount paid in Article #1.
5. Moving pastors should consult with receiving church before entering into contract that would bind the church.

INTER-CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON HISPANIC MINISTRY of the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences
Report No. 1

Background

Beginnings: The Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry was begun in 1976 as a task force out of the old Texas Planning Commission's suggestion that each annual conference establish an inter-conference committee. The Commission believed that there needed to be some coordination and cooperation between the Rio Grande Conference and the regional conferences related to Hispanic ministries. The task force developed a formal structure in 1982 with the adoption of Bylaws and with the purpose of initiating, coordinating, and enabling inter-conference ministries within the bounds of the Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences. An avenue of communication between the two annual conferences was established and the work of the committee was begun, which through the years became a model for other conferences to follow.

Linkage Role and Cooperative Ventures: The Committee has enabled linkage between the two conferences. The first cooperative venture which the Committee enabled was in 1981 between St. Paul UMC (CTC) and San Pablo (RGC), both of Fort Worth. St. Paul, located in south Fort Worth where the second largest Hispanic population in Fort Worth could be found, made available its facilities for the development of a new Hispanic congregation. Another example of linkage was in 1987 with La Trinidad (RGC) of Fort Worth. The Committee coordinated and promoted emergency assistance for their pastor's housing and for their parsonage renovation.

In 1989 enthusiastic conversations began regarding the possibility of a cooperative venture in Far Northside Fort Worth in the facilities of Calvary UMC, which appeared to be headed for closing in 1990. The Committee provided the necessary linkage through coordination and consultation to enable the process. At the 1990 session of both Annual Conferences, a covenant of cooperation was celebrated and a joint venture of establishing a new Hispanic mission, El Calvario, was begun. Both conferences have shared in providing pastoral leadership and financial resources for El Calvario.

Inter-conference Cabinet Dialogue: The Committee facilitated annual meetings of the Extended Cabinets of the two conferences beginning in 1985 through 1994. These meetings have enabled dialogue which began a process of the development of a strategic plan. Possibilities for development of new Hispanic ministries and areas of possible cooperation surfaced during these meetings.

Strategic Planning: In 1986 each Annual Conference adopted the "Strategic Plan for Inter-Conference Cooperative Ministries" developed by the Committee. The Plan, revised in 1989, had goals with recommended strategies that involved local churches, districts, the two conferences and cabinets, boards and agencies of the conferences. Such planning led the two conferences to be a model of cooperation for other conferences.

Education and Training Role: From its beginning, the Committee began a process of education and raising awareness in the two conferences for the need of cooperation. Several workshops were provided until the Central Texas Conference began Fall University. Then the Committee sponsored and offered courses each year. In 1987 the Committee consultant completed development of a Resource Team Training Curriculum and trained inter-conference resource teams which would work with local congregations to assist them in establishing cooperative ministry with Hispanics.

In the course of using this curriculum with local churches it was discovered that local churches needed assistance in the area of understanding Hispanic culture and models of Hispanic ministry. The Committee has been developing new curriculum "Assisting Local Churches for Hispanic Ministry Development." After this curriculum has been tested in the Central Texas Conference it will be made available to the general church.

Consultation Role: The Committee's role of providing consultation to local churches, districts and the conferences has been vital. As an example in 1985 the Committee, through its consultant, began providing consultation to Polytechnic UMC (CTC), Fort Worth as they considered beginning ministry with Hispanics. They began English as Second Language classes working with Adult Basic Education and Amnesty which Fort Worth ISD offered. By 1988 the outreach ministries began to incorporate a congregational development focus by incorporating Hispanic children in the church's Sunday School and Vacation Bible School. Bible study, Sunday School, Spanish language worship and confirmation class began to be offered. Polytechnic UMC has received 26 Hispanic members as of March, 1994. The Committee's consultant has continued to provide consultation as the church has continued to expand and shape their ministry with Hispanics.

Other consultation which have occurred include San Pablo, University, Diamond Hill, La Trinidad, El Calvario, which are all of Fort Worth; Church of the Good Shepherd of Arlington; First of Dublin; and the Fort Worth East, Fort Worth West, Temple and Waco Districts.

Consultations have also occurred outside the two conferences. The Committee's consultant has met with several conferences in Texas at their invitation to help them begin the process of developing ministry with Hispanics. Additionally the expertise and experience of the Committee and its consultant was sought and used by the South Central Jurisdiction in a Jurisdictional Training and also in the development of the National Plan for Hispanic Ministry which was presented to and approved by the 1992 General Conference.

New Directions

The general church has made ministry with Hispanics a concern for every church and conference with the adoption of the National Plan for Hispanic Ministry. Every conference is being asked to develop a comprehensive plan for ministry with Hispanics. The Central Texas Conference through its Commission on Church Growth and Development has developed its comprehensive plan setting its priorities and the Rio Grande Conference has set its priorities through its Vision 2000 process.

Last fall at the meeting of the two Extended Cabinets, they approved a recommendation that the Inter-Conference Committee discontinue after June, 1994, with the following rational:

1. The Inter-Conference Committee has accomplished its task. It has brought two Annual Conference cabinets together. It has sensitized each to the other and has helped both identify areas of need and ways to respond to that need. It has assisted the two Conferences in working together on a common ministry to Hispanic persons and has helped them get on board as the general church adopted a National Hispanic Plan.

2. The National Hispanic Plan mandates that Hispanic Ministry is to be a focal ministry of each and all annual conferences. Both the Rio Grande Conference and the Central Texas Conference have developed their plans for implementation of the National Hispanic Plan. The Inter-Conference Committee helped that happen. At this point the plans developed by the two conferences do not include the need for an Inter-Conference Committee.

3. In the Central Texas Conference the plans will be implemented through the Cabinet which has developed comprehensive plans for the work ahead. These plans are to be accomplished through the Office of the Director of Church Growth and Development who is part of the Appointive Cabinet. In the Rio Grande Conference plans will be implemented through the Vision 2000 process.

4. The consultant to the Inter-Conference Committee, Jeannie Treviño-Teddlie, has been trained and commissioned as one of the 25 missionaries for the National Plan for Hispanic Ministries. She has been assigned to the Central Texas Annual Conference. In dialogue with the Rev. Conrado Soltero of the General Board of Global Ministries, Jeannie, Bishop Wilson and Tim Russell, Church Growth and Development, it was decided that this would be a full time position and would work under the auspices of Church Growth and Development. Full time status is dependent on sufficient monies coming in from the Advance Special offering to be added to existing monies from the Central Texas Conference. This would shift her line of accountability directly to the Cabinet and Bishop. To maintain a separate line of accountability with another group such as an Inter-Conference Committee would be difficult and reduce her effectiveness.

5. From the above rationale, the two cabinets believe it is obvious that we have entered a new era. The cabinets believe we have now moved beyond where an Inter-Conference Committee can move us forward. The cabinets give thanks for the assistance the Committee has given in helping the conferences reach this point. However, the cabinets feel that an additional level of administrative structure will not be good stewardship of the financial, skill and time resources we have available for the task ahead. Attention must now be shifted to the field of labor and efforts put as close to the local church level as possible and away from administrative groups.

6. Taking a look at the report of Goals for the Inter-Conference Committee for 1993-94 all of these goals can and will be done through the new structure.

The Inter-Conference Committee met November 13, 1993 to consider the recommendation from the two cabinets. The Committee approved the motion that the Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry be dissolved at the June sessions of both Annual Conferences and that the work of this Committee be celebrated.

Report No. 2

The sending of a fraternal delegate to the Rio Grande Conference celebrates the cooperation which has developed between the Central Texas Conference and the Rio Grande Conference. Therefore, the Inter-Conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry recommends that John Decker be designated as the fraternal delegate to the Rio Grande Conference which will meet June 9-12, 1994 in Georgetown, Texas. The Committee further recommends that Rose Marie Davis be designated alternate fraternal delegate.

John Decker, Vice-chairperson

BOARD OF LAITY

The Board of Laity met once in the fall during Fall University and once in the spring at Glen Lake during the past year. Several goals were set during the fall meeting. The board reviewed the description of the Board of Laity as recorded in the 1992 Discipline and found that we were in compliance.

One of the our goals has been to improve participation in the United Methodist Men. The agency has reported much progress during the past year. The United Methodist Women and the Conference Council on Youth Ministry continue to have outstanding programs.

We continue to mail to every local church lay leader quarterly calendars of activities in which the laity may participate at the district and conference level. It is the responsibility of the local church lay leader to distribute the activity calendar to the local church.

The Board of Laity continues to sponsor the Morris Walker Scholarship Award which is made annually to one outstanding lay person and one outstanding clergy person. We are exploring ways in which we can strengthen this award and make it better known throughout the conference.

Lay Speakers

An active supportive member of a United Methodist Church;
Eager to serve through the church;
Well-informed on the Scripture, and the doctrine, heritage, organization, and life of The United Methodist Church;
Committed to witnessing through church and community leadership, care-giving ministries, and spoken communication; and Willing to improve his/her skills for service.

As lay speakers care, lead, and communicate, they encourage, equip, and support others for deeper commitment to Christ and faithful discipleship. Lay speakers witness to their Christian faith through the many dimensions of caring. Listening, praying, worshiping, speaking/teaching, leading, serving, judging, healing, and celebrating are ways in which we exemplify Christian care. The Lay Speaking Basic Text uses these foci for the training of lay speakers.

If you are ready to share your faith, commit your time and energy to the service of your neighbor, and desire to share God's love, YOU are ready to become a lay speaker. I so invite you.

Diana E. Schultz, Conference Director

United Methodist Men

United Methodist Men gives a man a sense of belonging to something bigger than himself - the church - the most effective channel for the expression of Christian life and experience - and the realization that he is an important part of God's world.

It gives him a new understanding and appreciation of the gospel, faith, prayer, stewardship, the church's social message, and its world mission.

It helps him to understand the mission of the church and its task in the world and feel he is necessary for the accomplishment of that mission and task.

It makes him aware of his talents and potential power and allows him to express himself.

It supports him in faith-modeling in applying his Christian faith in his home and vocation.

United Methodist Men brings men together in fellowship - under the auspices of the church. Men seek the fellowship of other men. They will find it in the church.

"Renewal With Grace" was the theme of the United Methodist Men's retreat at Glen Lake Camp, May 21-22, 1993. The retreat was well attended and the spiritual program, the several men's choruses, the ministers' chorus and group singing were great.

The next United Methodist Men's retreat will be at Glen Lake Camp, April 29-30, 1994. William Randolph (Randy) Smith of Houston will be the lay speaker. Oris Baldwin of Fort Worth is returning to the UMM retreat by popular demand as the music leader. It will be a great fellowship together.

United Methodist Men are on the move.

A.J. Cooper, Sr., President

United Methodist Women

1993 was an exciting year for United Methodist Women to fulfill their purpose. Our theme for the year was "Visions of Hope in the Midst of Change". We gained 151 new members and established five new units making our membership 9,481 with 208 units. We sent $204,936.39 to the Women's Division for mission support for the board of Global Ministries of the United Methodist Church.

We continued our support of the Legislative Event in conjunction with other conferences within the state of Texas in Austin in January. Our own Mary Weathers served as chairperson of this event. We had twenty-five to attend.

We sponsored an "Each Local Woman, Catch the Vision" program that was geared for younger women and women who had not participated in UMW events beyond their local setting. We had 163 women to participate at Glen Lake Camp in January.

In April, Zoe Wilson, the Bishop's wife, challenged us at our annual "Time Apart" at Glen Lake Camp. The event was very inspirational and was one of the best attended in years. We had 252.

Our conference committee on the Charter for Racial Justice established a Charter Club. This was established to encourage units to complete at least four activities on the Charter for Racial Justice. Nineteen churches completed these activities and were awarded certificates.

Many units participated in the mission studies. The studies included Amos, the Middle East, Churches in Solidarity with Women, Matthew, the Caribbean and the Global Economy.

We continue to participate in special services such as Call to Prayer and Self-Denial, World Thank Offering Services, Spiritual Retreats, Prayer Groups and United Methodist Women's Day. We also participated in ecumenical services such as World Day of Prayer, World Federation Day and World Community Day.

A number of units planned programs that focused on subjects such as women and child abuse, racism, spiritual nurturing, poverty/homelessness, women and health, and programs related to the purpose of UMW. Several units also participated in community service projects relating to children and youth, projects for elderly, provided food, projects for the poor/homeless, projects for abused/battered women, infant formula programs and teenage pregnancy.

The highlight of the year was in October when women of all seven districts brought a total of 1730 quilts for babies at risk with AIDS to our annual meeting at First United Methodist in Hurst. These quilts were given to the ABC Quilts organization to distribute to children throughout the conference. We also collected 1200 pounds of hygiene items that were distributed to such agencies as night shelters, women's shelters and agencies serving families.

Cheryl White Phillips, President

LYDIA PATTERSON INSTITUTE

Eighty years of ministry entered the pages of history in the life of Lydia Patterson Institute in 1993. Throughout 80 years Lydia Patterson, an institution of the South Central Jurisdiction, has been responsible for touching thousands of lives which have come to form a significant part of our society, our country, and the entire church. Its mission of educating youth and forming strong advocates of the Christian faith continues to be a vibrant force in the El Paso-Juarez community and as far out where boundaries and borders become non-existent in the love of God.

In a spirit of thankfulness, first to God and then to our fellow Methodists, I am privileged to bring you this report after my first complete year of serving as President of Lydia Patterson Institute. On behalf of our faculty, staff and student body, I wish to express appreciation for your apportionments paid in 1993 and gratefully report to you a 10% increase over 1992.

During the 1992-1993 school year, Lydia Patterson Institute lived the joy of its "80th" Anniversary, the pain and the loss of a President, the changes in administration, and the continuing demand for its services and opportunities for growing ministry. In the midst of emotional and financial demands, and under the care of God's living hand and commitment of our United Methodist friends of the South Central Jurisdiction, we managed to widen our outreach ministry, develop new educational programs, kick-off a $6 million campaign for Endowment and close the fiscal year in the black. The summer Spanish Language Program for adults was successfully carried out one more time, and of the 51 graduating seniors at the end of the 1992-93 school year, 47 are now enrolled in a college or university.

During the 1993-94 school year, we have enrolled 305 students in both the High School and the English-As-A-Second-Language Program. Our students continue to come from financially deprived homes with a dream for a better life in Christ and in a bilingual, bi-cultural society.

After-school classes and summer-school classes have been added to our program. English classes for adults during the evening is another new program begun in the 1993-94 school year with a total of 157 adult students.

The religious life on campus is vibrant and growing under the leadership of our chaplain, Rev. Edgar Avitia. The students continue to participate in weekly chapel services, spiritual retreats, and outreach programs. Our students serve as tutors in the neighboring elementary schools and, for the first time, our own students will be doing ministry outside the school through work groups traveling to other parts of the jurisdiction.

The three-year, $6 million Endowment Campaign is well on its way. All seventeen conferences of the South Central Jurisdiction have, in some way, accepted responsibility to help us raise $2 million within the local churches of the Jurisdiction. The additional $4 million goal is being raised outside the boundaries of the church through other constituencies. A partnership is being formed between Lydia Patterson and the conference foundations so that funds raised in a conference be invested in their own foundation.

Lydia Patterson Institute has come to take a very important place on the border in its ministry with Hispanics. Although its financial demands and limitations continue to infringe on its operation and its growth, its potential is without limits. In today's age of open borders and free trade between two countries, Lydia Patterson Institute sits between the two, impacting both sides and touching and preparing lives to deal with these demands.

I thank you for being a part of this moment in history and for sharing our vision of turning Lydia Patterson Institute into one of the finest institutions of the United Methodist Church in the 21st century. Lydia Patterson has known no boundaries. Its doors remain open, and we invite you to join hands with us and to lead this institution and the youth depending on us to a better life as God intended 80 years ago.

MOUNT SEQUOYAH

Mount Sequoyah, United Methodism's Conference and Retreat Center for the South Central Jurisdiction, serves all 17 of the Annual Conferences and other interfaith, community, regional, professional, fraternal, educational and non-profit groups. Our mission is to enable persons to experience training in leadership development, Christian discipleship, inspiration and worship, to the end that they may better serve God in the church and in the world.

The past year recorded more than 26,000 people day/nights on the mountain. It was the largest attendance year in activities here since we began in 1922. We talked about our future last year and the 1994 theme is "Sequoyah--The Hope!" After more than seven decades of service, the Cross, the Mountain, and the Spirit still give us great hope for unlimited service through Christ to the world.

We moved from primarily a "hosting center" into the "programming center" mode with the addition of Ms. Judy Stafford to our staff. This was, in part, made possible by a grant that also enabled us to build our recreational facilities. Programs with a jurisdictional-wide interest were summer vespers, Easter Sunrise Service, Golf & Family Leisure Event, South Central Jurisdictional Work-Camp, Bishops' Week, six retiree events, outreach week-ends, Sizzle in your Stewardship, Journey to Excellence, Jurisdictional Singles, SCJYMO, and many others.

Our building and upgrading program continues. We have completed the swimming pool, tennis courts, children's play area, volleyball and basketball areas. Architects and engineers are developing plans for remodeling of the Wesley Hall building to include a youth hostel on the fourth floor and an elevator accessible to all floors. The long awaited Mount Sequoyah House for Administration will be completed by this annual conference.

Our story has been told to all of the annual conferences through our trustees, ambassadors, regular newsletters and our video. Also, many of the major foundations have been invited to join us in "Team Sequoyah--Meeting the Challenge of the Future." We are grateful to all of the annual conferences and area United Methodist Foundations that have given so generously.

Trustees for the Central Texas Conference are: Dr. Barry Bailey and Rev. Robert E. Young.

Ambassadors are: Rev. and Mrs. Bob Holloway.

Each of you in this annual conference is invited to join "Team Sequoyah" so that we might meet the challenge of the future. We feel that Mount Sequoyah has served faithfully for seventy-one years and to use the term that one of the Fall Retiree Retreats use, "The Best Is Yet to Be!" Come join us in this hope that we will be faithful to Christ and the Church for decades to come.

Report No. 1
Work of the Board

LICENSING SCHOOL: The Central Texas Conference Licensing School was held at the Catholic Retreat Center in Fort Worth last year. The 1994 Licensing School will also be held at the retreat center from August 14 through 19, and 27.

JOINT MEETING WITH THE BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY: This year's joint meeting with the Board of Diaconal Ministry focused on the on-going ministry study in the United Methodist Church. The meeting was held at First United Methodist Church in Arlington..

APPOINTMENTS BEYOND THE LOCAL CHURCH: The annual meeting for persons serving in ABLC appointments was held at Westcliff United Methodist Church on March 2, 1994. This meeting provided an opportunity for ABLC clergy to get acquainted with Bishop Joe Wilson and his goals for the church. Selected persons in ABLC appointments shared something of their work with the group. Over fifty persons attended the gathering.

SPRING INTERVIEWS: Interviews for deacon, elder, and continuing probationary candidates were held at New World United Methodist Church in Arlington, Texas on April 5 through April 7, 1994. Sixty-eight persons were interviewed. A debt of gratitude is owed to the membership and staff of New World UMC for their hosting of this important event.

REPORTS FROM RETIRED MINISTERS: Responding to a new provision in the Discipline, the Conference Relations Committee, under the leadership of Dr. John Schaub, requested reports from the retired ministers of the conference. Much helpful information was found in these reports and they have been forwarded to Bishop Wilson for further review.

Report No. 2

The Board of Ordained Ministry would remind members of the Annual Conference that in 1990 a program of Growth and Effectiveness Review was adopted for use by clergy members and congregations in our conference. As ¶ 444 of The Book of Discipline requires yearly evaluation for all clergy members, we would urge the full participation of each congregation and clergy members in an annual program of effectiveness review and growth.

Report No. 4
Clergy Morale Task Force Update

The purpose of this update is to keep before the lay and clergy members of the Central Texas Annual Conference the ongoing "felt needs" that effect morale. Following the Clergy Morale Task Force Report and Recommendations, Bishop Wilson, the Cabinet and other standing committees and boards began a joint partnership during the summer of 1993 which has resulted in the launching of several growth opportunities:

1. Annual retreat to address spiritual, intellectual, recreational development and vocational clarification. January, 1994--Spiritual Life Retreat (Devotional Life Committee. Evangelism Event--May, 1994 (Board of Ordained Ministry.)

2. A Cabinet task force was assigned the responsibility of recommending the following process:
   a. District Superintendents need to play close attention to the report on page 277 of the 1993 Journal. This concerns the annual district retreats to address issues in the report.
   b. In order to gather more information concerning how to enable effectiveness in ministry and the development of an existing process, contacts are being made with the Louisiana Conference. Others in our Jurisdiction are being asked to share any policies, procedures, processes and funding models as well.
   c. Contact is being made with persons who work in the area of personnel development outside the church.
   d. In the conviction that effectiveness begins with a clarity of focus on The Call, the Cabinet task force and the Devotional Life Committee are developing an event in the Spring of 1995.

Portions of this report are taken from information furnished by a report from the Cabinet task force of Eric McKinney, Luther Henry, and Tim Russell. The Clergy Morale Task Force Report can be studied in detail by reading pages 276-278 of the 1993 Journal.

Report No. 5
Psychological Assessment Committee

Within the past year, the Board of Ordained Ministry set up a Psychological Assessment Committee to review where we are in psychological assessment within our Annual Conference. In reviewing the process, there were two major concerns that we had. One of these has already been changed.

First, the level at which candidates for ministry took the psychological assessment were those persons who would be ordained deacon and probationary membership. It was felt that this was too late in the process. If there are any areas of concern that show up within the assessment, it is better to have this information when the person is just beginning the process. The date that this was changed was January 1994. Those persons who begin candidacy after this date will take the assessment at the beginning of candidacy when they receive their Candidacy Guidebook. Those who began before this date will take the assessment at the deacon level of the process.

Second, the concern was raised over the steps that we are presently taking in assessment. The cost for Southwest Career Development Center went up dramatically and with the increased amount of persons undergoing psychological assessment, an alternative needs to be found. After attending a Pastoral Evaluators Training Event in April, an alternative was evaluated and we are in the process of putting it in place. The steps are as follows:

1. Candidates take the tests from the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry packet, administered by the supervising pastor.
2. The tests are sent to Nashville, where they are scored.
3. Nashville mails the test references and raw scores to the conference designated psychologist. If the conference uses more than one psychologist, test results will be mailed to the psychologist designated for a specific district.
4. The psychologist assesses the raw scores and mails a written assessment to a pastoral evaluator.
5. The pastoral evaluator interviews the candidate, reviewing the psychological assessment. In the course of the interview, strengths and weaknesses of the candidate are identified. The pastoral evaluator writes an evaluation and has the candidate sign a release authorizing the evaluation to be sent to the District Committee on Ordained Ministry. The pastoral evaluator determines the content of the evaluation before the candidate leaves os that the candidate is signing a release, knowing the content of the report. (This is according to ethical and professional guidelines by the American Association of Pastoral Counselors and the American Psychological Association. The evaluation is similar to an x-ray which physicians do not release, but keep on behalf of the client.
6. The pastoral evaluator consults with the District Committee on Ministry and verbally reports the psychological evaluation. The written report is disclosed only to the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry. This prohibits persons not trained in psychological assessment from misinterpreting a report and misusing its contents.

The assumption here is that the supervising pastor and the DCOM would have less intensive training than would a conference Board of Ordained Ministry who deals with more persons at this level.

In regards to this process, we are to set up the psychologist who will assess the raw scores and also the pastoral evaluators.

The pastoral evaluator is a person who is an ordained minister and is also a pastoral counselor. There should be some degree beyond the Master of Divinity level to show that the person has skills in the area of pastoral Counseling.

At the present time, we are looking for persons who would be interested in serving as a pastoral evaluator within our annual conference. We are hopeful to have more than three persons who will serve in this capacity. The ideal would be to have a pastoral evaluator within each of the districts so that person would be the one representing all candidates within a district to the district committee. If there are clergy qualified in pastoral counseling and interested in serving in this capacity, please contact Barbara Johnson Arther at Carter Park UMC, (817) 924-3551.

The date all of this will be in place will be January 1, 1995. We will be notifying supervising pastors and training district committees regarding this change.

Report No. 6
Resolution Concerning Definitions Requested by Judicial Council

The Judicial Council has asked each annual conference to adopt definitions of "self-avowed practicing homosexual" and "status."

The Council of Bishops appointed a committee to research this matter, including the intent of the General Conference and to write a "model definition" of the two terms.

A Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry was appointed to study the "model definitions" and make a recommendation to the Board for our Conference.

After a review of the materials submitted by the Council of Bishops the committee recommended the following definitions:

"A self-avowed practicing homosexual is a person who engages in sexual acts with a person or persons of the same sex which are either witnessed or openly acknowledged."

"Status is a legal relationship or legal condition of a group of persons based on race, gender, or national origin."

The Board of Ordained Ministry approved the recommendation of the committee and recommends these definitions to the Executive Session of the Central Texas Conference.

[1]The Chartered Fund was established at the Christmas Conference in 1784. Once each year the earnings of the fund are divided among all the conferences.

[2]At Unification there was a General Superannuate Fund. One half of it was distributed to the conferences of the South Central and Southeastern Jurisdictional Conferences. The other half was placed in the General Superannuate Fund. This represents our conference's share of annual interest earnings on the General Superannuate Fund.

[3]The Temporary General Aid Fund, a part of the World Service Apportionment of the General Church, helps provide pensions and minimum compensation in conferences which resulted from mergers of geographic and Central Jurisdiction annual conferences. It is reduced each year by an amount equal to 5%.

Superannuate Fund

This fund originated as a result of the merger of the Methodist Episcopal and Methodist Episcopal South Conferences. The principal amount of this fund ($63,986) must remain intact; however, the past and future earnings may be used based upon the conference's wishes.

John N. Flynn	3
Clem Dale Hunt	5
Donald C. Kelly	2
Archie McCleskey	4
Ernestine Scott	1½

These 18½ years are all new.

4. The Board recommends that each member of the Annual Conference who has arrearages on past years' pension contributions be sent a certified letter requesting full information on each year's payment shortage. To be considered for possible makeup, the arrearage information form must be returned to the conference office by December 1, 1993. Enclosed with the letter will be a form with spaces for all pertinent information needed in the study and consideration.
5. The Board recommends the following procedure for dealing with current and future pension contributions:
   (1) Each January the General Board of Pensions will be requested to send a list of accounts showing arrearages for the previous year.
   (2) Letters will be sent to the following lay leaders of the churches involved: Administrative Board/Council Chair, Pastor/Staff Relations Committee Chair, Finance Committee Chair, and Treasurer. The pastor and the district superintendent will also receive the letter. The letter will emphasize the importance of this issue and urge them to bring their contributions current by the September 1 deadline, or apply by June 1 for a grant if the church is unable to meet the obligation.
   (3) Each church which does not meet its obligation will report this fact to its Charge Conference and give an explanation. The district superintendent will keep a record of this action.
   (4) A Pensions Support Fund will be established for assisting local churches which cannot meet their obligation. This will be an apportioned fund except for 1994 (1993 arrearages) when necessary funds will be taken from reserves.
6. In the case of Family Leave, the Board recommends that the conference make CPP contributions of 3.4% of the Denominational Average Compensation for Full Members, Associate Members, and Probationary Members.

After five full years of experience with our Utilization Review Provider, the plan administrator reported that this has resulted in a savings of $365,445.

ProAmerica, our Preferred Provider Organization, has added a number of new facilities to its provider list over the past year. Failure to use hospitals in this network will result in an additional $250 out of pocket per confinement for the participant, which could result in a larger maximum out of pocket expense. Participants who live more than 35 miles from such a facility would be exempt from the $250 penalty as would participants in unusual and specific cases where ProAmerica facilities do not provide the care required. This exemption has been expanded to include participants confined for childbirth whether or not it is an emergency.

The Insurance Committee requests the following to fund the conference Group Life and Health Insurance Plan:

1. Conference Apportionment for 1995 $972,307
   - Clergy Premium Portion 799,000
   - Reserve Maintenance Portion 173,307
2. Premiums paid by plan participants to be effective January 1, 1995 will remain level for all categories:

a. Lay employees, diaconals and clergy with special appointment
   Family $540
   Single 202
b. Active clergy, retired clergy and covered surviving spouses receiving pension
   Family $270
   Single 101
c. Clergy receiving equitable salary
   Family $216
   Single 81

By year end 1993, 42 retired clergy and/or spouses had elected to accept the Harris Medicare Supplement Plan I, which the Annual Conference voted last year to subsidize from the Ministers Insurance Apportionments. Premium rates for this plan will change August 1, 1994, and again January 1, 1995. According to Harris Methodist Health Systems, future premium adjustments will be effected every January 1 to coincide with federally mandated changes in benefits.

The Insurance Committee continues to hear examples of situations where lay persons employed by a Central Texas Conference church may not be aware of the availability of health insurance through the Conference. The local church and any other Conference entity which employs individuals who work at least 20 hours a week must make the employee(s) aware of the availability of the Conference's group health insurance. Every employer (whether contributing or not to the cost of the employee's insurance) also has the responsibility to notify the Insurance Plan when the participating employee is no longer eligible.

Participants are reminded of their responsibility (as explained in the Insurance Plan booklet) to submit a change card within 31 days of his or her acquiring a new dependent if the dependent is to be added to the health insurance plan. Change cards are available from the Conference office.

Life insurance coverage through the General Board's Basic Protection Plan ($10,000 on the life of each active clergy person; $5,000 for each retiree) is now in place. Premiums for this protection are paid from apportionments and require no contribution from the insured.

Your Insurance Committee continues in its efforts to assure Conference members a health insurance program that is both affordable and comprehensive. The Annual Conference's decision last year to allow us to match Medicare Supplement premiums outside the self-funded major medical program has expanded participation among retirees who otherwise would have had to search for insurance protection elsewhere. Also, our new affiliation with Advance Prescription Service which provides not only mail order services for maintenance drugs but a drug card, too, for use at your local pharmacy is adding convenience to our Insurance Program as well as cost savings on most prescription drugs.

Because health issues today are a major concern both locally and nationally, Committee members are especially sensitive both to the needs of the individual insureds for quality coverage and to the responsibility with which we are charged at the Conference level to contain costs. It is in this spirit of combined commitment that the following recommendations for enhanced coverage are offered by the Insurance Committee:

1) that effective July 1, 1994, a wellness benefit be added to the self-funded insurance program which will provide first dollar coverage for routine physical exams, vision exams, cancer detection tests, immunizations, smoking cessation treatment, and weight control, provided that the services are prescribed by and are under the supervision of a physician. Any one individual will be limited to a calendar year maximum benefit of $250; and

2) that the $1,000 calendar year maximum for outpatient care for mental and nervous illness be increased to $2,000; the lifetime maximum for that same condition be increased from $20,000 to $25,000; and the 30 days maximum inpatient treatment for mental and nervous remain unchanged.

The impact of national health care reform on insurance programs such as ours is still undetermined; however, we acknowledge that changes may be necessary in the future. We shall keep you apprised of any pertinent issues as they develop and shall stand ready to respond in whatever ways are deemed reasonable and appropriate.

Report No. 3
Resolution relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired or Disabled Ministers of this Conference

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service, and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the Central Texas Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference; and

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister, and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

NOW THERE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefits payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 1995 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the Central Texas Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability;
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of:

1. The amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body,
2. The amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or
3. The legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided.

As specified as Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C.B.92, " the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 109(2) of the Code as a 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

Your conference Personnel Committee met as needed this year to fulfill the mandates of the Annual Conference. The executive committee, as well as the full Personnel Committee, met with the council directors on several occasions. One meeting of the committee included an open session at which any conference employee could appear with concerns.

The committee met with Bishop Wilson early in 1994 to hear his recommendations concerning the director of Finance and Administration. Bishop Wilson recommended that the title be changed to the Director of Stewardship, Finance and Administration, that the job description be changed to reflect this new prioritizing of duties, and asking that the travel expenses for this director be increased. He also suggested that this director be an ex-officio member of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries Stewardship Committee. Bishop Wilson requested an endorsement of his vision for this director. The Personnel Committee unanimously endorsed Bishop Wilson's request.

The committee was also involved in recommending to CFA the salary, travel, expense, health & life insurance and pension of the conference staff.

The Employment Policies and Disciplinary Procedures which were adopted by the 1993 Annual Conference were placed into the Lay Employee Policies Handbook.

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

During the past conference year the Central Texas Annual Conference Commission on Religion and Race has been very busy carrying out its purpose of monitoring and educating opportunities to deal with the elimination of discrimination and racism within local churches, districts, boards, agencies, and the Annual Conference.

We express thanks to Bishop Wilson and the Cabinet in their work of cross-racial appointments and for being an agent of change in the elimination of racism within the Central Texas Annual Conference.

Toward helping everyone to better understand the concepts of: 1) inclusiveness of the church, 2) rights of racial and ethnic groups, 3) called to Inclusiveness, 4) Guidelines and structure of the Annual Conference Commission on Religion and Race, we recommend the reading and study of ¶ 4, Article IV, #72.A, #113, #740, and #2101.

1. We recommend all churches of the Central Texas Conference to schedule training and conditioning exercises with the conference Inclusiveness Team within the quadrennium leading toward an understanding and knowledge of racial difference.
2. We encourage the Annual Conference districts, local churches, boards, agencies, and institutions to make the elimination of racism a priority in all of their agendas and to pursue more intentionally the attitudinal and systematic changes that need to take place in order to be in word and in deed a truly racially inclusive church.
3. We encourage all multi-staff congregations to deliberately make their staffs inclusive in gender and people of color by the year 2000.
4. We recommend that Church Growth and Development look at the needs of all ethnic groups across our conference as we begin new churches.
5. We recommend that any positions or jobs from the local church to Annual Conference be advertised so that a wider cross section of the population can apply.
6. We applaud those churches who have notified us that they have had cross-racial pulpit exchanges, choir exchanges or fellowship groups. We will recognize them at Annual Conference.
7. We recommend the study through small groups, seminars, and workshops to eliminate the inequities in clergy salaries in order to promote cross-cultural appointments.
8. We recommend each district Council on Ministries to sponsor an annual district-wide event that promotes racial inclusiveness. The district coordinator along with the conference Religion and Race chairperson and officers are responsible for the coordination of this event, by December 31, 1995.
9. We recommend all local church offices as well as district and Annual Conference offices be closed annually in honor of Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday.
10. We encourage all conference and district boards and agencies to be more inclusive of different ethnicities. This is to be done immediately.
11. We recommend the conference Board of Ordained Ministry and the Board of Diaconal Ministry sponsor a mandatory event for all clergy and diaconals with the conference Inclusiveness Resource Team by the end of the quadrennium.
12. We recommend each district Council on Ministries to provide a training and conditioning experience for local church work areas on Religion and Race, Pastor Parish Relations and key officers with the conference Inclusiveness Team by the end of the quadrennium.

13. We recommend all local churches in our annual conference to have cross-racial pulpit exchanges, cross-racial choir exchanges, and fellowship groups throughout the year and to notify the conference Commission on Religion and Race in writing of this event by January 15th of each year.
14. We recommend ongoing and frequent fellowship of monocultural and racial/ethnic congregations leading to an understanding and knowledge of racial differences.
15. We encourage the Bishop and the Cabinet to seek out clergy and laity who will give themselves to cross-cultural and racial/ethnic congregations leading to an understanding and knowledge of racial differences.
16. We affirm the priority of increasing the number of appointments which involve people of different ethnic groups from the majority membership of an individual congregation. As a goal, we believe that the conference should be moving toward a minimum of 5% of all pastoral appointments by the year 2000.

COMMITTEE ON RULES, POLICIES AND GUIDELINES

As the work of the Committee on Rules, Policies and Guidelines, it is always our purpose and hope that our efforts assist the Annual Conference to function more efficiently and effectively.

Submitted for your consideration are the following reports.

Report No. 1

The following recommended revisions to the Standing Rules contain: the paragraph number followed by the recommended change (wording to be deleted is underlined and wording to be added is in bold face type), the rational for the recommendation and the origin of the proposed revision.

I. ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Conference Procedure

1.3.1 After the phrase "...will be members by virtue of the offices held...", add "each district lay leader..."

Rationale: The Discipline (1992 ¶ 35, Article I) identifies district lay leaders as members of the Annual conference. The district lay leader was included in the 1989 Journal as a member of the Annual Conference but not included in subsequent journals. This addition restores the omitted information not included in recent journals and brings the Standing Rules into conformity with the Discipline.

After the phrase "...Council on Youth Ministry...", delete "...any conference board, commission, committee chairperson..." and add "...the chairperson of any Annual Conference board, commission or committee..."

Rationale: Questions have been raised as to whether the present language includes chairpersons of sub-committees under the conference boards. The change will clarify the intent of the language.

(Conference Staff)

II. CONFERENCE ORGANIZATION

Annual Conference Council on Ministries

1.2 After the phrase "...Status and Role of Women;...", add "...the conference secretary of global ministries..."

3.3 After the phrase "...the conference United Methodist Women...", add "...the conference secretary of global ministries..."

Rationale: The Discipline (1992 ¶ 731.3) sates that "There shall be elected annually a conference secretary of global ministries who shall be a member of the Annual Conference board and shall be a member of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries." The changes brings the Standing Rules into conformity with the Discipline.

(Conference Staff)

1.4 After the phrase "...Ethnic Local Church Concerns..." delete the word "and"; after the phrase "...Planning and Research,", add "...and Camps and Assemblies."

(ACCOM)

Conference Council on Ministries (ACCOM) Committees:
2.3.1 After the phrase "...the district communications coordinator...", add "...a Council on Youth Ministry representative..."

2.4 After the phrase "It shall also include...", add "...a representative from the Commission on Religion and Race, and..."

Rationale: The 1993 Journal (page 25) includes a representative of the Council on Youth Ministry as a member of the Committee on Communication and Interpretation, and a representative of the Commission on Religion and Race as a member of the Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns. These two recommendations make the appropriate respective changes in the Standing Rules.

(Conference Staff)

Conference Agencies - Council on Finance and Administration
7.0 After the phrase "...with at least one person from each district.", add "The following shall be ex officio members of the council: the conference director of Stewardship, Finance and Administration, without vote; any members of the General or Jurisdictional Council on Finance and Administration who reside within the bounds of the conference, with vote, unless voting membership is in conflict with another provision of the Book of Discipline, in which case membership shall be without vote; in either case, they shall not be eligible to serve on any agency receiving funding; the presiding bishop, without vote; a district superintendent chosen by the Cabinet, without vote; and the conference director or another representative of the conference Council on Ministries, without vote.

Rationale: The Standing Rules have not included the ex officio members of the Council on Finance and Administration as listed in the Discipline (1992 ¶ 709.2.b)

(Conference Staff)

Conference Agencies - Commission on Archives and History
12.1 Delete the word "annually" from the sentence "Thereafter, members shall be elected annually for a full four-year term to coincide with the quadrennium."

Rationale: The recommended change eliminates the conflict in the timing of the members' elections.

Conference Agencies - Annual Conference Committee on Nominations
22.3 After the phrase "Higher Education and Campus Ministry;..." add "the chairperson, vice-chairperson, secretary and additional members of the conference Committee on Camps and Assemblies; the trustees of Glen Lake Camp; the chairperson, vice-chairperson and secretary of..."

After the phrase "...Archives and History...", add "...the chairperson, vice-chairperson, secretary and additional members of the conference Commissions on..."

After the phrase "... Committee on Nominations...". add "...additional members of the Commission on Church Growth and Development; elected directors of the Central Texas Conference Foundation..."

Rationale: The offices listed do not appear in the Standing Rules. Inclusion will facilitate the work of the chairperson of ACCOM in identifying offices for which nominations must be made.

(Conference Staff)

Conference Agencies - Commission on Equitable Compensation and Clergy Benefits 23.1 After the phrase "...elected by the Annual Conference.', add "In addition, one district superintendent named by the Cabinet shall be a member."

Rationale: This brings the membership of the Commission on Equitable Compensation and Clergy Benefits into conformity with the Discipline (1992 ¶ 722.1)

(Conference Staff)

Conference Agencies - Commission on Church Growth and Development, Personnel Committee, Committee on Counseling

25.1 After the phrase "...district Committee on Nominations and elected by the District Conference...", add "...for a four-year term to coincide with the quadrennium and eligible to serve two (2) four-year terms for a total of eight years."

After the phrase "...conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference.", add "...for a four-year term to coincide with the quadrennium and eligible to serve two (2) four-year terms for a total of eight years."

26.0 After the phrase that is proposed elsewhere to be added "...one more lay member than clergy member.", add "Members shall be elected for a four-year term to coincide with the quadrennium and eligible to serve two (2) four-year terms for a total of eight years."

30.0 After the phrase "...elected by the Annual Conference.", add "..for a four-year term to coincide with the quadrennium and eligible to serve two (2) four-year terms for a total of eight years.

Rationale: The Standing Rules do not specify length of tenure for members of the Commission on Church Growth and Development, Personnel Committee and Committee on Counseling. The additions establish length of tenure consistent with most other conference agencies.

(Conference Committee on Nominations)

Conference Agencies - Personnel Committee

26.0 After the phrase "...additional members may be added to ensure gender, race and age representation...", add "...in consultation with the conference Committee on Religion and Race and the conference Commission on the Status and Role of Women.

Rationale: The additional language was to have been included in last year's report of the Rules Committee to the Annual Conference but was inadvertently omitted. The additional language will correct that oversight.

(Rules Committee)

After the phrase "...to be nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations.", add "No staff person or immediate family member of a staff person may serve on the committee."

After the phrase proposed to be added above "...on the Status and Role of Women.", add "There shall be one more lay member than clergy member."

Rationale: The change brings the Standing Rules on the Personnel Committee into conformity with the intent of the Discipline (1992 ¶ 270.2)

(Conference Staff)

III. CONFERENCE ADMINISTRATION

Delete the sub-heading "Conference Director of Finance and Administration", replace it with "Conference Director of Stewardship, Finance and Administration.", and make similar changes elsewhere in the Standing Rules where appropriate.

2.0 Delete the sentence "The conference director of Finance and Administration shall serve as the conference treasurer and the conference secretary."

2.1 Delete the sentence "The director shall serve as the treasurer of the Board of Pensions, for the Commission on Equitable Compensation and shall be coordinator for the conference pension program." Add "The conference director of Stewardship, Finance and Administration shall serve as stewardship advocate for the Annual Conference, conference secretary, conference treasurer, conference pension officer and treasurer for the Board of Pensions, treasurer of the Commission on Equitable Compensation and Clergy Benefits and manager of the Conference Center building."

Rationale: These changes are recommended to more accurately reflect the expanded responsibilities of the conference director of Finance and Administration and to add to the Standing Rules the director's function as manager of the Conference Center building, last published in the 1986 Journal. (The Cabinet)

VI. LOCAL CHURCHES

1.0 After the phrase "...for its discussion the statement...", delete "...contained in the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee Manual as issued by the General Church in 1968..., and add "...as printed in the 1993 Journal, pages 257-258."

1.1 Renumber this paragraph to be 1.2

1.1 (new) As the new 1.1, add "Each congregation shall annually give attention to the housing policy, using as the guideline for its discussion the statement printed in the 1993 Journal, pages 254-257."

Rationale: The 1993 Annual Conference approved the report of the Commission on Equitable Compensation and Clergy Benefits. The changes reflect the action of the Annual Conference relating to the local churches. (Rules Committee)

VII. DISCONTINUED OR ABANDONED CHURCHES

1.0 Delete the following initial phrase "When a local church has been discontinued or abandoned..." and replace it with "Any property abandoned in the past or that shall be abandoned in the future..."

Delete the last sentence "The trustees of the conference shall recommend to the next session of the Annual Conference the disposition of any remaining proceeds." Add "The remaining proceeds are to be transferred to the Commission on Church Growth and Development."

Rationale: The recommendations bring this section of the Standing Rules into conformity with past and current policy evolving from a conference Board of Trustees report approved by a previous Annual Conference. (Rules Committee)

Report No. 2

The Rules Committee asks authorization to make other routine editorial changes (those not related to structure, responsibility or function) in the conference Standing Rules.

Report No. 3

Should the Annual Conference vote to discontinue the Inter-conference Committee on Hispanic Ministry, the Rules Committee requests permission to make appropriate changes to the conference Standing Rules to reflect such action.

SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION

Volunteers In Mission continued to grow in the Jurisdiction. The three largest projects were: Hurricane Andrew response in south Louisiana (four thousand persons), Midwest flood response (projected to be ten thousand persons), and Operacion Hogar - a project to build forty homes in Juarez, Mexico for the working poor (six hundred registered). Operacion Hogar is jointly sponsored by the South Central Jurisdiction, The United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) and the North Central Conference of the Methodist Church of Mexico. The Executive Director led a group to Cuba to explore new VIM projects. SCJ VIM News' circulation was expanded to more than 7500 copies when the recent edition was mailed to every pastor in the Jurisdiction. The Jurisdiction provided seed money and encouragement for a regional VIM rally in Clovis, New Mexico. The Jurisdiction office maintains an up-to-date list of mission projects in the US and a list of contact persons for VIM work in foreign countries. This information is available upon request.

Korean Ministries continued in the Jurisdiction under the leadership of Dr. Won Kie Kim and the Executive Director. Dr. Kim led Jurisdictional gatherings for pastors newly arrived from Korea and for college students of Korean descent. Dr. Kim also provided consultative services upon request for Bishops and District Superintendents in their work with Korean churches.

The Jurisdictional Youth Team sponsored SpiLiRa (Spiritual Life Rally) at Fayetteville, Arkansas. More than 600 youth attended. Many persons made commitments to Christ and/or commitments to full time church-related service. The Jurisdictional Lab School at Mount Sequoyah became Journey to Excellence, with an expanded format that included both laboratory classes and numerous short courses on subjects of interest.

Twenty networks exist in the Jurisdiction to assemble persons across Annual Conference lines for training, support and inspiration. Two new networks began in the last year: a network for district superintendents began with the first DS Day on the Monday prior to Bishops' Week at Mount Sequoyah. A New Church Pastors' Network began with its first meeting at Albuquerque, New Mexico in October.

L. Ray Branton, Executive Director of Mission and Administration

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

The commission's general purpose is to foster an awareness of the concerns and issues facing women throughout the church, and to encourage continuing commitment to the full participation of women in the total life and mission of the church. To that end, the commission has accomplished or will continue to work toward the following goals in 1994 and has adopted similar goals for 1995:

1. We have worked on completing a resource list of persons who would be available to present programs on issues of particular interest to women. This list would also include suggested videos, film strips, books and curriculum that are available through our Conference Resource Center. Along that same line, the commission purchased several such videos and books and donated them to the Resource Center.
2. One of the main priorities for GCSRW this quadrennium focuses on the problems of sexual harassment and clergy sexual misconduct. In keeping with that emphasis, Myrtis Parker and I attended a national trainers' workshop on Clergy Misconduct: Sexual Abuse in the Ministerial Relationship, using the materials and information received there, we are offering mini-workshops on the subject to various groups within the Central Texas Conference.
3. In addition, we will be offering the following array of courses at the 1994 Fall University:
   A. "Sexual Harassment in the Workplace" with B.C. Cornish, attorney-at-law
   B. "COSROW: What's It All About?" with Cecelia Long, General Secretariat
   C. "Not in My Church: Preventing Clergy Sexual Misconduct"
   D. Pathways to Colleagueship

1995 GOALS

1. To update and augment the resource list of available persons, programs, books and videos concerning issues specifically related to women and their needs.
2. To sponsor workshops at the 1995 Fall University that would address such issues as:
   A. Images of Women through Scripture
   B. The Feminization of Poverty
   C. The Church and Domestic Violence
   D. The Church's Responsibility to Incarcerated Women
3. To research and analyze the progress of women clergy in the Central Texas Conference.
4. To monitor the Annual Conference business sessions and worship services for inclusiveness.
5. To have persons from the commission periodically attend meetings of the various conference level boards, councils, commissions and committees to monitor for inclusiveness of membership and activity.
6. To offer conference-level COSROW leadership for the COSROW training sessions at the district training events. This would include sending a resource list of available persons to each DCOM chairperson.

7. To encourage each local church to name a COSROW representative to their Council on Ministries/Administrative Council, and to increase communication between the commission and each local church representative.

Glenda Whitehead, Chairperson

THE TEXAS METHODIST FOUNDATION

During 1993, the assets of the Texas Methodist Foundation increased by $15 million, from $96 million to $111 million. Loans made to United Methodist churches and agencies increased by $19 million and the Foundation received $3.5 million in gifts to permanent endowment funds and life income arrangements. Grants in excess of $160,000 were made from Foundation operating and permanent endowment funds.

Within the Central Texas Conference ninety-three churches and related agencies had approximately $12 million on deposit with The Texas Methodist Foundation. Loans from the Foundation to Central Texas Conference entities totalled over $19 million.

On June 1, 1993, Thomas R. Locke was promoted to President from the position of Senior Vice President, a position he had held since May 1, 1988. This appointment has provided almost seamless continuity with Charles E. Laing's long, successful tenure as President. Laing currently serves within the Development department in the Foundation's North Texas office.

Constant evaluation of Foundation programs continues to be the basis for shaping future plans. The Texas Methodist Foundation is fully committed to another year of increasing service to United Methodist persons, churches, and agencies through planned giving arrangements, corporate investments, and financing for capital improvements and acquisitions.

Board of Directors, Management, and Staff

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

As of April 1, 1994, the conference Board of Trustees was custodian of eight pieces of property:

1. Conference Center building, Tarrant County
2. A vacant lot across from the Conference building reserved for future parking - Tarrant County.
3. Allen Chapel lot in Davilla, Milam County
4. Norton Church, Runnels County
5. Proctor Church, Comanche County
6. Trumbull Church, Ellis County
7. A lot in Talpa, Coleman County
8. 2 lots in Huckaby, Erath County

All of the church properties have been made available for sale and continue to be for sale. However, there are no offers pending on these properties at this time.

As of March 8, 1994, the balance of the conference's note to the Texas Methodist Foundation secured by the Conference building was $158,179.31. In addition to the properties noted above, the trustees hold title to the Episcopal residence. On March 17, 1994 the balance on the conference's note to the Texas Methodist Foundation on the Episcopal residence was $160,290.91.

Tim Russell, Church Growth and Development director, is the property agent for the Board of Trustees and is responsible for marketing all properties being sold. Our conference director of Finance and Administration, Sidney Roberts, has kept all property adequately insured and supervised the maintenance and repairs to the Conference building. We appreciate their assistance in these matters.

The Trustees, after consultation with local church members and relatives of Ms. Ethel Hander, filed a will contest suit on behalf of the Conference relating to the will of Ms. Ethel Hander. Ms. Hander was a member of the First United Methodist Church of Groesbeck, Texas prior to her death and had provided in her will for a bequest of between $50,000 and $75,000 to the Conference to be used for foreign mission work and to provide food for the foreign needy. Ms. Hander's new will written a short time before her death deleted this bequest. We still hope this matter can be resolved amicably but we felt, as did those we consulted with, that the circumstances required this action.

We encourage all conference churches to be incorporated and to carry adequate liability insurance to protect the churches and their members. All churches which buy real estate or accept gifts of real estate are encouraged to first determine if the real estate has any environmental problems which might subject the church to liability for all necessary cleanup.

John Hawkins, President

UNITED METHODIST COMMUNICATIONS COUNCIL

The seven annual conferences of Texas and New Mexico strengthened their role in governance of the United Methodist Communications Council of Texas and New Mexico during May and June 1993. Other changes during 1993-94 in the Council's corporate structure and staffing enabled the organization to help the seven conferences proclaim the gospel through mass media more effectively.

Constitution amended - All seven conferences that own the Council--Central Texas, New Mexico, North Texas, Northwest Texas, Rio Grande, Southwest Texas and Texas--ratified amendments to the Council's constitution during their 1993 sessions. The amended document gives the communications organization four missions:

- To provide trustee oversight for The United Methodist Reporter, the Council's Newspaper Division. The Council has delegated business decisions concerning the Newspaper Division to a Governing Board made up of representatives from all conferences that publish UMR editions.
- To foster more effective use of communications media by annual conferences, local congregations and church agencies.
- To develop and coordinate ongoing strategies to enhance United Methodism's public image through relations with secular mass communications media. This task is carried out by the Council's Office of Conference Services, which does business as United Methodist Media Services.
- To present the United Methodist witness on legislative and social issues to state and local governmental officials as well as the public at large. This task is carried out by the Office of Conference Services in consultation with the bishops of Texas and New Mexico and the Bishops' Legislative Advisory Committee.

Corporate bylaws authorized by the amended constitution give ultimate fiscal and policy-making control for all Council operations to 19 trustees representing the owner conferences.

Religious News Service sold - The January sale of Religious News Service made construction of the Council's new Communications Center in Dallas possible. Construction contracts for the $3.2 million project were to be signed in the spring of 1994. Occupancy is expected in the fall of 1995.

Council trustees authorized the sale of RNS, the nation's only daily commercial wire service specializing in religious news, in November 1993 following unsolicited overtures from Newhouse. Trustees stipulated that proceeds from a sale would go into the fund to build the new communications facility in Dallas. Sale negotiations were completed in January 1994. Ownership transfer is set for July 31.

The 60-year-old RNS has been a subsidiary of the Council's Newspaper Division since 1983. Its editorial offices were in New York City.

Quest for total quality launched - In April 1993 the Newspaper Division retained Hogan and Associates of Dallas to help introduce a total quality approach to management. The Hogan organization is to spend two years training UMR staff members to work in problem-solving teams, increase productivity, improve efficiency and serve customer needs in new ways.

Council continues delivering information - While organizational elements changed, the Council continued delivering information about the mission and ministry of the United Methodist Church to households across Texas, New Mexico and the nation. The United Methodist Reporter spread news of the church to 158,000 United Methodist families in Texas and New Mexico. The Reporter, United Methodist Review, United Methodist Record and National Christian Reporter carried information into more than 225,000 households in other states.

The Newspaper Division printed journals for 16 conferences during 1993, including Central Texas, New Mexico, North Texas and Texas.

Through United Methodist Media Services, the Council's Office of Conference Services:

- Increased by 19 percent the number of newspaper readers in Texas and New Mexico exposed to news about conference sessions in May and June.
- Helped the five bishops carry out a letter-writing campaign to Texas legislators. These joint episcopal letters urged lawmakers during the 1993 legislative session to maintain funding for health and human services that help the poor. According to Texas IMPACT, which lobbies for church causes, these letters greatly influenced the debate. Funding for human services remained basically the same.
- Organized quarterly meetings of conference editors from Texas and New Mexico to increase teamwork and promote idea exchange.

SALLY KATHERINE BEENE MARTIN
April 20, 1895 - September 30, 1992

Sally Katherine Beene was born in Blevens, Arkansas, daughter of Henry Lee Beene and Nanny Jacob Wingfield. Her father died before she was two. Her mother married John Harmon Martin, father of William C. Martin, when Sally was seven. She attended Henderson Brown College in Arkadelphia, Arkansas. She married her stepbrother, William C. Martin, on July 1, 1918.

Shortly after their wedding, he was stationed in France as part of the Medical Corp in World War I. When he returned she was with him during his studies at the School of Theology at SMU and then as pastor of Grace Methodist Church, Houston (1921 - 1925); First Church, Port Arthur (1925 - 1928); First Church, Little Rock (1928 - 1931); and First Church, Dallas (1931 - 1938). He was elected Bishop at the last General Conference of the former M.E. Church, South in May 1938. When the two were surprised at his election as Bishop, he said she took his hand and whispered, "If we ever get stuffy, or begin to feel we are too important, let's promise each other right now to take each other down." He joined her and both kept that promise.

Sally and Bishop Martin served in the California Area before unification, and after unification in the Kansas-Nebraska Area and the Dallas-Ft. Worth Area before retirement in 1964.

Sally Martin was a truly genuine, authentic person, with strong opinions, a never failing sense of humor and a kind loving spirit. A person of integrity and honesty, with a ... for justice and right, she was always cheerful and ready to share her convictions on the current situation in the country and the world.

Her son John remembers how his mother always remained a staunch Democrat, and though in some of the areas they served, many were strong Republicans, she gained the love and admiration of the church people.

Miss Sally, as she was known to many, never became pompous or impressed with her husband's position or prestige. As her daughter Mary Catherine wrote, "She remembered the good and bad times in the ministry and could always find a way to help a preacher's wife struggling to understand and be understood by members of the congregation.

Mrs. Martin's memberships and honors included Texas Women of Distinction (1962); DAR; UCD; Lakeside Browning Club; University Women's Club of SMU; Planning Comm., International Christian University, Tokyo, Japan; W.S.C.S.; and United Church Women. She attended 3 General Assemblies of the World Council of Churches.

The Martins had three children: Donald Hankey Martin, who preceded her in death; John Lee Martin of Russelville, Arkansas and Mary Catherine Martin Makoul of Los Angeles, California. She is also survived by nine grandchildren and 11 great-children.

Miss Sally loved beautiful things and managed to make them a part of her life. Her collection now graces the homes of her children, grand-children and great-grandchildren.

Sally Martin died at the age of 97 in Little Rock. During her last illness, she said laughingly, "I don't know why after 97 years, I'm still here!" But she trusted God for the answer. Hers was a strong faith. Her laughter and love for her family and friends were undiminished to the end.

Her memorial service was held at First United Methodist Church of Little Rock, Arkansas on October 2, 1992 with Bishop Lance Webb, Bishop Richard Wilke, and Bishop Kenneth Hicks officiating. A graveside service, which according to her son, was all she really wanted, was also held after the service at the church.

Sally Martin was the first lady of the Dallas-Fort Worth Area for 16 years. There was never any doubt that the Central Texas Conference had a very special place in her heart during those years and following. And she had a special place in the hearts of the clergy and lay persons of the conference. I count it a high honor and privilege to have served the full sixteen-year tenure of the Martins both as a pastor and as a district superintendent. Sally was a very gracious pastor's wife. With thanks to God we remember and celebrate her life. Her encouragement and support of her husband and family, for district superintendents, for pastors, and for laity through all the years is a priceless gift.

After retirement in 1978, he and Madalyn lived in Ft. Worth and were faithful members of University U.M.C. where his memorial service was held by Reverends Don Scott and Tim Russell on March 21, 1994. Floyd taught the Come Double Class at University U.M.C. and was known for his humorous stories.

Throughout his ministry Floyd Boulware brought grace and dignity to the office of pastor. He was a model and mentor for many young pastors. He loved people and brought joy and laughter as well as meaning and inspiration into the lives of others by the touch of his hand, his voice, his personality and his very life. Most of all he was a builder. He loved to use his carpentry, relational, organizational, and communication skills to build up Christ's body, the Church.

His appointments in Central Texas were Georgetown: First; Brownwood: Central; Waco: Herring Avenue; the Coriscana District; Fort Worth: Meadowbrook; and Graham: First, where he and Jessie retired in 1969. He was designated "Pastor Emeritus" by the Graham church. Dr. McCree served his church with distinction from early in his ministry until, and even after, retirement. Many conference and district responsibilities were fulfilled by him, and the Graham community benefitted from his leadership in the Graham Area Ministerial Fellowship, the Noon Lion's Club, United Fund, Graham Area Health, Inc., and Community Concerns. He helped organize Alcoholics Anonymous in Graham.

There aren't enough words to describe Dr. McCree's contribution to life and the church. He was a man of God, who did no harm, only good, did the work of an evangelist, loved people, led them to Christ, prayed daily for his church and its pastor, and then slipped away to be with God in his 89th year. His memorial service was held at First United Methodist Church in Graham on July 22, 1993. Dr. Louis Shambeck, Rev. Cindy Ryan and Dr. Charles Rice officiated. Dr. McCree has now transferred from the Church Militant to the Church Triumphant, a member in "full connection!" "Well done, good and faithful servant... well done!"

The service was conducted by Dr. Gary Whitbeck, Senior Pastor of the Meadowbrook UMC and Dr. Don Pike, Senior Pastor of First Arlington UMC, with the assistance of the Chancel Choir.

Carl had a passionate love of people and spent his entire ministerial career making the Good News very real to people in a manner which combined home-spun humor and a deep understanding of the Christian Gospel. He was a devoted husband and father, a loyal friend, and an effective pastor. We are all privileged to have had an opportunity to share life and laughter with him.

In 1971 his alma mater, Texas Wesleyan College, honored him with a degree, Doctor of Divinity, honoris causa.

Richard was licensed to preach in 1942 by the Cleburne District. He was admitted on trial into the Central Texas Conference in 1946 and was received into full connection in 1948. He was ordained a deacon in 1948 and an elder in 1951. He was also active in civic affairs in Fort Worth having served as chair of the Board of Directors of the Texas Girls' Choir and as a member of the boards of the Fort Worth Opera and Panther Boys' Club.

Richard retired in 1988 after having served 23 years as the pastor of Overton Park United Methodist Church and its predecessor church, Central United Methodist Church. During his pastorate the church relocated to its present site. The Overton Park church honored him by naming him Pastor Emeritus.

A celebration of his life and ministry was held on February 8, 1994, at Overton Park United Methodist Church. Those participating in the service were Bishop Joe A. Wilson, Rev. Michael McKee, Dr. Eugene Robertson, Dr. N.H. Kupferle, Dr. Ervin Gathings and Rev. Jay Darnell. Burial was in Covington Cemetery.

Richard enjoyed being a United Methodist pastor and once said, "There isn't a profession in the world that is more demanding or has any more overall pressure than the ministry...there is never a time, day or night, when you are not subject to a call from someone who needs help. I was always happy to answer that call to help people." The witness of those who came to celebrate his life and ministry verified that truth about Richard's life.

WALLACE WOODFIN PITTMAN
May 28, 1908 - October 2, 1993

Wallace Woodfin Pittman was born May 28, 1908 in Fairy, Texas. His parents were Ralph and Pearl Lackey Pittman. He graduated from Dublin High School and attended A&M College where he studied Agricultural Journalism. After feeling a call to the ministry, Wallace attended Southwestern University at Georgetown, Texas and studied for the ministry at Mary-Hardin Baylor. He pastored small congregations within driving distance of school and also led the music at numerous revivals across the state to help pay his way through college.

He married Annelle Nibling on May 8, 1933 in Moffat, Texas. She was a school teacher and helpmate in ministry. They were blessed with two children, Wallace William and Wannelle. Wallace William is a resident of Abilene and Wannelle (Pittman) Linsteadt lives in Bedford. Annelle lives in Temple where she is an active member of Seventh Street United Methodist Church. Other survivors include one sister, eight grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, and a great-great grandchild.

Wallace Pittman served his first appointment in 1931, was ordained deacon in 1933, and elder in 1935. His ministry spanned three different Texas conferences: Central Texas, North Texas and West Texas/New Mexico. He pastored churches in Midway, Cedar Creek, Frost, Amarillo, Texaco-Farwell, Toyah, Wichita Falls, Dallas, Celina, Paris, Archer City, Lancaster, Plano, Denison, Eddy and Nolanville. He was instrumental in beginning new programs in several of these churches. He retired after thirty years of ministry and was a member of the Central Texas Conference at the time of his death.

Funeral services for Wallace Pittman were held at Seventh Street United Methodist Church in Temple on October 4, 1993. Officiating ministers were Bob Weathers, Temple District Superintendent and Stephen Schimdt, pastor of Seventh Street United Methodist Church.

Wallace was best known for his skills in counseling with young people and alcoholics. He also helped many churches raise the monies to build new buildings through the Farrow Plan. Wallace Pittman's greatest desire was to have everyone be as strong a Christian as he was. He had an enthusiasm for spreading the Gospel that was quite contagious and churches thrived under his direction and leadership. The Central Texas Conference lost a great friend and member the day that Wallace Pittman entered his eternal rest.

JAMES DAVID WALSH
September 11, 1910 - December 9, 1993

Rev. James David Walsh, Jr. was born September 11, 1910 in Jonesboro, Texas. His parents were James Dennis Walsh and Mildred Burns Watson Walsh. He graduated from Jonesboro High School in 1928 and later from Abilene Business College.

On August 24, 1932, J.D. was married to Ina Fay Thompson in Ireland, Texas. To this union was born a daughter, Belva Jean, who later was married to Horace Knight. They are J.D.'s nearest survivors and live in Gatesville, Texas.

Rev. Walsh was first noted as a Methodist minister in 1960 when he was appointed to serve the Methodist church at Flat. Other appointments followed, sending him to the Pidcoke Circuit, Keener Chapel and Flat, Christ Methodist in Waco and finally to the United Methodist Church in Bethel where he served as pastor for seventeen years! J.D. Walsh retired at Annual Conference on June 1, 1982. He and his wife, Ina Fay, had a home in Gatesville and continued to live there during her illness and death. Poor health required extra care and J.D. went to the Wesleyan Home in Georgetown in 1988 where he remained until his death.

Soon after retirement J.D. and Ina were written up in the Gatesville Messenger which used an item from the Temple District United Methodist Reporter. It said that even though retirement was required, that did not end this couple's lay ministry of twenty-four years. It was recorded that J.D. built churches with people and with lumber. He demolished an old house in Gatesville and used the lumber to assist the membership to build much of the Bethel Church. The paper indicated that this couple was "a vanishing breed of the United Methodist ministers!"

Rev. Walsh prepared himself for the Methodist ministry through the Course of Study by correspondence. Lowest grade in this continuing process was 88, and the highest grade was 96. In this way he earned ordination as deacon in 1963 and elder in 1965.

Memorial service for Rev. J.D. Walsh was at ten o'clock on Saturday morning the 11th of December. Ministers for the service were Bobby Baggett and Lloyd Sansom. Scott Funeral Home Chapel of Gatesville was the sight of the memorial service. Interment was at Jonesboro Cemetery. A tribute to this colorful minister of the church comes from Chaucer's Canterbury Tales where it is said that "The heart of a country preacher is a sight to behold." J.D. considered himself primarily a pastor to his people. That is, indeed, a sight to behold!

GLADYS IMOGENE OBERHOFF JOHNSON
February 12, 1904 - June 13, 1993

Gladys Imogene Oberhoff Johnson died at her home in Fort Worth, Sunday, June 13, 1993, at the age of 89 years. She was the widow of Dr. Floyd E. Johnson, who preceded her in death in 1976.

She was born February 12, 1904 in Little Rock, Arkansas, and moved to Fort Worth at the age of two years. She attended Fort Worth public schools and Texas Wesleyan College.

On August 14, 1924 she and Floyd Earnest Johnson were married. He joined the Central Texas Annual Conference of the Methodist Church in November, 1925 and together they served churches in Fort Worth, Mt. Calm, Grandview, Taylor, Coleman, Cleburne, Waxahachie, Corsicana and Waco. Twice he served as the district superintendent: the Gatesville District, 1945-51; and the Cisco District, 1968-74. It was from the Cisco District they took retirement.

Mrs. Johnson served devotedly with her husband throughout his 49 year tenure of active ministry. She shared her talents as vocalist, pianist, director of choirs, and leader in the women's work of the local churches. She held great pride in having taught children or youth Sunday School classes in every church they were assigned.

Following retirement in 1974, she made her home in Waco until June 1988, when she moved back to Fort Worth to live out her life.

She is survived by her son, Dr. J. Bond Johnson of Long Beach, California; her daughter, Mrs. B.F. Hank (Elaine) Carroll of Fort Worth; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

On Wednesday, June 16, 1993, family and friends filled the chapel at Greenwood Funeral Home, Fort Worth, to celebrate the life and faith of Mrs. "J", as she was affectionately known. Having planned her own memorial service, Mrs. J's love of music and favorite scriptures were beautifully reflected from the opening hymn medley to the vocal benediction. Officiating was Rev. C.C. Schultz, who had served as her pastor for eleven years. Interment was at Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Fort Worth, with Dr. Sidney Roberts and Msgr. Richard E. Johnson officiating.

Mrs. J. was confident of heaven. How many times she expressed the desire to join her husband there!

About 4 o'clock Sunday morning, June 13, the nurse came to Mrs. J.'s room to care for her needs. Mrs. J. stirred, "You don't need to do that. Get me my shoes, I'm going home." When the nurse returned later, Mrs. J. had gone home...to her heavenly home!

How can we describe her? It is like trying to describe a beautiful sunset and the afterglow. For those of us who knew and loved Mrs. J., the afterglow of her life will linger long in our hearts.

FRANKIE ELLEN BLANTON LOYD
February 25, 1906 - August 31, 1993

"Sis" Blanton was born February 25, 1906, in Hewitt, Texas, to G.W. and Aggie Bell (Warren) Blanton. Her schooling was in Hewitt until high school. She graduated from Waco High School, 1923. Sis attended Baylor University, 1924-1926.

Sis began a life-long commitment to teaching by teaching in the public school at a one-room country school east of Waco. She changed from teaching in the public schools to teaching in the church when she married Rev. H. Brown Loyd. Brown and Sis were married August 29, 1926, in Waco. They served together in the active ministry 47 years, all in the Central Texas Annual Conference, and then retired to Woodway, near Waco.

From the moment of her marriage, Sis devoted herself to sharing with her beloved husband in serving God's people. First, above all, she was Brown's support, his best friend, his encourager. But Sis also had a personal ministry in every place to which they were assigned, both in their local pastorates and in their district superintendencies.

As long as her health allowed, across a long life, she was a Sunday School teacher and a compassionate and thoughtful adviser to all who came to her. Her commitment to world missions is seen in that she was a Life Member of the United Methodist Women.

Motherhood was also a sacred ministry to Sis. She was the mother of two children: Mary Edith Hamrick of Corpus Christi and Neal Gregg Loyd, who preceded her to glory. And grandmotherhood saw her mothering expanded. Four of their six grandchildren, in succession, came to live with the Loyds during some of their college years. She passes on a legacy of fun, love and service to her six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Because of Sis' yieldedness to the Lord Jesus Christ, her sweetness and love not only never failed, but also grew across the years. She was a renewing source of energy for her husband. And in their life together, Brown found the word of the Lord, in Isaiah 62:3-4, fulfilled, "You shall be a crown of beauty... and you shall be called My Delight Is In Her." Truly, Sis was Brown's delightful companion in marriage, in motherhood and in ministry, and now she is waiting to renew that companionship in Heaven.

Sis and Brown celebrated 67 years of marriage Sunday, August 29, 1993. That evening she became ill; she died August 31. Frankie Ellen Blanton (Sis) Loyd's funeral service was held in the First United Methodist Church, Waco. The officiating ministers were Bishop Joe A. Wilson, Dr. Sidney Roberts, Rev. Henry Radde and her pastor, Rev. Richard M. Freeman. Interment was at Waco Memorial Park.

IVA BAILEY MERITT
October 26, 1906 - October 12, 1993

Iva Bailey Meritt, daughter of Issac Arthur Bailey and Lula Belle Gattis Bailey, was born October 26, 1906 at Scranton, Texas. She attended Scranton Academy and Scranton Public Schools.

On July 21, 1923 she married John Ralph Meritt, who would be licensed to preach nine years hence. In the subsequent years, as a partner in ministry, she would complement his service to Methodist churches at Cross Cut, Wingate, Norton, Talpa/Crews, Lake Worth, Meridian, Cleburne, McGregor, Midlothian, Sparks Memorial in Waco, First in Taylor, and First in Grapevine. It was said of her that the doors of her home were "always open to those in need or those who came to visit."

She was preceded in death by John Ralph in 1967 and by their only son, John Lloyd, in 1989. At the time of her death she was a member of the First United Methodist Church, Cisco.

Her interment service was held at Scranton Cemetery on October 14, 1993. It was said of John Ralph at his service he "had fought a good fight and had kept the faith; and now had found the true crown of righteousness.

John dedicated his entire life to God, the Methodist Church and was a real soldier of the cross." The same could be echoed of Iva with this addition: "A capable wife who can find? She is far more precious than jewels. The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will have no lack of gain. She does him good and not harm, all the days of her life...a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised." Proverbs 31:10-12, 30b.

AMA L. PERDUE
September 6, 1909 - February 1, 1994

Ama Loraine Perdue was born September 6, 1909 in Childress, Texas to Guy and Elizabeth (McFall) Smith. She died Tuesday, February 1, 1994 in Georgetown, Texas at the age of 84. On May 17, 1930 Ama Smith was married to Reverend Guy E. Perdue, and took her place in a supporting and encouraging role as a parsonage wife through the next 57 years until Guy's death in 1987.

Guy's ministry stretched across 55 years under appointment in the North Texas and Central Texas Conferences. Together they loved and served the people of churches such as White Rock, Haskell Avenue, and Brooklyn Avenue in Dallas, Jacksboro, Iowa Park, Denison Trinity, Killeen First, Arlington Aldersgate, Hillsboro First, Waco Herring Avenue, Coleman First, and in retirement Zephyr and Sidney. The Perdues spent their retirement years in Comanche until following his death Ama moved to the Wesleyan Home in Georgetown.

Ama and Guy's home was graced by the birth of three sons. James Edwin died in infancy, and Earl Wayne died last year. Her surviving son is Reverend Harold Perdue, a clergy member of the Southwest Texas Conference. Other family include Harold's wife Nita, 3 grandchildren, Elizabeth Ann Nielsen of Corvallis, Oregon, Barbara Perdue of San Antonio, Texas, and James E. Perdue of Windsor, Colorado. Also there is one great-grandson, Karl James Nielsen, and a brother, Oneal A. Smith of Greenville.

Memorial services for Ama Perdue were held in St. John's United Methodist Church in Georgetown February 4th, and were led by Dr. Gary Kindley and Reverend Charles McClure. Burial was in Greenville.

Ama will always be remembered for her sweet spirit, her always positive words of encouragement, her love for her family, and the quiet way in which she was so much a part of Guy's ministry, bringing strength and stability to every situation, but never seeking for herself the limelight.

SYBLE ALYNE DAVIS RAINES
June 18, 1919 - June 17, 1993

Great joy entered a rural farm home in Leon County, Texas, in the small community of Flo on June 18, 1919 as Arthur P. and Mary Grissitt Davis welcomed their youngest child, Syble Alyne, to the family. Syble grew up and was educated near her birthplace, attending Lon Morris College and graduating from Sam Houston State. More education followed later with graduate work at Tarleton State University.

Syble was married to Harvey Raines on February 16, 1940 in Buffalo, Texas. To that union were born two children, Arthur L. (Rusty) and Blynda Joyce. Syble and Harvey pursued careers as school teachers with great energy and devotion.

In 1954 Harvey entered the Methodist ministry and he and Syble brought that same energy and devotion along with their two children into the Central Texas Conference. Syble continued to teach and love the people and be a vital part of their ministry at Keller, Ft. Worth: Eastwood, Grandview, Bedford, Mansfield, Groesbeck, Comanche, Cleburne: St. Mark, Granbury, Cleburne: St. Paul and Itasca.

In 1980 Syble and Harvey moved to their own home in Cleburne for retirement. They became a vital part of the congregation of First United Methodist Church. Syble devoted her creative talents to music, writing poetry and handwork. She loved, enjoyed and was totally committed to her husband, children, grandchildren and the United Methodist Church.

A great celebration of Syble's life was held at First United Methodist Church in Cleburne on June 19, led by Jimmy Finley, Gene Chamness and Joe McAfee. Syble touched our lives with love and joy and her memories will be a part of us forever. Praise God from whom all blessings flow.

2.0 Remittances from a pastoral charge to the conference treasurer shall be accompanied by the remittance forms supplied by the Council on Finance and Administration. These forms shall be in triplicate and indicate clearly the amounts to be credited to each cause for which the remittance is made. The conference treasurer shall return one receipted form to the pastor and one to the district superintendent for each remittance. The pastor shall enclose the annual statement of receipts as issued by the conference treasurer, corrected if necessary, with the church's Annual Conference Report as verification of items reported in Table II.

3.0 After careful consideration of all financial responsibilities of the Annual Conference, the Council on Finance and Administration, with three liaison representatives selected by the Annual Conference Council on Ministries, meeting with the Council on Finance and Administration in all budget discussions, shall recommend all allocations for the major categories in the total conference financial program: clergy and diaconal support, conference claimants fund, administration, World Service, conference benevolences, and capital funding. The Annual Conference Council on Ministries, being charged by the Discipline to study and coordinate the budget request of the several conference agencies as they relate to the conference program, shall formulate and present an itemized conference benevolence budget providing for the support of these agencies to the Council on Finance and Administration. If, for any reason, the Council on Finance and Administration decides that the total of the requests for the conference benevolence budget needs to be changed, it shall adjust the allocation and refer it back to the Annual Conference Council on Ministries for adjustments of the itemized appropriations in the conference benevolence budget.

3.1 If any conference agency feels its cause has been neglected, jeopardized, or excluded, it shall have the opportunity to represent its cause before the Council on Finance and Administration as provided in the Book of Discipline (1992 ¶ 710).

3.2 The Council on Finance and Administration shall present the proposed budget, for the purpose of clarification and correction only, at the first business session of the Annual Conference each year. Changes in the proposed budget shall be reported by the committee, board, and/or council making the request at the time they report to the Annual Conference. Approval or disapproval of the financial request shall be voted as an amendment to the proposed budget at the final presentation of the budget by CFA at the last session of the Annual Conference.

3.3 Once a budget line-item has been approved by a regular or called session of the Annual Conference, the line-item amounts cannot be changed, re-allocated, or exceeded without approval from the Council on Finance and Administration.

3.4 Any proposal to create a new apportionment, or to change the purpose for an existing apportionment shall be presented during a regular or called session of the Annual Conference, and shall not be voted on until the next session of the Annual Conference.

4.0 All budget items allocated to the districts and local churches of the conference shall be based on the decimal arrived at by the following formula: Determine the base amount for each district or church by taking the total of the following items: (58) pension & benefit funds (MPP) paid directly to the General Board of Pensions, (64) Pastor's base compensation, (65) Associate(s) base compensation, (66a) Utilities and housing paid to/for pastor, (66b) Utilities and housing paid to/for associate(s), (67a) Travel paid to/for pastor, (67b) Travel paid to/for associate(s), (68a) Other allowances paid to/for pastor, (68b) Other allowances paid to/for associate(s), (69) Diaconal minister(s) compensation, (70) Other staff compensation, (71) Current expenses for program, (72) Other current operating expenses. Add the above thirteen (13) expenditures for each district to get the "district total expenditure". Divide each "district total expenditure" by the "conference total expenditure" to get the district decimal. (Each decimal is rounded off to four places.) Multiply the district decimal by each Conference Apportionment to get the District Apportionment. Add the above thirteen (13) expenditures for each local church to get their "local total expenditure". Divide each "local total expenditure" by the "district total expenditure" to arrive at the local church decimal. (Each decimal is rounded off to four places.) Multiply the local church decimal by each District Apportionment allocation to get the Local Church Apportionment. (Each apportionment is rounded off to the nearest dollar.)

5.0 It shall be the duty of the conference Council on Finance and Administration to compute the decimal annually, using the latest statistics (corrected, if necessary) and furnish the table of apportionments to the districts. The district superintendent and the district stewards shall distribute the askings to the local church on the same basis.

6.0 Items to be distributed under the formula are the Episcopal Fund, District Superintendent Salaries & Pension, Conference Claimants and C.P.P., Clergy Health Insurance, Equitable Compensation, Other Clergy Benefits, Property and Administration, World Service/Conference Benevolences, Interdenominational Cooperation, Ministerial Education, Black Colleges, Africa University, Mission Initiatives, Mount Sequoyah, Lydia Patterson Institute, SMU Campus Ministry, Texas Methodist College Association, Wesley Foundations, and Glen Lake Camp Improvements. Others may be added by the action of the Annual Conference.

7.0 The auditing firm appointed by the conference Council on Finance and Administration shall audit all books of treasurers of boards whose auditing is not provided for in the Book of Discipline, and report the results to the conference Council on Finance and Administration, which council will send a statement of these audits to the conference secretary for inclusion in the minutes.

8.0 Annually each board, commission, agency, or special interest, shall make requests to the Council on Finance and Administration through the Annual Conference Council on Ministries for any special day offering, except where set by the Book of Discipline. No such day shall be recommended to the Annual Conference for any agency, cause, or institution, nor shall such a day be listed on the printed conference calendar, unless such agency, cause or institution has presented a full financial statement and audit, including current annual income and expense, together with its report to the appropriate board.

9.0 All boards, commissions, committees, and councils of the conference shall allow eighteen cents per mile, twenty-one cents per mile when two members ride in the same car, twenty-three cents per mile when three to six members ride in the same car, and thirty-five cents per mile for seven or more members in one vehicle for necessary travel to conference meetings.

10. The conference treasurer, after the close of the fiscal year, shall transfer from the accounts of all boards, commissions and other agencies of the conference into the Operating Reserve all unexpended balances of the annual appropriations for the year just closed (excepting only items specifically exempt by CFA) making allowances for all outstanding checks. This procedure is recommended with the understanding that the conference treasurer will honor the requisitions for all necessary expenses of the new fiscal year within the limits of the appropriations.

The Bethel Account is depleted. The money was used to build and renovate Education Building and Fellowship Hall addition at Bethel UMC, Weatherford. Since the work has been completed the District is no longer custodian of this account.

Auditor's Statement of March 12, 1994:

We have audited the Summary of Cash Receipts and Disbursements of the District Work Fund and the District Board of Missions and Church Location of Dr. Eric McKinney, District Superintendent of the Weatherford District of the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church for the year ended December 31, 1993. These statements are the responsibility of the District Superintendent. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these statements based on our audit.

In our opinion, the Summary of Cash Receipts and Disbursements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the recorded such receipts and disbursements of the District Superintendent for the year then ended, on the basis described in Note A, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.
