COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION
Report No. 1

1. We begin with commendations to all the churches of the Central Texas Conference for efforts on behalf of the Kingdom in support of our shared ministry and mission through our "beyond the local church ministries" of the United Methodist Church. Of our 338 local churches, 301 paid their apportionments in full. The combined shortfall of the 37 churches that did not pay out in full was $425,111. By using the $39,418 balance in the Contingency Fund, $60,651.82 of accrued interest and $1500.00 in the Connectional Pay-out Fund, we were able to cover the shortfall in Conference Claimants, Episcopal Fund, General Administration, Interdenominational Cooperation, Africa University, Mission Initiatives, Mount Sequoyah, Lydia Patterson Institute, Wesley Foundations and Glen Lake Loan. This left us short $75,108.75 on General apportionments. In addition we were short $32,838.72 on conference items. The shortages involved in this $32,838.72 were covered by reducing planned expenditures in certain line items in the 1996 budget.
2. The formula for determining the amount to be budgeted for the support and compensation of each district superintendent and apportioned to the conference shall be 105% of the average support and compensation of the senior pastors of the top 25 churches. It shall be computed on the basis of support and compensation approved by the Charge Conferences which appear on the Episcopal work sheets as of February 1. The figures will be compiled by the conference director of Stewardship, Finance and Administration within five days after February 1. For the year 1997 that amount is $74,804. This amount is to provide for the district superintendent's expense for conference meetings and additional ministerial expenses in an accountable reimbursement plan, the district superintendent's portion of the conference health benefits premium and the salary. The line item amount for each of these is to be determined in consultation with and approved by the Council on Finance and Administration. It is required that the accountable reimbursement plan for the district superintendent's expense for conference meetings and additional ministerial expenses be established by a resolution of CFA. Also, any Housing Expense Set-aside, as desired by each district superintendent, shall be established in like manner. Further, the Ministerial Pension Plan current service amount of 12% of the Denominational Average Compensation, billed directly to the conference, will be an apportionment to the districts.
3. The amount to be budgeted annually and apportioned to the conference for the support and compensation of the conference director of Stewardship, Finance and Administration, the director of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries, and the director of Church Growth and Development is to be the same as for a district superintendent. For the year 1997 that amount is $74,804. This amount is to provide for the additional ministerial expenses of each director in an accountable reimbursement plan, for each director's portion of the conference health benefits plan premium and for each director's salary. The amount for these line items in each director's budget shall be determined prior to the new fiscal year by the respective executive committee to which each director reports. It is required that the accountable reimbursement plan be established by a resolution of the appropriate executive committee. Also, any personal Housing Expense Set-aside, as desired by each director, shall be established in like manner. An additional amount for vouchered, reimbursed expenses related to each director's office is also a part of the respective council's or commission's budget.
4. The district committees on finance are authorized to prepare budgets for presentation to the district stewards. An amount up to 10% of the support and compensation for the district superintendent may be included in the district budget to defray the utility costs of the district parsonage. In addition, an amount up to 10% of the support and compensation may be included in the district budget for the purpose of vouchered reimbursement of travel and business-related expenses, as established by a resolution of the district Board of Stewards. District budgets shall not include a discretionary fund, but may include a District Operations Expense item. The district budget shall be submitted to the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration for approval each year. The district stewards are authorized to apportion a Connectional

Contingency Fund to be used for paying in full at the district level apportioned items which may fall short within the respective district. The Connectional Contingency Fund will be administered at the district level in the same manner as the District Work Fund. It is understood that if a portion of the Connectional Contingency Fund is not used in any given year, it will remain in the fund and future apportionment funds will be reduced. Any adjustments for unusual local church situations will be made in the apportionment of the Connectional Contingency Fund only. All other apportionments will be distributed to every local church on the basis of the decimal.

5. The council recommends that the total apportionment for the Texas Methodist College Association remain at the 1996 level as suggested by TUMCA. The council also recommends the request from the conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry that the amount for the Wesley Foundation Fund be apportioned to the local churches on the decimal system and based on $1.40 for each church member in the Annual Conference.
6. At the end of each fiscal year unexpended unrestricted operation funds, less the amount needed to cover deficits in conference budget accounts, shall be transferred into the operating reserve and an accounting of all operating reserve funds shall be made at each Annual Conference.
7. Each year the use of the unspent Contingency Fund shall be reviewed by the Council on Finance and Administration and the Bishop to decide if any amount should be used for conference, Jurisdictional and General Church apportionments before going into the Operating Reserve.
8. We recommend the appointment of Rev. Richard M. Freeman as director of Stewardship, Finance and Administration and as the secretary of the Central Texas Conference.

   c. The conference treasurer, after the close of the fiscal year, shall transfer from the accounts of all boards, commissions and other agencies of the conference into the operating reserve all unexpended balances of the annual appropriations for the year just closed (excepting only items specifically exempted by CF&A) making allowances for all outstanding checks. This procedure is recommended with the understanding that the director of Stewardship, Finance and Administration will honor the requisitions for all necessary expenses of the new fiscal year within the limits of the appropriations.
   d. Invest the funds of the conference in government securities and federally insured depositories up to and not exceeding insurability, and/or with the Texas Methodist Foundation and to borrow on and dispose of investments at, or prior to, maturity, and to deposit the proceeds from these investments in accounts of the conference under the guidance of the Council on Finance and Administration.
   e. Deposit funds for specifically designated purposes in federally insured depositories up to and not exceeding insurability and/or with the Texas Methodist Foundation under the joint control of the Central Treasury (conference Council on Finance and Administration) and the agency concerned, with the approval of the Executive Committee of the conference Council on Finance and Administration.

Report No. 3 - Reserve Funds

1. In order to establish a better system of accountability, the Council on Finance and Administration, following action of the 1991 Annual Conference, implemented the following management procedures for reserve funds beginning 1/1/92: (See 1993 Journal, page 145)

Report No. 4

Beginning 6/1/96 the accountable mileage reimbursement for conference staff shall be the IRS rate.

All others shall be reimbursed at eighteen cents per mile for one person, twenty-one cents per mile when two members ride in the same car, twenty-three cents when three to six members ride in the same car, and thirty-five cents for seven or more members in one vehicle for necessary travel on conference business.

Report No. 5

PROCEDURE FOR CHANGING THE PRIORITY OF ITEMS IN AC BUDGET TO MEET CFA GUIDELINES (Approved by CFA, August, 1995)

1. CFA sets a guideline as to the anticipated percentage of the Conference budget which is expected to be received within the ensuing year in January of each year after reviewing the close of the preceding year. (By approximately Jan. 20.)
2. Notice is immediately given to the chairs of all spending entities. (By approximately Jan. 22.)
3. Each spending entity reviews its planned expenditures and adjusts them to fit the CFA guideline, and notifies the director of SFA that its review has been done.
4. The Dir. of SFA will review the monthly budget reports and mail to each spending entity and notify the appropriate staff person or entity chair when line items are near their limits, or have reached it.
5. All Agenda Committee requests must be signed by the chair of the committee.

Report No. 6

The conference, through the Property and Administration apportionment, has bought a surety bond to cover all of the laity in our churches who handle church funds. This means that if money is proven to have been stolen, or otherwise misapplied by a lay member and the church sustains a loss, there is a surety bond which will replace the money, up to $25,000, and the perpetrator will be prosecuted.

Report No. 7

In these days when churches are far more vulnerable to being sued than they were in the past, and for a far wider list of causes, it is imperative that each local church be incorporated. Failing to be incorporated puts each of the members of the church in jeopardy. In addition to being incorporated each church must review its property and liability coverages with consideration for areas of liability not only between church staff and members or guests, and not only between the church as an entity and whomever might happen upon the premises, but also for the area of liability of employee versus employee.

Leonard Radde, President

ANNUAL CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

As the quadrennium ends, we of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries want to thank the conference for their support and participation in the programs and ministries of the council. We are pleased with that which has been accomplished, but we are disappointed that fiscal restraints have been such that we have been unable to expand our programming to the extent we would have liked to reach into areas of need and ministry as yet not fully served. We are keenly aware of the spirit of generosity of the people called Methodist and our prayer for the years to come is that it will reassert itself and grow with each year to enable the Church to move forward with boldness and charity into the 21st century.

Dale R. Smith, Chairperson

The conference Council on Ministries office shall maintain the calendar for the annual conference events and proposed dates shall be cleared with that office thirty days in advance whenever possible.

The concept of Fall University is reaffirmed as the time and place for program boards to do conference-wide training.

Report Of Director of the Conference Council on Ministries

This is the final year of my eight-year tenure as director of the conference Council on Ministries and of my forty-six years as an active itinerant member of the Central Texas Conference. This year has been one of the most satisfying of the eight. My service as director has been one of the most satisfying ministries of my forty-six years.

The council is unique in the structure of the United Methodist Church. Primary decisions are not made by the director and associate directors. Rather, they are made by the members of the council and the members of its boards and committees. The directors are expected to give leadership and; hopefully, spiritual encouragement, in establishing directions in which the Conference might go in doing ministry, in providing knowledge and expertise in planning specific ways to provide ministry, and in giving guidance and support in achieving ministry. Thus, the role of the director is at the same time one which holds before the Conference the goals to which it should continually strive and furnishing the resources for reaching them.

The Central Texas Conference has a long history of successful ministry, and these eight years are but a part of that ongoing history. Dr. Luther Henry and his predecessors had a record of great achievement before I was appointed as director, and Dr. Henry Radde will lead the conference to even greater achievement. This is simply to acknowledge that my service is no more important (except, perhaps, to me) than that of my precursors or successors. With this understanding, I would like to point to some of the salient events of the council's ministry.

There has been a growth in the conference churches' support of mission work. One hundred eleven of our conference's 333 churches are Covenant Congregations. This means that exactly one of every three churches has selected a personal missionary and has agreed annually to contribute $1,000 or $3.00 per member to his or her support. I would be surprised if this is not the highest percentage of any conference in United Methodism. In addition, for the past four years every church in the conference has had a record of contributing to some Advance Special project. This is the best record in United Methodism. And the increase in the number of Global Mission Partner churches is on track to reach the same kind of record.

Volunteers in Mission involvement has grown exponentially, both in numbers of persons involved and of the variety and numbers of opportunities. Central Texas Conference Youth in Mission has attracted hundreds of participants to work in Missouri, Arkansas and Oklahoma. Pre-annual conference session workdays and other special projects already have occupied hundreds of other persons. The United Methodist Committee on Relief has been so appreciative that it presently is giving minimal funding for a part time person to direct VIM work in our conference. This is making it possible for more national and international projects to be carried out.

Disaster Response has been organized across the annual conference. While maintenance and re-staffing of the organization is an ongoing process, the basis for its successful operation already has been put in place and it has established a record of response to several disasters.

Planning and Research has led in needs assessments and goal setting. The involvement of a wide cross section of the lay and clergy membership of the Annual Conference has enabled it to come closer to unifying its vision and prioritizing its aims. And Evaluation and Budget Coordination has made great strides in assessing the effectiveness of the resulting programs.

The continued evolution of Glen Lake Camp and our camping and retreat ministries is breathtaking. Eight years ago the Camp was $150,000 in debt because the purchaser of Rainbow Camp defaulted and turned the property back to us. The money from this sale was to cover the cost of property we were purchasing on top of the mountain above Glen Lake. Through the cooperation of a number of people in various strata of leadership in the conference and because of the support of a number of organizations, Glen Lake has experienced a renascence. The increase in number, beauty and utility of facilities is phenomenal. The increase in size and effectiveness of the staff is obvious. Year-round use now is a given, and problems now center on trying to provide room for all who wish to utilize Glen Lake rather than on trying to attract people to it. The results of the past bode well for the future, for Glen Lake is living proof that success breeds success.

The Emmaus movement already was viable when it became part of the work of the Board of Discipleship. The continued growth and vitality of the Walks and of Chrysalis are significant in the life of the conference. The Emmaus Community continues to grow and to provide undergirding spiritual strength within Central Texas. Spiritual Life Retreats for ordained and diaconal ministers have been instrumental in rejuvenating the lives of the spiritual leaders of others.

Strong youth ministry has characterized the Central Texas Conference, especially since an associate council director was assigned to spend 90% of his/her time in such ministry. Youth from this conference regularly give strong national and jurisdictional leadership. The youth ministry of Central Texas is often used as the illustration of what such a ministry should be. Many of the adult leaders are products of our youth ministry.

Creative communications have become a hallmark. From coloring contests which involve thousands in learning about the connectional denomination to which they belong to calendars which daily inform people about the work in which they are involved, there has been the intent to inform and encourage.

I would like to cover every aspect of the Council on Ministries work, but this very brief summary of some of the highlights will have to suffice. However, I must point to the remarkable staff which has given selfless professional leadership. I must mention some of them by name: Annette Vanzant Williams, Mike Wright-Chapman, Mike Ford, Carolyn Stephens, Paula Whitbeck, Janet Wood, Susan Thornburg, Patricia Harrand, Mary Gean Cope, Judy Stafford, Wally Bennett, Frances Nelson, and Tricia Briscoe. Most of the professional staff members have had their abilities so recognized that they have served or are serving in positions of national and jurisdictional leadership. In addition I must acknowledge that the volunteer leadership of ACCOM is all that could have been hoped. Dale Smith has brought indefatigable acumen to her role and has been instrumental in the success of the last four years. The other officers and participants of the council and its boards and committees have made the work possible; without them nothing would have been done. And the work of this quadrennium was achieved because it was erected on the foundation laid by Eugene Robertson and the members of ACCOM and its constituents of the quadrennium before, and because of those who preceded them.

Summaries of ministry are written in conference journals which become part of the archival material of the conference or in reports such as this to councils which puts them in boxes in storerooms until they are so old that they are dumped unread. These reports are not really the results of your work. The true results of the work of the conference through the leadership of this council are written as the Bible says: "not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts."

J. Michael Patison, Director

Reports of Associate Directors

"People were bringing even infants to him that he might touch them; and when the disciples saw it, they sternly ordered them not to do it. But Jesus called for them and said, 'Let the little children come to me, and do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.'" Luke 18:15-17

Until our son was about 2 years old, my husband and I taught him a repetitive prayer: "Now I lay me down to sleep..." As he got older, we added more personal prayers. Now that he is four, we expect him to say his own prayers. Recently, we were saying our prayers and when it was Westin's turn he looked at me and said, "Mom, I don't know what to pray." So I said to him thank God for something or ask God for something. He replied: "Mom, God is not Santa Claus!"...truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.

The kingdom of children is exciting, exhilarating, at times nail biting, but always full of love reflective of God's grace. This past year, I have had the privilege to work with children and adults in ministry for and with children. I taught at Vacation Bible School trainings and Vacation Bible School. Some forty churches requested teacher training workshops last year, of which I was more than happy to accommodate.

In August of 1995, under the leadership of the conference Children's Coordinator, Barbara Howard the conference Children's Council was created. It has been responsible for developing district VBS Trainings. We also have a vision statement: "To nurture children through the ministries of the church by developing models to meet their spiritual and social needs." We will do this through: a) Equipping volunteers dedicated to helping children grow in faith, b) Identifying the needs of children and develop models of ministry with children and c) Involving the total congregation in dialogue with children about faith issues. Some of you may have noticed that "The Children's Corner" has appeared in the United Methodist Reporter. This is one way we communicate the work of the Children's Council. This council will work closely with the Children's Summit task force in implementing local church initiatives.

An initiative that was created last year: The African American Church Teachers program reached more than 60 teachers last year and continues to be requested by African American local churches in their planning for Christian Education.

The Human Sexuality Training program is still active in our annual conference. The training for March has been postponed for later in the year with the change of leadership from one associate to another. I anticipate having three more persons certified in human sexuality this year.

Believing in Children's ministry as I do, I enjoy working with children and so perhaps to that end, God has seen fit to expand my horizons and that of our whole family to include another Vanzant Williams child expected in late May. My responsibilities this coming summer therefore will be very limited. I anticipate taking off most of the summer with a week to attend to my responsibilities with Disciple Bible Study Training in July.

Thank you for letting me serve in ministry to the Central Texas Conference, one more year.

Annette Vanzant Williams, Associate Director

These first six months as associate director have been exciting yet frustrating, energizing yet energy-sapping, fulfilling yet frightening. In addition, they have been challenging, satisfying and educational.

Having served in local church youth ministry for nearly fifteen years, I felt uniquely qualified for this position which is mostly, yet not entirely, focused on youth ministry. Yet, as with any major transition, there have been moments when I knew what to do out of my experience, and many more moments when I was clueless. The grace of God, however, has afforded me wonderful, helpful relationships with conference Council on Youth Ministry veterans who knew exactly what to do, as well as Michael, Annette and Mike, who bring knowledge and wisdom from their vast experience, and an excellent support staff who continually hand me things that need to be done yesterday.

With each day I become a little more comfortable, a little more knowledgeable, and a little less tense about the formidable tasks of this position. It has been my pleasure and privilege to serve the Central Texas Conference for many years as a diaconal minister, and as a volunteer in many arenas of conference life. I am truly grateful to serve in this capacity and believe that we have the greatest youth within all of United Methodism. I look forward to being in your churches, and meeting you around this conference during the many years that follow.

Mike Wright-Chapman, Associate Director

As the 21st century nears, Glen Lake has been working diligently in trying to foresee the needs of the conference and how we might best be of service to both our annual conference users and also our other guests.

As executive director of Glen Lake, I see my responsibilities falling into two general areas. First, I am responsible for the everyday operation of the facility. These responsibilities include health and safety, personnel, maintenance and construction, programming, summer camp, food service, community relations, guest relations, financial oversight, calendaring, marketing, and compliance with state and federal mandates concerning all areas of site operation.

The ministry of Glen Lake handles over $1,000,000 in cash flow each year and that figure is growing. As Glen Lake has grown, so has the staff required to handle the increase in business and programming. Although I keep a close eye on each of the above mentioned areas, we now have a highly proficient staff in place who handle the day to day operations in each of those areas. The greatest asset that we possess is the professional staff now in place. Each of our employees are dedicated to the mission and ministry of Glen Lake and perform in an exceptional manner.

Continuing education in a variety of forms is offered to each employee. Our goal is to provide the best possible experience for each of our guests. Each employee is aware that their contribution is as essential as the next, whether as a group host or cleaning a cabin. As the staff continues to become more professional, the experience for our guests continues to improve. And that is the goal which we keep in front of us at all times.

With such a wonderful staff, I am able to concentrate on the second area of my responsibility. As the conference staff person in charge of camping and retreat ministry, I have a responsibility to be sure that our facilities, operations, and programs continue to stay abreast of a rapidly changing society. I spend a great deal of time working with others in order to find donors who will help us in completing the master plan for Glen Lake. We have been extremely successful in this venture. However, we still have a long way to go! As almost everyone is aware of the many improvements at Glen Lake, I will not belabor this point, except to say that this area does take a great deal of my time (and is worth every minute).

I also spend much time in staying up with national and regional changes in camping. As treasurer of the United Methodist Camp and Retreat Committee, I am in a position to hear and see what is happening in Methodist camps and retreat centers throughout the U.S. I am also in contact with many of the top leaders in the camping field. This contact has been invaluable to me. Not only have I learned what we can do at Glen Lake to improve, but it has verified the fact that Glen Lake is on the cutting edge of Methodist Camping. And I am very proud of that fact.

Our program staff are constantly on the lookout for new ways that we can offer higher levels of ministry to the different constituents which we serve. Along with the present programs offered and the enormous task of preparing for summer camp, the focus for programming this year is, and continues to be, how we can improve the hosting function for each of our guest groups. As changes in the facilities continue to occur, our goal is to continually improve hosting each event and try to anticipate their needs before the groups ask.

In all areas, our task is to stay ahead of the very changing needs of the church and society which we serve. I strongly believe that change is good for this ministry. I try never to "do it this way because we have always done it this way"! Glen Lake is a leader in Methodist camping because, with the blessing of the Central Texas Conference, we are adaptable to those changes occurring around us. Even with great facilities, staff, and programming, we are always looking for the "next step".

My thanks to the Central Texas Conference for encouraging the growth of Glen Lake and for making use of this unique ministry in so many different ways.

Mike Ford, ACCOM Associate Director
Glen Lake Camp and Retreat Center Executive Director

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The work of the Board of Church and Society during the past year is highlighted below. This work is accomplished by a few dedicated and faithful members. Indeed, the greatest challenge of the Board is to garner the full participation of all its members.

A good deal of time and energy was spent revising the Central Texas Conference Sexual Harassment Policy, which was approved at the last session of the Annual Conference. The evaluation of the Born Free/Stay Free program was completed. While the decision was made to discontinue this particular effort, the Board seeks other ways to address the drug and substance abuse concern.

The Board sponsored several courses at Fall University dealing with topics from addressing urban violence to prison ministry to peacemaking in the global context. Also, the Board provided representation for the Central Texas Conference at the General Board of Global Ministry sponsored "Consultation on Christian Ministry in the Midst of Hate and Violence".

Recognizing that the church cannot be the church outside the framework of society, the Board of Church and Society continues its efforts of education, service, witness, and action in the place where God has called the Central Texas Conference to minister.

Clifton Howard, Chairperson

   Goal: To assist local churches in identifying and reaching out to affected families and children in their communities.

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

1995 Board of Discipleship programs and activities were chosen, planned, executed, and evaluated on the basis of how well they helped local congregations to accomplish what we consider to be the church's two top priorities:

1. being disciples of Jesus Christ, individually and corporately; and
2. making disciples.

We address the first of these mainly through the work of the Board's Devotional Life, Education and Leadership Development, Worship, and Stewardship Committees and the annual Harry Hosier Event that the Board sponsors. We address the second mainly through the work of the Board's Evangelism Committee. We have tried to provide leadership, training and inspiration that will help clergy and laity lead local congregations in:

1. reaching out to unchurched people and incorporating them into the church;
2. helping church members to grow in faith and to develop mature and meaningful relationships with God and with other people; and
3. living in the world in a Christlike way and ministering to the world's needs.

Throughout the past 3 years we have focused especially on the discipleship-related areas of emphasis proposed by the conference Planning and Research Committee and adopted by the conference as goals for 1992-96.

The individual board committees' reports that follow describe specific ways in which we have tried to meet the responsibilities during 1995 and the proposed programs/goals for 1997.

11. Clarity, Coordination and Connection
    Goal: To promote cooperation and coordination and connection among the youth groups in our conference and among the administrative levels and groups addressing various needs of youth
12. United Methodist Youth Events Beyond the Annual Conference through publicity, programs of stewardship education, personal contact and by attempting to triple the amount given from the previous year.

14. Fall University
    Goal: To sponsor classes at Fall University to provide training for youth and for the adults who work with them in church

The conference year of 1995 has been one of joy and sadness. With the leaving of the incomparable Mary Gean Cope, we received a young visionary whose love for youth will make him a great coordinator of the youth, Mike Wright-Chapman.

As we have in the past, the conference Council on Youth Ministry has sponsored several events for the youth of our annual conference. The third Youth Annual Conference and Convocation played host to a little over 200 participants; we also sponsored a Wet n' Wild day in August; we sponsored and/co sponsored 11 different classes at Fall University with CCYM members themselves leading 5; in November we had around 350 attend our second Junior High Lock-In which was held in Dallas; again we produce three Mid-Winter Retreats at Glen Lake in February with an attendance of a little more than 800 participants; we sponsored the youth Spiritual Life Retreat at Glen Lake Camp in April with good attendance. For the tenth year we made discount tickets to Wet n' Wild/Fun Sphere and Six Flags available to local churches. We appreciate the hard work of the ACCOM support staff.

Other highlights of the year include:

- 15 CCYM members traveled to Fayetteville, Arkansas, to attend the Jurisdictional Youth Ministry Organization Convocation.
- The Conference had over 80 people attend Youth '95 in Salt Lake City, Utah.
- 3 members of CCYM attended NYMO '95 and represented the conference well.
- Mike Wright-Chapman was named ACCOM Staff Representative to CCYM.

Throughout the year we have truly been blessed not only with great leadership within the youth council but also within the conference, from the local ministers to the Bishop. We are truly thankful for the great support that has been given to us by everyone. We pray that for the 1996-1997 conference year we continue our success and become more Christ like.

Ben Disney, Chairperson

Harry Hosier Event

Proposed Program:

Harry Hosier Celebration

Goals: To utilize songs, prayers, liturgies etc. recognizing the contributions of African Americans; to promote awareness so that every church can celebrate Black history; to increase participation, making the event accessible to all.

The Harry Hosier event is an event that emphasizes the African American contributions and tradition in The United Methodist Church. This is a spirit filled time with dynamic speakers, music from the African American tradition as represented in the "Songs of Zion", and The United Methodist Hymnal. The day is further highlighted as children and youth also learn about persons such as Black Harry, who left their marks on the pages of history.

This past year our theme was, "Speaking and Preaching In a Multi-Cultural World". The event was hosted by St. James United Methodist Church in Waco. Lynn Westfield brought us an inspiring message from the Book of John talking about "The Word". Lynn challenged us to move out of our separate walls of religious comfort and step "up" to our multi-cultural society, our multi-cultural schools and our multi-cultural families.

Mrs. Louise People and the combined African American choir blessed us with songs, and during our break-out session Louise lead the adults in some physical motivation as we danced to a Jewish traditional selection, and "Kum Ba Ya" in different languages. The youth and children were lead into some artistic learning by Berlina Williams.

As a part of our day, the African American teachers in local churches were given awards for participating in the training earlier in the year.

Lunch was served by "Mom and Pops" of Waco and that ended our time together.

Jacquetta Chambers, Chairperson

Committee on Stewardship

Proposed Programs:

Fall University; Local District Stewardship Training

Goal: To increase the tithe at local churches

For the 1995 year the Webber court case and Account Reimbursement Program work was the major work our committee addressed.

Many phone calls to and from the office of Stewardship, Finance and Administration took up quite a few hours of work. Researching tax questions and answering questions from many ministers in the conference also consumed time in 1995.

We held a stewardship work shop at the conference office during the summer of 1995. There were six clergy present. Dick Freeman and I conducted the workshop. Rev. Freeman presented his new stewardship program for review.

My disappointments were that I missed the Fall University workshop and General Conference due to timing conflicts.

Dan Mead, Chairperson

Committee on Worship

Proposed Programs:

1. Fall University
   Goal: To focus on modeling worship that is vibrant and effective through resources.
2. Conference-wide Choir Clinic
   Goal: to provide a one day choir workshop to involve the music leadership and choir members of congregations in the Central Texas Conference.
3. Youth Choir Rally
   Goal: To provide an annual two day event when youth from the congregations of the Central Texas Conference can come together.
4. Worship Models of Ministry
   Goal: To focus on modeling worship that is vibrant and effective through resources.

BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

During this quadrennium, the Board of Global Ministries has expanded its programming to include the development of a covenant relationship with the Eastern Annual Conference of the Methodist Church of Mexico, an expanded emphasis on small membership/rural ministries, the establishment of a Disaster Response Committee, many conference-wide work days coordinated through Volunteers in Mission, the development of the Global Mission Partners program in the annual conference, continuing support for the Cooperative School of Christian Mission, continued support of our health institutions, increased emphasis on the resettlement of refugees, the development of awareness of shared facilities, and the addition and support of emerging urban ministries.

Each year we have examined our goals and our stewardship of the funds allotted to us. We have evaluated areas of emerging ministry and mission in order to best serve the people of the Central Texas Conference. We thank the Annual Conference for your continued support for all of God's children. Judith Sands, Chairperson

Small Membership/Rural Ministries Committee

Proposed Programs:

1. Equipping small membership churches for ministry
   Goals:
   - Develop district ministry teams in Nurture, Outreach and Witness to work within their districts.
   - Newsletter in coordinated mailings
   - Use the Methodist Reporter to promote concerns, resources and ministries of small membership churches.
   - Promote Rural Life Sunday the first Sunday in August and distribute the funds to assist rural churches in their ministries.
2. Promote concerns of the Rural Church and Community
   Goal: Conversation with Harris Methodist Health Systems to determine the coverage of rural health care and ways to provide for health care in the rural areas of Central Texas Conference evaluating budgetary distribution of small membership churches in proportion to pastor's salary, apportionments, programs, and administration.
3. Involvement in Conference Program
   Goals:
   - Increase conference awareness of Town and Country Church Conference
   - Work with United Methodist Rural Fellowship
   - Provide Fall University courses for small membership churches using resources from within our conference

The Small Membership/Rural Ministries Committee continues to be an advocate and education group for small membership churches in the Central Texas Conference. In 1995, our committee continued its newsletter in the coordinated mailings. Marvin Moore was our editor who brought us ideas and challenges for ministry. We sponsored a luncheon at annual Conference at which time we received our charter for our conference Chapter of United Methodist Rural Fellowship. We promoted Rural Life Sunday, and because of your offerings, we were able to give grants to two churches to enable them to be in ministry with children in the rural area. Our ministry team taught in district training events. We were disappointed that we were not invited to individual churches to share our resources. We were, however, able to assist the Waco and Temple Districts to acquire the NOW training manuals for the churches in their districts. We also placed one manual in the conference Resource Center. Once again we worked with licensing school providing a resource person to teach administration. Jim Reeves attended the Annual Town and Country Church Conference at Texas A & M. We continue to offer the Texas A & M course, "The Church in Rural America". Our committee also sponsored courses at Fall University.

I thank you for allowing me to give leadership to this committee this quadrennium. It is only because of the willingness of the committee members and others we asked to become involved, that we have been able to accomplish our ministry to the small membership churches. I am grateful for each of you giving of yourselves and your time.

Susan Trammell, Chairperson

Disaster Response Committee

2. For conference Coordinator to be able to tour the disaster sites
   Goal: To assess damage, call for help where needed. (to mobilize the team)

The Central Texas Conference Committee on Disaster Preparedness and Response continues its work to organize itself, the districts and local churches for disaster response. Each district now has a Disaster Preparedness and Response coordinator. The conference as a whole responded to the May 1995 Wind and Hail Storm through a workday with approximately 300 people working. The committee learned much from this event and continues to work to improve the Central Texas Conference's disaster response.

Two classes were presented at Fall University for disaster response:

1. Virginia Miller, National Director, led the classes on "Being Prepared for Disaster". Kathy Green, Dan Hitt, Grant Jacobs, Tami Polenz, Buddy Stegman, Hubert Strom, Al Tune and Wilma Tune were previously certified and listed on the UMCOR Network for disaster response. This year we added these: Louise Airheart, Jay L. Beavers, Michael Bledsoe, Wilford B. Carlisle, Wayne Drummond, Jeannine Snell.
2. Sarah Leach, Diaconal Minister at First United Methodist Church, Arlington, and the Central Texas Conference Children's Coordinator for Disaster Response led the "Spiritual and Emotional Care of Children Who Have Experienced Disaster" course. James Bell, Betsy Godbold, Sarah Leach, Sue Patten, Laurie Taylor, Debi Tucker, and Jan L. White were previously certified and listed in the UMCOR Network for disaster response. We added these: Virginia Boggess, Scott Brown, Tracy Brown, Gwen Clay, Merry Crippen, Sarah Miller, Amy Roberts, Dan Roberts, Jeanna Stewart, Cindy Suffka.

We are so privileged to have these numbers growing and we ask the districts to please see that they are involved in their local church organization and possibly in the district organization.

Wilma Tune, Chairperson

The 1997 Cooperative School of Christian Mission format will be determined later.
7. Training for Board of Global Ministries District Secretaries in providing quality leadership to districts and churches through Education and the Advance. This will be the first training for new quadrennium.
   Goal: To hold a training event for the District Secretaries so that current mission programs and resources can be distributed; training in effective interpretation of mission programs and opportunities offered through the United Methodist Church.
8. Increase giving to World Hunger Advance Special and the One Great Hour of Sharing Offering.
   Goal: To use the formula, one cent/member/day, for support of the UMCOR world advance special and have 100% participation by local churches in the One Great Hour of Sharing Offering.
9. 100 % participation in at least one Advance Special by all churches in the Central Texas Annual Conference.
   Goal: To increase the financial giving and participation through education and the information.
10. To continue the promotion of Mission Moments during the Sunday worship service.
    Goal: To provide resources, training workshop at Fall University, and assist mission chairpersons and ministers in telling about our mission work.
11. To assist missionaries on home assignment and visiting missionaries to our annual conference with financial resources for housing, meals and travel.
    Goal: To provide part of the cost for missionaries while they visit the churches of our annual conference.
12. To support the Bishop's appeal for Africa program.
    Goal: To share information on Africa appeal and seek support from the churches.
13. Support "The Encounter With Christ In Latin American and Caribbean" program.
    Goal: To provide resource information on the work being conducted and the goals for future ministry.

There were many good programs and experiences in 1995 with Education and the Advance. Our goals were met, exceeded, or demonstrated significant progress. The highlights of 1995 include:

- Communication and visitation took place during the year between the Central Texas Conference and the Eastern Annual Conference of the Methodist Church of Mexico. The EAC is studying the proposed covenant relationship and we will be bringing a formal recommendation to the 1996 annual conference session in Fort Worth.
- New covenant relationships were established and existing covenants renewed.
- Our annual conference had 100% participation in supporting the Advance.

- Mission experiences, learning, and programs have expanded in the area of youth ministry through the VIM trips and conference work days.
- We placed our Fall University resources behind one class that was very well presented and attended.
- The Cooperative School of Christian Missions was separated into a summer and fall school due to scheduling problems at Southwestern University. This was a new approach to the SCM, however, the success is seen in the record number of first time registrations at the fall school.

I wish to thank the members of the Education and Advance Committee for their many hours of work to provide quality mission education, training and support during the past four years. You have been a tremendous asset to the annual conference in this capacity.

Mexico Covenant Committee

The Mexico Covenant Committee has represented our side in the development of a covenant relationship with the Eastern Annual Conference of the Methodist Church of Mexico. In June and July 1994 our two conferences approved in principle the establishment of a mutually agreed upon relationship. Visits back and forth included the visit to their Annual Conference session by Grant Jacobs and Andy Fowler; and the visit to several districts in our conference by the Rev. Pedro Garcia Carlos and the attendance at our Cooperative School of Christian Mission by Patricia Peña de León.

We are grateful for the support of the whole Board of Global Ministries, and especially the Committee on Education and the Advance which has encouraged and funded this new initiative in mutual mission over the last three years. In July 1995 the Eastern Annual Conference accepted the covenant relationship document. Our Board of Global Ministries is recommending that at this session our conference, also, accept this document. (document to follow)

If this document is accepted, and we believe it will be, our Mexico Covenant Committee and their comisión de Enlace will continue to promote mutuality in mission that is dynamic, growing, expanding, and beneficial to both conferences. Thank you for your continuing prayers and support.

J. Andy Fowler, Chairperson

COVENANT RELATIONSHIP Between the
CENTRAL TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
EASTERN ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH OF MEXICO

PREAMBLE: It is always easier to discuss changes we would like to see occur in the church; it is something quite different to take an active step toward turning obstacles into achievements. Every conference, every church, every Christian struggles in the tension between "things hoped for" and the daily reality we encounter each morning. We seek to establish this covenant relationship because we believe that our churches, members and ministries have much to offer each other. Our goal is to establish a covenant that is dynamic, growing, expanding and beneficial to both conferences.

THEREFORE: we encourage exchanges between our conferences (including, but not limited to):

- reciprocal visitation
- reciprocal work/mission teams
- prayer requests exchanged through regular correspondence
- the exchange of pastors, youth and adults in the areas of evangelism, nurture and outreach projects
- dialogue and education on issues of common interests
- celebrating the creative work of the Holy Spirit at work in both conferences.

OUR COMMON GOALS:

The Mexico Covenant Committee of the Central Texas Conference and the Comisión de Enlace of the Eastern Annual Conference, desire to see a closer relationship between our two Annual Conferences. We understand participation in this covenant relationship by local churches and members in both conferences to be based on these common goals:

1. All financial gifts shall be channeled through the General Board of Global Ministries as Advance Specials, utilizing the Partnership in Mission catalog.
2. Volunteers in Mission or other volunteer teams shall provide labor or services only under the direction of the conference, agency, or local church of the receiving conference, and shall be sensitive to indigenous labor needs.
3. Our goals of mutual sharing shall work for improving the spiritual, physical, and emotional condition of life. All programs will be socially just and ecologically sustainable. That all programs will be designed to strengthen the church.
4. Changes in the covenant may be offered by either conference and negotiated between the respective designated conference representatives.
5. Upon acceptance by both annual conferences, this covenant relationship will continue for five years. At the end of five years the covenant relationship would be reviewed by both conferences and appropriate recommendations exchanged for continuation or cessation of the covenant.

OUR COMMITMENT: This relationship is a covenant of prayer, a covenant of commitment, and a covenant offered to each other in response to a desire to grow in the Christian faith. May God graciously bless this covenant relationship, binding our hearts and service through the Holy Spirit.

Global Mission Partners

Proposed Program:

Global Mission Partners

Goal: 10% of churches in the Central Texas Conference fully participating in the Global Mission Partners program by the end of the quadrennium - increase number of churches participating by 5 in 1997.

1995 was a much improved year for the Global Mission Partners program in the Central Texas Conference. Six churches have agreed to become or remain Global Mission Partner congregations - with several others showing interest in the future. The six congregations are: Green's Creek United Methodist Church, Stephenville First United Methodist Church, Crawford United Methodist Church, St. John's Georgetown United Methodist Church, Ferris Heights United Methodist Church, and Oglesby United Methodist Church.

The national office for the program hired Sharon Rubey, who seems to be doing a excellent job in revitalizing and organizing the program for the General Board of Global Ministries. In addition, Rev. Charles Miller, a jurisdictional coordinator was our teacher for a Fall University course - and he was quite impressed with the opportunity to tell the story of this program, as well as with the excitement of the congregations represented in his class.

The steps necessary to become a Global Mission Partner congregations are:

1) Pay 100% of apportionments
2) Have an ongoing program of mission education;
3) Provide congregational service to the local community;
4) Pledge support for international persons-in-mission; and
6) Tell the story to other congregations.

Paula Whitbeck, Chairperson

Committee on Health and Welfare

Proposed Goals:

1. Annual Conference Health and Welfare Luncheon
   Goal: to provide an extended session of Annual Conference during the noon hour for presentations by the Health and Welfare Institutions that are in relationship with the church conference.
2. Golden Cross Support
   Goal: To promote within the local church the observance of the Golden Cross Sunday offering and to provide information on the benefits of Golden Cross.
3. Promoting ministries to the persons and their families with disabling conditions (to include ministries to: health impaired, physically disabled, deaf/hard of hearing, blind, mentally and emotionally disabled, developmentally delayed).
   Goals:
   a) Establish subcommittees within local churches to address needs of persons and their families who are affected/effected.
   b) Provide interpreter for hearing impaired/deaf at Annual Conference worship services.
   c) Sponsor a pilot program, seminar, course on developing ministries related to disabled.
   d) Provide information and education on available accessibility guidelines and on American Disabilities Act (ADA).
   e) Establish and continue linking relationships with Central Texas Conference AIDS Task Force, community AIDS agencies/services, Inclusive Leadership Committee, Board of Church and Society, Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns.
   f) Survey local churches as to their needs for ministries to and with disabled persons.
4. Financial contributions for stipends for two persons to receive Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) training.
   Goal: To provide scholarship stipends for two persons to receive Clinical Pastoral Education and credits
   *NOTE: The interest earned on the hospital contribution to the CPE Endowment Fund is at a much lower level than anticipated at this date due to lessening of hospital system's loss profits. Full funding of CPE Endowment is dependent upon profits of system and full funding date is unknown at this time.
5. CTC United Methodist Church AIDS Task Force
   Goal: To educate, train and facilitate local churches in developing and implementing ministries for the emerging needs related to HIV/AIDS.
6. Deaf Ministry Program
   Goal: To promote a pilot program of deaf ministry within the Central Texas Conference.

The Central Texas Conference Health and Welfare Committee has served as liaison between the local church and Annual conference and general church health and welfare division. As part of this committee's annual goals there was promotion of the conference's Health and Welfare Institutions (which include Harris Methodist Hospital, Methodist Home, Methodist Mission Home, and Wesleyan Homes); training district leaders on health and welfare concerns; promoting an awareness of church and community response to the American Disabilities Act (ADA); and support of local churches in providing education and programs on persons and their families who have been affected and effected by handicapping conditions.

All goals and programs of the conference Health and Welfare Committee are designed to help people achieve and maintain a sense and state of well-being. Health and Welfare ministries provide for the use of gifts and skills that encourage wholeness and empowerment of people to care for themselves and for others.

Joan Gaspard, Chairperson

ALDERSGATE ENRICHMENT CENTER

(Resolution, Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of Aldersgate Enrichment Center, Inc. are found on pages 228-238 of the 1987 Journal.)

Aldersgate has had another great year. We moved this year to our own property and into our new buildings. We are serving 29 associates and have a staff of 16. We are servicing 8 contracts and have a very effective recycle operation. God continues to bless us with all the work we can handle and the good people to get it done. Financially it was a real challenge to move, expand, and train our people. We did it and have been blessed by so many individuals and churches that have supported us. Two new groups have been organized this year. Promise is our Aldersgate choir. It consists of 9 associates who practice each week to sing God's praises. They have performed at several local churches and at events on our campus. The Aldersgate Blue Jays is our athletic team that participates in Special Olympics. They have competed in several Special Olympic events this fall and spring. Each of these new groups, as well as several other programs, is designed to contribute to the overall well-being of the associates. They are the greatest bunch of people to work with in the world. I know that is a big statement but we invite everyone in the conference to come visit and see for yourselves.

The board has set a goal this year of building two new group homes. These homes will allow us to establish an on-campus ministry. With this, Aldersgate will finally be doing what the dream has always been, serving individuals from all over the state and nation. There are so many people that need our help and need the association with God in their lives. The urgency to get the on-campus ministry started is felt by us all. The "bricks" are coming in. In time they will build a building.

Brownwood has now formed an Aldersgate Advisory Council that will be used to keep the citizens of Brownwood informed as to the contributions that we are making to the local area. They will also help to raise money in the local area. God sends help as we need it. This year has been one BIG "Thank you, Lord."

HARRIS METHODIST HEALTH SYSTEM

(The Relationship Statement Between the Central Texas Conference and The Harris Methodist Health System is found on pages 151-152 of the 1995 Journal.)

Introduction:
"Mission Committee Formed to Focus on Community Health Care Needs"

To improve the health of all people in each community we serve.

For more than half a century, the Harris Methodist Health System has labored tirelessly to fulfill its stated mission. Through the development of an outstanding group of community-based health care facilities, ongoing collaboration with existing community resources and determined educational efforts aimed at promoting wellness and prevention in every segment of the communities served, Harris Methodist has made significant progress towards the realization of its goal. Harris Methodist Health System is committed to continuing excellence in every area, from hospitals to health plans to community services.

That commitment is embodied in Harris Methodist's newly-formed Mission Committee. The Mission Committee was created by Harris Methodist's Board of Trustees to further demonstrate Harris Methodist's commitment to community health through leadership and/or collaboration with existing community resources.

Report No. 1
"Harris Methodist Donates More Than $35 Million and 5,000 Volunteer Hours to the Community"

In 1995 alone, the Harris Methodist Health System donated a total of $35,249,048 in funds and services to needy individuals and charitable organizations. Approximately $16 million in charitable hospital services were given to patients with critical medical needs who could not afford to pay. The remaining monies were spent in support of a wide variety of programs.

In addition to these funds, Harris Methodist Associates logged more than 5,000 hours of community volunteer work in 1995 -- an average of 14 hours a day, seven days a week, 365 days a year.

Some of the programs which benefited from the support of Harris Methodist included the Shots For Tots initiative in Cleburne, the Fort Worth Adopt-A-School program, and volunteers who provided emergency care during the Mayfest hail storm.

A partial breakdown of Harris Methodist's funds for charity and community support includes:

Harris Methodist Hospitals $28,695,344
Harris Methodist Foundation 5,472,968
Harris Methodist Community Affairs 390,000

Report No. 2
"Two Top 100 Hospitals"

Harris Methodist Health System's commitment to excellence is gaining nationwide recognition. For the second year in a row, two Harris Methodist Health System hospitals -- Harris Methodist Fort Worth and Walls Regional Hospital in Cleburne -- were named among the nation's Top 100 hospitals. This honor was bestowed upon the Harris Methodist facilities after an intensive study of nearly 4,000 acute-care hospitals across the United States. The study was conducted by HCIA, a Baltimore-based health care information company, and New York-based Mercer Health Provider Consulting.

Only 29 hospitals nationwide made the list two years in a row.

Hospitals were rated on eight measures of clinical, operational and financial performance. The measures indicate high value to customers through effective use of resources, efficient provision of care and high-quality outcomes.

Report No. 3
"First Health Care System in Texas to Receive Highest Accreditation"

Improving the community's health begins with a commitment to ongoing improvements in community health care facilities. The Harris Methodist Health System has made that commitment.

In 1995, the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations (JCAHO) awarded each of the seven hospitals that make up the Harris Methodist Health System its highest accreditation possible: Accreditation With Commendation.

Only 12 percent of all hospitals surveyed nationwide were awarded this level of accreditation. In addition, no other health care system in Texas has ever had all of its hospitals receive this accreditation.

The JCAHO is made up of representatives from the American Hospital Association, American Medical Association, American College of Physicians and the American College of Surgeons. Their Accreditation With Commendation ranking recognizes exemplary performance in more than 700 categories reviewed by the survey team.

Report No. 4
"The Nation's Fastest-Growing Provider-Owned HMO"

In 1986, the Harris Methodist Health System recognized the urgent need for vast improvements in the nation's health care delivery system. Harris Methodist Health Plan was established in response to that need. The Health Plan's mission is to improved health care delivery by making it more accessible and affordable to every resident of the Metroplex.

The response to this approach to health care delivery has been exceptional. In 1995, Modern Healthcare magazine recognized Harris Methodist Health Plan as the fastest-growing provider-owned Health Maintenance Organization in the entire nation.

Harris Methodist's five-year enrollment growth of more than 228% ranks the 10-year old health plan as one of the fastest-growing HMOs in Texas. In 1995, Harris Methodist Health Plan membership increased nearly 40% to more than 250,000 members.

Report No. 5
"Tarrant's First Multidisciplinary Cancer Center Nears Completion"

Construction neared completion in 1995 on the long-awaited Klabzuba Cancer Center, Tarrant County's first multidisciplinary cancer facility offering the total continuum of cancer care.

The Klabzuba Cancer Center will provide cancer patients and their families with a full range of quality programs and services, sharply reducing the need for cancer patients to leave Tarrant County in order to receive the treatment they need. Services will run the gamut of the continuum of care, from prevention and early detection to treatment and support services. The facility will feature a comprehensive cancer library and resource center, which will provide in-depth reference services, patient health education programs and consumer health information. The Klabzuba Cancer Center will also house Harris Methodist's cancer registry, the largest ongoing registry in Tarrant County.

"Senior Health Plan More Than Triples Its Enrollment"

The Harris Methodist Senior Health Plan, designed specifically to provide quality health care management for Medicare beneficiaries, enrolled more than 15,000 seniors in its very first year of operation, representing approximately 20% of the Tarrant County senior population.

The Senior Health Plan contracts with Medicare to provide health maintenance services, and usually makes supplemental Medicare insurance unnecessary. Currently, the plan features 150 primary care doctors and 830 specialists, all of whom accept Medicare.

The Harris Methodist Senior Health Plan anticipates expansion into the areas surrounding Tarrant County by 1997.

Report No. 7
"International Activities"

Since receipt of the 1994 International Health and Welfare Ministries Award from the Health and Welfare Ministries Program Department of the General Board of Global Ministries, the Harris Methodist Health System has expanded its international activities, and in particular its pioneering home health programs for acute care patients in Central Europe. The Harris home health program in Hungary has grown steadily since it was initiated, and has been enthusiastically accepted by patients, doctors and the Hungarian government which provides funding for the program. In the neighboring Republic of Slovakia, Harris Methodist has entered into an agreement to begin a home health program for acute care patients, in cooperation with that nation's largest private health insurance company.

In addition to providing a badly needed service to these countries, it is anticipated that the home health programs will generate a profit for the Harris Methodist Health System.

Mission Statement: To express God's love by providing superior services that protect, support and enhance the lives of children, youth and their families.

Methodist Home, Waco, Texas

This year the Methodist Home Boy's Ranch and the Methodist Home Family Services and Counseling Center will observe their twenty-fifth birthday at the Methodist Home Commissioners' meeting Tuesday and Wednesday, October 8 & 9, 1996 on the campus at Methodist Home, Waco, Texas. Twenty-five years of expansion to meet the needs of hurting children and troubled families has been a part of the saga that makes up our journey together as the Methodist Home in affiliation with the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Methodist Home has completed a 105-year journey with the United Methodists, a journey during the last 18 months that increased our placements by providing 7,457 additional days of care. Our expanded efforts in providing services to children and their families through a Partnership in Parenting program is also making a valuable contribution to the church at large by enabling the Home to provide prevention services in keeping a family together.

Now, with that next telephone call from a pastor about a hurting family, that inquiry from a school counselor about a troubled student, or the referral from the social worker, we are committed to continue making a difference with children and families. Your prayers, interest and financial support have helped us to make the journey. We are grateful that you help make our ministry possible. Please continue to remember the children, youth and families of the Methodist Home.

METHODIST MISSION HOME OF TEXAS

(The Relationship Statement Between The Methodist Mission Home of Texas, Inc. and the Central Texas Annual Conference appears on pages 166-169 of the 1987 Journal.)

Our 100th Birthday Year - 1995. What a great and exciting year it was! The year started with great excitement with the 100 Year Celebration in April. Over 650 guests gathered in the new Activity Building for the Worship Celebration and the consecration of the new building. The unveiling of the painting commissioned for the Centennial, "Christ and the Children" painting, by Dr. Kenneth Wyatt, was a special moment. The festivities continued with a Texas barbecue lunch, gospel music and tours of the campus.

In 1995, the board completed a national search for the new MMH President and, in February, appointed Larry Watson. Mr. Watson had served as the vice president of Methodist Mission Home for eight (8) years. After appointing the president, board and staff worked together in recruiting, interviewing and selecting a new Director of Development,

Director of Rehabilitation/SCHI and Director of Finance/Physical Plant. The Executive Staff of Methodist Mission Home is:

Randy Garver, CPA, Director of Finance/Physical Plant
Bryce Hatch, MDiv, MSW, Director Family/Children's Services
Leslie Lewis, MA, Director of Development
Patti Singleton, PhD., Director/Rehabilitation Services/SCHI
Larry Watson, MA MSSW, President

Much of the staff work in 1995 was recognized early in 1996. Methodist Mission Home has been awarded the EAGLE Accreditation (Educational Assessment Guidelines Leading Toward Excellence) by the United Methodist Health and Welfare Association and is to receive the award at the National Convention in Cleveland, Ohio, on April 13th.

Many of the organizational accomplishments in 1995 were completed as a part of the EAGLE Self-Study process. As a part of the study process, a strategic plan was created, a new mission statement was developed, new by-laws were adopted and the Board of Trustees restructured. Continuous quality improvement was implemented throughout MMH. Additionally, an employee assistance contract was developed and a human resources review was completed including a compensation study and review of personnel policies and practices.

Service Programs - The most important thing we accomplished in 1995 (and all years) was serving our clients in the name of Jesus Christ. Sixty-one infants were placed with their adoptive families. Birth parents and adoptive parents received comprehensive adoption services and 128 Rehabilitation/SCHI clients received the full range of comprehensive training services. The following is a report of clients served in each program area:

Infants placed in adoption	61	Post-adoption services	266
Birth mothers served	438	Information/Referral Call/SCHI	946
Birth fathers served	250	Total Rehab/SCHI Clients Served	128
Prospective adoptive parents	1677	Family members	70
Grand total clients served 1996			4084

Finance - MMH completed 1995 with an excess of revenues over expenses of $32,000. The 1995 audit will be presented to the conference.

United Methodist churches in the Central Texas Conference gave $33,031.64 in financial support to Methodist Mission Home in 1995.

Report No. 1

During the past year, the Board of Trustees of Wesleyan Homes adopted a new Vision Statement and Mission Statement.

The Vision of Wesleyan Homes

Wesleyan Homes is an inclusive ministry of Christ with older adults through the people of the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church.

We value older adults as spiritual resources and as independent individuals with dignity and worth, functioning within an interdependent community.

The Mission of Wesleyan Homes

The ministry of Wesleyan Homes enables older adults:
to live securely and independently in a homelike environment;
to be connected to the family, church, and community;
and to exercise choice in treatment, services, and living arrangements.

The ministry provides older adults:
a comprehensive range of affordable, quality services in a variety of settings; facilities designed to promote social interaction and protect privacy; and charitable assistance in instances of need.

In addition, this ministry promotes a public vision of healthy aging through:
education of families and the community on issues of aging; development of volunteer resources and church involvement;
and advocacy in the church and public forums.

As a ministry of the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Wesleyan Homes is open to all older adults regardless of race, religion, or ethnicity.

Wesleyan Homes provided charitable care in three ways during 1995.

1. $18,189 in direct benevolent assistance was given to residents. This is aid given to individuals whose income falls a few hundred dollars short of the cost of care in the retirement facility or residents whose income is above the Medicaid cut off amount, but less than the cost of care in the nursing facility. The Mother's Day Offering for Wesleyan Homes taken by the churches of the Central Texas Conference goes entirely to the Benevolent Fund which provides for this charitable assistance.

2. $155,310 was given in care to subsidize Medicaid residents. The rate paid by the State of Texas for a Medicaid patient falls short of the actual cost of care delivered by Wesleyan Homes. The state pays the same rate to any nursing facility in the state for patient care. Nursing facilities with higher staffing and those spending more on food and services must supplement the Medicaid reimbursement.

3. The rates charged to residents include necessary upkeep and repair, but do not provide for all capital improvements. During 1995, $262,709 was spent at the Georgetown facilities for improvement, including upgrading the elevators and replacing corridor carpeting in the Retirement Home, and replacing the carpeting, wallcoverings, and furniture in the lobby of the Nursing Home. These improvement add quality to our resident's lives, and are accomplished through charitable gifts and earnings on a small endowment created by charitable gifts.

In addition to providing charitable care, Wesleyan Homes, Inc. provides training for professionals from several different disciplines and responds to other service needs in the community.

- On-site geriatric training is provided to Registered Nursing students of Central Texas College.
- An in-house education department provides training with stipend for Nurse Aids.
- Seven month internships with stipend are provided for Master's students in Gerontology though the University of North Texas.
- Internships are provided for students from the Psychology and Social Work Departments of Southwestern University.
- Community education programs are provided on subjects such as Living Wills and Medical Treatment Decisions, Death and Dying, Alzheimer's Disease, and support programs for care givers.
- Wesleyan Homes is involved with local elementary and middle schools in an "Adopt A Grandparent" program. Classes visit the facility biweekly during the school year.
- Volunteers in Georgetown gave over 6,000 hours of service during 1995. These hours are spent in providing special individual attention to residents and providing activities like arts and crafts, sing-alongs, Bible studies, etc. Wesleyan Homes is truly blessed with a wonderful group of volunteers.

The Board of Trustees is committed to maintain "charitable ministry" as the core value of Wesleyan Homes. The conference's purpose in establishing homes for older adults was to serve those who were otherwise not served in society because of financial need or old age. The quality of the facilities and services and the involvement of local volunteers provide a Christian care setting that is not found elsewhere.

Report No. 2

The Board of Trustees of Wesleyan Homes has identified two priorities for the future of the ministry of Wesleyan in the Georgetown area. The longer term goal is to establish a new campus on the west side of Georgetown to meet the needs of the tremendous population growth in this area. At this time, Wesleyan would like to acquire the site for the future campus. The immediate short term priority is to build an Alzheimer's Care Unit adjacent to the existing Nursing Home. The Annual Conference has historically, and by specific reference in Wesleyan Home's Articles of Incorporation, approved the debt limit for the establishment of any new facilities of Wesleyan Homes. A draft resolution is attached for Conference approval.

At this writing, Wesleyan Homes is still actively engaged in a fund raising campaign to provide a new facility in Tarrant County. Charitable dollars are necessary in establishing new facilities because the nursing care and assisted living portions of a campus do not have entry fees associated with them and we cannot afford to build and operate facilities that are good places to live in, offering first rate care, without having a good down payment in the project. Wesleyan's Board has generously supported the Tarrant County Project but ultimately realizes that the success of that project is dependent on the success of our fund-raising, which will, in large part, need to come from that area of the Conference. The Board sees little affect that the Tarrant County Project would have on Georgetown or vice versa. Wesleyan is not changing its priorities but recognizing multiple needs, and is committed to working with the local congregations to meet those needs.

The population of Georgetown will likely triple in the next ten years. The Austin American Statesman reported in March of 1996 that Williamson County (where Georgetown is located) is the second fastest growing urban county in the country. Fueling much of this growth are the many international high tech firms that are locating in the north Austin and Round Rock area. Of particular consequence to Wesleyan in Georgetown is Dell Webb Corporation's Sun City Georgetown. This 5,300 acre upscale development is projected to be home to 18,000 older adults in ten years.

The first 300 closings on newly constructed Sun City homes occurred in March of 1996. Sun City will have four golf courses, a community center, and other amenities. Dell Webb builds and sells homes with deed restrictions that one member of the household must be 55 years of age or more and that no one under 21 may reside there year round. Wesleyan has already had admissions where Sun City residents were bringing their aging parents to Georgetown. The Sun City population will generate a need for Wesleyan services within a five to ten year period.

Wesleyan Homes is currently working with the Conference's Commission of Church Growth and Development to buy a common site on the main thoroughfare leading to Sun City in west Georgetown. The church would like to have frontage on this key street. By buying a larger parcel of land together with Wesleyan Homes, the overall cost per acre can be reduced for the church. Wesleyan can have access to this street without paying the full cost for frontage property. These financial advantages to the joint location are however, of secondary importance. The residents of Wesleyan Retirement Home have long enjoyed being able to walk to either St. John's or First Church Georgetown and participate fully in the life of the Church. Continuing this tradition of close proximity will allow the residents of the new Campus to continue in the full fellowship of the church and provide a rich source of mission opportunity and inter-generational programming to the church.

The new campus of Wesleyan Homes may be some 5 or so years away from development. It will likely have as a first component an assisted living facility to serve those needing some supervision and assistance with bathing and dressing but who do not need to be in a nursing facility. Wesleyan would like to purchase 20 acres of land, next to the church's 10 acres to secure this future dream.

The Board of Wesleyan Homes, in analyzing the Georgetown operations, has set a top priority on putting an Alzheimer's Dementia Care Unit on the nursing home campus. Wesleyan Nursing Home already serves many residents suffering from Alzheimer's type dementia and related disorders. The departments of nursing, activities, social work and chaplaincy work together offering a multi disciplinary activities program for the Alzheimer's residents. We are committed to not using chemical and physical restraints to manage wandering and disruptive residents. However, a separate facility for these residents would reduce the daily frustration in their lives as they unwittingly wander into another resident's room and have to be removed and even perhaps get fussed at by the other residents. Wesleyan has made a study of the state of the art in environmental design and programming that can give these residents the most enjoyable and stress free life possible. The need in the surrounding community is great for a first class Alzheimer's facility as opposed to what is sometimes offered as such, but is really a locked back ward offering nothing special in the way of design, or programming.

The proposed 40 bed Alzheimer's Care Unit will have wandering paths planned into its public area's. It will have open access to a secure and beautiful courtyard. The activity complex will include areas for music and crafts as well as specially planned areas where it is OK to open cabinets and drawers and find safe things inside, reminiscent of home. Resident rooms will open onto residential living areas instead of institutional corridors and the large scale of the institution will be broken down into homelike living areas.

Wesleyan is asking the annual Conference for permission for Wesleyan to conduct a capital campaign and to adopt a resolution authorizing the purchase of a new campus and the development of an Alzheimer's Care Unit, and the borrowing of the necessary funds for these projects. The Resolution allows Wesleyan to borrow up to $2,500,000 for these purposes. Wesleyan projects its actual borrowing needs to be a few hundred thousand dollars less than this limit.

Refugee Resettlement

Proposed Programs:

1. Refugee Resettlement
   Goal: Achieve three refugee resettlements in the conference through local church or district sponsorship.
2. Presentation of District Model to District Council on Ministries of the Central Texas Conference.
   Goal: To achieve refugee resettlement in the Central Texas Conference.
3. Refugee Resettlement
   Goal: To involve districts of the conference in refugee resettlement.

During the 1995/96 year, a model was written on achieving refugee resettlement on the district level, as requested by UMCOR and the General Board of Global Ministries. This was based on the two resettlements achieved in the Central Texas conference through the Waco District in recent years.

In addition, a grant of $390 was given by the conference to the Waco District to complete citizenship application for U.S. Citizenship of the Nowak family in Waco.

Promotional materials were made available at Annual Conference on the plight of refugees and the need for resettlements through the Church.

Glenn Jones, Chairperson

Committee on Shared Facilities

Proposed Goals:

1. Updating of brochure to be offered through coordinated mailing that encourages and informs about sharing facilities.
2. To communicate to the conference that this is a way of furthering ministry to diverse communities, and a way of being good stewards of present church facilities.
3. To increase the number of churches offering their facilities for worship and ministry to other peoples, especially in changing communities and to ethnic minorities.
4. To expand the impact of ministry in The United Methodist Church to all groups, communities and peoples.
5. To make a manual for Shared Facilities and the Model for Covenanting between both parties available to churches in this process.

We celebrate the many churches in our conference in diverse communities who presently share their facilities as a way to further ministry and to further good stewardship of their facilities. Some of the churches presently sharing facilities are Service Memorial/Korean; First Arlington/Hispanic; Good Shepherd/Vietnamese; Polytechnic/Hispanic; and there are many others who have done this and many exploring the possibilities. If there are churches sharing their facilities this committee is not aware of and churches we can be of help to in this process, please contact us.

Michael Ramsdell, Chairperson

3. Southside Area Ministries, Inc.

underemployed, disadvantaged residents;
- Help clients become self-supporting;

- Alleviate drug abuse and gambling in our high crime area.

6. Hispanic Ministry of Polytechnic/Buen Samaritano United Methodist Church
   Goal: This ministry seeks to educate and minister to needy people through ESL classes, worship, Sunday school, and social services.
7. Fall University 1997
   Goal: to identify at least one area of need for training to empower churches and people to participate in ministry in one or more of our urban centers. To recruit a well-trained, experienced and dynamic leader to conduct at least one Fall University session in 1997.
8. Urban Missionaries Program
   Goal: To participate (and facilitate this participation) in conference community service projects.

Several months ago, a Christian conference on "Rebuilding Community" was held at Will Rogers Memorial Auditorium in Fort Worth. One of the speakers, a lay person active in neighborhood ministries, offered these memorable words: "God is concerned about drive-by shootings, but he is also concerned about drive-by churches. Too many church leaders just drive by our neighborhoods rather than going out and developing relationships with the people there." (Fort Worth Star-Telegram, July 20, 1994)

The Urban Ministries Committee of the Central Texas Conference Board of Global Ministries seeks to help Central Texas conference congregations address some of the challenging issues of life in our cities. The goals of our Board and Committee are to serve "the last, the least and the lost", and to promote development of "the Holy City, New Jerusalem", in our urban areas. In 1996 we are addressing issues of urban life through the ministries listed above. Chauncey S. Nealy, Chairperson

Volunteers in Mission

Proposed Goals:

1. VIM communication to the Central Texas Annual Conference. Publicizing projects through a quarterly newsletter and the United Methodist Reporter.
   Goal: To inform and educate the people of the Central Texas Conference About projects, needs and possible participation in short term mission projects and updates on long range projects as well.
2. Organize and support work team projects.
   Goal: To involve the churches and people of the Central Texas Conference in Volunteers in Mission. There are several areas that we hope to address in 1996 including local, jurisdictional, national, and international projects including disaster relief.
3. VIM Courses at Fall University
   Goal: To increase awareness of Volunteers in Mission and encourage wide spread participation. We want local churches to understand that they need not be totally dependent upon the VIM Committee for projects.
4. Volunteers in Mission training and celebration event to be staged at Glen Lake Camp. The Central Texas Conference will host and the Texas, North Texas, Southwest Texas and the Rio Grande Conferences will be invited to attend and participate.
   Goal: To offer education and training in VIM to both clergy and laity of the participating conferences. To afford an opportunity to learn about and celebrate what is happening in VIM in our neighbor conferences.

Most of our goals for 1995 were reached and even surpassed. Praise be to God and blessings on those who helped make this year a success. The quarterly newsletter had a mailing of 500 and will increase in 1996 to approximately 3000 with the addition of local Disaster Volunteers. We would like to have more communication from churches of their mission trips and local community organizations that they support to include in the District News.

The first Annual Conference Mission Event was held with 400 people that applied to work on 24 projects. 270 showed up and miraculously completed all the work scheduled. A new logo was designed for shirts, hats and cups to cover expenses and future events.

300 volunteers responded to the Disaster Response work day in September. Many groups have been returning since then to complete the work begun on 15 homes. From this experience our conference has found the need to become better organized within the local church. A program has been implemented to formulate a data bank of volunteers for future disasters.

Fall University offered two courses. Eight people were trained to be team leaders. Three of those will be leading conference sponsored trips in 1996. One will be to Slovakia to work on a church. One will be a construction team to Mission Hogar in Juarez, Mexico. One will be medical and construction teams to the Children's Refuge in Rio Bravo and Nuevo Progesso to begin our covenant relationship with the Eastern Mexico Conference. The conference has also identified 22 other projects that we are planning trips to over the next five years to build churches, support clinics and build homes.

James Bell, Chairperson

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

Proposed Programs:

1. On-campus events for students and parents
   Goal: To encourage the seven United Methodist Colleges and Universities of Texas to send information about on-campus events to the conference office to be included on the conference calendar and in conference mailings.
2. Promotion of Campus Ministries and colleges and universities in Central Texas Conference Goal: to increase awareness of campus ministry and growth of leadership on college campuses.
3. Local Church Campus Ministry Connection
   Goal: While continuing support of the present ministries at Polytechnic United Methodist Church/TWU, St. John United Methodist Church/Southwestern University and Hill College, stimulate the establishment of at lease one new campus ministry unit by offering grants each to DCOMs, clusters of churches, or individual congregations which present proposals to begin such ministries by surveying all campuses, identifying churches in close proximity to the campuses, and contacting those churches.
4. Campus Ministry Events
   Goal: To encourage cooperation and interaction among students and campus ministers and enable them to attend regional and national student events.
5. Conference Student Council
   Goal: The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry will convene a meeting of students representing campus ministry units and local church campus ministry groups for the purpose of forming an ongoing conference student council.
6. Campus Ministry Transitional Unit Development
   Goal: To continue to develop methods of transition
7. Campus Ministry Unites Capital Funding
   Goal: Implement a funding strategy for raising capital funds for all the units on a conference-wide level through an Advance Special or The Office of Field Service and Finance.
8. United Methodist Central Texas Conference Campus Ministry Computer Bulletin Board.
   Goal: Explore the telecommunication possibilities between campuses and campus ministries; and to connect them by INTERNET or another BBS.
9. Campus Ministry Internship Study
   Goal: Exploration of having interns at the existing units by determining needs, costs and funding possibilities.
10. Campus Ministry Internship Study
    Goal: Exploration of having interns at the existing units by determining needs, costs and funding possibilities.

We wish to formally request that beginning in 1997, the amount for the Wesley Foundation Fund be apportioned to the local churches on the decimal system based on $1.40 for each church member in the Annual Conference. This reflects a 14 cent increase over the current $1.26 for each church member in the Annual Conference.

The rationale for this request is to: 1) move toward support of Hill College as a Campus Ministry, and 2) to improve the balance of funding between Texas Christian University, Baylor, Navarro College, Tarleton State University, and The University of Texas at Arlington, while allowing continued support of the development of transitional units through the Board's budget.

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

For Perkins School of Theology, this has been a year of outreach to the churches and exploration of new possibilities for leadership in ministry. In the Fall Semester, we began a program of theological studies for the Houston-Galveston area. Fifty students enrolled in basic studies toward the M.Div., M.T.S., or M.R.E. degrees in what has become known as "Perkins South." The enthusiastic support of United Methodist leadership in the region and the commitment of Moody Memorial First United Methodist Church in Galveston and St. Luke's United Methodist Church in Houston made this new venture possible.

With the addition of the "Perkins South" students, total enrollment at Perkins School of Theology reached 428. Students preparing for pastoral ministry through the M.Div. program continue to be the largest part of our enrollment (62%). Doctor of Ministry students make up 12% of the student body, and Ph.D. students account for 6%. By denomination, our students are 74% United Methodist. Female students were 38% for the student body in the Fall of 1995.

Perkins continued its efforts to make quality theological education affordable, with new grants for students with high promise for leadership in ministry. Here, too, partnership with the churches is important. Our United Methodist students depend heavily on support from their Annual Conference Boards of Ordained Ministry, and Perkins is grateful for the efforts of congregations across the South Central jurisdiction to meet their apportionments for the Ministerial Education Fund. In many cases, Perkins alumni/ae provide additional scholarship support through funds held by their Annual Conference Foundations.

The Intern Program at Perkins has provided opportunities for students to experience the life and work of parish ministry for nearly 25 years. Lay teaching committees in local congregations join with Perkins intern faculty and trained clinical supervisors to help students reflect on the meaning and purpose of their experiences in ministry. As we extend the Intern Program to a new group of students in the Houston-Galveston area, we are reminded again that Perkins is more than a school on a campus in Dallas. It is a network of teaching and learning that extends across the South Central Jurisdiction and reaches to places in Europe, Central America, and Asia where Perkins students learn the work of ministry by participating in it.

Fifty years ago, the vision of Joe and Lois Perkins, Bishop Paul Martin, Dean Eugene Hawk, and J.S. Bridwell gave Methodism a school of theology that was able not merely to meet the future, but to lead the church into it. Today, we celebrate that legacy with a remembrance of their vision, and with our own commitment to provide a program that will respond to the needs of the church and meet the challenges of ministry in the next fifty years. Robin W. Lovin, Dean

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

It is my pleasure as the tenth president of Southern Methodist University to provide this institutional report to the conference. Since my arrival as president in June 1995, I have enjoyed tremendous support from our United Methodist constituents, including the annual conferences and area churches I have visited. I am grateful for the guidance that has brought SMU to this point in its evolution and for the support which will make further progress possible.

The Board of Trustees authorized an Inauguration Ceremony on September 9 to bring together the larger community to celebrate the University and to reaffirm our heritage and faith in the future. More than 4,000 constituents from throughout the nation attended the event. In my Inaugural address, I outlined some of the key areas that deserve attention as we refine our offerings and services for a new century and millennium. SMU must: 1) continue to infuse the perspectives of globalism into the curriculum, including an ongoing commitment to increase the diversity of our University community; 2) provide excellent programs in all areas of communications, from composition to journalism to telecommunications; 3) strengthen programs that will prepare students for leadership roles in the health care professions; and 4) continue to emphasize the study of ethics by increasing opportunities for ethical considerations throughout the curriculum.

The University is currently preparing an academic strategic plan that reflects these priorities and others identified by the various schools and departments. The plan will form the basis of a major gifts campaign for which we are in the planning stages.

I am also pleased to report that the campus United Methodist Ministry is flourishing under the direction of Rev. Greg Ligon. For example, the Thursday night Bible study group has grown from five students to more than 100. We are indeed grateful to the Annual Conferences of the Jurisdiction for continuing support of this program.

The Perkins School of Theology has been strengthened in several ways, among them:

- A $10 million endowment gift, the largest in its history, from the J.S. Bridwell Foundation establishing the J.S. Bridwell Foundation Endowed Library Fund.
- A $1 million gift to the Theology School, $500,000 from trustees Caren Prothro and her husband Vin in honor of his parents, former trustees Charles and Elizabeth Prothro; and $500,000 from the Joe and Lois Perkins Foundation.
- The appointment of Dean Robin W. Lovin, former dean of the Theological School at Drew University.

The beginning of a South Texas seminary program in partnership with United Methodist Church leaders in the Houston area, offering classes in Houston and Galveston taught by Perkins faculty.

SMU's fall 1995 enrollment was the highest in 11 years, with the largest first-year undergraduate class in six years. Minority enrollment is at an all-time high of 18.8 percent for the total student body.

We continue to need and to appreciate your interest, prayers, leadership, and gifts as we affirm SMU's founding vision through our achievements of today and tomorrow.

R. Gerald Turner, President

SOUTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

So Much With So Little

As recently as fifteen years ago, Southwestern University was not listed in a single college guide as a school which excelled in any realm of endeavor. It was not a "best buy" (Money Magazine), nor a "best and most interesting" (1996 Fiske Guide to Colleges), nor a "national liberal arts colleges" (The National Review College Guide), nor among "America's best 306 colleges" (The Princeton Review). Southwestern was not a highly-ranked institution (U.S. News & World Report), nor even a "competitive" school (Peterson's Competitive Colleges).

These facts do not mean that Southwestern was not providing a good education to those who enrolled here in earlier years or that it was not performing a distinctive service to the state and nation. Many of our graduates from those pre-1980 years have distinguished themselves and honored us with their accomplishments.

Clearly, the Southwestern of earlier years produced persons of the highest rank in politics, education, business, law, the Church, and other areas of endeavor. We salute the Southwestern teachers, trustees, and administrators of the past for accomplishing so much with such limited resources. Nothing that we do or say now can tarnish the achievements or minimize the outstanding accomplishments of our predecessors. They did so much with so little.

A New Dimension

Nevertheless, we must recognize that there is a new dimension in the Southwestern of today. We are perceived differently on the national scene from what was once the case, and the very fact that we are recognized at all on the national scene is one of those differences. We are no longer a regional institution, but a national institution. As indicated above, we are compared by major educational analysts and foundations with the best national liberal arts institutions and have recently competed successfully with many well-known institutions to win a large Olin Foundation grant and to gain a Phi Beta Kappa chapter.

In a report made to you some years ago, I referred to Southwestern as an old school, but one which is always in the process of remaking itself. We try to keep the finest values of the past, while incorporating the best of the new. The positive direction of the numbers associated with Southwestern's development tells us that we are succeeding to a remarkable degree. Within the past fifteen years, our full-time equivalent (FTE) student headcount enrollment has increased 30%. Our FTE number of faculty members has increased 52%. Our endowment has shown an annual increase of almost 12% to $175.4 million. Our educational expenditure has risen to more than $20,000 per student. The quality of our student body has increased remarkably with our entering first-year class this past Fall having an average S.A.T. score of 1138. Our annual graduation rate has improved from just over 50% to an average of 70%. Though our Leadership 2000 Campaign for $75 million and the current campus building program will be referred to later, they need to be mentioned here as a part of the overall strength of our development pattern.

Beyond the Numbers

The numbers, however, are but part of the picture. In my mind, some of the most remarkable elements associated with Southwestern is when we did it. Our drive to national maturity has come precisely at a time when much od American higher education has been gripped in the doldrums. We have been swimming against the tide so long that it now almost seems normal.

1. Momentum

I invited small groups of our faculty members to have lunch and conversation with me this past fall. At one of our luncheons, the question arose as to what they felt when they went to national conferences or conventions and came back to Southwestern. This group of faculty members was unanimous in affirming that it was always gland to get back because of the different atmosphere here. They said that there was none of the gloom and doom here that they heard elsewhere. They said that there was a dynamism and optimism which simply did not exist in higher education in most parts of the country. Mr. Larry Milas of the Olin Foundation sensed this fact when he said that "as a grantmaker, I can tell you that it is a lot of fun being one of the first to identify a college {Southwestern} that is on the move."

This dynamism is one of the strongest elements we have going for us. It is this element which caused us to initiate an ambitious $75 million campaign and which has caused to succeed in completing the Mabee Challenge by January 11, 1996, the stipulated date for its fulfillment. We raised $21 million in one year to qualify for the $3 million Mabee Foundation match. With the completion of the Mabee Challenge, we will be in a position to begin the construction and expansion of the last three buildings in our plan. All of this will move us ahead and continue the momentum we have built up.

2. Opportunity

Little did our forebearers realize in the relocation controversies of over a century ago that Georgetown would become one of the ideal locations in the country for future development. Now, however, we see it happening, and it is not something in the distant future, but it is right around the corner. The Austin metropolitan area is one of the "hot" growth spots in the country, and the Del Webb Corporation is already building Sun City Georgetown a few miles to the west. Over the next several years, this development will mean an increase an increase of 20,000 residents to the Georgetown area.

If, as real estate agents have long said, the three most important things are location, location, location, then Southwestern is in a superb position to take advantage of what is happening in this area and in the hemisphere. Interstate Highway 35, only a few miles to the west, is one of the major U.S. highways connecting Canada and Mexico. Within ten years, Mo-Kan, a new interstate, will begin just north of Georgetown and run south to the east of the campus through Austin and other cities. Our campus will then stand between two heavily traveled interstates. The prospect of an interstate highway east of the campus should not only radically transform the land value of our five hundred acres, but should also bring about new educational opportunities.

For many years now, certainly during my administration, Southwestern has been consciously building a more diverse institution. We have diversified our curriculum through the inauguration of new disciplines such as computer science and the delivery of educational services through the use of modern technology. We have also diversified our student body through an aggressive attempt to enroll persons who reflect the ethnic make-up of our state and society. Minorities currently make up about one-fifth of our total student body and were 21% of our entering class this past Fall. Though success in attracting minority faculty members has not been nearly as successful, we are committed to recruit a more diverse faculty. We maintain the largest minority faculty identification program in the country, and over 250 colleges and universities each paid $200 to be members of our identification program during 1994-95. We are currently taking a very pro-active stance in identifying minority faculty members for every faculty search we undertake.

I mention these initiatives because our location, at a point of major cultural confluence, demands that we fulfill our destiny and take advantage of the opportunities that such a location presents. Mr. George Dehne, one of the leading educational consultants in the country, believes that the idea of our being a bridge or gateway to the south has great potential for becoming a distinguishing educational feature. We have an opportunity to stand in the forefront of this emerging hemispheric socio-economic development, and I am convinced that Southwestern's future will, to a considerable extent, be determined by how we seize that opportunity and use it to our advantage.

3. Ethos

The most important element of the intangible strengths of Southwestern is its ethos. Set within the context of The United Methodist heritage, we believe that the ultimate end of the university is to improve the human condition. Our unique role is to provide an undergraduate education which is broad-based, value-centered, and focused on the fullest development of the whole person for leadership in the global community.

We believe that learning is, fact, a deeply meaningful dimension of the human experience in which we have the opportunity and responsibility to push back the frontiers of knowledge about ourselves and the world in which we live. We believe that we engage in the pursuit of learning as persons who are created by One whose nature is love--whose purposes are justice, mercy, and righteousness, and whose ends are fulfillment of human potential. If we a have a distinctive niche in higher education, it is to realize this ideal of education to the fullest extent possible.

The Next Steps in 1995-96 Academic Year

We dedicated the new Grogan and Betty Lord Residential Center with its seven buildings this past November. It was a matter of great pride for us to honor Grogan, Betty, Sharon (Caskey), and Griffin Lord for their contributions to the University, and especially Mr. Grogan Lord for his many years of service as a trustee. With the completion of this residential center, we have now undertaken the demolition of Laura Kuykendall Hall and the construction of the new Brown-Cody Residence Hall in its place.

At our spring meeting on March 28, 1996, we will dedicate the new Corbin J. Robertson Center, which is already in use. In November, 1996, we will dedicate the F. W. Olin Academic Building. The completion of that building is scheduled for April, 1996, and it will be in full use for the fall, 1996, semester. Beyond the completion of these buildings will be the three construction projects referred to earlier in the report--the construction/expansion of additional wings on the Fondren-Jones Science Hall and the Alma Thomas Fine Arts Center and the building of a new Red and Charline McCombs campus center.

With the completion of the Mabee Challenge in January, 1996, and with $55 million on hand on our $75 million Leadership 2000 Campaign, we will focus on the identification of these endowment resources to be dedicated to the following purposes:

Library: to keep the permanent collection current in support of the curriculum and to add state-of-the-art technological capabilities;

Faculty: to establish three new chairs and to provide funds for faculty development;

Scholarships: to support merit scholarships and need-based financial aid;

International Programs: to provide funds enabling Southwestern to increase the number of students studying abroad to 50 percent by the turn of the century;

Equipment and Technology: to provide funds for purchasing up-to-date equipment and technology support for academic and administrative purposes.

Culmination of The Brown Challenge

I could not finish this report without mentioning one milestone of special note. In December, 1995, we completed twenty years of The Brown Challenge.

When this visionary program was put into place in 1976, the announced intention of The Brown Foundation was not only to help build the endowment of the University, which it has done in a remarkable way, but also to help us put into place a permanent development effort which would become a normal part of University life and extend beyond the time frame of the Challenge. That intention has been fulfilled in magnificent fashion, as witness the plans which we have for the future. Even as we complete these ambitious goals, we are already beginning to hold conversations regarding new plans and objectives looking toward the year 2010. In recognition of what The Brown Foundation has done for the University, we are planning an appropriate expression of our appreciation during Homecoming in October, 1996.

TEXAS UNITED METHODIST COLLEGE ASSOCIATION

Dear Bishop Oliphint,

I am writing to thank you for my scholarship given by the Texas United Methodist College Association. It is only because of this scholarship that I am able to be a first-year student at Southern Methodist University, and for that I am grateful.

Exactly one year ago I was filling out my application for SMU and wondering why I was doing so. Finances in my family seemed to be depleting just as I was ready to attend college. My dad is a diabetic and heart patient. He undergoes daily therapy and, unfortunately, is currently in the hospital. I have two sisters - one a medical student and the other a student at the University of Texas. SMU seemed to be my ideal school, but one I could never afford. Now God is blessing me with a wonderful education at a great school!

I am a work-study student, so it's sometimes difficult for me to find time between school and other organizations. Yet I go to the United Methodist Campus Ministry meetings and love it. I've gone to church all my life but have never felt my faith in God so strong. I also attend Highland Park Methodist Church. Being away from home and here at SMU has been a wonderful and growing experience. I hope to be an advertising major and minor in business. Hopefully, I want to give back to others my own experience.

Please thank everyone who shares in this scholarship for their interest and support in the value of education, especially here at SMU.

Sincerely,
Dalinda Silva

Recently, Dr. John Deschner, speaking of the church's concern for individual students in our church-related colleges, said, "The values we speak of are not simply objective ideas and theories. True values become embodied - they constitute that 'precious knowledge of the heart,' as Pascal put it, which can turn a person on and create a committed, empowered individual."

This compelling letter holds before us that reality and hope - and it is just one of many similar letters we receive each year!

Huston-Tillotson and Wiley Colleges receive scholarship support through the Black College Fund. In 1995, through the support of local churches, we gave to the other five institutions a total of $848,599, distributed as follows:

Lon Morris College	$137,362
McMurry University	161,920
Southern Methodist University	219,909
Southwestern University	161,456
Texas Wesleyan University	167,952

This record of aid for students is a rich investment for future leadership for the church and for society.

Ben Oliphint, President

TEXAS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

I spend a great deal of time talking about our students and their personal successes, which are our successes; the faculty and their devotion to students, to scholarship, and to meaning; the campus community and its dedication, through numerous volunteer activities, to the neighborhood we have claimed as our home. I talk about these things because we are doing important work here, and in order to continue to do important work we must have the support, both financial and spiritual, of people who share our vision...friends such as Frank and Faye Roberts whose estate has distributed to Texas Wesleyan and Wofford College an amazing gift of $2.5 million, each.

Our dear friend Eunice West has agreed to allow us to name our premium giving club The Eunice West Society. Any gift given in one year which totals $10,000 or more will qualify. This year, Mrs. West gave a total of $50,000 to challenge others, especially trustees, to increase their annual fund gift. As of February 1, gifts to the annual fund total $356,123, compared with $323,712 year-to-date last year. The phonathon, completed in December, resulted in 824 pledges totalling $37,818, compared to $31,301 raised last year.

Our Chaplaincy program, being endowed by Dr. Evie Jo Wilson, continues to grow. University Chapel services are held every Tuesday and periodic Wednesdays on the main campus, and have been implemented this year on the Law School Campus. Our relationship to the Church is strengthened through the celebration of Texas Wesleyan Days at area churches; sponsorship of continuing education events for ministers, including the Willson Lecture Series and Dr. Ken Callahan seminars; recruitment of students through the local churches; Church Internship Program offering experience and exposure to the ministry for our pre-ministerial students; celebration of the Christmas Festival of Lessons and Carols held in conjunction with Polytechnic United Methodist Church; organization of the Friendship Family Program which provides students in the Intensive English Institute a sponsoring family from one of the area churches; coordination of "Volunteer Wesleyan" for the campus community, including Meals on Wheels, Inc.; Cowtown Brush-Up; serving dinner at the Presbyterian Night Shelter; and Earth Day clean-up.

We have completed a facilities master plan which is already being implemented. We are actively pursuing proposals for locating our law school in downtown Fort Worth to meet the ABA standard regarding a permanent law school facility. Wesleyan Trustee Lou Baker Martin's family home has been moved to campus to house a welcome center and the freshman admission office.

Revenue and expense projections remain on target, and we will close FY 1996 with our first balanced budget since 1976. The significance of this fact cannot be overstated. Our balanced budget is evidence of: increase enrollment, a refined planning/budget process, accurate forecasting, growth, and viability.

Spring enrollment is up for the fourth year in a row, with a main campus head count of 1938, compared to 1888 last spring. Credit hours total 21,792 compared to 20,850 last spring. The Law School head count is 585, compared to 496 last spring, with a credit hour comparison of 7,041 to 5,813.

In the past four years, we have succeeded in improving faculty and staff salaries, setting and meeting enrollment planning goals, providing enhanced professional development opportunities, establishing the Weekend University, reversing the fiscal decline of the University, acquiring a law school and expanding other graduate or professional programs. It is an honor to be affiliated with Texas Wesleyan; and to witness the progress of our students and the growth of our programs. We take pride in maintaining the integrity and prosperity of this 106-year-old, United Methodist-related University.

Jake B. Schrum, President

L. Michael McKee, Chairperson

Trustees of Glen Lake Camp and Retreat Center

The Board of Trustees of Glen Lake Camp and Retreat Center are responsible for the overall care and maintenance of the camp property plus all legal matters pertaining to the camp. Their goal is to provide the facilities and grounds needed to comply with the mission statement of Glen Lake:

> "The primary purpose for which Glen Lake Camp and Retreat Center is formed, and to which its assets are pledged, is to promote the threefold spiritual, mental and physical development of young persons and adults as Christians."

With the help of the Central Texas Conference and its members, the facilities have improved significantly over the last several years. Added during this conference year was a sprinkler system for the plaza area, outdoor benches and tables in the plaza area, sidewalks, and a new children's playground. The former Recreation Hall was remodeled into 4 classrooms with an attached women's bathroom.

All these recent additions have enabled Glen Lake to expand both the number of offerings available to guests and the number of guest groups we are able to serve at any one time.

As for the future, the next major project, a 500 seat dining hall, is currently in the planning stages. And, as always, more cabins are being solicited to replace the older cabins presently in use.

God has blessed the ministry of Glen Lake and continues to do so. And Glen Lake continues to bless the lives of thousands of young people and adults each year. The Glen Lake Trustees take seriously the legal responsibility with which they are entrusted for the vital ministry of Glen Lake Camp and Retreat Center.

R. M. (Bob) Martin, Chairperson

COMMITTEE ON COMMUNICATION AND INTERPRETATION

The Committee on Communication and Interpretation completed the following projects for 1995:

- Created a weekly conference edition of The United Methodist Reporter, providing eight copies to identified leadership of each conference church at no charge, and making subscriptions available to all interested persons at a nominal fee ($15).
- Created the first-ever Conference Calendar to personalize the apportionments for laity/staff of local churches, to serve as a handy guide to Annual and General Conference events/programs, and as a directory for district, conference and general church agencies/personnel.
- Sponsored two courses on communications at Fall University: Video and Audio Ministries for Any Church Size and Get the Most for Your Mailing Dollar.
- Provided a display table at Annual Conference to:
  - Distribute subscription forms with UM Reporter edition containing the 1995 appointments.
  - Distributed order forms for the 1996 Conference Calendar.
- Continued sponsorship and Steering Committee representation on Faith Focus, an ecumenical ministry forum on KXAS-TV (Channel 5) in the Dallas/Fort Worth area, and generate programs on United Methodist projects and/or using United Methodist spokespersons.
- Created and placed Yellow Pages advertising for the Fort Worth East and West Districts to build awareness of the multitude of United Methodist Churches in Tarrant County, and to encourage church growth through a companion brochure that provides details on each of the 81 local churches. (1995 ad placement costs were paid under the 1994 budget. Designated 1995 advertising dollars returned to conference budget in order to put spending in the year the ad will appear and to help with conference income shortfall)

- Made funds available to other districts for media projects. These funds were utilized by the Temple District for an advertising campaign and the Brownwood District for an ongoing E-Mail project. Unclaimed funds revert back to the conference budget.
- Represented the conference on The United Methodist Communications Council as one of the owner conferences of The United Methodist Reporter and participated in the ownership editors' joint projects.
- Upgraded the conference satellite downlinking equipment by replacing the aged and hail-damaged satellite dish. This allows the conference to participate in the denomination's increasing reliance on teleconferencing to deliver programming such as the four-part "Preparing for General Conference" series. Also purchased a Hewlett Packard ScanJet 4C to produce in-house brochures containing photos, logos, etc., and to reduce the escalating cost of including photos in the conference page of The United Methodist Reporter.
- Provided consulting services to local churches (temporary staffing and production/design training) and conference groups (for brochures and UMR inserts).

Jacquetta Chambers, Chairperson

Committee on Evaluation and Budget Coordination

Our committee met twice since our last Annual Conference session. In late summer we met and were trained by Dr. Luther Henry in using tools for evaluation. As a result of the meeting we developed criteria that committee members would use in evaluating effectiveness of programs and utilization of conference funds. Each board, committee or agency of the annual conference was asked to answer the evaluative questions. Our committee members also used the form in monitoring the program ministries of the Annual Conference to which they were assigned. The following questions were asked:

1. What are the goals of the committee, board or agency in ministry to and with the local church?
2. How is the ministry in line with your board, committee or agency's goals, and the goals of CTC?
3. What is the criteria established by the board, committee or agency for program ministry?
4. Did the program/event meet expected criteria, goals?
5. To what emerging need is this ministry responsive?
6. What segment of the church was reached by this ministry? Was it a special ministry for a particular group of people/churches? (include number of local churches participating, expected number to be reached)
7. Was the program/event/ministry cost effective? How is cost per person assessed? If this was not a consideration, what was the overall objective for this program/event/ministry?
8. Could this program/event/ministry be better done at the local church or district level?

Our committee also met with representatives from each board and agency to review the evaluations and to recommend a program budget for 1997. These recommendations were then forwarded to the Council on Stewardship, Finance and Administration.

It has been a pleasure to work with this fine committee as it has accomplished its task over the quadrennium. We can assure our conference that those you have entrusted with program responsibilities are faithful in their work and careful in their use of our mission and ministry dollars.

Committee on Planning and Research

Planning and Research monitored the conference-wide theme of "Rekindling Hope Through a New Vision", which outlines vision statements and action plans. Each board and agency of the conference followed this plan and submitted annual and quadrennial summaries of their work.

At the beginning of each quadrennium the Committee on Planning and Research conducts a goal setting retreat. Out of this retreat comes our conference mission statement and our goals and theme for annual conference. It is always a great experience.

The biggest disappointment is the lack of cooperation in getting the various board chairs to attend meetings and submit their material in a timely fashion.

Proposed Program:

Quadrennium Vision booklet that details the goals for our Annual Conference with action steps for the next quadrennium.

MISSION STATEMENT
1997-2000

The Central Texas Conference is a people who are partners in Christ and whose mission is to believe, to belong, and to make a difference.

In fulfilling this mission, this conference strives to strengthen the connection, serve the needs of families and children; accepts and respects the diversity of its people; and offers spiritual fulfillment to a hungry world.

COMMITTEE ON THE AGENDA

The Annual Conference Committee on the Agenda expresses their appreciation to Bishop Joe A. Wilson for his work with the committee.

The Committee on the Agenda also commends all of the boards and agencies of the annual conference for their cooperation in the planning and scheduling of the reports.

The committee rejoices that again this year a VIM event is scheduled in conjunction with Annual Conference.

In 1996, the final year of this quadrennium, our theme for these sessions continues to be "Rekindling Hope Through A New Vision".

The Annual Conference Committee on the Agenda recommends:

1. That the 1996 Per Diem Allowance be granted for each day in actual attendance at the conference for retired clergy, retired diaconal ministers, retired deaconesses, ministers' surviving spouses, pastors receiving a total salary of, or less than the minimum compensation of the conference, students appointed to attend school and ministers on disability leave. The rate shall be $30 for those who reside within Tarrant County and $60 for those who reside outside Tarrant County. (See PER DIEM form in back of Preliminary Reports).
2. That the budget line item for the expenses of annual conference for 1997 be set at $30,000.

Future places for the meeting of the annual conference will be 1997 - Waco and 1998 - Fort Worth.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY
Report No. 1

The Commission on Archives and History held its annual meeting on November 11, 1995 at the Central Texas Conference Archives which is located in the Eunice and James L. West Library at Texas Wesleyan University. The members were acquainted with the activities, programs, and responsibilities of the commission. Mrs. Jean H. Traster, conference archivist, provided information on the history and work of the archives. The commission desires to serve the church through the following programs:

A. Fall University

Two classes/workshops which cover the basic responsibilities of the local church historian will be offered at Fall University on September 7, 1996. Both classes will be taught by Mrs. Jean Traster.

B. Oral History Project for Retiring Clergy and Spouses

This continuing project involves the tape recording of biographical information of retiring clergy and spouses and recollections of their ministry. A sermon of the retiring members of the clergy is also on the tape. The Rev. John C. Johnson is responsible for this project.

C. Local Church Annual Historical Up-Dates Project

Forms of the annual historical up-date are sent every November/December to each district superintendent for distribution to the local church pastors. The forms are to be completed by the local church historian, or in the absence of such a person, by the pastor and/or church secretary. The forms are to be returned to the district superintendent in January for forwarding to the conference archives. The up-dates provide details of records, projects, activities, and building construction, renovation, and improvement that are not recorded elsewhere. The forms have proven to be very valuable to researchers of local churches. The Rev. John C. Johnson is responsible for this project.

D. Heritage Sunday Celebration

"Heritage Sunday shall be observed on April 23, the day in 1968 when The United Methodist Church was created by the union on The Evangelical United Brethren Church and The Methodist Church, or the Sunday following that date. It falls during Eastertide, the season in which we remember the Resurrection and triumph of our Lord. Heritage Sunday calls the Church to remember the past by committing itself to the continuing call of God." (from ¶ 275.1, The Book of Discipline, 1992)

The General Commission on Archives and History develops themes and resource booklets for the observance of Heritage Sunday. Information concerning these resource materials will be provided to pastors through the conference coordinated mailing.

E. Locating Historical Conference Journals

This project involves locating journals/minutes for conferences of The Methodist Church and The Evangelical United Brethren Church and their predecessors which relate to the congregations in the geographical area of the Central Texas Conference. The Rev. Tom Ridlehuber and Mrs. Jean H. Traster are responsible for this project.

F. Central Texas Conference Historic Site Markers

Information on the criteria and procedures to obtain a marker can be obtained from the chairperson.

G. Racial/Ethnic History

1. The following books have been purchased for the Central Texas Conference Archives:
   Churches Aflame: Asian Americans and United Methodism;
   Each in Our Own Tongue: A History of Hispanic United Methodism;
   First White Frost: Native Americans and United Methodism; Heritage and Hope: The African-American Presence in United Methodism; and
   The Colored Man in the Methodist Episcopal Church.
2. The Rev. C. Benjamin Picazo, pastor of the Latin American United Methodist Church of Waco, has donated a significant number of journals relating to the Rio Grande Conference and its predecessors to the Central Texas Conference Archives.

"No generation that forgets its indebtedness to the past is likely to transmit to the future any worthy heritage. It is for this reason that the preservation of church records and the writing of church history are recognized as an obligation of primary importance. How else can the people of a later generation become acquainted with the adversities and toils and achievements of those who went before them."

Bishop William C. Martin

Report No. 3

The archival and historical records of the Central Texas Conference and predecessor conferences within the bounds of the present Central Texas Conference, 1866-present, are housed on the campus of Texas Wesleyan University at the Eunice and James L. West Library. The Archives space is provided through the generosity of the University and West Library director, Cindy Potter. The Commission on Archives and History and the Central Texas Conference are grateful for this sixteen-year-long relationship with the West Library, its staff, and the University.

The records of the Archives Depository continue to increase in volume on a daily basis. The records' usefulness and value to the Annual Conference, and to researchers fay beyond this conference, increase as well. Preservation of the records for use in research and for documentation of legal data is a major priority of the Archives Center. A second priority is response to local churches, organizations of the conference, and individuals in need of historical information.

Beyond the preservation of conference records and historical research, the Archives Depository has the following projects in progress:

1. Indexing of Local Church History Books: Estill Allen. Multiple hours weekly are given to the task of indexing history books in order to make the information in them more readily available for researchers.
2. Translation of German-language Conference records: Dr. Spencer Baskin, University of Houston, Houston, Texas. Selected records of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Southern German Conference, are being translated into English for use in archives research.
3. Computer Technology, Telephone, and Texas Wesleyan Library Staff: Archives enters a new era as the computer and telephone give access to information more efficiently. The staff of the Library will begin entering data this spring and summer. Jean Traster, conference archivist, is training each librarian in all the skills necessary to assist with the conference archives work. Mary Bond, director of Special Collections at the West Library, and Cindy Potter, director of West Library, are the originators of this new working relationship with the Central Texas Conference Archives.

All accessions, however large or small, are valuable data for archival research. Listed below is a sampling of several of the many accessions received since June, 1995:

1. Organizational Records
   A. Waco District records
   B. Rio Grande Conference Journals

C. History: King's Daughters Organization
2. Local Church records
   A. Englewood UMC, Fort Worth
   B. Comanche, 1st UMC - records found in opening of cornerstone
   C. Robinson Drive UMC, Waco
   D. Missouri Avenue and Morningside Methodist Churches, Fort Worth
   E. Brandon UMC, Waxahachie District
   F. Indexes of local church histories of the conference
3. Personal Records
   A. History of the Wofford Family and the Stovall Family Preachers
   B. Personal Papers of Pat Allen relating to her extensive research projects for the Central Texas Conference Archives

A Central Texas Conference Archives Depository Special Fund has been established through the conference treasurer's office. Memorial gifts and honorariums may be added to the fund at any time. The monies will be administered by the Commissions on Archives and History for the funding of new programming for the conference Archives Depository. The Central Texas Annual Conference, and the members of the United Methodist Church across the nation, will benefit from these projects in the years ahead. The Archives Depository Division invites and encourages your adding to this Special Fund as you make memorial gifts or honor persons or events.

I believe this about the past: it has much to teach us. In tracing the origins of everyday living, everyday records and writings, we put into perspective our collective human history. If these projects become only forgotten traces of our past, we will have lost much more than names or facts. We will have forgotten a cloth woven across the centuries with threads of strength and grace and beauty. We will have lost perspective of what has made us the persons and church we are today. Forgotten or neglected? Ah, no, Archives will remain to encourage, instruct, and enrich each of us.

Save those records!

Jean H. Traster, Archivist

CABINET COMPOSITE REPORT

Bishop Wilson, my colleagues on the Extended Cabinet, delegates, and guests. Greetings in the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ!

It is both an honor and privilege to present the Cabinet composite report.

Traditionally, it is the responsibility of the dean of the Cabinet to present this report in it's entirety. This year, however, we are going to bypass tradition and offer you something different. We hope that it will be helpful and informative.

You know about the normal, everyday activities that involve the district superintendency. They parallel the work of the pastor in the local church in many of the same ways. There are committees, commissions, and pastoral responsibilities. However, there is another side to the district superintendency that you may not know about.

We will present it in three parts: what we have done, where we are, and where we are going.

The Year Now Past

This conference year now past has been for your Cabinet a time of deepening relationships. Our activities as a Cabinet have been intentionally designed to strengthen each of us in our own walk with Christ, to strengthen the ties that bind us in relationship with each other, and ultimately to strengthen our relationship with all of you, our conference family. Bishop Wilson has now visited each and every local church in our conference. By reaching out so personally to build relationships of trust and confidence he sets a tone for the entire Cabinet and conference.

Believing that authentic leadership must be grounded in a living relationship with Christ, we began with a three-day Spiritual Retreat at Glen Lake Camp and Retreat Center in September of 1995. With so much to do, we had to take time apart to pray, to reflect, to share and to grow. Your prayers for us enriched our three days apart even as we prayer for you and your ministries. We had times each day for spiritual growth and reflection, shared meals prepared by several Cabinet members - one of whom was not me! We also took time to relax and have fun together.

January of 1996 was highlighted by our Cabinet Vision Planning Retreat, also at Glen Lake. In this time together we focused on where we believe God is calling us as a Cabinet and as a conference. We then set goals and priorities for action to guide us forward.

In February of 1996 our Cabinet gathered in Waco for our yearly Inventory Retreat. We took time to review each local church and each pastor in the Central Texas Conference in preparation for making pastoral appointments. Much prayer and preparation goes into this process.

Cabinet priorities for our conference this year have included: covenantal integrity and effective leadership of ordained clergy and diaconal ministers; the receiving of persons into the life of every local church on profession of faith; affirming and developing strong, vibrant congregations both small and large, rural and urban; the welfare of children - especially those suffering in poverty; and Volunteers in Mission.

As your Cabinet, we have been intentional about retreating so that together we might advance! Our times of retreat, study, and planning prepare us for reaching out with you in ministry in the name and spirit of Christ. And because of Bishop, Joe Wilson, leads us with a pastor's heart and a prophet's courage, we find a unity or purpose and a depth of joy in all that we do!

Ruth Huber-Rohlfs

The Present

Regularly, seven district superintendents, led by our bishop Joe A. Wilson, and joined by our director of Church Growth and Development, gather around the table for prayer, appointment making, planning and visioning for the large Church we know as the Central Texas Conference.

We gather as a team - each one a pastor that has assumed larger geographical pastoring responsibilities. There is a strong collegial atmosphere of trust and confidence which is fostered by Bishop Wilson

Those of us who sit around that table represent the concerns of our specific districts, but in the end we make choices based on the strong conviction that beyond our particular fields of labor, we are each conference superintendents - with responsibilities for insuring that the finest efforts be expended for each area of the conference and for each church - small, large or medium-sized.

We gather as those who are part of the covenant body that extends beyond those who are ordained and consecrated to every person in the General Ministry of the Church.

Through the annual Charge/Church Conferences and the Charge or Church Conferences through the year, your Cabinet is helping local churches initiate new and vital forms of ministry.

Meeting with district committees and annual conference boards and agencies, we make every effort to strengthen our connection and to promote the spiritual and practical dimensions of our life together - which includes, yes, our apportionments or our dollars for mission and ministry. We also promote local and global mission experiences, and assist lay and clergy to assume mutual accountability for ministry.

Born out of our visioning retreat came an extended Cabinet covenant which will direct our lives individually and give strength to our collective ministry as a Cabinet for the next few years. Individually we are establishing and maintaining a relationship with a person (child, youth, or family) where there is great need or a program of ministry which will address the needs of persons or groups of persons in need or who in some way suffer from societal problems.

Presently, we covenant with our resources to establish a Cabinet mission fund to help children in poverty, and we covenant to be in prayer at the same time each week for the children of our communities, state, and world.

Jim Porter

The Future

As we look to the future, Bishop Wilson and the Cabinet will be addressing three primary areas of special concerns during the next two years.

1. Establish a clearly-defined policy to deal with ineffective pastoral leadership in the Church.
2. Continue to emphasize open itinerancy.
3. Encourage every local church to set both short and long-term goals.

We have heard the concerns of the local church on the effects of ineffective pastoral leadership. The time has come when the conference can no longer afford to appoint pastors who fail time after time, in appointment after appointment. It is important to have strong effective ministry in the Central Texas Conference. We insist on having every pastor measure up to the high standards set for our conference's pastors and their leadership in the local church. We are committed to make every effort to aid our pastoral leadership to meet this high standard of effectiveness in ministry, in every appointment. We are equally as committed to helping pastors to exit the United Methodist ministry who are unable or unwilling, or unsuitable to do effective ministry.

We are presently engaged in a policy where the Bishop and Cabinet hold special review conferences with pastors who have had two consecutive appointments where Pastor-Parish Committees have requested them to be moved. The purpose of these conferences is two-fold. First, it is to inform the pastor that he or she must be effective in future appointments, and secondly, to give counsel and support to the pastor in order to help them improve their ministry skills.

We will be establishing an exiting policy for those persons who repeatedly fail to be effective in their assigned ministries.

This Cabinet is committed to open itinerancy. There were nine cross-racial appointments in this conference this past conference year. This year a woman will be appointed to start a new congregation in the Temple District. Every effort is being made to place the right person in the right place in every appointment regardless of race, ethnic background or gender.

The Cabinet has held three Cabinet-level retreats. Every February the Appointive Cabinet holds an Inventory Retreat to access the pastoral needs of every local church in the conference. A review of every pastoral appointment is done in order to access personnel needs, and possible appointment openings. This practice will continue. In future years, the Cabinet will hold goal-setting retreats and spiritual life retreats on alternate years. This past fall we held a three-day spiritual life retreat at Glen Lake Camp. Also this past winter, the Cabinet held a two-day visioning retreat for the Appointive Cabinet. The following areas were identified as Cabinet priorities for the next two years:

- To develop a clearly defined exit process to share with everyone, which defines effectiveness and defines the exit procedure
- To make efforts to personalize apportionments
- To continue and upgrade the quality of sexual misconduct education
- To continue developing "listening posts" in the districts to hear where people are hurting

We encourage every local church to do goal setting in their local setting. Each district superintendent will be reviewing these goals in future Charge Conferences. We will aid in providing assistance and training to local churches in establishing effective and achievable goals in every local church.

Doyle Allen

You now have another view of the life and work of the district superintendent. I hope that it will enable you to better understand that we take our responsibilities seriously; that we are committed to our appointment; and that we work as a team to serve this annual conference in the best possible ways.

The use of the word: team -- reminds us that in order for us to work together in that capacity and accomplish our goals, we must have a qualified leader. We are blessed with an outstanding leader in Bishop Joe Allen Wilson!

Four years ago, we sent to Jurisdictional Conference with the expressed purpose of supporting Joe Wilson for the episcopacy, and requesting his assignment as our resident bishop. We were successful in our endeavor.

If you had walked with Bishop Wilson over these past four years, as I have, you would understand how fortunate we are that someone of his ability and integrity has been appointed here to guide us through some potentially catastrophic circumstances.
He has done that with wisdom, justice, and temperance.

Richard Freeman reminded me of the verse of scripture found in II Samuel 23:13, where the story is told of three men who had such strength of character, such loyalty to the king and such courage to undertake whatever was at hand, that the king honored them by saying they were persons who were worthy to be poured out as an offering to the Lord.

While this conference also has people of such worth to God and to humanity, most of whom are unknown to us, we have two who are well known to us: Bishop and Mrs. Joe Wilson.

They have finished their first quadrennium in the episcopacy in the Fort Worth Area, and the record speaks for itself. We are most fortunate to have such a committed couple to lead us!

Bishop Wilson's commitment to team-building, his consultative style of leadership, and his expertise in long-range planning are a treasure chest at our disposal.

Bishop Wilson and Zoe, we give thanks to God that you have come among us! We are blessed to have you as our area pastor!

Permit me to conclude this report with the observation that we continue to be a growing conference.

To repeat a portion of the composite report that I was privileged to give exactly ten years ago: "the bottom line of all our efforts is winning persons to Jesus Christ and enlisting their support on behalf of His kingdom. We should receive all the members we can by transfer of letter. We should welcome and train as many as possible from other denominations. But we have not been faithful to the task that is before us as disciples of Jesus Christ, until we have secured professions of faith from those who do not know the resurrected Lord!"

CENTRAL TEXAS METHODIST FOUNDATION
Report No. 1

Earlier in this Annual Conference you received a report from the Texas Methodist Foundation which is jointly owned by all of the Methodist Conferences in Texas, our conference being one of them. Now I want to give you a report on your foundation. A foundation that is only owned by this conference; The Foundation of the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church. From very modest beginnings in 1957 with $25,000 entrusted to its care, the Central Texas Methodist Foundation, our foundation, has emerged as a dynamic and fruitful ministry to the persons and churches of Central Texas.

The Foundation's original vision was to make "second mile" loans to churches that might not otherwise be able to borrow needed capital. We have never regretted a loan, and every loan has been repaid. Second mile lending continues to be an important part of your foundation's service in our conference.

In 1986, in order to launch our Central Texas Conference Office of Planned Giving, the Foundation pledged operating support so that the conference would not be out any apportioned funds for this service. For the first time professional staff was employed to assist people in making gifts to churches though wills and similar methods. By 1990, over $5 million in special gifts had been committed for local churches and Methodist causes.

In 1991 it was determined that, in order to be even more effective, the Foundation and the Office of Planned Giving should merge, and a bold new step was taken. The Foundation was actually rechartered to provide a complete range of services to all persons and churches within our conference. The Committee on Planned Giving was abolished and a new reconstituted board for the Foundation was created. The focus of the new Foundation falls into five areas:

1. Loans to churches for renovation and construction projects.
2. Administration and investment of local church funds.
3. Administration of charitable remainder trusts and charitable gift annuities with life income benefits for people.
4. Assisting persons with estate planning and will preparation.
5. Providing helpful aids and materials for local church programs.

From 1991 to 1995, the assets managed by the Foundation grew from $1.2 million to $5.2 million and planned gift commitments grew from $5 million to $35 million. In 1995, $400,000 was distributed to churches and individuals from gift funds and trusts. In 1996 the final distribution will be closer to $1 million.

The Foundation is not a recipient of any apportionment from this conference, and has used its own funds to benefit those we serve. After operating costs have been met, and with careful management, a productive investment program and generous supporters, the Foundation's principal asset value is the same as it was in 1991. Of particular significance is the generosity of Hiram and Dale Smith with a gift of $100,000 to the Foundation from the Avinelle McWhirter Ogle Estate. This gift along with interest from loans and returns on investment has provided the operating funds of the Foundation.

The Central Texas Methodist Foundation, your foundation, continues to grow and respond to the needs of this conference. We even changed our name to better reflect our service area and our commitment to United Methodists. The Foundation has recently acquired a building across the street from the Conference Center for badly needed office space and meeting space. We officially approved a contract for renovation of this space only this morning and we will be moving into the space this fall. This building renovation is designed to complement and be compatible with the present Conference Center and our new meeting room and facilities will be available for use by all conference agencies, boards, and staff.

As President of the Foundation, I am very grateful for all that the Foundation has accomplished, for all the ways it serves our churches and our church family, and for all those whose leadership has enabled, and continues to enable, the Foundation to grow and serve. I would like for all of the members of the Foundation Board of Directors to stand and let us say thanks for your vision and commitment.

This Foundation started with only volunteers and no staff, then we employed one professional staff person. With the fantastic growth we have experienced we have grown to a staff of four and I would like for you to meet them. Pat Sprayberry is our Executive Director and the person largely responsible for the fantastic growth that we have experienced and you will hear from her shortly. Tricia Briscoe is our receptionist/secretary and the first person you usually meet when calling on our services. Beverly Hansen is our numbers person. Accounting, reporting and accurate detailed record keeping are her specialty. This year we added a fourth employee and he is one I like to kid, but in reality we owe more than we can ever pay for his efforts to create, guide and nurture this foundation to its present position. He has served as President of this board and now serves as Pat's right hand in spreading the word about the Foundation to all churches in the conference. Ervin Gathings steps in to fill speaking engagements, visit with churches and others to tell them about their foundation. Let's give them a hand.

As your foundation, the Central Texas Methodist Foundation is always ready to respond to your needs and we welcome the opportunity to serve. Ken Smith, President

Report No. 2

The Board of Directors and Staff of the Central Texas Methodist Foundation are committed to making the Foundation's services available to every local church and person within our conference bounds. It is a privilege to be a part of the Foundation's ministry and this great Annual Conference.

There are three important areas of service available to you. Does your church need a loan? Does your church need to invest funds? Does your church need a permanent endowment? Call your Central Texas Methodist Foundation. We only exist to serve you.

For the funds entrusted to our care in 1995, the rates of return, after all fees were: Income Fund 8.07%, Pooled Mortgage Fund 8.12% and the Growth Fund 18.36%. Participation in these investments is available to every local church in this conference.

We serve as a bridge for churches to benefit each other. When your church invests in the pooled mortgage fund, you have a share in helping other churches build and expand ministry. They have a share in paying interest back to your church for use in ministry.

We serve in ministry with you and your church to help meet personal needs of will planning, creating trusts and annuities to pay income for living, and in administering estates to benefit loved ones, churches, and other United Methodist causes.

The Central Texas Methodist Foundation is always available to you, and we welcome every opportunity to share in ministry with you.

Patricia Sprayberry, Executive Director

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

In keeping with our disciplinary mandate "to stimulate participation in and evaluation of mission programs ecumenically planned and implemented..." we have sent representatives to the Town and Country Church Conference in College Station last October, the Faith and Order Conference in Houston in November, and the Texas Conference of Churches

Assembly in February. Members of our commission continue to serve on the state IMPACT board as well as the Texas Conference of Churches executive committee and board, and the Tarrant Area Community of Churches.

At the Fall University in September we will sponsor sections presented by the Rev. Thomas Grey, coordinator of the National Coalition Against Legalized Gambling, since the state legislature will consider casinos and riverboats at its next session.

Last year we facilitated the presentation of the Bishop's Award for Excellence in Ecumenism for the first time, and Belva Knight from Gatesville was the honoree. The second award will be given during our report at the 1996 session of the annual conference.

During its Assembly in February the Texas Conference of Churches adopted a new constitution. In order for the new document to become effective it must be ratified by two-thirds of its member judicatories. The document is included as a part of this report for your consideration and ratification.

It has been my privilege to serve God and this annual conference as chair of this commission for the 1992-1996 quadrennium. I look forward to representing United Methodism as a member of the General Assembly of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. during this quadrennium.

Mary Weathers, Chair

CONSTITUTION
TEXAS CONFERENCE OF CHURCHES

--SUBMITTED FOR RATIFICATION--

In its annual meeting of February 26-27, 1996, the Assembly of Representatives of the Texas Conference of Churches approved the following new constitution for the Conference. According to the existing Constitution (Article XIV - AMENDING THE CONSTITUTION), the new text is now submitted to the member ecclesiastical units for ratification. When 35 member units (two-thirds of the 52 total members) have notified the office of the T.C.C. that they have voted to ratify the new constitution, the Board of Directors will notify all member units that the new constitution is thereafter in effect.

PREAMBLE

Jesus Christ calls us to unity. In obedient response to that call and in recognition and affirmation of his prayer, "that they may all be one," those churches in Texas whose members proclaim Jesus the Christ as Lord and Savior and who choose to express and bear testimony to such common witness do hereby constitute ourselves into the Texas Conference of Churches. In so doing, we seek to enable our members to work together, to engage in dialogue, to overcome divisions and misunderstandings, to engage in prayer and work for unity, and to give, as far as possible, a common Christian witness and service; doing together all things save those which we must in conscience and obedience do separately.

ARTICLE I-PURPOSES

The purpose of the Texas Conference of Churches is to clarify and strengthen our witness to Christ as Lord of Church and world by:

A. Acknowledging his lordship in word, act and worship;

B. Promoting the spirit of ecumenism, cultivating inter-church fellowship and fostering dialogues about our Christian faith;

C. Attempting to apply more effectively the substance and insights of the Christian gospel to curb the destructive forces at work in the structures and institutions of our society;

D. Creating opportunities for judicatory leaders to meet together for Bible study and theological reflection thereby being a model for all Christians who are committed to the ecumenical expression of our Christian faith;

E. Providing means of cooperation and sharing among the member churches and their agencies and movements which further the common purposes of the Church, whereby duplication of efforts may be lessened and effectiveness increased.

ARTICLE II-MEMBERSHIP

Membership in the Texas Conference of Churches shall be as follows:
Section 1. Full Members.
A. Ecclesiastical units (conference, diocese, district, presbytery, synod, area, region, etc.) of the various Christian communions within the state of Texas which ratify or endorse this Constitution shall be full members.
B. Christian communions without official judicatory structures may apply for full membership by providing to the Board of Directors documents reflecting an association of churches within the communion which has voted to approve this Constitution.
Section 2. Associate Members
A. Other ecclesiastical units and individual congregations which approve this Constitution may apply to the Board of Directors for associate membership.
B. Local or regional ecumenical conferences, councils, or communities of churches may apply to the Board of Directors for associate membership.
Section 3. Full membership shall continue until and unless the member ecclesiastical body rescinds its endorsement of this Constitution. Associate membership must be reviewed for renewal by the Board of Directors every five years.

ARTICLE III-POLICIES AND RELATIONSHIPS

Section 1. The autonomy and integrity of each ecclesiastical unit will be respected at all times. The right of dissent or abstention in specific policies and programs of the Conference is accorded to each member unit.
Section 2. The Conference shall be completely autonomous. However, fraternal and consultative relationships may be maintained with local, national, and world ecumenical agencies.

ARTICLE IV-COLLEGE OF JUDICATORY LEADERS

Section 1. The highest ranking administrator of each full member ecclesiastical unit shall, by reason of that office, be a member of the College of Judicatory Leaders.
Section 2. The College shall meet at least annually to conduct its business, and will elect eight of its members to serve on the Board of Directors for two-year terms. The Board Members shall be elected in two rotating classes of four Members each.
Section 3. The College shall elect one of its members to serve as Dean for a term of one year, to preside at all meetings, and to coordinate the work of the College.
Section 4. The purpose of the College shall be to provide the judicatory leaders with an organized, regular forum for ecumenical discussion and reflection as a model for the whole Church; and to provide for the Conference the collective wisdom of the Church's designated leaders to illumine the theological and biblical foundations of the Conference's program and mission.
Section 5. One third of the membership of the College shall constitute a quorum, providing they represent at least four different communions.
Section 6. The Executive Director shall sit as a member of the College of Judicatory Leaders.

ARTICLE V-THE ASSEMBLY OF REPRESENTATIVES

Section 1. There shall be an Assembly of Representatives elected or appointed by the constituent member units of the Conference in such manner as each shall choose on the following basis:
A. Each full member ecclesiastical unit shall be entitled to two representatives in the Assembly plus one additional for each 20,000 confirmed or adult members, or major fraction thereof, except that denominational units with jurisdiction embracing the entire state of Texas shall have the two basic representatives plus one additional for each 10,000 confirmed or adult members up to 400,000 and one additional representative for each 20,000 members in excess of 400,000. In no case shall the representation of a single denominational group exceed one-third of the total Assembly. At least one-half of the elected or appointed representatives of each member unit shall be lay people.

B. In addition to the above designated representatives, Members of the Board of Directors and all elected officers of the Assembly shall be fully accredited representatives in the Assembly.

COMMISSION ON CHURCH GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT Partners in Growth

PARTNERSHIPS is what has most marked this year for your Commission on Church Growth and Development. This has been a major theme for our SHARE program since our beginnings in 1980. It is now a theme for all we do. We have discovered that the multitude of needs out there for starting new congregations has multiplied while our SHARES have remained fairly constant. We are grateful for the support of our Shareholders while at the same time needing to find ways to multiply that support in order to meet the needs for growing new congregations.

Local Churches are given the responsibility in paragraph 257.7 of the Discipline to "organize and sponsor new churches, church schools, and other forms of ministry needed in the community." In the past few years we have partnered with: Lake Brownwood, First UMC, Eureka, Richland, Streetman Parish; Westcliff UMC; Belton, Temple and Killeen First UMCs; to begin a variety of satellite ministries including Fishermen's Chapel; Lakeside Fellowship; City View; Open Arms UMC and seven other satellites in Bell County. These ministries have reached all kinds of people from retired upper middle class folk on lake sides to homeless persons on the streets of Temple. St. Andrews became a completely self sufficient church this year and is growing rapidly and with an exciting long range plan has a great future. Alliance will have moved into their first unit by the time you read this report and we celebrate this tremendous partnership in the creation of this great new church. Eagle Mountain is moving ahead with new vision and planning and will be completely self sufficient next year.

We have also partnered with local churches to provide space or other cooperative arrangements for new church starts: Mi Casa, Su Casa at First UMC, Arlington; New Vietnamese at Good Shepherd UMC in Arlington; Poly UMC for Buen Samaritano; St. Philips in Round Rock in the providing of a parsonage for the new church start in Georgetown.

We have also partnered with rural congregations at Waples and Watts Chapel UMCs to expand and grow their ministries as well as providing a Rural Consultant who is available to all our rural congregations.

Districts have also worked with us in partnerships: Brownwood District in the Ballinger and Brownwood Hispanic ministries; Temple with funding for the new church start in Georgetown and mission support for Open Arms UMC and other satellites in Bell county; Ft. Worth East in support for the Buen Samaritano and new Vietnamese projects; Weatherford in the initiation of Hispanic project in Cleburne; Waxahachie in the new fellowship hall at Watts Chapel and the initiation of a project at St. Andrews in Corsicana.

District Boards of Church Building and Location are partnered with us though the provisions of the legislation that initiated the commission in 1980. They have been an integral part of the comprehensive study we are doing of the entire conference. We are meeting with each district board in order to map out strategies for new church development for the next ten to fifteen years. The process began a year ago and will be completed this fall and will be presented to the 1997 Annual Conference.

The Bishop and Cabinet are given central roles in paragraph 171.1 of the Discipline in developing new local churches or mission. Their partnership has been felt in the guidance and support of our program at every level and at every turn in every victory and every crisis. The Director serving on the Appointive Cabinet has truly made this a partnership that reaches into every church of our Conference for the benefit of every pastor and congregation. This arrangement also makes our Conference unique in yet another way as we seek to grow together in all ways through the grace and leading of God.

Ethnic Groups are also participating in the comprehensive study. You will find as a part of this report a refinement and additional strategy for the Comprehensive Hispanic Plan for the Central Texas Conference. This group has become a permanent part of the stategizing in Church Growth and Development for Hispanic ministry.

United Methodist Agencies are also working with us to begin new congregations: Harris Hospital with Westcliff UMC in the City View project and their assistance in publishing this year's SHARE brochures; The Wesleyan in Georgetown through helping in the purchase of property together to reduce the cost per acre for the new start in Georgetown; Retired Ministers Homes and the entire Conference through CFA in the start up of a new congregation at Morgan's Point; Metropolitan Board of Missions in the support of various projects including our Hispanic ministry; The Texas Methodist Foundation and the General Board of Global Ministries in the giving of grants for some of our projects; The Central Texas Conference Foundation in making Church Growth and Development a part of its presentations in helping people with estate and other financial planning.

This has been a tremendous year of progress. Many partnerships which have developed and are developing I am sure have been missed. But our greatest partnership is with each and every United Methodist in the Central Texas Annual Conference. Together we make it happen. Thank you for your SHARES. Thank you for keeping growth in all things the focus of our Conference and all of our churches. So that together we can continue the record of growth that has been a hallmark of our Conference since 1974.

New Church Starts will enter a new phase of partnership with the start-ups at Georgetown and Morgan Point. The commission is making them full partners. This means that one half (1/2) of the monies the commission puts into their project including programming, salaries, land, buildings, etc. will be in the form of a non-interest-bearing loan that will be paid back through their budget and most importantly through their raising SHARE monies in their church and in their district.

Having Ears to Hear and Eyes to See and Spirit to Act

"I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?" Is.43.19

I. The Vision

The face of the Central Texas Conference is changing. Now, more than ever we have the opportunity to be an inclusive church and to call all God's children to live under God's wings. God is calling us to be one body, one church, multi-cultural, multi-ethnic.

"As Christians. . . we believe that God is doing a new thing in our own day (Is.43.19; Rev.21.5), by bringing to our communities people from a variety of cultures and backgrounds, and thus allowing us a glimpse of that glorious day when 'people will come from east and west, from north and south, and will eat in the kingdom of God' (Lk 13.29). As General Conference expressed it in 1988, 'The US social and cultural mosaic is changing. . . . We as United Methodists should affirm it, celebrate it, and seek to reflect it in our own denomination.'"[1] For United Methodists today it requires that we throw ourselves into the hands of God in order to perceive the new thing that God is doing in our midst. The leadership of our denomination has invited the church to embrace The National Plan for Hispanic Ministry and share the GOOD NEWS OF SALVATION.

The goals of the National Plan are: 1,000 faith communities, 2,000 lay missioners, 3,000 outreach ministries, 500 new church school extension programs, 100 revitalized Hispanic churches, and 100 new Hispanic congregations. For Central Texas Conference this would mean: 25 faith communities, 50 lay missioners, 60 outreach ministries, 10 new church school extension programs, 2 revitalized Hispanic churches, and 2 new Hispanic congregations.

II. Challenge

Does your church have Hispanic population in your parish area? Check it out!

God has created a new reality right here in Central Texas Conference. The Hispanic population went from 7% to 11% between 1980 and 1990. Johnson County in the Weatherford District has one of the seven fastest growing Hispanic population in the country. Between 1990 to 2010 the Hispanic population in our conference will almost double, increasing by 244,030 to 16% of the population.

According to the 1990 Census there were over 270,000 Hispanics within the bounds of the Central Texas Conference yet United Methodist membership represented only .3% of the total population. According to the latest research 10% to 16% (depending on the segment of the Hispanic population being considered) of the Hispanic population is Protestant with at least 1% having United Methodist preference. We must do far more than we are in reaching out to all God's children in our Conference.

Take a quick look at your district at the end of this report. Check it out!

III. Opportunity

What is your church doing in ministry with Hispanics? Check it out!

The Central Texas Conference has heard and seen what God is doing and has responded by putting the responsibility for implementing the National Plan for Hispanic Ministry with the Commission on Church Growth and Development. It has responded by pulling together the necessary research, planning and resources. It has asked for and received a missionary for Hispanic Ministries. It has formed a Committee on Hispanic Ministries.

Several ministries are in place that local churches can see and experience. Local churches can use these as models as they develop their own ministries.

Comunidad de Fe is a small congregation in Ballinger which is being revitalized after having been closed for several years. Its bilingual ministry provides worship services, Sunday School, and several outreach ministries such as tutoring. First United Methodist Church of Ballinger has provided a variety of support.

Brownwood is in the formative phase of reopening a Hispanic church that has been closed for several years. Spanish worship services are beginning.

Buen Samaritano UMC is a new mission in Southeast Fort Worth and is a satellite ministry of Polytechnic UMC. It reaches out to the growing Hispanic population by providing Spanish worship services and various outreach ministries such as English as a Second Language, soccer, and health and legal information.

Diamond Hill UMC is a neighborhood church in Northside, Fort Worth. Once a non-Hispanic church, now it reaches out to the predominately Hispanic residents in the community. It provides bilingual worship and Sunday School, and various outreach ministries such as English as a Second Language, tutoring, and children and youth activities. First United Methodist Church of Fort Worth has formed a partnership with Diamond Hill.

Mi Casa Su Casa is a new mission in Arlington. It offers bilingual worship services, with Holy Communion every Sunday. Its membership include Hispanics and non-Hispanics and several cross-cultural marriage families. Small home Bible study groups have been formed. First United Methodist of Arlington provides support through sharing its facilitities and secretarial support.

Polytechnic UMC is a congregation that has long been involved in ministry with Hispanics. It offers various outreach ministries such as English as a Second Language and neighborhood celebrations. It has begun Buen Samaritano as a satellite ministry.

Local churches are hearing and responding to God's call. In the last year these churches have begun a discerning process for where God is calling them in ministry with Hispanics: First UMC, Hurst; First UMC, DeLeon, First UMC, Stephenville; First UMC, Belton, Tenth St., Taylor; Brack's Chapel, Waco; Walnut Springs; First UMC, Palmer;

Local churches are identifying committed lay persons who feel themselves called to be lay missioners who work in partnership with their pastor to develop a specific ministry. Currently three laypersons have completed the 40 hour training and four have completed half of the training.

IV. Invitation

Does your church have a plan for ministries with Hispanics? God calls us to action. In fact scripture shows that failure is preferable to inaction. (Mt. 25.25 "So I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.")

Steps for action:

1. Express your interest by signing up at Annual Conference.
2. Contact the Church Growth and Development Missionary for Hispanic Ministries in order to learn what resources are available. There are trained individuals in each district ready to assist you in discovering where God is calling you in ministry with Hispanics.
3. As a response to the invitation from God, pray, believe, and commit.

COMMITTEE ON COUNSELING

Report No. 1

This year the counseling committee continued its effort to offer a good program. We feel that our counseling program offers a wide range of experience and resources to the clergy and diaconal ministers and families of the conference. We commend all our counselors for the valuable service which they are providing to our conference members. In addition to the confidential counseling available, they are also available for seminars and workshops.

Report No. 2

1. This service is available to ordained conference members, diaconal, and retired ministers, and persons serving full-time conference appointments, plus their spouses and dependent family members. In addition, ordained members and families of the Rio Grande Conference serving within the geographical boundaries of this episcopal area are eligible.
2. Complete confidentiality and respect for privacy will be maintained. As a client, your name will be known only to your counselor, and no information about you will go to any other person without your written consent. Trust will be vested in the integrity of the counselors, both to keep confidences with clients and to keep faith with the program by submitting accurate bills of service for payment. Such bills will list hours of service but no names.
3. The Counseling Service will be limited to six visits to a counselor in any one year.
   a. The first two visits will be paid in full by the program.
   b. Thereafter, participants will be asked to pay a portion of the cost, scaled to income, as follows:

Family Income	Program Will Pay	Client Will Pay
1. Under $20,000	90%	10%
2. $20,000 - 27,500	75%	25%
3. Over $27,500	50%	50%

Family income includes combined incomes of spouses, excluding housing or parsonage allowance.

4. Thereafter, if counseling is still needed, an application may be made to the Health Benefits Program for possible payment. At this time, the symptoms must clearly indicate the need for therapy.
5. During the first six visits to the counselor, payments from the Counseling Program and the Health Benefits Program simultaneously will not be allowed.
6. Payments for this program will be made only to those counselors who have been approved as participants in the program. There will be no exceptions.

BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY
Report No. 1

The Board of Diaconal Ministry has accomplished the following:

1. Met jointly with the Board of Ordained Ministry on November 14, 1995, at First United Methodist Church, Arlington. Mary Langley, Associate Registrar, and Rev. Jeff Smith, Board member, led a discussion of "Pain and Hope in the Midst of Ministry." This was the continuation of discussion led the year before by Rev. Mike Young, Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Participants created Psalms of Lament to express and release pain, and in order to bring about healing and move forward in our ministries.

2. Provided an opportunity for the Board of Diaconal Ministry, and all active and retired Diaconal Ministers in the Central Texas Conference to meet with Bishop Joe A. Wilson and the Cabinet. Delegates to General Conference were also invited to be present. The dinner meeting was held at First United Methodist Church, Arlington, on January 16, 1996. Mary Langley facilitated a panel discussion about the future of the diaconate in light of the Study of the Ministry to be presented at General Conference. After much discussion, it was reported that the majority of diaconal ministers present favored an amendment for one ordination to deacon, one ordination to elder.
3. Was represented at the '95 National Convocation on Diaconal Ministry, held in Atlanta, Georgia, October 26-28, by eleven diaconal ministers. Those diaconal ministers attending were: Diane Smiley, Linda Ray Miller, Phil Seawell, Sarah Leach, Nila Geisel, Barbara Elliott, Annette Vanzant Williams, Jeannie Trevino-Teddlie, Brenda Wier, Melissa Nichols, and Mike Wright-Chapman (design team member).
4. Held the annual interviews March 28-29, 1996, at First United Methodist Church, Burleson. Fifteen persons were interviewed. One person was given the certificate of candidacy for diaconal ministry, seven persons were continued in candidacy, two persons were discontinued in candidacy, and two persons were recommended for consecration: Gwen Clay, and Jeanna Stewart. Gwen Clay, Jeanna Stewart and Kay Birkholz were recommended for certification as Associates in Christian Education.
5. Awarded Models for Ministry funding to PACT (Parents and Children Together) for a new ministry to children of incarcerated parents, Partners in Parenting Program. Dianna Lucas, a candidate for diaconal ministry, directs this program, the purpose of which is to establish a volunteer program which builds relationships of encouragement and support between families of prisoners and the church community. Models for Ministry funds are designed to assist persons or groups on a one-time basis in establishing specialized ministries in "non-traditional" settings.
6. Offered a spring continuing education event, "Still Called to Serve?," for Diaconal Ministers and Board of Diaconal Ministry members. Presenters invited to facilitate this overnight retreat were Deacon Joe Milligan, Director of the Permanent Diaconate for the Roman Catholic Diocese of Fort Worth, and The Rev. Lana K. Farley, a Deacon in the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth.
7. Continued to support diaconal ministers and certified persons in the Central Texas Conference by reviewing their work, recommending their recertification where appropriate, and recommending to Bishop Wilson and the Cabinet their renewal in the office and appointment to service.
8. Reaffirmed a policy statement regarding diaconal ministers in service appointments beyond the local church.
9. Offered a Fall University course for Staff-Parish Relations Committee Chairpersons and members, Pastors, and District Superintendents entitled "Is There a Diaconal Minister in Your Church's Present or Future?".

Report No. 2

The Board recommends the following goals for the Division of Deacons for 1996-97:

1. Work collegially with Bishop Wilson and the Division of Elders in restructuring the Board of Ordained Ministry.
2. Create a task force for the purpose of developing systems of support and advocacy for physically challenged persons in candidacy and consecrated or ordained to the diaconate.
3. Publish a quarterly newsletter for diaconal ministers and certified persons related to the Central Texas Conference, in order to share personal and professional news, changes in service appointments, and to facilitate understanding of the transitions of this new era of the diaconate.
4. Assure that representatives are available to assist districts and local churches in the training of Staff-Parish Relations Committees in their responsibilities for diaconal ministers and ordained deacons who will serve in their congregations.

Report No. 3
Relationships and Responsibilities of Employing Agencies to Diaconal Ministers

When a diaconal minister is employed by local church, it is the responsibility of the Pastor-Parish (Staff-Parish) Relations Committee to act as the employing agency for the Administrative Board. This committee, in consultation with the pastor in charge, shall interview, employ, issue job descriptions and contracts (which clearly state employment practices, including procedures for dismissal, vacation, and leave policies), evaluate and terminate employment (The 1992 Book of Discipline, par. 270.2f[8]). The diaconal minister shall have full access to the entire committee (par. 270.2b). In United Methodist churches and other employing agencies there shall be an annual review of the diaconal minister's performance no later than ninety (90) days prior to Annual Conference (par. 316).

Since diaconal ministers are not guaranteed a place of employment by the Church, special attention shall be given to termination procedures which allow time for seeking another service appointment. Notification of dismissal shall provide a ninety (90) day period prior to final termination of employment. The date for termination shall coincide with the date of Annual Conference or the date stipulated in the contract, except for causes listed in par. 2622. In turn, the diaconal minister shall give the employing agency ninety (90) days notice regarding resignation unless the contract states otherwise (par. 317).

It is the responsibility of the employing agency to ensure the rights and best conditions of employment for the diaconal minister based upon the annual conference standards (1990 Journal) and upon the diaconal minister's training, ability and experience. The Conference Board has the responsibility to see that the entrance into employment and departure from employment are open and fair to all persons involved; that the hours of work and basic salary compensation are equitable and just; that continuing education, participation in professional groups, and vacation opportunities are provided; and that pension, insurance, and social security programs are made available.

Report No. 4
Procedures for Transfer of Diaconal Ministers

The request by a diaconal minister for "transfer in" shall be approved/disapproved by the receiving bishop in consultation with the Board of Diaconal Ministry of the receiving conference. The bishop prepares the official forms for the "transfer in" or "transfer out" of credentials and records when a diaconal minister's relationship is moved from one annual conference to another. The diaconal minister initiates the action and the receiving conference board oversees the process as follows (The 1992 Book of Discipline, par. 312 and 734.3o):

1. The diaconal minister consults with the bishop and appropriate district superintendent in both conferences before accepting a new position.
2. The diaconal minister then writes to the receiving bishop requesting transfer and sends copies of the request to the two conference boards and the sending bishop.
3. At this time, the cabinet, bishop, or conference board may request an interview with the diaconal minister for additional information.
4. The receiving board will send a recommendation of transfer to the receiving bishop.
5. If transfer and the service appointment are approved by the receiving bishop, he/she sends the "Official Notice of Transfer In" (Form 2149) to the sending bishop, who responds with the "Official Notice of Transfer Out" (Form 2148). The receiving conference board shall initiate the request for transfer of a diaconal minister's files.
6. All procedures of transfer shall be completed within six months following the effective date of employment. Failure to follow this procedure may result in termination.

Report No. 5
Policy Statement Regarding Diaconal Ministers in the Central Texas Conference with Service Appointments Beyond the Local Church

The Board of Diaconal Ministry adopts the following policies for the Central Texas Conference.

1. Diaconal Ministers with service appointments beyond the local church shall be related to a local congregation through Charge Conference and Administrative Board membership. The diaconal minister shall notify the Conference Board of Diaconal Ministry of their specific local church membership upon approval of a service appointment, and of any changes with the local church or service appointment.

2. Diaconal Ministers in service appointments beyond the local church shall, as a part of their witness to the gathered church, be a regular part of a worshipping congregation, and a participant in the ongoing life of that congregation.
3. A report of the diaconal minister's involvement in the local church shall be part of the Annual Report, and shall be signed by the pastor in charge of the congregation where the diaconal minister's Charge Conference membership is held. This shall be in addition to the supervisor's report.
4. The local church pastor is strongly encouraged to invite the diaconal minister to participate in worship leadership from time to time, providing a witness of the diaconal minister's involvement, and demonstration of the connection between worship and ministries of love, service and justice.
5. Those agencies employing diaconal ministers shall be notified of paragraphs 308 and 309 of The 1992 Book of Discipline, requiring that diaconal ministers be in full attendance at Annual Conference sessions, without using vacation, personal or continuing education time.
6. Diaconal Ministers in service appointments beyond the local church are expected to be in attendance at the annual meeting with the Bishop, Cabinet, Board of Diaconal Ministry and Diaconal Ministers.
7. At least once a quadrennium, the diaconal ministers with service appointments beyond the local church shall be interviewed by the Conference Board of Diaconal Ministry.

Report No. 6

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION AND CLERGY BENEFITS

Report No. 1

The commission has met as needed and has carried out its responsibilities of overseeing the Minimum Compensation program for the Annual Conference. Because of the changes in appointments from time to time which often changes the number of persons and the amount needed for supplements, it is extremely difficult to project financial needs as far in advance as is required. The commission seeks to be responsible to the churches of the Annual Conference in not requesting more than is needed in apportionments, and at the same time provide adequately for the program.

We are recommending that Equitable Compensation levels for all categories of supplements be increased by 3% for the 1997 conference financial year.

At the request of the Annual Conference, we have undertaken further review of our Parsonage Standards policy, in regards to whose responsibility it is to store furniture if a parsonage family has some of its own furniture. If this study is completed prior to June we will report recommendations to this year's Annual Conference.

Report No. 2

Equitable Compensation Fund:

There shall be a program of equitable compensation support in the Central Texas Conference under the management of the Commission on Equitable Compensation and Clergy Benefits. This program shall be patterned after ¶ 722 of the 1992 Discipline. Based on these guidelines, the following paragraphs shall compose the operating procedure for the Equitable Compensation Program.

1. A prerequisite for consideration of salary supplements from the Equitable Compensation Fund shall be the filing with the commission of a written application by the district superintendent. The district superintendent shall certify classification of the pastor and the salary (salary, travel, utilities and benefits) set by the charge. The application form will be supplied by the commission.
2. Salary grants shall be made for a calendar year with payments made monthly. In cases of appointment changes at or between the Annual Conference session, the district superintendent shall file a written request with the commission. Approved supplements shall then be paid on a pro-rata basis for the part of the year actually served.
3. The following conditions must be met by the pastoral charge before it can become eligible for consideration to receive supplements from the Equitable Compensation Fund.
    a. The pastoral charge shall have conducted a stewardship campaign for the local church budget of each of its churches during the previous conference year.
    b. All apportioned items shall have been paid in full by the local church for the previous conference year.
    c. The charge must have at least 100 members.

    In unusual situations the Commission on Equitable Compensation and Clergy Benefits may waive any or all of these conditions.
4. The Commission on Equitable Compensation and Clergy Benefits will pay any amount up to 1/3 of the minimum salary as set by the Annual Conference for each applicant according to his/her ministerial classification. If any exception under paragraph 3 or 4 is sought, the request must be endorsed by a 2/3 vote of the Cabinet before it can be considered by the commission.
5. Persons of the following ministerial relationships are eligible for consideration for salary supplements at the level indicated for 1995 and 1996. Rates for adjustment will be considered annually by the commission, rather than establishing automatic adjustments.

Report No. 3

Moving Expenses

1. We recommend that upon proper documentation of actual expenses for moving provided to the conference secretary/treasurer, the conference pay the amount of actual moving expenses incurred up to the greater of $200 or $3.00 per mile for the first 100 miles and $1.00 per mile additional after the first 100 miles within the bounds of the annual conference. The receiving charge is expected to pay any remaining balance of the actual moving expenses.
2. We further recommend that the procedure of filing correct forms with the conference secretary/treasurer be continued and that proper documentation be made at the time reimbursement is requested. Request for moving expense must be submitted to the conference secretary/treasurer within 90 days of the effective date of an appointment.
3. We do, however, expect every receiving charge in the Annual Conference to pay the moving expense of the new minister in excess of the allowances and it must be the responsibility of the district superintendent at the time of consultation to inform the church of its share of this obligation.
4. We recommend that the conference pay the moving expenses of a retiring clergy person within the boundaries of the conference, or one being placed on Disability Leave, or the surviving spouse and family of a clergy person who dies while under appointment, within the boundaries of the conference. This reimbursement will not exceed $500 over the amount paid in Article #1.
5. Moving pastors should consult with receiving church before entering into contract that would bind the church.
6. Clergy whose salary is below the annual conference average compensation will be able to request, if they desire to do so, an advance on the portion of moving expense to be paid by the annual conference. Such advance shall be based on estimates of actual costs, shall be in writing and shall be signed by the minister and the district superintendent of the sending charge. In the event that the advance given by the annual conference should exceed the annual conference's actual responsibility, the overage shall be refunded to the annual conference within 30 days.

BOARD OF LAITY

The Board of Laity continues to emphasize the work of the United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men and the conference Council on Youth Ministry. As you can tell from their individual reports, the work of each entity is truly impressive. A major goal of the Board of Laity over the past quadrennium has been to support and strengthen each of these entities. With a great source of pride we can say that this goal is being accomplished.

We continue to mail to every local church lay leader quarterly calendars of activities in which the laity may participate at the district and conference levels. It is the responsibility of the local church lay leader to distribute the activity calendar to the local church.

The lay speaking ministry in our conference continues to play an active role. The list of certified lay speakers continues to grow. The Morris Walker Scholarship Award has achieved a prominent level of support. Each year we receive more and more outstanding nominations for the award.

Lay Speakers

"Our Christian Faith is serious business, but the Bible is a book of joy celebrating the constant grace of God." (Lay Speaking Ministry - Basic Course)

The fifteen lay speaking courses held across our conference have touched lives and renewed spirits. Lay speakers care: about listening, praying, worshipping, speaking & teaching, leading, serving, judging, healing, and celebrating.

This year the Central Texas Conference has offered opportunities for learning not only within each district, but districts have crossed lines and conferences as well to take advantage of this learning ministry. We are proud to be in leadership.

Look for updated Certification/Recertification forms in your district office. As we approach a new century, we maintain our goals of ministry to touch lives through leading, caring and speaking.

Diana E. Schultz, Conference Director

UNITED METHODIST MEN

The United Methodist Men Purpose states the UMM organization "shall be a creative, supportive fellowship of men...." The Central Texas Conference UMM leadership is targeting the creative and supportive aspects of the Purpose. The design is to provide district and local units support and creative ideas, resources, and opportunities for conference-wide fellowship and service.

In October 1995 when new Constitution and Bylaws were adopted for the conference UMM, it made way for a new structure which was implemented January 1, 1996. This allows the organization to build on the foundation laid by our predecessors under the leadership of A. J. Cooper, Sr., past president. This structure allows for a broader base of operation. Each of the three vice-presidents oversees standing committees that focus on a variety of areas including Future Planning, Standing Rules, Training Resources, Evangelism and Witness, Finance, Spiritual Life, Aldersgate Enrichment Center, Mission and Outreach, and Youth Serving and Scouting Ministries.

The Executive Committee has concurred to emphasize several areas including:

Communication. Improving communication between conference, district, and local units. Strengthening the connection between the conference officers and the district presidents; and between the district presidents and the local unit presidents.

Clearinghouse. Posturing the conference organization as a clearinghouse for information and resources for local units. This includes assimilating information and resources on spiritual formation and mission opportunities from the National office (EMS, scouting, Bowl-A-Thon, Prayer Center, Spiritual Journey for Men,...) and information from local units that can be shared with other local units in our conference. Service opportunities will be posted. We are working with James Bell of Volunteers in Mission, continued support for Aldersgate Enrichment Center, as well as other ministries.

Leadership Development. For the first time we will offer training for local presidents and officers at Fall University and we are looking at providing some training at the Fall Rally. The workshop will be led by Santiago Neredia of the National Association of Conference Presidents.

Conference-Wide Fellowship. The spring retreat April 26-27, 1996 at Glen Lake will once again provide an opportunity for retreat, inspiration, and fellowship. Also the Fall Rally will be emphasized. Men will also be encouraged to consider attending the Congress of Men at Purdue on July 11-13, 1997.

Youth Emphasis. The CTC UMM desires to renew an emphasis on youth ministries. This includes scouting and other youth organizations. We are also seeking ways to work with the CCYM and the conference youth program. UMM officers for Youth Serving and Scouting Ministries met with ACCOM Associate Director, to discuss opportunities where UMM can become involved with youth throughout our conference.

We continue to charter new units. Pastors and lay men continue to express interest in revitalizing existing units. Our goal is to be able to provide support and resources to each local church to afford the opportunity for a vital UMM program in each congregation as they seek to engage all men in mission and ministry.

Tom Harkrider, President

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

1995 for United Methodist Women in our conference was a great year. We achieved many of our goals and we came much closer to making our pledge. We were $5,748.43 short of making our pledge of $195,000. We sent a total of $210,011.40 to Women's Division and our membership was 8,868, an increase of forty-five members.

We began the year with over 250 women at Glen Lake Camp for Sing-A-Rainbow. This event celebrated diversity and was highlighted in the July/August "Bright Lights" section of Response Magazine. We shared songs, stories, dances, foods and fellowship with African Americans, Anglo Americans, Asian Americans, Hispanic Americans, Native Americans and Tongan Americans.

Twenty women or more went to Austin for the Legislative Event sponsored by all the UMW conferences in the state of Texas. Mary Weathers served as chairperson. This was also featured in Response Magazine.

Time Apart's spiritual renewal and fellowship for 265 was inspiring. Speakers were district superintendent Rev. Ruth Huber-Rohlfs, and Rev. Mary Clair Lowrance as our Bible study leader. Mattie McClure of Morningside UMC was our song leader.

We participated in a pilot project of the Women's Division for a Satellite Financial Promotion Workshop at Hill College in Hillsboro. Each district sent five persons and the entire Executive Conference Team participated. This type of training may be the future for training events for officers, therefore being a savings in cost.

Annual Conference in June voted overwhelmingly to affirm the work of UMW. They affirmed our long commitment to the church for education, financial assistance, mission outreach to women, youth and children throughout the world and encouraged us to continue our giving through UMW. This affirmation was forwarded to the Petition Secretary for General Conference meeting in April.

We had over 200 at our Cooperative School of Missions sponsored by our Annual Conference Council on Ministries and the United Methodist Women in July at Texas Wesleyan University. The topics were Ecclesiastes, Europe and the United Nations. We had Focus Groups on: John Wesley; Music and Worship; and What does it mean to be a United Methodist? We also had a class on Ecclesiastes for youth taught by Trista Allen, a young adult, and a class in Spanish.

This year, we separated our schools into summer and fall. The fall school was held November 3-5 at Hill College in Hillsboro. We had 131 in attendance so it was a good first start.

UMW sponsored a class at Fall University called "Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow." Donna Paustian, Janie Shipman, Addie Radford and I taught the class. We discussed the organizational and financial structure of UMW while looking to the future of the new structure of UMW.

I would like to express my thanks to the annual conference for their support of me and to the support of United Methodist Women. This is my last time as president to report to you of our work. It has been my honor to serve a dynamic organization that continues to love and care about being in mission and growing in our faith.

Please continue to remember our purpose, help us to grow in our faith and support women, children and youth and our mission all over the world. Thanks for a great year!

Cheryl White Phillips, President

LYDIA PATTERSON INSTITUTE

It is with respect and appreciation that I submit this report of your institution, Lydia Patterson Institute (LPI). In that highly democratic spirit that exists within this connectional system that unites all of us, I wish to ask that you join me in telling the LPI story throughout your conference. It is my wish that every United Methodist in this jurisdiction know of this ministry at work and the many blessings that are revolutionizing the community of El Paso-Juarez. When, in our society, we are faced with problems of drugs, gangs, teen pregnancy, school drop-outs, poverty, etc., LPI continues to provide hope through academic preparation and Christian leadership.

The Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and the University Senate of the United Methodist Church have both reaffirmed accredited status with no deficiencies in our program.

It is with this affirmation that I bring to you a report of substance and vision for LPI. I wish to thank every member of this conference for the apportionments paid during the past year. Without these funds, none of our accomplishments would have been possible. I also wish to ask for your continued support in order that we may be able to reach even greater goals.

The South Central Jurisdiction and Lydia Patterson Institute are making history. For the first time in 83 years, Lydia Patterson Institute is establishing an endowment fund to secure its ministry in the next century. Since 1913, and through the support of the United Methodist Church, Lydia Patterson Institute has established a solid foundation of ministry to Hispanic communities on the U.S.-Mexico border. However, without an endowment, this ministry has faced endless threatening financial circumstances since its birth.

At the beginning of this quadrennium, we began the development of a campaign for endowment under the leadership of Bishop John Wesley Hardt (retired). The goals were set at raising $2 million within all the local churches of the South Central Jurisdiction and $4 million from other sources outside the boundaries of the church.

I am happy to inform you that as of December 31, 1995, a total of $1,185,186 had been raised with additional commitments of $650,000 to be paid out over a period of time. The funds raised in the churches have been invested in their conference foundation. The revenues derived from this endowment have been designated for three purposes: teachers salaries, enhancement of programs and library, and building upkeep and maintenance.

The South Central Jurisdiction has taken responsibility and has raised one-fourth of the $2 million goal. I wish to acknowledge the commitment of Bishop Ray Owen in his two annual conferences. By December 31, 1995, Rio Grande had raised 124% and Southwest Texas had raised 100% of their assigned goals. I feel confident that we will reach our final destination. Led by the hand of God, we will continue to overcome obstacles as we welcome the 21st century. Perhaps Jurisdictional Conference 2092 will judge that the decisions taken in 1992 for LPI were with vision, talent and justice.

As a result of this beginning endowment, I proudly inform you that the first pay increase for teachers has been made effective September 1, 1995. New computers were purchased, old typewriters were replaced with word processors, the library was upgraded with a new computer and on-line resources, a new boiler was installed, visual aids equipment was placed in every classroom, new books have been provided, and a 15-passenger van has been purchased.

We have added English classes for adults during the evening, provided the site for GED classes and Vista Volunteers. We have added summer and after-school high-school classes and collaborated with local agencies for youth programs.

New programs of outreach and community service with our students have been developed. Students serve as tutors in the neighboring elementary school, and they volunteer time in neighborhood community agencies. They form work teams to help in the local UM Churches and at the UM Retreat Center in Sacramento, N.M. For the first time, students are traveling to other parts of the jurisdiction to participate in work camps.

During this past summer, students traveled throughout the jurisdiction to share their language and culture or to help in areas of Hispanic ministry. Other students traveled to different conferences to teach Spanish to younger kids and others simply traveled to talk about their school and the difference that is has made in their lives.

The economic conditions in our neighboring country, Mexico, has definitely affected the El Paso-Juarez area. The constant devaluation of the Mexican peso is a continuing threat to our students. Our enrollment has remained constant, but it becomes harder by the day for parents to meet tuitions. It is at times like these when the mission of Lydia Patterson Institute is best understood. The educational needs and spiritual hopes of our students are greater than ever, and it is our responsibility to see that they do not become victims of the circumstances. In spite of these unfortunate conditions, ninety percent of the students that graduate from LPI continue to enroll in a college or university. Again, we thank God for the beauty of this connectional church and the help of our UM colleges and universities that continue our ministry by providing scholarships for our students. We now have students attending Texas Wesleyan University, McMurry University, Nebraska Wesleyan University, Central Methodist College, and Southern Methodist University. Very soon, we hope to see LPI students enrolled in every one of our UM institutions of the South Central Jurisdiction.

As the only institution of the UMC that ministers to predominately Hispanics, we have a vision of ever greater service to our students as well as the church in general. In recognition of all its strengths in the areas of Hispanic ministry and its service to the church and community at large, the Board of Trustees and this administration have begun the work of a strategic plan that will lead us into the year 2000 as one of the finest institutions of the UMC.

As we move forward with our ministry and we continue to work on our endowment goal and plan for the future, I ask for your prayers. I wish to thank all the Bishops of the South Central Jurisdiction for their leadership and wisdom and for helping us come this far. Mrs. Lydia Patterson had a dream, and you, as members of the United Methodist Church, have added life to this dream by touching thousands of lives. Our goals are within sight, and God has gathered us back together again to celebrate success and His blessings that do not cease.

MOUNT SEQUOYAH

Mount Sequoyah is moving into the 21st Century with new vision, building upon a rich history of more than seventy years. The trustees, staff and supporters are developing an exemplary Christian conference center. The mission for Mount Sequoyah in the new century is to provide excellent opportunities for learning, living and leisure in order to develop skilled church and community leaders.

This is the knowledge age. Those who will give shape and direction to church and culture will be ones who are able to blend the enormous body of contemporary knowledge with traditional values and understanding. Mount Sequoyah has been a gathering and learning place for United Methodists for many years. Resident programs of spiritual and intellectual growth have been a significant experience for thousands who have found new faith, vision and direction at Mount Sequoyah. For many, their lives have been changed. The new vision is to continue these experiences in relevant, contemporary ways.

In 1922, commissioners from the surrounding Annual Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church drafted and approved a charter to establish "The Chautauqua of the Ozarks". They had been given land by the City of Fayetteville and it was their dream to establish a place for learning and spiritual development in the tradition already well-developed in the eastern regions of the country. The founder's vision was of a place like Lake Junaluska in North Carolina which would be more easily accessible to persons west of the Mississippi. Building on the Native American history of the area, East Mountain was renamed Mount Sequoyah after the Cherokee scholar and teacher Sequoyah.

Early programs on Mount Sequoyah included speaking and training events, a College Activities Week, a School of Missions, Evangelism training and courses in Social Service and Temperance.

What began as a campground for primarily summer gatherings was developed into a 30-acre campus with permanent all-weather facilities. As the programs developed, building were constructed, many by volunteers, to meet the needs of the persons who came many miles to participate in the activities. A hospitality staff supported programs led by church leaders.

As times have changed, so has Mount Sequoyah. New needs have called for new programs and facilities. Today Mount Sequoyah serves a broad cross-section of resident programs with groups of 30 to 300. Training and leadership development for The United Methodist Church continues to be a primary function of the institution. And, in recent years, there has been considerable expansion to provide service to educational groups from other churches, schools and community organizations. That which began as a summer campground now has resident accommodations for some 400 persons including a modern cafeteria, auditorium, activity center, meeting rooms and classrooms. Most recently new recreational facilities including a large swimming pool and tennis courts have been added.

In this decade the Board of Trustees has taken bold steps. The board's work included a comprehensive study to develop and implement a strategic plan for program and facility development. The first step in this new direction was in 1993 with the employment of a Director of Program Services to provide coordination and development of new programs. In 1995, the trustees retained and empowered a new president, a nationally-known professional educator with experience in both resident education and conference facility operation. The new president has been given a mandate to develop a staff and facility that can produce relevant new programs while continuing traditional services.

Mount Sequoyah's new president, Dr. Charles Wallace, brings considerable knowledge and experience to this work. A native of West Texas, he is a graduate of Texas Wesleyan and holds advanced degrees from San Francisco Theological Seminary. Before coming to Mount Sequoyah he served for 25 years as President and CEO of United Camps, Conferences and Retreats, a cooperative of six denominations with headquarters in San Rafael, California. In addition to his work in California, Dr. Wallace has served as President of the International Association of Conference Center Administrators and developed that organization's continuing education and certification program. He is a member of the teaching faculty of IACCA and the American Camping Association and is well-know as a leader, teacher and speaker in the field of resident education.

The new century will call for focused specialization. Continuing education will be essential for persons who want to keep pace with our fast-changing world. The quadrennial goal of Mount Sequoyah is to become The Learning Place, an outstanding Christian Conference Center of the South Central Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church.

Charles Wallace, President

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY
Report No. 1
Work of the Board

LICENSING SCHOOL: The Central Texas Conference Licensing School was held at the Catholic Retreat Center in Fort Worth last year. The 1996 Licensing School will also be held at the retreat center from August 11 through 16, and August 24.

JOINT MEETING WITH THE BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY: This year's joint meeting with the Board of Diaconal Ministry focused on how the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Board of Diaconal Ministry can work together to deal with common issues. The meeting was held at First United Methodist Church in Arlington.

Over forty persons attended the gathering.

SPRING INTERVIEWS: Interviews for deacon, elder, continuing probationary candidates, and others were held at Westcliff United Methodist Church in Fort Worth, Texas on March 27-28, 1996. Over seventy persons were interviewed. A debt of gratitude is owed to the membership and staff of Westcliff UMC for their hosting of this important event.

NEW SCHOLARSHIP APPROVED: Along with existing scholarship awards, the Avinelle McWhirter Ogle and the Guy E. and Ama L. Perdue scholarships, The Drummon Scholarship, provided by First United Methodist Church, Waxahachie, The Board of Ordained Ministry Memorial Scholarship, and the Board of Ordained Ministry Honorary Scholarship, a new annual scholarship in the amount of $250 given by Westcliff United Methodist Church, will be presented each year to a deserving candidate for ministry. These scholarships are presented each year at Annual Conference.

Report No. 2

The Board of Ordained Ministry would remind members of the Annual Conference that in 1990 a program of Growth and Effectiveness Review was adopted for use by clergy members and congregations in our conference. As ¶ 444 of The Book of Discipline requires yearly evaluation for all clergy members, we would urge the full participation of each congregation and clergy members in an annual program of effectiveness review and growth.

[1]The Chartered Fund was established at the Christmas Conference in 1784. Once each year the earnings of the fund are divided among all the conferences.

[2]At Unification there was a General Superannuate Fund. One half of it was distributed to the conferences of the South Central and Southeastern Jurisdictional Conferences. The other half was placed in the General Superannuate Fund. This represents our conference's share of annual interest earnings on the General Superannuate Fund.

[3]The Temporary General Aid Fund, a part of the World Service Apportionment of the General Church, helps provide pensions and minimum compensation in conferences which resulted from mergers of geographic and Central Jurisdiction annual conferences. It is reduced each year by an amount equal to 5%.

Superannuate Fund

This fund originated as a result of the merger of the Methodist Episcopal and Methodist Episcopal South Conferences. The principal amount of this fund ($63,986) must remain intact; however, the past and future earnings may be used based upon the conference's wishes.

Report No. 2

Recommendations:

1. In keeping with the requirements set forth in the Discipline of 9/10 of 1% of Conference Average Compensation, we are requesting a past service rate of $366 for 1997.
2. Based on the past service rate of $366 for 1997 we request from the conference the following amounts:

Pension Cash Flow Requirement	$1,497,276
CPP	345,000
Total 1997 Request	1,842,276

In Summary	1996	1997 Request
Pension & CPP	$ 1,642,276	$ 1,842,276
Health Benefits	862,307	662,307
Total	$2,504,583	$ 2,504,583

[1997 No increase over 1996]

NOTE: It is possible for the board to reduce the apportionment requested for Health Benefits as a result of the action of CF&A which has voted to allow the Board of Pensions to use the interest earned from the Health Benefits Reserve, except for $50,000 contributed to the conference annually for administrative costs, to hold down the costs of the health benefits program.

3. The Executive Committee of the Board of Pensions has reviewed the following pension records and requests confirmation of the following records:

Individual	Number of Years Recomm. for Approval	Number of Years Already Credited
Gene Allen	4
C. W. Anderson	2½
Hardin L. Atkins	1
Bruce Baker	1
Ralph E. Cooper	5	2
James Walt Darnell, Jr.	2
Kenneth B. Shultz	1½
Frank R. Williams, Jr.	½
	17½

Of these 17½ years, 2 are already counted.

4. The board recommends that it continue to actively pursue the issue of pension arrearage utilizing a very fair but stringent examination of each situation to determine what steps need to be taken to assure the integrity of the affected minister's future pension benefits.
5. The board recommends the following procedure for dealing with current and future pension contributions:

(1) Each January the General Board of Pensions will be requested to send a list of accounts showing arrearage for the previous year.

(2) Letters will be sent to the following lay leaders of the churches involved: Administrative Board/Council Chair, Pastor/Staff Relations Committee Chair, Finance Committee Chair, and Treasurer. The pastor and the district superintendent will also receive the letter. The letter will emphasize the importance of this issue and urge them to bring their contributions current with money being in the General Board of Pensions office by the June 15 deadline , or apply for a grant if the church is unable to meet the obligation. Application for grant must be in the conference office by April 15.

(3) Each church which does not meet its obligation will report this fact to its Charge Conference and give an explanation. The district superintendent will keep a record of this action.

The board expresses its thanks to Bill Boyd and the members of his sub-committee who administer this facet of the board's agenda. For the information of the annual conference, pension arrearage in 1994 totaled $31,571 and for 1995 $28,230, representing a decrease in arrearage of 10.5%.

We are pleased to report that all of the 1994 arrearage was paid by the local churches with the exception of $14,141. In turn the board considered the request of three churches, granting two of them for a total expended from the pension reserves of $4,722 and denying the remaining request.

The local churches are reminded that pension benefits are in reality deferred ministerial compensation which should carry the same urgency in terms of payment as the monthly salary itself. Failure to pay this pension will result in pastors coming to the time of retirement with no pension benefits or reduced pension benefits. The board feels strongly that if a local church is not able to pay the pension dollars there is a serious question as to whether that remains a financially viable congregation. In fact we consider it to be patently irresponsible for a congregation to "use" a pastor but be unwilling to assure his or her retirement receipts. Bishop Wilson said, "In accordance with ¶¶ 112.1, 717 and 719, The Discipline, 1992, clergy support, in salary and pension, is a church's first priority. A church's continued failure to provide that support is cause for not assigning a pastor to that local church."

6. In the case of Family Leave, the board recommends that the conference make CPP contributions of 3.4% of the Denominational Average Compensation for Full Members, Associate Members, and Probationary Members.

Report No. 3
Life and Health Benefits Committee

The following financial information gives last year's actual activity and the projected activity for 1996 and 1997 in the health benefits program. The 1995 figures are the actual revenues and disbursements through December 31, 1995. We experienced an increase in our reserves from beginning cash balance of $1,986,965 to ending balance of $2,510,985.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT

	Actual 1995	Projected 1996	Projected 1997

Medicare Supplement	108,190	108,000	112,000

TOTAL	$1,607,598	$1,982,570	$2,393,300
Ending Cash	$2,510,985	$2,484,631	$1,656,638

During calendar year 1995, total claims paid were $1,203,097, which is an amount lower than claims paid in each of the prior four years. This better-than-projected experience has resulted in the reserve fund's surpassing the targeted level. Based on these favorable results, we are able to recommend another downward adjustment in both the requested apportionment for 1997 and the corresponding premiums charged the individual participants.

The Committee requests the following to fund the conference Group Life and Health Benefits Plan:

1. Conference Apportionment for 1997 $662,307
2. Comprehensive medical monthly premiums paid by plan participants to be effective January 1, 1997 will be reduced in all categories:
   a. Lay employees, diaconals and clergy with special appointment
      Family $396
      Single 170
   b. Active clergy, retired clergy and covered surviving spouses receiving pension
      Family $198
      Single 85
   c. Clergy receiving equitable compensation
      Family $158
      Single 68

CURRENT COVERAGES

Until this year we have sought cost containment in the plan through ProAmerica's "hospital only" Preferred Provider Organization (PPO); however, effective January 1, 1996, incentives were added to encourage utilization of not only the hospital network but also ProAmerica's physicians. For participants who choose to use out-of-network hospitals and physicians, benefits are the same as last year, i.e., 80% after satisfaction of the deductible(s). On the other hand, utilization of network physicians will result in the plan's reimbursing after-deductible expenses at 90%. Expenses incurred at PPO hospitals will also be reimbursed at 90% after the deductible.

stable levels are these:

- Prescription drug copays have been restructured to steer usage toward generic drugs. Participants should share with their attending physicians the desirability of generic drug prescriptions and/or advise the pharmacist of a willingness to accept generic substitutions.
- Utilization management services provided by Intracorp, Inc. include preadmission review, concurrent review and discharge planning, and evaluation routines that ensure care is appropriate, safe, effective, and rendered in efficient combinations of services. We also subscribe to their large case management services.
- A transplant network is now in place whereby reduced fees have been negotiated for certain transplants should such services be required by any of our participants.
- We have requested the application of "Auto Audit" software to our claims adjudication routine so that provider fees are scrutinized against diagnosis codes and services rendered, which identifies electronically for denial any charges included in the bill inappropriately.

The individual deductible for 1996 remained at $500, family deductible $1,000; the out-of-pocket maximum (after the deductible) remained at $2,000 (individual) and $3,000 (family) excluding certain unpaid costs described in the plan booklet. The wellness benefit continues at $250 annually per person, and participants are encouraged to take advantage of this provision which allows for first dollar coverage of routine physical exams, immunizations, vision exams, cancer detection tests, smoking cessation treatment and weight control prescribed by and under the supervision of a physician. Claims submitted for payment under the wellness benefit should be notated to reflect that intent.

By year end 1995, 64 retired clergy and/or spouses had elected to accept the Harris Medicare Supplement Plan I. Monthly premiums for each of these individuals were increased effective February 1, 1996 to the following amounts:

Age 65-69	Age 70-74	Age 75-79	Age 80-84	Age 85+
$46.53	$58.16	$66.89	$75.61	$78.52

These quoted rates represent the individual's 50% share of the premium. Rates likely will be adjusted upward January 1, 1997 and will be tied to federally-mandated changes in Medicare benefits to become effective at that time.

The Health Benefits Committee continues to hear examples of situations where lay persons employed by a Central Texas Conference church may not be aware of the availability of health benefits through the conference. The local church and any other Conference entity which employs individuals who work at least 20 hours a week must make the employee(s) aware of the availability of the conference's group health benefits. Every employer entity (whether contributing or not to the cost of the employee's health benefits) also has the responsibility to notify the Benefits Plan when the participating employee is no longer eligible.

Participants are reminded of their responsibility (as explained in the Benefits Plan booklet) to submit a change card within 31 days of his or her acquiring a new dependent if the dependent is to be added to the health benefit plan. Change cards are available from the conference office.

Life insurance coverage through the General Board's Basic Protection Plan ($10,000 on the life of each active clergy person; $5,000 for each retiree) continues. Premiums for this protection are paid from apportionments and require no contribution from the insured.

SUMMARY

Claims administration on the self-funded program is still performed by United Health Care Administrators, Inc. (formerly Travelers Plan Administrators). They have worked closely with us to adjust plan design to include measured doses of managed care without threatening the flexibility to which our participants are accustomed. Your Committee is determined to provide comprehensive coverage at affordable rates and feel that these plan changes result in a very competitive product which will serve our participants well.

Report No. 5

Those of us who have served on the Board of Pensions of the Central Texas Conference for the 1992-1996 quadrennium express to the clergy and laity of the conference our appreciation for the privilege and opportunity of serving in this capacity. We are proud of the strides we have made on behalf of pension arrearage, financial viability of the health benefits program, and our improvement in our fiscal position in terms of our unfunded liability.

We specifically offer a tip of the hat to Donna Remus for her loyal and faithful service and to Sidney Roberts and Richard Freeman for their expertise. We also express our heartfelt thanks to Diane Griffin who has steered us so well on the "sea of health benefits" and Country Dean for yeoman service in dealing with our unfunded liability. And as chairperson of the board, I would like to express my own personal gratitude to each and every member of the board for their faithfulness in attendance and their wise contributions through these four years.

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

The Annual Conference Commission on Religion and Race is a body that is represented by someone from every district in the Central Texas Conference, and has adequate representation of women, youth, young adults, older adults, and persons with handicapping conditions. The commission's functions within the Annual Conference for the purpose of monitoring and advocating opportunities to deal with the elimination of discrimination and racism within local churches, districts, boards, agencies, and the conference. Racism is not easy to deal with because our prejudices have been built in through society for a long time. There are times when it is hard for us to be honest to our true feelings, and to recognize that we are a part of the problem and then to work toward being open in how we overcome the fear of racism and to see everyone for who he or she truly is at heart.

Racism is perhaps the most moral issue of the twenty-first century. It weaves negative webs of bigotry, hate, and violence; it makes us all victims in a world view that is marked by greed, wealth, exploitation, and oppression. It makes us all captives in an imprisoning vision that cannot work and servants to an old world order that must be dismantled. The challenge is to find the way toward an inclusive, pluralistic society that celebrates and affirms the gifts and perspectives of all; to engage in redistributing power and resources, and to rebuild a world where racial and economic justice can flow like a mighty stream.

Joseph Barndt
Dismantling Racism,
The Continuing Challenge to White America

Members of the Annual Conference Commission on Religion and Race will be attending meetings of all the conference boards, agencies, commissions and committees to monitor these functions, to encourage multi-racial dialogue of every level in the Church so as to encourage a better understanding of ethnic diversity and heritage, and development and awareness of and sensitivity to the special concerns of ethnic minority groups.

Recommendations for 1997

1. That each local church elect a chairperson on Religion and Race at the charge conference.
2. That the Bishop send a "pastoral letter" to each congregation and pastor affirming his/her commitment to cross-racial appointments as a part of the regular appointment process.
3. That each district superintendent explain the meaning and desirability of an open itinerancy to each charge conference, citing biblical, theological, and ethical authority, as well as the position of the United Methodist Church, encouraging questions, responses, and open discussions.
4. That every local congregation examine their feelings, attitudes, and prejudices about people of different races and cultures, and then plan discussions, study groups, and activities with congregations of another ethnic or racial background, with the desired intent of moving in the direction of commitment to open itinerancy and commitment to inclusiveness.

The South Central Jurisdictional Training Event for Religion and Race is scheduled for January 17-19, 1997. It will be held at the Harvey Hotel at the DFW Airport, in Irving.

Many thanks to the Bishop, Cabinet, organizations, churches, and pastors for those previous accomplishments in the areas of open itinerancy, inclusiveness, and cross-racial appointments.

COMMITTEE ON RULES, POLICIES AND GUIDELINES

Report No. 1

The following recommended revisions to the Standing Rules contain: the paragraph number followed by the recommended change (wording to be deleted is underlined and wording to be added is in bold face type), the rationale for the recommendation and the origin of the proposed revision.

II. CONFERENCE ORGANIZATION

Conference Council on Ministries (ACCOM) Committees:

2.2 Delete (b) as written and replace it with "(b) no later than two weeks prior to the spring meeting of conference program boards and agencies, with the preceding year's general ledger and balance sheet in hand, evaluate for recommended continuation and funding the previous year's programs that meet these criteria and goals;"

Rationale: Eliminating the reference to the "fall meeting" and replacing it with "spring meeting" of the conference program boards and agencies corrects a time line that proved unwieldy and, to some extent, unworkable. The additional wording in reference to the general ledger and balance sheet provides the mechanism by which current program year expenditures and next year funding requests can be accurately gauged and analyzed. The restatement of the committee's charge brings together its equal responsibilities of program evaluation and budget coordination.

(Annual Conference Council on Ministries and Committee on Rules, Policies and Guidelines)

Report No. 2

The Committee on Rules, Policies and Guidelines asks authorization by the Annual Conference to make other routine editorial and non-substantive changes in the conference Standing Rules not related to structure, responsibility or function.

Bill Hix, Chairperson

SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION

Twelve conferences from our Jurisdiction sent teams this year to our Jurisdictional VIM project, Operacion Hogar in Juarez and Chihuahua, Mexico. These were part of more than six hundred persons serving Operacion Hogar this year. More than one hundred homes have been completed for the working poor in Juarez. We mail our VIM newsletter semi-annually to all pastors in the Jurisdiction, and to 900 interested laity.

The Jurisdiction continued its service to its twenty-nine Korean congregations, coordinated by Dr. Won Kie Kim. Cutbacks at military bases in the Jurisdiction have caused membership losses in several Korean congregations, but the churches continue forward with courage and determination. Under Dr. Kim's leadership the Jurisdiction annually sponsors gatherings of Korean United Methodists for leadership training, youth and student rallies and new pastor orientation.

The executive director provided field services in several of the annual conferences this year, including teaching in a conference ministers' school and in a district ministers' enrichment day. The director provided consultative service for vitalization in several local churches, and for conflict resolution in one church. Eleven annual conferences have received field services from the jurisdictional office during this quadrennium.

The Jurisdictional office and the Jurisdictional College of Bishops is co-sponsoring with the Board of Higher Education and Ministry an event to lift up the call to ministry to persons ages sixteen to twenty-five. This event, Explo96, will be at the DFW Airport Hyatt Regency on November 1 to November 3, 1996. We will sponsor events in three locations in 1997 to lift up the call to ministry to persons twenty-five and older.

Jurisdictional Conference is July 14-18 at the downtown Mariott in Kansas City, Missouri. The Conference in 2000 will be in Albuquerque on July 14-17.

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

The commissions's work this past year has again focused primarily on the issue of Sexual Harassment and Clergy Sexual Misconduct. Along with the Bishop and Cabinet, we helped sponsor a one-day workshop on the issue for all clergy, diaconal ministers, and other church professionals in our annual conference.

In addition to that, we have established an Advocacy Team for Victim/Survivors of Clergy Sexual Abuse. Reed Bilz, a lay member of the commission, is the coordinator of that team. We have also distributed to the churches in our conference 10,000 of the "What You in the Congregation Need to Know About...Clergy Sexual Misconduct" brochures, with information about the advocacy team printed on the back.

At present, we are working to accomplish our 1996 goals and have set the following as our goals for 1997:

1. To urge on-going training at the district and conference levels on the issue of Clergy Sexual Misconduct/Harassment/Abuse.

2. To establish an award to honor, each year at Annual Conference, an outstanding lay person and clergy person in the Central Texas Conference. Recipients would be persons who:

- foster an awareness of issues, problems, and concerns of women throughout the church
- redress inequities in personnel, program, policies, and publications
- ensure inclusiveness of women in the total life and mission of the church, especially in regards to power and policy-making at all levels
- empower women to claim responsibility for and take leadership in the mission and ministry of the church

3. To have members of COSROW go into local churches to present the brochure, What You in the Congregation Need to Know...," and to show the video, "Not in My Church."

4. Request each district to use Annual Conference COSROW representatives in their district training events.

5. To continue to sponsor workshops at Fall University that will address women's issues and concerns.

6. To continue to research and analyze the progress of women clergy in the Central Texas Conference.

Statistical Sources and Assumptions

1. All statistics are from the 1995 CTC Journal and the 1996 CTC Worksheet.

2. Statistics go back only as far as the women who are still active in our conference, i.e. 19 years (17 years in local church appointments).

3. Numbers are only for Ordained Elders. The assumption is that these people have all been considered, by the Conference, to have a basic level of competency.

TEXAS METHODIST FOUNDATION

During 1995 services provided by the Texas Methodist Foundation grew dramatically as reflected by the following:

- Total assets under management grew to $128 million.
- Loans to growing United Methodist churches increased to over $80 million.
- Planned giving seminars and resulting permanent gifts to United Methodist churches grew dramatically.
- Discretionary and endowment grants for human service programs made by the Foundation grew to more than $390,000.
- Through our new Stewardship Services Department more than 80 local United Methodist churches received stewardship training, consultation or other assistance.
- Early consultation with churches on their new-building needs continued to grow.

Within the Central Texas Annual Conference, churches and related agencies had approximately $17.6 million on deposit with the Texas Methodist Foundation. Loans from the Foundation to Central Texas Conference churches at year end were in excess of $22.4 million.

The mission of the Texas Methodist Foundation is to provide services related to your financial needs. Sometimes these services may include making you a loan, receiving your investment of funds, serving as your trustees of a permanent gift made for your benefit or directing your stewardship campaign. Other times, the service may be just a brief word of guidance on some future plan. In any event, we want to help you bring about Christian ministries in your community.

May we help you?

LANCE WEBB
December 10, 1909 - September 9, 1995

Lance Webb, a bishop since 1964, was born in Boaz, New Mexico, to a Methodist circuit rider preacher, John Newton Shields Webb, and his wife, Delia Lance Webb, who were pioneer homesteaders in the New Mexico desert.

Bishop Webb's call to Christian service in ordained ministry came while he was at McMurry College in Abilene. There, at 18, he "experienced the call to help bring about spiritual awakening," as taken from his journal records. He spent summers preaching at camp meetings and revivals. He completed his Bachelor of Divinity and master's degrees at Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University in Dallas in 1934. He married Elizabeth Hunt, daughter of James Winfred Hunt, founding president of McMurry College. Elizabeth shared in his long and fulfilling career as a pastor and spiritual leader in the church until her death in 1990.

In Texas, Bishop Webb served churches in Pampa, Abilene, Shamrock and Eastland before he was appointed to a new congregation at University Park in Dallas in 1941. He remained there for 12 years, seeing the congregation grow to more than 2,500 members. In 1953, he became the senior pastor of North Broadway Methodist Church in Columbus, Ohio, and published his first book, Conquering the Seven Deadly Sins, during his first year there. He wrote 12 books for pastors and laity. His more recent historical novels, Escape from Ephesus (Onesimus) and Onesimus, Rebel and Saint, had their origins during his time at North Broadway.

He received honorary doctorates, including Doctor of Divinity, Doctor of Humanities, Doctor of Letters, and Doctor of Literature, from nine colleges and universities. In 1964 the North Central Jurisdictional Conference elected him as bishop of the United Methodist Church and assigned him to serve the Central and Illinois conferences. He served in Illinois until 1976, and then in Iowa until 1980, when he retired as an active bishop. As bishop, he served as chairman of the General Commission on Worship of the Methodist Church from 1964 until 1972, where he led in the writing and preparing of the alternate Text for the Lord's Supper, which is now included in the Service for Word and Table 1 in the United Methodist Hymnal.

During retirement, Bishop Webb served as a consultant on Spiritual Formation with the Upper Room and led Spiritual Formation retreats and seminars, preaching and teaching missions in annual conferences, districts, colleges and local churches across the country. The endowed annual Lance Webb Lectureship given in his name 1976 by the Central Illinois Conference for lectures on Spiritual Formation continues to feature outstanding speakers each year. In 1991, Lance married Marie White, widow of James K. White, the first district superintendent he ever appoint as a bishop.

Lance is survived by his wife, Marie White Webb; his daughters, Rev. Jeanne Davis of Dallas, Texas, Mary Edlund of Plymouth, Minnesota, and Ruth Lindstrom of Kenosha, Wisconsin; two step-daughters, Peggy Harmon and Jean Ammon, and two step-sons, J. Steven White and John S. White; six grandchildren and nine step-grandchildren; one great-grandchild; and his sister, Jewel Hutto.

CHARLES JOSEPH MCAFEE
July 29, 1924 - December 6, 1995

Charles Joseph McAfee was born July 29, 1924 in Corsicana, TX to Leroy and Johnnie Inman McAfee. He graduated from Corsicana High School in 1942 and Texas Wesleyan College in 1949. He did his seminary work at SMU Perkins School of Theology.

On December 29, 1948 he was married to Ida Louise Fields in Corsicana, TX. They were the parents of three children: Zelma Pesce of Rockwall, TX; Jan Rogan of Mesquite, TX; and Charles D. McAfee of Blum, TX.

Charles was first admitted to the Central Texas Conference on trial in 1950. He was ordained deacon in 1953 and elder in full connection in 1955. He entered the retired relationship in 1987 after 40 years of service to the conference.

His ministerial service included pastorates at Dresden Circuit, Haslet, Tehuacana, Troy, Cross Plains, Georgetown, Hillcrest-Waco, Bartlett-Granger, Brookview-Waco, Service Memorial-Waco, First Church-Round Rock, DeLeon, and First Church-Taylor. Charles retired in 1987 moving to his farm in Hill, County, however, he did NOT retire. He began serving as pastor of Watts Chapel United Methodist Church and did so until his death, December 6, 1995, at his farm. I think the highlight of his ministry was the time he spent at Watts Chapel.

His memorial service was held at First United Methodist Church, Cleburne, Saturday, December 9, 1995 at 11:00 a.m. by Rev. Harvey Raines, assisted by Rev. Ruth Huber-Rohlfs and Bishop Joe A. Wilson. Internment was in Watts Chapel Cemetery in Johnson County.

Throughout his ministry, Charles served on many conference, district and local boards and committees in places of leadership.

Charles was member of both the Masonic and Oddfellows lodges for many years. To know him was to love him. The large number of those who came to celebrate his life and ministry verified that truth about his life.

ROSE MASSMAN BARTOS
July 4, 1900 - December 4, 1995

Rose Massman Bartos was born on our nation's celebrated birthday, July 4th. The year was 1900 and she lived more than 95 years in Waco which was truly her home. She was the widow of the Reverend Frank Bartos, Jr. who served several congregations in and around Waco as an energetic and effective pastor. Rose made a significant contribution to that ministry by working with children in every parish and faithfully making pastoral visits with her husband.

At the heart of Rose Bartos was a loving concern and genuine appreciation for all people. She was without prejudice, making it possible for her to see other persons as they really were. It seemed easy and natural for her to include folks of all ages in a warm, caring way. It would be difficult to calculate how many family members and friends were on her "mailing list." That meant that as each special occasion approached - birthdays, anniversaries and "big" holidays - there was sure to be an appropriate card in the mail. Not only were they carefully selected, they would have a handwritten addition with a personal greeting. Usually something simple yet significant to treasure and remember. It was Rose's unique way of conveying love across the miles, keeping friendships alive and vibrant.

Resting on the casket during the funeral service in Waco were six pink roses, placed there at Rose's direction to honor Rosemary and Charles Dulaney (daughter and her husband), Deborah and Gary Butler (granddaughter and her husband), Heather and Christopher Butler (great-grandchildren). As she had often done during her lifetime, Rose had quoted scripture by her actions, reminding everyone that faith is passed from one generation to another by God's grace (II Timothy 1:5). She was preceded in death by a grandson: Chuck Dulaney in 1980.

VERA MAE MOORE BOWMAN
November 30, 1918 - October 12, 1995

Vera Mae Moore was born November 30, 1918 in Mansfield, Arkansas to Rev. Elijah Timothy and Susie Mae Wilhelm Moore. The family moved to the Indian Creek Community in Comanche County, TX in 1929. She graduated from Comanche High School. After attending Draughn's School of Business in Abilene, she returned to Comanche and began dating a hometown boy. Glenn Carroll Bowman was a student at Daniel Baker College in Brownwood, who planned to enter the Methodist ministry. On their first date Glenn told her she was going to marry a Methodist preacher to which she replied, "Oh, no I'm not!" They were married on May 20, 1939, in Comanche, and she returned to her Methodist roots. Her mother was of Methodist heritage and Vera had made her profession of faith at an early age in the Indian Creek Methodist Church, although her father was a Baptist minister.

In June of 1940, they moved with their infant daughter to Rockwood, the first of seventeen appointments they would serve before retiring in Joshua on June 2, 1982. They served churches in Valera, Norton, Oglesby, Palmer, Mineral Wells, Taylor, Meridian, Granbury, Ferris, Fort Worth, Olney, Winters, Coleman, Joshua and Walnut Springs. They celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on May 28, 1989, fifty years after Vera said she would not marry a Methodist preacher.

Vera's love, knowledge and appreciation of the theology and work of the Methodist Church grew through the years. She studied and learned with Glenn as she edited and typed his class notes and papers while he attended Perkins School of Theology. This gave her an appreciation for his ministry and enabled her to participate with him more fully throughout the more than forty-one years of his active ministry. She devoted her life to service through her work in children's ministry, UMW, of which she was a life member, choirs, church offices and other areas where her talents were needed. She counseled at Glen Lake Camp for many summers.

She worked for the Department of Health and Welfare, in retail businesses and as a legal secretary. She participated in community activities and organizations. Their travels, both in the U.S.A. and abroad gave her pleasure and added to her appreciation of beauty, culture and history.

Vera was a very special lady who enjoyed the fellowship of many people. She will be remembered for her love and devotion to the Church and its members. "But the greatest of these is love" and devotion she gave as the wife and partner of a Methodist minister for fifty-seven years and as a mother, mother-in-law and grandmother.

Vera's family was with her when she passed away at her home in Joshua on October 13, 1995. Memorial services were held at the Joshua United Methodist Church on October 16, 1995, with J W Sellers, Leonard Radde and Frank Leach officiating. Interment was at Rose Hill Cemetery in Cleburne.

Vera is survived by her husband, Glenn C. Bowman; daughter, Carol Williams; son-in-law, Robert Williams; granddaughters, Cherie and Christy Williams; a nephew; four nieces; cousins; and a host of Christian friends.

ELIZABETH (BETTY) SHORES GRANGER
February 19, 1908 - July 4, 1995

Elizabeth (Betty) Granger was born to Jim and Madge Shores on February 19, 1908 in Waxahachie, Texas. She departed this life on July 4, 1995 in Waco, at the age of 87. She was a member of First United Methodist of Waco. On June 4, 1935 she married Thomas G. Granger, who answered God's call to ministry and served Christ in many churches throughout the Central Texas Conference. Thomas preceded Betty in death on January 19, 1971. They had two children, Gary Granger of Woodway and Judy Granger Hanson of Waco.

Thomas and Betty were instrumental in the early development of Glen Lake Camp, a place that was dear to their hearts. In response to his deep love and commitment to Glen Lake, Thomas wrote a beautiful song about the camp entitled "The Spirit of Glen Lake." Throughout their ministry in Central Texas, Thomas and Betty brought excitement and zeal to the churches they served. Music had an important part of their lives and ministry, as the entire family became involved in gospel singing.

A Service of Celebration for Betty Granger was held at First United Methodist Church in Waco on July 6, and was led by Reverend Michael C. Voigts and Reverend Richard R. Mang. Burial was in Palmer, Texas.

Betty will always be remembered for her joyous, contagious faith and her love for music and playing the piano. She had a laugh that was contagious, and a smile that could cure any heartache. Even in her final years she was a witness to others. It was because of who Betty Granger was and her deeply-rooted faith in Christ that her family is able to rejoice with the author of Psalm 89: "Blessed are the people who know the joyful sound! They walk, O Lord, in the light of your countenance. In Your name they rejoice all day long. For You are the glory of their strength."

LULA MAE GREGORY PRATHER
August 26, 1926 - October 24, 1995

Lou Prather graced the essence of Methodist parsonages, United Methodist Women's meetings and clergy family gatherings in both the Central Texas and New Mexico Annual Conferences during nearly forty years of ministry with her husband.

Born August 26, 1926, the daughter of Gus and Irene (Windham) Gregory, Lou was educated in the Dallas Public Schools, attended Texas Wesleyan University and married Melvin S. Prather on October 9, 1942 in Grandview, Texas. To this union was born three sons, Ronald, Phillip and Carey, and an enthusiastic spiritual quest.

That enthusiasm was expressed in love for service to Christ and His church. It marked the presence of Lou as she shared in ministry from appointments in the Central Texas Conference to associate and senior pastor positions in the New Mexico Conference and back again to Central Texas. Her faultless smile, energetic spirit and personal faith reached out to encourage.

Retiring to Waco in 1986, Lou and Melvin became active in the First United Methodist Church. She was a life-long member of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Conference Procedure

1.0 The Central Texas Conference shall be organized according to the Book of Discipline (1992 ¶¶ 35, 36) and shall meet annually at the time appointed by the Bishop (1992 ¶ 703.2) and the place chosen by the conference (1992 ¶ 703.3).

1.1 Adjourned or special sessions shall be called in the manner set forth in the Book of Discipline (1992 ¶ 703.4).

1.2 The business of the Annual Conference shall be conducted according to the current edition of Roberts Rules of Order.

1.3 Lay members and alternate lay members of the Annual Conference shall be elected at the Charge Conference for a one-year term to begin on January 1, following their election, subject however, to the Book of Discipline (1992 ¶ 702.4).

1.3.1 To equalize the number of lay and clergy members of the Annual Conference, the following will be members by virtue of the offices held: each district lay leader, each district United Methodist Women's president, each district United Methodist Men's president, each district Council on Youth Ministry president or designee and one additional youth officer appointed by the district Council on Youth Ministry, any chairperson of any Annual Conference board, commission or committee, the directors of the Stewardship, Finance and Administration and Commission on Church Growth and Development (CG&D), and the director and associate directors of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries (ACCOM) who is a lay person not otherwise a member, the conference archivist/historian who is not otherwise a member, and Jurisdictional Council on Ministries, General Council on Ministries and General Church board and agency representatives not otherwise members of Annual Conference; and one additional lay member from the charges of the conference whose membership is above the number, set annually by the conference secretary required to equalize the ratio between clergy and lay members. This figure will be revised annually. The conference secretary will notify each district superintendent by September 1 as to the churches that will elect additional members preceding the next Annual Conference.

1.3.2 Each charge of the Annual Conference is responsible for defraying expenses of its lay and clergy members while in attendance at the conference.

1.4 All matters to be presented to the Annual Conference which pertain to the work of one of the conference boards, commissions, committees, or councils shall be referred to a Legislative Committee of the corresponding board, commission, committee or council consisting of the members of the board, commission, committee or council present at the conference chaired by the chairperson of the corresponding body or designee and shall be reported back to the conference with recommendation for action prior to the close of the conference session, unless otherwise directed by the Annual Conference.

1.4.1 All other papers, resolutions or reports presented to Annual Conference which may not pertain directly to the work of one of the conference boards, commissions, committees or councils, must also be referred to a study committee nominated by the Bishop and elected by the Annual Conference and shall be reported back to the conference with recommendation for action prior to the close of the conference session, unless otherwise directed by the Annual Conference.

1.5 All papers, resolutions, obituaries and reports coming to the conference, not included in the preliminary report, must be typewritten in triplicate and two copies of said report must be in the hands of the secretary before they are presented to the conference. Any reports requiring approval of the Annual Conference, not in the preliminary report, shall be reproduced for members of the conference so that they may follow the report as it is being presented.

1.6 Per diem allowance for each day in actual attendance at Annual Conference will be granted retired clergy, retired diaconal ministers, retired deaconesses, ministers' surviving spouses, pastors receiving a total compensation of, or less than the minimum compensation of the conference, students appointed to attend school and ministers on disability leave.

1.9 Vacancies on all conference boards, councils, commissions, and committees shall be filled by nominations by and selected by the appropriate body. Those persons elected to fill vacancies shall serve the remainder of the tenure of the original member. A person who has been elected to fill an unexpired term of four years or less may be nominated to serve an additional four year term, provided the total tenure does not extend beyond eight consecutive years. However, when the chairperson of the committee has been transferred to another district and, in the opinion of the appropriate body, unusual circumstances require the continued services of such chairperson, the body shall have the right to retain that person in its membership for the remainder of that person's tenure. Such persons shall not be counted as district representatives.

1.9.1 Any member of the conference boards, councils, commissions, and committees who is absent without excuse from any two consecutive meetings of the board, council, commission, or committee shall thereby forfeit membership on the agency and their vacancy shall be filled in accordance with 1.9 above.

Add the above thirteen (13) expenditures for each district to get the "district total expenditure". Multiply the district decimal by each Conference Apportionment to get the District Apportionment. Add the above thirteen (13) expenditures for each local church to get their "local total expenditure". Divide each "local total expenditure" by the "district total expenditure" to arrive at the local church decimal. (Each decimal is rounded off to four places.) Multiply the local church decimal by each District Apportionment allocation to get the Local Church Apportionment. (Each apportionment is rounded off to the nearest dollar.)

Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church

Members of the Council on Finance and Administration, Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Fort Worth, Texas.

I have examined the Summary of Cash Receipts and Disbursements with Cash and Savings Account Balances, of Rev. Richard M. Freeman, Director of Finance and Administration, Central Texas Conference of The United Methodist Church, for the year ended December 31, 1995. My examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly, included such test of the accounting records and such other procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in Note 1, the Central Texas Conference policy is to prepare this summary on the basis on cash receipts and disbursements; consequently, certain revenue is recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statement is not intended to present results of operation in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, since accounting principles require the accrual of income and expense.

As described in Note 2, Summary of Notes Payable - Texas Methodist Foundation, is presented for information only because these items are of interest to the readers of this report in conjunction with the various funds to which they are related. However, the scope of my examination was limited to confirming the outstanding balance as of December 31, 1994 and 1995.

In my opinion, the accompanying Summary of Cash Receipts and Disbursements with Cash and Savings Account Balances referred to above, present fairly the recorded receipts and disbursements of the Conference for the year then ended, on the basis described in Note 1, which basis has been applied consistent with that of the preceding year.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration of the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church

I have audited the accompanying balance sheet of the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 1995, and the related statement activity and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit. The financial statements does not include statement of activity on Glen Lake Methodist Camp, Inc., (a Texas Non-Profit Corporation), which are presented separately as a division of the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church.

I conducted my audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. These standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church, as of December 31, 1995, and the results of its activities and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with general accepted accounting principles.

As discussed in Note 4 to the financial statements, the Conference has possible contingent liability in ongoing lawsuits. The possible loss contingency cannot be presently estimated. Accordingly, the financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of that uncertainty.

CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
REV. RICHARD M. FREEMAN
DIRECTOR OF FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION
NOTES TO SUMMARY OF CASH RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS
For The Year Ended December 31, 1995

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accounts of the Central Texas Conference are maintained entirely on the basis of reported cash receipts and cash disbursements. Therefore, accrued revenue or accrued expenses are not reflected in the summary. Accordingly, the statement does not purport to present the results of operation in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, since such accounting principles require the accrual of income and expenses.

1. Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization

The Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church (the "Conference") is a state level agency of the United Methodist Church. The primary responsibility of the Conference is to serve as a conduit for monies contributed by individual church members through their local churches for the programs of the United Methodist Church at district, conference, jurisdictional, and national levels.

Fund Accounting

To ensure observance of various limitations and restrictions placed on the use of resources available to the Conference, the accounts of the Conference are recorded in accordance with the principles of fund accounting.

Separate fund accounting records are maintained for each of the following activities of the Conference. All unrestricted funds associated with these activities are included in the conference reserve.

Current Funds include unrestricted resources available for the support of various programs and the administration of the Conference.

Custodial Funds represent funds received and held by the Conference as fiscal agent for others and accordingly are included in combined assets offset by deferred restricted amounts.

Unrestricted Fund Balances

The Conference Reserve represents unrestricted funds which are used for future shortfalls in budgeted support and revenue and for emergency and unanticipated needs of the Conference.

Deferred Restricted Amounts

Funds restricted for a particular purpose are deemed to be earned and reported as revenue, when the Conference has incurred expenditures in compliance with the specific purpose. Such amounts received but not yet earned are reported as restricted funds payable.

The Conference participates in the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund, which is a multi-employer plan administered by the General Board of Pensions. This is a defined benefit plan which covers service prior to 1982 for those who qualify for annuity credit. The responsibility for funding past service cost is a liability of the Conference.

The unfunded past service actuarial liability was $ 13,360,528 as of December 31, 1995. The actuarial liability was based on a 3% increase per year on Conference average compensation.

Contributions to the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund for 1995 totaled $ 1,384,489. The Conference approved an additional $ 200,000 contribution beginning in 1997 for amortization of the unfunded past service liability.

Contingent Liability

The Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church is involved in ongoing lawsuits concerning the alleged behavior of Rev. Barry Bailey. The Conference may be found to have substantial liability concerning Gail Cooke court case in which Dorayne Levin has become an intervenor in the case. Insurance companies that insured the church or Rev. Barry Bailey individually have contested that such alleged behavior is not covered by any policies issued.

The possible loss contingency cannot presently be estimated. Accordingly, the financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of the uncertainty.

Cash and Savings

Cash and Savings include money market accounts with the Texas Methodist Foundation.

Property, Plant and Equipment

Acquisitions are capitalized at cost when purchased or at fair market value when donated. Operating funds used for acquisitions and principal debt service payments are accounted for as a transfer to plant funds. Depreciation of buildings and furniture, fixtures and equipment, is provided over the estimated useful lives ranging from five to forty years on a straight line basis. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred.

Church Remittances

World Service and certain other program remittances from individual churches are considered restricted funds. These remittances are for the benefit of third parties not under the control of the Conference and the use of such funds is also not under the control of the Conference.

Funds received from individual churches as for Conference benevolences and Conference service and administration are considered unrestricted funds, but whose use is determined internally by the Conference through approval of the annual budget.

Income Taxes

The Conference is exempt from federal income taxes under the Provisions of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code; therefore, no provision for income taxes has been made.

2. Conference Pension Payable

General Board of Pension Accounts-Deposit Account, Conference Endowment & Trust, Superannuate Endowment

The Conference maintains funds on deposit with the General Board of Pensions, which earned interest income of $ 315,532 in 1995. Such deposits are used to fund the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund-Pre 1982 Service.

Note 1 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization

Glen Lake United Methodist Camp, Inc. (the "Camp") is a division of Central Texas Conference The United Methodist Church (the "Conference"), which are both non profit corporations. The Camp is dedicated to promoting the Gospel by establishing, developing, and promoting all aspects of Conference ministry as it relates to Christian camping and outdoor education.

The Camp is exempt from income tax under Section 501 (c)(3) of the U. S. The Camp has been classified as a publicly supported organization which is not a private foundation under Section 509 (a) of the Code.

Note 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis. The significant accounting policies followed are described as follows:

Classes of Net Assets

The financial statements report amounts by class of net assets.

(a) Unrestricted amounts are those currently available at the discretion of the Board for use in the camp's ministries.

(b) Restricted by the Board are funds received that can be spent for operating and capital improvement projects with approval of the board.

(c) Restricted by Donor are funds received that are restricted for specific capital improvement projects.

(d) Net investment in fixed assets is the amount of resources spent and fair market value of land, buildings & improvements, and equipment & vehicles.

All contributions are considered available for unrestricted use, unless specifically restricted by the donor or subject to other legal restrictions.

The accompanying notes are an integral part of these statements.
See Auditors' Report

Inventory

Inventory consists of food items in the dining hall and ministry related items such as clothing and books for resale. They are valued at the lower of cost or market on the first-in, first-out method.

Land, Buildings & Improvements, Equipment and Depreciation

Expenditures for land, buildings & improvements, and equipment in excess of $500 are capitalized at cost. Donated assets to be used for the benefit of the Camp are capitalized at their fair market value on the date of the gift. Depreciation of buildings and equipment is computed on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets (40 years for buildings, 10 years for furniture & equipment, 5 years for computer equipment, 3 years for vehicles).

Public Support, Revenue, and Expenses

Contributions income is recorded when cash is received or when ownership of donated assets is transferred. Pledges are recorded in the balance sheet when the Camp is notified of the pledge, and allowances are provided for amounts estimated as uncollectible. Bequests are recorded as income at the time the Camp has an established right to the bequests and the amounts are measurable. Additionally, the Foundation may be designated as a charitable beneficiary of wills, trusts, annuities and other unrestricted gifts which will be reflected as revenue and support in the statement of activity in the year realized.

The Foundation's financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting through the application of the policies described below.

Fund Accounting

To ensure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of resources available to the Foundation, the accounts of the Foundation are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified into funds established according to their nature and purposes. Separate accounts are maintained for each fund; however, in the accompanying financial statement funds that have similar characteristics have been combined into fund groups.

A brief description of the various fund groups maintained by the Foundation and their nature and purpose follows:

Interfund Revenue And Expenses

We are each given a special gift to share. Ours is ...

To improve health.

For more than 60 years, Harris Methodist has been providing health care with Christian compassion and love. Thanks to your support, as the health care needs of North Texans have grown, Harris Methodist has grown to meet them. Beginning in the 1930s with a single Fort Worth hospital, the Harris Methodist Health System now encompasses nine special care and general acute care hospitals and one of the fastest growing health plans in North Texas, providing health care services to the residents and communities in 41 counties.
